

Group Opposes Improvement Of South Main

The $125,000 South Main St. paving and widening project which last week got no opposition at a public hearing may be doomed after all because of delayed opposition registered at Monday night's city commission meeting.

A petition signed by 26 people, representing 17 properties was turned over to commissioners Monday just before they were to decide if a resolution should be passed to "proceed or not to proceed" with the project.

The project is comparable in size with the North Main St. paving and widening of two years ago which also created much controversy. Although the majority of property owners objected to the North Main widening, too, commissioners decided to proceed with the project because of "public necessity," a power granted them in the charter.

A public hearing on the South Main job was held Monday of last week. There was no one at the hearing voicing opposition — just some who asked questions and a few lending support.

But, according to Stewart Dodge, 1327 South Main, spokesman for the petitioners, there were some opponents at the hearing but they failed to speak because they had no information about the project.

As a result of the petition, commissioners voted to table the project until a special meeting next Monday night. The petition opposing South Main widening and paving

Citizens Asked To Again 'Adopt' Sailors July 4th

Seventy sailors from the Grosse Ile Naval Training Center will march in Plymouth's July 4th parade and residents are again being asked to "adopt" one or more of the servicemen for a meal.

Chamber Manager Eugene Kornfield said that the Naval Air Base has agreed to send the servicemen for the day to participate in the parade. So that the sailors need not spend their own money, the Chamber is seeing to it that meals are provided.

Citizens are being asked to provide meals for the sailors at suppers. Those interested should call the Chamber office at GL 3-1540.

Other plans for the festive day are also progressing. Governor G. Mennen Williams has accepted an invitation to appear at the start of the evening program. He and other guests will have dinner at the Hotel Mayflower at around 6 p.m. Lt. Governor Phil Hart and State Senator John Swainson, candidate for lieutenant governor, will accompany Williams.

The largest crop of bathing beauties in the history of the contest will be seen this year. There are 34 girls competing for the Miss Plymouth title.

Popular Great Works Being Played

First Colony Concert June 29

On Sunday, June 29, Conductor Wayne Dunlap will lift his baton to open the second season of the Plymouth Colony Concerts — the summer outdoor music series which gained such widespread popularity in its first season last year.

Plymouth Colony Farms with its natural amphitheater and background of willows and peaceful lake, will once more be the site for the series.

Located about three miles west of Plymouth between Joy and Ann Arbor Roads, this piece of property donated by Dr. Ralph Pino of Detroit is well marked and easily accessible to the concert-goers, who last year came from all over southern Michigan. Entrance is made from Joy Road, where a large free parking area is available for over 1,000 cars.

Once again, audience comfort has been included in the plans. The entire area is sprayed by the city on days before each concert. Chairs are furnished for those who prefer them to spreading their own blankets on the ground, and refreshments are available.

A few changes have been made for further convenience. The time for the concerts, has been set for 6 p.m. an hour later than last year — a little cooler and less sunny part of the day. This will also give concert-goers an opportunity to enjoy the inviting woods and fields through the earlier part of the day — picnicking if they choose — as the grounds will be open all day on the specified concert Sundays.

The programs this year will feature much that is familiar, as well as great. The music of Schubert, Strauss, Rachmaninoff and Tchaikowsky will be heard, as will the works of some of our finest

World's Fair, Germany on Itinerary

Eight High School Students Head for Europe this Summer

By Gloria Bowles. Eight good-will ambassadors — all Plymouth teens — will leave next week to spend the summer months in Europe, primarily Germany, traveling through the auspices of the Washtenaw and Ann Arbor Council of Churches, five as exchange students, three with the Michigan Choral and one through the American Youth Hostellers.

Representing an investment of about $6,000, the world travelers are Ann Hulsing, Joan Izett, Carole North, Susan Campbell, Betty Carless, Martha Shoemaker, David Graves and David Conrad.

Roughing it this summer will be Martha Shoemaker, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Williams of Amherst Court. Marty will travel under the Youth Hostel program. Flying to Europe, she will tour England, Scotland, Holland and the Low Countries, Switzerland, France, and Germany via Volkswagen bus, biking and foot. This leave U of M student will feature from New York on Monday and has made arrangements to see her sister, Mrs. Joan Reiss, whose husband is in the army in Germany.

To spread goodwill through a medium which people of every country understand — music — is the goal of the Michigan Choral, which will tour Germany this summer in a combination business and pleasure trip, and boasts the membership of three Plymouthites. They are 17-year-old Ann Hulsing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth B.

Hulsing of Church, David Graves, 16, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Jo Anderson Graves of Auburn, and David Conrad, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Conrad of Auburn. Being included in this group of 78 talented musicians began with an audition on December 14, practice every Saturday evening beginning January 17 at Ann Arbor with Lester McCoy directing, plus the departure Monday by members of the Choral who spent the days at Camp Waldenwood in Hartland, Michigan for further rehearsal and orientation.

Teachers Protest Lack of Pay Hike

A "professional growth" salary plan approved by the board of education last week in place of the usual general salary increase has been denounced by the Plymouth Education Association with the warning that the system is liable to lose some of its teachers unless wages go up.

Two representatives of the PEA appeared before the board Monday night to report on the association's dissatisfaction with the salary schedule revision. At the same time, the teacher group has issued a public statement detailing its stand.

But despite Monday night's appeal, the school board is standing firm on its commitment made last week which declared that the board will reopen negotiations in September. They have also agreed to discuss the matter with the PEA executive committee after July 1 when two new members join the board.

The salary schedule revision as approved last week is aimed at those teachers working for higher degrees. They would be compensated for credit hours earned. The PEA terms this type of encouragement as being good, but "it conceals the need for an adequate basic salary for all teachers by setting up a small increase for a very few teachers."

Representing the PEA Monday night were Patrick Butler and Edgar Brown, both high school instructors. According to Butler, the teacher group voted 78 to 3 against approval of the salary schedule as presented by the board. The PEA is asking a $250 raise across-the-board. Butler criticized the board for presenting the salary schedule as a "complete surprise" to teachers. Teachers, he added, are skeptical of the idea of the schedule. They feel that the public notice only the highest level on the schedule and think that all teachers are paid this salary, while in reality it is unobtainable for most.

that by providing extra pay for work on hours over bachelor and master degrees may encourage some teachers to take extra work just for the money when actually they could be bettering themselves in other activities. Teachers, he said, are interested first in their own pay, and second in maintaining the quality of career teachers.

Board President Harold Fischer stated that it should be understood that the approved schedule is "probably not the last salary schedule we will draw up for the coming year. The board acted in good faith drawing up this schedule. The final schedule will depend upon enrollment next year."

Butler replied that the teachers have no faith that the salary schedule will be raised in September. "They base their belief on the fact that the board has consistently avoided raising the salary schedule. The only thing teachers would take as good faith is a raise in the starting schedule," he added.

Both Butler and Edgar Brown warned that they were not sure how many teachers will be around in September if they feel a no raise will be forthcoming.

Board member Austin Stecker asserted that the board wants to make adjustments in the schedule if circumstances indicate a raise is warranted. "But we definitely want to wait to see if there is a change in general economic conditions."

Fischer, in stating that the board will reopen negotiations in September, said that any action taken after September will be retroactive.

Teachers received copies of the revised salary schedule on Tuesday last week and special meetings of the PEA were called Wednesday and Thursday. From these meetings came a statement for

City to Test Tornado Alert

A civil defense exercise to acquaint city residents with the warning system will take place next Thursday afternoon. Police Chief Kenneth Fisher announced. A continuous blast of the fire whistle will be sounded at about 5 p.m. This is the blast that will be heard should a tornado actually be sighted in the area. Emergency workers will assemble to run through the exercise.

Eaton Meets No Competition In August Primary

Incumbent Sterling Eaton of Plymouth wound up without opposition on the Republican ticket for State Representative in this district when the deadline for filing petitions arrived at 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Three men will compete for the Democratic nomination to oppose Eaton in the final: Harvey Beadle of Redford Township, Beverly Poole of Livonia, and George Bennett of Northville. For State Senator, another Republican will go into the primary without competition. He is Weldon Yeager of Detroit. Democrats seeking the State Senate nomination are Ralph S. Hatt, O. George Fedrigo, Paul N. Smith, Raymond Kay, Stanley Cline Baker, Raymond D. Dzenzel, Patrick Walsh, John J. Considine. All are from Detroit's 22 ward, which is part of the vast Senatorial district.

NEWS BEAT

Two School Safes Opened

Burglars broke into Gallimore and Allen Schools on successive nights last week, getting $292 from Gallimore and $42 from Allen. Sheriff's detectives say that "good strong adults" must have used heavy tools to pry away the frame around the doors of the walk-in vaults. The losses and damages to the vaults are covered by insurance.

SCHOOL BEAT: For those who think they are ageless, High School Principal Carvel Bentley pointed out this week that tonight's PHS graduates have no recollection of World War II. Most of them were born in 1941, year that the war started. Tonight's commencement speaker, Steven Nisbet, is quite familiar with Plymouth. His daughter taught school here a few years back. Nisbet is a State Board of Education member and Gerber Baby Foods V.P. He will tell grads tonight the value of American-type education and what youth must do to find their way in the new world of atomic energy. The two newly-elected board of education members, Wesley Kaiser and Robert Soth, won't take office until July but they were guests at the board meeting Monday night. They witnessed the board under fire from the Plymouth Education Association — a sample of what can be expected during their next four years in office.

GONE BUGGY: There is a reported spread of scale insects in Plymouth, plus any number of other types of plant bugs. Some neighborhoods where there is a spray rig owned are banding together for the fight. If spraying, be careful of outdoor goldfish ponds. Spraying by the city has laid a number of pet fish to rest recently.

POLICE BEAT: Melody House had four record albums stolen last Thursday. Police held a Detroit man and woman for investigation, but the clerk could not positively prove that one walked out with the albums while the other talked with her. They were released. Several bad checks were reported by merchants during the past week. A $100 reward has been posted by an Ann Arbor Trail resident (see classified section) for information leading to the arrest of a pedigree collie. Police are still looking for P. Darnico, formerly of East Side Drive, who asked to take a 1958 car home to show his wife after he had a demonstration. Four days later the car was found in Romulus minus spare tire, wheel and Damico. Police say he has done it before. Police last week got a call to pick up a stray nanny goat at Saxton's Feed store. Harry Brown, 686 Maple, found the animal behind his garage with a nibbled rope around his neck. The goat was taken to Parkway Veterinary Clinic and several days later was claimed. Robert Daley, 1480 West Ann Arbor Trail, and his twin brother escaped injury when their motor scooter struck the rear of a trailer being pulled by a car driven by John Gwaltney of Forest Ave. The accident was at Main and Ann Arbor Trail.

FIRE RUNS: Despite the green-looking grass, Plymouth city and township firemen had three grass fire runs this week. There is lots of dry stuff still under the green tops, firemen warn. City volunteer firemen may soon get a private radio system in their homes to inform them of the whereabouts of fires. Bids are being taken with CD picking up part of the tab. The new dial telephones slow down phoning system. Proceeds from the carnival here next week will be used by city firemen to buy additional uniforms. It runs Tuesday through Saturday.

A FACE that will be seen a lot in Michigan this year appeared in Plymouth last Thursday. It is Paul B. Bagwell, Republican candidate for governor, who is shown speaking at a testimonial dinner in his honor. Also facing the camera are Harry Reeves, chairman of the dinner; and Mrs. Gladys Smith, 17th District GOP chairman. (Story Pg. 3)

City Commissioners Approve Air Rifle Law After Debate

An ordinance controlling air rifles, bows and arrows and slingshots will become operative in the city of Plymouth on July 8 — but over the objections of one city commissioner and probably some citizens.

Commissioners gave the second and third readings Monday night to the ordinance which will place the sale and use of air rifles, bows and arrows and slingshots under restrictions.

Commissioner Richard Wernette cast the sole "no" when a vote was taken after each of the three required readings of the ordinance. He explained that he and a number of citizens felt that it appears that the commission is passing the ordinance just after Daisy Manufacturing is leaving town for spite.

He added that Plymouth has had air rifles in years past and if it had not been for the warehouse fire at Daisy after which hundreds of air rifles were taken, there would not be the problem now.

Commissioner Marvin Terry took issue, however, by stating that there always has been an air rifle problem. Wernette answered that passing an ordinance is no assurance that there will not be windows shot out in the future.

Commissioner William Hartmann who has proposed the air rifle ordinance, noted that the ordinance was one that Daisy suggests using.

Police Chief Kenneth Fisher commented that the ordinance is one that the National Rifle Association, Detroit police and Daisy had drafted and that Daisy is expected to promote the ordinance at the next International Police Chiefs Association convention.

The chief added that the ordinance also includes two other growing problems, bows and arrows and slingshots. "The ordinance won't stop all careless use of air rifles," Fisher continued, "but will give us better control."

Asked by Wernette about use of the guns for shooting stars, the chief replied that permission can still be obtained from the police for shooting of this type.

Under the ordinance, it will be permissible to shoot an air rifle on one's own premises, providing that it not be discharged across other properties. The ordinance also requires that air rifles, bows and arrows and slingshots cannot be sold to anyone under 16; that a child under 16 cannot have the weapons in their possession unless kept at home; and cannot be carried on public property unless accompanied by an adult and wrapped. The chief of police is given power to approve target ranges.

Tagless Dogs Mean Tickets

Dog owners in Plymouth township and city who failed to get 1958 tags before June 1 are now getting the unhappy word about their forgetfulness.

The city has issued 62 tickets during the past two weeks and the township is in the process of issuing summonses to 25.

Police Chief Kenneth Fisher said that police have completed their house-to-house check for unlicensed dogs. The 62 violation tickets are worth $5 each. Needless to say, there were approximately 62 unhappy citizens.

A total of 606 tags were issued in the city. Township Clerk Rosalind Broome reports that summonses are being issued to about 25 township dog owners for having dogs without licenses. Last year when violators appeared in justice court, they paid $4 fines.

A census of dogs was made this spring in the township and from this list came the list of unlicensed dogs. There were 780 tags issued this year.

School Border Lines to Change

Boundary line changes between elementary schools were approved by the board of education Monday night with the major switches coming due to the opening of the Helen Farrand School off Starcraft Rd.

The new school will ease the overcrowding at Starkweather school, but Starkweather will in turn draw some students from the Bird district living east of Arthur St.

The board estimates that enrollment in the district next year will reach 4,400 students.

Following are the boundary changes as approved:

- FARRAND SCHOOL. All area east of a point beginning at the intersection of Phoenix Road and Northville Road southeast on an imaginary line to the intersection of Edward Hines Drive and Wilcox (excluding Garland, Hammill, Clemons and the southern section of Bradner Road), thence south on Edward Hines Drive to Plymouth Road; thence southeast of Plymouth Road to Eckles Road; thence north on Eckles Road up to and including all of that section of Northville Township within the Plymouth Community School District. All children along Plymouth Road east of Edward Hines Drive will attend the Farrand School with the following exception: Children currently en-

Bagwell Sets Return of State's Industrial Empire as No. 1 Goal

Believers seeking upper offices usually aren't in Plymouth until shortly before elections — if they are seen at all — but the GOP candidate for governor has been at a testimonial dinner in his honor.

Paul D. Bagwell, the only Republican stepping forth to challenge the five-time winner Governor Williams, spoke before 115 Republicans and Democrats at the Hotel Mayflower last Thursday night with the confidence of David.

Bagwell, who heads the Michigan State speech department, was brought to Plymouth by the Bagwell for Governor Committee of Western Wayne County. Guests were present from Livonia, Northville, Detroit and several other communities besides Plymouth.

The hour-long address covered two areas — what the GOP has got to do and the philosophy of Republicanism.

Bagwell announced his Number 1 goal, if elected, would be to "rebuild Michigan's industrial empire." He stated that only Michigan and Rhode Island have lost ground in industrial employment in 1950-57 and that 157 industries have moved out of Michigan in the seven years.

If elected, the professor continued, he would do what Democratic Governor Luther Hodges of North Carolina has done — personally call on major industries to get them to move into and stay in the state. He then questioned what has been done constructively to induce industry into Michigan.

He appealed to Republicans to sell their candidates by word of mouth now — not just before the election when most people already have their minds made up. He noted that in the Upper Peninsula especially, there are many people unhappy with what the Democrats have failed to do. "They desire a man-time governor at this critical period of time," he added.

The candidate condemned the governor for his long absences from Lansing and suggested that Republicans should stage "Bon Voyage" parties whenever the governor leaves the state.

Concerning the "principles of faith" of Republicanism, Prof. Bagwell first listed the party's abhorrence to a centralization of power "as an evil trend toward a closed society." He struck out at the governor's allegation that the recession is an "Eisenhower recession" and that the GOP high command secretly is happy there is unemployment.

Republicans believe that investment creates jobs and wealth while the Democrats believe that the government should create a new economic order," Bagwell insisted. He quoted recent testimony of labor man Emil Mazey who declared that a "planned economy could be enforced."

Bagwell also criticized the position for their belief that "inflation is necessary for prosperity." Many people, especially the elderly, invested money which has now been eaten away by inflation, the candidate indicated. "He has tried to put the brakes on this cheating."

In another point, Bagwell said that Republicans reject the notion that society is divided into classes. "Democrats continually throw down an iron curtain between labor and management while it is fully known that one depends upon another."

Bagwell called upon Republicans of the district to work hard for their state and national candidates. The state representative job (21st district) now held by Sterling Elston of Plymouth has been marked by Democrats as "one they are out to capture," Bagwell warned.

Harry Reeves of Plymouth was toastmaster for the program.

Sara Jane Morgan Weds Milwaukee Man June 7

Sara Jane Morgan and Donald McKinnon Sinclair were united in marriage by the Reverend David T. Davies at St. John's Episcopal church on Saturday afternoon, June 7.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Morgan of Ann Street, Plymouth, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh A. Sinclair of Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

The altar of the church was enhanced with arrangements of white snapdragons and carnations against a background of white cathedral candles. Nat. Sibbold sang "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt at the altar.

Sara Jane chose a white lace sheath gown fashioned with a deep V neckline and three-quarter length sleeves. A crown of matching lace held her illusion veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of stephanotis, American Beauty roses and ivy.

Miss Barbara Koto of Birmingham, Michigan, a sorority sister of the bride, was honor maid, wearing a powder blue embroidered sheath with a deeper blue chiffon cummerbund. She carried a bouquet of baby blue carnations and stephanotis and wore a halo of the same flowers in her hair.

Robert F. Sinclair of Milwaukee, Wisconsin, served his brother as best man and the guests were seated by David Bolger and Edward Charanski, both of Chicago, Illinois.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Morgan wore a light blue linen sheath with matching chiffon jacket and Mrs. Sinclair wore a cornflower blue chiffon dress.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Hillside Inn for 65 guests. June Nully of Plymouth registered the guests and Marilyn Maile of Lansing, assisted at the punch bowl.

For their wedding trip to Canada, the bride wore a black and white paisley print silk suit with white accessories and the rose corsage from her bridal bouquet.

The bride attended Purdue University and the University of Michigan and is affiliated with Chi Omega sorority.

Her bridegroom is a graduate of Milwaukee Country Day and Brown University where he was a member of Psi Upsilon fraternity. He is presently employed by the Chicago branch of Peat, Marwick, Mitchell and Company and upon the couple's return they will reside at 1353 North State Parkway, Chicago, Illinois.

Football Field to Get 1,416 New Bleacher Seats

A bid for football field bleachers of 1,416 seat capacity costing $12,127.89 was approved by the board of education at its meeting Monday night. Also approved were bids for a bus, asphalt paving, insurance and furniture.

The Snyder Tank Corporation was the winning bidder for the bleachers that will be erected on the "home" side of the football field. Present bleacher capacity is about 1,350.

The new bleachers are 15 rows deep, have aisle widths of three feet and will be erected on cement footings. Cost per seat is $8.56.

Three bids were submitted for a new school bus. E. J. Allison Chevrolet had the low bid of $6,700, plus an additional $124 for power steering. Other basic bids were International, $6,970; Ford, $6,997.

Five bids were received for furniture for the new Helen Farrand elementary school. Accepted was the Michigan School Service bid of $5,722. This was not the low bid, but the committee of teachers and Principal Gerald Elston selected the bid because more furniture of this type is being purchased and they de-

The MAIL Attitude

By PAUL CHANDLER

Our staff has what appears to be a rather brisk story on its hands, it being the current conflict between teachers and the administration over salaries. We'll try hard to report all points of view, as they are developed.

Without knowing each of the specific points upon which this current negotiation ultimately will touch, we have two points of view to express.

One is that we have never seen anything really good come when professional people are "organized," guaranteed high "minimum salaries" and generally treated as identical creatures thereafter, irrespective of ability, desire, or degree of dedication. High minimum salaries in the professions — be it law, medicine, journalism, or what else — inevitably mean low maximums. And the latter have resulted, over and over again, in a stifling of interest or total loss of brilliant people to the field.

To be more specific, we disagree in principle when a young female teacher smack out of college has an annual salary within $300 or $400 of a man with four or five years experience and a family to support. We believe there should be a much wider spread between minimum and maximum than is prevalent in education today.

Our second point is a defense of Plymouth's Summer School Program. It is expensive, to be sure, and it doubtless could be trimmed in some places and expanded in others.

But it almost is a model of its kind in the country, something more precious to Plymouth than most people realize. It should be tampered with only by use of extreme caution.

In other words, we differ sharply with some teachers who are saying, "cut out those summer salaries and you'll have enough money to increase our minimum wage."

Professional people should be treated as separate individuals, not as a lump of faceless interchangeable parts.

Since hardly anyone in the world is more qualified than ourselves to appreciate the villainy of the species "Typographical Error," we were, of course, only needing gently the telephone company when we wrote recently about Senatorial candidate Phil Hart already being listed in the Michigan Bell directory as "US Sen."

It's difficult for a layman to comprehend some of the pitfalls of the printing business. I believe that every editor in the world prays, at least once a week, that when the typo mistakes strike, they at least remain this side of decency.

Sam McCool and Art Meyers, public information chieftains for Michigan Bell, took note of our remarks about Hart and spent time to point out they knew only too well of the "US Sen" bit in the new phone book, and had put out a formal release to the Detroit papers about it. McCool had a statement which disposes of the matter. He writes:

"It may be news to voters but Phil Hart, Michigan's lieutenant-governor, is already on record as a United States senator — more than five months away from the general election. As a result, the Michigan Bell Telephone Company has a very red corporate face.

"The Detroit telephone directory has a listing, 'Hart, Philip A US Sen' at a Hunting Woods address. It's a Woodward telephone number for what the company calls 'foreign exchange service' as pre-campaign headquarters in advance of setting up downtown offices in Detroit.

"It all began two days before directory listings closed earlier in the year. A nameless young lady in the company's directory department received an order for the listing, 'Hart Philip A FOR (capitals are ours) US Sen.' The young lady overlooked the word, 'For.' Discreet inquiry failed to disclose whether the young clerk is a dedicated Democrat.

"It's refreshing in a way," a Michigan Bell spokesman said. "With all telephones in Detroit dial, people might forget that humans rather than machines still run the telephone business. And nothing is more human than human error."

"Oh, yes, the company sent a prompt message of regret — by telephone — to 'Potter Chas. E US Sen' when the error was discovered."

Salem Appeal Board Hears Several Requests

The Board of Appeals met June 13th at the Salem Town Hall. Rolland Bregle was elected the chairman of the board and Arthur Dahl, secretary.

The Appeal Board considered the letter from Fred Veran requesting a certificate for the removal of peat on property South of Six Mile Rd. and on the West of Curtis Rd., with the ultimate outcome of creating an artificial lake. This letter is on file in the supervisor's office. Permission was granted.

An appeal letter from Kenneth McCurley was taken up for discussion. McCurley wanted permission to locate a house trailer and buildings. Opinion of the board was they had no idea as to where he intended to locate the trailer and until informed as to the exact location the request was denied.

Justice William Kelly, representing Mr. and Mrs. Norval Dyal of 6025 Pontiac Trail, appeared before the board requesting permission to change their Mobile Home for a newer one, because of the unlivable condition of their old one. The Appeal Board took into consideration the extraneous circumstances in this case, and granted permission to replace their old non-conforming trailer home for a newer one, with the understanding that the old trailer will be removed from the property.

Junior Golf Play Opens This Monday

The second season of the Junior Golf League will open next Monday morning at Hill-top Golf Course with about 40 youngsters teeing off.

Most of the golfers will be beginners and the committee believes that the number will be great enough to necessitate a staggered schedule. Golfers will report at 8:30 a.m. Monday with beginners reporting to Chris Burkhardt north of the clubhouse. Those not previously registered can do so.

Those who played last year will pay their green fees in the clubhouse and report to Mrs. Zett and Mrs. Augustine at the first tee. Walkers will also report to the first tee. New walkers will have a meeting as soon as the golfers have all teed off.

Taking registrations will be Mrs. Julius Eder and Mrs. Bruce Richard. Those golfers who played last year and earned a firm handicap (five weeks of play) will be paired for matched medal play and will begin earning points Monday. Four league matches will make them eligible for the tournament. No matches will be played other than Monday morning.

Other golfers who played last year but did not earn a firm handicap will play Monday and their score will be recorded toward their handicap. They also will need four matches to play in the tournament.

All new players must turn in five scores to earn their handicap and three of those must be earned in league play to be eligible for the tournament. Any new players wanting to turn in cards at any other time must be accompanied by a walker and the card turned in to Mr. Burkhardt at the end of the play, signed by the walker.

SPORTSEEN

By Bill Dilworth

Tonight at the high school gymnasium at 8 o'clock a class of approximately 210 students will receive their diplomas. It is fitting that this ceremony takes place in the gymnasium because it is connected with athletics and the athletes among these 210 seniors made a real contribution to the overall success of Plymouth high school sports this 1957-58 season.

Back in the fall the cross country team shared the sports program with the varsity and junior varsity football teams. In the league meet Tony Monte a senior, won the race and the Plymouth team finished third. Monte was also elected as the most valuable runner and Mike Kelley was elected captain of next year's team.

The football team provided Plymouth fans with some of the best football seen here in many years. In addition to sharing the Suburban Six title with Allen Park they provided a climactic finale with a decisive 34-6 victory over highly rated Ypsilanti. Seniors Don Alsbro, Dick Anderson, Dave Walasky were chosen to the first all conference team at end, guard and back respectively. Dick Paulger was selected as tackle on the second team and Ken Knipschild was selected as a back on the second team. This was Knipschild's first year at football and he did a masterful job handling the Rocks. Dave Walasky was selected most valuable and Ed LaRoche was selected as captain for next year's team that promises to be a real contender.

The basketball team placed second in the league with seniors Bill Hubert, Jim Dzurus, Don Alsbro, Ken Knipschild and Dave Walasky forming the nucleus of the team. They were beaten by a strong Bentley team that went through the regular season losing just one game and that one was to Belleville by one point. Bill Hubert gained a place on the first all-star team and Jim Dzurus was the coaches' choice for a place on the second team. Randy Egloff, a sophomore around whom the team will be built next year, gained honorable mention.

After a slow start the swimming team gained momentum as the season progressed and won the league meet quite handily. They scheduled some real good opponents at the beginning of the season and the experience gained paid off handsomely in league competition. Don Carney and Bob Isbister, co-captains of the team, and John Walker were three of the seniors who stood out. Don Carney was voted most valuable. These three will be difficult to replace next year. It will be a case of wait and see just who turns out for swimming come next winter.

The golf team repeated their championship in the Suburban Six league and finished two places higher up in the standing at the State meet than they did last year. John Taylor was elected most valuable and Kurt Atchison was named as the captain of the complete team that represented Plymouth in the State tournament this year. We hope he leads them to as good a season as they have enjoyed in the past two years.

The tennis team went through a year of rebuilding and hope to profit from experience gained this past season. Just three players will be lost to this team through graduation. Captain John Walker, who was also most valuable, Mike Stickney and Nick Darup.

Jeff Yoeman of the senior class captured a track team that produced some good sprinters and a good miler. In the sprints Yoeman, himself, set a record in the 180 yard low hurdles at the Suburban Six meet and Tony Monte won the mile. The team is in good hands for next year as Ed LaRoche was elected captain. LaRoche won the 100 and 220 yard dashes and was anchor man on the winning 880 yard relay team.

Last but not least the last team to finish their schedule brought another championship to Plymouth high school. Captain and most valuable player, pitcher Ken Knipschild led the senior contingent on the team. He won seven games while losing none to increase his record for three years of high school pitching to 17 wins and no defeats. Other seniors on the baseball team were Jim Dzurus, Wayne Jordahl, Bill Hubert, Dave Walasky. The team should be well up in the standing with co-captains Paul Woodward and Larry Wells leading the way and forming a nucleus with sophomore pitcher Randy Egloff, Al Runge, Wayne Sparkman and Myron Hopper.

This is an excellent record for the players to look back on as they leave Plymouth high school. However, this record would not be possible without some expert coaching. At the varsity level John Sandmann coached the cross country and golf teams, Mike Hoben, Bill Brown and John McFall, the football team, John McFall, the swimming team, Jim Doyle, the basketball team, Bob Smith the tennis team, Keith Baughman the track team and Mike Hoben the baseball team.

Waltz Pitching Hands Merchants 4th Defeat

Plymouth Merchants journeyed to Waltz for a regularly scheduled intercounty game last Sunday and ran into some excellent pitching and losing 5-4.

Ken Kisabeth started for Plymouth and shut out Waltz for five innings. Since this was just the second time that he had pitched this year he showed signs of tiring and was replaced by Dick Shepherd.

Shepherd had received credit for the three Merchants wins in the regular season but ran into difficulty in the two innings that he worked. He allowed four runs and left the game with a man on third base. Gary Voegel, who relieved Shepherd had a wild pitch that allowed the fifth and winning run to score.

Plymouth opened the scoring in the first inning when their lead-off man, Jack Carter, drew a base on balls and moved to second on Chuck Tomlinson's single. Carter stole third and on the play Tomlinson moved to second. Plymouth scored on infield outs. They added two more runs in the third inning when Tomlinson singled, Bender walked, Nedry sacrificed and Gow singled to score Bender and Tomlinson.

Frito was the starting pitcher for Waltz and Plymouth scored all four runs while he was pitching. McNeil came on in the fifth and shut out the Merchants the rest of the way.

WHAT DOCTORS SAY ABOUT

Summer Hazards (One in a series of discussions about summer health problems)

Q. What are doctors doing to help reduce highway slaughter which seems especially ruthless during summer?
A. They are developing better ways of treating the injured and have suggested many safety devices and changes in automobile design. Mechanical improvements are important but this is only part of the answer to heedless horsepower. As one medical writer said, the main trouble is with the heavyfooted fellow behind the wheel. He is lectured to, legislated at, prayed for, and preached to but quickly forgets everything save his sense of power when he steps on the gas. The results are ghastly.

Q. Are expensive tinted lenses better than ordinary sunglasses for use in bright sunlight?
A. Studies among Atlantic City lifeguards seem to indicate that ordinary sunglasses sold in drug stores serve the purpose about as well as many of the more expensive types.

Q. Can rattlesnakes see well enough at night to strike?
A. Rattlesnakes "see" in the dark by means of heat-sensitive head pits. They can locate and strike warm-blooded animals (including man) even in total darkness.

Q. Is diving hard on the heart?
A. Apparently not. A Boston heart specialist examined a number of Greek sponge fishermen who made 50 to 120 dives a day. Some of these men had been doing this kind of work for thirty or forty years. The doctor could find no heart changes due to diving.

Q. Which relieves the pain of bee sting best—soda or vinegar?
A. The bee stinger contains an acid poison gland and an alkaline poison gland, so both soda and vinegar are used as home remedies. In general, gentle removal of the stinger and application of cool soda water compresses will give relief. If the local reaction to the sting is severe, consult your doctor.

Material in MEDICAL MIRROR is based on various scientific publications and does not reflect the opinion of all doctors. The diagnosis and treatment of disease requires the skill and knowledge which only a physician can apply by personally attending the patient.

Eight Students Head for Europe

Germany. Climax of this preparation will be the departure for Europe on next Tuesday from Wayne Major Airport with stopovers at Gannon, Newfoundland and Shannon, Ireland, finally arriving in Amsterdam on the same day and only 17 hours later. The choir will stay in a hotel in that city for six days, sightseeing, rehearsing, and presenting concerts in their uniforms of navy blazers and gray slacks or skirts. (Dave Graves will stay with a family ten miles from the city.)

In Bonn, Germany, the home of the American Embassy, the choir will be given a "royal" welcome, complete with a parade and parties, and then sing at the Music Festival there, followed by several other German cities including Stuttgart, Hamburg and Kuxhaven, where Klaus Darup, German boy who spent the year in Plymouth, will welcome them.

Ann and the two Daves are especially looking forward to performances at — take the Pavilion at the American World Fair. The trio will be at the fair for five days, commuting between a hotel in Amsterdam and the Belgian city, returning to Plymouth on August 2.

Traveling on the same plane to New York with Ann and the Daves, will be Joan Izett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Izett of Priscilla Lane. Toting two suitcases, a camera, a coat, a purse weighing about 10 pounds, and her violin, and headed for England, Joanie will also leave next Tuesday on a Flying Tigers chartered plane. She will make stops in Newfoundland, Ireland, and Amsterdam, and from that city in the Netherlands will go by ship to England, and then by train to the small town of Tunbridge Wells in Kent County, called the Garden of Eden.

She will stay with the family of an insurance executive numbering two girls, Jane and Jill, and a boy, who have promised Joanie trips to the seashore. It's only an hour's drive to the English Channel — to London, a half hour away by car, and jaunts to the Tennis Club. In July, Joan will travel to Scotland, where she will visit some of her father's relatives, followed by the trip to Brussels Fair, where she will meet Ann and Dave C. and G.

Among the 60 persons boarding the Super G constellation plane at Wayne Major Monday will be Sue Campbell, daughter of Mrs. Heloise Campbell of Hix Road, Carole Anne North, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Marshall North of Jenner Place and Betty Carless, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.

tion to this statement by saying that if the street were paved, there would be no parking and that many lots are not deep enough for good commercial development.

Commissioners also considered three other paving projects and tabled each of them. Tabled probably until next year were Harisough, from South Main to Coolidge; and Sutherland, from South Main to McKinley. Tabled until next Monday when other streets will be considered was Maple St., from Sheldon to South Harvey.

Meanwhile, commissioners received another petition for paving. Eight signed a petition to have Harisough paved with concrete from South Main to South Harvey. Commissioners referred the petition to the city manager to have plans and specifications drawn.

won last year by Diane Fuelling. First prize this year is a $100 savings bond. There will also be other prizes.

Mrs. Doris Root, chairman of the Miss Plymouth contest, has announced the judges. They are Donald E. Albear, Pittsfield Beauty Salon owner in Ann Arbor and a former beauty college instructor; Robert H. Roberts, passenger sales representative for KLM Royal Dutch Airlines; and Jack Jacobs of Jim Handy Studios.

A parade starting at 11 a.m. will open the day's activities. Any person, business, club or industry is invited to enter a float.

In the afternoon there will be kiddies events sponsored by the Recreation Department. The night program starts at 7 p.m. Fireworks will conclude the day.

Trial of Three Youths Postponed

A court case scheduled for last Monday involving three youths who allegedly hid in the Penn Theatre until after it closed with intent of burglary, has been postponed because one of the defendants is in jail elsewhere.

The three are William H. McIntosh, 19, of 41830 Five Mile Rd., and Kirkland and Curtis McCowan, 18-year-old twins, of 483 Ann St. The case was scheduled before Judge Nandino Perlongo last Monday but was postponed until next Monday when it was learned that Kirkland is in Dearborn jail on another charge.

McIntosh has admitted that he and the McCowans hid in the theatre furnace room until after closing time. Finding tools there, he told police, they tried opening the office and ticket booth. They were scared away, however, by police making a routine check.

Police saw the three later walking down the sidewalk but not until the tools were found the next morning by a film deliveryman were police suspicious of the three.

experience, and travel directed toward bettering the teacher in his own field within his school and community. At present the one Plymouth teacher who is an immediate candidate for a doctors degree will leave the system at the close of this school year.

Based on the above reasoning the Plymouth Education Association recommended that the Board of Education reconsider its action and raise the basic salary schedule $250 for all teachers.

Plymouth Community School District must be in a position to attract top teachers. The district can only attract the best teachers, whether they be experienced or inexperienced, if it has a basic salary that is equal to or higher than its neighbors.

Wedding Plans Made In Green Meadows

Covering the Green Meadow area, Ann Arbor Rd., Main, Sheldon, and Joy Rd. Including the Gallimore School District.)

By MRS. ALVIN STACE
GL 3-1929

The Charles Austin household will be kept quite lively this weekend. They are caring for their two year old grandson, Chuckie Downing. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Downing, of Northville are visiting at Indian River.

Mr. Walter Wilczewski (Sonny) and his bride Pat are spending a belated honeymoon on Manitoulin Island, in Northern Canada. They were married on April 21. They reside at 711 N. Harvey.

Jean Fredricks is convalescing nicely in her home, after her recent appendectomy on Memorial Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McDonald returned recently from a weekend trip to Pennsylvania, where they visited relatives. Accompanying them on the trip were their daughters Grace Krause and Bernice Merryfield, granddaughters Bebbie and Cheryl Krause, and Vicki Merryfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Burden and daughters Allison and Arviline, spent Saturday at Elizabeth Park in Trenton. The gathering was the annual Wheaton College Alumni Picnic and Business meeting. They enjoyed a ball game and various other sports in the afternoon.

The Burdens also have Rev. and Mrs. Reese of Williamston as their luncheon guests on Tuesday. They stopped in on their way to Toledo, O. Mrs. Reese is Mrs. Burden's sister.

Sunday guests in the home and Mrs. A. L. Allison of Elmhurst, were Mr. Emer Mathias of Petosky, Miss Lillian Doench, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Pharo of Detroit, and Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Burden and girls of Northern.

Wedding plans are now being made at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Farmer on Sheldon Rd. Their son James is to be married to Nancy Braccina, on June 21, at 7:30 p.m. The bride is the daughter of the late Mr. Thomas Braccina, of 33935 Schoolcraft, Livonia. Mr. Braccina was the former owner of Tommy's Hardware.

The wedding will take place at the Baptist Church of Farmington. Rev. Frank Smith will join the couple in Holy Matrimony. The bride has chosen a white chiffon ballerina length wedding gown. Her Maid of Honor, Barbara Carter, will wear a blue chiffon dress of ballerina length. The groom's brother David will attend him as best man.

James is a 1957 graduate of Plymouth High. He is employed with The Western Electric Co.

The couple are planning a weekend motor trip to Northern Michigan. When they return to Plymouth, they will take up residence at 287 Blanche St.

Hubby and I, along with John and Bill, attended the Baccalaureate Services at the high school Sunday evening. Our daughter Janet is the proud senior of our family this year. Janet attended the Senior banquet, held at the Washtenaw Country Club, in Ypsilanti Thursday Evening.

The Annual Scouting Exposition held at the State Fair Grounds seems to be the big news item this week. There were several Tenderfoot Scouts from our neighborhood who camped out at the affair. They are Ronny Ronk, Donnie Stamper, Dennis Watson, Alvia Roberts and Butch Thomas, members of Troop 298 of Canton Center. The combined troop won a Gold Star Award for being one of the first to register for the Exposition. They also won the Blue Ribbon, for first place for their Pioneering display. This was a very thrilling experience for these boys; they were there from Friday afternoon until Sunday evening. They returned home tired and dirty, but very happy.

The Joe Caloia family also attended the Scouting Exposition Saturday afternoon. Mr. Caloia did a good job of pinching for Norm Kellman, Cub Master of Pack 4, by taking care of Mr. Kellman's booth. While daddy was busy, Mrs. Caloia and children visited the other exhibitions.

They were really enthused by the Indian War Dances. She says they had such a good time, they all plan to attend again next year.

It is a little late but congratulations are still in order for the Gideon Swick family, of Elmhurst, on the birth of their little daughter, Kimberly Dawn. She is now about three months old.

Guests in the Swick home recently were Mrs. Aletha Richards and her three children Ricky, Mark and Clayton from Birmingham, Mich.

Bob Wilczewski and his friend, Gus, from Burrough's spent part of their vacation roughing it on an island in Northern Canada. They had a very good time fishing and resting, but Bob decided he would like to loaf at home where he could spend some of his vacation with his girl friend, Lois McIntosh.

Mrs. Donald Keeth of Brookline entertained eight of her neighbors and friends at a Linen demonstration in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Brockington of Corrine took their first trip across Mackinac Straits Bridge, a few weeks ago when they toured to Escanaba and Iron Mountain to visit relatives. They enjoyed the view of the water on the trip over. When they returned they were unable to see the water because of fog. They were gone ten days. Besides visiting relatives they stopped at several points of interest, including Houghton Lake on their way home.

Mr. and Mrs. John Vanhoy of Sheldon Rd. have returned from a 1200 mile motor trip through Indiana. They were gone ten days, during which time they visited relatives in several cities in Indiana.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Keith and family of Elmhurst, and William Harley of Plymouth, visited Mr. Keith's relatives in Barnesboro, Penn. over Memorial day weekend. They had a very nice trip in spite of the heavy traffic on the Turnpike.

Sharon Calhoun celebrated her tenth birthday on May 28. She had several of her friends over to help her celebrate. Those present were Patty Ross, Susan Darnell, Billy Stace, Dale Coats and Lois Owens. They played several games after which cake and ice-cream were served. Happy birthday, Sharon.

Kenny Calhoun is home for the summer, after completing his freshman year of college at Eastern Illinois.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Ronk of Elmhurst attended the Fly-Up ceremonies and tea for their daughter Mary. The ceremonies were held at the home of Mrs. Smith, Brownie leader of Troop 39, on Sunday, June 8. Hubby and I had a good time last Wednesday evening when we joined son Bill on a picnic at Riverside Park. This is the last big get-together we will have with the other members of Bill's sixth grade class at Smith School. After the picnic supper the boys of the class had a baseball game against the fathers, the score being 10 to 9 in favor of the boys. Hubby also took the boys John and Bill to the Scouting Exposition.

Another note to remind you of the open-pit barbecue being held August 17, at Thirteen Mile and Orchard Lake Rd. This event is put on by the World War veterans. Your reporter is looking forward to this date, it looks like a good chance to get out of cooking Sunday dinner. Why don't you keep the date open too?

Well, see you all next week. Don't forget to give me a buzz if you have any news.

Dave Brinks of W. Ann Arbor Rd. had the misfortune of spending several days in the hospital in Flint for observation. He was returning home from his brothers last weekend when his car was struck from behind while he was stopped at a railroad crossing. Dave's car was pushed several feet. He was unconscious at the time, so he had to be hospitalized. After X-rays and studies were made he was released. He was home in time to attend the Bowling Banquet at Sarr Zehra's, Saturday. He told the boys he was all shook up and bruised a bit but glad to be around.

MRS. ANTHONY WORTH
Worth - Rossow Nuptial Read at First Methodist

The First Methodist church of Plymouth was the scene of the three o'clock ceremony on Sunday, June 15, uniting Karen Sue Rossow and Anthony Loomis Worth.

Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Rossow of Five Mile road and Mr. and Mrs. Warren J. Worth of North Territorial road are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Reverend Melbourne Johnson, assisted by Doctor Howard Worth, officiated at the ceremony. Baskets of white peonies, snapdragons and stock graced the church.

Given in marriage by her father, Karen approached the altar in a ballerina length gown. The bodice of imported Chantilly lace sprinkled with pearls extended into deep points over the bouffant skirt of chiffon. Her flowers were white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Gordon Campbell, the matron of honor, and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Lloyd Johnson, Miss Suzanne Shoemaker and Miss Elizabeth Worth, sister of the bridegroom, wore identical gowns of lace in ballerina length over blue taffeta. They featured scoop necklines and long torso bodices with full circular skirts accented in the back by matching half bows and long streamers. Mrs. Campbell was in pale blue with the bridesmaids wearing a deeper shade of blue. All attendants wore headpieces of French iridescent braid and short veils sprinkled with pearls. Their flowers were pink and red carnations.

Edwin Rossow, brother of the bride, was the best man and seating the guests were Robert Hartlein, Kent Olsen, and William Rossow Jr.

Mrs. Rossow wore a dusky blue lace dress with white accessories and Mrs. Worth chose a beige suit with flowered orange hat and purse.

A reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony.

The newlyweds are traveling in Ontario, Canada, for their honeymoon. Mrs. Worth selected a beige linen sheath with blue satin cummerbund and matching beige accessories for her trip.

The new Mrs. Worth graduated this year from Michigan State University and Anthony is a senior at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, where the couple will reside after September.

Bridal Shower Among Activities In Maplecroft-Birch Estates

Covering the area bounded by Burroughs, Ann Arbor Rd. and the Junior High, including Maplecroft and Birch (Subs.)

By RHEA ROSS GL. 3-3144

The subdivision at this time of year is at its loveliest — roses, peonies and delphinium are in full bloom. Though most of us are amateur gardeners none lack for enthusiasm and many hours each week are spent hoeing, spraying and cultivating in our small acreage.

It's also the month for brides and below is a party for one of our bride-elects that has been the topic of conversation for several weeks.

The home of the J. Witters of Edison was the setting for a lovely bridal shower in honor of Linda Lent and Terry West whose bridal date of June 28 is rapidly approaching. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. J. Witter, Mrs. Alex Ballock and Mrs. John Truer. A Mr. & Mrs. shower had been planned but as the list grew the men decided to hold theirs at the Wendell Lent residence. Needless to say both were a huge success with 26 ladies in attendance at the Witter home, and a close match at the Lent home. Cards and games were planned and a lunch served during the evening. Linda and Terry received many gifts along with their sincere best wishes for a happy future.

Our neighbor of Birch, Dr. C. Munshaw, deputy superintendent of Wayne County schools, attended the state meeting of County School Superintendents at Higgins Lake this week.

ROBERT WHITNEY of 49627 Pine tries out a new Evans tricycle he received as winner of Photographic Center's "Maytime is Picture Time" contest. Names were taken and a picture snapped of all youngsters entering the store during May. A drawing was held at the end of the month. Robert was 2 years old on June 15, making the tricycle an unexpected birthday present.

We are happy to report that Clifford Wilkins of Koss St., who has been confined to Garden City Hospital the past week following surgery, is now at home and doing nicely.

Also on the sick list is Mrs. Grace Corwin, mother of Mrs. Walter Ash, who is confined to St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor. A speedy recovery to both of them.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lidgard of Ross St. entertained at a dinner party for Mr. and Mrs. George Evans and their sons Robert and George of Flint. The occasion was in honor of Robert's graduation from Central high school and George's graduation from East Michigan college. Also attending were the Lidgard's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Guy and baby daughter Julie, and Tom Carmichael.

One of the most thrilling moments in our young six year old daughter's life just occurred. She finally conquered her two wheeler after many valiant attempts. Gary, her big brother, an avid camera fan, just dashed out to take movies of this momentous occasion. And it really is for some children it's just a matter of getting on the bike and pedaling but for Julie it was a struggle and determination and grit finally paid off.

Mrs. Henry Zeuner of Simpson returned this week from a visit with her daughter, Ethel, who is now residing in New York City following a six weeks tour of Europe and the Brussels World Fair.

Thursday evening, the Lon Dickersons at a dinner party Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carriere of Wayne, the occasion being Mrs. Carriere's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Swantek of Roosevelt, both sport car enthusiasts, attended the races at Put-In-Bay, last weekend, sponsored by the Ohio Sports Car Club. The Swanteks have both tried their hand at racing but were spectators at this event.

The Jim Lattures of Harding enjoyed a motor trip through the South last week including the scenic beauty of the Smoky Mountains.

Former Plymouthite Mrs. Ted Box now of Dexter, Michigan, will be hostess to her Birthday club Friday. Those attending are Mrs. John McAllister, Mrs. Joseph George, Mrs. Dorothy Campbell, Mrs. Norman Atchingsen, Miss Anne Donnelly, Mrs. Charles Beegle, Mrs. Charles Sawyer and Mrs. Robert Lidgard.

Our good friends, the William Loesch's of Simpson, moved into their new home in Park Lane this weekend. Their new address is 840 McKinley. Mr. and Mrs. Harger Green will be hosts to a dual celebration Sunday in their home on Simpson. Their guests are Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Green of Commerce, Mr. Green's parents, and Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Green and children. Mr. Green's brother and sister-in-law. It is honored Mr. Green's father on Fathers Day and also his brother who celebrated his birthday on this date.

An informal get-together

Plenty of Activity In Sunshine Area this Week

(Covering the neighborhoods bounded by Sutherland, Main Street, Ann Arbor Road, Sheldon Road.)

BY JANE MALEY GL. 4-4852

Hello neighbors! We are back again to chat about the happenings in our area. We think there's lots of news brewing this week. Gardens, in your humble servant's opinion, should lead the parade of events.

The Bernard Sellman's are among the busiest gardeners. They own an extra lot (40x50), one-half in which they plant a variety of vegetables. The long list includes lettuce, green beans, wax beans, cabbage, etc. Mrs. Sellman tells me that she freezes them and always has fresh vegetables on hand. They come in mighty handy when the cold weather leaps upon us. They specialize in just vegetables and must reap a great feeling of satisfaction from their efforts.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCow took their boat over to Harsens Island and the Flats, and into the lake to fish on Saturday. Fishing wasn't too good but they enjoyed a cool swim. Their youngsters Jim and Jeanne went along for the fun.

The Michael Toth family attended a grand surprise birthday party in Flint for Mrs. Toth's father Mr. Raymond Woodruff.

Harold Schultz who at the last writing was in the hospital, is at home now resting and coming along fine. Glad to hear this news!

Mrs. Trevor Norton has no idle time on her hands these days. She is getting ready to welcome her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Norton of Independence, Mo. for a three to four week visit with the family. Mr. Norton's mother, while here, will celebrate her 70th birthday. Happy birthday to you and may you enjoy many more.

Wilma and Fred Heidenrich put in a pleasant day of golfing at Burroughs farm near Brighton. Tom Waltz joined them in their game. I didn't get those scores!

The Barney's had as house guests Mrs. Barney's folks, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Melvin of Dowagiac, Mich.

Mrs. Libbie Showers also entertained Mr. and Mrs. Walter Melvin while they were here. She had a visit from Mrs. C. Harris of Hartford, Mich. too.

Virginia Robertson took a jaunt over to the Detroit racetrack Saturday.

Wayne, W3 scout troop held a breakfast Sunday morning on Breakfast Drive (in the park). The men cooked and served the sausage and pancakes. Then a pot-luck dinner followed in the afternoon. This proved to be a very enjoyable all day affair. George Parsons, Jr. who belongs to this troop; marched in the Memorial Day parade which took place in Wayne.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Duncan Fry along with Mrs.

Holloway, Mich. has been made Dept. President of the Ladies Auxiliary Patriarchal Militants of Mich. This is a great honor bestowed upon her. The Chester Haynes are justly proud of this high esteem shown to Mr. Haynes sister, Tecumseh, Mich. June 7 at the Baptist Youth House, was the scene of a banquet and reception given for Mrs. Mitchell. She has been an active member of Faith Rebekah Lodge No. 36 of Blissfield since July 19, 1939. The peak in the order has been attained by her advancement. We wish her the best of luck in her new capacity.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert McCow took their boat over to Harsens Island and the Flats, and into the lake to fish on Saturday. Fishing wasn't too good but they enjoyed a cool swim. Their youngsters Jim and Jeanne went along for the fun.

Last Wednesday Mrs. Duncan Fry along with Mrs.

Robert Baxter as chairman, Mrs. James Robinson, Mrs. H. W. Shelley, and Mrs. Alf Carlson joined Miss Hopkins' 2nd grade class at Smith School in a journey to the Detroit Zoological Park. It was indeed a great day for such an adventure!

Mrs. Harry Unwin traveled to Flint to see her baby sister of two and one-half years, Marian Anderson, joined in matrimony with Robert Odykirk of the Marine Corps. It was a lovely wedding and I understand the bride was very pretty. The newly-weds left for Cherry Point, N. Carolina where Robert is stationed. Best of luck!

Also the Unwins attended the 25th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. Unwin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Unwin. But tragedy struck while the celebration was in progress. Michael Unwin, 7 years old, was thrown from a swing and flung into an eavestrough which caused a severe gash on his leg. A butterfly patch was applied to the wound to heal it. He is getting along fairly well. Do hope it mends very quickly.

In a lighter vein, Mrs. Lavern Kelley experienced her first scout camping trip. She joined Mrs. Rubey and Mrs. Russell's troop for a wet week-end at Bishop Lake. They had breakfast in the rain which to most campers perhaps, is not exactly a new twist.

Another scouting expedition. Girl scout troop No. 23 held a camp-out at the Kewanee Lodge on Plymouth Road. Eighteen girls along with Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Walker, Mrs. Widmaier and Mrs. Carver delighted in "hobo stew," games in the evening, and the making of coconut drops under the stars. A pleasant time was experienced by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Gray attended the graduation exercises of their niece, Nancy Curtis at the Clarkston High School.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanchett drove to Albion for Baccalaureate services at the First Methodist Church there. Their son Charles was one of the graduates of Albion College. This service is held the day before commencement exercises.

Drothy Sue Mandt has been chosen as delegate to go to Geneva Lake, Wis. for a Students Religious Association Conference. Students from colleges all over the U. S. will be present. This is a training program meeting but a great deal of pleasure is also involved. All sports are available to each and everyone attending. The Vice-President of the Association, Judy Johnson of Royal Oak, will tour there with Miss Mandt. There will be lots of conversation when these girls get back home again!

The League of Mercy of the Salvation Army visited 3 rest homes on Sunday. Mrs. W. Brown is the secretary of this group. They brought current Salvation Army magazines to the patients.

Little Linda Saye Barnes, 5 years old had her tonsils removed at St. Joseph's Hospital. Hope you are all right now, Linda!

Thomas Matthes, nephew of the Harry Haines' was a guest of honor at a going-away party. He is leaving for college in Wis. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Douglas of Garden City, daughter and son-in-law of the Haines' and their son Andrew and his girl-friend Karen Lent engaged in the festivities.

Doris Grimes' mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hohl, left for Denver, Colorado, to visit a new grandson born in March.

The "Elkette's" Bowling League of which Mrs. Harry Burleson is a member, held their banquet and dance at the Elks Club. The men were cordially invited to this function. There was a fine turnout and everyone had a good time. This is the last get-together of the season. Mrs. Burleson intends to practice during the summer months.

Mary Katherine Hurlik of beginner's ballet class at the Aleta School of Dance participated in its big recital last Thursday. She was thrilled at the prospect. Also this same young lady modeled a sun dress in the style show that Miss Anderson's 1st grade presented for the parents.

Mrs. Norman Cimoch, a teacher at Smith School, will prepare a delicious luncheon June 19 for about 20 of her fellow teachers. This is a get-together for the end of the semester. This is indeed a pleasant event to announce.

Mrs. Adel Keeping journeyed over to Courtright, Ontario (across from St. Clair, Mich.) to attend the nice wedding of her cousin Donald Lumley. The lovely bride-to-be was Elsie Smith. Mrs. Keeping's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. George Trinka and children Cathy and Paul also were on hand for the happy occasion. Mrs. A. C. Spitzer of Toledo, Ohio spent a grand week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eugene Jordan. Donald Jordan, teenage son, took part in the annual accordion recital held at the Plymouth High School. Mr. Jerry Hoelcher is their very excellent teacher. The group boasted 30 accordeons. Personally, anyone who can tackle and play such a fine instrument is nothing less than a genius! I admire all accordeonists!

Dorothy Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Curtis, was guest of honor at a desert and linen bridal shower on June 12. Fifteen people enjoyed this pleasant social gathering. Mrs. Henry J. Walsh was the very fine hostess.

Then on June 14, in Detroit, hostesses Mrs. Dean C. Tangen and Mrs. Curtis Tangen gave a lovely luncheon and miscellaneous shower for Miss Curtis. Sixteen attended this charming affair. Dorothy is being married June 28 to Donald R. Taylor of Livonia. We certainly wish them both very much happiness in their future life together.

Mrs. LeRoy Woodard and her mother Mrs. Fren ch went to the "Great Book Session" meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Moon. This was the last meeting of the season and they plan a good next year's schedule. The group read and discuss all the good books.

Ladies with extra time on your hands please pay rapt attention: Mrs. Robert Smith donates one and a half hours of every Thursday to travel to Maybury Sanitarium to supervise the play period of the youngsters confined there. Volunteers are desperately needed for the summer months. You may choose any morning that is convenient for you. Anyone interested in this worthy cause may contact Mrs. Parrish at the Sanitarium. The children so look forward to these meetings and I am sure some of you good women will answer the call. Thank you.

I see the "Japanese Beetles" are on the rampage in this area. They do so much damage to the lovely roses.

In Detroit one year, the City placed lanterns (in every many yards) that attracted such insects into its interior thus disposing of quite a few pests. We had one such lantern in our yard and never did find a beetle there. Maybe we were immuned!

I do think I've reached the end of my rope for now. But don't go too far away. I hope to be back again next week.

Grange Gleanings

Tonight is our final meeting before vacation so we hope to have a good attendance. I, for one, am sorry to see the meetings suspended. The big "painting bee" was a complete success and as "many hands make light work" the entire Hall received its first coat and we hope to have another "Bee" next Saturday with as fine a result. The Hall looks so wonderfully improved, it should be a real satisfaction to those who helped to make it so, we hope to put on the final coat this Saturday. Several of the wives of the painters came and put on a very nice lunch at noon and perhaps some of the other women may do the same this week. Lunch will be served.

Our "Go to Church" Sunday turned out fairly well with about 45 present, there would have been many more had it been advertised. Remember our ice cream festival tomorrow night in Kellogg Park. Come and get your ice cream and cake beginning about 8 o'clock.

Sunday, June 22 is the day of the Tri-county picnic at Milan, pot-luck dinner about 12:30, a program in the afternoon and our Grange has to furnish a number in that. The meeting is at the Community Hall.

On May 14, Mr. and Mrs. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Tritten and their boys went to Charlotte to the banquet given there in their honor of Mrs. Berniece Curtis who has been an active member of that Grange for seventy two years, she was Chaplain for many years.

The following members of our Grange went to Lansing to the Home Economic meeting at Capital Grange: Mrs. Martha Gates, Isabelle Taylor, Helen Eccles, Emma Schilfe and Louise Tritten. They had the privilege of touring the Grange main of-

MINUTES

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held in the faculty lounge of the Plymouth Community Junior High School on Monday, May 12, 1958, at eight o'clock.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet; Administrative Assistant Blunk and Superintendent Isbister.

Also present: Mr. Perlongo, Mr. Lindsay, Mr. Viou, Mr. Heiney, Mr. Becker, Mr. Hamill, Mr. Sand, Mr. Schmidt and Mr. Hall.

President Fischer called the meeting to order at 8:00 P.M.

Mr. Fischer directed the discussion to problems connected with the completion of the Helen Farrand School. Mr. Blunk read a letter written by Mr. Staub who represented the Greenspan Development Company. Mr. Staub pointed out in the letter that the engineering plans for the sewer and water extension to the school were in the hands of the contractor for bidding. Mr. Hamill explained the proposed layout for the sewer and water service. He indicated that the proposal had already been approved by the local and state authorities and the actual work would take two months from the time the contractor begins the project.

Mr. Stecker made reference to an earlier request which the Board made to Mr. Greenspan for action on the utilities. He pointed out that agreement called for the work to be completed by September 15 and the Board was prepared to take alternative action in time to avoid any delay in the opening of school.

Mr. Viou and Mr. Heiney, representing the Consumer Power Company, pointed out that the gas extension to the school must be planned and coordinated with the other utilities. In fact, their work can not be started until the sewer and water lines are installed.

Mr. Perlongo was instructed to serve notice on Mr. Greenspan of the Board's intent to take legal action should there be any unnecessary delay in carrying out the agreement.

Mr. Will presented for consideration the program being made on the annual report. He was commended for his leadership in this field.

It was moved by Mr. Mitchell and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to authorize the Superintendent's appointment of the election inspectors for the annual school election. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Zoet and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to change the existing transportation policy in order to place the junior high school under the same regulations as the high school, namely, students who live more than one and one-half miles from school will be provided transportation. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to purchase a new driver training car from the low bidder, Paul J. Wiedman, Inc. in the amount of $1,828.77. This was the only bid submitted. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

The Superintendent was requested to study the need for and the interest in having the third year of foreign language instruction offered in the high school.

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held in the Plymouth Community Junior High School on Monday evening, June 2, 1958.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker, Mr. Blunk and Mr. Isbister. Absent: Mr. Zoet.

Also present: Mr. Becker, Mr. Perlongo, Mr. Burdick, Mr. Greenspan, Mr. Hamill, Mr. Lindsay, Mr. Viou and Mr. Heiney.

President Fischer called the meeting to order at 8:10 P.M.

Mr. Fischer asked for a progress report on the installation of utilities at the Helen Farrand School. Mr. Hamill indicated that the state and local health authorities had approved the plans for installation of sewer and water to the school and the engineering was completed.

Mr. Burdick reviewed the agreement between the Board of Education and the Lake Pointe Development Company entered into last October. He pointed out that economic conditions slowed down the development schedule of subdivisions 2 and 3 and that sale of homes is far behind the anticipated schedule last fall. He indicated their problem in financing these improvements and asked the Board to amend the original agreement and permit the $14,000 held in escrow until all improvements are installed to be released and paid to the contractor when the sanitary sewer, water and storm water dry well are installed and approved by the engineer.

Considerable discussion followed in which questions were raised by the Board members relative to the good faith of the original agreement. They pointed out the urgency of the situation in getting these improvements started and their reluctance to make any changes in the agreement at this time. Mr. Perlongo noted that he personally didn't like the proposal but, at the same time, felt the school district would be better off with permanent installations as suggested by Mr. Burdick than with temporary ones which the Board might be forced to install should the Lake Pointe Development Company fail to go through with the original agreement.

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to amend the present agreement with the Lake Pointe Development Company and join with the seller in structuring the escrow agent to release the $14,000 held in escrow and deliver it to the contractor as a part payment for the installation of the water, sanitary sewer and storm water dry well when the projects are completed and certified by the engineer. All other parts of the original contract will remain in full force and agreement. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

Mr. Viou and Mr. Heiney of the Consumers Power Company stated that normal procedures dictate that right-of-ways be obtained on recorded plats from a developer before gas lines can be installed. Since subdivision No. 3 of the Lake Pointe Development had not been recorded some problems must be worked out before the gas line can be extended to the new school. It was mutually agreed by the parties concerned to prepare a proposal by June 9, 1958, which the Board will review on that date.

Mr. Becker stated that oil burning equipment for the new school in exchange for the gas burner as specified would cost an additional $5,539.

Bids for the construction of a 42 in. restraining fence around the playing area of the football field were opened and read as follows:

Keystone Fence & Supply Company $1,600.00
Allen Fence Company $1,682.96
Wayne Fence & Supply Company $1,869.54
Cadillac Fence & Supply Company $1,878.48
Chain Link Fence & Supply Company $1,935.32
E. J. Bergeron Fence Company $2,010.00

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to award the fence contract to the low bidder, Keystone Fence and Supply Company, in the amount of $1,600.00.

Mr. Isbister was directed to prepare for consideration an athletic budget for 1958-59 which would reflect the estimated income and expenditures for high school athletics and the amount which would be earmarked for the bleacher fund.

Upon the superintendent's recommendation it was moved by Mr. Mitchell and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to approve for one year an experimental program as outlined by Mr. Gilbert Pearson for the teaching of spelling in the summer extended school program. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 P.M.
Respectfully submitted,
Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

Lots of High School Graduation Activity Found by Town Crier

By GLORIA BOWLES
GL 3-2340

Covering area along Sheldon to Ann Arbor Trail, Harvey and Sutherland, including Plymouth Colony, Hough Sub., Plymouth Hills, and Ridgewood.)

Eleven "Town Crier" area residents will be among the 208 young men and women, who will receive diplomas at the Annual Commencement exercises of Plymouth High School tonight, Thursday, June 19 at 8:00 in the gymnasium. This long-awaited event climaxes four years, chocked full with various and contrasting events, study, fun, triumphs and disappointments, successes and failures. In honor of this occasion, these graduates and their families have made special plans.

Two open houses are in the offing: Kay Fisher of Amherst Court and Diane Fuelling of Turkey Run are planning such parties. Kay will entertain friends, relatives and associates this evening, June 19 following graduation. Kay, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Fisher, also entertained six girl friends for a weekend at the Fisher cottage on Lake Charlevoix, leaving Friday afternoon, June 6, and returning Monday night. Thoughts of exams gave way to sunbathing, boating, and conversation — anyone who mentioned school or anything concerning it was ostracized! Guests were Karla Herbold, Ann Cooper, Nancy Eaton, Judy Rowe, Judy Hinote, Mary Lee Haug, and Kay's sister and brother-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Matt Fortney.

The four senior girls on the Homecoming Court. Wow! Annie's mother and brother, John Murray, will join this graduate in Mackinaw next week.

Baseball and major league scouts are the big words in the life of PHS senior, Ken Knipschild, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. B. Knipschild of Evergreen. Ken spent the free time between exams and graduation in interviews with major league baseball scouts, who are in search of young talent — and Ken certainly qualifies. This prep star has a record of 19 wins and no losses — he has never lost a game in his three years of high school play. As of this writing, Ken has not signed up with a team, nor decided whether to do so or pursue a college education.

Other '58 grads in the area will be attending a gay round of parties in honor of the big day. They are Ann Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooper of Ann Arbor Trail, Dick Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard V. Bennett of Priscilla Lane, Martha Shoemaker, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Williams of Amherst Court, Dennis Drewes, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Drewes of Jener, and Carl Glassford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Glassford of Ann Arbor Trail.

Home from Ohio State — but not for long — was Clifford "Biff" Tait, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Tait of Ridgewood, who returned last Thursday, June 12, from his first year as a college student. Biff barely had time to get re-acquainted with his family before he left the following Sunday, June 15 for a six week cruise with the Navy ROTC, which departed at Norfolk.

Leaving tomorrow for a vacation at Reel Foot Lake in Tennessee will be the Norris E. Bennetts of Priscilla Lane. Besides taking advantage of the good fishing of the lake, the Bennetts will travel through the Ozark Mountains, returning July 7.

The Hillcrest Country Club was the scene of a dinner dance, held the Saturday-after-Friday the 13th, attended by the busy Bennetts.

The National Music Camp at Interlochen will be infested with Plymouth teens, including "Town Crier" area campers: Martha Wesley, daughter of the Robert O. Wesleys of McKinley and Mary Jane Readman, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Readman of Maple.

Leaving June 22 for the camp a short distance from Traverse City, Martha will be a Choir major and also take part in activities built around pottery and ceramics, sailing, modern dance, operetta workshop, tennis, and swimming.

Mary Jane received a $150 scholarship to the camp and will also work at Interlochen for two hours of the day, besides taking Band, Radio Workshop, (her majors) and swimming. Her parents will accompany "M.J." to Interlochen on June 21 — a duffel bag, a foot locker, and other miscellaneous equipment will also make the trip.

The Eta Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi met last Tuesday evening, June 17, at the home of Mrs. Lee Rehbein of McClupha, to decide upon future plans for the sorority whose membership totals 15 local women. The co-hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Forest O. Byrd of Governor Bradford and Mrs. Robert Brown.

This Plymouth Colony family, the Forest O. Byrds and sons Leslie, Greg, and Eric, spent the Memorial Day weekend on Sage Lake in Lupton with Mrs. Byrd's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Christenson. (We mentioned this last week but some errors were made — so here it is again.)

Houghton Lake in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan was the destination of the Harold Zieglers of Harvey, who left for the north, Monday, June 16. Accompanying the Zieglers were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McArthur. Besides turning tourist (they had to) the foursome will visit friends and relatives in the vicinity of Lake Gerald, which is the former home of these Plymouthites. The Zieglers, owners of Gould's Cleaners, (have to get a plug in!) spent the Memorial Day weekend in Ohio.

Surprise! A very red face beamed at the hearing of this word, shouted by hiding teens in celebration of the 16th birthday of Sally Sawyer of Penniman, on Wednesday evening, June 19. Several "Town Crier" area residents attended the surprise birthday party, given by Sal's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sawyer. Guests were Martha Wesley Susan Mather, Sharon Roberts, Frances Smith, Barbara Booth, Linda Leet, Susan Hulsing, Suanra Bailey, Mary Bauer, Gloria Bowles, Roxanne Smith, Nancy Alford, Jill Clarke, Jackie Potter, and Kay Selle.

New bride, Ann Knipschild, whose parents are the K. B. Knipschilds of Evergreen, will return to Plymouth this weekend from Chicago, for the wedding of Joan Bassett on June 21. Ann's trip will give her an opportunity to pick up some of her wedding gifts, which haven't been put to use as yet.

Speaking of weddings, the Mel Fuellings of Turkey Run recently attended the reception of Mr. Fuelling's cousin, David Radatz, and the former Connie Monte. Mrs. Radtz is the sister of Tony Monte — another PHS senior, and the pride of Plymouth's cross country and track teams.

Her back in traction for two weeks during a recuperation period at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor, Mrs. A. H. Miller returned recently to her home on Amherst Court. She said that she enjoyed the "rest". (Mrs. M. is the mother of three lively children!)

Enthusiastic about the USA's favorite pastime — baseball — are several Plymouth Colony men, who have organized a team to play in the Men's Softball League sponsored by the Recreation Department. The Mickey Mantles, Al Kalines, and Harvey Kuenns are Jack Mitenbuler, Harry L. Crawford, Jr., William L. Schmidt, Tom Roley, Mel Fuelling, Russell K. Kreitsch, Owen C. McKenny, Rudy Norquist, John F. Eley, Donald Tapp, and Judge George E. Bowles.

Several area teens are among the Plymouthites to be invading Europe this summer. For details see related story in this paper.

I've always been confused and curious about the name of a certain area street. "Is it Jener or Jener Place," was my question directed to a resident of this avenue. I was then informed that the block nearest Ann Arbor Trail is Jener Place and the next block is just plain Jener. Glad I got that straightened out! Another street change — how will run . . . Former Postmaster General James A. Farley (Democrat) told reporters at his 70th birthday lunch he will run for the Senate if asked.

Outstanding graduate Annie Demany of Priscilla Lane returned today from Mackinaw Island, the summer home of her family, following an orientation and working period for her vacation job as a waitress, and will go back to Mackinaw soon after graduation exercises. (Her mother, Mrs. Murray Demany, is working that tiny, blond Annie will find it hard to tote the heavy trays, balancing them above her head!) "Outstanding" — and busy — Annie, while maintaining a high scholastic average, also found plenty of time to devote to school extra-curricular activities: she was elected to the post of All-School Secretary of the Student Council, was one of the hard-working page editors of the school paper, a member of the Thespian Club, while participating in many plays, active in Quill and Scroll and MUNA, and one of

STRICTLY FRESH

Folks who say something is as easy as "taking candy from a baby" never tried to do so.
Some people don't care for the beach; others look better in a bathing suit.
When it's too hot to work, it's wonderful how the weather moderates if someone mentions going fishing.
A second-guesser is the fellow who can guess correctly the second that the boss is out of earshot.

The Road Toll by Jerry Marcus

A drink at the wheel makes an expensive cocktail.

A sunny sky, a jug of seven-up, and the feeling to quote the Perisian poet Omar Khayyam crept over my mind week. Must have been the artistic influence of the Three Cities Art Exhibit in Kellogg Park. The artists in the area had a perfect day for their showing. All that talent on display makes me think of one thing: what a group of talented people for our Plymouth Theater Guild.

We need scene designers, artists to create the stage setting before and after it leaves the drawing board. Phyllis Kelly has been doing a "yoeman's job" for the guild, but it's time the work was spread around the community. I'm sure that Phyllis would add her personal "amen" to that statement.

Jack Van Haren, a Northville teacher and artist by avocation, had several pictures on view. He has acted for the Plymouth Theater Guild, drawn sketches for one of their programs, and assisted with backstage work. We could use a few more of Jack's artistic friends. Plan this fall to paint one less picture and help an ambitious crew do a living portrait — a stage production.

Those of you in Plymouth that were fortunate enough to go over to Ann Arbor last week saw one of the season's performances of the season when Basil Rathbone and Betty Field did Terence Rattigan's "Separate Tables." I don't see how Eric Portman who did the Broadway version could have been better than Basil. His performance was an acting triumph. Betty Field did such a change of character in the second part of the show that it was difficult to recognize her so complete was her change. When an actress can accomplish this, she has arrived. Miss Field has been selected to appear next fall in O'Neill's last play "A Touch of the Poet." It is more than apparent that even the Broadway people recognize her talent.

"Separate Tables" is a combination of two plays relative to two love affairs in the same boarding house. The boards provide a permanent framework within which the two love affairs take place. Said so succinctly it would not appear on the surface that these plays held a great deal of promise. Believe me they packed quite a wallop before the evening was over.

"Table Number Seven," the second of the two plays, seemed to me hit the hardest. This play called for an interpretation of lines with an eye toward developing a characterization upon which the final scene would hinge. In this scene, Mr. Rathbone must be re-accepted by his fellow boarding-house friends. The mere expression of "Good Evening" by one of the ladies on stage triggers an emotional build-up that was magnificent to behold and will always be a cherished memory. As will the line in this same production, "Even though we are the right side, it seems we find we have questionable allies," remain with old George as a high point.

"Table by the Window," first of the two tables, appeared to be slightly underwritten. Couldn't get the feel-

American Legion News

The Flag Day Observance program held in Kellogg Park last Friday was a wonderful thing... hope this can be repeated again next year. The Elks, VFW and American Legion did a good job. Let's have a better attendance next time! Thanks to all who made this program possible.

June 26th, Thursday, 8 p.m. the Auxiliary's important meeting, nominations and election of officers will be held... be there and elect your choice of officers. All chairmen please bring your folders to turn in and remember your annual reports.

The 17th District Post meeting is June 27, Friday, at the Redford Township Post home on Beech Road. Election of officers is scheduled for this meeting. Delegates are urged to be in attendance and all endorsements should be turned in at this time.

Remember this date... July 2, Wednesday, 8 p.m., Elks Club... The Installation of officers of both the Post and Auxiliary. The 17th District Ritual Team will do the installation.

Welcome Mat Out in Detroit for 40th Annual Convention. Student Driving Reviewed

Another of the important elements which contribute to the well being of Plymouth's community life is the close relationship which the school administration and the city administration maintain in solving problems of mutual interest.

For example, about two weeks ago, a meeting was held between the school officials, the city officials and Judge Perlongo to review the driver regulations for high school students. It has been three years since a similar joint meeting of the same officials formulated the set of driving regulations now in effect. The rules were approved by the Board of Education and administered jointly by the school officials and the police department.

Driving regulations were deemed necessary, because of the increased number of automobiles containing students on the streets downtown during the lunch hour. The students had no apparent mission, except to cruise around the business section. This was fun for them, but their fun created traffic congestion and hazards, both to pedestrians and other motorists. Since school is dismissed for lunch, the problem became noticeably worse as school enrollments increased.

Automobiles are necessary for transportation for certain high school students, because of jobs, home locations away from bus service or because of their extra-curricular school activities.

The regulations require that no student be permitted to leave the parking lot of the school, or to drive anywhere in the city during school hours, except by special permit issued by the high school principal. The police, upon seeing someone on the street whom they suspect as not having a permit, report the matter to the high school authorities. Of course, the school administrators, too, observe those who are driving and who possess permits. If no permit has been issued, the student is disciplined. Needless to say, the businessmen and pedestrians were much relieved when the noontime traffic jams ceased.

Our purpose in meeting two weeks ago was to evaluate the success of the program and to indicate points where it might be strengthened. It was agreed that good progress has been made in controlling the student drivers. Although not 100 percent effective, most of the objectives have been achieved.

Occasionally, some student disregards the regulations, brings his car to school and drives undetected at noon hour. The greatest problem is the youngster who is too smart to go to school, and hangs around the high school entrances tempting other youngsters to go for a ride. For students to enter the cars is taboo, too.

The regulations are to be broadened next fall to prohibit the use of motor scooters during the lunch hour.

By cooperation and coordination of effort, our community continues to enjoy a pleasant atmosphere, which so many visitors wish they could enjoy with us.

Local Clubs Sponsor 3 to Girls State

Training and practice in democratic leadership will be given to some 14,000 high school girls in 50 Girls States to be held this summer under sponsorship of the American Legion Auxiliary according to Mrs. Marion Kot, Girls State Chairman of Passage-Gayde auxiliary unit.

The Michigan Girls State will be in session at the University of Michigan campus from June 17 to 26. Attending from Plymouth will be Betty Argo, sponsored by the Elks Club; Joy Klamback, sponsored by the Business and Professional Women's Club; and Mary Jane West, sponsored by the Women's Club.

The Girls States, to be held in every state, District of Columbia and the Panama Canal Zone again this year, will be state government in miniature operated entirely by the girls. They have been widely hailed as a practical way to train leaders for America's future.

Girls chosen to attend the Girls States all have completed their junior year in high school and will be high school seniors next fall. They are carefully selected on a basis of character and potential leadership ability as exhibited in high school activities. Their expenses are paid by the local auxiliary unit or other cooperating civic and patriotic organizations.

Most of the Girls States are held on college or university campuses and are in session one week or ten days. The girls form political parties, hold conventions, conduct po-

Library Finds Books Don't Stray for Long

By Nancy Rigney
Keeping an eye on 20,000 books sounds like a big order. The task falls to the staff at the Dunning-Hough library, but they find there's no problem at all.

The conscientiousness of the patrons and an occasional Forgiveness Day makes the job easier for the librarians. Now that June is here, it's just about time for another Forgiveness Day, which will be set to coincide with locker cleaning day at the high school.

The book drops, located at the front and back entrances, make the return of books effortless for the patrons. They have also given the opportunity for the honesty of Plymouth folk to show itself. Overdue books deposited in the drops invariably have the fine tucked in the pocket.

Of course, some books are legitimately lost, and found in taxis, stores and the schools. Children are particularly good, says Mrs. Agnes Pauline, about returning stray cards and reporting books sighted.

Children are the culprits in many lost book cases, but they are not the number one offenders. The adults misplace or lose the majority of the missing books and are the most positive that they have returned them.

There have been cases when a child liked a book so well, that he would store it away under the davenport or behind the refrigerator. The mother would have to resort to cloak and dagger methods to ferret out his hiding places.

In other cases the fine is what keeps a book on the overdue list. The librarians are quick to say that, if a person is unable to pay the fine, they would much rather see the book back on the shelf than wait for the money.

The policy on book loans is liberal for the convenience of the patrons. One needs no library card, just the ability to scribble a name and address on a slip of paper.

Most books are loaned for a two week period except the new books and those with a lengthy waiting list, which are issued for one week. When the time expires, the library sends out an overdue notice to jog the memory, which usually brings results.

There are no restrictions as to number of books borrowed at one time or as to age. In fact they are never too young, according to Mrs. Pauline, who says it is common to see babies in strollers parked between the stacks while their mothers pick out books for them.

The patrons must appreciate the policy and friendly manner in which it is dispensed, to say nothing of the pleasant surroundings. People come from Plymouth and outlying areas to avail themselves of the regular and special services. The library can order phonograph records and books of braille for the blind, a service underwritten by the government, with the distribution handled by the Wayne County Library. Films can also be ordered from the film library in Inkster.

Glad to have such fine service, the average patron hesitates to take advantage of it or hinder circulation by keeping books out unnecessarily.

As in the past five years, patrons will have to do their book shopping during the week since the library has closed on Saturdays until Labor Day.

Degree Received By Ruth Holland

Ruth Holland

Ruth Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Holland of 635 South Harvey, received a bachelor of arts degree from St. Olaf College in Northfield, Minn. Sunday, June 8.

She has been accepted by the University of Michigan school of medicine where she will continue her studies.

Disabled Workers Must File Soon

Disabled workers who have been unable to work for a prolonged period may lose their rights to the disability freeze or to disability payments at age 50 if they do not file an application before June 30. Failure to file for these disability provisions may also affect their right to benefits upon retirement and to benefits for their survivors in the event of the workers' death.

In order to qualify for these benefits, the disabled person must be unable to perform any substantial gainful activity and must have worked under social security for at least five out of the 10 years immediately preceding the date he became disabled. At least one and one-half years of this work must have been during the three years just before the disability began. In addition, the disabled individual must have filled out application for these benefits. Any disabled person who meets the requirements is urged to contact his nearest Social Security office. If the individual is a veteran he may contact Vern Miller at Plymouth, Glenview 3-4481.

Two of the 26 seats in the Senate of Northern Ireland are held for the Lord Mayor of Belfast and the Mayor of Londonberry.

Local Chapter Organized by Civic Sorority

Beta Sigma Phi, international civic and cultural sorority, has established a new chapter in Plymouth, which has already pledged nine women. Mrs. Robert Pierson from Detroit and five local members were the nucleus in forming the group.

The following officers were installed recently at a dinner at Hillside Inn: Mrs. Robert R. Brown, president; Mrs. Robert Mayes, vice president; Mrs. Richard Ney, extension officer; Mrs. Lee Rehbein, recording secretary; Mrs. William Grimmer, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Bruce Milroy, treasurer.

Participation in civic projects and a philanthropic project of their own will be the aims of the sorority.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mrs. A. H. Hoppel entertained 11 members of chapter 10, Gold Star Mothers of Detroit, at luncheon and cards in her home on East Ann Arbor Trail. Mrs. P. Tonkovich of Plymouth was also a guest.

Mrs. Nellie Bird of 217 Ann St. is in Whitehall Convalescent Hospital on Ten Mile Rd. near Novi after fracturing her right arm and hip in a fall three weeks ago. She will welcome a visit from her friends or a note in care of the home, Novi, Mich.

The home of Mrs. George A. Smith was the scene of many reunions at an open house for over 50 people, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Claude Dykhouse last Friday. Both taught here, he being a teacher and principal from 1926 until 1947. Friends from town and teachers with whom he had worked, attended. The Dykhouses had dinner with Mrs. Clella Smith and Grace Stowe at the Mayflower Hotel, after which an open house was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leeves. They breakfasted with former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. M. Aluia of Ann St. before leaving for Alma. Mr. Dykhouse is a professor of education at the University of Southern Illinois and Mrs. Dykhouse is supervisor of practice teaching at the same institution.

Outboard Motor Today Vastly Better Than Before

LOADING UP — Four of 20,000,000 outboard users get ready for a day's fun on the water. Twin outboards provide ample power and assure safety when underway.

And Families Take to Water

From all indications, America's families have turned their backs on land and prefer to spend as much leisure time as possible on the water during the warmer months. No other recreational activity has enjoyed such skyrocket growth as boating.

The largest contributing factor to this family interest is the development of better outboard motors. At one time, outboard motors were a knuckle-busting, troublesome source of power for small craft used only for off-shore fishing.

Today, manufacturers of boats and outboard motors work hand-in-hand developing larger, more powerful and safer units. For example, the 1958 line of outboard cruisers is roomier and sturdier, and they are constructed for installation of heavier and larger outboard motors. A family of 4 or 5, not able to own more expensive inboard cruisers, can enjoy safe water travel in one of the newer family-size outboard cruisers.

Low power and deafening noise were the disadvantages of outboard motors at one time. Today, outboards have a horsepower range from 3 up to 70 horsepower, and run as quietly as an inboard motor.

Also, the shoulder-wrenching chore of starting an outboard has been replaced by push-button just as on the family car. Electric starting is standard equipment on the larger outboards. However, there are push-button kits available which can be adapted to the smallest engine.

Two of this year's outboard models have copied the auto engine V-type design, and offer the boat-owning family the latest in efficient outboards. One of the manufacturers has silenced its outboard even more by designing its engine so that the motor actually rests on rubber shock absorbers. This feature also minimizes vibration.

Both of the new outboards have a three position key switch to lock the motor so it cannot be started. This type of starting switch is a much requested safeguard for boating families whose young children have a curiosity for starting motors. The horsepower of these new outboards is rated at 50 hp.

The pessimistic economical outlook seems not to extend to boating enthusiasts. It's been estimated that some 700,000 outboards will be sold this boating season, with a purchase trend toward higher horsepower for use on larger craft.

Photograph Your Garden Spot

A favorite spot in the garden can be the source of artistic beauty for the camera. Everyone who has either a 35 mm or a view camera can record events that occur in the spot as well as its changing beauty from season to season.

My favorite spot (see illustration) is an old gnarled apple tree which, because it has a wooden bench around it, has become a center of activity on the property. The accompanying picture was taken one May day when the tree was in full bloom. It was taken with a view camera using a 5-inch Dagor lens and a yellow filter at F 22 and 1/25 of a second.

The tree has been photographed in color as well as black and white when it was in bud, in bloom, in full leaf and in winter with snow heaped on every branch. It has been photographed simply for the beauty of the tree, as a setting for a group of people and as a site from which to photograph other parts of the property such as its branches framing a picture of an adjacent rose bed.

This apple tree is a focal point on the property. This as well as its beauty explains its value for photography. Whatever your favorite spot in a garden may be, look for a focal point before photographing it so that the resulting picture has a certain unity in its composition.

Do not photograph a strip of flowers in a border, for the resulting picture will be flat and without dimension. A rock, a tree or a path will serve as a focal point to bring the rest of the picture up to it.

Black-and-white pictures of any garden scene mean little if they are taken without the proper filter. For example, red tulips or red roses must be taken with panchromatic film and a red filter, if the resulting pictures are not to be patches of black. A color picture of these flowers will be satisfactory, for red always shows up well against green grass and brown earth.

When photographing a flower or garden spot in color, try to concentrate on locations where the flower color is strongest. Otherwise, the picture will look skimpy. Because the eye roves when looking over the garden, the viewer can be fooled into thinking there is more color than actually is present to take a good picture.

Another appealing type of garden picture is blossoms photographed against a blue sky. This can be done successfully in either black and white or color, providing the sky is a clear blue.

When shooting this type of picture with black and white, it is essential to keep the sky as dark as possible. Therefore, use the yellow or red filter. For dramatic quality it is advisable not to over-expose. Tilt the camera toward the blossoms and move it around until a pleasing composition appears on the ground glass or viewer.

How About a Backyard Playground?

SPRINGFIELD, S. D. (UP) — Southern State Teachers College has a laundry problem. The soft water well on the campus will not pump sufficient water to supply enough for the various buildings and laundry so the laundry must be shut down for a few days at a time. W. W. Ludeman, college president, said the institution is considering requesting funds from the state emergency fund to drill another well.

A PLAY YARD for the youngsters needn't be large to permit a number of "fun" activities.

Children have to play somewhere, and it might as well be in their own backyard. If youngsters can amuse themselves there, adults don't have to worry about traffic hazards or having them within call.

Assigning a portion of the property as a play yard won't be permanent. It's worth it for the five or ten years it's needed. It will help to keep the children off the front lawn that sets off the house. Mother's flower beds or Dad's putting green.

To make it a safer place for children, the area could be enclosed with fencing. Vines across the front will not obstruct the view of children at play and will draw the area into visual harmony with the rest of the planned property. Baffles will screen and also give children a place to climb.

On a property approximately 50 feet wide and 10 feet deep, fencing off the last 20 feet of depth as a play yard will give children a decent area in which to play. (It's important to locate the play yard where an adult can keep an eye on youngsters from a house window or terrace.) A strip 50 feet wide by 20 feet deep gives room for some standing play equipment and for games to be played. If more space can be spared, that's fine, but an even smaller area helps the situation.

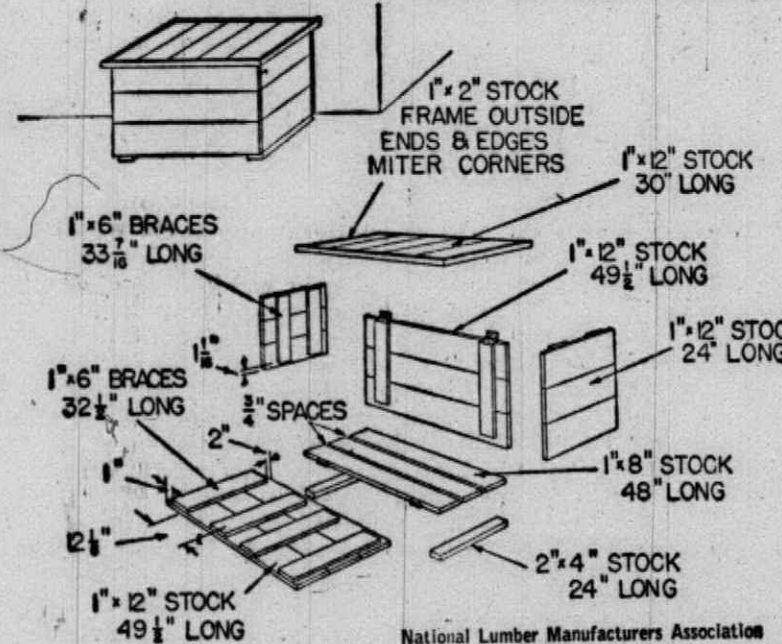

A garage, tool shed or even a tree on the rear property line provides a wall surface for a basketball hoop for older children. Fun for children of all ages is a swing, preferably a suspended swing from a metal support. A jungle gym and a slide will depend on the space and the ages of the children.

For children of pre-school age, a roomy sandbox is a must. If older children are to share the play yard, it's a good idea to separate the areas for play. This division can be accomplished with a long wooden bench — 4 by 6 and the sandbox can be made by a Do-It-Yourself father. The seat of the sandbox also can serve as a cover for a box in which balls and bats and other equipment for games can be stored.

Given the space for a play yard and a minimum of play equipment, children will

Prospective Brides Honored at Showers, Luncheons

Serve Asparagus - Ham Rolls, Cranberry Heart

June is traditionally the month of brides and consequently the month for bridal showers. If the shower is to include a luncheon, here are two suggestions: ham and asparagus rolls with cheese sauce and a cranberry cookie heart.

Ham and Asparagus Rolls
Slices of "boiled" ham, asparagus spears and cheese sauce team up to make a winning selection to honor the bride-to-be. Ready-to-serve meats are always ready to serve you. The variety is wide, so use your imagination and make being a hostess a cinch.

8 slices "boiled" ham, cut 1/4 to 1/2 inch thick.
24 fresh or frozen asparagus spears

cheese sauce
Cook asparagus spears until tender. Roll 3 spears of asparagus in each ham slice and fasten with a wooden pick. Place in a baking dish. Pour cheese sauce over rolls and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for 20 minutes or until the rolls are heated through. Yield 8 servings.

Cheese Sauce
1/4 cup butter or margarine
1/4 cup flour
2 cups milk
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 tsp. salt
2 cups pepper grated cheddar cheese
Melt butter or margarine. Stir in flour and gradually add milk and Worcestershire sauce, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens. Add salt, pepper and grated cheese. Stir until cheese melts.

Cranberry Cookie Heart
For a dessert that is both tempting and attractive, it's the cranberry cookie heart.

1 pkg. (12) lemon cookies
1 tsp. almond extract
1 egg white
2 cans whole cranberry sauce
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin

2-3 cup water
1 pint heavy cream, whipped
Crumble one bag lemon cookies and bake in 350 degree F. oven until golden brown — about seven minutes. Mix in the almond extract and cool.

1 1/2 quart heart-shaped mold with egg white. Set it upside down until ready to fill.
Melt contents of one can cranberry sauce in double boiler. Add unflavored gelatin which has been dissolved in water. Then add the second can of cranberry sauce. Blend mixture with whipped cream, stirring carefully so as not to prick fruit.

TENDER ASPARAGUS SPEARS wrapped in savory, juicy slices of "boiled" ham and topped with a velvety-like cheese sauce make this bridal luncheon entree a satisfying and wholesome choice.

A CRANBERRY HEART makes a decorative and delicious dessert for a bridal shower. Made with a combination of whole cranberry sauce, whipped cream and cookie crumbs it has a wonderful texture and enough body to be easy to serve.

Fill mold with four layers of cream and three of cookie crumbs. Refrigerate.
The smart hostess can have iced tea prepared before hand, too. With plenty of lemon

1 1/2 cups freshly boiling water
Combine lemon juice, peel and sugar, stirring well to dissolve sugar. Pour boiling water over tea. Brew 5 minutes and strain into the lemon syrup. Pour into ice cube trays and freeze. (Makes one tray of cubes.)
To serve, put two lemon-ice cubes in a glass. Add 1/4 cup water and allow cubes to dissolve. Add additional plain ice cubes if desired.

Guides in Gift Buying for Brides-to-be

When a woman says, "The shower season is in full swing," she's not talking about the weather. Most likely, she's referring to the avalanche of showers that are being given for summer brides.

Because linens make practical as well as attractive gifts, American Institute of Laundering, research and educational center for the professional laundry industry, has compiled some guides in buying linens to assure quality gifts.

When purchasing towels, make sure the ones you get are colorfast. All towels don't hold their rainbow colors after the first laundering. A further aid in getting top quality toweling is to observe, feel and pull the different sections to make sure that all stretch equally. Uneven tension in the weaving process can cause towel parts to pucker or become distorted after laundering. And, choose close, large, loosely-twisted and thickly-packed loops, which indicate that the towels will be absorbent and will give good service.

Cotton sheets come in two basic types, muslin and percale. Muslin is a utility-type sheet that is heavier, less expensive and usually gives longer wear. Percale sheets are lighter and have a more luxurious feel. For quality bed linens, look for threads that are evenly woven and of the same thickness. Check sheeting for firm, compact selvage edges and hems that are straight with even stitching.

If you're thinking about embroidered tablecloths, placemats or napkins for the summer bride, make sure you're getting embroidery. Some of the "embroidery" is only glued to the fabric. One washing can loosen the backing and can cause the edging to go down the drain. Inspect embroidery to make sure the edging is sewed on.
Whether buying bedroom, bathroom or kitchen linens, technicians at American Institute of Laundering advise shoppers to make sure that the articles are colorfast, pre-shrunk and show quality construction. The Certified Washable Seal assures the buyer of these qualities.

Sirloin Steak is Kingly Fare for Father Any Day

Father's Day may be past, but chances are that father will think it's his day anytime when steak is served.

When the housewife asks for special menu requests from father, she usually doesn't need to ask Dad his menu choice. It usually will be steak.

If this is the case in your home, purchase a sirloin steak cut 1 inch thick.

Steaks for broiling are numerous: T-bone, rib, club and top loin in addition to the sirloin. The sirloin can be readily identified by the thin narrow back bone.

When preparing this sirloin steak, simply use the regulator of the range for broiling. Place the steak on the broiler rack so the top surface of a 1 inch steak is 2 to 3 inches from the heat; a 2-inch steak . . . 3 to 5 inches from the heat. When one side is browned, season and turn and finish cooking on second side.

A 1-inch steak requires 18 to 20 minutes for rare steak; 20 to 25 for medium. A 2-inch steak . . . 30 to 35 minutes for rare; 35 to 45 minutes for medium.

ST. ALBANS, Vt. (UP) — Franklin County Agricultural Agent Ralph C. McWilliams reported the "best sap run in years" despite the fact that "squirrels have been tapping the plastic pipelines used to speed the flow of sap." He suggested that farmers "tap a couple of trees and let the squirrels take the sweet stuff from them."

Nylon-Cotton Fabric Needs Tender Care

Like "ham and eggs" and "bread and butter," some combinations are just natural.

But then there are the duets that seem to go together until they're put to the test. Textile manufacturers are finding that some of the synthetic and natural fibers they combine into one fabric just don't turn out to be problem-free materials.

Technicians point in particular to a fabric which combines nylon and cotton. The fabric closely resembles material made of 100% cotton, though it ordinarily has a more silky, shiny appearance. Because it easily can be confused with cotton, quite often the same care is given to the nylon-cotton fabric that would be given to 100% cotton.

Manufacturers sometime include the fiber content on their garment labels. These serve as a guide for the care that should be given to the particular item. It is suggested that the label be left on a garment so that it can easily be identified by the professional laundryman and given proper care.

Modern Victorian Commode

Victorian furniture, made between 1837 and 1900, is entering a new span of popularity. Enormously popular in its day, this furniture is noted fully as much for fine workmanship and elegance as it is for over-ornamentation.

As a matter of fact Victorian furniture was made in several styles, at different times throughout this lush period. All of them are eagerly sought after now and adapted to present-day uses. Whether a piece is simple and elegant or ponderous and rococo, it always is durable.

Victorian furniture commonly was made in matching sets for bedroom, dining room and parlor. The sets, if they can be found, are mixed as successfully as single pieces in modern homes. Outside pieces frequently are cut down — for example, the towering headboard of a carved walnut bed may be reduced by removing a two-foot wide panel where it will be least noticeable. Pieces also prove adaptable to quite different purposes than their original.

The commode pictured is typical of the Victorian furniture that has been restored to use today. This walnut commode, made as part of a bedroom set, now is used as a side serving table in a Long Island dining room. The matching bureau has been adapted for use as a sideboard. The commode's one long drawer, two smaller ones and small cupboard are ideal for storing dining room equipment.

The commode is walnut with some burl walnut veneer on the front of the drawers. Drawer pulls are the original, rather elaborate brass ones. The top is "pink" marble, and this marble with its brown streaked with faint pink is the most coveted by collectors. The splash or spatter rail across the back and the sides, also of marble 4 or 5 inches high, was removed for the commode's present use. Cleaning and polishing the walnut was the only restoration needed. This commode was made during the 1850's or 1860's. That particular period produced furniture that was imposing and heavy, trimmed with scrolled moldings rather than rococo carvings, and generously combined marble with wood. Black walnut, mahogany and rosewood were the woods used throughout the entire Victorian period.

Representatives from Plymouth, Livonia, Redford Union and South Redford school districts met recently in Plymouth to learn that the survey preliminary to establishing a community college in this area will not be completed before fall of 1959 and that $60,000 to finance the survey is still being sought.
The study group, composed of representatives from the above mentioned school districts and Clarenceville and Northville, has marked time since an October meeting, waiting word from Dr. Gerald Boicourt, director of Community College Services at Wayne State University.
Dr. Boicourt will head the six county survey in cooperation with the University of Michigan, Michigan State University and the Michigan State Department of Public Instruction.
Several foundations have been approached for funds to support the survey, with Eli Lilley (Company) and the Metropolitan Research Corp. of Detroit being the most promising. A grant from Eli Lilley is pending and the latter, a new organization, is still in the formative stages. Should foundation funds be refused, the possibility of joint contributions from school districts and agencies involved will be investigated.
The specific educational needs for this area as determined by the survey will chart the course taken in planning a community college.
Despite the absence of money, Wayne State will take the initiative in organizing research, hoping a grant will come through. The survey, already partially underway, will cover the "Southeastern Metropolitan Area," including six counties: Wayne, Washtenaw, Oakland, Monroe, Macomb and Livingston. The survey will determine the need for community colleges in the large area and relate the findings to the local groups. Officially the local committee is called the Northwestern Wayne County Community College Study Group.
The survey staff will project future necessities by studying population, enrollments, existing facilities and analyzing future growth and land use in the area, financing and legislation. The participating school districts will cooperate with the surveyors in obtaining local data.
The survey committee is presently organized with Dr. Boicourt as director, assisted by a faculty advisory committee from Wayne State University. A consultation committee consists of Walter Simmingar of the University of Michigan; Max Smith of Michigan State University; and Ferris Crawford of Michigan State Department of Public Instruction. A professional staff will include a director, technical assistants, clerical personnel and special consultants. A citizens advisory committee will be appointed from interested areas.
At the meeting, all districts reported favorable reactions from the public in preliminary approaches. The average family is thinking ahead to the time when their children may want to attend college, but will lack financial means or find that overcrowded institutions cannot handle them.
It was also indicated that the taxpayers would be willing to bear higher taxes to help support the college. This information was obtained by a questionnaire circulated to Redford Township PTA groups, Mother's Clubs and civic organizations - before the economic pinch.
Clarenceville and Northville have expressed interest in the community college and Wayne has indicated that they will throw in with Dearborn's program.
Present at the Plymouth meeting were Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister and school board member Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing of Plymouth; Superintendent Tom Kirby and Lois Porter Benton; Yates and board member Claude Snary of Livonia; Superintendent Russell Hilbert and board member Gordon Brocklehurst of Redford Union school district; and board members, Superintendent of South Redford school district.

Other interested parties were Robert Webber and Mrs. Warren Worth, president and secretary of the Plymouth Community School Planning Group; and Carroll Munshaw of the Wayne County Board of Education. Local interest was evidenced by the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Litter of Plymouth. The local study group along with other groups in Southeastern Michigan, realized that the establishment of a community college posed problems which went far beyond one school district or even one county. Because of the inter-relationships between the many school districts in the Southeastern Metropolitan Area, the desirability of cooperative planning for long-range development was evident.

If and when a community college district is established in this area, it will be necessary to obtain enabling legislation for statutory change. The Northwestern study group will meet in Livonia when Dr. Boicourt has more definite information on a grant and progress of the survey.

AN AMERICAN flag was presented to Webelo Den, Pack 293, Bird School, by the V.F.W. Auxiliary preceding the Memorial Day parade. Mrs. Eileen Williams, Americanism Chairman, is shown making the presentation to Cubs and their assistant Cubmaster, Robert Van Meter. Behind the Cubs are Auxiliary members and Mrs. Bernice Kopenski, patriotic instructor, and Mrs. LeMay Smith, president.

While a student at Hiram, he was active in dramatics, and was a member of the Patterns staff and Alpha Society. He is a 1946 graduate of Fordson High school.

Membership in the Alpha Society is the highest scholastic honor which can come to a student at Hiram, and depends entirely upon the quality of academic work. To become eligible for membership a senior must have attained a cumulative average of at least 3.50 (A) by April of the senior year.

Rowe was also named for the department honors in English, speech and drama.

BY LIZ SARAH

School closes on June 19, although the seniors were finished at 11:30 on Friday, June 6. (Didn't you wonder what hit the town?) Some of the seniors exercised their new freedom by deliberately taking a long time to eat lunch and then shopping beyond their "usual time for return." It was a lot of fun for some of these crazy-mixed up seniors to watch those "poor underclassmen" scurry back to afternoon classes.

Incidentally, just before the seniors were released Alumni Cards were distributed, compliments of Mer Palmer and Janet Spigarelli. This is the first experiment with such a project, and we certainly hope it is successful.

At the Senior Farewell Assembly on June 3, 21 students received honor keys.

Canton Center Boy Scouts Win Blue Ribbon for Pioneer Display

Boy Scout Troop 298 from Canton Center took first place in the Seventh District at the State Fairgrounds during the Scouting Exposition held June 6-8.

The troop was presented a Blue Ribbon award for a log cabin exhibit. They were also designated "star unit" of 1958 and received a Gold Star Award for being one of the first to register for the exposition.

Troop members constructed benches out of slab wood and logs. They drilled the holes and put the benches together with wooden pegs which they also made at the campsite. They also started erection of another cabin which was shown to many of the 161,000 visitors at the exposition.

Troop 298 is sponsored by the Canton Community Club. It consists of about 14 families. The boys earn money from social events such as pancake suppers and ice-cream socials.

Troop meetings are held at the Canton Township Fire hall, corner of Geddes and Sheldon Roads. The group includes boys from Gallimore school, Truesdell, Cherryhill, Plymouth Junior High, Belleville, and St. Mary's of Wayne. Troop 298 is one of 10 troops in District No. 7 of the Detroit Council.

Troop leaders include Ralph L. Lefler, scoutmaster; John Thorpe and Harold Voss, assistant scoutmasters; committeemen Robert Williams, Grant Ridley, Art Edwards, Cassel Harper and Bill Rank. The Scouting Exposition is a Detroit Area event with troops participating from Detroit and Wayne County.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Turkey Trot—Without Music

Swiftly Fisher has a new way to move his turkeys to a fresh feeding place, twice a week.

He constructed a "rolling" fence by welding wheels to his fence posts. Each wheel has a sturdy braking device to keep the fence from moving, once a suitable range is found.

Swiftly explains, "this solves the problem of taking down woven wire, pulling up posts and re-setting them again." Now, he just hooks his tractors to both ends of the fence, and rolls it away.

From where I sit, progress never happens when you "close your eyes" to new methods or ideas. That's true in a community, too. All of us should be open-minded about our neighbors' opinions even if they differ from our own. For instance, I like a cold glass of beer on a summer evening, my neighbor always chooses iced-tea. But we respect each other's preferences and don't "fence in" each other's ideas.

Not Enough Land

MICHIGAN is running out of land. No one expects a panic in the lifetime of people now on the premises, but early signs of a space shortage have brought new wrinkles to the brows of farm experts and highway builders.

Experts report the problem is fanning out from southeastern Michigan which has developed from one large city, Detroit, into a massed metropolitan area.

Michigan State University and state government both are tackling the problem.

Agriculturalists win every time a new industry or residential subdivision takes over chunks of rich farm land.

State officials are worried that industry, which now provides more leisure for the working man, will create problems by using land that should be devoted to state parks.

With the development of the St. Lawrence Seaway, fears are expressed that the resultant development of commerce and industry will crowd out major recreational and farm areas. "Then, we might as well pave the entire state," said one state official.

The major problem in the next five years will be the land required for a 900-mile network of superhighways.

The right-of-way for the new routes is 300 feet wide, the length of a football field. Highway officials predict a barrel of problems in getting the land.

Highway officials negotiated for years over the route of the Edsel Ford Expressway in Detroit and its extension into Macomb County enroute to Port Huron.

"We cannot allow the voice of small neighborhoods to overpower the voiceless thousands of motorists waiting impatiently for new and more efficient roads," said Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie.

Property owners whose businesses and private property interests will be disrupted have their side of the story, too.

In addition to using part of their property — for which they will be reimbursed fairly — relocated trunklines will bypass the businesses which depended upon traffic.

All of this property used for public purposes, highways and state parks, will be taken off local tax assessment rolls, threatening financial crises for local governments.

These are the problems faced by future generations in Michigan.

EXTENSION OF PROBATION theory to another troublesome area of delinquency is under study in Michigan.

The system of allowing a convicted defendant his freedom under strict rules and surveillance of probation officers is now restricted to circuit courts.

The fact that it has worked is over-emphasized by its records.

Now, the experts are proposing probationary powers and officers for probate courts — where delinquents under 17 are handled.

At present, probate courts can send youngsters to Boys Vocational School or Girls Training school or select a local foster home.

In extreme cases, the court waives its jurisdiction and allows those who have committed crimes to be tried and convicted in circuit court, to be imprisoned with adults.

'Life' Begins at Forty

By ROBERT PETERSON

BRADENTON, Fla. — M. W. Hout, 72, recommends the mild climate of Florida for folks who have suffered heart attacks. Hout, a slender man with an alert face and agile mind, lives with his wife in the huge Kiwanis-owned trailer park here. Their home for nearly two decades has been a neat gray and white trailer with a roomy cabana attached.

"I've been enjoying heart trouble for 20 years," quipped Hout when I stopped to talk with him. "I used to be a newspaper editor in Champaign, Ill. But when I was 50 I began noticing pains in my chest and arms. I thought it was just the flu or bronchitis, but one day the pain bore down with such intensity that a friend took me to the hospital and I learned it was a heart attack. I recovered after a few months and went back to work. But the next year I had another attack. The doctor told me I'd have to quit my job, free myself from worries and pressures, and move to a milder climate.

"He said that if I did I might live 5, 10, possibly 15 years. I was determined to stay alive and enjoy those remaining years, so I quit my job and in 1940 we came down here. We bought a trailer for $1,800 and just by luck found this park. We liked the place so well that we parked the trailer permanently and haven't moved it since.

"Because I had to retire early, we hadn't been able to accumulate very much money. But down here it costs only $14 a month rent. Even when you add the utilities and local taxes our housing costs total just $22 a month. My wife enjoys cooking and we eat most of our meals right here.

"A lot of men hate to give up their work and retire, but I haven't minded. My days are filled with interesting things. I read a lot and carry on quite a correspondence. I have a 14 foot motor boat docked just below the park. I go fishing once or twice a week and I play cards nearly every day with friends in the park clubhouse. And my wife and I take a lot of trips by car.

"I eat what I like and get some exercise every day. But I'm very careful not to overdo. Anytime I feel myself getting tired I stop and rest. Maybe that's why I'm still around today. I see my doctor for a check up once a year. I don't take any medications or drugs although I carry a bottle of nitroglycerine tablets with me all the time just in case I should get another attack. But it's been 21 years since my last one and I'm not worried.

"I figure I've done splendidly and I give all the credit to my doctor's advice and to the relaxed and inexpensive life we've found in this trailer park."

Seventy different species of maple trees have been listed, including 10 in Canada.

Views and If Your Name Is 'REGINALD' Reviews

By Ann Reynolds, Ph.D. strongholds of Medina and Mecca.

This name is often shortened to "Reg" or "Reggy"; the way today points toward shorter names. And so "Reg" sounds as if it had been coined today. Actually it is almost one hundred years old. It turned up in a novel by the title "Love me little, love me long," published in 1859. The author was the English novelist Charles Reade.

"Reginald" is a composite of two words. Old English spelled it "Regenwald"; the two words it consists of are identical in meaning, both signifying "power" or "might." This way "Reginald" seems well suited for the stronger sex; incidentally, no woman's name was ever fashioned from it.

Related to "Reginald" is "Ronald," formerly used in Scotland only, but now widespread everywhere; its meaning is the same as Reginald's and the only difference between the two names is that Ronald came into English by way of the Norse language. Another development of the same words is "Reynold" which survives in the last name "Reynolds."

Of all these, "Reginald" is the most popular now, and has been for centuries. One Reginald in the 10th century was King of the Danes; his mother was an English woman, and this may account for his English first name. Another Reginald of bygone days was Reginald of Chatillon. He was a curious mixture of a noble knight, and daring adventurer. Having joined the Second Crusade, he ruled for a few years over a territory east of the Dead Sea. But he became too ambitious. He built a fleet, and set out to attack the Moslem

By Ann Reynolds, Ph.D. strongholds of Medina and Mecca.

Sultan Saladin, the great Moslem warrior, admired even by his enemies for his courage and fairness, drove Reginald from his lands. And then Reginald forgot of being a noble knight. He became a highway robber, preying on the trade route between Damascus and Egypt. Not only did he cause his own downfall by this, he also endangered the four years truce that had been reached between the Crusaders and the Moslems. In 1186 he was fool-hardy enough to attack a caravan with which the sister of Saladin was traveling. Now Saladin made the solemn vow that he'd kill Reginald if he ever would lay hands on him.

One year later near Tiberias Saladin won an important victory; among the Christians taken prisoner was Reginald. Saladin, in spite of his vow, was ready to spare his life on condition he became a Moslem. This Reginald refused. And so he was put to death, and having been killed by the Infidels, he came to be regarded as a martyr. His steadfastness brought honor to the name "Reginald."

How can choosing this man mean greater security for you and your family?

This man is an independent, self-employed insurance specialist. He is free to select for you the best insurance policy for your car, home, or business out of hundreds offered by different, competing insurance companies. He gives you continuing service—advises you after you buy insurance as well as before. And you don't have to worry about red tape when you have a claim—he takes care of everything.

You can't get all of these advantages when you buy insurance directly from a casualty or fire insurance company. You must buy the policies that company offers, which may or may not be the right coverage for you. And when you have a loss, you may have to deal with the company—with people you probably have never met.

How can you be sure you are dealing with an independent insurance agent? Look for this seal before you buy insurance. Only an independent agent can display it.

MICHIGAN BELL

telephone lines

A YOUNGSTER WALKED into a drugstore and asked for a job. "What's your name?" asked the druggist. "Alexander Graham Bell," replied the boy. "I guess that's a pretty well-known name, son." "It ought to be," said the boy. "I've been delivering groceries in this neighborhood for two years now."

EVEN ALEXANDER GRAHAM BELL himself (the inventor, not the delivery boy) couldn't have guessed how important his invention would become to us. The phone plays a part in just about everything you do. Take your vacation, for example. When it comes you'll want to be able to relax and enjoy yourself. So take care of all the worries beforehand, phone ahead to make all your reservations or let friends know when you'll arrive. It'll be such a weight off your mind and for such a small cost!

A GROCER FRIEND tells us the story of a lady who called him about an order. "Please bring some of your snap beans to the phone," said the lady. The grocer, who takes everything in his stride, complied. "Now break one," she commanded. He did, and a sharp "pop" went over the wires. "Fine," said the lady, "send me three pounds."

THE REASON WE mention this incident is to show that there isn't any end to the telephone's usefulness. Every day someone hits on a new way of saving time and money with the phone.

New Columnist For Parkview Circle

Hello, I'm Grace Wigley, your new columnist for the Parkview Circle and nearby area. Trying to fill the shoes of Betty Fitzner, who has done such a great job, is quite a challenge so if there's any news about give me a buzz at GL 3-2734 will you? I'll need all the help I can get to help our column readers through the transition. Betty deserves a word of praise for her helpfulness to me. Thanks for the pointers, Betty. We'll miss you.

Family reunions are happy occasions and very popular about this time of year. Father's Day celebration brought family members to the home of the Jim Parks family on Parkview Dr., Mr. and Mrs. Parks, Sr., from Ferndale, and Mr. and Mrs. Seabinder, parents of Betty Parks, were guests. Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Burkowitz of Nankin Township were also there in the afternoon. Little Tommy Parks, who's feeling quite big lately because he just had his second birthday, has been spending the week with his grandma and Grandpa Seabinder.

The Ted Kuhns family of Parkview Dr. that sounds pretty formal because it's really just us) had dinner guests Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wylie Bridges of Detroit, better known around our household as Grandma and Grandpa) were our company. The men, taking advantage of Father's Day privileges, sat down after dinner to watch the baseball game on television and discuss the chances of the Tigers under their new manager.

Speaking of baseball, several of the men from the neighborhood have been playing blooper ball with the class Wed. 2:30 p.m. Anyone interested in playing blooper ball may find out about it by contacting Al Truax at GL 3-0813. Bob Fitzner, Marty Kennedy, Jr., and Ted Kuhns have been tossing the ball around for the fireman's team.

Baseball on a somewhat smaller scale, but with no less enthusiasm, is enjoyed by a group of boys from Starkweather School, John Wilamowski and Jim Lake helped their team to victory at the last game.

The Gardells of Mill St. are enjoying the company of Mrs. Lola Falan from California. Mrs. Falan was recently reunited with a sister whom she had not seen for 40 years. She is now trying to locate a brother whom she has never seen, and who may be known as either Leonard Sharp or George O'Leary. Any clues? Picnics are enjoyed by all, including ants. Julie Trombley, an aunt of the friendly kind, accompanied the Joseph Wilson family of Holbrook Ave., and Mrs. Nelson, Mrs. Wilson's mother, on a picnic supper in the park.

Word comes by way of the grapevine that Marianne and Brad Carpenter of Parkview Dr. really had a ball while in Tennessee and Mississippi last week. Vacation days are fun days! Walt Lake of Garling Dr. was elected president of the adult Bible school class at Northeastern Baptist Church. The Lakes attended the class picnic held in Riverside Park on Saturday afternoon.

Lorraine and Joe Quinlan visited Mr. and Mrs. Mike Reagan of Livonia for an evening of bridge. Mike Walker of Jonesville, Wis. is here for a month's visit with his grandparents, the Atkinsons of Parkview Cr. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Herman of Toledo were Saturday dinner guests of Betty and Bob Fitzner. We were sorry to hear that Betty's mother, Mrs. Holland of Wellington, Ohio, suffered a broken arm in a fall down the basement stairs of her home. Betty went by bus to Wellington and brought Mrs. Holland back to visit while her arm mends. It's good to know that Mrs. Anderson, also of Parkview Drive, is now home from the hospital and is recovering from her recent heart attack. The firemen of our area hope everyone will support the carnival to be sponsored by the Plymouth Firemen's Association at the Daisy Athletic Field from June 23-28. Take lots of money and buy lots of tickets. It's a fun thing, and besides that, an Evans bicycle will be given away to the lucky stub holder. Proceeds will go to the firemen's fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kauffman had guests from Chicago last Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Zev Rosenfeld who will be moving into the Detroit area soon. Mrs. Rosenfeld will work at Hawthorn Center. The Lickfeldts of Holbrook Ave. attended their class reunion Saturday at the V. F. W. Hall. A chicken dinner was served to the class of '33. F.W. to 150 persons who enjoyed dancing and a program after dinner.

Happy birthday to Greg Kauffman who will be a year old next week. Last week the Kenneth Wheeler household on Holbrook was buzzing with excitement. Mrs. Wheeler's sister, Edna Carlson, was staying with her when Mr. and Mrs. Carlson, her parents, came to Plymouth and brought another sister, Evelyn. Then everyone went to Willow Run Airport to see Evelyn off to Sweden where she will serve as delegate of the I. S. Y. E.

The Howard Dawson of Parkview Dr. were justly proud of their two small daughters who danced in a ballet recital under Alita Nichols at the high school Thursday evening. Sandra Lee, who is five, danced to "The Waltz of the Flowers" from the "Nutcracker Suite", while her four-year-old sister, Cheryl Lee danced to the music of "Comme My Dolly, Dance With Me". This is Sandra Lee's second recital and at the tender age of five! Mr. Dawson is a veterinarian associated with Dr. Lickfeldt, and achieved the distinction of being asked to speak at the Veterinary Convention which he and Mrs. Dawson journeyed to Mackinac Island to attend in the first week of June.

That's it for this week but we'll be looking forward to hearing the latest news from you, particularly those who live in the area surrounding Parkview Circle to the railroad tracks. So please don't forget to call.

Retirement Means Travel, Civic Duties To Retiring Teachers

Miss Neva Lovewell

Neva Lovewell has taught her last class at Plymouth High School this week. But, this doesn't mean retirement by any means. Miss Lovewell will continue to sell real estate for the Vaughn Smith Co. and fulfill her duties as a member of the Eastern Seal Society board of directors. A trip around the world is another plan for "some day."

Miss Lovewell has followed two careers — as an educator and social worker. After receiving a degree in social service from the University of Michigan she joined the staff of a Presbyterian children's settlement in Chicago. After three years, she returned to Michigan to teach sociology at Michigan State College. In addition to her teaching duties here, she served as director of religious education.

1932 began a new chapter in Miss Lovewell's career. She completed her thesis on the Detroit House of Correction and received a Master's degree at the U. of M. During the research for the paper she organized and taught night school in the Women's Division of the institution.

The fall of 1932 marked the beginning of her stay in Plymouth. She came to teach at Plymouth High school, for only one year. One year stretched into 26, filled with friends and students she has befriended, and helped when necessary. Students agree that "everyone knows and reveres her as one of the most understanding and best liked teachers in school."

Aside from teaching Miss Lovewell has donated her time generously to social and civic activities. She has served on committees for the Girl Scouts, Cancer Society, Plymouth Symphony Board, and worked day and night during the war as chairman of rent control for the Plymouth area.

For five years, she served as local chairman of the March of Dimes Drive and a volunteer helper at the day camp for children afflicted with polio.

Herself a victim of polio in her youth, Miss Lovewell is now a member of the out-county board of directors of the Easter Seal Society. She has held this position for the past three years, the only woman among 18 men.

She is also an active member of the Soroptimist Club, which provides hospital equipment for polio patients as a special service.

Several programs and parties have been given in recognition of Miss Lovewell's 26 years of service. The faculty surprised her with a farewell dinner and a "This is Your Life" program. Miss Lovewell received a wrist watch and a silver plaque which entitles her to attend any school function free of charge for the rest of her life.

Last week 45 members of her senior sociology class honored her at a breakfast at the Mayflower Hotel and presented her with a pen.

For years Miss Lovewell's number one hobby has been fishing — most of it for trout, pike and northern at her cottage on St. Mary's River in Canada. Although she recently sold the cottage, some fishing may still be on the agenda.

Miss Lovewell was born in South Lyon, but Plymouth is her home now. She lives with her mother, at 365 Pacific.

Miss Helen Farrand

"I've always said I was going to teach," said Helen Farrand, but it was a "long hard climb." Miss Farrand will retire this week after completing 30 years in the Plymouth school system to plan a life of travel. Immediate plans include a look at the Mackinac bridge and a trip to the Smokies.

Her ambition to teach began when she was 12 years old. She would gather the neighborhood children and review the Sunday School lesson for the following week.

Miss Farrand has lived in Plymouth all of her life and presently lives with her sister at 252 East Ann Arbor Trail. She was born on South Main St. in the section now known as Maplecroft. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Farrand, insisted on remaining in Plymouth so that their three daughters could attend school locally. At that time kindergarten classes were held in the Presbyterian church.

Higher education was the problem, but as Miss Farrand points out, "where there's a will, there's a way." She graduated from Eastern Michigan College and later obtained credits from the University of Michigan and Detroit Teachers College.

Her first job in teaching was in Dearborn Township, where she stayed two years. Four years each were spent in Newburg and Patchen school.

In Plymouth she has taught at Central (now the high school annex), Starkweather and Allen schools. She now teaches fifth grade at Allen school. Teaching didn't end there though, she also fulfilled her earlier ambition to teach Sunday School. She taught classes and sang in the choir for many years at the Methodist Church.

Travel could be called her favorite pastime. The National Education Association convention took her to Portland, Ore. two years ago with Katherine Boch, also a Plymouth teacher. This year they plan a jaunt to Cleveland for the convention, June 29 to July 4.

Never have an empty back seat is Miss Farrand's travel motto. On all of her travels who has taken her nephew's children or neighbor children, for "seeing is learning." They have taken in most of the national parks in the west during her vacations.

Although she is leaving teaching the name of Helen Farrand will be long remembered by her many friends and former pupils. In tribute to her service, the new Helen Farrand elementary school will open in September.

Tips for Teens

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

More about summer jobs that put extra "green stuff" in your pocket for vacation fun, next year's school-and-date clothes or for your college fund.

If you don't find a job in an office, store, business or industry, summer camp or recreation center, make up a job — and be dependable with it.

Invest a service that you can sell for convenience at moderate cost. Like this: Outdoor baby sitting—Take tots to your own yard, to a nearby park, playground or recreational center — or in their own backyard — for a morning or an afternoon. Mothers like this daytime, out-of-the-house service while they do errands, clean the house, go to the beauty shop or bridge club, etc. Keep the tots busy with easy games and simple do-it-yourself toys or projects. About a dollar per child, per morning or afternoon, will give you a long waiting list.

Ranch for cowboys — If you're a boy, use your backyard as a "corral" to teach small cowhands how to tie knots (from a Boy Scout Handbook), how to tie and throw a lasso, how to hold a tennis racket or a baseball (a soft one), etc. This is for boys who are too old for a baby-sitter, yet their parents want them to have someone dependable keep an eye on their play, providing safe, interesting, worthwhile ideas in sports, games, crafts, etc.

Bait stand — If you live near a lake, river or shore where there is fishing, sell fresh live bait at a home-made bait stand.

The Reader Speaks Up

To the editor:

At the time when Yours Truly was first employed at the Daisy — that is, in early 1906 and when Fred Bennett, next younger brother of the late C. H. Bennett, was its factory manager — a still younger Bennett brother was B. B. Bennett. Bert Bennett, as he was usually called, was then foreman of the wood shop. The wood shop was the 3-story department which made the gun stocks — made them from the rough and unplanned walnut and gumwood lumber to the finished and polished product.

Bert Bennett was a serious minded, straight going type of individual, but by no means was he the counterpart of any of his brothers. A fourth brother had been Claude, but Claude, I believe, never became connected with the Daisy organization. Some time prior to my own time at the Daisy, brother Claude, as I understand, left Plymouth, went west, there engaged himself in another business, and never again became a Plymouth resident.

Although Bert Bennett was in a sense respected by all Daisy employees he never seemed to enjoy quite the same amount of it as the workers had for Fred. Bert was openly ambitious but seemed never able to measure up to the ideas or the innovations he had in mind. In the shop he frequently came into open conflict with brother Fred. Naturally, it was always Fred who had the last word. Bert would sometimes trump up stunts on his own and then when these proved worthless or fizzle out he would be reprimanded by Fred.

Earlier in life Bert used to go around town installing electric door bells in peoples houses. To install an electric door bell in those days was a somewhat complicated job. Dry batteries had not yet come into general vogue and electric door bells then functioned only through the setting up of wet batteries, or what I believe was then known as Voltaic cells. Bert set up one of his wet battery bells in my grandfather's home and well do I remember it. And incidentally, some of his wire is still right where he placed it. All this, of course, occurred during the days of the kerosene lamp. Domestic electric lighting did not come to Plymouth until about 1903.

Although the late Charles H. Bennett had long been regarded as Plymouth's wealthiest man, Yours Truly remembers when brother Bert didn't have funds to pay his fare from Detroit to Plymouth. On this occasion he managed to get to Detroit's Union Depot all right and on arriving there found grandmother Starkweather already on hand and awaiting the same train that he intended to take. Grandmother then loaned Bert the necessary fare to pay his way to Plymouth.

Well, Bert, having already known me, would often notice Yours Truly as he passed through the press room on the way to his own department. Then, in passing through one day, he stopped at my machine to inquire whether I wouldn't like to work for him in the wood shop. I answered in the affirmative — provided, I said, that the proposed transfer would rate me a raise in pay. Bert replied that he thought he could get me a raise — and the transfer was effected. Soon my raise came through — a fifty cent one — and so now my pay was $7.00 per 60-hour week (one hour off on Saturday night with pay) as against my former $6.50 per week.

In the wood shop I was put to work filling gun stocks. This meant swabbing the now fully formed stocks with a kind of heavy liquid solution. After the solution had "set" for a few minutes, it was then rubbed off, crosswise to the grain, the open pores in the grain thus becoming filled. After the filling operation the gun stocks then went on to the varnishers and the polishers. I was again happy in my job and in fact was soon made a sort of straw boss over four other eager beavers. Indeed, I was beginning to feel that the world had been set up almost especially for me.

While Yours Truly has never been particularly enthusiastic concerning the rifle as a commodity, he does admit that its departure from Plymouth has had — in fact may still be having — a demoralizing effect upon the community at large. Perhaps this is because the people had always taken the Daisy for granted. The Daisy's exodus from Plymouth is something the people had always believed could never occur. It was part of the town's own soul and body. So when it did occur Plymouth received a terrific sock in the solar plexus.

On the other hand, of course, America is still a free country. Any of us at any time can pull up stakes and go where we will. And let it be remembered that Plymouth was here long before the air gun. By the same token Plymouth will be here for an even longer time afterwards. Plymouth's greater destiny is still to come.

Community Is Better Place Because Of Summer Concerts, Mayor Declares

Plymouth's Summer Concert Series is of vital interest to the government of Plymouth because of its contribution to the economic health, Mayor Harold Guenther told an audience of businessmen and other community leaders at a unique meeting last week at the Junior High.

Mayor Guenther had invited several hundred people to the meeting to explain the Plymouth Symphony's Summer Series and its importance to the community. The mayor has been taking a personal interest in the outdoor concert.

The first concert is Sunday, June 29 at the Plymouth Colony Farms. Tickets are now being sold.

Also speaking was Conductor Wayne Dunlap who pointed out that last year there were 57 such music festivals in the country and that Plymouth is on the "ground floor" of the movement. This second season, Dunlap added, is critical because last year the outdoor concerts were a novelty. "This year must see the beginning of a solid interest and support if it is to safely embark on this great undertaking."

Mayor Guenther pointed out that in one's travels, the sameness of most communities is found—that there is a lack of identity. "It is my conviction that when one community is set apart ahead of another . . . the thing that makes it attractively different will fall into the general category of culture and beauty."

When there is beauty and culture, the mayor added, "you find strong churches, a school system of which people are proud, an excellent library that is used . . . business stores and services that deal honestly because they are owned by reliable and trustworthy people, a higher economic status of residents and a healthy business community."

He continued by saying that in a community such as this it does not cost as much to police because juvenile and adult problems are not large. "So you can see this matter of Summer Concerts, which is a segment of this whole thought of culture and beauty, with its appeal to better people to reside in our community, to contribute to our community and its economic health, is of vital interest to government. It is also an obligation of government to do its part in fostering all of the individual cultural efforts and inspirations of the community for these are all portions of the whole picture which invariably produce real and fundamental results." This year's summer concerts will start at 8 p.m. instead of 5 for convenience and comfort for both the audience and orchestra. Conductor Dunlap read a New York Times article to the audience Monday dealing with summer festivals. It told that most festivals are "high-brow" rather than "popular."

Dunlap said, "We will have highbrow music that is also popular." Tickets for the series can be purchased by calling the Chamber of Commerce, Smith Music Store, Melody House or Penn Theatre. There are four concerts in the series, held on alternating Sundays. The third concert is free to all who have purchased even one ticket for a single concert.

Dalmatian Wins Honors

Mrs. Mary Belleville's year-old dalmation, Greenland General Duke, was first winner, best of winners and best of breed in the Kalamazoo Dog Show last week. Bringing his points up to four, he is well on his way to the necessary 15 points for champion. The dog was acquired in April, after the death of champion Michael's Crown Prince. Mrs. Belleville lives at 1530 Canton Center Rd.

A colony of living earthworms that may have one of the longest family histories in all of England, has been found at St. Albans, about 20 miles from London. The colony was found while excavating a Roman occupation site.

Friends Help Dedicate Home

Spring flowers sent by friends graced the Gerald Elston home when it was dedicated last Thursday at 42044 Clemons Dr., Lake Pointe Village. There were 40 friends, relatives present for the occasion. Rev. E. B. Jones of Plymouth and Rev. James Elston of Bay City officiated at the dedication. Soloists were Mrs. Walter Major and Irvin Martin. They sang the "Lord's Prayer" and "Bless this House." Mrs. William Beiter was organist with music played by tape recorder.

Mrs. Sheryl Elston gave the call to worship and Mrs. Fred Elston pronounced the benediction. Refreshments were served following the service. Miss Rebecca Davidson and Mrs. Fred Beiter assisted the hostess in serving. Recent out-of-town guests at the Elston home were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Elston and son Kezin of Marshall, Lenoi Mayo of Bloomington, Ind., Dr. and Mrs. Dale Oldham of Anderson, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. G. O. Davidson of Charleston, West Virginia, Mrs. David Butler of Albion, Fred Miller of Albion and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Smock of Lawton, Oklahoma.

An Interview with a Remarkable Lake Pointe Village Grandmother

By Mrs. Arthur Cooksey
GL 3-2871

Whenever the weather threatens rain or a severe storm, Colleen and Ray Moss Colleen took care of the front of their house by laying sod and planting a variety of shrubs and bushes. That left the back of their pie-shaped lot to be cared for. I wouldn't be surprised if they drew in their breaths before tackling the job either. The area is awesome enough, without the drop-off.) They spread the top-soil and carefully banked the drop-off over at the rear of the entire area. Then they seeded fast-growing grass in order to get something to help hold the dirt until they could plant good seed. Their bank has withstood the recent storms and they are hopeful that it will weather the rest of them. It must be a comfort to them to know their neighbors hope for the best.

Across the street on Clemons, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Geist, lives Mrs. Perry. Mrs. Geist's mother, Of course, along with Harry and June, Mrs. Perry is remarkable for many reasons: she is the mother of six children, the grandmother of 14, and the great-grandmother of 22 children. Even that wouldn't make her completely extraordinary, altho it helps. Her real charm comes in the sparkling clarity and humor with which she views life.

Mr. Perry died six years ago and since then Mrs. P. has lived with her daughter. When Harry and June were considering buying a larger and more comfortable home than they owned in Detroit Mrs. Perry's views were earnestly listened to. Would she be happy in a new house out in the country, away from her friends and her church? Would she be happy without her familiar stores and shopping areas? Mrs. Perry's answer to all this "I've been busy and happy ever since we moved to Plymouth. I haven't had a lonesome day yet."

Mrs. Perry fills her days many ways. With cooking and house-keeping. And what a handsomely furnished home it is. Filled with lovely Early American furniture. With church work and reading. And when the weather and Mrs. Perry's vigor permit, a little gardening. She has views on many things, one of her most endearing qualities. On being a neighbor, she believes in being a good neighbor, but not a back porch neighbor. On dogs "Why can't other dog owners (she has one) keep their pets restrained and respect other people's yards?" On Plymouth "I love the leisurely way store owners in Plymouth take time with each customer, not the big rush in Detroit." On church work "I've found a lot of new friends out here and I especially appreciate Mrs. McLauhin taking me to meetings." On rubbish collection "It's wonderful to have the rubbish removed so early in the morning, but why can't people take in their cans the same day instead of waiting three or four?" On modern Parenthood: "... Maybe we older parents were just more careful." She also wanted me to mention the recent visit to Plymouth of one of her daughter's mothers-in-law, Mrs. Earnest Woolf, of Arkansas. She thought the senior Mrs. Woolf would enjoy seeing her name in the Plymouth paper. So went the interview. Probably one of the most interesting and rewarding visits I have ever had. With a warm, active and sparkling 70-year old.

Most people take great pride in their yards, and take like joy in their furnishings. The Hudsons have authentic Early American reproductions in their home, competing that looks for all the world like hooked rug. It isn't tho. t's woven carpeting but it looks like the real thing. Marcy Barton takes real pride in her Utrillo prints that blend so beautifully with French Provincial furniture. In fact, Marcy recently rematted and reframed the pictures herself and did a very professional job of it, too. Dale and Wally Evans are almost dancing with joy about their new pink refrigerator, a necessity when their old box quilt running entirely. Virginia Burghard's thrill with her new sewing machine that blends with the Early American furnishings in her family room. Virginia admits that they may have to move out of the house to make room for her hobbies ceramics, knitting and sewing. The lavish and beautiful sofa, curved sections, that Gordon and Jo Ellison enjoy. Let us know about the new things YOU have. Anything besides weeds.

Seen and Heard about Lake Pointe: M. Arian Cosgrove cruising about in HER car... The bright tawny red begonias blooming in the yard of Wayne and Ruth Miller. And Darroll Miller's devotion to practicing baseball in the vacant area on Brentwood... Grass showing in the yards of the O'Brians, it looks like velvet, the Fields and the Bullingtons... The garage, grass and landscaping of the Zurawski home... Lynn Richard's shrieks of joy riding her brand new shiny, grown-up bicycle... A grown man riding a bike much too small for him and wondering if he'd be "put in the paper"... The welcome sound of gentle rain... Beautiful back yard landscaping at the Bowman home; they ought to charge admission of sight-seers... Mrs. Keyes laboring so joyfully in her yard... ## YOUR HANDWRITING TELLS YOUR STORY

With Grapho Analysis
BY JEAN EVANS

Dear Jean: I read your column every week and I like it very well. I would like to know if my handwriting shows anything about what I might be good at after I get out of school and also what kind of a personality I have. Thank you.
B.A.J.

Dear Mrs. W.B.C.: Sensitivity is your strong point. You take offense at remarks that weren't even directed at you and you harbor resentment. You are borrowing trouble by doing this and cause yourself many unhappy moments.

You have too many irons in the fire at the present and if this is not corrected can develop into confusion. You have a vivid imagination and like to be doing lots of things at once. This is impossible, consequently, you are always pressed for time, never able to complete everything you begin and become irritated and impatient with yourself and others.

Dear Jean: Is it possible that a person, after gaining some knowledge of Grapho Analysis, would subconsciously change some of his handwriting with out a corresponding change in his personality?

WONDERING
Dear WONDERING: No. The change comes in the sub-conscious first then it becomes evident in the handwriting. One can consciously "write" in or out wanted or unwanted traits and be successful but it would be with his complete knowledge and effort on his part. This takes time and perseverance on his part to accomplish it. One can overcome any unwanted trait if he wants to seriously enough and is willing to work at it.

Group life insurance plans date back to about 1911.

Dear Jean: Your column interests me very much. I would like to know what my handwriting tells me.
V. M. Fisher

Dear V. M. Fisher: You are one who skims over the surface of things you are not interested in. You will rush over these uninteresting things so you will be able to spend more time on which you are presently attending.

You do a lot of day dreaming and looking to the distant future. Some of the time you run ahead of yourself so much that you hardly are able to accomplish the immediate projects. You are interested in many things and are constantly changing from one thing to another.

Dear Jean: Please analyze my handwriting.
