VOTE TUESDAY

Another election is near at hand and it should give each one of us a great thrill to be able to play a part in it. Unfortunately, this is not always true, especially in contests not involving the election of president.

Many words have been written regarding the privilege accorded Americans by free elections. It is not our intent to "wave the flag" or try to rally our friends to the polls with eloquent words. We feel, however, that it is our duty to repeat the much used, and important phrase, "regardless of your party preference—VOTE."

The Mail has attempted, as always, to keep its news columns free of political prejudices. As an example of this you will find on page 6 of this section a rundown of the six candidates for U. S. Representative, State Senator and State Representative from our district as well as an explanation of the four proposals which will appear on the ballot. On page one appears the complete story of Tuesday's election and a list of all the candidates whose names will appear on the ballot.

Editorially we have urged our readers to support Congressman Charles G. Oakman. We sincerely feel that he has served his constituents ably and conscientiously and deserves another term in Washington.

Another candidate for office who most certainly has the admiration and support of Democrats and Republicans alike is Plymouth's own Judge James H. Sexton. A non-partisan candidate for Judge of Probate, the likeable Judge Sexton has proven in his nine years on the bench that he is a capable, wise counselor of rare ability. So often an office holder is graced by the position he holds. In the case of "Jimmy" Sexton the exact opposite is true. We are indeed fortunate to have a man of his high character in our courts. We hope Plymouth voters will give their "good neighbor" a record 100 per cent vote!

Retired Commissioner Henry J. Fisher Dies

A life filled with many years of public service was ended late Saturday night when Henry J. Fisher, recently-resigned city commissioner and a blacksmith by trade, died at University hospital in Ann Arbor at the age of 82.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday from the Schrader Funeral home with the Reverend Edgar Hoenecke, pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran church, officiating. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

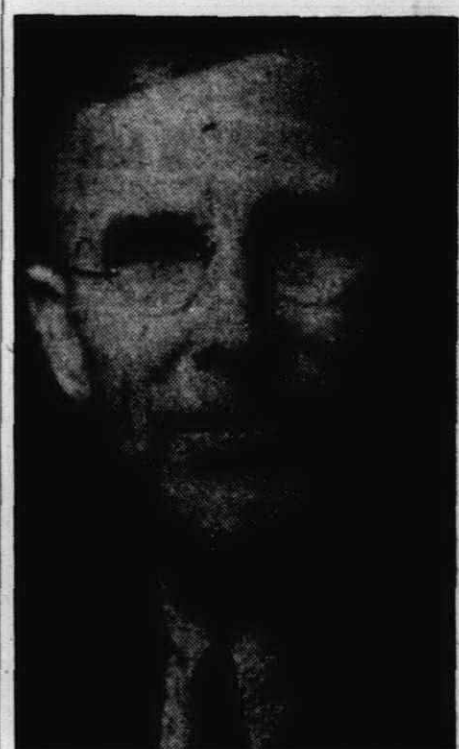

Mr. Fisher suffered a serious stroke last December 31 and had been hospitalized three times since then. He was brought to his 464 North Main street home from the hospital Saturday but after suddenly becoming worse, he was returned to the hospital where he passed away at 11:30 p.m.

Born in Macomb county on October 29, 1871, he became a Plymouth resident in 1902. A few years later, he was elected to the village council and saw Main street paved for the first time. He resigned from the city commission last July due to ill health but not before actively entering into the present-day discussion on Main street paving and widening.

Mr. Fisher formerly resided in Warren, Michigan and attended Township of Sterling Parochial school. Upon moving to Plymouth, he purchased the Charles Brems blacksmith shop located where Bills Market stands today on Starkweather avenue. Buggy manufacturing was also a part of his life and after quitting as a blacksmith, Mr. Fisher became a retailer of farm implements. He retired in 1923 and devoted part of his time in later years to carpentry.

Ten years of his life was devoted to public service as a village council member and the last five years as a city commissioner. He was president of the village in 1927 and 1928.

Mr. Fisher was elected to the city commission in 1949, was re-

Lay Cornerstone Sunday at Church

The cornerstone for the new St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church will be formally laid during a brief ceremony Sunday afternoon.

Starting at 3 p.m., the ceremony will include a short talk by the Reverend Arthur Wacker of the synod's foreign mission board. The Reverend Edgar Hoenecke will lay the cornerstone.

Sealed inside the stone will be numerous items representing present-day church and community life. Included will be a Bible, a church constitution, a catechism, hymnal, pictures, church periodicals and this week's edition of The Plymouth Mail.

The senior and junior choirs will sing at the ceremony. A luncheon will be served in the day school at 3:45.

Site of the new church building is at Penniman and Garfield avenues.

Ground was broken for the building August 15. A ceremony was held at that time. The $229,000 structure will seat 550 people upon its completion. It is of a brick colonial design.

Warns Kiddies About Halloween

Don't turn your Halloween fun into destruction and vandalism, police and post office officials told youngsters this week as the old English holiday approached.

A dozen volunteer firemen will again aid police in keeping destruction out of Halloween, Chief of Police Carl Greenlee said. At the same time, Postmaster George Timpona reminded youngsters and their parents that it is a federal offense to cause damage to mail deposit and home delivery boxes.

The recreation department, civic organizations and businessmen are participating in a program Saturday night at the high school where youngsters will be able to have an evening of free entertainment and refreshments. Halloween isn't officially until Sunday but police are hoping that any celebrating will be completed Saturday.

Election Interest Runs High As Hot Campaigns Near End

Community Fund Ends First Week With 20 Per Cent of Goal Reached

Cash and pledges of $5,358.50 have been reported in Plymouth's Community Fund campaign, it was announced yesterday noon by the fund's treasurer, Marvin Criger.

The total represents 20 per cent of the fund's goal of $24,500.

Community Fund officials headed by Chairman George Witkowski said that they were hoping for a larger amount after the first week of collections. "But we're relying upon the continued generosity of Plymouth area citizens to put the drive over the top when the campaign comes to a close November 11," Witkowski declared.

Only $615.50 has been returned by mail from the residential areas, Criger reported. There were 5,000 letters and return envelopes sent out to homes.

One envelope returned was from a small boy. It contained a nickel.

Business, industry and their employees account for the greatest part of the donations. It was again pointed out to Plymouth residents who work in plants in other communities that their donations can be transferred to the Plymouth fund if they so stipulate at the time of the donation. Likewise, residents of other areas who work in Plymouth area can designate their donations to their hometown funds.

Witkowski stated that Plymouth can only reach its goal if citizens increase their donations over last year. This year's goal is the highest in Community Fund history—a 12 per cent jump over last year. Citizens must increase their donations proportionately, the chairman added.

Shotgun Pellets Of Local Hunter Wound Man, Son

A Wayne farmer taking his family out for a Sunday afternoon drive and his son were struck by shotgun pellets when a blast from the gun of a Plymouth man shattered the windshield of the car.

Freeman Hasselbach, 39412 VanBorn road, was released from Nankin hospital Monday after three pellets were removed from his face. Two more must be removed later.

Hasselbach was driving on Napier road between Five and Six Mile roads Sunday afternoon when his wife pointed at a peasant which had just flown up. A shotgun blast was heard an instant later and pellets shattered the windshield, some striking Hasselbach and several others hitting his son, Clarence, 6, who was riding in the back seat.

The hunter identified himself as Donald Traver, 933 Palmer.

Pellets hitting young Clarence in the face did not embed themselves, State Police reported. Several which struck Mr. Hasselbach pierced the skin about an inch above the eye.

The Hasselbachs told police that they will withhold the filing of charges against the Plymouth hunter. He has promised to stand medical and damage expenses connected with the accident, the couple said.

Expect Charity Lottery Issue to Attract Voters

An estimated 2,400 Plymouth city and 1,100 Plymouth township voters will go to the polls next Tuesday to vote on national, state and county candidates and four state constitutional amendments.

Though there will be no strictly local issues on the ballot, interest is expected to be comparatively high due mainly to the stiff competition among some candidates and the controversial proposal to allow charitable lotteries.

Names of 71 candidates will appear on the ballot. They are seeking to fill 29 offices. Five Political parties—Republican, Democratic, Prohibition, Socialist Labor and Socialist Workers—are presenting candidates.

While the Democrats and Republicans have a full slate of candidates, the remaining three minor parties have candidates seeking only a few of the offices.

City Clerk Lamont BeGole stated that he expects about 2,400 persons to go to the four polls in the city although there will be enough supplies on hand for 3,000 voters. It was announced today that the Precinct 2 poll, formerly located at Starkweather school, has been changed to the Northside fire station across from the school.

In Plymouth township, Clerk Norman Miller said that he predicts an election turnout of between 1,000 and 1,200. The township hall is the only voting place in the township. Six voting machines will be in operation there. Polls will open at 7 a.m. Tuesday and will close at 8 p.m. Those waiting to vote when polls close will be allowed to cast their votes.

Voting predictions made by the city and township clerks represent a figure slightly higher than half of the registered voters. The city has 4,659 registrants and the township has 2,265. In the record-shattering presidential election two years ago, 3,656 city voters went to the polls and 1,608 township citizens voted.

One name on the ballot is especially familiar to Plymouth voters. It is that of James H. Sexton, 1043 Penniman, who is seeking re-election as a probate judge. He has held that office nine years.

The races for governor, U. S. senator and representative will be among the top interest contests among most citizens.

It will be possible to vote a "straight ticket" by pulling down a lever on the voting machine located beside the political party headings. City Clerk BeGole said that a voting machine will be on display in city hall for interested citizens to learn how to use the machine. He added that city hall will be open Friday night from 6 to 8 o'clock for display of the machine.

Shows Historic Items

A replica of Edison's first electric lamp and a water clock dating back to 1700 are two items loaned to the Plymouth Mail this week for display. Edward C. Hough of the Daisy Manufacturing company is the owner of the two historic articles.

The lamp replica was given to Mr. Hough at the golden jubilee of light when Henry Ford introduced Thomas Edison to Mr. Hough. The clock is from a southern plantation and receives its motion from the lowering of water in a cylinder. The public is invited to inspect the two articles.

Plymouth Blood Bank Visits Nets Record of 139 Pints

When the Bloodmobile drove away from Plymouth last Thursday night, it carried the largest amount of blood ever collected in a stop here—139 pints.

A minimum of 100 pints had been set by the Civil Defense committee which arranged for the Bloodmobile stop here. The generosity of Plymouth area people who gave their blood was praised by Ernest Henry, director of Plymouth Civil Defense and chairman of the committee, Leo F. Flowers, Plymouth township CD director and assistant chairman.

The blood bank opened at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon and a steady stream of donors moved through the Masonic Temple until 9 p.m. with the exception of an hour taken out for dinner.

This was the first visit of the blood bank to Plymouth this year except for the special trips made for employees of the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

Veterans organizations, civic organizations and industry were credited with much of the success of the blood bank.

On the CD committee which planned the visit were Mrs. Charles Rathburn, Pauline Soule, Jean Mettetal, Bertha LaMay, Mrs. Stephan Tallian, Cathleen Keith, William Langmaid, Harry Burleson, Robert Wilson and Harold Young.

Doctors to Take Spotlight at Chamber Dinner

Dr. Luther Peck

A capacity crowd of 250 persons is expected next Wednesday night when members of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce honor Dr. Luther Peck and hear an address by Dr. Albert C. Furstenberg, dean of the University of Michigan Medical school.

Dr. Peck is being honored for his 50 years of practice in Plymouth.

Businessmen, industrialists and their wives will hear one of the outstanding physicians in the country when Dr. Furstenberg addresses the annual meeting. Graduating from the U. of M. medical school in 1916, he started as an instructor two years later and was named dean of the school in 1935. During World War I he was a first lieutenant in the Medical Reserve corps.

Dr. Furstenberg was chairman of the sub-committee on otolaryngology of the National Research council during World War II, an honorary member of the Army Medical Library and civilian consultant in otolaryngology to the Surgeon General of the Army.

He has contributed numerous articles to medical journals.

The annual meeting will be held at the high school auditorium. Music will be provided by the high school choir, band and Miss Evelyn Woods.

Discovers Two Wells In Salem Township

Two more potential oil and gas wells have been logged by the W. C. Taggart company, discoverer of the first oil well in the Salem-Northville field.

Leo Peterson, superintendent of the Taggart operations, said that oil was encountered Tuesday morning in a well drilled on the Marvin Partridge farm, 54433 West Eight Mile road. A gas discovery estimated at 4,000,000 cubic feet has also been located on the Walter Newton farm on Seven Mile road. Both wells have to be tested to determine their value, Peterson added.

The Partridges are former Plymouth residents.

Thomas Gray-Barbara Hanchett Are Wed In St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Livonia

At an impressive candlelight service in St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran church, Livonia, Barbara Ann Hanchett became the bride of Thomas Allen Gray Jr. The seven o'clock service was read on Saturday evening, October 16, with the Reverend Theodore Sauer officiating. Baskets of white gladioli and palms graced the chancel of the church and satin bows marked the pews.

Barbara Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Hanchett of Newburg road, Livonia, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Gray of Dewey street, Plymouth, are the parents of the bridegroom.

Louis Beer presided at the organ and Mrs. Louis Beer, a cousin of the bride was soloist. She sang "O Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Barbara selected a gown of imported rosepointe lace and nylon tulle over satin. The portrait neckline was edged in the lace and the hooped skirt had a deep pleated ruffle of the tulle. Wide circles of the lace fell gracefully into a Chapel train. The train was edged with the wide pleated band of the tulle and had inserts of the lace. Her fingertip length veil of illusion was held in place by a heart shaped tiara of rhinestones and pearls. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of her bridegroom, and she carried a spray of white baby mums and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Sally Thomas, maid of honor, wore a floor length gown of yellow tulle over taffeta encircled with overskirt of deep points. She wore a yellow picture hat of tulle with matching mitts and carried a spray of aqua carnations centered with yellow carnations.

The bridesmaids, Patricia Wendland, cousin of the bride, and Marlene Trick, wore matching floor length gowns of aqua fashioned identical to that of the maid of honor. They wore matching picture hats and mitts and carried sprays of yellow carnations centered with aqua carnations. Milo Thomas was the ring bearer.

Robert Postlewait served Thomas as best man and seating the guests were Kenneth Hanchett, Jr. brother of the bride, and James Gray, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Hanchett chose a floor length gown of apricot silk over taffeta with which she wore matching accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations. Mrs. Gray selected a blue-grey suit with matching accessories and a corsage of yellow carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 200 was held in the American Legion Hall. Guests were present from Livonia, Detroit, Dearborn, Garden City, Lansing, Inkster, Lincoln Park, Redford, Ohio, New York, Pontiac and Plymouth.

For honeymooning in the Smokey mountains, Mrs. Hanchett changed to a cocoa brown suit with matching accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Barbara graduated from Bentley high school and her husband attended Plymouth high school.

They will make their home at 215 Adams street, Plymouth.

Mrs. Walter Hacketh entertained the members of her Secret Pal club Tuesday evening in her home on Gold Arbor road.

112 Visit Display Of Hooked Rugs

A display of 50 rugs and five pictures made by the Methodist church's hooked rug class brought 112 people to the church dining room last Wednesday evening. According to Mrs. Elmer Reddeman, spokesman for the group, resulting donations by visitors amounted to $53. Part of this money will go to the cancer fund, the other for a new electric roaster in the Methodist church kitchen.

Members of the class, under the direction of Ruby Grant and Julia McGuire of Detroit, made and displayed various types of hooked rugs at the exhibit. Designs ranged from oriental and Mecca prayer rugs to those of floral and geometric designs. Old patterns such as the Gifford Aubusson and colonial scroll were hooked by members into attractive rugs displayed at the event.

The class is meeting the third Wednesday of each month from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. at the Methodist church, November 17, the next meeting, will be the last chance for those interested to sign up.

An old time country fair atmosphere will prevail at the annual event with games of skill, popcorn, candy, rides and a special supper. Sponsored by the Parent-Teachers association, the event is open to the public.

Places Firm On Probation Republicans Rally At Salem Hall

An infraction of Plymouth's heating code has brought a heating contractor into court for the first time.

The Ann Arbor office of the Holland Furnace company was summoned before Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo Monday night to face charges of violating the heating ordinance. Charles Thompson, heating inspector, charged that the firm had failed to comply with a 10-day notice to properly install a gas supply-cock in a conversion burner at the George Brown home, 609 Adams.

Judge Perlongo found the firm guilty and placed the company on probation for one year. Other infractions of the ordinance, the judge warned, would mean a jail term for the company's Ann Arbor office manager.

The Plymouth heating board recently reviewed other complaints against the Holland Furnace company and considered revoking the company's license here. Since the office manager in charge of the firm during the time of the faulty installations had been discharged, the heating board withdrew its temporary suspension order.

In other cases heard during Monday night's busy court session, Oscar Hicks, 672 Karmada, was sentenced to 90 days in the Detroit House of Correction because he was driving while his license was suspended. Hicks' license was suspended June 30 by Judge Perlongo and he was appealing this in the court of appeals when police arrested him for driving while his license was revoked.

Another motorist, John Tweed, Jr., 9024 Oakview, was fined $50 for driving recklessly. A number of other drivers were fined for speeding charges.

Two hundred persons turned out for the Republican Rally at the Salem Hall last Saturday to hear talks by Congressman George Meader, Representative Louis Christman, and Owen Cleary, secretary of state.

All of Washtenaw county candidates were there including prosecuting Attorney E. F. Devine, County Clerk Luella Smith, W. F. Verner, treasurer; and candidate for sheriff Klager.

President of the Salem Republican club is Sylvester Shear of North Territorial road. Chairman George Scherman, also of North Territorial road, introduced the speakers, while Al Sullivan, head of Ann Arbor Republican headquarters, followed up with introduction of the attending candidates.

Dancing and refreshments followed the introductions and speeches by the various Republican figures.

Presbyterian Building Drive Totals $119,850

An all-out effort by Building Fund campaigners coupled with the outstanding cooperation of its congregation resulted in pledges totaling $119,850 at the First Presbyterian church Sunday. The church had set a goal of $120,000 to be reached by next spring so that work could get underway on the $150,000 addition.

Sunday's huge returns have prompted campaign managers to predict that, with some 170 calls remaining to be made, they will be able to collect the necessary $30,000 thus making a mortgage or any indebtedness unnecessary.

The addition, to be made to the south side of the building, will accommodate Christian Education classes presently overcrowded to the point where children must stand. Of the 528 calls made by the campaigners in church and in the homes 380 pledges were received, mostly over a three-year period. The 100 campaigners plan to complete the campaign immediately, making all calls missed by persons not being home, etc.

General chairman of the campaign was R. Douglas Shaw, while the Reverend John A. Reed of the Board of National Missions directed the committee in its campaign procedure.

Laud Symphony Opening Concert

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra opened its ninth season Sunday to an appreciative audience in the gymnasium of the Plymouth high school. Far from capacity of the new setting of the concerts, the crowd was nevertheless estimated to be beyond the capacity of the auditorium formerly used for the musical presentations.

Applause for the efforts of the orchestra in its first concert under the baton of Emil Raab was generous. The 85-piece orchestra was especially impressive in its presentation of the difficult "Don Juan" by Strauss. Other selections included "Semiramide Overture", by Rossini; and "Elegie and Waltz from Serenade for Strings" by Tchaikowsky. Soloist Norma Heyde's soprano offerings of "Exultate Jubilate" by Mozart and "Knoxville, Summer of 1915" by Barber drew several curtain calls from the audience.

The orchestra's next concert is scheduled for Sunday, November 28 with Violinist Josep Lazaroff as featured soloist.

ALS' HEATING, INC.

TAKES PLEASURE IN PRESENTING THE NEW CRANE

Sunnyday

the greatest home-heating unit of its type in 20 years

SAVES AS MUCH AS 15 CENTS OUT OF EVERY FUEL DOLLAR

TAKES UP 20% LESS SPACE

WARMS YOUR HOUSE FASTER

HUSH-QUIET, ONLY PURRS

It gives you the comfort of radiant heat, and pays for itself in the fuel you save!

The new Crane "Sunnyday" boiler is designed especially to save up to 15% on your oil or gas bills. In fact the "Sunnyday" saves so much on fuel, that it enables everyone to enjoy the comfort and convenience of radiant hot-water home heating.

This completely new Crane boiler comes in different models to heat anything from a three-room to a nine-room house. Yet its lightweight castings, and its nine fire-tubes are so efficient that the "Sunnyday" is up to 20 per cent smaller than other similar boilers.

It stands only 3' 9" high. And it has a smart-looking jacket, designed by world-famous Henry Dreyfuss, to make it a handsome addition to any utility room or game room.

... And here's the modern idea in radiators

Crane Radiant Baseboard

The perfect supplement to your "Sunnyday" boiler is a system of Crane Radiant Baseboards. (In fact they're the perfect supplement to any hot water boiler.) They give uniform, healthful, draft-free warmth all round the room. And — since they look just like regular decorative baseboard—you can arrange your furniture any way you wish without regard for old-fashioned heating fixtures.

Never before have so many fine features been concentrated in a boiler heating unit of this trim size. Let us tell you about them. Give us a call, and talk over your heating problems with us. There's no obligation at all!

Legion Auxiliary Holds District Tea Halloween Party

Marie Lyons Kidie, president of the 17th district of the American Legion opened the district tea at 3:30 p.m. on Sunday, October 24, at the Veterans Memorial home. Rosedale Park, Redford Township, Northville, Livonia and Plymouth were represented at the social affair.

Department Membership Chairman Trina Quinn was the guest speaker. Her theme was "Hunt corn for Taylor," which represents National Vice President Mrs. Alys Hunt and department President Mrs. Gladys Taylor. Corn is for the state of Iowa, the birthplace of Mrs. Hunt. Each guest was given a small bag of corn, each kernel standing for a new member. Tea and cookies were served with Trina Quinn and Marie Kidie pouring. Two songs were sung by Mrs. Betty Hay, accompanied by Mrs. Claire Williams, followed by group singing.

A children's Halloween party at the Veterans Home is scheduled for Saturday afternoon from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. with an adult party in the evening at 8:30. Movies, games and candy are planned for the kiddies' party. For information concerning the sale of Christmas cards from members, call Gwyn Holcombe or Fern Burleson.

Meanwhile, the Passage-Gayde Post is campaigning for new members during "American Legion Weeks," October 20 to November 11. They urge veterans of World Wars I and II and the Korean conflict, as well as their wives, to acquaint themselves with the American Legion. Information may be obtained from any of the following officers: H. Burleson, A. Holcombe, Q. Bolander, W. Langmaid, P. Trudell, R. Gardner and Dorothy Koi. Anyone wishing information during the daytime may drop in at the D & C store and ask for Ernie Koi.

Americanism Chairman Robert Wilson stressed that it is the obligatory duty of all members and the general public to vote in the coming elections, regardless of how they vote.

Brownie Troop 17 took a trip to Parmenter's cider mill in Northville last Friday. On the way home they stopped in the park to play a few games.

HALLOWEEN GOBLINS might be blamed for this mysterious occurrence, but there is undoubtedly a more scientific explanation. Mrs. Naomi Brackenbury, 229 East Pearl street, is pictured examining the back window of her 1952 car which has crumbled into a million pieces. It happened at night time. Windows of several other cars in the Plymouth area have suffered the same effects during the past few years.

REPRESENTATIVE CHARLES OAKMAN turned newsboy for a day last week as he handed "Ike and Oak" potholders and "Be sure to Vote" pamphlets to shoppers in Plymouth. Above he is shown with Miss Ruth Erickson of West Ann Arbor trail. His whirlwind tour through Plymouth included an address to the Rotary club Friday.

MEN IN SERVICE

Gerald R. Huber

Gerald R. Huber, gunner's mate third class, USN, of 14633 Garland street, Plymouth, aboard the USS Bearss, was scheduled to return yesterday to Norfolk, Virginia completing a six month round-the-world cruise and a tour of Far East duty.

The destroyers Rowe, Ross and Bearss left Norfolk in April and transited the Panama Canal stopping at San Diego, California, and Pearl Harbor, and arrived in Japan late in May.

The Ross acted as a rescue destroyer searching for survivors of the downed British Cathay airliner off Hainan Island in July. The ships operated with fast carrier task force, UN patrol and Formosa patrol.

They returned to Norfolk via the Mediterranean Sea stopping at Italy, France and Portugal.

Gerald C. England

Private Gerald England, husband of Mrs. Helen England, 11389 Gold Arbor street, Plymouth, who recently completed basic training, has been selected to attend the Army Guided Missile school at Fort Bliss, Texas.

He will receive highly specialized training in one of the newest fields of the defense program. Upon completing the course he will be stationed with a guided missile unit.

Thomas H. Gavigan

Private Thomas H. Gavigan, 19 son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh B. Gavigan, 1052 Hardin street, Plymouth, recently was graduated from the Army Information School at Fort Slocum, New York.

During the eight-week public information course Private Gavigan received instruction in newswriting, press, photography, radio and television techniques, public speaking and other subjects.

Gavigan is regularly assigned at Fort MacArthur, California. A former student at Cleary college in Ypsilanti, he entered the Army last March.

Methodist Women To Hold Another "Dollar Bazaar"

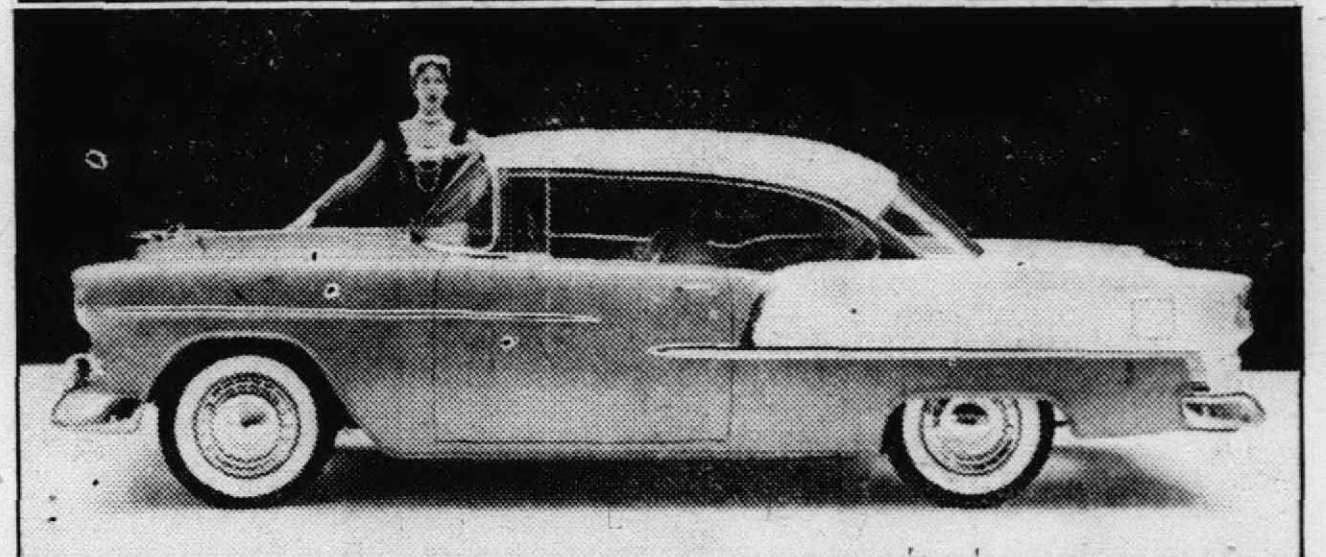

Last year's venture was so successful that the Womens Society of Christian Service, Plymouth Methodist church, is holding a return engagement on December 1 of its "Dollar Bazaar." Opening at 1 p.m., the event will also feature a tea from 2-4 p.m. followed by a dollar supper from 5-7 p.m.

A variety of articles ranging from goodies to eat and aprons to wear—all priced at no more than $1 per single item—will be offered at the bazaar.

Working over a period of months, the organization plans to have an even bigger supply of articles than at last year's bazaar. To insure a fair distribution to shoppers, items will be supplied periodically to the booths. However, the society reserves the right to limit the quantities of any one item sold to a customer.

Tea chairman is Mrs. Wilma Taylor, who will be assisted by the members on her committee. The dinner at a $1 per person will be served in the Methodist church dining room, while desert will be extra. Tickets must be obtained in advance for this dinner from any of the W.S.C.S. members, or from Mrs. Clara Mumby, ticket chairman, or General Bazaar Chairman Mrs. Lloyd Fillmore.

Two-Tone Styling Adds Sparkle to Sport Coupe

Certain to share the beauty spotlight in Chevrolet's latest line of passenger car models is the Bel Air sport coupe, completely re-styled for 1955. Among noteworthy features in the above view are the broad, low grille and hood lines, appreciably increased vision through the new sweep-sight windshield, and the effect of fleetness imparted by chrome molding strips. This special two-tone color styling will be available on Bel Air sport coupes and convertibles among the 14 models.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Saida Rorabacher
Funeral services were held Wednesday, October 27, at 1 p.m. at the Schrader Funeral home for Mrs. Saida Rorabacher who passed away early Monday morning, October 25, at the age of 79 years. Her home was at 9400 South Main street in Plymouth Township.

Surviving are her husband, Claude Rorabacher; her daughter and son-in-law, Carl G. and Dorothy C. Nelson of Rogers City, Michigan; her grand-children, Carl G. Nelson II and Nancy Lynne Nelson; and other relatives and a host of friends.

Mrs. Rorabacher first came to Plymouth at the age of 17; she later moved to Detroit where she lived for 46 years. In September of this year Mr. and Mrs. Rorabacher returned to Plymouth to make their residence.

She was a member of the Second Church of Christ Scientist of Detroit; and member of Auxiliary No. 1 Hazen Pingree U. S. Veterans organization.

Mr. Frank C. Luloff of Detroit read the service. Hymns were rendered on the organ by Mrs. Edna O'Conner. The active pallbearers were Dale Rorabacher, Howard Schryer, Wilson Clark, Robert Clark, Gerald Rorabacher and Robert Holloway. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Fred McCarty

Mr. Fred D. McCarty, who resided at 8551 Brookville road, Plymouth passed away very suddenly Sunday afternoon, October 24. He was 54 years of age.

Surviving are his two brothers, Stark and Ernest McCarty, of the same address; one sister, Miss Gretta McCarty of Mansfield, Ohio; and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, October 27, at the Schrader Funeral home. The Reverend Douglas Couch of Salem officiated. Interment was made in Salem-Walker cemetery.

Grange Cleanings

The meeting of the Grange on last Thursday night was a pleasant affair. Five new candidates were received into the order which always makes everyone happy. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs showed the colored slides of their Western trip last year. There is certainly plenty of grand and wonderful scenery here in our own good old U.S.A. Nature's own scenery though; so if one wants to see castles, cathedrals, ruins and historic places one should go to the foreign countries for that.

Our meeting for November 4, will be a potluck supper as usual. We hope our new members will be with us.

Mr. and Mrs. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tritten and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tritten of Brethren, the parents of Jesse, are attending the State Grange at Adrian this week.

Mrs. Mary Henry is having to be perfectly quiet, cannot go anywhere or do anything. She finds the time is very lonely.

MOMS Club News

Friday evening at the Ann Arbor Veterans hospital there was a Recognition Ceremony for volunteer workers. Those working 100 hours or more were presented with a certificate of appreciation from Dr. Beckett, Manager and John Willoughby, assistant manager of this hospital. From our group there were Mrs. Bloomhuff and Mrs. Kushler who received these certificates.

Monday evening was our monthly Pot Luck with a good attendance and Tuesday evening was the Card Party and Bazaar.

Students Get Holidays

Plymouth's public schools are closing down today and tomorrow while teachers travel to Detroit for the annual meeting of the Michigan Education association.

As students vacation, teachers will be getting some new ideas about teaching from some of the nation's leading educators and speakers. One of the most widely-known speakers will be Bennett Cerf, publisher, writer and TV panel member.

U.S. Representative

Martha Griffiths

This is the second time that Martha W. Griffiths has faced her Republican opponent, Charles G. Oakman. It was in the 1952 "Republican sweep" that Oakman gained the House seat from the 17th district with a six per cent margin.

So today, two years later, Mrs. Griffiths considers her chances against the incumbent candidate very good.

Mrs. Griffiths served two terms in the Michigan legislature and was a Recorder's court judge in 1953, being appointed by Governor Williams. During World War II, she was a contract negotiator for the Army Ordnance.

With her husband, Hicks G. Griffiths, and G. Mcmen Williams, Mrs. Griffiths formed the law firm of Griffiths, Williams & Griffiths. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan law school and has lived in the congressional district 12 years. She was born in Missouri's Ozark Mountains.

Her campaign talks have emphasized the "critical problem of the schools and the need for tax policies which will help distribute purchasing power to the many." She has also stressed the plight of the factory worker and small businessman.

Mrs. Griffiths believes that congressional committee sessions could be televised so that people can see how their business is conducted. From her familiar campaign house trailer, Mrs. Griffiths denounces the "give-away" of power and other natural resources of the Republican administration.

Charles G. Oakman is completing his first term as a United States Representative, a term which has seen him vote "down the line" to support the policies of the Eisenhower administration.

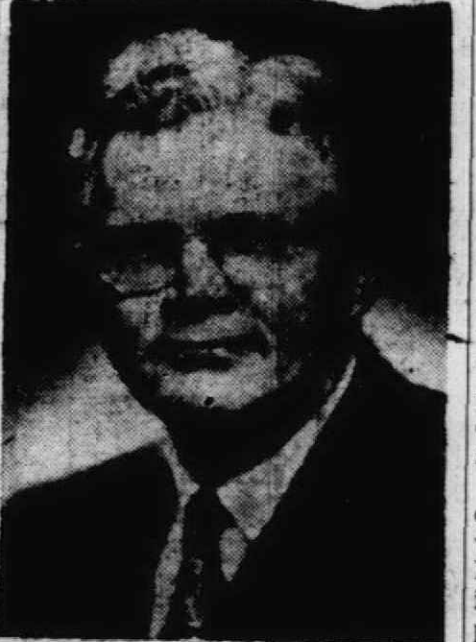

"Ike needs Oak" and "A vote for Oak is a vote for Ike" are slogans adopted by the 41-year-old Congressman in his current campaign to return to Washington. To stimulate action among his colleagues he founded the "Work with Ike Club."

Oakman's public service began in 1940 when he became executive secretary to Detroit's late Mayor Jeffries. He was controller of the city of Detroit from 1941 to 1952 and was then elected to four terms as councilman.

In private life, Rep. Oakman was in the real estate and transportation business for 14 years. He was president of the Saginaw Motor Coach company and president of the Oakman-Baylis Realty company.

Oakman considers his efforts to obtain passage of the St. Lawrence Seaway, among his most worthy achievements during this first term in the House. House

Charles Oakman

Majority Leader Charles A. Halleck declared, "No member of the House of Representatives did more to aid the passage of the St. Lawrence Seaway Bill than Congressman Oakman."

Oakman also points to his introduction of legislation to afford special tax relief for home owners; repeal of Federal excise taxes; for highway improvement; legislation against windfalls to natural gas pipeline companies and fought a proposed amendment to the Federal Milk Marketing Order which he claimed would have washed out the remaining small dairies. A post office for Livonia is considered another of his achievements.

State Senator

Though he is but 27 years old, Clarence A. Reid, Jr., Republican candidate for the state senate, is a practicing attorney, married and has two children.

As a youth, Reid got his first taste of Senate procedures while serving as a Senate page boy in Lansing. He is a graduate of the Detroit public schools, of Tri-State college and the Detroit College of Law. He has lived in northwest Detroit most of his life.

Reid is a Navy veteran of World War II, is a member of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity, Downtown Republican club, State Bar of Michigan and Detroit Bar association.

If elected, the state senate candidate claims he will promote and work for passage of all proposed legislation designed to aid and improve highways, mental hospitals, the educational system and "all other worthwhile and progressive measures which will benefit the people of Michigan."

The young attorney has been endorsed by organized labor, the Detroit Citizens' League, The Steuben Society, Association of Lutheran Laymen and other civic and fraternal groups.

John Swainson

John B. Swainson, Democratic candidate for the state senate, grew up in Port Huron where he played fullback on the high school football team. A few years later, in 1944, he was an infantry sergeant on night patrol near Metz, France when he lost both legs in a land mine explosion.

Back home, Swainson secured his pre-law education at Olivet college and earned his law degree at the University of North Carolina. He represented the university at a session of the United Nations and gained knowledge about the operation of the world organization. He was also president of the University Law association.

It was also during these college years that the energetic student slipped on the ice while wearing his new legs and had to undergo another operation.

A former law associate of Judge Nathan Kaufman, Swainson is regional chairman of the Junior Bar Section of the Michigan Bar association. He is also a staff member of the Redford Township Office of Civil Defense and highly interested in a better CD program in Michigan. In addition, he is a member of the Citizens Forum of Redford township; the American Legion, Amvets, Disabled American Veterans of Foreign Wars.

The Democratic candidate is a home owner at 20452 Olympia, Detroit, where he resides with his wife and two sons.

State Representative

Charles Walker

As a Democratic candidate for the House of Representatives in Lansing, Charles Walker has one problem above all others he wishes to solve—the critical classroom shortage.

Walker lives at 12904 Stark, Livonia, and has a son and daughter who are affected by the half-day school sessions necessary in Livonia. A quiet, sincere man, Walker believes he can best serve his neighbors by helping to solve this school problem.

He has been an employee of the Timken company for 18 years. Besides taking active interest in community affairs, Walker constructed his own home in Livonia.

Leonard Wood

Wayne county has but one committee chairman in Lansing—he is Leonard E. Wood, who is credited with sponsoring more bills in one session than any other legislator in the past 20 years.

Wood heads the metropolitan affairs committee and serves on the city corporations, insurance and public safety committees as well. His most notable achievement in the House has been the driver licensing program which he wrote. It was lauded as a revolutionary step forward by safety experts and Governor Williams selected the bill as the major law of the 67th Legislature.

The seventh district representative also re-established the Michigan Security commission which requires the licensing of builders and contractors to protect investments in homes.

He also points out that suburban areas are protected because he stopped legislation which would have simplified procedure of annexation. He was also personally instrumental in obtaining a liberal unemployment compensation law.

Another Wood-sponsored bill was the Moratorium Bill which was rebuked by the governor but praised by others. It was designed to help those affected by the Livonia fire disaster and will help others through other abnormal conditions such as bombings, tornadoes and floods. Wood claims to have sponsored more safety bills than any other legislator in Lansing during the last session.

The Republican legislator also improved school employee and teacher retirement laws, established higher minimum salary for teachers in primary and secondary schools, sponsored a law placing blind persons or widows of the blind to come under the Homestead Exemption law, a law compelling pawnbrokers, second-hand and junk dealers to make written statements concerning the nature of all properties received to aid the police enforcement.

Wood spent 50 months in the Navy during World War II and has strongly urged his constituents to vote for the Korean bonus.

This is his first term in the House. He is married, has four children and lives at 9568 Nathaniel.

Proposals

Here is a summary of the four proposals which will appear on the November 2 general election ballot. This summary was prepared by George E. Bowles of Plymouth upon the request of the Chamber of Commerce's state and national affairs committee.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

This amendment proposes to prevent disqualification of electors because of having moved within this state within 30 days preceding an election.

The Michigan Constitution now says "but no one shall be an elector and entitled to vote at any election, unless he or she shall be above the age of 21 years and has resided in this state six months, and in the city or township in which he or she offers to vote 30 days next preceding such election."

Under this language, should a person move to another city or township in this state, for example, 15 days before an election, he could not vote at all because he no longer resides where he is registered to vote and he has not been in the new place long enough to give him the right to register or vote.

Therefore, the proposed amendment submitted to the voters by resolution of the legislature is offered for the purpose of correcting such a situation by including the following directly after the language above quoted: "Provided, that a registered qualified elector who shall move into another city or township in this state within said 30 day period shall be entitled to vote in the city or township in which registered and from which he has last removed on filing a sworn affidavit to that effect with the election board of the city or township from which he has last removed."

PROPOSAL NO. 2

Proposed amendment to Section 23, Article X of the Constitution relative to sales tax and distribution of sales tax revenues.

The amendment to the Constitution whereby about 78 per cent of sales tax receipts were earmarked for local units was adopted in 1946. An effort to repeal it was made in 1948 and turned down by the voters. Since then we have been faced with the necessity of having the state return to cities, townships, and schools most of the sales tax collected. Of this, the lion's share goes to schools.

The proposed amendment, now submitted to the voters by action of the legislature, would not reduce the percentage of the sales tax collections going to the schools. In fact, it would increase it from 61.44 per cent to 66.67 per cent. The change it would make is in the time when the allocations to schools would be made.

For example, the legislature met January 13, 1954 in annual session. It adjourned May 14, 1954. It was required by the Constitution to appropriate to schools an amount equal to a certain percentage of sales tax collections during the fiscal year 1952-53.

But the appropriations were for the fiscal year 1954-55. Therefore, before the money is actually paid out to the schools, about two years elapse from the time that collections were made determining the amount to be paid out. There is nothing in the present law contemplating or requiring that any of the money so collected be set aside for future requirements. By the time that the state has to pay out to school districts on the basis of collections made two years previously, the receipts from the sales tax may have seriously declined, presenting a serious financial situation.

What is proposed is that two-thirds of the sales tax collected be placed in a "school aid fund" to be expended only by appropriation by the legislature for aid to school districts, such fund to be kept "separate and distinct" from the state general fund. The proposal also provides that "at no time shall the legislature levy a sales tax of more than three per cent."

PROPOSAL NO. 3

Proposed amendment authorizing borrowing not to exceed $80,000,000 to pay bonuses for military service during the "Korean War."

In 1921 the voters of Michigan adopted an amendment to the Constitution for a bond issue of 30 millions of dollars for the purpose of paying a bonus to those residents of this state who entered military service between April 6, 1917 and November 11, 1918 and served honestly and faithfully therein during the World War. The payment was to be at the rate of $15 for each month of service. In 1946 the voters added another amendment to the Constitution providing for the borrowing by the state not to exceed 270 million dollars to pay to each person who served at least 60 days between September 16, 1940 and June 30, 1946 and who was a resident of this state at the time of entering service at least six months prior thereto the sum of $10 for each month of service in this country and $15 per month outside but not to exceed a total of $500.

In 1951 a resolution was introduced to further amend the Constitution to pay out of what remained from the World War II bonus, a gratuity of $500 to certain surviving relatives of veterans whose death occurred during the Korean emergency or from causes connected with service after June 27, 1950. That proposal was adopted.

The legislature is now submitting to the voters a proposal for the borrowing of $80,000,000 to pay a bonus to veterans of service between June 27, 1950 and December 31, 1953, in an amount computed in the same way as the bonus following World War II. There is also included the proposal to pay to certain relatives of persons who have died or who hereafter shall die from service-connected causes incurred between the above mentioned dates, the difference between any bonus the veteran has received and the sum of $500. The provision is included that no payment shall be made under this proposal in any case in which payment "has been made or shall hereafter be made" under the amendment adopted in 1951.

PROPOSAL NO. 4

Proposed amendment to Section 33, Article V of the Constitution to permit the legislature to authorize charitable lotteries.

Section 33 of Article V of the Constitution of this state says: "The legislature shall not authorize any lottery nor permit the sale of lottery tickets."

By initiative petition there is submitted to the voters a proposal to change the foregoing section to read as follows:

"The legislature shall not authorize any lottery nor permit any sale of lottery tickets, except, subject to statutory limitations, lotteries conducted by or lottery tickets sold by non-profit charitable organizations, as hereafter defined by law."

This is the time of year to check your fire insurance. Life's hardest task: living each day by the Golden Rule. It is difficult to change custom and practice by law or decree.

Proposals

Here is a summary of the four proposals which will appear on the November 2 general election ballot. This summary was prepared by George E. Bowles of Plymouth upon the request of the Chamber of Commerce's state and national affairs committee.

PROPOSAL NO. 1

This amendment proposes to prevent disqualification of electors because of having moved within this state within 30 days preceding an election.

The Michigan Constitution now says "but no one shall be an elector and entitled to vote at any election, unless he or she shall be above the age of 21 years and has resided in this state six months, and in the city or township in which he or she offers to vote 30 days next preceding such election."

Under this language, should a person move to another city or township in this state, for example, 15 days before an election, he could not vote at all because he no longer resides where he is registered to vote and he has not been in the new place long enough to give him the right to register or vote.

Therefore, the proposed amendment submitted to the voters by resolution of the legislature is offered for the purpose of correcting such a situation by including the following directly after the language above quoted: "Pro-

There's Angels All Over the Place In Guild's Play, "My Three Angels"

News came this week from Adele Miller, Plymouth Theatre Guild president, that two little "angels" have been added to families in the cast of "My Three Angels," the Guild's fall production.

"Sparkie" (C. Veach Sparks), who plays the part of the shrewd, but kindly "Angel" in the play became a grandfather on October 3. Claudia Jean was born to his daughter, Mrs. Harold Walker of Royal Oak.

John Lodge, who plays the part of Paul in "My Three Angels," became the father of Kenneth Blake Lodge on October 14.

(We're almost afraid to mention the name of the prompter in the play! It's Angel Lind.)

Despite the dramatic events in the lives of the cast, rehearsals go on several nights a week and become more and more frequent with the approach of the play's opening date, November 6.

Presented Saturday and Sunday evenings, November 6 and 7, at 8:15 p.m. in the Plymouth high school auditorium. "My Three Angels" is the Guild's fifth production to be directed by William W. Merrill of Will-O-Way Playhouse.

Mrs. Miller states that it is "undoubtedly the funniest play we've yet produced" and promises that it will provide Plymouth audiences with a delightfully entertaining evening. "My Three Angels" has received top rating as this year's most popular play to be put on by community theatres throughout the state.

The plot of "My Three Angels" concerns three lovable convicts in a French penal colony. Their maneuvering to bring a family out of desperate financial straits and final victory in bringing about the downfall of the villains, will provide Plymouthites with an evening full of laughs.

State Consultant On Mental Health Speaks at PTSA

Scheduled for the Monday night, November 1, meeting of the Parent Teacher Student Association at 7:30 in the junior high auditorium is a talk on mental health by Wallace F. Watt.

Watt is a consultant of mental health education, Michigan Department of Mental Health.

Parents and teachers gathering for the Monday night meeting will also get a chance to meet the junior high football squad, who will be there in full regalia. Having received degrees in education and social work from the University of Michigan, Watt has been a teacher and principal of Part-Time Continuation school, Battle Creek; and Boy Scout executive for seven years in Washenaw-Livingston counties. He has also served as field sociologist at the Michigan Child Guidance institute and has been an instructor at Battle Creek college as well as in the U of M's School of Education.

Over a period of 14 months Watt traveled in 26 European countries and the Near East studying youth organizations and delinquency control. In addition he is child welfare consultant of Michigan Children's institute and the Michigan Department of Social Welfare and serves as director of the Baptist Children's home in Detroit.

Visit by GOP

State and Federal candidates of the Republican party will visit Plymouth before election day next Tuesday. The influx will begin Friday with the appearance of Senator Homer Ferguson. In addition to the downtown business visits the Senator will be a guest of the Rotary club at noon at the Mayflower hotel.

On Monday Representative Charles Oakman and GOP gubernatorial candidate, Donald Leonard, will make a tour of the city beginning shortly before 11:00 a.m. They are scheduled to hold a "coffee klatchers" discussion at Marquis' Toll House.

Announce World Community Day Service Scheduled for November 5

An invitation has been extended to Plymouth area church women to attend the World Community Day service to be held November 5 at 8 p.m. in the First Presbyterian church, Plymouth.

According to an announcement from the temporary committee of United Church Women in Plymouth, the service will be patterned on World Community Day, annual program observed by United Church Women throughout the world the first Friday in November.

Theme of the program is "Let the Children Come to Me." Mrs. Emerson Robinson and Mrs. Helen Beaver are in charge of the program. A pageant, "The Appeal of the World Health Organization" is being directed by Mrs. Wayne Smith and Mrs. Dallas King.

Emphasis of the World Community Day service on November 5 will be what church women can do to bring about world peace. To make this goal more effective, church women of Plymouth are asked to bring "Parcels for Peace" to the service. Parcels are to be of warm clothes for children, remnants that can be made into clothes and household linens and blankets to be given to homeless people and refugees.

"Parcels for Peace" will be taken to the Ann Arbor Church World Service center where they will be sent to child refugees in Greece, Korea and other war devastated areas or to centers where older, homeless peoples are in want.

An offering will also be taken at this service to promote the United Church Women's program.

The Protestant church women of Plymouth for years have joined with 18,000 prayer groups in the United States and prayer groups meeting in 118 other countries to observe the World Day of Prayer, annually held the first Friday in Lent. Participating women decided to have more frequent united services.

A group representing Plyouth's St. John's Episcopal church, the First Baptist church, the First Presbyterian church and the First Methodist church met in September and October to form a temporary committee of United Church Women. The purpose was to plan for a permanent United Church group. Mrs. Dean Saxton accepted the temporary chairmanship. Mrs. A. C. Dayton became treasurer and arrangements were made for a fall United Church service.

Adequate wiring systems are an investment not only in home safety but also in efficient and economical operation of electric appliances.

Governor Williams To Speak in Plymouth

Governor G. Mennen Williams will meet with and talk to citizens of the Plymouth-Northville area on Saturday, October 30, at 8:15 p.m. in the Smith school. With him will be Phil Hart, Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor, and Pat McNamara who is running for the United States Senate, according to Dick Wernette, chairman of the Plymouth Democratic club rally.

Wernette also said that local 17th district candidates for Congress, State Legislature and Wayne County offices will be at the rally to tell voters about their programs.

CD Unit Orders Rescue Vehicle

A rescue truck to carry equipment for use in emergencies and disasters is being ordered by the Plymouth Township Civil Defense unit, it was announced this week by Leo F. Flowers, the unit's director.

Industry and business have cooperated in paying half the cost of the truck and the federal government will pay the remaining half, Flowers said. Found in the truck will be a large variety of rescue equipment such as ropes, tools, ladders, resuscitator, etc.

Meanwhile, the township CD units are planning to take part in the mock bomb attack in Detroit on November 6. All out-county CD units have been invited to send a fire truck and personnel into Detroit in order to determine how much surrounding communities can help the city in case of emergency.

Flowers said that the Wayne county office of Civil Defense has received information from the federal Civil Defense headquarters declaring that any enemy attack on the U. S. is not possible before 1956 and if an attack comes that year, tension should ease off. Flowers will attend an Emergency Welfare CD conference in Detroit this week. Counties in southeastern Michigan have been invited to send representatives.

Those who have traveled will tell you that the world's greatest tourist attractions are right here in the United States.

AMONG THE FIRST pints of blood which flowed into the American Red Cross blood bank when the Bloodmobile arrived in Plymouth last Thursday were from these two donors, Terry Danol, 11059 Gold Arbor (left), and Thomas Dorset, 42030 East Ann Arbor trail. This was Danol's first blood donation and Dorset's second. The nurse is Mrs. Mary Gazarek, a blood bank staff nurse.

Mobile Kitchen Display Shown Here Next Week

Public showings of Consumers Power company's mobile display, the "Easy Does It" kitchen, will be held next Tuesday through Thursday from 2 to 4 p.m., and from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m., at the municipal parking lot.

The public will be admitted free to the exhibit during those hours.

Designed to give the homemaker a wealth of ideas on how her kitchen and homemaking problems can be simplified with improved cabinet and appliance design, the "Easy Does It" van has received the unanimous acclaim of homemaking experts from all over America since its introduction last autumn at Michigan State College.

Actually a traveling van, the big exhibit holds special interest for homemakers with some physical handicap or disability. Many of the ideas the trailer embodies can be put into effect at the visitor's home with only minor alterations in existing kitchens, according to Marjorie A. Bettsworth, Consumers' general home service supervisor, who is in charge of the exhibit.

Home economists from the Company's staff will be in the trailer during the public showings to explain its functions to visitors.

The West Wayne area showing is part of a general tour of Consumers' 26,000 square-mile out-state Michigan service area which the van is making this year.

Tax Worker Retires

While several dozen men are campaigning this week to gain a county office, Sylvester Shear, 6279 North Territorial road, has retired after 20 years of county service.

Shear, a brother of Plymouthite Carl Shear, has ended 20 years with the Wayne County Bureau of Taxation. Mr. and Mrs. Shear moved to the Territorial road home three years ago in preparation for the retirement.

Sixty fellow workers honored Mr. Shear recently with a party at a Grand River restaurant. He was presented a wrist watch.

Retired Commissioner

elect for a two-year term in 1951 and re-elected for a four-year term in April 1953. His present unexpired term which ends in 1957 is now filled by Robert Sincock.

Surviving with his widow, Margaret Fisher, are:

One son, Roy Fisher, Plymouth; a daughter, Mrs. Edna Campbell, Plymouth; four stepchildren, Guy Honey of Detroit, and James Honey, Mrs. Viola Behler and Mrs. Vivian Goebel, all of Plymouth; 17 grandchildren; and one brother, Louis Fisher, Winterhaven, Florida.

The deceased was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran church, and was a charter member of the Plymouth Kiwanis club.

Pallbearers were City Manager Albert Glassford, Commissioner Ernest Henry, Michael J. Hueber, Leo Schultz, Rayner Tisch and Donald McCloud.

Talks about Expansion

City Manager Albert Glassford went to Detroit Wednesday where he met with civil leaders from other Wayne county communities for a discussion on expanding populations in the county.

Sponsored by the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit, the meeting brought together representatives from municipal, state, and national government as well as leaders of commerce, industry, and labor.

Social Security Will Be Subject Of Address Here

An address on "The Kind of Social Security that Every American Citizen Wants," will be delivered next Thursday night, November 4, by a staff member of the Washington - Townsend Legislative bureau.

The speaker will be Dr. H. Truman Gordon, an advocate of the proposal offered by Dr. Francis E. Townsend, still well remembered for his "Townsend Plan." Dr. Gordon will speak to the public at the Veterans Memorial Center at 8 p.m. Sponsoring the talk is a group of former Townsend Club officers headed by Clarence Pankow, 299 Irvin.

Dr. Gordon was a minister in Minneapolis and Chicago where he took active part in social and welfare organizations.

Hurricane Hazel Strands Plymouth Pair in Toronto

A Plymouth couple, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Elliott, 876 Church street, returned home last week-end after being stranded in Toronto during its disastrous flood.

We've had lots of bad weather and some terrible things in Michigan but that was the worst I have ever witnessed, Mr. Elliott said this week. The couple left Plymouth yesterday after 21 years here, not because of the weather, but because Mr. Elliott has been assigned to a new job at the Cherry Rivet division of the Townsend Manufacturing company. He was a foreman with Dunn Steel Products here, also a Townsend division.

The Elliotts left here Friday, October 15 to visit relatives in Toronto. Hurricane Hazel had moved into Canada and the couple got their first taste of it as they traveled eastward. The closer to Toronto they went, the worse the rains became. Cars were stalled by the hundreds as rising water washed over roadways.

The traffic tie-up re-routed the Elliotts from route 5 to route 27. Moving down the highway through the suburbs, water came up to their car's hubcaps. They crossed the rampaging Humber river and finally arrived at the home of their relatives, learning there that the bridge they had just crossed had been washed out.

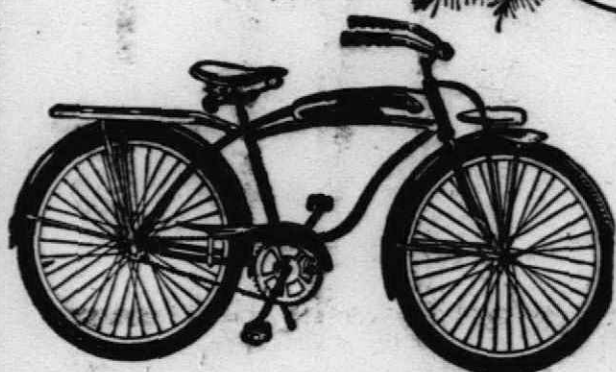

They sat up most of the night listening to radio reports of the storm. Everyone was advised not to try to get into or out of Toronto.

Not until Monday morning, after considerable inquiries from highway authorities, did the Elliotts attempt to leave Toronto. Ambulances and medical units were converging upon Toronto from all parts of the province as the couple drove from the city toward home.

Mr. and Mrs. Elliott left Plymouth yesterday for Santa Ana, where Mr. Elliott will work "indefinitely." Although his assignment as consultant will last a minimum of eight months, he stated that he may stay permanently. They are selling their home.

How Hollywood manages to put over the dialogue in current movies is one of the modern miracles, and a reflection on the intelligence of the movie goer.

Intolerance is one subject many people write about and then fail to practice.

MICHIGAN NEEDS A GOOD ATTORNEY GENERAL!

In Frank G. Millard you have had a good attorney general. During the past 3 1/2 years he has proved this to the people of our great state.

He is the kind of public official that the people want to retain in office because he is qualified and experienced and has performed his duties in a manner that all citizens can be proud of.

He saw service in World War I and II. He is a graduate of the University of Michigan and is a member of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. He received more votes than any other candidate on the state ballot in 1952.

School to Set Goal of $500 For Local Drive

Heading the campaign set for November 2 to reach Plymouth high's goal of $500 for the local Red Feather Drive is Roberta Lidgard.

Plans to use the Red Feather posters, announcements and a large thermometer have been developed by her committee composed of Carl Glassford, ninth grade representative; Beverly Tacia and Judy Van Wagoner, tenth grade; Jerry Steele, eleventh grade; and advisor, Gustave Gorguze. The twelfth grade representative has not been announced as yet.

Last year the goal was not reached but this year an attempt will be made to go over the top, with contributions being taken in the first hour and perhaps four-hour classes.

The money collected goes to relief agencies and organizations both locally and nationally. This year 50% of the contributions will go to the Plymouth Community Fund serving such organizations as Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Visiting Nurses and others. Equal shares of 10% each of the remaining 50% is given to the Red Cross, Crippled Children, Tuberculosis society, March of Dimes, and an emergency reserve.

Adds Sport Studies Class

Something new has been added to the Plymouth high school boys' sports activities in the form of a sport studies class which is conducted by the school's head football coach, Charles Ketterer.

This is the first time a class of this kind has been held in Plymouth high and is strictly experimental this year. The boys that have swimming during a semester will alternately have sport studies every other day.

Movies are shown, sport histories and rules are studied, and notebooks are kept by the students in order to learn more about sports and above all good sportsmanlike conduct.

"Pilgrim Prints" Receives Award

For excellency in news writing, "Pilgrim Prints" was picked as the class A school in Michigan to receive the news writing award at the eighth annual High School Journalism Day, held at Michigan State college on Wednesday, October 20.

Representing the Pilgrim Prints at the event were Tom Sawyer, editor; Ella Plant, feature editor; John Small, make-up editor; Virginia Larkin, business manager; Ruth Ann Perry, distribution manager; and their adviser, Miss Elizabeth McDonald.

The annual staff was represented by Janet Denhoff and Sandra Newingham co-editors; Dale Houghton, business manager; and their advisor, Joan Petro.

Some of the speakers of the day were Fred Noer of Indianapolis Engraving company, who discussed the production of a yearbook in a school with a medium or small budget, and John Cumming of Detroit Eastern high school, Cumming is the advisor of the newspaper awarded the John S. Knight trophy of 1953 for all-around excellence.

Transportation was furnished by Miss McDonald for the Pilgrim Prints, and Mrs. Clarence Denhoff for the Annual staff.

School Doors to Close; Leaders Attend Meeting

School doors will be closed for students today and Friday, when teachers will attend the Michigan Education association convention in Detroit.

The first general session Thursday morning will host Bennett Cerf talking on "Modern Trends in Literature and Humor." Cerf appears weekly on the television show "What's My Line?" and is well known as a humorist, writer and publisher.

Friday the guest speaker will be Earl Brink, traveler and photographer, who will present "Kooloon Ferry," a pageant of the Orient and intimate peeks at the outposts of the Pacific.

Thursday afternoon and Friday morning a series of tours, section meetings and social gatherings is planned.

Who's New In Plymouth

HAVING LIVED in apartments all their lives, the Edwin W. Zipses are really enjoying their new home on 1345 Park place. Here they relax in the living room and follow up their gardening hobby in one of the current magazines. The Zipses moved into their new home, which Zipse designed, on April 1. Formerly they resided in Evanston, Illinois. He is an executive vice president and general manager of Whitman and Barnes, and both attend the Presbyterian church in Plymouth.

MARKING FIFTY years of married life are Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy of 38620 Plymouth road, Livonia. The Joys were married October 26, 1904 by the Reverend W. G. Nixon at Nardin Park Methodist church, Detroit, and celebrated the event last Saturday evening.

Livonia Couple Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy of 38620 Plymouth road, Livonia celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary on Saturday evening, October 23, 1954. The Joys were married October 26, 1904 in Detroit.

Due to the illness of both Mr. and Mrs. Joy the number of guests were limited. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Geng and daughter, Joy, of Plymouth; and Mrs. James Joy of Livonia. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Joy of Farmington, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Brewer and son, David, of Dearborn; Mr. and Mrs. Leo Douglas of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Liscomb of Detroit, Mrs. Marie Joy, Detroit, Mrs. Carrie Campbell, Detroit; Mr. James McNabb of Livonia, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ostrander of Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Culver of Plymouth and Mrs. Margaret Dickerson, Plymouth.

The color scheme of gold was carried out. Six large baskets of flowers adorned the living room, white flowers and a wedding cake decorated with gold roses was placed on the dining-room table. Mr. and Mrs. Joy received many cards from friends and gifts for the occasion.

Sodality Committees Plan Activities

The Sodality committees at Madonna college are planning new activities for this school year.

Newly elected officers of the Apostolic committee are: Mary Ann Barczak, chairman, and Amelia Poleski, secretary.

Engaged in the temporal work of mercy, the committee has again this year taken up the "Operation: Korea" project of sending hosts to Sister Philomena in Inchon, Korea. Members will also continue to visit patients each month at Maybury Sanatorium, Northville. To make some needy family's Thanksgiving Day happy, a Thanksgiving food drive will be held from November 1-19.

To learn more about Mary's life in order to imitate her and her virtues is the purpose of the Our Lady's committee, headed by the new chairman, Patricia Okray. Martha Benito is the new secretary.

Members of the Our Lady's committee will study the most important apparitions of Our Lady made in recent times. More cord rosaries will soon be on their way to the missions, as the students knit the Franciscan beads in their spare time.

As in previous years, the Fatima Club again began functioning for the promotion of the daily rosary on campus.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pint of Schoolcraft road attended a dinner party at the Meadowbrook Country Club Friday evening given by a Detroit party of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tritten and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Spicer are in Adrian this week attending the State Grange meetings.

Mrs. Paul Bengtson, the former Lucille Dalton, of Middletown, Connecticut, is visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson, and family and Plymouth friends this week.

Airman First Class Ronald Glass arrived in the United States on Friday of last week after being stationed in Korea for the past year. He left immediately by plane for Phoenix, Arizona, where he joined Mrs. Glass and two children, one of whom he had never seen. The family will arrive in Plymouth on November 7 to visit with Ronald's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Glass and family of Holbrook avenue.

Arthur Kreger of Traverse City spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Kreger of Gray avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Bowring of Bradner road attended the wedding of Frances Sheffer and Francis Moore at the Methodist church in Milford last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Baker and daughter, Sherri Lynn, of Rock Hill, South Carolina, formerly of Northville, who are visiting their families here for two weeks, were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stephens of Ann Arbor road.

Mrs. Mark Joy of Plymouth road entered New Grace hospital, Detroit, on Sunday, where on Monday she underwent major eye surgery.

Miss Catherine Phillips of Lansing spent a few days this week as the houseguest of Mrs. Louella Cutler and daughter, Suzanne, of Palmer avenue.

Mrs. Otto Beyer entertained 16 guests at a family dinner Sunday in her home on Liberty street honoring her grandson, Jack Burgett, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Beyer, on their birthdays.

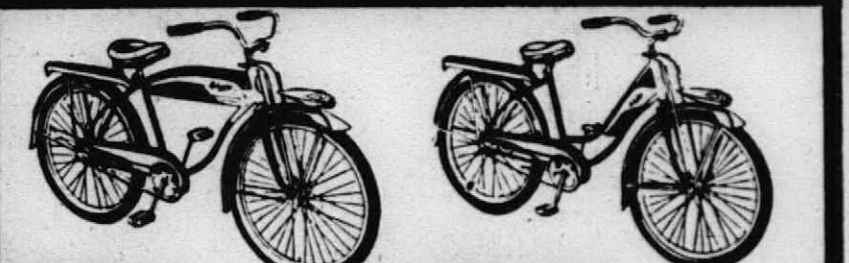

Miss Marion Donahue, a freshman at Goshen college, Goshen, Indiana, spent the weekend with her mother, Mrs. Mable Donahue on Kellogg street.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Burden of Union street were entertained Monday evening when members of their family gathered at their home to help them celebrate their twenty-ninth wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Emil Nikolics of Horton street, Livonia, was honored at a pink and blue shower on Saturday evening, October 23, by Mrs. Elon Hunt in her home on Newburg road. Twenty five guests were present.

New Residents Mark Golden Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Fay Shirey of 575 Jener, who moved to Plymouth two weeks ago, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary and welcomed friends to their new home at an open house held Sunday.

Some 120 guests were on hand to join in the celebration of the two events, including one couple from Clearfield, Pennsylvania who had attended the Shirey's wedding on September 14, 1904 in Clearfield. Others came from Chicago, Detroit, Highland Park, Dearborn and Plymouth.

Prior to moving to Plymouth, the Shireys had lived in Highland Park for 30 years.

Seven Youth Volunteer

Seven volunteers will leave from the Plymouth area in answer to November 1 induction call, according to a recent announcement from local selective service board no. 102. Among the 36 men in the group are: Howard A. Pernie, James A. Rorabacher, Albert F. Williams Jr., Joseph C. Mitchell, Harold E. Sadler, all of Plymouth; John E. Campbell and James T. Lester of Livonia.

Well Baby Clinic Starts Next Week

The Wayne County Health department with the help of the Livonia Health Guild, will hold a "Well Baby Clinic" the first Wednesday of each month, starting November 3. The clinic will be held in the community room of the First Federal Savings and Loan association of Detroit at Sheldon Center.

The clinic is for "Well Children" from three months to five years of age, whose families cannot financially provide for their routine medical supervision.

Children will receive physical examinations at regular intervals and protection against smallpox, diphtheria, tetanus, and whooping cough.

Appointments are necessary and may be made by calling Livonia 8609.

Livonia women serving on the committee are: Mrs. Warren Simpson, chairman, and Mrs. Lee Haase, Mrs. Phyllis Lingemann, Mrs. Oetie Gregory, Mrs. Mae Hermann, Mrs. Julia Kenny, Mrs. Carolyn Sursaw, Mrs. Jennie Reed, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, and Mrs. Georgette Haigh.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

10:30 Sunday morning service.
10:30 Sunday school.
Classes for pupils up to 20 years of age.

How God's infinite love for man redeems man from sin by destroying sin and revealing man's divine, sinless nature, will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday. The Lesson-Sermon is entitled "Everlasting Punishment."

Among the passages from the Bible will be read the story of the Prodigal Son, including his forgiveness and his welcome back to his father's house, as told in Chapter 15 of Luke's gospel.

The following selection on the overcoming of sin will be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (327:9-13):

"Evil is sometimes a man's highest conception of right, until his grasp on good grows stronger. Then he loses pleasure in wickedness, and it becomes his torment. The way to escape the misery of sin is to cease sinning. There is no other way."
The Golden Text is from Psalms (130:7): "Let Israel hope in the Lord: for with the Lord there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption."

Baptist Church Missionary Speaks at Dinner

The Reverend Fred G. Christenson, missionary to South India under appointment of the American Baptist Foreign Mission Society, will speak at the 6:30 missionary dinner at the First Baptist church of Plymouth on Wednesday, November 3.

Christenson has served the society since June 1920, supervising training schools and high schools, teaching agriculture and directing educational and evangelistic work in rural areas. He is presently in charge of the Coles Memorial high school in Kurnool, South India.

Born in Chicago, Illinois, Christenson is a graduate of the University of California and the Bible Teachers Training school. His church membership is with the First Baptist church of Berkeley, California.

Newburg Church Plans Festival

Members of the Newburg Methodist church are making plans for a bazaar and Fall Festival to be held next month, proceeds of which will go into a fund for the building of a new church.

The church, located at Ann Arbor trail and Newburg road, was originally constructed in 1848 and once stood opposite the Newburg cemetery on Ann Arbor trail. It was moved to its present location in 1915.

Because of the population expansion along with the building expansion in Livonia, the membership of the church has now deemed it necessary to enlarge the church because of increased membership.

The festival will take place at the church hall adjacent to the church on Saturday, November 13. There will be booths of all kinds and with the Christmas season drawing near, patrons will find they can mix business with pleasure by finding some gifts at the bazaar.

A roast beef dinner will be served between 4 and 8 p.m.

Optimist Club to Hear Speaker from Detroit

Dale J. Madden, vice president of Leadership Training, Inc., Detroit firm sponsoring the Dale Carnegie courses, will give a talk at the Optimist club's dinner meeting on Monday, November 1, at 6:30 p.m. in the Arbor-Lill restaurant.

Madden will point out the various factors entering into the quality of leadership. A similar talk was given recently by Madden to the local Rotary club.

V. F. W. NEWS

We are very happy to welcome into our Auxiliary three new members, Betty Wood, Margaret Morris and Betty Miller! Hope you enjoy your association with our veterans organization and hope to see you at our next regular meeting on November 2!

At our regular business meeting on October 18, department secretary and treasurer Augusta White and department Americanism chairman Betty Golden visited our auxiliary. Sister Betty Golden stressed the fact that instead of calling ourselves just "Americans" we are privileged to call ourselves "Americans of the United States of America", and that we should instill this fact in our lives and the lives of our children who are the future rulers of our nation. Both of our department visitors commented on the attendance at our meetings and our varied activities and also on our new Post hall.

Publicity Chairman Marion Luttermoser would like to express her sincere thanks to every girl who helped in the sale of Betty Crocker cake mixes, October 22 and 23. The Meet Your Neighbor benefit sale turned out to be a profitable one with the Auxiliary girls making many new friends. Also thanks to all the neighbors who purchased from us and to all the grocery stores who participated in the sale: Stop and Shop, Kroger's, A. & P. Market, Penniman Market and Dickerson Market. Without their cooperation, the sale would have been impossible!

Our Inspection night will be at one of our meetings held in November, so chairman, please have your notebooks up-to-date, and all officers be on hand for these meetings.

We are participating in the Baby-Sitting project for all the voters on November 2. We still need more girls to volunteer to work for a couple of hours on that important day. Call 6W if you are free to participate, in this project! LET'S NOT FORGET TO VOTE!

A Layman Says...

"WHEN A MAN'S WAYS PLEASE THE LORD, HE MAKETH EVEN HIS ENEMIES TO BE AT PEACE WITH HIM." Proverbs 16:7.

"LET US THEREFORE FOLLOW AFTER THE THINGS WHICH MAKE FOR PEACE." Roman 14:19.

A man who bought a farm soon afterwards came across his nearest neighbor. "Have you bought this place?" asked the neighbor. "Yes." Well, you have bought a lawsuit. "How is that?" "Well, sir, I claim your fence is ten feet on my side, and I am going to take the matter to court to prove it." The newcomer said, "Oh, don't do that. If the fence is on your side of the line, we will just take it up and move it back." "Do you mean it?" "Of course I do," was the reply. "Well, that fence stays where it is."

O MAKE US EACH MORE HOLY IN SPIRIT, PURE AND MEEK; MORE LIKE TO HEAVENLY CITIZENS, AS MORE OF HEAVEN WE SPEAK.

any project so they can in turn earn their merit points. Contact Sister Young, if you need their assistance.

Our Smorgasbord plans are all completed and we are ready for the dinner on November 7. Girls, sell your tickets and turn the money in to Linda Lee or Ticket

Chairman Delores Olsaver, as soon as possible. Also, keep track of the hour for which you sell the children's tickets so the kitchen committee may know how many to plan for. We cordially invite the public to attend this annual Smorgasbord dinner and promise you a delicious meal.

MICHIGAN MILK PRODUCERS ASSOCIATION

"SELF-HELP"

Increasing sales and expanding its market have been foremost objectives of this cooperative during the past three years.

Through the mediums of advertising and publicity "Milk as a Beverage" has been promoted as never before in the greater Detroit market with gratifying results.

Creating new markets and strengthening old ones is a "self-help" project instituted by the members of this organization as a cooperative means of protecting farm income by the same methods as are used in successful private industry. It is a demonstration of forward thinking on the part of farm cooperative membership.

Dairy farmers are able to carry out such a project by means of a strong cooperative

It's simple, it's fun! Just check the teams you think will win this weekend. Games are listed in each of the sponsors ads below.

In the case of the professional game listed, you must write in the score. In case of ties the one with the closest score choice will win.

ANYONE CAN ENTER! ANYONE CAN WIN!

RULES OF CONTEST . . .

- Anyone can enter except employees of The Plymouth Mail, sponsoring firms and their families.
- Judges of the contest are sports editors and writer of The Plymouth Mail.
- It is not necessary to purchase a copy of The Plymouth Mail to be eligible to enter this contest. Entries may be obtained at our office.
- All decisions are final. Three weekly prizes for those naming most winners.
- Write your name and address in the space provided at the bottom of the ad.
- Bring your team selections to the offices of The Plymouth Mail no later than 5 P.M. Friday — or mail to The Plymouth Mail, Plymouth, Mich., c/o Sports Editor. All mail entries must be postmarked no later than 5 P.M. Friday each week.
- Each week's winners will be announced the following week.

Girl, 10, Wins Weekly Football Contest

Frosh Win First Football Game

The Plymouth Frosh won the first contest of the year a week ago when they conquered Redford Union by a 31 to 6 score. Frosh backs romped to five touchdowns, having a field day at the expense of the Panthers.

Bob Truesdell counted three times on runs of 45, 35 and five yards, and plunged once for the extra point. David Walaskay ran 50 yards for another marker, and Don Alsbro scored as he snared a long pass for his six-points.

Redford Union scored on a short pass over center.

Plymouth's football experts just aren't up to par these days.

Last week an eight-year-old boy was one of the three-way winners in The Plymouth Mail's weekly football poll. This week the winner is a 10-year-old girl, Mary Lou Argo, 285 East Ann Arbor trail.

This was the first time that Mary Lou ever entered the contest. Her brother, Don, 12, also has an entry blank and the two of them sat down and filled them out. Mary Lou disagreed with some of her brother's choices. She missed but three—enough to win the $10 first prize.

Mary Lou has attended one game in Ann Arbor this season with her father, Thomas Argo, and often watches football on television. Excitedly displaying her $10 check, Mary Lou plans "to save it." She is a fifth grade student at Allen school.

Everyone failed to select the Yale-Colgate tie game and nearly everyone missed on San Francisco's upset of the Detroit Lions. The Michigan State and University of Michigan games also threw off many contestants. Mary Lou missed the U. of M.-Minnesota, Mississippi State-Alabama and Kentucky-Georgia Tech contests.

Second place money went to Harold W. Schultz, 1360 Ross street, and third place to Mildred McLennan, 47703 Cherry Hill road.

The standard weight of gold bars in the Federal Bullion Depository at Fort Knox, Kentucky, is 2 1/2 pounds. Each one is worth $14,000.

Jr. High Games Featured by 102 Yard Touchdown

Coach Frank Sullivan's Junior High warriors played two close contests in the last couple of outings—dropping one to Allen Park by a 13 to 6 score and playing Redford Union to a scoreless tie.

In the latter game there were no serious scoring threats with each team battling between the 30-yard lines for most of the game.

In the Allen Park loss, Myron Hopper featured the play with a pass interception and runback of 102 yards. Myron snared the ball out of the air in his own end zone and took off for the opposing end of the field; some excellent block-by his teammates allowed him to go all the way to score the Rocks six points in the third quarter.

Allen Park had scored in the first quarter on a pass completion and a reverse, and counted again in the second stanza on pass plays.

Yesterday the Junior High played the last game of the year with Belleville as the opposition.

Danol Sets Mark As Rock Harriers Finish Fourth

Fourth place was the best the Plymouth High cross-country team could do at the 6-B League meet last Friday at the Allen Park course, but the Rocks provided the first place winner when Bob Danol came in ahead of the field.

Bentley High presented an evenly-balanced squad to take the league crown with a total of 49 points. Trenton ran second with 57 1/2 points; Belleville was third with 77 points followed by Plymouth with 93 points, and Allen Park with 104 points with Redford Union bringing up the rear with 118 points.

Young Danol's run took individual honors and set a new course record at 10 minutes and 13 seconds for the two-mile jaunt. Pieter Schipper came in 17th, Tom Ferguson 18th, John Williams 26th and Russell Mecklenberg 31st. Young Williams, a sophomore, became eligible last.

The state Class A Regional meet will be held at Trenton Saturday with the four highest teams going to the state meet the following Saturday. Also the individual runners finishing in the first 15 places will automatically enter the state meet. The meet will be held immediately after the Class B meet scheduled to start at 11 a.m.

Rocks Win 6-B League Crown

The Plymouth High school football eleven wrapped up its third straight 6-B League title last Friday night when the team romped over Belleville 27 to 2. With this win the Rocks edged out Bentley for the title as the Bulldogs finished second losing only one game; that a one-point 13 to 12 loss to Plymouth.

During the season Plymouth was tied once by a strong Allen Park outfit, and the Rocks are unbeaten this year with non-league games with Garden City and Walled Lake coming up.

All the Plymouth scores came on short plunges with the exception of a 50 yard pass play from Dick Davidson to Dale Wilkin. Captain Lee Juve counted two touchdowns on rushes of 3 and 5 yards, and Quarterback Chuck McKenna sneaked through the line for one yard and another score.

The Rock gridgers dominated the play throughout the game with the blocking and tackling showing improvement over that in the Allen Park game. Belleville counted a safety for two points. This is the first title won outright by the local eleven since 1952. Last year the Rocks shared the crown with Trenton.

Other league and area scores last week found Bentley dropping Allen Park 27 to 14 and Trenton

Auto Club Ends Season With Win

The Inter-county league playoffs finally came to a conclusion last Sunday with the Auto Club team successfully defending the title it won last year. The AAA outfit turned the trick Sunday with successive wins over River Rouge and Northville.

Auto Club began rather slowly this year, and for a time it looked as if the defending champs would have a time making the playoffs. but the team began clicking in mid-season, and ended up in a tie for third place in the regular season.

Sunday, Auto Club had to have the help of an error in the last inning to cap the win over River Rouge. The winners went ahead 7 to 2 in the early stages, but River Rouge kept pecking away until the down-river lads had tied it up in the top of the ninth inning. Auto Club had two on and two out in the bottom of the ninth when a ball that should have been caught by the Rouge center-fielder was dropped for an error allowing the winning run to cross the plate.

Northville won over Wyandotte in the first game 4 to 3 to eliminate the latter team, and allow the Northville team to enter the finals against Auto Club. Auto Club won 5 to 0 as twirler Chappie shut out the opposing team.

This officially ended the season for the Inter-county league. Joe Schmidt, of the Detroit Lions, followed his brother into pro football. John played with Pittsburgh in 1940.

ekeing out an 18 to 13 win over winless Redford Union. Ypsilanti defeated Wayne 20 to 7; Southfield won over Walled Lake 25 to 7; Clarenceville 25 Holly 0; Clarkston 20 Northville 13 and Ann Arbor walloped Lansing Eastern 44 to 6.

The final standings also found Plymouth leading the league with the best defensive and offensive record. The Rocks allowed opponents an average of 4 points a game, while scoring an average of 19 points per contest.

Final Standings in the 6-B League were as follows:

	W	L	T	P	F	P	A
Plymouth	4	0	1	96	20
Bentley	4	1	0	78	39
Allen Park	2	1	2	66	54
Trenton	2	2	1	43	53
Belleville	1	4	0	39	65
Redford U.	0	5	0	20	112

Tomorrow night Garden City comes to Plymouth for a game under the lights on the athletic field. Garden City hasn't had too much success this year, but will field a scrappy team.

Madonna Instructors
Go to College Meeting

Sister Mary Raynelda, English instructor at Madonna college, attended the fall meeting of the Michigan College English Association at Central Michigan college, Mt. Pleasant on Saturday, October 23. She was accompanied by Sister Mary Virgilia, Dean of Students.

Representatives from 12 Michigan colleges held a panel discussion during which they explained their respective college's present set up in the teaching of Freshmen Composition course. Sister Mary Raynelda outlined the English composition program at Madonna college.

At the afternoon session, a paper entitled, "The Quackery Loudens as the Stranglehold Tightens," was read by Vern Wagner, Wayne. The paper explained how the machinery of teacher certification is being used to undermine sound education.

Mrs. J. Kenneth Rich of Salem road, Mrs. Fred Rich of South Lyon and Mrs. Burton Rich visited the Reverend and Mrs. Frederick Burnett at Holly last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Morten Glance of Dearborn were Sunday visitors at the Al Glance home at 8849 Brookville road.

The Salem Township 4-H clubs will have their annual award meeting at the Salem Township Hall Saturday evening, November 6. The special award money furnished by the Salem Township board will be given out at this time. Refreshments and entertainment under the direction of Mrs. William Compton, Salem Township 4-H chairman, will complete the program for the evening.

The Mothers club of the South Salem Stone school are sponsoring a Harvest dance at Angelo De Poni's new barn on Curtis road Saturday evening, October 30. Music will be furnished by Cliff Bush's orchestra with Cliff calling for the square dances. Mrs. James Johnson, president of the Mothers club, has arranged for refreshments of hot dogs, pumpkin pie and coffee.

Mrs. Gus Lidke, Mrs. Vernie Thomson, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Degan and Mrs. Henry Prough attended a Stanley party at the home of Mrs. Ray Herman in Dearborn last Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Prough and daughter, Sharon, were Monday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray McKenzie in Hazel Park.

The "Sew and Sew" club will meet at the home of Mrs. Arthur Clinansmith on Five Mile road Wednesday evening, November 3.

A family dinner and reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Griswold on Salem road Saturday evening, October 23, following their re-marriage at six o'clock by the Reverend Cora Pennell of South Lyon. Their attendants were Mrs. Griswold's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halling of Rochester, New York. Members of the family present at the ceremony included: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schewinn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Griswold Jr. and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Richman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Doolin, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bennett and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glass and son, Mr. and Mrs. William Corwin, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Houk, and Melvin Griswold.

Other guests present were Mr. Ray Pennell of South Lyon, Mr. and Mrs. William Glass, Mr. and Mrs. William Squires of Plymouth, Miss Hanlon and Miss Doty of Ypsilanti, Charles Raymor of Salem, Mrs. Rose Doolin, Mr. and Mrs. John Thomason of Northville, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Phillips of Detroit.

A fool may be known by six things: Anger, without cause; speech, without profit; change, without progress; putting trust in a stranger, and mistaking foes for friends.—Arabian Proverb.

Mr. and Mrs. James Greenwood and daughters, Denyce and Debbie, of Ann Arbor trail, visited the weekend of October 16 with Mrs. Greenwood's brother, Mr. Arthur Kreger in Traverse City, Michigan. From there they went to Boyne City where they visited with Mr. Greenwood's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Vernel Clayton and family. While there Greenwood and Clayton did some small game hunting.

Mrs. Faye Wilcox and Mrs. A. J. Kreger both of Gray avenue, Livonia visited in Port Huron on the 16 and 17 of October. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Litz of that city. Mrs. Litz is the former Mrs. Keil who was once a neighbor of Mrs. Kreger and Mrs. Wilcox.

The Patchen school Community club met last Thursday, October 21, at the school with 32 members present. Plans were made for an auction sale to be held on November 18. In keeping with the Halloween theme an entertainment followed the business meeting. All members participated with each designing a hat. Prizes were awarded to Bernadette Carrio for the funniest, Irene Green for the most original, and Frances Zukowski for the prettiest. The remainder of the evening was spent playing Bunco and prizes were given for this also. First prize for Eleanor DeCoster, 2nd prize for Edith Gennis and for low score, Barbara Brown. Virginia Harris was the recipient of the mystery prize. Refreshments were served.

A family gathering honoring Mr. and Mrs. Peter Meisinger, formerly of Grand Island, Nebraska now living in Roseville, Michigan, was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Wood of Ravine drive. All the children and grandchildren of the couple were present for the festivities. Mr. and Mrs. A. K. LeJere, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne LeJere and family, Mr. and Mrs. Howard LeJere and family, all of Detroit, were the guests.

Miss Dorothy Blanton of Warren avenue returned from a week's vacation visiting with her sister in Trenton, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown of Newburg road just returned from their vacation in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. On their return trip they stopped in Chicago, Illinois to see Don McNeill's Breakfast club and in Battle Creek, Michigan and Hillsdale, Michigan to visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mende and children, Beverly and Henry, Jr., of Newburg road, took Mrs. Mende's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Gallinat of Farmington, Michigan, to supper. The occasion was the celebration of the two couple's anniversaries which occur on the 17th of October and 1st of November respectively.

On Sunday evening, October 31, there will be a share-a-dish meal at the Newburg Methodist church hall on Ann Arbor trail and Newburg roads. Dr. Cole S. Brembeck, superintendent of the Livonia Public schools, will be there to speak on the topic, "A Layman Looks at the Church." Coffee and tea will be furnished so come and enjoy an evening of splendid fellowship.

A bridal shower to honor bride-elect Edna Gisser was held at the home of Mrs. Verner Nyman of Laurel avenue on Friday evening, October 22. Guests present were Mrs. Marie Gisser, Edna's mother, Mrs. Agnes MacIntyre, Mrs. Dorothy Schroeder, Mrs. Lillian Thompson, Mrs. Laura Wilson, Mrs. Mildred and Miss Dily Richards, Mrs. Hanna Schmidt, Mrs. Pearl Barringer, Mrs. Mildred Case, and Mrs. Jean Bennett. Pencil and paper games suitable for the occasion were played and delightful refreshments were served after the opening of the shower gifts.

The Womens Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church will hold their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday, November 2. The meeting will begin at 12:30 with pot-luck. At 1:30 the business meeting will be held with spiritual life chairman Mrs. Charles Bowen speaking on the theme of prayer. Mrs. Alfred Higgins will be soloist, and a guest preacher is scheduled for a talk on mission life. All women of the church and friends are cordially invited to attend.

The regular monthly meeting of Cub Pack 270 was held on Friday evening, October 22, at the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church at 7 p.m. The evening festivities began with the awarding of badges and arrow points to the individual cubs. The highlight of the awards was the induction of some 18 cubs receiving their Bobcat award. These boys were Ronnie Masterson, Gary Schoeneman, Bill Yadosky, Steve Standish, Ken and Jack Hall, Doran and Ervin Woodard, Gary Schaefer, Irvin Petzold, Charles Lewand, Charles Pollack, Russell Wilhelmson, Allan Robinson, Dennis Sawicki, Glen Commins, Stephen McIlvain, Terry Salomonson, Bob Miller, Michael Heath and Ted Peterson all received gold and silver arrow points. James Scofield received his wolf badge and a gold arrow under it and Bill Black received a silver arrow. After musical skits performed by Dens 3 and 2, a Halloween party was enjoyed by the cubs and their parents. Prizes were given to Dennis Schultz for the most original costume, to Lee Quinn for the meanest looking, and to Doran Woodard for the prettiest. The boys all played a game of eating an apple on a string and then doughnuts and cider were served. Bill Black, chairman of the Pack, advised the group assembled of the forthcoming bake sale to be held on Saturday, November 20, at the S. S. Kresge store at the Sheldon center and also of the tour for the boys in November which would be to Cranbrook on Saturday, November 13, at 1 p.m.

Miss Helen Gilbert and James Tomlinson have arrived home from service in Europe and Korea respectively.

The kindergarten class of Patchen school enjoyed a trip to the Ypsilanti fire hall on Friday, October 22. They were accompanied by their teacher and five mothers.

Don't forget the Fall fair and dinner at the Newburg Methodist church hall on Saturday, November 13. Dinner will be served from 4 to 8 and you will have an opportunity to do your Christmas shopping early in the various booths that will be filled with many attractive items. Come and bring your friends.

Jean and Jim Valrance of 11034 Berwick announce the birth of a daughter on October 1, 1954 at Womens hospital in Detroit. The baby weighed 9 lbs. 4 oz. and will be called Jean Ellen.

Mrs. Julie LaFountain who is chairman of the Red Cross home nursing course being given on Wednesday nights in St. Michael school, tells us that the classes are very well attended. She says that there are enough people on the waiting list to begin one or two more classes if space is available.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jackman of 9905 Berwick entertained Chuck Feigel from Orleans, New York and Miss Sally Clothier from Cleveland, Ohio, this past weekend. The Jackmans and their guests drove to Ann Arbor to attend the Michigan-Minnesota football game and then went over to the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association clubhouse for the Masquerade Dance.

The Charity Fashion Show given by the Rosedale Gardens Womens club was a terrific success. Mrs. Barbara Core, the chairman, looked like a model herself in a dress and hat to match in a beautiful shade of blue. All the models were members of the Womens club with the exception of the junior models, Patty Allworth and Susan Brown. From the applause the following outfits seemed to be the most popular with the audience. Patty Allworth in a red tulle short formal with matching stole, Susan Brown in a beige cashmere sweater and skirt, Ginny Gamber in a grey box suit with charcoal grey sweater. The sweater matched the trim on the jacket of the suit; Jeanne Baumgartner in an "after five" black taffeta dress with the new low waist; Joanna Rohel in a grey pinstripe with white collar and white cuffs on a ¾ length sleeve; Vera Lorin in a brown dress with the new empire waist emphasized with buttons that continued in a double row down the front on the skirt; Helen Sullivan in a beautiful pink knit dress with matching jacket trimmed in pearls, with hat of pink trimmed in pearls; Bobby Mullen in a hunters green 2-piece knit dress, with hat in various shades of green; Genieve Valrance was in a full length box coat with a large fox fur collar; Catherine Castle in a fitted black coat with large shawl collar. The coat had a bright red lining which showed to advantage when she walked.

Mr. and Mrs. John Maloney and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hoffman had a going away party to honor Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Leitig at the Maloney's home at 9840 Ingram on Saturday, October 23. Mr. and Mrs. Leitig are moving to Denver and the following friends and neighbors attended the party and presented them with a lovely gift. Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Shanks, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Glynn, Mr. and Mrs. William Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Del Kernohan, Mrs. Laura Barter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stutch, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Boorman, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pickles. All their friends wish them luck in their new home.

Boy Scout Cub Pack RG No. 1 had a Pack meeting Friday night, October 23, and a Halloween party. One of the newest assistant cubmasters, Les Core, was proud to present the Webelos badge, the highest award in cub scouting, to Teddy Lutz and Douglas Forward. Plans were made for a mystery trip scheduled for Saturday, November 6, to Willow Run. R. G. No. 1 has been authorized by the Boy Scouts of America to help parents and boys in the new area, bounded by Merriman road, Plymouth road, Middlebelt and Joy roads, to form dens. These boys will be welcome in R. G. No. 1 until such time as they are able to form their own pack and obtain a meeting place. If anyone is interested in forming a den or getting their boy in a den you may call either Richard Hansz at Livonia 4744 or Stan Stevenson at Livonia 2856 and they will be more than happy to help.

St. Michael's Altar society held a top demonstration in the school after all the Masses last Sunday. From the number of people who came to look over the toys, it seems everyone realizes Christmas is not too far away.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kral of 32006 West Chicago are moving to Dearborn. Both Mr. and Mrs. Kral have been very active in civic and church affairs and will be missed by their friends and neighbors. We all wish them luck in their new home.

The book club of the Rosedale Womens club will meet at the home of Ruth Taylor, 9833 Auburndale, at 1 p.m. on Tuesday, October 26. "My Brother's Keeper" by Marion Davenport will be the novel under discussion.

EVERY SPARTON SET IS

"Custom-Built"

Because Sparton Builds For Quality—Not Quantity—No Mass Produced Set Can Match These Custom-Built Sparton Features:

1. Unlike most TV manufacturers, Sparton makes 70% of its own parts instead of buying them.
2. Sparton owns its own furniture factory—custom-builds its cabinets like your own fine furniture is built.
3. Every Sparton connection is hand-soldered—obviously impossible in mass produced sets.
4. All Sparton TV sets are completely assembled in Sparton plants.
5. Every Sparton set is individually inspected as it comes off the line. There is no spot checking as in mass production factories.

Sparton sells direct to the dealer. This eliminates the middleman markup and gives you a finer set at no extra cost.

A local housewife provided the perfect squelch for her husband one day this week. Because of the fact all three are well known Plymouthites the names can't be used but it is well worth repeating. It seems the husband had encountered the wife's former high school boy friend during the day and at dinner was mentioning the fact to his wife pointing out how old and run down the chap had looked in comparison to himself and also mentioned the difference in the fortunes of the boy friend and himself. The quick thinking frau retorted . . . oh well, I could have done the same for him.

By providing the sixth graders at Starkweather school a truck load of pumpkins, which they sold around the neighborhood, farmer Walter Houtman enabled the class to enrich their treasury by some $45.00 which they will use for a trip next spring. Teacher Bill Foster engineered the project for his class.

David Galin ran into Olie Martin, now an Ohio farmer, on the Main street of Plymouth one day last week. Martin formerly operated a department store next to the former Calvin Simon department store in the building which is now Kresge's. At the same time Galin was proprietor of a meat market in the store now occupied by D. and C. Reminiscing of the good old days Mr. Galin told the story of a morning in 1927 when he had just come to his store with six suckling pigs in his truck. Cal Simon was standing in front of his store and Galin was holding up one of the pigs showing it to Simon when Martin walked out of his adjoining store and saw the two talking and said . . . well, that's a sight, one Jew trying to sell another Jew a suckling pig.

This is no bull . . . and it was a bull that put city golf champion Ralph Lorenz up a tree in a pasture on Six Mile road on the opening morning of the hunting season last week. Three hunters, Lorenz, Robert Haas and Edward Merideth were in the center of one of Haas' pastures when a prize bull in the field started pawing and moving toward the threesome. The only escape was a small tree near the hunters which Lorenz reached first and climbed leaving no escape for the other two. Haas, not famous for his soft spoken voice, started yelling for Lorenz to come down so he could go up, and at the same time started shooting at the bull and screamed, I don't care if the . . . bull did cost me $15,000.00 we'll shoot it before we let him get us. The shots however stopped the bull's on-rush and gave Merideth and Haas an opportunity to throw stones at it, at which time Haas' dog came into the scene and chased the critter to the far end of the field. This break gave the frightened hunters a chance to run for the nearest fence and safety . . . no pheasants either.

Still spreading that famous, good natured sense of humor, even after death was Henry Penhale, who passed away last week. One of the writer's most beloved friends, Mr. Penhale had several years ago received two questionnaires from The Plymouth Mail requesting biographical data for its files. Both were filled out and placed back in their original envelope in his desk with the following penciled notation . . . for my good friend Sterling Eaton after my death. In addition to having filled out the two blanks with the requested information Mr. Penhale has facetiously noted in the columns captioned . . . Other data you deem important . . . I managed to keep myself out of jail during some very trying times. Truly, Henry will be sadly missed.

Dutch Atchinson, Plymouth's jovial Pontiac dealer, searched in vain for his favorite golf sweater throughout his home, before leaving one day last week for Washtenaw Country Club in Ypsilanti, where he was to have a match with insurance man, Roy Fisher. The two Kiwanians met for their match and Atchinson noted Fisher was wearing a sweater similar to the one he had lost. He inquired where Fisher had obtained the sweater and found his wife Muri had given the sweater to the Kiwanis Club for their rummage sale and Mrs. Fisher had purchased it for Roy for a measly 10 cents. Needless to say Atchinson was way off his game the remainder of the day.

WILL HE LOSE THE BALL?

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Gene Alleman
Secy. Mich. Press Ass'n.

MICHIGAN'S TOURIST industry, biggest and best in history, is looking for another pot of gold. That was the reason that the Michigan Tourist Council decided to ask the legislature for another $100,000 next year to advertise the state's attractions.

"We just can't compete with the other states which spend more money on promotion," said Chairman Robert W. Budd.

Michigan ranked third as a tourist state three years ago, behind New York and California. Now it has slipped to fifth, with Pennsylvania and Florida moving up.

Budd says Michigan is paying out the same number of dollars as before, but they don't buy as much advertising.

Last year, the Council received $331,000, but turned over $100,000 to the four regional tourist councils. With another slice taken out for administration, the state office is spending $146,000 for promotion this year.

Budd said tourists spend millions each year—most of it taxable. This turns back money to the state treasury in liquor, sales, cigarette and other levies.

Legislators in the past have heard requests for more advertising money with an almost phenomenal lack of enthusiasm. They threaten to cast the council into oblivion and turn over the function to local Chambers of Commerce.

But, 1955 will be around Jan. 1 and the election will be history for another two years.

CHILDREN ARE BEING politely asked by the State and Federal governments to drink more milk.

Federal authorities have released $1,500,000 to the state this year to expand the school milk program and the kids are being asked to help.

Under the old arrangement, the schools received a 1-cent rebate on each bottle of milk sold. The new money gives the schools 4½ cents back.

In Michigan last year, school children drank 60,000,000 half pints of milk.

"The biggest problem will be to make the expanded program available to all schools on an equal basis," said Dr. Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction.

Newest idea for selling more milk, paid for in part by the Federal government: Install milk vending machines in the schools.

A YOUNG LAWYER who gambled in politics and lost is gambling again.

He is William B. Elmer, the second Democratic member of the Michigan Public Service Commission, which regulates utilities—telephone and power companies, truck and bus firms and railroads.

Elmer started in state government as a lawyer appointed as assistant attorney general. He resigned to become a Democratic candidate for Congress from the Sixth district, embracing Ingham, Livingston and Genesee counties.

He lost that gamble when the constant campaigning, Don Hayward, a Michigan State College professor, nosed him out in the primary.

Elmer was off the payroll again.

Gov. Williams then appointed him to fill the vacancy on the commission created by the resignation of John M. Veale of Mt. Clemens, who also quit to run unsuccessfully for the Congressional nomination in his district.

REPUBLICANS HOPE Donald

S. Leonard will be governor. If he is, Elmer will be off the public payroll again in the makeover of the executive and administrative phase of governor. If Williams stays, Elmer still faces confirmation troubles with the Republican Senate.

Republicans have a prediction: It's off again, on again, gone again Elmer.

POLITICAL BATTLES over prisons have become major pre-occupations for legislators and Gov. Williams.

They started with the first Jackson State Prison riot in 1952 and have raged since, both sides hoping for peace in the cellblocks and setting up self-saving excuses if the lid blows again.

Key points of past skirmishes are pretty well known—the blame-fixing after the riots, the surveys, the demands for more prison space and the reluctance of lawmakers to spend unmitigated money.

The next will be fought over a plan developed by the corrections commission, all appointees of Gov. Williams.

It envisions a long-range multi-million dollar building program. A new 1,200-man prison, a separate reception center, a new women's prison and other things.

Start looking for the first shots in the 1955 session of the legislature.

Theatre Guild President Attends Marshall Meeting

Adele Miller, president of the Plymouth Theatre Guild, was among the 100 persons attending the semi-annual meeting of the Community Theatre Association of Michigan, held Saturday in Marshall.

Representatives of the various community theatres throughout the state discussed ways of getting early releases of Broadway successes and lower royalties on plays. The meeting also gave members a chance to exchange mutual problems of play production.

It was announced at the meeting that the play of the year in Michigan community theatres was "My Three Angels," which the Plymouth Theatre Guild will perform before local audiences on November 6 and 7.

Scheduled for Lansing in the spring is the next meeting of the Community Theatre Association. At that time either "Oklahoma" or "Annie Get Your Gun" will be produced for community theatre representatives.

Add life's nuisance: The perennial playboy of fifty who "lives it up" too much at every football game.

ROGER BABSON SAYS:

BABSON DISCUSSES SALES AND PARKING FACILITIES

Babson Park, Massachusetts. An analysis of retail sales shows some very interesting figures. From January 1 through September, 1954, sales declined about 2% from the same period last year. There, however, was a modest pickup during September. This was due largely to the cool weather and to this year's extensive store advertising.

MORE MONEY THAN EVER

The decline in 1954 has been in the face of more money available for spending than ever. Individuals' savings are at the highest level in history. Wages also are higher than ever before. Most prices are reasonable and storekeepers are trying hard to please their customers.

There should be more customers than ever, as a result of our net gain in population of 225,000 each month. Births are increasing and sickness is decreasing. More children are going to school and are dressing better at school. The only "out" is that parents do not have so much overtime money as they did in 1953.

REASONS FOR DECLINING SALES

This means that certain parents have had more time to do needed work at home. The "do-it-yourself" industries have boomed! People have been buying tools, paints, wallpaper, plywood, etc., instead of spending the money on movies and entertainment. Families are "cooking-it-themselves" more, and going out to restaurants less.

Some cities which have many parking meters have trained parents to visit the shopping centers together in couples, but always leaving one person in the car to listen to the radio, or read a picture magazine, or eat a nickel candy bar. This growing new habit has increased sales by drawing more people into the shopping district and eliminating their fear of getting parking tickets. Both persons can take their turns shopping, and also at watching the parking meter and dropping in another nickel at the right time. Other stores have boys or girls with supplies of nickels to watch their customers' cars.

POOR SALES DUE TO POOR PARKING

An analysis of sales shows that they have varied in accordance with parking facilities. Stores in which customers can trade without any parking problems show increases. The other stores have shown decreases. Since current high factory employment is impossible to maintain without high retail sales, it will be seen that unemployment figures of the entire country may be considerably affected by the availability of adequate parking facilities.

The truly "self-service" stores have shown the greatest increases. In these, the customers need not wait for change or wrapping. They can shop quickly and pay at the check-out door. Hence, "self-service" is also helping the employment situation for the entire nation, as well as the well-being of each city. Local governments should remember that the retail merchants—not the factories—are the lifeblood of every city and every nation.

WHAT ABOUT PARKING METERS?

Parking meters are useful in preventing "all-day-parkers" from hogging the streets; but otherwise they have hurt retail business. A woman leaves home with a large list of things she wants to buy. She finds a vacant parking space and drops five cents in the slot. Then she starts to get her supplies; but she is continually worrying about her car. The time goes too quickly. She is thinking of the car instead of her purchases. She goes home with half of her shopping list bought.

Every merchant should fight for free parking lots, or else lots that provide two-hour parking for five cents. In other words, cities must not only provide parking, but must also eliminate the worry and hurry of shoppers. The present idea of the customer to get back home as soon as possible is absolutely wrong. The setup and aim of the stores should be to keep her in the shopping district as long as possible.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal, is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"Michigan people will be voting next week on the question of whether to allow charitable bingo. Do you feel from your contacts with other people that the issue will pass and what is your own opinion on charitable bingo?"

PAUL NELSON, 11218 Gold Arbor: "I don't think it will pass. Bingo is just a form of gambling—a downright game of chance. Personally, I believe it should be outlawed."

MRS. WILBERT THOMPSON, 11885 Haggerty: "I'm hoping they vote it down. I don't believe in legalized gambling. As a Christian believer, I think it is necessary to vote against it."

Nelson Mrs. Thompson Roberts Mrs. Mattinson

RONNIE ROBERTS, 8923 Corinne: "From what I have heard, they will bring bingo back. Too many people enjoy it in comparison to its disadvantages. I play it and think it is all right for charitable purposes."

MRS. S. G. MATTINSON, 795 Forest: "I certainly hope it will not be approved. I am a Christian and I do not believe that any other Christian would vote for it. It is just plain gambling. Try as they may to give it another name, it's nothing but that."

Favorite Recipes

From
Plymouth's Kitchens

Getting underway with her family's favorite recipe, pumpkin pie, is Mrs. Edward Parsons of 1127 Penniman avenue.

Delicious Pumpkin Pie

Here's a tried and true recipe for delicious pumpkin pie. Mrs. Edward Parsons of 1127 Penniman avenue, a resident of Plymouth for 14 years, says it's always been a favorite in her family. No holiday dinner in her household would be complete without the pumpkin pie, she claims. Here's the way Mrs. Parsons recommends making her recipe:

- Pumpkin Pie
- 3 cups cooked pumpkin
  - 2 cups sugar
  - 4 cups milk scalded
  - 4 eggs well beaten
  - 2 tablespoons melted butter
  - 1 teaspoon salt
  - 2 teaspoons each-cinnamon, ginger and 1 teaspoon nutmeg
  - 1/2 teaspoon each of vanilla and lemon extract

First mix sugar, spices and salt with the pumpkin, then add the well beaten eggs. Lastly, add the milk stirred in while warm. Flavor with 1/2 teaspoon each of lemon and vanilla extract.

Line 2-9 inch pie plates with your favorite pie crust, fill and bake at 350° until firm.

Announce Chairmen Of J-Hop Committee

Local Delegates Attend Conference Of American Cancer Society

Local delegates attended the Leadership Training conference of the American Cancer Society at Kellogg Center on the campus of Michigan State college for an intensive and informative volunteer training period, October 13 through 15. They were Norman Marquis, president of the local cancer unit, Mrs. Harry Bartel, secretary-treasurer, Mrs. William Norman, public relations, and Mrs. Austin Stecker, former ACS field commander, now educational chairman.

Central theme of the conference "Basic Year-round Education" was a program consisting of education, service, and organization phases. To derive the maximum benefit from the sessions, the volunteer was assigned to groups from communities of similar size, interest, and problems.

A panel-type discussion was held featuring Jack Pickering, of the Detroit Times; Jean Pearson, Detroit Free Press staff; and Don Johnson, publisher of the Flint News-Advertiser. Topic of discussion was "Using the Printed Page."

Among the top medical speakers were Dr. Richard Meade, lung specialist, and Edwin P. Vary, M.D., president of the Flint Academy of Surgery.

Those attending also heard a lecture on "What about Cancer in Children." The fact was brought out that during 1953, 174 children died of cancer in the age group 1-14 years.

The conference stressed education and re-education of adults concerning the facts of cancer. It was announced that the latest cancer movie, released unlimited to the public, is "146,000 Could Live." It is available now through the Plymouth cancer unit to groups, organizations and clubs.

Local Democratic Women Meet Martha Griffiths

A group of Plymouth Democratic women met with former Recorder's Court Judge Martha W. Griffiths in the Mayflower hotel preceding her visit with shoppers in downtown Plymouth late Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Griffiths was enthusiastic about the interest shown by people in the 1954 campaign issues and with the cordiality with which she met while talking to folks in the dime stores and supermarkets, reports the chairman of the Plymouth Democratic Club, Mrs. Ruth Brown. Mrs. Brown accompanied her in the local campaign for election to the U.S. Congress on the Democratic ticket in the 17th District.

Mrs. Griffiths is expected to be at the Smith School rally, Lincoln and Simpson streets, October 30 at 8:15 p.m. it was announced.

An educational film, it dramatizes cancer's seven danger signals, and stresses the fact that cancer can be cured if diagnosed and treated in time.

The seven danger signals of cancer are: 1. Any sore that does not heal; 2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere; 3. Unusual bleeding or discharge; 4. Any change in a wart or mole; 5. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing; 6. Persistent hoarseness or cough; 7. Any change in normal bowel habits.

The above does not indicate one has cancer, but should mean a visit to a physician.

Local Teachers' Organization Gets Official Charter

An official charter marking the Plymouth Education association as a separate district of the Michigan Education association will be presented to the local organization at 3:45 p.m. Tuesday, November 2, at Bird school. This announcement was made by Robert Smith, president of the association, who said that a representative of the M.E.A. would be on hand for the presentation and a talk.

For the past seven years the group of Plymouth school teachers and administrators had been known as the "Teachers Club" and were represented in the state organization by the North Wayne county district. Last May members got together and voted to become a separate district of the M.E.A.

With the new charter the local group will now have direct representation in the M.E.A. and will be affiliated with the National Education association as well.

Woman's Club Plans State Hospital Tour

A tour of Northville State hospital for members and guests is scheduled for the November 5 meeting of the Woman's Club of Plymouth.

Arrangements for the tour have been made by Mrs. Byron Champion, program chairman, with the aid of the Social Service department of the hospital.

Members are requested to meet in the lobby of the hospital at 1 p.m. Anyone in need of transportation should call Mrs. J. Craig Bowliby or Mrs. Elmore Carney.

Don't Neglect Mattress!

Since a mattress doesn't show its "dirty face" like a dusty table or grimy floor, it is a likely candidate for neglect in the home-maker's cleaning routine.

The importance of proper cleaning and care is essential to obtain maximum wear from a mattress, bedding manufacturers emphasize. Here is the routine most of them recommend for mattress care:

Every two weeks cotton inner-spring mattresses—the most popular type with modern home-makers—should be turned. The mattress should be shifted end for end one time and side for side the next. Turning fluffs up the upholstery and distributes wear. This is an important point to remember, for distributing wear can lengthen the life of a mattress. Cotton inner-spring mattresses have an advantage over foam rubber here, because most foam rubber mattresses can be used only on one side.

Every two weeks bedsprings and boxsprings also should be turned for the same purpose.

How to Air Mattress
Each morning when making the bed, open windows and throw back bedclothes. This gives air a chance to penetrate the mattress and keep it fresh. Occasionally move the mattress near an open window and let the sun's rays shine directly on it. Solar rays help keep the upholstery from packing down and also serve as germ killers.

Once a month mattresses and boxsprings should be cleaned with a vacuum cleaner attachment or a soft brush. Use a clean, dry cloth for metal bedsprings. Never beat inner-spring mattresses with a rug beater, and be careful not to bend or roll mattresses when moving them. Some homemakers like to use mattress and spring covers. These can be removed for monthly laundering.

During the monthly cleaning of bedding, check the condition of the mattress carefully.

Suggests Ideas For Improving Home Interiors

It seems to be almost a universal desire, not only to own one's home, but constantly to improve that home, making it more attractive and liveable for all members of the family.

Frequently the entire household, both adults and youngsters, share in do-it-yourself activities of home improvement and modernization. Because the requirements and desires of American families never are static, many home-owners have well-planned programs for adapting their homes to changing family needs.

Modern building materials, today's simplified methods of installation, and improved, easy-to-handle tools all contribute to this widespread urge to improve the appearance, add to the comfort, and increase the value of American homes.

Since the easiest and least costly way to brighten up a home is by using color, many homeowners begin their rejuvenation by doing over the floors of their homes, and installing new counter and sink tops in kitchens. Vinyl flooring can be used successfully at comparatively little cost, and with less effort and in less time, now that this marbled vinyl flooring is available by the yard in rolls 27", 45" and 54" in width.

It is maintained with the same ease, needing only a quick wiping with a damp cloth and an occasional waxing to keep its brightness and crisp color.

It makes a particularly good work-surface when used on counter and sink tops, and enables the owner to carry out his chosen decorative scheme more fully, in matching or contrasting colors.

In combination with 1" feature strips and matching or contrasting vinyl tiles, and theme tiles in ten design and color combinations, vinyl flooring by-the-yard offers infinite design possibilities. In 54" width it is good size for kitchen or bathroom floor, since the average width of these rooms rarely makes more than one seam necessary.

Vinyl tiles and by-the-yard rolls are suited for use in any room in the home. The resilient flooring also is suited ideally to take the daily wear and tear given floors in public buildings, business offices and institutions.

Both 9" x 9" tiles and rolls, which measure 75 lineal feet in length, are made in a range of many sparkling colors, and feature complete marbleization.

Textile specialists at Michigan State college suggest that you invest in only one nylon sheet until after you've tried sleeping on it. Many individuals like the luxurious feel of the sheets, but others say they feel like they are slipping off the bed. You may find the sheets are not too comfortable in hot, humid weather, either.

Ham-From-A-Can Fares Beautifully

Boned, cooked and ready-to-serve hams in cans are a joy to serve. Here the ham is baked with spiced fruit syrup and garnished with canned peaches also simmered in the same pungent glaze mixture.

The hams requiring refrigeration storage are generally canned in 6 to 12-pound sizes. The 6 1/2-pound ham is now one of the most popular sizes with consumers. Some members of the meat canning industry are also bringing out a 4-pound canned ham because consumers have indicated interest in the smaller units.

A neat serving trick when the ham is to be served at a buffet calls for slicing the ham before heating it. Stud every other slice with cloves prior to cutting and then tie the ham back into its original shape and bake. By figuring three to four servings per pound, you have a basis for judging the size ham to buy.

Glazed Canned Ham

- 6 to 12-pound canned ham
- 1/2 whole cloves
- 1 No. 2 1/2 can cling peach halves
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons vinegar
- 3 tablespoons prepared mustard
- 1/4 cup unsulphured molasses

For attractive service and easy carving, slice ham before heating. Cut 1/4-inch slice; insert cloves along top edge of ham slice. Leave second slice plain. Stud every other slice with cloves before it is cut. Tie sliced ham with string in original shape; place in shallow baking pan. Drain peaches; measure liquid; reserve. (There should be about 1 1/2 cups.) Mix cornstarch and vinegar to a paste in saucepan. Blend in mustard, drained peach syrup and molasses. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly. Use to baste ham two or three times during baking. Bake in a moderate oven (350°F.) 1 hour. Stud peach halves with cloves, add to remaining syrup; heat. Use to garnish ham; trim with mint leaves if desired. Serve with potato salad. YIELD: 3 to 4 servings per pound.

Try This Chocolate Pudding

Steamed Chocolate Pudding

- 3 squares (3 ounces) unsweetened chocolate
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup milk
- 4 egg yolks
- 2 cups fresh bread cubes
- 1 teaspoon vanilla flavoring
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts, any kind
- 4 eggs whites, stiffly beaten

Melt chocolate and butter over hot water. Add salt, sugar, milk, and slightly beaten egg yolks. Cook, stirring constantly, until thickened. Remove crusts from fresh bread. Break or cut into small cubes to make 2 cups. Add bread, vanilla, and nut meats to cooked mixture. Fold in egg whites. Steam in an oiled quart mold for 1 hour. Spoon into sherbet glasses. Serve warm with Hard Sauce. This pudding freezes well. Serves 6 to 8.

Achieve "Bought" Look In Home-made Clothes

That "bought" look can be given to your home-made clothes by using the right interfacing correctly.

Interfacings give shape and prevent stretching, says a clothing specialist. The weight and kind of interfacing you use depends on the outer fabric and the type of garment.

A word of caution: Regardless of the kind of interfacing you choose, you must shrink it before cutting.

Wigan is a cotton fabric similar to muslin. It is used across the back of the garment and along the armseye to prevent stretching. You can use it, too, in hems and sleeves of jackets or in the fronts of dressmaker-type jackets.

Another interfacing is hymo, or hair canvas. It is a mixture of horse hair, cotton and wool. Because it is difficult to crease, it makes a good foundation for the front of a garment. When using hymo for light-weight wools, be sure to select one of the finer grades.

Does your sewing call for an interfacing to give a definite crease to collars? Tailor's linen or canvas is what the clothing specialist suggests. It can be all linen or a mixture of linen and jute.

Muslin or cambric is used for interfacing both the back and front of jackets. Be sure to shrink it before using. It does not hold its shape as well as wigan or hymo.

When a filling is needed around the armseye of a jacket or a fitted coat, cotton felt is often used. Cut it by the pattern to fit the armseye coat, cotton felt is often used. Cut it by the pattern to fit the armseye and extend it three or four inches in width.

Gelatin Plays Big Role In Planning of Menus

Gelatin dishes can appear at every point in a meal—jellied hors d'oeuvres, soups, salads, mousses, aspics and dessert. In spite of the usefulness of this type cooking, it has almost been forgotten.

The reason for this is that it has been terribly misused.

Gelatin is tasteless and colorless. This lack of taste and color is a great advantage, however. It enables you to vary the taste, texture and color endlessly. Also, gelatin gives you a way to give formless foods, such as purees, beaten eggs and whipped cream, shape.

Gelatin is a great aid in beating high prices because you can use it to extend your supply of expensive food to serve more people. Gelatin is a protein and a perfect meat extender.

The most important fact to keep in mind when cooking with gelatin is that you must taste it while you are preparing it just as you would another type dish. If it does not taste good before it is firm, it will not be good after it becomes firm.

There are five basic types of gelatin dishes. The first is basic clear jelly—Type two is a whip or clear basic jelly with air beaten in—Type three are the sponges and snows with both air and beaten egg whites beaten in—Type four is the chaud Froid Sauces, Spanish cream or chiffon pie fillings—Type five are those dishes with a whipped cream base.

Tomato aspic can be combined with meats, seafoods, or vegetables to make either a side dish to complement the main dish or the main dish itself.

Jellied soups are really nothing but aspics and are quite popular during the summer.

Gelatin cooking is fun and can be simple or hard, depending on the type you go in for.

YOU'D NEVER GUESS THIS BREATHTAKING VIEW wasn't real—but it certainly appears so! This scene of striking reality and beauty is actually a photo mural on one wall of the newly re-decorated living room in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Lighthfoot, 337 Joy St., Plymouth. The mural is framed by beige drapes at the sides and a panel of Capri-texture wallpaper in mottled brown and green at the bottom. The cornice and ceiling are painted in sand haze. The Kentile floor tile, installed by Blunk's, Inc., is in smart, variegated, brown tones. The Fedders, baseboard, hot water heating system, with full control damper, was installed by Lighthfoot himself, a local heating contractor, and is visible below the mural. The mural, wallpaper, and the color scheme for the entire room was recommended and sold by Pease Paint & Wallpaper Co., Plymouth.

Because of the large sizes in which it comes, asbestos board is well adapted for sheds and other long low farm buildings.

More House for the Money

1. FHA and GI insurance on mortgage loans.
2. Low payments — long terms, low interest.
3. Better design — ranch houses, split-levels.
4. Better, "factory-engineered" materials.
5. Better construction — use of shop-built components.
6. Lower maintenance — permanently finished materials.
7. Second bathroom in many new homes.
8. Finished recreation space, a second living room.
9. Fire-resistant, colorful roofing and siding.
10. Equipped kitchens, financed by mortgage.

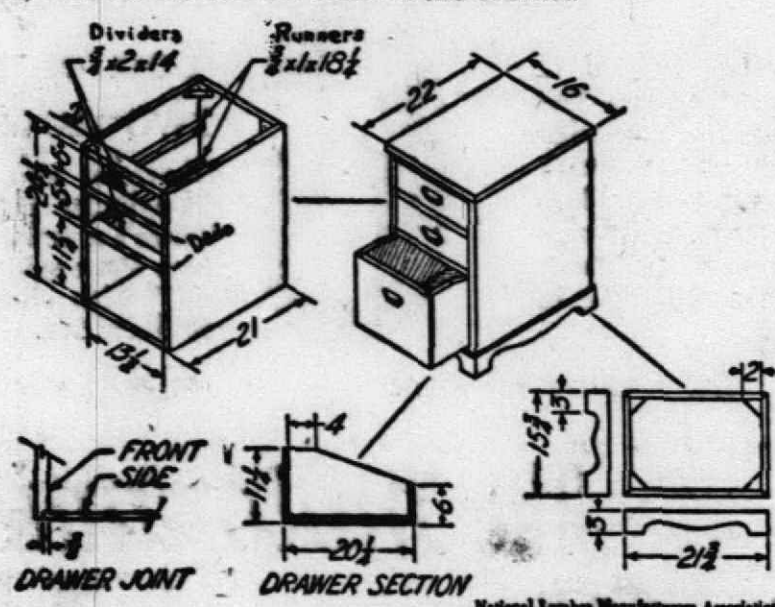

11. Air-conditioning built in — hot-weather comfort.
12. More electrical equipment, better lighting.
13. Handsome plumbing equipment, non-corroding pipes.
14. More efficient heating, concealed radiation.
15. Weather-tight window units, more window styles.
16. Insulation for greater comfort, lower fuel bills.

Today's home-buyer, despite prices that seem to be high, gets "more house for the money." Inflation is the reason prices seem higher than in the '30s. Among other reasons that result in "more house" are better-engineered materials and equipment, mass-production techniques that have led to improvements enjoyed even by custom-built houses, additional kitchen and other equipment in development homes, better-trained builders, better-designed space, and improved construction techniques, including the use of power tools.

HERE'S HOW . . . . . . MAKE A HOME FILE CABINET

A handsome filing cabinet for home use also serves as an attractive end table. The cabinet may be made of 3/4-inch lumber throughout, or the drawer sides, bottoms and backs may be of 1/2-inch lumber. Panels for the sides, top and back are made by gluing boards selected for their appearance. To assemble the cabinet, cut a 3/4-inch dado in the side panels to receive the drawer dividers, which are fastened with glue and 4-penny finishing nails. Then, add the drawer runners, using 1 1/4-inch, No. 4 wood screws. Add

Wall Paneling with Hardwood Plywood Makes Excellent Do-It-Yourself Project

Ease of installation is a main reason for the steady rise in sales of hardwood plywood wall paneling to handy persons who wish to undertake remodeling jobs themselves, according to local lumber dealers.

Many dealers are catering to the "do it yourself" element in home remodeling by furnishing installation information and displaying the plywood panels in easily-viewed racks designed to show off the wide range of color tones possible with genuine hardwoods.

The first step in redecorating with plywood paneling is to select a species that blends or contrasts well with the furnishings and color in the home. The six most popular species are birch, gum, oak, mahogany, maple and walnut. Next, the handman should prepare the walls. The panels can be applied directly to the old walls, if they are true and even. It may be necessary to use shims where wall areas are concave. The panels also may be applied over furring strips, nailed horizontally around the room at 2-foot intervals, with vertical strips fitted in where the panel joints are to occur. Steel-cut or resin-coated nails are best for fastening the furring strips. If the use of furring causes the panels to extend into the room beyond the face of door and window trim, the trim should be removed and replaced with moulding or narrow wood bands. The latter, of course, should be thick enough so that they will either cover the panel ends or come flush with them.

Because the panels are natural hardwood, each will have an individual grain marking. This enhances the overall appearance and broadens the decorative possibilities. Before nailing, plan the sequence of panels around the room. This can be done by laying the panels against the walls and shifting until the sequence most pleasing to the eye is obtained. Sequence-matched panels can be ordered for special installation.

Usually, it is best to begin nailing the panels at one corner of the room and working all the way around, except in the case of rooms which have a main wall feature such as a picture window or a fireplace. Then the craftsman should begin working on each side and away from the central feature.

The panels can be fastened with small finishing nails or brads which are later countersunk and filled with a matching plastic wood. Heavier nails may be used at the top and bottom which will be covered with moldings. Another method is to glue the panels or to combine spot-gluing with nails. The craftsman should begin nailing at one edge of the panel and work across the width to avoid bulges.

The simplest joining system is the "V" joint made by running a plane along the edge of the panel. If a flush joint is desired, the panel edges can be grooved to receive splines so that surface alignment will be perfect. Some panels on the market already have interlocking joint treatments.

For "inside" corners, the most common procedure is to use a butt joint to be covered with a cove or quarter-round molding. For "outside" corners, the panels should be cut to fit flush at the corners so that a quarter round of the same thickness can be installed to hide the joint and provide a smooth rounded edge.

Only a light touch or sanding is needed because hardwood plywood panels are pre-sanded by the manufacturer. The panels should be wiped free of dust and grit before applying the finish. The nails should be countersunk, but not filled until after the first coat of sealer. The preferred finish is the clear or natural variety which enhances the natural beauty of the wood itself.

Browsing with BARBARA

Stewart Oldford just took me through one of the new homes he's built on 718 Burroughs, and it's a beauty! Color tones in the new three bedroom house range from brown, pink, green and soft yellow and were selected with the help of Jerry Pease.

Landscape on the outside, this brick veneer ranch home sports a low, stone window-box effect in front of the large picture window of the living-room. As you enter through the front door, you come into a small vestibule. This really has its advantage when you think of the snow, rain and dirt that would ordinarily get tracked into the living-room. Not only that, but the vestibule has an ample-sized clothes closet to hang wraps in.

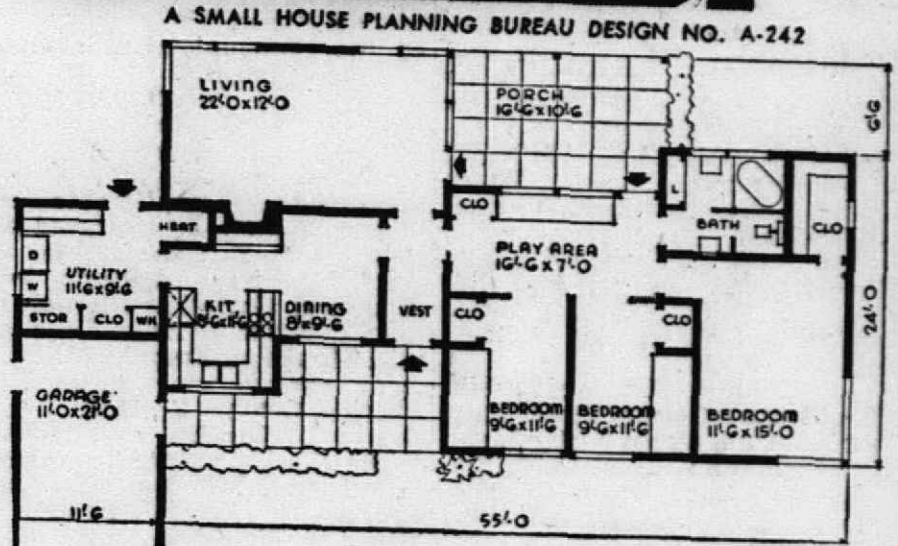

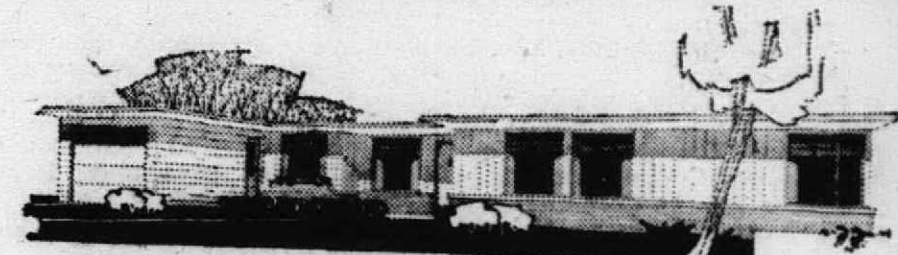

The living room has two large windows, one which takes up almost the whole front wall facing the street, and a large side window. In back and slightly to the left of the living-room is the new, modern kitchen, and back of the kitchen, a screened-in porch.

Oldford has put in such attractive features as large casement windows over the sink, marble window sill, and two good-size windows on the other walls. Wood cabinets with soft, blonde finish are set over yellow formica counter tops while the lower sections of other wall areas are covered in parquet mahogany wall paneling.

You'll like the serving counter built in between the spaces for refrigerator and stove, as well as the electric fan to remove cooking odors and grease. Flooring is of gray linoleum with an attractive green motif scattered throughout. Just off the kitchen is a tiled lavatory.

The large basement has been designed with an eye to family activities. GE gas heater and incinerator, supplied by Harold Stevens, are set against the back wall of the house, offering almost a total floor space for recreation area. Under the stairway there's a large storage closet with shelves on the one side. Another feature homemakers will like is the new white porcelain washtub.

DESIGN A-242. Two of the three bedrooms in this plan are arranged to open into a combination hall and indoor play area. From this playroom, doors lead to the master bedroom, bath, toilet and covered porch. The living room is on the garden side, and also opens onto the porch. It has full length corner windows and fireplace. Kitchen and dinette and entrance face the front, with a terrace and walk between garage and entrance. Kitchen equipment is built into U-shaped cabinets and includes a cabinet on the inside wall. Heater alcove, hot water heater, coat closet, storage and supply cabinets are provided for in the utility room. Other storage space includes closet, counter and storage cabinet in the play area. Plans call for a floor slab on fill, flat roof, wide siding and vertical siding above brick base in front. Floor area, not including garage and porch, is 1,393 sq. ft. with cubage of 13,234 sq. ft. ### Cedar Closets Win New Home Popularity

Cedar closets, which once ranked as a luxury feature in American homes, are enjoying a new wave of popularity among home buyers.

It has been sparked to a great extent by the fact that many contractors, faced with a buyers' market after years of easy selling, are now including one or two cedar closets in each new house. The plan is paying dividends for both sellers and buyers. Builders sell their houses faster, and purchasers receive a "bonus" in the form of attractive moth-repellent storage facilities.

"Women inspecting a new home on display are always delighted when they spot a spacious cedar lined closet in the house," one prominent Chicago builder reports. "They are immediately impressed both by the moth-repellent feature of the closet and its beauty and fragrance. They realize too, that it's a mark of quality construction that imparts distinction to a home."

After the installation of hardwood floors in new residences, the contractor responsible should protect them with a temporary cover or an approved building paper until such time as the floor finishing or painting contractor is ready to receive them.

Professor Advises Using Chemical This Winter to Kill Stumps

Still bothered with those old stumps shooting out suckers, or has that brush you cut a while ago come back to haunt you?

It's one of those cases where cutting a tree or some brush doesn't end your worry — but there is a remedy, says B. H. Grigsby, Michigan State college plant physiologist.

The remedy is chemicals, and they can be used in winter.

Woody vegetation can be killed by foliage sprays, bark sprays, or by treating the cut stumps. There are two recommended sprays: One is a mixture of 2-4-D and 2, 4, 5-Testers. Another is 2, 4, 5-T in fuel oil. From 2 to 4 quarts per 10 gallons of oil is a good mixture.

On uncut trees, the lower 12 inches of trunk and any exposed roots should be sprayed until you can see some run-off. Trees with thick bark should be partly girdled to allow the chemical to penetrate.

Cut stumps can be treated with the same solution as used for bark spraying. It gives good results on even large trees and those difficult to kill by other methods. The bark and outer 2 or 3 inches of the cut surface of the stump should be sprayed to the runoff point.

Bark and stump treatments may be made at any season, but best results are received from early spring applications.

Too Much Service

A good little girl was hurrying to school in a state of extreme agitation.

"Please, God, don't let me be late," she murmured as the school bell began to ring in the distance.

At that moment she tripped over a stone and fell flat.

"Please, God," she exclaimed in an injured voice, she got up and dusted herself. "I didn't say pushed!"

Lions Club to Hear Burroughs Executive

J. Rusing Cutler, general chairman of the Lions club, announced that members would hear a talk by Eber Readman, assistant manager of the local Burroughs Adding Machine plant, at their 6:30 meeting on November 4 in the Mayflower hotel.

As a representative of the local Plymouth firm, Readman will inform Lions as to his company's organization, policies, philosophy and place in the Plymouth community.

Cutler pointed out that this program was part of a plan to better acquaint members with the activities of Plymouth and its surroundings. In keeping with this policy the Lions heard a representative from Socony Vacuum talk on "Oil for the Wheels of Progress" at last week's meeting.

LETTER BOX

Since becoming a actually engaged in police work again and realizing training of personnel is vital to police work as well as our civilian defense program, may it be brought to the attention of our City Fathers that no local police department member has attended the National Police Academy, sponsored by the Federal Bureau of Investigation in Washington D.C., since 1937.

A member from the city police department may be enrolled for a 3-month session on a request from the city manager or commissioner to Director John Edgar Hoover.

It certainly behooves the city to take advantage of this opportunity offered and perhaps a plan to send a police officer every 3 years would be highly recommendable to adopt.

It would give our present police personnel something to work and strive for.

Describes Two Methods of Planting Fall Bulbs to Insure Winter Safety

There are two methods of planting fall bulbs. When planted in the perennial border, among other plants, a hole should be dug for each bulb with a trowel. Be sure that the hole is large enough so that the bulb rests on the soil, and there is no air pocket beneath it.

The soil should be packed firmly around and above the bulb, and planting may be done as late as this is possible. Even if there is a frozen crust on the surface, so long as the soil beneath will crumble easily, planting can continue. But when the ground freezes deep enough to prevent this, it is too late to plant.

If an entire bed, or border space is to be planted to bulbs, it may be excavated to the required depth, and the bulbs placed on the floor of the excavation in the desired arrangement. This is a necessary method when tulips are to be used to form a pattern, in the style still popular in Europe and formerly practiced here. Even if no pattern is desired, this is a good way when there are no established plants in the area to interfere with it.

When the soil is filled in above the bulbs, it should be heaped up an inch or two higher than the surrounding surface to allow for settling, and prevent a depression in which water might stand.

Wet soil is the great enemy of all garden bulbs. They will not grow in wet soil, and soon decay. They should never be planted in a place from which water does not drain away quickly. If there is no such place in your garden, then make an elevated bed, six inches above the garden level, in which to plant your bulbs.

Cold does not injure hardy bulbs; but wet soil will destroy them, so take no chances.

One of the chief hazards for all bulbs is "frost heaving," due to alternate freezing and thawing of the soil, which may lift shallow rooted plants out of the soil. Bulbs planted so late they cannot make roots in the fall are likely to suffer from it; and large bulbs not set deep enough will often be injured. A mulch placed over the bulbs after the ground has frozen will keep the frost in, and reduce frost heaving.

When it is intended to allow tulips to remain where you plant them several years rather than dig them up after they have blossomed and their leaves have turned yellow each summer, they should be planted two or three inches deeper than the normal depth.

Deep planting may cause flowering to be somewhat later, so all bulbs which it is desired shall blossom at the same time should be planted the same depth.

Health and Beauty

The warning signs the skin gives to general health should never be ignored. Their causes may range from emotional disturbances to cancer.

Doctors have learned that our emotional life influences just about every organ of the body. Often the condition of a patient's skin will indicate the cause of a bodily or emotional disorder. Emotional disturbances, such as anxiety, hatred, envy, ambition, a need for love, feelings of guilt or inferiority will cause any number of bodily ills to which skin lesions or rash will furnish the first clue.

To a doctor, even the color and the texture of the skin has meaning. The skin of a person suffering from thyroid overactivity is usually damp and often times has a characteristic rash. If the skin has a yellowish tint, or jaundice, he can guess that the patient's bile duct is obstructed.

Acne, the curse of adolescence, is caused by inflammation and blockage of the small glands of the skin that secrete the greasy substance called sebum. Acne is aggravated by emotional problems. Because the disfiguring pimples appear profusely on the face, the condition itself is an emotional problem to a sensitive youth.

The embarrassment and discomfort of acne can often be cured with the proper care. Even the stubborn cases can be greatly relieved. Usually the two most important parts of the cure will be frequent and thorough cleansing with warm water and a good soap and the correct diet.

Most ordinary moles are harmless. However, there are certain rare moles which do precede cancer. They are slate blue or bluish black in color and are elevated only slightly. Their surface is smooth. Early removal of this type of mole by an expert, will prevent much trouble later.

An untrained person has no way of knowing if the changes in his skin are dangerous or normal. A periodic checkup with a doctor is the best idea for health.

A PERSONAL MESSAGE

From
CONGRESSMAN OAKMAN

Congress of the United States
House of Representatives
Washington, D. C.

CHARLES G. OAKMAN
17TH DISTRICT
MICHIGAN

To the People of the 17th District
During my first term in Congress, I have had the unique experience of serving on two very important Committees of the House of Representatives - Banking and Currency and Public Works.

The House Public Works Subcommittee on Roads drafts the legislation dealing with all phases of the federal highway program. In view of the President's 'grand plan' for a $100 billion highway building program during the next ten years, this assignment now looms as one of the most important jobs in the 83rd Congress, (the Congress YOU will elect on November 2nd). The legislation when enacted will provide five million Americans with jobs for ten years.

Also, as a Member of the House Public Works Subcommittee on Rivers and Harbors, I hope to be able to assist in getting favorable action on the legislation to provide for the deepening of the connecting channels of the Great Lakes in the Detroit River, Lake St. Clair, St. Clair River and the St. Mary's River. This legislation is necessary if we are going to get the larger ships that will use the new Waterway, which the 83rd Congress authorized, from Montreal to the mouth of the Detroit River.

In my first term in the Congress, the St. Lawrence Seaway became a reality. In my second term, I hope and believe we can get the legislation to provide for these vitally needed connecting channels.

Regardless of the results of the general election to be held in every one of the 48 states this November 2, President Eisenhower's Administration will continue in office for another two years. The President would have little chance of carrying forward his program - which is the program of the people who elected him - without a Republican majority in both the House and the Senate.

With confidence in your judgment, with pride in the accomplishments of our President and the 83rd Congress, and with great faith in even greater strides forward in the future, I seek your endorsement at the polls on Tuesday, November 2nd.

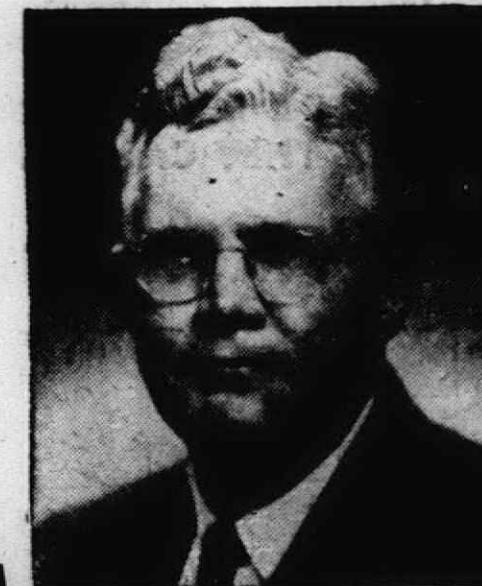

Sincerely,
Charles G. Oakman

Symphony Conductor Wayne Dunlap Writes First Impressions of Europe

EDITOR'S NOTE: This letter was recently received from Wayne Dunlap, conductor of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra, who is on a year's leave of absence for study in Vienna, Austria.

Don't stop the presses! I feel certain this letter will be something less than sensational, but there may be some mild interest in my impressions formulated after having been in Vienna a little over two weeks. Please feel free to use as much or as little of this material as you want—and you can even put it in deep freeze if you want.

After nearly four weeks of living out of suitcases, our heavy baggage finally arrived yesterday, and to celebrate this happy event, I scrape the barnacles off my typewriter and proceed to give you a brief report of our activities and impressions to date. We had a very pleasant voyage and none of us had to have recourse to Mrs. Mothersill's pills. It was a very smooth, sunny trip, and our children took to the boat like real sailors. The thing which most impressed David was the ping pong table on the main deck and Betsy (our two-year old daughter) liked the hard rolls we had accompanying each meal throughout the trip.

Our first stop was at Cobh, Ireland where we were blessed with brilliant sunshine which displayed the "Emerald Isle" to fine advantage. We arrived in LeHavre on the 25th of September and with very little delay, boarded the train to Paris. We observed in traveling through the country that fall had made hardly any impression on the country. Leaves and flowers are still intact and beautiful. The port of Le Havre has been almost completely rebuilt since I last saw it during the War and certainly must be one of the busiest ports in Europe.

It was raining when we arrived in Paris but this hardly succeeded in putting a damper on our spirits. We went to our hotel at which we had reservations and after a little freshening up and a fine French dinner, we ventured forth to see something of this famous city. In the little time that we were there, I found it much more interesting and exciting than when I had occasional passes here during the War. The streets were busy, the shop windows were full of beautiful things—and some of the famous museums like the Louvre were open as they were not at certain times during the war. We confined ourselves in the main to the more obvious and outdoor things, largely because we could not take the children to such places as the Louvre, the opera, etc. But we managed to visit such famous places as the Eiffel tower, the Tuilleries (where David scared the living daylight out of the poor pigeons), the Etoile, etc.

On Sunday night the 26th of September, we boarded the train for Vienna. All through the next day, we traveled through Switzerland and Austria, and although the weather was hardly ideal, the scenery was breath-taking. There is still much reconstruction underway, but for the most part—and almost completely in the smaller places—the traces of war have been obliterated. The little alpine villages and meadows retain their charm, and even at this early date, many of the mountains were capped with snow. I was a little disappointed that we arrived in Salzburg, Austria (the home of Mozart) just at dusk and could get very little impression from it, but I shall have opportunities of visiting there later. This city, aside from the fact that it is the home of Mozart, is perhaps the finest Baroque city in Europe, and a charming, fascinating place.

We arrived in Vienna late in the evening of the 27th, and although we were prepared for our entry into the Russian zone by the necessary passes and documents, we did not see a single Russian soldier. The station at which we arrived, is one of the finest modern stations I have seen, having by necessity been completely rebuilt since the war. We went directly to our hotel and the next day began getting acquainted with the city and trying to provide the necessities of life through the medium of the German language. This has not proved to be too difficult, however, because many people speak English (they start their study of foreign languages at the age of 11 and continue for about eight years—with English being the most popular foreign language) and the remainder are very understanding and helpful. When you ask people directions, they not only try to give you the most specific instructions possible, but perhaps end up by taking you to the place. Several times people have gone with me on the street car to be sure I got to the proper place. The first two weeks were spent largely in a special orientation course for students, teachers, etc., provided by the Fulbright Commission designed to give us an accurate picture of Austrian life, helping us with the language and taking us on numerous sight-seeing tours. We crossed the Danube on numerous occasions—and as you have often heard, it is not blue—but rather sort of a milky grey. Also, we were in the Vienna Woods on two occasions, but heard no tales worth repeating.

Between the orientation sessions, we managed to find an adequate apartment, (no simple task here where housing is in short supply), but we now have a private apartment (four rooms, private bath and kitchen), close to a shopping center and two transportation lines, school and even the famous Schonbrunn Castle (which has a wonderful zoo which delights our children). For this we pay less than $30.00, which, although it seems amazing to us, is not cheap by Austrian standards. It is probably superfluous to mention that we do not have central heating but we have not been uncomfortable. I failed to mention that the apartment contains a grand piano which is a blessing.

The beds were something of a mystery to us, in that they are topped with great featherbeds which remind my wife of the whipped cream or "Schlagobers" for which Vienna is so famous. I remember as a child sleeping on these, but here to our amazement, they sleep under them. We were a little apprehensive at first, but we found them most comfortable and warm and have already adapted ourselves to them. We probably shouldn't mention it, but our children find them wonderful to jump on and lose themselves in.

Lenora has found the problem of shopping a little difficult, especially since she speaks very little German, but fascinating nevertheless. There is no such thing as a super market here, but instead, one must visit a series of little shops, each one specializing in one or two things. Since home refrigeration is almost non-existent here, one must shop every day. Prices for the most part run about the same as U.S. commodities, with notable exceptions being coffee which costs $3.00 to $4.00 per pound (a long way from Brazil) to milk which runs about .08 for a little more than a quart.

Meals in a restaurant are reasonable by American standards—and I have on numerous occasions had a healthy lunch for about $25. I very often feed the entire family at a nice little out-of-the-way place for less than $2.00, which includes fine service for which a liberal tip is no more than three shillings ($.12). Prices on most commodities run about the same as in the U.S., except for the more expensive things, in which price range one gets more for his money in Austria. Personal services are extremely reasonable here, with a haircut no more than $30 in the best shops, maid service and baby sitters for around $20, an hour etc. Salaries are generally low by our standards here in Austria, with a very good stipend being around $100 per month.

I have not yet gotten into the musical current yet, but that current seems to be a veritable Niagara and the plunge promises to be most inviting. There are two separate opera houses in operation every night of the week, for which you can get a good ticket for less than a dollar, or you can stand for $20. There are two symphony orchestras here, and innumerable other concerts, both amateur and professional. The love of music here is no myth, and nearly every Viennese seems to be an amateur musician and a lover of music. The very essence of music history is all around one here—as for example a few nights ago when I attended the Magic Flute by Mozart, in the very theatre which commissioned it and in which it had its first performance, with Mozart conducting. Everywhere there are monuments and museums in the memory of famous musicians which make this place at once strangely exhilarating and yet humbling. This strong flood of music sometimes places one in the position of having to make very difficult decisions as to whether for example he wishes to hear the Vienna Choir Boys do the "Coronation Mass" of Mozart, a performance of a "Moral Mass" in the St. Stephen cathedral, a service by Palestrina elsewhere, or one by a contemporary Austrian at yet another place. I'll have more to say about the music in another letter.

I trust that the Plymouth Orchestra season is well under way, and that Plymouth will give Emil Raab the same wonderful support it always preferred to me. With best regards, I leave you with PLEDGING ACTIVITIES at the University of Michigan fraternities recently resulted in the pledging of 515 new members. From Plymouth new fraternity men and their choices are: Bruce Duane Campbell, Zeta Psi; James David Isbister, Kappa Sigma; and Elmer Huston Whipple, Delta Upsilon.

FROM FREEMAN HOVER, son of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Schoof of Roosevelt comes a copy of the Denver Post which carries a feature story on L. P. Cookingham of Kansas City, former Plymouth city manager. He is cited for his "spectacular success in cleaning up the city government since the ouster of the Pendergast machine." As an example of Cookingham's nature, the article recalls an incident in Kansas City when, as city manager he was awakened from a deep sleep by a 2 a.m. phone call to inform him a street light was on the blink. He discussed the matter politely, got the caller's name and address and then a day later, at 3 a.m., returned the call to say the light was repaired! Later the caller and Cookingham became fast friends.

RECENTLY GRADUATED from IBM's electric accounting machine customer engineering school in New York was Paul L. McAllister of Plymouth. He has been assigned to the company's Detroit sales and service office.

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

An estimated 300,000 hunters took to the field October 20, opening day of Michigan's annual ring-necked pheasant season this year.

With pheasant populations near a peak this year, southern Michigan farms and fields will entertain an estimated total of 500,000 hunters before the season ends on November 10. This is expected to be a national record for the year.

Conservation workers say this army of hunters will bag 1,250,000 pheasants. If so, it will be one of the five best years in the history of Michigan pheasant hunting. The record kill was made in 1944, when 1,400,000 birds were bagged.

Conservationists again urge hunters to ask the farmer first before venturing on his lands. The Horton trespass law protects farm lands and makes violators liable to fines and imprisonment.

It is illegal to travel in a vehicle through a hunting or game area with a strung bow or a rifle or shotgun not taken down.

Twenty-four persons were reported this week to have paid heavy fines and costs for violation of this conservation law.

Their names were listed with 88 others on the conservation department's weekly list of violators.

Of the total, 97 paid fines for game law violations, 12 for fish law infractions and three for camping in state forests without permits.

More state parks, more conservation officers, more fish are demanded by Michigan's soaring population.

With an eye to future demands, the conservation commission approved budget requests for 1955-56 totaling a whopping $17,785,052 during its recent October meeting.

Up $4,600,000 from current appropriations, nearly three-fourths of the increase is represented in planning purchases of additional park lands and improvement of the present 59 state parks and recreation areas.

If the 1955 state legislature provides the money, the conservation department also will boost its uniformed officer force to 200 men from the present 177.

More study of warm water fishing problems at a cost of $88,000, purchase of new public fishing sites and hunting lands and additional improvement work on lakes and streams also are contemplated to keep up with public demands.

Requests for most other programs were held close to present levels.

Michigan's sporting public will have use of a large portion of the huge Shiawassee Flats wildlife area within the next few years if state and federal purchase and development work continues at its present pace.

The conservation commission recently stamped approval on a $48,000 budget for initial construction work to start on the state portion in 1955-56.

The Flats will provide nesting and sanctuary for waterfowl and fur-bearers and will also give hunters a large area for their sport.

As estimated 20,000 acres will be included in the entire project when complete. About one-third of the land is now in public ownership.

Michigan's share in the cooperative project serves a two-fold purpose in providing both wildlife area and basin for part of the federal government's Shiawassee River flood control project.

More than 3000 persons in Michigan's northland — families and individuals — received upward of $65,000 this fall in the largest single collection of pine cones in history.

The state conservation department purchased about 9000 bushels of the cones for use in its forest nursery program.

The cones will provide seed for the nurseries for the next five to eight years.

Pine cone crops vary with the years, but so far as state foresters know, this fall was one of the best years in Michigan's history and made possible the record collection.

Included in the purchase were more than 8000 bushels of red pine cones, 1000 bushels of white pine cones and 100 bushels of white spruce cones.
