

Check Artist Sentenced 1 1/2-14 Years

Plymouth police this week closed the case of Bernarr Reynolds who was captured here April 23 after trying to cash $400 worth of phony vouchers. Reynolds, not the confident man he was when he came to Michigan a month ago, calmly took the news Tuesday morning in Ann Arbor circuit court that he will spend the 1 1/2 to 14 years in prison in Michigan. He also can look forward to perhaps many more years in a Tennessee prison. The 35-year-old Houston, Texas, man was sentenced by Judge James Brekey, Jr., in Ann Arbor on two counts, uttering and publishing and forging. Each count carries the 1 1/2 to 14-year sentence, but they will run concurrently. Reynolds will be taken to Jackson State Prison to serve his sentence. The state of Tennessee has a detainer on him which will lay claim to the Texan on similar charges there when he is through serving time in Michigan. The detainer cannot be withdrawn. "I think he expected a worse sentence than he got," an Ann Arbor detective declared, "but he still wasn't happy." Although Reynolds was captured in Plymouth, he was turned over to Ann Arbor police since he actually cashed $400 worth of vouchers there and only attempted to cash some more vouchers here. He managed to cash the vouchers at an Ann Arbor Kroger store. While enroute back to the Statler Hotel in Detroit, he stopped at the Beyer Rexall Store on Ann Arbor Rd. to cash some more vouchers which he claimed represented money for subscriptions he had sold to U of M fraternities and sororities. The vouchers contained printed names of sororities and fraternities. Mrs. Peggy Pettoia, pharmacist at the drug store, became suspicious and sent him to the Forest Ave. Beyer store. She called manager Walter Drummond about the man coming, and Drummond notified police that they might want him. Reynolds produced the vouchers at the Forest Ave. store and Drummond told him that he would first have to check with the Ann Arbor fraternities. While stalling around with the call, an off-duty patrolman entered the store and only attempted to cash some more vouchers here. He managed to cash the vouchers at an Ann Arbor Kroger store. TRADITIONAL POPPIES of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be sold in Plymouth this Friday to aid the disabled veterans. City Manager Albert Glassford was again selected to get the first poppies from both veterans' groups and like many citizens, will be wearing both types of poppies. From left are Bud Krumm, senior vice-commander and poppy chairman of the VFW, Ernest Koi, American Legion poppy chairman, Glassford, and Mrs. Kenneth Gust, VFW Auxiliary poppy chairman.

Fulbright Grant to Send Grade School Teacher to N. Rhodesia

From a fifth grade room on the second floor of Starkweather school to a classroom somewhere in Northern Rhodesia, Africa is the transition that William R. Foster will make this year. The U.S. Department of State this week informed Foster that he has been awarded an Educational Exchange Grant under the Fulbright Act, one of 400 given this year for teaching and participation in seminars abroad. Foster still isn't sure of the town where he is going, but he will be teaching in the Kitwe Training College in Northern Rhodesia for one year starting next September. He will take along his wife and three children. Thirty nations and the many colonies of the United Kingdom are included in the list of participants in the educational effort. Competition for the 400 grants is great and it requires interviews of the applicants and their investigation before they are accepted. Foster will teach elementary teaching methods at the college which has both native and white students who will be instructing in the country's schools. Sometime late this summer, Foster will go to London for orientation. He will take a boat across. After arriving in Northern Rhodesia, his wife and children will fly there. He has two children in school and one nine months old. The Fulbright Grant provides payment of Foster's expenses but he must pay for his family's crossing. The Fosters live in Redford Township. Northern Rhodesia was first choice of the Plymouth teacher and he will be the only one of the 400 going there. Foster was principal of the Eaton Rapids elementary school for a year before coming to Starkweather where he has taught nine years. He holds a master's degree. A Smith school teacher, Miss Bertha Anderson, will be teaching in Germany next fall under another program while a high school teacher is negotiating an exchange teacher program with England.

Candidates Invited To Town Hall

Letters inviting all Plymouth Community School board of education candidates to participate in the Town Hall Tonight program June 5 have been sent out. There are nine candidates seeking the three vacancies in the June 9 election, making the election the most competitive in five years. The Parkview Circle Homeowners Association is presenting the Town Hall program, one of a new series backed by the Area Cooperation group to acquaint citizens with local problems and election candidates. The Town Hall meeting will be held in the Junior High Auditorium at 8 p.m. According to the invitations, "Each candidate will be given three minutes to introduce himself and present his views. Following this, the meeting will be open to questions from the floor." Jack Ruland, 640 Parkview (Continued on Page 8)

Dealers Give Away Nine Cars Tuesday

Only five more days remain in the Auto Buy Days campaign that will end with the awarding of nine used cars. A drawing will take place in Kellogg Park at 7 p.m. next Tuesday for the nine cars. The campaign opened May 1 and is being sponsored by the nine new car dealers of Plymouth. Each is donating a car that will be suitable for the family's "second car." All that one needs to do to enter is to appear at any or all of the dealer show rooms and sign his name and address on a card. There is nothing to buy — no demonstration ride needed. On Tuesday night, each dealer will bring his entry forms in a box to the park and from each box will be drawn a winning name. It could be possible for one person to win more than one car.

No Lay-Off in Education

Summer School Plans Laid

While still a month remains of the regular school session, plans are already made for the summer educational opportunities session which opens June 23. Enrollment deadline for the extra six-week session is June 6. All registration blanks and entries must be delivered to the building principals by that date. The early deadline is necessary to determine the size of classes and the number of classes. No enrollment fee is required for the summer session. The Board of Education has supported the summer program because it feels that no one should be denied the opportunity for an additional education because of financial obligations. Courses are being offered on all levels from elementary to the adult level. The Plymouth Mail will next week carry a complete description of all courses to be offered. Parents are being urged now to make plans for having their children spend the summer in educational endeavors. Courses can offer things which pupils ordinarily would not take during the regular school year, or they may be able to improve their skills in normal subjects such as reading or arithmetic. They can also take such subjects as Spanish, woodwork, typing, business machine use, sewing or swimming.

SCHOOLS CLOSE Friday, June 20 but three days later hundreds of youngsters will be back in classrooms for the free summer term. Allen Davis, a driver training student last summer, points to the high school bulletin board announcing the school year ending.

Commission Policy Limits Liquor Licenses To Three

City commissioners unanimously voted Monday night to adhere to its former policy of limiting the number of taverns in the city to three if the liquor-by-the-glass proposal should be approved by voters next fall. There was no debate on the policy question when it appeared on the agenda. Neither was there any one in the audience to question the commission on its decision. The decision to "hold the line" on liquor licenses came as no surprise since several commissioners have been heard to express their thoughts on the matter before. At several city commission sessions in the past decade the matter of licenses has come up and city fathers then too decided to limit the number to three. Because opponents of the approaching liquor proposal may be worried about the possibility of increasing number of liquor permits, tavern owners last month requested the commission to re-state its policy. Beer and wine by-the-glass is now served at Box Bar, Mayflower Tap Room and Marquis Toll House. The commission has declared that it would be these three places which will be allowed an opportunity to apply for the three liquor licenses. There is one complicating factor in the commission's policy decision, but commissioners aren't too worried. Last week City Attorney Harry Devo reported to the commission that a new state liquor law passed last year (Continued on Page 8)

183 Scholars Honored

In the second program of its kind at Plymouth High School, 183 sophomores, juniors and seniors will be honored for their scholastic achievements at an Honors Convocation next Monday night. They are Mary Jane West and Hale Huber, juniors, and Randy Egloff, sophomore. The convocation is being sponsored by the Faculty Committee and participating members of the National Honor Society who believe that pupils should be recognized for distinguished academic records as well as for extra-curricular achievement. Delivering the convocation address will be Roger L. Leatherman, assistant director of the Michigan Memorial Phoenix Project at the University of Michigan. NEWS BEAT

Judge Stands Pat in Livonia

FROM THE BENCH: When Livonia's Justice of the Peace Leo Nye went on vacation recently and Plymouth's Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo took his place, some Livonians found out what some Plymouthites knew all along — words won't sway the decisions of the Plymouth judge. A divinity student was fined $100 by Judge Perlongo for driving with a special noise-making muffler. Neighbors of the youth, a minister and an appointed city official protested the high fine (which is usual in Plymouth), but the judge wasn't swayed. Two Detroit daily papers then got interested and when one reminded the judge that the usual fine was $10 in Detroit, the judge reminded the reporter that Detroit is no criteria. The fine still sticks.

ELECTION SIDELIGHT: Perry Richwine, one of nine school board candidates, is a resident of the city of Plymouth and not the township, as many believe. The city-township line runs through his house located just north of Edward Hines Drive on Wilcox Drive. Law states that he may choose his official residence. The First Federal vice-president, who was once a city mayor, chose to remain a city voter although he pays property taxes to the city and township.

POLICE BEAT: Wayne County nearly lost a car Tuesday afternoon when Joseph Witwer, 593 Hartswough, a Road Commission supervisor, parked a car on Starkweather Ave. just south of Wilcox Lake. The car rolled backward and down the embankment, being stopped short of the lake by a small tree. Burglars broke into three places during the early morning hours last week. They apparently failed to make it inside Plymouth Sewing Center and Beyer Rexall Drugs on Liberty St. but they got away with $40 to $50 from Burgott's Service Station on North Main St. Police got an unusual call from the Arthur R. Kidston home 1107 West Ann Arbor Trail. Their daughter's pet monkey got CANTON TOWNSHIP: Several dozen men on the relief rolls are at work in Canton Township cleaning out ditches and doing other miscellaneous tasks. The relief people foot the bill. Supervisor Louis Stein expects the free help to be around all summer. Canton has joined other communities in adopting a Civil Defense ordinance which is necessary to qualify for surplus equipment.

FIRE RUN: Still no word from the insurance company about the total loss in the Daisy Manufacturing warehouse fire three weeks ago. They're still figuring it up. Jack Price, the volunteer fireman who fractured his hip in the Daisy fire, will be a long time healing. Meanwhile, he was joined at St. Joseph's Hospital in Ann Arbor by his wife Sunday when a son was born. They have difficulty in seeing each other, however. Blunk's, Inc. has furnished him a TV. W. G. Stokes, 12731 Beck Rd., received burns of both hands last week in a fire in his basement. He was repairing the oil tank when it developed a leak, ran under the furnace and ignited, and then ignited a can of gasoline. Township firemen quickly extinguished the blaze. No damage reported in a fire Saturday caused by an overheated furnace at Ralph Buttermore home, 8835 Brookline.

City Dog Clinics Tomorrow, Saturday

With fewer than 100 dog owners getting their rabies vaccinations and licenses last Saturday, city dog owners have just two more opportunities for dog clinics. Clinics will be held this Friday and Saturday at city hall. All dogs over four months old must be licensed by June 1. The vaccination costs $2 and the tag another $2.

Library to Start Saturday Closings

The Dunning-Hough Library will close on Saturdays, starting Memorial Day and re-opening on Labor Day. Regular hours are 9:30 a.m. to 8 p.m. Monday through Friday.

MISCELLANEOUS: Joe Bida, the city's young supervisor of public works, lost out in his bid as president of the Michigan Jaycees. He founded the Garden City Jaycees where he lived until recently, and still remains a national director.

All 1933 graduates or class members of theirs during 1931-1934 are invited to bring their husbands or wives for dinner, chatter and dancing at the V. F. W. Hall at 7 p.m. Reservations are $2.50 per person and can be made by calling GL 3-1316 or GL 3-4112 or sending money and request to Ernie Archer, 335 E. St., Plymouth. Reservations should be submitted by May 30.

Class members not yet located are Beulah Fairchild, Arden Connell and school mates, Loraine Bailey and Gladys Shetter. The reunion committee would appreciate information concerning the whereabouts of these persons.

Mrs. John K. Nelson of Arthur street was the guest of her daughter-in-law at the mother and daughter breakfast given by Our Lady of Victory Church in Northville.

Dinner to Mark 50 Years Of Service for Resident

Isabel N. Barker

Isabel N. Barker, one of Detroit's best known business women, will be honored on the Anniversary of her fiftieth continuous year of service with the Detroit Tuller Envelope Company. The company and its employees will celebrate this extraordinary event with a dinner party at the Detroit Leland Hotel on Saturday evening, May 24.

Among the guests invited to the celebration are Governor G. Mennen Williams and Mayor Louis Miriani. Other guests will include a number of business men who have had contact with Miss Barker over a space of thirty-five or more years. Howard Reinman of Rochester, N. Y., President of the company will also be in attendance.

Miss Barker started her employment with the original Tuller Envelope Company in May of 1908. Miss Barker recalls that, at that time, all the envelopes were made by hand and specialty envelopes were made to the buyers' specifications, including coverings for such bulky items as bicycles, caskets, pianos, stoves and carriage tops.

Through these early years Miss Barker handled the bulk of the business over the telephone and became an authority on envelopes. She earned her reputation through a thorough knowledge of the envelope manufacturing business and the application of that knowledge to the production and distribution of envelopes. She has long been acknowledged by the industry, as a whole, as an undisputed leader.

At various times she has served as production manager, plant superintendent and sales consultant. At present she holds the position of an assistant and adviser to the vice-president and general manager, Raymond Reid.

Miss Barker has been a member of the Womens Advertising Club and the Zonta Club.

The theme of the anniversary party will be "Fifty Golden Years" and the dinner will be highlighted by a huge, lighted anniversary cake baked by one of Miss Barker's fellow employees, Mrs. Lenore Miller. Table decorations will be in gold and the center piece will be fifty roses.

Town Crier: U of M Sorority To Be Guests at Colony Home

BY GLORIA BOWLES
GL 3-2340

Covering area along Sheldon to Ann Arbor Trail, Harvey and Sutherland, including Plymouth Colony, Hough, Plymouth Hills and Lidgewood.)

Envision a warm spring day, a clear and beautiful blue sky overhead and a backyard pool overflowing with cool, green water. That will be the scene greeting the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Litzberg of John Alden this Saturday afternoon, May 24, hostess to the alumni and seniors at the University of Michigan, all members of Phi Mu fraternity. Mrs. Litzberg will treat her guests to a luncheon and a dip in the pool.

Mr. and Mrs. Litzberg were guests of the Phi Mu fraternity at a formal dinner and dance honoring the pledges of the organization. Also attending the dance were Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, being the head of the International Center at the University. Although the group is fairly new to the U of M, Phi Mu is the second oldest social sorority in the United States, having 106 years to its credit. Mrs. Litzberg is a member of the Board of Directors of the organization.

Visiting relatives in Milwaukee, Wis., recently were Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Slikin and sons Mike and Bill of Amherst Court. Both Mr. and Mrs. Slikin were born in Milwaukee.

The David Mathers and daughter, Susan and son, David, welcomed a new arrival into the family on May 3. The eight week old girl, named Taffy, weighs six pounds, (tiny, isn't she?) Incidentally, tiny Taffy is a shetland sheep dog and "a little like a collie," reports Susie.

Two Plymouth Colony families are making special plans for Memorial Day one plan is going from Plymouth, the other staying.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Bennett and sons Dick and Jim and daughter Barbara will leave Plymouth on May 28 for Chicago and the 50th wedding anniversary of Mrs. Bennett's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Anderson. Relatives from Washington, Seattle and Santa Anna, Calif., will be attending.

Mr. Williams, a "weatherman," has been assigned to Benton Harbor as a special consultant and fruit frost expert. His appointment began last April and will continue for six months until October. Working on a project very important to fruit growers in Benton Harbor, Mr. Williams commutes between that city and Plymouth every week-end.

Mrs. Wycliffe W. Winn of Amherst Court was hostess to a friend, Mrs. Florence Ritchie of Lansing last week. Several special events were planned for her stay, including a stop at the Statler Hotel in Detroit. Mrs. Ritchie was entertained at the Detroit hotel by her hostess, who also invited Mrs. Norbert Lofy, Mrs. Walter Shannon, and Mrs. M. Johnson for the get-together. Mrs. Ritchie's stay lasted from Tuesday until Friday of last week.

Returning from a week in Traverse City and a cottage on Lake Leewanaw was Mrs. Kenneth Kehrl of Ross Street, who visited her sister and mother, Mrs. Loren Zimmerman of South Harvey.

A Navy man is Dave Zimmer, 19 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Zimmer of Jener. A 1958 graduate of Plymouth High school, Dave may be termed a world traveler; he's been to Morocco, Italy, Spain, and France. Recently promoted from f-1 to f-1h (his mother asked what this meant and he said "10.75 more per month in pay"). Dave has served two years of his six year hitch. He enlisted at the age of 17 and was first stationed in Three Rivers, outside of Norfolk.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Zimmer keeps very busy, as she is attending a school in Ann Arbor, for the training of practical nurses. Presently at St. Joseph Hospital, she is aiming for a state license for practical nursing. She began her studies last September and will graduate with her class of 43 next September. Celebrating his tenth birthday with a party today will be Ronnie Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin R. Jones of Arthur. Several youngsters of the "Town Crier" area will be present. Guests will be Ronnie's brother Eddie, David Jones, Dale Grawford, Steve Bowles, Tom Webber, Ronnie Fowler and Gary Smith.

On the road to recovery after an illness of five weeks which began with a cold and developed into an infected throat and bronchial tubes, is Bob Webber of Priscilla Lane. Webber is the father of Mrs. Samuel Fogo says that he loves golf and is very anxious to get out and play that game. We certainly hope he'll be able to do just that very soon.

Several area teenagers attended a surprise birthday dinner given for 16 year-old Linda Leet of Sheridan Avenue on Tuesday evening. Guests were Susan Hulsing, Sandra Bailey, Sharon Roberts, Barbara Bennett, Susan Mather, Gloria Bowles.

Visiting the Grand Rapids School of Bible Music, was Joy Kalmbach of Jener. Accompanying her were Mrs. Charlotte Kramer, Marion Kramer and Mrs. Dick Carr, Joy, a PHS junior and president of her class for the past two years, is trying to reach a decision as to the college she will attend.

Opening their summer cabin in Harbor Springs shortly will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Utter and daughters Sue Judy and Barbara of Amherst Court (Barb is undecided about going as she is in the Junior High Band and wants to march for the first time with that group and the two dates conflict.) The cottage has been in the family for 25 years and the various members of the family, with their own plan, take turns using it during the summer months. Very nice arrangement, wouldn't you say?

A demonstration of stainless steel utensils, was given at the home of Carl Line Stroud of South Harvey in charge of the demonstration was Kal Linko, assisted by Barbara Bates. Among the guests were Mrs. Betty Stroud, Mrs. Robert Durand, Mrs. Joe Styers, Mrs. Don Stout, Reverend and Mrs. Palmer of the Spring Street Baptist Church, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Fanning, and Mr. and Mrs. Martin Horvath.

Attending a dinner dance at the West in Country Club were the Richard Stribleys of Carol. Present as guests of the Stribleys were Mr. and Mrs. James Anthony of Carol. Mr. and Mrs. Stribley are among the 100 members of the Evergreen Dance Club, which sponsored this, the last dance of the season. Seven more dances are scheduled for next year, beginning in September.

Philadelphia, New York, Connecticut, and New Hampshire were among the states toured by the Stribleys on a recent 12-day vacation. After seeing off Ann Arbor relatives, who were sailing to Europe from New York, the Stribleys continued on their jaunt. The couple has been in New York in April for each of the three past years, and report that the countryside is indescribably beautiful at this time of year.

Hope to be hearing from those of you in the "Town Crier" area.

The City Manager's Corner

By Al Glassford

Riverside Cemetery is operated by the City of Plymouth through a Board of Cemetery Trustees. The cemetery ordinance provides for appointment of three trustees. Those appointed are Harry Mumby, John Blickenstaff and Richard Daniel. The city manager is the superintendent.

We are told that Riverside is one of the best maintained cemeteries in western Wayne County and Washenaw County. It is difficult to keep older cemeteries as nicely and as easily as the modern park type cemeteries. Monuments and markers preclude the possibility of using gang lawn mowers, and present trimming problems. Hand work is expensive as well we all know.

This year we had to increase land costs and burial fees drastically. We will about break even on cemetery operation. Whatever shortage turns up, the taxpayers assume the difference.

One of the rules of the cemetery is that no plantings shall be made on any lot unless approved by the Board of Trustees. The board has authorized the planting of flowers within six inches of the monuments and headstones. It is necessary to follow this rule because of the difficulty in mowing the lots when there are different locations for flower beds. The board also allows the planting of shrubs subject to the approval of our parks foreman, Mr. McAuley, who knows the ornamental value of the several kinds.

It is important that we avoid a forest of yews and evergreens and provide colorful leaf and flowering shrubs. We have some problem with vandalism at Riverside, but it is sporadic and is apparently a result of parties held late evenings in the park.

More serious is the vandalism at the Baptist Cemetery at York Street. Few if any people still visit the graves and many of the monuments are defaced and broken. Year after year we set them up again and re-cement the broken pieces. This year Joe Bida is placing the monuments flush with the ground in order to present less of an invitation to break them off and tip them over. Some of the monuments have even been carried away.

On our sick list this week is Mrs. Grant Dicks. Mrs. Dicks is in Ford Hospital in Detroit for surgery and would appreciate hearing from her friends and neighbors. We wish you a speedy recovery Sarah!

Other former Plymouth residents returning to visit the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Peter Wesseling who now make their home in Allegan. They were visiting their daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Sockow of Rocker.

A combination luncheon and baby shower was given recently by Mrs. W. J. Kincaid and Mrs. Jack Cumming in honor of Mrs. Ross Newton at the home of Mrs. Kincaid. Also present were Mrs. Harold Shirey, Mrs. Al-

Buttermore, Mrs. Vincent Simonetti, Mrs. Arthur Krueger, Mrs. Harvey Weigand, Mrs. Claude Rocker, Mrs. Max Nicol, Mrs. Joseph Schaefer, Mrs. John Waltershausen and Mrs. John Bowsman. The guest of honor received many nice gifts.

Mrs. Frank Allison entertained members of her Birthday Club on Monday afternoon at her home on Morrison. Members of the club are Mrs. Harold Brisfois, Mrs. Christine Van Poplin, Mrs. Raymond Batchelder, Mrs. Arthur Johnson, Mrs. Joseph Fish and Mrs. Jennie Cramer, all of Plymouth and Mrs. John Miller who came from her home in Caledonia for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Shirley and family left Friday afternoon for Holland, Michigan to see the closing of the annual Tulip Festival.

Smith School's PTA groups have been very active recently. Miss Truesdell's kindergarten classes presented "Goldilocks and the Three Bears" for their mothers as part of a Mother's Day program. After the play, Miss Truesdell showed colored slides taken during the year at the children's parties. Refreshments were served by the room mothers.

On Tuesday evening, Miss Olivia Bell's second grade class had a pot luck dinner with parents and brothers and sisters invited. The second grade children then presented a program in honor of Mother's Day. Miss Bell and the children deserve a lot of praise for their fine work.

The Child Study Club met at the home of Mrs. Howard Hill on Williams Street. A number of guests were invited for the evening to hear Dr. W. C. Anderson, Plymouth's new orthodontist, who was the speaker.

The ladies of one block on Morrison meet twice a month to sew cancer pads and just talk and the last meeting was held at Mrs. Frank Allison's home. The dessert for the group was furnished by Mrs. Claude Rocker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. William Fowlkes spent the weekend in Fremont, O., their former home, where they had a reunion with old friends and neighbors. While there, they met Mrs. Fowlkes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dill of Cleveland and returned home on Sunday with Mrs. Studybaker, the grandmother of Mrs. Fowlkes. It is nice to see Mrs. Studybaker again. She is a frequent visitor and many of the neighbors know her.

This is all the news for this week. I hope more of you call me with items for future columns.

UPSIDE DOWN CLUB membership was assured Dick Simmons May 11 when his car rolled over at Flatrock Speedway. The convertible is a total wreck, but he escaped serious injury and is ready to go again this Sunday, when his wife Joan and son Billy will be racing too.

Joins Upside-Down Club in Convertible

The auto racing season has been underway barely 3 weeks and the Simmons family of 40950 Micol already has a demolished car and two trophies to show for it.

One trophy will be awarded Dick Simmons, making him a member in high standing in the Upside Down Club. Dick's car rolled over Sunday, May 11 at Flatrock Speedway in the Destruction Derby.

Observers say he was lucky to escape alive from the overturned convertible. When he realized he was going to roll over, he ducked down, coming out of it with only a few pulled muscles in his side.

The purpose of the derby is the destruction of all cars in the field, the last car in motion being declared the winner. But, Sunday's derby had no winner, as the race was stopped after Dick's accident.

The other trophy was a happier occasion — 1st place in the first race of the season.

The car, No. 771, was built by Dick, but must be scrapped now. It was sponsored by Marcus Auto Parts on Plymouth road.

This by no means is the end of the season for the Simmons family. Sunday will find Dick, his wife Joan and three-year-old son, Billy at the Flatrock track again to take their chances. The quarter midget event will mark Billy's first official race.

Robinson Sub. Has Share Of Mumps, Chicken Pox

(Covering the Area between Ann Arbor Trail and the Parkway from Haggerty to Bassett Roads)

By Mrs. Maxine Carson GL 3-0659

Hi there, friends and neighbors, I'm your news reporter and I'll be calling you each week for some news that will help make our paper more interesting. This is my first attempt at this, so bear with me for a while.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and family of Butternut attended the wedding and reception of Ann Knipschild and Charles Blackwell on Saturday evening, May 17, at the Calvary Baptist Church.

Sharon Smith was home over the weekend from Chicago with two house guests, Carolyn Barga and David Weiss. They attended the Knipschild-Blackwell wedding at the Calvary Baptist Church. Miss Smith was maid of honor. Mrs. Lee Kenyon of Gilbert attended the surprise baby shower at the Earl Nordhagen home in honor of Mrs. Chris Nordhagen. She received many lovely gifts and a good time was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jarsky and children and Mrs. Jarsky's sister, Juanita Bryan, spent the weekend at their trailer house at Round Lake. They left on Thursday, returning home on Sunday evening. Mrs. Jarsky reported a real good time.

Jerry and Pokey Spaulding, and Mark and Cynthia Gail, Carson are recuperating from a siege of the chicken pox. Even hear that some of the older ones might have them. How are you doing Audrey?

Of course mumps are never out of season, and little Miss Debbie Van Toll of Morgan St. has been confined to her home for the past week, but is much improved.

Mrs. Dorothy Ferrin, daughter of Mrs. George Hesse of Russell has been visiting her parents, and in return Mrs. Hesse spent the past week at her home.

This is all I can scramble up this time, but don't hesitate to call me at GL 3-0659. I'll be waiting to hear from you.

Parkview Circle Area Busy Entertaining Over Weekend

Mrs. Robert Fitzner GL 3-6214 (Covering the area east of the railroad tracks to the park and from Parkview Circle north to Wilcox Lake.)

Shirley Cooper entertained at a family gathering in her new apartment at 363 N. Main St. last Saturday evening. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Thompson of Detroit, Mrs. Jacques, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Jacques of Windsor, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Cooper of Parkview Drive and Arditth Alban who shares the apartment with Miss Cooper. A buffet lunch was served.

The Jack Rulands of Parkview Drive entertained Dr. and Mrs. Kalin of Northville on Sunday evening. Following cocktails the foursome took in the Swedish movie at Ann Arbor and then returned to the Ruland home for pizza.

I noticed the Bud Wilson family of Garling Drive having a picnic in the park Friday evening not too far from where we were picnicking with the Walter Lakes and the Jack Rulands. Sunday Lorraine and Joe Quilan of Garling Drive had the Jim Sporn and the Parkview Drive over for an outdoor dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Koenigsmark of Rockford, Ill. and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Plantkowiak of Milton, Wis. were the guests of Esther and Earl Atkinson of Parkview Drive for over the weekend. The occasion marked a milestone for Esther in that the guests were here to help her celebrate her 50th birthday.

Many happy returns, Esther! From what Dot Wilson told me over the back fence this morning, she and Bud must have had loads of fun at the scavenger hunt staged by the Couples Club of the First Methodist Church. The Wilsons were teamed up with Peggy and Norman Briggs of Marlowe St. over in Green Meadows. They won first prize for filling their list of 21 items in the least amount of time and also scored on low mileage necessary to accomplish their tasks.

Marianne and Brad Carpenter of Parkview Drive attended "Open House" Sunday afternoon at Selfridge Air Force Base.

Dinner guests at the home of Dorothy and Lloyd Curok of Parkview Drive on Wednesday were Lloyd's nephew, Donald Gault of the Royal Canadian Air Force and Donald's fiancée Miss Agnes Simpson of Windsor.

Dee and Les Upton of Garling Drive were among those who helped with a cook-out for the senior group of the First Baptist Church Youth Fellowship. Immediately following the church service Sunday evening the group adjourned to the park where they enjoyed a swimmer roast.

Last Saturday Harold Kendall of Parkview Drive took his son Jay and friend Johnny Wilamowski on the all-day outing at Brighton, Mich. where they celebrated Webers Day. Dinner was served in the evening by the Scouts

Plymouth Township Crash Takes Life of Livonia Youth

Richard Siterlet, 18, of 31515 Five Mile, Livonia, was killed and four others injured when the car in which Siterlet was riding collided head-on with a truck on Schoolcraft and Wilcox roads, Plymouth Township, late Friday.

Mrs. Dorothy Ferrin, daughter of Mrs. George Hesse of Russell has been visiting her parents, and in return Mrs. Hesse spent the past week at her home.

William A. Brown, 46, of 14615 Cherrylawn, driver of the truck, was in critical condition in Wayne County General Hospital with internal injuries.

Joseph Harris, 57, of 14127 Westwood, a passenger on the truck, suffered a fracture of the left leg.

Deputy Sheriff Harvey Lawrence said Doolittle lost control of the car on a curve and hit the pickup coming in the opposite direction.

A huge throng of students and friends attended funeral services for the Siterlet boy Tuesday from Van Valkenburg's, and from St. Michaels Church. Interment is at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.

No Complaint Filed in Stabbing

No complaint has been filed in the stabbing of Paul Griffin, 337 Holbrook, Police Chief Kenneth Fisher reported this week.

Griffin was stabbed three times by his son-in-law, George L. Kirkland, 26, on Tuesday of last week. Both live at the same address.

Fisher said that the prosecutor's office has recommended no warrant because Kirkland was apparently fighting in self-defense. He added that the injured man also does not want to file a complaint.

Griffin's wounds in the abdomen, chest and back were not deep and he is reported much improved. Police said that Griffin came home intoxicated and became offensive. The two men fought in the kitchen and Kirkland picked up a knife. Kirkland then stabbed his father-in-law and then went to the police station.

Patsy Lockwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lockwood of 9177 Newburg road, celebrated her 17th birthday Saturday, May 17 with guests from Livonia and Plymouth.

Emergency Calls Slowed When Number Not Known

Plymouth telephone users were urged today to have all emergency numbers at their fingertips.

Robert D. Maurer, Michigan Bell Telephone Company manager here, said some subscribers have been dialing the Operator "O" instead of calling direct to the police and fire departments.

"While our operators are anxious to assist in every way possible in handling emergency calls," Maurer said, "it is obviously faster and more efficient to dial direct so officers can get necessary information directly from the source."

Maurer pointed out that in some instances callers had been connected to the city fire department when the call should have gone to Plymouth or Canton Townships.

"Emergency police and fire services would be speeded, and much valuable time saved if customers would write in emergency numbers in the spaces provided on page one of the new directories," Maurer said. "Minutes, and ever seconds, are vitally important in reporting serious accidents, crime, and potentially dangerous fires."

In the future, he said, operators will ask emergency callers whether they are seeking city or township aid. "Our operators will handle any type of emergency call," Maurer said. "But response will be speeded if all customers jot down emergency numbers in their directories for fire departments direct."

Union Committeeman Charged In Alleged Beating of Employee

A trial date is being set for a union bargaining committeeman at the Ford Automatic Transmission plant in Livonia who is charged with beating up an hourly employee from Plymouth two weeks ago.

Steve Lawrence, the union committeeman, pleaded not guilty in arraignment before Judge Nandino Perlongo last week and released on $100 bond. Perlongo is sitting in for Justice of the Peace Leo Nye of Livonia who is vacationing.

Victim of the alleged beating was Guy Marksberry, 40, of 405 Irvin St., Plymouth. Witnesses told police that Marksberry went into Clubhouse Bar, 34115 Plymouth Rd., on April 9 and ordered a drink when Lawrence approached him. The men started to argue, police learned, and Lawrence allegedly struck Marksberry on the head.

The Plymouth man then left the building with Lawrence following and when outside, Marksberry was beaten to the ground and kicked in the head several times. He was treated by a physician and later swore out a warrant.

Lawrence contends that Marksberry hit him with a bottle. Judge Perlongo said that trial will be set for this week or next.

New Officers Elected By Sheldon 4-H Club

New officers of the Sheldon 4-H Community club, elected at the May 13 meeting, are: Joanne Jarrett, president; Alan Black, vice president; Pat Clixby, secretary; Jane Dawson, treasurer; Sue White and Lovie Medaugh, reporters; and Judy Clixby and Rosemary Russell, song leaders.

Installation will be held at the September meeting. At the present time the club is working on a community project of cleaning the Downer Cemetery in Canton Township.

Ruth Holland to Enter U-M Medical School

Ruth Holland, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles F. Holland of 635 South Harvey, has been accepted to the University of Michigan medical school upon her graduation from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn.

She is among nine of the outstanding seniors in the biology department that were accepted for admission to various medical schools.

INVENTOR Dan Spence demonstrates his first fire ladder installation at Saxton's Farm Supply. Standing on the roof, he pulls a handle (left) on top of an object that looks something like a down-spout. In an instant a ladder springs forth and the inventor climbs down. The ladder has been given city approval. Offices are located on the second floor of the building's front half.

Ladder of Success Found by Inventor

By Jim Spönseller

Everybody talks about the "ladder to success," but very few take it as literally as Dan Spence, 15201 Northville Rd., who is hoping for a ladder to provide him some additional income.

As a livelihood, Dan operates the Plymouth Radiator Repair on Northville Rd. but as a sideline, he is an inventor.

None of his inventions have been received with such encouragement as his new ladder which is now in production. Last fall the ladder won one of three first prizes at the Inventors and Gadget Show in Detroit. His toy invention won another first.

The ladder that Dan invented can now be seen by the public at the rear of Saxton's Farm Supply on Ann Arbor Trail. An upstairs office in the building, formerly occupied by the Employment Security Commission, is now used by Consumers Power.

With there being only one stairway, the fire inspector asked the building owner to put a fire escape from the roof of the one-story portion extending at the rear of the building to the ground.

Owner Dean Saxton's wife had seen Spence's miracle ladder at the inventor's show and she suggested that it might be what is needed.

The ladder is an aluminum affair that looks something like a down-spout. It has a handle on top that when pulled, releases the other side of the ladder with rungs between. Each rung supports 400 pounds. It can only be opened from the top.

"The beautiful thing about this ladder," Dan explains enthusiastically, "is that it doesn't look like a ladder and no one can use it to climb up when it's folded."

Dan's wife had always worried about escaping from the second floor of their home in case of fire — a worry that bothers many people. Yet, few people want a ladder on the side of their homes which could be used by burglars or mischievous children.

Eight years ago Dan started working on the idea and finally came up with the collapsible model six feet high. His installation at Saxton's 16 feet high and he believes that the ladder would be practical three floors high.

He has two patents pending, one on the ladder itself and another on the locking arrangement. Dan's 10-year-old friend, Dan Heimlicher is an engineer in Toledo and it was through his efforts that the ladder has been engineered and gone into production in Toledo. Because the two men are named Dan, the ladder is called the Daniels Fire Ladder.

Of course the ladder has many other possibilities. What handman wouldn't like to have a ladder in his garage that he could fold up like a pole?

Dan has several other patents in the works. His toy is

Retires After 45 Years with C&O Last Honor Roll of School Year for 7th, 8th Grades

After 47 years of working on the railroad Pietro Lomonaco, 65, has retired. Forty-five of those years were spent in Plymouth for the Pere Marquette and Chesapeake and Ohio railroads.

He's proud of those 47 years and especially of the watch he received from fellow-workers upon his retirement.

Lomonaco came to Detroit from Sicily when he was 17 years old and got his first job in the United States with the Grand Trunk railroad, a Canadian line which sent him back and forth across the border. In 1913 he joined the Pere Marquette railroad as a section hand. When C&O acquired Pere Marquette in 1916 Lomonaco was promoted to a car inspector.

From then on he became a familiar face in the Plymouth yard, inspecting every car on arrival and before departure.

He's had a front row seat to progress in railroading over the years. He remembers the hand pumped flat-forms that traveled the tracks carrying repair crews. Box cars then were constructed of wood, requiring a team of carpenters for repairs.

Lomonaco and his wife Rose live at 378 Farmer and have raised three children: Mrs. Sylvia Stasky, Rosalie who is in the 11th grade and Peter, who is in the 9th grade.

Social Security Recipients Must Report Earnings

Persons receiving social security benefits should notify the Social Security Administration district office promptly if they expect their earnings to exceed $1200 a year.

Harry Baltuck, manager of the Detroit-Northwest Social Security Office at 13269 Grand River, Detroit 23, Mich., stated that frequently no report is made until the $1200 mark is reached and, as a result, some of the payments already received have to be returned. Earnings over $1200 a year by anyone receiving social security benefits may cause one or more months benefits to be withheld. This is true for all years up to and including the year in which the social security recipient reaches 72 years of age.

Baltuck pointed out that notice should be given the social security district office as soon as it is known that earnings will exceed $1200 a year.

Match Playing Burns Garage

Two boys playing with matches started a garage on fire last week and escaped injury when they mistakenly doused the blaze with gasoline in an attempt to put it out.

The garage was behind the home of Vivian Keeth, 1102 Harvey St. Two youngsters, one of them the Keeth's son, started the garage on fire last Wednesday as they played with matches, according to Fire Chief Robert McAllister. They then grabbed a can which they thought was water, threw it at the fire and ran.

The can contained gasoline and it exploded, blowing off the top. The boys, however, were not hurt. Fire swept through the garage and flames were shooting high when firemen arrived a few minutes later.

Heat from the fire scorched paint from a next-door house and Chief McAllister burned his knee as he knelt on a hot sidewalk with a fire hose. Damage was estimated at around $500, McAllister said.

Air Rifle Safety Shoot To Offer Dozen Trophies

Several hundred boys and girls will be "shooting it out" for trophies this Saturday at Plymouth High school when the Junior Chamber of Commerce sponsors its second annual Air Rifle Safety Shoot.
Twelve trophies will be awarded individual shooters and an award will also go to the outstanding school participating in the shoot.
The shoot will be held in the gymnasium from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Last

June 9 Hearing Set On Street Paving Projects

Residents owning property along eight streets will be invited to a public hearing Monday, June 9 to determine if they are for or against proposals to pave their streets.
Petitions to do the paving have been filed by some of the residents along the involved streets, but they may not represent the majority's thinking.
Biggest of the proposed projects is the paving of South Main St., from Burroughs to M-14. Should the other projects be approved, the city will not have enough money to pay its share of this Main St. project. It has been included in the hearing, however, because a petition was filed asking for the paving.
The list is as follows:
Hartsough from Main to Coolidge.
Maple from Sheldon Rd. to Harvey.
Park Place from Evergreen to McKinley.
Elm and Wing from Sheldon Rd. to Harvey.
Evergreen from Elm to Ann Arbor Trail.
McKinley from Elm to Ann Arbor Trail.
Sutherland from Main to McKinley.

City Manager Albert Glassford, in a report, recommended that a petition to pave East Liberty and York Streets should be denied at this time because the majority has already opposed the project and it could possibly be accomplished under an Urban Renewal plan with U.S. government participation.
Property owners will be notified of the hour of their public hearing.

The FBI entered the case when they learned that Reynolds had driven a stolen rented car across a state line into West Virginia. He was released under bond from Federal Court in Detroit and then picked up by Ann Arbor police.
Reynolds had passed bad checks in at least a dozen states.

Youths Jailed For Gasoline, Auto Theft

Two Wayne youths were each given 90 days in the Detroit House of Correction and a local boy is apparently headed back to jail for weekend crimes in the city.
Charles L. Williams, 18 who only the week before was released from DeHoCo for taking a car without the owner's permission, caused some excitement in the city's northwest section Sunday. Police said that Williams, 18, took a car from the Consumers Power parking lot on Adams St. and while driving west on Penniman Ave. near Church, struck several parked cars.
At Penniman and Sheldon he got out to examine the damage and finally left the car standing in the middle of the street as one citizen reported to another that he had just left the scene of an accident. Police were called and in the direction of citizens, traced Williams to the Champion Container plant where with drawn guns, they finally captured the youth.
It is reported that the six-foot three-inch boy is staying with a Shearer Drive family. He is now in county jail after being bound over to circuit court.
Early Monday morning police were checking the Plymouth Gauge and Tool Co. on Amelia when they found a parked car behind the building. A few minutes later two boys, John Caine and Kenneth Boyles, both 17, of Wayne, walked up. Police found that they had been siphoning gasoline from a drum at the Service Steel Co. building on Farmer St. and were pouring it in their car's tank. They were given 90 days at DeHoCo.

Favorite Recipes From Plymouth's Kitchens

Chiffon Cake Changes with Whims of Cook

Catering keeps Mrs. Henry Reddeman of 679 Blunk busy during the month of brides — June, but never too busy to whip up a chiffon cake. All year 'round, the chiffon cake is a perfect basic recipe that can be altered with just a pinch or a drop of flavor.

Here is Mrs. Reddeman's often-used recipe:

Chiffon Cake

2 1/4 cups sifted cake flour
1 1/2 cup white sugar
3 tsp. baking powder
1 tsp. salt

Sift above ingredients together in a bowl, add 5 egg yolks (save the whites), 1/2 cup cooking oil, 1 tsp. vanilla and 3/4 cup water at room temperature.

Mrs. Reddeman points out that the mixture will blend better if the water is at room temperature and the eggs are taken out of the refrigerator long enough to lose their chill.

Beat 1 cup of egg whites (about 7 or 8 eggs necessary) with 1/2 tsp. cream of tartar. It is important that they are thoroughly beaten — there's no such thing as overbeating them, just be sure they are not underbeaten. Fold in to first mixture with a spatula.

Flour the cake pan or angel food tin if you want, but don't grease it. Bake at 375 degrees F. for 1 hour. If using an angel food tin turn it upside down on an inverted water glass to cool. When the pan is thoroughly cooled, take the cake out.

This is the plain chiffon cake, which can be completed with a sprinkling of powdered sugar.

For a change she often slices the cake in half, spreads crushed pineapple between the layers and frosts it.

Other changes must be made just before baking. For orange chiffon cake, add 1/4 cup orange juice and a little rind to 1/2 cup water instead of using the 3/4 cup water called for in the recipe. Banana flavoring calls for one crushed ripe banana mixed with the water. Mrs. Reddeman also suggests a dash of almond flavoring or chopped maraschino cherries for other variations.

MRS. HENRY REDDEMAN sifts the flour for a chiffon cake. The basic recipe can be changed by the addition of fruits or juices to suit your whims.

So you see, it's a versatile recipe — limited only by your imagination and tastes.

THE READER Sparks Up

Editor:

With much interest I read "Facts and Opinions" in the May 15th issue. Certainly I agree with much you wrote, Daisy, at the moment, happens to exemplify those conditions in our economic structure which are a reflection of the rapaciousness of business today. Men charged with the responsibility of earned dollars must ever be alert and ready to capitalize on all factors bearing on that capacity. It is a game of chess where the stakes are higher, the kings bigger, and the pawns smaller.

We waste time through holding a wake. The future of this or any other area is the concern of all the people affected, whether they be business men, workers, government officials of industry.

It is unfortunate that political opportunists use such cases to extend and amplify their own particular philosophy. However it is even more unfortunate that all concerned fail some how to find a common ground to work on.

Michigan has not only nurtured and blossomed a "Daisy" but has been the bedrock of many other healthy strapping enterprises — That foundation is still here!

The muscles, brains, and guts are in ample supply; the resources, skills and the determination need only the catalyst of "Michigan is a good place to live and do business" by labor, capitol and government to continue to make it so!

On the brighter side of the ledger, is evidence that many do find this State of ours attractive and worth investing in.

Moving to the mirage of greener pastures can at best result in fleeting gains. People are no different south, east, north or west, and wherever industry moves and standards of living raise, pressure for more services becomes greater. Taxes too have a way of seeking and finding those hidden springs to tap.

Happily for those business enterprises seeking "Greener Pastures" we have acres of them here in Livonia. All of us bid them welcome!

Pupils to See Atomic Energy Commission Traveling Show

George Vagher Presents Atomic Program

Plymouth High School students will next Wednesday have the opportunity of getting acquainted with the wonders of our present age at a special assembly program.

Featured on the program will be "This Atomic World," a traveling atomic-energy exhibit of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission.

The exhibit will be sent to Plymouth from the Museum Division of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies, which manages the exhibit, as well as the American Museum of Atomic Energy in Oak Ridge, Tennessee, for the Commission.

"This Atomic World" is one of several traveling exhibits which the Commission has made available to towns and cities all over the United States. It is designed to meet the needs of principals, science teachers, and civic leaders in stimulating a deeper interest in the peacetime uses of atomic energy.

In Wednesday's program, a staff member of the Museum Division will take the audience on an excursion into the atomic age. Utilizing exhibits and demonstration equipment, the demonstrator will explain in simple language the fundamentals of atomic energy and how it compares with other types of energy; how atomic energy is released through radiation and fission; and how atomic energy is used in agriculture, medicine, industry, and other fields.

Illustrative charts, panels, models, and equipment will play important roles in the demonstration. One of the outstanding attractions of "This Atomic World" will be a demonstration model of the Van de Graaff electrostatic generator. This device, which generates 250,000 volts of static electricity, will be used to explain how large models are used in physics laboratories to study atomic structure.

The program here will be presented by George Vagher. He is a graduate of the College of the Ozarks with a bachelor's degree in education and a master's degree in the same subject from the University of Michigan. He also received training in nuclear science at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

"The Day" Approaches Lovewell, thank you.

Junior Veep Named

Glyn Norton was the winner of the tie for the office of Junior Vice-President.

With hardly a moment to spare, PHSers are keeping up a breathless pace. As the day of closing approaches, each day is crowded fuller than the day before with final activities — banquets, exams, field trips, and social functions. It's a good thing that school closes only once a year. There seems to be an epidemic of "summer fever".

New Officers In

With solemn vows, the newly elected school officers were inaugurated at the assembly last Thursday, May 15. M. J. West received the gavel from Al Spigarelli, this year's Student Council Mayor. As the former officers left their chairs, they marched out of their offices to make room for the coming year's officials. It was a moment of mixed emotions — eager anticipation for those looking forward to next year — reluctant nostalgia for those looking back at this, their last year.

The new constantly replaces the old during this time of the year.

Editor Named

Gloria Bowles was named Editor-in-Chief of the Pilgrim Prints for the coming year. Other editors will be announced later.

Editor Wins Award

Karla Jean Herbold, this year's co-editor, received honorable mention in the speech writing contest at the annual conference of the Michigan Interscholastic Press Association held in Ann Arbor on Friday, May 16. Competing against 75 other schools, PHS and the Pilgrim Prints are very proud of Karla's accomplishment.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT

"Listening" During Sleep

Q. Can you listen for certain sounds during sleep?

A. Yes. A mother can sleep soundly while trucks or trains rumble past her window but will awaken promptly at the slightest whimper of her sick child. Doctors at Walter Reed Army Institute of Research conducted an interesting experiment along these lines. They trained cats to "listen" for clicking sounds. The doctors then recorded the brain wave pattern of trained and untrained animals. Clicks made no impression on the untrained cats. In the conditioned or trained animals, every click showed up in the brain wave pattern. There must be some sort of nervous mechanism that lets some sounds through but blocks others.

Q. Does fluoride in drinking water actually reduce tooth decay? Is it safe to drink?

A. Consumption of water containing small amounts of fluoride seems to reduce tooth decay about 50 per cent. Such water is generally considered perfectly safe. However, a New Orleans doctor contends that fluoridated water irritates the gums. It reduces tooth decay, he says, but the overall effect is not good. A Seattle physician recently found that use of fluoride dental paste or powder caused stomatitis (inflammation of mouth tissues) in some people. So far as is known, dental groups and public health authorities have not commented on these reports.

Material in MEDICAL MIRROR is based on various scientific publications and does not necessarily reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease requires the skill and knowledge which only a physician can apply by personally attending the patient.

Civil Defense Ordinance No. 12

CITY DEFENSE ORDINANCE (Ordinance No. 12)

BY BOARD MEMBER Philip Dingley

AN ORDINANCE TO ESTABLISH AN ORGANIZATION FOR CIVIL DEFENSE TO PREPARE PLANS TO PREVENT, MINIMIZE AND RELIEVE DAMAGE AND HARDSHIP RESULTING FROM ENEMY ATTACK OR NATURAL DISASTER; TO PROVIDE FOR THE FULL IMPLEMENTATION OF SUCH PLANS TO DEFINE THE POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE SUPERVISORS AND THE DIRECTOR OF THE OFFICE OF CIVIL DEFENSE; TO PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION OF ITS PROVISIONS AND TO REPEAL ALL ORDINANCES CONFLICTING THEREWITH.

Section 1. INTENT.
It is the intent of this ordinance that the organization established will ensure the complete and efficient utilization of all the Township's facilities to combat disaster occasioned by enemy attack on the Township or its environs, and that the organization will also serve to combat natural disasters as defined herein.

The Office of Civil Defense created by the ordinance will be the coordinating agency for all activity in connection with the Civil Defense Program, and during a period of attack or natural disaster it will be the instrument through which the Supervisor may exercise his authority and discharge the responsibilities vested in him in the ordinance.

The ordinance will not relieve any Township Department of the normal responsibilities or authority assigned to it in the Township Home Rule, nor will it adversely affect the work of the American Red Cross or other volunteer agencies dedicated to disaster relief activities.

Section 2. DEFINITIONS.
For the purpose of this ordinance certain words used are herewith defined:
"Township" shall mean the Township of Canton, a municipality.
"Civil Defense" shall have a broad meaning and shall include preparations against, and relief from, the effects of attack on the Township by the forces of an enemy nation or the agents thereof, and it shall also include such activity in connection with natural disaster as defined herein. It shall not, however, include any activity the responsibility of the military forces of the United States.
"State" shall mean the State of Michigan, or a person acting for the State of Michigan pursuant to legislative authority.
"County" shall mean the County of Wayne, or a person acting for the County of Wayne pursuant to legislative authority.
"Attack" shall mean a direct assault against the Township by the forces of a hostile nation or the agents thereof, including assault by bombing, chemical or biological warfare, or sabotage.
"Natural Disaster" shall mean a condition seriously affecting or threatening public health, welfare or security as a result of severe fire, explosion, flood, tornado, hurricane or similar natural or accidental cause and which is beyond the control of public or private agencies ordinarily responsible for the control or relief of such conditions.
"Disaster" does not include riots, strikes, insurrections, or civil disturbances.
"Civil Defense Forces" shall include the employees, equipment and facilities of all Township Departments, Boards, Institutions and Commissions suitable for or adaptable to civil defense and designated by the Supervisor to participate in the civil defense activities; and in addition, it shall include all volunteer personnel, equipment and facilities contributed by or obtained from volunteer persons or agencies.
"Supervisor" shall mean the Supervisor of this Township or the Acting Supervisor as provided for in the Home Rule of the Township whenever the supervisor is unable to perform his duties under this ordinance as a result of his absence or incapacity.
"Director" shall mean the Director of the Office of Civil Defense appointed by the Supervisor as executive head of the Office of Civil Defense, or a deputy director duly appointed and acting for the director in accordance with the provisions of this ordinance.
"Volunteer" shall mean contributing a service, equipment or facilities to the civil defense organization without remuneration or without a formal agreement or contract of hire.
"Civil Defense Volunteer" shall mean any person duly registered and appointed by the Director of the Office of Civil Defense and assigned to participate in the civil defense activities.
"Person" shall mean every natural person, firm, partnership, association or corporation and their legal successor.

Section 3. ORGANIZATION FOR CIVIL DEFENSE.
The Supervisor is hereby authorized and directed to create an organization for Civil Defense. The Supervisor, as chief executive of the Township shall be the Director of the Organization for Civil Defense and shall be responsible for its organization, administration and operation.
The organization shall consist of the following:
(a) An Office of Civil Defense within the executive body of the Township government. There shall be an Executive Head of the Office of Civil Defense, who shall be known as the Director of the Office of Civil Defense, and such assistants and other persons as are deemed necessary to the proper functioning of the organization.
(b) The employees, equipment and facilities of all Township Departments, Boards, Institutions and Commissions suitable for or adaptable to civil defense and designated by the Supervisor to participate in the civil defense activities. Duties assigned to a Township Department shall be analogous to the normal duties of that department.
(c) Volunteer persons offering service to the organization.

Section 4. APPOINTMENT OF DIRECTOR AND EMPLOYEES.
(a) The Supervisor shall appoint the Director of the Office of Civil Defense, who shall be a person experienced in public safety, disaster relief or work related thereto. He shall be subject to removal by the Supervisor for incompetency, neglect of duty or malfeasance in office.
The Supervisor shall, with the approval of the Township Board, fix the compensation, if any, of the Director.
The Supervisor shall also designate deputy directors of the Office of Civil Defense to assume the emergency duties of the Director in the event of the absence or incapacitation of the Director. The deputy directors shall be selected and shall serve as follows:
1. There shall be one such deputy director appointed from each of the Township departments designated by the Supervisor to constitute the Civil Defense Forces.
2. The deputy directors shall be Township employees who are the heads of their respective departments.
3. Deputy directors shall assume the duties of the director in the order of their designation by the Supervisor.
(b) The Director of the Office of Civil Defense shall, in accordance with the provisions of the Township Home Rule relative to civil service, appoint the assistants and other employees of the Office of Civil Defense, prescribe their duties and, with the approval of the Township Board, fix their compensation, if any.

Section 5. EMERGENCY POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE SUPERVISOR.
The Supervisor may exercise the emergency power and authority as specified herein. Whenever a situation requires, or is likely to require, the Supervisor invoke such power and authority, he shall act with the Township Board to perform its legislative and administrative powers as the situation demands, and shall immediately report to that body relative to civil defense activities. Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed as power or authority to abridge or lessen the legislative and administrative powers of the Township Board unless such is specifically granted herein.
(a) Under the following circumstances, the Supervisor may assemble and utilize the civil defense forces, and he may prescribe the manner and condition of their use:
1. Whenever, on the basis of information received from authoritative sources, he feels that attack on the Township is impending or imminent.
2. During any period of attack on the Township, and thereafter so long as he shall deem it necessary.
3. During any period when attack on the Township is imminent or when the Township has been subjected to attack, the Supervisor may promulgate such reasonable regulations as he deems necessary to protect the life and property and preserve critical resources. Such regulations may include, but shall not be limited to the following:
1. Regulations prohibiting or restricting the movement of vehicles in order to facilitate the mass movement of persons from critical areas of the Township.
2. Regulations pertaining to the movement of persons from areas deemed to be hazardous or vulnerable to attack.
3. Regulations designed to lessen the hazards to property and citizens from attack.
The Supervisor shall report these regulations to the Township Board, and it shall, by resolution adopt, amend or revoke such regulations.
(b) The Supervisor shall order civil defense forces to the aid of other communities when required in accordance with the statute of the State, and he may request the state, or political subdivisions of the state, to send aid to the Township in case of natural disaster or in case of disaster resulting from attack when conditions in the Township are beyond the control of the local civil defense forces.
(c) When obtaining formal approvals would result in delay of attack-relief activity, the Supervisor may, until the Township Board convenes, waive procedures and formalities otherwise required pertaining to the performance of public works, entering into contracts, the incurring of obligations, the employment of temporary workers, the rental of equipment, the purchase and distribution of supplies, materials and facilities, and the expenditure of existing funds — and the Township Board shall be deemed to have waived any such procedures and formalities.
(d) Whenever the Supervisor finds that any condition in the Township has attained, or threatens to attain, the proportions of a natural disaster, he may assemble and utilize civil defense forces, and he may prescribe the manner and conditions of their use. He may, when he deems it in the public interest, send civil defense forces to prevent or to assist in the prevention of a natural disaster as defined herein. Failure to notify the Director from exercising a duty assigned to him in the ordinance or delegated to him by the Supervisor.

Section 6. COOPERATION WITH DIRECTOR AND COMPLIANCE WITH ORDERS.
All officers and employees of the departments, commissions, boards, institutions and other agencies of the Township government designated by the Supervisor as civil defense forces shall cooperate with the Director in the formulation of the civil defense plan, and they shall comply with the orders of the Director when such orders are issued pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance.
All such civil defense forces shall advise the Director of conditions in the Township resulting from attack or natural disaster, and they shall notify the Director of any condition threatening to reach the proportions of a natural disaster as defined herein. Failure to notify the Director from exercising a duty assigned to him in the ordinance or delegated to him by the Supervisor.

Section 7. APPOINTMENT OF VOLUNTEERS.
The Director may at any time appoint, or authorize the appointment of, volunteer citizens to augment the personnel of any Township department. Such volunteer citizens shall be enrolled as civil defense volunteers in cooperation with the heads of Township departments, and they shall be subject to the rules and regulations set forth by the Director for such volunteers.
The Director may also appoint volunteer citizens to form the personnel of a civil defense service for which the Township has no counterpart, or to temporarily augment personnel of the Township engaged in civil defense activities.

Section 8. UNAUTHORIZED DISPLAY OF INSIGNIA.
(a) It shall be a violation of this ordinance for any person to display any identifying civil defense insignia for any purpose other than that for which it was intended, or under circumstances not authorized by the Director.
(b) It shall also be a violation of this ordinance for any person to wear or display in any manner any insignia, sign or device purported to be a civil defense insignia, except when such insignia has been duly issued by the Office of Civil Defense and said insignia is displayed in accordance with regulations established by the Director.

Section 9. LIMIT OF LIABILITY FOR INJURIES AND DEATH TO CIVIL DEFENSE VOLUNTEERS.
The Township assumes no liability for injury or death of civil defense volunteers in performance of their duty as such volunteers except that which is imposed by state law or by ordinance or resolution of the Township Board of the Township, except however, that civil defense volunteers assigned to duty during a period of natural disaster shall be eligible for the benefits of the State Workmen's Compensation law at a rate of compensation commensurate with that of persons performing similar work under conditions of regular employment.

Section 10. RIGHTS OF TOWNSHIP EMPLOYEES.
Township employees assigned to duty as a part of the civil defense forces pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance shall retain all of the rights, privileges and immunities of Township employees, and shall receive the compensation incident to their employment.

Section 12. NO CONFLICT WITH STATE OR FEDERAL STATUTES.
This ordinance shall not be construed to conflict with any state or federal statute or with any military or naval order, rule or regulation.
Section 13. SEVERABILITY.

Section 14. PENALTY.
Any person who violates any provision of this ordinance, or any rule or regulation promulgated thereunder, shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00), or to imprisonment for a period of not more than ninety days (90), or to both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the Court.

Rock Golf Squad Wins Suburban 6 Tournament

John Sandmann's high school golf team have again won the Suburban Six championship. The tournament was held last Monday at Grosse Ile Country Club. Plymouth defeated Redford Union by five strokes 343-348. Bentley was next with 350, Trenton fourth with 366 and Allen Park fifth with 448. Belleville did not enter a team.

Don Kwazney of Bentley was the medalist with a 81. The low man for Plymouth, John Taylor, was just one stroke behind with an 82. Steve Hayskar carded an 83, Del McAllister 88 and Kurt Atchison 90 to complete the Plymouth total of 343.

The Plymouth team now move into the state finals this Saturday at Battle Creek.

Plymouth golfers ran into some stiffer competition in Brighton last Saturday, the tournament was won by Dearborn with a 319 and the medalist for the day, Dennis Golbesky, who shot a 73 for the par 71 layout. Plymouth's 327 was good for a third place finish behind Ann Arbor and qualifies them for a place in the state tournament at Battle Creek next Saturday.

John Taylor was low man for Plymouth with a 79. He was followed by Steve Hayskar with an 80, Kurt Atchison an 84 and Del McAllister an 84.

Seventeen Class "A" schools were represented and Arbor, Plymouth, Notre Dame and Catholic Central qualified to enter the state tournament. Other Suburban Six schools in the tournament were Redford Union, who finished seventh, Bentley finished ninth and Trenton finished tenth.

The local team enjoyed reasonably good success in their two dual meets prior to regional and league tournaments. At their home course, Brae Burn, they tied Redford Union, 17174, Wednesday.

Redford had defeated them earlier in the season in a triangular meet with Trenton. Kurt Atchison was the medalist with a 39. Bob Isbister carded a 41, Steve Hayskar a 45, and Del McAllister a 49. Redford Union combined a 40, two 44's and a 46 for their total of 174.

SPORTSEEN

By Bill Dillworth

Congratulations to Coach John Sandmann and the Plymouth high school golfers who won the Suburban Six championship last Monday at the Grosse Ile Golf and Country Club. The four members of the team are Kurt Atchison, John Taylor, Steve Hayskar and Del McAllister. An interesting point to mention about this team is that two of the members — Del McAllister and Steve Hayskar are freshmen and have three more years of divot digging ahead of them. These boys will also represent Plymouth in the State tournament at Battle Creek on Saturday.

This is the third Suburban Six title that has been won by Plymouth teams this year. The football team shares the title with Allen Park and the swimming team won their title rather handsly.

The baseball team is in the high school sporting spotlight at present. With two wins last Monday and one week ago, today they are still in the running for another championship trophy to add to their collection in the cases that line the halls of the school. Ken Knipschild has proved the iron man of the pitching staff and a very effective one. It took Bentley 26 innings to beat him. When he isn't pitching Randy Egloff handles the chore and his latest effort was a three hitter against Trenton for a 1-0 victory. Unofficial averages indicate that Pete Woodward is the leading hitter with a .425 average or 17 hits for 40 at bats. Plymouth will need all their pitching skill, batting power and coaching stratagems working for them today as they meet Allen Park in the last scheduled Suburban Six game of the season. This could be the championship game!

We witnessed two of the three opening games of the Plymouth Recreation Class "B" Fastball league last Monday night and can heartily recommend it as a night of fun and entertainment. The three winning teams scored 62 runs and the losing teams scored six runs. The scores bordered on the ridiculous as one team won 30-4 and another team won 25-2 but everyone enjoyed playing and they had a good time. This is or should be the keynote of the Recreation program that as many people as possible play the game and enjoy themselves regardless of the score.

While walking across the football field after the games a thought crossed my mind about the seating capacity of the present bleachers. Plymouth is a Class "A" school with class "A" coaches, good equipment and facilities except for their football field. Are those present bleachers adequate to hold crowds that can be anticipated for the Bentley game this coming season and the Northville game? In just about a month another school year will have been finished and no doubt plans will be made to repair and replace worn or obsolete facilities in the schools. Will the bleachers be among those items to be replaced? One solution overheard would be to move the current bleachers to the opposite side of the field and build permanent bleachers. In addition to new bleachers, perhaps a new press box with windows to shield reporters, spotters and public address announcers from the elements. We welcome comments from fans on whether or not new bleachers should be installed in time for the 1958 football season.

Jeff Huntingdon won the 880 yard in the individual events. The 880 yard relay team of Dave Palmer, Jason White, Ray Spigarello and Lon Dickerson both won their events.

Other point scorers were Dick Alsbro with thirds in the 100 and 220 yard dashes. Gerry Johncox third in the 120 yard high hurdles and 180 yard low hurdles. Rod Wright second in the 440 and Dennis Wilson third in the 440. Terry Haws third in the 880 and Scott Soth third in the broad jump.

Churek Bowers with three firsts was the big scorer for the jayvees. Bowers won the 120 high hurdles, 180 yard hurdles and the broad jump.

Ed LaRoche was next with a first in the 220 yard dash, a second in the 100 yard dash and a share in the first place finish of the 880 yard relay team. Otto Bufe with a first in 120 yard high hurdles and

PHS Ball Squad In Running For League Title

Plymouth kept alive its chances of winning the Suburban Six baseball championship by winning two games this past week. They defeated Belleville 5-4 to settle the score for an earlier defeat at Belleville and then last Monday defeated Trenton 1-0.

Scoring five runs in the second inning, Plymouth held the five run lead until the fifth when Belleville scored four unearned runs off Knipschild. Knipschild was pitching for the third time in a week and was doing a masterful job until some erratic fielding contributed four unearned runs and forced Coach Mike Hoben to replace his ace with the sophomore sensation Randy Egloff. In two innings Egloff walked one and struck out two and gave up just one hit to effectively silence the Belleville uprising.

Ten men batted for the Rocks in the second inning. Jordahl started the rally with a single. Hopper sacrificed and was safe on an error. Knipschild sacrificed and Runge singled to score Jordahl with the first of the five runs. Woodward hit a mammoth home run scoring Runge and Walasky who was safe on a fielder's choice. Egloff kept the rally going with a single. Wells was given a base on balls and Dzurus singled to score Egloff.

Woodward and Runge were the leading hitters with two hits in three times at bat.

The game of the year for Plymouth will be played next Thursday behind the high school against Allen Park. When these two teams met earlier in the season at Allen Park it was a real fine pitcher's battle with Ken Knipschild winning over Jim Fekeie 3-0. This could be the game for the Suburban Six championship.

Randy Egloff, Ken Knipschild and Jim Dzurus carried the defensive load for Plymouth in their 1-0 victory over Trenton Monday. Egloff and Larry Wells supplied the hitting as they put together two doubles in the fourth inning to account for the one run with Egloff scoring.

As his defensive contribution to the victory, Egloff allowed three and Knipschild playing in right field got him out of two tough situations by using his strong arm to advantage from deep right field. On two occasions he threw perfect strikes to Pete Woodward the cutoff man that allowed him to relay the ball to third base to pick off two runners.

After having a lackadaisical day on the bases Jim Dzurus made a circus catch that saved the game for the Rocks. He gloved a hard hit ball just at the last split second and doubled a man off second base. This was in the seventh inning and with two out Woodward threw to Jordahl covering second for the force out of the final out. In addition to doubles by Egloff and Wells Walasky also hit a two-bagger for the only extra base hits of the eight made by Plymouth.

The jayvees journeyed to Belleville and lost a close one in extra innings 6-5. Plymouth scored one run in their half of the ninth only to have Belleville score two in the bottom half to win.

The jayvees lost to Trenton 2-1.

Newly-Dressed Detroit Race Course Opening

All dressed up and ready to go places. That's the story at the Detroit Race Course as it awaits Monday, May 26, the first of 60 days of racing.

Fans of past years won't recognize the DRC grandstand at Schoolcraft and Middlebelt Roads. Once covered with a somber green paint, the spacious grandstand now looks like a rainbow after a storm. Blending coral, pink, light and dark blue and a golden brown, the painters have produced a real traffic stopper.

After painting the structural steel and girders in the stands a light gray, the painting crew swung into another color symphony. The seats now range from a sparkling green to blue to a soft brown in color. The panels in the background have been done over to compliment the seats. These have been done in yellow, blue and coral.

As well as making it easy on the eyes, the DRC has made it easy on the legs with the installation of escalators. The moving stairs run from the grandstand mezzanine and clubhouse area. The escalators, longest in this section of the country, will carry 10,000 persons an hour. The direction of the stairs is reversible, and will be changed from time to time during the day as the traffic flow demands.

In addition to the painting and installing of escalators, the DRC has paved much of its parking area. A million and a quarter square feet have been covered with asphalt. This is equivalent to nearly five miles of double highway.

On the racing side of the picture, the DRC will climax the Michigan thoroughbred season with the greatest week of racing the state has ever known.

Within the seven-day period of Sweep the Stakes Week the track will offer the racing fans of Detroit and Michigan the $50,000-added Michigan Mile, the $50,000-added Sweepstakes and the $50,000-added Michigan Futurity, a special event for Michigan-foaled two-year-olds.

As an added inducement to owners of the nation's top handicap horses, DRC President Dale Shaffer has offered a bonus of $25,000 to any owner who can sweep the stakes with the same horse.

Post time at the DRC will be 3:00 p.m. Opening Day, 2:00 p.m. holidays and Saturdays and 3:45 p.m. weekdays.

DSR and Greyhound buses again will offer direct express service to and from the track.

Rocks Place 6th In Regional 'A' Track Meet

Keith Baughman, coach of the Plymouth high school track team proved to be an accurate prophet when he made the statement that Flint Northern would be the team to beat at the Michigan High School Athletic Association Class "A" regionals held at Ann Arbor high school field last Saturday. Flint Northern won the meet by 19 points over their city rivals Flint Central, who placed second with 63 1/2 points.

Ann Arbor placed third, Jackson fourth, Monroe fifth, Plymouth sixth, Belleville seventh, Romulus eighth and Adrian ninth.

Point scorers for Plymouth were Tony Monte with a fourth in the mile, Jeff Yoeman fifth in the 180 yard hurdles, Bill Brown fourth in the pole vault and the 880 yard relay team of Ron Turckett, Ziggy Przybowski, Jeff Yoeman and Ed LaRoche finished fifth.

The next action for the track team will be the league meet at Allen Park on Thursday May 29. The preliminaries will start in the afternoon and the finals will run off in the evening.

Two Points Give Track Victory Over Belleville

Plymouth track teams divided their dual meets with Belleville. The Varsity squad won by two points 53-51. The jayvees were defeated 51-40.

Jeff Yoeman was the leading scorer for Plymouth with a first in the 100 yard dash, a first in the 180 yard hurdles, a third in the broad jump and a share in the first place finish of the 880 yard relay team.

Ed LaRoche was next with a first in the 220 yard dash, a second in the 100 yard dash and a share in the first place finish of the 880 yard relay team. Otto Bufe with a first in 120 yard high hurdles and scored four and in so doing routed starting pitcher Dick Shepherd, who pitched 6 and two-thirds innings, allowing nine runs. Plymouth scored one in the seventh and four in the eighth to again take a lead that proved to be short-lived.

Rouge tied the score and then took advantage of Gary Vogel's wildness to score the winning run in the last inning. Gerry Hees led the hitting attack for Plymouth with two hits while Jack Carter, at second base, was the defensive standout with two brilliant catches.

Plymouth travels to Romulus for their third game of the season this Sunday.

Tips for Teens

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q.—"Dear Elinor: I'm a 15-year-old girl and am having trouble getting acquainted in a new high school. We just moved here. In our other home, I had plenty of friends and fun, but here the girls aren't friendly when I try to talk to them in school. I'm lonesome and discouraged. Can you help me?"

Ans.—It takes a little longer to get acquainted in some places than in others, especially if there are "crowds" or "cliques." Don't try to rush things or make yourself conspicuous (sometimes girls are afraid a "new girl" will "take over" or "outshine" them in popularity). Speak to and talk with girls and boys in your neighborhood in a casual way until you gradually get acquainted. In school, join some of the activities that interest you and share the work... a club or two, the school paper, orchestra or band. When you get acquainted with a girl, ask her to have a soda with you on the way home, invite her to a movie as your guest or to your home for Saturday lunch or Sunday supper. Then she will probably include you in her group's fun. Join the high school group at your church and go to the meetings regularly. You'll soon be one of the group instead of "the new girl."

Q.—Dear Miss Williams: Here's a tough problem. I am a boy of 16; my best friend is the same age. We met a girl we both like at the same time and we both want to date her. But I don't want this to spoil our friendship. What should I do?"

Ans.—This sounds like a good way to fracture a friendship! But the girl has a right to decide whom she'll date instead of your deciding that one of you should not ask her. Things like this usually work out naturally, if you give them time. She might accept one, both or neither of you. You three could be friendly... and by the time she's ready to consider going steady, if it reaches that point, somebody else may have entered the picture, changing the whole picture for her or for one of you. So go ahead and ask her, if you like, and don't worry, or be too serious about it. It's a date; not a proposal of marriage!

(For help with personal problems, write to Elinor Williams at this paper. As many letters as possible will be answered in this column.)

Scouts from Green Meadows Enjoy Campout Despite Rain

(Covering the Green Meadows neighborhood, Ann Arbor Rd., Lilley, Joy, Sheldon)

BY MRS. ALVIN STACE
GL 3-1929

Mrs. Walter Wilczewski is convalescing in her home on Corinne St., after being confined to Henry Ford Hospital. She underwent major surgery about two weeks ago. We hope you continue to improve.

Patrick Alandt, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Alandt, invited all of his classmates from the kindergarten to help him celebrate his birthday, last Saturday, at his home on Ann Arbor Rd. Hope you had a happy birthday, Patrick.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Burden, Northern, attended a supper meeting at the First Baptist Church in Pontiac. The meeting was for the combined chapters of the Detroit and Pontiac Alumni Association of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Ill. Herbert Lockyear, Jr., junior executive secretary of the association, showed several colored slides, dealing with the missionaries of the Far East. They included such countries as China, Okinawa, Formosa, Japan, the Philippines and Hawaii. These pictures showed how the missionaries work among the poverty stricken people.

One incident in which the Burdens were greatly concerned, depicted how a lady missionary ministered to about 1200 people that live on boats, that we would probably consider mere junk. The people carry baskets on the sides of their boats to hold a chicken. The one egg which the chicken lays is the only food of the whole family for one day.

The Burdens had as their house guest Mr. Burden's niece, Margaret Ruth Allison. Miss Allison is a case worker in St. Louis, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ackman of Oakview, visited Mrs. Ackman's mother in Illinois who is critically ill.

Dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aldenderfer of Rocker, on Mother's Day were Mrs. Aldenderfer's parents, Mr. and Mrs.

Delvo of Plymouth, and a brother Richard Delvo of Lake Orion.

Jerry Calhoun, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Calhoun joined the Frank Jimmerson family of Plymouth, on a trip to Holland, Mich., to the Tulip Festival. They spent the day enjoying the many colorful sights, and taking colored slides. Jerry reports that the tulips are very beautiful this year.

Kenny Calhoun's friends will be sorry to hear that the college baseball team of Eastern Illinois, of which Kenny is a member, lost both games of the double header to Eastern Michigan of Ypsilanti, on May 10. There is also a bright side to the story. Kenny got in two good hits and batted a man in. Kenny has a batting average of .400 for the year.

Hubby and I, along with our two daughters Beverly and Janet, attended the mother and daughter banquet at the Covenant Community Church, in Redford. If you are wondering why hubby went along, he helped the other men of the church serve the meal. It sure was fun having the men wait on us.

Saturday morning our sons John and Bill, along with their father joined other members of the Boy Scouts of Pack 6, on an overnight camping trip at the Highland recreation area, at Proud Lake. John went along to do the cooking for the staff members, hoping the cooking was good enough so he can earn his cooking merit badge.

It wasn't such a lonely weekend with my men folks gone, because I received a phone call from son Jerry stationed in Fort Hood, Tex. It was a belated Mother's Day call. He says the weather is very hot in Texas, but he is enjoying his basic training in spite of the heat and long hours.

Other boys from this neighborhood who attended the Boy Scout campout were Bill Rucker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Rucker of Morrison in Rocker subdivision. Bill has been with the Scout Troop for several years. He is now a Life Scout.

John Bowsman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Bowsman of Morrison, was also present with the group. John is a Second Class Scout. A good time was had by all the scouts, in spite of the rain, which their scout master, Edward Miller of Burroughs St., says is typical P. 6 weather.

MEN IN SERVICE

Calvin L. Becker
Army Sgt. Calvin L. Becker, 26, whose wife, Alma, and parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manor Becker, live at 575 Pacific ave., recently received his second award of the Good Conduct Medal while serving with the 8th Infantry Division in Germany.

Sergeant Becker, an assistant section leader in Headquarters and Service Company of the division's 68th Armor, received the decoration for his exemplary behavior, fidelity and performance of duties.

He entered the Army in 1952 and arrived in Europe on this tour of duty in August 1956. A 1950 graduate of Plymouth High School, the sergeant formerly worked for the Wayne County Road Commission.

Robert Naegel
Marine Pvt. Robert W. Naegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gail Naegel of 14338 Haggerty is scheduled to finish four weeks of individual combat training at the Marine Corps Base, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

The course includes the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications and advanced schooling on weapons. Trainees learn that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with a aviation unit.

John Walaskay
Marine Pfc. John H. Walaskay, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Walaskay of 42007 E. Ann Arbor Trail, is scheduled to complete the Naval Academy Preparatory Session of the U.S. Naval Preparatory School, May 23, at the Naval Training Center, Bainbridge, Md.

Vice Admiral H. Page Smith, Chief of Naval Personnel, will address the graduating class. Immediately after graduation exercises an open house for the students and their guests will be held in Tome Memorial School. A dance in the evening will conclude the activities.

The Preparatory School provides intensive academic refresher training to enlisted personnel from all branches of the Armed Forces selected to compete for appointments to the Naval and Air Force academies, or who already hold Congressional or Presidential appointments.

The school reviews in seven months subjects that would require from one to three years of instruction in the average secondary school.

Following physical examinations and completion of administrative processing, the graduates will report in late June to the Naval Academy and Air Force Academy and be sworn in as midshipmen or Air Force Cadets.

Wool is different from ordinary hair in that it has tiny scales on its surfaces that overlap each other.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

(Be charitable before wealth makes the covetous.)

Memorial church services will be held this year in the First Methodist Church on Sunday, May 25. Services will begin at 11 a.m. and the colors must be at the church no later than 10:45.

All members are asked to attend.

Friday, May 23 is Poppy Day. The day when every member is asked to really donate time for this worthy cause.

On Memorial Day, 1922, the Veterans of Foreign Wars sold the first replicas of the Flanders Field poppies on a national scale. In 1923 the National Encampment decreed that the poppies sold by the V.F.W. must be made by disabled veterans. In 1924 disabled vets in Pittsburgh made the flowers for that year's sale. These men coined the phrase "Buddy Poppy" and in 1924 our National Headquarters copyrighted the trade name.

It might interest the people of Plymouth to know where the proceeds of the Poppy money are spent. Each Christmas we take a gift to every veteran at Maybury Sanitarium (over 100) and during the year trips are made with ice cream, cigarettes, razor blades, and socks.

Not only do we work at Northville, but trips are made to Ann Arbor to the Veterans Hospital as well as the one in Dearborn. Either a "ward" party is held, where the patients play games and are served refreshments or our members go to different floors and take orders for small articles that may be purchased in the hospital p.x. and then deliver them to the patients.

When a needy family is found by any of our members, groceries, clothes, bedding, furniture and some money is given to aid that family.

LYNDON, Vt. (UP) — Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Nichols no sooner went into the taxi business than their cab was called to the Lyndon Outing Club to take their sons, John, 8, and Richard, 7, to the hospital for relief for their left legs skiing.

Maplecroft-Birch Area: Golfers Take to Links to Soak Up Sun

(Covering the area bounded by Burroughs, Main, Ann Arbor Rd., and the Junior High, including Maplecroft and Birch Sub.)
 GL 3-3144
 With the weather so lovely, many of our neighbors are spending their leisure hours at the country club either golfing or enjoying dinner and dancing in the evening.
 Last weekend the Robert Procks of Simpson were the guests of the Country Club at the Gull Lake Country Club. They reported a delightful time especially after meeting several fraternity brothers of Bob's from Purdue University. After dining and dancing they sat till the wee hours reminiscing of the "good old days."
 The Wendell Lents of Edison were guests of the Ralph Fluckey's last Saturday at a dinner dance at the Hawthorne Valley Country Club where Ralph entertained the Lents and several other couples from Plymouth, all members of the bowling team he sponsors.
 Mrs. Larry Becker and Mrs. James Ross will be guests of Mrs. Cedric Sweet of Harding, Thursday, at the Washtenaw Country Club.
 Happy birthday to Mrs. Alex Ballock of Edison who was the surprise honor guest at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Troeder and family of Dearborn and Mr. and Mrs. Don Last and family of Livonia.
 Mrs. William Graham and son Bill flew to Montgomery, Ala., for several days visit with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. McMann and their small son, Johnny.
 Last weekend, Mr. and Mrs. J. Witwer, visited Mrs. Charles Anderson of Lansing. Jim and Rhea Ross of Harding entertained their bridge club, Saturday evening. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wolfe, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Larry Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Morgeson.
 Lucille Spence, one of our teachers at Plymouth High School, who makes her home with the J. W. Sells of Edison, spent last weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Spence at Manieau Beach.
 Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ash and Mr. and Mrs. John Hamernick enjoyed the day and evening as guests of the Gasoline Dealers Association at Dearborn Inn, Wednesday. While the men attended the business meeting in the afternoon the women went shopping. They returned for cocktails served at six on the Patio at the Inn. Then dinner and dancing to Don Pablo's orchestra. Sounds like fun!
 Mrs. Philip Theobald and a small son, Ricky, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Cornelisse of Grand Rapids. They are now making their home there after spending several years in Florida.
 Several of our neighbors and friends spent an enviable vacation last week as the guests of Mrs. J. W. Sells, Jr. at their summer home in Sand Pointe at Caseville, Mich. Those lucky girls were Mrs. L. B. Rice, Mrs. J. McLaren, Mrs. William Clarke, Mrs. Wm. Bake, Mrs. Harrison Moore, Mrs. C. Wiltse and Mrs. Lewis Goddard.
 Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith and family accompanied his father, Glenn Smith, to Baldwin, Mich., last weekend where they helped him open his summer home for the season.
 Our hard working and very capable scoutmaster, Ed Miller of Burroughs St., took troop No. 6 consisting of 26 boys and four leaders to Highland Recreational Area last weekend. The bulk of activities consisted of meeting first class requirements but weather hindered rather than helped.

 Two boys who completed their requirements for first class were Craig Blackford and Mark Schultheiss. John Stace completed requirements for cooking merit badge and Frank Eidson completed requirements for camping merit badge.

Three boys, who wish to remain anonymous, were lost for several hours while completing a five mile hike. Miller assures them they will get further instructions on hiking detail.
 Next weekend the Junior staff of the troop will be taking a canoe trip down Rifle River. The scoutmaster is looking forward to this event as there seems to be some pretty good cooks in the group. Here's hoping the weather will be good.

 "The Greengage Summer" by Rumer Godden — Five English children are thrown on their own for part of a summer in the town of Marne. The charming tale ingeniously unfolds into a suspenseful story. It is wise and penetrating and great fun along with its seriousness.

 "Duncan Hines' Food Odyssey" — How America's authority on good eating discovered the best food in the U.S.A. is revealed in this "mellow gastronomic memoir." In re-savoring his favorite dishes, he sets forth recipes.

New Arrival Welcomed In Newburg Area Home

(Covering the Newburg Area, bounded by Wayne Rd., Ann Arbor Rd., Lalonde and Joy Rd., including the Washington School area.)
 BY MRS. EMIL LAPOINTE
 GA. 1-2029

Guess the nicest way to start off the news this week would be with the item about a new baby. Congratulations are in order at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Smith of Newburg road on the birth of a daughter, Carol Lynn, born Wednesday, May 14 at St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor. The young lady tipped the scales at 9 pounds 4 1/2 ounces and both mother and baby are fine. Mrs. Smith is the former Edna Giesner.

The Community Club of the Patchen school is having their annual night out on Thursday, May 22 when the ladies of the group will meet at Lofy's restaurant for dinner. The hour of eating is set for 7 p.m., so all who plan on attending should make an effort to be prompt.

During the past week, the LaPointe household was a bit disturbed by the appearance of a pigeon with a band on its leg. It wouldn't have disturbed us so much if the bird had been well, but it was sick and despite the careful ministrations of two boy scouts, Bruce and David and the thoughtfulness of Mr. LaPointe, the pigeon died. If anyone in the vicinity had lost the pigeon we thought that they would be interested in knowing what had happened to it. The band on the bird's leg read, WOL 2157 AU 36.

Visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Mahl of Amrhein road the past weekend, was the Mahl's son, Dr.

George F. Mahl from New Haven, Conn. Dr. Mahl dropped off to visit with his parents enroute to San Francisco for a business appointment.

The Methodist Youth Fellowship of the Newburg Methodist church will be washing cars behind the church hall, Newburg road and Ann Arbor Trail on Saturday, May 24. Price per car, $1. The young folks are working to supplement their treasury so let's all get the family car shined up for the weekend.

Hope all you lovely mothers had a fine and happy Mother's Day last Sunday. Why don't you call and let me know about your company. I had my mom and dad, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Weiss, Sr., of Graham road for dinner and the day and I'm sure some of you folks did the same sort of entertaining. Why don't you call, GA. 1-2029 and let me know these things?

This writer had the privilege of touring the Northville State hospital, last Thursday, May 15 with Mrs. Paul English of Angeline Circle and Mrs. Carl Steinhoff of Newburg road and several other ladies of the Livonia City Women's club and if any of the readers of this column have some good books, recent magazines and good children's books, there is a need for these items in the library of the hospital. The hospital is located on Seven Mile road between Haggerty and Northville road. The folks there would be most appreciative if you could make such a contribution.

Until next week, then, I'll wait for your call.

Easy and Useful Is 'Soil Cement'

Constructing pavement about the property, no matter how small an area is needed, is inevitable. Surfacing may be needed for a garden walk, a side entrance, a platform for garbage cans, even a small patio.

Mixing concrete for pavement is a hard chore, and it can be costly if a large area is to be surfaced. An easy way to lick both of these problems is to use soil-cement. Not too many home owners are familiar with soil-cement although it is a product that has been used for many years for roads.

Actually, it is a mixture of ordinary property soil, cement and a little water. Soil makes the place of sand, and it is blended in with cement before adding water.

For example, any walk, patio or other similar project requires some excavation. Instead of removing the earth it is left in the area being worked, and cement is added and mixed with the soil.

An average size garden walk can be constructed in one weekend with soil-cement. Once the walk width is determined, and plumb lines for edging are established, grass sod is removed. Then the soil is loosened with a spade to a depth of at least 4 inches. It is not necessary to go any deeper. All stones and debris that are uncovered must be removed from the soil.

Then, use an iron garden rake to break down the soil or pulverize clay soil. To make the mixture, use nine parts soil to one part cement. This is done by figuring a square foot of soil as one part, and an equal amount of cement. Not too much water is needed; only enough to slightly more than dampen the soil.

To make the surface of the pavement smooth, use an ordinary lawn roller. Only make sure that the roller surface is wet to keep the soil-cement mixture from sticking to the roller.

Survey Shows Modern Youth Lack Stamina

"It looks as if today's youngsters are not as fit, in some areas, as those of some years ago," says Paul Hunsicker, professor of physical education at The University of Michigan.

"Modern physical education programs are partly to blame," he declares.

First test results in a nationwide "Youth Fitness Project" conducted by Hunsicker show arm and shoulder weakness and lack of endurance among both boys and girls age 10 through 17.

"The average 10-11 year-old boy can chin himself only once, while the best group—age 17—can chin themselves only six times, on the average.

"The girls just can't throw a softball, while the 600-yard run-walk showed lack of endurance among all youngsters, with the girls making an improvement from age 10 to 17," the professor says, explaining the preliminary nature of his finding.

Professor Hunsicker blames our culture, not biology, for the girls' failure to improve their endurance. "It is considered unladylike to be able to run," he declares.

"We used to have formal programs of gymnastics, but when we modernized physical education we threw out the baby with the bathwater in true American fashion.

"We failed to save some valuable training. We threw out a lot of strengthening exercises.

"Baseball alone won't strengthen the arms and shoulders sufficiently. You can't play it enough for that. And so with other sports, even though they are valuable in developing certain skills. Kids don't run enough now, either. Running is still one of the best conditioners for wind and endurance.

"We find a lack of gymnastic equipment in the nation's schools as we go around giving tests. There are no chinning bars, horizontal equipment, or even ropes in many school gyms. Luckily, we carry our own chinning bar with us."

Hunsicker says the point is missed by scoffers who say: "Why should a girl be able to throw a softball or a boy run without getting winded?"

"There are ways of expressing physical efficiency—or the lack of it, and muscular strength. Do we or don't we want to be physically fit and efficient?"

The testing project was sponsored by the American Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation. Professor Hunsicker says he is still collecting data but hopes to complete the study this summer.

THE READER Speaks Up

EDITOR:

Thank you for the three months gift subscription to your newspaper. It is a very fine paper with excellent, well written editorials and good coverage.

Plymouth is a friendly, progressive town and is lucky to have such a far sighted and civic minded paper to lead the way to even better things ahead.

As newcomers to this community, we especially appreciate the friendly welcome accorded us by many organizations, including the Newcomers Club and the Chamber of Commerce. Few towns or cities of any size in the Detroit Area even have a Newcomers Club. We feel that such an organization is invaluable in helping new families adjust and become a part of the community to which they have moved.

Enclosed is my check for a year's subscription to the Plymouth Mail.

Yours truly,

Returning Hungarians Like U.S.

VIENNA (UP) — Thanks to an understanding United States, 35 refugees recently returned home to Hungary after finding life in America too difficult — or too far away from loved ones. All of them, who had fled during the 1956 revolution, were transported back to Europe by the United States government. The investment may yet prove to be a fruitful one. Most of the 35 stressed they would remain good friends of the West even when back in their Communist-ruled homeland. They could be potent ambassadors. Some admitted they found the West and especially America, to be far different from the picture painted by Communist propaganda. American prosperity and friendliness they won't quickly forget. They had heard rumors that Communist spies gained admission to the United States in the guise of refugees but were reluctant to discuss this. Most wanted their identities shielded completely to prevent reprisals in Hungary.

Their Stories
The Hungarians arrived here by plane from America, and the Austrian government, which took over their care from the U.S. refugee authorities, returned them across the Hungarian border. "Three days I had work then three days I had nothing to do," said Josef Piller, 26, explaining why he was going home. He had been a car mechanic in Alliance, Ohio. Piller said he liked the United States very much. "Unfortunately, I could not find a proper job," he added. "I liked it in the states and have no complaints," said Georgy Stibor, a 36-year-old shoemaker, who had lived in Bridgeport, Conn. "Yet I could find no employment, and that's why I decided to return home."

He added that although wages are "high" in the United States, it is "difficult to support a family there."

Asked what he thought of the present international situation Stibor said: "I'll have the West in good remembrance and want both, East and West to live together in peace."

Janos Turi, 26, said the standard of living in the United States is "certainly higher than in Hungary."

Only a Trickle
"However, I cannot live without my family, which is in Hungary, and that's the reason why I am returning," he said.

He added that he would "especially miss the wonderful American automobiles."

In the group was an elderly woman with her attractive dark-haired 16-year-old granddaughter. They had lived in Los Angeles.

The 60-year-old grandmother was absolutely honest in giving the reason why she went to the United States in 1956.

I went to the states to meet my son I had not seen for 12 years," she explained. "Now that I have seen him and know he is happy and satisfied with life in California I want to go home."

"Most of those who return are homesick and will retain the West in good remembrance," the official added.

Front Row Center

by George Spalvin

The big night has arrived and departed for eight people who received the Plymouth Theater Guild "Gilda" awards. The silver and bronze award symbolizes the best theatrical work of the year. To each of the hard-working thespians the Gilda award means recognition by his co-workers and members that they have been "tops" in the current theatrical season.

At the May Theater Guild meeting the following people were presented Gilda awards: Dr. Ben Hill, Jean Frank, Alice Wright, Bill Kamen, Hal Young, Jim Blackman and Betty Houghton. Ben Hill received a Gilda for his acting in "The Desk Set." Best actresses of the year went to Jean Frank and the outstanding acting in "Double Door."

Two newcomers to the Theater Guild, Betty Houghton and Bill Kamen, now have Gildas gracing their living room walls for the most promising actresses and actors of the 1957-58 season. Jim Blackman, best supporting actor of the year, showed how it was done in "Double Door and My Sister Eileen."

Hal Young, best director of the year, earned his plaque with "The Desk Set." We hope to see more plays directed by this award winner in the coming 1958-59 season. And last but far from least—Alice Wright. She received two Gilda awards — best producer (My Sister Eileen) and best all-round worker in the Theater Guild for 1957-58. To list Alice's accomplishments would mean we could ramble on for more than a column. Let's just say we're glad she was selected for both awards.

Went to the "Pop" concert last week. The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra was never better. The audience applauded Fred Kendall and Rosemary Murch so that they had to do several encores. All the numbers were excellent. Over six hundred people sat at tables drank soda pop, chewed on peanuts and tater chips as they listened to the concert. It was delightful experience.

Next year they might have to hold this event on two nights to accommodate the crowds. I'm positive that by next season at least a thousand people will want to attend. The pop concert could be scheduled for a Friday and a Saturday night. . . instead of just the one night. I'm sure the Symphony could use the extra revenue.

Still would like to see the Guild and the Symphony get together with a mutual production. Thinking back to this last concert, the audience really appreciated some special numbers. Why couldn't we get together and plan a musical revue. Establish a theme, have an M.C. to guide the production, some singers, an instrumental number or two and possibly a satirical sketch or two. I'm sure the Theater Guild would be glad to provide talent for the sketches and direction for the over-all staging.

Well, maybe this is in the same dreamy stage as the Civic Center and a municipal auditorium. Let's hope not. I will have to agree with Paul Chandler and his statement in Mail Attitude column of two weeks ago. He stated that we need to become realistic about our needs and put the money on the line for the Civic Center. If it would take $5 per thousand for a few years, let's dig down in the old sock. After all, we are investing in the future of the best, little town in all of Wayne County, Michigan and the United States. And if we didn't feel that way, we wouldn't have decided to live here. Old George is for making Plymouth a bigger, better place for all our citizens.

Let me spend a moment or two being negative. Went to a movie the other night. I'm sorry to say that I didn't enjoy "The Brothers Karamazov" with "Baldy" Brynner. I guess I'm not alone in my disgust over this film since at the Cannes Film Festival in France they soundly booted the picture. They even gave the stars the cold shoulder after the film was over. The French people and all the visiting dignitaries thought the film was atrocious.

To me it was ripe for satire since it was slow, ponderous, and over-done. Some people I've talked to liked the German import that was the cause of Demetri spending all his money on parties. And as he would say in his Russian accent, "Be sure to have plenty of gypsies." Well, at least the Gypsies had work this past year in making this film. And things were getting tough with gypsies. In fact, the Union — local 806 — had considered doing some bombing just to get the movie people to realize that their tambourines were gathering dust. No, I'm sorry but "The Brothers K" did not impress me as Hollywood's best. But then every show can't be a hit — what would the critics have to complain about!

Time to head for the stage lights and pull the big master dimmer for the week. If I had time and I might next week, I'd like to tell you about a recipe for "Devil's Pills." These pills are loaded with calories since they are made with nuts, sugar, candied fruit, and chocolate. I'll see if I can't squeeze the recipe in before we ring up the curtain next week. After all, a person does like to have a few goodies to take a long with him to the theater in case the show is mediocre —

Township Board 'Art Appreciation' Is Theme Of Three Cities Art Show

The Township Board discussed problems dealing with the nation's recession, ruled on a private dump and debated various methods to curb vandalism at their monthly meeting in the Township Hall May 7.

The Board went on record to approve a resolution which will be sent to Michigan representatives in Washington, D.C. declaring dissatisfaction with present methods for dispersing surplus foods and emphasizing the need for Federal help to bolster the state's sagging welfare fund.

Supervisor Roy Lindsay said, "Distribution of surplus food is often handled by private stores who take this responsibility in hopes of increasing their business. Food is handled in bulk packages in individual requesting two pounds of beans is liable to end up with a 50 pound bag because there are no facilities to break up bulk packages."

"So many people are on welfare that the state and county is rapidly depleting their funds. We need Federal Government help badly to supplement these funds. Of course Plymouth Township citizens are not as hard hit as people in other counties."

The Board complied with a request from owners of a dump located on the corner of Schoolcraft and Haggerty Roads to allow garbage to be deposited there. The dump has been used as a deposit for rubbish only but the owners claim that as a result of the recession permission to deposit "raw garbage" would result in some much-needed extra business.

The Board agreed pending approval from the Michigan Board of Health declaring that the owner's proposed methods for handling the garbage meet health standards and will not cause a nuisance.

It was brought to the board's attention that vandals have been peeping the Township's pump house at the Lake Pointe Village development with lead shot. Several windows have been knocked out.

Lindsay says it is "only blind luck that some of the shot didn't knock out the automatic water meters located inside the shed. The board discussed urging the Green-span Development Company to install a wire fence which will discourage this type of activity. They were also disturbed at the thought of children hurting themselves in the vicinity."

In other business two bids were received detailing costs of installing an airplane warning light atop the Lake Pointe Village water tower. It was decided to table an action until word is received from the Civil Aeronautics Administration on whether or not a light is required to safeguard the water tower from being struck by airplanes.

'Art Appreciation' Is Theme Of Three Cities Art Show

The Three Cities Art Club has announced the date of its second Annual Outdoor Art Show as Saturday, June 7, in Plymouth's Kellogg Park, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. In case of rain, the exhibit will be held on June 14th.

The show will be representative of the best creative talent in the Plymouth, Northville, Livonia area. In addition to the framed easel exhibits of oil, water color, and pastels, there will be the new feature of a clothesline exhibit showing unframed and matted sketches, and also a browsing corner of smaller pieces.

To arouse a feeling for the creative process among the viewers there will be continuous displays of artists working in oil, charcoal, pastel, and water color. A ceramicist will demonstrate working with mosaic tiles, and an enamelist will do enamel jewelry making.

Purpose of the Three Cities Art Club is to stimulate interest in original and creative art, and to promote an appreciation for it in the community. Working with this as a guide, the Exhibit Committee has throughout the year arranged showings at cultural events, and sponsors a permanent rotating exhibit painting by members of the group in Plymouth's Dunning-Hough Library. Art teachers, professional artists, and qualified amateurs comprise the members.

To involve thought on the part of the public who view the paintings, it might be helpful to consider the following thoughts of great painters: Picasso (who restored the principles of design to art and liberated it from academic practice): "The artist is a receptacle of emotions . . . one must take one's good where he finds it . . . The picture is not thought out and determined beforehand, rather it while it is being made it follows the mobility of thought."

A picture lives on only through him who looks at it. . . There is no abstract art. One always has to begin with something. Whether he likes it or not, man is the instrument of nature . . . It is not what the artist does that counts, but what he is. What interests us is the torments of Van Gogh, the uneasiness of Cezanne, that is to say the drama of the man. The rest is false." (From an interview by Christian Zervos, in "The Creative Process," ed. by B. Ghiselin)

Matisse, when asked what was the source of his inspiration, replied: "I grow artichokes. Every morning I go into the garden and watch these plants. I see the play of light and shade on the leaves, and I discover new combinations of colors and fantastic patterns. I study them. They inspire me. Then I go back into the studio and paint." (From "This I Believe" ed. by Edward R. Murrow)

It is a similar process that stirs and starts the creative process in any artist. But like music that has no hearers, a work of art needs also a viewer to perceive and participate in the delights felt by the creator of it. The Three Cities Art Club hopes that through its exhibits will come this delight to those who search for it.

Fat Begats Fat At Rapid Rate

WASHINGTON (UP) — A Veterans Administration research team has found a new way to convert fat people into people losing weight. Fat produces more fat at a prodigious rate.

Dr. David D. Feller and Elmer Feist found in a joint research project at the VA hospital in Seattle, Wash., that fat tissue converts blood sugar and other nourishment into fat at a much faster rate than do other body tissues.

Feller and Feist incubated various mouse tissues and fed them with such compounds as glucose, acetate, propionate, and methylmalonate which are found in most body cells. The compounds were "tagged" with radioactive materials so they could be traced through complex chemical reactions.

The mouse fat tissues, they said, seemed to take up the raw materials on a "crash" basis, fashioning them into fat at a rapid rate. The researchers observed that fat was produced by the fat tissues at more than 100 times the rate for tissues from the liver.

The studies also showed that fat builds fat tissue a great deal differently from the way other tissues convert substances. For instance, fat makes fat out of acetate, a substance that other tissues convert to a variety of non-fat growth.

Feller and Feist are now trying to trace the steps in these processes. Feller expects this project to give helpful insight to the problem of weight control in humans.

Spelling Mistake Costs New York $1,000

ALBANY, N. Y. (UP) — It cost an estimated $1,000 to correct the spelling of a single word in the State Education Department Law.

To correct the spelling of the word "attendance," which appeared in the law as "at-tendence," a bill was introduced in the legislature, passed and signed into law by Gov. Averell Harriman. A spokesman estimated that all this cost $1,000.

Woman's Eye View

by Nancy Rigney

The chemise dress is not the latest thing in this rocket age — not by a long shot. Accommodating furniture designers have come up with the chemise chair to solve the awkward problem of sitting down in a chemise dress.

Wearers of the chemise find that the skirt is too tight to sit down gracefully. The designer's answer has a higher seat, foam-rubber cushions and swivel rocking action.

As graduation presses closer, an influx of appropriate (or otherwise) greeting cards is seen at the local card counters. High school and college grads may be surprised come June — for the contemporary card people have left no stone unturned in producing this year's crop of insults.

As might be expected, some of the cards puncture the ego ("You've graduated! How wonderful... for your teachers") and others make light of parental support ("Well, I guess this is goodbye... to allowances!")

Then there's the card that shows a pert miss proudly displaying her diploma. Congratulations. You've got yourself a bachelor's degree, states the cover of the card. Inside, the girl is donning track shoes and the message continues, "Now go get yourself a bachelor."

Or the one that shows an irate sheep, malice in its eyes, with a large, bare square on its side covered with a real bandage. Inside the card is reproduced the diploma or "sheepskin" contributed by the unfortunate creature on the cover and the one-word greeting, "Congratulations."

One of the best in the contemporary approach shows a young man in cap and gown atop a mound, a tassel of his mortar board fluttering in the breeze, his eyes filled with stardust. "May your loftiest dreams come true," declares the card. Inside, the graduate reclines on a couch as a bevy of beautiful girls curry his hair, feed him grapes and bring him wine.

And on and on they go, each one zanier than the last.

Local talent tripped across the stage in a roaring twenties number at Monmouth College in Monmouth, Ill. recently. The production was the annual Skits Skits Show and the talent was Mickey McBride, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Lumsden, 1404 Penniman. Mickey danced in the chorus in the portion presented jointly by Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity and Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority.

Mother's Day Leaves Pleasant Memories for Sunshine Area

(Covering the neighborhoods bounded by Sutherland, Main Street, Ann Arbor Road, Sheldon Road.)

BY JANE MALEY
GL. 3-4952

Mother's Day activities in the neighborhood take the lead for this week's column.

Mrs. H. J. Nicholls and granddaughter Judith Campbell of Edgerton, Wisconsin enjoyed a grand Mother's Day banquet at the Citadel. Sixty guests attended. A prize was given for the youngest mother and one for the oldest mother. A splendid program followed, consisting of recitations and singing.

Mr. Robert Finton of Flint spent Mother's Day with his mother, Mrs. Olive Finton. She received a lovely gift from her son.

Mrs. Edward Pearson enjoyed a visit with her mother, Mrs. Annie Franzel, of Bad Axe. We hope Mrs. Franzel is feeling much better.

The Moritz Langedam's had a houseful on Mother's Day. Among the guests were the families of Moritz from Ypsilanti, Nellie and Vern Perkins of Commerce Lake, Doris and John Beauchamp of South Lyon, and John of Plymouth. A son who resides in California was the only absentee.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dieckrick entertained at a "dessert and coffee" on Mother's Day for the following: Mr. and Mrs. John Oldenburg, Marian and Lee Owens and children Carol and Joe Vorbeck and their son.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Haines and Sherri Casper were in Carleton, for Mother's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Forster and family drove to Atlanta, Mich. to spend Mother's Day with Mrs. Forster's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Schad.

The George Kenyon's entertained the Earl Kenyon's at their home on Mother's Day.

Mrs. Alma Hogle gave a lovely dinner for her son Gordon and his family of Detroit on Mother's Day.

I think that Mother's Day here in Plymouth held the really true meaning of the occasion and there will always be a lot of pleasant memories of that day.

One of our young neighbors, Douglas Sutherland, returned home from his trip to Washington. Doug is safety patrol captain. While in Washington he was the guest of our Congresswoman, Martha Griffiths. This is a rare treat and we are justly proud to print this story. Keep up the good work, Doug!

W. J. Smith and family from Union City, Tennessee spent two grand weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wigam.

Mrs. Harold Curtis gave a birthday luncheon on May 14 for Mrs. A. Scott in honor of her 85th birthday. Twelve guests were present at this memorable affair. It is a little late, but many happy returns of the day.

Dorothy Sue Mandt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mandt, has been elected president of the students Religious Association at Eastern Michigan College. She has been made charter member of Omega Phi Alpha. Both she and her brother Bill, also of Eastern Michigan College, were home for Mother's Day. Bill is working hard these days to maintain a "B" average as he entered on a scholarship. I tip my hat to young people like these.

Mrs. Roy Isbell is enjoying a pleasant visit from her sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Fethke of Muskegon.

Mrs. Joseph Fisher of East Tawas came down to see his daughter, Mrs. William Thomas, recently. Barbara received her first Holy Communion May 18 at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church. A reception at her home for about 20 guests followed in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Snyder celebrated their first wedding anniversary last Sunday. We hope you both enjoy many more happy anniversaries together.

Lucky Mrs. Garnet Hitchcock left Friday for Buena Park, Calif. (about 20 miles this side of Los Angeles). She will have 3 weeks to bask in that glorious sunshine. Believe me, that's the place to go for a vacation. I wish she had left that trunk open!

George Parsons and son George, Jr., went on a scout camp-out. This excursion was for the dads and lads to get together at the Charles Howell Scout Reservation at Brighton.

Mrs. Parsons, I might add, is very active in the Ground Observers Corps. She just recently received her 250 hours award denoting 3 years of work. She deserves a great amount of credit for her achievements.

The Russell Rudick's of Ann Arbor Road and the Dale Johnson's attended the Elks bowling tournament at Fort Wayne, Ind. last weekend.

Your reporter enjoyed a lovely tea at the home of new-comer Mrs. Robert Fisher of Arbor Village. It was a perfect setting with the cool country breezes blowing all around us. Such a friendly gesture on her part entitles her to our highest praises. I can't say enough good things about the New-comers Club. It is certainly stepping right along. We welcome all newcomers!

So long for the time being. See you next week?

YOUR HANDWRITING TELLS YOUR STORY

With Grapho Analysis
BY JEAN EVANS

Dear Jean:

I am a housewife with three small children. I read your column every week and have wanted to write in since you first started it.

Please analyze my handwriting and that of my mother-in-law. Maybe if we both could understand what "makes the other tick" and our differences we could get along better. She has consented to this as we both really want to get along but think maybe we're just too different. Are we?

TRYING
Dear TRYING:

You are independent and resent interference. You like to stand on your own two feet and not be directed by someone else. You are generous sometimes to the extent of not using good judgment. You do things impulsively then wish you hadn't.

You are a dreamer, always looking ahead and planning for the future. Some of these dreams never materialize because you lack the will power to fulfill your goal.

You are frank and outspoken and are capable of sarcasm. You are not easily hurt by criticism.

Your mother-in-law's interest lie in many fields. She scatters her energies, has too many irons in the fire. She likes variety, change and travel.

She meets situations head-on. She is direct in her approach and speaks her mind in no uncertain terms. She speaks with authority and will even resort to nagging to impose her will upon others. She is sensitive to criticism and her feelings are easily hurt; many times these hurts are not easily forgotten. She is a practical person who has little patience with impracticality.

Dear Jean:
Please analyze my husband's writing for me.
JUST INTERESTED:

Your husband is a person who is impulsive and will act without thought of the consequences. He leaps then looks. He is one who feels it is important to have others do his bidding. Once he gets started doing something he resents being interrupted. He is impatient and irritable.

He is usually not sensitive and can take criticism in the manner in which it was given without taking offense.

Dear Jean:
I have read your column with interest. Would you please analyze my handwriting?
LOIS

Dear LOIS:
You like people and are patient. You are more or less easy going and are not easily insulted nor irritated.

You would much rather do something creative with your hands than to participate in sports.

You have a tendency to jump to conclusions and thereby deflating your own ego. You need to develop more self confidence.

I am wondering what you can tell me about myself from my handwriting. I will be watching the paper to see your answer.

SMILING TREE TOPS
Dear SMILING TREE TOPS:

You are an impulsive person who has days of glee and days of gloom. You wear your heart on your sleeve and when your feelings are hurt, which is evident that they frequently are, you show it.

You can put up a healthy argument whenever the occasion presents itself.

Famed Leathercrafter To Exhibit at Annual Madonna Art Show

The annual student art exhibit, organized by Sister M. Angeline, CSSF, head of Madonna's art department, will be held at Madonna College May 18-25 from 3 to 5 and from 7 to 9 p.m. daily in the Exhibit Hall.

A special treat for the art connoisseurs will be offered by Detroit resident, Bernard Wolff, one of the country's most famous leathercrafters. He will display some of his rare works at the college.

A reception for the students' families and friends to be held Sunday, May 18, in the Social Hall from 2 to 5 p.m. will add a festive tone to the opening day of the exhibit. Honoring the gathering will be Wolff.

Participating in the student art exhibit will be all the classes in creative arts: water color, color and design, lettering and poster design, oil painting, ceramics and crafts. Exhibited will be the art work of 35 students ranging from beginners to the advanced.

This year's novelty will consist of mosaic tile pictures, exquisite ceramic vases, portraits and an outer space oil painting will make the exposition notable. Other pieces to be exhibited will exemplify various experimental techniques in painting.

Also displayed will be a ten-foot-long stage backdrop symbolizing the Seat of Wisdom. Executed in casein, the backdrop was used as stage decoration at the Madonna College Honors convocation April 27. On exhibition likewise will be a casein painting of Our Lady of the Lourdes Centenary show at Siena Heights College, Adrian.

Outstanding among the leathercraft articles displayed by Wolff will be the commemorative portfolio of the late mayor Albert Cobo and the renowned wall plaque entitled "Hussar." Books tooled and hand bound, pictures portraying animal life in "3D" tooling, and a purse with the Wolff family coat of arms will form a part of the collection.

The 21 countries in North and South America own the Pan-American building in Washington, D.C.

There will be no more Blue Cross collections as the Blue Cross membership in the Grange has terminated. Each member will receive a letter before the last of June explaining the matter.

Our next meeting June 5 is our usual pot-luck supper, the last one until September 4, so be sure to come. We have been having such splendid gatherings all winter and spring we must keep it up.

AS PART OF the Armed Forces Day celebration held nationally last week, the Passage-Gayde Post of American Legion and its Auxiliary presented American flags to Our Lady of Good Counsel School and the Dunning-Hough Library. Ceremonies were held on front lawns of the institutions. Pictured is the ceremony at the library with Librarian Mrs. Agnes Pauline and Mrs. Wallace Osgood, library assistant, accepting the flag. Also shown are Ernest Koi (saluting), and Harry Burleson and Warren Plubel raising the flag. Rudy Kunz was also a member of the presentation team. At the school, the children sang two verses of the National Anthem and gave the pledge of Alligiance.

Just Forget Watering, If All You Do is 'Sprinkle'

HIDING CRACKS OUT OF BOTTLE

Wall and ceiling cracks that are patched before repainting a room must be 'conditioned' before starting the paint job. Unless these freshly patched cracks are coated with a primer or shellac, they will 'bleed' through a finished paint job no matter how many coats are applied to a wall and ceiling. This conditioning fills the holes in patching plaster and eliminates paint absorption. It may only seem that stoppers in bottles stick so that they can't be removed more often in summer. Temperature changes and sugary liquids are the usual causes of this difficulty. To remove the stopper, don't use force or hot water. This is doubly important for glass, china or antique bottles of any kind. Instead apply warm water to the neck and soft soap around the opening.

WATER, DON'T SPRINKLE THE LAWN. A hose with jets embedded along its length permits more lawn to be watered at one time. It shouldn't be moved until ground has been soaked to approximate a rainfall.

Better To Neglect It Than Harm

Most people rate watering as an essential garden chore. This isn't literally true, even in a drought year. It's surprising how many plants will survive without water, although they won't flower or look up to par.

Water is essential to maintain the even growth of plants during spring and summer. In these two seasons throughout most of the country, rainfall normally is pretty well scattered and in sufficient quantity to keep plants growing. Supplementary watering by the gardener may be needed only at planting time or in periods of near drought.

Supplementary watering should soak the soil deeply so that roots can absorb the moisture. Sprinkling the tops of the plant is not beneficial and usually does more harm than good. Repeated sprinklings, for example, will encourage the growth of roots near the surface and these will die out promptly if the sprinkling cannot be maintained. Periodic irrigation, the third form of artificial watering, is practiced by market growers and gardeners in the Southwest where rainfall is scant.

Once the plants set out this spring are established, how much watering need be done? None at all, if it rains once a week. If it doesn't rain, then soak the soil deeply enough once a week to approximate a rainfall.

Whether or not the lawn should be watered depends on its age and the kind of grass as well as the weather. New lawns, sown in the spring, are shallow rooted and dry up quickly in hot weather. So if rainfall is scant, turn on the sprinklers and let them soak one area thoroughly before moving to another one.

An established lawn of fescue grasses is almost drought resistant, as is clover, so when rainfall is scarce, don't water a fescue lawn. On the other hand a lawn 50 per cent or more bluegrass will need sprinkling and soaking once a week. If a homeowner starts weekly sprinkling of the lawn in June and by soaking each area deeply, it may take a full week to water it all — then he should continue the watering all through the summer. It's worse to start and stop than not to water at all.

If there's neither equipment, water nor inclination to sprinkle the lawn, it won't die. Grass is a permanent, long-lived plant that will make new green growth when rain falls or water is available again.

During dry spells in summer, some types of planting need water much more than others. Where cities and towns restrict the amount or hours of watering during dry weather,

New Air Conditioner Is Small, Easy to Install

BY EDNA MILES

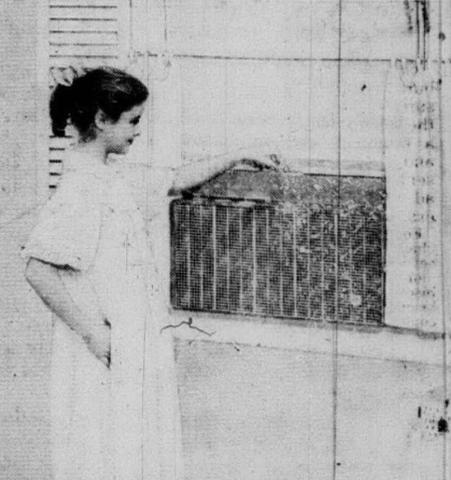

THIS is the time of year when the homemaker begins to think about buying an air conditioner. That is, she thinks about it if she's foresighted.

For the truth is, summer has a way of sneaking up on us. There's a stretch in which there seems no need to worry about hot weather wardrobes or air conditioning. And suddenly, the first hot day is with us and finds us unprepared.

One of the newest of the 1958 room air conditioners is only 13 inches high and deep. It's about half the size of previous one-horsepower models.

It comes with all of the required installation accessories and the only tools of his own that the man of the house need supply are screwdriver and saw. Anyone who can handle these can install the air conditioner in a lower sash in a half-hour, according to the manufacturer.

The nutria cabinet has been given modern straight-line styling to harmonize with furnishings in any room. Its shallow depth permits even hang of drapes.

New air conditioner, only 13 inches high and deep, permits drapes to hang freely. It's easy to install, too.

How to Photograph a Group

Everyone who owns a camera at some time or other has to take a picture of a group of people. We bet the photographer if his picture doesn't satisfy everyone in the group!

With beach weather here, no one is going to let a photographer take only pictures of the water and sailboats. When friends or family clamor for a picture that includes everyone, try to arrange them against a neutral background. The lake or plain sand is best without trees, flagpoles or the boardwalk in sight.

In addition, this neutral background should be a bright spot in semi-shadow. If direct light hits the faces of any members of the group, it will cause the people in the picture to look like a bunch of assorted skeletons.

Arrange the group so that the larger figures are to the back and smaller ones to the front. If the group consists chiefly of tall men and women, then ask some of the taller ones to sit or kneel in front of the others.

Too wide an angle lens will cause distortion of a group picture so that figures on the left will look as though their faces were sliding off the print. Also, too wide an angle lens will make the figures at the rear so small that they look like midgets alongside the people in the foreground.

If a group of people is being photographed indoors with artificial light, do not try to take the picture with only one source of illumination. With either flash or floodlights, one lamp will light the persons in front satisfactorily but the unfortunate ones on the right or the left will be in darkness.

Try to light the group evenly with two or three lights. The lights should be placed an even distance from the group, one light behind the camera and on either side of the camera in the middle distance between the camera and the last person in the photograph.

Lights are only needed for indoor group photography. Outdoors, particularly on the beach, the problem is to prevent distortion from too bright natural light.

In selection of wall paper, look at the amount of pattern in the rest of the room—rugs, draperies and upholstery. Usually one pattern in a room is sufficient. Various textures can be used to get variety.

Privacy and decoration are combined in lattice screening used as a fence or as smaller lawn dividers. The posts are 4 by 4-inch lumber, 8 feet long, 2 feet set in concrete. If concrete is not used, the below-surface depth should be 3 feet. Roof the tops of the posts with a 45 degree bevel, and round all sharp edges. Use 1 by 2-inch lumber to frame the screen. Nail the vertical frame members to the posts with 12-penny finishing nails. Nail the horizontal members to the vertical ones with 10-penny finishing nails. Use finished lath for the lattice work, or resaw 1 by 2-inch stock on a bandsaw to produce the lattice. The ends of each piece are cut at a 45 degree angle. Set the strips between the frame members. Nail the lattice to the frame with 6-penny finishing nails. The lower end is left open so rain will drain out; but the top is capped with 1 by 4-inch lumber, nailed to the frame. Spray-paint the screen with outside varnish or paint.

It's Spring Buffet Supper Time

Spring is the time for buffet supper parties. A superb new dish — just the thing for a buffet — is a bright tasting chicken and cereal casserole, served with a tossed salad and strawberry towers.

For the casserole, creamed chicken and mushrooms are served on curry-seasoned junior-sized shredded wheat biscuits. The crunchy cereal biscuits make an interesting contrast with the delicate creamed chicken mixture.

Spring Casserole
 1/2 cup butter or margarine
 3/4 tsp. curry powder
 2 cups junior-sized shredded wheat biscuits

1 (3 oz.) can mushroom caps
 2 cups chicken bouillon
 3/4 cup milk
 6 tbsp. flour
 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 3 cups cooked chicken, cut in strips

Melt 1/4 cup butter or margarine in a skillet. Add curry powder. Add the shredded wheat biscuits and stir until biscuits are well coated with curry butter. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, for 5 minutes. Remove from heat. Drain mushrooms; save liquid. Mix mushroom liquid, bouillon and milk together. Melt remaining 1/2 cup butter. Add flour and mix well. Gradually stir in the liquid and cook, stirring constantly, until mixture is smooth and has thickened. Add mushrooms, nutmeg, salt and chicken to sauce.

Arrange curried shredded wheat biscuits in a shallow casserole dish. Spoon over the chicken mixture. Bake in a 350 degree F. oven for 10 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

The casserole is also a time-saver for the housewife who spends the day house-cleaning or decorating and must whip up something tasty for a hungry family.

Spring appetites are never heartier than when the menu includes strawberry shortcake desserts. Here's a new way of serving this old favorite that will cut expense and add enjoyment — strawberry towers.

All you need are a few fresh berries, whipped cream or ice cream filling and a package of individual shortcake dainties from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department.

Place the shortcake dainties on individual serving plates and remove the center with a biscuit cutter or a knife. Fill with ice cream or whipped cream and place sliced strawberries in the filling. Put the center of the shortcake dainty on top and garnish with one large berry. Plan on one strawberry tower to a customer for the first round, but better be prepared for reorders too.

To complete the buffet you can serve the regular coffee, tea or milk. But, for a new angle, try iced citrus tea.

Bring 1 pint cold water to a boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat. Immediately add 7 teabags. Brew 5 minutes. Press teabags along side of pan and remove. Pour tea into 1 quart cold water. ## Expert Sets Up Balanced Diet

(Editor's Note: The second in a series of six, this article was prepared for the Plymouth Mail by the Diet Therapy Section of the Michigan Dietetic Association)

By Mrs. Muriel G. Wagner, Nutritionist
 Merrill-Palmer School, Detroit

You're not average. No one is. You are a blend of the traits nature gave you and the ones which you yourself have developed. Your body build comes from your parents but the figure on your frame is up to you.

Your time-table for growth is as personalized as a monogrammed identification bracelet. A girl may begin her growth spurt as early as eight years of age or as late as fourteen. Boys usually start from one to three years later. When girls are about twelve they may make their greatest gains in height, while boys usually do this at about fourteen. Your greatest gain in weight comes about six months to one year later than your maximum gain in height.

Growth in height usually stops somewhere between sixteen years and the early twenties. Being head and shoulders above the crowd at twelve doesn't mean you'll be the leading candidate for the basketball center at eighteen. It may be that you've had it and will grow little if any in the future.

Growth in weight usually stops in the early twenties, although some girls may reach their adult weight as early as sixteen. That girl with the Marilyn-Monroeish figure may have been a blimp-in-a-bathing suit at twelve. Remember you've got your own growth time-table. You're an individual — not a statistic.

Besides increased growth, a girl is physically preparing herself for marriage and motherhood. Scientific studies have shown that a woman's ability to have a healthy child and still remain in good health herself is related to the kind of diet she has during her teen-age years.

All this rapid growing and maturing means you need more food — more food even than adults eat. That's the reason for that "hollow feeling." The kind of food you choose to fill that hollow will help decide if you have sound, well-formed teeth, clear skin, glossy hair and the energy to help you work and play at peak performance.

The fact that energy comes from calories and the calories come from food is pretty old stuff. But did you know that you need calories for growth as well as work?

Your height, weight, and age affect your calorie need. It's only when you eat food of technical terms, the meal pattern below will meet all of your body's needs for one day. "Grow" foods are sources of protein and minerals and "glow" foods provide vitamins.

For the girl: Enriched or whole grain bread or cereals, four servings; Butter or substitute, 3 tsp.; Milk, whole, 4 glasses (or 3 glasses milk and 1 serving cheese or ice cream); Meat, fish, poultry, 1 1/2 servings (Liver once a week for "red-blooded" teenagers); Eggs, one per day; Potato, white, 1 serving; Citrus fruit, 1 serving or 2 servings tomatoes; Other fruit and vegetables, four (2 green leafy or yellow) servings.

For the boy: (Add this to the diet above). Bread or cereals, 3 servings; Butter or substitute, 3 tps.; Milk, whole, 1 glass; Meat, fish, or poultry, 1/2 serving; Potato, white, 1 serving; Other vegetables and fruits, 2 servings.

Sound like a lot of food? It really isn't. The girl's diet contains about 1800 calories; the boy's about 2400, depending on the size of servings. If you've figured your calorie allowance correctly, you'll see that you've got some calories to spare for snacks.

Be as sharp about choosing your snacks as you are about spending your hard earned cash. The "grow" and "glow" foods are the best bargains.

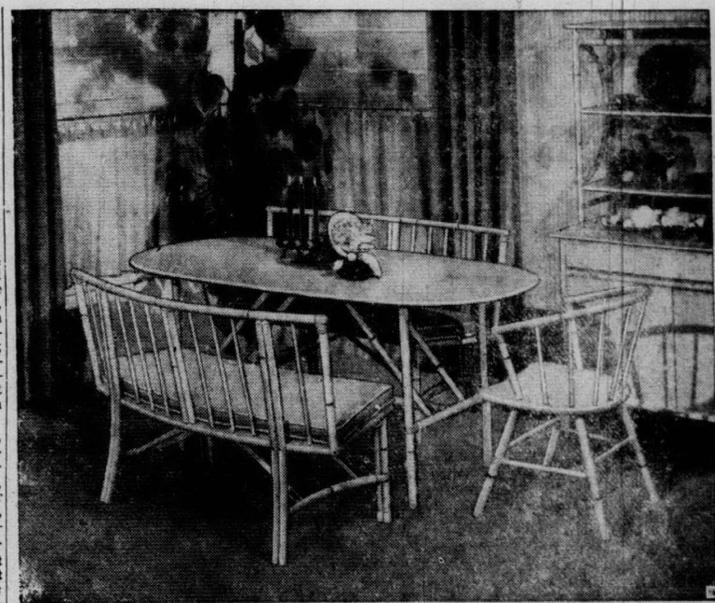

This nutrition know-how is the result of years of work by thousands of scientists, nutritionists, doctors, dietitians, teachers, and food service managers. The extra sparkle that comes from eating well reflects itself in your work, your play, and your relationships with other people.

All good eating takes is a little brainpower and no extra money. It's really a push-over. Besides, it could become a habit.

Fish Fillets

Frozen fish fillets such as cod, perch, and haddock cost less than forty cents a pound, but taste like expensive fare when fixed this way: Season with salt and pepper, a little basil or chopper parsley. Cover with sour cream and fine crumbs and bake. Serve with fluffy mashed potatoes, buttered beets, wilted greens, and a fruit pie.

It may be possible to estimate accurately the ages of whales as the result of a study

CASUAL AND BEAUTIFUL, this ash-blond dining group seats eight comfortably. Benches are curved and the table is oval. The server base, with sliding doors, can stand alone or with the open hutch top. Cushions are covered in any of eight shades, ranging from tangerine to brown. The wood is ash with a clear varnish finish and rattan markings. This group would grace an informal dining room. It is ideal, of course, for summer homes — long the recipients of cast-off furniture that families were ashamed to have in their winter homes.

PLYMOUTH SAVES YOU MONEY ON GAS... MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN VICTORY PROVES IT!

New "Fuel-Saver" Choke that helped clinch title is standard equipment on all Plymouth V-8s

Pound for pound, Plymouth uses less gasoline than either of the "other two" cars in the low-price "3"! This was proved beyond doubt when a 1958 Plymouth V-8 was officially declared winner of the low-price car competition in the 1958 Mobilgas Economy Run. Plymouth's competitors also entered cars with 6-cylinder engines (supposedly more economical) but Plymouth beat every car in its class—V-8s and 6s alike!

This title-winning Plymouth is exactly the same Belvedere V-8 with TorqueFlite Automatic Transmission that you can buy right off your Plymouth dealer's floor.

These tests prove that every Plymouth has built-in economy features not found in the "other two". For instance—one of the most important factors in Plymouth's smashing win is the new "Fuel-Saver" Choke that you get at no extra cost on all Plymouth V-8s. This ingenious device employs a triple-stage vacuum piston and a new thermostatic element to reduce the amount of fuel you use in warming up the engine. So it can save you even more on short-distance drives—the kind most people make.

Among the many other savings Plymouth gives you is the $140 you save on standard-equipment Torson-Aire Ride. The "other two" charge up to that much extra for their best suspension systems.

So if you are dollar-conscious, better hustle over and talk terms and trade with your Plymouth dealer. He wants your business, and he'll go all out to get it!

State Income Tax

A STATE INCOME TAX is being pushed by economists and government leaders.

The new levy is expected to be the key point of the search for more money during the 1959 legislative session, hard on the heels of a heated election year.

Income tax, long thought to be the fairest levy possible, remained as a theory for Michigan until the legislative tax study committee came up with a tentative report a week ago.

"Even as a flat rate tax, it is the most equitable and progressing levy," said the report.

Experts working with the committee said that the heaviest tax burden now falls on low-income groups, while the income tax is spread with equal impact over all income groups.

Other sections of the report, however, said that low-income groups, which now pay a disproportionate share of the state's revenue, benefit most from the services the state offers. The report pointed to welfare and other items aimed directly for the benefit of the indigent.

In Michigan, the constitution requires uniform taxation rather than allowing a graduated tax schedule, similar to that used in computing the brackets of the federal income tax.

The way around that, lawmakers of the committee said, is to levy a uniform tax by rate and provide exemption, either $600 a year like the Federal Government or $1,000 a year, like some states.

The income tax has drawn theoretical—but not necessarily political—support from key figures in both the Democratic and Republican parties. The timing of the legislative study took them off the hook in an election year.

Several years ago, an income tax proposal came before the legislature with a $10,000 exemption and reductions of the sales tax on food, but failed to get out of committee.

The only outspoken advocate of the income tax in recent years has been Senator Frank Andrews (R-Hillman), who said he considered it "the fairest and most sensible tax available."

Whether it becomes law in Michigan and the details of exemptions and the rate will be the questions posed to the lawmakers next winter.

CONSUMERS Power Co. is seeking a $15,300,000 electric service rate increase for the first time since 1950 for more than 800,000 customers in 61 outstate counties.

The company said that living costs have jumped 18 per cent since its last rate increase.

Wage adjustments and expansion of service during that period, plus the need for further development to meet "the growing demands of the economy" were cited as major reasons.

Washington Report

Greater Airline Safety Sought

WASHINGTON. The recent mid-air collision over Nevada involving a commercial airliner and a military jet plane point up all too clearly the imperative need for making the Nation's airlines safer.

Unfortunately, both Congress and the Civil Aeronautics Board—which is responsible for air safety—have not attacked the problem with the vigor that is demanded.

Last year the House turned down a CAB request for $221,700 to hire 23 additional employees in the safety section. Part of the money was finally approved by a joint House-Senate committee—but only enough to hire 15 workers.

For its part, the CAB admits that it gets money for safety work but diverts some of it to hire people in other activities.

CAN'T GIVE IT AWAY. The newest Washington snafu is about to be solved but for a while it looked hopeless.

Some 1,400 students at Washington Township Junior High School in Ohio raised a tidy sum to give to the Federal Government to speed up space development. "Operation Moon Money," they called it.

Sorry, said Uncle Sam, all contributions have to go right to the treasury and can't be earmarked for special projects. The youngsters went directly to the White House with their problem.

A diligent investigation showed that Section 6 of the proposed law creating the National Aeronautics and Space agency specifically permits voluntary contributions of personnel, facilities and money. The youngsters may soon get their money in orbit.

KEEPING THE RECORD STRAIGHT. Since 1913 the Democrats in Congress enacted 14 tax increases—the Republicans only one. And there have been 10 tax cuts. Seven of these were sponsored by Republicans and only three by Democrats.

SHIFT IN EMPHASIS. Republicans, concerned over losing Congressional seats in the Fall elections, have come up with a new theme to call attention to their plight: While business people were electing a President in 1956, the AFL-CIO was electing a Congress. Checking campaign contributions the Republicans found that labor unions made contributions to 300 of the 435 candidates and 175 of these were elected.

Pointing to what they call a union-dominated Congress the Republicans say that 216 representatives and 45 senators voted a majority of the time on the side of liberal-labor legislation.

ABLE BUT UNEMPLOYED. Pressure is building up to break the trend of employers who refuse to hire workers over 40. There is hope on the horizon that Congress will act. Considerable support has been indicated for legislation which would prohibit contractors on a Government project from discriminating against persons because of age.

THE HIGH COST OF HEALTH. Congress is almost certain to make a searching study of the high cost of so-called "miracle drugs" before the current session ends.

A three-year investigation into this matter by the Federal Trade Commission is about to wind up and the evidence is expected to show that these drugs are out of the reach of almost every average family.

The Congressional spotlight is also likely to be focused on extravagant claims being made about certain new drugs coming on the market. For one thing, FTC investigators are finding it hard to check these drugs in time to stop a manufacturer from putting them on the market with sweeping curative claims. By the time investigators find the drugs not as effective as advertised thousands of dollars worth have already been sold.

RAILROAD DILEMMA. The ailing railroad industry apparently has not come up with enough friends in Congress to pull it out of its economic slump.

The railroads may get $500 million in short-term loans to improve plants and facilities and $200 million to buy new freight cars—but not much more.

Repeat of the 10 per cent wartime excise tax on passengers and the 3 per cent tax on transportation of property seems out of the question at this time.

LIFE TENURE. SHARON, Mass. (UP)—Charles E. Collins won't have to run for election any more. Townsfolk granted him life tenure as town clerk and accountant. Collins, who has a wife and 1-year-old son, is a cripple but handles both his jobs effectively from his wheelchair.

"Life Begins at Forty"

By ROBERT PETERSON

MY RECENT COLUMN concerning day centers for older people has brought a great many inquiries from readers. In order to obtain more information about these centers I have just interviewed geriatrician Harry Levine who is the founder of the day center idea.

While many well-meaning people advocate more and better homes for the elderly, Mr. Levine, an official of the New York Department of Welfare, believes that the world needs more day centers and fewer old folks' homes.

"No matter how well you equip them," he says, "an old folks' home is not a satisfactory substitute for home sweet home. It's man's nature to want the sanctity and independence of living under his own roof. Take him out of his natural environment and put him into the segregated, protective atmosphere of an old folks' home and he withers on the vine."

"In my opinion," he continues, "homes for the elderly should be reserved for people who can no longer care for themselves. If all the reasonably healthy men and women presently taking up space in old folks' homes were sent back to their homes or apartments there would be a two-way benefit—provided they lived near a day center where they could find companionship and stimulating activities. Not only would adequate space become available to those who really need nursing care, but these reasonably healthy people would find greater enjoyment in their local day center than they found in the old folks' home."

THIS IS A FRESH, controversial concept in the geriatric field. There are still some who believe that old folks' homes offer the best solution in the care of the elderly. But Mr. Levine contends that most older people can care for themselves. "I'm all for caring for those who really need care," he says, "but I contend that most older people are essentially healthy and that they lapse into chronic and debilitating illnesses not because of organic failure but because they have nothing better to do. Lonely, bored, and with no one to take a lively interest in them, they invite and pamper any ailments which come their way."

"In our day centers," continues Mr. Levine with the enthusiasm of a zealot, "we stimulate interest in the excitement of being alive. We do this by providing an atmosphere of affection and activity. We give members plenty of opportunities to talk and make new friends. We encourage them to use and develop their skills. We urge them to plan lectures, parties, and outings."

This is preventive medicine of the first order and we know it works because our day center members require 50 per cent less medical care than the average older. Our members also make quicker recoveries from illness, apply less frequently for admission to old folks' homes, and rarely develop mental problems.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE to see a day center for older people established in your community, enlist the support of your friends and plan a campaign to start action on such a project.

Senator Potter's Observations On Nixon Tour

POLITICS was forgotten last week as an estimated 100,000 glad hands welcomed Vice President and Mrs. Nixon back from an eight-nation riot-studded South American tour.

It will be a test of our maturity as a nation to take in stride the hostile episodes which demeaned and endangered them. The President and Vice President have emphasized that our relations with Peru, Venezuela and other countries have been and will continue to be friendly, that the incidents were sparked by a tiny band of radicals.

These are countries to which we are traditionally bound by ties of hemispheric solidarity and by the Rio Pact, signed eleven years ago, which allies us for the safety and well-being of all. Of course, we must not permit a few ill-starred episodes to shake these ties. Obviously, we need to do a better public relations job in South America, to acquaint the man in the street with our very real concern for his freedom and well-being.

However, certain important questions must be answered now: Were the riots more than Communist-inspired? What was our intelligence doing if the Nixons were not warned and protected at the Caracas airport? In the light of this, what protection can the average citizen expect from a so-called friendly government when he visits a business or personal reason? Should the State Department require further guarantees for the safety of American nationals?

In days to come these questions will be explored by Congress and other branches of the Government. No matter what we find, the American people have reason to take pride in the way their Vice President and his wife carried themselves through a frightening ordeal. Their demeanor reflected credit on the nation.

If Your Name Is 'Leslie'

By ANN REYNOLDS, Ph.D.

Trying to make your mind what to name the new baby? What about "Leslie"? It is good for a boy or a girl, although there are more men called "Leslie" than women.

To begin with, it was a last name, the one of a Scottish clan, and it originated in the Scottish Highlands, the county of Fire in Aberdeenshire where Leslie was the name of a small town.

According to clan tradition, the founder of the Leslie clan was a Hungarian nobleman, strange as this sounds. Almost 900 years ago a Hungarian knight named Bartoll or Bartholomew settled in Scotland, having traveled to that part of the world in the retinue of Princess Margaret who came to Scotland from Hungary in order to marry King Malcolm III. of Scotland.

The king became fond of the brave Bartoll, and offered him a grant of land. He was to call his own all the fields for a mile around from the spot where, riding his horse, he found it necessary to dismount, and feed the animal. Taking possession of vast parcels of land in such a way was nothing unusual at that time.

Well, the future Leslie rode off, and on his return the king inquired where he had found the horse needed feeding. Whereupon the knight replied:

"Between a lesse ley and a mair My horse it tyrd and stopp'd there"

which means that the animal showed he wished to be fed somewhere between a small er and a larger stretch of untilled land.

This was all right with Malcolm. According to the cherished tradition of the Leslies his Majesty countered,

"Lord Leslie shall thou be And thy heirs after thee." The new Lord Leslie built a magnificent castle on the very spot the smart animal had picked, which castle became the ancestral home of the clan. The first Lord Leslie was made the King's chamberlain, and married the king's sister, Beatrix. Their offspring enjoyed a fine reputation in Scotland, and more than one member of the clan made his mark in history. In due course some migrated to the New World, and now the name is widespread in this country also, both as a first and a last name.

The Leslies also have their own tartan; it is a splendid pattern of wide green and blue squares, crossed with a thin red thread. But you need not be a Leslie in order to wear this badge of the valiant clan; tartans are perennial favorites with designers of fabric.

RICHMOND, Va. (UP)—After refusal of requests to restore the train which used to awaken residents at 7 a.m. with a blast from its whistle, residents were successful in getting a bus driver whose route runs through the town to sound his horn repeatedly at the same hour.

Take the wheel... get the Swept-Wing feel!

You spend a lot of time in your car—driving to work, shopping, taking trips. How your car rates on the road is important to you. So all we ask before you invest in a new car is this: Come in and take a "road rate" drive in a Swept-Wing 58

Dodge. Really compare it thoroughly on every count. We honestly believe it rides better, handles easier, responds quicker than any other car you've ever driven. But we'll leave the verdict entirely up to you. You be the judge.

YOU BE THE JUDGE! THINGS TO NOTICE IN THE SWEPT-WING 58: The feel behind the wheel—You feel different because you sit differently. Low and snug and secure, completely in control, almost a part of the car. The ease of push-button driving—Once you try Dodge Push-Button TorqueFlite you'll never be happy with outmoded lever types. Ladies love it. This power steering is different—No power steering is like Dodge power steering. It works full time, yet leaves you the feel of the road. A ride that's a glide—There's no sway on curves, no dip at stops. Torsion-Aire is standard equipment, too. Horsepower and stopping power—You get up to 320 hp. You get new-design Total-Contact Brakes.

THE READER Speaks Up
To the editor
In last week's issue of the Mail, Yours Truly projected some comment having to do with the Daisy's removal from good old Plymouth to another place far far away. Some comment was also made concerning the last day of work for one of her veteran employees, Jack Reamer.
Jack Reamer, it had been stated, began work for the Daisy Manufacturing Company 51 years ago. But you want to know something, Mr. Editor? Yours Truly, a fellow having once been fired from the Daisy, quit there 51 years ago. Yours Truly quit—Jack Reamer came on. I'm not going to say that my long-time-ago experience with the Daisy stands out like a sore thumb—but it does stand out.
On the contrary, I might even say that my time at the Daisy represents one of the happiest and most care-free periods of my life. And had I stayed on, instead of quitting, I might now have been—if not vice-president—at least foreman of the sweepers.

Episcopalians Seek Campaign Pledges Sunday
Each of the 169 parishes in the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan will have committees calling on the rest of the Episcopalians this Sunday to pledge money toward a $1,500,000 goal.
The Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emerich, Bishop of Michigan, has voiced confidence that the Development Fund Campaign has every opportunity of reaching its goal. "Each member of the Diocese will be asked to give his or her 'fair share' toward the goal," he said.
The Bishop explained that the money will be used for a new $1,500,000 Diocesan Cathedral Center; $300,000 for a church building revolving fund; and $200,000 for a housing for the aged program.
The Cathedral Center will be a three story stone structure in keeping with St. Paul's design. It will have more than 60 offices for work in the Diocese. It would be located in the heart of Detroit's new cultural center (Rackham building, Historical Museum, Wayne University, etc.)
The word "uniform" comes from the Latin "uniformis" meaning "one form or shape." Uniforms are so called because they are all alike.

It's the easy, low-cost home improvement loan that lets you repair, remodel or rebuild and take up to five full years to repay. There's no need to put off a necessary new room, new kitchen, bath or garage. And it's never wise to put off home improvements, like painting, that might become more expensive the longer they're postponed. You can borrow up to $3,500 at National Bank of Detroit to protect—or improve—your property. Ask your dealer-contractor about an Instaloan, or simply stop in any of NBD's 61 friendly offices. Either way insist on an Instaloan, exclusive with NBD.

City Approves Civil Defense Ordinance

A Civil Defense ordinance was given its first reading by the city commission last week.
This is the first such ordinance of its kind considered by the commission. It is required by the CD headquarters in order that the city can participate in obtaining CD equipment.
One notable change effected by the ordinance is designation of the city's CD director. Former City Commissioner Ernest Henry served as director during his term and has continued since he left office a year ago. The ordinance gives the job to the city manager.
The ordinance also makes these provisions:
The Department of CD shall be composed of all equipment and facilities of city departments suitable for CD; the director shall have power to prepare plans for disaster and may authorize appointment of volunteer citizens to augment city personnel.
The city assumes no responsibility for injury or death of CD volunteers in performance of their duty except benefits provided by Workmen's Compensation Law; and any person loaning facilities to CD in time of emergency is not liable for the death or injury of a person about the premises.

TRUCKS HELP MAKE IT SO

Whether it's Michigan's wonderful water resources or her great education facilities — twin themes of this year's Michigan Week — the benefits to the people are more far-reaching because of motor transport. For trucks are indeed Michigan's supply lines, transporting everything we eat, wear, or use to every corner of the State — enabling her people to live, shop, do business wherever they please, opening new horizons to new generations... Next time you see a truck on the road, remember — it's working for you, serving you, too, so you can say, "It's great to live in Michigan!"
