

Fund Drive Struggling Near Goal

A surprise donation of $3,148 from the Michigan Bell Telephone company and their Plymouth employees brought Plymouth's Community Fund within grasp of the $24,500 goal Tuesday.

Last-minute donations pushed the fund up to $23,752, leaving the highest goal in Community Fund history only $747 away.

The Michigan Bell contribution was the biggest donation in the 1954 fund drive, according to Chairman George Witkowski. With Wednesday night set as the end of the campaign, Witkowski said that workers will be doing everything possible to locate the $747 needed to meet the goal.

Last week when the fund was still $5,925 away from the goal, Witkowski reported that the committee had about exhausted its source of major donations. Only $500 to $600 in donations could be foreseen at that time.

The Community Fund started October 19 and dragged at a slow pace far behind last year when the goal was some $5,000 smaller. Closing date of the drive was set at November 11 but when only half of the goal was reached on that date, an emergency meeting of the board of directors was called. It was voted to extend the campaign two weeks, until Thanksgiving.

Here, continued from last week, is a list of donations from business concerns and industry: Additional Contributions from Plymouth Public Schools Students $91.12; Marquis Toll House $35; Holloway's Wallpaper and Paint Store $10; Don Lightfoot Heating $25; The McLaren Company $100; Ellen's Hair Shop $5. City Lights Up Christmas Trees Thursday Night

Plymouth's Christmas season will officially open Thanksgiving night when finishing touches are put on the Yuletide decorations and downtown trees are lighted.

A 28-foot pine tree in the center of Kellogg park and smaller trees on each of the park's three points will be lighted along with a large tree at the intersection of Starkweather avenue and Mill street.

Decorating the two larger trees will be the Plymouth branch of the Michigan Division of the Women's National Farm and Garden association. This will be the first year that the group has made the decorations. The trim-

Although the majority of Plymouth's Chamber of Commerce retail merchants will begin staying open evenings for Christmas shopping on Thursday, December 9, five stores have indicated their stores will start one week earlier. Scheduled to open nights on Thursday, December 2 are Capitol Shirt Shops, Fashion Shoes, Graham's, Minerva's and Papes.

mings will be of aluminum, some in color, in the shapes of stars, balls, miniature Christmas trees and half moons.

The association will also hold its annual Christmas greens and bake sale on Friday and Saturday, December 10 and 11, at West Bros. Nash garage. Orders will be taken for wreaths, cookies and Christmas greens of any type. Money will be used for scholarships. The club has put four girls through college with proceeds from past sales.

Hours of the sale are from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on Friday and 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturday. Mrs. Roy Lindsay is chairman.

Besides the Christmas trees, 36 strings of lights will be strung over downtown streets and Liberty street. In addition, Christmas music will be played over a new downtown public address system. Nat Sibbold, secretary of the Chamber, estimates that cost of the decorations this year will be $2,100. The sound system, which is a permanent installation, costs about $1,200.

The city is working in cooperation with the Chamber to install the decorations.

A REPLICA of the original Plymouth as it appeared on the first Thanksgiving was created by the Bird school cub scouts of Den 1, Pack 23. The eight boys responsible for the painstaking project are shown above as they look over the finished product now on display in the lobby of the Mayflower hotel. The boys gathered their details from a mural in the hotel and then constructed each building, tree, street, object and person to exactly duplicate the scene. Clay animals are being hunted by clay Indians and Pilgrims in the woods; corrugated paper houses are topped with shredded wheat roofs; tables for the Thanksgiving feast are set with clay cuts of meat and loaves of bread and a replica of the Mayflower stands anchored in the bay. The creative cubs shown above are: (l. to r.) Jim Kropf, Douglas Eder, John Augustine, Tom Hoffman, Donn Kelly, David Roberts, Robert Baldwin and Jimmy Cooper.

Firemen Stage Porchlight Drive Wednesday Night for Benefit of Muscular Dystrophy

A lighted porchlight Wednesday night will mean that you are willing to come to the financial aid of those afflicted with muscular dystrophy.

City and township fire departments will sound their sirens at 6 p.m. Wednesday to remind citizens of the one-night campaign. Chief Robert McAllister of the city said that 20 regular and volunteer firemen will man the fire trucks and tour the city to collect donations wherever a porchlight is burning. Aiding the firemen in the city will be members of the Passage-Gayde post of the American Legion.

In the township, Chief Bud Holmes said that his men will collect money from anyone telephoning the township hall between 6 and 9 p.m. By phoning 1933, a uniformed fireman will drive to the home to pick up the donation. No house-to-house tour is being made in the township because of the large and open areas.

Firemen in nearly every community in the nation are having similar campaigns. Local postmen (Continued on page 6)

Opening Festivities Start Friday for King Furniture

A new store will be added to Plymouth's growing list of business firms this Friday when King Furniture opens its doors at Forest avenue and Wing street.

Ten thousand square feet of floor space has been readied for showroom purposes, it was announced by Frank Walsh, manager of the new store. Walsh was formerly associated with Blunk's Inc. Modern, colonial and casual styles of furniture will be handled by King Furniture.

The opening celebration will feature the awarding of prizes including an expense-paid trip to Florida and bedroom or living-room suites. In addition, all visitors will receive souvenirs.

This will be the second store operated by King Furniture, the other being located in Detroit. Policy of the new store, Walsh stated, "will be to present the finer furniture lines at lower than big city prices." He added that the store "guarantees to refund customers' money if the item can be bought for less elsewhere."

Furniture lines found at King Furniture will be Jamestown, Koheler, Lewisburg, Empire, Pennsylvania House, DeKor, Stickle and Kingsley.

Walsh, who has lived in the community 16 years, will be aided by his wife, another full-time clerk and additional local help when needed. The store will remain open evenings until Christmas following its opening Friday. Following Christmas, the store will follow the same schedule as other retail stores here. Ample parking facilities will be found at the side and rear of the building.

48th Christmas Seal Sale Opens

A half-million Christmas seals went out Monday to 1,250 homes in the Plymouth area, marking the opening of the sale to raise money to fight tuberculosis in Plymouth and the whole of Wayne county.

Mrs. Frederick E. Bentley, 46801 Joy road, has been appointed chairman of the 48th annual Christmas seal sale in Plymouth. Richard L. Lea, county director of the Tuberculosis and Health society, is also a Plymouth resident.

The average envelope will contain two sheets of the seals which traditionally sell for a cent apiece. This year's "double" seals, however, are something new. A picture of five children with a Christmas tree is completed on two seals instead of one. The seal is the sole support of the program of the TB and Health Society in its work of cutting down tuberculosis and aiding tuberculosis patients.

Nearly 10,000 people working or living in the Plymouth area received a direct benefit from the society early this year when the Chestmobile x-rayed chests here. A number of TB cases were discovered.

Commissioner Race Attracts Three More

Three more men have announced their intentions to file petitions for the five vacancies which will occur on the city commission next spring. The three include two incumbents, Commissioners Marvin Terry and Robert Sincok, and a person new to the political profession, Harry Roberts.

George Witkowski, owner of the Plymouth Dental Laboratory here, announced his candidacy last week.

Though the primary election is not until February 21 and the general election will be April 4, candidates are required to file their nominating petitions on or before January 3.

Roberts is division manager of the Utilities Line Construction company here. He was president of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce for two years, has been campaign chairman of the Community Fund and is a member of the School Community Planning group, Kiwanis, Hi-12 and Masons. He lives at 585 McKinley.

Terry was appointed to the commission in July 1953 to fill a vacancy created when Commissioner Frank Arlen moved from the city. He is associated with his father in the operation of Terry's Bakery and is a member of the Plymouth Kiwanis club. The Terry home is at 1075 Roosevelt.

Sincok was appointed last August to fill the vacancy created when Commissioner Henry Fisher resigned due to ill health. He is owner of Bob's Standard Service station, is a member of the Knights of Columbus and Rotary club and lives at 309 Auburn.

To Feature Plymouth On TV Program

Local residents will have an opportunity to view scenes of their city Thanksgiving afternoon in a special Thanksgiving Day program to be presented over CKLW-TV channel 9 at 2:30 p.m. The program will be featured by CKLW's woman's editor, Myrtle Labbitt, on her regular afternoon TV spot.

The Mail's photographer snapped the above picture of Mrs. Labbitt when she was in town several weeks ago gathering material for the show. She is well known in the city having presented many interesting talks to various civic groups. A pioneer in radio and television she holds the distinction of presenting the first regular radio program over that station and is known far and wide for not only her radio and TV work but her most interesting lectures.

Unemployment Claims Drop

Weekly unemployment claims have dropped by 300 during recent months in the Plymouth area, it was announced today by Clarence Jetter, branch manager of the local Michigan Employment Security commission office. The reduction will make it possible for the office to make payments each week instead of bi-weekly, he added. Claims have been paid bi-weekly for the past 14 months.

"Reduction in our claims load by almost 300 weekly claims in the past eight weeks has reduced our work to the point where claimants will not be required to wait two weeks for a check," Jetter declared.

The peak claim load of the Plymouth office during the week of September 30 was 991. During the week ending last Thursday, November 11, claims had dropped to 690, a net reduction of 301. They are still dropping, Jetter added.

Supreme Court Case of City Compromised

A lawsuit which the city of Plymouth and Northville township have pending in the State Supreme court against the Northville Sand and Gravel company has been compromised and will be dropped from the court calendar pending approval by the judges.

City commissioners held a special meeting last Thursday night and an adjourned session Friday morning to discuss the compromise which was made at the suggestion of the Supreme Court itself.

The case against the Northville Sand and Gravel company was filed when the city feared that extensive digging and washing of gravel would result in the pollution of the nearby city well field, the city's only water source. The well field is located east of Beck road and south of Seven Mile road. The gravel company has property holdings north and west of the well field.

Northville township entered the case when it was charged that the gravel company was violating zoning restrictions. The two governmental units lost their case in a decision made in circuit court before Judge Vincent M. Brennan. They then carried it to the state court.

The case was scheduled to be set on the calendar for the Supreme Court's next term. But a letter from the court clerk to the city suggested that a compromise be reached with the city purchasing some of the gravel company land north of the well field.

Outcome of last week's city commission meeting was an offer to the gravel company to purchase 17 acres of land for $500 per acre. The offer has been accepted.

The agreement also provides that the city provide the gravel company an access road for 10 years over the newly-acquired land so that sand and gravel could be transported and that nearby digging operations would not incorporate screening and washing of gravel. In a compromise with Northville township, the company has agreed that gravel removed in certain areas near roads be backfilled.

Christmas Club Total Sets Record

An indication that Plymouth area people may be in for a bigger Christmas than ever was seen this week when $218,405 in Christmas Club checks, a record total, were mailed to savings-minded people in the area.

The amount is over $32,000 more than last year which was also a record year. And it is $47,000 more than the 1952 savings.

It is probable that most of the checks will go for the purchase of Christmas gifts and preparing for a major share of the business are local merchants. They have been heavily stocking their shelves for the season and they will complete their Christmas decorations this week.

There were 1,812 Christmas Club accounts in the Main street and Penniman avenue offices of the National Bank of Detroit. This is somewhat fewer than last year when 1,930 accounts were active. The average Christmas Club payment is $122.

Suffers Mild Polio

A Bird school third grade pupil is being treated for a mild case of polio and at the same time is believed to be suffering from mumps.

He is Dennis Hunt, 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Hunt, Jr., 570 Blunk. Dennis is confined to University hospital in Ann Arbor where he was taken Thursday. His parents reported Monday that Dennis is "past the crisis" and has suffered the ailment in his back and legs, but that no permanent paralysis has resulted.

His parents were also told Monday that it appears that Dennis has the mumps.

With another prosperous year nearing its end—a rare year which has brought peace to the world—Plymouth citizens will join other Americans this Thursday for a day of Thanksgiving.

It was in the year of 1620, exactly 334 years ago, that the Pilgrim ship Mayflower arrived in Plymouth, Massachusetts

P.T.A. Workshop Bringing State, County Officers

Hundreds of parents and teachers are expected next Tuesday night for a P.T.A. Workshop at Allen elementary school in which state and county officers will participate.

The Parent-Teacher associations of seven schools are urging all its members and officers to attend the workshop which begins at 7:30. The event is designed to acquaint Plymouth members with the P.T.A. duties and purposes.

A general meeting will open the evening with Dr. Everett J. Soop, regional vice-president of the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers, as the speaker. His topic will be "This I Believe."

The audience will then break up into discussion groups with each person selecting the speaker and topic which interests him most. The discussion periods will last 45 minutes and will be led by the following people:

Mrs. Charles Neldrett, first vice-president of Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers. (Continued on page 6)

Sunday's Concert To Feature Violin Of Josef Lazaroff

Violinist Josef Lazaroff will be the featured soloist this Sunday as the Plymouth Symphony orchestra presents its second concert of the season. Conductor Emil Raab will raise his baton at 4:00 p.m. in the Plymouth high school auditorium.

Concertmaster of the orchestra, Lazaroff is well known for his fine phrasing, purity of tonal quality and excellent technique. He made his first solo appearance at the age of eight and was winner of state and midwest young artists' contests at 18. He has appeared in Tampa, New York, Toledo, Cleveland and Detroit and in numerous theatre and radio performances.

The program will include: Roman Carnival Overture by Berlioz; Symphonie Espagnole by Lalo and Allegro non troppo, Allegro molto (Scherzando), Andante, Allegro (Rondo); Barber's Essay for Orchestra, Op. 12; and Rumanian Rhapsody No. 1 by Enesco.

All Plymouth Symphony orchestra concerts are open to the public without charge. Subsequent programs to be presented in this, the ninth season, are: December 12, The Messiah; January 30, Family Concert "Magic in Music"; March 6, Brahms Requiem; and April 17, William Doppmann, pianist.

Hi-12 Benefit Program to Feature Variety of Professional Performers

Magic, music and dancing will be performed on the stage of the Plymouth high school auditorium Wednesday evening, December 1, as the Plymouth Hi-12 club undertakes its first Benefit Show. The entertainment will be strictly professional and outstanding in its variety. Headlining to gain religious freedom. Plymouth, Michigan citizens will be able to take advantage of this religious freedom. Thanksgiving Eve and Thanksgiving day when numerous church services will be held.

All business will come to a standstill for the holiday and schools will be dismissed from Wednesday afternoon until Monday morning.

The holiday will also mean heavy road traffic as relatives visit relatives. Police are issuing a warning for extra care since many people will be in a hurry to go a long distance in the one day.

The traditional feast will mean another big day for Ole King Turkey which is said to be more abundant than ever this year. Prices have also decreased, probably making the turkey more popular than ever, too.

Ten churches, members of the Plymouth Ministerial association will join Wednesday night for Union Thanksgiving Eve services. The service will be held at the Church of the Nazarene, 41550 East Ann Arbor trail, starting at 8 p.m. The following is the program:

Responsive reading, the Reverend John Walaskay, pastor of Plymouth Assembly of God; invocation and Lord's Prayer, the Reverend Henry Walch, D.D., First Presbyterian church; reading of the president's proclamation, the Reverend E. B. Jones, Riverside Park Church of God; Thanksgiving prayer, the Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson, D.D., First Methodist church; scripture reading, the Reverend Merton Henry, Seventh Day Adventist; offertory, the Reverend Patrick Clifford, Calvary Baptist church; (Continued on page 6)

Band Prepares Annual Show

"Rhapsody in Rhythm" is the name given the Plymouth high school band's new show which will be presented Friday, December 3, it was announced this week by Director Laurence Livingston.

This will be the fourth annual show for the 61-piece band. It will start at 8 p.m. in the new gymnasium.

New music, new features and new enjoyment is promised by Director Livingston. One of the novelty features of the program will be the appearance of a "guess conductor," William Dial, director of instrumental music at Flushing, Michigan high school.

There will also be a Latin dance routine; appearance of three vocalists, Joan Donnelly, a student, Ted Hunter, of Detroit and Nat Sibbold, popular local soloist. The "God Bless America Story" narrated by Herb Salter will be presented for the first time and a color, sound film on the 1953 trip of the Michigan State band to the Rose Bowl will be seen. The full program will be announced next week.

Macintyre - Preston Ceremony Solemnized at Livonia Church

At a candlelight ceremony on October 30 in the Newburg Methodist church of Livonia, Shirley Joyce Preston became the bride of Robert Stewart Macintyre. Shirley is the daughter of Mrs. E. Preston of 465 Evergreen, Plymouth, and Donald Thomas Preston of Flint. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. A. Macintyre, 8937 Newburg, Livonia and the late Robert F. Macintyre.

The seven o'clock service was read by the Reverend Robert Richards before an altar graced with baskets of beautiful white mums. Mrs. Paul Nixon presided at the organ.

Shirley, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of nylon net over nylon taffeta, with plume of Chantilly lace and Queen Anne neckline. Long gloves of matching lace were worn with the short-sleeved gown. Her finger-tip veil of net was held in place by a coronet headpiece of satin covered with Chantilly lace and orange blossoms adorning the sides and scattered along the edge of the veil. The bride carried a white Bible and bouquet of white roses.

Betty Ann Tibbitts of Plymouth was maid of honor. She wore a strapless gown in burnt orange shade. Her shrug and hat with nose veil matched the color of her dress. Talisman roses in colonial design were carried by Miss Tibbitts. Bridesmaids were Nancy Lester of Livonia and Marlene Hennan of Detroit, who wore gowns of aqua fashioned like that of the maid of honor and carried colonial bouquets of yellow roses.

James Macintyre assisted Robert as best man, and seating the guests were James Bell and Richard Houston.

Mrs. Preston wore a street-length dress of rose beige with brown accessories, while Robert's mother chose a navy dress of street length with dusty rose accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held which was attended by 150 guests from Detroit, Flint, Farmington, Plymouth, Livonia and Hamburg, Michigan.

For traveling the new Mrs. Macintyre changed to a blue suit with brown accessories and a white rose corsage. The young couple honeymooned in the Smokey and Blue Ridge mountains and the Carolinas.

Shirley received her diploma from Plymouth high school in 1953, and Bob graduated from Plymouth high school in 1947. He is a patrolman on the Livonia police force and the couple will reside in Livonia.

Edythe Donnelly to Wed in Late December

Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Gabel announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their niece, Edythe Donnelly, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Donnelly of Plymouth to Mr. Herman Erke of Birmingham, son of Mrs. F. E. Erke and the late Mr. Erke of Ridgehill, Missouri.

A late December wedding is being planned.

Attend Tribute to Mason

A group of Plymouth area people were among those who attended the recent dinner at the Detroit Masonic Temple at which tribute was paid to the late George W. Mason, president of American Motors.

Attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Richwine, Nellie Ebersole and a number of executives of Whitman-Barnes.

The inspiring tribute was given at a dinner of the Detroit Round Table of Catholics, Jews and Protestants. George Romney was the speaker.

Missing Boy Found Just too Ambitious

While thousands of cases have been recorded of little boys disappearing from home to avoid school, here's the story with a new twist—a boy who disappeared from home to go to school.

It was last Thursday morning that Gary Jones, seven-year-old son of Reverend and Mrs. E. B. Jones, 292 Arhur, quietly got out of bed, dressed, and slipped out the front door into the darkness. His parents later arose, found Gary missing and started a frantic search. They combed the neighborhood and telephoned parents of Gary's young friends. Police were summoned. They too searched the house and neighborhood.

But there was nothing to worry about. Gary had merely gone to school. A Bird school custodian arriving at 6:50 found Gary sitting on the school steps. School officials later called Gary's parents who were informed that their son was apparently suffering from nothing more than over-ambition.

Symphony Ball Plans Revealed

Arrangements began this week for the Plymouth Symphony Society's annual Christmas season Symphony Ball. General chairman of the social event is Mrs. Wilson Augustine.

A project of the Plymouth Symphony Board of Directors for the benefit of the orchestra, the Ball has always been the highlight of the Yuletide social season. This year Mrs. Augustine believes the December 27 dance will be the finest ever staged.

Chief reason for this is the scheduled return of Sammy Woolf and his orchestra, popular Detroit aggregation that was wonderfully received at the Spring Ball. Woolf's orchestra plays regularly in Detroit night spots and for television and radio stations.

Assisting Mrs. Augustine will be Mrs. Willis McCabe, who will have charge of decorations. The newly formed Women's service league of the Symphony Society under the chairmanship of Mrs. Harold Kellogg will also play a large part in staging the event. It will again be held at the high school.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Richard Kimbrough and Mrs. John Shackleton were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Arnold of Burroughs avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lodge of Reservoir road and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing and children of Church street spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. James Blake in Galesburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Ross and daughters, Beverly and Betsey, and Mrs. Sara Ross will be Thanksgiving dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Horton Morrow in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Cook and family of Garden City and Mr. and Mrs. William Compton and family of Brookline road will spend Thanksgiving as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing of Church street.

Bermuda Trip Again Awaiting Local Shopper

A week's trip to Bermuda for two will be the Christmas gift some shopper in Plymouth will receive when the Chamber of Commerce's "Shop in Plymouth" campaign closes December 23.

Merchant members of the Chamber of Commerce are again sponsoring the "Shop in Plymouth" campaign which opens this Friday, Nat Sibbold, secretary of the Chamber announced.

Not only does the winner receive the plane trip to Bermuda and back, but all meals and hotel accommodations will be paid for and expense money furnished for tips and other necessary items.

Merchants sponsored the shopping campaign for the first time last year. Winners then were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mielbeck, 263 Farmer street. They flew to New York City from Willow Run airport and there boarded another plane for Bermuda.

Other prizes are also being offered. The second prize winner will receive a Brownie movie camera and projector and third prize will be an Evans-Colson bicycle. Eight more winners will be awarded $10 gift certificates. Winners of the prizes will be selected at 2 p.m. on December 23 at the Mayflower hotel. Complete details and rules of the campaign can be secured from any of the participating merchants.

OBITUARIES

Steve Coropulis

Funeral services will be held Friday, November 26, at 1 p.m. at the Schrader Funeral home for Steve Coropulis who passed away suddenly Tuesday morning, November 23, at the age of 63 years. His home was at 34015 Hathaway, Livonia. Mr. Coropulis was employed at the department of Public Works for the City of Livonia.

Surviving are his sister, Mrs. Anna Brown of Livonia; and his god-son, Gus Gumas of Livonia. Interment will be made in White Chapel cemetery.

The Reverend Henry E. Hodge
 Graveside services will be held Friday, November 26, at 11 a.m. for the Reverend Henry E. Hodge who passed away Sunday, November 21, in Melrose, Massachusetts. The Reverend Henry J. Walch will officiate.

The Reverend Hodge was born in Redford township and spent his early life in this area. He attended school in Plymouth and Ann Arbor. Following his ordination as a minister, he went East and has ministered there until his retirement in 1948.

The Reverend Hodge is survived by his wife, Evelyn, and a cousin, Mr. B. A. Hodge, who lives at 11686 Francis street in Plymouth township.

Interment will be made in the family lot in Riverside cemetery.

Billy Ray McIntosh
 Billy Ray McIntosh, the 9 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl McIntosh, died Friday evening, November 19th, after a very brief illness. The baby was taken to University Hospital Friday afternoon where death occurred.

Surviving are the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl McIntosh, who live at the corner of Cherry Hill and Goffredson Roads, one brother, David Earl McIntosh, and the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch McIntosh, and Mr. and Mrs. Will McIntosh.

Billy Ray was taken to Jackson, Kentucky where funeral services were held Sunday afternoon. Interment was made in the Jackson cemetery.

Mrs. Mildred N. Couillard
 Funeral services for Mrs. Mildred N. Couillard were held Tuesday, November 23rd at 3 o'clock. Mrs. Couillard lived at 9924 Berwick in Rosedale Gardens, Livonia. She was 69 years of age. Mrs. Couillard was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor on November 13th. Her death occurred there on November 21st, early in the morning.

Surviving are her husband, Mr. Henry Couillard, one daughter, Mrs. Muriel Furlong of Redford Township, one son Mr. Wilford Couillard of Coldwater, Michigan, and four grandchildren. Also surviving are one sister, Mrs. Bertha Keyes of Rush, N. Y. and one brother, Mr. Fred Newton of New London, Connecticut.

Mrs. Couillard was a member of the Rosedale Presbyterian Church. Reverend J. Woodrow Wooley officiated at the funeral services which were held at the Schrader Funeral Home. Hymns were played on the chapel organ by Mrs. Edna O'Conner. The pall bearers were Messrs. John W. Ottinger, Robert Couillard, Emory Weiss, George Couillard, Jr., Charles May, and Harry Adams. Interment was made in Riverside Cemetery.

Michael Peter Perzyk
 Mr. Michael Peter Perzyk, who resided at 37849 Schoolcraft Road, passed away very suddenly Saturday morning, November 21st. He was 60 years of age. His death was the result of an automobile accident which occurred in Garden City between 2 and 3 a.m.

Mr. Perzyk had lived in Livonia since 1942. His former home was Dearborn. By trade a tool and die maker, Mr. Perzyk worked in Detroit at The Frederick Coleman & Sons Die Manufacturing Co. He was on his way home from work when the accident occurred.

Surviving are his wife Mrs. Celia M. Perzyk, one daughter, Mrs. Virginia Tabbert of Livonia, two sons, Mr. Conrad Perzyk of Tipton, Mich., and Mr. Robert Perzyk of Livonia, and two grandchildren. Also surviving are several brothers and sisters.

The Rosary was recited at the Schrader Funeral Home Tuesday evening, November 23rd at 7:30. Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Father Francis C. Byrne at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church where Mr. Perzyk was a member, at 9:30 a.m. Wednesday, November 24th. Interment was made in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

Mrs. Sarah A. Davis
 Following a long illness, Mrs. Sarah A. Davis, who resided at 649 South Harvey Street, passed away early Thursday, November 18th. She was 57 years of age. Death occurred at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor where Mrs. Davis was taken three weeks ago.

Mrs. Davis had made her home in Plymouth for the past four years. She formerly lived in Detroit. While living in Detroit she joined the Calvary Presbyterian Church. Soon after moving to Plymouth, she transferred her membership to the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth where she was a member at the time of her death. Mrs. Davis was a registered nurse and some years ago she worked in her profession at Whitman-Barnes Co.

Surviving are her husband, Mr. Thomas Davis, two daughters, Mrs. Emily Cochrane of Plymouth and Miss Doris Martin of Wayne, one grandchild, Clifford Thomas Cochrane, and two brothers, William A. Stewart of Saginaw and Robert Stewart of Independence, Mo.

Funeral services were held at 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning, November 20th at the Schrader Funeral Home. Dr. Henry Walch was the officiating minister. Hymns were played on the chapel organ by Mrs. Velma Searfoss. The pall-bearers, all fellow employees of Mr. Davis at Whitman-Barnes, were Messrs. William Targett, Louis L. Sievert, Olin Kirk, John Nagel, Albert Kellerman, and C. M. McIntyre. Interment was made in Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Melow and sons, Carl and David of Spring street will entertain Thanksgiving for Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Kalmbach of Milford and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kalmbach and family of Cleveland, Ohio. The Herbert Kalmbachs will remain until Monday with the Melows.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Reeder and two sons of Ford road spent last week at Rapid River in northern Michigan.

St. John's Bazaar Offers Residents Chance to Shop for Christmas

Visitors at the annual bazaar sponsored by St. John's Episcopal church on Friday and Saturday, December 3 and 4, will have an opportunity to work off some of the items on their Christmas gift list among the many unusual and attractive gifts featured at the annual event. Hours for the bazaar are from 2-9 p.m. Friday and 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Saturday.

The ladies of the church assure Plymouthites that if they're looking for house decorations, from the daintiest angels to Christmas tree ornaments, the bazaar is the place to find them—and all handmade, too. Many different types of planters will also be offered to the Christmas shoppers.

A collection of ceramic figurines will be displayed for sale at one of the booths. Inexpensive in price, the articles have been made with careful artistry.

Aprons galore will be featured at the two-day event and shoppers will find them in every style, color and size. Along with these there'll be booths with gifts for the house and for the children.

Speaking of children, the ladies of the church have planned a special children's booth which will have toys of every type and description in complete array. Then, too, there's the tree completely trimmed with colorful, beautiful hankies.

The country store is just what its name implies—everything from soup to sorghum! Homemade jellies and jams and many other items will be for sale.

Plymouth shoppers may also stop by the baked goods booth. There they'll be able to buy homemade fruitcakes, breads, cookies, candies and many other goodies.

If the many attractions at the bazaar should prove too much and shoppers get foot-weary, they'll be able to enjoy a quick "pick-me-up" over a cup of tea offered on each of the two days of the annual event.

Goldkette Concert to Have 'Something for Everyone'

A program which will have "something for everyone" is being planned by Jean Goldkette, one of America's great pianists, who will appear in Plymouth on Monday night, December 2 for the benefit of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra.

Sponsoring the program is the Plymouth Rotary club.

The name "Goldkette" to most people means great dance bands—organizations he whipped together during the fabulous "Era of Swing." Some of his proteges are Russ Morgan, Jimmy and Tommy Dorsey, Hoagy Carmichael, Glen Gray, Glen Miller, Artie Shaw and Bix Beiderbecke. His name is also remembered from the Jean Goldkette Victor Recording Orchestra, his coast-to-coast tours, radio programs and the millions of records played in homes across the nation.

But only a few knew that Gold-kette started as a serious musician, trained as a concert pianist under the masters of Europe and America. His program here will include not only some of the more familiar classics of Chopin, Liszt, Debussy, but also the melodies of Strauss, Gershwin and Romberg.

The benefit concert will be held in the high school auditorium. Tickets are available from any member of the Rotary club.

Goldkette is celebrating the 25th anniversary of the first triumphal tour of his recording orchestra and also of his first appearance as a guest artist pianist with the famous Detroit Symphony orchestra.

Following his present tour to help raise funds for the hundreds of service clubs active in civic work, he will appear in Hollywood for the filming of "The Jean Goldkette Story."

Rotary Anns Net $558 In Sale for Handicapped

The fifth annual Rotary Anns sale of items made by the handicapped netted $558 for the physically disabled children and adults, according to Mrs. David Mather, chairman of the event. Proceeds of the sale, which was held at Stop and Shop Tuesday through Saturday of last week, will go to the individuals making the articles.

Mrs. Mather was assisted by Mrs. Robert Wesley, Mrs. Frank Allison and Mrs. Sam Hudson. Some 24 Rotary Anns participated in the five-day event.

The reason most people have little money is because it is much easier to spend money than to save it.

Kirchoff Opens New Implement Business Here

Another new business enterprise today opened its doors to serve the Plymouth community.

The firm is owned and operated by M. L. Kirchoff, widely-known local resident, and will sell and service International Harvester company products.

Known as the Kirchoff Implement company, the establishment is located in a new, modern building at 50975 Ann Arbor road, between Joy and Napier roads.

Associated with Mr. Kirchoff in the new enterprise are his wife, Jane, and their son, Dick. Mrs. Kirchoff will handle the office work connected with the business, while Dick heads up the sales force.

Andy Banta, a widely-experienced veteran of the farm implement trade, has been named service manager.

Russell Miller, of Dixboro road, is parts manager.

The new firm will handle a complete line of International Harvester implements, Farmall tractors, refrigeration and air conditioning equipment.

History Class Reads Letters of Olden Days

Some old and very interesting letters were brought to the third hour history class of Mr. Henry Reeves recently by Marilyn Smith. The letters, some of which dated back as far as 1812, were from a soldier in the American army and described vividly the war of 1812.

The letters were written by George Leakapadie, who was present at the battle of New Orleans. Mr. Reeves estimated the value of the letters at approximately $100 a piece.

Seniors Plan Boat Trip

A senior trip by boat was voted for by a majority of the senior class Monday at a meeting held in the study hall during noon hour. Wayne Smith presided over the meeting while Tom Rowe and Dave Bowen outlined a New York trip and a boat trip for the students.

After a show of hands proved in favor of the water excursion, it was stated that several trips are offered and will be presented to students for selection. One trip goes by train to Chicago, and by boat from Chicago to Mackinac Island and returns to Detroit.

A special "Family Rally" has been scheduled for Sunday, November 28. A team of visiting laymen from Detroit representing the Christian Home League will present a full variety program beginning at 10:00 a.m.

A beautiful six-color reproduction of a remarkable modern American painting will be dedicated during the rally program. The picture, now nationally famous, had its origin with Lt. Col. James A. Bryant, divisional chaplain for the "Fighting Fourth" Armored Division in Normandy. Already this picture hangs in over 2,000 churches across the United States where it has been dedicated in similar family rallies sponsored by the CHL. Col. Bryant, now executive director for the Christian Home League, with headquarters in Syracuse, N.Y., engaged Fred S. Bruner of Philadelphia to paint the picture as an emblem for the League's laymen's movement, which has now assumed national proportions. Late reports from the league's nation-wide front will also be given.

In announcing the unusual dedication, Rev. Jones cordially invites the public. The entire rally service is free.

Sunday night at 7:30 Reverend Hoover from the Northwestern Church of God in Detroit will be the guest speaker.

Wednesday December 1 the Ladies Missionary Society of the church will be in charge of the prayer service. Mrs. Freda Harder will be in charge of the service.

Reverend and Mrs. E. B. Jones and their children will spend the Thanksgiving holiday with Rev. and Mrs. J. M. Bentley of Ashtabula, Ohio, parents of Mrs. Jones.

Assembly of God Church To Hold Annual Convention of Missionaries

The Reverend Sophie Erhardt

The annual missionary convention will be held at the local Assembly of God church, Ann Arbor trail and Riverside drive, on Sunday, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Services will be held at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday, and at 7:45 on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

The missionaries will be the Reverends Sophie Erhardt of India, Paul Goodwin of Jamaica, William Stepp of Venezuela, and Mary Martin of Liberia.

Colored slides and motion pictures of the countries represented will be shown and various curios will be on display at each service.

The Reverend William C. Stepp

Local Science Church Holds Special Service

The First Church of Christ Scientist, located on the corner of Main and Dodge streets, will hold a special Thanksgiving service in keeping with all Christian Science churches throughout the country. The service will be held in the local church at 10:30 a.m. Thanksgiving day.

Following the usual order of service there will be a brief period in which members of the congregation may express their gratitude for healings and other help which they have received during the past year.

The Golden Text from Psalms 50:14 is appropriate for the occasion and reads: "Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto the most High."

The Bible citations include Psalms 107:1, "O give thanks unto the Lord, for he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever."

Among the citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, page 3, will be the following: "Are we really grateful for the good already received? Then we shall avail ourselves of the blessings we have, and thus be fitted to receive more. Gratitude is much more than a verbal expression of thanks. Action expresses more gratitude than speech."

The first Seventh-day Adventist church in Belleville was erected on the same lot in 1904, which was donated by two of the pioneer members after the company of believers had been meeting for service in their home for several years. Their generosity was responsible for most of the financing of the erection of the church. This frame building served the community well but within the last three years the growth has been so rapid that expansion was necessary. The original building has now been demolished and the newly-erected one will be finished in brick veneer.

Regular hours for the services will be observed.

St. John's Holds Tea

A sampling of articles to be on sale at the St. John's Episcopal church bazaar were on display yesterday at a preview tea held in the parish hall. The bazaar is set for Friday, December 3, from 2 to 9 p.m. and on Saturday, December 4, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Visitors at the tea got a chance to chat with members of the Woman's Auxiliary, sponsors of the event, as well as sample the fruit cake and cookies which will be available to the public at the annual bazaar. Although some orders for articles were taken, none of the items were sold at the tea.

New Seventh-Day Adventist Church Opens Saturday

The opening of the new Belleville Seventh-day Adventist church which has been erected under the supervision of the Reverend Merton Henry, pastor of the Plymouth and Belleville churches, will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday, November 27, at East Liberty street, Belleville.

The Reverend Rau from the denominational Michigan conference headquarters at Lansing will be guest speaker at the service. Associate pastors and officers of various churches and members of the Plymouth church will be in attendance.

VILIS V. TRAVIS, Plaintiff, vs. JACK V. TRAVIS, Defendant.
No. 823-218
F. of C. No. 166-139.

ORDER OF PUBLIC SALE AND APPEARANCE
At a session of said Court held at the Wayne County Building in the City of Detroit, Michigan, on the 24th day of October, A.D. 1954.

PRESENT: HONORABLE JOHN V. BRENNAN, Circuit Judge

It appearing from the Affidavit of VILIS V. TRAVIS, Plaintiff herein, and the return of service attached to the Summons originally issued in this matter, on file in said cause, that the Defendant, JACK V. TRAVIS, is not now a resident of the State of Michigan, but resides at 434 Carondelet Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, and that process for his appearance having been duly issued and that the same could not be served by reason of his continued absence from within the State of Michigan, and it being ascertained that the said Defendant's present address is 434 Carondelet Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, therefore, on motion of EARL J. DEMEL, attorney for the Plaintiff herein, IT IS ORDERED that the Defendant,

New 1955 Rambler Country Club

American Motors' new 1955 Rambler Country Club, on a 100-inch wheelbase, features modern styling refinements and outstanding maneuverability. According to George Romney, president, the Rambler will become the first "basic volume car" sold and serviced by both Nash and Hudson dealers. The Country Club and all Rambler models feature a newly styled grille, and improved front and rear suspensions. The new hardtop model offers open air advantages of convertibles but with the safety of sedan models. Other Rambler models include the two-door "Suburban" station wagon and Club Sedan in the 100-inch wheelbase series, and the four-door Cross Country station wagon and Sedan model in the 108-inch wheelbase series.

JACK V. TRAVIS, appear and answer the Bill of Complaint filed in these proceedings within three (3) months from the date of this Order or said Bill of Complaint will be taken as true copy of this Order shall be sent by registered mail, return receipt requested, to the Defendant, JACK V. TRAVIS at 434 Carondelet Avenue, New Orleans, Louisiana, that being his last known address, at least twenty (20) days before the date above prescribed for his appearance.

APPREHENDING FELLOW Lions John C. Ryder, left, and Lawrence P. Money was no easy job for Officer Chuck Thompson, especially when the pair was bent on skipping town to avoid eating a bean dinner. In the right background is Lion Tail-twister Cameron Lodge. Local Lions have divided into two teams for their current membership drive. Those on the team submitting the most new names will be awarded a steak dinner while the losers eat beans. In line for steak is Thompson, while Money and Ryder, so far on the losing team, have a bean dinner in prospect.

Grange Cleanings

On Thursday night of last week, November 18, the Grange was the scene of a very fine occasion when the new officers were installed—Andy Campbell of Ann Arbor assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Groeb, their daughter, Jean; and John Allen, all of Ann Arbor; did the installing. Coffee and cakes were served later.

Henry Bridger is in Sessions hospital for some time following a serious operation. He is coming along very nicely and will be home in a week or so.

Mr. and Mrs. Vealey visited their cousin, Mrs. Kate Robson, near Belleville on Sunday.

Next week Thursday night, December 2, we shall have a very worth while meeting so we hope all of our new members will be there. The fine degree team from Tecumseh will be here to confer the third and fourth degrees on our class of nine candidates. Their work is beautiful to see so do come out and show that we appreciate their coming. It is especially urged that our members get there as near 6 p.m. as is possible, not later than 6:30 at most so we may eat our supper first and get it over by the time the Tecumseh group gets here. It is pot luck of course except that the meat will be furnished by the Grange so just add an extra spoonful or two to your dish so we will be sure to have enough.

Now we are starting on our new official year with some new officers and if the members will come and show an interest in our Grange and encourage the officers it will help a lot. No organization is any better than its members, for the officers cannot carry the whole thing alone. There are plans being made for a worthwhile year if you as members will do your part. So start out by coming on Thursday night, December 2 and come early.

The Bazaar is coming rapidly. We hope each one will feel a responsibility to make it a success. We need articles for the various booths and baked goods, too. Don't forget those yummy "Sloppy Joe's" that will be served from about 11 a.m. they are good!!! And it will be a good place to drop in for your lunch.

Three from Madonna To Attend Conference

Sr. M. Raynelda, English instructor at Madonna college, and two future English teachers, Alice and Rose Wolak, seniors, will represent the college at the 44th Annual Meeting of the National Council of Teachers of English, (NCTE). The meeting will be held at the Hotel Statler in Detroit, Nov. 23 to 27.

Some of the major themes to be discussed at the sessions are: "Utilizing Research, Experience, and Creative Imagination in Teaching the Language Arts," "Inducing Students to Write," and "New Challenges—New Solutions." This last session will deal with educational television, unit teaching, new views of grammar, and the bilingual problem.

Teachers and speakers from colleges and universities throughout the world will also be present.

Library Book Club Meets

The Library Book club will meet in the Dunning library on Tuesday, November 30, at 2 p.m. Mrs. Agnes Pauline, head librarian, will offer suggestions to the group on children's books for Christmas giving. A film will also be shown on "The Golden Twenties."

Mrs. Miller Ross of Ann Arbor trail is in charge of the program, which is open to the public.

New Barber Shop Opens

Monday saw the opening of the new Main Street Barber Shop located at 1058 South Main. Owner Raymond Pletcher has announced that he will be assisted by another full-time barber.

Formerly of Redford township, Pletcher now resides at 47590 Ann Arbor road.

Services On Thanksgiving

Two morning services, one at 8:45 another at 10:00 will be held at the Lutheran Church on Thanksgiving Day, November 25th—Why?

Because one service would not take care of the number of people who want to go to church on the Day of Thanksgiving, and not on some other day. There are so many who see no excuse for giving the day over to mere feasting and fun, that three services are being considered.

After all, this is entirely in keeping with the historic purpose of observing a National Day of Thanksgiving. Why should our churches be closed on that day, when it is annually set aside as not only a holiday, but a holy day by Presidential Proclamation? One of these reads "to encourage our people to go to their several houses of worship to return due thanks to God for the bounties of the fields and forests, the riches of our fisheries and mines, the prosperity of our trade and commerce, and for the great American institutions of freedom and free government, of equal opportunity and, in short, our entire American way of life."

Thus, the very day is to include church services of thanksgiving and praise. Especially in our day the churches ought to lead the people in holding fast our sound, American religious traditions in view of the fact that we are threatened by an atheistic power whose avowed aim and program is not only the destruction of the freedom of religion, but of religion itself!

This year, above all, we owe God humble thanks for sparing and blessing us: we were told that our choice of a military man for President would surely plunge us into an all-out, atomic war at the time of the Indo-China crisis. It did not come to pass! We were warned that the sharp cut-back in defense production would precipitate a depression. Actually, employment is on the rise! It was predicted that the severe drought and late frosts would cause a serious food shortage. But our crops were good!

Beside all this we owe sincere thanks to God as christian people for our freedom of religion, our freedom of speech and our right of assembly; for the precious gift of peace and for our opportunity because of our unique, God-given strength and wealth in natural resources to provide world leadership at this critical point in world history without imperialistic ambitions.

Thus, we owe it to our God, to our People and to our Government to set aside a portion of every Day of National Thanksgiving to enter our house of worship as families to render due and appropriate thanks to God our Maker and Redeemer!

Without the happy concerted response of our people to our invitation, "Come, Ye Thankful People, Come!"; these services could not be conducted. But, how could we do otherwise than urge them to come to return thanks to God before they go back to their several homes for the Thanksgiving feast and family fun? After all, we are thankful Americans, and we are thankful American Christians!

Maccabees Plan Christmas Party, Cite New Officers

The Maccabees will hold their annual Christmas party on Wednesday evening December 1. Starting off the evening's festivities will be a 6:30 potluck supper with turkey and all the trimmings. An entertainment program has also been planned and gifts will be exchanged by members.

New officers elected at the November meeting were: Nellie Johnson, commander; Ethel Emerson, past commander; Mary Sackett, lieutenant commander; Ethel Micol, record keeper; Dora Wood, chaplain; Hazel Norgrove, sergeant; Mabel Dicks, mistress-at-arms; and Zaida Gorton, first lady of guards.

Also elected were: Bethel Walters, second lady of guards; Olga Nilson, sentinel; Gladys Baker, picket; Grace Howard, Deborah; and Bessie McCullough, musician. Trustests will be appointed by Commander Nellie Johnson at a later date. District Manager Pearl

Callan of Farmington will install the officers on Wednesday, January 5.

There's Action Galore at Willoughby Camp

THE PANCAKES WERE GOOD and Lewis Goddard was caught in the act of mixing a batch to feed the hungry Willoughby hunters.

Russell Holmes, Mr. Willoughby, city attorney Harry Deyo, Frank Arlen, Dr. A. C. Williams and Carl Peterson. These hungry hunters feasted on such dinner delicacies as roast beef, roast chicken and specially prepared stuffed turkey roasted over a hickory flame.

HOST BOB WILLOUGHBY hangs his gun on the fancy rack made from the front feet and head of the first buck he ever shot at his spacious summer home on Lake Horizon near Gaylord. His vacation spot not only has in addition to its beautiful lodge a guest house but a corral and horse barn as well. Nine hunters made up the Willoughby party.

GET 'EM-CLEAN says Burrough's Robert Marsden, center, as he complains to Russell Holmes of Traverse City about the job of dish washing that local druggist Carl Peterson is doing. It didn't take Marsden long to learn that a deer hunting camp complaint is a dangerous thing. Dish washer Peterson promptly dried his hands and found an easy chair to fully enjoy a few drags on his favorite corn cob pipe.

THAT SAME OLD DINNER TABLE, soon after the evening meal was over, became the center of attraction for the hunters who played, as they explained, a new game called "deer hunter's bridge." Though only some of the antics of the game were familiar to the photographer it was noted that the score keeping was done with round plastic discs which resembled items we knew as poker chips. It was soon evident that the strategy of the game was to secure as many of the other players chips as possible during the long hours the game was in process. It was further noted that Dr. Williams thought so much of the discs that throughout the game he frequently bought stacks of them from some of the other players. Seriously engrossed in the game were Robert Marsden, back to the camera, then l. to r. Peterson, Goddard, Carmickel, Arlen, Willoughby and Williams. Other members of the party who didn't participate in the game explained that only so many could play at one time because there weren't enough discs to go around.

Campaign Opened By Farm Bureau

The Wayne County Farm Bureau will open its annual membership campaign next Monday, it was announced this week by Ray Hunter of Wyandotte, president of the organization.

A kick-off meeting will be held Monday night in Belleville starting at 8 p.m. It will be in the Van Buren township hall. Refreshments will be served by the Women's committee of the Farm Bureau headed by Mrs. Henrietta Burch, 43655 Joy road.

The statewide campaign will take workers into 64 counties. The Wayne county group hopes to welcome 595 families into its midst, according to Hunter, while the state goal is 65,559 families. Several thousand volunteers will take to the highways during the week to enroll 10,000 or more new members.

The Wayne County Farm Bureau board of directors has appointed Walter H. Scott, of the Huron Valley group as manager for the membership drive in Wayne county. He is inviting all Farm Bureau directors, captains and workers to attend the kick-off meeting.

Blind Lion Member Addresses Local Club

Members of the local Lions club will hear a blind representative from the Lions organization as guest speaker on December 2.

Charles D. Sullivan of the Division of Services for the Blind, State department of Social Welfare, will speak to the group assembled for the 6:30 dinner meeting in the Mayflower hotel. Sullivan is employment counselor for the blind in the state office and will review his work in that connection.

The rhetorician who laid down the rule, "Never use a preposition to end a sentence with," has been outdone by the child who asked, "What did you bring that book to me to be read to out of for?"

Who's New In Plymouth

PUTTING "BUTTONS" through her paces is Barbara Ann Cooper, daughter of the Sylvester Coopers, as she relaxes with her parents in the living-room of their home at 11691 Amherst court. Former residents of Dearborn, the newcomers arrived in Plymouth about a month ago. Cooper, a representative of the Equitable Life Assurance company of New York, has an office in the Penobscot building, Detroit. Both Mr. and Mrs. Cooper are active in the Dearborn Presbyterian church and sing in its choir, but hope to transfer their membership to the local church.

Announce Recent Wick-Mark Nuptials at Northville

At a candlelight ceremony held Saturday, October 16, at 8 o'clock in St. Paul's Lutheran church, Northville, Inez Wick became the bride of Frederick Wick.

Inez is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Henson of Nimitons, Arkansas and Frederick is the son of Doris Wick of Plymouth and Henry Wick of Northville.

The service was read by the Reverend Edgar Hoenecke of Plymouth before the altar graced of lighted tapers and baskets of fall mums. Miss Selma Schnute presided at the organ and Mrs. Florence Miller sang "O Perfect Love."

Inez was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, William Gidcomb, and wore a navy blue suit with white hat and accessories. Her flowers were a corsage of white carnations. The maid of honor, Clarice Henson, sister of the bride, wore a grey suit with a corsage of yellow mums. Laura Black, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid and wore a grey suit. Her flowers were rust-colored mums.

Lyster Wick, the bridegroom's brother, and Jack Miller served as best men. Seating the guests were David Bell and Bill Croll. Mrs. Wick chose a dress of old rose with navy blue hat and accessories with corsage of red roses.

Following the double ring ceremony a reception was held for 150 guests from Breedsville, Hartford, Kalamazoo, Detroit, Walled Lake, South Lyon, Northville, Plymouth and Waukesha, Wisconsin. The newly weds now reside at 9284 Northern avenue, Plymouth.

Is your jewelry really safe?

Down through the ages, gems and jewelry have been considered almost the equivalent of currency. Always marketable, they are the prime target of holdup men and burglars. Whether worn on one's person or stored in a wall safe at home, they are highly susceptible to loss by theft, fire, and other perils. Jewelry insurance can represent the difference between total loss of your highly valued treasures and the means to replace them. Call today and ask about this form of protection. We'll be glad to serve you.

Tells Recreation Men to Seek Out Public Opinion

The wants and desires of the public should be considered in the development of recreational facilities and programs was the advice given by a panel of Michigan recreation experts who met recently at Michigan State College.

The meeting was a two-day affair bringing park and recreation men together. It was co-sponsored by eight state-wide educational recreational and conservation groups, seeking to offer advice in improving and expanding facilities and programs.

"Let's be sure to ask the people what they want," advised Charles Webber, one of the Michigan Civil Service Commission.

"Their requests will be varied, but they will be simple. And by meeting these suggestions, our parks and programs will have a fresh look," Webber said.

The panel said that even though Michigan is far ahead of many states with its roadside tables, camping areas, parks, etc., many needs and problems are resulting from increased population.

The use of survey research to determine the wants of people, by recreation and park people, was advocated at the meeting by Justin Leonard, research administrator of the Michigan Conservation Department.

The conference was sponsored by the Michigan State College School of Education, the Department of Land and Water Conservation and the Michigan Inter-Agency for Recreation.

'C/O Postmaster' No Longer Used

It is no longer necessary to write the "C/O Postmaster" when addressing a letter through an Army post office, it was announced this week by Postmaster George Timpona.

It has been the practice for years to address a serviceman or civilian with an overseas Army post-office address "care of postmaster" New York or San Francisco. Dr. Timpona states that addresses should be confined to three lines. The following is an example: William Jones, R.A. 12345678 Co. F, 167th Infantry A.P.O. 703, New York, N.Y.

Match, Cigarette Started Majority Of 1953 Fires

Look at these figures. In 1953 fire claimed the lives of 11,000 people. In the same year fire destroyed 865 million dollars worth of property. The misuse of matches and cigarettes accounts for the largest percentage of this loss, 27 percent. Defective electrical appliances and wiring is second in line contributing to this appalling loss. Other causes of fire include sparks on roofs, overheated or defective chimneys, overheated stoves, furnaces or boilers, ignition of hot greases and explosions of various flammable liquids and gases.

THE FUNDAMENTAL cause of practically all the above fires is carelessness. With this thought in mind make it routine practice to observe the following suggestions:

1. Be sure every cigarette, pipe or cigar is out before you throw it away or put it down. Don't smoke near inflammable materials or liquids. Obey "no smoking" signs.
 2. Break matches before throwing them away. Keep matches out of reach of children. Don't use matches as lights to search dark places.
 3. KEEP MOTORS of all electrical appliances lubricated to avoid overheating. Keep combustibles a safe distance from all motors. Never hang extension cords from nails or hooks or run them under carpets. Replace worn or frayed cords on appliances.
 4. Don't use inflammable liquids in closed rooms or anywhere near open flames or sparks. Liquids such as gasoline, benzene and naphtha give off heavy vapors that can flow along the floor 200 feet or more to open flame and flash back to the container.
- Play It Safe! Remember an ounce of prevention is worth a ton of ashes.

Smaller Trees Called Safer For City Streets

The bigger they are the harder they fall is particularly true of street and highway trees in the path of hurricanes or other severe wind storms. So says a tree expert who would like to see smaller trees as the 'keystones' in community tree planting programs. Many street and highway trees are poorly anchored in their locations. That's because their roots are confined to limited areas and further curtailed by sewers, drains, gas lines, telephone cables, curbs and other essential roadway improvements.

The many public trees uprooted during Hurricane Carol and Edna point up the need for reevaluation of city and town tree needs, according to the expert. Careful consideration must be given to smaller species now being recommended to meet modern urban conditions.

Arboreal giants still have their place, and always will, where space permits. However, modern streets and highways place more and more limitations on living space for trees. The trend to ranch-type homes gives aesthetic impetus, as well, to smaller tree species.

New communities are favoring such shade and decorative species as flowering crabapple, certain types of hawthorns, globe locust, trident maples, evodia trees and many others. These new trends will require years for their fulfillment.

In the meantime, municipal authorities should insist upon frequent checks of all street and highway trees to meet safety requirements.

Cranbrook Sets New Attendance Record

More than 4,000 visitors to the Gardens of Cranbrook House in Bloomfield Hills during the past season set a record for both attendance and income, the Gardens Committee reported this week.

Over $2,000 netted through the garden program will go into scholarship funds for helping qualified students attend Kingswood School Cranbrook and Cranbrook School. Alumni of the two schools have sponsored the program for the past six years. Cranbrook House, the home of late Mr. and Mrs. George G. Booth, founders of the six Cranbrook institutions, is located in the center of a 40 acre park. The park contains formal and sunken gardens as well as casual plantings, cascades, pine walks and statuary.

 James D. Burris

James D. Burris, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fay Burris of 15480 Portis, Plymouth, aboard the amphibious force flagship USS Adirondack, has participated in the year's largest Atlantic Fleet Training exercise coded for brevity as "LANTFLEX 1-55".

The fleet exercise extended over much of the Eastern Atlantic, and culminated in an amphibious assault on Onslow Beach, North Carolina, November 18-20. Some 50,000 Navy and 26,000 Marine personnel and more than 200 surface ships, submarines, Naval and Marine air units took part in the maneuvers.

The exercise was designed to test the readiness of the fleet to carry out its war-time job of controlling the vital Atlantic sea lanes.

Joseph H. Crowther

Private Joseph H. Crowther, son of Mrs. Anne Brinton Crowther, 36027 Cowan, Plymouth, recently completed basic infantry training at Fort Leonard Wood with a unit of the 6th Armored division.

After induction into the Army at his home station, Crowther processed through the 5045th ASU Reception station at Fort Leonard Wood, where he received his initial Army clothing, and took the basic qualification and aptitude tests to determine his assignment in the Army after completion of basic training.

In the first eight weeks, he is being taught the basic elements of military life, how to defend himself individually and with a unit, how to live with other soldiers, basic infantry techniques, and other fundamental facts important to his success in the military service.

Upon completion of the eight-week infantry training cycle here with the famed "Super Sixth," he will receive a leave before beginning eight weeks of advance basic training, either at Fort Leonard Wood or another training installation.

Melvin E. Schultz

Second Lieutenant Melvin E. Schultz, son of Mr. and Mrs. August J. Schultz of 49780 Hanford road, Ypsilanti, has recently completed a basic infantry officer's course at Fort Benning, Georgia.

Schultz, a graduate of Plymouth high school, received his B. A. degree from Michigan State college in June of this year. He was assigned to Fort Benning on July 19, 1954.

The purpose of the 11-week course is to provide training for newly-commissioned officers who have not served with troops. It is designed to thoroughly indoctrinate the officer with his responsibilities and tasks as an infantry unit commander.

The course is but one of the 21 courses at the Infantry school open to officers and enlisted men of the regular Army, Organized Reserve corps, and National Guard. Courses range from training recruits to be parachutists to training regimental commanders and general staff officers.

Driving Tips For Wintertime

Winter motorists may find these timely suggestions helpful. For instance, a bag of sand in the car trunk for sprinkling under the rear wheels for traction may mean the difference between a freezing night in a roadside ditch and one's own cozy fireside.

A couple of cardboards will come in handy for motorists who park their cars in the open. The cardboards, if tucked under the windshield wipers, will insure clear glass against freezing rain or snow when motorists are ready to drive.

An old windshield wiper blade kept in the glove compartment also is useful on the rare occasion when cold weather moisture is heavy and causes fogging on the inside of the car. The blade will keep the glass clear longer than if the driver uses the palm of his hand.

One precautionary word is offered about batteries on sub-freezing days. Engineers warn against adding water unless the driver plans to go farther than just a few blocks afterwards. Until the water mixes thoroughly with the battery acid, it may freeze and damage the battery.

A good trick to use to thaw a frozen door lock is to hold a lighted match or the flame of a cigarette lighter to the car key and then insert the heated key into the lock.

If a motorist is caught in a sudden cold snap without sufficient anti-freeze, he can save his radiator—and all the troubles that go with frozen coolant—by slipping a large cardboard or a flattened paper shopping bag in front of the radiator until he reaches his auto dealer for service.

If the sharp drop in the thermometer is due overnight, the car owner can guard against a frozen radiator by hanging a lighted electric bulb under the hood of the car in his garage and draping a blanket over the radiator.

High School Swimmers Open Second Full Season December 10 with Ypsi

Waters of the Plymouth high school swimming pool are being churned extra hard these days as Coach John McFall puts his swimming team through its paces in preparation of the December 10 opening meet.

Twelve meets are on the 1954-55 schedule, six away and six at home. This will be the second full year of swimming for the Plymouth team, having only a half schedule when the pool opened two years ago.

Although swimming doesn't draw the public attention like the other winter sport, basketball, about 200 spectators turn out for the local varsity meets. The Plymouth pool has room for about 250 to 300 spectators.

Coach McFall led his inexperienced team through two wins and 10 defeats last season. The wins were over University high school in Ann Arbor and Dearborn Lowry.

Eight varsity lettermen are returning to the squad this year including Dave Beagle who was selected as the "most valuable swimmer" of the team last year. Captain of the current squad is Chuck McKenna. Others returning are Bob Eckard, Tom Rutherford, John Gregory, Gary Wright, Mike Conrad and Arthur Losse.

Coach McFall considers four others as good prospects for this year's varsity. They are Billy Brandell, Jimmy Archer, Dick Showers and John Williams.

About 10 boys will comprise the Plymouth team. With nine events in a swimming match, each swimmer will be entered in something like three events each. Events are the 50 yard, 100 yard and 200 yard free style, the 100 yard breast stroke, one meter diving, 150 yard individual medley, 150 yard medley relay and 200 yard free style relay.

Swimming is becoming a more important sport each year, Coach McFall claims. Because of the lack of swimming pools, there is no 8-B league in swimming, but two other schools in the league now have pools. More and more schools are constructing pools each year, McFall points out.

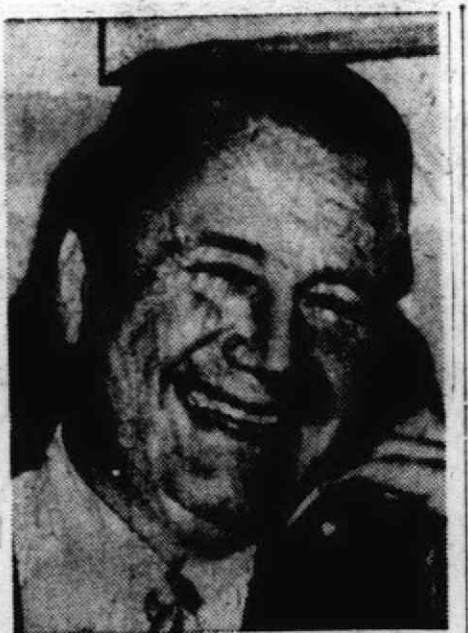

Unlike football or some other sports where a season or two of training can produce a fairly good team, it takes years of practice by individuals to make a good swimming team, McFall states. Each swimmer needs to build up his stamina over a period of years.

The junior varsity will also have a busy year ahead with 10 games on the schedule. Here is the schedule:

Dec. 15, Trenton, home; Dec. 21, Lincoln Park, away; Jan. 4, Highland Park, home; Jan. 11, Trenton, away; Jan. 13, Lincoln Park, home; Jan. 20, Birmingham, away; Jan. 26, Dearborn, home; Feb. 3, Dearborn, away; Feb. 9, Highland Park, away; Feb. 17, Birmingham, home.

All Junior varsity games are at 4 p.m. and are free of charge.

BUYS A's . . . Arnold M. Johnson of Chicago bought Philadelphia Athletics baseball club from Mack family for $3,375,000; and American League owners voted 6-2 favoring moving A's to Kansas City, Mo.

One Family Wins Two Prizes In Season's Final Grid Contest

The Plymouth Mail's annual "Pick-the-winners" football contest came to a close last week with one family dominating the returns and coming out with two of the first three prizes.

Two of the 10 entries submitted by the Kenneth G. Libbing family of 15512 Lakeside drive captured first and third place, respectively. Seven dollars and second place honors went to Dave Wilkin of 7803 Beck road. Actually, the judges had four entries with but two wrong selections. These entries also came very close to picking the correct professional game score. The fourth entry that just missed winning a prize belonged to Harvey Pankow of 551 Arthur.

In the Libbing family, father came out best in his selections and son, Fred, won third prize. For Fred it marked the third time he has finished among the top three prize winners.

Biggest stumbling block among the games was the Baylor-Southern Methodist game with L.S.U.'s upset of Arkansas running a close second. Sixty-per-cent of the contestants favored Michigan to upset Ohio State.

AFTER A DAY IN THE WOODS nothing is so cozy as a warming fire to sit near and talk about the bucks that got away. At least that's what we think these two well known Northvillites were getting ready for as we snapped them building a fire in their comfortable hunting spot near Oscoda. Throwing the logs on the fire is Herman Krauter while brother Wilbur holds open the screen. Neither scored a buck but both agreed a week in the woods was most worthwhile.

Salem Township

Mrs. Burton Rich,
Phone 1942-W1

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Hawker and family and Mr. and Mrs. William Compton and family attended a buffet supper at the home of Mrs. Doyle Quigg in East Ann Arbor Tuesday evening. Mrs. Quigg, director of the Ann Arbor Practical Nursing school, invited all the staff members and their families to her home to meet Miss Isabel MacIntyre of Aracaju, Serjipe, Brazil. Miss MacIntyre, director of Auxiliary Nursing program in Brazil, is on a three-months' tour sponsored by the Kellogg foundation.

Mrs. Hazel Blaess, Lapham school teacher, is ill and Mrs. Isabel Taylor of Ypsilanti is substituting until Mrs. Blaess is able to return.

Mrs. Charles Raynor of Salem has returned to her home following several weeks treatment at the University hospital in Ann Arbor. Mrs. Raynor wishes to convey her thanks to all her friends and neighbors for their cards and flowers while she was in the hospital.

School children from the upper grades at Lapham school and South Salem Stone school joined with Bridgewater school for a tour of Detroit last Wednesday. The bus picked the children up at Stone school at 7:15 and after picking up the Bridgewater students the bus load of youngsters visited the Fisher building, General Motors building, where they sat in the new '55 Cadillacs, went through a submarine, visited Belle Isle, toured the Vernor Ginger Ale plant and other points of interest in Detroit. They returned to Stone school at 7 in the evening, a tired group of school children but hoping another tour will be planned for next year.

Mrs. Burton Rich and daughters attended the General Motors Diesel Division open House Monday evening with Mrs. Louis Peters March and family of Detroit.

Mrs. Frances Ford of Revloc, Pennsylvania arrived Thursday night at the home of her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis on Brookville road. Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. George Davis and Mrs. Kenneth Conklin joined them for a birthday celebration honoring their mother, Mrs. Belle Davis, who was 76 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Griswold of Salem road were the guests of Mrs. Hanlon and Mrs. Doty of Ypsilanti at their cottage near Osceola.

Mrs. Bill Corwin of Salem road and Mrs. Robert Glass of Warren road were co-hostesses for a "Copper" party Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bennett and children visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ward Griswold Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Glance of Dearborn were Sunday visitors at the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Al Glance.

Mr. and Mrs. William Compton and sons, Nevin and Ronald will be Thanksgiving Day dinner guests at the Kenneth Hulsing home in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Rich and daughters will spend Thanksgiving Day with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Henry and daughter in Plymouth.

Mrs. Sylvester Kranz and sons, Junior and Arnold, visited friends and relatives in Dearborn Sunday.

Marilee Davis celebrated her eighth birthday Saturday with a birthday party at her home at 9370 Brookville road. Her guests included Ann Drennan, Alice Richmond, Darlene Fisher, Jean and Donnie Ogden.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Fearer of Plymouth visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Corwin Friday evening. Mike and Bill spent the weekend deer hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis and family has joined her family at the home of her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walls of Belleville, for Thanksgiving dinner.

Mr. Bill Birmingham and son Michael of Detroit were Saturday evening dinner guests at the Burton Rich home. Mr. and Mrs. E. Horn and daughter Lorraine of Detroit were Saturday evening visitors.

Ray Doolin, Firman Rohloff, George Bowers, Charles Cole, Oscar Hirth, Al Innis and Dan Roth were deer hunting at Grand Marais last week. Firman got his deer on opening day. The car belonging to Oscar Hirth was badly damaged in an auto accident and had to be left at Cheboygan for repairs but the hunters continued on for a long cold ride in the pick up truck driven by one of the other men. None of the men were injured in the accident.

Mrs. Kenneth M. Rich returned from Nankin hospital last Thursday and is staying at the Burton Rich home a few days. Little Deborah Dianne is progressing nicely in the incubator but will not be brought home for several weeks.

Mrs. Charles Raynor Jr. was guest of honor at a baby shower recently at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clarabelle Kidston of Plymouth. Another sister, Mrs. Betty Gardner was co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. William Compton of Brookville road attended the wedding of Faye Ellen Mendelson and Arthur Schwartz at Beth Schmueel synagogue in Detroit last Sunday, November 14.

Those who were unable to attend the toy demonstration given by Del Tudman at Ginny Gamber's home on Wednesday, November 17, missed a very interesting display of toys at a reasonable price. It was difficult to decide which toys to order so no doubt the following women were very happy to obtain those endless little things that seem to take so much time and shoe leather to find: Winnie Esper, Marie Martin, Mary Lancaster, Helen Ruth, Vera Lorian, Hilda Lanquin, Hazel Larson, Ruth Lane, Ginny Byrd, Bobbie Mullen, Jean Alcarte, Barb Creighton, Esther Gamberlin, Eileen Fokes, Jeanette Davy, Mrs. Lynch, Mrs. Treller, Ruth Hayes and Barbara Cors. After the demonstration Mrs. Gamber served some delicious butterscotch brownies and tea and coffee.

The card party given by the Rosedale Gardens Womens club at the clubhouse on Thursday, November 18, was a terrific success. The table prizes were unusual plants the committee purchased at the Livonia Florist, Virginia Jack, Helen Ruth and Marcy Woolweaver worked very hard canvassing the merchants in the neighborhood and obtained 26 door prizes. Some of the lucky winners were: Gwen Jackson,

The annual bazaar held recently at the Newburg Methodist church on Ann Arbor trail and Newburg roads was a most successful one. The mothers of Brownie Troop No. 1089 met on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Amelia Berutti. It was decided to have a Christmas party on Monday, December 20. Mrs. Olmstead is chairman and will contact the other mothers to tell them what they can contribute to make the party a success. The girls will be asked to bring a 25c gift wrapped and marked for a boy or girl and these will be picked up by Mrs. William Bailey for distribution at the Sister Kenny hospital in Pontiac.

A welcome addition to the Stanley Belanger family of Ravine drive was little Bernadette Marie. She was born on October 29 at the St. Joseph's Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor and weighed 8 lbs. 3 ozs.

The boys of Scout troop 270 of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church with their leaders, Mr. T. Boling and Mr. Dick Pierce, delivered Good Will bags to the homes in Rosedale Gardens on Saturday, November 20. The boys will make the rounds again on the 27th of November to pick up the full bags.

Cub Pack 270 of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church met at 7 p.m. on Friday, November 19, in the church basement. Two dens put on skits portraying portions of American history. Other dens exhibited their handicraft concerning history which was the theme for the month of November. Two new boys received their bobcat awards and were duly initiated into the pack by cubmaster Ken Rotch. Other boys too, were recipients of other awards. Bill Black, chairman of the pack committee, discussed the forthcoming bake sale and also told of the Christmas party to be held in conjunction with the December pack meeting. Den one received the pennant award for the cleverest exhibit and Mrs. Robinson's den received the pennant for the best attendance of parents.

The choir of the Newburg Methodist church is in full swing again and meets every Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the church. There is a need for more voices and Mrs. Bohl, director and organist, would welcome additional singers. Right now the group is hard at work with their Christmas music.

Little Frances Belanger, 2 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Belanger of Ravine drive, has just returned home after being in the hospital for three weeks where she underwent a major operation for appendicitis. Miss Belanger is recuperating now at her home.

Because of the Thanksgiving holiday, the regular monthly meeting of the Sacred Heart circle of St. Michael Catholic church was held at the home of Mrs. T. Levandowski on Newburg road with six members present. Attending were: Mrs. L. Levandowski, Mrs. Niel Suddendorf, Mrs. E. Fagen, Mrs. E. LaPointe, Mrs. Arthur Gennis and Mrs. Wilford LaBelle. Plans were made for a Christmas party for the group on the 16th of December and also plans discussed for the next meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nida and children, Robert and Gail Ann, of Dearborn, were Sunday afternoon guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil LaPointe on Joy road.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Gordon and their children, Wayne, George and June from Ridgetown, Ontario, Canada were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bennett of Stark road. Mrs. Gordon and Mrs. Bennett are sisters.

The choir of the Newburg Methodist church is in full swing again and meets every Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in the church. There is a need for more voices and Mrs. Bohl, director and organist, would welcome additional singers. Right now the group is hard at work with their Christmas music.

Mrs. H. Adrian Willis and Mrs. Douglas Bathey all of Northville. There is a hard working camp which becomes a bee hive of activity long before daylight when the hunters, both men and women, leave to sit in their blinds till nightfall. Most guests get their bucks during the season at the unusually attractive Schradler camp and by noon the second day two large bucks were already hanging at the camp.

PLYMOUTH MANUFACTURER Douglas Bathey, also an expert hunter, fills the second sofa at the Schradler's lodge as he awaits the call to dinner too.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Evans of Brownell street celebrated their fifth anniversary on Saturday, November 13, at the Covered Wagon with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Swan of Dearborn.

On Wednesday evening, Cub Pack 743 met at the Allen school for the regular pack meeting. They were entertained with two films of Abbot and Costello and a comedy cartoon. Each den had a display of its handicraft which everyone enjoyed. Refreshments were served. The next meeting will be December 15, with a Christmas program planned for the group.

Chips from the ROCK

A hurricane tour through the north covering some 700 miles revealed to this writer that all wasn't work as far as local deer hunters were concerned. As a good example of that fact is the picture taken of tired Daisy purchasing agent, Floyd Boddeman, found fast asleep under a stump on the sunny, "May" opening day. This camp reported seeing no deer the first day and if other members of the group did the same thing it was readily understandable to us why they didn't.

Above is another classic example as to why there were no bucks in Glenn Smith's camp at Pettibone Lake. Because we found Mr. Smith, left, and Henry Hanchett busily engaged in a checker game on the opening day. Though they had hunted the first hour or two opening morning, Hanchett had taken such a beating at the game on Sunday he urged his partner back into camp for revenge the rest of the opening. Incidentally, Smith's year-around cottage on Pettibone lake offers all the comforts of home.

For the most part Plymouth hunters were having poor luck. The warm weather made the woods noisy and deer and hunters were scarce. Seasoned hunters blamed their troubles not only on the weather but the fact that there weren't enough hunters in the woods to keep the deer moving. Others blamed the poor season on the doe kill last year saying that the deer just weren't in the woods because so many were shot last season.

On the other hand the camp consisting of Donald Gray, Vern Grimes, Bruce Kidston, John Covach, C. F. Grimes, Harold Von Bonne and Blaine Yeager scored seven bucks by Thursday of opening week. This group hunts near Skeels within half a mile of the camp which is visited each year by Arthur Godfrey and Charles E. Wilson and other top government officials. This was the best kill found on the entire trip.

Other pictures taken of local residents, that could be found in their camps when we arrived, are spread throughout this issue of The Mail. A public expression of appreciation is made here to all who cooperated so generously with the photographer and his traveling secretary of their time and facilities while this expedition was in the north.

Roger Babson Says

BABSON DISCUSSES ADVERTISING AND MERGERS
Babson Park, Massachusetts. There are several reasons for the present epidemic of mergers. In some cases, taxes are the chief consideration; in other cases they are to reduce costs; and often the cause is to secure additional financing.

IMPORTANCE OF ADVERTISING

But one very patent cause is to be able to afford more advertising, which—in this very competitive era—is the life of trade. To understand what I mean, let me remind readers that a full-page advertisement of television sets in this or any other newspaper would be the same price to the great Radio Corporation of America as to some new small company which might be manufacturing a better TV set. In the case of a 2-page color spread in LIFE MAGAZINE the price would be approximately $50,000 for one week! This is a drop in the bucket to R.C.A., but it is a cost which small companies cannot meet.

This is a problem not only to the small company, but also to a medium-sized company with several products to advertise. Successful advertising depends upon continuous advertising. With one product this is far more practical, more efficient, and much less expensive. Let me illustrate by referring to two good but competitive candy products.

LIFE SAVERS VS. NECCO
The Life Savers Corporation

has practically only one product, with which every reader is acquainted and for which the company appropriates annually about $1,000,000 for advertising. The New England Confectionery Company (trade name Necco) has 20 different products. This means that if Necco should appropriate $1,000,000 for advertising, this would need to be divided by 20 products. No one of the 20 products might get enough advertising to enable it to be profitable. In fact, by one law of advertising, each product would get only 1/20th of the result instead of 1/20th. This can be remedied only by a reduction in the number of items, or by a consolidation with other candy manufacturers.

Of course, Life Savers would not consider such a consolidation. A merger would have to be with a candy company having similar competitive difficulties but duplicate manufacturing facilities. Then, two competitive products could be marketed under a joint name—without any loss of goodwill. The machines which were the most efficient would be used for manufacturing the products, working on two or three shifts of labor. Operating expenses would be greatly reduced, while each product would get double the present advertising allotment.

WHAT ABOUT STOCK MARKET PRICES?

I am continually asked why the stocks of some companies—like General Electric, for instance—sell so much higher than stocks of some smaller electric companies which are not well known but may perhaps make a better product. I do not know all the answers to this question, but this I do know: The price of the stock of almost all companies (Hershey is an exception) parallels closely the amount spent upon advertising. Not only do large advertising appropriations create more business and more profits, but investors like to buy the stocks of companies which they see advertising each week. This not only applies to the prosperity of individual companies; but also to the prosperity of the nation as a whole. When national advertising falls off, business falls off and unemployment increases. I forecast that the day may come when the government will subsidize advertising during a business depression.

WHAT ABOUT MERCHANDISING?

Not only will we see many more mergers amongst manufacturing concerns, but the epidemic will spread to retail stores. Drive down the business street of any city and—with a critical eye—notice the vast number of small retailers. Eighty per cent are barely making a living. When depression comes, the mortality amongst retailers could be great. Therefore, I urge retailers to consider mergers. This especially applies to shops which carry the same items and are near one another. Retailers who have no free parking space nearby will be the first to merge. Bankers reading this column could be very helpful in bringing these needed mergers about. One closing thought: Read your Bible—Proverbs, Chapter 16, Verse 18. This gives the cause of most business failures.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Gene Alleman
Secy. Mich. Press Ass'n.

WHEN POLITICIANS TOOK a fresh look at Michigan's new state government this week they wondered when the rolling pins would start to fly.

For the first time since 1937, the administration will be Democratic from top to bottom, giving Gov. Williams his long-sought "team" on the State Administrative Board.

Williams was overjoyed at the thought Republicans were disappointed, but thoughtful.

Republican leaders in the legislature already are planning to expand their House and Senate staffs to do work they previously could count on from state officers.

"It's too tempting for a Democrat in state office to do what Williams wants and forget the legislature," said Senator Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek).

Best bet is that the auditing staff of Comptroller C. J. McNeil will be increased and an informal "watchdog" committee will be created for the legislature.

At the same time, Republicans are leaning toward giving Williams what he wants in the way of legislation this winter and letting him live with the record.

He has earned the right to have to explain himself, said one GOP leader. He will have no one to criticize but himself.

The Senate also is ready to confirm 38 holdover appointments they ignored last year in the hope of putting the posts at the disposal of a Republican governor.

Helmsmen in the Senate predict that the 38 will be brought out on the floor and confirmed quickly in the 1955 session and 32 others appointed since last spring will also get the nod.

Republicans are itching to see what Williams does with his "cabinet", a handful of comparative unknowns who have only limited experience in government.

"Now instead of blasting a Republican every time things don't go as he wants, Williams will have to be a leader," said one Republican.

LAW ENFORCEMENT officers over the state are jumping at what they consider a mandate to chase charitable bingo out of their counties.

The Nov. 2 election turned down a proposed constitutional amendment which would permit the legislature to legalize lotteries for non-profit charitable organizations. The vote was close, however.

In Oakland County, Prosecutor Fred C. Ziem has ordered a stop to bingo games, which have been running openly in defiance of an unenforced state law for years.

It's the same in many other parts of the state and more crack-downs are expected every day.

In Colonial times, it took 85 per cent of the U. S. population to produce food for themselves and the other 15 per cent. Today the average American farmer produces enough food for himself and 14 others.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal, is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"What will you be most thankful for this Thanksgiving?"

HAROLD SCHULTZ, 1360 Ross: "I'm particularly thankful that my family is well. I can also be thankful that I have a steady job and that we have peace so I don't have to return to the service."

MRS. VIOLET DALLAS, 29908 Six Mile: "I'm very thankful that I live in a Christian country where we are still able to celebrate Thanksgiving. Our whole freedom, going back to the beginning of our country, is based on religion. I'm thankful that the out-look on world conditions is better today. I will have my son home for Thanksgiving. He has been discharged after serving nine years."

FRED J. KOHLER, 297 Fair street: "For the good health of my wife and myself I am very thankful. I am also thankful that we are not at war. We lost a son in World War II and we hope that others will not need to lose their lives."

REVEREND EDGAR HOENECKE, pastor, St. Peter's Lutheran church: "I am thankful for four reasons. 1. That the anticipated recession did not occur. Employment is on the rise. 2. That the Indo-China crisis did not precipitate into an atom war. Many feared that a military-minded president would get us into war. 3. That fears of a poor harvest because of the late frost and drought did not come about. Our farmers again had a high yield. 4. That we again have our freedom to go to church this Thanksgiving."

Whipping up a batch of Walnut Chews is no trick at all as you can see by this picture—in fact, it's fun! Expert assistance is being given Mrs. A. E. VanOrnum of 138 Maple by daughter Ann, right, and Ann's playmate, Ruth Ellen Sheldon of 1049 Sheridan.

Tasty Walnut Chews Top List of Favorites

Favorite treats of the A. E. VanOrnum family, 1348 Maple street, are the Walnut Chews which Mrs. VanOrnum whips up of an afternoon. Tops as far as cookies go, Mrs. VanOrnum says they do double duty as a delicious dessert, too. When serving them for dessert she puts a dab or two of

- whipped cream on top to dress them up a bit.
Here's how she makes the tasty Walnut Chews:
- Walnut Chews
- 1 cup light brown sugar
 - 1 egg
 - ½ cup sifted flour
 - ¼ teaspoon soda
 - ¼ teaspoon salt
 - 1 teaspoon vanilla
 - 1 cup walnuts
 - 1 cup coconut
- Cream ingredients together in order listed. Pour dough into an eight by eight pan which has been buttered generously. Smooth over with spoon or spatula. Bake for 20 minutes in 350 degree oven. When partially cool, cut into squares. Yields about 20 squares.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

All members will receive National Home Christmas Seals in the mail this month, and they are urged to purchase them by sending their donation to the address given. This is the only donation asked by the National Home and should have our support.

Youth Activities Chairman Loretta Young reported that our Girl Scout Troop has asked us to give them any old candles we may have left so that they can be used for Christmas gifts. If you have any to donate, call 71!

A message from our cancer chairman, Betty Krumm, gives us the facts on the huge amount of money contributed by our V.F.W. alone for cancer and cancer research. The amount totaled over $375,000 which we feel is quite an effort on all the members of all posts and auxiliaries in the United States of America!

Our Post and Auxiliary participated in the first Veterans Day celebration in the city of Plymouth, by entering our colors in the local parade on November 11. We were truly proud to participate in such an important event!

Our National Ladies Auxiliary is opening up a new program this year in the form of service to the cerebral palsy victims. We pledge our sincere cooperation to this new chairman of this new and worthwhile program.

Hospital Chairman Marlyn Wiltzie issues a request for girls to give scuffs for the veterans at the Maybury Sanatorium. Call 1980M if you are able to donate same.

Our Post and Auxiliary are planning a joint Christmas Party on Sunday December 19 from 2 to 5 p.m. for all members and their children. Gerald and Betty Krumm are in charge of the event. There will be prizes and gifts for all the children. Watch this column for further details!

December 5 is the date of our next auxiliary rally in Dearborn. All chairmen, plan on attending if you haven't completed your point program. Transportation will be provided. Call President Marie Norman for further information!

State Arts Chairman of AAUW Addresses Members of Local Club

Local members of the American Association of University Women were given a preview of the work of AAUW arts study groups throughout the state at their meeting Thursday night. Mrs. Howard B. Green of Birmingham, state arts chairman of the AAUW, reviewed the scope of the work done by such groups to members gathered at the home of Mrs. Robert Webber, 190 Blunk street.

The local AAUW has recently organized an arts study group under the chairmanship of Mrs. R. L. Nulty. The purpose of such a special study group is to encourage the creativeness of its members in such fields as writing, painting, drama, photography and to sponsor projects along these lines within the community itself.

Mrs. Green stressed the importance of such groups in the life of the community. She pointed out that AAUW organizations throughout the state were working with schools and the community to further the development and appreciation of creative efforts in the arts field.

In cases where courses were not offered in the high schools or adult education programs, the study groups would provide instruction in the fields of the arts.

AAUW arts study groups do not duplicate the work of the schools or the community, Mrs. Green pointed out, but aim to work with and through them to provide art and other types of exhibits for the benefit of the people living in that area.

The local arts study group is largely in the exploratory stage. Mrs. Nulty and other members of the AAUW plan to visit and observe the work of other arts study groups in nearby towns.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

After you reach thirty-five, skin care can't be a sometime thing if you want to keep the illusion of youth as long as possible. There are a number of different preparations created for the mature woman.

Don't let yourself become too busy to form good, womanlike habits. If she is efficient, even a working woman or a busy housewife, can work that necessary fifteen minutes into her schedule.

There are five major steps in caring for your skin. The first is cleansing. If your skin is dry, a scrubbing twice a week with one of the special sudsing preparations or a superfatted soap will be all that is needed. If your skin is not dry, wash your skin first with a superfatted soap and follow with a cream-cleanser.

A skin freshener comes next. This will complete the cleaning job and help prevent the enlarging of pores.

Some skins require a stimulant. This step is very important if your skin has a weathered or unclear look. If your skin is very sensitive, you may well do without a stimulant other than a splash of cold water.

Smooth and lubricating creams will help keep down the formation of lines and tiny wrinkles. Some of the newer preparations contain moisture, harmones, or vitamins.

The latest preparation is a tightening and firming lotion or cream. This is supposed to keep your face from "falling." It can be applied at night or just before your makeup.

Nature Plays Tricks On Local Residents

It seems old Mother Nature is playing tricks on Plymouth residents these days with flowers bursting into bloom in the middle of November. Shortly after press time November 17, Gerald Prince called to say that he's just been out in the yard at his home on West Ann Arbor trail picking violets.

At the Kenneth Hulsing home, corner of Blunk and Church streets, the plot alongside the porch last Friday was sporting a beautiful pink rose.

If the mild weather continues, it looks as if Thanksgiving tables in many Plymouth homes will be displaying floral centerpieces instead of the traditional pumpkins and cornucopias.

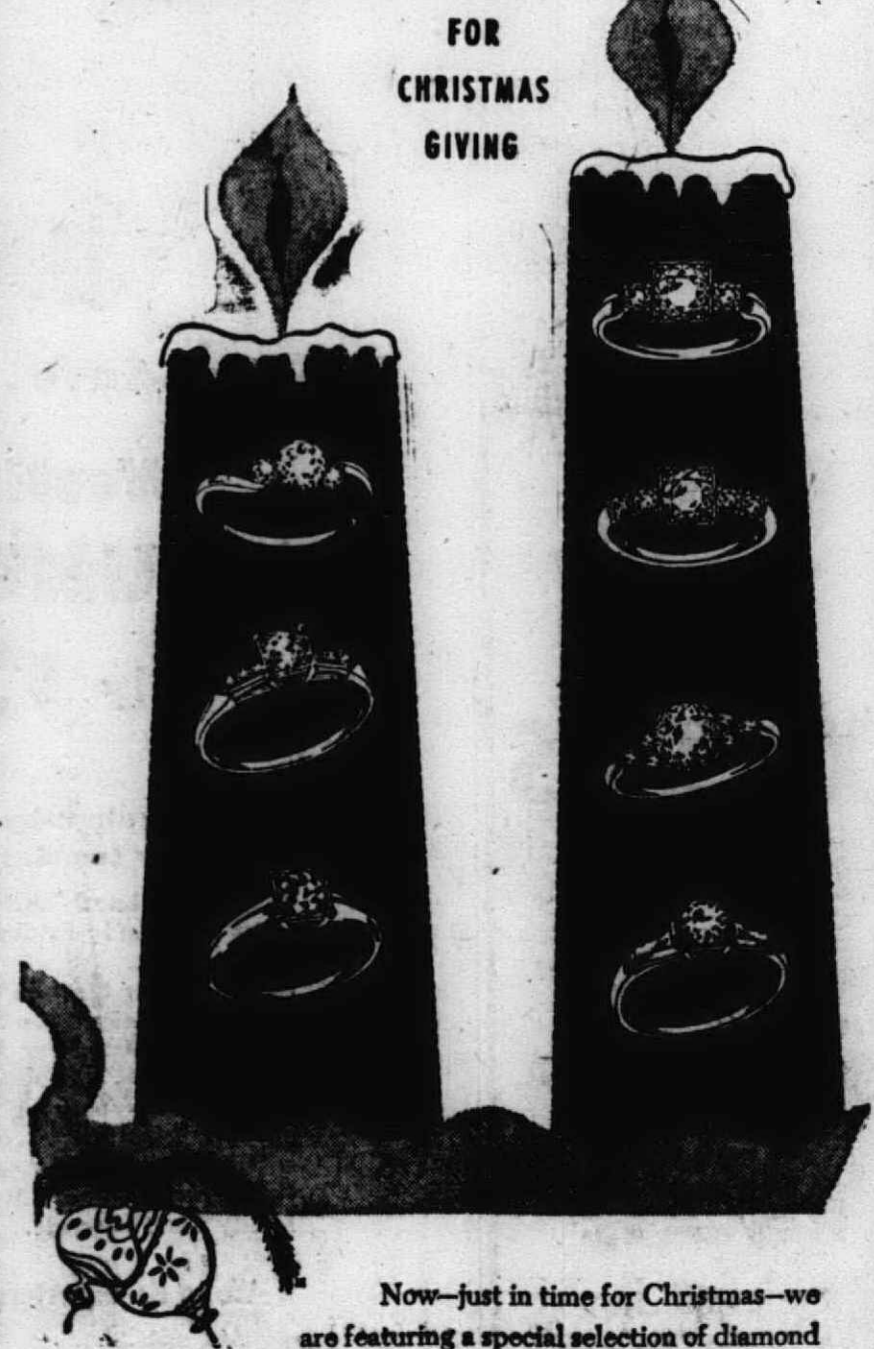

Christmas Party Set For Vivians Meeting

A gay Christmas party is slated for members of the local Vivians for their meeting on December 2. Starting at 8 p.m. members will gather for the festivities at the Elks Temple, which will be decorated in the yuletide theme.

Entertainment during the evening program will be provided by Mrs. Lucille Lidgard, who will play and demonstrate the Hammond organ.

Members are asked to bring to the party a child's gift for the Maybury Sanatorium and a 50 cent personal gift for under the tree.

Local Teachers Club Holds Board Meeting

Two representatives of the Michigan Education Association were present for the executive board meeting of the Plymouth Education Association held last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith.

Miss Ellen Solmonson, M.E.A. president, and Cecil Elmore, the association's field representative for this area, discussed the topic of teachers retirement with members of the Plymouth group. Miss Solmonson also gave suggestions on the organization of a Future Teachers Club which will consist of high school students.

DISCUSSING PLANS for the coming annual Christmas party of the Plymouth Woman's club are, left to right: Mrs. Carvel Bentley, tea chairman; Mrs. Fred Nelson in charge of music; and Program Chairman Mrs. Alden Van Ornum. Set for Friday, December 3, at the V.F.W. Hall on South Mill, the event will feature Christmas music by the high school choir and yuletide stories by Mrs. Lucille Simon, president of the Detroit Story Telling League.

Salads Increase in Popularity

Since entertaining at dessert and coffee or at teas has become such a well-liked custom, the party gelatin mold, the frozen dessert salad, and the lovely fruit platter have increased in popularity. These same salads lend color and appetite appeal to the buffet table also and are often served as a combination salad and dessert. Fancy party sandwiches, small sweet rolls, and assorted appetizer crackers go alongside nicely.

There are several important things to keep in mind when preparing gelatin molds. Cover molds with waxed paper or aluminum foil to prevent tops from drying. Be sure to drain canned fruits thoroughly to avoid diluting the gelatin. Save sirup to use a part of the liquid for added flavor.

To mold large pieces of fruit in a definite pattern, arrange each layer of fruit in gelatin that has been chilled to the consistency of unbeaten egg white, and allow to set before adding the next layer.

To unmold, loosen edge of mold with small knife and quickly immerse mold just to the top in lukewarm water - hot water will melt the mold. Shake mold to loosen gelatin. If mold is large, place serving dish over top of mold, invert, and lift mold off carefully. Extra large molds may break if unmolded directly on crisp greens. It's very easy to surround the mold with greens after it is on the serving platter. Individual molds may be directly on greens.

Here are a few individual easy-to-make Picture Salads:

Peach 'n Cottage Cheese: Place drained peach halves, cut side up, on salad greens. Top with cottage cheese to which chives have been added.

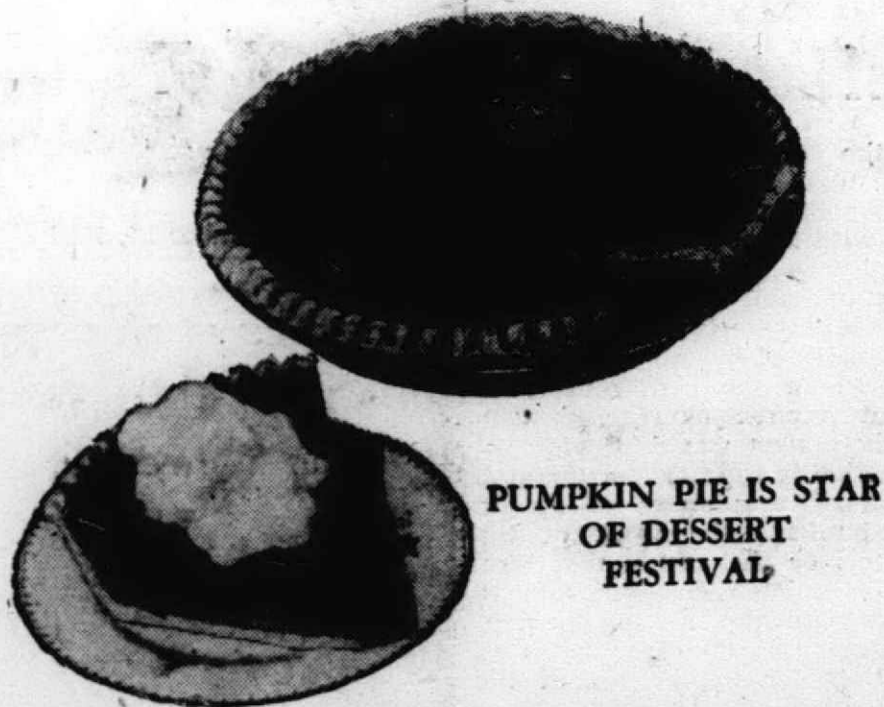

Pineapple Chunks 'n Cherries: Arrange pineapple chunks and well-drained dark sweet cherries on salad greens.

Apricot 'n Cream Cheese: Place drained halves of apricots, cut side up, on salad greens and top with softened cream cheese and chopped dates.

Blushing Pear: Drain pear halves and put two halves together with softened cream cheese. If desired, sprinkle paprika on one side to make a blush. Stand upright on salad greens and top with a bit of cream cheese and a short strip of green pepper or a leaf of watercress for a stem.

Pineapple Duet: Spread pineapple slice with cottage or cream cheese and top with another pineapple slice, sandwich style. Place spoonful of cheese in center.

PUMPKIN PIE By Marguerite Michelsen

PUMPKIN PIE IS STAR OF DESSERT FESTIVAL

One thing all the events of the approaching holiday season have in common is good food. A veritable festival of mouth-watering dishes, especially desserts, is on the way.

A star of this delectable company is pumpkin pie which makes its debut at Halloween and plays a major role right through Christmas. Pumpkin pie is an old favorite. Its history begins in Europe before the discovery of America, but it really didn't come into its own until the Pilgrims made it a major item on that first Thanksgiving table.

But it would be hard to recognize the original pumpkin pie as the fragrant, spice-laden delight that comes from the modern baker's oven. At first, a pumpkin shell was stuffed with apples and what few spices were available. The Indians taught the Pilgrim wives how to grind the meat into flour, and make a pastry crust sweetened with maple sugar or honey. Thrifty pioneer housewives developed the present-day pie which required less filling.

Many contributed to the making of the modern baker's pie. The Pennsylvania Dutch introduced the rich, flaky, rising crust. Early Americans of German descent drew on recipes from the old country to introduce greater amounts of cream, butter, eggs and other ingredients.

But today the pumpkin pie of perfection is available for the asking from the baker, who combines the skills and secrets from many lands to bring you all the spicy goodness of the bygone years.

As the great American poet, John Greenleaf Whittier, said: "What calls back the past, like the rich pumpkin pie," or turns our thoughts to the good things that lie immediately ahead.

Serve Invalid's Meals On Colorful Trays

The busy homemaker, with an uncrowded appearance when all the dishes are on it. The former custom of placing a mat or napkin on the tray has been changed because of the many trays whose materials, either satiny wood or textured or painted metal, are eye-pleasing in themselves. Simply put the dishes directly on the tray.

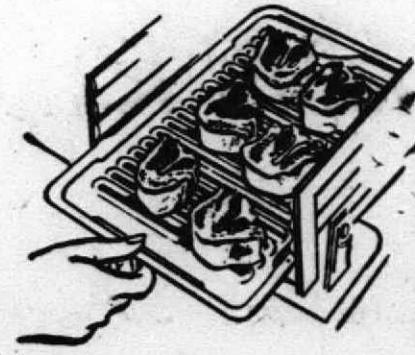

Designers are turning out scores of pastel and vivid shades from which the homemaker can choose colors to make invalid trays more attractive. Some of these new tones harmonize and contrast effectively with informal, colorful pottery so much in vogue now. Others are suited to the delicate shades of more formal dinnerware. Brighten up the invalid's day by serving dinner "in style" with your very best crystal and china.

Follow the principle of simple arrangement, color and texture contrast, and you can serve as charmingly on trays as for any other dining occasion. Colorful glassware can meet your need for variety. You can match it with pottery - on linens - in harmonizing tones.

It is important to choose a tray that is light enough to be easily carried and handled. It should also be large enough to permit an uncrowded appearance when all the dishes are on it. The former custom of placing a mat or napkin on the tray has been changed because of the many trays whose materials, either satiny wood or textured or painted metal, are eye-pleasing in themselves. Simply put the dishes directly on the tray.

When you wish to achieve a quiet and restful note, use soft, muted colors, such as cool grays, greens and soft blues. Select subtle shades that have been lighted with white for other quietly pleasing color schemes. For gaiety and cheer, combine warm colors: mix orange with yellow, red and gold, and lime yellow and peach.

Offers Tips on Buying An Automatic Clothes Drier

What should you look for in an automatic clothes drier? That's what women wonder when they think of the sunless winter washdays ahead.

Moisture is the biggest problem in a drier and is solved in several ways. Sometimes the water is vented outdoors. Because this will be included in the installation cost, you will want to consider this feature when you make your choice.

If not vented the moisture that is in the laundered clothes is thrown out into the room. This is harmful to paint and wooden surfaces. However some driers avoid this by using a stream of cold water to condense the moisture and carry it to the drain. This requires a plumbing installation.

Still another drier condenses the moisture by a cold air draft. The water is collected in a pan at the bottom of the drier. It must be emptied after each use. Or the water may be piped to the drain.

You may choose between a gas and an electric drier. Cost of operation will depend on the type of power you use most in your home and the power rates of the locality in which you live. Usually a gas drier is less expensive to operate than an electric one.

You may obtain information on how to estimate cost per month of the two types of driers by checking with your local utility.

Tells History, Legend Surrounding Turkey

To give your turkey an out-of-this-world flavor, baste the bird with historical fact, stuff with tradition, and garnish with just a touch of legend. Here are some of the facts and some unknowns about turkeys. For instance, how did a native of America come to be named for another land? Possibly the red wattle on a turkey's head suggested the red fez commonly worn by men of Turkey, or possibly someone with imaginative ears heard the word "turk" in the rapid call of the turkey. Language experts have found similar words in one of the languages of India and in Hebrew "toka" and "tukki", meaning a long skirt; perhaps the turkey's long tail suggested a skirt and "tukki" was given a Yankee twist into "turkey". Perhaps.

While cooking a turkey out of the supplies that are so plentiful this year, you might speculate on when mankind first ate turkey. It seems certain that American Indians ate turkey several thousand years ago. In northern Europe there are drawings of turkeys made about 1300, suggesting that when the Norsemen came to this continent a couple hundred years ahead of Columbus, they took home some turkeys as souvenirs.

TWO BRAND NEW MODERN LODGES encountered by The Mail photographer on his northern trip last weekend were the ones just completed by Dr. A. C. Williams and Dr. Walter Hammond. The modernistic, half round summer home of Dr. Williams appears above featuring a living room having three sides exposed to beautiful lake Tecon. One of the interesting interior features is a walk-in fireplace supporting a huge copper hood. The entire fireplace being built of native Michigan plum Pudding stones which Dr. Williams has collected throughout the state.

NOT ONLY IS THE ABOVE FIREPLACE which opens on three sides and furnishes heat to the living room, dining area and the Hammond's dream kitchen practical but it provides a most warming atmosphere to visitors at the Hammond's summer home on lake Horicon. Both homes, designed by Charles Sawyer of Plymouth are two of the finer, new beauty spots in northern Michigan and are well worth a long detour to view their location and beauty. Pictured is Dr. Hammond contemplating the lighting of a fire after a trip into the woods to help other members of his party secure their buck.

New FHA Loans Improve Livability of American Homes

The way is open for any homeowner who wants to "improve the livability" of his house to seek the financial backing of the Federal Housing Administration. New FHA regulations, issued under the Housing Act of 1954, permit Title I loans for reroofing, kitchen or bathroom modernization, new heating equipment, and similar improvements.

The home-owner can obtain up to $2,500 from his local bank or any other FHA-approved lending institution to improve his property. He may have up to three years to pay off the loan in monthly installments. He may have more than one Title I loan at a given time, but the total value of all loans for a one-family house may not exceed $2,500.

Under the revised Title I regulation, the FHA will insure 90 percent of any "eligible" home improvement loan. The lending firm must bear 10 percent of the loss on any loan that is not repaid. Formerly, the FHA stood the entire loss.

Here's an example of how Title I works:

A home-owner finds damp spots on the underside of roof deck boards, a sure sign of a leaky roof. He goes to a contractor or dealer for an estimate on the cost of a new asphalt shingle roof. The estimate is $250, and the homeowner, not having that much in ready cash, applies to a local bank for an FHA Title I loan. Most contractors and dealers will help the home-owner to arrange a loan with the bank.

Asphalt shingles, a weather-tight, fire-resistant roofing material with a long life span, make a "substantial improvement" and are an eligible item according to FHA standards. If the borrower's credit is good, the bank will likely make the loan.

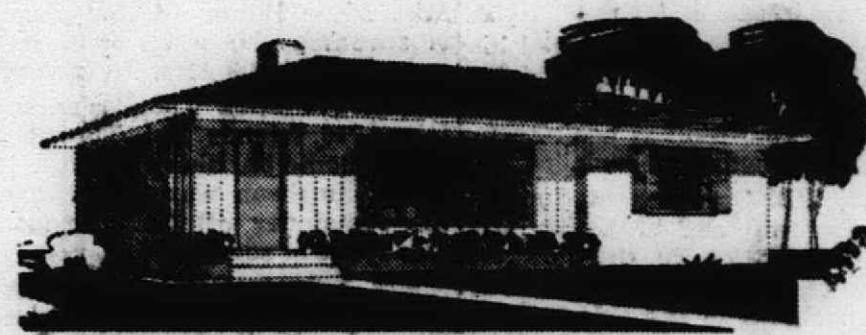

The new ruling forbids application for Title I loans until the house has been "complete and occupied for six months."

When and Where to Use Your Spray Gun

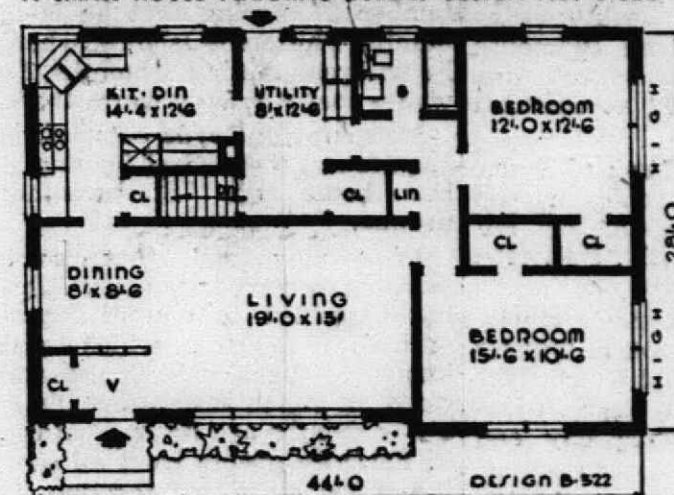

When you're preparing paint to use in a spray gun, be sure to follow the manufacturer's instructions. Remove all lumps and particles of skin. The material should be strained through cheese cloth or wire screen with mesh that will do the work efficiently.

When actually doing the job, hold the gun six to ten inches from the object you're spraying. Move it across the surface with steady, even strokes that are made with a free arm motion. Keep the gun perpendicular to—and an equal distance from—the surface. It's important, incidentally, to practice on cardboard or another surface until you get the knack of it.

The fluid flow is regulated by the fluid adjusting screw on the gun. You start with the adjusting screw nearly closed, then gradually open it until the spray seems right. A distorted spray indicates a dirty air cap. To remedy the situation, take it off and wash it carefully in clean solvent. If it's necessary to ream the air cap holes, use a match stick or a broom bristle—never an instrument that's hard or sharp.

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. B-322

DESIGN B-322. An interesting and attractive house consisting of one floor and a full basement. There are two large bedrooms, bath, living room with dining alcove, combination kitchen and dinette, and a utility room. Location of the utility room makes it available for use as a work or play room. It has a large closet and space for a washer and dryer. There are 6 closets in all, including linen closet, off the hall. The kitchen-dinette features a corner window and ample storage space. Frame construction is used throughout, with face brick veneer, except for a portion of the front which has vertical siding, brick planter, and wide eave overhang. The floor area is 1295 square feet, with 22,895 cubic feet. For further information about DESIGN B-322, write the Building Editor, The Plymouth Mail.

Browsing With BARBARA

Ever try to hammer a nail in the wall to hang a picture or put up a shelf and find that you've driven the nail into plaster instead of good solid wood? Well, I have and thank goodness they've got a little gadget now which does away with all the guesswork before you've completely riddled the walls of your room trying to find good solid foundation for that nail.

Down at Roe Lumber company at 443 Amelia they have a new Magnetic Wall Stud finder, and it really does the trick. To find the wall stud you just take this gadget and run it along the baseboard or along the walls. When the finder approaches the wall stud, the attraction between the nails in the stud and the magnet will cause the latter to point directly to the spot where the stud is located.

The Magnetic Wall Stud finder comes in an attractive plastic case, is small in size and inexpensive to buy. They're well worth it, too, when you think of the cost of punctured walls, ruined wallpaper and the loss of your temper!

While browsing down there at Roe Lumber company Mr. Lee pointed out the new Snap-On Gutter Guard they had on display. Easy to install, this gutter comes in convenient two-foot sections. They're made of heavily galvanized quarter-inch mesh screen with aluminum binder and will fit on box style, round or wooden type gutters.

If you've trouble with birds nesting in the gutter drains or falling leaves landing and eventually clogging up the drain, this little item made for you. Why not take a run down to Roe's and take a look at the Snap-On Gutter Guard?

With cold wintry days just about to descend upon us, it's time to think of insulating that home of yours. And what easier way of doing it is there than by using the insulating mineral, Zonolite. You can buy it down at Roe's and in the space of one afternoon you can get the whole insulating job done.

All you have to do is pour this fireproof Zonolite into the spaces between attic joists or sidewall studs, level it off and leave it. No cutting to size or nailing down to bother with. Once it's done you've not only provided for the security and warmth of your family at home, but you're also cutting down on those high fuel bills.

Cleanup Feature

After-meal cleanup is simplified with a special convenience accessory on some steel undersink cabinets. When the door of a cabinet is opened, a refuse receptacle pops out, lid raised. It's a handy arrangement even if you install an automatic garbage disposer in your sink, for there always are some wastes that can't be put in the disposer.

Repanel Old Door with Masonite

Don't discard a door just because the wood is dented and battered beyond repair! It can be salvaged without great trouble or expense.

Place the door on saw horses and remove the hardware. If it is a panel door, cut some vents in the top, bottom and center crosspieces. Now lay across the door a panel of Masonite 3/16" Tempered Preswood and fasten it with temporary brads so that it is flush with one side and end.

Then saw off the excess at the side of the door, so that the Tempered Preswood is even with the door edge all around. Lightly bevel the exposed edges of the hardboard with a file or sand-block.

Next, turn the panel over and apply waterproof adhesive. Then fit it to the door and apply several brads to hold it firmly while it sets. The same procedure is followed with the other side. Prime and paint the door to match or contrast with the room's decor. Refit the hardware and the door jamb and rehang the door.

You won't recognize it! Masonite hardboard is widely used by manufacturers of flush panel doors because of the product's stability, unusual paint-holding qualities and durability.

Buying New Appliances? —Check House Wiring First

"Why buy modern electrical appliances — excellent though they are—if the wiring in your house won't carry the load?" asks American Builder magazine. "An efficient, up-to-date wiring job is essential to modern, electrical living."

In a special, 14-page analysis of home wiring needs, the magazine says a good wiring job calls for three types of branch circuits. They are:

General purpose circuits—These circuits serve all lights and all convenience outlets, except outlets in the kitchen, laundry, and dining areas. A house should have one general purpose circuit for each 500 square feet of floor area.

Small appliance circuits—These are for convenience outlets in kitchen, laundry, and dining areas. At least two appliance circuits are needed in a small house. Large houses require three or more. No. 12 wire is the smallest that should be used.

Individual circuits — A house should have an individual circuit for each of these appliances: automatic heating plant, range,

General purpose circuits, right, feed all lights. They also serve other outlets, except those in kitchen, laundry, and dining areas.

Small appliance circuits, left, carry power to outlets in kitchen, laundry, and dining areas where small appliances are customary.

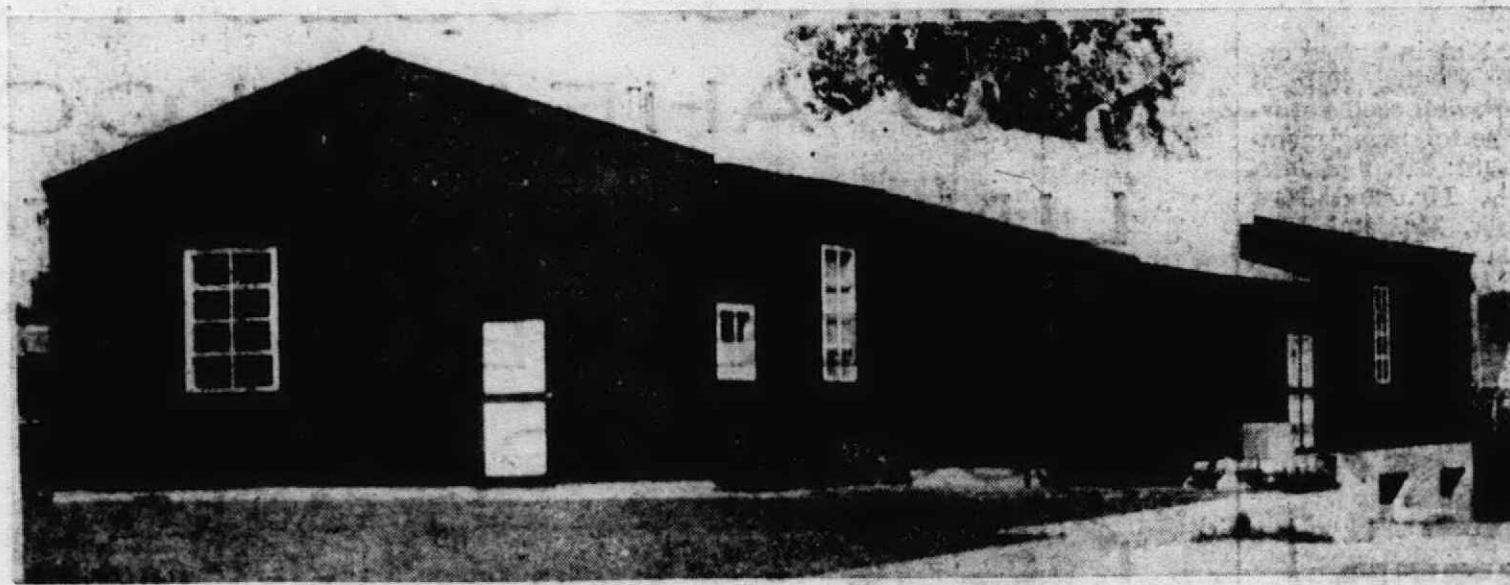

Individual circuits, right, feed electricity to heavy load appliances. Each appliance of this kind should have its own circuit for electricity.

water heater, washing machine, clothes dryer, cooling fan, air cooling unit, freezer, bathroom heater, work shop equipment, and the dishwasher and waste disposer (one circuit for both). Wire number and fuse size for each appliance depend upon its rating.

Save Those Cups! Always worried about breaking your good cups? Today's steel kitchen wall cabinets have just the thing for you—wire cup racks, designed in various styles and fastened underneath a shelf.

Toe Space Steel base cabinets and sink cabinet combinations have a recessed toe space which permits you to stand closer to the cabinet or sink work area with no tiring posture strain.

H. E. Milspaugh was a Plymouth visitor the first of the week. He is about to move his family to Flint where he will engage in the undertaking business.

Claude Shafer has resigned his position with the Peninsular Savings Bank of Detroit and has accepted a position as book-keeper in the Northville bank.

Mrs. Will Smith spent Sunday with her husband at Eloise. Mr. Smith has been in the hospital there to undergo an operation for an abscess in the side.

M. E. Carleton lost a roll of roofing paper last week Tuesday on the road between Plymouth and the Bartlett schoolhouse. Finder please leave at Huston's store.

The five-year-old son of Henry Fisher fell from a chicken coop last Saturday, breaking his left arm at the elbow. Dr. Patterson reduced the fracture.

A good many of our young people from this end took in "Buster Brown" and "The Maid and the Mummy," at the Lyceum in Detroit on Thanksgiving day and evening.

Coroner John Hoffman, sheriff-elect, is having a rocky road to travel just now. He has been bound over to the recorder's court on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses and indicted on three counts by the federal grand jury sitting in the United States court for the eastern district of Michigan. Besides other cases are pending. No sympathy here.

The house on the John Reed farm in Canton township, and occupied by Matthew Francisco, was burned to the ground Wednesday evening. But little of the contents were saved. There was some insurance.

Mrs. Una Gunsolly gave a filch and pedro party in honor of Miss Schutter of Detroit.

The Mail job room recently turned out a neat annual booklet for the Athena Club of Detroit, and the secretary writes of it, "The programs arrived this morning and are very satisfactory, indeed."

Jesse Hake has moved his hardware store to the building recently occupied by the Robinson Style Shop on Penniman avenue. Mr. and Mrs. James Honey and son, James, Jr., are spending this week with relatives in Decker-ville.

Mrs. William Keefe entertained a company of friends at a bridge party of three tables, at her home on Dewey street, last Thursday evening at 8:30. A dainty lunch was served, after which Miss Jane Shontz was given first prize for highest honors, and Miss Evelyn Knapp and Margaret Lorenz received consolations.

Mrs. Olivias Williams of New Castle, Pennsylvania, formerly Miss Mena Bolton of this place, is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bolton.

Mrs. Frederick Thomas entertained 16 friends last Thursday at her home on Blunk avenue. A lovely luncheon was served, and the remainder of the afternoon was spent in sewing.

Mrs. William Dethloff received a letter from her son, John, November 22, the first since September 27, saying that he is in Manila, Philippine Islands, where he will remain for six months. He writes that it is very warm there.

Miss Amelia Gayde entertained 12 guests at dinner last Sunday at her home on Starkweather avenue.

Every now and then some building becomes famous. This has happened to one of Plymouth's old houses, which was known as the Kensler house and stood on North Mill street. Only a few months ago no one noticed it. Recently people from all over the world wandered through its rooms, for it now stands in Mr. Ford's Early American Village at Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Jewell will be dinner hosts, Tuesday evening, November 28, to members of their 500 club, which includes Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunk, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mumby, Mr. and Mrs. George Howell, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Frederick and Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Blunk.

The wedding of Lorraine Lafond of Massachusetts and Loren (Bud) Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Gould, of this city, took place Friday evening in Buffalo, New York.

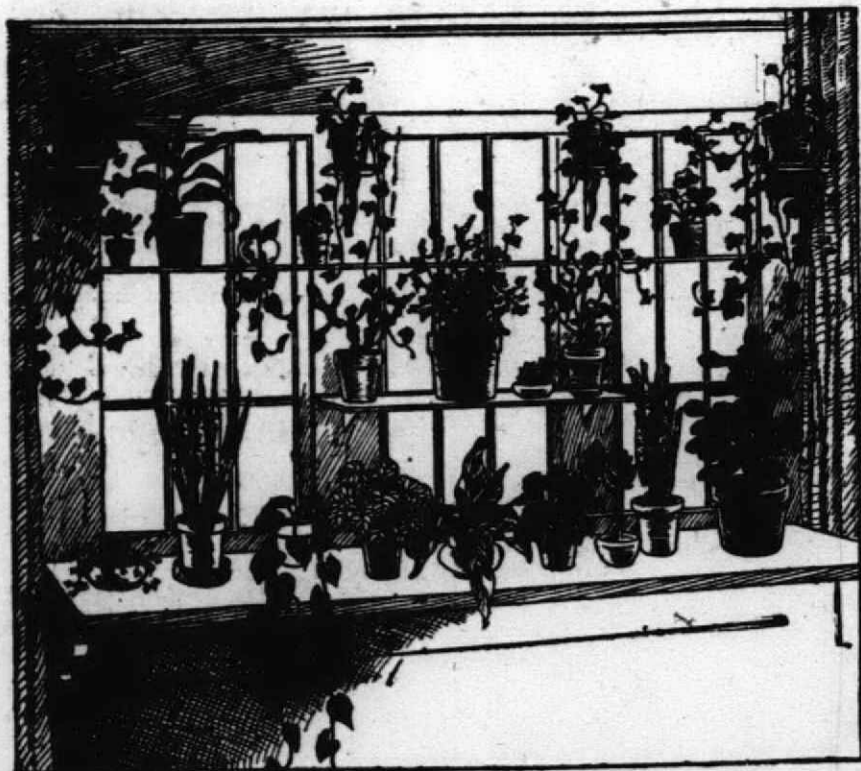

The sixth birthday of Betty Lou Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Smith, was celebrated Saturday afternoon in their home on Ann street with 12 little friends of Betty participating. Games furnished the afternoon's entertainment with dainty refreshments following when each guest received favors. Those attending were Carol Ann Partidge, Rose Marie Gaabe, Larry and Sandra Davis, John Jensen, Joan and David Dewyer, Paul Rimer, Barbara Ann Campbell, Dennis Roy, David Timcoe and Joan Pankow. Betty Lou received many pretty gifts in honor of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Strong and son, Edward, returned to Plymouth early this week after attending the graduating exercises of the Strong's son, Richard, at Chanute Field last weekend.

Word has been received by Mrs. Walter White of LaSalle road that the Purple Heart has been awarded to her son Lawrence Pierce.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stacey entertained their Euchre club at their home on Powell road Saturday evening. The following members were present: Mr. and Mrs. Gustav Eschels, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leemon, Mr. and Mrs. John Root, Mr. and Mrs. George Billings, Mr. and Mrs. William Grammel and Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Millross.

Early Spring Bulbs Flower Easily In Window Gardens During Winter

Bulbs which blossom in the early spring do not demand sunlight of maximum intensity, therefore they thrive and blossom indoors in light insufficient for most flowering plants.

Varieties which flower earliest in the garden are easiest to flower indoors as a rule. Crocuses, grape hyacinths, narcissi and hyacinths are less difficult than tulips. They can be grown in bulb fiber, in bowls without drainage.

Bulb fiber can be prepared by mixing peat moss which has been put through the kitchen sieve, with one fourth its volume in charcoal, and one eighth fine oyster shell or bone meal. Fill a decorative bowl with the fibre, saturate it, and set the bulbs in the fibre up to their necks.

Keep the bowl in dim light where the temperature stays below 55 degrees, watering the fibre regularly. If it dries out the flower buds may be destroyed. Root growth will form first, then top growth will begin. As soon as top growth is well started, take the bowl to a window where it will have all the light possible, and a temperature between 55 and 70 degrees. A picture window facing north which is not shaded from reflected light of the northern sky, is a preferred location for most flowering bulbs and foliage plants.

The light which such a window admits is adequate and it has the advantage of an even and cool temperature. In a room which varies between 70 and 80 degrees in daylight hours, the temperature close to a north window will often be 10 to 20 degrees lower. A picture window facing south, on the other hand, which gets the full impact of the winter sun will usually be subject to extreme variations of temperature. East and west picture windows are likely to be more favorable to plants than one facing south. Artificial light can be used to supplement daylight which is insufficient.

By using a photographic light meter, which nearly all amateur photographers now possess, you can check the light from your best window to see whether the daylight is adequate for the plants you wish to grow.

An intensity of 200 foot candles for twelve hours a day is sufficient to develop the flowers of bulbs. To measure the light that falls on the place where your plants can be kept, lay two sheets of white paper flat, one above the other. Hold a Weston light meter six inches above the paper, being careful not to cast a shadow. Multiply the meter reading by four and you will have approximately the foot-candles of light available to your plants. Any kind of artificial light can be used to make up a deficit.

Named Nation's Top Homemaker

Mrs. Donald Osborn, Garden City, has been named Michigan's "Most Successful Homemaker of 1954" and will compete with other state winners for the national Homemaker title, to be announced in Chicago November 18.

Mixing cement and carrying blocks, she is helping her husband build a new home, takes time to teach Sunday school, sings in the choir, and to augment family income, takes in ironing, remakes clothes, decorates cakes, and sings at weddings. She has five children.

As state winner, she is being awarded an engraved silver tray trophy, and a certificate proclaiming her the top homemaker of her state. These awards are being presented to her by the editor of her local newspaper, through which she was nominated for state and national honors.

Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, Treasurer of the United States, heads the panel of five nationally known judges, who judged contestants on their "moral and spiritual strength... management of family income... personal and family appearance... civic and church affairs... and other homemaking abilities."

Life Preserver Can Be Found In Every Car Trunk

Every car carries a potential life preserver—the mounted spare tire found in the trunk of your car.

According to the F.B.I. Law Enforcement Bulletin, experiments with an ordinary spare tire mounted on the steel rim show that it can support the weight of four men in water.

With this fact now known, many motorists could find themselves saving lives instead of standing helplessly on the shore. Many drownings could be avoided if every autoist realized that the spare tire of his car could be used effectively as a life buoy.

Demonstrations have shown that a 600-16 tire, fully mounted on its rim, properly inflated and weighing 42 pounds, can support a total of 750 pounds, or four grown men. Since the average tire can be removed from the trunk within 60 seconds, it could be an easy thing to roll the tire to the shore. There, it could be slid into the water near the victim or pushed by a swimmer or even non-swimmer to the drowning person.

Felician Sisters Observe Opening Of Centennial Year of Existence

The Felician Sisters opened the centennial year of their existence last Sunday, November 21, feast of the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Solemn closing of the jubilee year will take place November 21, 1955, the actual 100th anniversary of the founding of the congregation.

Numbering at present 4,500 members, the Congregation of the Sisters of St. Felix (CSSF), commonly known as the Felician Sisters, has 10 provinces, 7 of which are in the United States and 3 in Poland. The general motherhouse of the community is in Rome.

The Congregation was founded in 1855 in Poland by Mother Mary Angela Truszkowska and Father Honorat Kozminski, OFM Cap., and established itself in America in 1874.

The Felician Sisters engage in teaching, nursing, catechetical work, and the care of orphans, handicapped children, and the aged. In the United States, the Sisters also conduct four schools for negroes and one school for Mexicans.

In 1950, the Sisters began missionary work in Brazil, where at present they conduct three schools and a retreat center and do social and catechetical work. In January 1955 they will take charge of another school in Sao Paulo.

The Felician Sisters working in the Archdiocese of Detroit, belong to the Presentation of the Blessed Virgin Mary Province with its motherhouse in Livonia. Schools and institutions conducted by this province are located in Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

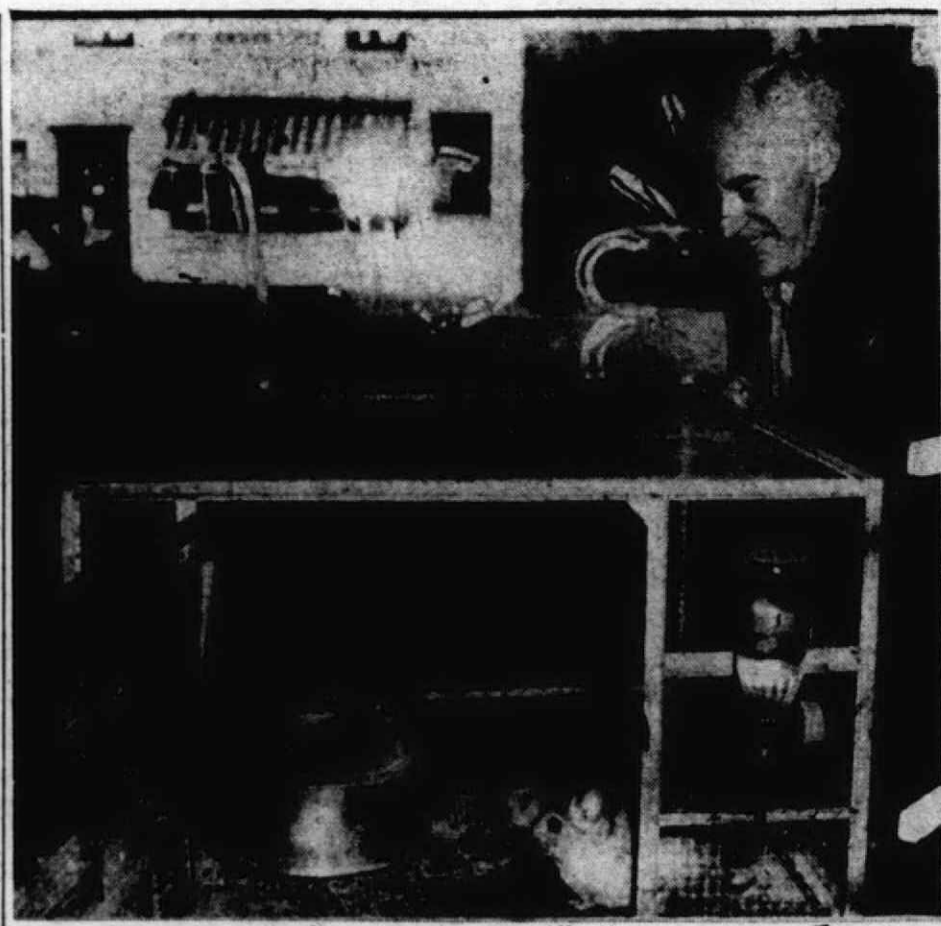

At a meeting held last week in the Livonia motherhouse, the seven provincial superiors of the American Provinces discussed the various observances to mark the Centennial Year. Highlighting the year-long celebration will be religious and liturgical activities, such as Masses of thanksgiving on the 21st of every month, the daily recitation of the Community's hymn of thanksgiving, the "Magnificat," and a perpetual rosary to be recited in rotation by the Sisters in the 10 provinces.

Schools and institutions conducted by the Sisters will acquaint their charges with the history, ideals and activities of the Congregation by means of monthly assemblies, bulletin board displays, and articles in school papers and yearbooks.

A special Centennial seal has been printed to commemorate the occasion. It will be distributed in the schools and institutions conducted by the Felician Sisters.

To be released at Christmas time is a biographical historical booklet on Mother Mary Angela and her Congregation, written by Sister M. Tullia of Madonna College. Also to be published early during the jubilee year is a more extensive study of the foundress, a book entitled "The Pierced Heart," written in collaboration by Father Francis Cagielka, a Pallotine Father, and Sister M. Claver, CSSF.

An extensive Centennial Memoir covering the Congregation's history, ideals, apostolate in picture and in text, will appear next year. Main Centennial celebrations will take place in November 1955.

TWO HUNDRED of these chinchillas and you'll have a $25,000 warm, fur coat! The pair above, shown with Dean Saxton of the Saxton Farm and Garden Supply store, West Ann Arbor trail, are valued at $550. Owned by Walter J. Burke of South Lyon, they'll be on display this week at Saxton's store.

Flowers Named CD Coordinator

Leo F. Flowers, Plymouth township's director of Civil Defense, has been appointed coordinator for the CD programs in Canton township, Plymouth and Plymouth township, it was announced this week. Flowers will remain as Plymouth township director.

Other new appointments have been made to the health and welfare committees. Mrs. Robert Mettetal is now the American Red Cross first aid instructor for this area and will also head the health and welfare committee in the township.

Nurse Bertha LaMay is head of the health and welfare for the joint Plymouth city, and Plymouth and Canton township areas. Mrs. Pauline Soule has been named head of the non-professional branch of the health and welfare committee.

First Aid classes will start soon for the general public. There is no charge for the course which will be held once a week for 11 weeks. Flowers stated that every person in a family, business or factory should have first aid knowledge. To register for the course, telephone 2145-J, 2361-J or 2113.

For Unusual Weather Conditions Experts Advise Preparing Plants

In the past few years, abnormal weather in many parts of the country has become the usual occurrence. In general, large areas of the country have been warmer, while numerous areas have experienced more extensive drouths.

It is easy to protect prize trees and shrubs on your property from unusual weather conditions while the steps recommended can't harm plants no matter what kind of weather is experienced. These steps are as follows:

1. If there is insufficient natural rainfall, thoroughly soak the ground around the roots of all established, valuable plants on your property at least every two weeks.
2. A mulch of peat moss or other porous, organic material will help to keep plants from drying out quickly in periods of drouth. Mulch your shrubs well.

Roses, azaleas and many other flowering shrubs will perform better with a mulch three or four inches thick. Where there are strong winter and early spring winds, if the shrubs are the least bit tender, protect the plants themselves with salt hay or similar material.

3. Water even in the fall and winter months if there is a lack of natural precipitation. Plants need water during these months even though they may be dormant. It helps them to survive severe winter conditions of both wind and drouth.

These few precautions will keep your trees and shrubs healthier under the most trying conditions. Some new plantings may require partial shade. Consult your local nurseryman. A full year of perfect weather for plants is practically unheard of.

Dr. Hammond Bags Only Buck Taken in Dr. Westover's Camp

THE FIRST BUCK encountered by your wandering photographer was found at Dr. Charles Westover's beautiful log lodge on Lake Tecon. Hunter Walter Hammond made the kill Monday afternoon on Pillar Trail and as it turned out he was the only hunter in the Westover camp to get a deer this year. Pictured are the two doctors, Westover, left and Hammond, right, hanging the deer directly behind the cabin.

AFTER THE HUNTING DAY is over and the dinner dishes are done friendly games help pass the early evening hour and here we find Dr. Westover, left, taking a lesson at cribbage from architect Sawyer. Kibitzing and taking a lesson from the experts is Donald Sutherland.

THERE WERE BEDS to be made and architect Charles Sawyer, left, and accountant Donald Sutherland used their meticulous skills to do a better than professional job on this end of the Westover camp detail. With all hands at work in a well organized camp work is kept at a minimum.

IT WAS NO SMALL engineering job, peeling those potatoes, says Herald Hamill as he readied a huge pan full for supper for members of the Westover camp. At the sink, also in the act of helping with the dinner is Dr. Westover, host to the group consisting of Dr. Hammond, Hamill, Donald Sutherland and Charles Sawyer.

All this - and more miles per gallon too!

Be sure to test out the phenomenal effect of "variable pitch propellers" in Dynaflo Drive*!

MAYBE - among the upcoming crop of new 1955 models - there's another car with an advance that can hold a candle to this one.

But we doubt it. We doubt it because - among the rumors of what's cooking in automotive laboratories - there's nothing to compare with what's actually happened at Buick.

It all started with the fact that modern air liners get two big advantages because they can change the pitch of their propellers.

First, they get off the ground hundreds of feet sooner than they used to.

Second, they can stretch their gasoline by setting propeller blades at just the right "pitch" for cruising.

So Buick engineers asked themselves - "If you can do it with air, why can't you do it with oil - the oil inside a Dynaflo Drive?"

And to make a long story short - they could, and they did.

They engineered the propeller-like blades inside the "stator" of a Dynaflo Drive so they can change their pitch as much as 75 degrees.

That provides one setting for more-miles-per-gallon, and another for an instant safety-surge of power when it's needed.

All you do is push the accelerator pedal the last half-inch beyond the full throttle position - and a-way you go!

Of course, there's a lot more to make a visit to our showrooms the "must" of the new-car year.

There's a step-up in styling as sensational as the step-up in power.

And the step-up in horsepower is this: 236 in the ROADMASTER, SUPER and CENTURY - 188 in the SPECIAL.

But the thrill of the year is Buick's latest engineering "first" - and what it does for the man or woman who drives the latest and greatest Dynaflo Drive.

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Pay-off on progress!

Buicks today go a lot farther on a gallon of gas, thanks to constant improvement in Dynaflo and in engine design. Even the new 236-hp ROADMASTER averages 4.8 more miles per gallon than Buicks of six years ago.

TWO WATER COLOR paintings of Donald Thrall won prizes of $200 and $50 each at the 45th annual Michigan Artists Exhibition in Detroit recently. Thrall is an art teacher at Cass Tech in Detroit and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Thrall of 288 Irving. After graduating from Plymouth high school Thrall received degrees from Michigan State, Columbia and several art schools.

TWO PLYMOUTHITES are freshman members of the 60-voice Collegiate Chorus at Goshen college in Goshen, Indiana. They are Marion Donohue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Donohue of 683 Kellogg, and Joanne Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell F. Anderson of 287 Blunk.

IN PLYMOUTH for a visit last week were Mr. and Mrs. William Eger, now of Rensselaer, Indiana. Formerly a partner with George Jackson in the floor covering and paint business here, Eger now has his own store in Indiana.

THE HUGE Christmas Fantasy show opens to the public at Ford Rotunda this Saturday at 8:30 p.m. and remains open until Christmas eve. If you haven't seen this beautiful display, be sure to take the children this year. If you've seen it before, we know you'll go again.

A THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: We can do anything we want to if we stick to it long enough.—Helen Keller.

HERONWILL RESORT at Big Star lake near Baldwin provided shelter for the above three well known hunters. Most important part of any hunting camp is a well stocked larder and Clair Travis was kept busy every other day taking trips after hunting hours to bring in loads of groceries like the one pictured above.

NEXT TO FOOD it's heat hunters most generally need although weather so far has been much too mild Joe Rowland fills the oil stove to keep the cozy cabin warm at night. These hunters were still expecting more of their regular group to arrive sometime late last week to fill the camp and hunt in an area which has been their headquarters for the last several years.

MOST POPULAR GUY in camp is the chef and especially when he prepares extra thick, juicy T-bone steaks like the one shown above which Floyd Reddeman drops gently in the pan. It was the photographer's observation that steaks were by far the most popular food in all the hunting camps and wherever he looked it was easy to find piles of T-bones that would do justice to the average, small northern meat market.

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The
MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

The Michigan Farm Bureau has gone on record in favor of continuing the conservation commission's discretionary management of the lower peninsula deer herd.

Delegates of the Bureau, representing more than 60,000 farm families in Michigan, voted the resolution during their 35th annual meeting, held at Michigan State College late last week.

In other action, the Bureau passed a resolution, welcoming the appointment of Frank E. Burch of Detroit to the conservation commission.

"He has contributed greatly to the bettering of farmer-sportsman relations and has a sincere interest in the farmers' point of view," the resolution states. The Bureau expressed appreciation for conservation department cooperation with farmers in the past, recommended no change on small game season opening dates, urged stronger protections against stream pollution and endorsed the statewide "Ask The Farmer First" campaign.

Planting one legal-sized brook trout may cost state sportsmen as little as 11 cents, a recent conservation department study shows.

Personnel of the Watersmeet state hatchery kept accurate cost checks on a routine trout-rearing assignment and found that about 10.9 cents was expended for each legal brook trout planted.

It took 6.6 of the fish to weigh a pound and at that rate the trout cost about 72 cents per pound.

Included in the study were costs for labor, fish food, truck mileage in transporting the fish and other incidental expenses.

The study started with eyed eggs that hatched in the winter of 1952-53. From these, 18,392 legal-sized fish were obtained this fall.

Similar cost studies are under way at Marquette, Thompson, Oden, Paris and Harrietta hatcheries.

The pint-sized deer that state game workers recently captured in northern Michigan is apparently nothing more than a midget or a pygmy.

"Nature plays tricks like this sometimes," says Dr. S. C. Whitlock, in charge of state game research. "It seems to be simply a stunted white-tailed deer."

The strange little animal, standing only two feet high, was captured in the wild near Houghton Lake wildlife experiment station late last week.

It has a white coat but is not an albino; the eyes and muzzle are dark-pigmented as in normal deer.

The midget is a six-months old female. A normal deer that age stands three to four feet high.

The animal is being held at the experiment station for study.

You choose from three beautiful new body styles including the Fordor (above). All have Ford's new Trigger-Torque performance and new Angle-Poised Ride. And choose Fordomatic, Overdrive or Conventional.

PLUS ALL THESE OTHER BRAND-NEW "WORTH MORE" FEATURES

- ★ New Speed-Trigger Fordomatic Drive has an automatic low gear for quicker starts and better passing ability.
- ★ New Torque-Action Spark Plugs resist fouling, maintain operating efficiency up to 3 times as long as ordinary plugs.
- ★ New 10% Larger Brakes mean smoother stopping and up to 50% longer brake lining life.
- ★ New Tubeless Tires offer extra puncture and blowout protection, longer tire life.
- ★ New Dual Exhaust System on V-8 engines in all Fairlane and Station Wagon models reduces exhaust back pressure for more responsive power.
- ★ New Torque-Tailored Rear Axles give you just the right over-all drive ratio for brilliant Trigger-Torque performance.

(Fordomatic, Overdrive optional)
