

Dozen Area Firms Burglarized in One Night

Believed Work of One Group; Many Suspects Questioned

Pulitzer Prize Winner to Speak Before Chamber

Twelve burglaries in the area all in the same night—believed to have been accomplished by the same persons—have been added to the long list of thefts being investigated by sheriff's detectives.

Hundreds of dollars in cash and merchandise were taken last Wednesday night and Thursday morning from establishments located in Plymouth township, Canton Center, Ford and Wayne roads.

Although detectives have taken over a dozen men into custody for investigation, none have been found connected with the Wednesday night burglary rash.

Bloodmobile Gets 107 Pints Here

One hundred and seven pints of blood were given when the Bloodmobile made a stop in Plymouth last Friday. The visit here was sponsored by the Couples club of First Methodist church.

The goal of 200 pledges was surpassed by 60, according to Max Brillhart, chairman of the affair. Of this number, 170 appeared at the blood center located in the Fellowship hall of the Methodist church.

Also entered on Canton Center road was Julien's Market. A box containing various papers and blank checks was taken.

Although the sequence of the burglar's busy night is not known, they entered the Hooper & Son service station at 41358 Ford road, the Family Market, 28411 Ford road, and Bill's Service station, 38427 Ford road.

On Wayne road, the burglars entered Ranes Market, Klet's Hardware, Freeland Gulf station and G & M Grocery. Cigarettes and much meat was taken from Ranes Market; $68 in cash and $115 in merchandise was taken from Klet's Hardware.

The condition of John "Packy" McAllister, last week termed "serious" at Harper hospital in Detroit, was reported as improving. McAllister, owner of Perfection Laundry and Dry Cleaning company, is expected to be confined to the hospital for an indefinite period.

Red Cross workers said they were "very pleased" with the response here. Heavy snow, slippery streets and fog on Friday undoubtedly discouraged some from keeping appointments.

The blood center opened at 2 p.m. and did not close until 8 p.m. thus allowing those who work enough time to donate.

Phone Call Warns Of Bomb in School

The "bomb scare" thrown into several Detroit schools during recent months finally reached Plymouth high school this week—but there was little scare here.

Girl Scouts Seek White Goods For Cancer Unit

Plymouth Girl Scouts will launch their White Goods drive this Saturday in an effort to boost dwindling supplies of bandage material at the Plymouth unit of the American Cancer society.

The Scouts plan to cover the complete city, Green Meadows, Robinson and Rucker subdivisions, Southworth, Gold Arbor, and as much of the township as possible.

Since the national policy of the Girl Scouts prohibits door-to-door canvassing, residents have been asked to leave the white goods on the front porch of their home to be picked up between the specified hours of the drive.

Materials being sought are those of sheets, pillow cases, white tablecloths, dress shirts and similar types no longer in use by the household.

The Veterans Memorial center will be used as the storage depot by the Scouts prior to turning the bundles of white goods over to the local ACS headquarters at 821 Penniman.

Mrs. Clifton Tillotson, chairman of the drive, is being assisted on plans for the event by Mrs. Harry Bartel, secretary-treasurer of the Plymouth cancer unit.

Proposed Law Will Put Bite On Dog Owners

City commissioners gave first reading Monday night to a new dog ordinance that will put a $5 bite on owners who fail to purchase licenses for their canine friends.

The proposed law is designed to give police a freer hand in regulating the city's dog population than they had under the present ordinance enacted 22 years ago.

Under the present ordinance, there is no fine for not purchasing a dog license. Owners merely pay an extra 50 cent fee if they wait past the June 1 deadline.

Special tickets for dog owners will also go for other offenses. The person who voluntarily allows their dog to run free, for instance, had to be issued a summons to appear in court under the present ordinance.

Another major change involves the license fee. Licenses for female dogs have cost more than males or spayed females.

A kennel (two dogs or more) must have a license for each dog. Kennels will be subject to inspection at any time. A kennel license shall not be required in the case of a litter of pups, providing that the owner sells or disposes of the offspring in four months.

Dogs cannot run at large and no person shall keep a dog which shall cause a serious annoyance to the neighborhood, the ordinance declares.

Fines for violations of the proposed ordinance can go as high as $50 and imprisonment up to 30 days.

City commissioners have authorized an appraisal of the First Church of Christ Scientist property with the idea of perhaps purchasing it for future use.

Officials have for many years asked church leaders to give the city first chance on purchasing the property. It is located next to city hall and the land would be used to enlarge facilities there if needed.

Christian Scientists purchased a new church site on Ann Arbor trail several years ago and have indicated that they are willing to now negotiate sale of the present property, although they may not start new construction for another two years.

The city manager was authorized Monday night to obtain an appraisal of the property to compare with an appraisal being made by the church.

Leap Year Folks Finally Celebrate

Celebrations which can be held only once every four years will take place next Wednesday when a small, select group of Plymouth area people observe their Leap Year birthdays.

In answer to a call made last week in The Mail, eight persons have been found who were born on February 29. The youngest is celebrating her first anniversary; the oldest is observing his 19th.

Clinton D. Williams, 6547 Haggerty road, will be 80 years old next Wednesday but this will be only his 19th Leap Year celebration. There may be a few who recall that there was no Leap Year in 1900 because of the ruling that century years must be divisible by 400 instead of just four.

Mr. Williams was born on February 29, 1876 in Fayetteville, New York. He has lived in the Plymouth area since 1938, having retired in 1947 from his job with the Ford Motor company.

The youngest known celebrant is Elizabeth Ann Donnelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Donnelly, 550 Sunset. Elizabeth was born on Leap Year day four years ago and this will be her first celebration on that anniversary.

Observing her second birthday anniversary will be Lynn Niles, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Eugene Niles, 399 Pacific. Lynn's second grade classmates at Bird school will help Lynn celebrate her second Leap Year anniversary (eight actual years). In years where there is no Leap Year, she observes her birthday on February 28.

The usual family gathering will help Mrs. Reynold Esch, 18974 Haggerty road, celebrate her 13th Leap Year birthday Wednesday. Mrs. Esch, who also observes her birthdays on February 28 in other years, will actually be 52. She was born in Farmington.

Making the most out of her Leap Year birthday will be Emily Cutler, daughter of Attorney and Mrs. J. Rusling Cutler, 193 North Main. Emily observes her birthday only when February 29 comes around and so the affair is a big one. Her friends are invited to an open house next Wednesday from 7 to 10 p.m. Her first Leap Year birthday was celebrated with one cake and one candle. This year there will be four cakes with four candles. Emily is a high school junior.

Also celebrating her fourth Leap Year birthday Wednesday will be Gae Ponto, 693 Maple street. Born in 1940, she celebrates her birthday on March 1.

Time Running Out On '55 Licenses

As a reminder—don't take your car out of the garage next Thursday morning unless it has those 1955 license plates.

Law enforcement agencies in Plymouth and all over Michigan will be on the lookout starting March 1 for vehicles not carrying proper plates. Estimates made by Mrs. Doris Roor, manager of the local license plate bureau, indicate that at least a third of the area's vehicle owners still need to buy their licenses.

The C-A series has now been issued and the E-A series is now being used. Next in line are the E-N plates, Mrs. Roor states.

Three lines instead of the usual two have been established for auto plate buyers at the bureau office on Liberty street. Five people will be at work to handle the last-minute license shoppers.

Hours of the office will be from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. today and tomorrow; until 5 p.m. this Saturday; and until 8 p.m. next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Judge's Office Window Shattered by Stone

A stone shattered a window in the reception room of the office of Municipal Judge Nandino Perone last night when a car driven by his mother struck a tree on Canton Center road.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Owens, 2067 Gorman road. Willard 13, suffered head injuries in the crash which took place on Canton Center near Warren road. His mother and brother, James, 10, received slight injuries.

Willard was unconscious in Wayne County General hospital until he died there at 11:53 p.m. Friday. The body was taken from the Schrader funeral home to the Orr & Sons funeral home in Dyersburg, Tennessee. Services were held Tuesday at First Pentecostal church in Ridgely, Tennessee and interment was in Antioch cemetery, Hornbeak, Tennessee.

He was born in Obion county, Tennessee on December 14, 1942. Surviving besides his parents are a sister, Wanda Ann; two brothers, James Milton and Robert Danny, all at home; and his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eason, Troy, Tennessee. The family came here five years ago from Obion county.

First Baptist Minister Confined to Hospital

The Reverend David L. Rieder, pastor of First Baptist church, was taken by ambulance to St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor last Thursday after suffering a heart ailment. Doctors so far are calling his condition "heart fatigue" but are continuing their diagnosis.

Mrs. Rieder reports that no damage has been found to the heart. He will be confined to the hospital at least through the end of this week. The pastor first took ill on Sunday, February 12 but appeared to be getting better until stricken Thursday. Taking over pulpit duties this Sunday morning and evening will be Dr. Albert Gage of the Detroit Baptist Mission society.

FOUR BIRTHDAYS OLD next Wednesday will be Emily Cutler, one of the few Plymouth area people who will get to celebrate their birthdays on February 29 this year.

Argument Fails to Save Home Condemned by City

The owner of a home which has been declared to be a public hazard lost his argument with the city commission Monday night in a last attempt to save it from being torn down.

Joseph Bailey, who is also an occupant of the home at 644 Herald street, was given a chance before the commission to state why the home should not be torn down. It is the first such case in local history where a home has been involved in a condemnation proceeding.

A resolution approved by the commission at its last meeting ordered Bailey to raze the home within eight weeks.

Bailey said that he works nine hours a day on the east side of Detroit and has not been able to work on the house. "I don't think it is unsafe or unsanitary, but I will make changes to your satisfaction," Bailey said.

A 20-minute discussion followed, including the reading of a letter of December 30, 1946 in which Dr. Luther Peck, then the city's health officer, gave a full report about "unsanitary and unsafe" conditions in the home. Writing in the home was declared unsafe four years ago according to another letter. A letter from the Wayne County Department of Health dated August 27, 1951 criticized the lack of sewage disposal facilities.

The latest inspection took place in January when the fire department, board of health, electrical inspector and building inspector recommended that the building be declared a public hazard and nuisance. A long list of complaints were reported by the agencies, headed by the lack of sanitary facilities and the collection of rubbish and debris in and around the premises.

"My doctor bills are ridiculous low," Bailey told the commission in commenting about the health hazard. "And concerning the fire hazards, I don't even bother to carry fire insurance."

Asked why he never bothered to make repairs, Bailey said that for many years he didn't live in the home and that those who did never paid their rent or took care of the home. "You fix a window and they knock it out; you fix it and they knock it out again," he asserted. Bailey said that the family upstairs which was recently moved out by the health officer owed him $700 to $800 in back rent. "With rent being only $15 a month that might sound humorous to you, but it isn't to me," he added.

Girl In Custody For Death Threat

A bizarre case in which a 13-year-old Plymouth girl threatened the life of an older girl in writing on a valentine, stole a gun and last Monday had it carried to school by a friend, is being investigated by police while the girl is being held in the detention home in Detroit.

The girl was picked up by police Monday at school after showing a cartridge to students riding on a bus and boasting that it was the bullet that would kill the older girl. The gun which was carried by her girl friend was also shown to other students.

Juvenile Officer Maxwell Allen said that the intended victim, a Plymouth resident now attending college, received a valentine from the 13-year-old carrying the death threat. The older girl had been the younger girl's instructor in a summer activity, it was reported.

Allen said that the girl took the gun from the home of her father's friend in Flint. Although she didn't know it, the gun was for blank cartridges only and would not have fired real cartridges. In a preliminary hearing at the detention home Tuesday, Allen said that the girl has now passed the whole thing off as a joke. She will be held until another hearing next Wednesday. Her friend who actually carried the gun was released.

Police said that the girl has been in trouble several times before. She once broke into her intended victim's home with a knife and was caught. She also claimed this incident to be a joke. The girl, an eighth grade pupil, has not been named because of her age.

Symphony Plans Mozart Concert

Sunday, March 4 the Plymouth Symphony orchestra will pay tribute to the 200th anniversary of one of the greatest composers who ever lived, Wolfgang Mozart.

The Mozart Anniversary Concert is typical of concerts and festivals being conducted the world over. Conductor Wayne Dunlap points out.

As a special attraction of the event, the orchestra, along with the Civic Chorus directed by Fred Nelson, will perform the Coronation Mass. Conductor Dunlap believes this may be the first United States performance of this work, written by Mozart when he was 23. Dunlap obtained orchestra parts for Coronation Mass in Vienna, Austria last year while studying under a Fulbright scholarship.

Nationally known soprano Norma Heyde will be featured soloist and will sing the Exultate jubilate as well as the soprano parts in the Coronation Mass. Other soloists in the mass, all from Plymouth, are: Florence Ellison, contralto; Harper Stephens, tenor; and Wallace Schonschack, bass.

Ruth Barney. The three-act comedy will also be presented tonight, Thursday, and Saturday evening at 8:15 in the high school auditorium under the joint sponsorship of the local Kiwanis club and Plymouth Theatre Guild. Proceeds will go towards the band uniform fund.

Five Residents Take Honors At CAR Show

The names of five residents were among those of winning contestants in the annual Talent show sponsored by the Plymouth Corners society, Children of the American Revolution, it was announced by Mrs. Kenneth Corey, chairman of the DAR committee in charge of the Saturday night event.

Winners were as follows: Junior division (five to 12 years): First, Racina Bailey of Northville, song and tap; second, Susan Eko and Karen Pankow of Plymouth, song and tap; honorable mention, Walter Gieski, Jr. of Plymouth, accordion solo. Senior division (12 through 18 years): First, Richard Drew of Northville, piano medley; second, Musical Minors, vocal group from Ladywood high school, Livonia, Mary Lou Allen, Rita Regan, Catherine Laskowski and Caroline Roulier; honorable mention, Larry Livingston, Jr. and Jim Thompson of Plymouth, clarinet duet.

Ten dollars was awarded first-place winners and $5 for second place in both divisions. Judges were Plymouthites Carl Kranish and Mrs. William Bohl, Mrs. Bart Connors and Lester G. Lee, Northville residents. The show was held in the auditorium of Plymouth junior high school.

The Reverend and Mrs. Robert D. Richards of Melrose avenue, Livonia, announce the engagement of their daughter, Dilys Elizabeth, to A. Richard Wiseley, son of M. W. Wiseley of Whitmore Lake and the late Mrs. Wiseley. No date has been set for the wedding. Reverend Richards is pastor of the Newburg Methodist church.

Barnetti-Spitz Rites Slated for April 14

Announcement was made this week of the engagement of Mary Jane Spitz, to Joseph C. Barnetti of East Detroit.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mrs. Peter Spitz of 850 Arthur and the late Mr. Spitz. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Charline Barnetti and the late Mr. Barnetti of East Detroit.

Miss Spitz, a 1949 graduate of Plymouth high school, is employed at the local Burroughs plant. The bridegroom-elect attended school in Detroit and is presently enrolled at Michigan State university. The couple are planning to be married April 14.

Smith PTA Meets For Psychology Talk

Mrs. Belle Farley Murray, child psychologist from the U of M Extension bureau in Ann Arbor, will address a general meeting of the Smith School Parent Teachers association at 7:45 this evening in the school auditorium. Following the psychologist's talk a question and answer period will be held. Reports will also be given at this meeting by Gerald Elston and William Upton as representatives of the School Community Planning group. The entertainment program will feature Miss Margaret Bell, U of M music student. Refreshments will be served at the close of the meeting. All members are urged to attend the event.

BIRTHS

Because there are so many hospitals in the area which are utilized by Plymouth citizens, it is impossible for The Mail to accurately obtain reports of all births. We therefore must rely on parents or relatives to kindly supply us with this information as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Koppén of 46311 Ford road announce the birth of a son, Frederick Claude, weighing seven pounds 14 ounces on February 15, Ridgewood hospital, Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Secord Jr. of 671 Jener street are the proud parents of a seven pound eight ounce daughter, Kathryn Lee born February 7 in Session's hospital, Northville. Mrs. Secord is the former Rita Gomoluch.

Dr. Fitch to Show Yucatan Slides

A travel tour of the Mayan Indian ruins in Yucatan, Mexico will be presented Sunday night, February 26, at 7:30 in the Masonic temple by Dr. Gerald H. Fitch of 352 North Main. The lecture will be given under the auspices of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Dr. and Mrs. Fitch visited the Yucatan peninsula in December, having become interested in this region from studies in the Book of Mormon. The theory advanced by the Book is that migrations of people from the Tower of Babel and Jerusalem came by boat to this continent and founded a civilization in the Yucatan. It is believed that the first migration occurred about 2200 B. C., estimated date of the Tower of Babel, while the group from Jerusalem came in 600 B. C., shortly before their city was destroyed by Babylonians. In the ancient cities of Unxmal, Chichen Itza and Palenque, oldest of which is dated 183 A. D., can be found hieroglyphics, Egyptian art and other findings in support of this belief. Fitch will illustrate his lecture with colored slides of the various ruins and their contents.

Heart Association Course Offered to Homemakers

Free "Heart of the Home" classes in work-simplification techniques to teach homemakers in Plymouth to do their daily housework simpler and easier will be offered at the Salvation Army Citadel, Fairground and Maple streets, starting Tuesday, March 13. The series is financed and sponsored by the Michigan Heart Association, working in cooperation with the Plymouth Adult Education and Recreation department, according to R. R. Barber, M.D., member of the Rehabilitation committee of the Michigan Heart Association. The announcement is of special interest to all women who are incapacitated or disabled by heart disease, high blood pressure, arteriosclerosis, rheumatic heart, varicose veins and coronary heart. "Most homemakers can enjoy the luxury of extra time and energy that results from finding better and easier ways of doing things," Dr. Barber stated, "but for the homemaker with heart disease, the saving of time and energy is an absolute necessity." The work-simplification classes, which are a free community service of the Michigan Heart Association, are designed to fill the doctor's prescription of "take it easy" by showing the homemaker how to save as much as 75 per cent of her walking, 75 per cent of her movements and 60 per cent of her reaching. This tremendous saving of time and energy means lessening the strain placed on the heart by reducing the physical effort expended by the homemaker.

Mrs. Hannah R. Pretzer of the Wayne University Home Economics department conducts the classes. She emphasizes that the classes are designed to benefit any economic level and that it is not necessary to remodel a home in order to conserve the homemaker's time and energy. "The course is available to every woman in Plymouth, although those with a heart or blood vessel ailment will be given first listing. Homemakers may register for the free classes by calling the Adult Education office, Plymouth high school, 895, Extension 4. Each homemaker attends four two-hour lecture-demonstration classes which will be held on March 13, 20, 23 and 27 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Homemakers are urged to register this week in order to attend the first class on March 13. The Wayne County Medical Society has endorsed the program and doctors of medicine are urged to refer their patients to the classes. The program is made possible through funds received from the Community Fund and Torch drive.

Pupils Addressed By Mail Reporter

Jerry O'Neil, former member of Plymouth high school's Pilgrim Prints newspaper staff and presently employed by The Plymouth Mail, spoke Thursday, February 16, to the second and fifth hour journalism classes at Plymouth high school. O'Neil, who began his career in journalism in 1940 on the staff of the Prints, attended Michigan State university. At The Mail he is employed as a photographer and reporter.

Addressing approximately 25 beginning and advanced journalism students, he discussed numerous phases of this field. Included were facts on copy preparation, proof-reading, make-up, photography, headlines and news and sports reporting. Utilization of simplicity and conciseness was the theme of the discussion, which covered the importance of clarity and accuracy as additional requirements for journalism students. A tour through the printing department of The Mail is being planned for the two high school journalism classes, which are taught by Miss Elizabeth McDonald.

Men Will Host Women At Allen P.T.A. Meeting

Men will entertain the ladies when the Allen Parent-Teacher association holds its monthly meeting next Tuesday, February 28. The evening will be predominantly social as the women sit back and let the men furnish the entertainment and refreshments. During the business session, the nominating committee will present its slate of officers for the next school year's election. Leonard Cole is in charge of entertainment and men of the executive board will furnish and serve refreshments. All parents of Allen school children are being urged to attend. Starting time is 8 p.m.

Unhurt in Accident

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lane, Mill street, were unhurt last week when the automobile in which they were driving while vacationing near Ft. Worth, Texas, collided with an oil truck and was badly damaged. Mrs. Lane, the former Jane Houk, is the daughter of James Houk, co-owner of Fisher's Shoe store. She is employed as a nurse for Dr. A. C. Williams.

Essay Contest Correction

In last week's issue of the Mail it was incorrectly stated that $18 would be awarded local first-place winners in both junior and senior divisions of the American Legion Auxiliary's Americanism contest. The amount should read $10. Deadline for entries is March 15.

Salem Scout, Guest of WWJ Staff, Monday

Eagle Scout Murray Glenn Lyke of Salem will be the guest of Carl Wesser, chief engineer of WWJ on Monday, February 27, and will be honored with other recipients of Scouting's highest award at a banquet to be held at 6:30 that evening in the Grand Ballroom of the Sheraton Cadillac hotel.

Wesser is adult sponsor for the Salem Eagle Scout who plans a career in radio engineering. To date, Murray has recorded thousands of shortwave stations from all over the world and is in the process of building his own transmitter.

Monday he will be taken on a tour of the Detroit News, WWJ-TV and will spend the day with Wesser on the job at the WWJ radio station. They will join Eagle Scouts from all parts of the state accompanied by sponsoring adults from the Scouts' chosen fields of interest, at the Sheraton-Cadillac banquet that night.

The local Scout is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Myrlan G. Lyke of Six Mile road. Starting out in Cub Scouting, he joined Scout Troop N-1 of Northville in 1951 and later became a member of Explorer Post 738. At the present time he is assistant scoutmaster of Troop 731 in Northville.

Every American should be a patriotic citizen of this country first, and a member of various organizations, societies and social or racial bodies second.

Circuit Judge, Guest Of Business Women

Wayne County circuit judge, Wade McCree, Jr., was the principal speaker Monday night at a meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club at 6:30 in the Miles Standish room of the Mayflower hotel.

Also attending the meeting was May K. Burke, executive secretary for the BPW in Michigan, and daughter, Evelyn, who is district 2 chairman. In addition the club had Mrs. McCree as their guest.

The organization was to honor Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing as February's "Woman of Achievement" the same evening, but the award was given in absentia as the school board secretary was participating in an educational conference in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Tells Kiwanis Club Of George Washington

It is unlikely that George Washington would have been physically eligible to be a member of the United States Army today. This was made evident to members of the Plymouth Kiwanis club Tuesday evening as the Reverend George Jeffrey of the Reverend George Jeffrey of the church in Detroit paid tribute to the first president of the United States.

Reverend Jeffrey pointed out that Washington was plagued by poor health yet he was never absent from duty. "Washington inherited great wealth and doubled its value through good business management," Reverend Jeffrey said. "He was our country's first millionaire." Reverend Jeffrey described Washington as a man of great courage who had many narrow escapes with death yet was never injured.

The program was arranged for the club by Ralph Carter who introduced Reverend Jeffrey.

Over 500 Attend
All-School Play

It was "standing room only" for residents who viewed the all-school play, "The Remarkable Incident at Carson Corner" last Thursday and Friday nights, when a total attendance of approximately 500 persons was reported for the two-day presentation at the high school.

Although Thursday night sufficient seating arrangements were found for the audience of 250, on Friday night when ticket sales soared to 300 some folks had to watch the show from the standing area at the rear of the auditorium.

Directors Carl Kranish and Robert Southgate of the high school teaching staff estimates that nearly $250 will be left over after deduction of expenses from proceeds of the show. The amount will be used to furnish plays of high quality for the drama department and to equip it with such physical needs as new sets and other necessities of play production.

OBITUARIES

Hubert O. Luker

Hubert O. Luker, 62, of 472 Starweather, died suddenly of a heart attack last Thursday at his home. Funeral services were held Monday at the Schrader Funeral Home officiated by W. Herman Neill, minister, assisted by Reverend Willie Attwell. Burial was at Riverside cemetery. Survivors include: his wife, Linda; one daughter, Charlotte of Plymouth, four sons, James of Farmington, Robert of Plymouth, Merville of South Plainfield, New Jersey, and Finis of Cranford, New Jersey; and one sister, Mrs. Ada Williams of Plymouth. Also 13 grandchildren.

The deceased was born November 3, 1893, in Union county, Tennessee. He moved here 17 years ago from Union City, Tennessee, and was employed at Bathey Mfg. Co.

Pallbearers were George Brockwell, Ben Williams, Elius Hicks, Jack Luker, Mr. Tucker and Mr. Brown.

Mrs. Nannie May Potter

After an illness of several months, Mrs. Nannie May Potter, who resided at 14180 Sheldon, died in Detroit Osteopathic hospital last Monday evening. She was 58. Funeral services were held Wednesday at Dickson, Tennessee and interment was at Union Cemetery there.

Surviving are: her husband, Robert; two daughters, Mrs. Irene Dodson of Nashville, Tennessee and Mrs. Elanor Duke of White Bluff, Tennessee; a son, Willmatt of Northville; and three sisters, Mrs. Vern Adcox of Plymouth, Mrs. Clara Hatch of Rioando, Tennessee, and Mrs. Willie Pink of Nashville, Tennessee. Also 11 grandchildren.

Born in Hickman county, Tennessee, on October 13, 1897, the late Mrs. Potter was the daughter of Robert and Ellar Petty Gering. She had moved to this community 12 years ago.

Mrs. Emma Mary Krueger

Mrs. Emma Mary Krueger, 39103 West Warren road, succumbed last Friday at her residence following several years of failing health. She was 88 years of age and had lived in this community 65 years.

Funeral services were held Monday at the Schrader Funeral Home with Reverend Henry J. Walch officiating. Interment was at Riverside cemetery with Louis Buehler, Richard Gust, Roy Lyke, Partee Childers, William Utter and Hubert Taylor acting as pallbearers.

Survivors include: one daughter, Miss Rose Kruger of Plymouth; and two sons, Rudolph and William also of Plymouth.

The late Mrs. Krueger was born June 15, 1867, at Merrane, Germany, the daughter of Henry and Matilda Wegner Pfeifer. She came to the United States at the age of five years. She married Louis A. Krueger on February 12, 1891. Her husband preceded Mrs. Krueger in death. One son, Walter, also preceded her death in 1955. She had moved to this community from Detroit.

Mrs. Martha L. Lundy

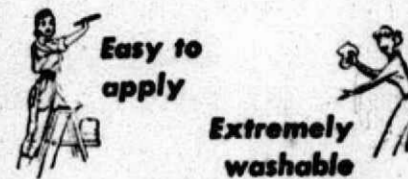

Mrs. Martha L. Lundy, former Plymouth resident, passed away at the General hospital in Flint, February 12, at the age of 86 years. She had been ill the past month.

Funeral services were held at the Grove Memorial chapel, Flint, on Wednesday, February 15. Reverend William Wager officiated, assisted by Reverend Howard Burden of Saginaw. Graveside services were held at Riverside cemetery in Plymouth, after which family and friends returned to the William McCullough home on Mill street.

Mrs. Lundy made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Claribell Selleck in Flint. She is also survived by daughters, Mrs. Olive Feighner of Detroit, Mrs. Lillian Carson of St. Clair Shores, and son Lloyd Lundy of Detroit, four grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Some of today's TV commercials are only out-splendored by the lousy plot and acting in the show.

The organization has also invited Vivians of the Dearborn Elks Temple to be their guests at this meeting, when a series of monologues will be given by the Birmingham resident as guest speaker for the program.

Refreshment chairman for the evening is Mrs. Betty Cutler.

The Reverend Ivan Hodgson of the First Methodist church, Northville, was officiating minister for the funeral services. Interment was in Forest Lawn cemetery, Detroit.

Herbert C. Felton

More complete details were received this week on Herbert C. Felton, 92, of 454 South Harvey street whose death on February 10 was reported in The Mail last week.

Mr. Felton, a retired Daisy Manufacturing company employee, was a resident of Plymouth for 45 years. He was born in Stony Creek, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Felton. He is survived by his wife, Eliza, of Plymouth. Three children by a previous marriage also survive. They are: a son, George of Philadelphia; two daughters, Edith Felton and Mrs. Pearl Hopkins of Detroit. Another son, Lynn, died one year ago in Rochester. He was a former resident of Plymouth. Seven grandchildren and 12 great grandchildren also survive.

Funeral services were held February 13 in Wayne with the Reverend Gernsey Gorton of the Wayne Methodist church officiating. Interment was in Mallett cemetery in New Boston.

that's nearly Two Tons Big

(It's the Buick SPECIAL — and you really ought to try it!)

This is the one that's going to town in a BIG way. And you'll know what we mean when you take its measure — by any yardstick you choose.

By the pound and inch, it's the biggest bundle of high-powered action and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

By the dollar sign, it's a value so big that Buick outsells every other car in America except two of the well-known smaller ones.

But not till you've put this 1956 Buick SPECIAL to the road can you know what a big-time performer it truly is.

You'll know it by the instant response and purring might of a 322-cubic-inch V8 engine that's been lofted to new peaks of power and compression.

You'll know it by the flash-away action of a new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that steps up getaway and gas mileage in normal situations — and zooms to full-power acceleration for a needed safety-surge when you floor the pedal and switch the pitch.

You'll know it by your complete mastery of a big car that handles like a dream — steers like a wish — and rides like a cloud in the blue.

BIG — that's the word for this Buick SPECIAL...

BIG — coming, going, or standing still...

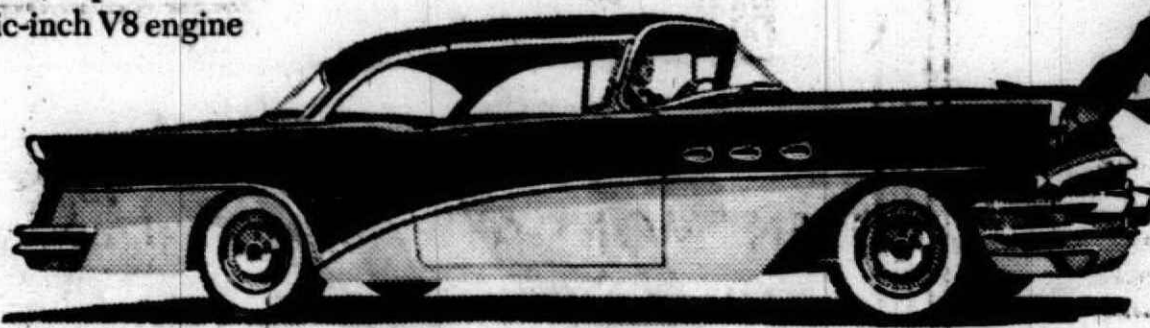

BIG — in its stretch-out roominess — in its sweeping beauty — in its solid steadiness...

BIG, most of all, in the way it makes your money talk...

Come in — soon — and let this Buick speak for itself. We think you'll find it sweet listening.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

PLYMOUTH'S HEAVIEST concentra'ed snow of the winter fell last Thursday night and resulted in this scene the next morning. Snow was scraped to the center of downtown streets. A highlift then placed it into trucks and it was hauled away. This was the first time this season that this snow-removal method had to be used.

Farm Re-zoning Gets Final City Approval

Re-zoning of the newly-annexed Roderick Cassidy farm for industrial purposes was given its final approval by the city commission Monday night. It will become effective March 13.

The 85 acres on the western border of Plymouth was annexed to the city as a result of a special election last November 1. The owner then petitioned for re-zoning from agriculture to light manufacturing for the northern 35 acres and one-family residential for the southern 50 acres.

The Western Electric company plans to construct a plant on the manufacturing portion.

Presents Liquor, Annexation Bill

A bill concerning liquor licenses and annexation which the Plymouth city commission had hoped to have presented at a special session of the legislature last fall has now been introduced in the state senate.

One of the issues in last November's annexation election was the fate of liquor licenses held by establishments in the township. Since city voters had expressed their opinion of not allowing the serving of "hard" liquor, it was pointed out that annexation of the township to the city would cancel liquor licenses of holders in the township.

Law provides that once the vote is taken on liquor questions another vote cannot be taken in four years.

The legislature passed a bill several years ago which allowed newly-incorporated municipalities to hold this vote sooner than four years. The author of the bill said that he meant to include newly-annexed lands too, but that his bill did not specify this.

Plymouth's city attorney, Harry Deyo, drafted a new bill which provides that an election can be held sooner than four years where an annexation has taken place. It was not placed on the agenda for the special session of the legislature last fall but has now been presented. A committee is now studying the bill.

Plymouth Area Civil Defense News

There will be a meeting of the Plymouth township Civil Defense unit next Thursday, March 1, it was announced by Director Leo F. Flowers. It will be held at the township hall at 8 p.m.

The latest United States Civil Defense booklet, "Four Wheels to Survival," will be issued. All those wanting to take the American Red Cross first aid course or rescue course can register at this meeting.

Flowers states that all people interested in helping Civil Defense in case of any emergency can register at this meeting. You need no special talent, he added.

The Wayne County Civil Defense Emergency Welfare Services and the Emergency Welfare Services of Detroit will conduct a joint series of classes starting March 7. Lasting for eight weeks, the classes will be held at Cody high school, near Southfield and Joy roads, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the library room 200.

All people interested in attending can obtain further information from Robert Fitzner of Norman Marquis, or the Office of Civil Defense, phone 2113.

Argument Fails

his offer to fix the home, stating that he is an electrician—"an amateur one." Mayor Russell Daane declared that the home is beyond repair and that a "do-it-yourself" job would hardly be the answer anyway.

The homeowner now has six weeks to get rid of the home and clean up the premises. If the work isn't completed by that time, the city will complete the job and assess the cost against the property.

It was reported that Bailey had similar homes condemned in Detroit and Livonia.

Helpful Gal

A young lady stalled her car at a traffic light and couldn't get it started. She tried and tried, while behind her an impatient motorist honked his horn steadily. Finally she got out and walked back.

"I'm awfully sorry, but I can't start my car," she told the driver of the other car pleasantly. "If you'll go and start it for me, I'll stay here and lean on your horn."

Donald R. Baskins

Now serving with the U.S. Air Force in Casa Blanca, North Africa is Donald R. Baskins, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Baskins of 283 East Ann Arbor trail.

The local serviceman, an airman second class, attended Plymouth high school before entering service in September 1954. He received his basic training in Geneva, New York and was later transferred to Cheyenne, Wyoming.

Baskins was stationed in Cheyenne until April 1955 when he was sent for an 18-months tour of duty at Casa Blanca. At the present time he is engaged in supply work at the north American base. Baskins is expected to return to this country in October 1956.

Radioactivity May Give Clue To Best Fishing

Radioactivity may soon be helping you fishermen find where the best fishing lies.

This summer, a University of Michigan scientist will use radioactive solutions to tell "good" lakes from "poor" ones.

George H. Lauff, instructor in zoology, will study bodies of water ranging in size from small bog lakes to the mighty Huron. Lauff explains that the productivity of a lake can be measured by the rate that its microscopic plants are formed for consumption by tiny consumers such as water fleas. The fleas and other consumers are eaten by small fish, and the small fish by larger ones, and so on up the aquatic chain.

Like a farm, a lake may lack the necessary nutrients for the growth of its plants, Lauff notes. Or it may be choked with plants that are not consumed, much as a farm is overgrown with inedible weeds.

In order to determine how well lake plants are doing their job, Lauff and his associates will periodically sample water at various depths in the lakes. Since carbon in the water is assimilated by the plants in their normal functioning, traces of radioactive or "tagged" carbon solution added to the samples can be detected in the plants after a short period of time. The amount of radioactive carbon measured will provide a key to the rate formation of new plant material.

Used this way for the first time in fresh water research, the radioactive carbon method should yield valuable information on an important natural process. Lauff points out. In addition, the knowledge could help fishermen and fisheries to take better advantage of the energy available at various stages in a lake's food chain, he adds.

Ford Treasurer To Head Area Cancer Crusade

Leon E. Briggs, treasurer of the Ford Motor company, has been named general chairman of the 1956 Cancer Crusade of American Cancer Society's Southeastern Michigan division, it was announced today by Dr. Harry M. Nelson, president of the division.

The Cancer Crusade is an intensive educational drive held annually during April to alert the public to life-saving facts about cancer. Mrs. Harry Bartel of the Plymouth ACS office will head the local campaign.

It is expected that the 1956 drive will be the most ambitious cancer educational program ever conducted in this area. Last year, statisticians estimate, about 245,000 people died of cancer, while some 80,000 were saved from it. Reports show that as many as 80,000 of the deaths were needless, occurring because the presence of cancer was not detected early enough, so that treatment was begun too late.

The public education program of the American Cancer society aims to stress the necessity of periodic health examinations to avoid such tragedy. Such checkups, on a nation-wide basis, many doctors believe, could enable the saving of twice as many patients as are now cured.

Slogan for this year's Cancer Crusade is, "Fight Cancer With A Checkup Today."

The Anna Smith circle of the Study club held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Virginia VanHofe on Ann street. The following officers were installed for the coming year: Mrs. Dorothy Finney, president; Mrs. Virginia Van Hofe, vice-president; Mrs. Betty Mende, recording secretary; Mrs. Olga Hubert, treasurer. The next meeting will be on March 21 with Mrs. Effie Kuisel of Harvey street.

Lecturer to Discuss Method of Healing

The healing method of Christian Science will be the topic of a public lecture by Mrs. Mary C. Holloway of Shreveport, La., announced for Monday evening, February 27, in Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, 5240 W. Chicago Blvd.
Everyone is invited and no tickets are necessary. Her subject will be "Christian Science: Man's Divine Destiny Revealed."
For some years a Christian Science practitioner, Mrs. Holloway is now a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship. Formerly she was active in community welfare and public relations work. She was trained at Ohio State university in campaign management, community organization, public budgeting, and financial administration, as well as the journalistic aspects of such work.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schultz visited at the home of Mr. Schultz' aunt in Rochester, Sunday.
Going to church is a habit everybody even the wealthy and elderly individual should nourish. Attended often enough, something good is sure to "take" as a result.
Civilization: the passing of the hat-pin and the advent of the pin-up.

DUPLICATING A SCENE which took place in thousands of communities throughout this nation and in 134 countries of the world Friday, February 17, as Christians gathered for the World Day of Prayer observance were these four residents shown entering St. John's Episcopal church, site of the local service. From left are Mrs. Carl Haneberg, Mrs. Velma Searfoss, Mrs. Harold Compton and Mrs. Dunbar Davis. Nearly 100 attended the Plymouth service which was sponsored by the council of United Church Women. Mrs. Robert Lindsay of Lincoln Park was guest speaker.

Week Long Mission Starts Sunday at Good Counsel

Father Ralph, C. P. vice-rector of St. Paul of the Cross Monastery, Detroit, and Father Matthias, C. P., will conduct a Mission at Our Lady of Good Counsel church beginning Sunday, February 26 and closing Sunday, March 4.
Starting Monday and continuing throughout the week Mission Masses will be said at 6 and 9 a.m. each followed by a short instruction. Evening services will be held at 7:30 and will include a sermon by one of the missionaries and evening devotions.
Religious articles such as Bibles, rosaries, prayer books, and others, will be available in the parish hall for those who wish to purchase them.
Members of the parish are asked to take an intense, active interest in all of the Mission exercises. Other interested persons are earnestly encouraged to attend any or all of the services.
A Mission consists of a course of sermons on the importance of salvation, the great truths of eternity, particular vices, and the mercy and the love of God. It is also a course of instruction on the Sacraments, the Holy Mass, prayer, the commandments of God, and the precepts of the Church.
The devotions of the Mission are religious exercises such as Holy Mass and public prayer, especially the Rosary and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.
Object of the Mission is to make the faith of the good what St. Paul calls a living faith, to arouse the lukewarm to a life of fervor, to encourage weary and despondent sinners to make their peace with God, to reclaim those who have strayed away from the practice of religion, and to make all classes take to heart that first lesson of the little Catechism: Why did God make me?

Rosedale Scouts, Fathers Honored At St. Michael's

Scouts of Troop No. 271, Rosedale Gardens, and their fathers were honored at a breakfast following attendance at the 7:30 p.m. service at St. Michael's church on Scout Sunday, February 12.
Principal guests for the event were Father Contway, Wendell Henry, scout executive; H. Wigand, district commissioner; R. J. Lane, neighborhood commissioner; Lee Malone, security officer and former FBI agent; and T. Rybak, new cubmaster of Pack No. 271.
Honors for capturing first place at the Klondike Derby of January 22, were awarded Wolf patrol by Wendell Henry. Members of the patrol, headed by Art Newmark as patrol leader, are T. Napolitano, Chet Pawloski, Gary Brown, and Dave Jones.
Malone gave an interesting talk as former FBI agent and now security officer for a large corporation, stressing the requirements for this type of work which, in every case, fulfilled one of the 12 Scout Laws.
Father Contway and the troop then honored Robert May, John Grimm, Joseph and William Zinger, who later in the day were to receive their Catholic award, "Ad Altare Dei" at Blessed Sacrament cathedral, Detroit.
This is the highest religious award presented a Catholic scout and requires not only a thorough study of Catholicism but also demands specified hardships.
The breakfast was prepared by St. Michael's Altar society.

Northville Church To Present Film, "Martin Luther"

"Martin Luther," feature-length motion picture which deals with the 16th century Reformation leader, will be shown Saturday and Sunday, March 10 and 11, in the parish hall of St. Paul's Lutheran church, Northville, by the church's Lutheran Laymen's League club which recently purchased the film.
The film will be shown at 2:30 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on both days of the presentation. There will be no admission charge for the event, which is open to the public. However a freewill offering will be taken to help defray expenses.
The film, purchased for use by the church in its educational and inspirational program, is the same full one-hour and 45 minute motion picture which was shown in theatres throughout the country for two years. During its theatrical engagements, "Martin Luther" was seen by more than twenty million Americans.
It was stated by the local sponsors that the authenticity of this period in human history had not been sacrificed for the film's artistic excellence. The writings of many scholars of the Reformation era were carefully investigated to insure historical accuracy.
Produced for Lutheran Church Productions, Inc., by Louis de Rochemont Associates 16 mm. prints of the motion picture have been made available for permanent ownership by churches, schools, and religious organizations.

Basketball Regionals Slated for Ypsilanti

The class "A" basketball regional tournament in which Plymouth will be a competing entry is slated to be held this year at Michigan State Normal college's new field house in Ypsilanti on March 13-17.

Although the location of the play-offs, the dates and teams involved are already decided for this post-season battling which eventually leads to the state class champions, the drawing to determine game pairings still remains in order to complete final preparation for the event.

The Plymouth cage squad will be one of seven quintets entered in this particular regional battling, which consists of three rounds of play with one loss constituting an elimination. The six other teams are: Livonia-Bentley, Monroe, Wayne, Ypsilanti, Jackson and Ann Arbor.

With the Rocks, Bentley is a fellow member of the local Suburban Six cage circuit, while Wayne and Ypsilanti hail from the Huron-Rouge league, Jackson and Ann Arbor are members of the 5-A conference and Monroe competes in the Border Cities loop.

Calvary Baptist Conference to Attract Many Missionaries

The 12th annual Round the World Missionary Conference will be held at Calvary Baptist church, February 26 through March 4. During the conference week nine missionaries who have served in foreign countries will speak and tell of their work in various fields throughout the world.

Sound motion pictures and colored slides of missionary activities will be shown. Curious from these countries will be on display.

The following missionary boards will be represented at this conference.

The Association of Baptist for World Evangelism, speaker Reverend Lindsay Harrell, of Brazil; the China Inland Mission, speaker Miss Ruby Lundgren, of Thailand; The Evangelical Union of South America, speaker Reverend George Higeman, of Bolivia; International Missions, speaker Reverend Charles Chamberlain, of India; Baptist Mid-Missions, speaker Reverend Lyle Jessop of Dominican Republic.

The Sudan United Mission, speaker Reverend Moorehouse, of Africa; The Evangelical Alliance Mission, speaker Reverend T. J. Bach, veteran missionary and president emeritus and Reverend Arthur Johnson, of France; the Wycliffe Translators, speaker Elliott Canonge, who will tell of the work of Bible translators working in cooperation with missions throughout many parts of the world.

Sunday services are 11 a.m. and 7 p.m. All week-night services are at 7:30 p.m. The public is invited to all services.

Tait's Spills League - Champion Tripp, 59-57, As Regular Recreation Cage Season Closes

The odds caught up with the Geo. Tripp cagers last week for the second time this year in the local men's recreation basketball league, which came to its regular season close Thursday.

Tripp, sewed up a championship far in advance of its last battle of the season, the one with Tait's on Thursday. But in a total of 18 games the near-perfect Tripp quintet was continually the target for the three other squads in the loop. Each aimed for Tripp with upset ambitions.

And Tait's came through in its last opportunity. The Cleaners team ironed out earlier season wrinkles and proceeded to tag the Trippers with their second loss of the campaign. Tait's edged the champions by a 59-57 count, banking on Ron Pagenkopf's 23-point scoring spurge to do the job.

Consequently Tripp, again a champ, turned in a final 16-2 record to stand high above the other three entries in the conference. Only other defeat on the Tripp list was an earlier 40-39 setback by Bathey Mfg. company. Bathey and Tait's wound up the year in a deadlock for second place each with 8-10 showings, while S. L. Brader from Northville took the most severe pummeling and closed with a 4-14 card.

Besides Tait's upset conquest of Tripp their closing action in the recreation loop last week included: Tripp's 59-57 win over Brader; Bathey's 37-28 victory over Tait's; and Bathey's 53-34 decision of Brader. This week the four teams are engaged in a two-deck elimination tourney, aimed at deciding a play-off post-season champion.

Tait's, on its way to the upset of Tripp, commanded play as indicated by the quarter scores. Tait's led 11-10 at the end of the first period, 27-24 at the half and 39-36 at the three-quarter mark. Tripp, always dangerous, exploded with a rush in the fourth quarter, tallying 21 points. But Tait's managed 20 of its own to clinch the victory.

Biggest threat to the Tait's five in the last eight minutes, was Tripp's Don Huebler who tallied 10 counters on five buckets to nearly overhaul the eventual winners. But Pagenkopf's 10 in the same span offset Huebler's efforts.

Good ball-handling, a fast-breaking attack and heads-up board work and ease of scoring, was displayed by both quintets over the distance. However Tripp's loss was credited to an early ineptness at scoring maneuvers and several misplays.

Aiding in Tait's win was Bob Bruce with 15 points, Bud Nedry with 12 and Pat Robinson with nine. Tait's played the same five men from start to finish with no substitutions. Huebler's 14 were tops for the losers as Duane Becker and Bob Lulfs each contributed 12 in a futile attempt to avert the defeat.

That same evening, in the second game, Bathey mauled Brader by a 53-34 count to earn a share of second place with Tait's.

Dwight Eckler, Bob Houghton and Dick Day combined to score 43 points between them, more than enough to grab the nod. Eckler was high with 16, 12 coming in the first half.

Brader, who lost its fifth straight since winning two in a row earlier, was headed by Don McMurray's 12 points in the scoring column. Larry Brennan added eight and Ed Hock tallied seven in a vain cause.

Two nights earlier, Tripp handed the Brader crew in the same manner, carding a 59-37 victory on 12-point efforts by Bud Lanphear and Don Huebler, plus 10 from Bob Lulfs and nine each by Duane Becker and Mac Pierce. Larry Brennan took game scoring honors with 16 for the Brader quintet.

Tripp's stepped out to an 18-8 margin in the opening eight minutes and continued to widen this advantage. Half-time score was 42-21 in favor of Tripp, who went to a 42-21 bulge at the three-quarter time. Seventeen more points in the fourth insured the decision.

Bathey whipped up a 37-28 nod over Tait's in the second battle that evening. Bathey's victory came in a low-scoring tilt with no player breaking into double figures in the point-making department. Eckler's nine paced the winners while Pat Robinson's nine were tops for the losers. Bathey led 19-14 at the half.

The final standings:

Team	W	L
Tripp	16	2
Tait's	8	10
Bathey	8	10
Brader	4	14

RU Clashes With Bentley For Crown

The Suburban Six basketball race goes right to the wire this year to determine who shall reign as the 1955-56 champion. It all came about last Friday when previous leader Bentley suffered a 62-53 setback to Trenton and challenging Redford Union tallied a 58-49 win over Plymouth to surge into a tie for first.

Therefore the current title in the conference will not be decided until Bentley greets Redford Union tomorrow evening at the Livonia floor. Both teams bring 7-2 records into the battle, the last circuit tilt of the year and one which should provide spectators with sufficient thrills to hold them until next season.

However an oddsmaker would more than likely give the Livonia squad a slight edge for several reasons. Playing on its home court, Bentley has been unbeatable, while Redford Union on the road has suffered two setbacks. The Livonia squad will be seeking revenge for an earlier loss to the Panthers plus Friday's upset at the hands of Trenton. Bentley also holds a big eighth advantage over the hopeful Redford Union starters.

In the third conference contest last Friday Allen Park left the cellar for the first time this season by defeating Belleville, 53-46.

While Bentley and Redford Union clash to decide the title, Plymouth will seek to make amends for an earlier loss to Allen Park. The Rocks play host to Allen Park here. The other match of the night features Trenton at Belleville.

Plymouth will be out to even its league card at five wins and five losses when Allen Park comes to town. Presently the locals stand at 4-5.

The league standings:

Team	W	L
Bentley	7	2
Redford Union	7	2
Trenton	6	3
Plymouth	4	5
Allen Park	2	7
Belleville	1	8

Swimmers Win Eighth

The Wyandotte varsity tankers found the Plymouth high swimming pool a place of discomfort February 15 as, behind eight first place awards, the local swim squad dumped its guests by a 62-25 count.

Previously trouncing Allen Park twice and the Birmingham crew once in home waters, this most recent win earned the Rock's their fourth victory in succession as they slowly edged their way to the close of another season's competition. It was Plymouth's seventh win against three losses.

Highlighting Plymouth's barrage of first-place finishes were four record breaking times. The first of these occurred in the 200 yard freestyle as Bill Brandell smashed all old records with a first place time of 2:05.3 for a new pool and team record.

Chasing Brandell to the wire was Garry Wright who held a lead in this event preceding the final lap, but finished second behind Brandell with a 2:09.1. Third place points were handed to Tom Sutka of Birmingham.

Second Half Collapse Beats Rocks, 58-49

Those familiar fourth period shakes that have plagued Plymouth in recent games cropped up again Friday evening at Redford Union - only this time they backwashed into the third period and consequently spanned the entire second half.

As a result, the Rocks were dealt a 58-49 defeat by the hosting Panthers. It was Plymouth's fifth conference loss against four wins in the Suburban Six circuit and left the locals with a 5-5 overall season card.

Plymouth's cagers opened with their usual full-throttle attack which carried them to a 23-23 halftime lead, including margins that ranged to eight points. But the Rocks' highly geared offense which functioned at close to perfection during the first and second stanzas, was suddenly derailed in the last two frames.

At the same time, Redford Union was pouring on the gas to pull even with the Rocks midway through the third quarter and slowly draw away from the hopeful locals. The win by the Panthers was their seventh of the season in league action and enabled them to surge into a tie with Livonia-Bentley for possession of first place. Bentley suffered a loss to Trenton the same evening.

Cashing 50 percent of its field goal attempts over the course of the first half, Plymouth more than matched the Redford Union quintet which was hindered by a lack of organization and floor generalship. The Rocks stood one point down at the end of the first eight minutes and had shaved a five point lead at the half despite nine bad passes, violations and fumbles that caused them to lose possession of the ball.

It was this same difficulty in the second half that tagged the locals with the loss. In the third and fourth frames, Plymouth lost control of the ball 16 more times, thereby being deprived of that many more chances at scoring. Redford Union lost control by the same route only five times during the game.

After 13 points in the opening stanza and 15 more in the second period, the Rocks tallied only 10 in the third and nine in the fourth. The Panthers scored 17 in the third to earn a 40-38 halftime lead at the start of the fourth. Eighteen additional tallies in a final thrust clinched the victory.

The Rocks counted 21 to 50 shots from the floor for a 42 percent shooting mark while Redford Union connected on 22 of 65 for a 34 percent average. In the free throw department Plymouth made good on 7 of 17 attempts as the Panthers were notching 14 of 23.

Recreation Scoring Race

With an additional 22 points in two games last week, Tripp's high-scoring Bob Lulfs captured 1955-56 individual scoring honors in the local men's recreational basketball league. Lulfs posted an aggregate of 247 points in 17 games for an average of 14.5.

Runner-up in the point-production department is S. L. Brader's Don McMurray, a forward, who tallied 218 counters in 18 games for a 12.1 mark. In third place is Tait's Bud Nedry, also a forward, with a total of 204 in 15 contests and a 13.6 average.

Only Lulfs, McMurray and Nedry were able to break the 200 figure in scoring from among the 27 players in the league.

The seven other scorers that comprise the top ten point-makers during the course of the 18-game slate are:

1. Dick Day (Bathey) with 189.
2. Duane Becker (Tripp) with 176.
3. Larry Brennan (Brader) with 169.
4. Mac Pierce (Tripp) with 167.
5. Pat Robinson (Tait's) with 154.
6. Dwight Eckler (Bathey) with 149.
7. Bob Houghton (Bathey) with 140.

Other scorers include Tripp's Bud Lanphear (133), Tait's Ron Pagenkopf (132), Brader's Ed Hock (131), Tait's Bob Bruce (131), Tripp's Don Huebler (125), Bathey's Roger Bogenschultz (98), Bathey's Bob Arlen (94), Brader's

Jerry Heaton (84), Tait's Russ Brown (66), Tripp's Jim Bloomhuff (65), Tripp's Bud Young (61), and Bathey's Neil Lanphear (43).

Records during the season include Bob Lulfs' high game contribution of 32 points against Brader on January 5. Second highest sole effort was that of Don McMurray's 29 earlier.

Low scoring total is held by Tait's with 23 on December 22. High game total was notched by Tripp's with 85 against Brader on January 17.

The Tripp cagers also scored the most points over the course of the season. The league champs totaled 1085 in 18 games for a 60.2 game tally.

Badminton Tourney Scheduled Saturday

The Michigan State Junior Badminton Championship tournament for players 18 years and under will be held this Saturday afternoon at one o'clock at the Plymouth high school gymnasium. Participating in the tourney will be about 10 local entries.

Bill Baker and Recreation Director Herb Woolweaver, both of whom are on the tournament committee, explained that 125 entries from across the state are expected to compete. The public is invited.

He's Wary of Cameraman, Last Games

Marty Kreger, team manager for the Geo. Tripp cagers in the local men's recreation basketball league, has cause to view with alarm the season's last game and the Mail photographer when the two meet up with each other.

For the second year in a row, the Tripp quintet has clinched the championship several games from the end of regular play. And for the second year in a row, the masterful Tripp squad has suffered an upset defeat in its final battle of the campaign just as the Mail's photographer arrives to snap a team picture.

Last Thursday, prior to its contest with Tait's Cleaners, Tripp carried a near perfect 16-1 record into the season wind-up. The Trippers were far-and-away the leading squad in the circuit. The Mail was on hand to record a picture of the champs. It was the Tripp team's last regularly scheduled tilt.

Tripp proceeded to lose its role of invincibility and suffered a 59-57 loss at the hands of the fired-up Tait's team. Tripp closed with a championship, none-the-less, on the strength of a 16-2 card.

Last year Tripp, shouldering another crown in the circuit by virtue of a 12-0 showing, squared off with Tait's Cleaners in the last regular-season match once again. The title was sewed up. The Mail was present with its camera to photograph the titlists.

And as it stumbled this year, so did it last season. Tait's secured a 69-46 upset to hand the champs their only defeat of the 1954-55 slate.

So Kreger has sufficient reason to consider The Mail photographer and the last game of the year with a jaundiced eye and, as a proven jinx when the two get together in the line of duty.

Reader Enjoyed 'Trip' West

Brimley, Mich.
Dear Mr. Eaton,
Thank you for your series of articles on your trip West in "Chips off the Rock" column. I don't know how other subscribers have felt but to me it was realistic enough so I felt I'd gone with you. Then too, some former Plymouthites you mentioned brought me up to date on their whereabouts. It has been most interesting and I've thoroughly enjoyed the whole thing.
As an interesting sidelight, we have several friends in various parts of California, all of whom write the same, "The California people are pretty poor losers. You don't mention the M. S. U. game unless you want to lose a friend."
Nnw I have a small bit of news that might interest you. Prior to Christmas, Indian Head Mills sponsored a contest conducted by various disc jockeys around the nation, on Christmas symbols. I entered it only because I'd caught up on correspondence, Christmas cards all mailed and shopping done. Imagine my surprise when I received a telephone call from Mariane Hallott, a WSOO disc jockey (in Sault Ste. Marie) asking me to be on her program Tuesday, February 7 at 1:15 p.m. to receive first prize in this district.
As yet they haven't released names of national winners but all WSOO personnel are in hopes that I win something there too. In the meantime, I have won enough Indian Head material to make a lovely holiday dinner cloth and a salad set consisting of fork and spoon. The handles of these pieces are in Community Plate and the bowls of both fork and spoon ebony. It is very lovely.
Never having won anything before I'm quite proud of myself. Much to my chagrin, I was tongue-tied when confronted with a microphone. I can get up before 150 to 200 people in P.T.A. and talk with no qualms but that very small mike is a sneaky thing. Perhaps it bothered me more because you must be so conscious of the volume meter and a couple of occasions when it didn't register 100, Marion made me repeat.

Sincerely
Mrs. Elmer J. Wieland
(Carol Hammond-Wieland)

More Kind Words

To the Editor
The Plymouth Mail
Mr. Sterling Eaton.
The mailman delivers my copy of the Plymouth Mail each Thursday afternoon and I look forward to it very much. I have lived in the city of Plymouth for almost 20 years. Most of the names mentioned in the news items are familiar to me.
My neighbors are all friendly and most of us call each other by our first names. But we don't go in for gossip. For example: I knew that my next door neighbor was "expecting" near the end of January. She had her baby on January 17th. I did not know this until I read about it in the Plymouth Mail 16 days later. Without your wonderful paper I would never know what was around town. Thank you so much.
Mrs. Rita Ryder
P. S. Whatever happened to Johnny Pilgrim? I enjoyed his articles.

Dear Mr. Eaton:
Attached is a copy of a letter I received some time ago which may interest you for two reasons (1) the contents of the letter, and (2) in knowing that a reader of your paper, a service man giving an A. P. O. address, took time out to write me.
Yours very truly,
R. M. Farber

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Senior Girl Scout Troop 1, with Mrs. Sheldon Baker as the leader, is working towards completing the required number of service hours, part of the senior program, by doing community services. The troop recently planned the entertainment for the VFW Auxiliary Children's Party and had charge of the check room at the dance sponsored by the Optimists last Saturday in the high school gym.
While visiting Enterline's Photo service on Saturday, February 18, the Scouts learned many interesting facts about photography.
To honor Girl Scout Week, March 11-17, a large display portraying a scene from the future Round-Up will be set-up at the Girl Scout rally in the high school.
Plans are being made for a Snapshot Contest for Intermediate Girl Scouts, which will be sponsored by Troop 1, with Susan Campbell as chairman.

Customers' Corner

Once upon a savings-time...
Sound like a fairy tale? It isn't... it's true! Ninety-six years ago, George Huntington Hartford started a store that turned into a chain... and his basic thinking started a chain reaction that has benefited budgets ever since.
His idea: "Always do what is honest, fair and sincere and in the best interests of our customers."
Our idea: to continue to keep this policy active and operating for Founder's Week and every week, as long as there's an A&P!

Who's New in Plymouth

DISPLAYING A PHOTO of their 17-year-old son, Jim, who will join them this summer after graduation from school in Toledo, Ohio, are Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Nance, Jo Ann, 6, and John, 13. The family moved here January 20, occupying the residence at 9715 Joy road. Former manager of the S.S. Kresge store in Toledo, Nance was transferred to the management of the firm's Plymouth store. He replaces Ernest Faigle who was named superintendent of the Kresge stores in Ohio and Kentucky. Nance is originally from Paducah, Kentucky.

Seek Discards to Aid Goodwill Handicapped

Miss Edith Sorenson, local representative for Detroit Goodwill Industries, announced that the Goodwill truck will be in the Plymouth and Northville areas on Monday, February 27.

Useable home discards are being sought for renovation by the handicapped and eventual sale in the six Goodwill retail stores. Store sales go towards paying the salaries of over 400 handicapped employees. Arrangements to have the Goodwill truck stop by individual homes may be made by calling Miss Sorenson at Northville 571.

Detroit Goodwill will mark its 35th year of service to the handi-

MSU Alumni Club Slates Dinner Dance

A dinner-dance will be sponsored by the Northwest Suburban Alumni club of Michigan State University on Saturday, March 10, at Hawthorne Valley Country club.

Starting time for the event is 7 p.m. Music will be furnished by Pete Grasel and his orchestra. Also on the program are pictures of the Rosebowl game to be shown by Robert Toll of Michigan State.

All MSU alumni of Plymouth, Livonia, Northville and Farmington are urged to attend this event. Tickets and general information may be obtained from Mrs. Marvin Marschner of Livonia.

Club Sponsors Parties to Aid Charity Funds

Various charity funds will be aided Tuesday, March 6, by proceeds from two "Card-and-Games" parties which the Plymouth Woman's club will sponsor on that date in the Veterans Memorial hall, 173 North Main street.

Starting time for the first party is 1 p.m. while the other will be held at 7:45 that evening. Tables, cards and prizes will be provided for bridge, canasta and other card players as well as for fans of scrabble and similar games. Dessert will be served party-goers at each event.

The woman's club is donating the net proceeds of both parties for charitable activities as it has done in the past through similar benefit functions.

General chairman for this year's event is Mrs. Meredith E. Smith. Her committee consists of Mrs. Ralph Garber, Mrs. Hugh Stahl, Mrs. Charles Dickie, Mrs. Robert Proback, Mrs. Walter Hall, Mrs. Sylvester Shear, Mrs. P. Ray Norton, Mrs. Neil Bowen, Mrs. Thomas Keefe, Mrs. Walter Griffiths and Mrs. Edward Miller.

The Ex-Servicemen's club party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gardner, 10220 Ann Arbor road, on Saturday March 3, at 8 p.m.

Social Notes

Mrs. Otto Beyer and Miss Amelia Gayde spent from Thursday until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Sullivan at White Lake.

The Allen Home Demonstration group sponsored by the co-operative service of Michigan State University, will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Bradsell, 47334 Joy road, on Wednesday evening, February 29 at 7:30 p.m. The lesson will be on "Deserving Deserts."

Mrs. Robert Soth and children, Joyce and Guy, and Mrs. Perry Hix drove to Midland Friday. Mrs. Roger McFall and daughter, Barbara, returned to Plymouth with them to spend the weekend.

Ernest Durbin of Dakota street will return home Tuesday after undergoing major surgery at Mt. Sinia hospital, Detroit. He is convalescing nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage and son, Jim, of Clemons drive, Miss Mary Lou Foote of Marlowe street and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage and son, Michael of Garden City, were Saturday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Beyers in Wyandotte.

Mrs. Isabelle Taylor entertained her 500 club Monday afternoon at her home on Starkweather avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hunter of Maple avenue entertained at a family dinner Sunday, honoring their daughter Elaine on her twelfth birthday. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fullerton, Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Ray Creith, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Orr and sons, David, Larry and Rick, of Livonia; Mr. and Mrs. William J. Squires, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagenschutz, and Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter Jr., of Plymouth.

Robert Soth returned from Endicott, New York, last Tuesday, where he has been attending I. B. M. school for the past seven weeks.

Mrs. Harold Todd, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Veresh, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bucon, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartwick, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minehart and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage, all neighbors on Clemons drive, enjoyed dinner Sunday evening at "Henry's Chuck Wagon" in Ann Arbor. Preceding under direction of Larry Livingstone, the group spent the evening with the Bucos.

Mrs. Mae Franklin of Rochester, Michigan, has been staying with Mrs. Ernest Durbin of Dakota avenue while Mrs. Durbin's husband has been in the hospital.

The Warren Road Workers 4-H club held their regular meeting at the home of their leaders, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hauk, last Saturday afternoon. After a short business meeting and recreation hour, the group enjoyed working on their individual projects. The girls of the club set attend the "good grooming" show at the Patricia Stevens studio Tuesday evening, February 28.

George Caldwell of East Ann Arbor trail is in Greenway, Arkansas where he will attend the funeral of his brother, Edward, of Dearborn.

Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Freyman and son, Jerry, of 1300 Hartsough street, returned recently from a six week vacation to Old Mexico visiting Mexico City and Acapulco. They also spent some time in San Blas, Oklahoma, Texas and California, Hoover Dam and the Grand Canyon.

Starkweather PTA Plans Hobby Show

The Starkweather Parent Teachers association will sponsor a Hobby show at the school on Tuesday, February 28 at 7 p.m. Parents and children are invited to bring their hobbies during that afternoon. The displays will be set up in each room, where they will be viewed by visitors that evening.

Following the hobby exhibit refreshments will be served in the gym.

There will be no business meeting. The Starkweather band, dinner, the group were guests at ston, will furnish musical entertainment about 8:30.

All residents of the community are invited to attend.

American Legion News

The Post conducted their regular bi-monthly business meeting Wednesday, February 15, at the Veterans Community center. A tion from Robert Fitzner or Norportion of the meeting was devoted to an open forum discussion on Legion.

A carnival site has been procured for the carnival from June 11 through June 15. More details will be forthcoming at a later date.

The auxiliary is holding initiation tonight at 8 p.m. at the Veterans Community center.

Mrs. Melva Gardner, president and Child Welfare chairman, has announced that the auxiliary has pledged to support the education of one Korean orphan in connection with a national project to finance a year's education for at least 1,000 Korean orphans. The project is being carried out through the Korean American foundation, which is able to provide a year's instruction for a Korean orphan at a cost of $5. Auxiliary units throughout the country have been asked to contribute enough for at least one of Korean's 300,000 war orphans before April 1.

A call to action to save the Immigration and Nationality Act (McCarran-Walter Act) has been sounded by the American Legion, according to Mrs. Virginia Fann, Legislative chairman of the Auxiliary.

"Hearing on the Act, held by a Senate committee, were used as a sounding board for attacks on the present system for admitting foreigners to the U. S.," said Mrs. Fann. "Legislation to open the flood gates and admit vast numbers of immigrants, regardless of their desirability or qualifications to become United States citizens, can be expected," she pointed out.

Section 3

GUESTS IN PLYMOUTH for a short while are Heidemarie Gester, 12, (at left) and her nine-year-old brother, Wolf-Dietrich, who recently hailed Quickborn, Germany, as their home. The youngsters are pictured showing two dolls to Barbara Pletcher, also 12, who is the daughter of the local family where the German youths are visiting. The visit came about when the children's parents decided to immigrate from Quickborn (near Homburg) to the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Gester and daughter Hannelore, 3, are living in Trenton awaiting the completion of their new home there. In the meantime, Heidemarie and Wolf-Dietrich are guests of the M. W. Pletcher family, 42513 Five Mile road. The Pletchers, as sight-seers at the Detroit shipping docks in the spring of 1954, chanced to meet Rolf Gester, the father, as he came down the gangplank of his freighting boat, which was moored in Detroit and which he captioned for a German freighting line. From this casual acquaintance a close friendship arose. When the Gesters decided to immigrate to the U. S. the Pletchers aided them and while their new home is being finished, Heidemarie and Wolf-Dietrich visit here.

Retail Merchants Hear Parking Discussion, Plan Events for 1956

Over 40 members of the Plymouth Retail Merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce met at the Mayflower hotel for a dinner meeting last Wednesday and heard a discussion on the city's parking situation.

Frank Lodge, chairman of the Community Redevelopment committee, said that a recent survey showed that there are 944 parking spaces of all kinds downtown and that 400 are used by employees. That leaves 544 for customers. The peak load for parking is between 11 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. and 4 to 6:30 p.m.

The speaker declared that the city should provide several railroad underpass or over pass crossings; that plans should be made to develop a certain number of new parking spaces for each year; to have cooperation of the city commission, city planning commission and merchants; and merchants should be encouraged to attend planning commission meetings.

Speaking during the evening besides Lodge were James Taylor, chairman of the Retail Merchants Committee; Edward Hart, Chamber manager; and Ralph Lorenz. Among the proposed plans for 1956 was compiling of a mass mailing list made up from individual mailing lists of all stores. Other promotions being planned are:

1. Promote Kellogg Park as a civic center of attraction by having such events as a pop concert, Christmas affairs and perhaps a miniature train for youngsters.
2. A sweet corn festival in late summer.
3. Resumption of the "Buy in Plymouth" campaign at Christmas with a trip to Bermuda.
4. Special matinees for children at the theatre at a low price.
5. Perhaps eliminate parking fees on Friday nights.
6. Continuation of the July 4th celebration.
7. Possible "Shopternity Days" promotion.

FIRST PUBLIC SHOWING - AT THE DETROIT AUTO SHOW

PREVIEW OF TOMORROW!

It's a major milestone in the "tomorrow" class of cars—Mercury's future-styled XM-Turnpike Cruiser. Here is creative imagination and engineering know-how translated into a fully operating, full-scale experimental model abounding in brilliant new concepts of style, comfort, safety and power. Here are styling and engineering advances that will influence future Mercurys, just as features of the 1956 Mercurys evolved from yesterday's dream cars. See news in the making when you visit Mercury's display at the Auto Show.

STYLE LEADER OF TODAY!

It's a great new advance in 4-door hardtops! Ground-hugging lowness and thrilling, distinctive styling mark this magnificent new car as a Mercury Montclair Phaeton wherever you see it. More than just a hardtop, the BIG M Phaeton is designed for maximum visibility for every passenger, easy entrance and exit, new exhilarating "open-air" sensation. See this sleek beauty today at the Auto Show. See the BIG M Phaeton soon in your Mercury dealer's showroom, and experience the thrill of driving it.

Wood Burning Days Kept Local Ashery in Business

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the last in a series of articles about early Plymouth industry written by a member of the Plymouth Historical society. Previous articles have told about the sawmills, carding mill, flour mills, coopershop and sorghum mill.)

THE ASHERY
Firewood was, of course, the only fuel available for heating and cooking in our pioneer industrial Plymouth. In fact, firewood by the thousands of cords was hand-cut nearby and hauled to the village of Detroit. In four foot lengths, it even made steam for the locomotives when the railroads finally reached this outlying section.

HEALTH & BEAUTY

It is a wise woman who keeps her beauty paraphernalia under cover. Beauty routines which bring such lovely results are a woman's personal business and can prove quite a shock to husband and family.

No one can believe that pin curls and cold cream promote admiration or romance. It is easy to see that a woman who is willing to look her worst during the time she spends with her husband and family is going to lose something very important.

You can get a permanent instead of having to roll your hair up each night, or if you have short hair which has some natural curl and needs only a little help, you can roll it up during the day when your family is away. If you are a career woman, you can at least wrap a becoming and attractive scarf about your head, over the pin curls.

If you are a career woman, you can let cold cream soak in during your bath and use one of the oils which almost disappears at night if a very dry skin needs this.

Try to take care of your hands and nails sometime during the day when no one is around. Watch your diet but keep it to yourself. Nothing has less interest for other people than your weight-watching.

It would be a fine thing if every woman took some form of regular exercise each day. This should be taken to correct whatever type of figure problem you may have. However, don't talk about this, either. Your family will not be interested unless there is some member who needs the same type of exercise and then it is fun to take the exercises together.

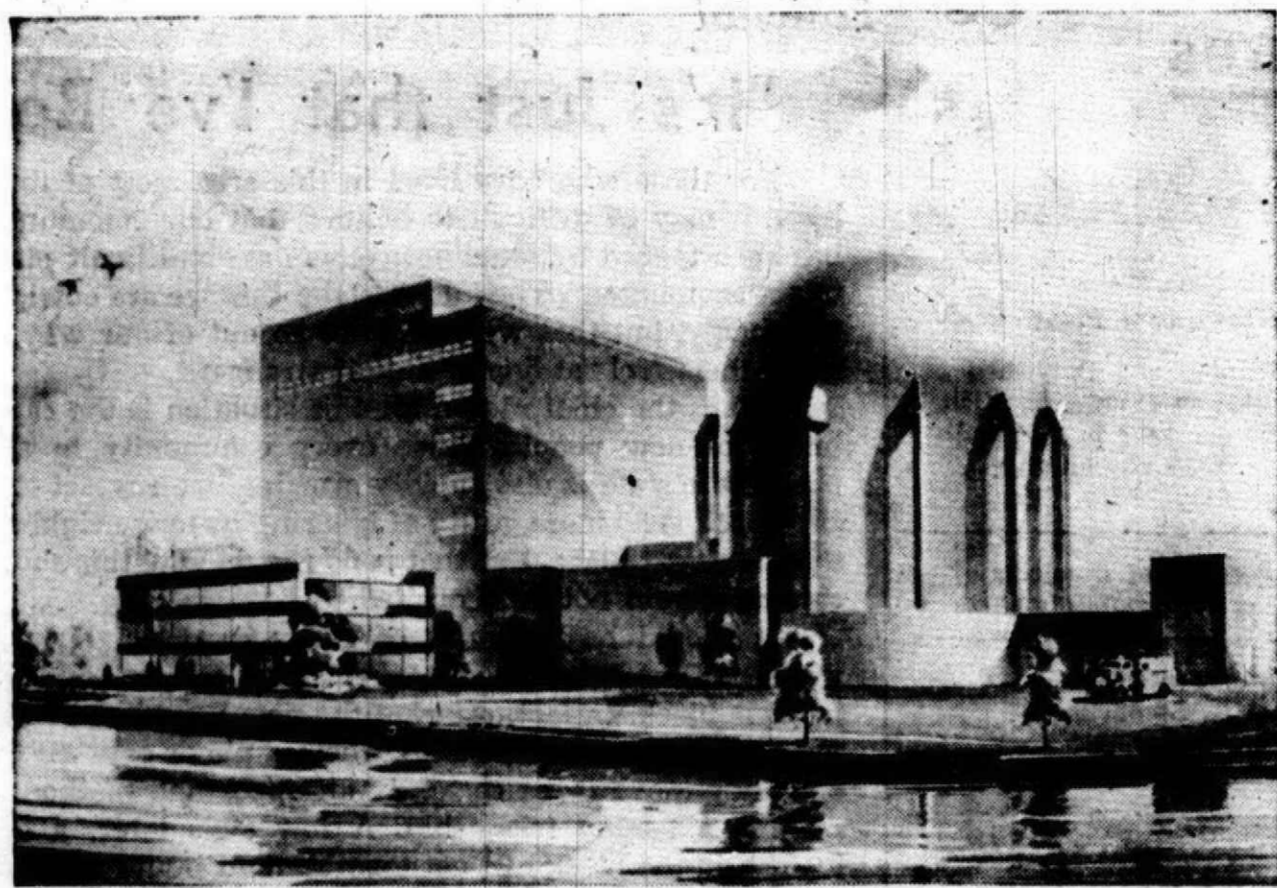

It was called "the ashery." Your historian prefers the more industrial sounding term, "the potash works." This enterprise was housed in a malodorous, unpainted building which stood on the south side of Plymouth road about half way between Mill street and the bridge, then known as "the red bridge." The bridge spanned the trail of the saw mill near the foot of the hill.

This is where the burning of wood for fuel comes into the picture. The ashes from the many wood fires were carefully saved and periodically picked up by wagon, placed in large hopper-shaped tanks and water poured over them. The resulting "leach" was lye which cooked or boiled down to the required consistency and became caustic potash. Or as our chemists would write it—potassium carbonate when crystallized.

Your historian has no authority for the statement but suspects that the product of this enterprise, much of it at least, was hauled by team in barrels to Detroit where it found a ready market as an ingredient of soap. It may be possible that some of it found its ultimate use in the making of Queen Ann soap, a popular soap of the times.

Queen Ann soap was guaranteed to remove the soil from the dirtiest garments. Nothing was said about this but it was not "kind to the skin" and no guarantee went with it against "dishpan hands." The stoutest blue denim with repeated washing in its suds would fade to the beautiful hue now much preferred by our teenagers. In one respect it was very modern. Coupons cut from the wrappers were redeemable for prizes.

The Plymouth ashery has long since folded from lack of raw material but it thrived for many years as a project of the Pfeiffer golden brown. Serve hot with still live among us and no doubt could tell us much more about this early industry.

AN ATOMIC-ELECTRIC power plant like this will be built by the Power Reactor Development company on the Lake Erie shore north of Monroe, Michigan. Companies in the development group are Detroit Edison, Consumers Power, Chrysler, Burroughs, Fruehauf Trailer and Holley Carburetor. Twenty companies outside Michigan also have indicated their participation in the project.

Attend Conference

Six hundred people, including Plymouth's superintendent of schools and several board of education members, attended a Citizens' Conference last week in Lansing.

Purpose of the meeting was to discuss school problems and establish periodic discussions in various regions of the state. The groups would be similar to the White House conferences held last year.

Governor G. Mennen Williams addressed the conference and told of various legislative proposals to aid school districts with their problems.

Chips from the ROCK

This is one of the final two columns written by Publisher Sterling Eaton during his vacation with Mrs. Eaton throughout the Western states. Another "Chips" vacation column appears elsewhere in this edition.

After an interesting California holiday, if you drive home the southern route, you pass through Arizona, and not far from Phoenix you bump right into Mesa and its adopted Chamber of Commerce secretary, Robert Jolliffe. In fact, in or near Mesa are three former Plymouthites, and all the greatest boosters for the state of Arizona you've ever heard; Bob, prosperous realtor Clarence Lidgard, and busy General Motors' executive William Arscott.

We found Mr. Jolliffe in front of his cozy apartment at Kiva Lodge seated on the edge of the inviting swimming pool with the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Weisser, who told us Bob knew all of the pools bathing beauties and had promised to teach them a little of the Hula he learned in Hawaii last year. We further learned that Bob is an adopted member of all of the Kiwanis clubs in the area, and in the three years he has been in Mesa had only missed one meeting, and that was the evening after he had worked in a Kiwanis downtown pan-cake booth all one day during a special fund raising drive they put on. When he went home for supper he was so tired from his efforts he forgot all about the fact that this was the club's regular meeting night.

As gracious in Arizona as they are at home, the Jolliffes took us on an extended tour, then Mrs. Jolliffe in their cozy apartment treated us to a real home cooked dinner of rich chicken soup, chicken, fruit salad, and homemade angel food cake topped with ice cream. No wonder Plymouth boasts so many good cooks; all former members of her classes when she was domestic science teacher back in the good old days at Plymouth high school.

The town of Mesa was founded by the Mormons. Bob told us, and all the main streets are wide enough to turn a span of 12 oxen, he said. The area produces great quantities of fruit, cotton, and garden vegetables (big bunches of fresh picked radishes 5 cents), in addition to almost everything else. The mammoth flower gardens provide car load after car load of flowers for eastern florists each day and they are a beautiful sight to see.

Bill Arscott was home for lunch where he was batching it while his wife Elsie was back in Michigan to see daughter Diane's new baby. Bill said he thought General Motors had perhaps made a job for him out here to help cure the arthritis, but now he knew they hadn't because he was not only running the business end of G.M.'s business here, but had two giant construction projects under his direction as well. He further stated he never had more work to do but that he never felt better in his life.

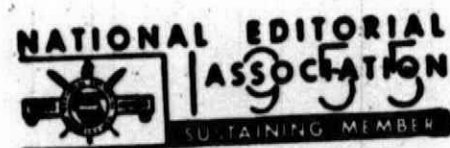

They have a beautiful home in a lovely section of Mesa, and here again Mrs. Arscott is transforming the grounds into another beautiful garden like the one she had back in Plymouth. Only difference, however, is the fact that she is an active member of the Desert Botanical Club and the Desert Garden Club and her gardens have a collection far different from the beautiful flowers she had back home.

Here a former meat dealer is transformed into a thriving real estate dealer and a second to Bob Jolliffe in the Chamber of Commerce promotion of Arizona. "Arizona has been kind to both Mrs. Lidgard and myself and it certainly is tailored to suit our health," Clarence Lidgard said. Located in Tempe, Arizona, he is but a stone's throw from Mesa on the east and Phoenix on the west. Clarence is known throughout the area for his participation in the regular beef barbecues staged by the Junior Chamber of Commerce

The right of the people to know is basic to the preservation of our freedom, and fundamental to our American way of life. The infringement of this right, whether by government or by groups, or by individuals, no matter in what small measure it may begin, will lead to tyranny and the death of liberty.

here in Tempe, because it is under his deft arm that hundreds and hundreds of pounds of beef are cut to feed the hungry people who attend these events. And, speaking of beef, this area is the home of Toveca's, world's largest beef pen feeding operation. The pen, or custom feeding operation, has 396 pens with eight miles of feed troughs which cover 175 acres and accommodate 35,000 cattle at one time. Nearly 300,000 cattle are handled here annually and in a year they consume 27,000 tons of hay, 26,000 tons of grain, 6,000 tons of molasses, 15,000 tons of cotton seed hulls, and 8,000 tons of cotton seed meal. It is superfluous to mention the fact that prime rib of beef and steaks are the features of all good restaurants in the area, and it's mighty reasonable, too, along with being especially delicious.

P.S. If you plan to visit this area you can usually find Bill Arscott or Clarence Lidgard, but in any afternoon you'll have to wait till any one of the four major league ball parks empty out in order to find Bob... They say he is slightly more regular in the parks than some of the players.

Visiting Mesa in the near future, or already there, are perhaps three more Plymouth couples, the Maxwell Moons, the John McLarens, and the Evered Jolliffes.

Education Needs Reach Higher Level

The state's battle to provide education for its youth is changing arenas. Soon after World War II, grade school districts faced tremendously increased enrollments, causing sizable problems. Now, some ten years later, educators and interested lay people are bracing to deal with the student increase at college levels. They do this in the knowledge that preparation must be made now if today's youngster is to have a fair chance for a college education.

For years Wayne was operated by the Detroit Board of Education. It has grown rapidly until it now offers courses to more than 30,000 people, 18,000 of them full time, degree-seeking students. According to Wayne figures, we can expect this total to increase to more than 24,000 by 1960.

There is little argument to the issue that Wayne and the people of Detroit deserve this change. A study commission headed by Dr. Alexander Ruthven, president emeritus of University of Michigan, has recommended such a step. The Ruthven commission would set up a three year transitional period when the state could integrate the Wayne budget and administrative organization into its own.

There is little opposition to the idea in general. The Michigan Council of State College Presidents, (which includes both MSU and U-M) has expressed itself in favor of the move. Democrats and Republicans; the governor and the legislature are in general agreement.

The problem seems to be when and how, rather than if.

Wayne officials point out that this move, while it will lift a terrific financial burden from the Detroit school system to place it where it properly belongs, will also provide Michigan with a $40,000,000 educational plant, fully paid for and in sound operating condition. This will reduce future expenditures to be made at other institutions.

Wayne people are most anxious to be considered by "outstate" people as a university anxious to educate their youth.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

This week we called on second grade pupils at Starkweather school and asked them the question, "Who is your favorite hero and why?"

CHRIS PEKARET, 485 Parkview: "Lincoln is my favorite because he un-slaved all the colored people. He was a good man. He walked 10 miles to return a book cause if he didn't he would have had to pay a fine."

JUDY VANDERVOORT, 320 Parkview: "Santa Claus is because he comes on the night Jesus was born. I like him too because he is good to boys and girls. He is always good to me."

KAY LOET, 280 West Liberty: "I think George Washington was cause he told the truth when he chopped down the cherry tree. He was the leader of the first United States war and he did a good job. If you tell the truth you don't get a spanking. When I do something bad I always go to my mother and tell her what happened - then I don't lose my supper."

JACK ROBERTSON, 659 North Holbrook: "Abraham Lincoln was because in the first world war he was a good leader. He was nice to his wife and always told the truth. And he was kind too."

Editorial

"It's Just that I've Been So Busy" . . . etc., etc.

For those who have lived in this area most of their lives, it may be difficult to believe that our community has been tagged by some newcomers as "a difficult place to get acquainted". They don't claim that we are outright unfriendly, but that we just don't go out of our way to make them feel "at home" among strangers.

Perhaps the chief reason for this situation is the rapid influx of new people. Since every community in this part of the state is also rapidly growing, we suspect that Plymouth is no more guilty of ignoring its new neighbors than the next place. But that is no reason why this shortcoming should not be remedied.

It should be the duty of every good neighbor to waste no time in introducing themselves to new residents in their block. In fact, offering the new neighbor a helping hand with work or baking them a pie or cake on the day they move in, is certainly an opportune method of making a lasting friendship. A few days later, a few women in the block can get together and invite the wife into their homes for a morning coffee break.

One new subdivision in Plymouth licked the problem quickly by forming an association which meets once a month. New neighbors are invited to the next meeting and if they come, they have broken the ice for dozens of new friendships.

Just to throw in a few ideas, it might be possible for some organization to sponsor periodic gatherings just for newcomers. Midland, Michigan, where Dow Chemical company personnel come and go by the hundreds each month, has get-togethers for new residents every few weeks. Some are for just the wives and others are for husbands and wives. A service club or businessmen through the Chamber of Commerce might find this a worthy project.

Although few of us can plead innocent to sometimes ignoring new neighbors, some of the burden rests with new residents too. They will find that most churches now have activities in which newcomers can rapidly become acquainted with others. There are also groups such as the P.T.A., veterans organizations and other social and professional clubs which are roads to friendships.

Another place for getting acquainted is through the Adult Education and Recreation department's program. Those participating in activities such as dancing, acting, rug weaving, painting or playing in the symphony have made friends by finding a common interest.

There is a tendency for most people to be shy in meeting new people. We are shy in greeting new neighbors; they are shy in approaching us first. Anyone who has ever suffered a moment of loneliness in this big and often-drab world, knows the value of friends. Somebody else widened their circle of friends to make us feel welcome in the community—let's do the same for that new family up the street.

For Best Results Sell Stocks Little by Little

Babson Park, Mass. As I travel about, there are three questions which I am most commonly asked. Let me discuss them this week.

QUESTION NO. 1—ON STOCKS IN GENERAL

Would this be a good time for a small investor to sell all his securities, even though the market may go a bit higher, and wait for the anticipated bargain levels?

This question implies the natural desire in all of us to want to get out of the market at the top, before a downturn occurs. Scarcely a day goes by, when the market looks relatively high, that most of us do not feel like selling all of our securities. Then the next day we hesitate to sell any in the hope they will go a little higher. There is a distinct danger in selling out all of one's holdings and then later becoming discouraged about the decision if the stocks rise to still higher levels. If this happens, one can create the double error of selling too soon and then buying back too high.

The best way, I believe, to avoid being "whipsawed" is not to depend upon a policy of selling all of one's stocks at any particular time, but rather to sell a few stocks from time to time as they advance and as very substantial profits have been made in them. Anyone who carries into a market slump stocks amounting to only 25%-35% of his investment funds certainly has no real worries.

The investor who is dependent upon income and who is not price-conscious might carry a larger amount of sound dividend-paying stock issues into a market slump. I suggest, therefore, that rather than selling out all of your stock-holdings and then sitting back and waiting for bargain levels, it would be better for you to keep a few stocks, but at the same time hold a backlog of reserves that would be available for the repurchase of stocks later on.

QUESTION NO. 2—ON UTILITY STOCKS

Do you think utilities would suffer with another Democratic congress?

Many investors associate a Democratic Congress with the unscrabbling of various utility holding companies prior to World War II, which adversely affected their stocks. Also the Democrats have led the movement toward public ownership of various hydro - electric developments. Now, however, that the utility industry is organized and capitalized on a straightforward basis, and since new hydro-electric developments may be limited in scope, I believe the utility stocks present perhaps the best combination of security and yield.

Because the utilities have had to raise tremendous amounts of new capital during the last 10 years, it has been necessary for the various state regulatory commissions to take a somewhat more generous attitude in the establishment of rates in order to permit a fair return on the invested capital. In view of the fact that still further expansion is anticipated in the industry, we should expect a continuation of this favorable rate policy to make it possible for the utilities to raise money through the sale of stocks. (This should assure a continuation of present dividends, but does not give the holder of utility stocks much opportunity for appreciation.)

QUESTION NO. 3—ON INFLATION

Would you expect greater inflation under a Democratic congress? Also, greater foreign aid?

I assume that the idea of inflation which prompts this question refers to a rising real estate and commodity price level and a rising cost of living. Actually, the great inflation of the last 15 years has arisen because of the monetary inflation of World War II and because of the subsequent debt expansion of all kinds and the heavier borrowings by the general public to buy on installment. After prices have become fully adjusted to the present inflated monetary base, I doubt

Favorite Recipes From Plymouth's Kitchens

Serve Guests This Favorite Casserole Dish

Recipe this week comes from Mrs. Sam Hudson of 44951 North Territorial road who rates Wild Rice Casserole as one of the most popular dishes around her household. Especially good with it is layered apricot salad, recipe for which you'll find below together with that for the main dish.

Wild Rice Casserole

- 1 lb. mushrooms
- 1 small onion
- 1/2 lb. each, cubed pork, veal and beef
- 4 tablespoons soy sauce
- 4 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/2 cup each, uncooked wild and white rice
- 2 cups sliced celery
- 1 can mushroom soup
- 1/2 cup water

Saute meat and onion in butter until well browned. Add browned mushrooms. Turn into large casserole. Wash rice well and add to meat mixture, add soy sauce, celery, mushroom soup and water. Mix well. Cover and bake in medium oven (350 degrees) for two hours. Oven 8.

Mrs. Hudson adds that substitutions may be made, such as black olives for mushrooms, canned luncheon meat for pork, brown instead of wild rice, cream of chicken for mushroom soup and venison in place of veal.

Layered Apricot Salad

- 2 cups dried apricots
- 2 cups water
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 small can crushed pineapple hot water
- 1 package orange gelatin
- 1 package cream cheese (3 oz.)
- 1/4 cup chopped nuts

Cover apricots with water, bring to a boil and simmer for 20 minutes. Drain and force through a fine sieve. Combine apricot pulp with sugar and stir until dissolved. Drain juice from pineapple and combine with apricot pulp. Pour over gelatin and stir until dissolved. Combine apricot and gelatin. Turn into 8" square pan. Chill until firm.

Soften cream cheese, mix with well-drained pineapple. Spread on firm gelatin, sprinkle with chopped nuts. Serve on crisp greens.

Madonna Herald Picks Detroit Trio for Staff

Three Detroit girls have been chosen to be on the staff of the Madonna College campus newspaper, the Madonna Herald. Joan Pustelniak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Pustelniak of 5850 Larkins, is the director of the new bureau. A sophomore at Madonna, majoring in mathematics, Joan is secretary of her class.

The position of editor of page 2 will be taken by Carol Butcher, freshman majoring in sociology. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Butcher, of 6780 Ashton.

New addition to the staff this semester, Dolores Kopaczewski, will serve as assistant on page 2. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Kopaczewski of 11391 Roxbury, Dolores is a freshman majoring in sociology.

The Reverend David Rieder of the First Baptist Church is confined to St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, where he is undergoing extensive tests and treatment. He is in room 4020.

Preparations For Poppy Day In Full Swing

Making memorial poppies to be worn in memory of America's war dead on Poppy Day in May is now in full swing in veterans hospitals and convalescent workrooms throughout the country. Mrs. Dorothy Knapp, Poppy chairman of Passage-Gayde unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, has announced.

The work is giving employment to thousands of disabled veterans, providing beneficial occupational therapy and the encouragement of being able to earn money once more. Mrs. Knapp said. It is being directed by the state organizations of the American Legion Auxiliary, which provide the materials and pay the veterans for the poppies they make.

The poppies which will be worn here on Poppy Day are being made at Dearborn and Battle Creek, under the supervision of the Michigan department of the Auxiliary. The local Auxiliary Unit already has placed its order for its supply of 1956 poppies.

"The memorial flowers are made of crepe paper with wire stems and are replicas of the European poppy which grew in such profusion on the battle fields and war cemeteries in France and Belgium," Mrs. Knapp explained. "Besides paying tribute to the war dead and giving the disabled beneficial employment, the poppy sale provides funds for the Auxiliary's extensive rehabilitation and child welfare work. Contributions made last Poppy Day are financing work for disabled veterans and needy children of veterans here in Plymouth this winter," she concluded.

MOMS News

The local unit, MOMS of America, Inc. will have a potluck supper on Monday, February 27, at 6:30 in the Veterans Memorial center.

On February 29, MOMS will serve hot chocolate and cookies to patients in the TB ward at the Veterans hospital in Ann Arbor. A similar trip was made on February 1 by two of the members.

Eight members from the local unit visited the Ann Arbor Veterans hospital on February 2 where they entertained 99 veterans with games and refreshments.

Younger, Easier Silhouette Highlights Spring Suit Fashions

The countless women who don't do a thing about spring till they've seen the new suit collections, will be especially delighted with the new styles on view at local stores. The French-influenced trend toward a natural, more feminine silhouette is immediately evident in neater, narrower shoulders in jackets that travel under softly curved collars, notably relaxed through the waist sometimes lightly bloused in back and occasionally plumb-line straight.

Lean lines still dominate the skirt scene, but also significant are wide school-girl pleats that start where the jacket stops. Important new fashion focal point: the shorter 7/8 sleeve, cropped inches above the wristbone. Perhaps the most striking feature of this natural new look in suits is that they're marvelously easy to wear and adapt beautifully to "around-the-clock" schedules. There is, for instance, a fitted flannel costume suit, a scooped-neck sheath, enclosed by day in a pilgrim-collared bolero.

Fabrics and colors, too, conform to the trend. Culled from European and American mills, flannel and tweeds, striellas and mohairs, wadded checks and gabardines are smoothed, lightened in texture and appear in a spectrum of spring pastels, and as always, an abundance of navies, blacks and the newer, paled grays.

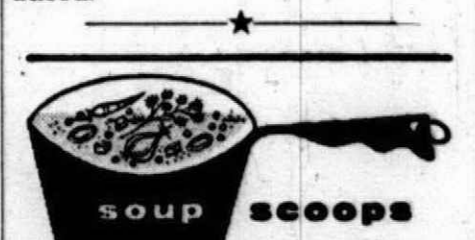

A more diversified selection of styles is offered this spring, from the strictest Derby collared classic, to the no-collared cardigan and the gentled, jewel-lit dress-maker.

In lightweight suits, the new fabrics are miracles of coolness, and non-wrinkling shapeliness. Textures resemble white-frosted shantung, knit-surfaced boucle, tweeds. There's a "linen look," achieved by a unique combination of triacetate fibers and rayon plus a silk and rayon mixture that doubles easily for fine Italian silk. Here, too, the same wide range of styles and colors is offered, from ensembled costume suits to soft dressmakers chalked with pique underlays.

For freshness in styling, perfection in tailoring you can't beat the suits available for Spring '56!

Production of "prepared" frozen foods increased 87 per cent from 1954 to 1955, according to U. S. Department of Agriculture figures. These foods include those which have received one or more preparatory operations usually done in the home, such as cooking, partial cooking or blending. Frozen potato products constitute the largest single category in terms of pounds produced.

PIZZA! Say the word and appetites soar. Here's a recipe for baby pizzas easy enough for junior cooks to prepare. Grand for refreshments when the gang gathers at your house. So "special" the crowd will clamor for more.

What's the secret? English muffins and spaghetti sauce with meat! Pair them in pizzas, and you'll be the most popular hostess in town.

Party Pizzas
4 English muffins
1 can (1 1/4 cups) spaghetti sauce with meat
Oregano, if desired
4 ounces sharp process cheese
Split muffins in thirds and toast to form base for pizza. Spread each with sauce; sprinkle with oregano. Cut cheese into thin 1-inch squares; place on top of sauce. Toast pizzas under broiler until cheese is melted and lightly browned. Makes 12 small pizzas.

For Leap Year—Party Cake And Coffee

THIS gaily decorated Leap Year Cake and cups of well-brewed coffee are the makings of a delightful February party. Pink-frosted angel food cake and plenty of robust coffee should smooth any path to matrimony.

Here's Top-Notch Idea For Leap Year Party

Probably few of our alert feminine readers need to be reminded that this is Leap Year. The question is—what to do about it?

Our suggestion is a Leap Year party, given, perhaps on February's extra day. After all, the traditional way to a man's heart is through his stomach, and few men will be able to resist this delectable Leap Year Cake. It's a cloud light angel food cake, made from a mix of your own favorite angel cake recipe, topped with pale pink frosting.

As a gay and appropriate touch bake "favors" in it: tiny rings, a little heart, a miniature thimble. Small scrolls tied with blue ribbon, on which are written amusing messages, surround the cake and on its top a somewhat reluctant groom is chased by a trio of brides offering rings. (The "favors" and these figures may be purchased at almost any novelty shop.) Your party will be lots of fun... and the jokes may well wind up in some serious matchmaking.

While you're putting your Leap Year cards on the table, don't forget to serve coffee. If there's anything more pleasing to the masculine palate than a cup of robust, really well-made coffee, we haven't heard about it. A delicious Leap Year Cake, plus plenty of aromatic, freshly brewed coffee may just turn the marital trick. Ladies, we wish you luck!

is cold, frost with pink-tinted icing. On top arrange figurines representing a "groom" fleeing before three determined brides, each brandishing a wedding ring.

SEVEN-MINUTE FROSTING
2 egg whites
1 1/2 cups sugar
5 tablespoons cold water
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
1 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 teaspoon salt

Put egg whites, sugar, water and cream of tartar in upper part of double boiler. Cook over rapidly boiling water, beating constantly with rotary beater, seven minutes or until frosting will hold its shape. Remove from heat, add vanilla and salt. Add a few drops of red food coloring to tint frosting pink.

Timely Tips

A slice of fresh bread fastened with toothpicks will help keep a cut cake from getting stale.

Golden Cornsticks Tops with Vegetables

Hot breads add pleasure to any meal. Certain breads just seem to belong with certain foods. Give your vegetable dishes the perfect companion by serving piping hot, golden cornsticks with them.

(18 Cornsticks)
2 cups yellow corn meal
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
1 egg, beaten
2 cups buttermilk or sour milk
6 tablespoons margarine
Start oven and set at moderately hot (400° F.). Put heavy iron or aluminum cornstick pans into oven to heat while batter is being mixed.

Stir together corn meal, salt, and soda. To beaten egg, add buttermilk and 4 tablespoons melted margarine. Add to corn meal mixture. Mix well. Remove piping-hot pans from oven. Use remaining margarine to grease hot pan. Pour batter at once into pans and bake 22 to 25 minutes, or until golden brown. Serve hot with margarine.

Do's, Don'ts On Teaching Baby to Eat

It seems the easiest thing in the world to feed a baby. Then you start to do it and that is the end of that idea. You never know whether the baby is taking the food too fast or if he is getting enough.

Most adults don't realize that one must learn to swallow solid foods. It is not as simple and natural as breathing. A new baby must learn new uses of his tongue and throat muscles when he first begins to eat finely-strained baby foods.

Patience is the key to dealing with children and babies. This is doubly true during the first weeks of learning. Some babies learn faster than others. You must help the baby learn to eat without forcing him.

It is best to introduce new foods one at a time and in very small amounts. A new flavor or a new texture most often meets with resistance on the part of the baby. Don't worry, however, he will become used to new things and will accept them. It is usually a slow process.

Never try to force new foods on him—simply introduce it again the next day. Another good suggestion is to offer new foods at the beginning of the meal, when baby is hungry, rather than when his appetite is satisfied.

Be very careful when feeding a baby. Their mouths are tender and easily bruised. When the baby is a little older, his gums may irritate him and here again patience in abundance is important. Be careful during feeding that you do not strike a tender spot where a new tooth is about to come through.

We wonder if the government kept a list of the black market operators during the past war.

WANTED! Laundress for 44¢ a week

Even in the "good old days" you couldn't find a laundress for such a small sum. But today, 44¢ buys enough electricity to wash and dry the week's laundry for the average family. With an electric clothes dryer (to match your electric washer) you do your laundry the modern way—the easy way. Follow the modern trend toward all electric living. See the new electric clothes dryers at your appliance dealer's or Detroit Edison.

MICHIGAN BELL

TELEPHONE lines

ADDITIONAL TELEPHONES make life easier for the entire family. Telephones in the kitchen, the playroom, the bedroom—wherever they are needed—save time and steps. These additional telephones are especially important if you have a baby or two in the house. With a telephone at your finger tips, you don't have to leave your tots even for a minute when the phone rings. (And a minute is all they need for harm or mischief!) Why not ask about those additional phones today? They only cost a few pennies a day.

THERE SEEMS TO BE no end to the value of the telephone! New uses for it are turning up almost every day. For instance, a supermarket recently requested Michigan Bell to install telephone outlets at the end of the shelves, with lines running to the stock room. As soon as the merchandise runs low, the shelves can be immediately replenished. So the chances are when you walk into this store, you'll find just what you're looking for, right where it belongs. The telephone does serve in so many ways, doesn't it?

DO YOU SAVE pieces of string? The telephone company is like that... only more so. Odds and ends of wire and worn parts are carefully collected because they have real value. Tons of this scrap are shipped each year to Western Electric, supply unit of the Bell System. There they are fed into giant furnaces, melted and remade into wire and brand-new parts. This thrifty economy is important to all of us because it helps keep the cost of telephone service down.

Seven Plymouth Businesses Undertake Winter Remodeling, Face-Lifting or Building Projects

Winter is apparently the season to be remodeling local stores as indicated by the busy face-lifting activities at several Plymouth firms. Among those businesses whose looks are being enhanced are: D. Galin & Son Appliances; Bob's Handy Hardware; Jerry's Shoe Repair and Hobby Shop; the two Beyer Rexall Drug stores; Arbor-Lill; and M. Powell & Son Stroh's Distributor.

At Galin's, 849 Penniman, Owner Dave Galin explained that he is undertaking a store-wide remodeling and refinishing project which should be completed this week. It includes adding an appliance department downstairs and converting the street level into two portions, one for furniture and television and the other for small appliances.

The basement is being made into showrooms with the entire interior being finished. There will be a new office for Owner Galin and a new loading entrance for easier unloading of goods. Although the outside will not be touched, Galin explained that the interior will be quite different with exciting and new color patterns. In addition to the furniture, which is a new line, the store will also handle a full and complete line of carpeting. The project was begun in early January.

Owner Robert Schultz of Bob's Handy Hardware, 816 Penniman, is also undertaking a remodeling job of his store's interior to make further room and add convenience for customers. Schultz is revamping the front of his store by taking out the old show window ledge and replacing it with a tiled floor. He also is removing the old island counters and in their place employing boxed peg board display cases on the walls.

This project, begun early this month, should be finished by March 1, explained Schultz.

Jerry's Shoe Repair and Hobby Shop, 264 South Main, is further evidence of the remodeling that is being undertaken at Plymouth stores. Owner Jerry Van Tassel is refinishing his shop's interior and plans to expand the hobby portion of the business. He will add boy and girl scout hobby projects to the already large hobby line which he handles. Also the walls of the store's interior will be refinished in knotty pine.

A bigger hobby display window will be included in the remodeling project and new linoleum will be laid around the Chinese Green will be the color scheme, which will overlap into the wallpaper and painting. The machines will be painted green. Also. The project should be finished soon.

At the two Beyer Rexall Drug stores, one at 165 Liberty and the other at 505 Forest, Owner Robert O. Beyer is enhancing the interiors of each. At the Liberty street location, the interior is being completely remodelled to include self-service for customer convenience in everything except the prescription department and certain cosmetic items. Among the new features of the store is ceiling length lighting. Owner Beyer relocated the prescription counter and had in-laid tile installed on portions of the floor. New wall cases and island counters are among the convenient self-service features.

This self-serve arrangement will also soon be utilized by Owner Beyer at his Forest street store. He will discard 13 out-moded semi-self service counters to replace them with one full wall-length arrangement of the self-serve style. This project should be finished within a week. At Arbor-Lill, 42390 Ann Arbor road, Owner Norbert Lofy recently has added to his dining facilities a new party room; named the "Starlight Room," which will accommodate approximately 35 persons. Furthermore, Owner Lofy has beautified the main dining room with the addition of an attractive new fireplace. A new brick front for the establishment, a new entrance vestibule and a new bake shop in the kitchen complete this remodeling project, which was finished last month.

M. Powell and Son Stroh's distributor, 110 East Ann Arbor road, is another scene of a huge remodeling project, according to Mrs. Russell Powell, manager. A 50' by 100' addition has been made on the original building in a job that was started in August and is expected to be finished by spring, explained Mrs. Powell. The project consists of new warehouse space, office and conference room, a main entrance lobby and further storage space.

The office, conference room and lobby are to be finished in knotty pine paneling with tiled floors. These will all be attractively furnished and modern fluorescent lighting fixtures will be added. Also a new face brick front has been added with a new marquee.

Space Reservations Now Being Accepted For 1956 Detroit Builders Show Exhibits

Space reservations now are being accepted for the 1956 Builders Show, billed as the oldest, best and biggest in the nation.

Choice exhibit space in the four buildings in the State Fairgrounds occupied by the Builders Show is fast being reserved, according to Kathryn Prost, show manager. The annual exposition, sponsored by the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit, is scheduled for April 7 through 15 at the State Fairgrounds.

New features of the show this year, Mrs. Prost announced, include a series of rooms, representing a complete home, designed and decorated by the national magazine Living for Young Home Makers; finals of the Michigan Association of Home Builders contest for elementary schools of making scale model homes; live exhibit by the apprentice training department of the Building Trades Council, AFL-CIO; pictorial Avenue of Modern Homes exhibit of the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit, and Hall of Fame of the Michigan Consolidated Gas Co.

Climax of the week-long Biltmore again will be the awarding to a lucky citizen of the 1956 Builders Show Idea Home, a recently completed structure representing the utmost in comfort, livability and beauty which can be built in today's homes. The contemporary home, which will be open to the public Feb. 4, was designed by George B. Zonars, Cranbrook Academy, who won the design competition sponsored by the Builders Association among Detroit area architectural students. It was built by Edward Rose & Sons, with architectural supervision by Palmquist & Wright.

On display at the Idea Home and the Builders Show will be a plastic replica of the Idea Home. Visitors to the home and the show will have an opportunity to estimate the number of nails in the replica. The closest guess will win the home.

Modern Bathrooms Point - Up the New 'Easy Look' Too

Today's bathroom, with its many colored fixtures symbolizes the trend to comfortable, gracious living.

The bathroom is no longer the forgotten room it used to be when insufficient space and inadequate fixtures were common handicaps. Small, cramped bathrooms usually could accommodate only one person at a time while the rest of the family waited their turn in line. Then, too, the fixtures as well as the bathroom were monotonously white.

The modern bath provides a sharp contrast to its older counterpart. Twin fixtures, separate compartments, regular and junior-sized equipment plus good lighting and ventilation have brought imagination and color into bathroom planning.

The new commercial standard for hardwood veneered hollow-core flush doors, recently announced by the U.S. Department of Commerce, points out that custom-made doors will continue to be available for all types of architectural designing.

BUILDING AND REMODELING - NEWS - FOR EVERY HOME

M. POWELL AND SON Stroh's distributor, 110 East Ann Arbor road, is the scene of a major remodeling and building project which will considerably enlarge the original building. A 50' by 100' addition, facing Ann Arbor road, includes these new features: attractive face brick front, marquee, main entrance lobby, offices and a conference room. The project should be completed by spring, according to Mrs. Russell Powell, manager.

Handy Jim's EXIN-UP TIPS For the Home

Paneling for New Walls

Useful for new rooms in the home, such as attic or basement conversions, porch enclosures, and additions, is a recently introduced rigid, hollow-core paneling with decorative baked plastic finish. It is called Marlite Koroelock.

Combining two sheets of Masonite tempered hardboard and an interlocking wood core, this paneling makes a substantial wall or ceiling that saves work in installation. It may be applied directly over framing or over furring, without use of backup materials, splines, clips, mastic or bracing.

The decoration of the surface sheet in plain color or wood grain avoids any need for painting or finishing. And the protective baked plastic finish, which resists soil, moisture and wear, prolongs the paneling's beauty indefinitely, making frequent redecorating unnecessary. The surface comes clean with damp-wiping.

Tongued and grooved at sides and ends, Koroelock paneling is quickly applied. Pre-drilled holes in the tongues speed the driving of screw-type nails. The joint design provides a "floating action" that permits adjustment to humidity changes.

Unusual speed of application and lack of need for accessory materials make the installed cost of Koroelock favorable to that of other materials combined for like thickness, according to the manufacturer. The paneling is made in two sizes, 2' x 4' and 2' x 8', with nominal thickness of 3/4".

You can save yourself time and money by telling the plumber exactly what is wrong when you telephone him. The plumber can then arrive prepared with the proper parts and tools to make repairs.

If there is a plumbing leak, tell him whether it's in the bathroom, kitchen or laundry room. And explain what fixture is leaking. Also, tell him what has been done to the leaky equipment when he arrives at your home.

Aluminum Trim Strips Repair Sagging Playpen

When the joints of a playpen begin to work loose from Junior's playful jumping, the center is the playpen as shown. Aluminum trim strips can also be used to brace sagging screen likely to start sagging. To repair a worn playpen or add extra support to a new one, add a strip of aluminum diagonally at each corner. The thin Do-It-Yourself aluminum trim strip provides the needed support without interfering with the folding of the playpen for storage.

Cut the aluminum strips to fit each corner. Measure as close to lower hinge and upper joint as possible for maximum support. Drill holes in each end and screw the strips to the wood frame of or storm doors. Along the back of open shelves, aluminum strips screwed diagonally across back keep shelves from shifting to one side without holding them away from wall.

BUILDING AND REMODELING — NEWS — FOR EVERY HOME

Local Contractor Urges Support Of Proposed FHA Liberalization

As a participant in the nationwide "Operation Home Improvement" campaign, William C. Otwell of Otwell Heating and Supply company this week urged all residents to support the liberalization of FHA Title I regulations.

Otwell pointed out that under the proposed change, homeowners may borrow $3500 instead of $2500 and take five years instead of three to pay back the loan. He urges all local homeowners to write to Congresswoman Martha Griffiths, House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., to support this proposal.

"Operation Home Improvement" was initiated by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States to encourage home improvement throughout the year and to make it easier for homeowners to obtain the materials and services that go into home improvement. Hundreds of leading manufacturers and trade associations, as well as many thousands of local businessmen in every part of the country, have joined in the effort.

The Hon. Albert M. Cole, top housing chief in the Federal Government, pointed out—in proclaiming Home Improvement Year on January 16—that home improvement is a "sound investment in America's future." He went on to explain that home improvement bolsters the economic and social well-being of the community and the nation, in addition to providing comfort, pleasure and beauty for the family.

One of the newest portable tape recorders is as easy to tote about town—or out of town—as your overnight bag. It weighs just 23 pounds with all parts and accessories, including a two-speed, twin track recorder-reproducer, microphone, tape and cord, fitted into the handy case and cover. The carrying case is made of plywood reinforced with soilproof plastic in a selection of colors and has a convenient leather handle. The unit is called Ekotape.

Wood Cabinet Can Have Receptacle for Knives

A neat trick possible with wood kitchen cabinets is building a receptacle for carrying and paring knives into the top of a base unit, much in the style of the oldtime butcher's block. The cabinet most often chosen for this is one with a "cutting board" top made of thick solid strips of maple. The knives then are handy for use, but safely out of the way when not in use.

Shutters at the windows add charm to the house. They can be made easily and inexpensively from plastic-faced plywood.

Accent Beauty of Furnishings With Modern Lighting Fixtures

Many contemporary homes built with modern materials and featuring advanced styling, still lack an integral part of their interiors—an adequate number of lighting fixtures. According to Robert W. Minett, Jr., president of the American Home Lighting Institute, the average home built today contains less than $32 worth of lighting fixtures. A modern home should have at least ten times that amount, according to leading lighting engineers and specialists. Over 80 per cent of all American homes are inadequately lighted, said Minett, who also is vice president of Thomas Industries Inc., whose More Light Division is one of the leading producers of residential lighting fixtures.

More and more progressive builders are pointing out that it pays to do a good job of lighting in the home. In so doing, it was pointed out, they help themselves, for the proper selection of lighting fixtures is not only a plus value in selling the house, it also helps to show other advantages of the construction. For showing at night, lighting fixtures add beauty, warmth and sales appeal to any home.

Of course, when the builders don't put enough fixtures into the house, the homeowner must. Modern, smartly styled lighting fixtures, properly placed completely transform any dwelling. They accent the outstanding features of the house and add interest and glamour to furnishings and furniture, and make living easier.

Inspiration-Lighting is the name given to a theory of lighting which is being widely adopted by decorators, architects and builders. The theory is borrowed from theater lighting, as used on Broadway and in the professional stage. In the theater, lighting is used to focus attention on certain players or props, to supply interesting backgrounds, and even to create moods—dramatic, gay, intimate.

As brought to the American home, Inspiration-Lighting applies to each and every room. In the living room, for example, ceiling fixtures can supply overall illumination, while accent lights call attention to paintings and to the unusual texture of draperies or carpets. Hanging, reel-type lights which can be alternately raised or lowered for various occasions, can be used for illumination over a dining area or for a conversational corner effect. Accent "spots" will call attention to a fire-place or some other interesting feature of the room.

By lighting the walls you make a room look more spacious; decrease the lighting, leaving the room in semi-darkness, and you have a smaller, more intimate area.

Inspection-Lighting works in the bedroom, too. Ideally, you will have an overhead light for general illumination, adjustable accent fixtures for reading in bed localized light for grooming and make-up.

Bathrooms and kitchens get their share of attention from the Inspiration-Lighting experts, too. Side and overhead recessed fixtures will make shaving and make-up easier, just as incandescent or fluorescent fixtures over kitchen work areas will make meal preparation easier and more enjoyable.

The theory of Inspiration-Lighting also takes in the grounds around the home. Porch lights, post lanterns, flood or spotlights for lawns, garden, swimming pool—all these add to the attractiveness of a home and its surroundings. Properly lighted, any home becomes more interesting, and more livable.

Stress Building Simplicity

The modern esthetic in home building is simplicity. House designs stress clean lines, open spaces, uncluttered interiors. Manufacturers of home appliances, fixtures and materials are aware of this. Such appliances as dishwashers, garbage disposers, ovens and cooking ranges are compact and easy to operate. They can fit snugly into almost any efficient kitchen design. Honest, natural materials such as easy-to-clean ceramic tile, hardwood finishes, and durable quarry flooring fulfill the modern esthetic.

We will custom build to your plan . . . or you can choose from our large selection of attractive, modern plans.

FOR Gay, Carefree LIVING

THERE'S something about this lovely home that suggests gay, carefree living—a brightly colored stone patio leading off the dining room, plantings bordering its unique stone and vertical siding exterior, a TV room that is virtually enclosed in glass, and stone bordered plantings flanking the living room stairway. What a truly gay setting for family life! The plan is split-level, but actually with three levels. First level is the cellar, where the heating equipment is located, laundry and recreation room. A short flight up leads to living, dining rooms and kitchen. Another short flight up brings you to the bedrooms. All told there are three bedrooms and a study, which can also be converted into a fourth bedroom if desired. There are two full baths to serve the family, and a full dining room in addition to extra breakfast space in the unusually large kitchen. There's space for everyone and everything in this excellent plan, space for work and play and just ordinary living. Note, too, the large fireplace in both living room and TV room, and double garage on basement level. A study plan of this house is available to readers free. Simply send 25¢ to cover mailing and handling to Modern Plan Service, Dept. F, Lincoln Bldg., Mt. Vernon, N. Y.

Follow Plan, Make Storage Cabinet Easily

Do your own cabinet work to create additional storage in kitchen, basement, garage or elsewhere. It's not difficult if you follow a clear plan and use the right materials. Many professional cabinet-makers recommend Masonite Preswood for the paneling. They like it for its smooth surface which takes such a pleasing, long-lasting finish of paint or enamel, for its grainless, splinter-free, knot-free qualities, and its ease of handling with common or power tools. The home craftsman will like Preswood panels too. They are available at lumber yards. Made of exploded wood chips that are pressed into thin, strong, abrasion and moisture-resistant panels, Preswood is used in the manufacture of quality cabinets and a variety of other ways ranging from workbench tops to furniture, residential siding to interior walls. A basic plan showing the fundamentals of constructing a cabinet with Preswood is available by writing the Home Service Bureau, Suite 2037, 111 West Washington St., Chicago 2, Ill., and requesting free drawing No. AE-259. Its flexibility will permit the craftsman to adapt it to any size and location. Here's a hint on hinged cabinet doors that appear in one of Chicago's most beautiful homes. Anyone can duplicate them. Form two frameworks, each half the size of the opening, using stock molding with a lip 3/16" wide to receive the Tempered Preswood panels. Fasten them into place with brads and glue. Stain or paint the molding, but leave the paneling in its natural color by applying only a sealer.

SALLY MORGAN, Purdue university pre-medical student and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Morgan of 659 Ann street, was recently initiated into two campus sororities. Sally was honored with membership in Alpha Lambda Delta, nationally honorary scholastic society for freshmen women. She is also a member of Chi Omega sorority.

MR. AND MRS. TOM Corey of 875 Wing street left last week for Los Angeles, California where Mr. Corey has accepted a position with Equitable Life Assurance city mortgage department.

FORMER PLYMOUTHITE Alfred Morton was honored recently as champion farmer in the state. Morton, who headed the local AAA insurance office in 1934 and 1935, now resides at 6825 Tuttle Hill road near Ypsilanti. Using all certified seed, Morton won honors with a yield of 115.8 bushels of oats per acre; 83.1 bushels of barley per acre; 46.3 bushels of soy beans per acre; and 63.4 bushels of wheat per acre. Governor Williams presented Morton with a certificate for outstanding grain production. In 1951 he also won the top place for corn production. Morton began farming in 1945 and apparently uses his business administration degree from Michigan state normal college to good avail.

RUMMAGING THROUGH a cedar chest recently took Mrs. Robert Richter of 8202 Grace road back about 15 years. Newspapers used in packing the chest were dated Tuesday, October 20, 1942. Headlines of the Detroit News of that date read: "Mussolini's Troops Reported in Mutiny"; and "Queen Elizabeth Ready to Greet Mrs. Roosevelt".

BELVA JANE BARNES, graduate of the class of 1939 of Plymouth high school, is now affiliated with the internationally known architect, Marcel Breuer, and is working on the UNESCO building in Paris, France. She is also taking part in architectural design of many modern houses and the Bijenkorf department store in Rotterdam. She has also worked with the famous French architect, Le Corbusier.

A THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: Laziness travels so slowly that poverty soon overtakes him.

Social Security Question Column

Social Security questions may be sent to the Plymouth Mail.

1. I am 72 and would like to get my social security but I don't want to let the man I work for know how old I am. Is there any way I can get around this?

Answer: If you are 72 and are still working, you are eligible to receive payments. The Social Security office does not notify your employer. Your records concerning social security are confidential.

2. I am getting social security as a widow and am planning to get married. If I do, will my children's checks stop too? Would my checks start again in case I was divorced?

Answer: If a widow who receives social security payments remarries, her checks are discontinued. However, she will continue to get checks for her children until they become 18. A widow's payments may not be reinstated because of a divorce.

3. Can you tell me how I would go about getting my birth certificate. I'm quite sure that I've made myself younger than I really am on all my papers.

Answer: Write to the County Clerk in the County in which you were born. Be sure to show the name given you at birth, and the birth date you think is correct. In most cases the charge will be at least $1.00.

4. My wife and I file a joint income tax return. I am in business and must file a self-employment report for social security. Do I show my wife's name on this report and does she need a social security number?

Answer: No. Only the person who is self-employed files this Schedule C report for social security. However, if you and your wife are partners in the business, then each partner must file a separate report, Schedule C and each must have a social security number.

5. I hear there has been a change in social security payments. How can I get a bigger check?

Answer: There has been no change to automatically increase social security payments. If you had additional work since you first filed your claim for social security, get in touch with the social security office. You may qualify for a new account.

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The
MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Michigan may establish a state park in Marquette county, following action by the Conservation Commission at its February 9-10 meeting at Lansing.

The Commission agreed to accept transfer of Van Riper park which is a Marquette county park at present. The county board of supervisors asked the Conservation Department to take over the area as a state park.

The park area, on the eastern end of Lake Michigan, will be accepted as a gift from the county, but about $20,000 in state funds would be needed for park maintenance and operation for the 1956-57 fiscal year.

In other action, the Commission approved acquisition of 382 acres of hunting lands, 37 acres of park land and three public fishing sites.

Hunting lands approved for purchase include 240 acres in Pigeon River state forest, 48 acres in Flat Lake state forest, 38 acres in Chippewa River state forest and a four-acre addition to the Presque Isle River wildlife flooding project.

Additions of 23 acres to Chippewa River state forest and 20 acres to Flat River state game area were approved for purchase under the Pittman-Robertson program.

The park land acquisition consists of 37 acres in the Sleeping Bear-Glen Lake state park area in Leelanau county.

Fishing sites to be purchased are on the Jordan River in Antrim county and Lee Lake in Calhoun county. Another Jordan River fishing site, in Charlevoix county, was accepted as a gift. Commission approval also was given to the purchase of a five-acre tract in the village of St. Charles, Saginaw county as a site for a forest fire equipment station and administrative headquarters for Shiawassee River state game area.

Michigan's Conservation Commission is "sympathetic and favorably inclined" toward the Detroit News' offer of $1000 for stocking Montana grayling trout in one or more northern lakes.

But the Commission withheld acceptance of the offer pending study and recommendation by the Conservation Department's fish division.

Native grayling were extinct in Michigan waters after about 1935, but virtually the same fish is still found in Montana streams. Minnesota has stocked the Montana grayling with some success in two lakes.

Michigan tried to establish the fish in a number of experiments from 1900 to 1941, but for various reasons all failed. State fish specialists strongly doubt that fishable populations of the grayling will ever again exist in state waters, but agree that a small stock could be maintained for historical purposes.

A color map of the surface formations of the lower peninsula is now available from the Conservation Department.

Helen M. Martin, Department research geologist, recently completed the map after nearly 20 years of study and exploration. Moraines, till plains, deltas, water beds and other surface features are indicated on the 40 x 40 inch map.

The work is a revision of a 1926 study done by Frank Leverett, former member of the Department's geological survey division. The map will be extremely useful in searching for water and other minerals, for classroom study and as a guide to anyone with an interest in geological surface features.

A similar map of the upper peninsula is now under way. The lower peninsula map is available from the Department's publications room for 50c.

Bad Check Business Gets Bigger; Merchants Given Share of Blame

More bad checks are being passed every year and many of the owners are unwittingly helping bad-check passers, according to the chief of Ann Arbor detectives.

Talking to a group of retail hardware merchants at a recent University of Michigan conference, Lt. George Stauch pointed out that, "Store owners, in an effort to sell goods, put their salespeople on a commission, which makes the clerks anxious to close a sale. In their eagerness they will often take checks without proper identification."

U-M Engineers Hit Who's Who

Only one other institution in this country and Canada has more representatives in the current edition of Who's Who in Engineering than does The University of Michigan.

The February issue of Michigan Alumnus reports that 620 U-M alumni are listed in the volume, a number second only to the 930 graduates of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology who are included.

This places the university next to the top of a list of 475 institutions in both nations which grant engineering degrees, the Alumnus said.

Cornell University occupies third place with a total of 582 graduates listed. Others in the top ten, numerically, are Purdue, Illinois, Wisconsin, California, Ohio State, Kansas and Minnesota.

Although eight educational institutions in the State of Michigan grant engineering degrees, the University of Michigan was the only one listed among the top 45 in total numbers and none of the other Michigan schools had more than 90 alumni listed in Who's Who... the Alumnus added.

An estimated $87,500 worth of fraudulent checks were passed in Ann Arbor during 1955, the detective stated. This represents a rise of about $7,000 over the previous year, he added.

There are several kinds of bad checks: forgeries, non-accounts and insufficient funds, he noted. Some characteristics of forged checks are back-handed writing (when the check passer is right-handed), flowery writing, a drawn signature. If you question the check and the person goes into exaggerated lengths to protest his innocence, be suspicious, says the lieutenant.

Check writers who have no accounts usually use fictitious names and addresses, and usually check artists are repeaters, Stauch declared.

Some bad-checks passers will want to date their checks ahead and for more than the amount of the articles they've purchased, so they can pocket the change, he points out. A check post-dated becomes only a promissory note and prosecution can only be handled in a civil suit, he adds.

Another thing to watch for is an exceedingly high number given as the check number. And be suspicious if somebody from another city wants to cash a check in your town drawn on a bank in a third city, the detective advises.

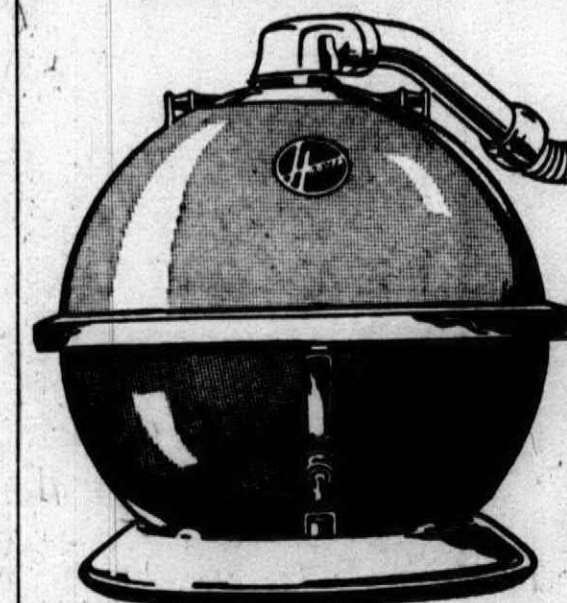

"If yours is a business where there is a large volume of payment by check and you employ many clerks, assign one as your check 'okay' and have him require the check passer to identify himself with driver's license, and automobile registration as well," Stauch recommends. Many habitual bad-check passers have driver's licenses taken out in their assumed names, he explains, so the automobile registration is added insurance against a bad check.

Also have your clerk note the purchaser's characteristics so that he would be able, if necessary, to describe them to an artist who could then draw a likeness, Stauch added.
