

James Gallimore School Being Dedicated Sunday

Dedication of the James Gallimore Elementary school on Sheldon road will take place this Sunday afternoon at a ceremony beginning at 3 o'clock.

Guest of honor at the event will be the man in whose honor the school is named, James J. S. Gallimore, former board of education member and president.

An open house is scheduled at 4 p.m., immediately after the ceremony in the school multi-purpose room. The new school is located a mile south of Joy road on Sheldon road in Canton township. It opened its doors February 11.

Dr. Henry Walch, pastor of First Presbyterian church, will deliver the invocation to open the dedicatory program. This will be followed by the presentation of colors by the color guard of the Passage-Gayde Post of the American Legion.

A welcome will be extended to the crowd by Earl Gibson, principal of the school. Honor guests will then be introduced by Superintendent Russell Isbister.

Byron Becker of Plymouth, partner in the firm of Wheeler and Becker, Architects, will give the "Architectural View" of the new building and the formal dedication will be made by Harold Fischer, president of the board of education.

James Gallimore will then be called upon for remarks. Concluding the program will be the introduction of the school's staff and the benediction by Dr. Walch. Gallimore, who lives at 45715 West Ann Arbor Trail, was born 72 years ago in Shrewsbury, England. In 1911 he came to the United States as a skilled tool-maker. Living first in Connecticut and later coming to Detroit, he worked a short time at the Burroughs plant and then with the Ford Motor company where he continued until May 1945. He has lived here since 1923.

While with Ford, Gallimore was a general foreman in a cold heating and die casting department and later was head of the Plymouth Wilcox and Newburg plants. In 1945-46 he organized and taught machine shop at Wayne high school.

He served on the local board of education 12 years, from 1930 to 1936 and from 1949 to 1955. Many of those years were as president of the board, including the period spent in planning the school named in his honor.

Gallimore joins three other former Plymouth educators who have had schools named in their honor. They are the late George E. Smith, who was a superintendent, and Nellie Bird and Edna Allen, former principals and teachers.

Sunday's visitors will see a school much different than the other three schools built in late years. Gallimore school has a central corridor along which rooms are located on both sides. There are 12 self-contained classrooms, a kindergarten, kitchen, multi-purpose room, speech room, library, administration, conference rooms, teachers' lounge, art materials storage, health clinic and general storage rooms.

Total cost of the school, including furniture, the site and the $43,076 sewer and water facilities is $524,316.

Smith and Young Construction Company of Wayne was the general contractor. Cost of the 27,450 square feet of floor space is $15.27 per square foot. This is less per square foot than the system's last school, Allen Elementary.

WITH ITS MOTOR pushed almost into the front seat, this car brought death to Raymond Crumb, 2006 Sheldon road, early last Friday morning as it ran a standing locomotive. A garage workman is shown inspecting the car.

Father of 3 Killed in Crash

A car which last Friday smashed into the side of a standing locomotive carried 28-year-old Raymond J. Crumb, Wayne County Training School fireman, to his death.

The tragedy took place at 2:40 a.m. at the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad crossing on Sheldon road. The victim and his wife and three children lived in a home north of the crossing in a mile on the Training School grounds.

This was the second fatality at railroad crossing in the Plymouth area this year. Warren Howard Plymouth was killed in January while driving across the Holbrook avenue crossing.

Railroad officials said that the freight locomotive in Friday's accident was going east and had made a stop on the crossing. The south-bound car driven by Crumb crashed into the wheels of the giant locomotive and some parts of the vehicle slid under the engine and down the road several hundred feet.

Crumb, whose destination was not learned, was pronounced dead upon arrival at Wayne County General hospital. Wreckage had to be piled apart by sheriff's deputies to extricate the body.

Fred L. Baker of Grand Rapids was engineer of the 84-car freight. There are flashers at the Sheldon road crossing. Since the collision took place north of the railroad in the township, sheriff's deputies handled the case.

Mr. Crumb started work at the Training School in 1951 as an attendant. He then took training at the Detroit Fire Fighting School and was appointed to the fire department three years ago.

Funeral services were held Monday morning with prayers at the Harris Funeral home in Detroit, followed by services at St. Bernadine's Catholic church. Interment was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Born June 11, 1928 in Detroit, he was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Crumb of Detroit. He is survived by his wife Dorothy; three sons, Raymond, Jr., Stephen and Charles; two sisters, Mrs. Norbert Slank and Joan Crumb; and a brother, Leon.

Battle Isn't Over

Muddy Streets 'On the Mend'

A fight by the Department of Public Works to keep cars traveling side streets in the city's south side from disappearing in a quagmire of mud is now "holding its own."

Telephone calls by irate citizens, many of whom had to park their cars in other blocks because of impassable streets, have fallen off this week at city hall. But last week during a combination thaw and rain, up to 50 calls a day gave the city notice that something had to be done.

This week's cold weather gave the city workmen a chance to work on the streets, but City Manager Albert Glassford and DPW Superintendent Joseph Bida are sure that their problems are far from being over.

Change in Method Of Supervisor Selection Urged

Plymouth city's representative to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, Norman Marquis, urged the city commission Monday night to consider a new method of selecting the supervisor.

Marquis, who is closing out his four-year term of office next month, recommended that someone elected to a city office also serve on the board of supervisors.

The supervisor pointed out that under the present arrangement, it is difficult to maintain good liaison with the commission and to obtain their thinking on many problems. "There is a definite lack of something," he added.

Plymouth is the only Wayne county community which has a person elected specifically to the board of supervisors. Except in Detroit where councilmen can make several complimentary appointments, board of supervisor members are mayors

Bida explains that there is still a two-inch layer of frost in the ground. This means that when it rains again, water will not soak in beyond the frost. To add to the problem, the DPW had to pour tons of slag and sand over the streets to make them passable. This added covering will serve as insulation to keep the frost in the ground longer, Bida explains.

Cause of this year's big mud problem is the $600,000 sanitary sewer being laid in the southern third of the city. Most streets have been torn up. It was because of the lack of a sanitary sewer that money has not been invested by property owners in paved streets in years past.

"I think the worst is behind us," Bida declared, but warned that residents can still expect many holes and more mud for many months.

"We are doing the best we can with the money and manpower we have available," the DPW superintendent added. "We've spent $2,100 for labor and $2,000 for material for street repairs in just the past 30 days."

All kinds of suggestions on how to repair the streets have been made to the city. Bida said that he has been advised by citizens to use rollers and pneumatic tampers to beat down the mud, pour cement into the sewer trenches at the driveways and of course, pour on more and more gravel.

Use of slag, (which doesn't sink as easy as gravel) and sand (to absorb moisture) has been the weapon used so far. Slag costs $3.90 a ton and will do a few feet of street.

"Everything we pour on there is actually wasted money in the long run," Bida points out, "because whenever streets are paved, all of this build up of material will have to be hauled away."

Worst streets in the area are Simpson, Palmer, Carol, Hartough, and Lincoln. All are open now, but last week it was a different story. Residents in some blocks had to park one or more blocks away and walk to their homes. Many worried what would happen if there were an emergency.

To make matters worse, Smith Elementary school is located in that area. Heavy buses found travel almost impossible and youngsters trudging to school had to cross the muddy streets.

The manager and DPW superintendent point out that there will be more problems when sewer taps are dug from the sewer under the street to each of the homes.

Six Winners of Essay Contest For Students Receive Awards

First place winners in The Plymouth Mail's student essay contest on local problems are:

- Grade Six—Barbara Niemi, 47566 Joy Road
  - Grade Eight—Steve Hayskar, 1434 Penniman
  - Grade Eleven—Carl Glassford, 1217 W. Ann Arbor Trail
- Second place winners are:
- Grade Six—Elizabeth Wideman, 906 S. Harvey
  - Grade Eight—Fred Bell, 196 S. Mill
  - Grade Eleven—Janet Spigarelli, 1300 Beek road

Honorable mention designation was given by the judges to sixth grader Judy Adams, 1116 Harding, and to eleventh grader Staton Lorenz, 45885 Ann Arbor Trail.

Each first place winner has been presented a check for $25 from The Mail and each second place winner a check for $10.

Today and in future issues The Mail will publish some of the essays, picked from the many which were submitted. The authors had their choice of any one of five "foremost local problems" which had been designated by a poll of our readers.

And the top winners will appear on a special program and read their essays over radio station WHRW, Ann Arbor, 1600 on the dial, at 8:30 p.m. Friday night. With them will be the editor of The Mail, Paul Chandler, and leaders from the Area Cooperation Group.

Today we are publishing the first and second winners in the sixth grade division of the contest—

50-Home Township Subdivision Starting

Land is being cleared along Ann Arbor road in Plymouth township for a 50-home, $1,250,000 development to be known as Arbor Village Subdivision.

Gould Homes headed by Plymouthite Bud Gould is constructing the custom home project on the south side of Ann Arbor road, just west of Haggerty road. Grading of the 20-acre site is now in progress.

Gould said that two furnished model homes will be ready in May. After that, homes are expected to be completed with regularity and the project completed later this year.

Ranch type and split-level models will be erected in Arbor Village. Of brick construction, they will have lots averaging 98 feet wide and 125 feet deep. All homes will have three or four bedrooms.

Cost of the homes will be in the $20,000 to $25,000 price range, Gould announced. All will be built on a custom basis, he added.

Four streets will total three-quarters of a mile in length. Half of the development is wooded and all trees not in the way of the home itself will be retained.

It is pointed out that the development is close to the Allen Elementary school and in the vicinity of the new junior high school. Streets will be maintained by the county.

Taxi Rate Hike Given Approval

An increase in taxi fares was approved by the city commission Monday night after a committee of three commissioners checking the request gave the rate hike their endorsement.

The Plymouth Cab company, only taxi service in the city, will adjust their rates within a few weeks, according to owner Theodore Johnson, after proper notice is given customers.

A committee composed of Commissioners Marvin Terry, Ernest Henry and J. Ruessing Cutler investigated the financial records of the cab company and reported that more than the six per cent net return is needed to properly keep the firm operating and equipment in repair.

Approved was a "zoned" method of computing rates. The city is divided into five zones with the downtown area as the "central zone". Fare between this central zone and any of the surrounding four zones in the city is 50 cents. Fare between any point from any of the other four zones to another zone is 65 cents (one block within the zone excepted).

There will also be a 25 cent stop-over charge for a period of up to three minutes of waiting time, plus 10 cents for each additional three minute period of waiting time. For each passenger leaving from the same point of origin and going to the same destination, the charge is 15 cents extra.

Maps showing the zones will be displayed in each cab.

land, In 1911 he came to the United States as a skilled tool-maker. Living first in Connecticut and later coming to Detroit, he worked a short time at the Burroughs plant and then with the Ford Motor company where he continued until May 1945. He has lived here since 1923.

Mrs. Mary Beyer Succumbs at 77

Mrs. Mary E. Beyer, whose family has been prominent in Plymouth church and business activities for many decades, died at 9 a.m. Tuesday at her 725 North Mill street home. She was 77.

A heart ailment caused her death after being ill for two years. A member of St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church, Mrs. Beyer's father, Peter Gayde, was one of the congregation's founders in 1856. Mrs. Beyer herself was organizer of the Lutheran Mission Society and has belonged to the congregation longer than any other member.

She is also a member of the Ladies Aid of the church, the Plymouth Woman's club, Rotary and the Garden club.

In 1905 she married Otto F. Beyer, who 50 years ago opened a drug store on Liberty street. His store still remains, being operated by a son, Robert Beyer, who also owns another Beyer Drug store on Forest avenue.

Mrs. Beyer was born in Plymouth on March 29, 1879 to Peter and Elizabeth Born Gayde. She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Marion Sullivan of Milford and Mrs. Elizabeth Hartwick of Plymouth, and one son, Robert. There are also six grandchildren. One daughter, Mrs. Helen Burgett, preceded her in death. Mr. Beyer died in 1941.

The body will remain at the family home where friends may call until Friday noon. Services will be at 1:30 p.m. Friday at St. Peter's Lutheran church with the Reverend Edgar Hoencke officiating. Interment will be in Riverside Mausoleum. The Schrader Funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Instead of flowers, friends are asked to contribute memorials for St. Peter's Lutheran church.

Delinquent Tax List Available for 10 Cents

Copies of The Legal Advertiser, containing the new Wayne County delinquent property tax list, now are available at the office of The Plymouth Mail. The charge is 10 cents per copy.

SLAG AND SAND make streets such as this intersection of Hartsough and Lincoln now passable. Many places where the sewer trench was located are still not usable for traffic, such as part of Lincoln shown at right of picture.

Comfort Station Vandalism May Eventually Bring Closing

Flagrant cases of vandalism in the Central Parking lot comfort station has led to a decision by the city commission to open the building only during daytime hours and possibly to close it permanently if the situation continues.

In a report to the commission of Fire Chief Robert McAllister about the sickening conditions, it was pointed out that "hoodlums, both men or boys, women or girls... break and steal the mirrors, plug toilets with paper or other material, write obscenities on the walls with lipstick, tear up the sofa and furniture, flood water on the floors, tear sinks from the walls and set fires to waste containers provided for refuse."

'Parade Of Bands' To Feature 400 Plymouth Pupils

Four hundred boys and girls of elementary, junior high and high school levels will be taking the stage at 8 p.m. Thursday, March 14, at the high school gym for the sixth annual "Parade of Bands."

The student musicians will present a varied musical program at no charge to the public.

Approximately 200 from the five elementary schools will give a combined bands and orchestra program, under the direction of Wayne Dunlap. The junior high school bands will perform three numbers, directed by Larry Livingston. James Griffith will conduct the high school band of about 90 students.

City to Seek Bids On Library Addition

While there are no definite commitments pledging financial aid at this time, the Plymouth city commission voted Monday night to take bids on a new addition for the Dunning Library.

Wheeler & Becker, Architects, designers of the present new wing, were authorized to complete plans and specifications and to advertise for bids as soon as possible.

One or more unidentified sources have made it known that they may be willing to provide funds to construct the new addition to replace the present frame structure. It is expected that after bids are taken and the cost of the construction learned, contributors will announce their intentions of financing the project.

Gerald Elston Named Principal Of Five Schools

Appointment of Gerald Elston as principal of the outlying schools in Canton township was confirmed at a special meeting of the board of education Monday night.

The board also opened bids for cement and asphalt work around the new junior high school. Elston, who is now a sixth grade teacher at Smith Elementary school, will take over the principalship on a part-time basis until July 1 when he will assume the job full-time.

Earl Gibson, now principal of the new Gallimore Elementary school, has been serving as principal of the small outlying schools since the job was created a year ago.

Elston has been a teacher in the Plymouth schools for seven years. He is president of the faculty organization, the Plymouth Education association, and is completing work at the University of Michigan for his master's degree in school administration and supervision.

Schools in the Canton group are Truesdell, Canton Center, Cherry Hill, Hough and Bartlett. Six bids were received for the sidewalks, curbs, driveways and asphalt paving around the new junior high. Selection of the winning bid will be made at another meeting. Bidders were: Ann Arbor Construction company, $40,850; Freeman Excavating Company, $49,500; Powell Construction Co., $49,900; Lake Paving Co., $52,628; A. & A. Asphalt Paving Co., $54,520; and Kebe Construction Co., $63,800.

The Weekend Weathervane

U. S. Weather Bureau Outlook
Temperatures will average 3 to 6 degrees below normal. Normal maximum is 40 degrees, normal minimum, 26 degrees.

Rather cold throughout the period with only minor day to day changes. Precipitation will average about 2 inches as occasional light snow or snow flurries.

Boy Scout Committee Of Troop P-4 Meets

The troop committee for Boy Scout Troop P-4 met Tuesday, Feb. 26 at the Presbyterian church, with Eugene Bickle, new chairman of the committee, officiating.

Bickle replaced Gene Crosby. New institutional representative is Tom Kohler, replacing Robert Bachelder, who has been named a member of the committee. Sam Hudson was named publicity chairman.

Bickle reported that the number of scouts in the troop has increased to 26, 20 of whom have signed up to go to the summer camp.

He expressed thanks to Gene Crosby and Dr. John Robison, who retired from the committee after three years of service.

Mary Louise Burden To Wed in September

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burden of 601 Sunset announce the engagement of their daughter, Mary Louise, to Charles Sulkowski, son of Mrs. Ida Sulkowski of Salem. A September wedding is planned.

Schedule Tryouts For Guild Play

Tryouts for The Plymouth Theatre Guild's spring production of Ruth Gordon's comedy success "Over 21" will be held tomorrow night, Friday, March 8 at 8 p.m. in the Junior High School auditorium.

The plot of "Over 21" deals with the problems faced by an over-aged officer candidate in the Air Force during World War II when faced with the learning ability of much younger and keener minds and offers excellent characterizations for six men and five women, none of whom have been selected as yet.

The Plymouth Theatre Guild is under the Adult Education System and membership is open to all residents of Plymouth and the surrounding communities. New faces are constantly being sought to appear in these productions and all who are interested in dramatics or stage-craft are invited to participate. Try-outs will be conducted by Hal Young, director of "Over 21" and William Merrill of Will-O-Way Playhouse, who will act as technical advisor.

Participation in this production will not be limited to only those interested in acting since The Theatre Guild will create and construct the sets needed under the supervision of Thomas Kelly, set builder and Phyllis Kelly, set designer. Anyone interested in this phase of stage work are urged to contact Kelly at 1103 Penniman.

All prospective "hams" who are will be most cordially welcomed looking for a place to be "cured" at these tryouts, a spokesman pointed out.

Vivian's Club Plans Special Entertainment For Husband's Night

It will be Husband's Night at the next meeting of the Vivian's club, Elks No. 1780, slated for 8 p.m. Thursday, March 14 at the Elks Temple.

The drama club of the group will give their second play, "Just Imagine," featuring June Nicol, Lydia Argo, Lucille Lawry, Alice Rensel, Hilda Weaver and Ruth Barney. It will be directed by Virginia Fann. Guests may attend.

Christine Baggett, Bill Cranford Repeat Vows at Church of Christ

Christine Baggett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Baggett of 289 W. Ann Arbor trail, was wed to Bill Cranford in a 6 p.m. ceremony at the Church of Christ, Saturday, Feb. 9. Reverend Herman Neil officiated.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Auty Cranford of Hornbeak, Tennessee. Wearing a grey suit and shoes with blue hat and gloves, the bride, given away by her father, carried pink and white rose buds.

Nettie Schultz of Fort Mead, Maryland, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore an aqua suit and a corsage of white carnations.

Julian Baggett, brother of the bride, was best man. Ushering were Tom Fiendly and Nick Baggett, another brother of the bride.

Christine's mother wore a navy blue dress and shoes, with a white hat, gloves and carnation corsage. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the basement of the church for all friends and members of the church.

Christine is a senior at Plymouth high school. The bridegroom is employed at the Price Brothers Construction Company. They are living at 11705 Francis street.

Henrietta Schultz and father, of Dearborn, and relatives from Bay City were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilkie.

The father and son banquet at the church house was well attended.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Stanley West, a son, Feb. 22. His name is Michael Stephen.

Patricia Wendland Says Vows, Leaves on Florida Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Wagenschutz

St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church, Plymouth, was the scene of the seven thirty o'clock service Saturday, February 16, uniting Patricia 14a Wendland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wendland of Plymouth and Allen Harvey Wagenschutz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wagenschutz of Livonia. The Rev. Edgar Hoe-neck performed the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floorlength gown of Rosepointe lace over satin with a sabrina neckline, long sleeves tapering to points over the hands and a chapel train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a crown trimmed with seed pearls, rhinestones, and iridescent sequins. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and mums centered with two white orchids.

Marilyn Wagenschutz, sister of the bridegroom and maid of honor, was dressed in a gown of shrimp crystal and matching velvet, with a scoop neckline and bow and streamers in the back. She wore a matching headband and carried a colonial bouquet of hibbard roses and carnations.

Wearing blue gloves and matching headbands, fashioned identical to the maid of honor, the bridesmaids were Mrs. Carolyn Wendland, sister-in-law of the bride; Shirley Kapel, cousin of the bride, and Gretchen Schuster.

All carried colonial bouquets of yellow roses and carnations. Ronald Wendland, brother of the bride, served as best man. Ushers were James Wagenschutz and John Gettel, cousins of the bridegroom, and Ronald Balsley. The bride's mother wore a dress of light blue lace over taffeta with matching accessories. Mrs. Wagenschutz wore a Dior blue shantung dress with matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink camellias.

"Entreat Me Not To Leave Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by soloist Mrs. Marian Beer, cousin of the bride, accompanied on the organ by Louis Beer.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Wayne county conservation club house for about 350 guests.

For a trip to Florida the bride left in an aqua wool sheath dress with dark accessories.

The young couple will make their home at 36075 Six Mile road, Livonia.

Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams entertained Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willoughby and Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Goddard at dinner at Topinka's in Detroit Saturday evening.

Audience Lauds Sunday Concert

A new high in artistic performance was reached last Sunday afternoon as the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra, assisted by the Plymouth Civic Chorus and soloists, presented the fifth concert of the current season before a large and enthusiastic audience.

The program opened with Haus Kandler's orchestral arrangements of an organ Toccata by Frescobaldi. The Faure Requiem followed, with solo parts ably performed by Joanne Hulce and Nat Sibbold. The 60-voice chorus, which was trained for this performance by Fred Nelson, together with the orchestra, gave a satisfying rendition of the calm and peaceful Faure music which was very appropriate for the Lenten season.

The second half of the concert consisted of the monumental Symphonie Fantastique of Berlioz. This demanding work was given a stunning and very dramatic performance by the orchestra.

The new orchestra shell, which was used for the first time, provided a substantial improvement in sound as well as a marked change in the staging of the orchestra's performance. Both audience and orchestra applauded the addition of the new facilities, which will contribute greatly to the pleasure of audiences at future musical events in the high school gymnasium.

Marion Fisher, bride-elect of March 16th, was honored Tuesday evening when Miss Amelia Hornel of Detroit entertained 16 guests at a party shower with guests from Plymouth and Detroit.

Afternoon Rites Unite Couple In Marriage

Baskets of carnations, roses and mums adorned the First Methodist church altar for the wedding of Marilyn Elaine Cash to David George Lawless at 4 p.m. Tuesday, January 26. Reverend M. I. Johnson officiated.

Marilyn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ivan Cash, of 9607 Six Mile road. Mr. and Mrs. G. Fred Lawless of 11741 Centralia, Detroit, are the parents of the bridegroom.

The bride, given away by her father, wore a chantilly-type lace gown with a scalloped scoop neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her shoulder-length veil flowed from a Juliet cap, sprinkled with sequins. Marilyn carried a bouquet of white roses and chrysanthemums. A chapel train was worn which forms into a bustle for the reception.

Loanne Jensen, maid of honor, wore a chantilly-type lace bodice with a sweetheart neckline and three-tiered nylon net bouffant skirt. A bouquet of pink roses and mums set off the gown and white wrist length gloves of white over cotton blue.

Bridesmaids Barbara Carley and Marion Plush wore gowns identical to that of the maid of honor, but in white over powder blue. All attendants wore pearls. Cheryl and Kathleen Diehl, dressed in pink nylon with white lace trim, preceded the bride down the aisle, as flower girls. They carried nosegays of roses and mums.

Best man for the ceremony was Herbert Schmittling. Also helping to seat the wedding guests were James Cousins and James Cash.

Mrs. Cash chose a grey dress with white trim and a pink rose corsage for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the bridegroom wore a maroon dress and rust-colored rose corsage.

Musical selections for the ceremony were "I Love You Truly" and "The Lord's Prayer," with Nat Sibbold as soloist.

Immediately following, a reception was held in the church parlor with about 100 guests attending from Plymouth, Salem, Ann Arbor, Port Huron, Brooklyn, Farmington and Detroit.

A second reception was held at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. Sowe of 9235 Vaughn, Detroit, with about 150 people present from Livonia, Plymouth, Detroit, Flat Rock, Allen Park and Lincoln Park.

The couple are residing at 3660 McKinley in Dearborn.

The bride is a 1955 graduate of Plymouth high school, and the bridegroom graduated in 1953 from Thomas Cooley high school in Detroit.

New Scholarships Offer Financial Aid For All Qualifying

Many new scholarships are being offered to high school students that can qualify. Miss Ruth Butts, counselor, has a list of the scholarships which Michigan Blue Cross is offering. Ten nursing scholarships of $300 each will be given for the seventh straight year.

To be eligible for final judging, the contestant must complete the application and return it to the League Scholarship Committee by March 31.

The Alfred P. Sloan Foundation, together with 13 colleges, will sponsor 57 national scholarships for the duration of the regular undergraduate course. The awards range from $200 per year for students not needing financial assistance, up to a maximum of $2000 per year depending upon demonstrated needs.

Candidates for the Alfred P. Sloan scholarships must qualify for admission to one of the institutions participating in the program.

General Motors is offering three plans for the 400 scholarships for high school seniors this year. One hundred national scholarships are offered by General Motors with at least one in every state and fifty at large.

Applications or details of plans are available in the office of the guidance counselor.

Local Woman Gets Rare Cribbage Hand

Mrs. Ralph West of 225 North Mill street had a perfect cribbage hand while playing with her husband.

She was dealt three fives and the jack of hearts, and the five of hearts was cut from the deck, making a 29 hand. She also had the crib, a double run of face cards, making 16 and totaling 45 for the hand.

Grange Gleanings

This is the night when the Tocumseh degree team comes to put on the degree work for the many new members and it is hoped every one of the members who have joined since last spring will be present. Old members too who seldom come will enjoy themselves watching the beautiful work. Light refreshments will be served after the meeting. It will not be pot-luck.

Next comes the party on March 16 with a supper from 5 to 6 until all are served. Cards will follow supper downstairs and dancing upstairs. Get your tickets early so the committee will know how many to plan for.

Another Grange member left for the sunny south last Saturday. Mollie Tracy with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Rodman, are having a short vacation at St. Petersburg and other places. At least a dozen of our members are in Florida at last account.

Mrs. Brodie is at home now recovering from a serious operation a few weeks ago at Sessions hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Arnold have gone to Oklahoma for a few week's visit.

ARE YOU TOO BUSY TO STAY ALIVE?

It's contradictory, but true! Many people are so busy living that they haven't time to stay alive. Suddenly they're dead! Enjoy life—of course—but within sensible limits. Work—but learn to relax and refresh your energy. Play—but don't become played out. And when you feel below par or are annoyed by recurring symptoms, take the time to consult your physician. You'll live longer if you're never too busy to stay alive.

Gas Water Heaters Heat Water Faster!

National sales records show an overwhelming preference for automatic gas water-heaters over any other run by an all-automatic fuel. Gas does a better job—actually replaces water 3 times faster.
An ample supply of hot water, once a luxury that only the wealthy could afford, is a necessity of modern living.
More than 75 manufacturers make gas heaters. You can find every type of construction, every sort of tank lining, every product advantage you can think of—in gas.
More than 17 and a half million families use gas water heaters. They can testify that gas heaters cost less to buy, use and install.

This week joining the other members across the nation in observing National 4-H Club Week. The 4-H clubs, which are a part of the Cooperative Extension Service program of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, are a nationwide system of education for boys and girls.
The purpose of 4-H is to help boys and girls to become useful citizens, farmers and homemakers. It also helps them to appreciate the value of work, to acquire knowledge and skills, to develop the ability to cooperate, to learn to accept responsibility and to be of service to others.
In the Plymouth area there are about 165 4-H members and 16 volunteer leaders. A few of the endless number of projects carried on by them are clothing, cooking, gardening, conservation, handicraft, electrical, riding horses, dairy and beef.
To help observe National 4-H Club Week, the Plymouth Area clubs have prepared exhibits in the showcase in the front hall at the high school and in the window of Davis and Lent.

Whether they live in the city or in the country, 4-H club work is open to all boys and girls from 10 to 21.
Anyone wishing more information about 4-H club work or wanting to become a 4-H member or volunteer leader can call the Wayne County Extension office at Parkway 1-6550.

Tankers Win 4th Straight Prepare for League Meet,

The Plymouth Varsity swimming team, looking forward to the first Suburban Six League meet, added a weak Ypsilanti team to a long list of runaway victories last Thursday evening in the Rock's home pool. Plymouth captured nine of the possible ten first places as they gained a one sided 70-26 victory.

Don Carney tied a pool record as he flashed to a 24.9 clocking in the 50 yd. freestyle to start Plymouth on their fourth straight romping triumph. Dennis Baker claimed second to run the locals margin to seven points.

Bob Isbister eked out Plymouth's second straight first as he squeezed by Ypsilanti's Scovill in the time of 1:05.2. Scovill's time was 1:05.9. Byron Williams placed third.

A new pool record was set as Bill Brandell won the 400 yd. freestyle in the record time of 4:33. Siefker of Ypsi was second, with Henry Mende of Plymouth finishing third.

John Gregory picked up Plymouth's fourth first as he won the 100 yd. backstroke in the time of 1:08.2. Bruce Curtiss copped second as Ypsi settled for third. By this time the locals had racked up a substantial 28-6 lead.

John Bishop accomplished Ypsi's first first as he won the 100 yd. freestyle in the time of 55.4. Dennis Baker and Jack Taylor tied for second at 57.6.

Mike Todd's 1:15.1 in the 100 yd. orthodox breaststroke managed to subdue first as John Cash placed second with a close 1:15.6. Robb of Ypsilanti was third.

Art Losse ran away with the diving honors as he totaled 77.4 points for a first. John Walker captured second with a total of 68.8. Dick Moulton diving exhibition garnered 47.5 points.

Gary Wright won the 150 yd. individual medley in the time of 1:39.7. Ypsi took second, with Byron Williams of Plymouth taking third. Jim Archer, Mike Todd, Bob Isbister, and Don Carney teamed together to win the 200 medley relay in the 1:53.8 clocking.

The 200 yd. freestyle relay was won by Plymouth's John Williams, Ed Stretanski, Jack Taylor, and Bill Brandell. The winning time was 1:39.1.

The first league meet in swimming history in Plymouth will be held this Friday and Saturday in the local pool. Competition will begin at 3:00 Friday afternoon. Diving preliminaries will begin at 4:30 on Friday, Saturday at 1:00 all preliminaries in swimming events will begin, with the exception of the 400 yd. freestyle. The finals will get under way at 8:00 P.M.

U-M Gymnastics Team Scheduled

Tumbling, gymnastics, and trampoline performance will be given in a free exhibition program by the University of Michigan varsity team at the Plymouth High School gymnasium next Tuesday (March 12) at 7:30 p.m.

Coach Newton C. Loken is bringing six experts including Ed Gagneir, Canadian Olympic champion; Jim Hazlett, National Junior Longhorse Champion; Ed Cole, Big Ten Trampoline champion; Frank Newman, Canadian Trampoline champion; and Nick Wiese and Wayne Warren, go-captains of the Wolverine gymnastic team.

The Plymouth U. of M. Club is sponsoring the event to publicize one of the minor sports on the University's athletic program. The same events are part of the physical fitness program in Plymouth Schools.

This same type of program was presented in Plymouth U. of M. Club about five years ago and about 500 students and parents were in the audience.

Play Halted in Class A

Action was all but stopped last week in the Class A Men's league as the Plymouth Symphony moved into the gymnasium to construct their new shell. The recreation league, who were scheduled to have the gym, were moved out in favor of the musicians. Thursday evening the cagers were back to resume their league action.

Braders trounced Northville State Hospital 73-45 to tie up the Plymouth Independents for third slot. Braders now has an 8-7 record as compared to the Independents 7-6. Braders jumped to an early 15-11 first quarter score and lead by 11 at halftime.

The winners stretched their lead to 19 points by the end of the third period of play and outscored the Northville team 24-15 in the final quarter to coast to their margin of victory.

Eddie Hock was high for the winners and the game with 23. Pie Snyder added 17. Byler was high for the losers with 18, Winchester contributed 17.

In the second and last of the two league tilts Northville Recreation put down the Daisy squad 72-63. Daisy challenged in the second quarter as they pulled to within three points of the winners.

Northville was able to stretch their lead to six points at the end of the locals 22-19 in the fourth and final quarter to assure the sixth win of the season.

"Spook" Teschka was high for the winners with 22, Jensen added 17. Max Algood was high for the losers and the game with 26. Davis added 16.

Don McIlmurray continues to lead the league in individual scoring honors with 274. Ken Kisabeth is second with 259. Max Algood took over third as he scooted his total up to 237. Bud Nedrey slipped to fourth with 226. Ernie Winchester held fifth with 204.

Lyle Jensen moved into sixth with 185. Jim Bloomhuff slid to seventh with 183. Ron Davis took over eighth with 143. Don Huebner is ninth with 138, and Bob Lufts tenth with 122.

Rock Cagers Bow To Hamtramck

Hamtramck, the number four ranked team in the state, hung up an easy 74-46 win over an injury riddled Plymouth team. High scoring team captain, Ken Calhoun, suffered a sprained ankle in the closing minutes of the game to join teammate Jerry King on the injury list.

Hamtramck broke the scoring ice to take an early two point lead. Jim Dzurus tallied for a field goal to tie it up at two apiece, then the heavily favored visitors took the lead, which they never lost. The first quarter ended with Plymouth trailing 20-12.

The Rocks kept pace with the invaders throughout most of the second quarter as they pulled to within three points with just one minute and fifty four seconds remaining in the half. However the Cosmos were still able to leave the floor at halftime with a nine point margin.

The locals tallied for a lowly eight points in the third and deciding quarter as the invaders hit for a total of 21 to take a substantial 56-34 edge. The Cosmos played a full court press during the whole game and were able to take advantage of Plymouth's twenty fouls to total twenty points.

The Rocks bucketed twelve points in the final period but it still left a gap of 28 points. The locals averaged about three fouls per man. The visitors committed 14.

Ken Calhoun dropped from his regular scoring spree as the winners height was able to block many of his efforts. He still lead the local attack with 17 points. Bill Hubert contributed eight, and Ken Knipschild seven.

Hamtramck's giant center, Ringo, bucketed 31 points before he was taken from the game in the early minutes of the final quarter. He hit for nine field goals and 13 free throws. Flemming added 11. Plymouth now has a 7-5 record for the season.

The JV squad, under the direction of Mike Hoben, snapped a four game losing streak as they dumped the invading Hamtramck team 39-37. The game was undecided until the final buzzer went off. The little Rocks were trailing 35-34 in the closing minute of play, then Myron Hopper dunked two free throws to put Plymouth out front 36-35. John Nance tallied for a field goal to lift Plymouth to a 38-35 edge before Hamtramck hit for a field goal to pull within one point. John Nance was awarded two free throws, making one and missing one.

Plymouth had a slim two point edge at the end of the first quarter. They held an unsteady 18-17 halftime margin and were able to stretch their lead to three points by the end of the third period.

Freshman John Nance paced the winning attack with nine points. Regular Myron Hopper tallied for eight, and freshman Randy Egloff tied regular Wade Schultheiss at six. Lincoln was high for the losers and the game with 12.

Chevy is America's "hot" car -officially!

Chevrolet Wins Coveted Manufacturers' Trophy at Daytona Beach as "best performing U. S. automobile"!

Want facts, not claims, about performance? Then look at the official figures from NASCAR's* internationally famous Daytona Beach competition for stock cars. Here's what you'll find: Chevrolet, in two weeks of blistering competition, proved itself as America's Number One performance car. Nothing in the low-price field could touch it. No other car, regardless of price, scored such a sweep. And Chevy walked away with the famous Manufacturers' Trophy, hands down!

Let's look at the record, the unvarnished figures:

FLYING MILE (two-way run)
CLASS FOUR (six-cylinder class)
Chevrolet—1, 2, 3; Car A—4; Chevrolet—5!

CLASS FIVE (low-priced V8's)
Chevrolet—1st (new class record)—and winner of every place in the top 10!

ACCELERATION (one mile from standing start)
CLASS FOUR (six-cylinder class)
Car Y—1; Chevrolet—2, 3, 4, 5!

CLASS FIVE (low-priced V8's)
Chevrolet—1st (new class record)—and every place in the first 18!

Even more significant was the special competition for the "Big Three"—the contest for cars in the low-price field, single-carburetor V8's equipped with automatic transmissions. This is the most popular kind of car Americans buy. Take a look at the results:

"BIG THREE" CLASS (flying mile)
Chevrolet—1, 2, 3; Car A—4; Chevrolet—5!

The 1957 Chevrolet is, by all odds, the most astonishing performer ever produced in the low-price field. Daytona proves it. And you can sample it for yourself at your Chevrolet dealership.

Come in this week and test drive the model that suits your needs. You'll get a real surprise—particularly when you see the championship deal you get.

U. of M. Men's Glee Club to Sing in Plymouth March 17

University of Michigan's illustrious Men's Glee Club will sing in the Plymouth High School auditorium on Sunday afternoon, March 17. The concert will start at 4 p.m. and will be sponsored by the U. of M. Club of Plymouth.

One of the most distinguished musical organizations of its kind in the world, the Michigan Glee Club is directed by Philip Alexander Duey, professor of voice in the University's music department.

Tickets ($1 for adults; 40 cents for children) are on sale at Smith's Music Store, Melody House, and from U. of M. Club members. Profits will be used for college scholarships for local students.

U. of M's Glee Club is different from many other college glee clubs in that it is completely student operated. The Club has been organized, administered, and maintained by its own members since its founding in 1859.

Club officers are chosen by petition and majority vote of the Club near the end of each academic year. Starting the next fall, they take over the duties of managing the Club's internal affairs, setting up campus appearances, managing tours throughout the country, organizing and distributing publicity material, and finding means of financing these activities.

The Club runs itself democratically. All matters which concern the group as a whole are brought to a vote. This allows the great diversity in the membership of the Club to express itself. The men in the Club come from all of the undergraduate colleges in the University as well as from the professional schools. They are tied together by one common bond, a love of singing.

For an extra-curricular activity, the Glee Club has kept itself quite busy in recent years gaining many laurels throughout the country. Several years ago they made a film for RKO-Pathé in which they sang the favorites of more than a dozen colleges. The Club has toured from New York

City to as far west as Portland, Ore., and as far south as Memphis, Tenn.

Last year the Club made a record for Decca Records of over two dozen songs of different colleges. In the summer of 1955, the Club toured Europe. The six countries visited were: Holland (where they gave a command performance for Queen Juliana), Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Italy, and France. This spring the Club is scheduled to tour the West Coast. It will be presented in Seattle, Portland, Palo Alto, Los Angeles, San Diego, Albuquerque, and finally Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Marzloff and family of Lansing were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Berry on Williams. They were former residents of Plymouth.

Mrs. David Wood will be a luncheon hostess Friday afternoon entertaining members of her contract group, in her home on Sheldon road.

or other elected officials who help write the laws of their own communities.
Plymouth's supervisor has no position in city hall affairs, except for a report he makes once a month to the commission. Plymouth has had three methods of selecting supervisors. First the mayor was the supervisor, but this proved to be a full-time job. Later, the commission made an appointment to the board. The new charter now provides for an elected supervisor to serve a term of four years.
Marquis, who is not seeking another term, also told commissioners that four years on the board of supervisors has shown him that county government is greatly outmoded.

Realty Company Opens Branch Office in Town

Suburban Realty, of South Lyon, is opening a branch office in Plymouth at 859 N. Main street, near the Bentley Clinic.
The organization specializes in farms, city and lake property. W. E. Bunn has been head of the company for the last six years. His son, Gordon Bunn, will be working in the Plymouth office as a salesman.
Other sales personnel are Hazen Smith and Mary Minton.

Attending the 17th District meeting held at Redford township post last Friday were: Dorothy and Ernest Koi, Adah and Bill Langmaid and Maxine Kunz. Winners in the oratorical contest were: first, Arthur Voisin, Redford Union high school; second, Bernard Muller, Northville high school; and third, Beth Baldwin, Bentley high school. Judges were John McGrath, language teacher, Cooley high school; Mrs. Helen Bevin, attorney; and justice of the Peace Redford township; and Brian Walter, attorney in Detroit. Arthur Voisin will go on to the Zone Contest, held at Charles McKenney hall, Eastern Michigan College, Ypsilanti, Friday, March 15 at 8 p.m.

Making the V.A. Hospital visit in Ann Arbor this month were Dorothy and Ernest Koi and William Hansen. They delivered the valentines, made by the Juniors and home-made cookies, made by the Auxiliary. Barney Kot, service and welfare chairman, would like to see more members to participate in this program.

The third zone meeting will be held at Lloyd Green Post, Northville, 1:00 p.m. Saturday.
The Post held its regular business meeting yesterday and welcomed two new members into the post: Harry Taylor and Stephan Turk.

Ethel Wilson's father, Mr. John Veresh, is seriously ill in Harper hospital, Detroit. Harry Burleson's mother, Mrs. Edna Burleson, is also very ill and is at Eastlawn Resthaven in Northville.

Girl Scouts Celebrate 45 Years of Service

Girl Scout participants of three generations and more will be observing Girl Scout week, March 10-16, celebrating the 45th anniversary of the founding of the Girl Scouts in the U.S.A. by Juliette Gordon Low, March 12, 1912.

Sunday morning, March 10, uniformed Brownies and Girl Scouts will attend the churches of their choice. Sunday afternoon, a Scouterama will be held at the high school gymnasium and auditorium from 2 to 5 p.m. to acquaint the community with Girl Scout activities.

Principal emphasis for 1957 is "Girl Scouting Is a Family Affair." Special efforts will be made to show that Girl Scouting is an influence for good in American families. There will be a display at the Scouterama carrying out this theme.
Another feature of the Scouterama will be the Juliette Low birthday table. The birthday cake will have 45 candles. Each Brownie and Girl Scout troop will bring a money contribution to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund to the birthday table, wrapped as a birthday gift. The purpose of the fund is to promote Girl Scouting and Girl Guiding throughout the world. Visitors to the Scouterama will have an opportunity to contribute to this fund.

A recruitment table will be set up in the gymnasium where information will be available on volunteer help and the type of help needed to carry on the work of the Girl Scouts. Recruitment literature will be distributed to various professional and business offices in town just prior to Girl Scout week by Senior Scout Troop 14.

Movies of Plymouth Girl Scouts at day camps and troop camps will be shown in the auditorium, as well as a movie showing some of the activities at the first National Senior Roundup. The sound film, "Leading Lady," will present the work of adults in Scouting.
A one-act comedy, "When Do We Eat," will be presented by Scout troop 21 several times during the afternoon. This skit will show what may happen when the whole family helps with the housecleaning.

Major Girl Scout activities and interests are demonstrated in the seven days of Girl Scout week.
The DPW superintendent pointed to cases of vandalism which have given his department trouble. A dozen new flares were set out last Thursday and that night all of them were deliberately pushed over. That recruits someone to go out on overtime to set out new ones, recover old ones and dry them out. Fifteen flares have been pushed into the mud and lost so far.

Barricades too are being damaged or smashed. Of the 36 originally used in the area, Bida claims that a dozen will probably be salvaged.
Looking ahead a few months, Bida and the city manager have another unpleasant situation to face. After the streets dry up and the mud disappears there will be dust—arch enemy of all housewives.

The MAIL Attitude

BY PAUL CHANDLER

Plymouth this week adds another black stroke to the roster of fatalities at our railroad crossings. This one happened during the hush of early morning at the Sheldon road crossing, where a red flasher stands to blink out a warning of passing trains. The details of the accident are covered on our front page today.

This is the second death at the tracks encountered by Plymouth motorists since the first of the year. The facts are frightening, sickening, chilling.

This newspaper would be raving editorially about the problem today except that we feel the facts are so totally obvious, and the need so desperate, that we simply would be complicating the issue if we increased the hysteria in the air. Our officials and our citizens know of the dangers lurking at the tracks.

The Mail (with help from readers who speak up) has called repeated attention to the crossings. Automobile traffic over them is far increased beyond what it was a few years ago. The nuisance factor of car traffic tie-ups grows worse every day and this hurts every form of local business—as one of our readers skillfully pointed out in our last newspaper.

Percentage takes a sure and precise toll. Over the proper period of time, an increase in automobile traffic inexorably will result in an increase in death at the tracks. If more shoppers are annoyed by having to wait for switching trains, more will go elsewhere to trade.

The answer to the track crossings is grade separations, of course. They cost large sums of money, as do so many services in communities that are growing . . . growing . . . growing.

Maybe this money will come from the people, and the railroads, and the county, and the state, but somehow, now or later, it must appear from some source.

Local officials are continuing into the project, with a terrifying sense of urgency.

In the meantime, they beg drivers to approach any railroad crossing with every mortal means of caution!

A table-full of Plymouth businessmen slipped down into Detroit last week to attend a "clinic" on national affairs conducted by the National Chamber of Commerce. Something like 800 businessmen from the Detroit area joined the day-long meetings and luncheon.

The National Chamber has some forthright ideas about things that should be done in Washington during the next several weeks and the idea of the "clinics" is to put on some public pressure . . . letters to congressmen, primarily.

One subject the Chamber is ripping into is President Eisenhower's proposed budget. The Chamber is not alone on this—the budget is under attack from a multitude of besiegers today, among them some of Ike's stoutest election supporters. The critics—and I'm among them—believe it is too big and can be sliced into better balance.

The Chamber also is firing away at the failure of government to follow through on the recommendations of the Hoover Commission for economy in government. There simply hasn't been any argument that money could be saved if President Hoover's suggestions were followed; it's just that the job hasn't been tackled because of resistance from individuals and groups whose jobs would be eliminated or whose power would be curtailed. Four or five billions of dollars a year expense could be achieved quickly, with more later, in the opinion of the C. of C. economists.

The Chamber also contends that the U.S. Post Office should be self-sustaining, with a sharp increase in rates to get the postal budget out of the red.

Woman's Club Records Anniversary Meeting

A tape recording was made of the entire proceedings at the Woman's Club 64th anniversary and annual Past Presidents' Day last Friday, at the Masonic Temple, and it will be sent with the club's best wishes to Mrs. R. E. Cooper, Women's Club past president who recently moved to California.

A special program featuring, antics of 1907, was presented under the chairmanship of Mrs. David Mather.

"The President Presides" was a take-off on an old-time meeting of the Woman's Club, then called the Ladies Literary Club, when such things as new electric lights, annual trips to Detroit, and embroidery classes were topics of discussion, and subscriptions to the Plymouth Mail were a dollar. Skit director was Mrs. Phillip Barney.

Taking the roles of early 1900 women were Mrs. Elmore Carney, Mrs. Jack Selle, Mrs. Richard Jones, Mrs. Max Todd, Mrs. Robert Brown, Mrs. Craig Bowby, Mrs. Eugene Crosby and Mrs. A. E. Van Ornum.

Members of the club glee club, dressed in old-time outfits, gave several renditions in keeping with the 1900's theme, such as "Sweet Genevieve," "Bluebells" and "A Bicycle Built for Two." Mrs. Charles Wolfe sang a special solo, "The Bird on Nellie's Hat." Accompanist was Mrs. J. Rusling Cutler. Mrs. Gerald Hon-dorp directed the group.

Glee Club members taking part were Mrs. Carvel Bentley, Mrs. William V. Clarke, Mrs. Walter Hall, Mrs. William Hartmann, Mrs. Cass Kershaw, Mrs. Hugh Law, Mrs. Lewis Litzenberg, Mrs. David Mather, Mrs. Walter Gemperline, Mrs. Forest Morgeson, Mrs. Murray O'Neill, Mrs. Donald Rank and Mrs. Ralph Taylor.

Other singers were Mrs. Robert Willoughby, Mrs. C. C. Wiltse, Mrs. Charles Wolfe, Mrs. Gustaf Lundquist, Mrs. Gordon Jewell, Mrs. Walter Beginger and Mrs. David Gates.

Guests of honor were the past president, Mrs. Charles Wolfe, and Mrs. Robert Willoughby.

BOOK REVIEW

KEEPING UP WITH THE TIMES

By R. Roy Pursell

HOW'S YOUR HOMEWORK?

With the many questions that have been asked about "Why Johnny Can't Read," "Why Johnny Can't Add" and "Why Teacher Can't Teach" parents are doing more and more home-work about the educational process.

"The Turning of the Tides" is a basic book written by Congressman Paul Shafer and John H. Snow. It is fully documented on the way various "isms" have become part of the school program—especially that part that is being questioned in light of new studies on Collectivism, Individualism, and Conservatism.

"The Turning of the Tides" is a 185-page book that every parent or friend of education should read. It is priced at $2.

Footsaving Education

By JIM HOUK

Does sleeping posture affect walking habits?

I have heard only one lecture that touched upon the subject. It was the opinion of this authority that there has been an increase of cases of pigeon toes and splay-foot (like a duck) since it has become popular to train babies to sleep on their stomachs. The speaker pointed out that other animals that are anatomically similar to humans sleep on their sides.

My experience in the shoe store has been that almost all pigeoned toed children sleep on their stomachs with their toes turned in. Three mothers who retained their children to sleep on their sides have commented on improvement in walking.

It is interesting to note that the left foot of a right handed child is more likely to toe-in than the right foot is.

Pastor, Family Return to Town After Conference

Pastor and Mrs. Merton Henry and daughter DeeAnn have returned from the biennial business session in Lansing of the Michigan Conference of Seventh-day Adventists. Mr. Henry was a delegate from the Plymouth church.
 Reports from departmental heads were heard, and officers elected for two year terms. All officers were re-elected with Dr. G. E. Hutches again being named president, an office he has held since 1947.

Hutches reported that Adventists in Michigan had either completed a building project or acquired property every 16 1/2 days for the past nine years. This included churches, schools and parsonages, as well as improvements to the two boarding academies at Holly and Cedar Lake and the camp ground at Grand Lodge. Last autumn the first unit of the Plymouth church was completed.

Twenty-two pastors were ordained the past two years and new churches organized at Holt, East Lansing, Durand, Williams-ton and Tawas City.

According to a report given by Treasurer W. F. Miller, Michigan Adventists contributed an average of $126.86 in tithes the past year, and missions-giving topped the half million mark. The funds support 2000 missionaries in 184 countries.
 The Michigan Conference, organized in 1861, is the oldest state organization in the denomination. Business session just concluded was the 13th since conference reorganization in 1932.
 Other officers re-elected are: W. F. Miller, Lansing; R. L. Boothby, Detroit; L. C. Caviness, Berrien Springs; Vann Grimley, Mt. Pleasant; Charles Keymer, Battle Creek; Arthur Lickey; Escanaba; A. R. Mohr, Grand Rapids; L. J. Wall, Eagle; W. W. White, Saginaw; and R. W. Pratt, Holly. Dr. Emil Leyer, Albion, and J. B. Church, Kalamazoo, newly-elected, comprise the executive committee.

Dog Won't Mind? Training Classes Begin Wednesday

An owner-dog training club is just starting up, and will be holding classes at 7 and 8:30 p.m. every Wednesday for all interested in giving their dog obedience training.
 The new group, called the Wolverine Dog Training Club, will meet at the American Legion hall, at Beach and Five Mile roads.
 Each person will train and handle his own dog and will be taught every step of the process. Dogs will learn how to perform such actions as heeling, walking, retrieving and high jumping.
 Mrs. Don Groom, who will be conducting classes with other club members, explained "We'll train dogs of all breeds and all ages, from six months on upward." She said enough instructors will be provided to give everyone individual attention for their individual problems or questions. There will be stages of training for the dogs: beginning, intermediate and advanced.
 To register for these classes, call 2291-J1 or Kenwood 3-3037.

Methodist Women Will Hear Speech By Hospital Official

Dr. Phillip N. Brown

Dr. Phillip N. Brown, superintendent of Northville state hospital, will speak to the Methodist women at their monthly meeting at 1 p.m. Wednesday. Dr. Brown graduated from the University of Michigan medical school and entered the field of psychiatry in 1935 when he became affiliated with the staff of Ypsilanti state hospital. He served there as assistant medical superintendent for 16 years before he was appointed superintendent at Northville in 1951.
 While at the Ypsilanti state hospital, Dr. Brown also was the instructor for the student nurses assigned to that hospital for psychiatric training. In connection with these classes, he prepared an outline manual, "Psychiatry and Neurology," which has received much recognition and usage both in Michigan and out-of-state.
 Since beginning his duties at Northville, Dr. Brown has aimed at building the hospital into one of the most modern mental institutions in the country. With the excellent facilities available and a fine staff, he feels that it will only be a matter of a few years before his dream becomes a reality.
 The program will follow a business meeting and luncheon at 12:15 p.m.

Philippine Missionaries to Present Opening Talk at Local Convention

Rev. and Mrs. Edwin M. Brengle will speak at the Sunday morning service to begin the four-day annual Missionary Convention at the local Assembly of God Church. Mr. Brengle has been an Assembly of God missionary to the Philippines since 1946 and has established Bible Schools in Manila and Cebu City.
 He became interested in missionary work while an Army chaplain in the Philippines during World War II. Prior to this, Mr. Brengle pastored in St. Petersburg, Fla. He attended the University of Florida, New York Law School and Union Theological Seminary, Richmond, Va. Before entering the ministry, Mr. Brengle practiced law in New York City.

 Other speakers during the convention will be Rev. L. Stokes, missionary to Argentina, speaking Sunday evening. Rev. B. Stroud, missionary to the Gold Coast, will speak Tuesday evening, and Mrs. Joseph Brown, missionary to Egypt, will speak Wednesday evening.

Romantic Novels, Sign of Spring, Top List of New Books at Plymouth Library

In the new shipment of books arriving this week at the Plymouth branch of the Wayne county library are stories of romance, history, religion and mystery. Library hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. weekdays and from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturdays.

Newly-acquired romantic novels are "Hill Top House," Rebecca Marsh's story of a nurse and her unruly heart, and "Gloria and the Bullfighter" by Ethel Hamill. Warren Howard wrote "The Shady Lane," tale of an old house in Maryland and its inhabitants. Maine is the setting for "No Evil Angel," a novel of love and violence by Elizabeth Ogilvie.

Mysteries are the top choice of the week, with 15 new arrivals. New Inner Sanctum mysteries are Hampton Stone's "The Man Who Had Too Much To Lose," "The Screaming Rabbit" by Harry Carmichael, and "Hunt the Man Down" by William Pearson. Other tales of suspense are "Tell Her It's Murder" by Helen Reilly, "The Pinned Man," a foreign intrigue story by George Griswold, James Reach's "Blind Gambit" and "Unfinished Crime," new murder mystery by Helen McCloy.

"The Dear Old Gentleman" by Bechhofer Roberts and George Goodchild, is a "Macabre and artful tale, first published in England in 1930," about the axe murder of a serving girl. London is the scene of a chiller murder and helter-skelter chase by Anthony Gilbert, "Death Won't Wait." Police fingerprinting cards arranged by a detective set off a fascinating mystery by David Alexander. "Murder Points a Finger." Other new mysteries are "The Coral Princess Murders" by Frances Crane, "The Day of the Dead" by Bart Spicer, "The Third Bullet and Other Stories" by John Dickson Carr, and "The Dark Window" by Thomas Walsh.

Two Mr. Moto mysteries were also added to the library's collection: "Stopover: Tokyo" and "Mr. Moto's Three Aces," by John P. Marquand, author of "The Late George Appley."

Religion is the topic of "My Heart an Altar," Alice Lent Covert's story of how a young minister refuses to bow to the dictates of a worldly and powerful congregation; "How Came the Bible," Edgar J. Goodspeed's story of how the 66 books were preserved, canonized and translated to make our modern Bible; and "How To Believe," in which Ralph W. Stockman answers the questions that challenge man and faith.

Chuck Stanley's four latest western novels are now possessions of the library: "Deputy from Montana," "Frontier Renegade," "Rider of Pecos Valley," and "Wagon Train."

Other new westerns are "The Border Jumpers" by Will C. Brown, "Boss of Barbed Wire" by Barry Cord, "Wide Loop" by Nelson Nye, "Roll the Wagons" by Grett Austin and "Block Powder Empire" by Rutherford G. Montgomery. Archie Jocelyn's "Renegade Scout" deals with a rider who wanted to find and kill

Arthur T. Jersied describes the strivings, satisfactions, hopes and heartaches of a teacher's life and work in "When Teachers Face Themselves." His book is based on a study of over 1000 teachers and students in education.

"Century of Conflict" by Joseph Lister Rutledge traces the struggle between the French and British in Colonial America. Don J. Lloyd and Harry R. Warfel present a practical view of our language for all who read and write it in "American English in Its Cultural Setting."

Shirley Jackson's latest, "Raising Demons," a tale of dubious parental equilibrium in the face of four children, dogs, cats, and all their possessions, is another addition to the library shelves. Miss Jackson is the author of "The Lottery" and "Life Among the Savages."

Other new popular novels are Carl Jonas' "Our Revels Now Are Ended," Jeanne Judson's "Lady Guide," an exciting story of the Michigan Woods; Warren Howard's "Ship of Dreams" and Ruth McKenney's novel of love, fate and conquest in Napoleon's Egypt, "Mirage."

Another new possession of the library is "Deluxe Tour by Frederic Wakeman, author of "The Hucksters," who writes of a high-priced tour of Europe by nine Americans, a reckless Italian adventurer and a charming French guide.

Library Sponsors Story-Telling Hour

A special story-telling hour for children of all ages will be held every Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Plymouth branch of the Wayne county library, lasting from half an hour to 45 minutes. It will be conducted by Mrs. James Richards of the library staff.

State Representative

Family illness and an unexpected rush in Lansing have prevented me from filling this column for the last couple of weeks. Matters pertaining to this district have occupied most of my time during the last few days.

On Friday I filed a bill providing for a referendum in Plymouth Township, at the request of Supervisor Roy Lindsay, on whether or not hunting shall be legal. Township residents will have the privilege of making their wishes known on this matter by ballot at a date not too far distant. Just previous to my filing this bill, similar ones were filed for Nankin and Waterford Townships.

Residents of Livonia can rest at ease for a few days on the matter of losing their race track revenue. At my request, House Speaker George Van Peltum referred the bill, with the approval of the introducer, to our State Affairs committee where it will be killed in the next week or so.

The purpose of this move, on my part, was to take the bill away from the taxation committee. There it had a reasonable chance of being reported out on the floor of the House because of the part of the bill which tied in the increase of State income by raising the percentage of take from bets placed at the tracks. Many members of the House favor increasing the State's percentage in this respect and it might have carried the bill through to the detriment of the City of Livonia.

The bill was cut back again in the next few days but it will be reintroduced as two separate bills . . . one to cut Livonia's $500,000 in half, and the other to increase the State's percentage from the mutual handle and the licenses. Each will then be fought or defended on its own merit and one will not influence the other.

Northville, which receives $85,000 per year from the track, was not included in the City part of the bill and they have no problem in this respect, but the track will be affected by a higher percentage if that particular bill should pass.

Cancer Society Stresses Need For Volunteers

At the Volunteers meeting of the American Cancer Society, Monday, Feb. 25, 20 members heard Mrs. Joseph Weiland explain the working procedure of ACS offices. Mrs. Weiland is chairman of training programs for Western Wayne county.

Local Art Classes Travel To Detroit to View Exhibit

Ceramics, jewelry, oil paintings, water colors and textiles were viewed by students in Mrs. Frances Overton's art classes Wednesday, Feb. 27 at the Southeastern Michigan Regional Exhibition of Scholastic Art Awards, sponsored by Crowley's and the Detroit News.

The exhibition was held on the second floor of Crowley Milner's in downtown Detroit. On display were the works of students grades 7-12, who had received key of certificate awards.

Plymouth did not have anything on display this year, for the first time in approximately ten years.

Highway Missile

He who travels over 60 miles an hour is not driving his car—he's aiming it.

When these bills get to the taxation committee in the future, Mayor William Brashear and I will defend the city's income and I feel we will be in a much stronger position on this particular issue.

I have been trying to find a way to help the Northville School district, which has a problem peculiar to itself. Having more than 20% of its taxable land taken by state and county owned institutions, it is distressed by the loss of revenue from these areas. Investigation leads me to believe, with some help from associates in Lansing, we might find a way to help Northville qualify for aid under the State's fund of three million dollars for distressed school districts.

I am amazed at the work load a conscientious representative can carry. In addition to the daily problems that come up affecting your own district, you find yourself helping make analysis of problems that come each week before the many committees on which you work. My weekend assignment is to determine the harm of erecting a fire station within 1,000 feet of a mental hospital.

In this case, there is a bill before our committee to prohibit the building of a fire station by the City of Dearborn near St. Joseph Hospital on Michigan avenue. Informative interviews on this subject are booked over the weekend with the heads of Northville State, U. of M. psychiatry department, and the Corporation Council of the City of Dearborn. From these interviews will probably come approval or disapproval of the bill.

Mayflower Will Land Again In Plymouth (Massachusetts)

After 327 years, the Mayflower will again land at Plymouth, Massachusetts—and several Plymouthites from Michigan may be there to greet it this time.

Through public contributions, Britons have been constructing the Mayflower II which will leave England early in April and is expected to reach the American coast late in May. The ship represents a goodwill gift from the people of Great Britain to the people of the United States and will bring from England Bibles and treasure chests.

Several local people have considered a troop to Plymouth, Massachusetts to be on hand to greet the Mayflower II.

President Eisenhower and other American notables will receive chests containing British goods which represent 20th Century trade links between Great Britain and the U.S. To six New England governors, as well as Canadian and provincial government heads will go Bibles emphasizing the religious backdrop of the maiden Mayflower voyage in 1620.

Mayflower II's crossing is expected to take four to six weeks of sailing. It will bring 30 passengers and a crew of 21. The Pilgrim ship replica is 90 feet long, weighs 180 tons, the same as the original Mayflower. Public contributions for its construction have averaged two shillings (28 cents).

After it reaches Plymouth and unloads its treasures and Bibles (into Mayflower Van Lines trucks, of course), it will be sailed to New York to go on public exhibition at the pier of the Hudson River along the foot of West Street. Ultimately the ship will be moored permanently along the Eel River as the focal point of Pilgrim Village, a reproduction of the first Pilgrim settlement being reconstructed at Plymouth, Mass. Pilgrim Village is being established some two miles from Plymouth Rock, debarkation point of the Pilgrims. With the Mayflower II as its No. 1 attraction, the village is expected to become an outstanding historical shrine and tourist mecca. It will contain some 19 reproductions of the Pilgrims' original thatched dwellings. It is being sponsored by Plymouth Plantation, Inc., a non-profit group dedicated to preservation of the Pilgrim heritage.

LANSING REPORTING

By JOHN SWAINSON
(State Senator)

Within the next few weeks you will be hearing, simultaneously, more about Michigan's budgetary problems, about the need for new revenue and about the importance of voting in the spring election on April 1st.

Especially after a presidential election in November, most people think of a spring election as a minor matter. All of us are inclined to figure that one local job-holder is about the same as the next, and we'll let the other people vote. Maybe there has been good historic background for this kind of attitude towards politics in general and spring elections in particular. In this time of our lives in Michigan, apathy is an outdated approach. Let me start the ball rolling, way ahead of time, by using one instance of the importance of the spring election.

You may drive to work every day, come home and park the car and add a few more miles on Sunday. You may use your car to reach more distant points in Michigan because you hunt or fish. You may drive long distances only during vacations or holidays. You may travel as part of your job.

Highway safety authorities, in recent years, have been emphasizing the fact that most serious accidents are caused by your good neighbor, a family man himself, may become a murderer if he has the misfortune to drive from Grand Rapids to Plymouth after a business trip, leaving Grand Rapids on U.S. 16. He will travel a few miles of good road where there is a speed limit of 35-45 miles per hour. Promptly, at the point he may drive faster, the highway narrows and the longest portions of it are two-lane, most segments needing repair. One of the high accident areas on this route has been scheduled for widening for about three years but remains a hazard.

By the time our neighbor has reached Lansing, his nerves are frayed. By the time he reaches Plymouth or Northville, he may hit a child on a bicycle, or an elderly neighbor crossing the street against the light. The origin of the accident may be a stretch of road near Portland, Michigan, or the whole of route 16.

This route, this obstacle course, is only one example. The route from Muskegon to Lansing was labeled as "critically deficient" years ago, with everyone including the Highway Department planning it on the highest priority schedule. Reconstruction was planned for completion between 1954 and 1956. Two disconnected stretches of less than 5-miles each have been completed.

Political accusations are bound to be made as our Democratic Governor presses for reports and progress and the Republican highway commissioner builds bits and snatches. The appearance of construction blooms on the roads every spring, all over the state, but no major project is completed. Clearly, a new administrative hand is needed to make that highway empire a responsible part of the state government—responsible to the people.

Regardless of the specific candidates, this record will be the issue of the spring election campaign. We cannot solve this phase of our highway problems in the Legislature. It will be up to the voters to choose between the old record and a new policy of concern for the people of Michigan. Ask the people who drive on "slaughter hill" in Oakland county. Remember the high-speed dead-end that has caused death on a delayed stretch of expressway to Monroe. Then you will vote on April 1st.

Allen School Given Flag at PTA Meeting

Passage-Gayde Post of the American Legion auxiliary, represented by Mrs. Harry Burleson and a color guard, presented Allen School with a new American Flag to replace the one used since the school opened, at the Allen PTA meeting.

Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes, chairman of the nomination committee, presented the following slate of officers for next year: president, Wayne Gladstone; first vice president, Nadine Jones; second vice president, Betty Holmes; secretary, Evelyn Housman; and treasurer, Winifred Dorset.

President Gene Overholt announced that the Overholts and the Marburgers had accepted co-chairmanships of the annual spring carnival May 18. Many other assignments were served by first and second grade mothers.

There are 40 rivers which form state boundaries in the United States. If you can name fifteen you're doing well.

I REMEMBER PLYMOUTH

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Have you some fond remembrances of early Plymouth? The Mail would like to regularly open this column to those who have favorite recollections or anecdotes of Plymouth before 1920. Jot them down and send them to "I Remember Plymouth," Plymouth Mail, Plymouth, Mich. The shorter the better. We reserve the right to edit all letters.)

Homer H. Howe, 585 Maple avenue, is a native Plymouthite, being born on Mill street in 1903. Two years later his father built a new home at 313 Maple avenue, square in the middle of a big cornfield.

"We moved with a horse and wagon," Howe recalls, "with my sister Ruth and I riding on the back."

"When I was five, they layed the brick on Main street. I stood on the road watching them and thought they sure were smart fellows to be able to build a road. Now I am building roads myself. When I was almost six (I started school at 4½), our teacher, Miss McClumpha, took us down to the railroad station in Lower Town and we walked all the way. There we saw the President of the United States, Teddy Roosevelt, as he passed through Plymouth.

"Teddy was standing on the back platform of the train and as he waved to greet us, I well remember that his teeth were very beautiful with gold fillings.

"Oh yes, I remember my first hair cut when I was 3½. As I yelled bloody murder, Dewey Burden offered me a ride in his auto if I would consent. George Van Car cut my hair in his shop where Fisher's Shoe store is now located and Charley McConnell was there too. (McConnell has just completed 50 years of barbering in Plymouth.)

"When I was seven we rented our house on Maple and moved out to a farm on Northville road and Phoenix Corners with my grandparents. There was a flour mill and ice house on what is now known as Phoenix Lake. Harry Minthorn told my wife several years ago about how my father, Frank Howe, panned gold out of the mill race in back of the old flour mill. It is now the County Road commission paint shop.

"My grandfather sold all 30 acres for $3,000. Later a portion of the farm was re-sold for $1,000 an acre to the road commission for park purposes. After my grandfather died we moved back to Maple avenue in 1910.

"I remember that one day our clock stopped and I had to walk across fields to the nearest house on Mill street to find out what time it was. At the Bessel farm (Hughes now), Mrs. Bessel told me to tell my folks the time I left her house and allow 10 minutes for me to get home and then set the clock a half hour ahead of her time. We were on Central time, she was on Sun time, which was a half hour slower."

Her Two Burdens

Grandma was giving the new bride a heart-to-heart talk. "Child, I hope your lot's going to be easier than mine," she said. "All my wedded days I've carried two burdens — pa an' the fire. Every time I turn to look at one, the other goes out."

Room for Special Children Given Welcome Gifts

Parents whose children are enrolled in the Special Education Room at Gallimore Elementary school held a room warming and welcoming party last Thursday night at which gifts for the group were presented.

The room is for the education of children who need special instruction according to their individual needs. It is the result of a project started last summer at Starkweather school. Because of the lack of classroom space, the class was held in the Southern Baptist church whose cooperation made the first semester possible.

Now that Gallimore school has been opened, a room has been turned over to the class.

A committee from the Mayflower Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, appeared at the parent group meeting last week to present the room with a new four-speed record player, children's records, games, toys and aids for the teachers. Parents also contributed many games and records.

The principal, Earl Gibson, the teacher, Mrs. Mary Bender, and her assistant, Miss Marilyn Fry, were present to receive the gifts.

The group expressed its appreciation for the interest of the VFW and their Auxiliary. Vice-Commander John Schwartz made the presentation and invited the group to make known further needs.

Gov. Williams To Give Talk

Women in the 17th District Congressional District, of all political affiliations, are invited to attend the Democratic Women's Day conference Saturday, March 16 at the Downtown YWCA, 2250 Witherell. Registration will be at 9 a.m. followed by legislative conferences on education, highways, mental health and the aged. There will also be a question and answer session on "How do we help the Governor accomplish his legislative program?" Special guests will be Judge Talbot Smith of the State Supreme court and Governor G. Mennen Williams, who will give the keynote address at 10 a.m. Luncheon will be served at noon.

For further details call by March 14: General Chairman Mrs. David A. Finnegan, KE. 3-0592; Promotion Chairman, Mrs. Harvey Coon, KE. 1-0555; Invitations Chairman Mrs. Herbert Egges, VE. 5-4518; or Publicity Chairman Mrs. Richard Waskin, KE. 5-5379.

'First Aid for Family' Discussed at Meeting

"First aid for the family" was discussed at the last meeting of the Warren Extension group, followed by a social hour and exchange of valentines.

Hostess Mrs. Edward Bassett served lunch.

The next lesson, at 8 p.m. Monday in the home of Mrs. Fred Korte, Jr., will deal with "Line and Design in Dress."

Six From Here Attend Workshop in Flint

One hundred and fifty representatives from 35 Michigan communities, including six people from Plymouth, attended a Workshop in Community Education last Thursday, Friday and Saturday at Flint.

Sponsored by the State Department of Public Instruction, the Flint Board of Education and the Mott Foundation, the workshop dealt with the question of how the schools can improve community life.

Representing Plymouth were Harold Fischer and Mrs. Esther Hulsing of the board of education; Superintendent Russell Isbister; and William Lyons, School Community Planning Group. Robert Wall of Plymouth, public relations director of the Wayne County Board of Education, and his wife also attended.

Flint was selected as an outstanding example of how the school program is improving the quality of both education and community life. Interest and participation at the neighborhood level are helping a highly industrialized community to identify and solve school and community problems on a self-help basis.

Specialists Develop New Food Categories

Tired of planning three meals a day on the same old pattern? Then, try a new daily food plan, suggest foods specialists.

The plan stresses four major food groups. By choosing the recommended number and size of servings from the four groups, you can provide at least three-fourths of the daily allowance of essential food nutrients for the average adult. But, the plan provides only a little over half the needed calories. By wisely selecting supplemental foods and servings to round out the skeleton diet, you can provide your family with their daily food essentials.

The milk group (group one) is counted on primarily for calcium. Some milk or cheese or ice cream is needed daily—two or more cups of milk for adults and larger amounts for children and pregnant and nursing women. Milk also provides protein, riboflavin, vitamin A and vitamin D. In the second group, the chief protein source, is included two or more servings a day of meat, poultry, fish or eggs with dry beans and peas and nuts as alternates. These give about half the day's protein requirements; the rest comes from milk, bread and cereals.

Vegetables and fruits comprise group three. The four or more servings a day everyone needs should include: a vitamin A-rich, dark green or deep yellow vegetable at least every other day; a citrus fruit or other fruit or vegetable important for vitamin C daily; and other fruits and vegetables, including potatoes.

One need not alternate between citrus fruits and tomatoes to supply vitamin C; sweet peppers, cantaloupe, broccoli, strawberries and many of the dark-green, leafy vegetables can be substituted.

Chicken Fricassee, Dumplings Makes Delicious Family Dinner

For a cheery dinner at this stage of winter, serve the family chicken fricassee with dumplings. It's an old-fashioned dish but an ever-modern favorite with hungry appetites. Stewing chicken is more meaty and flavorful today than in bygone days takes much less time to prepare, and is very inexpensive.

Here are directions for making six to eight servings: Simmer one four and a half to five pound (ready-to-cook weight), cut-up stewing chicken with three teaspoons of salt, one medium onion, a tip of bay leaf and four cups of water until fork tender. It will take about two and a half hours.

Remove chicken from broth. Strain broth. Spoon fat from surface of broth and save for other cooking needs. Measure broth and if necessary add enough water to make three cups. Heat to a simmer.

To prepare gravy, blend one-third cup of the chicken fat, one-half cup of flour and one cup of milk until free of lumps. Pour slowly into simmering broth, stirring constantly until thickened throughout. Cover and simmer about five minutes.

Overloading, Overdrying Costs Time, Energy, Money

Overloading your automatic washer gives poor washing results and is hard on the motor. You'll get better results with a pound or two less than the capacity which the manufacturer lists. The clothes should move freely through the water, so mix small and large pieces and not more than two sheets to a load.

Overdrying in your automatic clothes dryer makes clothes wrinkled and harsh. You don't have to sprinkle if you damp-dry your clothes. Save time, energy and electricity by removing clothes while slightly damp.

Place chicken in gravy and heat thoroughly. Season to taste. Make the dumplings from your own favorite recipe or one found in any cook book, or simply use biscuit mix, following package directions. Garnish the dumplings with parsley. Serve steaming hot for a delicious main dish.

In Choosing Toys Parents Ignore Child's Interests

"Why did we buy that toy? We paid a big price for that toy and our little boy takes no interest at all—we are so disgusted!" Did you ever hear anything like that? It happens in hundreds of homes. Do you wonder why?

We adults buy the toys which appeal to us, toys which look cute or gay or funny. This means that we are thinking of toys as something which amuse a child as they amuse us.

To a child, play is serious business! It is his open door to exploring a bigger world. A child loves his play because it is hard. Toys which do not present a problem to him are a bore. He longs to do something more difficult in his play, each day to become more like the older members of his family.

A mother feels cheated when her child passes right by the expensive, gay blocks and cries for old pots and pans to play with. The bewildered mother begins to wonder if her child may be just a little abnormal. But the child is really trying to imitate his mother. He is fascinated as he watches her work with pots and pans.

Select toys which give the child something to do, such as modeling clay, finger paint and paint. Locomotive toys, puzzles, dolls, house-keeping utensils and blocks, especially nested blocks, are good. But nursery schools have proved that nested cans (with smooth edges) are just as appealing and they make a wonderful noise, too!

What happens to outgrown toys? If you hear a parent say, "Why does she need more toys?" she already has a boxful," that parent isn't thinking, at the moment. Children outgrow toys just as they outgrow shoes. Children are bored if they are expected to play with two-year old toys when they are five.

Give outgrown toys a second life. For example, a child's blackboard fastened to a kitchen door through the water, is most convenient for jotting down items for food shopping or any other day-to-day reminders. An outgrown coaster-wagon or sled can save packing heavy baskets of clothes back and forth to the clothes line. A toy broom is handy to use with a dustpan, or for brushing snowy overshoes at the doorway or ashes at the hearth. Children's cooking sets often include small pans or molds of just the right size for individual servings, on an invalid's tray, for example. Crayons are worth keeping handy for labeling boxes.

Keep Records Safe, Secure In Best Place

Running a family these days seems to involve an awful lot of record-keeping. And no one knows this better than the housewife, because this chore is falling more and more on her shoulders. But if she's smart, she'll make it easy for herself by developing a simple but efficient system of storing and filing family papers.

Naturally, it's safest and easiest to keep all your important papers in a safe-deposit vault in your bank. But since the space in these boxes is limited, it's advisable to use your bank vault only for those important records that are difficult or impossible to replace, or have a cash value, such as your marriage license, birth certificates, titles to home and car, insurance policies or military records of husband or son.

There are other documents, however, that you may want to keep more handy. Health certificates and cemetery deeds are sometimes needed in a hurry, and bankbooks, installment contracts, guarantees and instruction booklets for home appliances also should be kept at hand for ready reference. It's a good idea to keep these papers right in your home in a strong box that you can buy at any office supply store.

In addition, of course, there are such papers as sales slips, receipts, cancelled checks and others that you don't expect to keep very long. Simply file these neatly in a desk drawer, preferably in manila folders.

It's important to start a record book listing all your important documents, so you'll know just where they're stored. It only takes a few minutes once you've decided where to put what.

Hats Take on New Silhouettes

It's not a case of "what's to be will be" when it comes to buying Milady's spring bonnet. There are some rather definite shapes and fabrics in the hat fashion news, and they can be pinned down into seven basic silhouettes.

Spring hats, in general, are small to moderate size with deep or high crowns. Here are the seven basic silhouettes:

1. The roller is just what it says—a softly rounded crown with a symmetrical brim rolled up all around.

2. The soft crown hat also explains itself and is being shown in crushed shapes using straws and fabrics.

3. The casual cloche is a close fitting, helmet-shaped hat with a deep crown, with or without a brim. This spring, side detail such as flowers, ribbons and beads, is found low on the crown accenting the brim.

4. The upturned profile hat frames the facial contour with an upward brim.

5. The traditional sailor has a shallow crown and a straight flat brim. Worn flat on the top of the head, this hat will appear with lots of ribbon trim this spring.

6. The turban, not too easy to wear, is a softly draped fabric or straw close-fitting hat. It's popular this spring, because it carries through the softness of the dress silhouette in the spring fashions.

7. The Breton, a sailor with an upturned brim, is seen this spring in fluted soufflé straw.

Hats can be selected to fit your own facial contours. For instance, if you're one of the lucky ones with an oval face, almost any version of hat shape or style will suit you, according to your own preferences and the occasion.

... sculptured shell cap

hat with height and a gently irregular outline, softly draped trimming or a bouffant crown. Avoid sailors or too frilly hats which make your face stern. You can wear one of the new over-size crowns.

With an oblong face contour, you will want to widen and soften your face by selecting a mushroom brim hat with a full-blown look. Avoid the wide 'silver' hat which will make your face seem too thin.

For a heart-shaped face, a deep-on-the-brow hat is a good choice, if you have a care that your hat is not too heavy in appearance or fitted so low on the cheekbones that your chin seems to disappear. The 'fisherman' brim hat flares out low behind the ears is wonderfully flattering for you.

Widen the narrow brow and minimize the strong jaw-line of your triangle-shaped face by choosing a hat that sits on the back of the hairline and has width across the temples. New styles which are good for you are the strutting-across brims, the up-curving Bretons, and turbans draped low and wide.

You have to do a great deal of reading and some thinking to discover the truth about anything.

Borrowing for Remodeling May Be Easier than for Building New Home

If you're caught in the squeeze between a growing family and the tight money market for building, don't abandon hope but consider giving up building plans in favor of remodeling.

People already on the way to owning their homes—even outmoded, outgrown dwellings—sometimes find it possible to borrow money for expansion or improvement from the same lenders who are reluctant to finance new construction.

The most conservative lender often will loosen the purse strings more readily for remodeling than for new construction. Apparently he feels safer in loaning to someone who has built up a substantial equity in a piece of property. Home-improvement loans often are available on a short-term basis and under most conditions are eligible for insurance by government agencies. Projects likely to win approval of such loans include:

1. Bathroom. Often the area needing improvement most urgently, because it's the most heavily used room. Antique plumbing fixtures could be replaced, a stall shower added or an additional bath created.

2. Kitchen. Another spot where constant use causes conspicuous wear and tear. The host of new appliances now available can overtax kitchens with inadequate electrical capacity. When new counter cooking units are installed, be sure the adjoining work surfaces are covered with a material which will hold hot utensils without scorching.

3. Basement. Typical improvement projects here include measures for dealing with moisture seepage through walls or floor or steps for finishing a utility room to serve as a family recreation center during the winter months.

4. Garage. If the family has acquired a second car since the garage or carport was built, the new buggy will require shelter.

HERE'S HOW . . .

MAKE A MAGAZINE WALL RACK

A wall rack is a handy and decorative way to keep and display magazines.

The project is made of 1 by 3 and 1 by 6-inch lumber. The sides, made of 1 by 3's, are 40 inches long. Round the top front edge as shown. The shelves, also made of 1 by 3-inch lumber, are 34 1/2 inches long. Use 1/2 by 1-inch strips to keep the magazines upright. If the 1/2 by 1-inch strips are not available, use finished lath or rip them from lumber 1 inch thick. The back is a piece of

1/2-inch hardwood plywood. Mark the location of the shelves on the sides. Assemble the project. Use glue and 6-penny finishing nails. Attach the back using glue and No. 16 brads 1/2 inches long. Use glue and 4-penny finishing nails to attach the 1-inch strips.

Round all sharp edges. Set all nails and fill the holes with wood putty.

To hang the rack, attach through the wall to the studs. Use 1 1/2-inch screws through the plywood back.

Air Conditioning, Heating Improved By Louver Doors

Installing louver doors between rooms and on closets is an idea worth some serious consideration, whether you are building a house, remodeling or simply redecorating inside.

Louver doors, with their tilted slats, offer at least three special advantages to home-owners:
1. Air conditioning is more efficient with louver doors of ponderosa pine, since the cooled air circulates more readily from room to room. Temperatures are more even. The same advantage holds true with winter heating.
2. The "textured" appearance of the louvers adds interest to any decorating scheme, giving it warmth and charm. The clear ponderosa pine can be painted or stained to fit in with traditional, modern, or contemporary interiors.
3. The tilted slats, which shut off light but let air circulate freely, are a boon to closets and storage areas. The movement of air prevents musty odors and deters moths.

Louver doors of ponderosa pine are available from building materials dealers in standard styles.

MILLIONS DEBT-FREE
Thirty million U.S. families are free of installment debt, reports the National Foundation for Consumer Credit, while an estimated 24,000,000 families have installment obligations averaging $500 per family, mostly for automobiles.

LEADING COLORS LISTED
Leading a list of 14 favorite colors for home decorating are pastel yellows, corals, aquas, blues and wood tones, according to a California pigment manufacturer.

HOW BETTER could you show off choice bric-a-brac than with a shelved shadow-box window? This one, from a home in Orono, Me., is backed with patterned glass. The Flutex pattern casts shimmering shadows behind the objets d'art to add glamour to the pieces, and lets in daylight to an otherwise dark corner.

20 Years of Wear in 10 Months

Scientists at the National Bureau of Standards have subjected asphalt roofing to 20 years of harsh "weathering" in little more than ten months. The tests were made in a device called an "accelerated durability" machine, which poured concentrated light, heat, and "rain" on the shingles to test their durability.

The machine—one of a number used by the scientists in their constant search to find better materials to make better homes—is a large rotating drum. The roofing material was attached to the inner sides of the drum, which was then rotated constantly through 22 hour-long cycles a day. Each cycle consisted of 51 minutes of ultraviolet light for heat and "sunlight" and nine minutes of light accompanied by a cold-water spray of "rain."

After tests ranging up to 300 days, the research team made their data available to roofing manufacturers for use in maintaining the high quality of asphalt shingles and roll roofing.

Central Cooling This Summer? Then Act Now

If you're thinking about whole-house air conditioning for this summer, the time to contact your dealer is right now, advises the Gas Appliance Manufacturers Association.

GAMA points out that there are many aspects of a central air conditioning job that can be handled even while the heating system is in full use. Such scheduling will be imperative in view of increased demand, it is stated, despite the fact that many plumbing and heating dealers have been expanding their staffs to meet this new need.

Planning of the new system, some ductwork and certain electrical work are among the phases that can be handled during cold weather. From the financing standpoint, too, it's desirable to avoid any last-minute rush.

Forced warm air systems using gas furnaces are particularly adaptable to addition of central cooling, GAMA reports, and manufacturers have conducted extensive dealer training programs in this field. Water chilling units are made for use with hot water heat systems.

New models of year-round home air conditioners using gas for both heating and cooling are on the market. They include advancements in design and performance and have been made more compact.

3-Grain Water Needs Softening

What is the point at which water hardness becomes a problem for the average family?

When water tests 3 grains hard or more, it is troublesome in housekeeping and needs to be softened, according to The Water Conditioning Foundation.

As a matter of fact, any trace of hardness in the water supply is a threat to appearance of the wash, the Foundation emphasizes. Soap curd forms in hard water. Soil removed in washing is picked up by the curd and redeposited on washed articles. Sheets, towels and pillow cases dry with a dingy, grayish cast instead of white and fresh-looking.

Hard rinse water can cause soap scum to form just as fast as hard wash water. The reaction occurs when the rinse water combines with soap remaining in clothes at the end of the wash cycle.

That's why commercial laundries soften water of three grains hardness or more—to have a plentiful supply for both washing and rinsing clothes. The arrangement is equally desirable in the home. Home water softeners may be bought outright, or rented by the month from a soft water service operator.

Remove Wax To Brighten Floor

A complete refinishing is not always necessary when limited areas of floors become dingy. Often the dinginess is caused by dirt imbedded in the wax. The floor boards may be in good shape.

In this case, the wax and dirt can be removed by a petroleum base solvent. A fresh coat of wax will be needed after cleaning.

BUILDING and REMODELING NEWS FOR EVERY HOME

How-to-Do-It Insulate Like a Professional

Insulating a house is one of the few major home improvement projects which can be considered a "do-it-yourself" job.

This is because mineral wool batts and blankets are designed specifically for simple installation with only a few ordinary tools.

Here are some suggestions to make the job tight and effective.

1. Buy insulation that is at least 3 inches thick. The thicker it is, the more comfortable you'll be and the more fuel you'll save.
2. Use the sharpest knife you can find to cut the batts and blankets for odd-sized spaces. Mineral wool is easy to cut, but a sharp blade speeds the job and makes it more accurate. Always cut along a straight edge, such as a piece of board.
3. Measure spaces carefully, then cut the insulation slightly larger than the space to be filled so that the insulation can be wedged in tightly. Keep in mind that any openings around the edges or small, unfilled spaces will let heat escape like air from a punctured tire.
4. When you cut a piece that is to be butted against part of the house framing, leave a flange of vapor barrier at the top and bottom of the piece so that the ends can be stapled down.
5. Use a staple gun. It's faster than a hammer and tacks and you'll have one hand free to hold the insulation in place.
6. Install the batts or blankets with the vapor barrier toward the side of the house that is heated in winter.

Mineral wool blankets are ideal for insulating between joists of attic floor. They're laid in place with vapor barrier down.

Home-owner uses staple gun to fasten side flanges of mineral wool insulation batt to studs.

Staple the side flanges to the studs on both sides, and the end flanges to the wood framing members at the top and bottom of the wall. Space staples 6 inches apart.

News from Rosedale Gardens

Civic Club's Travel Dance Prize is Expense - Paid Trip to Plymouth

Bruce Wiegand, 11026 Cranston, celebrated his 10th birthday February 14. He had a train cake with each car frosted and decorated differently. Guests at the party were Sandy and Jack Davis, Roger Core, Riekey Piffer, Fred Andrews, Jimmy Ahorns and Toddie Kendall.

Let's not forget that tonight is the Fashion Show put on by the Woman's Club with fashions from Saks Fifth Avenue. This show will be at Whitman Junior High at 8:00 P.M. and will be followed by a tea. All the proceeds are going to Muscular Dystrophy and Cystic Fibrosis, two most needed charities that do not come under the United Fund.

The monthly dance at Rosedale Gardens Civic Association clubhouse on Saturday, February 23, turned out to be quite a gay affair. The theme was travel, and Angie and Bob Scott and their committee, Ginny and Chuck Gamber, Vera and Bob Lorian, and Betty and Joe Talbot all worked real hard to make this dance different.

Liz and Bob Page of Berwick Avenue won the door prize, proving that "those who come firstest" don't always get the mostest, because they went to the show in Plymouth first, and didn't arrive until about a half hour before the names were drawn! Prize was a "holiday" for two, including travel (to Plymouth!), entertainment (two tickets to the movie there), food (slips entitling them to hamburgers and two cups of coffee at a Livonia eatery), and cash for baby sitting fees.

See, I warned you not to expect a Paris! Local VIP's present at the dance included Mayor and Mrs. William Brashear, Mr. and Mrs. William Ponder and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Ventura.

Sad news from the Brockman home on Shadyside: Nine year old Linda had to spend a week in the hospital where her illness was diagnosed as rheumatic fever and she will be taught by a home-bound teacher for a while until she recovers. Be a good girl, Linda, and do what the doctor says to get well!

Hal and Dicky Summerlee, W. Chicago, had their tonsils out Thursday, February 21st, but from mthe noise coming from their end of the line when I talked to their mother, they made an awfully quick recovery!

The Rosedale Gardens branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association would like to extend a cordial invitation to all gardeners and would-be gardeners in and around this section to its March 12th meeting at the clubhouse at 9611 Hubbard avenue at 1:00 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Louis R. Von Stein of Plymouth and her subject will be "Shrubs—Blooms from Spring 'til Fall" and promises to be very educational.

Here is a good chance for all you new home-owners to get a lot of free information on what to plant from people who really know! Mrs. Ed Blankenhagen will be the chairman and Mrs. Ralph Dunleavy will be tea hostess. Do come!

The Mills of Mayfield avenue returned from a flying trip to Washington Thursday, February 21, where they attended a N. E. S. A. convention. Sandra Mills, by the way, has the chicken pox.

Four gals got together Wednesday, February 27, for a luncheon party at the home of Gerri Casler, Louisiana avenue, to celebrate the adoption of a baby by Alice Byers of Dearborn, Marion Stenning and Anita Griffith made up the rest of the foursome.

The Henry Quicks, Vermont avenue, are anxiously awaiting the arrival of their son, Jim Conway, who they are expecting home on leave from Germany any minute. Jim has been in Germany for about a year and has a 30 day leave, after which he expects to go back to the training base in Kentucky.

Craig Allen of Farmington Road has been sick with the flu.

If you have occasion to phone Brigetta Cook, don't worry about making her hobble around on her broken ankle to answer, because she has a 25-foot extension cord on her phone so she can receive calls on the couch!

Hear that Marge Boss has finally got the cast off her broken arm, and sure hope its so!

The Petersons of Cranston avenue along with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kinner of Berwick avenue went to see "Fanny" Tuesday evening, February 26th and then were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Wilcox of Grosse Isle at the Danish-American Sportsmans Club.

Anita Griffith's mother, Mrs. Nelson of Chicago visited her from the 22nd to the 24th of February. Friday afternoon, the 22nd Anita had neighbors Beth Theide, Gerri Casler, and Gladys Wendt in to meet her.

The Girl Scout cookie sale starts March 7th, so save your money for the best and buy them from the girls. Buy several boxes, because they keep very well, and you'll always have a snack handy for unexpected guests that way.

Dorothea and Fred Smith and daughter Darby Ann of Virginia avenue attended a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Stutsman, Detroit, Saturday night, February 23rd.

Have a real do-it-yourselfer over here on Vermont avenue! Betty Dana decided she didn't like the lines of the back of her davenport about 4 p.m. last week, and by 5:30 p.m. she had it torn apart, remodeled, and back together again!

Kathy and Don Brondyke and son Jimmy of Redford Township were guests at the Pomroy's Sunday evening, February 24.

Lucille McNulty, Irene Townsend and Jean Gizowski attended a card party at St.-Raphael's church in Garden City February 26th. I don't suppose this should qualify as news, but Jean did it again! Won the table prize, that is.

Kathy and Bob Luca of Boston, who are on their honeymoon, arrived at the Travis Hearons on Vermont Saturday, February 23rd. Kathy is Travis' sister.

Marge and Chuck Jackson formerly of W. Chicago avenue, have moved to Washington state.

The Mills, Mayfield avenue, entertained Doug and Joan Mills, Al and Dee Mills, George and Judy Luibrand and Dave and Jenny Gardner Saturday night, March 2nd before the couples departed for the St. Michael's Mardi Gras Ball at the Western Golf and Country Club.

The Ruth Group of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church met at the home of Millie Hancock on Cranston avenue Tuesday evening, February 26th. Those attending were Rose Gibson, Marlene Allen, Winnie Byl, Frances Kesler and Betty Eisey. This group will meet the last Tuesday of each month from now on.

Heard that Lucille McNulty, Ingram avenue, couldn't find Freddy one morning, and with good reason; he was stuck in the mud! (now don't anyone in Rosedale Gardens look me straight in the eye and say, "What mud?"). Anyway, seems that Freddy had to leave his boot there, and Lucille had to get a shovel and dig it out.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Francis, Berwick avenue, have returned from a 3 week stay in Florida.

Betty Johnston, Vermont avenue, got a very belated Christmas present last week. Jean Gizowski went over to get a gift box from Betty to do up a present for somebody, and Betty let her take her pick of her accumulation of boxes. Jean got it home and started to remove some tissue from the bottom and hold and below! If there wasn't a lovely Christmas slip wrapped therein that had been overlooked in the holiday hassle.

Dr. and Mrs. Brooker returned last week from a stay in Florida.

Well, that's just about all I'm going to be able to report this week, as I typed so hard in the past few weeks that I jarred some parts loose from the machine, and it is now being held together by scotch tape, and not any too well, at that.

Plenty of hot water with DETROIT EDISON'S

NEW ELECTRIC

WATER-HEATING SERVICE

Bath time is fun time with lots of hot water

1957 electric water heaters, built to Edison's rigid specifications, give you all the hot water you want!

Now Detroit Edison has joined with leading electric water heater manufacturers to bring you the most advanced electric water heating method at down-to-earth cost. With Edison's new Super-Supply Plan you get much more hot water than ever before for only pennies a day. No waiting for water to heat. No hot water shortages.

How Does It Work?
New 1957 electric water heaters are built to give you large quantities of piping hot water automatically. Each tank has two elements—one near the top, one near the bottom—with greatly increased watt-ages. In fact, because they are designed to supply hotter water faster, you can get more than twice the supply from the same size tank. And operation is, of course, completely automatic.

Why Buy an Electric Water Heater?
Electric water heaters are the safest water heaters ever built. And these new models offer other advantages, too. There's no soot to clog heaters. No flues to limit where the heater must be installed. Put your new electric water heater where you want it, even in the kitchen or utility room. There's no flame to worry about. No odor from fumes. And insulation makes them cool, and they're noiseless. You can put your confidence in an electric heater built to Edison's rigid specifications for years of trouble-free operation. With an electric water heater you have another job done better, electrically.

What is Edison's Super-Supply Plan?
To make these 1957 electric water heaters more economical, Edison is offering a new plan. The new Super-Supply Plan provides much more hot water than ever before, at a surprisingly low flat-rate charge. This means you have plenty of hot, hot water on tap all of the time to meet all of your family's needs.

Post Office Urges Zone Number Use

Postmaster George Timpona today urged all Plymouth area mailers to use postal zone numbers when writing to individuals or firms in large cities.

"Nation-wide experience of the Post Office Department shows," Postmaster Timpona said, "that some types of mailings gain as much as 8 or 10 hours by using zone numbers, because zoned mail can be sorted more quickly. When you use the Postal Delivery Zone System you reduce the number of times your mail is handled and thereby expedite its delivery."

Timpona pointed out that the delivery zone system has been in use in this country since 1943 and has proved itself by many years of service. "One hundred and six major cities over the nation are zoned for delivery," the postmaster explained, "and these 106 cities handle about half the nation's annual mail load of 58 billion pieces."

Postmaster Timpona recommends the following specific steps for the benefit of local mailers:

TIPS for TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

If you're an upperclassman and wondering what to do after graduation from high school, this girl's letter might give you a clue:

"Dear Miss Williams: I am 16 and a junior at a technical high school. My major subject is cosmetology. Do you think I should get a job after graduation (in a beauty salon) or go to another school and learn more than at high school? Or do you think I'll get all the knowledge I need at high school? Maybe you can help me decide."

Ans.—It's always a good idea to get all the education and training that you can before job-hunting.

So if you're able to finance more study in cosmetology for a year or so after high school, it will doubtless pay off in a better job and a higher salary afterward.

Why not get expert opinion and advice on this by making an appointment (by telephone) with the manager of one of the best beauty salons in your city?

If you're able financially to get more training after high school, and if the manager thinks it will be beneficial to do so, ask him or her exactly what courses and which school will give you the best preparation for the kind of job you want. He—or she—will be glad to advise you . . . and you'll save time and money by heading in the right direction after high school . . . Maybe you'll also make a contact that will be helpful in getting a job, too. Best luck!

Disabled Neglect Social Security

Harry Baltuck, manager of the Detroit-Northwest social security office, announced today that many disabled workers have not filed for their protection under the Social Security Law.

For many disabled people, failure to file an application at the social security district offices before the end of June will mean the loss of their social security disability protection. For some it will also mean the loss of their rights to any old-age and survivors insurance benefits for themselves and their families in the future.

Baltuck said, "an estimated 700,000 severely disabled men and women in the country have worked long enough under social security to be eligible to have their social security records frozen under a 1954 provision in the law. This disability freeze protects the social security benefits due him in the future or payable to his family in case of his death. Of the 700,000, about 400,000 people—those between 50 and 65 years of age—are eligible for monthly disability insurance benefits beginning with July 1957."

Although social security district offices have been accepting applications from disabled workers since January 1, 1955, Baltuck reports that many of those eligible have not yet applied. Any worker whose disability began in 1956 or earlier, should apply to have his earnings record frozen before July 1957. An application filed in July 1957 or later will be effective to freeze the earnings record back only for one year.

A disabled person must meet certain work requirements at the beginning of his period of disability. He must have social security credits for at least 5 out of the 10 years before he became disabled, and at least a year and a half of the credit must have been earned in the three years just before the period of disability began.

Disabled workers who have not inquired about their disability rights should complete and mail the coupon to the Detroit-Northwest social security district office, 18260 Grand River, Detroit 23.

Huge Problems Facing Defense, Reservists Told

Tremendous problems affecting the future defense of big industrial centers, and the United States as a whole, face Air Force planners and engineers, Col. G. H. Johnston, of Plymouth, told Air Force Reservists of the Plymouth-Northville-Livonia area Tuesday night.

Speaking at a meeting held in the Plymouth Veterans Memorial building, Col Johnston said aircraft builders are encountering such heat problems at speeds higher than are now common, that would disintegrate planes and destroy whole air fleets.

"Our engineers are now reaching toward speeds upwards of 1,900 miles per hour," he said, "with engines capable of producing as much as 500,000 horse-power—each equivalent to hundreds of railways diesel engines. But the problems are so great that an entirely new field of metals and techniques must be investigated."

Defense problems right now, he said, are so great that it is the firm belief of most Air Force authorities that no foreign bomber attack could be completely turned back.

"At least 400 planes in a flight of 1,000," he said, "would get through to their targets—such as the Detroit area. If only 75 of those remained effective after breakthrough, they could obliterate 25 industrial centers, knock out all our air bases, and kill 20 to 40 million people. One modern plane, you see, can carry explosives today equivalent to ALL the bombs dropped in Europe in World War II!"

The Let Down

For months he had been her devoted admirer. Now, at long last, he had collected up sufficient momentum of all questions.

"There are quite a lot of advantages in being a bachelor," he began, "but there comes a time when one longs for the companionship of another being—a being who will regard one as perfect, as an idol; whom one can treat as one's absolute property; who will be kind and faithful when times are hard; who will share one's joy and sorrows."

To his delight he saw a sympathetic gleam in her eyes. Then she nodded in agreement.

"So you're thinking of buying a dog," she said. "I think it's a fine idea. Do let me help you choose one."

Relaxing... Across America!

Behind them are the majestic mountain roadways of Southern California and the picturesque desert drive through Arizona.

And ahead lie the broad highways of Texas . . . the scenic roads that wind through Oklahoma and Missouri . . . and the great Midwestern turnpikes that lead to the Eastern Seaboard.

What's it like to spend the better part of a week in a 1957 Cadillac?

Well, first of all, there is the restfulness a Cadillac provides. The car is so incredibly smooth and quiet and comfortable that even the longest journey is an occasion for glorious relaxation.

And for the lucky gentleman in the driver's seat, there is the added reward of Cadillac's brilliant new performance.

In fact, the car is so nimble and eager, so responsive and alert that day's end will usually find them well beyond their morning's destination!

And then there will be the many other Cadillac virtues to enhance the pleasure of their journey . . . its vast areas of vision to give them the full panorama of America's great beauty and grandeur . . . its extraordinary safety and dependability to add to their contentment and peace of mind . . . and its remarkable operating economy to remind them how practical their odyssey is.

So there they are—seeing our wonderful land from the finest vantage point on the American road: through the windshield of a 1957 Cadillac!

Of course, you don't have to travel 3,000 miles in this newest "car of cars" to realize why its owners call it "the greatest of all Cadillacs".

The evidence is in our showroom now—and an hour at the wheel will tell you the whole story.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS... FROM THE PAGES OF THE MAIL

5 Years Ago

March 6, 1952

Mystery veils big Ford Fire.

A new addition to Plymouth's array of retail stores is celebrating its grand opening this week-end. Drapery Fair, located at 842 Penniman, is owned by Joseph A. and Irving Shane of Dearborn and will be managed locally by Fledra Wolff.

Plymouth has another leap year baby. Little miss Elizabeth Anne Donnelly was born Friday, February 29.

Miss Irene Waldorf, a teacher in the Plymouth schools, fell on Monday suffering a broken wrist.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Roberts and their children Ted, Joe, and Carolyn Sue and Mrs. Jerry Osier were the Saturday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Robert's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Schuchard of St. Clair Shores.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Merritt and daughter, Nancy, of Lilley road spent Sunday in Detroit and in the afternoon attended the Dog Show in the State Fair Coliseum.

Mr. and Mrs. John Chaney, Marlin and Gloria and Fred Pringle, Jr., attended the Ice

Revue at the Olympia in Detroit on Sunday afternoon.

Gae Ponto, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Ponto, celebrated her 12th birthday which falls on leap year with a treat for all the children in her class at the Lutheran Day school. Gae has really only had three birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Veresh and two children, who for a number of years have resided on North Mill street, moved into their newly built home on Clemons drive last weekend.

Formal opening this weekend for Kimbrough store. Mr. J. S. Wimsatt named head of Cancer Society; Carney moves optical office. Walter Ash buys partner's interest. Burley heads VFW again. English letter gives thanks for Plymouth gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Russell are leaving soon for Biloxi, Mississippi to spend a few weeks.

Dick Arlen, Gerald Parrish, Joan Town and Charles Arnold, members of the orchestra committee of the Plymouth J-Hop recently went to Detroit to hear Bill Gail and his orchestra.

D. S. Mills and son Hoyt, of South Main street spent last week at the National Builders exposition in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. John Ferguson and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth McLeod of Glasgow, Scotland were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brown of Sheridan avenue.

"Kades", the new store on Ann Arbor trail next to the A. & P. store, opened last week and Plymouth residents were glad to welcome I. E. Kade back to the city.

Doris Oldenburg, Ralph Dietrick and Caroline Goodale of Plymouth and Don Stevens of Northville attended the Skating Vanities at the Olympia in Detroit last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Schrader of Canton Center road were pleasantly surprised last Saturday evening when a number of friends and relatives honored them with a party in celebration of their twenty-fifth anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. George Billings entertained at a sleighing party last Friday evening. Those who enjoyed the sleigh ride were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Millross, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hess, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kegler, Mrs. Orville Dunstan, Mrs. Irene Cyr and Miss Marilyn McClumpha.

The Plymouth Mail has been endeavoring to secure facts for it's readers regarding becoming or not becoming a city. In this issue will be found a letter from James Lobban, city mayor of Pleasant Ridge and one from Mayor F. C. Hathaway of the city of Buchanan along with a letter from W. Marshall, mayor of South Lyon. Next week we will have more views for our readers.

On Friday afternoon in the Mayflower Hotel the Woman's club of Plymouth will celebrate it's 39th birthday.

In anticipation of Plymouth changing from a village to city form of government, and possibly necessitating another special election, 11 names have been placed on the ballot for a proposed charter commission. They are: Edward Hough, C. H. Bennett, Alice Safford, William J. Burrows, Edward Gayde, Perry Richwine, George A. Smith, Ruth Huston Whipple, Roger Vaughn, George Whitmore and Lina Durfee.

Back from Washington, D. C. where they attended the DeMolay ceremonies are four Plymouth youths, Ernest Henry, Leroy Segnitz, William Henry and Arden Connell. They also did plenty of sightseeing while in the Capital.

Sparks from the chimney of the Methodist church set fire to the roof of the parsonage Wednesday morning, causing some damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willoughby are the proud parents of a seven and one-half pound daughter born Saturday morning at Session's hospital. She has been named Margaret Jean. Both mother and daughter are doing fine.

Special this weekend at Wm. T. Pettigills: 10 bars Naptha soap for .25c; Hershey's cocoa, .05c per can; Shrimp 2 No. 1 cans for .29c; Pork and beans in tomato sauce 5 cans for .25c.

One of the most completely surprised persons in town last Saturday evening was Lawrence Johnson when he arrived at the Coella Hamilton home to find a host of his friends there to help him celebrate his 11th birthday. Mr. Johnson happens to be a "leap year" baby.

Miss Elizabeth Beyer, the Misses Dorothy and Elsie Melow and George Britcher were dinner guests Sunday of friends in Ypsilanti.

Mrs. William Sutherland entertained a group of ladies at luncheon Wednesday in her home on South Main street. Decorations were in the St. Patrick's day theme.

Miss Alice Gilbert of Plymouth, is a member of the University of Michigan's women's varsity team this semester. The group will meet the Northwestern University group on March 5 with Michigan taking the affirmative on the question: "Should India be granted immediate independence from Great Britain?"

A. J. Bennett of Stark has accepted a canvassing position with the Belvidere Carpet Stretcher and Tacker company.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Cole of Murray Corners were pleasantly surprised today by a big group of their friends on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary.

There was a small attendance at the primary at Elm Monday, only 41 voters being accounted for.

The surprise party given Mr. and Mrs. Will Beyer of Perrinsville last week was a great success.

An old landmark in Lapham's Corners—the old blacksmith shop—is being done away with by Mr. Johnson who purchased the property. He will convert it into a hog house.

Dr. Peck made his second annual report as health officer to the village of Plymouth council on Monday evening. In closing the doctor made the following statement: "I have yet to see the park beautified, drinking fountains installed, Main street paved or the village creeks tided but I hope that in years to come the village of Plymouth will be known as one of the cleanest anywhere."

The Woman's Literary club held their seventeenth anniversary meeting on March 1 at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John Patterson. In spite of bad weather 90 persons were in attendance. History of the Plymouth club was read by Mrs. Fraser and a solo rendered by Mrs. F. F. Bennett and Mrs. P. Voorhies accompanied by Mrs. S. O. Hudd.

I. N. Dickerson has purchased the former home of George VanDeCar on the North Side and expects to move his family there presently.

The value of a fire department within it's own factory and a supply of hand extinguishers was made very apparent last Tuesday morning in the Daisy shops when a fire broke out and for a time threatened to do great damage.

Paid adv. Do you think the Bank is a convenient place to pay your taxes? Yes? Then vote for C. S. Butterfield for your treasurer at the coming election.

Warren Lombard has accepted a position in the office of the Daisy Company.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Who Will Take a Cut?

Trimming Michigan's proposed budget is proving as difficult a task for lawmakers as finding new ways to raise additional funds.

As the state legislature works to cut costs from agency requests, legislators run into the same difficulty time and again: Every department is supported by one or more interest groups which present excellent reasons why "their" agency should receive more money, rather than less.

On the other hand, there are few organized groups which can provide equally strong reasons for making budget cuts.

Interest groups perform a vital service. They speak for groups of people who share a belief, earn their living the same way, or have a common need.

If you are a laborer, farmer, merchant or businessman, you belong to an interest group, or indirectly support one. If you are aged, a parent, a veteran, own a car, hunt, fish, live in a city, town or the country, you have an interest in common with others and are represented by an organized group.

A union speaks for labor. The farmer belongs to the Farm Bureau, the Grange or the Farmers Union. Merchants are represented by trade groups. Industry works through their own organization.

The list could go on almost indefinitely: Veterans' organizations, conservation clubs, social groups, Parent-Teacher Associations. All in all, there are some 300 legislative agents, or lobbyists, registered with the state of Michigan.

The cat is out of the bag that Michigan's bridge over the Straits of Mackinac is officially "The Mackinaw Bridge." According to the Bridge Authority which exercises the naming power, it has secretly been "The Mackinac Bridge" for three years. Any different name now would require changes on thousands of documents.

Many suggested names for the bridge carried political overtones. Republicans, at their state convention, resolved to suggest that it be named after the president. Democrats asked that Franklin D. Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman be honored.

"Vacationland Bridge," and "Hiawatha" were among the more poetic names suggested. Most observers agree that the name "The Mackinac Bridge" is probably best because it is already commonly used. They point out that 19 Michigan highways now carry memorial names that are virtually unknown.

For example: How many Michigan residents know what highway is named Arthur Vandenberg? The Clara Barton? Blue Star? Leif Erickson? (In order, these are US-16, US-25, US-31, and M-59.) The complete list is on every map printed by the Michigan State Highway Department.

A fourth state university was recognized as such last week when Western Michigan College became Western State University.

Nary a word of protest was uttered as the legislators gave the bill overwhelming support. This was a sharp and refreshing contrast to the struggle two years ago when Michigan State College became Michigan State University.

Before the ink was dry from the Governor's signature, the new name was already law and Michigan had four tax supported universities. The list now includes the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Michigan State University at East Lansing, Wayne State University at Detroit and Western Michigan University.

After expressing appreciation financially to some 206,000 veterans during the past two years, Michigan's Korean Bonus act expired at midnight, March 6, thereby closing the door on further applications.

Strange as it seems, almost one out of every 10 eligible veterans failed to file a bonus request, according to the State Adjutant General's office.

It's too late now, although operations at the office will continue until all claims presented through the March 6 deadline are approved or rejected.

When You Retire . . . Traveling Requires Full Plan

BY ROBERT PETERSON

ASK MOST ANYONE past 40 what he hopes to do in retirement, and chances are he'll start off by mentioning travel. Because travel ranks so high as a retirement pleasure a person is wise to set up a travel calendar for the years ahead.

Fortunately, travel is no longer a luxury. If you don't mind traveling by bus or car you can visit most of the great sights of this continent for little more than the price of a new refrigerator.

Why not sit down right now with a piece of paper and list the places you hope to see in your lifetime? Unless you make specific travel goals, both as to where you want to go and when, you may find yourself procrastinating until it's too late.

AT A RECENT GATHERING of some well-traveled senior citizens all present were asked to select a dozen places in North America they believed everyone should visit in their lifetime. The following places ranked highest:

- 1. Grand Canyon
2. Niagara Falls
3. New York City
4. Canadian Rockies
5. Eastern Canada
6. Yellowstone Park
7. San Francisco
8. Southern Florida
9. Washington, D. C.
10. A look at Mexico

If you haven't seen these sights and want to include them in your retirement travel calendar, why not jot them down right now? Later you can get a map and decide on routes that will assure you of seeing all the major attractions along the way both going and coming. If you plan to retire at 65, why not schedule a trip that year to the Grand Canyon? Then perhaps at 66 you'd like to schedule a trip to New York City. Perhaps at 67 you'd like to see Florida in the winter, and so on. There are three good reasons for planning your retirement travels now:

1. It'll encourage you to budget your funds so that when you retire you'll have the money. A trip to Mexico in retirement might seem beyond your means, but if you've planned the trip several years in advance and have made up your mind to go, it's a safe bet you'll have the necessary money when the time comes.

2. You'll look forward to retirement with greater zest and you'll experience the pleasures of anticipation—which may be fully as rewarding as the ultimate realization.

3. You can read in advance about the places you'll be visiting. That way you'll avoid missing sidetraps and details you might otherwise overlook. I'm still kicking myself on this score because when I visited Lake Louise last summer I didn't know about the Columbia Icefields just a couple of hours away. Everyone tells me I missed one of the great sights of the Canadian Rockies.

OF COURSE IT'S NEVER A good idea to delay all your travels until you retire. If a chance arises in earlier years to take a leisurely vacation and see some of the sights on your retirement travel calendar, go ahead. No matter how much traveling you do in earlier years, there will still be plenty of delightful places to include in your travel calendar when you eventually retire.

What's Your Question on World Affairs?

BY EDGAR ANSEL MOWRER

"Will you kindly tell me the amount of pension paid a retired five-star general, also his salary before retirement?" (M. Olsen, Portland, Ore.)

Five-star generals do not retire. They continue to receive their full salary consisting, including all perquisites, of $22,953.36 yearly.

D. R. Douglas of Dover, N. J., insists that in stating the amount of money owed the U.S. by Great Britain I overlooked a figure of 16 billion dollars. The U.S. Treasury knows of NO SUCH DEBT. A Treasury official points out, however, that the unpaid debts of all countries to the United States amount to about 16 billions, and suggests a confusion.

Many readers of this column are properly stirred by the Israeli-Arab issue and send me their comments, which, however interesting, I often have no space to print. Some of these are very pro-Israel, others violently anti-

What surprises me most is to find professed Christians taking an anti-Semitic tone. Racial prejudice and Christianity are incompatible.

I enjoy your answers to questions very much. Four years ago, Eisenhower campaigned to stabilize the dollar. Why didn't he put a stop to salary and wage increases? Was he afraid of organized labor? Why wait four years and then only request an end to rising prices?" (T.P.O., Alliance, Ohio)

All politicians today have a healthy respect for organized labor, even though some say there is no such thing as the "labor vote." Actually, Secretary Humphrey has done a fair job in slowing inflation. But you have to remember that some "modern" economists consider gradual inflation, which goes far to insure permanent employment, is a lesser evil than real stabilization with the possibility of unemployment. Moreover, the Republican Party is committed to a policy of noninterference with business. Actually businessmen like other citizens, generally favor inflation for themselves and stability for others. These may be some of the reasons why the Present has not done more to stabilize the dollar. But it is at best no easy job.

"Why do the Republicans dislike World War I vets so much? Why did the Democratic Administration always neglect World War I vets?" (Anonymous)

"What provisions, if any, are made for servicemen's debts when he is drafted, specifically a heavy mortgage which could not possibly be met on a service allotment? Can the mortgage company actually foreclose on the property or will the government step in?" (G. Henning, Trenton, N.J.)

These are a little off my beat, but here goes. World War I vets have not been neglected by either Administration. Congress has repeatedly refused to pass bills giving World War I vets general pensions. Presumably Congress represents the will of the American people. The compensation for non-service-connected disability is only $75 monthly, but everyone has ailments. Is the Government responsible for a citizen during his entire life simply because he did his duty as a young man?

The Soldiers and Sailors Relief Act is supposed to meet the needs of the individual draftee after he is in service. I suggest that Mr. Henning write to his local draft board as well as to Senator H. Alexander Smith, Senate Office Building, Washington and meanwhile put his case frankly before the mortgage company and ask for relief.

Send that one brief—yes, SHORT—question on world affairs to Edgar Ansel Mowrer in care of this newspaper.

The Case Against COMPULSORY AUTO INSURANCE
Some unpleasant facts from Massachusetts about its Compulsory Automobile Insurance Law:
Just 3 years ago the Massachusetts Insurance Commissioner, in announcing a rate revision, said: "The merit rating plan proposed by Governor Herter will represent a long stride toward ultimate financial relief for careful vehicle drivers under our Compulsory Insurance Law."
At that very instant an irate State Legislator was saying of the Governor's proposed plan: "These youths and their families will express their sentiments at the ballot boxes."
One Massachusetts Insurance Commissioner resigned rather than promulgate inadequate rates based on what he knew to be political expediency instead of actuarial facts.
On at least one occasion a Special Session of the Massachusetts Legislature convened to demand lower rates than those approved by the Insurance Department.
The climax in political manipulation involved the Massachusetts Governor who campaigned on a promise to reduce Compulsory rates. Good to his promise, he did effect a reduction—by reducing the scope of the law!
Eleven auto insurance companies were formed to capitalize on the state-created market. Only one has since escaped insolvency.
Twice as many bodily injury claims are filed in Boston as in any other large city of the nation.
Boston BI rates are 103% higher than the average of 10 other cities of comparable size.
Class 1 premium for 5/10 BI in Boston last year was $72.50. The same coverage in Detroit was $15.
Not a pretty picture, is it?
