

City Votes on One Mill, One Year Levy for Fire Truck

Commission Approves Proposal for Ballot

City commissioners voted Monday night to place a proposition on the April 1 ballot asking if voters want to be taxed one mill for one year in order to raise about $17,000 for a new fire engine.

The recommendation to place the proposal on the ballot was made to commissioners by City Manager Albert Glassford who declared that there is no possible other means to purchase a fire truck at this time.

The proposal touched off a lively discussion which placed Commissioner Ernest Henry at the head of a bloc

The department has five vehicles: 1. a 1954 American-LaFrance pumper which is like new; 2. a 1945 converted Dodge pumper which is owned by the state of Michigan and is recalled at any time; 3. a 1925 American-LaFrance; 4. a 1936 Seagrave service ladder truck donated by local insurance agents last summer; and 5. a 1954 G.M.C. rescue squad truck.

Chief McAllister pointed out in his letter to the manager that the state-owned truck is not mechanically sound and the pump is not adequate and needs repair. "It is not sound business for us to invest any more money in repair or replacement because this piece of equipment can be recalled by the state at any time."

He added that the 32-year-old pumper is not in good working order. "The motor is as sound as a motor could be at 32 years of age, but the pump does not function properly. I do not trust volunteer help in driving or operating this equipment."

He continued by stating that the rotary gear pump in the truck is out-dated in fire department operation and that gears are "loose and sloppy." The relief valve is completely unworkable and the compound gauges are not accurate and "it is very dangerous to work under these circumstances."

Chief McAllister noted that the National Board of Fire Underwriters and the Michigan Inspection Bureau recommend that two engines should respond to all alarms of fire, except a predetermined automobile or grass fire.

"Therefore, looking at the overall picture of fire fighting for the city of Plymouth, it is my recommendation that we purchase a new 1,000-gallon-per-minute pumper." He also recommends the purchase of an American-LaFrance such as they now have since the men are trained in this type of equipment.

A new truck would replace the state-owned truck and the 1925 truck. It would be housed in the city hall station. "It would give us two first line pumpers, a service ladder and squad trucks which would adequately take care of our fire needs for equipment (mobile) for 15 years under the present arrangements."

It is estimated that the truck would cost between $18,000 to $20,000. Although the budget has an equipment fund, recent purchases of rubbish trucks and other vehicles have put this fund in debt to the general fund. There is no hope of obtaining the truck with present revenue for perhaps several years, the manager pointed out.

Commissioner Henry declared that he couldn't see why the truck is needed now when the city has been getting along with present equipment without trouble. He added that when the new truck was bought in 1954 that it was claimed then that it would answer equipment needs for many years.

Henry also asserted that commission (Continued on Page 8)

New School Opens Monday

After hurdling obstacles and postponements for over a year and a half, the James Gallimore Elementary school will finally open its doors next Monday morning to about 430 youngsters.

Children who will be transferred to the new school on Sheldon road will have no school this Friday in order that their teachers can put their new classrooms in order. Books and other supplies used by the children will be moved by truck from their present classrooms to the new building late Thursday afternoon and evening.

Opening of the new school will mean that all elementary schools except Starkweather will have their enrollment reduced enough so that they may resume use of their "extra" rooms. These included the auditoriums, libraries and teacher lounges in which classes were held.

Superintendent Russell Isbister said that the formal dedication of the school will take place at an undecided later date. The elementary school was named in honor of a former president and long-time member of the board of education, James S. Gallimore, 4517 West Ann Arbor trail.

Since the board of education bought the 20-acre site nearly three years ago, a lot of headaches have developed. Two years ago when the board decided to start building the school, it was announced by county health officials that no septic tanks would be allowed. Since the school is in Canton township, south of Joy road, the lack of sanitary sewer facilities has presented a major problem.

The school became wrapped up in the township annexation election of 1955 and last year there was considerable opposition to some of the suggested changes in boundary lines for the new school.

The city, after getting approval of its sewer system for the school, granted permission for the school to run a private "force main" into the city's main. This system was opened just two weeks ago.

Byron Becker of Plymouth was architect of the building. He is a partner in the firm of W. J. Becker, Architects, of Detroit.

Carelessness Causes Many Local Fires

Fire losses in 1956 declined slightly in Plymouth township and increased in the city, according to reports filed with the state fire marshal by chiefs of the two departments.

Fire Chief Howard Holmes reported township losses last year at $12,385 as compared with $15,957 during the previous year.

In the city, Chief Robert McAllister's report showed fire destruction amounting to $19,425. In 1955 it was only $8,298.

It was the carelessness of citizens that accounted for many of the fires last year in both the city and township. Grass and dwelling fires still accounted for the largest number of alarms.

Of the 37 city alarms, six were in automobiles, 14 in dwellings, four for grass and 13 of miscellaneous. The township department had 17 grass fires, six in cars, seven in dwellings and 30 miscellaneous.

Township firemen also answered two false alarms and made six runs to assist neighboring communities.

The largest single fire in the township was in December when a Shearer drive home had damage of $4,500. Causes of the fires were: 10 unknown, four to overheated heating devices, nine to carelessness, 11 to careless smoking of rubbish, three to defective wiring, two to defective chimney, two to lightning, and one each due to bonfire igniting buildings, defective appliance, misuse of appliance, defective stove, spontaneous rubbish fire, careless use of matches and careless smoking.

Causes of the city fires were blamed on: Six by general carelessness, three by careless smokers, four by careless burning of rubbish, one by a bonfire igniting buildings, three by fuel oil burners, one by defective electrical appliance, three by defective heating device, one by sparks from chimney, one by juveniles causing fires, three unknown and 11 by miscellaneous causes.

Mrs. Walter Hammond, former city commissioner, was appointed by Mayor Daane and approved by the commission to fill an unexpired term of Walter Rensel on the planning commission. Rensel, who resigned, has a term ending November 7.

Polio Campaign Ends $500 Short of $5,000 Goal Mark

Plymouth's month-long March of Dimes drive ended last Thursday night with the annual Mothers March and almost $500 short of its $5,000 goal.

A total of $4,515.40 has been turned in as of this week, the bulk of the amount being collected last Thursday by volunteer women who went from door to door in the township and city.

The Mothers March netted $2,483.36. Chairman Mrs. Harry Bartel reported. Despite a temperature of 20 degrees during the evening, the mothers found many citizens with warm hearts which swelled the fund to the $4,500 mark.

Most of the township collections were made in the daytime, while the city march took place at night. There were 157 volunteer women participating.

There was one casualty during the evening when Mrs. George Caldwell, 285 East Ann Arbor trail, fell while on her volunteer mission and was treated at Sessions hospital for a concussion. She is now confined to bed at her home.

While there is still expected to be a small amount of money coming in, it probably will not raise the total to the goal. But the polio fund drive officials still termed Plymouth's efforts as "very successful" and complimented the volunteers and contributors.

New this year were the coffee-clutches-for-polio which accounted for $384.27. Teen-agers visited local businesses and collected $52.28 last week.

Amounts collected through other sources were: Girl Scout peanut sale, $344.07; card party, $74; Jack's Burger's coffee profits, $36; Barney's Plymouth Grill coffee profits, $47.38; Plymouth schools, $56.84; Lutheran Day School, $26.78; mail contributions, $711.67; canisters, $295.25.

Six young Rocker street boys also gave their efforts to help. They presented $3.50 that they had earned through shoveling snow from sidewalks. The six are John Cumming, Donald Weigand, Gordon and Russ Newton and Pat and Dick Schaffer.

Cancer Society Officers Elected

Mrs. Harry Bartel, 12700 Dunn court, is the new president of the Plymouth branch of the American Cancer society. She succeeds Norman Marquis who has served as the group's president since it was founded three years ago. He is now president of the Western Wayne County Unit.

Marquis thanked board members for their support in the past years and complimented members on their choice of a new president and vice-president, Charles Wyse. Appointed as office chairman by Mrs. Bartel was Mrs. H. J. Brisbois.

Mrs. Bartel stated the need for volunteer workers to help in the Penniman avenue office and expressed hope that Plymouth women would answer her appeal.

New board members introduced at the meeting were Mrs. Robert Barbour, A. L. Lance, Miss Elizabeth McDonald, John Truer and Dr. Robert Hindman.

The ACS now has an insurance coverage for voluntary workers of the society. The coverage is for volunteers while on business for the ACS. Volunteers have now formed a mobile unit to transport (Continued on page 8)

Group Readies 'Town Hall' Meet

Partial plans for a "Town Hall Tonight" program in March have been made by a committee of the Area Cooperation Group, it was reported at Tuesday night's meeting of the organization in Bird school.

Robert Fitzner, chairman of the committee, said that further meetings will complete plans for the Town Hall at which local candidates for offices will be asked to speak. Carl Cederberg, WWJ newscaster and Canton township resident, will be moderator.

A date late in March will be set for the public meeting. Six high school students were "observers" at Tuesday's meeting. There was some discussion about the essay contest being sponsored by The Plymouth Mail in which students are being asked to write about the area's five most pressing problems.

J. A. Wilcox, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, reported that he has contacted the University of Michigan about having graduate students make an impartial study of the area and its problems and that university officials are "enthusiastic." The research would probably be part of a thesis for a doctorate degree.

Don Ward was chairman of the meeting. A speaker will probably be invited to the next meeting, it was announced.

School Bus in Accident

No one was hurt and damage was minor when a Plymouth school bus collided Tuesday morning with a car in Green Meadows subdivision.

Sheriff's deputies said that Joseph Gates, the bus driver, was going west on Judson while Anthony York, 43916 Joy road, was driving north on Northern. The right front fender of the car and left front fender of the bus were damaged.

A PUMPER type fire truck similar to the one purchased by the city three years ago is what is wanted for the fire department. The proposed truck would have a 1,000 gallons per minute pump instead of a 750 gallons per minute.

Bank President Sees Bright Future Here

Members of the Livonia-Plymouth-Novi advisory committee of the National Bank of Detroit and key executives of the bank met in Plymouth for a general review of banking progress in the area since the two Plymouth banks merged with National Bank of Detroit, Sept. 30, 1952.

Plymouth bank personnel present were Floyd A. Kehrl, vice president in charge of local operations; Harry O. Mohrmann, vice president; Harry Larsen, assistant vice president, all members of the advisory committee, and Robert K. Barbour, assistant cashier.

Other committee members attending were Russell M. Daane, Carson W. Johnston, Dr. John L. Schaver, Ernest S. Roe, Edwin A. Schrader, Clifford W. Tail, Paul J. Wiedman, and Jesse Ziebler. Committee members unable to attend were Charles L. Finlan and Cass S. Hough.

Officers of the National Bank of Detroit in attendance from Detroit were Charles T. Fisher, Jr., president; Donald F. Valley,

Acquit Youth In October Shooting

Melvin H. Killion, 19-year-old Canton township youth, was found not guilty of a charge of careless use of firearms in a shooting that cost the left arm of a Livonia boy.

Killion, who lives at 41989 Joy road, was acquitted by Circuit Court Judge Miles N. Culehan in a hearing that ended Tuesday. The shooting took place October 20 at Killion's home.

Harry Willnus, 19, Western Michigan college sophomore from Livonia, lost his left arm from a shotgun blast "fired by Killion. Judge Culehan held that Killion was innocent on the grounds that he was defending himself.

Willnus and three companions met Killion and three companions at Bowles Drive-In on Northville road. After pushing each other around, Killion and his group drove to his home pursued by the others, where Killion got a shotgun and fired into the group.

Man Lost Enroute To Repair Pump

A field service manager who was enroute by charter plane to Plymouth to repair a pump in the city's new sewer system is believed dead in the plane's wreckage.

Joseph J. Maher, of Smith & Loveless, Inc., Kansas City, Missouri, had hired a private plane to fly him from Mississippi to Plymouth last Wednesday or Thursday. A wreck going through the new sewer had disabled one of the two pumps in the south-end pumping station and the city wanted both pumps in order for the opening of the Gallimore elementary school next Monday.

The plane was reported found in the Mississippi river Wednesday but it was not known if bodies were inside. Maher has been in Plymouth several times during the pumping station's installation. He is the father of two small children.

Bi-partisan Friends Honor Plymouth's Circuit Judge

George E. Bowles sat at the table in his home town of Plymouth and heard flattering things said during a dinner which was a send-off for his election campaign to be elected Circuit Judge.

The "testimonial dinner" took place in the Hotel Mayflower Tuesday evening. It was pointed out more than once that Bowles, 41 years old, has been a resident of Plymouth for a decade and that "the environment in which he has developed and the people to whom he has been exposed" has something to do with his stature today.

Talbot Smith, Michigan Supreme Court Justice, was the principal speaker and he contended gravely that the great responsibility of courts today is to apply old law so that it brings justice in the light of the great, sweeping changes that are occurring in society. He said it was impossible to dogmatically enforce traditional law—old court decisions, Latin phrases, medieval property law—and still be certain of actual "justice."

"Hence, he said, "a wise judge today must be a good man. It is not enough that we have learned judges. We must have wise judges."

As for Bowles personally, Justice Smith called him a man with "breadth of vision, knowledge of the law, and understanding."

Dinner guests included Probate Judge James Sexton, State Senator John Swinson, Mayor Russell Daane, Township Trustee Herald Hamill, and representatives from the official families of neighboring communities.

School Boards Discuss Boundary Straightening

A discussion of "straightening out" boundary lines between the Northville and Plymouth school districts and the opening of bids on a school bus were the subjects of recent board of education meetings.

At a special meeting between Northville and Plymouth board members last week, there was discussion of transferring some Plymouth district property at Six Mile and Haggerty roads to the Northville district.

There are about 11 families in the area. Carol Munshaw of the Wayne County Department of Education volunteered to survey the families to see what their preference is.

Jr. High Pupils Receive Polio Shots Feb. 18

Junior high school students will be offered free Salk polio shots on Monday, February 18. School Health Nurse Mary Carless announced this week.

The program will be directed by Dr. Sonia Andonian, city health officer, who is urging that parents see that their seventh and eighth grade children are protected against polio either at their private doctor or through this special clinic.

Permission slips are now being sent home for parent signatures. Without the permission of the parents, the youngster will not be given the series of shots.

The series consists of three shots spaced seven to eight months to complete. The vaccine is being provided by the state to children 1 through 14. Polio vaccine is now so plentiful that some of it is now valueless.

Included in the junior high program are youngsters in the public and Lutheran Day schools. Volunteering their efforts to aid Dr. Andonian administer the shots are the following trained nurses: Mrs. Ann Eurie, Mrs. Virginia Gibson, Mrs. Holly Ferguson, Mrs. Jovie Steinmetz, Mrs. Margorie Haeske and Mrs. Carless.

THREE JUDGES ON different levels were at Thursday night's dinner for Judge George Bowles of Plymouth (left). Judge Bowles is a circuit court judge, James H. Sexton of Plymouth (center) is a county probate judge, while Talbot Smith the evening's speaker, is a state supreme court justice.

Mrs. David Stratton

David Stratton-Diana Lawthers Wed in Candlelight Ceremony

Calvary Methodist church, Detroit, was the scene of the seventhirty o'clock candlelight service, Saturday, January 26, uniting Diana Rae Lawthers and David V. Stratton. The Reverend Alfred P. Landon, D.D. officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Lawthers of Burt road, Detroit, are the parents of Diana, and David is the son of the Harold D. Strattons of Blunk street, Plymouth.

Diana, given in marriage by her father, wore a floorlength gown of white velvet in Empire style with inserts of lace over satin. The bodice featured a portrait neckline, long sleeves and a bow of the velvet at the hipline. Her fingertip length veil of French illusion was held in place by a crown of orange blossoms and seedpearls. Her colonial bouquet of Amazon lilies and stephanotis was centered with a white satin bow.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Walter Kobe sister of the bride-groom wore a rose crystalette gown trimmed with matching velveteen and a matching velvet cap with face veil. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations and pink rosebuds.

The gowns of the bridesmaids, Carol Stratton, sister of the bride-groom, and Joyce Boone were like that of the maid of honor but in a shade of light pink. Their colonial bouquets were of white with pink rosebuds.

David asked G. Robert Armstrong to serve him as best man and seating the guests were Stanley Nalepka and Harry Miller.

One hundred and fifty guests were invited to the wedding and the reception which was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. The soloist for the service was Richard Shaw. Presiding at the wedding cake were Mrs. Lavers Dobbie and Mrs. Carl Naudi. The Misses Janet Finch and Marilyn Doreby were at the punch bowl. Others assisting were Mrs. Lewis Waters, Miss Donna Payne and Miss Patricia Gill.

Following a honeymoon at Potawatomi Inn, Pokagon State Park, Angola, Indiana the couple returned to Livonia where they will make their home.

Diana is a graduate of Redford high school. David graduated from Plymouth high school and was with the United States Navy as a Gunner's Mate Third Class.

Beverly Ross Plans Summer Wedding

Beverly Ross

Mr. and Mrs. Miller Ross of 50000 Ann Arbor road announce the engagement of their daughter, Beverly Joyce to David Ross Dildine, son of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Dildine of Milford, Michigan.

Beverly, a Plymouth high school graduate, is a senior at the University of Michigan. David attended Ferris Institute, Big Rapids, prior to serving two years with the United States Navy.

A summer wedding is being planned.

Women's Association To Hear Guest Pastor

Rev. Norman M. Dunsmore will address the Plymouth Women's Association at the First Presbyterian Church next Wednesday during their luncheon meeting. It will start at 12:30 p.m.

An alumni of Rutgers University and Princeton Seminary, Rev. Dunsmore is presently the pastor in Shamokin and Ambler Churches, Pennsylvania.

Women's Club Sponsors Fur Show Feb. 15

To aid charitable causes that they do not ordinarily support, the Women's Club of Plymouth is sponsoring a fur show on Friday, February 15 at which a ranch mink scarf will be given away.

Held at the Masonic Temple at 1 p.m., a Detroit furrier, E. C. Dittich and Company, will bring a complete line of furs for modeling during the afternoon. The program will also include a dessert course and a card party. In addition to the mink scarf, there will be door prizes awarded. Members of the club will model the furs. Mrs. David Gates will narrate the show.

Tickets, which cost $1.75, are available from any member of the committee. Tickets will be limited in number to 225.

Members of the committee are Mrs. George Bauer, chairman; Mrs. Ray Barber, Mrs. Neil Davidson, Mrs. Rex Hoffman, Mrs. Kenneth Libbing, Mrs. Lewis Litzenberg and Mrs. Edwin Zipsie.

At their regular monthly meeting last Friday, the Women's club heard Mrs. Louise Carpenter, coordinator of Adventures in World Understanding at Michigan State. The program also included a trumpet solo by Mary Jane West, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl West. She was accompanied by Dorothy Stremich.

United Church Women Pick Study Issues

The United Church Women in each of the 2,000 organized groups in the nation have been asked to hold four discussion meetings to help crystallize the opinions of local women in regard to issues which will be discussed at the National Assembly of the U.C. Women.

Four churches were represented at the first meeting in Plymouth held at the home of Mrs. Roy Jacobus. The next meeting will be February 25 at the home of Mrs. Claude Gebhardt. Of the 14 issues suggested by the National Assembly, four were selected for discussion by the local group.

They are juvenile delinquency, censorship (movies, radio, television, literature), compulsory military training, and responsibilities growing out of the new concept of world missions.

Four students from India and one from China were entertained in Plymouth homes last weekend. This is one of the ways which the United Church Women recommend to extend fellowship to those who come from abroad and to promote better understanding of the meaning of human brotherhood.

Those interested in entertaining guests from overseas can phone Mrs. Jacobus at 2789-W.

The Mail is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. Irving Blunk stating that the Plymouth Citizens who are vacationing in Florida are planning a potluck picnic at 12:00 noon on March 5, Lowry Park, Tampa, Florida. Anyone visiting Florida is urged to attend this gathering. She states that on Friday, February 1 Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Soth, also of Plymouth, who are at Bradenton, Florida, entertained a co-operative birthday dinner honoring Mrs. Mabel Blunk and Mrs. Soth. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thom, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Lewis, of Bradenton, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Blunk, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunk, Mrs. Mable Blunk of St. Petersburg, Florida.

BOOK REVIEW

KEEPING UP WITH THE TIMES

By R. Roy Purcell

Now we can present our own RUSSELL KIRK'S new book "Beyond The Dreams of Avarice" that every man and woman who has a stake in our freedoms must read.

Born right here in Plymouth, graduate of our High School about 1936, Young Kirk got started in Michigan State to learn about the deeper things of life. In the writing of four books that have captured the top honors in Conservative ranks all over the world Professor Kirk shows that he sees and clearly shows how our troubles in both Britain and America have been greatly worsened by Statism.

Elected to be the official historian of the great Scottish University of Glasgow he will grow in popularity with those who think seriously about state affairs. But he offers no hope to those who hope that by "passing a law" they will be relieved from the task of earning a living. The Welfare State gets no backing from practical Russell Kirk.

Read "BEYOND THE DREAMS OF AVARICE" and you'll understand the way our "pinks" are leading us into a blind alley. Priced at $4.50.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Miller

Robert Millers Reside Here Following Eastern Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Miller are now comfortably settled in their home at 8870 Brookline street, Plymouth, following their marriage and a honeymoon in the East.

Mrs. Miller is the former Sylvia L. Burden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Verne Burden of Irvin street and Mrs. Emma Miller of Ann Arbor trail is the mother of the bridegroom.

The couple were wed on November 24 in the First Methodist church, Plymouth by the Reverend Howard W. Burden, uncle of the bride, assisted by the Reverend Melbourne Johnson. Mrs. Grant Bealman was organist and soloist Mary Lou Hartwick sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because". Bouquets of white flowers enhanced the altar.

Sylvia chose a floorlength gown of rose pointe lace over taffeta with Queen Anne collar, long sleeves and a sweeping Cathedral train. Her floorlength veil fell from a crown of rhinestones and seedpearls and she carried a white Bible centered with a white orchid.

Ardith Burden was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a floor-length gown of burnt orange crystal which featured a deep pleated panel down the front and matching hat.

The bridesmaids, Phyllis Hood in dark green, Norma Underwood in cinnamon brown and Dawn Miller in gold also wore matching hats. All attendants carried arrangements of bronze mums.

Carol Vaughn, the little flower girl was in mint green. Harold Burden, brother of the bride, was the ringbearer.

Charles Miller assisted his brother as best man and ushers were Richard Thomas, Robert Ancevine and Robert Hlavaty.

Mrs. Burden was in pink lace with matching accessories and Mrs. Miller chose light blue lace with dark accessories. Both mothers wore rose corsages.

Following the ceremony 250 guests attended the reception held at the Superior Township Hall at Cherry Hill. Sylvia was graduated from Plymouth high school. They are residing in Plymouth.

Mrs. Roger Corey

Candlelight Service United Roger Corey-Mary Anne Witwer

Tiers of glowing candles and bouquets of white carnations and snapdragons enhanced the altar of the First Methodist church on Sunday afternoon, February 3 for the impressive ceremony uniting Mary Anne Witwer and Roger Corey.

Mary Anne is the daughter of the J. R. Witwers of Edison avenue and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Corey, also of Plymouth, are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Reverend Melbourne Johnson, D. D. officiated at the four o'clock ceremony. Soloist was Shirley Plant who sang "Still As The Night" and "The Lord's Prayer". White satin streamers and clusters of green marked the church pews.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was radiant in a gown of imported Italian raw silk with fitted bodice, lace yoke and short sleeves. Her elbow length mitts of the silk featured tiny buttons to the wrist and she wore a cap of matching lace which held in place her fingertip length veil. The hooped skirt had a butterfly bustle and ended in a chapel train. Mary Anne carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and white hyacinths with blue violets.

Dorothy Curtis, the maid of honor, wore a princess style gown of burgandy crystalite in ballerina length with draped neckline and matching velvet halo. She carried a colonial bouquet of red carnations and red sweetheart roses.

Bridesmaids, April Corey, sister of the bridegroom, Pat Wilkins and Betty Ann Omo, wore gowns fashioned like that of the honor maid in pale pink with matching halos. They carried colonial arrangements of pink carnations and pink sweetheart roses.

Tom Corey was his brother's best man and ushers were Arthur Sieloff, Jerry Micol and George Traux.

Mrs. Witwer wore a corsage of white gardenias with her navy and white dress. Mrs. Corey wore pink accessories with her navy dress and a corsage of pink Calla lilies.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church dining room with guests attending from Lansing, Grand Rapids, East Tawas, Owosso, Flint, Lake Orion, Detroit, Benton Harbor, Mason, Allegan, Ann Arbor, Plymouth, California and Florida.

For a wedding trip to Chicago the new Mrs. Corey chose a red wool dress with black accessories and a short black fur jacket.

Mary Anne was graduated from Michigan State College, School of Nursing, and Roger is a senior at Western State in Kalamazoo where the couple will make their home for the present. Both are Plymouth high school graduates.

Parkview Homeowners Appoint Committees

Committees for the new year were appointed by President Walter Lake at the January meeting of the Parkview Circle Homeowners association last Friday night. It was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Upton, Garling drive.

Appointed were Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kennedy and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Kuhns to the membership committee; Robert Fitzner as Area Cooperation Group representative; Al Truax as Civil Defense chairman; Mrs. James Parks and Mr. Al Clare as flower and gifts chairman; and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitzner as publicity chairman.

The next meeting on March 1 will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wilson of Garling drive.

The Monday afternoon 500 club met this week with Mrs. Fred Ebert on Penniman avenue. The guests included, Mrs. Charles McConnell, Mrs. William Farley, Mrs. Louise Hutton, Mrs. Rose Wilson, Mrs. Henry Ehrensberger, Mrs. Isabel Taylor.

Plymouth U of M Club to Attend Hockey Game

Members of the U of M Club of Plymouth will enjoy the treat of attending and seeing a collegiate hockey game without having to get their cars out of the garage.

On Saturday, February 23, 1957, a big yellow and blue University bus will stop in front of the Mayflower Hotel at 7 p.m. to pick up 40 members of the club and take them to the University Coliseum at Ann Arbor to see the University of Michigan-Michigan State hockey game being played that night. The bus will return the group to Plymouth at 11 p.m. Group singing of Michigan, Big Ten and other college songs will be enjoyed enroute.

Hockey is the fastest of games and the rivalry between these two state schools is so intense that it is impossible to obtain tickets at the gate. Vic Heyliger, coach of the Michigan team, is trying to win for the Maize and Blue a spot in the inter-collegiate play-offs at Colorado Springs in March for the ninth consecutive time. East Lansing is hoping to win their first game in several years from their down State rivals.

Tickets at $3 each are still available by calling Wendell Miller, phone 2914. They include the cost of transportation and a reserved seat at the game. Miller also promises a "bit of sustenance" between periods of the game. If all tickets are not taken by members of the club, they will be offered to any Plymouth residents desiring to see the game.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ben Blackett of Ann Arbor enjoyed dinner with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Fraleigh on Gold Arbor.

Five Outlying Schools Plan First Festival for March 16

The five outlying schools of the Plymouth School system are cooperating to put on the Five Star Festival in the new Gallimore School Building, March 16.

The Parent-Teacher groups of Bartlett, Canton Center, Cherry Hill, Hough and Truesdell schools each see need of extras for their school, but no one group is large enough for a festival, so it was decided to put on one big affair for the good of all.

Cactus Dan, the WWJ-TV cowboy announcer, will be the guest star. He will meet all the children present and give his autographed picture to those wishing such a souvenir.

The committee heading the work on the project consists of Mrs. William Sprengel, general chairman; Mrs. Ris Woody of Truesdell; Mrs. Carl Cederburg of Hough; Mrs. Charles O'Donnell of Cherry Hill, Mrs. George Foto-

Each group will provide booths and entertainment and any proceeds for the festival will be divided equally between the various schools.

Two Square Dance Groups Now Starting New Term

A square dance class for adults who are beginners, sponsored by the Adult Education and Recreation department, starts Wednesday, February 13 at 8 p.m. and will meet every second and fourth Wednesday.

An intermediate group for those who have had a little square dancing started Wednesday at 8 p.m. and will meet every first and third Wednesday. First dances for both groups will be in the junior high school gym (rear of high school), after which they will move to the new Gallimore school.

Bob Carson will call for and direct both groups. For further information, call Mrs. Carson at 484-J.

STATE CAPITOL DOME

State Representative

So many people have asked when the legislature meets I thought it might be interesting to state the definite hours now in effect. The session of both the House and Senate is always called at 8 p.m. on Monday night, and 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and 10 a.m. on Friday. The purpose of this is to give legislators an opportunity to go home weekends in all parts of the state.

At the present time the sessions are short but will lengthen in duration as more bills start arriving on the floor. Mornings are kept free for committee meetings and for legislative research. Our State affairs committee meets regularly every Wednesday morning at 10 a.m.

I am afraid I had no idea how much work there can actually be connected with this kind of a job. It isn't necessary, however, and one could sit through a whole session and do nothing, but if you are sincere in serving the people of your district it takes long hours of intensive work and study. As an example, I am enrolled in classes at Michigan State University conducted expressly for legislators who want to know the infinite details of subjects concerning the State. The most intense and intricate subject with which I am now struggling as a student is Michigan's Unemployment Compensation act. I am many years away from school and it isn't easy to sit and listen to a professor explain the workings of a subject so complicated.

"And straightaway his ears were opened, and the spring of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain." ST. MARK, 8:35.

Reference is herewith made to a frank statement published in Livonia and Redford recently by the opponent who ran against me in the primary for this seat in the legislature. He wrote a letter which states plainly that the charges brought up at that time, and listened to eagerly by a couple of ministers, were a coldly engineered political smear. I tried then, in the most sincere way, to tell them of the nature of the attack. Now they know.

The major subject of conversation between the Republican lawmakers is that of the budget as submitted by the Governor. According to taxation chairman, Rep. Rollo Conlin, the Governor has over-estimated the state's income as badly as he under-estimated its expenditures. There seems to be no question but what the tangled financial mess is the greatest headache in front of the session this year. I don't think at this writing anyone in Lansing has any idea just what the final outcome will be.

One thing I have learned is that there are many demands on members of the legislature other than working on legislative matters. Last week President Hatcher of the University of Michigan and John Bugas of Ford Motor had us as dinner guests to explain and show movies of the Fair Lane gift. Almost any night there is some sort of a dinner meeting which you must attend. So far this week I already have four definite evening meetings and now I can readily see how involved this whole process can become. So far it is most interesting and knowing so little about the many details I should probably confess at this time I am most confused. However, they tell me it will straighten out that situation and soon I'll know my way around like everyone else.

Sheldon 4-H'ers Receive Awards

Members of the Sheldon Community 4-H club were among the winners of awards announced at the Wayne County 4-H Club leaders banquet held last week in Taylor Center.

Gloria Laginess, who spent six months in the farm fellowship program in France and whose experiences were reported in The Mail last summer, spoke and showed slides of her travels.

Sharlene Moers, now at Michigan State and formerly with the Sheldon Community club, won four scholarships—the Michigan State 4-H, National Farm and Garden, Emma DuBord and Michigan Dynameter scholarships. She also received the Danforth and State 4-H service awards.

Others announced as winners were: James Hartford, achievement award; Patricia Clixby, clothing; Joyce Hawkins, beautification of house and garden; Marvin Hayes, electricity; Louis Medaugh and Earl Threadgould, gardening; Don Alberts, handicraft; David Osborne, tractor maintenance and junior leadership.

Charles Osborn, founder of the club and now of Bradt, Michigan, was given recognition.

Mrs. Lyman Ball has sold her home on South Main street, also her property on Ann Arbor trail occupied by the Gaffield studio and has purchased a home on Pacific avenue.

A DRIVE to raise at least $5,500 for the Plymouth, Northville and Livonia Junior Achievement program was opened last week when industrial leaders met at the Hotel Mayflower. Shown from left are R. B. Evans, vice-president of Evans Products company and JA chairman for the area; Frank Henderson of Plymouth, chairman of the fund drive; and Jack McCallum of Ford Motor company.

On Tuesday evening Pauline Peck entertained the following members of her contract bridge group in her home on north Main street: Mrs. Henry Woollens of Farmington, Mrs. H. J. Erisbois, Mrs. Ward Jones, Mrs. J. L. Olshaver, Mrs. Howard Sharpley, Mrs. Raymond Bachelord of Plymouth.

Mrs. Ethel Parmalee returned Wednesday to her home on Sheridan avenue following a visit with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Felton in Rochester.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rossetti have returned from a month's vacation to New Orleans and San Diego, California where they visited with their son, Richard Fenton and family.

by Carl Peterson

As I recall from wakeful moments in the halls of learning, St. Valentine's Day was originally for the birds. It was the time the birds held a big clambake in the forest and chose their partners. Since then man has learned from his fine feathered friends and now February 14th marks the open season on sentiment—ranging from comic Valentines to those creations that appear to be whopped by some mad genius in a paper lace factory.

Valentine's Day is one of the few times in the year when a fellow can go home with a gift under his arm without arousing suspicion. In fact, if he doesn't show up with a suitable offering he can be as popular as a cement mixer in a library. Can I give any more concrete warning, men?

Valentine's Day is a day for expressing sentiment and what would be better than a Valentines from Peterson's.

A Baltimore man who failed to return a library book titled "Practical Course in Modern Locksmithing" was found in jail on a burglary charge. I guess the course wasn't too practical.

Here's a practical course in two lessons on how to rate A-1 on Valentine's Day: First, do the expected thing—give her a beautiful box of our fine FANNIE MAY frozen candies. Then, for the unexpected extra, select a personal gift from our famous cosmetic and perfume lines . . .

Mrs. Fredericka Gates

A former resident of Plymouth until 1943, Mrs. Fredericka Gates, 91, passed away February 3 at the home of her daughters in Ann Arbor after a lengthy illness.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral home with the Reverend Walter Press of Bethlehem Evangelical-Reformed church, Ann Arbor, officiating. Interment was in Riverside cemetery.

Mrs. Gates was born February 4, 1865 in Germany to Mr. and Mrs. Karl Richter. She was married to William Gates on March 3, 1885. He preceded her in death. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Alfred Kempfert and Mrs. William Horning of Ann Arbor, one grandchild and two great grandchildren.

The deceased moved to Grass Lake from Plymouth and two years ago moved to Ann Arbor.

Pallbearers were Roy, Carl, Irwin, Elmer, William and George Richter.

Russell A. Wendt

Russell A. Wendt, operator of a service station at 34399 Plymouth road, Livonia, died at his home at 10 p.m. January 31 a few minutes after suffering a heart attack. He was 45.

A resident of 8068 Wayne road, Mr. Wendt had lived in the area all of his life. He was a member of the Livonia Kiwanis club.

Born in Detroit on November 20, 1911, he was the son of Albert and Emma Timreck Wendt. He is survived by his wife, Katherine; his parents, residents of Plymouth; and children, Dorothy, Shirley Jean, Carolyn and David, all at home. In addition, there are two sisters, Mrs. Beatrice Fritz of Plymouth and Mrs. Ethel Jones of Arcadia, California.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Monday at the Schrader Funeral home. Officiating were the Reverends Robert Richards and MacDonald Jones. Interment was in Riverside cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Harry Crawford, Lou Humpert, Merle Fowler, Virgil Morgan, Frazer Galamore and Charles Guideau.

OBITUARY

Charles J. Fleischman

Charles J. Fleischman of 46910 Six Mile road passed away January 30 at his home. He was 73.

Born March 4, 1883 in Erie, New York, he was the son of Michael and Mary Fleischman. He is survived by his wife, Emma, and two daughters, Mrs. Mable Jones of Plymouth and Mrs. Helen Hicks of Northville. Three grandchildren also survive.

Mr. Fleischman had lived in the Northville and Plymouth area and at his present address for 29 years. He was a carpenter by trade and was a member of Our Lady of Victory church.

Funeral services were held February 2 at Our Lady of Victory church with the Reverend John Wittstock officiating. Prayers were said February 1 at the Casterline Funeral home. Interment was in Cadillac Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. Hattie May Boring

The mother of two Plymouth residents, Mrs. Hattie May Boring, 46094 Sunset, Northville, passed away last Saturday at the age of 80. She had lived in Northville for 12 years.

Twelve children survive: Mrs. Floyd Tibbitts, Plymouth; Mrs.

Roy Utley, Novi; Mrs. Rena McCormick, Alma; Mrs. Clifford Flourey, and Mrs. Edward Hollingdale, West Highland; Mrs. Harry Taylor, Livonia; Matthew, Novi; Howard, Plymouth; Joseph, Keego Harbor; John, Novi; Wendell and Earl, Milford.

There are also 34 grandchildren, 41 great grandchildren.

Services were Monday from the Richardson-Bird Funeral home in Milford. Interment was in West Highland cemetery.

Livonia Gardeners Plan Workshop for Feb. 12

The Livonia Branch and the Rosedale Gardens Branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association will co-sponsor a workshop on "General Flower Arrangements" February 12 from 12:30 to 4 p.m. at the Rosedale Gardens Club House, 9611 Hubbard, Livonia.

Donald Juchartz, ornamental horticulture agent for Wayne County, will conduct the workshop. The Livonia Home Gardeners will attend the session as guests.

Newburg News Many Receive Awards at Boy Scout Troop 271 Court of Honor

Boy scout troop 271 of St. Michael's Catholic church held their first court of honor of the year last Monday, January 28. Following the presentation of the colors with the entire troop at attention, Scoutmaster John Krygier and other committeemen presented the following awards: Tenderfoot awards to J. Bonk, J. Fenolio, J. March, J. Martin, R. Powell, M. Rea, M. Riley, M. Talbot, R. Vots, L. Ringel, D. LaPointe, P. Monks and J. Jankiewicz. R. Christensen received his second class advancement. One year service stars were awarded to H. Brekow, P. Handzik and A. Malonin. Two year stars to S. Curry, C. Kruger, P. Nolan, M. Tyre and B. LaPointe. T. Bonk, T. Grimm, J. Grimm and L. Mead received their three year service stars. Nineteen merit badges were distributed to the following scouts: J. Berrutti, who received 6 badges; G. Burns, who received 4; M. West, who received 2; J. Krygier also received 2 and W. Zinger, B. LaPointe, P. Bellly, J. Grimm and C. Kruger all received 1 each. The Star award was given to Mike West and Jack Krygier, while Gerald Burns received his Life Scout award. The scoutmaster then addressed the assembled parents and scouts concerning the future plans for the troop. He spoke about the proposed summer camp in the Manistee National Forest; of sending a delegation of scouts to the National Jamboree to be held at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania in July of this year and of sending a representative group of Explorers to the Golden Jubilee of Scouting to be held in England in August of 1957. The court of honor was formally closed with the Scoutmaster's benediction and the singing of taps.

The youth of St. Michael's Catholic church were again honored on Wednesday, January 30 at the Third annual Sport Award dinner put on by St. Michael Men's club. The dinner was donated, prepared and served by the women of the Altar Society and was served to about 200 people. Serving as master of ceremonies, Bud Kirvan introduced many dignitaries who had assembled for the evening, among those being his honor, Mayor William Brashear and Mrs. Brashear, Dr. and Mrs. Brooker, and Mr. and Mrs. Kleinert. Special guests who addressed the group were Sonny Gandi, line-backer for the Detroit Lions football team and Tony Seaver, a Western Conference official. Both men, in their remarks, put emphasis on a good sound education before sport activity. Ray Foster, coach of the St. Michael's football team and a senior at the University of Detroit presented the letters to the following boys: Stanley Krogulecki, Phil Mularoni, Richard Sofaly, Thomas Carney, David Jones, Michael Byrnes, George Santich, Robert Thill, John Warriner, Edward McCarthy, James Kaval, Danny Prevo, James Sugruve and Danny Wright. Trophies were also presented to Richard Sofaly (best back), Michael Byrnes (best lineman), Danny Prevo (most promising player), Stanley Krogulecki (sincerest effort) and Phil Mularoni (display of most ability). Movies that had been taken of the football team in action, were shown after a few closing remarks by Father John V. O'Conner, assistant pastor of the parish.

Cagers Drop First League Tilt, Tankers Lose Second

Ken Calhoun Hits For 26

It took a fired up, hard playing, last place Belleville team to knock Plymouth from their perch on top of the Suburban 6B League and send the Rocks to their first defeat of the season. The loss dropped Plymouth into a tie with Trenton for first place in the conference.

Belleville had lost their last eight starts including a 64-36 drubbing by Plymouth before upsetting the highly ranked varsity squad 56-49.

The Tigers of Belleville displayed an amazing show of defensive power as they held the locals to 19 of 54 floor shots for a weak 35%. Belleville hit for 49% of their floor shots to take the edge in offensive power.

It looked like Plymouth was going to execute another last minute victory as they pulled to within one point of the Tigers with two minutes remaining but a sudden burst of foul shots and fast breaks by Belleville soon calmed them, and Belleville had won for first time in eight starts.

The scoring was tight through the first quarter with Plymouth coming out on top of a 14-13 score. Belleville took command in the second period 27-24 and continued to dominate and stretch their lead to eight points by the end of the third period.

Ken Calhoun lead the Plymouth attack with 26 points. Ken hit on 9 of 18 field goals and 8 of 11 free throws. Biff Tait contributed 6. Mike Snodgrass was high for the winners with 14.

Plymouth now stands at 6-1 for the league. Bentley will invade Plymouth tomorrow night. In the last meeting Plymouth won 40-32. After the Bulldogs, the locals will take on Trenton on the latter's home court.

Beglingers Hold League Lead With Ninth Win

Beglinger Olds of the Class A Men's League scored two easy victories last week to continue their undefeated status and remain on top of the league. The first victory was a 67-51 triumph over Northville Recreation. The second was a 2-0 win over Northville State Hospital. The last win being a forfeit.

Hickory Farm continued to press the league leaders as they tallied for a double win in competition. They downed Northville State Hospital 82-50 and dropped Daisy 79-54.

Plymouth Independents strengthened their hold on third place with a 65-60 win over Daisy and a bye in last Thursday's game. Braders moved from last to fourth by way of a 71-52 victory over Northville Recreation.

Beglinger moved from an 18-18 tie at the end of the first quarter to a 32-26 edge at half-time. Speed and good shooting in the second half sent Beglinger to their eighth straight league victory. The final score was 67-51.

Bud Nedry spearheaded the Beglinger attack as he dumped in nine field goals for 18 points. Jim Bloomhuff and Bud Lamphear had 15 and 14 respectively for the winners. Carr and Tescha had 13 and 12 for the losers.

Hickory Farms set Northville State Hospital down 82-50 to stay in the second slot of the league. Both teams played cautiously with only 12 fouls being committed between them.

Ken Kisabeth bucketed 26 for the winners. Dick Day tallied for 12. Winchester scored 17 for the losers.

Hickory Farm mauled Daisy in their second game of the week 79-54. Hickory had the lead all the way.

Ken Kisabeth paced the win with 37 points, Thompson had 13, and Larry Brennan 10. Davis led the losers with 12.

Plymouth Independents shoved Daisy deeper into the cellar with a 65-60 trouncing. The Independents overcame a first period lead to win the fifth game.

The game was wide open with a total of 39 fouls. Barrett was high individual scorer with 19. Paffelt contributed 13. Jack Hille and Roy Croudis had 16 and 14 points respectively for the losers.

Braders stayed in contention with a 71-52 triumph over Northville Recreation. Braders lead throughout the ball game and managed to come through with their third victory of the season.

The league standings are as follows:

BEGGLINGER	9	0
Hickory Farms	9	1
Plymouth Ind.	5	4
Braders	3	6
Northville S. H.	3	7
Daisy	2	7
Northville Rec.	2	8

JV's Lose Again

Belleville completely dominated the junior varsity game. The Tiger's jumped to an early 14-1 first period score and by half-time had turned the game into a one sided 24-8 romp.

The reserves came back strong in the second half and by the end of the third period had pulled within two points of the Tiger team. Plymouth had scored 17 points while holding the opposition to three.

Belleville turned the tables in the last quarter and ended the game with a 46-25 victory. Eddie LaRoach was high for Plymouth with 12. Saunders and Hurchin had 12 each for the winners.

SPORTS

Sports Seen

By Bob Young

I've been asked the past week how the column got its name. Well I guess there's a story even in that. Mr. Chandler, the editor, Jim Thorpe, my friend, and myself, were sitting in the office one night last week going over possibilities. They were either too old, didn't fit, or weren't any good. Finally while scanning the dictionary I saw the word SCENE, I took the idea to Mr. Chandler who quickly changed the SPORT SCENE to SPORTS SEEN. Jim then proceeded to draw a cartoon of a man looking through binoculars. This was soon changed to the little figure up above. And that is that. Thank you Mr. Chandler for the idea, and thank you Jim for the drawing.

Friday night the Plymouth varsity will play host to the invading Bentley Bulldogs. The last time the two teams met Plymouth pulled out a low scoring 40-32 triumph. The game will be a big one for Plymouth who will need the win to maintain their supremacy in the Suburban Six.

Last Sunday I had the pleasure of talking to Adam McCoy better known to most of you sport fans as Young Kid McCoy, former number one contender for welterweight championship of the world.

McCoy was Michigan's welterweight champion and was successful in defending his title three times. The Kid is best remembered for his fights with Al Netlo and Fritzie Zivic, former welter champ, at Olympia. These two fights were considered the finest of the early '40's.

The Kid fought the champ but since he was one and three eighths pounds over the limit the fight had to be a non-title bout. The Kid took the champ the distance for a draw. McCoy went into the Army Air Force after the fight and never got a return match.

Mr. McCoy, who is now working as experimental parts coordinator in the Mercury Division

Mail Holds Lead

Davis & Lent of the Class D League upset The Plymouth Mail last week 37-33. The loss was the first for the Mail squad. The Plymouth Mail held a 21-18 half-time advantage but failed to hold it.

Tom Carmichael was high for the victors with 17 points. Tom Preston added 8 for the winners. Ron Markham and Wayne Jorahl had 8 apiece for the losers.

In the class E league the Plymouth Optimists squeezed out a 26-23 triumph over Lutheran Day School. Huber lead the Optimist attack with 8 points. Marshall and Hoffman had 6 apiece to add to the winning total. Ray Fisch tallied for 9 for the losers.

Frosh Try for Eighth Straight

The freshmen squad of Plymouth High School continued to roll along undefeated after all the other sports teams had bit the dust. Last Friday on the home gymnasium the Frosh dealt Belleville a humiliating 36-19 defeat.

Plymouth had compiled a 10-4 lead at the end of the first quarter and had a comfortable 10 point lead at the end of the half.

The little Rocks held the visitors scoreless in the third period and coasted to their final margin of victory. The victory was the seventh in a row for the home team.

Randy Egloff paced the winners attack with 13 points. Ralph Grady had 10 and John Nance 6. Skrobosinski was high for the losers with 6.

The Jr. high team grabbed a 27-29 triumph over the visiting Belleville squad. The little rocks had to overcome the visitors in the last quarter to gain the victory.

Belleville had a 12-5 edge at the end of the first period and had moved to a 16-11 halftime lead. Plymouth pulled to within seven points at the end of the third quarter.

In the final period of play the little rocks pumped in 25 points while holding the Tigers scoreless. The jr. high squad is coached by Bill Brown.

Spigarelli and Palmer contributed 12 points apiece for the winners. Ambrose had 13 for the losers.

Birmingham Downs Rocks

Hard luck played a big part in Plymouth's second swimming defeat of the season. Plymouth traveled to Birmingham's pool only to drop a 50-46 decision. Birmingham placed first in seven of the ten events.

Plymouth jumped to an early 8-1 lead after Don Carney eked out a first in the 50 yd. freestyle. His time of 25.4 was just one tenth of a second faster than teammate's John Williams, who finished second. McGinnis of Birmingham took a third.

Sintz of Birmingham, who has been clocked at 1:03.6, in the 100 yd. butterfly was content to accept a first place with a 1:04.7. Bob Isbister of Plymouth finished second in front of teammate Dick Showers.

Plymouth's All American, Bill Brandell, was beaten by Bechtel of Birmingham in the 200 yd. freestyle. Bechtel's time was 1:59.5 as to Bill's 2:04.4. Gary Wright captured a third for Plymouth. Plymouth was now on the big end of a 16-11 score.

The 100 yd. backstroke was won by Smith of Birmingham, John Gregory took a second with Pew of Birmingham third. Dennis Baker and Jack Taylor finished second and third behind Overguard in the 100 yd. freestyle.

Birmingham copped a first and third in the 100 yd. orthodox breaststroke. Mike Todd garnered a second for Plymouth. Birmingham now held a slim 28-26 lead going into the diving event where Plymouth has been surprisingly strong.

Art Losse came through with a first for Plymouth and the winner's five points. John Walker lost second and third place by only a few points after spoiling four of his five dives. The loss of second was like a loss of six points to Plymouth.

Gary Wright was edged out of first place in the 150 yd. individual medley by a legal technicality. The timer clocked Gary at 1:38.5 while Sintz of Birmingham was timed at 1:39 but the judge gave first to Sintz, who he said hit the end first. Birmingham also placed third.

Birmingham defeated the team of Gregory, Isbister, Todd and Taylor in the 200 yd. medley relay. Plymouth's time was one and five tenths of a second slower than the winners.

Plymouth's 1:39.9 was good for a first in the 200 yd. freestyle relay. The relay team is John Williams, Kenny Baker, Bill Brandell, and Don Carney.

Lasting Peace Possible, Lecturer Tells Audience

Despite political confusion and threats of atomic destruction, lasting solutions to today's problems are available for the individual and all mankind, Arch Bailey of San Francisco told an audience at First Church of Christ, Scientist here Monday.

The scientific understanding of God enables the individual to cope effectively with the problems of everyday living and it applies also to world tension, Mr. Bailey said.

Healings of poliomyelitis, alcoholism and nervous exhaustion were among those cited by the lecturer to illustrate the effectiveness of scientific prayer.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Members of Girl Scout Troop 6 are very happy to welcome Mrs. Donald Graham as their new troop leader. Mrs. George Hudson will continue as co-leader. At their January 28 meeting, Troop 6 elected the following new officers: Hollis Haynes, chairman; Marcia Randall, treasurer; and Barbara Troyer, scribe. Shelia Canine, Jeanne Schwartz, and Lynda Robertson were elected patrol leaders. Plans for an exhibit at the forthcoming Scoutorama were discussed at this meeting.

Lynn Cantrell reports that Brownie Troop 7 enjoyed a skating party Saturday, January 26, at Wilcox Pond. After a morning of skating, the girls went to the home of Mrs. A. E. VanOrnum where they had nosebag lunches and hot chocolate. Mrs. VanOrnum and Mrs. Frank Allison are leaders of Troop 7.

Members of Troop 15 have been busy working on their First Class badge requirements. At one of their recent meetings they enjoyed making reed baskets. Mrs. Russell Micol and Mrs. William Rudick are troop leaders.

Members of Brownie Troop 18 have been busy collecting Christmas cards for the American Legion Auxiliary. These cards will be presented by Auxiliary members to the children at the Lapeer State Home and Training School. This troop has sent one dollar on two different occasions for Care packages for Hungarian Relief. Mrs. Philip Barney and Mrs. Harry Larsen are leaders of Troop 18.

The highlight of an overnight at the Kiwanis Girl Scout lodge was a candlelight ceremony on Saturday evening, January 26, when 14 girls were invested as Intermediate Scouts in Troop 28. The ceremony was witnessed by mothers and fathers of the girls. The overnight was financed by a fudge sale held at the January meeting of the Allen P.T.A., sponsors of Troop 28. Mrs. W. N. Clark and Mrs. Raymond Ellerholz are troop leaders.

At a recent meeting of Troop 29, the following officers were elected: Judy Hardimon, president; Jane Vallier, vice-president; Carol Hinckley, secretary; Virginia Signorelli, treasurer; Patty George, sunshine girl; and Pamela Barbour, reporter. Kathy Kaunisto was elected captain of the Flying Squirrel patrol, and Pamela Barbour, assistant captain. Judy Stratton was elected captain of the Busy Beaver patrol and Catherine Hinckley was elected assistant captain. Mrs. Charles Beardslee and Mrs. Walter Gothe are leaders of Troop 29.

Leader of Patrol 1 is Mary Jane Cross, and assistant leader is Gail Bearden. Carla Wilkins is leader of Patrol 2 and Carol Sue Outman is assistant leader.

Plymouthites Play in Badminton Tourney

Five local youths made a good showing in the Novice Badminton Tournaments held last week. The five boys were, Tom Carmichael, Jim Houk, Fred Libbing, Carl Berry, and Tom Lock.

Tom Carmichael participated in the singles, doubles, and mixed doubles. Tom lost out to Ron Davis in the finals of the singles event. He teamed with Ron Davis for the victory in the doubles and he and Donna Madden were runner ups in the mixed doubles event.

Tom Lock, who entered the 15 and under singles, lost to George LeFranc in the finals. Lock teamed with Carl Berry for doubles. Fred Libbing and Jim Houk combined efforts for the doubles. All of these boys were also entered in the singles.

The future of the Plymouth-Livonia-Nowi area is bright. The population of the combined area as of July 1, 1956, was estimated by the Detroit Metropolitan Regional Planning Commission at 62,500 people—8,200 in Plymouth, 6,000 in Livonia, and 5,700 in Novi township. The future area population estimates are 80,100 in 1960, 136,000 in 1970, and 239,900 in 1980. Breaking these figures down locally, by 1980 Plymouth will have an estimated population of 12,500.

Hudson Advertising Manager To Address Retail Merchants

William B. Bond, advertising manager for the J. L. Hudson company, will be the guest speaker next Wednesday night at the annual dinner meeting of the Retail Merchants committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

Irvin Nance, manager of the S. S. Kresge store, is chairman of the Retail Merchants committee. The committee is one of the many functioning within the Chamber of Commerce.

Held at the Mayflower hotel beginning at 6:30 p.m., the merchant group will also discuss co-operative community promotional programs for the year with a goal of increasing the volume of business.

Republicans To Attend Confab

Four Plymouth city and township people will be delegates to the state Republican Convention in Detroit this Saturday at which a slate for state offices open this year will be selected. Four others will go as alternates.

Delegates from the city are Mrs. Katherine Henderson, state central committeewoman, and Harry Reeves. Township delegates are Herald Hamill and William C. Miller. Alternates selected from the city are William Clark, Mrs. Gladys Tillotson, John Daoust and Peter Zilstra.

Clark, Reeves and Mrs. Tillotson were present on Wednesday of last week when Republicans of the 17th Congressional district met at Redford high school. Al Sittel of Redford was chairman of the meeting while Reeves and Mrs. Ann Conklin of Livonia served as vice-chairmen.

Theme of the GOP meetings are "A strong organization and effective work in the spring election."

If making money was as easy as spending it there would be more money in circulation.

William B. Bond

The guest speaker, recognized as an expert in the techniques of retail sales promotion, will talk on "Building Retail Sales."

Building Leadership for Tomorrow... Today!

This week it is our privilege to salute the Boy Scouts of America on their 47th Anniversary. From the nucleus of one small troupe in 1910, the high standards of Scouting have spread to six million boys in sixty countries. These ideals of respect for God, love of Country, and fair play for all mankind will help to build a better America, mould a better world! Hearty congratulations —

News from Rosedale Gardens

No Details Revealed on Woman's Club Surprise Party

Members of Women's Club, don't forget the surprise party tonight at 8:30 at the clubhouse. More on this subject next week, after I've been properly surprised and know what it is all about! See you tonight.

By invitation of Dr. Clair Taylor, Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State of Michigan, Mrs. Edward Bradfute, Pres. of Livonia P.T.A. Council, Mrs. William Ohl, Dr. Michaelson, and Claude Snarey went to Lansing Tuesday, February 5th to attend a Citizen's Conference on Education.

Mrs. Dolores Schei, Virginia avenue, gave a luncheon Wednesday Jan. 30th for several local ladies. Those present were Mrs. Dorothy Rimer, Mrs. Richard Shelden, Mrs. Kenny Shelden, Norma Shelden, Mrs. Vivian Quick, Mrs. Ann Lantz and Mrs. Ella Willman.

Sorry to report that at this writing Howard Ellerholz, W. Chicago, is entertaining a fine case of mumps, recently inherited from the kids. This is no laughing matter, but there is at least one bright side to it. Howard says he has lost 10 pounds!

Shirley and Jerry Meade, Westmore avenue, celebrated Shirley's mother's birthday with dinner and a show in Detroit last week. Shirley's mother is Mrs. Wagner of Detroit.

Jackie Sechlin, Westmore avenue, attended a meeting of her club Friday evening, January 25th at the home of Mrs. Don Hay of Plymouth. Other members present were Dixie Kolb, Livonia, Joan Blessing, Wayne, Lois Jahnes, Detroit; Barbara Branch, Novi, Ann Fulkerson, Plymouth, Betty Bemis, Farmington and Saxie Holstein of Plymouth.

Congratulations to Marion and John Yadosky, Vermont avenue, on the birth of a baby girl, Ruth Ann, January 24th at Florence Crittenden Hospital. Ruth Ann weighed 9 pounds, 3 ounces, and is now at home with her sisters, Nancy and Laura and brother Johnny.

The Cup and Saucer Pinochle Club met at the home of Jean Gizowski, Vermont avenue, January 29th, Tuesday evening. Irene Townsend who was the hostess won first prize which was a cup and saucer plus a matching plate and Jean won booby prize.

Condolences to the Kugla Club at Whitman Junior High on the sudden demise of "Stephanie."

Don't forget the P.T.A. dance at Whitman tomorrow night. This is a fund-raising dance for the newly formed Grant P.T.A. and you will not only be having a good time dancing and meeting your neighbors but will be helping a good cause along. Door prizes too.

The Book Club met at the home of Julie Whitehead, January 24th. Co-hostess was Phyllis Anschutz. "Peyton Place" was the book reviewed by Eleanor Curle. Next meeting will be at the clubhouse February 21st with a pot luck preceding it at 7 p.m.

Hear Harold Wiegand, Cranston has been in Puerto Rico on a business trip.

Betty and Gordon Dana, Vermont avenue, and three children, Laurie, Kris and John, went to dinner at Betty's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Starr, Rosedale Park, Sunday, January 27th.

Thought everyone would like to know that the proceeds from the Jan. 26th monthly Civic Association dance went to the March of Dimes.

Bobby Durivage didn't get a brother after all! Kay and Bob of Blackburn avenue became the parents of a 7 pound, 4 ounce girl Tuesday, January 29th. The baby, who was named Janet Marie, was born in Mt. Carmel Hospital.

If anyone missed the Miquelons at the Civic Dance and wondered where they were, I'd like to report right here that they were home sitting in their chairs fast asleep! Peg said that by the time they woke up it was too late to go anywhere but to bed.

Speaking of the Civic Dance which was held Saturday evening, January 26th, it was a huge success. For a while it looked as if no one was going to show up, and then all of a sudden tables were being rushed up from the basement to take care of the overflow.

The committee went all out to make this dance different, and the decor was in carabaret style with red checked tablecloths on the tables and beer mugs with candles alight on each table, too. The men on the committee sported white bar aprons and the ladies were done up real fetching in barmaid style with, I hear, real fancy garters (which no one saw!)

Bob Loucks was celebrating his 63rd birthday (that's what the man said!) and seemed to be pretty spry for all that. Richard Neal, Detroit, called a few rounds of square dancing, which from where I sat looked more like the broken shin polka! Anyway, it was fun.

Jimmy Pagonis, dancing instructor, was there and I saw him dancing with Chloe Diefendfer once in some real good dancing, the which of which there is no whicker! Later Jimmy instructed the couples in the Cha-Cha. This was really a "different" dance, and the committee must have worked real hard! Committee members were the Swains, McIlvains, Howarths, and the Seighs.

Sunday, January 27th Wayne Conway, Sharon Timmer, Ron Conway, Claudia Bashon, Marilyn Pomroy and Jim Stowell enjoyed an afternoon of bowling and then went on to Plymouth for supper.

Jean Snyder, Vermont attended a party Tuesday, January 29th, for her future sister-in-law, Miss Marilyn Teft, of Plymouth.

Thursday evening, January 31st, was the date for the Mother's March of Dimes. Our chairman for Rosedale Gardens southwest of Chicago was Mrs. Tarbuton, Vermont avenue. Street workers were Mrs. Rimer and Mrs. Frost, Virginia avenue, Celia Hearson and Joan Bialecki, Vermont avenue, Gladys Wendt and Gerri Casler, Louisiana avenue, Mrs. Fisher, Montana avenue, Betty Bednarz and Jackie Davis, Woodruff avenue, Ruth Thompson and Ruth Barber, Oregon avenue, and Irene Ochs and Mrs. Oliver of W. Chicago.

Dorothy Rimer, Virginia avenue, had a baby shower for her sister in law, Helen O'Leffe of Clawson recently.

The Pomroys had a square dance Sunday evening, January 27th in their basement. 16 persons were present. Celia and Travis Hearson, Debbie and Russ Parkinson, Celia and Oscar Heitner, all of Rosedale Gardens, Ed and Mary O'Halloran of Royal Oak, Jean and John Williams of Huntington Woods, and Marilyn and George Yanka and Glenna and Wes Webb of Detroit.

Refreshments were served at the close of the evening, and "Happy Birthday" was sung to Ed O'Halloran, in honor of his birthday. Ed received a token birthday gift, a square dance record, and didn't look too happy when he read the title, "Too Old to Cut the Mustard."

If enough of you Civic members are interested, Jimmy Pagonis is going to conduct adult ball room classes at the clubhouse Monday evenings, from 8 to 9. This would be a good chance to turn yourself into a real shag dancer at a small cost. If you are interested call Mrs. Ohl, at Ga. 2-3506.

Glen Snyder, Emile Edelmayer and Jim Renuk went hunting last week near Saline, Michigan. The results? Two rabbits in 7 hours.

Miss Shelby Martin, daughter of Pastor and Mrs. Willard Martin of Livonia Baptist Church, will become the bride of Mr. Kerry Killen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Killen of Townd, Virginia March 9th.

A shower for Miss Martin was held January 26th at the home of Mrs. Draughn, Elmira avenue, with over 70 guests present. Decorations were in pink, blue and white carnations. The bride to be received many lovely gifts. After the wedding the couple plan to live in Washington, D. C.

The Rimers, Dorothy and Chuck, of Virginia avenue, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Burton Hiller of Detroit Sunday, January 27th.

If you have a child attending Whitman Junior High be sure to attend the P.T.A. meeting on the 12th of February. At this meeting officers will be elected and the by-laws accepted. This meeting will be held at 8:00 p.m., in the auditorium. Mrs. William Ohl is the temporary chairman.

Little Tinkerbell Gamber celebrated her 3rd birthday Thursday, January 24th at a family dinner party.

The Junior Civic Teen Club met Sunday evening, January 27th at the clubhouse on Hubbard. Plans were made for the next meeting, February 10th when, weather permitting, they will go tobogganing and then back to the clubhouse for refreshments. All senior High kids whose parents are members of civic are eligible to attend these meetings, and may bring guests.

The Gambers, Ginny and Chuck, Auburndale avenue, had a dinner party at their home Friday, February 1st with Ginny's sorority sisters and their husbands as guests. The dinner was served buffet style, and needless to say, it was a fish dinner!

The Pomroys were dinner guests in Nankin Township Sunday, January 27th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ogden.

I made a big mistake last week! That wasn't Bob Peterson who fainted in the dentist's office, but brother John! Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Rolen, Melrose avenue, had as dinner guests Saturday, January 26th Mr. and Mrs. Fred Luehsenhop.

Ginny and Chuck Gamber attended a Syrian dinner party in Rosedale Park last week and Ginny said the food was really terrific. She said that at one point in the evening she was eating little tiny cookies like crazy when someone pointed out that they added up to 500 calories apiece, and she figures that she ate up about a year's supply of calories before she found out! By the way, Ginny's toe is better now, and she's wearing shoes again.

The Women's National Farm and Garden Club, Rosedale Gardens Branch, together with the Livonia Branch is arranging a workshop in flower arranging at the clubhouse on Hubbard February 12th at 1:30 p.m. and is extending a very cordial invitation to all interested persons to be there!

New Burroughs Division Created

Establishment of Burroughs Division of Burroughs Corporation and the appointment of Carl E. Schneider as vice-president and general manager in charge of the new organization was announced last week.

The new division will be responsible for operations at the Plymouth manufacturing and engineer plant, as well as the Main plant in Detroit, the Schaefer plant and Windsor plant.

The step was taken to decentralize into logical operating divisions, officials said, each with its own engineering, manufacturing and marketing facilities for related lines of products.

Products of the new Burroughs division are those which are primarily for use in business offices and financial institutions. They include the Sensimatic accounting machines and associated devices made at Plymouth.

Schneider, a vice-president since 1951, lives in Detroit.

Teacher Helps Plan School Services Meeting

The English committee meeting of Metropolitan Detroit Bureau cooperated school services at the Rackham Building of Detroit was attended by Miss Elizabeth McDonald, Thursday, January 31.

The purpose of the meeting was to help plan the program for the annual May meeting to be held at the new Ann Arbor High School. Dr. Edgar Dale of Ohio University, Athens, Ohio, has been procured as the speaker for this meeting which will be attended by representatives for the 57 cooperating schools.

Following the meeting in Detroit, members of the committee had dinner at Kenwick House on Cass avenue and listened to a talk given by Al Fishman, director of Columbia Records Distributing Company.

Every city and village keeps quiet about its climate during a cold spell.

ELECTRICITY--AND YOU

You use electricity in increasing amounts to do the monotonous, the tiresome, the time-consuming household tasks. It makes life more enjoyable. But there is a problem related to this growing trend:

4 out of 5 homes, including the newest, have electrical systems incapable of supplying all the electricity needed for daily living. The solution is wiring modernization—fortunately, neither a costly nor an involved process. Benefits: a home that operates smoothly and effortlessly because electricity becomes available in efficient abundance. And a house that has greater re-sale value too.

There are electrical contractors especially well qualified to do this sort of work, the HOUSEPOWER Services Contractors. They tailor the mechanics of electrical distribution to your individual needs and living habits.

You seek plenty of horsepower in your car for maximum comfort, convenience and safety. For the same reasons you need plenty of HOUSEPOWER* in your home.

HOUSEPOWER is a simple, one-word way to say . . .
plenty of electricity in the home, wherever and whenever needed, now and in the future

Any HOUSEPOWER Services Contractor will be glad to survey your home's electrical needs with you. The service costs nothing—doesn't obligate you.

If you do not know a HOUSEPOWER Services Contractor, just phone your Edison office

Published to observe the anniversary of Thomas A. Edison's birth—February 11, 1847.

Witnesses Plan Area Conference

Jehovah's Witnesses have selected Ann Arbor for their semi-annual Bible conference to be held February 8-10, C. C. Coonce, presiding minister of the Plymouth congregation said here today.

The Ann Arbor congregation will be host to 17 others from various Michigan cities as Circuit No. 8 convenes for the meet. Plymouth will send about 65 delegates.

Declared Mr. Coonce, "There is a definite relationship between world happenings and Bible prophecy. Many face the future with fear and uncertainty because they are not aware of the good things promised by God to take place within this generation. This conference," he said, "is arranged to promote happiness by true knowledge. The assembly theme, 'Happy People Serving the Happy God,' will be evident throughout the entire program."

The principal speaker will be A. E. Manera, Jr., district minister from Providence, Conference officials estimate that more than 1200 will be present for his Sunday lecture, "What Will Armageddon Mean For You?"

All meetings will be in the auditorium of the Ann Arbor High School and are free with visitors welcome at all sessions. The event is sponsored by the Watchtower Bible Society of New York.

Nicholas Falbo, circuit minister, is in charge of program arrangements and Victor Szalma, Jackson, is the assembly manager.

The program of talks, symposiums, and animated demonstrations will include participants from Battle Creek, Albion,

Grange Cleanings

Here's hoping we have a good crowd out tonight for the pot luck supper and meeting. The Blue Cross Secretary will be present with the policies belonging to those who joined in the fall so come and get yours.

Among the latest departures for Florida are Esther Jacobs, Mary Murray and Lucile Keeler who left on Saturday. They will have a wonderful time, they will live in Mrs. Jacobs house-trailer at Fort Lauderdale.

We have two important dates coming up right away. The Rummage Sale on Saturday, Feb. 9 and the "Opeh House" party on Feb. 16 - and don't miss that. Our Worthy State Master has promised to be here with us that night so do let us have a fine attendance and show him how our Grange has grown.

We forgot to mention last week that Mr. and Mrs. Roy Amrhein are vacationing in Florida at Nokomis.

If you are unable to bring your Rummage articles to the hall on either Friday night or Saturday morning call number 1037-J and they will be called for.

The dangers of inflation are seldom direct enough to cause an individual to forego what looks like more income.

DAR Urges Study Of U.S. History

Plymouth members of the Daughters of the American Revolution are joining their national society in urging Americans to recognize February as American History Month.

Governor G. Mennen Williams has already signed a proclamation calling upon citizens to "join in recognizing the meaning that our history has as a device for giving a sense of reality to our way of life and the traditions of America."

Mrs. Frederic A. Groves, president general of the DAR, states that the purpose of asking the observance is summed up in the words of Abraham Lincoln who urged that every man receive at least a moderate education "and thereby be enabled to read the histories of his own and other countries, by which he may duly appreciate the value of our free institutions."

The Michigan proclamation points out that "in early grades of school, in high school and college, as well as in the recreational reading of every citizen, the study of history and its relationship to the great ideals upon which this nation is based should have a prominent place."

There are very few young people, starting out in life, who do not believe that, in a few years, they will be rich.

District Legion Honors Chaplains

The public is invited to attend the American Legion 17th District Association's Chaplains Day program tonight at 8:30 at the Myron Beals Post Hall on Newburg road in Livonia.

Albert Kahler, of the Redford Detroit Post, said that four clergymen of all three faiths will be present and movies will also be included on the program.

The event commemorates the death of the Jewish rabbi, a Roman Catholic priest and two Protestant ministers who gave their lives to four American soldiers on the torpedoed USS Dorchester sunk off the coast of Greenland on February 3, 1943.

The American Legion, at its 33rd national convention of the Legion at Miami, Florida, in 1954 adopted a resolution which created the organization's "Back to God" movement, which stated: "that either the Sunday preceding or following the date of February 3, in recognition of the historic, tragic and inspiring event . . . be observed each year . . . as go to Church Sunday, in worship and prayer for everlasting peace."

Veterans Foreign Wars

The next Wayne County Council meeting will be Monday February 18 at 8 p.m. at the Veterans Memorial Building, 151 W. Jefferson, Detroit.

We were pleased to hear that Howard Bowring, husband of our Auxiliary president, is convalescing at home after an illness which confined him to Ridgewood hospital. We would like to extend to the Bowrings our most sincere sympathy on the death of Howard's mother, Mrs. Hattie Bowring, on February 1. Mrs. George Caldwell, 285 E. Ann Arbor Trail, had the misfortune to fall while helping on the Mothers March on Polio. Mrs. Caldwell suffered a concussion. After treatment at Sessions Hospital, she returned to her home where she is now confined to bed. Although not a member of the Auxiliary, we would like to wish her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Caldwell's help was deeply appreciated and we regret very much that she sustained injuries while helping on this project.

Gerry Olson and Virginia Bartel would like to thank everyone who participated in any of the various activities this month in connection with the card bring party given by the American Legion Auxiliary, the numerous coffee klatches given, and the Mothers March proved to be very successful. The Mothers March netted $2,483.36.

The next Post dance will be the Valentine's dance to be held February 16. If you are looking for a good time, remember the date.

Embarassing Moment

A breakfast guest at the White House during the Coolidge Administration was astonished to see the President pour his beverage from cup to saucer.

Not to be outdone, the guest followed suit.

The President added cream and sugar in the saucer, and tasted the mixture with his spoon.

The guest was about to do likewise when Mr. Collidge set the saucer on the floor for the dog.

LANSING REPORTING

By JOHN SWAINSON (State Senator)

Last week Michigan was subjected to a certain amount of notoriety. One of its most prominent citizens brought attention to this state in a way that makes me feel that an apology should be immediately forthcoming to erase the blot upon the good name of The National Guard or steps should be taken to curtail the off-the-cuff remarks that this individual is becoming noted for.

Charles E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense, stated that the National Guard was a "haven for draft dodgers during the Korean war." What are the facts? I shall give them.

During the Korean conflict, The 1437th Treadway Bridge Company of Sault Ste. Marie, was immediately mobilized. The 107th Ordnance Company of Pontiac was immediately mobilized. The 127th Air Wing of Michigan was immediately mobilized. All of this in the Korean conflict. Eight men from Michigan and countless numbers from other states were killed in action.

These men of The National Guard are the present day minute-men where and whenever needed during time of national emergency. In my opinion, Mr. Wilson has done Michigan a great disservice this week. He should and must be curtailed. President Eisenhower himself has said that he disapproves of these remarks but more than a slap on the wrist is needed. As our President, he should take the initiative and publicly proclaim that the remarks made were not only erroneous but disgraceful.

Our legislature in years past has in many ways implemented and aided the National Guard. Only last year we passed a law that would prohibit an employer from discharging an employee who served in the two week maneuvers each summer. Were we right or is Mr. Wilson right? (For one I think our National Guard is an asset.)

The MAIL Attitude

BY PAUL CHANDLER

The phone rang. "You don't know me", said the voice, but this is your mailman's wife. I read what you printed in your column about your walks not being shoveled. If you were married to a mailman you wouldn't think it was very funny. Those poor fellows never have had a year as bad as this one. Hardly anybody in Plymouth seems to be shoveling snow. That means my husband comes home so tired at night he can hardly get off his boots. The postman can't use their carts to tote their bags, either, when the walks are blocked. It also means people are delayed getting their mail, because a mailman only works so many hours a day, and when his time is up, he has to quit, even if he has covered, say, only two-thirds of his route. There was a time when it was a matter of pride for a homeowner to have his walks shoveled. What's happened?"

The lady wasn't angry . . . downright pleasant, in fact. She just had a good point, and made it.

Many constructive ideas came from The Mail's "local problems" poll, but one word of restraint should be offered. A majority of people aren't complaining about anything and most of those who did offer suggestions appreciate the bounty of good things that have been accomplished by both township and city governments.

This is mentioned to point out the obvious: simply because there are suggestions and complaints doesn't mean that times are terrible. The ideas offered are for "improvements" to make better what already is a fine place.

With that preface, we're going to print from time to time a few comments that we received from the readers in connection with The Mail's poll on the "five foremost local problems," starting with these:

"Plymouth needs at least one large department store."

"Why not get away from traditional school thinking and use the schools for education of our kids a full 12 months a year? Cut out the swimming pools, the ceramic tile in hallways, other unnecessary architectural features. Build two floor schools. Insist, in building contracts, on a 'full day's work' from Union labor."

"Pave more of the town's streets and straighten them out if at all possible. This town is the most mixed-up I've ever seen, but I still love it. Put my name down on any committee to help generate further interest."

"We parents who have sixth graders who must leave their own school are extremely unhappy over the move. In the first place, we bought in town because we did not want our children riding buses."

"No builder should be allowed to build rows of identical or similar homes. All commercial and public buildings—stores, schools, etc. should be required to have colonial-type fronts."

"I cannot get away from the fact that plans for the area so far do not begin to conceive of the possible growth."

"Our most pressing problem is our unprotected railroad crossings. Using the Farmer street crossing, you positively can not see until you're almost to the tracks."

All of which, for some reason, turns my thoughts to a clipping of a "prayer for newspapermen" somebody dropped on my desk recently. It was first published years ago in a British journalists' magazine and is a prayer to St. Francis de Sales, patron saint of newspapermen:

"St. Francis, dear patron of a harrowed tribe, grant us Thy protection. Bestow on us, Thy servants, a little more of Thy critical spirit, and a little less on our readers; confer on our subscribers the grace of condescension in overlooking our faults, and the grace of promptitude in paying our bills."

"Make them less partial to compliments, more callous to rebuke, less critical of misprints. Give us beautiful thoughts, brave thoughts, so that we Thy children, may have the courage to write as we think, and our readers the docility to think as we write."

"Then shall we, Thy faithful servants, resting on Thy protection, fight Thy battles with joyful hearts, drive the wolf from the door, the devil from the fold, and meet Thee in everlasting peace. Amen."

American Legion Opens Annual Poster Contest

Students from Plymouth high, Our Lady of Good Counsel, Junior High, Allen, Bird, Smith and Starkweather schools will participate in the Passage-Gayde American Legion and Auxiliary Poppy Poster Contest. Poppy Days for 1957 will be May 23, 24, and 25.

According to Poppy Chairman Ray Viau the contest will consist of three classes. First Class will consist of students in fourth, fifth and sixth grades while the second class will be composed of pupils in the seventh, eighth and ninth grades. Tenth, eleventh and twelfth grade students will represent the Third Class.

Each class will receive a first and second prize from the Passage-Gayde American Legion. Class winners will be entered in the 17th District Wayne County contest. A victory in the county eliminations will result in selection to the Michigan Department Contest and survivors will compete in the National Contest.

Poppy Poster winners will be announced April 15 but Poppy Posters will be displayed in merchant's windows by April 7.

Veterans in Battle Creek and Grand Rapids hospitals will make the crepe paper flowers to resemble replicas of the wild poppies growing in battlefields and cemeteries in western Europe.

Materials are supplied by American Legion and Auxiliary who pay veterans 1 1/2¢ per flower. According to Viau, this work provides interesting occupation during long hours of hospitalization and convalescence for the veterans.

Pease Paint to Compete in National Competition

Resident Writes Magazine Article

A special issue of "The Optimist" magazine this month includes an article written by George M. Chute of Plymouth, a University of Detroit professor.

Entitled "Youth and the Future of Electronics," the article is one of several written by prominent Americans in various fields in connection with the Optimist International's goal of helping youth.

Writing an article on "The Future of Aviation" was Captain Eddie Rickenbacker.

Last summer Professor Chute completed the revision of his book "Electronics in Industry," now used in many colleges of engineering. This text has been printed also in the Japanese, French and Spanish languages.

A copy of the revised edition may be seen at the Plymouth public library, along with Chute's earlier books, "Electronic Control of Resistance Welding" and "Electronic Motor and Welder Control." All are published by McGraw-Hill Book Company of New York.

Professor Chute lives at 545 Garfield.

Ernest L. Bridge To Speak at WSCS

Ernest L. Bridge, referee in the court of Juvenile Judge Nathan Kaufman, will be the speaker at the Wednesday, February 13 meeting of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church.

The 8 p.m. program is being opened to the public. There will be no business meeting.

Bridge, who has a familiar name to those who watch Judge Kaufman's television program, "Juvenile Court," will speak on "The Church's Responsibility Toward Youth."

The program will be held in the sanctuary. Refreshments will be served in the Fellowship hall following the talk.

The age of man has little relation to his sense.

Students Form Audubon Jr. Club At Starkweather

Organization of an Audubon Junior Club in Room 10 of the Starkweather School was announced recently by Club Leader Mrs. Charles Beardslee. Future meetings will be held every other Thursday at 3:30 p.m.

The purpose of the group will be to stimulate interest in nature and conservation among the students.

Newly elected officers of the club include Bobby Wilson, president; Pattie Watson, vice-president; Jean Raymer, secretary and Dick Zopf, reporter.

A supply of buttons for each member, and colored pictures of animals and plants have been sent to the new unit by the National Audubon Society which sponsors these junior clubs.

Members study plants, insects, mammals, aquatic life, as well as birds, and learn about soil erosion, forest conservation, and water pollution.

Any group of 10 or more children, plus an adult leader, may form a club. Full details concerning the procedure for starting such clubs may be obtained by writing to the National Audubon Society, 1130 Fifth Avenue, New York 28, N.Y.

Painting Aids Child Development

If a child is to learn the "skills of practical democracy"—living and planning together, accepting the will of the majority—many such learning opportunities must be created for him in the home.

We must begin early to build toward the adult, the future citizen. If we want adults to be capable of mature planning, we must teach them as children to plan, state educators at Michigan State University. Adults too often tend to give youngsters all the answers, whereas they need to begin planning and taking responsibility at an early age if they are to take it later on.

One of the best ways of bringing the child into more active participation in family affairs and of creating such opportunities is to draw him into the family council, particularly when matters directly concerning him are discussed.

For example, if the parents are planning to redecorate, when the child's room is done, let him help in planning the color scheme, the furnishings, and their arrangement. In thinking of color in relation to his own surroundings, he has a chance for creative expression, and in the framework of a situation which is real, not just play.

This experience can be carried a step further. It is even possible for the child to help in the actual execution of the project, particularly when latex paints are used. Because these paints are easy to apply with a roller, even a very young child can paint. Children generally do not have sufficient muscular coordination at an early age to use a brush but can easily handle the roller, with Mother's help of course.

Since the latex paints do not show lap marks, the wall will be quite presentable in spite of small hands, and as much or as little can be done at a stretch as desired depending on the child's span of attention. The project will be popular with the children, for children like projects that show results and show them quickly. Since the latex paints dry to the touch within an hour, the child can have the satisfaction of seeing the results of his work within a very short time. He has a real feeling of accomplishment and participation as curtains and pictures are replaced on the freshly painted wall he has helped to do.

More Space for Kitchen Wanted

Some builders are packing so much efficiency into labor-saving, space-saving and step-saving kitchens that they're not saving enough old-fashioned room for the homemaker.

Homemakers admire permanent walls, floors and counters of ceramic tile and many other features of today's kitchens but they deplore excessively compact kitchens. More spacious food preparation and serving facilities is one of the haunting refrains still reverberating from the 1956 Women's Congress on Housing.

The recently published report of the Congress shows that the consensus of the 103 delegates—most of whom are full-time homemakers—favored a kitchen measuring at least 10 by 14 feet.

Don't dismiss the girls as greedy or unrealistic. The U.S. Department of Agriculture's recommended U-shape kitchen measures 11 by 16 feet. Both the Congress figures and the Agriculture Department's dimensions include dining area, which was an almost unanimous demand voiced at the Congress.

The ladies were so insistent on the question of space—usable space, properly planned and located—that they indicated willingness to make major concessions if the additional space they wanted couldn't be provided by re-arranging existing facilities.

If additional space requirements forced construction of larger kitchens several groups proposed to offset the increased cost by buying kitchen appliances themselves rather than expecting the builder to furnish them. One homemaker suggested that husband and wife ap-

MSU Department Offers Menu Help

Most Michigan homemakers can't afford to spend most of their busy days in the kitchen. With one eye on the clock and yet, watching for balance in nutrition, color and taste, Mrs. Homemaker is often in need of some menu help.

"A Dozen Easy Dinners", might be a solution to some of her problems, suggest home economists at Michigan State University. It is an M.S.U. extension publication which features meals from the oven, the pressure saucepan and even some straight from the top of the stove.

Most of the 12 menus are planned with an eye on the budget and are of moderate cost; two are in the low-cost range.

"O Dozen Easy Dinners" was prepared by Roberta Hershey, foods and nutrition specialist with the Michigan Cooperative Extension Service. Copies are available by writing to Home Economics Extension, Home Economics Building, Michigan State University, East Lansing.

Branded for a Good Breakfast

A breakfast branded as the perfect way to say, "Good morning," is a skillet of Eggs Country Style to be served on piping hot toast slices. Each slice is branded with its individual greeting. Half the pleasure of this breakfast is its fragrant aroma of sausage and drifting whiffs from freshly-made toast. This "toast" to the morning is made with a branding iron, available in stores. It is best to place the hot iron on enriched bread, then toast the branded bread. Eggs Country Style, are scrambled eggs made extra special with cheese.

- Eggs Country Style on Toast
- 1/2 pound sausage
 - 2 tablespoons cubed process cheese
 - 4 eggs
 - 1/2 teaspoon paprika
 - 1/2 cup milk
 - 4 slices enriched bread toast
- Brown sausage in a medium sized skillet and pour off 1/4 cup drippings. Beat eggs and milk together and pour into hot skillet. Sprinkle cheese and paprika over top of egg mixture. Cover and cook slowly for about five minutes, or until eggs are set and cheese melts. Serve 1/2 of the egg mixture on each slice of toast.
- Yield: 4 servings.

Dyeing is Possible in All Types of Washing Machines

If you are about to dye, here are some quick answers to your big questions about washing machine dyeing.

Is dyeing possible in all types of washers? Automatic and semi-automatic washers, which wash, rinse and damp-dry, make dyeing especially easy, but wringer washers can be used quite satisfactorily. When using a non-automatic washer of any kind, give material 10 to 30 minutes in dye bath and rinse in cool water until water becomes colorless. Otherwise, follow the same procedure as with automatic washers but never put through a wringer. Place in a clean cloth and squeeze out excess water.

Remember rinsing can be done in a wringer machine. Simply drain dye bath, fill washer with cool water and agitate until water becomes clear. This usually requires two rinses.

How dark a color can you dye in the washer? Any color except black. Colors like scarlet, Kelly green or royal blue give beautiful results. Dark blue, dark green and dark brown will not give full depth of color, but still produce pleasing results. The more dye used, and the hotter the water, the deeper the color.

Does use of a washer affect the amount of dye needed? For light and medium dark colors use the same amount of dye as you would for other methods. You may wish to use more dye for extremely dark colors.

Can several things be dyed at one time? Yes, provided you do not crowd the washer. Articles must have room to move freely in the dye bath.

Is it safe to dye delicate fabrics in the washer? Follow the same rules as you would for washing. Any fabrics you ordinarily wash in the machine can be dyed the same way. Washing machine dyeing is not recommended for wools as the mechanical action of the washer may cause temporary or permanent shrinkage.

Will the dye bath stain the washer? Most washers are porcelain enamel with stainless steel, aluminum or porcelain tubs, materials which are not affected by dyes. However, to be thoroughly safe, it is best to clean the machine with soap powder and hot water immediately after dyeing. Wipe carefully, especially the lint trap, window or lid.

If any dye is accidentally spilled on the outside of the machine, wipe off immediately. Use a cloth dampened with household bleach solution. The lid will be easier to clean if it's lined with waxed paper or aluminum foil before dyeing.

Do appliance manufacturers recommend machine dyeing? Yes, indeed! Most of the leading appliance companies actually include directions for dyeing with their washing instructions. Be sure to follow directions. And drying dyed articles in an automatic dryer produces excellent results. It actually seems to brighten colors.

Take a look around your home. If you can't afford that redecorating until next year, dye or tint throw rugs, bedspreads, curtains or draperies, pillow and slipcovers, or dresser scarves. No need to wait a whole year to give your home a color face lifting.

Take your faded linens and tint or dye them to glamorize your holiday tables. Instead of using the usual white, try a light blue table cloth and see what it does for blue and white china, for instance.

Some Foods Help Burn Up Fats

There are many foods that will actively assist in burning up excess fat, and in expelling poisons which we have allowed to inhabit our systems through the long winter months.

Fruits and vegetables are low in price, and especially low in calories. Fill up on them and you'll be in better health and look more beautiful. Many authorities tell us that we should stress the foods that contain the "beauty vitamins." They even go so far as to say that leaving one of them from your diet and there is no beauty. The wonderful thing about the "beauty foods" is that they are so easy to prepare and a big help to the busy homemaker.

The big three of the balanced diet are proteins, carbohydrates, and fats. They are important in just the order given. Proteins are the building blocks of the body, carbohydrates (sugars) and fats work hand-in-hand in supplying energy to the body. Fats are our most concentrated sources of energy and they are broken down in the digestive tract into fatty sugars to produce quick energy.

Mutual sugars are more beneficial than artificial sweets. Try to train your family to enjoy fresh fruits for after dinner sweets.

Vitamins and minerals play an all important part in good diet and during the summer it is easy to get an abundance of these through fresh fruits and vegetables. Always keep in mind that PROTEIN not bread is the staff of life.

Women Have A Hand In New Home Plans

Out of the recent Women's Congress on Housing, held in Washington, D. C. have come new home building plans such as this one, designed to meet the demands of today's family living. As one of the designs sponsored by the National Retail Lumber Dealer's Association, it provides those features especially stressed by the Women's Congress such as: space, privacy, storage facilities, and separate areas for activity and quiet.

In this tri-level design included in the Celotex Book of Today's New Homes, the home is divided into various "zones": lower level for recreation, informal entertaining, and family-group activities; ground floor level for busiest area—kitchen, dining room, living room; and upper or sleeping level with three bedrooms and bath.

Indicated in the floor plan is the lavatory on the main level near the rear entrance—another of the features strongly recommended by the Women's Congress. In addition, generous closet space has been planned throughout, including "twin" storage areas in the entrance hall. "Today's New Homes," featuring this and other homes incorporating recommendations of the Women's Congress on Housing, is available through local lumber dealers. It is also available by sending direct to The Celotex Corporation, Department L-36, 120 South LaSalle Street, Chicago 3, Illinois, enclosing 25 cents in coin.

Forecast Ranch, Split Level Styles to Continue Popularity

Ranch style and split level designs will dominate the home building picture in 1957.

That's the consensus of builders from all parts of the country who exchanged notes at the home show of the National Association of Home Builders in Chicago.

Home buyers can look forward to no radical changes in construction, but rather to more emphasis on "quality production," the builders indicated.

As a result of the trend, many of the nation's largest suppliers of building materials revealed they would continue to key much of their output to ranch and split level homes.

Use of large picture windows and sliding glass doors, synonymous with ranch and split level design, is making many builders more conscious of solar design.

Solar design involves facing the large areas of insulated glass to the south, thus trapping the rays of the low winter sun for heat, and shading rooms from hot summer rays through the use of a scientifically constructed overhang.

Some of the other apparent trends at the home show included:

1. A continued accent on home air conditioning, with accompanying development of better wall and roof insulations, including double-paneled insulating glass in all windows in the home.
2. New types of roof trusses, prefabricated to cut building costs.
3. Growing popularity of compact kitchens, with built-in ranges and refrigerators which blend with the design of sink units and cabinets.
4. Several large chemical companies are actively engaged in research on the use of plastics in home construction.
5. Outdoor living is growing more popular among American home owners, with sliding doors of insulated glass coming into widespread use in all sections of the country to bring living areas closer to outdoor recreational areas.

Some changes in home design may be just over the horizon, said Mrs. Violet Henry, one of the largest home builders in the Cincinnati, Ohio, area.

She predicted split level design may be the forerunner to the return to two-story structures, particularly in areas of high land cost.

To boost sales, one housing expert had this advice to low volume builders:

"Don't make your windows appear cut with a cookie cutter... and open the family living room onto a patio to give a feeling of spaciousness."

Most aluminum window frames are given a protective coating which is resistant to alkaline mortar and plaster. Frequently used for this purpose is a clear, water-white methacrylate type of lacquer. When the frames are installed, this clear lacquer coat allows the adjoining mortar and plaster to dry without any chemical effect on the aluminum, and permits the easy removal of any overruns or splashes. The protective lacquer coat is applied in the plant where the aluminum sash and frames are made.

Future of Electricity only Beginning

With the recent announcement of an electric toothbrush, it might seem that electricity has gone about as far as it can go. But this is only the beginning, according to H. R. Stevenson, manager of sales for Detroit Edison and Southeastern Michigan's chairman of National Electrical Week.

"We have come a long way," says Stevenson, "since that date 77 years ago when Thomas Edison first demonstrated his new electric lamp by showing how it continued to burn even while underwater."

"Yet, within the lifetime of many people we have seen applications of electricity increase to the point where last year home use alone averaged 2,986 kilowatt-hours, or the energy of more than 40 full time servants."

In manufacturing, the average worker uses electric power equivalent to the energy of more than 250 men working with him on his job. Use per man-hour has doubled since 1946 and is expected to double again in another 10 years.

Stevenson recalled how it was proposed at the time of Edison's death in 1931 that all electric power in the nation be turned off for one minute in tribute to him.

The idea was seriously considered but very quickly abandoned when it was recognized what the effect of this might be in terms of traffic tie-ups, control of trains and aircraft, factory production, hospital operation, fire protection, communications and so on. It was obvious that the nation could not afford to be without electric power for even 60 seconds.

Edison is still honored each year, however, during the week of his February 11 birthday by National Electrical Week. This year it will be observed February 10 thru 16.

Since World War II, the trend toward "electrical living" has become more pronounced every year. Today, most homes have at least eight types of electric appliances, besides numerous lamps and lighting fixtures.

A symptom of this progress is the fact that wiring in most homes is outmoded. Many families—even those with relatively new homes—have discovered that they just aren't getting enough juice through their house wiring to operate all of the appliances they'd like to be able to use. They lack HOUSEPOWER.

Stevenson pointed out that home owners will of necessity have to correct this situation if they want to continue to take advantage of electrical progress.

The electric toothbrush, of course, will not require much power, but some of the other developments slated for the future will.

One of the useful items you can expect to find in tomorrow's kitchen is a small appliance that will provide a constant supply of boiling water for use in making tea, coffee, preparing pre-cooked foods and dissolving consommé cubes.

Your home may be lighted by electro-luminescent panels that will cover the walls and ceilings. An electric blanket not only will keep you warm, but cool as well.

An electronic refrigerator will require no maintenance, no compressor or motor. This will make possible an electronic air conditioner which can be installed on the wall or ceiling as a panel.

The washing machine of the future may remove dirt from clothing without agitation, soap or water. The job will be done by ultrasonic energy.

New uses will not be limited to household appliances. Even more amazing applications of electricity will be developed to increase productivity and efficiency in office and factories.

As Stevenson observes, "There never has been a stop sign on the road of electrical progress, but now it looks as though we're on an expressway to the realm of scientific marvels—even Buck Rogers is being left behind."

MODERN LIVING NEEDS MODERN WIRING

HERE'S HOW... MAKE A BOOKCASE-CUPBOARD WALL

A bookcase-cupboard wall adds storage, charm and atmosphere to the living room. The dimensions will depend upon the length and height of the wall to be covered. Use a sinter box to cut the ends square. The frame and desk top are made of 1 1/4 by 12-inch lumber. The shelves are of 1 by 12-inch lumber. Mark the location of the shelves. Assemble the frame and attach the shelves. Attach the desk top and shelf using angle braces for added strength. Molding is attached around the frame as shown with glue and finishing nails. Make the doors. Recess the hinges in the molding and doors.

LOOKING FOR a Valentine gift idea? How about an additional telephone—in color? It was a popular gift at Christmas, and it's about perfect for Valentine's Day, too. An attractive phone expresses the right sentiment. It tells your Valentine you want to keep in touch—every day throughout the year. It's a gift, too, that will save steps and time for some lucky person. To order your Valentine phone, call our Business Office. It will be gift-packaged and installed when you wish.

"LET'S GET THE FAMILY TOGETHER if the weather's good."

That "if" used to be a mighty big one. But now you can get the family together no matter what the weather or how far apart all of you live. A Conference Call will do it. You just give the operator the names and addresses or telephone numbers of the members of your family. She'll get them all on the line at the same time, whenever you want. Call the Long Distance operator soon and have her arrange a Conference Call. It'll be fun.

HERE'S A WONDERFUL IDEA for you folks with a son or daughter stationed with the armed forces in Europe. Why not enjoy a telephone visit with them over the new overseas telephone cable. After 6 p.m. or all day Sunday you can call just about any place for as little as nine dollars, plus the 10 per cent federal tax. Would be quite a thrill to talk to loved ones across the ocean, wouldn't it? Lots of people are doing it. More than 15,000 made overseas calls during the first month the cable was in use. And the number is growing every day. To place your call to Europe, just call Long Distance and ask for the "Overseas Operator."

NICE TO TRY OUT but in hopes they will never have to use it, these two youngsters are stretched out on a rocking bed for polio patients. Clings to the road like a stripe of paint!

The '57 Chevy can give lessons on taking curves and holding the road to just about any car going. Few cars at any price are so beautifully balanced and so smooth, sure and solid in action.

A car has to have a special kind of build and balance to keep curves under control. And nobody outdoes Chevrolet in that department! It "corners" with all the solid assurance of an honest-to-goodness sports car. Chevy doesn't throw its weight around on turns because it carries its pounds in the right places.

And if the road should turn upward, Chevy can take care of that nicely, too. Horsepower options, you know, range up to 245.*

Come on in and take a turn at the wheel of a new Chevrolet and see if you don't find yourself heading it for home.

TIPS for TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Here's a bright idea for junior high school girls and boys who don't date yet, but want to have Friday night fun together.

It's a small dance club started by a group of boys and girls for weekly fun . . . approved and aided by their parents who take them to and from the club in their cars, so there's no worry or difficulty about transportation. Here's a letter from one of the members, in case you'd like to start a dance club in your neighborhood or class:

Dear Elinor: I am only 12 and some girls and boys my age have a dance club.

"We meet once a week and it's over at nine o'clock, just right for most of us. Before we had this club, we could hardly dance at all. The girls couldn't follow the boys and we made a mess of our shoes. Now it's different.

"We decided to have kids in our neighborhood, along with three school friends we just couldn't leave out. We have seven girls and seven boys in the club. It was two of the boys, not the girls, who had the idea of starting the club, and it is a success.

"We pay 15 cents dues each week. The people who buy the refreshments get half of their money back from the dues, so it's no great expense.

"This is a good idea for kids in their early teens or early years of junior high (and maybe older kids, too) . . . just start a simple dance club, and watch its popularity grow.

This letter didn't mention where the dances are held—in homes or in a room or hall in the community. This depends on what is available in your neighborhood. Members can bring their records (marked with their names) for music. Why not try it?"

Local People Attending National Sales Confab

Several Plymouthites and a former Plymouth resident were in Washington, D.C. last week attending the first international unit managers' convention of the Stanley Home Products Sales organization.

They are Bill Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Leland Rorabacher, Richard Elzerman, formerly of Plymouth, and now of Lansing, also was attending. Over 700 leading sales producers were welcomed Monday by Stanley's president, Catherine O'Brien. Outstanding speakers included the deputy attorney general of the U.S., William Pierce Rogers, and sales officials.

Last year Stanley dealers sold over $100,000,000 of merchandise.

Duplicate Bridge Opens Tournery February 8

A duplicate bridge tournament was started Friday, February 8 as a new part of the Plymouth Education and Recreation department program for the coming term.

This form of bridge owes its popularity to the fact that it eliminates most of the element of luck from the game. One can win with poor cards, for he plays the same hands as other players and the results can be compared.

Further information can be obtained by calling the Recreation department. It is also possible to enroll in the other 59 classes being offered, according to Herbert Woolweaver, director.

Troop to Send Scouts To Camp This Summer

At a meeting of the troop committee, it was voted to send boys of Scout Troop P-4 to summer camp at Howell this July. Details were announced at the troop meeting on Monday.

It was also announced by Scoutmaster Paul Steenken that Bill Ivey has been appointed assistant scoutmaster. Passing their requirements for tenderfoot at this week's meeting were Peter Steiner, Chris Gaffield, Richard Rytlewski, Michael Daniel and Paul Nicholls.

Boys interested in Scouting are being invited to attend the meetings at the Presbyterian church each Monday from 7 to 9 p.m.

Time Doesn't Dampen Local Resident's Enthusiasm for Electric Train Hobby

By David Jolliffe

All it takes to develop a fascinating hobby in electric trains is $3,000 and capabilities ranging from electrician to designer, combined with a firm dedication.

But it's well worth the effort according to Glenn J. Smith, 8182 Canton Center Road.

"I started getting interested in trains when I was a boy and my enthusiasm hasn't dampened yet," he continued as he nodded toward the intricate hodgepodge of crisscrossing railroad tracks nestled on a 14 by 12 foot table in his basement.

A confusing appearing overpass built of wooden supports on which 70 feet of track provide extra maneuvering space allows seven trains to run simultaneously. A complicated control panel diagrams by means of colored paint the seven separate tracks and each track's several switching points.

Individual electric transformers control each train and a maze of switches along each side of the 4 by 4 foot control board provides a definite system for Glenn's hundred-odd pieces of equipment.

"Of course," he added wryly as he nudged a sleek looking diesel engine back onto its track after a derailment. "accidents do happen once in a while."

Permanent improvements for the control panel will see a variety of colored lights on each track representing various switching locations. After installation Glenn believes anyone will be able to operate the vast honeycomb of tracks with little difficulty.

A lighted green signal at a junction, for example, will signify that the switches are adjusted so that the train can continue on the same track until a switch is pulled directing traffic onto another route signified by another colored light on the control panel.

From the fast growing obsolete locomotives with their cumbersome water scoop slung underneath the frame to the figure of a man riding on the roof of one of his freight cars who ducks everytime a low vinctuct approaches and snaps back to an upright position when the danger has passed, Glenn's pieces are religiously modeled after their real big brothers.

Railroad "traffic lights" are dispersed throughout the display and flash red while a train is passing and green after the track has been cleared.

Glenn even has a quantity of pills available which, after being dropped into the chimney of one of his steam locomotives, produces an actual puff of smoke with each chug of the engine, and if traveling at a high speed, a cloud of smoke trails out over the long column of cars.

By means of his electric transformers Glenn can load and unload lumber from his flatcars, clean the tracks with a special chemical on a functionally designed flatcar and move any piece of equipment in his display by electricity.

When improvements are made on his switchboard Glenn estimates he will have 8,000 feet of wire functioning and even now he can boast of 500 feet of track.

A crisis developed one day at Christmas time when Glenn received a streamlined executive fitted set of Lionel trains which, to his dismay, were too long to negotiate the small curves on his tracks.

After one of his flashes of ingenuity Glenn installed a heavier track on the elevated section along with an extended guard-rail and bigger curves to his pint-sized track. The larger cars now stay on their rails on the twisting track.

Ten year old Keith Smith now shares a half ownership with his father in their $3,000 set and has become an expert at piloting the 15 locomotives.

Glenn is owner and operator of the Twin Products Company, a machine shop located in back of his modern home, where he has specialized in automotive and marine work for 17 years. The company does some tool and die work.

Besides keeping his own train set in top shape Glenn is a favorite target for neighborhood children who often bring in their disabled toys for "expert" attention. Glenn's wife Thelma and their two daughters, Linda 13, and Karen 8, encourage both of the men in the house in a hobby that started when the elder Smith was about the same age as Keith and has progressed to its present gigantic scale.

So, if you've always had the longing for a locomotive and a tact for tracks, why not take up an interesting hobby like Glenn Smith.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING City Planning Commission City of Plymouth, Michigan

At a regular meeting of the City Planning Commission to be held on Thursday, February 21, 1957, at 7:30 P.M. in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall, a public hearing will be held to consider one continuing name for Burroughs and Sutherland Avenues.

All interested parties will be given ample opportunity to participate in the hearing and, at the close of the hearing, the comments and suggestions of those citizens participating will be considered by the Planning Commission before making its decision.

Kenneth E. Way, Secretary City Planning Commission

Cadillac

His Golden Anniversary at the Wheel!

In Texas, there is a gentleman who is currently driving out his fiftieth year at the wheel of a Cadillac car.

In New Jersey, there is another gentleman who has purchased every yearly model that Cadillac has produced over the past fifty-three years.

These are simply dramatic examples of one of the most remarkable truisms in all motordom: that once a man takes the wheel of a Cadillac, he usually remains at the wheel of a Cadillac!

To be sure, a motor car would have to offer many unique virtues in order to win so generous a place for itself in the affections of so many.

And, in the case of Cadillac, we think these virtues are self-evident.

There is, first of all, quality. No effort of styling or design or craftsmanship is ever spared to make Cadillac the finest possible motor car.

There is beauty and luxury and performance. The car's magnificent styling and interior coachwork have, over the years, brought Cadillac an inbred majesty and elegance that are entirely its own . . . and Cadillac engineering has been the industry's constant inspiration.

Finally, there is reputation. Never in automotive history has another motor car sustained such an abiding public conviction in its own goodness.

And, certainly, these basic Cadillac ingredients have this year reaped their richest harvest.

So whether you've been at the wheel of a Cadillac for half a century . . . or have yet to spend your first hour in the "car of cars" . . . you should see and drive this newest of Cadillacs.

Need we say more?

Senator Potter reports

... the latest news from Washington of special interest to Michigan ...

A BODY BLOW at Michigan's future as a seaport state was struck by a group of eastern and southern railroads last week. Lake shippers are fighting back and they have my full support. Referee in this transportation tug-of-war is the Interstate Commerce Commission and within a few days we should know who comes out on top.

The ICC's decision will determine the competitive position of Michigan's Lake ports. It has a bearing on the healthy growth of traffic on the St. Lawrence Seaway. That's why I want to tell you about it in some detail:

Bay City, Detroit, Sault Ste. Marie—any port which hopes to build its Seaway trade—has a stake in the rules formulated by the ICC. The crux of the present dispute is "free time" at port cities. Since ocean-going ships do not pursue hard-and-fast schedules, outbound cargo often rests at the dock for days awaiting pickup. Realizing this, railroads permit a certain amount of "free time" before storage charges are levied.

A shipper can move his products to the Atlantic, Pacific or Gulf Coast, comfortable in the knowledge that if they are not taken promptly into the ship's hold, no storage charges will pile up for the first six days. Great Lakes ports certainly are entitled to equal treatment. But last September an ICC order limited free time at Lake ports to two days. What would you do, in those circumstances, if you were a shipper? You'd ship out via Baltimore, New Orleans, or Norfolk where you could count on six days of free time. Why patronize Muskegon or Monroe where, after 48 hours, you'd be billed for storage?

Obviously, the substantial Seaway trade we anticipate would be stifled by this discriminatory order.

RECIPES REQUEST - London diners feast on roast beef and Yorkshire pudding. In Paris chicken baked in wine is a favorite dish. But for years Washington has singled out the bean soup prepared in the Restaurant of the United States Senate. Back in 1907 Senator Knute Nelson of Minnesota secured the unanimous approval of the Rules Committee to make bean soup a daily item on the Senate menu. Then, as chef-de-cuisine, he had this delectable concoction prepared from an old Scandinavian recipe for his Senate friends. In recent weeks my mail has contained numerous requests for the formula and I am pleased to reprint here the recipe for:

FAMOUS SENATE RESTAURANT BEAN SOUP - Take two pounds of small Navy Pea Beans, wash, and run through hot water until beans are white again. Put on the fire with four quarts of hot water. Then take one and one-half pounds of Smoked Ham Hocks, boil slowly approximately three hours in covered pot. Braise one onion chopped in a little butter, and, when light brown, put in Bean Soup. Season with salt and pepper, then serve. Do not add salt until ready to serve. (Eight persons.)

Michigan, as you may know, is the nation's leading producer of dried beans. To make this famous taste treat even more delicious, use only Michigan beans!

Civil Air Patrol Headlines Air Reserve Meeting

An informative meeting that included a film on the Civil Air Patrol Cadet program and a talk by a Michigan C.A.P. inspector was held recently at the Veterans Memorial building by the Plymouth Flight of the U.S. Air Force Reserve.

The film showed the C.A.P. summer encampment at Selfridge Field, the first assembly of its type in the nation. It parlayed the way to an Air Force career for many young air-minded cadets.

Major John Issitt, air inspector for the Michigan C.A.P., then gave a review of the many current functions of the Civil Air Patrol as well as the record of flying service accumulated by them since its inception in 1939.

During WW II they flew over 50,000,000 miles, almost half of which was over water on submarine patrol, air-sea rescue and conveying of surface vessels. They spotted 173 submarines very close to our coasts, and actually sank two with the help of "home-made" bombsights.

The present C.A.P. program includes the Cadet Flight Scholarship, first offered in Michigan, as well as many flying duties. Among these are radiation patrol after bomb tests at Yucca Flat, disaster area evacuation after floods, tornadoes and blizzards, as well as photo reconnaissance for the Air Force.

Nick Schneider, a member of the local Flight, also made an interesting contribution to the program. Schneider was assigned to the Intelligence Department. He operated as a part of a team attempting to infiltrate Air Force bases, using whatever ruses were necessary.

Complete secrecy was maintained, even from the base commander. When the men were successful in penetrating the security patrols and guards, cryptic notes were left in aircraft that could have been bombed or food that could have been poisoned by enemy agents using the same infiltration tactics.

If captured, it was hoped by the team that they could show their credentials before some itchy trigger finger got excited. Any Air Force veteran that feels he would enjoy meetings of this type is encouraged to join with the local group on the second and fourth Tuesdays at the Veterans Memorial Building on Main street.

Set Date for Nursing School Entrance Exams

Persons interested in a Nursing career are being invited to the pre-entrance examinations for student nurses at the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Unit of the Mercy School of Nursing of Detroit on February 9.

The tests will be given in the unit's Nurses' Home at 2217 East Grand Boulevard. They will begin at 9 a.m. and will terminate at 4 p.m. These tests are for students who would begin their training with the fall term, which begins in September.

Interested parties can make application for the tests by calling Miss Loyola Lane, at WALnut 1-4820.

MSU Professor Speaks To Vegetable Growers

The proper feeding of vegetable plants will be discussed by Professor Robert Carolus, Department of Horticulture, Michigan State University at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, February 12 in the meeting hall at 3911 Newberry Street, Wayne.

Dr. Carolus has spent a lifetime investigating the nutrition of plants and their fertilizer needs. Of the more than 30 elements found in plants, at least fifteen are essential for healthy development. Plant nutrient deficiencies have been associated with human deficiencies.

Time Talks About Weeklies

New York - Weekly newspapers today are the fastest-growing publications in the U. S., Time says in a special report in the current (Feb. 4) issue of this week.

"Metropolitan newsmen who daydream of retiring to a country paper have long viewed weeklies more as a rural retreat than as an influential segment of the press," Time says. "But with the swift growth of suburbs and small towns since World War II, weeklies have largely shed their cracker-barrel ways, developed sophistication and a new sense of mission."

Weekly Newspaper Representatives, Inc. last week reported that 8,478 weeklies in the U. S. in 1956 reached a paid circulation peak of 18,529,199, up 6.5% over 1955. Estimated gain for the 1,700 dailies (total circ. more than 56 million): about 2%. Advertising in weeklies increased 1.2% to a record $112 million; this includes a 30% jump to ($25 million) in national ads since 1954 vs. an estimated 10% gain for dailies.

"The weeklies' resurgence reflects editorial as well as economic vitality," Time says. "In addition to relaying the back-fence chit-chat on which weeklies have traditionally thrived, the papers are the only interpreters and watchdogs of local governments in hundreds of U. S. communities, whose problems, aims and achievements go largely unrecorded in the metropolitan press."

According to one editor, weeklies "are giving back the home town" to suburbanites who have lost contact with community responsibilities. In many areas, fast-growing suburbs have produced weekly and semi-weekly chains that are as slick in appearance and informative in content as their city cousins.

"Even outside metropolitan areas," says Time, "most small-town weeklies... have thrown out the smudgy type and bumpkin prose that once characterized the weekly press, now run staff-written stories and editorials instead of the boiler-plate and canned sermons that once crammed country papers. The old-time jack-of-all-trades country editor has been largely supplanted by trained staffs. Lured out of the cities by the prospect of editorial and economic independence, trained newsmen in increasing numbers are bringing professional standards to weekly newspapering."

Though once renowned for their timidity, many weeklies have developed the crusading spirit that has vanished from many a fat-cat daily, Time notes. "In the South, many weeklies have consistently taken a more liberal stand than the region's big dailies on the touchy desegregation issue...."

"Since weeklies are closer than dailies to readers and advertisers and more vulnerable to the pressure of advertisers, they are often hit by economic boycotts. But few editors cave in under such threats—or worse. In Granite City, Ill., after Editor Cornelius E. Townsend had waged an editorial campaign against organized gambling in the community, a hoodlum recently emptied his revolver into Townsend's Press-Record office. Echoing many a fighting editor before him, Townsend said: 'Maybe they'll scare hell out of me someday and I'll quit. But I don't think so.'"

Training School Popular Now

A "SCHOOL THAT NOBODY WANTED," the state Boys Vocational School at Lansing, now finds it has many friends.

BVS, an institution caring for boys with criminal records, has been a controversial issue the last few years in attempts to find a new location.

Pressure mounted beginning years ago to move the school out of Lansing. In 1926 some land was purchased for this purpose, but later diverted to other uses. An attempt to build a new security unit for $500,000 at the present site three years ago was not approved by the legislature.

Last year the legislature turned an ear towards the BVS problem and appropriated money to purchase land at a new location.

A site at Whitmore Lake was selected by the Department of Social Welfare, the controlling office for BVS. W. J. Maxey, department director, explains that the choice was directed by a desire to be near the extensive medical and psychiatric facilities located in Ann Arbor, and also within a reasonable distance from Detroit—where most of the boys live.

Whitmore residents immediately protested the decision. They spoke out that their present resort area is developing rapidly into a community similar to the present site; that reasons which make Lansing undesirable will exist soon in Whitmore. They also refer to U of M hospital's already over crowded psychiatric facilities, with the suggestion that BVS needs its own psychiatric staff wherever it is located.

Many express valid reasons for not locating BVS at Whitmore Lake. They have placed considerable pressure on their state Representatives to bring the matter before the legislature during the current session.

The city of Grayling now enters the picture. There, the Crawford County Chamber of Commerce and the County Board of Supervisors passed resolutions asking for BVS. Bob Hayes, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce, says "The whole town is for it. We'd like to see if we couldn't help these kids."

Several advantages for a site at Grayling are pointed out by Hayes. Construction costs would be less than at Whitmore Lake. Unlimited space is available. Cost per person a day is lower. Vocational training is available through the Conservation Department. Professional psychiatric help is available forty-five miles away at Traverse City.

One important factor is missing, say members of the Social Welfare Commission. A location near the city of Detroit is highly desirable. According to C. H. Runciman of Lowell, vice-chairman of the Commission, one of the greatest influences in rehabilitating the boys is regular visits from parents.

Since most of the boys in BVS come from the Detroit area, a northern Michigan location would make weekly visits impossible for most families, Runciman says.

A new struggle may shape up in the legislature. The Social Welfare Commission has authorized Director Maxey to seek a legislative appropriation for construction of a security unit at the Whitmore Lake BVS site.

MICHIGAN'S ONE MAN GRAND JURY SYSTEM may be taken before the U.S. Supreme Court to test its constitutionality. Judge Timothy Quinn of Caro, sitting as a one man grand jury has ordered St. Clair Shores Mayor Thomas S. Welsh to jail for contempt after the mayor refused to answer any of the court's questions. He was ordered to testify about reports of corruption in some Detroit suburbs.

Welsh has indicated that he will fight the charge and is "deliberately" seeking a court test of the Michigan law.

Generally specific powers and purposes are vested in grand juries. They hear only testimony presented by the prosecution and by witnesses important to the specific case. Hearings are held in secret so that witnesses may be more willing to tell all they know. Testimony is not made public.

But the grand jury is limited in purpose. It does not try a case. In effect, its main power after hearing all testimony is to determine if there is enough evidence to bring the case to trial.

"Multiple-man" grand juries sit in most states. The Michigan law, passed in 1951, provides for judges to act as one man juries.

Opponents of the system say the law is now distorted from its original intended effect. They contend that grand juries now try to make a witness incriminate himself—contrary to rights guaranteed under the constitution.

In the Welsh case, the issue at point is whether or not Judge Quinn can enforce the contempt charge, thereby making the grand jury testimony public. Welsh's attorney says this is inconsistent with grand jury law.

Many Michigan crimes could not be solved without the one man grand jury, say supporters of the law. They point out that it is the only way possible to protect witnesses from intimidation.

As a matter of policy the U.S. Supreme Court will not judge the constitutional aspects of a law if other ways to resolve a case can be found. The Welsh case may force the issue.

The Case Against COMPULSORY AUTO INSURANCE

Question: Shouldn't everybody carry auto liability insurance?
Answer: Sure they should. It's just common sense to protect yourself against the possibility of being sued because of your own negligence. It's a matter of good citizenship to want to protect the other fellow too.

Question: But there are uninsured motorists on our highways?
Answer: Very few. Available information indicates that about 9.3% of our total drivers are not insured. But this includes self insurers and others who would be financially responsible even without insurance.

Question: Why is it those few drivers won't protect themselves and the rest of us?
Answer: That's a good question. Chances are you can't think of a single acquaintance who doesn't buy liability insurance.

For the most part, uninsured motorists are just poor citizens. They haven't any conception of their responsibilities in a democracy. A minute segment of our society will always lie, cheat, steal, and even murder. A similar segment will use our highways without being responsible persons, financially or otherwise.

Question: Then if you have an accident with one of those people you get stuck for all the costs?
Answer: No indeed. That's jumping to conclusions. Remember that we are talking about liability insurance. You won't collect anything from the other driver even if he is insured unless he alone is negligent.

If your negligence contributes to an accident, nobody collects under liability insurance. The chance of your being guilty of contributory negligence is always high.

Here's the bomb THAT BROKE THE "low-price" lineup!

This big high-stepping Chieftain started a revolution with a carload of "firsts" and an eye-popping price tag!

The low-price field never looked like this before! The handsome husky you see right here has the boat still rocking... with more power, more wheelbase, more room—and more sheer pride of ownership—than ever before possible on a well-trained budget! Just look at what they're making room for now in the low-price lineup: a strapping 347 cu. in., 10 to 1 compression ratio Strato-Streak V-8... a whopping, road-hugging 122 inches of wheelbase and an all-new suspension system for a Level-Line Ride that's next best thing to a magic carpet! And this streamlined beauty takes on the field with more than six dozen "firsts", all proved by 100,000 of the roughest, toughest test miles a group of facts-minded engineers could devise! If this sounds like a wonderful buy—it certainly is! Our advice is to stop dreaming and price it! At a cost less than a lot of the low-price jobs, this newcomer is making big-time buyers out of former "all-three" owners!
