How to Vote

- 1. Clip this and take it to the voting machine if you are in doubt of its usage. Here's how you vote on election day. Step into the booth and turn the SWITCH LEVER. This closes the curtain automatically and reads the machine for voting.
2. Push one lever for your presidential candidate. This is at the top left.
3. Then select the party of your choice next and push the lever here. These are the very top levers.
4. Now vote for the judges at the bottom of the ballot. Push one lever in the first group . . . three levers in the second group and one lever in the bottom group.
5. Vote for the amendments on the right by simply pulling the yes or no lever in front of each of the four proposals.

ACTUALLY YOU WILL HAVE MOVED 12 LEVERS to complete your entire ballot. It's as simple as that.

TO VOTE A SPLIT TICKET . . . you turn down YOUR PARTY LEVER . . . turn up the lever at the right of the candidate's name you wish to eliminate and TURN DOWN the lever at the right of the name of the candidate for whom you desire to vote for THAT office.

TAKE THIS TO THE POLLS . . . VOTE EARLY to avoid the afternoon rush and do your part in selecting the candidates of your choice in a business-like manner.

The Plymouth Symphony Society is on the verge of bankruptcy. Opening its 1952-1953 concert season this Sunday with less than $100 in the bank, the 62-member symphonic group faces a sharp curtailment of its activities, warned its treasurer, Reverend Henry Walch.

"Right now," Reverend Walch declared, "we face a real dilemma that threatens to curtail or cancel part of the concert season."

Seeking $4,300 in area-wide subscriptions for its concert season without charge to the public, the Society five weeks ago started its annual drive for support that has fizzled down to a near bust.

Just $740 has so far been subscribed, with over $3,600 needed to meet operating expenses that in the face of rising costs threatens to far exceed earlier estimates.

"We are going ahead with the concert season," Reverend Walch said, "on the theory that music lovers will respond wholeheartedly to the need for support."

The first of five regularly scheduled concerts gets underway here this Sunday at 4 p.m., in the Plymouth High school gymnasium.

Two operatic guests from the University of Michigan School of Music will be featured soloists singing Menotti's "The Telephone." They are Dolores Lowry, soprano, and Russell Christopher, baritone.

From the opening bars of the introduction the orchestra faces a real crisis as to its now uncertain future.

"We don't even have enough money to open our second concert," Reverend Walch said, predicting that if support isn't forthcoming Plymouth not only stands to lose its symphony but may "well lose ground culturally."

"The symphony, organized here five years ago, is pointed to by symphony officials as one of just 20 other orchestral groups in the nation belonging to communities the size of Plymouth.

Besides entertaining music lovers here, the symphony also offers scholarships to universities and colleges for "fledgling" musicians and artists throughout this area.

Pending receipt of sufficient subscriptions, the symphony will offer the Messiah this year besides its five regularly scheduled concerts.

Eleven instrumental and vocal artists are scheduled to appear throughout the concert season, ending in April, 1953.

"Up to the present time," said Reverend Walch, "no action on the near bankrupt situation has been taken by the Board of Directors."

He urged subscribers to mail their donations to the Plymouth Symphony Society, Box 99, Plymouth.

Subscriptions entitle donors to all publications of the symphony society.

First Snow Bad For Wheat Crop

Plymouth had its first touch of winter last Monday when the first snow of the season descended to fill the air shortly after noon.

The brisk weather made hunting perfect and killing frosts had reduced the cover so that conditions were nearly perfect. Farmers however had a slightly different view of the cold as many of them were encouraged by last week's rain for their fields of wheat. However as Canton Township supervisor Robert Waldecker so aptly expressed it, "if we don't have some warm days soon I've lost 65 acres of wheat."

In accord with farmer Waldecker were William Grummel and Thomas Gardiner of West Ann Arbor road, both big wheat growers. All say that the present growth is too spotty to last through the winter and because of the drought and now the cold weather they also stand to lose their next year's harvest.

It looks very much like the hunters will have to relinquish a few of their better hunting days so the farmers can have a couple of rains and a few warm nights so winter wheat can get a little firmer stand.

Kirkpatrick stated that the store would celebrate this weekend with a special sale of the people of Plymouth and surrounding area has been very good and we are most appreciative," said Kirkpatrick.

George Schombergers Honeymoon in East

At a nuptial high Mass in Our Lady of Good Counsel church on Saturday morning, October 11, Miss Faye Johanna Fisher and George J. Schomberger were united in marriage. Faye is the daughter of Joseph Fisher of Tawas City and Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Schomberger of Hart-sough avenue are the bride-groom's parents.

The Reverend Father William Mooney officiated at the ten o'clock rites before the altar which was flanked by baskets of white gladioli and palms. Mrs. Felix Cyk provided the organ music and accompanied Mrs. L. Frenzi, the soloist.

Given in marriage by her father, Faye approached the altar in a floor length gown of satin trimmed with Chantilly lace. Her fingertip length veil fell from a cap of Chantilly lace and orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. Angela Thomas was her sister's matron of honor. She wore an orchid ballerina length gown of net with matching slippers and headpiece and she carried a bouquet of yellow roses and bronze mums. Helen Schomberger, sister of the bridegroom, was gowned in green fashioned like that of the matron of honor. She too carried yellow roses and bronze mums. Little Eddie Riess, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

James Fisher served as best man and seating the guests were Leonard Kubitskey, Orville Fisher and Edward Schomberger.

Mrs. Schomberger chose a blue dress with black accessories for her son's wedding. She wore an orchid corsage.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was held in Northville for the wedding party. Nearly 100 guests were present at the reception held that afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rora-bacher, sister and brother-in-law of the bride.

The young couple are honeymooning through the Eastern States. For traveling, Mrs. Schomberger wore a white knitted dress with black accessories and a red rosebud corsage.

They will make their home in Plymouth at 1163 Palmer avenue.

Guild Hears L. LaMont Okey

The trance of words was the topic chosen by L. LaMont Okey, Ph.D. instructor of speech at the University of Michigan for his talk before the Plymouth Theater guild Monday evening.

"The trance of words is the elimination of self in the world of words," he said. "The complete forgetfulness of self in the works of the author who moves you to laughter, tears, or some other emotion."

Dr. Okey read from the Bible, the poems of Kilmer, Frost, Service, Tennyson, Browning and others as well as some prose to exemplify how one can become lost in the trance of words.

Homer Martin is Rotary Speaker

Homer Martin spoke to members of the local Rotary club last Friday noon taking as his subject the Taft-Hartley labor act. He stated that it was the most controversial legislation ever passed in America and that no other law was ever misrepresented so thoroughly or lied about so much.

He further pointed out that actually the present law is nothing more than amendment to the National Labor Relations act which was written as a law solely for the benefit of labor unions. He said that Taft-Hartley doesn't hurt unions but it does reach out for the little man and makes him an individual American.

The program was under the direction of Rotarian Cass S. Hough who introduced the speaker.

Alger Urges Lower Costs, Not More Tax

Fred Alger insists that lower costs of government are not higher taxes — are the answer to Michigan's present financial crisis.

"The State of Michigan, like you and me, can go broke too. And the State will go broke if it keeps on spending more than it takes in," Alger insists.

KEEP MICHIGAN FROM GOING BROKE.

Election Workers Given Instruction
Deputy city clerk J. Rusing Cutler took his election workers to Livonia last Tuesday night to attend a course of instruction sponsored by Wayne County Clerk Edgar Brannigan.

Responsible for all election personnel, Mr. Cutler stated the main part of the program was a sound movie for all election workers in Western Wayne county which was instructional as well as interesting. Every effort is being made by the city to see to it that workers in the various precincts understand their jobs as well as voters when election day rolls around two weeks hence.

Many Attend Square Dances
An enthusiastic group of Plymouth people enjoyed the square dancing held last Thursday evening at the Bird school, under the leadership of Robert Carson. At the close of the evening the beginners group had learned both a couples dance and a square dance. These two dances will be reviewed at the next class and more new ones will be taught. The next meeting for the beginners group will be on October 30, from 8 until 10:30 p.m. All the classes are held in the Bird School gymnasium.

Members of the advanced dance group will have their second dance tonight from 8 until 11 p.m. This dance will also be held at the Bird school.

Persons interested in learning the art of square dancing are cordially invited to attend the dances.

In San Jose, Calif., the State College's police school had a new idea for keeping prospective cops on their toes: a mandatory course in ballet dancing.

Reformation Festival to be Held October 26

St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church will observe its Reformation Festival on October 26, according to Reverend Edgar Hoenecke, pastor.

"Our Reformation Festival observation will be given added emphasis this year through the introduction of our members to the new version of the bible, the Revised Standard Version," said Reverend Hoenecke. "We celebrate Reformation Festival on November 2 in both services. In preparation for the festival and in consideration of the new translation we have changed our program for the previous Sunday, October 26."

On October 26 the service will feature The Word of God, the Holy Bible. The sermon theme and text will be "Thy Word is Truth," John 17: 17. A feature of this service will be the reading of the well-known 23rd Psalm in the original Hebrew, in the beautiful German of Luther and the English of the King James version and the new version. The purpose of this reading is to demonstrate the value of translations. "While the original is euphonious and beautiful, of what good would a Hebrew 23rd psalm be to the Christians of today?" the pastor asked.

On this same Sunday a display and exhibit of odd and old Bibles will be set up in the church. Everyone is invited to bring any unusual Bible, any foreign-language Bible, any odd binding Bible, or any others of interest for the display. Monday, October 27, at 7:30 there will be a Bible evening, feature of which will be a study and comparison of the older English versions with the new version.

"Obviously, there are great advantages in the new, simpler translation; on the other hand, it is questionable whether the new version always translates in keeping with the true sense of the original and in keeping with the body of doctrine, as it has been committed to us in the whole Bible by the Holy Spirit," Reverend Hoenecke remarked.

The Moody Bible Institute film, "Voice of the Deep" will be shown. This lets you hear the voice of the fish and introduces the mysteries of the ocean deeps. "We welcome everyone to come to our church and to participate with us in the Festival of the Reformation especially. If you are interested in becoming a member, please enroll in the adult class for membership, Tuesday evenings, 7 to 8 o'clock at the school," he concluded.

Sermon theme—"Forging the Past." Children's sermon—"Number Three." Senior M.Y.F. is held at 6:30 p.m. each Sunday evening. Our Intermediate M.Y.F. is held each Thursday at 4 p.m. If you are living in Plymouth and without a church home, we cordially invite you to attend any or all of our services. It is not our intention to encourage disloyalty in those who have taken vows in another church but we do urge everyone to seek out some place of worship and endeavor to serve within its fellowship. If for any reason someone is unhappy in a particular church and his finds fellowship with us, we do heartily welcome such but it is our settled opinion that the army of the Lord is not made stronger by its members running from "company to company." We therefore urge loyalty. The United November 2 of the United Evangelical Mission will begin. It will be the aim of this evangelistic effort to reactivate church members, win those who have never made a definite commitment of their lives to Christ and encourage those in our midst who hold their membership in other Methodist churches to transfer their membership to our church and become active participants. The singular thing about this Mission is that the laymen will do most of the interviewing of prospects in their homes. The mission begins on Sunday morning, November 2 and continues each evening at 7:30 through November 7. We were greatly inspired last Sunday morning by the stirring appeal of Dr. Joseph Edwards of Nashville, Tenn. who is directing the Mission throughout the State of Michigan.

Bible School Attendance Up

"Since entering the International Sunday School contest Calvary Baptist Bible school has increased their average attendance by 140 over their yearly average of 202," stated Reverend P. J. Clifford, pastor. "This increase has necessitated the renting of the Oddfellow's hall on Elizabeth street to properly care for the enlarged classes that are now in attendance. At the present time three classes are being held in the Lodge Hall."

"Interest in the contest is increasing week by week," according to Reverend Clifford. "We expect that the Bible School will double its average attendance before the six-week contest ends on Sunday, November 9."

Sunday, October 26, is Neighbor Sunday. "Each family is expected to invite and bring a neighbor to our school," Reverend Clifford said. Special feature of the day will be Evangelist Jack Cochrane and family providing special music and also musical numbers by Earl Davis, soloist and trumpeter.

What is the state of man in the world to come is discussed in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, October 26, under the subject "Probation After Death." The "Golden Text is from I Corinthians (15:56, 57): "The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ." Among the Bible citations is this passage. (Rom. 8:11): "... if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you." Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include: "Jesus' unchanged physical condition after what seemed to be death was followed by his exaltation above all material conditions; and this exaltation explained his ascension, and revealed unmistakably a probationary and progressive state beyond the grave." Grange Cleanings

Our "Booster Night" was a huge success. Those who did not attend missed a really fine meeting.

The "Barber Shop Quartette" from Manchester was on our program and sang several songs that were much enjoyed. Their voices blend together beautifully.

They looked as though they thoroughly enjoyed singing for us as much as we enjoyed hearing them. Their wives were with them.

Then there was a splendid group of young people from Ann Arbor and Pittsfield Granges who did some old time dancing which was really good. They danced to the music of a record player. We certainly enjoyed seeing them going through the dances so gracefully and so perfectly. We were sorry they had to leave so early.

The record player also furnished the music for a couple of square dances for those who cared to dance.

We were especially happy to have quite a few guests as well as the young folks who were on the program. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Ahrens of Saline and others.

Mrs. Campbell is State Ceres, Mrs. Ahrens is an officer of the State Health Committee and Louise Tritton of our own Grange is of the State Home Economics Committee.

The Master, Mr. Hartom, paid special tribute to those of our members who have belonged to the Grange 25 years or longer. There were eight who gave response as their names were called. Mrs. Della Hauk has been a member for 28 years and has held the office of Chaplain for 27 of those years, a good record.

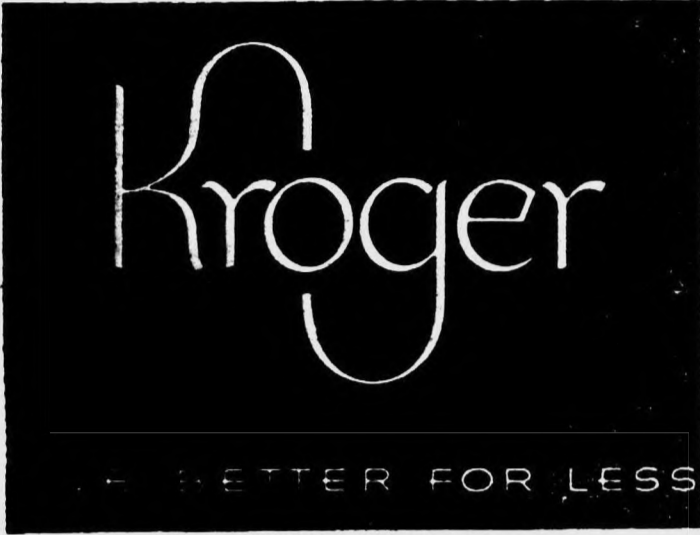

About 75 sat down to a light supper after the program. A very pleasant evening and everyone had a good time.

Mr. and Mrs. Swegles, Isabel Taylor, Ara Fehlig, Blanche Farley, Mr. and Mrs. Rianas, Mabel Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Nash and Mr. and Mrs. Vealey went over to Stoney Creek on Tuesday evening, October 14 to their "Mystery Ride."

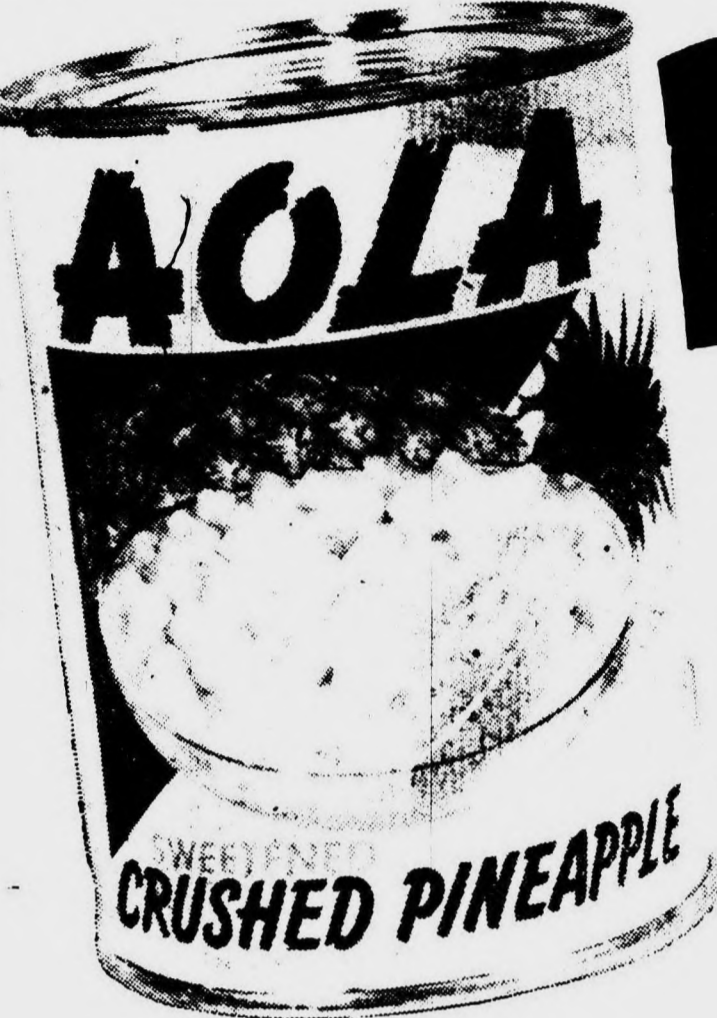

Mr. and Mrs. Rianas spent the weekend at Harbor Springs, going by way of Johannesburg in order to take Mrs. Glenn Northrop to her home there. She has been visiting her daughter in Salem and other relatives and friends in this vicinity for several weeks.

Lisle Alexander On Legion Tour

Fresh from a recent meeting with the National American Legion commander, Lewis K. Gough and world-wide committees of Legion leaders at headquarters in Indianapolis, Indiana, Eugene N. Houck of Lansing, state commander of the Legion in Michigan, will conduct with his staff a grass roots tour of the Upper Peninsula beginning Monday, October 21.

Participating in the tour in addition to the commander will be past state commander and National vice-commander, J. Adlington Wagner, Battle Creek attorney; state adjutant Lisle Alexander, Plymouth; membership director, William Wise, Lansing; state activities director Lloyd Hendon, Flint; state child welfare chairman, Fred Rogers, Detroit; and state public relations director, Victor Benjamin, Dearborn.

Designed to promote the Legion's new policy of "More Work-Less Fun," commander Houck will emphasize during the seven day motorcade to more than 7,000 Legionnaires representing fifty-seven posts in "The Land of Hiawatha," the four basic programs of the American Legion — rehabilitation, child welfare, national security and primarily today, Americanism.

I see where some folks in Europe who want our aid don't want our advice. This proves money talks . . . and they don't want any interruptions. The idea seems to be that we're too concerned about how our hard cash is spent.

There is a theory wandering around loose that the U.S. has more money than it knows what to do with . . . so we ought to be happy to be relieved of some of it without worrying about what happens to it. Maybe it's our own fault for being so generous . . . if that's a fault. Looks like the easiest way to be left alone is to make a loan.

We'll have a lot to be thankful for this Thanksgiving. By that time all the political speeches will be ended, and we'll be able to speak to strangers without getting into an argument. State Bar Meet to Call For Judicial Changes Michigan's outdated judicial system may come in for a complete overhaul or be subject to radical changes at the annual convention of the State Bar of Michigan, meeting in Grand Rapids October 30.

This was announced recently by Lester P. Dodd, of Detroit, president of the State Bar Association. Subjects on the agenda include: 1. Retirement of judges when eligible under the tenure law. 2. Election of a chief justice of the State Supreme Court instead of rotating the present members. 3. Submitting a constitutional amendment to give Michigan the Missouri plan. 4. Increasing the salaries of the Supreme Court justices from $18,500 to $25,000 a year and the circuit judges from $9,000 to not less than $20,000. Under the Missouri plan supreme and circuit judges are appointed by the governor from a list submitted by a committee consisting of three laymen, three members of the bench and three lawyers, all selected by the State Bar.

The governor's appointee to the bench, at the end of the term to which he is appointed, then would submit his candidacy to the electors. The question submitted to the electors would read: "Shall he (the appointed judge) remain in office?"

If the voters said "yes," then he would assume a life job. An adverse vote could remove him from office.

Ex-Britisher Now Local Resident

"It's wonderful, America is a land of milk and honey." That was the commentary this week of a forty-three-year-old Britisher, Joseph Arnison—a recent arrival here from Chislehurst, England.

Arnison came to Plymouth about 12 weeks ago with his wife, Mary and two children, Christopher and Robin. They arrived in New York on June 21.

"I have already taken out my first papers," Arnison said, indicating that he is establishing permanent residency in the United States.

He is currently employed as a Plymouth and Northville sales representative for the Hoover company.

However, he says, he hopes to get a job more closely allied with his earlier profession, that of a director of documentary films.

Shortly before leaving England, he said, "I directed a documentary film now being shown nationwide throughout England on the 'Detection and Treatment of Tuberculosis.'"

For 25 years prior to this time Arnison said he had been employed by the British Civil Service.

He was sponsored under immigrant laws by his brother, Leonard Arnison of 1408 Penniman avenue, a General Motors executive.

Arnison resides at 9840 Currie road.

In Santa Monica, California, ex-Actress Judith Barrett, suing for divorce, charged that millionaire husband Lindsay Howard, a member of the "Vikings Club," always fought a losing battle to uphold the club motto: "A Viking can always drink one more."

YOU CAN'T KEEP A GOOD MAN DOWN writes Al Hubbs, well known local electrician, who is recuperating in St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor from injuries received several weeks back in an automobile accident near Grand Rapids. In a note to his friends in Plymouth through the columns of The Mail Mr. Hubbs asked that we convey his most sincere thanks for all of the many nice things that have been done for him and his family while he has been ill. He further states that doctors say he will be as well as ever if he will be contented to stay in the hospital until such time as they deem it advisable to give him a release. The picture is proof that he looks fine and is well on the way to recovery, and as for remaining in the hospital he says, "I certainly had a very close call but the good Lord was with me and I am more than content to stay here until things are all back to normal."

Warn of Need For Diphtheria Booster Shots

The need for diphtheria booster shots was cited recently by State Health Department officials who pointed to rising numbers of diphtheria cases in the state.

Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the department's bureau of disease control, said large-scale immunization has reduced diphtheria to its lowest point in state history.

"While this is all to the good, if we want to keep it that way we have to make an intensified effort to keep immunization on levels up," Dr. Leeder warned.

He pointed out that when people are not constantly exposed to the diphtheria bacillus, they lose their artificially induced immunity faster and must be more vigilant about keeping up strong defenses against the disease.

So far this year 28 cases have been detected by health officials. Reports showed that in 1951, only 48 cases were reported statewide. In 1945, the state had 630 cases. As a result a large scale immunization drive was started.

1900-1950 Shown in State Report as Healthiest Fifty Years on Record

Between 1900 and 1950 Michigan's population almost doubled and its death rate dropped 16 per cent.

Recording it as Michigan's healthiest half-century on record, the State Health Department in a 74-page, statistically crammed report pointed out that "old age" illnesses are now the major cause of death because of the great increase of people in the older age groups.

Dr. F. S. Leeder, state epidemiologist, said that people now live longer because childhood deaths and communicable diseases have been reduced to a small fraction.

The major killers now are illnesses that hit older age groups through weakened hearts and hardened arteries.

But on the life-saving side, Dr. Leeder said, antibiotics, "miracle drugs", preventive medicine, better trained doctors and bigger and better hospitals have almost conquered diseases.

The report shows that Michigan's population increased from 2,420,962 in 1900 to 6,371,766 in 1950, the birth rate increased more than 25 per cent, the death rate dropped 36 per cent, the infant death rate declined 84 per cent and the maternal death rate all but disappeared.

Vital statistics show that for the 1900 period there were 23,295 marriages, 2,435 divorces and 43,699 live births. In 1950 those figures had jumped to 58,180 marriages, 15,978 divorces and 160,055 live births.

Significant statistics also point out that in 1950 exactly 1,680 died following auto accidents. In 1910, the first time any auto deaths were recorded, 49 persons lost their lives.

Disease of the heart, cancer, apoplexy, accidents, pneumonia, and influenza, diabetes mellitus, arteriosclerosis, tuberculosis, immaturity, and nephritis and nephrosis are listed as the top 10 killers.

The 10 causes of death at the turn of the century were diseases of the heart, tuberculosis, pneumonia, diarrhea and enteritis, accidents, cancer, apoplexy, nephritis, typhoid fever and bronchitis.

Seven of diseases that were listed in 1900 as major causes of death are still, in 1950, listed among the top 10 killers.

The major causes of death of persons over 34 years of age in 1950 was listed as "due to diseases of the heart." Under that age peak, the majority of deaths were caused by accidents.

Comparable causes of death and fatalities for 1900 and 1950 are as follows:

Illness	1900	1950
Diphtheria	329	2
Scarlet Fever	272	1
Smallpox	9	0
Typhoid Fever	869	5
Whooping Cough	208	28
Measles	342	28
Pneumonia	2,388	1,358
Heart Diseases	2,836	20,521
Cancer	1,460	8,685
Tuberculosis	2,500	1,270
Premature Birth	620	1,096
Diarrhea	2,337	138
& Enteritis (Under 2 years of age)

Car of Future Seen Propelled by Gas Turbines

Purring, "nugget" sized gas turbine engines are slated to propel automobiles of the future, says a University of Michigan scientist.

Professor Frank L. Schwartz, of the College of Engineering, recently told the American Society of Civil Engineers in Chicago, that smooth-running, space-saving gas turbines are suitable and adaptable for propulsion of road vehicles.

In making his prediction, he noted that "two suitable applications of gas turbines have appeared to date. The Rover turbine has actually been installed in an automobile and the Boig turbine has been successfully used to propel a large truck."

No vibration and the possibility of using a large variety of fuels, Professor Schwartz said, are among the many advantages offered by small "gas" turbines.

He also listed as advantages the elimination of a clutch, the fact that electrical ignition is required only for starting and that a transmission with only one speed change and a reverse.

The light weight of the turbine engine is a major feature.

"As much as 3,000 pounds can be saved on weight of engine and transmission if a gas turbine instead of a large Diesel is used in a truck," he declared.

"Small installation space and few parts make the gas turbine engines look feasible for the future," he said. "It requires 90 per cent fewer parts than the average reciprocating engine and these are easily maintained."

"No external cooling system is required and the engines have a clean exhaust."

Not mentioned in the talk was the high cost of turbines now being built. This, he explained, is partly because it includes development cost and involves small production.

He predicted, however, that costs will eventually be reduced to that of a reciprocating engine.

Pension Groups Asked by Vets to Honor GI Loans

Governmental pension groups this week were urged by commanders of Michigan's Veterans' organizations to invest substantially in GI home loans to permit war veterans to take advantage of federal lending policies.

Ben Levinson, president of the Michigan Mortgage company made the proposal as a result of a meeting with the veterans groups.

Levinson asserted that ex-GI's virtually are blocked in their attempts to build homes with GI loans, because the investment market will not touch the guaranteed home loans.

During the Lansing meeting, he contended that pension groups have millions of dollars invested in government securities which "could just as well be invested in GI loans and federal housing administration loans."

As an example, he pointed out that Detroit Common Council alone has $4,000,000 of pension monies invested in government securities.

Wayne county, he said, has already invested in GI home loans to some extent.

Burned up

-about $2,000,000 prison riots
-about special favors to special groups?
-about Governor's "Commie-coddling"

-so are we!

RECENT PRISON RIOTS cost you and your fellow Michigan citizens about $2,000,000! The supervisor of Michigan State Prisons—appointed by the Governor—and the Governor himself, failed to act in time to prevent these costly riots. Later, a "truce" was made with the surly prisoners and YOU bought them steak, ice cream and other favors for their promise to be "good boys" in the future!

WHO CONTROLS OUR GOVERNOR? Find out who ordered him to open the prison gates for a goon-squad leader convicted of destroying property. Find out who ordered him to veto the "Good Roads Program" to take Michigan out of the mud. Find out who ordered him to veto the loyalty board charter amendment to Detroit's city charter and told him not to let the legislature consider anti-communist laws in a special session.

THESE SPECIAL GROUPS can get favors and privileges from the Governor's office because they "control" the Governor. He owes allegiance to them because they are the back-bone of his support. They are not interested in what is good for the State of Michigan but only in what will further their own ambitions and lust for power. These groups are controlled by a few men who dictate policy and act as political advisors to the Governor. They are responsible to nobody but themselves. This secret political bossism in Michigan must end!

SURE, YOU'RE BURNED UP! Well, do something about it, this time! Get Michigan State Government back in working, do-something order! Show them you mean it, by voting straight Republican . . . on November 4th!

Look what a FEW EXTRA DOLLARS will buy

WE'LL be the first to admit that you can buy a car for less than the price of a Buick.
But not so much less as most people think.
And just to save those few extra dollars, you'll miss a fortune in fun.
For the few extra dollars you pay for a Buick, you get the ginger and thrill of a lot more power than you'll get in any other car of its price and pounds—plus the big mill-gallon figures of Buick's famed high-compression V-8 Engine.
You get size and room and looks to do you proud—comfort you'll hardly believe—and that good sense of security that only ample weight can impart.
You get the all-coil-spring ride that a million dollars couldn't duplicate. You get handling, steering, braking, turning—all with an ease that women especially appreciate.
We could go on at length about a lot of other things, including a fair-sized list of items you get in every Buick but which cost extra on lesser cars.
But why go on? The fun and fine feeling and wondrous comfort you enjoy in a Buick are things you shouldn't be missing for just a few extra dollars. And the value—you just can't pass that up.
Got a little time to drop in and let us prove our points? Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Chairman William Wood of the Plymouth rationing board yesterday stated that the Plymouth High school, the Northville high school and the Redford Union high school will be utilized for the registration of people who use oil for heating purposes. Plymouth's oldest retail store, a grocery that has served this community continuously for 75 years, The Gayde grocery on Liberty street, will within the next few weeks close its doors permanently. Its owner, Albert Gayde, son of Peter Gayde, the founder, because of illness, has decided to retire, and his decision makes necessary the termination of a business that has become a landmark of the community.

Superintendent George Smith began the preliminary work necessary to determine what Plymouth school children will do in a real school-time raid. Tuesday all grade school children were dismissed early to determine how long it would take them to reach home.

The Plymouth Defense Council met Tuesday afternoon at the city hall. It was decided that the funds resulting from the sale of Plymouth scrap from now on should be used by the Plymouth Defense Council and the Plymouth Salvage committee for the purchase of necessary civilian defense supplies for the city and the township.

First sessions of the eighth annual session of Plymouth's School of Religion will take place at the Presbyterian church in Plymouth on Monday evening with a fellowship supper being served.
