Local Trade Stamp Venture Organized

Final plans were completed Monday noon by a group of more than 25 local merchants to place in their stores free Plymouth Community Trading Stamps for their customers. A committee representing the newly formed non-profit, Plymouth Community Stamp company spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Scranton, Pennsylvania where they placed printing orders for the stamps and customer collection books which they hope to have in local circulation in the near future.

The 25 incorporators made it clear that the stamp venture is entirely a community affair and any merchant in the area having a Plymouth mailing address is being invited to participate in the plan now or at any later date. The initiative and organization was undertaken by this group and they are now ready to discuss the working details of the plan with all other businessmen in the area interested in knowing of the operation.

It is strictly a non-profit venture the group declares, and stamps will be given all customers of the stores on any purchases they might make. The novel feature of the plan, they add, is that redemption of the stamp books by the customer can be made in any of the stores giving the stamps. The filled books will have a value of $3 each and any item offered for sale in any of the stores may be purchased by the customer at the regular retail price with the filled books instead of cash.

This makes the community stamp most inviting to housewives, the incorporators state, since they can redeem their stamps for any item on sale in the stores and the whole transaction can be done locally.

As an example, they point out that a housewife may desire a new dress or a new toaster or a turkey for a holiday dinner or even a new pair of shoes for her junior. With the Plymouth Community Stamp she can quickly figure her trading book is worth $3 in value when filled. All she need do then is to find the cost of the item she desires to purchase and save enough stamps to pay the entire cost. In case she has half enough stamps to buy some particular item, she may turn in what filled books she has, then in turn pay the balance off in cash.

As far as is known by the merchant group, the plan is novel and different than any in operation in the country today. It provides stamps for customers of local stores which when redeemed locally will provide thousands of dollars worth of sales in Plymouth.

Hopes to Startle City's Starlings

Folks around Adams street will be hearing lots of loud squawking one of these evenings - but it will be for their own good. Richard Wernett, 387 Adams, received permission Monday night from city commissioners to operate a sound truck which will emit the distress call of a startling in hopes that the large flocks of birds roosting in the neighborhood's trees will evacuate.

Wernett said that he and several neighbors are hiring the sound truck and obtaining the record from Central Michigan college, as soon as the city of Adrian gets through with it. By playing the distress call for an hour or so for two evenings, the birds should take off for new roostings, he added.

It is hoped that a permanent recording can be obtained so that it can be played in other parts of the city, Wernett said. In other communities where the recording was played, starlings stayed away for the rest of the year but it was necessary to re-play the record the following year.

Claims There's Plenty Of Water in Township

News that there appears to be ample underground water for a Plymouth township water system and that developers and businessmen are ready to move into the area once sewers and water are a reality, was heard last Thursday night when Plymouth and Canton township boards and the school board conferred about a proposed 22-mile-long sewer system. The Plymouth township board was host for the meeting to which the Plymouth city commission was also invited. Commissioners did not attend, however, because some had previous commitments. Another meeting at which they can attend is being arranged.

Officials and citizens who did attend last Thursday's meeting appeared enthusiastic about the sewer and water situation - the two items which are blamed for the slow development of this area. Supervisor Roy Lindsay declared that "one way or another," we are going to have sewers. Morton Hilbert of the Wayne County Health department declared that he was "encouraged with a meeting of this type to get these problems solved." He pointed out that right here in Wayne county there are children who play in sewerage but their parents will go to the polls and vote down bond issues for sewers.

Hilbert said that people build homes with septic tanks and expect them to last forever. "You can't pour an average of 350 gallons of water into your back yard each day and hope it will keep soaking away - it just doesn't happen." The health official said that his office has had numerous requests from this area for subdivisions. "There is no question about the development that would take place. It would also be a good going financial proposition." Another speaker was Walter Markin, auditor for Plymouth township. He said that the sewer would probably be financed through revenue bonds payable in 30 years.

The proposed sewer would cover the southern parts of both the city and township, and reach westward to about Beck road. It would also affect some of Canton township in the northern portion.

Hamill recommended that the city and township form a sewer authority, which would be a legal body of not less than three people who would administer the sewer expansion and payment.

Chamber Endorses Farm Annexation

The board of directors of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce has voted to endorse the annexation of the Roderick Cassidy farm to the city of Plymouth. Citizens of the city and the Cassidy family will go to the polls on November 1 to decide if they want the Sheldon road farm brought into the city. If it is approved, the Western Electric company plans to construct a plant on 35 acres. The board did not decide on an endorsement of the township annexation issue, also to appear on the November 1 ballot. An announcement on this issue will come after more facts are studied, the board stated.

Refuse Pick-Up Routes Change Starting Monday

A new refuse collection system which will mean a new pick-up day for most householders will go into effect this Monday. Both rubbish and garbage will be collected at the same time under the new system and both must be placed where rubbish is now placed.

Collection days will be Monday, Wednesday and Friday. Two trucks with three-man crews will start the new system. Eventually, the crews will be reduced to two men. There are about 2,400 stops in the city.

A new refuse truck is to be delivered soon. The two trucks will take their loads to the new Salem township sanitary land fill site where loads will be covered with six inches of dirt each day and 18 inches more of earth once a week.

It will be permissible for householders to place wrapped garbage in the same container as rubbish. The new ordinance asks that containers be at least 16 gallons in size. Although collections will be made each week, City Manager Albert Glassford explains that should collections be delayed for any reason, the large container would be sufficient to hold more than normal refuse.

The new refuse site, located on Chubb road, will be open from Monday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Residents and business establishments of Plymouth will be permitted to use the site without charge upon proper permit of the city manager's office.

There will also be 500 permits issued to Salem township residents for free use. Each permit holder can dispose of 40 bushels a year. All others who wish to use the disposal site will be subject to charges.

Department Changes Outlined As Local Captain Takes Over

Kenneth Fisher, a member of the Plymouth police force since 1940 and a captain since 1950, has been appointed police chief by City Manager Albert Glassford. His appointment was confirmed Monday night by city commissioners. Fisher, 36, has already announced plans to bring about many changes in the operation and training of the 11-man force. He replaces Carl Greenlee who has been appointed sexton of Riverside cemetery. Greenlee, who was named chief in 1950, announced his resignation several months ago.

Canton Citizens Protest Proposed Drive-in Theatre

Members of the Canton township board are expected to decide Tuesday night on the controversial question of whether to allow construction of a drive-in theatre on Ford road at Sheldon. A petition signed by 280 township residents has been presented to the township board and many of this number are expected to attend Tuesday night's meeting when the decision is to be rendered.

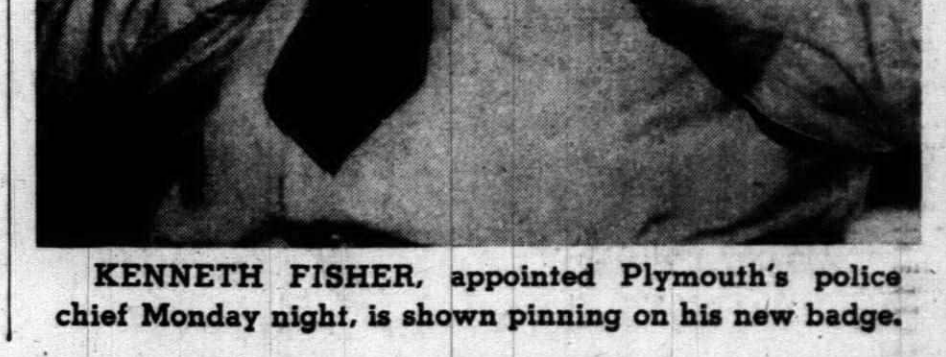

Township Supervisor Louis Stein said that actually the decision was to have been made by the zoning board but that group could not break a deadlocked 2-2 vote. Ralph Garber, 46225 North Territorial road, made the application for a zoning change which would make it possible to construct the theatre. The land, located on the southwest corner of the Ford and Sheldon road intersection, is now zoned for agriculture and residences. The request is for commercial zoning.

Garber has showed plans for the modern $220,000 drive-in which would be located on the land he owns. About 60 people showed up at the regular board meeting Tuesday of last week, most of whom protested the proposal. Complaints heard against the theatre pointed out the noise, traffic, garbage and bottles which would be littered along the highways.

There are no drive-in theatres in the area, the closest being east of Garden City. Two retiring employees of city are honored. Two long-time city employees who will soon be retiring were presented framed resolutions by city commissioners Monday night.

Mrs. Edyth Hadley, communications clerk, and August Myers, cemetery sexton, were both cited by resolution for their public service. Both will leave September 1. Mrs. Hadley has been on the police switchboard for 11 years, working first on the midnight shift and later on the night shift which starts at 5 p.m. and ends at 1 a.m. Myers started work with the city 35 years ago, and has served as volunteer fireman and public works crew leader before becoming sexton.

Greenlee will start September 1 with his new job as sexton of the cemetery. It had been previously believed that he would take another job on the police force but all health has prevented this. Greenlee will take the job of August Myers who is retiring September 1. Myers has been an employee of the city 25 years.

Set School Registration Dates for New Students

It dates to some folks that it was only a few weeks ago that school was dismissed for the summer; to some mothers it seems like a year. But, in either case, local schools will open on Thursday, September 8 and students who will be attending for the first time are urged to enroll before school starts. Allen, Bird, Smith, Starkweather, Junior high and Senior high school offices will be open from now on until school opens, for the purpose of registering and consultation with students and parents.

Bartlett, Hough, Canton Center, Cherry Hill and Truesdell schools will enroll new students on Tuesday, September 6 from 1:30 to 4 p.m. and Wednesday, September 7 from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. The schools will accommodate the following grades: Allen, Bird, Smith, Starkweather, Canton Center and Truesdell will have kindergarten through six; Cherry Hill, kindergarten through seven; Bartlett, second and third; Hough, kindergarten through third; Junior high, seven and eight; Senior high, nine through 12.

Students attending high school for the first time next month are being urged to register beginning this Monday. The deadline for registrations has been set for Wednesday, August 31 at 4 p.m. The unregistered senior high students should contact Miss Ruth Butts in the counselor's office on the first floor during the above mentioned hours and days. Principal Carvel Bentley said, Those students who classified before school was dismissed in June and who now desire to change their schedules, are to contact the counselor during the same hours.

By taking care of this registration and classifying before school starts, Principal Bentley added, students will get a better choice of subjects and will receive more time in working out a satisfactory program. (Continued on Page 8)

Make Final Plans For Fair Tonight

Final plans were announced Tuesday for the "Plymouth Day" activities at the Wayne County 4-H Fair to be held tonight. The Plymouth program will start at 8 o'clock at the free fair. Fair board officials will welcome all Plymouthites attending and a response will be made by Roy Rew, Donald Burleson, vice-president of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, will be introduced along with Mayor Russell Daane.

The talent show will follow at which six or seven Plymouth acts will be shown. Rew the Magician will then take over and mystify the audience with a half hour of tricks. The fairgrounds can be reached from Plymouth by traveling south on Canton Center road, continuing down Belleville road. Just before reaching Willow Run Expressway, turn west on Tyler to Quirk road and turn south on Quirk.

Golfers Qualify for City Tourney At Hilltop Golf Course Saturday

Due to a shortage of players, post entries are now being accepted for the 1955 city golf tournament, slated to get underway Saturday, said Chris Burghardt, pro-manager of the par-35 Hilltop golf course where the event will be staged this year.

Although the deadline for entries had been set for last Monday, men may still register for play in the tourney. Registrations for participants will be accepted even on Saturday, when the opening round of qualifying begins. Starting times for these post entries will be fitted into the qualifying schedule wherever they may be most easily handled.

A shortage of players has already caused the cancellation of the women's division, a newly added feature this year that failed because of the insufficient number of entries to warrant play. If it goes off as planned, the men's division of the tourney will include 18-hole match-play action in all flights on August 27 and 28 and September 3, 4 and 5. The final round of 18 holes that will decide champions in all flights is slated for September 5, Labor Day. Participants will tour the Hilltop layout with their eyes on sev-up by Plymouth business establishments prizes that have been put into the tourney. These include trophies offered by The Plymouth Mail to winners of the various flights. In addition, The Mail's traveling trophy, presently held by last year's champ, Ralph Lorenz, will be handed over to the victor in the championship flight.

Some of the stores that have donated prizes for the winners are Davis and Lent Men's Wear, Mayflower hotel, Plymouth Hardware, Fred Fearer Standard Oil, Otwell Heating and First Federal Savings and Loan branch office. Aside from present title-holder

Also killed in the fatal mishap was Evans' nine-year-old son, Michael. Other occupants of the car were seriously injured. Evans had played the first French horn in the Plymouth orchestra during the past year. He was also a member of the Detroit Symphony orchestra. The accident occurred while Evans and his family were enroute home from Holland, Michigan where they had been visiting relatives. Injured seriously were Evans' wife, Cleora; daughter, Deborah; and mother-in-law, Mrs. Henrietta Topp of Holland.

Local Auxillaire Reviews Benefits Of G. I. Bill

Eleven years of operation of the G.I. Bill of Rights has brought very extensive benefits to the U.S. as a whole, as well as to the war veterans who benefitted directly. Mrs. Marie Thompson, legislative chairman of the Passage-Gayde unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, has reported. She hailed the bill as the greatest legislative accomplishment of the American Legion and Auxiliary during their 35 years of joint endeavor for legislation beneficial to veterans and the nation.

The educational provisions of the bill have been used by 7,800,000 veterans to obtain special training and higher education," Mrs. Thompson said. "This has given our country millions of skilled craftsmen, trained administrators, scientists and professional men vitally needed for America's expanding economy and its national security. It has been estimated that the income tax from the increased earnings of these veterans will repay the government for the cost of their education in comparatively few years.

"The heavy enrollment of veterans in colleges and universities under the G.I. Bill resulted in the expansion of the nation's facilities for higher education until now college education is available to a vastly increased number of young people. Training schools below the college level also have greatly expanded, providing opportunities for the training of large numbers in special skills.

"The home, business and farm loan provisions of the G.I. Bill also have been of great benefit to the veterans and the nation. Four million veterans have bought homes, stimulating the building industry and raising the national standard of living. G. I. Bill loans enable 67,000 veterans to buy farms strengthening the nation's agriculture. Some 221,000 veterans obtained loans to go into business for themselves, creating new businesses and job opportunities for others."

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

On Sunday, August 7, the following members made a trip out to Maybury sanitarium taking the veterans ice cream and cookies: Bernice Kopenski, Marion Dickie, L. May Smith, Hospital Chairman, Beverly Brown, Dorothy Archer, President, Loretta Young, Millie Dely, Helen Bowring, Grace Burley, Hal Young, Marion Cole and Ernie Archer. This provided a dessert treat for all the veterans in the Ambulatory and Annex buildings. Gertrude and Ray Danol left on August 12 for a vacation in California. While there they plan on visiting Joe and Georgia Elliott who are making their home in Santa Ana, California!

The Auxiliary Bake sale took place Saturday, August 13. The success of the sale was due to the combined efforts of the Civil Defense and Adult Education committees, and to all who donated. Your efforts are greatly appreciated by the auxiliary!

Plans for the observance of the 30th Anniversary of the founding of the Veterans of Foreign Wars National Home for Orphans and Widows of Deceased or Totally Disabled War Veterans at Eaton Rapids, Michigan, have been scheduled for the month of August. To begin the special activities marking this event, U. S. Vice-President Richard Nixon will serve as honorary chairman of a committee of national leaders as a tribute of honor to this famed child care project. A life membership in the V.F.W. National home will be presented to William L. Boyd, "Hopalong Cassidy", in recognition of his wholesome contribution to the entire youth of America and especially for the happiness he brought into the lives of the children at the National Home on his visit there last year. Our own Auxiliary is planning a visit to the Home on Sunday, August 21. This is our opportunity to learn more of the value of our membership in this organization and of the citizenship building work we do through our national home. Call Chairman Gertrude Danol if you plan on making this picnic trip!

New Books at Dunning Library

Only two new books made their appearance this week at the Dunning library, although a number of interesting circuit books have been added to the library collection as the result of this week's shipment.

The first of the new editions, "Gardening for Color" by William H. Clark, deals with the planning and planting of flowers to achieve a year-round succession of harmonious and attractive colors in the garden. The other new book, "How to Organize and Manage a Small Business" by Nelms Black, covers the headwork and paper work necessary to start a business and make it pay.

Loaned to the library for the next three months, are the following circuit books:

"October '43" by Aage Bertelsen, an account of how the Danes aided in the mass escape of 6,000 Jewish people from the hands of the Nazis; Pearl Binder's "Muffs and Morals," a witty account of dress and fashion through the ages as reflected by the manners and morals of the times;

"The World of Odysseus" by M. I. Finley, only book in English that presents the background of Homer's poems; John Buckland-Wright's "Etching and Engraving: Techniques and Modern Trend," "Henry George," biography of one of America's most interesting social thinkers and reformers of the 19th century by Charles Albro Barker;

Two editions of Glenn Tucker's popular account of the War of 1812, "Poltroons and Patriots;" "Lonely Voyagers" by Jean Merrien and "The Golden Horizon" edited by Cyril Connolly. The latter contains material appearing in "Horizon" magazine from December 1939 to January 1950 under the general headings of "History of the War," "Entertainments," "Glimpses of Greatness," "Personal Anthology," "A Prospect of Literature" and "Avoir."

American Legion News

In our haste last week to get in all the latest news of the recent state convention which concluded Sunday, August 7, we failed to include several important items. Adah Langmaid was installed as the new President of the 17th District Auxiliary. Albert Holcombe served on the Rules committee. Marie Thompson served on the Membership and Community Service committees. Marie, the Auxiliary's delegate, gave a very interesting report of her activities at the conclave at our regular business meeting on Thursday evening, August 11.

Leah Rae Crane, first place winner of the local and District Essay contest held this spring, has been awarded second place in the Department contest. Miss Crane was presented with her prize-winning $50 check at the Auxiliary's meeting last Thursday. Leah announced she will use the money towards her college education. We are all very proud of her. The Auxiliary wishes to thank all the teachers in the Plymouth Schools who participated in the past year's essay contest and hope next year's will be just as successful.

At our meeting, all chairmen gave very interesting reports and thanks to all of them. We had a wonderful two years with Marie Thompson as our president and wish all the good luck for our new president, Melva Gardner.

Department Auxiliary is establishing a Memorial scholarship in memory of the late Department secretary and treasurer, Berth Proestel. More details will be forthcoming at a later date.

Our Annual Legion picnic is set for this Sunday, August 21, at Nankin Mills, Post and Auxiliary members will be contacted by phone regarding details.

Under the guidance of its new officers, the Post held its first business meeting of the new Legion year at 8 p.m. Wednesday evening at the Veterans Community center. The membership approved the changing of the meeting nights to the first and third Wednesday of the month. The third Wednesday will be used for the meeting of the executive board. Two new members, Thomas Argo and Karl Hargrave were accepted into the membership. Congratulations and welcome! Committee chairmanship appointments were announced and each chairman will be notified by mail.

The 17th district will hold its installation ceremonies on Friday evening at 8 p.m. at the Methodist church, across from the Lloyd H. Greene Post home, in Northville. Let's have our usual good attendance.

17th District Democrats Schedule Corn Roast

Governor G. Mennen Williams, Senator Patrick McNamara, Secretary of State James Hare, and Representative Martha Griffiths head the list of state, county and city officials who will be the guests of honor, August 21, when the seventeenth district Democrats hold their Annual Family Picnic and Corn Roast.

Chairman David Greenspan promises that all the corn you can eat, roasted at the peak of its perfection, will be served from twelve noon until six p.m. in the Springbrook area of Middle Rouge Parkway.

The entertainment committee has planned games, prizes, and contests for all ages, and free pony rides for the kiddies, courtesy of John F. Ivory.

In case of rain, the picnic will be held in Local 163 Hall, 22635 Plymouth road.

In this land of the free it is noted that all candidates recommend themselves rather highly. Talk that does not end in any kind of action is better suppressed altogether. —Thomas Carlyle

A CHANCE to see Davy Crockett in action, portrayed by Fess Parker above, will be given hundreds of Plymouth youngsters this Sunday through Tuesday, August 21-23, with the presentation of Walt Disney's film on this famed personage at the Penn Theatre. Featured as Davy's sidekick will be Buddy Ebsen.

LETTERBOX

Mr. Glassford

Dear Sir:
I wonder if you realize what you are asking the women of this city to do. We are to put our garbage and rubbish in one can and keep it for two weeks, then carry it to the curb ourselves. There are perhaps hundreds of old women that have no one to do the hard jobs like that, of which I am one. I couldn't carry it to the curb if it only weighed 5 lbs. I am 80 years old, crippled and live alone, along with many more that I know of. Strong, healthy men get together and make such laws not considering the women that have to suffer for it. Stop and think what it means to us before you make such rules.
Yours truly,
Taxpayer

Dear Madam Taxpayer:

I requested the Plymouth Mail to print your letter, in order that persons in a similar situation may have their questions answered concerning the new rubbish and garbage pickup and disposal system.

First, let me thank you for speaking up in order that your position in the matter can be considered and a solution to the problem found.

If you are unable to carry heavy garbage and rubbish containers to the curb or to the alley line, call or write our Superintendent of Public Works. Ask him for permission to use a smaller container. He will make his usual investigation to determine whether or not he may issue a permit for use of smaller containers. If you are physically unable to carry the containers, the ordinance provides that for a small fee (approximately 15c to 30c for the average household) the refuse collection crew may enter your premises and pick up the refuse. If you are not able to pay for such special service, I am sure that the city commission will, in worthy cases, grant the service without charge.

It is intended that the city will provide weekly refuse collections. The weather in Michigan sometimes is uncertain. It may rain or snow, making alleys impassable and causing delay. If residents have sufficient number of containers to hold their refuse for two weeks, no inconvenience will be experienced either by the residents or collection crews, while catching up with the schedule.

One of the aims of the city commission and the administrative personnel is to keep costs of services down, which savings, in turn, are reflected either in additional services, such as better street lighting, better parks or lower taxes, as the public demands. By combining our rubbish and garbage pickup, it is believed that the cost of such service can be reduced, which will compensate for the cost of acquiring our new refuse disposal site, and also offset the cost of making a 6 1/2 mile haul to the site. I hope you and other persons, who are not able to comply with the conditions of the new ordinance, will not hesitate to call us at the city hall, where your problem will receive sympathetic understanding.

Very truly yours,
A. F. Glassford,
City Manager

What does CHRYSLER'S giant expansion program mean to you?

DEMAND FOR 1955 CHRYSLERS RESULTS IN HUGE EXPANSION! This new Chrysler plant, started last March, includes a continuous conveyor system 14 miles long, will add 40% to Chrysler's production facilities.

The greatest new-car buying opportunity of the year!

Thanks to the record-breaking demand for its 1955 cars—the "hottest" cars of the year—Chrysler has had to expand tremendously. Upon completion of this Giant Expansion Program, the new plant shown above can boost Chrysler Windsor V-8 and New Yorker production a full 40 per cent!
We know that huge automobile plants aren't built in a day. It's a job that takes several months. That's why we've tried to stock up on enough new 1955 Chrysler Windsor V-8's and New Yorkers to take care of our customers through the season. We've filled our entire year's supply now, at mid-year.
Pick from our big array of models and color combinations
Right now, our showroom looks like a Chrysler catalog come-to-life! We can give you an almost unlimited choice of color combinations and body styles—something we haven't been able to do since the big "run" on 1955 Chrysler's began the day they were first introduced. But indications are that there just won't be enough to go around. So we urge you to come in now.

Trade-in value of your present car will never be higher than it is now
That's right! Every day you wait, your present car is worth less and less. Now's the time to trade.
And we're the ones to trade with for top-dollar. Because we need used cars.
Why we're anxious to get your car
Once our present stock of new Chrysler's is moved out, we won't get any more. That's why—today—we're in a hurry to get our used car stocks filled out, so we can be all set later on. Because there's nobody unhappier than an automobile dealer without automobiles to sell.

We're inviting you to take the 100-Million-Dollar Ride today
If you've been waiting for a real buy on your new 1955 Chrysler Windsor V-8 or New Yorker... wait no longer! When these cars are gone, that's it!
Stop in today. Take the wheel and take off on Chrysler's 100-Million-Dollar Ride—the ride all America is talking about.
Then get the figures on your trade-in allowance... the best you'll find in town... and choose from our great selection of models and color combinations.
We think you'll agree, this truly is the greatest new-car buying opportunity of the year!

Son of Former Resident Dies in Cycle Accident

The son of a former Plymouth resident, Larry Hennie, 20, was killed Sunday evening near Grand Rapids. His mother is the former Margarite Gears, a graduate of Plymouth high school who lived here with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thatcher.

Larry was a passenger on a motorcycle which was involved in an accident. His home was in Lincoln Park.

Funeral services were held at the Peterson Funeral home in Lincoln Park. Interment was in Riverside cemetery in Plymouth.

Two Minor Fires Reported in Area

Two minor fires occurred this week in the area, one behind the Harvey Container plant and the other in a car parked in the Evans Products company lot.

The Harvey Container plant was answered by the city department at 12:30 p.m. Monday. Sparks from rubbish being burned outside the plant started rolls of paper burning. About a half dozen rolls were damaged, firemen said.

Township firemen extinguished the car fire at 4:11 p.m. Tuesday. It was believed that a cigarette had started the fire which smoldered for a long time before discovery. The back seat was badly burned and windows damaged, firemen reported.

To Advertise for Bids

City commissioners gave their authorization Monday night to advertise for bids on a water main and for seal coating of streets.

The water main is to be constructed to the proposed elementary school on Sheldon road. Bids will be opened on August 22 at 7:30 p.m.

City Manager Albert Glassford reported Monday night that he and Stanley Besse, city engineer, had completed a course on Municipal Public Works Administration conducted by the International City Managers association. A certificate was presented to each.

Firm Appoints Walsh New District Manager

3 Men Injured
 In Two Near-By Auto Smash-ups

Two Plymouth-area automobile accidents injured three persons during the past week as one youth received head lacerations and a broken nose, another suffered a broken leg and a third man sustained a bruised chest and arm.

Treated for a broken nose and head cuts at University hospital in Ann Arbor following his auto accident last Thursday afternoon was Robert Speers, 19, of 1185 West Ann Arbor trail. He was released following treatment.

Also injured in the same crash was Michael Hershey, 18, of 12176 Amherst court, who was treated for a broken leg at Sessions hospital in Northville. He is recovering at home. A second passenger in the Speer's car was Hershey's brother, Gordon, 24, who was uninjured.

The Speer's auto, a convertible, was reported to be traveling South on Beck road near North Territorial road when it went out of control and overturned. Sheriff's deputies described the car to be totally demolished.

In the second accident Hazen Longthorne, 212 Plymouth avenue, Northville, suffered bruises of the left arm and chest when the car he was driving Tuesday morning struck a bridge abutment on Northville road near Six Mile road and then skidded into the path of an oncoming automobile.

Longthorne, 53, is in Sessions hospital for X-rays and further examination.

According to sheriff's deputies, Longthorne stated that he did not feel too well prior to the time of the accident and may have passed out. He said that he did not know what had happened.

The driver of the second auto that struck Longthorne's car, Raymond Bernardi, 65, of 18233 Pennington, Detroit, was not injured in the collision. Bernardi explained to sheriff's officers that the Longthorne auto swerved out of control and slammed head-on into the bridge abutment.

It then slid across the dividing line and into the path of the Bernardi auto, he said. Damage to the Longthorne car consisted of smashed front and left rear portions, while the left front of the Bernardi vehicle was dented.

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Pino of Forest avenue had as their house-guests last week, their two grandchildren, Ruth and Jean Seestedt of Romulus.

He that ruleth over men must be just. Samuel 3:3

Pens Magazine Article

Edward Hart, secretary of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, is the author of an article appearing this month in "The American City" magazine.

Although it bears the by-line of Mayor William M. Armstrong of Independence, Iowa, it was written for the mayor by Hart while he was secretary of the Independence Chamber of Commerce.

Titled "Putting Youth Back Into Independence," it concerns the problem of keeping youngsters interested in their hometown so that they will return to be permanent residents.

mouth which now are drained out of the community by premium purchases through Detroit or other redemption centers.

Secondly, according to the organizers, it gives customers a much wider range in their selection of premiums or regular merchandise which they can purchase free with their local stamp books in any local participating store.

Finally, the plan when in operation, will be less costly to participating merchants, officers of the corporation say. Any local merchants not familiar with the plan are being invited to call the offices of Donald Sutherland and a member of the plan will gladly call and discuss the program. Names of the participating stores will be released by the company next week, officials stated.

Ibister told the group how anxious the school board is to obtain a sewer system. Mr. Hilbert, he pointed out, has already served notice that the proposed elementary school on Sheldon road cannot be opened in the fall of 1957 if there are no sewers. Imperviousness of the ground will not allow use of a septic tank.

Unless this school is opened at that time, children will be forced to attend school on half-day sessions, the superintendent asserted. He added that junior high school proposed for the southeast corner of Plymouth also will need a sewer outlet when it is completed in 1958.

Supervisor Lindsay served as chairman of the meeting. In closing he urged continued interest in the "already tardy" project.

Weekend guests for Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lorenz of Evergreen street were Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Roberts of Detroit.

Crew Jumps As Train Crashes
 Into Rear of Another on C & O

Two locomotives, a caboose and nine freight cars were derailed and heavily damaged Friday morning when a C & O freight train slammed into the rear of another just north of Northville.

Injured when he and other crew members jumped from the cab of their two-unit locomotive was George O'Leary of Saginaw. The mishap occurred at 6:10 a.m.

A 62-car trainload of sand had stopped on the track when a 61-car freight, traveling in the same southward direction, smashed into the caboose of the sand train. No blame has yet been fixed.

Two railroad cranes worked through the day to remove the wreckage while some of the other trains were re-routed.

The cranes lifted the two derailed engines while new tracks was laid underneath. Other cars were pushed to one side. The first traffic moved through at 9:30 p.m.

Chief of Police Lamont Begole of Novi township said that spectator traffic was so heavy during the evening that one-way traffic was enforced on near-by Nine Mile road. Novi township police were assisted by Oakland county deputies and railroad police.

This was the first serious mishap on the C & O in the area since last December when two train accidents occurred within 24 hours in Plymouth.

Cavalcade Inn, battling in the Michigan Softball-Michigan Recreation district softball tournament, last Monday defeated Casper's market from Garden City, 8-2, to advance to the final round of play in this post-season journey.

At the same time, the contest between the two other semi-finalists resulted in Michigan Gas from Ann Arbor turning back Jolee Bar from Garden City.

New Church To Hold Services In Grange Hall

Plans to start a Southern Baptist church in Plymouth, begun some three weeks ago, have developed to the extent that arrangements have been made to use the local Grange hall on Union street as the temporary place of worship for the nucleus congregation each Sunday.
Sunday school is held in the Union street building at 10 a.m. with worship services following at 11 a.m. and again at 3 p.m. Pastor of the Plymouth congregation is the Reverend Royall Martin of Ypsilanti.
The drive for the formation of the new church, sponsored by the First Southern Baptist church of Ypsilanti, got underway July 5. A series of nightly tent revival meetings were held on Lilley road north of Ann Arbor road over a period of four weeks.
From the seven-member group at the close of the revival meetings, the nucleus congregation has grown to 19 with an expected increase in number, said Reverend Martin. He added that such organizations as training unions, young people's and other groups, will be started within the near future.
A permanent location for the new church will be determined at a later date.

Who's New in Plymouth

FORMER PLYMOUTHITES, the Louis R. Mecks, enjoy getting back to their home town after a year's residence in San Diego, California. Toys and outfits picked up while living on the West Coast are displayed by their four youngsters, two-year-old Jane, Alice, 3, Mel and Paul, five and seven years old. The family moved into their 405 Irvin street home on June 24. Meck is a salesman at Berry and Atchinson, 874 West Ann Arbor road.

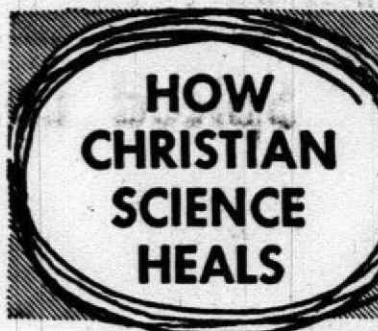

Scottish Teacher Talks to Rotary

A resident of Aberdeenshire, Scotland, a brother-in-law of Angus Diack, local cabinetmaker, was the speaker Friday before the Plymouth Rotary club. He is John Mitchell who, with his wife, is visiting the Diacks in their Detroit home.
It has been 26 years since Mr. Diack saw his brother-in-law and sister.
The speaker, who is a teacher, related some of the geography and history of his country and told of some of its problems. Landmarks and castles which date back before the discovery of America fills Scotland with tradition, the speaker pointed out, "so if we don't move at the same speed as you do in America, you know the reason."
Many of the old castles are falling into ruin because owners no longer have the money to keep them up, Mitchell declared, but an attempt is now being made to preserve them. He related how hydro-electric and housing projects are being conducted. Local authorities, he said, do the building of these housing projects and it creates a "serious financial problem."

Nationalization of railroads, mines and resources have also led to many problems, Mitchell added, and are not working out as well as expected. Transportation has already been returned to private hands. He also cited the labor troubles and unofficial strikes which leave hard feelings among the people.
As an educator, the speaker told how Scotland once led the world's education and how an attempt is now being made to regain this prestige. With the government looking upon education as a sound investment, they provide education beyond the secondary level.
Look for brown silks when you buy sweet corn, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Silks that are still green at the tips indicate corn that has not matured enough to have well-filled kernels and the best flavor.
It is easier to sit back and criticize the do-gooders than to do some good.

Jehovah's Witnesses To Sponsor Lecture

"Communism or Christianity" will be the subject of a public talk given by Mr. J. O. Bruce on Sunday, August 21, at 5:30 p.m. in Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses, 218 South Union street.
Following Mr. Bruce's talk, a Bible study in connection with Watchtower magazine will be held. The article "War from Heaven Brings Peace to Earth" from the July 15 issue will be discussed.

No Deal in Town Can Give You More Car for Your Money!

THERE'S only one sensible way to judge your best automobile buy—and that's to measure how much car you get for your money!
On every important point of motor car value, the 1955 Pontiac stands head and shoulders above any car in its class.
For example, a Pontiac with four-barrel 200-h.p. Strato-Streak V-8 is priced hundreds of dollars lower than any other car equalling its power!
Take the vital matter of wheelbase—so important to ride, comfort and stability—and you'll find Pontiac outmeasures any car anywhere near its price and many that are tagged at hundreds of dollars more. And here's a car so distinctively beautiful it's bound to stay in style for a long time to come.

Certainly all this adds up to a wonderful buy—especially when Pontiac prices fit so easily into any new-car budget. That's why Pontiac sales are at an all-time high!
This same record sales volume permits us to make trade-in allowances that can equal or beat any deal in town! So before you buy any car at any price—before you consider any deal on any car—remember this: When you deal with us for a big, powerful Pontiac, you start with a car that represents an unmatched value—and in addition you save still further from the most liberal trade-in policy in our history.

Come in and let us prove that our Pontiac deal is the best deal you can make!
*Optional at low extra cost.

Big Farm Show On This Week

A "talking tractor" — sporting the world's largest coon skin cap — will be one of the more unusual farm machinery exhibits at the Centennial of Farm Mechanization to be held August 15-20 at Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Known as "Davey, the Talking Tractor—King of the Farm Frontier", the unique machine will be a major attraction at the Centennial — which has been termed the "World's Fair of Agriculture." Davey is a huge papier-mache face with a mouth that speaks and eyes that roll, topped off by a coon skin cap made of more than a dozen pelts.

Youngsters and adults alike can step up to Davey and ask questions, which are answered by Davey's electronic "voice."

The Centennial of Farm Mechanization — expected to attract 500,000 spectators during its six-day run — is one of the major events being sponsored by Michigan State University to celebrate its 100th Anniversary. The University is America's oldest land-grant institution.

By the just we mean that which is lawful and that which is fair and equitable. —Aristotle.

Off With The Old!
The skipper's son had been watching his father at the wheel. Presently the man turned to the boy, "Take over the wheel for a second, lad," he said, "I must go and have a look at my charts." He paused and pointed to a distant star. "Steer by that and you will be all right," he added.

The boy grasped the wheel but very soon that boat was out of her course. Finally the star disappeared astern the vessel. The boy scratched his head in perplexity. "Hi Dad," he called, "come and find me another star! I've passed that one."

Cherry Hill Event Attended by 150

Rain failed to dampen the spirits of approximately 150 visitors who took in the Cherry Hill carnival Saturday afternoon at the church house of that area.

Proceeds from the event boosted the church treasury up $300 and provided an afternoon's entertainment for the entire family.

Highlight of the festivities, which started at 12 noon, was the crowning of Philip West of Ridge road as carnival king and Gail O'Donnell, Beck road resident, as its queen.

Besides the host of game events, featured attractions were pony rides for the kiddies, hot-dog stands, bake sales, lemonade, hot doughnuts-and-coffee booths, most of which were kept busy the entire afternoon. Hobby and antique shows interested many of the visitors while others participated in guessing contests and cake walks or stopped by the country store.

As the closing event to a busy afternoon, carnival goers were served a cafeteria roast-beef supper by the Ladies Aid society of the Cherry Hill church.

Mrs. Tanger Gives Favorite Salad Recipe

Here's a delicious summertime salad straight from the recipe files of Mrs. Roswell F. Tanger of 444 Irving, principal of Bird Elementary school.

A favorite of Mrs. Tanger's since she first came across the recipe some 10 or 12 years ago, "Cucumber Salad" is a refreshing accompaniment to almost any summer meal. And since this is the season when most of us can just step out the kitchen door and pick the main ingredient for this recipe right from our own gardens, we're sure you're going to find this dish a mighty handy one to include on family menus.

Following are the easy directions for whipping up Mrs. Tanger's favorite summer salad:

- "Cucumber Salad"
- 1 package of lime gelatin
 - ¾ cup of hot water
 - ¼ cup of lemon juice
 - 1 teaspoon of onion juice
 - 1 cup of sour cream
 - 1 cup of chopped, unpeeled cucumber
- Dissolve gelatin in hot water. Add lemon juice and onion juice. Chill until partially set. Fold in cream and cucumber. Pour into six oiled molds and chill.

Mrs. Roswell F. Tanger starts folding in the sour cream during the preparation of her favorite summer salad.

Children to Visit Miniature Farm At State Fair

Michigan's small fry will have a corner of the 1955 Michigan State Fair all to themselves. There'll be the Kiddies' Barn Yard and the Kiddies' Playland where the little people can enjoy all the attractions of the gigantic fair in miniature. The Kiddies' Barn Yard will be constructed on the site of the old Home Arts Building which was razed last summer. A complete small scale farmyard will be portrayed including a farm house, barn, silo and weather vane. The farm will be completely fenced in, and animal stalls will house farm animals of all types.

Young animals will be shown whenever possible — lambs, colts, calves, shoats, kids, rabbits and barnyard fowl, all supplied by 4-H club members in Michigan.

This feature, the original idea of general manager Donald L. Swanson, will enable parents to show all the farm animals to their children with a minimum of effort.

Right across the street will be the Kiddies' Playland which will feature miniature carousels, rocket ships, a 36 passenger coach pulled by a six palaming hitch, playground equipment and entertainment.

On the program are such things as turtle races, a Jumbo Jungle with elephants and monkeys, trained dog acts and other circus type acts to amuse the youngsters. The Playland will be supervised by the Southern Oakland County Girl Scouts at all times.

Both the Barn Yard and Playland are free attractions, offered through the cooperation of the Michigan State Fair, the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation and a number of Detroit industrial and commercial organizations.

We welcome the trend toward more adopted children; if a couple cannot have their own, they can bring good fortune to both themselves and a child by providing it a good home.

Banana Gelatin Salad Makes Perfect Sandwich Companion

August is the time to talk, and eat, sandwiches. It's National Sandwich Month. Do you need new sandwich recipes? Like as not, you've dozens of them. What's really puzzling is why you don't try them. It's not that you don't have the time, but that you don't have the ingredients. That's the problem, isn't it? Since a sandwich is practically a meal in itself, accompaniments come to pickles and potato chips, and such favorites.

For something different, try a shimmering and refreshing Banana Gelatin Salad. It goes with any sandwich you can name. It's simple to make, and it's a colorful refresher. You might like to mold mellow, sliced ripe bananas in delicate apple-flavored gelatin which has recently been introduced to market.

Banana Gelatin Salad
1 package fruit-flavored gelatin
2 ripe bananas
Mayonnaise, tart French Dressing or sour cream
Crisp salad greens

*Use fully ripe bananas... yellow peel flecked with brown. Mix gelatin according to package directions. Chill until slightly thickened. Partly fill 1 pint sized mold or 4 to 6 individual molds with gelatin. Peel bananas, slice and arrange on top of gelatin. Fill mold with remaining gelatin. Chill until firm. Unmold. Garnish with additional slices or ripe bananas or other fruit, if desired. Serve with mayonnaise, or a tart French-style salad dressing, or sour cream. Garnish with crisp salad greens. Make 1 large or 4 to 6 individual molds.

There's a handy use even for worn-out toothbrushes. Use them for scrubbing up your jewelry or applying cleaner to white shoes. They'll even clean the type on your typewriter, do the spatterwork on handmade Christmas cards and reach behind faucets and pipes to clean those almost inaccessible places.

Family Values Important, Says MSU Specialist

Whether they stop to think about it or not, parents do a lot of things just for the happiness of the family.

Mother automatically prepares and buys food which she knows her husband and children will enjoy. Father helps in the kitchen or in the yard after work to lighten the load of other family members.

Happiness, health, education (and many other ideas) are called values, says the head of the home management department at Michigan State university. Values, she says, are important to people and make them act as they do.

Because what you do is based on your values, it is important that parents give some concentrated thought to values. Sit down and ask yourself: What are my values? What basically do I want for my family?

In this world of today where so many of the used-to-be family activities are carried on outside of the home, many family values are being overlooked. For example, it has been pointed out that the value of holding a family together was formerly secured by the family pastime of churning ice cream. Now we save time and energy by running to the corner and buying it and we lose the fun and "togetherness" had by making it as a family. Here we have substituted the value of holding the family together for speed and convenience. But she questions, is it worth it?

"We are constantly making decisions like this one," she continues, "and what is right for one family may be right or wrong for another. The only way you can know is to make an effort to decide what your family values are. Then decide what your family can do to set up lines of action which will lead to these values."

Necklaces Highlight Fall, Winter Fashions

The new fall and winter jewelry looks wonderful! Reds and pinks together are exciting in big, bold-cut stones.

Clear, clash colors are becoming more popular. Chandelier-type jewelry will be found not only in earrings but massive, beautifully-worked necklaces. These necklaces will be an outstanding fashion note.

In jet, crystal, pearls the drippy look is it. Specially-designed jewelry for wear in the back of your costume is being created. Many of the new designs have detachable parts to make possible a variety of arrangements.

Large pearls are going to be worn with evening and morning clothes. Large, round, dull-finish pearls worn with one of the new stand-away type necklaces will be very fashionable.

A PLATTER of crispy Coffee-Lace Wafers and a tall glass of frosted coffee — that's all you need to celebrate a summer's afternoon in high style.

Coffee-Lace Wafers -- Delicious Treat for Special Occasions

It's hard to find really unusual cookies for serving on especially elegant occasions. Well, here's a suggestion that should meet every requirement — Coffee-Lace Wafers. They're decorative as lace and full of flavor — that old favorite coffee-flavor, no less.

Despite their elegance, Coffee-Lace Wafers are quickly and easily made. The man of the house loves to find such treats as these in the cookie tin when he goes in search of a small, crunchy bit to eat with his coffee. And the children will love them for their crispness and flavor.

Of course, when we say "with coffee" these days, it usually means iced coffee. If iced coffee is your choice, too, please remember to make it good and strong. Brew your coffee double-strength to allow for dilution by melting ice. If you use regular ice cubes, let the coffee cool first, or use coffee ice-cubes made from coffee left over from breakfast.

Frozen Jam Can Save Cook Time, Energy

It's the berries — frozen raspberry jam, that is. Because it is not cooked, the jam (it can be made from frozen or fresh fruit) must be kept frozen, for long storage or refrigerated for short storage.

With frozen jam you need no longer spend long summer hours over boiling kettles to save fruit when it is ripe. Now you can freeze the fruit and make up the jam as needed by the family and as the job fits your schedule.

The Human Nutrition laboratories of the U.S. Department of Agriculture developed the jam to increase the use of fresh fruit. It has undergone practical home-kitchen testing in which home-makers made the jam in their own kitchens and then sent samples to the laboratory for testing.

Home economists describe the jam as having delicious fresh-fruit flavor, bright natural red color and a texture jellied just enough to hold its shape and spread well. And the making of it is so easy and quick.

Almost any fruit can be used for frozen jam. In making raspberry jam, the fruit would be crushed and the sugar added. After allowing it to stand until the sugar was completely dissolved, you add the pectin — either powdered or liquid.

After letting the pectin, sugar and fruit mixture stand a few minutes, it is ready to be ladled into jelly glasses. Then let it stand at room temperature 24-48 hours or until jellied. Seal it with hot paraffin, cover and store in the freezer.

For proportions of ingredients needed for different fruits, see your home demonstration agent in your county extension office.

Expert Gives Tips on Care Of Fall Cottons

Summer and fall cotton dresses are sporting those rich, dark shades of browns, greens, blacks and blues. Keeping your wardrobe of dark cottons fresh and lintless-looking may be quite a chore for you. Here are some helpful pointers in helping them keep that newly-bought look:

Most important, says a clothing expert, is to wash the dark cottons alone or with other dark garments. If you use soap, be sure the water is soft in both the washing and rinsing tubs. Then you will have no scum accumulating from using soap in hard water. And always use a synthetic detergent in hard water.

Another suggestion from the specialist is to darken the starch bath by putting bluing into the hot water before adding the starch mixture. But be sure there are no lumps and be sure to squeeze the fabric through the solution instead of dipping it.

You can avoid that "shiny look" on dark cottons by ironing them on the wrong side. Put a covering of smooth fabric like chintz over the ironing board cover, so the garment being ironed doesn't pick up fuzz from the cover. When you must press it on the right side, use a press cloth. The press cloth should have a hard finish so that it, too, does not leave its line on the dark cotton.

Moths Shun Clean Duds

Another fellow who likes the warm summer weather is Mr. Moth who may be enjoying a meal on your good winter woollens as you bask on the beach. Clean fabrics are not found on a moth's menu, however. Dirty, dusty materials, according to the research and educational center of the laundry industry, are the favorite foods of this well-known insect who thrives in the summer months. Clean fabrics do not wet Mr. Moth's appetite, and laundries today mothproof woollens such as blankets and pack them in cellophane or ploidium bags for safe, clean storage.

Finally, there's always instant coffee, which makes a delicious brew with a minimum of fuss and bother.

COFFEE-LACE WAFERS
2 teaspoons instant coffee
1 cup sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup sugar
1/2 cup molasses
1/2 cup shortening

Mix and sift first 4 ingredients. Heat molasses to boiling point. Add shortening and stir until melted. Add flour mixture slowly, stirring constantly. Drop by teaspoons, 3 to 4 inches apart, on greased cookie sheets. Bake in moderate oven, 350° F., 8 to 10 minutes. Let cool about one minute. Remove each wafer with a wide spatula and roll quickly around handle of wooden spoon. Slide off quickly, seam side down, onto a wire rack to cool. If wafers cool too much to roll, return to oven for a minute or two to soften. Makes about four dozen.

THIS SMALL PLAY PATIO, which took William Killion of 345 Parkview drive, about two weeks to build in his back yard, provides ideal play area for the three Killion youngsters pictured here. From left are Jimmy, 7, Billy, 6, and Peggy, 3. Discarded shipping crates furnished the material for the surrounding fence, sand box and also several flower boxes and flower shelves not in the picture. It was estimated that Killion, who works full-time at Whittman and Barnes in the sales department, spent about $40 for material used in the patio's construction. Further plans call for a cement floor and a border of flowers around the patio. Killion built the fence panels separately and then, after installing the supporting fence posts, assembled the panels to form the fence proper. He had never done any carpentry work of this sort before.

Besides its practicality, ceramic or quarry tile on floors adds a note of pleasant coolness in warm summer days. In fact, the hosing down of a quarry terrace will keep the surrounding temperature down several degrees for some time. In the winter, the same tile floor can serve as one of the best conductors for radiant heating.

Homes Get Best Care In History Real Estate Board Head States

The homes of America are now being given the best care in history, Clyde E. Alexander, president of the Western Wayne County Board of Realtors, said today.

"Home owners and occupants are spending nearly as much for home improvements annually as others are spending for the purchase of new homes," the board leader said. "The annual outlay for new residential construction last year was estimated at $12 billion.

"Much of this expenditure for repairs and remodeling has gone toward improvement of neglected houses of the cities. Individuals, community organizations, and local governments are all part of this unprecedented housing rejuvenation.

"Cities have always recognized the need for protecting the lives and health of their citizens. But they now see, in addition, the necessity of overcoming apathy to do so. In short, our urban communities are awakening to the need for firm enforcement of adequate housing codes. Where their codes are inadequate, they are taking steps to bring them up to usefulness.

"The result is that the record-breaking total of 237 cities are now actively engaged in enforcing housing and sanitary codes, according to the Build America Better Council of the National Association of Real Estate Boards.

"This enforcement usually means that improvements of the individual home units are required — in some cases, bathrooms must be installed by the owners, tottering porches are replaced, shaky timbers reinforced, and modern plumbing and heating equipment is installed in place of outmoded items," Alexander said.

In addition, our Build America Better program urges that housing rehabilitation be linked with neighborhood-wide improvement where needed. Some cities are already carrying out this coordinated work. Schools are brought up to physical standards, streets and street lighting facilities are made adequate, garbage collection services are improved, and some unfit houses are demolished to make way for playgrounds in a rehabilitation neighborhood.

"This wave of housing and community improvement demonstrates that private and community action can meet the challenge of urban decay and provide adequate low-cost housing for all."

Today's do-it-yourself era has brought on the use of the easy, even-spreading paint rollers, made of the new science fiber, Dynel. A satisfying job can be done on a room in just 3 hours.

Silicones are actually man-made modifications of sand, although some prefer to refer to this parentage as quartz.

Here Are a Few Suggestions To Help Solve Your Household Storage Problems

No matter what the size of the home or the requirements of the family, the need for additional storage space is always present.

With this thought in mind, furniture today has been designed with planned storage compartments. These features are a part of most case pieces and are available in any style desired. Valuable storage can be found in tables, chest of drawers, room dividers, bookcase headboard beds, mobile trundle beds, buffets, commodes and serving carts. No space is wasted.

Some of the larger clothing chests of drawers resemble buffets and are equipped with storage compartments to hold shirts, lingerie, blouses, sweaters, as well as the standard dresser drawers. They are flexibly styled and fit well in the bedroom, dining room, or living room. Some smaller storage chests are designed with low-slung lines. With the addition of cushions in attractive accent colors, they can be lined up smartly under windows for both storage and seating anywhere in the house.

The versatility of the small chests, with many drawers, should not be overlooked. They too, have a wealth of utility. Equipped with handles, they are easily moved and are scaled to be used as the bedside, chairside, or as an attractive wall piece.

Cedar chests, styled like console television sets, live well in any room. For a smaller home or apartment, there is a two-in-one storage chest. This has one drawer lined with cedar for storing woolens.

The bookcase headboard and matching night stand combination provide the luxurious feeling of having everything at the fingertip. They hold blankets, pillows, books and a radio. One group features a night stand with a sliding shelf for writing or phoning.

Rivaling the bookcase headboard is the bookcase footboard. Although smaller in size, this innovation has all the features of its headboard counterpart.

If you have a storage problem, large or small, the solution is sure to be found in today's furniture fashions. Look over the furniture displays during late summer and early fall. This is the time when the latest furniture fashions are introduced for you, the home-maker.

Lower Level Space Rises to New Demand For Family Recreation, Entertaining Guests

Time was when the basement would be just about the most unlikely place in the house for the family to spend an evening together or to entertain guests.

In many of today's homes, however, the clutter of never used odds and ends and the starkness of bare walls and exposed framing have given way, and in their place has emerged an invitingly furnished and decorated haven that is specialized for fun — the recreation room.

The basement is still a place for utility and some orderly storage, but workaday purposes are secondary. Its new decor reflects the fact that the basement now is as much a part of the living area as any room upstairs — if not more so.

While basement walls and ceilings may look like those of a den or living room, they can at the same time be rugged enough to withstand the buffeting of energetic youngsters. Combining decoration and practicality, a much used material for recreation rooms is Marlite plastic-finished paneling.

This modern paneling offers a choice of authentic wood grain and marble patterns and a wide range of plain colors, including "companion colors" that make interesting combinations easy. The beauty of the panels is guarded by a baked plastic finish which defies moisture, dirt, impact, wear and other abuse, and damp wipes clean. Its base is tough, tempered hardboard.

The home handy man who wants to build a basement recreation room will find Marlite tongue-and-groove planks and blocks especially simple to apply. Also available are large sheets that cover areas quickly. The paneling, with matching moldings, is sold at lumber yards.

From the least lived-in part of the house to the most lived-in is a typical transformation that takes place in a basement when it's converted into an attractive recreation room. It's a cool retreat in summer and a cozy one in winter, for chats, television, games and refreshment. The pleasant setting here is created by paneling walls and ceiling with Marlite, a plastic-finished hardboard. Prima vera grain paneling covers stairway walls, stair risers, bar and built-in storage drawers. Other walls are decorated in two shades of gray block and aqua plank.

A continuous line of closets through the center of this attractive house serves as a sound barrier between the bedrooms across the rear and the living area in front. There should be no problem of storage here, with eight closets provided for coats, linen and wardrobes, and two extra hall closets for general use. The kitchen, in the popular front location, has a corner sink and windows and a large area. Plans also include a large living room, three bedrooms, bath at full basement. Exterior finish calls for wide siding, asphalt shingles, a wide eave overhang, picture window and flower box. Floor area is 1064 square feet, with cubage of 20,748 cubic feet. HOME OWNERS' QUESTION BOX

Question: I want to put knotty pine paneling around my dining room walls about 36 inches high. Do you have any information available for this type of project? H.Z. Syracuse, New York.

Question: Would you be so kind as to send me information regarding breaking up large rocks that cannot be broken with a sledge hammer? An economical way, of course. R.H., Hastings, New York.

Answer: First remove the shoe-mold quarter-round at the bottom of the baseboard. Then nail a 1x3-inch strip at the 36-inch line around the room. Keep it absolutely level, and nail into the wall studs. Now place the knotty pine boards against the baseboard and this 1x3 strip, and nail through the tongue side top and bottom. The groove of the next board covers the nails. Start at a doorway and go right on around the room. Across the top of the paneling and strip, apply a chair rail molding which your lumber yard probably has in stock. You can put down a new shoe-mold at the base if you wish, or omit this trip if the floor is not uneven enough to leave cracks beneath the boards.

Answer: There is no easy way to break up large rocks except by use of dynamite in holes drilled with a pneumatic hammer. You can drill 3/4-inch diameter holes with a hammer, and start drill 1/3 through the rock at its least dimension, then insert two small steel wedges with a larger one between which is driven down. This splits the rock along the line of the hole. In wide rocks drill two such holes in line across the face, insert wedges in both, and drive down alternately on the central wedge in each hole, until the rock is cracked.

The paint roller and tray have today become important tools for the amateur home decorator.

THANK GOD!
THE VICTORY IS OURS!
THE WAR IS OVER!

(By Elton R. Eaton)

Peace has descended over the world, a world dripping with blood. The most horrible war of all times is ended — with truth, honor, decency, and faith the victors.

Soon one thousand or more Plymouth young men will come marching home to join their parents, their wives and babes, their friends, to start life anew. Throughout all America there will be millions of these young men taking up life where they left off when they shouldered arms to defend their homes and their country.

There will be some — very many — who will never come home. They made the supreme sacrifice so that the world might once more live in peace and happiness.

Because of what they did and what the returning fighters in the Army, the Navy, the Marines, the Seabees and the air forces did, we are now able to face a new world filled with overflowing opportunities for progress and happiness such as mankind never before possessed.

Hatreds have been crushed to earth. The superman idea has been blown to bits by American science.

The world is now at peace, and in that peace we face a new frontier filled with more opportunities and more happiness than we have ever known. But we must WORK for it in mutual understanding. Good will must take the place of snarling bickerings and there must be on the part of all, a kindly fellowship such as has not prevailed in any country in past generations.

There is so much work to do, so much good to accomplish, that every man, woman and child will be busy almost night and day for years to come in order to put the troubled old world back into running order.

The war is over. Peace has descended on earth. Let's thank God, and then work to keep the world moving forward in harmony and contentment.

Soviet Seminar at UofM Reveals Some of Red's Present Problems

Various aspects of life in the Soviet Union were outlined by experts on the USSR for University of Michigan students in a Russian-studies seminar this summer.

Visiting speakers included Herbert Block from the U. S. Department of State, Prof. John N. Hazard of the Russian Institute, Columbia University; Robert D. Hicks, Lt. Col. USAF Air Command and Staff College; Prof. Walter W. Rostow, Center for International Studies, Massachusetts Institute of Technology; and Lazar Volin, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Block spoke on the Soviet economy, stating that the philosophy behind it was one of "power before welfare" with six per cent growth per year in rate of production. He gave several reasons why their economy moves faster than ours, including the facts that centralized investments play a big part and heavy industry receives 43 per cent of these investments.

A 48-hour week and a majority of their labor force in industry are two other factors influencing Russia's rapid economic advancement. He labeled the economy "a pressure cooker," citing agriculture as the weakest part because of poor soil and climate, erratic agricultural policy and lack of incentive among the farmers.

"Housing is also a sore point in Russia," Block declared, adding that each person is allotted about 45 square feet, less than the space in a cell of a U.S. prison.

Some further remarks on agriculture came from Volin, who pointed out that only 10 per cent of Soviet soil is tillable. This compares with a U.S. figure of 25 per cent, and when pasture land is included in the comparison, the Soviet total becomes only 25 per cent while the U.S. figure rises to 65 per cent.

And, said Volin, even less favorable than the soil is the climate in Russia. Short growing periods, freezing winters, lack of rainfall, all make the lot of Soviet farmers harder, he pointed out.

In addition, of the 90 thousand collective farms in Russia, about 30 thousand are inefficiently managed, he declared. Introduction of farm practices from central party offices, regardless of local needs or special problems; untimely farm operations; late sowing and delayed harvesting contribute to making the problem acute.

Speaking on another phase of the USSR, the new Soviet elite, Professor Rostow pointed out that the present rulers are not young hotheads, but are old men who have much to conserve for their comfort in the communist system which war would destroy. He expressed the belief that there is better than a 50-50 chance of avoiding a third world war.

But, he cautioned, we mustn't expect the Soviet system to grind to a halt under pressure of internal problems. "An enemy's society doesn't drop dead on your behalf," he said, and expressed the opinion that the arms race, not agriculture, was posing the biggest problem for the Soviet.

Referring to a free arms inspection pact, Professor Rostow pointed out that Soviet leaders know this freedom would mean the end of the Iron Curtain and thus of their political and social control over the USSR.

Social Security Marks 20th Year

The Detroit-Northwest Social Security office, 14600 Grand River avenue, will participate in the nationwide observance of the twentieth anniversary of the enactment of the original social security law, Harry Baltuck, District Manager, announced today.

The Social Security Act became law on August 14, 1935. At that time, only about one worker in ten was covered by any retirement system, and only about one worker in twenty by a public retirement program," Baltuck said. As of July of this year, 104,000 persons in Wayne County were receiving a total of $6,034,000.00 monthly in old-age and survivors insurance payments.

Pointing out that 9 out of 10 people who work for a living can now look forward to retirement benefits under the old-age and survivors insurance program, Baltuck said that the original law provided only old-age protection. It applied to some 33 million workers in commerce and industry. The 1935 amendments added payments for dependents of retired workers and for the survivors of workers who died.

It was not until 1951 that coverage was extended to the self-employed, and to certain employees of non-profit organizations, regularly employed domestic and farm workers, and some employees of Federal, State, and local governments. Ten million more workers were brought under the program through the 1954 amendments which extended coverage to self-employed farmers, most farm employees and workers in private households, and certain self-employed professionals.

Protection was also made available to ministers and members of religious orders. "About 67 million persons will earn this protection for themselves and their families during 1955," Baltuck declared.

It is surprising how much can be done with a smile and a helping hand.

LETTERBOX

July 10, 1955
To the boys who laughed at my son:

Dear boys,
This is to you who were in The Stop and Shop last week where I was shopping with my crippled son.

It took me more than a week to decide to write this letter. At first when you laughed at my little boy, I was hurt, then just plain mad!

I was taught as a child not to ridicule a handicapped person as my own little girls are now being taught. I thought that big boys of sixteen or seventeen would know better and perhaps if I told you about my son you would understand that there is nothing to laugh at.

Jerry is a victim of Cerebral Palsy — a C.P.

Cerebral Palsy is a condition of the brain which interferes with the control of the muscles. It is a condition, not a disease and cannot be "caught." It may happen before birth, after birth from the after-effects of such diseases as scarlet fever, measles, whooping cough, and meningitis, or it may result from injury to the brain caused by accidents, high fever or a stroke. Or, as in my son's case, it may happen during birth — the highest cause being lack of oxygen to the brain during birth.

Most C.P.'s have a normal or above normal intelligence and should be treated as a normal person.

There is no "cure" for Cerebral Palsy. Any improvements come from proper treatment of which the aim is to help the victim to use his hands, use his legs and to talk so that he can become self-sufficient. The methods of treatment include physical therapy, occupational therapy, speech therapy, braces, drugs, and occasionally surgery.

My son is an athetoid, one of the five types of Cerebral Palsy. An athetoid's main problem is relaxation. Some part of his body is in constant movement at all times unless he is asleep.

Jerry is a severe case, and one of the few who are hopeless. He is as helpless as a newborn baby and has difficulty in everything he does — even breathing is hard for him. He can hardly swallow and takes from one half hour on very good days to two or even three hours to eat one meal.

When he gets excited his body gets stiff and makes him even harder to care for. Sometimes it takes both his father and I to bend him and put him in his special chair in which he is propped, braced, and strapped from head to feet to enable him to sit. When he is stiff, he is hard to dress and sometimes I cannot get shoes on his feet.

Despite the pain that he is suffering a great deal of the time, Jerry is a very good little boy. He always has a smile on his face for anyone who talks to him, and he sits or lays long hours without complaining.

The day I took him shopping was one of his "bad days," and he was very hard to hold. He caught sight of a fan in the bakery and it made him so excited that his arms and legs thrashed wildly around, and as he is big and I am small it probably struck you as very funny.

Believe me, it wasn't funny to me who has watched him suffer for six years, or to his father who was pushing a cart, doing the shopping and watching two active little girls.

Maybe you've never seen a child like mine and didn't understand what a tragic thing Cerebral Palsy is. I hope this letter will help you to think more carefully when you see a C.P. or any other handicapped person, for that matter and conduct yourselves in a better and more understanding manner.

And remember, boys, it could happen to you!

Sincerely,
Mrs. Gerald Hepler
Wayne, Michigan

Goodwill Trucks Here this Monday

Persons wishing to contribute household discards to help the handicapped employees at Goodwill Industries are asked by Miss Edith Sorenson, local telephone representative, to be certain that it is the Goodwill truck which makes the pick-up. "All Goodwill trucks are a bright red color with the name of the organization painted in large white letters on the side," Miss Sorenson said.

Since Goodwill trucks do not make door to door solicitations, the drivers stop only at homes where a request has been made in advance to Miss Sorenson. Persons who do not expect to be home when the pick-up is made may leave their discards near their rear door. Items to be taken should be plainly marked for Goodwill Industries.

The next regularly scheduled pick-up by the Goodwill trucks in Northville, Plymouth, and Roseale Gardens will be on Monday, August 22. Anyone with clothing, shoes, toys, small appliances and other household articles to be contributed may arrange for a pick-up by calling Miss Sorenson at Northville 571.

Household discards are used by Goodwill Industries to provide jobs and training for 400 physically handicapped men and women in the Detroit Goodwill workshops.

Flying Farmers To Select Queen

A Michigan farm wife, mother of five, will be one of 30 candidates for the title of Queen of the Flying Farmers, as the group confers this week at Michigan State University.

The queen of the Michigan Flying Farmers and the crown's entry for the national contest is Mrs. Raymond Wheeler, of Davisburg. Mrs. Wheeler and her husband, who is president of the Michigan Flying Farmers, operate a dairy farm near Davisburg. More than 1,000 flying farmers and their families are conferring this week at Michigan State for their 10th annual national meeting. The queen will be announced Aug. 19.

The national group is helping Michigan State observe its centennial and to celebrate its Centennial of Farm Mechanization exposition.

OUTDOOR NOTES From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

State park attendance is up a whopping 12 per cent this year from the record-breaking season of 1954.

And camping in the parks has increased nearly 20 per cent from last year.

A Conservation Department summary to August 1 shows that 11,119,000 persons visited the state's 58 parks and recreation areas to that date. A total of 54,000 campers pitched tents and parked trailers.

To August 1 last year, parks entertained 9,836,000 visitors and 44,000 campers.

The total attendance for 1954 was 15,200,000; an estimated 17,000,000 are expected to use the parks before the end of this year.

Michigan's 4,000 hunting and fishing license dealers will receive 1,500,000 deer and small game hunting licenses in the next six weeks.

Conservation Department shipments to the dealers will start this week and continue through the first two weeks of September. The shipment is larger than any made in any other state or any Canadian province. Even for Michigan, it will be a record year, slightly above last year.

Two bears were captured in Cusino wildlife station live-traps during the weekend.

Three others were captured in July.

All were tagged and released as part of a continuing Conservation Department study of bear habits.

Nine more wild turkey brood observations were recorded in the Allegan area in July, raising to 16 the total seen this year.

Game workers emphasize, however, there is no way of telling how many of these observations were duplicates.

"Out of this observed total," says S. C. Whitlock, in charge of game research, "there may have been only three or four actual broods."

In any case, wild turkeys appear to be taking hold in the forest — at least temporarily.

Other earlier turkey rearing experiments made in Alcona and Midland counties continued for a few years, looked prosperous, then died out.

The present Allegan experiment could follow this pattern, although game workers say habitat and weather conditions are more favorable and that over-all, the Allegan experiment has better chance of succeeding.

Releases were made in Midland county in 1919-20 and bird traces were seen as late as 1925. Releases were made in Alcona county in 1938 and 1942, but after a few years, all birds disappeared.

Deer damaged 80 young cherry and apple trees on the farm of William Dalton, one mile east of Fennville, recently.

The damage complaint was another indication of growing deer numbers in the southern lower peninsula.

Conservation Department field workers investigated the damage.

Conservation authorities report that the cause of the recent big forest fire near Luzerne is unknown and the investigation is closed.

The fire burned 500 acres and a dozen hunters' cabins and out-buildings in Huron national forest on July 14. It was the largest single blaze to hit Michigan in at least three years.

U.S. Forest Service and state Conservation Department officials cooperated in the investigation.

To date this year, reported forest fires have burned 5,086 acres of Michigan forests and grasslands. The total does not include fires on federal forest lands.

Cavalcade Moves Up in MSA-MRA Action As 3 Other Local Teams Fail

From second-place finishers in the local recreation class "A" Open softball league to semi-finalists in the MSA-MRA class "B" district softball tourney... that's the title the local Cavalcade Inn softball squad claims this week by virtue of three straight victories in the district play-off.

Cavalcade has hung around through the elimination of 28 of the original 32 teams entered in the class "B" tournament. At the outset of this week Cavalcade remained among the four finalists in the district play-off.

The three other teams were Casper's Market from Garden City, Jolee Bar from Garden City and Michigan Gas from Ann Arbor.

The local entry in the action, Cavalcade, turned in a decisive 7-0 win over Picard from Dearborn in the first round of play. Then followed a pair of tight edgings over Diamond's from Monroe, 3-2, and then Y. P. C. from Dearborn, 1-0.

Last Monday the Innmen faced Casper's in the semi final round of play.

The three other Plymouth class "A" Open league teams competing in their respective divisions in the large MSA-MRA (Michigan Softball Association - Michigan Recreation Association) district tourney were quickly eliminated.

Beglinger Olds, season champs in the local "A" loop, were nosed down by Unistrut from Wayne in the opening round of play in class "A" of the district tourney.

Evans products lost in the first round of battling in class "B" when Century from Lincoln Park turned back the locals 4-3. The Box-Eagles were stopped in the second round of play in class "B" district action as Michigan Bell from Ann Arbor tipped them up, 3-2. Earlier the Eagles had beaten Chelsea from the Manchester league, 3-2, in the first round.

Cavalcade started its winning ways easily in the opening round as Picard bowed 7-0. Lowe's two-hitter completely shackled Picard, whose losing hurler was J. Lindenmuth.

Then against Diamond in the second pairings, the Innmen were forced to go eleven innings in order to gain the nod. In the top of the eleventh, Diamond plated two runs to surge into a 2-0 lead after the two teams were second scoreless at the end of regulation play.

But in the bottom half Cavalcade pulled some real theatrics to grasp the decision. Lowe's lead-off single was followed by Travis' walk after Gray had grounded out. Then Jesky slashed a triple down the right field line to score both Lowe and Travis easily. But Travis spilled the Diamond catcher, who was reaching for the relay that would have trapped Jesky, coming home to score. The ball sailed past the catcher's head as Travis tipped him up and Jesky, already on his way in, had

"E" Champs Win In District Action

On the strength of an 8-5 win over Wayne in the class "E" district tourney, Davis and Lent moved into battling in the state tournament last week. The locals met their first opponent in the state play-off Tuesday in Pontiac. The win over Wayne, which sent the locals up the ladder into state play, came behind the careful four-hit pitching of Robert Jenkins. Jenkins was backed up solidly by his team-mates, who slammed out 13 hits.

Earlier Davis and Lent copped the "E" league local area championship, when Samhat Market bowed humbly, 19-1. The game was called due to darkness and D & L's soaring scoring at the end of the fourth frame. Cloar's home run clout in the third provided proper margin of victory for Myron Hopper, who limited Samhat to one single, that coming in the third frame. It was Hopper's fourth win of the year.

no trouble scoring the winning run.

Cavalcade engaged in another nip-and-tuck tilt in the third round, when Y. P. C. from Dearborn provided the locals with their opposition. The final score was 1-0 favoring the Innmen as both clubs managed to tally only five hits between them.

Cavalcade plated the only run of the contest in the fourth when Jesky, as lead-off batter, was put on base as a result of being hit by a pitched ball. Wellman fanned, but Loudeau sent out a long double that drove Jesky home with the winning run.

Lowe, who had already notched the two earlier Cavalcade wins, limited the Diamond team to only two hits and faced a total of 23 batters. Loser was Wells.

This MSA-MRA district tourney, with a number of the games being played on the local softball diamond, has taken precedent over any other league post-season play-offs. That is why the action in the local class "A" and class "B" leagues has been slowed to nothing this past week.

With the completion of the district tournament, battling will resume as usual in the two local softball play-offs.

Rains Cut Action In Sandlot Loop

Perhaps the rain, which washed out all action in the Inter-County sandlot baseball league last Sunday, was favorable for the Plymouth Merchants, the local entry in the loop.

The deluge prevented the Merchants, who are deep in the league's standings with a 5-win and 9-loss record, from doing battle with Dietrich Buick from Wayne. Dietrich is in the loop's second place slot.

But at the same time the downpour prevented the locals from a try at improving upon their mediocre season standing. They now are settled in a tie for sixth place in the league with neighboring Northville, who holds an identical 5 and 9 card.

The Merchants are scheduled to play two more games before the league's play-offs get underway early in September. Next Sunday the Plymouth nine will meet Northville in what probably will decide final possessor of the sixth rung on the loop's ladder of teams. Northville has already whipped the locals in previous battling.

The close-out contest of the current campaign for the Merchants comes the following Sunday, when Wallaceville provides the locals with the opposition. Wallaceville has straggled along in the depths of the league all season. It presently claims a 3-win and 11-loss standing.

Game time for the Plymouth vs. Northville tilt is 3:00 p.m. this Sunday at the diamond in Riverside park. The Wallaceville contest the following Sunday will also be played on the Riverside field. With too little time remaining to re-schedule the Dietrich-Plymouth match, which was just rained out, it is presumed that the contest will be cancelled.

Standings to date in the Inter-County league are as follows:

TEAM	WON	LOST
Garden City	9	2
Dietrich	11	3
Hargraves	9	3
Allen Park	11	4
Grandale	8	5
Plymouth	5	9
Northville	5	9
Wallaceville	3	11
Lincoln Park	2	11

Playground Notes

Theme of 'Frontier Week' Featured at Playgrounds

GREENMEADOWS

The youngsters at Greenmeadows play area last week had final sessions in arts and crafts, spatter painting, finger painting and bracelet making as the season for playground activities neared a close.

Stories were told the other boys and girls by Larry Hoser, Ricky Geans and Sherry Burton. Everyone enjoyed listening to the different tales.

Kick ball was also one of the games that the children participated in during the seventh week of the play program. Everyone practiced kicking and throwing the ball for the playground games. The boys won the most games.

This week, the final one of the summer, the playground had a picnic with the mothers. It was completion of plans for a picnic that had been cancelled earlier.

The playground baseball club won the majority of its games and congratulations were made to the players on the team for their fine showing.

SMITH

With the return of good weather, Smith playground is once more bubbling with children and the many activities. A group of the children made a trip through Greenfield Village last week, where they were under the direction of Supervisor Sally Black.

In keeping with the theme of "Frontier Week" a group of boys from the playground built a frontier fort in one of the play areas adjoining fields.

STARKWEATHER

On Monday of last week the members of Starkweather play area began activities with a treasure hunt. Clues leading to the treasure were found down the big steps, near the fire hydrant, under the zell-ball game and many other places.

On Tuesday the big attraction was the trip to Greenfield Village, where 21 of the boys and girls traveled. Included in the group were Carl and Carol Glass, Jimmy and Jerry Lee, Denny Robertson, Peter Walton, Dick Freeman, Otto and Elizabeth Dobos, Pat Brewer, David Raaf-lab, Tom and Jim Hadwin, Danny Stremich, Chris McMullen, John and David Cook, Larry Dyer, David Millross and Bob Wilson.

On Wednesday Dick Freeman and Peter Walton led their teams in playing Storm the Fort behind the school in the woods by the park. The Indians and the Pioneers staged fierce battles in trying to overthrow the Wigwags and Log Cabins. The Indians, with their chief Red Top Freeman, and braves Otto Dobos, Marjorie Johnson, Bob and Bill Freeman, Jack Ranson, Jerry Lee, Timmy Yoe, Danny Cook, Bob Wilson, Laura Raaf-lab, Christine McMullen and Larry Dyer made many attempts at scalping the Pioneers.

But finally they were repelled. Action in both of these season-end play-offs is scheduled for this week and next in order to eventually turn up top-honor teams in both loops.

Independents KO Wall Wire Nine In "B" Play-Off

Only action last week in the local recreation softball post-season play-offs was recorded in the class "B" Oldtimer's league as the Independents eliminated previously beaten Wall Wire, 3-2. The KO of the Wall Wire club leaves only four teams in the race for season-end honors in this loop.

Independents got off to a two-run lead in the top of the third frame on the strength of Riblett's double that scored Urban, who had gained base on an error, and Bowers' single that drove home Riblett.

Wall Wire matched these runs in the bottom of the sixth when two errors and Ronayne's double chased in a pair of scores. But the Independents wrapped the contest up in the seventh on two walks and Villero's double, plating Bowers.

Winning hurler was Villero, who won his own contest with the double in the seventh. Ronayne, who had kept himself in the battle with a two-bagger in the sixth, was tagged with the loss.

As a result of this elimination of the Wall Wire squad, four of the starting seven squads remain in the two-game knock-out tourney. They are Northville VFW with three straight wins and no losses, the Independents with two wins and one loss, season champion Daisy with one win and one defeat and Begliners with one win and one loss.

In the class "A" tourney, only Beglinger Olds with a two win and no loss card, and Cavalcade Inn, with a two win and one loss record, remain to do battle that will decide the post-season champion.

Action in both of these season-end play-offs is scheduled for this week and next in order to eventually turn up top-honor teams in both loops.

"F" Champs Move Into State Play

Champions in the local class "F" recreation baseball league this year, Fisher Shoes last week advanced to the first round of play in the state post-season tournament on the strength of two wins in the district tourney held earlier in Wayne.

The locals turned back Romulus, 17-5, and then nosed Wayne, 9-2, in order to advance up the ladder to higher play-off battling. As a result, Fisher Shoes will meet an entry from Jackson in the first round of action in the State tourney this week.

But earlier against Romulus in the district play-off, the locals exploded and rocked their first-round opponent for 18 hits and 17 runs as Ken Knipschild limited the Romulus team to only one hit. Romulus' four runs were all unearned.

Then against Wayne, Fisher Shoes erupted with six runs in the sixth inning to earn Knipschild, hurling with a sore arm, another easy victory. Fisher Shoes unseeded three Wayne twirlers for a triple, three doubles and a single in the big sixth, with the big blow being Wells' lead-off three-bagger.

Isn't it a refreshing sight to drive down Main street and see the results of the recent face lifting? Skeptics of the original plan certainly must agree that the finished product adds beauty, safety and a much faster flow of traffic to our main thoroughfare now that it is done. The Mayor, members of the City Commission and voters who gave approval for the improvement all are due a pat on the back for their farsightedness.

Along the same line of thinking we commend the Board of Supervisors for the fast action taken last week to place the problem of consolidation of the Township and the City squarely before the voters for a final decision. There are many thoughts on the pros and cons of this issue and we firmly believe that no one is entitled to say yes or no individually. Supervisor Roy Lindsay has no more right under our form of government to make a decision on an issue such as this alone, than does Mayor Russell Daane in his office. The decision belongs to the people who live in the two areas and who will be affected by the action.

It is the duty however of these two leaders to point out to the people their thoughts on the proposal in concrete, factual statements so that the voters may make their own decisions before entering the voting booths on November first and we shall be pleased to publish them.

Perhaps I am prejudiced in the matter, having resided in the community for 25 years I have been of the belief that some day one system of government would benefit the overall majority of our residents, more than the two units we have now. On the other hand I have talked to many of our newer residents now living in the township who take an entirely different view of the matter. This certainly is their privilege as it is the privilege of others in the outlying area to feel consolidation would be to their benefit.

However, in every conversation I have had with people in and out of the city all have said they hoped tempers wouldn't boil to the point over the issue where damage would be done that couldn't be repaired. "After all no matter what the outcome of the voting, we are all neighbors, and will all have to live together, attend Church together and participate in other community activities together," is the appropriate and sane way Deputy Prosecuting Attorney Ralph Garber summed up the situation to me in a nut shell last weekend.

His opinion I am sure, reflects the thinking of most of us. The Board of Supervisors took the action immediately because they, like the courts of the country, believe that in cases such as this it is the right of the people to choose that which they think will be the best for them.

It is our hope that all of the eligible voters of our 8,000 city residents and 5,000 township residents will study the problem seriously, sift out those things which reflect personalities then go to the polls on election day and cast their vote so it can be said the majority made the decision for the best interests of our community.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"If you were putting some money on the American League race, which team would you bet on?"

ROBERT STEVENSON, 323 Maple: "As far as I'm concerned, if Cleveland is leading now, they will win the pennant. They were down for a while and now that they've come up from behind, they'll go on to win."

CARSON COONCE, 15716 Maxwell: "I see where the odds on the Tigers have dropped from 40 to 1 to about 20 to 1 and I think they'll come in better than most people think, but they won't finish first. I think Cleveland has a better chance than any other team. I say that because that is what I hear and I have always been a Cleveland rooster."

ROBERT J. GRENEEN, Wyandotte: "I'd pick the Yanks. They have the spirit and have the push of Casey Stengel behind them. Other teams just don't have what the Yankees do."

F. G. COLE, 585 West Ann Arbor Trail: "I think Chicago will win. The White Sox have the strongest pitching and are stronger right down the middle. Pitching on the other teams, I believe, will soon fold."

Why Does School Board Take More Students Under Wing?

It may seem odd to some Plymouth area residents that the board of education should place nearly 200 additional students under its wings next fall by taking three Canton township school districts into the local district. The Plymouth Township system has its own problem of keeping classroom construction ahead of enrollment. Financially, the liabilities of accepting these three districts certainly must outweigh the credits.

But we must congratulate the board of education for looking at the problem of these three districts on a human basis instead of a financial basis. High school students in the Truesdell, Canton Center and Cherry Hill districts were already attending Plymouth high school under a tuition set-up. This left between 30 to 50 first through eighth grade children crowded into the one and two-room buildings.

It is apparent that this type of schooling cannot go on forever. In this day and age where more and more boys and girls are going to college and education is a prime requisite in obtaining good jobs, standards of secondary education must be raised. The old-fashioned school districts comprising a few square miles of farm land can't do the job because of the lack of evaluation needed behind each pupil.

One of the first things the school board did when they were asked to accept the three districts was to determine how far the "Plymouth community" extended. They found that most people in the three districts did their shopping here, went to church here and considered themselves a part of our general community, even though they ably administer their own township affairs. So it is then apparent that for the good of the Plymouth community, proper education should be afforded to those who will someday work and trade here.

It was perhaps not an easy thing for residents of the three districts to give up their own "community school." Much pride and sentiment can be built around a schoolhouse over a period of years. The buildings will remain in use under the Plymouth system, however, and some of this feeling can be retained.

We welcome our Canton township neighbors into the Plymouth Township School district and we believe that future years will confirm the wisdom of their decision.

It's Not Always Pilot Error

The average reader is often confused by official reports of aircraft accidents, which usually blame the pilot for committing an error and causing a fatal crash. Many of the accidents involving passengers and commercial airliners, these days, occur in bad flying weather.

Even so, most official reports state that the pilot made an error during an instrument approach, or some sort of instrument flight, thereby causing the accident. Sometimes, these reports do not do justice to the captain, or pilot, of the aircraft involved. Quite often ground lubbers and perennially-optimistic weather forecasters fail to understand that instrument flying is not the sure thing it is supposed to be.

Instrument flying in bad weather is a wonderful scientific advance, and can safely bring in airliners in practically all cases where the airport is allowed to remain open. However, there are times when a pilot can make a perfect instrument approach to an airport and still get in trouble through no fault of his own.

Often the pilot has not seen the ground until he is almost on it, in these approaches, and it is not surprising that a weather freak could cause a big aircraft to suddenly lose more altitude than it had to spare.

We write this to point out that accident reports are often over-simplified, and often unjustly lay the blame for an accident on the pilot—because there is no where else to saddle the responsibility. But there is no such thing as a fool-proof blind-flying system.

As long as a human being must sit at the controls, unexpected conditions are going to be encountered and, although usually he masters these circumstances, the pilot is occasionally unable to do so, and the result is sometimes death and destruction.

We suggest that some of the accidents could be avoided by a more conservative forecasting system, which involves weather bureaus in many parts of the country. Their undue optimism can be costly.

Does Gravity Affect Mental Unbalance?

Gloucester, Mass. — According to statistics, one out of every ten U. S. citizens will sometime be in a mental hospital. About one-half of our hospital beds are at present occupied by such cases. Probably every reader of this column has some relative or friend so afflicted.

MOST OF US ARE A LITTLE "CRAZY"
Most doctors believe that some drug may be discovered to cure mental disorders. For years, India's doctors have made a drug from "snakeroot." Now doctors are experimenting with a drug called L.S.D. This is made from a fungus which grows upon rye. I understand it is related to ergot, which many women have depended upon for years.

Perhaps many not now in hospitals should take chlorpromazine, reserpine, or some other tranquilizer (these drugs are to be taken only on the advice of a physician), because we are all unbalanced on some one or more subjects! With many people it is money, with others it is sex, with others it is abnormal ambition, or pride, or fear. If we all obeyed the Tenth Commandment (Exodus 20:17), there surely would be fewer "breakdowns." The fact is that those who are unbalanced about a majority of things, or about the more unpopular things, are called insane!

AN UNSOLVED QUESTION
A few days spent by me at the Gravity Research Foundation at New Boston, N. H., makes me wonder if gravity may be a factor in causing people to be unbalanced. Certainly if I were considered so afflicted, I would try different locations, climates, and altitudes; that is, to change the gravity pull on my brain. Some brains are surely more sensitive to gravity than the brains of others.

Here is an unsolved question which psychiatrists are asking: Why is it that some people can go to the edge of a high building without any discomfort or sense of danger, while other people are sorely tempted to jump off? Two persons cannot necessarily withstand the same gravity pull. When a person jumps out of a high window of a hotel, is he truly insane or merely exposing an abnormally sensitive brain needlessly to a dangerous gravity pull?

WHAT ABOUT THE MOON?
I find that the Gravity Foundation has many evidences showing the effect of the moon on the brains of hospital patients. There seems to be a correlation between "full" or "no" moon periods and accidents, fires, and even crimes. Druggists will tell you that their sales of sedative pills (such as phenobarbital) vary with the phases of the moon. Since the "full moon" can lift millions of tons of water to cause "high tides", it must have an effect on certain sensitive human brains, which consist mostly of nerve tissue and water.

Why is it that vacations do some people so much good this time of year? Why do those who feel most in need of a vacation find it necessary to "take a trip somewhere"? The answer may be that they need a change in their gravity pull. Taking a trip to some different place may be for them like coming down to the ground from the roof of a high building. Perhaps your brain is strong enough so that you can take your vacation resting at home; but perhaps not.

IMPORTANCE OF RELIGION
Personally, I believe that the main reason for the present increase in mental upsets, heart and other troubles, is the decrease in Sunday observance, family prayers, and practicing the Golden Rule. Newspapers tell how church "attendance" is increasing; but this is mainly a symptom of tension from or a reaction of careless living. It should help prevent nervous breakdowns, but is no cure of itself.

I forecast that when doctors finish their studies of insanity, heart diseases, aching limbs, ulcers, and many other ailments, they will conclude that Jesus is truly entitled to be called "The Great Physician." Instead of taking pills, it may do our health more good to sit quietly alone for half an hour a few days each week in an "Open Church." For detailed free information thereon, address Open-Church Association, 58 Middle Street, at Gloucester, Mass., where I am now enjoying my vacation.

State's Educators Face Problem of Meeting Doubled College Enrollments in 15 Years

Educators are reaching the showdown stage in their split over how to meet doubled college enrollments by 1970. The latest developments have widened the gap between public and private schools and the opposing theories of a college education for all and training only for those who can use it.

It all started in Michigan months ago when the Association of College Presidents told Gov. Williams they would need $150 million to expand to meet the rush to the campuses. Private and some church-connected colleges entered the scene at this point. Senator Don Vander Werp (R-Fremont) took up the cudgels against "tax-supported educational empires" and developed a plan for state aid to smaller colleges.

He formed a legislative committee of 10 to work with five businessmen to iron out the details. The idea is to build up the small schools as preliminary educational steps toward the four-year specialized institutions, like Michigan State University and the University of Michigan.

Private colleges reacted to the program of the public institution presidents in varied ways. Reduced from academic languages, their comments charge that public institutions are recruiting students away from private schools and then socking the taxpayer to finance more facilities. Duplication of courses was another point. Three public colleges have forestry curricula, for instance. The latest champion of the private school view was Dr. Simeon Leland, dean of liberal arts at Northwestern University.

He charged that public-supported institutions have "grossly over-estimated" their needs and were urging higher education upon young people whose attitudes were inadequate to handle it. Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University, and a champion of the theory of education-for-all, said:

"It was the most completely irresponsible speech I ever heard uttered by a college man." More conservative but still of a mind with Hannah, Dr. Harlan H. Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, said:

"I can think of a lot of explosives." Fr. Celestin J. Steiner, president of the University of Detroit, called Leland's speech "a clear, factual and marvelous exposition which should help clear up in the public mind a lot of misconceptions."

Fr. Steiner is a leader of the private-college group which, with some notable exceptions, would like to see the Vander Werp plan go into effect.

He said his university is not on the hunt for state money, but "we wouldn't refuse it if it came." Vander Werp plans a series of meetings with his committee in the fall to prepare something definite to lay before the 1956 legislature.

"We hope to resolve these disputes and give Michigan a realistic and economical answer to our problems of higher education," he said.

Political scars place significance in the company Gov. Williams kept at the governor's conference in Chicago.

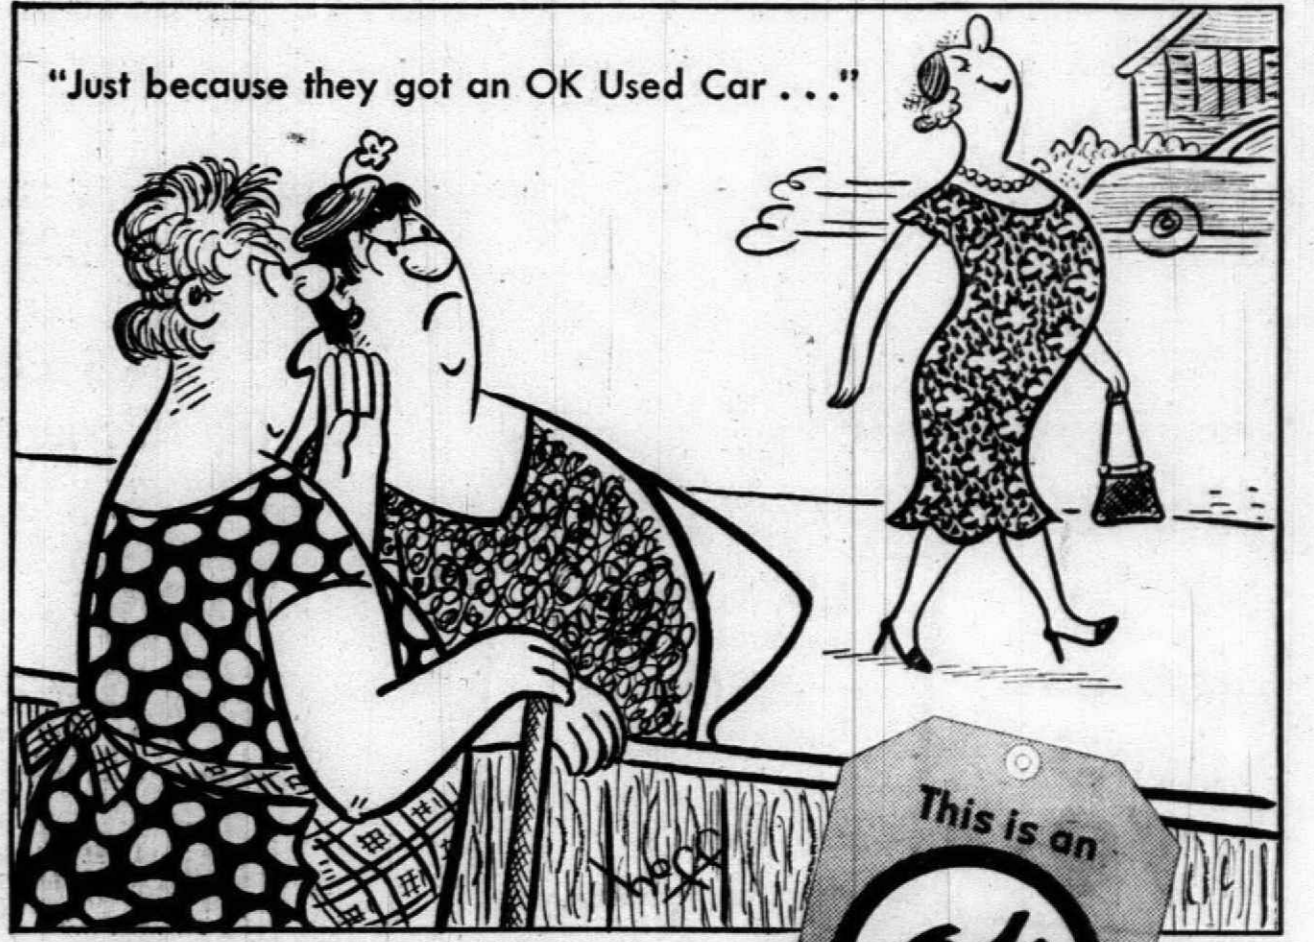

They expect Williams to make his move toward the national Democratic political scene soon, and his every maneuver is tested for signs and portents. The four-term Democratic governor took Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart and Rep. Ed Carney (D-Detroit) to the conference — possibly for the experience.

Hart is being groomed as the heir-apparent if and when Williams ever leaves the executive office. Carney, a former CIO official, is the Democratic wheel-horse in the House.

Normally at the governor's conferences, hopefuls for the presidential nominations sound out sentiment in other parts of the country. If Williams moves out, Hart and Carney will be very much in the news as leaders of the party Williams leaves.
