Symphony Ball To Be Highlight Of Yule Season

Soft lights and music will prevail in the Plymouth high school auditorium when the Plymouth Symphony society puts on the annual Symphony Ball, Saturday evening, December 26.

Don Haas and his orchestra from Ann Arbor have been secured to provide the music for the evening. Dress is optional, leaving it up to the individual person.

Assisting Pocklington is his committee of Harper Stevens, Mrs. Mary Mills, Mrs. Wilson Augustine, Mrs. Margaret Hough, Mrs. Ann Sumner, and William Sliger.

City Tables Parking Ban; Sewer Bond Issue Approved

County Wants Bonds Sold Before March

City commissioners held a short but costly special meeting Tuesday night at which they decided to issue $97,000 worth of bonds for the construction of the Wayne County Middle Rouge Interceptor drain and advertise for bids on the proposed north-side fire station which will cost in the neighborhood of $20,000.

Although the commission held its regular meeting Monday evening, the Tuesday special session was called to finish up the two pending issues. The city clerk is today printing a notice in The Mail stating the city intends to issue county drain assessment funding bonds.

Thirty days after today's notice appears, the commission must meet again to approve the bond forms and then advertise for bids on the bonds. The bonds must be sold by March 1 in order to coincide with the county's sale of bonds on the same project.

The city hopes to sell the bonds with interest between two and one-half to three per cent. The county's bonds may sell with up to six per cent interest.

Garden Club Sale of Greens Starts Tomorrow

All sorts of Christmas greens will be put on sale this Friday and Saturday by the Plymouth branch of the Michigan Division of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association.

The greens gale is held in combination with a bake sale, headed by Mrs. Jennie Cramer, with Mrs. Peter Ralph Miller assisting.

Advance orders have been taken for several weeks for special wreaths and other decorations. These still may be made by calling Mrs. Edwin Schrader at 2221, Mrs. Austin Stecker at 643, or Mrs. Arnold Samuelson, phone 2752-M11.

Goodfellows Ready For Paper Sale on Saturday

Plymouth's Goodfellows are all set for their annual paper sale this Saturday. According to Goodfellow president Fred Hadley, Goodfellow charity is more in demand this year than it has been in any recent year.

Investigating committees have been working for the last month classifying families slated for aid and lists of clothing, toys and foods are already being prepared so that deliveries can be made the day before Christmas.

There will be no local kiddie without a Christmas as far as the Goodfellows are concerned and they will start their annual paper sale Saturday morning at Starkweather school with a breakfast. At 8:45 they will parade down Liberty street to Starkweather then down Main street where they will take their corners for the selling event.

Here is where you will find your favorite Goodfellow: James Gallimore, Harry Reeves, David Taylor, Bank Corner.

George Howell, Harold Stevens, Clifford Smith, Connor corner. Al Glassford, J. R. Radosky, Harold Scott, Bank to Ann Arbor Tr.

Coffee For Charity

Plymouth coffee clutches are urged to drink their coffee at Barney's Plymouth Grill this Saturday by members of Plymouth's Goodfellows. As has been his custom in the past Phil Barney will turn any and all money paid for coffee on Saturday over to the Goodfellows on the event of their annual paper sale that day.

Chase Willett, Ray Creith, Marvin Terry, Plymouth Mail to Jewells.

Roy Salow, Fred Drews, Post Office.

Harry Brown, William Hobson, Mayflower corner.

Richard Straub, James Latture, A&P store.

Charles Huebler, Lester Robinson, Cloverdale to Ann Arbor Tr. William and Richard Rose, Milan Frank, Kroger store to Cloverdale.

Vito Sambone and Raymond Chiochki, Godber Jackson, and Richard Larkins, Kroger Parking lot.

First Federal Savings Opens New Office Today

"Nothing has been spared to give Plymouth the best banking facilities possible," said Perry W. Richwine, commenting on the opening of the First Federal Savings and Loan association offices at 843 Penniman avenue today.

The new branch replaces the former Plymouth office of First Federal at 865 South Main street. It will be recalled that Plymouth Federal merged with First Federal of Detroit on July 1 of this year, but continued in operation in the former Plymouth Federal offices until this week.

In all other ways, however, the office has only the most modern equipment. It boasts of being the only building in the city which has heated sidewalks to keep snow melted away. Background music will play continually in the lobby, a feature new to local businesses, Richwine said. A modern air-conditioning plant has been installed, likewise, and tentative plans are under consideration to open a lunchroom in the basement for employees.

For the opening event, Richwine commented, snacks prepared by the Mayflower hotel will be served to visitors. Flowers will be given to the ladies and gifts will be handed out to the children as well. A Christmas tree in the lobby will add the festive touch, he said.

Guests at the opening today will include Bud Guest, WJR radio star, Mayor Russell Daane of Plymouth and Mayor Jesse (Continued on Page 8)

NEW HOME OF FIRST Federal Savings & Loan Association of Detroit at 843 Penniman avenue personifies the colonial theme of Plymouth. The bank, under the management of Perry W. Richwine, will hold its grand opening today, Friday and Saturday.

Township Treasurer Zach E. Holmes Dies

Death came suddenly early Wednesday morning to Zach Ervin Holmes, 44, treasurer of Plymouth township and an active worker in many community and fraternal affairs.

A heart attack caused the death of the busy public official who only the evening before attended a meeting of the Northwest Zoning association at the township hall. He passed away in bed at his 41390 Joy road home at 4:30 a.m.

Mrs. Holmes called the Plymouth police to summon-the fire department rescue car but use of the resuscitator by firemen with the aid of a local doctor proved futile. He was the fourth township official to pass away this year.

Mrs. Holmes won the township treasurer's post in an election last February 16 when he easily won out over five other Republican candidates. With no Democratic opposition on the April 6 ballot, he took office and had been busily working during the past week in sending out tax statements. One of his other recent projects has been serving as temporary chairman of a civil defense unit which he has been helping to organize in the township.

A 1927 graduate of Northwest high school in Detroit, Mr. Holmes moved into the Plymouth area 10 years ago. He has worked for the Ford Motor company as an instructor on aircraft engines and spent seven years as a child care attendant at the Wayne County Training school.

His activities also included membership in the North American Gladioli Council and the Michigan Gladioli Society, serving the latter group as a former vice-president, board member, statistician and editor of the M. G. S. News. He was a member of the Plymouth Rock Lodge F. & A.M., the Plymouth Goodfellows and the First Methodist church.

He was born in Detroit August 30, 1909 and is survived by his widow, Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes; two young children, Zach, Jr., and Patricia; his mother, Mrs. Carrie Holmes; and a brother and two sisters, George Holmes and Mrs. Laura Wilson of Livonia and Mrs. Barbara Harpell of Walled Lake.

Masonic services will be conducted Saturday at 1 p.m. at the Schrader Funeral home with the Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson, pastor of First Methodist church, officiating. Mrs. Edna O'Connor will furnish organ music. Pallbearers will be fellow Masons. Interment will be in Cadillac Memorial Gardens, Nankin township.

Plan Proves Too Unpopular With Too Many

City commissioners indefinitely pigeon-holed a proposed ordinance at their Monday night meeting which was designed to prohibit parking on the city's streets from 2 to 6 a.m. for the purpose of making snow removal and street cleaning easier.

Although the ordinance was not voted down, commissioners voted to table the ordinance which underwent its first reading November 2. Since that time, the ordinance has become a "hot potato" for commissioners who found that the idea was not popular with many residents or the Chamber of Commerce.

A copy of the proposed ordinance was turned over to the Chamber of Commerce off-street parking committee headed by Edwin Schrader at the meeting of November 16. The committee met the next day and decided that the ordinance is unnecessary. Their findings as reported in The Mail November 19 were read at Monday night's commission meeting and the report was filed.

The Chamber of Commerce report pointed out that "no parking" restrictions could be placed on some streets during the day so that work could be done, thus eliminating night-time work. It also stated that it is usually impossible to clear away any heavy snow during the few morning hours and that there is no assurance that the snow will fall during the night. The report also claimed that the ordinance might prove costly to some homeowners who have no other parking place except on the street.

Commissioner Ernest Henry had been the only opponent of the ordinance when it was proposed. Others, however, favored banning parking only in the business areas but they agreed that it was too costly to erect signs throughout the downtown area telling of the parking ban. The law provides that if parking is banned throughout the entire city, signs need be placed only at the city's entrances.

A letter was also read from the Chamber of Commerce Retail Merchant's association which commended the city for its recent street cleaning program.

In other business before the commission, authorization was given to purchase a new police car from the Forest Motor Sales, 1094 South Main street. It is a 1954 Plymouth and will cost $1375.26.

Commissioners received at least one piece of good news during the evening. They were informed by Byron Becker, local architect, that they will be able to construct the proposed north-side fire station for $20,000 or less. Becker told commissioners at their last meeting that estimates showed the cost would be (Continued on Page 8)

On N. Y. TV Show

Plymouth television fans will have an opportunity Sunday evening of seeing Mrs. Lance Wright of this city on "What's My Line" as telecast from New York City. The local doctor's wife sent a wire to the program several months ago when she was planning a visit to New York asking to visit the studio and see the telecast.

However, she received no response from the wire until a few weeks later when she was informed her name was being listed for future use. Monday of this week she received a phone call asking her to appear on the program this Sunday evening, December 13.

The program is at 10:30 over CBS and is conducted by John Daley.

Concert This Sunday Keynotes Christmas

Since Christmas is traditionally for the children, Wayne Dunlap, director of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra, has selected a program offering something for each member of the family for the annual Christmas concert. The program will be given at 4 p.m. this Sunday, December 13, in the Plymouth high school auditorium.

This will be the third concert presented by the 85-piece Plymouth Symphony orchestra this season. Music will include selections of both sacred and secular nature, thus bringing the best in music being offered during the holiday season.

It has been the custom in the past to present the complete work "The Messiah" by Handel. However, this year the concert has been recast in a shorter form in an effort to offer something for the youngsters as well, Dunlap said.

Additional glitter will be added to the Christmas concert by the members of the Plymouth Civic Chorus, directed by Fred Nelson. The aggregation will perform the "Hallelujah Chorus" from "The Messiah" and "Music for Christmas" by Meyerowitz.

The program in total will bring the local audience "Overture on Old Noels" by Philip James; Pastoral from the "Christmas Oratorio" by Bach, Tchaikow-sky's "Nutcracker Suite" and the two choral numbers.

The last of these, "Music for Christmas" is a new work for chorus and orchestra, using old words. It takes about 20 minutes, and has not been performed outside of New York thus far. Soloists for the selection will be Mrs. Edith Ryan and Mrs. Florence Ellison.

Members of the Plymouth Civic Chorus, who will participate in the concert, are Lois Austin, Shirley Austin, Roland R. Bonamico, Shirley Brenner, W. D. Brown, Maxine E. Campbell, R. B. Cassidy, Joyce Cook, Ronald Corey, Alisande Cutler, Sue Daniel, Ellen Dooust, H. L. DeMeritt, Donald Dobson, Beth B. Fischer, Gerald Fischer, Mildred Green, Milton E. Gibson, Sally Kowalcik, Janet Lamerand, Bernice Law, Inez Lock, Marjorie Losure, William W. McClain, Helen M. Pocklington, Jacqueline Reiman, Judy Richwine, Mary Ann Robertson, Dorothy Jean Smith, Harper A. Stephens, Mary Sue Taylor and Ernest B. Williams.

Dunlap has urged local families to include the concert on their Christmas lists, and to bring the children. He emphasized that Christmas is an event shared by the whole family, and attending the concert together would be a fitting prelude to the day itself.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hake
Jesse Hakes Observe 50th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hake of 38700 Plymouth road will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary with an open house at their home on Tuesday, December 22, from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9. All their friends are invited to help them celebrate.

Mr. Hake was proprietor of Hake's hardware store on Penniman avenue and also was employed by Harry Robinson.

Post Office Wears New Coat of Paint

Package-laden persons visiting the post office this week have been greeted by a bright new interior paint job. Ceilings have been painted white, with aqua walls giving the main theme. The "swing" room, where the carriers eat and rest, has also received a face-lifting with the coat of new paint.

On the outside of the building window sashes have a fresh coat of cream and the railing is of red. Postmaster George Timpona said the new colors are in accordance with plans for post offices set up nationally.

In addition, the building will get new front doors in the near future. Black topping has been applied in the rear of the office, and a cement entrance has been added to the driveway.

Detroit Speaker at Safety Council

Del A. Smith, Detroit City Councilman, was guest speaker at the Monday meeting of the Plymouth division of the Detroit Industrial Safety Council. Representatives of local industrial plants heard Mr. Smith say that safety, after all, is just a matter of good common sense.

Long active in safety organizations Mr. Smith pointed out that this country first became conscious of safety measures in 1910 and almost continually since that time he has been active in some branch of work which was connected with safety. He has served as a member of the Detroit Industrial Safety Council since 1925.

He advocated two steps that the Council could sponsor as the best way to educate the people of America in the necessity of safety. First a well developed program of safety education should be adopted in every school in America in the elementary grades, and secondly every organization in the country should devote some of its time to awake its members to their need for caution.

He further urged the Council to expand its activities outside the industrial field and carry its message and program to the farms where accidents are almost as prevalent as in the factory. "The safety program of your organization should embrace the following items, health of the employee, compensation, health service, nursing and safety devices," he stated.

Vince McAulliffe, of the Workmen's Compensation Commission will appear before the organization at its February meeting. Herbert L. Blake of Whitman-Barnes presided at the meeting and brought Mr. Smith to Plymouth.

Janet and Alfred Spigarelli, cousins, celebrated their birthday together last Saturday evening at a party given by Mary Ann Palmer and Sue Robinson in the Palmer home on Beck road. Guests present were Don Carney, Carol Stadtmiller, Sharon Watson, Denny Campbell, Bob Isbister, Randy Eaton and the honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pint and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rucker enjoyed Wednesday evening at the Supper Club in Ann Arbor.

SOCIAL NOTES

The Hough Extension group met at the home of Mrs. Norman Kloenhamer for the lesson on "Parent Education" and child development. A lively discussion took place during and after the lesson after which the hostess served dessert and coffee.

Roger Chapman of Greensboro, Georgia is a houseguest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gutherie of Newburg road.

Staton Lorenz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph G. Lorenz of Ann Arbor road celebrated his 13th birthday last Sunday by inviting Skip Rambo, Don Alsbro and Denny Campbell to be his guests at dinner at the Mayflower Hotel followed by a theatre party.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanton Klink of Adams street spent last Sunday with Mrs. Steve Buker and family in Adrian and Mr. and Mrs. George Clement and family at Devils lake.

Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple returned to her home on Penniman avenue last Friday after spending five weeks in Henry Ford hospital, Detroit. While her condition is improved she will be unable to have visitors or answer her phone for at least two or three months.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Herriman and son, Douglas enjoyed the Thanksgiving weekend in Flushing as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Herriman.

Miss Mickey Gomez of Cuba, a student at the University of Michigan, was the weekend houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Ross and family of West Ann Arbor road.

Mr. and Mrs. William Martin of Blunk street visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Naylor and Mrs. George Kern of North Territorial road.

Three More Members Added To Chamber Director Board

Three new members were added to the Chamber of Commerce board of directors when the board held their monthly meeting Tuesday noon. Also appointed were chairmen of 20 committees which will operate during the coming year, including six new committees.

The Chamber voted at its annual meeting last month to increase the number of directors from nine to 12. Appointed to the new posts were:

Dr. Jay Robison, dentist, term to end in November 1954; L. B. Rice, manager of the Plymouth AAA, term to expire in November 1953; and Don Burleson, of Dunn Steel Products, term to expire in November 1956. The board will appoint a second vice-president and a secretary at its January meeting, also two new offices.

Dunlap To Appear As Guest Conductor

Wayne Dunlap, busy conductor of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra, has recently been named director of the newly organized Grosse Pointe symphony. The appointment will in no way affect his work with the local orchestra, since he will commute to Grosse Pointe for the symphony functions there. The Grosse Pointe orchestra has planned two concerts for the season.

Dunlap has also been engaged to conduct the Christmas concert with the Grand Rapids symphony orchestra on December 18. Featured with the orchestra will be the Grand Rapids Festival Choir. This is Dunlap's second guest conducting appearance with the Grand Rapids Symphony.

is the community planning committee. It will be composed of two representatives each from the schools, the city government and township government. Function of the committee will be to talk over mutual problems in an attempt to benefit all.

There will also be a new colonial committee which will stress the Chamber's colonialization program and sponsor a Colonial Festival in September. The new home show committee will sponsor a home show perhaps in April which will display hobbies of residents and goods manufactured in the community. The Christmas program committee will start plans early for the Christmas season and handle such things as decorations, contests and parades.

A golf tournament committee will arrange for a Chamber sponsored golf tourney held in July. Another new committee will be the new residence committee which will arrange welcomes for all new families into the city and give them gift certificates.

A complete list of the main committees and their chairmen is as follows:

Agriculture, Earl West; education, George Mayhew; industrial activities, Don Burleson; membership, Frank Henderson; local affairs, Carl Shear; retail merchants, Gerald Pease; July 4, Bill Sliger; better business board, Russ Cutler.

Solicitations, Harry Larsen; colonial, Ralph Lorenz; Christmas lights, Harry Roberts; finance, Arthur Haar; golf tournament, L. B. Rice; Halloween, Dean Saxton; new residents, Roderick Cassidy.

Community planning, Russell Isbister; state and national affairs and home show, chairmen not appointed; Christmas program, Dr. Ralph Snoke; and program and tickets, Harry Draper.

Buy in Plymouth Campaign Begins; Kiddies Ready for Santa Landing

An indication that the giant "Buy in Plymouth" campaign will be a success was received by many merchants even before the campaign opened last night, members of the Retail Merchants association of the Chamber of Commerce report.

Some buyers hinted that they were withholding much of their Christmas shopping until the contest opened in hopes that they will be the lucky one selected for an expense-paid trip to Bermuda, or one of the 10 other prizes being offered.

Starting yesterday, a ticket was given with each dollar purchase. Selection of the winners will be made December 23 in Kellogg park at 7 p.m. Colorful placards are being placed in stores this week to remind customers of the contest.

Second prize in the contest is a Bulova alarm wrist watch; third prize is a bicycle and eight

Those tickets to be given with each $1 purchase failed to arrive in time for the contest opening at 5 p.m. yesterday. As a result, substitute tickets are being given. The tickets were sent from an Arkansas printing firm November 30 but have evidently ended up in one of the 31 other Plymouths in the United States, the express company informed the Chamber of Commerce.

consolation prizes of $10 purchase certificates will complete the prize list.

Meanwhile, plans are being completed for the visit of Santa Claus to Plymouth this Saturday afternoon. Since Plymouth can not assure Santa there will be any snow by Saturday, he will arrive by airplane this year, landing at Mettetal Airport at 1:30 p.m. He will be met there by the fire chief and members of the police department and escorted to the lawn of the high school where the parade will form.

St. Nick will drive down Main street to Kellogg park in a 1907 Model T Ford. The high school band will also be in the parade along with a white horse ridden and owned by Bill Stockton. Entering a tent in the park, Santa will confer with the city's little folks about what they want for Christmas and each child will receive a gift.

SMOG HITS LONDON . . . London bobbie directs visitor wearing smog mask as mixture of smoke and fog brings warning of last year's heavy death toll from poison fog.

Plans for the welcoming are being made this year by members of the B.P.O. Elks Lodge 1780 with the committee headed by Frank Walsh. Piloting Santa's plane will be LeRoy Hartman, a local pilot.

Rounding out the Christmas atmosphere in the city are the decorations. Christmas trees have been decorated, lighted bells placed across the streets in the business sections and the manger scene placed in Kellogg park. Lights on the decorations were officially turned on last night. Roping will be placed on the street lamp posts in the business areas this week.

Three Local Men Hurt in Mishap

Three Plymouth men were injured in a two-car collision early Tuesday morning at the intersection of Ford road and Canton Center road. They were:

Joseph Robinson, 961 Hart-sough, driver of one of the cars, lacerations of the face and skull; Michael Hunt, 48, of 1012 North Mill street, injuries to the right ear and lacerations of the right shoulder; and Paul Griffith, 35, of 981 North Mill, lacerations of the skull and face.

Also injured was the driver of the other car, Luther Bussey, 51, Inkster. The four were taken to the Wayne County General hospital by two ambulances, one of them from the Sonderegger funeral home here.

Wayne county sheriff's authorities said that the mishap occurred at 2:36 a.m. Although drivers were not able to give statements, deputies believed that Bussey was driving on Ford road and Robinson was driving on Canton Center road, the latter failing to heed a stop sign. Both cars were badly damaged.

Contrary to popular notion, potatoes need not be fattening. One medium-sized potato has about 100 calories—no more than an apple or banana and only half as much as a medium-sized piece of pie.

Teacher To Show Films to Local Club

Miss Sara Lickley of the high school mathematics department will show colored slides of her trip to Europe and Africa at the December meeting of the Plymouth Democratic club. The group will meet Friday, December 11, at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Brown, 9375 Beck road.

Also included on the program is a television talk by Adlai Stevenson, democratic presidential candidate in 1952.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl North of 1061 Palmer avenue, announce the birth of a baby girl, Carla Sue, born on Wednesday, November 25 and weighing seven pounds, one ounce.

Former Resident Doing "Muy Bien"

Generally The Mail is quick to report on any news articles carried in other papers about former Plymouth residents. In the case of Howard Town, son of Mrs. Alice Town of 1284 Williams, we're stopped cold, however. Town is an engineer and field representative for RCA and recently returned from Caracas, Venezuela where he supervised the installation of a television station. A story and picture commending Town for his work recently appeared in the Caracas newspaper. Mrs. Town has the article, and we'd like to relate its contents—but it's all in Spanish!

A graduate in the class of 1945 of Plymouth high school, Town now resides in Gloucester, New Jersey and visited his mother in Plymouth last week.

Account Book Saves Money For Farmer

Good farm records can save you tax money.

Besides, good records can eliminate the frustrating work of going through a mass of receipts in order to list your tax deductions asserts Everett M. Elwood, extension agricultural economist at Michigan State College.

Elwood points out that mislaying or forgetting a receipt can be costly. If you've had a machinery repair job, for example, that cost you $15 and you forget to enter it on the tax form, you pay about $4 extra in taxes.

This means for about every dollar you fail to enter on your tax report it costs you an extra 25 to 30 cents in taxes.

Elwood urges farmers to start the new year with a Farm Account Book, available at the offices of county agricultural agents. And the agricultural agent will give pointers on using it.

Another advantage of the Farm Account Book, says Elwood, is that you can know where your big costs are in addition to crop yields, livestock production and sale prices of your products. When these facts are analyzed, they will show the strong and weak points in your farming business. That means you can make adjustments that will steer toward more profit in the future.

Plaid blouses of crisp but sheer cotton in gay plaids are wonderful to wear with your summer skirts, and they'll go easily into fall for wear with wooled skirts or even suits. Pointed collars trim them and ruffling or pleating and small buttons decorate the front.

McAllister Speaks Before Fire Chiefs

Fire Chief Robert J. McAllister returned home Sunday night after speaking Saturday morning before the Illinois Fire Chief's association convention in Danville, Illinois.

Chief McAllister, who is president of the Michigan State Fire Chief's association, spoke about the organization of fire chief's associations. This is the second meeting of the Illinois association since its recent formation.

Michigan fire chiefs elected McAllister president of their association at a convention last July.

Aboard the Good Ship MAYFLOWER

Alloy there. Your Bos'n's Mate has been dorelict in his duties for the past two weeks and hasn't scribbled this column. Excuse, please. And don't tell the Skipper that we've been A.W.O.L. We've always said that if the world knew how good our clothing was we would have to clothe the world. Seems as though in the past weeks a good portion of the world has found out. Consequently we've been swamped, thank you. But now, regardless of the press of business, we've got to take time out to bring you up to date about things "aboard the good ship Mayflower."

One of our favorite waitresses, Mrs. Ellen Raymond, has been walking on air for a few days and bursting with pride. Her son Donald (age 15) got his buck in the recent deer season—his first trip to the northland. Mom was with him when he performed the feat.

The wine shop is taking on a most festive air as it is being prepared for the Christmas season. Attractively displayed amid the decorations are a host of unusual gift items for those with the most discerning tastes. And we do mean "unusual."

Lester G. Barrow of the Evans Products organization will soon be moving here from White Plains, New York. He and his wife are staying at The Mayflower while making arrangements for a home in this vicinity. The crew of The Mayflower extends a most cordial welcome to them as they become a part of our little "colonial community."

Thanksgiving in The Mayflower Room and The Pilgrim Room was a most successful event. Although most of the diners held reservations insuring very prompt seating, a few tables were open for the unannounced guests. Speaking of reservations, it is appropriate and timely to say that now is the time to make them for Christmas day. It'll be a festive affair, with turkey and all the trimmings. And no fuss and ado for Mother in the preparations. Head Chef Curtis Langdon promises a most delectable dinner for the event. And if Curtis says so, so it will be. Here's a chef with many years experience in the culinary arts. His care and pride in his work is just one of the many reasons that The Good Ship Mayflower is becoming famous for its food in so many parts.

Gene Ramey, of Allison Division of General Motors, a frequent guest at The Hotel, will soon be a permanent resident of Plymouth. He and Mrs. Ramey have taken a home on Hartsough street. Once again The Mayflower loses a most pleasant guest, but is proud that it introduced Gene to our fair city, and will look forward to having him for a dinner guest.

That's "Anchors Aweigh" for this trip.

Christmas Carolers To Sing in Park

The strains of "Silent Night" and other Yuletide favorites will swell from Kellogg Park this year as a special innovation in the Christmas program of activities put on by the Chamber of Commerce.

Four church choirs as well as the one from Plymouth high school will take up stations in the park to sing those old familiar Christmas carols on five different evenings during the pre-holiday season.

The outdoor choral concerts will be performed from 7 to 9 p.m. on each occasion. The first of these events will be handled by the Plymouth high school choir, directed by Fred Nelson, on Friday, December 18. The First Baptist church choir will take over on Saturday, December 19, with Mrs. Hamilton Sears directing.

Other groups scheduled to provide the Christmas singing are the First Methodist choir, headed by Jack Darling, on Monday, December 21; Calvary Baptist choir, directed by Mrs. Robert Kine, on Tuesday, December 22; and the sanctuary choir of the First Presbyterian church on Wednesday, December 23. Fred Nelson directs the Presbyterian group.

MOMS NEWS

The Plymouth Unit of Moms of America have set Monday, December 14 for the next business meeting. At 6:30 a potluck supper will be served at the Memorial Home on Main street. Each one attending should bring a dish to pass and your own table service.

There will be a short business meeting at 7:30 followed by a Christmas party with entertainment and exchange of 50 cent gifts later.

Each member is urged to bring some one with them with intent to join us in the work we do.

Wednesday December 2 an indoctrination course was held at the Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor. Those attending from Plymouth were Mrs. Bloomhuff, Mrs. A. Anderson, Mrs. Dely, Mrs. Kushler and Mrs. Gladstone. There are 117 veterans at this hospital now and as soon as they have the schedule made up we will be able to help in a volunteer way in making these boys more comfortable and happy as long as they are there.

Monday there was a Presidents' meeting in Detroit which Mrs. Bloomhuff attended.

SCANNING THE NEWS

LAST week the background of the Harry Dexter White case was discussed in this column. Attorney General Herbert Brownell charged that the Truman administration was lax in its handling of the case and implied that the former President's actions were harmful to the security of the United States.

At this point the House Un-American Activities Committee entered the picture by subpoenaing Mr. Truman to answer charges before it that he had been lax in his handling of the case. Mr. Truman accepted the subpoena, but later refused to honor it on the grounds it would shatter the constitutional doctrine of presidential independence of Congress.

Up until this point Attorney General Brownell had been telling his side of the controversy, that is, that White was a Communist spy and the Truman administration kept him in office even when his officials knew of his (White's) Communist activities.

Then Mr. Truman made a radio and television speech, that has been termed one of the most bitter in the history of American politics, in which he told his side of the story. Truman claimed White was kept in the government to further an F. B. I. investigation of White and a number of other persons under suspicion at that time. He told of talks between high government officials concerning the case and said the final decision was his own.

A discussion of this case, about which volumes have already been written, could go on forever. Who was right and who was wrong? Who has won the battle of words? Not even the most ardent Democrats will deny that their party has not emerged unscathed from the argument. But on the other hand many Republicans believe that Brownell weakened his cause when his charge against Truman was ultimately limited to "laxity" instead of betrayal as was so strongly hinted in the beginning.

One Republican observer has said that Brownell made the wrong charge at the wrong place at the wrong time.

Those observers who have looked as objectively at the case as is possible under the circumstances, believe that no one has won. And, they add, the American people have lost. The wild charges of one side, the hysterical cries of politicians at all levels of government, have convinced most Europeans, including those friendly to the United States, that Americans have gone crazy.

And the average American on the Main Streets of the nation is so disgusted with the exhibition that he is ready to wipe off the whole thing "as just politics."

It seems that no one has won and the American people have suffered.

OBITUARY

Thomas Karick
Funeral services were held Wednesday, December 9 at 1 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral home for Thomas Karick who passed away Sunday, December 6 at the age of 71 years. The Reverend Theodore Sauer officiated. Hymns were rendered on the organ by Mrs. Edna O'Conner. The active pallbearers were Herbert Brock, Walter Mielbeck, John Snyder, Arthur Trost, James Love and Edward Salow. Interment was made in the Livonia cemetery.

Mr. Karick resided at 3325 East Ann Arbor trail. He was a life time resident of Nankin Township and had retired from the maintenance department of the Ford Motor company.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Marian Karick, one sister, Mrs. Theresa Baze of Livonia; a stepson, J. Kenneth Carson, other relatives and many friends.

My PET PEEVE
By W. Scott Boyd

I'M STILL looking for the perfect guest. As the old saying goes, I'm convinced they are as scarce as hen's teeth.

Recently we received a call from some friends. They were on the way to a distant football game, would be passing through our town, and would stop off and see us. We were delighted.

They wouldn't be there for dinner they said, but would arrive not later than 8 p. m.

So—the wife and I went to the market and bought all the little things that make a snack tray, refreshments were ordered, all kinds of mixes I could think of swelled the bill until I thought it was the national debt.

At seven that night my wife fixed the snack tray, polished the best glasses, borrowed ice from the neighbors, and gave the living room one last dusting with her dress tail as she swished through.

Meanwhile, I had given the pup a bath, settled the boys in their room, dragged in several logs and had the fire going in the living room.

By this time grandmother was disgusted and had retreated to her room with a snort about a "lot of nonsense" some people will go to for just a couple of "folks."

Eight o'clock came and departed. So did nine, ten, and eleven. At twelve the telephone rang. Our friends said they had stopped off a few minutes to see some other people, became involved in a party and could not make it. They were so sorry, but they knew we wouldn't mind.

No, we didn't mind! Gad, but I sure am tired of eating pickles, olives, fancy crackers and cheese, and all the other things we splurged on. You see, we spent all of the next weeks grocery money!

"Porterhouse" steak owes its origin, more than 100 years ago, to the proprietor of a popular Ale and Porter House in New York City. One day he took a sirloin roast from his private larder, sliced the meat and saved through the bone to produce a steak. One of the leading butchers of the town soon began to specialize in these cuts and named them "Porterhouse" steaks.

Santa Claus Puts Himself on Market

Anybody want to rent a Santa Claus? Maybe he will draw the line at sliding down your chimney, but he is guaranteed to bring forth a full, jolly laugh to please the kiddies.

These Santa Claus-ing services are being offered by Bill Farwell of 169 Adams street. Complete with his own Santa Claus outfit, Bill has placed himself for rent for parties or just to give the children a thrill. He will be available for Christmas Eve and for Christmas morning, too.

Since the real Santa Claus has his hands pretty full at Christmas time, you may want to make sure he pays his annual visit by getting Bill to help you out.

When you are watching weight, watch what you put on the potatoes or how they are prepared. It is the added fat or gravy that piles up calories.

Plymouth Society To Hold Party

The senior group of the Plymouth Corners society of the Children of the American Revolution will hold its annual Christmas party on Wednesday, December 16 at 5 p. m. The event will be at the home of Mrs. Claude A. Crusoe at 43180 West Nine Mile road, Northville. Host and hostess for the day will be Jack and Mary Crusoe.

The Christmas party will be combined with guest day, when members will welcome their friends. The group will plan ways to earn money for the junior national project of purchasing a tractor and plow for Bacone college.

THIS IS A WEEKLY EVENT in the busy mailing department of The Plymouth Mail where over 6,000 copies of The Mail are assembled and readied for the post office each week. The efficient girls in The Mail's mailing department this week will handle about two tons of paper in getting the papers ready for the readers in this area. The two tons of paper used in this issue, and the number of paid subscribers, which is now over 6,000, marks the largest subscription list in the history of The Mail. No wonder Mail readers look forward to all of the news about their home town and no wonder Plymouth merchants use this medium to tell their merchandise story. Pictured above are Norma Bookout and Dorothy Conn with a portion of this week's five section paper.

Keep Your Tree Free From Fire

KINDLE CHEER, NOT FIRE with your Christmas tree by following these fire safety suggestions. Upper left, select a freshly cut tree, store it in a cool, damp place, and spray it with a flame-resistant solution before using. Lower left, place tree away from doorways, radiators and fireplaces, and set it in stand containing wet sand, water or a fire-resistant solution. Right, use flame resistant trimmings, check lights for faulty wiring, and let children handle tree only when grown-ups are present. Discard tree right after holidays, the drier it gets the greater the danger of fire.

Land Owners Getting Tax "Greetings"

Mingled among the early Christmas greetings received this week and next by home owners in Plymouth and Plymouth township will be a not-too-pleasant greeting—tax bills.

All tax statements from the city treasurer's office and most of the statements from the township treasurer's office went out this week to property owners who must pay the tax before January 19 unless they pay a four per cent penalty.

Because the county failed to return the township tax books until late, the township treasurer has been rushing to get the statements in the mail as fast as possible. The taxes can be paid, however, in person at the township hall if the statement has not yet been received.

City property owners will pay only a county and school tax along with several dollars as the first installment on the Middle Rouge Interceptor sewer. Most home owners will pay a $2 tax for the interceptor sewer. Of the operating tax, the county will get 25.1873 per cent and the school will get 74.8127 per cent of the total.

Township dwellers will pay township as well as school and county taxes. Some property owners in the township will also pay on the interceptor sewer, drain-at-large and special drain taxes, depending where they reside. Of the operating taxes total, the county will receive 24.1767 per cent, another 4.0645 will go to the township and 71.7588 will go to the schools.

A fee of one per cent is added to all taxes to cover the cost of collection. After January 19, a four per cent penalty will be added. Taxes are payable either in person or by check through the mail.

It is powered by the improved six-cylinder L-head "Super Flying Scot" engine, developing 90 horsepower. The regular factory delivered price includes an attractive continental rear tire mount, Weather Eye conditioned air system, radio, electric clock, directional signals, custom upholstery and trim, and other deluxe features.

Be a label reader when you buy canned goods. The row of type that lists the weight or measure of the contents can help you decide which size of can, or which brand, will give you the most for your money.

The silk suit is always good and can be worn for so many occasions. The silk dress with the fitted jacket is even better because it can go to more places than the skirt and jacket can. To be smart for a long while, get in a dark or neutral color.

A 1-pound can of peas yields two cups or four servings of 1/2 cup each. A pound of fresh peas in the pod will make about two half-cup servings. Available the year around, canned peas are a bargain buy on a cost per serving basis.

Let liver patties add variety and nutrients to your meal. Brown the liver (one pound for four servings) on both sides. Put through grinder with an onion. Season mixture with one teaspoon of salt and a dash of pepper. Form into patties and brown thoroughly on both sides in melted lard or drippings.

Freeze an unopened can of Florida grapefruit sections in the freezing compartment of the refrigerator several hours or overnight. Open both ends of the can and push out grapefruit. This icrystallized fruit can be sliced or "scooped" to serve as a refreshing ice, or fruit cup salad trim.

SOCIAL NOTES

The Men's Club of the First Methodist church will hold their annual Christmas party on Thursday, December 17, beginning at 6:30 p.m. Each man is asked to bring an underprivileged boy. Roy Rew will entertain the group during the evening.

Circle 6 of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Thursday, December 17 at the home of Mrs. Nina Blunk of Pacific avenue with a potluck dinner at 12:30 p.m.

The Fortnighters of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Friday, December 11 at 6:30 p.m. for a potluck supper. A square dance and white elephant gift exchange will follow at 8 p.m.

The Mission Society of St. Peters Lutheran church will meet on Wednesday afternoon, December 16 for their annual Christmas party in the home of Mrs. Leo Schultz on Five Mile road. There will be a 50 cents gift exchange. The ladies are reminded that they will pack their bags of Christmas cheer for Eloise on Friday evening December 18 and to be sure and have all cookies there that night. The gift bags will be distributed to the patients on Sunday afternoon, December 20 at one-thirty o'clock sharp.

The Hough Extension group is having their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. William Sempliner on Tuesday, December 15 for a luncheon and afternoon of games and fun with a grab bag of gifts to complete the day's festivities.

Homemakers often throw away valuable vitamins with the peelings of foods. Fresh carrots need only scrubbing and potatoes may be cooked with "jackets on." You are missing a good bet, too, if you do not realize that food which can be eaten raw—should be.

NOTICE TO PLYMOUTH SHOPPERS

We regret that the tickets for the Christmas promotion — "Trip to Bermuda" — have been lost in transit from Arkansas! A new shipment has been sent by air express and will arrive in two days!

In the meantime merchants will give shoppers sales slips that may be traded for tickets when they arrive.

as high as $26,000. Since the commission had set aside only $20,000 for the project, they asked Becker to make changes to bring the cost down—perhaps change the plan from colonial style to a contemporary design.
Becker reported Monday that he had been assured by a contractor that the colonial building could be constructed for $20,000 or less with the only change being in the heating system.
Two petitions, one for curb, gutter and pavement and another for sidewalk, were received and filed by the commission until January when they will consider all similar petitions. The signers want the improvements on Arthur street between Junction street and the C & O railroad.
A petition was also received asking for a traffic light on Starkweather avenue between Main street and the railroad. The matter is to be turned over to the traffic committee for study.
It was also decided to charge $1 for a copy of the new zoning ordinance.

GRID GIFT . . . Oilman-philanthropist Hugh Roy Cullen gave Houston U. $2,250,000 after Houston's football team beat Baylor 37-7. Previously Cullen had given $30,000,000 to build school into major college.

First Federal

Ziegler of Livonia, members of the local advisory board of First Federal and many board members from the Detroit office.
The new Plymouth office will provide savings service to families living throughout a large area, and a mail-saving plan is offered to those who live at a considerable distance from Plymouth. The city parking lot with space for 400 cars directly behind the office will be available to the bank's customers.
Expansion of First Federal Savings of Detroit, with larger quarters in Plymouth, is consistent with growth since its start in 1934. First Federal Savings, one of the country's larger savings institutions, now serves almost 70,000 savers and has assets totalling over 114 million dollars.
Savings accounts at First Federal are insured to $10,000 by Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation, agency of the United States Government. A current rate of 2 per cent is paid on savings. Other principal services available at the Plymouth branch are home financing and safe deposit boxes.

During the grand opening celebration, special gifts will be offered to all who open savings accounts with $10 or more, with choice of a Sheaffer Finesse pen and pencil set or Webster's New Practical Dictionary. Choice of several useful thrift banks is allowed to people who open savings with $1 or more. These banks are of special interest in teaching thrift to the youngsters.

'Twas Honest Fire But Under Control

Plymouth firemen had to write "false alarm" in their books yesterday morning when they answered an alarm at the Daisy Manufacturing company.

A neighbor saw billows of black smoke in the air and thought it was a nearby home. The fire department was summoned and they found that there was an honest-to-goodness fire but well under control. Daisy burns waste oil in a tank behind their plant almost every morning.

Holidays Increase Safety Hazards

"Holidays can be a joy or a tragedy, depending on how careful we are in avoiding safety hazards."

That is the blunt word from David G. Steinicke, farm safety specialist at Michigan State college. One of the big hazards, he says, comes before Christmas while hurrying to do Christmas shopping—when we have a tendency to disregard all common rules of safety. Early darkness, snow and ice and crowds of hurrying people are the safety hazards that should make us more careful rather than cutting down on our vigilance, Steinicke emphasizes.

These safety hazards are a menace to both drivers of cars and pedestrians. Our having a Merry Christmas depends on how well we take sensible precautions, the safety specialist adds.

NOW . . . SEE THE CHORD ORGAN AT BLUNK'S, PLYMOUTH

DICK KING, of GRINNELL BROS. will demonstrate every Friday night and Saturday. Spinnet model on display—home trial if desired.

If you want to really thrill your family this Christmas

make your gift the wonderful
HAMMOND CHORD ORGAN

It's the revolutionary new instrument that makes it possible for every member of the family to play rich, full chorded organ music at once. Just imagine Christmas morning, and carols on your own Chord Organ! No one in the family needs to know how to read even a note although you can play from standard music if you wish. No lessons are necessary. Just spend half an hour with the easy picture music, the simple instructions, and the Hammond Chord Organ. You'll marvel at the beautiful music you can play, at the hundreds of famous selections you quickly learn, at the hundreds of rich organ tones. Arrange for this supreme gift this Christmas—for your family and yourself! Convenient terms.

Expert Appears
Before School
Planning Group

Three experts on school planning appeared before the Community School Planning group which held their third meeting of the year December 2 at Bird Elementary school.

The three men who comprised the panel were Dr. Robert Koopman, state assistant superintendent of public instruction; William Berkhof, Mt. Clemons superintendent of schools; and Paul Carter, assistant superintendent of schools at Birmingham.

With Earl West, chairman of the future building site committee, serving as moderator of the panel, the three men discussed the advantages and disadvantages of the various class arrangements. Plymouth has the 6-2-4 arrangement, which places students six years in elementary school, two years in junior high and four years in senior high.

Other alternatives were discussed, along with the establishment of a junior college, or grades 13 and 14.

Sergeant Sharrow of the Wayne County Sheriff's Department appeared before the group in reply to a letter sent to all law enforcement agencies by the School Planning group asking for better vigilance of driving near schools. The deputy offered to furnish signs needed to control traffic near schools and to station one or two deputies in the township near schools during school rush hours.

Paul Bollinger was appointed chairman of the Community School Planning group's traffic safety committee which will decide what signs or protection is needed near schools and to make recommendations to the entire body.

The next meeting on January 4 will be at Smith Elementary school.

Tweed is a favorite material this season. Daytime dresses, suits and coats are being selected by discriminating women.

The jersey blouse is worn with the tweed suit and a fur ascot adds a nice note to such a costume. Small turbans and unusual ear bobs may be worn with the new tweeds.

Fire Destroys Service Station

Fire of an undetermined origin destroyed the interior of Mason's Speedway 79 Service station at Northville and Five Mile roads last Saturday morning.

Both the Northville and Plymouth township fire departments were summoned to fight the blaze which was discovered by a passing motorist at about 6:50 a.m. Although Northville firemen found that the service station was just inside Plymouth township, they remained to help Plymouth township firemen extinguish the blaze.

Township firemen arrived to find two-thirds of the building in flames. Using water from city hydrants which run out to that point, firemen sprayed with fog through the windows of the frame structure. Without opening the doors, the fire was smothered by its own smoke.

Township Fire Chief Bud Holmes said that although the cause of the fire is not known, it appears to have started in the men's wash room. The insurance company has not yet estimated the damage.

Issue 16 Building Permits in City

Building permits granting construction and remodeling estimated at $100,700 were issued during November, according to tabulations made this week by City Assessor Kenneth Way. The November figure is over a third higher than the previous month when permits for $73,675 were issued.

The 16 permits granted were two less than in October. A breakdown shows that nine permits were granted for new residences costing an estimated $82,000; two permits for residence alterations costing $2,000; one permit for a commercial building costing $2,000; one permit for commercial alterations costing $11,000 and three permits for new garages costing a total of $3,200.

The commercial alteration is at the Marquis Toll House where the restaurant is remodeling the room formerly occupied by the office of the Allison Chevrolet garage for tavern use.

By LYN CONNELLY

NOW THAT King Arthur Godfrey is back at the helm of his "Talent Scouts" program on CBS Radio, he is forecasting a banner 1953-54 season for the aspiring entertainers who find a national showcase in each Monday night broadcast . . . The performers on each program are screened from among thousands of applicants . . . They represent the cream of the hopefuls, and orchestra leader Archie Bleyer sees to it that their special musical arrangements are given the thought and careful rehearsal worthy of their professional backgrounds.

Winners, in addition to receiving a cash prize, are presented on the morning "Arthur Godfrey Time" and are introduced to producers of stage, movies and television . . . One of the present "little Godfreys," songstress Lu Ann Simms, first stepped into the radio spotlight on "Talent Scouts," and so did such other top entertainers as Eddie Fisher, Vic Damone, Rosemary Clooney, June Valli, Wally Cox, Denise Lor and a host of others.

PLATTER CHATTER
CAPITOL:— Another wonderful little 45 RPM album-in-two records is "Dreamtime" by Axel Stordahl . . . Songs include such standard favorites as "As Time Goes By," "That Old Feeling," "Love Letters," "Imagination," "Getting Sentimental," "Blues Serenade," "Easy to Remember" and others . . . And a fine 33 1/2 long-playing album-record has been released featuring the popular Stan Kenton . . . Featured are "You and the Night and the Music," "Crazy Rhythm," "Reverie," "April in Paris," "Autumn in New York," "How High the Moon," etc.

NEW ELNA PORTABLE

the only machine that has all these features

There's a Magic Disc for every kind of stitch . . . some of them never before possible on a machine!

Stitches on knit fabrics don't break!

Sleeves, socks and tubular fabrics slip right over the ELNA's free arm!

Sew all this without a single attachment!

Carrying-case converts into a full-size working table!

You drop in a Magic Disc—out comes any stitch you want! As easily as playing a record, you can "play" embroidery stitches with a handmade look . . . delicate hem stitching . . . a stitch for knit fabrics that never tears. And just as easily you can sew on buttons, make buttonholes, do almost-invisible mending, applique-work and monograms. You can even convert the carrying-case into a full-sized worktable! Without doubt, THE NEW ELNA PORTABLE is the most fascinating sewing-machine in the world. Come in and try it for yourself.

Michigan Hunters Take An Estimated 70,000 Deer in State's Recently Ended Deer Hunting Seasons

Michigan hunters cropped an estimated 70,000 deer from the state's herd during the recently ended seasons, the conservation department reports.

Based on traffic counts and field game worker's estimates, researchers totaled their "guesstimate" of the entire season kill. They said the total was subject to lots of possible errors, and noted that a more accurate tally would be given out after the post card poll and hunters, report cards have been processed. This work, however, generally takes several months for completion.

The game workers' estimate shows for the regular season that 23,500 deer were taken in the upper peninsula, 27,000 in the northern lower peninsula, and 1500 in the southern lower peninsula—a total almost identical to the 52,200 total regular season buck kill of last year.

In addition, hunters took about 18,000 bucks, does and fawns during the one-day special season in the northern lower peninsula this year. Last year, during the three-day special season, somewhat more than 100,000 bucks, does and fawns were taken.

The upper peninsula kill was higher than last year's 19,000 largely, game men believe, because of an increase in hunting pressure.

The northern lower peninsula buck kill was somewhat higher than game men had expected; last year 31,000 legal bucks were taken in the region during the regular season. Then during the three-day special season, an additional 25,000 buck fawns—along with does, bucks and doe fawns —were taken. Game workers expected this buck fawn kill would cause considerable drop in the legal buck kill this fall, but the 27,000 bag estimate indicates last year's fawn crop was larger than originally thought.

The 1500 deer taken in the southern lower peninsula this year exceeded the 1100 bagged in the region last year; from year to year, however, hunters take about the same number of deer in this region and slight fluctuations generally only indicate differences in hunting pressure and conditions.

Postmaster George Timpona Advises Customers on Correct Way to Mail Christmas Cards and Packages

"No one," says Postmaster George Timpona, "is as busy these days as the average employee, unless it's the average housewife. I doubt if either will have time to think twice about anything before Christmas rolls around."

It's true, Mrs. Homemaker. So true that it will pay you many times over to follow the Postmaster's advice on how to mail your Christmas cards and gifts correctly—the first time! For example, the post office has little interest in how pretty your gift packages are wrapped. But it is definitely concerned about how well each parcel is wrapped.

Postmaster Timpona warns that, "The Christmas mail will be heavier than ever this year. If your gifts are fragile, mark them 'Handle With Care.' We'll do our best to protect them." He also suggests you select a mailing carton of corrugated fiberboard. Use a heavy wrapping paper and strong cord tied over and under several times. Christmas seals and "Do Not Open Until Christmas" stickers should be placed on back of the parcel, so the address remains easy to read.

The package itself may not be sealed, unless the return address and this inscription appears: "Contents, Merchandise—May be opened for postal inspection."

Both the sender's address and that of the recipient should be written inside of the mailing carton, for emergency use. Limits on size and weight this year vary according to destination. Ask about them when you visit the post office to buy stamps.

Right now is the best time to buy your stamps. The crowds are small, especially before 10 a.m. or between 1:30 and 3:30 p.m. Beginning December 11th all service windows will be open from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. to December 22.

As for Christmas cards, the postmaster strongly recommends that everyone forget the two's and use the three's. With a three cent stamp Christmas cards are sorted and delivered first, and they will be forwarded or returned if necessary.

"That eliminates any worry about whether your Christmas cards went astray, provided they did carry a return address. Also you can write a personal message on them, when only a signature is authorized at the third-class rate."

Delivery of your Christmas cards can be speeded up, too. Just tie them in two separate bundles, and attach the special labels marked "all for local delivery" and "all for out-of-town delivery". These tags can be picked up at the post office, and you will find other helpful mailing instructions printed on back.

If you begin now, there is plenty of time for delivery by Christmas Eve. Christmas cards going to other states should be posted before December 15, those with local addresses at least a week before Christmas.

Parcel post requires more time. Out of state gifts should have been mailed by December 5 and the local ones by December 10. After these dates are past, better use air mail service for both gift packages and Christmas cards.

SPORTS FLASHES

from The Sporting News by J. G. Taylor Spink

THE SPORTING NEWS HIGH ON HOOSIER HOOPSTERS

Picking the nation's top collegiate basketball team in an early-season size-up is pretty much the same as it was selecting the top quintette last March—it's Indiana all the way, writes Joe Goldstein in The Sporting News.

The five starters, Don Schlundt, Bob Leonard, Charley Kraak, Dick Farley and Burke Scott, who annexed the NCAA crown for the Hoosiers, are back with the Bloomington Bombshells, together with all but one of last season's reserves. As a result, Branch McCracken's club holds undisputed ranking as No. 1 in the nation, with Duquesne and Kentucky providing the only serious challenge for top laurels.

Duquesne boasts two authentic All-Americans in 6-7 Dick Ricketts and 6-8 Jim Tucker. To go with this fabulous pair—both 20-point-average scorers and rebounders—is probably the best soph in the land, Sihugo Green (6-3½), from Boys High of Brooklyn, points out The Sporting News writer. Starting with this powerful trio will be a clever soph, Mickey Winograd from Jersey City, and Lou Iezzi, junior letterman.

Three factors weigh very heavily in all evaluations of the Kentucky Wildcats: 1. They have a super pair of hoopmen in Frank Ramsey and Cliff Hagan. 2. The others are very good, particularly a sophomore, Jerry Bird, who is 6-6, and the younger players have benefited immeasurably from the year of specialized and extensive tutelage from Coach Adolph Rupp, while the Wildcats were sitting out a year's NCAA disciplinary suspension.

3. Rupp's and the Wildcats' inordinate desire to win, thereby taking out on their opponents what they consider an unjust and excessive punishment resulting from the misdeeds of former Wildcats in the basketball scandals of three years ago.

The top ten basketball clubs, according to The Sporting News:

- 1.—Indiana; 2.—Duquesne; 3.—Kentucky; 4.—Oklahoma A & M; 5.—North Carolina State; 6.—Western Kentucky; 7.—Kansas; 8.—Holy Cross; 9.—Minnesota; 10.—California.

HEGAN WANTS TO BROADCAST — GREENBERG SAYS CATCH

Jim Hegan, Cleveland Indian catcher, asked Hank Greenberg for the broadcasting job at Cleveland, reports The Sporting News. However, Hank still wants Jim, despite his weak hitting, behind the bat for the Indians, instead of behind the mike at Cleveland Stadium.

CRISLER WOULD CURB TIE GAMES ON GRIDIRON

Fritz Crisler, University of Michigan's able athletic director, has a plan to offset the trend toward ties on the gridiron, reports The Sporting News.

1. An extra point scored on a kick will continue to carry a one-point value.
2. A point scored by either a run or pass will count two points.

Watch for the Football Bowl Contest.

PICKS AT RANDOM FROM THE SPORTING NEWS

Picks at random from The Sporting News: That Tommy Glaviano probably will not be with the Philadelphia Phils next season. "He is not in our plans," said George Fletcher, secretary of the club . . . that Andy Seminick is rumored for a return to Philly — the only snag being the high price by the Cincinnati Redlegs on his services . . . Southpaw Harry Perkowski of the Redlegs failed to pitch a complete game until June 30, when he beat Milwaukee 6 to 3, in his eighth start of the season. Over the full campaign, Perkowski pitched only seven complete games in 25 attempts, but won every one of them . . . They say that the Phillies' Willie Jones is telling Philadelphia friends that he does not expect to be at his present address next spring. Reports indicate that he'll be peddled to the Giants, and the inference is that Al Dark presumably has been mentioned in a deal.

Margaret Higgins Weds Arthur Schmidt

At an impressive candlelight ceremony in St. Stephen's Evangelical Lutheran church in Detroit, Miss Margaret Ann Higgins, daughter of Mrs. Mildred Higgins and the late John Higgins of Plymouth became the bride of Arthur Walter Schmidt of Kingston Illinois.

The altar was decorated with vases of white gladioli and mums. The Reverend Virgil Vanderburg officiated at the five-thirty o'clock ceremony on Saturday, November 28.

The bride, lovely in a gown of white net and lace over satin and finger tip length veil with crescent shaped headpiece, approached the altar on the arm of her uncle, Edward Egloff of Plymouth. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of white carnations centered with a purple orchid.

Mrs. Mary Dunkel, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Doris Ebergeni was the bridesmaid and Sharon Egloff of Plymouth, junior bridesmaid. They wore matching floor length gowns of royal blue net over satin and carried crescent shaped bouquets of pink carnations. The little flower girl, Gloria Henschall, wore a light blue gown of net over satin and she also carried pink carnations.

Milton Taylor served Arthur as best man and ushers were Russell and Orlan Egloff of Plymouth, cousins of the bride. Mrs. Higgins wore a black dress with a corsage of red rosebuds. Following the ceremony a reception for 100 guests was held in the church dining room with guests present from Pontiac, Clarkston, Detroit and Plymouth.

The combined choirs of the Dix avenue and Cherryhill Methodist churches will give a Christmas concert on December 13 at 8 p.m. at the Cherryhill church. The choir will be directed by Everett Burrell. An electric organ will be loaned for the concert. A free will offering will be taken for the organ fund.

Parent-Teacher Associations Plan Annual Christmas Parties

Members of the Parent-Teacher association at the city's elementary schools have planned their annual Christmas parties to be held next week by the individual groups. Parents, children and their teachers will get together for a preliminary celebration of the Christmas season.

This year the observance at the Smith school will be a large out-of-door undertaking. The school family will share the spirit of Christmas as parents and their children, carrying lighted lanterns and flashlights, will come to the school at 7:15 p.m. on Tuesday, December 15.

The group will first gather in the classrooms, and at 7:30, to the heralding of two high school trumpeters, they will form a procession to gather around a huge lighted Christmas tree on the front lawn of the school. There they will sing the old familiar carols, after which the parents will go to the auditorium for coffee and cookies and the children will go to classrooms for ice cream and cookies.

Everyone in the community has been invited to watch the outdoor performance. If the weather should not permit the outdoor "sing" it will be conducted throughout the school halls.

Parents and teachers at the Bird elementary school will be treated to performances by the first through sixth graders at the annual Christmas party on Tuesday, December 15, at 7:30 p.m.

Youngsters in grades first through third will present a program entitled "Dear Santa," while the fourth through sixth graders will put on a tableau and sing, "Winter Wonderland."

"Singing Christmas Tree" and "Christmas Long Ago." The piano will be played by Mrs. Merry Lynn Schroder, music teacher at the school.

The P.T.A. board and parents at Allen school will be hosts and hostesses to a two-day Christmas party. The first three grades will take the spotlight on Wednesday evening, December 16, and grades four to six will be featured on Thursday evening, December 17. Both meetings will be held at 8 p.m. Donald Rank, principal, said that each grade would take some part of a Christmas theme and carry it through.

Private and Mrs. Edson A. Whipple left Wednesday morning for Camp Pickett, Virginia, after spending 10 days with Edson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Whipple of Penniman avenue.

OPEN 'TIL 9 FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE

For little cowpokes who need rugged, comfortable footwear. Choice of low walking heels and wide toes, or regular cowboy heels and lasts.

AS THE CHRISTMAS SEASON is again approaching, the spirit of Christmas giving has again pervaded the Madonna college campus. Examining some of the contributions donated for the Baby Layette drive are (l.) Patricia Maciejewski, a senior, Joan Kozlowski and Joyce Kubick, juniors. Joyce is a resident of Plymouth while Pat and Joan live in Detroit. The Baby Layette is an annual activity sponsored by a campus committee. This year, it is being held from December 1 to 18. All items collected will be given to an expectant mother for Christmas in memory of the swaddling clothes of the Divine Infant.

A Christmas party has been planned to be held in conjunction with a very short business meeting. The date is December 15, and you will be notified via cards also. The Americanism and essay, membership, and delinquent chairmen are planning a program that will be enjoyed by all. The hall will be decorated and refreshments will be planned in keeping with the Yuletide season. All you Auxiliary girls must have a friend who would be a prospective member. Bring her. The delinquent members will also be welcomed. Each one attending the party is to bring a dollar gift, which will be given out in the same manner as in the past. Now is the time to get extra members. We should all realize the importance of a larger membership. Let's get behind this party, not only for our own pleasure, but also with an eye on making a friend of ours realize how much fun the Auxiliary can be, even though the main objective of the Auxiliary is doing for others and assisting the Post.

Another reminder! The Post House Party is December 12 at 8 p.m.! Bring the kiddies, just like a house party. There will be dancing, card playing and refreshments. Get a party of fellow members together, or come in couples, or even singly, just make sure you keep this date open, December 12. Will see you there.

Eight Auxiliary members attended the 4th District rally at Wyandotte, Sunday, December 6. They were, Virginia Bartel, Loretta Young, Delores Olsaver, Bernice Kopsenski, Kay Coolman, Grace Burley, Marion Luttermoser and Marie Norman. A merged informal meeting took place in order that both Post and Auxiliary could witness the presentation of VFW Wyandotte Post citations to the two Wyandotte policemen for the saving of two lives from drowning in the Detroit River, during a violent storm. One recipient was on hand to receive the citation. A special award went to an Auxiliary member from Trenton. She had secured 44 new members in the Post and Auxiliary of which she is presently a member.

The Post New Year's Eve party has been completely planned. Have you made your reservation? Remember, tickets are limited. Noise-makers, confetti, hats as well as a delicious buffet luncheon will be served. Tom Houghton and his dance orchestra will be on hand. Tom is well known in this area. He has played with several bands in the past and now has his own.

A service and rehabilitation meeting was attended at the Veterans' building in Detroit by President Gert Danol, Marion Luttermoser, Virginia Bartel and Marie Norman. The meeting was called in order to better formulate plans for Veterans' organization program to combat the problems that are and will be confronting the veteran today in Government, to be explicit, the legislation of veterans' bills and

Calvary Baptist Film "Prior Claim" Shows Strange Facts of Nature

The harried American businessman does not have all the ulcers. Elephant seals of Guadalupe island suffer from ulcers too! This fact, discovered recently by natural scientists, is revealed in the new Moody Institute of Science film, "Prior Claim," to be shown Sunday, December 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the Calvary Baptist church.

With refreshing originality and persistent curiosity the camera ferrets out such intriguing facts of nature as the seal's stomach trouble, the pit snake's thermal receptors, a bird which flies backward, carnivorous plants, a diving spider which makes its own diving bell, the chameleon with its long tongue and its ability to change color. The picture, which runs about 50 minutes, is in full color and is accompanied by intelligent commentary.

"Prior Claim" is the sixth in the "Sermons from Science" series of gospel-science films produced by Dr. Irwin A. Moon of the Moody Institute of Science, Los Angeles, a branch of Moody Bible Institute Chicago. The five earlier films, with sound tracks in 14 languages, have been shown all over the world and are a part of the character guidance program of the United States Air Force.

But let us get back to the seals with ulcers. The curious creatures, who like the businessman appear to be a bit overweight, shouldn't have a care in the world. They loiter around Guadalupe island, off the coast of California, all day or splash in the sea. No one comes along to bother them except curious sight-seers and MIS camera men. Yet scientists have found they suffer from stomach ulcers!

The Pacific Ocean Midway Islands are the home of many peculiar birds, among them the boson bird, which can fly backward and can take off straight up, like a helicopter. Then there are the gooney birds, which go into a hilarious folk dance. These birds were nature's contribution to the morale of the men stationed on this lonely island during the war. One cannot look at a gooney performance without being convinced that God has a wonderful sense of humor.

This film also makes a close study of carnivorous plants, which have no nerves or digestive system, yet through a series of electronic devices can capture, devour and digest insects. The minute electronic equipment of these plants makes an electrical engineer wonder and admire.

Did you know there is an air breathing spider which lives under water? It does this by creating its own diving bell, which works along the same lines as the famous bathysphere or bathysphere which scientists use to study the ocean depths.

"Prior Claim" points up these fascinating facts of nature which operate on the same principle as many of the great electronic advances of our time. Thus even in the inventions and developments which characterize this modern age, man does not have the prior claim. Wherever he may delve he finds that God was there first—He created it!

Seeks Volunteers For X-ray Drive Committee Posts

As preparation for all-out participation in the forthcoming chest X-ray drive are being intensified, meetings of area captains have been called for Wednesday afternoon, December 16, by Mrs. Ralph Lorenz, home calls chairman for the township and Mrs. Gladys Tillotson, home calls chairman for the city. Persons wishing to volunteer their services may call Mrs. Lorenz at 1053, or Mrs. Tillotson at 424-J.

The publicity committee got underway last Friday under the direction of Dean Sipson, manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Support for the program was offered to Sam Hudson, general chairman of this year's chest X-ray campaign, by Mrs. Wayne Smith, Christmas Seal chairman for the Tuberculosis and Health

Society, and her seal sale volunteers.

"It's good sense to use services for which we have already paid," Mrs. Smith said in urging Plymouth residents to participate when the mobile X-ray bus moves into town in January.

Very few people realize, she pointed out, that while the chest X-rays are taken without charge, the service is made possible from tax funds and contributions through the double-barred cross

Christmas Seals. "Whether we use it efficiently or not while the program is in Plymouth, is very much our concern," she added.

Any day the Wayne County chestmobile takes less than 400 X-rays, it is not operating to capacity and consequently is wasting valuable tax dollars. This is one of the reasons why the planning committee for this program would like to see as many Plymouth residents as possible have their chest X-rayed.

CARL PETERSON

Someone you Know, Knows Me!

Who said it's the woman who always pays? Who pilfered the rib in the first place? And who filched the apple that knocked the old Adam off his high perch and banished us to the wilderness of Plymouth? Fallen man never gets off his knees once he bows to the wiles of a little Eve. By the way what are you going to give your Eve for Christmas? How about drama by the dram—fancy perfume or cologne? It's not expensive. In fact it's cheaper than the stuff you drink by the quart. Of course I've got something up my sleeve and it's not my heart. I've got a lot of choice perfumes to unload before Christmas and you're just the laddie to swoon when you smell what I'm up to. Let's have a little scent-imental get-together tomorrow just for old times sake!

IN CASE YOU CAME IN LATE and need a clue to my identity, I'm the jolly good fellow who always finds the chimney that isn't there to land on your artificial fireplace. I just follow the Christmas reforestation program to hang odds-without-ends on gift-bearing trees. But before I can ground my loot you've got to fill my bag—and that takes a little money. It's too late now for delay and not early enough for my take-off. So if you want to keep on fooling the kids, don't let Peterson down or I may shave before Christmas and make a bigger jackass out of Santa Claus than I am myself.

Woman's Club Choir Presents Christmas Songs

Christmas selections by the Women's club choir highlighted the meeting of the Plymouth Women's club on Friday, December 4, in the First Presbyterian church. The choir, directed by Mrs. Gerald Hondorp, is in its 13th year with the club.

Mrs. Agnes Pauline, local librarian, told a story from Ruth Sawyer's collection, entitled "The Christmas Apple."

The choir's program included "Lo, Now a Rose," a 16th century melody; "I Wonder As I Wander," an Appalachian carol; "Carol of the Sheep Bells," and the English melody, "We Wish You A Merry Christmas."

Members of the choir are Mrs. Murray O'Neil, Mrs. David Mather, Mrs. Russell Daane, Mrs. Charles Wolfe, Mrs. Donald Rank, Mrs. Hugh Law, Mrs. John McAllister, Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mrs. C. M. Bentley, Mrs. Cass Kershaw, Mrs. William Hartmann, Mrs. Robert Willoughby and Mrs. Earl Mastick. Accompanist for the choir was Mrs. J. R. Cutler.

Goodwill Issues Plea for Toys

Broken dolls, discarded toy trains, bikes and other toys are needed this month by Goodwill Industries. Goodwill's handicapped workers will then have time to recondition them for sale before Christmas. They are sold at the Goodwill stores at a price within reach of the lowest income groups, thus giving many underprivileged children a chance for a merrier Christmas.

Goodwill is that organization which has given new hope, opportunity and independence to those handicapped. It has gone a long way in solving a large social and economic problem. Best of all, it has been a free enterprise solution. Self-supporting, it is an organization that survives through its own ingenuity and the Goodwill of housewives who remember to call Goodwill Industries before throwing away their discards.

Housewives in this area have always responded wholeheartedly on Goodwill Day. With Christmas near at hand, it is hoped everyone will make a special effort to throw away the old to make way for the new. The Goodwill trucks will be in Plymouth and Northville on Thursday, December 17. To arrange for a truck pick-up call Goodwill's representative, Miss Edith Sorenson, at Northville 571.

No. 4: Slow Down For Car Parked On The Shoulder.

A car parked on a highway shoulder represents a hazard. It can pull out onto the highway. A person can step out of the car in front of you. A man hidden by it can walk around onto the pavement. At night a man changing a tire can step back in front of you.

Don't drive at normal highway speed within two or three feet of the parked car.

You can do two things to reduce the hazard. Slow down so that if something does happen you can stop or dodge better. If there is no other traffic around swing to the left so that you are farther away from the parked car as you pass it.

First Jail Guests Are Four Youths

Doors of the newly-constructed Plymouth jail swung shut behind their first occupants last weekend and the police department sadly related that the first to sign the guestbook were young boys.

The four youths, ranging in age from 17 to 19, were all old enough to be jailed for their offense. They were accused of stealing two tire intertubes from the Stan Hawker Service station, 906 South Main street. The alleged theft took place Friday night and the boys were arrested shortly afterwards after a complaint by Hawker.

One youth has posted the $150 bond and will appear with the other three before Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo this week.

OBITUARIES

Oda E. Herrick

Funeral services were held Monday, December 7 at 11 a.m. from the Schrader Funeral home for Mrs. Oda E. Herrick who passed away Friday evening, December 4. Her home was at 6380 North Territorial road in Salem Township.

Surviving are her husband, Donald E. Herrick; her son, James R. Herrick of Plymouth; her father, William T. Black of Detroit; her two sisters, Mrs. Gaynell Merrill of Detroit and Mrs. Lonella C. Brockman of St. Petersburg, Florida; other relatives and many friends.

Mrs. Herrick has been a resident of Salem Township for 19 years, and was a former resident of Highland Park. She was very active in the Farm Bureau and other local organizations. Mrs. Herrick is a graduate musician from Lycoming college, Williamsport, Pennsylvania. She played the organ in Romeo Methodist church.

The Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson officiated. Hymns were rendered on the organ by Mrs. Edna O'Conner. Interment was made in Union cemetery, Elmore, Ohio.

Claire C. Adams

Funeral services were held Saturday, December 5 at 1 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral home for Claire C. Adams who passed away Wednesday afternoon, December 2 at the age of 73 years. His home was at 736 Maple street.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Bessie E. Adams; and his sister, Mrs. Edna M. Briggs of Upland, California; other relatives and many friends.

Mr. Adams has been a resident of Plymouth for the past year and a half, and formerly resided in Detroit and Dearborn. He was a member of Zion Lodge No. 1 F. & A. M. of Detroit and the Upland California Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star. He was a 32nd degree Mason in the Detroit Consistory.

The Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson officiated. Hymns were rendered by Mrs. Edna O'Conner at the organ. The active pallbearers were Howard Johnson, Floyd Tibbetts, Donald Ryder, Erwin Ottensman, Frank Bazo and Dean Saxton. Interment was made in Roseland Park cemetery, Detroit.

Susanna VanAcker

Funeral services were held Saturday, December 5, for Mrs. Susanna VanAcker who passed away Wednesday, December 2, at the age of 65 years.

She was born in Canton, Michigan, and lived most of her childhood on Deer street in Plymouth. She was the daughter of James and Rosa Williams. At her death, she was residing in Milford.

Surviving are her husband, Arthur; a sister, Mrs. Minnie Felsner of Plymouth; and two brothers, John and Albert Williams, both of Plymouth.

Mrs. VanAcker was a member of Panacea Rebekah lodge No. 477, Detroit Eastern Council No. 3 Daughters of America and treasurer of A.B.C. club of Highland township.

Services were held from Cooper Brothers mortuary in Detroit, with the Reverend Bellas officiating. Services Friday evening were under the auspices of the Panacea Rebekah Lodge. Interment was in Riverside cemetery, Plymouth.

Apartment Hit By $200 Fire

Fire last Monday morning causing damage estimated at $200 hit the two-story apartment occupied by Mr. and Mrs. William Davis, 166 East Ann Arbor trail.

A mattress, a bed, curtains and other items in the upstairs bedroom were damaged by the blaze which firemen say is of an undetermined origin. The Davis family moved into the apartment owned by Kenyon A. Olds only the week before. Mrs. Davis discovered the fire when she went to the bedroom with their seven-month-old baby.

The family reported that there had been trouble with some electrical wiring in the bedroom and that an electrician had been called last week but had not yet repaired the wiring.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Martin and family of Wayne were dinner guests Saturday evening of Mr. Martin's parents, the William Martins of Blunk street in celebration of Edward's birthday.

Deadline is Tuesday at noon.

Open NITES 'TIL CHRISTMAS

THIS WEEK SAW THE MEMBERS of Boy Scout troop P-4, sponsored by the First Presbyterian church, preparing the Christmas wreaths they have sold by advance order. The sale has been put on by Scouts for the last six years in order to pay for "Boys' Life" subscriptions and to buy equipment for the church. Working on the pine cones are, left to right: Frank

Grange Cleanings

Our Grange meeting of December 3 was a very nice meeting. There was a fine supper and a good attendance.

The new officers for the coming year were installed with due ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Andy Campbell of Ann Arbor were the installing officers, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Gudkunst of Pittsfield as the installing marshals.

Much to the regret of the members Molly Tracy was unable to accept her office as lecturer owing to the new responsibilities that she will have because of the loss of her daughter-in-law. Mr. Miltimore was elected to that office.

This is the important night when we all go to Tecumseh to help our new members receive their third and fourth degrees at Tecumseh Grange. All the new members should go. Be at the Grange Hall here at about 5 to 5:30 p.m. tonight and a way will be provided for all to ride. Potluck supper there at 7 p.m. We do not need to take our dishes as they will use their Grange dishes. Let us have a good showing from Plymouth Grange.

Blue Cross assessments are due again the last week of this month, and remember — your Grange dues for 1954 must be paid in order to hold your group privilege. Please send dues to the Blue Cross secretary by check if it is possible.

And do not forget the Christmas party next Thursday evening, December 17. Bring the usual 50 cent gift and be sure to mark if it is for a man or a woman. Those with children should bring their own gifts for them.

January promises to be a busy month. The Grange card party will be held on January 11 at the Grange Hall. Lily club will be on January 11. Pomona will meet here in Plymouth Grange hall on January 12, and the dance is coming up on January 23. So just mark all these dates on your calendar and be present at the festivities.

Predict Greater Traffic Fatalities This Christmas

You are 22 per cent more likely to be injured in an auto accident during the 10-day period from December 24 through January 3 than at any other season of the year.

More than 1160 fatalities resulting from Christmas holiday season driving have been predicted. This is 200 more auto deaths than during the eight-day holiday period last year.

Principal factors responsible for this seasonal increase will be bad weather conditions in many areas, increased holiday travel, increased social activity and generally poor visibility. The two long holiday weekends will again increase driving exposure this year.

To be sure that you are not counted among this year's crop of Christmas fatalities, DON'T.

1. ... drive any more than is necessary.
2. ... drive on long trips if a train or bus or other transportation is convenient.
3. ... drive home from parties after drinking.
4. ... drive without lights when visibility is poor.
5. ... drive without chains when roads are iced or slippery.
6. ... allow younger drivers to use the family car unless you are certain that they are responsible and experienced enough to meet the season's increased hazards.

Why Ford delivers more car for your money

With more worth when you buy it ... and more worth when you sell it ...

it's your best buy!

More go
V-8 or Six, you get more GO per gallon, thanks to Ford's Automatic Power Pilot. Only Ford in the low-price field offers V-8 power ... a low-friction Six.

More ride
With Ford's advanced front suspension, front end road shock alone is reduced up to 80%. And with Ford's balanced spring and shock absorber action you travel "first class," whether on boulevard or the rough back roads.

More drive
Fordomatic is the only "automatic" in its field which offers both torque converter smoothness and the get-up-and-go of an automatic intermediate gear. Ford also offers Overdrive and Conventional.

More looks
Modern, clean lines give your Ford style-setting beauty. And for eye-pleasing decor, you get exterior colors that harmonize with decorator-designed interiors. Ford's beautiful Crestmark bodies feature the most visibility in Ford's field. And the way these bodies last is another reason for Ford's high resale value.

More advances
Ford alone in the low-price field brings you such fine-car features as foam-rubber cushions on all seats, on all models ... suspended pedals ... Center-Fill Fueling ... and optional Ford Master-Guide power steering, which does up to 75% of the work when you turn or park. Test Drive a Ford and see why over 1,000,000 car-buyers selected Ford this year!

FROM DURBIN, AFRICA comes this picture of Edward Hough's daughter Athalie, who resides there now with her family while her husband Frances Archibald is doing a special two year assignment for the Standard Oil Company. Pictured with the Archibalds are their two children, William and Louise, and their two house servants and dog. In a short note which accompanied the picture to Mr. Hough, Mrs. Archibald stated that a dog is a necessity in every home in Africa because of the great amount of thievery that goes on. Residents may not leave their homes over night without a police attendant in the house or they would find it completely empty the next day, she said.

Don't Ruin Trees With Decorations

The heat's on at Yuletide for many outdoor evergreens and shrubs. Thousands of these Christmas favorites won't need fear freezing. Instead, their problem is to keep from being scorched. Too many home owners give their home grounds evergreens a hot foot-while stringing them with overly-powerful Christmas lights for a blinking, brilliant colorama. To keep tree decorations from getting burned use only electrical fixtures that are made to be strung on outdoor trees. They are designed expressly for this purpose and will give best results without harming the trees. Use bulbs no stronger than 15-watts. They are bright enough for a gay, colorful display yet do not generate enough heat to burn surrounding foliage, even on direct contact. Larger bulbs should never be used because of their intense heat. Damage seldom is noticed by tree owners until the following Spring when memory of strings of Christmas lights has faded. Tree men are familiar with the tell-tale signs. They suggest that care with lights is better than avoidable tree injury. Not even the most beautiful light display is worth marring valuable evergreens, a source of year-round beauty.

December 1 Kill of Deer Set At 20,000

Michigan's one-day any deer season on December 1 this year went off successfully, the conservation department reports, with hunters taking 15,000-20,000 bucks, does, and fawns.

That kill figure is only tentative, game statisticians point out, and will be refined later. The count was made by a method of traffic survey worked out at the University of Michigan.

Near perfect hunting weather and good roads brought out large numbers of hunters, and traffic in the lower peninsula north of route M-55 was heavy throughout the day and well into the evening hours.

The state police reported bumper-to-bumper traffic extending for miles along several arterial highways.

Game workers had no quick post-season estimate of the number of hunters who took part in the special season, but said all impressions pointed to as many persons afield as took part in the opening of buck season November 15.

More than 2000 hunters helped game work and the deer management program by stopping at checking stations so their animals could be examined for age and sex. Checking stations were not used as deer count points; only biological information was gathered at the stations.

A summary of that information reveals the composition of the kill was nearly identical with last year.

Including in the 2000-plus animals checked were seven percent adult bucks, 52 percent adult does, 20 percent buck fawns and 21 percent doe fawns. Last year, of the animals examined at checking stations, six percent were adult bucks, 50 percent adult does, 23 percent buck fawns and 21 percent doe fawns.

Conservation officers arrested 173 persons during the day in the area north of M-55 and early reports indicated at least two persons were killed and seven wounded in hunting accidents.

Game workers said if the special season hadn't gone off successfully because of weather or some other factor, that the state's deer herd might have been too large in certain areas to get through another winter without further damaging its range by overeating.

The main difference between a professional man and a tradesman is that a great many times the tradesman can buy and sell the professional.

Local Girl Writes Rose Bowl Coverage For College Daily

Six From Plymouth Sign Up For Trip

A Plymouth junior in the Michigan State college journalism department won the prize assignment of the State News, daily student publication of the college, when she was given the Rose Bowl assignment to cover from start to finish.

Winning one of the major assignments, which according to The State News in recent years, were the entrance of the school into the Big 10, winning a national championship, and now playing in the Rose Bowl, was Cynthia Eaton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Eaton who reside here at 1294 West Maple. Mr. Eaton is publisher of The Plymouth Mail.

Because of the interesting observations she has published during the last two weeks since State was selected to play in the bowl, and because Plymouth has so many alumni from the school and also students there now, we herewith present some briefs from stories she has written. She incidentally, will report by wire the entire trip west on the special trains and if possible give observations of other Plymouth students making the trip. At the present time eight local students have definite reservations for the game. They are Donald Sutherland, James Wagenschütz, William Cowgill, Robert Arlen, Larry and David Finney, Elaine Leitz and Cynthia. Several others will make a final decision sometime this week.

"California here we come. Tentative plans for a student train to the Rose Bowl are being considered by student government with the Junior Council and the Union Board. The total estimated price for a round trip ticket on the 'Spartan Special,' the only college sponsored train will be $140.00."

"Spartan Special sign-ups, now totaling over 700, have broken all Big 10 Rose Bowl student train passenger records. Passengers on the Wisconsin Rose Bowl train totaled 575, while Illinois had 400 and the University of Michigan 300."

"Increasing demand for 'Spartan Special' reservations has led the committee to alter its original plans. Two trains are now scheduled for the trip, one leaving from Lansing at 9 a.m. on December 26th and the second leaving from Chicago the same day at 2:20 in the afternoon. Both trains will travel the same route but will be spaced about an hour apart."

"Train seats will be assigned when tickets are picked up. This does not mean you cannot wander through the train. Coeds must have written permission from their parents to make the trip and contrary to campus rumors, coeds will not have hours in California and men and coeds will not be segregated in the train."

"Both trains will stop in Las Vegas for two and a half hours and students on the special trains may take their tickets to the main depot in Los Angeles for free round trip tickets to San Francisco and San Diego. Arrangements are also being made for busses to take the students to the tournament of roses, the football game and the MSC-UCLA basketball game which will be played there at that time."

"Students riding the 'Spartan Special' will be given special badges to wear with the background saying BEAT UCLA and the foreground saying Spartan Special. There will also be a place for the students name, celluloid covers included. Also available will be souvenir dining room menus. Students, however, will be on their honor to take only one because if they take more than that there will not be enough for everyone. Faculty cannot use the Spartan Special but are welcome to ride on the Special alumni train if they so desire."

"Medical facilities and pillows will be available on the train."

"Luggage on the train will be limited to one medium size bag per person, plus a vanity case for coeds. All baggage will be carried in the coach as there will be no baggage car. Both trains will carry a dining car for each 250 students and minimum meal prices will be breakfast 70 cents, lunch $1.10 and dinners $1.50. Two free midnight snacks will be furnished on the trains. All are urged to bring their own playing cards as there may be a shortage of them on the train."

An information desk will be set up in the lobby of Alexandria Hotel Los Angeles (student headquarters) to help students secure transportation when they arrive. Student government is working out a small loan plan for students in California who run short of money during their stay and need funds to return. Maximum loan will probably be $15.00, student government officials say."

"The Alamo Hotel in Colorado Springs, Colorado is making a special offer for students driving to the game of a nights lodging and breakfast for only $1.00."

"General data on restaurants, prices, places to see and things to do will be distributed on the train. Meals are not included in the 'Spartan Special' prices but students wishing to bring boxes of food on the trains may do so. Both special trains will return to Lansing on January fourth."

Rebecca News

A regular meeting of the lodge will be held this week on Friday, December 11. Election of officers will be the main business of the evening.

Our roast beef dinner was a very successful event with nearly 100 persons being served. The chairman, Lydia Drews, and her committee deserve many thanks for the delicious menu, decorations and the work required in order to put on a dinner for the public.

TRIBUTE

A wreath was placed in Kellogg Park Monday, December 7, in observance of Pearl Harbor Day by the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary. Virginia Bartel, chaplain, set the wreath at the base of the rock in a brief ceremony.

Italian
Rice Casserole

For lovers of Italian, food the casserole prepared by Mrs. Charles Burden of 758 Holbrook should hit the spot. Mrs. Burden, who is a native of Italy, met her husband there during the war, and came to the United States to marry him.

The Burdens have two children, Sandra and Lonnie, who can be very curious when their mother is cooking.

Mrs. Burden explained that the dish should be different for Americans since it combines tomato sauce and mushrooms. She said that in Italy when one buys mushrooms they generally come in a tomato sauce, rather than a white sauce (cream of mushroom soup) found here.

Italian Rice Casserole

- 2 cups cooked rice
- 2 hard cooked eggs, coarsely diced
- 1/2 cup (4 ounce can,) sliced cooked mushrooms, drained
- 1 small onion, chopped
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 cans tomato sauce
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 tablespoon butter

Combine all the ingredients except butter and place in a greased baking dish. Dot the top with the butter. Bake the casserole in a moderate oven, 375 degrees, for 25 minutes or until lightly browned on top. The recipe will make enough for four servings.

As we grow older it is very comforting to assure ourselves that wrinkles are merely the dimples of our second childhood.

SOCIAL NOTES

The Canton Center group of the Farm Bureau met on December 4 at the home of Robert Huebler, 1224 Haggerty highway at 8 p.m.

Howard Bowring returned to his home on Bradner road recently after deer hunting at Sidnaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vogtlin and children, David and Robin arrived from Crown Point Indiana to enjoy Thanksgiving dinner with Mrs. Vogtlin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Downing of North Harvey street. Mrs. Vogtlin and children will remain until Christmas while Mr. Vogtlin will be in Wilmington, Delaware.

Dr. and Mrs. Elmore Carney and son entertained at their cottage on Little Silver Lake recently for Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bryant and family of Alexander, Kansas, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ream and family of Plymouth.

The Social Studies committee of the American Association of University Women met on Monday morning, December 7 at 10 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Warren Worth of North Territorial road.

The Humane Society League and Michigan Blind Sales sponsored a bazaar and bake sale on Saturday, December 5. The league was founded in 1948 for the purpose of aiding all homeless and unwanted animals.

The Legislative study group of the American Association of University Women will meet at the home of Mrs. John Barnes tonight at 7:30 p.m. The Barnes' residence is at 15540 Robinwood avenue.

Madonna College To Have Outdoor Nativity Scene

The true spirit of Christmas is evident in the events that will highlight the seasonal celebrations at Madonna college this year.

The most important event will be the lighting of the outdoor Christmas Crib on Sunday, December 13 at 7 p.m. At this time, Mother Mary Annuncia, Provincial Superior of the Felician Sisters, will officially light the Crib while the traditional carols will be sung by the on-lookers.

Within the Crib will be placed a new set of wooden carved statues of the Nativity group and the Magi, made this year by Sister M. Angeline, head of the art department at Madonna. Evergreens decorated with Christmas lights will surround the Crib and a neon sign reading "Venite Adoremus" will convey the Christmas message.

The location of the Crib at the main driveway of the college has in the past attracted many a car driving down Schoolcraft road. The ceremonies are open to the general public.

How to Remove Candle Wax

Christmas time always brings the problem of candle wax stains on table linens. Try this solution. Remove the paraffin as completely as possible by first allowing it to harden and then scraping off the surface wax. Then press with a warm iron on white blotting paper. If any dye still remains in the cloth you can probably remove it by sponging with carbon tetrachloride or a commercial dry cleaner.

Speedy Clean Job on Silver Saves Nerves

The best way to keep silver clean and untarnished is to use it. But, many homemakers still "save" it for important and festive occasions. During the holiday season, these homemakers are looking for quick and easy methods for cleaning that tarnished silver.

The electrolytic method is generally satisfactory and speedy, however, that oxidized silver (with dark decoration) or flatware with hollow handles must not be cleaned by the electrolytic method.

For silver which may be safely cleaned by this method, use a large enameled kettle or bright aluminum sheet, with foil or a shallow aluminum utensil in the bottom.

Any aluminum used for this purpose will become coated with a dark deposit. A cooking utensil used for this purpose can be made bright again by cooking acid fruits, such as rhubarb, tomatoes or apples in the utensil. Or the dark deposit may be removed by boiling a weak vinegar solution in the utensil and rubbing the surface with fine steel wool and soap.

To clean the silver, fill the utensil with water enough to entirely cover all the silver. To each quart of boiling water add 1 teaspoon of salt, 1 teaspoon of baking soda and ½ teaspoon of whiting. Stir with a wooden spoon. Place the silver in the boiling solution so that each piece touches either the aluminum or another piece of silver. Do not try to do too many pieces at one time.

Boil from 30 seconds to five minutes depending upon the amount of tarnish. Remove the silver with tongs or two large forks and place on a soft cloth. Add a second lot of silver and repeat. With a clean soft cloth, polish the silver to the desired brilliance. Usually 12 strokes on each surface is satisfactory.

Tangerine Mums A Yummy Dessert

As typical of Christmas as candles, the little zipper-skin fruit from Florida is here again in good quantity to play its part in your Yule festivities. Tangerines in the toes of stockings, and in your fruit bowls, you'll naturally have. And you can let them solve your dessert problems during the holidays, as witness these tangerine chrysanthemums, as pretty and as toothsome a dessert as you could concoct. Simply cut the peel into thin strips with scissors, starting from the stem end and leaving attached at the bottom. Separate the sections at the top, to form a cup in the center of each tangerine, and fill this with raisins. Here the fruit platter is centered with candied grapefruit peel for those who have confirmed sweet-tooth tendencies. Serve with coffee, and forget waistline worries! Fruit is sensible after heavy meals, and tangerines, like other members of the citrus family, are excellent sources of vitamin C.

Candied Grapefruit Peel

2 Florida grapefruit
¼ cup sugar
½ cup light corn syrup
1 cup water

Remove peel in 4 lengthwise sections from each grapefruit. Cover with cold water; boil 12 minutes; drain. Repeat 3 times, cooking the last time until peel is tender. Cut peel in thin strips with scissors about ¼ inch wide. Combine sugar, corn syrup and water in saucepan. Stir over low heat until sugar is dissolved. Add grapefruit peel and cook about 40 minutes, stirring occasionally to prevent peel from sticking to pan. Cook until all or most of the syrup is absorbed. Roll peel, a few pieces at a time, in granulated sugar. Let dry about 24 hours. When dry, store in covered container.

YIELD: Approximately 1½ pounds.

Hushed Child Loses Chance to Be Singer

Mothers interested in encouraging their child's interest in music should more often curb the urge to "shush" little preschool Johnny when he is whistling or sing-singing around the house.

Johnny needs some opportunity to experiment with his voice. However, you are justified in limiting Johnny's louder vocal experiments to more appropriate times than during Dad's favorite evening radio program, for instance.

A small child should be given an opportunity to "investigate" musical instruments in order to encourage his musical attempts. However, he will not be ready to enjoy playing musical instruments in a group until he is five or six years old, says Roma Gans of Columbia university. "We must let the child live this year of his life and not prepare him for the year ahead."

With all good intentions, some mothers and nursery school teachers make the error of pushing such activity before the child has enjoyed the chance to experiment individually.

Providing the child with pleasant musical experience--attending concerts for short periods, hearing music in church--all such experiences that provide a rich background for enjoyment of music later in life.

Have records he can help you play. And remember that for him part of the fun comes from being able to see the disk turn. Include song-books among his other books.

Know The Four Pork Chop Cuts

Four cuts of pork are known and nutritious as the loin chops and frequently sell for several cents per pound less. To develop the flavor of all chops to the fullest extent cook them by braising. To braise the chops, brown them first in their own or added fat. (Hold the fat edge on the heated frying-pan to melt fat so the chops will not stick.) When well browned, cover tightly and cook over low heat for 45 minutes to 1 hour for chops ¾ to 1 inch thick. Thinner chops take approximately 30 to 45 minutes cooking time. Fruit flavors are always good in combination with pork.

Candied Peel Recipes Given

Thinking of making your own candied orange peel for the holidays? Here is a recipe you can try.

Remove rind from three oranges. Place in saucepan, cover with cold water (about 1½ cups), and bring to a boil.

Cook for 15 minutes or until peel is easily pierced with a fork. Remove from water but save water for syrup. With edge of a spoon scrape out white pulp from peel and cut peel into ¼-inch strips with scissors.

Measure water and combine with twice the quantity of sugar. Drop in orange peel and bring to boiling. Continue cooking until syrup will spin a thread. Remove strips of peel from syrup and roll each piece in granulated sugar. Dry on a wire rack. Place in covered containers. Yield 10 ounces.

For candied grapefruit peel: Remove rind from two grapefruit. Place in saucepan, cover peel with about two cups cold water and bring to boil. Proceed as for candied orange peel. Yield: Approximately 18 ounces.

Helpful Hints Concerning Building, Remodeling, Repairing & Redecorating

BUILD

ONE OF THE ATTRACTIVE FEATURES of the new homes being constructed on Birch Estates subdivision is the kitchen. Cupboards and woodwork are all done in birch, and work surfaces are of Formica. A picture window is placed above the double sink, and a small breakfast bar separates the kitchen from the dinette. The floor is of marbelized light blue and white linoleum. An electric fan in the ceiling is another of the kitchen's special features.

The How, Wherefore And Why of Sandpaper Is Primary To Successful Wood Finishing

Five different minerals, four backings, and four bonding agents are used in the construction of most "sandpaper"—but no sand!

Yes, it's as simple as all that and need not cause unnecessary confusion. The following discussion of the various kinds of sandpaper and their respective uses should clarify the sandpaper picture for homeowner, carpenter and dealer alike.

Out of the multitude of varieties, one principal mineral (Garnet) and only one type of backing (Paper) is used in most wood sanding. A second mineral (Silicon Carbide) is used with a waterproof paper to achieve a satin finish on enamel, shellac, varnish and lacquer.

Briefly, the five minerals are: FLINT, actually white quartz, is similar to white sand in appearance and is largely responsible for the descriptive misnomer, "sandpaper." Not as hard nor as tough as the other four minerals.

GARNET, a red quartz, is heat-tempered to increase its hardness, producing an abrasive mineral ideally suited to wood sanding.

EMERY, black tougher than Garnet but with a poorer cutting edge, is primarily used in polishing metal to remove rust, grease and dirt.

ALUMINUM OXIDE, unlike the three natural minerals, is manufactured by the fusion method in the intense heat of an electric furnace. It is the second-hardest of the abrasive minerals, and the most durable. Because of the blocky structure of the mineral particles, it is excellently adapted to grinding and polishing hard metals.

SILICON CARBIDE, also a product of the electric furnace, is shiny black, the hardest and sharpest of the abrasive minerals, but more brittle than Aluminum Oxide. It is excellent for use on glass, marble, leather, lacquer, enamel and certain types of metal finishing.

After being mined or manufactured, the minerals are crushed to small particles that vary in grain from a very fine powder to sizes about the size of this letter "O". After crushing, the mineral particles are carefully screened according to size (grit) and are coated on backing materials which have been previously treated with adhesive.

Two methods of coating the grains to the backing are common — (1) a gravity feed system, which deposits a controlled quantity of abrasive mineral from a special hopper; and (2) an electrostatic coating system, which employs magnetic force to position each particle vertically on the backing, achieving greater cutting efficiency per particle since no particles are allowed to lie flat.

Four types of adhesives are used to bond minerals to backings — (1) pure hide glue, used in the manufacture of most abrasives for wood and leather finishing and many metal finishing operations; (2) synthetic resins less affected by friction heat, used in making abrasives designed for especially heavy duty; (3) a combination of pure hide glue and synthetic resins; and (4) a waterproof adhesive of synthetic resins, used in making "Wetordry" brand abrasives for use in wet sanding of varnished, enameled and lacquered surfaces, and metal plastic and glass.

Two types of mineral coatings are in common use — Open Coat, which consists of relatively widely spaced grains that minimize friction, and Closed Coat, in which grains are positioned close together, cutting more evenly.

Various sizes of the particles are indicated by number, either given as 1/0, 2/0, etc. or as 60, 70, 80, etc. Sandpaper varies in grit from the finest, 10/0 (400) to the coarsest, which is 4 1/2 (12).

On the back of most coated abrasives is a key indicating mineral, backing, coating, and sometimes type of bond. For example, the key, "150-A, Open Coat," means: "150" is size of grit; "A" indicates paper backing; "Open Coat" indicates a spaced coating of the mineral grains. If the adhesive is waterproof, if the coating is accomplished electrostatically, or if the bond is of a special type for extremely hard usage, this is usually shown by trade name or by a generic descriptive phrase.

Garnet or Aluminum Oxide (Production Paper) are the products in general use for sanding wood "in the white." Both of these minerals are harder and tougher than Flint. Garnet has a better fracture and mineral shape for wood sanding than Flint. In this respect it is better than Aluminum Oxide, although the latter is a tougher mineral than Garnet and thus less resistant to wear.

For hand sanding, Garnet is preferred due to its greater sharpness. Hand sanding does not develop shock, and the toughness of Aluminum Oxide is unnecessary. For edge sanding or for cross grain sanding, Garnet is preferred since Aluminum Oxide, being less sharp, would create a greater friction heat.

However, for belt sanding and drum sanding with the grain of the wood, Aluminum Oxide (Production) is preferred, as the toughness and hardness of this mineral will withstand mechanical shock better than Garnet, and give greater life.

Another change of mineral occurs in the finishing of surfaces that have been enameled, varnished or lacquered, since this is best accomplished with a sharp cutting edge, a fine grit, and a lubricant to improve the cutting efficiency and minimize filling. For this purpose, Silicon Carbide, electrostatically coated on a treated paper backing and bonded with a waterproof adhesive, as in the "Wetordry"-type coated abrasives, produces best results.

Refinishing techniques for woodwork and furniture are nearly identical using garnet 6/0 for most dry sanding. To produce a satin finish, when the furniture is refinished, sand to a level surface with a waterproof paper with which water can be used as a lubricant. Sand with the grain, and finish by scuffing off the entire surface with the finest grade of steel wool.

Garnet 150 open coat paper can be used for practically all sanding necessary in the refinishing of walls — for sanding zinc sulphate coatings on new walls to a smooth finish, for sanding

Window Shopping With Sue

With Santa Claus and his herd of reindeers waiting around the corner you're probably tearing your hair over just what to do about Christmas presents. Well, you can't lose if you figure out something for your home—new furniture or appliances, or something like that. A gift like that can benefit the whole family, and give you even some additional pride in your home.

Something really new in home furnishings are Herculite chairs, currently getting a big speel from Arthur Godfrey. Blunk's have recently received a shipment of the chairs, and say they're going real well. Anyway, it seems that a fellow named Dallas Smith discovered the design for this furniture while sitting on a beer case. You see, he was so surprised that the beer case, made of cardboard, could sustain his weight, that he decided to use the same principal for a chair.

These particular chairs are made of fiberboard, set with cushions for the seat and back. The seat cushion has built in springs, and the chairs are really amazingly comfortable. And strong, wow! They've made tests on them by setting a truck on four of these chairs, and it supported it easily. That's 2,000 pounds per chair! They also dropped one out of an airplane at 2,000 feet and it came through the experience intact.

The chairs are upholstered with a checked fabric, and looks like any other living room or den chair. But the price is so very different. They're only $17.95. Because they have no arms, you could push three of them together to form a sectional.

So while you're wandering around looking for those presents you don't stop in to Blunk's and just try one of these chairs?—it takes only one hand. Just perfect for the housewife when she's cleaning too.

Hairline cracks between brick and mortar can cause the wall to leak. They can be filled with a colorless waterproofing compound made for this purpose.

Outdated bathrooms are now brightened and made modern with colorful kerlite or kenflex floors, fluorescent lighting and tant wall covering.

Reverend T. B. Leith will attend the 50th anniversary services in the Presbyterian church, Brighton, next Sabbath, the 13th.

Frank Hough and Katie Perrin were married a few days ago. They went to Canada to get the knot tied.

E. D. Hubbard, who is employed by John Lundy in the building of the electric light power house sustained injuries yesterday forenoon that will confine him at home for a number of weeks. With others he was engaged in putting rubberoid on the roof when one of the rolls got away from him. He undertook to stop it when he slipped and fell down the roof to the ground, a distance of 16 feet, striking on his right side across a tool-box.

The girls and teachers of the high school have organized a basketball team and are practicing in Starkweather hall, which has been arranged for their use.

A little girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dibble Tuesday evening.

It is now promised that the electric street lights will be turned on by Christmas. It will be a rather costly Christmas present, though.

Mrs. Olive Miller will leave for Georgia to remain for the winter with her daughter.

avenue, Saturday, December 15. A complete line of fresh and salt meats will be in stock.

Louis Cohen, driver of a truck for the General Linen Supply company of Detroit, was killed Monday morning when the truck he was driving hit a tree on the Ann Arbor road west, near the village. Apparently Cohen had fallen asleep. The truck was a complete wreck. The unfortunate man was picked up by a passing motorist and brought to Plymouth, but he was beyond medical aid when he arrived here.

Mrs. William Martin of Starkweather avenue, entertained 11 boys Wednesday, the occasion being her son, Edward's 11th birthday. After several games and contests, the hostess served a dainty three course lunch.

Master Edward received many lovely gifts. Among those present were Forbes Smith, Edward and Robert Wingard, William and Byrd Fisher, Ralph Bork, Orel Highfield and Ralph Patzch.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION AND APPEARANCE

At a session of said Court held in the Wayne County Building in the City of Detroit, County of Wayne and State of Michigan on the 23rd day of November, A. D. 1953, the following was presented: HONORABLE GEORGE B. MURPHY.

Upon the reading and filing of the Bill of Complaint as said and the Affidavit of the Petitioner, WILLIAM FOREMAN, attached thereto, from which it satisfactorily appears to the Court that the respondents therein named, or their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and/or assigns, are proprietors and necessary parties in the above entitled cause, and/or hold interests in and to the premises involved, and it further appearing that after diligent search and inquiry it cannot be ascertained, and it is likewise presently undeterminable as to whether certain parties in interest, and/or persons in interest are living or dead, or where certain of them may reside if living, and if dead, whether they have personal representatives or heirs living or where they or some of them may reside, and further that the present whereabouts of said parties in interest are unknown, and that the names of the persons who might be parties in interest without being specifically named, but who are embraced therein under the title of unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and/or assigns, cannot be ascertained and are presently undeterminable as "legal heirs" of the Petitioner, WILLIAM FOREMAN, after due and diligent search and inquiry.

ON MOTION OF EARL J. DEMEL, attorney for Petitioner.

IT IS ORDERED that the respondents, HARRIET FOREMAN, BRENDA LOU FOREMAN and GAIL LOUISE FOREMAN and their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and assigns together with the unknown and unascertained and presently undeterminable legal heirs of said Petitioner, WILLIAM FOREMAN, cause their appearance to be entered in this cause on or before Friday the twelfth (12th) day of February, A. D. 1954, and in default thereof of that said Bill of Complaint be taken as confessed by the said WILLIAM FOREMAN, HARRIET FOREMAN, BRENDA LOU FOREMAN and GAIL LOUISE FOREMAN, respondents, their unknown heirs, devisees, legatees, and/or assigns, and that IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a copy of this Order shall be personally served upon all persons, interested in and to said land and premises, if found within the State of Michigan at least ten (10) days before the return date hereof, and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that a true copy of this Order shall be published once in each week for three (3) successive weeks preceding the twelfth (12th) day of February, A. D. 1954, in The Plymouth Mail, a newspaper printed and circulated within the County of Wayne where the premises involved are situated and being within the county in which the Petitioner herein resides.

GEORGE B. MURPHY, Circuit Judge in which the foregoing Order was duly made, involves and is brought for the purpose of sale of the following described premises situated and being in the Township of Northville, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, described as follows, to wit: "The southeast 1/4 of the southeast 1/4 of Section 6, except the westerly 3 acres thereof, all of said premises being situated in the Township of Northville, County of Wayne and State of Michigan, consisting of approximately 37.68 acres more-or-less."

A gravel truck was struck by a Pere Marquette passenger train at the Mill street crossing Saturday afternoon. The truck was badly damaged and the driver escaped without injury.

A very pleasant surprise party was given to Frank Tillotson at his home Tuesday evening. Cards were played. Clayton Van Slike winning first prize and Gordon Smith winning the second prize.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Coverdill were called to Indianapolis, Indiana on account of the sudden death of the former's aunt, Mrs. Fred Goeppe. Mrs. John Cool, of Gaines, Michigan accompanied them.

As has been the custom for a number of years past, Mrs. C. H. Bennett has again kindly furnished the Christmas seals which appear upon each copy of The Mail today.

The members of the Business and Professional Women's club of Plymouth were delightfully entertained Tuesday evening at a dinner and Christmas party at the Hotel Mayflower. Mrs. Norma Cassidy and Miss Czarini Penney were hostesses for the evening.

Sunday is universal Bible day throughout the world. The event will be emphasized in a most emphatic way at St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church in Plymouth. Reverend Edgar Hoenke plans a display of numerous Bibles of rare historic value, some of them printed centuries ago, for members of his congregation to see when they visit the church Sunday morning and evening.

While Charles H. Bennett was out for a walk, an automobile drove up in front of the Bennett residence. The driver got out, walked up to the front door and rang the bell. Upon being informed by the maid that Mr. Bennett was away, the caller requested the lady to advise Mr. Bennett of the name of the caller. It was not long before Mr. Bennett returned home. "That guy named Ford was here to see you when you was out, Mr. Bennett," said the courteous maid. "That guy named Ford" was none other than Mr. Henry Ford, founder and president of the Ford Motor company. Mr. Ford and Mr. Bennett have been friends for more than half a century. The well known Plymouth air gun manufacturer was the first man in America to sign up to buy stock in the Ford Motor company when as a youngster Henry Ford was trying to organize his automobile manufacturing concern.

Mrs. Edith Hadley has received word that her daughter, Majorie Hadley, underwent an emergency appendectomy on board a troop ship enroute to Australia, November 6. Miss Hadley is now recovering in an Army hospital in Australia. She is with the American Red Cross.

Eugene Spencer, a graduate of Plymouth High school about the year 1910 and a cousin of Spencer Heeneey of Farmington, who is remembered by many of the older residents of this city, was one of the former Jap prisoners who returned to America last week on the steamer Gripsholm.

Miss Peggy Blake, daughter of Mrs. Lillian Blake of Northville and well known in Plymouth, has been winning outstanding success in New York as a writer of script for radio plays.

Scriptures Printed in 1769 Lead in Old Bible Search

Because of the many responses to the search for the oldest Bible in this community the closing date of the contest has been postponed. Plymouth homes haven't gone completely modern; they still have a sentimental attachment for their old Family Bibles.

Merton Henry, pastor of the Seventh-day Adventist church, reported today that an old Bible Contest being conducted by the group in connection with the American Bible Society's annual Bible reading program, has tapped a vast reservoir of old-time religious feeling sometimes hidden beneath the veneer of modern living.

"Response to the search started last week for our community's old Bibles has more than confirmed our belief that most people have a strong attachment for the Scriptures," the minister said. More than 13 persons have called to enter their old Bibles in the contest. Some of them have been cherished family possessions for as long as 184 years, Pastor Henry said.

The city-wide contest will continue until December 20 thus making it possible for others to enter their treasured old Bibles who have not already done so. Participants are asked to call the minister at 1226-J or write him at 429 West Ann Arbor trail, Plymouth. If they cannot bring the Bible personally, a qualified person will be sent on request to the individual's home to inspect the volume and record its characteristics. No one need give up his entry. He need only substantiate the date of its publication. The award for owning the oldest Bible will be a new one of exceptional quality.

There is a fine display of Bibles in the windows at 1058 South Main street. There you will find one with the original Hebrew language of the Old Testament, a original Greek language of the New Testament, a Moffatt's translation of the Scripture and a Revised Standard version, also the popular King James version.

A special feature is a Hebrew Scroll such as has been in use in the Synagogues of the Jewish nation for many centuries and was kindly loaned by Rabbi Segal of Detroit for this display. Dave Galin was the co-sponsor in securing the scroll for this occasion and he has donated space in the window of his appliance shop on Pennington avenue where the names of the ones in the lead with the oldest Bible will be found and also the closest runner-up. The Bible with the oldest date which has been entered thus far is 1769 owned by Mrs. Allen Horton and 1804 owned by Mrs. William Squires.

Safety Council Holds Meeting

The Plymouth division, Detroit Industrial Safety Council held its monthly dinner meeting Monday, December 7 at 6:30 p.m. in the Mayflower hotel.

Del A. Smith, councilman of the city of Detroit was the guest speaker. His message was "Common Sense in Safety."

Smith welcomed the opportunity to meet many of his old friends in this area. Many remember him as former manager of the D. S. R. of Detroit, and for many years he has been serving in his present capacity as councilman. Smith says, "We have made safety our business and we are succeeding in decreasing industrial accidents, but when employees leave the plant, they are 'on their own' when it comes to safety."

"Off-the-job" accidents cause absenteeism and lost production and make just as important a problem to management as "on-the-job" safety.

FORTY QUARTS OF MILK PLEASE, says James Kissire, 31601 Schoolcraft road, who each week travels from his home in Livonia to the Cloverdale Dairy store here to purchase a week's supply. Seven people—his sister and brother-in-law and their two children, a brother, his mother and himself—consumes the week's supply which ranges from 20 to 24 half-gallon bottles. The order sometimes includes five quarts of butter-milk and a half-gallon of ice cream. The family has two refrigerators, one just for milk. "We drink milk at every meal and we never have any doctor bills," Mr. Kissire explains. The weekly cost is about $8. Pictured selling the milk is Mrs. Bertha Allen, manager of Cloverdale Dairy.

Kent Praises Community Fund Drive Results

A letter of thanks to the community was written this week by Thomas Kent, president of the Plymouth Community Fund, for the fine reception given the 1953-54 drive. Chairman Harry Roberts had announced last week that the drive surpassed the $19,000 goal set for Plymouth.

Kent's letter follows: Dear Fellow-Townsmen: The 1953 campaign for funds is over and we have met the needs of the agencies which have asked us for funds in order to operate next fall.

They are very worthy—each one of them—from Salvation Army to Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and all the rest.

We have worked hard this year to audit their budgets carefully, and to be certain that the budgets were realistic and attainable. We believe that in meeting the need we are helping to make Plymouth the kind of city where our children can be proud to live, because the people care about their neighbors.

The Community Fund Board, meeting monthly, has served without pay of course, as it has for many years. And for their work I wish to give a vote of thanks to Russell Isbister, Harry Roberts, Harry Larsen, Bill Slioger, Dr. Snoko, Mrs. Russell Roe, William Hartloff, Robert Smith, George Witkowski, Lewis Goddard, George Mayhew and Dean Saxton.

But to YOU, the Board owes an even greater debt of thanks, Mr. and Mrs. Plymouth for your generosity, and your good-humored, conscientious help during the 1953 Campaign. God bless you all!

Thomas C. Kent
President
Plymouth Community Fund.

The doctor had brought a patient to the hospital. The operation was not to be a complicated one.

"Was it really necessary for the patient to go to the hospital?" somebody asked.

The doctor nodded. "Yes," he replied. "It means a roof for the new house I am building."

Grange Gleanings

The dance on November 28 was not as well attended as it should have been, but those who were there had a lot of fun and an air of real good fellowship prevailed. There will be another dance on January 23 so we hope to see a big crowd then.

This item is for the special notice of our 16 new members. We hope everyone of them will be on hand to go to Tecumseh tonight, December 10. All of the Grange members who can do so are urged to go. There will be potluck supper at 7 p.m. We do not have to take our own dishes. But, of course, we will take a dish to pass.

After supper the Tecumseh degree team will put on the work of the third and fourth degrees which is very lovely so do not miss it. Let us have a good showing of Plymouth Grange members.

Miss Maud Bird of Highland Park was the Thanksgiving day guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. Vealey.

We extend our sympathy to Joe and Molly Tracy whose daughter-in-law died recently. Also to Bertha Tiffin and Marilla Coverdill upon the loss of their mother.

Mrs. Brodie was in Flint recently visiting her daughter and her husband who accompanied her home Saturday evening and came to our dance.

Suggest Gift Of Savings Bond For Christmas

Attractive Christmas gift folders are available for United States savings bonds, Postmaster George Timpona announced to shoppers today.

"These folders have been designed especially for gifts of U. S. savings bonds at Christmas-time," he said, "and savings bonds are the real present with a future, America's No. 1 Christmas gift."

There is a direct connection between bond savings and peace on earth. Everytime we put a surplus dollar into savings bonds, we are helping to strengthen and stabilize our economy, both individual and national. We are combating price inflation and building up buying power for the future, putting money away in a safe place where it will grow with the years.

"The folders, distributed by the Treasury Department to all post offices, have a colorful cover, and space is provided for inscribing the name of the recipient and the name of the donor. Inside the folder is a die-cut page in which any denomination bond will fit," Mr. Timpona concluded.

How did you lose your position in the bank—playing the races? Nope.

Strong drink? Never drank a drop in my life. Poker, maybe? Don't know one card from another.

Well, come out with it! The president caught me eating a plate of Florida strawberries with my lunch the other day and called in the bank examiner.

Jim: Why do you call your dog Baseball?

John: He catches flies, chases fowls, and runs for home when he sees the catcher coming.

C.A.P. Civilian Air Patrol NEWS

The discussion at our regular Tuesday meeting, November 24, was about the Regional Conferences held on Saturday and Sunday, November 21 and 22, at Cincinnati, Ohio. Over 500 CAP Senior Officers attended representing outlying states including Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio. The Plymouth Squadron was represented by Major Peter Perkins, commanding officer of Northville, First Lieutenant William Zimmerman of Detroit and Second Lieutenant Edward Reberg also of Detroit.

The United States Air Forces flew these and other officers from Michigan in C-46 Aircraft to the conference which was designed and sponsored to help us make Civil Air Patrol as efficient and useful as possible, which ultimately, will aid the United States in providing security and protection against the forces of foreign aggression.

The information returned by our officers will greatly aid this squadron in our training program for the coming year.

Special Note: Sergeant Michael Green of Napier road in Northville received a flight scholarship at Lansing on November 15, which entitles him to 10 free hours of flight instructions at any authorized school.

These and other awards are given to those with high proficiency records.

Anyone may attend our meetings which are held at the Plymouth high school on Tuesday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. Applications are open for Senior and Cadet members.

The local civil air patrol took part in the recent search for the ambulance plane that crashed six miles south of Dowagiac Saturday, November 28. The Plymouth Squadron received the alert call at 4 a.m. Saturday morning from Selfridge Air Base. They were given their search area and four planes, privately owned by local members, flew the mission.

Those flying were: B. T. -13 piloted by Lieutenant White, observer Major Perkins; Howard, piloted by Lieutenant Mettetal, observer Captain Lodge; Aircopp, piloted by Warrant Officer Lancaster; and Stinson, piloted by Lieutenant Zimmerman, observer Bill Godfrey.

The planes returned after searching from four to five hours without finding the crashed plane.

Now's the time to save money!

Today's local delivered price of the BUICK SPECIAL
2-Door, 6-Passenger Sedan
Model 48D (illustrated)
$2196.88

WE feature the delivered price of the Buick pictured here to make a point about the big trade-in allowances we're giving today.

The price you pay for the car itself—the local delivered price—is the first thing to look for when you're bargaining.

It's this figure less what you get on your trade-in that determines your real cost—the dollar difference you pay.

That means—keep your eye on the dollar difference. The more car it buys, the better deal you make.

So with our low delivered price and the high trade-in allowances we're giving right now—we think we have a whale of a buy for you.

And when you check into things, we believe you'll discover this:

You get more room and power for your money in this Buick than in any other car on the market.

You get hundreds of pounds more automobile here—more strength in the brawnier frame, more durability in the heavier chassis, more safety in the thicker structural members—than in a long list of cars at this Buick's price or higher.

You also get a lot more in a Buick that the specifications don't show—more fun, more thrill, more comfort, more pride and pleasure.

But why waste another day—with time growing shorter, winter coming closer, and your present car getting older? If you're looking for a real automobile at a real buy in a real deal—come look at Buick right now.

Local Insurance Agents Unite To Form Association Branch

Local insurance agents united recently to form the Plymouth Association of Insurance Agents. Principals and Sound Practice in the charter of the local association has been approved by the Michigan Association of Insurance Agents of which the local agents are all members. This is the slogan of the local association "To Support Right Principals and Sound Practice in the Transaction of the Business of Insurance."

High on the list of objectives for their first year is to assist the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce in planning and carrying out a successful Town Inspection on January 12, 1954. The Michigan Fire Underwriters association will also assist the Chamber of Commerce with the aid of local boy scouts, service clubs, our Fire Department and other civic minded organizations. Plymouth is honored by being one of nine cities in Michigan to receive the Town Inspection in 1954. The cooperation of every citizen in recognizing and eliminating his fire hazards is anticipated.

The second objective of the as-

Kids Can Try Skill At Coloring Santa

Here is something that will add a little color to your Christmas, kids. Kresge's is offering $50 worth of prizes for just coloring pictures of Santa Claus and his little friends.

The contest is open to youngsters 10 years of age or under. Pictures may be colored with either paints, pencils or crayons, just so you are careful to be neat and accurate. That is what the judges are going to look for. Then turn your entry into Kresge's toy counter by Thursday, December 17.

If you are one of the winners you will find your name announced in The Plymouth Mail on December 22. And what might you win? First prize, $25.00 gift certificate; second, $10 certificate; third, $5 certificate; and five honorable mention prizes of $2 gift certificates.

School Board Minutes

The regular meeting of the Board of Education was held on October 12 at 8 o'clock p.m. in the business office of the high school.

Present: Mr. Booth, Mr. Caplin, Mr. Gallimore, Mr. Smith, Mrs. Willoughby and Superintendent Isbister.

Also, Mr. Cooke, Vice-President of Michigan National Bank of Flint, Mr. Finlan of Finlan Insurance Agency, Mr. Roy Fisher of Fisher Insurance Company and Mrs. Trombley of Wood Insurance Company.

Mrs. Cooke of the Michigan National Bank presented a program for the investment of dormant funds from the debt retirement accounts. He suggested that the funds be invested in certificates of deposit issued by the Michigan National Bank and bearing interest at 2 1/2% per annum with maturity dates set to conform with the principal payment requirements. The Board looked with favor on the program, but delayed approval until later.

The local insurance agents urged the Board to continue the insurance program as written in the past. They felt the local agents were in a better position to provide the necessary service. Considerable discussion developed around the differences between Mutual and Stock Companies. It was decided to take no action on the insurance for Allen Elementary School until the Mutual representatives had an opportunity to present their program. A meeting is to be arranged for this purpose on Monday evening, October 19, 1953.

It was moved by Mr. Booth and seconded by Mr. Smith that the President Secretary be authorized to sign the notes for the $50,000 to be borrowed from the National Bank of Detroit. This money is to be used for current operating expenses and to be repaid when the state aid payments are made.

Ayes: Mr. Booth, Mr. Caplin, Mr. Gallimore, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Willoughby. Nays: None.

Minutes of the last regular and the intervening special meetings were read and approved as read.

It was moved by Mrs. Willoughby and seconded by Mr. Caplin to approve for payment the following bills:

Nos. 4245-4363 - totaling $12,500.11 Operating Fund. Nos. 81-99 - totaling $58,401.42 Building & Site Fund.

Ayes: Mr. Booth, Mr. Caplin, Mr. Gallimore, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Willoughby. Nays: None. The meeting adjourned at 10:40 p.m.

Respectfully submitted, Carl Caplin, Secretary

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held in the business office of the high school on October 19, 1953 at 7:00 p.m.

Present: Mr. Booth, Mr. Caplin, Mr. Gallimore, Mr. Smith and Mrs. Willoughby. Also, Mr. Dean of E. H. Dean Electric Company and Mr. Gray of Mills Mutual Agency were present.

Mr. Dean asked permission to substitute the rapid start fluorescent fixtures in place of the instant start fluorescent ones as specified in the electrical contract. He advised the Board that the installation was made in error and the fixtures would have to be replaced unless the change was approved. He offered a credit of $483.60 if approval of his request was granted. No action was taken pending further study.

Mr. Gray of Mills Mutual Agency reviewed his plan for the extended coverage insurance on the school buildings. He explained the difference in premiums between the Mutual and Stock Companies. Considerable discussion followed and Mr. Gray was asked to gather additional information. No further action was taken.

Approval was granted Mrs. Miles to collect shoes for Korea in the schools. She agreed to have the shoes repaired with her own funds and turned over to "CARE" for distribution. Meeting adjourned at 10:00 p.m.

Respectfully submitted, Carl Caplin, Secretary

ENDING A DAY'S VISIT at the University of Michigan with dinner at Arbor-Lill are Mallan Naibi Shuaibu and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Turnley and son of Detroit. Shuaibu is director of education of the Niger Province of Nigeria, Africa. He is here on an inspection tour of the larger universities of America and is the Detroit guest of Mrs. Turnley who is a member of the Detroit Board of Education. The Plymouth visitors are receiving some special attention at dinner from Arbor-Lill's hostesses Veronica Gorslin and Beth Edelbrock.

Quick, Mother! The Footrest!

Attention, mother!

Dr. Basil Hirschowitz, University of Michigan instructor in internal medicine, offers a suggestion on early toilet training for youngsters.

"Children should be encouraged to start life with a normal movement every morning," he said.

But it is not merely a matter of setting up a regular routine. The manner is equally important.

"Most toilet seats are too high for children," reported the doctor. He does not suggest that special plumbing be installed for growing youngsters, but he feels strongly that some sort of footrest should be provided.

"The child should be allowed the simple security of a footrest during the period of early training. It is little wonder if the child resists training," he said. "Who wouldn't be forced to hang on for dear life?"

Furthermore, the presence of a footrest gives the child greater balance and control of his stomach muscles.

Comfort is essential in the development of habits. If the child seems to resist learning and establishing a habit, generally it must be because he is uncomfortable, the doctor declared.

V.F.W. News

A super duper post house party is in store for all you lucky members! Bring your family. Guests will be welcome, too. The regular juke box dance is being replaced, December 12, by a house party to end all house parties. There will be dancing, card playing, and refreshments. Children can have fun. Just think! No baby sitters needed for this party. Bring the children, one and all, and they will enjoy playing games among themselves. There is to be no cover or admission charge. It is going to be operated just like a genuine house party. Fun for all! If you do not dance, you may want to play cards. If you do not enjoy either, gossiping with friends and having refreshments may be your pleasure. In any case, remember the date, December 12, 8 p.m. at the post home. No tickets needed. Why don't you and your family bring the baby sitter? Age is no restriction, from 8 to 80, there will be fun for all! Be seeing you there. One word of caution...the traffic will be heavy getting there so drive slowly, because you will not want to miss this house party. ... December 12, starting at 8 p.m.

Congratulations are in order for Bob and Ann Smith of Marlowe avenue upon the birth of a daughter, Teresa Ellen, 5 pounds, 9 ounces, and to Stan and Josephine Kava upon the birth of a daughter, Nancy Lynn, weighing 8 pounds, 15 ounces, November 22 at St. Joseph Mercy hospital.

"Daddy, Do We Own the Street in Front of Our House?"

A natural question. And your answer? Well... "Yes, son, in a way we do. My father helped pay for the concrete paving. Good investment, too. The street is still in service after all these years."

Yes, concrete pavement does last longer. Its first cost is moderate and it costs less to maintain. That means low annual cost.

Concrete also saves on street lighting costs because it reflects more light. That helps reduce accidents. And, wet or dry, it has uniformly high skid-resistance.

To get the utmost return in pavement service for your money urge city officials to specify portland cement concrete for your street.

NEW 1954 MERCURY

With New 161-Horsepower Overhead Valve V-8 Engine

NEW STYLING, NEW INTERIORS! Mercury is completely new in design, front and rear—looks wider, longer, lower than ever. Stunning new colors, many new fabrics never before available.

Entirely new performance that makes any driving easy!

DRIVING ease is something everybody wants—but you don't know what easy driving is until you drive this new 1954 Mercury!

The new 161-horsepower V-8 engine is only part of the story. New engine design gives you the easiest, smoothest, safest response you've ever experienced in an automobile—and with greater economy, too. You use only a small part of that energy for normal driving—so you've a tremendous reserve available on hills, highways, in traffic, anywhere.

Ball-Joint Front Suspension is found only in Mercury in its price class. A few minutes behind the wheel of this wonderful 1954 Mercury can tell you far more than words how much easier and safer it makes cornering, turning, and parking.

For the easiest driving you can buy—drive a Mercury!

All-new V-161 for easier handling! Here's the finest engine ever used in a popular-priced car. And it has a new 4-barrel vacuum-operated carburetor and overhead valves. Its 161 horsepower gives Mercury more power per cubic-inch displacement than any car in its class for easier, safer acceleration... and even greater economy.

New ball-joint suspension for easier, safer control. This is a Mercury first—exclusive in its class—and gives an effortless new kind of handling ease—better cornering and road stability—easier parking. Make driving as easy as you wish—5 optional power features! 1) 4-way Power Seat, 2) Power Steering, 3) Power Brakes, 4) No-shift Merc-O-Matic Drive or gas-saving Touch-O-Matic Overdrive, and 5) Electric Power Window Lifts.

First transparent-top production car—The Mercury Sun Valley opens up new horizons in automotive design—a dream car of tomorrow come true today. Now you can enjoy overhead visibility with the comfort, the wind and weather protection of a coupe. The permanently fixed plexiglas roof is specially tinted to keep out glare. Exclusive interiors add to its distinction. The cost? Much less than you would expect. Here's the car that will cause more excitement than any other on the road in 1954!

Appeals Sentence On Disorderly Person Charge

A sentence of $50 fine or 30 days in jail was given Richard McMullen, 23, of South Lyon, who was charged with being a disorderly person after allegedly attempting to "pick up" City Commissioner Eleanor Hammond one night two weeks ago.

The case, however, has been appealed and will go to the circuit court in Detroit at some future date. Mrs. Hammond and the two arresting officers appeared as witnesses at the hearing held a week ago Wednesday before Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo. McMullen, present in the courtroom, did not take the stand.

The incident allegedly took place November 24 at Ann Arbor trail near Harvey street as Mrs. Hammond was taking her dog for a walk. She charged McMullen followed her for some time in his car and finally stopped and asked her if she wanted a ride. Refused McMullen then was asked to have driven on but was later stopped when Mrs. Hammond gave his license number to a passing police car.

McMullen was jailed overnight and was released to his attorney. The attorney filed a motion to have the case dismissed on the grounds that there was no crime committed, but the motion was denied by Judge Perlongo. The judge stated that he based his decision on a law against creating an "improper diversion."

Similar cases in Detroit are prosecuted under a "masher" ordinance.

What you call temper in your wife, you call temperament in yourself.

Surgeons Honor Kirkpatrick At Annual Meeting

R. A. Kirkpatrick of 375 Auburn avenue, was honored with a banquet given November 19 at the fifth annual meeting of surgeons of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway held at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia. Kirkpatrick, general claim agent of the Pere Marquette district of the company, has served the company for 47 years. The occasion for the banquet was his forthcoming retirement next May.

Kirkpatrick began his railroad career in 1907 as a station clerk in Mayview, Michigan and was made general claim agent in 1924. His fellow officers attended from Cleveland, Richmond and Detroit, and Dr. and Mrs. Luther Pegk and Mrs. Kirkpatrick attended from Plymouth.

At the banquet, Kirkpatrick was presented with the gift of a sum of money, and was told that a television set was being installed in his home during his absence. An outboard motor will also be put at his disposal this summer.

Betty's uncle, who was a school teacher, met her on the street one beautiful May morning and asked her if she was going out with the Maying party.

"No, I ain't going," "Oh, my little dear," said her uncle, "you must not say, 'I ain't going,'" and he proceeded to give her a little lesson in grammar. "You are not going. He is not going. We are not going. You are not going. They are not going. Now, can you say all that Betty?"

"Sure, I can," she replied, making a courtesy. "There ain't nobody going."

"The private detective who was shadowing the great financier hit upon a certain way of making him show his hand."

"What did he do?" "He disguised himself as a manicurist."

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Southbound hunters had carried 10,294 deer south on the Straits of Mackinac ferries as of midnight November 29, the conservation department reports.

That figure is well above the total of 8522 brought south during the 1952 season, game workers note.

In addition, 306 bears, 21 coyotes, four wolves, 35 bobcats, and three foxes were carried south on the ferries.

Last year hunters brought more of these species into southern Michigan, but final totals for the entire 1953 season may yet alter this picture somewhat.

Sales of state timber in October were the highest in the history of the conservation department, foresters report.

Timber sold to operators off the 21 state forests brought more than $52,360 to state coffers during the month.

It was also the first time timber receipts exceeded $50,000 for one month, the foresters say.

They attribute the high sales to a better-than-average market for pulpwood.

Conservation department law enforcement agents report that the recent pipeline break near Mount Pleasant caused a loss of about 335 barrels of oil, 100 of which seeped into the Chippewa River.

The break occurred late in November; during the next five days, the company responsible for the pipeline removed 60-70 per cent of the oil from the river, placed 14 skimming dams, and had 25 men working day and night to clear the river of the polluting oil.

The oil slick extended from Sherman field near Mount Pleasant to Deerfield Center, a distance of about 12 miles.

Law officers report finding no fish killed by the pollution.

Work is expected to continue until all the oil has been removed.

Apart from a single stubborn muck fire near Morenci, Michigan appears for the moment safe from fires that, during 1953, consumed about 11,000 acres of state woods and grasslands.

Conservation department crews have poured millions of gallons of water onto the four-acre bog fire since it started about two weeks ago; they expect to end the smoulder before long.

Elsewhere, mantle of snow and rain has quenched the hazard so that fire fighters this week are able to relax for the first time in months.

The 11,000 acres damaged this year is below last year's 12,000 fire-swept acres, and also below the 10-year average of 17,000 acres damaged annually.

During the high fire hazard in northern lower peninsula forest earlier this month, cooperation between hunters and conservation department "smoke-patrol" planes helped quench at least three fires.

Cloyd O. Halfield and Bruce McKean, members of the Wayne County Sportmen's club, were hunting near Houghton Lake recently when a department patrol plane spotted a fire nearby.

The pilot dropped a message tied to a small parachute and Halfield and McKean responded by fighting the fire for two hours. When done, they returned the parachute to nearby Roscommon fire experiment station, but refused the payment due them as fire fighters.

On another occasion recently, a message was dropped at a hunting camp in Otsego county, advising of a fire nearby. The entire party turned out with brooms, mops, brush and other improvised equipment to hold the fire until heavy equipment could arrive.

Again, in the Pigeon River state forest, the department plane circled a small fire several times to attract hunters who immediately came and brought the fire under control.

"Mister," inquired the tramp, "would you contribute a dollar to help beautify your town?" "What's the idea?" "Fer a dollar I'll move on to de next town."

Who's New In Plymouth

TWO BOYS AND A BIG DOG are pretty prominent around the home of new residents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert R. Foy of 1495 Penniman avenue. The boys are David, 9, and Douglas, 7, and their big friend, whom they are holding down, is Boots. The Fey family moved to Plymouth from Ypsilanti, where Mr. Fey is still employed at the Ford Motor company plant there. Mrs. Fey had lived in Plymouth as a little girl, and this was one of the reasons they chose to make their home here.

Madonna Choral Group Plans Christmas Concert

The Madonna college choral group will present its annual Christmas program, Sunday, December 13 at 7:15 p.m. in De Sales auditorium on the campus. Featured at this year's presentation will be such songs as, "Joseph Came Seeking" by Ernest Willoughby, "Go Tell It on the Mountain" by John W. Work, "Praises Sing" by Genevieve Davis, "Carol of the Bells" by M. Leontovich and the "Sleigh Song" by Richard Kountz. The choral group will also present the well-known and well-liked "Nutcracker Suite" by Tchaikovsky. A ballet group instructed by Joan Kozlowski, a junior, will perform in conjunction with this presentation. Agnes Schettenhelm and Marjorie Krist, freshmen, will be the duet accompanists. Agnes will also accompany the other numbers. Sister M. Paulette, music instructor at Madonna, will direct the choral ensemble. Stage decorations are being planned and prepared by the art students under the direction of the Reverend Father Victor Kolasa, art instructor. The public is cordially invited to attend this evening performance.

Wow! What A Load

The nation's railroads beginning December 1 will carry a mail load that is expected to average nearly a quarter of a billion gift parcels and greeting cards every day up to Christmas, according to the Michigan Railroads Association. The association estimate that during the 24-day pre-Christmas period, intercity mail -- the great bulk of which is transported by railroad -- will aggregate about 5,796,000,000 pieces, filling 56,823,500 mail sacks or 3% over the 1952 holiday season. This is equivalent to delivering an average of one gift package or greeting card each day from December 1 until Christmas to every person in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

Theatre Guild "Lo and Behold" Holds Successful Production

The two performances of "Lo and Behold" presented by the Plymouth Theatre Guild last week were played to large audiences in the high school auditorium. The play, under the direction of William Merrill of Will-O-Way playhouse, added another success to the string of productions put on by the Guild. Brilliant performances were turned in by the two leading players, Libby Neal Curtner as Daisy Durdle, and Edward C. Allworth as Milo Alcott. They were supported by a very able cast of John Lodge as Mr. Wingate; Kenneth Bolton as Dr. Robert Dorsey; Daisy Hornback as Minnetonka Smallflower; Mickey Wills as Kenneth Moore; Janet Lawson as Honey Wainwright and Lee Mahoney as Jack McDougal. The entire play occurs in the library of Nobel prize winner Milo Alcott's home. The through act comedy takes one through the last days of Alcott's life, climaxed by a sumptuous meal that kills him. Alcott then haunts his own house, along with three other ghosts whom he thoroughly dislikes. The romantic interest is brought out by Daisy Durdle and Dr. Dorsey. The lines of the play provided a subtle humor, since Alcott was a George Bernard Shaw-type character. In all the play was a tribute to the abilities of members of the local Guild. As important as the cast itself, was the backstage crew of the production. These committees were headed by Mrs. Adele Miller, production stage manager. Other members were: publicity, Ruth Barney, Nancy McKinney, Victoria Saxton and Maude Laury; tickets, C. Veach Sparks; program, Maude Laury; house committee, Effie Kuisel, Ruth Barney, Charlotte Gaffield, Shirley Krum, Ruth Lents, Nancy McKinney, Margaret Nolan, Edna O'Conner, Victoria and Dean Saxton, Arthur Robinson and Warren Worth; prompter, Mary Lodge and costumes, Colleen O'Brien. The list continues with: properties, Ruth Popovich, Lydia Argo, Charlotte Gaffield; paint and brush artists, Marie Post Melvitz, Dwayne Blackshear, Gerald Cuthbertson, Robert Lawson, Ruth Lents, John Lodge, Arthur Robinson and Judy Sechlin; makeup, William Hatcher; staging, S. L. Warner, Douglas Havershaw, Warren Worth, Dean Saxton and Gerald Cuthbertson; lights, S. L. Warner, William Hatcher; patrons, Adele Miller and C. Veach Sparks.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

THAT BLOOD PRESSURE AGAIN

It is a pity that physicians ever said anything about blood pressure to patients. The matter is so complicated that it cannot be explained fully to a layman, and if it could be, it wouldn't do him any good anyway. It is a common thing to have a worried patient come into the office with the request, "Doctor, please take my blood pressure. I feel queer."

If the physician complies, the next query is, "How high is it?" If the reply should be 180 or above, the patient is very much perturbed and begins to brood over it, and that always runs it up still higher.

The doctor usually does not explain that the 180 or whatever it might be, is the systolic pressure and that there is another pressure known as the diastolic which may be more important than the systolic. He can't explain all this because the patient could not be made to understand the intricacies of the condition, and if he did, it would not relieve his anxiety.

Even the doctors don't know very much about it themselves. Science has never learned it. It is known, however, that heredity plays an important role in whether you will have high blood pressure or not.

Bad habits, such as the excessive use of alcohol or tobacco, insufficient sleep, overwork, overeating which brings on obesity and disease, all seem to have considerable bearing on the development of the trouble.

A curious trait of human nature is a desire to talk about one's maladies. When a group of people get together, they take great joy in discussing blood pressure. At the mention of an operation, I have seen intelligent people exhibit as much eagerness to tell all about their ailments as a dog on the trail of his quarry.

In the British Medical Journal, it is stated "that uncomplicated high blood pressure is not dangerous." That is if the patient is not suffering from some chronic trouble such as of the heart, kidneys, liver or other vital organ.

Physicians have no panacea for reducing blood pressure. Those whose blood pressure is dangerously high will be put to bed by their physicians and treated for whatever abnormal condition is found.

Obesity and high blood pressure seem to go together. Such patients should go on a reducing diet and get rid of surplus fat. Moral: Don't let yourself get overweight. It is dangerous and not aesthetically.

Don't worry! It runs up your blood pressure. A clear conscience helps to keep blood pressure down and, remember, don't talk about it unless you must.

CHURCHES OF OUR AREA

West Salem Country Church

WEST SALEM COUNTRY church opened its doors three years ago after 15 years of emptiness except of Memorial day services. Reverend Patrick Clifford of Plymouth took on the reopening project shortly after he arrived in Plymouth to pastor Calvary Baptist church.

It's not very often that a church which closes its doors ever gets a chance to come to life again, but the old "country church atmosphere" provided by a former Methodist church west of Salem has caused it to save itself from falling into shambles such as thousands of old churches across the nation have done.

Of course it took the love of some men for the old style country church to revive this church which is appropriately called the West Salem Country church. It is located on Angel road between Six and Seven Mile road. West Salem Country church is an interdenominational church attended by people as far away as Plymouth.

The church closed its doors 18 years ago but it did not die altogether. Members of the Salem Walker Cemetery board decided to at least keep the church looking alive. They kept it painted both inside and out for 15 years, during which the only services held were on Memorial day.

It was three years ago that Reverend Patrick Clifford, pastor of Calvary Baptist church in Plymouth, was driving through the countryside when he came across the deserted church.

Though he was being kept busy with his own flock, he was intrigued with the idea of starting an old-fashioned country church.

He received permission from the Methodist circuit to take over the church and the idea was welcomed by many old residents of the area. He found that the church still used old brass kerosene lamps, an organ over 60 years old and a Bible as old as the church itself. The church is over a century old. Modern electric lighting was installed but the old fixtures still remain. The church also contained the old pot-bellied stoves.

So after 15 years of stillness, the country church again opened its doors. Among the worshippers was the Jack Briggs family, nearby residents. They became engrossed in church work and decided to become missionaries. After attending a Bible school, the family left several weeks ago for Venezuela.

Since Reverend Clifford must keep up his work at his Plymouth parish, church services are not held at the West Salem church until Sunday afternoons. Strictly independent, there are no membership rolls kept.

THROUGH THE EFFORTS of the Plymouth Ministerial association, a car was given last week to Dr. and Mrs. Dean Saxton who left Saturday for southern Arizona where they will work for the next 15 to 20 years among the Papago Indians to translate the Bible in their language and bring the Word of God to the tribe. Plymouth citizens donated $650, much of it at the Union Thanksgiving service, to purchase the Saxtons a car. Pictured here (left to right) are Reverend Patrick Clifford, president of the Ministerial association, Mrs. Saxton, Dr. Saxton and Reverend E. T. Hadwin, secretary of the association. Dr. and Mrs. Saxton have expressed their deep gratitude to the Ministerial association and citizens who helped them start on their missionary careers.

No. 6: 11 Miles Per Hour Can Be Fatal

Many motorists spend so much time thinking about the fact that high speed is dangerous—and it is—that they forget that even very slow speeds can be fatal—to pedestrians.

This threat to life exists because the pedestrian's head is so soft and the pavement is so hard. Pedestrians are so fragile, compared to the automobile and the pavement, that killing them takes very little movement. Even 3 miles per hour is enough, and few people drive that slowly. Once the car bumper gets behind his knees and his head hits the pavement it's all over. When you see that pedestrian, slow down, not just a little but a lot—enough so that you can stop without touching him. School Choral Groups Set Christmas Scene

Setting the scene on December 23 for the Christmas holiday will be the tuneful high school choral groups. The vocalists, under the direction of Fred Nelson, will render appropriate Christmas music at an assembly to be witnessed by the student body.

Although plans for the Yuletide program are not yet complete, it is thought that the numbers sung will be much the same as those for the Christmas Concert, which will be held on December 15. The Christmas Choral Concert is open to the public.

"O Christmas Tree," "Whence Comes the Rush of Wings," "What Child is This," and "Angels We Have Heard," will be the contribution of the Freshman Chorus to the annual event.

Other vocal groups participating in the Christmas performance will be the Choralettes harmonizing on "No Candle was There and No Fire," and the Triple Trios with their version of "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem," "Virgin Slumber Song," and

Seniors Choose New York City For Annual Trip

New York it is! At the senior class meeting held in the auditorium first hour of December 1, it was announced that, after tabulating the ballots, the senior trip will be five days in New York. The fee, which is $64.95, includes tours, meals, roundtrip fare on the train, admission fees, rooms, tips, and subway fares.

Shown at the meeting were some movies Dean Palmer took when the Hi-Y and Y-teens clubs went to New York last spring. Papers were passed out on which the seniors were to write their names and the activities to be put in the annual beside their pictures.

Annual J-Hop To Be Held This Weekend

"Under the Sea" was the J-Hop theme which finally received the go-ahead from the committee. For submitting the winning entry, Loanne Jensen was given a free ticket to the event.

Danny Baker and his orchestra have been secured for the dance, which will be held on Saturday, December 12, from 8 p.m. to midnight in the high school gymnasium.

Going into the last week before the J-Hop the juniors are working hard to make this year's J-Hop bigger and better than ever before.

Tickets are being sold at noon in the front hall of the high school and will also be sold the night of the Hop. Punch and cookies are to be served as refreshments at the affair.

Senior Mixer Important On Semester's Agenda

Next on the agenda for the busy seniors is their senior mixer to be held tonight Thursday, December 10, from 7:30 to 10 p.m. Square dancing will start off the evening with games and social dancing following. Light refreshments will be served before the class takes a dip in the pool.

Serving as co-chairman for this event are Bea Robertson and Ed Rossow. Suggestions for games have been given by various members of the class.

World History Class Sends Food Packages

Gerrit Krammer's world history classes at Plymouth high school are sending food and clothing packages to children overseas for Christmas. Each student was requested to provide a certain share of either food or clothing.

Used clothing and dried foods such as milk, meats and other products, went into the Christmas packages. These packages will be sent to Korea and other parts of the country where the need exists.

Pencils, which are badly needed, are being sent to school children in Iran.

Customer: This coffee tastes like mud.

Waitress: Well, why shouldn't it? It was ground this morning.

Two Receive Degrees at State

Two Plymouth residents received their bachelor's degrees from Michigan State college at the fall term commencement. They are Jared D. Jolliffe, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Jolliffe of 315 Holbrook avenue, and Robert V. Messerly, son of Mrs. Lloyd L. Gates of 402 Sheldon road.

Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, president of Michigan State Normal college, was speaker at the event on Tuesday, December 8 in the college auditorium.

Degrees were conferred upon 338 undergraduates and 100 graduate students.

University Women Plan Christmas Meeting

The Christmas meeting of the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women will be held at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing at 1010 Church street on Thursday, December 17, at 8 p.m. Mrs. C. C. Wittse and Mrs. John Barnes will assist as hostesses.

Arrangements have been made to have Mrs. Henry J. Walk talk to the group on the numerous aspects of her recent trip abroad. Christmas music will be included as part of the program.

If you have a social item or any other local news, phone 1600.

Joanne Pursell Sings In "Messiah" Chorus

Joanne Pursell, freshman at Denison university at Granville, Ohio, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Pursell of South Main street, will be among the 230 voice chorus and 50 piece orchestra which will present two performances of Handel's "Messiah."

The concerts will be given for the 49th season in Swasey Chapel at the university on Saturday, December 12 at 8 p.m. and on Sunday, December 13 at 2:30 p.m. The chorus and orchestra are mainly composed of Denison students.

"My husband has no idea of the value of money."
"Why, I thought he was a careful business man?"
"He thinks so, too. But he absolutely doesn't realize what a lovely hat I can buy for $48.99."

"Did you ever feel that the eyes of the world were upon you?"
"Once a year, when I wear the neckties that my wife gives me at Christmas."

Don't Be Afraid to Call Firemen -- the Right Ones

Plan to have a fire? We hope not, but in case you do, call the fire department—and make sure it's the right fire department.

It almost seems senseless to mention that citizens should call the fire department if there is a fire, but there still seems to be the idea among some people that it will cost money to call out the fire department. (You pay for this service with taxes.)

Township firemen cited a case of several weeks ago when an elderly woman attempted to extinguish a rapidly spreading grass fire herself because she feared it costly to call the department. As a result, she finally gave in and many acres of land were needlessly burned off.

Both Plymouth and Plymouth township firemen strongly urge that citizens call the right department. Both the city and township have modern fire fighting equipment but they will answer calls only in their respective areas. Many township residents call the city fire department instead of their own. City firemen obligingly relay the call to township firemen but this is a waste of valuable time, they warn.

The city department number is 1656; the township is 2020.

The Plymouth Rock basketball team romped to a win over the Northville Mustangs in their first test of the season. This Rock team has many possibilities, and I look for them to go a long way this year winning many more games than they lose. I think they will be right in there fighting for their first league championship in many years, and will give a number of Class A teams the jitters come tournament time. Coach Sandmann has a hustling ball club, some height, and three lads that can really jump in—Captain Jerry Kelly, Bob Middleton and Ron Pagenkopf—controlling those rebounds make the difference in a good quintet and an average one.

This Northville team was practically the same one that defeated the Rocks twice last year. They do not play another game this year with the local team because of schedule difficulties. This 1954 team has more depth also as they are capable reserves, and they will still have a good team after the first semester even though high-scoring Kenny Kisabeth graduates at that time. Yes, they are capable of making quite a name for Plymouth this year if they continue to hustle, have the right attitude, and the will to win.

If you enjoy swimming meets, team begins its second year in competition tomorrow night when the members journey to Lincoln Park for the first of 11 meets this winter. Coach John McFall has nine returning lettermen from that first team of a year ago, and will meet some of the foremost tank-squads of this area.

You fans who like swimming will be able to see a meet from now until early in March. Most of these meets are scheduled for the afternoon, but a few are night contests. Coach McFall thinks that with the experience his charges received last year they will make much more creditable showings this winter—the times will be better, and the form improved.

The high school swimming try to make one or more of the six home meets this year. Entrance is at the rear of the gymnasium near the boiler room.

Maryland came out on top this year as the number one team in the nation in football, but I still think that there were three or four teams that could have beaten them rather easily if they had met. The Terps play a comparative easy schedule, and met very few of the top 10 teams in the nation.

Paul Giel, one of the great football players of the year while playing for Minnesota, says that Michigan State has a better team than Illinois. He played against them both, and in his own words says, "I really think Michigan State is the better team—natural-family to participate in athletic entertainment. It is nice to see parents attending these functions with their children—there are only a few years when the family can go to such things as a unit for the children want to go with their own group as they get older.

There should be a more strong sense of family unity; I have always remarked that a family should do more things together. Picnics are a lot of fun, going to athletic events, church, shopping, shows—all can be fun. It is fun, and the children like it also, to sit down around a table and plan things to do—even plan budgets together and the like—the kids feel being a part of doing it, and want to do their share. Too, it (Continued on page 7)

Reserves Finally Win Slow Game

In a contest that started out to be a scoreless duel, the Plymouth Reserve basketball team came back strong to edge the Northville Reserves 32 to 17 last Friday night at the high school gymnasium. The first point was made 45 seconds before the end of the first period and Northville led at the end of the first stanza 2 to 0— at the half it was 11 to 8 in favor of Plymouth, and they continued to increase the lead with each quarter.

Coach Bill Harding started Ferguson, Bonga, Smith, Carter and Mills, and inserted others in the lineup throughout the contest. He emptied the bench the last two minutes when the Rocks had a commanding lead.

Neither team was good on free throws—Plymouth making 8 out of 23 tries and Northville 5 out of 20 attempts.

The scoring was equally divided with six players figuring in the point total. Henry Bonga had the most with 9 points, Linden Mills had 7, Wayne Smith 6, Chuck Ferguson 5, Tom Davis 3 and Jack Carter 2.

Chuck Hamlin, a former Plymouth football player and next year's Mustang football captain, was high for the Northville team with a total of 7 points.

The Rock Reserves play at Trenton tomorrow night in a game beginning at seven o'clock.

gives them a sense of responsibility that will be an asset to them when they take their place in the world.

The high school cagers journey to Trenton tomorrow night for a game with the Trojans. Trenton has another good team this year as they whipped Class A Monroe last Friday by two points. It will be an interesting game, and one that will go a long way in getting a preview of the chances of the local quintet in winning the 6-B league championship.

Perhaps you recognized the fellow running the scoreboard at last Friday night's game. It was Jerry Allen, a former star all-around athlete at Plymouth before he graduated in 1948. Jerry is a senior at Central Michigan College of Education at Mt. Pleasant, and is doing part of his practice teaching here at Plymouth. He plans on entering the coaching profession next year, and is getting some first-hand experience in the local athletic department for six weeks.

Jerry is a member of the superb gymnastic team that fours the state from Central, and plans are underway to secure that team for an appearance in Plymouth next spring.

Jerry played football, basketball and baseball while at PHS and excelled in each sport. He says the athletic facilities are far better than those available when he was here, and marvels at the wonderful accommodations now. The coaches are still trying to get him to get the coffee and doughnuts through!

thereby gaining revenge for the two beatings taken at the Mustangs' hands last year. The Rocks jumped into the lead to stay shortly after the second period began and continued to increase their lead as the game progressed. At the half the locals were out front by 10 points, the score being 25 to 15 at that point.

Coach John Sandmann tried out various combinations throughout the contest to determine which five worked best together. He started with Wilhelm, Pagenkopf, Kisabeth, Gothard and Day. Captain Jerry Kelly, who had been slightly injured the night before, entered the game in the second quarter as did Bob Middleton. The above players played most of the game, and the scoring was equally divided with the exception of Kenneth Kisabeth's 15 point effort—Ken was high for both teams on six baskets and three free throws.

The local quintet proved far superior in rebounding on both backboards, controlling the ball most of the time. Pagenkopf, Middleton and Kelly were especially good around the backboards, the latter two can out-jump most men much taller than themselves. Pagenkopf, filling in for Kelly during the first quarter, put the Rocks out to a fast start with some astonishing shots, but the Mustangs came back to lead at the end of the first quarter by a scant point, 10 to 9.

Then in the second quarter with Middleton and Kelly controlling the backboards, things began to click and the Rocks moved to the front to remain the rest of the game. Intermission found Plymouth out front by 10 points and at the end of the third quarter it was 33 to 21. At one time in the final stanza the score stood at 47 to 26, but the Mustangs rallied for 9 quick points to make the final board read 47 to 35.

A most unique feature of this contest was the few fouls committed. The officials called only 12 fouls—8 on the Rocks and 4 on the Mustangs. Not a foul was called during the second half. Plymouth made good on 3 out of 6 foul tries, and Northville on 7 out of 12 free tosses.

Kisabeth led all the scorers with his 15 points, Pagenkopf had 8, Gothard and Middleton 6 each, and Kelly, Day and Wilhelm 4 each. Howarth had 11 for the Mustangs.

Plymouth goes to Trenton tomorrow night for a game with the Trojans. This will be the first 6-B league contest.

Chips from the ROCK

As if having her purse snatched from her pocket-book in Siegel's store in Detroit wasn't enough, Margaret Hough, after spending three days trying to get a new driver's license and other sundry cards, received a 15 cent postage due envelope from the Detroit post office containing the purse minus some $30.00 but with everything else intact. When she reported the theft in the store the genial children's department manager offered her money to return to Plymouth and state that Detroit stores are overrun right now by professional pickpockets, who when emptying the cash from the purses, deposit them in the closest mail box for return to their owners.

Conner Hardware's Henry Hanchett drove north to spend a couple of days visiting Glen Smith at Baldwin. Near Ionia he gave a hitchhiking air cadet from Oscoda a ride. Traveling slightly over 80 miles an hour Mr. Hanchett casually asked his hitchhiker how he was doing and got the following response . . . doing fine I guess but I would feel a little safer at this speed if I was up a little higher.

Interesting note from former Plymouthite Mrs. Elmer Wieland of Brimley in the upper peninsula, saying they had 22 deer hunters at their camp all with a full week's reservation, but after two days in the boiling sun all but three had returned to their homes. She does point out however that through the 25th of November 9,413 deer had passed across the straits as against 7,633 last year.

Also a note from fisherman A. R. (Dutch) West, who already is loafing under the palms at Englewood, Florida, saying that if we didn't get his copy of the Mail to him a little more promptly he wasn't going to enjoy his fishing quite as much as usual because he couldn't keep track of what his busy brothers were doing with the businesses here in Plymouth without the paper.

Carl Hartwick in the west visiting his family, brought back an unusual ticket from the Searcy, Arkansas police department and suggested it might well be used in Plymouth. It read as follows: We are glad to excuse you on this meter violation. They were installed for your convenience and we greatly appreciate your cooperation. We also will appreciate it if you will deposit a silver dime in the meter, which will go to a worthy local charity . . . City of Searcy Police Department.

Dave Galin is so enthusiastic about a new gadget he has for sale in his store he is considering giving them away to his friends for Christmas gifts. The item called "Blab-Off" was described as follows in a story in November's Reader's Digest. "If the blab-blah-blah of certain objectionable TV commercials rouses your ire or outrages your taste, here is news. An ingeniously simple device now enables you to eliminate the sales harangue of any commercial which you object to — without ever getting up from your easy chair. One click of a little switch turns any commercial's blattancies off, but leaves on the picture, so you can tell when the advertising ends."

No one had more trouble with the big winds on Friday than Joe Tanner of Bob Sincoc's Standard Oil Station. Handing an automatic register to a customer to sign, the bottom flipped open and the 30 mile gusts picked the entire contents from the register and scattered them like snow over Kellogg Park. As if that wasn't enough — as Tanner rushed through the park to retrieve as many of the charge slips as he could his automatic money changer came loose and he further distributed all of his change over the grounds of the park.

Plymouth youngsters, and adults as well, have a real treat coming on Christmas day this year when the Penn theatre unveils its new wide screen. At a Friday noon preview the Walt Disney color film "Peter Pan" was projected for test purposes. There is no question about the new screen being a wonderful improvement, by extending the picture almost across the whole end of the theater building, but in addition the picture is one that no parents would want their children to miss.

THE $64 QUESTION

Fighting words deny the status of "poor relative" for non-metropolitan areas of Northern Michigan. They were written by John W. Rice, publisher of the Houghton Daily Mining Gazette, in reply to the following statement of John S. Coleman, president of Detroit's Burroughs Adding Machine Co.: "We support all counties of northern Michigan out of Detroit and many of us suspect the area ought to be turned back into a game preserve and we should re-grow timber up there."

Efforts to lessen the bluntness of the comment did little to reduce the indignation of non-metropolitan people, particularly residents of the Upper Peninsula. Mr. Coleman's defenders claim he was quoted "out of context." Gov. Williams termed the statement "a slip of the tongue." Granting this possibility, U. P. people feel the sentiment to be accurately described.

"A great many Detroit industrialists are laboring under the theory that Detroit is being gypped to keep much of the rest of the state in the comforts of life," wrote Publisher Rice. "Behind this attitude is a clever and extremely appealing candid campaign being conducted by certain large taxpayers for the sole purpose of securing a modification of the sales tax diversion amendment."

"For enlightening hot-shot executives from Detroit a little historical briefing would be apropos."

"At the time in Michigan history when Houghton County paid a lion's share of the state's total taxes, during the period when the northern Michigan copper mines were producing 25% of all the copper produced in the world, there was no complaint from the Upper Peninsula that it was carrying more than its share of the load."

Untapped and about to be-tapped assets of the U. P. promise many economic benefits, stated Rice. He referred to reports of leading geologists: only 10% of copper deposits in Michigan have been mined; the White Pine copper mine in Ontonagon County which will soon start production; the Ishpeming-Negaunee area where a huge new body of iron ore is being worked.

Detroit's prosperity resulted from Upper Peninsula raw material, claimed the publisher: "Detroit, it must be remembered, produces nothing except the goods manufactured from the raw materials."

"The oil, gas, coal and cement, as well as copper, iron and timber that have played such a large part in the growth of Detroit and other down-state centers were not produced in those cities, but the use of those products of nature, along with those of the Upper Peninsula, are the things that have contributed materially to making Detroit great."

Other industrial centers received similar admonishing by Publisher Rice. "The fact that manufacturers are concentrated in a comparatively few places in Lower Michigan does not necessarily make these cities the benefactors of the State."

Grand Rapids, with its pride in its furniture industry, was also a target. The "factories merely shape into merchantable form the products that come from the forests north of the Straits," Rice reminded.

"In conclusion we humbly suggest that you don't sell the Upper Peninsula short. None of us is self-sufficient but all of us are apt to minimize the contributions that our neighbors are making to promote the projects in which we are personally interested. "As Mae West would say, "Why don't you come up and see us sometime?" Maybe if we knew each other better, the future relationship would become less strained."

The "poor country cousin" role which non-metropolitan people, particularly in the far north, feel is assigned them, is an extremely touchy matter. That there are few denials about such an opinion by those in metropolitan districts does not help matters.

Sentiments of a different flavor than those often expressed in the heavily populated sections are provided for examination by the Houghton newspaper editorial. The argument that financial support received in one part of the state from another is not charity but a fair expenditure is supplied with some facts to support it.

If tax diversion changes are considered at the coming legislative session, study may result in a new attitude which will find more general acceptance by the people of Michigan.

ROGER BABSON SAYS:

BABSON DISCUSSES THE WINTER OUTLOOK

Babson Park, Massachusetts Panicky readers disturbed by the increasing number of business failures have asked me if business conditions are not likely to take a sharp drop by 1954. Here is what I think.

BANKRUPTCIES HAVE INCREASED

The months to come will separate the men from the boys in business. Right now, when we are supposed to be booming along, companies are dying at the rate of 700 a month. The approximately 7,500 business failures since the first of the year have involved dollar liabilities far in excess of any period since the depression.

Too many inefficient business operators have been swept to prosperity by the business currents of strong demand rather than by their own business acumen. I predict that many more of these would-be entrepreneurs will be severely squeezed unless they wake up, cut expenses, and get hard at work. In general, this will be good for our economy which needs to eliminate those who have given the poorest service, the shoddiest products, and gone after the fast buck.

STUDY THESE FIGURES

Some of my critics say I am too pessimistic. They point out that 67% of our homes are more than 20 years old, that there has been a tremendous shift from farm to suburbs, and that an entirely new way of living and lots of new wants have been created. They remind me that the number of children in our population has increased 65% since 1940, and that we have 80% more high-school graduates in our adult population since 1940 who presumably have much more highly developed wants than the non-high-school graduates. Some say such factors as these are dynamic enough to hold our economy high.

Against the argument that we have more people with more education and with more discretionary buying power than ever before, are such realities as these: Through the early months of 1953, shoe production was about seven million pairs ahead of potential consumption, and the industry could easily have produced 35% more shoes if they could have been sold. Or, take the automobile industry. At mid-year, 47% more cars had been turned out than in the same period in 1952. But sales rose only 33%. Recent cutbacks and intensive selling have temporarily reduced this spread. But let us face the facts: The Government has cut defense programs; inventories have been stockpiling; industrial expansion has passed its peak; industrial building is on the decline. What is to happen to private building I will discuss later.

BETTER SELLING AND INVESTING ARE NEEDED

American business cannot stand still. It moves either forward or backward. To move forward, it must sell. When it stops selling, it dies. Sales have slumped because salesmen have become lazy and sales clerks indifferent. Lots of people still need lots of things; but price levels may be too high. I believe the time has come for reappraisal of potential markets and profit margins. A spiritual rebirth is needed. This may mean only "deluxe models" instead of "super-deluxe models!" It will mean much greater manufacturing efficiency, a cutback in material waste, and an increase in per-man output.

While we are learning to do these things we must expect a readjustment in business activity. Among those industries that will feel the pinch first are automobile, building, steel, and nonferrous metals. But while manufacturers are readjusting to peacetime demands there will be strong sustaining forces that will hold economy strong, such as the tremendous developing demand of the World War II baby crop, a heavy supply of savings, and a credit base still capable of considerable expansion. The greatest hope of continued good business lies with the ten or more billion dollars likely to be spent for the defense of our large cities.

The taking of good stereo portraits of people is a very simple matter. The painstaking juggling of light and shadow for definition of contours and perspective, which plagues the planar photographer, is nicely handled by the twin lens camera.

However, as in planar shooting, avoid the stilted, posed air and, in the case of children, strive to photograph them in some attitude of interest. A rather common error among newcomers to stereo is to place the subject too far from the camera. The correct distance is conjectural, but it will be certainly no closer than six feet for normal shots and no more than 16 or 20 feet.

Natural light, the sun, or reflected sky light, is generally the most effective unless, in certain instances a particular effect is desired. And, if working in color, a good light meter not only aids in selecting proper exposures, but is useful to read the difference between main light and what fill-in light is necessary.

This all may sound complicated to you but we guarantee to simplify it down here at THE PHOTOGRAPHIC CENTER. Just like with everything else, once you get the knack it's easy . . . and the results justify the effort. Come to 821 West Ann Arbor Trail and SEE for yourself!
