Destination . . . $31,549

Community Fund Opens Campaign For $31,549 Goal

There shouldn't be a resident of Plymouth township or city today who doesn't know that the annual Community Fund campaign is underway. Every householder has received a pledge card in the mail and every businessman and industry has received a letter stating that a solicitor is on the way.

The drive was officially opened Tuesday morning as 30 volunteer workers and Community Fund officials held their Kick-off Breakfast at the Hotel Mayflower. The volunteers this year are aiming for $31,549.

Solicitors of business and industry this year are being provided by the service clubs—Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary and Optimists. Since the bulk of the contributions comes from industrial and commercial sources, personal calls will be made.

But unlike other communities where the United Foundation is also staging its drive, householders will not be solicited personally. Instead, the literature received through the mail contains a pledge card and a return envelope. An enclosed pamphlet will also detail the use of the funds.

Richard Daniel, co-chairman of the drive with Mrs. L. B. Rice, was master of ceremonies at the Kick-off Breakfast. Introduced were Sam Hudson, president of the Fund board of directors; Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay, who pledged support of the Fund by township residents; Mrs. Rice, who gave instructions to the volunteers; Chamber President Frank Allison; and Fund board members.

The breakfast was donated by Evans Products company in addition to their regular contribution.

Daniel gave his thanks to the many who have already or will contribute their efforts to the drive, including the Senior Girl Scouts who stuffed envelopes, typing classes who addressed them, the 40 to 50 service club volunteers and the Plymouth Mail.

The first check received was that of Plymouth Gauge and Tool headed by Walter Panso. His check for $100, another for $50 from the Woman's Club and several other contributions brought the Chest total up to $175 in the first few moments of the campaign.

Plymouthites working in business and industry elsewhere can divert any part or all of their donations by writing their intentions on the back of the United Fund pledge cards.

After Three Year Wait, Chestmobile To Return Here

For the first time in three years, Chestmobile units will roll into Plymouth at the end of this month for free chest x-rays.

The Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the visit with a committee headed by Charles Stofko, manager of Barnes-Gibson-Raymond.

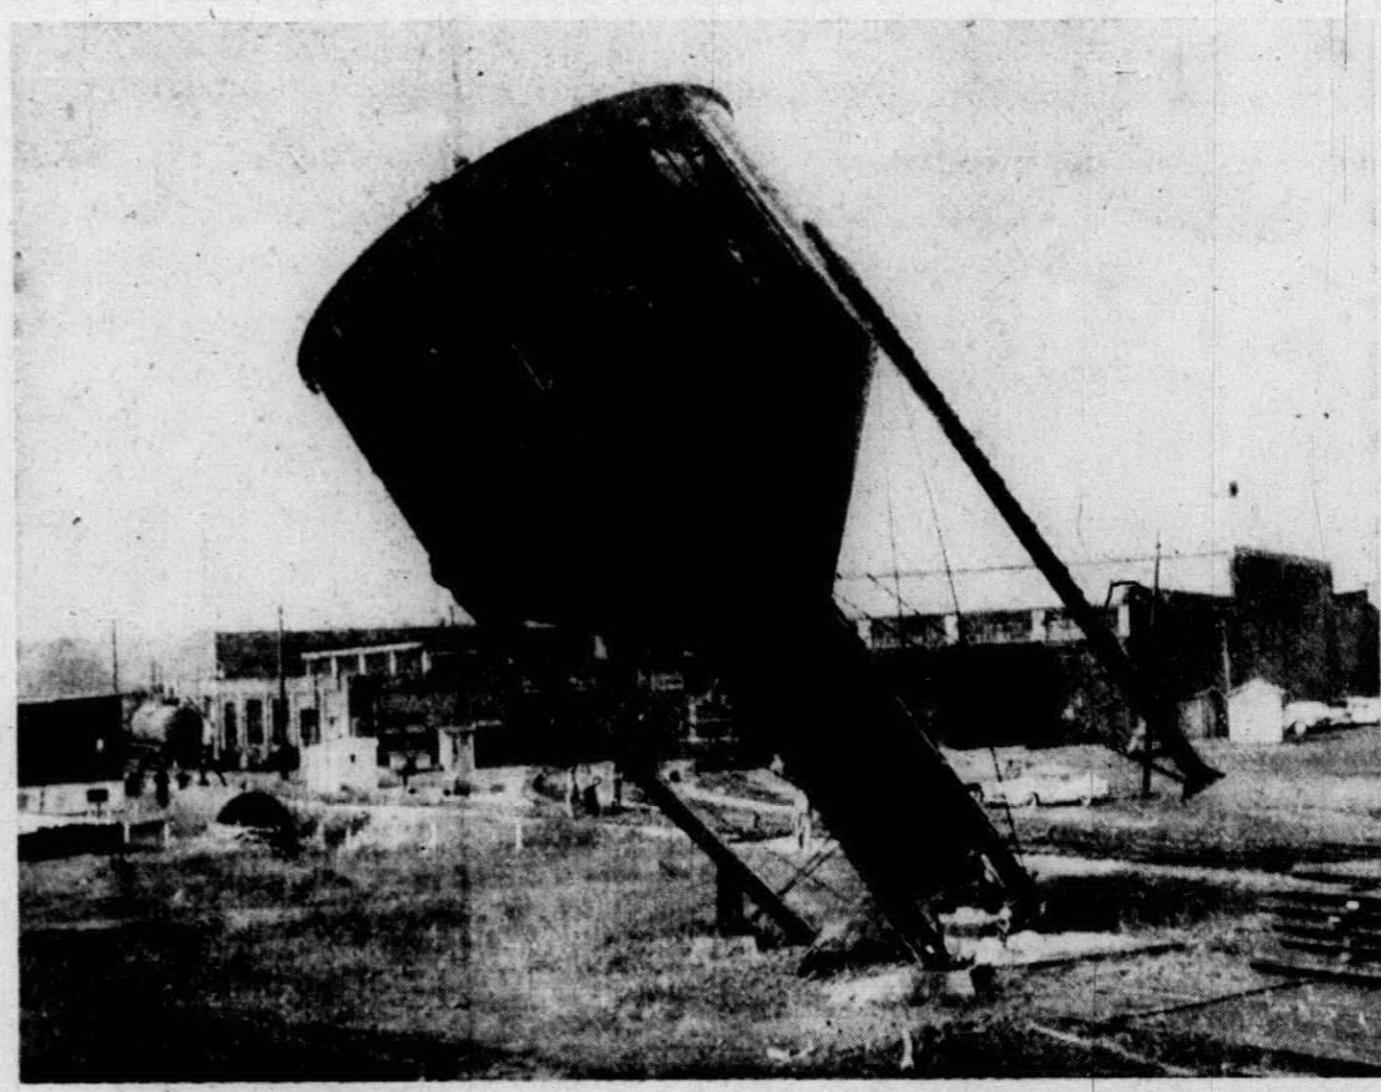

Three x-ray units will be in Plymouth for nearly three weeks with the first week devoted to industry and the second and third weeks to the public. Units will be located at various industrial plants beginning the week of October 28.

On the following Monday, November 4, a schedule will be set up to have units at five different convenient locations. These locations will be in the Kroger and A & T parking lots, behind the high school, on Liberty street and downtown.

Only persons 18 years and older can be x-rayed. If, however, an older member of the family is found to have tuberculosis, all members of the family regardless of age will be urged to have x-rays.

In order to bring the Chestmobile units here, many women volunteers are needed to register the public as they appear for x-rays. Any woman or group of women wishing to volunteer can call the Chamber of Commerce.

A list of hours at the various locations will be published at a later date.

THE EARTH SHOOK a little bit last Monday afternoon when a 100,000 gallon water tower crashed to the earth in the C & O yards here. The metal tower had not been used for five years, ever since diesel locomotives replaced the steam type. To fell the tower, the leg at left was cut through at an angle and bolts holding the other three were cut. Bulldozers with cables attached to the tower, then pulled it over with ease. Like similar water towers along the railroad line, it will be sold for scrap.

Canton Township Board Almost Swings Tide

A campaign in Canton township against the Plymouth Community School Board's ballot proposal to set up a building and site sinking fund was only two votes away from being successful. The proposal was approved, 317 to 315.

While not all of the opposition came from Canton township voters, it was the effort of the Canton township board which brought out residents who seldom had voted in a school election. The board, headed by Supervisor Louis Stein, had sent out letters to residents and staged a telephone campaign during election day.

"We didn't tell voters not to vote for the proposal," Supervisor Stein declared. "We just informed them of the facts."

The facts as explained by the township board in its letter concerned the favorable financial position of the school district and the higher taxes that Canton township property owners will be paying this year.

School officials were taken by surprise by the sudden opposition. They were holding their regular monthly meeting at the high school when news of the results were brought to them. They later approved the election results.

Approval of the proposition means that a building and site fund of 2.5 mills ($2.50 per $1,000 evaluation) has been established in addition to the present two funds, the operating fund and debt retirement fund. The debt retirement fund will be reduced by 2.5 mills, leaving the school tax rate at 21.95 mills, the same as it has been for several years.

The board had asked to set up the fund to finance the construction of school sites and the purchase of school buses without voting on bond issues. This would also eliminate the costly interest payments, they pointed out.

The board's action Monday night officially set up the new building and site fund with the debt retirement fund being lowered by 2.5 mills. The fund is expected to accumulate $187,500 annually under present property assessments.

There was no guarantee in the ballot proposal that if the public voted the 2.5 mills for the new fund, that the board would drop the debt retirement fund by the same amount. However, the board had committed itself that this would be done—and it has.

There were some voters who were of the opinion that if the proposal were defeated, that the tax rate would drop 2.5 mills. Superintendent Russell Isbister said yesterday that the ballot wording contained no such conditions—that the board wanted approval of the electorate to "slice the pie differently."

The school district's "pie" has 21.95 mills which is now divided like this: 14.45 mills for operation; 5 mills for debt retirement; and 2.5 mills for building and site. The superintendent said that if the proposal had been defeated, the board probably would have kept the millage at 21.95.

Monday's election will end the argument often heard that "my vote doesn't count". Supporters of the ballot proposal got wind of the opposition vote late in the day and some telephoning to "get-out-the-vote" took place.

The 632 vote total was somewhat more than anticipated by school authorities who predicted that about 500 would turn out. The Canton township board, in its letter to prospective voters, noted that in the previous school election, only 25 of the 900 votes

Still Good for Something

An old one-room school at Joy and Ridge roads that was burned down by practicing firemen several years ago, still had some useful purpose although it lay in ruins.

Photographers from Coronet magazine visited the site during each of the four seasons to take pictures for a forthcoming film-strip on American education. The ruins are to depict a school building in the South that was destroyed by the Civil War.

Careful Hunting in Township Urged as New Season Opens

As Michigan's small game hunters prepare to go into action this Monday, an urgent appeal was made this week by Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay for hunters to take extreme care.

Some 750,000 nimbros will be active this year in the state and several hundred of this number will be afoot in Plymouth township with rifle and shotguns. "We urge hunters to be extremely careful," the supervisor said as he recalled incidents last year.

During the 1956 hunting season, the township hall received a record number of complaints from citizens about hunting near homes. "Many mothers reported that they had to take their children inside. Others said that their clothing was actually hit by pellets."

A Shearer Drive man's leg was pierced by a rifle slug last year as he stood in his own lawn.

Earlier this year the township board attempted to have hunting banned in the township. To get it on the ballot, approval was first needed by the state legislature. A conservation committee of the legislature, after flying over the township, said that there was still too much unpopulated area to ban hunting, so the proposal was rejected.

Supervisor Lindsay said this week, however, that another attempt will be made before the legislature. "We will try every year until we succeed."

Pheasants, of course, will be the most popular game in the farming country of southern Michigan. Hunters should find a good crop of ringnecks, the Department of Conservation claims.

Bag limits of two pheasants per day, four in possession and eight for the season are unchanged from last year. Five rabbits a day can be shot, 10 in possession and 50 maximum for the season. Squirrel limits are the same except for 25 per season.

Firemen Called As Own Show Goes On

A crowd estimated at over 1,000 saw Plymouth's biggest Fire Prevention Week show Thursday night—a program that was abandoned for a while by city firefighters when they had to answer an alarm.

The program, designed to acquaint the public with the fire fighting equipment used in this area, included a parade down Main street, a water ball fight and display booths.

Shortly after the parade ended and firemen were getting ready for the water ball event, there was a call to a vacant field along Farmer street, behind the high school, where a shack built by boys was burning.

Firemen have no doubt that the shack was deliberately started on fire in order to toss confusion into the fire show. City firemen, however, had no trouble in getting away and quickly extinguishing the blazing shack.

Two fire departments which previously had not expressed their intentions to bring equipment here, were included in the parade. They were Farmington and Wayne-Nankin. Others taking part were Plymouth city and township, co-sponsors of the program; Superior, Salem, Canton and Novi townships, Northville, Livonia and the Detroit House of Correction.

City Fire Chief Robert McAllister and Township Chief Howard Holmes described the equipment and announced the program from a platform from Kellogg Park.

Plymouth township won the water ball contest which pitted teams of five firemen against each other. With inch and a half hoses under 140 pounds of pressure, each tried to push a large ball across each other's goal. City firemen because of their fire, did not participate.

There were several contests held during the week. A slogan contest for sixth, seventh and eighth graders was won by Susan Hayskar, 11, of 1434 Penniman. She is a seventh grader at the Junior High and won a bicycle. Her slogan was: "Don't be the blame for fire and flame."

Second prize, $10 in cash, was won by Rosemary Zielasko, 12, of 7425 Hix road, a seventh grader at Our Lady of Good Counsel. Her slogan was: "Don't be a firebug—be a fire preventer."

Carol Jewell, 12, of 873 N. Mill, won third prize of $5 for her slogan, "Don't play with fire—it may mean your life". She is in the Junior High seventh grade.

Fourth prize, two Penn Theatre tickets, was won by Albert

Tallest Sunflower In Mail Contest Towers 17' - 4"

Never did The Mail realize that there were so many sunflower growers in the Plymouth area.

Several months ago The Mail decided to stage a contest for the tallest sunflower and after jogging all around this end of the county with a ladder and measuring stick loaded in a truck, we've finally decided that Lawton Billings, of 42090 Schoolcraft road, has about the biggest sunflower we've ever seen.

It measured 17 feet, four inches. For his tall sunflower, he will receive a two year subscription to The Mail.

Second prize, a one year subscription, went to George Hesse, 11727 Russell, who had two giant flowers, one 13 feet 8 inches, and another 13 feet 6 1/2 inches.

Third prize, a world globe, goes to Mrs. Gladys Grosjean, 8300 Newburg road. Her sunflower was 13 feet 4 inches tall.

Over three dozen entries were phoned in and some people called back to report that they believed their flowers had grown some more. One entry was even received from south of Belleville, but this was not considered in our immediate area. Several entries were also received after the September 12 deadline, one of them claiming a 13 foot 8 inch sunflower, but this had to be eliminated.

Sunflowers, we've found, serve some useful purpose besides decoration for the garden. Mr. Billings feeds the sunflower seeds to his chickens while Mr. Hesse feeds his to birds during the winter, along with other seed he purchases. Both have large gardens.

Janet Spigarelli Reigns as Queen

Janet Spigarelli was crowned Homecoming Queen of Plymouth High school last Friday night after a game which thrilled the hometown crowd. Plymouth swamped visiting Belleville, 32-12.

The new queen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Spigarelli, 1300 Beck road. She was crowned during a homecoming dance at the school following the game.

Queen Janet was selected mainly for her service to the school. She is active in many groups and was co-chairman of the Homecoming festivities.

Only senior girls were eligible for the crown. Others seeking the honor and serving on Janet's court were Mary Lee Haug, Annie Denny and Arlene Kibic. Also on the court are representatives from other classes: Carol Nitz, freshman; Jill Clark, sophomore; and Marianne Palmer, junior.

The day's activities included a pep rally, tea for parents, bon fire and a parade through town preceding the game.

TALL but not tall enough to win The Mail's sunflower contest is this 13 foot, 8 inch one raised by George Hesse of Russell St. He came in second behind Lawton Billings of Schoolcraft road who had cut down his 17 foot, 4 inch sunflower before the photographer got back to take his picture. Both receive free subscriptions.

FIRST CHECK of the 1957 Plymouth Community Fund campaign was turned over to Board President Sam Hudson, center, Tuesday morning after the Kick-Off Breakfast. Ralph Carter, left, and Thomas Rossettie, right, are chairmen of the industrial solicitations committee. The first check was for $100 and was given by Plymouth Gauge and Tool.

To Dedicate Community Jr. High School Sunday, Oct. 27

Dedication of the Plymouth Community Junior High school will take place on Sunday, October 27, according to a decision by the board of education at its meeting Monday night.

Although plans for the ceremony will not be completed until next week, it was decided to hold the dedication program at 2 p.m. in the school's gymnasium. The early hour was set as to not conflict with the first World Travel Series program at the high school beginning at 3 p.m.

Principal William Harding and his staff are arranging the ceremony. Student musical groups will participate.

In other business before the board Monday, approval was given to establish a fifth grade at the Junior High to relieve congestion at Starkweather and Gallimore schools. It will be up to the parents to decide if they want their children in the new class. A teacher must still be hired.

Bids were opened for a sidewalk that the school district must lay on its Junior High property along Mill street. Two bidders, Herman Perlongo and Stillman Warner, submitted bids of 40 cents per square foot. The board will select the bidder who can get the job completed at the earliest date.

Members of the board will attend two special meetings this week. On Wednesday night they were at Clarenceville to discuss the proposed Northwest Wayne County Community College. Attending were board members from South Redford, Redford Union, Clarenceville, Livonia, Plymouth, Northville and Wayne school districts. The project has been under discussion since January.

Tonight some members of the board will attend a meeting of the Wayne County School Board Association at Grosse Pointe.

Residents Now Have Traveled In 48 States

A trip to British Columbia and the Pacific northwest by the Peter R. Millers of East Ann Arbor Trail was a "mission accomplished" because they may now claim the distinction of having traveled in every state in the union. They lacked North and South Dakota, Washington and Oregon. Traveling by automobile, the Millers visited 18 states and the Canadian province on their five-week journey.

The itinerary embraced a big circle leaving Michigan by way of the Straits of Mackinac and proceeding through Minneapolis across the northern fringe of the states, with the return swinging down the Pacific Coast to San Francisco and eastward to Oklahoma before turning homeward again.

Among the places visited were Glacier National Park, Vancouver, and Victoria in British Columbia; the Olympic National Park in Washington; the "Redwood Empire" in northern California and San Francisco; Lake Tahoe; Virginia City, Nevada; Salt Lake City; Tulsa and St. Louis.

The Millers visited friends in Naramata, British Columbia; Port Angeles, Washington; and Tulsa, Oklahoma. All these friendships were made on the Millers trips to Mexico.

Before returning home, the Millers spent two days with their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Keith A. Miller, in Freeport, Ill.

Sisterhood to Meet Friday

Chapter A. I. of the P.E.O. sisterhood opened its year's activities Friday, October 4, with a dinner meeting at the home of Mrs. Harold Fischer. In charge of the dinner was Mrs. George A. Smith, assisted by Hope Hills, Nancy Boeve, Helen Thams, Emma Hanthorn, Helen Moore, Erna Kaiser, Barbara Ehrlick, Pat Fowlkes, Lorene Hammel, Florence Nulty and Mabel Bowers.

In absence of President Lois Jensen the meeting was conducted by the vice president, Helen Stevens.

Friday, October 18 the sisterhood will meet at the home of Mrs. Harold Guenther. Guest speaker will be Arvid Anderson whose topic will be "Exchange Students in High School."

Plymouth High School

BY LIZ SARAH

Mrs. Betty Freedle and Mrs. Hattie Burrell called on Lucy Burrell Saturday afternoon.

Detroit were Sunday evening guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Burrell.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heidt and family and Mrs. Richard Hower and Terry were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilkie.

Unit I of W.S.C.S. met with Mrs. Ava Bordine Thursday afternoon and the Wesleyan guild met with Mrs. Irma Crawford Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Preston of Brookline entertained Mr. and Mrs. Steve Markograd of Chicago, Ill. several days last week.

Mrs. Hazen McInnes and daughter Debbie from Windsor spent the last week of September with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis of Northern.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Kreimes and son motored to Sandusky, Ohio Sunday, October 6 to visit her father, Mr. Charles Erdman.

Mr. and Mrs. William Tucker and girls spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Davis of Northern on their way to Kansas City, Mo.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie B. McClain and daughters from Highpoint, N. C. spent Sunday night and Monday at the home of his aunt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holladay on Brookline, October 6 and 7. Sunday evening visitors at the home of the Holladays were her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Smoot of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Irvin and family from East Detroit. The Holladays also visited relatives in Tecumseh Sunday.

Susie Tungate of Brookline, who was four years-old Friday, October 11 celebrated by having her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Plummer of Ridge road for dinner.

Jerry and Marsha Hoelt of Brookline are spending this weekend with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoelt in Saline.

Ernest Evans of Oakview who has been on the sick list with a cold this past week is up and around again.

It's all over now! The only thing that remains is the warm glow of memories that will linger in the backs of the minds and hearts of everyone who participated in the Homecoming festivities. The spent feeling of exhaustion is somewhat similar to the "fall-out" of Christmas morning.

In addition to the all-around joy, there was a certain feeling of pride which could not have been mistaken. There was pride in the voices of those who cheered for the football players on the field; in the applause for the band; and in the sparkling eyes of those who enjoyed the whole affair in appreciation of the work of the committees who presented this year's Homecoming!

The band schedule is a full one indeed! The band exhibited not only a lot of fine talent, but also a lot of sturdy leg power as they marched in the Fire Prevention Parade on Thursday, October 10, and in the Homecoming Parade on the following Friday night.

The majorettes, Judy Forshoe, Kathy Yakely, Marilyn Wilkison, and Wynne Millington along with Band Manager Dennis Simpson were stepping high and light at the front of the PHS Band.

Take vengeance on the birdie! Let off steam in the High School gym! The Recreation department is sponsoring badminton every Tuesday evening. From 7:30 until 9 p.m. Students will be in control of the rackets from 9 until 10:30. However, the parents will step in and show the younger set how it's done.

Seniors are all but snowed under. Between senior tests, pictures, and Christmas cards the seniors are meeting themselves at very corner.

The lack of news this week is not due to the lack of public activity, but merely to a week's confinement of the writer of this column who received a severe bite from the flu bug.

Postmaster Urges Early Postage Stamp Buying

"Early Yes" is the slogan being adopted by Postmaster George Timpona in a plea for Plymouthites to buy their postage stamps well in advance of the Christmas rush.

"Avoid the rush and standing in line later" the postmaster said this week. Although Christmas is two months away, many people are already doing their gift shopping. So it is not too unusual that folks buy their postage stamps too and avoid an even greater congestion than they would find in the stores.

DOMESTIC WORK

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (UP) — When the dome on Tennessee's state capitol was built, the great-grandfather of Gale Wilkins helped with the work. Recently the dome was torn down for re-building, and Gale's father had a hand in that.

NO BAIT

MANITOWOC, Wis. (UP) — A 16-year-old boy looking for night-crawlers with a flashlight looked up to find himself surrounded by police. Neighbors, suspecting he was a prowler bothering city residents of late, had called officers.

ROUND THE CLOCK

MINOT, N. D. (UP) — Minot International Airport now has 24-hour customs inspection service for passengers. Two inspectors are on call for 12-hour shifts to provide the continuous service at the newly designated international airport.

Plymouth public school students will get a two-day holiday next week while teachers and principals travel to Grosse Pointe for the annual Regional Conference of the Michigan Education Association.

Schools will close next Thursday and Friday, Oct. 24, 25 in all communities of Wayne County outside of Detroit. The first general session will be held Thursday at 9 a.m. in the Grosse Pointe high school auditorium. There will be group meetings for the many educational fields such as adult education, art, audio-visual education, and social studies, and elementary.

Among the speakers will be Judge Harold C. Kessinger, orator and humorist, who will speak on "Architects of a Better World," and Andrew D. Holt, vice president of the University of Tennessee, whose subject is "How to be a Cobalt Bomb."

Little Paul Julien of Berkley spent a few days last week with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce of Northville road.

I see where the Agriculture Dept., after taking a barnyard poll, reports we're in line for another bumper crop of turkeys this year. In fact, it'll be one of the biggest crops of gobblers in the nation's history. That's a statistic you can get your teeth into. It should be a great season for a fellow with an appetite. And around Thanksgiving time appetites are usually sharper than a teacher's reprimand.

Ever since the Pilgrims went shopping with a blunderbuss, gobblers have perched high on U.S. menus. It's doubtful that this appreciation has been returned by the turkeys . . . but you can't please everybody. Anyway, with all the international double-talk, it's kind of nice to hear someone talking turkey.

Seems like most of the new TV programs this season are "horse operas." Looks like the producers are beginning to do a lot of stable thinking. # Housewarming Held Recently For New Residents From Holland

EARLEEN POMROY
GA. 1-5231

The news around the Gardens this week is flu, flu, and more flu, and an extra edition would be the answer to report on everyone who has it, so if you are among the victims and don't see your name here, don't feel bad — there just isn't that much space!

Mary Sue Williams, W. Chicago celebrated her ninth birthday Wednesday, October 9 with an after school party. Those attending were Linda Sue Ellerholz, Gail Crain, Jennifer Kastner, Jenda Jo Verhines and Linda Marsh.

At a Congregational Meeting held September 15 the following new officers were elected at Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church: Deacons, Mrs. Larkin Breed and Mrs. Richard Higley; Trustees, Clarence Charest and Donald Pollock; Nominating committee, Carl Burke, Angus Leggat, Harvey Moecke, Miss Evelyn Porteous and David McCreadie; Every Member Canvass Committee, David Baldie, Gordon Dana, Clare Ebersole, Justin Jones, David Gibson, Donald Rosenberg, Harold Roeder, Thomas Stevens and Winthrop Sears, Jr. Retiring Trustees are Curtis Shook and James R. Valrance. Retiring Deacons are Mrs. W. Pribbenow and Mrs. W. S. Marsden.

Bill and Ginny Klenk, Vermont returned October 3 from a trip to Iowa and Illinois where they spent the time visiting friends. Upon returning they stopped in Chicago to pick up Bill's mother, Mrs. Lillian Klenk, who flew back home October 13.

Rosedale Gardens Civic Association held its regular monthly meeting Thursday, October 10 at the clubhouse on Hubbard at 8:30 p.m. Speakers were B. T. Yates, Superintendent of Schools and W. Warren, Bentley High Assistant Principal. Topics were A Community College in Livonia and The Adult Education Program. Refreshments were served by the Tot Lot mothers.

Speaking of Civic, let us not forget that Saturday night, October 26 is the date of the next monthly dance, which will be chairmanned by Oscar and Marie Heitner, and will be a Halloween dance. This was a lot of fun last year, and the costumes were really something, so it's not a bit too soon to go into conference with your better half and come with a costume to end all costumes this year. This dance is open to Civic members and their guests.

Containers are once more located in the church vestibule at the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church for gifts of canned goods to fill baskets for the needy at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Why not buy something extra when you do your weekly grocery shopping and donate it? You'll never notice the small expense and if everyone would do this the baskets would be really full in no time!

Brownie troop No. 1081 held a mothers meeting September 30 at the home of its leader, Lorraine Ellerholz on W. Chicago. A troop committee was appointed and Jean Crain, Ingram, is in charge of transportation. Dorothy Remington, Brookfield, will have charge of cookie sales and Peg Williams, W. Chicago, will be publicity chairman. The troop also has a new co-leader who is Ruth Wayne, Auburndale.

Vivian and Ed Gilday, Vermont, attended the dinner-dance of the Suburban Umpire's Association Saturday night, October fifth.

Vic and Chloe Diefenderfer, Mayfield, had Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kidder and children Kathy and Bobby, formerly of Livonia but now of Toronto as their guests last weekend.

The Kidder's were here especially for the corner stone laying ceremonies Sunday, October 12 at St. Andrew's Episcopal church.

Florence Allen, W. Chicago, had the job of sitting in with the fourth and fifth grade classes at St. Michael's school last Thursday afternoon because the Sister was out sick.

Mr. and Mrs. Stahling and their four children, formerly of Redford Township have moved into their new home on Cranston, next door to the Ballerats.

Dick and Mary Lancaster, formerly of Blackburn avenue, recently were here from Washington and visited many friends in the Gardens.

The haircutting class at the civic clubhouse is full and meets tonight at the clubhouse, each learner with her victim in tow!

Ruth and Ed Barber, Oregon, are the parents of a new baby girl, Gail Ann, who arrived October 7 at Mt. Sinai hospital and weighed 6 pounds, 12 ounces. Gail Ann has two sisters, Margaret and Diane and one brother Dicky to welcome her home.

A local bridge club met Thursday night, October 8. Members were Tig Tarbutton, Jeanette Olivier, Edna Dunn, Gladys Randolph, Pat Huntoon, Lillian Wolverson and Celia Hearon. The meeting was at the home of Carolyn Gonvick on Ingram.

Arline Fenolio, Mayfield, had a real good excuse to throw a party Saturday night, October 5 — to show the kids the movies taken at the last party! Those attending were Ann Young, Roseanne Drnek, Virginia Bonk, Leslie Borgia, Don Pomroy, Bob Wilson, Jim Wilson and Roger Gill. Arline's father, John Fenolio, was also celebrating his birthday Saturday.

There was a housewarming Saturday night, October 12 in Livonia for Mr. and Mrs. Gerardus Van der Haven, Dutch refugee family sponsored by St. Andrew's Episcopal church. The Van der Havens and their two children have been here just over a year and have now bought a house of their own. Friends attending from Rosedale Gardens were Rita and Walt Seelinger, Dick and Edith Hanz, Cliff and Ruth Taylor, Jim and Marilyn Hall, Barb and Les Core and Vic Diefenderfer. As a surprise the couples attending got together and presented the couple with drapes for their picture window.

Intermediate Girl Scout troops 1437 and 1438 have been combined into one big troop. These troops are composed of sixth graders and leader is Mrs. Marie Nabrezny and co-leader is Mrs. Virginia Jack.

Helen and Henry Kiselewski and children Lorraine and David, of W. Chicago have moved to their brand new home on Farmington road.

Georgia and Jim Jones and daughters Debra and Janifer, Shady Side, have recently moved to Chicago.

Cubscouts of pack 270, den 7 met Tuesday afternoon, October 8 at the home of the den mother, Lillian Wolverson on W. Chicago. Boys in this den are Ken Griffiths, David Harcourt, Bob Cass, Bobby Wolverson, Tom Wilson, Alan Heselstine, Bob McGuigan, Phillip Presnel and Billy Atwood.

Twenty seven friends attended a baby shower given Friday evening, October 4 by Vera Lorian, Berwick, in honor of Ginny Gamber of Auburndale. Ten others who were invited couldn't attend because of various illnesses. Those present were Ginny Byrd, Jean Biddinger, Ellie Button, Eleanor Curle, Ruth Lang, Eileen Richard, Lou Ritter, Mary Jo Swain, Verna Lee Stewart, Marie Heitner, Terri Randall, Ruth Hayes, Vernice Lyons, Marion Rupp, Mary Weitzel, Neen Madigan, Peg Brindley, Pat Shanks, Joanne Hill, Ginny Handzlik, Pat Dunn and Dorothy Burley.

Done your Christmas shopping yet? St. Michaels is having a toy party Friday evening, November 8 from 6 to 10 p.m. at Jahn's Hardware on Five Mile road. The proceeds go to the Altar Society. Everyone is welcome and there will be door prizes.

Friday, October 2 Gerri and Bob Casler, Louisiana, had Gerri's brother Jim Barr and her father Mr. James Barr, both of Detroit as their guests. The occasion was to celebrate Jim's 18th birthday.

Tony and Kathy Pons, Woodring, visited Kathy's brother, Jim White and family in Cleveland, Ohio over the weekend of October 5.

Beth and Bud Thiede, Louisiana have a new baby boy named John who weighed 7 pounds, 14 ounces and was born October 8 at Mt. Sinai hospital. The Thiedes have two other children, Gloria and Kirk.

Marion Yadosky, Barbara Jeraloman and Margaret Briggs attended a fashion show Monday evening, October 7 at Redford Union Jr. high school given by the Redford Jaycees.

A new Brownie troop of third and fourth graders has been formed at Grant school. There are as yet very few members of this new troop. Mrs. Hogan is the leader.

Mrs. Arthurs, Cranston, recently returned from a trip to Kingston, Ontario where she visited her sister.

Betty Dana, Vermont, is nursing a black and blue leg. Betty who survived painting and pap-ering the dinette while balancing on a youth chair and other such unlikely things went over to the vacant property behind Vermont to rescue Denny Hearon who was entrapped in a "fort" and fell into a loosely covered "booby trap" the kids had dug. These holes are a real danger, particularly to the real small children. Maybe you parents whose children play at the aforementioned spot had better stroll over (being careful where you walk, of course) and investigate.

There are new neighbors on Cranston. Miss Case and Miss Wilson have moved into the former home of the Robert Tilches who have retired to Venice, Fla. The Tilches had a bit of bad luck when the moving van containing their furniture tipped over enroute.

Sally Anderson, W. Chicago, celebrated her ninth birthday Saturday, October fifth with a party. Present were Patty Wolverson, Gretchen Anderson, Linda Ammerman, Kurt Ammerman, David Anderson and Kathleen Johnson. Dancing school, including Ballet, tap and ballroom dancing is now in progress. Call Peg Miquelon, GA. 1-6132 or Fran Ohl GA. 2-3506 for information. Additional couples are still needed for the adult ballroom class which meets Friday, 9:30 to 10:30 p.m. at the clubhouse on Hubbard. Here is your chance to brush up on your dancing, learn some foxy new steps and be all set for all of Civic's monthly dances!

There's going to be a junior high Halloween party Thursday evening, October 31 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Rosedale School sponsored by the Rosedale Gardens Civic Association. This party is for 7, 8 and 9th graders who are residents of Rosedale Gardens. There will be refreshments, dancing and prizes for the most original, funniest and prettiest costumes.

Gerri Casler and Lois Durfee, Louisiana, were co-hostesses at a toy party at Lois' home Thursday evening, October 3. Nancy Roberts demonstrated and guests were Margaret Hamilton, Doris Morris, J. Christiansen, B. Bedmorg, Ruth Barber, Joyce Fugazzi, Tig Tarbutton, Anita Griffith, Mrs. J. White, Rae Chisnell, Kathy Pons, Jeanie Stewart, Betty Taylor, Mrs. C. Fisher, Mrs. Richard Shelden and Eunice Dupite.

Sorry to hear that Bob Durivage, Blackburn, didn't just have the flu, but had insult added to injury by developing pneumonia! Hope he's up and around again by the time he reads this.

Are you ladies rounding up four-somes for the Women's Club card party November 7 at 8:30 p.m. at the clubhouse? This is not a closed party, and is open to all women who want an enjoyable evening out. Your ticket will include dessert and coffee and there will be a table prize for each table. Tickets should be available by next weekend. Call Ellie Button, ticket chairman at GA. 2-8310.

Rocks Give Crowd a 32-12 Winning Homecoming Show

A CHECK for $15 as first prize in The Mail's weekly football contest went this week to Jack Hille, right, of 6658 Gulley, Dearborn. Les Wilson, owner of The Photographic Center, is shown presenting the check. Jack had helped a fellow worker at Daisy Manufacturing to make the selections and when the friend found out that he had won, he decided that Jack deserved the money.

Contest Winner Turns $15 Award Over to Friend

A former Fordson High football player who helped a fellow employee at Daisy Manufacturing fill out his football entry pocketed the $15 first prize money this week.

He is Jack Hille, 6658 Gulley road, who managed to get all 15 of last week's predictions right. Actually, the winning entry was not submitted by Hille. Robert Spitznas, 743 Virginia, had submitted the entry. He and Hille work together at Daisy and as the two filled out entry blanks, Spitznas admitted that his friend gave him so many tips, that he didn't deserve the money. So he turned it over to Hille.

The Dearborn resident played halfback for Fordson and is still a close follower of football. In the first contest he missed by two.

Second prize of $10 went to John Monteith, 1163 Junction, who had missed one prediction, the Los Angeles-Lions contest. Third prize of $5 went to Lon Dickerson, 820 Simpson, who missed the Michigan-Michigan State game. Even though Monteith predicted the wrong team to win the professional game, his score guess came closer than Dickerson's.

This week it's a new contest with the same prizes and rules. Remember — entries must be in The Mail office or postmarked no later than 5 p.m. Friday.

SPORTS

Plymouth Rocks are boasting a record of two straight wins in the Suburban Six Football League by virtue of a terrific second half ground attack Friday night that netted them three touchdowns while Belleville was held scoreless. A large homecoming crowd was treated to a thrill packed game which ended in a 32-12 victory.

Dave Walasky with three touchdowns and Ed LaRoche with two, took care of the scoring in an impressive manner. Making key blocks to let these backs move for most of the 336 yards gained rushing were two sophomores playing their back Lipinski set up the second touchdown for Belleville. Plymouth kicked off to A. McCullers and after Brewer and Wisniewski combined for a first down, taking the ball to their 45, Lipinski hurried a high, soft pass that Gary Lahner caught and was downed at the Plymouth 5. The play covered 50 yards.

From here Wisniewski carried over for the second unconverted touchdown to make the score 13-12. There was no further scoring in the first half.

In the third quarter Plymouth scored in five plays after gaining possession on their own 32 when Belleville was forced to kick on fourth down. LaRoche and Walasky carried to the Belleville 35 on four plays. From here Wayne Sparkman made the key block to let LaRoche go 35 yards for his second touchdown.

Salan recovered the Belleville fumble on the Belleville 33 and from here the one-two punch of Walasky and LaRoche again combined for a touchdown. This time Walasky ran the last 16 yards into pay dirt and when Egloff made good his attempt for extra point the score-board read Plymouth 25, Belleville 12.

If the roof had not fallen in already on the Belleville crew, Alsbro made sure by tackling Lipinski on the Belleville 15 early in the fourth quarter when a bad pass from center on fourth down made kicking a little difficult. Plymouth recovered a fumble. After LaRoche made eight yards, Alsbro scored his third touchdown to end the scoring at 32-12.

Coach Mike Hoben was a happy man after the game. He had special praise for Don Alsbro who was among the last players suffering from the flu to return to the squad. Alsbro made some key blocks and some good tackling and blocked a punt in the last quarter. John Solan, Dick Anderson, Ed LaRoche, and Dave Walasky played well defensively as well as on the offensive.

Belleville was not without their stars. Lipinski passed well in the first half but could not shake his receivers loose for the long ones in the second half. Brewer, who scored one touchdown and gained considerable yardage along the ground, also played well. Defensively, in the words of Coach Hoben, "that Snodgrass is the best lineman we've seen."

Rocks Face Tougher Foe Friday Night

Tomorrow night at Livonia the Plymouth Rocks will be seeking their third consecutive win when they meet Bentley in what is traditionally the "grudge game" of the year.

In comparing the records of the two teams so far this year, it is interesting to note that in three games Bentley has won one from Redford Union 13-6, squeaked out a 13-12 victory over Trenton and just last week was beaten by Allen Park 26-7.

On the other hand, in two games, Plymouth has beaten Redford Union rather handily, 34-6, and showed considerable power along the ground in the second half of last week's game against Belleville to win 32-12.

The offensive team for the Rocks has scored a total of 66 points while the Bentley offensive unit has scored only 33. Defensively, Plymouth has held the opposition to 18 points while Bentley has had 44 points scored against them.

By their performance to date, the Rocks have justified Coach Hoben's rather optimistic about his team's potential. He does not claim to have a great team but he does maintain that he has a well balanced team and good running backs.

Hole-in-One Scored At Hilltop Golf Course

The second hole-in-one of the season was entered into the record books at Hilltop Golf Course Saturday when W. C. Boon, 11768 Priscilla Lane, aced the No. 3 hole.

Boon used a seven iron for his drive on the par three hole. His score for the round was 40. He was playing with E. Hanlen of Plymouth.

SPORTSEEN

By Bill Dilworth

During this past week we have met many people connected with athletics and recreation here in Plymouth. We were impressed with their sincerity, helpfulness and genuine desire to do a good job. The varsity football team is in the capable hands of Mike Hoben, ably assisted by John McFall and Bill Brown. The cross country team is also well coached by John Sandmann. We appreciated the assistance received from these men and hope that we may reciprocate with accurate coverage of the sports activities.

Another man whom we met for the first time during our rounds this past week was the Director of Recreation, Herb Woolweaver. The people of Plymouth and surrounding territories are fortunate in having such a person as their director. He is dedicated to the task of providing you the best facilities that are available.

Mr. Woolweaver outlined the Recreation program and the Adult Education program and at the present time there are 1,200 people enrolled. However, all is not well with the director. If more people do not soon take advantage of the opportunities to use the swimming pool it may be closed to the public. The swim schedule is as follows:

Monday—Family night
Tuesday—Mother and Daughter night
Wednesday—Father and Son night

Thursday—Open
Saturday—Teenagers.

What better opportunity could parents have for an evening out with the family participating in the enjoyable recreation of swimming?

Another activity that may have to be curtailed because of lack of attendance is the tennis instruction classes. These classes are open to all sexes and all ages. The instructor is Tom Alexander, a representative of the National Professional Lawn Tennis Association. This is a good place to sharpen your game with free expert instruction.

Plans for the fall semester were discussed and Woolweaver is anxious to hear the opinions of the people of Plymouth as to the type of recreation that they would like. If enough people indicate a willingness to attend classes in a given subject, art or sport an instructor will be hired. Make your desires known by dropping a card to H. E. Woolweaver, director, Plymouth High School, Plymouth, Michigan.

FROM THE SCRATCHPAD

The idea of having the fathers sit in the stands on the sidelines to cheer their sons on to victory is unique and warrants commendation. The mothers of the players sit in the section below the press box so they too can keep their eye on things from a more protected vantage point. Mike Hoben has promised to show films of the game on Thursday night at 7:30 in the school gymnasium with the public invited.

More than one fan will be interested in learning what happened to the missing down in the third quarter. Two penalties were assessed to Plymouth and they appeared to have the ball with first and ten. Three plays later they were forced to kick since they had not made yards. The only comment from the officials after the game was that the films will show just what happened. While this was going on one Plymouth supporter commented: "We're beating these guys, even with Canadian rules."

WHY IS IT THAT MANY BABIES LEARN TO WALK IN A NEW PAIR OF SHOES?

The most probable reason is that the old shoes were too small. If you will notice, babies use their little toes for balance. When they walk in their bare feet, or sox the little toe of the right foot points to two o'clock while the others point to twelve. After the babies learn balance the little toes become less and less important and close in with the other toes, so they can wear shoes in adult life that do not look like rubbers.

Fifth grades in the elementary schools were invited to set up fire prevention displays. First prize a record player and theatre tickets, was won by the Allen school fifth grades. Their display was a cut-away model of a home showing all types of fire hazards. Gallimore school's fifth grades won the second prize of a theatre ticket for each student.

A writing contest for high school students will be judged this week. Prizes will go for the best story or editorial concerning Fire Prevention Week.

Other groups besides fire departments participated in the program. The Salvation Army brought its new emergency canteen from Detroit and Michigan Bell set up a display of phones, stressing their importance in case of fire.

The week was also highlighted by the display of fire equipment at elementary schools where a Junior Fire Marshal program took place. A fireman's helmet and ring were given to students making fire hazard checks of their homes.

The Plymouth Association of Insurance Agents took an active part in the week by financing the Junior Fire Marshal material. They also sponsored a radio program Tuesday and set up a display booth Thursday night.

Text of Letter Sent by Canton Township Board About Election

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Readers may be interested in the text of the letter sent to many Canton township voters by the Township Board concerning Monday's school election. More Canton voters than ever before turned out for the election with undoubtedly most of them voting against the proposal to set up a new fund. The letter was signed by the Canton township board.)

Dear Friend:
On next Monday October 14, 1957, you have been asked by the Plymouth Community School Board to approve a 2.5 mill ($2.50 per $1000.00 assessed valuation) increase in taxes for five (5) years. The purpose of this tax is to create a Sinking Fund to be used for the purchase and development of school sites, constructing school buildings and making alterations and repair to school buildings. That you may better understand the financial position of your school district and therefore cast your ballot in an intelligent manner we are presenting for your consideration the following information:

In the October 3, 1957 issue of the Plymouth Mail a financial report of the Plymouth Community School District disclosed some interesting and important facts but it does not mention what we believe you should know is the tremendous school tax increase you are about to receive in December of this year when you receive your 1957 Tax Bill.

Last year (1956) Canton Township paid the Plymouth School District $85,677.24, this year (1957) Canton Township has been requested by the Plymouth School District to spread $157,899.30. This is an 84 percent increase in school taxes in the Canton Township portion of the Plymouth School District. Some of this increase will be absorbed by new construction and therefore new assessments in this area but you may expect an increase in school tax this year on your 1957 tax bill which you will receive in December of approximately 60 per cent.

Now let us consider the present financial position of the school district, on June 30, 1957, the cash on hand and investments were as follows:

- General Fund, $131,763.66;
- Hough Debt. Retirement Fund $91.86;
- 1951 Debt. Retirement Fund $29,463.32;
- 1952 Debt. Retirement Fund $61,514.90;
- 1955 Debt. Retirement Fund $290,679.96;
- Building and Site Fund $1,035,890.77;
- Nichols Trust Fund $1,199.77;
- General Total Cash Available, $1,550,604.24.

Please remember that this is a cash balance of June 30, 1957, and does not take into consideration the tremendous tax increase of this year.

In 1956 the townships and cities in the Plymouth Community School District paid the School District $1,231,157.87. This year (1957) the townships and cities in the Plymouth Community School District will pay the school district $1,650,503.62 this is a 34 percent property tax revenue increase.

According to the School Board's financial report $25,000.00 was transferred from the General Fund to the Building and Site Fund and still had a balance in the General Fund of $131,763.66 or $9,466.55 more than the 1956 balance. In view of the large tax increase of this year we believe it is fair to assume that a considerably greater amount should be available for transfer from the General Fund to the Building and Site Fund.

Another source of revenue that should be considered is the new Western Electric Plant which will add additional valuation of 2 to 3 million dollars to the School District. This should add $50,000.00 to $60,000.00 school tax to the school treasury each year.

The report shows all Debt Retirement Bonds are being paid far ahead of schedule. The 1951 bond issue shows $15,000.00 due and paid plus $60,000.00 paid in advance prior to maturity and a

(Continued from Page one) cast were from the Canton Township area. "Until the people of our township show more interest in their school affairs by voting at the school elections they cannot expect too much consideration from the school officials," the letter added.

The letter pointed out that on June 30, 1957 the school district had "general cash available," $1,550,604, distributed among the general fund, five debt retirement funds, building and site fund and a trust fund. Of this amount, $1,035,890 was in a building and site fund.

Asked about the large cash balance yesterday, Superintendent Isbister said that the $1,035,890 building and site fund is what remained last June of the $3,000,000 bond issue of 1955. All of this is committed with $650,000 going for the second elementary building approved in the bond issue and the rest for the new junior high.

The letter also pointed out that last year Canton township taxpayers paid the school district $85,677.24. This year, the school tax bill in the township will be $157,899.30, an increase of 84 per cent.

Orange-Cider Punch Gives Florida Air to Football Fare

The nipper the day, the more fun the football game, and the more bracing the air, the more everyone thirsts for a bracing warmer afterwards. Ideal fare is mulled Florida orange punch served with doughnuts.

This year's crop of juicy thin-skinned Florida oranges is going to be a record one, and the quality is fine now. Get them by the dozen or the bag, and buy plenty so that you'll have juice handy for thirst-quenchers and also for adding flavor to many recipes. The small-sized fruit coming into local markets are exceptionally good buys and, regardless of size, you're assured of getting more than a quart of juice from every five pounds of Florida oranges.

After the game, this hot punch would be welcome refreshment indeed. The slight heating which you give the orange juice doesn't damage its natural vitamin C goodness to any great extent. Float "mums" made from orange peel on the punchbowl for a gala touch.

Mulled Florida Punch
½ cup sugar
½ cup water
12 whole cloves
2 2-inch pieces stick cinnamon
2 quarts Florida orange juice
1 quart sweet cider

Combine sugar, water and spices in saucepan; simmer 10 minutes; strain. Add Florida orange juice and cider. Reheat and serve hot from punch bowl. Float orange "mums" on top. To make "mums", cut 2 inch rounds from orange peel. Press 4 or 5 cloves in center of each round. Cut ¼-inch strips with scissors from edge to clove center. Float on top of punch. YIELD: 26 ½-cup servings.

Storage Units Reflect Individual Needs

New storage units are engineered with a feeling for the individual needs of the person who will be using them. Drawers are deep enough for piles of shirts or shallow enough for lingerie.

Some new pieces have cabinet units, with sliding shelves—ideal for storage of sweaters, blouses, shirts, scarves and so on. Sizes are almost unlimited, from the big Mr. and Mrs. chests, which furnish the whole side of a small room, to individual chests for special storage.

Whether you are a new bride, or a settled homemaker, you can give your home the personal look—plus comfort and utility—with well chosen chests and other storage pieces.

You'll find that even a small room looks larger when you use one or two good sized pieces, rather than odds and ends of small ones. Many of the chests and dressers available are from groupings which are designed to fit together, giving the look of big pieces.

You can make your own "storage" walls, fitted to your exact needs, by selecting the individual pieces that will serve your purposes, using them together as one big unit.

The mixing of styles and periods is the newest decorating theme. Just be sure that you use informal pieces together in a more elegant setting.

You'll find the results usually more pleasing if you use one style in about two thirds of the room, letting the others serve as accents.

If yours is a temporary home, or you plan to buy a bigger home as your family increases, consider the many uses of good storage pieces. A chest may begin its life in your bedroom, go on to serve as a buffet or for linen storage in the dining room, or as a beautiful accent piece in your new living room. If you plan these storage pieces to be similar throughout the house, they will give you both use and beauty for years.

If your bedroom just needs a "lift" and not a complete new decorating, one or two handsome chests can give it an entirely new look, a spark that brings it up to date. If the rest of your furniture is light in color, you might choose new storage pieces in dark walnut or mahogany, or one of the so-new painted finishes.

If your furniture is dark, accent its loveliness with pale birch or natural cherry or another light finish—one of the pastel paints, for instance. If your style has been sleek modern, give yourself the romantic look with a new "transitional" piece with delicate ornamentation.

Doll-sized jewelry cases are often being seen to be used atop chests. They are finished either to match the grouping or in a painted finish for contrast.

Good Equipment Contributes Most To Pressing Skill

Even with all the miracles of modern fabrics, you still need to know how to press garments skillfully. Though men's clothes are of such fabrics and so tailored that frequently dry cleaning will keep them pressed looking with little or no pressing at home, this certainly is not true for the average woman's clothes. Her suit skirts—if not her jackets—and her street dresses will perhaps need several pressings between trips to the dry cleaner.

Good pressing equipment contributes a great deal toward successful results. First of all the ironing board itself should be absolutely flat across the pressing surface.

The new rigid metal boards are excellent, but should you be using an old board that tends to hollow in at the center, add extra padding to make the surface flat. The rigidity of these new boards prevents the small end from springing under heavy pressure.

A board tapered from 16 inches at the wide end to 3½ inches to 4 inches at the small end is convenient in pressing large areas as well as small. The narrow end permits you to slip small circumferences such as those of armhole, neck and sleeve over the end. Another feature to look for in selecting a new board is a support near the center to allow long skirts to be slipped over either end.

For the padding of your ironing board, nothing is quite as satisfactory as foam rubber. It can be bought cut to ironing board size and is usually about ½ inch thick. If you like a softer surface, buy two pads and use them together. Or, you might like to buy foam rubber by the foot and cut it to fit exactly your own board.

If so, save enough from the narrow end to cover a sleeve board. You will find this springy type of padding a boon in pressing difficult fabrics where too much pressure so quickly over-flattens or shines a soft or dull texture.

Also, you can exert the needed pressure between ridges of seams, tucks or decorative features of a garment because the foam rubber will respond to the pressure.

A crisp adaption of the Puritan collar give a fresh accent to this cameo framed Robarre print. Short sleeves and a full skirt complete the look. The collar is detachable.

Puritan, Victorian Influences Seen in Young Ladies' Fashions

The grammar school set is dressing up with new sophistication. The discerning young lady finds new detailing in fall cottons that gives fashion individuality to her wardrobe. Sleeves, backs, and collars have received very special attention from designers. Fabric patterns and colors are prettier than ever before.

A dominant trend in dresses is the Puritan, or Mayflower, look. The simplicity of the original Pilgrim dress has been reproduced almost line for line. A wide, cape collar of white pique or cotton satin typifies this design. Fabrics range from dark, velvety cotton corduroys to plain and printed broadcloths.

Dresses with a "turn of the century" appearance also are receiving attention. Choker necklines, often edged with a self ruffle, have tiny cameo pins attached. Three-quarter sleeves are cape width and fall over simulated or real undersleeves of sheer cotton. Bodice trim is a Victorian "V" outlined in velvet ribbon extending from shoulder edge and meeting in a point at the waistline. Split pleurms, also edged in velvet, lengthen the waistlines. Back interest pleurms are half belted in the same fabric.

Quaint fabrics are in favor for this styling. Demurely printed calicos are used in shades of taupey brown or rich jewel colors of deep red, blue, and emerald green. Cotton velveteen is also a natural choice for the Victorian style. Delicate laces, soutache braid, and narrow velvet ribbons are the traditional trimmings.

The classic shirtwaist has a fresh look this fall. Crisp broadcloth, gleaming cotton satins, and bright calicos all are adapted to this neat fashion. A wide variety of trims add spice, with fagoting, tucking, rows of self ruffles or lace to make it tailored or flirtatious. Back interest is centered above the waist with front trim repeating itself on the bodice back.

Knit leotards are the newest discovery made by small fry for lounge and school wear. The actual leotard, or skinny trousers simulating a leotard-look, are used effectively in many ways. For school wear, the waist high ballet leotard is both practical and smart when worn under dresses. It provides snug warmth and doubles as long stockings. Either leotards or trousers are worn for playwear under cotton smocks.

Smocks, too, are coming into their own as a favorite form of lounge wear. Gingham, broadcloth, and woven plaids are adapted to smock styles that range from the fully cut artist's smock to straight tailored little coats. Applique and embroidery are used extensively in forms of amusing animals, artist's pallettes, and other decorative designs.

Velveteen and poplin appear in coats for every occasion. Black or red velveteen princess coats are the first choice for dressy wear and are often fur-trimmed for an extra special look.

The poplin car coat, available in a wide variety of colors, is number one in the fashion parade for schoolwear. Its smartest features are toggle button closings and knitted collars in matching or contrasting stripes.

Prints Gaining Popularity

Cotton prints are challenging solid-color cottons for the leading role in decorative fabrics.

Prints in sharp, clean patterns have been gaining new popularity throughout the country in recent months, according to trade reports.

Solids have enjoyed the leading position for the past four years. Fabric manufacturers explain that it is easier to coordinate a single color in a room setting than to decorate with a pattern that may include several different colors.

New fabric collections, however, feature simplified prints, especially monotonous and two-color patterns, that are easy to coordinate with other decorative elements.

New Stiffener for Petticoats

Scratched legs no longer need be a penalty of fashion. A method of stiffening petticoats with gelatin gives the desired effect without the discomfort that often accompanies their wearing, according to Mrs. Edna Ohlert, Detroit Edison Home Service Adviser.

Sprinkle 2 envelopes of plain gelatin over ½ cup of cold water. Let stand for 5 minutes. Dissolve in 1½ cups of boiling water. Put dry, clean petticoat in pan, pour hot solution over and let stand until liquid is absorbed. Hang petticoat to drip dry, do not iron.

This is one of several laundry and summer freezer tips included in a free "Hints and Recipes" service being inaugurated at Edison offices this month.

Recipes featured are for Spicy Orange Buns, Chicken Squares with Mushroom Sauce, Meat-zza Pie, and Marvelous Muffins.

The recipes and hints are printed on cards designed for easy filing and are available from a new type selector rack being used for the first time.

Mrs. Ohlert says new recipes and hints will be issued each month. They may be obtained without charge from many Edison Office.

To get best results from your "drip-dry" cottons: After washing, do not wring the garment out but leave most of the water in and let it drip out. Hang the garment carefully to prevent dried-in wrinkles and creases.

When a recipe calls for one square of chocolate and you don't have it, substitute three and one-half tablespoons of cocoa and one-half tablespoon of margarine.

Baby blue jeans are the newest fashion for the diaper set. They are made of real rugged blue denim with a waterproof lining. Plaid cotton shirts come with the denim diapers.

Summers of Yore Had Cool Knights On Hot Days

In medieval times, knights and fair damsels lucky enough to live in stone castles weren't bothered too much by hot weather. The thick walls kept out heat as well as warlike invaders.

Today, man could escape heat in much the same way by building his home with walls of equally massive stone, brick, or concrete. Instead, science provides him with modern insulation that fits neatly in thin wall spaces and in ceilings.

The fact is that a four-inch thickness of mineral wool insulation will stop as much heat penetration as 12 feet of concrete or 74 inches of brick.

Pitched Roof Trims Costs Of Cooling

Air conditioning is more effective and less expensive to operate in a home with a pitched roof, according to a leading research engineer in the field of home cooling.

"The larger the air space in a well-ventilated attic, the greater the protection from outside heat," says Prof. John R. Watt of the mechanical engineering department of the University of Texas. "Flat or shed roofs have virtually no protective air space."

Professor Watt told an audience of air conditioning engineers and members of the National Association of Home Builders that:

"Doubling the amount of air space in the attic reduces heat transfer to the living areas by 75 percent."

This air space, combined with thick mineral wool insulation in the attic floor, reduces penetration of overhead heat so efficiently, Professor Watt says, that smaller air-conditioning units can be used and cooling costs are reduced by as much as half. For complete protection against summer heat, mineral wool also should be installed in walls and living area floors.

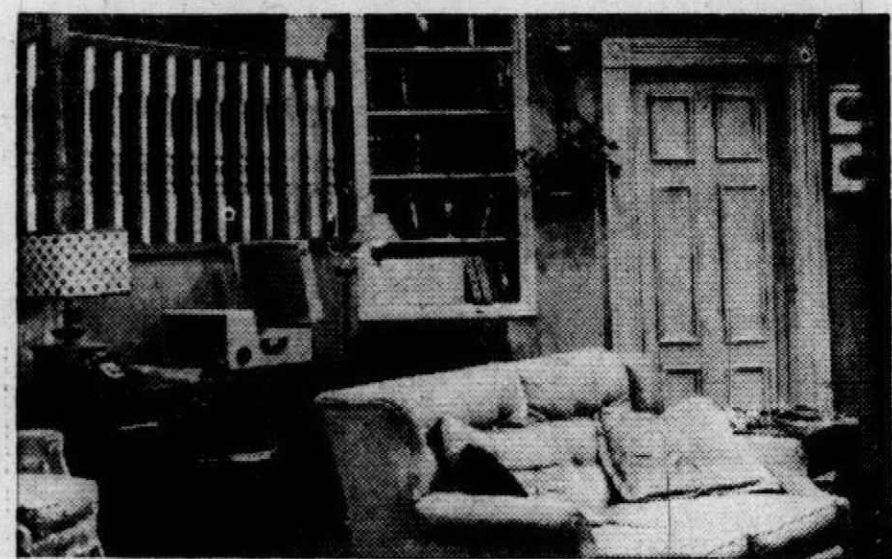

Professor Watt based his recommendations on research conducted at the Air Conditioned Village, Austin, Tex., where the operation of air-conditioning equipment in various types of homes was studied under actual living conditions.

That smaller air-ventilated air space under a pitched roof acts to reduce heat radiated from the roof to ceilings below by wiping off surface heat to carry it outdoors through the vent openings.

Many architects and cooling engineers advise light-colored asphalt shingles for the roofs of air-conditioned homes, since a light surface reflects more of the sun's rays. Asphalt shingles are available in many light colors to satisfy the individual tastes of prospective home owners.

The combination of a pitched roof and light-colored asphalt shingles, and thick mineral wool insulation is effective in reducing overhead heat in any house, air conditioned or not.

Homes Need It, Too TV Demands 3-D Scenery

Balustrades, a bookcase and a pine panel door form a three-dimensional background for this room from one of CBS-TV's Studio One dramas. Set designers say this textured background adds interest to what could otherwise be a dull-looking room. Home-owners can use three-dimensional materials in much the same way to make rooms more dramatic and interesting.

Take a tip from television if you want to achieve dramatic effects and create moods in your interior decorating scheme.

That's the advice of Larry Eggleton, one of the Columbia Broadcasting System's top television set designers. Eggleton, who creates the scenery for CBS-TV's popular hour-long dramatic shows, Studio One, says the key to effective television set designing as well as attractive home interiors is the use of materials which have a three-dimensional appearance.

These include brick and stone walls, interior planting boxes, paneled doors, draperies, textured wall materials, and walls painted with designs.

One of Eggleton's favorite means of obtaining the three-dimensional, or textured, effect so important to his sets is with wood panel doors.

"Panel doors give us interesting texture because of the shadow lines created by the panels," he says. "These break up what would otherwise be a flat, monotonous surface. Besides, certain styles of panel doors also help us achieve mood and authenticity."

"For example, if a script calls for an early American setting, we can obtain a stock pine panel door which is an authentic copy of doors made by Colonial craftsmen. This gives us a background that is both realistic and three-dimensional. The pine grain also adds richness and warmth to the scene."

Eggleton believes that the same "tricks" and tools employed to make a good background for a television play can be used in home decoration.

"A flat empty wall as a background for a scene is a sin on TV because it invariably is dull and uninteresting. Believe it or not, this dullness can creep into the action of the play itself."

The same thing can happen in a house. According to Eggleton, interesting decorative surroundings in the home are just as important psychologically for every day living as they are on television.

The home-owner can use panel doors of ponderosa pine with the same success achieved by TV set designers. The doors can be obtained from building material dealers in styles to fit any interior decor, from traditional to contemporary.

HOME OWNERS QUESTION BOX

Q—Water seeps through one wall of my basement. We've been advised to dig down on the outside of the wall and give it a coating of tar, but have delayed doing this since digging would disturb a grouping of well-established shrubbery. Is there another way to stop the leakage?

A—Waterproofing agents are available today which can be applied to the inside of leaky basement walls. These generally do a better job, and would be worth trying in your case.

Q—I plan to enclose an open porch and hope to add a bedroom above it at a later date. Will 2 x 6 joists be adequate for the ceiling of the porch?

A—No. These would be fine if they supported only the porch roof and ceiling, but are too light for the weight of an overhead room. Use 2 x 8 joists for safe construction.

Looks of House From Rear As Important as Front View

Does your house look as good from the back yard as it does from the street? More and more families today are recognizing the importance of a good-looking rear view as well as a handsome front because of the time they spend "out back."

A good example is the backyard view of this modern, two-story home. Its owner-builder used subtle good taste in combining vertical and horizontal wood siding stained in redwood tones with white windows of ponderosa pine.

Stone work on the chimney and porch foundation add a further modern touch, while "neutral" color is contributed by blend asphalt shingles on the main roof and the long dormer. Even though the dormer roof has a relatively low pitch, asphalt shingles were used because of a recently-developed application technique especially designed for low pitched roofs.

Windows upstairs and in the kitchen downstairs are ponderosa pine awning style. The large picture windows consist of a fixed sash flanked by smaller awning windows which open for ventilation. All are stock windows available from building materials dealers.

The screened porch at the rear has a sun deck roof which can be reached through a door from the master bedroom upstairs.

Neat Home In Top Repair Sells Faster

Put yourself in the position of a prospective buyer if you plan to sell your home in today's highly competitive "older house" market.

Make a careful inspection tour of the house from basement to attic, and the lot from border to border, just as a house-hunting family would. Chances are good that if you, in effect, would "buy your own house," you can put up a "For Sale" sign with reasonable confidence.

A good place to start, according to many experienced real estate brokers, is at the curb, where a prospect gets his first impression. Are the lawn, shrubbery, and flower beds in good shape? If not, prospective buyers might not even stop to look.

Check Roof Carefully

Next, check the exterior of the house, paying special attention to the roof. Faded paint or a cracked piece of siding may not be a sale, but an old, shabby roof often will send a prospect surrying back to his car.

This is because families looking for an older house today generally come forewarned with a list of things to look out for, and a weathered, worn-out roof is one of them. The prospect knows an old roof may be a leaky roof.

A new roof of asphalt shingles in one of many colors available is an excellent selling point for an older home. Besides assuring the prospective owner long lasting protection from weather, the new asphalt shingles add color and beauty to the entire house.

Neatness Important

Inside, real estate men say, good housekeeping is essential when a house is up for sale. Clean, neat rooms reflect the habits of the owners which in turn indicate the type of care the house has received.

If painted walls or wallpaper are shabby, interior redecoration probably is in order. A small expenditure for paint, plus some week-end labor with brush and roller can add immeasurably to the resale value of a house.

The plumbing and heating systems should be in good working order, and windows and doors should operate smoothly. A good thing to keep in mind is that the prospective buyer of an older home does not expect everything to be shiny and new but he does want a house to be in sound, livable condition.

Nation's Color Taste Improving, Stylist Says

Mel Grau, one of the West Coast's leading color-stylists, says a trend toward "low key" colors means that the nation's tastes are improving.

"Low key," says Grau, who color-styles thousands of new development homes in California every year, "means soft pastels in a monochromatic scheme, such as an asphalt shingle roof in a quiet brown, with harmonizing beige."

Lower Doors Help Home Air Conditioner

Louver doors, between rooms and on closets, make home air-conditioning systems work more efficiently. They also add interest to any decorating scheme with their "textured" appearance.

The tilted slats in louver doors of ponderosa pine permit cooled air to circulate more readily from room to room while still maintaining privacy.

Vast Road Plans

MICHIGAN'S ECONOMY IS LINKED to its highways. Industry and business—the bread and butter of the state's economic life—rely heavily on mobility. Highways link Michigan's vacation spots with its customers.

The immediate future of Michigan's highway building program has been charted. Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie said he would commit $1,225,000,000 of state, Federal and local funds to a network of superhighways criss-crossing the state by 1962. Then will start a second five-year program, then a third. In the next 25 years, road-builders expect to make a sizeable dent in the $7,000,000,000 program now needed.

What it means to all phases of life in Michigan can be described in Mackie's own words:

"The five-year program will link all major cities over 50,000 in population and place all counties and county seats within 30 miles of a superhighway."

He said most of the spending will be done in the most-populous areas, serving 90 per cent of the state's industry, 95 per cent of the state's agricultural areas and tourist business.

First maps of Mackie's five-year plan show a superhighway up the center of Michigan to the new Mackinac Straits Bridge and another route from Detroit to Chicago. A third major development will be a superhighway running from Detroit through Lansing to Grand Rapids and on to Muskegon.

The plan looks like a tree with the main trunk running up the center of the state, with major connections making it easily accessible to all other sections of the state.

One of the more compelling reasons for speed in the program is the scheduled opening Nov. 1 of the Mackinac Straits Bridge.

POLITICAL BREEZES are stirring during the off-year with the bigger storms due next spring and fall. Republicans are still looking for a party candidate for governor and are organizing to help re-elect Senator Potter in the face of rugged competition from the Democrats.

Democrats are working to make further inroads on the Republican majority in the legislature and already have had a two-day doorbell-ringing financial campaign around the state.

While no one has said so specifically, Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart is the best bet to go against Potter with Gov. Williams expected to seek his sixth consecutive term.

The only Republican to come close to announcing his candidacy to go against Williams is Rep. George Sallade (R-Ann Arbor), a Young Turk leader in the House who would like more party backing.

"You can call me a probable candidate in the primary," he said.

Popular Records

NEW YORK—(UP)—Sometimes — not often enough—a record company will make a big plunge with a major production with the feeling that the product is worth the gamble.

Several years ago Columbia boxed a set of Benny Goodman LP's that retailed in the neighborhood of $35. But it included some of Benny's greatest records and there were enough Goodman fans to make the gamble pay off.

Then RCA-Victor came through with the expensive limited editions of Glenn Miller's music. Even though the price was steep, the demand exceeded the supply.

Now Decca comes forth with a noble album that marks a new milestone in jazz. It is probably the greatest single production in the colorful history of New Orleans music.

The neatly boxed bonanza is "Satchmo... A Musical Autobiography of Louis Armstrong." It contains four LP's that take Satchmo back through the years with 48 numbers most closely identified with his career.

All of the standards are in this opus, as well as blues numbers that are too seldom played. The trumpet work by Satchmo is flawless and clear, as is the fidelity of this recording. Satchmo does the narration in his easy style. His sidemen perform with enthusiasm and admiration and Clarinetist Edmond Hall is superb on his breaks.

The package includes a profile of Satchmo by Louis Untermeyer, the distinguished poet who, in recent years, has been editor of Decca Records.

Other worthwhile jazz LP's—"Braff," a concert of 12 numbers by Ruby Braff, one of the more promising of the younger jazz trumpet players (Epic)... "Great Jazz Brass," a reprise of 12 numbers by the world's best known jazz horn players (Armstrong, Beiderbecke, Tommy Ladnier, etc.) on the RCA-Camden label... "Pete Kelly at Home," more good work inspired by Jack Webb (RCA-Victor).

Selected singles—"Slow Train" by Jim Lowe (Dot), "One Meat Ball" by Allen Case (Columbia) and "The Song of Raintree County" by Nat "King" Cole (Capitol).

Record of the week—"Around the World." One of the most tuneful pop numbers in recent years gets a new interpretation from Big Al Sears, an instrumentalist with a future (Jubilee).

Downtown Stores Have Lost Motorist Trade

CHICAGO—(UP)—The motorist trade that downtown stores have lost to the suburban shopping centers cannot be won back, Mabel Walker, executive director of the Tax Institute, wrote in Public Management, magazine of the International City Managers' Association.

Regional centers are growing rapidly, Miss Walker wrote, and competition for the remaining downtown trade has increased. Regional branches of downtown stores are often more profitable than the parent stores, she added.

Miss Walker predicted that urban redevelopment, although having some importance, will not bring suburbanites back into town except from time to time.

City stores can remain prosperous, she said, by serving those who remain in the city, but the appeal must be to the pedestrian, not the motorist.

A new human finger nail will usually grow out in about 160 days.

Astronomer Works Without Telescope

ALBANY, N. Y. — (UP) — The study of astronomy without a telescope may seem as improbable as a baseball game without an umpire.

But such a scientific study is being carried out here by the director of the Dudley Observatory, Dr. Curtis I. Hemenway.

Instead of using the gigantic tools of reflectors and glass, Dr. Hemenway collects tiny bits of matter from the air in an effort to determine which come from outer space.

The particles he studies are about 1-10,000th of an inch long, weighing less than one-trillionth of a pound.

Besides the particles he collects himself, Dr. Hemenway receives contributions, by mail, from points as far away as Hawaii and the Arctic.

The particles are known technically as micrometeorites. They collide with the earth's atmosphere at speeds ranging up to 100,000 miles an hour. Then they slow down and drift to the earth's surface.

The reason for his studies, Dr. Hemenway said, is that "if men are going to travel in outer space, these things might be a nuisance."

(By United Press)

During the decades which preceded the Russian revolution of 1917 and the Bolshevik coup which followed it, terrorism played an important part.

While politicians fought czarism by orthodox means, small, determined bands of men tried to weaken the regime by systematic assassination.

They were men who were ready to die with their victims, or to face execution if they survived.

The Terrorists (Funk and Wagnalls) is the story of four men whose careers epitomize the technique of violence. Robert Payne, the author, is an Englishman who has made a specialty of Russia.

Serge Nechayev, Andrey Zheleznyakov, Yegor Sazonov and Ivan Kaliayev are the subjects. Nechayev rotted to death in a cell of the Peter and Paul Fortress in St. Petersburg, chained hand and foot to a wall. Zheleznyakov and Kaliayev were hanged. Sazonov committed suicide in Siberia in protest against treatment of prisoners.

Nechayev, strangest of the four, never took part in an assassination. He committed one murder—of a fellow-conspirator. But he made an impact on Russian revolutionary history that still is remembered.

Zheleznyakov was a liar, sexual pervers, blackmailer, thief. He never led a terrorist organization, but in his writings he was an apostle of utter terrorism. Lenin, years after his death, said: "He was the most resolute of the mechanics of revolution."

Zheleznyakov was hanged for his part in the plot in which Gzar Alexander II was killed in 1881, while Nechayev was living his last months in prison.

Payne makes clear what sort of men the terrorists were, and what they aimed at. He shows also that the Bolsheviks did not invent Russian terrorism.

If Your Name Is DIANA —

BY ANN REYNOLDS, PH.D.

Diana, the name of an ancient Italian moon goddess, came to be used during the Renaissance when interest was revived in ancient Roman life. Some English families made it a tradition to bestow this name on new baby girls, and when Sir Walter Scott gave the heroine of "Rob Roy" Diana for a name, new parents everywhere began using it.

The ancient moon goddess Diana had her principal shrine at Aricia, near the Lake Nemi in Italy. Incidentally, that lake became famous when two of Emperor Caligula's pleasure barges were raised from its bottom, some 30 years ago.

Festivals for Diana were held at dawn, and women worshippers walked around the lake, flaming torches in their hands. And because the gleam from the torches was reflected in the waters, the lake was known as "Diana's Mirror." The cult of Diana was a tradition since pre-historic times, and this is shown by the way her priests acquired their office. He had to engage the priest in charge in single combat, and kill him. Then he was allowed to hold on to his office until a new challenger took it from him in the same deadly way.

The worship of the Italian Diana was eventually mixed up with that of the Greek goddess Artemis. Diana became known as the goddess of the chase, and many beautiful statues show her as a youthful huntress, fitted out with a short tunic like a tennis-skirt. She carries a bow and arrows, and is being accompanied by her dogs. Unlike most Greek and Roman deities, she never cared for the other sex, and jealously guarded her virtue. When young Akteon surprised her bathing, for his boldness she changed him into a deer, and had him torn to pieces by her dogs.

The most renowned Diana was the French Dianne de Poitiers, in the 16th century. That charming and smart woman seemed to be endowed with eternal youth; in her sixties she still was so lovely as to "move even the heart of a rock." Married at fourteen, she later, at the price of her virtue, saved her father's life as he stood trembling in front of the guillotine. But the career which made her famous began only when she was a widow of thirty-eight, and she caught the eye of the French dauphin, the later King of France, Henry II. Nineteen years her junior, Henry's love and devotion never faltered, and Diana became all powerful, not only in politics and finances, but even in the education of the royal children whose mother was the queen, Catharine de Medicis.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That at a special election to be held in said County of Wayne, State of Michigan, in the regular voting place in each election precinct in each City and Township in the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1957, between the hours of 7:00 o'clock a.m. and 8:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, the following propositions will be submitted to the electors of said County:

I Port of Detroit Bonding Proposition

Shall the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars and issue its general obligation bonds therefor for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

II Tax-Rate Limitation Increase Proposition

Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be levied against all property in the County of Wayne, Michigan, for all purposes except taxes levied for payment of obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased, as provided by Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution, by sixteen one-hundredths (16-100) of one (1) mill (.16c on each $1,000.00) on each dollar of assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in the County of Wayne for a period of sixteen (16) years, from 1958 to 1973, both inclusive, for the sole purpose of providing funds to pay principal and interest on bonds to be issued by the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, in the aggregate principal sum of not to exceed Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars, if authorized by the qualified electors, for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

Only properly registered electors who have property assessed for taxes within the County of Wayne, or the lawful husband or wife of such persons are entitled to vote on the bonding proposition.

All properly registered electors may vote on the tax-rate limitation increase proposition.

These propositions are being submitted in accordance with the following resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors of said County on the 16th day of September, 1957, by the requisite three-fifths (3-5) vote:

Resolution of Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne

WHEREAS, the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, established pursuant to the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, has, pursuant to the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, approved a comprehensive port development plan after the requisite public hearing thereon, and by resolution adopted on September 3, 1957, provided for the borrowing of the sum of not exceeding Thirteen Million Five Hundred Thousand ($13,500,000.00) Dollars for the purpose of acquiring the land and properties and constructing the various port facilities encompassed within said plan, subject, however, to the approval of the Board of Supervisors of Wayne County and a three-fifths (3-5) majority of the qualified electors of the County of Wayne voting thereon at a general election or special election called for such purpose, as required by the provisions of said law;

AND WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of the above law, said resolution has been duly certified to this Board for its approval thereof and for the necessary procedures to submit the bonding proposition to vote of the qualified electors of the county of Wayne, being the municipal corporation comprising the Port District;

AND WHEREAS, extensive meetings and discussions relative to said comprehensive port development plan have been held with the Port Commission and the Port Committee and Ways and Means Committee of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne, as a result of which it is the determination of the Board of Supervisors that said plan should be approved, but that only that portion of the lands and properties embraced in said plan within the following description should presently be acquired, constructed and financed by the issuance of bonds, to wit:

LAND ACQUISITION

All that area in the City of Detroit bounded on the westerly side by the easterly line of Private Claim 563, which line is 150 feet, more or less, west of the westerly line of Scotten Avenue extended southerly to the U.S. Harbor Line; bounded on the north by the southerly line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway-Wabash Railroad right-of-way; on the east by the westerly line of the Evening News Association property and the north-westerly line of present West Jefferson Avenue and the westerly line of West Grand Boulevard at its intersection with said railroad right-of-way; and bounded on the south by the U. S. Harbor Line.

PORT FACILITIES

1. Office space or building, approximating 15,000 sq. ft., of office and service space;
2. Two (2) transit sheds of appropriate design and construction, each 160' x 360', more or less;
3. Grading and paving of approximately 202,900 sq. ft. of operating area for cargo and vehicle handling and-or storage;
4. Suitable and adequate trackage for rail car handling, including double trackage at wharf side and platform side of transit sheds;
5. Appropriate quay type wharf and a wharf facing of approximately 1,105' having a depth of water of 27-1/2' and wharf apron area of approximately 66,300 sq. ft.;
6. And such other work of light construction and technical nature as may be required;

the balance of the land, properties, and port facilities specified in said plan to be left for future determination as to acquisition, construction and financing thereof;

AND WHEREAS, the estimate of cost of the acquisition of the lands and properties within the above designated area, and the acquisition of the port facilities specified for said area has been estimated by Harley, Ellington and Day, Inc., architects and engineers, of Detroit, Michigan, to be Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars;

AND WHEREAS, the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit has concurred in the program herein set forth, which is a revision of its original immediate acquisition program as outlined in its resolution adopted September 3, 1957, and duly certified to the Board of Supervisors;

AND WHEREAS, the Port Commission has submitted to the Common Council of the City of Detroit, and legislative body thereof, said comprehensive port development plan, all of the area and territory embodied in said plan being located within the corporate limits of the City of Detroit, and said Common Council, by resolution, has approved said plan, all in accordance with the provisions of Section 30 of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended;

AND WHEREAS, because of uncertainties under the law as to whether the Port District is an agency of the county and thus is limited in its taxing ability for the payment of bonds by the limitations expressed in Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution, or is an independent municipal corporation having a charter tax rate limitation, and thus is not subject to the limitations of said constitutional amendment under the decisions of the Michigan Supreme Court, this Board feels that it is necessary in order to provide for all eventualities to submit to the qualified electors, on a separate ballot, or as a separate proposition on voting machines, a proposition providing for an increase in the constitutional tax rate limitation as authorized by said Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution in an amount sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds over a maximum fifteen (15) year period;

AND WHEREAS, this Board determines that the procedures for said special election should be as provided in the so-called "County Public Improvement Act," being Act 118, Public Acts of 1923, as amended, there being no procedure specified in detail in Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, which procedures will also comply with the provisions of the general election law of the State and will provide complete notice and opportunity for the qualified electors of the County to register and vote on the propositions to be submitted;

AND WHEREAS, it is the intent and purpose of this Board and the Port of Detroit Commission, if the bonding proposition is approved by the requisite majority of qualified electors of the County of Wayne, to devote the net revenues from the operation of the port facilities to the retirement of the bonded indebtedness, thus reducing the amount of taxes necessary to be levied for the payment of said indebtedness to that extent:

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF WAYNE THAT:

1. The comprehensive port development plan as proposed by the Port of Detroit Commission and approved by it by resolution is hereby approved.

2. The issuance of general obligation bonds in the amount of Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars for the acquisition of the lands, properties and facilities outlined in the preamble to this resolution, as a part of said comprehensive port plan, be approved.

3. There be submitted to the qualified electors of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, at a special election hereinafter called to be held in said County, being the municipality whose boundaries are co-terminus with the Port of Detroit, a port district existing under the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, on Tuesday, November 5, 1957, that being the date of the general city election in the City of Detroit in said County, the following separate propositions:

Port of Detroit Bonding Proposition

Shall the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars and issue its general obligation bonds therefor for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

4. Said propositions shall be stated as separate propositions on the voting machines or on separate ballots to be prepared and distributed by the County in the manner provided by law, which statement on the voting machines and ballot shall state the propositions in the form set forth in the preceding paragraph.

5. All public officials of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, and all municipal units thereof, within such time as shall be required by law, be and they hereby are directed to do and perform all acts and things which shall be necessary to be done or performed in order to submit the foregoing propositions to the electors of said County at such special election to be held on Tuesday, November 5, 1957.

A three-fifths (3-5) majority of the members-elect of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne, Michigan, having voted in favor of the adoption of the foregoing resolution, the Chairman thereupon declared that said resolution was duly adopted.

STATE SUPREME Court Justice Talbot Smith, with microphone, delivered an address to Junior High youngsters last Thursday over the school's new public address system. At the controls is Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo of Plymouth. Both men are hi-fi and sound system enthusiasts.

State Supreme Court Justice Helps Check Over Junior Hi Sound System

State Supreme Court Justice Talbot Smith took part in a special ceremony last Thursday at the Community Junior High where the complex public address system is being given its check-outs.

Special interest in the system has been taken by Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo, a hi-fi enthusiast. He helped the school board write the specifications. So when the system was ready for some final testing by the installing firm last week, Judge Perlongo invited over his friend, Justice Smith of Ann Arbor. Justice Smith also is a hi-fi and sound system addict.

Sound can be turned on in any or all of the school's many rooms. Background music is also piped into any room when needed, such as during the lunch hour in the cafeteria. Justice Smith's brief talk was heard by students as they sat in their classrooms.

Learning, he declared, is possible by sight and sound. In dictator countries, it would be against the law to listen to public address talks when the speaker's words are first not checked. "So freedom to listen is one of the many freedoms this country has to offer."

After school was dismissed, the two judges visited the rooms to check the quality of the sound and they pronounced it in fine working order.

The school building, opened this fall, has not yet been turned over to the school board by the contractors, so no dedication plans have been made.

Committee Finds Physician Call System Impossible

There appears to be no practical solution of an emergency call system for physicians, it was found at a recent meeting of the newly-formed Committee on Community Health.

The committee of medical, city and school officials was formed last summer to occasionally study health problems of the community. The committee recommended at its last meeting that it be enlarged to include representatives of the township of Plymouth, the County Health department and the dentists association. It also recommended that the council should meet at least twice a year.

One of the controversial problems tackled by the committee was the need of having a physician available for emergencies. The committee declared that "no practical solution of an emergency call system was able to be evolved unless a local hospital is established nearby where most local physicians would be on the staff."

As an example, it was pointed out that one physician now may have an obstetric case at Beyer Hospital in Ypsilanti, another may be on the staff at Grace Hospital with the same problem. "There is no way for one physician to act as substitute for another on hospital staffs, because the doctors are scattered among the various hospitals in other communities."

Were the doctors able to practice in one local hospital, the report added, one doctor could take emergency calls for a given period of time and be on call for the general public.

It was recommended that the police department offer the service of an ambulance in any accident case. If the problem arises of refusal by persons to go to hospitals, and they insist that a doctor be called to the scene of an accident, the police officer should have a witness to the fact that such ambulance was offered and refused, and then to make every effort to obtain a physician to be called to the scene of the accident. "The police department should have no hesitancy in calling any one of the physicians for any real emergency, even though the physician specializes."

October Wedding Anniversaries Celebrated - 30th, Three 5ths

See whiz—it's been three weeks since I've chatted with you about Circle affairs and now there's so much to report that it will be impossible to get it all in so I'll do the best I can with the highlights and the latest news.

First of all its most important that hubby and I thank you wonderful neighbors for all you've done for us before, during, and since my eight days stay at St. Joseph's Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor. The meals and goodies sent in were delicious, the ironing was done beautifully, and of course your many cards, hospital and home visits were greatly appreciated. I'll have to admit I'm very spoiled after so much attention. This is a terrific neighborhood and we're very proud to be a part of it.

It's a second daughter for Betty and Jim Parks on Parkview Drive. Maureen Elise was born at Mt. Carmel hospital in Detroit on October 5 at 3:05 p.m. weighing 8 pounds, 6 ounces and measuring 19 1/2 inches. Mother and baby are home and doing fine. The Parks have three other children, Jimmy, Sheila and Tommy.

Saturday evening Helen and Walt Lake of Garling Drive joined their Northwestern Baptist church Sunday school class at a dinner dance at the Mayflower Hotel. On Thursday evening their son Jimmy was a dinner guest at the Mayflower and was the proud winner of a BB gun. Jimmy was chosen to represent his 5th grade at Starkweather school during Fire Prevention Week.

The Uptons on Garling Drive have had their share of trouble during the last two weeks. Dee has joined a unique group who suffer with "tennis elbows" and has been very miserable with the pain. Then too, husband Les and sons Ron and Al have all been down with the flu.

Barbara and Harvey Cooper of Parkview Drive left their young Timmy with Barb's mother while they took a week's trip in the east where they visited with friends in Philadelphia and spent a couple days at Rye, N.Y. with former Circleites Carol and Bill Couch. They also spent some time at Cape Cod and Boston before returning home.

By all reports the carnival at Starkweather school last Saturday night was a huge success. Dot and Bud Wilson, Joyce and Al Trux, Dee and Les Upton, Helen and Walt Lake, Doris and Ted Kuhns and Jack Ruland all were active workers. Sorry we had to goof off.

Via the grapevine in some cases and direct in others I've heard of the following flu victims, Chip, Cheri and Joyce Trux, Helen Lake, Jean Scott, Rose Kennedy, Lila Vincent, Barb Cooper, all of the Rulands, the Camerons, and Robbie Bowers. Jeanne Eck is down with pneumonia and her children have all taken their turn at colds and flu.

The Jim Camerons and the Jim Parks will both celebrate their fifth wedding anniversaries on October 11 and the Harvey Coopers their fifth on October 18th.

Surely Doris and Ted Kuhns and Doris and Jim Sponseller should be given a vote of thanks for their efforts as co-chairmen of the Association card party held recently. I was in the hospital at the time but understand that reservations were cancelled right and left at the last moment due to flu and various other reasons. Its too bad really because a great deal of effort was put forth in food preparation and arrangements. Prizes were awarded for the three top scores of the evening and won by Helen and Walt Lake and Al Trux.

It couldn't happen to nicer people than Esther and Earl Atkinson on Parkview Drive. Last Saturday they celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary. A friend turned it into a memorable occasion. Saturday morning said friend, in his private plane, flew out to Janesville, Wis., where he picked up the Atkinson's daughter and son-in-law and brought them here to be with their parents. Saturday evening he entertained the family at Yaman's in Detroit and on Sunday returned the young couple to their home in Wisconsin. Like I said—it couldn't happen to nicer people.

Lee and Jack Ruland were among those attending a dinner-dance at Huck's Redford Inn last Saturday evening. The party was made up of the office staff of the Edsel division of the Ford Motor Co., where Jack is employed as "traffic analyst". The previous weekend the Rulands spent in Battle Creek with relatives Mr. and Mrs. Guy Kellogg.

Happy Birthday this month to Doris Kuhns, Stevie Vincent and Ellen Sponseller.

Marty Kennedy, Jr., is taking his junior year at Olivet College near Marshall where he's on the track and basketball teams and next week will start as a disc jockey on the local radio station.

Dort and Don McGill of Garling Drive spent the weekend in Jackson, where they attended Dort's class reunion. Her brother and his wife spent the weekend here taking over on the baby-sitting job while the McGills were away.

Dear Jean: I am still in school and would like to start a club. Am I fitted for this job or should I let someone else start it? D.A.

Dear D.A.: You have the foresightedness to start a club and do a good job of it IF you can remember that you are sensitive to criticism and not take others comments and ideas the wrong way. ## YOUR HANDWRITING TELLS YOUR STORY

With Grapho Analysis
BY JEAN EVANS

Dear Jean: I'm interested in my family. I've snatched these bits of their writing and hope you find it convenient to tell us some interesting of us as a family group.

my handwriting just what my personality is. I've been trying to find out for some time, maybe you can help me.

C.S.L.

Dear DEE DEE:

You are a person who uses a lot of energy. You are very expressive in your emotions. You react to situations and you let others know by word and action just how you feel. You are outspoken and sarcastic. You resent it when the other members of your family fight back. You have a lot of resentment in your writing. Also your faith in yourself is low.

It is very difficult being the mother of three teenagers. You do wonder just how good a job you are doing but brace up, every mother goes through the same period and 99 times out of 100 comes out on top.

Your husband is one who has very deep emotions but very rarely expresses them. You like to know where you stand but he isn't the one who is going to tell you. Your middle child is more like your husband in his emotional expression. He keeps things to himself and keeps you guessing.

Your older son is more like you in expressing himself. He says what he thinks and lets the chips fall where they may. He and the girl like to be trying to tell the middle boy what to do and when to do it. This could make for much bickering in the home.

You have rhythm in your writing and are generous. You want to be doing for others but, don't give of yourself to the extent of losing your individuality. Become interested in something that will help you overcome your feeling of inadequacy.

Dear Jean: Here is a sample of my handwriting. What can you tell me about myself I am thinking of taking a typing course at night school this fall. Do you think it would be worthwhile to me? I didn't complete high school and have always regretted my lack of a good education.

STARDUST

Education need never stop when one leaves school. The mind is like a sponge, absorbing whatever you put into it. Some people stop learning before they quit school while others are still learning till the day they die. The human mind is one of the miracles of God, the workings of which never cease being a mystery.

You have the desire to improve yourself and the mental capacity to accomplish it. Go to it and Good Luck.

Dear Jean: I am still in school and would like to start a club. Am I fitted for this job or should I let someone else start it? D.A.

Dear D.A.: You have the foresightedness to start a club and do a good job of it IF you can remember that you are sensitive to criticism and not take others comments and ideas the wrong way. When they are only trying to help don't become offended and get your feelings hurt. They are not intending to hurt you but you are supersensitive.

Clubs, Groups Elect Officers

The Forensic Club will hold a record hop November 1. The members of the club also discussed the possibility of attending some plays.

The Commercial club has elected Laura Bell as president. Other officers are: Karen Thibault, vice president; Margaret Williams, secretary; and Barbara Williams, treasurer. The club made a $50 profit on a dance September 27 and now is discussing this year's activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Vaningen of Grandview avenue announce the birth of a daughter, Lisa Marie on September 28 at Mt. Carmel hospital in Detroit. The new arrival weighed 8 pounds, 4 ounces.

Brownie troop 5 met at the Amerman school last week for their first meeting of the year. They discussed plans for the year with their leaders. They also elected unit leaders Penny Paterson and Joy Kadey; treasurer, Kay Gotts; and secretary, Elaine Chizmar. Scribe for the group is Kathy George.

Members of Girl Scout troop 10 met at the home of Carol Kregel for their first meeting of the year. They elected the following officers: Carol Tabar, president; Mary Ebert, vice president and Sandy Niles, secretary-treasurer. The troop decided to meet the second and fourth Tuesday of the month.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Howard of Eight Mile road left Tuesday for Omaha, Neb., where Dr. Howard will fulfill a speaking engagement before the Mississippi Valley Trade Society.

Charles Ely of Randolph street leaves Saturday for Texas where he will spend 11 weeks training with the air National Guard.

Gail Lawrence is enrolled this fall as a sophomore at Eastern Michigan College in Ypsilanti.

Grange Cleanings

Tonight is our regular meeting night. No supper this time. Several new candidates are to be voted on and other business matters to be attended to. We are to have Mr. and Mrs. Ide and their family to sing for us. We hope to see a fine crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tritten were called up to Brethren Thursday by the serious illness of his father who is now in Butterworth hospital in Grand Rapids where he will undergo major surgery this week.

Chloe Powell is now in the rest home here in Plymouth on North Main street. She is comfortable, but no visitors are allowed except for relatives.

We are all deeply concerned over the sudden serious illness of our very efficient caretaker, Mr. Squires. She is in New Grace hospital, so send him a card of good cheer.

The rummage sale which was supposed to be this week has been postponed to a later date, which will be announced.

The next important date on our calendar is October 26 when the first party of the season will be held at the hall. Dinner beginning at 5:30 until everyone is served. Roast turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, cabbage salad, cranberry sauce and relish, rolls, apple and pumpkin pie and coffee are on the menu. The price will be the same as it was last year.

Parties are for Grange members and their friends so each one is urged to invite a guest or a couple. There will be dancing upstairs and cards downstairs after the dinner. Come and bring your friends and help make a good time. The committee asks that you make your reservations by October 23 by calling Mary Fillmore, 788-R.

Mrs. Cole was taken to St. Joseph's hospital Sunday for x-rays. She had a fall at her home that morning.

Favorite Recipes From Plymouth's Kitchens

Gingerbread Is Old-Time Family Treat

An old-fashioned molasses gingerbread recipe that has three generations of praise to its credit is presently going strong with the younger generation.

Mrs. William Sprengel, 1770 Beck road, finds that her grandmother's gingerbread still has plenty of appeal with her husband and three boys, Mark, 9, Kim, 6, and Keith, 2.

Here is the old recipe, which originally called for Brer Rabbit dark molasses.

Gingerbread

- 2 eggs
- 3/4 cup dark brown sugar
- 3/4 cup dark molasses
- 3/4 cup melted shortening or liquid shortening
- 2 1/2 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 2 teaspoons ginger
- 1 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/2 teaspoon cloves
- 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1 cup boiling water

Add beaten eggs to sugar, molasses and shortening. Sift dry ingredients together 2 or 3 times and add to egg mixture. Beat until stiff. Add water. Put in shallow pan and bake in 350 degree oven for 30 to 40 minutes.

Toppings are a matter of individual taste, but whipped cream seems to be the traditional finishing touch. Mrs. Sprengel likes to top her gingerbread with a butter frosting, although her grandmother's favorite was a coffee frosting.

Butter Frosting

- 2 cups confectioner's sugar
- 4 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1 egg
- 1 teaspoon vanilla

Cream the butter and sugar. Add egg. Beat until of spreading consistency. Add vanilla. Spread on cooled gingerbread and that's it.

Volunteers Appeal For Plants, Bulbs

Volunteers at Northville State Hospital are anxious to finish helping the patients do their fall planting around the various buildings at the hospital. They have advised that they could use all types of spring-flowering bulbs, if people in the community have any to donate.

They can be left right at the hospital or with some of the volunteers in the area.

The following Gray Ladies in this area may be contacted if anyone wishes to donate bulbs to this worthwhile project: Mrs. Mary Wick, 292 North Holbrook, Mrs. Alexander Yeoman and Sarah Yeoman, 14269 Minehart Dr., Route No. 3.

SPOKE OUT OF TURN

CARMI, Ill. (UP) — A man walked up to White County Sheriff Kenneth Cole and said: "I'll bet you don't know who I am." Deputy Norwood Proctor walked up and replied, "You're Ernest Stoner and you're under arrest." Stoner, formerly of Carmi, listed his address at Fort Myers, Fla. Authorities said he was wanted on a check forgery charge in Mt. Vernon, Ind.

Woman's Eye View

by Nancy Rigney

Imagine being given a pair of nylons if your husband neglects to toast you at dinner, or attending a class to learn how to wash dishes or having your politics questioned by the newspapers because you wear bermuda shorts.

The latter incident occurred recently in Russia, home of 'Sputnik'. The young Communist newspaper, Komsomolskaya Pravda, criticized youngsters who blindly aped foreign style and point out as a particularly horrid example, a young sales clerk who wore "trousers that came down only as far as her knees."

A recent youth festival in Moscow brought bermudas and slacks to the attention of Russian women, since many girls in the foreign delegations wore them. Slacks, while not as daring as their shorter relative, are viewed with mixed emotion. An American observer said that the men smile with an air of good-natured tolerance and the women just stare, maybe in envy as well as disgust.

As for learning to wash dishes, it seems that this familiar skill is not a universal one. An American housewife has a full-time job teaching young Grecian women who intend to emigrate from Greece, such tasks as dishwashing, how to use soap, hot and cold running water, how to make beds, to percolate coffee and make toast.

Many of the girls trained have never seen a refrigerator or have never had running water in their homes. Water is scarce in Greece and the use of soap and water in rural areas is limited.

Since opportunities for women in Greece are sparse, especially when they are not encouraged to go to school, many leave for greener pastures—mainly Australia. They are prepared to work as domestics or seamstresses.

The mention of nylons in payment for social error is one of the old Swedish customs, explained in a guidebook written by an American woman who heads the Sweden-American Foundation. She says that it is dinner-time protocol that the men must forfeit a pair of stockings if they do not toast their wives.

Another interesting custom she relates for tourists is when entering a row of seats you always face the people sitting; never turn your back to them. That's as taxing on a tourist as driving on the left side of the road in England.

In this modern age of electronics, one has to be alert to keep up with the latest developments. A startling milestone in progress—stereophonic sound takes on a new dimension in a wing chair designed with a loudspeaker for each ear.

Shirley Pine's Troth Announced by Parents

Shirley Pine

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pine of 12950 Dunn Court announce the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Elizabeth to Lt. William Meyerholt of Bay City.

Shirley is a graduate of Michigan State University and is a member of Sigma Kappa sorority. Lt. Meyerholt is a graduate of the United States Military Academy at West Point and is presently stationed at Mission Field in Texas. A December wedding is being planned.

Airplane spraying of New Brunswick forests at different times has shown as high as 99 per cent mortality among budworm larvae.

Resident's Parents Celebrate Sixtieth Anniversary Here

Sixty years of wedded life will be celebrated Sunday, October 20, by Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Hickerson at the home of their son, Harlan Hickerson, 9583 Gold Arbor.

Mr. Hickerson, a retired Methodist minister now lives with his wife near Elizabethtown, Ky. where he works a five acre farm. Their only child, is Hickerson of Plymouth.

Working for the Louisville and Nashville Railroad for about four years before entering the ministry, Mr. Hickerson served churches in six Kentucky cities during his 51 years of active ministry. He officially retired at 72, but still preaches occasionally.

Mr. Hickerson is almost 82 and his wife is 81. His good health is attributed in part by his doctor to his health regime. Most of his life he got up every day at 4:30 a.m. drank a quart of water and walked five miles, rain or shine. He always returned from his morning constitutional with a ravenous appetite, and thus started his habit of getting breakfast for his wife.

OLDEST DRIVER?

HACKETTSTOWN, N. J. (UP) — J. Clark Staples, New Jersey's oldest licensed driver, also may be the nation's oldest. He is 96. Staples, once a conductor on horse cars, has driven 375,000 miles since 1920 without an accident. He says of the modern driver: "I get out of the way and give him the whole road."

During the Civil War, Charleston, D.C., underwent shelling for four years.

TRUESDELL ELEMENTARY school dedicated its first flagpole last Thursday morning with a brief ceremony conducted by Principal Jerry Elston. The school, located on Haggerty road in Canton township, never has had a flagpole, so students began a fund drive several years ago by selling hotdogs at noon. The more than 40 students are pictured around the pole as the flag is being raised. Cherry Hill and Canton Center schools also have new flagpoles to replace old ones.

Goodwill Pickup Monday

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks to Plymouth is scheduled for Monday, October 21. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards.

To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pick-up, call the local Goodwill representative, Mrs. Lora Ault (temporarily), Livonia, at GR. 4-4294.

Since the stores have been closing at 6:30, Main street appears to be a dismal place after that hour. The Wallace Barnes Company was founded in Bristol, Conn. late in 1857 by the 30-year-old son of a Bristol storekeeper, who had himself kept store in Winsted, Conn. before entering the clock business in Bristol in 1853. There he learned many of the closely-guarded secrets of clock making, including the procedure for tempering springs. When young Barnes started his own company, one of his principal customers was the clock industry.

B-G-R Parent Company Observes 100th Year

The Associated Spring Company, parent organization of the Barnes-Gibson-Raymond Division of Plymouth, is this week celebrating its 100th anniversary.

Over 400 representatives of manufacturing companies all over the United States, along with National, state and city officials, were guests at a banquet Monday at the Hotel Statler in Hartford, Connecticut.

Carlyle F. Barnes, great grandson of the original Wallace Barnes, and president of the corporation since 1954, delivered the principal address.

The Wallace Barnes Company was founded in Bristol, Conn. late in 1857 by the 30-year-old son of a Bristol storekeeper, who had himself kept store in Winsted, Conn. before entering the clock business in Bristol in 1853. There he learned many of the closely-guarded secrets of clock making, including the procedure for tempering springs. When young Barnes started his own company, one of his principal customers was the clock industry.

The tremendous craze for crinoline skirts in the next few years created a tremendous demand for spring steel hoops, in the making of which some of the same metallurgical skills could be applied, and the infant company was off to a good start.

By the time Dame Fashion had found other fancies, the country was in the midst of the Civil War, and the spring manufacturer was called upon to make springs for muskets and powder horns. When this war-boom waned, the company turned to meeting the peacetime needs of a rapidly expanding economy. As invention followed invention in the years since then, Wallace Barnes has made the springs essential to their operation. First the bicycle, then the automobile, and later the airplane.

The player-piano, the wind-up phonograph, the radio, and eventually television. The typewriter, the adding machine, and now the electronic computer. The fast-twirling spinning frames and clacking looms of the early textile industry, and today the punched-card controlled profile milling machine of the aircraft and missile manufacturer. All these require springs for their vital functioning—and Wallace Barnes has made them for all of these purposes, and many others.

In 1914 the company established its own rolling mill in Forestville, Connecticut, to insure a dependable supply of high-quality spring steel for its own needs, and now also supplies cold-rolled strip steel to other customers.

One generation of Barnes' after another has succeeded the original Wallace, and today, the 33-year-old Carlyle heads the wide-flung Associated Spring Corporation which his father, the late Fuller F. Barnes, and his uncle Harry C. Barnes, formerly first vice-president, put together in 1923 by the merger of the Wallace Barnes Company with two other long-established spring-makers, Raymond Manufacturing Company, in Corry, Pennsylvania, and the William D. Gibson Company of Chicago.

Other divisions of the Corporation now include the Barnes-Gibson-Raymond Division, established in 1922, with plants in Plymouth and Ann Arbor, Michigan; the Seaboard Pacific Division, in Gardena, California (a Los Angeles suburb), founded in 1936 as the Seaboard Coil Spring Company and acquired by the Corporation in 1952; the Ohio Division, established in Dayton, Ohio, in 1947; and the Milwaukee Division, established in 1950. Another great-grandson, Wallace Barnes, son of Harry C. Barnes is Secretary of the coast-to-coast spring corporation.

This, then, is the thriving modern business which has grown from the small spring-making plant established in Bristol by the 30-year old Wallace Barnes 100 years ago almost to the day.

There are about 500,000 public eating establishments in the United States.

Respiratory Illness Prevalent In County, Health Dept. Says

According to recent reports from the Wayne County Health Department, there is an epidemic of respiratory illnesses in this area due to the influenza virus of the Asian type.

So far, more children than adults have reportedly been affected with such symptoms as a temperature ranging from 100° to 102°, headache, general aching and weakness, a cough and sore throat lasting from two to five days. The period of convalescence usually lasts for several days.

Throat and blood cultures have been taken of a number of children suspected of having the Asian type influenza. Four of these cultures were positive for the Asian type virus. However, it must be understood that it is not possible or desirable to culture every case in an area.

A few sample cases will serve to identify the particular strain of virus present in the area. According to the results of tests made, it is also probable that we have at least one non-Asian type of virus in Wayne County.

In order to avoid spread of the disease to patients and other persons, it is wise to restrict hospital visiting. Likewise, non-essential public gatherings, meetings, etc., should be avoided.

*Vaccination with the Asian type "flu" vaccine is recommended for those who have not had it. Pharmaceutical companies are doing their best to provide an adequate supply of the vaccine for your doctors.

The Wayne County Health Department has no vaccine and does not expect to distribute it. They therefore suggest that you see your private physician about it immediately.

The brush turkey or mould builder of Australia has a complete coat of feathers when hatched and is able to fly almost immediately.

Frequently-Asked Social Security Questions Listed

For the benefit of our readers, Harry Baltuck, manager of the Detroit-Northwest Social Security District Office answers some of the frequently asked questions about disability payments and the disability freeze application.

1. Question My wage record was frozen as of December 1954. I will be age 50 in February of 1958. Do I have to wait for six months after that to get my disability benefit?

Answer No; your waiting period will already have been completed. You should file application for disability benefits in February, the month you reach age 50.

2. Question I worked for 10 years steadily under social security, then went to work for a non-profit organization. This place was not under social security. I worked there for five years and became permanently disabled last month. Does the ten years of social security work make me permanently insured for disability benefits at age 50?

Answer No; even though you may have worked 5 out of the 10 years before your disability began, you do not meet the requirement of having worked on social security jobs for at least 1 1/2 years in the 3-year period prior to your disability. You can be permanently insured only for retirement and survivors insurance, not for disability insurance.

3. Question Can I freeze my wage record on a disability that began in March of 1952 and ended early in 1955 when I went back to work? I have been working steadily since.

Answer No. You cannot establish a period of disability after it has ended.

4. Question I am a working mother and I have a disabled child 22 years old. My husband died two years ago. My child never could work and can't now. I had to go to work to support and care for her after his death. Can I now get benefits for my disabled child?

Answer If your child is unmarried, was disabled before reaching age 18, and was supported by your husband prior to his death, she may be eligible for disabled child benefits. In any event, you should get in touch with your social security office promptly and find out.

5. Question I had a period of disability established from January of 1953 to a month ago, when I went back to work. Do I lose the freeze period when it comes to getting retirement benefits at age 65?

Answer No, even though your "freeze" ends when you return to gainful employment, the period you were disabled would not be used in computing your retirement benefit. This will protect your right to a retirement benefit and will keep it at a level consistent with your earnings when you were not disabled.

6. Question I am 55 years of age, disabled, and have a wife and two children 13 and 15 years of age. Do I understand correctly that they can't get any monthly benefits?

Answer You are correct. Only the disabled worker himself can get monthly disability benefits.

Corydon was the first state capital of Indiana.

Art Club to Plan Exhibit at Meeting

Four new members were received into the Three Cities Art Club at their meeting on Tuesday, October 8 at Margaret Cramer's Studio in Wayne. The new members are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Vershaeve and their daughter Artura of Northville and Mrs. S. W. Edmunds of Plymouth. They were among the artists exhibiting in the Thanksgiving week-end art show at the Plymouth Symphony Concert past Sunday.
 The next meeting of the club will be on November 12 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. Orville Brown, 23600 Six Mile road, Livonia. Members are to bring to the meeting the pictures they wish to exhibit in the sale of paintings planned for Thanksgiving week-end at the Hillside Inn and the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth. A percentage of the proceeds of this sale is to benefit the Art Scholarship Fund. Mrs. Barbara McKenzie of Northville is in charge.
 The club will also exhibit with each of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra concerts, "Song of the Earth" will be the theme of the concert and of the art show on November 17. Pictures appropriate to the religious theme of the Christmas concert will be shown in December, and art of particular appeal to children will be featured at the January family concert. Mrs. Marion E. Sobert is president of the group; Mrs. Marjorie Becker, vice-president; Mrs. Olive Zick, secretary; Mrs. Betty Spaeth, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Myrtle Fishbeck, treasurer; Mrs. Hilma Aubert, program chairman; and Mrs. Kathryn Hartley, membership chairman.

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA COMPANY

This week I will continue my article of last week about the recent Michigan Municipal League Convention at Mackinac Island.

At the annual business meeting, the Michigan Municipal League adopted the various policies to be followed for the future. Those include a recommendation of a continuation of the studies of street and highway needs of Michigan. Another policy adopted was for an independent, non-partisan, objective and comprehensive study of governmental structure as it is related to possibility for, and financing of, the functions of government at all levels in the state.

The League is willing to participate in such a study in order that a realistic program for division of tax sources can be initiated which will include substantial guarantee of adequate income base for cities and villages in state collected, locally shared taxes. The League also adopted a property tax administration policy which would encourage the organization at the county level of technical advisory departments to gather assessment data, assist local assessors in their duties and provide technical aid in the performance of their function.

Wayne County already has such technical advice, but out state areas do not. (This is a step in the direction in providing for county-wide assessing.) Another statement of policy adopted was that Home Rule of cities occasionally is under attack by the State Legislature's attempts to satisfy special interest groups which wish to secure legislation which would provide for state control over the powers of municipalities in matters of purely local concern, such as fire and police working hours and wages.

Representation on boards of supervisors was also a policy matter adopted in order to obtain fair representation for cities on county legislative bodies. The policy adopted by the League in connection with fringe area problems was that the logical solution to fringe area problems would be in an equitable and workable annexation procedure which would give primary concern to community needs rather than individual desires, and suggests that the question of annexation of unincorporated areas to cities and villages be placed in the hands of an impartial body.

There were several resolutions adopted concerning "payments in lieu of taxes" which is a problem of municipalities in which the Federal government owns real and personal property, such as factories, for which it pays no taxes. The resolution suggests that a broad system of payments in lieu of property taxes to state and local governments be made by the Federal government and that a joint legislative committee of the state legislature study the immunity of the state, its agencies and institutions from local property taxation with a view to determine the desirability and feasibility of such broad payments in lieu of taxes.

The State, too, should give assistance to local units of government hard pressed financially due to rapidly expanding populations, in the form of planning loans and the possible provisions for underwriting local sewer and water bond issues.

The Convention also adopted a resolution concerning Constitutional revision, which question will be submitted to the electors at the General Election in 1958. A revised constitution will not be presented, but only the question of revising it.

The resolution also requested that the Board of Trustees of the League initiate a study of constitutional revision and its effect on city and village government and to have such study available at the Annual Convention of the League in 1958, with such recommendations as to the position which cities and villages should take on the question as may seem desirable.

About 93,000 people saw the 1956 Rose Bowl game.

Casting Call: A bunch of the boys were whooping it up at the Kelly house the other evening as they read their lines during the Theater Guild Workshop tryouts for the October 21 monthly meeting production. "The Hitch-hiker" is the play and with more than 21 people out for the readings you can well see that an excellent cast will be chosen.

Some of the people seen at the casting were Alice Wright, Ford Sutherland, Betty Houghton, Doug Havershaw, Jeannine Dahlager, Stan Dahlager, Maude Laury, Warren Worth, Lloyd England, Betty England, Betty Gondek, Barbara Cornelius, Libby Curtner, Carol Worth, Sallie Holstein, Dot Smith, Tom Kelly and Phyllis Kelly.

If the Workshop plays continue to draw such crowds as they try out, looks like Workshop officials will have to locate a big room at the high school for their tryouts. Of course, the gracious atmosphere of a home is always conducive to fine fellowship and an exchange of ideas that a barren institutionalized never seems to stimulate. Why it that?

While we seem to be in the Workshop mood, it might be well to mention that the cast of "The Valiant" has been asked to come over to Farmington on October 19. The Farmington Players have heard about the excellent quality of our Plymouth Theater Guild Workshop's first production and now they want their members to see the show.

Jim Blackman, Theater Guild Workshop president, says, "We are more than happy to take our plays out to other little theater groups or civic organizations."

During the lull between acts, let me go back to my tip of last week about "The Pagama Game." Old George actually convinced himself to see the show. As you recall, I went on at great lengths about John Raitt, the male lead. I knew he would be good, but little did I realize that Doris Day would ever rise to such musical heights. She was superb. I take back all I ever thought about her singing ability. She did a terrific job in this picture.

Actually, another point in favor for this picture was the way the audience applauded some of the production numbers at their conclusion. When a movie audience begins to act like a group at a play, you know you have broken through the celluloid barrier.

Want Ad Department: Wanted, eight or nine young or old men to model for Make-up class on Thursday night. Please shave. Beards will be provided. Call Ann Blackman or Phyllis Kelly for more details.

Broadway Beat: You still have time to purchase tickets for "The Diary of Anne Frank." It will be in Detroit for one more week. Robert Southgate, local high school drama coach, saw the show last week and reported that it rates as a top production. I'm going to try and get down to the show by next week.

"The Happiest Millionaire" will be arriving in town in a week or so. This is the play about a Philadelphia millionaire named Dexter Biddle. Walter Pigeon of movie fame is playing the lead part. According to "Variety," the showman's trade magazine, the play never did "red-hot" business on Broadway. It is still $35,000 in the red. Who knows, Detroit might like it.

Just off Broadway in the South Redford area the Livonia-Redford Players are busy at work on their fall production, "The Remarkable Mr. Pennypacker." At present, the exact dates for the production escape me. Believe they are in November so I'll check on it and let you know next week. The play is well worth seeing. More about it at a later date.

Hal Young, director of "The Desk Set" the Theater Guild's first production of the year, was quite pleased with the large turnout at last Thursday and Friday's tryouts. He will announce his cast in next week's column.

Here's a last minute flash just as we are getting ready to dim the house lights for the week. Doug Havershaw, director of "The Hitchhiker," rushed in with the names of his cast members. They are as follows:

- THE HITCH-HIKER
- Narrator . . . . . Doug Havershaw
- Hitch-Hiker . . . . . Warren Worth
- Ronald's Mother . . . . . Maude Laury
- Mrs. Whitney . . . . . Bonnie Kellog

Boy Scout News

Troop Six, Boy Scouts of America, announces the promotion of Donald Jordan, and Gary Weiermiller to the rank of Star Scout, David Sutherland and Fred Fry to the rank of First Class Scout, and Kenneth Ward, Mark Schultheiss, Dennis Blackford, Scott Dodge, and John Bowman to the rank of Second Class Scout.

On Sept. 30th a formal investigation of ten graduates of the graduates of the Webelos Den of Pack Six was held. The new tenderfoot scouts are Craig Horvath, Thomas Edison, Gerald Couts, David Sackett, William Stace, Terry Holt, Thomas Stribley, Nels Carlson, Douglas Sutherland, and Randy Munshaw. These new members form the Bear Patrol, under the leadership of Fred Fry, and the Fox Patrol under the leadership of Gary Weiermiller.

An overnight camping trip was held at the Highland State Recreation Area on September 29-30, with 26 of the 27 members of the troop, who are eligible for overnight camping, present. On this trip almost all of the members completed the first class requirements in identification of trees and edible plants. The present program of the troop is focussed on map reading and the use of the compass in preparation for or entering games later in the year. Troop Six is sponsored by the Plymouth Lions Club and meets at the Smith Elementary School. It has a membership of six Explorers and 30 Scouts.

Sir Arthur Sullivan, a partner in Gilbert and Sullivan, wrote the hymn, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

Student Driving Rules Starting Third Year Hailed as Success

Plymouth High School drivers don't drive — at least between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. on school days. And there has been a marked decrease in horn-blowing, loud exhausts, noisy starts and stops and "peeling" of tires since the board of education enacted driving regulations two years ago.

The driving regulations came as a blow to many students who were accustomed to driving themselves to school. Some parents also protested loudly. But after two years, the great majority of students and parents have come to realize that the ban on student driving is a good thing.

American Legion News

Mrs. Marie Thompson, Pan-American chairman, announced. Each year the Auxiliary studies one of the Central or South American countries as part of its program for developing better understanding among the nations of the western hemisphere.

An unpublicized reunion during the national convention was that of Gen. Mark Clark, recipient of The American Legion's Distinguished Service Medal and Mancel Talcott, chairman of the Legion's National Memorial and Graves Registration Committee. At Racine, Wisconsin Military Academy in 1908, Talcott was captain of Company B, in which General Clark was a cadet.
