Local Golfer Sizzles In State Tournament

TY CAPLIN

By DAVE JOLIFFE

Ty Caplin, 46000 Joy Road, returned from Charlevoix, Michigan last Monday sadder but wiser: Sadder because he was nosed out 2-1 in the semi-final round of the Michigan Amateur Golf Championship held at the Belvedere Golf Club last weekend.

Wiser because he learned that you can be three under par and still lose when two precisely-hit putts fail to drop.

But there's one consolation; 21-year-old Caplin, a sophomore at Michigan State University, has many more years of winning golf ahead. And a lot behind him, too — especially after last weekend.

Ty beat four other players before losing the semi-final round to take third place in the Michigan Amateur. He was matched against Tom Draper, 43-year-old manufacturer's representative from Royal Oak. Draper is a former Gull Lake Champion and in 1949 won the Michigan Amateur Championship. In 1956 he also won the Detroit District golf title and earlier this year posted the lowest amateur score in the Buick Open.

Against this formidable opponent, Ty, 1956 Plymouth medal champion, played his best golf of the year — certainly good enough to win 99 out of 100 "average" matches. Ty chalked up six birdies. Draper had five, plus one eagle.

Over the last crucial eight holes, Ty never was over par. Draper went over once.

After the first nine holes of match play last Sunday Ty and Draper were all even with a pair of 3s — one under par. On the 10th hole Draper went one up with a birdie 4. Ty evened it on the next hole with a par 4 while Draper had to settle for a bogey 5. Draper went one up for the second time on the 12th hole with a birdie. On the same hole Ty's 25 foot putt for a birdie rimmed the cup, but didn't drop.

Both players parred the 13th hole as Ty had more bad luck — this time his 40 foot birdie putt stopped on the edge of the cup.

They were even on the 14th with par 3s. On the next hole — a par 5 — Draper played his finest golf. His second shot, a long fairway iron, stopped 9 inches from the cup. When he sank the putt for an eagle 3, Ty was two down.

Draper drove out of bounds in the 16th and ended up with a double-bogey 6 while Ty birdied the hole. At this point Draper was one up with two holes left.

The par 3, 212 yard 17th, turned out to be the last of his first. He used a No. 2.

Shaggiest Dog in Town

'EVERY DOG HAS ITS DAY' Queenie's day was Tuesday when she was named the 'shaggiest dog in Plymouth' in tough competition with other local playground winners. She is pictured with her owner Bob Monteith of 442 Adams.

The contest, co-sponsored by the Recreation Department and Ken-L-Ration, was a howling success. First, second and third place winners will vie for higher honors at the District Championship Show in Dearborn, August 6.

Local Youths Held In Ann Arbor Jail

At least 13 separate Plymouth crimes—maybe more—were solved this week with the arrest in Ann Arbor of a group of teen-agers who today are in jail awaiting trial on serious charges.

The group collectively is said to have confessed to more than 100 offenses over a wide area, but Plymouth police are most interested in the 13 breakings and enterings (in search of cash) which have taken place here since March.

Scheduled for trial July 22 on a charge of Break and Entering at night and held on $5,000 bond, are:

Bernard Michael Fornwald, 19, 397 Pacific Ave., Plymouth.
William H. McIntosh, 19, 41830 Five Mile Rd.

Curtis William McCowan, 18, 483 Ann St., Plymouth.

Kirkland H. McCowan, 13, 483 Ann St., Plymouth.

Held on the same charge but at $1,000 bail is Gerald David Cowan, 17, 305 Roe Street, Plymouth. And on the same charge but at $500 bail is a girl, Linda Kramer, 17, 42518 Schoolcraft.

A 16 year old youth also has been detained, with Washtenaw County and State Police still determining what action to recommend.

Another Plymouth youth was apprehended Tuesday, with arraignment on the same charges imminent.

Also arrested was Dow Jay Swope, 19, of Livonia.

All of the breakings and enterings in Plymouth were similar and were attempts to find cash. Police Chief Kenneth Fisher said they include nocturnal entries as follows:

Plymouth Grill in April; Plymouth Grill, May; Burgett's Service, May;

Plymouth Sewing Center May; Beyers Drugs, Liberty St., May; Stipe Tire, May; P and A Theater, June; Plymouth Grill, June; Ray Restaurant, June; Guernsey Dairy Store, June; Bates Service, June; George Spears residence (motor scooter) June; Stipe Tire, March.

The biggest loot here, police believe, was $207 taken from Guernsey Dairy Store in June.

Police records show that most of the youths have been booked on various charges, off-and-on for the past two years. McIntosh and Fornwald first came to the attention of Plymouth police at the age of 13.

The McCowan brothers are twins. Kirk McCowan was placed on two years probation to Court on a guilty charge of larceny in February, 1958. Fornwald was placed on two years probation for larceny in February. Most of the youths have marks on police record for speeding, noise, hit and run, obstructing traffic, false police report, reckless driving, no license, unsafe vehicle, etc.

In Ann Arbor, the police said that the 100-odd thefts were mostly from stores, restaurants and gas stations in Western Wayne County, Washtenaw and Livingston. One "haul" is believed to have been $1,300 from a home sale.

"They had a pretty good system," said Lt. Rodger Vanderveen of the Plymouth police. "They would wait until the police checked the door of a store, then go to work. They mostly used only a screwdriver to get through the front door.

McIntosh was the first arrested when trying to flee after ditching a stolen motorcycle. Arrest of the others followed.

The MAIL Attitude

By PAUL CHANDLER

This week the Mail endorses both propositions which the City Commission intends to place before the voters in November.

The first is on the matter of choosing a County Supervisor for the City of Plymouth. At the present time, this is done by ballot at a general election. The Commission recommends that the selection be made by the commissioners themselves.

One argument which has been used is that Plymouth is the only community in the County which still elects its Supervisor. That's true, and it's a significant argument if one understands why the job has become appointive elsewhere.

The sole purpose of the city Supervisor is to give the City a voice and a listening post at the County Board of Supervisors' meetings. If Plymouth's city government wants to say something there (and there are more and more issues involving County participation these days) then the Supervisor is the individual who will utter the message. If something comes off the floor which should be reported back to the city government, then the local Supervisor will carry back the message.

Local governments, then, prefer to have the delegate be a man who is intimate with their own policy and attitudes. They argue that no one can possibly know the picture as well as an individual who serves in the city government on a day to day basis.

In Plymouth's case, the Supervisor may be, or may not, (depending on the mood of the city election) an individual who is close to the city commission.

Supervisor George Witkowski, however, argues strenuously for preserving the present system. He would insure that the delegate be close to the City Commission by making him an "ex-officio" member of the Commission. He contends that an appointive Supervisor would be "subject to pressure."

But there is no gain in having an "extra" commissioner, without vote, sitting around the table simply to accomplish the same thing which could be achieved by the simpler method of an appointed Supervisor. As for "pressure", that is a symbol word with sound but not meaning. The Supervisor is supposed to be under "pressure", in the sense that he represents the exact position of the city government and does not function independently herefrom.

The second proposition on the ballot will ask a pay raise for the city commissioners. They now earn $10 a month. The new figure sought, while not definitely agreed upon yet, probably will be $40 a month.

If a substantial amount of money were involved, this might be a controversial matter, but even at the increased figures the Commissioners would be working as "cheaply" as any government officials in Wayne County. And the total amount of "salary" (Continued on Page 6)

Petunia Time

Now's the time for Plymouth's petunia planters to administer a shot of liquid fertilizer, or whatever it takes. The judges in the annual contest are laying plans for their annual tour of the city to pick prize-winners.

The actual judging, to be conducted by the Plymouth Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association, tentatively has been scheduled for Aug. 4 and 5.

A considerable increase in the number of outdoor plantings has been reported by the Association this year, particularly by merchants and other businessmen. "We're coming along," said a spokesman, "and it won't be long before all of our business streets and most of our residences will be ablaze with color every year, and Plymouth will be the talk of the whole County as a 'flower city'."

NEWS BEAT

REFERENDUM BEAT: No petitions have been filed, but it appears certain now that the question of permitting liquor by the glass will be submitted to City of Plymouth voters on the November ballot. Our information is that more than enough signatures have been secured by petition, that they have been authenticated, and the actual legal filing will occur within three weeks or so. Approximately 1400 names were required on the petitions, 35 percent of the number of voters in the last state election.

DETOUR: Ann Arbor Trail will be blocked while the railroad approaches and tracks are being lowered for easier crossing. Eastbound traffic will detour on Mill St. and westbound vehicles on Fairground.

LARCENY BEAT A big boat and trailer was stolen from right under the bedroom window of Robert Beyer at 725 S. Mill St. on a recent Sunday night. Traffic in "hot" boats is said to be increasing, and there is much agitation to tighten up boat licensing and registration so that it offers the same amount of protection as does automobile registering.

WANT AD DEPARTMENT: Reports have reached the Mail that some want ads are "come ons" which should be analyzed carefully by customers. One "household goods for sale" ad reportedly has been used by a woman who continuously sells inferior appliances and used materials through her living room, while offering them under the guise of "doing it for relatives," or some other tale. The Mail screens and throws away many ads which we regard as deceiving, but they aren't always obvious when they come in.

Suggest New School 'Ad' Building

Harold Fisher, new school board treasurer, was appointed chairman of a special committee to investigate the feasibility of remodeling a school-owned building for administrative headquarters.

The building is located just south of the school bus parking lot on Lilley Road.

The action occurred at a meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District Monday evening at the Junior High School.

Fisher, former board president, was appointed to the post by Austin Stecker, newly elected president.

Fisher's suggestion met with considerable debate. Board member Robert Soth said that in his opinion, keeping the supertendent of schools in the same building "commands student respect and thus more obedience." Mrs. Esther Hulsing, school board treasurer, who Fisher asked to join him on the committee, said, "it is up to the individual school principals to supervise students. The superintendent has more important functions to perform."

The two-member committee will investigate the situation (administration offices now are located in the high school) and make recommendations by September.

In other action, the board adopted a resolution to inform local authorities in nearby areas that school buildings are at the disposal of civil defense in time of need. Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister announced the purchase of 10 acres of property on Ridge Road from Robert Willoughby for $2,000 per acre. The sale will be formally completed when a legal description is finished.

The board passed a motion authorizing advance payment of vacation pay upon request of any school employee.

Isbister said that "employees have earned their vacation pay—there's no reason why they shouldn't receive it before leaving."

A resolution was passed designating the Michigan National Bank, the Detroit Trust (of Flint,) and the National Bank of Detroit as depositories for school funds. These banks have been used for several years.

The board agreed to contribute school board salaries equally. President Austin Stecker explained that a lump amount of $2,000 per year is designated to pay the members. The board may divide this sum any way they see fit.

Because of the decision, each member will receive about $286 per year. Mrs. Hulsing suggested that several types of high school diplomas be awarded. She explained that "Ann Arbor schools award a special diploma to outstanding pupils. It automatically admits them to the University of Michigan with no questions asked."

The board agreed the idea might have merit but "there would have to be considerable investigation before any such action is taken."

Community Flower Show Set for August

Arrangements have been made by the Plymouth Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association to sponsor a Community Flower Show on Friday, August 22 at the Junior High School. Mrs. Paul Wiedman is the general chairman of the event. The purpose is to promote better understanding and good fellowship among the people living in the Plymouth area, to give assistance to the problems of the new home owner in developing more beautiful home grounds and to enrich their lives through association with other gardeners.

It is hoped all flower lovers and gardeners will enter their specimen blooms along with flower arrangements, houseplants, and displays of fruit and vegetables.

Soprano Soloist Delights Colony Concert Audience

The delightful soprano voice of Carol Neilsen Wilder and a vibrant trumpet duo combined with the Plymouth Little Symphony to make last Sunday's Colony Concert a pleasurable experience for some 500 concert-goers.

Peaceful weather, if not peaceful skies, prevailed for the concert. The setting included artists on the hillside, sketching the proceedings for the art competition sponsored by the Three-Cities Art Club and the Colony Concert group.

Much comment was made on the clarity of the music and Miss Wilder, which is due to two horns with built in high-fidelity coaxial speakers, a new feature this year.

Such favorites as the "Facade Suite" and "Die Fledermaus" drew much applause from the audience. The trumpeting of Russell Reed and Gary Stollsteimer, students at the University of Michigan, was also popular with the crowd. They combined their talents in "Concerto in D Major for Two Trumpets and Strings" by Vivaldi.

One of the more unique numbers on the program was Knoxville, Summer of 1915. It is a work by contemporary composer, Samuel Barber, done as a result of a commission by soprano Eleanor Steber to accompany a nostalgic reminiscence by American poet, James Agee.

NEW BOOKS
At The Wayne County

"U.S. Air Power" by Samuel Taylor Moore — A story of American fighting planes and missiles from Hydrogen bags to Hydrogen war-heads. Not a mere factual history. The book steps on toes and will surely stir controversy. It also supplies answers to those who fear the U.S. has been out-distanced in development of long-range missiles.

"Fire on the Beaches" by Theodore Taylor — In the war between U-boats and the American merchant marine, the year 1942 was the year of crisis. This is a story of actions at sea, men who fought them through or perished, and of the naval commanders who improvised escorts and developed the plan of cooperation in which finally slowed the carnage.

"Escape from Corridor" by Edgar D. Whitcomb — This is one of the strangest true adventure stories of World War II. It concerns Ed Whitcomb, B-17 navigator, and his plan to outwit the enemy on Corridor by assuming the identity of an imaginary civilian and living another man's life for almost two years.

"The Mountain Road" by Theodore H. White — Excitement runs high in this story of a New England major with his first command — of a tough and surly American demolition unit isolated in that great China retreat of Su-Piao, strong and beautiful Chinese woman educated in America who must join them over his protest — and of Kwan, a frosty Chinese colonel who loves his country but must help ravage it.

"No Beast So Fierce" by Charles Rushton — In this fast moving tale of murder and kidnapping, set in the streets of an Eastern city, a special agent from London fights almost alone to rid Calcutta of the racketeers.

"Pharaoh" by Eloise Jarvis McGraw — A historical novel, bringing the grandeur and mystery of Ancient Egypt to life. It tells the story of Queen Hatshepsut, the first great woman ruler of world-history, who believed she was divine and of three men who could not believe they were.

Renwick Garypie, assisting at Dunning-Hough Library, will return Monday from San Francisco, Calif. where he has been attending the American Library Association Convention this week. Mr. Garypie flew to the coast last Friday. During his absence, Mrs. Ernest Moran, formerly Nancy Brannan of Plymouth, has been assisting in the library. She heads the Children's service for Wayne County library. This past February, the Morans returned to Plymouth to make their home here.

Miss Ludean Earnest, who assists at the Dunning-Hough library, recently showed slides to the Library Book club of Japan where she spent two years as a Wave.

Mrs. Dee F. Speers

Dee Speers of Plymouth To Take Bride to Boston

Mary Lou Lemmer of Detroit became the bride of Dee F. Speers of Plymouth on July 12 during a 10:30 A.M. ceremony in St. Jude church, Detroit.

Parents of the bridal pair are Mr. and Mrs. Theo W. Lemmer of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Speers of Holbrook Ave.

Mary Lou was graduated from Eastern Michigan College with a major in Home Economics Education. Dee was graduated from the University of Michigan with a major in electrical engineering. He is now an engineer in Boston, Mass.

The bride's gown was a full length sheath with a two yard train of embroidered silk organza. A crown of orange blossoms secured her tiered veil of silk illusion. She carried a crescent arrangement of gladiolus and ivy.

Jean Fagan, sister of the bride, served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Lillian Walker from South Lyons, Mary Jane Locke, and Mrs. Thomas Korte, both of Detroit.

An all-pink color scheme marked the attendants' attire.

Their frocks were also sheath style with a back flounce accent in petal pink embroidered organza. They wore pink birdcages, topped with miniature roses, as head-dresses and carried bouquets of rose buds and ivy.

Thomas Sherlock of Ann Arbor served as best man for the bridegroom. Ushers were Neil Speers, Gilbert Wasalaski, and Edward Sawyer, all of Plymouth. Joe Gude from Plymouth was ring bearer and Margaret Smith from Detroit was flower girl.

Mrs. Lemmer wore a powder blue dress of chantilly lace and a white picture hat with small blue flowers. Mrs. Speers donned a dress in rose lace and wore white accessories. Mrs. Lemmer designed all the wedding gowns.

After the ceremony, the events of the day included breakfast at Howard Johnson's, an open house at the residence of the Charles Cudes in Livonia, and an evening reception in Detroit.

The newlyweds will honeymoon in Montreal, Canada, and then go on to Boston where they will make their home.

Columnist Returns from Vacation To Find Lake Pointers Busy Improving

By Mrs. Arthur Cooksey
GL. 3-2871

After a wonderful two week vacation in Mexico it was wonderful to return home to our neighbors in Lake Pointe, to our house and yard, and to our friends in Plymouth.

We found a great many changes in Lake Pointe. New models are springing up near Wilcox and new house frames are apparent throughout the subdivision. (Things are in limbo again as this column is being written because of the unfortunate recurrence of a carpenter's strike.) The grass seems greener than ever, the bushes and shrubs flowering madly, and MANY changes in back yards with garages, patios and terraces making their appearance.

Four families at the north end of Shadywood Drive decided on a common solution to the problem of their sloping back yards. The slopes aren't as severe as they are on Clemons, only about a four foot drop from the back door of their homes to the rear of the lots. However, the drop-off is steep enough to present a problem.

Word got around in the subdivision that broken pieces of concrete could be had for free from the Northville Sand and Gravel Co. All the people who wanted them had to do was take them away. That sounds pretty simple until you realize that the pieces are about 12 inches square and 4 1/2 inches thick. (They weigh a lot.) But the Herrimans, the Bartsons, the Richards and the Szyniszewskis decided that the pieces were the answer to the problem. The concrete has been used as a retaining wall up to about 5 feet from the lot line. Not only do the walls solve a problem, but, when planted with low flowers, they will be nice to look at from the homes that back up to those lots on Brentwood.

It seems as if there are practically no "natives" in Michigan, let alone a new housing development such as this one. Last week we met a family from New Jersey that had previously lived in Birmingham. Joseph and Dorothy Mamola moved "west" two years ago, but still sound like easterners to this "western" ear. And speaking of accents, Dorothy told me that the college she attended had special speech classes for the girls from Brooklyn. Is it any wonder?

Dorothy seems to like the friendliness of Plymouth, in company with most other newcomers. She and Joseph have three pre-schoolers, and are expecting another child late in August) and with Joseph's work traveling for the Celanese Corp., they've found it difficult to join the swim of community life that is so characteristic of Plymouth. They hope to take part in more activities in the fall.

Home from Central Michigan College for the summer, Reba Jean O'Bryant finds her family's new home very pleasant. Jean is working at the new Howard Johnson restaurant for the summer and will urge one and all to drop in and say howdy. Jean is the slim blonde girl with the big smile.

Mrs. Perry called with news, too. (Mrs. Perry is one of the best newsgatherers in the subdivision.) She tells me that her daughter and son-in-law, June and Harry Geist, celebrated their 8th wedding anniversary by having dinner at Fox Hills Country Club. And also that her sister, Mrs. M.J. Shepley, of Chatham, Ontario, visited them recently.

We have very recent newcomers living east of Mrs. Perry. Moved in are Mr. and Mrs. Rowe and their two little girls. It seems that the newcomers had company too. From Maryland, I'll bet they are glad to get back to settling their house and hope our company waits a while.

It's a temptation to spend an entire column talking about our trip to Mexico. It was very nice. Something we don't do very often, although finding it as lovely as we did, we will probably bend every effort to return there as soon as possible. We especially want the readers of this column to learn about the wonderful services that Mr. Kurt Thurn and his associates at the Travel Centre have to offer.

Americans have in recent years almost gone everywhere in the world, and one of the closest places to go, and still be "international," is Mexico. One sees American influence everywhere, from cars to Cokes. Most notably however is the prevalence of the English language. It has been seven years since I last visited Mexico and then saw Spanish was essential for the traveler. This time we noted that one could get anything he wanted or go anywhere he wanted to and use

English the entire time. (Although using a different language is far more fun, even if it is confusing to everyone.)

Most people think of Mexico as hot and dry, but in reality Mexico City and south are in the tropics, and in the summer one experiences quite a little rain and high humidity readings. Since the climate is so warm and wet, the humblest home is a thing of beauty with many different kinds of shrubs, flowers and trees growing. It follows then that the parks and streets and important buildings are lavishly and magnificently landscaped.

We noted some startling contrasts, too, to our way of life, all the more apparent because of the speed of modern travel. Mexico City is only 5 1/2 hours away from Chicago by air. Women in the city wash their clothes in any open water or a reservoir, and hang their clothes to dry on bushes, fences, and furniture. The drivers are fantastically funny and uncontrolled. Driving is a game and the best driver is the best bluffer.

Meals are served three to four hours later than ours, and lunch, especially in the country, is followed by a siesta, and EVERYTHING grinds to a halt for two hours. By the time one has his stomach adjusted to the Mexican customs he has to return to the United States.

More construction, growing and improving than we had seen anywhere in the U.S. with almost all the labor done by hand. A large number of people use bicycles or donkeys as the means of transportation. There is almost total lack of late model cars. (Mexico City looked like a moving used car lot.)

But one thing was just the same — the universal of a smile.

Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Kranz, Jr.

Marjorie Ann Dix Weds Plymouthite on June 21

Making their home at 267 Blanchard St. following their June 21 nuptials are newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Edward Kranz, Jr.

The new bride is the former Marjorie Ann Dix, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Dix, of Northville. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Kranz of Gouffredson Rd.

The young couple exchanged vows in Our Lady of Good Counsel church with Rev. Fr. Byrne officiating at the 9 A.M. services.

Marjorie chose a ballerina gown of white net over taffeta. Her fingertip veil was held by a tiara. She carried white roses and stephanotis.

Rosemarie Kranz, sister of the bridegroom, attended as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mary Dix, sister of the bride, and Nancy Cook. Rosemarie was dressed in a yellow gown and the maids donned pastel pink ones. Their flowers were white daisies and gladiolus. Pamela Swanson wore a pink frock as flower girl.

Ralph Kranz served as best man. Ushers were Arnold Kranz and Joe Kranz.

For her daughter's marriage and following reception at the Knights of Columbus hall, Mrs. Dix wore a pink dress with white accessories. Pink carnations formed her corsage. Mrs. Kranz chose a blue dress with white accessories. She had pink carnations, also.

For traveling to Niagara Falls on a wedding trip, the bride changed to a navy blue cotton knit dress and white accessories. She graduated from Northville high school in 1957. Her bridegroom was graduated from Plymouth in 1955.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Manas of Sheldon Rd. announce the birth of their third child, a daughter named Maryann Marie, on July 6 at Garden City Osteopathic Hospital, weighing 5 pounds 13 ounces. Mrs. Manas is the former Darlene Will of Livonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas A. Shaw of Birmingham are the parents of an 8 pound, 2 ounce daughter, Carol Alexis, born July 11. Mrs. Shaw is the former Barbara Goodale, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren J. Goodale of Shadywood.

A son, Daniel Robert, was born July 13 to Mr. and Mrs. James Blanton of Iron Mt., weighing 8 pounds, 2 ounces. James is formerly of Newburg Rd.

Maplecroft - Birch Residents Crowding in Summer Fun

(Covering the area bounded by Burroughs, Ann Arbor Rd., and the Junior High, including Maplecroft and Birch Subs.)

BY RHEA ROSS
GL. 3-3144

Another lovely weekend has come and gone but alas each one that slips by means summer is just a wee bit shorter. All our neighbors seem to be enjoying it to the hilt. The Plymouth Colony Concert, held Sunday, was a good example of this. Many of our residents turned out to enjoy not only an afternoon in the open, but to be entertained royally while doing so.

Sunday also seemed to be an excellent day for family reunions. The William Hanns of Main St. attended the Curtis reunion at Clinton. It was also in celebration of their small grandsons birthday. Another reunion held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Ingall was attended by the Dave Ingalls of Edison St. Dave's sister, Harriet, formerly of Plymouth and now of New York City, while here they enjoyed an evening at Northville Downs and also the races at the Detroit Race Course.

Charles (Eddie) Olson who is Commander of the Mayflower Post accompanied Mr. and Mrs. E. Niemann of Newburg Rd., Michigan V.F.W. Convention held at Escanaba.

Young guest at the Clifford Wilkins home this week was Miss Lynette Hart of Hillsdale. She and Cinny who are in the same age bracket had a fine weekend.

The L. B. Rice cabin at Fyfe lake was the scene of much activity last weekend. There three young LaBarr's, Randy, two years; Gary, 11 months; and Sheryl, a very respectable 15 years, helped to provide considerable fun and action.

The children were also accompanied by their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Victor LaBarr of Flint. In the evening the group enjoyed a lovely display of fireworks and the annual Boat Parade, a large number of boats took part and each displayed different colored flares.

Mrs. Philip Theobald and children enjoyed a lovely visit at the home of her parents, the C. Cornelisses, of Grand Rapids last week. Motoring to their summer home on Beaver Island last weekend were the R. Hoffmans of Burroughs. Their guests for the Fourth were Judge and Mrs. Downs and daughter Penny.

One of our northern cousins, Miss Eleanor Ozanick of Laurien, pulled a switch (seems as though most of our population has been enjoying themselves there) and is having a taste of some of our Plymouth hospitality as the houseguest of her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Gustave Dicks of Main St. While here she will spend some time at the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Waller of Livonia.

Miss Lesley Walker of Burroughs enjoyed one of the thrilling moments of her young life last week when she passed her first Cichetti exam. Miss Walker who has been studying under the Aleta School of Dance attended the exams at the Y.M.C.A. on Grand Blvd.

The Charles Wolfes of Rosevelt were hosts to a very enjoyable gathering in their yard last weekend. Those attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Terry and daughter Susan and the J. Rusting Cutlers and family. Also over the Fourth the Victor Moores and children of Roosevelt accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Owen Malloy, motored to Cleveland, O. to enjoy a weekend as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Haight.

Another outstanding event took place in the life of one of our elder citizens, Mrs. Minnie Bakewell of Main St. Her fourteenth great grandchild made his arrival last week. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bakewell of Marlowe.

Enjoying a month's stay at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Rae of Ross St. are Captain and Mrs. C. L. Strubar and children of San Antonio, Tex. The Strubars who are stationed at Kelly Air Force Base, are being royally entertained at their parent's home. Last week they enjoyed a tour of Greenfield Village, several cookouts, a picnic last but not least a birthday party in honor of master Strubar (Junior) who is now four years old.

Little Jane Marsden also celebrated her birthday last week. Just about all the children in the block (20 in all) turned out to help Jane celebrate her sixth birthday. It had been planned for out-of-doors but due to inclement weather the gang whooped it up in the Marsden basement, enjoying cake and ice cream and a lollipop for all survivors! Just kidding—Connie informed me it was a well behaved group for so large a size.

Slenderella, I'm a f r a i d, won't make too much on a certain group of "walkers" around here. Every Monday, faithfully, rain or shine and so far it's been mostly on the dampish side, the mothers of the young golfers out at Hilltop have been out there doing their part. Good going girls, when the morale gets low just remember how good exercise is for you.

There was a lot of activity at the John Turner residence this week. While Frick was just greeting a childhood girl friend, Mrs. John Bovenkerk and family from Pennsylvania, in walked her nephew, Dale Elzinga, of Grand Rapids. The following day her Mother, Mrs. James VanderLoon and Frick's brother and sister-in-law,

Mr. and Mrs. Howard VanderLoon and family of Grand Rapids also joined them for a short visit.

A pleasant weekend at East Tawas on Lake Huron was spent by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Luce and family of Dewey. They were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Thomas over the Fourth.

This weekend the Harry Luce's enjoyed not one wedding but two, one took place at the Presbyterian Church in Ferndale uniting Virginia Starr and Louis Zimmerman, the other was at the Episcopal Church in Flint uniting Mary Jo Barrag and Bruce Allard. They were both on the same date, Saturday, so offhand I'd say the Luce's were quite busy folks.

Little Allan Clark, seven week old grandchild of Mrs. P. Dowling, (and her first) was baptized Sunday at the Apostolic Church in Ann Arbor.

They returned to the Dowling home in the afternoon for dinner.

Those attending were Allan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Clark of Ann Arbor, Mr. and Mrs. Pat Dowling, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

Our neighbor, Mrs. James Latture, is the newly elected president of the Service group (a very deserving one who have adopted Ward C-24 at the Northville State Hospital. This group is sponsored by the Plymouth Womens Club.

Last week four of our Plymouth ladies, Mrs. L. B. Rice, Mrs. J. Latture, Mrs. R. Jones, and Mrs. R. West, planned a lovely party in honor of six of the patients celebrating birthdays lately. Entertainment was furnished by Mrs. Dorothy Ely of Milford a well-known vocalist and pianist. Centerpiece for the table was a belated Fourth of July motif, flowers donated from gardens in our subdivision (red roses, some of my blue delphinium and white lilies, Mrs. Jones also volunteered some stylized firecrackers for the occasion. Following the entertainment all enjoyed watermelon and iced tea.

Visitors at the Walter Ash home last week were: Mrs. Grace Corwin, mother of Mrs. Ash and Miss Peggy Corwin, Harriet's niece. Also present over the Fourth were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aldrich and family.

During her stay at the Ash home Mrs. Corwin and Mrs. W. Ash enjoyed a trip to Fowlerville, where they were guests of Mrs. Bertha Franklin. The A. D. Walker family of Burroughs St. enjoyed a week of trout fishing in Ontario, Canada. During their trip they were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murray MacLeod of Canada.

THIRTY-TWO HIGH SCHOOL students are learning how to do a better job on their high school publications at a workshop conducted by The University of Michigan Summer Session and the Department of Journalism. Among the

Newburg Baby Roll Boosted; Mrs. Smith Feted

(Covering the Newburg Area, bounded by Wayne Rd., Ann Arbor Rd., Lalonde and Joy Rd., including the Washington School area.)

By Mrs. Emil LaPointe
GL. 1-2029

Saturday, July 19, at the Kresge store in Sheldon Cent. is the day, date and place for a bake sale sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church. This presents a fine opportunity for all us gals to get home-made bake goods without doing the baking ourselves and also help the ladies of the society to realize a profit for their treasury.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith of Newburg road spent the fourth of July weekend at their cabin in northern Michigan near Alpena.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mende also of Newburg road, spent a recent weekend visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Daniel in Dayton, Ohio, and then going on to Richmond, in the same state, for an annual reunion of old friends also spending some time visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James McNeill of the same city.

The sympathies of friends and neighbors of the Newburg area are extended to the family of Paul Woodard of Ravine Drive. Mr. Woodard passed away last week at the Ridgewood hospital in Ypsilanti after an illness of three weeks.

Mrs. Emily Longhurst and daughter Emily of Ann Arbor road, spent the Fourth of July weekend at beautiful Niagara Falls.

A baby shower to honor Mrs. Everett Smith of Newburg road was held at the home of Mrs. James Tomlinson also of Newburg Rd., on Monday evening, July 7.

Mrs. Tomlinson, Mrs. Ralph Gray and Mrs. David Smith were hostesses at the party. Guests were Vivien Fegan; Mary Alice Fegan, Beulah Smith, Laura Mende, Marie Gisser, Louan Gisser, Gladys Ryder, Fay Grimm, Adabelle Knief, Patti Knief, Virginia Gerts, Linda and Margaret Gerst, Vivien, and Glenna Merrillat, Vivien and Jan Elen Smith, Marlene Marlow, Jeanne Pattison, Anna Robinson, Bessie Pattison, Vera Guthrie, Jean Thon and Margaret Tomlinson.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Suddendorf of Melody Manor, Livonia, are pleased to announce the arrival of a daughter, Patricia Marie, at Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital, Saturday, June 29. The young lady weighed 7 pounds 5 ounces. Mr. Suddendorf is a former Newburg area resident.

Another baby in the area was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Cekel of Joy Rd. On Saturday, July 5, at the University hospital, a daughter, Yvonne Marie was born and this young lady tipped the scales at 12 1/2 pounds, beside Yvonne the Cekels have another daughter Diane, who is quite pleased with her new sister.

Nan LaPointe daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emil LaPointe of Joy Rd. was the guest of Mrs. Robert Gillelan, son Glenn and daughter Linda of Joy Rd. on Thursday, July 10.

Mrs. Gillelan treated the children to a swim in one of the outdoor swimming pools in Dearborn, also lunch out.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mende of Newburg Rd. visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mayencourt in Walled Lake on Sunday, July 6.

The Fellowship class of the Newburg Methodist church Sunday school will have their annual family pot luck supper and get-together at Gumsolly Mill in the park, on Saturday, July 19 at 6:30 u.m. Just bring a dish to pass, your own silver and dishes and come out for a fine evening of fellowship.

Mrs. Dorothy Pringle of Knolson Ave., and Mrs. R. E. Niemann of Newburg Rd., spent the past week in Albion. The ladies represented the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church at the annual district meeting of all societies at Albion college.

Guests in our home for an afternoon last week were Alfred LaPointe and his children Lana, Susan, Keith and Eric, of Inkster Rd., Livonia. The LaPointes are former residents of this area.

It was nice being back with you again after spending a somewhat damp vacation in northern Michigan. Glad you remembered my number and hope you will continue to do so right on through the summer. Bye for now, see you next week?

Tom Hopper, son of Mrs. Arthur Hopper of Newburg Rd., recently had his adenoids removed at Annapolis hospital. Wayne. Tom is home now and doing nicely.

The cheapest advertising you can employ is that of the columns of your home news-paper. Circulars go into the waste basket generally before they are read, while the local paper on the other hand, is read by the average of from two to five people in the house to which it is delivered. Now is the time to take ad-vantage of your competitor in business who is waiting for the return of flush times. Get ahead of him by advertising while he is waiting. The suc-cessful merchant is the one who keeps everlastingly at it in the advertising columns.

The Plymouth Recreation program is moving along in high gear with throttles wide open and for the past several weeks one or more divisions of this program has been providing interesting entertainment for anyone who cares to stop by the parks.

The Midget League has just completed a round of their three round schedule. This league consists of two divisions. The older group of boys range in age from 11 years to 13 and the younger group from 8 years to 10.

After the completion of their third round, a championship tournament will be played during the week of July 30 through August 3. This league is supervised by Gus Gorguize, who is ably assisted by Mike Hoben. The games are played in the afternoons. The standings for the first round are as follows:

8-10 DIVISION		11-13 DIVISION
Yankees	3 0	Tigers	3 0
Redlegs	2 1	Indians	2 1
Braves	1 2	Torpedoes	1 2
White Sox	0 3	Blackjacks	0 3

In the next age group (15 and under) Plymouth has two representatives playing against teams from Northville, Livonia, Wayne, Clarendonville and Wayne County Training School. One of the teams, Bill's Market, is currently in first place with a record of ten wins and no defeats. This club has been improving each time out. The big problem facing them is one encountered by most athletic teams which are enjoying a good lead and that is overconfidence. The two teams most feared by manager Harold Stevens are Livonia Center, whom they play again on Friday, July 23 and Northville, whom they meet Monday-July 28.

Of the four pitchers, Art Nelson and Pete Lamonaco have won three, Dick Schryer and Darly Miller have won two, with Miller posting the only shutout. The team batting average for the first nine games was .330. The leading hitter at that point in the schedule was Pete Lamonaco with an average of .583. Next is John Spigarelli with .500 average.

The second team representing Plymouth is Davis & Lent managed by Leonard Budnick. They seem to be experiencing some difficulty getting straightened out, although they do have some promising material.

Plymouth Elks and Fisher-Shoes are the entrants in the 18 and under league. The Elks are leading the league with four wins and no defeats and placed seven players on the all-star team that journeyed to Adrian for a tournament. At this tournament the team from this area won and placed four players on the tournament all-star team selected to play at Ann Arbor on August 2. At Adrian Randy Egloff pitched 13 innings, allowing just one hit. He struck out 17. A terrific performance for a 15 year old boy!

The four players selected to play at Ann Arbor are Paul Woodward, John Matt and Randy Egloff from Plymouth and Marentee from Wayne.

The Class "A" Fastball race is tightening up as the teams start down the home stretch. Beglengers have lost only two games. One came as a complete upset as Dehoco defeated them, 7-3. The other loss was early in the season to the second place Wolfe Aircraft team. Chevrolet Spring & Bumper and Cloverdale are tied for third with seven wins and three defeats. Next is Wayne Dispatch with a 9-4 record.

THE YARD STICK played a big part in determining the "dog with the longest tail" in the amateur dog contest among Plymouth playground entries Tuesday. Measuring the canines are Michael Toth and John Howe. About 300 spectators watched 48 finalists compete.

Michigan Mile Week Opens at Race Track

The great and near-great will converge on Detroit this weekend for the 1958 Michigan Mile, the first of two $50,000 stakes races scheduled for the Detroit Race Course.

Topping the list of entries in the state's biggest race is Swoon's Son, seventh top money-winning horse of all time. The E. Gay Drake five-year-old has collected $813,520 in four years of racing.

A win in either the Mile or the Sweepstakes would shoot him to fifth in the standings and wins in both would move him to the No. 4 slot.

Swoon's Son ranks second only to Round Table in earnings among horses in competition. The Drake color-bearer is strictly a fast-track campaigner, pulling out of last year's Mile when heavy rain soaked the track.

Another top entry will be Mister Jive, one of the few locally-bred horses in the big race. The four-year-old was born and bred at Thimble Farm in Bloomfield Hills.

Soap Box Derby Set for July 19

More than 400 boys from Metropolitan Detroit will compete in the world's greatest amateur racing event, the Soap Box Derby, set for Saturday, July 19, at Derby Hill, Mount Road and Outer Drive. At least 15,000 spectators will be there to cheer the boys.

Co-sponsored by The Detroit News, Greater Chevrolet Dealers and the Department of Parks and Recreation, the race will begin at 9:30 a.m.

Following tradition, The News will again present the "Oil Can Derby," featuring sportscaster, John Parker, and disc-jockeys, Jim DeLand and Hugh Roberts. Jerry Townsend of Anderson, Indiana, last year's National Winner of the Derby in Akron, Ohio, will start the men down the track.

Ohio Trotters Join the Chase

Three Ohio-owned trotters share the spotlight in the $5,000 Northville Trot on Wednesday, July 23, always one of the standout events of the year.

The stake attracted 16 nominees and there's plenty of class in the list. The Ohio-owned stars are Annette Sue, 2:04, owned by Dorsey Greeno of Findlay who won 6 dashes in 1957; Dick Hoffman, 2:02, owned by David Steiner of Lima; and Fisherman, 2:01 4-5, owned by William Johnson of Urbana.

But Michigan has some nominees who figure to make things interesting for the invaders.

There's Brown Valley Farm's Make Haste, 1957 State three-year-old champion with a mark of 2:04 4-5 and 18 firsts in 1957; Town Crusader, 2:04 3-5, owned by Fred Wahlstrom and Joe Everson of Detroit; Cleverette, 2:06 1-5, owned by United Stables of Detroit; Lady Volo, 2:05, owned by Ray Honsinger of Northville and Mark Volo, 2:07, owned by C. H. Oxenger of Reading.

WATERTOWN, N. Y. — (UPI) Dr. Rudolph J. Haas slipped and fell as he was en route to a hospital delivery room here. After dusting himself off, he continued on to the hospital, delivered a son to Mrs. Gilbert Crosbie and then went to an X-ray room where he found out he had broken his shoulder in the fall.

Dehoco Defeats Class A Leaders

After last week's play in Class A Fastball, Beglengers are in first place with 11 wins and two losses.

They suffered their second loss of the season when Dehoco defeated them 7-6. However, Gabby Street allowed just one hit to the lead off batter in the first inning against Wolfe Aircraft to defeat them, 3-0, in Beglinger's second game of the week.

Wolfe Aircraft had their scheduled game with Lincoln rained out but remain in second place with a record of nine wins and three losses. Chevrolet Spring and Bumper won by forfeit from Wayne Dispatch while Box Bar made three hits good for three runs to hand Wayne their second loss of the week, 3-2.

New Southpaw Loses Close One

Plymouth Merchants of the Michigan Intercounty baseball league showed the strains of three games in three days as they lost to Teamsters in a regularly scheduled game at Riverside Park last Sunday 4-1.

In non-league games the Merchants were lost to avoid elimination from the tournament to pick the U.S. representative for the Global World Series. In the first tournament game, the Sutherland team that finished first in Michigan last year and third in the nation was held to three runs by Ken Kisabeth. In the second game on Saturday Plymouth bats were booming as the Merchants defeated Kalamazoo 19-1. Bud Nedry and Ron Bender contributed home runs to the Merchants total.

Back at Riverside Park on Sunday, the Merchants looked good in the early part of the contest with their newly acquired left-handed pitcher, Sal Cipriano. The score was tied 1-1 until the seventh inning.

Gerry King scored the Plymouth run when he came home on Bob Gow's sacrifice fly. But Teamsters scored two runs in the seventh and one in the eighth to win.

Plymouth has four more games to play and they must win each one to finish in the first division. Next Sunday they play Redford at Cass Benton Park. The last time these teams played was at Riverside Park and manager John Schwartz won the game with a blooping single over the first baseman's head.

ANOTHER GREAT CADILLAC TRADITION

If there is one quality which is instantly apparent in a new Cadillac—it is most certainly the car's great dignity. Cadillac's regal bearing, its impressive stature, and its majestic design give it a presence that is uniquely its own. It is a rare pleasure to command such a motor car—and we think you will agree, once you've taken the wheel for yourself. Why not do so soon?

(Continued from Page 1) iron and landed to the right of the green. Draper used a four wood and drove his ball to within 15 inches of the cup. Ty made a fine chip shot that rolled to a stop 3 feet from the cup. But it was wasted as Draper sunk his birdie putt and won 2-1 (two holes up with only one to play).

After 87 holes of competition, Ty was only one over par.

Only 64 out of 230 entries managed to qualify for the Championship rounds. Ty barely made it. The cut-off was 156 (two 18 hole rounds of medal play) and he squeezed in with a 155 (75 and 80).

Five hundred spectators watched the tense semi-final match.

"I was hitting the ball real good," Ty says. "Much better than ever before. In the last 35 holes my tee shots were on the fairway every time. I putted for 14 birdies in the last 17 holes."

This is only Ty's sixth year of golf. He took up the game in his sophomore year of high school. That year he had an 87 average, an enviable score for a beginner. In his junior and senior years he posted an 84 and 79 average, respectively.

Ty was the number one man on the Meadowbrook caddy team which placed third in the 1954 State Caddy Championships. Last year he helped the Brae-Burn golf team win the Metropolitan Golf Association Championship.

This year Ty missed qualifying in the National Open by 9 strokes. He needed a 148 (74 and 74) to qualify, but ended up with a 157 (82 and 75).

Ty hopes to play in the Detroit Metropolitan Golf Association Championships at Sylvan Glen July 26 and 27 and the Michigan Open, held the third week in August at Flint. He plans to enter the Plymouth Golf Tournament next September.

This spring he qualified as the number two man on Michigan State's eight member varsity golf team. He will be a junior next year working on a Liberal Arts Degree and a teacher's certificate.

Ty, a transfer student, has been ineligible to compete in varsity athletics. He attended Kent University in Ohio during his freshman year.

Between summer tournaments, Ty works on the Brae-Burn Golf Course. With the blessing of Fred and Walter Block he manages to squeeze in golf tournaments.

Ty's father, Carl, who owns and operates the "Carl Caplin Clothes" business in the Mayflower Hotel, started his son in golf by giving him his first tips.

The only advice Ty has for aspiring golfers is to get instructions from a good professional. "That's the only way to learn," he says. "You should see him soon after you begin playing and go back from time to time for more advice."

"As for myself, I've discovered there's a world of difference between tournament play and a friendly Sunday afternoon foursome. But the only way to get used to it is by playing in as many tournaments as possible — and I intend to. Besides, it's fun!"

The Mail Attitude

for commissioners is a pin-speck in terms of the total city budget.

The voters should approve the increase.

Anyone who has been reading The Mail for the past couple of years will realize how enthusiastically we applaud the hiring last week by the City Commission of a firm of planning experts.

The latter have been instructed to survey, and provide a set of plans and ideas, for the City of Plymouth's business district and any sub-standard neighborhood areas it might discover.

It is impossible to move ahead soundly unless there is a sharply-etched chart of where we're going. Today that map doesn't exist and Plymouth has pretty much been functioning on a "patch up as we go along" basis.

The need to modernize and dress-up our City has been recognized for many months by city leaders, both inside and outside of government. The stumbling-block has been "what do we do about it?"

Plans by experts — and the firm hired is, in my opinion, the best available in the midwest — will provide the answer.

Plans cost money, of course, and are folly if when once received they are filed and gather dust. But that isn't going to happen here.

While in Sault Ste. Marie a fortnight ago I encountered an idea which might inspire our local art groups and the Chamber of Commerce.

Local artists there have painted big scenes on panels which are hung from the lamp-post brackets. The subject matter takes in all the major points of scenic interests near the city. The paintings are carefully weather-proofed.

Plymouth has the same kind of post brackets all installed, and a crack group of artists in the area.

Sault merchants, incidentally, have installed simple ring brackets on their parking meters and hung therefrom pots of bright geraniums. The Mail recently published a picture from another city showing this type of street decoration.

It's a gay touch at small expense.

Colony Concert

The audience could envision the summer night in Knoxville through the strains of Barber's music.

The next concert, July 27 will be open to the public through the generosity of the Music Performance Trust Fund and the American Federation of Musicians. Tenor Fred Kendall will assist the symphony in performing sections from "Tosca" by Puccini, "The King and I", "Carouse!" and "Victory at Sea" by Rodgers and "Brigadoon" by Loewe.

Most Spots: Randy Stahl of 14198 Beck Rd., 1st; Dave Beach of 674 Auburn, 2nd; Gail Schnegg of 351 W. Liberty, 3rd.

Betty Niemi was awarded a world globe when her boxer was chosen "Best of Show".

Other winners received globes, dog travel kits. All entries were given T-shirts, balloons and ribbons of merit.

The participating playgrounds and number of entries in the preliminary shows are as follows: Allen, 16; Bird-Optimist, 17; Smith, 15; Central-Rotary, 17; Cherry Hill, 8; Gallimore, 7; Starkweather, 6; Truesdel, 6; Hough, 6. Each winner received a loving cup.

Judges were Kenneth Fisher and Dr. McClurpphila. The shows were co-sponsored by the Recreation Department and the Ken-L-Ration division of Quaker Oats Co.

First, second and third place winners will go on to compete in the District Championships at Levegood Park in Dearborn August 6.

Junior Golfers Progressing Fast

Luck was with the Plymouth Junior Golfers Monday as the rain held off until all cards were in.

Much improvement is noted, as qualifiers keep reducing their handicaps and beginners turn in better cards.

A number of beginners have already earned a temporary handicap and will be assigned matches. Five scores will qualify them for the tournament Aug. 11 and 12.

Mr. Burkhardt, the professional, says that since so much improvement is noted, and most of the Juniors are swinging well, the emphasis will be on etiquette next week. The walkers will be invited to listen.

Results of this week's matches: J. Eder 10 1/2, D. Eder 9, S. Otwell 9, J. Reas 9, G. Fuelling 7 1/2, R. Gretzinger 6 1/2, Stewart 5 1/2, T. Adams and Wolfe. Holt earned 2 1/2 pts.

Totals of those earning 1/2 pts: Graves 4 1/2, Knapp 4 1/2, Cook and Hoffman.

Totals of those earning 1/2 pt: L. Griswold 3 1/2, J. Scott and S. Reas.

NEWCOMERS TO Plymouth are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Perish, 11 year-old Kathleen and 'Wendy', a Welch Terrier who is 'one of the family.' The Perish family recently moved to 635 Simpson from Dearborn. They consider Lansing their original home, moving to Dearborn when Mr. Perish joined the Ford Motor Co. engineering department. They are all enthused about Plymouth's civic spirit, activities and school system. Kathleen is taking advantage of the summer school classes.

Gerald Bakewells Welcome Baby Son in Green Meadows

(Covering Green Meadows, Brookline, Mrs. Ronald Roberts of Brookline. Their friend Sandy Barlow was also there School District.)

By Mrs. Alvin Stace
GL 3-1929

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bakewell of Marlowe. They are the proud parents of a new son. The little fellow was born Thursday, June 26, in St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor. He weighed 7 pounds, 14 ounces. He has been named Trent Nelson. The Bakewells have three other children, two boys Terry and Timmy, and a girl Shelly.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Caloia and family returned a few days ago after spending several days vacationing in northern Michigan. Their first evening was spent in Mt. Pleasant, where they supposed they would find an Indian settlement. At this point they were very disappointed; there were no Indians. The next two days they were in Mackinac City. The cottage they stayed in gave them a very beautiful view of the Mackinac Bridge. On their return home they stopped at a hunting and fishing resort at Footdam. Their seven year old son Bob was very thrilled over his fishing experience. He caught a sunfish, weighing about 1 1/2 pounds. This was the biggest sunfish to be taken from Footdam this season. They stated the fishing was very good there. They enjoyed fish fries while there and even were able to bring some fish home with them. A trip to the zoo was a thrilling experience for Mrs. Herbert Allen and children of Brookline, Mrs. Dewey Stamper and children of Brookline, Mrs. Ronald Roberts of Brookline. Their friend Sandy Barlow was also there School District.)

Tuesday evening was picnic time in the backyard at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Stamper and children of Brookline. Their picnic guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Roberts and children, Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Loren Beaver and children.

Jerry Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lee, is spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cleek, in Union City, Tenn. Miss Charlotte Payne, a missionary to South Africa Swaziland, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Arvid Burden of Northern last week. Charlotte was Mrs. Burden's roommate when they attended Wheaton college. She was a speaker for the Ladies' Missionary Picnic of Calvary Baptist Church held Tuesday evening at Riverside park. Wednesday evening she dressed in native fashion and was guest speaker for the Prayer Meeting service at the church. She told of her missionary activities in Swaziland.

A happy birthday was in store last Wednesday. She and her husband had dinner with her daughter, Adeline Burden and husband, Arvid. Granddaughters, Alison and Arviline, and Miss Charlotte Payne also helped celebrate the event. The Lloyd Schroeder family reunion was held at the Leon Schroeder home in Livonia. Members attended from Wayne, Saline, Manchester, Plymouth, Walled Lake and Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Ungert of Marion, O., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Batterton of Corinne St. Mrs. Ungert (Carrie) is Mrs. Batterton's sister. A hearty welcome goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Paenkopf. They have lived in Plymouth for several years but moved to their home on Elmhurst in April.

Called Mrs. Milton Truex to see if she had any news. She said she had her 10 year old nephew, Philip Burns of Louisville, Ky., visiting her for a couple of weeks. She also told me her son, Harold is spending the summer session of college at Arkansas State, Jonesboro, Ark.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Truesdell and family of Corinne St. spent last weekend at Lake Chemung. They had a wonderful time enjoying the usual Michigan sports of waterskiing, swimming, picnicking, etc.

Mrs. Edith Wilson and daughter, Linda, of Sheldon Rd., spent last Wednesday at Woodland Lake near Brighton. They were visiting Edith's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hoepner. Mr. and Mrs. William Fox of Northern had as their houseguests last weekend, Mrs. Eulla Fox and daughter, Carolyn of Marion. Mrs. Fox came down to see the Fourth of July Parade, especially the float on which Mrs. William Fox rode. The float was decorated by members of the Brownie Day Camp — a group in which she is very active. Mrs. Fox was "Mammy" and Mrs. June Ball was "Pappy." The float depicted cotton picking time, and was named "Pick of the Crop."

Another big event in the Fox household was the celebration of Mr. and Mrs. William Fox's 15th wedding anniversary on July 4th. Those on hand to help celebrate were: Mr. and Mrs. Mel Clement and two sons of Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Parnell Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. George Adams and Tommy of Corinne St.; Mrs. Eulla Fox and daughter, Carolyn of Marion; and Mr. and Mrs. Fox's two daughters, Patricia and Roberta. Saturday Mrs. William Fox took her mother-in-law to Detroit on a shopping trip. When Mrs. Eulla Fox returned to Marion, her granddaughter, Patricia, accompanied her to spend the week.

Mrs. Daniel (Peggy) Bonga and son Timmy of Corinne St. returned last week after a visit with relatives in Kentucky. Mr. Daniel Bonga and his parents drove to Ken-

SEVEN YEAR-OLD Casey Shettleroe and her father, Jerry Shettleroe pose with 'Brando,' the pony she won in the recent West Brothers Edsel pony-naming contest. Casey is an old hand with horses, having owned a pony before. 'Brando' will be kept at her uncle's farm on Geddes Rd., where he will find company among other horses and ponies. Casey just likes the name 'Brando' — she also gave it to her father's quarter horse, 'Flame,' when a registered name was needed. Over 600 local entries were received in the two-month contest.

Peter Leemon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leemon of Ann Arbor road reports temperatures ranging in the 90s from Fairbanks, Alaska. Peter, a student of Geology at the U. of M. summer school, is a member of a field party on a two months tour of British Columbia, Yukon Territory and Alaska. He was in Fairbanks for the Statehood festivities.

Mrs. Carl Hartwick entertained at a picnic dinner Tuesday evening at her home on Clemons drive for Mrs. James Gothard, Mrs. George Britcher, Mrs. Les Evans, Mrs. T. L. Sullivan, Miss Hildur Carlson, Miss Elsie Melow, Mrs. Walter Packer and Mrs. Donald Melow. The group had a surprise stork shower for Mrs. Gothard and presented Mrs. Britcher with a gift on her twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young of Ball St. entertained friends from Detroit at a picnic in their yard on the Fourth. In the evening Mr. Young's brother Bob and his girl friend, Addie of Detroit, stopped in to pay them a visit.

Ricky Kearns, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kearns of Marlowe, returned last week from a week's stay at Mt. Carmel Seminary at Niagara Falls. Ricky reports having a wonderful time.

Our heartfelt sympathy goes out to the family of Mr. and Mrs. William Schwarz of Marlowe, on the passing away of Mr. Schwarz's mother Mrs. John Schwarz, of Lily Rd., on Thursday, July 10. Well, a little news about our family: Our son Jerry spent a few days with us, but has now returned to Fort Hood, Tex., where he will resume 14 weeks of advanced training in the army. Daughter Beverly is in Wisconsin, working as a councilor at a Bible Camp. Janet spent the Fourth of July weekend with her girl friend at Paradise lake. John and Bill were at the D Bar A Scout Ranch at Metamora. Hubby left Friday morning for the weekend at camp with the boys. As for me I planned to stay at home where it was nice and quiet. My sister and husband from Lansing visited me on the Fourth, and insisted I go back to Lansing with them for the weekend. So I believe that winds the column up for this week.

When the first copies of this week's paper rolled off the press Wednesday night, it brought to an end my last day with the Plymouth Mail. It was an edition I was sorry to see come out, for I hate to say goodbye, especially to a town and a group of fellow-workers who have been so good to me.

This Friday I will make the first leg of a trip to California. I plan to make my home in San Diego with four college friends, two of which will meet me in Dowagiac, Mich., Friday. Our cross-country trek will begin Saturday in a trusty yellow Studebaker. It was a hard decision to make — I've become attached to Plymouth and its residents and I'm sure there isn't a better bunch to work for than the Plymouth Mailites.

I hope to continue newspaper work in California and take in as much of that sinus-relieving atmosphere as possible.

I'd like to say thanks to all those whose help and cooperation have made my 13 months in Plymouth ones I will always remember.

Canton Township Columnist Finds Coincidence in Name, Phone No.

Esther Sprengel
GL 3-0194

Another week has passed and I am very happy to have some news from some of our residents that we have never heard from in the column before, as well as welcoming back some we have heard from. There has been reports of things missing come to try attention and even news from one of your neighbors of something found. A Saltz Rd. resident reports that last Sunday a sow and her piglets decided to take a Sunday walk right down Beck Rd. with a black convertible close behind trying to find Mrs. Pigs' and her family's home. Also reported by the same neighbor was the fact that a car was detained by a basket in the middle of Beck Rd. with a supply of puppies inside. Now to news about your neighbors.

July 6 - Little Miss Debbie Bosman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bosman of Hanford Rd., was the guest of honor at a gala birthday celebration in honor of her 6th birthday. The party was held out of doors, with prizes, games and a big birthday cake for all. Those present from our township were - Kenny and Marilyn Moyer, Joannie Hertrick, Nathan Cummins, Jimmie Johnson, Connie Palmer, Nancy Horvorka. From Livonia, cousins of Debbie's, were - Roger, Clifford and Dennis Bosman. Cousins from Wyandotte - Betty Lou, Tommy and Freddie Bosman and Michael Lambrecht. From Detroit - Walter Schober. Needless to say all the guests had a wonderful time, and many we add our wishes of many, many more happy birthdays to Debbie.

July 6 - Mrs. McLennan shared the news of a cook-out given in honor of her mother's (Mrs. Lena Carder) seventieth birthday, at the McLennan's home at Cherry Hill. Present were - Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Powell, and son Clifton and daughter Denise. Mrs. Raymond Conroy and children, Sandra, Raymond and Bobby. Perhaps it is a little late to wish Mrs. Carder a happy birthday, but we can wish her a very happy year and many more of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Salley of Ford Road, were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Theron Palmer of Beck Rd., their daughter, Mariann, son Dean and Lou Ann Rosengarden and Ronnie Markham. The guests enjoyed a steak cook-out and later in the evening Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Hotton called. The Hottons called in their 1926 Lincoln. Not included in the guest list, but making his appearance early the next morning was a German Shepherd dog to take possession of the steak bones. Mr. and Mrs. C. Wilkins of Beck Rd., enjoyed the company of their son David and his wife Beryl for the week. David was home on leave from his army post at Fort Leonard, Mo. The couple left for Battle Creek to visit with Mrs. Wilkins' family.

July 7 - I am sorry to have to make this report, but Mrs. Robert DeKarske of Ridge Rd., reported that the family's little toy Pekinges, brown and buff in color is missing. The pet has been in the family for three years and the DeKarskes cannot understand its not coming home. Although Mrs. DeKarske was reporting its loss to the "Lost and Found Column," she felt perhaps some of you folks might see the dog and recognize it from this column. Mrs. DeKarske would be grateful for a call any time of the day or night if you think you have seen her pet. Hunter 2-4608.

Mrs. Gladys Gotsch, her mother Mrs. Ethel Kincaid, daughter Joyce and Miss Peggy Corwin, took a trip on the Aquarama, the boat traveling from Detroit to Cleveland and back. The group left last Thursday. We wish them a wonderful time.

Todd Ehrhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ehrhart of Ridge Rd., had a special honor bestowed upon him. He was chosen as one of the 4H Club Group at Michigan State College for four days. Congratulations Todd.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Kelley and son Gary of E. S. Lane, in the upper Peninsula for a weeks vacation. Have a fine trip and let us hear from you upon your return.

Mrs. John Contario of Ridge Rd., called to give me some news she had promised to call in for her neighbors, and upon talking with her, I found that she also had some news about her own family. Mr. and Mrs. Contario were hosts to members of their family for a fourth of July cook-out. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Olowich of Birmingham, Mrs. Contario's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Olowich of Dearborn and the Contario's daughter, a nd husband, Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Rutley and their four children.

The Cherry Hill Recreational Program children are very anxious to have every one know just what a fine time they are having and all about their accomplishments. Starting Monday, July 7, they are observing Nature Week, with 50 children in attendance, not counting the three tiny frogs, brought by Debbie Gill or the dragon fly brought by Tim Fotowich. Also Monday a few of the boys picked up a bird that had broken its leg. Tuesday, Gerry Smith brought a nest as a home for their injured friend, but with all the loving care given it by the boys, the little bird died during the night and they now have one vacant nest. Wednesday, the children will have a "H o b o Hike" (I still haven't found out what a H o g o Hike is, but I am assured that there will be many good things to eat). The boys and girls will leave the school at 12 noon. Thursday will be a cook-out with still more good things to eat. Also the boys and girls wish to inform you that they were third place winners in the Fourth of July Parade for their theme "Moving West" and took fourth place in attendance. Their scheduled games also have acquired these champions thus far: Checker champ - Tom Wiles, Jack Champion is a tie between Betty Miller and Diana Wiles. A newspaper called the "Cherry Hill Chatter" is in the process, with help from Jeanette Ridley, with Patty Hauk gathering crossword puzzles, Bonnie Aldrich collecting articles of interest, and Diana Wiles is in charge of jokes and a coloring contest.

The girls hope to make it a popular paper (I had better watch out for my job.) Parents are having some enjoyment from the program also. One parent said she couldn't resist telling me this bit. Due to the fact that it was "Nature Week" at the program, one little fellow asked if he could bring the ants from his mother's bed to show. Upon the laughter of those about him, he quickly added, my mother's flower bed. We knew what he meant all the time.

Canton Township, Boy Scout Troop 298 are leaving July 26, returning August 3 for a camping trip. The boys plan to spend the entire time in communion with nature, cooking, eating and sleeping outside. The camp is just outside of Ludington. We will keep our fingers crossed for the best of weather during your camp-out.

Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Poss of Maben Rd. were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. B. Maddala, Mr. and Mrs. T. McGrackin and Mr. and Mrs. McGrath.

The Poss's were initiating their newly built patio, with a barbecued chicken cook-out. Mrs. Poss also expressed her pride in their first successful garden and especially in their peas, potatoes, which she stated are already the size of cups. I hope ours do half as well Mrs. Poss.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Soth and four children (Mr. Soth being one of our new school board members) just returned from Dayton, Ohio and an enjoyable vacation. The Soth's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gossman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ridenour are planning a weekend at Clear Lake in Jackson, Mich., at the cottage of a n o t h e r friend, Mrs. Gladys Brill.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hix will be hosts to Mrs. Gladys Brill for lunch this week. Jim and Marian Alor and daughter Vicky, will spend the weekend with the Williams Campbell family of Warren Ave., at Clear Lake in Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Kaiser and family have returned home from their camping trip. They reported having a fine time in spite of the unusually cold weather. The Kaisers found their garden, attended by Gary Mucker and Norman Lehearth, in their absence, in ship-shape order due to the fine care given it by the boys. Evidently the crows were watching the garden, too, and feasting on the Kaisers' raspberries. On July 9, Mr. Kaiser's mother, Mrs. Otto Kaiser of Ann Arbor Rd., spent the evening with the family.

Norman Lehearth's grandfather, Casady, took Norman and Gary Mucker fishing at Edison Lake. Norman caught a five-pound carp, of which he is very proud.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerold Glambin and family went to Fenton, Mich. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farnham, foster parents of Mr. Glambin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mucker and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hogan, were guests of the Nick Muckers for a weinie roast. A ball game was played and later in the evening the group went into Plymouth to watch the fireworks display. The Mucker's enthusiastically announced that the fireworks this year were wonderful. My apologies go to the Muckers of Saltz Rd., for omitting one of their events from my last column. Please forgive me and here it is. Mr. Mucker's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rodley from Akron, Ohio paid a surprise visit. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mucker of Detroit brought them out to see the Mucker family. Later in the evening Mrs. Mucker's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells, Gary and Judy came to spend the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wells and son Joe also paid the Muckers a visit Sunday. Quite a gathering for me to over-look, wasn't it?

Once again I am at the end of my chatter, but must once again explain that last week my telephone number was published wrong. The only explanation is my finger slipped on the key-board of the typewriter. Never-the-less I felt perhaps I was inconveniencing someone with the telephone number GL 3-1094, so I called that number and a very gracious lady assured me that it was quite alright, but sure was glad to get it straightened out. She said she had several calls for Esther (being my first name) and she had left the city. After some silence on the caller's part it was discovered that the former owner of that telephone number, name was also Esther. How complicated can things get! Never-the-less folks I am not out of town and I am sorry GL 3-1094 for the inconvenience I am causing you.

The Post's next business meeting is Wednesday, August 6, 8 p.m. at the Veterans' Community Center. Let's have a good turnout for the new Commander Donald Kinghorn. No business meeting for the Auxiliary this month.

Remember Tuesday, July 15, 17th District Blood Bank Program. Meet at the Veterans' Community Center not any later than seven... be prompt. Come on let's have a good turnout and put this one on the books as a record.

Two Michigan Youths to attend Boys Nation... Both the lower and upper peninsulas of Michigan will be represented at the Thirteenth Annual Boys Nation which will be conducted on the University of Maryland campus July 18 thru 25. David W. Croysdale of Jackson, and John Stelmazek of L'Anse are the two high school juniors who were selected by a Wolverine Boys' State panel last month to represent Michigan at Boys Nation. Some 1,031 boys attended the 21st Wolverine Boys' State in June at Michigan State University. Croysdale, who was sponsored at Boys State by the Richard F. Smith Post 29, was elected Secretary of the State. Stelmazek, sponsored by the Lions Club of L'Anse, was elected a State Representative. Boys Nation teaches American youth the responsibilities and duties of American citizenship through the operation of a mythical Federal Government.

Attending the Installation of Officers at the Redford Township Post Home, Beech Rd., Sunday were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kinghorn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burleson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson and daughter Lynda, and Maxine Kunz. The new Commander is John Holland and Vera Tubbs was re-elected as President of the Auxiliary. The menu after installation included turkey and trimmings.

The red carpet is out, the boats are running, the hotels are air conditioned and the Tigers are in town. It looks like the 40th Annual Department Convention to be held this month in Detroit will be a big one. Actually it is five conventions in one. The Legion, Auxiliary, 40 and 8, 8 and 40, and the 20 and 4 will all be conducting business sessions during the four day period, July 24-27. Several will be attending from our unit and post.

20 & 4 Michigan Echelon... All meeting and activities during the Department Convention will be held at the Hotel Wolverine, headquarters for the 20 and 4 (Women's Legionnaires.)

Michigan Round-up... Crystal Ballroom, Palmer House, Chicago, Tuesday, September 2, 1958... commencing at 5 p.m. Cocktails... Music... $5. Tickets on Sale at Department Convention... Don't Miss it.

Past Commander Burleson and Past President Gwen Hicome wish to thank all who helped on the Installation. Many thanks again to all who worked on the Installation.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerold Glambin and family went to Fenton, Mich. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farnham, foster parents of Mr. Glambin.

Mr. Mucker's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rodley from Akron, Ohio paid a surprise visit. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mucker of Detroit brought them out to see the Mucker family. Later in the evening Mrs. Mucker's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wells, Gary and Judy came to spend the evening. Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wells and son Joe also paid the Muckers a visit Sunday. Quite a gathering for me to over-look, wasn't it?

Mr. and Mrs. Gerold Glambin and family went to Fenton, Mich. to visit Mr. and Mrs. Ben Farnham, foster parents of Mr. Glambin.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mucker and Karen, Mr. and Mrs. C. Hogan, were guests of the Nick Muckers for a weinie roast. A ball game was played and later in the evening the group went into Plymouth to watch the fireworks display. The Mucker's enthusiastically announced that the fireworks this year were wonderful. My apologies go to the Muckers of Saltz Rd., for omitting one of their events from my last column. Please forgive me and here it is. ### Fish Fry Attracts Parkview Circle-ites to Kaufman

(Covering the area east of the railroad tracks to the park and from Parkview Circle north to Wilcox Lake.)
By GRACE WIGLEY
GL 3-2734

It was a fish-try which brought the Parkviewers to the Kaufman's back-yard for the Parkview Circle Association meeting. The ladies took a day off for relaxation. It was the men who were left to the making, baking, frying, and buying. And what a dinner it was! Baked potatoes, coleslaw, relishes, and, of course, those delicious golden-brown fish disappeared like magic. Those who attended the meeting were the Coopers; Uptons; Rulands and their children, Rochelle and Bobbie; Majors; Kaufmans; Vincents; Birds; Truaxes and daughter, Sherry; Kuhnses; Mrs. Ohlert and Paul Herig. A business meeting followed dinner.

At this meeting Paul Herig happily announced his coming marriage to Mrs. Ohlert of Parkview Dr. They are to be married in two weeks. Best wishes!

Mrs. Clara Anderson of Parkview Drive, has enjoyed the company of guests for the past two weeks. They are her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Galasso of Chicago. While visiting, they had a cook-out on Saturday night. Also present at the cookout were Mr. Anderson's other sister, Mrs. Buzuvis and Mrs. Buzuvis' daughter, Marie. Mrs. Anderson's daughter Mrs. Duvos and her four children, Sue, David, Norman and Gary, also enjoyed the affair.

Mrs. Ella Bauman's daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vlasic, and family visited her home on Mill St. recently.

The Ruland family, of Parkview Dr., returned recently from a 10 day camping trip in upper Michigan. They were able to attend the dedication of the Mackinac Bridge while they were in that area. "Roughing it", in the out-of-doors with a tent home is quite an experience but it has its own unique problems. For example, once when the Rulands decided to go golfing, a sudden storm blew up when they were away. Upon returning, they discovered that the winds had blown over the little tent home and also spilled a huge container full of syrup onto its floor.

Beautiful Cass Benton Park with its rolling green hills was the chosen site for our family picnic. Mom's brother, Ernest Bridges and his family, from New Baltimore, and our grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bridges from Detroit, attended, as well as the five Kuhnses, of Parkview Dr. Dinner was delicious from the fried chicken to the watermelon. A rousing game of badminton left us breathless but laughing. A good long hike over some of those rolling hills brought us to a shady grove of refreshingly scented pines where we willingly accepted their invitation to rest and enjoy their beauty. All too soon it was time to pack up and go home. The next day we had our sun-burn and aching muscles to remind us of the good time we had.

"Birthday cakes and gifts are not only for the kiddies", say the adults of Parkview Circle. This was recently proved by a party which was given for Mrs. Earl Gibson, of Parkview Dr. Those who attended are Mr. and Mrs. Wilmowski, Mr. and Mrs. Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Jarrit, Mr. and Mrs. Atkinson, Mr. and Mrs. Hiney, and Mr. and Mrs. Collins. Mrs. Gibson had a birthday cake and a gift from each of the guests.

The next meeting of the Parkview Circle Association will be held at the home of the Jack Ruland family, of 640 Parkview Dr., on September 5 outdoors. We would like to welcome the Majors to the association and hope that they will continue to attend. Also, anyone who lives in Parkview Circle is welcome to attend the meeting.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Butts, of Parkview Dr., has been having trouble with her back and is now in Grace Hospital. We hope she feels better soon.

That about winds it up for the week. Have fun — and then call and tell me about it.

(Covering the area between Ann Arbor Trail and the Parkway from Haggerty to Bassett Roads including Robinson Sub.)
By MRS. MAXINE CARSON GL 3-0659
Hi there friends and neighbors: Your reporter and family have just returned home after having spent two weeks visit- ing friends and relatives in Illinois, Missouri, Oklahoma, Kansas and Texas. We spent a week visiting Mr. Carson's sister in Abilene, Tex., and believe me after 106 degrees there, we sure appreciate good old Michigan!

Anytime anything in the line of used clothing please contact Mrs. Martin Schomberger. These things are distributed to people a little less fortunate than we are. Anything wearable would be greatly appreciated. Call GL 3-2841.

Mrs. and Mrs. Bill Shorter were dinner guests of Lee Kenyon recently. Mr. and Mrs. John LaGrow of Butternut St. attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, William K. Schmid of New Baltimore, on July 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Jar- skey and boys, and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Lee and sons drove to Auburn, Ind., to visit relatives over the 4th, returning Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Dew of Medford, Tenn., visited his brother and family, the Ernest Dew's of Gilbert St. last week.

Mrs. Zelma Shorter was hostess at a demonstration recently. Those attending were: Phyllis Jarskey, Audrey Gibson, Ellen Shorter, and Donna, Norma Marchant and Buddy, Nancy Maynard, Juanita Bryan and Debby, and Alice Kenyon. Games were played and lunch served.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Kenyon of Wayne were dinner guests of Lee Kenyon's of Gilbert St. on the 4th.

Tim and Karen LaGrow have been taking swimming instructions at Plymouth high school. Tim is learning to dive and Karen to swim and float.

David Gibson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Gibson of Gilbert St., had the misfor- tune of falling from a tree limb on Wednesday afternoon, fracturing his wrist in three places. He was taken to

Artists to Paint Concert Scene In Competition

In a joint venture to memorialize the Plymouth summer concert series and bring recognition to a painter, the Three Cities Art Club and the Plymouth Colony Concert group are sponsoring a prize competition for a painting of the concert scene.

Competition for the cash prize is open to all oil and watercolor artists and will be judged by William McGonagle, Extension Director of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The winning painting will be presented by the concert group to the city of Plymouth. The undertaking by two of the city's outstanding cul- tural groups has drawn artists to the first two concerts to sketch and paint the or- chestral area and the sur- rounding pastoral scene.

Mrs. Marjorie Becker, Three Cities Art Club presi- dent, reports that interested artists are to register with the art club at the July 27 concert at Plymouth Colony Farms. The concerts begin at 6 p.m. Entrance is on Joy Road, be- tween Beck and Ridge in Ply- mouth Township.

All paintings being sub- mitted must be framed and larger than 18 by 24 inches, excluding the frame. To be considered, all paintings are to be submitted by noon on Friday, August 8 to the Recre- ation Department of the Plymouth High School.

All paintings will be dis- played at the final concert on August 10, where announce- ment of the prize winner will be made. Artists desiring more information should call Mrs. Jesse Hudson, exhibit chairman, at GL 3-3551 or Mrs. Marjorie Becker, North- ville 1463-M.

Lions Elect International President

Dudley L. Shams, a merchant of Charleston, West Virginia, has been elected International President of Lions International at the Association's 41st Annual Convention in Chicago, Illinois. Lions International with 577,000 members in 91 countries or re- gions, is the world's largest service club organization.

Lions International is especially known for its many youth activities and service activities in sight conservation and aid to the blind. Last year Lions Clubs around the globe completed more than 17,000 individual worthwhile community service projects.

John Zimmerle and daughter Phyllis, of Howell were dinner guests, of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Fenton of 750 Pacific Ave., Saturday, July 12. The Zimmerles were former residents of Plymouth. Phyllis graduated from Howell High School in June and was chosen "Bridge Queen" for Livingston County in the dedication ceremonies, July 23. She leaves for Wash- ington, D. C. where she has accepted a position with the government.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Hardesty and sons, Ronald and David of South Lyon, spent Saturday evening at the Carleton Hardesty home.

Mrs. William Kelly and daughter Lynda returned home Saturday morning, having gone with Mrs. Kelly's mother as far as St. Louis on her return trip to Texas.

Mrs. Charles Raymor of Dickerson St. returned home Sunday evening after spend- ing a month in Tucson, Ariz.

Mrs. Ford Schroeder of W. Six Mile Rd., was admitted to St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor last Tuesday. She un- dergoed surgery on Wednes- day. She is in room 7005 on the 7th floor.

Janet Famuliner was the guest of the Raymond Kelly's at East Tawas over the week- end.

Front Row Center

For a new experience in theater-going you and the wife should give the North- land Playhouse a visit with- in the next week or two. They have changed back to the Proscenium style of pre- sentation as against the arena of last year. Guess the pro- ducers felt that Detroit was n't ready for "Theater in the round."

Ken Schwartz, majordomo of the Northland Playhouse, has assembled a list of plays and players that are sure to dazzle the most mundane set of orbs. Burgess Meredith, Tallulah Bankhead, Walter Slezak, and Bert Lahr are but a few of the top names in the theater world to put in an appearance over at the Northland stage. His pur- pose, as stated in the program when you visit, is "to provide the Detroit area with the best in theatrical entertain- ment."

One additional service that could be provided (who knows it might be added be- fore the end of the season) is to be able to use your J. L. Hudson charge plate when you purchase tickets. Or bet- ter yet, you should be able to purchase tickets right in Hud- son's. I believe Ken and his co-horts are missing a box-of- fice opportunity with such a scheme.

Mildred and I caught the "No Time for Sergeants" pro- duction at the Northland Playhouse a couple of weeks ago. The place was packed and the happy laughter that kept filling the dome-shaped theater was a joy to hear. I'll have to admit that even old George, as crotchety as he can be, sometimes smiled and even guffawed too many times during the evening. All the cast did an excellent job. The only thing I might question would be the plausibility of the second act. But then who worries about such things in a farce that is meant to be pure, unadulterated fun and nothing else.

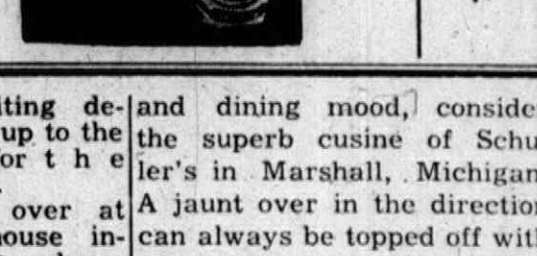

But after a pleasant meal at Stouffer's (be sure to order their as a result of a petition by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pond and others.

The petition concerned the east 120 feet of lot 6 and lot 8. The Salem Township Zoning Board termed this "Spot Zon- ing" and decided that all re- maining lots in the subdivi- sion (1 through 8 and 22) be rezoned to M-1.

Francis Hugg, building in- spector for Salem Township, reports that in June he issued nine permits. ($54,000 in new home permits, $7,900 for im- provements.)

The Salem Town Board voted Monday, July 14, to maintain Social Security pay- ments on Township employees, even with the possibility that the salaries will not be paid until sometime next month. William Scheel, supervisor for Salem Township recom- mended this be done in order to keep Township records straight. A request that the signs in front of the fire hall be moved was made by De- puty William Edmunds. They are to be moved further from the doors to allow the fire apparatus more room in leav-

Gala Salem Family Reunion Unites 98 Notar Descendents

By Mrs. Herbert Famuliner Northville 1341-W
Ninety-eight members of the Notar family met for the first time since 1933 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lutchka of Five Mile Rd., on the 4th of July. One member of the Browet family came from as far as Kansas, the rest from Livonia. The Billot family, numbering 35 mem- bers, mostly reside in Snover in the Thumb, while others traveled from Saginaw, and Marquette. Four generations were present. The Blass family live in Detroit, Farmington, and South Lyon. The Rippon family traveled from Rantoul Airbase in Illinois, and Westville, the home town of the Notar family. The Du- gas family with the youngest member, a 9 week old great grandson came from Detroit, Garden City, Willis and West- ville, Ill.

The only son in the family came with his son and daughter from Willis. The Walker family came from Detroit and Redford. The day was spent getting reacquainted, having a sumptuous meal, playing baseball and games for the younger members. Mrs. Blass, Mother of Mrs. Lutchka, also had as recent guests her sisters, Mrs. Mary Rippon and Mrs. Bertha Billot.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nagy of Greenville, former resi- dents of Salem, announce the engagement of their daughter Eva, to Chester Anderson of Greenville. The marriage will take place in August.

Mrs. William Kelly and daughter Lynda returned home Saturday morning, having gone with Mrs. Kelly's mother as far as St. Louis on her return trip to Texas.

Mrs. Charles Raymor of Dickerson St. returned home Sunday evening after spend- ing a month in Tucson, Ariz.

Mrs. Ford Schroeder of W. Six Mile Rd., was admitted to St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor last Tuesday. She un- dergoed surgery on Wednes- day. She is in room 7005 on the 7th floor.

Janet Famuliner was the guest of the Raymond Kelly's at East Tawas over the week- end.

Walkers Women's club met Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Walter Lacouture of

Salem Heights Lots Rezoned

Rezoning Resolution
Several lots in Salem Heights subdivision have been rezoned from C-2 (Commer- cial business) and AG (agri- cultural) to M-1 (light indus- try) as a result of a petition by Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Pond and others.

The petition concerned the east 120 feet of lot 6 and lot 8. The Salem Township Zoning Board termed this "Spot Zon- ing" and decided that all re- maining lots in the subdivi- sion (1 through 8 and 22) be rezoned to M-1.

Francis Hugg, building in- spector for Salem Township, reports that in June he issued nine permits. ($54,000 in new home permits, $7,900 for im- provements.)

The Salem Town Board voted Monday, July 14, to maintain Social Security pay- ments on Township employees, even with the possibility that the salaries will not be paid until sometime next month. William Scheel, supervisor for Salem Township recom- mended this be done in order to keep Township records straight. A request that the signs in front of the fire hall be moved was made by De- puty William Edmunds. They are to be moved further from the doors to allow the fire apparatus more room in leaving and returning to the hall. The Board approved the ac- tion.

Charles Raymor was re- elected chief, edging out Ray- mond Doolin with a 8 to 6 vote. Oscar Hirth succeeded Elmer Bennett as assistant chief, with a 8 to 6 vote. Both offices are held for 2 years.

Certificates of training were presented to five firemen, who attended an 18 hour course sponsored by the Ex- tension Service of the Univer- sity of Michigan for fire fight- ing training. These attending were Dick McKinley, Oscar Hirth, Dale Verran, Ferman Rohraff, and Charles Raymor, Jr.

Illegible handwriting and careless addressing send 23,000,000 letters a year to the dead letter office, according to the Post Office Depart- ment.

Clover in Your Lawn? Experts Argue Over Matter

Try Badminton in Yard

One of the best and most active games to be played on the home property is badminton. Teen agers and young adults won't complain that it's a poor substitute for tennis, because badminton is a fast game that calls for skill and judgment.

Badminton is a court game, like tennis. But in playing badminton a lightweight racket is used to beat a shuttlecock instead of a ball, back and forth over a net. Badminton is more adaptable to the home property than is tennis, for the court requires less space and a grass surface.

Ordinary lawn or grass turf will be entirely satisfactory. Furthermore, it needn't be clipped close as it must be for lawn tennis, bowling or golf. Grass cut 1/2 to 2 inches high is fine for badminton.

Patches of clover are dangerous in the area set aside for playing badminton. That's because clover is slippery, even when it isn't wet. Zoysis makes a good surface in the South, where this grass grows well. Farther North, the lawn should be thickened spring and fall by sowing thin spots with a sports lawn mixture or fescue grasses.

A single court for two persons to play badminton requires a stretch of lawn 17 feet wide and 44 feet long; to play doubles the area should be 20 feet wide. To allow for run-back, the area should be 10 feet wider (30 feet in all) and 15 feet longer (about 60 feet). White tape, such as is used to mark off a tennis court, can be attached to four corner stakes to indicate the badminton court proper, either 17 or 20 feet wide and 44 feet long.

Equipment to play badminton is purchased in sets. Two or four racket sets are available. In addition some sets come with net, metal posts to hold the net and metal stakes to mark the court. Rackets, shuttlecocks, and nets also may be purchased separately.

Posts to hold the net are set at the halfway of the length on either side of the court. If a complete set of equipment isn't purchased, wooden posts may be installed. These should be redwood, cypress or cedar 7 feet long of 2 by 2-inch wood stock. The wood posts should be coated with preservative and sunk at least 18 inches underground. If metal sockets are placed in the ground, the posts can be taken down when no one is interested in playing.

At least 5 1/2 feet of the posts must be above ground level. The net is fastened to the posts so that in the center it is 5 feet from the ground and at the posts 5 feet, 1 inch above ground. The net itself is not more than 2 feet deep and so does not reach to the ground.

Badminton rackets are smaller and lighter in weight than those for tennis. The shuttlecock is cork with feathers inserted around its edge—and it's not as simple as it might seem to send the shuttlecock where you want it to go. The game of badminton is based on volleying and is extremely fast. In fact, experts have said that badminton requires more staying power than tennis singles.

CLOVER HUNT — SO FAR NO ONE'S found the lucky four-leaf clover. Small-leaved clovers are good companions for grass, although some people dislike the two in lawns.

Some Cultivate Clover, Others Try to Kill It

How is anyone going to find a four-leaf clover, if lawns don't have patches of the regular three-leaf clovers? Twenty years ago a percentage of clover was included with grasses in some of the good lawn seed mixtures. For the last ten years or so, the homeowner who wants some clover in his grass turf has had to purchase and sow the clover separately.

Clover in lawns is a matter of personal preference and there's much to be said for and against it. Those who want it buy one of the small-leaved varieties such as Wild White, Kent or White Dutch clover and mix 2 ounces of seed with a quart of dry sand, to be scattered over about 1,000 square feet. Spring sowing gives clover the best start.

Some people, on the other hand, so dislike clover in lawn that they'll spray with a weed-killer or even pull the clover out by hand. Probably they don't like the way it looks.

Clover is more slippery than any kind of grass. That's why it shouldn't be sown on any lawns on which games will be played. Clover stains are more stubborn to remove than grass stains if youngsters tumble across the lawn or a grown-up skids and falls.

Against these disadvantages, it must be admitted that clover is a good companion for grass, even if the two plants look nothing alike. Grass grows better in an area where there's clover. The lawn clovers, as well as those which are grown in meadows for forage crops, are nitrogen fixers and soil improvers, because of the tiny modules on their roots in which nitrogen is manufactured.

In addition to fixing nitrogen in the soil, clover grows vigorously and spreads. Thus it will offer competition to undesirable weeds and doesn't give them a chance to grow. The dense, three-part leaves of clover also shade the soil in summer and keep it cooler which is favorable to the growth of grass.

The taller red, yellow and pink clovers that grow along roadsides are proof that clover isn't particular about the soil in which it will grow. Since clover thrives more than grass in poor soil, any new homeowner might sow clover the first two or three years to aid in establishing a fine lawn. And in drought years, long after grass looks like shredded wheat, the patches of clover still will be green.

Experts admit that clover growing with lawn grasses gives the turf a better appearance when it is seen from a distance. It is when a lawn is seen close at hand that experts and amateurs begin to question even the advantages of clover. Many believe that the spreading patches of flat leaves are an objectionable contrast to the erect, thin blades of grass.

Homeowners who want to get every clover, whether three or four leaved, out of the lawn, can spray with weed-killer. One or two applications of 2, 4, 5-T should kill most of it. There also are a couple of chemicals on the market that have been formulated as clover killers. Close mowing will kill clover, especially the White Dutch variety but then — close mowing kills grass too.

Outdoor Bench — Build It Yourself

A comfortable place to sit is always welcome on every backyard patio or terrace. The more simple the seat is the better. The right-angle bench illustrated is perfect for "squaring off" a patio or terrace, and it will accommodate a number of people.

The important aspect of this bench is that its simple design enables the most inexperienced homeowner to build it. Stock should be an outdoor wood such as redwood, cypress or cedar to combat the elements. All stock thickness is 1 1/2 inches. The length of the seats can vary, depending on the size of terraced area.

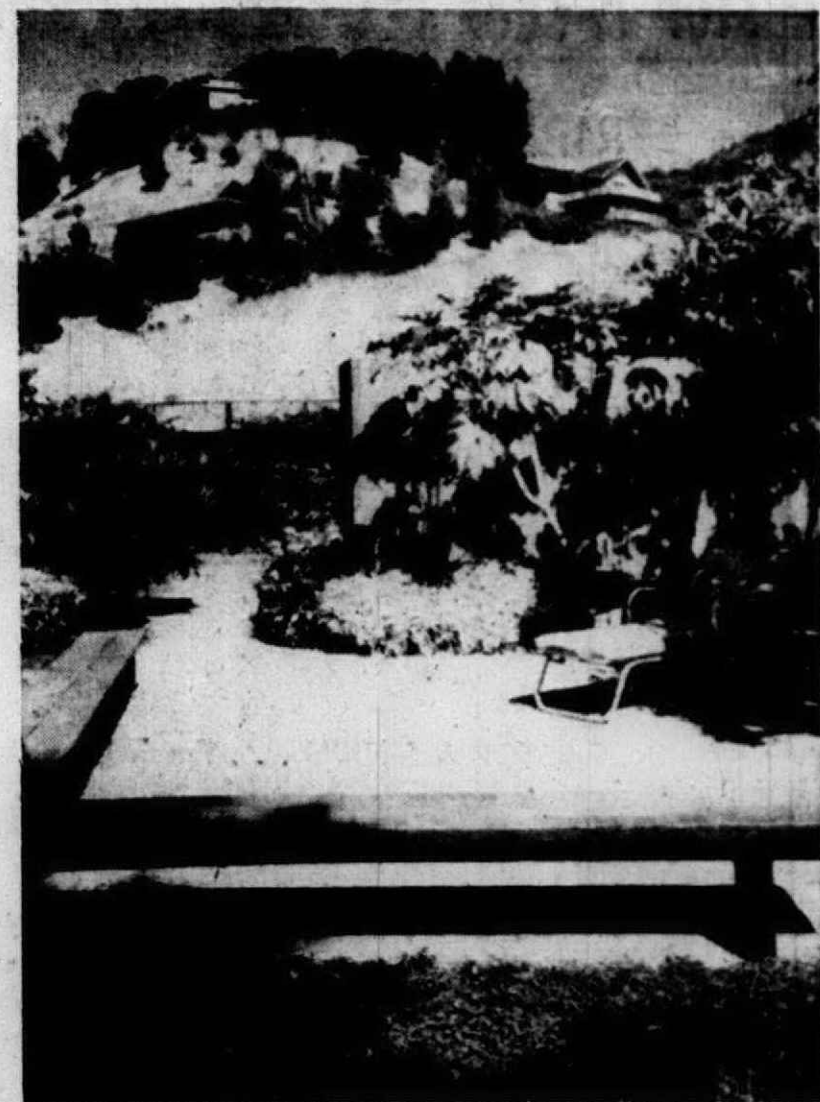

The first step is cutting out the bench legs; there are four. Each leg measures 1 1/2 x 13 x 16 1/2 inches. Next, bench stretchers must be cut and assembled to the legs. The stretchers measure 1 1/2 inches thick by 6 inches wide; length varies according to size of bench desired.

Before assembling, each leg except for the corner one should be notched to a depth of 6 inches. This notch is for the stretcher. To attach the stretchers to the corner leg, miter one end of each stretcher on the surface side of the stock. Galvanized or aluminum nails should be used to fasten the stretchers to the corner leg.

Once this step is completed, the bench foundation is complete. The notching of the legs to accommodate the stretchers assures a strong bench.

The last step is cutting and assembling the seat. This consists of four boards 1 1/2 inches thick by 8 inches wide and length as long as desired. Fitting the seat at the corner calls for mitering one end of each board so that the corner forms a right angle. Fastening the seat boards to the legs and stretchers can be done with brass screws or by doweling.

A coat of wood preservative should be applied to the completed project. This can be purchased ready-made at a local hardware store, or be made by mixing half boiled oil and half turpentine.

BENCH FOR PATIO HAS SIMPLE DESIGN and is easy to make. Redwood stock is attractive, longlasting.

A FAST GAME AND FUN FOR all is badminton. It can be played on a 17 by 44-foot court of ordinary lawn.

Birch Hills Models Start Soon

Construction of two "Family Plan" model homes in Birch Estates will begin July 15th and 17th, according to Daniel S. Mills & Son. The models, which will be located at Byron Avenue and Simpson Avenue, were designed by the nationally-known residential architect, L. Morgan Yost, F.A.I.A. and floor plans were based on recommendations made by the nation's housewives at the recent Women's Congress on Housing in Washington, D.C. Mills, who has been a home builder for 30 years, said one of the homes, the Gordon, will be started on July 15 with the second, the Glosston, scheduled for July 17. The Gordon, a straight front ranch-style three bedroom home, has 1,009 square feet of actual living area and includes a full bath and a half, has 1,118 square feet of living area and is L-shaped.

Mills plans from 20 to 25 homes in Birch Estates. The homes, themselves, have received the coveted seal of approval from the Building Officials Conference of America and the Federal Housing Administration.

The grand opening of Birch Estates is scheduled for a date near the end of August, Mills reported. Exclusive Sales will be in the hands of J. L. Hudson Real Estate Co., 340 S. Main St., Plymouth.

The deepest oil well ever drilled in Texas went down 21,697 feet on University of Texas land in Pecos County. The drilling was done in 1957 at a cost of 1.2 million dollars, but it was a dry hole.

Chair is 50c Auction Find

Attending auctions, particularly country ones, is a popular pastime for summer weekends and vacations. It's a rare person who leaves an auction without having done some bidding and perhaps being successful in coming away with one or two coveted items.

A bid at an auction may be inspired by sentiment, the article reminding the bidder of some childhood treasure. The collector of pressed glass, old china or any sort of antique cannot always be certain of the value of the article up for auction until it can be brought home and checked. The successful bidder may find his lot to be either a "white elephant" or a real treasure.

The chair pictured is an example of a "find" at an auction in New Hampshire. It was bought for 50 cents. The man who bid successfully for it spends some of his leisure time restoring furniture and so was shrewd enough to note the good lines of the chair concealed by coats of paint and an inappropriate seat cover.

The chair is the type known as a slipper chair. That is, it is lower than the average straight back or side chair. It's of the simple "country" or "cottage" style made in quantity between 1840 and 1870.

When the new owner began removing the finish, he found under the top layers of paint a striped and dirty looking stain. This stain, which was used on cheaper wood to simulate rosewood popular during Victorian days, was so bad that it too had to be removed. The chair proved to be made of pine.

VICTORIAN slipper chair (1840-1870) bought for 50 cents at an auction and restored to fresh beauty by its new owner.

Steps in restoring the chair were painting the chair a dull black and caning the seat, both of which were done by the new owner. An artist friend painted the gilt decoration freehand. The amount of time and skill spent to restore this chair represented much more, estimated in dollars and cents, than its 50-cent purchase price. The attractive chair, however, is something to display proudly.

Small, Large Budgets Can Finance Gadgets

"Anything that makes life easier costs money," said a housewife who was queried about appliances to ease her work in summer. Whether the family budget will stretch to $100 or only $10, either price range includes appliances that take the heat out of the summer.

Electric appliances reduce the necessary time and keep the housewife cooler for many a laundry, cleaning and cooking chore. One woman, for example, considers her dishwashing machine "a real jewel" during hot weather, while another one votes it down on the grounds that paper plates and cups are appropriate for so many summer meals.

For informal or formal dining, the electric rotisserie is a coveted appliance. It keeps the cook cool yet produces hot meat in minimum time for a ravenous family. That's because roasting a leg of lamb, beef, duck, chicken, or a small turkey is completely automatic. There's no opening of a hot oven door to roast or cook on a spit and midget electric broilers to accommodate a small steak or hamburgers.

New this year, and an improvement, is the rotisserie oven which can be used for baking pies and cakes as well as for cooking meats. This includes a thermostat for oven control as well as a timer. In spite of all it can accomplish, this appliance is only 22 inches long and 14½ inches deep so it can be placed on a kitchen counter or a table outdoors.

If there are waterproof outlets, several of these electric cooking appliances can be used as conveniently outdoors as in the kitchen. This advantage applies to the electric skillet (under $15) as well as to the rotisserie. Electric saucepans and teakettles are also available.

The family that includes children — who always are thirsty — or that entertains a great deal might find an ice crusher or a juicer a joy. Ice crushers to plug into an outlet and supply small pieces of ice without having to hammer or chop may be had for around $5 or in a more dressy appearance for nearer to $15. Appliances to squeeze juice from fresh fruit are around $10, in comparison to the blenders that can be used for vegetables as well as fruits, and run closer to $40.

To save frayed tempers as well as to feed a large family faster, the modern three-slice electric toaster could be a worthwhile investment this summer. It will pay its way in winter too.

With heat and humidity making housekeeping more work, it isn't always the electric appliance that leaves a person time to enjoy living. Once a woman has learned how to use it, the electric ironer or mangle saves time and energy. There are small, portable ones and small portable washers that may be desired for summer homes. But, in the interests of comfort while working, a good substitute could be the new ironing board which permits a person to sit down while doing this weekly chore (under $15).

No Strain to Stain Removal

It's easy to remove summer stains from fabrics when you know the tricks, according to Edna Ohlert, Detroit Edison Home Service Adviser.

"Treat the stains as soon as possible after they occur," says Mrs. Ohlert. "Stains that have dried or have been set by laundering may be very difficult or impossible to remove."

Fruit and berry stains in washable fabrics may be removed by pouring boiling water on the stain from a height of 3 to 4 feet. For stubborn stains use a hydrogen peroxide solution. After removing the stain, wash the fabric. Non-washable fabrics should be sponged with warm water, then with hydrogen peroxide or household ammonia.

If ice cream stains a washable fabric, sponge it with cold or lukewarm water, then wash in warm suds. Sponging with carbon tetrachloride will remove ice cream stains from non-washable materials.

Dishwashers Sharpen Up

The modern kitchen becomes more efficient every day but it becomes more attractive, too. The 1958 kitchen is a far cry from the sterile-looking operating rooms that were the fad in the 1930's.

Today, paneling and color and genuine comfort have replaced the stark white of years back. Increasingly, we've made a sentimental journey back to grandmother's kitchen. But our kitchens have eliminated the drudgery of grandmother's. If we're imaginative, we can produce food every bit as good as hers in about half the time.

The under-counter dishwasher is an idea that is dear to many women. Lately, new panels with a 30-inch under-counter dishwasher have been introduced with a choice of brushed chrome, antique copper or dark and light wood finishes. There's a whole range of color choices too — pink, yellow, turquoise, brown and white.

In the dishwasher, there's enough room for glasses, silver and dishes for three meals a day. Once the unit is closed, mother can go into the livingroom and forget about the whole thing.

Homemakers Convention

About 1,200 Michigan homemakers will soon put aside their aprons and forget about housework for a few days. They'll do so to attend the 31st Annual Homemakers' Conference July 22 to 25 held on the Michigan State University campus.

Women from all over the state explains Mrs. Leona MacLeod, state home demonstration leader, are welcome to this event. It is for urban women as well as rural, and is not restricted to home demonstration group members. You can attend the conference all four days or you can enjoy it as a day visitor.

When you're doing housework, combine details or leave them out whenever practical. Serving food in a baking dish, using prepared mixes and folding sheets and towels without ironing are just a few ways of saving time and steps.

Store things you use most on shelves where you can get them without stooping or stretching. This helps lessen fatigue and saves time.

Cut tops off root vegetables such as carrots and beets before you wash and store them. Leave about 1 inch of stem.

Watermelon Bowl

Fill a Watermelon Punch Bowl with an Iced Tea Fruit Punch to make a colorful and decorative setting for an outdoor party.

A watermelon is an ideal base for a do-it-yourself punch bowl. And a tea concentrate is just perfect as a base for a variety of fruit punches.

WATERMELON TEA PUNCH

- (Makes 30-40 punch cup servings)
- 4 cups boiling water
- 1-3 cup loose tea
- ½ cup crushed mint leaves
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 can apricot delight
- 1 cup pineapple juice
- ½ cup lemon juice
- ½ watermelon, cut lengthwise
- Watermelon meat, cut in cubes
- 1 quart chilled sparkling water
- Mint leaves

Bring water to a full rolling boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat. Immediately add tea and crushed mint leaves. Brew 5 minutes. Stir and strain into container. Add sugar. Stir until dissolved. Cool. Add fruit juices and watermelon meats. Chill. When ready to serve, place block of ice or ice cubes in watermelon shell. Pour punch over ice. Add sparkling water. Serve in punch cup with sprig of mint.

An under-counter dishwasher typifies the modern kitchen where color has replaced the past sterile white.

'Romance' Comes to New Furniture

CHICAGO — (UP) — Furniture designers have mixed the old world and the new to create "romantic" furniture for 1958.

The home fashion trend leans to more pronounced blending of the functional elements of modern and contemporary with the warmth and nostalgia of the traditional.

Many manufacturers showed contemporary pieces using old world influences to add elegance in displays at the recent International Home Furnishing Exhibit.

Major foreign influences this year are Oriental and Spanish.

Geometric nail-studded doors on cabinets reflect the Moorish influence in 16th Century Spanish furniture. Graceful wood turnings of a Portuguese doorway inspire bed foot-boards. Panel work of the Dutch renaissance influences drawers of dressers and chests.

More Exposed Wood Early American comes out in catkin-back chairs, saw-buck tables, and four-poster beds.

Gas Incineration

ENJOY...A CLEANER HEALTHIER HOME Go Modern with Gas!

Dispose of garbage and trash automatically without going outdoors to a smelly, unsanitary garbage can or trash burner.

Now, for a few cents a day, you can get rid of that unsightly garbage can with its flies and vermin.

Today's automatic gas incinerators consume garbage, papers, trash...anything except metal or glass, quickly, safely and economically without the slightest trace of smoke or odor.

The new smokeless, odorless gas incinerators are designed to meet the stiff requirements set by the American Gas Association. By meeting these standards the incinerators are completely acceptable in communities which restrict the use of conventional burners.

Ask your Gas Appliance Dealer to tell you more about automatic incinerators. The low cost will surprise you!

51 YEARS IN NORTHVILLE

The City Manager's Corner

By Al Glassford

All too frequently newspapers carry the tragic stories of disasters coming from the skies in the form of a black funnel-shaped cloud. This natural phenomena—the tornado—is responsible for hundreds of deaths each year.

Unfortunately little can be done to protect property or structures, however, there are definite procedures that should be followed to insure personal safety. Before the need arises each individual should plan what he would do in the event of a tornado.

There is no universal protection against tornadoes except caves or underground excavations. In the absence of these natural shelters a basement will provide good protection.

Modern communications have made it possible to alert the areas that might be hit by tornadoes. The federal government's weather bureaus will notify those areas where weather conditions might develop into tornadoes. This notification puts into action the local tornado plan. Upon receiving word from advanced tornado observers that a tornado is imminent, the siren shall be sounded for one continuous blast. If the main siren is out of order, police sirens and fire engine sirens shall be used in the same manner. The siren shall be sounded only upon sighting a tornado funnel near by. When danger has passed the all-clear signal shall be given. This signal will consist of three one-minute blasts of the siren separated by two minutes of silence.

The action taken by every individual within the few minutes between the sounding of the alert siren and the impact of the tornado may decide between life and death. A tornado may strike any time and any place, so it is well to know what to do in any situation.

If you are in a city or town seek shelter inside a strong, reinforced building. Be careful to stay away from windows, as they are likely to shatter under the impact of the tornado. For greatest safety in the home, the southwest corner of a basement offers the most protection. For people without the best places to seek protection are storm cellars or other depressions in the earth. To reduce damage to buildings the doors and windows on the north and east sides may be opened.

If you are in the country move at right angles to the tornado's path, however, if there isn't time to avoid the path of the tornado, lie flat in the nearest depression, such as a ditch or ravine. Do not stay in your car if you are in one at the time.

It is important to keep calm. After the all-clear signal is given don't tie up the telephone unless to report an emergency situation. The telephone lines should be left open to permit the communications that will be necessary to carry out the emergency relief operations immediately after the disaster.

As of July 8, 1958 the city has in effect an ordinance which regulates the giving, selling, renting or lending of air guns, slingshots or bows and arrows to any person under 16 years of age.

It is now unlawful to sell, rent, lend or otherwise transfer any of the above mentioned items to any person under 16 years of age. The only exceptions are in the cases where the relationship is one of parent and child, guardian and ward, or an adult instructor and pupil relationship.

The possession of air guns, slingshots, bows and arrows by persons under 16 years of age is lawful only if it is kept in his home. The use of these same articles is lawful only if the person under 16 years of

The largest field to start in the Michigan Mile, 14 in the 1955 running of the classic, necessitated the use of two starting gates wired to the same electrical starter mechanism. The standard-sized gate has 12 stalls.

Drivers Injured as Car, Truck Collide in Salem

Mrs. Agnes Reed, 60 of 6490 Seven Mile Rd. and truck driver, John Heinrich, 30, of Wayne were injured when Mrs. Reed's car skidded into Heinrich's truck to avoid hitting two cars stopped by the side of Seven Mile Rd. Thursday, July 3.

Mrs. Reed was driving west on Seven Mile Rd. when she noticed two vehicles sitting at the side of the road at the bottom of a hill. When she applied the brakes, her car swerved into the oncoming truck driven by Heinrich. The truck is owned by the Michigan Industrial Hardware Co., of Detroit.

Mrs. Reed sustained lacerations on her left knee, a broken hand and elbow and internal injuries. Heinrich received cuts on the ear and head and fractured ribs. Both were taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital.

Upon questioning both drivers and a witness, it was agreed that the parked vehicles were the cause of the accident. No one observed the license numbers or make of the cars, which drove away immediately. The witness was Lois Earley of Northville, who was driving approximately 50 ft. behind Mrs. Reed's car at the time of the accident.

Fails to Make Curve
James Reid Paterson, 18, of 2065 Wakenden Ave. in Detroit, driving a 1953 Plymouth, was traveling east on Seven Mile Rd. Tuesday evening, July 1 at 10:15 p.m. at approximately 50 m.p.h. when he lost control of his car at the Angle Rd. intersection. His car hit a tree and knocked over two mailboxes, rolling the car over on its side. Approximately $500 damage was done to the vehicle.

Neither the driver or passenger Judith Tomecek, 15, of 16103 Wakenden, were injured in the accident.

Hits stopped Car
Floyd A. Kehrl of 41325 Eight Mile Rd., Northville, driving a 1958 Ford west on North Territorial Rd. on Sunday afternoon, July 5 hit the rear of a car owned and driven by Lawrence L. Jones of 2412 Fourth St., Trenton which had stopped. No injuries were reported.

Court Cases
Court Cases heard July 1 in the Salem Justice Court, Justice William Kelly presiding were:

James Gibbs, West Six Mile Rd., Northville, fined $20 and put on one year probation for drinking and driving. Clinton Maslin, Northville, fined $20 for being drunk and disorderly. David Radatz of Detroit, fined $15 for speeding; and Laudun J. Ogden, fined $50 and put on one year probation for drunk driving.

Let's Do Something About 'Nuisance' Law Suits

BY DAVID M. WOOD

For a number of years the municipalities of this country have been plagued with what has come to be called the "nuisance suit." I define a nuisance suit to be a suit brought to attack the validity of an issue of State and municipal bonds with no expectation of winning the suit but merely for the purpose of preventing the sale of the bonds, or a suit in which the defendant in his answer attacks the validity of a bond issue for similar reasons.

It is well known that investment bankers are reluctant to take delivery of State and municipal bonds when litigation is pending involving either the validity of the bonds or the means provided for their payment. Persons who have ulterior motives take advantage of this situation by filing a suit; often on the most frivolous grounds.

These suits are filed very often to force the municipality to locate the proposed improvement at some site other than that which has been selected; to force an advantageous settlement of some claim against the municipality, or merely in an effort to thwart the will of a majority of the voters of the municipality.

Sometimes a frivolous attack is made upon a bond issue by the defendant in a suit brought by the municipality. If the municipality has a bond sale pending the defendant in his answer raises some question which he believes will alarm the bond dealers and so embarrass the municipality in its efforts to sell the bonds.

He expects to exploit this situation to compel the municipality to dismiss the suit or to make a settlement on terms favorable to him. These tactics have been resorted to recently by defendants in condemnation proceedings.

One of the more serious types of nuisance suits is that which is filed to accomplish a political purpose. In these cases what is sought is to discredit in the eyes of the voters the officers of the municipality then in office.

An organized, well financed group has been known to keep litigation of this sort pending for a long period of time.

It has always amazed me that the public, the legislatures, and even the courts themselves, appear to be quite tolerant of this use of the judicial process for the purpose of blackmail. If the filing of a nuisance suit were a rare occurrence I could understand this apathy.

But the filing of such suits is by no means a rare occurrence. Many municipalities, in recent years, have been thwarted or delayed in their efforts to finance some badly needed public improvement by litigation of this character. This has been true even when the validity of the bond issue had previously been sustained not only by the higher court of the State, but even by the Supreme Court of the United States.

When one suit is disposed of another is filed in the name of some other plaintiff. As a rule, there is no difficulty in getting a court order dismissing these suits, but it usually takes anywhere from one month to six months to get the motion to dismiss on the calendar and ruled upon by the court, and just as soon as the order of dismissal is signed by the judge a new suit is filed.

Many attempts have been made in the past to cope with this situation. Some States have passed statutes requiring any action contesting the validity of the bonds to be brought within a short period after the bond issue has been authorized. Other States have enacted laws providing for the approval of the validity of the bonds by the Attorney General, or other State officials, which laws declare that such approvals shall be conclusive.

Some States have provided for the institution of proceedings in the courts to obtain a judicial decree as to the validity of the bonds, and some have required the posting of a bond before a suit attacking the validity of a bond issue may be instituted. None of these expedients has proven to be effective.

Nuisance suits are filed despite them. The facts that the existence of such statutory procedures may make it inevitable that the suit is going to be dismissed as soon as the motion to dismiss can be heard by the court, does not disturb, at all, the person bringing the suit.

The suit gets on the calendar and until it is dismissed and an appeal from the order of dismissal is also dismissed or decided, or the time to appeal has expired, there is litigation pending which will deter a purchaser of the bonds from taking delivery of them. The trouble with all of these expedients is that they do not provide any penalty for the filing of the nuisance suit.

I believe that unless penalties are imposed upon the persons who file nuisance suits, we can expect them to be filed. In attempts to impose penalties upon persons who file suits, however, we are confronted with the fact that not every suit brought to attack the validity of an issue of bonds, or the means provided for its payment, is a nuisance suit.

Where a citizen believes that he has a legitimate ground on which to attack the validity of a public bond issue he should be able to go into court and have his suit adjudicated, and he should not be confronted with unreasonable restrictions upon instituting such legitimate litigation. That is the weakness inherent in the idea to require a litigant to post a bond before he may bring a suit attacking a public bond issue.

To be effective the bond must be substantial in amount. If the size of the bond is sufficient to prevent the filing of nuisance suits, will it not also prevent the filing of legitimate suits? The great problem, therefore, is how do you separate the sheep from the goats?

Of course there are cases which present no doubt. If the suit simply attempts to re-litigate matters which have already been adjudicated it is obviously a nuisance suit. Many times, however, it is not so apparent that the suit is not brought in good faith. Certainly the court cannot know whether it is a frivolous suit until it has had an opportunity to examine the pleadings and hear the plaintiff.

Consequently, the suit must be placed on the calendar to be heard in due course. When it finally gets before the court and it is decided adversely to the plaintiff, the same problem arises with respect to a new suit.

An astute lawyer will see to it that the new suit is brought in the name of a new plaintiff who raises a new question which could have been perhaps, with malice aforethought was not. The courts, quite correctly, are most reluctant to assume that a suit filed with it is not brought by a citizen who believes that he has a legitimate cause of action.

Accordingly, any procedure devised to check the filing of nuisance suits clearly must not close the door of the courts to any citizen who has, or believes he has, a legitimate cause of action.

I believe that it is practicable to devise a procedure which would give every citizen an opportunity to voice, in a court of competent jurisdiction, any legitimate claim which he might assert against the validity of an issue of public securities or the means provided for their payment, and at the same time check the filing of nuisance suits.

Suppose that the law of any State should permit any municipality to institute a suit in a court of competent jurisdiction to obtain an adjudication of the validity of a proposed bond issue and of the means provided for its payment, and which would make provision for all taxpayers and other interested persons to be parties to that suit.

Any person who had a legitimate grievance could then appear in the proceeding and get his claim decided by the court.

No one could contend that the doors of the court are closed to citizens having a meritorious cause of action. In order to prevent persons from attempting to adjudicate questions involving the bond issue in some other proceeding, the court entertaining the validation proceeding should have power to consolidate any such suits with the validation proceeding, if they were pending at the time the validation proceeding was instituted, and the court would also have to have the power, as a first step in the validation proceeding, to enjoin the filing of any other suits involving the bonds or the means provided for their payment.

Under such circumstances the court, in a single proceeding, could render a judicial determination of all questions involving the bond issue.

(Editor's Note: Public officials throughout this area constantly are forced to plan almost any progressive move with the knowledge that somebody is apt to tie up their action with a law suit. The courts, of course, exist for the protection of individuals, but many citizen suits these days are not aimed at anything except harassment of public officials. Some are based on entirely selfish motives and are not in the general public interest — and the complainers don't even pretend they are.

(Just last week, thousands of home-owners in southern Livonia and Redford Township were informed their refunds on the ill-fated Livonia-Sherwood-Ashcroft drain project would be delayed "for months" because two attorneys had appealed a Circuit Court decision to State Supreme Court.

(These attorneys are asking, with a straight face, for the court to award them $75,000 in "legal fees" for their "services" in originally attacking the drain project on behalf of citizens. They have no chance of winning, and in the meantime they are hurting thousands of their neighbors and stalling new drain projects.

(But that suit is only one example. Today we are printing an excellent analysis of this whole problem of "nuisance suits" written by David M. Wood of New York and delivered to the Municipal Finance Officers Association annual conference recently. These "nuisance suits" are poison and warrant thought by all of us.)

If your Name Is 'Raymond'

By ANN REYNOLDS, PH. D.
It is amazing how many of our given names have their roots in the ancient Teutonic language. "Raymond" is one of these; the elements that went into forming it were "ragan", which is "counsel" or "might", and "mund" meaning "protection". This makes "Raymond" mean approximately "wise protection".

Although Raymond was never as popular as Tom, Dick or Harry, it has kept its place among our first names for close to 1,000 years, ever since the Normans brought it across the English Channel from the Continent of Europe.

In some families it became a tradition to name a son "Raymond"; among the Counts of Toulouse, for instance. One Raymond, Count of Toulouse was celebrated in "Jerusalem Delivered", written by the great Italian poet Torquato Tasso, as a hero of the First Crusade, and a gallant knight. A namesake of this Raymond, of the same noble family, was offered the crown of Jerusalem; he refused, in favor of Godfrey of Bouillon. The famous painter and lithographer Toulouse-Lautrec had "Raymond" among his three given names, his full name having been Henri Marie Raymond de Toulouse-Lautrec-Monfa. Sir Walter Scott, who popularized a great number of first names by using them for his characters, called one of them "Raymond", in his "Count of Paris". A French novel by Louis Aime Martin, added also to disseminating "Raymond". This work, published in Paris in 1812, is remarkable for us because its action takes place in part in America during the Revolutionary War.

We encounter Raymond also as a place name. France, Canada, and the U.S. have towns so named. Raymond is in Hinds County, Mississippi. On May 12, 1863, part of Grant's army defeated the Confederates. Another Raymond is in Pacific County, Washington State, named for its first postmaster whose last name was Raymond.

"Life Begins at Forty"

By ROBERT PETERSON

BOYNTON BEACH, FLA.—A legendary lament among retirees concerns their inability to find work to supplement their pensions. But Royal Hottenroth, 69, claims there's work available as long as a man's able to pound a hammer or push a paint brush.

"I used to be a sales analyst," said Hottenroth, who lives in a neat pink-and-white stucco home on Fourth Court Street. "We moved here when I retired four years ago. I have a small pension from my firm and we get $142 in social security.

"We bought this house for $9,000," he said. "We paid a third down and are paying off the balance at the rate of $50 a month. It was just a shell when we bought it, which meant we had to finish the interior. I'd always enjoyed carpentry work so I decided to do the work myself. I really enjoyed it." He pointed out some of the cabinets he made, the wall of polished bamboo he installed between the kitchen and living room, and the louvered porch he built on the back of the house.

"I hated to finish the job as I figured that from then on I'd be sitting around twiddling my thumbs. I'd heard it was tough finding work in retirement. But I'd barely finished when neighbors were asking if I'd do work for them. I've been busy ever since building kitchen cabinets, sun porches, and carports, and painting everything from fences to flower pots. I have to watch myself to keep from making more than $1,200 a

Hard Times and Harder Heads

Like a sturdy ship tossed by a storm, the U. S. economy now shows signs of righting itself. The recession still is felt, and the economy has survived, but the things that brought on the recession still are with us.

Congress, reassured too soon, has turned a deaf ear to the pleas that the high tax rates have interfered with business expansion. When the increase in the number of people who need jobs passes the rate of business expansion which would give them jobs we will have mounting unemployment again.

And nothing has been done about the power of monopoly unions to force wage increases higher than the gains in productivity warrant. That means that we are in for new rounds of wage increases.

And that in turn means that goods will be costlier than people are able or willing to pay, and that consumer resistance will again become a problem.

There are many who have learned no lessons from the recession of 1938.

Town Crier: M. Chiang Kai-shek Charms Interviewers During Ann Arbor Visit

GL. 3-2340
By Gloria Bowles
(Covering the area along Sheldon to Ann Arbor Trail, Harvey and Sutherland, including Plymouth Colony, Parklane, Hough Sub., Plymouth Hills, and Ridgewood.)
Because I've been at the University of Michigan since last week on a Journalism course, I haven't had the opportunity to do a regular column. But I have come in contact with some fascinating people who might interest you.
A world-famous personality, Madame Chiang Kai-shek, whose husband is the leader of the Nationalists on Formosa (she calls it Taiwan), arrived in Ann Arbor last Wednesday for a two-day stay. Four students in my group were granted an exclusive interview with Madame Chiang and reported the following:
She is a very attractive woman and looks 20 years younger than her 55. A charming and pleasant personality, Madame was informal throughout the interview and displayed no stiff or uncomfortable qualities.
The students were especially impressed by one thing: Madame made sure of everyone's name before beginning the interview. Her answers were "straight forward, complete and intelligent," were the words of one of the interviewers.
A fashion plate in her own right, Madame wore a gray print dress — conservative yet striking. It was a loose fitting garment, featuring a mandarin collar, and a slit up either side to the knees. The slits and sleeves were trimmed in black. Her only jewelry was a huge pearl ring and matching earrings.
Madame's make up was faultless; her coal black hair was pulled back in a chignon. Accompanying her were the Chinese ambassador, Hollington K. Tong, and her brother-in-law.
Ann Arbor isn't the only town boasting some interesting people — Plymouth's Vernon Muller of Sheldon Rd. certainly takes top honors in that category. A bronze medal for horticultural excellence, a framed award, ribbons, and numerous other prizes are in the hands of Muller, whose garden includes some beautiful specimens in the plant world — tuberous begonias, his favorite chrysanthemums, geraniums (150 strong), thirty or forty rose bushes, plus peach, pear, apple and cherry trees. There are 125 varieties.
The last addition to Muller's garden is a 10 ft. by 15 ft. greenhouse in which Mr. Muller starts or propagates the plants during the winter for planting in the spring and summer.
A "night blooming primrose" is the most fascinating of the plants; shortly before sundown, about 8:00, the yellow buds of the primrose open right before your eyes, the petals fall off, and then a new set of petals repeat the process the following evening. The plant lasts for about six weeks.
Mr. Muller has entered his garden in the annual competition of the Men's Garden Club of Detroit. The contest judges put in an appearance at the gardens several times a year in the various seasons. This Plymouth garden enthusiast entered his prize in the garden contest several years ago when it was in the beginning stages — and placed. So with the strides made by Muller since then he should have an excellent chance for top honors this year.
Three former Texans, now Plymouthites, the Bob Pines, the Truman Felkners, and the A. D. Johansons, were defending their heritage at a 4th of July dinner, following the acceptance of the Alaskan statehood bill by Congress. The three couples were taking quite a ribbing about the fact that Texas will no longer be the biggest state in the union, for Alaska is twice its size. Whereupon Mr. Rice popped up with a typical Texan's excuse: "If all that ice in Alaska would melt, it wouldn't be half so big as Texas!"

Veterans of Foreign Wars

Hospital Chairman Virginia Bartel has planned a trip to the Ann Arbor Veterans Hospital for Monday, July 21. The patients will be entertained with a demonstration of archery and refreshments. Anyone wishing to go please contact Virginia.
Don't forget the Chicken Barbecue at the hall on Sunday, July 27! Get your tickets early. This is open to the public and children will enjoy the play area. The proceeds from this barbecue are to be used towards the purchase of uniforms for the drill teams.
Ground-breaking ceremonies were recently held in Washington for the new National Memorial Building for the Veterans of Foreign Wars. It is to be a five story structure and will house all offices pertaining to veterans affairs. The resolution to build such a memorial was unanimously approved at the 54th National Encampment in Milwaukee, in 1953.
How many of you know that the late Walter Irving Joyce, National Patriotic Instructor in the V.F.W. was the moving force behind the passing of the bill to make The Star-Spangled Banner the national anthem? President Hoover signed it into law on March 4, 1931.

Letters To The Editor

The People of Plymouth o-o The Plymouth Mail Plymouth, Michigan
 Dear Friends:
 Again may I extend my appreciation for the cordial reception and generous hospitality extended to the young men of the Grosse Ile Naval Recruit Training School who visited your community on 4 July 1958.

These young men are drawn from the Michigan, Ohio and Indiana areas during the summer months to receive training as recruits in the Naval Air Reserve Program. They have a full schedule with much to be accomplished and are therefore most appreciative of such well planned and entertaining diversions as the 4th of July celebration in Plymouth.

The recruits and the staff of the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station Training School join in extending thanks for a most entertaining visit.

Anchorage is truly an all-American city and Alaska is certainly the very last frontier.

The celebration started the second the good news was received, but didn't really get underway until the bonfire was lit at 8 p.m. Monday evening. Shortly after, the prayers of thanks were offered by the many residents.

The city later burst with the sound of fireworks and horns. Elmendorf Air Force Base and Fort Richardson Army post took an active part in the celebration.

The people who are residents up here seem very happy to have been admitted to all walks of life. The banker, lawyer, doctor, fisherman, hunter, trapper and even the sourdough still panning for gold.

The city of Anchorage is much like any other. It has the most modern conveniences. It has the mansions, the shacks, beautiful churches and night spots just like you find anywhere.

It sometimes takes a while to get used to the near 23 hours of daylight that you have at this time of year. Even the night isn't very dark.

Sincerely,
 A-2c Kenneth J. Ray

YOUR HANDWRITING TELLS YOUR STORY

With Grapho Analysis
 BY JEAN EVANS

Dear Jean:
 I read your column regularly and would like you to analyze my handwriting. What kind of personality does it show and does it give any indication of what career would be best suited for me after high school? I enjoy writing, traveling, cooking, sports, and sewing.

Sincerely, JUST ME
 Dear JUST ME:
 You are a person who is quick to sympathize with people, caring about their happiness or misfortunes. You are broad-minded and liberal in your views, along with being generous by nature.

You have a creative mind complimented by the facility of manual dexterity which might be expressed anywhere from your creating a delectable concoction in the kitchen to producing a charming gown for your senior prom.

You are best suited for work which will use these natural tendencies which give you the natural desire to create with the hands.

Please analyze the enclosed handwriting samples. What designs does my mother-in-law have on our business and marriage?
 MRS. G. K.
 Your mother-in-law has a keen mind. She is genuinely generous and is interested in other people, with no evidence of selfishness. She shows initiative and desire for advancement. She has pride and is dignified. She will expect perfection whenever possible. With her liking for an argument, these other traits can cause dissension when they are approached from your viewpoint.

There is resentment indicated in your handwriting along with sarcasm and the desire for independence. You also like others and are generous.

Your husband is very analytical which might seem like fault-finding to you and others. He is outspoken and likes to investigate. This combination of traits could cause you to feel that he is "picking" on you while it is only his nature to be inquisitive and find out the "whys" of things and situations.

I am wondering what you can tell me about myself from my handwriting. I have been reading your column since you started.

A READER:
 You like to do things the easy way. You will accept the latest gadgets and appliances which are time and energy savers.

You are a person who is encouraged one day and discouraged the next. You are also self-conscious. Some projects you start are completed with little enthusiasm while you are capable of going overboard about other things in which you are more interested.

You jump to conclusions before you get all the facts and being a person who is sensitive to criticism your feelings are hurt by the remarks of others and you take offense on impulse without waiting to get all the facts.

There is also evidence that you will intentionally withhold the truth to protect others. You do not state your opinions and views frankly because you do not wish to hurt others.

NO HIGHER THAN YOUR HEART—BUT IT'S A TALL TRAVELER!

'58 CHEVROLET! This long, low beauty was born to cover the miles. And you ride relaxed, cushioned by a NEW FULL COIL SUSPENSION that makes any road seem smoother!

Here's an engineering achievement that would have seemed incredible only a few years ago. It's an achievement in comfort—in really superlative comfort and the free-flight feeling of beautifully balanced suspension, whisper-hushed engines and solid-as-Gibraltar Bodies by Fisher.

backed by Chevy's famous roadability, by a new, tough-sprung Safety-Girder frame, by the kind of horizon-wide vision that makes driving safer and surer.

Only superb engineering—Chevrolet engineering—produces just this blend of comfort and security. And only Chevrolet powers it all with sprint engines—ultra-efficient powerplants that jet from idle to all-out in one giant stride. We could fill a book with the reasons why—but why read about what you can feel. Your Chevrolet dealer has a car at the curb, ready for your command!

TERRIFIC BEDDING BUYS!

Famous Stearns and Foster (since 1846) mattresses and box springs. Fill all your bedding needs for years to come at these thrifty prices for Standard Stearns and Foster construction. Seat-edge construction—the edge coils are made of heavier gauge wire to insure against edge-sag. Keeps edges square and shapely.

Insulo-cushion . . . . . A quilted cotton (not sisal) pad next to the spring-unit insures comfort-giving protection against coils working up to surface. Another layer of fluffy cotton felt between that and the ticking. Taped edges. Heavy woven ticking. Air vents give free-flow cross ventilation inside mattress. Four handles for easy turning. Springs in box-springs distributed properly to give smooth even support to mattress springs for long-life and comfort.

FULL or TWIN SIZE BOX SPRING or MATTRESS . . . Only $37<sup>88</sup> Ea.

Heavy duty box springs with medium firm mattresses. 6 sets in twin size only. This is an ideal set for heavier than average people. The box spring gives firm support and the mattress furnishes soft restful comfort.

OF FLOOR COVERING

EXCEPTIONAL SAVINGS! POPULAR STYLES! NEW IDEAS!

NATIONALLY KNOWN CARPETS

*Completely installed with 40 ounce combination padding and tackless installation . . . at these big savings you'll want to buy enough wall-to-wall carpets and rugs for every room in your home.

LEE'S JEWEL TWIST DENSE LOOP PILE —
OUTSTANDING QUALITY AND VALUE

$8.99

Square Yard, Installed

Here's a Lee's blend that really hits the mark for economy, and wear! 50% viscose rayon makes colors strikingly smart, 30% special wools help resist soil and 20% nylon for long wear. And footprints will not show, because of the dense loop pile. Available in color fast sandalwood, rose beige tweed, maple sugar, tropic sand, ambergold, aqua green.

LEE'S DURASET WOOL-&NYLON TWIST
AT MANY DOLLAR SAVINGS

$12.99

Square Yard, installed

Lee's have blended 70% selected wools with 30% virgin nylon into one of the finest carpets made. At this outstanding value, you receive soil resistance, long wear, lustrous colors. Duraset adapts itself easily to any type of decor. Latex back locks in the tufts for extra long wear. Mint green, maple sugar, tropic sand, nutriafern green, snowdrop beige, moonstone beige, antique maple, aqua, cocktail gold. Hurry! Call now and save!

100% ALL-WOOL MOHAWK TRENDTEX

$11.99

Square Yard, installed

Here it is, an incredibly practical carpet that offers you, Mrs. Customer, the most value for your dollar ever! It's carpet you don't have to worry about . . .

- It's GUARANTEED not to shade . . .
- It's DURABILITY is tremendous
- It's AMERICA'S largest selling carpet

This carpet is woven by a unique new process that cuts production costs immensely . . . IN 14 DECORATOR COLORS

BIGELOW STA-LOOP BROADLOOM

LAUGHS AT STAINS!

$6.99

Square Yard, installed

No more "keep off the carpet" signs with this new tweed broadloom! The toughest stains clean right out with everyday household cleansers, and the color won't come out with the stain—even if you have to use bleach. That's because Sta-Loop is made of amazing Stylux carpet rayon with color sealed in.

Sta-Loop's rich town and country tweed hides soil and footprints, too. Its fashionable multicolors provide a beautiful background for any color scheme. And you'll love the smart new look the luscious texture brings to every room! 6 tweed colors to choose from. Extra! Sta-Loop is also mothproof—and highly resistant to mildew, sun fading and salt water bleaching.

PUBLIC NOTICE

Mr. Bernard Ackerly —
Representative of Bigelow will be here Saturdays, July
