Thursday, December 9, 1954 Plymouth, Michigan Vol. 68, No. 16 32 Pages, 4 Sections

$2.00 Per Year in Plymouth $3.00 Elsewhere

THE MAIL IS HOME OWNED — COMPLETELY PUBLISHED IN PLYMOUTH — BY PLYMOUTHITES — FOR PLYMOUTHITES

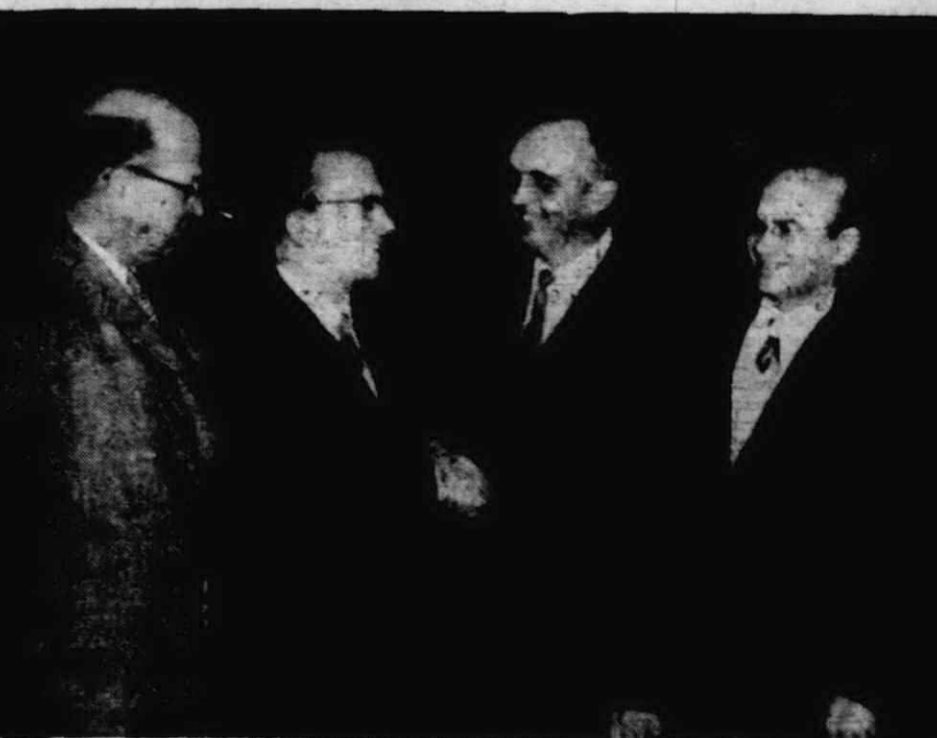

THOUGH MANY PLYMOUTH citizens forgot that Tuesday was the 13th anniversary of the infamous Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, a wreath can be seen in front of Plymouth Rock in Kellogg park as a remembrance of the 2,343 who died. Shown placing the wreath is Mrs. Virginia Bartel who represented the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mayflower post and the V.F.W. Auxiliary. She is Auxiliary chaplain.

SANTA CLAUS writing time is keeping most of the little folks busy nowadays and The Mail will start next week printing many of the letters. Shown here getting some ideas from a catalog are Sandy, Kathie and Ann Whitesell, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Whitesell, 1251 West Ann Arbor trail. Kathie, 11, is helping her younger sisters with the job. Sandy wants a bow and arrows, paintstick kit and a saddle for a horse she wants Santa to bring next year. Ann, 5, is asking for Lincoln logs, Bobby Twin paper dolls, sewing kit and some corduroy pants with "jingle bells" for the twin brothers, Stevie and David. Both want bunk beds for their dolls and skis.

MEMBERS OF THE state board of Children of the American Revolution met in Plymouth last Saturday at a luncheon at Arbor Hill to formulate plans for the annual state convention early next year. Participating in the meeting were: (l. to r.) Claudia Moore Smith, state director and national vice-president of Ann Arbor; Margaret Maisner, state C.A.R. president of Marshall; Mary Ellen Cruse, junior president of The Plymouth Corners society of Northville; Randy Eaton, state publicity director of Plymouth; and Charles Goewner, first state vice-president of Lansing. Senior state board members appointed by the local Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of D.A.R. also were in attendance at the meeting and state leaders of that group are pictured elsewhere in this issue.

A WELCOMING committee representing the city schools and the sponsoring Rotary club greeted Concert Pianist Jean Goldkette on his arrival in Plymouth Monday shortly before he presented two concerts locally. Goldkette, second from left, entertained the high school students at a special assembly Monday afternoon. His evening concert was sponsored by the Rotary club in observance of its 50th anniversary. Proceeds of the concert were to be given to the Plymouth Symphony orchestra. Shown above (left to right) are: Rotary President Patrick McGuire, Goldkette, Mayor Russell M. Daane, Phil Rubinoff (Goldkette's manager and brother of the famous violinist), and James Taylor and Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister, both members of the arrangements committee. Harry Draper was Rotary chairman of the project.

New Cab Service Seeking Licenses

A question of whether or not Plymouth needs another taxi service will be met by the city commission on December 20 when a two-member committee appointed last Monday night makes a report on an application for a new cab company here.

Commissioners received the application from Kelsey Neeley, owner-operator of Kelsey's Gulf Service, 307 Starweather. Neeley proposed to call the new firm, "Kelsey's Taxi Service."

Since all taxi licenses are issued and limited by the city, it is necessary for Neeley to receive city commission approval before starting operation of the firm. Neeley requests four taxi stands: one at Main and Ann Arbor trail, one on Forest avenue near Stop & Shop and two on Penniman avenue beside the National Bank of Detroit.

Before any discussion could transpire, Mayor Russell Daane pointed out that a similar question arose in 1950 and that the problem was given to a committee for study. He proposed that the same steps be followed for this request.

Result of the 1950 study was the limiting of one cab for each 1,200 population, giving the city six cabs. Since there were two cab companies at that time, both were allowed three taxis. One company later sold out to the other.

Today, all six cab licenses are held by the Plymouth Cab company. These licenses expire December 31.

Named to the commission committee to study the problem were Robert Sincock and Eleanor Hammond. They have been requested to report their findings at the next meeting.

One commissioner did express his views on the question, however, before the discussion closed. Commissioner Ernest Henry said he personally would not favor another cab company since he would rather see one company operate on a sound financial basis and being able to afford safe taxi cabs.

In other business, commissioners approved the appointments of Mayor Daane to four boards. He reappointed Austin Pino to the

Two Brothers Hit by Car; One Undergoes Surgery

Two brothers, one pushing the other in a wagon, were struck by a car at 8 p.m. Tuesday as they crossed South Main street while on their way home from the grocery.

They are Brian Smith, 5, and Fred Smith, 13, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith, 794 South Main street. Mr. Smith is co-owner of the S & W Hardware and is treasurer of the Plymouth Township Board of Education. The accident happened a few hundred feet from the Smith home.

Fred was released from the hospital after treatment of an injury to his left knee but Brian, who was struck in the face by the headlight of the car, is in more serious condition at Henry Ford hospital. He underwent three hours of facial surgery and is being closely watched for indications of a brain concussion.

Driver of the car was Mrs. Eugene Eicher, 9034 Elmhurst. Police quoted Mrs. Eicher as relating that she was driving at 20 miles an hour on South Main street when "the two boys suddenly appeared in front of me." The boys, with Brian in a wagon being pushed by Fred, were on the east side of the street waiting for cars to pass. They then moved down a driveway in front of a parked car and out into the path of the oncoming Eicher auto.

Brian was struck in the face by the headlight and thrown to the other side of the street. Both boys were taken by ambulance to Wayne County General hospital and later transferred to Ford hospital. Fred was taken home later in the evening after treatment of his knee while Brian underwent facial surgery.

Brian is in kindergarten at Smith school and Fred is an eighth grade student.

Chorus, Orchestra To Present Messiah

The 60-voice Plymouth Civic Chorus will join forces with the Plymouth Symphony orchestra this Sunday for the annual presentation of The Messiah by Handel. Fred C. Nelson will conduct, while F. Earl Reh, Nat Sibbold, Edith Ryan and Florence Ellison will be featured soloists.

The program will be presented at 4:00 p.m. at the Plymouth high school auditorium.

Planning Group Recommends School Board Start New Elementary Building

A recommendation that the board of education plan for construction of an "elementary wing" in time to accommodate next year's new flood of school children has been made by the School Community Planning group.

Site of the proposed school would be on Sheldon road, south of Joy road, on a 20-acre plot purchased by the school board early this year.

The report on the classroom shortage was delivered by Harold Fischer, chairman of the school organization and plant facilities Committee of the School Community Planning group. It is expected that the board of education will consider the planning group's recommendation at its next meeting on December 13.

The committee report pointed out that the system's elementary schools are overcrowded this year and a census of pre-school children indicated that the present number of classrooms could not take care of the enrollment anticipated next September.

On October 1, enrollment in Starkweather, Smith, Bird and Allen elementary buildings was 1,897. But the schools were designed to each hold 420 students (35 per classroom) or a total of 1,680. The extra 117 students are absorbed by placing 40 or more students in some rooms and by utilizing the library in two of the buildings for classrooms.

But a census taken last May (already obsolete) shows there will be at least 2,087 students in the elementary buildings. The school system will therefore be short at least eight classrooms and probably more by September.

One plan studied by the committee was the neighborhood "primary unit." These units are ranch-style homes built in residential areas where there is an abundance of kindergarten or first grade children. The unit would hold one or two classrooms of children. When need for the classroom ended in a neighborhood, the building could be sold for conversion into a home.

The study committee, which met several times with other interested citizens as guests, rejected the primary unit idea in favor of construction of a new school. It was found that building lots in

Four Gridders Win Honorable Mention

Four members of Plymouth's league championship football team were signally honored Wednesday by being given honorable mention on the Detroit Free Press All-State football team.

Members of the Rocks who were so honored were tackle John Agnew, center James Arnold and backs Lee Juve and Denny Luker. The four players had previously been selected on the all-league all-star team.

Plymouth fared unusually well on the all-state team placing a total of four players in the honorable mention section which marks an all-time high in state wide recognition of local pigskin toters.

Garden Club's Greens-Bake Sale Starts Friday

Plymouth homemakers with an eye to fixing up their homes for the yuletide season will have a chance to buy attractive Christmas decorations and greens, as well as purchase some tasty treats for the family, this Friday and Saturday, December 10 and 11 at the annual Christmas Greens and Bake sale sponsored by the Plymouth branch, Michigan Division of the Women's National Farm and Garden association.

The event will be held at West Bros. Nash salesroom on Forest avenue from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday.

Featured at the sale will be unusually attractive table and mantle decorations, colorful wreaths and swags to beautify the doors of Plymouth homes, candles, evergreen roping by the yard, kissing bells and such items as felt boleros for the children.

Untrimmed greens may also be had for those who wish to create their own artistic yuletide decorations.

Delicious rolls and breads, tasty cookies and scrumptious pies, cakes and other goodies will be displayed at the Bake sale.

Proceeds from the annual event will go to the club's scholarship fund. To date the organization has been able to put four local girls through college as a result of past Christmas Greens and Bake sales.

Chairman of the Greens sale is Mrs. Roy Lindsay. Mrs. George Cramer is in charge of the Bake sale.

Township Trailer Park Dispute Goes to Court

Reckless Driving Charge Brought Against Detective

A charge of reckless driving has been filed against Kenneth Ayote, the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad detective who last week was pursued into Plymouth by a Livonia police car. The patrol car was demolished when it crashed into a floodlight pole at a service station at Main and Mill streets.

Livonia police said they filed the reckless driving charge against Ayote because of his speeding between 80 and 90 miles an hour from Newburg road to Eckles road. The case was scheduled for hearing before Justice of the Peace Leo Nye Wednesday morning but because the city attorney, Russell Ashmore, is involved in his own court case in circuit court, the hearing was postponed until next Wednesday.

Ayote and a companion, Sigmond Mezaras were traveling to the Plymouth railroad yards to take an intoxicated brakeman off a train when Livonia patrolmen Robert MacIntyre and Archie Hewett saw the unidentified car speeding by. Ayote said that Mezaras flashed a signal with a hand spotlight when he saw the patrol car behind them.

The patrol car skidded at the turn in Main street at Mill and struck a pole at the Standard Oil service station. The patrolmen were thrown out of the car and received minor injuries.

The incident has caused repercussions in Plymouth, especially in the city commission where at least two commissioners condemned the Livonia police as well as the detectives for driving 90 miles an hour.

Commissioners Marvin Terry and George Bauer argued that it would be better for police cars to give up the chase rather than pursue a car while traveling 90 miles an hour inside the city. They pointed out that someone could have been standing on the corner or a car crossing the intersection.

Throw New Hat Into City Race

A former candidate for the city commission who lost out by only 29 votes has now thrown his hat into the local political ring by announcing his candidacy for the commission.

He is Sheldon Baker, 978 Hartough, who will make a second attempt to gain a commission seat. Baker came in fifth in the 1953 election which filled four vacancies. He polled only 29 less votes than incumbent candidate George Bauer.

Baker, a tool and die maker at Daisy Manufacturing company, is the fifth person to announce his intentions to run for the four full-term commission seats. It was announced last week by Kelsey Neeley, local service station operator, that he would be a candidate for the full term but he has now said he will become a candidate for the unexpired term of the late Henry Fisher.

Others who are aspiring for the full terms are Harry Roberts, George Witkowski and incumbents Robert Sincock and Marvin Terry.

Baker is married and has two sons and a daughter.

Gas Pump Burns

A gas pump at Burley's Service station, 806 South Main street, was the victim of both a collision and fire last week.

Fire Chief Robert McAllister reported that an unidentified motorist accidentally drove his car into one of three pumps. A short time later, the pump burst into flames, believed to have been caused by a shorted wire in the damaged mechanism.

Attendants unsuccessfully fought the fire with extinguishers and a water hose until firemen arrived. Using a fog spray and carbon dioxide extinguisher, the fire was put out instantly.

The fire happened at 9:30 p.m. on Wednesday of last week.

A decision last October of the Plymouth township board to reject a proposal to construct a house trailer park has led to the circuit court in Detroit where five days of testimony and argument have taken place before Judge Wade McCree.

Plaintiff in the case is Clyde Smith, president of Smith Motor Sales, Inc., who was turned down by the township board when he asked permission to construct a trailer park in the northeast section of the township.

The court action started when Smith was refused his building permit. He then filed a writ of mandamus in circuit court asking that Building Inspector Ernest Rossow issue him a building permit.

The case opened on Tuesday of last week and adjourned Monday until a later date. Witnesses who have appeared on the stand besides Smith himself have been Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay, Rossow, Carl Hartwick, chairman of the township zoning board, Thomas Zak, clerk of the zoning board, and Frank Millington, chairman of the newly-formed Community Improvement Association of Plymouth Township.

While Smith's attorney is attempting to prove the merits of a trailer park, disadvantages of the project are being brought out by the township's legal counsel, Earl Demel.

The plaintiff has pointed out that state law requires trailers to be located on at least 900 square feet of space, but that Smith's plan would give each trailer 2,400 square feet. The 103 unit trailer park would be located along Ridge road, between Territorial and Five Mile roads. Its cost is estimated at $60,000.

Of the 25 acre site proposed for the park, 10 acres would be for actual trailer parking and 15 acres for recreational purposes. Smith states there would be state approved water and sewage facilities, blacktopped streets, concrete drive for the trailer and concrete patio and other advantages. Spending could be increased in the area by over a quarter million dollars a year, the plaintiff claims.

On the other side of the argument, the township attorney is claiming that the area under consideration is zoned for agriculture use with construction limited to one-family buildings and homes. Demel also has pointed out that the township does not think the park will have sufficient water and sewerage facilities; that the plan does not meet with the approval of all adjoining property owners and that a sudden influx of residents would tax school facilities.

Since there are no trailer camps in the township at present, the court action is becoming a test case. When Judge McCree renders his verdict, it is possible that the losing side may appeal the case to the state supreme court.

Smith stated today that he would make no attempt to predict the outcome of the hearing, "but I have no doubt about the ability and fairness of Judge McCree."

The judge, among the first of his race to sit on the circuit court bench, was appointed two months ago.

Dystrophy Drive Hits $1,383 Here

Muscular dystrophy victims will be aided by $1,383.15 as a result of Plymouth's recent two-week campaign, Drive Chairman Lovell H. Fulton announced this week.

The porchlght drive, conducted by members of the Firemen's association with the aid of the American Legion and V.F.W., was started Thanksgiving eve. By the first Wednesday only half the town had been covered and $611.56 collected, making it necessary to continue the drive the following Wednesday on a doorbell rather than porchlght basis. Local residents added $771.59 to that already donated, boosting the total to $1,383.15.

Anyone who missed the doorbell campaign, Fulton pointed out, may still contribute to the drive by mailing his donation to the Plymouth City Hall or Fire department.

Church Bazaar Reports Sales Nearly $1,000

Efforts of the many women who contributed to last week's bazaar at St. John's Episcopal church were rewarded by the fact that nearly $1,000 worth of purchases had been made by the hundreds of visitors to the annual event. General chairman Mrs. Harry Draper and Mrs. Lewis Goddard reported that sales topped those of last year's bazaar.

The event was held last Friday and Saturday in the basement of the church.

Palms, candelabra and baskets of flowers decorated the Cherry Hill Methodist church Saturday, for the marriage of Barbara Jean Schultz and Donald L. Faust. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schultz of 4825 Proctor road, Belleville, Michigan. Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Faust, 129 East Hunt street, Adrian, Michigan are the parents of the bridegroom.

The 7:30 evening service was read by the Reverend G. T. Nevin. Mrs. Alice Atwell was soloist for the occasion. She sang "I Love You Truly," and the accompanist was Miss Nancy West.

Barbara, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white chantilly lace and tulle over satin with portrait neckline, basque bodice and long fitted sleeves. Lace over a tiered tulle skirt terminated in a chapel train. Her veil of imported illusion was secured by a lace and beaded coronet. Barbara carried a colonial bouquet of white and light pink roses.

Catherine Fishbeck was maid of honor and wore an aqua crystallite ballerina-length dress. She carried yellow button mums arranged in a colonial-style bouquet.

Bridesmaids for the ceremony were Joan Buchner and Elaine Faust. They wore deep pink crystallite ballerina-length gowns and carried colonial bouquets of light blue button mums.

Best man was Richard Bennett and seating guests were Donald Welsh and Thomas Bridges.

The bride's mother chose a navy dress with pink accessories. Mrs. Faust also wore a navy dress but with winter white accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

Following the ceremony a dinner and reception was held in the church parlors. Guests numbering 150 were present from Adrian, Tecumseh, Detroit, Ypsilanti, Plymouth and Northville. Barbara's two grandmothers, Mrs. Henry Hauk of Cherry Hill and Mrs. August Schultz of Plymouth; and her great grandmother, Mrs. Henry Wilkie of Detroit, were present for the occasion.

Miss Sylvia Sonoc was in charge of the guest book. Miss Peggy Hirsch and Miss Rosemary Zimba assisted in cutting the wedding cake. Opening and recording gifts were Miss Margaret Jorgenson and Mrs. Suzanne Wright.

For traveling the new Mrs. Faust changed to a light aqua faille suit with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Upon their return the couple will live in Adrian, Michigan.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Raymond of Park road are announcing the birth of a son, Richard Allen, weighing six pounds one ounce and born at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor on November 18.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Williams of Mayfield avenue, Livonia, are the proud parents of a son, John Arnold, born on November 30 at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor and weighing eight pounds, nine and one-half ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Good announce the birth of a son, Edwin Donald born on November 30 in Garden City hospital weighing six pounds nine ounces. Mrs. Good is the former Mary Jane Davis.

Christmas Parties Start Next Week In Most Plymouth Grade Schools

Christmas starts next week for hundreds of Plymouth youngsters when local schools hold carol sings and room parties ushering in the Yuletide event.

Smith school celebrations begin Wednesday, December 15, at 7:30 p.m. with a family Christmas sing around the huge, lighted Christmas tree in the center of the school yard. Decorations on the tree will be made by the children in their art classes. Mrs. Laury, music teacher, will direct the unison singing.

After the singing, grownups will go to the auditorium for the annual P.T.A. Christmas party, while the youngsters will have parties in their classrooms under the direction of their teachers and room parents.

At 7:45 Thursday evening, December 16, Christmas festivities will get under way at the Allen school. Parents and children will brave the winter winds for the sing around the brightly-lighted Christmas tree in front of the school. Afterwards there'll be merry partying in the school-rooms.

Following the Allen school celebration, Starkweather will hold its Christmas merriment on Friday, December 17, at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium. About 400 children and their parents will be at the Main street building for a special musical program based on Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite." The school room parties sponsored by the P.T.A. will be held the afternoon of December 23.

Bird school youngsters will participate in a special Christmas program at the school on Tuesday, December 21. The event will start at 7:30 p.m. and will feature a presentation of "The Littlest Angel" by the school children. Room parties are set for Thursday afternoon, December 23.

Carol Avery's Troth Announced

Mr. and Mrs. Clair Avery of Canton Center road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Carol, to Marion Beasley, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Beasley of 9284 Brookline street, Plymouth.

No wedding date has been set.

Circle 5 of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Thomas Adams, 1116 Harding avenue on Thursday, December 16, at 1 p.m., for a potluck luncheon. Each member has been asked to bring a gift for patients at the mental hospital. Gifts are to be wrapped suitable for men or women. This is the last meeting for this group and all members are urged to attend.

Residents to Appear On Chicago TV Show

The tragedy in her life, how she adopted eight children and later married their father will be told by Mrs. Oscar Puckett of 14605 Haggerty road when she appears next Wednesday, December 15, on the "Welcome Travelers" show over WJBK-TV, Channel 2, in Chicago. Mrs. Puckett and her entire family were asked to appear on the TV program as a result of a letter from friends in Missouri.

The Pucketts and seven of their children will be guests on the program, one daughter coming from California. The eighth son, a serviceman stationed in Germany, will be unable to appear on the show. Travel expenses and reservations at the Sheraton hotel for the entire family will be paid by program sponsors.

Electric stoves, clothing, refrigerators, movie cameras, freezers are some of the awards given to those appearing on "Welcome Travelers."

Broadcast live from Chicago at 9 a.m. Wednesday, the show is kinescoped and will probably not appear over local stations until the following week.

Explains Confusion On Township Taxes

Confusion on the part of some Plymouth township taxpayers about the tax bills which they are now receiving through the mail has led to an announcement by Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay.

Lindsay said that some township property owners believe they are paying a higher rate than their neighbors in the city. This is not true, he added.

City property owners are receiving tax statements for payment of only county and school taxes. This amounts to $28.03 for each $1,000 valuation. They pay city taxes later in the year.

Township taxpayers will be paying $30 for each $1,000 valuation, Lindsay asserted, but this amount includes county, school and township tax. Township property owners get no other tax statements during the year and actually pay much less taxes than in the city, the supervisor said.

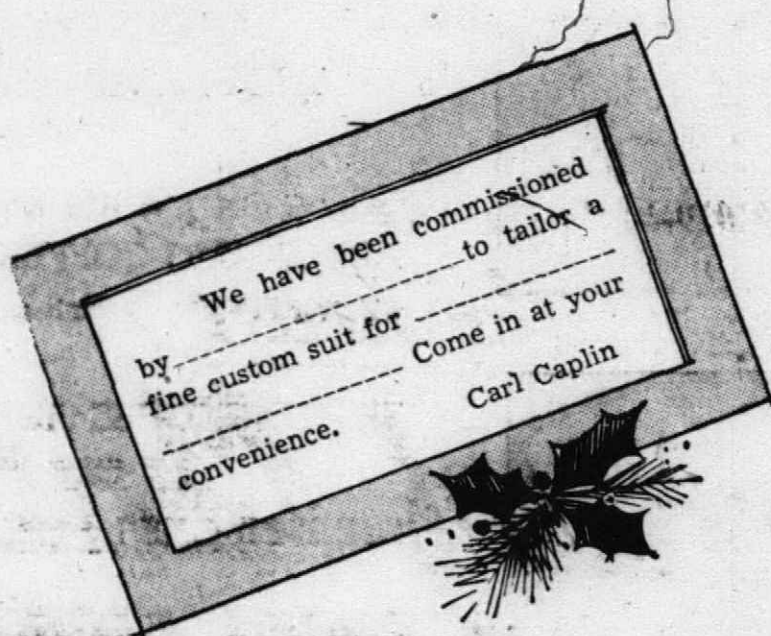

Circle No. 3 of the First Presbyterian church will have their Christmas luncheon and party with Mrs. Roy Jacobus on Warren road on Thursday, December 16 at 12:30 p.m.

Telephone Company Students Present Skit

In cooperation with the local office of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, junior high school youngsters gave two presentations of a skit on telephone courtesy for their fellow students during the school assembly yesterday.

Participating in the skit, which demonstrated the proper and improper use of the telephone, were the following pupils: Billy Schwartz, Dick Wells, Dennis Simpson, Dolores Aldrich, Nancy Alford and Gloria Bowles.

The skit was written and directed by Mrs. Connie Aldrich of the employment office in the local firm. Miss Joan Bush of the same office prepared the drawings.

Also scheduled for the assembly program was a movie, "The Spirit of Christmas," presented by Charles Bridges of the telephone company's commercial department.

Published every Thursday at 271 S. Main street, Plymouth, Michigan in Michigan's largest weekly newspaper plant.

OBITUARY

Frank Michael Klinski
 Frank Michael Klinski, who resided at 45355 Ann Arbor road, Plymouth, passed away early Tuesday morning, December 7, after a long illness. He was 59 years of age.
 Surviving are his father, Michael Klinski; three sisters, Miss Martha Klinski and Mrs. Bernice Kanka of Plymouth, and Mrs. Marion Sackett of Northville; and three brothers, Walter, Edward, and Lewis Klinski, all of Plymouth.

Mr. Klinski was born in Maybee, Michigan in 1895. He came to Plymouth with his family in 1916 and has lived the greater part of his life here since that time.

The Rosary will be recited at the Schrader Funeral home Thursday evening at 9. Requiem High Mass will be celebrated by the Reverend Francis C. Byrne on Friday, December 10, at 9:30 a.m. at Our Lady of Good Counsel church, where Mr. Klinski was a member. Interment will be made in Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Joyce Ann Bontekoe

Joyce Ann Bontekoe, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Bontekoe of 6060 Globe street, Wayne, passed away Sunday December 5. She was 17 months old.

Besides her parents, Joyce Ann is survived by two sisters, Bonnie Blue and Marcia Kay Bontekoe; her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Reed of Keego Harbor, Michigan; and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Y. Bontekoe of Marion, Michigan.

The Reverend Henry J. Walch, D. D. officiated at the funeral services which were held at the Schrader Funeral home. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Christopher Lon Smith

Christopher Lon Smith, the four-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Smith of 9004 Marlowe street, passed away Monday, December 6, following a long illness. His death occurred at St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor where he had been for most of the last seven weeks.

Members of the immediate family, other than the parents, who survive are one brother, Robert, aged five, one sister, Teresa, age one, his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Helen Smith of Plymouth; his maternal grandmother, Mrs. Floss B. Neffler of Northville; his maternal grandfather, Thomas J. Nipper of Reo, Arkansas; and his great grandmother, Mrs. Mary E. Cannon of Flint.

Funeral services were held Thursday morning, December 9, at 9:30 a.m. from Our Lady of Good Counsel church with the Reverend Francis C. Byrne officiating. Pallbearers were Jimmy Preston, Wayne Sparkman, Philip Ferguson and David Dyer. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Maude C. Holloway

Mrs. Maude C. Holloway, wife of Robert W. Holloway, formerly of Plymouth, passed away Monday, December 6, at the University hospital in Ann Arbor.

Surviving are her husband, Robert, of 714 West Liberty, Ann Arbor; Mrs. Bernard Curtis of Plymouth, and a son, James Holloway of Ann Arbor.

Services were held yesterday at the Muehlig funeral home in Ann Arbor. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery, Plymouth.

Jack W. Bothwell

Mr. Jack W. Bothwell, who lived at 11303 Cranston in Rose-dale Gardens, Livonia, died very suddenly Friday, December 3. He was 47 years of age. Mr. Bothwell suffered a heart attack early Friday morning and was rushed to the Northwest Branch of Grace hospital, where he lived for only an hour.

Born in Denver, Colorado on November 16, 1907, Mr. Bothwell spent his boyhood in Port Huron, Michigan. Later he moved to Detroit, and from there to Plymouth where he lived about six years. In 1947 he moved to Livonia, and was residing there when his death occurred. Mr. Bothwell was associated with the Kelsey-Hayes corporation as an engineer. His employment there began 25 years ago.

Members of the immediate family who survive are his wife, Mrs. Geraldine Bothwell; three daughters, Mrs. Jacqueline Kirm of Wyandotte, Mrs. Colleen Davidson of Novi, and Miss Vicki Lynn Bothwell who lives at home. Three grandchildren survive, also two sisters, Mrs. Eunice Damon of Detroit, and Mrs. Bernice Gilbert of Muncie, Indiana.

The Reverend J. Woodrow Wooley officiated at the funeral services which were held Monday, December 6, at 1 o'clock from the Schrader Funeral Home. Hymns were played on the chapel organ by Mrs. Edna O'Conner. Pallbearers were E. J. Kral, George May, R. Olson, J. Potok, A. Farmer, and J. Cook, all fellow employees of Kelsey-Hayes. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

Gratitude is a fruit of great cultivation you do not find it among gross people.

—Samuel Johnson.

Add to Casualty Care Station List

Names of two professional men have been added to the list of personnel who will staff the casualty care stations which have been designated in Plymouth and Plymouth township. A complete list of the personnel appeared in last week's Mail.

Dr. F. H. Armstrong, dentist, will be stationed at Smith school while Dr. F. M. Thoms, dentist, will be at Plymouth high school.

Two names were misplaced in last week's listing. Dr. Harry C. Balfour will be stationed at Smith school and Dr. John Robinson at St. John's Seminary.

Rosedale Club Sponsors Annual Greens Market

Loose greens, novelties, Christmas decorations, candles and swags will go on sale at the Rosedale Gardens Club House on Tuesday, December 14, when the Rosedale Gardens branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association holds its annual Greens Market. Orders for Livonia's official tree, the Almey flowering crab, will also be taken at the event, which will be held from 1:15 to 5 p.m.

The Greens Market is part of an extended scholarship program sponsored by the club. Sales in previous years have allowed the club to put up $250 annually for tuition for a student at Michigan State college. The first recipient of the award, Miss Janet Beyer, is now a junior.

Mrs. Erwin Bergner and Mrs. Charles Gardner are co-chairman of the Greens Market. They will be assisted by the following chairmen and their committees:

Mrs. Harry Boorman, decoration of wreaths; Mrs. Phil Dupuis, painting of cones; Mrs. John Riggs, clubhouse decoration; Mrs. Lyman Hedden, bows for wreaths; Mrs. Toni Mepfans, posters; Mrs. Russell Bull, finance; and Mrs. Earl Bishop, delivery of wreaths.

Christmas punch, tea, fruitcake and cookies will be served. Hospitality co-chairmen Mrs. Robert Bruce and Mrs. W. H. Rolan will be assisted by Mrs. William Taylor, Mrs. Alfred Shaughnessy, Mrs. Ernest Wooster and Mrs. Timothy Horgan.

Lions Sponsor Party For Cubs, Boy Scouts

The Cubs of Pack 6 and Troop 6 of the Boy Scouts will be guests of honor at the Lions club Christmas party planned for Thursday, December 16, at the Mayflower hotel. Each year the Lions hold the yuletide event for the pack and troop sponsored by their organization.

A chicken supper at 6:30 p.m. will start the party festivities followed by an entertainment program. Highlights of the evening will be a special show presented for the youngsters by local magician Roy Rew. Richard King of Grinnell's is donating his services for the occasion and will provide musical entertainment on the organ.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bassett entertained at a buffet birthday supper on Sunday, December 5, in celebration of their son, Evan's fifth birthday. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bassett, Mr. and Mrs. Terry Tallmadge and daughter, Tamar, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hanson, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bassett, Cindy, Lindy and Richard, and Mrs. James Bassett.

A MERE SAMPLING of the many attractive items to be found at the annual Greens Market sponsored by the Rosedale Gardens branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association on Tuesday, December 14, are displayed by club members. Surrounded by co-chairmen Mrs. Charles Gardner (left) and Mrs. Erwin Bergner, is Mrs. Chester Tuck, president of the Rosedale organization. The event will be held from 1:15 to 5 p.m. at the Rosedale Gardens clubhouse. As in previous years, proceeds of the Greens Market will be used for scholarship funds.

A special meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chambers of the City Hall on Thursday, November 18, 1954 at 8:00 p.m. for the purpose of considering compromise offer received in connection with water case.

I. Lamont C. BeGole, City Clerk of the City of Plymouth, hereby certifies that on Thursday, November 18, 1954, in the manner and places required by City Charter, copies were posted of a Notice of Special Meeting of the City Commission to be held on Thursday, November 18, 1954 at 8:00 p.m. for the purpose set forth above.

Lamont C. BeGole, City Clerk Present: Comms. Bauer, Henry, Sincok and Terry.

Absent: Comms. Guenther, Hammond and Mayor Daane. In the absence of Mayor Daane, Mayor pro-tem Henry presided.

City Attorney Harry Devo outlined the details of a letter received from the Clerk of the State Supreme Court concerning the question in the minds of the justices as to whether or not the possibility of compromise agreement had been discussed the case now pending before the court involving the City of Plymouth, Northville Sand and Gravel Co. and the Township of Northville relative to the excavation of gravel in the land north and adjacent to the City of Plymouth Well Field in violation of the township ordinance. Mr. Devo then submitted to the Commission a suggested agreement between the parties to the lawsuit. Said agreement proposed that the City of Plymouth would acquire from the Northville Sand and Gravel Company, 17 acres of land immediately adjacent and north of the City Well Field, as a buffer zone over which the gravel company could maintain an easement for driveway purposes for a period not to exceed 10 years, and that the gravel company would be permitted to excavate the gravel in its remaining portion of land to the north but not carry on washing or processing operations on that remaining portion.

Since additional time was necessary for the purpose of negotiating a price for the land, it was moved by Comm. Bauer and supported by Comm. Sincok that the meeting be adjourned until 8:00 a.m. on Friday, November 19, 1954.

Carried unanimously. Time of adjournment was 9:15 p.m.

Ernest Henry Mayor Pro-tem

UNWRITTEN LAWS

ALSO WATCH A PEDESTRIAN STEPPING FROM CURB UP TO PAVEMENT.

No self-respecting pedestrian, walking on the highway shoulder, would be dumb enough to step into a puddle of water when within one step there is that nice dry pavement. With his mind on the puddle he may well forget that a car may be coming — at 60.

A pedestrian on the loose on a high speed highway is always bad news for a motorist. All you can do is slow down, prepare to dodge and try to second-guess him.

For a motorist to fail to recognize any pedestrian as a hazard is as foolish as a driver's failure to take special precautions when he sees a child walking or the car begins to roll.

Lottie M. Mather Succumbs at 77

Funeral services will be held at 1 p.m. today for Mrs. Lottie M. Mather, 77, of 373 North Main street, who passed away early Tuesday following an illness of two years.

Mrs. Mather was the widow of Charles M. Mather, founder of the Plymouth Lumber & Coal company. The firm is now operated by a son, David Mather.

Born July 11, 1877 in Newton township, Michigan, Mrs. Mather was the daughter of William and Sarah Hassett Weed.

The Mather family moved to Plymouth from Marshall in 1908. They are survived by one son, David; a daughter, Mrs. Irvin Blunk; and two grandchildren, Susan and Charles Mather, all of Plymouth. Her husband preceded her in death in 1938.

Mrs. Mather died at the home of her daughter here at 415 Arthur street. Services will be conducted from the Schrader Funeral home with the Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson, D.D., pastor of First Methodist church, officiating. Interment will be in Riverside cemetery.

The deceased was a member of First Methodist church.

Boy Scouts Selling Christmas Wreaths

Members of boy scout troop P-4 of the Presbyterian church were busily engaged this week in their annual sale of Christmas wreaths. Under the guidance of Troop Leader Donald Prince the boys make the wreaths themselves and then compete to see which scout can sell the greatest number. A prize is given to the best salesman.

Anyone interested in having one of these attractive Christmas decorations may contact any member of Troop P-4 or the adult leaders of the troop, Prince, Robert Bachelder or Frank Beach.

Injury Returns Youth to Court

A leg injury he himself received is bringing a local youth into court next week on a charge that he caused another man to suffer a broken leg.

Kelvin Dunagan, 19, of 176 North Harvey street, was arrested by police in September after charges of aggravated assault were filed against him. He allegedly entered the Superior Furnace & Manufacturing company here and started a tussle with an employee, Alvin Smithson, 270 South Mill street. Smithson was believed pushed against some machinery and received a broken leg.

Dunagan posted a $300 bond in a preliminary hearing but before his case was heard, he joined the Army. But fate played a trick recently when Dunagan injured his knee while riding a motorcycle in the Army. He was given a medical discharge, subject to re-examination in later months.

But his reappearance in Plymouth brought his re-arrest and he was freed under $1,000 bond. He will appear Monday.

Reckless Driving

tersection when the police car went out of control.

But Chief of Police Carl Greenlee said that he would not censure the Livonia patrolmen since they had no indication that occupants of the pursued car were not involved in some serious crime and that citizens hold police responsible for catching criminals.

Chief Greenlee said that railroad officials had already told him they were sorry about the incident and that they have promised it would not happen again.

planning commission, the appointment to expire November 7, 1957; Carl Shear was reappointed to the board of assessment and review, the appointment to expire January, 1958; David Mather and Mrs. Nell Curry were renamed to the board of zoning appeals, the appointment to expire December 1, 1957.

The mayor postponed appointments to another vacancy in the planning commission and one on the electrical board of examiners. Commissioners approved the issuing of a beer and wine license for the Penniman Market operated by John Rogin. Though the license is issued by the Liquor Control commission, the state first asks approval of the city commission before a license is issued. The license will permit the selling of packaged beer and wine.

The Plymouth Elks lodge was given approval to conduct a parade on Saturday, December 18 at 1 p.m. The occasion will be the arrival of Santa Claus and the activity will be centered around Kellogg park.

Approval was also given the Seventh Day Adventist church for use of a sound car in the residential areas three days preceding Christmas. The sound car is used in conjunction with the church's annual gathering program. The Plymouth Cab company was given approval to use "Season's Greetings" signs on the back of their cabs. An offer to bring the greetings from the city as well as the cab company was rejected.

Words of 50 Years Ago

Local merchants now sponsoring the "Shop in Plymouth" campaign may do well to also promote the New Year's resolution which appeared in The Plymouth Mail 50 years ago as a suggestion to readers. It read:

"I will never fail to say a good word for my home town; I will not spend my money anywhere else and will do all in my power to promote the interests of what I claim is the best town on earth."

Mishap-less Day

fort will not solve traffic accident problems, but it is hoped to impress people with the need for year-around support of proven safety programs.

Sponsoring S-D Day is the President's Action Committee for Traffic Safety. And supporting the committee's S-D Day are many local agencies such as the police department, Plymouth Association of Insurance Agents, the American Automobile Association and State Highway Police.

Insurance agents here point out that cutting accidents is one way of cutting the cost of automobile insurance. "Reduce the number of traffic deaths and injuries," the association of agents declared, "and we can assure you the insurance people will be happy to reduce auto insurance rates."

To achieve the S-D Day goal, here are three rules each motorist is asked to remember:

1. Observe the letter and spirit of all traffic regulations.
2. Be courteous to every other driver and pedestrian.
3. Keep your mind on the road when you walk or drive.

CHRISTMAS WORSHIP SERVICES at 9:30 and 11:00 a.m. Christmas is a time of joy and of singing. Our three choirs, under the direction of Mr. Urey Arnold, will participate. The Adult choir will appear for the first time in their new gowns, made possible through a generous gift from Mr. Edward C. Hough. Besides special numbers from our choirs, our very capable organist, Mrs. Joyce Heeney Beglarian, will offer appropriate renditions. Through the fine talents of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Witwer, our church again will be beautifully decorated.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL CHRISTMAS PROGRAM will be given on Sunday, December 19, at 4:00 p.m. It will feature the Nativity Scene. Following the presentation all the children will go to the large dining room, where they will meet Santa Claus and will be given a Christmas treat. Mrs. Bernard Curtis and Mr. Eugene Jordan are the directors of this program.

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICE will be held at 11:00 p.m. Dec. 24. Our people will again gather for what has proven to be one of the most inspiring services of the calendar year. The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be administered. The service concludes at midnight.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

10:30 Sunday morning service.
10:30 Sunday school.
Classes for pupils up to 20 years of age.

The effectiveness of scientific prayer in meeting human problems of every kind will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man" is the Golden Text from II Timothy (4:18): "The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (16:7-11): "Our Master taught his disciples one brief prayer, which we name after him the Lord's Prayer. Our Master said, 'After this manner therefore pray ye,' and then he gave that prayer which covers all human needs."

From the Bible will be read the account as given in Matthew of Christ Jesus' instructions on how to pray which includes the following (6:7,8): "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him."

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

10:30 Sunday morning service.
10:30 Sunday school.
Classes for pupils up to 20 years of age.

The effectiveness of scientific prayer in meeting human problems of every kind will be set forth at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man" is the Golden Text from II Timothy (4:18): "The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will be the following (16:7-11): "Our Master taught his disciples one brief prayer, which we name after him the Lord's Prayer. Our Master said, 'After this manner therefore pray ye,' and then he gave that prayer which covers all human needs."

From the Bible will be read the account as given in Matthew of Christ Jesus' instructions on how to pray which includes the following (6:7,8): "But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him."

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

Plans are now completed for the Post and Auxiliary Christmas party at our Post home on Sunday, December 19, from 2 to 5 p.m. Santa Claus will be on hand to visit all the children of our members. Call Betty or Bud Krumm for further details!

Also plan on making your New Year's Eve reservations for the Post New Year's dance. Music, dancing and refreshments are included in the plans for seeing the old year out and the new year in! Tickets will be available from any Post member!

Helen Burgett is home from the hospital now and is improving nicely. Hope we see you at our regular meeting very soon, Helen. Our Post is planning a dedication program of our new Post Memorial home on Sunday, February 20, 1955. We ask everyone's cooperation and will keep everyone informed on the full particulars in a later column!

Fortnighters to Sponsor Christmas Square Dance

The Fortnighters of the Presbyterian church will meet this Friday, December 10, for a Christmas square dance. A pot-luck supper will start the festivities at 6:30 p.m. followed by Christmas singing led by a quartette of choir members.

Square dancing will begin at 8 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Hoffmeyer from Ann Arbor will be the callers.

All couples of the church are welcome to come to Fortnighters. For information call Mr. and Mrs. William Edgar or Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Stahl.

Another new department adopted by our national president for this year is the Aid and Education for Korean Children. We must work along with the American Korean foundation in trying to ease the suffering and hardship of the Korean people and to help Korea demonstrate the democratic way of life in Asia. They are asking each Auxiliary to help and any member who wishes to share in this program to make a personal donation of $4 for the Aid and Education of Korean Children.

Contact your Hospital chairman, Marlyn Wiltse, for the date set for the Christmas hospital trip to the veterans at Maybury Sanitarium. We need the help of all Post or Auxiliary girls wishing to make this important trip.

NEW KELVINATOR WASHER HAS 2 Separate, Automatic Washing Cycles!

1. FOR FINE FABRICS AND SMALL LOADS

2. FOR HEAVY FABRICS AND LARGE LOADS

Exclusive "Tel-A-Fabric" signal light eliminates mistakes
A BEAUTIFUL NEW TOTALLY AUTOMATIC LAUNDRY TEAM! KELVINATOR AUTOMATIC DRYER

The new 1955 Kelvinator has two complete totally automatic washing cycles! Dial "Regular Fabrics" for heavily soiled laundry, or dial "Fine Fabrics" for sheers, nylons or lighter loads. You'll save almost half the time... and half the soap and water, too. Kelvinator's exclusive "Tel-A-Fabric" signal lights show washing cycle selected. You can't make mistakes!

Kelvinator's new matching automatic dryer is the only dryer with all 3 safety features—safe temperature, safe cylinder and safety door. And the back panel of both washer and dryer has full-width fluorescent flood light.

SPECIAL VALUE!
KELVINATOR Automatic Washer
Only $250
a week after small down payment
Other washer and dryer combination as low as $320 per week.

BETTER HOME FURNITURE & APPLIANCES
Open Evenings Until Christmas
450 Forest Ave. Phone 160

Here's Why Kelvinator gets clothes really clean! "SHAMPOO WASHING" action begins with concentrated suds... washes away stubborn dirt. "X-CENTRIC AGITATION" one continuous vibrating motion, is gentler, completely safe. "OVERFLOW RINSING" floats dirt off the top of your clothes—not down through them.

Kresge Employees Get Christmas Bonus

The S. S. Kresge Company from its main office in Detroit, announces that cash Christmas remembrances will be distributed to approximately 45,000 employees throughout the country, says E. F. Faigle, manager of the Plymouth Kresge store on 360 Main street.

Approximately 100 Kresge men and women in Plymouth will participate in the plan.

This is the 34th year that the Kresge company has paid cash remembrances to its employees at Christmas time. This year, 620 stores, as well as the company's offices and warehouse, will participate.

The schedule covers full or part-time employees working on December 24, who were hired before December 1, and is arranged on the basis of length of service with the Kresge Company.

Christian Scientists Change Reading Hours

Reading room hours at First Church of Christ Scientist have been changed, it was announced this week.

Daytime hours from Monday through Saturday are from noon until 3 p.m. while Friday evening hours will be from 7 to 9 p.m. The reading room is open to the general public.

Plymouth Couple Marks Silver Wedding Date

A surprise silver wedding anniversary celebration was held Sunday at the Grange Hall for Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur A. Hill of 324 Ann street, Plymouth. The Hills were married December 9, 1929.

Approximately 85 relatives and friends from Ohio, Detroit, Plymouth and Saline attended the event. Musical entertainment was provided by the Suntones orchestra.

Next to ingratitude, the most painful thing to bear is gratitude.

Salvation Army Kettles Again Appear on Streets

As much a part of the American Christmas scene as stockings hanging by the fireplace and Christmas tree lights are the cheerful lassies of the Salvation Army who are now being seen on Main street with their gay red kettles.

Placing the kettle at the foot of Market street and the ferry entrance, he used the slogan "Keep the pot boiling." Public response to the unique appeal was generous.

Sergeant Major H. J. Nicholls of the Plymouth corps said that the kettle is now set up here near the five and ten cent stores.

With contributions from Plymouth shoppers, the Army will provide Christmas baskets to more than 30 families and toys and candy to 125 children this Christmas season. The Yuletide cheer will also be brought to all inmates of the Northville State hospital, the Women's and men's divisions of the Detroit House of Correction and the Maybury Sanitarium.

Contributions can either be dropped in the kettle or sent to Major H. J. Nicholls, The Salvation Army, P. O. Box 374, Plymouth.

As the bell rings and the coins jingle, one might wonder why each year the kettles and tripods are brought out of storage, given a new coat of paint and set up with such care. The tradition dates back to 1894 and its origin is a story in itself.

The idea was born in northern California during a time of extreme depression, Major Nicholls relates.

With shipping at a standstill, many seamen and longshoremen were out of work and in dire need. An enterprising Salvation Army officer in San Francisco had been granted permission to set up a soup kitchen for them, providing he would assume sole responsibility for financing it.

Obtaining funds for the operation was a problem of major proportions for the officer until one day, in a ship chandler's shop, he spied a soup kettle suspended from a crane. Why not, he thought, set up the actual kettle itself in a public place and let people, passing by, help feed the hungry sailors by dropping money into the pot.

82 Year Old Plymouthite Creates Miniature Farmland Scenes as Hobby

Stepping into the quaint workshop built by 82-year-old Oscar F. Curtis of 324 Ann street is an experience in itself. An array of carpenter's tools such as lathe, jig and bench saws, drill press, sander and shelves of equipment stretching from floor to ceiling greet the visitor. Rows of artist's brushes stand upright on one shelf, while drawers under the workbench disclose further hiding places for such equipment as nails, hammers, and other tools.

Next to his workshop at the rear of the 14 by 20 foot shop, almost hidden amongst his equipment, sits Mr. Curtis working at his hobby of turning out farmland scenes, shadow boxes, what-not shelves and thread racks. Behind him the finished articles are stacked awaiting their departure as gifts to relatives and friends in Michigan, Indiana and Ohio.

As he sat there at his workbench next to the pot-bellied stove, the octogenarian told us of his hobby, his eyes sparkling behind rimmed glasses. Since retiring in 1945 at the age of 73 from his job with the Wayne County Park Commission, he has busied himself with his favorite hobbies—that of fishing during the summer season and creating farmland scenes, shadow boxes and shelves in the workshop over the long winter months.

A former lumberman, carpenter and farmer before joining the Park commission in 1926 where he took care of nurseries and supervised the building of rustic bridges, Curtis has employed his knowledge of trees and rural scenes into the design of his hobby products.

Taking colored calendar pictures of model homes, he mounts them on cardboard, then builds fences, plants trees and scatters farm animals at suitable spots on the 17 inch wood platforms to create a pleasing, attractive and modern farmland scene. Over a six-day period, working three hours in the morning and as many in the afternoon, he has been able to create his first four of this type, which are shown in the photograph. Now Mr. Curtis is contemplating the creation of scenes of the Northern Peninsula.

On inquiring where he gets his ideas for the various scenes, he replied that by taking catnaps during the day he didn't sleep too well at night and frequently woke up in the wee hours of the morning. During those waking periods in the quiet of the night, most of his creative ideas came to him.

A resident of Plymouth for 35 years and a member of the local Grange, Curtis has three sons and three daughters. In his retirement years, although suffering from a touch of arthritis, he enjoys chatting with friends and neighbors and getting out to the local Grange meetings. Making new friends is a passion with him, for he believes that no one ever has enough friends. And with this youthful and progressive outlook, it is no wonder that 82-year-old Oscar Curtis has a host of friends both among the younger and older generations.

★ ★ GIRL SCOUT NEWS ★ ★

Girl Scouts of Troop 6 enjoyed attending the concert of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra on November 28. Accompanying the girls were Mrs. Bartel, Mrs. Konke and Mrs. Schipper. The troop is planning a Christmas Party at the home of Margaret Sue Terry. Leaders are Mrs. Woodrow Tichy and Mrs. Robert Barbour.

Mrs. David Wood was guest-speaker at the November 23 meeting of Troop 14. Taking as her theme the girl scout law, "A Girl Scout is Courteous", Mrs. Wood spoke most charmingly on the importance of courtesy and kindness as the basis of good manners. Following her talk, the troop went to the Kenneth Hulsing home on Church street, where Mrs. Hulsing demonstrated formal and informal table settings. She also told the scouts about some unusual silver pieces and heirlooms. On November 30, Mrs. Paul Wiedman visited the troop and showed many gift and gift-wrapping ideas for Christmas. She assisted the girls in making Christmas centerpieces of evergreens and dried, paint-sprayed weeds. On Sunday, November 28, the troop attended the Plymouth Symphony concert which is of special interest to them as their leader, Mrs. Carl Wall, is a violinist with the orchestra. Mrs. John Leet accompanied them.

At their last regular meeting, members of Troop 22 voted to adopt the patrol system. Patrol leaders elected are Margaret Kidston and Donna Terry. Assistants are Muriel Prince and Gayle Donnelly. Guests of the troop at its Christmas party will be Troop 21. Leaders of Troop 22 are Mrs.

Hugo Russell and Mrs. Fred Berry.

Brownie Troop 20 held an investiture service for four new members, Diane Lewis, Cheryl Bradley, Lorraine Hake and Mary Lou Wagner. Pins were also presented to troop committee members. Mrs. J. D. McLaren, Mrs. Clifford Smith, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Wagner. Other members received membership pendants denoting a year as Brownies. On December 6, four members of Troop 1 will come to teach games and songs. Christmas decorations will be the handicraft project in the next weeks. Mrs. Stanley Wilt and Mrs. Jack P. Taylor are the leaders.

Who's New In Plymouth

AFTER A FROLICKSOME day there's nothing like a bedtime story to settle one down for the Land of Nod. Here we see Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bakewell reading one of the children's favorite stories to them in the Bakewell home at 9205 Marlowe. Clustered about Mom and Dad are (l. to r.) four-year-old Terry, Timmy, 17 months, and two-months-old Mishelle. Former residents of Adrian, the Bakewells came to Plymouth on October 23. Bakewell is employed at the Champion Corrugated Container corporation on Sheldon road.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of Ann street were hosts at a dinner party on Friday evening, November 26, honoring their son, Ron, who left on Monday November 29, for service after enlisting in the Paratrooper division of the United States Army. The week before, Ron, with Russell Brown, spent a week hunting in the Traverse City area, where they also visited with Ron's grandparents and other relatives prior to his leaving for service.

Craig Allen Cole, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cole of Haggerty highway, celebrated his second birthday on Thanksgiving day. After viewing the Hudson Christmas parade in Detroit, Craig's parents were hosts to 20 guests from Northville, Plymouth, Garden City and Wayne. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cole of Port Huron surprised the Coles by arriving for a visit on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Michael Pfister and son, Tom, of Sunset avenue, spent last Sunday in Detroit and enjoyed the game between the Detroit Lions and the Philadelphia Eagles. Mr. Pfister, who has been ill, was unable to attend.

Lloyd Fillmore is confined to Session's hospital, Northville.

Arthur Tillotson is still confined to University hospital, Ann Arbor, where he is convalescing very satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenmore Passage of Haggerty highway spent Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. Lon Cook and family in Allen Park.

Mrs. Floyd Burgett returned to her home on Northville road, Friday, after being confined to New Grace hospital, Detroit, for 10 days.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartwick and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage attended the Harlem Globetrotter's basketball game at Olympia on Saturday evening.

Mrs. Fannie Miller of Allen Park spent the weekend with her sister, Mrs. Della Bingham of Five Mile road.

Lawrence Money of the House of Correction staff spent the Thanksgiving holiday with his family in Logansport, Indiana.

Charles Anderson of Wilcox road has gone to Titusville, Florida, to spend the winter months.

William O. Osgood, Y. N. 3, who has spent the past four years with the United States Atlantic fleet, Mrs. Osgood and their daughter, Linda, are visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Osgood of Penniman avenue. William has completed his naval training.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Belch and sons, Hal, Jerry, Kenny and Alan, of Ridge road have returned from a month's vacation in California and the Hawaiian Islands.

Mrs. Susie Gunsolly continues critically ill at her home on Amelia street.

Mrs. Ara Fehlig is still confined in Beyer Memorial Hospital in Ypsilanti.

Dr. and Mrs. G. H. Fitch have just returned from a visit with the Doctor's brother and sister-in-law, Lieutenant and Mrs. P. B. Fitch. Lieutenant Fitch is stationed at Bayonne, New Jersey, with the Naval Supply Depot. Their visit included a tour of New York city covering the Empire State Building, the Statue of Liberty and the United Nations. They also attended two current plays "Tea House of the August Moon" and "Caine Mutiny."

P.T.S.A. to Hear Yuletide Concert

The newly-formed Junior high school choir will appear at the Christmas meeting of the Parent-Teacher-Student association of the junior high next Thursday, December 16.

Urey Arnold, music teacher in the junior high, will direct the choir when it makes its first appearance. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be held in the high school auditorium.

George Bowles is program chairman. He is assisted by Mrs. E. J. Readman, Mrs. Wilbert West, Mrs. James Thrasher, and Mrs. Lamb is chairman for refreshments.

Plymouth Grange Holds Annual Bazaar Tomorrow

At 10 a.m. tomorrow the public is invited to do their Christmas shopping for aprons, fancy work and other attractive gift items, as well as buy the baked goods, beans and candy offered at the Plymouth Grange Bazaar.

Surprise packages may be secured for 30 cents, and there'll be a fishing pond for the children. Greeting and Christmas cards, wrappings and many bargains in the White Elephant department will be for sale at the annual event.

A committee will be serving "Sloppy Joe's," hot-dog sandwiches, coffee and dessert from 11 a.m. throughout the day.

Democratic Club to Hold Victory Party

John Swainson, new senator from this district to the Michigan state legislature, will be guest of honor at a Victory dinner party sponsored by the Plymouth Democratic club on Friday, December 17. The event will be held at the Mayflower hotel, 7:30 p.m. in the Captain's room. Mr. and Mrs. Swainson are contemplating the building of a new home in Plymouth in the near future.

Martha Griffiths, new representative to the Congress of the United States from the 17th district, who planned to attend with her husband, Hicks Griffiths, announced that she has to be in Washington on that date. Lawrence Money will act as master of ceremonies at the dinner. Musical entertainment is planned and the program will include testimonials from persons who have worked for a Democratic victory this year.

Mrs. Ralph Galloway, chairman of the Victory dinner party, announced that anyone interested in attending should telephone her or Mrs. Charles Root, Jr.

Gift Shopping on Limited Budget? Plymouth Stores Offer Ideas Galore

Boy, folks, you don't know how good we've got it right here in Plymouth. Take the matter of Christmas gifts, for instance. Just for kicks (and to get some ideas, too!) I went out to see what local merchants had in the way of gift suggestions in my pocketbook range—namely, those under $5! Here's what I found:

My first stop revealed just the thing for a traveler—a handy little zipper shoeshine kit at $2.95. It comes complete with brush, saddle soap, polish and shine cloth.

Then, too, I found an ideal gift for any car owner. It's the "Sno Chaser," an object about a yard long with brush for whisking snow on one end and an icer-scraper at the other. Cost—only for the rest of his life

CARE Packages Going at Bargain

These are Bargain Days for CARE packages.

Or if you prefer, you can call it Dollar Days for it costs but $1 to send two CARE packages to some hungry family in any of 32 foreign countries.

The bargain packages are being offered to reduce the huge American farm surplus which costs taxpayers about $750,000 a day just for storage. While the new CARE program for distribution of a portion of this surplus is hardly making a dent in the food stocks, it is cutting potential waste as well as decreasing the tax load for storage expense by $1 for every $60 sent in by private contributors.

Under a measure authorized by the 83rd Congress and recently signed into law by President Eisenhower, the CARE organization has become a distributing agency for the farm surplus.

The enormous amount of surplus is staggering. More than 477,000,000 pounds of butter; 329,000,000 bushels of corn; 753,000,000 bushels of wheat and millions of more pounds and bushels of 23 other agriculture products.

In some cities, manufacturers are sending CARE donations in the names of each of their employees. Donations can be sent to any CARE office or taken to any of the local Railway Express offices. The Plymouth office is cooperating with the program.

Cadillac

The Hour Every Motorist Owes to Himself!

The happy man you see in this picture is bringing himself up to date.

Cadillac has written a whole new chapter for the book defining motor car performance, and he's taking an hour to find out what it says.

And it says plenty—of very great importance.

First of all, it tells you what it's like to have command of a 250-horsepower engine that's as smooth as velvet, and so quick and eager that you have to educate your driving toe all over again.

It tells you what it's like to have virtually every unevenness in the highway completely eliminated before it is even noticeable to driver or passengers.

And it tells you what it's like to relax amidst upholstery fabrics and leathers that are found nowhere else, save in the 1955 Cadillac—not even in the finest clubs or hotels.

All this is to say, of course, that Cadillac has made another tremendous advance in design and engineering—so great, in fact, that only a drive and a personal inspection can let you realize its full significance.

And, naturally, there is yet greater emphasis on all the long-existing Cadillac virtues:

- the endurance that enables a Cadillac owner to keep his car just as long as he elects to do so... and with complete confidence in its dependability—
- the amazing economy of operation and upkeep which causes many owners to maintain that it is the most economical car on the American highway—
- the great personal satisfaction that comes from owning a car which is recognized, wherever highways lead, as the Standard of the World.

We cordially invite you to come in—today—to see and drive this wonderful, wonderful car.

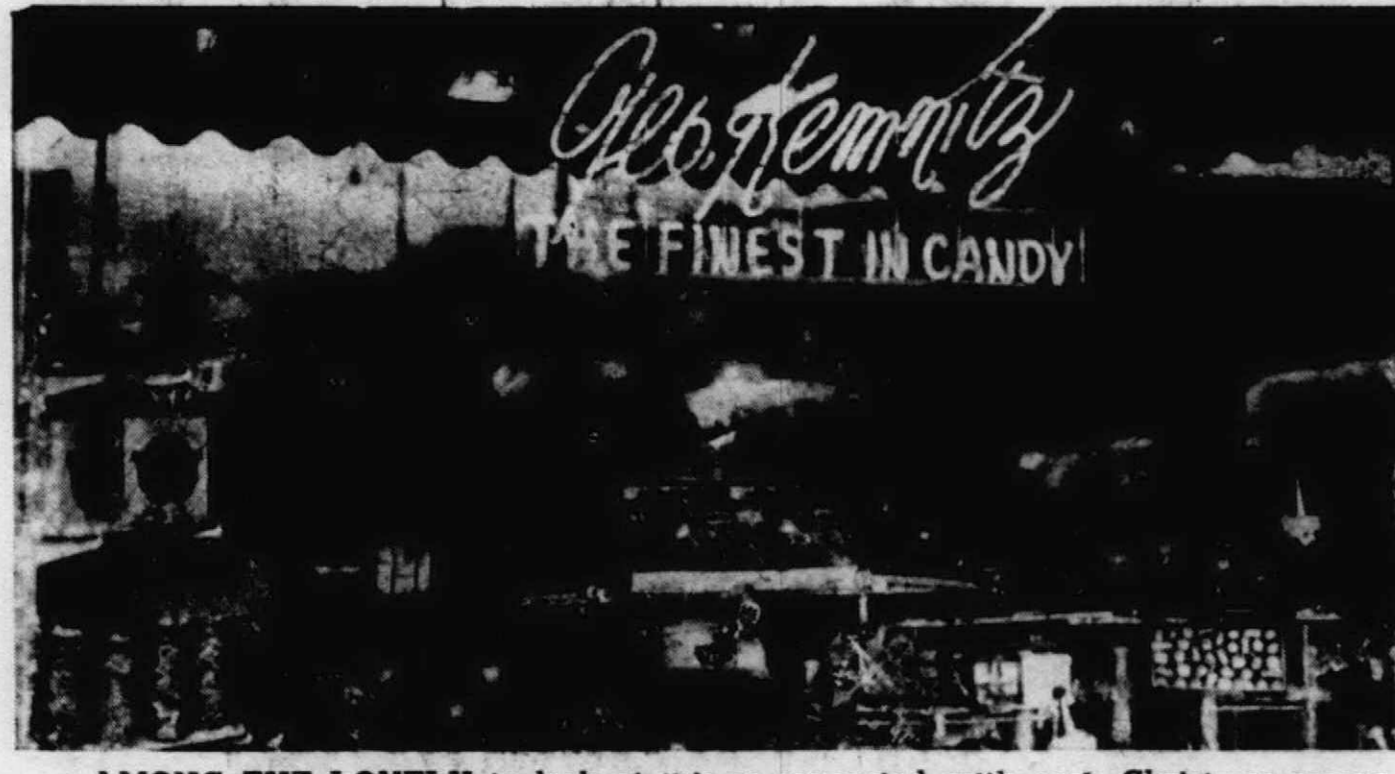

There are eight models—in four different series—including the sensational Eldorado.

There is one to please you—exactly. And we think you'll be surprised and delighted at how little it costs, in comparison with lesser cars.

We're waiting for you—now!

Livonia Boy Scout Troop R.G. No. 1, sponsored by the Rosedale Gardens Civic association, have announced plans to hold their final 1954 Court of Honor in the multi-purpose room of the Rosedale School on Monday, December 13, at 7:30 p.m.

Among the numerous recognitions to be given for advancement in Scouting skills are Four Eagle Scout awards to be granted to the following scouts: Kenneth Bourgon, 11006 Melrose; David Kinner, 9923 Berwick; Larry Pickles, 9832 Ingram; and James Ruth, 11304 Berwick.

Investment of these four boys with the Eagle rank will result in a total of nine Eagle awards being granted during the year 1954, five having been granted previously in a June Court of Honor. This establishes a record for Scouting's highest award for any one troop in this area during any one year. Troop R. G. No. 1 is Livonia's oldest scouting unit in terms of continuous registration. Prior to 1954 it had been granted Eagle awards for 16 scouts, the first award being made 30 years ago in 1924.

The Troop scoutmaster, W. J. Ruth, extends an invitation to friends of Scouting who wish to attend.

Tommy Pickles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pickles, celebrated his fifth birthday by entertaining his friends for lunch on Wednesday, December 8.

Do you intend to decorate your house for Christmas? If you need ideas for table centerpieces or possibly a few additional ornaments the place to come is the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association clubhouse on 9611 Hubbard on Tuesday afternoon, December 14. The Rosedale Gardens Farm and Garden Association are having their annual "greens tea" that afternoon and from all appearances you will be able to obtain anything and everything to make your house festive for the holidays. The monies obtained from this sale are used for a scholarship fund sponsored by the Garden Club.

It's too bad and definitely embarrassing to note the poor turnout at the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association meeting on Thursday, December 2. Those who were unable to come missed a very entertaining evening. The first speaker for the evening was Fred Bush, who showed a movie and gave a very brief and informative speech on civilian defense. He made us very much aware of the need for volunteers to have a successful civilian defense system. Many more casualties occur when people are inexperienced in first aid and self preservation.

The second guest was Arthur Sinclair, noted for his famous "chalk talks." Mr. Sinclair did the story of the "Christmas Carol" by Charles Dickens and it must be wonderful to be endowed with so much talent. While he was narrating the story he drew some very life-like characters on a large board with chalk. He started out drawing the outline with his chalk and it was fascinating to watch him add a line here and there and see the characters develop. After the meeting everyone enjoyed the delicious homemade pie and coffee prepared by the Nursery Group mothers.

If you attended St. Michael's church last Sunday you probably noticed that the boy scouts were selling Christmas wreaths. The price is $1.75 and the money will be used to buy more equipment for the boys to use on their various camp-outs.

Oddfellow — Rebekah News

The annual election of officers of the Plymouth Rebekah Lodge No. 182 will take place at the next meeting, Friday, December 10.

Sister Lydia Drews has returned from the hospital and is convalescing at the home of her son Donald on Territorial road.

The joint Christmas dinner of the Rebekah and Odd Fellow lodges will be held Saturday, December 11, at 6:30 p.m. in the I.O.O.F. hall on Elizabeth street. Bring your own place setting and a dish to pass. Meat will be furnished by the lodge. Also bring a 50c gift to exchange and a gift for each child who comes with you.

The meeting of last Thursday evening was a really wonderful success and everyone enjoyed it all very much. The splendid de-grease team from Tecumseh came and did the initiation work in their usual perfect manner. There was a very good attendance of our own members but not what there should have been and those who stayed away missed a pleasant, enjoyable evening. There were eight new members.

The Lily club will meet as usual on Monday evening, December 13, with Mr. and Mrs. Becker and Mr. and Mrs. Eberts as the hosts. All of the new members are especially urged to attend and get acquainted with their new brothers and sisters.

Bring your own dishes and either sandwiches, cookies, doughnuts, cake or jello to pass.

Ara Fehlig continues very ill in Beyer hospital in Ypsilanti. A shower of cards was voted to be sent her. Have you sent yours yet?

The annual Christmas party will be on Thursday evening, December 16. There will be a tree and it is possible that Santa Claus may drop in for a brief call but he is a very busy person right now you know. We shall have a friendly get together in the spirit of the season we hope. Bring a $5.00 gift and mark it plainly for man or woman. If you bring children, bring your gift for them. There will be a short program, too.

Let's remember all our shut-ins with a cheery Christmas card. Tomorrow is our Bazaar and we hope to see a good crowd. Bring in your contributions as early as you can. If those who are in charge of booths care to come and arrange their booths tonight, the hall will be warm and some one will be there to help if needed.

School Chorus to Give Concert for P.T.S.A.

The junior high school chorus will give a Christmas concert for the PTSA in the high school auditorium, December 16. The 60-member chorus, with Wayne Jewell and Linda Gibson as accompanists, meet from 8 to 8:30 a.m. Monday through Thursday. Some of the numbers to be sung are: "Jingle Bells," "Go Tell It in the Mountain," "Silent Night," "Hark the Herald Angels Sing," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," "The Birthday of a King," "A Carol from the Hills," "Deck the Halls," "Dona Nobis Pacem," "While Shepherds Watched," "Christmas Bells," and the "Bell Song." Director Urey Arnold, new here this year, received his Masters degree from the University of Illinois in 1950. He taught music for three years at the junior and senior high schools in Sycamore, Illinois, and one year of high school music and general business at Taylor township high school, Taylor Center, Michigan.

School Choral Groups Sponsor Annual Concert

The annual Christmas concert sponsored by the high school choral groups will be held Tuesday, December 21, at 8 p.m. There will be no admission charge for this concert. The high school choir will sing "Bell Carol," "Song of the Crib," "Shepherds Hark the Song," "As Lately They Watched," and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You." "The Snow Legend," "Twelve Days of Christmas," "Rudolph the Red Nosed Reindeer," and "O Holy Night" will be sung by the Girls' Glee Club. The mixed chorus, which has taken the place of the freshmen chorus, will sing "Coventry Carol," "Behold That Star," "Deck the Halls," and "Go Tell It on the Mountain." "Carol of the Bells," "Nowell," and "Angels We Have Heard on High" are to be sung by the Triple Trios. Other appropriate Christmas selections will be sung by the Choralettes. The audience will be asked to join in singing some Christmas Carols.

Senior Class Votes For May Boat Trip

This year's senior class of 1954 voted to take a boat trip starting at Chicago, going through Lake Michigan to Mackinac Island, and returning to Detroit through Lake Huron. The trip is directed by the Youth Travel, Boersma Tours, in Ann Arbor. The seniors will leave Ann Arbor by train and go to Chicago where they will board the S.S. South American at 3:30 p.m., Sunday, May 29. Monday, May 30, they will spend a few hours on Mackinac Island and will continue their trip homeward arriving in Detroit on Tuesday, May 31. Seniors may sign up and pay the initial deposit to Sally Ford in room 21B before December 10. In order to assure the final preparations 50% of the class must sign up.

Student Council Meets, Discusses Dime Dances

Among the various topics discussed at a student council meeting held Wednesday, December 1, was the problem centering around dime dances following games played at home. This issue has been of great controversy to the students of Plymouth since the dances were discontinued for this year. The reason for this change was the lack of an activity on Saturday night with everything taking place on Friday. The planning committee for the dances, along with Herbert Woolweaver of the recreation department, made up a schedule so there would be a dance sponsored by the Optimist club on Saturday night if there were a home game on Friday. If the game on Friday were played away from home the school would have a dance so students not attending the game would have something to do. This schedule is on a trial basis for this school year and if it does not prove satisfactory, other plans will be made for the coming year.

Madonna Choir To Carol Here

In keeping with Detroit's 1954 campaign to "observe Christmas as Christ's birthday," this year as every year, Madonna college will open its Christmas season with the lighting of the outdoor crib and the singing of carols. The lighting of the crib will take place on Sunday, December 12 at 8 p.m. at the entrance of the main driveway to the college on Schoolcraft road, where the crib is located. Mother Mary Annunziata, Provincial Superior, will officiate light the crib, while on-lookers will sing carols to again welcome Christ into the world. Wooden carved statues of the Nativity group and the Magi, made last year by Sister M. Angelina, art instructor, with the help of Sister M. Fabia and Sister M. Anthonia, will be placed behind glass. A neon sign reading "Venite Adoremus" placed overhead, will convey the true spirit of Christmas. Surrounding this Christmas scene will be the traditional evergreens decorated with Christmas lights. Tuesday evening, December 14, the choral group will spread Christmas cheer through the halls of the campus buildings. The following day the carolers will visit the House of Correction in Plymouth, the Ardmore Home for the Aged in Farmington and the Maybury Sanatorium in Northville. Scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 16, the following stops in Livonia: city hall, city bank, Livonia Drugs, Jahn's Hardware, police department, The Livonian office, Ladywood high school and Sheldon Center. On the same day, the choral group will visit the Mayflower Hotel, The Plymouth Mail newspaper office, Dunning Library and Kresge's in Plymouth as well as the Wayne County Training school in Northville.

Season is Busy One at Madonna

The Christmas spirit of giving, at Madonna College, is shown forth in the various drives sponsored by the Apostolic committee of the Sodality. "Santa Claus is Coming to Town"—that is to Madonna College—on Monday, December 6. Madonnites played the part of Santa at a Santa Social on that day. Admission price was a nicely wrapped toy to be distributed later to poor children. Three prizes were given for the two most beautifully wrapped toys, and the one wrapped most unusually. Faculty members acted as judges. An evening of games and refreshments had been planned by the Santa social committee, consisting of Pat Galvin, chairman, Mary Ann Niewerowski, Helen Middleton and Josephine Zych. The Christmas festivities at Madonna will be highlighted by the candlelight procession, Christmas dinner, and College Ring Ceremony on Tuesday, December 14. All the students take part in the candlelight procession sponsored by the Student Association. The Apostolic Committee of Our Lady's Sodality at Madonna College is sponsoring an old Clothes Drive throughout December and January. The collected clothing will be sent to war-torn Korean families. Elizabeth Mereshak, chairman of the drive, showed movies of the devastated areas in Korea. A baby layette drive is now in progress. The drive will extend from Dec. 1 to 24. Clothing for the baby, as well as bottles, rattles and baby products will form the layette, which will be given to some needy expectant mother in the vicinity at Christmas-time. Gloria Laginess is chairman of the drive. Culminating the Marian Year activities at Madonna College was a pilgrimage sponsored by the Sodality on Dec. 8. The following churches in the vicinity were visited on that day: Our Lady of Loretto, Our Lady of Good Counsel and Our Lady of Grace. The pilgrimage program consisted of the recitation of 15 decades of the Rosary and the singing of Marian hymns. Various other prayers were also included. The College bus and five automobiles transported the girls to and from the churches. Upon their return, the students visited the Fatima Shrine on campus.

BOWLING

Junior Five Wins Tilt At Northville

The Plymouth Junior Varsity Quintet won its opening game Friday by jumping off to a big first quarter lead and hanging on for a 33-28 victory over the Mustangs at Northville.

Paced by Ken Calhoun, the game's top scorer with 20 points, Coach Bill Harding's quintet drove to an 11-2 first quarter lead, with Calhoun racking up six in the initial stanza.

Plymouth didn't sink a field goal during the second period, scoring only four points on two free throws apiece by Calhoun and Jerry King. However, Northville still couldn't get rolling and also netted only four points, so the Rocks left the floor at intermission still nursing the nine point advantage they had gained in the opening period, 15-6.

After the half the Jay Vees started hitting again, but the Mustangs hit offener and cut the young Rocks' lead to 26-19 at the finish of the third period. In the final quarter Northville began whittling at the Plymouth advantage and threatened to tie the game up until Calhoun put it out of reach with three quick jump shots. Plymouth held on to those needed points to chalk up the win by the final 32-28 count.

Rocks Meet Bentley In League Opener

After emerging victorious in their opening, non-league contest, the Rock hoopers open their league title quest tomorrow at 8 p.m. on the home court of Bentley's defending champs. The Bulldogs dumped Farmington by a 47-42 margin in the initial encounter for both teams last Friday night.

Although the Livoniaites lost their big one-two punch of the last two years, Bill King and Ron Cole, they still should present a formidable squad with aspirations to a third straight league crown. The Junior Varsity game will start at 7:00, with the Varsity tussle immediately following it.

The smart football coach has an excuse before the game why he should lose — and there are a lot of smart coaches.

You cannot expect success if it depends upon the failure of others.

Plymouth Cagers Off to Flying Start With 65 to 37 Win Over Northville

Opening the 1954-55 hoop season with a bang, Coach John Sandmann's Rock quintet really mopped up Northville last Friday night, drubbing the Mustangs by a 65-37 score on the villagers' court. This game, the lid-lifter for both schools, started out as a tight battle, but during the second half, Plymouth scored almost at will to pull steadily away from their out-cast opponents.

In a day when janky six-footers rule the courts, Danny Clifford, Plymouth's 5' 9" guard, must not have read the form chart very well because while the Rocks were rolling to victory, he racked up 20 points to pace both teams and wind up as the night's top scorer. Darwin Teshka, the Mustangs' long-limbed center, netted 12 points to lead his team and finish behind Clifford for the night's work. Bob Middleton, Tom Ferguson, and Jack Carter dropped in 11, 9, and 8 counters, respectively, to aid the Rock cause.

Plymouth's starters, Captain Dick Day, Larry Wilhelm, Jim Sorenson, Middleton and Clifford, hit quick to take an early lead in the opening quarter. But before the initial stanza was over, Northville had cut the Rock's margin to four points, 15-11. The second period saw the play see-saw back and forth with the locals netting 17 more to 16 for the Mustangs and gaining a 32-27 halftime advantage. Here any resemblance of a close game ended.

Clifford exploded for eight points in as many minutes as Plymouth dunked in 21 counters, while holding the villagers to a grand total of two free throws in the third quarter. With a 53-29 lead built up at the three-quarter mark, the Rocks coasted through the last period to the final 65-37 margin and put the finishing touches on an impressive triumph.

Swimmers Open At Ypsi Friday

As the Rock tankers tune up for their opening meet with Ypsilanti Central tomorrow afternoon, in Ypsi's pool, the swimmers are looking forward to the new season with hopes of improving on last year's 2-12 record. They also would like revenge for the 50-34 dunking they suffered at Ypsi's hands last year.

Friday Coach John McFall held the first time trial of the year for the purpose of separating the varsity from the junior varsity squad. The boys who will dress for the meet tomorrow are Bob Packard, John Gregory, Jim Archer, Don Cash, Mike Conrad, Mike Todd, George Losse, Jim Zukosky, Jack Taylor, Dave Beegle, Bill Brandell, Don Carney, Chuck McKenna, Dick Showers, Gary Wright and Gary Straen. Tom Rutherford, Art Losse and Johnny Walker are the three divers selected.

The rest of the boys who have been practicing will swim on the junior varsity squad, which has ten meets, unless they earn a varsity berth later on in the season. The natators open their home season Tuesday, December 14, when they play host to Lincoln Park at 4:00. The rest of the meets for the season will be held at 7:30.

"A" League Open Play while Three Others Prepare

While eight teams in the "A" basketball league of the Plymouth Recreation department square off this week for the opening tilts of the season, plans are being made to start activities in three other leagues next month.

"A" league play opened in the Plymouth high school gym Tuesday night when Beglinger Olds faced Northville State hospital A.F. of L. and Northville Recreation met Ford Local 182.

Two other games are being played Wednesday at Bentley high school in Livonia. George Tripp Inc. and LaFontaine Co. meet in the early game while Taits Cleaners and Goulds Cleaners will play the second game. Results of these games will appear next week in The Mail.

The Recreation department's

"B" league is also shaping up in preparation for a start January 5. According to Herb Woolweaver, head of the department, "B" leaguers will be "stars of yesterday" and young men of class B ability. After each team has played several games, a committee composed of managers and the supervisor may promote an outstanding youngster into the "A" league.

Start of the "E" league is scheduled for Wednesday and Saturday, January 5 and 8. This league is for boys 16 years old or younger. The "F" league schedule begins Saturday, January 8 and 10 and includes boys 14 and under.

Woolweaver announced that the Michigan Recreation association has gone back to "A" and

"B" city tournaments this year. Plymouth's winning "A" league team will play in the state "B" tournament to be held March 25 and 26 at Marshall, Michigan.

"A" league games next week will be:

Monday at Northville State hospital gym, 7:30 p.m., Northville State hospital vs. Ford Local 182; 8:45 p.m., George Tripp vs. Beglinger Olds. Wednesday at Northville Community Center, 8 p.m., Taits Cleaners vs. Northville Recreation; 9:15 p.m., Goulds Cleaners vs. LaFontaine Co. Thursday at Plymouth gym, 8 p.m., Northville State Hospital vs. George Tripp; 9:15 p.m., Taits Cleaners vs. Ford Local 182.

P.E.O. Sisterhood To Meet Next Friday

"Christmas, around the Piano" will be the theme of the next meeting of the P.E.O. Sisterhood on Friday, December 7. Hostess for the 7:30 p.m. event is Mary Simmons of 560 Edison. She will be assisted by Ardith Fischer and Ruth Curtis.

The program is in charge of Helen Moore and will feature group singing of Christmas carols by the members. Christmas gifts will also be exchanged at the meeting.

On Friday night the group met at the home of Patricia Fowlkes to exchange ideas on "Making the Home Look Like Christmas." Marian Johnston was in charge of the program and displayed some of the Christmas decorations she had made.

Assisting Mrs. Fowlkes at the meeting were Helen Stevens and Marian Gorton. A new member, Susan Simmons who was taken into the organization November 19, was also present for the get-together.

Kiwanis Speaker

Martin Blied

Driver education will be discussed at the Plymouth Kiwanis Club meeting, Tuesday evening at the Mayflower Hotel. Featured speaker will be Automobile Club of Michigan Safety Education Consultant Martin Blied. Blied will also show a movie on driver training.

Christmas Decorations
Never More Lavish or Shops More Abundant

Americans in the midst of plenty this Christmas find their Christmas shopping easier than ever before. The abundance of goods and the variety of styles available in the stores and shops of the country are making it possible for everyone to find just what they want for their loved ones.

Chips from the Rock

Michigan's Beaver Island has a new benefactor in the person of its newest summer resident, manufacturer Russell Hoffman of Plymouth. So impressed with the early lore of the island, which still has landmarks left by LaSalle, and later the Mormons who established a colony there, he is spear-heading a drive to establish a museum for island visitors.

Of interest to local readers is the fact that recent meetings being held by the St. Mary hospital board are producing results which will do much to bring about early construction of the first unit of the badly needed facility.

The poor farmer always seems to get the worst of any hunting season and those in deer hunting areas fare no better than do our friends around here who lose fences and livestock during the bird shooting season. The Oscoda Press reports several incidents of farmers there losing dairy cattle to trigger-happy hunters. The Cheboygan Observer tells of the farmer who lost a horse which had been shot through the neck, and of another who found a bullet hole clean through his car which was parked in the farm yard. Probably the worst is the report of the neighboring South Lyon Herald which tells of conservation officers having to shoot a badly wounded doe floundering in the middle of Whitmore Lake. The animal had been hit twice by illegal, high powered rifle bullets and sought refuge in the lake.

Probably no pooch has cost his owner more or has more influence than Pete, pictured here with his owner Glen Smith. In the first place Pete strayed into the Smith home and more or less took over. After making a warm spot in his owner's heart he proceeded to stray away from home again, and was finally returned to the Smith summer home at Pettibone lake when a $25.00 reward was paid for his finding. As word spread among the natives in the northland that a reward was paid for Pete's return he frequently turned up missing and cost his owner many things including an overcoat, boxes of candy, liquid refreshment and the like for his return.

Pete also cost his owner frequent medical aid expenditures for such repairs as were necessary after losing a one sided battle with a muskrat, and later coming out a poor fourth in a wild dog tag-team match. The last but most interesting observation about Pete is the fact that his owner would seriously like to go to Florida this winter but has finally given up the idea when he considered the possibility of Pete tangling with a crocodile in some strange Florida swamp . . . and, strange as that may sound, it is all very true.

Monday's Jean Goldkette concert brought memories to J. Rusing Cutler, and he quickly named off some of the other members of his 1927 high school graduating class consisting of Evelyn Schrader, Claude Gebhardt, Harry Rowland, Clair Travis, Ruth Allison, Barbara Bake, Katherine Wicox, Barbara Horton, Pat Murphy, Bus and Viola Wilkins, Edwin Schrader, Al Ashton and Clifford Wood. He was reminded he said, and wondered if they were too, of the first dance ever held in Plymouth high school. It was the Class of 1927 Senior Prom . . . and who furnished the music? . . . Jean Goldkette and his Nightingales.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Gene Alleman
Secy. Mich. Press Ass'n.

MICHIGAN REPUBLICANS are looking for a knight in shining armor to revive the party for 1956. Confused and hurt after their fourth straight loss to Democratic Gov. Williams, Republicans from the top to the doorbell-ringers are preaching revival. "We've got to do more than rest on our oars and place our faith in tradition," said Treasurer D. Hale Brake.

It was the valedictory of a sincere party stalwart who was swept out of office in the Democratic landslide after 14 years as guardian of the state's purse-strings. He has seen politicians come and go and at one time figured to be the Republican rallying point. Others differed and rather than split the party, Brake went along. Now, in the debris of another election in which all Republican candidates for state office met political disaster, Brake is back with ideas to put the party on its feet again.

Brake wants to fight fire with fire. He suggests recruiting an out-state man—"a popular figure"—as state chairman and insists he be well-versed in publicity; a man who will capture the imagination of a new kind of voter. It's the same step Democrats took years ago with Williams, the boyish-looking idol of the young people: the trademarks of politics—the bow tie and the square dance calling.

The technique made Williams a popular vote-getter, a politician everyone would like to have live next door and it won him four terms in the executive office. Democrats had the keen Paul W. Weber to guide Williams' footsteps and write his speeches. Weber feints the opposition off balance and crosses with a well-turned phrase.

It's the pattern that Michigan politics has taken in the past decade.

But who is the man or men around which this new and fresh Republican party can be constructed?

One choice is Congressman Gerald Ford, the young man from Grand Rapids. His backers say he has the energy, the youth, the foresight to breathe new life into an old philosophy.

Others claim that because Republicans are out of the main state offices, the mantle of leadership will naturally fall to party members in the legislature.

There the Republicans have Senators Creighton R. Coleman, Battle Creek; Edward Hutchinson, Fennville; Carlton H. Morris, Kalamazoo. All are among the "Young Turks" who gained power two years ago.

Coleman admits privately he would like to run for Congress but might stay around for extra party duties. Morris is young, a lawyer and admits to no ambitions beyond the state borders.

Hutchinson, whose grandfather once sat in the Senate, will work in Michigan for the next 1,000 years, if necessary, for Republicans.

The House of Representatives has Rep. Harry J. Phillips, Port Huron; and Herb Clements, DeKerville, Reed Orr, Battle Creek; and a number of other young men ready for battle with Democrats.

Whatever happens, it's a certainty among Republicans that those at the head of the party organization from Detroit will be of less importance when the 1956 convention is held.

BINGO IS STILL UNLAWFUL in Michigan. The election saw a proposed constitutional amendment defeated which would have led to its legalization under restraints of the legislature.

Counties which have been turning their heads the other way for years are suddenly cracking down, chasing bingo out of the clubs—under the theory that they have a mandate of the people.

The most telling argument in favor of bingo during the campaign was:

"If Michigan can control legalized gambling at the horse tracks, why not if the game is bingo?"

Now that their election battles are past one legislator is carrying the torch against all gambling.

Rep. Willard I. Bowerman (R-Lansing) said he would ask the 1955 legislature to outlaw pari-mutuel betting at the races, wiping out a multi-million dollar operation.

Michigan gets up to $7,000,000 a year from the tracks in taxes. Bowerman said:

"That's a paltry sum when morals of our citizens are involved."

PRISONS AND MENTAL HOSPITALS are both overcrowded in Michigan and a battle is brewing over who will get the 200 bed addition to the Jonia State Hospital for the Criminal Insane. "We want it all," said Corrections Director Gus Harrison.

He has a law on his side, one passed two years ago which said that the addition would be turned over to the use of the corrections department, Mental Health Director Charles F. Wagg said: "We also need more space, and we shall see."

Shop Early

Every year about this time, housewives, and all those who must do Christmas shopping, are faced with the problem of buying innumerable presents for members of the family and friends, for the children, and for various acquaintances. Usually, the greater part of this Christmas shopping is concentrated in the final two weeks before Christmas, at which time there is what might be described as general bedlam in the larger stores in most of the cities.

Even in the smaller communities, the choice of goods is much better early in December than it is later in the month. Moreover, one gets better service, in addition to his better selection, and can, therefore, save time and trouble in shopping.

We would then suggest that Plymouth housewives do their Christmas shopping this week and next, and not wait until the last days before Christmas. We would also suggest that, where possible, shoppers buy at home—for the dollar you spend at home may eventually come back—to you.

Safe-Driving Day

The smartest way to begin practicing for S-D Day is to start keeping the traffic law in mind and obeying it to the letter. Police are able to prove from accident records that over 90 percent of traffic accidents are caused by specific violations of the law. If the records were better it might be possible to raise this figure to 95 percent. Accidents due to people falling asleep, roadways caving in or a wheel coming off represent a small percent of the total.

When you look at it that way accidents are not accidental at all. Some one violated a traffic law and a collision resulted. It boils down to the fact that traffic violators are killing the people, violators are injuring the people and violators are banging up and destroying automobiles.

The records show that most of our violation trouble comes from speeding, running red lights and stop signs, dangerous passing and dangerous left and right turns at intersections. Combinations of these frequently bring a charge of reckless driving, careless driving or a failure to have your car under control. Following too closely and failure to yield the right-of-way are also common charges in accident cases. Naturally, too, we have the important charge of drunk driving. Too much alcohol makes a driver think he's too good, makes him want to drive too fast when he can't see as well, can't react as quickly, and can't stop as well.

If you will practice up on your driving by obeying these laws you will increase your chances of keeping out of an accident on S-D Day a great deal. And, of course, you have to keep on the lookout for some other driver who may disobey these laws. If you can avoid violations and avoid other motorists who commit violations you can avoid accidents.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal, is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"No one ever thinks of Christmas without thinking of Santa Claus. But there are many people who believe the legend is played up too prominently. Do you believe the Santa Claus myth can be harmful to children?"

MRS. GEORGE TALBOT, 109 West Ann Arbor trail: "It can't be harmful if a parent holds it within certain extremes. Parents have to be sure to keep Christ in CHRISTMAS for their children and not play up the commercial end too much. As long as a child knows the real purpose of Christmas, the Santa Claus story shouldn't hurt."

MRS. KENNETH RAETZEL, 14420 Sheldon road: "I don't feel that it could harm them any more than fairy tales which they hear every other day of the year. They soon get old enough to understand that all of these stories are make believe. We teach our boys that Santa just brings the toys but that mother and dad have to pay for them. So they realize that they can't ask for the moon."

Mrs. Talbot Mrs. Raetzel Mrs. Donohue Mrs. Hackethal

MRS. JULIA DONOHUE, 647 Kellogg: "It's nice to have children think that there is someone in the world good enough to give things away. They learn the truth about Santa sooner or later so I see no harm."

MRS. MARGARET HACKETHAL, 11309 Gold Arbor: "In the church I belong to children are taught that there is no Santa Claus. Instead, they are taught the real meaning of Christmas."

Roger Babson Says:

BABSON LOOKS AHEAD FIFTY YEARS

Babson Park, Massachusetts. Part of our Fiftieth Anniversary, celebrated recently in Wellesley, Massachusetts, was spent looking ahead fifty years to the year 2004. Dr. E. F. W. Alexanderson, a disciple of Steinmetz and long-time engineer-researcher for General Electric and the Radio Corporation of America, made some startling statements. If he and the other speakers did not hold such very important positions today, we would take these statements "with a grain of salt," but under the circumstances they deserve attention. Here's what we predict for fifty years from now.

ON OUR TREMENDOUS MATERIAL PROGRESS

Our offspring will look back on the 1954 era as one of primitive existence. Automation will have taken over completely, not only in the factory, but also in the home and on the farm. For example, Dr. Alexanderson predicts that the business executive will live in the country and commute to work by helicopter over a special-frequency airline channel which will pilot his plane automatically and safely to its destination. The busy business executive won't have to go to the office so often, for he will have private TV circuits between his home and his office and can go into conference or look in on any part of his factory by means of numerous television eyes. He will be able to go to his summer place in the mountains and, again by means of private TV circuits, see and talk with his children back home. By the same means, he can look in on his cattle or into his chicken house. A button pushed at his mountain house will carry an impulse via short wave to the chicken house back on the farm, and the chickens will be fed and the eggs collected, sized, and boxed, automatically.

Machines will be powered by atomic capsules, and by 2004 we will consume as much power in one year as we did in all the years from 1 A.D. to 1954! Homes and working establishments will all be air-conditioned. Electronic ovens will cook our food in seconds. Foods will be wrapped and sealed in inexpensive plastics and will keep crisp, fresh, and deliciously palatable indefinitely. People will be healthier and happier. They will be known as the atomic age—an era of unprecedented technological advancement and material prosperity.

ON GOVERNMENT AND BUSINESS

Mrs. Ivy Baker Priest, Treasurer of the United States, predicts that one-half of our elective and appointive officials will be women in 2004—half of the House of Representatives, and a third of the Senate. The Secretary of State will be a woman. Through the efforts of women the world over, there will be an effective outlawing of war.

In predicting business trends of the future, considerably more emphasis will be given to sampling, market analysis, and discovering what people think and why they think that way. This kind of analysis will enable us to predict human behavior and business trends far more accurately than is now possible.

ON EDUCATION AND MAN

Both Miss Margaret Clapp, President of Wellesley College, and Dr. Alexanderson are concerned about the kind of civilization our technological advances will leave us with in 2004. Both fear that science, if pursued on a straight materialistic plane, will lead man into some real trouble. There is a serious fear in the minds of many educators lest education today is too concerned with teaching facts rather than developing thinking men and women of character and stature who know why as well as how.

A good climate for business and a soundly administered government do not just happen. They are the products of able leadership. And leadership, good or bad, is more closely tied to our religious and educational system than we may like to admit. Good leadership depends on excellence of instruction in church, school, and college. In the last analysis, what we do with our technological advances—whether we shall have peace or war, progress or decline in the art of living in 2004—may well depend on the kind of churches, schools, and colleges you and I want and on the financial support we give them today.

Two men who had been bachelor cronies met for the first time in five years. "Tell me, Tom," said one, "did you marry that girl, or do you still darn your own socks and do your cooking?" "Yes," was Tom's reply.

He—I feel like a better man every time I kiss you. She—Well, you needn't try to crash the heavenly gates in one night, big boy.

Danish Dish

One of the two Michigan women named as finalists in the recent Pillsbury Mills nationwide recipe and baking contest is Mrs. Louis A. Steele of Roseale Gardens. She's due in New York Monday for the grand finale bakeoff at the Waldorf-Astoria ballroom, where she'll be competing with 99 other finalists for prizes totalling over $100,000.

Although she is not permitted to disclose her prize-winning recipe because of the rules of the contest, Mrs. Steele is sharing with us another of her favorite recipes, Danish Apple Pudding.

Danish Apple Pudding

Combine in saucepan:
7 apples, pared, cored and sliced (7 cups)
1 cup of sugar
1 tablespoon of butter
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 cup of water
1/4 teaspoon of salt

Cook until apples are tender, about 15 minutes.

Combine:
3 cups of soft bread crumbs
1 cup of brown sugar
1/2 cup of butter or margarine
1 cup of chopped walnuts.

Blend ingredients with pastry blender or two knives to form crumbs. Place alternate layers of crumb mixture and apples in a two-quart casserole, having the top layer crumbs. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) one hour. Serve warm or cold with whipped cream. Makes 10 servings.

Good Counsel Church, Scene Of Brockwell-Forbing Rites

At an eleven o'clock service held Saturday, morning November 27, in Our Lady of Good Counsel church Luella Forbing, the daughter of Mrs. Burnetta Forbing of Bad Axe, Michigan, became the bride of Darrell Brockwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Brockwell of 37681 Amrheim, Livonia. The Reverend Father Francis C. Byrne read the nuptial mass.

Luella was given in marriage by her uncle, Lee Forbing. She wore a beautiful floor-length gown of white lace over white taffeta and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her net veil was held in place by a pearl bead crown.

Frances Robertson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Wearing an aqua floor-length dress of net over taffeta, Miss Robertson carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. Her headbands was of yellow baby mums.

The bridesmaid, Garnette Brockwell, a cousin of the bridegroom, wore a floor-length dress of yellow net over taffeta and carried a bouquet of blue carnations. Blue baby mums formed her headband.

Serving as best man was Samuel H. Robertson, and seating the guests were Clarence Rodgers and Glenn Pannell.

The bride's mother chose a dark green costume with gray accessories. Mrs. Brockwell wore a blue satin dress with black accessories. Both wore white baby mum corsages.

Following the wedding ceremony the reception was held at the I.O.O.F. hall on Elizabeth street and was attended by 75 guests.

The couple will make their home in Plymouth.

Legion Auxiliaries Aid Hospitalized Veterans

Local auxiliary units are co-operating with more than 30,000 members of the Michigan American Legion-auxiliary this week in bringing a Christmas shopping service to 3,500 hospitalized veterans who are unable to go to stores to do their gift hunting for relatives and friends back home. This announcement was made by Commander Harry Burleson of the local Passage-Gayde Post.

Repeating a service started seven years ago, the auxiliary members have set up a shopping center in each of five Veterans Administration hospitals located at Dearborn, Saginaw, Battle Creek, Iron Mountain and the new Ann Arbor unit.

The unique difference between these shopping centers and other stores where Christmas gifts are selected is that veterans don't pay for the gifts they select for members of their families. What they choose is the gift of the auxiliaries. Each veteran is entitled to select three gifts, with a value of $1.50 to $3 each. After the selections are made, volunteer auxiliary members assigned to each hospital wrap them as gifts and then prepare each package for parcel post. Hospital orderlies and nurses bring veterans bound to wheel chairs and stretchers.

Pillsbury contest finalist, Mrs. Louis A. Steele of 31800 West Chicago boulevard, whips up the ingredients for one of her favorite desserts, Danish apple pudding. Mrs. Steele and a South Haven woman will be the only two Michiganders entering the December 13 grand finale bake-off in New York City.

Theatre Guild Party
Set for December 11

The home of the Robert Lawsons, 47818 Powell road, will be the scene of a festive Christmas party for Plymouth Theatre Guild members on Saturday, December 11. Co-chairmen Dorothy Smith and Russ Creel are planning the event which will get under way at 8 p.m.

Along with the gay observance of the yuletide season, members will also have a chance to go over some of the plays suggested for their next production on March 10, 11 and 12. The group is tentatively thinking of "Chicken Every Sunday" for the spring production which is jointly sponsored by the Kiwanis club.

Bartlett Mothers Club Holds Christmas Party

The Bartlett School Mothers club held its Christmas party last night at 8 p.m. in the school after the business meeting. Christmas gifts were exchanged.

Christmas gifts were brought for the children's hospital in Farmington.

The committee in charge of the party were: Mrs. Charles Olson, Mrs. Homer Benoit, Mrs. Roger Smith, Mrs. William Sprengel and Mrs. Guy Foppes.

Honor Plymouth Resident At Recent Farewell Party

A farewell party was given recently by the Passage Gayde post and auxiliary of the American Legion for Mrs. Lesley Poczlik, who left Plymouth on Friday to take up residency in France. Mrs. Poczlik, the former Helen Branch, will join her husband who is stationed with the Army in Metz, France. She has been residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ora E. Branch of 38001 Schoolcraft.

Mrs. Poczlik and her four children took the train to New York where they will board a plane for France. The Poczliks expect to live abroad for three years.

There is no greater grief than, in misery, to recall happier times.

No one should expect anything from a match but a flame. By its careless handling you risk the lives of your family as well as the destruction of your home and the loss of valuable personal property.

Sensible property owners do two things. They make fire prevention a day-by-day habit. They protect what they have from financial loss by insuring against the peril of fire with a qualified insurance representative. See this agency today, tomorrow may be too late.

Upstairs - Downstairs ALL AROUND THE HOME

Two Kiddies - One Room? Here's Answer to Problem

And then there were two—but with only one bedroom for both baby and kindergarten sister. With a bit of skill and washable cottons, it's possible to provide an attractive combination room.

Baby's corner can be set off by patterned wallpaper to contrast with plain paper on other walls.

Yet the room is nicely tied together by matching bedspreads and draperies. Any mother can make these, perhaps with help from experts at her local sewing center.

The problem of double upkeep is solved by making the entire room washable. Sanitized terry cloth is a happy fabric choice because it won't sag or shrink.

You'll need about 23 yards. Bedspread top is made with center panel and two narrower side panels. Cut these, allowing 36" for pillows and 1/2" for each seam and sew together.

The skirt requires a length twice the total distance of two sides and bottom of bed. Sew these sections together, including the finishing seams at either end. Turn under top 2" of the skirt and ruffle it 1 1/2" from top to fit bedspread. This provides both top ruffle and shirring for skirt. Topstitch bedspread top.

Turn a three inch hem at bottom of skirt—let it clear floor by 2". Then piece a 6" strip that is twice the distance around bed. Fold in half and ruffle 1/2" from raw edges. Topstitch skirt to ruffle.

To make the contour style crib spread cut a piece to fit mattress top, allowing 1/2" seams. Cut four pieces to fit sides and ends, allowing 1/2" seams. Cut four pieces to fit sides and ends, allowing 1/2"

Gives Washing Tips On Miracle Fabrics

Orlon, nylon and dacron may be the so-called "miracle fabrics," but they, too, require special care in your washer.

Questions are often asked of the home management department at Michigan State about washing of curtains made from man-made fabrics. Here is the way department experts answer these queries:

Is it safe to put nylon, orlon and dacron curtains in the washing machine? Yes, but only wash them a few minutes—not as long as your regular wash.

Can these curtains be put in hot water? Again the answer is yes; but with an added thought. For white materials you can use very hot water (140 degrees) and for colored materials, use hot (100 degrees) water.

Is it safe to put these curtains into an automatic dryer? Because these synthetic fabrics cannot stand very hot temperatures and because their biggest asset is how fast they dry, experts recommend this drying method: Take them from the washing machine, shake each curtain gently, and hang them individually on drying rods.

Put one rod in the upper casing and one in the lower hem. If pressing is necessary to get out wrinkles, do it only after the curtain is entirely dry.

To make your washing easy and safe, it is always the best rule to read the label on the curtains and follow directions exactly. Keep the washing directions in a safe place so they will be handy for your next washing day.

seams and 6" on each piece for tuck-under.

Sew side pieces to spread top. Then sew corners together for 5" trim this first seam. Turn back free corners until raw edge of strip is parallel to grain of the material.

Do this with all free corners. Stitch underseam together with mitered corners in a diagonal seam. Turn a 1/2" seam to finish raw edges of material. Decorate top as desired.

For curtains take two widths of material, making these length of window plus 4 1/2" for top hem and 1/2" for bottom. Turn material under 1/2" on all sides except top. Cut two 4" strips—each measuring twice distance of one side and bottom of a curtain. Fold in half and ruffle 1/2" from raw edge. Top stitch curtain to ruffle, starting 4 1/2" from top. Turn under top of curtain 4 1/2".

Experts to Aid Homemakers

The age-old problem of tired homemakers has been "adopted" by Michigan State home economists.

The answer to "What makes a homemaker tired?" is being sought by experts in the home management and child development department. They have started a study which will ask the help of 100 mothers who have at least two pre-school children.

These women will be interviewed and asked questions on their attitudes on relaxation and sleep and their likes in household tasks. Interviewers will ask about the equipment each mother has to work with and something about the children's play area.

The most tiring period of a day for each mother will be studied. Mothers with pre-school children will be interviewed. These women would most likely have the heaviest work load since the children are dependent on them. The women will represent 100 Lansing families and will be chosen at random. There will be about four from each school district in the city.

The goal of this project is to help families live with happier family relationships and by doing so, have happier homes. The hundred families interviewed may get some help in bettering their family relationships by actually analyzing their own attitudes and plans. But the study primarily should help all families by giving a broad picture of what factors make a homemaker tired.

Here's Recipe of Week

Holiday Walnut Cookies
(Makes 4-5 dozen)

3 eggs
1 pound brown sugar
1/2 pound black walnut meats
7 tablespoons sifted, all-purpose flour

Beat eggs and sugar together until thick and lemon-colored. Add walnut meats. Blend in flour. Drop rounded teaspoons about 3 inches apart on a greased and lightly floured baking sheet. Bake for 6 minutes in a moderate (350°) oven.

A new plastic freezer tray forms water into finely chipped ice instead of cubes.

How To Candy Pineapple

What fun... what a saving... what feeling of accomplishment... and, on top of that, how easy it is to make your Candied Pineapple from canned pineapple. You'll use it in candies, cookies, cakes, and puddings during the holidays. But, by all means, be sure to save some to serve as a superlative confection just as it is.

Candied-Pineapple

1 can (1 lb. 4 oz.) sliced pineapple
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
Confectioners (powdered) sugar

Drain syrup from pineapple thoroughly. (Allow to drain in a colander several minutes.) Cover bottom and top of slices with the granulated sugar; store about 24 hours at room temperature. Empty into large skillet and boil 5 minutes; reduce heat and simmer 15 minutes. Turn occasionally during the cooking, taking care that it does not scorch or turn brown. Remove slices to a wire rack to dry about 24 hours. Pat sides and edges of slices heavily with sifted confectioners sugar. A crusty glaze will form after standing on the wire rack overnight. To retain crusty glaze, store in loosely covered container.

NOTE: If surface is not dry after standing, re-roll in confectioners sugar.

Etiquette Applies to Gift Giving

NO MATTER what gift you give or receive, let the occasion be one of utmost graciousness and pleasantness. Here are rules of etiquette on gifts:

If you give money, do something special about it, making it a gift to be remembered, whether the amount given is small or large. If giving a youngster money, get bright shiny pennies and place them in a small bag to resemble Santa's sack or have them in an amusing bank.

Bills made at home out of leather or felt may also be used for giving money presents. These are especially nice because the person has given thought and care to the present.

Gifts from your kitchen can be dressed up: place holly and berry stickers on jelly glasses around the label; use a sprig of greenery with the bows which tie your cookies or cakes.

Giving homemade rolls for Christmas breakfast? Inexpensive baskets are ideal containers for them. Wrap the whole basket and rolls in cellophane with bright ribbon bows.

Why not give a pot of bulbs to a friend who is interested in flowers? Buy the bulbs, select a bowl and also a plastic bag of potting soil and wrap it all in a gay package.

Try This Sausage Dish

Sausage Casserole
(Serves 4-6)

1 pound sausage links
3 tablespoons water
1 No. 2 can tomatoes
1 1/2 cups cooked rice
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon chopped onion
2 teaspoons ground sage
1/2 teaspoon pepper

Place sausage links in skillet with water, cover and simmer for 5 minutes. Remove cover and cook links until browned. Use sausage drippings to grease casserole. Reserve 3 tablespoons drippings and combine with tomatoes, rice, salt, onion, sage and pepper. Place mixture in greased casserole. Arrange browned sausage links on top. Bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven for 30 minutes.

Home freezers are used to store many things, even sandwiches. Those containing chicken, meat, or fish are best when used within 2 weeks after freezing. Other sandwiches should be stored no longer than 4 weeks.

Original Paintings Add Decorative Beauty to Home

There are many beautiful paintings—originals—by good young artists that sell for one hundred to three hundred dollars. To be beautiful, attractive, in good taste for your home a painting need not cost a fabulous amount. Reproductions are fine things to have, also. They will add a colorful decorative note to any room.

Do not shy away from a reproduction of a good painting any more than you would shy away from owning a reproduction of a fine antique.

It is never wise to choose a picture for a particular spot in your home without trying it there first. Even the swankiest galleries will gladly send several pictures to a prospective buyer's home and let him try them for effect. This same courtesy rule applies to reliable art stores, department stores and furniture stores.

Many artists will bring their pictures to your home and help you choose the one which looks the best. There are many galleries and artists who will let you pay as little as ten dollars a month toward the cost of a picture.

It is a funny thing that people will buy a fur coat and not feel they must have only a silver mink or buy a diamond and take less than the Koh-inoor, but feel that, since they can't afford an old masterpiece, they will settle for a cheap print with about as much charm as a faded window-shade. Don't fall into this trap.

You can have a beautiful picture for your home at a reasonable price. Choose what you can afford—by all means. This may be a good copy or an original. If you choose it with care, making sure it is just right for you and your home, it can give you endless pleasure.

Raisins may be small in size but they are packed with minerals and food energy. It's easy to steam raisins to bring out their best flavor and texture, and at the same time, make them pleasingly plump for pies, fruit cakes and salads. Rinse the raisins and place them in top of a double boiler over hot water. Cover and steam 15 minutes, stirring several times. Cool before using.

No other gas pedal gets action like this!

THIS pedal does more than just feed gas to an eager and high-powered V8 engine.

When you give it the extra nudge that moves it beyond the full throttle position, something happens that never happened before in an automobile.

You hear a businesslike purr, which tells you that twenty power vanes, deep inside the 1955 Dynaflo Drive,* have changed their pitch—just like the variable pitch propellers on a modern air liner.

And with the same result in the way you get-up-and-go, with a safety-surge of power for pulling out of a tight spot on the highway. Words just can't describe it. It's a new and thrilling sensation—something you simply must try for yourself.

There's nothing like it on the 1955 new-car horizon.

Fact is, there's a whale of a lot to see at your Buick dealer's showroom.

There's fresher new styling. There's higher horsepower in every Buick V8 engine. There's a new Airpower carburetor. And beneath it all there's good old-fashioned integrity in every nut, bolt and rivet.

But, this year, don't simply make a visit to the showroom where these trim and thrilling new beauties are on display.

The smart thing to do—if you want to know what's what in new automobiles—is to get behind the wheel of a 1955 Buick and drive it. How about doing that soon?

2-In-1 Type Dutch Door Winning Favor

Being both open and shut at the same time is the function of a Dutch door, the kind of door with top and bottom sections that swing independently of each other. An old favorite, Dutch doors are coming back into popularity for use in modern homes.

Ponderosa pine Dutch doors have many practical uses. On a child's room, the bottom section serves as a gate and the open top lets the mother hear any sounds of trouble. With a serving ledge fixed on top of the bottom section, a Dutch door works well between a kitchen and a dining area.

As an outside door, a Dutch door gives plenty of ventilation without opening the bottom section. Children or pets cannot make a dash for the outside when deliveries are received through the open top.

The Dutch door, besides being functional, has long been considered an attractive door, expressing a warm welcome.

Dutch doors are available in a variety of designs and sizes to suit any style of house. The ponderosa pine wood can be painted to match, or harmonize with, any present color scheme.

Home Modernization in 1955 To Hit Record of Eight Billion

American home owners are expected to spend more than eight billion dollars—a record sum—in modernizing their homes in 1955, according to the Insulating Siding Association.

About one-fifth of this amount will be spent on new siding and roofs, the Association estimates. Other major projects will be new heating plants, new plumbing systems and bathroom improvement projects, new garages, basement recreation rooms and finishing of attic rooms.

In recognition of the major part that roofing and siding play in the home modernization field, the Association is cooperating in March with the roofing and siding contractors of the country in the promotion of "NATIONAL HOME IMPROVEMENT MONTH."

The factors underlying the expected increase in home modernization spending, even over the record of seven billion dollars estimated for 1954, are:

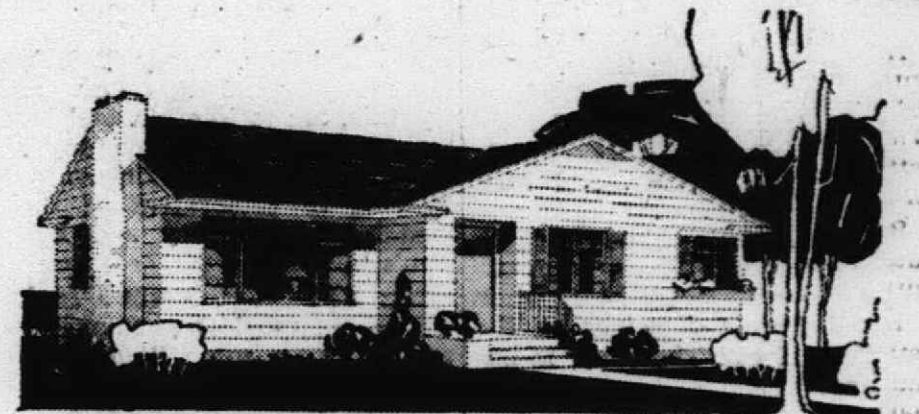

1—The continuing fight against blight and home obsolescence which is by no means won, despite the great increase in the proportion of new homes. More than half the nation's non-farm homes are more than 30 years old. And many of the newer, post-war homes are already in need of major improvements.

2—The continued high level of family income. Most of the recession fears have subsided. The average home owner can't foresee any general decline in prices so he's made up his mind to go ahead with modernization projects so that the family can have a better life.

3—The liberalized provisions of the new federal housing law covering home modernization loans. F.H.A. and V.A. mortgage holders can now get "open end" financing of modernization. This means that the home owner can borrow on his present mortgage and pay the loan off at the same monthly rate as his mortgage. The term of the mortgage is merely extended.

4—Pride in home ownership continues to rise among families of all economic levels. They are willing to give up other luxury items and put their extra money into home improvements that add to the value of their homes. Home modernization has become a project to which every member of the family can contribute his talents.

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-167-G.

DESIGN C-167-G. Three bedrooms occupy the rear of this plan with a hall separating them from the living room, dining room and kitchen in the front. The dining room is connected by an opening to the living room. Dining space is also provided in the kitchen. Plans call for a full basement, frame construction, wide siding and asphalt shingles. Other features include a wood-burning fireplace, picture window, corner sink under corner windows in the kitchen, recessed tub, large storage closets in the hall and entrance coat closets. Ground area is 1196 sq. ft. and cubage is 23,322 cu. ft. For further information about DESIGN C-167-G, write the Building Editor, The Plymouth Mail.

Browsing with BARBARA

With the approach of the Christmas season when there'll be a Christmas tree in just about every Plymouth home, it's high time to think about the fire hazard such trees present and how you can minimize the danger of fire to your home.

Over at Eckles Coal & Supply company on Holbrook they've just stocked the handiest little item to do just that—the new "Fire-larm." Guaranteed for a lifetime, this device will protect your home and family 24 hours a day against fires getting off to a start and remaining unnoticed until they've become raging infernos and destroyed your home.

The Firelarm is completely automatic, small and finished in an attractive baked enamel. It works by thermostatic control so that whenever the room temperature in your home reaches the danger point, the Firelarm will sound off instantly with a loud, penetrating and continuous alarm. No electric current is used until the alarm goes off and the fire put out, then the Firelarm automatically resets itself.

To install this protective device, just hang it on the wall near a fire hazard and plug it into any AC outlet. Once you've got it up there's no further adjustment or upkeep necessary.

Another nice thing about the Firelarm is that it's portable, so if you move to another home of want extra protection while traveling and staying in hotels or motels, you can take it right along with you.

Considering the inexpensiveness of the Firelarm and the amount of protection it gives to your family and home, it's well worth buying not only for the Christmas tree season but for all year round.

Also at Eckles you can find the new L.O.F. Fiber-Glass, now 1/200 square foot rolls. For all-round home improvements there's nothing better. To mention a few, you can use it to insulate heating ducts, wrapping hot or cold water pipes, insulating the home workshop to reduce noise, a liner under the car hood to reduce motor noise, floor insulation, comforter padding and 1 million and one other uses. Over at Eckles they'll be glad to cut you any length or size Fiber-Glass you'll need.

Lower Down Payment To Result in More Homes

A record volume of home-building—maybe as high as 1,500,000 new houses a year—will result from the liberal financing arrangements authorized in the Housing Act of 1954, predicts E. G. Gavin, editor of American Builder, the leading light construction industry magazine.

The impetus required to boost home construction to a new high will come mainly from the provisions of the act that benefit low- and middle-income buyers, Gavin explained.

Gavin pointed out that a new $12,000 home now requires only $1,200 as a down payment, while the cash required for a new $15,000 house is only $1,950.

The act is comparable in significance to the National Housing Act of 1934, in the passage of which American Builder took an active part and which created the Federal Housing Administration, the mortgage-insuring agency," the editor said.

HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Question: I wish to paste wallpaper to a steel roll-away closet door. The door has a prime coat of paint. I have inquired about my problem at several paint and wall paper stores but all they can tell me is that I have a real problem. Do you have an answer?

Answer: If the prime coat is firm and not flaking, apply one coat of shellac, then apply the wallpaper with glue instead of paste when the shellac has dried thoroughly. If you can work fast enough you can use shellac for glue—but it becomes tacky very quickly and won't permit paper to 'slip' for good joining. Animal glues dry more slowly, which gives you that one advantage. You can add more paper over this first one later by using glue, but if you ever decide to remove them, it will be a lot of work. Also be sure you have proper clearance on rolling doors for the thickness of the paper.

Question: I wish to make window and door awnings and canopies of wood rather than metal. I intended using exterior grade plywood. What I want to know is whether the exterior grade will do the job or if it will wrinkle and come apart. Is there some other material better than this?

Answer: There is a marine-grade plywood used in boat building pre-treated to withstand water which would probably outlast exterior grade. Exterior grade plywood is best when treated with sealers and protective paints. You can also protect regular lumber with preservatives and finishes which withstand weather. Also, you might consider pressed wood composition materials, some of which are pre-treated to withstand weather. Whatever you use, protect adequately with paints or varnish-style finishes.

Multipurpose Room

The dining room is staging a comeback, but with refreshing new differences. Today it's a far different room from the exclusively eating-quarters space of just a few generations ago. Today's dining room is multipurpose and is designed to fit in naturally with other areas. Besides dining, the room is now used as a study, hobby center or TV room. One change that seems to be permanent though, is that the dining room is no longer arbitrarily cut off from the rest of the house. Extension of design or materials such as clay tile flooring into the area keep it integrated with the rest of the house.

You can't beat hot water heating equipment for durability, says the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau. The Bureau cites the Federal Housing and Home Finance Agency as authority for the statement that the average life of a hot water boiler is 40 years or more.

An effective color scheme for a small house with a brown roof combines white, for the body, and putty color for the trim. Shutters are coated a deep burnt orange and the door is dark green.

Here's How Make a Christmas Card Display

An attractive Christmas card display is made of 1 by 2-inch lumber, using corrugated fasteners or glue and 7-penny finishing nails.

First make a triangle, 36 inches on each side, cutting the ends of each piece at a 30-degree angle. The base or trunk of the "tree" is made of one 8-inch and one 6-inch piece of 1 by 2-inch lumber, fastened to the bottom of the triangle at its center.

The lengths of the cross pieces are determined by marking the two inner sides of the triangle into six equal spaces, using five marking points. The marking points indicate the center lines of the five cross pieces. Since all the angles of the cross pieces are the same, the pieces may be cut successively from one piece of lumber without waste.

For use as a wall hanging, the "tree" is equipped with two small screw-eyes and picture wire.

25 Years Ago

December 13, 1929

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Blunk and son, Irving, returned last Sunday from Asheville, North Carolina. Irving Blunk will be returning soon to be with his wife who is spending the winter there.

Mr. and Mrs. Emory Holmes and children, Kathryn and Barbara Jean, were Sunday guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Chambers.

Little Virginia Shaw, daughter of Mrs. Irene Shaw, who suffered severe lacerations when she fell from the swings on the playground last Thursday, is improving.

Mrs. Harry C. Robinson and Miss Rose Hawthorne entertained a group of friends at a bridge-luncheon last Saturday, at their home on Braden road. Mrs. Peek and Mrs. Jacob Stremlich received prizes for highest honors.

Mr. and Mrs. William Kaiser entertained a few friends at a venison dinner last Thursday, at their home on Blunk avenue.

Born, a daughter, to Mr. and Mrs. Ward Smith on Monday, December 9.

The Ready Service class will hold their annual Christmas party at the home of Mrs. I. Inais, on South Main street, Tuesday, December 17.

The French club of Plymouth high school met at Ted Baughn's one evening last week, and enjoyed a delicious venison dinner. The main game was "Pigs," which afforded much amusement, especially when forfeit time came. Virginia Talbot has invited the club to her home for the next party.

Mr. and Mrs. George Perkins entertained the following for dinner on Wednesday of last week, in honor of the latter's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Gates of Eaton, Colorado; Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kempfert of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. John Moyer and son, and Mrs. Wm. Gates of Plymouth.

10 Years Ago

December 8, 1944

Mr. and Mrs. William Martin entertained at cards Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. James Gates, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McConnell and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Ernst.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Baker and daughters, Betty Lou and Cynthia, are to join Mr. and Mrs. George MacPhee, in Leamington, Canada, Saturday afternoon and evening in celebration of their wedding anniversary and Betty Lou's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Taylor (Irene Humphries) announce the arrival of a son, Richard, in Plymouth hospital on Monday, November 27.

Stanton Dana Lorenz, son of Lieutenant and Mrs. Ralph Lorenz of Ann Arbor trail, entertained seven little friends in honor of his fourth birthday Thursday, December 7. Those attending were: Billy Bakhaus, Allen O'Day, Jimmy Cutler, Randy Eaton, Jerry Miller, Jerry Hondorp, all of Plymouth; and Michael Petz of Northville.

Esther Margaret Mettetal, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Mettetal, of Lilley road, was united in marriage, Monday evening, to Robert Harry Scheppele, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Scheppele, at a service performed at 8 o'clock by the Reverend Henry J. Waich in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Sutherland and children, Beth Ann and David, accompanied by William Sutherland, Mrs. W. C. Smith and Mrs. Robert Mimmack, visited relatives in Windsor and Leamington, Ontario Saturday.

Leslie Jean Ebert entertained at bridge, Friday evening, with members of her club as guests. They are Patricia Evans, Annabel Becker, Frances Brown, Frances Weed, Grace Orr, Ruth Haab and Dorothy Richards. Christmas decorations were used throughout the home and on the dining table.

MEN IN SERVICE

William E. Cress

Private William E. Cress, son of William E. Cress, 41525 East Ann Arbor trail, recently completed basic infantry training at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri with a unit of the 6th Armored Division.

After induction into the Army at his home station, Private Cress processed through the 5045th ASU Reception station at Fort Leonard Wood, where he received his initial Army clothing, and took the basic qualification and aptitude tests to determine his assignment in the Army after completion of basic training.

In the first eight weeks, he is being taught the basic elements of military life, how to defend himself individually and with a unit, how to live with other soldiers, basic infantry techniques, and other fundamental facts important to his success in the military service.

Upon completion of the eight-week infantry training cycle here with the famed "Super Sixth," he will receive a leave before beginning eight weeks of advance basic training, either at Fort Leonard Wood or another training installation.

Don F. Ward

Don F. Ward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lavene Ward, 41822 Five Mile road, Plymouth just recently entered parachute school at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Private Ward entered the service on June 22, 1954 at Detroit Michigan and upon completion of basic training at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas, volunteered to become a paratrooper. Ward attended Plymouth high school and formerly worked at the Daisy Manufacturing company. He is presently assigned to Headquarters Battery 89th Airborne Field Artillery Battalion at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Local Elks Announce Memorial Service

In keeping with the mandate of 1,800 Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks Lodges across the nation to set aside the first Sunday in December to pay tribute to departed brothers, the local Elks lodge No. 1780 held a special Memorial service on Sunday. The program which started at 2:30 p.m. at the Elks Temple, 41700 Ann Arbor road, was open to the public as well as to members of the order and their families.

Exalted Ruler Ray Creith and fellow officers, Harvey Shaw, Donald E. Schifle, Wayne L. Cline, Warren R. Markle and Godber Jackson performed the ritual work. The eulogist was Irvine J. Unger, past exalted ruler of Detroit Lodge No. 34. Past members honored at this service were, LeRoy Reiman, Eugene Orndorff, William Choffin, P.E.R. and Stanley Platazin-ski.

Bradley R. Straatsma

Bradley R. Straatsma, Lieutenant, (MC), USNR, son of Dr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Straatsma of New Rochelle, New York and husband of the former Miss Ruth R. Campbell, of 941 West Ann Arbor trail, Plymouth, has been released to inactive duty at the U.S. Naval Receiving Station, Norfolk, Virginia.

Lieutenant Straatsma, who came to active duty with the Navy November 1, 1952, was commissioned as a Lieutenant Junior Grade and assumed duties with the staff at the U. S. Naval hospital, Portsmouth, Virginia. In October, 1953 Lieutenant Straatsma was assigned a dual post as medical officer of LST Squadron Four at Little Creek, Virginia and as Medical Officer of Underwater Demolition Teams Twenty and Twenty-two, Atlantic Fleet.

Lieutenant Straatsma obtained his pre-medical education at the University of Michigan and graduated Cum Laude from Yale University School of Medicine in 1951. His post-graduate medical training was obtained at the Yale University service at the Grace-New Haven Community hospital and as a visiting scholar at the Institute of Ophthalmology, Columbia Presbyterian Medical center. Upon his release from the Navy, Dr. Straatsma was appointed to the resident staff of the Institute.

Arnold J. Gaffka

Corporal Arnold J. Gaffka, 21, son of Mrs. Mildred Anstice, 209 Ann street, Plymouth, recently spent a seven-day rest and recreation leave from his unit in Korea at Camp Hakata, on Japan's southernmost island of Kyushu.

Sight-seeing and extensive entertainment facilities at the camp provided him with a welcome break in the task of maintaining security on the Korean peninsula.

Corporal Gaffka is a tank gunner in the 7th Infantry Division, 31st Regiment. He entered the Army in May 1953 and arrived overseas in March of this year.

Urge Employers Of Minors to Get Approval Number

With 1955 rapidly approaching the Michigan State Department of Labor reminds employers of persons between the ages of 14 and 18 to apply now for their new 1955 occupational approval numbers.

Before a minor may obtain a work permit, necessary for his or her employment, the employer must obtain an occupational approval number from the Michigan State Department of Labor approving the occupation in which the minor will work. After obtaining the approval number, the employer fills out a brief "Offer of Employment" form enabling the minor to obtain a work permit from the local school authorities, when presented with acceptable proof of age.

No work permits may be written after December 31, 1954, unless the employer has obtained this new number from the Michigan State Department of Labor.

All necessary forms for employing minors may be obtained from Melvin Blunk, coordinator at Plymouth high school, who issues work permits for the Plymouth area. Further information regarding employment of minors, minimum ages for particular jobs, working hours for minors, and prohibitive work may also be obtained from Mr. Blunk.

New Gift Shop to Open

Articles made by Plymouth craftsmen and other gift items will be available to local residents with the opening of the new "Early American Shop tomorrow. Owner of the 621 South Main street store is former Northville resident Duncan Hursley.

Hursley said the store will feature craft items, reproductions of early American designs, furniture as well as antiques. He added that the furniture line will probably not arrive until the first of the year but he plans to have a wide assortment of gift items for the Christmas shoppers.

U.S. Insurance To Pay Dividends

The Veterans administration announced it will pay regular dividends next year on National Service Life Insurance, which originated in World War II, and on U. S. Government Life Insurance, which originated in World War I.

The NSLI dividend will amount to $200,000,000 and will be payable to holders of approximately 5,000,000 participating term and permanent plan policies.

The USGLI dividend will amount to $26,000,000 and will be payable to holders of approximately 380,000 permanent plan policies only.

In both the NSLI and USGLI payments, eligible policyholders will receive a dividend for each month the insurance is on a premium-paying basis during the policy year ending 1955, with a single check covering the total payment due policy.

Payment will be made shortly after the anniversary date of each policy beginning in January and ending in December 1955.

VA announced changes will be made in several thousand individual NSLI dividend rates for the 1955 payment. On term NSLI, the dividend scale will be approximately 10% higher at ages through 40 than for the 1954 dividend. For ages above 40, the increase will be somewhat greater except at age 55 for which the rate will remain unchanged.

On permanent plans of NSLI, the total amount to be distributed in 1955 will be about the same as for 1954, but there will be small increases at some points and small decreases at others.

VA said these increases and decreases are due in large part to recent changes in the mortality and disability experience.

For USGLI permanent plan policies, a nominal increase generally will be made for those policyholders who presently are under age 60 and a slightly larger increase generally will be made for those policyholders who presently are over age 60.

VA said the USGLI increases also reflect recent changes in mortality and disability experience.

VA emphasized that the 1955 dividends will be payable only to eligible participating policies. They will not be payable to the non-participating post-Korea policies issued under the indemnity and insurance acts of 1951, nor will they be payable to the 900,000 NSLI and USGLI participating policies for the months for which premiums were waived during the 1955 policy year under the same acts.

Children Should be Seen

The innocence of youth recently snared two adult conservation law violators and made the case against them a simple matter.

Conservation officers Douglas Webb and Kenneth Haines, working in the Roscommon region, were following an automobile from which they were sure a shot had just been fired.

The occupants, however, protested their innocence until a youthful voice popped up from the rear seat of their car.

"Please don't shoot anymore," it said, "The noise hurts my ears." Two youngsters were in the back seat, the children of the violators.

The hunters were charged with transporting loaded firearms in a vehicle.

Extend Working Hours For In-School Minors

The commissioner of Labor, at the request of the Office of Vocational Education and the Michigan Retailers Association, has extended the working hours of in-school minors employed in Plymouth retail store for the period beginning December 1 and ending December 31, 1954.

The regulation permits minors of either sex to work a combined work and school week of 54 hours instead of the usual 48 hours. A minor may work the difference between 54 hours and the number of hours actually spent in school classes during the week.

Is He Deaf?

"Your grandfather's a little deaf, isn't he?" one man asked another.

"A little deaf?" the other man said. "Yesterday he conducted family prayers kneeling on a cat."

High School Pool Closes

Swimming enthusiasts who've been using the high school pool evenings will have to give up their favorite sport during the holidays. According to the Recreation department, the following changes have been made in pool schedules:

The women's swim on Tuesday nights will end December 7 to begin again on January 4. Wednesday's father and son swim will stop on December 22 to resume January 5. Adults swimming on Thursday nights will get their last dip December 16 and their next on January 13.

Swimming hours for all of these groups are from 7:30 to 9 p.m.

New Books at Dunning Library

Variety of subject matter is the keynote to this week's shipment of new books at the Dunning library. Among the new publications are: "The Rock Book" by Carroll Lane Fenton and Mildred Adams Fenton, illustrated with color and black and white photos; Dale's revised edition of "Audio." A book on "Aquariums" has come in by Anthony Evans as well as one on "Droodles" by Roger Price. Other new books include Mabel Raeb Putnam's "What Every Woman Should Know about Finance," "Jubilee Trail" by Gwen Bristow and "The World's Best Poems" edited by Mark Van Doren and Garibaldi M. LaPolla.

The history, doctrines, organization and present status of religious denominations may be found in "Handbook of Denominations in the United States" by Frank S. Mead. "Electronics for Everyone" by Upton covers the story of electricity in action. In this book you'll find the why, and whereof's of TV, color TV, radio, radar and hi-fi.

A revised edition of P. W. Selwood's "General Chemistry" has also arrived in the latest shipment, as well as "Mechanical Engineers' Handbook" by Lionel S. Marks.

Also among the new books are John Selby's novel, "The Man Who Never Changed," "I Led Three Lives" by Herbert A. Philbrick, and Spence's "Bride of the Conqueror," a novel dealing with the early days of Peru.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Recently a group of research scientists from across the nation gathered at the Clinical Center of the National Institute of Arthritis and Metabolic Diseases located at Bethesda, Md.

These scientists turned the spotlight on research laboratory workers who are seeking to find the cause and a cure for Arthritis and Rheumatism. These two diseases are similar in that when the connective tissue is affected the condition exists in the joints and is known as Arthritis. When the inflammation is located elsewhere in the body it is known as Rheumatism and sometimes Rheumatic fever.

Two new drugs, both three times more potent than any now in use in the treatment of rheumatoid arthritis and which do not have the undesirable side-effects usually associated with hormone therapy, were revealed at the meeting.

The two new drugs are known as metacortandralone and metacortandrosin. Both drugs are steroids, chemical compounds derived from such sources as bile acids. They are four times more potent than cortisone and three times more potent than hydrocortisone. The drugs are so new that it is not yet known whether prolonged use will develop a tolerance to them.

Neither of the new drugs are a cure for arthritis. They have been used on short-term trials and on a limited number of patients only.

A new, fast-acting drug that gives considerable relief from the irritant of gout was also reported. The drug, phenylbutazone, comes in tablet form.

Doctors have found that peptic ulcers are on the increase. Modern living seems to be the culprit. However, the combination of factors that bring on this condition can, for the most part, be avoided by susceptible people.

The emotions you hide are more important in causing ulcers than those you express. Even talking

PROCLAMATION

The blind of our nation, through the use of carefully trained Leader Dogs, have been granted a new independence and the ability to carry on successfully their vocations and professions.

In Michigan the services of Leader Dogs have been made available to our blind citizens through the efforts of Leader Dogs for the Blind, a non-profit organization established in 1939. This school, one of the largest of its kind in the nation, serves 40 states; and has graduates in Canada, Mexico, Israel, Panama, Brazil and Alaska. Each year many of our blind seek Leader Dogs, new "eyes"—and thus new lives.

Though training facilities to meet the ever growing demand for Leader Dogs are inadequate, this organization has, through intelligent planning, made constant advancement.

In order to acquaint our citizens with this need and with this highly successful program, which is supported by contributions from the United Health and Welfare Fund in Michigan, Lions Clubs and outstate organizations, a week is set aside each year as LEADER DOG WEEK.

THEREFORE, I, G. Mennen Williams, Governor of the State of Michigan, do hereby proclaim the week of December 5 through December 11, 1954 as LEADER DOG WEEK in Michigan, and call the attention of citizens of our state to the important program of Leader Dogs for the Blind in helping the blind to overcome their handicap and to live lives of independence.

G. Mennen Williams, Governor

Professor Describes This Month's Main Astronomical Attractions

The beginning of winter and the mystery of the Christmas Star are the main astronomical points of interest during December, according to Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate professor of astronomy.

Winter begins officially in the northern hemisphere on December 22 at 4:25 a.m. At this time the Sun arrives at the winter solstice, the most southerly point that it reaches during its apparent yearly journey around the Earth. There will be 15 hours of darkness and only 9 hours of daylight on the 22nd.

At this time of year the Earth is closer to the Sun than during our summer months, Professor Losh points out, so northern hemisphere winters are a little milder and southern hemisphere summers a little hotter than they would be if the sun were always equidistant.

Popular interest in astronomy reaches its peak this month with curiosity about the Star of Bethlehem. There has never been a satisfactory natural explanation of this phenomenon because the narrative about it is too incomplete and the date of the appearance of the star and the early calendar too uncertain to give a basis for definite conclusions, says Professor Losh. Many astronomers suggest that an unusual configuration of the bright planets gave the appearance of an extraordinarily bright star.

Some of these bright planets are easily visible this month: Venus, now the "morning star," will get brighter until December 21 when it reaches its greatest brilliance and rises three hours before the sun. Mars, orange in color, has moved eastward among the stars and is now in the constellation Aquarius in the southwestern sky. Jupiter, rising at about 8 p.m. in the northeast, is in an almost vertical line below Castor and Pollux in the constellation Gemini.

The eastern horizon is host to some of the most beautiful and colorful stars in the December sky: the yellow star Capella in Auriga, the orange Aldebaran in Taurus, the giant red star, Betelgeuse, in the shoulder of Orion, the bright Rigel in his knee and the twins, Castor and Pollux, all are above the horizon before Sirius appears outshining them all.

Sirius can be located on a line down through Orion's three "Belt Stars" pointing to Canis Major, the Greater Dog, in which Sirius shines.

Many a husband is ready to admit that it's surprising what a woman can get out of a tin can.

1955 CHRYSLER WINDSOR DELUXE NASSAU

CHRYSLER'S 100-MILLION-DOLLAR LOOK! ... overnight it's a famous new fashion!

"TAILORED STEEL" is the fashion experts' term for Chrysler's exciting new styling! Sweeping design change for 1955 features noticeably lower, longer lines and... unmistakably Chrysler... the new swept-back Super-Scenic Windshield that "wraps around" both top and bottom for greater (and safer) vision! New V-8 engines now power all Chryslers: up to 250 hp in the New Yorker Deluxe, and 188 hp in the Windsor Deluxe series. Other Chrysler exclusives include the most automatic of all transmissions, Full-time Power Steering, and double-width pedal Power Brakes. Your Chrysler-Plymouth dealer invites you to see and drive America's newest and most smartly different car!

WIDELY HAILED is Chrysler's new PowerFlite Range-Selector... on the dash! Permitting more instant control of gear-range selection, it heightens the pleasing "cockpit" effect of Chrysler's new front compartment styling.

TOTALLY NEW throughout, the 1955 Chrysler is easy to identify from any angle. New-styled "tumblehome" (or slope-in of the sides) emphasizes Chrysler's road-hugging look. Unmistakably Chrysler is the classic simplicity of rear deck... longer and broader. Dominant Twin-Tower tail lights set a new trend in rear-end design.

EIGHTH GRADE girls in the home economics class of Mrs. Pauline Morgan picked up some real practical knowledge recently when they roasted a 20-pound turkey. They had saved money to buy the turkey by selling cookies they baked. A few of the teachers were guests. Here, they are being given an authoritative demonstration on carving by Leslie L. Daniel of Livonia, father of Mrs. Barbara Birmingham, junior high teacher. The girls are rated as first-class turkey bakers, their guests agreed.

A green signal never gives the motorist a right to run down a pedestrian — especially if he is trying to finish a crossing he actually started on his green signal.

For a motorist, encased in a ton and a half of steel, to insist on his right-of-way rights over a 130 pound woman on foot is like a big bully threatening to slap some small youngster.

Plymouth Area Residents In Detroit Newspapers

Residents of the Plymouth area are making news in the Detroit papers these days. Dave Brinks of 48734 Ann Arbor road appeared recently on the Detroit News picture page grooming his short-horn, "Mort," for the state 4-H club Junior Livestock show. Dave, a student at Plymouth high school, entered his steer in the show which opened Tuesday at the Fairgrounds Coliseum in Detroit.

Mrs. J. P. Malley of Northville was featured in an article in the same Detroit paper. Raising and training hunting dogs is her specialty, and she too is heading for the State Fairgrounds Coliseum. On Sunday, December 12, Mrs. Malley will participate in a specialty show being held under rules and regulations of the American Kennel club.

Eagles to Observe Freedom Week Friday

Northville Eagles, of which numerous Plymouth men are members, will observe Freedom Week, December 7 to December 15 with a special program devoted to the Bill of Rights, at the Aerie meeting on Friday, December 10, it was announced today by Galen Cripe, Aerie president. Freedom Week starts with the date that marks the 12th anniversary of the attack upon Pearl Harbor and winds up with the day, December 15, which 163 years ago became significant in American history with the adoption of the first ten amendments to the Constitution of the United States, which constitute the Bill of Rights.

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

A befuddled snowy owl will probably catch dickens from the boys when he gets back to the arctic after his current trip to Michigan.

He is a year late. Last year was snowy owl year, not this year, and 1957 is scheduled as the next one.

Every fourth winter, the little mouse-like lemmings, native to the arctic and major food item of snowy owls, troop off on a death march to the ocean. Having nothing to eat, the owls trinkle southward to munch on Michigan mice.

The wayfarer was seen last week in Traverse City and verified by conservation department workers. It was white with a few flecks of dark feathers.

Raccoon hunting has proved unusually productive throughout Michigan this fall.

Game workers report 'coon numbers are still high despite a dieoff that has cut the population somewhat.

Hunting started in the upper and northern lower peninsulas on October 1 and continues until December 15. In the southern lower peninsula, the hunting season runs October 20-December 31.

Trappers are permitted to take 'coons until December 15 in the northern lower peninsula and until December 31 in the south. The upper peninsula season was slated to close November 30.

An average of one hunter in every ten bagged a Canada goose in the Swan Creek-Fennville area this year.

Conservation department workers issued 22,000 daily permits to hunters and a total of 2243 birds were killed during the recently-ended season. Last year, 18,000 permits were issued and 751 birds were bagged.

Education in firearm safety appears to be paying dividends.

Paul Challancin, conservation department educator, says that in the last three years, 8000-9000 school students have taken part in the department's firearm safety program in the upper peninsula.

Challancin states that hunting accidents involving minors have been reduced considerably in the areas in which programs have been presented.

Local conservation officers work with the schools in presenting these programs that include discussions in the proper use and handling of firearms.

Urges Tougher Work for High School Seniors

Tougher assignments for high school seniors as a means to help them when they become college freshmen was strongly recommended at a recent meeting of school principals and counselors at Michigan State college.

The meeting was the 18th annual Principal-Freshman Conference in which a panel sought to suggest ways in which students entering college might be better prepared.

It was agreed by the principals that the problem of students dropping out of college is equally their concern.

Among the cures advocated were that seniors in the college-prep group be assigned stiff work in high school. Also that seniors be given more opportunity and guidance in budgeting their own study time, to develop better work habits.

A chief problem at college results from freshmen who have disorganized work habits, it was reported by John Truitt, panel leader and assistant to the M.S.C. dean of students.

These students therefore fall behind in their work, lose interest, and soon want to quit, Truitt said.

Officials attending the meeting urged the improvement of guidance advice given to students and of the orientation activities in colleges.

They also urged the continued expansion of counseling services in college.

Gratitude is not only the greatest virtue, but the parent of all others.—Cicero.

PROCLAMATION

Whereas the President of the United States has asked all Americans to unite in a Nation-wide demonstration that traffic accidents can be avoided if all motorists and pedestrians do their part; and

Whereas, the Governor of our state has asked all of the communities in Michigan to support this worthy effort;

Now, therefore, as mayor of the city of Plymouth, I hereby proclaim Wednesday, December 15th as "S-D Day" in this community and ask all citizens to drive and walk on this day so as to keep the entire 24-hour period free of traffic accidents.

The exciting new idea behind the motoramic Chevrolet

The Bel Air 4-Door Sedan—one of 14 new Fisher Body beauties in three new series

Maybe once in a car-buying lifetime, you come across something that breaks all the old patterns and establishes new ones. This is that kind of car. This is the true story of how Chevrolet and General Motors shaped a new idea in steel.

Like most good ideas, this one is pretty simple. Chevrolet and General Motors set out to build the first low-priced car that would:

- bring you the very freshest and finest styling to be had.
- bring you the most advanced engine design and engineering features.
- bring you the kind of performance and the kind of ride that have never been available before in a low-priced car.
- bring you the highest quality of manufacture and materials.

All this in Chevrolet's price field? That did take some doing! And isn't it logical that only Chevrolet and General Motors have the people, skills, resources and facilities, to carry out this exciting new idea? Here is how this new Chevrolet changes all your ideas about cars!

Real Show-Car Styling!

Your eye tells you the Motoramic Chevrolet is no styling "patch-up" job. A rakish, low profile . . . soft swiftness from its sleek rear fenders to its wide-eyed Sweep-Sight windshield . . . a new outlook for motoring. And that outlook doesn't change when you slip inside . . . exciting fabrics and trim are harmonized with the whole car.

A Sensational Ride!

You live the new idea instantly . . . you glide . . . actually glide because spherical joints "roll with the punch" of the road in Chevrolet's new Glide-Ride front suspension. And outrigger rear springs mean new balance in turns . . . turns made so effortless by new ball-race steering.

And when you stop suddenly, new Anti-Dive braking control checks that nosing down in front . . . you get "heads up" stopping. Tubeless tires mean much greater protection against blowouts. And with new high-level ventilation there's fresher air.

Drive with care . . . EVERYWHERE! Make December 15 and every day SAFE-DRIVING DAY!

Power Beyond Compare!

You also feel the new idea quickly . . . quick power like a panther's paw with the new "Turbo-Fire V8" (162 h.p.) and two new "Blue-Flame" 6's. And sparking this performance is a 12-volt electrical system giving you better ignition, faster starting, greater electrical reserve for any of the power assists you might desire. You have a transmission choice of economical Overdrive and improved, automatic Powerglide (optional at extra cost) or standard shift.

Even Air Conditioning!

And if you desire the convenience of power assists (optional at extra cost) . . . you'll find new power-steering and improved power brakes on all models. Power-controlled windows and powershift seat are available on the Bel Air and "Two-Ten" models, while air conditioning may be added on V8 models.

Won't You Try It?

Here, we can only tell you how successfully the Motoramic Chevrolet expresses the new idea behind it. But the car itself can quickly show you! Come in for a demonstration drive, won't you, first chance you get.
