

School Bond Vote Slated March 28th

Monday, March 28 has been set as the date for a special school election at which voters in the Plymouth Township School district will be asked to decide on a $3,000,000 bond issue.

The board of education met in a special session last Thursday night to fix the date.

Purpose of the bond issue is to finance the building of a new junior high, two elementary schools, purchase school sites, remodel the central school buildings and pay off outstanding bonds issued in 1949.

Announcement of the plan to vote a $3,000,000 bond issue came at a meeting of the School Community Planning Group on February 2. The planning group passed a recommendation that the school board move ahead with the bond issue proposal by placing it on the ballot "as soon as possible."

The school board and their accountants have offered a plan whereby the $3,000,000 can be raised without raising the present tax rate. Taxpayers in the school district now pay school taxes of $21.95 per $1,000 valuation. This would be unchanged if the bond issue passes, the school board states.

It will take seven mills voted for 14 years to secure $3,000,000. The board intends to pay off a five-mill bond issue voted in 1949; borrow a half-mill from a bond issue voted in 1951; borrow another half-mill from a 1952 bond issue; and cancel a one-mill levy voted a year ago for five years and re-vote it in the seven-mill "package."

A committee of the School Community Planning Group will meet this week to plan publicity for the election.

All voters in the district will be able to vote on Proposal No. 1 on the ballot. This proposal will ask whether voters favor erection and furnishing of a junior high, two elementary grade schools, acquiring school sites; remodeling of the central school buildings and retirement of the outstanding bonds of 1949.

Only taxpayers in the district will be allowed to vote on Proposal No. 2. This proposal will give the school board authorization to sell the bonds.

Two school sites have already been negotiated by the board. A 20-acre site on Sheldon road, south of Joy road, will be used for an elementary school. The board is still negotiating the purchase of about 20 acres at the southeast corner of the city. This plot is located north and west of the V.F.W. home on South Mill street and will be used for the junior high if voters approve the bond issue.

Extensive research into the anticipated population for the Plymouth area has led to the recent school expansion planning. The yearly school census taken last spring shows that elementary grades will be more than overflowing next fall. Even this year, the school board reports, a visitor going into Bird school will find a classroom in the auditorium and another in the library.

Commodity Surplus Now Available Here

From $10 to $25 worth of surplus food each month awaits Plymouth area residents on social security, on welfare or who are unemployed, it was announced this week as the Surplus Commodities division started operation in western Wayne county.

To many, the giving away of food is reminiscent of the depression days of 20 years ago, but the chief purpose of this program is to get rid of excess food purchased by the government to support farm prices.

Last Monday and Tuesday were the first days of distribution for the commodities. The distributing point for Plymouth, Northville, Wayne and Belleville areas is the Family Market, 38411 Ford road. A total of 159 people are on the list to receive commodities, according to the store owner, Walt Zacharias.

About $1,800 worth of surplus merchandise was stored in the back room of the grocery for distribution. This month, a family of three was entitled to four pounds of butter, two and one-half pounds of cheese, four pounds of dried milk, three pounds of shortening and three pounds of dried navy beans. The menu changes each month.

Eligible for the surplus food is anyone on social security, those receiving unemployment compensation or those on welfare. In the Plymouth area, registration can be done any Wednesday from 1 to 4 p.m. at the Unemployment Compensation commission office, 585 West Ann Arbor trail. Food distribution takes place each Monday and Tuesday after the third Sunday of each month. A registration card must be shown to receive the commodities.

The surplus commodities program was started in Detroit three months ago.

Norman, Hamill Win Township Nominations

Louis Norman and Herald Hamill won the Republican nominations for township trustee at Monday's primary election — resulting in a surprise upset of William Webber who has served as a board member since 1932.

City voters also went to the polls and helped nominate candidates for county and circuit court offices. A total of 254 people voted in the township and 195 in the city.

As was expected, the turnout was very light in the city because of the lack of local names on the ballot. Township Republicans were attracted to the polls because of the primary race for township trustee. There were six men seeking the two nominations. Other names also appeared on the ballot but since they were unopposed by candidates within their own parties, their appearance on the ballot was a mere formality.

Norman, operator of an excavating business, was the top vote-getter among the six Republicans seeking trustee nominations. He received 109 votes. Hamill, a civil engineer, won 93 votes. Webber received 52 votes; Leslie H. Taylor, 50 votes; Ralph Kelley, 34 votes; and Alton Frederick, 33 votes.

Only one Democrat filed for a trustee nomination. He is Lawrence Money, a House of Correction employee, who received 25 votes. He will face Hamill and Norman in the April 4 election for the two trustee vacancies.

Election workers sat almost an hour at a time without having any business at some of the city polls. Precinct 1 at city hall had 32 voters; Precinct 2 at Northside fire station, 28 voters; Precinct 3 at high school, 87 voters; and Precinct 4 at Smith school, 48 voters.

Among the Democrats, Orville Tugate, candidate for treasurer, received 26 votes. James R. Gearn, a constable candidate, won 25 votes.

Colorful Program Highlights Rotary 50th Anniversary

A colorful ceremony commemorating the Golden Anniversary of Rotary International took place in the high school auditorium Tuesday night with over 300 Plymouth Rotarians and their guests attending.

Representatives of nearly every fraternal and service club in the city attended the affair which featured both the high school band and choir. Russell Isbister was master of ceremonies.

The band opened the program with march music and the National Anthem with Nat Sibbold as soloist. Dr. Henry Walch gave the invocation.

Rotary President L. Patrick McGuire welcomed the audience and read a letter of congratulations from an absent member, Charles Bennett. Past President Carl Shear, a charter member, reviewed the history of the Plymouth Rotary since its founding in 1924 and Dr. Walch spoke on Rotary International history.

A pageant presenting the ideals and objects of Rotary was presented amid the decorations of flags of the world's free nations, a spotlighted "50" carved in ice, a five-tier birthday cake, baskets of flowers, palms and a rotating Rotary wheel. Frank Henderson narrated the pageant with music background and selections by the school choir.

Included in the pageant was a presentation of the "Four Way Test" by Frank Arlen and "Objects of Rotary" by Russell Daane. David Galin, vice-president, delivered the benediction.

Refreshments were served following the program. Henderson was general chairman of the program with all past presidents on the committee.

Garage Theft Probed

Tools and equipment with their value yet unestimated were taken from Beglinger Oldsmobile, 705 South Main street, sometime Tuesday night.

Police said that there is no indication of how entrance was gained to the building. Among the missing items are a sander, two paint spray guns, air motor, a box of mechanics tools valued at $145 and numerous other small tools.

Water Supply from Lake Goes on April 4 Ballot

Plymouth city and township voters will have the opportunity in April to vote on a $50,000,000 proposal which can bring the Great Lakes water supply to this area perhaps by 1962.

Wayne county supervisors voted Friday to put the big project on the ballot April 4. The project has been hailed by Plymouth and Plymouth township officials as a major step in the development of this area.

With the city now getting its water supply from wells and the township about to experiment with providing well water to heavily populated areas, both governments realize that drawing water from the ground cannot adequately supply this growing area indefinitely.

According to Albert Kunze, Wayne county sanitary engineer, the water intake and filtration plant would be on the Lake Erie shore near Rockwood. All of western and southern Wayne county could be supplied with water.

"Any delays in this program would certainly be disastrous to the health and welfare of the entire county, including Detroit," Alfred M. Pelham, county budget director, warned the supervisors when he presented the proposal Friday.

Although $50,000,000 is asked to provide the water system, it is expected that only $26,000,000 would be used because it is anticipated that revenue received from the sale of water would retire the balance of the bonded indebtedness.

County supervisors also included several other projects in the "master plan" which would come to $65,000,000. Some $10,000,000 would go for a 500-bed general hospital, bakery and laundry at Wayne County General hospital and about $5,000,000 for a new juvenile detention home and an addition to the county jail.

County supervisors also approved a plan to spend $4,600,000 on a flood control project for the Rouge River valley but this will not need to be submitted to the voters for approval.

To pay for the $65,000,000 plan, it will be necessary to raise taxes in the county three-quarters of a mill for 10 years. The ballot will also ask voters to take a quarter mill from current taxes to help finance the project.

Two local supervisors gave their wholehearted support to the project. Supervisor Roy Lindsay of the township stated that "It's a big step forward."

Plymouth's supervisor, Norman Marquis, said that the project "is an absolute necessity in my book. There is no other possible way to get an adequate water supply for this area."

The area development committee of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce has been one of the local organizations vitally interested. Continued on Page 8

Supervisor Denounces City-made Appointments

Sixteen Plymouth residents and a like number of Plymouth township citizens have been appointed to a committee by city commissioners to study the controversial question of whether or not the city should expand its boundaries.

With rumors of township and city merger circulating faster and heavier than before within the past few months, this is the first move made by city officials to bring the subject before the public.

City commissioners approved a resolution Monday night calling for the formation of the study committee. From township hall Tuesday came this statement by Supervisor Roy Lindsay:

"This office and the people of the township will not recognize this committee."

Frank Henderson, a former city commissioner and co-owner of the Plymouth Plating-Works, has been appointed as chairman of the newly-formed committee. He has announced Tuesday, March 8 as the first meeting date. It will be held in the city commission chambers starting at 7:30 p.m.

Vice-chairman will be Carl Caplin, and named as secretary has been Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing. Both are school board members.

The 16 city members of the committee are Robert Barbour, Byron Becker, Robert Lidgard, Ralph Seyfried, Frank Terry, Charles Wyse, Gladys Tillotson, Don Ward, Thomas Adams, Marvin Criger, Robert Lorenz, E. P. Light, Mrs. Lois Jensen, Walter Ash, Mrs. Hulsing and Frank Henderson.

Township members will be Roderick Cassidy, Ralph G. Lorenz, Austin Stecker, Floyd Tibbitts, George De Groat, Frank Lodge, Harold Shirey, Horace Thatcher, Violet Roberts, Gerritt Van Tubbergen, Loren Johnson, Leslie Taylor, James Gallimore, Chloe West, Annette Grady and Carl Caplin.

Also named to participate in committee deliberations but without the right to vote are members of the township board, city commission; city manager and city attorney; the city planning commission and township zoning board; the Plymouth township board of education and planning consultants of the city and township.

City commissioners have asked that the committee submit a report on or before August 1. The resolution states that the committee report should contain "a definite recommendation as to whether or not expansion of city boundaries should be undertaken, and the extent thereof, and further information and recommendations as the committee shall determine to be germane to the general subject of boundary expansion."

The resolution also states that the "Plymouth Community Study Committee" will exist until October 1, 1955.

Another group, the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, is also studying aspects of expanding the city limits. Secretary Nat Sibbold stated this week, however, that the Chamber has not yet decided on a stand "one way or another." He added that a stand might be determined at a Chamber board meeting on March 14.

Whether or not the city has a moral right to appoint citizens to represent the township on the committee appeared to be one of the early differences of opinion. Mayor Russell Daane stated Monday night that Supervisor Roy Lindsay of the township had been invited to appoint committee members of his own choosing two weeks ago but that he has not done so.

Lindsay told The Mail that the city has been working on its committee appointments for several months and that he could hardly be expected to find common ground.

Commissioners, however, expressed the belief that the city should not spray trees on private property unless written permission is given. A fee of $1 will also be charged. (Commercial tree firms charge up to $2 per tree, Glassford stated.)

Anyone wanting their elm tree sprayed should call city hall, Glassford asserted.

The first spraying is scheduled to take place late in March and another spraying in early summer. About two-thirds of the elm trees are on public property.

Spraying with DDT will not injure plants, grass or other trees, Glassford pointed out.

Northville Post Seeks Contestants For Talent Show

Applications for the April 1 amateur Variety Show sponsored by American Legion Post No. 147 of Northville are being accepted now through Saturday, March 12, announced Paul Burnham, chairman of the event. The show will feature 25 talent acts with a total of $250 to be awarded winning contestants.

Anyone between the ages of 12 and 18 residing in Plymouth, Northville and surrounding areas may enter the event. Applications are available at the Plymouth Music Center, 1175 Starkweather. Entrants should include their name, address, telephone number and type of act on the blanks and, mail to Box 100, Northville Record, Northville, Michigan.

The preliminary elimination contest will be held Friday, March 18, at 6 p.m. in the Northville Community center. Contestants will be notified when to appear. Finalists for the show will be picked by a panel of eight judges. Mrs. Evelyn Woods of Plymouth Music Center will be pianist for the event.

Starting at 8:30 Friday night, April 1, in the Northville Community center, selected contestants will provide an evening of top entertainment as they compete for the $100, $75, $50 and $25 prizes. Applause from the audience will determine the winners.

Tickets for the show are on sale at the Plymouth Music Center.

$2,000 Bond Frees Donohue

Earl "Joe" Donohue, driver of a car involved in a collision January 29 which took the lives of two persons, stood mute in an arraignment last week and has been released under a $2,000 bond. He is charged with manslaughter.

The arraignment took place before Justice of the Peace Whitney W. Ballantine of Nankin township. He is scheduled for examination before Judge-Ballantine on March 4.

Killed in the head-on collision on Ann Arbor road near Sheldon were Peter W. Queava, 52, of 581 Maple street, and Michael Cox, 11, son of Clyde Cox, a Detroit policeman and driver of the other car. Queava was riding with Donohue.

Meanwhile, Lieutenant Cox is reported still unconscious and in critical condition. Fellow officers at the Davidson station have started a fund to help defray expenses of hiring special nurses. The fund has reached about $600. Cox's wife and Donohue have both been released from the hospital. Donohue's home is at 683 Kellogg.

Don't Forget Plates

A reminder was issued today by Plymouth police that next Tuesday is March 1 — the day that all cars must have their 1955 license plates. City and township motorists who have let this task remain until the last minute will find the license bureau at the township hall open this Saturday and next Monday from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. The certificate of title must be brought when purchasing the new plates.

Parade of Bands Set for Tuesday

Five hundred Plymouth youngsters will be combining their musical talents Tuesday night, March 1, when the fourth Annual Parade of Bands gets underway at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium.

The event is being sponsored by the instrumental music department of the Plymouth schools under the direction of Laurence Livingston.

Participating in the musical presentation will be the elementary and junior high school bands, the junior high school dance orchestra and the senior high school concert band.

The "Parade" will begin with some 260 song flute players from the fourth grade elementary schools playing and singing such compositions as "The Safety Song," "The Clown," "The Health Song," "Whippoorwill" and "Twinkle, Twinkle Little Star." Livingston will be assisted in this portion of the program by Mrs. Merrilyn Schroeder.

The combined fifth and sixth grade elementary band will play the following four songs: "Toonerville Trolley March," "The Merry-Go-Round Waltz," "The Pony Express March" and "The Sky Rocket March."

Selections played by the 75-member junior high school band will include "Normal March" by Bennett, "Pilgrimage Overture" by Rusch, "Prelude in C Minor" by Rachmaninoff and "The American Pioneer Overture" by Yoder.

Canton Township Primary Draws 538 Into Polls

Except for a highly-publicized fire truck which ran off to a fire with a few personal belongings of election board workers, Canton township's primary election went off smoothly Monday and attracted 538 voters.

A purse belonging to Martha Hermanson, a thermos bottle, a pair of glasses and a poll book had been laid on the fire truck by the election workers when the alarm sounded at 8 p.m. All but the purse fell off the truck as it left the hall. A car pursued the fire truck to its destination and the driver recovered the purse.

The story got wide attention in newspapers and radio — burying the election results. Canton township Republicans had a little bigger selection job at the polls than did Democrats. Democratic candidates went unopposed all "down the line" but contested developed on the Republican ticket for treasurer, trustee, justice of the peace and constable. Facing each other for the supervisor's job on April 4 will be Democrat Robert Waldecker and Republican incumbent Louis Stein.

Democrats gave Waldecker 171 votes; Clerk Andrew Smith 113 votes and treasurer candidate Antoinette Fulton, 131 votes; trustee candidate, Philip Dingsidey, 131; justice of the peace write-in candidates, Arthur Shedd, 2, and Howlett, 6; board of review, none; highway commissioner, George Young, 116; constable, Bert Walling, 120.

Republican candidates and the votes they received were:

Supervisor, Stein, 271; clerk, Henrietta Burch, 232; treasurer, Martha Ketchum, 184; Perry Hix, 105; Magnard Housman, 27 (write-in); trustee, Elmer Schultz 179; Ernest Plant 166, S. C. Sutton 138; justice, Albert Schrader 218, Edward Richards 128, Albert Schrader 218; highway commissioner, Charles Curtis 225; constable, William Johnson 186, Charles Johnson 151, Leo Bartz 125, Gerald Cather 11 (write-in).

Forty-eight Intermediate and Senior Scouts attended a rally at the Girl Scout Lodge on Saturday, February 19. An ice skating party on Newburg Lake preceded a program of singing led by Mrs. Thomas Thorpe. A film on International Camping was shown. Arrangements were under the direction of Program Chairman Mrs. Clifton Tillotson, assisted by Mrs. John Lodge, Mrs. William Edgar and Mrs. Thorpe.

Intermediate Scouts in Troop 1 have been having an interesting time visiting some of the local Brownie Troops. They taught the Brownies to make bed-rolls as well as assisting in teaching songs, games and helping with dramatics. Future plans include a trip to Riverside park with the Brownie troops whose leaders are Mrs. Robert Dickman, Mrs. Thomas Adams, Mrs. James Steele and Mrs. Stanley Wilt.

Troop 1 was happy to assist with the children's Valentine party given by the V. F. W. Auxiliary. The Scouts and their leader, Mrs. Sheldon Baker, planned the entertainment and served the refreshments.

Thirty-one Girl Scouts and their leaders from the Wayne Girl Scout Council rented the Plymouth-Kiwanis Girl Scout Lodge for an overnight on February 18.

Brownie Troop 20 visited the Plymouth city hall Monday. They saw a voter signing up, being checked on the voter's list and then going to the voting machine for secret voting. Kenneth Way guided the Brownies through the court and council rooms, offices and the fire station. Following the tour, they returned to their regular meeting place, the Methodist church. The group is sewing cloth dolls and clothes. An extra treat of gum sent to them by the Beechnut company was given out at the meeting by their leader, Mrs. Stanley Wilt.

Defunct Railway's Old Employees Hold Winter Party

The Annual Mid-Winter party for the old employees of the Detroit-Jackson and Chicago Electric Railway was held Saturday night in the Knights of Pythias hall in Ypsilanti with around 45 of the old workers being present. Livonia Detective Nabs Check-riter

The bogus check-casher, who December 30 bought paint from Jackson's floor covering store, 852 West Ann Arbor trail, and paid for the articles with a worthless $25 check, was arrested by Livonia police in a Melvindale motel last Sunday.

Agricultural fairs have been a part of American life for nearly 150 years. Fairs may be traced back to the Old Testament times when the Prophet Ezekiel wrote of fairs filled with livestock, metalwares, embroidery and spices.

front of the motel was proven to be stolen last November in Denver, Colorado. It bore a license plate stolen from a Walled Lake auto in December.

Vorgitch said Richmond admitted stealing the car and plate, and passing the bogus checks "just for a little extra cash." Held in Livonia for forgery, Richmond also faces federal prosecution for driving a stolen car across state lines.

Detectives also learned that Richmond married a Ruth Anderson of Walled Lake last Christmas eve without divorcing his wife, the mother of his two small children. To add to his troubles the check-forgery may be tried for bigamy, should the two Mrs. Richmonds decide to press charges.

Grange Cleanings

There was a good attendance at the Grange meeting last Thursday evening. We have two new candidates that we are taking over to Tecumseh tonight where they will receive the third and fourth degrees along with a group of others from other Granges. We hope there will be a good representation from Plymouth Grange. We all know that the work of Tecumseh's degree team is beautiful to see and it is a real privilege to receive the degrees at their ceremony. There will be a potluck supper there at 7 p.m. so one must leave Plymouth about 5:45 p.m. if possible. Take a dish to pass and your own dishes.

Our next Grange meeting on March 3 will be our usual potluck supper and it will be served cafeteria style as we used to have it. The program is in charge of the Home E. committee and we are promised some very interesting pictures.

We had a speaker at our meeting last Thursday night. A young woman who spoke on Social Security and gave a lot of useful information about it. She was a good speaker, had a nice voice and a good personality.

Pomona meeting will be on March 8 at Pittsfield. We all like to go to Pittsfield so we ought to have a good crowd from our Grange.

MOMS News

There will be a regional meeting for all Units of this area Monday, February 28, at the Memorial Home on Main street. Due to this meeting there will not be a potluck that evening. The next regular meeting will be Monday evening, March 14. At this meeting will be further discussions of the card party to be held Monday evening, March 28. The Plymouth Unit will be hosts that evening. More of this in a later issue.

Recommends 13 Improvements

Thirteen improvement projects for 1955 were recommended by the city commission at a special meeting held last week — considerably fewer than the number recommended by the Ten-Year Improvement committee.

Lack of funds cut the number of improvements down to 13. The projects have now been referred to the city manager and he is directed to make a report on the improvements to include plans, profiles, specifications, estimates of cost, estimate of the life of the improvements, a description of the assessment districts and what part will be paid by the city-at-large.

Public hearings will be held on the projects before any final approval is given by the commission. The projects under consideration are:

Fair street from Mill to Fairground, curb and gutter; Joy street from Fairground to alley west of Pine, storm sewer and curb and gutter; Simpson street, Main to Lincoln, curb and gutter; Lincoln from Simpson to Palmer, curb and gutter; Union from Holbrook to Mill, curb and gutter.

Ann Arbor trail from Hamilton eastward to city limits, concrete pavement; Ann Arbor trail, Forest to Harvey, widening and concrete pavement; Farmer street from railroad to Karmada, storm sewer; North Holbrook, railroad to Hardenburg, catch basins.

Blanche, from Starkweather to Amelia, storm sewer; Garfield from Ann Arbor trail to Tonquish creek, storm sewer; Garfield at Tonquish creek crossing, road widening and sidewalks; storm sewer for parts of sections 27 and 34 for an area south of Elm avenue to branch of Tonquish creek, between Sheldon road and Herald street as extended.

Woman Injured As Car Hits Tree

An Ann Arbor woman is in Wayne County General hospital recovering from injuries she received Tuesday morning when her car skidded on ice and struck a tree on Ann Arbor road near Joy.

Elna M. Mattila, 1013 Arbor-Jale, said she was driving at 45 miles an hour when the mishap occurred. Taken to the hospital by Schrader ambulance, she is reported by sheriff's officers as suffering injuries of the right shoulder and head.

Meanwhile, sheriff's deputies are working 24 hours a day on the death of Gerald Bak, 17, of 2352 Treman. Bak was killed Saturday night when the driver of an unidentified car attempted to play "bumper tag." Bak was killed when his car went out of control and struck a tree after being struck from behind by a green Oldsmobile.

Sheriff's detectives have received dozens of leads from persons believing they know the unidentified car and its young red-headed driver.

The ordinance will be read twice more at the next commission meeting and be approved if no objections arise.

In other business before the city commission, David Wood, 398 Sheldon, was appointed to the city planning commission to replace Lee Gaeke who has offered his resignation. Wood will serve the remainder of Gaeke's term which expires November 21, 1956.

Second and final reading was given to a change in the zoning map. Changed from one-family residential to two-family residential were several lots on Byron avenue just east of South Main street. This area is being sold for commercial development, perhaps as a supermarket, and the R-2 zoning will be used for parking purposes only. It could not be used for parking under R-1 zoning.

A resolution was also approved to allow Clover Television Service on Liberty street to erect certain posts on city property from which guy wires will be tied to a 100 foot radio mast. This mast is being erected for a new mobile telephone business which Clover is starting.

A request for water to supply a proposed school on Sheldon road, south of Joy road, was still not voted upon. City Manager Albert Glassford said that he still awaits a final report from consulting engineers about the city's new well.

being vexed by an acute school problem."

He added that Plymouth is a home rule city. It can offer "the advantages of an incorporated municipality to its surrounding urban township area and the township area has its advantages to offer to the mother municipality. The township area has a good tax base. It offers open areas where subdivisions may be developed for homes for the employees of the firms which provide most of the township tax base."

He added that the city is "taking this thing upon itself and is going beyond its authority. They're the ones doing the beating of the drums. Only they recognize this committee. They are both city committees as far as we're concerned. There is no township committee."

Lindsay added that he saw no need for a committee to discuss the annexation issue. "Those who are for it are for it, those who are against it are against it. That's all there is to it. There's absolutely no sense to it."

Asked if he thought township citizens as a whole were for or against merging the city and township, the supervisor declared that "township people will not go for it right at the moment. It has not been the people in the township who have been crying. Yes, there's been two or three people wanting to get water but they're not a majority by a long ways."

Lindsay told The Mail that the rumor is not true that the township board is considering the incorporation of its own city which would surround Plymouth.

Meanwhile, City Manager Albert Glassford presented the city commission's reasons for wanting to study a merger.

"The residents of both the city and township may argue for support of annexation because it will remove the artificial lines dividing them and permit them to function as one community. It will enable them as one community to solve their common problems, which they cannot solve effectively as separate units."

" Civic spirit will be improved throughout the entire area of the enlarged city by substituting for the jealousies and antagonisms of various sections a community consciousness, developing a greater pride in the Plymouth area and give spur to the activities of the people in every direction through the launching of new public improvements and commercial and industrial projects.

"There will also be more centralized control of government which will result in more economical and efficient government by removing duplications among offices and overhead expenses."

Glassford asserted that one needs only to look at the Plymouth Township School District to see what proper planning and action has done for future generations as well as the present generation of school children. "Our community is fortunate in not expected to be extremely rapid in the next few years as elementary children move on. The junior high is already operating near capacity. If a new junior high is constructed, the old building will be remodeled for senior high use — thus eliminating the need for new school additions.

Secretary — "Yes, Mr. Culver is at liberty now." Office Visitor — "O, I didn't even know he'd been in jail."

Kiwanis Club Sees Lighting Demonstration

A demonstration of fluorescent sunlamp and blacklight lighting was conducted for members of the Plymouth Kiwanis club Tuesday evening by Fred Ready, Jr. of the lighting division of Detroit Edison.

Ready showed the different colors cast on walls or fabrics by the various types of fluorescent lamps and also demonstrated the "sunlamp" tubes which will give one a sun tan while he works. A great deal of enthusiasm was aroused by the "darklight" demonstration. Under the light any fluorescent beams brightly. Prior to the meeting several members were liberally, and unwittingly, sprinkled with a fluorescent powder which gave forth a number of humorous designs when revealed under the light.

Next Tuesday evening the wives will be special guests at a "Ladies Night" meeting at Arbor-Lill. The dinner meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Water Supply

ested in the water supply project. Leon Merriman and Nat Sibbold, secretary of the Chamber, recently interviewed various county officials to determine that water and sewage facilities can be extended to this area. Richard Ware, assistant director of the Citizens Research Council, asserted that Plymouth citizens should be urged to vote for the bond issue.

He added that Detroit will not extend its service to Plymouth. The extreme westerly boundary is now set at Eckles road. Leo Garrity, deputy water commissioner, said that the Detroit water system will be expanded by 1970 to provide maximum capacity within the present area. Extension of the present boundary will not be considered until all areas within the present system are adequately supplied.

Alfred Pelham, county budget director, told the Chamber committee that Wayne county is presently completely out of debt and will pledge what is called "faith and credit" bonds for the project. It is expected that the water rate for the area would be uniform, he added.

Neither township nor city voters followed the county-wide choice for circuit court judges. The two top vote-getters in Wayne county were the incumbents, Wade McCree, Jr. and James McNally. Township voters favored Harry Dingeman and Orville Hubbard. City voters cast their lot with Theodore Bohn and Dingeman.

Woman Injured As Car Hits Tree
An Ann Arbor woman is in Wayne County General hospital recovering from injuries she received Tuesday morning when her car skidded on ice and struck a tree on Ann Arbor road near Joy.
Elna M. Mattila, 1013 Arbor-Jale, said she was driving at 45 miles an hour when the mishap occurred. Taken to the hospital by Schrader ambulance, she is reported by sheriff's officers as suffering injuries of the right shoulder and head.
Meanwhile, sheriff's deputies are working 24 hours a day on the death of Gerald Bak, 17, of 2352 Treman. Bak was killed Saturday night when the driver of an unidentified car attempted to play "bumper tag." Bak was killed when his car went out of control and struck a tree after being struck from behind by a green Oldsmobile.
Sheriff's detectives have received dozens of leads from persons believing they know the unidentified car and its young red-headed driver.

After due and sufficient study of the facts our Official Board has taken the first steps toward a long range expansion program. Last Monday it appointed a committee of five with power to hire the services of an architect to draw up "specific plans" for the utilization of the upper half of our gymnasium for added Sunday school rooms and "general plans" for the extension of our sanctuary. The thought being that the two should be considered as a unit even though only the Sunday school development be attempted at this time.

It is hoped that within a month the architect may be able to have such plans ready to present to our Official Board for definite consideration.

Not one dissenting vote was registered against the project which all present could see is a must if Plymouth Methodist is to meet the challenge of today and the immediate future.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTISTS

10:30 Sunday morning service. 10:30 Sunday school. Classes for pupils up to 20 years of age.

The vital need for proofs rather than mere professions of Christian power will be stressed in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christ Jesus" to be read at Christian Science services on Sunday.

Selections from the Bible include the following passage from the Sermon on the Mount (Matthew 5:16): "Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven."

Correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy will include the following (230:1-5): "Every day makes its demands upon us for higher proofs rather than professions of Christian power. These proofs consist solely in the destruction of sin, sickness, and death by the power of Spirit, as Jesus destroyed them."

The Golden Text is from I John (4:9): "In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him."

American Legion News

President Marie Thompson wishes to inform all eligible Auxiliary members that if they join within the next two weeks, many of them could be initiated into the Auxiliary along with their husbands at the Legion's birthday celebration on Wednesday evening, March 16.

Auxiliaries are reminded to begin collecting and saving for the Spring Rummage Sale to be held on April 1 and 2.

It is with a great deal of sadness that this column notes that the Korgan-Veterans bonus bill has been tied up by a House group. The Senate approved the bill as of January 27 but since then, no further action has been taken on the bill. The House Military and Veterans Affairs committee was scheduled to hold a meeting this week to further discuss the measure.

Legionnaires and Auxiliary members are reminded that the Oratorical contest will be held on Friday evening, March 4, at the regular 17th District association meeting at the Redford Township Legion hall on Beech road at 8 p.m. sharp. This contest is the culmination of the Legion's Americanism month, which was February. The subject this year for the contestants is "The Constitution." Thomas Rowe, a Plymouth high school student, was runner-up in the contest last year and Americanism Chairman Robert Wilson urges all citizens to attend this function and spur young Rowe on again this year to be the winner.

During World War II, the Air Force needed approximately two engines to support each engine installed in a bomber. Today, only one "backup" engine is required for every two installations.

AN ARTIST'S SKETCH of the proposed Riverside Park Church of God is pictured above. The new chapel would be added to the present building (at left) located at Plymouth and Newburg roads. Committees are already at work on the campaign with the help of the Mid-Century building committee of the Church of God, Anderson, Indiana. Co-director of this national group is Reverend Charles Webber, shown at side. He met with committees last week and conducted a dedication service Sunday. The Reverend E. B. Jones of Plymouth is pastor. Walter Majors is building campaign committee chairman.

Baha'is Observe Brotherhood Week

Mrs. Margery McCormick of Chicago will be the speaker at two of the meetings. On Wednesday, February 23, at 8 p.m. she will be in Dearborn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Horne, 3836 Campbell avenue.

On Friday, February 25, Mrs. McCormick will speak at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Marie Esterer, 3411 Geddes road, Ann Arbor.

In announcing the meeting, Mrs. Horne said, "The starting point of brotherhood is unity with God."

Information on the broadcast, "The Man and the Moment" is now available. Radio stations throughout the country are giving public service time to broadcast the Auxiliaries' radio series on the heroes of history. We are to see that our local schools are informed about these broadcasts. Detroit carries the program on station WJR and East Lansing over WKAR. Please check the newspapers for the correct time.

Cancer Chairman Betty Krumm reports that she needs more individual cancer donations in order for her to win a possible citation from the Department of Michigan. Let's try and go over the cancer quota set for us and put our Auxiliary on top. Phone 1899 if you care to make a cancer contribution.

Americanism Chairman Delores Olsaver and her committee have plans underway for the annual essay contest sponsored by our Auxiliary. She is urging all mothers who have children in the 9th to the 12th grades to explain to their children about the contest which is on the subject "Civil Defense and What It Means to Me!" We know that the high school pupils are very conscious of this subject and are probably very qualified to write an essay on this subject. If you wish to participate in the contest, call 6W for further information on the rules and prizes to be awarded.

On Sunday, February 6, Isabelle Lueke, Lucinda Archer, Virginia Bartel, and President Marie Norman attended the 4th District Rally in Detroit. Representing the Department and answering all the question any Auxiliary brought before the meeting, was Department Secretary and Treasurer Augusta White. Department Cancer Chairman Virginia Bartel gave a report on her cancer activities for the Department of Michigan.

On Saturday, February 19, Auxiliary President Marie Norman represented the Auxiliary as a judge in the Miss Junior Achievement at the Platter Hop at Plymouth high school.

We were glad to see Helen Burgett at our regular meeting on Tuesday, February 15. See you at our next business meeting on March 1.

Two of our Auxiliary girls are fortunate enough to be vacationing in Florida this month. Hope you have a wonderful time Marie French and Jane Deikman. We're thinking of you.

IT WAS BOUND to come! A special course in "Uranium Prospecting" has been initiated at Wayne university. In case you'd like to start out in the search of your fortune, the class began last Tuesday evening and will be held each Tuesday for 10 weeks from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m. It meets at 4847 Second avenue with representatives of the U. S. Atomic Energy commission giving latest information on nearby areas worth prospecting.

AMONG THE ASPIRANTS for Wayne university's fencing team is William Farrant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Farrant of 42261 Clemons. William is a junior.

A CARD FROM Joe Snyder from St. Petersburg, Fla., tells all about the "Three Quarter Century Softball Club, Inc." Mr. Snyder at 75 is one of the youngest members of the active ball team. He's from Wayne but a reader of The Mail and sent along a folder on this unique club which may be known to many Plymouthites.

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Michigan is aiming for a high spot in U. S. production of pulpwood, timber and other forest products.

Gradually, a number of steps are being taken to bring the Wolverine state back toward the prominence it held in 1870-90. In those years, Michigan was nationally in forest production.

But unlike the early days when the state's forests were stripped and the land left unplanted, the modern approach is designed to give a sustained yield of timber products indefinitely.

The most recent step in this direction was made in a conservation commission meeting late last week when increased reforestation was planned.

Prior to this move, production of young trees at the state's three nurseries was about doubled and a new method of forestry inventory has given, for the first time, a composite view of state forest needs and potentials.

Fire reduction through the years has also played a vital part toward boosting Michigan back to forest leadership.

At present, about 5000 acres of state lands are planted each year. A recent state forest inventory, which took into account openings necessary for wildlife, showed 249,000 acres can be planted.

Under the new plan, adopted late last week, tree planting will be increased gradually until 1959, when 20,000 acres of this land will be planted annually. That peak will be continued until the job is done.

Michigan is presently 15th in lumber production. A few years ago, it was down to 19th. A new trend toward increased use of pulpwood appears certain, however, and this will also help the Michigan forest picture.

A supervisor for upper peninsula game division activities will be named probably in late March. Candidates for the position are conservation department workers. Max Wakeman, former regional supervisor, died in late January.

A decision on whether or not to plant trout within half a mile of waters closed to the public has been postponed at least until the March 10-11 meeting of the conservation commission.

The commission discussed the question recently, but agreed that more information was needed before any decision could be made.

At present, state workers plant trout in public waters only. They are opposed to the half-mile rule because local conditions might mean plantings would have to be curtailed in considerable water now used by the public.

Organized sportsmen have asked for the half-mile rule to help reduce the amount of water posted against public fishing.

The 34-pound muskie speared recently in Round Lake, Kalkaska and Grand Traverse counties, was probably 14-15 years old.

Fisheries workers said the fish, speared by Mrs. Beverly Blakeslee of Williamsburg, was more than four feet long.

Age of fish can be determined by ring marks on the scales.

A serious accident was avoided at Pinckney recreation area recently when a skier became entangled in the area's rope tow. A shut-off device stopped the tow before any serious damage was done.

About 85 per cent of hunters contacted in the conservation department's annual post card poll of deer hunting information have answered the questionnaire to date.

About the same percentage had responded to this point in the poll last year. However, this year's poll was started a month earlier and results are expected in early March. About 10,300 deer hunters were contacted. They were asked if they hunted, if they shot a deer and where and how long they hunted.

The polls are approved by the University of Michigan Survey Research Center. In recent years, they have provided the most accurate summary of deer hunting information.

Timber sales for February totaling $7700 were approved during a recent conservation commission meeting.

Park concessions were awarded, flowage easements for the Mud Lake wildlife flooding project in Grand Traverse county were approved and other general business was transacted.

The commission next meets in Lansing on March 10-11.

The public will get an additional 3350 acres of lands for hunting within 54 miles of Detroit if purchase arrangements can be worked out.

The conservation commission authorized the purchase of the James Vernor estate, six miles northeast of Lapeer, during a recent meeting.

"The tract is especially favorable for game area use," says Harry D. Ruhl, chief of the conservation department's game division. "It's also very scenic and will undoubtedly receive heavy use for general recreation."

The topic for debate is the same as the one used throughout the season. It was, resolved: That the Federal government should initiate a policy of free trade among nations friendly to the United States.

If Plymouth should win this tournament it will be eligible for the state semi-final forensics contest.

Selection of the local Miss J. A. was based on poise, appearance, personality, speech and attractiveness. Judges for the event were Miss Margaret Dunning, Mrs. Marie Norman, Miss Barbara Noe, Kenneth Fisher, Richard Paine, Robert O. Beyer and Nat Sibbold.

Winning the $5 record album certificate at the Hop was Jim Mulla of Rosedale Gardens.

STEWART GRANGER - GRACE KELLY PAUL DOUGLAS "GREEN FIRE"

Favorite Recipes From Plymouth's Kitchens

Here's Treat That's Tart 'n' Sweet!

For a quick family treat or snack for the guests, there's nothing like apricot bars to fill the bill. Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing of 1010 Church street recommends them for their tart-sweet goodness and the ease with which they're made. Here's how she whips up a batch in no time at all.

- APRICOT BARS
- 1½ cups of sifted, enriched flour
 - 1 teaspoon of baking powder
 - 1 cup of brown sugar
 - 1½ cups of quick-cooking rolled oats
 - ¾ cup of butter or margarine
 - 1 cup of apricot jam

Mix flour, baking powder, brown sugar and oats. Cut in butter until crumbly. Pat two-thirds of this mixture into 13 x 9½ x 2-inch baking pan. Spread with jam. Cover with remaining crumb mixture. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) about 35 minutes. When cool, cut into bars. Makes about two dozen.

Although the recipe calls for one cup of apricot jam, Mrs. Hulsing points out that her family likes the recipe when 1½ cups are used. The extra jam keeps the bars from becoming too sweet and at the same time keeps them nice and moist.

Second layer of crumb mixture goes into place as Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing puts the finishing touch on her Apricot Bar recipe.

Sixty events carrying out the theme, "Spring Fashion Parade of Wash and Wear Fabrics for Men, Women and Children" will be modeled by Plymouth residents.

Participating stores and their models are: Minerva's: Sally Sawyer, Cathy and Jinx Goddard, Norma Jill and Joel Congdon, Nancy and Edward Nidy, Roxanne Smith, Donald Allen, Renee and Norma Jean Ramseyer and Penny Norkus.

Cassidy's: Miss Marilyn Karnatz, Mrs. Samuel Stephens, Mrs. Rockwell Smith, Mrs. Park Torrence, Miss Nancy Brannan and Mrs. Charles Cushman.

Davis and Lent: Jay Hanna, Ronald Roberts, escorts: Earl Robertson, Jon Wolfe, Karl Wehmann, modeling sportswear. From the boys department, Richard Foerster and David Mynatt will model.

Featured on the program will be Miss Doris Quackenbush, home laundry consultant of Monsanto Chemical company. She will be commentator for the event and conduct demonstrations on washing and drying of fabrics.

Introductory music prior to the show will be furnished by a string ensemble from the Plymouth Symphony orchestra. Selections will also be played by the group during the intermission period.

Tickets are on sale at the participating stores. They may also be bought from any member of the Women's committee of the Plymouth Symphony Society.

Planners Hold Public Hearings

Public hearings on two zoning changes were considered by the city planning commission at their meeting last Thursday night, one of which was approved and the other decision delayed.

Approved was the change in zoning of lots on the north side of Byron street (proposed) from Sheldon road eastward to those lots facing North Main street. The lots are to be changed from one-family residential to two-family residential.

Purpose of the proposed change is to provide a "buffer" zone between the commercial lots on Ann Arbor road and the residential areas north of there. The rear portion of the commercial lots had formerly been zoned R-2 between Harvey and Sheldon until they were changed to commercial by request.

A public hearing was also held on the changing of R-2 zoning to light industrial zoning on the east side of Amelia street from Farmer southward to the alley at the rear of lots facing North Main. Because a number of affected property owners are now on vacation, the planning commission postponed its decision.

ALL SET for Wednesday's Benefit Style Show are models (l. to r. back row) Mrs. Samuel Stephens, Jay Hanna and Mrs. Park Torrence. In the foreground Cathy Goddard checks the attire worn by Joel Congdon. 5. Held at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium the show will feature a "Spring Fashion Parade of Wash and Wear Fabrics, for Men, Women and Children." The event is being sponsored by four Plymouth merchants in behalf of the Plymouth Symphony Society.

High Accident Rate in Morning Traced to Inadequate Breakfast

When you hear that siren and see the traffic cop coming your way—ask yourself WHAT DID I HAVE FOR BREAKFAST. Recent studies made in industrial plants showed the greatest number of accidents occurred between 11 a.m. and noon. Health authorities believe that an inadequate breakfast is one of the principal reasons for this high accident rate in the late morning. Eleanor Mullikin, Wayne County home agent, points out that fatigue accompanies hunger. When we are tired we are more apt to be careless.

Breakfast studies at Harvard University showed that the person eating a breakfast containing protein had a relatively high blood sugar count during the morning. The reverse was true for those who ate a breakfast high in carbohydrates or those who ate no breakfast. Hunger pangs accompanied the low blood sugar levels. Again—when we are hungry we are also tired. The very term breakfast or break-fast indicates the need for food after the long fast from the evening meal of the previous day.

Including eggs in the breakfast menu is the simplest and least expensive way of providing the needed protein. Now is the time to introduce the habit of serving eggs for breakfast. Egg production is currently high and prices are low. For those who have tired of the traditional fried, scrambled or poached versions try Eggs A La Lee, Baked Eggs or a French Omelet.

Eggs make wonderful eating at any meal any time of the year. There are dozens of delicious dishes that can be made of eggs, and you'll be doing your health and pocketbook a favor if you eat lots of them. Eggs can be really exciting if you give them the Cinderella treatment. Using them in combination with other foods gives a new flavorful taste-treat.

EGGS A LA LEE
Cover circular pieces of toast with thin slices of cold boiled ham. Arrange on each a poached egg. Pour around Mushroom Sauce.

BAKED EGGS
Break an egg in a slightly hollowed out round of bread or use a bun. Season, dot with butter and bake in a moderate oven (350° F.) until white is firm.

FRENCH OMELET

4 eggs
4 tablespoons milk
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper

Use heavy pan of generous size. Beat eggs slightly, just enough to blend yolks and whites, add milk and seasonings. Put butter in hot pan; when melted, turn in mixture, as it cooks, lift with spatula, letting uncooked part run underneath until whole is of creamy consistency. Increase heat that it may brown quickly underneath. Fold and turn on hot platter. Do not try to make too large an omelet; make two or more smaller ones instead. Serves 3 or 4.

To vary the French Omelet for luncheon or supper use, spread with a filling or sauce before folding. Pour sauce around omelet on platter. Possibilities for fillings are creamed fish or chicken, diced cooked bacon or ham, cooked peas or asparagus with butter and mushrooms, creamed or sauteed. Another taste-treat for luncheon or supper would be an Egg Souffle.

EGG SOUFFLE

2 tablespoons butter
2 tablespoons flour
1 cup scalded milk
1 cup scalded cream
4 eggs
1 teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper

Cream butter, add flour, and pour on gradually milk and cream. Cook in double boiler 5 minutes, add egg yolks, beaten until thick and lemon-colored. Remove from fire, add seasonings, fold in egg whites beaten until stiff. Turn into buttered dish or buttered individual molds, set in pan of hot water, and bake in slow oven (300° F.) 45 to 60 minutes or until firm. Serve from baking dish immediately. Egg Souffle may be served with a thin white sauce lightly seasoned with celery salt, paprika, and onion juice. Serves 4 to 6.

Make Best Use Of Background Space in House

Picture two clothing store display windows—one looking like a forest with as many manikins as there is floor space and the other carrying out one theme with one or two costumes displayed.

Certainly the latter is much more effective in attracting customers because the window designer has made use of background space. Experts in the textiles, clothing and related arts department at Michigan State college explain background space as negative space. One of its big functions, they say, is to give the onlooker a feeling of rest and relaxation as in the case of the second store window.

Background space can be put to use in our homes in almost anything we create. In arranging furniture, centerpieces, table setting, wall pictures or placing scatter rugs—background space should be given thought and planned for just as we do the objects in the foreground.

For example, take the wall space over a mantle. Years ago this space was filled with a neatly-covered picture with a margin of background space all around it. A contemporary artist might completely eliminate the margin by placing a mirror or picture to fill the whole area. Or he might hang the picture in one corner of the space in order to give the background a pleasing shape to relate to the shape of the picture.

Whether we eliminate it or change its shape, the experts suggest relating the background space to the arrangement of the object.

Tips for Homemaker

Save your tissue paper from packages throughout the year and you'll find that, crumpled, it's ideal for cleaning and polishing mirrors and glass.

When shoes have become soaked or even damp from the weather, do not place them too close to registers or heaters for drying. This will parch leather. Let them dry at room temperature.

Save yourself steps by placing chenille or lintless dusting cloths in drawers in every room in the house. You can then dust while you're in the room rather than having to go to get a cloth.

Nutcrackers are helpful when kept in your kitchen cutlery drawers. Use them for opening small screw topped jars and bottles.

If brass or copper fixtures on lamps, doors or drawers tarnish readily, polish them thoroughly, then apply clear lacquer to them to prevent tarnish from forming.

Decorative ceramic coasters in sizes to fit can be placed under flower and plant containers to prevent moisture from seeping on to window sills or table tops.

THE candles are lit and waiting for the guest of honor to blow them out. The fragrant coffee is poured. It remains only to slice through the pink-iced Chocolate Chiffon Birthday Cake and the nicest, most personal of all parties can begin.

This Chocolate Chiffon Cake Goes Gadding in Party Pink

Here's the pretty cake, all pale-pink, daisy-decked icing on the outside; all deep-dark chocolate chiffon richness on the inside. Here are the candles, in varying shades of pink, graded in size and gathered into a mound of flickering light. The guest of honor cannot fail to blow them out with one big "whoosh." And here's the traditional coffee to wait its usual, fragrant "Welcome to the party, everyone!"

Now, we don't say this is the easiest cake in the world to make. It isn't! But you'll find it well worth the effort to produce. It's as pretty as a picture and light as a cloud—a chocolate cloud that's faintly permeated with the subtle flavor of almonds. And the texture, for all its lightness, pays a velvety tribute to the heap of good things that go into the cake's making.

When you serve a cake such as this, be sure that you have plenty of coffee in the pot. It's going to take many an appreciative cup of the steaming brew to keep it company, right down to the very last, lingered-over crumb.

Chocolate Chiffon Birthday Cake

2 eggs, separated
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 1/2 cups sifted cake flour
3/4 teaspoon baking soda
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/3 cup salad oil
1 cup buttermilk
2 squares (2 oz.) unsweetened chocolate, melted
1/2 teaspoon almond extract

Heat oven to 350° F. (moderate). Grease and flour two 8-inch layer cake pans at least 1 1/2 inches deep. Beat egg whites until frothy. Gradually beat in a half-cup of the sugar. Continue beating until very stiff and glossy. Sift remaining one cup of sugar, flour, baking soda and salt into another bowl. Add oil and half-cup buttermilk. Beat 1 minute at medium speed on mixer or 150 vigorous strokes by hand. Scrape sides and bottom of bowl constantly.

Add remaining half-cup buttermilk, egg yolks, melted chocolate and flavoring. Beat one minute more, as above. Fold meringue thoroughly into batter, cutting down gently through batter across bottom, up and over, turning bowl often. Pour into prepared pans. Bake 30 to 35 minutes. Cool on cake racks. Split each layer into two layers.

Spread pink-tinted, almond flavored 7-minute frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake. Garnish sides with "daisies" of salted almonds and semi-sweet chocolate pieces. Cluster candles in varied shades of pink on top.

Muffins With Glamor

Drop a lump of sugar into each muffin just before you pop them into the oven. Sprinkle lavishly with ground cinnamon. The sugar melts and blends with the muffin dough as it bakes. Wonderful!

Remove the skin from the edge of sliced liver to prevent its curling during cooking.

Here's Idea For Brighter Breakfasts

Any homemaker can brighten up breakfast by adding a few special dishes to her collection of breakfast menus. A tasty coffee cake or tempting Danish pastry will make the family want to get up early and hurry to the breakfast table. Try this delightful Golden Nugget Coffee Cake as an incentive to your family.

GOLDEN NUGGET COFFEE CAKE

Topping
1/4 cup fine bread crumbs
1/4 cup flour
2 tablespoons brown sugar
2 tablespoons margarine
9 apricot halves, stewed or canned.

Mix the dry ingredients. Cut or rub in margarine until the mixture is crumbly.

Batter

1 1/2 cups sifted flour
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup milk
1/4 cup melted margarine
1/2 teaspoon salt.

Sift together flour, sugar, baking powder, and salt. Combine the beaten egg, milk, and melted margarine. Add to the dry ingredients, stirring until the batter is smooth. Pour into a greased 8x8-inch cake pan or into a 9-inch round cake pan. Press apricots into the top of the batter, arranging them so each cut portion of cake will have one piece of fruit. Sprinkle topping over all. Bake in moderately hot oven (400° F.) 25-30 minutes. Serve warm, with margarine. If desired, drizzle thin confectioner's sugar icing from a small pitcher over the top of the cake for garnish.

Bleach old lace and remove yellow spots by moistening the lace and spreading it out where it will freeze. Or do just the opposite: moisten and spread it out in the hot sun. Either method will require several days to bleach thoroughly and the lace must be kept wet all during the process.

Fireplace Enhances Attractiveness of Home

Nothing is more "homey" and delightful on a winter evening than a fire in an open fireplace. The know-how of modern brick masons and builders have largely eliminated the mess and bothered with an open fire.

There are endless kinds of fireplace equipment to add pleasure to fire building. New types of lamps on the market do away with the draft usually associated with a fireplace when it is not in use. Modern fire screens and more efficient fire logs make it much safer to have an open fireplace in your home.

A fireplace, even when not in use, is an attractive addition to any home. During the summer it will look cool and lovely filled with growing house plants or cut greens. It will provide a center of interest for an otherwise dull room.

Large, Early-American type fireplaces are popular for a den or kitchen these days. They have a double use, providing a perfect charcoal cooker during the winter months.

A wood fire is by far the most attractive kind of fire to have. Hardwoods make the best firewood because they burn longer and hotter. It is a good idea to have a sheltered place to keep some logs dry. These dry logs will catch quickly and keep the greener wood burning.

Slightly green wood burns more slowly and after it catches, will make a fire that lasts a long time.

There are chemical products on the market that can be thrown into the flames to give many different colored lights to a fire. Pine cones also make interesting fire patterns.

A room that is too long will look shorter if one end is papered or painted in a warm hue. The other three walls should be done in a subdued tone.

HERE'S A DREAM KITCHEN COME TRUE! Everything is bright, neat, and right at your fingertips in this modern kitchen in the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Armstrong, 16799 Bell Creek Lane, Livonia. The cupboards and cabinets (and there are plenty of them!) are of smooth, satin-finish, natural birch with Formica counter tops. Notice the built-in Thermador oven and range. The layout of the kitchen is designed for maximum utility and convenience. The walls are painted light green with a rose-pink ceiling. The paints were custom-mixed especially for this room by Pease Paint and Wallpaper Co., Plymouth.

The amateur floor-layer should make sure all sleepers are tightly in place.

Home Owners Question Box

Question: My bathroom fluorescent light fixture has an outlet plug at the bottom. The problem is, that when a radio is plugged in with the light on there is so much static that it is impossible to hear the radio. With the light off the radio plays fine.

Answer: Your trouble is due either to a defective light tube or a defective starter. Replace the starter first, then the bulb. If we may comment, it's poor practice to hook up a radio in a bathroom this way. Too often a touch on a radio and plumbing at the same time - and particularly if the air is moist or your hands damp - can produce a very bad shock.

Question: I wanted to put down a cement slab on the ground as a base for a screened porch, but builders have told me emphatically that I must have a 42-inch deep foundation plus the 6-inch slab. I would welcome your advice.

Answer: Without a foundation to support the weight of roof and walls (if any) your slab might crack along the edges. And certainly water could get under it which, when frozen, would heave the slab and crack it. Lay the foundation to frost line, fill the interior, and pour the slab over the fill and the foundation.

Question: I have just purchased a house one year old, and the plaster walls have not been painted or sized. Can I apply rubber base paint without sizing? What do you think of applying white rubber base paint first, and then follow with the color?

Answer: We recommend sizing with glue first of all. This is inexpensive and easy to do. Then a single coat of colored rubber base paint will complete the job.

Facts About Flooring

Hardwood flooring, first choice of home owners, is practically immune to damage from age, sunlight or temperature changes.

What to Look for in Rugs and Carpeting

The great variety of new carpets and rugs, while wonderful, can be confusing! When it comes to buying a carpet or rug, there are a few simple hints that should make your selection easier.

Pre-planning . . . take a look at neighbor's homes, model rooms in stores, carpet displays and study home furnishings and decorating magazines.

Study the room for which you are buying the new floor covering. A carpet or rug may represent a big share of your budget and you want it to last far longer than draperies or upholstery fabrics.

Choose a color that you really like and one that complements the room. Don't compromise with a neutral go-with-everything color that may grow tiresome.

Bear in mind the kind of wear that the floor covering will receive. Heavy traffic rooms should have the best carpeting.

Remember these three factors that indicate the quality of a carpet: density and quality of pile, resilience and weight.

Broadloom is not a particular weave or quality of carpet. Broadloom means that the carpet has been woven on a loom that is six feet or wider, making it possible to have room-size carpets or rugs without a seam.

Select a reliable dealer . . . one who stands back of the merchandise he sells and correctly states its quality. A reputable firm cannot afford to misrepresent its stock. Be sure before you buy!

For a more luxurious appearance, softer tread, and longer service, use a rug cushion. From a beauty and comfort standpoint, a rug or carpet cushion makes your floor covering richer to the eyes, and more pleasing to the step. That is true whether the carpet or rug is the least expensive or the highest priced on the market.

Padding under your carpet and rugs also reduces noises and clatter of heels and adds long years of service in lasting loveliness to your soft floor covering.

Carpeted halls and stairways are practical as well as beautiful. They add to the peace and quiet of your home by absorbing the sound of footsteps. They add to the safety of your home, too, by preventing tumbles, and cushioning a fall if it should occur.

Turn your room-size rugs around once or twice a year. This will add extra years to their life by distributing the wear over the entire surface, thus avoiding lanes at doorways, near the television and in front of sofas. Or, place a small rug on top of basic carpet in heavy wear areas.

Glass Tops Give Protection to New, Help Rejuvenate Old Furniture Pieces

Tops of polished plate glass will add years to the youthful look of fine furniture, according to Plymouth area building materials and supply dealers, and old or marred furniture can be made to look new again with tops of opaque, patterned, or colored plate glass.

A glass top on a table, desk or vanity brings out the fine grain of the wood and protects it from everyday hazards—like cigarette burns, rings and stains left by glasses, spilled cosmetics or ink and accidental nicks and scratches.

To rejuvenate a scarred top, use a cover of colorful Vitrolite opaque glass, patterned glass, colored plate glass or a mirror. Vitrolite is available in many shades ranging from warm dark tones to light receding colors. There is a shade of Vitrolite to blend with any color scheme. Another suggestion to renew the life of a scarred desk or table top is to place a piece of wall paper with the same pattern as that used on the wall under a glass top.

PLATE GLASS CAN be used to "create" new furniture as well as protect or renew furniture you have. Here it is shown how two filing cabinets can be turned into an attractive desk with a rectangle of plate glass.

A rippling fluid look which is very interesting can be given to the pattern in the wall paper by using a top made of patterned glass.

In addition to adding years to the life of furniture, the glass tops make maintenance easier, going away with the need for frequent waxing and polishing.

It's easy to make a pattern of your furniture from which a glass dealer can cut a glass top. Here's all there is to it:

1. Place a large sheet of smooth wrapping paper over the top to be measured. Hold firmly in place. Crease all around the edges with flat side of a ruler.
2. Cut pattern to exact size and shape.
3. After cutting, lay the pattern on top to be sure it matches perfectly.

Reach-in Closets Designed to Save Space Provide Efficiency in Modern Homes

Reach-in closets give you better utilization of space than the walk-in variety especially in the correctly popular, one floor or "Ranch-Type" homes.

Opened effortlessly at a mere finger touch, sliding doors on reach-in closets help make them infinitely superior to the older type walk-ins. Ceiling height sliding doors enable you to get to the top shelf as quickly as anywhere else in the closet. Or, you can have a separate closet above the clothes closet, accessible through smaller, separate sliding doors.

Reach-in closets are better ventilated and better illuminated than walk-ins, and often do not require separate lighting facilities. Since one whole side of a reach-in closet can be opened, cleaning is easier.

Note, in the illustration below, that the reach-in closet has 50 per cent more storage space than the walk-in, besides offering greater accessibility and cleaning ease.

Sliding doors, full-length rods and shelves give maximum space use.

Adjust Freezer Control to Weather Conditions

The weather forecast may be your cue to set the temperature control of your home freezer down to its coldest possible position. If a heavy storm is on the way - blizzard, sleet, high winds or other conditions that may affect power lines and cause a temporary shut-off of electricity, it's wise to get the contents of your freezer as cold as possible. The colder the food, the longer it will stay frozen without electricity. If the power does fail, try to find out how long the shutoff will last. If it's only a few hours, don't worry about the food in the freezer. But don't open the freezer and let it warm while the power is off, except to take out needed food or to put in dry ice.

Closing your house for the winter? Better call a plumbing contractor before you go to drain the pipes and to siphon the water from traps under the plumbing fixtures. Getting all of the water out of the jets in the water closet is a tricky job. It's best to enjoy peace of mind while away by having an expert take care of it. So warns the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau.

Little Clifford Tait has been quite sick.

Dr. F. D. Adams, for many years a practicing physician here, has sold his business to Dr. Luther Peck and will move to Northampton, Mass.

H. J. Fisher has just completed the finest carriage ever built in Plymouth. It was ordered by Detroit parties.

A Piper Party will be held Friday evening at the home of Mesdames Kellogg and Rauch, on Main street, for the benefit of the W.C.T.U. New and novel. Lots of fun. A pleasing program of music and recitations will conclude with an amusing character sketch, entitled "A Cheerful Companion."

The dancing party at Penniman hall last Friday evening was not numerously attended, owing to the stormy weather. Whitmore's orchestra, of Ypsilanti, was unable to get here on account of tie-ups on the railroads and local musicians were made requisition upon.

Mrs. Fred Burch will return from the South next week bringing little Zila and Merle Roe. Mrs. Roe and Mrs. Pooler are doing nicely and will remain until May.

Although there was a large amount of snow on the ground, the mild weather this week has melted it so gradually that there is no danger of a serious flood.

The first car of stove coal since the tie-up of freight last week was received by McLaren and company, Wednesday. It was parceled out in small lots to accommodate the many out of fuel.

ment, Mrs. Fred Drews and Mrs. A. G. Kehrl being hostesses. Everyone welcome.

Inexpensive Equipment Will Insure Ample Light and Water to Your Plants and Protect Them From Disease.

It's Easy To Grow Plants Indoors With This Scientific Seed Box

Scientific researchers who have studied the problem of starting seeds in an indoor box, found the chief reasons for failure to be too much or too little water, the development of fungus disease, a lack of light. Research found means to prevent all these troubles, if you wish to use them.

There is no better way to become familiar with plants than by sowing in an indoor box, where you can keep a daily watch over the development of the plants. You develop an understanding not so much about making plants grow, as about the things which can prevent them from growing, which they eagerly wish to do.

Begin with a proper seed box, such as a standard "flat" which measures about 15 x 24 inches, and 3 inches deep. Use a smaller box if you wish, but not less than 2 inches deep. Each plant needs eight cubic inches of soil to grow without a check.

This box may be equipped for one of two methods of automatic watering. First is the wick method, for which a hole is bored in the center of the box, through which a piece of clothes line six inches long, or a similar piece of fibre glass wicking, can be passed. The upper end is shredded and imbedded in the soil, and the lower end drops into a pan below. As long as there is water in the pan, it will be drawn up to the soil, which will thus be constantly moist yet never overwatered.

Another watering method is sub-irrigation. Line the seed box with waterproof paper, place a flower pot in the middle, and fill in soil around it. Water poured in the pot will spread over the bottom of the flat and be absorbed by the soil, rising by capillary action. Over-watering is avoided so long as no water stands in the flower pot.

Both these methods keep the soil porous so that air may enter freely. With a wick-feed a large pan of water is enough for several days, so you can make a short trip with no fear of your seedlings going dry. A few hours without water could destroy all your plants.

Disease is prevented by using sphagnum moss, anti-biotic of the plant kingdom. No fungus or harmful bacteria can live in it. Rub it on a sieve so that the shredded moss covers the top of the soil 1/4 to 1/2 inch deep and sow the seed in that. Then cover the seed with more of the same.

lightly. It holds water well and seeds sprout in it very quickly, with never a sign of the dreaded "damping off" disease.

Place the box in the sunniest window you have. Sunlight may be supplemented by artificial light. Fluorescent lamps, which have a high light value with low temperature, may be placed a foot above the seed box. At this distance a 40-watt tube in a reflector burned 15 hours a day is sufficient to grow healthy seedlings even without any other light.

With enough light, the right amount of water, temperature varying between 60 degrees at night and 70 degrees by day, your seedlings should produce stocky, vigorous plants. To insure this it is necessary to thin out the seedlings, so that each plant stands 2 inches away from its neighbors. Transplant the excess seedlings to other flats where they will have adequate room to grow to transplanting size. Transplanting may be done as soon as the tiny seedlings have made their second pair of leaves.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Protein foods help build firm muscles and maintain good general health. The very high protein foods are the all-important basis of the new reducing diets. Protein foods include meat, poultry, fish, eggs, dried peas and beans.

The peas and beans are good but should only be used to "fill out" on the other higher protein foods—particularly on a reducing diet. They are economical but they do not do as much for you as meat, fish, poultry and eggs. Eat them, but not as a substitute.

Meats, especially liver and kidney, give you iron. The red cells of your body must have this mineral to carry fresh oxygen to the tissues and remove carbon dioxide. If your complexion is sallow and you tire easily, chances are you need more iron. Eat liver alone or try grinding it into hamburger. Serve with smothered onions.

Eggs could well be called oversized vitamin pills. They are full of protein, iron and vitamins A and D. Try to eat at least one egg each day.

Fish contains large amounts of vitamin A and D. Vitamin D is important for the proper development of bones and teeth. Vitamin A is often called the beauty vitamin. It will give you a smoother skin, shining hair and eyes.

Although your bones and teeth may already be developed, don't get the idea you no longer need vitamin D. You must have it to keep your teeth and bones in good condition. Vitamin D can be manufactured in your body from exposure to sunshine.

The individual who postpones a good deed is not putting off a bad deed.

Farmers Producing Wheat, Milk Wise to Employ Use of Fertilizer

Milk is milk and wheat is wheat—whether it's produced from unfertile or fertile land.

But Michigan State College researchers remind that it takes twice as much unfertilized land to produce the same amount of milk or wheat that can be produced on fertile soil.

That is shown by a ten-year nutrition study conducted by five departments at Michigan State in cooperation with the National Dairy Council and the American Dairy Association. The research is nearing completion.

It has revealed that soil fertility does not change the composition or food value of crops. If a cow's ration is deficient in protein or minerals, milk production will decrease but the composition of the milk will remain the same.

Michigan State researchers found, however, that it was impossible to grow high-protein forage crops like alfalfa and clover on the unfertile soil. So they had to grow grass forage—brome and timothy—on both the fertile and unfertile soil to carry out the experiments.

Although the long time experiment shows that crops grown on unfertile soil are just as nutritious as those grown on well-fertilized land, Michigan State College researchers make this recommendation:

Lime, if needed, and substantial quantities of fertilizers are the best investment a farmer can make today.

Chamber Groups Actively at Work

Chamber of Commerce committees are actively at work on a wide range of projects these days, among them being the establishment of a vocational advisory council for high school juniors and seniors.

The education committee is going ahead with plans to set up an advisory council to assist boys and girls in selecting their future vocation. The project would be in cooperation with the high school counselor, Miss Ruth Butts.

Business and professional men would lend their advice to the students and answer questions about how to enter the field. The advisory council would be a continuing operation throughout the school year.

The area development committee is currently acquiring facts on sewers and water. Leon Merriman and Nat Sibbold, secretary of the Chamber, have interviewed Detroit city and Wayne county officials concerning the future extension of water and sewer facilities to this area. Their report will be found elsewhere in this edition.

Another committee, the state and national affairs group, heard a report on education in the state last Saturday by Mrs. Esther Hulsing, school board member. This committee studies the important proposals introduced in state and national capitols.

The area development committee will receive valuable information next Monday night when three members of the Detroit Metropolitan Area Planning commission speak at the February Chamber dinner.

The Fourth of July committee is busy already making plans for another big celebration. They will again bring television stars to the city and offer many attractions during the day.

Observer Corps Week Proclaimed

Governor G. Mennen Williams gave a boost to one of the nation's increasingly important air defense organizations by proclaiming February 14 to February 28 "Ground Observer Corps Weeks" in Michigan.

The proclamation praises the 13,000 Ground Observer Corps volunteers who man the more than 700 observation posts in both Michigan peninsulas.

One of these observer posts is located at the Detroit House of Correction where inmates man a lookout tower 24 hours a day.

The governor calls attention to "the growing capability of the Soviet long-range air arm" and points out that even with the state's present 13,000 volunteers, the number of members in the ground observer corps must be more than doubled in order to provide adequate aircraft detection for this sector.

During Ground Observer Corps Weeks, members all over the state are making a concentrated drive for new volunteers to man observation posts and the Air Defense Filter Center at Grand Rapids.

The Ground Observer Corps is part of the nation's massive air defense force which goes by the name of Continental Air Defense Command, CONAD, as it is called in military circles, is a joint command comprising elements of the Army, Navy, Marines and Air Force to be used as a combined defensive force in the event of a national emergency.

It is pointed out that ground observers are needed as a supplement to radar, which operates in a similar manner to television and generally speaking is limited to line-of-sight coverage. At long ranges, the radar beams do not scan close to the ground, which means it may not be effective in detecting low-flying aircraft. Furthermore, radar beams will not penetrate obstacles, natural or man-made, such as mountains or buildings.

This leaves gaps in our radar coverage and the cost of filling each of these gaps with more radar would be prohibitive.

Ad Pays Off
Liberty, Ky. — Nothing happened when Mrs. Lutie Combest put an advertisement in the paper for a lost lawnmower and a fireplace grate. Nothing daunted, she decided to put in another ad to sell a pile of lumber behind her house. When the lumber was sold and removed, the lawnmower and grate were found—at the bottom of the pile.

New Books at Dunning Library

Also added to the local collection was the best seller, "Have Tux, Will Travel" by Bob Hope; "Manners in Business" by Elizabeth Gregg MacGibbon, Olaus Murie's "A Field Guide to Animal Tracks" from the Peterson Field Guide Series; "A Flag in the City," Christopher Landon's novel with setting in the Middle East; Jane Kirk's "What's Cooking; Quantity Cooking for All Occasions."

In addition Plymouth readers will find a collection of cartoons from "This Week magazine about That?" The book contains background information on the nation's top cartoonists and material on their particular field of art. Youngsters Win Skating Awards

Four Plymouth youngsters succeeded in capturing skating medals by winning or placing in various races in the Detroit News skating meet held at Belle Isle in Detroit, Sunday, February 13.

Thirteen-year-old Jim Urquhart won the juvenile division speed skating championship and was handed a medal and trophy to add to his many other awards.

Novice skater Bruce Wood, 13, who just took up skating over the past Christmas vacation, won a medal for placing in the 440-yard speed race.

Steve Hayskar, 11, skated off with second place honors in both the 220- and 100-yard events. His nine-year-old sister Susan, took a third-place medal in the cradle class's 50-yard sprint.

Young Urquhart also added the Wyandotte Gold Cup Championship to his list of victories in speed skating competition when he copied that trophy Saturday, February 12, in Wyandotte.

UNDER THE BATON of Director Laurence Livingston, members of the Plymouth junior high school band rehearse for the Fourth Annual Parade of Bands. Held Tuesday, March 1, the "Parade" will feature musical compositions played by 500 youngsters from the elementary, junior and senior high school bands. Open to the public, the event starts at 8 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. There will be no admission charge.

Wayne Professor Puts Local Bands Through Paces

Recent guest conductor of the Plymouth high school band was Roy Miller of Wayne University. Miller rehearsed the junior and senior high school bands in musical selections to be presented at the District Band and Orchestra festival at Pease auditorium, Ypsilanti, on Saturday, February 26.

The junior high school band is slated for a 9:35 a.m. performance on that date, with the senior band presenting its selections at 4:10 that afternoon.

Selections by the junior high school band will be: "American Pioneer" by Paul Yoder; "Pilgrimage Overture" by Harold W. Rusch and "Normal March" by Harold Bennett.

Musical compositions to be played by the senior band are "Symphony No. 1 in E Flat" by Camille Saint Saens, "Pride of the Marines" march by Austin R. Edwards, and the required number, "Au Pays Lorrain" by G. Baley.

Under the baton of Laurence Livingston, conductor, the senior high school band received a first division rating at the district festival last year, thus enabling them to enter the state festival competition at Lansing where they received a third division rating.

Overtime Tilts Costly To Reserve Hoopsters

When the Plymouth Junior Varsity hoop squad finishes the regulation four quarters in a deadlock with the other team, the Jay Vees would be smarter to just let it go at that instead of playing it off in overtime.

Coach Bill Harding's quintet lost its third overtime decision in as many attempts last Friday when Allen Park's reserves hit for five counters in the added three minutes, while holding the junior Rocks to two, to gain a 48-45 victory over Plymouth.

Plymouth has had experience in dropping overtime tilts previously, though, as Bentley and Walled Lake had also whipped the Jay Vees by the same method.

The defeat came as a poor reward to the Junior Varsity for their effort to overtake Allen Park after the Jaguars held a big halftime margin. Plymouth hit for 15 points in the third quarter and added 13 more in the fourth to catch their hosts, and require the overtime. Jerry King then dropped in the only two points the locals could muster, and it wasn't enough to give Plymouth the decision.

In the first period Allen Park raced to a 14-8 lead to put the Rocks in a hole from the start. After the second stanza ended with the Jaguars still leading 20-15, the action started to pick up. Kenny Calhoun began hitting from all over the court to net 11 counters in the third period alone and practically single-handedly pulled the junior Rocks up to a 30-30 tie at the three-quarter mark.

In the fourth period Plymouth dropped in only three field goals but counted seven free throws to match Allen Park's 13 points and bring the game to the 43-43 draw. Then came the defeat, the seventh for the Junior Varsity in thirteen games.

Calhoun carried most of the scoring load for the Harding-coached quintet by accounting for 15 points. Jerry King added 10 more and Bob Jenkins nine to follow Calhoun in the scoring department. Smith, for Allen Park, was high for the night as he dumped in 20 points, three of which came in the overtime.

Closing out their engagements with 6-B League schools, tomorrow night the Junior Varsity plays host to Belleville's J. V. squad. Against league teams the junior Rocks have compiled a 4-5 win-loss record, one of their quartet of victories being a 58-30 decision over the same team they meet tomorrow night.

Allen School Defeated But Holds League Lead

After the smoke had cleared from the action in the three minor recreational basketball leagues last week, only two of the three loop leaders still maintained perfect records.

Allen school suffered its first loss of the season, a 13-10 affair to second place Starkweather, but still held onto its lead in the elementary cage loop.

The other game in the little league found Allen school edging out a tight 16-15 win over Bird school. The cagers from Bird led most of the way until Allen scored the winning basket in the last few seconds.

In the "E" league Wayne continued to show its supremacy. The Redbirds threatened the Wayne club often but finally bowed by a 41-38 count Plymouth Recreation defeated the Northville Scouts, 57-45.

In the "F" league the leading Indians trounced both Lutheran Day School, 36-17, and Our Lady of Good Counsel, 42-14. The Elks decided the Northville Scouts by a 22-18 score.

Juve Big Gun for Rocks As Locals Down Parkers

Lee Juve picked an opportune game to go on his biggest scoring spree of the season when the big red head pumped in 17 points to highlight Plymouth's 57-44 victory over Allen Park on the Jaguar's court last Friday.

The win virtually assured the Rocks at least a share of the 6-B League crown unless they go completely to pieces tomorrow against Belleville. Trenton, co-leader with Plymouth, isn't expected to have much trouble with Redford Union either, thus making a tie for the championship highly probable.

Juve, who hasn't had a real hot night all season, finally came through with a starring performance as he hit on seven out of thirteen shots from the floor and three of four free throws to pace his mates to the crucial victory over the stubborn Parkers.

Last Friday night, Coach John Sandmann fielded a team that was not to be denied. Plymouth was hot from the start as they built up an 18-7 first quarter lead and kept right on going. During one stretch in that initial period, the Rocks dropped in eight straight field goals before an attempt went awry.

After the first quarter spurge, Plymouth kept up the big scoring by hitting consistently from the floor in each of the remaining three periods to nip any dreams Allen Park had of knocking Plymouth out of a share of the title. The Rocks never hit for less than 12 points in each of the final three stanzas, netting 13 in the second, 14 in the third, and dropping to 12 in the finale.

The Jaguars never got rolling until the second half after falling far behind at intermission, 31-16. Although the host team outscored Plymouth by two points in the last half, they were too far in the hole to even come close.

All through the game Coach Sandmann got fine performances from various players. Juve and Tom Ferguson each did fine work on the boards in the rebounding department. Dick Day got the team off to a fast start in the opening period by sinking three quick, hard driving shots in the first minutes of play.

Danny Clifford and Larry Wilhelm, at the guards, were the playmakers of the team, and to top it off, Bob Middleton, who had been out with the mumps and hadn't practiced all week, entered the game in the final six minutes and dumped in nine points.

Aside from Juve's top scoring effort, Ferguson played a beautiful game under the basket as he continually broke free to lay up a bucket and follow Juve in the scoring for the Rocks by netting 13 counters. To round out the scoring, Middleton had his nine, Day hit for eight, Clifford for seven, and Wilhelm accounted for the other three. Ken Kolb dropped in 15 in a losing cause to pace the Jaguars.

Plymouth knew that this would be the big hurdle to the championship, since the Parkers had fought right down to the wire, when the teams met at Plymouth, before falling 51-49 in the final minute. The Rocks met this challenge with their best shooting of the season as they dumped in 53 percent of the shots taken from the floor, by far their best percentage of the year. Their previous tops had been about 40 percent.

Allen Park, playing their slow, control type of ball game, didn't take a shot in the first quarter until three minutes had elapsed. That kind of play didn't have much success though, as Plymouth forged ahead, and by the time the Jaguars began playing basketball, the Rocks had pretty well wrapped up the game.

Other league action that occurred last Friday night saw Trenton keep themselves in the deadlock with the Rocks by knocking off Belleville 65-57 in a closer ball game than was expected. Bentley, playing without their big gun, Darrell Ridling, dropped a tight one to Redford Union when Karhu dropped in two free throws in the final seconds to give the Panthers a 54-52 decision.

Tomorrow night's action, which will wind up the league schedule for all six teams, pits Trenton against Redford Union and Allen Park at Bentley, in addition to Plymouth's closing effort against Belleville.

Plymouth Kegler Shines On TV Bowling Program

With a three-game total of 667, Plymouth's bowling champ Bob Hitt paved the way to a 30-pin victory over a pair of Cleveland keglers on Fred Wolf's television program "Bowling Champions" last Saturday night.

Hitt's score sheet showed games of 206, 247 and 214, and this added to partner Gil Basacchi's 571 for a total of 1233 was enough to decision Joe Bolek and Harry Smith, who counted 1208.

Unaffected by any stage fright, the local bowler strung together strike after strike as he set the TV show's new record for total strikes in the three games with 24. The old mark was 23.

In addition he also counted the 500th strike to be rolled on the series of programs and was the evening's high three-game scorer. But Hitt's 247 did not take high individual honors for the night as Smith, who rolled in place of world match game singles champion Steve Nagy, had 255 on his third try.

Parkers Again Down Rock Junior Cagers

When Plymouth's junior high basketball team met Allen Park earlier in the season, Coach Gus Gorguz's seventh and eighth graders lost a close tilt by a mere four points. Last Friday on Plymouth's court, the littlest Jaguars and Rocks met for the second time, with the result being an even closer 36-34 win for the visiting Parkers.

The game was a see-saw affair in which first one team would score well and then the other would begin playing superior ball. Plymouth, after falling far behind in the first three quarters of play, finished with a last ditch rally in the fourth period in a vain effort to overtake the Jaguars.

In the opening stanza, the littlest Rocks started out as if to run their visitors off the court by piling up an 11-4 lead. Then it was the Jaguars turn to howl in the middle two quarters as they overtook Plymouth at halftime to gain a slim 19-18 advantage and then stretch it to 27-21 at the three-quarter mark. The vain attempt to catch the leaders in the final period resulted in a 13 point spree on the part of the littlest Rocks, but it wasn't enough as Allen Park countered with eight of their own to walk off with the two point decision.

Jim Urghart and Lon Hadwin paced the Plymouth scorers by netting ten points apiece. The pair got help from Myron Hopper who counted eight more, but these three didn't get much support and couldn't match the output of the Allen Park scoring attack. Two Park lads were the top scorers. DeMarti, who took top honors for the game by netting 15 counters, and Bernardo, following closely behind his teammate with 13 points.

Concluding their season tomorrow at Belleville, the Junior High will be seeking their sixth win in ten decisions against a team they had no trouble beating 29-15 earlier this year. The game will start at 4:00 p.m.

"What is a detour?"
"The roughest distance between two points."

Belleville Last Test For Varsity Cagers

When the final buzzer sounds ending the fourth quarter of the Plymouth-Belleville game tomorrow night, it will mark either a championship or an also-ran role for the Plymouth quintet.

Coach John Sandmann will field a team in this game that can gain at least a share of the first 6-B League title that a Rock squad has ever won. Although Plymouth has won league crowns in almost every other sport, a trophy for supremacy in basketball has never come to the school.

Belleville will be out to upset any hopes the local Varsity may have of finishing in a tie with Trenton for the league crown and also to avenge a 66-43 defeat the Rocks handed them when the teams met at Belleville.

Plymouth should be at full strength for their final league encounter of the 54-55 season since Bob Middleton has returned to the lineup.

The Varsity game will begin about 8:00 in the Plymouth gym, following the Junior Varsity tilt, which starts at 7:00.

"A" Cage Card Handed Mix-up

Two games were postponed and perhaps even cancelled in the "A" basketball league as the loop's schedule was greatly disrupted last week.

Northville State hospital's recreation officials commandeered the institution's cage court to be used by the hospital's nurses Monday evening, February 14.

As a result the George Tripp Inc. vs. Northville Recreation and Ford-Local 182 vs. Beglinger Olds games were left literally out in the cold.

Another pair of games to be played on that floor was quickly rescheduled to be played last night on the court at Bentley high school.

This mix-up will also confuse the previous plans made for the league play-offs, but it seems likely that the post-season games will wind up on either the Plymouth high school gym floor or at Bentley.

Other big news in the men's league was the fantastic scoring spree George Tripp's cagers went on when they mercilessly trounced Ford-Local 182.

Four players counted 20 or more points for Tripp's as they led the way to a final score of 120-55.

Pacing Ford-Local was Taylor with 17.

Becker, Purcell, Pierce and Heaton with 95 points between them earned the twelfth straight win for Tripp's against no losses to continue a sustained league domination.

There was no other sky high scoring recorded in the other action last week, but three other winners notched decisive victories where the slimmest margin of difference was at least twelve points.

LaFontaine assured a second place finish with a 62-45 win over the Northville State hospital quintet. High for LaFontaine, which played the whole game with only five men, was MacDonald with 17. Miller headed the losers with 19.

Gould's Cleaners bowed to the Northville Recreation five to the tune of 59-40. Straub led Northville with 29 tallies, while Hees paced Gould's with 20. Straub's total was the high individual tally for the week.

The final count between Tait's and Beglinger was 57-45 in favor of the Beglinger squad. Veteran Doug Egloff was high-scoring with 26 for the winners and Tait's was led by Pagenkopf's 14.

League standings are:
George Tripp Inc. 12 0 1,000
LaFontaine 10 2 833
Beglinger Olds 8 4 666
Gould's Cleaners 6 6 500
Northville Rec. 5 6 454
N. S. H.-A. F. L. 4 9 307
Tait's Cleaners 2 11 153
Ford-Local 182 1 11 003

A recent change in the league rules states that the league champion shall be an undisputed representative at the post-season play-offs.

The next four leading teams will compete among themselves in a "two-game knock-out" affair to see who the other Plymouth team will be in the play-offs.

This Inter-City Tournament will be held March 16, 17 and 18 at Hackett field house in Highland Park. The winner of that tournament goes to the state class "B" recreational tournament at Marshall, Michigan.

Frosh Quintet Defeats Allen Park Five, 34-14

Winning their second straight game for the first time this season, the Plymouth Freshmen took the measure of Allen Park's Frosh by a 34-14 score in the Plymouth gym last Friday, February 18.

In avenging an earlier defeat inflicted on them by the young Jaguars in the initial meeting of these two teams, Coach Charlie Ketterer's quintet gained an insurmountable lead in the first and second quarters and then coasted home on the strength of that lead.

Plymouth raced to a 10-2 advantage during the opening period and stretched it to 19-4 at halftime. With a 15 point lead the Frosh could afford to play it cozy in the second half as they more than made up for the 28-17 defeat this same Allen Park team handed them in January.

With Coach Ketterer clearing his bench after the young Rocks had gained a substantial lead, 11 of the boys broke into the scoring column. Ken Knipschild and Alfred Spigarelli, who netted six counters each, tied for high point honors, with Dave Walasky hitting for four more. Varga, the top scorer for the visitors, dropped in a pair of baskets to count four points in a losing cause.

The win, Plymouth's fourth as opposed to five losses, set the stage for the Freshmen's final game of the season tomorrow at Belleville. If they are to break even for their season's efforts, the Frosh must defeat a team that has beaten them 40-31 in an earlier meeting.

Chips from the ROCK

There is nothing more fruitful for any businessman than a few days spent two or three times a year in convention with others in his profession from all parts of the country. Our National Association holds three sessions a year and of its nearly 6,000 members usually about one third are represented.

Our meetings opened at the Soreno Hotel in St. Petersburg this year where our first pleasant surprise of the affair was to run into Carl Tamm, now assistant manager here. Many will remember Carl and his father who for many years operated the Lone Pine Inn on Six Mile road, east of Plymouth.

At the first luncheon meeting we were seated next to Publisher and Mrs. George Christy of Red Lake Falls, Minn. It didn't take us long to learn that Mrs. Christy was well acquainted with Plymouth having graduated from the U. of M. and attended school a few years in Detroit. In more recent years she has driven through our fair city many times with her famous brother, Brig. Gen. Charles Lindbergh on their way from his Birmingham home to Willow Run.

We here at The Mail are particularly interested in photography along with the other phases of our business. Our particular convention holds clinics throughout each session where you may attend and learn of new developments in the particular field of discussion. Since many Plymouthites are photo hobbyists, they will be interested in knowing Sylvania Flash Bulb manufacturers will have on the market in the next few months a flash bulb equally as efficient as the ones they are buying today but so small a man can carry over a dozen in any ordinary shirt pocket. This will also greatly reduce the size of present day flash attachments.

At the same session Eastman Kodak representatives were exhibiting their new film, also available to the public shortly, which will take average indoor pictures where you would use a bulb, in this instance without a bulb. And, not to be outdone, the Polaroid camera people announced new films for their camera which would enable enlargement and reproduction from the original picture just as you would today with ordinary camera film. Great advances have been made in the field of photography and all will be on the market soon.

The highlight of this meeting was the late afternoon and evening spent with Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson. His address was one of the most stirring, sincere and explanative we have ever heard, and editors from sections of the country who have been so highly critical of his efforts woke up Saturday morning with an entirely new conception and opinion of this great public servant.

We were afforded the opportunity to converse privately with him before and after the evening dinner session which he addressed. He would gladly and freely answer all and any questions we might wish to ask. He so impressed the assembled publishers that a resolution was adopted stating all were in agreement that he was one of the most spiritually conscious and dedicated public servants this group had ever had the opportunity to know. Everyone wished every farmer in the nation might know and hear this man, as we did, and it was the general consensus that the future and the affairs of the farmer were certainly in the hands of the farmer's best friend.

A few of the highlights of his address follow because I know they will be of interest to our Plymouth farmer friends. First the Secretary stated that the "national economy is sound and prosperous" and he foresees a good year for agriculture. He does not think there will be any appreciable change made in agricultural legislation by congress this year. "Even those legislators who in the past have disagreed with me in some of my program are now willing to give it a trial through the months ahead because of the apparent effectiveness of it at this time."

"What the farmer does on his own farm is far more important than what the government can do for him," the Secretary says, emphasizing that by far the greater part of agricultural income stems from individual efforts, rather than from subsidies.

Food is a bargain today, he says. An American worker can buy much more food for an hour of labor now and the result is that the nation is better fed than ever before. The American housewife's extra maid today is the frozen and package food product ready to serve. Actually the food cost is lower than it has ever been but its pre-preparation and packaging for convenient home use keeps the price at its present level.

The Secretary further cited the amazing increase in farm production efficiency . . . greater than any other industry . . . food output up 40% in 15 years, total production per man hour up 91%. From this he stated all Americans share in this progress which has "permitted millions of people to leave the land in recent decades for other productive enterprises in cities and towns."

JOB FOR THE MIRACLE MAN

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal, is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"A state legislator in Lansing recently proposed a law which would outlaw parking meters in the state. Do you agree that they should be abolished or not?"

R. W. PAULINE, 14749 Arden, Livonia: "I think that they should be outlawed. Meters are just a nuisance and I also think they are unconstitutional. A person should not have to pay to park on a public street."

WILLIAM J. SQUIRES, 429 West Ann Arbor Trail. "In one way they help. Before we had parking meters here in Plymouth people used to park all afternoon or all evening downtown just to watch other people walk by. But meters have their bad as well as good points."

JACK YOUNG, 9039 Ball: "They're helpful but a menace also. For instance, a person parks his car and goes into a doctor's office and is delayed getting out. He has a ticket. Many merchants don't like meters for that reason. Of course, there are pros and cons to the question."

WILMA WALKER, 35601 Schoolcraft: "Yes sir, I would like to see them go. I often don't have any change for them. They are a good thing at certain times such as Christmas. They give everyone a better chance to find a parking place."

He concluded his inspirational address by saying: "nothing is more important to the farmer today than the application of all new processes and tools to his profession." He stresses most highly the need for better understanding between farm and city people to bring about better understanding and last but not least the importance of research, education and market expansion to agriculture and the nation.

We were surprised at his youthful appearance and pleased at the vitality of his handshake. He is regarded as an unusually religious individual who does not smoke and drinks nothing but milk. If all of our political leaders possessed his qualities and sincerity, we are convinced there would be little to fear for the future.

Legislators Face Battle of Balanced Budget

State government has money troubles again, a plight in which the taxpayer is forced to become a hero. Through the winter and into the spring legislators will tussle with two of the major resultant problems in their quest for a balanced budget. They are:

1. How to cut down Gov. Williams' $292 million budget which runs $46 million over existing revenues.
2. How to raise enough money to cover the cost of state operations for 1955-56, figures they know will be higher than for 1954-55.

Republicans have committed themselves to a balanced budget but the road will be rocky even with the extension of the $30 million business activities tax.

"A balanced budget at any cost," is the slogan.

Authors of tax bills are holding back this year to wait for appropriations committees on both sides of the capitol to find out how much extra will be needed.

"We don't know yet how much it will be, but it won't be $46 million," said Senator Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek).

Williams' budget was compared with existing revenue for 1954-55 — the first year the business activities tax poured cash into the treasury.

At first glance, legislators predicted it would raise $35 million. Then they revised it downward to $30 million. The State Department of Revenue fixed the actual yield at $28 million.

But last year's budget came out with a $3 million surplus — a bulge certain to be reduced by deficiencies from overspent state agencies.

Milk, the nectar of the farm, is big business in Michigan. F. M. Skiver, chief of the dairying bureau of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, proved it with statistics showing that the state sells 5,000,000 pounds a year.

It comes from 105,000 dairy farms, which provide milk for processing into a dozen different milk-derived food for the nation's tables.

Half the milk, he said, is sold as fresh milk and cream. Other outlets are 10 per cent to condensed or evaporated milk; 7 per cent to cheese, mostly American style; and 8 per cent to the manufacture of ice cream and sherbet.

Skiver, always ready to improve the product that provides one of the largest items in farm incomes, said he was proud of a Michigan "first."

The state was the first in the nation to adopt a compulsory milk pasteurization law.

Cap pistols may be the only explosive noise-maker left for the kids after this year.

Legislators have been asked to pass a law banning sparklers — a burning, sparkling bit of powder attached to a wire — because of the danger of young fingers, curtains and awnings.

Your Will Requires Attention

Babson Park, Fla.—I am back here again for the winter and wish to tell of a tragedy occurring during my absence, although you may have read of it in your local newspaper.

TWO FATAL MISTAKES

This story involved: (1) A well-known and able lawyer living for many years in our community; (2) Two very respectable and intelligent well-to-do friends of mine; (3) Two wills prepared by the said lawyer; and (4) A "trigger man" allegedly employed to murder one of my above two friends.

Now for the tragedy. The lawyer had apparently drawn up wills for these two friends. When he submitted them to the makers, they suggested certain corrections, asking the lawyer to have the wills retyped, and they would come in again shortly thereafter for signing. Fatal mistakes were apparently made by these intelligent people for not again reading the wills before the final signing and witnessing, and for not initialing each page. Nor did they take the signed will with them to a place of deposit, so that they might be reread once each year. This would have entailed some bother, but this would have been nothing compared to the trouble which followed.

IMPORTANCE OF EXECUTORS

The lawyer, or someone, allegedly slipped into the wills a clause leaving him a large sum of money. This could have been done during the retyping before the parties finally signed; or, being typewritten wills, a page could have been rewritten and slipped in after the signing. If, however, each will had been read again, finally signed, and taken home, the tragedy would not have taken place.

The lawyer also made himself the executor of the two wills. This would give him advantage in collecting the money allegedly willed him and for controlling the balance of the money. Yet, to make an attorney executor is a common practice where banks with Trust Departments are not easily available.

As the wills had allegedly been "fixed" to leave the attorney large sums of money and he was to be executor, he needed only to wait until one of my two friends should die to get his money. Both were apparently in good health. Hence, if the lawyer were in a hurry for his money, a murderer would seem necessary. To complete the story, I now depend upon witnesses at the trial just ended.

The County Prosecutor claimed the attorney employed a supposedly respectable contractor to secure the "trigger man" to murder one or both of my friends. This contractor who has been found guilty (although he has appealed, claiming his innocence) is alleged to have employed a negro to do the killing. This negro suddenly turned State's evidence.

Pay-as-you-go Capitalists

Are people of moderate means interested in investing a part of their savings in the stocks of American corporations?

An answer is provided by an investment plan, inaugurated by the New York Stock Exchange to enable people to buy stocks on a pay-as-you-go basis, for as little as $45 a quarter.

The plan was first offered to the public on January 25th of last year. By the end of November over 26,000 were in effect, representing an investment of some $9,500,000. If all those plans are completed, the total investment will come to about $65,000,000.

Equally interesting are some findings from a recent progress report on this plan. The small investor averages about $45 monthly, and the large investor $200. Forty-seven per cent of present investors are considering additional investments; 27 per cent have already purchased additional stock since joining, and 95 per cent would recommend it to their friends.

It is undoubtedly true that, in past days, many people didn't buy stocks because they weren't familiar with the mechanics of doing it and thought it a far more complicated matter than it is. So the base of ownership of American industry is being steadily broadened — and more and more typical citizens are getting a direct, personal stake in the free enterprise system upon which all the other freedoms rest.

Twenty-Five Hundred Questions

Editor and Publisher, magazine of the Fourth Estate, recently published a tabulation of the questions asked President Eisenhower at his weekly press conferences since the beginning of his term of office.

The magazine found that the President had been asked some 2,500 questions, and that they ranged into almost every field. The significant thing about it all is the readiness of the President of the United States to meet the press and answer any questions which are put forward.

That does not mean the President answers every question asked, but if he can and if he does not violate security, he makes an attempt to answer them. We can think of no more democratic process, actively working, anywhere else in the world.

This American custom, which it has become in the last two decades, enables every newspaper with Washington representation, and even some of those without it, to forward questions of their readers to Washington for presentation to the President.

Thus, the lowliest citizen can go to the highest citizen in the United States and get an answer to his question, through his newspaper.

In no other country is such a process available to the average citizen. Therefore, in no other country is the relationship between the President and the average citizen so close. This is a significant, and important, foundation of democracy as we know it in the United States.

ATTORNEY FOUND DEAD

Owing to the above or other reasons, the attorney was found shot, near the door of his home here in Babson Park, on the morning of June 9, 1954. Whether he committed suicide, or was shot by someone who feared exposure, I do not know.

At any rate this death eliminated the picture from the picture. Thereupon the able County Prosecutor concentrated upon finding the "trigger man" and any others connected with the deal. This was the status when I arrived here recently before the convictions.

LESSONS TO BE LEARNED

Apparently my two friends had a very close call. If one had first been killed, without in any way connecting the attorney therewith, the attorney would have probated the will, collected the money, and legally closed the case. He was supposed to be a brilliant lawyer in our community and, of course, may have been innocent. I leave to God the final verdict.

I tell this story in order that my many readers may ask themselves these five very important questions:

1. Should I ever sign a paper without reading it before signing?
2. Should I sign typewritten documents without signing or initialing each sheet so that no one sheet can be taken out and changed?
3. Should I leave my will in possession of any single individual, however honest?
4. Should I let a year pass without rereading my will?
5. Should I fail to encourage in every way newspapers, banks, colleges, and information centers to teach about wills and their great importance?

Serves you right, she began, laying down our copy of The Mail and squaring off for an argument.

Whadda ye mean, Mother, serves me right? What have I done wrong now, said I, meek as Moses, but braced for trouble.

I refer to your so-called column. They put it on the editorial page where nobody will ever see it. Nobody reads the editorial page of a newspaper, or if they do they vote the other way. It's ads people want to read and they never put ads on an editorial page. Ads & sports & society & spot news & comings & goings & the weather, she continued, sure of her ground as a tabby cat in a granary. If I was you, she went on, I would take a hint and quietly withdraw from the literary field and get into something constructive. Something useful, like Fuller brushes or something. You haven't lived here in Plymouth long enough to set yourself up as an oracle. You only show your ignorance of local conditions. If I was the Editor of The Mail I would put a pink slip in your envelope and suggest that you suspend your observations for about 50 years while you acquaint yourself with the town's history & traditions & culture & future plans & present problems. The editorial page of a newspaper is where one would expect to find a show of leadership & imagination & theory pertaining to the area where the paper circulates. But who wants to turn off Arthur Godfrey & Jack Benny & Faye Emerson to read editorials, even by Arthur Brisbane? Why don't you get arrested for vagrancy or run for office or something if you want to get your name in the paper? Then they would put it on page one, instead of burying it on the editorial page where nobody ever looks. Sometimes I wonder if—

Aw shucks, Ella (I call her Ella when she riles me up. She hates to be called Ella & it gets her goat). Ella, you are full of prunes. It is a great honor for a writer to be put on the editorial page and you should be proud of your husband instead of scoffing. When I've had a little more practice and get to be as good as Brisbane was, they will probably put my column right on the front page like Hearst always run Brisbane's. He was a great inspirational writer, Brisbane was, and I shall never forget the two slogans he always started off with. One was "Never sell America short" and the other was "Buy a piece of America and some day it will make you rich." Only I would substitute "Plymouth" for "America" in both cases, because my column is mainly local. But Plymouth is a typical little hunx of America, and a humdinger at that. Furthermore, the new look they've give their editorial page makes it as lively as a covey of crickets in a hot stubble-field.

Oh, she oh'd. Oh? Well, what are you going to dish up for your readers next week? Got it written up?

No, I confessed. I've run out of ideas. Got any?

Why certainly, she chirped. Plymouth is all right as far as it goes but it's no Shangri La. Their shabby little City park is a scandal to the jaybirds. The tax rate is too low, considering the many needed civic improvements. They use parking meters as tax-collectors and drive away trade. Everybody is too contented with the status quo. They seem oblivious to the relentless and irresistible pressure of progress that is swelling westward from the great city lying only a few miles to the east. The town, municipally, is a sleeper. You, JP, sure are in YOUR element here. And the green paint is all worn off the crosswalk between the bank & North Cassady's. Why don't you correct some of these evils, Mister Brisbane?

No wonder it's wore off, I observed smartly. No paint was ever made that would stand up under the punishment of 1000 women's heels stampeding across the street from where you dames cash yer husband's paycheck, direct to where dresses are on sale. And as to your other suggestions, I will give them careful study and meeb-y offer the city fathers the benefit of my experience regarding same when, as & if the spirit moves me. But I don't aim to shoot off my mouth till I know the facts, like you yerself advised.

Well, she retorted, you've lived here since 1952 and never been invited to join anything but the Red Cross, so I guess you've got nothing to lose by speaking your mind. It's your column, ain't it? Yeah, I mused. But let's not forget one thing . . .

What's that, she asked. WE LIKE IT HERE, I reminded her, and she changed the subject.
