Dunning's Celebrates Expansion

A newly expanded Dunning's department store will hold its opening celebration Friday and Saturday, March 20 and 21. The store at 500 Forest is owned by Miss Margaret Dunning.

Now double its former size, Dunning's has 6250 square feet of selling space. Salesmen have told Miss Dunning that her store is the largest department store in Wayne county outside of Detroit.

The entire interior of Dunning's has been redecorated. The store is divided into three main departments, women's ready-to-wear, infants' and children's wear, and dry goods.

For employees a kitchen and lounge were placed in the rear of the store. Two offices are also in that portion of the building.

The second floor at Dunning's is used as a storage area. This large area is reached by a newly installed electric storage elevator.

Miss Dunning announced that gifts would be given to all who attend the expansion opening. Visitors will be serenaded by the Hammond chord organ, and will be given the opportunity to try their hands at playing as well.

The management of Dunning's has arranged to have Dick King, who is regularly at Blunk's on Fridays and Saturdays, play favorite tunes for all guests.

Another convenience to be found at Dunning's is the widened aisles. Five carpeted fitting rooms are also offered, all fitted with new drapes.

THESE LOCAL SOCIAL LEADERS representing the Plymouth Woman's Club will spear-head the Red Cross Drive in the city this year. Making plans for the forthcoming drive which will open March 23 are left to right, Mrs. Marvin Terry, Mrs. Harrison Moore, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Mrs. Eugene Crosby, Mrs. Jack Selle and Mrs. Murray O'Neil.

Assistant Prosecutor Buys Demel Residence

Ralph Garber, chief assistant Wayne County prosecuting attorney purchased the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Demel on Territorial road, it was learned early this week.

The Garbers will move their family to the new home on May 15. Mr. and Mrs. Demel have at present no definite future plans other than to find an apartment in this area.

Red Cross Funds to be Solicited March 23 to 27

March 23 through 27 are the dates set for the collection of Red Cross donations, announced Mrs. Harrison Moore, chairman of the 1953 drive. During those five days members of the Women's club, sponsors of the drive, will canvass homes in Plymouth and Plymouth township to solicit funds.

Mrs. Moore was aided in setting up the territories for the collections by the executive board of the Women's club.

The national Red Cross drive has a goal of $93 million, with Plymouth's goal set at $2,160. Mrs. Moore said that Plymouth "should go well over the prescribed goal this year."

Red Cross funds go for many services both to the armed forces and at home. The program includes helping servicemen and their families, providing blood for soldiers and others who need it, aiding disaster victims, bringing hope to bedridden war veterans, and many other services to those in need.

A new addition to the Red Cross services this year is a gamma globulin blood program. Gamma globulin is used as a weapon against paralyzing polio. The Red Cross has undertaken the expansion of its defense blood collections to provide the maximum amount of globulin possible.

This year alone it will cost the Red Cross $7 million above its other budgetary requirements. "Collections, which will go for these services, will be made throughout the day, March 23 to 27," Mrs. Moore said. She requests that residents be ready to answer the call.

The Plymouth branches of the National Bank of Detroit have offered to accept the contributions solicited by the Women's club members. "We are very grateful to them for this much needed help," Mrs. Moore said.

Dean Saxton Named Massey-Harris Dealer

The appointment of Dean F. Saxton of Saxton Farm Supply as a Massey-Harris Farm Equipment dealer in the Plymouth area has just been announced by L. G. Lindsay, Columbus branch manager. Mr. Saxton has been in business in this area for the past 16 years. He will handle a wide selection of the full line of farm machinery and specialized garden machinery which Massey-Harris manufactures.

The Library Book Club will meet with Mrs. Henry Walch Tuesday evening, March 24, at 8 o'clock. Dr. John MacIntyre will show pictures of his recent trip through the West.

Voters Here to Poll on Judgeship Four Commission Posts on April 6

Just 18 days remain before seven municipal candidates receive from the electorate here "votes of confidence" that will elevate four of them to city commission seats and one municipal judgeship.

Both offices are challenged by newcomers cutting their political teeth locally for the first time. They are George Witkowski, owner of the Plymouth Dental Laboratory and Sheldon J. Baker, tool and die maker for the Daisy Air Rifle company, both seeking to unseat two of four incumbent city commissioners. The incumbent commissioners are Mayor Russell M. Daane, Henry Fisher, George T. Bauer and Ernest Henry. Seeking the lone judgeship post on the April 6 election date will be Clifford H. Manwaring, local attorney. He seeks to win the post from incumbent Judge Nandino Perlongo.

Locally, the spring election is not expected to see a heavy voter turnout. Since the primary on February 16, when just 152 went to the polls, less than 10 persons have sought voter franchises through the city clerk's office.

Two of the incumbent commissioners undoubtedly will be re-elected without challenge inasmuch as there are just two opposing the four incumbents. Unopposed at the polls will be Norman Marquis for city representative to the Wayne county Board of Supervisors. Marquis sought the post after City Commissioner Eleanor Hammond declined to seek reelection again, naming "home making" and "commission duties" as her reasons.

Symphony Group to Hold Annual Meeting Friday

Helping townspeople and the Plymouth Symphony Society "to get better acquainted" is the theme of an annual business and potluck dinner to be held at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow, starting at 7 p.m.

Open to the public without charge the dinner will be provided by the society, Mrs. Margaret Hough, publicity director said Tuesday. Members of the 62 piece orchestra will be hosted as guests during the annual affair. Selected members will furnish musical entertainment.

Seven nominees during the annual meet will be officially elected to board of director posts to serve during the 1953-1954 fiscal year of the society. Nominees for the offices are William Slinger, Jack Taylor, Harper Stevens, Mrs. Elizabeth Augustine, Mrs. Dorothy Swope, Mrs. Michael Huber and Mrs. Robert Mills.

Retiring board members are Reverend Henry Walch, Alvin Taylor, Mrs. Eleanor Balfour and one other member appointed to fill a vacancy, Nat Sibbold.

Kiwanis Calls For Rummage

Don't throw away that broken down rocker, old winter overcoat, discarded bookcase, long underwear or brand new "Christmases" neckties! The Plymouth Kiwanis club will gladly take them off your hands!

In a plea for any and all discarded items Ralph Seyfried, chairman of the Kiwanis Rummage Sale committee, said that he is setting his sights high in this year's second annual sale event for the underprivileged children of the Plymouth area. "Although the sale will not take place until next fall, we're starting now to collect anything we can get," said Seyfried. He added that anyone with items to give can call either himself, at Seyfried Jewelry, or Marvin Terry at Terry's Bakery. As a parting word, Seyfried urged everyone to "Help Kiwanis Help the Needy!"

Winter Tax Levy Collections Set at 96.3 Per Cent

A total of $313,446 in winter taxes was collected in Plymouth up till March 1, City Treasurer Charles Garlett said Tuesday. This figures as a 96.3 per cent collection of a total winter levy of $325,578.

Since tax rolls have been turned over to the county, persons here who collectively still owe $12,132 must now pay their tax directly to the Wayne county treasurer, Garlett said.

Unpaid tax bills, delinquent since January 20, will show an initial four per cent penalty levied against the taxpayer with one-half of one per cent added during each succeeding month. Garlett said persons wishing to pay the delinquent tax must wait for 30 days before requesting their bills from the county while auditors complete their check of the rolls.

Collections here dropped off 1.1 per cent over the 1952 summer tax levy of $203,119. A total of $199,929 was collected within the legal time limit. Winter tax rolls were turned over to the county on March 1. Totalling $24 per $1,000, some $18 go to the schools with the county getting $6 of every 24 mills.

Fisher Agency Changes Location

Announcement was made this week by Roy A. Fisher, proprietor of the Fisher insurance agency, that his office will be newly located in the Professional Building at 905 West Ann Arbor trail. The move will take place this weekend. Fisher said, and the agency will be open for business on Monday, March 23.

This marks the first change in location for the Fisher Agency since it was started by Mr. Fisher 18 years ago. Dealing in general insurance, Fisher has been located at 293 South Main street. At the same time it was announced by Howard Stark, Realtor, that his office at 831 Pennin will be moved to the old Fisher location on Main street following remodeling sometime in April.

The Allen Extension group will hold their next meeting on Thursday evening, March 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Leon Scharmen of McClumpha road. A lesson on horticulture and pruning shrubs will be given by the leaders, Mrs. Harold Barnes and Mrs. Willis McCabe.

Members Hear Story of Army's Beginning

Members of the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution met at the home of Mrs. C. H. Bryan of Northville on Monday, March 16. Dr. Colton Storm of the Clements Library in Ann Arbor was the guest speaker and chose for his subject, "From Lexington to Fallen Timbers," which was an account of the formation of the first United States Army.

Following the meeting, tea was served with Mrs. Harry Deyo pouring.

Township Tops City In Valuation Increase

The city's dollar value for levying 1953 taxes has been set at an estimated $13,741,000.

This unofficial figure released Monday by City Assessor Kenneth E. Way shows an assessed evaluation gain of approximately $190,000, which, though not official until confirmed by the Board of Review, is not expected to fluctuate more than a few thousand dollars either way.

Actually, as compared to 1952, the city is suffering a heavy setback as far as gains in anticipated revenues for the 1953-1954 fiscal year are concerned. In 1952, the total evaluation jumped $1,404,220 as compared to the $190,000 figure for this year.

Crux of the poor showing in valuation gain is due to the severe dropoff of personal property evaluation which was cut nearly $350,000 when Allen Industries vacated their plant here in favor of a Detroit location and when Plymouth Stamping company moved into the adjacent township.

A broad look at the tax structure here shows that real property made up the personal property deficit with evaluations added this year mostly on new homes and business or home improvements.

Generally, city officials were surprised that the city's taxable evaluation met last year's figure of $12,551,770. It was predicted nearly a month ago that evaluations would drop off by an estimated $200,000. That, however, failed to materialize in the face of the unofficial tabulations.

Experts will tell you that when an industry is removed from an urban tax table it takes a lot of new houses to keep the city from suffering revenue setbacks. That, in short, is what happened here to a degree. When Allen Industries and Plymouth Stamping moved the $350,000 difference in part was made up through assessable new buildings constructed in the past year. It takes approximately 125 to 150 houses to equal the $350,000 loss.

The $13,741,000 assessed evaluation of the city is the table used for levying the 15 mill summer and 24 mill winter tax. The city gains nearly 60 per cent of its operating revenues from the summer tax levy.

In the face of high costs and a revenue increase that may not exceed $3,000 over the 203,109 tax revenue during the 1952-1953 fiscal year, it means the city will be hard put to expand city services and carry on needed municipal improvements.

Discussions, according to a reliable source, indicate that city fathers are warm to the whole idea of another round of salary increases for city employees to bring wages closer to par with the current costs of living index. It is not known at this time whether or not the $3,000 increase in anticipated revenues will permit salary schedule changes. The city annually pays out about $200,000 for its employees' salaries.

Contrasted to the stunted revenue gains anticipated here, Plymouth Township Supervisor Charles Rathburn said last week that early tabulations showed evaluations in the township to have jumped by over $2,000,000 giving the areas fringing the city a total 1953 evaluation close to $25,000,000. Actually, this may be more than double the city's total worth. City Manager Albert F. Glassford in his 1952-1953 budget report said "the real property assessments in the city remain at a level approximately 10 per cent above those of other Wayne County communities except Detroit and Highland Park."

The assessment table was hiked here when City Manager Harold Cheek first took over administrative reins. The assessment rate increase allegedly was slapped on homeowners as one means of helping develop city streets, converting gravelled, swayback ridge roads to paved thoroughfares. Nearly half of the residential streets here remain unpaved.

Alert 300 Here to Sewer Project Levies of $31,000

Some 300 homeowners here were this week alerted to two storm sewer projects on which they will begin paying special assessment levies after March 24. "We want to make clear to those persons who will be billed for construction costs just what they are paying for," City Manager Albert F. Glassford said. The sewers are called Edison and Hamilton reliefs. They will serve the east central and south-east portions of the city at a total construction cost of $31,000.

Public hearings at which interested home owners may ask questions and air any controversial aspects of the sewers' construction will be held at the city hall in a special session before city commissioners. March 23 has been set for discussion on the Edison project beginning at 7:30 p.m., March 24, starting at 7:45 p.m., is the time set for the Hamilton project. City Manager Glassford warns that the first of 10 special assessment payments will be levied against the property owners when the projects are finally approved on these dates. The levies are made on the basis of the area served and not on a flat front footage rate. Assessments will be made against homeowners living inside these project boundaries: Hamilton relief: From 190 Main street north and east to C & O Railway on south side of street. From 226 and 233 Union street north and east to Main. From 450 West Ann Arbor trail east to C & O Railway. From 445 Maple street east to Fairground. This includes all properties on Hamilton and Roe streets. Edison relief: From Burroughs all south lots between South Main street and Coolidge. All east lots from 905 to 1181 South Main. All west lots on Coolidge south to end of street. This includes all properties on Dewey, Roosevelt and Harding streets south from Burroughs to the end of each street.

City Golf League To Start Soon at Idylwyld Club

Polish off that 5-iron and start practicing throwing the putter—it's city golf league time again. The call for golfers was made this week by Charles Wolfe, secretary of the league, who announced that this year, for the first time, play will be conducted at Idylwyld on Five Mile road. As usual matches will be played on Wednesday evenings with tee-off time set for between 5 and 6 p.m.

Although league play doesn't begin until April 29, Wolfe urges both individuals and teams wishing to take part in league play to contact him as soon as possible. A limit of 20 teams has been made, he said.

The qualifying round of nine holes to establish a league handicap must be played at Idylwyld by April 22. Players may phone Wolfe at 1270-W or see Ed Wingard at Davis & Lent.

City Adds Another 1,300 Square Feet to Central Parking Lot

The Central Parking lot is going to expand another 1,300 square feet. Commissioners Monday approved acquisition of the desired strip bordering the south side of the parking lot after John H. Jones, of 936 Ann Arbor trail, agreed to accept 50 cents per square foot for the land.

The property will be used to "straighten out" the parking lot line. It will provide facilities for parking two to four more cars. Acquisition now completes expansion of the parking lot. The city has sought the controversial property strip since last September, threatening at one time to condemn the property as a "public necessity."

Set Program of Choir Concert for Henry Walch

Plans are now complete for the choral concert to be given by the chancel choir of the First Presbyterian church to help the Dr. Henry Walch finance his trip to Europe and the Holy Land this summer. The concert, to be presented Thursday, March 26, at 8 p.m., will feature secular as well as sacred music, said director Fred C. Nelson.

The 38-voice chancel choir will begin the program at the church with "Let Every Tongue Adore Thee," by Bach. This will be followed by "Emjtte Spiritum Tuum" by Schuckty, "Madame Jeannette" by A. Murray, and "There are Such Things" by Margo Foster.

There will be selected solos by tenor, F. Earl Reh, which will be announced later. The men's choir will sing "You'll Never Walk Alone" by Rodgers and Hammerstein. A tribute to Romberg will be sung by the choir, along with "Soon Ah Will be Done," "There is a Balm in Gilead," both by Dawson, and "Give Me Your Tired, Your Poor" by Irving Berlin.

Soloist Nat Sibbold, baritone, will take the spotlight with "Di Provenzo" from "La Traviata" by Verdi, "Song of Songs" by Youmans and "Ol Man River" by Kern.

Winding up the program the chancel choir will present "Salvation is Created," "Ho! Everyone that Thirsteth," soloist Merle Huntington, "Go to Dark Gethsemane," "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" with the solo part being sung by Nat Sibbold.

To help Dr. Walch finance the trip a free will offering will be collected the evening of the concert. The members of the choir have undertaken the concert to show their appreciation for all Dr. Walch has done for them in the interest of good music, Fred Nelson said.

There will be a card party on Saturday evening, March 21 at the Grange Hall. Refreshments will be served. The committee in charge will be Mr. and Mrs. Toles Mr. and Mrs. Huebler, Mr. and Mrs. Hartom and Mrs. Louise Hutton.

New Plymouth Store

A new Gamble Hardware store will open here Friday, March 27. The store, situated at 620 Starkweather, is owned by Roy Stone of Northville. Stone also operates a store in Northville.

The store will be part of the Gamble-Skogmo chain which have stores throughout the United States, Canada and the Philippine Islands. An added feature of the Plymouth store will be a bicycle repair shop.

Stone said that details of the grand opening will be released next week.

Guests Approve Fireside Lounge

The opening of Hillside Inn's new dining room and Fireside Lounge was not only a most successful affair last weekend but it also proved an outstanding social event for the city.

Sprinkled freely through the two rooms during the three day event were seen most of the city's social leaders who took advantage of the affair to dine out or entertain small groups of their friends.

Facilities of the inn were taxed and at most times long lines of people were waiting to secure tables in the flower banked dining room and bar. "The enthusiasm of our guests for the inn was far greater than our highest hopes," stated Mrs. Margaret Stremich.

Club Celebrates First Birthday

Members of the Soroptimist club of Plymouth will celebrate the first anniversary of the local organization this evening at a banquet in the Veterans Memorial building. Members of the patron club in Berkley will also attend.

The local club held its installation banquet just a year ago at the Mayflower hotel. Since its organization, the club has purchased a wheel chair and a hospital bed which are loaned to persons in the Plymouth area in need of such equipment. Club members also furnished toys and other equipment for the children at Maybury Sanatorium. Mrs. John Henderson is president of the club.

City Spurs Study of Reciprocal Heating Law

A proposed reciprocal heating ordinance that would standardize installations with those of 50 other cities throughout the metropolitan Detroit area is currently under study here by City Manager Albert F. Glassford and the City Attorney Harry Deyo.

The latest thing in heating ordinances was referred to the two officials Monday night by City Commissioners. Adoption of the reciprocal ordinance was urged a month ago by John M. Campbell, chairman of the Plymouth heating examining board and a member of the Detroit heating council.

Campbell said the uniform code would eliminate possible confusion and improper installations caused partially by a multiplicity of heating codes that vary from city to city.

Adopted by the city, heating contractors here as well as those elsewhere operating under the standardized code could make installations.

Campbell is the owner of John M. Campbell, Inc., heating contractors. In making his plea before commissioners he was representing other local contractors favoring adoption of the code as well as the reciprocal heating board of which he is chairman both for the Plymouth and Livonia areas.

Bill's Market Installs New Walk-in Ice Box

Milton Orr, proprietor of Bill's Market, 584 Starkweather avenue, announced the installation this week of a new 200 case capacity, Warren cooler walk-in ice box in the store. The new equipment will enable the store to have cold beer on hand at all times for the convenience of customers.

Madonna College Plans Weekend Retreat

A retreat for married women will be held at Madonna college this weekend, March 20-22. Women wishing to participate are asked to make arrangements as soon as possible. Please contact Sister Mary Paula, Dean, by calling Plymouth 528.

County Offers to Pay Lion's Share of $30,000 Starkweather Recap Job

Starkweather avenue from Main street north to the city limits may get a $30,000 facelift with blacktop paving providing the city puts its final stamp of approval on a plan submitted Monday night to commissioners by Wayne County Road Commission.

Under the plan the county would pay some $23,000 for the two inch recap that would cost the city just $7,000. The county proposes to pay outright for a 20 foot blacktop strip up and down the center of Starkweather sharing on a 50-50 basis with the city the cost of laying the remaining widths on either side.

The plan submitted at the commission's bi-weekly meeting was referred to the city manager for study. It will be reported in at a later date for decision following a profile study of actual costs and submitting of specifications.

It is not known at this time whether the recap will be paid from general funds or the cost levied against homeowners whose property abuts the project improvement.

Mac J. Donnelly, above, was named this week as sales manager of Otwell Heating & Supply Company, by Owner Williams C. Otwell. See story on page five, section four.

Mrs. Mabel Wevrich of Toledo, Ohio spent from Tuesday until Friday of last week with Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Brown of Sheridan avenue.

Optimists Guest Girls' Quartet at Last Meeting

The Plymouth Optimist club, at its regular meeting March 16, in the Mayflower Hotel, was very pleasantly entertained by a flute quartet, composed of girls from Bentley High school in Livonia. The quartet has achieved an enviable record in this area, having won a high rating of 1, in a District Music Festival held in Ypsilanti last month. The girls are: Marilyn Pickles, Jo Woolweaver, Karen Benson, and Pat McCreadie.

The quartet presented several fine selections including "The Mocking Bird," the composition on which they won top honors in the district festival.

The club also announced its decision to sponsor jointly with the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, a program to raise funds for the City's 1953 Christmas lighting and decorations. A new 1953 Packard car will be given away on July 4th. The proceeds from the activity will be used to defray the cost of the Christmas lighting and decorations.

Arden Sackett and Bert Allen are chairman and first assistant respectively, of the Optimist committee in charge of the event.

Weekend guests in the W. D. Brown home on Sheridan avenue were their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stetson and family of Lansing, formerly of Royal Oak. Mr. Stetson who was formerly with the Motorola office in Detroit is now office manager of that company's Lansing division.

Youthful Handler Receives First Place Award

Bairon Lee Stader, 11-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Cleo Stader of Hix road, won first place in the handling class at the Genesee County Dog Show held in Flint on Sunday, March 15.

Approximately 20 boys between the ages of 8 and 16 entered this particular class. Bairon worked with Stader's Up An At-Ohm boxer.

The dog received a fourth place rating at the show held in Flint and prior to that time he received a third place award in the show held in Detroit on March 1.

Kiwanis Hears Farris Singers

The Farris Singers, a choral group of 10 men and women, entertained members of the Plymouth Kiwanis club at its weekly meeting Tuesday evening. Director of the chorus is C. L. Farris.

Among the selections offered by the Ypsilanti group were "Ring the Bells," "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes," "Sit Down Servant," "Stardust," and a melody of songs from the production "Carousel."

As an added attraction for the occasion, St. Patrick's Day, Ray Schultz sang "Mother Machree." The group was presented to the Kiwanians by Wendell Lent, program chairman.

Sibbold Warns Against Non-Verified Solicitors

A warning against fly-by-night photographers who make promises they do not keep, was issued this week by Nat Sibbold, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce.

Sibbold said two persons here allegedly have been bilked by "persons who make promises they don't intend to keep."

He urged persons in doubt of an organization's "business intent" to contact proper crediting authorities for verification before making commitments either by mail, telephone or in person.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne H. Clement of Ann Arbor are the proud parents of a nine pound, two ounce son, Melbourne Harry Jr., born on March 14. Mrs. Clement is the former Catherine Renner of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stobbe announce the birth of a daughter, Barbara Irene, born in St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor on March 13 and weighing nine pounds, one ounce. Mrs. Stobbe is the former Mary Livingstone.

Mr. and Mrs. James Robertson of Holbrook avenue are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter, Janice Dae born in Garden City hospital on March 7 and weighing seven pounds, 12 ounces.

Word has been received from Private and Mrs. Ronald A. Glass of Lorado, Texas, on the birth of a son, Ronald Alvin, Jr. He was born on March 4 and weighed seven pounds, three ounces. Private Glass is stationed with the Air Force in Texas and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Glass of Holbrook avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon E. Taylor of 402 Pacific avenue are announcing the birth of an eight pound, two ounce son at Beyer Memorial hospital, Ypsilanti on March 16.

Miss Nancy Worth, a student at Michigan State college in East Lansing, will arrive home Saturday for her mid-semester vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Worth of North Territorial road.

PIONEER WINS

No wonder Pioneer is the favorite hybrid of Michigan farmers. In addition to winning the '52 Official Michigan Hybrid Corn Trials with an all-time high yield of 147.4 bushels per acre—Pioneer also holds the highest and second highest yields in both the two and three year averages for the past three consecutive years—1950-51-52. No other commercial hybrid even closely approaches Pioneer's outstanding yield record. For maximum profits from your 1953 acreage—see your local Pioneer salesman today. Educators Laud Group Camping as New Found "Tool" While 200 Ready For Five-Day Outing

The unofficial school for some 200 Plymouth sixth graders between April 27 and May 15 will be nature's own classroom—the great out-of-doors.

Going on the theory that nature herself is no mean slouch as a "teacher", school officials here are booming a move to put their youths in what they call a "natural environment for learning."

The idea, perhaps, harks down the annals of time to the "back to nature" theory of the French philosopher, Jean Rousseau, who authored "The New Heloise", a romantic novel that awakened an enthusiasm for a return to nature of the recognition of rights and training of children.

But whatever the situation, for nearly four months now an anticipative 200 youths have been pre-planning their educative camping experience. Right now groups in each of the elementary schools are working jointly with their teachers in setting up menus, study plans, recreational activities besides coordinating the myriads of equipment that will go with them to Island Lake Group Camp.

The Island lake camp, situated just outside Brighton and located on secluded Forest ridge overlooking the Huron river, has a real outdoor atmosphere. Besides being a 2,800 acre game preserve, the camp is the site of the five-day-long camping - educational project for each of three groups from the sixth grades here.

Actually, said Superintendent of Schools, Russell Isbister, the camp is an "extension of the classroom into the out-of-doors. It's a natural environment for learning."

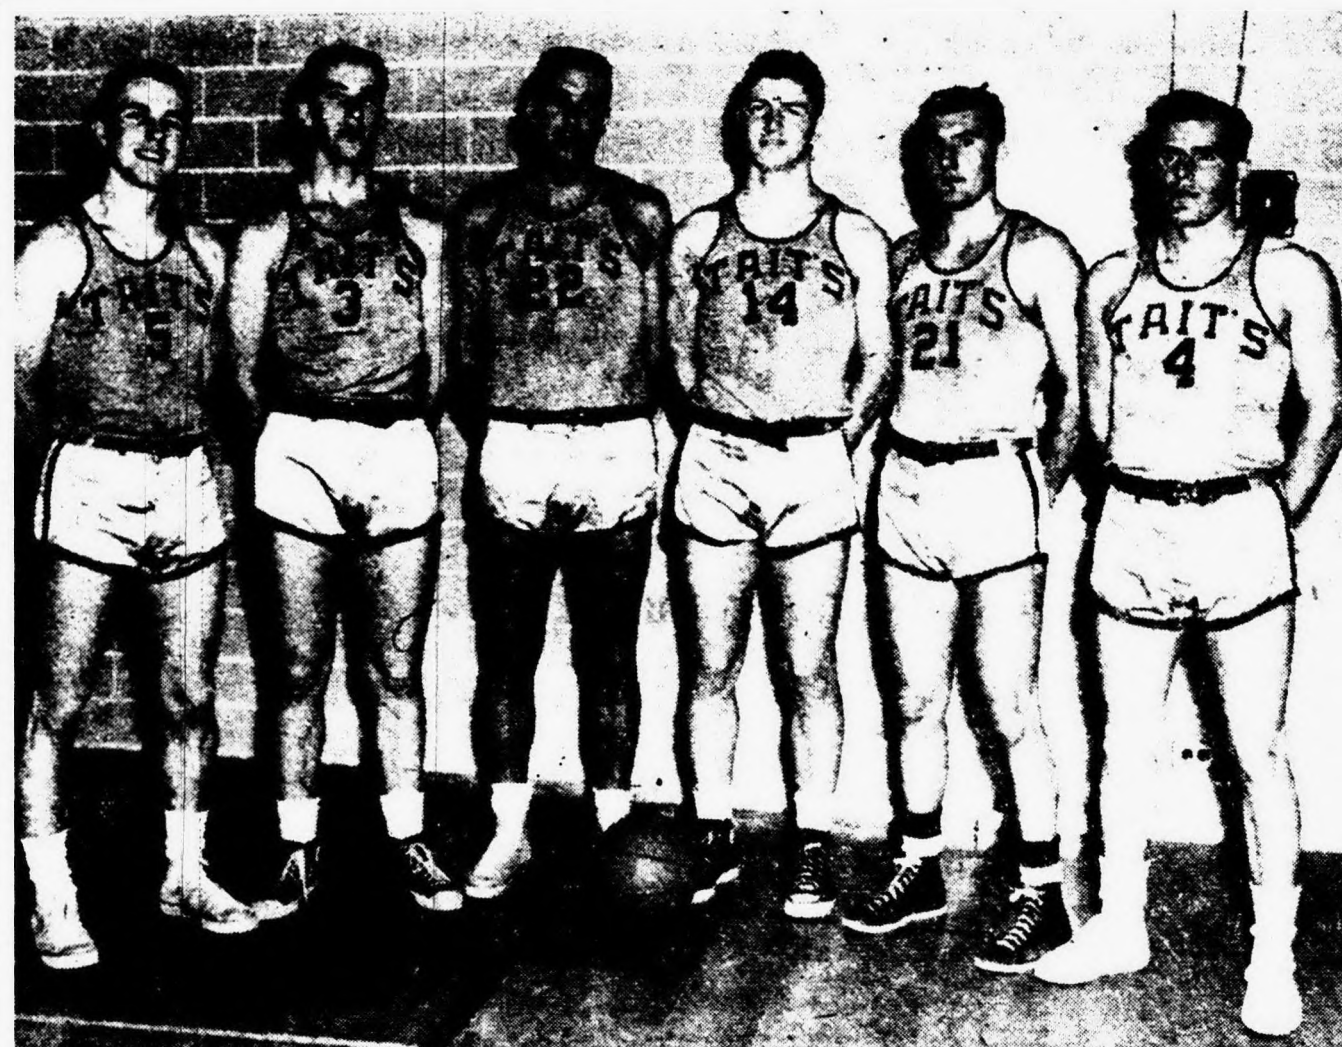

Concurring with Superintendent Isbister is Arnold E. Pytkas, camp coordinator and physical education instructor for the elementary schools.

"I look at it from a standpoint of education and democratic living," Pytkas declared. "Children learn by doing and actually participating in the activities," he concluded.

A full, rounded program has been promised the youths who will get glimpses of nature in action through a study of animal and plant biology, soils and glacial deposits, audubon studies besides conservation, woodcraft, firearms control and lectures from guides taking the group on field trips.

The camp has all the aspects of delighting even a truant in submitting gracefully to the educational process. Its physical facilities consist of 20 cabins with downy type bedding and equipped with electric lighting. It has a large dining hall boasting a gas range, a walk-in electric refrigerator and hot and cold running water.

Each cabin accommodating eight youths will be under the guidance of a counselor from the school or a college or university trainee receiving counselor training.

THE ABOVE SIX MEMBERS OF THE TAIT CLEANERS team in the Men's Recreational league are highly favored to annex their second straight league title. Even though they were defeated last Tuesday by Capitol Shirts 81 to 58, they will be champs if they defeat the National Bank team tonight. If they lose, a playoff game with Capitol will be necessary to determine the team to represent Plymouth in the State Class B Recreational Tournament which will be played in Plymouth and begins next week. Reading from l. to r. above are: Mac Pierce, Bob Dank, Paul Bush, Keith Ebersole, Alvin Schlage and DeWayne Becker.

It is here, where youths are closely associated with each other during the five days, that educators laud the new found educational "tool".

"When a teacher is closely associated with the youths he teaches, a new understanding of individuals is fostered," said Mrs. Nancy Tanger, principal of Bird Elementary school. "The children themselves," she declared, "learn to live, work and play together and learn how to give and take."

Last year 35 students from Bird school who went to ISGC for the time formed a pilot study group paving the way for the 200 following this year. Much of the credit for what was called a "successful experiment" last year goes to Miss Kathryn Bock, a sixth grade teacher from Bird school under whose direction the camping movement here flowered.

Group camping is not a new arrival on the co-educational scene. Pilot studies were made some 12 to 15 years ago with grants from the Kellogg Foundation and the State Department of Public Instruction.

Here, in just one short year, the whole project planning has become an educational "switch" where menus for 15 meals while at camp are studies of nutrition, as an example, and the adding of calory components a lesson in arithmetic.

"It is the preplanning and the camping experience itself that helps strengthen teacher-student relationships and quite often bears fruit when a student displays a talent that isn't shown in the classroom," Superintendent Isbister pointed out.

The five-day camping project will cost each student between $5 and $7—perhaps less than it costs to feed the growing, continually hungry sixth grader. Some enterprising students have already met part of that fee through group projects where profits were realized by such things as coat hangers and bake sales.

Accompanying the groups on the project will be six teachers in charge of 11 or 12 students each. A cafeteria chef from one of the schools will assure the campers of balanced diets.

Michigan Bell Reports 1952 Record Year

Dean A. Simpson, branch manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, announced that Michigan Bell had a record year for everything in its business during 1952 except its return on investments.

In the company's annual report President Clifton W. Phalen cited a return of only 6.4 cents on each dollar invested in the business—no improvement over the year before despite the 1952 rate increase. For the last seven years, he said, the return has averaged only 5.1 cents on the invested dollar—less than half the average earned by other major industries with which the telephone business must compete for investment money.

A gain of 93,000 telephones during the year was reported with a total of 2,045,000 now in service. Eighty-three per cent of the families in areas served by Michigan Bell now have telephones, compared with 55 per cent 10 years ago.

The company spent $40,000,000 on new construction to improve and expand its service during the year. Eleven new buildings were completed, 10 others were started.

Number of employees reached a new peak of 24,500. They were paid wages amounting to $88,530,000.

Company costs per telephone averaged $6.38 per month, an increase of $2.52 over 1940, the report showed, while revenues climbed only $2.19 per telephone per month during the same period.

Rate increases since 1940, the report said, "have averaged 27 per cent compared with a 91 per cent increase in prices generally."

Dollar-wise, the company's net income amounted to $19,221,592, an increase of nearly $990,000 over 1951 but applicable to an average of nearly $14,000,000 more capital.

Serve Pork Chops a La Hawaiian

Range top or oven you have your choice in cooking pork chops. There are innumerable ways for varying their serving when prepared by either method.

The basic steps in cooking pork chops to develop their full flavor is as follows: place the chops in a frying pan and slowly brown on both sides in their own or small amount of added fat. Season, then cover closely and slowly cook until done, about 1 hour.

Chops a la Hawaiian is one variation. To prepare this dish, brown the chops as usual, then place a pineapple ring on each. In the center of each ring place a pitted prune. Add just a little water, cover and cook slowly for one hour either in a 350 F. oven or on top of your range. You will find the fruit flavors combine well with the pork.

Hungarian chops present another change. First, dredge the chops with flour, then brown them on both sides. Season and sprinkle with paprika until they are quite red. Scatter caraway seeds over the chops and add 1/2 cup of water. Cover and cook.

THANK YOU...

We at Fisher's, wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks to each and every one of the many friends who visited us last week, during the formal opening of our new store. Your wonderful reception exceeded even our fondest expectations.

Due to the large number of visitors, we may not always have been able to devote to each of you our fullest individual attention, for which we hope you will accept our humble apologies. However, with our larger staff, you can be assured Fisher's will strive always to give you the finest in footwear and the friendliest, most attentive service possible.

Again, our deepest gratitude to all.

Bishop Tells Churches' Role in Society Today

In spite of heavy rain last Sunday, 40 persons turned out to hear Bishop Marshall Reed speak at the Methodist church. The occasion was Loyalty Sunday.

Speaking on the theme, "A Letter to the Churches" Bishop Reed warned that humanity is approaching the breaking point, and that the churches must not let it break. He stated that the churches must shoulder the responsibility of demanding the establishment of a sane social order.

Bishop Reed stressed that the initial step toward the rebuilding of morale can be followed up only if these harassed people are convinced that the churches are not content to confine their interest to merely first aid measures. They should be ready to go on to demand a society in which such unbearable loads will not be imposed, he said.

That matter is found to be unstable in human experience is shown in the Lesson-Sermon to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, March 22, under the subject of "Matter". The Golden Text is from 1 John (5:21): "Little children, keep yourselves from idols." Among the Bible citations in this passage, (Isa. 43:12): "I have declared, and have saved, and I have showed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the Lord, that I am God." Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include: "The human mind has been an idolater from the beginning, having other gods and believing in more than the one Mind." (P. 186)

Reverend Charles D. Ide, field representative of Olivet Nazarene college, Kankakee, Illinois, will appear in the Church of the Nazarene, Holbrook at Pearl, on Wednesday, March 25, the Reverend E. T. LADYWOOD HIGH SCHOOL was dedicated Sunday by His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney at a formal ceremony. The modernistic school, conducted by Felician Sisters, has an enrollment of 170 students. The latest of educational conveniences are found in the school's cafeteria, kitchen, library and home economics laboratory.

Cardinal Mooney Officiates at Dedication of Ladywood School

The Order of Felician Sisters formally dedicated the Ladywood High school Sunday afternoon. His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney officiated at the services. The dedication of the new school marks another step in the services the Felician Order has done for the community. The school was opened in 1930 with 45 students. By 1931 it had tripled its enrollment, and today there are 170 students enrolled at Ladywood. The school is a part of Madonna college, in that both are conducted by the Felician Order. Fifty priests were present at the dedication as well as some 300 visitors. Local pastors included Father William Mooney, Father John Conway, of Rosedale Gardens, Father Thomas Beahan of Farmington, and Father Ed-

More Gas Given To This Section Choir to Sing in Detroit Service

The Michigan Public Service Commission authorized Consumers Power company to provide natural gas space heating service for 20,000 additional customers. The company filed a petition January 28 asking such authority. A hearing before the commission was held February 16.

The 20,000 customers to be connected for space heating service will be chosen on a priority basis determined by the chronological order in which applications are or have been received from waiting lists containing the names of about 40,000 applicants.

Consumers officials said the company will send a letter to each of the 40,000 applicants for space heating service within the next few days asking if they still wish to obtain gas heating service. Those who reply, within three weeks, that they do will receive a certificate of approval if they stand high enough on the priority list to be included among the 20,000.

"Only 20,000 customers can be connected under this authorization," said Dan E. Karn, president of Consumers, "and under the commission's order we must select these customers in accordance with the priority of their applications. Space heating service remains restricted, and we will not be able to provide this service for any customer except those who receive a certificate of approval from the company."

Applicants who receive certificates of approval will have 90 days in which to install gas space heating equipment. If in this period the customer does not arrange for the installation of such equipment, his name will be dropped from the approval list and a new applicant chosen from the priority list, Mr. Karn said. Commenting on Mr. Karn's statement, David L. Brown, Division Manager of the Southeast Division, stated, "All applicants in this division will be notified in the order of their priority. The division covers big areas in West Wayne, South Macomb and South Oakland counties, together with the Pontiac district including the city of Pontiac. It will not be possible to issue permits to everyone presently on the list; however, more than 800 will be issued to those in the West Wayne district."

Jimmy: "Why don't an Indian wear feathers on his head?"
Betty: "Why, I suppose to keep his wig warm."

The choir of the Plymouth High school has been invited to take part in the Lenten services at the Central Methodist church in Detroit. The invitation was extended to the choir by Dr. Nellie Huger Ebersole, director of sacred music for the Detroit Council of Churches.

The 55 students will travel to Detroit on Thursday, March 19, to sing at the church. The noon service is non-demoninational, put on by the Detroit Council of Churches.

Fred C. Nelson, director of the choir, announced that they will sing "Oh Sacred Head," by Bach and "God So Loved the World" by Stainer. The choral group will also take their organist, Jon Blake, to accompany in the selections.

The Grand Opening of Hillside Inn's newly decorated dining room and its new Fireside Lounge last weekend exceeded the highest expectations of the management and all of the people of our organization in the enthusiasm shown by you, our customers on this gala occasion.

We were naturally, extremely proud of our new surroundings but we were much more pleased to have the wonderful reception and reaction from the hundreds of people that were our guests on the days of our opening.

The fact that our entire system was new and that many of our facilities were in use for the first time presented some hardships and because you were so kind to bear with us in straightening out these difficulties we are most appreciative.

We can assure you it is our intent to bring you the finest in foods and beverages in the most comfortable surroundings. Everything here is designed for warmer and closer hospitality such as Hillside has been famed for over the years. We shall do everything in our power to maintain our superior quality and service during the months ahead.

Your continued confidence in Hillside will be more than appreciated and we assure you each visit shall be even more delightful. Serving your dining demands is our objective and we shall do everything humanly possible to make your every visit more pleasant than the last.

Trade Rules
Printed in 1952
May Still Apply

Some rules for tradesmen published in the Grand River Times, Grand Haven, in 1852 may still apply.

According to the copy of the newspaper in the Michigan Historical Collections at the University of Michigan, an unknown writer suggested to tradesmen:

Trust nothing to speculation and avoid all paper money schemes to deceive the public and uphold a false credit.

Acquire a neatness and dispatch in everything you do; yet avoid the affected bustle, cringing smile and vulgarity of some tradesmen.

Talk to your customers like a man of sense and business, not like a mountebank.

Never trade beyond your stock or give or take too large credit. Better slip a bargain now and then than buy a greater quantity of goods than you can pay for.

Crudity of creditors is always in proportion to the dishonesty of debtors.

For the first five or six years of business, a tradesman ought to consider himself as worth nothing, or as having no money which can be taken out of the business and spent on the luxuries of life.

Profusion in expenses, living like your neighbors and mimicking the manners of high life are paths which lead directly to bankruptcy.

Be firm and moderate in your price. Fix a price and never depart from it.

Plymouth Youth Tries His Hand As Disc Jockey

"It's fun to be a disc jockey for awhile, but I don't think I'd want to do it for a living." That was the reaction of Bill Moore, 43840 Joy road, to his 15 minute spot on Ed McKenzie's radio show, Monday.

Bill, a senior at Plymouth High school, got on the 4:30 p.m. show by writing McKenzie a letter expressing his desire to be a guest disc jockey. McKenzie, better known by his former title "Jack, the Bell Boy," mentioned over his WXYZ program that he would be glad to guest anybody who would like to be a record spinner. Bill took him up on it and wrote a letter. The result—an invitation to appear on the show.

"I wasn't nervous before or during the show," Bill commented, "but I sure was shaking when it was all over."

When asked what he said between records, Bill admitted that he did not know. "When I adlib," he said, "I never know afterwards what I said." He added that he will find out when he hears a recording of the show. He did remember that he worked a plug for the Plymouth High school senior play into his conversation over the air.

During his 15 minute part of the program, Bill played four records. One was a Japanese record "Blues in Rhythm", which a friend of Bill's brought back from an overseas stint in Japan. He also played one request by Louis Armstrong. Aside from that he chose his own recordings.

Though Bill is interested in radio and speech work, he said he wouldn't want to be a permanent disc jockey. "The work is too tedious," he said, "listening to the same records day after day."

On graduation in June Bill will enter Central Michigan college of Education, to prepare himself for "what may be a teaching career." If he does decide to teach, Bill would major in speech courses. "I may divide on an active radio or television career, however," he added.

WITH PLYMOUTHITES IN THE SERVICE

Brief items of interest about Plymouthites in the services are welcomed in this column, providing the information does not conflict with press security policies.

Lt. Carl Watkins

Lieutenant Carl Watkins, of 274 South Main street, a naval reserve fighter pilot, was ordered back to active duty on March 15. Watkins, a funeral director for the Schrader Funeral home during the last five years, will receive a six-week refresher training course at Grosse Isle Naval Training station before reporting to Norfolk, Virginia, for reassignment.

He will be accompanied by his wife, Marcella, and their two daughters, Molly and Carla.

Watkins earlier saw service during World War II from 1941 to 1946 aboard an aircraft carrier and later as a fighter pilot instructor at Pensacola, Florida.

Lee Foster
Sergeant Lee Foster, formerly stationed at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, was discharged from the service recently and is now residing with his wife and daughter at 3423 Carpenter road, Ypsilanti. Foster was a member of headquarters company 525 military intelligence service group. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Foster.

William Hamlin
William Hamlin, son of Mrs. Violet Hamlin of West Ann Arbor road, enlisted in the Marines recently while visiting in Las Vegas, Nevada. He is stationed with Platoon 69-3rd Recruit Training Barracks in San Diego, California. He attended Plymouth High school.

Charles Finlan
Charles P. Finlan, whose wife, Jean Ann, lives in Plymouth, recently was promoted to the rank of corporal while serving in Tokyo, Japan.

He is assigned to the Military Personal Branch of the Army's Quartermaster Depot in Tokyo. He arrived in the Far East last July.

A graduate of Plymouth High school, he was an insurance agent before entering the Army in May 1951.

Large Crowd Helps Celebrate Fisher's Opening

Jim Houk, manager of Fisher's shoes, announced that the store's opening last week was very successful. He estimated that over 6500 persons attended the event.

The largest crowd appeared on Saturday, when Buster Brown and his dog Tige were the special attractions. Buster gave out comic books to the children and registered them in his Buster Brown gang.

A good attendance also marked the open house that was held on Thursday night for business people of Plymouth.

Approximately $275 in gift certificates were given to 40 of the visitors at Fisher's opening. The certificates were for the various brands of shoes sold in the store, shoe shine kits and women's hose.

Burroughs Yearly Report Highlights Defense Backlog

A new three-million dollar research center and a $65 million defense order backlog are among the highlights of the 1952 annual report of the Burroughs Adding Machine company released last Monday.

The research center, now under construction at Paoli, Pennsylvania, will be equipped with a large electronic digital computer of Burroughs' design and construction, x-ray diffraction, spectroscopy and photomicrographic equipment.

Burroughs also disclosed for the first time in its annual reports filed, its defense order backlog that now totals $65 million.

Much of the defense work is carried on at Burroughs Plymouth division and in defense centers in downtown Detroit.

The firm manufactures aircraft instruments and gunnery and sighting devices and several types of communications equipment.

Democratic Club Hears Candidate for Justice Post at Monthly Meet

Members of Plymouth's Democratic club last Friday heard Talbot Smith, Ann Arbor attorney, give an account of judicial responsibilities facing State Supreme court justices.

Smith, formerly a professor of law at the University of California, is now one of four non-partisan candidates seeking the justice post in the April 6 spring election.

He is now associated with Burke and Burke attorneys in Ann Arbor. Prior to setting up his Ann Arbor law practice in 1944, Smith, 53, a graduate of Annapolis Naval Academy, spent 14 years in a naval command post.

He was a member of the Michigan legislature's Anti-Subversion Study committee and last year sat as a member of the governor's board of enquiry into the Southern Michigan prison riot.

Actively supporting Smith in his bid for the justice post is Floyd Kehl, vice president of the National Bank of Detroit. Kehl is chairman of the finance committee helping groom Smith for the state post.

Smith spoke at a regular monthly meeting of the Democratic club held at the residence of Charles Root, Jr., on Ann street.

"LET'S PROTECT OUR TEENAGERS!"

"Youths who violate community ordinances and criminal codes are dangerous to public safety. But, a relentless inquisition against those charged with minor first offenses cannot take the place of wise counseling . . . understanding . . . and a just and honorable judicial decision."

I submit to fellow constituents that we should protect our youths, (1) Against willful criminal and ordinance violations giving them respect, not distrust of the sanctity of law; (2) Meet their problems head on; (3) And with wise counsel that points up that our teenagers of today are community leaders of tomorrow."

Although there are plenty of places to go and things to see on this old earth, it seems as though the scientists are just counting the days until they can put space travel on a regular commuter's schedule. Maybe they've got something, but as we understand it the closest star (the moon doesn't count) to this battered old globe is Alpha Centauri . . . which is 413 light years away. That means that a rocket traveling with the speed of light (186,000 miles per second) would take over four years to get there!

Americans are always traveling, always interested in going places, but that's going too far. Seems like a long trip to go someplace where they probably don't even have a decent hotel. Still, if the scientists insist on doing it, we'll be glad to wave "goodbye"!

Nash Motors' new 1953 Nash-Healey LeMans hardtop sports car features an all-steel top and styling by Pinin Farina. Production on the new model will be limited according to H. C. Doss, vice-president in charge of sales. The new model will be available in addition to the 1953 Nash-Healey soft top convertible. Low-slung and racy in appearance, body surfaces of the LeMans hardtop are curved and gracefully blended together. The new sports car is powered by the LeMans Dual Jetfire Nash Ambassador engine, developing 140 horsepower. The famous Healey "trailing link" front suspension, providing outstanding road holding and cornering, is also featured in the new model.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dobbs have just returned to their home on Adams street after being called to Port Perry Ontario by the death of Mr. Dobbs' mother, Mrs. Herbert/Dobbs, who passed away on March 7. Mr. Dobbs' father had just passed away very suddenly on February 11. Their many Plymouth friends regret hearing of this sudden loss. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dobbs were well known in Plymouth having visited their son and family here many times during the past 25 years.

Mrs. Louis R. vonStein and Mrs. Andrew Vaughn are attending a meeting of the garden division of the Rosedale Progressive Club in Detroit today, Thursday.

Reverend and Mrs. Patrick J. Clifford of Pacific avenue were hosts at dinner and a social evening on March 16 to Reverend and Mrs. John Drummond of Redford, Reverend and Mrs. George Phillips of Detroit, Reverend and Mrs. Melvin Rydberg and Reverend and Mrs. Harold Ingle of Ypsilanti; Reverend and Mrs. Blake Hunt of Milan and Reverend and Mrs. Jack Wennell of Owosso.

Prior to their leaving for their annual vacation in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Valliquette of Lakeland court have been entertaining their families at dinner. On Thursday evening of last week their guest was Miss Elma Jakel of Detroit. Saturday and Sunday they were hosts to Claude M. Hause, Jr. of Lansing and on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Jakel and family of Bloomfield Hills were their guests.

The Plymouth Women's Circle of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints, were guests of the Redford Women's Circle on March 10 at a luncheon in the Spinosa Recreation Center in Detroit. The theme "Women's Divine Calling in the Kingdom" developed into a very enjoyable program by means of music and speaking. Stake President, W. Blair McClain was the guest speaker.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Jewell returned to Plymouth Sunday evening after a six weeks vacation in Englewood, Florida. They were joined by their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Jewell and son, Freddie, who flew down on March 4. Both couples returned to Plymouth together.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Themm of Kellogg street, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Mahrle and family of East Ann Arbor trail and Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Knaut of Wayne were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Themm in Romeo. They helped Don celebrate his birthday.

Mrs. Harry Reeves was hostess this week to the Tuesday evening bridge club in her home on West Ann Arbor trail.

The Women's Circle of the Reorganized church of Latter Day Saints will meet tonight, Thursday at 8 p.m. in the home of Mona Knight on Brookville road.

Here's why you get the heat where it's needed

A coal furnace or boiler is designed so that 80% of the heat transfer is done in the combustion chamber. Roberts-Gordon Gas Burners are designed to meet this requirement, using the Spreader-Flame principle of burning. Flame is spread to the combustion walls at the grate level, and the hot gases scrub the walls all the way up. Maximum efficiency is obtained giving "More Heat per Fuel Dollar".

VFW Cancer Information Drive Reported Getting Good Reception

The Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary reports that the cancer information drive is approaching a gratifying climax. The scheduled movie and lecture, Thursday, March 26, at 1:30 p. m. at the Penn theater, promises to be fully received by women in this area. Reports from all local clubs and groups are encouraging.

Cancer information posters are on display throughout Plymouth. For those who have not heard of the auxiliary's cancer program, an invitation is extended to attend the movie and lecture on breast cancer.

Eighty or 90 per cent of breast cancer is curable if caught in time. The movie to be shown will reveal to all who see it how to detect breast cancer. The method is approved by medical men and women, and takes only a few moments. The technique can be practiced in the privacy of the home. It costs nothing yet it is so important since it is a life-saving method, tried and proven.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary will have Dr. Harry M. Nelson, first midwestern president of the American Cancer society, as speaker at the motion picture and lecture. Dr. Nelson is the chief gynecologist at Woman's hospital in Detroit. He is an associate professor of Wayne university Medical school and a member of the executive committee of the Detroit Institute of Cancer Research. He is also a graduate of the University of Michigan College of Medicine.

The auxiliary stated that they are fortunate in securing Dr. Nelson as a speaker on the program. "His position and interest in cancer programs are to be commended and we are grateful that he will spend time and effort to lecture on this vitally important subject Breast Cancer, the Needless Killer."

Won't you help save lives? See the movie "Breast Self-Examination." You'll be glad you did. It is absolutely free of any charge or donation.

Anyone who has not yet received a ticket will still be able to get one at the box office, just before the movie.

There will be competent baby sitters at the Veterans' Memorial building, Main street, for mothers who wish to see the movie. The Auxiliary is offering this service free of charge, as well.

If any one has old sheeting that is not needed bring it to the Theatre on March 26. Old sheets are used in the making of various types of cancer pads. The need is ever present and the sheets will be appreciated.

The Auxiliary reminds Plymouth residents that the movie is March 26, at the Penn theatre at 1:30 p. m. It's free and you will be glad you saw, in person, how to detect breast cancer.

Announce Music to be Played at Arts Festival

The musical portions of the Creative Arts Festival to be held in the Plymouth High school, April 10 to 12, were recently announced by Herbert Woolweaver, director of the festival.

The festival, which is the first of its kind in Plymouth, will combine the creative efforts of Plymouth residents in the fields of handicraft, theatre production and music. The musical presentation will be a solo and ensemble recital at 3 p. m. Saturday, April 11, and a finale symphony concert on Sunday, April 12, at 4 p. m.

The solo and ensemble recital will feature Evelyn Woods on the piano, Josef Lazaroff, violin, and Douglas Marsh, violoncello. The first selection will be "Sonata in G Minor" by Beethoven, played by Marsh. It will be followed by Miss Woods playing "Sonata Op. 53" by Beethoven, Debussy's "La Fille Aux Cheveux De Lin" and "La Danse de Puck" and Chopin's "Scherzo in B Flat Minor."

Saturday afternoon's recital will climax with a trio for violin, piano and violoncello.

Wayne Dunlap will conduct the Plymouth Symphony for the finale of the Creative Arts festival. The Plymouth civic chorus and the High school band will also join the orchestra. The chorus is under the direction of Fred C. Nelson, and the High school band is led by Laurence Livingston.

The symphony concert will commence with the March from "Tannhauser" by Wagner, followed by "Havanaise" by Saint-Saens, Josef Lazaroff, violinist, will play the solo part in "Scherzo Tanetello" by Wieniawski. The civic chorus with Norma Heide, soprano soloist, will join with the orchestra in a suite from "Die Fledermaus" by Strauss. The stirring "1812 Overture" by Tschaiowski will be the finale number. The orchestra will be assisted in the overture by the civic chorus and the High school band.

Woolweaver stressed that the complete Creative Arts Festival is open to the public without admission charge. "This is an event for and by the community," he pointed out.

Girl Scout Troop 1 has offered to run the check room at the Festival as part of a community service project. Another troop is needed to hand out programs and act as guides.

Business Women's Club Journeys To Mexican Colony

Forty-seven members and guests of the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's club boarded a chartered bus Monday evening for a visit with Father Kern at the Mexican Settlement House, Third and Porter streets, Detroit.

Following a typical Mexican dinner consisting of enchalades, tamales, and Mexican rice with chicken, the group was entertained by the colorful experiences of Father Kern during his many visits to Mexico and with his colony in Detroit.

Father Kern, who has been in charge of the large Mexican and Maltese colony for over 10 years, had arranged for a delightful evening's program. Mexican hat dances and Spanish dances were done by two young girls followed by singing of the traditional Mexican and Spanish songs by three young men with their guitars.

The evening was very interesting as well as educational and the group are looking forward to another visit with Father Kern and his "below the border" family in the very near future.

The program was arranged by Miss Lorraine Corbett. Guests were present from the Northville and Livonia clubs as well as guests of the Plymouth club.

Also included in the event were displays of heirloom quilts and a discussion of the old-time quilting bee. At the right, Mrs. John Warkup is shown with the 214-year-old quilt, the oldest in the exhibit. The heirloom is owned by Mrs. Mabel F. Donohue, of Kellogg street, and was made by her great-grandmother.

Grange Gleanings

Tonight is Grange night and we hope there will be a good attendance. There are two candidates who will receive the first and second degrees at this time.

There were 25 members of the Grange who went over to Pittsfield last week to see the play that our members put on there. There was a fine crowd there and everyone enjoyed the play very much. The business meeting followed and lunch was served by the Home Economics committee after the meeting.

Pomona meeting was on March 10 at Lima Center. The usual number of members from our Grange went over. The speaker was Mr. Hanks who is the livestock and agricultural agent for the New York Central railroad. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gale resigned from the officers they have held as Chaplain and on the Legislature committee on account of Mr. Gale's failing eyesight. Mrs. Esther Brown of Scio Grange was elected Chaplain and Bernard Richmond also of Scio will replace Mr. Gale.

The next meeting of Pomona will be at Pittsfield on April 14. The program will be on youth and the young folks will be in charge.

Social items can be phoned to 1600.

Girl Scout News
Mrs. Donald Potter, Mrs. Horton Booth and Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing attended a meeting of the Area Camp council in Ann Arbor on March 19.
Plymouth council is again participating in the camping program at Cedar Lake near Chelsea.
The camp is located in the Waterloo Recreation Area and is leased from the Conservation Department. The camp is to be directed by Miss Fernie Brown who also directed it last season.
The opening session will begin on June 21 and run through the first week in August. Girls may go for either one or two week periods.
A new feature this year will be a special session of two weeks especially for older Scouts. This will emphasize advanced camping leading up to primitive camping.
Girls are urged to make reservations as soon as possible after they receive their booklets and application blanks from their leaders in order to assure themselves of a place at the time they wish to attend. Seventy-two girls can be accommodated at a time.

FIRST MACHINE IN PLYMOUTH HARDWARE'S newly opened home shop power tool department is the Shopsmith. This department is the first of its kind in Plymouth. The Shopsmith, on display in the store's window, combines five tools in one for better convenience and lower cost. These tools include a drill press, circular saw and wood lathe. Owner Bill Rose, said the machine will be on display the day and evening of Friday, March 20. From 7 to 9 p.m., that evening, C. W. McDowall, Shopsmith factory representative, will demonstrate the tool to the public.

March 20 in the High school gym at 7 p.m. Parents and friends of all Brownies and Girl Scouts are cordially invited.

Five members of Troop 1 accompanied by their leaders, Mrs. Sheldon Baker and Mrs. Eger visited the shut-in troop member, Iris Cody. The girls took Iris a gift and helped her continue her work on her second class badge. The girls who made the trip this week were Christine Baker, Peggy Dyer, Sharon Cell, Martha Davis and Judy Eger.

Mrs. Harold Shirley, swimming instructor, announces that the Saturday afternoon swimming will resume on March 21 at the regular time.

The Junior Day Camp committee held its first meeting on March 11. This group is made up of two members from each troop. The girls met with Mrs. Lyons, Day Camp chairman, Mrs. Baker, director and Mrs. Manwaring, program chairman. Plans were discussed for this summer's Day Camp which is being held the last week of July and the first week in August. Suggestions were brought from the troop by their representatives and many new activities are being considered. The adult committee met in the evening to continue work on the plans for the camp.

Virginia Rock, who graduated from Plymouth High in 1941, has been made a night editor on the Michigan Daily, the University of Michigan student publication.

Ladies and gentlemen, meet the District No. 4 Junior Raiders. And they are raiders—youthful raiders. As likely as not, they will raid your coal shed, with your permission, for they are going to be up to the arm pits in collection of salvage to help win the war. The District No. 4 Junior Raiders were organized by Telyn McGorey of Sheldon road. The Raiders consist of Marino Aquino, Max Collins, Robert Jones, Howard Kaiser, Harold Micol, George Montague, Jimmy Slabaugh, Sidney Thomas, Raymond Skaggs, Glennetta Cole, Dolores Harper, Helen Hopper, Brita Kaiser, Helen Rossow, Esther Salisbury, Luella Salisbury and Glenadine Slabaugh.

25 Years Ago

Through the efforts of Mrs. C. H. Bennett, one of the directors of the tuberculosis society of Detroit and Wayne county, the campaign has all ready begun in Plymouth, and will be continued next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Ryder were agreeably surprised at their home on Ann street, last Sunday, March 18, when their children and grandchildren gathered there to remind them that it was their 57th wedding anniversary. They brought with them well filled baskets and had a fine dinner served.

Charles Chappel, a former Plymouth boy, and Miss Louise Rebb of Detroit, were quietly married March 17, at Northville by Reverend O. G. Riess, at the Lutheran parsonage.

R. L. Mills is installing the complete equipment for pasteurizing milk in his dairy plant. Mr. Mills expects to have the equipment completely installed in a few days, when he will be able to furnish pasteurized milk to his patrons.

William Weltner, village manager, tendered his resignation to the village commission at their regular meeting last Monday evening, to become effective April 1. Mr. Weltner has been village manager for the past year. Spring vacation began yesterday, Thursday, for the students of Michigan State college, so the following are home for a week's vacation: Dorothy Hillman, Winifred Draper, Barbara Bake, Julia Learned, Louise Spicer, Marian Bennett, Ruth Allison, Robert Hubert, Martin Strasen and Mary Parrott.

Mrs. Carl January entertained the Junior Bridge club at her home on Sheridan road, last Thursday evening.

ARTHRITIS?

I have been wonderfully blessed in being restored to active life after being crippled in nearly every joint in my body and with muscular soreness from head to foot. I had Rheumatoid Arthritis and other forms of Rheumatism, hands deformed and my ankles were set. Limited space prohibits telling you more here but if you will write me I will reply at once and tell you how I received this wonderful relief.

One thing about the auto mechanic, he is not a low-brow. He'd as soon wipe his greasy hands on a costly seat cover as a cheap one. Why is it a man usually acts like he was conferring a great favor on you when he pays you back the money he owes you?

4 powerful reasons why you get more of what you want...

1953 Chevrolet Advance-Design Trucks do more work for less money!

more engine power!

Advanced Loadmaster engine—standard equipment on 5000 and 6000 Series heavy-duty and forward-control models, optional on 4000 Series heavy-duty trucks.

more braking power!

In 1953, all Chevrolet trucks up to 4000 Series heavy-duty models have "Torque-Action" brakes. Series 4000 and above use extra-large "Torque-Action" brakes in front, "Twin-Action" type in rear.

more staying power!

Now, heavier, stronger, more durable frames increase rigidity, add to ruggedness and give more stamina than ever to all 1953 Chevrolet trucks.

more economy!

The new stamina of Chevrolet trucks, plus extra gasoline economy in heavy-duty models with improved Loadmaster engine, reduces hauling costs per ton-mile.

Depict Evans Products' President as Alert, Aggressive Businessman

Last fall Edward S. Evans, Jr., president of Evans Products company here, bought a 1 1/2-million-dollar plant for sale near Roseburg, Oregon, and gave his company a three per cent cut of the big plywood industry.

Evans, a medium-tall, wiry, distinguished appearing man, moved plenty fast and acquired the plant before rival bidders even put in their appearances.

It won for him a mention in the Today in Business column of the March 8 issue of the Detroit Free Press as a man "who looks like he's mighty fast on his feet."

It was last fall, on a Saturday, that Evans heard of the 1 1/2-million-dollar sale of the plywood plant. On Tuesday he presented Evans Products' offer in person while out-manuevered bidders 24 hours behind were still anticipative of acquiring the lush plum.

Evans Products, however, has a record of getting things done with alertness and speed. Evans' fast-moving twin brother, Bob, vice-president in charge of new products, has under him a young, creative engineering staff who are heading up the company's new developments, particularly in transportation loading devices.

The dual executive combination was cited as perhaps being inherited from a father with fast and multitudinous interests in pre-World War II Detroit. Much of the company's progress comes under the inspiration of both executives who recently marketed a six-car auto loader for railroad use that permits six cars to be transported on one double-deck car instead of four.

This latest transportation boon to automotive manufacturers was the outgrowth of an earlier four-car auto loader manufactured by Evans and installed in more than 31,000 box cars owned by the country's rail carriers.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS LETTER

By Leonard E. Wood
State Representative

The final scene of the side show we have had for the past two weeks in Lansing has unfolded. The show should be called "Dopey and the 32 Dwarfs." (Two Democrats were missing.) This educational drama showed us "How to roast a pig by burning the barn down" by a man who has become so involved in intricate Affairs of State, that he does not know which way he is going. Only you, the voters, can tell him where his destination will be.

Soapy has relented and will okay senator's Higgins' Bill. Our schools will stay open, and our teachers will be paid—due to no effort on his part. He thought he would pressure the Republicans into okaying his one track tax plan, a plan that will not work. But he has forgotten that we stand for sound government, not false reports and double talk. Now, we can get on to working out a broad base tax program for the over all need of the state. Many proposals, as you are aware, have been submitted by the Legislature, yet no decision from Soapy. But that is the way it is when you have a one track tax plan.

Our Governor can destroy any legislation by veto, therefore we must have his approval on any bill if it is to become law. On the other hand, if we could get one Democratic Representative (of the 34) to vote with his own conscience, and for the good of the people of his district, we could override his veto. This is our problem, and why tempers flare and reason does not always prevail.

Capital Punishment was defeated soundly in the House yesterday. Emotion ran rampant during the debate on the Bill, but facts and reason prevailed, and hence defeat—26 to 68.

I wish to thank all of my readers at this time, for the many encouraging letters and cards that I have received. Also, for flooding the Democrats with your opinions. I believe that you, my neighbors, were the determining factor in convincing them of what had to be done. American ways, co-operation, harmony, and stating the truth will restore our State Government to firm ground.

Food for thought: If 2 per cent of the monies the State of Michigan sent to the Federal Government last year under Truman (5 billion) were diverted to the State's general fund, (1 hundred million) we would have no debt, only profit.

Your Legislator,
Leonard E. Wood

Public Hearing Dates Set For Street Projects

Public hearings on the city's $147,100 street improvement program will be held in city commission chambers on March 23 and 24.

At this time individual queries of property owners will be examined on the separate projects for which a $116,000 special assessment bond issue will be floated.

Following the hearings, the first one-tenth payment by homeowners on whose property the improvements will abut will be due. The payments may be made within 30 days without interest charges.

Persons currently buying their homes may contact their financing authority and have special assessment costs added to their contracts on a pro-rata basis.

Listed are the locations, type of improvements, time of hearing and total cost of each project.

March 23

Starkweather PTA to Elect New Officers

Election of officers and a pot luck supper will be the main features of the monthly meeting of the Starkweather Parent-Teachers association, Tuesday, March 24, at 6 p.m. Mrs. Frank Koch, chairman of the nominating committee, will present the slate of candidates.

The program for the evening will have emphasis on Scouting, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cubs and Brownies, all sponsored by the school, will give performances of Scouting activities. Mrs. Price Clear is in charge of the program.

Since the whole family is invited to attend the pot luck supper a special program for the children will be presented while the business meeting is in progress.

Now that families are reported to be getting more scarce, it's wonder if the supply will keep up with the demand.

You can have a green thumb too—in fact anybody can—if you just have a little know-how. Each different plant requires some special care. If you know what it is, you should have no trouble raising flowers. Mrs. Andrew Vargha, 11420 Gold Arbor, pictured above, certainly has a green thumb as far as tuberous begonias are concerned.

It is best to order begonia bulbs by January. Mrs. Vargha pointed out for in January and February the firms send the bulbs out to the customers.

The ideal time to plant the bulbs is February, advised Mrs. Vargha, when they are beginning to show little growth blisters. She uses a material called Terra-lite, a mica product, in which to put the bulbs. She fills a flat within one inch of the top and then works the bulbs into it. Her bulbs are now in that stage, as shown in the picture.

"It's a good idea to mark the bulbs so you will know what colors they are and can arrange your garden accordingly. I use wooden spoons as markers," she explained.

It is important to keep the terra-lite moist. Mrs. Vargha said, but not wet. Care should be taken in watering the begonia bulbs, however, since if water is poured directly on them they will rot.

As the bulbs begin to make roots and show a top growth, Mrs. Vargha said, she puts them in pots. After Decoration Day, when there is no longer any possibility of frost, they should be placed outside.

"Plant them in soil with a lot of humus," Mrs. Vargha advised. The soil should be light to a depth of about 8 inches. "Another good thing to know," Mrs. Vargha said, "is that the blossoms will come the direction the leaves point." By planting the begonias with that in mind you can always be sure that your blossoms will face the way you want them to, she added.

The begonia is a shady flower. Mrs. Vargha plants hers at the north side of her house. To illustrate how they thrive in shade she told of seeing pictures of begonias in Canada which had been taken with a flash bulb because they were in such a dark, shady place.

Mrs. Vargha said there are many varieties of begonias, all of which are beautiful. Some of the hybrids have wax-like blossoms resembling carnations and geraniums. Mrs. Vargha has them in shades of white, yellow, peach, salmon and other lovely colors. The flowers are often three or four inches across. Mrs. Vargha said.

These begonias have lovely foliage, she added. The leaves are marbled with a little brown. They don't have particularly long stems.

Bulbs can be held over until the next year, Mrs. Vargha said. She has some that are three years old. Just take them in the house in the fall before the first frost. Let the foliage dry off and then store them in terra-lite in a moderately warm place. In fact, Mrs. Vargha added, "I keep all my bulbs in terra-lite with the exception of gladiolus."

The biggest advantage to buying begonias in the bulb form is it is so much more economical, Mrs. Vargha said. Begonia plants cost about four times more than the bulbs. "It's a good investment," she added, "and you certainly can have a lovely yard as a result."

Tarts, Turnovers, and Glazed Apples For Bright New Desserts

Spring, a sign of new things, is almost here. Why not treat your family to new desserts this spring? Here are three worth trying.

Pecan Tarts
3 eggs, beaten slightly
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/2 cup dark corn syrup
1/4 cup butter or margarine, melted
1/2 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup coarsely cut pecans
6 to 8 unbaked tart shells
Blend eggs, sugar, syrup, butter, salt and vanilla. Add pecans. Pour into tart shells. Bake in a moderate oven (375 F.) until filling is no longer liquid, 25 to 30 minutes. When tart is shaken filling appears solid, 6 to 8 tarts.
Variation: One 8-inch pie: Bake 25 to 40 minutes. Miniature Tarts, Bake 20 to 25 minutes. About 18 tarts 1 1/2 inch diameter.

Mince-meat Turnovers

GETTING OFF TO A GOOD START

by Marguerite Mickelsen

Numerous nation-wide surveys made by leading nutritionists on the dietary habits of the American people have revealed that breakfast is the most neglected meal of the day among all age groups.

This is especially true of school children according to an outstanding authority in nutrition work who recently said that the lack of an adequate breakfast is responsible for much of the malnutrition found in school children.

One particular survey made among high school students showed that while a good percentage had eaten breakfast before going to school, the meal was lacking in the essential nutrients needed to supply the body with the necessary energy for greater acuity, better stamina and better work.

The most significant fact brought out by this survey was the astounding number of students who were not in the habit of eating breakfast. Asked why, they gave such reasons as (1) not hungry in the morning, (2) in too much of a hurry to eat, (3) never eat breakfast, (4) skipped breakfast—trying to reduce, or (5) no one prepared breakfast for me.

Since breakfast should supply one-third or one-fourth of the daily caloric requirements, it was noted that the non-breakfast eating students were less alert and efficient and more susceptible to fatigue than those students who had eaten a healthy morning meal.

Another survey was made to determine the nutritional value of breakfasts of teen-agers by recording all foods eaten for a week by a group of representative boys and girls in junior high schools. A study of these records showed that their breakfasts were apt to run low in calories, protein, iron, vitamins A and C, and niacin.

A further study revealed that with the exception of vitamin C, the girls were more likely to be lacking in these nutrients than the boys.

It was concluded that the breakfasts of these teen-agers could be improved greatly by including more citrus fruit and juices, eggs, milk and whole grain and enriched cereals. The nutrients missed by these students at breakfast cannot be gained at other meals.

A basic breakfast pattern set forth by nutritionists consists of fruit or fruit juices, cereal, milk, bread and butter or fortified margarine. These are the foods that are essential to adults as well as to children to supply the necessary nutrients to equip them for better stamina, maximum efficiency and greater acuity during work and school.

Use Sweet-Sour Sauce For Unusual Spareribs

Serve spareribs in a sweet-sour sauce for an exciting, different dish for your family.

Here's how to prepare this combination. First, cut the rack of spareribs into individual ribs. Then brown the meat thoroughly in a heavy frying-pan. Next, remove the ribs from the pan and pour off all but two tablespoons of the drippings.

To make the sweet-sour sauce, stir two tablespoons of flour into the drippings, then add two cups of meat stock. Cook, stirring constantly until the sauce is thickened. To this sauce add four tablespoons of vinegar, two tablespoons of brown sugar, 1 bay leaf, 1/2 teaspoon of thyme, two whole cloves. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Add the ribs to the sauce, then cover and simmer for about 45 minutes.

Tips On How To Choose Your New Raincoat

April-shower weather requires a good raincoat. So give a little thought to what kind of raincoat you buy.

There are two kinds of raincoats—waterproof and water repellent. A waterproof coat protects against prolonged, heavy rain but it is nonporous and very hot to wear. Plastic or fabric coated with plastic or rubber are waterproof types.

Water repellent raincoats will protect against short exposure to showers. For most persons, they are practical, because they are porous and comfortable. In buying a water repellent coat, check the label to see if it is durable to washing or dry cleaning or if the coat must be treated each time.

Look for a closely woven smooth fabric because it will shed water better. Look, too, for a coat that has double fabric on the shoulders where rain hits hardest. Children's raincoats should be bright colored to show up on dark days. Easy-to-work buttons that close the coat high and low to keep out rain are an advantage. A hat or hood that is water-shedding is advisable.

Look for a conservative cut in a raincoat. A raincoat that flaps in the wind, and drags on the floor of the bus or car is not practical. And get an amply cut raincoat so suits can be worn underneath comfortably.

Wide Shoulder Now Popular With Narrowness at Hemline

Fashion will follow the straight and narrow path this Spring with countless variations of the "slim look" carried out in coats, suits, dresses, ensembles and even evening wear. Elegant and new-looking, the elongated line of Fashion calls for a whole new approach to the woman's wardrobe, as well as her important accessories.

The very excitement of fashion is to be found in the world "change." Just as everything else in the woman's world is constantly in evolution, so is the conception of taste and style.

The natural changes in fashion have always been worked around the triangle, the basis of all style. Just as the past years have brought the narrow-topped triangle, or pyramid, into the fashion news, the latest and most exciting change is now that same triangle with the narrowness at the bottom.

Emphasis is on the wider shoulder line, narrowing to a confined hemline, such as in the newest coats and suits. The shoulder accent is achieved softly and subtly, with details such as the stole effect and easy draping rather than the bulky padded look. The wrap coat often has a suggestion of a cape at the shoulders, or dropped sleeves, while the skirt is very slim without a trace of width.

The box suit, an extremely important fashion for Spring, also carries out the new line, with emphasis on the jacket rather than the skirt. While the new jackets are narrower and styled with a minimum of fitting at the waist, they offer a slightly wider and looser effect to offset the need-slim skirt.

Suit jackets will be found in a multitude of styles, from the long and straight "walking suit" jacket to the abbreviated style that halts abruptly just above the waistline. Cut-aways and tuxedo styles offer a softer approach to the slim fashions, and make a pretty display of the new decorative weskits.

Frothy, feminine blouses also will star as light touches under these suit fashions, especially with the cardigan-styled jackets.

The stole emerges as top fashion this Spring, either as a separate accessory, incorporated into the ensemble, or suggested by means of draping and stitching at the shoulder. Seaming provides the bulk of fashion details, criss-crossing or winding around the front and back of coats and suits.

And linings often are coordinated in prints to match blouses, or in solid colors to pick up the predominant color in a matching print dress or blouse.

Dresses are soft and fluid, in rich fabrics that drape well. The empire waistline still figures as an important influence, but skirts are generally on the slim side. Often a skirt will look narrow, but in motion will disclose floating panels or decidedly feminine effect.

The ensemble idea will be most popular this season, in the guise of either suits or dresses. Practical as well as wearable, the ensemble offers a multi-purpose wardrobe for day into evening wear.

Fabrics stand out as an important and very individual approach to fashion. Textured surfaces are lighter and airier looking for Spring, including the bubble-light poodle cloths, whisper-weight fleeces, and frosty-hued zibellines. Hard surface fabric such as gabardines are making a successful play for recognition in coats, suits and ensembles, and silks and linens take the honors for casual as well as dress-up wear.

In colors, the white-frosted tones will be seen everywhere, as well as Spring pastels. The big news is the strong emergence of beige as a go-with-everything neutral. The beige family is seen in shades from pale ivory to gold-caramel to dull dark tones. Navy is, as always, a definite fashion color for Spring, basic and flattering.

The accessories a woman wears this Spring will be a main feature in her wardrobe plans. Pretty gloves in varying lengths will take over where the sleeves leave off, and neat but feminine hats will top her every costume.

Large hankies, oversized roses, and smooth leather handbags complete the fashion picture for spring 1953.

Braise Meat Cubes In Juice

Introducing new dishes to your family can be fun. In the case of this dish, the variation is in the meat cubes as a stew, braise them.

Your choice of meat cubes for braising includes beef, veal, pork and lamb. A second choice is that of the cooking liquid. For beef or veal cubes, tomato juice or soup, condensed mushroom soup or split pea soup might be used.

Fruit juices such as apple juice, pineapple, peach, or cranberry juice are especially good with pork or lamb cubes. Milk, sour cream or water may be used for any of these meats too.

The initial step in braising is to give the meat a golden brown coating. Do this slowly so that the brown will stay on the meat throughout cooking. Next, add the cooking liquid. Keep the liquid at a minimum. Start with from 1/4 to 1/2 cup. More may be added as needed during cooking. Cover the meat closely and let it simmer until tender. Vegetables, left whole or cut into large pieces, may be added to the meat if desired.

Caribbean, French, Canadian Recipes

As varied as the opinions of the United Nations are the tastes of different countries and their ways of cooking beans. The three recipes here were brought back to us by traveling friends and each is delectable in its own way.

From the Caribbean
Soak two cups of red beans overnight in cold water. Bring slowly to a boil, reduce heat, and simmer two or three hours or until soft, removing cover during last hour to allow liquid to reduce. Meanwhile cut 12 strips bacon and six strips salt pork into small pieces and fry in skillet till lightly browned. Add two medium onions, finely chopped, and continue to fry until onions are light brown, stirring often. Peel, seed, and chop two large tomatoes and add to mixture. Add pepper to taste. Cover and simmer gently while beans are tender. When beans are tender add tomato mixture and simmer another 15 minutes. Peel, seed and chop three green peppers and add just before serving. Serve hot over dry boiled rice.

From Canada
2 lbs. cooked kidney beans (drained-reserve liquid)
2 med. onions sliced thin
1/2 lb. smoked bacon cut in 2" pieces
2 T chili sauce
1 small can tomato paste
1 small jar sweet pickle relish
2 T brown sugar
2 T sweet pickle juice
1 T dry mustard

From France
2 cups dry pea beans
2 T chopped parsley
1/2 cup chopped celery
3/4 cup diced onion
2 teasp. dry mustard
1/2 teasp. dried thyme
2 teasp. salt
1/4 cup brown sugar
1 cup white cooking wine
1 lb. lamb stew meat (1" cubes)
3 T oil

When you see a man who is a little lamb around the house you can also bet that he is a little goat around there too.

WHEN TIME IS MONEY
... A GOOD FARM WORKSHOP PAYS FOR ITSELF

OVER and OVER

Equipment breakdowns during the busy season can really cost money. That's why so many folks now have complete workshops right on the farm.

With electricity powering welders, saws, drills, grinders and similar tools, you can get back in the field quickly—and at very low cost. Off-season, you can repair equipment that's not in use and also build many labor-saving devices yourself.

Your Edison Farm Service Advisor will gladly help you plan an efficient workshop and recommend the proper wiring. Call or visit any Edison office. There is no obligation whatsoever.

J. R. Keys and son Leon working in the well-equipped shop on their Sanilac Co. farm. Mr. Keys says: "I couldn't farm without my shop. The welder alone has paid for itself over and again."

Shown using an electric saw, Percy Rader of Huron Co. reports: "The shop is one of my farm's biggest assets. Power tools make it possible for me to do nearly all my own repair work."

Helpful Hints Concerning Building, Remodeling, Repairing & Redecorating

Open-End Mortgage Helps Spur Home Improvements

Are you planning to rejuvenate your home's exterior, install a modern, labor-saving kitchen or make some other improvement which will add to the livability and value of your property? Then you should know about open-end mortgages, which permit "painless financing" of such projects.

Thousands of home owners have found this modern borrowing plan a boon to their repair and modernization needs, according to Norman Strunk, executive vice president of the United States Savings and Loan League. Pioneered in the 1930's by savings and loan associations, the open-end mortgage has granted wide popularity, especially in the post-war period, Mr. Strunk reports.

"An open-end mortgage is simply a conventional mortgage which carries a provision allowing the borrower to obtain additional financing and spread repayment over the remaining period of the mortgage," he explains. "The maximum that can be borrowed is limited to the amount which has been repaid on the original loan."

"Assume that a person in three years has repaid $1,000 of a 20-year mortgage loan. He then decides to remodel his home. He can re-borrow as much of the $1,000 as is needed. Repayment, at the same rate of interest, is spread over the remaining 17 years of the mortgage. It thus involves addition of only a few dollars to his regular payments."

Savings in maintenance expenses resulting from the improvements often will more than offset the slightly higher payments, thus actually reducing the home owner's annual outlay.

The mechanics of obtaining the loan are simple. The home owner simply goes to the lending agency holding his mortgage and describes the improvement planned. If his repayment record is good and the project is sound, the arrangements are quickly completed, often in one visit. The necessary forms are signed and the borrower receives the funds. To facilitate matters, Strunk advises, it is best to write or telephone the agency a day or two in advance of the personal call.

Those holding mortgages without the open-end provision sometimes can have it included simply by making the request, Strunk says. Under present regulations, however, FHA-insured mortgages are not adapted to this arrangement.

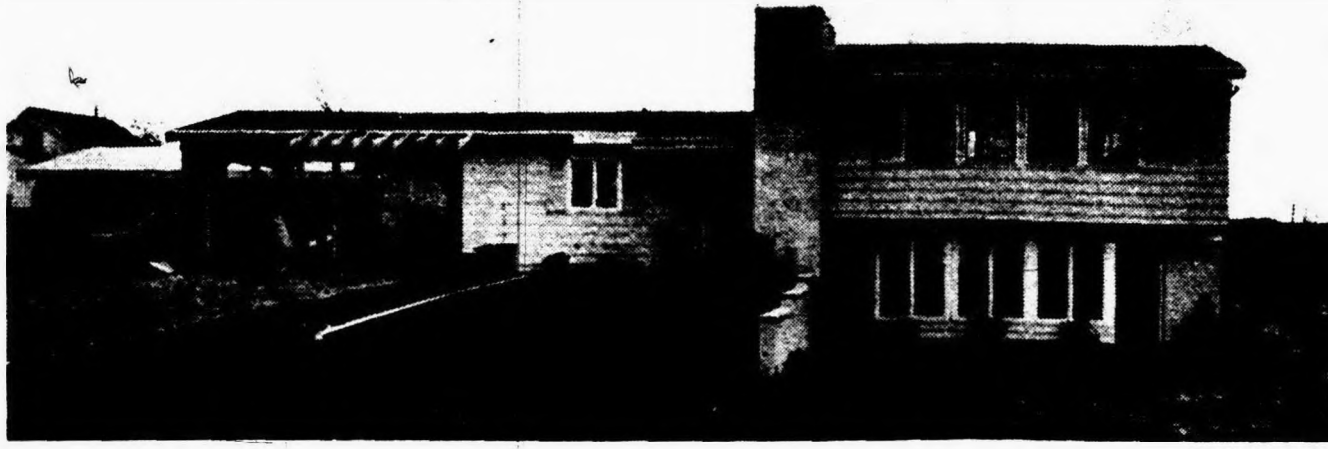

"As more and more home buyers find out about their availability," Strunk asserts, "they are asking for open-end mortgages because they then can make needed improvements without straining their budgets."

Family Handyman Questions And Answers

QUESTION: I want to put a flat roof over the garage attached to my home, and wonder whether a 1/4-inch per foot pitch would be enough. Also, how can I waterproof this?

ANSWER: The pitch you want is adequate, in this case. If you use roll roofing (and shingles, of course, cannot be used) there is a 2-inch overlap provided, which is cemented to adjoining strips with roofing cement or tar. Coat seams liberally. Also, extend the roofing material over the edges on all sides, and cement and tack ends of the material to the undersides of projecting eaves.

Tri-Level Homes Gain Popularity

THIS PLYMOUTH HILLS three-level home of the Franklin Hershey family is one of several gaining popularity in the Plymouth area. Located three miles west of Plymouth just off Beck road, it is in the process of being remodeled. A new garage, shown at extreme left in the background, has been built and the area formerly occupied by the garage will become the living room. At present the living room is located at the ground level portion of the house shown at the extreme right. This will become the master bedroom, making it a 4-bedroom home. The spaciousness of a tri-level home makes it especially livable as well as convenient in room arrangement.

Under-Stairs Closet Helps Make Basement Orderly

An under-the-stairs closet in the basement will bring orderly storage space to replace the usual disorganized jumble.

Enclosing a staircase is a good first project for the amateur craftsman. Its completion will bring much satisfaction to the beginning hammer-and-saw artists, as well as to his family for the improved appearance, utility and cleanliness.

Shelves should be included in the project, to simplify the classifying and storing of miscellaneous items.

The plans first should be sketched so that the right amount of materials may be ordered. Purchase 2x4's for the framing, to be erected vertically at intervals of 16 inches, and sufficient wood to cover both sides.

Shelves may be fastened securely to the framework and the stair risers. They will be accessible through a door which the handyman can install directly under the steps. The door is built on a ventilated framework of 1 by 3 lumber.

It has been estimated by the Water Conditioning Foundation that a water heater, working under the disadvantage of hard water scale, will require perhaps a quarter more fuel to meet the family's hot water requirements.

A total of 110,331 steel boilers were sold in 1951. Of this number, 84,860 were of the residential type.

Bright Paint Can Cheer Up Your Basement

Use of water resisting cement paint, along with a good concrete floor enamel, can give your basement the dry and colorful walls and floors you need for health and comfort.

Herbert W. Joho, assistant professor of architecture at the University of Michigan, offers a number of practical suggestions on how to ensure well insulated, waterproof walls and floors.

"Dampness," he points out, "is often a problem to be confronted in remodeling the basement into comfortable supplementary living quarters."

"Why not paint the walls with water resisting cement paint? This will seal up troublesome pores of concrete block. The paint comes in attractive shades of green, grey and tan. Walls which leak badly should be given a one-inch coating of water repellent cement."

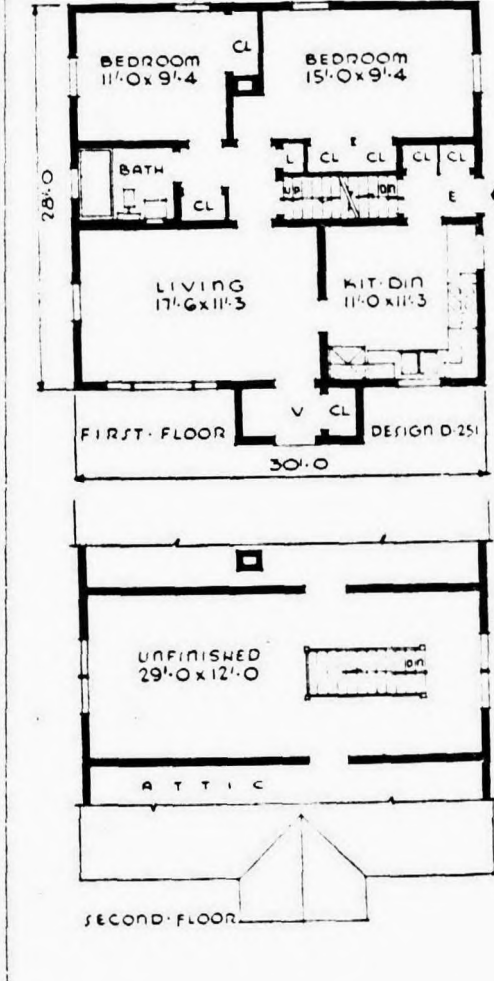

"If your basement has a dry concrete floor, you may employ a concrete floor enamel in such colors as green, red or grey."

"Or you may prefer asphalt tile, which is easily applied to concrete. It should not, however, be used near laundry areas, as it will absorb moisture and be spoiled."

"Or, if children are going to be playing in the basement, asphalt tile, because of its fine insulating quality, will probably be your choice. It is available in a variety of colors, and the tiles may be combined to form attractive patterns."

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. D-251

DESIGN D-251. This plan provides for two bedrooms on the first floor rear, with unfinished space in the attic for a future bedroom. The living room and kitchen are in front, and entrance to the living room is through a vestibule with coat closet. Other closets include wardrobes in the bedrooms, coat and housekeeping closets in the side entry, linen cabinet, and closet in the bedroom hall. Dining space is provided in the kitchen. There is a full basement.

Exterior finish includes picture window, flower box, shutters, wrought iron railings, wide siding and asphalt shingles. Area on the ground is 881 sq. ft. and cubage is 18,259 cu. ft.

Put New Light On Spring Scene

The spring decorative scheme is not complete until light has been thrown on it. Whether it's modern, traditional or a care-free mixture of different periods, a room comes to life only when proper illumination is provided for the varied home activities.

Close tabs are being kept on developments in furniture, fabric and architectural design so that lamps are being created to harmonize with all the current trends.

As a result the homemaker will find lamps that enhance the specific forms, colors and textures of her rooms whether she is seeking a spring tonic or starting from scratch in a brand new setting.

Kitchens Take on New Spring Tones

The mechanical marvels that make it almost completely automatic have been accepted and now the kitchen is being made to look as well as it operates.

The use of wood tones, so much easier to maintain than the laboratory whites is becoming more and more popular. The beauty of texture of birch, pine, maple and oak add immeasurably to the attractiveness and is enhanced by new window treatments, floor and wall coverings.

Cabinets with drawers expertly designed for the things they're to hold are real furniture with handsome hardware and fine, durable finishes. If metal and white cabinets are preferred excellent color note can be given to the white by contrasting it with colored backgrounds and gay accents.

A new bathroom accessory is a soap dish built on a swivel, says the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau. At a light touch, the dish revolves inward to be concealed by a panel flush with the wall. Thus the soap is protected from a shower and will not become soggy.

Offer Free Gun Cabinet Plans

In how many places about the house did you find your hunting clothing and gear last fall? From attic to basement and garage to hall closet, we'll wager, with maybe a mitten or two long gone to the moths.

Like most sportsmen, you probably have wished for storage all your own—a place for guns, fishing rods, jackets, waders, shells, knives, tools, creel, bait cans, thermos bottles, cleaning oils, rags and books.

This spring, build your space. The Western Pine association will furnish you with plans for a rod and gun cabinet of knotty or clear pine that's 70 inches high, 34 wide and 16 inches deep—large enough for all your equipment and a handsome piece of furniture besides.

Half the cabinet is a wardrobe, the other half a rod and gun rack and it contains shelves and drawers for miscellaneous articles. Doors may be glass paneled to display your artillery. Plans are available free of charge. Drop a postcard to Western Pine association, 510 Yeon Building, Portland 4, Oregon, and ask for Instruction Sheet No. 20.

Soft water is recommended for the cooking of vegetables as it helps the peas, carrots, and other vegetables to retain natural color and taste, says the Water Conditioning Foundation.

Use These Techniques in Starting Seeds Indoors

Sowing seeds carefully spaced in shallow drills two inches apart

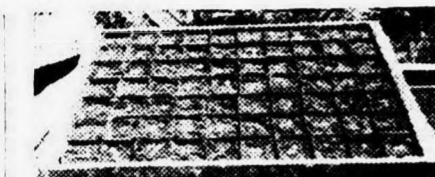

There are advantages to starting seeds in flats, both under protection, in late winter or early spring, or later outdoors, when they could be sown directly in the garden.

The chief gain comes when seeds are sown early indoors, while freezing weather still lingers. But many sow flowers, especially, in flats outdoors, because it is safer than the open ground and a higher percentage of the seed can be developed into plants. The plants can be set exactly where they are wanted when large enough to transplant.

Three ways of sowing seed in flats are generally practiced—broadcast, in rows, and in plant bands. The first is good when only one variety is being grown; the second when several varieties are sown, and the rows can be labeled, to identify the plants. Plant bands insure the plants against crowding from the start, and enable you to move them to the garden with soil about their roots, undisturbed.

Cucumbers, melons, egg plant, and peppers are often sown in plant bands, two seeds to a band, one to be removed if both come up. Any seed can be sown in bands if pot plants are desired without the need of transplanting seedlings into pots. Plant bands are obtainable which disintegrate in the soil when moved to the garden, and some have a fertilizing effect on the plants.

Do not sow seeds in flats too deeply or thickly. Cover them lightly with finely sifted soil, sand, or sphagnum moss. A layer of sphagnum moss half an inch thick on the top of the soil, in which seed is sown, will prevent damping off, a fungus which may destroy seedlings even before they emerge from the soil. If moss is not used, it is advisable to treat the seeds with a disinfectant.

Seeds sown in plant bands develop into pot plants

If automatic watering is not used, the soil should be soaked after sowing by standing in a pan of water, so the moisture soaks up from the bottom. Thereafter water only with a fine spray so the seeds are not disturbed. Some cover the flat with a pane of glass to prevent evaporation, until the seeds sprout. Keep the flat in a temperature varying from 65 to 70 degrees until the sprouts appear, then give them all the light possible.

When the young plants are growing a lower temperature is preferable, with full daylight. If the light is inadequate the seedlings will bend toward it. This may be corrected by turning the box daily, or by placing a white cardboard or mirror behind the flat to reflect the light. When grown too warm the seedlings will grow too tall and spindly. Slow, stocky growth is best.

Urges Parents to Teach Offspring Fire Safety Rules

Fire is one of the greatest dangers children face. Fire chief Robert McAllister said today as he urged parents to devote spring clean-up to making their homes safer places for their children to live.

Citing recent reports from a leading life insurance company and the office of vital statistics, the chief pointed out that fire is the principal cause of fatal home accidents to children from 5 to 14. At least 600 in this age group each year die as a result of fire.

"Children can be taught fire safety rules as easily as they learn their ABC's," Chief McAllister said. "Therefore, besides teaching a child basic principles of safety, it is the parent's responsibility to see that dangerous conditions do not exist in and around the home," he warned.

Chief McAllister suggested some rules for children's protection which are recommended by the National Board of Fire Underwriters:

1. Don't ever leave children at home alone. Be sure the baby-sitter is a mature, reliable person, and that she knows how to call the fire department.

2. Keep matches out of the reach of young children, and see that pot handles do not protrude over the edge of the stove, where young hands can reach them.

3. Allow children at bonfires and campfires only under supervision. By losing their footing, they could fall into the flames.

4. Keep a metal screen in front of the fireplace, so that children can play safely near it. It will also keep sparks off the rug—another fire hazard.

5. Don't dress children in flimsy costumes without first flame-proofing those costumes with a mixture of 9 ounces of borax and 4 ounces of boric acid to a gallon of water.

6. Conduct a family fire drill regularly so that children will follow directions quietly in an emergency.

The Plymouth Mail Presents....

A series of and about residents of Plymouth at home, at work or at play This Week—LIBRARIAN ADA MURRAY

It was 24 years ago that Mrs. Ada Murray began her career as city librarian.

Gracious and pleasant, Mrs. Murray may be termed Plymouth's "Lady of Books". She has served the community since January 15, 1929.

From the library window, facing Main street, Mrs. Murray watched Plymouth grow. She recalls those days when the north-west side of town was "wide open spaces".

Reminiscing she remarked, "Why, I don't even recognize those streets with all the new stores built up."

The position of city librarian came while serving as a member of the Plymouth Library board. She was unexpectedly called to temporarily replace the librarian at the Plymouth branch of the Wayne County Library. However, her stay was extended when the previous librarian announced that she was relinquishing her position.

Since then Mrs. Murray has seen between eight and nine thousand books circulate yearly. She comments, too, that the library is used by more adults than children.

When asked about her daily routine at the library, Mrs. Murray confided, "The first thing I do when I come in is set up the thermostat and go down to stoke up the furnace." The library must be kept warm for those accident readers. Her day, beginning at 8 a.m., is pretty well filled. There is correspondence which must be answered, books to shelve and statistics to gather. A busy day ends at 9 p.m. and she starts for her home at 643 North Mill street.

Appoint Donnelly as Sales Manager of Otwell Firm

The appointment of Mac J. Donnelly, of 550 Sunset, as sales manager of the Otwell Heating and Supply company was announced this week by William C. Otwell, owner of the heating firm.

A lifelong Plymouth resident, Donnelly, has been associated with the Ford Motor company and the Kaiser-Frazer corporation as a time study and methods engineer.

He is a 1928 graduate of Plymouth High school and received college training at the University of Detroit and Detroit Time Study school.

Donnelly has been given charge of heating and air conditioning sales.

Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter Has Delegates at State Conference

The State Conference of the Daughters of the American Revolution was in session last week. The conference started Wednesday, March 11 and was held at the Hotel Bancroft in Saginaw.

Representing the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter Wednesday at the three day event were Mrs. Eleanor Hammond, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Mrs. Horace Johnson, Mrs. Alice Strona, Mrs. Mabel Sharpley, Mrs. Maxine Willoughby and Mrs. Gladys Deyo.

The Wednesday noon luncheon was in charge of Mrs. Harry D. Chapman of Pontiac who is the state chairman of nature conservation and Mrs. Robert Willoughby of Plymouth, state chairman of the Children of American Revolution. The evening speaker was Dr. Nicholas Nyaradi of Bradley University who is the author of "My Ringside Seat in Moscow". Some of his articles have been published in the Saturday Evening Post.

Robert G. Willoughby, Junior National Chairman of Conservation, and Richard Root, members of the Plymouth Corners Society, presented a plan for a CAR camp to be held at Cedar Lake Camp near Chelsea on September 18, 19 and 20. The plan received the support of the state conference.

Thursday a luncheon was held for the various chapter regents, state chairmen and honored guests. Attending this luncheon were Mrs. Maxine Willoughby and Mrs. Gladys Deyo.

Other delegates attending the Thursday session were Mrs. Marie Crusoe, Mrs. Ruth Burkmann, Mrs. Horace Johnson, and Mrs. Mabel Sharpley. Speaker at the banquet was Mrs. James B. Patton, president general.

The agenda for Friday consisted of a junior membership breakfast with Mrs. Patton speaking; a good citizen's pilgrimage and at noon, Mrs. Joseph W. Mann of Detroit spoke to the group on Women in Civil Defense.

Attending the convention on Friday were three good citizen pilgrims, Teresa Duschane of Northville, Virginia Wimb of Bentley High and Ann Hammond of Plymouth. Also attending were the mothers of the girls, and delegates, Mrs. Willoughby and Mrs. Deyo.

DETROIT RED CROSS NEEDS $396,000

Nearly 1,000 men and women, all volunteers, are employed in a month-long canvass of the city and county residential areas in quest of funds to round out the Detroit Red Cross Chapter's budget of $1,992,000 for the next fiscal year.

The major part of this money was raised in the Torch drive last fall. The Chapter needs $396,000 more to finance its services, including $200,000 recently added to defray the cost of collecting blood for gamma globulin, to be used in preventing or modifying the crippling effects of polio.

250,000 POLIO SHOTS

"Because thousands of families are enrolled in Red Cross through their gifts to United Foundation our volunteers face a difficult task," said William E. Essery, campaign chairman. "The Volunteers know we have given them a tough assignment, but that seems to make them all the more determined to find those who haven't contributed and give them an opportunity to do their part."

MORE VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

Detroit Campaign headquarters have been established in the Red Cross Building, 153 E. Elizabeth. Many more volunteers are needed to pick up Red Cross gifts in their own neighborhoods. Those willing to help may enroll by calling WO 1-3900.

"Our program is now so extensive that hardly anyone can fail to be interested. Already the National Red Cross has turned over to the Federal government enough gamma globulin for a quarter million polio shots, and this is being distributed to the health departments of the various states for use as needed. Our regional blood center and 15 similar centers in the United States are making regular shipments of blood to processing centers, which are working around the clock to produce this precious serum.

"Every home is a potential beneficiary of this program, for no one knows where polio will strike. When people fully understand what our program means to the children they will surely want to get behind it with both their blood and money."

Friday was a particularly sad day for me in that it saw the final passing of Alex J. Groesbeck, a former Governor of Michigan and long a personal friend of my father and of mine. The governor perhaps not personally well known in Plymouth has for years been interested in our community, in our development of The Mail and of the general progress made throughout this entire area.

For many years he played handball with Herman Dworman, a former Plymouthite, who operated the gas station on Main street where Floyd Burgett is now located. It was through the Governor's interest in handball that Joe Bathey, Larry Rothenberg, Hugo Krave and Dworman were urged to heights that made national champions of them all.

The governor had been particularly interested in the affairs of Duane Parkes, local real estate and insurance man whose father had been a friend of his for many years. There was seldom a time that I saw him he didn't ask how young Parkes was making out in Plymouth.

Of special interest to me was the fact, I learned Friday, that the last legal paper Groesbeck drew personally was the transfer of this business some two years ago from my father to me. In retirement he devoted his time to his personal interests and life on his yacht where he made his home during that time.

During my high school days I saw him daily and as cold as he seemed to be there was never once I can remember when he didn't have time to chat for a few minutes with whatever kids might be with me. He encouraged us to join him in the winter ice skating which was one of his favorite sports and one which incidentally he was active in up until two years ago.

At the time high school fraternities were banned by the legislature he counseled with us to understand our feelings and the only thing I still haven't been able to figure out about him was the fact that he said he would veto the bill when it reached his desk. But he didn't. I never had the courage to ask him why though only a month ago I mentioned it to a law associate Hugh Francis in Detroit and told him I thought I would bring it up the next time I saw the governor. It's too late now.

It was through his encouragement that my dad bought the Northville Record and from the time we left Lansing to reside in Northville until the last time I saw him he had always been ready to offer encouragement and assistance to us.

The most puzzling thing to me is the fact that one who knew so much about law, was so meticulous with legal procedure and legal operations should die without leaving a will and the maze of entanglement that shall certainly follow during the years ahead because of the immensity of his estate. Perhaps it's the fact that he faced the future like he did his daily living with the thought that death would never catch up with him.

SPRING HOUSE CLEANING

Lack of state funds won't cause state schools to close—not yet, at least.
 The legislature, last week, finally agreed to move forward to May 15 the due date for corporation franchise taxes. This will permit the early collection of $35,000,000 which can be passed on to the schools. Since many large corporations previously indicated they would not object to paying the shot now instead of Aug. 31, the move is expected to bring in $15,000,000 at once. Penalty provisions for late payment were substantially softened so that corporations would not be unnecessarily pinched by the date change.

In the third month of sessions and with little accomplished to date, members have an eye on adjournment and how they can plan their strategies to take advantage of remaining time. Bills have been introduced in both houses to set May 22 for the final session. Under the present system, all bills must be submitted 69 days earlier to allow time for printing and study. Exceptions are revenue and appropriation proposals or new bills that have general consent.

Main reason little has been done about new tax rates, observers say, is the approach of spring elections. Both Republicans and Democrats, while anxious to clean up the state's financial troubles, are even more concerned with political implications.

Neither party wants to give the other any political advantage by taking action which, though sound from a legislative standpoint, might antagonize segments of the voting population and give opponents an opportunity to cash in with votes.

A good example of such thinking is the now nearly forgotten Princeton tax report, disclosed Feb. 16 after six months of hard work by nationally known tax experts. The recommendations called for no new taxes but a redistribution of present monies and constitutional reduction of the present earmarking of funds. Many legislators agree that the program is sound; they will also tell you it hasn't a chance, except possibly as a long range goal.

For one thing, the present distribution provides many rural areas with big slices of state funds. For example, differences exist as great as 100% in state aid payment to counties of similar wealth; one city receives 90% of its total receipts, while three get less than 10%.

Republican rural legislators would be in the position of favoring a plan that would result in less state aid for their home areas. The most idealistic politician would think many times before he put himself in this position.

Democrats, on the other hand, cannot afford to be put in a spot where people think they prefer to capitalize on the deficit than help to solve it. They finally decided to ease financial pressures by agreeing to early collection of the corporation franchise tax.

Taxation committees this week were grooming, as alternate sources of new revenue, three bills: (1) Corporation profits tax, (2) manufacturer and wholesaler gross proceeds tax, and (3) business income tax. One of these bills is likely to emerge from the legislature, after the April election, as the solution to the state treasury deficit.

In the meantime, the corporation franchise payments will permit Auditor General John Martin to ok checks to local school systems for $23,000,000 this month. This is the total of expected corporate fees plus current shares of sales taxes. Mr. Martin figures the state will owe school systems $24,000,000 by the end of the fiscal year, June 30. This amount he hopes to offset early in July with an advance distribution of $26,000,000 to schools.

The state still faces, however, a deficit of some $55,000,000 and sooner or later, probably later, must find a way to return to solvency.

Among other bills and proposals in various stages of consideration by the legislature is one which would eliminate indeterminate sentences where a man is given 10-15 years. These were listed by Jackson prisoners as an important contributing cause in recent riots. Prison authority Austin H. MacCormick states in a report of the situation that the indeterminate sentence, though annoying to prisoners, is scientifically sound because it tends to permit officials to hold a man until he is considered ready to be returned to society.

Another bill would alter the Hutchinson Act to require a fact finding mediation panel to handle labor disputes. Present law prohibits strikes by employees in public service and labor officials think it only fair to counterbalance the right to strike by providing some other recourse.

Approved by the House is a bill which boosts from $2,500 to $10,000 the maximum fine for gambling conspiracies. This was increased because the highest fine sometimes did not take the profit out of such enterprise—one defendant was fined $2,500 and $50,000 court costs, not an ideal way to prove that crime does not pay.

Steps in the Right Direction

It has to be noted that Plymouth merchants and other business firms, one by one, are keeping up with the demands on their stores for enlarged and improved facilities to better care for their customers.

During the last two weeks three local business firms have announced openings of newly enlarged and modernized facilities. During the last two years nearly a dozen firms have done the same thing, and all of these businesses along with the new ones have brought to the residents of this area stores that we can point to with pride.

Plymouth for many years has been recognized as an area shopping center, drawing customers from many miles in each direction to its stores. Its food stores are unusual in the type of merchandise they offer and the competitive prices shoppers find on the merchandise on their shelves each week. Our clothing and shoe stores are unequalled in their selection, quality and arrangement in any town this size in the country. Dress shops, jewelry stores, drug stores, etc. are far superior in their appearance and their methods of merchandising to any, anywhere.

In no town this size in Michigan can you find three outstanding eating establishments, known throughout the state, as you can here. You think of Schuler's of Marshall, Archies of Lansing, Bill Sterns in Muskegon, Holiday House in St. Joseph or Joe's Fish House in Traverse City and others, but in each case one is as far as you go in cities even that large.

Wherever you go you hear some one mention the beautiful Mayflower room at the hotel, Hillside Inn or Arbor-Lil. All well known for their surroundings and their foods.

True our population is increasing and our merchants could well sit back and enjoy an ever increasing flow of dollars in their tills without spending a cent. But typical of Plymouth and Plymouth businessmen there is no complacency. Every day some one of them starts a project to keep abreast of the times. There are many more plans already on the drawing boards and if such farsighted progress is maintained there need be no fear of outlying merchandising centers springing up overnight as a threat to our business area.

In keeping with this trend it behooves us as residents and business people to constantly keep planning and building more parking areas for the convenience of those that come to the city to shop. Beautiful stores piled high with reasonable merchandise alone will not do the job. People today shop by automobile and the store that has parking facilities close to its doors will often be favored. With this in mind no time should be lost in providing increased facilities throughout our entire business areas so that all may benefit from increased store traffic.

A community grows by the many attractive things it may offer to prospective new residents. Good stores, schools, many places of worship, recreational facilities and location make our city desirable from many different approaches.

Transportation to and from our neighboring communities is important. Buses or trains to make it possible for people to live here yet find easy access to Detroit, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and the great new industries that are springing up in or near this city are a necessity.

These are all but part of the scheme of things which lie ahead. They are part of the problems that face each of us as each new day dawns. But in spite of the growth of surrounding areas or in spite of new shopping centers, Plymouth merchants are demonstrating each week that they will be a force to be reckoned with in the future. They are telling the people by their actions that they will not find better stores, better merchandise or better places to buy it, than they will right here at home.

We predict and firmly believe that Plymouth will always remain a shopping center for this section of Michigan and we commend our business people for the confidence they show each day in the future of this solid community. We encourage the residents of this area to not only respond to their determination but to put forth extra effort to see to it that every store and business firm in Plymouth is given an opportunity first to be of service when the demand arises.
