THE MAIL IS HOME OWNED - COMPLETELY PUBLISHED IN PLYMOUTH - BY PLYMOUTHITES - FOR PLYMOUTHITES

FIRST SALE of a poppy for the current Poppy Day campaign was made by Mrs. Lee Coolman (right) and Mrs. Elton Knapp to Paul Chandler, new editor and publisher of The Plymouth Mail. Mrs. Coolman is poppy chairman for the VFW auxiliary while Mrs. Knapp holds a similar position for the American Legion auxiliary. Proceeds of the sale go toward the units' relief funds for aid to disabled veterans and their families. It also helps finance local hospital work. The Poppy Day here will be tomorrow, Friday, May 25, at which time the two organizations will sell at various vantage points across the city. It was erroneously reported last week in The Mail that the sale would continue through Saturday. It will only be held Fri lay.

Plymouth Marks Memorial Day With Parade, Service

Those who gave their lives in the service of their country will be honored next Wednesday when service organizations lead the parade down Main street for the annual Memorial day service. Delivering the memorial address will be Miss Neva Lovewell, Plymouth high school social science teacher.

Speaking on the topic, "Plymouth Meditates", Miss Lovewell will recall for the audience that 37 young Plymouth men died in World War II, a large number for a community of this size. The veteran school teacher had all but four in her classes.

The day will be a holiday for business, industry and school children. Since it is not a long holiday weekend, citizens may not be traveling as far away from home as usual and it is hoped that highway fatalities will decline. But just in case, extra help will be given the State Highway Patrol and sheriff's department.

A plea is also being made for householders and business establishments to fly the American flag during the day. Gerald Olson of the Veterans of Foreign Wars Mayflower post will be parade marshal when the march starts at 10 a.m. It will form at Main and Mill streets and will move south on Main street to the park.

Preceding the parade will be a ceremony at the Plymouth road bridge in tribute to the Navy dead. The Navy Mothers club will conduct the ceremony at 9:30 a.m. and all parade participants are asked to attend the bridge program by meeting at Mill and Main streets at 9 a.m.

Mayor Russell Daane will be master of ceremonies for the service at Kellogg park. Invocation will be given by the Reverend Henry Walsh, D.D., followed by the introduction of service organization commanders and presidents.

The Plymouth high school band directed by Laurence Livingston will play the National Anthem, followed by the Pledge of Allegiance by the assembly and the recitation of "In Flanders Field" by Gerry Steele. Miss Lovewell's address will be followed by a song "There Is No Death," by Nat Sibbold, accompanied by Fred Nelson, and the benediction by Reverend Father Francis Byrne. Explorer Scouts will lay the wreath and the V.F.W. drill team directed by Harold Young will fire a salute to the fallen servicemen. Taps played by John Gaffield of the V.F.W. will conclude the service.

Memorial church services will take place on Sunday, May 27 at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic church. Starting time is noon. On Saturday, May 26, flags will be placed on graves of servicemen buried in surrounding cemeteries.

Day of Remembering

By Rev. Fr. Francis Byrne
Pastor, Our Lady of Good Counsel

Memorial day, also known as Decoration day, is observed in various ways. For some, it is a day for a picnic, or a day for the races, or a day for the double-header. Some families open up their cottage on this day, and many children look forward on Decoration day to their first plunge in the water. Others, the more conservative type, are content to stay at home or to visit friends or relatives, while they watch TV or listen to the radio and, perhaps, sip their favorite beverage.

But Memorial Day has a deeper meaning than this. It is a day to remember our war dead. In the lifetime of many of us, we have heard of war victims in three different wars. Some of these victims distinguished themselves for their bravery and received posthumously certain awards. Some of these will go down in history as among the great heroes of our country. Others died somewhat ingloriously in a sunken ship, an airplane crash-up, on the battlefield, or in a hospital. But all died in defense of their country and in defense of the principles of freedom, justice, and happiness for which our country stands.

Are the lives of thousands of the flower of our youth sacrificed in vain? That is for us to determine. Little will be accomplished merely by flag waving, by parades, by patriotic speeches, or by condemning some "ism" or other. But each one of us can prove his worthiness for the trust which these valiant heroes have placed in us by the actions of our lives. Do we vote regularly and conscientiously? Do we refuse positions of responsibility merely through lethargy or indifference? Are we indifferent to the kind of men who work for our government, or to the ones who teach in our schools and colleges? Do we encourage people to take positions of influence in the world, particularly in the teaching field, if we cannot take such positions ourselves? Are we spending our time and energy in helping others rather than in our own selfish interests? The greatest danger to our country today is not war from without, but indifference from within.

Christians, without exception, believe in a life hereafter. The Book of Machabees tells us that "it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead, that they may be loosed from sins" (II Mac. 12:46). On the graves of our loved ones we place a wreath in memory of them. Let us add to this symbolic action a prayer, not only for them, but also for all those who have died that we might enjoy the blessings of a free nation. "Eternal rest grant unto them and let perpetual light shine upon them".

Airport Plan Gets Policy View Of Commission

A resolution of policy concerning the proposed acquisition and development of Mettetal airport was adopted Tuesday evening by city commissioners.

The commission recommended that holders of revenue bonds necessary to finance the project be given preference in assigning hangar space. The resolution further stated that the operation of the airport be carried on in the interest of the flying public; that revenues received by the city from the airport operation be first applied to bond and interest or other financial requirements and the balance applied to operation and maintenance of the airport. Remaining funds would be used for capital improvements as required.

Bonds in the amount of $500,000 must be sold to finance the project.

A meeting last Thursday at the city hall was attended by approximately 25 air minded residents of the area including private pilots. Another meeting this evening will serve as a forum for the planned June 5 meeting at which time the project will be officially introduced to state aeronautics board officials. The committee is now working to interest industry and the public at large in participating in the financing of the airfield. Three-per-cent revenue bonds will be sold to obtain the necessary $500,000. After this initial move state and federal aid will be available for the construction of the expanded facilities.

Testimony in Morals Case Continued Until Monday

Testimony in the arraignment of six Plymouth youths charged with statutory rape will be continued next Monday before Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo. This will be the third session for testimony, considered "very unusual" in an arraignment.

The six were arrested two weeks ago after charges were filed involving a 14-year-old Plymouth girl. One boy is 17 years old, one is 19 and the remainder are 18. The act allegedly took place May 5 in the Canton township home of one of the boys.

Set Early Deadline For Next Issue

Next Wednesday, May 30, Plymouth's business firms and industrial plants will close their doors for one day in remembrance of those who have given their lives for our country.

The Mail will publish one day early and home delivery will be made as usual on Thursday. We remind all advertisers and persons wishing to submit news articles that the deadline for publication will be Monday, May 28 at 5:00 p.m.

$125,000 Storm Sewer Planned

Preliminary plans for construction of a storm sewer system costing an estimated $125,000 were shown to city commissioners Tuesday night by Harold Hamill, consulting engineer.

The storm sewer system would be laid in the southwest portion of the city. The storm sewer area would be bounded on the north by a line between Maple street and Ann Arbor trail, on the east by a line between Jener and Harold and including homes on the south side of Brush, on the south by the north edge of Garling Subdivision No. 1 and on the west by Sheldon road.

Some of the area within the boundary already has some storm sewer facilities, but according to City Manager Albert Glassford, they are not adequate. Exactly how much such a project will cost each property owner is still to be decided. Some method of financing is to be worked out giving benefit to those who have storm sewers. Hamill was directed to proceed with detailed plans.

Two-Year-Old Hit By Car, Injured

Two-year-old Craig Cash, 1007 Harding street, received multiple injuries Wednesday morning when he ran into the street in front of a car. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Cash.

Taken by his mother first to Sessions hospital in Northville and later transferred to St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor, Craig was found suffering a broken left leg, broken left collarbone and multiple cuts and contusions about the head. Driver of the car which struck the boy was Miss Jeanette Berkenpas of Byron Center, Michigan. Police said that she is employed as a housekeeper by a Harding street family and was driving children to school when the boy ran in front of her car.

Contracts Let for Junior High; To Break Ground in Two Weeks

A Detroit firm, Palmer-Smith company, has been awarded the general construction contract for the proposed junior high school with a base bid of $954,760.

Bids on construction, electrical work, mechanical work, lockers, kitchen equipment and home-making and art room equipment were opened last Friday and then studied by the board of education at a special meeting Monday night. All bids on homemaking and art room equipment were rejected and new bids on either wood or metal equipment will be asked. Bids on the electrical work were held for further study.

It was estimated last year, that the school will cost about $1,500,000 and a look at the bids indicates that the estimate will not be far off. The school is to be constructed on a site located in the southeast corner of the city. Construction of the school is expected to start within two weeks and a completion date of September 1957 has been set. The present junior high will then be converted for high school use.

Four bids were received for the general construction. Besides Palmer-Smith's base bid of $954,760, an alternate bid of $1,157,760 for a folding partition in the gymnasium was accepted. Base bids of the other three companies were: Steinle-Wolfe, Inc., Fremont, Ohio, $964,000; O. W. Burke company, Detroit, $978,613; and C. H. Reidorf & Sons, Detroit, $988,196.

Poppies, Geraniums Both Win City Hall Controversy

Competition on the flower market may be a little tough in downtown Plymouth this Friday when pedestrians will be given a choice of buying V.F.W. poppies, American Legion poppies and Plymouth Symphony society geraniums. A controversy over the flower situation developed at city hall this week and ended up at the city commission meeting Tuesday night. The Symphony society had asked and received permission a month ago to sell geranium plants this Friday and Saturday. Early this week, the two service organizations asked to sell their poppies this Friday.

Referring to past policy of not allowing more than one street sale on a given day, City Manager Albert Glassford turned down the service organizations. Commanders Albert Holcombe of the Legion and Ray Danol of the V.F.W. appeared before the commission to appeal the decision, claiming that the Friday before Memorial day has always been poppy day in Plymouth. Besides, they argued, sale of artificial poppies should not interfere with the sale of live geranium plants. Commissioners accepted the explanation "this year only" and voted to allow the poppy sale. As a result, two brands of poppies and live geraniums will be featured on Plymouth sidewalks tomorrow.

Authority Says Water, Sewer Plan Sabotaged

Interest Renewed In Completing Library Building

City Manager Albert Glassford was instructed by the City commission Tuesday night to get an estimate of how much it would cost to complete the second section of the Plymouth branch of the Wayne County Library.

Glassford is to meet with architect Byron Becker to get an estimate of how much construction of the front part of the building would cost. Estimates several years ago set the cost at $50,000.

The rear portion of the library was completed two years ago and it is so designed that the front section can be easily added. The present front part of the building is an old frame home. Commissioners were told that the city could sell bonds for the library up to $35,000. Private subscription, perhaps, could make up the deficit.

Talk about the library came about when the manager reported that repainting of the old building and a needed new roof may cost around $1,300. Several commissioners asserted that this may be the time to start thinking about the new addition. Becker was architect for the present new building.

In other business before the commission, representatives of the Garden club appeared to suggest that its successful Litterbug campaign can be carried on by the city by posting signs noting the penalty for littering and by requiring merchants to have covers on most of their rubbish containers. Mrs. Sidney Strong, the spokesman, told about the debris which blows around downtown streets because of uncovered rubbish containers used by some merchants. Mayor Russell Daane stated that the city is talking about issuing tickets to ordinance violators.

First reading was given an amendment to the zoning ordinance which would change a plot on Davis street at the railroad from two-family residential to light manufacturing. The request came from Enterline Photo Service which wants to build a new processing plant on the site.

Second and final reading was given to an amendment to the food ordinance which will allow the county health department to issue food handlers cards, instead of the local health official. The city also gave the Chamber of Commerce permission to stage a four-day July 4 celebration and will donate up to $100 toward fireworks.

Bullet Grazes Face Of Nursery Workman

A nursery worker narrowly escaped death or serious injury last week when the slug from a rifle grazed his face just above his right eye.

William L. Eskridge, 22 of 413 Maple, was digging evergreens at the Plymouth Nursery on Ann Arbor road on May 21 when the incident occurred. He told police that two boys were seen about 250 yards away when he heard the shot. He believed the shot to come from a .22 rifle.

Eskridge fell to the ground after the bullet grazed his face. The wound was not serious enough to require hospital treatment. Hugh Mason of Plymouth was working with Eskridge at the time.

Burroughs Annexation Petition Makes New Financing Problem

A charge of "sabotage" has been made against the city commission by the Townships of Plymouth and Canton Sewer and Water Authority board who learned at their meeting last Friday that sale of bonds for the project will be indefinitely delayed because of the city's petition to annex the local Burroughs corporation plant.

Since the Burroughs plant accounts for almost a third of Plymouth township's evaluation, cautious bond buyers will now want to reappraise the financial situation and this will bring delay, the water and sewer board was told.

Making the report to the board was Walter Mar'kam, their financial advisor. He stated that the bonding attorney, John Nunnally, told him that he will not put his approval on the authority's plan while the Burroughs territory is under litigation. Nunnally has been appointed investigator of the authority's bond sale by a group of potential bond buyers. "The filing of the petition to annex Burroughs by the city commission has sabotaged our sewer and water program," the authority board declared yesterday.

Mayors Get V. I. P. Care During Visits

Mayor Arthur E. Boelke of New Buffalo received the red carpet treatment in his visit to Plymouth Monday as nearly every community in the state observed Exchange of Mayors day.

Meanwhile, Mayor Russell Daane was given similar courtesies at New Buffalo, a community of 1,750. The event was part of the Michigan Week celebration which is now in progress.

New Buffalo's mayor arrived here at 11 a.m. and was given a tour through city hall before having lunch at the Mayflower hotel with businessmen and several city-commissioners. He then spent the afternoon touring the Daisy Manufacturing and Dunn Steel plants and visiting municipal installations.

A dinner at the hotel with city officials and their wives ended the day. The mayor, a bachelor, stated that he was impressed with the progressiveness of the city and the way in which they get things done.

Mayor Daane was flown to New Buffalo by Emery Monnier, and met at the Michigan City airport by a delegation of New Buffalo officials. After a visit through the village's new and modern school, there was a luncheon with several local businessmen and officials.

The village is "Michigan's Gateway" because it is the first community in the southwest corner of the state near Chicago. Mayor Daane was taken on a tour of the waterfront residential developments, the city-owned facilities and of the Plastic Masters company, the community's only industry.

Plymouth's mayor was flown back here in time to join the dinner group at the Mayflower and exchange greetings with Mayor Boelke. Mayor Daane received a desk set from New Buffalo while Mayor Boelke was presented a key to the city from Mayor Pro Tem Ernest Henry and a Daisy air rifle.

When the 30-day waiting period for the petition is up, the supervisors will probably refer it to the ways and means committee for study and recommendation. Litigation may take weeks or months.

MAYOR PRO TEM Ernest Henry, right, gave a welcome Monday noon to Mayor Arthur E. Boelke of New Buffalo while Mayor Russell Daane was receiving a similar welcome in New Buffalo for Exchange of Mayors day. James Taylor, left, chairman of the retail merchants committee of the Chamber, and other businessmen had luncheon with the visiting mayor at noon.

Theatre Guild Elects Officers

Plymouth Theatre Guild members elected a new slate of officers with Jack Scott as president in their final meeting of the season. Scott will succeed Jack H. Wilcox, whose leadership provided the guild with a successful season.

Other officers elected were: Duane Branch, vice-president; Betty Demorest, recording secretary; Russell Creel, corresponding secretary; C. V. Sparks, treasurer; and J. H. Wilcox and Russell Wallace, board of governors.

The past year saw the Plymouth Theatre Guild produce three major three-act plays for the first time in their history, allowing virtually everyone in the guild to participate in either the acting or the production. The incoming president has established a goal of doubling the membership of the Plymouth Theatre Guild in the coming year. Anyone interested in participating in the activities of the Guild in the coming season may obtain further details by calling Plymouth 1557-R.

Mrs. Theodore Box and daughter, Rachel, arrived home Sunday evening by plane from Mattoon, Illinois, where they had visited her mother, Mrs. S. G. Icenogle for two weeks. While there the little three year old miss, Rachel, had to undergo an emergency operation from which she is recovering nicely.

John Jamieson - Marilyn Bowlby Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

Bushnell Congregational church, Detroit, was the scene of the ceremony uniting Marilyn Joy Bowlby and John William Jamieson Jr. Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig Bowlby of 15405 Lakeside drive, Plymouth, and her bridegroom's parents are the John William Jamiesons Jr. of Faust avenue, Detroit.

The Reverend Gaskell officiated at the two o'clock double ring service before a large company of friends and relatives on Saturday afternoon, May 19. Soft organ music and large bouquets of white gladioli, carnations and stock enhanced the setting for the service.

Marilyn, given in marriage by her father, wore a floorlength gown of Chantilly lace over satin. The fitted bodice featured long sleeves and sweetheart neckline and the bouffant hooped skirt fell gracefully into a chapel train. Her matching lace cap held in place her fingertip length veil of illusion which had a scalloped hemline and she carried a shower arrangement of white carnations, stephanotis and ivy centered with a large white orchid.

Patricia Bowlby was her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Nancy Barney of Detroit and Patricia Gronowich of Plymouth. All attendants wore gowns of light blue nylon chiffon fashioned with strapless gathered bodices and ballerina length full skirts. They wore matching stoles and half-hats with face veils. Patricia carried a shower bouquet of pink carnations and green Pettas Porum. The other attendants' bouquets were of a deeper shade of pink with the green Pettas Porum.

Charles Crowley served John as best man and the ushers were Robert Hutton and Lawrence Valliancourt, all of Detroit.

Mrs. Bowlby chose, for her daughter's wedding, a pale blue lace dress with lace hat and matching accessories and a corsage of white gardenias. Mrs. Jamieson's gown was of aqua lace with which she wore pink accessories and a corsage of pink baby rosebuds.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 175 guests was held in the church parlors with guests attending from Detroit, Plymouth, Lansing, Ypsilanti, Birmingham, Galt and Windsor, Canada, South Lyon and Dearborn.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Jamieson are honeymooning for two weeks in Daytona Beach, Florida. For traveling the bride wore a coral dress with black faille coat and black accessories. She pinned the orchid from her bridal bouquet to the shoulder of her costume.

Marilyn is a graduate of Plymouth high school and attended Michigan State University. Her husband was graduated from Redford Union high school and is employed with the Ford Motor Company.

Upon returning from their honeymoon they will be at home on Penniman avenue, Plymouth.

Form Partnership

Plymouth mason contractor Herman Perlongo, 9315 Ball, this week announced the formation of a new partnership with Floyd Tibbitts, former city commissioner.

The new firm will be known as Perlongo and Tibbitts, Mason Contractors. Perlongo stated that they will specialize in sidewalk installations. Tibbitts resides at 9279 Ball and was formerly a salesman for Berry and Atchinson Pontiac dealership.

Mrs. Ethel Parmalee of Sheridan avenue returned to her home last week from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. M. Felton and family in Rochester.

In spite of what happened at Custer's last stand, an Illinois professor claims that all the stories about Indian archery are so much malarkey. After years of research, he says Indian arrows were odd sizes and weren't even straight. They'd be lucky to hit a bull... let alone a bull's-eye.

This is rough news to the jeans-age crowd who believe the braves could thread a needle with an arrow from half a mile away. The Professor reports the red men had to creep up within knocking distance to hit a target the size of the broadside of a barn. Next we'll hear that Hiawatha's canoe wouldn't float and that Pocahontas' act was a publicity stunt. Maybe the expert is right, but we wonder if he'd have felt the same way hiking through Indian territory back in the war-whoop days.

Graduation time is coming up soon! Stop in and take a look at our big selection of wonderful gifts... you're sure to find something that will put a smile on your favorite grad's face.

A Colorado dentist is producing false teeth for sheep. Any-one getting a mutton chop from these, old timers will probably need a new set of molars, too. We don't serve tough meats ourselves. In fact, you'll get nothing but tender, tasty meats in our sandwiches. Make it a habit to stop in at our lunch counter... for morning coffee, a hearty lunch, or an afternoon soda.

Remember... "someone you know, knows me."

Geranium Sale Set for Weekend

A benefit geranium sale to be sponsored by the Women's committee of the Plymouth Symphony society will get underway tomorrow and Saturday, May 25 and 26, offering residents of this and the Livonia area dual opportunity to beautify their home surroundings and at the same time aid the Plymouth Symphony orchestra fund.

Stands will be set up in Plymouth's downtown shopping area during the two-day event as well as in Livonia's Sheldon center. Principal sites here will be at the Hotel Mayflower, the central parking lot and on Forest avenue. The plants to be furnished by Heide's and Sutherland's, will be in full bloom and at their peak for transplanting to home garden plots.

General chairman is Mrs. Ray Hulce. She will be assisted by Mrs. Robert Webber, Mrs. Edwin Schrader, Mrs. William Fronk, Mrs. A. E. Van Ornum, Mrs. Carl Wall, Mrs. Ralph G. Lorenz, Mrs. G. J. Fischer and Mrs. James Warren.

BIRTHS

Because there are so many hospitals in the area which are utilized by Plymouth citizens, it is impossible for The Mail to accurately obtain reports of all births. We therefore must rely on parents or relatives to kindly supply us with this information as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Shoner of Northville announce the birth of a son, Anna Wade, at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, six pounds, twelve ounces on May 10. Mrs. Shoner is the former Iris Dene Hitt.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Glass Jr. of Deer street are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, Dean Michael, weight eight pounds four ounces on May 16 in Session's hospital, Northville. Mrs. Glass is the former Marlene Clement.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Shannon of Midland are the proud parents of a son, Gregory Scott, born in Midland City hospital on April 12, weighing eight pound 11 ounces. Mrs. Shannon is the former Carol Lidgard.

An eight pound, four ounce daughter, Cheri Paula, was born Tuesday, May 22 at Selfridge Air Force base hospital to Pvt. and Mrs. Richard Blomberg. Pvt. Blomberg is spending a 10-day furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ragnar Blomberg of Arthur street. He is stationed at Fort Stewart, Georgia. Mrs. Blomberg is the former Janice Depki of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bachelder of Grand Rapids announce the birth of a son, David John, Sunday, May 20 at Blodgett hospital in Grand Rapids. The new arrival weighed 6 pounds, 4 ounces. A former resident of Plymouth, Mr. Bachelder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Bachelder of 157 South Main street.

A son, Patrick John, was born April 16 at New Grace hospital in Detroit to Mr. and Mrs. Walter P. Myers of 42519 Parkhurst. Patrick John weighed 10 pounds at birth.

Mrs. Roy Pursell has returned from a weeks stay with her daughter, Joanne, at Denison University, Granville, Ohio. She attended the three-day celebration honoring Mothers Day. Mrs. Pursell was accompanied by Mrs. Sheldon of Birmingham, whose daughter, Cynthia, is a roommate of Joanne. While there Mrs. Pursell attended a bridal shower given by a group of campus girls honoring Joanne who is a bride-elect of June 30.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. Irene Shaw, 1341 Sheridan, returned Saturday from a two week's visit in St. Petersburg, Florida. Mrs. Shaw was called to Florida by the illness of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Stanley Dangremont. During her visit she stayed with former Plymouthite, Miss Venita Adams. Together they enjoyed a short trip to Coral Gables.

Clayton Lewis Kops, Jr., received his first Holy Communion at Our Lady of Good Counsel Sunday. A breakfast was held at his parents' home on Beck road.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Kops of Beck road on Friday were, Mr. and Mrs. William Kops, Sr., of Muskegon.

Eckles Coal, Supply Co.
Sold, Adds Franchise

A change in ownership of Eckles Coal and Supply company and a franchise to sell Sun Oil company furnace oil were two announcements made this week by the Eckles firm.

The company has been purchased from William A. Otwell by Robert Allison, who will be president and manager, and William C. Otwell, treasurer.

In addition, the Sun Oil company franchise to sell furnace oil will make the company the distributor for the product in Plymouth and surrounding area.

Eckles Coal and Supply will add new equipment for delivery and are reconditioning and repainting present equipment with Sun Oil colors and emblems. Howard Wessels, Sun Oil representative, was in Plymouth to complete the negotiation with his company and Eckles, Plymouth's only completely independent franchised furnace oil distributor.

Six grandchildren also survive.

The deceased came to this community in 1929 from Detroit where she was a member of St. Simon Romanian Orthodox Catholic church.

Mrs. Edith A. Landis
Following an illness of five years, Mrs. Edith A. LeVan Landis passed away Thursday, May 17 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emerson Woods, 1011 Penniman avenue. She was 88.

Born June 9, 1867 in Caro, Michigan, she was the daughter of Samuel and Mary Armstrong. She was united in marriage in 1891 to Walter LeVan, who died in 1922, and in 1930 to Benjamin Landis, who passed away in 1935.

Surviving are her daughter, Mrs. Woods, a son, Arthur LeVan of Punta Gorda, Florida, three grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by a brother and a sister.

Mrs. Landis had lived in the Plymouth and Livonia area since 1899. She was a member of First Methodist church.

Funeral services were from the Schrader Funeral home Monday at 1 p.m. with the Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson, D. D., officiating. Interment was in Riverside cemetery. Pallbearers were Leigh Ryder, Earl Ryder, Clyde Smith, Alfred Smith, Henry Grimm and Don Ryder.

Mrs. Alma L. Smith
Mrs. Alma L. Smith, formerly of Northville and resident of the Arnold Rest home since 1946, died Tuesday, May 22, in Redford Receiving hospital after an illness of several years. She was 75.

Services will be held at 12:30 today, May 24, in the Schrader

Funeral home with the Reverend Luvia Kueper officiating. Interment will be in Rural Hill cemetery, Northville.

The deceased is survived by two sisters and brothers, Mrs. Maud Anderson of Plymouth, Mrs. Macey Fisher, Longview, California; James Barnes, Windsor, Ontario; and Melvin Barnes, Aylmer, Ontario.

Mrs. Smith, born April 25, 1881 in Walsingham, Ontario, was the daughter of William and Elizabeth Schwartz Barnes. She was preceded in death by her husband, Henry.

Walter W. Smith
After a lengthy illness, Walter Washington Smith of 923 Williams street, succumbed Tuesday, May 22, in Ridgewood hospital, Ypsilanti at the age of 74.

Services will be held Friday, May 25, at 1 p.m. in the Schrader Funeral home under the auspices of Plymouth Rock Lodge No. 47, F & AM of which the deceased was a life member. The Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson will be officiating minister. Interment will be in Riverside mausoleum.

An engineer, Mr. Smith had lived in Plymouth since 1919 prior to which he had resided in Detroit. He was a member of the First Methodist church of Plymouth, Northville Commandery Knights Templar No. 39, and Union Chapter No. 55 R. A. M.

The deceased was born July 29, 1881 in Detroit to Walter and Margaret Lockhart Smith. He married Edna Mary Moore on September 7, 1910. Surviving are his widow, one son, John of Plymouth, a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Waters of Onaway, Michigan, and three grandchildren.

Mrs. Ida C. Berghoefer
A resident of the Hanlon Rest home for the past 8 years, Mrs. Ida Berghoefer of Wyandotte, Michigan died Monday, May 21, at the age of 90. Services were held at 1 p.m. yesterday from the Schrader Funeral home with the Reverend Henry J. Walch officiating.

Mrs. Berghoefer is survived by a son, Clarence of Roscommon, a daughter, Mrs. Blanche Cochrane of Long Beach, California, and a sister, Mrs. Blanche Gill of Wyandotte. She was preceded in death by her husband, George. The deceased was born February 28, 1866 in Wyandotte.

SNAPPER

My fingers were so cold and stiff I could hardly click the shutter at this lady and the surprise she shows is nothing to what her old man will feel when he goes to the refrigerator for that late snack. When I got back to the store the boss, who had sent me on the assignment, asked if I was cold and hungry. He looked kind of funny when I told him no, just cold.

Detroit Lawyer Enters GOP Race

George E. Smith, Detroit lawyer and former banker, announced himself as a Republican congressional candidate in the 17th District this week, bringing the number of candidates to three on the GOP side.

Stanley Barker, attorney, and Dick Wakefield, former Detroit Tiger baseball player, had previously declared their intentions to run. Friends are trying to induce Mary Di Dio, former assistant prosecutor and assistant United States district attorney, to join in the race.

The 17th District now is represented in Congress by Rep. Martha Griffiths, Democrat, who will seek reelection. Mrs. Griffiths won out in 1954 over Rep. Charles G. Oakman. The shift from a long-time Republican control was by 75,000 to 68,000.

Smith has lived in the 17th District for more than 30 years and formerly managed National Bank of Detroit branches in the area. He has practiced law since 1943.

Speeding Might Revoke License

Drivers getting several speeding or reckless driving tickets in the future will face the possibility of having their licenses suspended for 30 days and taking a new examination for the license, it was pointed out this week by Police Chief Kenneth Fisher.

Secretary of State James M. Hare has notified all police agencies that motorists receiving an overdose of moving violation tickets will come under the new order. All tickets issued for speeding or reckless driving are reported to the secretary of state's office and if the state agency feels that the driver is getting too many, the motorist will receive notification that his license has been suspended 30 days and a re-examination by the Driver Improvement Section will be needed.

Chief Fisher said that the secretary of state's office probably will not call a motorist on the carpet for one or perhaps two violations. But there is no set rule, making the order flexible. Hare wrote Chief Fisher that in spite of increased appropriations to promote highway safety, traffic deaths are rising at an appalling rate, making the re-examination order necessary.

Only Third of Township Dogs Have '56 Licenses

Two dog clinics were held in Plymouth township but only a third of the 750 dogs are licensed and vaccinated, it was stated by Supervisor Roy Lindsay.

This means that when the June 1 deadline comes around, there will be many dog owners in line for tickets which will cost them $4, in addition to purchasing the license and paying for the rabies shot.

"It is not fair for some people to buy licenses and not others," Lindsay added. He promised that a check will be made for all unlicensed dogs after June 1. Last year there were more than 100 violation tickets issued.

Swainson Speaks Before Democrats

Plymouth Democrats heard State Senator John Swainson assert last Friday that virtually every piece of progressive legislation put forth by Governor Williams during the last session was either reluctantly passed by the Republican dominated legislature or watered down to the extent that it became virtually ineffective.

"What matter who gets credit for legislation passed," the state senator declared, "just so it is good for the people and the state of Michigan?" Swainson also discussed the impact that the St. Lawrence Seaway will have on the people in this area and what we must do to prepare for and insure that we derive the greatest possible benefit from its completion.

Plymouth Party Chairman Orville Tungate termed it "highly gratifying" to see the many faces at the meeting. He stressed that the people owe it to themselves and their country to see that those who have the interest of the people at heart are elected to office. "An informed voter is a good voter and the place to become informed is at the party meeting," he added.

Canton Fire Department Quells Smoking Chimney

Canton township fire department was comparatively inactive over the weekend as only one alarm was raised. It was a chimney fire at the home of Walter Schwinn, 7984 Beck, with no damage resulting.

The Canton unit received the call at 10 a.m. Sunday. At the scene firemen used a hand extinguisher to halt the smoking spot clogged in the chimney. The department returned to the Canton hall at 10:30.

Superstition never contributes to the unfolding of truth.

GETTING ACQUAINTED with her job as the new township clerk is Mrs. Rosalind Broome, 9065 Lilley road. She was appointed to the position last week taking over in place of Norman Miller, who resigned recently due to ill health. Miller had been township clerk since 1932. Mrs. Broome's term will expire next April. A lifetime resident of Plymouth, Mrs. Broome is the daughter of the late Walter Postiff, former township justice of the peace.

Three Youths Arrested For Possessing Beer

Three Detroit youths arrested in Plymouth early Sunday morning have been charged with possessing alcoholic beverages and may point out the store in which they purchased it.

The three bought the beer someplace in Detroit and they have been turned over to Detroit police with the promise to find the store. They appeared before Judge Nardino Perlongo and at first refused to cooperate in naming the store, but later changed their minds.

Ronald Klabor, 17, was driving when police stopped him for reckless driving at 2:30 a.m. Beer was then found in the car and Klabor and Kenneth Sylvester, 17, and Ronald Twolk, 18, were jailed. A juvenile was released to his parents. Klabor is also charged with reckless driving.

The U. S. Naval Academy will award a bachelor of science degree to Thomas C. Benson on June 1 at the colorful Annapolis "June Week" ceremonies. Benson was graduated from Plymouth high school. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Benson, now reside at 12621 West Outer drive.

March of Dimes Campaign Total Hits New High

Wayne County's 1956 March of Dimes was the best ever conducted since the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis was set up 18 years ago. Charles L. Gehring, who acted as campaign director announced today that the final audited figures total $778,265—an increase of more than 11 per cent over the 1955 March of Dimes.

Detroit contributed $596,875 and the 37 communities in the county outside of Detroit a total of $181,390. Plymouth's total was $5,056.23. The local drive was headed by Mrs. Harry Bartel.

"We are grateful to everyone who contributed," Gehring said. "The public who gave generously and voluntarily, the hundreds of volunteers without whom there could be no March of Dimes and the newspapers, radio and TV stations who gave the facts on the progress of the fight against polio to the public."

Gehring pointed out that when the National Foundation was incorporated to lead, unify and direct the fight against polio, scientists said that it might take 100 years to solve the problem. In the short space of 18 years the development of the Salk vaccine has dramatically dented the pattern of polio's attack on mankind.

The people of America can thank themselves for this progress, Gehring pointed out. They gave the money which made it possible.

In reviewing the campaign, special mention was made of the part played in 1956 by TAP—Teens Against Polio. In Wayne County approximately $10,000 was raised by teen agers. Largest single special event was the Fashion Extravaganza which realized $10,000. It was sponsored for the third year by leading negro club and church women.

"We've always given the facts to the public," Gehring concluded, "and the results show that the public has confidence in the National Foundation. The March of Dimes is truly a community project in which people of all ages and all stations take part."

- Other total returns from Wayne county were as follows:
- Allen Park, $8,522.87; Belleville, $3,370.12; Canton Twp., $592.71; Dearborn, $26,553.19; No. Dearborn Twp., $3,114.94; So. Dearborn Twp., $2,408.47; Detroit, $596,875; Ecorse, $2,999.01; Flat Rock, $1,992.93; Garden City, $7,832.27; Gibraltar, $1,010.00; Grosse Pointe, $3,146.47; Grosse Pointe Farms, $3,998.01; Grosse Pointe Park, $4,431.89; Grosse Pointe Woods and Grosse Pointe Shores, $7,542.17; Hamtramck, $3,803.23; Harper Woods, $6,938.60; Highland Park, $9,702.77; Inkster, $4,421.44; Lincoln Park, $7,189.78; Livonia, $9,835.53; Melvindale, $1,899.71; New Boston & Huron Twp., $2,012.44; Northville, $2,705.22; Redford Twp., $1,896.20; River Rouge, $3,755.06; Rockwood, $864.12; Romulus, $2,782.06; Sumpter & Sumpter Twp., $255.55; Taylor Center & Twp., $4,682.54; Trenton, $3,518.43; Wayne, $12,818.67; Wyandotte, Ecorse Twp., and Riverview, $17,769.13.

National Honor Society to Install Sixteen High School Students

Sixteen Plymouth high school students will be initiated into the first local chapter of the National Honor Society Monday evening at a special candlelight installation service.

Plymouth high school was recently issued a charter to the society by the National Association of Secondary School Principals. The honorary society recognizes outstanding eleventh and twelfth grade students.

The new organization will be sponsored by teachers of the high school under the chairmanship of Walter Goodwin. Assisting Mr. Goodwin will be Louise Spence, Irene Walldorf and Barbara Waters. To be eligible for membership in the National Honor Society students must have maintained a "B" average from the ninth grade and must never have had a "D" on their report cards. Teachers then rate the students according to service, leadership and character. Only those with above average ratings are accepted for membership.

The installation services will be conducted by the Ypsilon chapter and will begin at 7:45 p.m. at the high school auditorium. The public is welcome to attend.

Of the 19 students invited to join the honorary organization the following 16 accepted and will be initiated.

Eleventh graders—Shirley Austin, Ann Goddard, Wayne Huber,

Only 100 Dogs Tagged At Lask Week's Clinic

Either there will be a lot of business at the city hall this Friday and Saturday or there will be a lot of $5 fines for unlicensed dogs. That is the word from the Plymouth police department where last Saturday only 100 dogs were vaccinated and licensed.

The clinic will again open its doors this Friday and Saturday from 9 a.m. until noon and 1 to 5 p.m. Deadline for obtaining licenses is June 1.

It is estimated that there are 300 dogs in the city, leaving 500 which must still be tagged and vaccinated for rabies. All licenses are $2 and the vaccination is another $2. Dogs found unlicensed after June 1 will mean an automatic fine of $5 for their owners.

Navy Mothers Elect Officers

Mrs. Erma McLean was elected president of the Plymouth Navy mothers club at a recent meeting. She and other officers will join 10 other Michigan Navy Mothers clubs on May 24 for a joint installation.

Others taking office will be Mrs. Rebecca Erdelyi, first vice-president; Mrs. Thelma Phalen, adjutant; Mrs. Alma Bridge, assistant adjutant; Mrs. Edna Burger, finance officer; Mrs. Mable Donohue, chaplain; Mrs. Leona Schomberger, color bearer, American; Mrs. Nora Donovan, color bearer, Navy Mothers; Mrs. Glade Barber and Mrs. Joan Sackett, matron at arms.

June 22 is the date set for the club's rummage sale at the Veterans Community Center. Members are urged to gather their items for the sale.

On Sunday, May 27, memorial church services will be at the Catholic church. Members will meet at 11:30 for the noon mass. Members are also being urged to attend the Memorial day services on May 30 at 10 a.m. at the Plymouth road bridge. Meeting time for this event is 9:30 a.m.

Addressing of Parcels On One Side Stressed

Confusion arises because some mailers place the name and address of the addressee either with or without the sender's return address on two or more sides of the parcel, Postmaster George Timpona declared this week.

The practice sometimes causes parcels to be rated postage due before it is discovered that the postage has been affixed to the other side. The markings on parcels sent as special handling, special delivery, insured or COD mail are likely to be overlooked.

The postmaster points out that mailers are being asked to refrain from this practice in the future. Only in the case of baby chick shipments where boxes are stacked on top of each other are dual addresses desired.

Postmasters are being asked by the post office department to cross out additional addresses on parcels except those on chick boxes.

Livonia Kiwanians Plan Weekend Rodeo Event

Livonia Kiwanians are having their second annual Rodeo and Horse Show this Saturday and Sunday at the Lone Pine Stables, West Six Mile road near Middlebelt.

There will be point approved rodeo events during both the days with a special feature being a cash prize of not less than $150 being offered to anyone riding a bucking bronco named Farmer for 10 seconds.

Contestants for the rodeo events are coming as far away as St. Louis and Wisconsin.

The candidates are now telling voters how they'll cure today's ills, and there is something to what they say—about ten percent.

Now is the time to buy that Government bond, instead of buying that useless gadget you wanted.

Grange Cleanings

We had a very enjoyable meeting last Thursday evening and a fine attendance. The talk given by Mr. George Schoeneman from the Fire Department was very interesting and gave us all confidence that we will be taken care of in case of need. The little tableau was pretty, those taking part were Louise Hutton, the mother; Loretta Wilson, the daughter and George Loomis, the son.

The Memorial service for our departed members was lovely and well conducted by our Chaplain, Mollie Tracy.

There were eleven members of our Grange who went up to Ray Mettetal's to the Lily Club last Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. John Hawk and Mr. and Mrs. Miller of South Lyons were also present, so after a bountiful supper, there were four tables of Pedro, a pleasant evening was enjoyed by everybody.

We of the Grange extend our sympathy to our sister and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Woods on the death of Mrs. Woods Mother, Mrs. Ada Landis who has been a well known resident of this community for many years. She has been in very poor health for a long time. She was a very fine person and had many friends.

Our next meeting will be on June 7th, with the usual pot luck supper, it is suggested that we add a little extra portion to our dish of food because we will have several guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vealey were shocked to receive the news on Thursday of the sudden death of Mr. Vealey's sister Mrs. Tom Braddurn of Belleville. The funeral was on Sunday at the Uhl funeral home in Wayne, those

Beneficiaries Not Named for Social Security

Question and answers on social security are answered in The Mail in cooperation with the Detroit-Northwest Social Security office, 14600 Grand River, Detroit 27, Michigan. Readers are invited to send their questions directly to the Plymouth Mail.

1. I would like to change the beneficiary of my social security. My wife died so I want my son to get the social security after I'm gone. How can I do this? G. R. H.

Answer: You do not name a beneficiary for social security. If there is no surviving widow or child under 18, then a lump-sum death payment can be made to the person or persons who paid the burial expenses. The lump sum may be as much as three times the insured person's old-age insurance amount, but not more than $255.00.

2. My father owns 60 acres which I farm. We have the land on shares and I give him half. Can he come under social security? D. C. M.

Answer: Your father is not a self-employed farmer covered by the social security law. Income received from share-farming is considered rentals and is excluded from earnings that count for social security purposes.

3. Can I draw my social security and unemployment insurance at the same time? Should I wait for the unemployment to run out? A. M. K.

Answer: You may apply for social security payments even though you are receiving unemployment compensation. For information on social security, contact the social security office. For information concerning unemployment insurance contact the Employment Security Commission. Their address in Plymouth is 585 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

Garden Club Campaign Effort Wins State Award

A state award in recognition of their promotion of the anti-litterbug campaign here has been given to the Plymouth branch, National Farm and Garden association.

Announcement of the award was made last week at the 20th anniversary meeting at the home of Mrs. Chester Teasel, 9000 Warren road.

Mrs. George Scherman was elected president at the annual reorganization meeting. She will succeed Mrs. Arnold Samuelson. Others elected to office were Mrs. Clifford Fishbeck, vice-president; Mrs. R. G. Lorenz, second vice-president; Mrs. Edwin Zipse, recording secretary; and Mrs. Rex Hoffman, corresponding secretary.

All past presidents were honored at the 20th anniversary event and each presented a certificate. A tea preceded the business meeting.

In recognition of their first place state award for their Litterbug campaign, a certificate was presented to the club. The Garden club spent over $500 on the campaign to make the public more aware of their responsibility in keeping the community clean.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank my friends for their kindly acts shown me and also for the letters, cards and flowers sent to me while I was ill in the hospital in Ann Arbor. My full appreciation is more than words can say.
Mrs. W. S. McAllister

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of August W. Pankow who passed away one year ago May 28.
You are not forgotten loved one Nor will you ever be As long as life and memory last We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore. As time goes by, we miss you more. Your loving smile, your gentle face No one can fill you vacant place. Sadly missed by his loving wife and children

CARD OF THANKS

I would like to thank the many folks who were so kind in remembering me during my recent stay in St. Joseph's hospital. Your cards, the flowers and visits, were deeply appreciated.

MICHIGAN WEEK Chairman Harry Larsen (left) and Chamber of Commerce Secretary Ed Hart (right) took a quick check to see that all window displays heralding the event were distributed this week. They got the assurance of Druggist C. C. Wiltsie, who even helped out by holding Hart's two-year-old son, Kevin. The week-long event was observed by most local organizations and began with the Mayor's Exchange Day on Monday.

FINISHING TOUCHES were being made this week on this brick, ranch style home by members of the Plymouth Lions club. The house, located on Ball street, was started last November by members of the club as a fund raising project. Robert Erdelyi chairmaned the project. Sale of the home will be handled by the real estate office of James Latture. Proceeds will be used for the club's charitable activities.

Salem to Hold Bazaar

The Salem Extension club, Salem Union School Mothers club and Walkers Women's club will sponsor a bazaar on Saturday, June 2, proceeds of which will go towards the resuscitator fund. The events will take place at 6 p.m. in the Salem town hall and fire hall. A host of attractions will be offered young and old, including hayrides, pony rides, penny arcade, fish pond, white elephant sale, bake sale, hand-work, balloons, rummage and shooting gallery. Refreshments will also be served.

Panelists Discuss School Planning

Superintendent Russell Isbister, Board President Carl Caplin and Mrs. Esther Franklin, president of the School Community Planning group, were members of a panel that appeared before the Wayne County Association of School Boards last week.

The three representatives from the Romulus, Mason and South Redford school districts discussed the advisability of planning groups, such as has been in existence here for a number of years.

It was the local panelists' job to tell why planning groups are formed, how they are organized, relationships between the board and staff, methods of study and accomplishments. It was noted by the association chairman that there are still some boards that are unsympathetic to planning groups.

The meeting was held Thursday at Cody high school in Detroit.

Mrs. Franklin and William McCabe traveled to Northville this Monday night to assist in organizing a planning group there.

NEW IN THIS AREA

Improved SUNHEAT Furnace Oil is NOW available from ECKLES

Now for the first time in this area, fuel oil users can buy Improved Sunheat Furnace Oil.

Sun Oil Company, makers of Blue Sunoco gasoline, announces Eckles Coal & Supply Company as exclusive distributor in this area for Improved Sunheat. Sunheat is a premium furnace oil that sells at regular price.

Eckles Coal & Supply Company has served the needs of Plymouth-Northville area homeowners for more than twenty-five years. Now Bill Otwell and Bob Allison have combined their years of heating experience to give you a top-notch fuel oil service.

In addition to delivery of Improved Sunheat Furnace Oil, Bill and Bob also offer:

1. Budget Accounts
2. Printed Meter Receipts
3. 24-hour Delivery Service
4. Clean neat equipment manned by courteous drivers.
5. 24-hour Burner Service

Why Improved SUNHEAT is Better Than Ordinary Fuel Oils . . .

1. SPECIALLY TREATED TO PREVENT HARMFUL SLUDDING AND RUSTING.
2. UNIFORM BECAUSE IT'S REFINED TO RIGID SPECIFICATIONS BY SUN OIL COMPANY.
3. HIGH IN HEAT VALUE TO GIVE YOU MORE HEAT UNITS IN EVERY GALLON.

Social Notes

Mrs. David Cameron was pleasantly surprised last Wednesday evening when members of her Wednesday evening bridge club arrived at her home in Plymouth Colony to honor her at a "bon Voyage" party. Mrs. Cameron left Monday for a several weeks visit in Europe. She will spend some time with the late Mr. Cameron's sister in Paris France.

The Plymouth, Allen and Robinson Extension groups are sponsoring a tea on Monday evening, May 23, at the Veteran Memorial Center starting at 7:30 p.m. All women of the Plymouth area who are interested in forming their own extension group are cordially invited. There will be slides on home decorating and Miss Eleanor Milliken of the Wayne County Extension office will speak.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lindsay of Metropolis, Illinois, spent Sunday and Monday with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartwick of Northville road. They were joined Sunday evening by Floyd Burgett and children, Jack and Judy; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackshear and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Merritt were hosts at an open house Sunday for over 40 relatives and close friends honoring their daughter, Nancy Jo who made her first communion on Sunday at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church. Guests were present from Livonia, Inkster, Detroit and Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnson held "Open House" from three to seven o'clock, Sunday in their home on Marlowe avenue entertaining about 100 guests among them being, Mrs. Herman Stone, of Long Island, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Beecher, Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Lockwood of Caro, Mr. and Mrs. George Parker of Jackson, Mrs. Edna Loree, Mr. and Mrs. Mac Weir, Mrs. Rose White and sons, Douglas and Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Skip Miller and son, David, Mr. and Mrs. Robin Robinson and two children of Detroit, Goldie Nagy of Wyandotte, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Strahan of Walled Lake. Northville guests, Mrs. Flora Upton of Ionia, sister of Mr. Johnson, who remained for a few days visit and many from Plymouth.

Seven graduates of Ithaca high school, one in 1881 and the others between 1902 and 1910, enjoyed lunch and reminiscing at the home of Edna M. Allen on Arthur street, Saturday. Present were Mrs. Anna Allen, the mother of Miss Allen, Mrs. Warren Stahl, Miss Elizabeth Seaver, a Detroit teacher, Miss Meryl Seaver, who teaches in Highland Park high, Mrs. Wood, all of Detroit; and Mrs. Sluyter of Royal Oak.

The Fediis class of the Newburg Methodist church will have a rummage sale at the church on June second beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Summer Baseball, Softball Programs Aired at Meeting

Most recent developments regarding the progress of the summer recreation softball and baseball programs were aired Tuesday, May 16, at the local recreation and adult education commission meeting held in the high school.

Among the items on the meeting agenda were reports on "present interest" in the two softball leagues, play in which is expected to get underway sometime the week of June 4. The two leagues are class "A" and class "B."

At that time nine teams were entered in the "A" loop reportedly and 10 in the "B" circuit. However, Herb Woolweaver, local recreation director, said last Thursday that three teams in the "A" list and one in the "B" group had withdrawn since then.

Further difficulties apparently sprouted Friday when League Supervisor Dick Huebler said that Cavalcade and Evans had also withdrawn as sponsors in the "A" conference, leaving at the close of last week only four teams in the league. One of the team entries in the "B" loop is only a possibility.

In the field of classes "D," "E," "F," and "G" baseball, the results are more promising. Seven probable sponsors have shown interest in the "D" circuit and Woolweaver said Thursday: "It looks as if we'll have the best "D" league in years." The "D" league is for 18-and-under players.

Similar reports were made regarding the "E," "F," and "G" programs, which refer to 16-and-under, 14-and-under and 12-and-under players respectively. The 12-and-under loop will be headed by Huebler while Harold Villero is in charge of the 14-and-under and Dave March supervises the 16-and-under schedule.

Reported by E. N. L.
Wife (in back seat, as moon rises over hill they are ascending) —Careful, John, here comes a one-eyed car.

Art Study Group

Will Visit Museum

A trip to the Cranbrook Art Museum, Saturday, will culminate the program of the Art Study Group of the American Association of University Women.

The group will meet for a 12:30 luncheon at Devon Gables before starting their tour, according to Mrs. Robert Nulty, study group chairman. Other club members interested in making the trip are urged to contact Mrs. Nulty. The luncheon is optional.

The trouble with many filing systems is the stuff in them.

The Reader Speaks Up

Welcomes New Publisher

Editor:

After having just read your column, "The Mail Attitude," I couldn't refrain from commenting upon Mr. Muir's letter. It is too bad a few people like Mr. Muir have to give a new Plymouthite such a welcome to our fair city. He must have had that chip on his shoulder for a good many months. I know how many nice people live in the township and he should not be used as an example of township folks. Maybe he could move a little farther out—like out of the county. Speaking as a resident of the city of Plymouth, we wish you much success and happiness in your new locality.

Who's New in Plymouth

SERVING AS A LIEUTENANT in World War II and recalled to active duty during the Korean conflict, D. E. Griffiths, 505 Parkview, has collected a number of expensive souvenirs, such as these Japanese figurines he is showing to his wife and son, David. The Griffiths moved here at Eastertime from Kansas City, Missouri where he was employed by the Ford Motor company. He now works in the comptrollers office of the Ford Livonia plant. Mr. and Mrs. Griffiths originally hailed from St. Louis.

Recent Candlelight Service Unites John Agnew-Cheri Ritter

In an impressive candlelight service Saturday evening, May 5, in St. John's Episcopal church, Miss Cheri Ritter repeated her nuptial vows to John Agnew. The Reverend David L. Davies officiated at the eight o'clock ceremony. Lighted tapers glowed softly on the altar which was graced with bouquets of white gladioli and fern.

"Ave Marie" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Ann Welsh. Cheri is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elton Ritter of Five mile road, Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. David Agnew of Hart-sough avenue are the bride-groom's parents.

Given in marriage by her father, Cheri approached the altar in a floor-length gown of nylon and Chantilly lace. The fitted bodice with long sleeves and plumed of the lace had a deep yoke of nylon ending in a Peter Pan collar of the lace. The bouffant skirt fell gracefully over a many tiered underskirt of nylon. Her half-hat of seedpearls held in place her fingertip length veil and she carried a spray of white carnations. Her only adornment was a single strand of pearls, a gift from her bridegroom.

Miss Fern Thatcher was the maid of honor. She wore a street-length gown of coral crystaletta in princess style with three-quarter length sleeves and a large bow at the back of the waistline. She wore a crown of seedpearls and carried a spray of aqua and yellow carnations.

The bridesmaids, Toni Bondi, Lee Haines, Betty Gobel and Mary Agnew, sister of the bride-groom, wore gowns fashioned like that of the maid of honor in a shade of aqua. They too wore crowns of seedpearls and carried sprays of yellow carnations.

Serving John as best man was Lee Juve. Seating the guests were Rod Juve, Ron Ritter, brother of the bride, Charles McKenna and Lawrence Wilhelmie.

Mrs. Ritter selected a dress of blue lace over taffeta with blue accessories and white hat. Mrs. Agnew wore blue crystaletta with matching taffeta duster and black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white orchids.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the VFW hall with over 250 guests attending from Plymouth, Wayne, Dearborn, Detroit, Ypsilanti, Belle-ville, Livonia, Dexter, St. Clair Shores and Canada.

For traveling to the Smokey Mountains, the new Mrs. Agnew wore a brown dress with matching coat and beige accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Both John and his bride are graduates of Plymouth high school. John is employed with the Utilities company and Mrs. Agnew is in the office of the A.A.A. They will make their home at 325 Blanche street, Plymouth.

THIRTY-FOUR THIRD GRADERS in Mrs. Florence Leyanna's class at Smith school capped a year-long social study project last week when they presented a skit to the rest of the school children. The skit, written and dramatized by the youngsters, portrayed "Pioneer Children of America." It included art, dancing and music. Most of the costumes were made by the children, themselves. Pictured here are four of the participants with their teacher. From left: Lynda Wilson (Dutch girl), Mrs. Leyanna, Judy Palmer (Indian maid), Phillip Hruska (medicine man) and Jimmy Lee (Pilgrim).

Social Notes

Mrs. Donald Melow, Mrs. George Britcher, Mrs. Leslie Evans, Mrs. Carl Hartwick, Miss Sarah Gayde, Miss Hildur Carlson, Mrs. Walter Packer and Miss Elsie Melow were guests Tuesday evening of last week in the home of Mrs. T. L. Sullivan on White Lake.

Mrs. Roy N. Leemon plans to attend a luncheon Friday in the home of Mrs. Frank Tyler in Detroit.

The ladies of St. Peter's Lutheran church are sponsoring a bake sale to be held at Dunning's on Forest avenue, Friday, May 25 beginning at 9:30 a.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Donnelly of Ann Arbor trail, with Mrs. Donnelly's parents of Rochester, attended the Campus Day festivities at Alma College last Wednesday when their daughter, Joan was crowned Campus Queen.

Cecil Owens of Northville road is confined to St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, where he underwent major surgery on Tuesday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Horen of Maceday lake, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage and son, Jim, of Clemons drive and Miss Mary Lou Foote attended an open house Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage, Jr. in Garden City, in celebration of their son, Michael, on his birthday.

Lawrence Money Elected Historical Society President

Lawrence Money was elected as president of the Plymouth Historical Society at the eighth annual meeting to succeed Mrs. Flora Rathburn. This was the last meeting until Thursday, September 13.

Also elected to office were Karl Starkweather, first vice-president; Edna Campbell, second vice-president; Ina Culver, third vice-president; and Roderick Cassidy, treasurer.

The dinner meeting was held in the banquet room of St. John's Episcopal church. Fletcher Campbell, a member of the club, entertained the group with color slides made during a trip by her and his wife through Yellowstone National park, Oregon and Washington.

Meetings of the society are held the second Thursday of each month with no meetings held in June, July and August. The society was organized in the fall of 1948 and has functioned regularly ever since. Its purpose is to encourage local historical study and research and to preserve the traditions of the past.

Because what goes on in Plymouth is tomorrow's history, a certain amount of recording of current events goes on. To aid in this work, an appeal is being made to all interested persons to join the society in the future.

Roy N. Leemon of Ann Arbor road left by plane Sunday to attend a machine show in Los Angeles, Calif., planning to be away for several days.

Concert at Madonna 89th Birthday Observed By Mrs. Emma Feigley

Madonna college will present its Annual Spring Concert on May 27 at 7:30 in De Sales Auditorium. The program will feature piano selections, vocal solos and trios. Among the musical selections are: "Revolutionary Etude" by Chopin; "Rhapsody No. 2" and "Traumeret" by R. Strauss; "Arabesque on the Beautiful Blue Danube" by J. Strauss; "Scenes from Childhood" by Schumann; Debussy's "Gollivog's Cake Walk" and Scott's "Lotus Land." The public is invited, free of admission.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Foley of Priscilla Lane plan to attend a dinner-dance Friday evening being given by the alumni of Marygrove College at the Bonnybrook Country club. On Saturday Mrs. Foley will join her class of 1946 at a luncheon at Menjous and the alumni meeting at Marygrove College on McNichols road.

Mrs. Emma Feigley, mother of Mrs. Karl Starkweather, and who resides with Mr. and Mrs. Starkweather at 711 Starkweather avenue, celebrated her 89th birthday on Friday, May 18. She has been a legal resident of four states, Indiana, North Dakota, Colorado and Michigan.

At the age of 89, Mrs. Feigley continues reasonably well. Although her part outdoor working days are past, she still enjoys and cares for her house plants, sews, crochets, pieces quilts, looks after her two parakeets, reads her Bible, writes letters to old friends, helps out in kitchen and lately has become an avowed TV addict.

Mrs. Feigley is one of two remaining of seven brothers and sisters. She also has two living daughters, 12 living grandchildren and 28 great grandchildren.

Two Women Represent Plymouth at AEA Meet

Representing the Plymouth recreation department at the second annual adult education association of Michigan conference at East Lansing yesterday were Mrs. J. R. Witwer, 593 Edison, and Mrs. William S. Graham, 573 Edison.

Mrs. Witwer was the keynote speaker for the Plymouth panel, which began at 2:30 p.m. The conference, a two-day affair which is also in motion today, was held in Kellogg Center on the Michigan State university campus there.

The subject of the Plymouth panel, one of seven such groups representing 12 Michigan communities, was "Recreation and Leisure time." Other panels presented topics such as aging, health, home and family living and community action.

Mrs. Witwer is connected with the adult recreation program in Plymouth and Mrs. Graham is the recreation office secretary. The two women presented a discussion and question and answer period.

Jr. Vice Commander Dorothy Kai was endorsed by the Post as a candidate for the office of Department Historian. Congratulations to Dr. A. Leo Speers who was accepted into the membership at this meeting.

As many members as possible are urged to turn out on Friday, May 25, Poppy Day to aid in the selling of Poppies. We are all pledged to this one big obligation of the year.

The Auxiliary will have the opportunity to show off their new official headwear at the Memorial Services on Sunday and again during the Memorial Day Parade on Wednesday. We think they are very nice!

The Junior members of the Auxiliary held their Mother's Day Tea at the Community Centers on Sunday afternoon, May 20. The affair was well attended and the Juniors are doing themselves proud. Gold Star Mothers were the Guests of Honor.

Remember to fall out for the Parade on Memorial Day and be sure your flag is on display at your home and your place of business.

Let's all go forth on Buddy Poppy day, proud of our Buddy poppies and their purpose, and determined to make this the greatest Buddy Poppy Day in history. Please remember it is important that Buddy Poppy Day workers look attractive, smile and say "Thank You" for large and small donations alike. The disabled veterans have done their part in making the poppies—the rest is up to us.

A bake sale is being given by the membership committee June 2 at Kresge's Store. If you have a preference on your donation, please call Chairman LeMay Smith, 1858M, or President Helen Bowring, 3078-J. Otherwise, you will be contacted before that date.

The Auxiliary is again sponsoring Girl Scout Troop Number One this year. On June 13, the troop is planning a trip to Bob-Lo. This trip is going to be sponsored by the Auxiliary. The Auxiliary received a citation of merit for a contribution to the American Museum of Immigration to help establish a shrine at the foot of the Statue of Liberty.

The United Nations meeting was held May 10 at the City Hall. The Mayflower Post was represented by Ray Danol and William Norman. The Auxiliary was represented by Helen Bowring and Marion Warner. The V. F. W. was one of forty organizations that had a program pertaining to United Nations.

A trip was made Wednesday to the Veterans hospital in Ann Arbor by the hospital committee. Movies were shown to the men after which refreshments were served to the men by the following ladies: Chairman Mildred Dely, President Helen Bowring, Lucinda Archer, Ellen Hokenson and Beverly Brown.

Don't forget the Memorial Service Sunday May 27 at 12:00 at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church.

Flags will be placed on the graves May 26. If you know of a grave of a veteran that has been overlooked, please call 9130.

It stated in last week's article by error that a donation of $200.00 per member had been donated to cancer research. The correct amount donated was $2.00 per member.

Don't forget Buddy Poppy Day Rally Thursday May 24th at 8:00 p.m.

Legion Urges Residents To Display Flag

The American flag waving over every home and place of business on patriotic holidays is the goal of a nation-wide campaign of the American Legion and Auxiliary, it has been announced by Mrs. Fern Burleson, Auxiliary Americanism Chairman. She is urging the housewives of Plymouth to make sure that their families have a flag ready to display on Memorial Day and the other patriotic days which follow.

Days on which flags should be flown were listed by Mrs. Burleson as follows: January 1, New Year's Day; February 12, Lincoln's Birthday; February 22, Washington's Birthday; Third Saturday in May, Armed Services Day; May 30, Memorial Day; June 14, Flag Day; July 4, Independence Day; September 17, Constitution Day; and November 11, Veterans Day.

When it purrs, you reign

YOU CAN hardly hear its whispered might—but man, you sure can feel it.

It's power almost without limit—power that humbles the hills, melts the miles, makes you monarch of all you survey.

For this is a new Buick—a '56 Buick—sparked by the most potent engine in Buick annals—a 322-cubic-inch V8 with a crackling high compression of 9.5 to 1.

But what makes you feel even more like bossman of the highway is the great new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

First time you tickle the gas pedal you'll know what we mean.

Now—smack in the top inch of gas pedal travel—right where you save gas every turn of the wheels—you get a swift, sure and supremely positive new getaway response.

For smooth and nimble performance—for sheer mastery in traffic—nothing like it ever was.

And that's just part of it. When you need a still greater flow of get-up-and-go for safety's sake, you merely switch the pitch and you zoom out of tight spots.

So come rule the roost in this '56 Buick.

Come drive a car with 127 gorgeous inches of wheelbase to give it regal room and a ride that's fit for a king.

Try out Buick's new steering—new center-grooved brakes—new direct-acting shock absorbers with triple the former volume of jounce-cushioning oil.

Learn how it feels to boss a car that looks like royalty and acts the part to perfection.

We promise—you'll practically purr with delight at the wheel of this dazzler—especially when you discover how easily you can make it your own.

What do you say—shall we expect you today?

OUTDOOR NOTES from the Michigan Department of Conservation

Legislative approval of a bill to give deer management to the Conservation Commission brought expressions of appreciation from the Commission and the Conservation Department.

"Frankly, we are very encouraged by the confidence the people and their legislators have shown in us," said Commission Chairman Robert F. Brevitz. "Management of such important resources as our deer herd and its range is a major responsibility. We welcome this responsibility."

Conservation Director Gerald E. Eddy gave assurance that authority granted the Commission would not be abused.

"We will proceed carefully in setting up special areas and in establishing quotas," Eddy said. "And before decisions are reached, the people will be given the opportunity to present their points of view."

It is impossible at this time to predict what control measures will be necessary next fall. Such determinations cannot be made until late summer when studies of this year's deer situation are completed. This much we can say however, if special regulations are indicated they will be based solely on sound game and deer range management principles.

Conservation law violations reported during the last week listed 177 violators who were assessed $1023 in fines and an additional $607 in court costs. Money from fines goes to the State Library Fund.

Several convictions on the latest report were for burning without a permit or for carelessly setting grassland fires which injured or endangered another person's property.

A permit is needed when burning brush, grass or debris outside city or village limits. Permits can be obtained from any conservation officer, fire officer or forest fire lookout.

made from the Game Protection Fund.

The land purchased in Lake county is considered an exceptional tract from a game standpoint. It contains two small, shallow lakes and marshland suitable for waterfowl and the remainder of the land is good habitat for deer and other upland game. The Houghton Lake state forest land is a segment of the prairie chicken management area approved by the Commission at its April meeting.

Four other game land additions, totaling 207 acres, were approved by the Commission and will be purchased under the Pittman-Robertson program. These additions include 78 acres at Middleville state game area, 49 acres at Ross Lake wildlife experiment station, 40 acres at Shiawassee River state game area and 40 acres at Deford state game area.

operating with the state Office of Civil Defense in tornado areas. Department personnel were alerted at all field offices, district offices and equipment stations in southern Michigan. Conservation officers and fire officers supplied Civil Defense authorities with information on tornado reports and damage.

Bernard (Red) Crothers, radio dispatcher at Lansing, was on duty all weekend and handled close to 100 radio messages and dozens of telephone calls relating to tornado conditions.

Conservation officer Walter Mutchler of Mason was assigned to the Civil Defense office and operated a mobile radio unit, connecting Conservation Department communications with Civil Defense forces.

Ivan Kesten, conservation officer at Flint, used his mobile radio unit to relay tornado reports to the Department's Imlay City office when winds knocked down telephone lines and radio towers at Flint.

Conservation Department personnel also cooperated with local authorities and State Police in tornado zones and dispatched emergency equipment to damaged areas.

"Mushrooms and Toadstools," a handy guide for mushroom hunters, is available now from the Conservation Department.

The pamphlet, written by R. D. Burroughs of the Department, contains descriptions and illustrations of edible mushrooms. Description of poisonous varieties also are given, as a safety guide for mushroom hunters.

The free publication can be obtained by writing to: Conservation Department Publications, Lansing 26.

Land acquisitions approved by the Commission included fishing sites at Lake Arlein, Marquette county; Green Lake, Antrim county; and Noe Lake, St. Joseph county.

The Commission also approved purchase of 120 acres, mostly marshland, in Lake county and 80 acres at Houghton Lake state forest in Missaukee county. Payment for these game lands will Fire control forces, with a welcome assist from wet weather, held fire damage down to 57 acres during the last week in Michigan.

Thirty-two fires were reported, 27 in the upper peninsula. The bulk of the losses also occurred in the U.P. where fires damaged 47 acres of forests and grasslands. Hardest hit area was the Crystal Falls district which included Iron, Dickinson and Menominee counties in the U.P. Nine fires in the district damaged almost 40 acres.

The Conservation Department's vast communications network was on emergency duty throughout the May 11-13 weekend, ceasing only for a few minutes.

TELEPHONE lines

WE CERTAINLY get a kick out of teen-agers. It's a fascinating time of life for them and for parents, too. Take the matter of telephone conversations. Is anything more earnest, more confidential, more important? That's probably why telephones right in teen-agers' rooms have proved so popular. The youngster is able to speak in relaxed privacy. And the rest of the family isn't distracted from what it's doing. An extension phone in your teen-ager's room will cost about $1 a month. And by the way, they make very welcome graduation gifts.

EVER BEEN CAUGHT when you wanted to make a phone call but couldn't because all the places with public phones were closed for the night? You'll usually find the answer now in new outdoor phone booths, lighted and open 24 hours a day, every day of the year. You'll find them handy wherever you are. About 2,800 of them are now located in Michigan towns and on main highways, and many more are on the way to make a telephone available for you—any time—in the most convenient places.

WHAT DO YOU DO with the workshop tools that get badly damaged or worn? Toss them in the trash can? Here at the telephone company we send work-worn tools to the Detroit repair shops of Western Electric, manufacturing and supply unit of the Bell System. They are returned to our telephone installers, repairmen and construction people as good as new. Is this better than buying new tools? You bet. Tool repairs save us thousands of dollars a year. That's the kind of economy that helps keep down the cost of telephone service.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

On Friday evening, May 18, a shower was given in honor of Mrs. Wayne Rubey at the Veterans Memorial Center by members of Senior Scout troop.

The beautifully decorated table and the delicious refreshments added to the festivity of the occasion. Mrs. Sheldon Baker is the leader of Troop 1.

Susan Larkin reports that Intermediate Troop 3 enjoyed a May party on May 7 at the Presbyterian church when Janet Fair's Beaver patrol entertained Carolyn Scott's Daisy patrol. Games were played and punch and cookies were served. On May 14 the troop members made sketch maps for their back yard camper's badge, after which they had a short patrol meeting at the Kiwanis Girl Scout lodge. Mrs. William Edgar and Mrs. E. P. Light are troop leaders.

On May 14, Mrs. Barbour, Mrs. Haynes, Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Shirey acted as a board of review for Intermediate Troop 6.

Following this, games were played and refreshments served. Delia Bradley is the reporter for Troop 6 and Mrs. M. Canine and Mrs. Woodrow Tichy are leaders.

Sandra Keefe reports that Intermediate Troop 21 had a sewing bee on May 8 at their troop meeting. They repaired clothes to fulfill one of the requirements for their seamstress badge. On May 15 and 22 troop members appeared before a board of review which examined the work they have done during the year. The girls are planning an overnight in tents for May 25 and 26. They are taking two Senior Scouts along to help them with their camping skills and to teach them new action songs. Mrs. Lloyd England and Mrs. Wayne Rubey are troop leaders.

Mrs. Harold Shirey announces that Saturday, May 26, is the final Saturday for Girl Scout Swimming at the Plymouth High school pool.

Thinclads in Allen Park For League Meet Today

Plymouth's track team travels to Allen Park's oval this afternoon to take part in the Suburban Six league annual track meet there, the winner of which becomes conference champ for 1956. The field events begin at 3 p.m. and the track competition starts at 3:45.

The Rocks will be represented by their three best competitors in each of the 13 events. Said Coach Keith Baughman in answer to pre-meet chances for the Plymouth cindermen: "No comment."

Plymouth thus far this season has beaten Allen Park, Belleville, and Bentley and lost decisions to Redford Union (by seven points) and Trenton (20 points).

A young policeman was undergoing an examination. "Now assume," said the examiner, "that you were walking along a scheduled path, and a young woman rushed up to you and reported that a strange man had embraced and kissed her, what would you do?"

"Well, sir," said the candidate. "I would do several things. But first, with the young lady's assistance, I think I would endeavor to reconstruct the crime."

Rocks Tag Thurston, But Bow to Redford Union

Winning one game with ease and losing another in extra innings last week earned the Rocks an even split in two baseball battles, thereby keeping them above the 500 mark in won-lost percentages.

Plymouth bowed 3-2 to Redford Union on Friday in nine tightly fought innings to lose a close contest. But the locals rebounded to take a 5-1 decision from visiting Thurston in a Saturday afternoon tilt. The split left Plymouth with a .43 mark for the year as of Monday.

However the loss to RU eliminated the Rocks entirely from the Suburban Six league pennant chase in which they rest now as a one-time contender. It also erased all chances of the local athletic contingent holding on to any of the three sports crowns captured in an unprecedented sweep during the previous year.

Neither the football nor the basketball squads were able to retain the titles that their predecessors had won during 1954-55. As went Plymouth's gridgers and the baseball team, so now goes the basketball team.

Redford Union's victory over the Rocks continued the Panthers' mastery of the league. It left them with a spotless record at the end of last week at which time they had put together a skein of nine straight wins against no defeats.

The victory over Thurston acted as an equalizer for Plymouth and gave Coach Charlie Ketterer an opportunity to test his bench. Ketterer tried three pitchers and all three proved equal to the task. Bob Clear started the proceedings, went four innings and allowed two hits. Newcomer Dick Figgis twirled the fifth and Ken Knipschild toiled the sixth and seventh, allowing one hit and an unearned run.

The Rocks sewed things up in their very first time at bat. Three hits provided as many runs and sufficient margin to bring home the victory. In the fifth Plymouth garnered three more hits and shoved across two more runs.

Thurston could manage only three baseknocks. None of these figured in the visitors' lone tally. In the sixth, two walks and two errors allowed a run to score, thus averting a shutout.

Winning pitcher was Clear, the starter. Loser was Thurston's Bob McGilvary.

At the plate Plymouth collected a lustrous total of nine hits. Biff Tait and Ken Calhoun led their teammates with two for three, while Paul Cummings, Jack Carter, Jerry Foreman, Dave Grow and Knipschild each contributed single hits.

But such ease was not to be found when the Rocks faced Redford Union a day earlier.

At that time both teams jockeyed up in a tight duel, which found the clubs at a 2-2 standstill as the game came to its regular playing length. However Plymouth had carried a 2-1 edge into the final frame.

Redford Union tied it snugly when with two outs and a man on first the next Panther doubled tossing the tilt into extra frames. In the top of the ninth the Rocks moved men to first and third with two outs.

However careless base maneuvering may have cost the locals the game. Jerry King, on third base, was picked off by Redford Union's hurler John Nissen to squelch the last Plymouth threat.

In the bottom of the ninth the Panthers hauled in the decision. With one out a Panther singled and in short order the next batter doubled down the left field line, driving over the winning run and completing the engagement.

Two doubles in the first inning accounted for one of Redford Union's runs and a single and double in the seventh wound up the visitors' scoring.

Plymouth bunched four of its five hits in the fifth to take a scant 2-1 lead, only to see it fade in the seventh and fall away in the ninth as Redford Union staged its winning rally.

It was a tough one for Plymouth's pitcher Biff Tait to lose. He went the route and gave up only six hits. However the difference was that four of these knocks were doubles. Tait fanned nine. Winner was Nissen.

Other games on the Rocks' agenda this week include a contest with Allen Park there tomorrow, at Thurston on Saturday and a penton on Monday. Last Tuesday, if weather permitted, Plymouth faced Bentley on the local diamond. Yesterday the locals took on Allen Park here. Results were not available.

Local Dog Wins Three Ribbons at Sunday Show

Three ribbons were won by a Plymouth dog Sunday at a dog show held at the Detroit Armory on Eight Mile road.

Michaels Crown Prince, a Dalmation owned by Mr. and Mrs. Al Belleville, 1530 Canton Center road, was the three time winner. The dog won the first place ribbon, winner's ribbon and Best of opposite sex ribbon. The dog has won many prizes in other shows.

... And the Rains Came

The Plymouth high school baseball game against Allen Park Tuesday afternoon, May 15, here was called at the end of two innings because of rain. The Rocks at the time were leading 3-0. Consequently the contest was postponed. It was played yesterday.

All for Naught

Only Plymouth thinclad competing in the annual class "A" state track and field meet last Saturday at Perry Field in Ann Arbor was Paul Cummings, who cleared 5'11" in the high jump. Although his leap placed him sixth in the event, he failed to capture any points for the Rocks.

Golfers Engulfed By Ypsi, 346-384

Plymouth's golfers absorbed one of their worst trouncings of the current season last Friday when Ypsilanti whalloped the locals 346-384 in an 18-hole contest waged at Washtenaw country club.

Medalist for the round was Ypsi's Bill Dobbs, who fired an 82 over the par-72 arrangement. Low scorer for the Rocks was Staton Lorenz who carded an 89, four strokes better than teammate Bill Rambo.

Other scorers on the Plymouth contingent were Tom Carmichael, who seemed to lose his touch for this one and was forced to settle for 96, and Gary Wilson with 106.

The local linksmen took on Northville's team at Idyl Wyld Monday and yesterday faced Dearborn at Warren Valley. Results were not available as the sports section neared presstime.

Merchants Nip Northville, 2-1 In Inaugural

Don Thomson's steal of home in the bottom of the eighth, thereby carrying the winning run across, sent the Plymouth Merchants off to a merry start in their opening game of the Inter-County sand-lot baseball season last Sunday.

The Merchants squeaked out a 2-1 victory over visiting Northville on the diamond in Riverside Park. The decision placed the locals atop the initial standings, yet tied with three other league members.

Other Inter-County inaugural battles featured Romulus in an 8-6 nod over Saline, Lincoln Park in a 6-2 win against Club Supino and River Rouge in a 21-2 run-away over Pressler.

An error opened the door to the Merchants' winning edge in the last half of the eighth inning. Doug Fairbanks' grounder was booted by Northville first baseman Ed Caralon, allowing Fairbanks to gain base safely.

Thomson singled, Fairbanks moving to second. Jim Greenwood's hopper was turned into a fielder's choice, cutting down Fairbanks at third, but Fritz Kessler kept the rally going with a perfect bunt which loaded the sacks.

Thomson stole home as Northville hurler Wally Dzurus took an lengthy wind-up. The play, as planned, was actually a squeeze but the Plymouth batter missed the pitch. Still Thomson had room to score.

Northville scored first in the top of the sixth on a three-base error and a sacrifice fly. Merchants tied it up in the bottom of the same frame when walks to Chuck Tomlinson and Fairbanks and a single by Thomson provided the punch.

Thomson also had a perfect day at bat, slamming out four hits in as many trips. Winning hurler was Ed Hock, who struck out five and walked none. Loser was Dzurus, who relieved Ken Kisa-beth in the fifth. Plymouth committed two errors, Northville three.

Next game for the Merchants will be Sunday at Saline. Game time is 3:30 p.m. On Memorial day, the Plymouth squad faces Club Supino at the Northville diamond.

Reserves Trim Redford Union, 13-7 For Third Straight Diamond Victory

An explosive outburst of power, including two home runs and a triple by Larry Wells and another pair of circuit clouts off the bat of Al Runge, earned Plymouth high school's reserve baseball squad a 13-7 victory over Redford Union's JayVees last Friday.

The young Rocks trailed 6-0 going into the third when Wells got things going with his first round-tripper. From that point on the Plymouth crew was awesome in strength. The locals pounded out a total of 14 baschits and scored four runs in the third, fourth and sixth plus a single tally in the seventh. Wells accounted for four runs-batted in to pace the Plymouth attack.

Runge, in addition to his two homers, also took over the mound duties from Dick Wielmiller in the second and proceeded to limit the Redford Union batters to one lone run and only two hits.

The win was the third straight for the reserves. Earlier they had notched victories over Belleville in the opener by a 3-2 count and Trenton by a 4-1 edge. A battle against Allen Park was rained out at the end of the second with Plymouth leading 2-0. Ken Knipschild was the winner against Belleville and Dick Higgs was credited with the decision against Trenton.

Games this week include Bentley there last Tuesday, Allen Park there Wednesday and Allen Park here tomorrow.

Girl, 7, Wins at Skate Meet

Sandra Durbin, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Durbin, 36827 Joy road, is Michigan's newest tiny tot girls' free style roller skating champion. She won the title at the annual meet of the amateur roller skating association held at the Salsar Roller Rink in Lansing last weekend.

Sandra's instructor is James Tazei, Jr., of Riverside Arena, Plymouth road, where Sandra is presently skating in preparation for the national meet to be held in Chicago in July.

Nine-year-old Dixie Durbin, Sandra's sister, placed third in the juvenile ladies' singles and will also participate in the national competition. Another local winner was Janet Rollin, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd Rollin, 312 North Harvey. Janet and her partner took first place in the intra-dance division at the same meet.

Members present for the evening were, Mrs. Willard Coole, Mrs. William Doore, Mrs. Dale Foreman, Mrs. William Eastlake, Mrs. W. Fittery, Miss Dorothy Blanton, Mrs. William Kenner, Mrs. Arthur Remy, Mrs. Gene Page, Mrs. Harold Mackinder, Mrs. Henry Mende and Mrs. Raymond Peterson. The highlights of the evening was the auctioning of parcel post souvenirs which had been mailed from all parts of the United States. The packages were auctioned unopened and made the transaction that much more intriguing.

Oscar Gisser of Newburg road is home from the hospital, recuperating from a recent heart attack. All best wishes for a quick return of health is the wish of all his friends and neighbors.

A bridal shower honoring Miss Beverly Eisenhart of Ypsilanti, bride elect of Ronald Finney, was given on Friday, May 11 at the home of Mrs. Gladys Brown on Newburg road. Co-hostess for the evening was Mrs. Dorothy Brown of Ypsilanti. There were 17 guests present for an evening of games and refreshments.

The Riverside Book club, represented by 10 of its members, took a trip to Holland, Michigan on Wednesday, May 16 to attend the annual tulip festival. This was the opening day of the festival and despite the recent cold weather the tulips were in beautiful bloom. The group spent the night in a local motel and returned home on Thursday.

Don't forget, Canasta Club, card night is Tuesday, May 29 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Peterson on Ravine drive. Please advise your hostess if you will be unable to attend.

Here's Zoning Map Proposed for Plymouth Township

A PUBLIC HEARING will be held on Saturday, June 2 on this proposed zoning map for Plymouth township and a new zoning ordinance. The map shows the various zoning classifications as recommended by Waring & Johnson, planning consultants. All solid gray area is shown here as "residential" but there are actually three residential classifications, one family, country homes and estates. Also not shown is the white area (agriculture) which extends from Ridge road on the left of the map to the township boundary of Napier road. For story of public hearing, see page 1, section 1.

Joan Donnelly Reigns As Campus Day Queen

Joan Donnelly, Plymouth freshman at Alma college, was crowned Campus Day Queen at the college's annual spring festival day, Wednesday, May 16. She is Alma's twenty-third Campus Day Queen in a tradition extending back to 1933, although the celebration of such a day in May has existed on the campus since the turn of the century.

Cold weather forced the coronation ceremony in the afternoon into the gymnasium but all activities of the day came off otherwise as scheduled. In the morning were the intramural championship baseball game and freshman-sophomore tug-of-war. The all-school picnic scheduled for noon was also moved indoors by the weatherman as was the band concert after lunch.

There followed then the colorful ceremony of the crowning of the Queen, attended by the six lovely members of her court. There were the traditional Scottish dances, the Maypole dance, and presentation of gifts to the Queen by her loyal subjects. Immediately following the ceremony was the Queen's Court Reception in Tyler Center.

As is traditionally the case, the identity of the Queen is known neither to the public or the student body until just a few moments before the actual coronation, performed this year by the 1955 Queen, Sharon Sexton, sophomore from Dearborn. All freshman and sophomore women are eligible for the honor, with the seven members of the Court chosen by ballot of the entire student body. The names of the seven receiving the highest number of votes are immediately revealed but the name of the one with the highest total of these seven is kept a closely guarded secret.

After the coronation and reception was the Alma-Central Michigan baseball game, and the activities of the day came to a close with the Queen's Ball in Tyler Center in the evening, at which time the Queen and each member of her court were presented with clocks by the Student Council.

The members of the court were Dorothy McLeod of Detroit, Phyllis Dresbach of St. Louis, Janet VanCamp of Flint, Joan Moore of Lansing, and Sue Richards and Sharon Sexton of Dearborn. Phyllis Dresbach and Sharon Sexton are sophomores; all the rest are Freshmen.

Queen Joan is Alma's second queen from Plymouth this year, Miss Mary Lou Hartwick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartwick of Northville road, having reigned as Homecoming Queen last October.

Joan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Donnelly of 1298 West Ann Arbor trail.

Madonna to Graduate Twenty-Nine Sunday

Baccalaureate services for the 1956 graduation class of Madonna college will be held on Sunday, May 27, in the college chapel.

Mass at 10 a.m. will be celebrated by Fr. Charles W. Burkhardt, of Saginaw who will also deliver the baccalaureate address and confer the hoods on the graduates.

Among the 29 graduates, 28 will receive the bachelor of arts degree and one will receive the bachelor of science degree.

The parents and guests of the graduates will attend a reception following the services.

Alma College 1956 Campus Day Queen, Joan Donnelly, being crowned by 1955 Queen Sharon Sexton.

Favorite Recipes From Plymouth's Kitchens

Sampling the favorite recipe for this week is Mrs. Robert Sinkevics, 673 South Main, and her son, Richard. Mrs. Sinkevics suggests her favorite, bacon rolls, a genuine Latvian treat.

Real Latvian Recipe Offered by Mrs. Sinkevics

Bacon rolls, a genuine Latvian recipe, this week takes the spotlight as the current favorite recipe. It is offered here by Mrs. Robert Sinkevics, 673 South Main.

1 cup milk
1/3 cup butter
1/4 cup sugar
1 1/2 teaspoon salt
2 packages yeast
1/4 cup warm water
4 1/2 cups sifted flour
2 eggs
3/4 lb. lean bacon

Bring milk to boil, add butter, sugar, salt, cool to lukewarm. Sprinkle yeast over warm water; after 5 minutes stir and combine with cooled milk mixture; add beaten eggs, gradually add flour. Knead until dough is smooth and satiny and does not stick to side of bowl. Brush surface with milk, melted shortening or oil. Cover, let rise in warm place until double in bulk.

Dice bacon very fine. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Put

Social Notes

Mrs. Frank Willard of Junction avenue will be hostess at a co-operative dinner Wednesday, May 30 to members of her Birthday club.

Mrs. Harold J. Brisbois entertained Monday at a dinner for members of her Birthday club in her home on rocker street.

Home Agent Suggests Rug Safety Check

For safety underfoot consider your rugs, cautions Mrs. Nina Lou-Baird, Wayne County Home Demonstration Agent. Large areas of American homes are covered with rugs or carpeting. Floor covering with unrepaired tears or holes may mean a perilous trip for the unwary or a member of your family in haste. Yet, how many of us have checked our scatter rugs to be sure they aren't "throw rugs?"

Be careful where you use scatter rugs. NEVER use them at the top or bottom of stairways unless they are firmly anchored on all corners and in the center.

Take precautions to make scatter rugs slip-proof. There are products available in most rug or department stores. For instance, underlays, which can be in-expensive treated paper sheets may be trimmed to small rug size, or laid side-by-side under larger rugs.

A little more expensive, but effective, are anti-skid rubberized padding, moisture, dust, and mothproof rubber or composition rubber paddings.

If the edges of your rug curl, hold them down with carpet tacks. Or, try a strip of polyvinyl padding along the edge. Rubber padding is also helpful though not as slip-proof. Or, you could rebind the curled edges of the rug.

For long runners you can use carpet tacks in each end. Or, small strips of double-edge adhesive tape, gummed on both sides will tape ends and sides of such a rug to the floor.

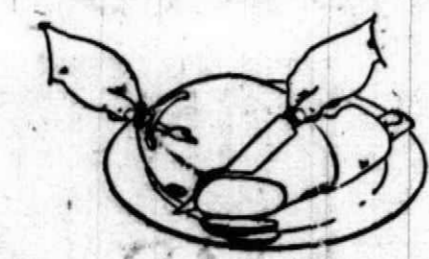

A regular rug cushion because of its resilience will also help rugs to stay put. Take a look around your house and don't let your rugs "trip" a member of your family into pain and doctor bills.

It's no crime to mix period furniture when you are furnishing a house. It is necessary, though to make sure that the design and line of the pieces harmonize.

CARVING MEAT CUTS

Baked Ham

Place the ham on the platter with the fat or decorated side up. The Shank end should be to the carver's right. The thin side of the ham, from which the first slices are made, will be nearest or farthest from the carver, depending on whether the ham is from a right or a left side of pork.

Remove slices lengthwise—Use a standard carving set or a hand saw and a carver's helper on a baked ham. Insert the fork and cut several slices parallel to the length of the ham on the nearest side.

Turn and slice to bone—Turn the ham so that it rests on the surface just cut. Hold the ham firmly with the fork and cut a small wedge from the shank end. Keep the fork in place to steady the ham and cut thin slices down to the leg bone.

Release slices—Release slices by cutting along bone at right angles to slices. Lift slices to side of platter. If platter is not large enough, have another hot platter near to receive the slices.

Additional servings—For more servings turn the ham back to its original position and slice at right angles to the bone.

"EASY DOES IT"
BY... HELEN HALE

You can cut down your weight and be slim, but you must really want to do it. If you feel psychologically ready to lose weight, then here are tips to make it easy. Cut down on your food gradually rather than drastically. Weight lost quickly doesn't help you to

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE

Oven Barbecued Chicken

(Serves 4-5)
1 frying chicken, cut up
2 tablespoons butter
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup chopped celery
1/2 cup chopped green pepper
1 cup catchup
1 cup water
2 tablespoon worcestershire sauce
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Coat chicken with 1/4 cup flour mixed with 2 teaspoons salt and brown in 1/2 cup hot lard. As pieces are browned, arrange them in casserole. Sauté onion in butter until clear. Add all other ingredients and bring to a boil. Pour over chicken. Cover and bake in a moderate (350° F.) oven for about an hour or until tender.

change your eating habits and you'll quickly gain back even more than you lost if it's done in a hurry.

Sugar substitutes will help cut down your calories. Use in tea, coffee, lemonade and desserts you make at home. If you are buying dessert mixes such as pudding or gelatin or fruit-flavored drinks, check the label to see that they are sugar-free.

Have your doctor check you regularly while you're losing as well as when you start the regime. Blood pressure and heart condition may play an important part as to the amount you can lose safely each week. It will also indicate whether you may or may not take exercise.

In most cases a six-pound load will wash better than a heavier load. Do not wash a larger load than recommended for your particular machine. A sample six-pound load might include: 1 sheet, 4 bath towels, 2 pillowcases, 1 wash cloth, 1 shirt, 1 pair pajamas, 1 slip, 1 laundry bag, 1 potholder and 2 handkerchiefs.

Best Wash Results By Sorting Clothes

You may be in a rush to get those soiled clothes into the washing machine, but don't overlook sorting them.

When sorting, place those articles together which call for the same kind of washing, the same temperature of water and have the same amount of soil, reminds home management specialist at Michigan State university.

If articles are colored, be sure the color is fast before placing them with white or pastel colored clothes. Wash white nylon, nylon and dacron alone since they easily take up color.

Soil may be just plain dirt, like soot; sand and mud, or it may be food, such as milk, eggs, gravy, fruit or vegetables. The specialist explains that the former calls for hot water, a good detergent and vigorous action. The soil from foods often calls for special treatment before washing.

The longer food stays on clothing, the harder it is to get out. Stains may result which call for special care and also may cause the fabric to deteriorate. Check and remove stains, cautions the expert. Hot water and detergent set some stains so they never can be removed.

CITY OF PLYMOUTH DOG VACCINATION CLINIC

If you live within the Plymouth City Limits and own a dog, you may have your dog vaccinated at the City Hall and obtain his license all at one time on the following dates:

SATURDAY May 19, 1956
FRIDAY May 25, 1956
SATURDAY May 26, 1956

Time each day from 9:00 to noon and 1:00 P.M. to 5:00 P.M. The clinic is under the direction of a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine and each dog will be vaccinated by him.

The fees for vaccination and license are as follows:

Vaccination . . . . . $2.00
License—regardless of sex . . . . . 2.00
TOTAL . . . . . $4.00

All dogs within the City of Plymouth must be licensed by May 31. The City Ordinance requiring licenses and vaccination was passed to prevent the spread of rabies, a disease that is always fatal to both dogs and humans, so to protect your dog, yourself and other people in the City, be sure that your dog is vaccinated and licensed.

Caring for Small Children Wins Housework Poll Among Moms

Looking after the children seems to be the favorite household chore of young mothers of pre-school children. In fact, more than half of the 100 Lansing women interviewed in a recent survey preferred taking care of their youngsters to shopping, cleaning, washing dishes, washing clothes and ironing.

Conducted by the home management department at Michigan State University, the study was begun last year to seek out some of the causes of mental fatigue of these mothers of young children. Researchers conducting the study, which is not yet completed, feel that there might be some connection between a home-maker's fatigue and her having to do a task she dislikes.

About one-tenth of the women questioned like cleaning and straightening the house best; few like shopping and washing and ironing clothes; and none of them preferred washing dishes.

The most disliked chore was ironing clothes, cites Dr. Elizabeth Wiegand, researcher carrying on the study. This is maybe because ironing is a task which often can wait and so it seems unending.

Come On Gals — Let's Get A Schedule

When everything you have planned to do doesn't get done, maybe you have tried to undertake too many things. After conducting research on why mothers of pre-schoolers get tired, Dr. Elizabeth Wiegand, of the home management staff at Michigan State, points out that a cluttered house and undone work tend to make some women frantic and frustrated.

She interviewed 100 Lansing women in her search for the answer to why mothers are fatigued. She suggested that perhaps these young mothers need help in learning how much they can expect to get done. Then, they might find their days more satisfying and less fatiguing.

A soft loaf of bread is not necessarily a fresh loaf. The old "squeeze test" is not a good measure of freshness today. Some types of bread are by nature compact and just do not become soft. Other breads remain soft for days due to the ingredients and softeners used in their manufacture, declare consumer information specialists.

Measurements of a pan, as given in recipes, are for the top inside dimensions of the pans. Depth is the vertical depth — not the length of a sloping side.

SILK AND WOOL FABRICS

The majority of silk and wool fabrics clean beautifully. Recently, however, some have failed in wear and cleaning.

When these fabrics do not give satisfaction, it may be traced to yarn and fabric construction.

The fine low twist yarns are in the lengthwise direction; the loosely twisted wool yarns in the crosswise direction.

- The silk yarns break at points of strain because of their low strength.
- The fine silk fibers work to the surface where the fabric is folded or creased; where it is subjected to abrasion.
- In some fabrics, the wool yarn works to the surface in little "pills" or "balls" of fibers.
- Some fabrics show shifting or slippage of yarns in wear and cleaning.

WILL THESE FABRICS SHRINK?
It is impossible to predict if these fabrics will shrink. Fabrics differ in construction from one manufacturer to another. Some clean without any objectionable shrinkage. Others shrink enough to make a garment fit tightly.

TIPS ON BUYING
Proper garment construction is important. Deep finished seams are desirable, since these fabrics fray excessively. Bound buttonholes made in this type of fabric may fray also. Do not fit the garment too tightly. Seams and darts may separate at the line of stitching. Select a garment design that allows freedom of movement. Strain causes the yarns to break.

Cabinet on Post

Ideal for Storing Gardening Tools

For a limited assortment of garden tools, build a cabinet and attach it to the garage or post in the garden. A good size is three feet wide, four high and one deep, with provision for a small shed roof if it's in the open.

Make the rectangle of 1" x 12" boards, rabbeting the edges forming the back so that a Masonite "Peg-Board" panel may be inserted to leave room for insertion of hooks. Then seal the back with a panel of 3/16" Tempered Presdwood to keep out rain. Caulk all joints.

Similarly make a front door for the cabinet, using 1 by 2-inch lumber for a framework covered on the outside with the Tempered Presdwood and inside with the perforated hardboard. Then both front and back, when fitted with metal hooks and fixtures, will serve as storage area for small tools.

The wooden sides may be used for hanging heavier items on hooks and eyes screwed into the lumber. A bracketed shelf on the back will provide a good spot for insecticide cans and similar supplies. Prime, paint and hang the device. A hasp and rust-proof padlock will keep the contents safe from tampering.

Open Design 'Enlarges' Attic Rooms

Use of Glass Gives Striking Effect

An attic can be converted into attractive, modern living quarters through use of design features that give new houses their appeal of openness and light.

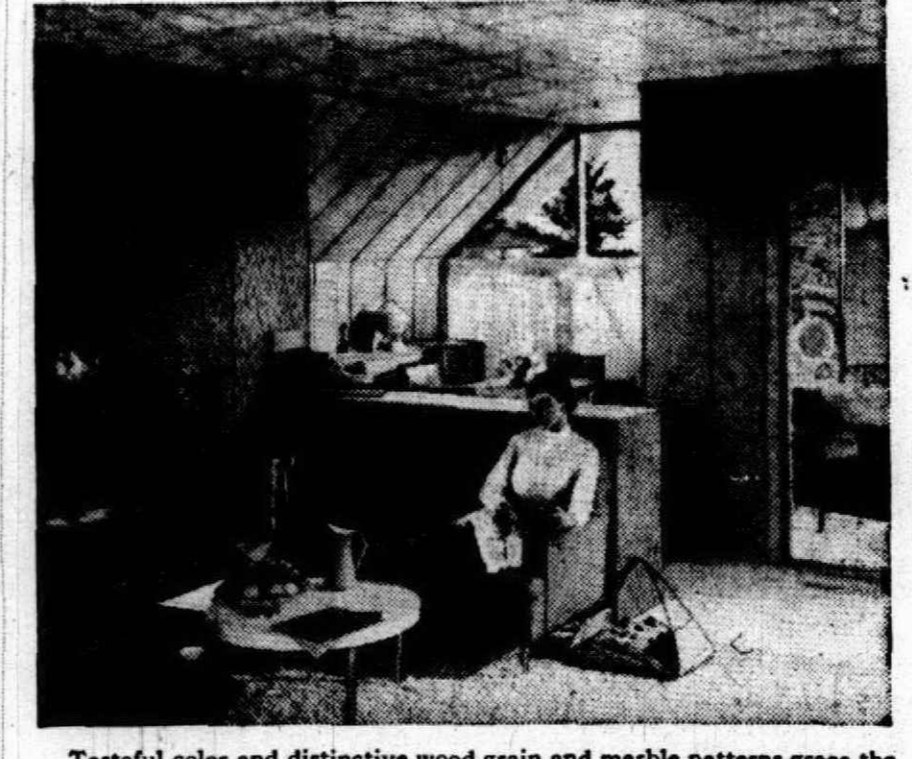

Like a new home, an attic can be made to look more spacious than it actually is by "borrowing" space. Expanses of window walls "borrow" space from the outdoors, while "see-through" room dividers instead of full-height partitions let one interior area "borrow" space from another.

A striking effect is achieved when the end walls of an attic are completely devoted to glass, with windows following the sloping roof lines and reaching from floor to ceilings. This admits maximum daylight and provides a maximum view of the outdoors. The room divider that lets the eye range into an adjacent area can contribute more than just an illusion of space, as important as that is. In the form of a cabinet or shelving, the room divider can provide bonus storage that would not be available with a partition there.

Wall and ceiling decoration also has a part in making the converted attic look big and roomy. Expanses of clear, light colors seem to enlarge a room's dimensions. If pattern is desired, the grain of a light-colored hard wood is especially suitable for spacious effect.

A quick and easy way to decorate an attic appropriately and distinctively is to cover the walls and ceilings with Marlite, a pre-decorated hardboard paneling. Airy pastel colors styled by Raymond Loewy Associates, famed design firm, and light wood grain patterns like birch, golden mahogany and natural prima vera are among the finishes available in this paneling. Using it eliminates the work and waiting of applying finish coats on the job. When dulled and darkened by soiling, wall and ceiling colors lose some of their "enlarging" effect. A baked plastic surface protects Marlite colors and patterns, making the panels highly soil-resistant and easily cleaned by dampwiping.

Careful designing and decorating of new attic quarters will prove worthwhile, whether it increases the enjoyment of family members or of tenants who are willing to pay higher rent for a pleasant setting.

Tasteful color and distinctive wood grain and marble patterns grace the walls of this bright apartment which was created from an unfinished attic. The variety is achieved with different versions of just one paneling, Marlite predecorated hardboard. Its baked plastic finish with soft lustre resists soiling, cleans with damp-wiping and ends periodic redecorating. Birch grain paneling is used on the fireplace wall, and on sides of the room divider, buffet and vanity, which are topped with white panels. The bathroom's marble pattern reproduces the beauty of rare imported stone. Completing the wall decor are tongue-and-groove Marlite planks of aqua. The ceiling is the same paneling in parchment colored blocks.

FIX-UP TIPS

For the Home

A new kind of siding that has no visible nails to mar the surface, that has even, trim lines and a clearcut shadow line, and that holds its painted surface for longer than comparable materials may be obtained at lumber yards under the name of Masonite Shadowvent siding.

It's a combination of a familiar product, Masonite Tempered Presdwood, and specially-formed aluminum strip, which holds the panel and is vented to prevent the condensation of moisture inside the wall.

How the panel fits into the aluminum strip without nailing is shown in the upper detail. Only the aluminum strip is nailed to the studs. The siding itself "floats." The system holds the panels in perfect alignment.

Pre-packaged panels come in widths of 10" or 12," sizes that are popular in ranch-style houses and which are available in these widths at no premium in cost. Shadowvent is easy to paint, and joint on this material lasts much longer than on the conventional siding because it is so smooth and has no knots or grain.

BUILDING AND REMODELING NEWS FOR EVERY HOME

Know Different Type of Air Conditioners Before Buying, Installing in Your Home

So—you're planning a year-round air-conditioning system in your home. You've doubtless heard that life is going to be simpler for everyone concerned—filtering the air in your home is going to keep the place cleaner and alleviate any hay fever that might be around.

It is also going to cut down on upkeep costs and there won't be as much dust around to damage walls, etc. And you wife undoubtedly will be happier in the kitchen on those hot days. Generally the family health and temper should be better.

But you don't want to jump into it; buying a year-round air-conditioner isn't like getting a can of beans from the corner grocery. You want to decide on the type needed and what details are necessary.

There are two types for the home: (1) The central air-conditioning unit frequently called a year-round system. This conditions the whole house and is the one mentioned above. (2) The room air-conditioning unit. This is usually used to cool a single room or may be placed so that it serves two or three rooms.

Before you buy, in the case of the central home system, a reliable dealer or contractor will determine the number of rooms, ceiling heights and have at his fingertips facts concerning house exposure, insulation, etc., which will determine the size of unit to be used.

In the case of the room air-conditioner, you want to be sure your house wiring is adequate. This can be determined by your dealer and electrician or your local utility.

To help you, below are listed a number of air-conditioning terms.

COOLING COIL: Device designed to take heat and humidity out of the air. Usually it consists of a series of metal tubes with fins wound in a tight spiral on the outside. Refrigerant evaporating inside the tubes absorbs the heat from air circulating over the fins. The fins increase the amount of surface for heat absorption.

PACKAGED UNIT: A unit containing all the components for air conditioning inside a single cabinet, including compressor and cooling coil. There are a number of synonyms and near synonyms, such as: (1) Unitary equipment—this covers the entire field, including room air-conditioners; (2) Self-contained units—normally applied to units supplying summer air-conditioning only; (3) Year-round units—these do the entire summer and winter job from a single cabinet and contain both heating and refrigerating components.

CONVERSION AIR-CONDITIONER: A cooling device designed to convert a forced warm air heating system to year-round air-conditioning.

AIR-COOLED REFRIGERATION: In air-conditioning, heat is absorbed by the refrigerant from the air being conditioned. The refrigerant vaporizes in the process, just as water absorbing heat from a fire turns into steam. In order to reuse the refrigerant, to some other substance so the refrigerant will condense back into a liquid. In air-cooled refrigeration equipment, the compressed refrigerant is sent at high temperature through a condensing coil with outside air blowing over it. The heat passes into the outside air and the refrigerant condenses. WATER-COOLED REFRIGERATION: In this case, water is circulated around the condensing coil. The heat passes from the refrigerant into the water, allowing the compressed refrigerant to turn into a liquid. Residential equipment is now made with either air-cooled or water-cooled refrigeration. Air-cooled is advisable where water, is scarce or high-cost.

A smart man figures out his excuse ahead of time.

Den with Closets Is Easily Converted To Extra Bedroom

If your plans for a new home include a den, it's smart to anticipate the possibility that at some future time you may wish to utilize the area as a bedroom, builders say.

Such a conversion becomes much more satisfactory if the room is equipped with one or two cedar closets, which may be provided at little extra cost.

The fragrant aroma of cedar is just the thing to give the room an added air of distinction, while the natural beauty of the wood harmonizes perfectly with the masculine theme of a den.

From a utilitarian standpoint, the major advantage to gain from this foresighted planning is the moth-safe storage which cedar closets offer to clothing and household woolsens. If the closet space is not required for the various trappings of the den master, it can be used to store the family's out-of-season wear.

Should the room later be converted, cedar closets of course will meet the closet needs of a bedroom.

HERE'S HOW . . . MAKE A MODERN END TABLE

A modern end table can be made from 1 by 6-inch boards, 8 and 9 feet long; four 1-inch and three 3/4-inch dowels each 36 inches long, twelve 6-penny finishing nails, and wood glue.

Cut boards to be joined 1 inch longer than shown. Clamp each pair of boards with edges to be joined side by side. With a square, mark a single line across both edges at the middle and at 5-inch intervals each way (three marks at 4-inch intervals on each shelf board). Mark center of each edge at each of these lines and bore holes 3/4 inch in diameter and 1 1/2 inches deep. Cut 2-3/4 inch pieces from the 3/4-inch dowel. Put glue in holes and on edges of boards, insert dowels, and clamp. Be sure boards are flat. When glue is dry, trim ends to size and mark center points for the 1-inch dowel holes as shown. The eight holes 1/2 inch deep are finished with a Forstner Bit. Use auger bit for the rest. Cut 1-inch dowel to sizes shown, insert and glue. Bore a 5/8-inch hole in ends into each dowel and secure with 6-penny finishing nails. Set nails, fill holes with wood putty, round all rough edges, and finish table with paint or stain and varnish.

ABOUT YOUR LAWN AND GARDEN

Mix plant food with soil in bottom of the hole, and cover with fresh soil.

For More Safe Transplanting, Guard Against Shock to Plants

Whenever a growing plant is uprooted and removed to a new location it suffers a severe shock. Woody plants usually die from this treatment, and many mature herbaceous plants as well.

While very young herbaceous plants should survive it, the shock always sets them back. It pays to take precautions to increase the percentage of survivors, and speed recovery from transplanting shock.

If you have grown your own plants under protection, give them an extra feeding a week before the operation.

In a bucket of water (2½ gallons) hang a cloth bag containing 10 ounces of your regular plant food. Let it soak overnight, then water the flat with the solution.

The night before transplanting, prepare another bucket of water in the same way; or use a soluble plant food according to instructions for a starter solution. Take it to the garden along with the plants.

Disturb the roots of plants as little as possible.

Dig a hole large enough to hold the plant roots with room to spare, and deeper than necessary. Mix a teaspoonful of plant food with soil at the bottom of the hole; and throw on an inch of fresh soil. Now hold the plant where it is to stand, and pour into the hole, over the plant roots, half a pint of the starter solution. While the water remains in the hole and around the plant roots, draw in soil to fill the hole completely.

Do not prune the roots or top of the plant in any way.

Experiment stations who have studied the matter advise that the plants needs all the roots and leaves it has, and will recover faster if you leave them intact.

Pouring water into the hole and drawing earth into the water excludes air pockets, and insures good contact between roots and soil. Do not pack the wet soil; it will settle down by its own shrinkage.

Plants set out in this way seldom wilt but in case they do, no harm is likely to result. They soon recover and begin growth as soon as the shock has worn off. There will always be a check in the rate of growth as a result of transplanting. But because you start the seed indoors several weeks before it can be sown in the garden, you can get an earlier harvest by transplanting.

YOU'RE A MAINLINER!

Whether you live in a tiny village in the northern part of Michigan or on a heavily traveled street in one of our major cities or right out on the farm, you're a mainliner so far as your convenience of living and doing business is concerned.

That's because the highly-developed fast, flexible trucking industry which serves the concentrated population centers of this great state of ours provides equally thorough and complete service for sparsely-settled, out-of-the-way places.

Yes, trucks provide the only freight transportation which reaches all of Michigan — bringing merchandise and materials to every Wolverine household, farm, and business concern, no matter how far off the beaten path it may be.

Thanks to trucks, you can live or do business anywhere in Michigan you please and still be on the main line!

In each of Ford's six Station Wagons, folks and cargo both ride in roomy comfort.

In wagons, too, FORD goes FIRST!

Take your pick of America's best-selling station wagons... each offering performance that has made Ford the world's largest-selling V-8

When you choose a Ford Station Wagon, you get the best station wagon value. And sales prove it! In 1955, for the fifth straight year, Ford sold more wagons than the other two low-price makers combined!

Here's a sample of why folks choose Ford:

"I like the way I can change my six-passenger Ford wagon from a 'hauler' to a 'coller' in just three seconds flat — and that's no exaggeration!"

"What I appreciate is the room in my eight-passenger Country Sedan. With nearly nine feet of space, I can tote a half-ton of cargo or half a pack of cub scouts!"

"My Ford Custom Ranch Wagon does something I never thought any wagon could do: gives me as comfortable a ride as I get in our family sedan! And I appreciate its scuff-resistant upholstery, too."

"I chose a 225-h.p. engine for my Ford wagon. And what a performer! It whisks me from 'whoa' to GO in less time than I can tell it."

Why not Test Drive your pick of Ford's six double-duty dandies? Whether you choose 2 doors or 4, seats for six or eight, you'll go first when you go Ford!

FORD goes first!

Now! A Ford with air conditioning costs less than many medium-priced cars without it!

HEALTH and BEAUTY

If you are not satisfied with the color of your hair today, you can do something about it tomorrow. If used with care, it can give a younger look or a lovelier look. To use hair coloring successfully, it is necessary to follow the directions faithfully.

Never attempt to recapture the shade your hair used to be. The skin tones change with age - the eyes become less vivid and bright and the hair should too. Before using a hair dye put a little on the skin inside the elbow. If there is no reaction after 48 hours, it is safe to assume that you are not allergic to it. Dye or bleach your hair following a permanent rather than before it. Remember that it is necessary to use toners if you plan to bleach your hair. This will keep your hair from having an orange cast.

Your problem may be that the quality of your hair needs camouflage. If this is the case do not despair. You can wear a wig or a postiche. It is surprising the number of women who find this necessary. The important thing is to take any such need in your stride.

Your choice of hair style should complement the lines of your face. Artists divide the facial types into six categories, oval, round, square, oblong, triangle, diamond, and inverted.

The oval face looks best with the hair arranged so that it follows the lines of the face. It is best to keep the coiffure oval and simple. Draw the hair back from the brow. A center part is usually good if the nose is fairly small.

With a round face the facial contour needs to be slimmed. A side part is important. The hair should be softly curled in broad, loose waves and worn full at the jawline or even below if possible.

The square face has a deal of breadth. It calls for a slanting part and a soft, fluffy hairline.

The oblong face needs width. For this reason the hair should be fluffed at the sides or worn full behind the ears. The top hair should lie flat.

The triangle face looks its best if the hair is brushed back from the temples. This will make the forehead seem wider and the face look younger.

The diamond face needs a styling with the middle or side parting brushed away from the forehead and cut or held close to the head on top. Some fullness at the jaw-line is flattering.

The inverted triangle face needs fullness above and behind the ears, and a center part seems to look best. The top hair should be arranged simply.

Rails Need Young Blood

Babson Park, Mass., Railroads are still considered as a rather undesirable stepchild in this country.

RAILS STILL NECESSARY

Despite the heavy taxation of the rails to finance highways for competing truck and bus lines; despite the failure time and again to increase fares and freight rates so that the roads expanding operating expenses could be covered; despite union restrictions which encourage "make work" jobs, the rails have managed to survive.

But two world wars showed the necessity for a strong rail network. In World War I, the Government found it necessary to take over the job of placing the rail system in a sound condition.

COST-CUTTING PROGRESS

Young blood is currently lacking in most rail managements. In several cases, however, wise managements have succeeded in cutting costs, through mechanization and automatic controls. New diesels, piggy back freight cars, use of electronics in freight classification yards and signaling equipment have helped earnings.

In the matter of finance, also, aggressive managements have succeeded in cutting down unwieldy high interest bond capitalizations. Corporate reorganizations, reduced inventories, and the dropping of small, money-losing branch lines also have boosted income.

CERTAIN RAILS SOUND

The "bread-and-butter" activity of the rails continues to be in the heavy commodity type freight. Efforts to promote passenger and other income with gadgets and door-prize promotions will not prove permanently profitable.

The faster growth of the Southern area of the United States has been the principal factor in the impressive gain, shown by the roads operating in that region.

I forecast that in the light of world conditions, the outstanding rail group will be the transcontinental roads, especially those with major operations in the South, Southwest, West, and Northwest. Their freight traffic is heavy and well diversified.

Legislators Look to Political Campaigns

Michigan's 1956 legislature has passed into history and its members are preparing for roles in the fall campaigns of both parties.

When it was all over the state had a record $329,200,000 budget for 1956-57. Two major budget bills were held back until the last hectic hours by a behind-the-scenes battle over a proposed pension for legislators.

The House approved the pension bill, but it was stalled in the Senate Appropriations Committee until the end.

Legislators, their work finished for another year, returned home and prepared for their re-election campaigns.

Radio cars of the state department of conservation are now formally a part of the state's civil defense warning system against oroadoes.

Gov. Williams made the suggestion when communications became a major factor in rescue and relief work in the Grand Rapids and Flint tornado disasters.

Without waiting for formal invitations, the departments sent its radio cars into the field during the recent tornado alerts, relaying messages between other emergency equipment.

The legislature also gave Gov. Williams the power to mobilize civil defense forces in the event of a natural disaster, such as a tornado.

The state supreme court has formally ruled unconstitutional the Trucks Communist Control Act of 1952.

The court took its precedent from a decision of the United States Supreme Court in a Pennsylvania case which said that only Congress can make laws controlling Communists.

The Michigan law had never been enforced because it has been tied up in legal tests since it was enacted.

At one point, Circuit Judge George B. Murphy, of Detroit, ruled it was constitutional. It was his opinion that was upset by the Michigan Supreme Court decision.

The court ruled that the unconstitutional parts of the law were those requiring registration of communists and front organizations with the State Police.

Others were clauses defining a communist, the Communist Party, a front organization, and creating a list of "subversive organizations" to be drawn up by the state attorney general.

Powers for the state conservation commission to control the size of Michigan's deer herd have been restored by the legislature after two years of controversy.

"We won't abuse the authority, and local sentiment will be our guide," said Conservation Director Gerald E. Eddy. The commission had the powers for three years but controversy arose after it declared a one-day "any-deer" season to cut down the size of the deer herd.

Reasons for the special season, scientists said, was to prevent an over-population of deer from starving in woodlots where food was in short supply during the winter. Farmers complained that deer, starved for food, were raiding their crops.

Sportsmen's groups reacted against the "any-deer" season and brought the issue to a head in the legislature. After two years, the legislature restored the powers on a qualified basis.

The commission will be empowered to control the deer herd, but its regulations will be subject to review by the legislative rules committee.

There is still a question about the committee's powers to throw out a regulation. A test two years ago brought a ruling that the committee could review and recommend but not veto a regulation.

"This means that we now have discretionary powers for the conservation commission, that's all," said Senator Leo H. Roy (R-Hancock).

"DO-IT YOURSELF" CAN BE FUN ... BUT IT CAN BE DANGEROUS TOO!

America is turning into a nation of "Do-it-yourself-ers" ... the man of the house has found to his surprise that he can be a pretty fair handyman.

Some even "prescribe" their own insurance coverage. Actually, they listen to the siren song of "cheaper" insurance and having bought it, are reassured because they "have insurance."

How much? Enough? The right kind? At the right price? They don't know because insurance is a highly technical, involved business science known only to the men who spend their lives studying it—the qualified, independent insurance agents.

Why not find out now and save that costly experience? We'll analyze your insurance position without cost and prescribe if need be. THEN and only then will you know for sure. Why not call us today? ... very often it means more coverage for the same or less money!

A Story Worth Repeating

Sometimes the great stories are buried on the inside pages of today's newspapers, and we are happy to mention a great drama which occurred in Charleston, S. C., only a day or two ago.

Mrs. O. E. Rakoske was mowing her lawn. As she pushed the mow along, she was suddenly bitten by a copperhead snake, which struck her on her foot.

Mrs. Rakoske was terrified, as she screamed and tried to shake the snake loose from her foot by kicking. Her screams brought a young Boy Scout, playing nearby, to the scene. His arrival, it turned out, saved her life.

Harold Murray, the scout, quickly identified the snake as a poisonous one, killed it with a shovel and warned Mrs. Rakoske that she should go to the hospital. Mrs. Rakoske did not think the snake was poisonous and said she would like to go inside, but was talked out of it by the boy, who sent another youngster for her husband and an automobile. He immediately used a knife to apply a crosscut over the bites (there had been two) and began to suck the wounds, after applying a tourniquet.

The lad stayed with Mrs. Rakoske in the car as she was driven to the hospital, sucking the blood and venom from the wound and checking the tourniquet. When she arrived at the hospital, doctors told her that the bites would have proven fatal, had she not been treated quickly, and that young Murray's action in all probability had saved her life.

If there was ever a Boy Scout story, and an incident to prove the value of Scout training, this is one. We are glad to recount such a tale of genuine devotion to Scout duty, which reflects the highest credit on young Murray, and the Boy Scouts—the organization responsible for having taught him to identify snakes and take the proper action in the event of bites. It is a wonderful story which should add a little warmth to the heart of everyone.

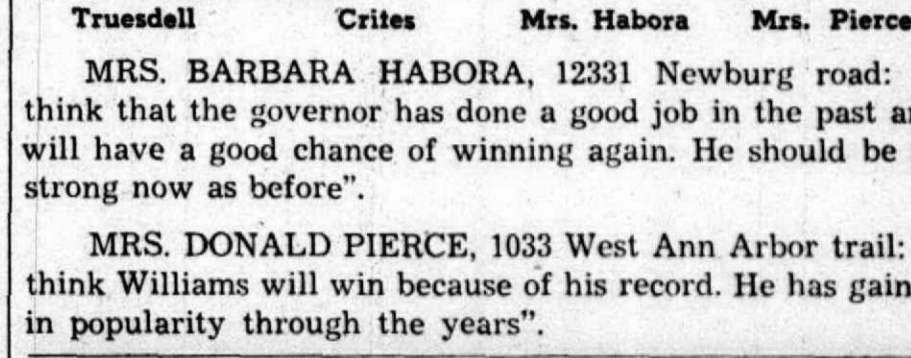

Grass Roots Opinion

TRAER, IA., STAR-CLIPPER: "The changes in newspaper production methods through the years have been extraordinary. Our ways are as different today from 40 years ago. . . as power farming compared with the days of horsepower."

PALATKA, FLA., DAILY NEWS: "Few parents would give their teen-aged youngster a stick of dynamite and tell him to go and have fun with it. Nor would they present him with a loaded pistol and urge him to take it to a party and 'have fun.' But they do not hesitate to provide him with a lethal weapon far more dangerous—the family car."

RAYNE, LA., ACADIAN-TRIBUNE: ". . . we believe high farm land prices reflect confidence on the part of most Americans in the future of agriculture. There is widespread and justifiable confidence in the future of agriculture as one of the most rapidly developing industries and as the most essential of all industries."

THINKING OUT LOUD
One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question: "Should Governor Williams who is seeking his fifth term meet Mayor Albert Cobo of Detroit in the general election in November, how do you think the governor will fare?"

MRS. BARBARA HABORA, 12331 Newburg road: "I think that the governor has done a good job in the past and will have a good chance of winning again. He should be as strong now as before."

MRS. DONALD PIERCE, 1033 West Ann Arbor trail: "I think Williams will win because of his record. He has gained in popularity through the years."
