

Essay Contest on Area's Top Problems Opens for Youths

The Plymouth Mail today is announcing a contest for essays written by students on the subject of any one of the Plymouth area's "five foremost problems."

Duplicate prizes of $25 for first and $10 for second will be given to the best compositions submitted by (1) students in grades 10 to 12; (2) those in grades 7 to 9; (3) students in grades 5 and 6.

The five foremost problems are announced in today's Mail. They represent the results of a balloting of our readers conducted during the past two weeks. They are discussed and listed in separate stories today.

Students are urged to select any one of these problems—the one that interests them most. The next step is to talk it over with teachers and parents and to indulge in research. Local officials and teachers are eager to help and will answer questions. Some classrooms will make it a project in connection with English, government or social studies.

In studying the subject, two approaches are needed—

(1) Describe the problem; why is it a problem? (2) What are some specific suggested solutions to it?

If the student, for instance, chooses sewer and water for the whole area as his subject, he should first analyze our present facilities and needs. Then he should discover what is being done at the present time to provide for the needs. Then he should make recommendations as to a better plan, or additional planning, and suggest ways to carry out the plan.

Every essay will be judged on the writer's knowledge and grasp of the problem. Style and neatness will be considered only if it is necessary to break ties. The judges will be members of the Plymouth Area Cooperation Group, composed of representatives from virtually every club and organization in the city and township.

Here are the contest rules:

1. Essays will be accepted from any student enrolled in the Plymouth Community and parochial schools in grades 5 through 12. There are three categories and students will compete against only those in their category:

(1) Students in grades 10 through 12; (2) Students in grades 7 through 9; (3) Students in grades 5 and 6.

2. In each category $25 shall be the prize for the best essay; $10 for second.

3. A maximum of 1,250 words is the limit for grades 10-12; 1,000 words for 7-9; and 500 words for grades 5 and 6.

4. Essays should be written in ink or typewritten on one side of white paper.

5. The writer's grasp of the problem will be the basis for awarding prizes. Neatness and style of language will be considered only to break ties.

6. Judges will be the members of the Plymouth Area Cooperation Group. The decision of the group will be final.

7. ALL ENTRIES MUST BE MAILED TO LOCAL PROBLEMS EDITOR, THE PLYMOUTH MAIL, PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN. THEY MUST BE IN THE OFFICE OF THE PLYMOUTH MAIL NO LATER THAN 8 A.M. MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25, 1957.

8. The writer must state his name, address, age, school and grade.

9. Essays may be on any one of the "five foremost problems" as selected by vote of the public. The five optional subjects are:

- A dull, uninterested and uninformed body of voters in both the City and Township.
  - The need for a combined effort by every possible agency to provide sewer and water for the whole area.
  - A joint, overall zoning plan that will regulate growth in the entire area and which will include recreation areas in the City and Township.
  - The need for a Community Hospital.
  - The need for a comprehensive study centered around taxes, showing the picture on all the alternatives involving the combination of city and township; incorporation of a separate Township City; or remaining under the present boundaries.
10. The Plymouth Mail has the right to publish any or all essays.

Poll Results Tell Needs Of Community

Residents of the Plymouth area are most concerned about a lack of interest by voters in their local affairs; the preparing of plans for sewer and water facilities for the whole area; a zoning program for the entire area, city and township; the need for a community hospital; and the absence of solid information as to what would happen to taxes if the city and township were to combine.

Those five subjects topped all others in a poll by The Plymouth Mail to determine the "five foremost local problems."

The Mail today is announcing (see separate story, this page) a contest for Plymouth students in which cash prizes will be awarded for the best essays analyzing any one of the "five foremost problems" and suggesting a solution thereto.

More than 50 separate "problems" were mentioned by the scores of citizens who responded to the Mail's poll during the past fortnight. Some of the issues were inter-connected, or were parts of other problems, but all the subjects had individual characteristics.

Surprising, in some ways, was the subject which more persons mentioned than any other—the presence of what they believe to be a dull, uninterested and uninformed body of voters in both City and Township.

The "problem" is an indefinite kind of thing—as compared to the need for a sewer, for example—and it is difficult to prove. The frequent mention of it on the ballots meant that each of the voters believes that he, himself, is awake and interested in community problems but that most of his neighbors aren't.

Anyway, it was listed on more ballots than any other single issue and hence is the first problem.

"Sewer and water" was mentioned almost as often as voter apathy. It was suggested as a problem in several different ways, but the summary was that they believe we need a "combined" effort to provide a master sewer and water plan for the area.

Zoning was made one of the "big five" also, though the problem was described differently by almost every voter. Some criticized the lack of township zoning; some hit the "frequent change" of township zoning; some felt poor zoning has been a deterrent to industry locating in this area; and several seek a master zoning-plan aimed at development of the area rather than individual plans for separate segments.

The absence of a community hospital was mentioned often enough to draw fourth position in the "big five."

The city-township annexation, or "combining" issue was brought forth in a number of ways, but it most frequently was mentioned in the form of a request for information showing the tax situation that could result from every possible arrangement.

The complete list of "problems" submitted (not necessarily in order of mention.)

- Making the area attractive to business and industry.
- Apathy and lack of information by the electorate.
- Parking.
- Better school bus service.
- Location of the school in 5 mile area.
- Too little aggressive reporting by the newspaper.
- An elected mayor—change the charter—new manager.
- More cooperation between police and public.
- Joint effort to provide sewer and water for area.
- Overall planning and zoning for area.
- Lower taxes.
- Better traffic control—particularly around schools at lunch time.
- Community hospital.
- Annexation of Township.
- Grade separation at Ann Arbor Trail and Mill Street; also at Farmer.
- Paving and sidewalks.
- Flooding of Tonquish creek.
- Creek at Harvey and Ann Arbor Road is a filthy hole.
- Application of state equalized assessed valuation for whole Plymouth school district.
- Elimination of Daley influence in city government.
- Tax study of (1) if Township incorporates separately; (2) if the two are combined into one unit.
- Lack of cooperation between township and city.
- Lack of metropolitan authority for whole area (Northville, Canton).

THE FIVE FOREMOST PROBLEMS (As Selected by Secret Vote of Our Readers)

- A dull, uninterested, and uninformed body of voters in both City and Township.
- The need for a combined effort by every possible agency to provide sewer and water for the whole area.
- A joint, overall zoning plan that will regulate growth in the entire area and which will include recreation areas in the City and Township.
- The need for a Community Hospital.
- The need for a comprehensive study, centered around taxes, showing the picture on all the alternatives involving (1) combination of City and Township; (2) incorporation of a separate Township city; (3) remaining under the present boundaries.

Local Firemen Fight Train Wreck Blaze

The brother of a Plymouth man died as an indirect result of a train wreck in Livonia early Monday morning—a pile-up of 10 freight cars which caused over $50,000 in damage and brought firemen from Livonia, Farmington and Plymouth township.

Perry Crain of Palmyra, Michigan, a crane operator for the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, died of a heart attack during the clearing operations. The 38-year-old man was the brother of Larry Ingram, 769 Holbrook avenue.

Plymouth township firemen were called upon at 3:54 a.m. to send their water tank truck to the scene between Merriman and Middlebelt roads. Because of the remote location of the accident, Livonia firemen had no means of transporting quantities of water to fight a fire in one of the cars.

A carload of green tomatoes caught fire, believed due to an overturned heater. All 16 cars in the Detroit-bound train were loaded with produce. Township firemen carried 7,000 gallons of water to the scene in their tanker. A high-tension tower along the tracks was partially toppled when a car rolled into its base. Railroad officials said that a

Objectionable Literature Being Discussed at Public Meeting

A public meeting to point up the need for discouraging the sale of objectionable literature is being sponsored Monday night by the local Council of Catholic Women.

Held at the VFW Hall on South Mill street at 8 p.m., the meeting is being arranged by the council's library and literature committee.

Because the committee feels that this is a community problem, letters have been sent to every organization in Plymouth inviting members to attend the meeting and to take part in a campaign "to improve the situation."

Miss Jan St. Bernard of Detroit, general chairman of the National Organization for Decent Literature, will come to Plymouth for the meeting to discuss the many phases of the problem and to show materials which will demonstrate the need for an active campaign to improve conditions, particularly in regard to children's reading habits.

Mrs. Dale Rittenhouse and Mrs. J. F. Hughes, co-chairmen of the committee, state that all interested people of the community are encouraged to attend the meeting whether or not they represent any organized group.

Shriners Taking 4th Graders to Circus

All of the fourth grade pupils in the public and parochial schools will be taken to the Shrine Circus in Detroit next week by the Plymouth Shriners.

There will be 420 fourth graders making the trip by bus next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. The circus is at the state fairgrounds. This is the third year that Plymouth Shriners have taken the fourth grade youngsters.

On Monday there will be 55 from Smith school and 101 from Bird school attending the circus. Tuesday's trip will take 98 from Allen and 12 from Cherryhill schools. Remaining for the Wednesday journey will be 78 from Starkweather, 15 from Truesdell, 12 from the Lutheran Day school and 51 from Our Lady of Good Counsel.

Father of Fatally Burned Children Dies of Injuries

The fourth member of what was once a family of five was buried Tuesday in Rural Hill cemetery in Northville. He was Loren Montgomery, 32, whose three children burned to death in July 1955 when fire destroyed their home north of Plymouth.

Montgomery died Friday of injuries he received in an automobile accident near Mansfield, Ohio. The crash took place January 18. Montgomery had moved to Galion, Ohio and was working at a new General Motors plant at nearby Mansfield. His wife, Eloise, lives in Plymouth. The Montgomery home on Maxwell street, just north of Five Mile road, was completely destroyed by fire on the night of July 21, 1955. Fatally burned was a son, 5, and two daughters, 4 and 8 years of age. Both Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery worked at the Worden Specialty plant in Plymouth township at that time.

Surviving besides his wife is his mother, Mrs. Minnie McCordie of Walled Lake. Funeral services were held from the Casterline Funeral home in Northville with the Reverend Peter Nieuwkoop, pastor of First Baptist church, officiating. The Amvets of Novi assisted in the service.

Postmaster Keeps Public Worried in Wintertime

There's an awful lot of people in Plymouth who worry about Postmaster George Timpona—and many of the worried don't even know who he is.

In the wintertime, he's the easiest person in town to spot for undoubtedly he's the only man in town—or most any town for that matter—who goes without an overcoat.

Without benefit of gloves, overshoes or overcoat, Postmaster Timpona strolls along the city's streets as though it were springtime. Even when the mercury was below zero two weeks ago, the coatless postmaster was out helping one of his new postmen get started on a route.

Dr. Timpona, a chiropractor by profession, has for many years mystified shivering friends and strangers who see him outside in the winter. What's more, he drives his car with the heater off and windows down and sleeps in a room with outside temperatures.

The postmaster knows that his lack of wintertime attire arouses the curiosity of people who must be wondering if he is too poor to own a coat or just too ignorant to know it's cold.

Read Safety Page

The Mail wishes to call the particular attention of its readers to a "safety page" located elsewhere in this section. It has a serious message to all car-owners and the sponsors of the page are doing a vital public service. Read the page carefully.

STROLLING ALONG Plymouth's streets, Postmaster George Timpona often worries people who note that he wears no overcoat, gloves or overshoes all winter long.

Mothers To March On Polio Today

One hundred and fifty women will stage their Mothers March on Polio today in Plymouth city and township in hopes of meeting or even surpassing the $5,000 goal that they have set for their month-long campaign.

The Mother's March is the final activity in the drive that opened January 2 in Plymouth and across the nation.

Mothers will march this afternoon in Plymouth township in hopes that no home will be missed. Mrs. Raymond Gardner is chairman of the township drive.

The 7 to 8 p.m. "march" in the city will start with the ringing of bells from St. Peter's Lutheran and First Presbyterian churches. Chartered by Mrs. Charles Olson, the city volunteers also expect to call at every home, whether the porchlight is burning or not. For the convenience and safety of workers, however, it is urged that porchlights be turned on.

Workers can be identified by the mason jars they will be carrying that will bear the March of Dimes sticker and scroll.

Following the march, the volunteers will return to the Veterans Memorial home for refreshments served by Girl Scouts headed by Mrs. Sheldon Baker.

Mrs. Harry Bartel is general chairman of this year's drive. The chairman announced that literature will be left at each home, including those where no one answers the door. Those who are missed or are not home and want to contribute may still mail their contributions to the March of Dimes, Plymouth.

Householders who still have their envelopes that they received earlier in the month may use it to present a donation to the marching mothers.

There was $2,614 collected during the Mothers March last year. It is hoped that this year's march will set a new record.

Total receipts reported by the committee to date are $1,334.88. The canister collections and Teen's-for-Polio Businessmen's March will also help achieve the goal, the committee points out.

Last Friday and Saturday, many people visited the display of polio equipment at West Bros. Nash showroom. A former polio patient, Miss Mary Ann Witwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Witwer of 593 Edison, was responsible for obtaining the equipment from University hospital. She is now a nurse.

D. Galin & Son and Rotarians donated the equipment. Donating their mobile sound unit to advertise the display was Harold Grimoldby, 9245 Marlowe, operator of a new mobile sound service in Plymouth.

High School Junior Is Cherry Pie Champ

A contest held in Detroit Tuesday gave Geraldine Love, Plymouth high school junior, the title of best cherry pie maker in Wayne county.

By winning over her own cousin and 15 other Wayne county girls, Geraldine will go to the state finals in Grand Rapids on February 14. And if she is successful there, she will be eligible for the national bake-off.

"I was surprised," is the statement 16-year-old Geraldine made yesterday when asked about her newly-acquired title. Last year she won fourth place in the county, being beaten out by another Plymouth high school student, Sharlene Moers of Canton Center road. Sharlene went on to win fourth in the state.

Geraldine is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Love, 33065 Ann Arbor trail, Garden City. She is a member of the Nankin Mills 4-H club. Her cousin, Marilyn Love of Wayne, was runner-up in the contest sponsored by outh, the bridegroom's pastor, officiated.

The Reverend Melbourne Johnson officiated at the eleven o'clock ceremony before a host of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Cronkhite is the former Harriet May Wallace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elzie Wallace of 44303 Shearer drive and her bridegroom's parents are the George W. Cronkhites of Holbrook avenue.

Harriet chose a pale blue dress with long sleeves, satin cuffs and Peter Pan collar adorned with seedpearls for her wedding. She wore matching accessories and a corsage of pink camellias.

Kay Frances Cronkhite, sister of the bridegroom, assisted Harriet as the maid of honor. She wore a toast colored taffeta dress and a corsage of deep pink camellias.

Robert J. Potter was chosen by George to be his best man.

Mrs. Wallace wore a beige dress with tan accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Cronkhite selected a blue dress with navy accessories.

For traveling into northern Michigan and the Upper peninsula Mrs. Cronkhite wore a grey suit with navy accessories and her bridal corsage. Both young people attended Plymouth high school and will make their home here.

'Here Comes Mr. Jordan' Is February Guild Production

"Here Comes Mr. Jordan" will be the season's second major production of The Plymouth Theatre Guild at the Plymouth High School Auditorium February 21, 22 and 23.

The Kiwanis Club of Plymouth annually sponsor the winter presentation of the Theatre Guild as one of the means of raising funds to support their many civic endeavors in the community.

"I Ain't Got No Body" could well be the plaintive theme song of this bit of fantasy that has to do with the ethereal problems of one Joe Pendleton, heavyweight prizefighter, who is gathered to his eternal reward about 60 years too soon due to the over zealotness of an emissary in charge of soul gathering in New Jersey.

The consternation that reigns in Heaven at this unheard of mistake is compounded by Pendleton's pugnacious and outraged demands to be returned to earth to live out his allotted span of life. Much to the dismay of the higher echelon in Valhalla however, Pendleton "ain't got no body" due to the fact that his mortal remains have been reduced to ashes in an urn on his manager's mantel. From there on, the search for a suitable body to house Pendleton's soul leads to many amusing and hilarious situations that will provide more than an evening's amusement and entertainment.

"Here Comes Mr. Jordan" is produced by Jeannine Dahlgren of Plymouth, Michigan and is under the direction of William Merrill of Will-O-Way Playhouse. The cast includes:

CHIPS

from the STATE CAPITOL DOME

BY STERLING EATON STATE REPRESENTATIVE

Last week brought about the finishing touches to the organizational work of the Legislature. Committees were named and arrangements were made for their regular meeting dates. This week will see the first study of the bills before these various groups where they will either be killed or presented on the floor of the house.

About 90% of all the bills introduced actually die in committee and never get further consideration. The fact that speaker George Van Peursen saw fit to name me to the powerful State Affairs committee was naturally more than gratifying because almost 80% of all the bills introduced to the Legislature must be approved by this committee.

Within its jurisdiction come matters pertaining to the creation of amending or changing State Boards, Commissions, Departments, etc.; bills pertaining to State lands or property; licensing members of the various professions; setting license fees; compensation for board members; racing affairs; trade marks; unfair trade practices; motor vehicle sales finance act; small loan bills; interstate compacts; civil defense; historical shrines; capital punishment; licensing nursing homes and homes for the aged; concessions in public buildings; private trade schools; motor vehicle drivers licenses; restricted licenses; etc., etc.

In addition to being so honored by the speaker I was further honored by being named, out of our 116 members, chairman of one of the Legislature's 47 committees, namely Mental Hospitals which, of course, pleased me no end in view of the fact that the major Northville State Hospital is in my district. Other appointments, as announced last week, were the Public Utilities committee and the Federal Relations committee.

First among our local residents to call attention to legislation in which he was interested was jeweler David Agnew of Plymouth. Dave says all watchmakers and jewelers around this area belong to the watchmaker's guild and would like to see a state board established for the same and all members licensed in the state. This will undoubtedly come before our State Affairs committee.

Redford Township supervisor, Richard Manning, was also a visitor here on Thursday with proposed legislation to empower townships with the right to repair and construct sidewalks within their jurisdiction in the same manner cities now do. This legislation was submitted for forming and I shall introduce it within the next ten days; it being logical that an area growing as fast as Redford township, with its 57,000 residents, should have some method of building and improving walks.

On Friday we ran into Livonia's Wolterine Harness Racing vice-president, Orlow G. Owen of Northville, who invited us into his suite at the Olds Hotel where we watched our second showing of colored television for a brief half hour. While there we renewed acquaintance with Stanton Schaefer, also of Northville, who acts as legislative agent for Harness Racing in Lansing.

And, speaking of Northville, we strongly suspect Elmer Smith down in Ft. Lauderdale, Fla has devious thoughts in his mind in sending us last Sunday's special section of the Miami Herald which dealt exclusively with Florida's new turnpike. We'll bet he would like to see something of this nature in Michigan.

In a way of a prediction based entirely on speculation from the comments I have heard Republican Legislators make... There will be no legislation adopted this session which will increase costs to the taxpayers of this State and in this thinking they are most determined. I'm afraid I am on their team, too.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Griffith of West Ann Arbor trail left Tuesday morning for their peacan grove in Albany, Georgia. After spending a week in Georgia, they will go on to Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

290,000 Cars, Needing Some Repair Fail to Pass 10-Point Safety Check in 422 Communities Across Nation

About one out of five cars on America's highways, because of inadequate maintenance, is accident-prone. So states the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Committee, Look Magazine and the National Safety Council.

The Committee based its figure on the results of Safety-Checks, in which 1,421,000 cars were inspected and 290,000 were discovered to be in need of repair.

The inspections were conducted in 422 cities across the nation.

Courtesy Can Prevent Driving Accidents, too

A large percentage of automobile accidents could be prevented if drivers were more considerate of the rights of other drivers on the streets and highways, according to Plymouth police chief Kenneth Fisher. Fisher said that driver attitude is perhaps the most important single factor bearing on accident rates, and his opinion is based on the facts brought out by his department's 1956 Traffic Accident Summary.

According to the official report there were 259 accidents in Plymouth in 1956 of which the total number of violations was 237. Of these 237 violations, 41 indicated that the offending driver did not grant the right of way to the other vehicle (just a plain lack of courtesy on the road), 23 were driving under the influence of alcohol.

The report also stated that a high proportion of accidents in Plymouth occur on Wednesday, Friday, and Saturday and between the hours of 4-p.m. and 6 p.m. Another interesting note was that drivers in the 25 to 35 age range were involved in more accidents than any other age group. A very high portion of total accidents happened at low speeds, up to 10 miles per hour.

As to mechanical failures in the cars themselves the following were most common: defective brakes, headlights insufficient, rear lights insufficient, other lights inadequate, steering mechanism defective, tire puncture or blowout.

In making its announcement, the Committee noted that last year's checks indicated a significant improvement in automobile maintenance. The previous checks, said the Committee, revealed one out of four cars failed to pass the safety-check.

However, the safety organization warned against complacency, declaring that there are still far too many inadequately-maintained vehicles and that these vehicles are still potential accident factors.

"Every automobile owner should make it his business to have his car inspected periodically," the Committee said. "This ounce of prevention can be a factor in reducing the shocking number of fatalities recorded each year on our highways."

SAFETY CHECKS VITAL
Because the Safety-Check Program has become a vital factor in our nation's all-out drive for safe driving, all citizens of Plymouth and all automobile owners are urged to cooperate with the national sponsoring organizations, and get their cars safety-checked.

The Safety-Check item encountered most often in the Safety-Checks was the failure of rear lights to operate properly. Other critical items, in the order of frequency which needed repairs were observed, were brakes, front lights, exhaust systems, tires, steering, windshield wipers, windshields and windows, horns and rear-view mirrors.

Rocks Keep League Lead With Seventh Straight Win

Men's League Tightened

Hickory Farms closed in on inactive Beglinger Olds this week with a 70-46 trouncing of Northville Recreation. Beglinger is on top of the league with a 7-0 record followed closely by Hickory Farms with a 7-1 total.

The second division of the Class A men's league tightened as Plymouth Independents scored a victory over Northville State Hospital and Daisy was upset by last place Braders.

Hickory Farm held a slim nine point lead at the end of the first half but when the play resumed in the second half the Farm club went on a scoring spree and sent Northville down to their fifth defeat.

Ken Kisabeth lead the attack with 22 points, Dick Day had 13, and McIntyre and Huebler contributed 10 apiece. Jensen was high with 18 for the losers.

The Plymouth Independents took over third place with a 51-43 win over Northville State Hospital. The Independents were on the big end of a 23-13 halftime score and continued on to their fourth victory of the season.

Barrett lead the Independent attack with 23 points. He tallied for seven floor shots and an amazing nine points from the free throw line. Winchester had 18 for the losers.

Last place Braders tripped up Daisy 58-42 and moved into a three way tie for fifth place. Don McMurray dumped in 24 points to pace the Brader attack. Bill Davis had 15 for the losers.

Sports Seen

By Bob Young

I would like to welcome you to the Mail's new sports column. Oh pardon me, maybe I should have introduced myself. My name is Bob Young, I graduated from Plymouth High School last June, I attended Eastern Michigan College last semester, and my major objective right now is to serve you as well as possible. This column will attempt to report to you some of the side lights of sports, sportsmen, and sportsmanship.

I was watching Plymouth play host to Trenton just a week before my employment at the Mail and enjoying myself immensely. As exciting as the game was, I couldn't help noticing the enthusiasm of the couple sitting next to me. The game continued to mount with excitement as Plymouth vied to keep their undefeated status and remain on top of the Suburban 6B League, and still I found myself stealing glances at the enthusiastic couple.

Bob Voss of Trenton had just sunk one of two free throws and the score was tied at 50 apiece with just seconds to go. Plymouth's captain, Kenny Calhoun, got possession of the ball, dribbled down court toward the enemy's bucket and shot just as the buzzer went off. The ball went sailing through the basket and Plymouth had won the game 52-50.

The gymnasium rocked with excitement, teammates had picked the hero up and carried him from the floor and I suddenly found myself in the arms of the female member of the enthusiastic couple. I looked down and saw the tears form in her eyes, she looked at me and said in a quiet but excited voice, "That's my boy."

The very next week I was added to the payroll of the Plymouth Mail and my first assignment was to cover the Plymouth, Redford Union game. Just about eight hours and forty minutes after my new job had begun captain Kenny hit for his first two points. Two hours later Kenny found out he had missed the school scoring record by one point. The high school record of 30 is held by Ken Kisabeth, who graduated in 1954.

It has been my pleasure to personally witness the last four scoring records being made. The first of my memories was DeWayne Becker back in 1948. DeWayne scored 27 points. DeWayne, who is now employed at Strohs, participated in baseball and football during his high school career and is now a member of the Wednesday night bowling league.

The second of my memories was Wally Dzurus who dumped in a total of 29 points. Wally, who graduated in 1951, is now stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri where he is playing on the Army basketball squad.

Then of course there's record holder Ken Kisabeth who set the standard of 30 in 1954. Ken is attending Lawrence Tech where he played on the Blue Devil basketball squad his freshman and sophomore year. Ken had a respectable 14 point average last season with the Blue Devils. Kisabeth is now playing in the men's class A recreation league.

While I'm still with basketball there's an old saying I'd like to borrow from Ed Brown, high school typing instructor, and dedicate to this year's varsity basketball squad. "It's not the size of the boy, but the size of the fight of the boy."

All American, Bill Brandell continues to improve with time. Last week Bill established a pool, team, and personal record as he flashed to a 24.7 victory in the 50 yd. freestyle. At that rate by the time Bill is 50... Well.

Well that ought to do it for this week. If you have any interesting side lights on sports, sportsmen, or sportsmanship, just drop me a line and I'll be happy to accommodate you.

The win's continue to mount as the season progresses and coach Charlie Ketterer's two platoon varsity basketball squad moves nearer their perfect season. Last Thursday the Rock's added Allen Park to a long list of victims by scoring a 56-42 victory on the home court.

Plymouth now is the proud possessor of a 7-0 record with six of the triumphs coming in league competition.

Halftime found Allen Park trailing by only one point after Plymouth had jumped to an early 12-4 first quarter lead. Plymouth outscored the Parkers 20-10 in the third quarter to take a substantial 42-31 edge. The Rocks then coasted to their seventh consecutive triumph and remained on top of the Suburban Six League.

Captain Ken Calhoun paced the winners with 16 points. Ken hit for seven field goals (50%) and two free throws. Bill Hubert added ten points to the winning cause. Every man on the team scored at least two points.

Allen Park's captain Tom Tresh, who played his last game Thursday, was high for the game with 18. Bob Morris and Jim Horvath each had nine points for the losers. Morris was also playing his last high school game.

Don Alsbro's 25 Leads JV Attack

Don Alsbro pumped in 25 points to spearhead the JV squad into their fifth win of the season last Thursday. The little Rocks humiliated the reserves of Allen Park 60-25 in an easy home victory.

Plymouth held a snug 14-6 edge at the end of the first quarter but that small lead was expanded to a one sided 35-10 runaway by halftime. Eight of the reserves made the scoring column.

The locals were in command of a 50-16 third quarter score and found no trouble in collecting their fifth win in seven starts.

Myron Hopper and Eddie LaRoach added ten apiece for the winners. Demeter contributed eight for the losers.

John Nance Paces Frosh Sixth Win

The Plymouth Frosh kept their undefeated status with a 39-20 triumph over Allen Park on the latter's home court last Thursday.

The Frosh jumped to an early 22-9 halftime score and maintained the lead to capture their sixth straight victory.

The little Rocks are coached by John Sandmann.

John Nance paced the winners with 17 points. Nagy was high for Allen Park with eight.

Randy Egloff and John Nance combined for a total of 24 points to lead the freshmen to a 40-27 decision over Redford Union last week.

The Frosh grabbed a 20-15 half-time lead and coasted to an undisputed triumph. Munger lead the Redford Union attack with 10 points.

The Jr. High basketball squad kept pace with it's big brothers by submerging the Allen Park Jr. High 42-20.

Wayne Woods and Art Nelson each hit for 10 points to pace the winners.

BOOK REVIEW

KEEPING UP WITH THE TIMES

By R. Roy Pursell

More and more thinking people are awakening to the fact that Communism is creeping into our homes through the churches. Two books are now doing a big job in slowing down this sinister infiltration into the great Methodist Church of America, and other churches.

"2109 Methodist Ministers" is the title of one book published by a group of Methodists, Circuit Riders, Inc., of Cincinnati. Herein you will find the names of those ministers who have three or more public records of Communist-front enterprise relationship. A recent Plymouth minister is listed; the present Bishop and a big-name Detroitier and their relationships are given. Of course 2109 is a small percentage of the total number of Methodist ministers but Circuit Riders think it is 2109 too many. This is a forerunner to such lists for other churches. "2109 Methodist Ministers" is $1.

"Strange Fire" is a book of 200 pages revealing the backgrounds of many who write the church literature of today; also those promoting the Methodist Federation for Social Action (now not an official part of the Methodist Church) and The National Council of Churches. This is a basic book for any person trying to understand the forces of the anti-Christ and is willing to defend the Church from such destructive influence. It is priced at $3.50.

Postmaster Keep

 "I just don't feel cold," the postmaster declares. "As soon as I put gloves on, the ends of my fingers begin to feel numb." He does, however, go as far as to wear a hat.
 One night last week, for instance, he went outside of his Livonia home in his shirt-sleeves to play with his dog in the snow.
 "There's one woman who stops me everytime she sees me on the street to ask if I'm cold. I think she starts freezing by looking at me and I know she's wondering all the time if I own an overcoat."
 Actually, Dr. Timpona owns three coats, but only when he goes out in public with his wife, and at the insistence of his wife, does he consent to wear one.
 "Once in a while you've got to conform with society," the postmaster quipped. The coats, of course, last for years.
 As long as he can remember, Dr. Timpona has gone coatless.

And very seldom is he troubled with colds.
 Chances are that others catch cold just looking at him.

Three 'Take the Cake' For Guessing Cookies

A cookie sale held by Terry's Bakery last week chalked up an all-time record for the number of cookies sold and baked during any one week for the local bakery. According to owners Marvin and Frank Terry, 1,358 dozen, or 16,296 cookies were bought up by eager customers, who were asked to guess the number of dozen sold during the week. The three closest guesses were: Mary Merryweather-1,313 dozen, Rose Lemontaco-1,200 dozen, and Iva Lou Kahri-1,512 dozen. Each of the three winners will receive a free decorated cake.

Canton Women 'March' Today

Canton township women will stage their Mothers March for Polio this afternoon and tonight after collecting $80 at a rummage sale last Saturday.
 The sale, held at the new township hall, was for the benefit of the polio fund. Chairman for the event was Mrs. Donald Walbridge, assisted by Mrs. Walton Rea, general chairman of the drive, and Mrs. Lowell Lampton, co-chairman.
 Two youths sold blue crutches last weekend and realized another $25 for the fund. They were Irving Edwards, 4233 Willard; and Bill Variot, 44927 Michigan avenue.
 More volunteers are needed for the Mothers March, Mrs. Rea said. Those wanting to offer their services can call 177M-11.

High School Junior

 The Michigan Consolidated Gas company in Detroit.
 While Geraldine is now classified as a top cherry pie baker, her future will not be in home economics. Geraldine is interested in science and right now thinks she will pursue that field at Michigan State.
 Judging for the contest was based not only on the quality of the pie, but also on the technique of work and on a three minute talk on why she wanted to win the contest. "The recipe is nothing special," Geraldine pointed out. There are no secret ingredients or methods. Here it is:
 Crust
 2 cups of sifted flour
 1 cup creamed lard
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 4 tablespoons water
 Cut the shortening into the flour, stir in the water and salt. Form into a ball and roll out for an eight-inch pie plate.
 Filling
 2 1/2 cups drained frozen cherries
 1/2 cup cherry juice
 1/2 cup sugar
 1 tablespoon butter
 2 tablespoons cornstarch
 Mix ingredients and place into crust, bake at 420 degrees for 20 minutes, reduce to 400 degrees for remaining 15 minutes.

Letter to Uncle Sam Needs Stamp Too

Just because you may be mailing in your income tax form and are including a fat check for Uncle Sam, it doesn't entitle you to free postage. Plymouth post office officials pointed out this week.
 There are some people with the mistaken idea that the government should pay the postage since the government is requiring the public to use the tax reports. Like any other letter, the envelope to the Internal Revenue Department requires a stamp and should have a return address, postal officials declared.

Junior Achiever Week Observed In Plymouth

As a tribute to the 50,000 teenagers in the United States who take part in the Junior Achievement program, January 27 through February 2 has been designated as National Junior Achievement Week.
 In Plymouth more than 150 Achievers who operate eight JA companies will take part in the observance. Highlighting the Junior Achievement Week celebration will be Open House at the Plymouth Business Center located at 204 S. Main Street. The people of Plymouth and adjacent communities are invited to visit the JA business center and actually see a miniature corporation in operation.
 Plymouth's JA companies, their sponsors and their products are: Products Unlimited, American Airlines, Christmas decorations; Woodcraft company, Whitman & Barnes, chopping boards; Ply-Bel company, Michigan Bell, pin-up lamps; Jac Evans company, Evans Products, light-planters.
 Katchal Products, Burroughs corporation, litterbug baskets; Pic-A-Rac, Daisy Manufacturing, magazine rack A.W.T. company, Barnes-Gibson-Raymond, Tr a y; Duo-Enterprises, Burroughs corporation, pens, pads.

Junior Achievement is a non-profit 'learn by doing' organization, and is called a business educational program which it is. It has exposed the 'inner workings' of corporation life to thousands of teenagers in Southeastern Michigan since the program started in this section of the United States in 1949. It has also exposed the free-enterprise system to over a quarter of million teenage boys and girls since JA was established nationally in 1942. Junior Achievement is the only teenage organization of its kind in the United States and also the fastest growing organization of this type of 'program'.
 J A started in Plymouth in 1953.

Show Salutes Chaplains

Plymouth's American Legionnaires are urging the public to watch a Legion-sponsored television show this Sunday afternoon called "American Legion Back to God."
 The presentation will mark the 14th anniversary of the sinking of the transport ship, Dorchester, in which four chaplains gave their lives that others may survive. The story has now become a well-known legend.
 WJBK-TV, Channel 2, will telecast the show locally from 2 to 3:30 p.m. In charge of the program will be the Rev. Fr. Bernard W. Gerdon, National Legion chaplain.

 I see where Elvis Presley is picking up where Davy Crockett left off. And I guess you couldn't find two fellows with less in common if you thumbed through the entire files of the F.B.I. However, they've both set the U.S. (or portions of it) on its ear in the past few years. For a while it seemed like you couldn't turn around without seeing a kid with a coonskin hat or a Crockett rifle. Now Davy has been done in by the crooner from Tupelo, Miss. Since September factories have turned out $22 million in Elvis merchandise . . . records, shoes, jeans, shirts, guitars, etc. There's even lipstick in shades of Hound Dog Orange, Tutti Frutti Red and Heartbreak Hotel Pink. At least Davy taught us one thing . . . nothing lasts forever.

With the high cost of living at least our dollar bills are more sanitary. Even a germ couldn't live on a dollar bill these days.

Clubs Urged To Register Dates

A service for Plymouth clubs and organizations to eliminate conflicting dates for special public events is being started by the Chamber of Commerce, Manager J. A. Wilcox announced.
 The plan calls for all organizations to register their special event dates with the Chamber so that they may check against conflicts with other groups.
 As an example, a P.T.A. planning a carnival would register the date with the Chamber. They may find that a big church supper is already registered for that date, so they may decide to change the carnival date.
 "The service will be only as effective as the organizations want it to be," the Chamber manager pointed out.
 Urged to participate are the business, professional, civic, educational, cultural, religious, fraternal, veterans and service organizations.
 Registering will not necessarily mean that other groups will not decide to hold an event on the same night, it was noted. There are no rules governing the setting of dates for public events. The services will basically be a "clearing house" for organizations to find non-conflicting dates.

"The Law and the Courts" will be the subject of an address by State Justice Talbot Smith Tuesday night at a testimonial dinner for Circuit Court Judge George E. Bowles of Plymouth. The dinner, held at the Mayflower Hotel, will honor Bowles as the only out-county resident on the Wayne Circuit court. Civic leaders from Western Wayne county have been invited to attend. Only 125 guests will be accommodated.
 No matter how long it may be delayed, there are those who like to possess currency.

 broken arch-bar between two sets of wheels caused the mishap. Service on the railroad was disrupted three hours and west-bound traffic was rerouted two days. Fifty track workers were on the job.
 Following his heart attack at the railroad at about 8:15 a.m., Crain was taken to Wayne County General hospital but was dead on arrival. His body was taken to the Schrader Funeral home here and later removed to Axtell, Texas for services.

 Guest speaker Marvin Schwab, field representative of the Michigan Credit League, gave an informative talk on the growth and progress of the credit unions in Michigan.
 President Frank Heike, who has held this office for the past six years, opened the business meeting at 7:30.

Cub Pack 743 Presents Star Study in 'Rocket'

The monthly meeting of Cub Scout Pack 743 was held at Allen School last Thursday.

The theme for January was a star study and Cub Scouts from Den 4 presented a skit entitled D-E-N-4. Garbed in space helmets and seated in their rocket ship, R-X-4, each Scout told of their specific job as one of the crew.

Den Chief Robert Carley lectured on an electric star gazer and discussed the location of various constellations.

Achievement awards were presented to Russell Horn, George Dorsett, Frank Dorsett, James Haarbauer and Roger Toby. Den I, sponsored by Mrs. Evelyn Hausman, received an award for the best attendance for the past month.

Howard Marburger directed games and refreshments were served later.

A potluck dinner will be held at the next pack meeting February 28 to honor the Boy Scout Birthday.

Den mothers and pack leaders are urged to attend the leaders meeting February 18, to discuss future plans and the signing of the new charter.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pint of Schoeller road were hosts at dinner and cards Saturday entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Earl Taylor of Franklin Village.

keeping in touch

FROM HOLLYWOOD, Florida has come a note from former Plymouthite Mrs. Howard McKillip who tells us how much she and others enjoy receiving The Mail every Monday. After the McKillips are through reading it, they pass it on to Mr. and Mrs. Steven Horvath and Mr. and Mrs. Rustin, also formerly of Plymouth. The McKillips have purchased the Blue Sands Motel in Hollywood and of course would like Plymouth travelers to stop in to say hello. The motel is at 1411 S. Federal highway.

THE LAKE LAND, Florida Ledger on January 20 carried a front page picture of Horace Thatcher, formerly of Plymouth, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Irene Radford, looking at icicles on azalea bushes. The bushes were watered the evening before and when the temperature dropped to 32, they were covered with ice the next morning. Mrs. Thatcher, in a note with the picture, pointed out that she was sure that the cold wave did not come from California, as stated in the caption, but came from Michigan.

THE SEALED POWER corporation of Muskegon has announced the appointment of Duane A. Parkes, Jr., as its public relations director. The Parkes family resided in Plymouth until 1953. Mr. Parkes was on the city planning commission and was active in the Community Fund, Kiwanis and Elks.

FROM NEW YORK the American Institute of Accountants has announced that Roland A. Lutz, certified public accountant associated with the firm of Sutherland & Robson of Plymouth, has been elected into the institute's membership. It is a national professional society of CPAs.

The Reader Speaks Up

Editor:

A group of public minded citizens, known as the "Area Cooperation Group", have been meeting regularly in the high school. Their aim is just what their name implies, "Cooperation", cooperation on area problems. Who are these people? They are representatives from the many varied organizations within and around Plymouth.

What are these area problems confronting them? Here they are:

1. Water. The Township needs water. 2. Sewers. The Township cannot proceed with sewers on account of the annexation threat affecting Burroughs. 3. The ill will that is building up daily between the two factions, due to these problems developing into running sores. 4. The need of the City of Plymouth for more industry. 5. The possibility of a city being created around Plymouth. There are more in the offing.

A recent issue of The Mail gave prominence on page one to the previous meeting of the "Area Group". Several top officials of the Community were invited to speak. The specific statements of the evening were:

Mayor of Plymouth: "Water like everything else, should be confined to those who develop it."

Township Supervisor: "Unable to proceed with sewers due to lack of enough water and the city annexation petitions."

Regional Planning Commission: "Other communities are attempting to solve their problems mutually."

Following this article, the Mail inserted the following item. Was it put there intentionally to remind us that time is running out?

"THE PEOPLE IN PLYMOUTH CONTROL THEIR OWN DESTINIES. THIS COMMUNITY WILL BE JUST AS GOOD AS THE PEOPLE IN IT."

Judging from the article, and the above statements, no help was offered the Area Group in their endeavor. These people need help. Plymouthites, it is up to you to decide the fate of the area. Cooperation now may still not be too late. You catch bees with honey. There are many waiting for that little show of cooperation which will tell them that there are those among us who are community minded and willing to help. What is the alternative?

The next petition before the Wayne County Board of Supervisors is for the incorporation of a new city to surround Plymouth. Mayor Hubbard of Dearborn, speaking before the Board stated something should be done to stop this sort of thing. This something again can be "Cooperation." Each week sees more and more residents moving into the Township. This means more votes against consolidation and more for incorporation. Time is running out.

I reside in the Township and am "Township" minded as should be. However, I, like many of us in this area, am also waiting for the hand to be extended in our direction. I am sure you will find many of us appreciative of Plymouth's problems and willing to meet you half way if you will remove the road-blocks. I might state right here that I have no axe to grind. We have sufficient land around us, we do not need a sewer, nor do we need water. We have our own facilities. We do not want higher taxes which would result from a n e x a t i o n or incorporation however, we will do what we can to help the community.

Why not talk this over with one another and lend a hand to the Area Cooperation Group in their endeavor to avoid the fate that lies ahead. If you want to lend a hand, why not get in touch with the co-chairman of this group, Messrs. McCabe and Don Ward. PLYMOUTHITE

Editor:

Last winter there was three boys nearly drowned, one broke through the ice at the Wilcox dam. The other two broke through the ice on Nankin Mill pond, at places where springs flowed into the pond.

The ice is in a terrible shape, very rough due to snow freezing on the surface. The tractors doing the scraping and sweeping, only get off the surface.

There was a man last winter nearly overcome with monoxide gas at the Wilcox pond. There was a line of cars close together, all running their motors to keep warm while their children skated. The man in a car, noticed a man in front of him acting kind of funny. He got out and opened his door. He found him nearly passed out, and got him out of his car and walked him around in the fresh air. His car with the motor running was blowing in fumes from the car in front of him.

There was four near-tragedies. Maybe if some of them had died something would be done about it.

I have proposed to the council two different times and they have pigeonholed it for some future time. My proposal was to have a city plow a furrow about four to six inches high around the foot ball field at the High School and flood it every few days, keep the snow off and erect a turnstile operated at a dime each. There is lights there, and wired for a loud speaker, so they could have music. No one would be in danger of getting drowned or being poisoned by gas.

Their 10c charge should pay all the expenses. Why don't you give this some publicity?

The MAIL Attitude

BY PAUL CHANDLER

A Michigan Press convention took me to Lansing last weekend. There's an unusual amount of conversation going on at the state capitol about the future maneuverings of Republicans and Democrats.

The "inside" information as of this moment seems to be that Gov. Williams will run again in 1958 for Governor, rather than as the opponent of Charles Potter for U.S. Senator. The reasoning is that a sixth term as Governor would leave Soapy on a stronger springboard to try for the presidency than would possession of a junior senatorship.

Lieut. Gov. Phil Hart is seen now as the opponent for Sen. Potter. And Democratic State Senator John Swanson of Plymouth is being groomed quietly to run as Lieut. Governor next time.

As for the Republicans, they're talking of Paul Bagwell as the next gubernatorial candidate and are nervous about Sen. Potter's strength.

At a student assembly, a faculty member at Whitman Junior High announced from the stage that the Princess of Monaco had given birth to a heiss daughter. He added that it had been a big day in the maternity department everywhere, because the biology department's guinea pig had given birth to twins. "The father of the twins went on about his business, eating, just as if nothing extraordinary had happened," the reporter said.

Serious negotiations are underway for the sale of the St. John's Episcopal Church building and land at the corner of S. Harvey and Maple. The interested purchaser is the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. The price is in the $30,000 to $40,000 area.

There are solid reports around town that another large national food chain is serious about opening a store in the heart of the city of Plymouth. A local businessman will erect the building and rent it back to the chain, if the deal goes through.

Dickering also is underway for an attractive piece of land just over the city limits that would be used as the site for an ambitious summer music and theater festival aimed at making Plymouth a mecca for lovers of the arts—something like Stratford in Ontario. The Mail is eagerly hoping that this project comes off; it would be a splendid promotion for the community in every way.

A grandfather and his grandson have "gone into business" together in Plymouth. Harry Minthorn, 81, and Harry Yoe, 14, now conduct the affairs of the shoe shining emporium in Plymouth Recreation.

"We guarantee a good shine or we do it over," is their advertising slogan.

Minthorn may be recalled as a long-time city employe who had custody of parks and such until his retirement a few years back.

The grandfather says he's been idle for the past two years and he can't take it—gets too nervous. "I tried sitting in the park, and you know what one hears there? Everybody complaining about how they ache, or feel sick somewhere, or about their general misery. That would make a man sick himself if he kept listening."

The grandson reports for duty in the afternoon, after school and after doing his chores on a paper route.

Ancient Recipe For Pecan Pie Scores Big Hit

In the household of Mrs. Gerald Fischer, 396 Arthur St., a New Orleans pecan pie is the favorite party dessert, served with or without an ice cream topping.

Mrs. Fischer said the recipe was taken from a very ancient New Orleans recipe book. Only the ingredients were listed, but through some experimentation, Mrs. Fischer discovered the details of baking and mixing for herself.

Among her three boys, Jerry, 13, Kenny, 12, and Norman, 7, Mom's pecan pie is just tops. Here's the recipe:

Pecan Pie

- 1/2 stick of butter or margarine
  - 1/2 cup of sugar
  - 3 eggs, added one at a time
- Beat thoroughly and add:
- 1 cup of white Karo syrup
  - a pinch of salt
  - 1 cup of pecan nut meats

Place in an unbaked pie shell and bake at 450° for ten minutes and at 350° for 30 minutes or until pie is done.

"IT'S REALLY GOOD," Norman Fischer, testifies about his mother's New Orleans pecan pie, as he watches her mix the ingredients.

Let's Check The Law

You didn't know there is a long list of state laws telling you how, where and when you can ride a bicycle.

I used to ride a bicycle a lot. My brother taught me to balance myself and before long I could ride without hands, steer with my feet, stand on the cross bar and all that sort of thing I didn't dream there were laws that told me what I could and couldn't do on that old Elgin bike.

There are local ordinances in some communities like those that require registration of bicycles with the police department and age limits for those allowed to ride bicycles on sidewalks. But the most important laws are state laws.

In Michigan, for example, the law says a bicycle rider must abide by all the rules that the driver of a motor vehicle has to live up to. He can't "hitch" a ride on a streetcar or another vehicle. He can't carry passengers unless it's a "bicycle built for two." He must keep both hands on the handle bars, sit on the bicycle seat, obey all traffic signals, ride on special paths if they are provided and never more than two abreast.

There are other rules but those are some of the main ones. His bike, too, comes in for some legal attention. If used at night it must be equipped with a lamp that "shall emit a white light visible from a distance of at least 500 feet to the front and with a red reflector on the rear which shall be visible from all distances from 50 feet to 300 feet to the rear."

Registration Still Open for Heart Of Home Course

Homemakers can still register for the free "Heart of the Home" classes of the Michigan Heart Association to be held in the Plymouth and Northwest Area of Wayne County according to Mrs. Hannah R. Pretzer of Wayne State University who conducts the classes.

The opening class will be held on Tuesday, February 5, 1957 and will meet at the Salvation Army Citadel, Corner of Fairview and Maple, Plymouth, Michigan from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. There will be a series of four classes.

At the first class slides and movies will show how homemakers can save both time and energy in their home by putting into practice work-simplification principles and techniques. Pictures and demonstrations will show how kitchens are made easier to work in, and how steps are saved when kitchen equipment is organized into easier work centers.

The other classes will demonstrate improved methods for bed making, cleaning, laundrying, dish-washing, meal preparation, and for other household tasks.

A certificate of completion will be given to homemakers completing the course. All homemakers are invited to attend the classes especially those with an ailment of the heart or blood vessels. Those interested are urged to register by calling Herbert Woolweaver, Adult Education Office, Plymouth High School, Plymouth, Michigan, telephone Plymouth 894. Extension 4.

The "Heart of the Home" Program is being co-sponsored by Wayne State University and is made possible by the Michigan Heart Association through funds received from the United Foundation Torch Drive.

Every bicycle has to have a bell or horn that can be heard for at least 100 feet—but it can't be a siren or a whistle.

Those are just some of the "bicycle" laws—but all the laws are important. Seems to me that the schools might do well to give at least that much legal information to all the students. They'd be better drivers of cars later and it might keep more of them alive to drive later too. (This column is an informational service of the State Bar of Michigan.)

LANSING REPORTING

By JOHN SWAINSON
(State Senator)

In selecting a proper tax program for any governmental agency, a number of basic principles should be clearly understood.

Taxes should be assessed against each taxpayer in accordance with his ability to pay.

The tax should be of a nature that it will apply justly to each taxpayer.

Collection of the tax should not be costly.

The tax should not discourage the investment of capital.

Even though the amount be small, all citizens should contribute to the support of their government. Within the limits of practicability, taxes should be "open" in contrast to "hidden."

The impact of the tax upon the economy should be given serious weight. The impact of the tax upon society also should be given serious consideration; for example, a tax upon liquor as against a tax on medicine or a tax on milk as against a tax on milk shakes.

The above list is not intended to be conclusive, but rather to be suggestive to the considerations that I believe every legislator should consider as he selects the specific tax to levy to pay for governmental services.

The amount of taxes which must be raised is determined by the costs of the services which the citizens of a community determine, through their legislative bodies, that they desire. It goes without saying that government money should be spent with a minimum of waste.

Michigan faces in 1957 increased taxes to meet the costs of a growing state and expanded services. For example, there will be an additional 70,000 children in school next year. If the state were to give toward the education of each child next year the same amount as it gave this past year, the increased cost would amount to approximately 13 million dollars. The number of students in our universities and colleges will be up again next year. Wages and salaries of public employees have been increased by the Civil Service Commission. Whether we like it or not—and personally I do not—the most important question before this session of the Michigan State Legislature is the taxes which it will choose to pay for the increased services of government.

How To Paint High Ceilings

A painting contractor in Yvetot, France solved the problem of how to paint an unusually high ceiling of a new church without scaffolding. He built a platform on a 24-foot balloon furnished by the French Air Force, inflated it with hydrogen, and up went the painter and equipment to do the job.

Easter Seal Drive Begins March 15

Dates for the 1957 Easter Seal campaign in behalf of crippled children and adults are March 15-April 21, Ralph G. Lorenz, chairman of the appeal in the Plymouth area, announced today.

The 24th annual appeal is expected to be the most extensive campaign in the history of the Wayne Out-County Chapter, Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults. Easter Seals will reach more than 8,700 homes in the Plymouth area. Mailing will begin around March 15.

"The appeal will give Plymouth residents an opportunity to contribute funds for maintaining and expanding services badly needed to help crippled children and adults right in our own community," Lorenz said. "Support of the entire community will be needed to attain the goal of $40,000.00 set by the Society."

Plymouth's quota has been set at $3,000.00.

Approximately 90 per cent of the funds raised during the annual Easter Seal campaign finances services within the state where it is raised. The remainder goes to help support a national program of service, education and research.

Upstairs — Downstairs ALL AROUND THE HOME

Tempt Young Appetites

Children who are convalescing from one of the upsets that come during childhood often show a definite disinterest in food. In order to gain strength and energy lost during a period of being under the weather, the child must take some nourishment. The inactivity of bed rest also has a tendency to cut down the appetite.

Mothers may find that a way to tempt the jaded appetite is to use colorful trays on which to serve food. These trays can be made up easily by making use of pictures from magazines, comic books or other illustrations from children's books. Take a plain tray which is not too big, place cut-outs on the tray and cover the whole tray with saran. The transparent household film will hold the pictures in place and makes possible a change for each meal.

It is even possible to have a continued picture story on the tray by placing pictures according to a story sequence. Interest will be created in the pictures and eating does not become so much of a chore to mother or child. Young children are easily distracted and colorful pictures will help do the job. Mothers have an advantage, too, for they know subjects that their own children favor and this helps in the selection.

For those mothers with young children who are just not good eaters, the same technique can be used. It will make mealtime an exciting time, and with transparent plastic film covering the tray, pictures can be used over and over as favorites are established. A few pictures put away as they are found in magazines will mean that the makings for a colorful food tray are always available. Also, keep on hand at all times a supply of saran film, not only for trays but also for the many, many household jobs it does so well.

Decorators Advise Considering Home Needs in Fabric Selection

Interior decorators advise choosing fabrics and materials that match your own needs when starting that home redecoration project.

Not all fabrics suit everyone, and not all materials are suited to every kind of family life, the experts say. Your redecoration plan should begin with a frank analysis of your individual requirements.

Sturdy cottons like denim and corduroy are best for active households where the homemaker hasn't the time to fuss and bother with special handling of materials, and where fabrics take a rough beating from irrepressible small fry.

Elegant cotton organdy, voile and sheer laces are fine for the family which demands fastidious surroundings and is willing to make that slight extra effort to give these materials the care they deserve.

Both rugged and elegant types of fabric are prescribed by high-style interior decorators, and both kinds reflect good taste in contemporary American interiors.

Most homemakers come to a successful compromise between their desire for elegance and their need for rugged serviceability, using the lighter fabrics in some of the rooms and the heavier materials in others where they're most needed.

Cotton is a fiber that covers the whole field of decorative possibilities with hundreds of different weaves and textures. Each kind of fabric retains its own relative advantages — unusual strength, washability or attractive appearance, or combinations of these characteristics.

Both formal and informal cottons can give an ordinary home the freshly redecorated air of a show place. In the selection of fabrics to suit your individual needs, one point to remember is that all material in a room should have about the same degree of formality.

If you combine two printed fabrics in one room, they should vary distinctly in the size of the patterns, with one considerably larger than the other. When one pattern takes up a large area, as a carpet would, it's best to use solids for the other fabrics.

On a shopping trip or just a looking trip, bring home swatches of the fabrics you like and compare them with the old fabrics you intend to keep. Buy the new fabrics only after trying all the samples together in the room.

Corned Beef Hash Stuffing

Quick idea for supper. Remove pulp from four big, firm tomatoes. To the pulp add a can of corned beef hash and mix well. Place in tomato cups and sprinkle with grated cheese. Bake in a 350° F. oven for 25 to 30 minutes.

Sandwich Meal

Between two slices of bread spread a thin layer of potato salad and top with a slice of baked or "broiled" ham. Spread both sides of sandwich with softened butter or margarine and grill until lightly browned.

Piewiches Devised for Sandwich Variation

The fourth Earl of Sandwich—who gave his name to one of America's favorite dishes—would probably be a forgotten man today if he hadn't requested a morsel of meat between two slices of bread as he sat at cards.

Since the Earl first bit into his world-famed creation, the sandwich has become an article of infinite variety. Today in America, the most common sandwich fillings are beef, ham, cheese and peanut butter. By far the most elaborate fillings are contained in an Italian innovation known as a "hero" sandwich. This mammoth concoction consists of a loaf of crusty Italian bread sliced down the center and filled with salami, ham, cheese, olives, assorted pickled vegetables and pickled peppers.

An interesting variation on the sandwich theme is the piewich—a new and glamorous way of serving leftovers. Piewiches, which make a wonderful luncheon or supper dish, consist of leftover meat or poultry heated in gravy and served between tender, delectable squares of pie crust, pre-baked on a pastry sheet. Piewich crusts are extra flaky, tender and golden—a wonderful compliment to any filling.

Leftover meat from roast chicken, turkey, beef or lamb, briefly heated in leftover gravy, is ideal for making piewiches. If you are long on the meat and short on the gravy, new gravy can be made in jig time.

Flaky Pastry For Six Piewiches

2 1/2 cups sifted enriched flour
1 teaspoon salt
3/4 cups shortening
5 tablespoons water

In a mixing bowl combine flour and salt. With a pastry blender or two knives cut in shortening until mixture looks like coarse cornmeal. Sprinkle water over mixture, one tablespoon at a time and mix lightly with a fork until all flour is moistened. With the hands gather dough into a ball and divide in half. On a lightly floured board roll out one half at a time in a large square 1/2 inch thick. Cut into six 4 inch squares. Place the squares on baking sheet, prick with a fork and bake in a 425° F. oven 15 minutes, or until golden brown. Makes 12 squares.

PIEWICHES WITH WINE GRAVY

(For cooked turkey or ham)

3 tablespoons shortening
1 tablespoon minced onion
4 tablespoons flour
2 cups hot chicken broth or consomme
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons sherry
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
1/2 teaspoon thyme
Sliced cooked turkey or ham

In a saucepan melt shortening and cook the onion in it for two minutes. Stir in flour and hot broth gradually. Cook, stirring, until gravy is smooth and thickened, then cook over low heat for ten minutes. Stir in salt, pepper, sherry, parsley and thyme and add cooked turkey or ham. Heat the meat in the gravy without letting the gravy boil. Serve between two pie crusts.

Frozen potato puffs are made from mashed potatoes, mixed with wheat flour, eggs and seasoning; formed into croquettes; and fried in deep fat before freezing.

Make Them Hearty
Grind leftover roast meat or ready-to-serve meat and add to cooked egg yolk-mayonnaise mixture for savory deviled eggs.

Spice Addition
Spices can yield a new touch to an old favorite meat dish. Add bay leaves to beef stews, pot-roasts; caraway seeds to liver or pork dishes; basil to beef or pork dishes.

Bacon for Beans
Add crisp bacon and minced onion to green beans. Brown the bacon slowly and add chopped onion to brown in the drippings. Mix with beans just before serving.

Add Viennas
A new touch for macaroni and cheese. Top with little Vienna sausages. This casserole is good served with a big tossed salad and hard rolls.

PIEWICHES WITH MUSHROOM GRAVY

(For cooked beef, pork or goose)
3 tablespoons shortening
1 small clove garlic, minced (optional)
1 tablespoon minced onion
1/2 cup minced mushrooms, fresh or canned
4 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 cups hot beef bouillon or consomme
1/4 cup dry red wine or tomato juice
1 bay leaf
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon chopped parsley
Sliced cooked beef, pork or goose

In a saucepan melt shortening and cook garlic, onion and mushrooms in it for three minutes, stirring frequently. Stir in flour and gradually stir in hot beef bouillon and red wine or tomato juice. Cook, stirring, until gravy is smooth. Add bay leaf, then cook over low heat for ten minutes. Remove bay leaf. Stir in salt, pepper and parsley and add cooked meat or goose. Heat the meat in the gravy without letting the gravy boil. Serve between two pie crusts.

Sirloin Steak Accessory

An accompaniment for sirloin steak calls for French-fried onions. To prepare this crunchy dish, slice 6 medium-sized onions 1/4-inch thick and separate the rings. Combine 1 cup of milk and 1/4 cup of water and pour over the onions. Let this combination stand for 20 to 30 minutes turning occasionally to let the slices absorb the liquid. Dip the onion slices into seasoned flour. Fry in deep hot lard (365° F.) until golden brown. Yield: 8 servings.

Iowa Researchers Recommend Eating Adequate Breakfast for Extra Energy

If you start the day with an adequate breakfast, you'll feel better and work better, especially in the late morning hours. A team of research scientists at the State University of Iowa came to this conclusion after six years of research.

Authorities recommend that a basic breakfast of fruit, cereal, milk, bread and butter be followed to insure an adequate breakfast. For those whose doctor recommends a low-fat diet, a basic cereal breakfast pattern is ideal since it is low in fat and in cholesterol.

Modern hot breakfast cereals are easy to prepare and serve to the family. Quick or regular types can be made in a jiffy.

A serving of oatmeal with milk contributes protein, valuable B-complex vitamins, minerals and food energy at low costs. For variety serve with brown sugar and milk.

Sen. POTTER REPORTS

by SEN. CHARLES POTTER

A hefty slice of federal dollars and harbors money is tagged "Michigan." Last week, when President Eisenhower sent his Budget Message to Congress, I was glad to note that our efforts for more improvements have been successful. I counted no less than forty projects for our state, costing $21,605,900. Smallest item is an investigation at the AuGres River costing $4,600. Largest is $13,000,000 for construction at the Great Lakes Connecting channels. Other projects span the State from Keweenaw to River Rouge and from South Haven to Au Sable. The sums proposed by the President, of course, are subject to Congressional approval and you'll be hearing more about individual Michigan projects as we take them up in the Appropriations Committee.

Pared-down surpluses... a rise in farm income... and a higher standard of living... are the aims of a farm bill which I am co-sponsoring. We are proposing a scientific study and research program to develop new industrial uses for farm products. The exciting possibilities here are almost limitless. Frozen foods, soy bean adaptations, and other new processes are only the beginning. Newer and more original concepts will follow proper research.

JUNIOR JUNKET—The U.S. Department of State is considering a good will concert tour of Poland by the National High School Orchestra of America, based at the famed National Music Camp at Interlochen, and affiliated with the University of Michigan. Expenses would be shared by the two governments. I believe a trip by these young people would boost European-American relations. These are outstanding boys and girls from all over the United States and they can be our most effective ambassadors of good will.

Recently I announced that one of my initial efforts in the 85th Congress would be establishment of a standing Senate Committee on Veterans Affairs. I introduced a resolution to accomplish that last week. Did you know that our 22 million veterans, their families and dependents constitute almost half the population? Surely we owe this large segment of our nation prompt and full consideration of its problems. Too often in the past veterans' matters have been pushed aside or neglected for lack of an appropriate Senate Committee. The permanent body I have in mind would devote itself exclusively to veterans' matters—pensions, life insurance, compensation, vocational rehabilitation, hospitals.

INVESTIGATE—That's what I've asked the Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce to do. I am urging a public hearing on the latest price hike by the newsprint industry. Within the past few years the price of newsprint has tripled. Profits of Canadian companies, who supply eighty per cent of our newsprint, have in some cases jumped fifty percent this past year.

Tax rebate—When Uncle Sam moves into community, local citizens usually are proud as punch. But when budget time rolls around, Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer discover that distinguished company can be costly. Federal property is tax-exempt and that places a bigger share of the cost of local state government on individuals and businesses. For some time I have been concerned over the amount of federal property which has been removed from local tax rolls in Michigan. The answer, I hope, lies in passage of a bill I co-sponsored last week. It provides for local governments to receive certain payments "in lieu of taxes" on federal property. Each case would be carefully screened, of course, but the net result should be relief for Mr. and Mrs. Taxpayer.

Inaugural highlight was the Michigan State Society's reception and buffet luncheon last Saturday. Michiganders who live in Washington gave a rousing welcome to the hundreds of home folks who came here to see the Inaugural and enjoy the festivities. A great time was had by all.

Junior Achiever Subscription Campaign Opens

Fourteen members of Junior Achievement's Suburban Unit of the '57-'58 fund raising campaign were hosted recently by John S. French, group executive, Parts & Equipment, Ford Motor Co., at a dinner held recently at Ford's new multi-million dollar Central Staff Building, Dearborn. Frank Henderson, owner of Plymouth Plating Company, finance chairman of the Plymouth area and other members of the subunit heard French urge campaign members to start getting their respective teams together for briefing and instructions prior to all-out subscription drive around the greater Detroit and out-state area.

Junior Achievement of South-eastern Michigan is a non-profit organization which teaches the free enterprise system to thousands of teenagers. The yearly program is maintained through solicitations from business organization throughout South-eastern Michigan.

A significant role in the overall fund solicitation campaign is played by the suburban unit, French said. He pointed out that with proper planning and approach, campaign workers and their teams should do well.

Said French: "I am confident we will make our quota set for the suburban unit." He told the gathering of well-known businessmen that the '57-'58 suburban unit's fund goal had been set at $50,000.

There are 240 boys and girls participating in the Plymouth program this year.

French offered his personal assistance to Henderson in getting the Plymouth campaign underway. General solicitation dates for this year's campaign run from January 21 through February 21.

A faculty of 37 outstanding specialists from nine states offered advanced training in the treatment of farm and home animals.

Clinical operations, including the rapid collection of blood for transfusions and swine practice techniques, were presented by closed circuit television over WKAR-TV, campus station.

"And now," beamed the business school teacher, "tell the class what you do when your employer rings for someone to take dictation."

"I pick up my notebook," replied bright little Miss Hastings, sharpen my pencils and answer the buzzard promptly."

Railway Express Opens News Overseas Service

The Railway Express Agency, Inc., has opened a new "one-carrier" service between the United States and Foreign points, Leonard Millross, local agent, announced this week.

Effective January 15, charges for the agency's new international surface service between U.S. and seven European nations and Japan are claimed to be lower than the total of individual charges and minimums on other existing private services, Millross pointed out.

From Detroit, the charge for sending an ordinary 100-pound package to the seven European countries range from $24.12 to Cologne, Germany to $27.27 to the Sarr. It would cost $28.07 to Yokohama, Japan. Charges from overseas points to here are slightly less.

Jaycees Observe 38th Birthday

Plymouth's "Young Men of Action," members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, last week celebrated the thirty-eighth anniversary of the founding of their national organization.

The "Jaycees" date officially back to 1919, when the St. Louis Chamber of Commerce invited a group of young men, the Junior Citizens, to become affiliated as the Jaycees.

In the succeeding years, the Jaycee idea spread like wildfire. Chapters were formed in every state, and by the time of World War II, there were 1,048 chapters in the nation.

What is this "Jaycee" idea, which has spread around the world in barely a generation? To begin, a Jaycee is a young man, between 21 and 35. After his thirty-sixth birthday, although he may retain his affiliation, his days of activity are over.

In many organizations, young men are shunted aside until they have "matured." In the Jaycees, a man is literally forced to mature by a never-ending round of activity.

That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise; that government should be of laws, rather than of men; that earth's great treasure lies in the human personality.

If you learn one thing every day, you will know 365 things by the end of a year; so what?

Library Has Record Year

The Plymouth branch of the Wayne County Library last year recorded the largest circulation in one year since the library was started in 1923.

With the branch being the largest of the county libraries in the northwestern part of Wayne county, it loaned a greater number of books than any other county branch.

But the library is not only a place for finding books. An Adult Education group discussing "Great Books" meets there; young people play chess in their off-hours; films are shown and story hours held for children.

What do the Jaycees believe? This is best told in the famous Jaycee Creed: "We Believe: That faith in God gives meaning and purpose to human life; That the brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nations; That economic justice can best be won by free men through free enterprise;

Circus At Home Here's an idea from The American HOME Magazine...

This represents an average of 11,381 books loaned per month. Mrs. Pauline states that the circulation increase can be attributed in part to the growth of the surrounding community.

Many patrons attending universities or doing further study at local schools visit the Plymouth library because of the large book collection of 17,000 volumes.

Senior Girl Scouts help in the library for a service award and Boy Scouts pass tests there for several merit badges.

If you were a perfectly good Democrat and if you had voted consistently for such outstanding Democratic leaders as Cleveland, Bryan, Wilson and Al Smith—and if you firmly believed that anything that was not tinted Democratic was no good—and if a group of outstanding community citizens came to your busy office and handed you a large picture of Herbert Hoover to hang over your desk—what would you do. Those attending this ceremony report that William Connor flinched, but only for a minute before stating "Gentlemen, I am glad to receive your gift and I promise you that should Herbert Hoover ever decide to run on the Democratic ballot I shall surely cast my vote for him!"

TIPS for TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

When parents make a no-dates-until-16 rule for teenagers, does it mean missing all school activities until then too? This query comes, sometimes tearfully, every day in the mail to this column:—

Q.—"Dear Elinor Williams: I am a 14-year-old girl and a freshman in high school. All my girl-friends have dates, go to dances and social life in school and even on movie dates (usually double-dating). My parents think I shouldn't have dates or go out at all until I'm 16. By that time I'll be a junior and will have missed all the school dances, etc. and won't know how to act when I'm out; all the others will have had experience. What do you think about this? I'm always fighting with my parents about it."

ents could take you to and from the dance or party in their car, then your parents won't have anything to worry about.

Dating isn't just "going out." You can—and should—have fun with your friends at home, too. If you act reasonably grown-up and don't ruin the furniture, etc., you should be allowed to have boys and girls come to your home.

(For free printed tips on "Date Manners for Girls" to improve your poise and popularity, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Elinor Williams at this paper.)

Senate Control Fragile

An interesting point was recently brought out concerning Democratic control of the Senate—the upper legislative body of Congress. A writer noted that the Democrats held only the slightest of margins and the death of any Senator now serving in a state where a Republican is Governor might change the balance of power in the Senate.

The present ratio in the Senate is 49 Democrats and 47 Republicans. If one Democrat were to die, or retire, and his successor were a Republican, this would leave the balance of power at 48-48. An immediate test could be made by Republicans, and the deciding vote in that 48-48 division would be that of the presiding officer. Vice President Richard Nixon, who would, of course, cast his vote with the Republicans and give them a 49-48 advantage, and control of the Senate.

This is highly important as it would give the Republicans control of all the Senate committees and all the power that accompanies committee control. The three oldest Democrats in the Senate are Theodore Green, 89, of Rhode Island; Matthew N. Neely, 82, of West Virginia; and James E. Murray, 80, of Montana. Altogether, there are thirteen Democratic Senators in the new Congress from ten states with Republican Governors. This will show just how precarious Democratic control of the Senate is.

Naturally, however, it works both ways. A Republican, of which there are some elderly ones in the upper legislative body, might retire or die, and a Democratic Governor might appoint a Democrat to succeed him and thus Democratic control would be held by a 50-46 majority. This would give the Democrats a little breathing room, but, if it happens the other way around, the Democrats might lose control of the upper legislative body.

What's Your Question on World Affairs?

by Edgar Ansel Mowrer

"Do you favor our new plan for giving military protection and more money to the Middle East?" (C. B. Gary, Ind.)

I favor giving military protection to those people that request it, but I should give no money until (a) Egypt agrees to open the Suez Canal to ships of all countries, including Israel, and permits the internationalization of the Gaza Strip and the positions commanding the Gulf of Aqaba; (b) until Syria and Jordan agree on allowing the use of the water of the River Jordan; (c) until the Arab states agree to lay off all raids into Israel; (d) until the Arab states and Israel agree on a clearing of indemnities due the Arabs by Israel and the expelled Israelis by the Arabs; (e) and until Israel agrees to resettle, say, 50,000 Arab refugees if there are so many who wish to go back, and the Arab states agree to settle all the rest away from the borders.

"Which got into the Arab countries first, Russia or Britain and France? What investments there have England, France and America?" (Stephen Shombek, Houston, Texas.)

France has been interested in the Middle East since the time of the crusades. Britain got in somewhat later. In modern times, this interest revived with Napoleon's invasion of Egypt. Russian interest in the area began with Peter the Great in the early 18th century. Now the Soviets have embarked on barter deals for arms and commodities and exchanges of Soviet "technicians, politicians, trade, art, sport, and religious leaders." The chief Western investments are in oil. Of a total of 2.6 billion dollars, the U. S. A. has furnished between 1.5 and 1.8 billions.

"Why must our young men in the services pay for so many essentials even before they get their first pay? Please state how much the food budget for the Navy was cut between 1955 and 1956." (Mrs. Mabel Darwin, Philadelphia.)

So far as I know, each serviceman is given a full outfit and a basic clothing allowance. They have to pay only for "better" things, as well as a kit or handbag.

The Navy food budget was cut from $198 million in 1955 to $180 million in 1956. The 1957 estimate is $181.5 million.

"On July 26 last, Egypt's Nasser stole the world's most important canal from its owners. A leaderless America fumbled the issue. Then in the mad scramble for votes, part of America delighted the Kremlin with a proposal to stop the draft and bomb testing. To cap the climax, comes once stalwart and steadfast (Senator) Knowland crying for sanctions against our main NATO allies. Is it any wonder that the Kremlin grasps at such weaknesses and threatens the civilized world with rocket warfare? Is there any reason the Kremlin should not further take advantage of this un-courageous conduct? May we not expect the free world's overthrow and destruction as a result?" (Col. C. A. DeCamp, Carmel, Calif.)

The Kremlin obviously has every reason to believe that the free world is both divided and retreating. It will presumably step up its aggressive expansion and I doubt if Congress' acceptance of the new Eisenhower Doctrine or his rewarding Nasser by a new chunk of money is going to prevent trouble. If I do not expect the free world's overthrow, it is because I believe that the free peoples will turn and stand, just as Britain and France did against Hitler in 1939, at the last possible moment and in the worst possible circumstances. The tragedy of our weakness is that we are inviting a catastrophic war which firmness and strength could still avoid.

Send that one brief question on world affairs to Edgar Ansel Mowrer in care of this newspaper.

"How many (American) labor unions are actively interested in the material advancement of Israel? I recently heard that Israel had called in some of our labor leaders for consultation. (Rev. Joseph M. Johnson, Gold Beach, Ore.)

The Embassy of Israel calls the charge of consulting American labor leaders "nonsense." But many American unions feel great kinship with Israel's labor government and do what they can to help. Thus the AFL-CIO put up the Philip Murray Community Hall and the Garment Workers' Union supports a home for working girls, an orphanage, and a school for technical workers.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"In Detroit there is now a controversy over the censorship of books by police. Do you believe that book censorship is necessary?"

MRS. S. L. WARNER, 305 Holbrook: "That's a tough question. Censorship in some form is good. Books that might be read by juveniles should be censored, but it's hard to draw the line. The bound books are too expensive for youngsters to buy but the paperback editions are cheap and probably should be censored."

TOM GWALTNEY, 827 Forest: "Because of the youngsters I would go along with censorship. Many times there are crimes and acts found in books that are read and done by youngsters."

JOHN CHAMPINE, Livonia: "Having two kids of my own of school age, it would be my opinion that there should be censorship. If there is no censorship, they will try to get by with everything they can. You have to draw the line someplace."

Mrs. Warner Gwaltney Miss Alford Champine

MARGIE ALFORD, 948 Dewey: "I think that it's sometimes necessary. Of course there are some who feel that any kind censorship is not good. If there isn't censorship, I don't know what could be done to stop the sale of these books."

JOHN CHAMPINE, Livonia: "Having two kids of my own of school age, it would be my opinion that there should be censorship. If there is no censorship, they will try to get by with everything they can. You have to draw the line someplace."

Suez Affects Oil Stocks

Investor enthusiasm for many of the common stocks of the international petroleum corporations has been dampened by the Suez Canal crisis. Egypt's Nasser has not only damaged his own country's economy but has also thrown a wrench into the economic machinery of several other nations of greater importance than his own.

When the Suez Canal was operating normally, about 1,350,000 barrels of oil were daily handled through this great channel. The significance of this traffic cannot be overemphasized. The major oil fields which contribute most of this large volume of oil are in Iraq, Saudi Arabia, Iran and Kuwait. Transportation—not production—constitutes the main problem.

It is most improbable that petroleum shipments from the Near East to Europe will be delayed for a long time. It looks like a temporary emergency.

Six of the big oil companies have large stakes in the Middle East: (1) Gulf Oil; (2) Royal Dutch; (3) Socony Mobil; (4) Standard Oil of California; (5) Standard Oil of New Jersey and (6) Texas.

Gulf gets over 50 per cent of its crude production from the Middle East. That is why the common stock of this company has been bouncing around erratically in recent weeks. Gulf does an annual business of over $2,000,000,000. When Nasser kicks up his heels this company is affected. Royal Dutch gets over 30 per cent of its production from the Middle East, Indonesia and Borneo. Its annual business totals more than $6,000,000,000.

Socony Mobil, with an annual volume of around $3,000,000,000, takes about 40 per cent of its production from the Middle East.

Standard Oil of California owns 30 per cent of the stock of the big Arabian-American Oil Company and some of the production goes through the Suez Canal. This tie-up helps to explain recent weakness in the California shares.

Standard Oil of New Jersey—the world's largest oil enterprise—normally takes about 22 per cent of its production out of the Middle East.

Texas Corporation gets about 40 per cent of its production through partial ownership of a big oil company in Saudi Arabia and in Sumatra and Bahrein Island.

A small amount of this oil normally goes through the canal.

It is my opinion that these six stocks, under the pressure of political and military events, have more than discontinued all the bad news and conditions surrounding them.

No nation can afford to commit economic suicide. Oil and the Suez Canal are most important factors in the well-being of millions of people.

The Case Against COMPULSORY AUTO INSURANCE

To Our Friends, Neighbors

and Customers:

A few of your elected and appointed government officials are advocating a compulsory automobile liability insurance law.

Insurance companies and their agents are united almost without exception in opposition to such a law.

In a several week series we will present some questions and answers concerning this controversial issue.

But until the facts are presented, consider this: Wouldn't you think any businessman would welcome a law that MADE people purchase his services?

The fact that we in the insurance business are so violently opposed to such a law is your real clue that something must be TERRIBLY WRONG with a compulsory system of auto insurance.
