

Vacations Donated to Church

Parsonage Built by Congregation

An unusual story will end soon when the last nail is pounded, the last beam painted. Not until then will the congregation of the Church of the Nazarene lay down their tools and look at a job well done.

For during the past four months the collective part-time business of the 165 member congregation has been devoted to building a parsonage behind their modern church at 41550 E. Ann Arbor Trail.

Amateur carpenters and painters have been devoting their spare time since April 9 to a nine room house which will soon be turned over to Reverend Charles Ide, pastor of the 23 year old Plymouth church.

It may not be too unusual that a few church members worked toward a common goal for several months. But when an entire congregation rolls up their sleeves and dons overalls to saw two-by-fours, pour cement, pound nails and plane boards, a tale of unselfishness unfolds.

The fact that the sun sometimes got pretty hot, or that some of the nails didn't pound too straight, or that most of them had never built a house before didn't seem to discourage anyone. As one of them said, "there was a job to be done and everyone pitched in and did it."

The house will cost $18,000 in material and furnishings according to Rev. Ide. The nine room parsonage consists of four bedrooms, two baths, a dining room, kitchen and living room with a nine foot mantel over a brick fireplace in the front room.

The pastor plans on accommodating 200 diners and he'll soon have a chance to prove it. The congregation will turn out en masse to celebrate homecoming with an open house September 22. Reverend Ide and his family will move in August 21.

The basement came in for special consideration with acoustic tile and indirect lighting. The Reverend has planned it so that the only basement entrance is through the two car garage.

With the exception of the plastering, plumbing, heating and some of the brick work, the entire project was done by the congregation. Original plans called for these jobs to be done by one of the church members, but an injury forced a call for outside help.

According to Reverend Ide, the local merchants "have been just great." Among those he mentioned were the Plymouth Lumber Company, Pease Paint & Wall Paper Co., Blunk's Inc., Otwell Heating & Supply Co., Priest Plumbing Co. in Garden City, Dobson Cut Stone Co. and Wimsatt Appliance Shop.

When construction began arrangements were made for church members to provide supper for the men so that as little time as possible would be lost from work. As it turned out an average of 12-15 men a night ate supper in the church, then stepped out the back door and worked from three to four hours. Some nights there were as many as 30 men at work.

Saturday found everyone putting in a 10 to 15 hour day. As if above and beyond the call of duty, several members gave up most of their vacations to the construction.

But it wasn't only members of the congregation who gave up their free time for a worthwhile project. According to Rev. Ide, Bob Stamper, 9300 Haggerty Road and Anthony Stofa, 9011 S. Main, laid out stakes and helped lay the framework without pay. Robert Betts, 9613 Morrison, did the brickwork with the aid of five men who labored for over a week.

As if building a house in four months while working part-time isn't enough, Reverend Ide has one complaint. "If the weather hadn't held us up this spring we'd be done by now," he said.

Final Colony Concert Draws Biggest Crowd

Last Sunday's Plymouth Colony Concert drew the best crowd of the season and raised hopes of its backers that the series will become an annual affair.

Some 1,300 people heard the Plymouth Symphony play the last concert of the outdoor series with Paul Olefsky, cellist, as guest performer. The 90-piece Plymouth Symphony presented the first concert of the series on June 30 while the Detroit Little Symphony played the second concert.

Conductor Wayne Dunlap said that Sunday's record crowd has raised hopes of the Plymouth Society concerning the future of the Colony Farms concerts. "Although we will end the season with a deficit, we have been encouraged by the interest," the conductor stated.

Dunlap said Sunday's crowd was not only the largest, but also the most responsive of the three-concert series. There was a large group attending from Jackson, as well as others from Ann Arbor, Grosse Pointe, Muskegon and many from surrounding areas.

Although the Symphony Board has not reached a decision about continuing the concerts, Dunlap said that he believes that the most difficult experiences are behind. The site on Plymouth Colony Farms, three miles west of the city, was donated for use by Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Pino of Detroit. A stage was built for this year's concerts and the area cleared.

Should the concerts continue and meet with success, permanent seating and lighting for night concerts will probably be among the considerations. Concerts this summer began at 5 p.m. and temporary seating was provided. Many, however, preferred informal listening by sitting on a blanket.

The Sunday concert-goers heard the Symphony play "Academic Festival Overture" by Brahms. With the soloist, they played "The Concerto for Cello and Strings" by Vivaldi and Tchaikovsky's "Variations on 'Rococo Theme'." Olefsky is first cellist of the Detroit Symphony.

While the summer concert season has just ended, the Symphony Society is now starting to make plans for the 1957-58 season. The first of the six-concert series will begin October 13. A membership drive will be held next month.

The outdoor series this summer has resulted in much publicity outside Plymouth. A page of pictures in Monday's Detroit Times was devoted to Sunday's concert. Other newspaper articles have also appeared in the New York Times, the Jackson Citizen-Patriot, Ann Arbor News and the Detroit newspapers.

Township Approves Zoning Ordinance

Registration Of New Students To Begin Monday

Students who will be attending Plymouth High School for the first time next month are being asked to register beginning Monday, August 19 during the hours of 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

The deadline for these registrations has been set for 4 p.m. on August 28.

Students in grades nine through 12 not already registered should contact Miss Virginia Olmstead or Robert Southgate in the counselor's office at the high school. If the new student is enrolling for the first time in Plymouth High School, he is asked to bring his scholastic records from the school previously attended.

Those students in the top four grades who classified before school was dismissed in June but who now want to change their class schedules, are also to contact the counselors during the days and hours mentioned.

Principal Carvel Bentley points out that by taking care of the registration and classifying before school actually starts, students will get a better choice of subjects and will receive more time in working out a satisfactory class schedule.

The bookstore at the high school will be open for those high school students who need to purchase books all day Friday, September 6 and Monday, Sept. 9. The store for used books will also be open on these dates. It is directed by the Pilgrim Prints staff. All high school students are being encouraged by the principal to purchase used textbooks if they are available. This amounts to a savings of about one-half on the purchase of books.

Riverside Park Picked For State Horseshoe Tourney

Riverside Park has been selected as the site for the State Championship Horseshoe Tournament, it was learned this week. The tourney will be Saturday and Sunday, September 7-8. Further details will be announced later.

Takes Two and a Half Years To Complete Final Document

After two and a half years of study, writing, revision and public hearings, a new ordinance has been approved by the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees.

The new ordinance is similar to that found in the city of Plymouth and other municipalities and covers many conditions and circumstances never before touched in the previous zoning ordinance. The new law replaces one adopted in March 1952.

Work on the ordinance was started in January 1954. There were numerous public hearings, some of them stormy, at which citizens were given a chance to express their views on the ordinance's text and map.

It is the map which drew the most interest with residents wanting to make sure that their homes would not lose value due to nearby industrial or commercial developments. After the law goes into effect 30 days from now, Superintendent Roy Lindsay points out that there will constantly be requests for changes in the map.

The new law, known as Ordinance 14, was approved by the township board at their meeting August 7. It had previously been approved by the township zoning commission.

The complete text of the ordinance and a reproduction of the map can be found in this issue. Booklets containing the text and map will be available for $1 to cover production costs.

One of the new additions to the ordinance is the off-street parking requirements. Every dwelling, commercial building and industry must furnish off-street parking. Each type of building has its own formula for figuring the number of off-street spaces required.

The ordinance also requires all parking lots to be paved. Also included in the ordinance is a section pertaining to air contamination and another dealing with the storage of vehicles. A section on trailer parks prohibits a park with less than 50 units.

Whereas the old ordinance had only five zoning classifications, the new ordinance has 12. They are agriculture, country estates, country homes, suburban residential, one family residential, two family residential, multiple family residential, public use districts, neighborhood shopping districts, commercial, light manufacturing and general manufacturing.

In brief, these are the differences:

Agriculture (AG): Use of agriculture districts is limited to only a few uses. The parcel of land must not be smaller than three acres and must have an average width of not less than one fourth the average depth of the lot. The western portion of the township is zoned agriculture.

Country Estates (R-1-E): The lot shall not be less than one acre and have a width of not less than 150 feet at the front or rear building line (unless lot was purchased prior to the ordinance).

Country Homes (R-1-H): Lots in this zoning district cannot be smaller than a half acre with a width of not less than 120 feet.

Suburban Residential (R-1-S): The lot shall not be less than 12,000 square feet and have a width not less than 90 feet (or about 90 by 133 feet).

One Family Residential (R-1): Lots cannot measure less than 12,000 square feet if there are no public sewers or water; less than 9,000 square feet if there are either sewers or water; less than 7,200 feet if there are both sewers and water. Lot widths must be at least 60 feet.

Two Family Residential (R-2): Each family living unit will require the lot area the same as for One Family districts.

Multiple Family Residential (R-3): Each dwelling unit will require a lot area of not less than 4,000 square feet for 1 bedroom apartments and an additional 500 square feet for each additional bedroom if the lot is not served by public water or sewerage system. If there is water or sewer, the minimum is 4,000 square feet per dwelling unit; if there's both water and sewer, the lot size can be 3,000 square feet.

Public Use (P): This area is set aside for municipal use (county, township, etc.).

Neighborhood Shopping (C-1): Stores locating in these districts could be classified as the personal service type of business such as drug stores, groceries, clothing service.

Commercial (C-2): This is the "heavier" type of business such as auto dealers, dry cleaners, theatres, bowling alley, etc.

Light Manufacturing (M-1): as the name implies, use is devoted to the less noisy and simple type of manufacturing.

General Manufacturing (M-2): Manufacturing of the heavier types are located in these districts. M-2 is found along the railroads.

Petunia Contest Ends Wednesday

While many homeowners have taken up the idea of planting petunias in response to the Plymouth Garden Club's plea this year, very few have entered the contest which offers prizes to the most pleasing plantings.

Mrs. Sidney Strong, chairman of the contest committee, said that those wishing to enter the contest should call her by next Wednesday night, August 21. Judging will take place the next day. "Many may now find that their petunias are doing much better than they were when entries were first asked in July," Mrs. Strong said. There are many who have planted petunias this year but have modestly not entered the contest. Only residents of the city are eligible to enter.

Judging will be based on pleasing colors and arrangements and they must show that they are well cared for. Plantings must be visible from the street.

The three judges are Ray Hentstock of the Garden Center, Detroit; Mrs. Glenn H. Cummings, president of the Northville Garden Club; and Hugh McAuley, head of the city's parks and forestry department.

Prizes are a $25 savings bond, $10 and $5 in cash.

TV Celebrates 10th Birthday In Plymouth

It was 10 years ago this month that most Plymouthites got their first glimpse of a marvelous new invention that hardly a home is without today—television.

Introducing the first TV set in Plymouth was Richard L. Kimbrough, now of Alma, Arkansas. He extended an invitation to residents to visit the Kimbrough Appliance Co. on Forest Avenue to view Tiger ball games or other events of interest.

An article in the Plymouth Mail at that time noted that a coaxial cable should be completed by 1948 which should make coast-to-coast telecasts common.

Kimbrough well remembers the first radio in Plymouth too. He was working for Jack Strong's Restaurant across from the depot when he helped Strong install the first radio. "People came from miles around to view this 'miracle' of the air waves, a huge affair with a big megaphone mounted on it for sound amplification."

Back in 1947, Kimbrough said this of TV: "It is just about perfected, we think now, and I imagine in the next few years there will be as much progress made as radio experienced from its start."

To Break Ground For Insurance Firm Offices

Groundbreaking will take place next Monday afternoon for the new home offices of the American Hospital Medical Benefit and the Community Mutual Life Insurance Company.

The building will be constructed on Plymouth road, just east of Holbrook avenue in the city. Officials in the community will be guests at a luncheon at the Hotel Mayflower before moving to the site where company president John J. Temple will turn over the first spadeful of ground.

The insurance firms, which are separate corporations but have nearly the same officers and directors, now are located in Detroit.

Entries for Sunflower Contest Start to Arrive

A half dozen folks have come up with entries in The Plymouth Mail's Sunflower Derby which opened last week.

We are asking that growers phone or write us their name and address, telephone number and the height of their sunflower, if they know it. We will be around to measure up the sunflower at a later date (as soon as we get a taller ladder).

Entries must be in by September 12. First prize is a two-year subscription to the Mail. Second and third prize will be world globes.

FUN IN THE SUN and water is enjoyed by hundreds of children every warm day in the wading pool, found in Riverside Park. The large pool, although right in Plymouth's back yard, is unknown by some local residents who seek such facilities for their youngsters. The pool is large and the water is changed by a spray shooting into the air. The wading pool is operated by the Wayne County Road Commission.

But Business Today is Poor

Bath in Barbershop Still Available

BY DAVID JOLLIFFE

There's a sign on the door of Grant Simpson's barbershop at 157 Liberty street written with yellow paint in a flowing style that reminds you of a bygone era. It says simply "BATH".

It's been a long time since any dusty traveler took advantage of Grant's hospitality. But then, the sign has been there a good share of Grant's 37 year reign at the barbershop and there used to be a lot of activity around the old-fashioned six-foot bath tub in the little room at the back of his shop.

Not that people don't take baths anymore—they have their own tubs now.

Most of the bath customers in that era of high button shoes, model T's and 10 cent shaves were either transients or roomers in the neighborhood. They found it easier to visit Grant than to wait their turn in the bathroom at the rooming house.

Of course they might have to wait in line to take advantage of the barbershop's facilities, too. But as Grant remembers, nobody seemed to mind very much. "There was always plenty to talk about while they waited," he recalls. "Conversation used to center around politics, prices and the Tigers, just as it does now."

Grant used to get 25 cents for the bath. That included all the hot water customers needed plus soap and towels.

But the price has gone up in this new fashioned age of atom bombs, jet travel and the four minute mile. Grant feels he's justified in charging 50 cents now for the same facilities.

Main street has been widened, the high school has a modern gymnasium and swimming pool, but Grant's shop hasn't changed much through the years. There's still two barber chairs which Grant and his assistant, Dean

Johnson, try to keep filled. There's even an old-fashioned cuspidor in the corner which still faithfully serves its purpose.

But Grant's kept up with the times. He has installed a couple of ultra-violet machines to store his electric clippers in during slack moments. A few years ago he put in a penny gum machine for his younger customers, but the pennies come out of his own pocket in reward for a little patience.

Grant takes it personally when you ask him why he doesn't take the sign off the door. After all, the bath business has slackened a little through the years.

"People would think I was trying to modernize the place if I closed up the bath," he says scornfully.

PUZZLING PERHAPS to the younger generation is the word "Bath" on the door of Grant Simpson's barbershop on Liberty street. A customer who once had no money painted the sign to pay for a haircut. The tub is still available, but it has been many years since it has been used. Simpson is shown opening the front door while his assistant, Dean Johnson, holds open the screen door.

Mrs. Irving J. Stewart

Irving Stewart, California Bride To Make Home in Ann Arbor

Pomona College's Bridges Hall of Music in Claremont, Calif., was the scene of the double ring ceremony Saturday, August 10, uniting Marilyn Louise Deitz and Irving J. Stewart.

Rev. Henry Kent officiated at the 5 o'clock ceremony in the presence of approximately 300 guests. Straw baskets of white gladioli, chrysanthemums and stock with a touch of blue delphinium served as decorations. White satin shoes marked the aisle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a waltz-length gown of tulle fashioned with a tight fitting bodice and a full skirt appiqued with Chantilly lace medallions. Pleated tulle formed the "V" neckline. The lace cap and veil were bought in Brussels by the bride.

She carried a cascade of white carnations and stephanotis surrounding a white orchid. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. Bruce Christoffersen, a cousin of the bride from Glendale, Calif. Bridesmaids were Marcia McVey of Glendora, Calif., and Helen Rogers of Bonita, Calif. The gowns were identically styled sky blue crystalline with panels of embroidered crystalline. The ballerina-length dresses were of princess line complemented by cut-crystal necklaces. The attendants carried white daisies with yellow centers and wore headpieces of white daisies.

Charles Stewart, brother of the groom from Springfield, Va., served as best man. Assisting ushers were Kenneth Deitz, brother of the bride; Bruce Christoffersen of Glendale; John Murphy of Corvina; and Richard Reek of Los Angeles.

The organist was William G. Blanchard of Claremont and the soloist was Patricia Clegg of San Marino.

The bride's mother wore champagne lace over taffeta dress with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue taffeta dress with pink and black accessories. The reception was held at Memorial Court Garden, Pomona College.

The bride chose a cinnamon red dress with black patent accessories for a trip to LaJolla. The couple will make their home in Ann Arbor, where Stewart is an instructor in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Michigan. He received a B.S.E. and M.S. from the University of Michigan. The bride received a B.A. from Pomona and a M.A. from Claremont College. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and Pi Lambda Theta.

WILL-CALL PRIVILEGE GRANTED FOR 10 DAYS WITH ONE-THIRD DOWN

Knight-Matusko Ceremony Performed by Bride's Father

Verlyn Virginia Knight and Edward Daniel Matusko of Detroit exchanged wedding vows and rings Saturday, August 10 at the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints on Lasher road in Detroit.

The bride's father, Elder Russell J. Knight, Brookville road, Plymouth performed the 7:30 ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride wore a waltz-length gown fashioned by her mother. The princess style creation of imported embroidered organza featured a square neckline, short sleeves and a hoop skirt. A crown of pearls secured her shoulder-length veil.

She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white roses with violet accents. She was given away by her uncle, Gilbert Gustavus of Birmingham.

Mrs. James Lancaster, Jr. of Detroit, in pink dotted swiss over taffeta and matching headband, served as matron of honor. She carried pink and white carnations.

The bridegroom asked the bride's brother Henry V. Knight of Auburn Heights to be his best man. Ushers were Eric Allen of Lake Orion, cousin of the bride and James Lancaster, Jr., of Detroit.

Mrs. Knight chose a gray lace over pink taffeta dress and matching hat. Her corsage was of white carnations and pink roses.

An aunt of the bride, Mrs. R. Dean Schick came from Cortland, N. Y., to sing Grieg's "Ich Liebe Dich" and Malotte's "The Lord's Prayer." Traditional music was played by the bride's cousin Sheri Allen of Lake Orion and her aunt Mrs. Gilbert Gustavus of Birmingham.

Mrs. Edward Matusko

Immediately following the reception in the church parlor, the newlyweds left on a trip to Traverse City. For traveling Mrs. Matusko donned a navy and white dress with white accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Matusko, both artists employed by the Bernard Thompson Studios, Detroit, will live in their newly-built home in Herrington Hills, Pontiac.

Mary Louise Ward and James Ray Jones were wed recently in an evening service at the Church of Christ by Brother Allen Barber.

The church was decorated with baskets of gladioli, carnations and snapdragons, candelabra and palms. An a cappella chorus sang "O Promise Me," "Tell Me Why" and "Because."

The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ward, 2623 Princeton in Inkster, wore a French imported nylon tulle with lace and pointed sleeves. A crown of orange blossoms and seed pearls held a finger-tip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Jones, 44809 Shearer Drive.

Glynette Cole served as maid of honor, wearing a mint green eyelet embroidered baptiste dress over green taffeta. She carried a bouquet of yellow carnations. The bride's sisters, Margie Smith and Marie Barber wore blue and pink dresses respectively of the same styling as the maid of honor. They carried pink carnations. Jennifer Smith was a junior bridesmaid and Faith Barber was flower girl. They wore blue and pink dresses respectively of eyelet embroidery over taffeta. Jonathon Smith served as ringbearer.

The bridegroom chose Gene Smith as his best man. Ushers were Gene Callis and Marvin Heskitt.

Mrs. Ward, the bride's mother wore a pale blue linen dress trimmed in lace with pink accessories. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Jones wore a navy blue linen dress with white accessories. Their corsages were of white carnations.

A reception was held in the church parlors with 300 guests attending from Detroit, South Lyon, Grand Blanc, Lincoln Park, Dearborn and Plymouth. The bride chose a pink dress with matching accessories for a trip to Niagara Falls.

Presently employed by Michigan Bell, the bridegroom graduated from Plymouth high school in 1956. The bride graduated in 1957 and is employed by Daisy Manufacturing Company.

The couple will make their home at 15099 Northville road.

Official Proceeding of the Plymouth Township Minutes

Wednesday, August 7, 1957
 A regular meeting of the Township Board was held at the Township Hall Wednesday, August 7, 1957 at 8:30 p.m. Present: Supervisor Lindsay, Board members Holmes, Broome, Norman, and Sparks.
 The minutes of the regular meeting of July 3, 1957 were read by the Clerk, approved, and accepted.
 A resolution adopted by the Planning Commission recommending the adoption of the proposed Zoning Ordinance and Map was presented by Mr. Lindsay.
 Moved by Mrs. Holmes and supported by Mr. Norman that the Board accept the recommendation of the Planning Commission. Carried unanimously.
 Moved by Mr. Sparks and supported by Mr. Norman that the following resolution be adopted:
 WHEREAS, there has been submitted to the Township Board of the Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, a new zoning Ordinance in text and a new zoning Ordinance map for the Township of Plymouth by the Planning Commission of the Township of Plymouth, and

WHEREAS, the said proposed new Ordinance and map have been formally approved by the Wayne County Co-ordinating Committee, and WHEREAS, the Township Board feels that in view of the accelerated growth and development of said Township and in order to protect and promote the public welfare, safety, morals, and general welfare, it is desirable to adopt said new zoning Ordinance, and map.
NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT We, the members of the said Township Board for the Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, do hereby unanimously approve and adopt the said proposed zoning Ordinance and map to be known as Ordinance Number XIV for the Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, upon Motion being duly made, seconded, and unanimously adopted that said Ordinance and map be published as required by law, in the Plymouth Mail, a duly designated legal publication, within ten days from the date hereof and that all other legal requirements be undertaken to give said Ordinance full force and effect.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that said Ordinance is to take effect thirty days after publication in the Plymouth Mail.
BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Clerk of the Township be authorized to order booklet pamphlets of said Ordinance and map to be made available to the public at a charge of One Dollar ($1.00) per copy.
 Carried unanimously.
 Moved by Mrs. Broome and supported by Mr. Sparks that the Treasurer be authorized to pay the bills as presented by Supervisor Lindsay. Carried unanimously.
 Moved by Mr. Norman and supported by Mrs. Broome that the Treasurer be authorized to pay for chloriding the roads upon receipt of a bill. Carried unanimously.
 Mr. Lindsay submitted a communication from the Greenspan Building Co. requesting evidence for the FHA that the Township had accepted dedication of the water system and sanitary sewer system for the subdivision. Moved by Mr. Norman and supported by Mr. Sparks that the matter be tabled for further consideration. Carried unanimously.
 The Supervisor reported a total of

for a validating and receipting machine submitted by the Burroughs Corporation, which was as follows: One Style 1010311 validating and receipting machine with cash drawer, less 5% Governmental discount—$1,019.53.

 Mr. Lindsay presented a letter from the Planning Commission requesting that all applications for building permits involving metes and bounds descriptions and/or questionable uses be referred to the Planning Commission. Moved by Mr. Norman and supported by Mrs. Holmes that the Clerk write the Building Inspector a letter, with copies to the Planning Commission and Fire Chief, requesting that all such applications for permits be referred to the Clerk, as a member of the Planning Commission. Also the Building Inspector should be requested to consult the Fire Department in all building permit applications for commercial, industrial, and all buildings of public assembly, and should notify that Department to make a final inspection before a certificate of occupancy is issued. Carried unanimously.
 Fire Chief Holmes requested that three firemen be sent to the Detroit Edison Industrial Fire School for three days. Moved by Mr. Sparks and supported by Mrs. Holmes that the three firemen be enabled to attend the school. Carried unanimously.
 Mr. and Mrs. Frank Keehl, 8910 Elmhurst, and Mr. Webb and his son, 40331 N. Territorial, were present in regard to property. Mr. Keehl had purchased from Mr. Webb, which failed to meet the area requirements for an agricultural district. DON'T OVER-DECORATE
 This is the most common mistake made by many who feel that they must use every decorative accessory they possess all of the time. The end result is usually a cluttered room, entirely lacking in unity and character, and one that's difficult to care for. Your room will have a greater chance of success if you . . .

START SIMPLY . . .

Rev. Kehrl Returns to Plymouth

Rev. Arnold H. Kehrl is returning to Plymouth after semi-retirement as minister of Scribner Avenue Baptist church in Grand Rapids.

Mr. Kehrl considers Plymouth his home town because he was born on a farm on Seven Mile road west of Northville and his parents moved here in 1925.

Living in Plymouth are: his brother Floyd A. Kehrl, vice president of the National Bank of Detroit; his sister Mrs. Lydia Dews of 418 North Main street, and daughter Mrs. Roland Bonamei, 899 Hartsough.

Mr. Kehrl's pastoral relations will terminate as of August 30. He began his ministry at Downers Grove, Ill., where he was publicly ordained by the Chicago Baptist association during his senior year in Northern Baptist Theological seminary. He also had Bible Institute training and college work in preparation for the ministry.

Mr. Kehrl's pastorates were as follows: Downers Grove, Ill., seven and one-half years; Detroit, 16 years; Dearborn, five years; Sault Ste. Marie, three years; and the six-year tenure in Grand Rapids. He will continue to do special work with the churches in the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Kehrl will live at 1045 Sutherland in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. William Chard of Fort Myers, Florida, and Mr. and Mrs. Al Stinchcomb of Hallandale, Florida, who are spending the summer in Michigan, were callers last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tremain on Clemons Road.

Mr. and Mrs. William McAllister have returned from a five-day cruise on the S. S. South American to Duluth.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz were week-end guests of their cousin, Mrs. Mary Barrett in Kalamazoo.

Summer is on the wane note: Dick Papes just back from the Chicago Gift Show where the new fall and Christmas line of gift-ware was displayed. Exhibits were held at the Palmer House, the LaSalle Hotel and the Merchandise Mart.

In an advertisement for the Vaughan R. Smith Realty firm last week, we committed the unpardonable error of mis-spelling Ralph Aldenderfer's name. Ralph, one of the top salesmen at Smith Realty was very gracious about the whole thing and in return we feel it only fair to introduce Ralph to our readers with name spelled correctly.

Ralph Aldenderfer

Wendell Lent reports that a tall Texan came into the store to be fitted for a new suit last week. When questioned as to whether he wished a vent in the coat, the Texan replied, "Son, with my money you can install a whole air conditioning unit."

A farmer purchased a hammer that was on sale last week at Plymouth Hardware for $1.25. The next day he was back and bought six more, the following day he bought a dozen. Ken Edgington, as he was wrapping up the purchase, said "say, it's none of my business, but I'm just curious as to what you're going to do with all these hammers."

The farmer replied that he was selling them to his friends for $1.00 each. "But, replied Ken, how can you do that, you're losing 25 cents a piece on each one." "I know," replied the farmer, but it sure beats farming."

Attracting much attention at Hoffman and Holdsworth's on Ann Arbor Road is the new Isotta "300" convertible sports car. We understand that it may become standard equipment on the new Cadillac next year.

Dave Galin, of Galin's Furniture and Appliance, is recovering nicely in New Grace Hospital, Detroit, from an operation performed last week. Dave asked us to pass along his appreciation for all the good wishes from his many friends in Plymouth.

A fine example of colonial furnishing may be seen in the model home of Plymouth's new subdivision, Arbor Village.

Furnished by the decorating division of King Furniture of Detroit and Plymouth, the model follows the colonial motif throughout. One may obtain many ideas on interior decorating by visiting this model.

WITH ONLY ONE loss during the season, the Northville V.F.W. became winners of the coveted Milk Can Trophy of the B League last Wednesday night. John Hoban, PHS coach and director of the summer diamond activities, is shown presenting the Milk Can Trophy to the team following the 13-1 win over Daisy. The V.F.W. club won nine.

THE RIDER

BY BOB FRANKLIN

I can only hope the horse show world has many more little members like Mary Wright. Mary has a bad case of Horse Fever and it looks like she is never going to get rid of it. She is the proud owner of a two year old, half Arab, half, Quarter Horse, colt. The colt just started his show ring training this spring and is making the slow climb to the title of Show Horse. Since spring Mary has taken a few falls, eaten a little dust and walked a mile or two while cooling her horse out, but this gal just won't give up. She is going to be a Champ, wait and see.

Barb Guegeon, owner of a fine Underwood mare, Glenda Bubbles, should be a happy girl right now. Glenda won the title of Grand Champion Halter Horse of the Pontiac Fair. Because of this win, Barb will be one of the representatives from Oakland county to the State 4-H Show.

Skip Lamereau hit pay dirt with his new Texas bred mare at the Oakland County Fair. The spring mare has taken a few falls, eaten a little dust and walked a mile or two while cooling her horse out, but this gal just won't give up. She is going to be a Champ, wait and see.

One of the most improved riders of the year, is Mary Travis. Mary has seemed to come into her own this season along with her little buckskin mare, Trixie. Trixie is the mother of two fine colts and until now she has been working too hard at being a mother to worry about the show ring.

Thursday and Friday of next week are the judging days for the horses at the Wayne County 4-H Fair. As I have said before, I can think of no better place to see the horsemen of tomorrow and to bolster your faith in the youth of today. Judging will start at 10 a.m., Thursday.

White Sox Wins 12-Under League

The Fred Libbing White Sox were just too much for Jim Dzurus's Yankees to handle last Friday night as the Sox batters crushed them, 10-3. The win crowned the Chicago name-sake club as 1957 champions of the 12 and under league.

A week of divisional play-off games preceded the contest. Through those games were the Sox and Yankees entitled to clash for the title on Friday.

Libbing's Nine started early, scoring four runs in the first inning, the big blow being a home run by Williams. Though the Yankees came back strong in the second with Wilamowski sending two runs home on his booming triple, the contest might as well have been called at that point.

The Sox offense again found the range on Yankee pitching, chalking up two runs in the third and four more in the fourth. The Yanks could manage but a single, unearned tally in the third, giving victory to their opponents.

The old clipper ships gained their speed by having hulls longer and narrower than ordinary vessels.

Visitors Win Benefit Game Behind No-Hit Pitching

Lincoln Heat Treat from Detroit made quite an impression on Plymouth softball fans with their exhibition here last Friday night. The Detroiters, matched with Beglinger Olds in a crippled children's benefit game, whipped the locals, 4-1 behind the no-hit pitching performance of Bernie Jones.

The Beglingerites were completely at Jones' mercy as he fanned 13 home town batters in seven innings. No Olds player was able to hit a ball out of the infield. Jones struck out two men in every inning but the last, when he whiffed only one.

Meantime, Plymouth hurlers Thibodeau and Street notched only one strikeout—a first-inning job by the former.

Lincoln pushed across two tallies in the first inning on a walk, double, and infield single. They picked up another in the sixth on a tremendous clout to center field by Mantz which easily netted a homer. Their final counter was obtained in the seventh on two Beglinger errors and a single.

Beglinger scored his lone run in the fifth when Stout's short pop-up to center was dropped by Lincoln second baseman Tili-cki for a two-base misque. Stout moved to third on a wild pitch and scored on an infield out.

The Beglinger players were visibly nervous at the onset of the contest, but as the game progressed, tenseness disappeared. However, Jones' speed was too much for the out-classed locals to cope with.

According to a visiting player, Jones is not actually their best hurler. "Jones is a little faster, but Mirks is the best. But since he's thrown the last three games in a row, Jones is going tonight," stated the player.

Nevertheless, it appears both are pretty fair country pitchers. Lincoln's record now stands at 34-3. Beglinger's mark is 16-2.

The Plymouth Rotary Club sponsored the event to raise funds for an Easter Seal Center being built in Western Wayne county. Donations of $121 were received from the more than 300 people who attended the game.

Lawrence Lyons, chairman of the event, noted that both teams, the umpires and John Hoban of the Recreation Department donated their time for the benefit. "We certainly want to say thanks for their effort," Lyons declared.

Beglinger Olds Wins Play-offs With No-hitter

Joe Thibodeau hurled a near-perfect no-hit, no-run game and Muggs Hunt slammed two singles in three trips to lead Beglinger Olds to the 1957 Class A Softball Championship over Chevie Spring and Bumper last Thursday night, 5-0.

A fourth-inning walk to Zev-check and two Beglinger errors were the only incidents to mar Thibodeau's performance. Joe fanned 12 Chevie batters—including a stretch of seven in a row—and allowed only one ball out of the infield in his no-hit exhibition, a seventh-inning fly to left by Tili-cki.

Meanwhile, Beglinger pushed across two runs in the third on a single by Thibodeau, two Chevie errors, and singles by Newton and Hunt. They picked up two more in the fifth on Shultz's triple, a walk to Wilkie, an infield out and a fly ball. And then added the final tally in the sixth on an error, single, and infield out.

Even in defeat, Tili-cki did a good job for the losers, allowing only six hits and striking out six. The Beglinger squad might well challenge the New York Yankees for maintaining supremacy in their respective leagues.

This marks the seventh consecutive year Beglinger Recreation Class A Plymouth Recreation Champions—a record which will be difficult to equal in coming years.

Inter-County League Crown Fades for Plymouth Merchants

The Plymouth Merchants suffered their second consecutive loss Sunday afternoon, this time to league-leading River Rouge, 3-1. The Merchant offensive generator was "shorted out" as local batsmen managed only four scattered singles off Rouge hurler, Sluder.

The River Rouge win gives them a full two game cushion over the second place Merchants. And with Detroit Control and Romulus Jay Cee meeting the pace-setters in the final two contests of the season, chances are pretty slim for Plymouth.

River Rouge marked two tallies in the third and another in the fourth before the visiting Plymouth squad squeaked one across in the fifth. The first two markers came on a fluke triple to right which "crazy-bounced" over the Merchant outfielder, a single, and a rebounding smash to left which landed on the foul line, netting the man a triple.

The final Rouge score was accounted for by Blair who slammed a towering line drive to left field an inning later—a home run anywhere.

The Merchant run came on a walk to John Schwartz, who moved to third on Ed Hock's single, and then scored on a slow roller by DeWulf. Things were quiet on the home front after that. Though Plymouth often got men on base, four double-plays and two pick-off plays by Rouge erased them.

Jack Dobbs, Ed Hock, John Schwartz, and Chuck Tomlinson collected the Plymouth hits, with Rock and Tomlinson going all the way as the battery combination. Swikel caught for Rouge.

Other league results were these: Chelsea 12, Plymouth

Elks 6; Northville Merchants 2, Romulus Jay Cee 1; and Redford Merchants 6, Detroit Control 3.

Standings as of August 17:

River Rouge	13	2
Plymouth Merchants	11	4
Redford Merchants	10	5
Northville Merchants	9	6
Romulus Jay Cee	7	7
Chelsea	6	9
Detroit Control	2	12

Elks Class D Team In State Tourney

The Plymouth Elks, winners of Class D (18 and under) Baseball League, enter the first round of state tournament competition next Monday, August 19, at Jackson. Originally the Elks were to play Ecorse first in a regional contest. But Ecorse withdrew its team from play, so the Plymouth squad goes directly to Jackson where they will meet Marysville.

The contest will begin at 9:15 at Ella Sharp Park (Diamond A) in Jackson. The winner will play either Dearborn, Pontiac, St. Clair Shores or Roseville at 2:15 that afternoon on Diamond D.

Milk Can Trophy Carried Home by Northville VFW

Northville V.F.W. sewed up the B League title and became winner of the much coveted Milk Can Trophy Wednesday evening by slaughtering a helpless Daisy crew, 13-1. The Northville squad bashed out 16 hits in the melee, including seven in the sixth inning.

Daisy pitchers Cecil and Williams could do little to stop the V.F.W. hitters as they scored two runs in the first inning, one in the fourth, three in the fifth, and seven in the sixth. The big blow in that wild sixth was Northville shortstop Robinson's home run. Orson Atchinson went all the way for the winners.

Other contests last week saw Independents wallop Vico Products, 10-5, and maintain their half game out of second position. A four-run first inning put the Independents well on their way. Villerot was the winner, Thomas the Vico loser.

Bill's Market, with their 6-1 win over Stroh's, pulled into a sixth place tie with the same team. The winner's four runs in the third were too much for the Stroh's club to overcome.

Lutheran Men's Club took honors for the top mauling of the week by crushing Continental Can Co., 19-6. Garden City Hospital forfeited their third recent game this time to second-place Heads who gladly accepted the win in their race to stay ahead of the Independents.

Two make-up contests were these: Northville V.F.W. 9, Bill's Market 3; and Lutheran Men's Club 17, Daisy 10.

Standings as of August 11

Northville V.F.W.	9	1
Knot Heads	8	2

SPORTSEEN by Bill Hubert

Ken Knipschild, a member of the local 18 and under league All-Star team has been a busy fellow lately. Teams in the league were Plymouth Elks, Daisy, Willow Run, and Dearborn.

The All-Stars traveled to Adrian not long ago and played against All-Stars from different parts of the state. The local squad was eliminated the first game. But, from the four all-star teams present, another all-star team was chosen to participate in the all-star tournament in Lansing. Ken was selected.

Consequently Ken traveled to Lansing with the team where they won both their contests and the four-team tournament. Ken pitched in both games, getting credit for the win in the first. His team was then eligible to participate in the State All-Star finals held at Briggs Stadium.

Last Friday Ken and his teammates made the trip and defeated Cheboygan, 5-4 in 10 innings. Ken started, threw five innings, allowed three runs and struck out eight batters. The victory matched them with Arrowsmith on Saturday for the All-Star Championship of Michigan.

Arrowsmith won the ballgame, 5-2 in a thriller. Ken, who had thrown more than a sizable number of innings in the past week, came on in the late stages of the contest, hurling the final 2 2/3 innings.

Sixteen-year old Ken will be a senior at Plymouth this year, a mighty lucky thing for PHS baseball players—in particular those who like high batting averages.

The Plymouth Elks, who were 18 and under champs this season, have asked Ken and Harvey Wells (both of Daisy), and John Hrybiak of Dearborn to join the squad for state tournament play.

The village of Mawsundram, near here, has won the title of "the wettest place in the world" for the third year in succession.

Island Lake Camping Trip Gives Cubs, Dads Lots of Exercise

Last Saturday the cub scouts and their fathers from Pack No. 3 took their fathers on an over-night camping trip to Island Lake where they proceeded to keep their poor old dads on the go all day with swimming, hiking and games. In the evening the boys told blood curdling ghost stories around the campfire just before bedtime so there may well have been a few nightmares as a result. The cubs and fathers from the Circle were Johnny and Henry Wilamowski, Bob and Jack Ruland and Jay and Harold Kendall.

Second honeymoons seem to be popular with Circle couples this season. Marianne and Brad Carpenter of Parkview Drive left their children, Allan and Randy, with Marianne's mother and then had a couple days by themselves at Niagara Falls. Marianne is having a weeks vacation from her duties at the switchboard of the telephone company.

The Marty Kennedys of Parkview Drive entertained Lenore and Mac McSorlie of Detroit and yours truly at pinocle Saturday evening. A few choice remarks could be made about some of the plays during the evening but I guess it wouldn't be ethical or printable. On Sunday the Kennedys and Marty, Jr., had Dick Werner, Kenny Kisabeth and Ron Bender for a cookout.

Sunday evening Lee and Jack Ruland were pleasantly surprised when Melba and Bill Killian and their children dropped in for a visit. The Killians are former residents of Parkview Circle who now live in Salisbury, N. C. The Rulands entertained circle friends on Tuesday evening in the Killians honor.

Doris and Jim Sponseller spent the week-end in Bucyrus, Ohio with both parents.

Esther Atkinson of Parkview Drive entered Grace hospital in Detroit last Tuesday where she underwent major surgery. I talked with her daughter, Charlotte, this morning and learned that Esther is doing just fine and hopes to be home by next Wednesday. Charlotte and her baby flew in from Wisconsin on Sunday and will stay during her mothers convalescence.

Helen and Walt Lake of Garling Drive and their children, Marilyn and Jimmy, spent Saturday afternoon at Union Lake.

Those of you who know Madeleine Kendall, who lives down at the end of the circle, will appreciate how thrilled she is over the big event which happened at her house a week ago Saturday. Her special pride and joy, "Cutie," gave birth to five perfectly adorable little kittens and according to Madeleine, "Cutie" is an ideal mother. Four of the kittens will be given away to anyone who will promise faithful loving care and a good home. In the meantime any of the neighborhood children are welcome to visit the new family.

Jean and Jack Scott are still very enthusiastic over water skiing and just recently purchased a new 14 foot fibre glass boat which they have named 'Jumpin' Jack II'. The Scotts have a cottage reserved every weekend at Union Lake where they have entertained Joanne and Ken Ramsey of Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young and their daughter of Detroit. Last Tuesday evening Jean had a buffet supper to celebrate Jack's birthday for his parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott of Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. Burr Holloway of Dearborn.

Happy birthday to Joyce Truax.

Dort McGill of Grayling Drive and her oldest daughter Joanne went to Jackson over Saturday to attend a shower. Hubby Don was left home to baby sit with their other three children, Tommy, Janet and Sharon.

FIRST RESIDENTS of Lake Pointe Village in Plymouth Township was the Loren Goodale family who formerly lived on Hamilton Street. They are shown being welcomed by the builders and the township supervisor Monday morning. From left are Joseph Staub of the Greenspan Building Co., Loren Goodale, Jr., Mrs. Goodale and Mr. Goodale, Supervisor Roy Lindsay and Frank L. Braun, realtor. Lake Pointe Village offers the first paved streets (outside county highways) in Plymouth township. It also has its own water and sewer system.

The MAIL Attitude

BY PAUL CHANDLER

That proposed huge shopping center at Plymouth and Middlebelt in Livonia has been postponed indefinitely, according to a report we received this week. Montgomery Ward was scheduled to have been the anchor store. The project was announced with great fanfare last autumn and a big sign sits on the property, but not a spoonful of dirt has been turned and some kind of snag has been hit.

Not so the insurance company development (home offices, apartments, small shopping center) scheduled for Main street at the eastern city limits of Plymouth. It's ready to pop any day now.

And have you checked the progress lately of the Western Electric building on Sheldon Road—a lot of work has been done on that giant building.

One of the newer features of The Mail which I personally am enjoying immensely is Al Glassford's "City Manager's Corner." It's informative and intelligent. Next week the city manager gets into the subject of a county manager, a vital subject. We're going to run that particular column on page one.

Art Meyers of Plymouth made the metropolitan papers last week as the result of a fine promotion with Michigan Bell. From the post of "news manager" he has been elevated atop employe information services. Roger Walker takes Meyers' old post.

August 15 (today) is the traditional opening of hay fever season, a sad and dreaded time for myself and many others. The "word" this year is that the ragweed crop will be a little late to ripen, but one of the lushest in years.

Evered Jolliffe sends a letter:

"Dear Paul: I understand you are an alumnus of the University of Michigan. You are also a former resident of Sault Ste. Marie and a newspaper man and a Rotarian. On June 15 last our good friend George Osborn of the Sault, our fellow-townsmen Sidney Strong, former resident of the Sault and a charter member of Plymouth Rotary, and also myself, were all inducted into membership in the Emeritus Club of the University, which means that all three of us, together with others, graduated from our old school just 50 years ago."

Has anybody thought of hiring a really good architect to provide a design and master plan for the heart of Plymouth's downtown shopping center?

We are thinking of a plan that would utilize and modernize our invaluable Kellogg Park, plan the parking all around the central area, re-route traffic, set standards of store-front design, and so on.

The thought leaped from the recent stories about downtown Detroit's proposal to close Woodward, construct a center mall, and turn a couple of city blocks into, in effect, a courtyard "shopping center."

Plymouth has a good start on such a plan right now.

PLEASANT LIGHTING effects used throughout the lounges and dining rooms of Arbor-Lill located at Ann Arbor and Lilley Roads, have been a large factor in making it a very popular dining spot. Contractor for the Certified Lighting installation was Hubbs & Gilles, 1190 Ann Arbor Road. ## Woman's Eye View by Nancy Rigney

Friends of Mrs. Peter A. Miller will be sorry to hear that her trip to Delray Beach, Fla., ended, at least temporarily, in Maryville, Tenn., where she is in Blount Hospital with a broken hip.

Motoring with her daughter, Mrs. George Treis and grandson George, Jr., they stopped for breakfast Saturday morning in Maryville, where Mrs. Miller lost her footing when getting out of the car.

Mrs. Miller is expected to remain in the hospital for at least two weeks. She is a former resident of Plymouth for 40 years, and was visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Peter R. Miller on Ann Arbor Trail before her trip South.

For the price of car expenses, food and occasional fees, camping is a great way to see the U.S.A.

Mrs. Isabel Spigarelli, 1300 Beck road, agrees whole-heartedly with this statement. Her family has just returned from a camping trip that took them through Iowa, Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, Colorado, Arizona, Texas, New Mexico and Mexico.

Some of the sights they saw were Yosemite, Salt Lake City, Los Angeles, San Diego, Disneyland, San Juan Capistrano, Las Vegas, Boulder Dam, Lake Mead and Grand Canyon.

And they camped all the way! Mrs. Spigarelli says people just don't realize the beautiful grounds and facilities available in state parks across the country. Many of the parks had lakes which they "enjoyed very much after a hot day on the road."

Most of the parks are free, while some charge a small fee. Three dollars is the fee for 15 days at Yosemite National Park. One dollar was all they were charged at Grand Canyon.

The parks they stayed at provided laundry facilities, stores, post office, free ranger lectures as well as camp-fire programs every night.

Seeing the sights was inexpensive too. For 50 cents a car can drive through the Petrified Forest. A trip to Boulder Dam was 35 cents per person, including the explanation of the workings of the dam by a guide.

There was no charge for camping at Lake Mead, but with Las Vegas 23 miles away, Mrs. Spigarelli said "we needed all our nickels."

All in all, the Spigarelli's "saw a lot, learned a lot, met a lot of interesting people and have wonderful memories to keep."

Some of the ladies from the Plymouth library and their husbands attended the performances of "Brigadoon" on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, August 6 and 7 at the Music Circle. Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Hale went Tuesday night, while Mrs. Agnes Pauline, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Burden and Carl Glassford attended Wednesday.

Notes From American Legion

Attending the Area 5 Membership Conference held in Department Headquarters, Veterans Building, Detroit on August 10 and 11th, were Dorothy Koi, Department Historian of Passage-Gayde Post and Commander Harry Burleson. Ernest Koi attended the Sunday session. In addition to Michigan, the area is comprised of the Departments of Illinois, Indiana, Kentucky, Ohio and Wisconsin. The objective of the conference is to discuss membership for the coming year. An exchange of ideas about Post, Department and National planning is of mutual benefit. It is important that the American Legion leaders in attendance be prepared to discuss their respective membership operations.

A new Michigan Echelon 20 & 4, honor society for women Legionnaires, was organized at the State convention in Grand Rapids. The organization is composed exclusively of women members in good standing in the American Legion who have proved their worth by good work, at least three years membership in the Legion, and their promise to continue furthering the aims and programs of the American Legion. As their constitution states, "The 20 & 4 membership is based on quality — not quantity." Twenty five lady Legionnaires from the Department of Michigan have signed the request for a charter, and all necessary papers have been forwarded to the National Cadre. One of our Legionnaires, Dorothy Koi is on this charter. Congratulations to her.

National and Department citations were awarded to Passage-Gayde Unit 391 for membership quota and also received the 17th District Membership Trophy for the second year.

Glad to hear Phyllis Miller is again home after another bout in the hospital and is doing very nicely. Mrs. Hugh (Evelyn Gardner) is in the St. Josephs Hospital, Ann Arbor, Room 3044. She will be glad to hear from us, so let's send some cards of cheer.

Attending the District Membership Conference, held at the Redford Township Post on Beech Road on Monday, August 12th were: Harry Burleson, William Langmaid, Martin Schomberger, Robert Wilson, Donald Kinghorn and Ernest Koi.

Remember our Picnic September 8th, second Sunday, vicinity Six Mile Road and Northville Roads. Plan to meet around 12 and eat around 1 p.m. Let's keep this date open and have a roasting big crowd. Games for all and fun for all.

Educational Aid Available to Children of War Dead: Aid of the Federal government is available to children of the nation's war dead who desire to attend college this fall. Mrs. Gwen Holcombe, President of the Passage-Gayde Unit 391 of the American Legion Auxiliary, has reported. To qualify for this aid, the children, with some exceptions, must be between the ages of 16 and 23, and their father must have died during war service or as a result of such service after honorable discharge. Applications should be made as quickly as possible. Mrs. Holcombe said, since considerable time is required for processing claims for this aid.

The National Convention will be held in Atlantic City, N. J. September 16, 17 and 18th. The luxurious Morton Hotel on Virginia Avenue just off the world-famous Boardwalk has been selected as Headquarters for both the Post and Auxiliary. Mrs. Leona Hammond, of Lloyd H. Green Post, Northville, Past 17th District President, is a delegate to this convention. Harold Wilson, Past 17th District Commander, is delegate for the Post. At Atlantic City, Mrs. Hammond will take part in formulating the policies and programs which will guide the Auxiliary's nearly one million members during the coming year. She also will have a vote in the election of new national officers.

The 950 delegates will hear, discuss and act upon reports of 20 committees which are in charge of various parts of the national program and decide how best the Auxiliary can carry forward its patriotic service work under today's swiftly changing conditions. Issues before the convention will include how to improve and expand activities for war veterans and their families; how to meet new child welfare problems among veterans' children; how women can contribute more effectively to the nation's security, and how they can hold, foster and perpetuate the basic ideals of American democracy.

One View on Water

(Editor's Note: One of the big behind-the-scenes confests in the area these days involves whether Wayne County should build a separate water system for out-county consumers. The Detroit water system, which now services many communities beyond the city limits, insists it can do the job itself. Great heat has generated over the issue and the following is a press release which has come to our desk from one side of the battle. It is printed simply for reader's background. We'll have lots more on the subject later.)

(From the Detroit Board of Commerce)

The Wayne County Water Users Committee, which was recently organized, is composed of a group of public spirited citizens who are interested in taking action in getting the Detroit-Wayne County water dispute satisfactorily resolved.

The Wayne County Board of Supervisors will be asked to let the voters decide at the November election if they wish to continue to tax and bond themselves for a separate $50,000,000 water system. It is felt that this action is necessary as the Wayne County Road Commission officials continue to state that they are "acting on a mandate of the people" in proceeding with the ill-advised water intake system.

The money that the Wayne County Road Commission insists on spending for a separate water system should be spent for sewers and drains instead of building a water system where one already exists. There is evidence that governmental leaders in Dearborn, Hamtramck, Livonia, Grosse Pointe, Lincoln Park, Ecorse and Detroit are beginning to sense that the separate water system is a serious mistake.

In addition the Committee has indicated that it will stand ready to take legal action, if and when the Wayne County Road Commission advertises for bids on the lower Detroit River intake.

An outstanding board of water works engineers says that the problem in southwestern Wayne County was not one of source of supply but one of distribution. It was proven that the best method for meeting the water needs of the disputed area was to build adequate transmission mains and storage capacity and that the source of supply should continue to come from the Detroit system.

It was also determined that when it became necessary, a new intake should be constructed up-stream from the metropolitan sewage and drainage outlets. To us that means Lake Huron.

Canadian Oils Look Better

Q. Is the present boom in Canadian oils soundly based or will the bubble burst as it did in 1952?

A. I am firmly convinced that Canadian oil stocks, as a group, have now entered their true-growth period, as distinguished from their "false-growth" period that culminated in 1952, when as you aptly put it, the bubble burst. From 1947 to 1952 the Canadian oil industry was struggling to take its first step. Hundreds of new oil concerns were formed to get in on the drilling boom and speculators jumped on the bandwagon. Canadian oil stocks spiraled upward to unrealistic heights as investors discounted results as much as 5 to 10 years into the future. Eventually, the prices of Canadian oil stocks reached the saturation point.

Starting in 1952 these stocks took a sharp drop as investors began to realize that the tremendous initial build-up in oil production capacity far out-ran market outlets. As a result, many of the smaller marginal independents had to cut back, many merged, and some failed outright.

From 1952 to early 1955, the Canadian oil industry consolidated its position. Pipelines were laid, marketing outlets developed and new institutional financing began to take over. Important discoveries like Pembina provided annual cash income for many of the Canadian oils. In brief, the groundwork was being laid for the "true-growth" period in the Canadian oil industry.

Since early 1955 progress has been continuous and dynamic.

Production is expected to climb to 219 million barrels in 1957, 28% above 1956 and 69% above 1955. For the future, the Canadian Petroleum industry should continue to mark up substantial gains. Canada is bound to become a prime source of oil for raising U. S. consumption as crude reserves in the U. S. tend to become more and more expensive to find.

Substantial operational gains for the industry should mean sizeable benefits for Canadian oil stocks. Among better situated issues for the long pull, I would include British American, controlled by Gulf Oil; Imperial, 70%-owned by Jersey Standard; McColl Frontenac, a Texas Co. affiliate; Canadian Oil Cos., biggest Dominion-owned integrated company; and Canadian Husky, a fast-growing independent.

Many of the more speculative stocks offer good growth prospects. Among these I particularly like Canadian Devonian, Bailey-Selburn, Security-Freehold, Home Oil, Canadian Prospect, and Pacific Petroleum.

"Come Right In"

"Life Begins at Forty"

BY ROBERT PETERSON

"EVERY FIFTH PERSON IN THIS ROOM," orated our minister last Sunday, "would be dead today if it weren't for the marvelous advances of the past half century." He was discussing modern science and his blunt words struck with such impact that even the assistant minister, who usually nods through the sermon, snapped to attention.

The minister was right. Medical discoveries and our improved standard of living have spared so many lives in the past half century that by conservative estimate every fifth person we see represents a life that has been snatched from the grim reaper. As I mused on this miracle from a vantage point in the choir loft, my eyes began roving over the congregation. Every fifth face seemed to stand out in bold relief and I found myself imagining how each of these persons had been spared.

The fifth person in the front row was Henry J., a salesman friend of mine. Perhaps he would have been struck down by tuberculosis which at the turn of the century was the No. 1 killer in the land. Thanks to x-ray and improved treatments, tuberculosis is no longer a major threat to our health.

Five seats from him sat Mrs. Catherine M. who has six children. She might have died in childbirth for such deaths were frequent in the days prior to antibiotics and modern obstetrical techniques.

Next was elderly James S. who must be 80 years old. He might have been taken by pneumonia which at the turn of the century was the No. 2 cause of death. It used to be known wryly as "The old man's friend." But penicillin and sulfa drugs have broken the fangs out of this killer.

I felt the hair rise on the back of my neck as my son Bill loomed next into view. Had it not been for vaccines that immunize against scarlet fever, diphtheria, and small-pox, it is quite possible Billy would be just a memory today.

Gordon R. sat five seats away. Perhaps he would have succumbed to malaria or typhoid fever. But rigid controls over water supplies have largely wiped out these diseases.

BUT THERE IS A SAD side to this picture, too. As I looked at those faces—all apparently glad to be alive—I thought of those who could have been present that sunny Sunday morning had they used a little more discretion in driving their automobiles or in crossing the streets. And I thought of those who had needlessly passed on, and who would never experience the sweet pleasures of maturity and old age, because they had failed to use common sense in detecting and nipping in the bud those diseases that are yet unconquered but which can often be curbed if they are checked in the early stages.

If Your Name Is — SHIRLEY

BY ANN REYNOLDS, Ph. D.

This is one girl's name which we exactly know when and where it originated. The first girl named Shirley was a fictional character, Shirley Keeldar, the heroine of a novel by Charlotte Bronte, one of the famous writing Bronte sisters. The title of the novel was Shirley, and it appeared in 1849 under the pen-name Currer Bell.

Before that date, Shirley was only a family name, and it is still a frequent last name today. As many such names, it developed from a place name. There is a town called Shirley in Hampshire, England, about two miles northwest of Southampton.

Charlotte Bronte had no inkling that she created a given name, a very popular one at that when she picked Shirley for her heroine. On the contrary, she was convinced she had to explain her unusual selection. In her novel she wrote, "She had no Christian name but Shirley; her parents who had wished to have a son, finding that Providence had granted them only a daughter, bestowed on her the same masculine family cognomen they would have bestowed on a boy." Seems she considered Shirley a name suited for a boy rather than a girl.

The author patterned her Shirley after her own sister Emily, fitting her out also with Emily's courage. There is an incident told in the book that shows her fortitude. Shirley, bitten by a dog she believed to be mad, burns out her wound, just as Emily had, in real life.

The most powerful incentive for the use of the first name Shirley came from a girl whose description would sound more feminine. She is Shirley Temple. When this Shirley made her first screen appearance in Stand Up And Cheer, and Little Miss Marker, the delight and enthusiasm that swept motion picture audiences off their feet here and abroad resulted in many new girl babies being given the name Shirley. And when Miss Temple, in half a year or so, will come out of retirement to host and narrate fairy tales on T. V., Shirley is likely to have an upsurge of even greater popularity.

(Interested in other names? Is your name unusual? Write about it to Dr. Reynolds, care of this newspaper.)

During the Boer War in South Africa (1899-1902) Thomas A. Edison kept fully equipped "British" and "Boer" armies in the hills of northern New Jersey. As news of the real battles came from the front, these "armies" would go through the same action for motion picture cameras and the "battle" films would be sent to the movie houses.

AFTER ALL, TRUE INSURANCE IS A MAN...

There are all kinds of people buying insurance... folks who can't resist the idea of saving a dollar today even though they risk thousands tomorrow... others who mistakenly feel that "insurance is insurance" no matter who sells it... and others who buy now and then... and wind up with merely a lot of papers and cost.

And, then there are the folks who want to be properly insured at the proper price. They want the answers, because they know that those answers mean thorough protection, complete peace of mind.

They know that TRUE insurance is therefore a MAN... the professional insurance agent whose life-long work is study, service and selling in this highly complex field... it is to this man that they turn for ethical help in planning insurance protection for themselves in the same way they turn to their doctor for his medical skill, the architect for his knowledge, the lawyer for his counsel.

We commend these buyers of insurance. They have gone about this business of buying insurance in the most intelligent way. The advice they get is sound... the insurance they buy is ethically planned... the peace of mind they feel is real, indeed.

Because there are so many people who WANT to buy insurance in the best way, we regularly help without obligation by analyzing people's insurance situation. Thus, we are able to aid by reassuring the client that his insurance is adequate and fairly priced... or by prescribing when a weakness is found.

That's why we say TRUE insurance is a MAN... men like ourselves.

There was a lot of excitement in the life of the McNamara family of Ingram. Twenty months old Kathleen Sue was visiting with her mother when she got hold of an ant button which resulted in a trip to the Wayne County General Hospital where she had her stomach pumped out and spent the night. Mothers might be interested to know that these buttons contain arsenic and aren't to be left casually around. A number to jot down in a handy place right now while we are on the subject is TR. 2-3334 which is the number of the Poison Control Center.

This didn't turn out all for the bad for Kathleen, however, because she got her picture and a write up in the Feature section of the Detroit Times, which is doing all right for only 20 months old!

Clarence and Lucille Schirmer and son Dick recently returned from their vacation in New York City, Boston and Niagara Falls.

Betty and Betty Jo Wilson, formerly of Brookfield avenue and now living at Kendallwood have just become parents of a 5th child, a girl.

Bob and Eloise Welty, Brookfield, and their children Dick and Janis have returned from their vacation at Corey Lake near Three Rivers, Mich. While there they also visited Bob's aunt in Ludington.

Lorraine and Ed Bobowski, Brookfield, are the parents of a baby boy, Daniel Edward, who was born July 27 and weighed six pounds, nine ounces.

Leslie Borgia's chicken, "Cheapie" finally outgrew a city lot and has been permanently put on a farm.

Paula and Chuck Madigan and children Charles, Kathleen, Terry, Jane Ann, Elaine and Mary recently returned from their vacation at Long Lake. August 8 was Paula's birthday and she did it up in style with breakfast in bed!

Jack and Betty Marsh, Brookfield and daughters Linda and Patty spent a two week vacation touring the state of Florida.

Bob and Marie Curry, W. Chicago, and children Steven, Robbie, Caren and Eve enjoyed their vacation at Glen Echo on Otsego Lake. They also took in a trip to the Straits and Indian River where they visited the famous Catholic Shrine "Lily of the Mohawks."

Bill and Elma Opland, Mayfield, spent five weeks at a cottage at Lac La Belle at Copper Harbor along with children Billy, Ann, Carol and Dawn.

Cheryl Heitner, daughter of Marie and Oscar Heitner of Berwick avenue, returned Saturday, August 10 from a two week stay at the Girl Scout camp, at Metamora.

Anybody interested in buying a stork? Pat Luch says that that one in her back yard is for sale — wonder why? Try tying a pink bow around its neck, Pat—there are other kinds of babies besides boys, really!

Ted and Helen Bujewski and Linda, Jean and Teddy of Vermont spent the last week in July in Chicago visiting the Bujewski's parents.

Betty Johnston, Vermont, had Pat Kinghorn of Detroit as a weekend guest last weekend.

The Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church Couples' Club held a barbecue Friday evening, at the home of the Dick Pierces on Mayfield. About 30 people reported wonderful weather, wonderful food and a grand time.

All that racket at the Borgia's on Blackburn the evening of August 5 was a coming-home party for our son Don who double crossed us and came home from Port Sanilac a month early!

The party, which was a Calypso party, was given by Leslie Borgia and the kids who made such a racket were Bob Wilson, Arline Fenolio, Ann Young, Virginia Bonk, John Peterson, Carol Puffer, Roseanne Durnick, Janet Ringle, Jim Wilson, Tom Kesler, Ted Wicks, Wayne Conway, Lexie Barbieri, Jerry Jordan,

FATHER and SON TEAM BUILDS BIRCH ESTATES

By Jack Scott

Team work is a must in every phase of business and today's highly competitive building game is no exception. Stewart Oldford & Sons, builders and designers of Plymouth offer a well balanced combination of experience and creative ability. Stewart Oldford Sr. is well known for his 38 years of building experience in Wayne County. He has actively engaged in home construction in the Plymouth area since 1952. The two junior partners are his sons Stewart Jr., a graduate engineer, and Howard, an undergraduate in residential building at Michigan State University. Combined, this team has close to 60 years experience in residential construction techniques.

Stewart Oldford & Sons do both custom and speculative building. Their company is set up so that it may carry a home from preliminary design to finished product. Quality and attention to detail is a watchword in their home construction, having found through experience that a thoroughly satisfied buyer is the best form of public relations.

The homes in Birch Estates, shown on this page, are of conventional design and embody many features found in much higher priced homes.

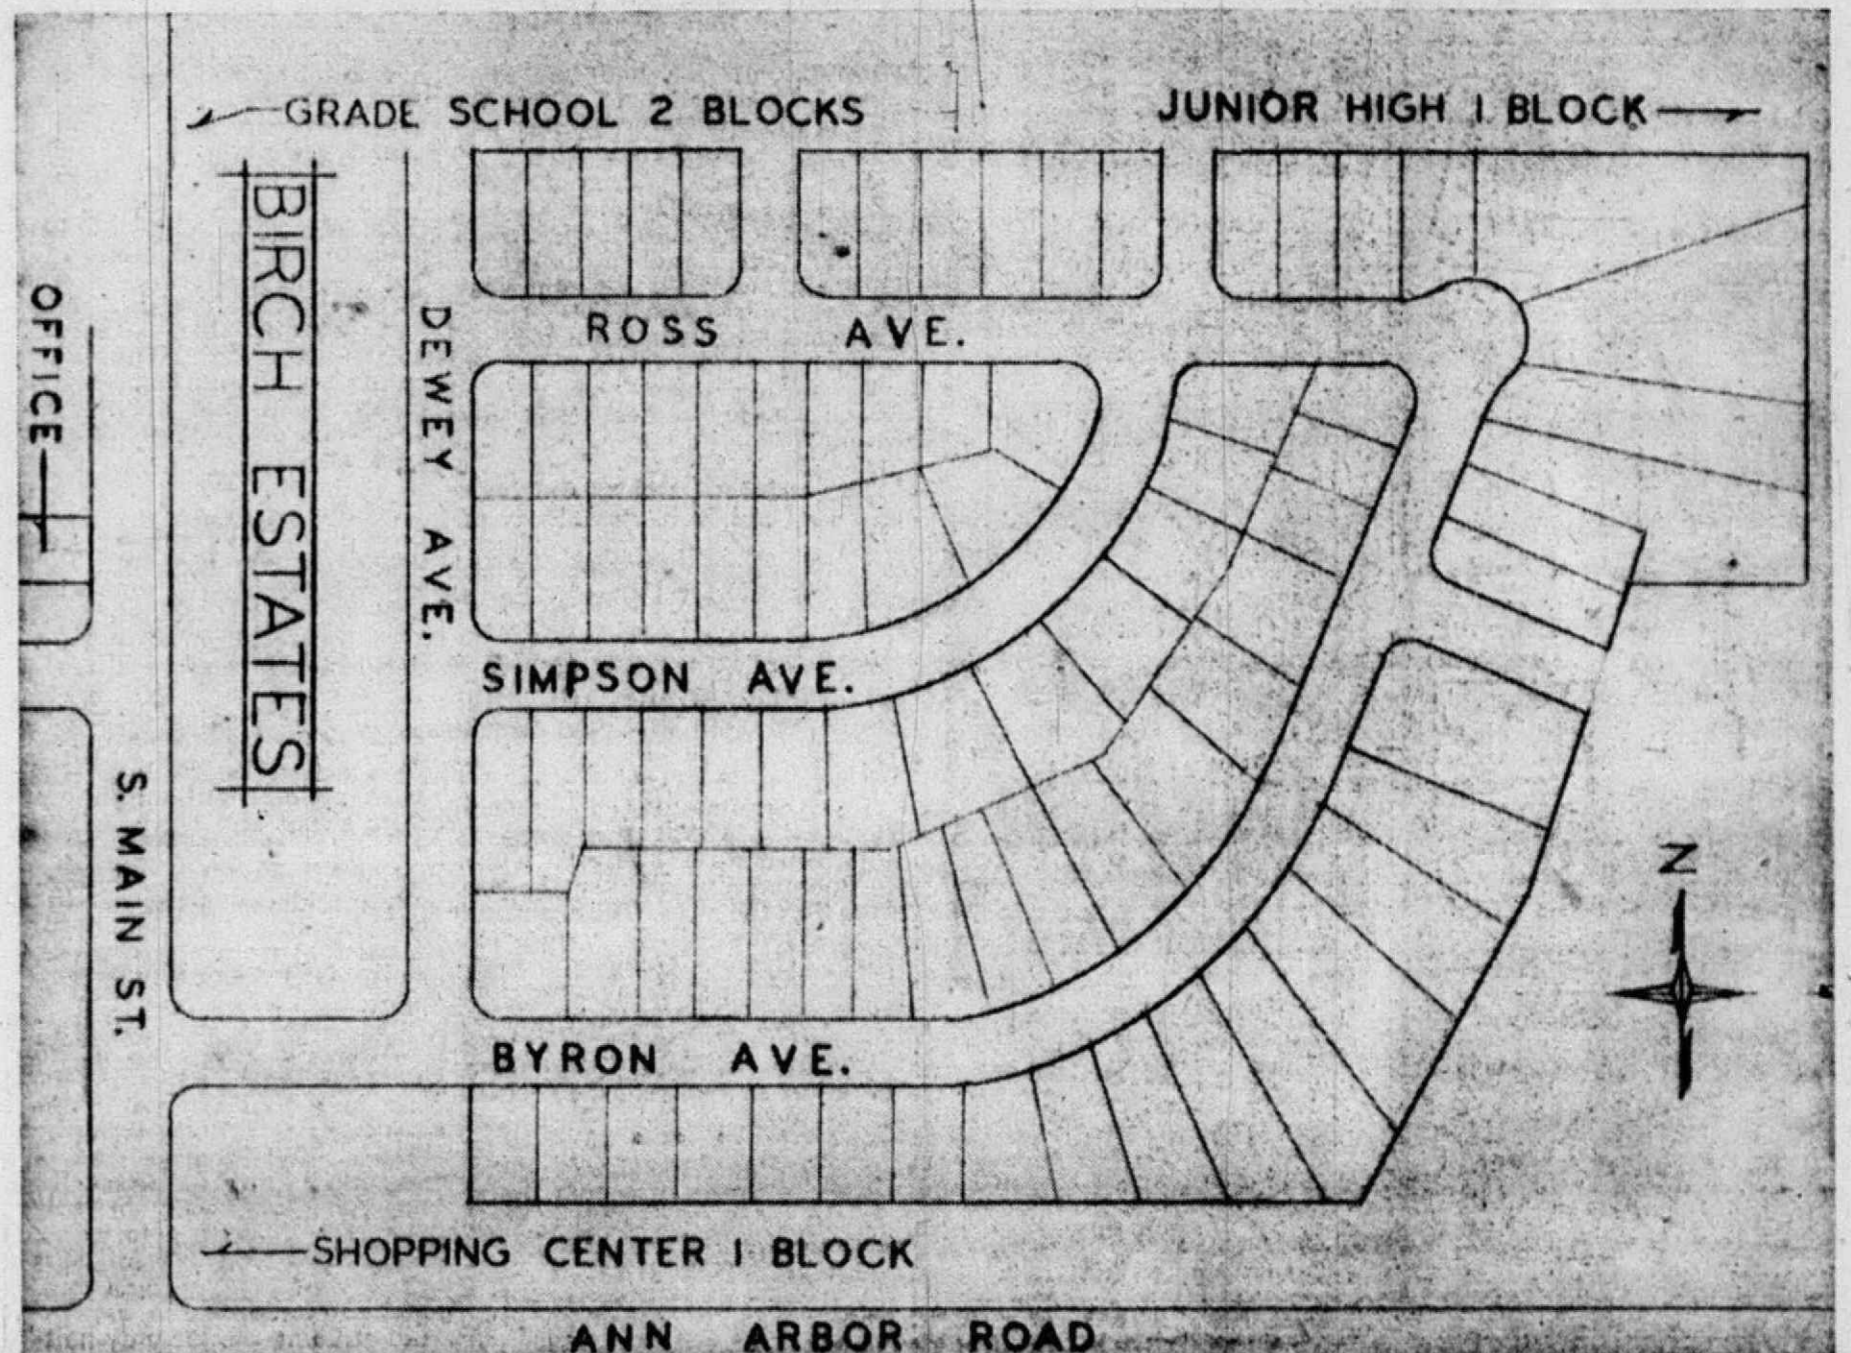

Seated at the designing table is Howard Oldford. Watching is Howard's father, Stewart Oldford, Sr. and the third member of the father and son team, Stewart Oldford, Jr.

The model featured has a ledgerrock fireplace and 1/2 bath in the basement. The living room is L shaped and the dimensions are 20' by 19'. The vestibule floor is of slate with louvered shutter doors separating it from the kitchen. The models shown are available for immediate occupancy. An outstanding feature is a

Color and Shadow Lines Enhance Ranch Home

This appealing, moderately priced ranch-style home gains added luxury and charm from its modern exterior finishing. Here the choice has been asbestos-cement siding in pastel green, for a house that invites outdoor living. The smart siding combines with a white trellis and an irregularly patterned flagstone floor to provide a perfect framing for the breezeway terrace. The asbestos siding, applied over shingle backing, accentuates the horizontal shadows between courses, adds stature and beauty. A light colored asbestos-shingle roof complements the siding and further emphasizes the home's long, low lines. This treatment blends the house into its surroundings. Both siding and roofing are permanent, fire-safe and inexpensive to maintain.

'Do-It-Yourself' Project Better Than 'Happy Pills'

Reach for a do-it-yourself project instead of a tranquilizing pill. That's the advice more and more doctors are handing out today to ease the tensions of modern living. A simple home improvement project can be both relaxing and rewarding. A popular do-it-yourself project is home insulation. Installing batts or blankets of mineral wool is light work which requires no special skills, uses ordinary tools, and the finished job will mean more year-around comfort plus heating and air conditioning economy. The following diagrams show how mineral wool batts or blankets should be installed in areas accessible to the home handyman:

Walls. For greatest comfort.

Attic floor. Ceilings. With vapor barrier down on warm side of ceiling, fit insulation tightly in place between joists. No stapling is necessary, but ends of insulation blankets should fit tightly together. For the most effective job, the mineral wool should be a minimum of three inches thick. Six-inch batts are recommended for air conditioned or electrically heated homes.

Home, Farm, Septic and Drainage Systems Spur Concrete Tile Use

The importance of proper drainage is being magnified today by several trends, chief among them the increased use of basements for living and recreation, the great demand for septic tank and drain fields in country living, and the reclamation of thousands of acres of land by farmers across the country. Ranked among such things as mechanized ditching equipment and expert technical help as a factor in the success of drainage is the growing use of concrete drain tile. This new type of tile, far more durable than porous products and adjudged by U. S. Department of Agriculture experts as providing equally good drainage, is available at a considerable saving over prices charged for a clay product. Concrete tile is manufactured by a large number of locally-owned plants established across the country in recent years. Called "Champion" tile, it is made with local materials and labor, with the absence of long distance shipping costs. With investment in manufacturing equipment at a minimum, local farm groups are among those promoting this business in their areas. One newcomer to the industry, for instance, set up his factory in an idle "little red schoolhouse." Literature on the use of concrete drain tile, with information on spacing and design of different home or farm septic and drainage systems, is available from the W. E. Dunn Mfg. Co., 306 West 24th Street, Holland, Mich. Builders of the tile making machinery.

Shabby Roof Spoils Effect Of New Paint

Cast a critical eye at the appearance of your roof before you paint your house. This is the advice of New York color stylist Beatrice West, who says: "Putting a new coat of paint on a house with a shabby, worn-out roof is like wearing a fur coat and diamonds with dungarees. They just don't go together." Miss West, who color-styles thousands of new and remodeled homes every year, says she always examines the roof of a house first before deciding on a color scheme because: "Nothing spoils the appearance of an attractive home more than a weather-beaten roof. This is especially true when a house has been freshly painted. The new paint actually accentuates the shabbiness of the roof." If the roof of a house shows signs of wearing out, Miss West says, she usually recommends a new roof of asphalt shingles in a color which will provide a basic shade for other colors on siding, trim, and accent spots. "As for the added cost," Miss West says, "I explain that when a roof begins to look worn, chances are it will no longer be serviceable in a year or two. The family will have to reroof then, anyway, and they might as well do it now and enjoy a completely color-styled house instead of doing the job only halfway."

The many colors available in asphalt shingles are a big help to color stylists, Miss West says. "For example, by choosing a roof of blended green with a fleck of yellow in it, I can pick up the yellow for an accent color on doors, window boxes and shutters, while the trim and windows can be painted in a harmonizing green."

Another trick with roof color, Miss West adds, "makes houses look taller or longer and lower. You simply reroof a tall, awkward-looking house with a deep, dark color and it appears lower. The opposite is true of a small house that seems to be built too close to the ground. Light-color roofing gives it a lift, making it seem taller and larger."

Every color scheme, whether for your home or your wardrobe, needs the contrast of something dull, something bright, something dark and something light.

3,000-Year Window History Goes From Egypt to U. S. A.

For most of its long history, the window was little better than a hole in a wall, with almost as many bad points as good ones. Home-owners had to wait until recent years for a window that keeps the weather out and heat in and operates with unfeeling ease. The first window, a narrow slit to admit light, was invented by the Egyptians more than 3,000 years ago. Windows remained slits until about 430 B.C. when the Greeks began using thin translucent slices of marble as window panes. Around a thousand years later, the Romans were using glass framed in wood, the forerunner of today's window of ponderosa pine. Later generations put hinges on the sash, so that the windows could be opened and closed—the casement window, as it's called today. The first double-hung window, a window with top and bottom sash that slide up and down with sash weights to keep them at any desired level, was invented by Hollanders in 1650. It was an important innovation, but the sash rattled and stuck, sash cords broke, the large frame took up wall space, and it wasted heat and let in cold air, dirt, and rain. Many of these faults lasted until the 1930s when new-style double-hung wood windows were introduced. Improved double-hung windows are chiefly the result of the ponderosa pine window unit system. This means that weatherstripped sash and frames are precision made to fit each other, and the balance device and hardware are selected for the particular sash and frame combination. Compact balance devices in new double-hung windows replace the old sash weights. The balances permit easy operation of the sash and help make the windows look better by eliminating the need for wide frames. Some units also include screen and storm sash. Double-hung windows with removable sash also are available.

Many modern double-hung windows of ponderosa pine have easily removable sash. Either the top or the bottom sash can be lifted out for convenient cleaning.

Color Sets Pace In Home Design; Roofs Lead Trend

A bird's eye view of the United States today is far more colorful than it was before World War II. The difference is in the variety of home roofing colors that dot the landscape. To the traditional red, green, blue, and black, industrial research and consumer preference studies have added many new solid hues and blends in asphalt shingles, including white, gray-green, coral, russet, blue-green, pastel brown, and charcoal. Florida and Southern California were the first areas to "adopt" "sunny" pastel-color building materials on a large scale, but pastel soon came into widespread use throughout the rest of the country. People liked them immediately because they were "different" and "cheerful." Pastel roofing and siding also offer a practical advantage to owners of low one-story houses. Because of an optical illusion, light colors seem to expand an object, while dark colors make it look smaller. Thus a roof of light-colored asphalt shingles makes a small house appear taller and more impressive. Dark or neutral tones, such as dark blue or charcoal, "lower" the roof. In spite of the growing use of pastels, the traditional shades of red, blue, green, and gray asphalt shingles held first place in a recent survey of buyers of new homes. When asked their preference between medium and pastel shades of those four colors, more than 60 percent picked the medium tones.

Most kitchen knives are stamped from sheets of metal. But, these have the poorest cutting edge. Better quality knives are forged from a bar of high-carbon steel or from stainless steel. Forged blades of kitchen knives may be identified by a thick bolster or neck where the blade meets the handle. This is often imitated, however, by using a piece of metal over the stamped blade to simulate a forged bolster. When you are selecting cutlery, look for this original bolster. Quality steel knives with forged blades hold a keen cutting edge and cut sharply and quickly.

Healthful Diet Required by Summer Heat

Don't cut down on your consumption of essential foods when the weather is warm, because when days are the hottest your body has its greatest need for the food elements that build cells and protect health.

Mrs. Alice Smith, Chief of the Nutrition Section of the Michigan Department of Health, suggests that summer menus be planned around meat, eggs, fresh fruit and vegetables, topped off with plenty of milk and other liquids.

"These foods will supply the essential elements your body needs to meet the stresses of summertime living," Mrs. Smith said. "These foods also will make you feel cooler because they contain fewer heat-producing calories than do fatty foods."

She explained that a person's need for essential foods is higher during the summer than at any other time of year because of the seasonal increase in physical activities and the added stress of adjusting to summer heat.

"Persons who don't receive an adequate diet in the summer often experience fatigue and exhaustion," Mrs. Smith said. "And so if you feel tired in the summer, make sure your diet is adequate."

To be adequate, the summertime diet should consist mainly of proteins and carbohydrates, Mrs. Smith said. Fewer fatty foods such as gravies, pastries, or fried foods in general should be included.

A good daily start toward an adequate diet can be made by eating a breakfast of citrus fruit juice or fresh fruits, whole grain or enriched cereal, toast, milk, and an egg. The day's other two meals should include at least one hot dish to stimulate appetites.

Appetites also will be pepped up if food is served in an attractive manner, Mrs. Smith said. Fresh fruits and vegetables will look their best and be most appetizing if prepared immediately before they are served.

For summertime drinking, Mrs. Smith suggests chilled milk and either fresh or canned fruit juices. She noted that juices will quench thirsts best if served semi-sweet.

Serve those fresh green vegetables promptly upon cooking. Flavor will suffer when they are allowed to stand.

at home around the clock

Fashions in Franks

Easy-to-fix foods make the best choice for picnic menus. For your next picnic or beach party, have stuffed frankfurters, baked beans, relishes, fruit and cookies . . . they're easy to pack and easy to serve.

Frankfurters have been said to have originated in Germany, but is there anything quite so American as a bun wrapped around a juicy, sizzling hot dog which has been generously covered with relishes?

Each year, picnickers still seem to rate frankfurters first or second on their list of favorite picnic foods. Why? Probably because in addition to tasting good they're easy to pack and easy to serve. Since frankfurters are completely cooked, ready to eat, they need only be heated through if you like to roast them for eating hot.

Picnic time is right now, so perhaps you'd like a few frankfurter-how-to suggestions. In this special picnic menu, frankfurters are featured by splitting them down the center, inserting a strip of cheese and wrapping the frankfurter in a slice of bacon. Depending on the tastes of the family or group, use either sharp or mild cheese. Grill the franks over glowing coals.

Franks may also be cut in 1-inch pieces and alternated on a metal skewer with olives, onions, fruits, mushrooms, etc. This is called a kabob. Kabobs are popular picnic suggestions.

If you're planning a breakfast picnic, tiny slices of frankfurters cooked with scrambled eggs make a delightful flavor combination.

An allowance for your children? A family life specialist says the amount should be different for each child and should be based on the child's age, experience and spending needs. It should take into account the community's "going rate" as well as the family's financial status, he explains.

Spiced Mocha Chiffon Pie It's a Brand New Treat

The surest sign of a successful cook is her ability to put together a delicious new dish—something she's never tried before. She's the gal who's not afraid to tackle new recipes, for her constant aim is to please her hungry family with tempting concoctions. For this adventuring homemaker, Spiced Mocha Chiffon Pie is the newest challenge.

This light-as-a-feather pie is everything a dessert-loving family could desire. The cool and creamy filling combines the rich flavor of mocha with a marvelous accent of nutmeg. Then, for flavor contrast, the cookie-crust is all-chocolate and crunchy through and through. Topping all of this goodness are lovely swoops of whipped cream—and the picture-pie is complete.

To be doubly successful, be sure to make plenty of your very best coffee as a perfect complement for your mocha pie—your aim to please will be fulfilled. Just watch the family beam with approval!

- Spiced Mocha Chiffon Pie
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
  - ¾ cup strong, cold coffee, divided
  - 2 squares unsweetened chocolate
  - ¾ cup sugar, divided
  - ½ teaspoon cinnamon
  - ¼ teaspoon nutmeg
  - 3 eggs, separated
  - few grains salt

9-inch Chocolate Crumb Crust

Soften gelatin in one-quarter cup cold coffee. Melt chocolate over hot water and add remaining coffee, one-half cup sugar and spices. Beat egg yolks until thick and add to chocolate mixture. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly, until thickened. Add softened gelatine and stir until dissolved. Cool until mixture begins to set. Beat egg whites until stiff but not dry. Gradually beat in remaining sugar. Fold into gelatine mixture. Spoon into chocolate crumb crust. Chill until firm. Garnish with whipped cream if desired.

Chocolate Crumb Crust

- 1½ cups chocolate cookie crumbs (about 40 chocolate snaps)
- ¼ teaspoon cinnamon
- ¼ cup soft butter or margarine

Combine all ingredients and mix well. With back of spoon, press mixture on bottom and sides of 9-inch pie pan, forming a flat rim. Bake in moderate oven, 375°, eight minutes. Cool.

Dogs and cats running in woods or fields may get poison ivy on their coats. They won't suffer from ivy poisoning, but their owners may get it from handling them. To remove the poison, give your pets a bath in warm soapy water and wear rubber gloves as a precaution.

DO YOU USUALLY ASK PEOPLE to "speak a little louder, please" during phone conversations? Perhaps you haven't heard of the new volume control telephone. It's like other phones, but it has a small knob that lets you control the volume of the voice you're listening to. Volume control phones are invaluable for those with a hearing loss, and they're just the thing for use in places where there are distracting noises. If you need some help to hear "loud and clear" on the phone, ask for a volume control set when you order an extension.

A TELEPHONE MAN said years ago, "Nobody ever goes into telephone work unless he really likes people." Surely anyone who's talked with telephone people realizes the truth of that statement. That applies off the job as well as on it. You can tell by the number of telephone people who work with such groups as the Boy Scouts, fund-raising campaigns, and many Service Clubs. This liking for people helps explain why it's people who make your telephone service so good.

Relax Vacationer; Return Refreshed

Here are some thoughts on late summer vacations:
An employer's and an employee's conception of a vacation differ considerably. The employer emphasizes rest and relaxation for the vacationers. The employee thinks in terms of fun and activity.

Possibly more attention should be given to rest in connection with vacations. Too many people returning to work after their two weeks off sigh wearily and say "I'm glad to get back to the office for a rest."

The annual vacation in the United States has become an actual necessity for health and well-being. But for maximum benefits it should be restful above all.

Rest the mind, rest the eyes, rest the body, is good advice to the late summer and early fall vacationists.

The annual "rest period" should be spent so that you return refreshed rather than fatigued.

Here are some tips on taking vacations for rest and relaxation:

Don't get into a cross-country driving marathon. Realize that you can't see the whole United States in two weeks. Settle for a leisurely sightseeing trip if you spend the time in travel.

You are going to settle down somewhere; if traveling visit historical places on the way. This kind of visiting will take your mind off present-day worries and troubles.

You use your eyes more on vacation than you do normally. They are also subjected to unusual strain. For tired eyes use sun glasses that are most restful. Move off the road when you feel tired and take a nap.

Keep the body relaxed by mild exercise. Don't attempt a strenuous athletic program. If you are going to do a lot of walking, do it in easy stages. Unless you are in really good condition—and few vacationers are—start your sports activities in mild doses until your muscles are limbered up.

And, finally, remember that the sun will burn the pale city dweller's skin. Use sun tan lotions and don't stay out too long. A sunburn isn't relaxing. Remember, let the word "rest" rule your vacation at all times.

Don't tell your child how to spend his allowance money, declares Ben Ard, family life specialist at Michigan State University. The real value of money can best be learned when it is really his alone to spend.

Rules for Those Not Suffering From Hay Fever

"He's sensitive!" That's another way of beginning a late summer story that usually starts, "achoo-o-oo!" Yes, it's hay fever time again and one person out of every 25 in the United States is sensitive to ragweed pollen and will suffer to some degree from August through October—depending on what part of the country he inhabits. This year approximately 150,000 new cases of hay fever will occur in the United States. Although the disturbance has been the butt of jokes ever since it was named "hay fever" more than a century ago, it isn't a laughing matter. He who laughs at it may live to try to sneeze it off.

Here are some good rules for those who do not have hay fever. These suggestions have been compiled by researchers for Murine Company and are intended to help alleviate unnecessary suffering and misery on the part of hay feverites.

1. Don't go out of your way to avoid the victim. His disease is not contagious.
2. Sympathize with him. He is like anyone else who is very ill—he will like sympathy.
3. Don't make fun of his ailment. He may be sensitive in more ways than one. The symptoms of hay fever are extremely distressing to the patient and often the itching eyes and nose are almost unbearable.
4. Don't stare at the victim if he goes into a paroxysm of sneezing which may occur 14 or 15 times in a space of 30 seconds.
5. Don't make any sarcastic comments about his red nose or red eyes or the fact that he may have to stop at any moment to use his eye drops or take a pill for relief.
6. It's perfectly all right to recommend various harmless, but effective aids that you've heard about for hay fever—that your friend or relative may have used. Chances are unless it's a new case, the patient has already tried them. But he will appreciate your sympathy and helpful attitude.
7. Be sure to say, in very severe cases of hay fever—especially in new cases—"You must go and see your doctor." The doctor can not only prescribe something for relief but in many cases can effect a cure over a period of time.

For hay fever sufferers: Where do you live? Researchers report that many studies indicate the great Midwest produces the largest crop of ragweed, the most common source of the pollen that causes hay fever. Although ragweed occurs from lower New England through much of the South and spreads west to the Rockies, the great ragweed-growing area is the Midwest. If you want to leave town for three or four weeks during the worst of the season, the best spots for relief are Northern Maine, Michigan's upper peninsula—especially near Sault Ste. Marie and on the Keweenaw peninsula—upper Minnesota, upper Wisconsin, Florida and the Rockies westward. Much of Canada, of course, also affords relief.

Monastic rules bar women from the library of the Benedictine Abbey at Engleberg, Switzerland.

TIPS for TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q—"Dear Elinor: I am a girl 15 years old and I'm crazy about a certain boy and I know he loves me. But I just see him in the drug store every day. He's kind of shy. Please tell me what to do because I really love him."

Ans.—Go slowly. Take it easy. Stop dreaming long enough to do a little thinking.

First, get "love notions" out of your little head, because people really love each other only as they get to know each other well. Love grows as you know a person; it doesn't happen suddenly in a blinding flash like in the movies!

You and this boy don't know each other—you only see him in the drug store—so, at this point, all you can be sure of that you like his looks, you think you'd like his personality if you knew him and you think he's also attracted to you.

leave it in good condition (as you like to find it)—not a messy, dirty flood. When you have to set your hair, do it when and where it won't inconvenience the others.

Be gracious about doing what your hostess has planned for your entertainment, even if it's not your favorite pastime. Be nice to your blind date, even if he's a disappointment (you might not be his idea of a dream-girl, either, but you wouldn't want him to show it).

Be quiet when you come home from dates. Ask permission to use the telephone, television, radio, etc. . . there's such a thing as "making yourself at home" too much with other people's things.

Unless you go in a car, pay your own fare to and from the visit; you're not a guest until you get there. Don't forget a small gift for the hostess (your friend's mother) and a prompt "thank you" note to her and to your friend afterward.

(For free printed tips on "Etiquette" to help improve your manners and popularity, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Elinor Williams at this paper.)

M. L. KIRCHHOFF, left, Plymouth implement dealer, chats with Melvin "Bud" Corwin and Warren Palmer, who is seated on the sprayer he purchased. Such get-togethers are held frequently to check progress in their war against pests that thrive on the sweet corn crop in the area.

Area is Key Sweet Corn Producer; Growers Try Corn Borer Control

The phrase "Knee-high corn on the Fourth of July" has long been considered an unofficial yardstick for farmers in Michigan to check the progress of their corn crop.

But in Plymouth and surrounding area, you are quite likely to see sweet corn being harvested for Detroit and other markets not too long after the Fourth. This year, several farmers were sending sweet corn to market as early as July 10.

No one is surprised by statistics which show the Detroit area as a leader in the automotive industry. However, many are surprised to learn that nearly half of the sweet corn harvested in Michigan comes from six counties around Detroit. Latest figures show a total of 12,500 acres are grown in the state for an annual yield of about 87,500,000 pounds. An annual crop is valued at approximately 2-1/2 million dollars.

Nearly 25 percent of the sweet corn grown in Michigan comes out of Wayne and Washtenaw counties. This represents more than 3,000 acres of sweet corn and a yield of nearly 22 million pounds annually.

Planting sweet corn as early as the latter part of April and harvesting in mid-July is considered something of a phenomenon. However, growing sweet corn has its problems. Growers find themselves at the mercy of the weather from around breaking to harvest. Weed control is definitely no small headache. But perhaps their most destructive enemies are corn borers and ear worms.

Progress made in overcoming these obstacles is attributed to a combination of scientific research and testing, industrial development, and keen observation on the part of growers themselves.

These three forces continue to work together and find themselves now in the midst of one of their biggest battles—the one against the devastating corn borer and ear worm. They are quite happy with results thus far.

Two typical sweet corn growers whose farms are located in the vicinity of Plymouth, Warren Palmer and Melvin Corwin report that less than two percent of the sweet corn harvested thus far this year was affected by corn borer. Such a degree of control was unheard of only a few years ago.

Both Palmer and Corwin utilized a specially designed sprayer to apply the chemicals which enables them to achieve a high degree of control. The unit is manufactured by the John Bean Division of Food Machinery and Chemical Corporation.

They cite they were able to put on five chemical applications at an average cost of nine dollars per acre. The old way cost them about $20 per acre for five applications.

Their experience adds emphasis to the extent of progress in agricultural mechanization. The new Hi-Crop sprayer for instance, being self-propelled allows growers to use their tractors for other uses. The sprayer is adjustable so that it can spray low to ground and being able to spray low makes it ideal for weed control.

Controlling weeds by spraying chemicals is a welcome advancement for farmers who have fought the battles of weeds with horse and tractor-drawn cultivators - to say nothing of the back-breaking hoe. Much of the chemical control in sweet corn farming is done by pre-emergence applications - weed killer chemicals applied to the ground after seed is planted but before the tender corn sprouts emerge.

Now, Palmer, Corwin and other sweet corn growers in the area are working closely with Dr. Ray James, Michigan State University entomologist on better control of ear worm in late sweet corn.

Cooperating in the project is M. L. Kirchhoff, of the Kirchhoff Implement Company in Plymouth, who is a frequent visitor of such growers as Palmer who presently is growing about 90 acres of sweet corn, and Corwin with nearly 300 acres.

All concerned are hopeful that the results of their combined efforts will pay off in terms of better control of the ear worms as it has already in corn borer control.

Men In Service

3 Plymouth Marines
 Three Plymouth men landed on the rugged terrain of Barking Sands, Kauai, on Hawaiian Islands, early August 10 as the Marine Brigade launched Operation "Tradewinds", a five-day amphibious sea and air assault employing the latest atomic age concepts of dispersal and surprise attack.
 Participating were Cpl. Lyle H. Leveille, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle V. Leveille of 8168 Canton Center rd.; Cpl. John J. Pickett, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Pickett of 2206 Marie st., and SSgt. William E. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin N. Brown of 9464 Northern ave., and husband of the former Miss Marie A. Riggbach of Mansfield, Ohio.
 The ground component of the Brigade, the 4th Marines, met immediate resistance from Marine aggressor forces as they hit the beaches by amphibious craft and landed atop 1,000 foot cliffs by helicopter. The vertical envelopment force was launched from the Navy's first helicopter assault carrier, the USS Thetis Bay. Marine Aircraft Group-13, the Brigade's air arm, provided the 7,000 Marines with non-firing close air support and fighter cover as well as aerial transportation of personnel and supplies.
 The 1st Marine Brigade is based at the Kaneohe Bay Marine Corps Air Station.

BY AL GLASSFORD

We middle aged people well remember how we dreaded the day after the visit to Aunt Sarah's house in the neighboring community because of our contact with a "change in water". We were told, when we were youngsters, that the "change of water" had a bad effect on our systems and may be the reason for our intestinal distress.

Such attacks occur but infrequently nowadays. This is because there are health laws with teeth. The state requires public supplies of water to be tested and treated. A community's new water source, treatment plant, or water line must be located and constructed in accordance with the approved methods of the State Department of Health.

The state law requires that our water supply be chlorinated. Every few days we send to the state laboratories a sample of the water which may be taken from your house or perhaps your neighbor's, together with samplings of water taken at the well fields.

Usually, we have no bad reports, but occasionally we get a report of contamination of the Beck Road shallow well. This well is only about 20 feet deep and collects water through use of 18 inch perforated pipe, called galleries, radiating underground 200 feet from the well. It is therefore necessary that we chlorinate the water. Such treatment is done at the well field by use of chlorine gas, released into the water according to usage. The bacteria die on the way to the city. We arrange to put only enough chlorine into the water, so that we are sure that all bacteria is dead before the water arrives in the city and that the chlorine has been dissipated to the extent that it will not produce a bad tasting water.

While some communities may be fortunate in having a large water supply from the Great Lakes, the disadvantage is that a great deal of mud, debris and rubbish must be removed from the water and during storm periods. If you happen to be in a city supplied with such water, you will notice a high chlorine content in the water. The standing joke at such Great Lakes stations is that "if we put enough chlorine into the water, the people won't drink it and can't get sick."

We send our water samples in bottles supplied by the state. If you have a private water supply, water sample bottles may be obtained from our water department, free of charge. The State Health Department makes a report to you as to whether the water is safe or unsafe to drink. If unsafe, you are advised as to steps to be taken to make the water supply safe to drink.

There is a very close relationship kept between the State Department of Health, the County Department of Health and the city administrators on matters of water supply. If the state suspects that a water supply may be contaminated, the local officials are contacted by both state and county health authorities and constant check is made until the threat of contamination is cleared up.

by Carl Peterson

Seems like you can't open a paper these days without reading about some hot spot or other where somebody's trying to start trouble. But in spite of all the sword rattling that goes on, a noted historian says that he doesn't think there'll be a shooting war for generations. That's as cheerful as a shaft of sunshine in a cave. He is not optimistic enough to expect Russia to become a "good neighbor," but he says he doubts that they'd dare buck our production ability.

Still, if the frigid fracas continues, it'll be up to the Western nations to prove how successful their way of life can be . . . and that might mean a better world for everyone. It might even prove that wars are useless. It's worth working for.

On that shopping tour why not drop into our lunch counter and take advantage of our fast service and delicious food at a price to please your purse.

Plan Vaccination For Asiatic Flu

"The Wayne County Health Department is concerned about the possibility of an outbreak of Asiatic influenza in Wayne-Out-County area," stated Dr. Edwin Marcus, Communicable Disease Control Director. Plans are underway by the health department, the Wayne County Medical Society, and private physicians to protect the citizens of the county against an outbreak of the disease which recently appeared in the Far East and is now threatening to spread to this country.

"Asiatic influenza is not very serious for any one individual," Dr. Marcus stated, "since it is not different from other kinds of 'flu' or 'grippe' with which we are more familiar. The greatest concern of the health department is the highly contagious aspects of the disease which make it possible for large numbers of people in a community, or in the same family, to become ill at once.

Many drug companies in the United States, have been licensed to produce the vaccine to protect individuals against this disease. Final plans for distribution of the vaccine have not been completed. However, the first batch will probably go to the Armed Forces and service personnel, becoming available to them around September 1. The vaccine will then be available to physicians for distribution to their patients. Physicians may order the vaccine directly from the various drug companies as soon as it becomes available to them October 1.

Dr. Marcus re-emphasized the fact that the disease is not particularly serious for individuals, but is highly contagious and an epidemic can easily occur during an outbreak. For this reason, as well as for individual protection, vaccination by private physicians is recommended.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser Carmichael and son, Tom, and her mother, Mrs. B. E. Giles, returned Wednesday evening of last week from a motor trip which took them as far as the west coast, where they visited Mrs. Frances Carmichael, mother of Fraser, in La Jolla, California, near San Diego. They also visited Bryce Canyon and Zion Canyon and other places of interest on their way to and from California.

Predict Bigger Peach Harvest Than Last Year

Already finding their way to retail markets with thousands of more bushels ripening on trees are an estimated 2,650,000 bushels of Michigan peaches, the third largest peach crop in the nation. Many of these peaches are grown in the Plymouth-Livonia area.

The Michigan Department of Agriculture reports the yield will probably be 50,000 bushels greater than last year. This should assure budget-conscious housewives with an abundance of juicy peaches for pies, cobbblers and cakes plus stock for canning or freezing to be enjoyed between now and the time of the next harvest.

The peak of the Michigan peach harvest is usually reached around Labor Day, but the increase in the number of early varieties of peaches being grown means that housewives may buy ample supplies of fine Michigan peaches throughout August as well.

Throughout America there are millions of peach trees of varieties propagated right here in Michigan. These also are popular varieties in the state where they originated, and are available in stores.

Among these varieties are the South Haven, Redhaven, Fairhaven, Kalhaven and Halehaven. They were propagated at the Michigan State University experimental farm at South Haven by Stanley Johnston, internationally famous propagator of peaches and blueberries.

The wide acceptance of the newer varieties has resulted in a decrease in production of the old favorite, the Elberta. Of the estimated 1,700,000 peach trees in bearing in Michigan this year only 37 percent are of the Elberta variety. For many years Elbertas constituted half of the state's peach crop.

The Halehaven is a close runner-up to the Elberta with an estimated 32 percent, followed by the Redhaven with an estimated 12 percent. The bulk of the state's peaches are raised in Berrien and Van Buren counties although there is important production around Sparta, Romeo and locally.

Fire Brings Job Offers For Wives

Wives of workers idled by the recent fire at the Metal Parts Division of Allied Products Corp., Northville, have been offered "first call" on temporary office jobs.

The offer came from Russell Kelly Office Service, a firm which sends women to fill in temporarily in such office work as clerical, typing, taking dictation, bookkeeping and running comptometers and other business machines.

Placement is free to the women and she receives standard hourly rates for the type of work performed. Assignments may vary in length of time from one day to weeks or months.

Work will be found for the wives if they will identify themselves as being wives of Allied Products employees. The only prerequisite is some experience or basic ability in performing one of the routine jobs connected with business offices.

They may apply at any of the Metropolitan Area branches. Closest one to the Northville, Plymouth-Livonia area is in Northland Center. Main offices are in the Free Press Building, Detroit.

Iron Out Your 'Pressing' Problems

Does your weekly ironing take all the starch out of you? If you are among the majority of homemakers who rate ironing as their most tiring task, it does. Mrs. Ruth Kettunen, home management specialist at Michigan State University, admits that you can't make ironing fun, but she continues, you can make the job easier.

For one thing, you may be ironing unnecessarily. More and more homemakers are deciding that it is wiser to simply fold and put away such things as sheets, pillow cases, pajamas, towels and seersucker garments. You can also cut down on ironing when you shop by buying wrinkle-resistant fabrics and materials that need little or no ironing.

Another suggestion is that you make sure that your ironing board is at a comfortable height. Experts agree that though it takes you a while to get used to it, you will find it much less tiring to iron sitting down. This, of course means that you must either have an adjustable board or a chair high enough to bring the board directly over your lap.

Don't wear yourself out by pressing down on your iron; the heat does the ironing, not the pressure. You'll find you will be less tired if you iron with free, relaxed, rhythmic motions.

When you're ironing, handle the garments as little as possible. Keep from ironing wrinkles into your clothes by ironing small areas or parts that dangle from the board first; then progress to the larger areas. Since you should iron everything until it is dry, be sure not to over-dampen your clothes, warns Mrs. Kettunen.

Try following these pressing pointers—your aching feet and back will appreciate it!

YOUR HANDWRITING TELLS YOUR STORY

With Grapho Analysis
BY JEAN EVANS

Readers are invited to write a sentence or two in ink to Jean Evans, in care of this newspaper. The writer may sign his or her initials or use an anonymous name.

Dear Jean: Please analyze my handwriting. Today is our wedding anniversary, married 54 years.
Mrs. J. E. S.

Dear Mrs. J. E. S.: Your mind is alert for your years and have never been one to be content with a hum-drum existence. You are a simple person but are always looking on the bright side of life. You have an inquisitive mind, always exploring and analyzing facts and situations. Once you do make up your mind to do something you like to stick with the job until it is completed.

Dear Jean: Would like to go on a nice long vacation. What can you see in this handwriting?
Mrs. B. B.

Dear Mrs. B. B.: Your handwriting indicates that you like to travel and have a variety of interests. You will have to make up your own mind about your trip but if you decide to go you will likely enjoy it.

Dear Jean: I am very interested in Art, painting and sculpture, and would like to know what are my chances for success if any.
Pandora

Dear Pandora: You are capable of expressing yourself and have a mind of your own. With patience and stick-to-itiveness you will be successful in this line because you have the creative mind this type of work calls for. Develop your imagination and pay strict attention to detail and your enthusiasm will carry you through.

Dear Jean: This should prove very interesting. I have always wanted my handwriting analyzed and here is my chance.
I. M.

Dear I. M.: You have the spirit that keeps on keeping on when all the chips are stacked against you. You are prone to be influenced by others as you usually have your head in the clouds, dreaming. You are a person who is somewhat secretive and reluctant to discuss personal matters with but one or two very close friends.

Keeping Current... For Economy!

In the illustration above, you see a very happy man at a very wonderful moment. The title, the keys and the car are his—and he's starting out on his first journey at the wheel. Of course, there's not much doubt as to why he decided to purchase a new Cadillac. Like everyone else who selects the "car of cars", he did it to "keep current", so to speak, on all of Cadillac's new miracles of performance and beauty and comfort. But coming to Cadillac, as he did, at this particular time of the year, we also suspect that he was inspired by the added motive of practicality. For in addition to the normal Cadillac economies of modest purchase price, low operating cost and high resale value—Cadillac dealers are, at this time, seasonally prepared to make Cadillac ownership even more attractive than ever. Because of the demand for used cars and because of increased production of the Cadillac car itself, the odds are that this gentleman received both a generous allowance on his previous car and prompt delivery of his new Cadillac. Have you considered how wonderful it would be to step into a Cadillac of your own? Then, you should pay your dealer a visit—spend an hour on the highway in the luxury of Fleetwood coachcrafting—and get the facts for yourself. You'll agree, we know, that the car is Cadillac—and the time is now!

Front Row Center

by George Spelvin

The Plymouth Theater Guild is busy these days. You'd think that during these hot summer days our little theater group would take a hiatus and head for some cool water. Not so with our local thespians.

Russ Creel, currently President of the Guild, called a special meeting of the theater group the other evening. Seems that important business was on the agenda. The executive members of the Theater Guild had to pass their judgment on the impending workshop session, season tickets, and the consideration of a new theater site for next season.

Workshop plans for a makeup class under the guidance of Gil Oden were approved. Jim Blackman, Vice-president of the Guild, has been the guiding light of the workshop idea. Many a meeting has been held over on Mill Street with the members setting up plans for the coming year. Plans include an acting workshop after the make-up class. Also, a series of one-act plays will be given at each monthly meeting this fall.

Incidentally, the Theater Guild is casting "City Symphony" this week and next. If anyone is interested in appearing in the first monthly play, call Phyllis Kelly at 348J or Jim Blackman at 1666W and let them know you are interested. They tell me this one-act play will be done on September 16. Experience or not... take a chance and get into the act.

Death from Polio Points Up Need Of Salk Shots

Tragic death of a seventeen-year-old girl after a two-day onset of poliomyelitis this past week, should draw to the attention of the public the urgent need for general inoculation with the Salk vaccine.

The young woman had not been vaccinated. Had she received her Salk shots it is possible, very possible, she would now be living and this needless tragedy averted. On Thursday she had complained of a headache and pains in her shoulder and back. Saturday the disease had completed its toll.

There is no need at this height of the polio season for anyone not receiving the Salk vaccine. Stepped-up production of the serum is now coming in from drug companies and commercial supplies are available to physicians through the druggists of the metropolitan area.

There are currently 70,000 doses on hand for general use and some of this may spoil because of lack of demand and public apathy. Some druggists are already refusing further orders from the laboratories.

Plentiful supply of the vaccine at this time enables those over fourteen years of age to avail themselves of the shots. The Salk vaccine distributed by the State Health Department is limited to children ranging from one to 14 years.

During this current year according to figures gathered by the Wayne County Chapter of the March of Dimes, eighteen adults have contracted the crippling and devastating disease. These were among 26 cases reported. Among them were three paralytic cases. Only one of the victims had had the vaccine.
