

'Not for Tax Dollar'

City Argues Its Annexation Move

(EDITOR'S NOTE—At this point, The Mail takes no stand on the merits of the cases of any of the opposing parties involved in the move to annex Burroughs and other township land.

Staff members of The Mail, however, are spending considerable time in research, trying to understand the thinking of each party. It is our belief that the issue has been made difficult to understand because the explanations have been too terse.

The contest has been going something like a tight, high-priced poker game, with the players keeping their cards close to the chest. And there is a suspicion that the case is being judged more upon the players involved than upon the cards they might be holding.

The Mail has conducted a long interview with Mayor Russell M. Daane and Commissioner Harold Guenther. They were asked why they felt annexation was desirable or necessary. They explained at length, and for the first time revealed a letter that had been sent to Burroughs.

Without approving, or disapproving, then, we report what they said—)

"First of all," Daane and Guenther began, "it should be made clear that the annexation is not being done because the city is in financial distress. Our finances are completely sound; our debts low, relative to our revenues. We live well within our tax income and there is no necessity now to raise taxes, nor is any such tax raise necessary in the immediate future.

"Our basic philosophy stems from the fact that the Plymouth community, irrespective of geographic boundaries, is growing as a community. With this philosophy in mind, we believe that a community should be one economic unit and have one form of government. It is the only efficient way to properly provide for a growing community. The city of Plymouth is the natural base from which governmental services should stretch to take care of the big, growing area which surrounds it.

"It is wasteful, inefficient and expensive to duplicate facilities for such things as water, drainage, police protection and fire protection. Today we are faced with the aspect of having one central water system in the city, and another water system being built in duplicate, at great cost, on the outskirts of the city.

"It is our responsibility as heads of the city government to plan for the future on sound principles. If we have any conscience, we can't sit back and let things go their course, developing by chance, without direction and long-range planning.

"We all know today that the entire community has many interlocking needs. The community schools and the library are examples. But while those things are accepted, the combining of more basic services is resisted.

"Many assume, we know, that by annexing Burroughs the city will enjoy greatly reduced taxes. Actually, it might lower the tax rate for the same budget from $15 to perhaps $12 per thousand dollars of valuation.

"Burroughs' total tax increase, after annexation, would be close to $32,000, which would be reduced somewhat by income tax savings. This is on the basis of their present valuation. The increase would be greater after their new buildings are constructed.

"Taxes for township residents would be increased substantially, as soon as they acquired the services that city people now have. But for the same services, they will pay the same taxes wherever they are—and they will pay higher taxes than that if they try to put in unnecessary duplicate facilities with a small population to support the facilities.

"Planning is the key to our thinking. We must plan for our future. Everybody tells us that 'sooner or later this is what must happen' but to 'stop pressing' now. But if we stop now, crucial and costly economic blunders can be made.

"Zoning is one example. No area can be zoned properly unless it is done from a master plan.

"Schools are another. Everyone should pay alike for the same school services. This requires uniformity in an assessment base. Unless this is done, school expansion may not continue as it should.

"As for Burroughs, it is true that in a purely monetary way, it is better for them to remain in the township now, but in the long range, that is not so.

"Annexation is desirable for Burroughs because it will permit them to participate in providing a better community for their employees—one with proper water, sewers, streets, schools, etc. Western Electric asked for and insisted upon annexation and that company has competent officers too. Eventually the township citizens will insist on basic services, and then there will be big tax bills to pay. A corporation with one-third of the valuation must pay one-third of the taxes and is responsible for one-third of the debt, both present and future.

"One reason we are moving now is that we did not want to wait until the township acquired large debts for things like separate systems. Then the city would have to assume the debts, if there were to be an annexation. Our citizens might not look favorably upon annexation in such circumstances.

"Let me read you parts of a letter we sent to

ONLY A DREAM? This is an artist's sketch of a colonial addition to the Plymouth branch library that would cost between $95,000 and $104,000. There is also a contemporary design with an estimated cost of between $72,000 and $83,000. City Commissioners were shown the plans last week by Wheeler & Becker, Architects. Where to get the money is the question.

Joyner Charged with First Degree Murder as Bullet Claims Victim

As funeral services were being held in Plymouth last Saturday for Mrs. William Garrett, an arraignment on a first degree murder charge was taking place before a Livonia justice of the peace for the man who shot her twice, Joseph C. Joyner.

The shooting victim died at 10:10 a.m. last Thursday, 42 hours after Joyner entered her home at 708 Church street, shot at his wife and missed and then turned the .22 automatic on Mrs. Garrett.

At the recommendation of a Wayne county assistant prosecutor, a first degree murder charge has been filed by police against Joyner. Conviction would mean life in prison.

Mrs. Garrett died in University hospital in Ann Arbor where she underwent an operation. One of the slugs was removed but the other, lodged in her spine, could not be extracted and was believed responsible for her death, according to Chief of Police Kenneth Fisher.

Joyner was taken before Justice of the Peace Leo Nye of Livonia last Saturday where he stood mute when asked for a plea. A plea of not guilty is then required to be entered for him by the court. An examination will take place July 2 before Judge Nye at which police must show evidence that a crime was committed and that Joyner was involved. The prisoner is then expected to be bound over to circuit court.

Joyner was transferred from the city jail to Wayne county jail in Detroit Monday morning. He was told about Mrs. Garrett's death last Thursday afternoon but "never said a word," Chief Fisher noted. Only his parents were allowed to visit him in jail here. His wife, Faye, had asked to see him but the request was denied in belief that it may have started another argument.

Mrs. Maude Media Garrett was born January 22, 1904 in Denver, Colorado to Mr. and Mrs. William Lane. She was married to William A. Garrett on March 12, 1929 and she survives with the following relatives:

Two stepsons, William and Robert Garrett, both of Detroit; a sister, Mrs. Anna Johnson, Springfield, Missouri; three brothers, Fulton Lane of Joliet, Illinois, James Lane of Chicago and Owen Lane of Springfield, Missouri; and one granddaughter, Miss Betty Garrett of Plymouth.

Mrs. Garrett came to this community in 1927. Funeral services Saturday were held from the Schrader Funeral home at 1 p.m. with the Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson, D.D., officiating. Interment was in Riverside Mausoleum. Pallbearers were William Orr, Orin Scribner, Robert Hanks, William Proffitt, Arthur McConnell and Richard Cramb.

Up until Mrs. Garrett's death, her assailant was being held for felonious assault. His wife quoted him as saying when he entered the house that he was going to kill them all, but he later said in formal statements to the prosecutor that he just wanted to scare his wife.

Police Chief Fisher said that because Mrs. Garrett died, the true story of the shooting may never be known. But it is believed that Joyner first struck his wife, knocking her to the floor and then shot at her. The bullet missed and lodged in a cabinet door. Mrs. Garrett was then shot twice. She then struggled to a telephone and called police.

Patrolman Daniel Johnson arrived alone and found himself being held at gunpoint by Joyner for five minutes until he grabbed the gun away.

Police said this week that the Joyners had both lived at the Garrett house at one time before moving to a Ford road apartment. After quarrels, the wife and two children returned to the Garrett home to live.

Mr. Garrett, an invalid, was in the adjoining room when the shooting took place.

School Board Elects Fischer as President

Harold Fischer was elected president of the board of education of the Plymouth Community School district at a re-organizational meeting held Monday night.

Other officers are Austin Stecker, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, secretary; Warren Smith, treasurer; and James Mitchell, trustee.

Fischer, a greenhouse operator, was elected to the board a year ago when there was one vacancy. Smith and Mrs. Hulsing, both elected two years ago, held the same offices during the past year, while Mitchell and Stecker took their places on the board for the first time Monday night.

The two new members officially joined the board when they signed their affidavits of accepting office. No time was wasted in getting business underway as the board re-assigned their bank depositories, approved a report from a committee studying new school boundaries and set a special meeting for next Monday to study future growth.

The board also learned in a legal opinion from their attorney, Nandino Perlongo, that money voted in the 1955 bond election cannot be used for extending the present buildings or for any other purpose not mentioned on the ballot. The board had previously asked for an opinion on this question.

The board accepted a report from the committee on boundary problems. Formation of the committee came about several weeks ago when a group of parents from the western part of the township objected to the proposed

Patrolman Johnson Cited for Bravery

Twenty-two-year-old patrolman Daniel Johnson last week stood before a pistol which had wounded Mrs. William Garrett. He was on the receiving end again Monday night—but this time it was a citation for bravery presented by the city commission.

Johnson was held at gunpoint for five minutes by Joseph Joyner following the shooting of Mrs. Garrett. He talked Joyner into allowing him to help Mrs. Garrett, then warned a fireman to not come in the house. Finally, he wrestled the gun away and led Joyner out of the house in handcuffs.

The citation reads: "For extreme bravery beyond the call of duty and for outstanding performance of his job while forgetting his personal safety, the city commission of the city of Plymouth, Michigan, offers this personal citation to Daniel Johnson."

Petitions Protest Plane, Plant Noise

Petitions protesting noise from model airplanes and a factory were presented to the city commission Monday night by residents of two sections of the city.

Several neighbors in the Elizabeth and Hamilton street area attended the meeting to explain the reason for their petition that objected to noise from the Broen Metal Manufacturing company, 322 Hamilton street.

The hampering of metal which goes on sometimes at night was their chief complaint, although they also noted that heavy trucks and stamping machines also have brought sleepless nights.

Fire Chief Robert McAllister reported that he has brought the State Department of Health's sound-level meter in several times and last Friday found the noise equal to that limited to light or heavy manufacturing. The plant is in a professional-residential zoning district.

Commissioners instructed the city attorney and city manager to determine if the plant is in violation of any zoning laws. If not, citizens will be required to bring their own action against the plant, they were told.

The model airplane petition was signed by 33 residents, most of them along Adams street. The gasoline-powered models are flown behind the high school.

Petitioners claimed that the noise was not only objectionable, but that the planes are a danger to children playing on the grounds.

Since the planes are being flown on school property, the commission asked the city manager to check with school officials to see what arrangements had been made by them to permit the hobbyists to fly their planes there.

To Put Airport Bond Issue Before Voters

TV Disc Jockey Joins July 4th Evening Cast

Don McLeod, widely-known disc jockey on WJBK-TV and radio, will be the master of ceremonies for the evening July 4th program in Plymouth, according to Harold Young, general chairman of the event. An invitation was accepted last week by the state's leading political personality, Governor G. Mennen Williams.

Until recently, McLeod has presided over "TV Bandstand" on channel 2 and on WJBK radio each Saturday. He now has a disc jockey spot from 3 to 7 p.m. on that station.

Besides McLeod, several other TV and radio figures are expected to join the cast. The several thousand spectators will also see the popular bathing beauty contest with over two dozen local girls competing for the Miss Plymouth title. Chairman James Thornton states that the U.S. Army has indicated that it would like to sponsor a contestant, but no local girl has been found.

But there will also be other colorful events during the day, starting with the parade at 11 a.m. Robert Waldeck, chairman of the parade, states that all persons with horses should be at the parade formation point on Forest avenue by 10:30 a.m.

From noon until 1 p.m. will be the horse contest in which first, second and third place ribbons will be given in various categories.

Hit by Auto, Boy Critical

Struck by a car Monday afternoon and hurled 60 feet by the impact, four-year-old Robert Lee Garrett was reported to be still in critical condition Wednesday at Wayne County General hospital. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Garrett, 14373 Sheldon.

Robert suffered head injuries and fractured ribs when hit by an automobile driven by Byron Baldwin, 20, of 968 West Huron drive, Belleville. The accident happened when Robert started across the road in the path of Baldwin's car, said sheriff's deputies.

The report on the mishap stated that Baldwin had just come over the crest of a hill in front of the Garrett address. Robert was playing at the side of the road and suddenly darted out into the road.

Sheriff's officers said that skid marks from Baldwin's auto stretched 60 feet before striking the boy and an additional 60 feet after the impact. Robert was taken to Wayne County General in an ambulance from Schrader's here.

The car was owned by Howard Kemp of 116 North Summit, Ypsilanti.

$500,000 Proposal Going On August 7 Primary Ballot

City voters will be given an opportunity at the August 7 primary election to decide if they want to back up a half million dollar bond issue to purchase Mettetal airport and expand it into a city-owned operation.

All attempts to raise the money through private subscription have been abandoned by the city commission and they now want to take the proposition before the voters. The commission voted Monday night to have the bond issue placed on the next ballot, which is the state-wide primary.

City Taking Bids For Construction Of Sewer Project

City commissioners took another big step toward getting the $600,000 sanitary sewer project started by voting Monday night to authorize the city manager to advertise for bidders on the big job.

The project has been dormant for the past few months while the city ironed out some difficulties with the county over the proposed pumping facilities. But City Manager Albert Glassford now expects the work to start perhaps in July and to be completed in about three months.

Bids from contractors will be opened on June 28. After that, bids will be asked from bond owners.

The $800,000 project will provide sewers for approximately the southern third of the city and is expected to provide "relief" for other sewer areas where water backs up into basements.

In other business before the commission two new cars were purchased in open bidding. Paul J. Wiedman, Inc. and Forest Motor Sales were the only bidders with both contracts going to Wiedman. Although Forest Motors had a lower bid, the Ford cars from Wiedman were approved because they met horsepower specifications. A car for the building and electrical inspector (a new position) will cost $1,507 while a new police car with a Kaiser trade-in will cost $1,631.47.

A request was received from the Plymouth Community School district board of education asking that the building permit for the Plymouth Community Junior high be granted at a "nominal fee." It will cost about $450. Commissioners noted that the building permit fees are set by ordinance and that it would be impossible to make exceptions.

First reading was given to the building ordinance which amended the inspection fees section. Fees will generally be tripled in order to help pay for a full-time inspector.

SOMEWHERE in this stack of entries are the 203 winners in the locally-sponsored Plymouth Community stamp $10,000 contest. It's up to James MacDonald (right) to go through the 1600 envelopes, most containing two or three entries each, and choose the best answers to the sentence "I shop in Plymouth Community Stamp Stores because...". Looking on are Mrs. Edward Beukema, office employee of Sutherland and Robson accountant firm handling the stamps, and Joseph Rucker, local merchant and president of the stamp corporation. Tentative plans to announce winners of the prizes in Kellogg Park Friday evening, June 23, will be outlined in next week's edition of The Mail.

Arthur Donnelly and Bride Honeymooning In Washington

The First Presbyterian church, Plymouth, was the scene on Thursday evening, June 14, of the marriage of Janie Sears Beckel and Arthur Judson Donnelly.

Janie, given in marriage by her father, was escorted down the aisle by her brother, Robert Beckel. She wore a waltz length gown of white nylon organza over taffeta. The scoop neckline was edged in a wide band of the nylon which also formed the cap sleeves of the gown. Chantilly lace edged the collar and encircled the full skirt which fell softly over the hooped skirt of taffeta. Her fingertip length veil fell from a crown of lily-of-the-valley and she carried a bouquet of valley lilies and white roses, on a white Bible.

Ann Beckel was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a ball-length gown of Nile green nylon chiffon and carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds. Her headband was of white rosebuds. Bridesmaids, Diana Lawthers and Judith Tetzlaff wore pink chiffon in ballerina length and they wore pink headbands of rosebuds and carried bouquets of pink roses. Kathleen Beckel, another sister of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. Her chiffon gown was identical to that of the other bridesmaids and she carried pink roses.

Fred Judson, uncle of the bridegroom, was the best man. Seating the guests were Hal Miller, John Sumner, Ronald Lamerand and Dale Behler.

Mrs. Beckel chose a street length dress of navy blue sheer with which she wore white accessories and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Donnelly had a white rosebud corsage and wore a tangerine street length dress and white accessories.

Following the ceremony the reception was held in the church parlors for guests from Columbus, Marion and Mansfield, Ohio; Northville, Plymouth, Rochester, Kalamazoo and Detroit.

For traveling to Washington, D. C. the new Mrs. Donnelly donned a light green suit with white accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Robert Wood weds Marilyn Lloyd In Adrian Presbyterian Church

The Reverend Robert L. McCachran of the First Presbyterian church, Adrian, performed the ceremony uniting Marilyn Jane Lloyd of that city and Robert Howard Wood of Plymouth at four o'clock Saturday afternoon, June 16.

Fans, candelabra and bouquets of white gladioli and daisies formed the setting for the wedding.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Lloyd of Adrian and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Wood of Simpson street, Plymouth.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white embroidered French organza over net and taffeta with short sleeves, embroidered bodice and skirt fashioned with uneven scalloped hemline. A Juliet cap trimmed in orange blossoms held in place the elbow length veil of illusion and she wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried a cascade of lilies of the valley and ivy centered with a white orchid corsage.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Kenneth Thompson, of Plymouth, and the two bridesmaids, Marilyn Anne Hines of Adrian and Mrs. Paul Harding of Columbus, Georgia, were attired alike, in white embroidered nylon marquisette over aqua taffeta made in empire style and in ballerina length. Circlets of aqua embroidered net with matching velvet bows formed the picture hats. Each carried a cascade of shell pink carnations.

Amy Lou and Barbara Kay VanPelt of Adrian were the flower girls. They wore white dotted nylon marquisette with white accessories. Their headbands were feathered shell pink carnations and they carried matching carnation nosegays.

Larry Wood, of Plymouth, attended his brother as best man and the ushers were Gary Lloyd of Adrian, brother of the bride, Frank Veresh, Ronald Nicol and Leigh Langkabel, of Plymouth. Dr. James H. Spencer, church organist played traditional wedding music. M. D. Swenk also of Adrian, sang, "Whither Thou Goest" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride's mother wore a pure silk aqua print with white accessories and Mrs. Wood, the bridegroom's mother, chose a gown of rose Chantilly lace over taffeta with matching accessories. Both had corsages of Cimbodium orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors for over 200 guests from London and St. Thomas, Ontario, Mesa, Arizona, Fort Lauderdale, Florida, Cleveland, Ohio, Jackson, Detroit, Flint, Adrian and Plymouth.

Later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Wood left on a trip to northern Michigan after which they will be at home at 825 South Mills in Madison, Wisconsin. For traveling the bride wore an oyster white linen sheath dress with mandarin coat, lined in butterfly yellow and yellow accessories. She wore the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. The bride is a graduate of Michigan State Normal College in Ypsilanti. The bridegroom is a graduate of Michigan State University in Lansing and is attending the School of Law at the University of Wisconsin in Madison, Wisconsin.

Thrown by Horse, Livonia Girl, 15, Remains in Coma

A 15-year-old Livonia girl was in a semi-coma Wednesday at Wayne County General hospital as the result of being fallen on by the horse she was riding Sunday evening. She is Connie Stamnitz, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stamnitz, 36241 East Ann Arbor trail.

Witnesses to the accident said that it was caused when five teen-age boys drove along side Connie in a car and sounded a siren. The sudden noise frightened the horse, which bolted toward heavy passing traffic.

Connie, in an effort to prevent her horse from galloping into the way of moving autos, deliberately flipped it. The girl fell from the horse. It rolled on her.

Connie suffered severe multiple abrasions to the face, head both arms and left leg, said her mother Tuesday. Doctors reported no broken bones, but said she suffered brain damage. Mrs. Stamnitz said that her daughter does not speak much and opens her eyes for only short periods, lapsing back into unconsciousness.

However, Tuesday Connie responded to the sound of her name. She also has asked for a drink of water. Doctors told Mrs. Stamnitz that there is not too much apparent brain injury. The family was waiting Tuesday afternoon for further X-ray reports.

The accident took place at Parkway drive and Ann Arbor trail about 6 p.m. Sunday. Picnickers gathered quickly around the young girl, who lay inert in the middle of the pavement, halting traffic.

Someone quickly called an ambulance. Connie was rushed to Wayne County General. She just completed her freshman year at Bentley high school. The horse, named "King," is her own. It suffered severe abrasions on its side.

City Taking Bids

for the distribution of contest prizes. Permission was granted.

Western Electric company wrote that they plan to begin their foundation and underground piping work by September 3 and asked the city if they will have storm sewers to the site by that time. The city manager was directed to submit a report on a storm sewer for the northwest drainage area.

A resolution was approved accepting $50 more from the Optimist club for a total of $350 for playground equipment. The playground is at Auburn and Junction streets and the equipment has been ordered.

Commissioners also asked that the manager get estimates for 3 1/4 feet of fencing for around part of the playground at Wing and Pine streets.

Corrects Statement

An erroneous impression was believed conveyed to many readers in last week's story of the school board election concerning the reported support given by teachers to a candidate. It has been pointed out that there was no organized teacher support to any candidate and that any backing given would be purely on an individual and voluntary basis. It is not known, of course, how the teachers or any other individuals voted.

To Put Airport

If present plans would become a reality, there would be one north-south paved runway 3,600 feet long, a turf east-west emergency runway 2,000 feet long, a $30,000 administration building and 65 new T hangars costing $195,000.

The city must act fast to get the proposal on the ballot. Proposals to be placed on the primary ballot in August must be approved by the attorney general and returned to the county clerk by this Monday.

Congressman Says Burroughs Plant Isn't Even Here

It looks like all of this annexation debate concerning Burroughs corporation's Plymouth plant is for nothing since a California U.S. representative now says that Burroughs closed down its manufacturing plant here seven years ago and moved it to Scotland.

The Congressman made the critical remarks in the Congressional Record.

But 17th District Representative Martha Griffiths pointed out in a rebuttal that the Plymouth plant is not only operating, but is bigger than ever.

Rep. James Utt (R) had his remarks printed in the Congressional Record appendix on May 23, criticizing company President John S. Coleman, an advocate of free trade, for opening a calculator manufacturing plant in Scotland in 1949 and closing the American plant doing the same thing "thereby destroying jobs."

In her remarks printed in the Record on Tuesday of last week, Mrs. Griffiths wrote: "The American Burroughs plant which made calculators is located in Plymouth, Mich., which is within my congressional district. Instead of being closed, this plant has twice been expanded since 1949 and its work force has increased almost six times."

"These facts can be checked by anyone. The residents of Plymouth, Mich., realize the importance of the Burroughs plant in their social and economic life. My entire congressional district enjoys these benefits in some measure."

A letter then followed, written by Edward Littlejohn, director of public relations at Burroughs, pointing out that the Scotland plant serves the mutual interests of the United States and the whole free world and follows the recommendations of President Eisenhower for closer ties with other nations.

Historical Society Schedules Picnic

The Plymouth Historical society will conclude its functions for the season on Sunday, July 1 with a picnic at the summer home of Mrs. Blanche Gilles on Bruin lake.

Members will bring their own table service and a dish of food. Meats and other "extras" have already been arranged. All members and their families, can attend, in addition to their guests.

Bruin lake is in the northwest corner of Washtenaw county and is reached by driving west on North Territorial road for 28 miles turn right on Iverness road for three miles. At two old stone pillars on the right, cars should turn in and drive through a grove to the Gilles cottage.

Adherence to Cemetery Rules Asked by Board

Increased violations of a few cemetery rules has brought reminders this week from the Riverside Cemetery board. One of the most frequent violations is placing potted plants further than six inches away from the headstone.

It was also pointed out that no shrubs can be planted without approval of the cemetery board. The rules are not new, the board adds, and must be followed in order to keep down maintenance costs.

School Board Elects

sending of their children by bus to the new Gallimore school and to temporary classrooms until the school is completed.

The board agreed with the report that the boundaries shall remain as they are and that plans for temporary housing be dropped. (Such places as churches and public buildings were suggested.)

Teachers have already been hired for Gallimore school and they will be used at the present buildings. It is planned to have three kindergarten sessions a day in several of the schools, instead of two. With parent permission, the board would like to transfer some of the 93 sixth graders at Allen school to Starkweather where there is more room.

All multi-purpose rooms (auditoriums) will be used for two classes, except at Starkweather. Libraries, a teacher lounge and other extra rooms will be used in this manner, the board hopes to avert half-day sessions.

Banks again selected for school deposits are the National Bank of Detroit (Plymouth branch), Michigan National Bank at Flint, and Wabek State Bank of Detroit.

The board is inviting supervisors and chairmen of the zoning boards of Plymouth, Canton and Northville townships next Monday night to discuss growth and possible school sites.

Musical to Aid Crippled Children

Hundreds of local citizens will see one of the classic musical comedies as well as help build the Out-County Crippled Children's center when they attend the Plymouth Night performance on July 16 at Melody Circus Theatre.

The entire evening's performance of "Annie Get Your Gun" has been purchased by the Plymouth Rotary club and all profits will go toward the $110,000 Easter Seal center being built near Wayne for crippled children and adults of this area.

With 690 tickets already sold to cover expenses, all remaining tickets will be profit for the center. Tickets are on sale at Galin & Son, the National Bank of Detroit, the Mayflower hotel and with any Rotary.

Melody Circus is located at Grand River and Eight Mile road in Farmington. "Annie Get Your Gun," written by the brother-sister writing team of Herbert and Dorothy Fields, enjoyed a noteworthy run of 144 weeks in New York when it was first presented there from 1946 to 1949 and it was later made into a well-remembered movie starring Betty Hutton and Howard Keel.

Among the production's songs by Irving Berlin is "Anything You Can Do I Can Do Better." Faye DeWitt will be the shooting gal while William Shriver will be co-starred as the man she loves and nearly loses because she surpasses him at marksmanship.

Parties of Plymouthites are expected to attend the musical. Their donations of $5 will help provide a center for 2,158 children and adults having orthopedic, rheumatic fever, cardiac and other handicapped conditions. Of this number, $2 live in the Plymouth area.

Well, the effects of spring romances will soon be showing up with a barrage of "I do's" around the country. For June is the month of the June bride . . . an annual parade that's as regular as the return of the swallows to Capistrano. It is also the month of the June bridegroom . . . although he gets less publicity than the bride's bouquet.

The bridegroom is about as conspicuous as a clam at high tide. Fashion editors go into dreamy ecstasies over what the bride and her bridesmaids wear but the groom could don a bur-lap bag and high button shoes . . . and few would ever notice the difference. It almost seems as if the ceremony could be run off without him . . . except there has to be someone . . . waiting when the bride makes her triumphant tour up the aisle. Oh, well . . . the fellow might just as well get started on the right foot.

We have a fresh, new collection of wonderful perfume and cosmetic gifts for June brides (and bridesmaids, too!) Famous names such as Yardley, Dorothy Gray, Lanvin, Houigant, Faberge, etc. Come in and select her favorite scent — today!

We heard about a doctor in Oregon who says he can quickly freeze 1000 volts of electricity in ice cubes! Sounds like a good quick way to break up a party. Speaking of ice cold things, the perfect place to stop for cool refreshment on a hot day is our soda fountain. In fact, we serve everything from soup to nuts at our counter . . . and our fountain specialties are a real hot weather treat.

Remember . . . "someone you know, knows me."

City Explains Annexation Move

Sheldon F. Hall, vice-president and secretary of the Burroughs corporation. . .

"Dear Mr. Hall. We were somewhat disappointed to learn that your management has concluded that it is satisfied at this time with things as they are. . .

"During our conference with you we endeavored to present facts to indicate certain long term advantages to be realized by annexation. From a purely monetary viewpoint, the decision reached by your company, for the present at least, may be a logical one; but from a long range viewpoint we do not believe this to be the case. We do not believe it to be advisable or prudent to wait for changing circumstances in the future to determine reconsideration of the problem.

"To wait for such developments and changes in a community developing as rapidly as this one is, may be to put off that which later cannot be accomplished. . . .

"In using the word community I refer to the entire area of growth, without regard to geographic boundaries of the city or the township. . . . The future of this growing community requires careful long range planning and direction, and is something that cannot and should not be left to chance.

"Rumors continue to be heard of a new city to be incorporated around the city of Plymouth, which would include the Burroughs Corporation. Should this develop, there would be needless duplication of facilities, at great expense, and taxes would increase to meet these expenses. In the same manner, taxes of the township will increase if they are to provide necessary services. This already has been demonstrated by a four mill increase in the township tax rate and the proposed $1,875,000 bond issue for water and sewer. . . .

"Indications are that other petitions for the annexation of other lands adjoining our city may be filed. If this should happen and the action is timely, such petitions will be looked upon with favor as a part of community growth and integration.

"Cordially, Russell M. Daane, Mayor."

Need of Seaway Ports Told Kiwanis

Warning that without adequate ports the full advantages of the St. Lawrence Seaway could not be realized by our area, Kenneth Weber told Kiwanians Tuesday evening that "vision restricted to the future of Detroit" by the Detroit Board of Commerce was hindering port planning.

A former assistant district attorney of Wayne county, Weber is now associated with the Atchinson Realty company in Northville. He told Kiwanians that while Muskegon already has 52 acres earmarked for port development, Detroit plans to use present port facilities. He quoted a Chicago newspaper by-lined story as reporting that "Detroit did not desire additional port business from the new seaway."

Weber stated that a survey made by port experts from other large cities had been sponsored by the Detroit News. They reported inadequate facilities in this area, he said. Rather than expanding present port facilities, Weber said that an ideal site for a new port had already been selected below Trenton where the Detroit river empties into Lake Erie. He stated that all the necessary resources are conveniently located to this area and that ample room is available.

"Ports play an important part in the prosperity of communities. We need new industry to replace the rapidly decentralizing automobile plants," warned Weber in conclusion. He was introduced by Program Chairman Norman Atchinson.

Awards Prizes
Peter Christensen, owner of Plymouth Nursery, 38901 Ann Arbor road, Livonia, reported this week that the "Demonstration Day" which his firm conducted last Sunday was very successful and that over 1,000 people attended the event. Winners of the free prizes were: Mrs. N. F. North of Plymouth, who won the first prize, a Scott's spreader; Cecilia Pearson of Plymouth won second prize, a redwood planter. In addition, ten boxes of dahlias were awarded as separate prizes.

STRAWBERRY dessert is a meal in itself at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Larson, 45245 Joy road, these days. The couple grew berries as big as golf balls (above). But, sadly, a recent frost destroyed much of their one-quarter acre patch of the king-sized treats.

Elks Plan Chicken Bar-B-Q
Members of The Plymouth Elks Lodge will hold their annual Chicken Bar-B-Q this Saturday at the Elks hall on Ann Arbor road. The public is invited to come out and enjoy the fun and good food. The Catch

A very lazy fellow was finally prevailed upon to apply for a job. He seemed to fill all the requisites the application called for but the salary offered was very modest.

"If you take the job," said the manager, "you will receive a raise in six months."

"You say I'll get a raise in six months?" asked the applicant.

"Yes," said the manager, "if your work is satisfactory, of course."

"Oh, said the applicant, turning away in disgust. "I might have known there'd be a catch to it!"

FASTEST FIRE ALARM

Portland, Ore.—Local firemen believe the fastest fire alarm on record was turned in here recently. A lightning bolt knocked out a fire alarm box and set off the signal. The nicest part of the incident was that the fire was out before the alarm had finished sounding.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Harry Panow who passed away June 19, 1953. There will always be a vacant chair. Where'er we go, you will be there. Sadly missed by his wife, daughter, and parents.

 The reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints believes in the ordinance of LAYING ON OF HANDS as it was taught by Jesus and His Apostles in the New Testament. The church teaches that little children are not in need of baptism but should be blessed even as Jesus blessed the little children. In Mark 16:16 we read: "And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them." For further evidence we turn to the scriptures of the Book of Mormon and read what Moroni, a student of the Lord, had to say: "... the Holy Ghost manifest the word of God unto me... I know that it is solemn mockery before God, that ye should baptize little children." During the eleven o'clock service the ordinance of blessing of children will be observed this Sunday.

Sow Long Harvest Vegetables For Food Yield into Winter

To win a bonanza return from an investment of pleasant exercise, try growing long harvest vegetables in your own garden. From one sowing of seed they supply food of superlative quality all summer and fall.

Some, in fact can be harvested all winter. And the vitamin-rich greens are so productive that a home gardener must be careful not to plant too much.

Parsley, Swiss chard and New Zealand spinach stand at the top of the "green, leafy vegetables." Nutritionists say one of these should be eaten every day to provide the vitamin A with which they are richly endowed. Instead of a row of each, to divide a row among all three will suffice for most families.

Parsnips and salsify can be harvested all winter; though a better way is to dig them in the fall, divide them into family servings each in a paper bag, and keep them outdoors in a box sheltered from the rain. Nature will freeze them, and you can bring in a serving when needed.

Sow seed of the hardy ones just as soon as the soil can be prepared. Plants, even of the hardy ones, should not be set vest lasts from the time they are large enough to use, until frost kills the plants. This is an indefinite period, but in the northern states will usually average about 12 weeks.

Since all these crops are sown only once, your planting schedule is concerned only with the

Parsnips Are Improved By Freezing

quantity your family can eat. The table herewith shows the length of row required for each family serving.

To estimate the space sufficient to supply the family for this period multiply the figure given in column two of the table by 12, then again by the number of times per week the vegetable will be served on your table.

To obtain the yields for tomatoes and cucumbers estimated in the table, both must be trained on stakes or fences, to reduce the ground space occupied. If vegetables are to be grown for canning, additional space must be provided. Where both early and late varieties of a vegetable are grown, space should be divided between them, to get both an early harvest and the heavier yield which the slow-maturing kinds usually give.

The human race always has a small group of self-appointed leaders who worry about prosperity and the doings of the younger generation.

Farmers Must Act Soon For Soil Bank Benefits

Corn and wheat growers in Michigan can still become eligible for acreage reserve payments under the new soil bank law, but those interested in wheat will need to act fast. The deadline for wheat farmers is June 30 while the deadline of July 20 has been set for corn farmers. By those dates they must have signed a contract with their county ASC committee.

By this time, wheat farmer's must have reduced their acreage below their allotment. In addition, those farming in commercial corn counties must be within their base acreage of corn.

For full details of what to do under the soil bank law, farmers are urged to consult with their county A. S. C. agricultural agent

Army Recruiting Office Remains Open Until 9

The United States Army recruiting station at Grand River and Southfield has announced that it will remain open until 9 p.m. each week day evening for the remainder of June. These additional hours have become necessary to accommodate this month's high school graduates who are seeking information regarding technical schools.

Under the "choice, not chance" program high school graduates may select a technical school of their choice prior to enlistment and if accepted and eligible will be guaranteed attendance in that course. These schools may be selected from a long list of modern day courses and are nearly all of them valuable in later civilian life. In addition, all eligible young men, as well as high school graduates, may enlist directly into a branch of service, such as, military police, artillery, medical service or signal corps, as well as others.

Young women who are graduates are also eligible to select schools prior to enlistment in the women's Army corps, the local recruiting office telephone number is VERmont 5-3243.

Grange Cleanings

Tonight's meeting will be our last for the summer so we ought to have a good attendance. We have a fine class of new members coming into the order tonight, so come out and welcome them. Our Grange is growing steadily and it is a fine organization and cannot help but spread a good influence which is, of course, what we desire to do.

Our worthy master, John Oldenburg, and his wife returned last Saturday from a trip to visit their daughter who lives at Colorado Springs. They report a wonderful time but the trip home was very hot.

Remember, we are to have a picnic in the park on July 5 at 8:30 p.m. We have an invitation to Willoughby Wisely's home for an August picnic. Further information will be supplied later.

Mr. and Mrs. William Fehlig and children are vacationing up north near Mio for a few days.

All those who have Blue Cross insurance have been asked to come to the meeting prepared to pay if possible.

At 10:05 a.m. each morning a bus will stop at Hough school and then proceed to: Truesdale school, Canton school, Cherry Hill school and Bartlett school in that order. There were no pickups made the first day on this route.

At 10:45 another route will begin with the initial pickup point at Ann Arbor trail and Hamilton. From there the bus will go to Ann Arbor trail and Lilley road; finally to Ann Arbor trail and Riverside Drive. These youngsters will then be delivered.

We are still waiting on that flying platform—family size.

Play Areas Open Officially

Ten recreational playgrounds opened this week in and around the Plymouth area, thus providing both youngsters and adults ample opportunity for enjoying the summer months in supervised group gatherings. The play areas opened Tuesday.

Although the areas are primarily for youngsters and teenagers, playground supervisor Louise Cigile said Friday that adults and parents are urged to take part in the extensive program.

Mrs. Cigile announced the hours during which the areas will remain open: Central, Starkweather, Allen, Bird, Smith and Green Meadows areas will all open at noon and close at 8 p.m. each weekday. Hough, a six week play area, will be open from noon until 4 p.m.

The hours at the Hamilton play area and also at Auburn will be from 10 a.m. to noon and from 1 to 6 p.m. Truesdale area will be open from 12-4 as will Cherry Hill. Truesdale will be available from now until July 13. Then Cherry Hill will open and last until August 10.

Last Saturday the staff members of the playgrounds attended a workshop at Henry Ford school in Dearborn at which time suggested play programs were discussed. Monday Mrs. Cigile oriented her staff for the coming months.

B Pace-Setters Dwindle, A Leaders Hold Fast

Defeats to two of the five league leaders in the class "B" recreation softball conference last week sliced to three the number of pace-setters in that circuit. At the same time, the two front-runners in class "A" retained their top positions.

Still atop the "B" standings after action ended Thursday are Daisy, Northville VFW and King Furniture, each of whom turned in single victories to go with previous lone wins. However Whitman and Barnes and Chevrolet Spring and Bumper, each with losses, were dropped a notch in the ladder.

In "A" Beglinger Olds and Livonia Office captured their second victories of the fledgling season and remained tied for first place. Each has one tie. Other success was enjoyed by Cavalcade Inn who climbed into sole possession of second as Box Bar and Chevy were tagged with losses.

Class "A" scores: Beglinger 9, Chevy 5; Livonia 7, Evans 0 (by forfeit); Cavalcade 3, Box Bar 1. Class "B" scores: King 32, Evans 3; Northville VFW 14, Whitman and Barnes 0; Main and Mill 22, Chevy 17; Wall Wire 13, Price Bros. 11; Daisy 26, Garden City 10.

The standings:

Class "A"
	WON	LOST
Beglinger Olds*	2	0
Livonia Office*	2	0
Cavalcade Inn	2	1
Chevrolet Spr. & B	1	2
Box B. & B. & A.	1	2
Evans Products	0	3
*Beglinger Olds and Livonia Office each have a tie.
Class "B"
Daisy Mfg. Co.	2	0
Northville VFW	2	0
King Furniture	2	0
Whitman & Barnes	1	1
Chevrolet Spr. & B.	1	1
Wall Wire	1	1
Main and Mill	1	1
Evans Products	0	2
Garden City	0	2
Price Bros.	0	2

Class "A" Games

Beglinger Olds' four runs in the first coupled with five in the fifth clipped Chevy despite a five run rally staged by the Chevy bunch in the fifth and sixth. Home runs by Slessor and Hunt did the big work in the first inning for Beglinger. Thibideau was the winner and Tiliski the loser. Score was 9-5.

Livonia Office was awarded a forfeit victory when Evans failed to produce sufficient players at game time. Score was 7-0.

Cavalcade Inn waited until the sixth inning to jump on Box Bar pitcher Caldwell for two runs, ample margin to turn back the Box bunch, 3-1. Secord was the winner. Caldwell the loser. Secord limited the Box team to only two hits.

Northville Downs To Open Tuesday

Northville Downs, Michigan's pioneer pari-mutuel harness track, will be off and running Tuesday evening when a 35-night meeting will be inaugurated. The Downs' 13th season will extend until August 4.

According to John J. Carlo, executive manager of The Downs, the suburban racing plant is offering one of its most extensive stakes programs in recent years. The stakes series will be held on Wednesday nights with the $10,000 Governor's Cup Trot on August 1 being the featured highlight.

Nine new barns, constructed during the winter months, will improve conditions for horsemen.

Class "B" games

King Furniture went berserk from a scoring standpoint and slaughtered Evans Products to a 32-2 tune behind a 12-run burst in the first frame and continually easy scoring during the rest of the contest. Dickerson and Ronk hit circuit blows for the winners. On the mound for King was Villorot.

Northville VFW plated runs in the first and coasted to an easy 14-0 nod over Whitman and Barnes. Atchinson was the winning hurler, Barney the loser.

A bases-loaded home run clout by Schwartz plus 14 other hits sent Main and Mill home to its first win, a 22-17 affair over Chevy. Main and Mill tallied five runs in the first, six in the second and continued to score with ease. Chevy's big burst was a 10-run total in the second. Winner was Lightfoot, loser was Seelye.

Wall Wire built a 13-3 lead in two games over Price Bros. and withstood an eight-run rally in the closing innings to eke out a 13-11 win. Shummerman homered for Wall Wire. Winning hurler was Fox, loser Shepherd.

Daisy pummeled Garden City with 26 runs in four innings to squash the out-of-towners 26-10. The game went only four frames. Walks and 15 basehits did the job for Daisy. Williams and Mills were on the mound for the winners.

3 Baseball Squads In Rec Conferences

Three Plymouth recreation baseball teams swung into action earlier this week as the Plymouth Elks inaugurated its class "D" competition, Davis and Lent opened in class "E" and Fisher's Shoes initiated action in class "F".

A half dozen teams are entered in the "D" circuit. In addition to the Elks squad there also are: Garden City, Dearborn-Roosevelt, Belleville Merchants, Wayne A. S. Poole, and Wayne St. Marys. The schedule got underway Tuesday when the Elks took on Garden City.

This evening at 6 p.m. Elks face Dearborn-Roosevelt at the Inlander Park field in the locals' second test. Jack Stevenson of Detroit is Elks' manager. The schedule runs until July 19, with each team playing 10 games.

Last summer, the Elks club advanced to the state tourney by virtue of a local league crown plus a district title. It had a loop record of 10-2 and copped a single win in the districts to move into the state battling.

Turning to the "E" conference, of which Davis and Lent is one of seven entries, competition began Tuesday. At that time, the locals took on Livonia Police department. This afternoon Davis and Lent tries Northville for size. The season extends to August 2.

Other entries: Clarenceville, Wroten's Riding stable from Livonia, Boy's Republic, Wayne-Ford Civic league, and Livonia Police department.

In 1955 Davis and Lent swept the field, eventually winding up as state class "E" champion.

Three straight wins in the state tourney held in Pontiac in August brought the title home. The D & L squad took wins over Coldwater (by forfeit), Battle Creek (6-2) and Pontiac Boys' club (4-1). Fourteen wins and only one defeat earned the locals their respective league crown and a win in the districts moved them into the state trials.

The "F" conference features eight competing teams. In addition to Fisher's Shoes, other teams are: Livonia Center, Northville, Livonia Police department, Wayne County Training school,

Rains Postpone Merchants' Play

Bad weather continued to plague the Plymouth Merchants' Inter-County sand-lot baseball team last Sunday as a deluge of rain caused the postponement of two more contests, one an exhibition.

Merchants were scheduled to face, in exhibition, the Al Rogers' nine from Royal Oak in a twin bill opener. The Inter-County cellar squad, Presler Club from Detroit, shaped the opposition for the locals in the 'cap. The latter was a regular scheduled battle.

But heavy rains, which held sway Saturday and Sunday, halted proceedings before they got underway. Thus Merchants have had four of seven games called off so far in the 1956 campaign.

With two wins and one defeat, the locals stand in fourth place in the loop behind Romulus, Northville and Lincoln Park. Merchants' team manager Johnnie Schwartz said Monday that most of the other games in the league were also rained out Sunday.

The Merchants' next game is Sunday when they journey to Romulus to take on the league-leaders. Game time is 3:30 p.m. behind Romulus high school.

Cooper school, Rosedale school, and Clarenceville school.

Fisher's Shoes opened up Monday afternoon against Wayne County Training school. Yesterday the locals took on Livonia Police department. The season lasts until August 1.

In 1955, Fisher's Shoes was eliminated from play in the first round of state action when Jackson turned back the locals, 7-3. However, Fisher's captured its league crown on a 13-0 standing. A district title also came its way when Fisher's whipped Romulus, 17-5, and Wayne, 9-2.

The "D" baseball league is designed for players 18 years old and under. The "E" circuit accepts 16 and under boys, while "F" features 14 and under.

It's interesting to note that of the 12 ballplayers on the Davis and Lent class "E" state championship team from last summer, eight were members of the Plymouth high school varsity diamond squad this past spring. The Rocks wound up with a 9-3 card and second in the Suburban Six league.

Social Security Question Column

Readers are invited to send their social security questions to the Plymouth Mail. These questions will be answered in this column with the cooperation of the Detroit-Northwest social security office.

1. Will all of us who are getting social security checks now get an increase in July? I say we won't but others tell me we will.
E. J. H.
Answer: There is no increase in social security payments due in July. Some workers may now qualify for a new maximum payment of $108.50. However, this will be payable only to those who earned $4,200 in 1955 and at least $2,100 before July 1, 1956.

2. I am getting social security checks by the month because I am a widow. I am quite old and would now like to get the rest of my money in a lump sum. Can I have this changed now and how do I go about it?
J. C. R.
Answer: The monthly check you receive as a widow is the only way you can receive these benefits. If you are past 65 these payments will continue for life or until you remarry.

A COINCIDENCE
Fall River, Mass.—In connection with a two-car accident recently, police records noted that the driver of one of the cars was Manuel L. Souza, 187 Smith street. An injured party in the accident was Manuel L. Souza, 187 Smith street, and a witness questioned was Manuel L. Souza, 187 Smith street. They are three different persons, three generations of a family.

AN AMERICAN FLAG for the city commission chambers was presented by the B.P.O. Elks to the city in a flag day ceremony last week. Mayor Russell Daane, left, is shown receiving the flag from W. L. Big Torque of the Best Sellers

IT WOULD stand to reason that automobiles selling in the same league, so to speak, would be pretty close in their engineering specifications. Like in "torque multiplication" — the twisting force a transmission delivers to the drive shaft. (The greater the torque multiplication, the greater the performance).
But what do you find?
You find that any '56 Buick with advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* delivers a higher torque ratio than any standard-production car in America.
And you find that this high-torque performance is one reason for Buick's best-seller standing. For Buick is now more strongly positioned in the Top 3 of the nation's biggest-selling automobiles.

That's news—and there's plenty more where that came from.
For the '56 Buick is jam-packed with new engineering and styling advances to make it the best Buick yet, by far.
That new Dynaflo, for example. Not only does it bring you the top torque ratio in the nation today. It brings you the world's only switch-pitch performance in cars — plus a new part-throttle getaway response that's swifter, surer, and a gas-saver to boot.
The big new V8 engine you find in every '56 Buick—it's 322-cubic-inches big, and packed with the highest horsepowers, the highest compressions and the most advanced developments in all Buick annals.
There's a joyous new ride, too—steadied on a massive X-braced keel—cushioned on deep-oil shock absorbers—and buoyant with a new levelness on both country road and highway.

There's a new steering magic here that puts a new ease at your finger tips, and a new "sense of direction" in your every handling maneuver.
Thing to do, of course, is to come see and try for yourself.
That way you can also get a good hard look at the prices that have helped move Buick to a new sales success—to outselling all other cars in America except two of the well-known smaller ones.
Will you do that, this week?
*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Price increases recently recommended for Michigan hunting, fishing, camping and trapping licenses could produce about $1,750,000 in new revenue in 1958, enough to meet expected outdoor needs of Michigan's sportsmen during that fiscal year.

The state Conservation Commission asked price raises for all licenses because of rising costs of operation.

If enacted by the 1957 legislature, the raises would allow the Conservation Department to continue operation at its present level during 1958. Otherwise, cut-backs in present game, fish, land acquisition, education and protection programs would be inevitable that year.

The increase would net about $2,750,000 in new revenue at present sales levels, more than enough to meet Department needs. But Department officials say purchaser resistance will cause a 10 percent decline in total sales the first year, dropping the net revenue from $10,000,000 to $9,000,000, about what is needed for the coming fiscal period. The increases proposed are: resident fishing, from $1.50 to $2; temporary nonresident fishing, from $3 to $3.50; annual nonresident fishing, from $4 to $4.50; trout stamp, from $1 to $3; resident small game, from $2 to $3; nonresident small game, from $3 to $5; resident deer, from $3.50 to $5; nonresident deer, from $3.50 to $4; camp permit, from $3.50 to $10; trapping, from $2 to $3; resident archery, from $3.50 to $5; and nonresident archery, $10 to $25.

Also, the Commission asked half-price fishing licenses for all women, similar to many other states, and a general rod license for Great Lakes anglers. Under present rules, wives fish free, while unmarried women and widows must pay, and inland anglers must be licensed, though Great Lakes fishing costs nothing.

Detailed geological records of rock formations in various parts of Michigan recently have been compiled by the Conservation Department's geological survey division.

Information on the rock formations has been gathered during thousands of well-drilling operations in the state during the last 25 years. Drill cuttings from each well were analyzed and recorded, along with core descriptions.

An inventory, listing the sample logs and core descriptions available, has been compiled by Beverly L. Champion and Robert H. Edwards of the Conservation Department.

The inventory is designed to assist geologists and laymen who are working with subsurface formations. The logs included in the inventory are more detailed and informative than the average driller's log. The complete listing of records available can be obtained for 50c from the Conservation Department, Lansing 26.

Three new ski areas can be developed in Michigan as a result of recent Conservation Commission action.

The commission approved two land exchanges and a use permit that clear the way for the three developments. One ski area will be located in Holly recreation area near Flint and Pontiac, one near Houghton Lake and one near Charlevoix.

The Commission also approved purchase of 2055 acres of state forests and game area lands; Authorized flooding projects in Cheboygan, Roscommon and Mecosta counties;

Accepted the gift of a fishing site on the Huron River, Baraga county, from the Ford Motor Company Fund;

Discussed and approved timber sales, oil and gas lease sales, land exchanges and other land matters.

Michigan's forest fire record this year shows a sizeable improvement over 1954 when the state set an all-time record low in acreage damaged.

So far this year, 337 fires have damaged 2069 acres of state and private forests and grasslands. During the same period in 1954, some 2970 acres had been damaged by fire.

The damage total for the entire 1954 season was 3884 acres while the figure last year was 7204 acres.

Reported fires last week numbered 34, with damage to 86

Try This Refreshing Salad Suggestion!

Starting preparations for the family's favorite summer salad is Mrs. Harold W. Kuisel of 656 South Harvey. Spectators at the activity are daughters Mary, 13, and Jeanne, 4.

A salad suggestion is the recommendation this week, coming from Mrs. Harold W. Kuisel of 656 South Harvey. Rating high on the list of family favorites is "Molded Vegetable Salad," recipe for which the lady of the household concocted. Noteworthy is the flavorsome combination of ingredients in this dish. We're sure you'll find it a refreshing addition to hot-weather menus.

Here's the recipe:

Molded Vegetable Salad

Mix:
1 package lime gelatin
1 tablespoon vinegar
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 small clove garlic

Prepare:
1 or 2 carrots, shredded
2 or 3 stalks celery, finely chopped
1/4 green pepper, chopped
1 small onion, minced
1 dozen sliced stuffed olives
1/2 cucumber, diced
1 tablespoon chopped black walnuts

Dressing: Equal parts mayonnaise and olive pimiento cheese.

Prepare gelatin as per directions on box. While still hot, add vinegar, salt and garlic. Allow to cool until slightly thickened, and remove garlic before adding vegetables. After vegetables are thoroughly combined with gelatin, place in molds to chill. Top and serve with thoroughly blended mayonnaise-cheese dressing.

Local Couple Appears In 'Solid Gold Cadillac'

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Scott, lead players in the Plymouth Theatre Guild's last production, "Here Today," will have small parts in the Will-O-Way Playhouse showing of "Solid Gold Cadillac" which opened Tuesday night.

The Scotts, who live at 560 Parkview, are playing the parts of a newspaperman and gossip columnist. Mr. Scott is also publicity director for the playhouse this year.

The golden hued Coupe De Ville on display outside Will-O-Way during the two week showing reflects the luster of the 24 carat performance inside on the stage of Michigan's oldest "straw-hat" theatre.

"Chef" Bill Merrill, director of Will-O-Way, has taken all the necessary basic ingredients, mixed them in the proper proportions, and has brought forth a palatable production that should whet the appetite of even the most critical theatre goer. The play can be seen through July 1.

An increased number of feminine fans at American Legion junior baseball games this summer is the Auxiliary's aim in a special drive announced today by Fern Burleson, Americanism chairman. The Auxiliary will urge mothers, sisters and friends of the young baseball players to turn out for the games, along with all others who enjoy keenly contested baseball.

"Let's give these boys the encouragement of our interest and our presence at their games," Mrs. Burleson said. "They are doing more than playing baseball while they are out there on the field. They are also learning lessons in good citizenship through good sportsmanship, learning to win or lose and come up smiling and learning to be better Americans by playing this great American game under the Legion's guidance."

Milkshake Center at Home Provides Food, Fun for Kiddies

Want to encourage Jane or Johnny to drink more milk? Try setting up a milkshake counter in your home, suggests Nina Lou Baird, Wayne County Home Demonstration agent.

As the weather gets warm and the youngsters' appetites for cooling beverages increase, parents may wisely encourage milk drinks.

Everybody needs calcium every day. There are just three natural sources for calcium—milk, bones and eggshells. Of these, we use only milk as a food.

Young, growing children need more calcium than adults, but needs much too lacking in calcium are often selected by all members of the family.

Why not arrange a corner of your kitchen for the crowd that gathers in the afternoon or in the evening. Have milk in the refrigerator and milk on the shelf (dry or evaporated). And have a variety of different flavorings they can use for attractive milk drinks.

For that foamy, rather thick consistency especially liked in shakes and floats, there are new milkshake mixes in different flavors to add to milk. Non-fat dry milk may be added to fluid milk to make "double value" milk with flavors added to taste.

Plymouth Girl Wins County Scholarship

Sharlene Moers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Erich Moers, 2915 Canton Center road, has been awarded the Emma DuBord scholarship given by the Wayne County Home Demonstration Council to a county resident enrolling in home economics at Michigan State university.

Sharlene is the Wayne County Cherry Pie Queen and received the Betty Crocker Homemaker award at Wayne Memorial high school. Active in 4-H work, she has received a Michigan State University 4-H scholarship.

Sharlene is junior leader of the Sheldon Community 4-H club and has been president this year. It was largely through her efforts that the Sheldon team placed second in the East District Model Business Meeting contest. Sharlene placed second in the District Public Speaking contest and sixth in the State 4-H Food Preparation Judging contest at East Lansing.

Besides these varied activities, she has a high scholastic standing and is an outstanding equestrian. She received the 4-H Horsemanship award, was a member of the 4-H horse judging team and was the winner in the individual horse judging competition.

Sharlene will represent Wayne County in the 4-H Achievement Booth contest at State 4-H Club Week. She plans to enter Michigan State university this fall to prepare herself for a career in the Cooperative Extension service of Michigan State university.

Home furnishings must be practical as well as attractive to look at, claim specialists. Newsworthy are the many upholstered pieces which are now treated with chemicals which make them easy to keep clean and add to their life span. A finish has also been developed for wood pieces which makes them resistant to cigarette burns and spilled liquids.

Cool Quickies for Summer Days

Is anyone too old to remember with longing, those good crisp ice cream waffle sandwiches—everybody's favorite at the fairs when we were kids? Today's version, a slice of your favorite ice cream between two waffle squares, pleases the whole family.

Take that handy package of pancake mix from the cupboard shelf and in minutes stir up a batch of tantalizingly good waffles for these modern ice cream sandwiches.

GOLDEN WAFFLES

Makes 5 servings
2 cups pancake mix
2 eggs
2 cups milk
1/2 cup melted butter
Place all ingredients in a bowl and beat with a rotary beater until fairly smooth. Bake on a hot waffle iron until steaming stops. Serve at once.
For "special" desserts, here's a syrup topping that will pass all taste tests with flying colors. It is Old South Butterscotch Sauce, which is easy on your sugar supply and can be made in a jiffy, too.

OLD SOUTH BUTTERSCOTCH SAUCE

Yields 1 pint
1/2 cup dark corn syrup
1 cup brown sugar, firmly packed
1/4 cup butter
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup evaporated milk or cream

Boil together corn syrup, brown sugar, butter and salt until consistency of heavy syrup. Cool; add evaporated milk or cream before serving.

Waffles with melted butter and hot syrup are scrumptious for any time of the year. Another very satisfying main dish or dessert is waffles with fresh fruit during the season when there are plump, juicy berries, ripe flavorful peaches, or luscious, succulent pears. Just heap the fresh sweetened fruit or a combination of whipped cream and fresh fruit over piping hot waffles and deserve the chorus of delighted "Oh's!" and "Ah's!" which this easy treat will bring.

Gals, Here's What You Can Do To Help Hubby Get Ahead!

A happy home life can do more towards making your husband a success than any other single thing. In fact, some doctors tell us that it is absolutely necessary for most men to have the backing of a happy home to be a success in business and that it is necessary for all to be adjusted to each other's needs in order to succeed as an individual.

Most corporations nowadays refuse to hire a man for an important position until they have interviewed his wife to find whether she is likely to be a help or a hindrance. Many a wife has pulled her husband through difficulties by her tactful loyalty. Some other wives have broken up partnerships or run their husbands into bankruptcy.

Here are a few points that it would pay a wife to watch:
1. Make some sacrifice of your own interests or inclinations when he has homework.
2. Be willing to live on a lower salary if justified by greater prospects for the future.
3. Don't try to keep up with the Joneses.
4. Do your bit in handling the family income.
5. Help him to get the right kind of recreation in the right amount. Keep away from extravagance and especially from alcoholic beverages.
6. Praise his accomplishments and show interest in his work.

7. Avoid conflict in the home at any time, especially in the morning.

any time, especially in the morning.

8. Show him lots of affection and trust.

FASHIONS OF NON-WOVEN FABRICS

American ingenuity has created a fabric... a fabric that is not woven. Textile fibers are bonded together with a resin, spread into a flat, smooth sheet that can be fashioned into lovely wearable fashions. The plain colored non-woven fabrics, tan, grey, white, and black are being used in place of canvas in the linings of men's and women's suits and coats. Plain colors, every hue in the spectrum, are being used to interpret the petticoat craze. Garment designers make use of it for built-in linings of intricate dresses of satin, peau de soie, taffeta, silk barathes. A new method of printing these non-woven fabrics makes them look like woven fabrics. Exquisite designs of gold, lace, and prints make these fabrics desirable for skirts. They are also used for temporary draping of windows.

The National Institute of Dry-Cleaning, Silver Spring, Md., points out 2 considerations that must be deliberated when you are making a decision to purchase non-woven fabrics: 1. These designs are made by pigment printing, which means your drycleaner is limited as to what he can do in attempting to remove stains or spots, as many of the agents he must use to remove them will also remove the design. 2. For your own protection, inquire at the source of purchase if the fabric has passed the requirements of the Flammable Fabrics Act. And in any event, watch that cigarette when you are wearing a garment made of a non-woven fabric! There is no way this fabric can be mended.

Daisy Mfg. Adopts Ten War Children With $2000 Charitable Contribution

A $2000 charity contribution in the name of its distributors last Christmas turned Daisy Mfg. company this spring into a cooperative foster parent organization, adding ten war children from Korea, Italy, Greece, Poland and France.

The contribution went to the agency "Foster Parents Plan for War Children, Inc." Ordinarily Daisy gives Christmas presents to its distributors throughout the country. But last winter Executive Vice President Cass S. Hough felt that a better gesture would be this contribution.

Thus the company, in the name of its distributing agents in the United States, donated $2000 to the war children benefit organization in New York City. As a result Daisy and its distributors have adopted ten war victims, all poverty-stricken youngsters ranging in age from five to eight years old.

The gift, given through the agency, assures basic food, clothing and shelter for each of the children. Their stories are sad tales of hard luck and heart-break; but now they're at least assured of a chance.

Shortly after FPPWC informed Daisy that it had adopted the youngsters (six boys and four girls) letters started coming in from the children. All expressed their humble appreciation for the generosity displayed by Daisy. The letters also indicated the conditions in which the youngsters live.

Jong Suk Park, a six-year-old Korean girl orphaned in the fighting, was glad "the cold winter was over." She was grateful for clothes which kept her much warmer.

Lee Kwang Woo was orphaned by bombing and fighting in Korea. He and his sister live in an orphanage there. "I was promoted to the fourth grade in April," he said in his letter, a translation. "We eat boiled rice, soup and Korean pickles. Meat twice weekly."

Francesco Padova, 8, is a member of an Italian family of four. He, his hopelessly crippled father, his mother and a brother live in abject poverty. He was thankful for the $2500 (ten dollars) allowance provided by the FPPWC. He "bought some badly needed clothing, school books" with the money.

Daisy recently sent each of the adopted boys a gift of one of its products. The adopted girls received dolls. The company employees are planning to send clothing and other small items to the youngsters.

The seven other little war victims are equally tragic instances of the ruthlessness of war.

Umberto Proietti, 8, and his five-year-old sister Louisa live in pitiful poverty in Poli, Italy. Their father is ill and barely able to work 10 days a month. Their mother makes about eight dollars a month as a house maid. Their home is a shack.

Zenon Los is a Ukrainian-Polish boy now living in England with his refugee parents who had been inmates of Nazi forced-labor camps. The father is crippled, the mother a victim of tuberculosis.

Michael and Andros Kielzack are French brothers who live with their widowed mother. She earns $39 a month as a farmhand to support the three of them. The father died in 1954, his health shattered by five years in nazi prison.

Gethseman and Panayota Topouzido, seven and six respectively, are from Greece. Their father was killed fighting Greek Communists in 1950. Since then, their mother has found shelter for them with their grandfather, himself too poor to support them. Their mother receives a pension of only eight dollars a month for their livelihood.

Tom Kent, Daisy director of personnel, explained that one of the problems of sending gifts to the adopted children was that possibly brothers and sisters would be left out. He said that Daisy and the Foster Parents organization must provide in such a manner so as not to upset the family economy.

Kent said that he was not sure whether or not Daisy would continue to contribute to this charity in the future. He did not know how long Daisy would contribute to the support of these 10 war children.

But regardless the 10 youngsters are receiving better care than they were previously—and simply through the novel idea of contributing to a benefit organization at Christmas time in the name of Daisy distributors.

Brownies' Camp Begins Monday

One hundred Brownie scouts, 12 leaders, two first aiders and eight senior girl scouts will participate this year in activities included in the annual week-long Brownie day camp which convened at the Kiwanis girl scout lodge on June 18 and will continue through June 22.

The latter announcement was made this week by Mrs. Sheldon Baker, day camp director.

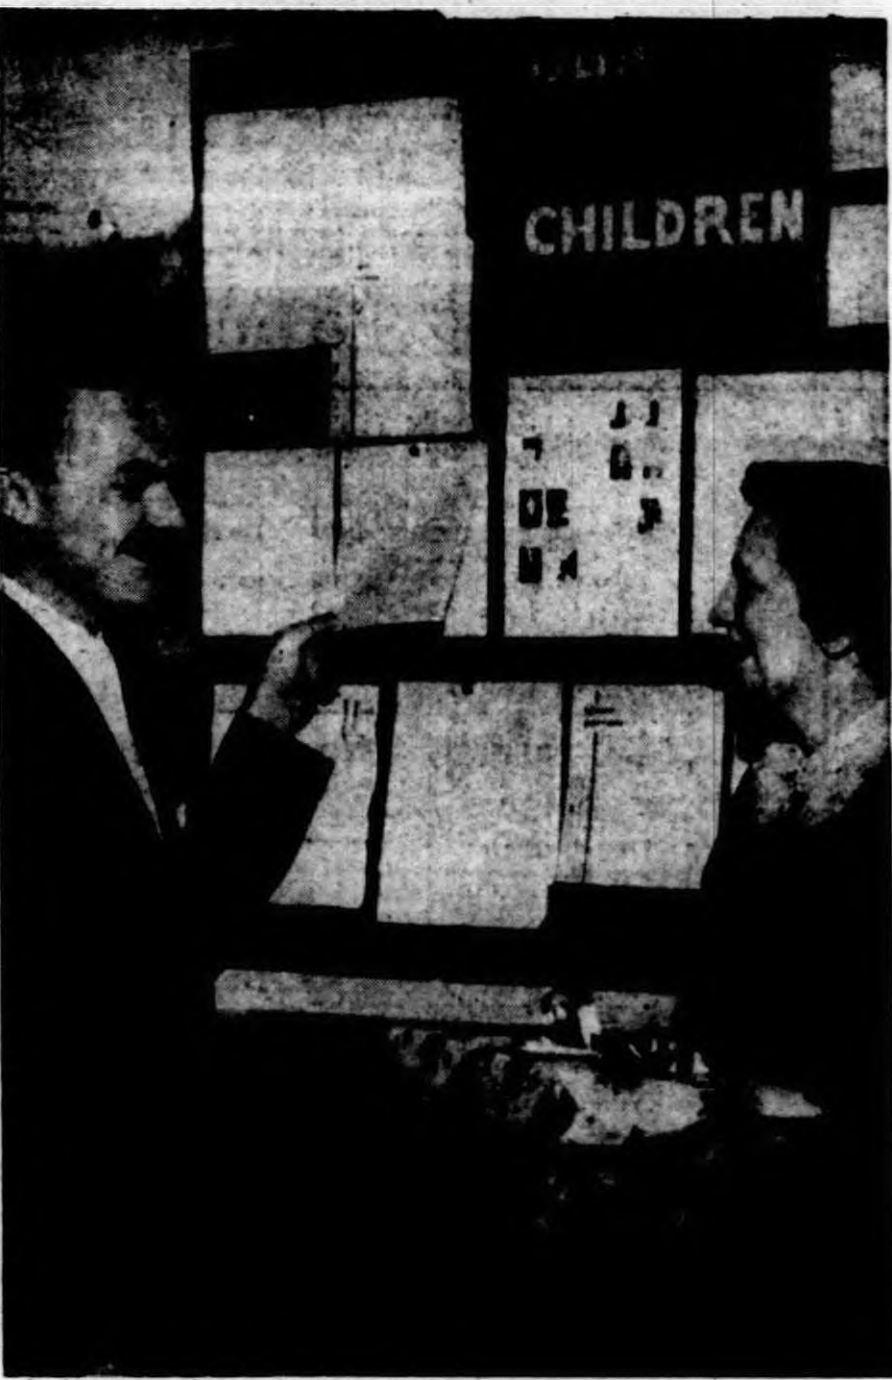

The Brownie day camp will be called Camp Tonquish as submitted by troop three, directed by Mrs. E. P. Light and Mrs. William Edgar. A contest was held among the local troops to determine a name.

Activities at the camp will include handicraft, dramatics, cooking and similar skills.

At the same time, Mrs. Baker announced that a site for the intermediate camp, which will be held July 9-13, has also been found. This camp is scheduled to take place at the farm of Samuel Spicer. Day camp directors earlier explained that a location for the camp was the only item missing towards its realization.

Mrs. Baker is being assisted on day camp plans by Mrs. Wayne Rubey, general chairman, and Mrs. Joe Merritt, Brownie camp chairman.

ROBERT COWAN, assistant sales manager at Daisy, helped arrange plans for the $2000 contribution last Christmas to Foster Parents Plan for War Children which consequently brought about Daisy's adoption of 10 youngsters in Europe. Mrs. Betty Mende, receptionist, is one of the numerous employees sending useful packages to the children. The contribution was made in the name of Daisy distributors.

Walls of Wood Top Choice
For Use in Home Improvement

In this year of big emphasis on home modernizing, hardwood plywood wall paneling may walk off with top honors as the "most favored project," according to leading interior stylists.

The giant "Operations Home Improvement" program is encouraging thousands of families in all parts of the nation to cast about for the best ways to update their homes. The reason that genuine hardwood wall paneling rates high, the decorators say, is that it works a dramatic change in the home at low cost. And installation is a quickly-accomplished carpenter job—or a practical
"do-it-yourself" proposition, which means further savings.

Another advantage is that hardwood plywood offers wide variety in both species and use. A popular treatment is to panel one or two walls in a living room for an accent note. Paneling (code 8 x 12-foot accent wall) costs anywhere from $35 to $75, depending on the kind of hardwood chosen, and whether finished or unfinished paneling is used.

The accent wall is favored in bedrooms and dens, too, while in dining rooms paneling halfway up for a wainscoting effect is popular. A big use for hardwood plywood paneling will be in giving warmth and beauty to new living space in finishing off attics or basements, or a new room added to the home.

The most popular hardwood species available in wall paneling are: ash, birch, cherry, elm, gum, limba, mahogany, maple, oak and walnut. The panels can be had either smooth-surfaced or routed vertically at intervals for a random-plank effect. Plywood wall paneling is usually installed in 4 x 8-foot sheets, but a 16-inch x
8-foot panel is available for a formal plank effect. Wainscot panels 36 inches high are cut from popular six-foot lengths.

In most post-war homes, hardwood wall paneling will be installed over an existing dry-wall surface. If the surface is relatively plumb, the paneling can be installed merely by coating the wall and the back of the panel with contact cement, allowing the cement to dry until tacky, and pressing the panel firmly to the wall in the correct position. Be certain of proper alignment of the panel because the cement adheres quickly. Follow with nails at the top and bottom where the nail heads will be covered with trim.

The next panel is applied the same way, tightly butt-jointed to the first.

Mastic can be used instead of contact cement, but more nails are required to hold the panel firmly, inasmuch as the mastic takes approximately eight days to set.

If the dry-wall is irregular, or the surface is of another material such as plaster, masonry or bare studding, you will have to provide a nailing surface for the panels. This usually takes the form of furring strips applied horizontally around the room in rows two feet apart, with vertical strips "let in" on 16-inch centers or where panel joints are to occur.

MOST WANTED—SPACE

Home-buyers are looking for extra space in their new homes more than any other single item.
Their demands have raised home building standards to new heights.
The day of the typical 1,000 to 1,200-square-foot house seems to be definitely on the way out. Becoming more nearly typical is the well-planned home of about 1,500 square feet. One important way quality builders are adding additional "feeling" of space in their homes is to make use of the open-plan technique in which there are fewer wall divisions and more half-wall room dividers.
This has all tended to put greater emphasis on flooring design.
Needed are materials such as durable ceramic or quarry tile that can be used anywhere in the home and still complete any area's particular design. Tile comes in 200 different colors and a tremendous variety of shapes and sizes.

INSTALLATION VITAL

Country plumbing should be done with as much care as plumbing for the city home because of the hazards to health inherent in improperly installed plumbing systems, says the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau.

Plan New Decor to Fit Interests of Young and Old

Before redecorating a home, decide on the qualities in floor covering which are most important and best for the individual activities of every family member, advises the Construction Research Bureau, national clearing house for building information.

If there are small children,
teenagers, or pets in the home,
easy upkeep naturally is an outstanding requirement. For an entrance hall, stairway or other highway of continuous family traffic, long wear is another important consideration. Non-skid underfoot safety for everyone, from elderly family members to babies and visitors is a "must" of course.

Color and beauty that will last are the next qualities to be considered, together with getting full value for the family's investment, especially if they must keep an eye on the budget while they shop.

The flooring which rates highest on all these scores of ease of care, long wear, and safe, luxurious underfoot beauty at a cost every family can afford, is resilient asphalt tile, such as Kentile.
This flooring is available in a wide range of high fashion colors, and its gleaming non-porous surface is kept shining with a minimum of care.

Generally speaking medium colors that feature a delicate marbleization, won't show soil as quickly as plain light or dark flooring. So, in choosing the right floor tile for each room in the home, a family should consider how each room will be used.

If dust, lint or spilled milk are the problems, as in small children's bedrooms which double as play areas during the daytime, a marbled warm tan asphalt tile such as Luma Chelle, with crisp veinings of orange, brown and white, or cheerful, exciting red

Harlequin-Carnival tile mottled in a rainbow of hues, are kept clean with a whisk of a damp cloth.

Where housekeeping includes coping with mud tracked in from the garden or street by small feet and lively pets, a darker black-ground shade of flooring, such as Verde Antique, a black background asphalt tile marbled in cheerful green, gray and white, or Mardi Gras Carnival, a dynamic red-brown tile, with gay multi-colored mottling.

For that look of richness and elegance traditionally associated with luxury and prestige, the inviting warmth and elegance of Corktone tile may be selected for the living room area, as well as for bedroom floors. It can be installed in checkerboard style of alternating light and dark natural random cork shades, in random square and oblong pattern shading from soft beige to deep tones, or in an uninterrupted sweep of one single natural cork color.

REAL KITCHEN EFFICIENCY

Here's one kitchen, with just a little more than 100 square feet of floor space, that has real built-in efficiency. Step in and take a look. For instance, all the shelves are open, saving hundreds of motions involved in opening and closing doors. Shelves are higher than usual, reachable by built-in steps. Empty cans go down a chute to the basement.
There's a garbage disposer in the sink. Chopping boards are lower than the counter for speedier action. Utensil drawers are located near site of use. All surfaces are covered with stamproof, sanitary ceramic tile which comes clean with just a whisk of a damp cloth.
Dishwasher is placed near where dishes are stored.

HERE'S HOW...

MAKE A DRUM TABLE

A drum table, easily constructed, can easily serve as that additional piece of furniture for the recreation room. It can be used as an end table, coffee table or an occasional table.

Edge glue 4 pieces of 1 by 6-inch finished lumber, or use hardwood plywood to make the top. Make the box frame from 1 by 3-inch finished lumber.

Assemble the frame using 6-penny finishing nails and glue at the joints. Metal corner irons should be installed inside the frame for additional strength;
this assembly provides support for the legs.

If a drawer is desired instead of the false front as shown, substitute a 3/4 by 2-inch divider for the face board of the frame. Do a 3/8-inch slot in the side pieces and insert the divider. Use glue and 4-penny finishing nails.
Faster 3/4 by 1-inch drawer runners as shown. Use No. 4 1/2-inch wood screws. An application of beeswax on the runners will prevent sticking.

Cut the legs to the taper shown. Bevel one face and fasten to the frame. Use glue and No.
5 wood screws. Mount the top.

Insulation Plus Shading
Key to Summer Comfort

Here are six steps to keep a house comfortable during the hot summer. They work both in an air-conditioned house and in a house that doesn't have mechanical cooling. In an air-conditioned house, they reduce the initial cost of installation and operating expense:

1. Landscaping. Trees and shrubs should be located so that they'll shade the house from the summer sun. At the same time, they'll serve as a windbreak to keep hot breezes out.

2. Sun shades. Awnings, a wide roof overhang on the south side of the house, canopies, and sun screens serve much the same purpose as shade trees and can be added to either a new or an old house in much less time than it takes trees to grow.

When awnings with sides are used, there should be an open space where the awning meets the wall in order to keep warm air from being trapped and held against the house.

3. Insulation. At least as much insulation as used for economical winter heating should be used for summer comfort and economical air conditioning. A three-inch thickness of mineral wool is recommended for walls and a minimum of four inches for ceilings.
The National Warm Air Heating & Air Conditioning Association, in its authoritative manual on "Design and Installation of Summer Air Conditioning for

New and Existing Residences," says, "In all areas of the house, the more insulation the better."
4. Roof. A light-color roof reflects much of the sun's heat, keeping it from being absorbed into the house. Widely used asphalt shingles are available in a variety of light colors that serve this purpose well.

5. Windows. Larger windows should preferably be located in the south wall of a house. The roof overhang or another type of sun shade will keep midday sunlight out of south windows. The roof overhang can be designed so that sunlight during the winter,
when the sun is lower in the sky,
will enter and help warm the house.

6. Attic ventilation. Either natural ventilation through louvers or forced ventilation by a fan is recommended. When an attic is finished as living space, ventilation is needed in the space between the roof peak and the ceiling of the attic room.

Hard work may be good for man, but there are generous souls willing to give their share to somebody else.

Glass Borrows Space, Helps Decorate Today's Modern Open-Plan Ranch Houses

Just as architects and builders are putting bigger windows into today's smaller houses to "borrow" space from the outdoors so are interior designers relying on glass for space-giving decoration.

The bigger windows just naturally lend themselves to the open planning of the popular post-war ranch house, in the opinion of local and national building contractors and lumber dealers. In size they range from single picture windows to whole walls of glass, depending on architectural requirements, view and landscaping, and the individual tastes of buyers. A current favorite in new houses, particularly where economy is a factor, is the panel window, a system of fenestration which employs a simple framework fabricated from 2 by 6s. Regardless of type, the bigger windows let in abundant daylight and have the effect of tying the outdoors with the indoors, thus creating the feeling of more space.

Along with this swing to bigger windows is a growing demand for double glazing, builders wanting owners to enjoy minimized heat loss and consequent savings. In line with this demand, Thermopane insulating glass, which gets its insulating qualities from dry air that is sealed between the unit's multiple panes, now is made in standard sizes to fit virtually any window requirement. In the case of panel windows, the framing members are rabbeted to take only two standard sizes, one for fixed lights and the other for ventilators.

On the inside of the house, the designers, say one of the more effective means of increasing the apparent size of small rooms is the application of patterned glass, sometimes called decorative glass. Being translucent, too, this glass transmits diffused light to permit obscurity and privacy.

When used to form partitions or interior screens, one of its more common functions, decorative glass makes it possible for one room to borrow light from an adjoining room, an important space-giving feature. Patterned glass also has been found effective for glazing lighting fixtures, household cabinets and closet doors as well as windows in rooms demanding privacy plus diffused daylighting.

In addition to well-planned uses of this translucent decorative glass, interior designers more and more are suggesting large wall mirrors to seemingly double the beauty and size of rooms. Mirrors have the ability to reflect light and to enhance the cheerfulness of home interiors. The new twin-ground plate glass is particularly effective for mirrors, he says, because of its near-perfect parallel surfaces.

Vitrolite structural glass is another member of the glass family which has many uses in the homes, being used chiefly for bathroom and kitchen walls, and for countertops in the kitchen or utility room. This glass is opaque, non-absorbent and impervious to moisture, and comes in a number of decorator colors.

Build Cedar-Lined Storage To Keep Your Rugs Safe

The decorator-approved practice of displaying lovely hardwood floors, setting off their beauty with attractive area or accent rugs, bids fair to popularize the idea of changing rugs seasonally, according to observers of home planning trends.

Many homemakers adopting the exposed floor styling prefer to employ rugs of rich, warm texture in winter, then switching to light cool covering in summer.

Giving rooms a periodic "lift," and at the same time saving wear and tear on the more luxurious winter rugs, the plan has much to recommend it. There should, of course, be dry, moth-safe facilities for storing the out-of-season rugs.

If such facilities are lacking, an ideal arrangement is to install a moth-repellent cedar-lined storage designed especially for rugs. One can be built in an attic at little cost by any man who is handy with a hammer and a saw.

The storage, with framework on 24-inch centers, can be constructed along a sidewall. It need not extend from the wall more than about three feet, but should be long enough to accommodate the largest rug in rolled form. For ease in inserting and removing large rugs, it can be fitted with a door on the end.

A set of rollers, attached to the framing crosswise of the enclosure and about a foot or so off the floor, will help in handling the rugs. Little effort then would be required to slide the rugs in and out. Rollers could be devised by using lengths of 1-inch pipe inserted in 1 1/2-inch pipe. If desired, the closet could be made extra long so that small rugs could be stored in a separate compartment with a door on the front.

Aromatic red cedar closet lining for such a project can be obtained from almost any lumber dealer. For maximum moth-repellency, it should be applied to the closet floor, as well as to the walls and ceiling.

Before storage, rugs should be treated with an approved spray to make sure they are free of moth larvae, carpet beetles, silverfish and other insects.

WINDOWS OPEN

When painting a window screen to freshen it for the window's open season, use a piece of felt or other material attached to a flat block of wood or a piece of metal, rather than a brush. A dry brush or piece of clean felt used after painting will remove any clogged paint.

After opening a paint can, being careful not to damage the lid, fill the groove with paper towels, napkins or tissues rolled in a strip. You can throw them away when painting is finished. Always be sure to clean out groove with paper before replacing lid.

HOME OWNERS QUESTION BOX

Q—Sometimes it's very difficult to remove old putty from a window frame. Is there any easy way to get it off?

A—One fairly easy way is to run a hot soldering iron across the putty, just ahead of your putty knife. The heat will soften the putty and it will come off more easily.

Q—When installing mineral wool batts as attic insulation, is it important to fill the small, odd-shaped spaces around pipes and electric cable? Or is it sufficient to insulate the clear, open spaces between studs and rafters, assuming that the odd-shaped spots are so few and small they don't matter?

A—It is highly important not to miss a spot. A conscientious job of installation is required if mineral wool is to give its full measure of summer and winter comfort and fuel savings. If possible, slide the insulation between pipes or cable and the wall. If there isn't enough room to do this, slit the batt or blanket and sandwich the pipe or cable between the two pieces.

Q—The paint on the outside of my house looks dingy, even though it was put on only a little over a year ago. Is it possible to wash exterior paint?

A—Soap and water often can freshen exterior paint. Use an ordinary scrubbing brush. If the brush is attached to a pole, you won't have to move the ladder so much. Start washing at the bottom of the house and work up. This will prevent the dirty water from running over dry parts of the wall and leaving hard-to-remove streaks. After a whole wall has been washed, it can be rinsed with a garden hose.

Q—My chimney is clogged. How can I clean it out?

A—Wait till after a rain when the soot is moist. Fill a burlap bag with straw and put a heavy rock in the bag to weight it. Then drag the bag up and down the chimney, loosening soot as it goes. The soot that is loosened will fall to the base of the chimney. It can then be removed through the clean-out door at the bottom of the chimney.

It is a mistake to assume, when someone asks your advice, that the questioner is interested in what you try to say.

Roger Babson

Democracy End Seen

Babson Park, Mass. I meet many interesting people, especially when in Florida where, during the winter, brilliant minds gravitate. As I have just returned to Massachusetts, I wish to mention five such men.

WHAT ABOUT WORLD WAR III?

One of these men is an international oil expert who has just returned from Arabia. He states that a small area in the Far East contains more oil than all other regions of the world. He doesn't believe that World War III will happen during our lifetime; but if it does, the war will be for the control of this fabulous wealth of oil. He says: "Arabia is where the United Nations Headquarters should be located!"

Another very interesting man, one of the nation's greatest fundamental physicists, is interested only in studying atoms. He thinks that our banks, factories, and stores are mere "peanuts"; and that I should not waste time studying them. He talks of the marvelous possibilities from rearrangement of atoms so as to make anything cheaply—perhaps life itself—and the securing of free power from or through the air.

ARCHEOLOGISTS MAKE YOU THINK

Another interesting man is one who has just returned from excavating the great city of Carthage in Northern Africa. Here are found seven layers of cities, averaging some seventy-five feet, one below the other. All were once rich and powerful; all but the last have been destroyed. This man would not own any property in any vulnerable large city. He says: "The safest investment is a small, fertile well-watered farm in the center of the United States." Based on all previous history, he foresees within one hundred years a complete collapse of our "experiment with Democracy," to be followed by a Dictatorship and later a Monarchy.

My next choice is a famous parapsychologist from a leading university. He is studying the most advanced methods of psychic communication, including clairvoyance, telepathy, and other "sensory" powers. He hasn't much use for telephone wires or even present methods of broadcasting. To hear him talk, you would think we were still living in the "Stone Age," with little realization of our powers to think or communicate.

WHAT IS BEAUTY?

My last visitor was a shabbily dressed man who had traveled over a thousand miles to discuss "Beauty," which to him included architecture, paintings, music, jewelry, and even perfume. "These," he said, "are the few things which we find in the oldest tombs of the wealthiest Egyptian Pharaohs." He believes these are the best investments today. To enjoy these things, he claims that they do not need to be heard, or seen, or touched; but that Beauty is something we enjoy through our thoughts and that, like gravity waves, it can penetrate any enclosure.

When I praised certain rich men like Andrew Mellon for buying famous paintings and establishing great art museums, he considered me very materialistic and frowned upon the thought that Beauty could be "purchased." His parting words were: "Read your Bible, especially the twelfth chapter of Ecclesiastes and the thirteenth chapter of First Corinthians."

LOOKING CENTURIES AHEAD

The actual Bible which I read was published in 1540 by my ancestor, Reverend John Rogers, who later was "burned at the stake" in London for looking ahead. After reviewing these five visitors, I wonder if there may not be a time ahead of us when the possessing of something not now considered of value may be recognized as the only true wealth. The Old Testament Prophets may have had it in mind when they talked about "JEHOVAH;" Jesus, when He talked about "LOVE," and the Early Church leaders when they wrote of the "HOLY SPIRIT." Most religions now use these words in their creeds; but very few of their followers, including those of us who call ourselves "Christian," treat these unseen forces as wealth. This is not surprising, as it took our ancestors a million years to awake to the power of electricity! It is even possible that the atoms of the physicists may also be "peanuts." I don't know.

I am inclined to believe that too many of us are wasting our lives in things that do not really help to give us health, happiness, or power. Perhaps real-wealth is something that cannot be touched, or seen, or even deposited in a bank or kept in a safe-deposit box. I do, however, forecast that the time will come when it will be recognized that wealth is not what nearly everyone now considers "wealth" to be.

Quotes

WILLIAM F. KNOWLAND, U. S. Senator from California: "One segment not receiving its share of economic sunshine is farming."

EDGAR I. WILLIAMS, architect: "He-man United States isn't interested in art."

LOUIS C. GERSTEIN, Jewish rabbi: "It is the character and personality of human beings that make up the world in which we live."

Live Through Your Vacation

One of the results of the mad rush of Americans to vacation spots during the weekends, in summer, is a wholesale slaughter on the highways and many unnecessary deaths at summer resort areas.

Experts say the worst traffic jams of vacation weekends occur on Sunday afternoons, and so if you are going away for the weekend, try to avoid the Sunday afternoon traffic—if possible — and if you are caught in it, exercise more than the usual amount of caution.

It is also interesting to note that many people, some of whom are good swimmers, drown unnecessarily every summer. Commenting on this aspect of vacation safety, a Maryland police official recently revealed that boats were involved in 31 of 106 drownings which occurred in Maryland in 1955.

That is a surprising figure, and it means that about one out of every three drownings involves a boat. If you go boating, or fishing, and cannot swim, there is absolutely no excuse for being without a seat-type or a chest-type life preserver.

If this editorial induces one 1956 summer vacationer to take along a life-preserver, and he happens to need it, or induces one driver to stay off the roads on Sunday afternoon, or to drive carefully and avoid an accident, it will have served its purpose. We hope you will be the beneficiary of these words of caution.

Q—Can you tell me if the war veteran population is growing or receding?
A—According to the Veterans Administration veterans of all wars in civil life at the end of April 1956 totaled 22,291,000 as compared to 21,695,000 a year ago. However World War II veterans are diminishing. There were 32,000 less veterans of world war II on April 30, 1956 than the same date in 1955, and there were 85,000 less veterans of World War I in the same period.
Q—When did Congress provide that a new star be added to the flag upon admission of a new state?
A—This was an act of Congress of April 4, 1818.
Q—What was the main difference between the government under the old Articles of Confederation, and that established by the Constitution?
A—Under the articles of Confederation, the government was called a union of States or a Confederation, with each state considering itself supreme in many ways. Under the Constitution, the Government becomes a union of people elevated above sectional or state interests, all united into a nation with a common aim and destiny.
Q—Is there a statue of Christopher Columbus in Washington?
A—Yes, it is a large fountain statue on a plaza adjacent to the Union railroad station looking toward the Capitol Building.
Q—Where does the words "The United States of America" first appear officially?
A—In the articles of Confederation. Article 1 reads: "The Stile of this Confederacy shall be 'The United States of America'."

State Studies College Expansion Needs

Far reaching effects can be expected by Michigan taxpayers from a state authorized survey of present college facilities. This study is to provide a sound basis for future legislation in higher education. It will help legislators decide how to aid existing colleges. It will indicate how many more colleges are needed to meet the demands of increasing enrollment. According to Sen. Don Vander Werp (R-Fremont), chairman of an interim joint legislation committee, the study will coordinate the needs of all areas of the state.

Expected cost of the survey will exceed $150,000, according to Vander Werp. It will be financed by $75,000 already appropriated by the state legislature and a similar amount expected from the Kellogg Foundation. The actual survey is already under way. Dr. John D. Russell of Santa Fe, N. M., chancellor and executive secretary of the board of education finance of that state, was appointed director.

Expansion of present college facilities will be held down until the results of the survey are in—sometime in 1958. Many members of the 1956 legislature opposed a new state medical school and off campus branches of Michigan State University until the overall needs of the state's students can be ascertained.

Circumstances are more crucial in some states than others, according to Dr. Russell. He has made studies similar to the one underway here in Ohio, Florida, Illinois, Kentucky, Maryland, Idaho and Alabama.

"The one thing we have found to be general in all states," Dr. Russell said, "is that teaching salaries are low and that there are big deficiencies in educational needs."

Growth of enrollment in colleges during the next 15 years will be tremendous. In the Ohio study just completed by Dr. Russell, he found that Ohio State University needs to expand from its present enrollment of 21,000 to about 80,000 students unless "something" is done.

That "something," according to Sen. Vander Werp, is also necessary in Michigan. He believes the taxpayers can be saved money by decentralizing education throughout Michigan by fostering colleges in local communities.

Vander Werp received support of Dr. Russell who stated that in general he believes in "smaller enrollments with more facilities." Dr. Russell said that the question of decentralization will certainly be one of the factors in the survey.

Outlook is bright for Michigan apple growers. Holland F. Patterson, secretary-manager of the Michigan State Apple Commission, reports that Michigan's crop for 1956 looks like best in the country. The National Apple Institute's June "estimate" places it at nearly 85 million bushels.

On the other hand, small crops are expected in competitive apple growing states. State of Washington crop is reportedly the smallest in 30 years; east coast production is down sharply.

The biggest year is on hand for Michigan residents anxious to "entertain" vacationers. According to the Michigan Tourist Association, last year's record season will be overshadowed by more than five million out-of-state visitors. Vacation inquiries are running five percent ahead of 1955, tourist officials say. Natural attractions will vie with man-made attractions this year, as the partially completed Mackinac Straits Bridge is expected to draw its share of interested tourists. Special events pack the summer months. During June, July and August more than 75 events, ranging from water carnivals to a national music festival, are scheduled. For those who wish to take in some of the state's many attractions, a summer events calendar can be obtained by writing the Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 4.

To promote a greater awareness of safety measures needed in traffic, 500,000 "Summer Safety Pledges" have been distributed throughout the state to elementary school children by the Traffic Safety committee of the Michigan Petroleum Industries. Designed to cut down the number of traffic accidents involving children, the summer safety pledge is one part of an overall campaign to emphasize safety in Michigan.

The Traffic Safety committee has already distributed more than 4 million paper windshield cleaners through service stations bearing the slogan "See Danger to Avoid It" and 3 million speedometer stickers to remind motorists of the state's new speed law.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"If you had your choice of living in this 90 degree heat every day or in temperatures where it is always below freezing, which would you select?"

MRS. ARTHUR NORGROVE, 241 Pearl: "I like warm weather because you can do more things when it is warm than when it's cold. Besides, sunshine is healthy."

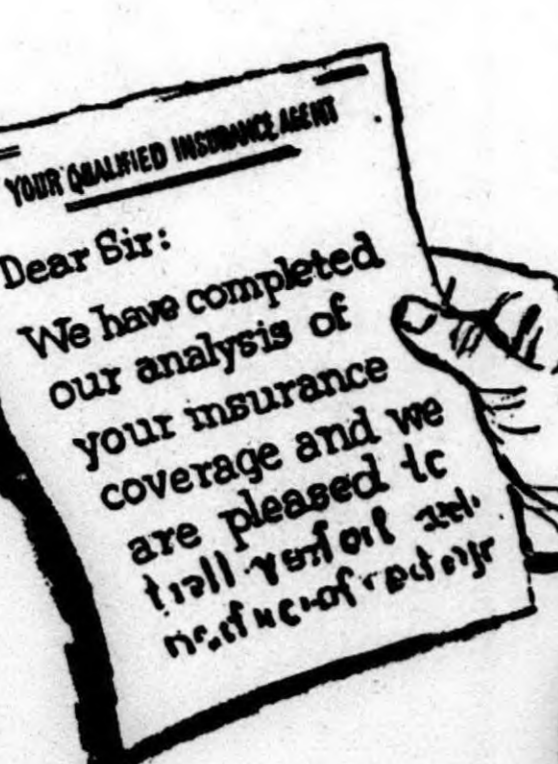

RICKY GEARNS, 9035 Marlowe: "I'd like it in between but if I had to choose, I would prefer it 90 degrees. There's more stuff to do when its warm like playing baseball, croquet and swimming. The best reason though is because when it's hot there is no school."

CHARLES DEVOS, Royal Oak (local employee): "People might think I'm a freak but I've got such a sinus infection that you can give me the hot weather anytime. Everyone says its too hot—but I like it. That's about the only reason I have for liking it. Otherwise, I'd be like everyone else in liking it cooler."

DIANE FUELLING, 11727 Priscilla Lane: "I would rather have it over 90. You don't have to wear lots of clothing like heavy jackets and gloves. You can always go swimming to cool off. And you can do so many more things when its warm like swimming, and going on picnics. We're out of school too."

IT'S GOOD TO KNOW FOR SURE!

As years go by and we add to our worldly possessions, most folks buy insurance from time to time to protect those possessions. Thus, the average person's insurance program is built up piecemeal. Consequently, many of us are not SURE about this coverage at any given time. Occasionally, we ask ourselves, "Am I protected in this or that set of circumstances?" "Should I have a lower deductible figure on my automobile insurance?" Truly, there are a multitude of such questions. And the answers—CORRECT AND CONCISE—are as near as your telephone. As qualified independent insurance agents, we are ready at all times to make such an analysis of your insurance without obligation. If your insurance coverage is adequate and fairly priced, we'll tell you so. If it is incomplete, we'll make recommendations. The choice, then, is yours BUT YOU WILL KNOW FOR SURE!
