

Industrialists Listen To Annexation Story

Representatives of industry located in Plymouth township were given an explanation of the city's plans to annex the township at a meeting held Monday night at the Mayflower hotel.

Attending the meeting besides the industrialists were all city officials and members of the newly-organized Citizens Committee for Consolidation.

The three and one-half hour meeting consisted of a presentation of the city's reasons for seeking the annexation at this time and a question and answer period.

In detail, the industrialists were told of the school system's need for obtaining a "balance of homes and industry" in order to finance future schools.

Also presented was a breakdown of the city's finances and what would happen if consolidation were approved.

Parent Group Seeks New Band Uniforms

New uniforms for Plymouth high school's senior band will be one of the initial goals aimed for this fall by the Band Parents association.

The association would like to raise sufficient funds between now and next fall in order to furnish the senior band with new uniforms by fall, 1956.

Also included on the agenda of this first meeting Monday will be a musical program by the senior band.

clared that the city is quite able to manage without annexation. "What we are interested in," he stated, "is a uniform growth of the area which can best and most economically be accomplished with one government."

It was pointed out that there are two alternatives. One is the incorporation of the township as the city of Charleston and the other is to remain as a township. Both, the industrialists were told, are not the answer to uniform growth.

Given Jail Term For Filing False Stolen Car Report

Ninety days in the Detroit House of Correction have begun for a 19-year-old Plymouth youth who was found guilty of filing a false report that his car was stolen in order to have the insurance company pay for repair charges.

John R. Tefft, 543 Blunk, was found guilty by Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo of the rare charge of making a false report.

Police said that Tefft filed the complaint at 1:30 a.m. About an hour later, Plymouth police received a call from the Livonia police department saying they had recovered Tefft's 1952 convertible at the Red Wood Bar on Plymouth road.

A check with the cab company revealed that the trio, including Tefft, had been taken to a Farmer street address where they picked up the car of one of Tefft's companions and later drove to the police station to report the theft.

Questioning of Tefft and his companions later cleared up the confused picture. Police said that Tefft admitted that his car had broken down on Plymouth road at the bar. They then took the cab to Plymouth and filed the stolen car report so that the insurance company would be required to repair the car.

Second Oiling Starting

All unpaved streets in the city which have received but one application of road oil this year are scheduled for a second coat this week, according to City Clerk-Assessor Kenneth Way.

Way said that the second oil application should be started today on some streets.

Fund Drive Plans Made For Kick-Off

Final preparations were made Tuesday night by the Plymouth Community Fund board of directors for the "kick-off" of the 1955 campaign which begins Tuesday, October 18. This year's goal is $27,500.

George Witkowski and Mrs. L. B. Rice, co-chairmen of the drive, have announced the committee chairmen. They are:

Professional solicitations, Sam Hudson; industrial solicitations, A. E. Vallier and Harry Roberts; commercial and business solicitations, Phillip Barney and Sheldon Baker; school solicitations, Miss Ruth Eriksson; residential mailing, Mrs. Rice and Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz; treasurer, Mrs. Helyn Caplin; and publicity, John Gaffield and Sam Hudson.

Girl Scouts of the city will undertake the big job of stuffing and addressing envelopes which will be sent into each home. The enclosed letters will give detailed information about the need for donations and how to send donations.

Marvin Criger, president of the Community Fund board, has announced that the campaign will close on Thursday, November 10. Last year's goal of $24,500 was exceeded.

A "kick-off" breakfast will again be held on the opening day of the campaign.

To Begin Rescue, Fire Training

Training programs for Civil Defense firemen and rescue crews will begin in the city tonight, October 6, it was announced this week by Fire Chief Robert McAllister.

Any male 20 years of age or older wanting to join the programs are urged to attend the opening sessions this evening at the Northside fire station, starting at 6:30 p.m.

The training sessions came as a result of a meeting held at city hall last Thursday among citizens and officials interested in the CD program. Chief McAllister said that the CD firemen will train on regular fire equipment and may be called upon to help in case of emergencies.

For those wanting to join the rescue crew, Captain Charles Groth will teach them how to use all types of life-saving equipment. They will not be given fire-fighting training.

Tentative plans call for one training session a week for six weeks, followed by one session a month.

GUIDING THIS YEAR'S $27,500 Community Chest effort in Plymouth are these three people, George Witkowski, left, Marvin Criger and Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz. Witkowski and Mrs. Lorenz are co-chairmen of the drive while Criger is board president. The board made final plans for the campaign Tuesday night.

Arthur J. Todd Succumbs at 74

Arthur J. Todd, a retail grocer in Plymouth for almost 40 years until his retirement five years ago, succumbed at 12:45 a.m. Monday in University hospital after a lengthy illness. He was 74.

Mr. Todd came to Plymouth in 1909 from Detroit and started a grocery on Liberty street. This was sold in 1915 and he returned to Detroit to operate a grocery for four years.

Coming back to Plymouth, he worked in several groceries before again opening his own on South Main street in about 1928. In 1938 he built a new store beside his original location and sold it to his son, George Todd, five years ago. He occasionally worked in the store until his illness two years ago. The store is now known as Tremlin's.

Born on June 5, 1881 in Grand Bend, Ontario, he was the son of James A. and Olive Sharrow Todd. He was united in marriage with the former Clara Patterson on November 16, 1911. She survives with two sons, Max A. and George E. Todd, both of Plymouth, a brother, Robert S. Todd of Plymouth, and five grandchildren.

Mr. Todd was a life member of the Plymouth Rock Lodge, F & A.M.; the First Presbyterian church and the Plymouth Historical Society.

Masonic services were held Wednesday from the Schrader funeral home at 1 p.m. The Reverend Henry J. Walsh, D. D., officiated. Interment was in Riverside cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Harry Brown, Harry Gerst, Loren Goodale, William Smith, Harry Mumby and Harry Colgan.

Kiwanians To Observe 30th Year

Kiwanians will celebrate their 30th year in Plymouth with a banquet for members and their wives this Tuesday night at Arbor Lill. The guest speaker will be Congresswoman Martha Griffiths.

The affair, starting at 6:30 p.m., will pay honor to several members of the club, including five charter members. They are Edson Huston, Robert Jolliffe, Ernest J. Allison, Raymond Bachelder and Fred Thomas.

Dr. Frederick Foust is general chairman of the birthday banquet and Warren Worth is program chairman. The entertainment will include Russell Kloetzl of Bellville, a piano comic.

The first meeting of the Plymouth Kiwanis club was held on October 12, 1925 after a group of Ypsilanti club members had organized a club here. Thirty-five members attended this first meeting which grew to 60 within two years. Today the local club boasts an active membership of 85.

Helping boys and girls has been the main project of the local Kiwanians and perhaps their most noteworthy project is the $18,000 Girl Scout Lodge, built entirely through efforts of club members.

Norman Atchinson is president of Plymouth Kiwanis, while Dr. Foust and Robert Lidgard are first and second vice-presidents, respectively.

Service Clubs Plan UN Banquet

Plans are being made for an Inter-Service Club United Nations banquet to be held by the four local service clubs on Tuesday, October 25.

The Kiwanis, Lions, Optimist and Rotary clubs will hold the joint banquet in the high school auditorium starting at 7 p.m. There will be 300 reservations made, according to Harry Mohrmann, general chairman of the event.

Speaking at the affair will be Dr. Preston W. Slosson, head of the department of history at the University of Michigan. His address will be, "The Past, Present and Future of the United Nations." The banquet is being held in conjunction with the United Nations 10th anniversary on October 24.

As part of the entertainment for the evening, Cantor Nicholas Senakel of Adas Shalom Synagogue, Detroit, will sing. The program will also feature Nat Sibbold of Plymouth as a vocalist.

Wives and guests will be invited to the banquet. Further plans will be announced at a later date.

UN Celebration Gains Momentum

Final plans are being completed by nearly every organization in the Plymouth area to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the United Nations. The charter birthday is Monday, October 24.

The observance will be marked by the various groups over a period of over two weeks, starting with the opening Plymouth Symphony concert on October 16. Members of the Business and Professional Women will have UN program the following day, on Monday, October 17.

Plans are being made by the Association of University Women to have a program on October 21 and most Protestant churches will note the observance on October 23, World Order Sunday. Our Lady of Good Counsel school plans to have a movie on UN on UN day. There are also programs in the works for the Parent-Teacher-Student association and in the schools.

A number of church groups are known to be gathering program material, according to Miss Helen Beavers, chairman of the 10th Anniversary committee which is coordinating plans throughout the city. The United Church Women will have a World Community Day program on November 4. A short feature is also expected to be shown at the Penn Theatre in connection with the anniversary.

The four service clubs will have a joint UN banquet on October 25 (see story elsewhere).

Police Car Hit At Intersection, Ticket Motorist

A Plymouth police car on an emergency call was involved in a collision Sunday night as it entered the intersection at Ann Arbor road and South Main street. There were no injuries.

Issued a ticket for "failing to yield the right-of-way to an emergency vehicle" was Dale Houghtaling, 11688 Russell.

The accident report stated that Officers William Guldner and Kenneth Voss received a call at 8:55 p.m. to go to a Joy road home where a child was in convulsions with "no doctors available." Heading south on Main street, the police car approached U. S. 12 when the light turned red.

According to the report, the police car started to slow up and had its siren, red light and spotlights working to clear traffic. Traffic from both directions had stopped, the report added, but Houghtaling, driving east, passed the line of traffic on the right shoulder of the road. The police car was struck on the right rear side. Both cars were towed away.

Dismisses Court Action

The case against Lloyd Eason, 905 Sutherland, was dismissed in a hearing before Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo last week. He had been brought into court under the disorderly persons ordinance for allegedly following a teen-age girl through downtown Plymouth.

Eason was picked up by police on complaint of the girl and her parents. The hearing at which the case was dismissed was held Wednesday of last week.

A group of ladies from the First Baptist church motored to Battle Creek, Wednesday, to spend the day with Mrs. Loyal Sutherland, wife of a former Plymouth Baptist pastor.

Indiana Auto Crash Kills 3 Residents

Name Principal For Five Schools In Outlying Areas

Appointment of Earl T. Gibson, sixth grade teacher at Allen Elementary school, to a new position as principal of five outlying schools in Canton township has been made by the board of education of the Plymouth Community School district.

The school board approved the appointment at a special meeting Monday night.

Schools included under the new principal's jurisdiction will be Canton Center, Cherry Hill Truesdell, Hough and Bartlett. All of the schools are located in Canton township and have only a few rooms each. Superintendent Russell Isbister said that it is not yet known in which school the principal's office will be located.

Addition of Canton Center, Cherry Hill and Truesdell schools to the system this year accelerated the need for a principal. Each of the schools were headed by a teacher-principal. Gibson will begin his new duty as soon as a replacement can be obtained for his sixth grade class.

Gibson is now president of the Plymouth Education association, being elected by fellow teachers last spring. He received his undergraduate work at the University of Toledo and pursued graduate studies at Michigan State Normal college and Michigan State University where he received his master's degree in school supervision and administration. He has taught six years, all of them in Plymouth.

The new principal currently lives in Northville with his wife and two children.

Three Plymouth residents were killed and another seriously injured when the car in which they were traveling to visit relatives in Tennessee crashed into a bridge abutment at Gosport, Indiana last Thursday morning. The dead were:

Henry Hollingsworth, 59, of 746 North Mill, employed at Barnes-Gibson-Raymond.

J. C. Hollingsworth, 37, son of Henry, same address, employed at Plymouth Stamping.

James King, 49, of 746 North Mill, employed at Barnes-Gibson-Raymond.

The three men, with King driving Hollingsworth's car, were all in the front seat. In the back seat was Paul Gwatney of Roe street, an employee at the Willow Run Transmission plant, who suffered a broken pelvis and broken left leg.

Since there are no relatives of the men known in Plymouth, no official account of the accident or obituary information was available. All had roomed here while their families remained in Tennessee.

Friends here learned that the accident occurred at 10 a.m. Thursday on a curve approaching a bridge near Gosport. King lost control of the car on the rain-soaked pavement and the car struck the abutment. Both the senior and junior Hollingsworths were reported killed instantly while King lived two hours.

Henry Hollingsworth, a native of Ridgeley, Tennessee, leaves his wife, several sons and a daughter. King's home was near Union City, Tennessee and he is survived by his wife and eight children, two of them at home.

Fire Departments Make Prevention Week Plans

A week of activities designed to make children as well as adults more conscious of fire prevention is being planned in Plymouth by the fire departments of the city and township. Fire Prevention Week will be observed starting this Sunday.

One of the highlights of the week will be the annual fire fighting demonstration scheduled for next Thursday night behind the high school, between Blanche and Farmer streets. Starting at 7 p.m., this will be the fourth annual demonstration planned by the area departments.

Oil and gas fires will be two of the challenges that firemen will meet when they roll their equipment to the scene. Hundreds of gallons of oil will be poured into a pit to be extinguished over and over again. A natural gas line laid into the field will provide firemen with the tough job of extinguishing gas fires.

The demonstration is not only staged to give firemen extra fire fighting training, but the public is being invited to see their departments in action.

School children in the elementary grades will again be given an opportunity to get a close-up look at fire equipment. Chief McAllister said that he will take his trucks to the various schools during the week. Children will be shown how equipment is used and told about fire hazards.

Each child will be given a "fire inspection sheet" sometime this week which they are being asked to take home and check fire hazards. Each child returning the filled-out sheet will be given a Junior Fireman badge and each school will be given a "Fire Prevention Achievement" banner.

Working in cooperation with the fire departments during the week's activities will be the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Plymouth Association of Insurance Agents.

Thursday night's demonstration will last about an hour and a half. The chiefs are extending a special invitation to the gasoline and fuel oil handlers of the area to attend the demonstration.

Citizens Seek South Main Traffic Light for School Children Crossing

One hundred and ten citizens signed a petition presented to city commissioners Monday night which asks that one or two traffic lights be placed on South Main street to slow down traffic for the benefit of school children.

Donald Ward, 711 Burroughs, was spokesman for the group and presented the petition to the commission. He also submitted a copy of a resolution approved by the Smith school Parent-Teachers association board which supported the petition.

The petition reads: "We the undersigned do hereby petition the Plymouth city commission to install at least one traffic light on South Main street approximately half way between Ann Arbor trail and Ann Arbor road."

"This traffic light is urgently needed to safeguard the lives of many small children who must cross this busy thoroughfare to attend Smith school. It is also needed to slow down the tempo of traffic on South Main street. With the widening of North Main street, the tendency of motorists to speed on South Main street will undoubtedly be greater and one or two traffic lights evenly spaced in the area indicated, will accomplish what even tripling the present police force for adequate patrolling could not do."

Signers of the petition are residents of the Maplecroft subdivision on Harding, Roosevelt, Ross, Simpson, Dewey, Burroughs and Edison streets.

The petition was referred to the city manager and police chief for study.

In other business before the commission, the bid of the United Contracting company of Livonia was approved for installation of a sewer in the East-Central parking lot. Their bid was $5,280. The parking lot is being developed from behind the Penn Theatre to Dodge street.

Attention Awaits Small Boy Trying to Spend Stamps

Twelve-year-old George Drennan may have thought twice about coming to Plymouth Tuesday afternoon if he had known all the excitement he would cause. And all he wanted to do was buy a doll for his sister's birthday present!

Reason for the hustle and bustle that had George completely awed was that the youngster wanted to buy the doll with two filled Community Stamp books. Worth $6 in trade, George thought this would buy a pretty nice doll for sister Ann Marie.

What George didn't know was that he is the first person to redeem a book of stamps in the three-week-old community program.

After trying unsuccessfully at several stores to find a doll, he walked into Stop & Shop where the windows were "lined with stamp signs." He explained his plight to Owners Jay and Bill Rucker who immediately promised to sell him the doll of his choice for the two books. Meantime The Mail photographer was summoned and George was blushing all over the place!

George explained that his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Drennan of 8820 Hix road, had purchased a new television set from West Bros. Appliances and the stamps from this purchase more than filled the two books. He thought it was awful nice to be able to buy a present for his sister "all by himself."

This marks the first direct "return results" of the unique Community Stamp program. One merchant, in this case West Bros. Appliances, helped another, Stop & Shop, to sell an item through a sale made by the first merchant. This round-robin is exactly what the 38 merchants hope for, of course, and they believe that the customer stands to gain most from such a program of community cooperation.

Stop & Shop's Rucker brothers were especially surprised by the sale. "We give thousands of stamps away each week, but we hardly expected to have many redemptions — much less the first," said Jay.

REDEMPTION of the first Plymouth Community stamps took place this week when 12-year-old George F. Drennan, 8820 Hix road, appeared at Stop & Shop to trade his stamps for a doll. The doll will be for his sister's ninth birthday. Jay Rucker, one of the store's owners, looks on while George does business with clerk Seneth Thompson. The youth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Drennan and is a fifth grader at Jefferson school.

Eunice Bennett, Henry Wittrick Married at Newburg Church

Large baskets of white gladioli and dahlias decorated the altar of the Newburg Methodist church on Saturday, September 24, for the candlelight ceremony in which Miss Eunice Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Jay Bennett of 8624 Gray, Plymouth became the bride of Henry A. Wittrick, Jr., whose parents reside at 5657 Parent street, Wayne.

For the nuptial ceremony, the bride chose a ballerina-length gown styled with ruffled skirt and strapless bodice, over which was worn a jacket of lace. White roses composed the bridal bouquet. Miss Bennett was given in marriage by her father.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Sylvia Bowerman, who wore a yellow ballerina-length gown and carried a bouquet of pink roses.

Leland Paquin, brother-in-law of the bride, performed the services of best man. The bridegroom's uncle, William Wittrick, seated the guests.

A navy blue dress with navy and white accessories was selected by the bride's mother. Mrs. Wittrick, Sr. chose a brown dress with beige trimming. Accessories in brown completed her ensemble. Both wore yellow rose corsages.

The 7 o'clock ceremony was read by the Reverend Robert Richards. Organist for the occasion was Henry Sill who accompanied Mrs. Jean Greenwood, soloist, during her selection of "O Perfect Love."

Approximately 80 guests attended the reception at the Newburg hall. Present to congratulate the couple were friends and relatives from Plymouth, Livonia, Northville, South Lyon, Farmington, Walled Lake, Wayne, Detroit, Birmingham, Vassar and Carson City.

For traveling to Niagara Falls, Canada the new Mrs. Wittrick changed to a charcoal suit with navy accessories.

The couple are planning to make their home in Plymouth.

The bride graduated from Bentley high school, Livonia in 1952. She is presently employed as dental assistant for Dr. J. M. Robinson and Dr. H. F. Clark in Plymouth. The bridegroom attended Wayne high school and is an employee of Evans Products company.

Mrs. Harold W. Sundstrom

Michigan State University chapel, East Lansing, was the setting on Saturday evening, October 1, for the nuptial ceremony in which Miss Mary Olin of Saginaw, Michigan became the bride of Harold Walter Sundstrom, Chicago, Illinois. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Olin, 1314 Houghton, Saginaw, former residents of Plymouth. The Reverend Henry J. Walch of Plymouth officiated at the double-ring candlelight service.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy B. Jarvis

South Lyon Church, Scene Of Jarvis - Martin Wedding

A recent ceremony held at the First Presbyterian church of South Lyon united in marriage Miss Mary L. Martin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin of Eight Mile road, South Lyon, and Billy B. Jarvis, son of Mrs. Gertrude Jarvis of 47125 Ford road, Plymouth.

The Reverend Orville Roth of the South Lyon church performed the ceremony at 6:30 p.m. Saturday evening, September 17.

Miss Martin, who was given in marriage by her father, approached the altar in a ballerina-length gown of nylon over taffeta. The bodice of the dress was of nylon lace, featuring a scooped neckline with floral applique and short sleeves. The skirt was of nylon mesh. A tiara of white pearls secured the bride's fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and stephanotis.

Mrs. Ray Lawrence of Plymouth was matron of honor for the ceremony. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joyce Wilson of Flint and Mrs. Betty Agosta of Livonia.

Assisting the bridegroom as best man was Ray Lawrence of Plymouth. Ushers were Bud Martin of South Lyon and Bill Wilson of Flint.

The reception at the American Legion hall in Northville was attended by 125 guests from Flint, Garden City, Howell and Detroit, Michigan; Chicago, Illinois; Ohio, New York and Pennsylvania.

A white shantung dotted dress with matching duster and corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds was selected by the bride for her going-away outfit.

Following their wedding trip to the Smokey mountains and Chattanooga, Tennessee, the couple are residing at Ford road in Plymouth.

The bride is a graduate of South Lyon high school and Hamilton Business college in Ann Arbor. The bridegroom graduated from Plymouth high school and is presently employed at the Peter Sausage company, Ann Arbor.

Betty Burden Weds U.S. Army Corporal

The marriage of Miss Betty Burden to Corporal Joseph Leeds, son of Mrs. A. Leeds of Arkansas, has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Burden of Union street, Plymouth.

The wedding took place on Saturday, July 2, in Corinth, Mississippi.

Corporal Leeds is stationed with the 89th Airborne division of the U.S. Army at Fort Campbell, Kentucky. He will be transferred shortly to another base before leaving for overseas duty.

Published every Thursday at 271 S. Main street, Plymouth, Michigan in Michigan's largest weekly newspaper plant.

Mr. and Mrs. Elton A. McAllister

Elton A. McAllisters, New Residents of Lakeland Court

Now residing at 42449 Lakeland court, Plymouth are Mr. and Mrs. Elton A. McAllister who were wed on Saturday, August 20, at the First Baptist church, Plymouth.

The bride is the former Jean Pritchett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doy L. Pritchett of 1091 Cherry street, Plymouth. The bridegroom's parents reside at 14784 Northville road, Plymouth.

White gladioli, mums and palms decorated the church altar for the 8 o'clock service which was read by the Reverend David Riederj Velma Searfoss, organist, accompanied Nat Sibbold who sang "I Love Thee" and "Because."

For her wedding, the bride chose a floor-length gown of nylon tulle over taffeta, appliqued with embroidered flowers. Her veil of illusion was of fingertip length. Two white orchids centered on a white Bible, surrounded by stephanotis and streamers, composed the bridal bouquet.

Maid of honor was Sylvia Pritchett, sister of the bride, who wore a yellow taffeta dress with matching headpiece and carried green carnations.

Bridesmaids were Jean Polley, Carole Wassenaar, Jeannine Dahlager and Toni Zakul. Their ballerina length, princess style gowns were of green taffeta and fashioned with bow bustle and scoop neckline. They wore matching headpieces and carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Karen McAllister was flower girl and Janet McAllister, junior bridesmaid, for the ceremony. Karen carried a basket of green carnations and rose petals while Janet carried a floral arrangement of green carnations. Both were dressed in yellow, floor length gowns with matching headpieces.

Mrs. Pritchett chose a printed chiffon dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother selected a mauve color dress of lace over taffeta with black accessories.

James McAllister assisted his brother as best man. Guests were seated by Richard Bloomhoff, Robert Simmons, Robert and William Benjamin.

A reception for 250 guests was held at the V.F.W. hall on Lilley road. The out-of-town guest list included friends and relatives from Northville, Livonia, Saginaw, Birmingham, Detroit, Manitou Beach, and Arkansas.

For traveling to St. Clair Inn near Port Huron, the new Mrs. McAllister changed to a navy blue suit with white accessories. The orchid from the bridal bouquet were worn as her corsage.

The bride graduated from Plymouth high school in 1953. Mr. McAllister is a 1948 graduate of the same school.

Ronald Glass, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Glass of Holbrook avenue, was discharged from the Air Force last week and has been spending a few days with his parents, Ronald left Tuesday for his home and family in Phoenix, Arizona.

Symphony Membership Dinner Attracts 150

The drive for new members by the Plymouth Symphony Society reached full scale this week following a "Kick-Off Dinner" last Thursday at the high school auditorium. One hundred and fifty persons attended the potluck dinner which honored founders of the 10-year-old organization and presented excerpts of concerts to be given this season.

Honored guests were Paul Wagner, first conductor of the orchestra; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Groschke, Daisy Barnes, Ardis Curtis Long and Fred Beitner, all of whom were given citations for their parts in organizing the orchestra.

Symphony Board President Gerald Fischer called upon Mr. Wagner, now of Pekin, Illinois, to relate early experiences of the symphony in its efforts to organize. Mrs. Roderick Cassidy, a member of the board of directors when the orchestra was founded, also recalled the early presentations of the orchestra.

Conductor Wayne Dunlap then presented four of the soloists for the coming season, Evelyn Woods, Nathalie Dale, Norma Heyde and Nelson Hauenstein each played passages from their concerts of the tenth season.

The effect of the program was immediately apparent according to Membership Chairman, Mrs. Thomas Adams. She reported that 83 memberships and three pledges totaling $1000 have already been accepted. The combined business and individual membership drive for funds will continue this week. Mrs. Adams stated that the society hopes to gain its largest membership in its 10-year history through this single, combined drive for funds.

SMILES WERE in order last Thursday evening at the Plymouth Symphony Society's Tenth Season "Kick-Off Dinner." One hundred and fifty persons attended the program to boost membership in the Society. Above (l. to r.) Program Chairman Dr. A. E. Van Ornum, Board President Gerald Fischer, Conductor Wayne Dunlap, Mrs. Roderick Cassidy and Paul Wagner examine the year's symphony program. Wagner, who now resides in Pekin, Illinois, was the first conductor of the local orchestra.

Released Red Captive to Address Air Force Reserve Squadron Here

Flight "A" of the 963rd Air Force Reserve Squadron will hear Lieutenant Lyle Cameron, one of four U. S. fliers released by the Chinese Reds last June, discuss the Communist methods of "indoctrinating American PWs."

Lieutenant Cameron was shot down near the Yalu River in October of 1952 and was taken prisoner by the Chinese Communists. He is now taking graduate work in Aeronautical Engineering at the University of Michigan under the auspices of the Air Force Institute of Technology.

Executive Officer Joe Scarpulla announced that the meeting will be held this Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the Veteran's Memorial Center in Plymouth. Meetings are held the second and fourth Tuesdays of each month.

The unit was organized for the benefit of all reservists in the area. "We now have members from Walled Lake, Pontiac, Whitmore Lake, Northville, Livonia, Wayne, as well as many from Plymouth," Captain Scarpulla said.

Not only are we doing our utmost to remain proficient in the Air Force as a service to the community and our nation, but we have outstanding speakers and interesting extra-curricular activities as well," he added. The flight has had tours, golf tournaments, dances and parties with wives participating. Reservists from all branches of the various services are being invited to the next meeting.

Nancy Hirzel Weds Resident of Livonia

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hirzel of 14592 Northville road, Plymouth announce the marriage of their daughter, Nancy, to Richard Blackwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellard Blackwell of 8883 Inkster, Livonia.

Bag 2 Antelopes In Wyoming Hunt

Two local sportsmen returned over the weekend from Casper, Wyoming with two antelope as prizes for their efforts. From Plymouth in the party of four were Jack Selle and Russell Powell who were accompanied by Bert McKinney and Dewey Cobb of Livonia.

Selle bagged a beautiful specimen buck which he will have mounted to adorn his recreation room. Powell was the only other in the party to bag an antelope. Both agreed it was one of the most thrilling sports they had ever encountered and said the animals are hunted from a car traveling over the plains at a terrific speed in an attempt to get within shooting distance of a running herd.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Smyth of Denver, Colorado are houseguests from Tuesday through Friday of this week, of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Schrader of South Main street. Tonight, Thursday, the Schraders are holding an open house honoring their guests.

Mrs. Miquelon To Address Garden Club

Mrs. John R. Miquelon of Livonia will be guest speaker for the next meeting of the Rosedale Gardens branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden association, scheduled for Tuesday, October 11, at 1:15 p.m. in the civic room of First Federal Savings and Loan Bank building, Sheldon Center, Livonia.

Mrs. Miquelon's topic will be, "Basic Principles in Arranging and Wearing Flowers," carried out with demonstration on corsage making.

Guests are invited to attend this meeting. Tea will be served.

Hostesses are Mrs. Lyman Heddon, Mrs. Russell Bull, Mrs. Henry Curle and Mrs. Harvay Anshultz.

Township Club Holds Meeting Saturday Night

Canton Township Community club has announced plans for a business meeting at the township hall on Saturday, October 8, at 7 p.m.

All residents of the township are invited to join the club and attend the monthly get-togethers. Purpose of the Saturday meeting is to plan a Halloween party.

Fruit of Unusual Nut Tree Shown

The first part of the harvest from Penn Theatre owner Harry Lush's Macademia nut trees is on display in the offices of The Mail. Visiting in the city with Mrs. Lush, the part-time Californian, brought a sample of the nut cluster from one of the trees in his grove at Rancho Sante-Fe where he now makes his home.

According to Mr. Lush, the grove of Macademia nuts he has on the coast is one of the first in this country being developed with the help of the California Agriculture department in a search for new products which can be grown in California and not in Arizona and Florida.

The 150-tree grove will produce about 50 pounds of the nuts in its first season. The nut is small, about the size of a hazel nut and is used exclusively by candy makers. Since it is grown only in Hawaii at this time, it is exceedingly expensive, and California growers expect to tap this particular market in the near future with the products from their imported trees.

Presbyterian Women Set Meeting for Wednesday

The Women's association of the First Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday, October 12, in the church parlor. The meeting will begin promptly at 12:30 p.m. Chairman for the day is Mrs. Ralph Garber. Her theme will be "We Proclaim Christ the Way through Our Ecumenical Mission."

Tea will be served following the program, for which there will be a small donation. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Roy Jacobus.

Molly S. Saxton Sets Date for November 6

Miss Molly Saxton

The engagement of Molly Stark Saxton to Donald Edward Carrie of Detroit has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dean F. Saxton of 585 West Ann Arbor trail, Plymouth. Parents of the bridegroom-elect are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Louis Carrie, who reside at 9608 Yosemite, Detroit.

The wedding date has been set for Saturday, November 5.

Teen Club Sponsors Dance Friday Night

The new "Rock and Roll" Teen club, now open in Livonia, will hold another of its weekly teenage dances this Friday, October 7, from 8 to 12 p.m. at the hall located west of Inkster on Grantland in Livonia.

Teen-age residents of Plymouth and surrounding areas are invited to attend the event. Music will feature Jim Mulla and his rhythm combo along with a floor show of top entertainment.

Refreshments are available and tickets can be obtained at the door.

145,000 1961	180,000 1967	215,000 1973

bonds maturing 1956 to 1960, both inclusive, to be without option of prior payment, bonds maturing 1961 to 1973, both inclusive, to be redeemable prior to maturity at the option of the School District in inverse numerical order on any interest payment date on or after April 1, 1960, at par and accrued interest to the date fixed for redemption, plus a premium on each bond so redeemed as follows:

$25.00 on each bond called for redemption prior to April 1, 1962;
$20.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after April 1, 1962 but prior to April 1, 1964;
$15.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after April 1, 1964 but prior to April 1, 1966;
$10.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after April 1, 1966 but prior to April 1, 1968;
$5.00 on each bond called for redemption on or after April 1, 1968 but prior to April 1, 1971;

No premium on bonds called for redemption on or after April 1, 1971;

bonds to bear interest at the following rate per annum - 3% interest to be payable on April 1, 1956 and semi-annually thereafter, both principal and interest to be payable at a bank or trust company to be designated by us, all bonds in denomination of $1,000, delivered to us in Chicago, Illinois, on or before September 15, 1955, we have the option of accepting or rejecting the issue after that date, will pay -

Par plus accrued interest to the date of delivery and in addition thereto a premium of $852.00.

We further agree to furnish without expense to the District blank bonds ready for execution.

The net interest cost to the District computed in the manner set forth in the official notice of sale amounts to $791,898.00, equivalent in basis to 2.9967% per annum.

The bid is strictly subject to prompt acceptance and to our being furnished at the time of delivery with the final unqualified opinion of Messrs. Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone of Detroit, approving the legality of the issue, together with certified copy of the transcript upon which their opinion is based.

We are enclosing herewith our certified check in the amount of $60,000, as evidence of our good faith, to be held by you pending the fulfillment of our contract. Should the bonds be awarded elsewhere, or should the attorneys refuse to approve the legality of the issue, said check shall be returned to us immediately.

By (Signed) E. B. Kelly, Jr.

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Fischer that the bid of Halsey, Stuart and Co., Inc. and Associates for the purchase of Three Million Dollars ($3,000,000) of bonds of the School District, authorized by the electors of the District at a special school election held on March 28, 1955, be accepted, and that the Secretary be authorized to return the certified checks of all unsuccessful bidders as promptly as possible.

Ayes: Mr. Booth, Mr. Caplin, Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing and Mr. Smith.

Nays: None.

Mr. Houghton discussed with the board the transportation system and pointed out some of the problems connected with the management of it. He noted that some of his equipment was old and therefore maintenance costs would continue to rise.

Superintendent Isbister and Mr. Houghton were authorized, within the limitations of the low bids submitted, to purchase two new 60 passenger school buses with delivery before school starts.

The request of Mrs. Clark Wright to permit her son to finish his senior year at Ypsilanti High School with tuition paid by the Board was discussed. The request for tuition payment will be granted providing the state will re-imburse the district, otherwise, the request is to be denied.

Letters from Mr. Heidt of the Frains Lake School District in Superior Township, asking the Board to consider annexation of all or part of their district, and transportation of their students attending Plymouth High School, were read and discussed.

Superintendent Isbister was authorized to point out to Mr. Heidt that recent annexations had overloaded the present facilities and no further annexations would be considered at this time. High school students will be transported, if space is available on the bus, and no additional mileage is involved.

The following water agreement with the City of Plymouth was approved:

MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT made this 19th day of July, 1955 by and between the City of Plymouth, Michigan, a municipal corporation, and the Plymouth Township School District, a school district duly organized under the laws of the State of Michigan; hereinafter referred to as City and District, respectively:

WITNESSETH:

A. Whereas, the District intends, proposed and plans to construct a new school building within the District, on Sheldon Road one-fourth mile south of Joy Road in Canton Township, Wayne County, Michigan, and

B. Whereas, the Board of Education of the said District desires to obtain water from said City for the use of such new school and for fire protection therefore and the City has expressed its willingness to supply the water requested, and

C. Whereas, said Board or District requests that the City through the water engineers, McNamee, Porter and Seelye, handle the engineering and construction of the required water mains, and

D. Whereas, the estimated cost of mains to supply water to said school is as follows:

(a) 12-inch main in Ann Arbor Road and 8-inch main in Sheldon Road to connect from 12-inch main in Ann Arbor Road to the end of the present 6-inch main in Sheldon Road approximately

900 feet south of Ann Arbor Road;
Cost to District $ 2,634.00
Cost to City 8,966.00

Total Cost $11,600.00
(b) 8-inch main in Sheldon Road from point 70 feet north of Joy Road to the school site:
Total cost and cost to District $10,400.00

and
E. Whereas, the aforesaid estimates show an anticipated cost to the City of $8,966.00 and to the District of $13,034.00, but the actual cost of construction and engineering for the aforesaid items or sections (a) and (b) may be greater or less than estimated and the City and District desire and agree to share in any increase or decrease in the cost of item (a), taking as a base therefore their respective costs as estimated in (a) supra, and the District agrees to pay any cost above the estimate re-item (b) above and is to have the benefit of any reduction below estimated costs, and

F. Whereas, certain permits or licenses may be required for the laying of said mains in public streets or highways, and

G. Whereas, the City must repair and maintain and therefore own and control said water mains, now therefore.

It is mutually promised and agreed, by and between said City and said District, for and in consideration of the recitals hereinabove set forth and the promises and undertakings hereinafter specified, as follows:

1. The City will construct the above described mains and handle the engineering thereof through its said engineers.

2. The City will supply water for school use and fire protection through said mains to said school of the District at the same charge as required by its water ordinance and as is made to other water users in the same classification; provided, that the City shall hereby incur no liability to the District in the event of water supply failure, it being understood the City assumes no greater liability to the District than it does to any other water user. The District agrees to use such City water exclusively so long as it is available.

3. The City and the District will share in and pay the costs of the aforesaid water mains in the amounts and proportions and according to the formulas or conditions set forth in paragraphs D and E supra, and the District will make its proportionate payments or advancements as same may be required, under the construction contract for the project, when requested by the City so to do.

4. The City shall make available to the District for inspection, at any time, its plans, specifications, contracts and costs to the end that the District may be satisfied as to its proper share of the costs in said project. The District shall supply the City or its engineers with any information re said school which may be necessary for the proper location and installation of said mains.

5. The City and/or District shall apply for and cooperate in obtaining any required permits or licenses for the laying of said water mains in the public streets and highways.

6. It is understood and agreed that title to and ownership of all of said mains, other than any portion thereof upon school property of the District, vests in and belongs to the City only.

7. In the event the City shall grant to users, other than the said school, the privilege of tapping into and taking water from the said water mains on Sheldon Road south of Joy Road, the District shall be entitled to share pro-rata in the tapping fees collected, in accordance with the District's contribution to the said section of said main for the purpose of recouping some of its costs re same. Whether such tapping privileges shall be granted to other users shall rest within the sole discretion of the City.

8. Attached hereto, as a part hereof, is a copy of the resolution of the Board of Education of said District and a copy of the resolution of the City Commission of said City showing their approval of this agreement and the authority of their proper officers to execute the same.

In Witness Whereof the parties hereto have caused to be affixed their signatures and seals through and by their properly authorized officers, on the date first above written.

Police Surprise Burglar in Store

A charge of breaking and entering in the night time has been filed against a Plymouth man who was caught by police as he burglarized West Bros. Appliance store, 507 South Main street.

Arrested early Saturday morning was Norman Paquin, 33, of 14175 Shearer drive. He had a roll of 50 pennies on him when arrested.

Sergeant Loren Johnson and Patrolman Henry Smith were driving past the store at 1:30 a.m. when they noticed the burglar alarm lights on and a man inside the store. Johnson was entering the front door when Paquin dashed past him and ran around the south side of the building.

As Johnson and Smith pursued him, Paquin ran into a barbed wire fence at the rear of the building. After some resistance, he was taken into custody and jailed. The roll of pennies had been taken from the cash register, police said. A hearing will be held this week.

Paquin cut his hand on the fence, police said, but refused medical attention.

Search for Possibly Mad Dog Continues

A search is still continuing for a dog which bit 14-year-old John Peer, 1534 Brookline, and then disappeared. The incident took place September 25.

The dog's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Doss Peer, said that no trace has been found of the dog which bit their son on the right leg. An appeal was made in last week's Mail. The dog's owner said that it had not been inoculated.

It was discovered that the youth was violently allergic to rabies shots so the doctor is recommending that the parents take a chance in not having the boy inoculated in hopes that the dog is not infected.

The dog is a red and white speckled hound with unusually long ears and answers to the name of "Ears." Anyone knowing the whereabouts of the dog are asked to telephone the Peers at 2195-R12.

Ronald Johnson
U. S. Army Corporal Ronald Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of 600 Ann street, Plymouth, has recently been assigned to the job of operations sergeant.

Johnson is stationed with the Service company, 188th Airborne Infantry, 11th Airborne Division at Fort Campbell, Kentucky.

Raymond H. Rose
Raymond H. Rose, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert O. Rose of 822 N. Mill street, Plymouth, graduated September 9 from the Airman Preparatory School at the Naval Air Technical Training Center in Jacksonville, Florida.

The eight-week course covered basic aviation skills such as fire fighting, aircraft repair, mathematics, blueprint reading, flight-deck operation and safety precautions, instruction in emergency survival and the use of hand tools.

Ronald and Dale Nyhus
Following their enlistment several weeks ago, Ronald and Dale Nyhus of Plymouth are receiving basic military training with the U. S. Armed Forces. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Tilton of 6355 Lilley road, Plymouth.

Ronald left September 12 for service with the U. S. Army. He is presently stationed at Fort Ord, California. Enlisting in the U. S. Navy, Dale left September 20 for boot training at Great Lakes, Illinois.

Robert E. Pryor
Army Second Lieutenant Robert E. Pryor, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Pryor of 31350 Grandow, Livonia, recently was graduated with honors from the ordnance supply specialist course at the Army's European Ordnance school in Fussen, Germany.

Lieutenant Pryor returned to his regular duties as supply officer with the 334th Ordnance company in Illersheim. Lieutenant Pryor entered the Army last January. He arrived overseas in June.

The 22-year-old soldier is a 1954 graduate of Michigan State university and a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity. His wife, Nancy, lives at 319 Dawson court, Webster Groves, Missouri.

Replica of Plymouth

According to Mrs. Melva Gardner, president of Passage-Gayde Unit No. 391 of the American Legion Auxiliary, an animated replica of Plymouth, entitled "City of Prosperity," will be displayed in the S. S. Kresge store window beginning October 7 through 13.

The display is 6 1/2 feet long, 5 1/2 feet high and 3 feet deep with animated units representing various types of local businesses. Cars and trucks move up and down Main street while houses are being built, painted and deliveries made. Miniature customers go in and out of downtown stores.

The project was sponsored by the Passage-Gayde Auxiliary to raise funds for their building fund.

Weekend houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. George Howell of Gold Arbor road were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wiltse of West Branch, Michigan.

Good News, New Shoes!

Monday night was a lucky evening for Mrs. L. H. Goddard of 12221 Beck road. Her visit to Fisher's Shoe store resulted in winning a pair of shoes! It's all part of the promotion of Monday night business by James Houk of Fisher's. Each week one registered visitor is chosen for the prize.

INTRODUCING

Yes folks, that's my picture right up at the top of this column. I've just been hired by The Photographic Center to do special assignments in photography and to sell cameras and films and stuff. I'm a crack photographer myself so naturally I've been buying all my own equipment here and as I was always telling people how good the store was, the boss said he might as well put me on the payroll. He'll give me some tough picture assignments and I'm going to write a column here in the paper every week and tell you all about some of the stuff I sell here at our store. The selling part will be duck soup because we don't carry anything but the very best.

Read my column in this paper every week and any time you want anything that has to do with photography, just come in and see me and you'll really get it. I mean you'll get what you want.

If I'm not in the store when you come in, don't wait for me. Confidentially you'll get good service and good merchandise anyway but don't tell the boss I said so.

Be sure to check this box each week for "SNAPPER'S Special of the Week!"

They traveled the northern states with their ultimate destination being California where they visited with Mr. and Mrs. William Body, former residents of the Newburg area. They returned home via scenic route 66.

Rosedale Gardens

Mrs. Joseph R. Talbot, Jr. Garfield 1-5847

The boys and girls of St. Michael's School had a holiday last Friday, September 30. Taking advantage of the holiday, Mrs. Charles Gamber and Mrs. Marv Swain filled their cars with scout and made a trip into Plymouth to go thru the Daisy Manufacturing company. The management was extremely cordial to the boys and took time to show and explain all their operations. Some of the boys that came home and immediately put in their order for air rifles for Christmas presents were Danny Darrah, Tommy Campau, Dennis Swain, Michael Talbot, Fred McNulty, Tommy Gamber, Eddie Nowacki, Robert Ritter and Paul Richard.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur NewMarch, 11401 Mayfield, on the birth of their fourth child, a son. The new baby will be called Keith Albert.

The girls of Brownie Troop No. 1089 held a wienie roast in Middle Rouge Park on Saturday afternoon, October 1. It was a beautiful day and the girls enjoyed being out, and if their appetites were any indication, they certainly had a wonderful time. Mrs. Amelia Berutti and Mrs. Genevieve Reeves drove their cars and the girls divided into two groups. Those who went were Rosemary Heath, Roberta Trask, Doreen Newmarch, Carol Mijal, Diane West, Joanne Enot, Andrea Ritter, Mary Kay Talbot, Susan Reeves, Carol Byl, Linda Berutti, Nancy Wallo, and Linda Baker.

We are sorry to have to again report that St. Michaels lost the football game with Epiphany on Sunday, October 2. The boys worked very hard and it was a hard game to lose. We certainly wish them luck in their games coming up in the next few weeks, and even if they don't win every time, we hope they make a good showing to bolster their morale.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Maxwell, who have been residing on North Mill street have purchased a new home on Orangelawn avenue in Livonia and will move there this weekend.

TENSE MOMENT in a scene from "Ramshackle Inn." Farmington Players' first show of the season, is portrayed by Betty Rood as "Belinda" and Farley Thomson in the role of "Patton." The mystery comedy will be presented October 21, 22, 28 and 29 at the Farmington junior high school gymnasium.

Daughters of America Holds First Meeting

Sunday, October 2 was "Michigan Day" at the Daughters of America home in Tiffin, Ohio. Among the many members from Michigan who visited the home were Past State Councilors Ethel Bulson and Irene Browman; Past Councilors Ella Holmes, Edith Rorabacher, Esther Pollack and Florence Schilinski from Old Glory Council of Plymouth.

Friday, October 7, is our regular meeting and we hope the members will all be out as we have important business.

On October 14, Sister Irene Broegman, 7925 Sheldon road, will open her home for a benefit card party for members and friends.

The Past Councilors club will meet with Sister Esther Pollack, 430 Yukes, Northville on October 17. The Canasta club will meet October 25 at the home of Libbie Showers.

We are planning for a bazaar, bake and rummage sale at the Grange hall, Union street on November 4 and 5, and we need the support of every member.

Our Official visit will be November 18.

Begins Preparations For Xmas Concert

The Livonia Civic Chorus has begun practice for its 1955 Christmas concert, according to an announcement from Donald Robinson of Ann Arbor, director of the group.

The chorus meets each Monday night at 7:30 in the Band room at Bentley high school.

Former members are urged to return and new singers invited to join the group. A deadline will be set soon for the 1955 Christmas concert.

The Livonia Civic Chorus is being offered under the adult education program of the Livonia public schools.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce of Northville road spent last weekend at their cabin at East Tawas.

Plymouth Area Civil Defense News

An American Red Cross First Aid Instructors' course will begin October 6, 8 p.m., at Plymouth Township Hall under Mathew Zak. For further information, call Leo Flowers, 2113.

Director Ernest Henry, at a Civil Defense meeting in the city hall on Sept. 29, appointed leaders for the essential needs in the event of either a natural or military emergency. Practical ways of preparedness were outlined by William Siebert, Wayne County Civil Defense Coordinator, who also stressed the fact that there would be no time for training or procuring of necessary supplies after a disaster occurs.

LaVerne Olds was appointed to head the radio hams. He hopes to work out a plan whereby all those amateur radio operators of Plymouth, Plymouth Township and Canton Township will function as one unit which will be coordinated with the radio control center in Detroit.

Jack Ruland was appointed to head the Wardens for the city of Plymouth. There will be a wardens training course in the near future. Anyone interested in this course should register with Ruland by calling Plymouth 1248-J.

Police Chief Kenneth Fisher is planning a training program for auxiliary policemen.

Stanford L. Besse was put in charge of all of the city's mobile equipment.

Fire Chief Bob McAllister is to select and have marked such buildings as will serve as shelters. He has also arranged for an auxiliary firemen's training course which will start early this month. To register call Chief McAllister at fire station 2, Plymouth 93.

Mrs. William Scott and Mrs. Harry Draper are on an extended trip through the East, visiting in New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania and Washington, D.C. They expect to return to Plymouth around October 12.

Theatre Group Announces Plans For First Show

The Farmington Players have announced that "Ramshackle Inn" by George Batson, will be their first presentation of the current season.

The show, a three-act mystery comedy, will be produced at the Farmington junior high school gymnasium on October 21, 22, 28 and 29. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m.

Directing the play will be Lee O'Connor assisted by Martha Weber. O'Connor has been associated with a number of small theatre groups in the Detroit area. His assistant, Martha Weber, has directed "January Thaw," an earlier presentation of the group as well as appeared in the children's play, "The Return of Robinson Crusoe," and "Harvey."

Leading roles will be played by Betty Rood as "Belinda," role made famous by Zazu Pitts on Broadway; and Farley Thomson as "Patton."

Tickets may be reserved by calling Northville 584R-11 or 4-4466. New members are invited to join the group. For information call the Greenleaf number.

Named Panel Member For Regional Meeting

Miss Pat Lidgard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lidgard of 780 Pine street, will participate in a panel discussion at the regional meeting of college and alumni chapters of Sigma Sigma Sigma, national social sorority, on Saturday, October 8, at Michigan State Normal college in Ypsilanti.

Miss Lidgard also has charge of registration for the one-day event, which will be attended by representatives of the various Tri-Sigma chapters from Kalamazoo, Mt. Pleasant, Detroit and surrounding areas. She is a member of the Omicron chapter, of which Miss Geisla Slabitz is president.

Theme for the regional meeting will be "Sigmas United in Leadership." The conference is held every three years to aid college and alumni members of Tri Sigma in performing their duties as sorority members and in obtaining the greatest benefit from the sorority's educational and social program.

Co-op Nursery Mothers Meet

The Northville Co-op Nursery playschool has announced that mothers of its four-year-old nursery group will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, October 10, at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Warren, 520 Pacific avenue, Plymouth, for their monthly gathering. Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Joyce Faust and Mrs. Frances Demott.

The four-year-old nursery group has been meeting since September 13 with Mrs. Joyce Schipper as teacher. Three-year-olds began their first session on Saturday, October 1, under the direction of Mrs. Fred Hartt, instructor. An orientation meeting was held Monday to introduce the mothers and acquaint them with the procedure of the nursery school. Co-hostesses were Mrs. William Secord and Mrs. Douglas Lorenz.

On September 30 the nursery children took their first field trip to Parmenter's Cider Mill in Northville. The occasion also celebrated the birthday of Andrew Demott, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Demott of Plymouth. Each child and attending mother received a glass of cider and a doughnut.

Theatre Guild Announces Cast For First Show

Names of the cast selected for the Plymouth Theatre Guild's first production of the season, "Dial M for Murder," were released this week following try-outs held Monday, September 26.

Now rehearsing for the show are Guild President J. H. Wilcox, who will appear on stage as "Captain Lesgate;" Jean Ann Aubrey, portraying "Margot Wendice;" W. R. Harris as "Max Halliday;" William McKinnon in the role of "Tony Wendice;" and Russell Wallace appearing as "Inspector Hubbard."

"Dial M for Murder," suspense drama written by Frederick Knott, will be produced for Plymouth audiences on November 3, 5 and 6 (Thursday, Saturday and Sunday.) Curtain time is 8:15 p.m. in the high school auditorium. The Guild production is under the direction of William W. Merrill of Will-O-Way playhouse, Bloomfield Hills. Producer is John H. Lodge.

"Dial M for Murder" was presented on Broadway by James P. Sherwood in October, 1952. It will also be remembered by moviegoers as a Hitchcock thriller starring Ray Milland in the role of "Tony Wendice."

DAR Annual Antique Show Starts Tuesday

Tuesday, October 11, marks the start of the three-day Second Annual Antique show and sale sponsored by the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Plymouth and Northville.

On hand for the event will be some 11 dealers from Saginaw, Ann Arbor, Dexter, Detroit and Royal Oak, Michigan; as well as from Toledo, Ohio and as far away as Coral Gables, Florida. Booths will be set up by the various dealers in the V.F.W. hall on Lilley road, place of the show, to display such wares as antique pewter, copper, jewelry, glassware, china, pictures and furniture of European and American origin.

A special doll collection, featuring antique, character and portrait models created by leading European artists in addition to foreign folk dolls, will be exhibited for sale at the event.

Official dates and time of the show are Tuesday through Thursday, October 11-13, from 12 noon to 10 p.m.

Proceeds from the event will go towards such D.A.R. historical and patriotic projects as aid to mountain schools, annual scholarships at Tamasee school in South Carolina and the Kate Duncan Smith school in Alabama, a pre-college grant to an American Indian girl, and D.A.R. Americanism activities.

Success is just a good idea coupled with hard work.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Herter of Arthur street announce the birth of a son, Lawrence Edward, at Ridgewood hospital, Ypsilanti, on September 6 weighing eight pounds, two ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Olds of Dearborn are the proud parents of a son, Mark Allen, born September 26 in Garden City hospital, weight five pounds, eight ounces. Mrs. Olds is the former Norma Jean Nelson.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Collin D. Williams of West Ann Arbor trail, a son, Timothy Scott weighing eight and one-half pounds. The lad was born on September 26 at Mt. Carmel hospital, Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Downing of Northville announce the arrival of a son, Charles Alan, weight seven pounds, 12 ounces and born on September 30 in Garden City hospital, Mrs. Downing is the former Mary Lou Austin.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Denski of Ann Arbor road have chosen the name Paul William II for their new son, born on October 3 at University hospital, Ann Arbor. Little Paul weighed in at eight pounds, seven ounces. Mrs. Denski is the former Barbara Kanka.

Mr. and Mrs. Foster Brown of Herron, Illinois, spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Lavene Ward of Five Mile road.

Miss Amelia Gayde was pleasantly surprised Tuesday evening when a group of relatives arrived at the home of her nephew, Robert Beyer to help her celebrate her birthday. Guests included Mrs. Otto Beyer, the Robert Beyer family, the Carl Hartwicks, Miss Sarah Gayde, Floyd Burgett and children, of Plymouth; Mrs. William Krause of Birmingham and the T. L. Sullivan's of White Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schuler of Blunk street have returned from a vacation in Phillipsburg, New Jersey, and New York City. They also spent a few days with Mrs. Schuler's sister at Dutton's Bay, Michigan.

Woman's Club Meets Friday In Ypsilanti

Members of the Plymouth Woman's club will hear Mrs. John J. Kistler, immediate past president of the Michigan State Federation of Women's clubs, as guest speaker for their first fall meeting tomorrow, a 12:45 luncheon at the Washtenaw Country club on Packard road, Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Kistler will discuss the girls' town project under consideration by the state organization as well as other federation matters. The state group is working on plans for the establishment of a foster home to care for girls between the ages of 11 and 15. It is hoped that the site may be located somewhere near the Detroit area.

Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing is program chairman for the day. Ticket co-chairmen are Mrs. William Herbold and Mrs. C. C. Wiltse. Transportation arrangements are being made by Mrs. Jack Selle.

Hostesses for the luncheon meeting are as follows:

Mrs. Herbert Woolweaver, Mrs. Alden Van Ornum, Mrs. O. M. Valliquette, Mrs. F. A. Vollbrecht, Mrs. Charles Wolfe, Mrs. Paul Wiedman, Mrs. Louis Truesdell, Mrs. J. R. Witwer, Mrs. J. C. Weed, Mrs. Carlton Wall, Mrs. Edgar Thiele, Mrs. Marvin Terry, Mrs. Ralph Taylor, Mrs. Max Todd, Mrs. Elvin Taylor and Mrs. James Thrasher.

Eastern Star Elects Officers

Results of the annual election held Tuesday night by members of the Order of Eastern Star, No. 115, meeting in the Masonic temple were announced by Mrs. Elsa Gerst, retiring worthy matron of the local chapter.

Heading the organization for 1955-56 are Mrs. Helen Ingram, the new worthy matron; Henry Agosta, who will succeed Frank Willard as worthy patron; Mrs. Gladys Colgan, associate matron; Harry Colgan, associate patron; Mrs. Violet Willard, conductress; Mrs. Chrystena Soule, associate conductress; Mrs. Clara Todd, secretary; and Mrs. Alice Alsbro, treasurer.

Public installation of the new officers has been scheduled for 8 p.m. Tuesday, October 18, at the Masonic temple.

1955 Recreation Lecture Series Opens Next Week

The first of four guest speakers, that shape the 1955 adult education and recreation lecture series, will appear here next Thursday evening, October 13. Opening speaker on the current series is Robert Fortney, district fish supervisor for the conservation department.

Fortney, who will be followed by three other speakers on successive Thursday evenings, will speak on the topic of Michigan, midwest fishing headquarters. This lecture, and all the others, will be held in room 25 of Plymouth high school.

Robert Fortney

Fortney, with 33 years of experience in fisheries management work in the state, is well qualified to speak on Michigan fishing as a headquarters for the Midwest. Starting with the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service at Federal Fish Hatchery in Northville, he has worked in many other locations throughout the state.

He has spent the past seven years as district fisheries supervisor of 13 counties in lower Michigan. Fortney lectures on the Purdue University extension course in fisheries management.

Dr. and Mrs. Dean F. Saxton and daughter, Martha will leave Sunday for their home after spending several days with Dr. Saxton's parents on West Ann Arbor trail. The Saxtons are with the Wycliffe Translators and live on a reservation with a tribe of Papago Indians in the little town of Vamori, Arizona, only a few miles from the Mexican border. They live in a little adobe hut with a dirt floor and must go 22 miles to the nearest store.

Proclaimed by Mayor

WHEREAS the United States of America was one of the nations instrumental in establishing the United Nations in an effort to save succeeding generations from the scourge of war; and

WHEREAS it is the consistent policy of the Government of the United States to encourage and support the work of the United Nations in that effort; and

WHEREAS the United Nations has entered on its tenth year of unremitting labor toward realizing the hopes of mankind for an ordered world based on the supremacy of reason and justice; and

WHEREAS the General Assembly of the United Nations has resolved that October 24, the anniversary of the coming into force of the United Nations Charter, should be dedicated each year to making known the aims and accomplishments of the United Nations and has called on the Governments of all Member States especially to commemorate the tenth anniversary of the establishment of the United Nations:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, R.M. DAANE, Mayor of the City of Plymouth, Michigan, do hereby urge the citizens of this city to observe Monday, October 24, 1955, as United Nations Day by means of community programs that will demonstrate their faith in, and support of, the United Nations and that will create a better public understanding of its problems and of its aims and achievements.

I also call upon the officials and representatives of civic, educational and religious organizations, and agencies of the press, as well as all citizens to cooperate in appropriate observance, with other citizens throughout our country, of this tenth anniversary of the United Nations.

Russell M. Daane, Mayor

Mr. and Mrs. William Highfield, former Plymouth residents, are returning to their home in St. Petersburg, Florida, this week after spending the summer with their children in and around Plymouth.

DeHoCo Inmate, Cow Hurt by Car

A charge of reckless driving has been brought against a Plymouth area man whose car struck a cow and slightly injured a Detroit House of Correction inmate as a herd of cattle were being driven across Phoenix road at night.

Sheriff's officers said that Doyle Rowland, 13909 Gottschalk road, was driving west on Phoenix road at a reported 38 miles an hour when the mishap occurred. Cattle were crossing the road with the assistance of two inmates. A guard with a red flashlight and red flasher was 400 feet down the road, officers said.

Rowland was quoted as saying that he did not see the red signal in time to stop. One of the cows was injured and one of the inmates, Issak Holmes, 23, received slight injuries. The accident occurred at 7:18 p.m. Rowland's 1955 car was heavily damaged.

Rowland is scheduled to appear before Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo on October 14 on the reckless driving charge signed by the guard.

Adult Ed. Enrollment

Enrollment in the Plymouth adult education program for this fall has been termed a "huge success" by Director Herb Woolweaver as he totaled the number of people that will participate in the classes.

The enrollment period was held over an additional week last week in accordance with a decision of the adult education and recreation commission in its meeting recently. This one-week extension "definitely boosted the total response" explained Woolweaver.

Figures, not yet complete on the exact total of enrollees, indicate at this point that the people enrolled will surpass any previous total. The additional enrollment period ended the last week in September. Classes get underway this week.

Sewing Machine Short Ignites Fire in Home

Fire caused considerable damage in one room of a Green Meadows home last Saturday morning when a sewing machine, believed to have had an electrical short, caught clothing afire.

The home was that of Harold Frederick, 9433 Marlowe. Township firemen were called at 10:48 a.m. and soon had the blaze extinguished.

Firemen said that the clothing had been placed on top of the electric sewing machine in the back bedroom and that bared wire on the machine had apparently fused, causing a short and setting the clothing on fire. Nearby curtains, woodwork, wallpaper, painted surfaces and the sewing machine were burned and some other parts of the room were ruined by smoke.

125 Attend Canton Township Hayride

Approximately 125 residents of Canton township enjoyed a hayride Friday night, September 30, organized by John Thorpe, clubmaster of Pack 298.

Township residents donated straw, tractors, farm wagons and furnished drivers for the event. Attending the affair were clubs, their families and friends who later returned from the ride for a hot-dog roast at the township hall.

While the youngsters danced to recorded music, the parents held a meeting and elected new officers to the Canton Township Community club, which sponsors the Scouts and Cubs of Troop 298. Heading the organization are John Thorpe, president; William Hauler, vice president; Mrs. John Wiles, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. Alex Wojewski, entertainment chairman.

Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Cassidy of North Territorial road left Monday for a several days vacation in Williamsburg, Virginia.

Burroughs Makes 2 Appointments

The appointment of two men to head accounting and industrial relations functions of the new Plymouth Division of the Burroughs Corporation has been announced by General Manager Robert A. Niemi.

John B. Coyle, who has been personnel manager at the Plymouth plant since 1953, was appointed manager of industrial relations. In the new position Coyle will direct industrial relations and public relations programs for the division.

John F. Rouse, who has been in charge of accounting activities at the plant since 1953, has been named division controller.

Coyle joined Burroughs in 1948 as an industrial relations research assistant in the Detroit plant. Before transferring to the Plymouth plant, he served as employment manager there from 1950 to 1953. He has also been a member of the faculty of the University of Detroit Evening College for several years.

Rouse joined Burroughs in 1935 as a clerk in the accounting department. From 1935 to 1950, he served in a supervisory capacity in several segments of the corporation's accounting activity.

In 1951, he was transferred to Plymouth to head plant accounting operations.

As division controller, Rouse will be responsible for financial and accounting functions for the division.

10:30 Sunday school.
Classes for pupils up to 20 years of age.

How spiritual understanding of divine law brings freedom from discord of every kind will be explained at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Lesson-Sermon "Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" is the Golden Text from Romans (8:2): "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death."

The importance of coping with sin is emphasized in selections to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy including the following (315:16): "The likeness of God we lose sight of through sin, which beclouds the spiritual sense of Truth; and we realize this likeness only when we subdue sin and prove man's heritage, the liberty of the sons of God."

Readings from the Old and New Testaments of the Bible will include Christ Jesus' parable of the prodigal son (Luke 15).

Yet even her tyranny had such a grace.
The woman pardoned all except her face. — Byron

Announce New Radio Series

A six-weeks radio series, featuring Mary Margaret McBride, well-known network personality, made its debut Wednesday night under the sponsorship of the United Church Women of America, it was announced by the Plymouth council of the organization.

The series, entitled "Citizens in Action," is broadcast over NBC each Wednesday night from 10:30 to 10:45 p.m. and will continue through November 2. During each program Miss McBride interviews UCW representatives from around the world on what united action has achieved in various communities. Locally the series may be heard over WWJ, Detroit.

Programs are as follows: October 5, Youth Finds A Friend; October 12, Environments Remodeled; October 19, Home — Where Is It?; October 26, You Don't Have to Feel Old; November 2, New Neighbors.

Name Chairman Of Episcopal Fund Canvassers

Frank Henderson, chairman of the advisory committee of the building fund campaign of St. John's Episcopal Church, announced this week the selection of J. W. Cheatham of Northville as chairman of canvassers. Cheatham is secretary of the parish and a member of the building fund advisory committee. He has selected Kenneth E. Stevens as his co-chairman of canvassers.

A meeting of team captains is to be held this weekend to organize the canvassing aspects of the campaign and to start the captains on their securing of canvassers. There will be a training session for canvassers, to be held on Saturday, October 22. The work of calling on the entire parish will be done on Sunday, October 23.

A series of 30 neighborhood meetings will be held on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Mrs. Walter K. Sumner is chairman for these meetings and is being assisted by Mrs. John F. Vos.

These neighborhood meetings will be held in the homes of members of the parish, seven or eight of them each evening. It is planned to invite every adult member of the parish to be present at one meeting or another, in order that each person may have a full explanation of the proposal in connection with the building fund. Since each meeting will have only a few people in attendance, it is expected that they will be entirely informal and that a full discussion of all details can be had.

The meetings will not be for solicitation, according to the committee. No solicitation is to be done until the regular canvassing date, almost two weeks later. However, brochures depicting the need for new facilities and the plans of the committee will be distributed to those who attend.

Women of the parish who will serve as hostesses for these meetings include the following: Mrs. Sumner, Mrs. Voss, Mrs. Frank Henderson, Mrs. Lewis H. Goddard, Mrs. Harry J. Christensen, Mrs. Robert Willoughby, Mrs. Douglas Berry, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Mrs. James Hardimon, Mrs. Parker Holden, Mrs. Edward Beukema, Mrs. Walter Breed, Mrs. Arden Sackeff, Mrs. Don Whitesell, Mrs. Ernest B. Williams, Mrs. William C. Boon, Mrs. Paul Ware, Mrs. Herbert G. Culver, Mrs. Lawrence G. Harper, Mrs. William S. Milne, Mrs. Jane Hoyt, Mrs. Roland Bonamic and Miss Margaret Roberts.

Network Group, Guests of Detroit Adventist Church

The Voice of Prophecy radio group, heard from coast to coast, will be making a personal appearance Sunday night, October 9, at 7:45 at the Metropolitan Seventh-day Adventist church in Detroit, located at 15340 Southfield Road.

At the quarter-century mark in religious broadcasting, H. M. S. Richards, speaker and director of the international broadcast, "The Voice of Prophecy," has for his supporting cast J. O. Iverson, associate speaker, the King's Herald quartet, and Bradford Braley, organist. The program is heard every Sunday over two networks, Mutual and ABC, and is released by more than 500 stations in the United States and Canada. These gospel messages are proclaimed in 17 languages throughout Latin America, Europe, the Middle East, India, Australia, the Philippines, and Japan.

Free Voice of Prophecy Bible correspondence courses for home study are offered in 60 languages and dialects around the world. These Bible courses include lessons for boys and girls as well as for adults.

"Cook's Tour" Set For This Year's Episcopal Bazaar

The annual bazaar sponsored by the Women's auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal church, Plymouth has been given a new twist this year.

Scheduled for Thursday, November 17, this year's event has been dubbed a "Cook's Tour." Like the well-known travel feature it will include a conducted itinerary, taking the visitor through several interesting Plymouth homes. Ticket bearers enroute on the tour will be able to purchase the makings of an entire dinner from a host of edibles displayed in the various homes. At one stopping-off place there will be hot rolls, another destination will include salads, or jams, jellies and relishes, etc.

After completion of the trip, guests will return to the church for tea which is included in the price of the ticket. Aprons and other fancy work will also be displayed for sale in the church parlors.

The event will start at 12:30 p.m. from the church. Tickets are available now from Mrs. Walter K. Sumner, chairman, or from any member of the church.

Attend Garden Club Workshop at MSU

President Mrs. Arnold Samuelson of the local Garden club and Mrs. Paul Wiedman, head of the club's Civic Improvement committee and a former president of the organization, attended the first annual program planning workshop for garden clubs on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week at the Kellogg Center for Continuing Education, Michigan State university, East Lansing.

The workshop was sponsored by the Michigan division, Women's National Farm and Garden association, with which the local club is affiliated, in cooperation with MSU.

Superior

Superior ambulance service depends on a number of important factors. The ambulance must be modern, and must be equipped for all emergencies. It must be manned by well-trained attendants, and, finally, it must be readily available to respond instantly at any hour of the day or night. Schradler ambulance service IS such a service.

OUR MOTTO IS . . .

"It is unwise to pay too much, but it's worse to pay too little. When you pay too much, you lose a little money—that is all. When you pay too little, you sometimes lose everything, because the thing you bought was incapable of doing the thing it was bought to do. The common law of business balance prohibits paying a little and getting a lot. It can't be done. If you deal with the lowest bidder, it is well to add something for the risk you run. And if you do that, you will have enough to pay for something better." — John Ruskin.

Dodge Introduces New 4-Door Hardtop

One of the newest, most exciting automobiles to appear on the American motoring scene in recent years is the glamorous 1956 Dodge Four-Door Lancer hardtop. All of the youth and vigor of true hardtop styling has been skillfully combined with the comfort and convenience of the four-door sedan. While the car shown above is in the Custom Royal series, the same body style is being offered in the lower priced Royal and Coronet series.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lester

Bride Dons Lace, Net Gown For Methodist Church Rites

Dressed in a gown of rosepoint lace and net over taffeta, Miss Carol Ann Zander, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Zander of Plymouth, approached the altar of the First Methodist church on Friday evening, September 30, where she exchanged marriage vows with Fred Lester, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lester of Nashville, Tennessee.

A Juliet cap with seed pearls secured the bride's fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of white roses and ivy.

The bride was preceded down the aisle by her two sisters, Mrs. Avis Truax as matron of honor and Mary Zander, bridesmaid. Mrs. Truax wore a gown of rose beige net and satin while Miss Zander was dressed in aqua net.

Both carried bronze baby mums and wore matching headbands.

Flower girl was Deborah Zander, niece of the bride, who wore a short pink nylon dress and carried a basket of white mums and pink roses. The bride's nephew, Brad Truax, was ringbearer for the 8 o'clock ceremony.

Services of best man were performed by Donald Zander, brother of the bride. Ushers were Coin

Hauk, a cousin of the bride, and Charles Truax.

Mrs. Zander chose a navy blue dress with pink accessories and rosebud corsage for the wedding ceremony.

The bride asked her cousin, Mrs. Dorothy Meadows, to be soloist for the nuptial service. Mrs. Beglarian was the organ accompanist for the selections of "Always" and "The Lord's Prayer."

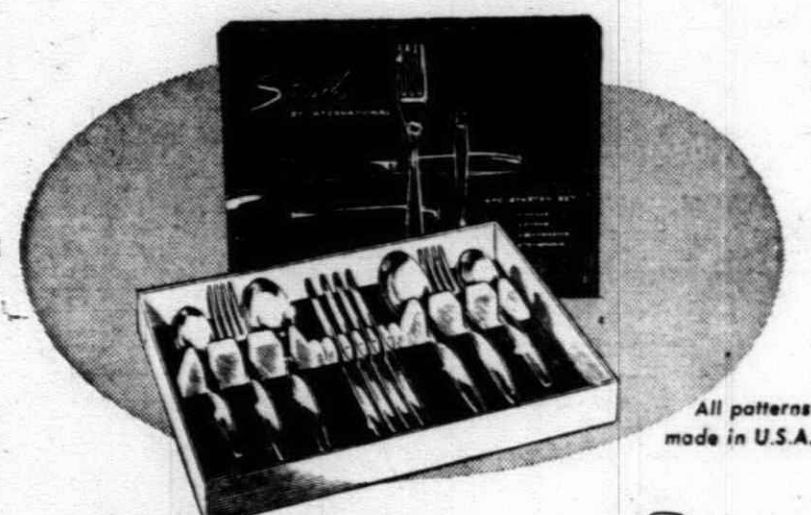

The reception in the church parlors was attended by 150 guests.

A navy blue sheath dress with blue accessories was chosen by the bride for the wedding trip to Northern Michigan.

The couple will make their home on Harvey street in Plymouth.

Mrs. Georgiana Allen of Forest avenue has just returned to Plymouth after a three month's trip through 11 European countries. While abroad she visited her son, Major Stanley Allen and family who are in Paris. Mrs. Stanley Allen is the former Edna Slater of Plymouth.

Customers' Corner

Anniversary Album

You can see by A&P's up-to-the-minute methods of food distribution that we definitely don't live in the past. But, like most oldsters, we do cherish our memories. We've collected quite an album full since 1859. But there's always room for more. And this month, as our 96th Anniversary rolls around, we're adding to our fond recollections of those who have contributed to A&P's steady growth.

Among them are the thousands of loyal A&P employees whose untiring efforts have helped us carry out our founder's policy of bringing more good food to more people for less money, and the millions of customers who have shown their approval of this policy by their continued support and patronage.

We're mighty proud to have so many friends represented in our album of memories and hope to add many new ones in the coming year.

DISPLAYING A NEW roller-type fireplace screen made in his basement workshop, Charles E. Godley of 666 Pine street demonstrates to Mrs. Godley how the device may be raised or lowered to any height through use of a sliding track. The roller box at the bottom keeps ashes in fireplace. Godley, a former development engineer for the automotive industry, retired from his job with General Motors in 1947. Since then he's been working on his own. Plans are to have the new fireplace screen in production soon. Married 52 years, the Godleys first came to Detroit in 1905. They have one daughter living in the Detroit area and a son in Lorain, Ohio.

Small Appliances Help Prepare Meals Quickly

Being a better cook doesn't necessarily mean hours and hours in the kitchen. Small electric appliances cook family meals quickly, are so good-looking and simple to operate that complete meals may be prepared right in front of guests whenever you want to exhibit your cooking flare.

An electric skillet or frying pan will cook a "skillet supper" — a one-dish hot meal. It is particularly practical for cooking those foods which must heat up slowly — soups, all cheese and egg dishes — and no watchful eye is necessary on the heat. The temperature control built right into the handle of the electric skillet keeps heat way down low where it belongs for these recipes and yet reaches high enough heat to cook a very well-done steak.

For hot water devotees who want fast instant coffee ingredients without range use, there are new hot kettles that boil water fast and efficiently. These units double in brass as vaporizers.

Electric deep fat fryers are automatically temperature-controlled, can help bring to the table many new dishes for the family. Constantly correct temperatures saves fat because when heated to the right heat and kept that way, it can be strained and stored in the refrigerator and used many times over. Non-greasy, lightly fried delicacies are possible with the electric fryer because all excess fat drains back into the fryer well away from the food.

New electric toasters make breakfast toast exactly to the degree of brown you and the family like best and they're very useful for sandwich making. Sometimes you may find your toaster isn't lifting the bread automatically. This happens when toasted crumbs get stuck inside the heating element. Merely turn over the toaster, give it a gentle pat over the sink to loose crumbs.

Waffle irons or the combination sandwich-grill waffle irons offer all kinds of family and entertainment meal possibilities. The ready-packaged waffle mixes are easy to stir up — in your electric mixer — and you may add extra richness with additional eggs. Waffle irons need no constantly watchful eye, no peeking to see if waffles are done. A red light automatically turns on when they are ready to serve.

Being fashion-wise in food makes the perfect hostess and a better cook. With today's electric appliances — or table appliances as we prefer to call them — the art of gracious entertaining and living is easily accomplished.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Donnelly of Ann Arbor trail spent Sunday in Alma with their daughter, Joan, a freshman at Alma college.

Good Housekeeper Needs Modern Kitchen Facilities

As in our pioneer days, living today revolves around the kitchen which has become so much a part of everyday existence. Open plan, pass-through, see-through kitchens are more practical, homier, more pleasant to work in and help the homemaker keep a watchful eye on pranksome youngsters and to visit with guests as she prepares meals.

If your kitchen is out-of-date and needs redoing, broaden its everyday use to include laundry appliances. Washer, dryer, and ironer are counter top height and can double as work surface in smaller kitchen areas. If you're lucky enough to have a back porch or pantry, laundry equipment can be placed there, opening up through to the kitchen area with an island work surface.

You may remodel in one thorough overhauling or piece by piece. But by whichever method you achieve a more efficient kitchen-laundry, a little background knowledge of basic work patterns will result in a more easy-to-work-in, livable and happy area of your home.

Remodeling should actually start with the floor. The patterns and versatility of the new linoleums, rubber, vinyl or asphalt tiles can surely set the mood for your new kitchen's decor... and save you waxing and cleaning time.

The three main food preparation centers of any kitchen are the sink, the refrigerator and the range. Each unit requires work surface on either or both sides to eliminate steps and lifting effort. Ideally, you should have a double sink. It doesn't take up much more space than a single one and is useful for small hand laundry jobs. Placing it under a window gives you a more lively view while working. Storage cabinets at the sink area should be large enough for family-sized pots to save precious preparation time.

Let your personal cooking habits and family's food preference guide you in the choice of a gas or electric range.

Gas and electric refrigerators come in all sizes. Here again, the size of your family and weekly shopping habits govern how big a refrigerator you should have.

For the laundry area, keep in mind that there are five steps in doing laundry — sorting, washing, drying, ironing, storing. A fully-equipped home laundry includes an automatic washer, a gas or electric dryer, an ironer and, if there's room — a double sink or tub.

Always iron dark cottons and linens on the wrong side to prevent that shiny look, advise clothing specialists at Michigan State University.

Dishwasher Cuts Work in Half

The personal pride a homemaker rightfully feels in preparing and serving good food for her family and friends is often forgotten with the dreary job of doing the dishes. What's more, unlike dusting, washing or ironing, dishwashing simply must be done, three, sometimes four times a day.

Getting the dishes done automatically with an electric dishwasher cuts dishwashing time by more than half... reduces the amount of dish towels used... allows after-meal leisure for the homemaker.

Electric dishwasher users have discovered to their delight that dirty dishes automatically washed, rinsed and dried do not have to be put on cupboard shelves immediately. They may be left in the dishwasher until time to use them for the next meal.

As for pots and pans, the electric dishwasher washes, rinses and dries these as thoroughly as dishes, glasses and silverware. Badly scorched pots and pans, however, need a preliminary pre-soak.

No matter what model a homemaker chooses, manufacturers have provided for all existing conditions to facilitate installation whether the home is new, older, or remodelled.

Unlike many other vegetables and fruits, tomatoes don't do well in the freezer. But they are just about the easiest of all products to can in a hot water bath because of their high acid content.

Garbage Disposers Speed Up Chores

Garbage disposers chew up all kitchen food waste that collect during food preparation and after-meal clean-ups. They will even work on heavy meat bones.

Because the garbage disposer is installed in the sink, the homemaker can peel potatoes, prepare fruit and other foods right at the sink area, drop it immediately into the disposer unit. There's no messy garbage to attract flies. There's no food waste to ferment or decay and what husbands will particularly appreciate — no heavy, bulky garbage pails to lift and carry outside.

Several models are available to install in average kitchen sinks.

Gas-fired incinerators burn all garbage and trash except tin cans and bones, devour all ash residue. Of standard counter top height, they fit easily into any kitchen area, and are inexpensive to operate. Installation is simple.

NOW THE "PUSHBUTTON" AGE has extended to automatic washing machines. This new, all-porcelain washer features, in addition to hot water economy, a special "pushbutton" panel. The matching dryer's "wet" drying answers the perennial problem of preventing lint, heat and moisture from escaping into the room.

More Hot Water Used in Homes

There are several reasons why we use twice as much hot water in our homes as we did 20 years ago. We bathe more often, do the laundry at home more frequently and millions of homes are equipped with automatic appliances which use up more hot water.

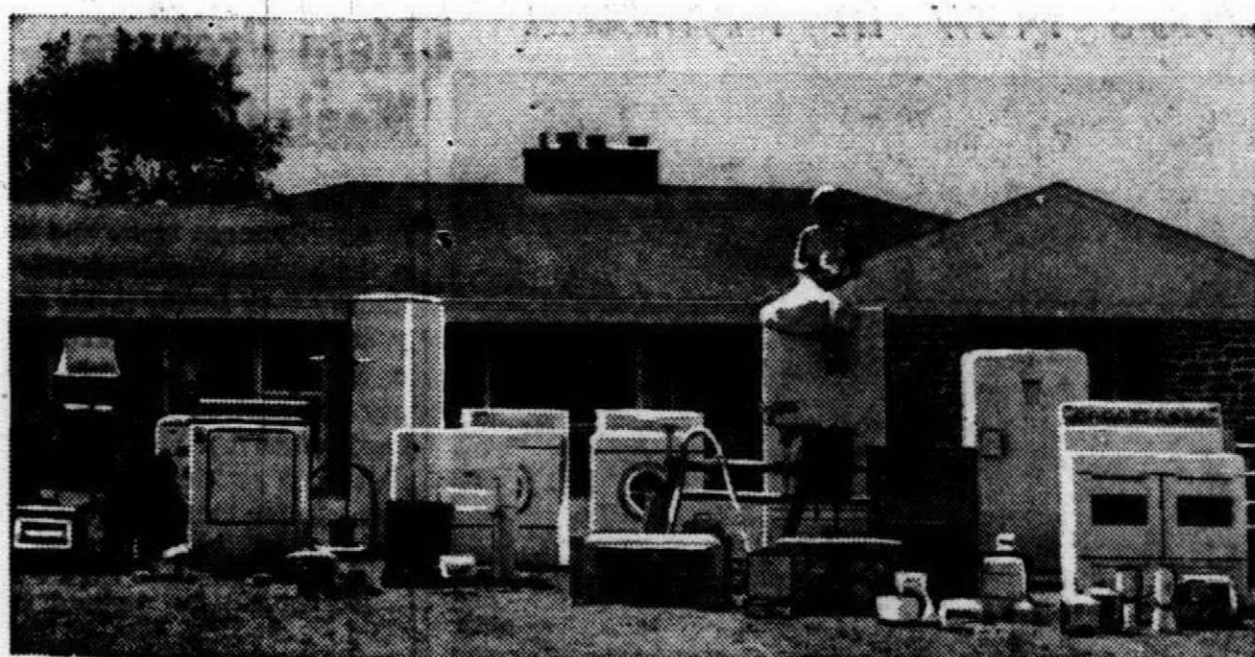

Automatic dishwashers, for instance, sterilize dishes sparkling clean but use more and hotter water in the process. Automatic washers are one of the best examples of the increased use of hot water. All in all, there are 150 uses for hot water in the modern home.

With all these new labor-saving appliances requiring more hot water, there are still too many housewives today who must carefully allot their housekeeping time to an old-type water heater that doesn't keep up with their increasing needs. The family's hot baths may have to be portioned out (especially of it's laundry day.) Or the family washing must be done slowly, in installments to fit in with the lack of ready hot water. Perhaps the four gallons needed for baby's bath must be heated on the kitchen range.

However, the efficiency of modern water heaters is not of much use if the water heater itself isn't of adequate size. Unlike laundry equipment, there are many water heater sizes and unless the proper size selection is made, there will not be enough hot water supply.

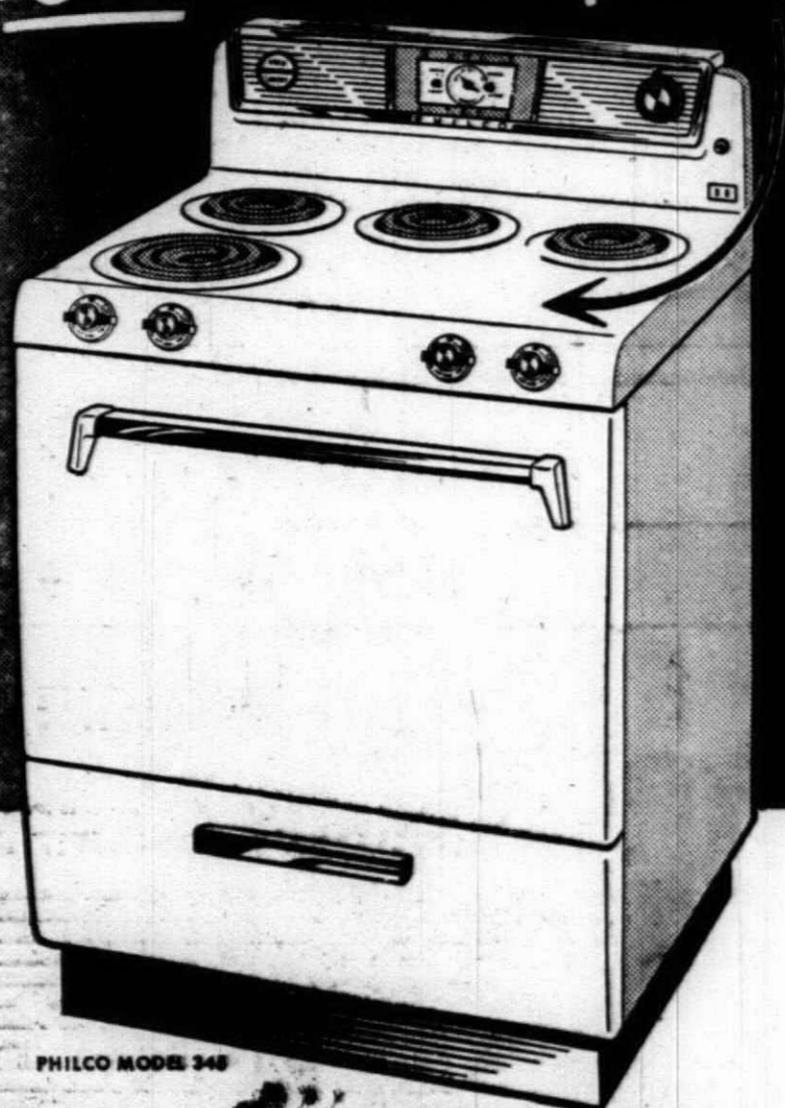

To ensure hot water whenever you want it, tell your appliance retailer or plumber whether you have an automatic washer and how many times a week it is used. If you have a dishwasher, he will need to know that too. Also tell him how many bathrooms and shower baths there are in your house, whether there's a young baby who not only must be bathed daily but whose laundry adds to the hot water burden.

With this detailed information as background, the retailer or plumber can install an automatic gas or electric water heater of adequate size that will serve all your hot water needs, that requires no time, attention or labor.

HERE'S WHAT THE MODERN ranch home can have in the way of up-to-the-minute appliances. Count them and you'll find 45 different units . . . some 30 more than in 1930 homes. This 300% increase in the average number of appliances in use per home is the biggest reason why so many homes today are inadequately wired.

Modern Machines Make Wash Day A Pleasure

Key appliance for home laundering today is the automatic washer which, with one turn of the dial, fills the tub, washes the clothes, rinses them, spins the laundry damp dry for tossing into the dryer or for immediate ironing. It empties the tub and shuts itself off. All automatically.

When automatic washers were

SAVE SPACE, steps and time with a portable dishwasher that freely rolls around the room and requires no costly installation.

Modern Living Demands More In Refrigerators

The changing pattern of American family living and eating habits has created the demand for larger and more varied types of refrigerators. Women find it more convenient to shop once a week for supplies because it takes less time. Frozen foods, covering complete meal needs, require very cold storage.

A type of supermarket storage is, actually, what the modern refrigerator is today — an all-in-one unit with full capacity frozen food sections placed at top or bottom. In some combination units, refrigerator and freezer are equipped with separate outside doors. In others, a separate inside door opens into the freezer section.

The inner section of doors jam-packed with varied storage space—specially-shaped egg holders, separate butter compartments that keep butter at table-serving consistency, bottle shelves and so on.

The interior of the refrigerator is mobile, allows for greater and more efficient storage of all sizes, shapes and kinds of food and food containers. Some models are equipped with a type of Lazy Susan revolving shelf space, others have shelves that slide easily in and out, adjust to almost any height desired. Ice water or fruit juice may be poured directly into a glass from a dispenser on the outside of the door.

What size refrigerator to buy? The most practical basic rule for selecting an adequately-sized refrigerator is to allow six cubic feet for a family of two, an additional cubic foot for each member of the family and about two more cubic feet for guests (more if you entertain frequently).

Family food tastes will govern the type of refrigerator you buy. In any case, both gas and electric models offer an infinite variety of interior food storage organization and mobility.

Most major appliance manufacturers are stealing a leaf from their housewares' brothers and introducing color in their new models. All on an optional basis, it's now possible to go well beyond appliance white in planning or remodeling your home.

Already on display in many stores, these bright new appliance shades herald a new color era in kitchens and laundries.

Keep House Clean

Home experts say keep your house clean and free of dirt as it accumulates. And your most efficient servant to do this daily chore is a new model vacuum cleaner. Few people realize that the new models substantially outperform cleaners of the past few years.

Vacuum cleaner accessories, wise homemakers have learned, are extra servants. They automatically dust off furniture and walls; clean draperies, upholstery and lampshades; suck up dirt from hard-to-get-at crevices, crooks and crannies; clean hard-surface floors; de-moth; spray paint, disinfectants and liquid floor waxes.

This electric servant helps keep clothes clean. Merely attach the drapery or upholstery nozzle, run it over suits, hats, dresses, slacks. As for automobile interiors, the same attachment is ideal.

Food Cooks While Cook Reads Book

The evolution of the kitchen range has come a long way since 1744 when Benjamin Franklin's invention of a box-like, iron cooking stove was hailed by early-American housewives.

In 1955, electric and gas ranges are completely automatic. Today's cook can pop complete meals into her oven or broiler and walk out while the food cooks.

How to choose a gas or electric range is like telling a woman how to buy a hat. The choice of a range must be on a personal basis of cooking habits and family food preferences.

Since so many combinations of the five main cooking areas — oven, broiler, top, built-in griddle and built-in deep well cooker are available, the choice is indeed wide.

Women who like to bake a lot will choose a range with two ovens or one large over-size oven. If broiled food is a family favorite, a separate or larger broiling section is preferable, perhaps even two broiler units. Griddles too, provide an extra cooking facility. A deep well cooker is still another easy way of cooking an entire meal in one single unit.

Speed-heating, top-of-the-range units for both gas and electric ranges are usually arranged; blocked together on either the left or right side on the range with work space on the opposite side; staggered, or in rows along the side of the range with work space in the center.

Whatever model you select, according to your own cooking habits, you can have completely automatic controls for oven, broiler and top-of-the-stove cooking units.

An omelet out of hash? Make it like this: Into a large, well-greased skillet break with a fork two cans of corned beef hash. Heat slowly to crisp and brown. Turn onto a heated platter, cover with creamy, soft scrambled eggs and fold over.

Hot weather time is fruit punch time. To keep ice cubes from diluting the punch, try freezing some of the fruit juice in ice cube form and adding them to the punch.

Matches and lighters should be kept far out of the reach of small children.

Curains, papers, furniture, laundry and anything that burns easily should not be anywhere near kitchen stoves or heaters or furnaces where they might catch fire.

The basement and attic — and closets, too — should be neat and clean because very bad fires can start in piles of old clothes, papers, paint cans and rags, and other rubbish. This kind of junk is very dangerous to keep anywhere in the house.

Ash trays — big ones — are a very good thing to have in every room in the house. Matches and cigarettes carelessly thrown away start more fires than anything else.

Sparks from a fire can travel a long way. Sparky, the famous fire dog, has some special advice for youngsters during this Fire Prevention week, October 9-15, reports Fire Chiefs Robert McAllister of the city and Howard Holmes of the township.

The best way that boys and girls everywhere can help fight fires, says Sparky, is to stop fires before they start. And he tells us that the most important place we can do this is right in our own homes.

Boys and girls can make believe they're fire inspectors, Sparky suggests, and check their homes for any possible fire dangers that mother and dad ought to know about.

Here are some of the things that Sparky says a real fireman looks for when he makes a home fire inspection:

Frayed electric cords — these often start fires and should be replaced.

No Back Blues With New Dryer

Gas or electric laundry dryers eliminate the back-breaking chore of lugging a heavy, wet basket of clothes up basement stairs, the hanging up, the taking down from backyard clotheslines. Thermostatic controls on the dryer allow the homemaker to set the drying time to any degree of dampness or dryness, automatically turn dryer off.

Ironing drudgery is cut in half. Bath towels fluffy-dry, do not get crumpled and clothesline-crooked. All corduroys, chenille bedspreads, bath mats and most underwear, after being automatically dried, need only a gentle smoothing with the hand before storing in linen or clothes closet. As for the synthetics, they are as safe as in the automatic washer because the dryer's automatic timer can be set to whatever drying time is required.

Since no dependence on the whims of the weather exists, when to wash simply doesn't matter. The clothes hamper need never overflow. Washing and drying can be done, two three or four times a week. That means a smaller supply of household linens is required, most practical where there are young babies or children in the house who need plentiful changes of clothing no matter the season, or the weather.

Saving in wear and tear when clothes are automatically dried in the drier is immediately obvious to those hundreds of thousands of homemakers who enjoy the use of them.

For all the problems of outdoor drying are eliminated — the dust, the rain, sleet and snow, the slipping clotheslines, the soot, smoke and smog and the tearing of clothes when the wind blows high and strong.

A new flame-resistant finish for cotton cloth has been developed by U. S. Department of Agriculture scientists. It is hoped to be used in the future for safer uniforms, tents and other cotton fabric items for the military. The finish adds wrinkle resistance and rot resistance to the fabric.

THIS LARGE SIZE, automatic basting and turning rotary roaster is standard equipment on some electric ranges for 1956. The fast growing vogue for barbecued foods is amply met by this new model which eliminates basting and turning foods by hand.

Rotisserie Called All-Around Aid

The newest way to roast or barbecue poultry and meat is in the rotisserie. And, serve rotisserie-cooked food wherever your fancy, the family or guest preference dictates — the porch, the rumpus room and even for convalescents, the bedroom. And, of course, rotisseries are at home in the kitchen too, when you want fast, flavorful food preparation.

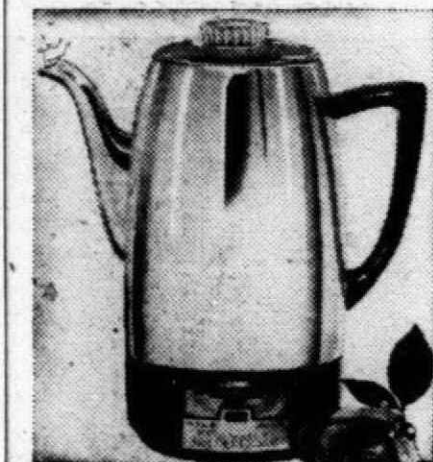

Rotisseries are not limited to roasting and barbecuing. Most of them perform a lot of additional cooking chores. You can bake a cake, boil vegetables, fry a fish, grill chops. Warm up the breakfast buns in the rotisserie if you like. And for defrosting, just place vegetables, fruit or meat from freezer or refrigerator in the rotisserie, turn the thermostat to warming temperature and your frozen foods are ready for cooking or immediate serving much faster than at room temperature.

Rotisserie models available at appliance retailers include those which bake, broil, barbecue, fry, roast, grill. Multi-temperature heat, automatic thermostatic control, automatic timers and even automatic spits are additional assets. Select the one which best fits your family and entertaining needs.

Sparky, the Fire Dog, Gives Advice

Sparky, the famous fire dog, has some special advice for youngsters during this Fire Prevention week, October 9-15, reports Fire Chiefs Robert McAllister of the city and Howard Holmes of the township.

The best way that boys and girls everywhere can help fight fires, says Sparky, is to stop fires before they start. And he tells us that the most important place we can do this is right in our own homes.

Boys and girls can make believe they're fire inspectors, Sparky suggests, and check their homes for any possible fire dangers that mother and dad ought to know about.

Here are some of the things that Sparky says a real fireman looks for when he makes a home fire inspection:

Frayed electric cords — these often start fires and should be replaced.

Matches and lighters should be kept far out of the reach of small children.

Curains, papers, furniture, laundry and anything that burns easily should not be anywhere near kitchen stoves or heaters or furnaces where they might catch fire.

The basement and attic — and closets, too — should be neat and clean because very bad fires can start in piles of old clothes, papers, paint cans and rags, and other rubbish. This kind of junk is very dangerous to keep anywhere in the house.

Ash trays — big ones — are a very good thing to have in every room in the house. Matches and cigarettes carelessly thrown away start more fires than anything else.

Sparks from a fire can travel a long way. Sparky, the famous fire dog, has some special advice for youngsters during this Fire Prevention week, October 9-15, reports Fire Chiefs Robert McAllister of the city and Howard Holmes of the township.

Eino Hayskar Solves Grid Quiz

Well, we've got a new grid expert this week. He's Eino O. Hayskar, 1434 Penniman, who hauls some ten smackers for winding up first in The Mail's big weekly "Pick-the-Winners" football contest.

Hayskar nailed down the pole position this week by figuring 13 winners out of the 15 battles listed. He even foresaw the Baltimore Colts' upset of the Lions, which few other contestants expected.

In a photo finish with Hayskar was Janice Holladay, 9445 Brookline, who had to settle for second place and seven bucks because she was a "leetle" long on the score of the Lions-Colts tilt. Both Hayskar and Jan had the same two picks wrong, but Hayskar's score was closer.

And cashing a three dollar check is Betty Gobel, 994 York, who placed third in the quiz on the strength of only three errors. She was the only entry, among the many with three miscues, that predicted the Colts' victory.

Hayskar, as first-placer, is an interesting sort of contest winner. Although he played college football at Northwestern U. back in the 1930's and has a great interest in the game, it took his son, Steve, to urge him into entering this quiz.

And as you already know, Hayskar came out on top of the heap. Steve entered, too, but didn't fare so well as his dad.

This is the first contest of any sort that Hayskar has won, since he doesn't enter many of them. He says, "It's the wife that does that." But he thinks he'll enter all our grid quizzes now.

About this last contest, it was dilly. Upsets and near-upsets everywhere you looked. Stanford tipped up Ohio State, the Colts nick Detroit and LSU ties Rice. Well, at least you know sort of what to expect from this next quiz, which is right in front of you now. There's a fat ten spot waiting for someone who can foresee farther than the rest of the pack.

HE HAD TO BE urged by his son to get into the most recent grid quiz but now Eino O. Hayskar (at right) won't think twice about entering. Hayskar copped first prize of ten smackers by picking 13 winners. Presenting him with his ten-buck check is Frank Walsh of King Furniture, one of the sponsors of the contest.

PLYMOUTH SCHOOL NEWS

Ceremony, Party Welcome New Y-Teens

New members of the Y-Teens were accepted in a formal recognition service last Thursday. On Tuesday, September 26, at 7 p.m. a Kiddies party was held as an informal initiation. All the girls came dressed as youngsters, complete with lollypops and dolls and participated in various children's games. Club President Roberta Lidgard gave a short talk on what the Y-Teens should mean. The girls then sang their club song and the party closed with a friendship circle.

Some of the annual events for the club are the May breakfast, a Mother and Daughter dinner and All Girls party. A service, as well as social project, will be presented each month.

Releases Scholarship Information

Information regarding several scholarships available to seniors has been released by Miss Ruth Butts of the counselor's office.

One of the top scholarships offered is the National Merit Scholarship, awarded on the basis of superior ability and capacity to benefit from college education.

The financial grant which accompanies the scholarship, but will not be made public, is based on financial need. Grants will range from $400 to the complete cost of tuition, board and room for four years of college. The selected top five per cent of the class will take a preliminary screening test in their schools on Wednesday, October 26. No special study is necessary.

Another of the scholarships offered is one given by Stanford University, Stanford, California. Applicants for this scholarship are required to take the College Entrance Examination Board's scholastic aptitude test and file a confidential financial report with the Board's College Scholarship service. Applicants must file complete forms and full credentials by March 1, 1956.

Information regarding other scholarships can be obtained from Miss Butts of the Counselor's office.

Plans Completed For Starkweather Grade Fair

Plans have been completed for Starkweather school's big Starkweather Fair, which will be held at the grade school Saturday, October 8, from 5 to 9 p.m. Everyone is invited to attend the event which is chairmanned by John Rudloff, of the Starkweather grade school Parent-Teacher association.

Highlighting the evening's program will be the appearance of Cowboy Colt's trick horse "Pal" from the television show, plus the horse's trainer, Cookie. In addition John Maxwell, 42055 Joy, will be on hand with his 1919 Port Huron steam engine to give rides to the youngsters attending.

Also included among the evening's festivities are a dunking machine, cake and pie walk, fish pond, fun house and many other gala events. A dinner will be served to the guests starting at 5:30.

Presented by the Starkweather grade school P.T.A., the fair is being staged in order to raise money that will go toward further outfitting of the grade school's newly acquired playground.

(Work has already begun on the playground's ramp that will lead to the lower level below the school at the foot of the adjacent hill.)

Beside Chairman Rudloff, other persons on the P.T.A.'s finance festival, include: William Foster, teacher at the Starkweather school; Mrs. Jean Outman; Edgar Brown; and Mrs. Florence Neal.

Gridders Muzzle Bulldogs, 34-13, For Third Win of Current Season

Snapping back from a six point deficit after the opening seven minutes of play last Friday evening, the rambling Rocks pummeled Bentley high school into submission, 34-13, behind an exploding offensive attack.

Contributing to the Plymouth decision over its arch-rivals were Quarterback Jackie Carter's four touchdown passes, one which traversed 60 yards, and Fullback Dick Davidson's 48-yard TD jaunt.

This victory, third in a row for the locals this year with no defeats to mar the card, shaped Plymouth's second 6-B league football win in as many outings. In addition it virtually KO'd the Bulldogs, tied earlier by Allen Park, from further loop contention.

The Rocks exhibited a deceptive offense that would grind out yardage desperately at one stage of the contest and then literally explode for lengthy ground or aerial gains.

But the Plymouth grid machine needed urging before it really went to work. Receiving the opening kick-off and storming back up the field, the Rocks proceeded to fumble the ball over into Bentley possession.

The Bulldogs, quick to capitalize on their unexpected opportunity, drove back to the Plymouth 18, where a pass into the left flat from Quarterback Tim Snarey to End Ken McIntyre completely suckered the Rocks' defense and earned the Bulldogs a 6-0 lead after seven minutes had elapsed.

But this edge was short-lived. On the kick to Plymouth, the Rocks slammed down field to take over a lead they never relinquished.

Returning the kick to their own 35, the Rocks needed only four plays to send them out in front for keeps with Carter's pass to Captain Lindy Mills capping the drive. The play covered 35 yards and by virtue of Davidson's conversion of the extra point, Plymouth led 7-6 at the end of the initial quarter.

But the best was yet to come for Plymouth partisans, who had howled when the Bulldogs took an early lead.

With two minutes passed in the second period Carter from 18 yards out unleashed another aerial, this time to the waiting Len Ferguson, who lugged the pigskin in for the Rocks' second score.

This approach was highlighted by fine running gains on the parts of lightning-like Kenzie Calhoun, Mills and Davidson, the latter who ripped off a 25 yard lunge prior to Carter's TD pass. Davidson missed this extra-point attempt.

The locals upped their margin to 20-6 with nine minutes elapsed in the second stanza, when Carter's aerial artistry connected for 60 yards and a touchdown to Mills.

Just before this pass that brought the Rocks' rooting section to its feet, the two teams had volleyed back and forth with Plymouth taking a Bulldog punt on its own 30. George Pine and Mills combined to give the locals a first down on their own 40 setting the stage for Carter's toss. Davidson converted.

The contest was just starting to look rosy for the Rocks when the Plymouth defense was totally fooled again and Bentley drove home another touchdown, keeping the Bulldogs hot on the trail. Plymouth had taken over possession on its own 10 with only a minute to go to the half, when another fumble handed the ball right back to the visitors.

Once again capitalizing on the break offered to them, the Bulldogs pulled to within seven points of the Rocks. Dick Clark, Bentley captain, rolled out of his backfield and arched a pass to Snarey in the far flat. Snarey lugged it in and Clark's conversion brought the halftime count to Plymouth 20, Bentley 13.

But this was as close as the Bulldogs could get, as the Plymouth defense tightened up and slammed the door on any further

Bird, Catholic Tie In Grid-Iron Battle

In grade school grid-iron action last week Bird and Catholic schools battled to a 6-6 deadlock when the Catholic team battled from behind in the second half to shove over a tying TD.

Catholic was outplayed throughout the first half as Bird drove to a tally in the last 30 seconds on the strength of Kenny Fisher's 12-yard sprint. The conversion try was missed.

Storming back in the second half, Catholic, despite being heavily penalized, managed to tie the contest up with a score in the last 10 seconds. Jim Gavigan plunged the last yard on a sustained drive.

When the Catholic conversion attempt failed the battle wound up in a 66 stand-off.

PLYMOUTH'S junior varsity grid squad this fall has taken fine example from the regular varsity eleven. The JayVees opened their season with a 20-0 win over neighboring Northville and then notched a second victory last week with a close 12-7 edge over Belleville. Pictured here is the starting line-up for the junior varsity receiving instruction from JayVee coach Roger Smithling. Across the line from left are Jim Urquhart, John Luther, Gerald Kleinsmith, Bill Jones, Dick Small, Darl Snyder and Al Spigarelli. In the backfield at quarter is Dick Anderson, at right-half is Ron Turkett. Myron Hopper is at full and Al Runge completes the team at left-half.

LINED UP BENEATH new goal posts, two teams of gridders face each other on Local Magician Roy Rew's homemade football field. Rew built the field so that the neighborhood kids could play after dark by way of lights, but now they play all the time. Rew watches in the background.

Magician Conjures Up Kids' Gridiron

Roy Rew, well-known local magician, conjured up a strange do-it-yourself project in his back yard recently. He built a football field.

But not for any sleight-of-hand performance that he so ably can haul out of his bulging bag of tricks. He built the gridiron for neighborhood youngsters who feel the pull of football each fall about this time.

Rew produced goal posts, a lighting set-up for night-time and chalk lines that designate yardage. He's furnished about 40 kids with an honest-to-goodness football field.

It all came about when the boys around his house at 1051 Harding street wanted to keep on playing with the ol' pigskin even after dark. Rew thought he'd help them out with a lighted-field.

But now the kids swarm to his back yard not only at night, but right after school and on Saturdays and Sundays. They've organized two teams and have waded their way through seven league games already.

Rew went a little further and talked a couple of local businessmen into furnishing the teams with playing jerseys. Now it's Davis and Lent vs. Plymouth Men's Wear when the youngsters face each other.

The field itself is about 90 feet long by about 50 feet wide. The goal-posts at either end look extremely professional under their coat of silver paint.

For games, the parents gather to watch and cheer. And a father usually volunteers his services for refereeing. After a tilt, the youngsters, all under 16 years old, head for the refreshment stand where the parents serve up cold pop.

In the seven games played so far, each team has won three while one battle wound up a tie.

Looking out at you from under their helmets, the kids all agree that it was quite a trick, this football field that Rew conjured up.

Rocks Face "Big Hurdle" Test In Clash with Trenton Friday

Next and perhaps the biggest hurdle facing the Plymouth Rocks along their 6-B league football path this year is the Trenton gridiron, whom the locals will come up against tomorrow evening under the lights behind the high school here.

This match will mark the third 6-B loop contest for both teams in the current race for league grid honors.

As the battle shapes up now, it may well be the deciding one of the current campaign for either the current campaign for either Trenton or Plymouth. Figures in the won-lost column indicate that the Trojans are Plymouth's leading contender in the present scramble for the '55 6-B crown.

Thus far the Trojans have matched the Rocks in league victories, notching wins over Redford Union two weeks ago (31-0) and Allen Park last Friday (12-6). Meanwhile Plymouth scored a decision two weeks ago over Belleville (6-0) and one over Bentley last weekend (34-13).

Trenton opened its year with a white-wash win over Inkster, 19-0, while the Plymouth unit was over-powering neighboring Northville, 37-0. In addition, both the Rocks and Trenton administered last rites to their opponents of last Friday. Previously Trenton's victim, Allen Park, and the Rocks' undertaking, Bentley, had both battled each other to a 13-13 deadlock.

The defeats pinned on these two squads virtually knocked them out of the 6-B league running, each now being a loss and a half in arrears. Returning to the Trenton vs. Plymouth tilt tomorrow night, it will pit the Trojans' veteran head grid coach of five years standing, Neil Van Ripar, against the Rocks' new mentor, John Hoben, who has held the reins here through only three games.

With regard to the grid prowess of the current Trojan ball club, it appears that the Trenton edition for 1955 is well improved over last year's squad. In 1954 the Trojans turned in a fourth place finish in league competition on the strength of two wins and three defeats. Their over-all card was a mediocre four wins, four losses and one tie. Eleven returning lettermen will shape the core of Van Ripar's club, which will journey to Plymouth tomorrow. Heading up the Trenton fortunes are co-captains Ralph Price (half-back) and Fred Wood (tackle).

This squad of Trojans will be facing only seven returning Plymouth lettermen on the grid-iron Friday, but it is a well-tested group of up-coming players that will add to the Rocks' chances. The Rocks are captained this year by half-back Lindy Mills.

A spokesman for the Trenton club, reporting prior to the Trojans' win over Allen Park last Friday, explained that the squad was "not too much tested yet" referring to the two earlier shut-outs by Trenton over Inkster and Redford Union.

Game time for the battle tomorrow is set at 8:00 p.m. under the lights on the grid-iron behind the high school. Last year the Plymouth Rocks spanked Trenton, 19-0.

Standing in the 6-B league football race are as follows:

Trenton	2	0	0
Redford U	1	1	0
Allen P	0	1	1
Bentley	0	1	1
Belleville	0	2	0

By DIZZY TROUT

You never stop planning for the future in baseball.

Although the Tigers improved on their record of last year, they still couldn't fight their way back to the first division largely because of a tremendous late-season spurt by Boston, the same team that knocked them out of fourth place in 1954.

The natural question is why did the Tigers falter after holding onto fourth for so long, why couldn't they beat back the challenge of Boston?

The answer lies apparently in a couple of major weaknesses. The Tigers desperately need a sound-hitting second baseman and a good right-hand hitting catcher to share duties with Frank House, a left-handed swinger who has finally found himself at the plate.

Youngsters Coming Up
In addition, we could use more help on the mound, particularly in the relief department, although these problems may not be too serious. Youngsters like Duke Maas, Babe Birrer and Bud Black may well fit in with Billy Hoelt, Frank Lary and the veteran hurlers next season.

Moreover, Steve Gromek, on the basis of some fine relief work at the end of the campaign, may very well be the fireman we've been looking for. Without one or two standout relievers, you're a dead duck in today's kind of baseball.

Ol' Diz believes the Tigers are two years away from being a serious pennant contender on the basis of what they've done this season and the potentialities with the club and soon to come up.

However, they certainly should show natural improvement next year and get back in the first division, if too many breaks don't help against them.

Our deepest sympathy to Auxiliary member, Eleanor Prough, whose father passed away recently.

The membership committee, under the chairmanship of Helen Bowring, has announced a new membership campaign. They have organized two teams of auxiliary members. Captains of the teams are Lucinda Archer and Helen Bowring. A point system has been arranged whereby each team earns points for attendance at the meetings and for bringing in an extra new member.

At a meeting of the Community Service committee, Any letters received by V.F.W. Auxiliary members from Congressmen or Senators concerning Veteran legislation in reply to letters that have been written should be turned over to Legislative Chairman Kay Coolman. They are recorded in her notebook to help to earn points for her committee!

The post is planning another annual Halloween dance on Saturday, October 29, at the Post Hall. Dancing and entertainment are planned for the evening and tickets are available from any Post member. The dance is open to the public. You may come Halloween-dressed or not, just plan on attending!

One of the most encouraging things about operating a business I suppose, is a friendly note or word from the more respected and tried members of your particular profession. A note received a day or two ago from one of my father's most valued friends and one of Michigan's most respected journalists is most certainly worth repeating especially because he so accurately rated one of our most beloved citizens.

"Dear Sterling: I have just finished your superlative editorial on 'Charley' Bennett. Any person to rate this kind of appreciation must be a wonderful citizen. These kind of comments are not only deserving but useful - surely in a community sense. Best wishes to you and my respect to Mr. Bennett." Cordially, Murl H. DeFoe, editor, The Charlotte Republican, Charlotte, Michigan.

*****

Another observation worth passing on to our readers is from the Petoskey Evening News editorial columns titled, "Petoskey Catches Heck." The editorial stemmed from comments published in this column a while back about treatment we had received in a couple of restaurants in that city. Because the alert editors of that fine paper took an opportunity to awaken their business firms to a need for courteousness and a friendly smile, we feel its content well worthy of all of us here in Plymouth serving the public, to digest as well.

"Funny thing about good will or bad will - one seldom knows how far it will go.

"Petoskey got a great deal of undesirable publicity in the editorial columns of the Plymouth (Mich.) Mail because its editor felt he was brushed off here.

"He said in one restaurant he went in the manager was unfriendly and seemed reluctant to bother pulling tables together for his party. Then the waitress sort of growled and snapped while taking the order.

"All in all, he was mighty mad about the whole thing.

"WE'VE HEARD MANY times that a stranger's impressions of a town are based on his good or bad experiences when he shops, buys gas, eats or takes lodging. In fact the chance remark or attitude of a man at a gas pump, a clerk in a store or a waitress may turn a person against a town or sell him on a return trip.

"It's funny, isn't it, how important each of us value the little things based around common courtesy, a friendly smile or an offer of assistance which costs no one nothing and takes very little effort?

"Of course during the rush period of the summer we often get too busy (or think we are) and let our spirit of hospitality sag. This is dollars and cents to the town and it might do well for anyone in business to keep his eyes open for such a sag. A snippy answer may drive a customer away for good."

Gertrude Samuels, staff writer for the New York Times Magazine had this to say in her column last week. "Where there is no vision, the people perish." -Proverbs, XXIX, 18. "Throughout the country, city planners and social scientists, faced with tough overpopulation and delinquency problems, are deeply worried about communities that are running down. Good neighborhoods become overcrowded; buildings show their age and maintenance slips; new groups pour in, competing for space, education, understanding; old groups, decent and devoted to the community, develop fears and flee to "safer" neighborhoods.

"Perhaps more important than the physical blight itself is this blight's impact on human values. Social scientists note that in every community, the life or death of the area is traceable to the vision - or the lack of vision - of its leaders. The real building blocks, they observe, are people; and whether a community lives or grows depends on whether people are being divided by worsening conditions, or held together by the cement of human relations."

I read the above opening paragraphs of her item several times and couldn't help think of our own hometown, Plymouth. It struck me more vividly I guess because I knew that here we had a group of interested people who were already thinking of her inflections in the terms of Plymouth. A group which at a meeting last week discussed the possibility of a multi-million dollar face-lifting for our community... a problem so big it startled those at the meeting. Yet, knowing ultimately this community would be faced with the same problem hundreds of other cities are burdened with today... they were ready to tackle this problem for the benefit of our children, our residents, our landlords and our businessmen, no matter what the consequences, NOW, rather than being forced to more costly action some years ahead.

Strictly in the line of speculation, as a member of the particular group I am talking about, it should be stated that early discussions by these visionaries brought to light the possibility of forming a non-profit corporation to steer the project. A meeting last Monday noon with one of America's foremost city planners gave them additional food for thought. I shall not be surprised, in the near future, if a public announcement is made of the formation of a corporation to "promote the improvement and development of Plymouth as an attractive residential, educational and cultural community."

It is being done throughout America in hundreds of municipalities today to make for better living. Gertrude Samuels' article traced a five year program, along the same lines, which is now nearing completion at a cost of sixty million dollars, in Morningside, New York. She sums up her Morningside story thusly: "What has been taking place is a complete recasting of the community. The changes in the physical plant have been stepped up by legislation; the human gains were wrought by the people themselves. The way has been hard and tortuous at times; there have been resistance and misunderstanding and hostility. 'Urban renewal,' the planners wryly observe, 'can't be done overnight.' But the achievements of the past five years—and the failures—make a dramatic balance sheet."

Two Weeks in One!

Fire Prevention

Fire Prevention Week is not designed as a week in which folks are to avoid having fires. It is probable that there will be as many fires next week during the observance as any other week. What firemen and other officials hope to accomplish during the week is to merely call attention to the public the needless waste of lives and property due to fires. If citizens let these few facts sink in, their own common sense should make them fire-prevention conscious the other 51 weeks of the year. Property losses resulting from fires reached a national total of $870,984,000 in 1954. The sad part of this fact is that much of it is due to sheer negligence. How many times have you allowed a bonfire or rubbish fire to go unattended in your back yard? If Plymouth city and township firemen could get this problem licked, they would have almost half of their fire runs eliminated. During a dry period, the departments get up to one or two calls a day to extinguish grass fires. There is usually no other cause than the impatience of someone to stand by and watch rubbish burn. Firemen warn that citizens should not be embarrassed to call the fire department. Many people have the idea that they can save the firemen some work by extinguishing the blaze themselves. Occasionally they may be successful, but too often the fire gets out of hand and finally the fire department is called—perhaps too late. Our community is fortunate in having well-equipped departments. Despite the fact that most of the fire-fighters are volunteers both in the township and city, they have been willing to undergo constant training and have been able to keep fire losses amazingly low. Through mutual assistance agreements, fire apparatus and men from a dozen area departments could be at our disposal if there is a major blaze. But with all of the fire fighting equipment and trained men at our disposal, there is nothing better than a fire-conscious citizen. The old saying "an ounce of prevention" is not too old when your own home and lives are at stake.

Freedom of Information

This week's celebration of National Newspaper Week, based on the theme "Freedom of Information," comes at a time when the press is engaged in a valiant struggle to maintain its position as the chief purveyor of the information needed to assure an informed public. "Freedom of Information" means just one thing: the free flow of news about public housekeeping. Since only a few misguided individuals will quarrel with the theoretical implications of this definition, one might wonder why the sub-title of the National Newspaper Week theme should read "Your Newspaper Fights for Your Right to Know." The answer (and the explanation of the present struggle) lies in man's tendency to suppress information which he feels should not be made a matter of record. When he does this in his personal affairs, few are affected. But if he is a public official, when he pulls down the black curtain of censorship on information of true public concern and proper public interest he is guilty of hindering the free flow of news. During the 150 years that followed the adoption of the Constitution, the American newspapers won a number of notable victories in their vigorous and continuing campaign to obtain and publish the news about public affairs which they felt the citizens should have if the promises of democratic government were to be achieved. The campaign was based on the theory that it was the responsibility of the press to serve as a transmission vehicle in maintaining the flow of intelligence about affairs in those branches of government - legislative, administrative, and judicial - of direct and vital concern and importance to the public. National and state freedom of information committees are spearheading the battle. Their leaders insist that "public business is the public's business," and that the requirements of national security should not be used by the executive branch as a cloak to hide information that common sense dictates should be made available to the public. In the second aspect of the struggle, the same leaders argue that the judiciary's insistence on the right to a fair trial should not blindly and blandly deny the existence of new technological facilities, particularly the camera, in covering news. There is ample proof that the public likes pictures and very little proof that picture-taking hinders the administration of justice. There is nothing elementary about the situation. Everyone favors utmost national security, absolute assurance of a fair trial, freedom of the press, and the dignity of the citizen. What the press seeks is a definite set of boundaries. This will require discussion and here and there compromise. Any action taken, of course, must be in harmony with the one paramount requirement - "Your Right to Know."

Shorter Hours Cause Bad Debt Boom

If you're an average American, this last year has been an unusually successful one. You're had good employment, have probably "collected" more money than ever before in your life, and you've bought a lot of things, including several of the more costly items purchased on the installment plan. For your own safety, do you owe too many people too much? BAD DEBT BOOM DUE TO SHORTER HOURS There is a boom of a new sort which has been shaping up in recent months. — a bad debt boom. Collection agencies are having the most business they have had in many months, with increases in their business of from 30% to 100%. This means, of course, that a great many people are not paying their bills. As a matter of fact, the American Collectors' Association estimates that about 10 million families, or one in every five, are over their heads in debt. Do you realize that Americans today owe more than $12.5 billions on car-installment loans; that mortgage debts are close to the $125 billion mark? And these are but two items people purchase on time while working shorter hours. Why are people so deeply in debt in such good times? The collection agency will tell you that the credit delinquent is not usually unemployed. The difficulty is that he is increasing his debt while working fewer hours. He may be earning $4,000 per year, but due to shorter hours prices have gone up and he is spending at the rate of $5,000. He buys $300 items on $5-down bait. He doesn't want to miss a good thing. So, before he knows it he may be overloaded with monthly installment payments.

Republicans have one question now: Who can beat Williams? Separate groups have rallied support for the nomination behind Mayor Cobo, of Detroit; Congressman Ford, of Grand Rapids; Congressman Bentley, of Owosso; and Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University. The two congressmen appear to be the most eager for the nomination, with qualifications. Rep. Ford's condition is that he could be the candidate with full party support, a rare circumstance in the light of past Republican primary battles and the existing four-man situation. He is personable, 41, and available. Party regulars, however, feel he hasn't spent enough time in Michigan. Rep. Bentley also is popular and carries an appeal to the conservative branch of the party — figuring it has been neglected in the campaign to outdo Williams and the liberals. Mayor Cobo is reluctant to get into the melee. In the past, he has been a willing candidate in non-partisan Detroit city politics when he had the odds. Cobo said he would like to see a good, strong, willing candidate appear on the scene so he could forget the boom that has been created for his own candidacy. His main drawback is his relatively small area of operation. In Detroit, he is known as a top administrator, a planner. "There are a lot of people in outstate Michigan who don't know me from a bale of hay," he said. Republican legislators, who launched the trial balloon for Cobo, figure he could cut into Williams' Detroit vote. They also predict that outstate areas, as usual, will go Republican. But Democrats, with a "state farm program" in the making, are going after outstate votes, too. Dr. Hannah carries the idea of close association with President Eisenhower, having been assistant secretary of defense for manpower. His potential candidacy has been launched by a group of "Young Turks" from the legislature. It happened at a Sunday afternoon picnic at the home of Rep. George Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) and the news stirred political thinkers. Dr. Hannah immediately refused the bid of the Young Turks, stating that he could better serve Michigan as the president of a great university. Republicans backing him, still insist he could be drafted to go against a Democratic candidate for governor. He has built the university into a powerful force in the state. Republicans are making history with their activity during an off year. Democrats have campaigned the year around since 1948. Williams' weekly schedule is as strenuous as any campaign. Wherever he stops, he shakes hands with everybody in sight and spreads the word. People like him. Whoever the Republicans pick will have to outdo the governor, who already is about 5 million handshakes ahead of the game. Republicans are counting on the latest merger of the national and state ballots to give them the pull of Eisenhower at the top to elect a governor halfway down. The President's illness may make a difference, but that's the way the tune is going now, eight to the bar.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"Last week we asked four girls if they thought boys were as gentlemanly or courteous as they should be. This week, we want to know how girls could improve themselves."

HAL BECKER, 1455 Penniman: "Too many of them don't act their age. You would think they were in the sixth or seventh grade. Of course, there are some fellows who act the same way."

DICK DAVIDSON, 1095 Roosevelt: "I think that when they come out of Junior High they act pretty darn silly, but from the 10th grade on, they're okay. Here at Plymouth, they don't seem as bad as at other schools. Outside that, I have no gripe."

Hal Dick Charles Biff

CHALES MOISIO, 1164 Hartsough: "Sometime when you do something for them like opening the door, they don't even bother to thank you. They just take you for granted. They should show their appreciation for common courtesies."

BIFF TAIT, 13960 Ridgewood: "I've got no complaint. Everything is just fine as far as I'm concerned. I can't think of any major improvement they could make. No, I'm not going steady."

Stop Williams Is GOP Cry

Republicans are hopefully juggling four candidates for governor, convinced whichever gets the nod will have to go against Gov. Williams.

Plans of State Chairman John Feikens, who said both Gov. Williams and President Eisenhower will run in 1956, may be changed if the president announces his intention not to run.

The illness of the president will have a bearing on his availability for a second term. But Democrats are looking for Gov. Williams to try for a fifth term, regardless of the national situation.

Williams is in the habit of breaking precedent. He won his first term in 1948 in a nominally Republican stronghold and his popularity with the voters is still at a high pitch.

Because of an early primary in Michigan, Williams will have to cast off hopes for a fifth term if he wants to go for a spot on the national Democratic ticket.

"Most governors can go into the convention and keep a grip on the job back home," said one top Michigan Democrat. "If Soapy wants to try it, he has to abandon Michigan."

Republicans have one question now: Who can beat Williams?

Separate groups have rallied support for the nomination behind Mayor Cobo, of Detroit; Congressman Ford, of Grand Rapids; Congressman Bentley, of Owosso; and Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State University.

The two congressmen appear to be the most eager for the nomination, with qualifications.

Rep. Ford's condition is that he could be the candidate with full party support, a rare circumstance in the light of past Republican primary battles and the existing four-man situation.

He is personable, 41, and available. Party regulars, however, feel he hasn't spent enough time in Michigan.

Rep. Bentley also is popular and carries an appeal to the conservative branch of the party — figuring it has been neglected in the campaign to outdo Williams and the liberals.

Mayor Cobo is reluctant to get into the melee.

In the past, he has been a willing candidate in non-partisan Detroit city politics when he had the odds.

Cobo said he would like to see a good, strong, willing candidate appear on the scene so he could forget the boom that has been created for his own candidacy.

His main drawback is his relatively small area of operation. In Detroit, he is known as a top administrator, a planner.

"There are a lot of people in outstate Michigan who don't know me from a bale of hay," he said.

Republican legislators, who launched the trial balloon for Cobo, figure he could cut into Williams' Detroit vote. They also predict that outstate areas, as usual, will go Republican.

But Democrats, with a "state farm program" in the making, are going after outstate votes, too.

Dr. Hannah carries the idea of close association with President Eisenhower, having been assistant secretary of defense for manpower.

His potential candidacy has been launched by a group of "Young Turks" from the legislature.

It happened at a Sunday afternoon picnic at the home of Rep. George Sallade (R-Ann Arbor) and the news stirred political thinkers.

Dr. Hannah immediately refused the bid of the Young Turks, stating that he could better serve Michigan as the president of a great university.

Republicans backing him, still insist he could be drafted to go against a Democratic candidate for governor. He has built the university into a powerful force in the state.

Republicans are making history with their activity during an off year. Democrats have campaigned the year around since 1948.

Williams' weekly schedule is as strenuous as any campaign. Wherever he stops, he shakes hands with everybody in sight and spreads the word. People like him.

Whoever the Republicans pick will have to outdo the governor, who already is about 5 million handshakes ahead of the game.

Republicans are counting on the latest merger of the national and state ballots to give them the pull of Eisenhower at the top to elect a governor halfway down.

The President's illness may make a difference, but that's the way the tune is going now, eight to the bar.

Favorite Recipes From Plymouth's Kitchens

Here's Recipe For Delicious Cornish Pasties

A centuries-old Cornish dish makes its appearance this week as the favorite recipe of the J.E. Hardimon family, 481 Evergreen. Introduced to the Upper Peninsula and other mining areas by folks from Cornwall, England, "Pasties" are gradually making quite a name for themselves as the dish becomes better known in other regions.

Tradition has it that these meat turnovers were made in the wee hours of the morning by the womenfolk back in Cornwall so that their husbands could have a hot meal at noontime while working down in the mines. The practice was to wrap the pasties in newspapers, which the miners would then tuck inside their shirts en route to the mines. The saying went that for the first half of the morning the pasties would keep the miner warm, with the situation reversed during the remaining forenoon hours.

Throughout the Upper Peninsula this delicious meat dish rates in popularity with the hamburger and is eaten much the same way. In Butte, Montana, another mining community, vendors make regular stops at the high schools to furnish Cornish pasties as a hot lunch for the youngsters.

This particular recipe comes from Marquette, Michigan, where Mr. Hardimon's family resides. Here's the procedure for making six of the pasties:

Cornish Pasties
4 cups of flour
4 teaspoons of salt
½ cup of lard
1/3 cup of suet, cut into small shavings

Blend with enough water to make pastry, starting with approximately ½ cup. Place dough in refrigerator to blend while the filling is made.

Removing a painful of "Cornish Pasties," hot from the oven, is Mrs. J. E. Hardimon of 481 Evergreen.

Filling:
6 good size potatoes, finely sliced
2 medium-size onions, cut fine
2 pounds of round steak or stewing beef, diced fine
Mix ingredients together in bowl.

Take pastry and divide into six portions. Roll out on floured board or pastry cloth, making the dough thicker on one side than the other. Pastie will measure about 7 or 8 inches in diameter. Place a mound of the meat-vegetable mixture on the thicker side, adding salt to taste and a good size piece of butter.

Fold thinner side over, dampen edge and seal well to prevent juices from escaping by rolling edges together and pressing between forefingers. Place on baking sheet, rolling pastie so that the seam of the dough will not be flat on the pan.
Slash upper crust two or three times to allow steam to escape. Bake at 450 degrees until crust has become brown, then reduce temperature to 375 degrees. Total cooking time will take about 45 minutes to an hour. When done pastie should be brown and meat tender when pierced with a fork.

For variation, turnips, carrots and parsley may be added to the filling mixture.

A particularly nice feature of Cornish pasties, Mrs. Hardimon notes, is that they make an ideal item to take on cool-weather picnics since they're easy to carry and remain hot for quite some time. In the Upper Peninsula, pasties are broken in half, ketchup doused on the meat mixture and then eaten by hand. For home serving, they make a delicious one-dish meal. Good accompaniments are relishes, a light dessert and coffee.

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Garber of North Territorial road entertained at a family gathering on Sunday, September 25, in honor of Mrs. Garber's mother, Mrs. Kathryn Richards Townsend, who celebrated her eighty-sixth birthday. Mrs. Townsend's five children, 12 grandchildren and 17 great-grandchildren were present to help her celebrate this happy occasion.

The officers of the Plymouth Extension group attended an officers training program at the Northville high school on Thursday, September 22. Attending were Mrs. Dallas Housman, Mrs. Alice Alsbro, Mrs. Forest Olson, Mrs. Russell Rudick. The program was an all day affair with lunch at Black's White House in Northville.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gottschalk of Kellogg street entertained Mr. and Mrs. Albert Groth of Harvey street at their cottage on Opal Lake, near Gaylord during the week of September 17. The occasion was the 34th wedding anniversary of both couples.

Plymouthite Mary Lou Hartwick To Reign at Alma Homecoming

Queen Mary Lou

Miss Mary Lou Hartwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Hartwick of 14354 Northville road, has been chosen by the students of Alma college to reign as Queen over the college Homecoming activities this Saturday. These regal duties will be nothing new for this campus beauty, for she ruled as Campus Queen in her freshman year and was last year a member of the Campus Day court.

The festivities this year begin Saturday morning with the Homecoming Parade, continue through the Alumni luncheon at noon and the Alma-Adrian football game at 2:00 p.m., between halves of which the Queen will be crowned, and end with the banquet and Homecoming Dance in the evening. Over all these the Queen will exercise her rule.

Miss Hartwick, in her junior year at Alma, is majoring in Sociology, and upon graduation in June, will devote her time to work among delinquent children in one of the larger Michigan cities. For the past three years, she has worked devotedly among the Mexican migrants in Alma. She is a member of the college A cappella Choir and the Judicial Council, and is vice-president of her dormitory and secretary-treasurer of the Alma Christian Association.

Sorority Alumnae Meet at Local Home

Plymouth, Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor alumnae of Theta Lambda Sigma sorority hosted a joint meeting with the Dearborn chapter Wednesday night, September 28, at the home of Mrs. Lionel Guregian, 9200 Ann Arbor road. Twenty-three persons were in attendance at the gathering.

Next meeting of the Plymouth-area chapter will be held October 26, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs.

Ralph Lorenz, Ann Arbor trail. Members have been asked to bring gifts for patients at the Northville State hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Moe of Irvin street and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beyer and children, Susan and Michael, of North Mill street, spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schuster of Leke Leelenau.

American Legion News

Mr. and Mrs. William Langmaid, Maxine Kunz and Cecily Evans attended the joint installation ceremonies at the Myron Beals post, Livonia, on Tuesday evening, September 20.

Past 17th District Commander D. MacDougall is our delegate to the national convention in Miami, Florida Tuesday through Friday of this week.

The Junior Activities meeting was held Wednesday, October 5, at 3:30 p.m. at the home of Gwen Holcombe. The meetings will be held every first and third Wednesdays of the month.

The regular Post business meeting was held Wednesday, Oct. 5, at the Veteran's Community center. Plans for the approaching UN Birthday Party and Open House on October 19 at the Community Center were consolidated.

Remember the Auxiliary's Linen party which will be held on October 27.

The regular Auxiliary business meeting will be held tonight at the usual time at the Community center. Let's have a good turnout.

Remember, our two units are the hosts to the 17th District business meetings for this month on October 14.

It is reported that both Verne and Phyllis Miller are now home. Here is wishing them well. We also understand that Marge Hoelt is coming along well. Hope to see her home real soon.

Bartlett Moms Announce Plans for Next Meeting

The next meeting of the Bartlett School Mothers club will be held Wednesday, October 12, at 8 p.m. at the school.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Perlis who will discuss the topic, "Understanding Ourselves and Our Marriage." Everyone is welcome to attend this meeting, and members are especially urged to bring their husbands.

Hermits Welcome Company and Coffee

CUPS of hearty, steaming hot coffee compliment spiced Apple Hermit cookies. When company calls, serve Apple Hermits and brew a generous pot of coffee. You'd be wise to hide a few extra hermits in the cookie jar for yourself and your family. The way they vanish, with the help of coffee, is almost magical.

You'll Find These Hermits Welcome Crowd of Company!

Most hermits hide away from the world. But these hermits love a crowd — and a crowd will love these Apple Hermits.

They're cookies, of course. Like traditional hermit cookies they are tangy with spices and old-fashioned molasses. Bite into them and taste plump raisins, crisp walnut meats. There's a special ingredient too, that makes these hermits-with-a-difference. Chopped apple gives them a touch of the unusual, a welcome change of pace.

In most states, coast to coast, it's apple time right now. Delicious, McIntosh, Northern Spy, Ribston Pippin, Jonathan — all these apples are ripe for the picking or the buying. Any variety of apple is the right kind for making Apple Hermits and you can serve Apple Hermits almost any time of the day. They answer the call for a mid-morning snack, an afternoon nibble, an after-dinner sweet. The same can be said of coffee, and hermits are specially friendly to this fragrant, heart-warming brew. A pot of fresh coffee and a plate of hermits seem to be made for each other. When you have both of them on hand, it's practically certain you won't be alone for long!

APPLE HERMITS

- 1 cup seedless raisins
- 1 cup shortening
- 1½ cups brown sugar, firmly packed
- ¼ cup molasses
- 3 eggs, unbeaten
- ¾ cups sifted, enriched flour
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 3 teaspoons powdered cinnamon
- ½ teaspoon ground cloves
- ½ teaspoon grated nutmeg
- 1 cup broken walnut meats
- 1 cup finely chopped raw apples, peeled.

Rinse raisins in hot water and drain on absorbent paper. Cream shortening with brown sugar until light and fluffy. Add molasses. Add unbeaten eggs one at a time, beating after each addition. Mix and sift flour, salt, baking soda and spices and add to molasses mixture. Mix lightly. Stir in walnuts, chopped apples and raisins. Mix well. Drop by spoonfuls on greased baking sheets. Bake in moderate oven, 350° F., 12 to 15 minutes. Makes 5 to 6 dozen.

New Shoulder, Hip-Line Seen In Paris Styles

From Paris comes the word that women will be broad-shouldered and hipless this fall and winter. Not included in this bit of news was exactly how one is to go about achieving this goal if born otherwise.

The first logical step would seem to be a bit of padding in the shoulders — the next a good "new" girle. It is true that for the first time since the New Look revolution in 1946 shoulders are padded.

There has also been a slight lengthening of skirts by several of Europe's leading designers. Jean Patou calls the waist "normal." However, his creations are never nipped in at the waist or marked by a seam. It is lightly fitted by cut and just about where it belongs, with a tendency to be high.

Party dresses are bouffant, skirted from the hips, with close-clinging torsos. The slinky, strapless, long evening gown is in favor again. There are many heavily embroidered bodices for cocktail and evening wear.

The padded shoulders are not squared. They slope, with the padding put in at a low sleeve-line.

Mannish Prince Albert coats and tunic-length suits and jackets are very much in the fashion picture. They look somewhat like riding habits. It takes a tall woman to do credit to this design.

Tips to Save Wear, Tear on Appliances

Simple, day-to-day care will keep your appliances in good order and cut down a great deal on repair bills.

If waffle batter spills on the outside of the waffle baker, let it "bake" before removing. Then wipe off with a damp cloth and polish dry with a soft dry cloth.

Grids on a waffle baker can be cleaned with a stiff wire brush.

Never wash the grids with water as this will damage the pre-treatment which has been given to them.

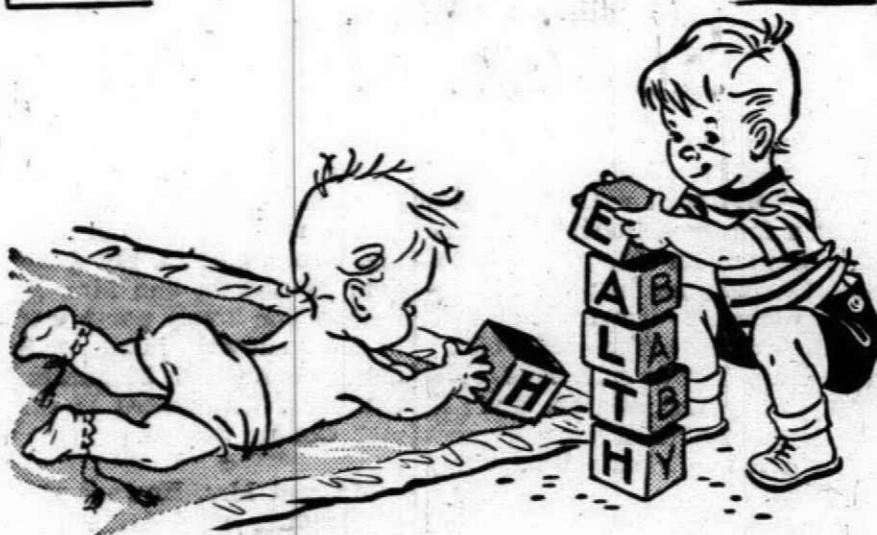

Keep coffee makers of any type well cleaned and sweet if you want every batch of coffee to taste good. Oils permitted to remain in them become rancid and spoil the freshly made coffee.

Filter cloths should be rinsed with cold water after each use. Change them when they become too stained or well used.

Never let cords rub against appliances when they're in use. Heat and friction may cause the insulation of the cord to wear off.

How can you tell if your washer is overloaded? Watch the clothes turnover. If clothes disappear and appear right away, the load is fine. If the clothes are simply pushed back and forth, it's overloaded.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Within Reach—Health at the Start

Within reach of practically all babies is good health and a well developed body—truly one of the most precious endowments parents can give.

Such a start in life is a family affair. The baby's health at birth is affected by food habits—its family's food habits. The mother's long-time food likes and dislikes, in her parent's home and how she cooks to please her husband, all affect her and her unborn child, although possibly differently.

Science holds out a bright hope for parents. Mothers who have excellent or good diets during pregnancy—and before pregnancy—have good prospects for a bouncing, healthy baby, one that is well developed. Getting ready for baby—particularly the first one—is a big event. A most important part is to choose an adequate diet, one which supplies enough of each needed nutrient. Science is finding that diet in the first months of pregnancy—and even before—may have a profound effect on the developing child.

A mother-in-waiting adjusts her food needs under the direction of her doctor. While her demands for calories will increase only moderately, her need for protein and calcium will rise sharply. Requirements for vitamin C and the B vitamins—thiamine, riboflavin and niacin—almost double. To take care of these changes, she will want to eat plenty of meat, eggs, and dairy products. She will almost double the quantity of fruits and vegetables.

Fortunately, inexpensive foods, such as potatoes and enriched bread are protective ones. According to a study made at the University of Iowa of diets of expectant mothers from modest income groups, enriched bread prevented deficiencies of two B vitamins—riboflavin and niacin—and iron, and supplied substantial quantities of protein and calcium. The study also revealed that potatoes, popular with this group, furnished sufficient vitamin C and additional iron.

All in all, parents can and do put good health in reach of their baby.

Marinate Beef For Savory Autumn Dish

It's time for hearty foods. Here's a variation of the famous German dish, Sauerbraten, you'll find a perfect fall choice — Marinated Beef Steak.

For this serving purchase an arm steak cut 1 to 1½ inches thick. The same as Sauerbraten the steak is marinated. In this case, the time is from 6 to 8 hours; therefore, from 7 to 9½ hours before the time you're planning to serve, place the steak in a casserole, and add 1 cup of French dressing. Cover the meat closely and place in your refrigerator. Marinate the steak in the French dressing for the number of hours allowed, turning it occasionally.

When ready to cook the meat drain it thoroughly. Then in a heavy frying-pan brown the meat in a small amount of lard or drippings. Turn so the meat will be well-browned on both sides. Next add 1 cup of water, cover the meat closely and let it simmer for 1 to 1½ hours or until tender.

Use a good metal polish on the metal fixtures of your faucet and rub to a high gloss with a soft cloth. This will prevent the metal from corroding and looking old before its time.

Smoked shoulder butt should be simmered in water until tender, about 45 minutes per pound. If you like, glaze it in a hot oven for a few minutes before serving.

Gives "Rules of Thumb" For Buying New Rug

Give serious thought to choosing a rug for the home. It makes no difference if the rug is to be small and inexpensive or a lovely Oriental. The correct choice of color, design and texture can greatly add to or detract from the attractiveness of any room.

Personal taste will always be the deciding factor when choosing a rug and this is as it should be. However, a few general rules are best adhered to if top results are desired.

Number one is — always buy from a reliable dealer no matter if the rug is to cost $5 or $5,000. Note the fiber content carefully for this is the tip on the wearing quality of the rug.

Test the rug by pressing your thumb against the pile very hard for a few seconds. Quality wool has a springiness that lets it bounce back from pressure.

Consider the cost of a good pad as part of the rug cost for it is foolish to skimp on this item. It will more than pay for itself in adding life to the rug.

Choosing a design that will be pleasing is simple. If a figured rug is desired, remember that other figured objects in the room must be few. If the rug is a solid color then figured upholstery or drapes can be used successfully.

The current popular wall-to-wall coverage will make a room look larger. Scatter rugs tend to cut down the size appearance of a room and are best used in rather large rooms for this reason.

Once the new rug is chosen and installed in the home the question of proper care is next.

Use a carpet sweeper every day and vacuum at least twice a week. Never use a bristled broom on the rug.

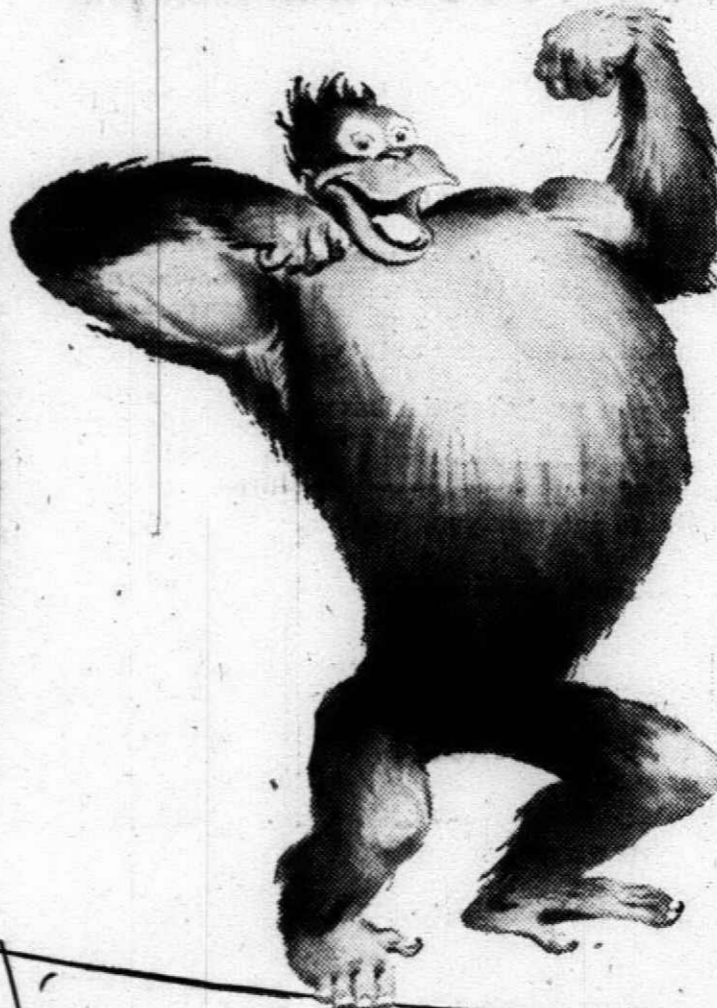

Carpet surfaces can be cleaned at home with a quickly evaporating cleaning fluid, a synthetic cleaner or an absorbent powder cleaner.

THIS ATTRACTIVE FIREPLACE, with heatilator, adds coziness to the living room of the Mrs. Stella Bale home, recently completed by the Birkelbaw construction company at 11775 Haggerty. With a raised hearth and a stone facing, the fireplace has a solid mahogany mantle and is surrounded by the room's mahogany walls. Ledgerrock was employed in the fireplace and hearth making the arrangement very striking in company with the matched walls and mantle.

Browsing With BARBARA

Several new items in the decorating line are now available to Plymouth homeowners. Take down at Pease Paint and Wallpaper company at 570 South Main, for instance. There they've just stocked a whole new collection of Custom-Craft unpainted furniture, offering an inexpensive way to redecorate or modernize your home through the addition of several new pieces which you can paint and fix up to suit your own taste.

Available in this line of correlated furniture are drop-leaf and night tables, kneehole or pedestal desks, two-door record cabinets, vanities, double and triple dressers, juvenile chestrobes and toy chests, to mention only a few. They're all made in solid, 3/4-inch ponderosa pine and designed along simple, modern lines to harmonize with most interiors. They can be used individually or placed in an endless series of combinations.

For you folks who want to rejuvenate old woodwork, trim, furniture or cabinets without having to remove present paint or varnish finish, Pease has just the thing. The new "Lite Chrome" finish put out by the O'Brien corporation goes right over the old surface, giving it a new, modern look. It comes in four smart colors: white elm, satinwood, silver birch and honey maple.

Another item worth looking into at Pease Paint is "Stix", a new self-adhesive, plastic decorating material. It comes in rolls about 18 inches in width by five-yards long. "Stix" can be used on lamp bases, closets, shelves, cabinets, furniture, walls, cornices, valances, headboards or what have you. Rolls come in reproductions of Italian marble, single or double-tone effects, gingham plaids, "Timber Tone" wood grains, metallic leaf prints or "Directoire Stripes" and, of course, its available in rainbow hues or in solid black.

No preparation is necessary

New developments in bathroom design for today's moderate-priced home feature improved use of color for the waterproof ceramic tiled walls and floors. Most noticeable is the trend to keep tile trim the same color and size as the tile field. Because most baths are smaller rooms, the use of contrasting colors and sizes has tended to give the feeling of limited space.

when using "Stix" to redecorate furniture items other than having the surface clean. All you have to do is remove the backing sheet from the roll and apply "Stix" directly to the surface you're re-covering. "Stix" is the ideal answer to inexpensive home decorating and you'll find it's really durable.

COATINGS REPEL MOISTURE

There are clear, water-resistant coatings for masonry which repel moisture but do not change its appearance. Frequently used on stone or brick surfaces, these may be very pale varnishes, solutions of waxes or silicone compositions.

A paper plate under a paint can will adhere to the can preventing paint rings from getting on floors and furniture and afford a handy place to lay a paint brush.

HERE'S HOW ■■■ MAKE A SCREEN STORAGE CABINET

Protect screens by storage in an easy-to-make wood cabinet.

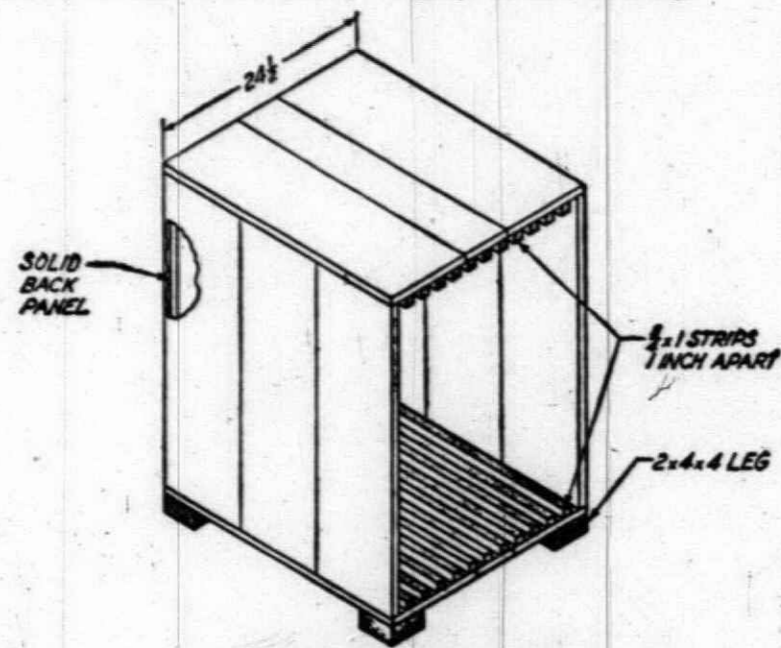

Use 1-inch lumber, except for the four 2 by 4-inch legs. Plan dimensions to fit the screens to be stored, allowing room to slide screens freely. Make panels of edge-glued boards or of tongue and groove lumber.

Add a vertical divider and a horizontal panel if screens of two sizes are to be stored. If heavy material is to be stored on top of the cabinet, add a vertical brace in the front.

Assemble the cabinet in the following order: base panel to legs with 6-penny nails; divider strips to top and bottom panels with 3-penny finishing nails; panels to panels with 6-penny finishing nails. Use glue at all joints.

Clean and dry screens thoroughly before storing.

New Furnace Provides Family With More Room in Old House

If you are planning to modernize your home this year be sure to include the heating system in your remodeling program. Thus counsels the National Warm Air Heating and Air Conditioning Association, which points out that occupants of older dwellings can have all the indoor comfort advantages of up-to-date heating as well as can those folks who build or buy new homes.

During the past few years the warm air heating industry has made remarkable strides in the development of new systems and new equipment. These new heat plants will produce greater indoor comfort at less cost than ever before, states the Association. This is the result of stepped-up research in residential heating by the industry — both in the laboratory and in the field — due to the new heating problems which have been created by new methods of designing and building the modern house.

Even though they may have been originally designed to meet new house heating requirements, these newer heating plants have demonstrated that they can provide correspondingly excellent comfort benefits when installed in older structures.

An interesting example of how the results of designing heating equipment to meet the problems of new home construction have provided added advantages for the owners of older homes is found in the amount of floor space taken up by a furnace.

Higher costs of construction today make space and its effective utilization the most important element in modern house planning. As a result, today's furnace is built much more compactly in order to take up little of this higher cost space. The modern furnace occupies only half the floor space of its counter-part of ten years ago — and will still produce as much heat at a greater savings in fuel.

When installed in the older house . . . which generally contains much more space per dollar investment than the new dwelling . . . the modern, compact furnace actually adds to the space value of the older house. Many an owner of an older house who has had a modern warm air furnace installed in some out-of-the-way corner of his basement has been pleased to find that he has suddenly gained an entire new expanse of living area for use as a recreation room, hobby shop, or other home enjoyment facility — space which he never had before.

Not only has the space-thrift concept of modern housing design influenced the actual size of the warm air heating unit, but it has changed the location as well. Time was when anyone knew that the place to look for a warm air furnace was in the basement. Not so anymore. Because of the increase of basementless house construction over the past few years, new furnace models have been perfected which can be located in a corner of a utility room, in a closet, under a trap door in a crawl space, or in the attic.

Even though the older home may have a basement—traditional location of the furnace — the owner of this house may find that he can take advantage of these new locations for which the modern furnace has been designed. He may find it more convenient to have his furnace installed in some part of the house which, up to now, has had no use whatsoever. Thus, he can free his basement entirely from the heating system and use it for some supplemental living purpose such as a T.V. room, an extra bedroom, a special rainy-day rumpus room for the kids, or a work room for himself.

In addition to newer designs in equipment, new warm air distribution system, automatic controls and methods of control have been developed by the warm air heating industry that will provide day-in, day-out even-temperature comfort at lesser operation costs.

Homeowners Told Prepare, Beat Next Summer's Heat

Forewarned is forearmed, so the saying goes. And homeowners can get ready this fall to beat next summer's heat before it begins.

Now is the time to take down canvas awnings and store them away for the winter, the National Cotton Council advises. Smart homeowners, who want to save time and trouble later on, will see that their awnings are put away in tip-top shape.

If awnings have weathered several seasons, the frames may need re-covering with bright new canvas. There's no need to wait until next spring to have this job done, the Council points out.

Homeowners can order canvas now from a wide selection of patterns and colors and have their awnings fabricated this fall. Then they can sit back and relax, confident that they can beat Old Sol to the draw when summer returns.

With proper storage and care, canvas will last about five years and can be replaced on old frames for half the original installation cost. This means homeowners can enjoy a colorful change at regular intervals at no greater expense than maintaining so-called permanent awnings, according to the Council.

Awnings in good condition receive careful attention before storage to insure a well-dressed comfortable home for the next sunny season. Dirt helps mildew form, so cleaning the canvas will give it a longer life. A hose or soft broom and clear water, may be used to wash the fabric on the frame.

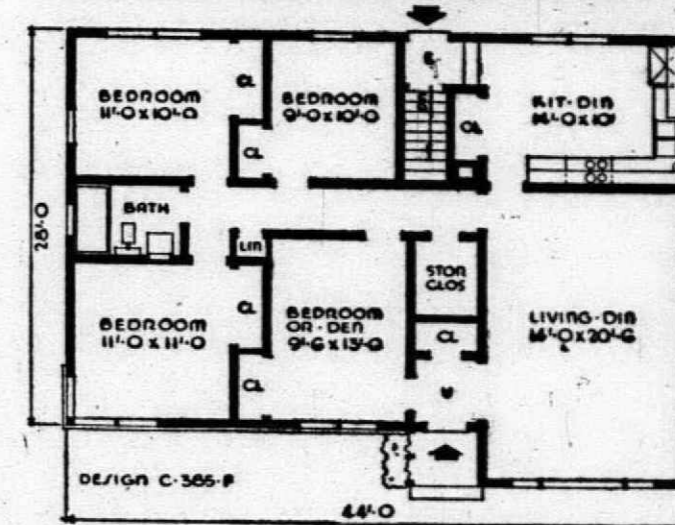

For another year's use, awnings may be given a coat of paint to restore the color and make the canvas more mildew resistant. Awning dealers use a special preparation which protects the natural oils of the cloth and leaves it soft and flexible. For best results, use the same color and apply paint while canvas is on the frame. It's a good idea to have metal framing painted once a year to prevent rust from damaging the cloth.

Awnings should be stored in a cool, dry spot. Rafter or saw horse are good resting places for rolled-up canvas, since they both allow air circulation.

With awnings removed from windows and doorways, the sun's rays will help brighten and warm rooms during cold weather. To help save fuel, the Council points out, admitting solar heat in the winter is as important as keeping it out in the summer.

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. C-385-F

DESIGN C-385-F. Four bedrooms on one floor in a compact plan will serve the needs of a large family with a maximum economy.

This is a simple plan with emphasis on usable floor space and lots of closet storage. In addition to wardrobe closets in the bedrooms, there are coat closets, a linen cabinet, and a large storage closet in the bedroom hall for larger pieces of household equipment.

A large living room is featured as well as a larger than usual combination of kitchen and dining rooms with cabinets on two walls.

For the exterior, wide siding is used, a hip roof, covered front entrance, picture window and brick or stone facing on a portion of the front wall. Floor area is 1292 sq. ft. with 24,488 cu. ft., including the full basement.

For further information about DESIGN C-385-F, write the Building Editor, The Plymouth Mail.

Design Dining Room Furniture To Fit In With Modern Living

Exit the separate dining room, enter the age of casual and informal living! No longer is dining furniture bulky and formal, confined to a special setting, or purely functional, hidden away in the kitchen. Today the trend is to dining furniture that's modern in design and treatment, expressly styled to fit in with current ways of living.

Dining furniture has become any-room furniture, to be set up in a section of the living room, in a breakfast nook, wherever space exists — to be used for work and games by all the family. It has to be good-looking enough to be visible from any part of the home, fashion styled to blend with any interior setting. And since servants, too, have gone the way of the separate dining room, it has to be realistically designed for minimum upkeep.

Black satin Coloramic is a good example of this new approach to dining furniture design. Black-coated metal frames emphasize clean uncluttered lines, dramatic with understated simplicity. A wide range of colors, to match or contrast for table tops and chair fabrics, sets a distinct color note, that can be treated as a focal point or integral part of interior schemes.

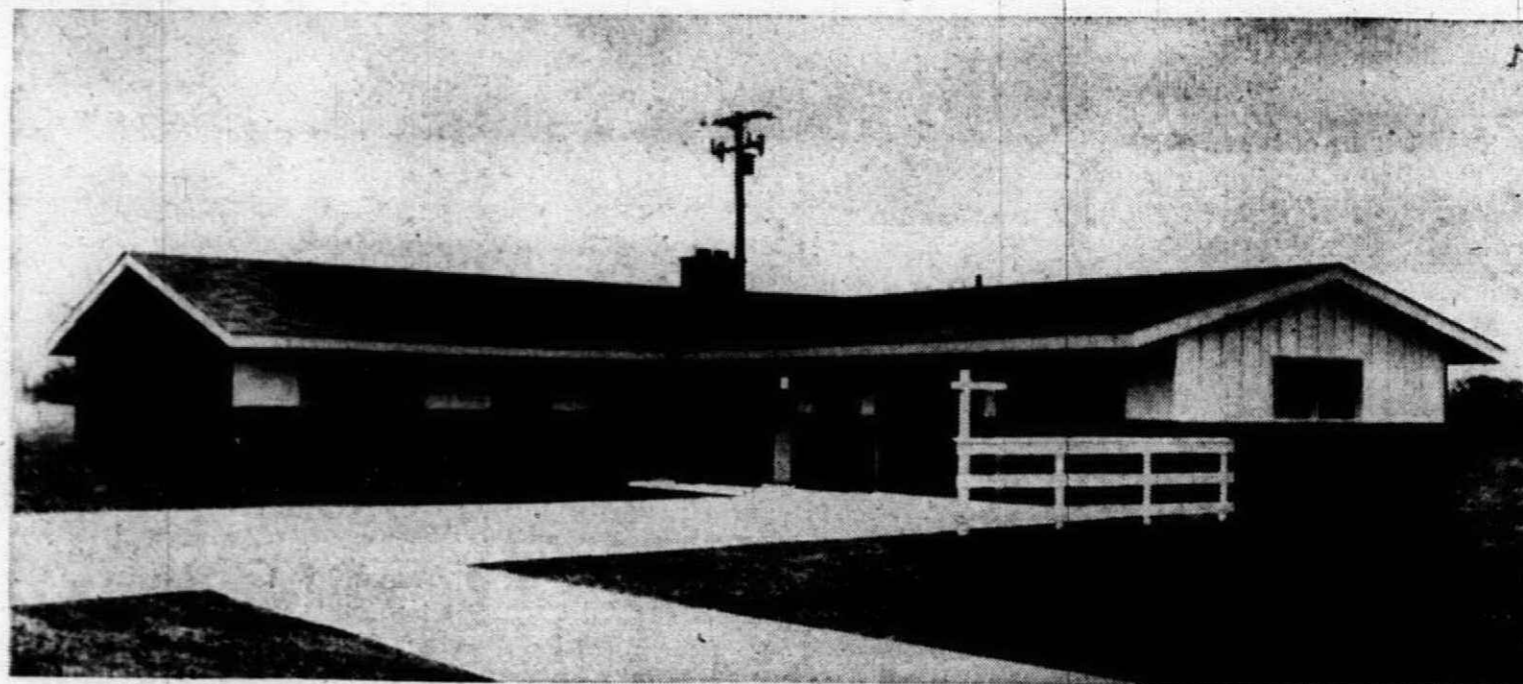

What a palette is to a painter, Coloramic groups are to the homemaker. The wide range of table top colors includes such high fashion combinations as black and white, in modern line patterns or neutral shadow designs, either color predominating. Chair fabrics feature accent colors in vivid solids, including flamingo, Capri blue, antique green, sunburst yellow, petal pink or stark white. Contrasted or coordinated, the upholstery fabrics and table top shades offer unlimited opportunities for the creation of dining group settings that are integrated with the over-all decorating scheme.

Texture, too, is important in this new decorator approach which envisages the dining group as part of the overall home plan. Coloramic, with its satiny tubing and smooth surfaces, lives handsomely side by side with nubby or flat curtain fabrics, glossy or dull walls, wood tones and carpets. Although modern in feeling, Coloramic can be grouped with traditional or contemporary furnishings.

For the manufacture of plate glass the raw materials must be subjected to heat of 2,800 degrees Fahrenheit in the large tank melting furnaces.

Plymouth Civic Chorus Marking Eighth Birthday

The Plymouth Civic Chorus has been chiefly occupied with the preparation and presentation of "The Messiah." This greatest of oratorios has long been a firm tradition in most music-conscious communities in the world.

The chorus under the direction of Fred C. Nelson gave the first performance of "The Messiah" in December of 1947. Soloists were Edith Ryan, Florence Ellison, F. Earl Reh and Nat Sibbold.

In April, 1953, the chorus and Norma Keyde, soprano soloist, appeared with the orchestra in a concert performance of Johann Strauss' opera "Die Fledermaus." The music was gay and light, although musically challenging to the participants.

The chorus has grown in size from 40 to at times 90 voices.

The traditional December musical offering was varied in 1953 when the contemporary American composer, Jan Meyerowitz' "Music for Christmas" was given. Two soloists appeared. They were Edith Ryan and Florence Ellison.

In the Spring of 1954 a public rehearsal was held for a reading of "A German Requiem" by Johannes Brahms. Soloists were Esther Schepple and Nat Sibbold. This was a most challenging and absorbing work for the chorus to prepare. The duties of the baton were shared by Wayne Dunlap and Fred Nelson.

In December, 1954, Messiah lovers heard a sixth performance

Great Features back up Chevrolet Performance: Anti-Dive Braking—Ball-Race Steering—Outrigger Rear Springs—Body by Fisher—12-Volt Electrical System—Nine Engine-Drive Choices in all models—and, finally, the great scientific, technical and engineering resources of General Motors.

Every checkered flag signals a Chevrolet victory in official 1955 stock car competition—not only against its own field but against many American and foreign high-priced cars, too!

On the stock car tracks, this go-getting Chevrolet is making the high-priced jobs turn green with envy... and making the other low-priced cars wish they'd stayed home in the garage!

Let's translate this into your kind of driving. You've got to have faster acceleration to win on the tracks. And that means safer passing on the highways.

You've got to have better springing and suspension to nail you to the turns. Again, safer and happier motoring for you.

You've got to have big brakes that act but fast and smooth... and easy, accurate steering. More things that make your driving more secure and more enjoyable.

But it's more fun to try these things out than just to talk about them. So come in and let's take a ride.

Water Waves Begin Practice For '56 Show

Pre-show activities began Monday in the pool for the members of the Water Waves club with the girls working on individual skills and more difficult stunts.

Music and theme committees for this year's show will work hand-in-hand with the executive board consisting of Janet Willoughby, freshman; Jane Hardimon, sophomore; Mary Agnew, Junior; and Ellen Cowgill and Madeline Jones, seniors. The executive board is headed by Elaine Keith, president, with Judy Veresh, vice-president; and Joan Bassett, secretary-treasurer.

Choosing new members is in store for the future, then the practicing of the new routines. Miss Doris Bean, club advisor, plans to take the group to attend other swim shows.

Last year's show "La Vie Moderne", which portrayed life in New York, was presented in May. It featured Madeline Jones as soloist, a dance number and other novelty numbers.

$100,000 Contest Open to Seniors Taking Home Ec.

Educational scholarships totaling $100,000 will be awarded in the second Betty Crocker Search for the American Homemaker of Tomorrow, it was announced today by General Mills, sponsor of the contest.

All 12th-grade girls in the nation's public, private and parochial high schools who will graduate in 1956 are eligible to participate in the contest. They must be enrolled by their school not later than October 31.

In addition to a $1,500 scholarship to each state winner, there will be an award of $500 to the homemaker rating second in each state. The scholarship of the national winner, who will be announced April 12 in Philadelphia, will be $5,000.

Basis for selection of winners will be test scores in a written homemaking knowledge and aptitude test developed by Science Research Associates of Chicago. The test will be given in all participating high schools on December 6.

Assembly Covers Purpose, Work Of J. A. Firms

In order that juniors and seniors may have an opportunity to learn to operate their own businesses a Junior Achievement assembly was held on September 27 in the high school auditorium with Edward Nagel presiding.

Nagel explained how Junior Achievement was a program designed by and for business firms and businessmen. Students from 15 to 20 years of age who are interested in managing their own business may enroll.

Business is carried out along the same lines as any local firm. For example, at Burroughs, a corporation is formed, officers elected, stock sold, production decided, and sales problems discussed.

Sponsors of Junior Achievement are investing in the young people of today to make them better businessmen and more intelligent civic leaders of the future, Nagel stated. Donating their time and money are 15,000 business firms and 11,000 businessmen.

The individual gains experience, a sense of responsibility and better opportunity for employment at a cost of 50 cents per share and two hours one night a week.

"Prints" Wins Top Journalism Award

Receiving first place award, "Pilgrim Prints," Plymouth high school paper, was honored for the eighth consecutive year in the newspaper judging by Quill and Scroll, according to a recent report.

High school papers were sent in from all over the nation and other countries to Medill School of Journalism at Northwestern University, Evanston, Illinois. They were judged on the following three points: 1) Service to the school, 2) journalistic writing, and 3) business project.

Members of the Prints staff will attend a journalism conference for the Suburban-6 Park this month. On November 5 they will attend the annual journalism conference at Michigan State University.

140 Take Speech; Coach Foresees Top Debate Year

Although Karl Wehman and Barbara Smith will be the only two veterans to return to Plymouth high school's debate team Carl Kranish, debate coach, states that he anticipates a successful year.

With the beginning of the 1955-56 school year 140 students packed Kranish's public speaking classes. All students broke the ice by giving a speech before the entire class about a fellow student. Throughout the year, students will gain knowledge on everyday conversation, group discussion, parliamentary procedure, listening habits, and better speech making.

Kranish states that the first hurdle for speech students is to get accustomed to speaking before a group or to recover from "stage fright."

Television stations, radio stations, plays, and the like will be the goal for veteran speech makers. These are students who have already had one year of speech and are entered in a class entitled Speech Arts. They not only will visit the above places but will plan and deliver an assembly before the junior high school student body.

Homemaking Teachers Attend Conference

Homemaking teachers of Michigan high schools met last week at Michigan State University for their eighth annual conference. Attending the event from Plymouth were Mrs. Chrystena Soule and Mrs. Jean Ross.

The educational conference continued through October 1 for the 500 teachers. Theme for the three-day event was "More Satisfying Personal and Family Living Through More Realistic Approaches to Teaching." Among the topics under consideration were visual aids, curriculum planning, simplified teaching of clothing, using community resources in teaching, inexpensive crafts for the home.

Southgate Impressed With Local School

"My first impression of Plymouth high school was one of extreme friendliness on the part of everyone, students and faculty members alike." These are the words of Robert Southgate, new freshman English teacher. He is also co-sponsor of the Hi-Y club.

In 1948, Southgate was graduated from high school in Ypsilanti. He continued his education at Central Michigan college, Mt. Pleasant. After his freshman year there, he was called into the army where he served in the Medical Corps in Arkansas. Southgate received his B. S. degree from Michigan State Normal college last year.

New Arrivals in the School Library

Have you read a good book lately? If you haven't, why not try the school library. An assortment of 50 books has been added to the high school library during the summer months and 15 more are expected each week during the year.

Among the most interesting are: "News is a Singular Thing" by Marguerite Higgins, Pulitzer prize-winning correspondent's account of her career in crises. During the 15 years of newspaper work Maggie became known as one of the most popular and widely acclaimed reporters of her time.

"Down Into The Valley" by John Hersey, tells of what Americans fought for and exactly what it is like to be at war. Hersey wrote the book just the way he saw the action.

"The Stars Look Down" by A. J. Cronin, is the author's fourth novel with the background in a small coal mining town in England. Cronin's first novel "Hatters Castle" was accepted as the sensation of the year in England and the United States.

Chicago Firm Takes Junior, Senior Pix

It was "watch the birdie" for the junior and senior high school students on Monday, September 26, when a representative from All State Photos of Chicago took their pictures in the high school auditorium.

The photos are used for undergraduate pictures in the "Plythean," and are also sold to the students. Proper clothing for girls was a plain pastel dress; and for boys, a coat jacket, light shirt and a tie. The remaining pictures will be taken October 3.

Powells of Detroit also took senior pictures recently.

Host of Activities Set For Friday's "Homecoming"

Preparations are almost complete for the Homecoming football game with Trenton tomorrow night, October 7, at 8 announced Janet Spigarelli and Shug Watson, committee chairmen.

Future Homemakers of America will prepare and serve a luncheon before the game for parents of football players, after which the parents will be ushered by members of the Hi-Y club to their seats. Mothers will be seated on the bleachers and the fathers on benches behind their sons with their son's number, made by Varsity Club members, pinned on their backs. Y-teens have sent invitations and tickets to the parents.

The cheerleaders will sponsor a pep rally at 3 tomorrow afternoon, Friday, in the high school gym. Both squads, J.V. and Varsity will lead the cheers. Plymouth's High School band will play and the majorettes will perform. After the game, cheerleaders will sponsor a dime dance for high school students. Guests will be admitted only if they present permits which can be obtained in the office of the assistant principal.

Members of the Pilgrim Prints staff will sell programs and the freshman class will have charge of concessions. Posters were made and displayed by some of the art students.

Autumn Twirl Launches Campus Social Activities

Madonna college seniors will tee off the 1955-56 social season with a dance Friday, October 7, in De Sales hall on the campus. Tullie Greser will chair the affair which has been tagged the Autumn Twirl. The couples will dance to the music of Dan Sheehan's trio. The Autumn Twirl will give this year's frosh their first taste of campus social life.

Release Names Of Triple Trios

As a result of the tryouts held last week, chosen for Triple Trios were Sonja Bench, Arlene Gobel, and Marilyn Freyman singing first soprano; Beverly Harrison, Karla Herbold, and Ann Hulsing, second soprano; Sharon Egloff, Eleanor Skaggs, and Beverly Tacia, alto. They were selected from a group of 35 competitors.

The Triple Trios have been in existence since about 1950, under the supervision of Fred C. Nelson, instructor of vocal music. Originally there was a group known as a Double Quartet, from which the Triple Trios was derived.

Girls were chosen on their solo quality, their ability to carry their parts strongly, and tone quality. This is the most active singing group in the high school. Appearances of the Triple Trios will be made for the various service clubs in town and at the school concerts. Rehearsal began Wednesday, September 28.

Social Security Question Column

This is the second in the Plymouth Mail's new series of questions and answers on social security. Readers are invited to send their social security questions to the Mail. Letters will be treated as confidential. Readers whose letters are not answered in this column will receive an answer directly from the Detroit-Northwest Social Security office (14600 Grand River, Detroit 27, Michigan.)

1. Will I get $10 a month more Social Security if I work the first half of 1956? I have been planning to retire at the end of the year but a friend in the shop tells me I will get $10 more if I work until June.

Answer: The benefit rate is based on your average monthly earnings and does not guarantee a $10 increase for everyone who works the first half of 1956. It may mean a higher benefit if your earnings in 1955 and 1956 are greater than your previous average wages.

2. I am going to Florida for a few months this winter and if I like it and can find a little place, I will stay down there. Will I lose my Social Security checks if I move from Michigan?

Answer: No. Your checks can be mailed to you in any state. The Social Security law is a federal law and you do not lose your rights because of any change in address.

3. I have a son who is 24 and dependent on me. He can't work because he's an invalid. I get Social Security checks but can't get them for him. Why can't he get checks as he is still my dependent?

Answer: Under the Social Security law no payments are made to children after they become 18.

4. Last year I was out of work for a couple of months because I was sick. I didn't earn the full $3,600, I made about $3,135. Can I pay the rest of the Social Security tax myself to make up the amount to $3,600 so that I won't lose out on the maximum benefit?

Answer: No. Taxes are paid only on actual earnings or on self-employment net-earnings. You cannot pay the difference to get credit beyond the amount you actually earned.

OUTDOOR NOTES From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Lake trout fishing will be prohibited in Lake Superior October 5-November 4 in keeping with a long-standing Conservation Commission policy.

The fishing will also be prohibited in Lake Huron October 1-31 and in Lake Michigan October 10-November 15 as specified by state law, though of course little such fishing is now done in these two lakes.

Whitefish will be protected November 1-December 1 in Lake Huron, November 1-26 in Lake Superior, November 5-December 10 in Lake Michigan and December 1-March 10 in Lake Erie.

No permits will be issued to anyone to fish for spawn within these dates though attempts are scheduled before and after the closed season.

This year, however, there will be no closed season on chubs. Last year, chub fishing was prohibited November 1-26, but the law was changed this year to permit fishermen to harvest an expected high population.

The closed lake trout and whitefish seasons protect spawning stock.

Twenty fires burned 19 acres of Michigan forests and grasslands last week.

To date, 6950 acres have been damaged.

Seven wolves were bountied in the Upper Peninsula in August. Two males and one female were bountied in Alger county and two females and two males were taken in Luce county, the highest monthly total this year.

Also, 595 coyotes, 94 bobcats and 819 foxes were bountied during the month. The state paid a total of $15,015 in bounty fees.

About 800 recreation leaders from throughout the Midwest learned hunting, camping and outdoor living techniques from Conservation Department education leaders this summer.

Four two-day meetings were held at the International UAW-CIO summer camp near Lakeport. The final meeting ended last week.

The leaders will use the training in instruction classes in local unions.

The Conservation Commission will meet for its regular monthly meeting on October 13-14 at the Kellogg Gull Lake Biological Station.

The station is located northwest of Battle Creek on Gull Lake. The meeting is open to the public.

Waterfowl hunters are being asked to cooperate in a federal survey designed to protect future waterfowl populations.

Purchasers of duck stamps this year receive postcards for reporting their hunting activity and success. The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, by compiling the cards, will learn if the proper harvest of surplus birds is being made. Too large or too small a harvest would affect future hunting.

The cards are available, when the hunter buys his stamp, at more than 700 post offices throughout the United States.
