Santa's Coming, too!

Merchants Expect Shopping Rush

With but seven days remaining for harried gift-hunters to complete their Christmas shopping Plymouth stores are looking forward to the biggest rush of the season. They also are offering three good reasons for shopping in Plymouth. They are:

1. A week-long vacation trip to Bermuda for two with all expenses paid;
2. A personal visit from Santa Claus through the auspices of the local BPO-Elks this Saturday in Kellogg park;
3. One of the largest selections of Christmas gift items ever assembled locally which can be purchased with the confidence of knowing your merchant.

Perhaps the biggest enticement to most shoppers is the vision of spending a warm, relaxing week on the beautiful island of Bermuda. The Chamber of Commerce promotion carries no strings and, as a matter of fact, offers several other prizes to local shoppers including a movie projector & camera, an Evans-Colson bicycle and eight $10 gift certificates. Winners of the prizes will be selected and posted Thursday, December 23 at 2:00 p.m. in all participating stores.

The kiddies will be thrilled most by the announcement that Santa Claus will come by plane to Plymouth on Saturday. Scheduled to land at Mettetal airport at 1:30 p.m., he will be escorted to Kellogg park by members of the local Elks lodge. Santa has promised to bring a large pack of candies and goodies for his little friends. He is planning to stay but two hours as his heavy schedule demands that he return to the North Pole at once.

Most merchants agree that Christmas has been good locally, but not up to par with previous years. For this reason many expect a tremendous surge this weekend. All agree that the final week cannot possibly produce more business than other years. "It's always a maximum effort to handle the final week's rush," said one merchant.

With every store open evenings until 9 o'clock, extra clerks to handle the rush, ample parking facilities and proximity of stores it would appear that local merchants have again gone all-out to give Plymouth area Christmas shoppers the best possible accommodations.

Early Copy Please!

So that The Plymouth Mail may be published by Wednesday noon next week, we again ask the cooperation of advertisers as well as persons and organizations submitting news in preparing early copy. Deadline for the Christmas week edition is TUESDAY NOON.

S-D Day Starts With Collision

Safe-Driving Day was ushered in with a crash Wednesday morning in Plymouth but there still was a good chance that the day would pass without an injury or fatality.

Though stress was being placed on the reduction of auto injuries and deaths on highways and streets, an attempt was being made in Plymouth to go through S-D Day without a scratched fender. Snowfall made the task more difficult. As The Mail went to press Wednesday, the early morning mishap was the only one reported.

Police said it occurred at 2:40 a.m. in front of 634 South Main street. A parked car belonging to Marian E. Finnigan of that address was struck by a car driven by Lawrence E. Lyons, 164 North Main.

Elementary School Construction Approved

To Use Present Millage For Financing of 'Wing'

Following a recommendation of the School Community Planning Group, the Plymouth Township Board of Education voted Monday night to construct at least a portion of an elementary school building in order to head off further overcrowding of classrooms next year.

An architect will be hired by the school board within the next week or two in order that work can begin "as soon as possible" on a building expected to be built on a site already owned by the board on Sheldon road. The board will interview architects at meetings Friday and Monday mornings.

Old Theatre Speaker Has Good Future

It looked for a long while like the old loudspeaker used behind the screen of the Penn Theatre for many years might be relegated to a basement storeroom to gather cobwebs. But its future now appears brighter than ever before—it is being installed in a new auditorium at the Michigan School for the Blind.

It was the introduction of CinemaScope last spring and its marvelous multi-speaker sound system which brought an end to the old loudspeaker's use in any theatre. It had helped bring happiness and entertainment to hundreds of thousands of theatre patrons. But modern advancements suddenly caused its silence.

During a recent visit to Plymouth of Harry Lush, owner of the Penn Theatre, he asked Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo if he knew of any possible use for an outmoded loudspeaker. Judge Perlongo, who is an ardent high-fidelity recording hobbyist, suggested that it be given to the School for the Blind in Lansing where the 600-seat auditorium had an amplifying unit but no loudspeaker.

A theatre loudspeaker is a large and expensive item and it appeared that the new auditorium at the school would go without a public address system until the state legislature got around to appropriating more money. Lush immediately agreed that the speaker should go to the school.

The loudspeaker has now been delivered to Lansing and Judge Perlongo expects to go there during the holidays to install it. The sightless judge attended the school.

Wildifiers Name Champe President

Members of the Western Wayne County Conservation association drew on the services of one of their oldest and most enthusiastic members again Monday night when they elected Dr. B. E. Champe president of that organization.

After serving in the capacity of president of the Wildifiers for ten of the organization's early years, the well known conservationist was again elected to office and accepted the responsibilities of the club's direction during the difficult year ahead.

Other officers elected to serve with Dr. Champe were Warren Hoffman, vice-president; Norman Wilkerson, treasurer; James Turk, secretary; and board members Fred Scott, Richard Pospeshal, Reid Favor and George Fairburn.

Brockelhurst is Hi-12 President

Lon Brockelhurst will direct the destinies of the local Hi-12 club next year, having been elected president of that organization at its regular meeting at Arbor-Lill last Wednesday evening.

Other officers named to serve along with Brockelhurst were: vice-presidents, Raymond Bachelder and Frank Terry; Rex Hoffman, secretary; Harry Grimm, treasurer; and Harry Brooks, international representative.

Named to the board of directors were Harry Deyo, Charles Huebner, Harold Reid and R. Ray Barber. A report of the committee which staged the De Molay benefit show reported that the club netted over $600 on the undertaking.

Family, Victims Of Misfortune, Seeking Home

A roof over their heads is all the Jack Sills of Plymouth want for Christmas.

Seriously injured in a Thanksgiving-time automobile accident near Tawas City, Sill will be unable to financially support his family for a year. In addition, he is being forced to move his wife and three small children into his sister's home on Gilbert street. A total of 11 persons will then share the three-bedroom house.

Suffering a broken collar bone and severe lacerations in the accident, Sill has been in a cast for the last month. Mrs. Sill faces the prospect of total blindness from injuries she sustained. Their three children, who were also in the car, escaped injury. Mr. Sill's father, driver of the car, also lost an eye in the accident.

Coming to the aid of the family have been such organizations as the Salvation Army, Lions club and American Legion. However, the Sills are in urgent need of a home. They can only afford to pay $65 a month, the amount allotted to them by the welfare agency.

Anyone having a house available for the Sills may contact Mrs. Eugene Schaening.

Incumbent Files For Commission

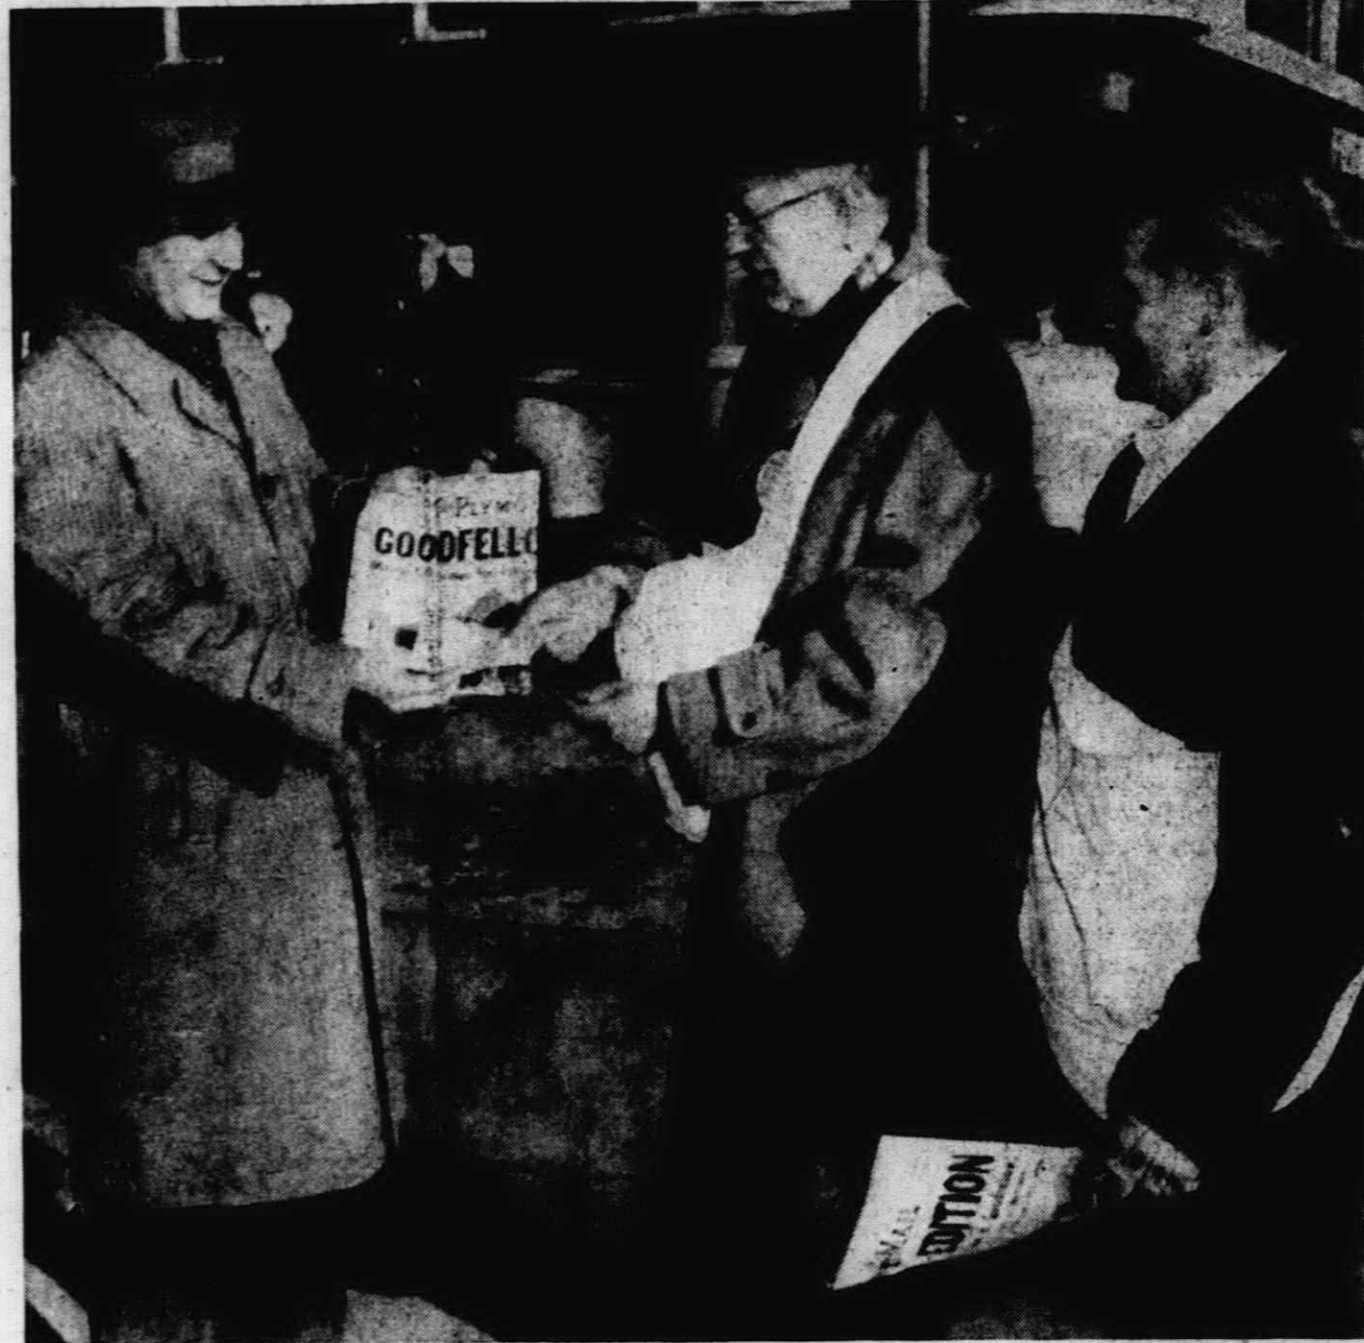

Harold E. Guenther, one of the two men appointed to fill vacancies last August on the city commission, has entered the race for the single "short-term" vacancy which will exist next spring.

The unexpired term is that of the late Henry Fisher whose term will not end until April 1957. Competing for this term besides Guenther is Kelsey Neeley, service station operator.

Guenther and Robert Sincok were both appointed to fill the vacancies last summer. Guenther is co-owner of E-Z Sew Enterprises, 340 North Main street. Before his commission appointment, he served on the personnel appeal board for the city. He has been a resident of Plymouth since 1944, moving here from Highland Park. The Guenther home is at 1142 North Holbrook.

Competing for the regular terms next spring will be at least five other candidates. They are Sheldon Baker, Marvin Terry, George Witkowski, Robert Sincok and Harry Roberts. Nominating petitions may be filed until 4 p.m. on January 3.

Only if more than two file for the short term vacancy or more than eight file for the regular term vacancies will a primary election be needed February 21. The general election will be April 4.

ONE ORGANIZATION does its part to help another so that in Plymouth there won't be a family or child without a Christmas. Above Sam Stephens (left), president of the Optimist club, turns over his club's check for a Goodfellow paper to Salesman Jim Gallimore, while Goodfellow President Ed Campbell looks on. In their annual sale last Saturday the Goodfellows fell 400 short on their goal but spokesmen promised that this would not deprive any needy person of help from their organization. In fact, they hope that anyone knowing of persons in need of food or clothing will call the City Hall and report their names and addresses. The Goodfellows will prepare the packages this Saturday at the City Hall.

Sees Self on TV 18 Years Later

It was 18 years ago that Homer Howe, 675 Pine street, attended the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs, an event he has almost forgotten by now. So it was no surprise that he took interest in the film presentation of that 1936 Derby on CKLW-TV last Saturday night over the "Date at 8" show.

But it was a surprise when Howe noticed a man in the movie who seemed quite familiar. The scene was of a spectator at a news stand purchasing a newspaper. The man of a newspaper, was Homer Howe.

Howe vividly recalls his disappointment when his sister's father-in-law objected to his betting on the race. Howe had selected Bold Venture—winner of the race.

Township Political Scene Stirs As 4 Incumbents Enter Race

Rumblings in the Plymouth township political scene were heard for the first time this week as four of the present officials announced they would again be candidates while another remained "undecided."

As in Plymouth city and other communities throughout Michigan, Plymouth township will hold a primary election February 21 and a general election on April 4. At stake will be the offices of township supervisor, treasurer, clerk, two trustees and up to four constables.

Petitions are now available at township hall for those wanting to enter the race.

Supervisor Roy Lindsay, Clerk Norman Miller, Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes and Trustee William

Webber have all announced that they will attempt to regain their offices. All are Republicans.

The other trustee, Samuel W. Spicer, said he is undecided about running again. He has been in township offices since 1932, serving as treasurer for 18 years.

There will also be four jobs as constable available. Deadline for filing nominating petitions will be 4 p.m. on January 3.

Lindsay has been supervisor since June 1953 when he was appointed to fill the vacancy created when Supervisor Charles Rathburn, Jr. died. Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes has held her office since last December. She was appointed to succeed her husband who died in office.

The township's clerk, Norman Miller, has held that office 22 years. Trustee William Webber is serving his first term. He was previously a township constable.

Returns from City Manager Meeting

City Manager Albert Glassford returned Tuesday night from St. Petersburg, Florida where he attended the 40th Annual International City Managers Association conference.

More than 450 city, town and county managers were registered. Wives and guests brought the total up to more than 900, making it the largest ICMA conference. Delegates represented a third of the 1,270 managers in this country or Canada.

"After comparing notes with other managers from all over the country, I find we're doing all right here in Plymouth," Glassford said.

Some of the problems which many cities are just now beginning to face concern off-street parking facilities and off-street unloading for business. Glassford pointed out that Plymouth is well on the way toward solving these problems.

Panel discussions were led by outstanding city managers, one of them being L. P. Cookingham, city manager of Kansas City, Missouri, a former manager of Plymouth in the early 1930's.

Symphony Ball Highlights Plymouth Holiday Season

Highlighting festivities of the gay yuletide season will be the annual Symphony Ball sponsored by the Plymouth Symphony Society on December 27 in the Plymouth high school auditorium.

On that evening, Plymouthites young and old will emerge from their homes to participate in what to many is the crowning event of the town's social season.

Music for dancing at Plymouth's biggest social fling will be provided by Sammy Woolf and his orchestra, popular Detroit TV and night club aggregation. Many residents will remember the pleasant evening spent dancing to his accompaniment at the Symphony ball last spring.

Couples will gather at the Main street building at 9 p.m., starting hour for the gala event, to enjoy four hours of delightful dancing to the rhythms of the Woolf orchestra. Closing hour for the dance has been set at 1 a.m.

Dress for the occasion is optional and many Plymouthites will be sporting their latest Christmas attire and newest dancing frocks.

Mrs. Wilson Augustine is in charge of the event and will be assisted by a skillful decorations crew who will transform the high school auditorium into a stary yuletide ball. On the decorations committee are Mrs. Willis McCabe, Mrs. Eugene Crosby, Mrs. Gerald Hondorp, Mrs. R. A. Hulce and Miss Hildur Carlson.

Tickets for the dance may be obtained from any committee, Symphony Auxiliary or Symphony Board member. All proceeds will go to support the work of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra.

THOUGH THE SYMPHONY BALL remains two weeks away, work has already started on the decorations. The committee, shown here, met at the home of Mrs. Gerald Hondorp, 1317 Park Place, this week to start plans for the affair to be held at the high school on December 27. Working on the colorful decorations, from left, are: Mrs. W. R. Augustine, chairman of the ball; Mrs. R. A. Hulce; Mrs. W. R. McCabe, chairman of the decorations committee; Mrs. E. E. Crosby; Mrs. Hondorp and son Craig; and Mrs. Margaret Hough.

Resume Trailer Park Court Case

Court action against Plymouth township filed in an attempt to require them to issue a permit for construction of a trailer park, reopened Wednesday before Circuit Judge Wade McCree.

Filing the action was Clyde Smith, president of Smith Motor Sales, Inc., whose request to build the park in the northwest section of the township was turned down last October.

Five days of testimony opened November 30 and an adjournment was taken December 6 until yesterday. The trial may conclude this week.

Expected to take the stand sometime Wednesday as a witness for the township is James Gallimore, president of the Plymouth Township Board of Education. One of the arguments offered by the defense against trailer parks concerns the overcrowding of schools. It is expected the defense will point out that trailer owners do not pay their fair share of taxes which go to support the schools.

Smith has submitted a trailer park plan which would accommodate 103 units. The proposed 25 acre site is along Ridge road between Territorial and Five Mile roads. The cost is estimated at $60,000.

Proceeds of Daisy Cookery Book To Help Furnish Hospital Room

Employees of Daisy Manufacturing company this week published the "Daisy Family Cookery Book," which will go on sale as part of a project to raise funds for furnishing a room at the new St. Mary's hospital when it is completed.

Two hundred and twenty tempting dishes, from "Charcoal Chuck Roast" to "Cake of Genoa with Creme Au Buerre" were contributed by Daisy employees for the publication. Many of them are family recipes passed from generation to generation in Daisy families; most are new to the reader.

An all-plastic book with spiral binder, the new cookbook is indexed for easy reference by the kitchen gourmet. The Daisy company purchased 500 of the first publication for Christmas gifts to its customers.

Names of Daisy employees and their friends who contributed to the book are included in a special index, and each recipe is identified with the contributor. The idea for the Cookery Book was conceived and the recipes compiled for publication by Daisy's nurse, Alverta M. Wenger, R. N.

Copies of the book may be obtained in the lobby of the Daisy Manufacturing company or by writing to the company. All profits from the sale of the book will be given to the St. Mary's hospital.

Overtime Basket By Clifford Wins Rock Cage Tilt

An overtime—a fantastic long shot—and Danny Clifford were all rolled into one Tuesday night to produce a 48-47 Plymouth victory over Walled Lake that Hollywood couldn't top for thrills and a spectacular finish.

In the dying seconds of a three minute overtime to play off a 42-42 tie, with the Lakers missing a one point lead, Clifford let fly a desperate long shot from center court that must have hitched a ride on a prayer. The ball dropped through the cords with but one second left on the clock and there was nothing Walled Lake could do but hang their heads and wonder what Lil Dan had eaten for breakfast. That shot, close to 50 feet in length, put the finishing touches on a victory that was an uphill battle all the way for Plymouth.

Walled Lake had the game won in the regulation time, leading the Rocks 42-39 with less than a minute to play in the fourth quarter. But they got careless and Bob Middleton, who had been getting worked-over all night, was fouled as he drove in for a shot with but a few seconds left. His shot was good anyway, but the ref detected the foul and awarded the vital free throw. Middleton dunked it and the game was knotted at 42-42 as time ran out.

The Lakers started the overtime by hitting on two quick baskets and a free throw, and it looked like Plymouth had rallied for nothing. But Dick Day scored on a jump shot and a pair of free throws. Clifford followed with his "Hollywood shot," and it was all over but the yelling.

The Rocks were never ahead after the opening minutes of play until the end and had to continually hit for points just to stay in striking range of the visitors. Plymouth trailed 12-9 at the one-quarter mark, cut the margin to 21-20 at the half, and then dropped to a 35-31 disadvantage by the end of the third eight minutes to set the stage for their rally to a 42-42 tie at the end of regulation time, and the final 48-47 squeeze in overtime.

Netting 15 counters, Dick Day was high point man for the Rocks, followed closely by Bob Middleton with 14. Clifford came next with seven points, five of which he will never remember because they were overshadowed by that one mighty heave that won the game.

The game in itself was not a well played affair, as evidenced by the fact that the Rocks made only about one-fourth of their shots from the floor. Coach John Sandmann's quintet will have to play better ball than that to stay in the thick of the 6-B League race. They face Trenton here tomorrow in quest of their first league victory after dropping the opener to Bentley last week. In the preliminary contest the Plymouth junior varsity quintet was swamped by Walled Lake, 54-31.

Swimmers Win 2nd Meet

During all of last season, in which Plymouth won only two swimming meets, the Rocks were unable to capture a pool record. Tuesday they set a record, matched their victory output of last year and avenged a loss they suffered at the hands of Lincoln Park in 1953. All this came in the course of Plymouth's first home meet of the 1954-55 season.

The pool record was set in the final 200-yd. free style relay when Don Carney, Dick Showers, Chuck McKenna, and Dave Beagle completed the event in 1:45.7 to put the finishing touch on a 56-28 victory over Lincoln Park. The win, Plymouth's second in two starts this year, sends Coach John McFall's natators into tonight's 7:30 meet at Birmingham with a clean slate to defend.

Taking first in six of the nine events, Plymouth put on quite a show for the home crowd that had seen the local tankers sunk so often in the past two years. The Rocks also took six seconds in the seven individual events to contribute 18 points to the local cause.

Aside from the pool record set, two team records were lowered by their same owners. Sophomore Bill Brandell continued to improve on his 200-yard freestyle record, which he set in last Friday's meet with Ypsi. Brandell lowered his standard to 2:13.4 while winning the event. Gary Wright, swimming the same event for the first time, also bettered the old record as he finished second, less than a second behind Brandell.

Dave Beagle shaved .1 of a second off his team 100-yard freestyle record, lowering it to 59.2. However, he could get only a second place for his effort as Lincoln Park's Dick Martin, who also won the 50-yard freestyle to garner ten points and top the scoring, finished two seconds faster to win the race from Dave.

Bob Packard in the 100-yard backstroke, Jim Zukosky in the 150-yard individual medley, Arthur Losse in the diving, and the medley relay team of Packard, Mike Conrad, and John Williams, took the other first places Plymouth earned in this meet.

Bob Packard earned seven points to pace his mates. Beagle, Showers, Conrad, Zukosky and Losse collected five apiece. After two meets, Zukosky and Packard, with 12 points, share the overall leadership. Brandell, Beagle, Losse, and Conrad have ten to place as runners-up in the scoring department.

Evans to Guarantee Price on Plywood

E. S. Evans, Jr. president of Evans Products company announced this week that his firm is guaranteeing the mill price of Bellwether grade, 1/4" Douglas Fir plywood produced by the company would not raise above the present price of $85 between now and June 1, 1955. Evans Products operates plywood plants at Coos Bay and Roseburg, Oregon, and is at the present time constructing another plant at Vancouver, B. C.

In the past several months many mills have increased their prices. Evans, however, is the first mill in the industry to come out with the announcement that they will continue to sell at the $85 price until June 1, 1955. Evans said the interests of the consumer, the wholesaler and the manufacturer could best be served by keeping the price of plywood as low as possible consistent with sound business practice.

Evans referred to the tremendous expansion in the use of Douglas Fir plywood during the past 30 years. He said it was his company's belief that continued expansion would best be brought about by keeping the price of Douglas Fir plywood where it will not only continue to be attractive to users, but will actually stimulate the uses of this building material in private homes, low cost housing and commercial construction.

Correct Name in Story

The name of Dr. S. N. Thams, local dentist, was erroneously printed last week in connection with a story on the casualty care stations being established by the Plymouth township Civil Defense unit. Dr. Thams is one of the personnel being assigned to the Smith school care station.

Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Bartel, Sr. were Mrs. Nettie Osten of Farmington, sister of Mr. Bartel; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Frick and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Bartel and daughter, Beverly and Ronald Lamerand. The party was in honor of Mrs. Osten who left on Wednesday to spend the winter in Florida.

Ask Help to Keep Postmen Healthy

"Take it easy on our postmen, especially during this Christmas season," Postmaster George Timpona said this week as the Post Office department stressed the importance of safety.

Keeping your sidewalk clear of ice and snow is one way to keep postmen on their jobs, the postmaster declared. Then too, don't forget there's a city ordinance about keeping dogs tied. A dog who has tasted postmen with regularly might cause his master the loss of home mail delivery.

And don't forget that those parcel post trucks are making stops at about every house now, Timpona said. Driving too close behind a parcel post truck may mean trouble if you aren't too alert.

Celebrate Christmas with Steamed Pudding

Steamed pudding goes with Christmas as surely as evergreen trees and tinsel. There's a holiday look about a rich, moist pudding, chock-full of good things, and the sweet-flavored hard sauce that goes over top. Tasting it is like getting a secret glimpse of the packages under the tree. Just delightful!

What goes into Holiday Steamed Pudding to make it look like a Christmas gift and taste like a delicacy Santa Claus might have dreamed up? There are the usual ingredients . . . flour, baking powder, soda, shortening, an egg. But the flavor . . . aha . . . that comes from the "extras."

Holiday Steamed Pudding derives its distinctive flavor from chopped figs, (or dates or raisins); cinnamon, nutmeg, and Christmas-red tomato soup from the can. All together, they make a luscious dessert for the festive holiday season.

Holiday Steamed Pudding

- 2 1/2 cups sifted flour
- 3 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon soda
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 2 cups chopped figs, dates

Sift flour with baking powder, soda and spices; dust figs with a small amount of flour mixture. Cream shortening and sugar; add egg and mix well. Add dry ingredients and figs, alternately with soup, stirring well after each addition. Spoon into a greased 2-quart mold or 3 small molds (3 1-pound coffee cans will do). Cover securely with wax paper or aluminum foil; steam about 2 hours. To steam pudding, set containers on a rack (or inverted cake pan) placed in small amount of water in a deep pan.

Note: Puddings can be baked in covered molds in a slow oven (300° F.) for 2 hours.

Problem of Negro Fight for Equality Told to Rotarians

Problems of a Negro in today's society were discussed by Raymond Scruggs, member of the Public Relations department of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, in a talk to Plymouth Rotarians Friday.

Of the Negro race himself, the speaker emphasized that it is equal opportunities that the Negro is seeking today in his attempt to become the best citizen possible.

His talk touched on the segregation problems now existing, especially in the public schools of the South where some states have threatened to close down schools due to the Supreme Court decision regarding desegregation.

"Separate but equal" schools for whites and Negroes are impossible in most of those states, Scruggs asserted. States like Georgia and South Carolina have less tax income than Bell Telephone pay out in taxes, he added, so how could they afford good schools in duplicate?

Even in Michigan, there is a decided shortage of equal opportunities, the speaker said. Detroit hospitals would not train nurses of the minority races but still some hospitals were forced to close because of the lack of nurses of the minority races but hospitals also do not permit interns of these minority races.

Everyone must be given these equal opportunities in order that they can carry their own load in this world instead of relying entirely on others, he stated. One of the organizations cited for inter-group relations is the Michigan Bell company. They hire the best man to fill the job, no matter what his race or religion, Scruggs added.

The speaker recently said he was asked if he could travel across the country without running into racial prejudice. "I told him I didn't think I could get across Michigan." In most communities, people have their "stereotyped notions" about minority races. In a down-river community, for instance, the speaker said that gangsters and racketeers were running at large without trouble but when a Negro physician with two University degrees tried to move into the community, it almost started a riot.

Concluding his address, Scruggs pointed to the forces which are helping inter-racial understanding. Among these forces are the church (especially the Catholic church), the world of sports and labor.

The speaker was introduced by Dean Sipson, former manager of the local Michigan Bell office and now in the Michigan Bell public relations office.

Traces Origin Of Christmas Tree, Other Symbols of Yuletide Season

Within a few weeks now your home will probably be graced with the fragrance of a Christmas tree and bright with wreaths of evergreen and holly or sprigs of mistletoe. Your tree will probably be bright with lights and decorated with shiny glass balls and tinsel or possibly with ropes of popcorn and cranberries. All of these things have for years been to us part of the "Spirit of Christmas."

How did these things which are now traditional become traditions? Even before the Christian era the foundations for our acceptance of Christmas symbols were laid. Ancients believed that evergreens were symbols of eternal life and worshipped them as such. Each tree was believed to be the home of a God or Goddess, and firs were especially revered because their always-green needles proved to the superstitious people that even the sun loved evergreens best, as he never turned his face from them to make them die. The ancient poet Virgil, describes the decoration of a fir with gifts which were intended as prayers to the Gods. Early Egyptians also had a winter festival during which they brought small palm trees into the houses and decorated them.

Many times Martin Luther is given credit for originating the Christmas tree as such. It is said that he was walking through the hills one snowy Christmas Eve and became so impressed with the beauty of the stars shining through the branches of snow-covered evergreens, that he immediately took home a small tree and decorated it with candles for his children. This story may be fact or fiction—but it is true that Germany was the real home of the Christmas tree. From 1700 on, the decorated tree was customary in Germany. During the American Revolution, lonely Hessian soldiers brought the custom to our country. The idea was quickly adapted here. Written records show its wide acceptance by 1840. No trimmings were used at first; then gradually tufts of cotton to represent snow, and string of popcorn and cranberries were added—finally pictures of food or actual foods such as cookies or apples were used. It is easy to see how brightly colored trees and oranges, which were true luxury gifts in the early days, could have been the forerunners of the glass balls we use today.

One of the more familiar legends concerning the Christmas tree is the tale of Sir Wilfrid, an early Christian knight, who sought to prove to his converts that they had severed all connections with the pagan Druids. The Druids had especially worshipped oak trees, so on this day Sir Wilfrid chose a mighty oak and chopped it down to show how the Druid's pagan power had been destroyed by Christianity. According to the legend, as the oak fell, it split—and from its center sprang a young fir. Sir Wilfrid thereupon declared the fir to be the symbol of Christianity as its wood was the wood of peace (since homes were built from it), also it pointed straight to Heaven, and its needles were green, as with eternal life. He commanded his followers, "Gather about this tree not in the wildwood, but in your own home, for it will shelter no deeds of blood, but shall be surrounded with loving gifts and rites of kindness."

Another unusual legend as to how trees came to be decorated is found in both French and German folklore. According to this tale—a knight riding through the forest on Christmas Eve was suddenly amazed to see a huge fir glittering with candles—some right side up and some upside down. At the top shone a brilliant light which, as he rode closer, became the outline of a baby's face. The knight rode quickly home, telling everyone of his vision. Peasants and wise men alike were baffled—but at last a kindly old grandmother told the knight that the tree was the tree of humanity—good souls represented by upright candles and bad souls represented by the inverted candles. The baby, of course, was the Christ child—watching over the entire world on Christmas Eve—and explained the grandmother, the whole country was blessed by the lighting of such trees during the Holiday season.

These are but a few of the tales surrounding the origin of our Christmas tree. Whether it be legend or history it is sent with the sincere wish that this may be for you a truly Merry Christmas season.

Perfume Racket Method Explained

A warning against nationwide hoax which misleads Christmas shoppers into the belief that they are buying high-priced perfumes at bargain prices was issued today by Community Protection committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The first step in the carefully planned scheme is the insertion in a national magazine of a dignified advertisement which will include the statement that the perfume is available "at better stores everywhere" at a price approximating $20 per ounce or half-ounce.

In other cases, promoters have resurrected old advertisements dating back as far as 20 years although the products may have had no regular sale in stores since that time. "Actually," the committee stated, "the National Better Business Bureau, with which our Chamber is affiliated, informs us that these so-called bargain perfumes are not known to have any current established retail distribution nationally at the advertised price or any other."

The next step in the scheme, as outlined by the Chamber, is to induce one or more well-known stores in a given community to accept a few bottles of the perfume on consignment. "The stage having been set," the committee said, "an army of fast-talking salesmen, who have purchased the perfume for approximately $1 per bottle, descends upon the community. In bars, business offices, factories and even on the sidewalks, they hawk the 'nationally advertised $20.00 perfume' at from $2 to $5 per bottle or whatever price the traffic will bear.

Will Entertain Underprivileged

Seven underprivileged children from the Plymouth area will be "adopted" this Sunday by the seven local Junior Achievement companies and provided entertainment, refreshments, Christmas presents and a visit with Santa Claus.

This is the first time that the Plymouth Achievers have had such a party. Every JA business center in southeastern Michigan will have similar affairs Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m.

The Salvation Army has selected the underprivileged children who will be guests. Each of the seven concerts will be responsible for picking up one child at his home, bringing him to the business center on South Main street and entertaining him.

Names of the seven local JA firms are Topsy-Tray, Kustom-Kraft, Home Products, Bell-Products, Woodco Products, Ply-Hy Products and JA Novelties.

Sent to DeHoCo

A sentence of 30 days in the Detroit House of Correction was given Wilford Jukkara, 46, of 216 Union street, who was charged with passing a check with insufficient funds.

Police said that Jukkara cashed two checks while making purchases at the Capital Shirt shop several weeks ago. The checks totaled $45. Jukkara had no money in the bank.

Appearing before Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo, he pleaded guilty to the charge and was given the 30 days sentence.

Elementary School

It was the School Community Planning Group which recommended two weeks ago that an "elementary wing" be constructed. It is the financial problem which is preventing the building of an entire new school instead of just a wing. As finances become available in future years, other wings would be added.

Harold Fischer, chairman of the school organization and plant facilities committee of the School Community Planning Group, delivered the recommendation to the school board, citing the urgent need for classrooms next year.

A census of pre-school children taken last May showed there will be at least 2,087 students in elementary buildings next fall. If each of the present classrooms had between 30 and 35 pupils, the school system would be short about eight classrooms.

Not until an architect is hired will the school board find out exactly how big of a building they can build for the $120,000 they will have available next July. This money is coming from a tax levy voted by citizens last spring for "school and site purposes."

The school board also talked at their meeting Monday night about other sources of income. It may also be possible, they learned, to lower other millage rates voted for certain purposes and transfer them to the building and site fund. This possibility would need the vote of the public.

It was also agreed by the board that a search should continue for other school sites. A problem to be faced in the future is the junior high situation. Here too, overcrowding may soon get out of hand. It was recommended by a committee of the School Planning Group last year that a junior high be constructed but the Planning Group as a whole did not make the recommendation to the school board.

Boy Hit by Car Returned Home

Brian Smith, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith, 794 South Main, has returned home from Ford hospital after treatment for injuries he received when hit by a car last week.

Brian and his brother Fred, 13, were both struck as Fred pushed his brother in a wagon into the path of a car driven by Mrs. Eugene Eicher, 9034 Elmhurst. The mishap took place Tuesday at night time near the Smith home on South Main.

Facial injuries were sustained by Brian and he underwent surgery. He was returned home last Thursday but has gone back to the hospital several times for further treatment. He expects to return to kindergarten at Smith school following the holidays.

New Downtown Gas Lines Being Laid

Laying of new and larger gas lines has brought the tearing up of several blocks of sidewalk in the downtown area during the past week.

The Consumers Power company is having the work done in order to offer better gas service to downtown users. Six-inch lines are being laid.

The city commission gave permission last summer to Consumers to do the work. Sidewalks which are being torn up are temporarily being repaired with asphalt. After the fill settles, Consumers has agreed to lay new sidewalks.

Starting on Penniman at Harvey, the line was laid to Union street and on Main street from Penniman to Fralick.

Calf Rustled from Barn

Shades of the Old West appeared in Salem township last weekend when "cattle rustlers" invaded a barn and made off with a calf.

The theft took place sometime early Sunday on the farm of A. E. White, 7121 Salem road. The heifer calf, only several weeks old, was in the barn when it was taken. Snow fell later in the morning covering up tracks.

Washtenaw county sheriff's authorities are investigating the theft.

Services of St. Nick Now Offered Here

This Christmas season will be just as busy as one for Bill Farwell as last year's. Running an ad in the December 1953 Mail for Santa Claus services provided so much fun for the Adams street resident that this year he's offering a similar service.

Santa starts making his rounds at 7 p.m. Christmas eve, finishing up his last call at 11 that night. On Christmas day he'll also be on hand for stops at Plymouth homes.

Arrangements for visits from Santa can be made through the local resident, who reports that St. Nick's schedule is already being filled with calls from homes visited last year.

$1,000 Gift Buys Robes for Choir

New robes for the choir of the First Methodist church, worn this Sunday for the first time, are the result of a $1,000 gift of Edward C. Hough, Daisy Manufacturing company official.

Besides robes for the 30-voice choir, stoles have been purchased for the Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson, D.D., and his acting assistant, Mr. Sanford Burr. Special Christmas music will be offered by the choir this Sunday in connection with the occasion.

The robes are of wine color to match other furnishings inside the church auditorium. It was only last week that the city commission accepted a gift of $1,000 from Hough for improvement of roads in Riverside cemetery.

Christmas Carols for Shut-ins, Sunday, December 19, 6:15. The Carolers will meet at the Church.

Christian people everywhere are returning to a Christ-centered Christmas observance. The heyday for material exploitation of this great Church festival is coming to an end. Why should Christian people tolerate Santa Claus in place of the Christ-child? Why make a nightmare of buying and selling, of rushing and fussing out of this lovely, peaceful Day of our Lord's Nativity, described so beautifully in Brooks' famous carol:

"How silently, how silently the wondrous Gift is giv'n!
So God imparts to human hearts the blessings of His Heaven.
No ear may hear His coming, but in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in,
What could be more God-pleasing and Christ-centered than to bring the entire family to Church on Christmas Morning?
We welcome you and wish you all the blessings Christ has in store for you!"

14 Year Old Danish Girl to Spend Her First Christmas in America

This Christmas will be unlike any other experienced by 14-year-old Birtig Johansson of Denmark, who arrived in America last week and is taking up permanent residence in Plymouth.

Besides being her first American Christmas, Birtig will be spending it for the first time in five years with her mother, Mrs. H. Allen Mansfield, and nine-year-old brother, Henning, of 270 Parkview. The family has been separated due to financial reasons, and Birtig has been staying with her grandparents in Copenhagen.

If Birtig were still in Denmark she'd be looking forward to the approach of the three-day Danish celebration of the event which begins Christmas eve and runs through December 25, 26 and 27.

When the last key is turned in the locks of Danish shops and offices on December 24, the Danes wend their way home for the annual festivities. Church services are attended, and the families gather at the grandparents home for the Christmas eve dinner which is traditionally marked by the serving of fresh ham and rice pudding.

Following the dinner children are removed from the room while parents decorate the Christmas tree. When all the ornaments are hung, the tree waddled in angel hair and each candle lighted on to find the gifts which Julenissen, their Danish Santa, has left for them under its boughs.

Before the gifts are opened, however, the family forms a ring about the tree and joins hands for the traditional Christmas dancing and singing of the Danish carols. Afterwards all presents are opened and general merriment takes over the household.

From Christmas day through the next two days, feasting and pleasant chats with relatives and friends from far and near are the order of the day. An endless array of Danish dishes, prepared by the housewives months in advance, are brought from their storage spaces and placed on the table for the Smorgasbord dinners. Traditional goat figures of straw, the symbol of Christmas, adorn the Smorgasbord table and corners of the room.

During the three-day celebration visits will be made to other homes and families, there'll be dancing and friends will drop in to join in the Smorgasbord feasts.

After festivities are over and New Year's Day arrives, the tree is officially taken down in every Danish household, and the family once more assumes its customary routine of daily life.

Although Birtig is going to miss some of the gaiety of the Danish yuletide celebration, she's looking forward to hanging up her stocking Christmas eve in the American tradition and finding it many of the strange and wonderful things she's seen for the first time in America.

Detroit Choir To Give Concert In Northville

On Friday, December 17, at 8:15 p.m. the Lutheran Laymen's League of St. Paul's Lutheran church of Northville will sponsor a Candlelight Concert of Christmas music to be presented by the 40-voice choir of the First Lutheran church of Detroit under the direction of Clarence Nagel.

This choir is well known in Detroit church circles for their fine rendition of Christmas choral music and will present the same concert at four churches during the holiday season.

The people of Plymouth are cordially invited to attend. Refreshments will be served in the Parish hall immediately following the concert.

St. Paul's Lutheran Church is located at Elm and High streets in Northville.

Lutheran Mission Society Provides Yuletide Cheer

Christmas cheer was provided for patients at Eloise hospital by members of the Lutheran Mission Society of St. Peters church.

Some 200 boxes of candy, cookies, hankies and cards were packed at the church and delivered to the hospital on Sunday afternoon.

As one of their annual projects, the society sees that each patient on the second floor of the Michigan avenue hospital is provided with a yuletide gift.

As a nearsighted person grows older, his nearsightedness either remains the same or increases. But a young person who is farsighted either remains the same or grows less so as he approaches middle age.

The business of developing one's personality is more important than that of regulating others.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

At our regular business meeting on December 7, we initiated the following new members into our Auxiliary: Bernice Newhouse, Marie French, Donna Pinkerton, Hazel Bassett, Ioma Bassett, Elene Cummins, and Adele Stevens. We welcome these girls into our organization and look forward to seeing them at our next meeting, our Christmas party, on Tuesday, December 21. Girls, please bring a $1.00 gift to be exchanged at this next meeting!

On Sunday, December 5, President Marie Norman, Marlyn Wiltzie, Loretta Young, Lucinda Archer and Alice Fisher attended the 4th District rally in Dearborn. It was the official visit of department president, Janet Hutzel. At the rally, membership was stressed since December 31 is the date when all 1955 dues should be paid. They urge all members to pay their dues now so we can have 100% paid up by that date. Our deepest sympathy goes to Ann and Bob Smith on their bereavement.

Cancer Chairman Betty Krumm and Membership Chairman Lucinda Archer and their committees served a buffet luncheon to a Florist's association on Wednesday, December 8. The profit from the luncheon goes to the Cancer fund as our contribution for the year. Our thanks to these girls and all those who helped on the project!

Our Girl Scout troop, under the direction of Mrs. Sheldon Baker, have many plans this holiday. Youth Activities Chairman, Loretta Young has announced plans for the Troop to go Christmas caroling on December 21 in the Children's ward at Maybury sanitarium. They are also helping out a needy family in this area and are in need of warm clothing for this family of nine children, whose age groups are the following: Boys: 3, 8, 9, 13, 15; and the girls, 4, 6, 10, 12.

If you have any clothing that is wearable and warm for these children, please call Loretta Young at 71 before Saturday, December 18. The troop also has as a member, a shut-in girl, named Iris to whom we say a very Merry Christmas from all our Auxiliary girls!

Don't forget our Christmas Party for the children this Sunday, December 19, from 2 to 5 p.m. Hope to see all of you there!

Saturday, December 4, was the date of the Presidential dinner honoring Department President Janet Hutzel at the Veterans building. President Marie Norman and Betty Krumm represented our Auxiliary and spent a very enjoyable evening.

ONE PLYMOUTH RESIDENT who never forgets needy children at Christmastime is Leo F. Flowers of 9055 Ball street. For the past 20 years the Civil Defense co-ordinator for Plymouth, Plymouth township and Canton Center, has started in July making toys and other gifts for the needy youngsters. Flowers is shown above with some of the 50 toys he'll be taking to the Sarah Fisher orphan home on Schoolcraft road just before Christmas. In past years he's made as many as 100 toys for the various welfare organizations.

Plymouth Native Writes New Book On Conservatism.

Russell Kirk, a 1936 graduate of Plymouth high school, has written a new book to add to his growing list of original works. But, as his relatives here point out, "you had better read it in the library where you have a good source of definitions."

Kirk's new book is called "A Program for Conservatism" which is currently being reviewed by the Christian Science Monitor, Time Magazine and other newspapers and periodicals.

Although the former Plymouthite's books have never hit the best-seller list because of their learned content, his writings are widely read by the "thinkers" of our generation.

Kirk attended Michigan State college on a scholarship and received his bachelor's degree. He then went on to Duke university and earned his masters degree. After serving in the Army for three years during World War II, he taught government at Michigan State and later received a doctor of letters from the University of St. Andrews in Scotland.

He is now in Scotland continuing his studies with a Guggenheim Foundation fellowship. He makes his home in Mecosta, Michigan where he pursues a hobby of reforestry. He is a nephew of Mrs. Clifford Tait, 13960 Ridgewood, Frank Pierce, 14286 Northville road and of Mrs. Glenn Jewell, recently of Plymouth and now living in Mecosta. His father resides in Baldwin.

Kirk's book on conservatism is something unusual in this age. The word has been something to shy away from with "liberalism" now being the magic word for politicians. Even Canada felt the need for renaming their Conservative Party "Liberal Conservative."

What is conservatism? According to a review of Kirk's book, it means saving, not of money or property in the vulgar sense, but saving values. He defines it as the effort "to reconcile the best in the wisdom of our ancestors with the change which is essential to a vigorous social existence."

The true conservative believes in a "moral order which joins all classes in a common purpose and through which men live in justice and liberty." He maintains that "several grand realities exist in addition to the individual. The greatest of them is God. Another is our country; and yet another our family; and still another is our ancestry."

The true conservative sees himself as part of an historic continuum, bound to the past, and obligated to the future, as well as living in the present.

According to a review in the Christian Science Monitor by Francis Russell, Kirk's book is "a hopeful sign of the time. Conservatism at its best represents the best that is in a country. Too often it has been equated with big business and the Coolidge reaction. Mr. Kirk shows us how worthy is the tradition."

Make Sure You Have Flameproof Yule Decorations

The Chamber of Commerce today, through the Community Protection committee, announced that it is taking an active part in the safe Christmas campaign. All vendors of trees, lighting, decorations, and toys who have not already done so will be urged to check all stock for potentially dangerous items. The Chamber said that most merchants do this habitually, but the Chamber wishes to insure uniform cooperation this year.

"We'll start with the tree," the Chamber committee stated. "Because of their extreme flammability dried-out Christmas trees should never be taken into the home, or kept in the home after they have become dried. There's no place for dried-out trees even in a vacant lot. Purchasers should exercise care in selecting a tree that is not dried-out and should take all necessary safety steps to safeguard their homes against fire hazards involved in bringing a Christmas tree into their homes.

The Chamber of Commerce campaign is based on a survey made by the National Better Business Bureau, with which the local organization is affiliated. The survey covers improper lighting, flammable decorations, and a variety of dangerous toys. It also reports on the use of fire retardants and flameproofing compounds.

"Some of these help to reduce hazards," the protection group said, "but users should not relax in also employing the usual safeguards to prevent fire starting in the first place."

Merchants are urged to cooperate by avoiding Christmas decoration material which is not flameproofed or non-combustible, and to carry only those lighting sets and other electrical equipment which bear Underwriters' Laboratories label covering the whole apparatus, not just the cord.

Quoting from the National Better Business Bureau report, he said that celluloid and pyroxylin toys and decorations are too dangerous for sale at Christmas or any other time.

"There is, for example, an inexpensive imported toy carousel driven by the heat of candles. It is made of nitro-cellulose, which fire authorities state will burst into flames when a match is held within an inch and a half of it. When in doubt we are asking merchants to consult fire protective officials."

Advice of the National Safety Council on the use of Christmas trees was quoted by the Chamber committee.

"Keep the tree in a container of water. Place it away from sources of heat such as radiator, fireplace, etc. Use non-flammable decorations only of metal, glass, mica or flake asbestos, etc. NEVER place cotton, paper, etc., which is not treated for fire resistance on or around the tree. Do not smoke while trimming, near, or dismantling the tree. Use only UL approved wiring and lights; check them carefully each season BEFORE stringing on the tree for frayed cords, broken sockets, loose connections, etc. NEVER use candles.

To avoid possibility of short circuit, check metal tinsel to see that it does not touch light sockets. Always turn out lights when no one is to be in the room. When tree commences to dry out (when needles start dropping), remove it from the house immediately.

The Irishman was relating his adventures in the jungle. "Ammunition, food and whiskey had run out," he said, "and we were all parched with thirst." "But wasn't there any water?" "Sure, but it was no time to be thinking of cleanliness."

Hurry! Hurry! As is the custom every year the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association invites one or two impartial judges out to view the outside decorations on the homes in Rosedale Gardens. Sometime between December 25 and December 31 these judges will drive up and down the streets in the Gardens and pick out 9 outstanding displays. These will be grouped into three classes, religious, yuletide, and unusual. There will be three prizes presented to the winners in each class at the January meeting of the Civic association, so get out your thinking caps and get busy.

If you drive by the Pen-Mar Cafe on Monday, December 20, around noon don't be surprised to see Santa Claus going in the front door. Every year the Livonia Rotary entertains 50 or 60 underprivileged children for lunch. The Rotary contacts the schools to find the needy families and then they all contribute $1 or $2 gifts to fill Santa's pack. Any gifts that are not distributed are given to the Goodfellows for their baskets. After lunch some of the schools furnish choirs to sing Christmas carols. In past years, according to Amelia Berutti, the Rotary members that attend have as much fun as the children.

Brownie Troop 1089 are having their Christmas party on December 20 at Amelia Berutti's home at 11408 Melrose. Mrs. Alice Olmsted and her committee have planned a nice supper for the girls. There will be meat, potatoes, salad, ice cream, milk and cookies and favors. Even the leaders, Amelia Berutti and Betty Talbot are looking forward to supper prepared by someone else.

The Rosedale Gardens Clubhouse interior has a new face. A sincere thanks to Mary Lancaster and her committee for their idea and all the people who attended the pot-luck arranged by Lois Priestman and her committee last Thursday night. Everyone had a wonderful time and the food was out of this world, particularly if you were one of the first in line. After eating, everyone helped trim the tree and decorate the walls and windows of the clubhouse. Mrs. Edward Blankenhagen played Christmas carols on the piano and everyone sang while they worked.

Mrs. George Campau entertained her circle on Thursday for their Christmas party. Some of the ladies present were Virginia Mihal, Winnie Esper, Charlotte Liverhois, Marie Enot, Marion Rupp, Mary Grimm, Mildred Gouple, Marion Bourgon, Marguerite Rosati, Gertrude Taylor, Mildred Bondi, and Virginia Campau.

Beware of Phony Watch Sellers During Christmas

Christmas shoppers were warned today by the Chamber of Commerce to be on guard against the sale of spurious nationally advertised watches. The community Protection committee of the Chamber has been advised by the National Better Business Bureau with which it is affiliated that many people in various sections of the country already have been swindled through the purchase of counterfeit Yuletide watches.

The committee emphasized that these fake watches are not being sold locally by reputable dealers. They are being sold by hawkers on the sidewalks and outside of factories, also in bus and railroad depots and in hotel lobbies. "Many foreign born factory employees have been induced to purchase these watches through trickery," the committee warned. "One device that has been used outside of factories is to pressure a victim to take a watch home on a free trial basis. But the 'receipt' he is asked to sign turns out to be a contract. Another scheme worked on foreign born factory employees is to pose as officers and question the victim about his status in this country. After being 'cleared' he is asked to sign a paper which also turns out to be a contract to buy a counterfeit watch. Soldiers and sailors are also said to be the special prey of the watch swindlers."

According to the committee, the watches used in these swindles are being offered for as high as $100. Although they look almost identical to their famous trademarked counterparts, they actually are cheap imports worth only a few dollars.

After making an extensive investigation in his area, culminating in one arrest, Illinois State's Attorney, John Gutknecht, recently warned the public that Chicago and other metropolitan areas were being "flooded" with cheap imitations of name brand watches. He estimated that more than 200,000 of the imitations had been peddled and that the counterfeit ring had netted millions of dollars.

The Illinois State's Attorney's investigation was conducted in cooperation with a private detective agency retained by the Bulova Watch Company. The Bulova name has been a favorite target of the counterfeiters. The Chicago Better Business Bureau cooperated with the State's Attorney in his investigation of the sale of counterfeit name brand watches in Chicago.

"Reputable local jewelers and department stores are not handling these fake watches," the protection group stated. "All griefs with bread are less." —George Herbert.

Grange Cleanings

Yes sir! Of course we are going to the Grange Christmas party tonight. Wouldn't miss it for anything so we'll be seeing you there at 7:30 or some where between that time and 8 p.m. Don't forget to bring your .50 cent gift plainly marked for man or woman. There will be a program, the tree, apples, popcorn balls and candy. Doesn't that sound as though we should have a good time? So come in the Spirit of Christmas, forget your worries and enjoy the fellowship of your friends.

The bazaar was fairly successful even though it was a little late in the season. The baked goods sold very well and the kitchen committee was kept busy most of the day serving the delicious casserole dish, "Sloppy Joe's," gingerbread and coffee. Everyone had a good time visiting with each other and the customers. The men folk had a quiet corner to themselves for their euchre game which seemed to be enjoyed as usual.

Lloyd Fillmore is at home from the hospital and is recovering slowly from his bout with pneumonia.

A very small crowd came to the Lily club Monday night. It was the unanimous opinion that the attendance would be much better if 500 were played instead, so we will have to try that some time. The object should be to please the majority if the Lily Club is to continue.

Mrs. Jesse Hake has been ill with pneumonia but is better now.

Mr. and Mrs. George Oldenburg will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary on Sunday, December 19th at the Grange hall and will welcome their friends there from two o'clock on during the afternoon.

Chips from the ROCK

Many times we have wondered about the big brick house on the southeast corner of Ford and Canton Center road as we have driven by and now Eved Jolliffe volunteers a little background as he shows us an article in the recent Michigan Alumnus.

The article tells of the accomplishments of Edward S. Corwin who continues to be the recipient of distinguished honors. "The 1953 Annual Survey of American Law was dedicated to him and Princeton University in presenting Dr. Corwin with an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws gave this citation . . . 'he has wisely given counsel to men of affairs and put scholarship to public service. He has left his mark on the constitutional law of our Republic.'"

As a boy Dr. Corwin lived in that particular house and attended school here in Plymouth where he graduated from high school before entering the University of Michigan in 1900.

And speaking of the Jolliffes, another, Robert Jolliffe was heard making facetious offers to a group of local young ladies on Friday of last week. Boasting of his plan to view the Cotton Bowl football game in Dallas, Texas on New Year's Day he went on to explain that on January fifth he was sailing for Hawaii and would gladly bring the gals back hula skirts if they would promise to put on a dance for him. They accepted his generous offer on the promise he would learn the "movements" and teach them in return. That we want to see?

From down in Westfield, Massachusetts comes a Christmas greeting to us and other Plymouth friends from A. W. Elzerman, promotion sales manager for Stanley Products. In a note he tells how he enjoyed our hunting pictures and also enclosed a copy of the Stanley Products house organ which has nearly a page devoted to Stanley opportunities as presented by this aggressive young executive.

William Hartmann, just back from a loaf at Key West, Florida, says he absorbed enough sun to carry him through the rest of Michigan's winter. Highlight of his trip was an old fashioned visit with electrician Sid Corbett now retired and loafing at New Smyrna Beach, Florida. Not satisfied with just sitting in the sun Corbett is busy enlarging his beachside home and running new wires throughout the whole establishment says Hartmann who also added that the former Plymouthite has a beautiful coat of tan and looks like a million. Perhaps we'll check that for ourselves at a later date.

There are all kinds of tricks being played these days and local shoppers would do well to be wary and use extreme care in all of their Christmas transactions. One local housewife ordered two loaves of bread to be picked up by herself on special order last Friday sometime before noon. About 9:30 Friday morning another woman appeared at the store's counter and asked for the bread saying the purchaser was ill and had asked her to pick it up repeating almost word for word the conversation the clerk had had for the bread when it was ordered. The stranger the bread who thanked her and started to walk away. When called back to pay for the two loaves the woman said she had been told it was all paid for by her friend but in the flurry she finally gave the clerk the money. Just before noon the woman who ordered the bread came in to pick it up. The final deduction . . . someone overheard the first conversation and actually tried to get two loaves of bread free. This is only one of many such incidents happening here and in other towns every day. Don't let it happen to you on some item much larger than two loaves of bread.

Editorial

Another Christmas

Christmas, 1954, which is almost upon us as this is written, should be a happy one for most of the world's people. But, as in past years, those of us in the United States, or Alaska or Canada, find ourselves in the position of being the chosen people.

We observe December 25th as the anniversary of the birth of Jesus, although the exact date of this anniversary is a much confused one. The December 25th date, which many scholars think to have been an arbitrary date set by the Bishop of Rome upon the request of the Bishop of Jerusalem, is now accepted by the vast majority of the world's Christians.

Egyptian theologians, however, fixed the date as May 20th centuries ago, and other scholars have come to the conclusion that the proper date was April 19th or 20th, or even January 6th.

Christmas itself, as a day of observance, has had its ups and downs, and various customs which we follow at Christmastime have been derived from various countries at various times in past centuries.

For instance, the early Puritans at one time forbade the celebration of Christmas and any observance thereof, and in England, they ordered stores to remain open on Christmas Day. The General Court of Massachusetts in 1659 passed a law which made observance of Christmas a penal offense. And it was a number of years before there were general observances of Christmas Day in New England as a result of this attitude.

Our custom of using a tree in the observance of Christmas is of German origin and was begun in 1605 in Strausburg. The use of mistletoe is traced to the Druids, whose priests gathered mistletoe and put it on the altar of their god as a sacrifice to him. In addition to placing mistletoe on the altar, sprigs of it were distributed among the people and hung in their houses, and the plant was regarded as a symbol of hope and peace.

The myth that Santa Claus descends the chimney comes from the Norsemen, who believed that at the Winter Solstice, the goddess Hertha appeared in the fireplaces of their great halls, bringing merriment and good fortune.

The predominating theme at Christmas time is one of religious observance and giving in the modern world. For children, it is their happiest day of the year, and for adults, it should be the most soberly enjoyed day of personal religious satisfaction and dedication.

The recent trend toward over-commercialization of Christmas, and the tendency of some to observe this religious anniversary with out-of-tune celebrations, should be guarded against. Make Christmas Day, 1954, a day of genuine Christmas spirit through your own religious dedication and thanksgiving, and by a genuine resolve to further the cause of peace on earth and goodwill to all.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal, is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

Though kiddies are busy these days writing their letters to Santa, it seems grown-ups are too timid to write, so we are going to do it for you. If you were writing St. Nick this year, what would you ask for?

MRS. WALTER NALEPKA, 804 Haggerty road: "I would ask him to bring my husband home from Korea. He has been there seven months and has four months to go, so he won't be here for Christmas. I would be satisfied if that was all I got."

SANDY SINGER, 475 Adams street: "All I really want is a Sunbeam Mixmaster but as long as I'm writing I might mention a 1955 Ford. I have everything I really need. I'm happy and my parents are nice to me. That's enough."

Mrs. Nalepka Miss Singer Mrs. Crabtree Mrs. Schwartz
MRS. ROLAND CRABTREE, 5670 Beck: "A flash camera is what I would like. There really isn't much else I can think of except maybe some household things like kitchen appliances."

MRS. WILLIAM SCHWARTZ, 9064 Marlowe: "The health and happiness of my family are the things I want most. My husband and I have two small girls. I can't think of anything I really need. I get my biggest enjoyment out of Christmas by just watching the children."

REPUBLICAN LEGISLATORS will look twice before asking taxpayers to foot the bill for a gigantic expansion of Michigan's colleges.

At the same time they feel strong pressure to make the over-crowded system of higher education fit the enrollment boom which educators claim will double the campus population by 1970.

"We just can't do it all in one day and come up with the result the people of Michigan deserve," said Rep. Rollo G. Conlin (R-Tipton).

As a stopgap, Conlin's interim study committee plans to ask the 1955 legislature to expand four teachers colleges to full-fledged liberal arts colleges.

All offer four year courses now and the major change would be padding out the curricula, offering a greater area of education.

Conlin said the expansion idea was drafted to hit Michigan State Normal College at Ypsilanti, Western Michigan College of Education at Kalamazoo, Central Michigan College of Education at Mt. Pleasant and Michigan College of Education at Marquette.

The committee figures that Ferris Institute at Big Rapids, just taken over as a state institution two years ago, could be expanded to take care of any special educational need.

At present, Ferris is one of the country's top schools for pharmacists.

PATRONAGE PIE, SMALL AS IT IS, is being portioned out by Democratic victors who turned out four Republican key officials in the last election.

Actually there are relatively few jobs the winners can claim. Each is entitled to a deputy and a secretary. Most other positions under civil service.

Major exception is the situation in the secretary of state's office: 411 branch offices where auto licenses are sold. James A. Hare, new secretary of state, is destined to appoint all of these.

This arrangement has served as a tidy little political organization for many years. Republicans are now working towards putting the set-up under civil service, which would take licensing out of politics.

They will receive cooperation from civil service. "I've been thinking of proposing this for some time," said Arthur J. Rasch, state civil service director.

Democratic victors were besieged with job seekers as soon as election results were known. They were reported to have found it necessary to "hide out." Hare told applicants who waited outside his home until 3 o'clock in the morning.

First appointment went to Sidney H. Woolner, who ran the campaign which returned Gov. Williams for his fourth term and swept a Democratic State Administrative Board into office.

Woolner held a series of public and private jobs before his appointment as deputy secretary of state by his new boss, James A. Hare. Woolner's new post pays $10,500 a year.

Other jobs as deputies range from $12,000 in the attorney general's office to $8,450 in the auditor general's office.

MICHIGAN HAS NAMED a 22-member citizens committee on education to attend the 1955

White House Conference. Members will take with them ideas on how to meet the need for more schools and more teachers.

The committee, financed by $27,630 in Federal Funds, was appointed by Dr. Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction.

GOV. WILLIAMS' vendetta against Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler ran into a stone wall: a state law.

After Williams' victory, he blasted at Ziegler, one of two remaining Republicans in elective state office, for failing to ask for bids before letting contracts on two small road projects. He did not pursue the battle at the time because the projects were already underway, but he let Ziegler know that it wasn't happening again.

Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard, a Republican swept out of office by the Democratic landslide, then came up with a statute that Williams had overlooked.

"There's nothing to require that the highway commissioner ask for bids," he said.

That was the first round. Winner was Ziegler with help from Millard. There will be many more before either Williams or the highway commissioner leaves office.

FARMERS AND RESORT OWNERS have Michigan State College working for them, trying to figure how best to get traffic over the roads.

At the request of the American Land-Grand College Association, Michigan State made a survey on "What a College Can Do to Help Solve the Traffic Problem."

Upshot of the survey was a recommendation that each state have a central traffic survey center. College officials already are approaching prospective donors to help finance the projects.

That way, they figure taxpayers will be spared expense and will get a true picture of highway needs before being asked to sink their money into roads.

Plan Winter Classes For Adult Program

With the fall program of Adult Education Classes drawing to a close, plans are now underway for the winter program which starts the first week in February. Recreation Department Director Herbert Woolweaver announced that registration will open the week of January 24 and will include the following classes:

Cake decorating, ceramics jewelry and metal, leather craft, millinery, upholstery, rug hooking, sewing and tailoring, oil painting, business English, blueprint reading, shop mathematics, shorthand, typing, welding, driver training, Swedish gymnastics, security investments, and persistent problems of philosophy.

Woolweaver expressed the hope that many of the adults in this area would take advantage of this worthwhile program.

Family, Guests Enjoy German Holiday Bread

The presence of Schnitzbrodt in the Todd household at 42425 Clemons drive, confirms the arrival of the Christmas season for family and friends of Mrs. J. Harold Todd.

Mrs. Todd serves this delicious German holiday bread to friends and neighbors who stop by during the holiday season and tucks a loaf or two of Schnitzbrodt in with the Christmas gifts she mails to her two married sons in Washington and Georgia. Another son, Charles, who is in art school in Chicago, will get a first-hand sampling upon his arrival home for the Christmas vacation.

Here's the way Mrs. Todd makes Schnitzbrodt:

- Schnitzbrodt
- 2 cakes of yeast
 - 1 cup of light brown sugar
 - 2 tablespoons of shortening
 - 1 pound of cooked raisins
 - ½ pound of citron, cut fine, or fruit mix
 - 3 pints of warm water
 - 2 tablespoons of salt
 - 1 cup of walnut meats
 - 1 pound of cooked prunes
 - 1 pound of cooked, dried apricots
 - 8-10 cups of unsifted, all-purpose flour (enough to make a soft dough)
- Makes five or more loaves.
Dissolve yeast in the warm

Mixing up ingredients for the German holiday bread, Schnitzbrodt, is Mrs. J. Harold Todd of 42425 Clemons drive.

water and add shortening and a little of the brown sugar. When mixture is "bubbly," add the remaining ingredients and then the flour. Let rise until double in bulk. Knead down, form into loaves and place in bread pans. Let dough rise again, then bake at 350 degrees for about an hour, depending upon the size of the loaves.

D.A.R. Group Meets Monday

A special program of Christmas music is planned for the Monday, December 20, meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, Plymouth and Northville, Daughters of the American Revolution. Held at the home of Mrs. W. C. Gempel, 47447 North Territorial road, the event will begin at 1 p.m.

A trio of women's voices will highlight the afternoon's program. Mrs. W. G. Williams, Mrs. Drake Older and Mrs. Wilfred Becker, all of Northville, will render the Christmas selections. Accompanying the Northville trio will be Mrs. J. K. Bosch.

Following the musical program Mrs. Carl Bryan will present a Christmas reading to the assembled members.

Most college students begin their studies when the football season ends.

"Messiah" Presentation Opens the Yuletide Season

The Christmas season officially opened for hundreds of Plymouthites with the presentation of selections from "The Messiah" by Handel on Sunday afternoon. Sponsored by the Plymouth Symphony Society, the event was held in the high school auditorium before a near-capacity crowd.

Under the direction of Fred C. Nelson, the 56-member Plymouth Civic Chorus was assisted by the local Symphony orchestra in what many listeners termed "one of the Society's best presentations" of the famous work.

Received enthusiastically by the audience were guest soloists Soprano Edith Ryan, Florence Ellison, contralto, Tenor F. Earl Reh, and Nat Sibbold, bass.

The program began with the overture to "The Messiah" skillfully played by members of the symphony orchestra. Following were the recitative, "Comfort ye my people" and the air, "Every valley shall be exalted," sung by Tenor F. Earl Reh.

In the bass role Nat Sibbold rendered "Thus saith the Lord," "But who may abide the day of His coming" and "For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth." Contralto Florence Ellison sang the recitative, "Behold, a virgin shall conceive," and was accompanied by the civic chorus in "O Thou that tellest good tidings to Zion." Other solo portions offered by Miss Ellison were "Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened" and "He shall feed His flock like a shepherd."

Selections by Edith Ryan, soprano, were "There were shepherds abiding in the field," "And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them," and the angel said unto them." In addition Miss Ryan sang "And suddenly there was with the angel," as well as "Come unto Him."

The last two selections, "Lift up your heads, O ye gates," and the famous "Hallelujah," sung by the Civic chorus members, brought the program to a close.

New Books At Library

Two best sellers were among the books received in the latest shipment to the Dunning library. Coming in on Thursday were the popular "Blue Hurricane" by F. Van Wyck-Mason and Mac Hyman's humorous book, "No Time for Sergeants."

Also added to the library's collection were Milton Lott's "The Last Hunt," "The Blackboard Jungle" by Evan Hunter, a new edition of Aldous Huxley's "Brave New World," and "Lot's Wife" by Maria Ley-Piscator.

In a more adventurous vein are Christian Ritter's story of life on a Norwegian arctic island under the title of "A Woman in the Polar Night," "The Tigers of Trengganu" by Lieutenant Colonel A. Locke, concerning Malayan tiger hunts; and Margaret Melin's "Modern Pioneering in Alaska."

A timely book on "Christmas Lighting and Decorating for the Home; Indoors and Outdoors" by Theodore Saros has also been added to the library's collection.

Other new books include Scott Hart's novel, "Stony Lonesome," a western by Peter Field entitled "War in the Painted Buttes," and "The Corpse That Came Back" by Peter Piper.

Sheila Kaye-Smith's novel, "The View from the Parsonage," also came in the latest shipment as well as Sally Carriger's non-fiction book, "One Day at Teton Marsh."

In addition readers will find "Add Life to Your Years" by Ernest Boas, M. D. and H. P. Manly's how-to-do-it book, "Plumbing Guide."

Initiate Local Resident At Sorority Installation

Mrs. Donald A. Burlison, 757 Burroughs, was among the more than 20 alumnae members attending the Saturday installation service of Gamma Zeta chapter of Alpha Xi Delta at Michigan State Normal college, Ypsilanti. At that time the alumnae and some 32 college students were initiated as members of the college chapter, which was formerly Theta Lambda Sigma, a local sorority established in 1912.

Among the national officers of Alpha Xi Delta who conducted the installation ceremony was the president, Dr. Elizabeth G. Van Buskirk, chairman of French Language and Literature at Elmira college, New York.

Other highlights of the occasion were the formal banquet at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor on Saturday evening, and a reception at McKenney Hall on the Ypsilanti campus Sunday afternoon. Guest speaker at the banquet was Dr. W. W. Whitehouse, president of Albion college.

Last weekend there were 4 ladies who worked at the nursery at the VA hospital in Ann Arbor. Five ladies went there Thursday evening and entertained the boys with games and served them homemade cake and coffee and as a special treat gave them apples, too. We now have three and four ladies from our unit acting as all-day volunteers at the hospital each Thursday.

The Girl Scout troop of which we are sponsors are making stuffed animals for Christmas, they would like you to save your old rylons for them. Please leave them at Gladstone's store on Starkweather avenue.

The next business meeting will be Monday evening, December 13. It will start with a pot luck supper at 6:30, a short business meeting, then a Christmas program with the exchange of 50c gifts to close the evening. No more meetings this year. The next meeting will be January 10, 1955.

Our Unit has seven boys in service stateside who will receive boxes of homemade goodies before Christmas. We have already sent to the boys overseas.

A reminder to everyone that has not paid their dues as yet, we have about two thirds paid but would like 100 per cent. We need our dues to carry on our work at the hospitals.

Successful Gift - Buying Rests On Thought Used Beforehand

EVERYONE YEARNS TO FIND ORIGINAL CHRISTMAS GIFTS that will give their receivers pleasure and satisfaction and their donors pride. It is axiomatic that the best present is the most thoughtful one; while an ample budget simplifies gift giving and saves time, it doesn't follow that the most splendid offering is the most satisfying. Thought is the priceless ingredient of every present. So if you will analyze the nature of each person on your Christmas list and try to suit the gift to his tastes, you are almost certain to be successful.

THE FOLLOWING SUGGESTIONS ARE TO STIMULATE YOUR OWN IMAGINATION.

- FOR A FAMILY:
1. American flag for holiday use.
 2. A weather vane—an old one or one of the new modern designs.
 3. A durable rubber door mat bearing family name or street address.
 4. A reel lamp over card table or breakfast table, installed.
 5. A set of beautiful cast-iron, enameled kitchenware, in orange, powder blue, or green.

FOR THE MAN IN YOUR LIFE:

1. A necktie with a design to suit his trade or background—caduceus for a doctor, scales for a lawyer, ink bottle and quill for a journalist. For a person of Irish extraction, neckties with clan symbols and a short history of the insignia and the motto are available, as are clan-plaid neckties for Scots.
2. A shirt with a pleated bosom for dress-up occasions, available in soft fabrics in white or blue.
3. Cuff links made from antique coins or old buttons. Some coins bear the initials of kings, which may match your man's.
4. His family history, with special attention to the area in which he was born, neatly typed, illustrated with as many old photographs as you can garner from his relatives, and placed in a leather notebook. This project takes research, and you may have to start it now and give the notebook to him for Christmas 1955.

FOR A BELOVED WOMAN:

1. A beautiful enameled European decoration, order, or medal (usually available in America from antiquarians, coin collectors, and sometimes jewelers who handle antiques) to wear as a pendant, on a belt, or as a pin. There is a wide range of sizes, prices, and degrees of splendor.
2. A slender wallet for dress occasions, of black satin, brocade, or silk faille. Some are decorated with petit point, embroidered flowers, or medallions of black lace. There are matching coin purses to hold mad money, cases for eyeglasses, compact cases, and comb cases.
3. A good-sized beaded handbag of bronze beads for all afternoon and evening occasions. Bronze seems to go with every color. Such a bag is a classic, lasts forever.
4. A mink or ermine collar to wear with a sweater, wool dress, or high-necked suit.
5. A colored, porcelain miniature of her husband's baby picture.

But husbands hold for Egg Nog Chiffon Pie, and a luscious dessert it is. Made yesterday, it's an obliging dessert for company. Or it may be made up with all but the whipped cream topping, appropriately wrapped, and given a frigid siesta in the freezer, to be enjoyed with only an hour's thawing.

ADA'S EGG NOG CHIFFON PIE

- 1 envelope plain gelatin
 1/4 cup milk or dairy egg nog
 1 1/2 cups dairy egg nog
 3 eggs, separated
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 tsp. vanilla
 1/2 cup whipping cream
 Shavings of bitter chocolate
 1 baked nine-inch pie shell

Here's Different Snack

- Spiced Nuts
- 2 tablespoons cold water
 1 egg white, slightly beaten
 1/2 cup sugar
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon allspice
 1 cup walnut halves
 1 cup pecan halves
- Mix together water and egg white. Dissolve sugar in egg white mixture. Add spices and salt, mixing well. Dip nuts in this mixture, then place them flat side down on a greased cookie sheet. Bake in a very slow (250°) oven until golden brown; about one hour.

You can freeze cookies before or after baking—it's up to you! Cookie dough is easier to package and takes less freezer space; but to save time just before serving, freeze them already baked. Refrigerator cookies and most drop and bar cookies freeze well. Remember, cookies are fragile and should be packaged and handled with care.

Freshen wax flowers by dipping them in alcohol and swabbing them with a soft, small-paint brush.

Delicious Egg Nog Chiffon Pie

Like Christmas, Egg Nog Chiffon Pie comes but once a year. At least it's true of this pie, made as it is with dairy egg nog. Homemakers blessed with culinary curiosity are learning they can do a lot with this delightful seasonal dairy food. One cooks it over hot water, with a bit of cornstarch stirred in, to make a custard for her youngsters. Another uses the same trick to make the perfect sauce for prune whip, and other puddings. Still another adds unflavored gelatin and turns out a delicious molded dessert to serve garnished with strawberries and raspberries.

 1/4 lb. American cheese
 1 can (12 oz.) whole kernel corn
 3 eggs
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 2 cups milk

Spread bread with butter and cut each slice into about six strips. Arrange a layer in bottom of an 8 x 12 oiled baking dish. Cut meat (or break fish) into bite size pieces. Put a layer of meat, chopped onion, grated cheese and corn over bread. Repeat layers. Beat eggs and add salt and milk. Pour over mixture in baking dish. When Carolers Return Home, Treat to Barbecued Beef Dish

Caroling parties have a traditional part in many Christmas plans. After an evening of Christmas carols it's fun to gather at one of the homes for a hearty bite to eat. For instance, a snack menu planned around barbecued ground beef on buns makes a grand choice for this event.

To serve six persons you'll need 1 pound of ground beef. Ask your meat dealer to grind boneless beef cubes for this serving. It contains just the right proportion of lean and fat for a tasty serving.

Brown the meat in lard, or drippings until it is crumbly, but not hard. To the meat add 1 cup each of finely chopped onion and finely chopped green pepper, 1 tablespoon sugar, 2 tablespoons prepared mustard, 1 tablespoon vinegar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 cup

Quick and Easy Shopper's Meal

Let's face it! This is the time of year the budget is apt to be pinched, and we may find that shopping takes longer than planned. But the family still has a hearty appetite and wants a good meal. A main dish that is a penny-saver, easy to fix, yet attractive and downright good eating is the answer.

 2 cinnamon sticks
 3 oranges

Make a syrup of sugar, water, juice and cinnamon. Wash oranges and cut in thick slices. Place in hot syrup and boil gently, without covering until rind is clear. Chill in syrup and serve as a garnish for chicken, ham or pork.

Small, 1 1/2-pound canned hams can be stored at room temperature, but it's necessary to keep large hams refrigerated. Canned hams weighing 3 pounds or more are heated only enough to complete their cooking, and not to protect against spoilage. To allow these hams to be stored at room temperature, they would need longer cooking at high temperatures. This would make the ham unpalatable.

A good way to store fine, dry bread crumbs is in a tightly covered jar in the refrigerator. Refrigerated, the crumbs will remain in good condition for many weeks. It's also handy to have some bread crumbs stored in the home freezer in a freezer jar, plastic freezer box or heavily waxed paper container.

Gives Tips On Buying Xmas Tree

WHEN you go out to select a Christmas tree, don't think of your pocketbook first. Consider first where you want the tree to be placed and what size it should be.

Get out your tape measure, too, before shopping for the tree. Many a splendid tree has been purchased, and then had to be hacked down to fit the size space you have available, and the results of cutting and trimming, generally speaking, are poor.

Trees should be placed away from avenues of traffic. They should never be in front of, or too close to a fireplace because both these are hazards to safety in the home.

Don't try to get a perfect tree as these are very rare. Do try to select one which tapers nicely and has a desirable spread. A single tip (at the top) is a good sign and the tree should have branches tightly spaced with healthy, green needles.

To measure a tree for symmetry, spread the lowest branches. These should measure about half the tree's height.

Before buying a tree, shake it gently. If it sheds noticeably, you'll probably be disappointed in it. There should be no brown, dried up patches either, as they're difficult to cover or decorate.

CHRISTMAS EVE SUPPER

It's none-too-early to be thinking about the supper you want to serve after trimming the tree on Christmas eve.

Oyster Stew
 Heat together one-fourth cup butter or margarine, one pint oysters with liquid, one and one-half teaspoons salt and one-fourth teaspoon pepper.

As soon as the oysters are plump and the edges just begin to curl, combine with one quart scalded milk. Serve at once.

Yield: Four servings.
 The secret of good oyster stew is in that magic phrase "serve at once" so that the oysters are not overcooked.

Fresh Cranberry Bars
 1 cup fresh cranberries
 1/4 cup seedless raisins
 1/4 cup honey
 1/2 cup water
 1/2 tablespoon flour

Cook first four ingredients together until cranberries are soft. Sprinkle flour over top, stir and cook until thickened. Cool.

Crumble Dough:
 1 1/2 cups sifted flour
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup light brown sugar
 2/3 cups uncooked quick oats
 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine

Sift together flour and soda. Add sugar and oats and stir in melted butter or margarine. Pat half oats mixture onto bottom of greased eight-inch square pan. Spread with cranberry filling. Pat remaining oats mixture over top.

Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) thirty minutes. Cool. Cut into twenty squares.

These tart cranberry bars are a perfect dessert served with hot coffee.

THIS SPACIOUS CUSTOM BUILT MODERN RANCH HOME exemplifies town and country living at its best. It is the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Witt, 44925 North Territorial road, Plymouth, built by Turk and Ramsey, Builders, of 9284 Morrison, Plymouth. The exterior is white Kem Brick. Anderson Flexvent windows were used throughout. Notice the curved black top driveway and circular patio. This three bedroom house has a large activities room located between the garage and the end of the house, as shown above.

Insulating Siding Applied Over Base Of Fiber Board and Gypsum Sheathing

The diagram shows the location of nails when insulating siding is applied in new construction. Nails that fall between studs, as the note explains, must be twisted at

There has been a wide increase in the use of insulating siding for new construction as a result of F.H.A. acceptance of shake shingle insulating siding when applied over all the popular types of sheathing.

The new shingle pattern for home loans is acceptable when it is installed over wood or plywood sheathing, exterior gypsum board sheathing or insulating board sheathing.

What does this mean to the home owner? The "marriage" of two popular materials like insulating siding and insulating sheathing can bring him several important benefits. First of all, it enables the builder to cut costs without sacrificing quality. Both siding and sheathing are made in large panels that go in place quickly, saving labor. Much of the saving can be passed along to the home owner.

He also gets the benefit of a bonus in insulating value because both siding and sheathing are good insulating materials. Use them together and you have a double comfort combination.

In later years, the home owner will appreciate the fact insulating siding needs no painting or staining but has a factory-made finish that is good for the life of the material. While his neighbor is busy painting he can sit in the back yard and watch him.

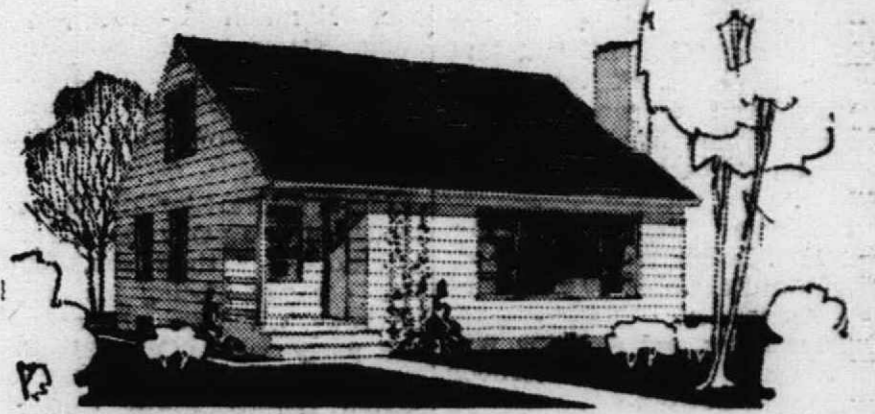

The three illustrations with this article cover some of the key points in applying insulating siding over either gypsum or insulating sheathing. F.H.A. Use of Materials Bulletin No. 12 covers the procedure for using these materials in new construction.

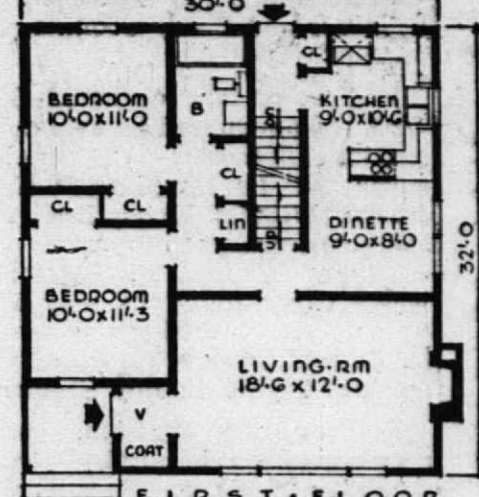

Insulating siding is applied over insulating board sheathing. Plymouth building supply dealers advise using 10 to 14 nails per panel. The siding has a base of insulating board which is the

When insulating siding and gypsum board sheathing are used together as they are in this housing development, the home owner gets several "bonus" values. Not only is the cost lower, but he gets the benefit of additional protection from the fire resistant gypsum board, and insulation from the siding.

Tip On Drilling

When using the mortising chisel on your drill press to bore full, square holes in wood for strong joints, set the hollow chisel with the opening to the front. This will keep the mortise free from wood chips when cutting long mortises and then shifting wood.

You folks that live in the country or are thinking of building beyond city limits will really be interested in the bottled gas service offered by Bill Otwell of 265 West Ann Arbor road.

Bill handles Dri-Gas units and a wide range of gas-run appliances which will provide comforts and conveniences for country residents. For heating your home, cooking and operation of major household appliances, Dri-Gas is really the answer for quick and efficient service.

This bottled propane, is quicker and cleaner than oil or electricity and heats four times hotter than natural gas. And that's a saving in itself.

For home heating Dri-Gas will operate efficiently and economically with warm air, forced air, hot water, steam, floor heaters, unit heaters and radiant heaters.

Another nice feature about heating your home on bottled gas is that you get it on metered service, so you don't have to put out a lot of cash at once—you pay only for what you use and as you use it.

For cooking and operation of household appliances, Dri-Gas is available in free standing, suspended or built-in units and operates automatically. When one tank goes empty, the reserve cylinder will cut in with no interruption in its service to you and your home. Then, too, Bill will see that the tanks are filled on a predetermined schedule, so you can just forget about worrying whether you're running low on fuel or not.

On the farm Dri-Gas will heat stock tanks, dairies and brooders. You'll find, too, that your farm tractors will run a lot more efficiently on bottled gas. Because it burns clean, cost of tractor maintenance is cut down considerably and motors last longer when run on bottled gas.

All the up-to-date, modern appliances such as Servel gas refrigerators, Roper stoves and heaters. Duo-Therm space heaters for individual rooms, and other type units run by bottled gas are available through Bill Otwell's Heating Service. Why not stop by and let him show you the advantages you can get by using bottled gas.

Mrs. H. C. Anderson of Kellogg street spent her 85 birthday, Friday, and had as her guests her four daughters, Mrs. Grace Barber, Mrs. William Horn and Mrs. Perry Hix of Ypsilanti and Mrs. George Robinson of this place. She received a congratulatory telegram from her son, Frank Anderson of Pease River, Alberta, Canada.

The Junior Bridge club met with Mrs. Ralph West, December 12, and on December 19 with Mrs. Lisle Alexander.

Misses Doris and Arbutus Williams were Monday afternoon shoppers in Detroit.

The Plymouth Bridge club met with Mrs. J. H. Kimble last week Thursday afternoon. This week the club met with Miss Delia Enrican.

The Business and Professional Women's club held their Christmas party in the crystal dining room of the Hotel Mayflower Tuesday evening, with 27 members present. After partaking of a delicious turkey dinner, a short business meeting was held. Then followed a jolly hour planned by the hostesses of the evening, Norma Cassidy and Czarina Perny. A Christmas story was read in a very pleasing manner by Lila Tegge. Then came the best of all, old Santa Claus himself (Irene Brown), who distributed gifts from the lovely Christmas tree.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Evans, sons Guy and Leslie, and Miss Margaret Melow spent Sunday afternoon visiting the former's cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beam and family in Highland Park.

Mrs. Merrel Plant, Mrs. Lawrence Hill and Mrs. Arthur Tillotson gave a shower last Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Kenneth Packard. A light luncheon was served after which Mrs. Packard received many lovely gifts.

Children who attended the party were, Carl Glassford, Robert and Charles Westover, Staten Lorenz, Emily Cutler of Plymouth and Kay Keskey of Detroit and Patty Haas, N. C. Schrader and Becky Coolman, all of Northville.

Bad news for canners. The OPA has announced that no more special allotments of canning sugar will be issued until next season, William Wood, local ration board chairman says.

Nearly 19 tons of Plymouth waste paper found its way into war munitions during the month of November as a result of the work of Plymouth Boy Scouts.

Dolores June Fraleigh, cadet nurse at Ford hospital, Detroit, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fraleigh, Gold Arbor road, Plymouth was united in marriage Saturday evening, December 9, to Lieutenant Robert L. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Smith of Canton Center road, at a service performed at 8 o'clock by the Reverend Bechtel, in the Calvary Presbyterian church in Detroit.

Honoring Miss Carol Birch whose marriage to Stewart Dodge will take place December 30, Mrs. Irene Shaw entertained at a miscellaneous shower at her home on South Harvey street last Wednesday evening. On this Saturday evening Mrs. Nancy Richard will entertain a group of friends also as a compliment to Miss Birch.

Home Extinguishers Vital in Wintertime

Bad driving conditions caused by winter's snow and ice give fire an added chance to destroy your home, cautions the National Board of Fire Underwriters, because the fire department may be delayed in answering the alarm.

It is a good idea, therefore, to keep first-aid fire fighting appliances on hand for use in those first vital minutes before the firefighters arrive—minutes in which a small fire can easily get out of control. However, no attempt to fight the fire should be made, of course, until the women and children in the family are safely out of the house.

Although there is no all-around extinguisher which can be used on every type of fire, the 2½-gallon soda-acid type or 2½-gallon water pump tank will be suitable for most parts of the home. Exception is the kitchen, where because of the danger of fires involving fats or greases a carbon dioxide or dry chemical extinguisher is preferred.

Whatever type you choose, be sure every extinguisher you buy bears the label of Underwriters' Laboratories, Inc. As soon as you buy one, carefully read directions for operating it. Inspect all extinguishers at least once a year. Follow manufacturers' instructions for refilling.

Answers Fire Call To Site of Oil Well

A fire in a pit beside a Northville township oil rig was extinguished last Thursday morning by the Plymouth fire department. It was believed the first time that the local department has ever been asked to extinguish an oil well fire.

Although the pit contained waste oil and other sludge, the blaze endangered the rig which is drilling a well on Detroit House of Correction property along Ridge road. The alarm was received at 7:40 a.m.

The Woodson Oil company is financing the drilling which is being done by the Scott Drilling company. All entrances to the DeHoCo lease are closed to the public.

Winter Is Top Season for Fires

Highest fire loss totals, year after year, are recorded in the winter months, December through March.

Knowing this, and understanding why, may save many householders from disastrous winter fires that can damage or destroy their homes and even cost their families' lives.

Principal winter hazards, points out the National Board of Fire Underwriters, are these:

1. Home heating plants. These are hazards in themselves unless clean and in good repair—including their boilers and pipes. They also lower the humidity and tend to dry things out.

2. Open fires. To keep sparks from flying out on rugs and upholstery, a sturdy fire screen should always be in place. Chimneys must be clean and free of cracks, too.

3. Portable heaters. These present several hazards. If they are electric, they may put a drain on electrical circuits and cause overloading. If they burn oil, keep them level and away from combustibles such as drapes and furniture. Fill them outdoors. Never fill or carry a lighted heater. Rooms in which they are in use should be adequately ventilated. Gas heaters should be vented to the outdoors.

If some human beings really knew half they think they know, this world would be a much better place.

Program Features Swimming, First Aid

Swimming and Red Cross First Aid are held on alternate days this semester as a part of the high school girl's physical education program with Doris Bean as instructor.

The First Aid Class, which will lead to the granting of student certificates, teaches students how to take care of people in case of accidents or sudden illness. In the program the girls learn to make bandages which will stop bleeding, to put a broken arm in a sling, and to apply artificial respiration so they will know how to care for people in case of drowning, blue unconsciousness poisoning, and in cases of any other need.

The first aiders also learn about different degrees of burns and how to take care of them, how to avoid poisoning and any other accidents. They are taught that first aid is very useful because some day they may have an opportunity to save a life.

Swimming classes teach how to dive and to perform many different kinds of strokes. Miss Bean said that most of the girls are very good swimmers.

TRUCKS serve you night and day — bringing you everything you eat, wear, or use—but that's not all!

Trucks pay as they serve — and pay handsomely — for a large portion of the money that goes to build Michigan's roads, schools, and hospitals comes out of the registration fees, gasoline taxes and property taxes paid by the owners of the trucks that serve Michigan.

It takes the road taxes paid by more than 40 automobiles to equal those paid by just one large truck-trailer! Dollar-wise, the comparison is around $45.00 for the average passenger car against nearly $2000 for the average large truck-trailer.

No wonder they say trucks pay their way — and more!

ALMA COLLEGE'S a capella choir began its annual Christmas concert tour last weekend beginning at Niagara Falls, New York. The 54-voice choir will sing for numerous church and high school audiences during its tour. Sophomore Mary Lou Hartwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartwick of Northville road, is Plymouth's representative on the choir.

MRS. ETHEL PARMALEE of 1442 Sheridan was surprised by a discovery made while examining a second-hand picture frame purchased recently. In the back of the frame was a copy of the Cincinnati "Dollar Weekly Times" dated Thursday, June 5, 1856. The huge 9-column paper is five inches longer and four inches wider than today's normal newspaper. Its columns are solid type with but few small illustrations. One advertisement offered lightning rods at 3 1/2¢ per foot.

DERVIN L. FLOWERS, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Flowers of 9055 Ball street, was among 209 students initiated into Sigma Xi, national honorary scientific society, at its annual dinner held recently at the University of Wisconsin. The object of the society is to encourage original investigations in science, both pure and applied.

A THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: Our prayers should be for blessings in general, for God knows best what is good for us.—Socrates.

OUTDOOR NOTES From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

The ice-fishing brigade, as many a crew of anglers as ever baited a hook, will soon slide into action.

Last year, first ice fishing in Michigan was reported on December 31, but this year the federal weather bureau reports temperatures the first week of December were much lower than in 1953. The average low for the first six days of 1953 was 32 degrees at Marquette and 36 degrees at Alpena. This year, the average low at both Marquette and Alpena during December was 22 degrees.

So tip-ups and shanties and icicle noses and ice-cold feet will soon again be in vogue. The conservation department reports no important change in regulations from last year. Bass will be legal until December 31, as usual, and spearing without lights is again legal on most waters in January and February. The usual limit of two lines per angler prevails and there is no essential change on bluegill and panfish angling.

Fishermen, however, are urged to read the fine print in the Fish Law Digest, available from dealers when the license is purchased, to avoid complications with the law.

Michigan's hard-working conservation officers last week reported that 451 persons were apprehended, taken to court and convicted of conservation law violations. The total was the highest reported for one week during the entire year, and represents mostly pre-deer season infractions.

Michigan has about 165 field officers at present. The conservation department has suggested this force be increased to 200 to catch up with the general trend of increase in hunting and fishing activity.

Ralph MacMullan, in charge of the conservation department's Houghton Lake wildlife station, was working at a checking station in special deer season when a hunter drove in with a deer on his fender bearing six-inch antlers.

"Nice young buck" commented MacMullan, prying the animal's mouth open to check its age. The teeth, however, showed the deer could not have antlers. The animal had fawn teeth, and deer do not grow antlers until their second year. MacMullan, puzzled, checked again. No retreat, the teeth showed the animal was still a fawn. MacMullan then checked the hunter, who stood about whistling. Still no answer.

Just at the base of the antlers, however, was the key. The hunter had somewhere acquired a pair of antlers and skull plate and had sewed them neatly into the head of his fawn. Sheepishly, he explained he just could not bring himself to carry a fawn home on his fender. "What would the youngsters say?" he wondered.

Not so many persons hunted and fished in Michigan during 1954 as did in 1953, but the difference was slight.

State conservation workers say there were about as many, and in some cases more, out-of-state hunters and fishermen in Michigan during the year, but that fewer residents went afield. Final totals have not been recorded, but it is expected that both hunting and fishing license sales slumped probably less than two or three percent.

During the last several years, there has been a continuing trend of increase in license sales, believed to be in keeping with general population increases.

A complete summary is expected sometime in the spring.

Hunting success on the Rifle River area in Ogemaw county was better this year than in any of the four years just preceding Michigan's first special deer season.

The Rifle River area, accessible by only a few roads, is an ideal small area in northern deer country where state conservation workers can make careful checks of hunting each year.

Checks have been kept on the total number of hunting "trips" made into the area and the total number of deer removed. A comparison of these figures gives the annual hunting success.

These official records show that hunters bagged more deer in less time this year than they did in any of the four years before special anti-deer seasons were inaugurated.

Game workers say, however, that the point of special seasons is not simply to provide better hunting success. Does and fawns, they say, must be shot so range plants will have chance to produce a new supply of forage each year.

When the herd is in balance with available range foods, overall hunting success will probably remain about the same as in past years.

They say the result, however, will be a more healthy herd and a growing, productive supply of range foods.

Anyone wants to go fishing, the conservation department notes that licenses for the 1955 season are now available from Michigan's 4000 dealers.

Dear Mr. Eaton:
As Chairman of the Greater Detroit Safety Council's Public Relations Committee I want to express my sincere appreciation to you and your reportorial staff for their very fine support and coverage of the activities of our Plymouth Division.

Because of this I know that the Plymouth Division of the Greater Detroit Safety Council will also continue to grow in activity and in importance in the area covered by your very fine paper.

Very sincerely yours,
W. E. Landis, Chairman

Moderate

Many people believe that because of our fifty-year-old reputation for outstanding service, our prices must be higher than those of ordinary services. This impression is completely in error; those we have served will tell you that Schrader prices are as moderate as any.

To help prevent garbage cans from being lost or stolen, paint a home's street address on them. Before painting, wipe the galvanized steel cans with a cloth dampened in a vinegar and water solution. This removes grease and enables the paint to stick firmly to the metal.

Roger Babson Says:

BABSON DISCUSSES MONTGOMERY WARD
 New York City, December 9, 1954 Without doubt Mr. S. L. Avery is cranky at times, as is every reader of this column when reaching 80 years of age. He, however, is doing a wonderful job with Montgomery Ward. I cannot imagine how any sensible stockholder can give his proxy to anyone else.

COMBINING STORE AND BANK
 The company has close to 600 stores and is one of the great merchandisers of America. In these days I prefer merchandise stocks to any others. They are not dependent—like a manufacturer—on only a few products or habits. They are fairly free from labor troubles and losses from changing styles. They also give investors an important diversification of locations with stores in every state. Furthermore—in case of World War III—Montgomery Ward offers protection against bombing.

In addition to this, the company is a bank crammed full of cash, bonds, and notes and accounts receivable of nearly half a billion dollars. In fact, I know of no company in the world like it. Under Avery's management it should be safer than any bank. All other "banks" report, as deposits, only the money belonging to others. These depositors could draw out their money and close the bank at any time. Their deposits really are debts which the bank owes! Not so with Montgomery Ward. As a stockholder in this company you are the depositor and own the cash.

PREPARING FOR A CRASH
 Today the Dow-Jones Industrial Average is higher than at its peak in 1929. Yet, the dividends on these stocks—minus the Federal taxes which the average investor must pay—are less than in 1929. I'm not now forecasting any immediate crash; in fact, most of my friends here in New York are bullish—as they were in December, 1928! But I surely do advise readers of this column to keep a good nest-egg of cash just in case the unexpected should happen. Don't be like the Five Foolish Virgins of Bible days. See Matt. 25:1-13.

Readers—however—answer my warnings by saying: "But I need the income. My bank will pay me only from 1% to 3%—I need more than this to live on." Then what is my answer? "But Montgomery Ward. So long as S. L. Avery is in control you get a good dividend on your money and yet have it practically in cash, or inventory, or inflation comes and the value of the dollar declines, the value of the inventory and land should increase. So, whatever happens—boom, bust, or a continuance of present business—I believe Montgomery Ward is your best investment and protection."

MAIL ORDER AND PARKING
 In addition to the 580 or more stores and the cash to which I have above referred, Montgomery Ward has one of the two best cash mailorder businesses in the world, amounting to about $350,000,000 annually. When you see automobiles with stickers: "No Parking—No Shopping," or "Less Shopping—Less Local Jobs," it does not necessarily mean that the shoppers curtail their buying. In most cases they resort to mail orders again. Mail order buying—however—hurts your local merchants.

 Mail orders will continue on the increase due to the cussed inconvenience to shoppers of finding a parking place and the brutal manner in which city authorities are treating shoppers who are dependent upon cars. It is reasonable to make "all-day" or "half-day" parking go to a public garage or parking lot and pay a fee. But the present system of using parking meters driving shoppers away or causing them to go home with fewer purchases. Any merchants whose Christmas business falls below last year's can blame it on their city government. Failure on the part of city authorities to provide sufficient free parking space is the chief cause of business failures today.

A GREAT BOOK FOR LOVERS OF FREEDOM
 "The Return Of Adam Smith"

"The Wealth of Nations" by Adam Smith has influenced more law-makers the world over than any other book. All Americans who love freedom will want a copy of "The Return of Adam Smith" by George Montgomery. Adam Smith showed the way for a nation to raise its standard of living continuously. These fundamentals we all need to review as so much pink, fuzzy-minded would-be leaders take us down the road to the police state. And WE ARE on the way.
