TB X-Ray Units Here Next Week

Mobile TB X-ray units will be in Plymouth for seven days starting Monday and it is the goal of the Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the visit, to have at least 6,000 people take advantage of the opportunity.

Five central locations have been selected for the chest-mobility stops—parking lots at the A & P, and Kroger stores, Main Street in front of Kresges, the high school and in the Liberty Street shopping area.

This is the first time in three years that the X-ray units have been in Plymouth and it may be that long again before they return.

Charles Stofko, general manager of Barnes-Gibson-Raymond, is chairman of the Chamber committee arranging the visit.

Mobile units have been visiting industry in the area this week. They will be available for the public in Plymouth from Monday through Friday next week, and on Tuesday and Wednesday of the following week. They will not be here on Monday, November 11 due to the holiday.

Hours at the same locations will vary from day to day in order to give people working at different times a chance to get X-rayed. Only those 18 years of age or older can be X-rayed.

It should take but three minutes to obtain an X-ray. Volunteer workers will give each person a card to fill out asking their names, addresses and family doctor. Then, stepping into the trailer unit, one needs only to step up in front of the camera. No clothing needs to be removed. Mobile units are being provided by the Wayne County and State Tuberculosis associations. "Generally a person has TB and never knows it until it is in its late stages," a spokesman of the Wayne County association declared. "There are no symptoms. So if the X-ray detects TB, it is probably still in an early stage and is therefore still easy to arrest."

TB is a contagious disease, the spokesman pointed out. The average victim may expose four other people. "So he is not only hurting himself, but others if he does not know that he has the disease."

All those having X-rays are notified of the results. In the Detroit metropolitan area, it is found that one out of 1,000 people

Plymouth Finance Opens New Office

Plymouth Finance Company will officially open doors to its new office on Penniman Avenue this Friday.

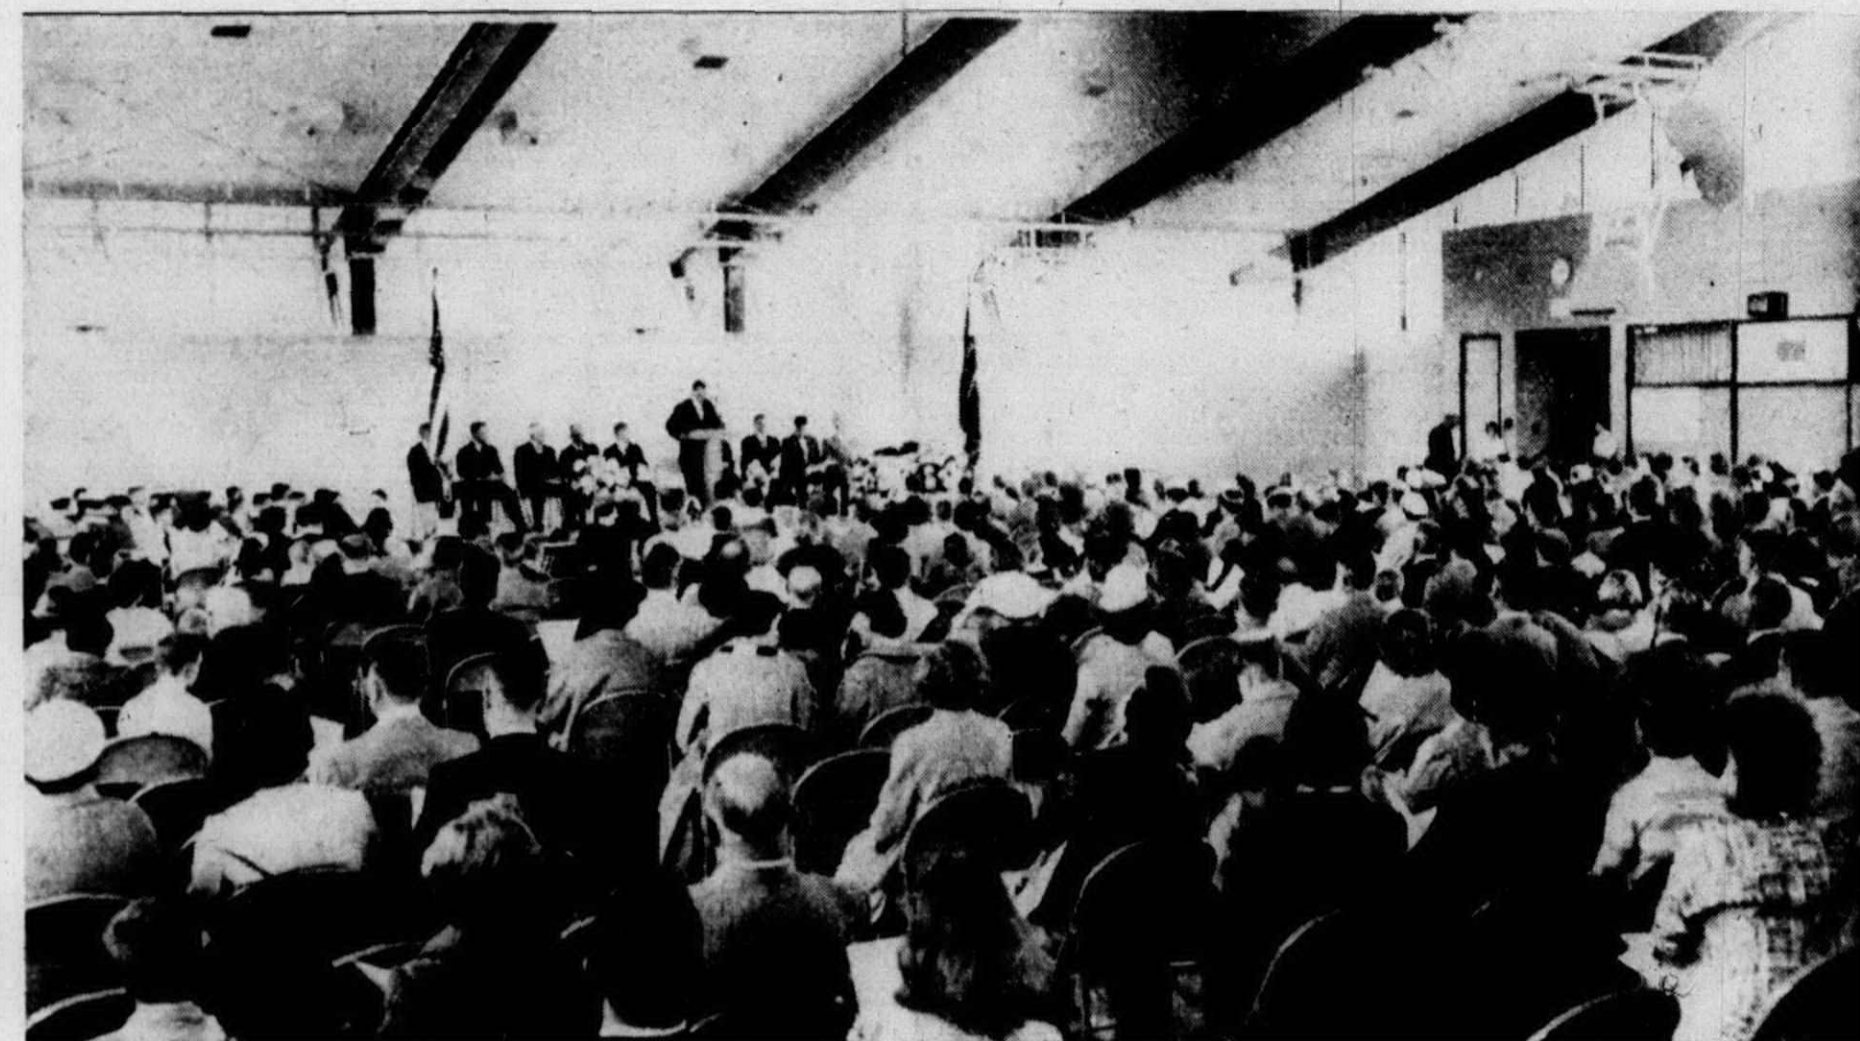

An open house with gifts for the family is planned for the event which begins at 9 a.m. and closes at 9 p.m.

The new office, which is one of the most modern small finance offices in the state, is located in the building formerly occupied by Seyfried Jewelry. Plymouth Finance's former office was at 274 South Main. It had been at that location ever since the firm opened here 11 years ago.

A modern front, interior and rear entrance will be found by visitors. Mahogany paneling and woodwork is used throughout the office and overhead is a translucent lighting system.

The rear of the building facing the Central Parking Lot is as inviting as the front. A carport has been provided for 10-minute customer parking.

Myron Smith is president of Plymouth Finance.

PRINCIPAL WILLIAM HARDING is shown presiding at Sunday afternoon's dedication of the Plymouth Community Junior High school. Over 800 attended the dedication and open house. The ceremony was held in the gymnasium.

'58 License Tags On Sale Friday

Black numerals on a gray background will be the color scheme of Michigan's 1958 license plates which go on sale here Friday morning.

Mrs. Doris Rool, manager of the local license bureau, said that the office will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m., Monday through Fridays, and until noon on Saturdays. The Secretary of State's office is at 181 West Liberty Street, between Starkweather and Mill.

In order to obtain plates, it is necessary to bring the certificate of title. Starting with the new tags, owners will keep the plates with them should they sell their vehicle.

Half-year plates for trucks and trailers will be sold for the first time at the local license bureau starting November 14.

Over 800 Inspect Jr. High

Over 800 people were guests at the Plymouth Community Junior High School dedication and open house held last Sunday afternoon.

The program paid tribute to those taking part in the planning and construction of the $1,743,838 building. And those who inspected the building agreed that it is "quite a place."

One of the speakers during the simple dedication ceremony was Eberle M. Smith, owner of the architectural firm which drew up plans for the school. Smith called the building "one of the highlights of my professional activities."

In delivering the architectural view of the building, he noted that the principal problem of designing such a building is creating the proper environment. "It must be conducive to the teaching and learning processes," Smith asserted, "and yet give a feeling of freedom. It must not seem like an institution with four walls, yet it must create a feeling of security. It must also contribute to a student's well-being — like being at home. This is accomplished by the type of floors, walls and the color scheme."

"A student should also have a feeling of ownership and take pride in the building," William Harding, principal of the school, was master of ceremonies for the ceremony. The program consisted of an invocation by Reverend Patrick Clifford, of Calvary Baptist church; the Junior High chorus and audience singing the National Anthem; a welcome by Principal Harding; an introduction of guests by Superintendent Russell Isbister; band selections by

City Wins Zoning Violation Case

A city zoning case that has been stirring around in the courts since last February was concluded last Thursday when a resident charged with "open storage" in a M-1 district was fined $100 and costs.

The defendant was John Wiggins, 150 Fair street. Circuit Court Judge Miles Culehan ruled that the fine would be suspended if the premises is cleaned up within 30 days.

Building and Safety Inspector Charles Thompson signed the complaint against Wiggins last February 25. The Wiggins property, it was noted, was strewn with many types of machinery, trailers and other material.

New Phone Books To Appear Friday

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company will begin to deliver the 1957 edition of the Plymouth telephone directory to its subscribers starting Friday.

Robert D. Maurer, manager here for the Michigan Bell Telephone Company, said that 11,123 copies of the new books were printed, an increase of some 300 copies over the number required for distribution here a year ago. Bull is the color used for the covers this year, changing off from the gray of last year's books.

Large spaces are reserved again this year in each copy where fire and police emergency numbers may be written, Maurer said.

The Plymouth directory includes separate listings for the communities of Ann Arbor, Livonia, Northville, South Lyon, Wayne and Ypsilanti.

Maurer reminded local telephone users to destroy the old directories after the new ones arrive.

Household Fund Solicitations Lag

Forty-one percent of the Plymouth Community Fund goal has been reached this week, but little credit for the success of the drive so far can be handed to householders.

Total cash and pledges to date is $13,166.61, according to the weekly report issued by John Pint, treasurer of the Fund Drive.

Richard Daniel, co-chairman of the 1957 campaign, declared this week that while business, professional and industrial solicitations have been flowing in on schedule, employees of Detroit Transmission Division, GMC, $1,500, Evans Products Co., $1,200, Whitman & Barnes Division of United Drill & Tool

Every householder should have received material from the Community Fund two weeks ago. This material included a pledge card and a return envelope. "If you have misplaced the card, just send your donation to the Plymouth Community Fund, care of P.O. Box 356 Plymouth," Daniel said. "And if you cannot make a donation now, you can pledge to make it later."

Unless the home solicitation part of the drive produces more results, a house-to-house drive may be needed, the co-chairman added. The Community Fund board has relied on mail solicitations in past years. Other United Fund drives, however, make house-to-house calls.

There were three donations this week that topped $1,000. The hourly and salary employees of the Detroit Transmission Plant at Willow Run gave $1,602.01. Evans Products Co. contributed $1,500 and Whitman & Barnes gave $1,200.

The following is a list of donors of $10 or more. If names of some donors do not appear, it is because volunteer solicitors have not yet turned in their donations. $1,602.01, Hourly and salary

Election Stirring Up Groups of Opposition

With but two propositions appearing on the ballot—both dealing with financing proposed facilities for a Detroit port—it is anyone's guess how many voters will turn out next Tuesday at the polls here.

Local election officials are predicting a light vote, but polling places will be as well prepared for this election as for any other. Fully-staffed polls will open at 7 a.m. and will close at 8 p.m.

Although there are only two ballot proposals, interest has been generated in them through a running battle taking place in Detroit where the Board of Commerce has taken a stand against the Port Commission's proposals.

In laymen's language, these are what the two propositions are about:

Proposition No. 1, which may be voted on only by property owners and their spouses, would authorize the Port Commission to borrow $9,500,000 for construction through issuance of general obligation bonds.

Proposition No. 2 would raise the limit of taxation by 16 one-hundredths of one mill (16 cents on each $1,000 valuation) to enable the county to meet the interest and amortization payments on the loan. All qualified electors may vote on this proposition.

The Board of Commerce argues that private enterprise, not the public, should finance port facilities. They also claim that there are now ample port facilities for the immediate future.

The struggle for port facilities has been brought about by the St. Lawrence Seaway which will be completed by 1959. The Port Commission proposes to build a modern marine terminal on the Detroit River between the Detroit News warehouse and the Detroit Harbor Terminals, Inc.

The 1,100 feet of frontage would provide two berths for 500 foot ocean freighters that will be coming into the Great Lakes. The Port Commission's plan also includes two transit sheds, rail and truck access routes, cargo handling equipment and ample open storage area in its 27 acres.

According to the commission, "revenues from the leases and rentals of port facilities will be applied against the loan and it is unlikely, therefore, that the full tax assessment will be necessary."

Supporters of the proposals claim that a recent nationwide survey established that $12.50 enters the coffers of a community for each ton of cargo handled through its port. Each of these dollars generates two additional dollars, economists state.

The Port Commission expects to handle 300,000 tons of foreign cargo in 1959, the first year that the enlarged Seaway will open. Less than 100,000 tons are being handled now and the additional 200,000 tons can be shipped and received only if adequate facilities are provided. By 1965, Detroit should be handling 1,200,000 tons of cargo if the facilities are again enlarged.

All voting precincts in Plymouth city and township will remain the same. All three township precincts are at the township hall on Ann Arbor Road. The city has five precincts. They are:

Precinct 1, city hall; Precinct 2, Fire Station No. 2; Precinct 3, high school; Precincts 4 and 5, Bronson building in the Central Parking Lot.

A heavier turn-out can be expected in Detroit where an election for city offices is taking place.

Chamber Slates Annual Dinner Next Thursday

An educator who now devotes his time to speaking and consulting in sales and management training will be the guest speaker when the Chamber of Commerce holds its Annual Dinner meeting next Thursday night.

The speaker will be Dr. Charles E. Irvin, who is being brought here by the General Motors corporation.

Between 200 and 300 Chamber members, their wives and guests are expected at the dinner being held at the new Community Junior High School starting at 7 p.m.

New officers and directors of the Chamber will be introduced at the meeting. Several other activities will also be on the program.

The guest speaker has taught business speaking and communications from 1953 until 1957 at Oberlin, Ohio State, Allegheny and Michigan State Universities. While teaching, he has served business and industry in a variety of capacities. Combining inspiration, humor, and information, he is known as the "Merchant of Message" to nearly a half million listeners yearly.

In addition to his speaking, Dr. Irvin writes articles for professional journals and a soon-to-be published book on sales.

Church Women To Join in World Community Day

On World Community Day, November 8, the United Church Women of Plymouth will gather in the Salvation Army Citadel at 1:30 p.m. to rededicate themselves to building life, friendship and universal peace.

They will be part of the ten million church women of the world who will observe World Community Day and make offerings to promote self-help projects for underdeveloped areas in Africa, the Middle East, Near East, India and Pakistan.

Parcels for Peace will also be collected and sent to refugees in camps in Europe, the Near East and Southeast Asia. The parcels will contain warm clothing, household linens and material, blankets and yardage of denim for work clothes.

Also from the offerings of American women on World Community Day new seeds, plows, cultivators and improved type of cattle will be purchased for shipment to East Pakistan.

Speaking at the local observance will be Mrs. Baumjako, a native of Nigeria. She is a student at the University of Michigan and will speak in her native dress. Mrs. Pauline Frisby of Detroit will be the soloist.

Eight Plymouth churches will participate in the program, of which Mrs. Gerald Fitch of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints is general chairman.

INSTEAD OF HALLOWEENERS just scaring householders tonight, there's one Plymouth householder who intends to turn-about the scaring. Mrs. Doris Wick of Karmada has decorated the front of her home with signs and displays to give a fright to mortals coming that way.

Plan Start of New School Saturday

The board of education of the Plymouth Community School District opened bids for a new elementary building Monday night, awarded the contracts last night and expects to break ground Saturday morning.

As The Mail goes to press Wednesday night, the board is considering the bids for the architectural, mechanical trades and kitchen equipment phases of the building.

A healthy number of bidders submitted prices for the building that will be constructed on land located in the northeast section of Plymouth Township. The land is being purchased from the Greenspan Building Co. which is constructing 1,000 homes in the area.

The proposed school, which has not yet been named, will be almost identical to the James Gallimore school on Sheldon road. Wheeler & Becker are architects for both schools.

The contract has a 300 day limit which would have the building completed in time for the school system's opening next September. School officials, however, realize that extremely bad weather this winter, plus the possibility of strikes and material shortages, could extend the deadline.

Ground will be broken at 9 a.m. Saturday during a brief ceremony. The group will assemble in a field just north of Schoolcraft road where the Lake Pointe Village water tower is located.

There were 11 bidders for the building's general construction. These were led by Smith and Young of Wayne, $294,839; Hyatt Construction, $298,548; and Berger Construction of Plymouth, $306,860. Highest bid received was $345,000. Smith and Young constructed the Gallimore school.

Ten bids were received for the mechanical work. The three lowest were Norman D. Nelson, $81,150; Allen Briggs, $84,300; and Joseph Comerford, $86,047. High bid was $98,650.

Three lowest among five bidders for kitchen equipment were Canton China and Equipment, $11,134; Great Lakes Hotel Supply, $11,473; Rhoads Equipment Co., $11,965. High bid was $12,813.

Bids on electrical work will be opened next Monday.

C of C Leaders Attend Workshop

Three Plymouth businessmen spent Tuesday in Lansing probing and studying the chamber of commerce structure in a workshop for chamber leaders sponsored by the Lansing and United States Chambers of Commerce.

Frank Allison, President of the Plymouth Chamber, who headed a local delegation, said on his return, "This Workshop was a most stimulating meeting, one which will do much in helping to build our local chamber's effectiveness."

Such topics as chamber financing, committee activity and programming, were among the subjects discussed by the group. Making up the local delegation accompanying Allison were Fred Van Dyke and J. H. Wilcox.

"We have a much wider understanding of the role which businessmen can play in community, state, and national development," Mr. Allison further stated, "and we intend to put into practice many of the ideas developed at this Workshop."

Dwight Havens of Washington, D. C., nationally recognized chamber authority, was the featured speaker and discussion leader. He and several experts from the U.S. Chamber of Commerce conducted the sessions which had a total attendance of 209 from 41 communities in this area including a group from Sarnia, Canada.

Patricia Caulkins, Harold Martin Speak Vows in Evening Service

Patricia Ann Caulkins chose a gown of imported Swiss lace and accordion-pleated nylon tulle over satin for her marriage to Harold Martin, October 19 in the First Presbyterian Church.

The portrait neckline was accented with tiny iridescent sequins and pearls. Tiers of lace and pleated tulle formed the front panel of the full skirt which swept into a chapel train. An apron effect was achieved with lace and satin. She wore a star crown, fashioned of seed pearls and sequins with a scalloped fingertip veil.

The bridal bouquet was of miniature calla lilies, baby's breath and centered by a white orchid.

Rev. Henry J. Walsh performed the 8 o'clock candlelight ceremony. The church was decorated with chrysanthemums in full colors.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sturm, 9464 Elmhurst and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Martin of Garden City.

Soloist, Joanne Bolash sang "Because" and "O, Promise Me."

Matron of honor, Mrs. Gerry Kelley of Plymouth wore a brown taffeta dress and carried bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. As bridesmaid, Edith Hill of Wayne wore a beige taffeta dress. Junior bridesmaids, Carol Harrison and Donna Wilson, wore dresses of yellow taffeta and matching net. All the attendants carried bouquets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums.

William Hill served as best man. Leo Martin, brother of the bridegroom and Terry Caulkins, brother of the bride, were ushers.

Mrs. Sturm wore a blue lace dress with navy accessories and Mrs. Martin donned a green taffeta dress with black accessories.

A reception was held in the VFW hall for 350 guests. The couple toured northern Michigan, Wisconsin and Illinois for their honeymoon. They are making their home in Wayne.

The bride is employed at Ford's Automatic Transmission plant and the bridegroom, a graduate of Garden City high school, is employed at General Motor's Ypsilanti plant.

Barnes-Wagenschutz Rites Read In St. Paul's Lutheran Church

St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church was the scene of the candlelight ceremony which united Roberta Gail Barnes and James Duane Wagenschutz Saturday, October 5.

Pastor Winfrey Koelplin performed the 7:30 p.m. service before an altar decorated with white gladioli, chrysanthemums, white stock and ferns.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Barnes 21001 Oxford street, Farmington. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wagenschutz, 35900 Five Mile road. Sister of the bride, Mrs. Wynemah Hartom, sang "Because," "O, Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white delustered gown of satin with a sabrina neckline and chapel train. Seed pearls and sequins bordered the neckline of the chantilly lace bodice. A crown of seed pearls held her fingertip veil. She carried white fugi chrysanthemums, centered with white roses. Streamers were accented by rosebuds and angel feathers. Maid of honor, Karen Russell wore a gold-colored lace dress with cummerbund and gauntlets of darker gold and shoes to match her dress. She carried bronze fugi chrysanthemums with green streamers and wore a headpiece to match the flowers.

Bridesmaids Bonnie Barnes, sister of the bride, and Sharon Byrnes wore emerald green lace addresses with velvet cummerbund and gauntlets to match. They carried yellow fugi chrysanthemums with streamers of autumn colors. Naomi Ashley and Mrs. Katherine Hall, sister of the bridegroom, wore gold dresses with deeper gold velvet cummerbunds and gauntlets to match. They carried yellow fugi chrysanthemums with streamers of autumn colors.

The bridegroom asked Ralph Wagenschutz to be his best man. Charles Wagenschutz, Robert Wagenschutz, Charles Hall and Howard McLellan served as ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Barnes wore a peacock blue satin dress with shoes and hat to match and a rosebud corsage. The bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Wagenschutz, wore a taupe crepe dress with beige accessories and pink rosebuds.

A reception for approximately 500 guests followed the ceremony at Wayne County Conservation hall.

The new Mrs. Wagenschutz chose a beige wool suit dress with brown accessories and a white rosebud corsage for a two-week trip to the Smoky Mountains.

The bride is a graduate of Clarenceville high school and the bridegroom is a graduate of Plymouth high school and Michigan State University. He is now employed at Burroughs as an engineer. Their new home is at 32891 McKenzie Drive in Nankin township.

The MAIL Attitude

BY PAUL CHANDLER

Our residents have another special election coming up next Tuesday. The polls will be open to permit taxpayers to vote Yes or No on a special proposition submitted by Wayne County whereby public port facilities would be constructed on the Detroit river.

The cost of the plan would be 16 cents per $1,000 of assessed valuation. (80 cents a year on a $5,000 assessment, which is about average for a home.)

Proposed is a port facility of 1,100 feet of frontage with two berths for the 500-ft. ocean freighters which will be coming into the Great Lakes with the completion of the St. Lawrence Seaway. There also would be two transit sheds, rail and truck access routes, cargo handling equipment and storage area.

The total cost is $9,500,000. Some of this would be returned—perhaps all of it—in lease and rental fees. It is quite possible that the full 16 cents per $1,000 would not be needed and the millage actually collected would be less than that.

Some controversy has developed downtown over whether it is a proper use of public funds to enlarge port facilities, but we fail to see how this is much different than using public funds to dredge rivers, build private boat marinas, or even pave highways, for that matter. The aim of the plan is to have something to offer foreign shipping so they will want to unload in Detroit after the seaway opens. Foreign trade is a profitable commodity in a community.

Complete details of the ballot propositions are printed in the last section of today's paper.

This newspaper urges a "Yes" vote.

The following few lines are written directly to anyone who works as a salesman in a Plymouth place of business.

An expensive survey has been taken of customers who trade in Plymouth. The University of Michigan made the study and last week at a dinner here an expert from the campus analyzed it.

It showed many encouraging things about the way Plymouth is growing as a modern shopping center. But a point stressed by the expert was that our city must become "warmer" and "more friendly" toward its customers.

The questionnaires showed repeatedly that some people who trade here believe that salespeople tend to be harsh and cool, if not actually discourteous.

Courtesy and friendliness are relative values and are hard to measure. They aren't exactly easy to come by, either, at the end of a day when one's feet throb and the customer can't make up his mind what he's going to do.

Nevertheless, Plymouth has a tremendous stake in the trend of shopping over the next few years. The prosperity and welfare of every one of us depends on whether we handle customers so that they want to keep coming back to our town. No matter how wellstocked the stores are, or how convenient the parking, etc., the whole effect can be ruined by one rude experience suffered at a counter.

Friendliness is not only a human virtue, it is business asset.

Progress in Plymouth always is pleasant to report, and this week a slick new office is being opened on Penniman Ave. by Plymouth Finance Co. It is as modern and bright as the 21st century, as attractive outside as inside. The boss has a private office with deep carpet, sectional stuffed furniture,—just like in the magazine ads. Fibre glass panels abound, along with indirect lighting and glistening plate glass.

The new facilities are one more move in the sure, steady downtown modernization. More is coming.

One of the metropolitan papers ran a cartoon a few days ago called "There Oughta Be a Law" and it portrayed a bakery. It was a two-panel deal, one showing careful cleanliness out front in the store, but the other indicating sloppiness out in back where the goods came from the oven.

One of our Plymouth bakers is sizzling, and with reason. His own kitchen is as spotless as any I ever saw or heard about. The cartoon just doesn't fit.

The reason he's burning is that the idea for the cartoon was submitted by a resident of Plymouth—who received credit for same in the cartoon from the artist.

There's a worthy Christmas-time project for some group looking for one. It involves Hawthorne Center, the hospital near Northville for emotionally-disturbed youngsters.

Heretofore there's been no planned campaign by anyone to provide gifts for the 60-odd youths, who range in age from 8 to 16. There's been a number of hit-or-miss donations, where the hospital finds itself with a great poundage of candy (far more than it can use) and some odds and ends which may or may not be useful. Often they're not.

Any group wanting to help could consult in advance with the Hawthorne Staff and determine what specific items really are needed for individual children.

Football Contest Won by Guesses On Lion's Score

Tips in selecting the winning football teams in the nation this week is Howard S. Wilkinson of 413 Beal Street, Northville. Howard was tripped up by the Indiana-Villanova and the Oregon State-Washington games.

However, he almost kicked it squarely between the uprights on the Lions-Los Angeles game by predicting the score to be 3 to 16. The actual score was 35 to 17. Howard works at Burroughs and we suspect that he might have run his selections through one of those mechanical brains.

Second prize this week goes to Susan Brinks who missed on two games but came pretty close to guessing the score of the Lions' game. Third was Harry W. Krumm of 1244 Penniman, who also missed on two games.

To the rest of the entrants we say "good try" and better luck in your selections this week.

The Plymouth Mail "sports expert" picked 12 out of 15 this week which is fairly respectable. We'll know better than to bet against Michigan again. See if you can match our selections for this week:

Michigan over Iowa, Illinois

over Purdue, Michigan State over Wisconsin, Ohio State over Northwestern, U of D over Cincinnati, College of the Pacific over Marquette, Navy over Notre Dame, Oregon over Stanford, Minnesota over Indiana, Washington over U.S.C., Oregon State over Washington State, U.C.L.A. over University of California, Cornell over Columbia and Yale over Dartmouth.

ANOTHER $15 check for the Mail's football contest was presented this week. Howard Wilkinson, center, 413 Beal, Northville, is shown holding his prize. Also shown are two sponsors of the contest, Pat Wiltse, left, of Community Pharmacy, and John Wertman of Kresge's.

PLYMOUTH FINANCE Company opens its new Penniman avenue office officially tomorrow with an Open House program. Pictured in the modern surroundings are D. W. Vanderboort, manager, and Shirley Allen, secretary. Myrn Smith is president. The office is one of the most modern of its kind in Michigan. The public is being invited to drop in for a visit from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday. Gifts are being given to everyone.

Film on Congo Trip Thrills First Travel Series Audience

It is doubtful that the local travel bureau will receive any requests to arrange a trip such as last Sunday's World Travel Series speaker made.

John M. Goddard, first to appear in Plymouth's new Travel Series, took an audience of 325 on a trip down the Congo River in Africa. His colored movies and accompanying lecture proved to be a thriller which the audience will long remember.

Those who recall Humphry Bogart pulling his ship through waste-deep swampland in the movie, "The African Queen", got a sample of what Goddard and his British companion, Jack Yowell, experienced. The movie traced the world's second largest river from its source, a spring in Northern Rhodesia, down to the half-way mark.

Another film, which Goddard is showing over WXYZ's program, "Bold Journey," shows the other half of the trip. Goddard was seen last Monday night with part of this film and will complete it next Monday at 8:30 p.m.

Although Goddard and Yowell made the trip in kayaks, even these small craft had to be dragged and edged through hundreds of miles of growth which covered the river.

There were many wonderful scenes of wild animal life, native tribes and some of the industrial growth in cities of Africa. And then there were the rapids.

Goddard, who has traveled down the Colorado River and the Nile, found the most savage rapids in existence on the Congo. Just eight miles from a point where the remainder of the trip would have been comparatively smooth sailing, Goddard and Yowell came across an extremely treacherous rapid. It was with surprise and regret that the audience learned that Yowell lost his life at this point by drowning.

His body was recovered three days later and Goddard flew with it to Nairobi where Yowell's family lived. The two had made a promise that in case one should die, the other would continue the trip. Goddard flew back to the Congo and continued the trip with natives.

Only comments of praise were heard by the audience following the movie when they had an opportunity to talk with the speaker who came here from the West Coast.

The second program in the series will be Nov. 24 when Gordon Palmquist will show films on "Norway, Sweden and Denmark." All programs are at the high school.

Baby at 5 Weeks Needs Second Hair Cut

Maybe they should have already he's needing another. Named him Harry — but it's too late to change that now.

His name is Randy Lyle Fowler and he's five weeks old. Randy's got some sort of distinction, sorta, that makes him different from other fry his size. You see, he had his first haircut when he was but one week old and LOOKING LIKE a young man at only five weeks is Randy Fowler, who has had one haircut and now needs another. His mother, Mrs. Ezra Fowler, is shown holding her bushy-headed son.

Right from the word go, Randy had lots of hair. "They combed it at the hospital just like a man's head of hair," his father declared. So the day after Randy got home from the hospital, his dad got out a pair of scissors and gave it a good cutting. It even covered his ears.

But here it is three weeks later and Randy needs another haircut. With haircuts running as high as $1.75, Randy's father isn't apt to turn the lad over to a barber yet. But this might be a good opportunity for an enterprising barber to work out some lifetime hair-cutting contract. After all, Randy has only used up five weeks of his life.

Rock Harriers Fail to Qualify for Tournament

The State Regional Cross Country meet was held at the Farmington country club last Saturday to pick the best six teams to compete in the finals at Eastern Michigan College, Ypsilanti next Saturday.

The State defending champion Gerry Young of Berkley High School won the race with a time of 10:10.5. The Plymouth team finished eighth and thus fail to qualify for the State finals.

Tony Monte, who finished sixth with a time of 10:43, qualifies individually for the finals. Other members of the Plymouth cross country team at the meet were: Otto Bufe, Mike Kelley, Dave Mynatt, Jeff Yoernan, Ken Jacobus, and Jim Meyers.

Two TD's in Two Minutes Keep Rocks in Tie for League Lead

"Our team showed real desire in the second half". Those words spoken by Coach Mike Hoben sum up the situation about last Friday's football game. The Plymouth Rocks blended that intangible quality with the proper mixtures of alertness and magic to fill the prescription necessary for a 19-6 victory over Trenton.

The alertness was provided by a sophomore fullback who improves with every game. Wayne Sparkman intercepted a Trenton pass on the Trenton 40 and set the stage for the second and what proved to be the winning touchdown. The magic was provided by quarter-back Ken Knipschild whose ball handling feats never cease to mystify.

With Allen Park trouncing Redford Union, 28-0, the Rock win kept them at the top of Suburban Six pile along with Allen Park, whom they still must face. The two were to meet last month but flu brought postponement of the game here.

Trenton wasted little time in moving the ball into scoring position. They scored in six plays after gaining possession of the ball for their second series of downs. Bob Voss, a tall rangy end, was used to advantage on two pass plays. The second one covered 65 yards and brought the ball to the Plymouth 4. From here Karlzen picked up two yards and George Chattel carried into the end zone for the only Trenton touchdown of the game.

There was no further scoring in the first quarter. Early in the second, Plymouth tied the score. After a fourth down kick by Trenton gave them possession on the Trenton 46, the Rocks began to move along the ground. A first down by Sparkman was nullified by a 15 yard penalty. From his own 40 yard line Ken Knipschild

Trenton took the kick-off and when four passes were incomplete, Plymouth gained possession on the 25 yard line. Two plays later Walasky ran 20 yards for his third touchdown.

This was a great team victory for Plymouth. It would be difficult to pick individual defensive stars. First one player would break through on the Trenton passer and then another; or one player would make an ankle clutching tackle on one side of the field and then another player would repeat the performance on the other side.

Did Lady Luck smile beamingly on the Plymouth Rocks as they scored two touchdowns late in the fourth quarter to defeat Trenton 19-6? If you are a Trenton fan attempting to explain the loss maybe you would say the Rocks got the "breaks" to win. If you are a Plymouth fan you would say "that's the way the cookie crumbles."

To be honest about the outcome we would have to agree that a certain amount of luck did enter the picture. But, what has been described as that point where preparation and opportunity meet. The opportunity came to the Rocks in the form of a pass interception by Wayne Sparkman. If that was luck then it couldn't have happened to a more deserving ball player.

Preparation came in the form of a well executed pass and run play between quarterback Ken Knipschild and halfback Dave Walasky. After the pass interception by Sparkman a 15 yard penalty was assessed against Trenton. This was undoubtedly a "tough break" for Trenton but they brought it on themselves.

Any team, no matter how good, must suffer the consequences of a ball game. The subject of the game but turning to a more pleasant aspect - the halftime program. This program was under the direction of James Griffith, director of the Plymouth High School Band. The show was entitled "Service Salute" and it was a masterpiece.

From the office of the Director of Recreation H. E. Woolweaver comes the following announcement about the fall and winter activities. The first managers' meeting for the Men's Basketball League will be held Monday evening, November 4 at 8:30 in the recreation office at the high school. The basketball league is not restricted to Plymouth teams. Teams from surrounding towns that do not have a recreation program can enter this league. The first practice will be Wednesday, November 6 in the high school gymnasium at 7 p.m. The deadline for team entries is November 22 and the games are tentatively set for Monday and Wednesday evenings starting December 2. The Michigan Recreation Association will hold the State Class "B" basketball tournament in Plymouth in March. Class "B" cities are those with a population of less than 25,000.

Badminton is a successful activity each Tuesday night with eight courts available. Students from Plymouth and the surrounding area play from 7:30 to 9:00 when the adults take over and play until 10:30.

Local Jayvees Lose to Bentley

Bentley high school's junior varsity football team fared much better against Plymouth than their varsity team. The Jayvee Bulldogs defeated Plymouth 19-6.

Plymouth struck early in the first quarter when Dave Green smashed off tackle for 23 yards and a touchdown. This lead was shortlived, however, as Bentley scored a converted touchdown before the end of the quarter and added an unconverted one in the second quarter to lead 13-6 at half time.

In the second half the defensive unit held Bentley scoreless but the offense could not find the right formula for success. With just eight seconds remaining and trying to gain a tie the Plymouth tried a pass play that backfired. Bentley intercepted and scored a touchdown making the final score 19-6.

The Plymouth team: Anderson, Bane, Bowers, Brown, Brandon, Bruce, Cash, Chapple, Clement, Condash, Conover, Curtis, Dennany, Evans, Ferguson, Fillmore, Fletcher, Flora, Graydon, Green, Hertor, Hitt, Hoffman, Knapp, Lea, Lunska, Louiselle, Luther, McConnell, Maples and Miller.

Two Local Grads Out for Western Mich. Swim Team

Plymouth has two men out for the swimming team this year at Western Michigan University. The two are John Williams and Gary Wright, both freestylers.

Gary Wright, 18, graduated from Plymouth High in 1957. He stands 5 ft. 11 in. and weighs 140 pounds. While at Plymouth, Wright lettered on the swimming team four years. John Williams, 19, also graduated from Western Michigan, coached Wright during his high school career. Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wright of 43480 Gyde Rd.

John Williams, 18, also graduated from Plymouth High in 1957. He is 6 ft. 3 in. tall and tips the scales at 168. While at Plymouth, Wright ran on the cross-country and track teams for three years and was on the golf team for one year. He also competed on the swimming team winning four letters. McFall, John Sandman, graduate of Collgate, and Konrad Mosio of Michigan coached Wright during his prep career. John is the son of Dr. and Mrs. A. C. Williams of 1308 Sheridan.

Jr. Hi Gridders Clash Tomorrow

Part one of the intramural program at Plymouth Community Junior High School comes to a close tomorrow night when the final football game is played at the Plymouth High School field at 8 p.m.

In an effort to give game experience to as many boys as possible the seventh and eighth graders were divided into four teams. Dick Griffith and Frank Sullivan, who are in charge of the athletic program, divided the boys as evenly as possible according to ability. Sickness in the form of the ubiquitous flu bug reduced the number of boys available for the Friday games and a two team schedule was developed.

The results of the three games played to date show that the teams are very evenly matched. Each team has won, lost and tied. Tomorrow night's game will decide the intramural football championship.

Men's Basketball Practice to Open

Basketball practice for men will start Wednesday, November 6 at the High School gymnasium. The warm-up sessions will be held weekly until the Men's Basketball League is formed by the Adult Education Department. There is no age limit. Heading the program this year is Jack Carter.

Magnetic electric-light bulbs and sockets are being made to replace the standard screw type.

Front Row Center

by George Spelvin

It's halloween time and to start the haunting season off in real witchy ways, the Workshop players gave the Guild members a real chiller at their October meeting last week. Old "Ghost-Writer" George attended the spook session and has reported his findings in an adjoining column.

Along with putting on a mask, getting a gunny sack out for "Trick or Treat," some of the local Theater Guild members are putting their artistic talents to use. No, not soaping windows of all those that won't buy season tickets! Warren Harris, Set Manager for "The Desk Set," tells me that he has a crew of faithful Theater Guild members wrestling flats and splashing paint on them. A partial list of these eager dabbers is as follows: Ruth Barney, Mrs. Hill, Shirley Maloney, Charles Kellogg, Jim Blackman, Adam Salby.

The set for "The Desk Set" is fairly complicated. Phyllis Kelly met the problems of a two-level set with two rooms square and has designed a setting to rival the Broadway production. How she does it is a real head-scratcher. Be that as it may, once again the Plymouth Theatre Guild has demonstrated that our local citizens have innate talents. Hal Young was heard murmuring at rehearsal the other evening, "Hope we can get the set up, balcony and all, by the third week in November. The actors can sure use some practice with this set."

Too bad the Guild doesn't have a permanent place for their set building, rehearsing, and other numerous activities. Of course, the cost of building even a small shack these days is astronomical. Now if some benefactor might just have some warehouse space to contribute, the Guild just might be in an acceptable mood. Since we seem to be "set" in our ways this week we might as well mention the set problems with the high school production of "Around the World in 80 Days." With some nine or ten scenes to tussle with, Robert Southgate, the faculty director, has quite a task at hand. Two wing flats have been completed and are in working order for the cast. The effect of these flats will be novel. Plan now to attend the performances of "Around the World in 80 Days" on either November 14th or 15th.

One week earlier on November 7, 8 and 9, the University of Michigan Department of Speech light up the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater for their 1957-58 season. "Arsenic and Old Lace" opens the bill of fine plays. This is the show that features elderberry wine, Boris Karloff, and a "nut" that thinks he is still fighting the Spanish-American War. Put this all together and you have a rip-roaring evening.

Before we put down our paint brush for the evening and leave the flats half-done, let me warn all good Guild members that the Workshop is having its monthly meeting on Wednesday, November 6th. With two productions under their theatrical bell, the Workshopers have grown to quite a group. So large in fact that they will be meeting up at the high school from now on in the little gym. Chairman Jim Blackman claims he has a full agenda for the evening.

Noted in the paper that Eisenhower slipped in to see the last act of "My Fair Lady" after making his radio and TV speech last week. His good wife arrived early enough for the opening curtain while dear old "Dad" watched the store.

Brazil to be Topic At PTSA Meeting

Building its program around Brazil, the Junior High school PTSA will meet Monday evening, November 4 at 7:45 p.m. in the Junior High gymnasium.

A panel of students will present information they have learned about the geography, history and people of the country. Robert Webber will show colored slides taken during a nine-week visit to Brazil earlier this year. Refreshments are planned following the meeting.

Home Demonstration Clubs Plan Carnival

A "Christmas Carnival" and "Open House" is planned by the Wayne County Home Demonstration Groups on Wednesday, November 6, at the 4-H Fair Grounds, near Belleville.

The doors will open from 12:30 to 4:00 p.m. and again from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. Punch and cookies will be served continuously.

The program includes a demonstration, "Wrapping Pretty Packages", given by Mrs. Ruth Krecke, of the Dearborn Y.W.C.A., from 2 to 3 p.m. In the evening, at 7:30 p.m., Mr. Michael Seidell, of Hunter's Greenhouses, Wyandotte, will present a demonstration, "Ideas for Christmas Wreaths." Club members will have exhibits on Christmas gifts you can make, Christmas table settings, Christmas gifts from the kitchen, and Christmas decorations for your home.

Footsaving Education
By JIM HOUK

ARE SHOES THAT ARE OUTGROWN BY ONE CHILD SAFE FOR ANOTHER?

Yes and no. The accepted reason for not using handed-down shoes is that the foot defects of the first child can be inflicted on the second. This is true.

But if the first user had normal feet, isn't his good wear-pattern just as likely to encourage good foot function? It is.

When the budget is hurting it is a lot safer to use brother's cast-offs than to cramp feet in his own outgrown shoes.

It would be wise to go to your local shoe store and choose your new shoes for the family... while selections are at their best.

Use a Layaway Plan if your budget does not permit the purchase at this time, to avoid last-minute disappointment.

Symphony to Sponsor Marionette Show

This weekend an unusual treat is planned for the children of the Plymouth area. The Plymouth Symphony Society is sponsoring a performance of the Milne Marionettes in "Aladin and His Wonderful Lamp."

The two feet high, string-operated marionettes will perform on the stage of the high school auditorium Saturday morning, November 2, at 9:30 a.m. Admission is 25 cents per person. Though primarily for children, adults are welcome also.

The Milne Marionettes are operated by Mrs. Isabel Milne Wades of Livonia, and her assistant, Mrs. Geraldine Kohs of Northville. The company has performed both in Canada and the United States, and in the Detroit Public Schools for ten years. Mrs. Wades studied at the famous Tony Sarg marionette school.

The play is in seven acts, is completely costumed, and will last an hour. A special marionette stage will be erected on the auditorium stage. It is believed this is the first show of this type to be seen in Plymouth and it is a rare opportunity for children to see this delightful form of make-believe drama.

Plymouth's Business

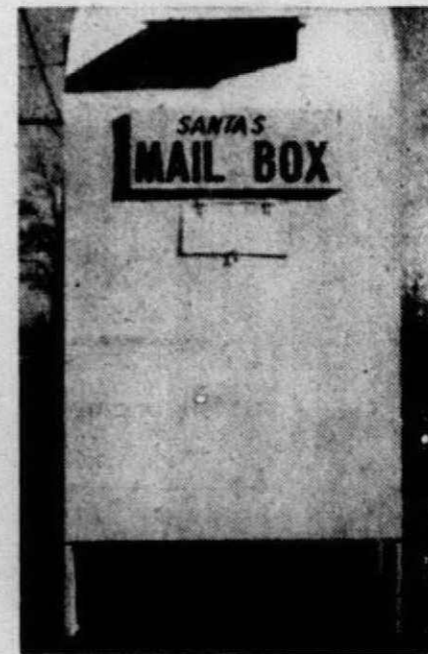

The fair city of Plymouth is due to be dazzled by the splendorous array of the new model automobiles this week. From what we have seen, the manufacturers have gone all out this year to please every segment of the buying public. Most of the dealers are holding open house this week end with free refreshments and door prizes as well as the premier showing of their new models. The Russians may have their Sputnik, but when they get two of them in every garage they'll have something to brag about.

Dave Agnew, Wendell Lent, Margaret Dunning, Jim Houk and Jerry Pease will attend the Michigan Retail Merchants Association conference in Lansing, Michigan on November 5. (There goes another dollar Jerry.)

Pat Wiltse is extensively remodeling and enlarging Community Pharmacy on Main street to better serve the public. Alterations will be completed shortly.

REHEARSING FOR Saturday's marionette show at Plymouth High school are Mrs. Isabel Milne Wades, left, and her assistant, Mrs. Geraldine Kohs of Northville. The Milne Marionettes will present "Aladin and His Wonderful Lamp" in seven acts. The colorfully costumed play will last an hour.

Hoffman and Holdsworth are well prepared for the deluge of mail to Santa Claus with this king-sized mail box in front of their Ann Arbor Rd. store.

Introduced as taking an active part in planning the school were present members of the school board; two former members, Warren Smith and Carl Caplin; two representatives of the School Community Planning Group, Mrs. Esther Franklin and Mrs. Robert Soth; teachers; and Administrative Assistant Melvin Blunk.

Tribute was also paid to the late junior high principal, Arthur Alford, who was represented by his wife.

Principal Harding, in giving his welcome talk, said that along with taking pride in the new building, he and the staff are keenly aware of their responsibilities in providing the educational opportunities for the students.

The Junior High band, making its first appearance, was warmly acclaimed for its presentation of three selections. Lawrence Livingston is director.

Official Proceedings Plymouth City Commission

Monday October 7, 1957

A regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Monday, October 7, 1957 at 7:30 P.M.

PRESENT: Coms. Hartmann, Roberts, Shear, Sinecock, Terry, Wernette and Mayor Guenther.

ABSENT: None.

Moved by Comm. Sinecock and supported by Comm. Roberts that the minutes of the regular meeting of September 16, 1957 be approved as written. Carried unanimously.

Mr. George Witkowski inquired as to what is being done relative to sewerage being deposited in Tonquish Creek. The City Manager explained that all being done as could be done, with the installation of the new sanitary sewer and follow-up of known sources of contamination.

Supervisor Witkowski orally presented his report for September.

The following resolution was offered by Comm. Wernette and supported by Comm. Shear:

WHEREAS, this City Commission believes that the City of Detroit proposition to supply water for the Metropolitan Area is for the best interest of all communities; and

WHEREAS, if such proposal is accepted by the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, it will not be necessary to issue $50,000,000 par value bonds against the faith and credit of the county; and

WHEREAS, the levy of millage would not be necessary to retire such bonds and pay the interest, since the City of Detroit would issue bonds to be paid from revenue; and

WHEREAS, this City Commission believes that it is to the best interest of the community to have one wholesale source of water; and

WHEREAS, many millions of dollars must necessarily be spent by the City of Detroit to avoid contamination of the proposed County water intake;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that this City Commission recommend to Supervisor George Witkowski, and to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, that they strongly oppose the construction of and issuance of bonds for the proposed County water intake plant.

YES: Comms. Shear, Sinecock, Terry, Wernette and Mayor Guenther. NO: Comms. Hartmann and Roberts.

Motion carried. The Clerk presented a communication from the Michigan Public Service Commission relative to the Farmer Street and C&O R.R. crossing reiterating its stand that fiber lights without arms would not be approved by it. The communication was ordered accepted and placed on file.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Business Opportunities Exhibit inviting all interested parties to attend the exhibit on October 8-9-10 in Port Huron. The communication was ordered accepted and placed on file.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Utilities Line Construction Co. expressing its appreciation to the fire department for its work in instructing the men of its company in first aid methods. The communication was ordered accepted and filed.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Planning Commission recommending that the closing of Jener Street between Linden and Beech Streets be denied.

Moved by Comm. Shear and supported by Comm. Terry that upon the recommendation of the Planning Commission, the petition to close Jener Street between Linden and Beech Streets be denied. Carried unanimously.

The Mayor presented Certificates of Merit to the following civilian fire fighters who had completed a course under the direction of Battalion Chief Charles Groth: Brad Carpenter, Robert Fitzer, Donald LeVanseler, Joseph Quinlan, John Rind and Paul Zimmerman.

Moved by Comm. Sinecock and supported by Comm. Roberts that this City Commission approve the application for disability retirement of Carl Greenlee, and that Dr. Barry H. Alford act as the medical advisor who has made the examination. Carried unanimously.

The following resolution was offered by Comm. Terry and supported by Comm. Sinecock:

WHEREAS, Carl R. Greenlee, the cemetery sexton for the City of Plymouth after thirty years and four months of faithful service, retired on August 29, 1957; and

WHEREAS, this City Commission deems his continuous faithful service to this community to be worthy of commendation;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that Carl R. Former Resident Killed in Crash

Roy H. Schryer, a native of Plymouth and brother of Howard Schryer of Union street, was killed last Thursday afternoon near Castalia, Ohio when his car was struck by a locomotive.

Mr. Schryer was born in Plymouth and had lived here periodically. His home in recent years was in Willard, Ohio. He was returning to his home from his work when the accident happened. He was dead on arrival at Bellevue hospital.

Born Sept. 27, 1904, he is survived by his wife, Juanita; two daughters, Mrs. Charles Reel, Jr. of Willard and Mrs. Dorothy Chase of New Jersey; a son, George, a high school senior; two brothers, Howard of Plymouth and Harold of Inkster; and two sisters, Mrs. Gertrude Rickard of Willard and Mrs. Wilson Clark of Northville. Services were held Sunday.

I heard about a Pennsylvania fellow who figured out a way to win contests forecasting the football and baseball game scores. He was so lucky it seemed as though he must have a crystal ball for a head. He worked in a postoffice, but when he got tired of playing postoffice he'd stamp a few envelopes in advance. Then as soon as a game was over he'd write down the score, slip it into a pre-dated envelope and send it to the judges.

Next to counting on your fingers, it was the simplest computing method on record. Instead of carrying the mail, the mail was carrying him. But he hit the jackpot so often the F.B.I. got interested. So if you're looking for an unbeatable system, this is it. The Pennsylvania man won't be using it for quite a while.

For 3 years police looked for a man wanted in a $2 million hold-up. Then they picked him up in New Jersey when he stole a $23 razor. Looks like he lost by a whisker.

We have ways for you men to lose your whisker problems pleasantly and easily. TIPS for TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Double-dating now and then is fun, but double-dating all the time can cause problems... like this one:

Q—I have a boy-friend and we double-date every week with his friend and my girl-friend. The other boy always pays attention to what my boy-friend and I are doing, always has his attention on me and is constantly kidding me. He always compliments me before my boy-friend has a chance. He always involves all of us in the conversation instead of just each couple for themselves. What can I do to keep him more interested in his date and less in me?

Ans.—Your girl-friend's date is being polite when he makes the conversation include all four of you—instead of each couple having their own private chats while double-dating.

On double-dates, the fun and chatter is supposed to be general for all. If you and your boy-friend want to have private conversations with just each other (it's natural to do so), why not date by yourselves occasionally? Perhaps you can discourage the other boy from paying too much attention to you by not paying much attention to him—ignore his "kidding" and compliments in a nice way, not rudely.

But when you double-date, it's courteous to include everybody in the conversation and fun. So you must find a balance between including the other boy, yet not paying too much attention to him or letting him pay too much attention to you.

Why not have double-dates once or twice a month and date by yourselves the rest of the time? Do it gradually to avoid hurting the other couple's feelings, if necessary.

(For help with personal problems, write to Elinor Williams at this paper. As many letters as possible will be answered in this column.)

"WE PRINT TO PLEASE"

Woman's Eye View

by Nancy Rigney

Shades of George and Martha Washington, it's almost time for the Colonial Mart again. The ladies of the First Methodist church will don hoop skirts and crinolines in Early American tradition to help turn back the pages of history for their annual bazaar.

To be held at the church on November 7, needlework, doll clothes, novelties, decorations for the holiday tree and table, candies, nuts, baked goods and flowers will be featured at the booths. A snack bar will provide lunch from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. and again at 4 p.m. Tea will be available from 2 to 4 p.m. with soft organ music in the background.

November 2 is the big day for the Newburg church. And it sounds like quite a day. Beginning at 9 a.m., the bazaar and children's carnival will continue until 5 p.m. when a turkey dinner will be served.

Making an early guest appearance will be Santa Claus (only 45 more shopping days until Christmas) who will visit with the children at various times throughout the day. A photographer will snap the kiddies posed on Santa's knee.

On November 2, only 43 shopping days will remain, so many of the booths will afford gift ideas. Needlework, stuffed toys, home-canned goods, white elephants and plants can be bought from the booths. A fish pond, dart throw, freak show and duck dip will cater to the children.

The 'piece de resistance' will be the turkey dinner with all the trimmings and homemade apple or pumpkin pie that will be served between 5 and 7 p.m.

Bob Willoughby has been cast as a Roman soldier in the forthcoming Eastern Michigan College production of one of George Bernard Shaw's most amusing plays, "Androcles and the Lion." Performances are scheduled for 8 p.m. in Roosevelt Auditorium tonight, Friday and Saturday evenings. Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willoughby, 44661 West Ann Arbor Trail.

Marilyn Ginger Freyman is majoring in music at Anderson College in Anderson, Ind. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Freyman of 349 Arthur.

Fashion Note — Hat designers prefer the French hare when choosing rabbit pelts for their creations. Not that the French hare is more chic, it just doesn't shrink when dyed. American and Australian skins are not suitable for multi-colored fur fashions because they shrink when dyed and are too short-haired.

A French firm turns out their furs in pink, yellow, blue, red and "whatever looks the least like rabbit." The fastest-selling colors are rosy pink, powder blue, corn yellow and American beauty red. Rabbit furs, disguised as any pelt from lynx to leopard, are also popular.

American hat designer, under the influence of Queen Elizabeth's visit, have come out with a group of felts and beavers designed in white with pink satin roses. Rose designs were taken from the Royal Crown Derby china given to the Queen last spring.

NEW BOOKS

At The Wayne County LIBRARY

"The Witches" by Jay Williams — A historical novel revealing the conspiracy against the throne of James VI of Scotland in the full flavor of 16th century Scotland, yet removed from the trite blood-guts and boudoir novels.

"The House of the Angel" by Beatriz Guido — This haunting story of innocence and the illusion of youth brought face to face with violent reality is set in aristocratic Buenos Aires. It is a translated work of a well known Latin American novelist.

"The Ordeal of Gilbert Pinfold" by Evelyn Waugh — A witty and occasionally blood-curdling account of a man's experience with delusions which parallels the suffering of the author during a "brief bout with hallucinations."

"Take Me to Your President" by Leonard Wibberley — Another fantastic and gaily imaginative tale by this Irish author, tells of one-man's scheme to solve the world's problems.

"Violent Voyage" by Arthur Nash — A suspenseful and fast-paced melodrama set against the deceptively tranquil Victorian background.

"Other People's Children" by Anna Judge Veters Levy — Recalling eight years on the bench of juvenile court, Judge Levy describes the shocking procession of unhappy children she came to know.

"All Ireland" by Stephen Rynne — An Irishman's Ireland is described, burying the shillelagh and leprechauns and catching a glimpse of Ireland's soul.

"Operation Sea Lion" by Peter Fleming — The projected invasion of England in 1940 is discussed in this account of the German preparations and the British countermeasures.

"The Case of Cornelia Connelly" by Juliana Wadham — This is an extraordinary tale of a Philadelphia woman who married an Episcopal minister, bore him five children, converted to Roman Catholicism when he did, became a nun so he could enter the priesthood, founded a teaching order in England and is a candidate for sainthood.

"The Woman from Sicily" by Frank Swinnerton — A fascinating study of evil and corruption is unraveled in this fast-moving narrative.

"Remember Me to God" by Myron S. Kaufmann — A family whose drama embraces the community, country and humanity is the center of this social comedy.

"The Bible and the Common Reader" by Mary Ellen Chase — The distinguished author reveals profound depths of human interest in the literature of the Bible. Her work has been called a brilliant interpretation.

K of C, Masons Hold Beef Dinner

Some 200 men, 100 Knights of Plymouth Council 3292, Knights of Columbus, and 100 Masons of Plymouth Rock Lodge 47, F & AM, gathered at 6:30 p.m. on Monday evening, October 28 to participate in the eighth annual Friendship Dinner. The dinner was held at the Masonic Temple with the Knights of Columbus as host for this year's affair.

John A. Fisher, state advocate, K of C, presented George Roble as toastmaster for the evening. Roble is a past grand knight and past district deputy of the K of C.

Past Grand Knight Roland Francis welcomed the assemblage with Walter Gregory, past master, F & AM responding. Toastmaster Roble then presented Wilfred T. Connelly and Glen N. Alt who gave their respective addresses. Connelly is the past state secretary and currently is state deputy and supreme director in the K of C. Alt is worshipful junior grand deacon, Grand Lodge of Michigan, F & AM.

Introduced along with their officers, were Harry Gerst, worshipful master, Plymouth Rock Lodge and Richard S. Waga, Grand Knight, Plymouth Council. Co-chairman for the dinner were Arnold Williams and Larry Zielasko.

The roast beef dinner was prepared and served by the ladies of the Order of Eastern Star.

Scout District to Meet Nov. 5 in Garden City

Four-hundred pot-luck dinners will be served at the Sunset District Boy Scout annual meeting, November 5, at 6:30 p.m. at the South Junior High school in Garden City.

The guests will include Cubmasters, Scoutmasters, Explorer advisors, Committeemen, Den Mothers and Members at Large with their wives and husbands. They will hear Amos R. Shields, Chief Scout Executive, deliver his last address to the district before his retirement this year.

New officers of the district will be introduced and Scouters awards and Scoutmasters keys will be presented. The theme of the annual meeting is "You Make the Difference," expressing the appreciation for all the work done by Scouters in the past year.

Maccabee News

At the special meeting it was decided to have pot-luck supper at our next meeting, Wednesday, November 6 at 6:30 p.m. Bring your own table service and a dish to pass. All our wishes for a speedy recovery to Dora Woods, who has been in the hospital.

Garnished Pumpkin Pie Makes Tricky Treat for Halloween

A bit of eye-catching witchcraft is this Jack O' Lantern Pie. The face, made on a baker's pumpkin pie, is fashioned from slices of banana and "curls" of Cinnamon-Maple Whip Topping.

These bewitching twins have performed a bit of eye-catching witchcraft to delight the earthly witches on the Hallowed Evening. Halloween, celebrated for more than 2,000 years, began with all-night vigils when bonfires burned to scare away evil spirits. Later, the vigil was combined with a Roman harvest festival.

Symbolizing both traditions, is this Jack O' Lantern Pie to surprise guests at club or group parties.

To make Jack O' Lantern Pie: Purchase as many pumpkin pies as needed from bakery or food mart. Create face from banana slices (dipped first in lemon juice) and a maraschino cherry. For "curls," swirl Cinnamon-Maple Whip Topping from a pastry tube or with a spoon. Cut the banana in half, crosswise. Cut slantwise pieces for eyes and nose from one half.

Next, cut cherry in half to complete the "eye" effect. For the mouth, cut second banana half, lengthwise, trim, and place with tip ends at the mouth corners. Decorate the Jack O' Lantern Pie with "curls" made with the Topping.

To make Cinnamon-Maple Topping: Combine 1/2 cup heavy cream, 1 tablespoon confectioners' sugar, 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon, and 1/4 teaspoon maple flavor. Whip until quite stiff. Fill a pastry tube with the topping and quickly swirl the "curls."

REMOVE FRUIT STAINS
Removing fruit stains from fabrics is as easy as boiling water, say Iowa State College home economists.

That's the treatment they recommend if the fabric is washable. Put the stained fabric over a bowl and pour boiling water over it from a tea kettle held one to three feet above it. The force and heat of the water help to remove the stain, said Belva Covey, extension textiles and clothing specialist.

Perk Up Your Livingroom With New Cushions, Tables

More and more these days, entertaining is being done at home. When your guests arrive, does your living room put its best foot forward? It should. Your guests can can quickly see, by the way you live, what kind of a person you are.

In these days of television viewing, your living room receives much more abuse than it used to. It is no longer the formal "guest parlor." It is clearly what its name implies—a room to be lived in. And it probably shows the effects of having been lived in.

Hours of sitting and watching television have probably taken a toll on your sofa and chairs. The cushions may be sagging and the upholstery may be quite frayed. And perhaps you can even see a path worn in the carpet between the sofa and the television set. Remember all the times you walk back and forth to change channels.

Tables, too, may be the worse for TV wear. You've used them for serving quick snacks while watching a favorite program. Stains, cigarette burns, and rings from beverage glasses do not present an attractive appearance.

It doesn't take much to spruce up your living room and give it a bright, fresh look. Examine your way of living and replace the things which have had too much wear with new things which will fill your needs.

New tables will do a great deal to freshen the appearance of your living room. And when you buy them, invest also in a set of small snack tables with mar-proof tops. These tables fold compactly out of the way when not in use and can be stored easily.

They will save a great deal of wear and tear on your living room tables, if you use the snack tables for serving informally when you have a few casual guests or when you are watching television.

A sofa, too, is a wise investment. It will repay you with many hours of beauty and added comfort. Long hours of watching television may leave you with a backache if you are sitting on a sofa which has lost its spring and is no longer comfortable.

If you do much entertaining, a service cart will save you many steps. It can be a handsome decorative piece against a wall when you are not using it. And, when you have guests, you can load the cart in the kitchen and roll it into the living room for serving.

Take a look around your living room. Just a few little touches are probably all it needs to offer the comfort plus beauty you want.

Helpful Hints

Warm colors include: red, red-orange, yellow and yellow-orange. Cool colors such as blue, blue-green, or violet suggest a forest, a lake or winter. Remember the darker the warm color, the more intimate the room will appear.

In yeast doughs, the frozen storage life of the unbaked dough is very short—about one to three weeks. Some researchers have reported success up to eight or nine weeks. In the freezer, the yeast cells of the unbaked dough slowly die, which explains the short frozen storage life of the unbaked yeast dough.

Next time you want an interlocking puzzle or with crayons. Plain paper encourages children to draw their own pictures rather than coloring in color books.

Some of their small toys work fine on the lap board, too. Try the small trucks, cars and animal figures. They may also like to use small blocks to build things.

Pancake Makeup Deals Blow to Compact Industry

CHICAGO (UP)—When American women altered their nose-powdering technique, they almost wrecked an industry.

Before the pancake makeup fad there were 11 companies manufacturing compacts. Now there are only three still in business.

Of the survivors, two are operating at sharply reduced levels. Only one, Elgin American of Elgin, Ill., has weathered the storm as a national producer.

Milady's switch from loose to pressed powder took this toll: Wadsworth—discontinued its compact line in 1953. Bliss, Metalfield, Columbia and Pilcher—out of business. Rex—sold at auction, 1948. Majestic—in bankruptcy proceedings: Ritz-bankruptcy.

Evans is operating on a curtailed schedule. Volupte changed hands and now is liquidating its inventory.

Allen Gellman, president of Elgin American, said his firm has survived by combining old world craftsmanship with modern production methods.

It also has conducted intensive research into female tastes and buying trends, he said.

Gellman said the market research has turned up some interesting sidelights. For example, floral motifs sell well in small towns and rural areas, but not in New York and some other big cities. Animal motifs sell anywhere.

Shifting trends are nothing new for Gellman's firm. The organization used to make watch cases back in the days when men carried pocket watches.

Now Gellman is crossing his fingers and predicting that women will switch back to loose powder and compacts.

"The average man has trouble pleasing one woman," he said. "Think what it must be like trying to please millions."

Plan Activities For Sick Child

It's often a problem to keep children in bed who are "under the weather" but don't really feel sick. It'll help if you get them interested in some simple activities they can do in bed.

Books to read or look at are just the thing for some children. But if you have a child that wants activity you may need some other ideas.

They'll need some sort of lap board or bed table to work on. A bread board or piece of plywood laid across the lap works fine. You may want to put a pillow or blanket roll under the ends to keep it from tilting. Or you can cut the sides out of a cardboard box and use the bottom for a table. The ends act as legs to hold it steady.

With a flat surface to play on they can work on puzzles or with crayons. Plain paper encourages children to draw their own pictures rather than coloring in color books.

Some of their small toys work fine on the lap board, too. Try the small trucks, cars and animal figures. They may also like to use small blocks to build things.

MODERN DESIGN—Large 8-inch squares make up this eye-catching cotton bedspread designed for modern living. Each block is formed of yellow, cinnamon, ecru and chocolate squares. This spread can be used on a bed or on a studio couch, and measures 68 inches by 102 inches. Directions are also given for making a matching pillow. If you would like to have instructions for making the Modern Block Bedspread, simply send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Department of this paper with your request for the leaflet.

Why Not Be Just A Christian?

In these days of many sects and conflicting teachings, it is a great advantage to be simply a Christian, and nothing more than a child of God, a follower of Jesus Christ.

"But," you ask, "is such a thing possible under the religious circumstances of our day?"

How is the average man ever to find his way where so many paths cross one another, and each one seems as good as the rest—where so many guides shout, "Come this way!" and "Go that way!" and "Lo here!" and "Lo there!"

It does indeed seem impossible; and many who would be glad to be on the right ground before God, have despaired of the undertaking.

Some have concluded that none are right and have settled down in indifference. Some think that all are right, and drift on, compromising and without convictions. Some, weary of the problem, have found a false rest in trusting in an "infallible church," or some "infallible" man who settles all questions by his simple dictum. Another says, "I go to hear them all, and when I find the right one I will accept it." That latter way seems fair to the average man. But what an impossible task it would be to investigate all the creeds and doctrines! Time would fail, and head and heart be confused and bewildered if anyone should seriously attempt it. It usually terminates in the man's accepting the first thing he happens to meet that seems good and plausible. Barring the case of many who lack the interest and sense of need to make any personal, independent search after truth, it is the general way for a man religiously inclined, to take up the first view that strikes and pleases him, or to fall in with any sect or denomination with which he has happened to have been thrown in contact. Having identified himself with the said view or sect, he considers himself thenceforth bound to loyalty to that party, and is henceforth set for its defense, and super-sensitive to any criticism of it.

Such are the usual courses men pursue in regard to religious views and affiliations. But that none of these ways will lead a man to the truth ought to be clear to any man who will think a moment. It is a mere chance game. And the chances are not as good as one out of a hundred. In fact truth is never obtained by blind grabbing, or by following the plausible teachings of men.

Instead of trying to examine and decide upon any or all beliefs and teachings extant, there is a shorter and better way. That way can be summed up in one word:

"CHRIST"

"Come unto ME AND LEARN OF ME." (Matt. 11:28, 29) There is an instant relief in the very thought. We can set aside the whole troublesome tangle of beliefs and go straight to Him who is "the Way, the Truth, and the Life." (John 14:6) He alone is right and true, and everyone who would be His disciple must come directly to Him and learn of Him.

But after the first flash of light and hope such a thought would bring, there rises a misgiving. "Do you suppose that I could understand, that I could find in the one, true way by taking the matter up personally with the Lord, through His word? Have not others done so and failed? Is there not vast room for differences and misapprehensions? Where so many good people have erred and strayed can I hope for better success? I am not learned; where the scholars and doctors differ, how can I know I am right?"

But the difficulty is not so great as it appears. In the first place it is not a matter of scholarship, or of man's wisdom and ability, but a question of Attitude and of Trust; of trust, in that we can not afford, like Peter, to look at the winds and waves of difficulty (Matt. 14), but we must rely on the goodness and faithfulness of the Lord that calls us. He who will let no true soul perish in its search of Him and His ways; and it is a question of attitude, because it is not to the wise and prudent that God shows His way (Matt. 11:25; I Cor. 1:26, etc.), but to the poor in spirit, the humble, the hungering and thirsting after righteousness; to those who will to do His will, to the "sheep" who hear his voice. (Matt. 5:3-6; John 7:17; 10:4, 27). It was in the same breath in which Jesus stated this, that He invited the weary and the heavy laden to come to Him that He might give them rest; and to assume His yoke and to learn of Him. (Matt. 11:28-30) This then is the one great step, for every man who would find the Way: Commit your life with all its hope and prospect to the Lord Jesus, and address yourself to learn from Him. There is a sphere in which scholarship is helpful and I do not say that men may not help one another; but the only true help a man can after all render his fellowman is to point him to the word of the Lord that there he may find and see for himself what is the will of God in Christ Jesus to us.

THE RESULTS OF THIS STEP

If everyone should do this it would be fatal to many a thriving business and institution. The religious philosophers who for ages have darkened counsel with learned words; the theologians; the "infallible" dogmatists; the theorists who spin out "systems of truth"—they would find little market for their wares. True unity would come. It has been feared all along that if every man should go to the Word of God for himself independently, confusion and division would result. Not so. The divisions come by departing from the word, by adding to it, taking from it, setting up men's one-sided views of standards. And, above all, the divisions are kept alive because the vast majority of professed believers blindly follow their religious leaders, and have almost all their religious knowledge at second hand. But those who with open, desiring hearts come directly to Jesus for light, obtain such a view of truth, such a mutual consideration, and such a free scope for growth that having become one in Christ they will tend more and more to be one with another.

THEY HAVE A RIGHT TO ALL THE TRUTH

Every theory, every system, every sect has some truth. But the Christian has all, has a right to all, and access to all. If any sect in the world holds any portion of truth, the Christian has the greater right to accept and proclaim it. He does not need to join the sect in question to get what truth it may happen to have. He does not even need to sift through the chaff of those human theories. In Christ he has all beforehand. It is his good and pleasant task to explore the rich mine of truth. Jesus Christ "in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden" (Col. 2:3). At the same time he does not say, "I am right," in the sense that he knows all about everything; but he says "the Bible is right; Christ is right." He holds his mind open. Every day he comes to the truth revealed to get juster ideas of what he learned before and to learn more. He has no "ax to grind"; no position to force; nothing to "harmonize" or to "explain away"; no theories to promulgate; no human creed to defend. The truth makes him free. He calls no man "Rabbi," no man "Father" upon the earth: One is his Teacher and Master, even Christ; and One is his Father: God (Matt. 23:8-10). No man may bring him into that bondage of human theory and creed which is today so gravely affecting the religious world.

A minister of a certain denomination once said to one of these simple

Christians, "I should like to have a talk with you—I think I could make a ——— out of you." "How would you go about it?" asked the Christian. "Why, I would show you where you are wrong," answered the preacher. "But that would not make me a ——— ist. It would just make me a better Christian," he replied.

These simple children of God come to the Bible with new fresh minds, divested of all human preconceptions as far as they can know, with open hearts, to bring in the teaching of the Lord. They strive to give Him a clean tablet to write on, not one already scrawled over with opinions of their own or other men's. They are not so foolish as to let some theory spinners and system-builder preprocess their thoughts by filling their hearts and minds with his specious reasoning wherewith he hopes to build his sect. For when we commit ourselves to a human teacher and leader, we lose the voice of one true "Rabbi" above. And the prepossession resulting may easily be fatal. It puts colored glasses before the seeker's eyes, and insinuates basic notions and opinions which ever after he reads into the text of the Bible, and which he thinks thenceforth he sees standing out on every page, although they exist only in his mind. It is needless to say that a man who has any regard and desire for just pure, unbiased truth will not allow his judgment to be affected beforehand by putting himself under the influence and dominance of some man's plausible theories. "And this I say lest any man should beguile you with enticing words," says Paul. "As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord so walk ye in Him; rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead body. And ye are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power." (Col. 2:6-10).

THE SERIOUS SIDE OF IT

Now if it were only a matter of preference and taste as to what a man should religiously believe and be, no man would need to be greatly troubled over this question. One could adopt whatever belief he likes best and follow it sincerely and the outcome would be safe. But "There is a way that seemeth right unto a man but the end thereof are the ways of death." (Prov. 14:12). "It is not in man that walketh to direct his steps." (Jer. 10:23). Most people think that any course honestly pursued will lead to glory; which is but another proof that man's ideas of religious things are usually wrong. Jesus declared that many would come to Him "in that day" and protest that they had professed in His name and done many wonderful works; to whom He will confess, "I never knew you; depart from me ye that iniquity." Therefore, He adds, "Whosoever heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them (not what priests or doctors have commanded) I will liken him unto a wise man, who built his house upon a rock." And vice versa, "Every one that heareth these sayings of mine and doeth them not shall be likened unto a foolish man who built his house upon the sand." (Matt. 7:21-7).

It is not by what some man said you ought to do, nor by any human teaching or theory (no matter how correct it seem, and how perfectly it "fits in") that we shall be measured "in that day," but by what Christ has said. "The word that I have spoken the same shall judge him in the last day." (John 12:48). He that rejects the word of Christ today does so at terrible loss and infinite peril.

HOW CAN WE BECOME CHRISTIANS?

The reader who would become a Christian, a simple child of God and a follower of the Lord, can become such in exactly the same way that men were taught of God to pursue in the days of the apostles. In Acts chapter two, verses 36-41 an account is given. Read, believe and obey. "Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly, that God hath made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom ye crucified. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and the rest of the apostles, Brethren, what shall we do? And Peter said unto them, Repent ye, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ unto the remission of sins; and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call unto him. And with many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, Save yourselves from this crooked generation. They then that received his word were baptized; and there were added unto them in that day about three thousand souls."

The path here marked out is not only infallibly right, but exceedingly simple. It is God's way. Follow its simple pattern, and it will solve the great initial problem for you. For thus men became Christians, and members of the true church 1900 years ago, under the preaching and direction of the inspired apostles. And evidently the man who takes these steps of faith today, will be nothing else, and belong to nothing else. Afterwards he may "go on into perfection," to find milk and meat in the word of Christ and to grow in His likeness. (I Pet. 2:1; 2 Cor. 3:18).

The Book of Acts is replete with teaching and illustrations on this point. Any one perplexed on the matter of baptism should get a concordance and by means of it hunt up every passage in which "baptize" and "baptism" occurs. The word of God will leave the right impression on the unprejudiced mind. In fact it is hardly a matter of disagreement, for it is generally acknowledged that whatever else may or may not be "baptism," immersion certainly is baptism. And we should want nothing else than what is certainly right.

As to church-relationship—there is but one church mentioned in the Scriptures. "There is one body, and one Spirit, even as also ye were called in one hope of your calling; one Lord, one faith, one baptism, one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all." To this God will add him as He did those who were being saved in apostolic days (Acts 2:47). On any question the word of God will shed true light, and as much light as is needed. So shall a man stand on a firm rock, and be responsible directly to God alone, and deal with Him at first hand through his word, free from all fear and bondage, except the fear of God and the yoke of Christ, which is easy and light, and he shall find rest for his soul. This is the exalted privilege, and calling of the simple Christian. Let every man see that he fall not short of it.

Senator Potter reports

... the latest news from Washington of special interest to Michigan ...

THE PRINS CASIMIR, a chunky little freighter flying the red, white and blue Dutch flag, took on a load of canned cherries at Muskegon last week, then swung north around the Straits of Mackinac, down past Port Huron, and opened her hold at Detroit to receive machinery and drugs. Outbound for Rotterdam and Antwerp, she belongs to the Fjell-Oranje Lines and is typical of the small vessels plying the lucrative Lakes trade.

By the time the Prins Casimir had passed Cleveland, Buffalo and Toronto, Captain Pierre Huijmand had taken on trucks, flour, hides and acid. His ship, expertly handled by a thirty-man crew, was drawing almost fourteen feet, maximum for passage through the shallow canals north of the St. Lawrence River. Only at Montreal could she load to her 1,800-ton capacity for the deep-water voyage across the Atlantic.

Not as long as a football grid-iron and only 42 feet across her beam, the Prins Casimir takes a week to sail from Detroit to the sea. But as she steams along comfortably at ten or twelve knots, she has a window on the future. She threads around giant dredges chattering the lush Thousand Islands and bypasses mammoth half-completed concrete works, getting a close up of tomorrow's great Seaway as it comes into being.

By 1959, when the Seaway opens, the Prins will trim 14 days from her 44-day round trip. New Canadian and American locks will reduce to a matter of hours the present two-day passage through the Soulanges and Lachine canals.

Banking on the Seaway's potential, her owners are planning two 10,000-ton, 100-passenger freighters for exports of American farm implements, chemicals and manufactures, returning with European glassware, clocks, liqueurs and the like. United States ship operators are making their plans, too. Farrell lines, for example, is studying Seaway-Africa possibilities.

No doubt about it, the St. Lawrence Seaway will corner the bulk cargo tonnage of iron ore, wheat and woodpulp. But at the moment no one really knows how much of the highly profitable cargoes of manufactures will move over the new route. Reason: Seaway tolls, which will have a bearing on freight rates, have not yet been set.

I plan to report on tolls in future letters, but in the meantime you should know that there is a move afoot by the railroads, long-time Seaway foes, to render the route useless by boosting tolls. Right now the enemies of cheap water transportation are trying to shift the Seaway Corporation into the Department of Commerce, where they hope to strangle it stillborn. As one who has worked for years to bring the Seaway to reality, I do not intend to stand by and watch this happen. I have alerted President Eisenhower to the danger.

Harold Shirey of 605 Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth, a general foreman of a unit manufacturing department of Burroughs Plymouth Division, has had his responsibilities doubled by appointment to a like position in a similar unit, it was announced by General Manager Robert A. Niemi.

Shirey joined the Plymouth Division in 1945 as a parts straightener, and in 1949 became a foreman of a riveting and burring department.

Early in 1950 he was transferred to the new Burroughs Strathleven plant in Scotland, where he assisted in training Scottish workers in assembly operations.

Returning to the Plymouth Division in mid 1951, Shirey was assigned to defense engineering and was made foreman of a defense project in 1953. He was appointed foreman of a unit manufacturing department, and in 1956 after a departmental division was made general foreman of one unit. He retains his position in addition to his new appointment.

'Desk Set' Cast Named By Director Hal Young

The Plymouth Theater Guild Board of Directors knew what they were doing when they asked Hal Young to direct the opening fall production "The Desk Set." Hal showed his fine directorial hand in the spring production of "Over Twenty-one."

At a casting meeting the other evening Young picked the following cast members: Jacquie Gagnon (Bunny Watson), Ford Sutherland (Abe Cutler), Loretta Young (Peg), Dr. Bennett Hill (Richard), Bonnie Kellogg (Sadel), Jack Scott (Man in Shirt Sleeves), Lillian Dickinson (Ruthie), Maude Laury (Lady in Blue Suit), Saxe Holstein (Miss Warriner), Russ Creel (Reporter).

About 40 people turned out for the tryouts and those that didn't get parts for this play are invited to come back for the next tryouts in December.

Hal Young has announced the rehearsal schedule to the cast. For the next four weeks on Monday, Wednesday and Fridays about 20 people will be whipping themselves into a theatrical frenzy in order to present a professional performance of "The Desk Set." Dates for the "Desk Set" are November 27, 28, 29 and 30th.

Meanwhile, Plymouth Theater Guild members are progressing quite satisfactorily with their first season ticket sale. Already almost 100 tickets have been sold.

Some of the Guild members that have sold season tickets are as follows: Phyllis Kelly (17), Jim Blackman (14), Betty Gondeck (7), Betty Houghton (5), Jeanne Fronck (4). The sale continues until November 27th.

Men In Service

Leroy H. Schacht
Leroy H. Schacht, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Schacht, of 9545 Ridge rd., completed recruit training October 11 at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The 11-week course included instruction in all basic military subjects and the firing of all basic infantry weapons.

Upon completion of training new Marines are assigned to a unit for further infantry training, or to one of the many Marine Corps schools.

James E. Lowden
PFC James E. Lowden, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Lowden, 9244 Morrison avenue, recently qualified as expert in firing the M-1 rifle in Germany. A jeep driver in Company D of the 11th Airborne Division's 502d Infantry, Lowden entered the Army in January, 1955 and arrived in Europe in January 1956. Lowden, a 1954 graduate of Copley High School, Detroit, was employed in civilian life by Northern Stone Co., Highland Park.

Railroads Name New Head of PR

LANSING — Retirement of Roob H. Allie, Detroit, Executive Secretary and Director of Public Relations of the Michigan Railroads Association, was announced Wednesday by Richard H. Mason, manager.

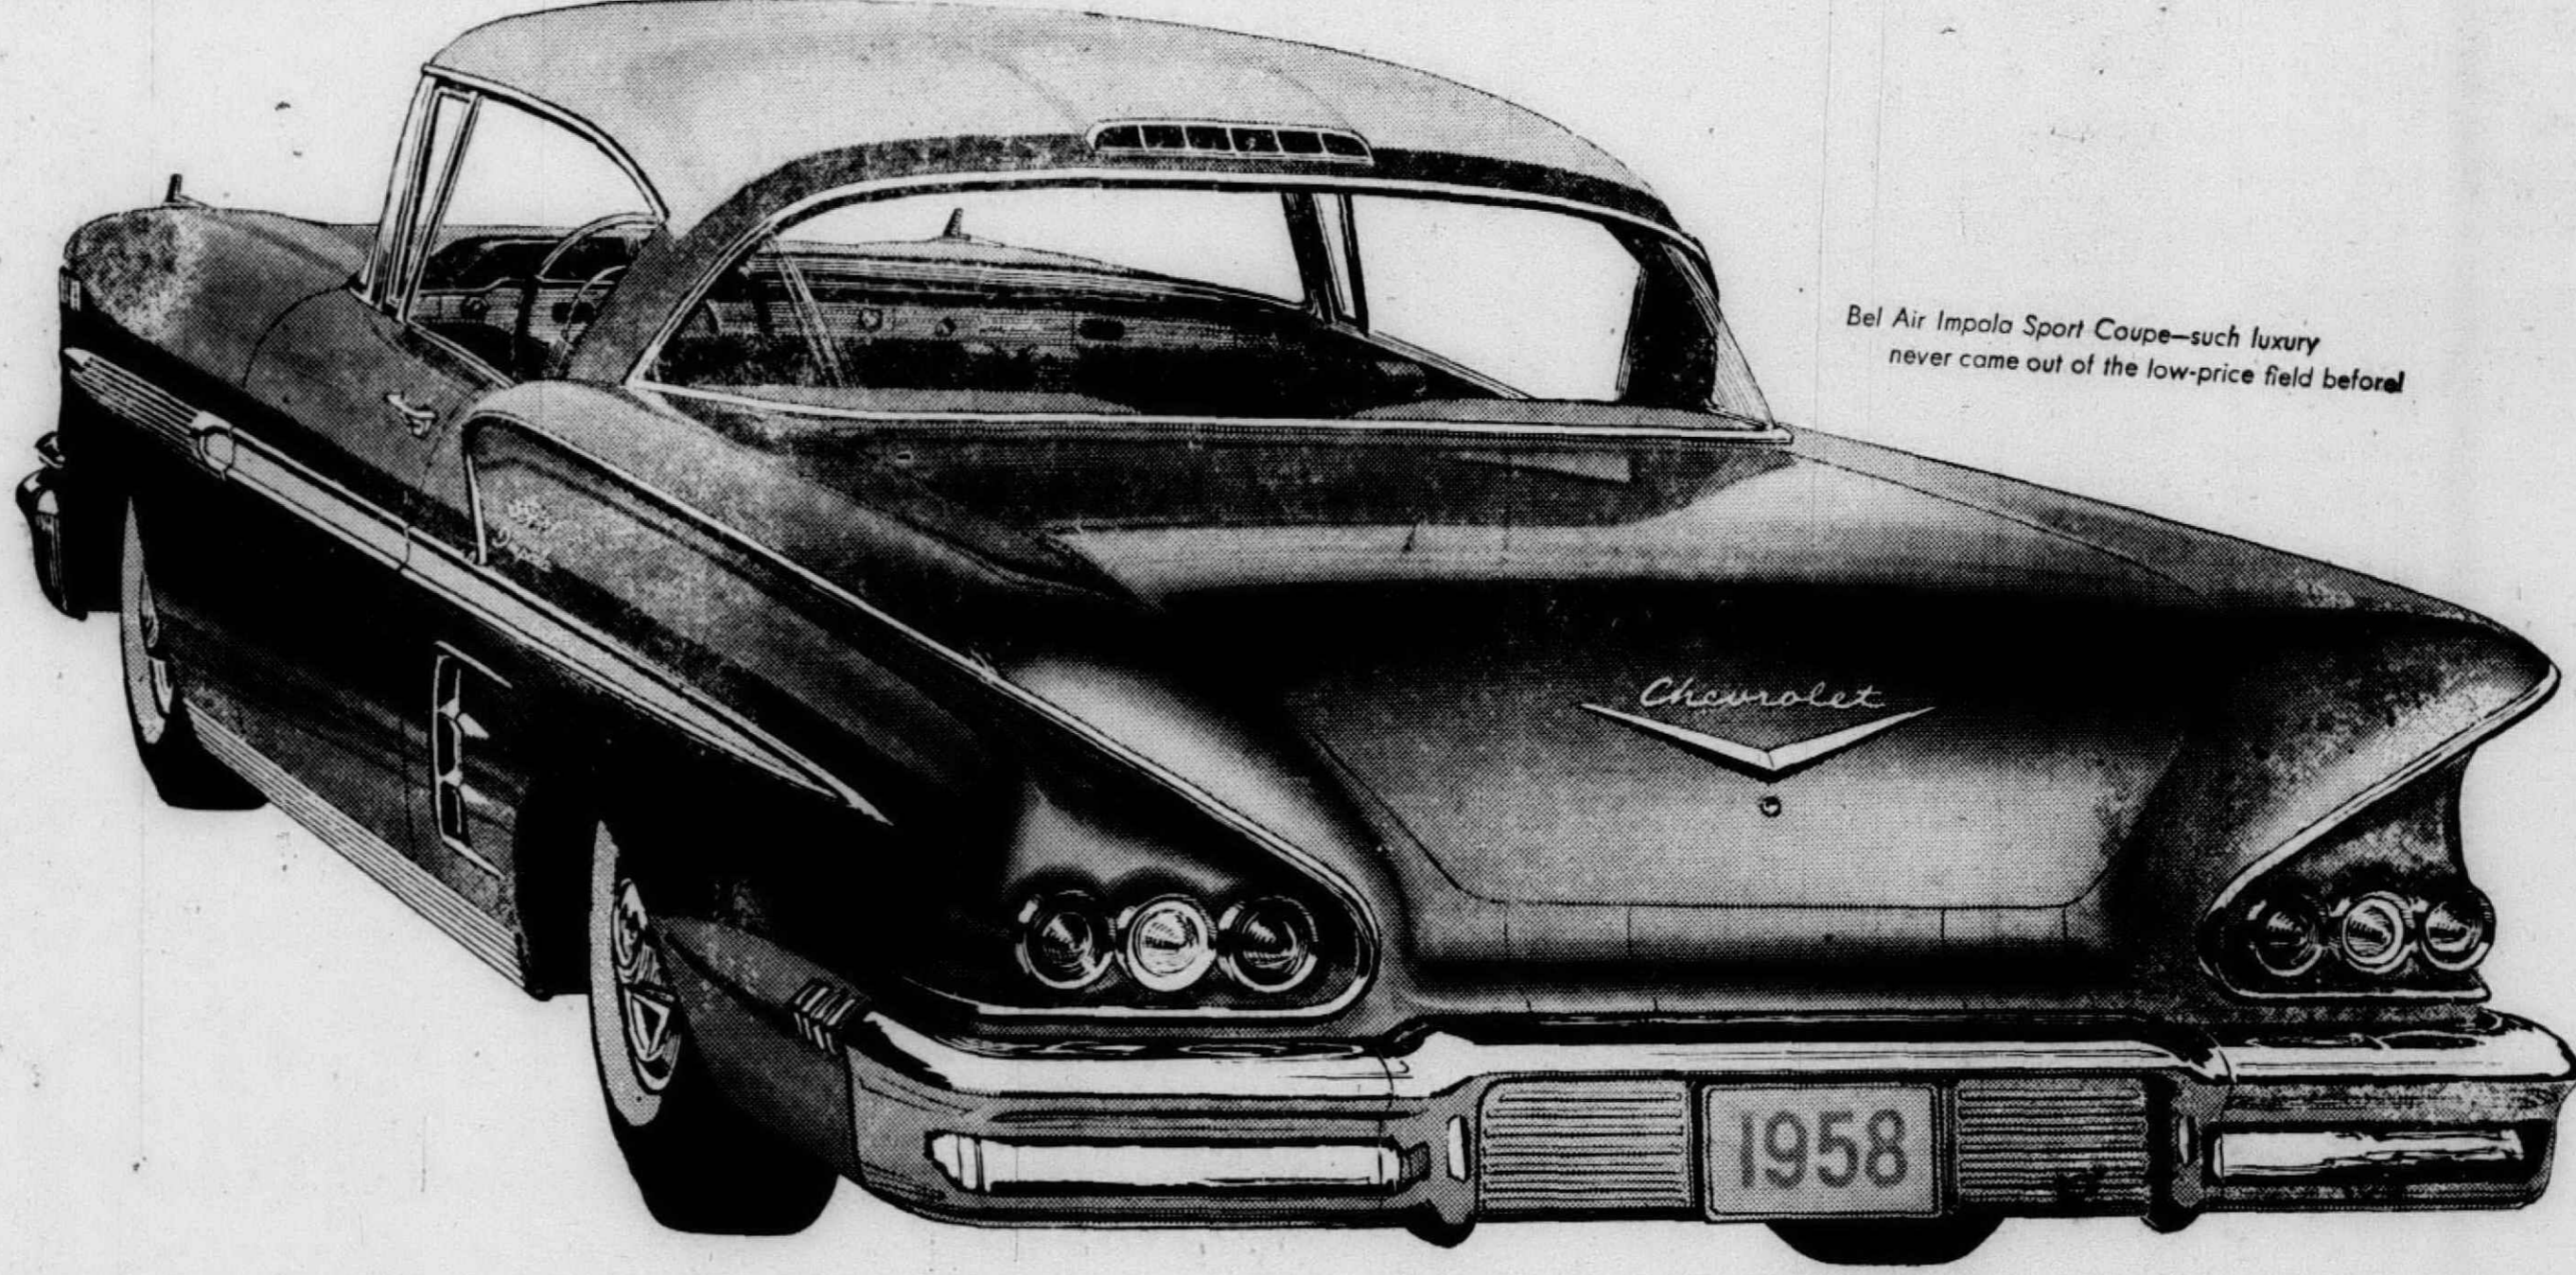

At the same time Mason announced the appointment of George Van Koevering, editor and co-publisher of The Zeeland Record, as Allie's successor. He will have his headquarters in Lansing, starting November 1st.

Allie joined the Association in 1933 as publicity director and in 1951 was given the added duties of executive secretary. A native of Houghton, he formerly worked on newspapers in Houghton, Hancock, Lansing, Duluth, Minn., and in Detroit. Before entering railroad service he spent several years in the advertising business.

Van Koevering comes to the Association after an outstanding record in the newspaper field. He has spent his entire career with the newspaper founded by his father, Adrian Van Koevering, in 1893.

Since he assumed the direction of The Zeeland Record in 1948, the paper rapidly gained recognition as one of the outstanding weekly newspapers in the state. It has won numerous state and national awards since then, and in 1953 became one of the few weekly papers in the nation to install rotary press equipment similar to the dailies. He has been active in the Michigan Press Association and has also served as a newspaper judge for state and national contests.

Remedy Cracked Walls

CRACKED or disfigured walls can easily be remedied by covering them with paneling of predecorated hardboard. This paneling can be applied right over the old surfaces to present a fresh and durable decorative finish.

Marlite blocks are a popular choice for such jobs. Built for trouble-free service, the blocks are made of sturdy tempered Masonite hardboard and surfaced with baked plastic, which defies dirt and wear.

Their 16" square size makes Marlite blocks easy to handle, and their tongue-and-groove joint design makes them simple to install. They are applied with wall-board adhesive and metal clips.

While much used for ceilings, the blocks lend themselves to interesting wall treatments. In wood grains, the pattern direction may be altered on adjacent blocks for a basket-weave effect. Two plain colors may be combined to create a checkerboard pattern.

The blocks may be used with companion planks, 16" wide and 8' long.

A new highway bus is 60 feet long and has an accordion section in the middle that allows it to bend on the curves.

Family Room Meets All Needs

This spacious all-purpose room is a classic example of how to mix traditional and modern furniture. The Italian metal dining table and chairs in the foreground blend perfectly into the contemporary design of the sectional sofa and coffee table conversational grouping. Light colored shirred shades in background provide a dramatic contrast for the room's dark woods and upholstery. The floor which coordinates the kitchen and the family room is Kenzie solid vinyl tile in a striped terrazzo pattern. Shelves and wall cabinets attached to the brickwall in asymmetrical design take care of the television set, books, works of art and the cabinet houses high-fidelity record player and radio.

'Prefabs' Join Luxury Class

Prefabricated house has eight rooms, three baths.

Prefabricated homes have come a long way from the plywood Nissen huts and corrugated steel Quonsets that sheltered GI's during World War II.

Today, "prefabs" are widely accepted in both lower and middle-priced home brackets and are reaching out for the "luxury" home market. The home illustrated here is an example. Built in Toledo by Scholz Homes, Inc., it fits into a high-priced neighborhood as well as any of the conventionally constructed homes surrounding it.

Completely Air-Conditioned. The house has eight rooms, three baths, a full basement, and is completely air conditioned and insulated. It was built to sell for $45,000, including the cost of a large lot on an exclusive street.

Despite its "custom" look, the house is a standard model and can be reproduced anywhere east of the Rockies. Framing, wall and roof panels, asphalt shingles, and ponderosa pine windows are included in the factory pre-assembled "package." Various "prefab" manufacturers differ in how much of the final house package they supply, but most include wall, floor, and ceiling panels and roof trusses or rafters, for delivery by trailer to the prepared foundation.

The panels are factory-assembled on large flat jigs by trained labor, inspected by supervisors, then loaded in correct sequence so that they go into place at the site quickly and fit together perfectly. "Under roof and lock and key in one day" is the "prefab" manufacturers' boast.

Roof Color Choice
The local builder-dealer adds finish flooring according to local taste, and masonry exteriors and fireplaces when desired. The customer normally has the choice of asphalt roof shingle color, so that the roof, usually the most dominant feature of any house, will fit in with the neighborhood and the customer's own decorating plan.

Rich blue asphalt shingles set the tone for the subtle gray brick exterior of the Toledo house. Preservative-treated, Colonial-style wood windows and exterior ponderosa pine panel doors are architecturally correct for the traditionally designed house. The doors are pre-hung with factory precision. The house is fully insulated with mineral wool thicknesses recommended for maximum economy in air-conditioned homes: six inches of mineral wool between the ceiling joists, four inches in the walls. The slab model has two-inch perimeter insulation all around. Research has shown that such quantities of insulation reduce the initial cost of an air-conditioned house by permitting a smaller cooling unit. Operating costs are materially reduced.

Soft Green Blend Best-Liked Color On U. S. Rooftops

Americans still prefer green on their rooftops, although their tastes run more to soft, muted tones than they did 15 years ago, a national study shows.

The study, undertaken in 1956 by the Asphalt Roofing Industry Bureau, a manufacturers' association, shows that almost one-third of the asphalt shingles shipped from plants were in soft, blended greens.

A similar study made in 1941 revealed that 20 percent of the asphalt shingles that year were in a bright, solid green. More than 20 percent were hexagonal in shape. The new study shows a trend away from hexagonal shingles, with only 5 percent sold in 1956. Most popular today is the square-tab strip shingle.

Preferences for color differ in various regions of the United States, according to the study. On the Pacific Coast, light gray was most popular, while homeowners in the Northwest preferred solid black or blue-black and gray blends.

In the Southeast, straight white led with 24.8 percent of the shingles sold, and in the Southwest, white shingles totaled 16.9 percent. In both the Southern regions, solid color shingles were preferred.

Of the total asphalt shingles shipped from 68 manufacturing plants during the survey period, 11.3 percent were white.

If you could examine an Eskimo's igloo you'd discover a really economical heating system in operation. The igloo is kept warm by body heat and a small oil lamp.
The igloo's thick dome of snow is a good insulator. It seals in the heat given off by the oil lamp and the people and keeps the chill Arctic winds out. The entrance slopes down through the igloo floor before emerging outside. Since warm air rises, heat doesn't escape along this route.

One of Plymouth's most important irritations, the Hotel Mayflower, celebrated its 25th birthday this week.

This week marks the 24th anniversary of Perfection cleaners.

Slap quarantine on eight townships as contagious disease infects 500 hogs.

Mrs. Alious Owens of Northville road and her sister, Mrs. McGee of Schoolcraft road have returned from a week's vacation in Decatur, Illinois, and Union City, Tennessee.

Mr. and Mrs. George Matthews of Schoolcraft road have arrived home from a three months visit to England, Ireland and Wales. This is the first trip in 42 years that Mr. Matthews had made to his former home.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClumpha left Saturday for their home in Tribe Hill, New York, after spending two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Blunk and Mrs. Manna Blunk.

Livonia is going to get a $280,000 city hall. For going ahead with progressive leadership, Livonia officials this Sunday will hold cornerstone ceremonies at 2:30 p.m.

Fourteen guests attended the birthday party of two year old Deborah Price, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Price of Pacific on Saturday afternoon. Among the guests were her grandmothers, Mrs. John Percival and Mrs. John Price.

House guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson and family of Ann street is Mrs. Edward Ison from near Travers City, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Krieb and family of Shelbyville, Indiana are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Gretzinger of North Harvey.

Miss Peggy Plummer was honored last Thursday evening at a dinner and shower at Arbor Lill by her associates in the office of the Daisy Manufacturing Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Nichols from Zeeland, Michigan were the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pankow of Maple avenue.

For several months, members of the Business and Professional Women's club have been busy making beautiful towels, doilies, table cloths and pillow cases which will be put into a new cedar chest and given away by the club. The proceeds from the ticket sale will go into the club's welfare fund. The chest and contents will be on display in the Blunk department store for the next 10 days.

Many from Plymouth were in Detroit last Saturday to hear President Hoover lash his opponent Governor Roosevelt for alleged misstatements. Most of those attending were unable to get too close to the speaker but Mr. and Mrs. C.H. Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. J.W. Henderson, who were very late in arriving there because of a delay in Plymouth secured the best seats possible, in the front row directly in front of the speaker.

Appearing elsewhere in the Mail is an advertisement for bids for a suitable site for Plymouth's new post office.

Members of the Plymouth Kiwanis club royally entertained their ladies with a delicious dinner at Idyl Wyld Country club Tuesday evening. The committee was headed by Charles Garlett and Edwin Schrader. Music was by the radio singing stars, the Ryan sisters and dancing music was furnished by Patterson's orchestra.

Purity Market is celebrating its fifth anniversary this week. Mr. Galin praised the Mail stating that newspaper advertising has been his best success aid. He has many specials which you will want to check.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm Jr. and family, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Grimm Sr. motored to Niagara Falls and Canada last week.

Many weddings have been taking place in this vicinity during these beautiful fall days. On October 18, Miss Annabelle Hauk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Hauk became the bride of Wilfred Heidt. On Tuesday October 25, Miss Leona Hauk, another daughter of the John Hauks became the bride of Edwin Reber of this city. On last Saturday evening Miss Geraldine Payne of Blunk street wed Harold D. Stratton of Grand Rapids.

Miss Elizabeth Beyer will entertain her Sunday School class at the Lutheran church at a Halloween party at her home on Liberty street. Fifteen little girls and boys are expected to attend.

Jake Hines, who underwent an emergency appendectomy at Plymouth hospital recently has returned to his home and coming along fine.

Doctors in this vicinity announce that business is "disgustingly dull" but the people in general don't seem to be too alarmed about it.

F.L. Becker is much occupied this week picking a bumper crop of apples.

Ed Hoisington of nearby Stark, who has been with the Barnum and Bailey circus during the summer has returned home for the winter months.

The home talent play entitled "Those Good Old Days" was given last night at Murray's Corners and the ladies netted about $26.00. Tonight it will be given at Dixboro and tomorrow at Sheldon.

Friends from all neighboring communities met at the L.A.S. fair in Newburg Fair Wednesday evening.

There was a large crowd on hand for the "Jolly Fellows Pedro Party" held at Wayne Chilson's Saturday night.

No school this weekend as most of the teachers are attending the Teachers Institute in Battle Creek this week.

Mrs. Eli Nowland and Mrs. William Smitherman visited in Ypsilanti and Ann Arbor last week.

Mrs. L.C. Hough and daughter, Marguerite and Miss Hattie Berdan attended the crystal wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gray in Lansing last Friday.

The government collected $59,065 in fines last year from persons who inserted brief notes in newspapers and packages at second and third class rates of postage. As many of the victims sinned through ignorance of the law, warning posters have been ordered placed in all post offices.

John L. Gale has just received a new stock of nice lamps ranging in price from 25 cents to $6.50. All kinds of perfume for Christmas including: Flower Girl, Fyvie Bouquet, Heliotrope, White rose, violet, carnation, purple lilac, and Crabapple blossom.

Mrs. Otto Beyer and infant daughter, Elizabeth spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Peter Gayde.

High Sales Win Trip To L.A. for Kirchoffs

Announcement has just been made that Kirchoff Implement Company, International Harvester dealer in Plymouth, will be awarded a luxurious all-expense trip for himself and Mrs. Kirchoff to Los Angeles later this month. Announcement was made by Harvester's district farm equipment sales office in Toledo, Ohio.

Martin won the Pacific Coast vacation for outstanding sales performance this year on retail deliveries of Farmall and International tractors and McCormick combines and balers.

While in Los Angeles, the Kirchoffs will be entertained at the Moulin Rouge Cafe, attend sessions of the National Retail Farm Equipment association convention, enjoy a South of the Border party for sales contest winners at the Biltmore Hotel, have lunch at Knott's Berry Farm, and, of course, visit Disneyland. On their final night in Los Angeles, they will be given a festive Hawaiian evening by International Harvester with a Honolulu Luau party at the new Cocoanut Grove of the Ambassador Hotel.

Nature Workshop Set For Saturday in Detroit

The Detroit Audubon Society will hold its second annual workshop Saturday, November 2, at 7:30 p.m. in Bushnell Congregational church on Southfield at Grand River.

The workshop, for all adults interested in nature activities work, is especially geared for youth leaders and teachers. Twenty stations will be set up, at which demonstrations will be given by experts on such topics, as nests, weather, trees and leaf prints, trailside feeding, Christmas greens and astronomy. Ample parking is provided for those who attend the free workshop.

Are you the kind of girl who agrees to have a date with boy — if he has a car?

Q—"Dear Elinor: I like a boy who lives out of town. He is working here in town at present, but the problem is that he hasn't a car so we can't go out on dates. Can you help me?"

Ans.—Here's a "Flash!" (news) for you! You CAN have dates without a car. They can be fun, too. Surprised?

Give this new idea a whirl. Instead of wasting date-time wishing for a car, think up ways to have date-fun at home... at friends' homes... in the backyard... hiking or riding the bus to a picnic spot... riding the bus to a movie.

Invite another couple and this boy to your home for TV, games, dancing, record-playing. Play Scrabble, bridge, Samba or hearts... or rummy. Or take over the kitchen and make fudge.

Food is always a sure-fire attraction, so serve ice cream and cake or cold drinks with cookies or brownies (easy to make with a mix). Peanuts or popcorn.

If you really like a boy and if you enjoy being together, you'll have fun walking to the neighborhood snack shop for hamburgers or a soda.

It's better not to go out in a car with a boy until you've had several dates with him and know him well, anyway, when you're still in the early 'teens (as you stated in a part of your letter not printed above).

(For help with personal problems, write to Elinor Williams at this paper. As many letters as possible will be answered in this column.)

Schools Gain Power

Do you believe the schools are conspiring to take on more power?
 "Many people think the schools are stepping into areas of authority that should properly be the business of the home or other organizations," says G. Max Wingo, professor of education at The University of Michigan.
 "However, in this country it's practically traditional that whenever we have a serious problem the first thing that pops into the heads of the American people is, 'This is an educational problem.'
 "The trend seems to be definitely in the direction of the schools' taking a widening responsibility in certain aspects of services which historically they haven't had," says the U-M educator.
 "The schools have gone into such public areas as health services and instruction, safety instruction and practices, conservation of natural resources and the extension of various services of transportation, food services, supervision during the noon hour, and recreation and leisure time activities," he says.
 He points out that the school has gradually, and often reluctantly, taken these services in response to the country's basic needs. "The health program, for instance, probably received its initial impetus during World War One when the draft uncovered widespread physical unfitness."

 Professor Wingo states, "There's no way the trend can be reversed because these things have come about as the result of basic changes in the social patterns of this country."
 "The changes definitely are not the result of power tactics on the part of the schools and they can't be attributed to the 'break-down' of the family."
 "What's really happened is that the school has assumed a wider responsibility because it is the only institution, so far, that can possibly offer such services."
 Why? "Because the school has most of the children most of the time. It's that simple," he says.
 "What role is the school going to play in racial tolerance?"
 Professor Wingo says, "I believe the school will have to assume responsibility for this, and it won't be done by moralizing about it. It will have to be done by running the life of the school so that tolerance is a day-by-day experience of each child. Social and cultural and learning activities will have to be organized so that children live tolerance rather than just hear about it," he concludes.

The Last Straw

"Life Begins at Forty"

By ROBERT PETERSON

Here's a retirement hobby that ought to be copied in cities all over the country. It was created by Mrs. Alice Thompson, 68, of West Chester, Penn., who had observed that many older people in her area never got around to traveling because they had no one to travel with or didn't feel up to the task of making arrangements. Her answer was to form the Friendship Traveling Club, a non-profit organization that conducts bus tours for older and retired people.
 Her tours are organized for a special kind of older person — the kind who want to travel but are equally interested in sharing their travel pleasures with congenial companions. The trips are thus quite different from the usual tour arranged through a travel bureau where you frequently have little in common with the occupant of the next seat. Members of the Friendship Traveling Club generally get to know each other before departing on trips and regard friendly fellowship as one of the Club's high purposes.

Mrs. Thompson donates her time to the Club and finds her reward in observing the pleasure which older people derive from traveling and meeting new friends. In the past six years she has taken several thousand older people on bus tours. Sometimes they take short excursions, perhaps to nearby Atlantic City for a weekend, to nearby Philadelphia to see an ice show, or to Washington, D. C. for a day or two of sightseeing. But they take long trips too, riding during the day and putting up at good hotels at night. They've been to Chicago and to the Thousand Islands of the St. Lawrence River. And not long ago they took a three week trip to Florida.

While you might wonder how older people hold up on travels, Mrs. Thompson reports that they are excellent travelers. Many of her travelers have been well along in years, and a few have been in their 90's, yet none has been hurt or become seriously ill while on a trip.

Wouldn't it be fine if every community had a Friendship Traveling Club? Of course some retired people prefer to travel on their own and need no prodding to get them to hit the road. But a traveling club such as the one formed by Mrs. Thompson will meet the needs of a large segment of retired people, particularly those who don't want to travel alone or don't feel up to the demands of making arrangements. It will also be useful to those who have slipped into a rut and need to be encouraged to find more pleasure in their retirement years by taking occasional trips with congenial companions.

Some people say pearls bring on tears (although I have yet to hear about a girl who refused a gift of pearls because of this superstition.) But it reminds me of the beautiful and moving Mexican folk-tale John Steinbeck retold in his story "The Pearl." It is about a poor fisherman who finds "the greatest pearl in the world." Its possession sets him to dreaming of a life that always was beyond his reach. How he fares with his dream you better read in the story, and it will be worth your while.

How About Missile Stocks?

Q. I have some funds that I can afford to risk. Would you advise me to put part of these into missile stocks and what issues would you suggest?
 A. The missile program as of now is in what the military call a very fluid stage. There is little doubt in my mind that the recent success of the Russians in testing an intercontinental ballistic missile, followed closely by "sputnik" may force an upward revision of the defense program in this whole area of rocketry. What specific items such a change would affect is at present a matter of pure speculation.

My own inclination is to sit tight for a while and see what develops out of the present welter of confused thinking in government circles. There are many ways of speculating in missiles, the most obvious being through the aircraft makers who for the most part hold the prime contracts. In this latter category are General Dynamics, prime contractor for the Atlas 5000-mile ballistic missile now being tested; Lockheed, responsible for Polaris, a 1500-mile missile now under development; Douglas, builder of 1500-mile Thor which is undergoing tests; and Martin, prime contractor for the long-range Titan still in the research stage. North American is making the power plants for several of the foregoing, and General Tire is also important in this field. With most of these companies the danger is that an upward revision of missile spending may mean sharp cuts in aircraft procurement which is their major source of income.

ROCKET FUEL STOCKS
 A safer speculation in my opinion would be one of the chemicals which have taken a leading position in rocket fuels. These companies, unlike the aircraft makers, have an established earnings base in other products which is unlikely to be affected by changing procurement policies. Included in this category are the Mathieson, which has a contract to deliver a new fuel to the Air Force, and American Potash, a major producer of boron chemicals which have great promise as propellants for jet and rocket engines. Aside from rocket fuels in which it is spending a great deal for research, I like the long-term growth prospects of American Potash in commercial chemicals. The stock has declined 40% from its recent high and appears to me to be in a reasonable buying range.

Q. A Michigan investor writes, "My list of glamor stocks and growth stocks has left me badly burned on paper on the recent declines. I would appreciate a suggestion of more stable issues to balance my list with funds now available."
 A. Many investors besides yourself have been getting a taste of what a serious reaction can do on a short-term basis, to a list of stocks which get the biggest play during a bull market. I have always believed that there is a place for a proportion of defensive-type issues in most substantial long-term growth portfolios except those in which is of over-riding importance. Defensive issues, particularly necessities-of-living stocks, have built-in stability because of the nature of their business. They rarely rise to extremes during periods of bullish enthusiasm and customarily decline much less during times of considerable pessimism like the present. Foremost in this category are the utilities.

Among these I would suggest Duquesne Light Co., serving Pittsburgh; Baltimore Gas & Electric, operating in the Chesapeake Bay area; Consolidated Edison, supplying New York City. Food stocks such as National Dairy, foremost in milk products, and Campbell Soups are suitable for your purposes. Pharmaceuticals have defensive characteristics as well as good growth potentials and here I like Merck and Parke, Davis, both of which have behaved relatively well during the recent decline. American Can, an industry leader, is a long-time favorite of mine for steady market performance and moderate growth. Somewhat less stable but with a history of resisting recessions are the food chains. In this category I like Safeway Stores, First National, Kroger and Winn-Dixie.

If Your Name is PEARL

BY ANN REYNOLDS, Ph.D.
 The pearl is the birthstone for October (although a different list has it as the one for June), so let's look into the name "Pearl." It obviously was the desire to express how precious the new baby is to her parents that prompted the use of "Pearl." Just as other words for precious materials, ruby and opal, for instance, the use of "Pearl" as a name came about during the last century only.

Although the pearl figures in the list of birthstones, it is not a stone or a mineral, but an organic matter, the product of the pearl-oyster. The name itself is a Latin word, meaning "a tiny pear." But even the tiniest pear-size pearl would be of immense value. One very large one of 250 carats, which is almost the weight of a small egg, was found near the island Margarita off the Coast of Venezuela, and offered to Philip II. of Spain, in the year 1579.

"She named the Infant 'Pearl' her mother's only treasure." This is the way Nathaniel Hawthorne, in "The Scarlet Letter" explained why Hester Prynne chose this name for her girl baby, an elusive, elflike child of iridescent beauty. And way back in the 14th century the unknown poet of the stirringly beautiful poem "The Pearl" chose this jewel as a symbol to convey how dear to his heart the small daughter was he had lost; his own dear pearl, precious, without spot. The child lived up on earth less than two years before she slipped away from him, so that he could behold her only in a vision. That vision that came to him at her grave is described in his poem.

 Since time immemorial pearls were highly valued, and always coveted as jewels. In a parable Jesus likened the Kingdom of Heaven to a precious pearl a merchant went to seek, and which he bought for the price of all his possessions.

Some people say pearls bring on tears (although I have yet to hear about a girl who refused a gift of pearls because of this superstition.) But it reminds me of the beautiful and moving Mexican folk-tale John Steinbeck retold in his story "The Pearl." It is about a poor fisherman who finds "the greatest pearl in the world." Its possession sets him to dreaming of a life that always was beyond his reach. How he fares with his dream you better read in the story, and it will be worth your while.

STATE OF MICHIGAN, COUNTY OF WAYNE

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION

STATE OF MICHIGAN COUNTY OF WAYNE NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION

TO THE QUALIFIED ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF WAYNE, STATE OF MICHIGAN:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN That at a special election to be held in said County of Wayne, State of Michigan, in the regular voting place in each election precinct in each City and Township in the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, on Tuesday, the 5th day of November, 1957, between the hours of 7:00 o'clock a.m. and 8:00 o'clock p.m., Eastern Standard Time, the following propositions will be submitted to the electors of said County:

I Port of Detroit Bonding Proposition

Shall the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars and issue its general obligation bonds therefor for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

II Tax-Rate Limitation Increase Proposition

Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be levied against all property in the County of Wayne, Michigan, for all purposes except taxes levied for payment of obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased, as provided by Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution, by sixteen one-hundredths (16-100) of one (1) mill (.16c on each $1,000.00) on each dollar of assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in the County of Wayne for a period of sixteen (16) years, from 1958 to 1973, both inclusive, for the sole purpose of providing funds to pay principal and interest on bonds to be issued by the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, in the aggregate principal sum of not to exceed Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars, if authorized by the qualified electors, for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

Only properly registered electors who have property assessed for taxes within the County of Wayne, or the lawful husband or wife of such persons are entitled to vote on the bonding proposition.

All properly registered electors may vote on the tax-rate limitation increase proposition.

These propositions are being submitted in accordance with the following resolution adopted by the Board of Supervisors of said County on the 16th day of September, 1957, by the requisite three-fifths (3-5) vote:

Resolution of Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne

WHEREAS, the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, established pursuant to the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, has, pursuant to the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, approved a comprehensive port development plan after the requisite public hearing thereon, and by resolution adopted on September 3, 1957, provided for the borrowing of the sum of not exceeding Thirteen Million Five Hundred Thousand ($13,500,000.00) Dollars for the purpose of acquiring the land and properties and constructing the various port facilities encompassed within said plan, subject, however, to the approval of the Board of Supervisors of Wayne County and a three-fifths (3-5) majority of the qualified electors of the County of Wayne voting thereon at a general election or special election called for such purpose, as required by the provisions of said law;

AND WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of the above law, said resolution has been duly certified to this Board for its approval thereof and for the necessary procedures to submit the bonding proposition to vote of the qualified electors of the county of Wayne, being the municipal corporation comprising the Port District;

AND WHEREAS, extensive meetings and discussions relative to said comprehensive port development plan have been held with the Port Commission and the Port Committee and Ways and Means Committee of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne, as a result of which it is the determination of the Board of Supervisors that said plan should be approved, but that only that portion of the lands and properties embraced in said plan within the following description should presently be acquired, constructed and financed by the issuance of bonds, to wit:

LAND ACQUISITION

All that area in the City of Detroit bounded on the westerly side by the easterly line of Private Claim 563, which line is 150 feet, more or less, west of the westerly line of Scotten Avenue extended southerly to the U.S. Harbor Line; bounded on the north by the southerly line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway-Wabash Railroad right-of-way; on the east by the westerly line of the Evening News Association property and the north-westerly line of present West Jefferson Avenue and the westerly line of West Grand Boulevard at its intersection with said railroad right-of-way; and bounded on the south by the U.S. Harbor Line.

PORT FACILITIES

1. Office space or building, approximating 15,000 sq. ft., of office and service space;
2. Two (2) transit sheds of appropriate design and construction, each 160' x 360', more or less;
3. Grading and paving of approximately 202,900 sq. ft. of operating area for cargo and vehicle handling and/or storage;
4. Suitable and adequate trackage for rail car handling, including double trackage at wharf side and platform side of transit sheds;
5. Appropriate quay type wharf and a wharf facing of approximately 1,105' having a depth of water of 27-1/2' and wharf apron area of approximately 66,300 sq. ft.;
6. And such other work of light construction and technical nature as may be required;

the balance of the land, properties, and port facilities specified in said plan to be left for future determination as to acquisition, construction and financing thereof;

AND WHEREAS, the estimate of cost of the acquisition of the lands and properties within the above designated area, and the acquisition of the port facilities specified for said area has been estimated by Harley, Ellington and Day, Inc., architects and engineers, of Detroit, Michigan, to be Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars;

AND WHEREAS, the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit has concurred in the program herein set forth, which is a revision of its original immediate acquisition program as outlined in its resolution adopted September 3, 1957, and duly certified to the Board of Supervisors;

AND WHEREAS, the Port Commission has submitted to the Common Council of the City of Detroit, and legislative body thereof, said comprehensive port development plan, all of the area and territory embodied in said plan being located within the corporate limits of the City of Detroit, and said Common Council, by resolution, has approved said plan, all in accordance with the provisions of Section 30 of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended;

AND WHEREAS, because of uncertainties under the law as to whether the Port District is an agency of the county and thus is limited in its taxing ability for the payment of bonds by the limitations expressed in Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution, or is an independent municipal corporation having a charter tax rate limitation, and thus is not subject to the limitations of said constitutional amendment under the decisions of the Michigan Supreme Court, this Board feels that it is necessary in order to provide for all eventualities to submit to the qualified electors on a separate ballot, or as a separate proposition on voting machines, a proposition providing for an increase in the constitutional tax rate limitation as authorized by said Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution in an amount sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds over a maximum fifteen (15) year period;

AND WHEREAS, this Board determines that the procedures, for said special election should be as provided in the so-called "County Public Improvement Act," being Act 118, Public Acts of 1923, as amended, there being no procedure specified in detail in Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, which procedures will also comply with the provisions of the general election law of the State and will provide complete notice and opportunity for the qualified electors of the County to register and vote on the propositions to be submitted;

AND WHEREAS, it is the intent and purpose of this Board and the Port of Detroit Commission, if the bonding proposition is approved by the requisite majority of qualified electors of the County of Wayne, to devote the net revenues from the operation of the port facilities to the retirement of the bonded indebtedness, thus reducing the amount of taxes necessary to be levied for the payment of said indebtedness to that extent:

NOW THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF WAYNE THAT:

1. The comprehensive port development plan as proposed by the Port of Detroit Commission and approved by it by resolution is hereby approved.

2. The issuance of general obligation bonds in the amount of Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars for the acquisition of the lands, properties and facilities outlined in the preamble to this resolution, as a part of said comprehensive port plan, be approved.

3. There be submitted to the qualified electors of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, at a special election herein called to be held in said County, being the municipality whose boundaries are co-terminus with the Port of Detroit, a port district existing under the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, on Tuesday, November 5, 1957, that being the date of the general city election in the City of Detroit in said County, the following separate propositions:

Port of Detroit Bonding Proposition

Shall the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars and issue its general obligation bonds therefor for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

Tax-Rate Limitation Increase Proposition

Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be levied against all property in the County of Wayne, Michigan, for all purposes except taxes levied for payment of obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased, as provided by Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution, by sixteen one-hundredths (16-100) of one (1) mill (.16c on each $1,000.00) on each dollar of assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in the County of Wayne for a period of sixteen (16) years, from 1958 to 1973, both inclusive, for the sole purpose of providing funds to pay principal and interest on bonds to be issued by the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, in the aggregate principal sum of not to exceed Nine Million Five Hundred Thousand ($9,500,000.00) Dollars, if authorized by the qualified electors, for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

4. Said propositions shall be stated as separate propositions on the voting machines or on separate ballots to be prepared and distributed by the County in the manner provided by law, which statement on the voting machines and ballot shall state the propositions in the form set forth in the preceding paragraph.

5. All public officials of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, and all municipal units thereof, within such time as shall be required by law, be and they hereby are directed to do and perform all acts and things which shall be necessary to be done or performed in order to submit the foregoing propositions to the electors of said County at such special election to be held on Tuesday, November 5, 1957.

A three-fifths (3-5) majority of the members-elect of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne, Michigan, having voted in favor of the adoption of the foregoing resolution, the Chairman thereupon declared that said resolution was duly adopted.

STATEMENT AS REQUIRED BY ACT 293 OF PUBLIC ACTS OF 1947 amending the Property Tax Limitation Act

The 17th District Meeting is Friday, November 1st, 8:30 p.m. at the Veterans Community Center. Auxiliary is having election of vice president due to the resignation of Marie Thompson, as she is moving to Atlanta, Mich.

The post's next business meeting is Wednesday, November 6th, 8 p.m. at the Veterans Community Center.

Keep Saturday, November 9th open for the Pancake & Waffle Feed, time - 10 a.m.-2 p.m. Place - Veterans Community Center. Tickets, adults 75c and children, 50c. Everyone is cordially invited.

Circle Wednesday, November 13. That is the Toy Party at the Veterans Community Center, 8 p.m. Refreshments after showing of toys. The public is cordially invited.

A good representation of the Passage-Gayde post and auxiliary attended the dedication of the new Junior High School, Sunday, October 27th, as Robert Wilson, Americanism Chairman presented the flags to William Harding, principal.

Dates for the annual fall meetings which will bring several hundred key Legionnaires to American Legion headquarters in Indianapolis have been announced by National Adjutant F. A. Blackmore. Conference of department commanders and adjutants - November 17, 18 and 19; National commission and committee meetings - November 18 and 19; National Executive committee - November 20, 21 and 22. Dates were set by the National Executive committee at its meeting in Atlantic City immediately following the 39th national convention there. Official notification to those authorized to attend any of the scheduled meetings will be mailed from national headquarters.

Also scheduled is a national conference of department chairmen of Boys' States on November 15 and 16 under the sponsorship of the National Americanism commission.

For the current year, Indiana has provided a next-to-the-top national officer in The American Legion and its three affiliated organizations - Isadore E. Levine of La Porte, national vice commander of the Legion; Mrs. Robert M. Hoey of New Haven, national vice president of the American Legion Auxiliary; Wick Barber of Anderson, sous chef de chemin de fer (vice commander) of the Forty and Eight; and Mrs. Ann Manford, also of Anderson, demi chapeau national (vice president) of the Eight and Forty.

The spine-tingling music of the Skokie Indians, which has helped earn three consecutive American Legion senior drum and bugle corps national championships, has been caught by Epic Records in a 12-inch, 33-1/3 rpm platter. The disc's two sides include 23 numbers, ranging from standard marches such as "The Stars and Stripes Forever" to pop classics like "St. Louis Blues." The versatility of the precision-schooled corps is shown in their versions of "Onward Christian Soldiers," "I Love You Truly," "Nobody's Sweetheart," and "Semper Fidelis," all on the same recording.

The platter may be ordered from Edward Muller, Skokie Indians, American Legion Post 320, Skokie, Illinois, for $3.98. Local record dealers can also supply them under number LN 3341.

An Honor Ribbon will be awarded to all American Legion Posts which by Dec. 31, 1957, have enrolled an advance membership for 1958 equal to or greater than their entire 1957 membership. The ribbon, in The American Legion traditional colors of gold and blue, is flown from the top of the staff of the post's banner. The Gen. John J. Pershing honor award is won by the department with the greatest percentage of its post's earning Honor Ribbons.

Naval Post 373 of The American Legion presented a print of the all-color movie "Stars and Stripes on Display" to Dr. Don C. Rogers, associate superintendent of the Chicago Board of Education, for use in the schools of that city. The film, produced by Indiana University with the assistance of the Legions National Americanism division, illustrates proper methods of displaying and showing respect to the flag. The 16-mm, 14-minute, sound movie may be purchased in color or in black and white. Hope has been expressed that many other posts will follow the lead set in Chicago.

Robert Wilson and Dorothy Knapp, Americanism chairmen, urge all voters to get out and vote on Tuesday, November 5th. It's our duty to our way of life.

Grange Cleanings

The principle topic of conversation this week seems to be about the splendid dinner and party at the Grange hall last Saturday night. The dinner was delicious and was enjoyed by a large crowd. There were quite a few tables for cards downstairs and dancing upstairs. Everyone had a good time.

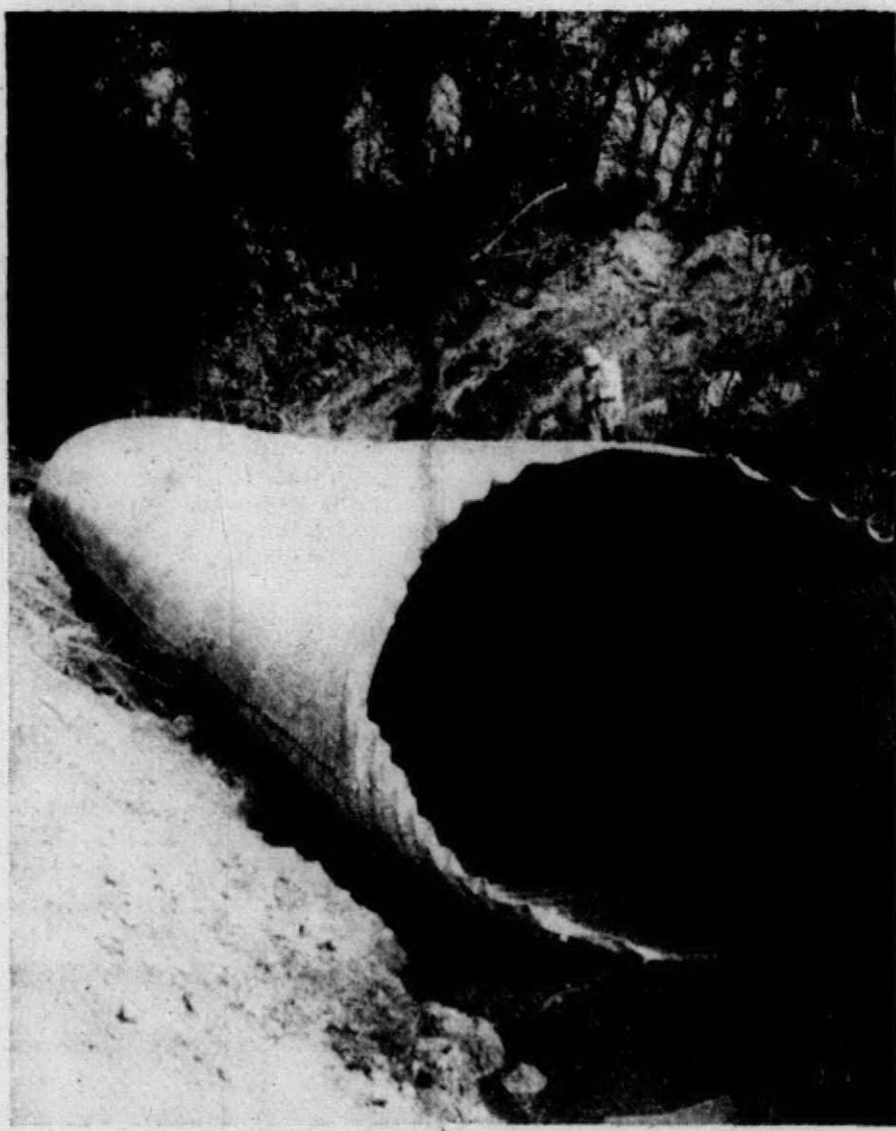

Our next meeting on November 7 is the installation of officers and is an important meeting so try to be present. It is also our usual pot-luck supper night. Bring your own dishes and a dish to share.

Mrs. Cole is very weak and needs constant attention at her home. Mrs. S. N. Thams and Mrs. Ernest Vealey were guests Saturday of Maud Bird of Highland Park.

Practice: November 2, at 1 p.m.; Regular meeting: November 5, at 7:30 p.m.; and Rummage sale: November 8, at 9 a.m. at the Masonic Temple. The Temple will be open November 7, after 7 p.m. to receive rummage for the sale.

Educating Parents-to-be PROVO, Utah - (UP) - Brigham Young University is giving a new course for expectant mothers and fathers—"Heir Conditioning."

A LINK BETWEEN Main street and the new Junior High is gradually taking place. This giant culvert-pipe measuring 92 feet long and over 10 feet in diameter has now been laid in Tonquish Creek at the eastern end of Edison. It cost the city $5,165. It is estimated that 1,000 loads of dirt is now needed to fill over the culvert to span the deep gorge.

Plymouth High School BY LIZ SARAH

The end of the first marking period last week brought with it a much needed (although not really deserved) vacation as students were excused from classes on Thursday, October 26 and Friday, October 27, while teachers attended a Michigan Education Association meeting in Grosse Pointe. This rest will permit students to recover from the shock of report cards. Also, it will enable the sportsmen to do some hunting without missing classes.

Annie Denny, Gloria Bowles, and Dick Alsbro represented PHS at the Student Council Conference which was held October 29 at Ann Arbor. Improvements which were discussed were (1) improving school participation in Council projects, (2) High School assemblies and the Student Council, and (3) improving school morale. Each of our representatives discussed one of these topics.

Parent teacher conferences, a speaker for juniors and seniors and a movie for freshmen and sophomores, a Student Teacher Day (which will be optional) and the replacement of the administrative staff with students are among the tentative plans scheduled by Dick Small and Mary Jane West, co-chairman of the committee to commemorate American Education Week.

Where to go, or where not to go? That is the question faced by many of the seniors who plan to go to college upon graduation. College Night, which is to be held at PHS this year, is scheduled for November 5 at 7:30 p.m. This program is designed to aid the students in the selection of a college. The schools which are participating in this program are: Plymouth, Bentley, Lee Thurston, Clarenceville, Garden City and Redford Union. Students, accompanied by parents, will then have the opportunity to discuss college plans with representatives from various colleges which include: Adrian, Albion, Alma, Central Michigan, Cleary, Detroit Institute of Technology, Eastern Michigan, Ferris Institute, General Motors Institute, Ford Junior College, Highland Park Junior College, Hillsdale, Hope, Devry Technical Institute, George Washington, Kalamazoo, Lawrence Tech, Madonna, Michigan Tech, Michigan State, Olivet, Stephens, U. of Chicago, U. of Michigan, U. of Detroit, U. of Toledo, Wayne State and Western Michigan University.

"A contest of mental powers" adequately describes the chess club's competitive meetings. Congratulations are in order for Terry Haws who ranks first in the tournament standing as of October 15. Occupying respective positions are Mike Stickney, John Van Dyke, Gary Packard, Staton Lorenz, Steve Johnston, Bob Wall and Jim Cutler.

Representing PHS at the regional FHA meeting in Capac, Michigan on October 12 were the following girls: Alice Olendorf, Linda Cracker, Mary Stroud, Marsha Rubey, Geralee Rehebel, Martha Lytle, Marilyn Finney, Donna Cooper, Diane Thomas, Jackie Kiel, Nancy Caldwell, and Sandra Penny, a 1957 graduate.

Rosedale Presbyterian Fall Carnival to Benefit Building Fund for New Church School

BY EARLE POMROY
GA. 1-5231

Hello, everybody, did you miss the last week? After nursing three kids through the flu, the "bug" finally got up with me, and if it were true that misery loves company I sure was happy in my misery, because Gordon came down with it the same night! Guess who got up to get the aspirin?

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wilson, Westmore, gave a surprise birthday party for their son Jim's 16th birthday. Those present were Janet Ringler, Leslie Borgie, John Peterson, Virginia Bork, Arline Fenolio, Don Hopps, Roseanne Drnick, and Tom Kesler, Janet Ringler and Tom Kesler also helped plan the party.

Barbara Snyder, Vermont, parted company with some troublesome tonsils last week.

Renee and John Swain, Virginia, are the parents of a new baby boy, Richard Michael, who arrived Oct. 15 at Harper hospital and weighed six pounds eight and one half ounces. "Ricky" has two brothers.

Well, it sure looks as civilization has finally closed in upon us! Everyone over our way watched with sad eyes last Saturday as the tree cutting crew cut down the very last bit of our "forest" behind Vermont street.

It now looks as barren as the desert and it doesn't seem possible that just last year a friend and I actually got lost way out there!

The Atomic Power plant at Monroe, held open house and Jack Goodrich, Melrose, took Lois and the boys Steven, Richard and David for a visit. The boys enjoyed the trip and got to ride on the power equipment.

The Women's club Book Club met at the home of Ruth Taylor on Auburndale. Co-hostess was Corita Randall, and the book reviewed was entitled "The Durable Fire."

Two heads are better than one! At least members of the Rosedale Gardens pack 761 Cub Scouts who met at the home of Mrs. Florence Allen (den mother) on W. Chicago seemed to think so, for they spent the meeting making paper mache head masks for the Halloween party.

The Madonna Circle of St. Michael's Altar Society met at the home of Florence Allen on W. Chicago. Members present were Mary Hunter, Mary Jones, Marcy Morris, Evelyn Ringler, Eva Craig and Del Bielaczyc.

Jimmy Broscoff, Woodring, celebrated his 11th birthday Friday, October 18 with the flu and a family party. Jimmy's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Keener, Detroit, an aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Keener and cousin Mike, also of Detroit, and another aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Rouse, and cousins Linda and Susan of Redford were on hand to wish him a happy birthday.

Have you circled Saturday, November 2 on your calendar? That's the day after tomorrow, you know, and is the date for Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church's Fall Carnival. This will be a good time to get in some Christmas shopping and there will be gift items, home baked goods, home canned goods and sweets for sale. There will also be an exciting collection of Christmas cards from which you may order and gifts that the children can afford!

This bazaar is held to benefit the Building Fund for the new Church School. Come and help hasten the day when the building can begin!

The Shultz family on W. Chicago have a crazy mixed up bunch of raspberry bushes which are celebrating winter's approach by loading themselves down with berries! The frost is not only on the punkin, but on the raspberry as well, and if the frost doesn't get them the Shultzes are going to have some fine fall eating.

Bruce Parkinson was six years old October 24, Allen was five October 27 and Ann will be four on November 3 so their mother Debby, Melrose, had a joint celebration for them Saturday, October 26 with a birthday luncheon party.

Bea Summerlee and daughter Sandra, W. Chicago, gave a bridal shower for Barbara Boylan, Bea's niece, who will be married Saturday, Nov. 2 in Sandusky. The guests, all relatives of the bride to be were Mrs. E. L. Summerlee of Rosedale Park, Mrs. Taylor Hall, Grosse Pointe, Mrs. James Foote, Battle Creek, Mrs. Bruce Robinson, Detroit, Mrs. John Summerlee, South Lyons, Mrs. John Summerlee, Rosedale Gardens and the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Boylan of Sandusky. Sandra Summerlee will be in the bridal party as a bridesmaid.

Ronda Taylor, Auburndale, came home Sunday, Oct. 20 from college because she had the flu.

Speaking of flu, Bob Dusivogly Blackburn, who exchanged flu for a case of pneumonia is still not doing very well at the time of this writing and is in Mt. Carmel hospital. Kay's mother, Mrs. Gus Lehnerd of Youngstown, Ohio is up helping out with the youngsters.

Tommy Geppert, Virginia avenue, who was five on Oct. 22 and brother Craig who was two on Oct. 16 had a joint party Saturday, Oct. 19 to celebrate. Guests were Mike, Karen and Sandy Kobiata, Vermont, Mary and Jeanine Boner, Virginia, the boy's cousins, Carolyn, Coleen, Cathy and Cheryl Geppert, Fairfield, and more cousins Ann Lee, Mike and Paul Hayden.

Did you remember to call Celia Heaton, Ga. 2-0291 and order your subscription to the P.T.A. magazine yet?

Susan Kaiser, Blackburn, celebrated her ninth birthday Oct. 22 with a spaghetti dinner. Friends attending were Linda Ellerholz, Nancy Haab, Susan and Lynn Lane, Suzanne Ginter and Jackie McFalda.

Happy birthday to Jean Stewart, Louisiana, who celebrated last week!

Wednesday evening, Oct. 23 Kathy Pons, Woodring and Gerri Casler, Louisiana attended a wedding shower in Detroit for Dora Giacomin.

Another new citizen for Rosedale Gardens! Peter Bryan, whose parents are Carl and Peggy Anderson, W. Chicago, arrived at New Grace hospital Oct. 16 and weighed six pounds, five ounces. The Andersons have two other children, Sally and David.

Brownie troop No. 1081 held a weenie roast up in the local park. Since the co-leader, Ruth Lane, was ill, the leader, Lorraine Ellerholz, was assisted by two of the mothers, Peggy Williams and Leah Crain. Since the park has already had tables and stoves removed the girls "roughed it" and took along their own grill and sat upon their sit upon! Girls attending were Mary Sue Williams, Susan Lane, Linda Seifert, Linda Ellerholz, Gail Crain, Barbara Glinski, Susan Kaiser, Ann Remington and Carol Medland.

Jack and Lois Goodrich, Melrose, attended the Michigan State homecoming where they took in the Michigan State-Illinois game. What with fraternity and sorority parties the Goodriches made quite a day of it.

Debby and Russ Parkinson, Melrose entertained friends with two tables of bridge. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Len Goodman, Rochester, Mr. and Mrs. Sy Lip-ton, Oak Park and Mr. and Mrs. Jack McEachryn.

Six cars, 12 mothers, 22 children and the teacher, Mrs. Joyce Holby represented the Rosedale Gardens Cooperative nursery school's older group who visited a cider mill. The mill visited was Parmenter's, which is over 100 years old, and the children enjoyed watching the machinery, the apples being pressed and especially the cider and donuts!

A film "Social Development" will be shown at Rosedale school P.T.A. Wednesday evening, November 6 at eight o'clock. Dr. Phillip Diskin, special service coordinator for the Livonia Board of Education will comment on the film after it is shown. Parents will then divide into groups according to their child's grade for a discussion period. Refreshments will be served by the hospital committee headed by Mrs. Helen Clark.

The next Grant school P.T.A. meeting will be held Nov. 6 at 8 p.m. in the multi-purpose room. The program will be "Know Your School" and teachers will interpret the school program.

Want to know how to attend the Women's Club card party Thursday evening, November 7 at 8:30 P.M.? Just get three friends to make up your table, locate a deck of cards and his yourself over to Ellie Button's house, 11325 Melrose, for tickets, which are $1.10 each. There will be table prizes, and for heaven's sake don't eat dessert that night, for dessert and coffee will be served at the beginning!

Jean and Harold Puls, Ingram, had Mr. and Mrs. Nottingham and their children Pat and Mike of Three Oaks, Mich., as house guests.

New people on Ingram! Mr. and Mrs. Hackett and their two children have moved into the house where the elder Hacketts lived.

Tom Rutherford, W. Chicago, went pheasant hunting last week up near Cass City and got six of the birds. Over the weekend he took sons Douglas, Tommy and Bob hunting with him.

Linda Jacobs, Berwick, left last Thursday afternoon for a weekend at Harbor Beach where she attended a homecoming game and dance. Linda was the guest of Mary Lou Ludke.

There was a toy demonstration at the home of Dorothy Rimer recently. Demonstrator was Mrs. Fred Churchill of Livonia and guests were Beverly Wichman, Betty Eates, Stella Mazurkewsk, Alice Beck, Margaret Frost, Jen Sherwood, Mable Downing, Vi Barton, Tutti Schei, Norma Shelden, Jackie Shelden and Vivian Quick.

Everybody reported a nice time at the Women's club pot luck dinner. Mrs. Mayme English Lillote gave readings. Hostesses were Jean Champe, chairman, with Edith Hansz, Marge Trick and Texie Andrew.

A new Brownie troop at Rosedale school, as yet unnumbered, held its investiture Oct. 23 at the home of the leader, Mrs. Evelyn Turner on Merriman. Co-leader is Mrs. Alice Smith. All the mothers were there and the girls serenaded them with the song "Hello, Hello, Hello!" Each mother accompanied her daughter up to the leader who pinned on the Brownie pins which were to remain upside down until the new Brownie did a good deed. Refreshments of juice and cookies were served, and more songs and games completed the meeting. New Brownies are Carolyn Core, Martha Glinski, Nancy Loucks, Peggy McDonald, Nina Naas, Barbara Nabesny, Lucy Ormand, Mary Beth Ott, Nancy Puls, Sandra Seleen, Nina Shirey, Christine Smith, Connie Sullivan and Trudy Turner.

Tom and Joan Patterson and children Kenneth and Cheryl of Westmore left Oct. 25 and returned Oct. 28 from Ohio where they visited Tom's sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Roberts, in Youngstown and another sister and brother in law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Carone in Warren.

Douglas Rutherford, W. Chicago, celebrated his sixth birthday with a theater party in Plymouth. Guests were Michael and Mark Scofield, Robby Peterson, Jeffery Allen and Tom, Bob and Nancy Rutherford.

Bob and Gerri Casler, Louisiana, entertained at a dinner to celebrate Gerri's birthday. Guests were Tony and Kathy Pons, Woodring, Kathy's mother Mrs. White of Detroit, and Gerri's mother, Mrs. Barr of Detroit.

Bud and Beth Thiede, Louisiana, celebrated their third wedding Anniversary Oct. 16.

Little Kenneth Patterson, Westmore, celebrated his second birthday with an afternoon party for ten children and then again that evening when his grandparents and aunts and uncles came over for a family party.

My life is now complete!! Not only do I have a by-line, I've received my first "fan" letter, suggesting, among other things that I should keep my trap shut and that I wasn't worth the paper it was written on! The letter was from an Elvis fan (a rather young one, to judge by the hand writing) and he is real mad at me because I don't like Elvis and states that I had my "Roaring Twenties" and this is the "Rocking Fifties!"

For the writer's information, I spent my teens in the "Thoughtful Thirties" when we didn't have much, but we did have one thing—MUSIC!

He Got Away
SYRACUSE, N. Y.—(UP)—Police Thomas Stassi and John Bozzuto reported they stopped and questioned and then released a "suspicious" motorist. About 15 minutes later the police radio flashed a report that the man had robbed a service station, minutes after the officers questioned him.

Members of the Passage-Gayde post 391, the American Legion, are busily engaged in making preparations for a Pancake and Waffle Feed to be held on Saturday, November 9 at the Veterans Community center between the hours of 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Keeping in mind that many children will not be able to eat a full pancake plate, the Legionnaires will serve waffles to the children, and to the adults who prefer them. There will be sausages, coffee and milk for the children.

All Plymouthites are cordially invited to have their mid-day snack with the legion. The ticket donations are being kept at a nominal amount of 75c for adults and 50c for children. Tickets will be available at the door. Those interested in securing a block of tickets for their group may contact any member of the committee composed of Commander Harry Burleson, Robert Wilson,

William Langmaid and Ernest Koi.

Proceeds of the affair will be used by the post in carrying out their numerous community service programs.

Expensive Comic Book

EVANSVILLE, Ind. — (UP)— Hollis Green, owner of a barber-shop here, is searching for a $275 comic book. Green told police he hid the money in one of many comic books stacked in a back room of his shop. Some youngsters came in to trade comic books, and after the swap, Green discovered the book containing his money was missing.

Dues Paid

ZIONSVILLE, Ind.—(UP)—As a reward for returning a lost wallet containing $90, the Eastern Star lodge dues of Mrs. Edith Bean were paid for five years by Mrs. Charles Smiley, owner of the wallet.

The Hallowe'en dance Saturday, October 26th was a great success. Prizes were given for those in costume, first prize, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Young, second prize, Mr. and Mrs. William Ray and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hitt.

President Beverly Brown, 4th District President, Virginia Bartel and Marian Groth, attended the dedication of Plymouth Community Junior High School. The outdoor American flag was presented to the school during the ceremonies.

The Smorgasbord dinner will be Sunday, November 10th at the VFW Hall. Ticket chairman Gertrude Danol would like to remind the members that the early dinner hours are already reserved, however, we have a number left for the 3, 4 and 5 o'clock hours. The menu is planned in such a way as to have ample food for each hour. Tickets are available at Marquis Toll House. Call 917 for reservations, weekends call 2632.

From Training Course

Officer Calvin C. Brown, of the Plymouth police force was graduated from a special four-week Basic Police Training Course at Michigan State University, Oct. 25.

Twenty-two men completed four weeks of rigorous training, which began Sept. 30 at Kellogg Center, under the auspices of the M.S.U. School of Police Administration and Public Safety and the Michigan Police Academy.

During the course, the men became well-versed in the Michigan Motor Vehicle Law, first aid, criminal procedure and evidence, probation and parole, traffic law enforcement, accident and criminal investigation, report writing, fire arms, defensive tactics, interviewing and interrogation, the police and delinquent youth, case preparation and other subjects.

Mrs. Pauline Wagners of 208 South Rogers had the Winona Club meeting at her home on October 25th.

The fifth and sixth grades had a surprise birthday party last week for their teacher Mrs. Huff at the Northville grade school. The Book Club met at the home of Mrs. W. Leonard Howard on Eight Mile road. "Women Surveon and Autobiography" by Elsie K. LaRoe was reviewed by Mrs. Howard.

Guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Ellison of West Dunlap street will be Mr. Ellison's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Gasper of Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Robert Niemi, Mrs. F. G. Higgs, Mrs. John Burkman, Mrs. James Cowie, Mrs. Thomas Cummings and Mrs. Glenn H. Cummings attended the International Tea for the Woman's National Farm and Garden association at Fairlane in Dearborn last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. George Gleason celebrated their anniversary this month. They were married 58 years October 11th. Brownie Troop 5 are making winter bouquets from dried weeds. The gaily painted weeds are placed in special containers, also made by the members. Troop leader is Mrs. June Gregerson.

SCHOOL BOARD MINUTES

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held in the home of Mrs. M. Perlongo, 1010 S. 1st St., on Monday, September 23, 1957.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet; Mr. Blunk and Mr. Isbister.

Also present: Mr. Perlongo, attorney; Mr. Becker, architect; Mr. Wall, public relations consultant; Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. Mack, Mrs. Terry, Mrs. Mackie and Mr. Smith of the Plymouth Education Association.

President Fischer called the meeting to order at 8:00 P.M.

Mr. Wall presented for consideration a rough draft of the annual report. He was commended for his work and advised to proceed with the publication.

Mr. Perlongo explained the terms of the proposed purchase agreement between the Board of Education and Greenspan Development Company for the acquisition of the school site.

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Stecker to approve the agreement as proposed and authorize the president and secretary to sign the document in the name of the school district. The purchase price for 9.822 acres of land with all improvements is to be $46,500.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

Board members and Plymouth Education Association members in turn expressed themselves in regard to the need for maintaining and strengthening relationships between the two groups. It was mutually agreed that reports and means must be found to achieve this objective and that a regular scheduled meeting each month would be arranged for this purpose. Topics of common concern which were noted include the following:

1. professional growth and evaluation
2. curriculum development and improvement
3. summer program
4. communication between the teacher in her classroom and the board members
5. personnel policy development and interpretation
6. school finance
7. school community relations

In preparation for the next meeting of the two groups scheduled for Monday, October 21, Superintendent Isbister agreed to distribute copies of present personnel policies and other board resolutions affecting personnel.

A letter from Mrs. David Gates of the Woman's Club addressed to the secretary of the board asking opinion and advice on a teacher of the year program was read. This matter will be studied.

It was moved by Mr. Zoet and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to approve the increase from $75 to $100 in the gate admission charge for football games, providing the additional $25 is set aside in a fund for athletic ground improvement.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Mitchell and seconded by Mr. Stecker to authorize the superintendent of schools to appoint the election inspectors for the special school election to be held October 14, 1957.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

Approval was given to the plot plan and the plans and specifications prepared by Mr. Becker for the new elementary school. He was authorized to advertise for bids which will be opened on October 28, 1957 at 8:00 P.M.

Meeting adjourned at 10:35 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held in the home of Mrs. M. Perlongo, 1010 S. 1st St., on Monday, September 9, 1957 at 8:00 p.m.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker, Mr. Zoet, Mr. Blunk and Mr. Isbister.

Also present: Mr. Perlongo - School Attorney, Mr. DeMotte, Mrs. Conover, Mr. Lyons, Dr. Foust - Outgoing and Incoming Officers of the School Community Planning Group, Mr. Spensler, Mr. Bates and Mr. Richwine.

The Board discussed with the School Community Planning officers various problems facing the Community School District and invited the continued cooperative and helpful suggestions which have characterized the work of the Group in the past. It was noted that the Group was advisory in nature and it existed as a constructive force in helping to improve the Community Schools. It was further pointed out that when recommendations coming from the Group were not accepted by the Board definite reasons for the Board's rejection would be reported back to the Group.

Mr. Perlongo reported on the progress made in drawing up the purchase agreement for the purchase of the school site from the Greenspan Development Company. Safeguards, which the Board asked for, in the agreement included:

1. Permanent ingress and egress to the school site from Schoolcraft.
2. Adequate water supply.
3. A time limitation on use of the school site for the movement of trucks and other power equipment for the subdivision development.

Mr. Galin, by proxy due to illness, indicated his interest in selling to the school his property on Mill Street adjacent to the new Community Junior High School. He presented for consideration a breakdown of his costs for the land and building. Superintendent Isbister was instructed to invite Mr. Galin to be present at the September 23rd Board Meeting.

Mr. Richwine, when invited to express his opinions relative to the Mill Street frontage, indicated that he felt the Galin property should be purchased now and later on some satisfactory arrangements could be worked out, when the Board was ready for the purchase of the remainder of the property.

Bids for the purchase of a sixty passenger school bus in accordance with specifications were opened and read as follows:

Name of Bidder	Chassis	Body	Total Price
Berry and Atchinson	GMC	Carpenter	6,040.00
		Superior	6,072.00

West Bros., Edsel, Inc.	Inter.	Wayne	6,925.00
		Oneida	7,090.00
		Superior	6,715.00
		Carpenter	6,891.50

It was moved by Mr. Zoet and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to accept the low bid for a G.M.C. Bus in the amount of $6,040.00 from Berry and Atchinson Motor Sales.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

The minutes of the last regular and the intervening special meetings were approved as read.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to approve the payment of the following bills:

PAID BILLS	Amount
Check No. 1276 - Payroll - August 16, 1957	14,462.66
Check No. 1277 - Payroll - August 30, 1957	14,328.14
Check No. 1278 - 1467	45,405.427
Check No. 31 - 80	28,936.01
	142,535.62

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to authorize the superintendent of schools, business administrator and the secretary of the Board of Education to sign applications for the entrance to the safety deposit box in the National Bank of Detroit.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

After considerable discussion of the financial situation of the school District as it relates to debt retirement schedules, interest rates on school bonds, state equalized valuation, tax rates, future school building needs, school sites, and etc. It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to call a special election on Monday, October 1957 for the purpose of asking the school electors to approve the establishment of a building and site sinking fund to be financed by a 2.5 mill tax levy for a period of five years, 1957-1961, both inclusive.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing that the following resolution be adopted:

RESOLVED, By the Board of Education of Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, That there be levied on the taxable property of said district for the year 1957, a total tax of $1,650,503.62 for all purposes, except for payment of interest and principal on obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1952, said tax to be apportioned among the several fractions of the district as follows:

Township or City	Rate (mills)	X	State Equalized Value	Amount of Tax
Superior Township	21.95		21,453,310	470,461.15
Plymouth Township	21.95		45,405,427	996,736.92
Northville Township	21.95		1,071,784	23,525.66
Canton Township	21.95		7,193,590	157,899.30
Plymouth City	21.95		85,676	1,880.50
Total			75,813,787	$1,650,503.62

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

Superintendent Isbister was instructed to issue a staff bulletin pointing out to students who bring personal materials to school for exhibit purposes do so at their own risk.

The meeting adjourned at 11:45 P.M.

Respectfully submitted,
Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

YOUR HANDWRITING TELLS YOUR STORY

With Grapho Analysis
BY JEAN EVANS

Dear Jean:
We moved here recently and my husband has taken a new job near here. Will we have any better luck since making this move?

I am enclosing his signature, the only thing I have available at the moment, bearing his handwriting. So far we have met quite a few nice neighbors and friends.

M.I.
Your sailor's handwriting indicates the opposite type of nature. He keeps his feelings to himself always being calm, cool and collected and never acting impulsively. He likely keeps you guessing as to his emotions.

Thrift Week Sees Family 90 Days From Bankruptcy

CHICAGO (UP)—Here it is National Thrift Week and the average American family is about three months away from bankruptcy.

This dim view of family finances comes from Helen White, executive secretary of the National Thrift Committee, and Jack Olson, an insurance executive.

Their comments were based on a recent survey conducted by leading insurance companies on the financial status of middle class Americans.

Olson said the average family is "just 90 days from disaster," financially speaking. Miss White and Olson said few families accumulate a financial cushion to carry them beyond a three-month period if the breadwinner should lose his job or get sick.

"We're living from pay day to pay day," said Miss White. She said this creates marital discord, and tension and anxiety among the children.

"In many cases the family's paycheck is tossed for a lateral pass the minute the bread winner gets it," Olson said. "It's cashed or deposited, and the money must be paid out at once to cover bills and current subsistence."

Despite continuing inflation, there are concrete steps the average family can take to build savings.

Miss White said the first need is for a practical budget based on the obvious fact that "outgo must never exceed income."

"A business soon goes bankrupt if it isn't set up on a sound financial basis with adequate reserves set aside systematically for future exigencies," she said.

In like manner, a family should set aside a regular amount each pay day.

"The average family without adequate reserves in the form of savings in one kind or another, faces the constant threat of bankruptcy in 10 to 12 weeks in the event of emergency," she said.

Pop Goes The Fire

SALEM, Ore.—(UP)—Firemen were called when a blaze broke out in a motor truck owned by a beverage distributor. When they arrived the fire was out. Curtis T. Gearin, the truck driver, extinguished it with four bottles of pop.

Dear M.I.:

Your husband will work to advance himself. He will not be satisfied to remain as he is for he desires to progress.

As for predicting the "luck" you are anticipating, we each make our own "luck" by good honest work. Nothing worth while comes without effort on our part. Grapho Analysis does not pretend to predict the future.

Dear Jean:

Please analyze my handwriting. Would like to know what kind of a person I really am.

A.A.N.:

You have your emotions under control at all times. You are a person who shows judgment in all your decisions and your head rules your actions. You are essentially a naturally generous person but consider all aspects of a situation before giving of yourself or your money.

You are prone to put off doing things but once you get started you become irritable if interrupted.

Dear Jean:

Can you tell me from my handwriting how to be more popular? Also, where do my natural abilities lie?

A.K.:

You are interested in yourself and if you want to win friends it would benefit you greatly if you could develop a genuine interest in others, their interests, hobbies, activities, etc. Forget about "me" and center your attention on the other person at the moment. You will find that when people discover that you care about them and what they do they will accept you as a friend.

Your handwriting shows concentration or the ability to put all your attention on the work at hand. You would do well in a field calling for close work, attention to details and a good memory.

Dear Jean:

I have been keeping up with your column and would appreciate your analyzing my handwriting. I'm eighteen, work for a bank and I am engaged to a sailor.

I have enclosed a small sample of his handwriting and would like it analyzed also. Thank you very much.

CHARLOTTE BROWN

Dear Miss Brown:

You would be a good worker because you want to gain approval for your efforts. You are sensitive to criticism, so work especially hard so you

Mrs. Gene Schaeving invited several friends and neighbors to a toy demonstration party in her home last Tuesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kenyon of Brownell street enjoyed a few days vacation near Gaylord last week. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Gilbert of Morgan street were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Measel from Detroit at their farm near Fairhaven for opening day of hunting season. Robinson Group Meets Mrs. John LaGrow of Brownell street was hostess for the October meeting of the Robinson Home Demonstration Group sponsored by the Michigan State Cooperative Extension Service. Leaders for the lesson "Quick, Thrifty Meals" were Mrs. Stephen Cherne and Mrs. Norman Frid. Two guests were present at the meeting Mrs. Gerald King and Mrs. Harvey Ziet. The Christmas workshop meeting will be held at Mrs. Robert Widmaier's on November 21st. Big Cake OGDEN, Utah—(UP)—Robbers broke into a railroad boxcar at a flour company's West Ogden siding and made off with 5,500 packages of cake mix. The CITY

BY AL GLASSFORD

"I wouldn't have your job for anything," say people to me many times. There are, however, many pleasures in working for the City of Plymouth. One is the fun of watching young people develop. About 5 or 6 years ago, when good help was hard to obtain, as a last resort I asked Mel Blunk, who was then the school vocational guidance officer, to send me boys old enough to do D.P.W. work through the summer, who were planning to go to college in the fall. My plan was to pooh-poohed at the City Hall. It was said that the boys would wind up playing tag among the tombstones in the cemetery. I wanted the boys only for the summer in order to get caught up on many of the jobs we had to do and to relieve men on vacation. Mel sent a half dozen or more boys. I lined them up in my office and gave them a pep talk. I promised that the first fellow who was reported to me as laying down on the job would be fired by me, personally. I said that I knew they were good men from reports submitted to me by Mel Blunk, and that I expected them to maintain the reputation they had. I also stated that the older men did not believe that they would be able to do the work. They went to work. The boys did a fine job and won the confidence and enthusiasm of the regulars. At the end of the summer, the regulars made sure that I heard that they wanted to have their favorite boys come back the next summer to work in their crews. We have been doing this each year. The boys come back, if they do not find jobs elsewhere that pay more money. By this method of employing temporary help, we avoid economic dislocations for families by starting the breadwinner on a job, only to find that the job peters out when the snow begins to fly. The boys are now being graduated from colleges. We hear from them occasionally and are proud of their progress in the world. One is studying to be a lawyer, specializing in international law. Another has a job with a large heavy equipment firm as an engineer, and so on. One of the temporary office helpers we employed each summer was a Plymouth High School graduate, petite Luree Merillat. She has come back from the University of Michigan for four summers. Luree majored in English at college and for the past three summers has been in charge of our Annual Report writing. She takes the reports of the department heads and my report and shapes them into a readable material. Our new Annual Report has just been completed by her. We looked forward to seeing Luree each summer, because she was able to move from ringing up money in the cash register in the treasurer's office, to taking care of the telephone switchboard, and to act as my secretary while Linnea was on vacation. She was, as she termed it, "an odd jobs girl" or "an all-purpose errand girl." When she left a few weeks ago, it was a pleasure to hear her say, "Well, I won't be coming back next summer to work for the City of Plymouth, but I hope that where I must make my new home, I will be able to get into municipal work. It was so interesting." Another pleasure is to see some of the department heads move on to bigger and better things. Ed Pothoff, who was once our assessor, is now the City Manager of Niagara Falls, New York. He never meets me but what he does not say, "It was a wonderful experience to be able to work in Plymouth. I sure learned a lot there." And then we had Nat Sibbold work for us, who used the experience gained with the city to operate and re-establish an active Chamber of Commerce for Plymouth.

Bus to Take Local Camera Fans To Photo Show

Many Plymouth photographic hobbyists and professionals will be among those traveling to the Second Annual Detroit Photo Show at the Masonic Temple which opens Thursday, Nov. 7 and ends the following Sunday. The Photographic Center is chartering a bus which will leave for the show at 6:30 p.m. on Nov. 7 from the Hotel Mayflower. They are inviting anyone to go as their guest with the only cost being $2.25 per person for the bus. Anyone interested in going on the bus is to phone the Photographic Center, Plymouth 1048 or 1617 to make reservations. Due to the limit of passengers, reservations should be in by today, Thursday, Oct. 31. There will be displays of 70 manufacturers and processing plants. New photo equipment will be introduced and there will be plenty of opportunity for picture taking with models to pose before the shutter. Camera shops in the Detroit area are submitting a display of prize winning pictures and a darkroom is set up for those interested in processing their own.

Plymouth Civic Chorus Seeks

All interested singers are invited to join the Plymouth Civic Chorus in preparation of the dramatic oratorio "The Childhood of Christ", by Hector Berlioz. Rehearsals will be held each Monday evening in November, January and February, from 7:30 to 9. No rehearsals will be held during December. The group will meet in Room 4 in the Plymouth High School Annex, which was formerly the Junior High School.

Performance is scheduled for Sunday, March 2, 1958 with the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra. Each year one major choral work is produced by the Plymouth Civic Chorus and the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra. In previous years Mozart's "Coronation Mass", Faure's "Requiem", Handel's "The Messiah", Brahms' "A German Requiem", Meyerowitz' "Music for Christmas" and Weill's "Down in the Valley" have been given.

Anyone interested in singing is invited to join the chorus. The only expense is the purchase of the music which is fifty cents. Director of the chorus is Fred C. Nelson, vocal music instructor at Plymouth High School. The accompanist is Mrs. Thomas Lock.

Boston, known as the "Center of Culture", has more than 200 educational institutions within its limits.

Workshop's 'Hitch Hiker' Gives Audience a Thrilling Ride

Narrator: Doug Havershaw
Hitch-Hiker: Warren Worth
Girl Pick Up: Libby Currier
Mother: Maude Laury
Stand Owner: Warren Harris
His Wife: Barbara Cornelius
Mrs. Whitney: Bonnie Kellokk
Filling Station Attendant: Richard Tiall
Phone Operators: Dorothy Smith, Carol Harris, Betty Tait

For one half hour the Guild workshop actors took their friends on a spine chilling ride across the continent. As lights from over head spotlighted faces in a haunting, eerie manner, the actors interpreted their lines in suspenseful fashion. Underneath the entire production as the lines were being said was background music that must have come from an album entitled "Music for Screaming Nightmares." It was spooky, weird, and at all times heightened the mood for this taut mystery drama.

Technically, this production was a triumph. Soundman Lloyd England deserves an extra kudo for his tremendous sense of timing. He directed the work of two assistants. Using three tape recorders, he coordinated the many, many sounds. Dick Wallace operated the unusual dimming device made by Jack Wilcox. Lights were made to dim by a chemical dimmer. Long metal rods, tri-angular in shape, were inserted in salt water and as the metal was withdrawn more resistance was set up and the spotlights dimmed. Dick was the operator and in charge of the salt. Too small an amount of salt and the effectiveness of this dimmer would lessen.

On the acting side, the interpretative work was excellent as far as the many small roles were concerned. It's amazing how so many of our newer faces are displaying genuine talent. Of course, several of our veterans such as Libby Currier, Maude Laury, Warren Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Harris, and D & T Smith with their experience gave their parts a professional touch.

With the dual role of narrator and director, Doug Havershaw had his hands full. His interpretation of the lead part was sporadic. Perhaps he was worrying about the others since as the director one does tend to do that. Whatever his concern, the production of a growing fear that literally consumes the protagonist was only evident from time to time. In short, a sharpness of tone was needed during the scenes of high emotionalism. Doug should have remembered Gene Lyon's brilliant performance in "Witness For Prosecution" for a prototype or model.

News From Parkview Circle

Homeowner's Association to Hold Last Business Meeting of Year

MRS. ROBERT FITZNER

The flu seems to be on the wane as far as our Circle is concerned. There are a few who still have some sniffles and after effects but on the whole all seem to be pretty well under control. Vicky Kuhns is the only one I've heard about this week who is still home from school.

Circle Cub Scouts and their fathers attending the Plymouth football game on Friday evening were Jay and Harold Kendall, Bob and Jack Ruland and Johnny and Henry Wilamowski.

Betty and Jim Parks entertained on Sunday in honor of their infant daughter's christening at Our Lady of Good Counsel church. Guests were Audrey and Nathan Burkwitch of Nankin Twp., Aleida and Bob DeClaire of Grosse Pointe Woods, Dick Parks, Mr. and Mrs. James Parks and Anastasia Parks of Ferndale. The godparents of Maureen Elise are Nathan Burkwitch and Aleida DeClaire.

Saturday evening Rose and Marty Kennedy of Parkview Drive were the guests of Lorraine and Joe Thuer on Haggerty road.

The Parkview Homeowner's Association will hold its last regular business meeting of the year on Friday evening November 1 at 8:30 p.m. at the home of the Walter Lakes at 275 Garling Drive. All those attending are asked to bring one or two white elephants to be used as prizes for bingo which will be played during the social hour.

Dee and Les Upton of Garling Drive entertained at their home last week for twenty guests of the Coronado Baptist church in Detroit in honor of Reverend Floyd Crompton of Mt. Morris, Mich. The Uptons were members of the Coronado church before moving to Plymouth and were married by Reverend Crompton who was pastor of that church for many years. Ethel and Jim Cameron of Parkview Drive spent the weekend in Buffalo with Ethel's parents.

Friday evening Lee Ruland of Parkview Drive attended a party at Carpenter's Hall in Detroit honoring U.S. Congresswoman Martha Griffiths. Saturday Lee worked on the Registration Committee at the Civic Auditorium in Lansing where she attended a luncheon honoring all Democratic women of Michigan who have either been appointed or elected to governmental offices. Governor Williams gave the keynote address.

Marty Kennedy, Jr., a student at Olivet College, spent the weekend at home with his parents Rose and Marty Kennedy of Parkview Drive. Marty's sprained ankle (basketball practice) didn't keep him from visiting his many friends and taking in the Plymouth football game on Friday night and seeing the Pistons play basketball on Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Sebastian Major of Plymouth have bought Donna and Bob Sasal's home on Garling Drive and will take possession on or about December 1. The Sasals are still planning to move to California but will remain in Plymouth until after the holidays. The Sasals have a brown metal folding card table chair which was left at their home after an Association meeting. Better get it now before they move.

BEYER REXALL DRUGS WISH TO THANK THE PEOPLE OF THE PLYMOUTH AREA FOR THEIR VOTE of CONFIDENCE

In a recent Better Business survey conducted by the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Michigan in cooperation with the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, the people of the Plymouth area voiced an overwhelming preference for the drug stores of Plymouth.

- 89.1% of the families surveyed purchase their drug and prescription needs in Plymouth.
- 87% of the families surveyed purchase their cosmetic and toilet needs in Plymouth.

TYPICAL OF THE COMMENTS OF THE PEOPLE SURVEYED WERE;

- "You Can Be Sure of a Good Drug Store in Plymouth"
- "Quick Service, Efficient and Friendly Sales People"
- "Good Service"
- "Good Selection"
- "Good Service and Good Quality of Merchandise"
- "We are Very Satisfied with our Drug Store and And The Sales Personnel Excellent"

WE OF BEYER DRUGS WILL CONTINUE TO ENDEAVOR TO MERIT YOUR CONFIDENCE AND ONCE AGAIN, THANK YOU.
