

Valuation Hike May Alter School Ballot Proposal

Because it appears that the county and state will boost the valuation of real and personal property by a third in the Plymouth Community School District, the board of education voted Monday night to ask for approval of only three and one-half mills on the June 10 ballot proposition instead of four and one-half.

The reduction, however, will depend upon the final outcome of hearings at which the state "equalization" will come under fire by county tax officials.

The board learned from the county board of education office that the school tax rate during the next fiscal year will be based on a total valuation of $75,193,787. The valuation this fiscal year is $56,118,642. This represents an increase of nearly a third.

This increase has come about from two different sources. The county bureau of taxation first decided that valuations throughout the county were too low, so raised each city, village and township a certain percentage.

The state tax people also figure that valuation of real and personal property has been too low, but noted that the county increase was not enough. The state equalized increase for the school district was another 9.8 per cent. County tax officials are now said to be appealing the state proposal, but it is believed that the appeal will be lost, if past history is an indication.

In their discussion Monday night of the equalization factor and how it will increase the school district's income, the board decided that only three and a half mills would be needed on the proposal for operating expenses instead of four and a half.

This will not mean, however, that the millage rate of 21.95 will be cut. It had been planned to "transfer" two and a half mills from debt retirement into the operating millage while the other two mills would be a renewal of an expiring operating levy. If the board's new proposal becomes a reality, only one and a half mills would be dropped from the debt retirement.

The proposition will be on the ballot on Monday, June 10, along with a proposal to make the district a third class district. Four people seeking two school board seats will also be a ballot issue.

Lexington Councilmen Get Royal Treatment

Two Lexington, Michigan councilmen and their wives received the red carpet treatment Monday when they visited Plymouth as part of the Michigan Week Exchange of Mayors Day. And Plymouth's Mayor Harold Guenther was having a similar experience in Lexington.

Councilmen Vaughn McCarty and Norman Peterson were Lexington's delegation in place of Council President Floyd L. Turk whose wife is critically ill.

The councilmen had breakfast, lunch and dinner here with lots of activity squeezed in between. A tour of all city facilities, including the sanitary land fill site in Salem township and the water well field, took place during the morning. The afternoon found the visitors and their local hosts touring local industries.

Fire Chief Robert McAllister headed arrangements for the day while Mayor Pro-Tem Robert Sircock served as chief host. Plymouth's chairman for Michigan Week is Dr. J. M. Robinson.

Wives of the two visitors were also getting acquainted with the community by touring schools and other places with Mrs. McAllister and wives of commissioners as hostesses.

A number of local businessmen joined the party at a noon luncheon at the Hotel Mayflower. This included Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay, who with his wife also joined the evening dinner party at the hotel. A key to the city was presented the councilmen at the dinner. The visitors were taken to Northville Downs to complete their day.

Lexington is about 25 miles north of Port Huron and varies in population up to 600, according to the tourist influx.

Two other visiting mayors were in the city during the morning. The villages of South Lyon and Wayne brought their exchange mayors to the hotel for breakfast, apparently due to the lack of morning dining facilities in the two communities.

Western Electric Building Plans Approved by City

Construction plans for the Western Electric company's distributing house that will be built along Sheldon road were approved last Thursday night by the city planning commission.

Officials of the Detroit plant attended the meeting, including its new manager, Arnold D. Johanson. Bids for the building are now being inspected by Western Electric officials in New York City, and construction is expected to start in June, it was announced this week.

The building will be completed by December 1958. The structure will cover 420,000 square feet of floor space, more than twice the space now used at Western Electric's present plant on Oakman Boulevard.

About 700 Western Electric and 100 Michigan Bell employees will staff the new building. There will be parking space for 600 vehicles. The 36 acre site was cleared last winter on the west side of Sheldon road.

Over 80,000 items are shipped monthly from the Oakman plant, ranging in size and weight from a tiny fibre washer to lead covered cable on reels that weigh five tons. All storage area will be on the main floor while the second floor will contain offices, cafeteria, first aid rooms and a special air conditioned section for data processing.

Builder Show Opens Today In Livonia

Several thousand Plymouth residents are expected to join the tens of thousands of people at the Western Wayne County Builder's Show which opens a four-day run today at the Detroit Race Course, Schoolcraft and Middlebelt.

Rotarians from 19 clubs in Western Wayne county are sponsoring the exhibition. More than 140 booths have been erected under the grandstand to display various types of materials, designs, and plans for the construction and modernization of homes. Some 60 booths are being occupied by Plymouth merchants and industry.

The entire proceeds of the four-day affair will be turned over to the Crippled Children's Home fund, prize project of all Rotarians in the district. The building, rapidly nearing completion at the Michigan and Middlebelt site, is being erected at a cost of $150,000 of which $50,000 is needed to complete the financing.

Of the 19 area clubs, one of the most active is that from Plymouth. The 80-member organization has been one of the prime movers in the Home ever since the dream of years became a reality several years back.

In fact, the Plymouth club takes credit for raising the most money for the fund to date—turning more than $25,000 over to the committee and taking an active part in every step of the development.

Crippled Children's work has been a tradition with the Plymouth chapter, so much that members pledged $10,000 when Michigan's House of Representatives this week passed a $2,826,000 measure to start work on a vast new hospital for mentally-retarded children adjacent to the Wayne County Training School on the outskirts of Plymouth.

The measure goes today to the State Senate, and the chances of its success are favorable.

The land involved is 250 acres given to the state several months ago by Wayne county for a token payment of one dollar, with the understanding the hospital would be erected there. The institution would be known as the Plymouth State Home and Training School. When completed, it would have facilities for 2,500 children and a total cost upwards of $10,000,000.

It was considerably more than a routine operation when the backers blasted the $2,826,000 appropriation through the House Tuesday. The Legislature heretofore had sternly denied virtually every suggestion of a new capital expenditure as a part of the Republican-directed "hold the line on everything."

Rep. Sterling Eaton of Plymouth and three others—Rep. Harry Phillips (R), Rep. John Sobiewski (D), and Rep. Frank Williams (D)—combined to plead the case of the hospital.

Eaton summarized, "If the legislature is ready to take the policy that it is obligated to provide more money for college students, it certainly is equally as obligated to do something for our mentally retarded children by building this hospital in the Plymouth-Northville area."

The hospital is covered in a House amendment to another appropriation bill. The whole bill now must go back to the Senate and then to a House-Senate conference committee. In the Senate it has the solid backing of another Plymouth legislator, Sen. John Swainson, the Democrat leader there.

This first appropriation of $2,826,000 would serve to get the project underway, with more funds needed later. Of this first grant, however, $550,000 would go to start work on a power plant; $380,000 would be used to start providing utility facilities; $28,000 for driveways; $920,000 to begin an administration building; $750,000 to start erecting custodial buildings; $29,000 to have plans drawn for an infirmary; $91,200 for custodial building plans; $18,000 for laundry plans; $60,000 for plans for stores and food service facilities.

The site is on Phoenix road, extending west from Hines drive, and straddling Sheldon road.

Bida said that the "soupy sand" brought on by the heavy rains this month made it impossible to tunnel under the street. If it had been clay, tunneling would have been possible, Bida added.

As soon as weather permits, "probably next week" Bida added, an oil coating will be applied to all city unpaved streets. Motorists are being urged not to drive on newly-oiled streets where barricades are still up.

Symphony Society Closes Season With Pot-Luck Dinner, Program

Climaxing a successful season, Plymouth Symphony Society members convened for their annual all-member get-together and pot-luck dinner, followed by reports of progress in the past year.

Most pressing problem last spring had been to find an auditorium with good acoustics, yet large enough to accommodate growing attendances. At the meeting last Monday evening in the high school auditorium, officials reported the problem solved, with the completion of the orchestra shell used this spring.

Enthusiastic public response to the Pops Concert "exceeded the expectations" of Symphony society officials, and plans have been made to make this event an annual affair.

Special mention was given to retiring Symphony board members Mrs. Thomas T. Adams, vice president, Mrs. William Congdon, Robert O. Wesley and Carl Caplin. Upon the recommendation of this year's board and a unanimous vote of society members present, Mrs. Esther Franklin, Mrs. Starlin Edmonds, Carl Caplin and Dr. W. B. Covington were elected to fill the vacancies. Musical Director Wayne Dunlap, President Gerald Fischer and Women's Committee Chairman Mrs. Margaret Hough were also given special mention for outstanding contributions in the past year.

In keeping with the society's tradition of having somewhat unusual programs on this occasion, Conductor Dunlap arranged to have a talented University of Michigan sophomore, Larry Hurst, present a double bass solo, accompanied by U-M sophomore Mary Ann Crugher. Both are in the music school of the University. Hurst recently played for the first bass player of the Philadelphia orchestra, who was very complimentary on Hurst's performance.

With an eye on the future, emphasis at this meeting was on the society's next new project, the coming summer Music Festival to be held this summer at Plymouth Colony Farms, owned by Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Pino of Detroit.

Youngsters Leave Today for East

Forty-seven youngsters from the sixth grades at Starkweather school will be leaving at 6:30 a.m. this morning for a quick, deluxe trip to the East.

Arriving at Niagara Falls this afternoon, they eat at the Rainbow room, overlooking the falls, and will visit hydro-electric plants and Fort Niagara. Traveling by train to New York tonight, they'll arrive tomorrow morning with the day's visits planned for the Empire State building, Coney Island and the Radio City Music Hall, before ending up at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel for the night.

Saturday, the youngsters will take the Circle Line Tour around Manhattan Island and will visit the Hayden Planetarium. Leaving by train that night, the group will arrive in Detroit at 6:30 a.m. Sunday morning.

Group leaders are sixth grade teachers Bill Foster and Ben Platnik, assisted by Mrs. Garnet Stickney, Mr. and Mrs. John Rudlaff, Mrs. Dorothy Britcher, Mrs. Catherine Lamb, Mrs. Helen Clin-smith and Mrs. Marion Hinder-leider.

Youngsters earned their own money for the trip, through such projects as washing cars, selling school T-shirts, planning a bake sale and chicken dinner, selling Christmas candles and other odd jobs.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Luree Merillat, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Merillat of 1292 S. Main, to Ford Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wright of Lyons, Mich.

A graduate of Plymouth high school, Luree is a junior at the University of Michigan, majoring in English Honors. Ford, also a junior at the University of Michigan, is studying electrical engineering.

Board Asked to Explain Counselor Re-assignment

Fourteen people appeared at the board of education meeting Monday night to ask why the student counselor had been transferred to a teaching position next fall.

The group gave a favorable opinion of the counselor, Miss Ruth Butts, and stated that she should remain in her present position.

The board had previously decided to give Miss Butts a teaching position, they said, because she had been "frequently absent due to illness." They told the group that they were not in a position to discuss the re-assignment because Miss Butts herself had not asked for a hearing in the matter, an opportunity which is offered to all school personnel in such cases.

Merchants Gain First Win; Elks Suffer Heavy Defeat

Dad weather and a muddy field were not enough to stop the Plymouth Merchants from breaking the 1957 baseball season in with a smashing, one sided victory. The Merchants of the Inter-County League dropped the Redford Merchants 14-3 to inaugurate the new season.

Last year's ace pitcher, Eddie Hock, twirled the first six innings and got credit for the win. Hock was relieved by Richard Shepard, who finished out the last three innings. Redford garnered only six hits off the locals, while the Merchants were rolling up 18.

Jack Dobbs lead the attack as he collected four hits in five times to the plate. Jack had a triple, double, and two singles. Chuck Tomlinson had four for six. All four hits were singles. Norm Marley contributed a triple and a single.

Redford tossed three hurlers at the Plymouth team in an effort to subdue the locals hitting barrage but none were effective. The three pitchers were: Kenney, Clay, and Merglewski.

All action was brought to a screeching halt this past week when old man weather refused to co-operate. The Merchants will resume their drive for the league leadership next Sunday at Chelsea.

Plymouth's junior member of the inter-county league, the Plymouth Elks, met the powerful River Rouge team and the results were obvious. The locals were dealt a humiliating 18-1 defeat.

Most of River Rouge's runs were unearned. Ed Campbell, Dick Huebler, Paul Cummings, and Hank Bonga all collected one single, while teammate Butch added a double.

Petrocelli started Plymouth's mound duties and was relieved in the fourth inning by Hank Bonga. Fred Evans came on in the seventh and didn't allow a run to score for the remainder of the game.

Golfers Win Again

Four man, five man, six man,—nine hole or eighteen hole. Any way they play it the Plymouth varsity golf team comes up with another victory. Last week the local linksters took on Farmington in a five man-nine hole match. The results showed another triumph.

Skip Rambo paced the ten man test with a four over par 40. Being medalist is something that has eluded Skip all season, although he has provided much of Plymouth's powerful punch.

Staton Lorenz, returning to action, copped second place with a 42. Sophomore John Taylor captured a fourth place slot, while Tom Carmichael tied for fifth with a Farmington golfer. Plymouth's number five man, Gary Wilson, was high for the match at 55.

Farmington, besides taking third and a tie for fifth, placed seventh, eighth, and ninth.

The Rock's other matches last week were both wins. The first coming over Trenton. Tom Carmichael was medalist at 41, Kurt Atchison was second with 44, Trenton third with a 50, fourth with 55, and Bob Isbister and Trenton boy tied for fifth with 56. Don Carney's 59 earned him a seventh, with Trenton last at 65.

The locals downed Northville with Staton Lorenz and Tom Carmichael sharing medalist honors at 40. Skip Rambo stroked to a third with 42, and Kurt Atchison tied two Northville linksmen at 45 for fourth place. Northville's other players finished with 46 and 59.

That time of year is here again. Time when schools throughout the country are rehearsing for their final bid to the league championship. Plymouth is no different from the rest. Already the golf team has captured a league title, the baseball team is undefeated in nine games and has cinched the league trophy.

The tennis team has great expectations for next season and the track squad is planning to pull the outside chance every one has kindly consented to them.

Outside chance is the least that can be said for this years varsity runners. Mentor Keeth Baughman has watched some of the most sparkling talent he has had an opportunity to see since taking over coaching duties, and looks like he has it all in that they are all performing in the same year.

Besides the flashy running of senior Ron Markham in the dashes, coach Baughman has seen some surprise talent in the speed merchants department. Red headed Ron is trying to overcome a series of mishaps to put a challenge to Jerry Kelly's dash records. Ron was beaten just once this season—the opening meet against Redford Union. Ron would love to avenge that defeat and he will get his chance in the Suburban Six League meet to be held this week at Allen Park.

Otto Bufe, Dick Manion, and Jeff Yeoman will attempt to better their marks in the high and low hurdles. Otto ranks about fifth in the highs, while converted dash runner, Jeff Yeoman, holds down about fourth in the league with hopes of improvement.

Plymouth's captain, Dick "Rocky" Showers is undefeated in the 440 and there should be no doubts about his finish. Dick has been a spark plug to the team all season and I know Dick would like nothing better than to carry that trophy home from Allen Park. Dick Anderson and Ken Thomas, Rocky's running mates, should chase him around the track just fast enough to finish in the top five.

The Rock's mile running trio of Dave DeCoster, Tony Monte, and Billy Ruehr will have their work cut out for them as it looks like all the Suburban Six schools have come up with some notable distance runners. Both Dave and Tony have gone under the five minute mark, and freshman runner Ruehr has come awfully close.

Plymouth's medley relay team of Henry Mende, Dave Zimmer, Eddie LaRoache, and Denny Drews have been beaten only once, but if coaches around the league follow the regular pattern of strategy, there will be a lot of cramming in this event. In the league meet the relay event is worth twelve points and a double victory would set the winning team up with twenty four points. Cramming won't help the opposition out much in the 880 relay. This season's relay team is one of the fastest to run in Plymouth in a long time. The team of Jeff Yeoman, Dave Zimmer, Eddie LaRoache and Dick Showers has skirted the track fast enough so far this season to remain undefeated.

I was just reading that back in the early days of baseball the players could use any sort of bat they wanted. Up until 1880 most of the bats were square . . . and as big as a lad thought he could lift. The sound of a solid fence post laying into the ball must have made a delightful echo through the ball park.

However, in 1880, one of the brighter characters in the hit and run business drove a spike through his four-cornered club and managed to catch a pitch right on the point of the spike. He laid down a bunt that didn't even leave his bat. Before the catcher could pry the pellet off the bludgeon the bases were cleared and the game was in the bag. That brought in the modern standard bat . . . and not a moment too soon.

In a recent experiment, a baseball manufacturer tried to substitute chicken skin for horsehide as a cover for his baseballs. Trouble was, all the hits turned out to be fowl balls.

The local cynic says a woman's ideal man often turns out to be the one she turned down 20 years ago because he was too ordinary.

Some things have to be "ordinary" to be ideal. Take the package your druggist hands you after you've handed him your doctor's prescription. You don't want any "extras" inside . . . you want just what the doctor ordered. The "extras" are in the kindness and courtesy of the service you get—and the ease-of-mind you get by relying on qualified pharmacists . . .

JV Glovemen Squeeze By Belleville Nine, 2-1

The JV baseball team broke away from their regular format of slugfest baseball games, but the results were the same, another win to add to the record. A 2-1 victory over Trenton.

This time the locals had to be satisfied with one run and six hits. Effective pitching from Weirmiller helped the Rock's cause too. Weirmiller was given credit for the victory.

No one collected more than one hit, with Randy Egloff punching out a double in three times to the plate. Other hits, all singles, were made by Dave Mynatt, Jim Thomson, Dick Hubert, Runge and Herter.

Plymouth scored once in the fourth and once in the sixth to account for the locals two runs. The little Rocks now have a 7-2 record.

Captain Dick Showers kept his undefeated streak alive with a time of 54.3. Ken Thomas copped a third in the respectable time of 57.1. Dick participated in the state meet last week at East Lansing, but his time was not good enough for a position.

The Rock's lone sweep came in the 880 yard run with Charlie

Cindermen Look to League Meet Following One-Sided Victory

Another week, another event added to the string of firsts for the victory hungry Plymouth track team. Last week in a duel with Belleville, the cindermen met the locals grabbed twelve of thirteen possible firsts, with the lone loss coming in the weak shot put event.

Senior Ron Markham was again the only double winner as he captured firsts in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Ron's two firsts gave him a total of 10 points. Markham's time in the century was 10.7 while teammate Jeff Yeoman crossed the finish line at 10.8.

Dick Manion took a first in the 120 yard high hurdles for the first time this season as he hit the tape at 18.9. Jeff Yeoman picked up five points for his first place finish in the 180 yard low hurdles. Jeff's time in the lows was 22.5. Otto Bufe placed second with a 22.9.

Captain Dick Showers kept his undefeated streak alive with a time of 54.3. Ken Thomas copped a third in the respectable time of 57.1. Dick participated in the state meet last week at East Lansing, but his time was not good enough for a position.

The Rock's lone sweep came in the 880 yard run with Charlie

Westover, Allen Davies, and Jim Preston composing the winning combination. The winning time was 2:11 flat.

Junior Tony Monte overcame a big gap to outrun Belleville's Mike Snodgrass in the back stretch and take another Plymouth victory. Monte picked up space in the last lap of the mile run to record his 4:55.1 winning time. Snodgrass took second, with Dave DeCoster third at five minutes flat.

The medley relay team made their fourth decisive win in five starts to give warning to other teams for the coming league meet. Plymouth hit the tape at 2:43.5. Belleville dragged in at 2:52.

Still undefeated after five dual meets and the regional races, the 880 relay team continued their wave of power as they flashed to a 1:37.2 victory. Belleville took a second at 1:39.5.

Paul Cummings cleared his highest height of the season last week as he cleared five feet six inches for a first. Hopper tied two Belleville boys for a tie for second.

Myron Hopper leaped nineteen feet four and a half inches to capture a first in the broad jump, while Mel Stephenson was tying Snodgrass for a first in the pole vault. Freshman Bill Brown took a third in the vaulting event. For the third straight week the opposition swept the shot put.

The final score was Plymouth 73 and a third to Belleville's 35 and two thirds. The win gave Plymouth a 4-1 record for the season.

Slider Pitch Hard on Batters

Pitching today is vastly superior to the old days.

Enlarging on a discussion Hank Greenberg, the old Tiger slugger and now Indians general manager, and I had over the air during a rainy interlude at Cleveland. I attribute a corresponding decline in batting to the improvement in big league pitching.

I know some old-timers insist that hurlers were better in the old days, naming stars of bygone eras to support their claim; but the fact of the matter is that the stars were far outnumbered by the humpty-dumpties.

In my years with the New York Giants, we'd face only two or three good pitchers on a club. Most of the others were mediocres or worse and we so-called slug-gers were able to fatten our batting averages on them.

There aren't as many humpty dumpty pitchers around today because of one pitch, the slider. We never had to face it, except when it was thrown accidentally.

Coming into its own sometime after World War II, the slider gives the pitcher a valuable "extra" pitch. Batters not only must be alert for the fast ball, curve, change-of-pitch and freak deliveries, such as young Don Lee's fork ball, but they have to worry about this sliding pitch.

Veterans like Ted Williams and Stan Musial who have seen the slider come in believe it has knocked as much as 15 points off their batting averages. A short, fast-breaking curve with a lot of spin, the slider gets its name from actually sliding sideways across the plate. In speed, it is between a fast ball and a curve. It is thrown with a stiff wrist, the snap of the wrist being stopped short instead of following through as with a curve.

Hard to hit because of its quick break, the slider comes in looking like a fast ball but suddenly breaks in close to the batter and down. You've got to swing fast to hit it.

The slider, I think, is the cause of so many pitches being beat into the dirt in recent years. It has forced some players, like Vic Wertz and Frank House, to wear elbow guards and ankle guards to protect against foul balls banging off their limbs.

Not all modern pitchers utilize the slider, of course. Those with over-powering fast balls, like Herb Score and Paul Foytack and Bob Turley, don't bother with it. They feel it might take something from their fast ball.

But most of the others use it, and even fast ball pitchers learn to handle it once they begin to lose their swift one. It has preserved many a big league pitching career that might otherwise have ended much sooner. Bob Feller was a notable example.

In addition to the revolution in pitching created by the slider, I think that pitchers today might know a little more about their craft than the oldtimers did. They concentrate more on control, trying to make batters bite at balls they can't pull out of the park.

One of the big tricks in pitching today is to get the batter to overswing. The hurler tries to get him to chase bad balls.

And with the development of the new technique and the new pitch has come a radical change in pitching motion. Where once the flinger went into an elaborate wind-up or double wind-up, kicking his foot up high, today he employs a much more simple motion.

Footsaving Education

ARE GOOD SHOES BETTER VALUES THAN CHEAP SHOES PER DOLLAR?

There isn't much difference. When we buy something cheap we think (we hope) that we are saving somebody else's profit. Ironically, the best dividend paying stocks of shoe companies on the market are the stocks of companies that make cheap shoes. The factories are not in business for the sole purpose of saving money for the customer. Assuming that profits are necessary for any business the savings on cheaper shoes must be made on labor or materials. Labor costs are about the same per hour so any savings must be made by using less time per pair. Workmanship is important in shoemaking.

The leather market is so highly competitive that the only way the factory can save a significant amount on materials is to use inferior leather.

There are no secrets in the shoe business. As in every line of merchandise you get what you pay for!

the property. The snag evolves around the parking requirements. Parking is available across Byron street, but ordinance, as interpreted by the city planners, requires the parking to be on the same property. Both commissioners and planners appeared to be of the opinion that the zoning ordinance should not restrict construction under these circumstances, so ordinances may be drafted to give the zoning board of appeals power to allow such construction, and to later revise the ordinance.

Clinansmith Bros. of Plymouth was the successful bidder to deepen and partially relocate the Byron Creek. Their bid of $3,500 was more than half again as low as the next lowest bid of $7,325.

Two Plymouth concrete contractors bid on sidewalk installation for the summer. The winning bid was submitted by Stillman Warner with 40 cents per square foot for a four-inch-thick walk, 47 cents for five inch and 54 cents for six inch. The bid was slightly lower than that of Herman Perlongo.

Attorney J. Rusling Cutler appeared before the commission in behalf of a group of local contractors appealing for a revision of the building code. He pointed out that the code, passed in 1930, is antiquated because of changes in building methods and materials. He cited the requirement for three-quarter-inch thick boards for sub-roofing and flooring. Use of five-eighths-inch plywood is now commonly accepted, the attorney declared. Commissioners appeared sympathetic to the need for a change and asked that the manager and city attorney draw up an amendment for the next meeting.

Commissioners turned down a request from the Pentecostal church of Ann Arbor to hold open-air singing services in Kellogg Park each week.

plans for the Home were first discussed. They have oversubscribed that amount by $18,000 and are far from through with their efforts.

The Home will have a double purpose. It will be used for rehabilitation and convalescent work with the children during the days and for instruction and rehabilitation of crippled adults in the evenings.

The building has two large patios that will enable the youngsters to enjoy the sun during the warm summer months. Three large recreation rooms will serve for classes and other types of activities during the winter months.

The Builder's Show program will be featured by a western horse show on Saturday and Sunday afternoons highlighted by the appearances of the famed Oakland County Sheriff's posse and the Oakland County girl's drill team. The competition will start each of the two afternoons at 1 p.m. on the racing strip in front of the grandstand.

In addition, there will be rides for the children and other types of entertainment for their parents.

The exhibits include all types of materials and plans for construction of new homes or for modernization or altering older residences. Practically every builder and contractor in Western Wayne County is cooperating and will have an exhibit in one of the booths.

The group will return following a picnic lunch.

St. Mary Hospital Site Meets City Approval; Timetable Set

Progress in the effort to get St. Mary Hospital in Livonia underway was noted this week when Livonia city officials met with the building committee and engineers to discuss water supply, sanitation, storm sewers and roads.

A timetable for the construction of the hospital has also been presented by the president of the board of trustees of the hospital, Mother Mary Anunciata.

Meeting last Thursday to discuss the hospital site plan were Merlon Kispert, mechanical engineer of the Ellerbe company, St. Paul, Minn.; David Meinzing, director of public works; Albert Roth, consultant engineer for Livonia; and Dr. Oscar Rosbott, the mayor's representative and chairman of the Livonia Civil Service committee.

It was then their consensus of opinion that the land designated for the hospital site is adequate and satisfactory and that Bell Creek which crosses the property will not impair the functional activities of the hospital.

This is the timetable for the construction:

- September 1956, architectural program was prepared.
- December 1956 to March 1957, schematic and preliminary drawings were reviewed by the state agency in Lansing.
- April 1957, working drawings were started.
- September 1957, blueprints will be completed.
- November 1957 (4 to 6 weeks), blueprints to be reviewed by the state agency at Lansing.
- December 1957, bids to be opened.
- January 1958, contracts to be awarded.
- Construction will be completed in 18 months (August 1959).

The Newburg area is proud to boast of two skating champions: Sandra and Dixie Durbin, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Durbin of Joy road. The girls took first place in dance; Dixie took first in the sub-novice class and Sandra in the juvenile class. They have just returned from the state skating meet held in Big Rapids, Mich.

The Fellowship class of the Newburg Methodist church Sunday school met last Saturday, May 18, at the church hall for family pot-luck supper and their usual business meeting. Principal business was electing new officers: Joseph Achot, president; Charles Bowen, vice-president; Mrs. William Eastlake, recording secretary; Mrs. Kenneth Green, corresponding secretary; and Edward Reid, treasurer. The class also chose a new teacher to replace their retiring teacher, Alfred Higgins. Mrs. Ray Bowser is to be the new teacher.

The advisory committee of the bazaar of the Newburg Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Emil LaPointe on Joy road, Monday, May 27. The date for the annual fall bazaar is set for Saturday, Nov. 2, and extensive plans are being formulated now to insure the project's success.

Builder, School Board Continue Site Dickering

Like a couple of horse-traders of yesteryear, the board of education and representatives of the Fred Greenspan Building company wiled away the evening Monday dickering about the price of a 10-acre piece of land on which the board would like to build an elementary school.

But like the discussion a week beforehand, the school board still felt that the price was too high although the builder lowered his offer by $5,000.

Fred Greenspan, along with his attorney, appeared at the meeting to continue the land sale discussion which lasted an hour at the meeting last week and again Monday night. Greenspan has set the price for the land at $32,200 or $3,220 an acre. There was another $13,000 added as the school's share of bringing the water and sewer facilities to the site, located between Schoolcraft and Five Mile roads, west of Haggerty.

The school board felt that since the builder would benefit by having a school in his subdivision that he should pay the $13,000. Children from the subdivision would eventually fill the school, they added.

Greenspan's attorney started off Monday night's discussion by cutting this $13,000 to $8,000—or 10 per cent of the total cost. This would bring the cost of the land purchase down to $40,200.

But as the discussion continued, it was brought out that this amount would not cover the cost of running the paved street, sidewalks, storm sewer, water and sewer past the school's 500-foot frontage. This would cost about another $10,000. This would bring the price up to $50,200 for 10 acres—including all improvements.

The board then made its offer of $40,200 to pay for the land and as its share of running the improvements past the school site. With that, both sides withdrew for the evening and will probably continue the dickering at another meeting.

A Woman's Eye View

Bennett Cerf told of a slick and long, black Rolls-Royce, polished to the hilt, carrying a carefully-printed sign in the rear window with the inscription, "Help Stamp Out Sports Cars."

But the other day, right on Penniman street, I saw a near equal to this "beaut." A little black "bug" car was parked there, also polished and gleaming, and also with a carefully printed sign in the window. This one read, "Made in Der Black Forest by Der Elfs."

Woe betide those who don't play bridge or play it rather poorly! In some groups, they're social outcasts. Any mistake in bidding, playing or counting means the sure and sudden cold shoulder.

And things aren't going to get any better, since reports show more and more persons are playing this game.

Actually, the game does combine a rather sporting blend of skill, luck and psychology, and in many ways you're confronted with problems you'd come across in business: to bluff your opponents or not, how far to carry that bluff, to play defensively or offensively and to accurately evaluate your own assets, your partner's and your opponents'.

The latest news for would be bridge experts comes in a 20 page booklet called "How to Start Playing Bridge in 22 Minutes."

I'd be inclined to be a bit skeptical of such jiffy-quick methods, myself, but for anyone interested, copies may be obtained by sending a dime to cover the cost of mailing to: Playing Card Manufacturers, 420 Lexington avenue, New York 17, N. Y.

Best wishes to you, and if it really does work, let me know!

A few centuries ago the kind of bread a baker sold his customers indicated the buyer's standing. The degree of freshness was of great import, too. Freshly baked was for royalty, one-day old for nobility, two-day old for the gentry, three-day old for scholars and friars, and four-day old for the peasants.

Here's a little followup on an item appearing in this column a few weeks ago. The mother of 10-year-old David Hoadly, leukemia victim, called last week to express her appreciation to all in Plymouth who had sent get-well messages and cards. She said it had meant a lot to David to receive cards even from people he didn't know. Mrs. Hoadly said David died a short while ago.

Scientists are on the trail of such killers, but not quite soon enough, it seems. The discovery of the first successful vaccination against cancer in mammals was recently reported. The experiment has been applied only to mice, and the vaccine appeared effective only against leukemia.

Dr. Charlotte Friend, founder of this vaccine, said it was developed to combat a virus she discovered a year ago, which was found to be the only known virus that consistently causes leukemia in mice.

This virus was mixed with formulin which kills it—a method, Dr. Friend said, used in preparation of the Salk anti-polio vaccine.

Of the mice vaccinated, 80 per cent were found to be protected against leukemia!

MICHIGAN MIRROR

Revamp Constitution?

BY ELMER E. WHITE

VOTERS WILL GET A CHANCE in 1958 to rewrite the constitution which has guided Michigan's state government since 1908. Whether to call a constitutional convention will automatically go on the November, 1958 ballot.

Dozens of major amendments have been made to the constitution in the last 50 years, including state civil service, sales tax distribution, and reapportionment of the legislature.

The latter, adopted in 1952, is the crux of a new fight between political parties and will, in effect, determine the makeup of a constitutional convention if the voters order it.

Under another section of the constitution, a convention to write the basic law is composed of three delegates from each state senatorial district.

Democrats already are fighting for another system.

The 1952 amendment created the "balanced legislature," with the House (110 members) representing people or population and the Senate (34 members) representing areas.

Democrats charge that a constitutional convention will be peopled by Republicans because traditionally, outstate voters send Republicans to the Senate. Republicans report that the voters approved the reapportionment amendment in 1952, thus tacitly agreeing to the procedure for electing delegates to a constitutional convention.

Despite their hold on the Senate and the makeup of a convention, the Republicans are fearful that any rewrite of the constitution might upset the reapportionment process.

Civil service, in effect since 1941, has a growing number of critics, and its champions fear the way Michigan hires its 27,000 employees would be changed.

Both parties agree that the voter has it in his power in 1958 to alter Michigan's government. There have been numerous proposals in the past, including the adoption of the Nebraska system of a one-chamber legislature. Or a generous convention could legalize bingo, a proposition defeated in 1954; it might add a member to the Supreme Court to end 4 to 4 decisions.

One major point: No legislator may be a delegate to a constitutional convention, placing Michigan's government for a time squarely in the hands of the governed. And, under the present constitution, the voters have a chance to vote automatically for or against a constitutional convention—every 16 years.

EXPERTS IN LOCAL PROPERTY valuation will help fix property tax rates next year.

Gov. Williams has signed into law a bill reorganizing the state board of equalization to include two new members, recognized experts in the fields of rural and urban property tax assessment.

The bill was sponsored by Senator John P. Smeekens (R-Coldwater), a former member of a county board of supervisors who listened to the woes of local taxpayers.

"We will now have men on the board who know the local problems," he said.

The two new members will replace the state auditor general and the director of agriculture. Enactment of the law came too late for the change to take effect this year. The board approved a 10 per cent across-the-board increase, totaling $70,000,000 in new local property taxes.

PRISON TROUBLES again plague Michigan. There are no riots at Jackson State Prison, no mass escapes from Marquette State Prison, and things are quiet at Ionia State Reformatory.

This time the trouble is at the Detroit House of Correction, where the state houses all its women prisoners and a number of male trustees. The state corrections commission has asked for an investigation of conditions following a sit-down strike by the women and Detroit penal officials have agreed.

In addition, Corrections Director Gus Harrison is worried about overcrowded conditions at all prisons. The total inmate count is expected to reach an all-time high of 10,500 next year.

STRATOSPHERE BALANCING ACT

"Life Begins at Forty"

By ROBERT PETERSON

While I occasionally use the word "hobby" I actually dislike the word. This is because hobbies are so frequently hailed as a panacea for all the ills of life after forty. "Get a hobby," they tell you, "and life will be beautiful." A minister has told me about a large notebook filled with mysterious numbers that was sent to his office. There was no accompanying letter and for all he knew this was some rare and important account book. A week later an explanation arrived when a parishioner—a retired businessman—dropped in to say he had sent the notebook to the minister as a gift. The note book contained scores on seventy-five hundred games of solitaire which the banker had played in the seven years of his retirement.

"You told me to get a hobby when I retired," explained the man, "so I took up solitaire." The minister swallowed hard and asked if he had enjoyed his hobby. "I guess so," was the reply, "it kept me busy and helped me kill time." Needless to say, the minister now thinks twice before blithely recommending hobbies to retired friends.

It is a sad commentary when mature people take up leisure-time pursuits whose chief value is their time-killing properties. When a person can think of nothing better to do with his leisure hours than play solitaire, he might as well join the roll up yonder. There is nothing wrong with spending an occasional hour at idle play, yet there is something hopelessly haywire when a mature person devotes a good part of his waking hours to such a solitary and unproductive pursuit as solitaire.

It is small wonder that many older people who casually take up such trite hobbies as weaving baskets, collecting match covers, or pitching horseshoes soon lack spirit and self-respect. This is because their hobby is so trivial, as compared with the work they did in their active years, that it constantly reminds them of their reduced status.

Time is the essence of life.

After this piece of furniture has been painted, it may look all right from a distance but the seams will still be sprung, the drawers will stick and it will still wobble on its legs.

Many insurance programs, drafted without professional help and allowed to grow unsupervised through the years are like this rickety piece of furniture with its new coat of paint. Such insurance programs "look all right from a distance" too, but actually they are rickety and unsafe.

There are two ways to find this out. One is to suffer a loss through fire, collision, or an act of nature. Then when your claim is inadequately paid or maybe not at all, the weaknesses of your insurance position are painfully evident.

But, there is a far simpler and less costly way. That is by analysis of your insurance position by competent, qualified professional insurance counsel.

Such analysis is always available from us without obligation. Very often it reveals that you are paying too much for the amount of insurance you are buying.

Very often it reveals risks against which you are not protected. Always, it results in a prescription for a well rounded insurance program at a fair price. Always, too, it results in complete peace of mind.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLDTIMERS

From Mrs. W. J. Arterburn, Webb City, Mo.: I remember when I wore a McKinley and Teddy Roosevelt campaign button while going to country school in Illinois. I still have the button.

I wonder how many remember the button with the old double-deck dinner pail, pictures of McKinley and Roosevelt with the motto, "A Full Dinner Pail."

I can remember when I walked two miles to school. The classroom seats were double and sometimes there were three in a seat. Each pupil brought his lunch to school in a dinner bucket.

Our teachers were men. They were strict and we learned our lessons well.

From Lonnie E. Legge, Lewisburg, W. Va.: Remember when you planted corn when the whipoorwill called and the dogwood was in bloom; and cabbage was planted when the sign was in the head?

How trees to be killed were girdled or peeled when the sign was in the heart, in the dark of the moon?

And the luck rabbit foot—I carried one in my pistol pocket for years and all I ever noticed it done was shed off on my chewing tobacco, therefore running the cost of ten-cent plugs sky high.

SUCCESSFUL INVESTING

By ROGER E. SPEAR

Good Places for New Funds

Q. I own a $30,000 home, have about $10,000 in good outside mortgages and about $8,000 in Government bonds and savings banks. I have recently received $25,000 as beneficiary under an insurance policy, and would like to put it into stocks. However, my friends feel that the market is too high and is going to go down. What do you think?

A. Your friends are making the same mistake that thousands of other investors have been making most of the time for the past two years. They have been sitting on the sidelines because they have seen the accepted market averages, such as the Dow-Jones Average, Standard & Poor's Average, the Associated Press Average, to name three, at historic peaks; peaks, however, which have been strongly supported by business activity and corporate earnings and dividends. Actually, during a period such as our economy has been through, your friends should have ignored the Averages and thought of the market in terms of individual industries and stocks.

For instance, most of the stocks in such industries as Machine Tools, Motion Pictures, Brewing, Radio & Television, Railroads and Textiles have been going down due to declining sales, over-production, lower selling prices, or for other reasons. On the other hand, during this period many industries, such as Machinery, Electrical Equipment, Cement, Electronics, Office Equipment, Oil and Pharmaceuticals, have been forging ahead in sales and earnings, and most of the stocks of companies in these industries have shown outstanding gains. It is my opinion that for quite a long period ahead we are going to see a market, in which, with intelligent guidance, you can keep your $25,000 invested in carefully selected stocks and see the value of your fund increase substantially.

Q. I own 100 shares of Cities Service. I am a small investor and this is a good portion of my portfolio. The stock is now several points below my purchase price. What are the stock's chances of rebounding?

A. I believe that the chances are excellent. The company is very sound and all signs point to 1957 being a good year.

Of particular significance is the fact that Cities Service is on its way to solving one of its long-standing problems—insufficient producing properties. The company is pouring quite a lot of money into the search for oil and has come up with some promising Canadian, Latin American and offshore acres. Market prices are usually not long in reflecting an improved showing and you would do well to hold your stock.

I notice that your 100 shares of Cities Service are a good portion of your portfolio. It is not a good policy to put most of your money in one security—no matter how good. In small portfolios of under $10,000 it is a good rule to diversify by holding from 3 to 5 stocks, preferably in different industries.

TRUE OR FALSE?

A Company Paying Part Of Its Dividend In Stock Is Not As Safe As One Paying All In Cash.

FALSE. Some of the oldest and most reputable corporations pay part of their dividends in stock. It is becoming an increasingly popular practice as companies find it profitable to conserve cash for expansion or for working capital. Dividends paid in stock, other than a cause for concern, afford investors an opportunity of watching their investment in a company grow through accumulation of new shares as dividends. Stock dividends also enjoy the tax advantage of not being treated as income and can be used to write down the average cost of the investment.

For high on the hood of his motor car rides the beautiful crest of Cadillac—and hospitality just seems to follow a new Cadillac wherever it goes.

No man, you see, is ever without standing when he is in command of the "car of cars".

For it is a recognized fact that Cadillac owners—representing though they do such varying fields of endeavor and such widely separated parts of our world—also have a great deal in common.

Invariably they are people of marked personal achievement—who have won for themselves a considerable measure of respect and recognition.

In brief, the driver's seat of the Cadillac car is the traditional dwelling place of the world's leading citizens. And people everywhere have found it safe to assume that whomsoever they behold at the wheel is a worthy member of this great and distinguished company.

Of course, this is but one of the satisfactions of Cadillac ownership... in addition to inspiring beauty, luxurious Fleetwood coachcraft, superlative performance and extraordinary value.

Have you as yet taken the wheel of a new 1957 Cadillac? If not, then you should visit your Cadillac dealer and spend an hour on the highway.

He'll be waiting for you with a "friendly welcome" of his own!

Old-Fashioned Picnics Make Eating Pleasurable

Shish Kebabs — Fine Picnic Fare

Picnics are as popular today as they were in the dim and distant past. And today's youngsters have as much fun on a picnic as did grandma and her contemporaries. So if it's fun you want for you and your family this summer, take a cue from grandma. Choose her greatest form of recreation. Plan a picnic.

Like all picnic discussions, this one too leads to food, for what's a picnic without food?

Of course, you'll have to take the usual necessities—salt and pepper, catsup, mustard and beverages—but for an unusual and tasty main dish try the skewered dish of the Near East — Shish Kebab. With just a bit of before-hand preparation you can invite your family and friends to skewer-their-own, it's fun for them and less work for you!

Shish Kebab for 4 to 6

Use shoulder or leg of lamb cut into 1½ or 2-inch cubes. For two pounds of solid meat, place in a large bowl one medium-sliced onion, a few bay leaves, ½ teaspoon pepper and two teaspoon salt. Add lamb.

Blend one cup of dry red wine (lemon juice may be used instead of wine) and ½ cup olive oil; pour over meat mixture. Soak the lamb cubes in this thin seasoned sauce for several hours to give the meat a distinctive flavor and prevent dryness.

Now you're ready for the skewers. Alternate marinated lamb with bay leaves, using about four to five meat cubes for each metal skewer. (If you don't have metal skewers, try green twigs). Broil about ten minutes, or until browned, turning only once. The bay leaves will begin to glow near the edges imparting a savory, penetrating flavor to the meat.

With your Shish kebab you might serve rice pilaff or tossed salad—or that good old American favorite, corn on the cob.

The leaves from which tea is made are not ready for plucking until the bush is about five years old.

Output of molasses from Canadian shippers in 1955 was 30 million pounds against 82 million pounds the previous year.

Canadian producers shipped about 187,000 automatic toasters last year, 27,000 more than in 1955.

Hamburgs, Old Picnic Stand-bys Get New Look for Barbecues

Just mention a picnic and thoughts turn to hamburgers, frankfurters, rolls or buns, potato chips, pickles, baked beans and other indoor-outdoor cookery fare. At a picnic any food goes, but unusual twists to old favorites can add to a picnic's success.

Menus for the Choosing

Hamburgers, buns, barbecued potato chips, corn-on-the-cob, cole slaw, fresh fruit, cupcakes and coffee.

Hamburgers, buns, kidney bean salad, relishes (celery, carrot strips, olives, radishes), chocolate brownies, iced tea or lemonade.

Frankfurters, rolls, baked beans, corn sticks, sliced tomatoes, cucumbers and onions, cookies, iced tea.

Frankfurters, rolls, potato chips, mixed green salad, coconut cake, coffee.

Hamburgers to Your Liking

Hamburgers fans are usually content with hamburgers, buns, onions, mustard and catsup. But three other versions are Hidden Treasure Hamburgers, Onion Burgers and Cheese Center Hamburgers.

To make six Hidden Treasure Hamburgers, you'll need 1½ pounds ground beef, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, six thin slices of medium-sized onions and six teaspoons pickle relish. Combine ground beef, salt and pepper and shape into 12 thin patties. Place one slice of onion and one teaspoon pickle relish on each of six patties. Cover each with another patty and press edges together to seal. Grill slowly on both sides until browned.

For six Onion Burgers, brown 1½ cups chopped onion in two tablespoons butter or margarine, add two teaspoons prepared Shape seasoned ground beef into 12 thin patties, spread onion mixture over six, top each with another patty and press edges together. Grill slowly on both sides until browned.

Cheese Center Hamburgers are prepared with the same ground beef mixture and shaped into 12 patties as Hidden Treasure Hamburgers and Onion Burgers. Then a tablespoon of grated cheddar cheese and one teaspoon prepared mustard is placed on each of six patties. Another patty is placed on top and edges are pressed together and grilled slowly on both sides until browned.

Let Youngsters Plan-Their-Own Backyard Picnics

"Hey kids, let's eat outdoors!" That's the cry the moment the weather turns warm. It isn't always possible, though, for parents to drop everything to prepare a picnic for their children.

One way is to let the youngsters "do it themselves." For the young ones, it's a labor of love! Here's how you can go about organizing a backyard picnic:

1. Have a good supply of paper plates and cups on hand, since they save mother's china and eliminate cleaning up.
 2. Provide the children with a small table and several low chairs.
 3. Take a quick poll to determine what kind of sandwiches they want to eat. Set out the bread, filling and spreads, and let the kids go to work.
 4. A store-bought cake and milk will round out the picnic fare.
 5. When the food is prepared, suggest that the kids ask friends to come and share their treat. They'll be especially proud because they've had a hand in preparing it.
 6. Take advantage of the chance to stress neatness by insisting that the children dispose of their paper plates and cups.
- Net result: happy children who will know how to plan their own picnics in the future.

Recipe for Fun on Picnics

Choose ingredients carefully: highest quality of hot dogs, kids, uncles, soda pop, fathers, mothers, sunshine, fresh air and friends.

Mix well—this is important (proper ingredients will mix well: babies, and grandparents, in the right proportions, produce an unusually smooth blend, as do boys and girls).

Fold mixture into a well-greased car. Allow at least six hours in the open air.

Test frequently by plunging into cool water if available. When done to a golden brown (a little pinkness is not undesirable) allow to set between cool sheets overnight. Serves 4 to 400.

Dress Up Outdoor Chef in Barbecue Mitt, Apron

To make outdoor barbecuing fun for the cook as well as for everyone else, here are simple directions for making a barbecue mitt and a cook's apron to match.

Barbecue Mitt

You'll need about ½ of a yard of material, such as quilted cotton, denim or mattress ticking, a package of bias tape in a contrasting or matching color, and sewing thread.

Trace your hand outline, then add about an inch to this all the way around. Using the larger outline for a pattern, cut four pieces, two for the palm and two for the back of the hand. Be sure to reverse the pattern when cutting the two back sections.

Now for the sewing. For the back and the palm, place two sections wrong sides together and edges even; baste. If desired, a layer of cotton or other heat protective material may be inserted between the layers for the palm of the hand. If this is done, run quilting stitches diagonally across the mitt, spaced one inch apart.

Slip the wrist edge of the palm between open edges of a strip of bias tape and stitch close to the inner edge of the tape. Repeat for the back.

Place back and palm together, edges even. Bind the same as the wrist edges. Allow a five inch length of bias to extend at the wrist edge. Fold up the extension to form a loop and sew securely in place. With this loop, you can hang the mitt on a hook when it's not in use.

Cook's Apron

Use one and a half yards of 36 inch wide material, half a yard of contrasting material, one and a half yards of rickrack, and sewing thread to match.

Cut a piece of material 23" long and 36" wide for apron. For pockets cut two pieces, each one foot square. For ties, cut two pieces, each 4" by 2" long. For apron trim, cut one piece of contrasting material 6" by 36". For pocket trim, cut two pieces of contrasting material, each 4" by 12".

Turn in the inner raw edges of the pocket trim half an inch and press. Place trim on pocket, right side of trim to wrong side of pocket, top and side edges even. Stitch sides and top. Clip almost to seam line at the ends of stitching. Trim and turn right side out. Repeat for other pocket.

Baste trim flat to pocket. Turn in remaining raw pocket edges half an inch and press.

Cut a strip of rickrack a little longer than the lower edge of the pocket trim. Center the rickrack along the inner edge of the trim, turn edges under the pocket and stitch through the center.

Join apron trim to lower edge of apron the same as for the pocket trim. Finish with rickrack the same way. Turn in raw side edges of lower edges of each pocket. Press. Run a gathering stitch at the top edge of the apron. Turn in the ends of the waistband half an inch and press.

With right sides together, place waistband to the gathered apron edge; pull up gathers to fit. Stitch, adjusting gathers evenly. Turn in other raw waistband edge and baste in place along seam line on wrong side.

Turn in edges and one end of each tie and finish in narrow machine hems. Press. Fold a soft pleat at the raw end of each tie (to fit waistband end) and baste.

Slip pleated tie end inside open waistband ends and baste. Stitch along side and lower edges of waistband through all thickness. Press.

Canada's consumption of oil has increased 185 per cent since 1946, the biggest increase being in home heating.

MONTERREY, MEXICO—A new all-time border-to-border NASCAR economy record was set when a 1957 Rambler 6 with overdrive arrived here from Winnipeg, Canada, after only four stops for gasoline.

Whizzing through three nations at 45 to 60 m.p.h. to maintain its average speed above 40, the Rambler traveled nearly 2,000 miles at a cost of only 1¢ a mile for regular grade fuel. This new triumph gave Rambler both the border-to-border and coast-to-coast economy records.

Water damage caused by a plumbing leak or other accident can be kept to a minimum if all members of the household are familiar with the location of the shut-off valves. WE ARRANGE F.H.A. AND HOME IMPROVEMENT LOANS

Insulation Will Keep Homes Cooler In Summer

Insulation is a major means of "controlling the climate" inside a home. Right now, with warm weather just ahead, the immediate interest in insulation is focused on its effectiveness in keeping the sun's heat outside the house and thus reducing room temperatures very appreciably.

At least equally important, however, is the excellent job of keeping furnace heat inside the house which insulation does during the cold winter months.

Loss of heat through the walls and ceilings is reduced as much as 60 per cent and fuel bills reduced by as much as one-third. As a matter of fact, insulation is a self-liquidating home improvement, because it can pay for itself in fuel savings in a relatively short time.

Insulating materials are made of mineral wool, rock, glass or slag, paper pulp, gypsum, asbestos, cork, aluminum foils, vermiculite, cotton and other vegetable and mineral matter.

Do-It-Yourself Project

Usually a home owner can do his own attic insulation, either by stapling blanket insulation between the roof rafters or by spreading bulk insulating material between the attic floor joists.

In case where the blanket of insulation can be applied on an open surface, the so-called "flexible" type is excellent. This takes the form of "blankets" or "quilts" and comes in long rolls as well as in "batts" or pre-cut sections. It is made wide enough to fit in the hollow spaces between studs, rafters and joists in walls or ceilings or under the roof.

The "batts" or pre-cut sections are simply placed between the joists of unfloored attics. A simple stapling gun can be used to tack each roll. If purchased in long rolls, these can be cut to the desired dimensions as installed. In the case of floored attics, it will be necessary to remove the floorboards.

"Fill type" insulation (which comes in bales or bags) is often favored for floored attics, which can be insulated by removing one or two floorboards and pouring the material under the floored portion, where it can be smoothed by means of a "cardboard rake" nailed to a wooden handle.

"Fill Type" Insulation If the attic is unfloored, "fill type" insulation can be poured directed from the bag into the spaces between the joists. It should then be evened off to a three-inch depth.

If you are finishing off an attic, you can insulate at the same time by using "insulating boards" which have sufficient structural strength to use as a base for plaster. Many of these boards can, themselves, provide a decorative finish.

"Reflective" materials afford another type of insulation, which functions by turning back heat, much as a mirror reflects light. Aluminum foil is bonded to heavy building paper or wall-board.

House walls cannot properly be insulated from the outside by amateurs. This job calls for a thorough knowledge of house construction as well as professional skill and special equipment.

California Law Requires

California state law specifies that a home builder or roofing contractor must guarantee a roof against leaks for a year after the house is occupied.

Year Guarantee on Roof

Many builders and roofers in California use asphalt shingles because they provide a tight roof with years of trouble free service.

Western Canada had 7,383 producing oil wells at the start of 1956, compared with 393 at the end of World War II.

Right Windows Aid to Comfort In Hot Weather

Short of installing a complete air-conditioning system, the average homeowner can make his house more comfortable in summer with good ventilation.

A house is well ventilated when its windows are arranged so that inside heat can escape through an opening at the top and cooler air can come in through an opening at the bottom.

Perhaps the most ideal window for this type of ventilation is the double-hung style shown in the drawing. However, windows of ponderosa pine come in a wide variety of styles which can be arranged for proper ventilation.

Among these are awning and hopper styles installed in banks of two or more. The awning window opens outward, while the hopper style opens into the room. Either of these, when installed one above the other, can be opened to permit the exit of heat at the top and entrance of cooler outside air at the bottom.

The awning window has another warm weather advantage: When open, its surface forms a tiny roof, permitting the window to be left open during a cooling rainstorm.

Sliding and casement windows of ponderosa pine also offer good ventilation. The sliding style opens at either end, creating a draft as heat rushes out one side and cool air comes in the other. A casement window opens completely, offering a large opening for the passage of air.

SOAP SAVES PAINT

Outside painted walls that are dingy and discolored don't always need repainting. Washing with soap and water often can restore their freshness. Use a scrub brush on a small area to check the results of washing. If you're satisfied start at the bottom and work your way up. After washing rinse with clear water, using a hose.

Good Values Are Found In Older Homes

To own their own home is the goal of perhaps 80 per cent of the families in America. But because of price or other reasons, all home-buying families do not buy new houses. In fact, a great many prefer to buy an older house and modernize it.

Exceptionally good values can usually be found in used houses, particularly if care is used in selecting the house and developing a modernization program, according to the Construction Research Bureau, national clearing house for building information.

Since the purchase of a home represents such a large investment, it is important to know how to obtain the best buy for the money involved. In this connection, the Bureau suggests the following as some of the major points to be considered from the structural standpoint:

Open and close all doors and windows several times to be sure they do not stick, that they fit well, that they are not warped and that there are no wide cracks around them. All windows and exterior doors should be provided with some form of weatherstripping. Presence of weatherstrip usually is a sign of good construction throughout the house. Be sure there are enough windows for proper light and ventilation and that their location does not interfere with furniture arrangement.

Floors should be level and without serious surface defects. A floor that is "springy" when walked on is a sign of poor construction. If the surface is worn or scarred, but is soundly constructed, a new surface can be provided economically by laying the new vinyl woodgrain plank flooring over the old floor.

Note whether bad cracks have occurred in plastered walls, or if nails in plasterboard walls have "popped" or partially pulled out. Both these conditions are easy to correct, but many families today cover walls in some of the rooms with cork tile to provide a pleasing, easy-to-clean wall surface. The soft brown tones of the cork harmonize with any decorative scheme.

If the house has a basement, inspect it very carefully for water stains, which are a sign of dampness, a highly undesirable condition. Asphalt tile floors will resist moisture and the wide variety of colors available make this material ideal for basement recreation rooms.

When it comes to mechanical equipment, plumbing and wiring inspection, it is best to employ an expert, and then get estimates from reliable contractors on the cost of repairs before buying the house.

Waiting for Home Price to Decline May be Expensive

Postponement of the purchase of either a new or a used home in the expectation that prices will decline is quite likely to prove expensive for the home-seeker, according to a national survey just completed by the Construction Research Bureau, clearing house for building information.

In virtually all sections of the country, building costs are rising steadily, the study showed, and all indications point to a continued rise for an indefinite period.

"Families contemplating the purchase of a home are in a more advantageous position price-wise today than they will be at any time in the foreseeable future," the Bureau reported. "Home-seekers will face higher prices every day they wait."

In explanation, the survey stated:

"Wage increases in steel and practically all basic industries, plus imposition of higher freight rates, have resulted in cost increases throughout the building industry.

"Added to this is that substantial wage increases have been granted to workers in the building trades in most of the large urban centers during the past several months. Many of these wage contracts were written for a two-year period with provisions for an increase in hourly wages every six months during the term of the contract. As these escalator increases become effective, prices of homes will have to advance.

"This is not necessarily a reflection on labor. It is part of a pattern set immediately after World War II by an inflated economy when a steady round of wage increases began in all industries.

"Another factor causing higher prices for homes is the almost fantastic increase in the cost of land for residential construction which has doubled, tripled and even quadrupled in many suburban areas in the past ten years.

THE READER SPEAKS UP

(Editor's Note—George M. Van Peurseem, speaker of the House of Representatives in Lansing, has emerged in recent weeks as something of an "official spokesman" for the Republicans of Michigan. He has been sending statements to newspapers recently, and we reprint today a letter of Van Peurseem's to the Governor because of the keen public interest in the subject of state finances.)

Dear Governor Williams:

The State of Michigan is rapidly approaching an economic problem of such devastating proportions that I feel it necessary to address this message to you. I do this to direct both your attention and that of the people of Michigan to this area and to ask that you cooperate with the Legislature in seeking an answer. Of immediate concern, in that the problem must be faced during this session, is the tremendous budget of this State.

In your general fund appropriations for this year you originally recommended that $411,000,000 be spent. This was almost a 25 percent rise over last year's budget, in itself an all time high. But this was not all. You recommended then, and again on February 15, a $17,000,000 general fund deficiency appropriation for next year's secondary school fund (a recommended $195 less 2 3/4 mills). Our figures show that actually about $35,000,000 will be needed.

On February 15, you also recommended a general fund appropriation to meet this year's secondary school deficiency. Our legislative estimate is that this will now amount to about $25,000,000.

Now, to summarize the above, you have to date requested a general fund appropriation as follows:

Formal Budget Request	$411,000,000
Error in Fiscal Year School Estimate	18,000,000
Fiscal Year 1957 School Deficiency	25,000,000
Total	$454,000,000

Your requests to date therefore represent a 53 percent increase over the all time high of last year.

Your estimated income to pay for this is $335,000,000 from present taxes. I believe $320,000,000 to be a more realistic figure. It then follows that, based upon your own requests, the State would require $134,000,000 in new taxes.

The Republicans in the Legislature have held the line as best we can. You, however, have endorsed the efforts of every pressure group that wants more money. Your cohorts in the Legislature, at the same time, resist any attempts to balance the budget in line with your requests, except through the passage of a corporation profits tax—a tax which would raise no more than $75,000,000. In addition, you would pass this tax at a time when, regardless of the charges and counter-charges, the simple fact is that we are losing industry.

Michigan's industrial growth has slowed in relation to that of our neighboring States. I submit that we accept this fact and try to do something about it. Michigan's economy is so heavily geared to cyclical industries that should a national recession even of the slightest proportions occur, we face the danger of important plant shutdowns if some of our industries find that they can use their lower cost capacity which exists in other States. Again, I submit that we accept this fact and try to do something about it.

Now, if we need $134,000,000 to balance your budget requests, and since your own revenue bill will only produce $75,000,000 in new taxes, just how do you propose to raise the additional $59,000,000 needed to balance the budget? Are you proposing deficit spending?

Secondly, I request that you make an honest report and explanation to the people of Michigan concerning the actual amount of their money you want to spend with such abandon.

Michigan citizens deserve some answers in these critical areas. Our problems are becoming so crucial that we must, during the coming years, look to the social and economic, rather than the political, consequences of our actions. I request your cooperation. Sincerely,

GEORGE M. VAN PEURSEEM

TIPS for TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q.—"Dear Elinor: You often answer questions from girls who want more fun and friends, telling them to join school clubs, etc. Well, my problem is different. I'm in so many activities that I don't have time to study and my grades are getting lower and lower; I'm also too tired to study. My parents threaten 'No dates' until my grades improve, but this doesn't seem fair to me. What do you think?"

Ans.—If you get with it and make some changes in your daily schedule, you won't have to miss all date-fun.

Knowing what's most important and putting "first things first" is part of growing up. So why not begin to think and operate like a grown-up by realizing that life isn't all fun and no work?

Prove that you're out of rompers by putting school work first during week-days (and nights), dating only on Fridays and Saturdays. Plan your studytime so you can get book-work done in time for nine hours' beauty (and health) sleep every night. This means studying instead of wasting time, putting it off until evening, then watching TV instead.

Choose one or two of the school clubs that interest you most and by-pass the rest... or choose one school activity and ope at your church.

By planning your 24 hours per day, you'll find that you can raise your grades, enjoy 'teen activities and date on weekends... by putting first things first. You'll have to do this all your life, so the sooner you begin the better.

The Season's Favorite
Old-Time Strawberry Shortcake

Strawberries are here again which means Strawberry Shortcake—good all during the season of this luscious scarlet fruit.

Shortcake, to be its best, should be a sweetened biscuit dough enriched a bit by the addition of melted butter and egg along with milk or cream. It's so easy to make, thanks to the package biscuit mix you find on the grocers' shelves, that one just can't go wrong in the making.

Serve shortcake with sugar-sauced berries and plenty of cream. Pour the cream from a pitcher or whip it and spoon a mound on each serving.

Strawberry Shortcake

- 2 cups prepared biscuit mix
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 3/4 cup cream or
- 1/2 cup milk and 1/4 cup melted butter
- 1 quart of strawberries.

Add cream or milk and melted butter to the biscuit mix and sugar. Mix with a fork. Keep the dough soft but if it is sticky, add a bit more biscuit mix.

Turn out on floured cloth. Knead ten times to shape into a ball. Pat or roll out to half of thickness desired when baked. Shortcake doubles in volume.

Cut six individual shortcakes with a cutter dipped in flour, or gently pat or roll out half of dough to fit in a round pan, eight inches in diameter and 1 1/2 inches deep. Dot or spread liberally with softened butter. Pat out other half of dough and place on top. Dot or spread with butter and sprinkle with sugar.

Bake in hot oven (40° F) about 10 minutes for individual shortcakes, 15-20 minutes for large shortcakes. While hot, spread with butter. Cover lower half with sweetened strawberries, both sliced and whole depending on their size. (Use about 3/4 to one cup of sugar for a quart of berries and allow them to stand at room temperature for a while.) Put on the top crust. Cover with strawberries. Serve at once with plenty of pouring cream or slightly sweetened whipped cream.

4-H Scholarships Increased to $400

Scholarships in the national 4-H awards programs have been increased from $300 to $400, announced G. L. Noble, director, National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, Chicago.

Approximately 170 college scholarships of $400 each will be awarded at the national level to 4-H Club members whose 1957 records of achievement in their chosen projects are judged best by the Cooperative Extension Service.

G. L. Noble Service. The scholarships will be presented to the national champions next December during the 36th annual 4-H Club Congress, Noble said.

Among the 4-H activities offering awards of scholarships as well as trips to the Club Congress are the Boys' Agricultural, Poultry, Garden, and Electric programs. Donors of the awards respectively are: International Harvester, Sears-Roebuck Foundation, Allis-Chalmers, and the Westinghouse Educational Foundation. All have supported 4-H work for many years through programs arranged and announced by the National Committee and the Extension Service.

Last year 4-H awards and leader training funds distributed through the National Committee amounted to $469,397. A similar sum has been assured again this year from non-governmental sources, according to Mr. Noble.

Wax Furniture Heavily To Avoid Party Mishaps

When party preparations include precautionary waxing of cocktail and end tables, unhappy post-mortems on water-stained table tops can usually be omitted.

The wax coating prevents liquids from soaking into and marring wood finishes, if wiped up reasonably soon. Use of a good cleaning wax is also a fine way to remove sticky fingerprints when the party's over.

SUMMER PLEASURE

Easy Outdoor Meals—Iced Tea

A well-planned hearty meal during the summer months is not always easy to achieve with little effort, but here is a menu with special tips for summer meal preparation you'll welcome.

Tiny Parmesan Meat Balls
Rice
Pineapple-Mint Sherbet
Iced Tea

Special Summer Features: Parmesan Meat Balls are not sauteed; cooks in 20-minutes in a tomato sauce. Rice — ordinarily you'd use spaghetti for meat balls, but rice cooks without steaming up the kitchen. Pineapple — Mint Sherbet — cool, refreshing and low-calories. Iced Tea — new recipe prepares tea in half the time, and requires less cubes.

Iced Tea
Pre-measure 1/2 cup loose tea (or remove tags from 15 teabags.) Bring 1 quart of freshly drawn cold water to a full rolling boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat and while water is still bubbling, add all the tea at one time. Brew 5 minutes, uncovered. Stir and strain into pitcher holding one quart of freshly drawn cold water. (Do not refrigerate.) Serve in ice-filled glasses, with lemon and sugar to taste.

Tomato Sauce Piquant with Tiny Parmesan Meatballs
(Makes 8-10 servings)

- Ingredients for sauce:
- 1 lb. 12-oz. can Italian style tomatoes
- 1 can water
- 2 bouillon cubes
- 1 can tomato paste
- 2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 cup white cooking wine
- 1 teaspoon oregano
- 2 cloves garlic, speared on to a wooden toothpick
- 1/4 teaspoon tabasco sauce

boil. Reduce heat and simmer 1 1/2 hours. Add wine.

Ingredients for Meatballs:

- 1 lb. chopped chuck
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper
- 1/2 cup grated parmesan cheese
- 1 egg slightly beaten
- 1 tablespoon onion juice
- 1/2 cup bread crumbs

While sauce is cooking, prepare meatballs by combining ingredients and form into small balls about 3/4 inch in diameter. (About 1 teaspoon meat makes 60 meatballs.) Drop into gently boiling sauce. Cover. Cook about 10 minutes. Pour over cooked rice or spaghetti.

Pineapple Mint Sherbet
(Makes about 12 servings)

- 1 1/2 6-oz. cans frozen unsweetened pineapple concentrate
 - 2 1/2 cups cold water
 - 3 drops peppermint extract
 - 4 teaspoons Sucaryl solution or 22 Sucaryl tablets
 - 15 drops green fruit coloring
 - 1/2 cup non-fat dried milk solids
- Set refrigerator at coldest point. Combine ingredients in a 2-quart mixing bowl in order given. Beat enough to blend. Pour into 2 freezer trays. Freeze 1-2 hours or until half frozen. Remove to large chilled mixer bowl. Beat until creamy, not liquid. Pour into 9" ring mold. Freeze until firm, about 4-6 hours. Makes about 12 1/2 cup servings. Calories — 82, or 178 with sugar.

Who's New in Plymouth

NEW PLYMOUTH RESIDENTS SINCE FEB. 11, members of the William H. Baumgartner family of 42490 Schoolcraft road are: Baumgartner, an electronics engineer at the Burroughs corporation; Shirley, 5; Susan, 1; Mrs. Baumgartner, an elementary education teacher before coming to Plymouth; and Barbara, 3. The family, members of the Methodist church, moved here from Glenside, Penn., a city near Philadelphia. Although the girls are a bit young to help, Mr. and Mrs. Baumgartner like gardening and "traveling around and seeing things." Mrs. Baumgartner commented favorably on Plymouth's wide variety of stores for a town of its size, and the idea that Plymouth is an individual town in itself, not necessarily connected to any other city in the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale L. Renwick

Zander-Renwick Vows Repeated In Presbyterian Church Rites

Following a two-week honeymoon trip through Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and upper Michigan, the newly-married Dale L. Renwick and wife are now living in Plymouth.

Janet M. Zander was married to Dale L. Renwick in a 7 p.m. ceremony, April 27, in the First Presbyterian church. Reverend Henry J. Walsh officiated.

Janet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Zander of 4821 Arley, Belleville. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Elma Renwick of 1121 Simpson, Plymouth.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white nylon with French-embroidered tulle. Her headpiece was a crown with pearls. As a gift from the bridegroom, Janet wore a string of cultured pearls. Her bouquet consisted of a white orchid with white stephanotis and ivy streamers.

Two baskets of white snapdragons adorned the church altar for the candlelight services, and Delores Hoover of Wayne sang "Because," "The Lord's Prayer," and "Walk Hand in Hand."

Mary L. Duckett of Wayne served as matron of honor, wearing a gown with white lace net over orchid taffeta. Accenting the gown was a cummerbund sash and bow, as well as a yellow carnation cascade bouquet.

Donna Renwick of Plymouth wore a gown the same as that of the matron of honor, but in turquoise, and she carried pink flowers. Alice Spencer, another attendant, was dressed in yellow and carried orchid flowers.

Junior bridesmaid Irene Zander, sister of the bride, was dressed in pink and carried turquoise flowers.

Dale asked Nile Gladstone of Plymouth to serve as his best man. Others ushering guests were Jim McLean of Plymouth and Louis Deibel of Trenton.

Mrs. Elma Renwick wore a navy rock with matching accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

She is a graduate of Wayne high school and is now employed at the University of Michigan. Dale attended Plymouth high school and is presently employed by the Wayne county road commission.

Plymouth Girl Is Stephens College Degree Candidate

Susan Goddard of Plymouth is a candidate for an associate in arts degree from Stephens College. Commencement exercises for the 124th graduating class will be held Tuesday morning, May 28, with degrees conferred on approximately 600 candidates by President Thomas A. Spragens.

Miss Goddard is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis H. Goddard of 12221 Beck road.

The four-day Commencement program begins Friday, May 24, with the first of two commencement balls. Traditionally, fathers of graduating seniors are escorts for the occasion. "My Three Angels" is scheduled for weekend performances at the Stephens Playhouse.

The annual honors convocation takes place Saturday morning, followed by an art exhibit and chamber music concert. An aquatic demonstration in the afternoon at the Stephens Lake and a horse show in the evening complete the day.

Baccalaureate services will be held Sunday morning, followed by a commencement luncheon. Music majors and the Burrall Symphony Orchestra will present a senior concert that afternoon. Parents will attend a special vesper service Sunday evening and then an evening prayer service with the students.

Department open houses and visits with faculty advisers are on Monday's schedule. An Old Missouri barbecue for male guests only will be held at the Lake Monday afternoon. A reception in the ballroom for women guests will feature a fashion show of Susie Stephens originals. The evening's musical program, "Annual Encores," concludes pre-Commencement activities.

PHS Senior Receives Alma College Scholarship

Fred Libbing is one of the 21 high school seniors awarded scholarships for study at Alma College next year.

Five of the 21 awards are for full tuition for one year, eight for half tuition and eight for partial tuition—slightly less than half. Fred won one of the eight in the latter group.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Libbing, 1042 William, Plymouth.

These freshman scholarships are being awarded by Alma College for the first time next year, as part of an entirely new scholarship program which includes also 26 upperclass awards, plus a large number of scholarships made available by individuals and industries throughout the state. All are awarded on the bases of excellence in academic performance and significance of the students' contribution to the total life of the school.

Dr. Robert D. Swanson, president of Alma College, said, "This represents only the first step in our serious effort to attract to and retain at Alma the finest students now leaving high schools throughout the mid-west. We are sure that a college is only as strong as its students and are understandably concerned that Alma get and keep those who are of Alma quality."

Frank Heger, who has been confined to his home on Northville road, for the past several days following surgery on his back, has improved and will soon be back at his duties as a teacher in the Smith school.

Walter Ash Honored For 20 Years With Company

At a presentation ceremony held recently at Dearborn Inn, Walter Ash, owner of the Walter Ash Service station, 584 South Main, received a plaque from the Shell Oil Company in honor of 20 years of business relationship as a Shell dealer.

Ash, who has operated the station for the past 20 years, was employed prior to that time by J. Austin Oil Company, Shell distributor in the Plymouth-Wayne area.

Liquor Commission Fines Cavalcade Inn Owners

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission this week announced that owners of the Cavalcade Inn on Northville Road were among those found guilty in hearings held recently in Lincoln Park on various commission violations.

Walter and Minnie Smith, owners of the establishment, were charged with possession of liquor purchased from other than a state liquor store from August 29, 1955 through November 9, 1955. They were fined $250 payable by June 10, 1957.

The National Library of Denmark, founded about 1660, holds one million books, including 4,000 printed before 1501.

School Administrators Tell of Year's Progress

Reports on their progress during the present school year were given by school principals and department heads at a meeting of the board of education last week. This included the principals of the junior and senior high schools, five elementary principals, the Adult Education and Recreation director and business manager.

Herbert Woolweaver, head of the Adult Education and Recreation Department, showed slides of his program which had its biggest year yet. There were 1,100 people enrolled in the fall term and 1,250 in the spring term. Usually enrollment falls during the second semester.

Earl Gibson, principal of Gallimore elementary school, told of the orderly fashion in which teachers made the move of their pupils to the new school several months ago. He also noted that wooded 10 acres of the school site is being used for conservation study.

Gerald Elston, principal of the five outlying Canton township schools, took over Gibson's position when he was named to head Gallimore school. Elston reported that the Five-Star Festival held jointly by the five schools was a successful medium of uniting the school groups for the first time. Elston will aid the junior high principal next fall, besides directing the outlying schools. There will be seven sixth grades in the junior high which he will supervise.

William Harding was also newly-appointed this past year following the death of the junior high principal, Arthur Alford. He praised the teaching staff for their cooperation and lauded the Parent Teacher Student Association which has been active. Interest is focusing on the new junior high next fall, which has been a selling point to obtain new teachers, Harding told the board.

High School Principal Carvel Bentley said that occupancy of the old junior high building next fall will help overcrowding, "but not for long". He said that next year there will be four teachers on "swing shift" operations, meaning that they will have no classroom of their own but will occupy others when they are not in use. He added that he is looking forward to moving of the ninth grade to the junior high, a plan favored several years ago. This will relieve high school crowding.

Miss Ruth Eriksson, Smith school principal, gave details of the unique Smith School P.T.A. system which has worked so successfully. Each room has its own parent-teacher meetings and general meetings are held twice a year. This brings the parents closer to their children and the teacher. Citizenship assemblies on Mondays are also welcomed by the children. They are taught such things as care of their books and the school.

Starkweather school's principal, Miss Mildred Field, said that putting 470 children in a building designed for 350 is not a good situation, but new ideas are still being tried. A class for the mentally retarded children had been started in the school last summer, continued in the fall at a nearby church and now has been taken to the Gallimore school. Starkweather is also providing for the advanced children. Miss Field added, by starting off-hour clubs in such fields as cooking, Spanish, and French.

Donald Rank, Allen school principal, said that a gym program has again been set up and that the children like it. He noted that the teachers, through special classes last summer, are delving more into science. He also praised the P.T.A. for its work and the safety program which has avoided accidents along Haggerty road where there are no sidewalks.

Mrs. Nancy Tanger, principal of Bird school, also said that this is the first time in four years that all of the children can get into the gym. One of the new features being tried this month is having all kindergarten children eat in the cafeteria. She said that having them eat there once this year will eliminate the fear they usually have when eating there for the first time when they are first graders. She also praised the

MICHIGAN BELL

"MOM, can I stay at Tommy's for lunch?" Just a simple telephone message, but because of it Mom knows just where her youngster is. The telephone makes it easier to keep track of the children. Remind them to call you if they're going to be late getting home from school or if they stop off at a friend's house. And, Mom, you can check on Junior's whereabouts just by calling the neighbor down the street. Why not let your telephone help you all it can? It's always there, ready to serve you whenever you need it.

TELEPHONE OFFICES on wheels are being used in a number of fast-growing communities. Eight of these large trailers, carrying complete dialing equipment, are now in use. They were wheeled into rapidly built-up towns where the demand for telephone service increased faster than anyone could foresee. They serve up to 1,200 customers apiece. These trailers were put into operation in a matter of weeks. Michigan Bell was one of the first telephone companies to use this ingenious mobile central office to help provide service until telephone buildings can be enlarged to house permanent equipment.

BELL SYSTEM Credit Cards are now more convenient than ever. They make it so easy to telephone Long Distance when you're away from home. Just say to the operator: "I want to make a Credit Card call. My card number is..." Your call goes through and is charged to your own telephone. You'll find it comes in mighty handy when you're traveling or visiting in another's home. So, if you don't already have a Bell System Credit Card, call our Business Office and ask for one. Credit Cards are furnished free of charge, of course.

MRS. EDMOND WATSON

Mrs. Edmond Watson Chosen Local Club's 'Woman of Year'

Members of the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club have initiated the policy of annually choosing a "Woman of the Year," and the first to receive this honor is Mrs. Edmond Watson, a long-time Plymouth resident with an extensive record of service to education, to youth and to her community.

Mrs. Watson, known to her friends as Ada, is currently principal of the Walker and Sheldon schools. Wayne, a job she has held for the past three years. She will be honored at the May 20 meeting of the club.

A graduate of Plymouth high school, Mrs. Watson received her B.S. degree in education from Eastern Michigan College and her master's degree in education from Wayne university. She also did graduate work at Columbia University, taught school for several years and served as a local 4-H club leader for 15 years and as club den mother and Campfire Girls' guardian.

In addition, she is a member of the Plymouth First Presbyterian church and taught Sunday school here for six years during the forties.

From 1945 to 1954, Mrs. Watson served as supervisor of elementary education in the Wayne County Board of Education.

Outside of her professional duties, Mrs. Watson has led an active life in other groups. For two years she has been secretary of Delta Kappa Gamma society, Kappa chapter, an honorary teachers' society. She is a past president of the Michigan Helping Teachers' association and past executive secretary of the Michigan Rural Teachers' association. Within the Business and Professional Women's (BPW) club, she has held the positions of secretary, program coordinator and, at the present time, president. Serving on the Georgia Emory scholarship fund, she is a member of the BPW state board. Other groups which Mrs. Watson belongs to are the school activities committee of the Michigan Historical Society and the Plymouth Historical Society. In addition to these duties, Mrs.

Watson has been a mother to Sidney Davison, her husband's nephew who has been living with the couple in their home at 12900 Dunn court since he was three years old. He graduated from Plymouth high school and is now employed in the research department of Ford Motor Company in Dearborn.

Mrs. Watson loves flowers and a bouquet of them on her desk is almost a trademark. When she has any spare time, she also enjoys baking. But, the pattern of activities in her life is quite consistent in showing a continuous dedication of service to young people.

Bowling Banquet, Communion and Scissor Sharpener Men Make News This Week

The Suburbanite Bowling League held a banquet Saturday evening, May 18, at Westwood Gardens. About 70 persons attended. Among those present were Dee and Eugene De Wulf, Woodring ave., Rosemary and Pat O'Brian, Fairfield, Bob and Marge Boss, Mayfield, Fred and Lucille McNulty, Ingram, Jean and Stan Gizowski, Vermont ave, Betty and Marty Wallo, Mayfield and Barb and Frank Brady, Ingram.

Marilyn Rutherford, Mary Wilson and Margaret Briggs celebrated Mother's Day, minus their children Sunday night, May 12 and took off for Garden City to take in a movie.

Jean and Stan Gizowski, along with children Lee and Skippy, of Vermont visited Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Moynihan in Detroit on Mother's Day. The Gizowskis have a new addition to their family, too, a little dachshund known as "Baby."

Lots of fun in our neighborhood last week when the scissor-sharpener man came along in his cart, ringing his bell, and the kids all ran out to buy ice cream from him. Seems to me it would be a good idea for mothers to own a bell like that, and when they can't locate junior, just go out and ring it.

Bobby Golasa, Vermont avenue, made his First Holy Communion at St. Michael's church Sunday, May 12.

Virginia and Ted McDevitt, Cranston, are parents of a brand new baby girl, Dianne Elizabeth, born Saturday, May 11 at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital. Dianne weighed six pounds, 12 ounces.

When the neighborhood small fry collect, pick him out of the crowd.

Sandy Kobiata, Vermont, celebrated her sixth birthday Saturday, May 11, with a party. Small fry present were Kris Dana, Christine, Donna and Diane Felice, Janie Frost, Susie Beck, Karen and Kathy Madigan, and Sandy's brother Mike and sister Karen.

Melanie Miquelon, Hubbard, made her First Holy Communion at St. Michael's church Sunday, May 12. Guests at Miquelon's for Mother's day were Melanie's grandma, Mrs. John Burley, and aunts, Mrs. Howard P. Lynch and Sue Burley, of Flint.

Better-Late-Than-Never Department: A birthday party was held for Vivian Quick, Vermont, Friday, May 17. The fact that the party was about a month late, due to Viv's sister being in California at the time, didn't spoil it a bit. Present were Mrs. Gerald Sheldon, Mrs. Janet Olson and Mrs. Jackie Sheldon.

Welcome to the new neighbors at 11035 Ingram. Mr. and Mrs. Masse and sons Joe and Jack.

Blessed Event on Ingram: Lucille McNulty's tropical fish presented her with 14 babies, as yet unnamed.

Nancy and Phil Snowberger, Oregon avenue, drove to Ravenna, Ohio over the weekend to visit Nancy's folks, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Murray, and her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Collette, and to see their new cottage at Muzzy Lake.

Joanna Roble's mother, Mrs. A. T. Edmondson from Muskogee, Okla., has been visiting her on Loveland avenue for the past two weeks.

Pat and Ken Luch, Vermont, attended a wedding in Detroit recently and must have had a pretty good time, because they didn't get home until the next day.

Billy and Mary Kumbier, Vermont, have been entertaining fine cases of the measles.

Did anyone try to get Mother's Day cards on the weekend of the 17? I did, and all I could find was "To father on Mother's Day," "To Aunt on Mother's Day," etc., and finally ended up composing my own. Seems as if they're trying to get everyone in the act these days.

Saw one of our newer neighbors, John Coleman of Montana avenue out recently getting his petition signed. John is running for the school board.

The Nattius, Edna and Norm of Vermont have a new baby boy, Michael Girard was born Friday, May 10. He has two sisters, Vicki and Susie.

The Latin classes at Bentley high school held a picnic at Riverside Park Wednesday, May 15. Six teachers were present and some of them brought their wives and children to freeze half to death with them. Teachers present were Mr. Boeve, Mr. Hartman, Mr. Hartwig, Mr. Adler, Mr. McGlone, and Mr. Rotrock. Among the students who enjoyed baseball, tennis and a wiener roast were Roger Gill, Janet Ringler, Janice Staples, Pete Castle, Meredith Keras, Gail Gibson, Carol Pulfer, Megan Richards, Don Pomroy and Leslie Borgia. Don said the picnic was "a real blast, real casual" and when I mentioned that there just couldn't be such a thing as a real casual blast, I was told I ought to stop using English and start speaking American.

Dr. Ralph Rabinovich, director of Hawthorne Center, Northville, was guest speaker at the Republican Club Friday night, May 10, when it met at the First Federal Bank building Sheldon Center. Other guest speakers were Livonia Police Commissioner Dallas Hay and Robert Baumgardner, head of the juvenile division of the Livonia Police department.

Eric Falzetti, Westmore avenue, celebrated his eighth birthday last week and shared honors with his mother, Betty, at a family dinner that featured both a birthday cake and a Mother's Day cake. Eric's birthday was really May 17 so he celebrated again by bringing a treat for his second grade class at Rosedale school.

Tyra Hilgers, Westmore avenue, made her First Holy Communion May 12 at St. Michael's church. The same Sunday the Hilgers and Tyra and Terry took the train for a quick trip to Chicago and returned Monday.

Last Saturday evening, Jean Snyder's brother, John Holden of Detroit and Miss Marilyn Teft of Plymouth were married at the Methodist church in Plymouth. Jean was the matron of honor and Glen was an usher. Barbara got in the act, too as flower girl while little Bobby had to be content with being a mere guest.

The final board meeting for the retiring officers of Welcome Wagon was held at the home of Rosemary Hilgers on Westmore avenue May 17.

Hey, Pop, here's a real legitimate excuse to get out of helping with the dishes Monday evenings, sort of a night out with the boys. The Cub Scouts play baseball at Rosedale school every Monday evening at 6:30 p.m. and could use a rooting section.

Mrs. Fedus' morning and afternoon kindergarten classes from Rosedale school had a fine treat last week when they were taken on a trip to Willow Run airport. They toured the terminal building, watched planes take off and land and visited the hangers. After all this, they were taken to Mrs. Fedus' small farm where they had a picnic lunch, played with the burro "Cisico" and saw the peacocks, baby kittens and the fish pond. Nine mothers, including Mrs. Marilyn Rutherford of W. Chicago, went along to help out.

St. Michael classmates of Katie Lendfesty surprised her with a party at her home on Cranston avenue in honor of her 13th birthday. I heard that Katie was so surprised that she jumped about five feet in the air when she walked into the living room and found all her friends there. Girls attending were Charlene Gamber, Kathy Biddinger, Linda Lorion, Judy De Clark, Kathy Darrah, Marie Heath, Sherry Johnson, Barbara Adamczyk and Nancy Grasser. The girls prepared a nice spread of pop, and potato chips, Charlene Gamber baked the birthday cake, and Katie received lovely gifts.

Happy to report that Maxine Cowden of Ingram avenue has recovered from her illness.

Winning team of the Suburbanite Bowling League, the Brady Hardware team, won a trophy. Members of the team are Barbara Brady, Freda Hopkins, Elaine Ostlar, Sylvia Kersten and Dee DeWulf.

Sunday, May 19th Fred and Lucille McNulty attended the christening of her nephew, David Charles Holman of Westmore avenue and also First Communion of their niece Mary Margaret Holman and nephew Jimmy Hall of Garden City at St. Raphael's church, Garden City. In the afternoon they attended a barbecue given by Jimmy's parents, Archie and Betty Hall.

Betty and Gordon Dana and their children Laurie, Kris and John of Vermont, along with Betty's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Starr, visited Betty's grandmother, Mrs. Emily Wescott in Imlay City on Mother's Day. On the way up, they stopped to visit Gordon's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Dana, near Romeo and see the new baby, Melissa.

Linda Bujewski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Bujewski, Vermont avenue, made her First Holy Communion at St. Michael's church. Linda's grandparents, Mrs. Bernice Wachowicz and Mr. and Mrs. T. Bujewski, Sr., from Chicago were guests for the day.

Lucille and Fred McNulty, Ingram, and children Diane and Freddy visited Lucille's folks, Mr. and Mrs. John Holman, in Redford Township Mother's Day and Fred's folks, Mr. and Mrs. George McNulty, also of Redford Township.

Karen Schmidt flew in from Chicago Friday morning, May 10, to be the guest of Wayne Conway, Vermont avenue, at the Bentley senior prom at Ann Arbor Saturday, May 11. The couple attended a "cocktail" party before the prom and a dinner after the prom, and I hear that Karen looked quite lovely in her prom gown and Wayne looked very dashing in his tux. My, how these kids grow up suddenly.

Christine Felice, Westmore avenue, made her First Holy Communion Sunday, May 12, at St. Michael's church. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Felice, held the open house in the afternoon for friends and neighbors.

Forty-four members of the Rosedale Garden branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden association met at the First Federal Bank building last week for a pot-luck luncheon and a hat fashion show. The hats, fashioned by members, were of vegetables and flowers. Models were Mrs. Robert Bruce, Mrs. Floyd Anger, Mrs. Erwin Bergner, Mrs. Frank Hokenson, Mrs. Harry Boorman, Mrs. Charles Gardner, Mrs. E. W. Blankenhagen and Mrs. Paul Grismer. Mrs. Anger's hat, a turban-like affair made up of such un-hatish materials as redishes and spinach, was judged prettiest and Mrs. Bruce's creation, resembling a greens' market and consisting of evergreens and pine cones and even a price tag was judged as most original.

Bobby Hunter, Vermont avenue, celebrated his fourth birthday Saturday, May 18, with a party for his neighborhood chums. Attending were Jean Bujewski, Bobbie-girl Snyder, Diane Forest, Kenny Luch, John and Kris Dana, Kevin Gilday and Bobby's sister Susan.

Have you given thought to the spray program, sponsored by the Rosedale Gardens civic association? No, the mosquitoes didn't all freeze to death in last week's cold spell, and they're all busy teaching their children to sink their fangs into your juicy flesh. Ten dollars pays for four sprays, and if everyone gets busy on it, the mosquitoes will be among the missing in Rosedale Gardens this summer. Call GA. 1-3126 or GA. 2-8310 for further information.

The Pomroys had my folks, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ogden of Nankin Township, for dinner guests on Mother's Day. Then, because Mom's present wouldn't fit in their car, the Pomroys had to load it in the station wagon and visit the Ogdens. My mother's hearts desire was, of all things, a sling chair.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Puckett, Auburndale avenue, had their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Puckett and their two children Diana and Steven of Sorry to report that at this writing Fran Koteles, 14-year-old daughter of Al and Irene Koteles of W. Chicago is seriously ill in University hospital, Ann Arbor. Fran is in the Medical Building, Fifth floor, East Wing, Room 5111, and is quite lonely. If any would care to send her a word of cheer, I'm sure it would be appreciated.

That's the story for Rosedale Gardens for another week, folks. Give me a ring and tell me what you're doing, huh?

The MAIL Attitude

BY PAUL CHANDLER

SAULT STE. MARIE, Mich.—Our family stole a couple days to come up here to the hub of the Great Lakes and visit our parents. It gave Tommy a chance to pay his Mother's Day respects to both his grandmothers, and also a chance to talk to my father, who was in the hospital ridding himself of some undesirable chest pains.

This is the old home town for both Dorothy and myself and it's always interesting to see what's developing. The Sault is one of the oldest cities in the nation and there hasn't been much change in basic pattern for many years.

But Plymouthites might be interested in the last local election. For years the Sault's city hall government has been rather calm and without controversy. Elections come and go with only lukewarm contests and few real issues. The candidates generally contest "regular" thinking.

This Spring, however, the waters were stirred to a froth by a young dentist who moved into the city from Detroit four or five years ago. He is a lusty rebel and has been jumping on toes and sticking pins into sacred cows for many months. He has been mad personally about a property assessment given him and about some zoning that involved his clinic.

His opponent took one of the traditional family names in the Sault and most voters assumed that while the dentist would inject some unusual interest into the election, he would take a routine whipping at the polls.

To the astonishment of all, the rebel won the mayor's chair by better than 2 to 1 and the old town pioneers now chuckle and observe, "You know, there isn't a soul who'll admit voting for the dentist, and yet he got enough votes to win easily. Isn't that strange?"

The Sault has been uncommonly concerned lately about "dying on the vine." Industry has been cutting back or leaving the city. But everyone is counting on the new Mackinac bridge to sharpen up the tourist business and pump some new life into the bloodstream.

Just so Plymouth folks can know that trends are the same all over the state, there are the anguished cries in the Sault area from persons living in Soo Township outside the city limits. Up until recently taxes out there have run around $30 or $40 a year. But now they're building a new school and the taxes have quadrupled during the past two years.

We inspected the Mackinac bridge closely enroute here, and it is an object of absolute wonderment. The most impressive thing to me, everytime I pass, is the height of the two central towers. They soar 550 feet above the water and that, folks, is a long, long way into the sky.

Right now the workmen have started to lay the road bed between the two towers. Most of the work from either end, up to the towers, seems to be complete. On the shores the road engineers are hurrying along with new, complicated highways that will lead to the bridge entrance.

I have to correct a couple of figures published in this space two weeks ago.

The tax increases we described for our area are going to be about 10 percent higher than even we predicted. The State of Michigan it develops, is going to "equalize" the County figures by about that amount. And, as we said earlier, the County itself is hoisting all assessments drastically. There is one ray of hope that brightens the general picture—the "increases" represent maximum limits; it is possible some districts won't have to levy the maximum.

And the price on that property offered the schools for a 10 acre site in the Greenspan Lakepointe Village development is about $45,000, instead of $70,000, as we had been told.

In Plymouth recently there were a couple of amusing anecdotes.

School board members heard reports from all principals last week which told of the progress during the past year. Elementary principals reported that additional science training given teachers last summer has paid dividends in the form of more science projects for the younger pupils.

But Gallimore School Principal Earl Gibson related one project which has bogged down in the fourth grade room of Miss Patricia Hurt. To illustrate the necessity of sunlight to make plants grow, Miss Hurt put one box of plants in a closet and another near a window.

A reasonable length of time has now elapsed for the closeted plants to depart from this world. Alas, science has failed to cooperate, and Miss Hurt now has the tough assignment of explaining to her young "uns why plants in the window are thriving better than the ones near the window.

A theft took place recently right in Plymouth's police department but it was quickly solved by the person whose property was stolen. Dick Fritz, 267 Blanche, was standing at the police station counter to have his driver's license changed. While the clerk was talking with two youths, Dick walked a few steps away to the city treasurer's window and left his license behind. Upon returning, the youths had departed—and so had his license. Dick hiked out of city hall, caught up with the two in time and got his license back. He decided not to prefer charges.

But the irony of this story is that the youth who had snatched the license had come to the police department to complain about fender skirts that had been stolen from his car.

The most intriguing news story we've read all week was on the sports pages of the Free Press. That was the one telling how Reno Bertoia of the Detroit Tigers traces his amazing improvement this season to the new tranquilizer pills, sometimes known as "all is well" pills.

From the first day I heard of those drugs I somehow wondered about them in terms of sports. If they really do soothe anxieties, the implications are wonderful. What about all those good athletes who "choke up" in a tight situation and go to pieces? All those guys who look like phenomena in practice, and bums in the actual game?

And, to be completely candid, I wondered about them in terms of my own golf game. It isn't exactly a closely guarded secret among my friends that I'm nobody to depend on in a tight match. Particularly on the putting green. I am undisputed master of missing the 12-inch putt, when money rides on it.

Well, if it's good enough for Bertoia, it's good enough for me. Watch out you guys—I'm going for the tranquilizers. Relaxation... that's it. Short putts? Nothing to them... now.

And heaven help ya', Bertoia, if this statement of yours is just a publicity stunt.

American Legion News

Memorial church services will be held at the First Baptist church, Mill and Spring streets, at 11 a.m., Sunday, May 26.

The 17th district Memorial services will be Sunday, May 26, 2:30 p.m., at Rural Hill cemetery, Northville. In case of rain, they will be held in the Lloyd H. Green post home, Northville.

Attending the 16th district meeting at River Rouge, May 14, was Robert Wilson and Dorothy Koi, candidate for department historian.

Mrs. Dorothy Knapp attended the area cooperation group, May 14 at the high school. A "town hall discussion" is planned in June to meet the school board candidates.

A certificate of recognition was also given to the Passage-Gayde post 391 at the volunteer recognition ceremonies at the V.A. hospital, Ann Arbor, May 14. The post was represented by Barney Kot, service and welfare officer, and Commander Ernie Koi.

A fish-fry was held at the Cook-Nelson post 20 in Pontiac, May 17, for 18th district candidate, for Department commander Elton Knapp.

Phyllis Miller is in St. Joseph Mercy hospital, Ann Arbor. Her room number is 7001. Let's cheer her up with some cards.

Next post meeting is June 5, veterans community center. Auxiliary's next meeting is June 13; veterans community center, with nomination and election of officers.

Children of Deceased Veterans may apply now for aid under the war orphans' educational program. Early application will assure completion of preliminaries before time for college enrollment. Sons and daughters of war veterans who died as a result of injuries or diseases incurred in war service are eligible, as are children of World I, World War II and Korean conflict veterans who died in service or since discharge from service of connected causes. They must be between the ages of 18 and 23, with some exceptions. The aid amounts to $110 per month for those attending full-time at a college or other authorized school, with lesser amounts for those attending part time. They may receive up to 36 months of schooling.

At least a month is normally required for the Veterans Administration to check its records and determine whether the applicant meets basic eligibility requirements. Then vocational guidance is given to help the young person's living parent or guardian map out an objective and a program of study. Final approval can be given only after this counseling has been completed. With many schools and colleges crowded, the student who delays too long may find that there is not room for him in the school of his choice.

The American Legion Passage-Gayde post and auxiliary presented an American flag to the Plymouth high school band at their concert May 16.

Grange Cleanings

There was a very good attendance at the Grange meeting last Thursday evening. Four more new members were obligated in to the order. A memorial service was conducted by the Worthy Chaplain in memory of four members who have passed on during the past year: John Jacobs, Oscar Curtis, Stanton Lango and Mabel Oldenburg.

Arthur and Angie Blunk are at home now and are doing fine along the road to recovery from cuts and bruises received in their car accident two weeks ago.

Chloe Powell is improving wonderfully and is expected to be able to come to her niece's home in a day or two.

The next important date is the Fish supper, Saturday night, May 25, from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m. There will be plenty of fish and the menu consists of fish, potatoes, cabbage slaw, bread and butter, dessert and coffee. Please make reservations by Friday noon if possible. You may call 1852-R, 201-R or 2392-J. Invite your neighbors to come. Cards and dancing will follow the supper.

Priscilla Tobey, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tobey of 483 Maple, is now at home after a six-weeks stay in Henry Ford hospital, Detroit, and is doing nicely.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Brownie troop 18 enjoyed a cookout at the Kiwanis Girl Scout lodge Wednesday, May 22. Mrs. John Ing, Mrs. Leroy Woodward and Mrs. Carolyn Darnell, troop committee members, assisted Mrs. Harry Larsen and Mrs. Phil Barney, troop leaders.

Members of intermediate troop 26 have been very busy this spring. At a recent meeting, Mrs. Lewis Von Stein, who had brought along a basket of gardening equipment, instructed the girls on planting seeds.

May 3 and 4 the troop had their second overnight at the Kiwanis Girl Scout lodge. While there, patrol 1 presented a skit concerning the rules of the road for hiking. Patrol 2 demonstrated the rules for fire safety. Troop members went on a nature hike in the park, and with the help of Mrs. William Edgar learned to identify a few plants and trees. May 10 they drove out to the home of Mrs. Edgar and again hiked into the woods, learning the identity of more trees and plants. Mrs. Charles Zoet and Mrs. Helen Spence are leaders of troop 26.

Intermediate troop 30 have been working on the requirements for their second class badges. Thursday, May 16, they entertained Brownie troop 25 at the Methodist church by putting on the skit, "I've Got a Pain in My Sawdust." After the skit, both troops played games and sang songs. The songs were led by Margery Redeman, senior Girl Scout, who assists Mrs. Earl Luelfing, leader of troop 30. Refreshments climaxed a very enjoyable afternoon. Mrs. John Davids and Mrs. Robert Van Meter are leaders of Brownie troop 25.

Brownie and Girl Scout uniform exchange is now being handled by Mrs. Charles Beardslee, 15800 Fry. If girls will note the size on uniforms to be exchanged, it will help Mrs. Beardslee. Her number is 3114-W.

Chamber to Pass On Reports of Gyp Artists

The Community Protection Service committee of the Chamber of Commerce has inaugurated a new service to help merchants become aware of approaching gyp artists. Manager J. H. Wilcox said that the police department has agreed to turn over any reports of check and short-change artists who are reported in the vicinity. Police receive area-wide reports over a teletype system. L. B. Rice is chairman of the committee.

The bulkiest of living reptiles is the salt-water crocodile of Australia's tropical streams. Fiercely aggressive, this 30-foot dragon will go out of its way to attack men.

THE WESTERN WAYNE Board of Realtors presented certificate of merit for long service to four of its members at a meeting at Arbor Lill last week. From left are H. Edward Totzke, president of the Michigan Real Estate Association; Mrs. Maude Billman, 31 years in business; John McFarlane, 25 years; and Harry S. Wolfe, 30 years. Not present was Donald McFarlane with 33 years. John McFarlane is president of the Western Wayne board.

ALTHOUGH THE library is crowded nowadays due to construction going on, there is still room for exhibits such as this artwork performed by Gallimore school pupils of Stanley Hench. A young visitor to the library, Billy McMillan, looks at some of the outstanding work that is being explained by Mrs. Williams, library worker, and Hench.

Veterans Foreign Wars

May 24 is Poppy Day! Disabled veterans and their dependents constitute one of the tragic aftermaths of every war. For them, the war never ends, and the ordinary comforts and luxuries of life are denied. Their problems go on interminably, from day to day, and obligations to them continue year after year. To meet these obligations to less fortunate comrades and their dependents, the Veterans of Foreign Wars has for 36 consecutive years conducted the annual sale of Buddy Poppies. Millions of dollars have been raised and wisely used, but the job is never finished. In 1957 there is a greater need than ever for the dedicated efforts of all.

Memorial church services will be held Sunday, May 26, at 11 a.m. at the First Baptist church on Spring and Mill streets. Those who wish to attend are to meet in front of the church at 10:45 a.m.

Wanted: auxiliary members to make a trip to the Veterans Hospital in Ann Arbor Wednesday evening, May 29. Please contact Mildred Dely, 1888-W1.

Tickets are now available for the post and auxiliary family picnic, to be held June 30 at the VFW hall. For further information, call Dick Neale 2329-M.

During Disneyland's first year of operation, adult visitors to the Southern California amusement center outnumbered children four to one.

EVANS PRODUCTS' latest item on the market is this plastic skiff which will safely support youngsters up to 100 pounds.

Evans Products Makes Plastic Skiff

With American families flocking to the beach and pool in phenomenally increasing numbers each summer, children can literally "paddle their own canoes" with a water specialty all their own, the manufacturers point out. But unlike Tom Sawyer or Huck Finn, the firm doesn't recommend paddling the Mississippi in it.

A plastic skiff that will safely support youngsters up to 100 pounds is now being manufactured by the Evans Products Company of Plymouth.

The non-tippable and non-sinkable craft is designed for play at the vacation beach or neighborhood swimming pool. A plastic outrigger pontoons give it stability while a Styrofoam "inner-body" gives it buoyancy.

An average farm kitchen requires 20 to 30 tons of water each year.

Proper Mowing Makes Big Difference in Lawn Appearance

Proper mowing contributes greatly to a better looking lawn and the equipment used makes a lot of difference in the results as well as the effort required.

Choose the right mower height—or maybe two heights for your lawn. For example, you may choose close clipping for the main part of your lawn, then change the mower to a higher cut for play areas, shade problems, slopes facing south or west and for unusually dry conditions.

Also, with the arrival of summer heat, cutting heights should go up temporarily to give the roots additional shading from the sun's heat.

You should mow often, every week or less. Start as soon as there is any grass to cut in the spring. Then mow whenever the lawn gets half again its height after mowing. Allowing grass to grow too tall between mowings leads to toppling, thin and spindly growth. Contrary to popular opinion, it doesn't "build strength into the roots".

According to O. M. Scott & Sons, one of the nation's leading lawn seed suppliers, keeping the lawn mower sharp is a common problem. Tired, browned look of many lawns is sometimes caused by the mowers tearing or bruising tips as they "chew" through. Most mowers are difficult to sharpen and many can't be properly sharpened except by professionals.

What to do about clippings? If you maintain a deluxe, closely clipped lawn you won't be satisfied to have the clippings left on it. But if you mow at medium or high cut you can leave them if you wish.

You must pick up the clippings, though, if they are heavy or if your mower is the kind that can't distribute them evenly. There's some food value in clippings, of course. In time they rot and this goes back into the soil. In the meantime, the rotting mass provides host material for harmful fungus development. You may pay heavily for the food value by contributing to the disease problem.

If you decide not to rake or sweep regularly, do plan to curvy your lawn with a vigorous raking once or twice a year to remove the mat of accumulated grass and debris. Otherwise, this mat may become a thatched roof, keeping needed moisture and air from getting down to the grass roots.

A common mistake is letting the grass grow too tall before it is mowed for the first time. It's best for the grass to mow it at 1 1/2 inches or as soon as it reaches 2 inches. Then mow as often as needed to keep it from getting much more than 2 inches.

Rotary Or Reel Mowers?
Mowers satisfactory for home lawns are of two types—traditional reel as in hand mowers, and the newer rotary, successful only with power. Each has advantages. Reel-type cuts as close as 3/16 inch, important for golf putting greens but not for home lawns.

Rotary is the more practical machine for most home lawns. But it must be one of very special design to do an outstanding job. It needs an aerodynamically designed cutter blade that "lifts" the grass so it is all crew-cut to an even height. Most rotaries will handle tall, stemmy seeding spikes of grass or weeds that often appear in late spring or early summer. Some can be used

HERE'S HOW...

MAKE AN OUTDOOR STORAGE CABINET FOR GARDEN EQUIPMENT

An outdoor storage cabinet for ready accessibility of garden equipment makes gardening more pleasant. Hooks and hangers may be added to the doors or to the underside of the top board.

The sides are made of 2 by 10-inch lumber, 36 inches long. Cut outs are made where shown in the diagram to provide a flush fit for the rails. Make the rails of 1 by 4-inch lumber. The top is made of 2 by 12-inch lumber. The footings are two pieces of 2 by 4-inch lumber, 9 1/2 inches long.

To assemble the cabinet, fasten the footings to the sides. Join the sides by attaching the rails. Position the top and fasten it in place. Use glue and 8-penny rustproof nails. Attach the door stop.

Make the doors to the dimensions shown. Plane 1/4 inch from the edge of one panel for clearance for the door. Hang the doors with 1-inch butt hinges.

If desired, attach the cabinet to the building with cut nails.

WORK SAVER . . . This vegetable-row marker will save time in the garden—it spaces rows and furrows them at the same time. One runner is adjustable, held in place by bolt working in slotted cross-piece.

Fire Safety

Be sure all volatile and inflammable liquids like solvents, torch fuels, gasoline, etc. are stored in metal cans with non-leaking tops.

Check that Label On 'All-Purpose' Chemical Sprays

Gardeners shopping for an "all purpose" rose spray or dust should make sure the one they buy contains chemicals that will control mites, insects, and fungus diseases.

Julius Hoffman, Michigan State University, entomologist, says the best way to find out whether the product you are buying will do a complete job or not is to read the label.

A number of sprays and dusts containing a combination of chemicals are now available at garden supply stores. These combination treatments are popular with rose growers because they simplify the task of protecting a favorite flower from its numerous enemies.

But to be considered "all purpose," a product should contain materials that are effective against all three major types of rose pests.

Zineb, maneb, ferbam, captan or a copper-sulfur combination will control fungus diseases such as blackspot.

Neither copper nor sulfur will do the job alone, but the two work well together.

Mites are controlled with aramite or malathion. And the insecticides most likely to be found in rose dusts and sprays are DDT, lindane and malathion.

Check the label to make sure there is at least one chemical for each type of pest you want to control, advises Hoffman.

Dusts and sprays are equally effective if thoroughly applied. Rain washes the chemicals off the leaves and makes repeat treatment necessary. Weekly treatment is necessary in wet weather, but every two weeks should be plenty if it is dry, says Hoffman.

Proper Ground Cover Can Add Beauty to Your Yard

Properly chosen and cared for, ground covers can add to the landscape beauty of your yard and cut the time needed for care, says Joe Cox, extension specialist in landscape architecture at Michigan State University.

Ground cover plants are generally used in masses to cover a bare patch of ground or where trees are dense or low to the ground making it difficult to maintain a good lawn. Ground covers may be used on open, sunny banks, too.

Plants having a sprawling, creeping or prostrate habit of growth fit into use as ground covers. Cox suggests these plants as suitable for ground covers under Michigan conditions:

For shady conditions and year-around foliage—periwinkle or myrtle, baltic ivy, Japanese pachysandra and carpet bugle. All are under six inches in height except myrtle which is under one foot.

Life of Garden Tools Lengthened By Proper Care

Proper care of your garden tools can make them last longer and work better.

Rakes should be hung up, out of the reach of small children. Keeping them inside will prevent them from rusting.

Hoes, in addition to being hung up inside, should be dried before storing, and if wet, they should be oiled with an oily rag to keep them from rusting. This oil will come off, or "secur," in a few strokes in the soil.

A few strokes with the paint brush will identify your tools, in case someone borrows them or you leave them somewhere. And the painting will not weaken the handles, as carving or burning does.

Most wheelbarrows now have ball bearing wheels that are sealed and need no lubrication. Wheelbarrow handles can be painted or varnished with a mixture of 1/2 turpentine and 1/2 raw linseed oil for their protection.

If your wheelbarrow has a rubber tire, keep it inflated for easier pushing and longer life of the tire.

The first Canadian companies of Girl Guides were formed in 1919 at Toronto and St. Catharines, Ont.

COTTON MAID . . . Helen Landon of Huntingdon, Tenn., chosen 1957 Maid of Cotton, will tour world on behalf of cotton industry.

Good Care Keeps Lawns at Best

Best way to keep a good lawn good is to feed it twice a year—in the Spring, and in the fall. Here are four simple rules to follow for best results at least cost:

(1) Feeding: When the grass is dry, broadcast a plant food specially formulated for lawns, 2 lbs. to each 100 sq. ft. Water the lawn immediately after applying fertilizer.

(2) Watering: During late Spring and early Summer, never water the lawn until absolutely necessary, then give it a good soaking to a depth of 4 to 5 inches. Too frequent and too light waterings cause shallow rooting and weaken the grass.

(3) Mowing: Do not slip too close. Use a sharp mower and adjust so as to cut at least 1 1/2 inches above ground.

(4) Liming: Apply finely ground limestone every three years or so—5 lbs. per 100 sq. ft. If soil is sandy, apply 3 lbs. per 100 sq. ft.

Visitors from the U.S. to Britain are expected to total 290,000 in 1957, an increase of 15,000 over 1956.

College Chums Stage Get-together

Lila and Doug Vincent recently spent a few days in Grand Rapids visiting former college friends. The School Board election will be the subject of the second Town Hall meeting scheduled for June 6 at the Plymouth high school gym. The Area Cooperation group is again sponsoring the event, with Bob Fitzner acting as chairman and assisted by Bill Lyons and Dick Wernette.

The most powerful gasoline any car can use

Super Shell with TCP

- a new grade of gasoline—the successor to Shell Premium
- higher than "high test"
- more aromatics—the power ingredients of aviation fuel
- instantly and automatically supplies any engine with the full octane value needed under every driving condition

High-compression engines in today's automobiles are designed to deliver power undreamed of just a few years ago.

Yet, many of these engines are not delivering all the power their owners paid for, even on premium-grade gasolines.

To meet this critical need for a new, higher grade of gasoline, the Shell Oil Company introduces the most powerful gasoline any car can use—Super Shell with TCP*. It's the successor to Shell Premium.

Higher than any of today's "high-test" gasolines, Super Shell not only satisfies the needs of the highest compression cars but it also enables motorists who have been using premium-grade gasolines to enjoy more power than they ever thought possible from their automobiles.

Super Shell's tremendous energy is made possible by a built-in "power pack" of aviation fuel power ingredients. These are benzene, xylene, and toluene, the most precious power ingredients that can be used in making gasoline.

It is toluene especially, that enables Super Shell to supply, instantly and automatically, the full octane value required for knock-free power under every driving condition.

This means you get all the octane you need for quick getaway from a standing start . . . and instant full power for safe passing on the highway. And when you're cruising along, Super Shell's greater energy converts to extra mileage.

*Shell's Trademark for this unique gasoline additive developed by Shell Research. Patent applied for.
