

Plan 2nd Round Of Polio Shots

Plans are now being made by the Wayne County Health Department for the second round of polio shots following a first round that saw a total of 2,159 people get their shots in Plymouth.

Two clinics have now been held in Plymouth — one on Oct. 9 that attracted 1,134, and another last Friday night that drew 1,025.

Most of those receiving the shots during the two clinics held at the Plymouth Community Junior High School must have two more shots to complete the series. The Health Department expects to set two dates in November for the second round.

The third shots will be six or seven months from now.

Announcement of when the second shots are available is expected to be made next week.

A trip through Herman Kiefer Hospital's Pavilion VI where every bed is occupied by a polio patient and rows of iron lungs stand side by side, would make interest in the vaccine centers reach fever heat. Forty four families in the county have had more than one member stricken, according to Donald W. Barton, administrator of the Wayne County chapter of the March of Dimes.

He said that one family had four children hospitalized with polio but, luckily, it was non-paralytic. Three of the children had had their Salk shots and the baby who had been considered "too young" also had no paralysis. Three members were stricken in 7 families and there have been 38 families where two members had polio.

"We urge everyone, of every age, to get protection from polio," Barton said. "Don't stop with one shot. Get the first two and 7 to 10 months get the third. What has happened in Wayne County this

Guild Opens Play Season Next Week

For the past five weeks, 50 Plymouth Theater Guild members have been at work on stage and backstage putting "Bell, Book, and Candle" in shape for its opening night next week — Thursday, October 30. The Guild's first production will play three nights (October 30, 31, and November 1) in the Plymouth High School Auditorium.

"Bell, Book and Candle" is a mixture of fun, fantasy, and frenetic fooling-around. The story basically concerns a lovely witch — Roz Russell played the part when the show came to Detroit a couple of seasons ago — that has more love problems than a normal woman deserves. And Gillian, the witch, is far from normal. Her adventures with Shep, the man upstairs, puts this production into the realm of adult entertainment.

Loretta Young, Ray Wise, Bob Lucchetti, Sam Davis, and Marie Bowers have featured roles in this comedy about the amours of a witch on the loose for a victim or two to catch in a clever ruse.

This year the Theatre Guild has sold memberships in the organization which also includes free admission to all three plays for the year. Phyllis Kelly, membership chairman, reports that over 200 people are now enrolled as members. Some 140 of the members are listed this week in an advertisement for "Bell, Book and Candle" found elsewhere in this issue.

SIDEWALK SUPERINTENDENTS are having quite a season in Plymouth nowadays with three large projects going on at the same time. This is the widening and paving project of Ann Arbor Trail, from Main to Harvey. Other projects are South Main St. and Sheldon Rd. This shot, taken from the Mayflower Hotel, shows the pouring of sidewalks along the widened street. Concrete has been laid and asphalt is next.

Whitman-Barnes Advises Slow Down of Incorporation Program

An appeal to voters to slow down and "take it easy" before jumping into any annexation or incorporation programs, was made this week by Edward W. Zipse, executive vice-president and general manager of Whitman & Barnes, one of Plymouth Township's large taxpayers.

The statement followed closely an announcement last week from Burroughs Corporation President R. Ray Eppert who also urged serious study of the matter before it is too late to turn back.

Zipse, a resident of the city of Plymouth, not only advised those concerned to move slowly and carefully, but also cautioned that an increase in the tax rate for Whitman & Barnes would also adversely affect their competitive position.

Whitman & Barnes, makers of twist drills for industry, is one of the four major industries in Plymouth Township located along "factory row" on Plymouth Rd. It was opened in 1948.

It is still not a certainty that the proposition of incorporating a portion of Plymouth Township as the City of Plymouth Heights will be on the ballot. The Wayne County Board of Supervisors is expected to decide the matter in mid-November.

But the powerful Ways and Means Committee of the board has recommended the date of February 16 for the incorporation election, and the general board nearly always follows the committee's recommendations.

It is proposed to form a city of township land located east of McClumpha Rd.

Many Candidates To Invade Town

With the 1958 general election only a dozen days away, both the Republican and Democratic organizations of Plymouth are making plans for pre-election rallies that will bring many of their candidates on county, state and national levels here.

Republicans are having a dance and rally tomorrow night (Friday) at the V.F.W. Hall, while Democrats will have their rally next Thursday night, Oct. 30, in the Veterans Memorial Building.

Governor G. Mennen Williams has indicated that he will attend the Democratic rally while Republicans are hoping that their gubernatorial candidate, Paul Bagwell, will also be able to make an appearance.

Both candidates for governor have been hard on the campaign trail. Neither have made campaign stops in Plymouth as yet, but Bagwell was here last June for a primary campaign dinner with Republicans and Williams was last here on July 4th.

The Republican Rally will begin at 8:30 tomorrow. Robert Wilson, GOP coordinator, states that most candidates for state and county slates will be here to meet the public. Refreshments will be served.

Republicans opened a headquarters at 271 S. Main St. and are continuing their neighborhood dollar drive. On Friday noon, Don Brown, the lieutenant governor candidate; Luke Miel, 17th district U.S. Representative candidate; and Sterling Eaton, state representative candidate, will be in Plymouth actively campaigning.

The Democratic rally at the Veterans Memorial Center, next to the high school, will begin at 8:30 o'clock. Featured with Gov. Williams will be Lt. Gov. Phillip A. Hart, candidate for U.S. senator; Congresswoman Mar-

Children to Seek Funds for UNICEF

Future Homemakers of America will be "begging" for funds for UNICEF (United Nations International Children's Educational Fund) on Thursday evening, Oct. 30, between the hours of 6:30-7:30 p.m. This fund provides education for the underprivileged children of the world.

Sews, Sings and Paints Too

Piano Tuner Still Much in Demand at 93

By Kathie Mull Lusk
Clarence E. Stevens, of 240 N. Harvey St., doesn't want much flowery said about him.

He thinks he's just an average gentleman . . . averaging on 93!

But others in Plymouth consider him most special for reasons hereby recounted:
He's been an in-demand piano tuner for the last 50 years and is still in business.

He keeps four men roomers in his home . . . sort of a "bachelor's hall," except they are widowers.

Last spring he bought a new sewing machine and can sew anything.

He painted his home himself last year.

He sings in the Presbyterian Church choir.

He's a handsome figure of a man, straight, slim with twinkling blue eyes behind glasses, sharp mind and wit to match.

Mr. Stevens, who'll be 93 years old this November 23 was born in 1865 on the corner of Canton Center and Ford Rd. This family property has long been sold.

When he was six his family moved to Ridge Rd., four miles west of Plymouth. He studied organ here in Plymouth and voice and piano in Detroit.

For 12 years he taught public school and private music (voice and piano) in Greensburg, Pa. between 1903-1915. It was during this period that he taught himself how to tune pianos . . . "I thought it would be a good thing to know to fall back on."

And since 1915 he's been "falling back" on this trade. He moved to Ann Arbor that year and earned a livelihood at this, supporting his wife, the late Jean Naly, and two daughters.

In 1937 he and family returned to his father's home on Harvey, which has been his residence ever since. His wife Jean, whom he married in 1903, passed away in 1946. His two daughters are now in east and west parts of the country — daughter Mrs. Virginia MacPeck lives in New Brunswick, N. J. Daughter Mrs. Dorothy Collier is in Klamath Falls, Ore. He has one grandchild, Water MacPeck, 15.

Before this marriage, Mr. Stevens had been married in 1900 to Grace Hawley of Detroit. She lived but two years.

Mr. Stevens' good friend and roomer, Robert Noblett, himself a young 83 years old, drives him around now since he quit driving two years ago. Mr. Stevens has a little eye trouble.

Living with him also are Andrew Woniak, who works at Ford, and Frank Wood, retired.

ONE OF THE LAST of the old-time piano tuners is Plymouth's Clarence E. Stevens, of 240 N. Harvey St. Going on 93 years old, he spent an hour Tuesday afternoon, tuning the baby grand piano in Dunning-Hough library, one of his regular "tuning" accounts. People come from all over and pick him up to tune their pianos because of his excellent reputation.

Building Program Studied

Board Must Make Decision On High School Future Soon

A study of the needs for new junior and senior high school facilities was opened by the Plymouth board of education Monday night and it appears that if the board intends to keep classroom facilities up with enrollment, they must make a decision within the next few months.

Board President Austin Stecker called the special meeting solely for the purpose of looking into the building needs. It was pointed out that under normal growth, there would be a need for another junior high and another senior high for 1961 or 1962.

Should this be true, planning for financing and construction of these buildings would need to start almost immediately.

The board arrived at these three alternatives:

1. Construct a new and larger senior high for grades 10, 11 and 12 and convert the present senior high for junior high use.

2. Construct a new building that would temporarily serve both some junior and senior high students. Later, a new senior high would be built, which along with the old high school, would house all high school students.

3. Build a new senior high now and use the old building for a junior high. When a second senior high is needed, the old building would be reconverted for senior high and a new junior high must be built.

Some shifting in the high school population will start next fall. Several years ago it was decided to make the ninth grade part of the junior high system. But even with the new junior high, there still isn't room for them.

Next September the board will move 150 out of the 400 freshmen to the junior high. When more junior high facilities become available, all freshmen will be in junior high buildings. Enrollment at the new junior high next fall will be around 940, bringing it up to capacity.

Normally, it takes two junior high schools to service one high school, according to Superintendent Russell Isbister. The cost of the present junior high was $1,700,000. Cost of a high school would be at least $3,000,000 depending upon the capacity and what specialized facilities are needed.

The board must decide what capacity of high school it wants (probably somewhere between 1,500 to 2,000) and also where it should be built.

According to planners, the Plymouth area will have a population of around 20,000 by 1960, 30,000 by 1970 and 77,000 by 1980.

Right now, it appears that the northeast section of the school district will grow the fastest. The board believes that 5,000 homes will eventually be located in that area. This may mean that a junior high must be built there, in addition to another elementary building.

The superintendent reports that the school population increases at six percent a year. Several large housing projects can make this figure jump within a few years.

Next Monday the board will meet again to give the problem further study.

Fund Campaign Lags with Only 16 Percent of Goal

Plymouth's Community Fund is still a long way from the goal this week with only 16 percent of the needed $33,537 reported yesterday. The fund lies $27,812 away from the goal.

Community Fund Board President Thomas Rossettie declared that he fully expected some lag this year because of the recession, "but certainly not this much of a lag." As a result, he has called a special meeting of the Community Fund Board of Directors next Tuesday night to determine what steps can be taken to encourage and hurry donations.

Plymouth's Community Fund officially opened a week ago Tuesday with $3,000 already contributed. During the first full week of the campaign, only $2,725 more has been turned in.

Fund Treasurer John Pint points out that only a few industries and businesses have made their donations so far, accounting for much of the lag.

Campaign chairman this year is Carl Shear, who said that the board of directors is stressing the method by which Plymouthites working elsewhere can contribute through their place of employment.

This can be accomplished by writing on the back of the United Foundation card: "Please credit to the Plymouth Community Fund." Then, to double check the gift, the donor should send in the Plymouth Community Fund pledge card mailed to him and state that a certain amount has been donated to his place of employment. (Be sure to name employer and sign own name and address). These are the local Community Fund Agencies and the amount designated for each:

Boy Scouts, $5,175; Girl Scouts, $3,100; Salvation Army, $6,000; Visiting Nurse Association, $1,400; Veterans Memorial Center, $1,700; Plymouth Dental Fund, $700; American Red Cross, $3,800; Plymouth Cancer Society, $3,292; Junior Police, $4,054.

In addition, $4,375 (15 percent of the goal) is to be given to 20 United Health and Welfare agencies through the United Foundation. They are:

R. B. Jackson Memorial Laboratory (cancer research), Leader Dogs for the Blind, Michigan Association for Better Hearing, Michigan Epilepsy Center, Michigan Heart Association, Michigan Chapter of Arthritis & Rheumatism Foundation, Michigan Welfare League, Community Service Organizations, United Cerebral Palsy Association of Michigan, United Defense Fund, USO, United Health & Welfare Fund, USO of Metropolitan Detroit, Michigan League for Nursing.

Also, National Recreation Association, Michigan Society for Mental Health, United Seaman's Service, Michigan Welfare League, Community Service Organizations, United Cerebral Palsy Association of Michigan, United Defense Fund, USO, United Health & Welfare Fund, USO of Metropolitan Detroit. NEWS BEAT

Police Halt Morning Stroller

It was 1:30 a.m. Friday when Jack Miller, clerk at the Hotel Mayflower looked out and saw a small, blue-eyed, blonde boy walking down Ann Arbor Trail in his pink pajamas. He called police. Patrolmen desperately tried to find out his name or address — but without success. Putting the youngster in the police car, he was driven up and down neighboring streets but he couldn't identify his home and police saw no one looking for a boy. Finally they brought him to police station where he spent the night sleeping on a chair. At 7:40 a.m. the police phone rang with an excited mother, Mrs. Roy Chance, 331 Maple, reporting a missing boy. "We had forgotten to lock the back door," Mrs. Chance said, "and evidently Robbie (2 years and 8 months old) was walking in his sleep because he's afraid of the dark. No one heard him leave." While the Chances still shudder at the incident, the whole thing has already been forgotten by Robbie.

UNPOPULAR JOB: Some merchants are unhappy with the many paving jobs that are going on at the same time, making it impossible to reach some businesses except on foot. Some homeowners too find it difficult to tell visitors how to reach their homes. The Main St. and Ann Arbor Trail jobs are scheduled for completion by Nov. 15 but the streets should be open before that time.

TAKE CARE: Police are asking parents to warn their youngsters of the dangers involved by slipping into sewers for adventures. Several cases have been reported of boys entering the sewers through manholes and walking to the next manhole . . . Police stepped up their ticketing last month with 308 being issued. Only 189 were issued the month before and 141 a year ago September. Of the 308, 240 were for over-time parking.

LEAF BURNING: Burning leaves on asphalt or seal-coat pavement is a good way to ruin the road, DPW Superintendent Joe Bida declares. He asks that anyone who has lots of leaves to pile them near the street and give the city hall a call. The street sweeper will pick them up. Brick or concrete pavement doesn't matter, but burning on asphalt can be costly. (Continued on Page 8)

UN Flag Kept Busy This Week

A number of organizations are this week staging programs in commemoration of United Nations Week.

David Galin, appointed chairman of the week by Mayor Harold Guenther, said that several schools and churches, in addition to clubs, are having programs in connection with the 12th birthday of UN.

Keeping busy during the week is the United Nations flag presented to the library two years ago by the Richwine family in memory of George W. Richwine. Since it is one of the few UN flags in the community, it has been borrowed by organizations for their programs. Tomorrow is UN Day.

Allen PTA Slates Halloween Party

Goblins, witches, ghosts and skeletons will be at the October meeting of Allen School P.T.A. Tuesday evening, Oct. 28, at 7:30 p.m.

Children are to report to their rooms at 7:15 p.m. in costume and parents are invited to also dress in costume, if they wish, and go to the gymnasium by 7:30 p.m. Entertainment will be provided by the children in a full dress Halloween parade.

The department of recreation is furnishing refreshments for the children and adult refreshments are taken care of by the P.T.A. and served by the room mothers and the food committee.

Our last month's speaker, Rubie Smith from the Lagoona Beach Atomic Energy Plant gave a very informative and enjoyable talk. The poetry presentation by Mame English Lalotte for the children was so thoroughly enjoyed that she is scheduled to come back again next year.

Grange Gleanings

Our first public dinner of the season is slated for Saturday night, Oct. 25, from 5:30 p.m. until the food runs low. So get your tickets early, i.e., by tonight if possible for those having their tickets before hand will, naturally, be served first. The menu sounds very attractive—roast turkey, dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, squash, cabbage salad, cranberries, ice cream and cookies, coffee or tea.

Remember the special meeting on Oct. 30 when our class of new candidates will receive the degrees of our order so they must all be present.

Our supper (dinner) Saturday is also going to be "Booster Night." There will be entertainment after the supper. Bring your friends and enjoy an evening of good fellowship. There was a little misunderstanding last week regarding the tickets. You may get your tickets from Helen Eccles, Mrs. Squires, or Mrs. Fillmore. And get your tickets by tonight, Oct. 23, if possible.

There were six representatives of Plymouth Grange at the State Grange—Mr. and Mrs. Tritten, Mr. and Mrs. Lunn, and Mr. and Mrs. Fillmore. They all report a wonderful time with beautiful weather. Everyone missed the "Dean of the Grange" and expressed regret at his absence. Mr. Spicer was very much disappointed not to be there, too, but it was unavoidable. He is still at St. Joseph's Hospital but is progressing quite satisfactorily.

The Grange meeting of last Thursday evening was very well attended and was a good meeting. Several of the familiar faces were missing but about 50 were present.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dobson, 42281 Ann Arbor Rd., are announcing the birth of their first baby, a daughter Deborah Robin. She was born October 10 in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, weighing 6 pounds, 5 ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Bogenschutz, 1430 Junction, announce the arrival of a son, Brian David, on October 6 in Garden City Osteopathic Hospital. He weighed 7 pounds, 11 ounces. The couple's daughter, Lisa, is four years old. Mrs. Bogenschutz is the former Marilyn Rood of Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey L. Wells, 743 Blunk St., announce the birth of their first baby, a son Mark Alan, born September 27 in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor. The baby weighed 6 pounds, 13 ounces. Mrs. Wells is the former Marie Van Every.

Saturday Story Hour Changed

Saturday Story Hour for Plymouth children at Dunning-Hough library will begin at 11 a.m. this week, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Agnes Pauline, librarian.

Mr. & Mrs. James A. Wick

Miss Carol Gilliam Weds James A. Wick

First Presbyterian Church in Plymouth was decorated with white chrysanthemums for the pretty October 11 nuptials of Miss Carol Diane Gilliam of Livonia and James A. Wick of St. Louis, Mo., formerly of Plymouth.

The new bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Gilliam, 33767 Richland, Livonia. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil A. Wick, now also of St. Louis. Rev. Henry J. Walch officiated at the 7:30 p.m. candlelight service. Mrs. Buford Spotts was vocalist.

Carol donned white bridal robes distinguished by a Chantilly lace bodice and scalloped neckline. Panels of lace and peau-de-soie enhanced the sweeping skirt. A pillbox cap secured her illusion veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white baby chrysanthemums with white orchids in the center.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Peter Salmen of Lexington, Ky., and bridesmaids Miss Janice Trombley of Livonia and Mrs. John Cornejo of Columbus, O., sister of the bridegroom, were costumed in identical aqua taffeta frocks. They carried bouquets of brone and yellow chrysanthemums with wheat.

Little Mary Rea, wearing a full skirted aqua nylon dress, was flower girl. She carried a bronze basket of tiny yellow and bronze chrysanthemums.

Jimmy Arnold served the bridegroom as best man. Seating guests were Jack Carter, James Parady, Thomas Ferguson and Paul Cummings.

The newlyweds greeted 150 guests at a reception in the church parlors after the service. Guests came from Plymouth, Livonia, Detroit, Texas, Oklahoma, Florida, Kentucky, and Ohio. Assisting were Miss Helen Goodbold, Miss Rita Salan, Miss Carol Shuring, Miss Nancy Hartwell and Mrs. Audrey Davis.

Mrs. Gilliam was attired in a beige lace sheath with matching hat and brown accessories for her daughter's marriage. She had red sweetheart roses, Mrs. Wick, mother of the bridegroom, wore a rose chifton over taffeta with matching accessories. She had a pink sweetheart rose corsage.

The newlyweds traveled to northern Michigan on their wedding trip with the new Mrs. Wick dressed in a turquoise wool sheath going-away outfit. She took the white orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will make their home at 157 Rose St., Plymouth. Carol graduated from Bentley High in Livonia and is in her junior year at Eastern Michigan College of education at Ypsilanti. Her husband graduated from Plymouth High and attended Eastern Michigan for one year.

Mrs. Harry Stuck Returns from Meeting

Mrs. Harry Stuck of Wayne returned Saturday from Wichita, Kan., where she attended the 22nd annual convention of the National Home Demonstration Council. Mrs. Stuck, who is president of the Wayne County Home Economics Extension Council, was one of a delegation of 11 women from Michigan who made the trip by train and automobile.

Royal Hocking to Exhibit In Dunning-Hough Library

A guest artist will exhibit in the Dunning-Hough Library during the next three months under the sponsorship of the Three Cities Art Club. The exhibit, which is usually of works by club members only will be joined by paintings by Royal Hocking, art teacher at Wayne Junior High School.

Hocking, who is a graduate of University of Michigan and did further work at Wayne State University, has been painting for 15 years and works chiefly in oil, tempera and watercolor.

The exhibit is under the direction of club members Mrs. Marion Sober and Mrs. Lyndine Schmiedeke.

Club president Marjorie Becker also announced that the upcoming change in the club's exhibit at the Northville library will be under the direction of Mrs. Beth Spaeth.

Also announced at the October meeting of the club, held at the home of Mrs. Amy Edmunds on Ann Arbor Trail, were plans for the annual Christmas exhibit and sale of art works by members. The program will be under the direction of Stan Hench and will include offerings from all club members.

Next meeting of the club will be at the home of Mrs. Marion Sober, where Jack Van Haren will show slides of his travels and of his watercolors. The meeting will also discuss fall and winter exhibits in cooperation with the Plymouth concert series.

League for Peace, Freedom to Meet

Northville - Plymouth National Board of Directors of the WILPF, will report on discussions from the Human Rights Section of the National Board which met in Philadelphia, Oct. 17-19. "Human Rights" will be the general topic for discussion at this meeting.

WHAT'S IN THE PACKAGE

On November 4th the people of Plymouth are to vote on a "Liquor By The Glass" proposition for their city. Repeatedly it is being stated that this is proposed to allow three of our business places to serve liquor, thus correcting certain inequalities in our area.

We believe it should be pointed out that those are not the facts in the package which the people of Plymouth are asked to buy on November 4th. The truth is that Plymouth is to vote whether or not to allow one liquor establishment for every 1500 persons residing in the city. The 1960 census is just around the corner, and the new census—not the 1950 one that has been mentioned—will shortly determine the number of licenses to be allowed. An estimate by the Metropolitan Area Commission recently published indicates that the population of Plymouth has increased to the extent that five or possibly six licenses would thus be authorized by a "YES" vote of the people in this election. Any annexation or further growth would, of course, further increase this number.

The present City Commission has indicated that it will allow only three such licenses if the bill is passed. No one doubts the sincerity of their intention. However, there is no guarantee of this for the future as this intention is not written into the Bill; besides, the present Commission can not determine what any future City Commission may decide to do in the matter of issuing licenses. Because of the lucrative nature of the business, every future Commission can be challenged by "the liquor interests" to issue additional licenses on the ground that "the people have voted for this—why discriminate against us?"

We believe that this proposal is not in the best interest of the true prosperity and well-being of our city. It is our judgment that the majority of our people do not want "Liquor by the Glass Establishments" in Plymouth but the issue rests with them.

We all have the right to vote as we see it. No one would think of depriving one lone individual of this American privilege. This article is written only for the purpose of publishing the above facts. Be sure that you take a good look at the "Liquor Package" you are asked to buy on November 4th.

William R. Foster Writes Of Native Life in Africa

William R. Foster, former sixth grade instructor at Starkweather, now on sabbatical leave from the Plymouth school system and teaching at the Kitive Training College at Kitive, North Rhodesia, on a Fulbright Grant from the United States government, has been writing some of his experiences to Miss Mildred Field, Starkweather principal.

Bill spent his two weeks vacation on terms on a trip inland. His account of that trip, which his wife and their three daughters did not take, follows:

"I'm back from the bush country much the wiser. My journeys took me to the northwestern province and parts of Angola and the Belgian Congo. I visited the Lunda, Lanole, and Kawonde tribes and their villages. I saw the source of the Zambezi and swam in it a little lower down.

"It's a funny feeling being out in this land of nowhere alone and the only white for miles. I didn't see one wild animal, but at night you could hear the lions around the camp.

"It's amazing how much venser the Africans put on in the cities and how much civilization comes off when they get back to their villages. I was talking with a nurse missionary who has been here 47 years and she says we haven't really made much of a lasting impression on these people and if the white man left today, tomorrow the Africans would be right back in their primitive stage.

"You ought to see the roads I went through. A regular car couldn't make it because of the sometimes no roads. The Rhodesian government gave me a Land Rover which is a bigger version of our Jeep with a four-wheel drive. I had three Africans with me, a driver, a guide who spoke all the languages, and a boy to set up camp. The guide here is a graduate student (not only knew all the languages but also all the right people so I was accepted in each village. I learned more in the last two weeks than in many years."

Junior Police Rifle Club Starts Classes

The Plymouth Junior Police Rifle Club will start a new beginners class on Monday, Oct. 27 at 6 p.m. in the Bronson Building. Boys or girls who have reached the age of 12 may enroll for the course.

These students will receive six weekly periods of instruction in basic rifle marksmanship. The only charge for the course is for the ammunition used, and each boy or girl successfully completing the course will receive a National Rifle Association certificate. They will then be able to shoot at the Police range for qualifications.

Any student who has already completed this course is welcome to shoot at the Bronson Building on Thursday afternoon from 3:45 to 5:30 p.m. with Mrs. John Olendorf in charge. Mrs. Olendorf now has her qualification as a Certified Rifle Instructor with the National Rifle Association.

Rexall Stores Open Contest

Beyer Rexall Drug stores of Plymouth have opened their 10th annual Boys' and Girls' Contest with 13 prizes being offered, including a motorized car and two bicycles.

Any boy or girl 16 years of age or under is eligible to win one of the prizes. Youngsters need only to pick up a nomination blank at any of the three Beyer stores and have an adult fill it out.

The entrant then receives a signature card and every penny that a friend, relative or neighbor buys at the stores is a vote for the contestant. On certain items there are "bonus points."

First grand prize for the child with the most points is a motorized car. There are also two bicycles as grand prizes, one for a girl and the other for a boy.

Boys prizes include an electric train, science lab, bowling and shuffleboard set, Brownie camera and fielder's glove. Other girl prizes are a portable phonograph, electric pipe organ, doll-bug, doll set and vanity case.

Prizes are on display at the Forest Ave. store.

Beta Sigma Phi Sorority Anticipating Yule Gala

Eta Psi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi sorority report a very busy fall season.

The chapter sponsored a Tupper-toy-copper-brass party on October 14 at the home of Mrs. Forest Byrd on Governor Bradford Rd. Plans for this event were laid at the first fall meeting of the group held in the home of Mrs. Robert Brown, of 280 S. Main St. on Sept. 1. At following meetings of Sept. 16 at Mrs. Bird's home, and Oct. 7 with Mrs. Melvin Fuelling of Priscilla Lane, final plans were completed.

The party has been termed a success by the group. Approximately 40 women attended. Mrs. Willah Hensley of Dearborn was the demonstrator. Cider and doughnuts were served at the close of the evening.

Arrangements and refreshments were handled by the social committee and ways and means committees, headed by Mrs. William Bailey and Mrs. Boyden Muzzey, respectively. They were assisted by Mrs. Bird, Mrs. William Grimmer, Mrs. Bruce Milroy, Mrs. Bernard Stadtmiller, and Mrs. Lee Rehbein.

Now chapter members are anticipating their holiday couple party. It will be a post-Christmas gala December 27 at Fox Hills Country Club.

Tea-Hat Show on Docket Of Newcomers Oct. 30

Newcomers Club of Plymouth has interesting Tea and Hat Show plans lined up for Thursday, Oct. 30, from 1 to 3 p.m. at Dunning-Hough library.

Mrs. Violet Wines, herself a newcomer to Plymouth, will show her handmade chapeaux. They will be modeled by Newcomers club members.

Reservations should be made with hostesses, Mrs. Robert Cosgrove or Mrs. Norman Martin until Wednesday, Oct. 29.

A November 6 luncheon at Danny's Restaurant on Six Mile Rd. will attract club members at 12:30 p.m. Deadline for submitting reservations with hostesses Mrs. Kenneth Reas and Mrs. Ivan Scott has been set for Tuesday, Nov. 4.

Sandy Frieswyk On U of M Homecoming Central Committee

Sandy Frieswyk, 9418 Southworth, Arbor Village is serving on the Homecoming central committee for the University of Michigan's big Homecoming Weekend scheduled for this Friday through Sunday (Oct. 24-26).

Michigan and Minnesota teams will vie for the coveted Little Brown Jug during their Saturday Homecoming game clash. Winners of the display contest will be announced during half-time.

New events this year include a jazz session from 8:30-11 p.m. on the Diagonal Friday night and a coffee-and-doughnut hour for alumni and friends in the Michigan Union Ballroom from 10:30 a.m. to noon Saturday.

India will have a state-owned oil refinery in Assam.

The CITY MANAGER'S CORNER

By Al Glassford

The paving projects engaged in the last 3 weeks have produced a lot of sidewalk engineers and a great deal of concern, both to citizens and businessmen, as to whether everything will come out all right. There are questions about fire protection, whether or not one's home is protected, whether or not the police can get in and out, and whether or not trucks can service factories and stores.

For example, will the aging period for the concrete hold up Western Electric's planned move into their warehouse? Occasionally, a real hardship shows up, such as the scheduled showing of the new model cars at a show room on S. Main Street. In the main, there is a direction and control and coordination that does seem apparent. For example, our police chief, fire chief and the contractors have arranged to permit entrance of police vehicles and fire apparatus to any area in the city by installing temporary cross-overs to serve the area cut off.

On the Sheldon Road project, there is already installed concrete pavement at the Western Electric Company drive, only an island at the moment, which will be aged enough and hard enough to bear the weight of the trucks when they begin to move in the equipment and material for the Western Electric warehouse.

Then, there is power and telephone pole moving and gas and water service lines to change before paving. Once in a while, in big organizations, the signals get crossed, especially when two organizations such as the Detroit Edison and the Bell Telephone Company cannot work simultaneously on a pole to remove the wires. To add to the confusion, Detroit Edison must install underground wiring for our proposed boulevard lighting and Consumers' Power must put a thumb through future plans for larger service mains and get them installed.

Eventually, Michigan Bell Telephone Company will remove all of the telephone wires presently exposed above ground along S. Main Street. This will take about three years hence, after the cables are finally transferred to underground locations or rerouted above ground. Were we to request Michigan Bell Telephone Company to put the cables underground immediately, a tremendous unexpected expense would occur and would reflect in telephone rates.

If you will notice, Main Street, north of Penniman, is clear of all wires and cables. Both utility companies have cooperated by removing them as quickly as they could. To get back to the paving projects, the gas company is replacing some of its leads to the houses and busi-

Fire Prevention Story Winners Selected

WINNERS OF the Fire Prevention Week writing contest received their prizes this week. From left are Inspector Paul Sanders and Capt. Lawrence Maas, co-chairmen of the week's events, presenting a typewriter to first place winner Gloria Bowles; Lester Bartson, second place of $10; Sharon Neal, third place, $5; and Charles Finlan, who presented cash awards in behalf of the Plymouth Association of Insurance Agents.

WINNER OF THE fire prevention booth contest last Thursday night was Our Lady of Good Counsel sixth grade. Some of the students are shown here with Lt.

Paul Sanders, co-chairman of the program with Capt. Lawrence Maas. Motors turned rolls of paper giving fire prevention hints inside mock TV sets.

First prize in a writing contest held in connection with Fire Prevention Week in Plymouth went to Gloria Bowles, Plymouth High School junior, who is the daughter of Judge and Mrs. George Bowles, 11749 Turkey Run.

The contest was for journalism students who wrote news stories about the Fire Prevention program on October 9.

Second prize went to Lester Bartson, 14565 Shadywood; and third prize to Sharon Neal, 1157 Penniman. First prize was a Remington portable typewriter, second prize was $10 and third prize $5.

Miss Elizabeth McDonald, numbered each entry (no names were left on) and they were turned over to firemen. Entries were judged by Paul Chandler, publisher of The Plymouth Mail, and Jim Spenseler, managing editor.

Following is the first place story written by Gloria Bowles:

A slender, gray arm of mercy rose against the darkened sky. The 100 foot ladder straightened up gracefully, then made a complete revolution in mid-air. Spectators conjectured on who would ever climb that thing.

It was Fire Prevention Week in Plymouth.

lives at 43567 Ford Road.

Winner of $10 in the slogan contest was Gary Scott of 12165 Amherst Court with "Don't Be a Starter; Be a Stopper." $5 winner was Lois Harper of 45774 Proctor, whose slogan was "Why Help Fire Start?"

Thursday, October 9 at 7 p.m. found 10 communities, in a flurry of activity, adding an exciting touch to the observance which began Sunday, October 5 and ended October 12. Departments participating in the evening celebration held in downtown Plymouth were Livonia, Northville, Canton, Superior, Salem, South Lyon, Novi, Detroit House of Correction and the Township of Plymouth.

A Main Street parade followed, with Smokey the Bear, the high school band, and new '58 cars vainly attempting to steal the thunder from the roaring red fire engines.

The highlight of the evening was a rousing water barrel fight. A barrel was strung upon a cable, the object being for four firemen on each end to direct hoses against the cylinder, therefore pushing it beyond a set point. Every quartet represented their respective fire department. Firemen in long, shiny black slickers were silhouetted against the semi-darkness; red lights reflected eerily upon the wet street. Shots of white foam rocketed heavenward. After a series of tough battles, the City of Northville emerged victors—and took the barrel home.

Livonia brought its new aerial ladder, hydraulically operated by one man, used as a tower to shoot water and also valuable in rescue work. MC of the evening, Fire Chief Robert McAllister of Plymouth, announced the winners in the contests for school students. First up was the booth contest—Our Lady of Good Counsel copped first prize and a hi-fi record player while Bird schoolers took second and 55 tickets to the Saturday matinee.

Following a successful evening, the two genial good-looking co-chairmen for the program, Captain Lawrence Maas of Plymouth Township and Inspector Paul Sanders of the City Fire Department, reflected upon a job well done. Captain Maas said the observance "turned out better than ever—we hope to have a better one next year."

Billy Dull, a Plymouth Community Junior High seventh grader, owner of a shock of black hair and a ready smile, won first prize, a bicycle, in the slogan contest. His winning entry was "Let's Conspire to Keep Out Fire." Billy was "pretty excited" and said that his four sisters and three brothers had been sharing one girl's bike. Billy

It was Fire Prevention Week in Plymouth—and a fine one at that.

SMOKEY THE BEAR was a big hit with the kids during last Thursday night's Fire Prevention program. He was swarmed by children wanting to shake his hand. When firemen's hoses squirted many spectators, one of the youngsters shown asked, "Did you get wet, Smokey?"

MOON SAUCER—Otis T. Carr of Baltimore, Md., shows a scale model of a free energy system spacecraft which he invented, and claims will orbit to the moon and return. Scheduled for launching in December, the craft will be 45 feet in diameter and will be powered by a five-ton electric battery.

DRIVERS FOR the Plymouth Post Office have received a Motor Vehicles Safety Award from the Post Office Department for going through 1957 without an accident. A similar award was won in 1956. Police Lt. William Guldner is shown presenting letters of commendation from Police Chief Kenneth Fisher in recognition of the "job well done." From left are Richard Hudson, Joseph Skaggs, Louis Robinson, Earl Foster, Avery Penny and Martin Jones. Skaggs last year received an award for 15 years of safe driving. The local post office has five government vehicles and two private vehicles under contract. Postmaster George Timpona received the award from Mr. Justice of the Regional Office at Chicago.

During the week of the Fire Prevention Demonstration the students of the Plymouth High journalism classes were given the opportunity to enter a contest sponsored by the fire departments of Plymouth, Plymouth Township, and Canton. Students were to write an article pertaining to the demonstration on the night of the big show. This week the three winners were announced and I am happy to report that we have a representative of our Village amongst them: Lester Bartson, who is taking his first course in journalism this year came in as second place winner. His prize was a $10.00 check donated by the Finlan Insurance Company of Plymouth. The other winners were Gloria Bowles, who won first prize, and Sharon Neill who placed third.

Last week Chip Ennis was pleasantly surprised when all the neighboring girls dropped in and had a surprise birthday party for her. Chip was hard to corner in one spot but after several tries the group managed to sneak in the front door. They then arranged the two coffee cakes, all aglow with candles, and the parking hot coffee which was brought along with the cups and saucers, and the party was on. Chip and everyone had a good time.

Mrs. Goldie Fitch had a fine time when she spent several days in Indianapolis visiting with her sister Mrs. M. Barron and her son. She went shopping in all the large department stores there. Dr. and Mrs. G.H. Fitch were on their way to visit relatives in Illinois, so Goldie decided to ride along with her son and stop off at Indianapolis.

This week we have new friends to greet on Robinwood Drive. Charles and Edna Stephenson have just moved into their shiny new tri-level and are busily getting themselves situated. Charles is on the last week of his vacation and is using his time to great advantage in helping Edna get things in order. They have a daughter, Charlene, who is away at Nazareth College. She is majoring in Business Education. Another important member of the family is their little daschund puppy — Timothy. His name has not definitely been decided, but he seems to answer well to "Timmy." Edna decided that the first thing she wanted in their new home was grass, so the day I visited with them a crew of men was busily laying sod.

Charles is with the Michigan-Wisconsin Pipeline Company. The Stephensons moved here from Madison Heights.

Bill and Marjean Fielden of Shadywood Court are always busy. Bill owns and operates the Paul-Mar Market on South Main Street. Marjean says she likes to help out at the store. Her little daughter Susan is really an adorable and smart girl. She keeps Marjean busy with the gobs of toys that are available for her to play with. Their other daughter, Sandra, is 12 years old and attends junior high school.

John Serasky tells me that in six weeks 80 homes have been sold in subdivision number two. The bank along the backs of these homes on Brentwood Drive has been sold by the Greenspan Company. New neighbors will be moving in by next week as about five of the homes have been completed and are ready for occupancy. Work will soon commence on Subdivision Number Three which will be across Schoolcraft near the new Farrand School. The water and sewer system is being started as is the paving of streets for the 100 lots which will be in this area. Construction work will continue throughout the year.

The Bell Telephone Company and Detroit Edison have been busily cutting down trees that fell in the way of utility poles to be put up in Subdivision Number Two. But these trees did not die in vain, as many of our neighbors will tell you. Every night the little parade of their cars could be seen driving to the pile of logs which the workmen had sawed at all day. The logs were all carefully piled into trunks and back seats and then brought home to be neatly stacked on terraces or in garages. What wonderful fall and winter fires they are going to make for us this season!

John and Elizabeth Arthur of Shadywood Drive can be very proud of their daughter Bettie who recently has acquired the wonderful title of "Doctor." Bettie has her bachelor's and master's degrees in science and arts. She is a graduate of the University of Michigan. Bettie is a doctor of psychology and is assistant to Dr. Ann Elmor, whose place she is taking while Dr. Elmor is away.

John and Elizabeth decided to have their backyard sodded. It took 800 yards of sod since their lot is 210 feet deep. They are also having three trees planted in the backyard, one of which will be a red maple.

Marvin and Shirley Fletchermarvin of 14437 Robinwood

Drive have moved to our village from Royal Oak. Previously, they resided in New York State for five years, but Marvin loves fishing so well, that a return to Michigan was a must. Marvin's parents have their home at Commerce Lake, which makes it just perfect for his hobby. Shirley loves to refinish antique furniture. The Fletchers have two young children. Sally Lou who is 5 years old, is in the kindergarten class at Farrand School. She's thrilled with all the wonderful things that occur there every day. Her little brother Curtis is 2½ years old. Marvin is an engineer at the Detroit Transmission in Willow Run. It only takes him 25 minutes to drive to work, a big difference between the time it took when driving from Royal Oak.

Have you called lately? GL 3-6729.

Jaycees Honor DPW Superintendent

Plymouth's superintendent of public works, Joseph Bida, was honored last Thursday night by Garden City Jaycees for his outstanding achievements.

Bida, who was a former Garden City resident and now lives on Hamilton St. here, was charter president of the Jaycees at Garden City. He then went on to become state vice-president, a national board director, and held several state chairmanships.

He was presented an insignia ring by fellow members at last week's ceremony.

Sue Utter Planning Pizza Party Prior to Game Going

(Covering the area along Sheldon to Ann Arbor Trail, Harvey and Sutherland, including Plymouth Colony, Parklane, Hough Sub., Plymouth Hills, and Ridgewood) BY ALICE OLENDORF GL. 3-5019

Mr. and Mrs. E. Fletcher of W. Ann Arbor Trail enjoyed their grandchildren, Derek and Cary, for a few days while their parents, Dr. and Mrs. Bradley Straatsma, the Campbell's daughter and son-in-law attended the annual Medical Convention in Chicago. Dr. Straatsma is in the department of Eye Surgery at John Hopkins Hospital in Washington, D.C. where they reside.

On Friday evening when the Straatsmas returned to pick up their kiddies there was a family gathering with the Campbell's other son and daughter and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Campbell, Jr., of Canton Township and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hachlowaki of Plymouth.

To add to the enjoyment of every one present at this party besides the house humming with 10 of the senior Campbells 14 grandchildren, a long distance call was made to the State of Washington to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beaumier, the Campbell's other daughter Carol. Mr. Campbell was so proud of each of his children he told Mr. Beaumier is No. 2 man in the Washington State Health Service.

Mrs. Arnold Boyce and children, Steven and Gayle of Sheldon Rd., spent four enjoyable days at Mrs. Boyce's parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cassel in Dayton, Ohio. Mrs. Boyce said her children really lived it up and thoroughly enjoyed the country atmosphere and horseback riding at their grandparents home.

Sue Utter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Utter of Amherst Ct. had to postpone her party a week when Plymouth played at Belleville last Friday instead of at home. But plans are complete for a rousing good time this Friday when Sue will entertain 16 girls at a pizza dinner at 5:30 and then the girls will attend the football game en-masse. The guests list includes Jim Gaddard, Sue Worthington, Marcia Randall, Janet Morrison, Ann West, Donna Sulston, Carol Nitz, Edith Elison, Kathy Schmidt, Margot Kidston, Shelia Lorenz, Barb Goch, Alberta Hart, Louise Sackett, Suanne Smith and Linda Griswold.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. McAllister of Jener had Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Meyers from Grand Rapids as weekend guests. The McAllisters kept their guests busy and on Saturday evening enjoyed the Grosse Ile to have dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woody. Sunday saw the two couples at the Lions game.

While mother and father were busy Martha and Mary McAllister spent the weekend at the home of their aunt, Mrs. R. L. Simon in Wyandotte. Their son Allen was not about to be left out of all these festivities so he attended over-night camp with Scout troop P6 at the Highland Recreation Area.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooper of Ann Arbor Trail West thought friends of their daughter, Ann, who is a freshman at Albion would like to know Ann was pledged to the Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

Betsy Beck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beck of Amherst Ct., made her parents very happy when she rode home for the weekend with Barbara Brock of Detroit. Betsy arrived Friday from Hillsdale and returned Sunday.

Mrs. Carl Peterson of Amherst Ct. motored to Chicago with her mother, Mrs. Karen Nielsen from Florida, to spend the week at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Arden Deutsche and son Mark.

On their return home Mrs. Nielsen spent the following week at the Peterson home.

Another little bit of news about the Petersons, on Tuesday evening they accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith of Plymouth to Michigan State where they surprised their future daughter-in-law, Joyce Smith, on her 21st birthday by taking her and their son Roger, who is also a student at State, out for dinner.

Mrs. John Olendorf entertained two different groups of ladies at her home on Amherst Ct. recently. On Oct. 15 her club from Dearborn where she resided before coming to Plymouth, were her guests. Those attending were Mrs. Earl May, Mrs. Melvin Koepke, Mrs. Nick Keitsch, Mrs. Fred Rowe, Mrs. Fred Stewart and Mrs. Graham Eddy.

This past Wednesday saw a group of nine playing Pinochle from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. with lunch at 1. Guests for this affair were Mrs. Harold Shirey, Mrs. Howard Hill, Mrs. I. W. Ruge, Mrs. J. A. Thom, Mrs. Elsie Kruger, Mrs. Edwin Ash from Plymouth and Mrs. Ralph Wagonenschutz of Livonia and a friend of Mrs. Olendorf's who filled in for Mrs. Al Glassford who was attending a convention.

This might come as a surprise to the residents of the area which this column covers but Alice and I, Mrs. Olendorf are forced to give this enterprise up after writing it for only two months. Alice has become so involved in school work and extra curricular activities and I am now working so much of the time as a Certified Rifle Instructor with the Plymouth Junior Police Rifle Club that I feel I cannot do justice to the column. I am sure whoever takes over this task will serve you well and we might add we have fully enjoyed our time and service to you. We have met and talked to so many of you we feel as though we were personal friends and hope we will meet you in some other capacity.

THE READER Speaks Up

In a recent edition of The Mail you quote from a Knights of Columbus magazine. "The Bible takes the reasonable use of liquor for granted." Having studied the Bible for forty years, I would like them to show me where the Bible advocates the use of what is called "Liquor" in our day.

The drinks they had were made from grapes and grains, not a doctored mess that is intended to create a habit in youth. If all the people knew what is contained in advertised liquors sold by the glass, they would be dumfounded. They would favor protection for our teenagers and others.

Three years ago I heard a young man say "The driver who has had some liquor thinks he is a perfect driver, but his reflexes are slower than a sober man." This might explain a reliable report that about 22 percent of auto accidents are caused by drinkers.

Social drinkers find in "Liquor by the glass" a favorite field. Suppose four friends enter a drink place and begin to "Set em up." Being good sports (so-called) they believe they should treat a l l the way around, after which they are a traffic hazard. Just how many drinks constitute reasonable or moderate drinking. Where will the young drinker stop after he or she has started drinking by the glass? My father quoted a neighbor as saying "Fifteen or sixty glasses a day wasn't much, but when a man makes a hook of himself that was bad." His was our idea of moderation.

Now to return to our anonymous Knights of Columbus writer, I would suggest that the great organization he represents and the church of which they are a part could have done much for society if they had taken a stand for prohibition. His contention seems to be that we infringe and restrict human rights if we advocate prohibition of liquor by the glass, or any other way. We prohibit murder, adultery, gambling, robbery, etc. and for very good reasons. We restrict fast driving. It does not cure speeding but it has the effect of saving lives.

What would happen if we were all permitted to drive 80 miles per hour in Main street or on Penniman? When liquor inflames the mind the stop signs and speed limits go by the board. Are you going to vote for our City to further incriminate itself by licensing "Liquor by the glass"? Vote NO on Nov. 4th. G.I. FRIDAY

Dear Sir:

As a church member I am glad that so many of our ministers did find it possible to agree on a statement on the liquor license referendum. Such a statement does not coerce the conscience of any member, but it may influence his vote. Such influence is legitimate from a n y trusted community-leader.

Church members like others have to use what intelligence they possess to estimate the ultimate results of a policy which will increase the number of public drinking places in our area. Many of us are convinced that it will increase the amount of heavy drinking and bring with it a larger number of problem drinkers.

This will bring in its train social and financial (tax) costs which will mean loss rather than benefit to the community as a whole. We can only vote as we see it.

Obituary

Ned Blake

Funeral services were held October 17 at Casterline Funeral home in Northville for Ned Blake, 61, who succumbed October 15 at Ypsilanti State Hospital. He was formerly of Plymouth.

Mr. Blake was born September 28, 1897, in Novi. He is survived by his mother, Mrs. John Kuhn; a brother, Andrew Blake of Detroit; three step-sisters, Mrs. Ida Sulkowski of Salem, Mrs. Roscoe Kramb of Livonia and Mrs. David Ingall of Plymouth; and two-step brothers Fred Kuhn of Detroit and Charles Kuhn of Grand Rapids.

Rev. Peter O. Nieuwkoop of First Baptist Church in Northville officiated at the funeral services. Interment was at Rural Hills Cemetery, Northville.

George W. Aton

George W. Aton, 333 N. Main St., died suddenly October 16 at 7:15 p.m. at the age of 62 in St. Joseph's Hospital, Ann Arbor. Funeral services were held Monday, Oct. 20, at Riverside Cemetery with Rev.

Health Officer Lists Diseased Rabbit Symptoms

If you are a hunter, make sure that the time you spend hunting pays benefits in health as well as enjoyment. Dr. Joseph G. Molner, City-County Health Commissioner, advises. Both the exercise of tramping through the woods and the tranquility and enjoyment you find there should help to relieve the tension caused by work and hurry of city life.

Take it easy and don't overexert or you may do yourself more harm than good. If you are 60, don't think you must keep up with a 30-year-old companion. Hunters of small game should take precautions on two other counts as well - safe practices with fire arms and precautions against tularemia.

Safeguards against accidents with guns should be thought through carefully before you take down your gun. These safety measures should be adhered to rigorously until you put it back at the end of the season. Remember, that in addition to your own benefit from safety practices, the good example you set for others is hard to overestimate.

Rabbits which are offered for sale in regular markets are safe to eat. All of them are sold under supervision by the Pure Food and Drug Administration.

Rabies has been detected recently from the Upper Peninsula. Dr. Molner reminds hunters to have their dogs vaccinated against rabies before they take them hunting.

Jesse Hake Succumbs After Lengthy Illness

A charter member of the Plymouth Rotary club and the Knights of Pythias, Plymouth Lodge, 23, Jesse Hake, 76, succumbed October 16 in his home, 3800 Plymouth Rd. He had been ill for the past two years.

Funeral services were held Monday, Oct. 20, at Riverside Cemetery with Rev. Radcliffe College for Women was founded in 1879. Santa Cruz Airport for jet operation.

EVERYBODY BENEFITS

Trucks are the only commercial vehicles which serve all of Michigan—bringing merchandise and materials from every part of the world to every Michigan household, farm and business concern.

In fact, for hundreds of Michigan communities, motor vehicles are the sole means of transportation—autos and buses for passengers, trucks for freight. These communities are not served by any other transportation system!

So, you see, because trucks can and do go wherever there are roads, ample supplies of food, furniture, medical supplies, tools and machinery—necessities and luxuries from everywhere—are available anytime to people in all of Michigan.

Those in small out-of-the-way communities are as well fed, well housed and well clothed as the people of Michigan's largest metropolitan centers—thanks to trucks!

SPORTSEEN

By BILL DILWORTH

The Rocks received a real good first hand lesson on at a lean, HUNGRY, FIRED UP football team can do when they journeyed to Belleville last week to play the Tigers. When the season started, Belleville was not rated as very serious contender for the title. They confounded the odds by winning 14-0 from Bentley and 19-6 from last year's co-champions, Allen Park. They continued their winning ways against Trenton with a 39-20 victory and the momentum built up in the first three games plus the extra effort for the homecoming game was enough to stun the Plymouth team 35-6.

Belleville stopped the Plymouth running game as they broke through the Plymouth line repeatedly to catch Sparkman, Laroché, Woodard and Egloff before they could find a running room. Plymouth receivers were covered like a blanket whenever they moved downfield. The only big gain the Rocks made was a long pass from Randy Egloff to Paul Woodard late in the game.

In addition to playing a sound defensive game Belleville came up with excellent offensive maneuvers. Bob Wisniewski convinced this reporter that he is one of the better backs in the league as he ran for three touchdowns, threw 10 passes to the elongated Ken McCullers for touchdowns and made good on all five attempts at extra points.

Enough for the post mortem of the setback. Plymouth has a final conference game tomorrow at home against Bentley and two non-conference games before they return to the football field. We are hoping that they can return to the team that scored impressive victories over Trenton, Redford Union and Allen Park. Their 40 point average for conference games tallied at Belleville. Perhaps, they can do it tomorrow.

The freshman and jayvee teams won their games last week. Eloy Menchaca scored both TD's as the freshmen defeated Bentley 12-6. Dave Timcoe scored all three touchdowns as the jayvees defeated Allen Park 18-12.

Jeff Huntingdon led the cross country team as he won the Bentley course and at home against Belleville to set a Plymouth 4-1 record for the season.

Basketball practice is held Monday and Wednesday nights for anyone interested in playing this coming season. Facilitate planning for the Oil Can and Recreation league's year Jack Carter and Herb Woolweaver would appreciate hearing from anyone who wants to enter a team in their league as soon as possible.

Just a reminder that the bird bangers of the badminton club play Tuesday evenings and Saturday mornings at the school gym.

The swimming pool schedule is MONDAY - Family night 7:30-9:00 Admission adults, 50 cents, students, 25 cents.

TUESDAY - Women only, 7:30-9:00, Admission includes instruction for those who want it.

WEDNESDAY - Father and Son night, 7:30-9:00.

THURSDAY - Open swimming, 7:30-9:00.

SATURDAY - Boy Scouts, 1:00-3:00 p.m.; Teen Swim, 4:00-9:00 p.m., admission, 25 cents.

Don Alsbro Injured At Western State

Calamitzoo, Mich. — Don Alsbro, an end was out from Plymouth High in 1958 where he played end on the football team four years. He is expected to return to the football field this fall at Western State University until he can get his wrist. He was looking good when the accident happened. Out of the 110 men reported out for the season, 100 are native Michiganders. Alsbro, 18, stands 6 feet 10 inches tall and weighs 200 pounds. Aggressive Alert Tigers Stun Rocks

A stunned Plymouth Rock football team spent last weekend licking the wounds inflicted by a driving, alert Belleville team, who are determined to win the 1958 Suburban Six championship. The Tigers showed just how determined they are by defeating the Rocks in every department and on the scoreboard 35-6.

In the other two Suburban Six games, Gary Chattell led the Trenton Tigers to their first victory as he scored three TD's for the second consecutive week. They defeated Redford Union 33-12. Bentley also scored their first win by defeating last year's co-champions, Allen Park 18-13.

Before the largest crowd ever to see a high school football game at Belleville, the Tigers scored as soon as they got their hands on the ball. They gained possession as the result of a Plymouth fumble and scored in 10 plays from the Plymouth 49. Dick Locke climaxed the drive by scoring from the two and Bob Wisniewski's extra point was good to give Belleville an early 7-0 lead.

There was no further scoring in the first quarter but Belleville added two in the second quarter on passes from Wisniewski to Ken McCullers, who made tremendous catches on both of them. This gave Belleville a 21-0 lead at half time.

Wisniewski scored his first of two touchdowns, when he took advantage of a key block from Bill Skrobe to go 25 yards into the end zone. His extra point was good.

Plymouth scored their only TD on the first play of the fourth quarter. With the ball on their own 25 Egloff lost five when he was smothered trying to pass, then he made ten on a pass to Laroché. With third down and five yards to go Egloff completed a long pass to Paul Woodard to take the ball to the Belleville 25. Another pass completed to Laroché took play to the Belleville 3 where Sparkman scored.

Bob Wisniewski scored the fifth and final Belleville TD when he ran 43 yards to score. His attempt at a fifth extra point was good and the final score was 35-6.

PHS Freshmen Squeeze Out Bentley in Final Three Minutes

Coach Jim Doyle's freshman football team came from behind to defeat Bentley 12-6 and made their record for the season thus far two wins against one loss.

Bentley opened the scoring first quarter. A 35 yarding and led 6-0 at the end of pass from Mardo Menchaca to brother Eloy took play to the Bentley 20 yard line where a rough play penalty against the Bulldogs for roughing the receiver moved the Rocks to the 5. From here Mike Kisabeth moved the ball to the Bentley one yard line and Eloy Menchaca scored the TD.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Y. A. Tittle, San Francisco Forty-Niner quarterback who was voted "pro football player" of 1957 in the annual United Press International poll, began the 1958 season with 1,405 completions in 2,553 pass attempts for 19,139 yards and 123 touchdowns in 10 campaigns.

Cross Country Squad Wins 4th As Season Ends

By defeating Belleville and Bentley this past week the Plymouth high school cross country finished their Suburban Six schedule with four wins and one loss. They defeated Bentley 15-47 with Jeff Huntingdon winning in the time of 10:44. He was followed by teammates Al Davies, Dave Mynatt, Bruce Wood and Mike Kelley, who finished second, third, fourth and fifth.

Jeff Huntingdon carried his winning ways to the Belleville meet when he won in the time of 11:29. Bruce Wood and Dave Mynatt of Plymouth were second and third and John Schrub of Belleville finished fourth. Al Davies was fifth and Mike Kelley sixth to account for the 17 points for Plymouth to 42 for Belleville.

The jayvees defeated Belleville 24-33 to finish their season with a 3-1 record in four meets. Dave Rank of Plymouth won the race. Other Plymouth runners to finish were Don Argo, third, Gary Hondorp, fifth, Terry Haws, seventh, Jim Ralston, eighth, Don Williams, ninth, Mike

Elementary Touch Football League

Porter, fourteenth, Jack Stevenson, fifteenth, and Dick Hubert sixteenth.

The next action will be Saturday in the regionals at Farmington. This will be followed by the league meet on Tuesday, October 28 at Cass Benton Park.

Jayvee Gridders Even Record

Plymouth Rock jayvees evened their record at two wins and two losses when they defeated Allen Park, 18-12, as Dave Timcoe scored three touchdowns. The score was tied at half time 6-6 and both teams scored in the third quarter with Plymouth getting two TD's and Allen Park one.

Timcoe scored his first touchdown on a 27 yard run with the key block made by Johnny Denny. His second touchdown was scored when he found a hole and just "took off" to the Allen Park end zone 48 yards away. Timcoe scored his third TD on a two yard plunge.

Plymouth played a strong game defensively with ends Ray Liimakka and Davis Beach, full back, Richard Schmidt, and tackle Andy Krueyitis very effective. Belleville and the visitors this afternoon at Plymouth.

License Plates Sale to Open November 1

A green background with yellow numbers will be the color scheme of the 1959 vehicle license plates that go on sale here Saturday, November 1.

Mrs. Doris Root, manager of the local license bureau, said that this year vehicle owners will not receive registration forms in the mail because of a cutback in appropriations. Instead vehicle owners must come to the license bureau for the forms and either fill them out there or take them home.

It is necessary to have both the registration form and certificate of title to obtain a license.

Plymouth's license bureau, located again at 181 Liberty, will begin with the CA series and then go into a new DX series, followed by EA.

Piano Tuner

Mr. Stevens tunes the pianos at Melody House, at the Presbyterian Church, and at Dunning-Hough library. He is so good that people come from near and far and pick him up to have him tune their pianos. "I don't go out after the business now so much," he said. "I only take what comes in."

Asked if he had any secret to enjoying such a vigorous, full life, Mr. Stevens modestly replied: "Oh, no."

Then, an afterthought: "Just live right, don't eat too much, don't work too hard!"

THE EARLY BIRD gets the worm, the saying goes. According to Dale and Norm Tritten of Plymouth township the same thing applies to getting the bird. Dale, 11, and Norm, 15, sons of the Jesse F. Trittens, 41840 Ann Arbor Trail, were up at dawn Tuesday and out in the corn behind their home. Before breakfast they had bagged these four fine cock pheasants.

One Injured in Vicinity As Bird Season Opens

While pheasant hunters were reporting a fair degree of success during the opening days of the season, many homeowners in the area were complaining that some hunters are too ambitious in their efforts and are shooting too close to buildings.

And in Canton Township, a Detroit youth was peppered by buckshot as the only accident reported in the vicinity. He was Jerry Finch, 19, of 15469 Beaverland. Brought to the office of a local physician, Finch was carrying buckshot under the skin in his chest, abdomen, right arm and both legs.

The youth was not seriously hurt and was able to return home for treatment by his own physician. The accident happened at Ford near Gottfredson Rds.

Plymouth Township officials said they received around 15 phone calls during the first day complaining of hunters. Most of them said that shooting was going on too near the homes, but there were no reports of shot hitting houses.

Wayne County Sheriff's officers made over 30 runs during the first day. Their biggest job came in Nankin Township which is closed to hunting for the first time this year. But despite the new law and with signs being posted, there were hunters afield, some spraying pellets at homes.

Plymouth Township tried for the second time this year to have hunting outlawed. Last year the state conservation committee turned down a request to have the entire township put out-of-bounds so this year the township board requested that only the heavily populated area east of Sheldon Rd. be restricted. But this was turned down too.

The conservation committee feels that Plymouth Township is still too sparsely populated to outlaw hunting.

Law prohibits hunting closer than 500 feet from buildings and no hunting is allowed in road rights-of-way. Supervisor Roy Lindsay said that he had heard reports of some hunters even driving down roads firing at the birds.

Edward Myers Wins Mail's Football Contest

Edward Myers, 42030 East Ann Arbor Trail, won the $15 first prize in last week's opening Football Contest sponsored by the Plymouth Mail and participating merchants.

There were plenty of upsets to confuse the experts and Myers was able to pick both the Michigan and Michigan State upsets, but not the one at Belleville where the Rocks were snowed under.

Second prize of $7 went to Marion Olson, 42325 Schoolcraft Rd., and third prize, $3, was won by Larry Rossow, 1200 Ross.

There was one game on the list, Cornell vs. Grinnell, not played so everyone was allowed a win for this one.

Three Cars Collide On Plymouth Road

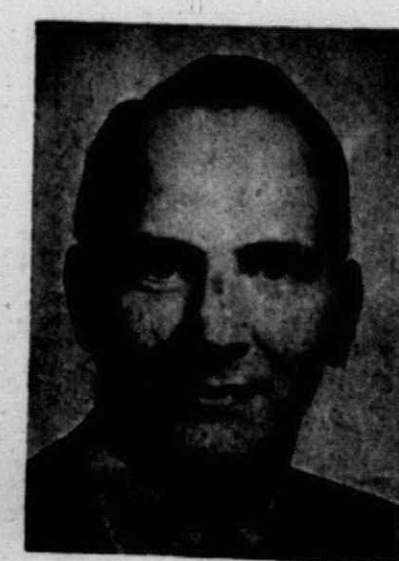

A three car collision occurred Thursday, October 17, at 7:50 a.m. on Plymouth Road at Haggerty. Involved were Alice Breckenridge, Garden City, Harold Theisen, Detroit and Louis Sherman, of 276 N. Harvey, Plymouth. Sherman, who was driving a 1954 Ford, stated that he was waiting to make a left turn from Plymouth Road when he saw Miss Breckenridge pull out onto Plymouth. Not being able to warn the approaching car driven by Theisen, the accident was unavoidable. No complaint was made by any of the drivers and damage was slight.

Runaway Captured

Glen Terrell, Northville, heard a knock at his door Sunday evening. Upon answering he saw a blond haired male wearing a white sweat shirt. The man was carrying a paper sack and asked Terrell for some matches.

Terrell, who lives within two blocks of Northville State Hospital suspected the man was an escapee. Northville authorities were notified and after an investigation they found a patient fitting the description.

of three possible alternatives," the vice-president asserted.

"Whitman & Barnes does not have a vote in the matter — but many of its people do. They live in this community, and their future is here. We believe that they and all other voters would be well advised to move slowly and carefully, to make sure that the decision finally reached is the correct one — and one with which they and we and all others who are concerned can live satisfactorily indefinitely into the future."

"In short," Zipse explained, "we urge that voters 'take it easy.' It is better to be right later than to act quickly now and regret the action forever."

He then detailed his company's position in relation to the taxes.

"There is another aspect to this problem that is of direct concern to our company and therefore important to our people who live in this community: our tax burden. When we decided to move to Plymouth Township in 1948 the tax rate was $15.54 per thousand. In 1957 it had risen to $38.99 — an increase of more than 150 percent."

"Annexation to an existing incorporated city such as the City of Plymouth or separate incorporation into a new one, such as Plymouth Heights, inevitably spells higher tax burdens for everybody, individuals and industry alike. This is an important point, and one which we hope each voter will bear in mind — that his own taxes and those of the industries which employ many people in Plymouth Township are almost certainly going to increase if we change from the form of government we have (Plymouth Township) to annexation to the City of Plymouth or separate incorporation into Plymouth Heights."

"A further increase in the Whitman & Barnes tax burden in this community certainly would affect adversely our competitive position, that is, our ability to quote successfully against our competitors. Such a loss of competitive position would inevitably result in fewer and fewer jobs in our plant, with consequent loss to the community as a whole."

"Our hope, then," he concluded, "is that all the people in the area will cooperate in harmony to study the many facets of the situation and to allow the time to work without haste in a solution that will best serve the long-range interests of all."

Thieves Enter Elks

Sometime between Sunday evening and Monday morning, unknown persons removed the steel base, screen and glass from the wash room window at the B.P.O. Elks Club, 41700 Ann Arbor Rd.

After entering the building through the window they opened the wash room door setting off an alarm. Upon investigation Tom Argo, Elks official, found nothing missing.

HOT TROPHY: The striped barrel that firemen from 10 departments used in their water contest during the Fire Prevention Week program was given to the winner, Northville, that night. But while Northville smoke-eaters were at Station No. 2 enjoying some coffee, some thief stole the trophy off their fire truck. It is presumably the work of a rival department and may turn up at any time.

SHORT MEETING: Monday night's regular city commission meeting was only 20 minutes long, almost a record-breaker. City Manager Albert Glassford is at a convention in Dallas, probably accounting for the short agenda. An audit showed that of the 548,000,000 gallons of water pumped during the past fiscal year, 142,000,000 (26 percent) was unaccounted for. DPW Superintendent Joseph Bida said that the reservoir has a serious leak along with some water mains, but the amount is not considered excessive compared with other communities.

MONEY'S WORTH: Mrs. Cordelia O'Roruk of Wayne thinks she might do more shopping in Plymouth. Last week she bought some peanut clusters in a store here, got home and bit down on a penny inside one.

FAST FIVE: A quick $5 was earned this week by Ray Schultz, 7854 Lilley Rd. He shot a fox on his property and turned it into the sheriff's office for the bounty.

Favorite Recipes
From Plymouth's Kitchens

LITTLE STEPHANIE LUCE, four years old, is a great help in the kitchen department to her pretty mother, Mrs. Harry Luce, even when it comes to sampling things like Chocolate Halfway Cookies. These are a nice party cookie and as Mrs. Luce puts it . . . "one that you don't have to fiddle with!"

Mrs. Harry Luce Gives Five Choice Recipe —

Mrs. Harry Luce, of 948 Dewey St., is a recipe clipper from way back — but one who tries out new recipes instead of filing them away in forgotten drawers.

She loves to cook . . . just everything. When we told her we heard of her culinary reputation and asked just what was her favorite recipe, pretty Mrs. Luce couldn't decide. So we are herewith offering five unusual recipes for Plymouthites which Mrs. Luce prepares often for friends.

There's "Chicken Tetrazzini" which is wonderful for post-football dinners as it can be made the evening before and just reheated. It is relatively inexpensive but rich, hearty, dinner fare.

Then there's her own "Fruit Cookies" that she originated to enter in a national Bake-Off contest. These are a moist, pretty light brown cookie with crushed pineapple as the fruit. They are especially nice during the Christmas season topped by maraschino cherries.

Next comes "French Pot Roast" which can make the humblest cut of beef gourmet eating. It is cooked long and over low heat, allowing herbs and wine to do their noble work. The roast offers much gravy. And the next day, any left-overs can be combined in the most succulent stew or hash imaginable.

And then "Onion Crunch Bread" that Mrs. Luce many times makes to serve when a dinner party is in session. It's a good accompaniment for late evening buffets.

And last, "Chocolate Halfway Cookies" that disappear more than halfway when they come out of the oven! Mr. and Mrs. Luce and their young daughter, Stephanie, now 4 years old, moved to Plymouth just a year ago from Ypsilanti. Mr. Luce, an accountant with Chevrolet spring and bumper plant in Livonia, was laid off work three weeks ago . . . and so far his job-searching hasn't obtained any results!

The Luces both call Flint their hometown. They went all through school together. Right now Mrs. Luce (Janet) has added a new interest to her homemaking — she's taking a night school class in beginning sewing. And a new member of the household as of three weeks is a sleepy gray kitten by name of "Misty." Here are those recipes:

CHICKEN TETRAZZINI
2 small onions
1 green pepper
1 can chopped pimento
1 can mushrooms, 4 or 6 oz.
1 lb. American cheese, processed
1 can boned chicken or whole stewing chicken and broth
8 oz. pkg. noodles
Method: Saute onions and pepper in butter. Add the chopped pimento, mushrooms, cheese cut in strips or hunks, boned chicken, and broth. Cook the noodles and add to above mixture. Bake in 2 quart casserole, uncovered for about 1 1/2 hours at 325 degrees.

FRUIT COOKIES
1 pound dates
1/2 C water
1 C chopped walnuts
1/2 C shortening
1 egg
1 C white sugar
2 C flour
1 t. soda
Method: First cook the dates in the 1/2 cup of water. Then mash with potato masher and add finely chopped walnuts. While this is cooling, cream shortening with sugar; add egg. Add the crushed pineapple with four tablespoons of the juice. Add the flour sifted with the soda. Mix in dates and nuts. Bake at 350 degrees from 8 to 10 min.

FRENCH POT ROAST
4 lb. rolled chuck roast (or any cheaper roast cut with 2 T. flour
1/4 C bacon drippings
1 large onion, chopped
1 C dry red wine (burgundy or claret)
1 can Consomme or cup beef stock (or 2 bullion cubes with 2 C boiling water)
1 t. marjoram
1 t. Worcestershire sauce
1 t. salt
Freshly ground pepper
1 large carrot, cut in thin slices
2 t. cornstarch or 4 table-spoons flour
Method: Roll roast in flour to coat evenly. Melt bacon drippings in a stewpot. Add roast and brown very well on all sides. Remove meat and saute chopped onion in fat until transparent.
Return roast to pot and add wine, consomme, marjoram, Worcestershire sauce, brandy, salt and pepper. Bring to boil quickly. Cover and reduce heat to lowest point. Simmer gently 2 1/2-3 hours, turning roast in liquid every half hour to insure even cooking. Add carrot slices for the last hour of cooking time. Remove roast to a heated platter for slicing. It will cut like soft cheese.

ONION CRUNCH BREAD
3/4 C milk
1 T. sugar
1 t. salt
2 T. butter
3 T. instant dehydrated minced onion or fresh onion
1 pkg. active dry yeast
1/4 C warm (not hot) water
1 egg, well beaten
3 C sifted all-purpose flour
For Topping:
1/4 C melted butter
1/4 C instant minced onion
Method: Heat milk to boiling point and pour over sugar, salt, 2 tablespoons butter and 3 tablespoons instant minced onion in a large mixing bowl. Cool to lukewarm. Pour melted butter over dough, spreading evenly with a pastry brush. Sprinkle with instant minced onion.
Let dough rise until it is nearly double in bulk. Bake in moderately hot oven 375 degrees for 20-25 min. Serve warm from the oven with butter.
Yield: 1 doz., 3-inch squares about two inches thick.
If desired, onion crunch bread may be made without kneading. Reduce the flour to 2 1/2 C, and instead of kneading the dough, stir it vigorously, using a round-the-bowl motion for one minute (100 strokes). Bake the "stirred" bread a little longer than the kneaded — about 25 to 30 min.

CHOCOLATE HALFWAY COOKIES
1 C butter
1/2 C white sugar
1/2 C brown sugar
2 egg yolks slightly beaten
1 T. water
2 C sifted flour
1 t. vanilla
1/4 t. salt
1 t. baking powder
1 pkg. chocolate chips
Method: Cream shortening and sugar, add egg yolks, water and vanilla. Blend and sift dry ingredients three times. Grease cookie sheet, put dough on, then sprinkle chocolate chips on the top. Make mixture of two egg whites (beat stiff). Add one cup of brown sugar, spread on top of chips. Bake 350 degrees 20-25 min. Cool and cut 50 cookies. Bake in a 9 x 13 x 2 in. sized pan.

Sandra Penny's Wedding Told

Mrs. Dale Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. Russell S. Penny, 16370 Haggerty Hwy., announce the marriage of their daughter, Sandra Loraine, to Dale Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eskel Anderson. The latter are owners of the Anderson Grey Horse Farm, Hager City, Wis.

The young couple were married in Hitchcock, S. D., Sept. 27 and will make their home in Hager City. Sandra graduated from Plymouth High school in the class of 1957 and attended Eastern Michigan College of Education in Ypsilanti for one year.

Here's Correct Favorite Recipe — Cheese Cake

Graham cracker crumbs for Mrs. Richard Merriam's favorite "Cheese Cake" recipe wound up in the wrong spot in the story published two weeks ago in the MAIL. Here's the recipe again with the crumbs going where they should — lining the loaf pan.

CHEESE CAKE
3 large packages white cream cheese
4 egg whites
1 C sugar
1 t. vanilla
2-3 C graham cracker crumbs
Method: Cream well to soften the cream cheese. Beat until stiff the four egg whites. Blend in sugar. Combine with the cheese. Add vanilla. Pour into loaf pan buttered and dusted with the 2-3 cups graham cracker crumbs. Bake 350 degrees 25 minutes.
Mix together and spread over the top:
1 pint thick sour cream
2 t. sugar
1/2 t. vanilla
Bake 475 degrees for 5 minutes. Chill two hours. Recipe makes three loaf pans.
Mrs. Merriam puts the cheese cake in her deep freeze to insure serving very cold.

ATOMIC CLOCKS
NEW YORK (UPI) — American and British-made atomic clocks were compared and found to be only one-20,000th of a second apart in each 24 hours of operation. Each clock was constructed to different standards, demonstrating that time measurement keyed to the inner workings of the atom is the most accurate yet devised.

INFANT FOUND IN WOODS
WAUKEGAN, Ill. (UPI) — Peter Poulous, Lake County deputy sheriff, stopped his automobile on a lonely road northwest of here to check a tire, heard a baby cry, walked into a nearby woods and found a newborn baby girl wrapped in a cloth. Attendants at the hospital where he took her said the child was about two hours old and in good condition.

Women's Guild Formed At St. Mary Hospital

The St. Mary Hospital Guild, with two members from Plymouth, held its first Board of Directors meeting on October 9th at Ladywood High School to discuss Constitution and By-Laws and membership dues in organizing this new women's guild. The purpose of the Guild which is being constructed at Levan and Five Mile Roads, completion of which is expected in November, 1959. The Board of Directors have set as their goal 2,000 members. "There is no reason why we can't reach that figure," Mrs. Roach, president of the Guild, stated. "We have an excellent and enthusiastic Board. If hard work will do the job, we will have the 2,000 members." The Guild membership will encompass Livonia, Northville, Farmington, Plymouth and Redford Township. Board members who represented this area at the meeting were: Mrs. Dorothy Arnold and Mrs. Margaret Stremick. Sister Mary Calasantia, Associate Administrator of St. Mary Hospital is the Guild moderator. Although a date has not been set as yet for the first meeting of the Guild, it is expected that a get-acquainted tea will be held before the end of the year. The Membership Drive is on. Women may contact one of the board members listed who covers your area and she will furnish them with an application form. Active membership dues will be $2 per year, sustaining membership, $5. Patrons are listed at $25 and up, the list of whom will be placed in the cornerstone of the building. Upon its completion, the hospital will be one of the most modern and best equipped in the country. It will be operated by the Felician Sisters and will be non-sectarian in its board of directors, staff, patients and Guild members.

Eight Junior Achievement Companies Formed Here

This year's first Junior Achievement companies under the supervision of advisers from counselling companies have been formed at the local Junior Achievement business center at 204 South Main street, Plymouth. Since JA companies were formed the week of October 5, adult advisers to the junior firms have explained to teenagers the manner in which they will operate during the next year. They have shown the young people charter applications, explaining the necessity for a company to be properly chartered. The advisers have also called for suggestions on products to be manufactured, made some suggestions themselves, and the teenagers, after weighing the advantages and disadvantages, have already decided what product to manufacture. In most cases names for the teenage firms are a reality.

So in spite of the fact that local Junior Achievement companies are only a few days old much has already been done in preparing them for the eight month JA business year ahead. To date eight JA companies are now in actual operation in Plymouth and manned by nearly 260 teenagers. Following is a list of those companies counselling one or more local Junior Achievement firms this year: Engineering Staff of Ford Motor Company, Burroughs Corporation (3), Michigan Bell Telephone Company, Ford Metal Stamping Division of Ford Motor Company, Evans Products Company and Whitman & Barnes.

The Albert Harts Have Busy Weekend
Pfc. and Mrs. Kenneth Hart have returned to Ft. Bragg, N. C., after spending a 10-day leave with their parents, Rev. and Mrs. James Andrews of Northville and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hart, Shearer Dr., Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. William Fegan and baby daughter, Cindy of Cincinnati, O., spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hart, Shearer Dr., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fegan of Newburg Rd. They also saw Mrs. Fegan's brother, Kenneth Hart, who was home on leave from Ft. Bragg, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hart attended the Detroit Lions-Baltimore Colts football game in Detroit last Sunday.

Maplecroft: Symphony Benefit Card Party Is Gay Success

(Covering the Area bounded by Burroughs, Ann Arbor Rd. and the Junior High, including Maplecroft and Birch Subs.)

BY RHEA ROSS
GL. 3-3144

Kickoff of the winter series of the Symphony concerts was a delightful program last Sunday at the high school enjoyed by many of our Plymouth residents. Decorating the scenery was young and lovely Miss Karen Taylor, a very accomplished pianist and both pleasing to the eye and ear. Miss Taylor chose for her selection Beethoven's Second Concerto in B flat Major.

Another victory the Symphony Society can chalk up was the benefit card party that took place at the Junior High Multi-purpose room last Thursday evening.

Much credit is due to the girls working on the various committees. The delicious lemon chiffon dessert you enjoyed was prepared by some of our ablest cooks rounded up by Mrs. Gerald Fischer. The sought after door prizes were all held out breath over were generously donated by several of our merchants and four or five books of stamps collected by Mrs. Eber Readman helped decorations were planned and carried out by Mrs. William Scott, Mrs. Lawrence Becker, Mrs. William Clarke and yours truly. In charge of tickets was Mrs. James Warren. The senior girl Scout troop of Mrs. William Edgar competently handled the serving. and much credit goes to Mrs. Michael Huber, Mrs. George Hudson, and Mrs. Fred Foust, our senior advisors.

Before writing this to the Symphony news we'd like to announce a new member... just twenty-four hours old... son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Dunlap... born Sunday, Oct. 19 at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor.

Sides of their favorite subjects, baby Richard, and the three Milroy children, motivated the get-together last Saturday of the Richard Neys, the Bruce Milroys and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Williams at the Ney residence.

Here's a date to check on your calendars - November 6... The annual Methodist bazaar or Colonial Mart. Our neighbor, Mrs. Wendell Lent, has been spending considerable time collecting material for her booth the "Kidie Kampus" which will contain gifts for children such as hand puppets, stuffed animals, and toys. Another neighbor Mrs. Eugene Jordan will be in charge of Koffee Korner. There will be many other booths and the girls working will be dressed in costumes of our early colonial days. Haven't missed one yet and readily will vouch for them.

Recent guests at the home of the Cedie Sweets last week were Mr. and Mrs. Neal Wiersema of Holland, Mich.

The Forrest Morgesons took advantage of the long weekend (teacher's Institute) and motored to Indiana where they visited several

Canton Township Hayride Coming Up Saturday, Nov. 1

BY ESTHER SPRENGEL
GL. 3-0194

It has been a very busy week for many of our column friends and we have some very interesting events to report. Before we get into the news though, just eight days from the time you read this article the ghost and goblins will be about, so if you are planning a Halloween party for your youngsters or planning one for another reason, I would like to include it in the column. On with this week's news.

Mrs. Roy Schrumm of Clyde Rd., called to announce the birth of a new grandson, Staff Sgt. Richard Schrumm and his wife Helen, notified the proud grandparents of the birth of Michael Richard, weight 5 lbs. 11 oz., born Oct. 7-58 in Victoria, Tex. Michael has two sisters at home.

Mrs. Schrumm said she had just returned from a trip to Goderich, Ontario, the home of her mother's relatives, whom she has not seen for 30 years. Mrs. Schrumm's sister, Mrs. Garnet Kerr of Detroit, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Harry Lowry of Windsor, accompanied her by auto, on the trip. Mrs. Schrumm described her vacation as one long "gab fest."

Canton Township Community Club asked that I extend a very cordial invitation to all the community to attend their Hayride Festival, on Saturday, Nov. 1. The group will meet at Geddes Hall at 7 p.m. There will be free refreshments and door prizes. Admission 50c except for children under five. Come and bring the children; it's a family affair. All children must be accompanied by an adult.

Kevin Smith announced there will be a Halloween party for the Cub Scouts of pack 298, Thursday, Oct. 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Ehrenberger of Joy Rd., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kroff, Mrs. Ehrenberger's sister and husband, just returned from Almiria, N. Y., upon visiting with Mrs. Ehrenberger's daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Dash. While there they visited the Corning Glass Plant, in Corning, N. Y. Mrs. Ehrenberger also reported having as a house guest, George Kacey of Detroit. Mr. Kacey and his wife, who is now in California, are leaving Detroit to reside permanently in Riverside, Cal.

Mr. Kacey stayed behind until he could arrange the sale of his property in Detroit. Mrs. Ehrenberger stated that her husband's retirement party was a success and that he received many presents that will be useful in his hobby of photography. Some of the guests attending were: Mr. and Mrs. Guy Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rohrabacher of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kroff of Dearborn and Mr. Kacey of Detroit.

Mrs. K. Smith of Ford Rd., called to give us the news about our Scout Troop, No. 298. The troop held their first Court of Honor, Oct. 13 with ceremony and skits. Awards presented were - four tenderfoot awards, five second class awards, seven first class, four merit badges, 10 one year pins. Robert Voss of Ford Rd., was promoted to senior Patrol Leader and Terry Wright of Proctor Rd., was made Jr. Assistant Scout Master. Thirty-eight scouts received their camping awards.

Mrs. Carl Cederberg held a television party for the ladies of the township, who helped in the United Foundation Drive, at her home on Warren Rd., Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. Mrs. Cederberg reported 30 women attended. The group met to watch the United Foundation Television Program and shared a snack of coffee and donuts.

A surprise birthday party was given for Mrs. Warren Palmer, the former Alice McClumpha by her husband. The guest list included Dr. and Mrs. Clifford McClumpha, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Palmer and family, David Palmer, Mrs. Howard Salley, Mr. and Mrs. Theon Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Laa, Mariann Palmer and Ronnie Markham. Many more happy birthdays to you, Mrs. Palmer.

If you haven't noticed the hobby of John Maxwell of Joy Rd., perhaps your children have. Mr. Maxwell has trains and tracks running around the field by his home. I know our family is very fascinated by it all. When I called Mrs. Maxwell, she was busy taking care of her grandchildren. She and Mr. Maxwell and friends from Toledo, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hoffer, recently took a weekend trip to Cadillac. Mrs. Maxwell said they visited friends, and took many pictures of the beautiful autumn scenes now in Cadillac.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Palmer and daughter Connie, just returned from a visit to Indianapolis, Ind., where they visited friends, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Moulton and son, Mrs. Palmer said they had a very nice time and it gave them a fine opportunity to get away from their usual routine. The past week, I had a short visit from a friend, neighbor, Mrs. Robert Orr, now of Hudson. Mrs. Orr came to see our new daughter, but her most important reason for the trip was to see her new grandson John Clay, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Combs of Beck Rd.

Edward Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clark Wright of Proctor Rd., will take as his bride, Miss Carol Ann Horton. The wedding will be Nov. 1, in Eaton, Ind. The couple plans to return to Ypsilanti to make their home.

I called Mrs. Gertrude Hanlon, proprietor of the Hanlon Rest Home, on Warren Rd. She asked if I had noticed the tree cutting and remodeling of the house on Beck and Ford Rd. I assured her I had, as so many others had (and I might add with curiosity as to who the new owner might be). Mrs. Hanlon stated that she was the new owner and has tentative plans of making her home there.

I heard that Mr. and Mrs. John Thorpe of Cherry Hill have a very active interest in our Canton Township Boy Scout Troop, so I decided to call Mrs. Thorpe and get acquainted.

She told me about a recent trip the Junior Leaders, Lyle Avery, Terry Wright and Jerry Harper, accompanied by Mr. Leffler, Scout Leader, H. Voss, Mr. Clair Avery and John Thorpe took to West Branch, at the cottage of Mr. Leffler. Mrs. Thorpe explained that this trip was planned for the junior leaders, due to the fact that when the whole troop goes on a trip, these young men have little chance to enjoy much relaxation, due to their duties. However they did have a wonderful time on their special trip and I understand did a little hunting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Denski, Jr., of Beck Rd., held a family gathering on Oct. 14, to welcome Mrs. Stella Denski, visiting here from Florida. The group, 20 guests in all, were entertained by an all girl band, called the Rhythm Queens.

On accordion, Delores; drums, Romona; saxophone, Bonnie; and guitar, Sharon. Mrs. Denski said the young ladies are all in their teens and have appeared on television. The guests were served coffee and cake. As a side note, Mrs. Denski said anyone interested in the "Rhythm Queens" band, can get in touch with them by calling Mrs. Denski at Glenview 3-3741.

Last week I reported a trip taken by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Salley and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Holton. I stated that the group flew to New York City, then they went to Connecticut to pick up a 1929 Lincoln car, at least I thought I said a 1929 Lincoln car, as the Salleys and Holtons are antique car enthusiasts.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rocco, of Napier Rd., and their two sons and Mr. and Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. Rocco's parents, took a trip to Lake Michigan, Clair County to visit with the Irwins two other daughters and their husbands.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Mucker of Salt Rd., just returned from Akron, O., where they went upon receipt of the news of an automobile accident, in which Mr. Mucker's two brothers, John and Lewis Mucker were seriously injured. John Mucker had been on the critical list, but Mrs. Mucker called and said that he was now on his way to recovery. The Mucker's three children stayed with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Wells, of Plymouth, while their parents were in Ohio.

Kathy Elise Sprengel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sprengel was baptized at the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Epiphany in Plymouth, Sunday, Oct. 19. Following the church service, a dinner was held for Kathy's sponsors, Mrs. Howard Hilying and family and Mr. Gustav Zabel and family, along with other relatives.

A thought came to me as I was about to close this article. Last Monday, October 20th, hunting season started. I have just one thing to say - remember hunters that that moves is not a pheasant, and we in the hunting areas love our children and pets. Now where did I put my earplugs? See you next week, I hope.

LANGUAGE OF LOVE
ITHACA, N. Y. (UPI)—The call of a bird is much more significant than most people think, according to Cornell University scientists. Ornithologists had long wondered why two groups of birds, seemingly similar, never interbred. After a series of tests with a complex machine called an audiospectrograph, the scientists found marked differences in the songs of the two birds. The ornithologists concluded that the birds stayed away from one another because they didn't "speak the same language."

"Autumn is the American season. In Europe, the leaves turn yellow or brown, and a cold shows the hard-boiled critics. Here the leaves take fire on the trees and hang there flaming. We think this frost-free fire is a portent somehow: a promise that the continent has given us. Life, too, we think, is capable of taking fire in this country: of creating a beauty never seen." So says Mr. Archibald MacLeish, one of our more literate spokesmen in America, and old George agrees most profoundly with him.

Mr. MacLeish has contributed many fine pieces of writing to the American Theatre, but his greatest effort will open next month on Broadway in the form of a drama entitled "J.B." "J.B." is actually a modern-dress version of the Biblical tale of Job. Playwrights for centuries have been attempting to dramatize this story of suffering and sacrifice. Mr. MacLeish has turned the trick with his adaptation of the story by projecting his characters into a modern, realistic setting. The play has already proved to be a smash hit over in London.

Broadway producers always shy away from shows that smack of intellectual fare. "J.B." is definitely in that category. The story of Job is dynamic and soul-searching. In fact, many a philosophy class spends a number of hours probing the metaphysical questions that underlie the Book of Job in the Bible. Too bad that many of our American showmen feel that people go to the theater only for laughs and frothy situations.

Elia Kanan has been snaggled for director of this fine play. Christopher Plummer (you saw him on TV the other evening in "Johnny Belinda") with Julie Harris, a fine Shakespearean actor, and Raymond Massey are slated to take over the leading roles in this taut, exciting drama.

If you're going to New York city this winter, check with the box office people at the ANTA Theater on West 52nd street for seats. You'll have an exciting evening in the theater I'm sure.

My Italian under-cover correspondent dropped me a note the other day that indicated a new crisis has hit the land of pizza and Gina Lollabrida. According to all sources the American pinball machine has taken Italy by storm. Two years ago, a hundred or so machines appeared in the country because someone found a loophole in the foreign trade regulations. Now some 20,000 pinball machines are flipping balls madly. Even though the machines pay in over a million dollars in taxes, the Italian government frowns on any product that has no usefulness. They claim the machines are corrupting their youth.

Guess this pinball dissertation came about after seeing Jackie Gleason's presentation of "Time of Your Life" on TV a week or two ago. If you'll recall the pinball machine scene in the play, the pinball hits the jackpot near the end of show with flags flying, steam coming out of the machine, lights blinking, and a riot of dissonant sounds. To top it all off the nicker-gonging monster played "The Stars and Stripes Forever." William Saroyan, the author, added this last ironic touch as a last symbolic mark to indicate to all of us how crazy our civilization can get at times.

Only hope now is that Russia will get a shipment of the pinball machines. Such a tactic might deter them from putting a missile or two moon-ward. We need the time to catch up. You know there might be a play lurking in those nutty goings-on.

One last TV item: a few weeks back Dinah Shore did a color TV show that had a production number that depended on its color effects for its audience response. As far as I was concerned it made me see red! After all, why irritate those of us without the color sets. It was a wonderful dance and song number that used various colors of the rainbow to make the act effective. One of these days all of us will be able to enjoy those colors, but until then, pass the rose-tinted glasses, mother.

The Broadway deal this week was not too filled with hits. "Goldilocks," the latest Jean and Walter Kerr effort, received a lukewarm reception from those seven mean men at the typewriters that guide the destiny of many shows—the hard-boiled critics. Main comment was that the show was unexciting. Music was passable, but not outstanding. "Goldilocks" is the second Broadway show in the last few years to tackle the theme of the silent movies and come up a loser. Carol Channing tried her luck a couple of years ago with "The Vamp" and lost her false eyebrows in this venture. The jinx of the silent movies for such a theme is becoming apparent. Broadway-bound authors should not give up though since for years it was thought that baseball was a deadening subject for the stage. "Damn Yankees" proved this wrong. "Abe's Irish Rose"—ran for a couple of seasons back.

Even Tom Poston's show "Drink To Me Only" which had good out-of-town reviews was met with critical boos. They felt the story line was thin to sustain the play for three acts, Tom was given credit for an excellent performance. Mr. Abbott who gave "A" for his efforts. Of course, this bit of froth may outfit the critics and run in spite of them. Plays do this occasionally. Best example: "Abe's Irish Rose"—ran for five years.

The Plymouth Theater Guild will be opening their season next week. They hope that their "Bell, Book, and Candle" production is attended by so many friends of the Guild that they will have to provide an extra performance or two. If all the Guild members (membership total is now well over 170 citizens) were to bring an extra three or four people to the play, the auditorium would be jammed for all three nights of the show. Get your tickets now for the zaniest play of the year—"Bell, Book, and Candle." You'll enjoy seeing one of the craziest love affairs to ever cross the boards in Plymouth.

See you next week and I'll try to put the spotlight on what's happening in the downtown Detroit area.

State Official Writes Movie
JACKSON, Miss. (UPI)—A Mississippi public service commissioner wrote the script for the latest Tarzan movie—"Tarzan's Fight for Life."
Thomas Hal Phillips, who also is a novelist, said the film takes a new approach to the 40-year-old Tarzan series. In it, Tarzan does not speak broken English and is "a little bit more adult."
Phillips took time off from his state duties to write the script. He has also turned out several novels and short stories.

GILLIAN (Loretta Young) has her eyes wide open while she casts a romantic spell over Shep (Ray Wisenewski) in "Bell, Book, and Candle." He's bewitched, bothered, and bewildered throughout the three acts of this daffy comedy about love and kisses in the small town of New York city. Plymouth Theater Guild's opening production premieres next week Thursday (October 31st and November 1st) at the Plymouth High School Auditorium.

How About This? She Chases Wasps for Satisfying Career

By PATRICIA McCORMACK
United Press International

NEW YORK (UPI)—Running from wasps is one feminine prerogative which Dr. Mary Loveless ignores. She runs after them. The Cornell University medical scientist isn't a mere wasp-watcher. She brings 'em back alive—preferably by the buzzing nestful. The hunts which Dr. Loveless stages in suburban New York woods are in connection with research aimed at developing a vaccine for persons who get severe reactions from wasp stings.

She already has produced an experimental one-shot hay fever immunization that is "on trial" at a number of leading medical centers.

When hunting, Dr. Loveless wasp-proofs herself with bulky clothing. Chunky gloves—an extra ounce of prevention—are virtually sting-proof. To guard her face, she wears an umbrella-shaped hat with a curtain of heavy netting.

The genial scientist likes to be a good sport, catching the insects on the fly. But as a practical matter, she also must capture them by the nestful. Her research demands wasps—in great quantity.

The quarry is transported to the laboratory where the allergist extracts wasp venom. She said it is important to have fresh venom.

The venom is diluted with a bit of salt water. It takes venom from 20 to 30 wasps to treat one patient.

Later, to test the effectiveness of the vaccination, Dr. Loveless puts one alive and stinging wasp into service. Carefully, she picks up the wasp with a pair of surgical forceps and permits the insect to sink its stinger into the volunteer patient's arm.

The immunization is judged effective if the patient fails to develop the usual wasp-sting reaction.

Bad reactions to wasp and bee stings are, said the scientist, more common than most persons realize.

In a medical journal recently, for example, there was a report of a person in Africa dying from a severe bee-sting reaction.

Local Office To Handle Payments To Veterans

Unemployment insurance protection for some 18,000 Michigan peace-time ex-servicemen will become effective on Monday, October 27, when the Michigan Employment Security Commission will become the agent of the Federal government for this program.

Only about 75 per cent, or 13,500 of the eligible ex-servicemen are expected to form the initial impact on the commission, Gordon Packard, local MESC manager, announced Saturday. This will be increased later as discharges occur.

This program, which is really an extension of the program for unemployment insurance for Federal employees, now handled by the Commission, differs from the now terminating plan of Unemployment Compensation for Veterans, (UCV), in that it doesn't provide fixed payments for a fixed number of weeks.

Instead, the benefits, including dependency benefits, are based upon the amount of pay, including allowances, the claimant receives from the government or from civilian employment if any during the 52 weeks preceding the effective date of the law, October 27, 1958, or any subsequent filing date.

The claimant must fulfill the same requirements as claimants for state unemployment insurance benefits, and must be able and available for work and seeking work, according to the state law. Federal requirements provide that ex-servicemen, in order to be eligible for these benefits:

(1) Must have had at least 90 days or more of continuous active service which began after January 31, 1955, or

(2) Began their active service before January 31, 1955, and are discharged or released from active service after October 27, 1958.

Benefit payments as a result of the military service range from $26 to $30 per week plus dependency benefits which could reach $11 a week, Packard said.

In an event an ex-serviceman has less than enough weeks of qualifying military service, he must amplify it by adding enough civilian covered employment to reach 14 or more credit weeks, the minimum for qualification.

Many problems are expected to arise in the administration of this system, Packard said, and Commission employees are now undergoing intensive training in it. An informational booklet will be available at the Commission's 68 branch offices, on and after October 27 and may be picked up there.

No claims in this category will be accepted before October 27, Packard said, as the law does not become effective until that time. However, servicemen will not receive benefits until after periods covered by lump-sum terminal leave and mustering-out payments have expired. Certain other instances such as when the serviceman is receiving educational and training allowances may hold up unemployment benefits.

Quarterly Income Shows Upturn At Burroughs

For the first nine months of 1958, Burroughs Corporation reported revenue of $208,412,695 from world-wide operations, compared with $204,861,122 for the same period in 1957. Consolidated net income after taxes for the period amounted to $4,224,753, compared with $6,687,661. Income taxes for the nine months of 1958 are estimated at $3,900,000 as compared with $6,082,000 for the nine months of 1957. On the basis of 6,607,213 shares outstanding at September 30, 1958, earnings per share for the nine months were 64 cents as compared with $1.01 in the same period in 1957.

For the quarter ended September 30, 1958, net income amounted to $1,620,926 on total revenue of $68,772,447 as compared with net income of $875,948 on total revenue of $67,947,978 for the same period in the preceding year.

As of September 30, 1958, total unfilled orders for both military and commercial products amounted to $229,065,000 as compared with $182,220,000 at September 30, 1957.

Incoming orders for commercial equipment only in September amounted to $34,000,000. This included orders for one thousand Electronic Bank Bookkeeping Machines. The company announced a price increase in a majority of its products effective October 1, 1958.

OXFORD, Miss. (UPI) — Dr. Katherine Rea, Dean of Women at the University of Mississippi, says a high scholastic average in college does not seem to help women graduates to higher salaries.

Dr. Rea earned her Ph.D. degree by studying how women graduates of eight colleges in Mississippi fare in their jobs. She found that "graduate of distinction" are earning only slightly more than women in the low-average group.

Career Corner: Flying Rewards Mary O'Connor

The dean of airline stewardesses has her head in the clouds where flying is concerned.

Mary O'Connor, chief stewardess for United Airlines, says flying is "the most wonderful thing in the world" and being a stewardess the most rewarding occupation for a woman.

She counts as rewards: salary $290 a month for a beginner, more than $650 for a chief stewardess; a chance to talk to many people ("women are a gabby bunch, you know!"); and the opportunity to meet a future husband ("most flight officers are young and good looking").

Pretty, blonde Miss O'Connor, who celebrated her 25th year in the air last May, has had another reward — "Mainliner O'Connor," the executive plane used by United President William Patterson, was named for her.

Miss O'Connor figures she had flown more than six million miles since she stepped aboard a trimotor passenger plane of National Air Transport, predecessor company of UAL, at Kansas City in 1933. She says she's met at least 10,000 persons, many of them celebrities.

Miss O'Connor trained as a registered nurse. She turned to the airlines for a job because people couldn't afford to hire private nurses during the depression.

During World War II, she took out time to organize the Navy's air evacuation corps and her 25th year in the air last May, has had another reward — "Mainliner the air.

As chief stewardess, spends much of her time speaking to clubs about air travel. She doesn't fly as much as she used to — "only about 100,000 to 200,000 miles a year."

Riverside Park Church of God has a busy week ahead. The Board of Trustees will meet Thursday, Oct. 23, at 7:30 p.m. in the home of Gerald Elston in Lake Pointe. Saturday evening, Oct. 25, the Ambassador Class is planning a social gathering in the new Wilcox Rd. home of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Micol.

Vandalism Ruin Locomotive

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI)—The old steam locomotive donated to the city of Buffalo in 1954 by the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad as an "educational exhibit" is winding up on the wrong side of the tracks.

The railroading veteran was given a shiny coat of black paint and its brass was gleaming when it was placed on permanent exhibition in La Salle Park. But the city fathers didn't figure on the hoodlum element.

The locomotive has been dismantled piece by piece over the months — even a fence didn't protect it — until it's become an eyesore. Officials indicate it soon will be consigned to the scrap heap.

CHICAGO (UPI) — George Halas, Chicago Bears' owner who returned as coach of his professional football team this year after turning the job over to Paddy Driscoll the last two seasons, Close. Mrs. Jane West, Mrs. Marjorie Mackie, Mrs. Cecile Gordon, Miss Ann Welch, Mrs. Elizabeth Donnelly, Mrs. Joan Hayaker and Mrs. Jacqueline Beach, members of the Plymouth Education Association Executive Committee.

President Stecker called the meeting to order at 8:15 p.m. He indicated that, in keeping with an agreement made with the teachers last spring, the Board has been considering the salary question. He noted also the Board's analysis of the present economic conditions, unemployment situation, attitudes of citizens generally in regard to the tax load, and the school district's financial position. On the basis of these factors, the Board granted an across-the-board increase of $100 in the basic teacher salary schedule. Also, an opportunity to participate in an in-service, one week summer workshop for teachers — for this service teachers will be paid $100.

Mr. Arnold, speaking for the Plymouth Education Association and the teaching profession in general, pointed to the economic needs of teachers. He felt that the basic salary schedule needed further consideration and indicated the willingness of teachers to work with the Board of Education in a combined effort to alert the community to these needs.

It was pointed out that people have different perceptions of the teacher's workload and it is important to develop common understandings of what teachers actually do.

It was mutually agreed that a cooperative study be made by a joint committee of teachers and board members in a continuing effort to raise the professional status of teachers as well as the economic well-being and the prestige of the teaching profession. Mr. James Mitchell was named as the Board's chairman on this joint committee.

It was moved by Mr. Fischer and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to approve the $100 across-the-board increase in the basic teacher salary schedule.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Fischer and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to adjust bus drivers' salaries upward at the rate of 5 cents per hour.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Fischer and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to approve a $75 across-the-board increase in the secretarial salary schedule.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

The following citizens, Verne Taylor, Bill Richards, Jack Bellmore, Adam Jashniery, E. D. Mogle, G. M. Lachin and Bob Hudson, living in the Lakepointe Development Area appeared before the Board to request, in the interest of safety of their children, that a change be made in the transportation policy to permit children in grades 3 through 6, inclusive, to ride buses when they are exposed to traffic hazards over which there seems to be no means of control.

Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet interpreted the Board's policy and indicated no change would be made at this time. However, a general concern was expressed for the safety of all children and cooperation between citizens and governmental agencies should be intensified.

Meeting adjourned at 10:00 p.m.

Ether L. Hulsing, Secretary Board of Education

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held in the faculty room of the Plymouth Community Junior High School on Monday, September 22, 1958, at eight o'clock.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker, and Mr. Zoet. The meeting was called to order by President Stecker at 8:00 P.M.

Mrs. Hulsing distributed for consideration a written progress report on the Community College Study. She indicated that the boards of education in the respective districts were asked to select a board member to serve on a Central Survey Committee. Mr. Fischer was appointed to this committee.

Mr. Fischer noted, also, that at a subsequent time the Board will be asked to name representatives to joint Community College Committees dealing with legislation, curriculum, building and sites and public information.

A discussion of the proposed operating budget of the athletic department with anticipated receipts and disbursements of $8,200 each, it was moved by Mr. Mitchell and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to approve the budget as submitted.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

Problems associated with supervision and administration of the transportation system were discussed at length. It was recommended that further study be given to these problems by the Central Administration.

Official Proceedings of Board of Education

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held in the faculty room at the Plymouth Community Junior High School on Monday evening, September 22, 1958, at eight o'clock.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet; Mr. Blunk and Mr. Isbister.

Also present: Mr. Larsen, Mr. DeGroat, Mr. McCarthy, Mrs. Cameron and Mrs. Soth.

President Stecker called the meeting to order at 8:00 p.m.

Bids for the purchase of notes in the amount of $35,000 in anticipation of undistributed 1958-59 state appropriations were opened and read as follows: Detroit Bank and Trust Company.

Interest at 2.25 per cent per annum National Bank of Detroit - 1.70 per cent per annum

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Soth to sell notes in the amount of $35,000 at the interest rate of 1.70 per cent per annum to the low bidder, the National Bank of Detroit, in accordance with bid specifications as outlined in the notice of sale published in the Plymouth Mail on Wednesday, August 20, 1958, and the Michigan Investor on Saturday, August 30, 1958.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

Mr. DeGroat inquired about the possibility of an exception being made to entrance age policy for kindergarten children. It was pointed out that the Board policy conforms with the authority granted to the local districts by the state law. At present no change will be made. However, the educational research being carried on in other districts in regard to kindergarten entrance age will be studied for purposes of local application.

It was moved by Mr. Fischer and seconded by Mr. Soth to approve the minutes of the last regular and the intervening special board meetings.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

Mr. Blunk reported on the Farrand School situation. He pointed out certain engineering problems in making water connections to the main in front of the school. He also noted that the Board of Education was requested to issue a gate well in front of the school ahead of the tap-in point. Mr. Blunk was authorized to negotiate a change in the service line to the school in order to avoid the extra gate well.

The following proposals for workmen's compensation and employer's liability insurance were discussed at length:

Gray Mutuality Mut. Casualty Co.	$2,653.34
(Employers Mut. Casualty Co.)	(based on 15 per cent div. return)
Liberty Mutual	2,660.23
(based on 15 per cent div. return)
(plus $100,000 Emp. Liability)	2,712.93
Merritt Agency (Hartford Acc. & Indemnity Ins. Co.)	2,903.15
Wingard Ins. Agency	2,903.80
(Auto Owners Ins. Co.)
Fisher Agency	2,903.80
(Auto Owners Ins. Co.)
Wood Agency	2,903.80
(Trinity Universal Ins. Co.)
Merritt Agency	3,190.99
(West American Ins. Co.)
Finlan & Son Agency	(less credit earned if loss ratio is low)
(Citizens Mutual Auto Ins. Co.)	3,190.99
(Max. dividend, $1,276.39)
(Min. dividend, $1,276.39 less losses)

It was moved by Mr. Fischer and seconded by Mr. Zoet to request that the two low bidders, either Employers Mutual Casualty Company represented by Gray Mutuality Agency or the Liberty Mutual Company, to place a thirty day binder on the workmen's compensation and employer's liability contract in order that an appropriate investigation may be made by Mr. Blunk in regard to each Company's service record and financial responsibility before the contract is awarded to one of the Companies.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Kaiser and seconded by Mr. Fischer to request that the Board of Education for the school year, 1958-59, be set at $15,750 and the administrative assistant's at $11,000.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet. Nays: None.

The superintendent was requested to prepare a report of innovating practices underway in the schools designed to provide an enriched program for gifted children.

Methodists Plan Reception for Miss Mary Plumb

The Official Board of the First Methodist Church of Plymouth will hold a reception on Sunday October 26, 1958 from 3 to 5 p.m. for Miss Mary Plumb. She is new Director of Christian Education.

The reception will be in Fellowship Hall and all members and friends of the church are invited.

Miss Plumb is a graduate of Michigan State University, and has taken graduate work at the University of Michigan and Iliff School of Theology in Denver Colorado. She holds a permanent teaching certificate from the State of Michigan. She has taught for three years in Midland and one year in Jackson.

Trinity Baptist Moves Location

The site of the Trinity Baptist Church services have been moved, the Reverend Truman Felkner announced this week.

Formerly held on Penniman Avenue, services will now be held in the church building at Holbrook Avenue and Pearl Street.

The congregation is in the midst of raising funds for a new church on North Territorial Rd. So far, $16,000 has been raised. It is hoped to start construction by the end of next month.

VETERANS OF FOREIGN WARS

The addition to the Post home is nearing completion and should prove to be very convenient. Work parties have been scheduled for painting and finishing the interior. Dick Neale could always use another "volunteer." Bud Krumm states that plans are completed for the Halloween dance to be held Saturday, Oct. 25. This will be a masquerade, with prizes given for the best costumes. Tickets are available from members or at the door. The telecasts of the Detroit Lions home football games at the Post home seem to be popular, even though the Lions aren't operating. Members, families and guests are invited to see the remaining games on Nov. 16, Nov. 23, Nov. 27 and Dec. 7.

A lively and stimulating discussion took place at the regular meeting of Oct. 15. One of the main topics was the subject of enlivening the meetings and stimulating both interest and attendance at the meetings. A motion picture is now under consideration. The Community Service Officer was directed to investigate the possibilities of the Post sponsoring a local youth athletic team, probably basketball at the present time. Among the other suggestions were trips for members to football and hockey games in Detroit. It appeared unanimous that more of these types of activities, probably would arouse interest and therefore attendance at the meetings.

As of the last meeting, there were only 12 members who paid their 1958 dues. These dues are now payable. We need all our old members, particularly in the matter of their appearance at the meetings. There are, no doubt, many eligible members in this area who have not been contacted about joining. Let's see if we can't start the fall season with more interest in our post and service to the community.

In observance of United Nations week, which is Oct. 19-24, the adjutant was directed to present a summary of the United Nations at the next meeting. The Post also voted to make a contribution to the Community Fund.

Pilgrim Farm Bureau Group Discusses Changing Agriculture

Members of Pilgrim Farm Bureau Group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Sharland of 48175 N. Territorial at 8 p.m. on October 15.

Under leadership of Miss Henrietta Burch, discussion leader, the group discussed "The Future of Michigan Farming in View of a Changing Agriculture."

The next meeting will be at 8 p.m. on November 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hix of 41454 Warren Rd.

The Weimar Constitution was basis for the German republic formed after World War I.

The Recession dance held Oct. 4 was a grand success. Everyone had a good time and the drill team members are to be congratulated on the decorations and way the dance was conducted. The next dance will be Oct. 25 and everyone is to wear a costume. This is to be sponsored by the Post.

NEW YORK (UPI) — The makers of fold-up metal tubes see the day when they'll be packaging almost every product imaginable, including meat and cheese spreads, butter and sour cream, as well as such stand-bys as toothpaste.

And, according to the Collapsible Tube Manufacturers Council, the woman of tomorrow will find shopping "easier because vending machines will sell her merchandise in unbreakable tubes at the drop of a coin."

For a picnic, the Council added, you'll be able to pack "a variety of tubed food spreads and some bread and crackers. Fix your snacks as you go along — or, better still, let the kids 'do-it-themselves.'"

CHEESE TOASTWICH

12 slices of bread
¼ cup soft butter or margarine
6 slices American cheese
2 eggs, beaten
¼ cup milk
½ teaspoon salt
¼ cup shortening

Spread bread with butter. Place one slice of cheese on each of six slices of bread and cover with another slice of bread. Combine beaten eggs, milk and salt. Melt shortening in an electric skillet or griddle. Dip each sandwich into egg mixture, turning it to coat both sides. Brown sandwich on both sides in the hot fat. Serve immediately. Yield: Six Cheese Toastwiches.

New Arrival Halts Swainson Campaign

Michigan Democrats welcomed a new member to their ranks today, but it will be 21 years before she'll be able to vote.

She is Kristina Ann Swainson born Wednesday evening at 10:19 p.m. in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor to Senator and Mrs. John B. Swainson.

Senator Swainson is a Democratic candidate for lieutenant governor. The new arrival weighed 5 lbs., 14 oz.

Swainson was passing through the Detroit area as part of a campaign tour when he received word of the birth and cancelled all further engagements for the day to enable him to return to the Swainson home at 44525 Governor Bradford, Plymouth.

PEO Sisterhood Holds Meetings

P.E.O. Sisterhood met October 3 at the home of Mrs. Will Kaiser. Co-hostesses were Mrs. George A. Smith and Mrs. Dewey Evans. The program was the auction of parcel post sent by members from their vacation points of interest.

On October 17 the P.E.O. met at Farmington with Mrs. Douglas Hammill. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Don Taylor and Mrs. Paul Simmons. The program was, "A New Star—Alaska," with pictures by Mrs. Robert Nulty and Mrs. Edwin Rice.

Chamber of Commerce Corner

By Eugene Kornfield

Plymouth sent one of the largest delegations in the state to the Chamber of Commerce Workshop held in Ann Arbor on October 15th. The five hour session was spent in studying such topics as chamber financing, committee activity, membership, and programs of work.

Making up the local delegation were present members of the Board of Directors Roland Bonanici, Earl West, and George Witkowski; Committee Chairmen Harold Yakley and James Thornton; Past Chamber President Dr. J. M. Robison; and Chamber members Leonard Millross, Charles Engstrom, George Lawton, Dr. John Kenzie, Dr. Gerald Fitch, Roberta Steele, and William Sempliner. Guest of the local Chamber and unofficial observer of the proceedings was Dr. K. D. Van Newkirk. Mrs. F. A. Booth, secretary, and Eugene Kornfield, manager, completed the Plymouth group.

The Workshop had a total attendance of 183 from 32 communities in Michigan.

The new $280,000 addition to the Plymouth Post Office recently authorized is the result of an unremitting five year effort by Dr. George Timpona, postmaster of the Plymouth branch, to expand the facilities so as to cope with an approximate 33 percent increase in population over the last eight years, with its resultant other demands. We congratulate Dr.

Timpona on the successful culmination of his plans for the expanded facilities. For those who know him, it was never a question of "if" the authorization would be granted, but "when."

Marv Terry extends a cordial invitation to the general public to join us at our old-fashioned "all you can eat" pancake and sausage day to be held at the Masonic Temple on Saturday, November 8. Victles will be served continuously from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. Tickets for adults will be $1, and 50 cents for children. They will be available at most Plymouth merchants and the Chamber Office.

Congratulations are most certainly due the City Health Department, under Dr. Lee Feldkamp, and the Wayne County Health Department for the very successful polio vaccination clinics conducted at the Junior High School. The Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce was also a most effective factor in the project by furnishing free transportation for those who would otherwise not have been able to attend the clinic.

Salem: Ann Mills Escapes Severe Injuries

By Mrs. Herbert Famuliner FI. 9-0924

A horse owned by Hoyt D. Mills, of 5390 Gotfredson Rd., and ridden by Ann Mills, age 10, became excited and walked in front of a car driven by Victor Delonghamp of Wayne. The car was severely damaged and the horse was killed. Ann was very lucky to receive only a bruised shoulder.

Salem Deputies investigated a parked car and found it to be a stolen car from Wayne.

Salem Deputies investigated a breaking and entering at Salem Union School on Saturday. The school had been broken into by two holes that had been cut in the rear fire escape door. The two subjects were apprehended and turned over to the Juvenile authorities.

Salem Federated Church News

The Pastor brought a message on "Four Rich Men" from the book of Luke, Sunday morning, Oct. 19. The message Sunday evening was from the book of Luke. Following the evening service a time of inspiration and fellowship was held in the church basement. Seventy people attended. Favorite songs were chosen by those in attendance and special numbers were also sung. A girls trio, consisting of Vida Burgess, Colleen Wurster, and Shirley Watson sang "Sweeter as the Years go By." A male quartet sang "Just a Little Talk With Jesus." Members of the quartet were Rev. Burgess, Dean Hardesty, Glenn Hardesty, and Stanley Hicks. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the church.

A Worker's conference was held Thursday evening, Oct. 16 with 19 in attendance. A discussion on Sunday School Visitation was led by the pastor. Mrs. C. F. Grimes gave a report on various types of visitation, what approach to use, etc. A film entitled "The Visiting Teacher" was shown. Refreshments were served by workers from the Intermediate Dept.

Christian Fellowship Class held a Halloween Party on Saturday night. Rev. Palmer from the Southern Baptist Church of Plymouth brought the devotional message. Joyce and George Carroll and Charles and Anita Eldridge were the sponsors of the social.

Thursday at 10 a.m. the Ladies Aid will meet at this time to work on Christmas gifts for the shut-ins. A potluck luncheon will be served at noon. The business meeting will follow.

Mr. and Mrs. Knowles Buers, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Albard of Plymouth spent the week-end at Johannesburg, visiting the Glenn Northrup home.

Social Notes

On Wednesday evening a baby shower was held in honor of Mrs. Jerry Gardner with eight attending at the home of Mrs. Bruce Kidston of Pontiac Trail.

Ethel Claire Brown, Democratic Candidate for County Clerk, attended and served at a tea in honor of Gov. G. Mennen Williams, at the new Ann Arbor High School on Saturday afternoon. The tea was sponsored by the Democratic Women's Club of Ann Arbor and was attended by several hundred persons. Monday, Mrs. Brown is attending the Congressional Dinner in Ann Arbor with Senator Humphries as speaker.

The meeting of the N.E.W. Farm Bureau group was called to order by the president Jack Renwick on Thursday evening. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Clara Kidston. Discussion of the group insurance was held due to the increasing rates. Also discussed was the fact that attendance has dropped and something must be done to create interest in the meetings. We voted to have each host and hostess provide some entertainment, also to begin each meeting promptly at 8:15 p.m., and end at 9:15 p.m. with social period following. Ray Gregerson read the Minute Man report. Discussion was led by C. F. Grimes. The meeting was adjourned and refreshments were served by the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Grimes.

Mr. and Mrs. George Kelly of Seven Mile Road celebrated their 48th wedding anniversary October 11.

A son Eric Jay was born Oct. 6 at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rebman of Pontiac Trail.

A surprise party was held Thursday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Raymor at their home on Six Mile Rd., who were celebrating their wedding anniversary. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Richard McKinley, Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Rohraff, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sweetman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Raymor, Sr.

The Country Estates Mobile Homes Community, was opened Saturday Oct. 18, located at 58220 Eight Mile Rd. Home sites in the new community run from a minimum of 2,400 sq. feet to 6,000 sq. feet. Homes will locate on solid concrete slabs set 35 feet from curbs. Over all the new site covers approximately 80 acres.

Mrs. George Kelly entertained Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Mrs. John McIntyre, Mrs. M. Bielejeski and special guest, Sister Albertina. Mrs. Kelly served a delicious lunch; the ladies played pinochle in the afternoon.

Mrs. Louis Sweetman entertained 14 ladies Thursday morning at her home, with a Christmas Toy Party. Homemade doughnuts and coffee was served.

Frank Buers celebrated his birthday on Friday, Oct. 17.

Meat Program Heard By Extension Group

Mrs. George Kemnitz, of 1233 Haggerty Rd., was hostess to the Hough Extension Group sponsored by the Michigan State University Cooperative Extension Service on October 13 at 8 p.m.

The lesson, "Meeting the Meat Bill," was presented by the lesson leader, Mrs. William Sempliner. Members learned how to get the most from their meat through wise selection, proper care and cooking. Mrs. Sempliner prepared an extremely nutritious and tasty molded meat salad, proving that with a spirit of adventure toward trying new ways and new flavors, appetizing and nourishing meat dishes can be prepared to suit any family budget.

Mrs. Harold Smith of 40924 Ford Rd. will hostess the next meeting at 8 p.m. on November 17.

Public Turkey Dinner Set By Grangers

A turkey supper served family style for the public will be sponsored Saturday, October 25, by the Plymouth Grange hall.

On the menu will be roast turkey and dressing, mashed potatoes, squash, cabbage salad, cranberries, rolls and butter, ice cream, cookie tea, coffee and milk.

Grange "Booster Night" and entertainment for Grangers and guests will follow the supper.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Fireman Save Your Firehouse!

Looking back over these columns for the past six years, I notice I've always been partial to the "unlikely" twist.

For instance, the policeman who got a ticket for parking ... the candidate who forgot to vote on Election Day ... the firemen who discovered that the firehouse was burning.

But now I've got to confess one on myself. I started with the Clarion twenty years ago—and every night since, a copy of the newspaper has been left at my front door. Not so last night—my subscription expired!

From where I sit, the trouble with all of us now and again is that we get so wrapped up in other people's affairs that we neglect our own. It's like the people who are concerned with my right to enjoy an occasional glass of beer. I don't impose my choice on them—why shouldn't they act likewise. We all have enough to do to keep our own "papers" in order.

County Library Head quarters Building Going Up in Wayne

Construction of a new Wayne County Library Headquarters building that will serve branches in Plymouth, Livonia, Redford and 16 other communities is now underway at Van Born and Venoy Roads in Wayne.

The building will house the administrative services of an extensive library system made up of 19 communities and five institutional libraries, the Library for the Blind, (serving all of Wayne County, including Detroit), the Audio-Visual Center and the Bookmobile service. The project is part of the County's Capital Improvement Program.

Officials taking part in the groundbreaking ceremony on Thursday, were Terry Troutt, Supervisor of Romulus Township and Chairman of the Board of Supervisors; James Lincoln, Detroit Councilman; Supervisor Joseph Tattan, Nankin Township; Duncan Miller, President, Village of Wayne; John Anhut, Chairman, County Library Board; Alfred Pelham, Coordinator of the project; and Walter Kaiser, County Librarian.

The service area of the county library comprises 435 square miles and has a population of approximately 700,000. This is one of the fastest growing public library systems in the country.

The new headquarters building replaces the building at 3661 Trumbull in Detroit, a building built in 1888 and remodeled in 1908, given to the city library purposes by James E. Scripps.

Completion of the building is expected about October, 1959.

The building designed by Cuthbert and Cuthbert, architect and engineer, has 61,000 square feet, with air-conditioning and is of fire proof construction. The distinctive architectural features of the building are the 300 foot accordion type folded concrete roof and the extensive use of precast concrete wall and structural units.

The building cost $693,717 or $11.14 per square foot, excluding architectural fees, site improvement, and furnishings. This is considered an unusually favorable price.

Green Meadows Reporter Views Mackinaw Bridge

(Covering the Green Meadows Area and the South Western Portion of Plymouth Township bounded by South Main St. Joy, Rd., Ann Arbor and Beck Rd.)

By MARTHA STACE

A visitor in the George Adams home last Saturday their son Kenny is attending Adams from Parsons, Kan.

On our sick list is Mrs. Floyd Albright who is confined to her bed, under orders of her doctor. Our wish is that you will soon be feeling better.

We would like to take the opportunity of expressing words of sympathy to the Fred Brown family in the loss of Mrs. Brown's father, Elmer Ronk. Mr. Ronk passed away at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at Alma. Mrs. Brown is spending this week in Alma. The funeral was held on Tuesday at 3:30 p.m.

On the weekend of October 11-12, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Calhoun and daughters, Liz and Sharon, accompanied by friends Linda Law, and Clyde Sumner, attended the homecoming football game at Eastern Illinois University, where their son Kenny is attending Eastern University was playing against Southern Illinois University. Saturday evening the young people had a wonderful time at the Homecoming dance.

The Paul Albert's home was the scene of a household party on Oct. 13. Demonstrator for the evening was Muriel Homan. Guests were Mattie from Wayne, Shirley and Dot Karker, Mrs. Albert's mother Sally Fulton, grandmother Mrs. Loretta McDon-ald, Linda and Dot Davis, Jo Ann, and many others. After the demonstration was over light refreshments were served.

Seems your reporter took some of her own advice and got out into the northern sunshine. Hubby and I accompanied by our sons, John and Bill, decided to drive my parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wickham of Williamston, up to Mackinaw to have a quick look at the ridge.

We also drove on up to the "mystery spot" we have heard so much about. Well, we all enjoyed the lovely scenery along the way, even cooking our lunch at a roadside park just north of Gaylord.

My father will be 79 years old next month but he enjoyed the trip very much as it has been his desire to see and cross the bridge after its completion. On the return trip home along route 27, which was of course after dark, we were very happy to spot several deer along the roadside. I am quoting son John in saying, "Now, Mom, see if I had brought my bow and arrow along, we could have had a deer to take home!" Of course, this gave us all a good laugh. We also saw a fox, porcupine, woodchuck and of course a skunk. My advice is don't try to make such a trip all in one day as we did not return home until 3:30 a.m. and I was very tired and had a very bad headache next day.

Well, folks, that winds up my chatter for this week. I'm sure I should be hearing from more of you so please call me at GL 3-1929 about your activities.

Gallimore PTA Program Planned

An interesting program is forecast for the Gallimore P.T.A. meeting on Tuesday, Oct. 28, at 7:45 p.m. at the school.

There will be a short business meeting after which the teachers will put on class room demonstrations with samples of teachers' aids and equipment. Refreshments will be served.

What DO Our Churches Believe About Drinking?

A MESSAGE TO VOTERS OF THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH

With a proposal to legalize the sale of liquor by the glass appearing on the City of Plymouth ballot in November, many citizens of good conscience are puzzled.

They realize the unfairness of the present restriction, and they know it accomplishes nothing whatever toward halting excessive drinking by anyone so inclined.

They know that there is no difference in principle between buying a glass of beer and ordering a scotch and soda. They know that alcoholic beverages can be bought in bulk everywhere in Plymouth.

But some citizens, while dedicated to fair play and allowing individuals to determine their own drinking policy, still wonder about the religious aspects of drinking.

The fact is that VIRTUALLY NO CHURCH IN AMERICA TODAY ASKS PROHIBITION OF SALE of alcoholic beverages.

The Catholic Church has repeated over and over that it believes drinking to be a matter of individual choice.

So have most elements of the Lutheran Church.

And only last week, the following dispatch appeared in newspapers, coast to coast:

DRINKING 'IS A GIFT OF GOD'

MIAMI BEACH—(AP)—Alcoholic drinks are a gift of God if used properly—but a horror if misused, Episcopalians were advised today.

A report to the Church's general convention, now in its second and final week, said that moderate social drinking is in full accord with Old and New Testament teaching.

It cited scriptural references from Genesis to St. Paul's epistles

Drawn up by a commission on alcoholism, it traced the full range of Biblical teaching on alcoholic drinking. "There is no scriptural command requiring total abstinence for God-fearing man," the report said.

"A Christian who drinks moderately with due regard for the feelings and needs of his brothers and with care for the claims of God can drink with thanksgiving to Him for these blessings."

Traditionally, the most unbending position on drinking has been taken by Protestant sects which are gathered in the social field under the leadership of the National Council of Churches.

But here, too, there is a new policy of which many Protestant churchmen may not be aware. It was adopted on February 26, 1958.

This report viewed the problem of excessive drinking and alcoholism gravely, but never once did it recommend that the sale of alcohol be stopped in America!

"Our churches share the belief that all men are creatures of God, accountable to Him for their conduct in all aspects of daily living," said the report "where men's whole lives are changed through the permeation of the gospel, there will be resulting change in all aspects of their living, including their conduct in reference to alcohol"

"Christians should examine their own conduct in relation to alcohol. Our churches should be sure youth and adults are informed about the nature of alcohol and the problems connected with its use."

Last week, members of the First Presbyterian Church of Plymouth read an analysis of the repeal issue in their regular church bulletin. The author of the bulletin made it plain that the Presbyterian Church declined to tell its members how to vote—that it was to be an individual decision.

The Presbyterian bulletin concluded ". . . we should make our judgment, not on the basis of any blind and unreasoning prejudice, but on the basis of what we consider the best thing for our city as a whole."

The purchasers of this advertisement urge repeal of the present law.

We do so because it would bring our regulations into an honest relationship with our actual moral standards. It would eliminate the hypocrisy of the present "double standard."

It would eliminate a situation where our City dining rooms and taverns have been at unnatural, unreasonable business disadvantage with their competitors.

We recommend repeal because it is a matter of basic fair play.

And we wanted it to be understood that our motives are not in conflict with anything in Scripture, nor in conflict with basic Church Policy.

Christmas Seal Campaign Opens Here Nov. 14

The 1958 Christmas Seal Sale will open in Plymouth and Wayne County communities on Nov. 14, William E. Shane, Seal Sale chairman, announced Thursday. The campaign will continue to Dec. 31.

During the week prior to the opening of the sale, 130,000,000 seals will be mailed to more than 500,000 families to raise the $325,000 which is needed for this year's fight against TB.

"The Christmas Seals are exceptionally gay this year with a little school boy and girl at a blackboard printing in unsteady letters the wish 'Christmas Greetings'." Shane said. "I know that everyone will want to buy Christmas Seals this year, not only because they are so gay and will add so much to cards, letters and packages, but also because of the very serious threat of TB in our community."

Shane pointed out that the number of cases being found in Detroit and Wayne County in 1958 will exceed the 1957 total of 2,993.

TB patients are aided with Christmas Seal dollars too. Trained social workers help them with their problems, special programs are arranged for relatives and friends of patients to teach them the nature of the disease and the special problems resulting from it.

Medical research to discover better ways to detect TB, and, perhaps, someday to find a vaccine which will prevent the disease entirely, is carried on thanks to the people who annually buy Christmas Seals.

Mrs. Anna Allen, whose 97th birthday came last Friday, was honored by her children with a dinner at the Mayflower Hotel Sunday last. Besides her daughter Edna Allen (with whom she lives, those present were Dorothy Allen from Birmingham, Dr. and Mrs. E. G. Sluyter of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Allen and Mr. and Mrs. Alger Wood of Detroit and Mr. Wood's mother, Mrs. Ella Wood, who is 91. Mrs. Allen takes a keen interest in world affairs and reads the editorials in The Detroit Free Press and gets much news from her radio.

tuning in a question tossed at Mrs. Griffiths were Mrs. Czar Penney and Mrs. Arthur Donnelly.

COFFEE SERVICE was informal and friendly at the Thursday morning event in honor of Mrs. Griffiths, planned by Mrs.

Woman's Eye View

By KATHIE MULL LUSK

How does one go about planning a political "coffee" that clicks?

Besides having the honor of a "name" politician coming to your home on a certain date . . . and the responsibility of sending out invitations to certain area guests to come and enjoy coffee and conversation, then what?

Well, if YOU were Mrs. Jack (Jean) Scott, of Parkview Dr., the day before your morning coffee, you'd start baking. Quality and quantity baking. Say enough to satisfy 50 women who enjoy raised and glazed homemade doughnuts, twists, muffins, and rolls with their coffee. Then you'd multiply coffee making from your usual two for breakfast to 50.

And what's more important, you'd squeeze in the time to follow up each written invitation with a personal "please come" phone call.

That's what made Mrs. Scott's "coffee" Thursday morning in honor of Congresswoman Martha W. Griffiths, such a decided success.

Mrs. Griffiths had a "full house" in the attractive Scott home to welcome her to Plymouth. She engagingly answered all questions pertinent to the November 4 election and government affairs . . . and even forecast legislation coming up to eliminate all that misleading reducing advertising! (She suggested following the diet in one highly advertised "pill" package and tossing out the pills to really lose weight!)

For her visit here, Mrs. Griffiths was smartly suited in black. Her taupe hued hat had black trim. She wore a white blouse with jewel neckline enhanced by a choker of pearls.

Mrs. Scott used eye-catching autumn arrangements of bronze and gold baby chrysanthemums on her buffet table and also in the living room for her party. She welcomed her guests in a royal blue wool frock.

Among those coming between 10 a.m. and 12 noon were Mrs. Czar Penney, Mrs. Herbert Culver, Mrs. M. M. Rowland, Mrs. George Conover, Mrs. Libbie Showers, Mrs. Arthur Donnelly, Mrs. Samuel Hudson, Miss Helen Beavers, Mrs. John Barnes, Mrs. George Bowles, and Mrs. Agnes Pauline.

Others were Mrs. James Blackman, Mrs. L. England, Mrs. T. Kelly, Mrs. Paul Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beyer, Mrs. M. Evans, Mrs. P. Kauffman, Mrs. C. Broderick, Mrs. Russell Koepke, Mrs. R. Kemp, Mrs. Leo Bruton, Mrs. F. Sutherland, Mrs. C. Bloomberg, and Mrs. R. Munzer.

Still more were Mrs. A. Pine, M. Donnelly, Mrs. A. Kalin, Mrs. A. Frank, Mrs. S. Collins, Mrs. Charles Root, and Jack Scott, hubby of the hostess.

Accompanying Mrs. Griffiths to this Plymouth "coffee" was Miss Susan Fodor of The Detroit News whose assignment that day was to trail this Congresswoman to do a story of a "day in her life." Some busy day for both!

Shutterbugs sometimes shudder when they get a big collection of used-up flash bulbs in their ashtrays. I do, myself! But from Mrs. Ralph G. Lorenz I learned of a wonderful re-use for the used-up bulbs:

Dip them in glue, then in gold glitter, and tie on your merry Christmas tree for unusual effect. How about that? One could use a favorite tint if they preferred a color other than gold. Mrs. Lorenz did it last year . . . and this year maybe I could go in the business?

Joining the Hunting Foray? Know Your Gun Rules

TYPICAL AUTUMN SCENE taken about midday with a view camera on a tripod. A 6-inch lens and yellow filter were attached for 1-25 second exposure at F 32.

Glorious Pictures A-Waiting

Autumn is the time of year when the light is softer than at any other season and many days have a typical soft haze. Many fine pictures can be taken now, particularly if you can get out into the country for a day occasionally.

It makes little difference whether you use black-and-white or color film for autumn scenes. Do take along a tripod because with the camera set up on this, it's simpler to arrange compositions for finer pictures.

To find typical autumn scenes, the older side roads are a better choice than new highways. Farms and even roadside stands where crops of gourds, pumpkins and apples have been gathered and stacked, are everywhere. In more rural areas you may come across a field with corn shocks standing on the now bare earth.

If, as you drive through suburbs or countryside, you notice the acrid smell of burning leaves, keep a sharp lookout for a smoldering fire with smoke rising slowly upward. If it should be the kind of day when shafts of sunlight are filtering through the leaves still hanging to the trees, you have a chance to take a photograph that will be both nostalgic and pictorial.

If you are fortunate enough to be able to drive into the hills, your chances for photographing beautiful scenes are increased. Here, looking down into a valley, will be seen the blue haze of fall. If the weather is cool enough, there may even be curls of smoke rising from chimneys of the small-looking houses to enrich the vista.

Suburban Living

MURDER INCORPORATED — Each of the hunters is in extreme danger of death through carelessness.

Fooling or Horseplay Has No Place in Sport of Hunting

One of fall's major outdoor activities, in addition to football, is in full swing. Hunters from every state are tramping the fields and forests engaged in the sport of tracking and shooting game.

Because hunting has become such a popular outdoor sport during the past few years, the subject of safety is always important and welcome. Surprisingly, with about 17 million people participating in the sport, there are relatively few accidents each year.

The cause of the accidents, which are always investigated, is ineffectual training on the part of the person doing the hunting. Many states now have started safety education programs on the subject of hunting and handling firearms. They are based on the premise that safety education is as important for hunters as it is for pedestrians and auto drivers.

Hunting, of course, is a highly individualistic sport. Therefore, a true sportsman will recognize the responsibilities of safety that go with the enjoyment of the sport of hunting. Unfortunately, there are those who violate the safety rules and proper conduct afield, and they hurt the sport for all.

Learning the essentials of safe hunting not only preserves this old and honored sport, but it will reduce greatly the comparatively few accidents that occur each year. These essentials are known to the experienced hunter, but the crop of new hunters each year may not be aware of what they are.

For example, knowing the gun being used for the day is of great importance. It should always be in good condition as well as the ammunition that is used. "Sighting-in" a gun should be done before a hunter goes out into the field; this eliminates waste of time and over-anxiousness which may lead to trouble.

Not enough can be said about gun handling. Every gun should be treated as if it were loaded with the muzzle always pointed in a safe direction. Each hunter looks forward to the experience of having game in his sight, but he must always be sure of his target. When walking and tracking game, fingers should be kept out of the gun's finger guard until a hunter is ready to fire.

Fooling and horseplay have no place in the sport of hunting. Relaxing about a camp or during "chow-time" is fun, but it should be confined to campsite only. Any idle gun, of course, should have its action opened and be unloaded.

The storing of guns and ammunition is of great importance, too. All guns should be stored in a locked cabinet and out of reach of youngsters. Ammunition storage requires a cool and dry area, and this also must be out of a child's reach.

Another (R) In Curriculum

NEW YORK (UPI) — For the fourth "R" — Radioactivity — that's being added to classroom studies comes a special low-cost line of atomic instruction equipment.

Students bone up on their alphas and betas with the aid of such items as a portable atomic laboratory, a scale-model atomic reactor, a battery-operated geiger counter or a cloud chamber showing so-called cosmic tracks.

Nucleonics Corp. of America of New York says the laboratory in its line already is being used in seminars for high school science teachers sponsored by the Atomic Energy Commission.

The firm stresses its equipment can be used for all grades of instruction from elementary to advanced and that research projects even can be performed with it.

You can pull out all stops now with a 16-pound portable electric organ. For $135, you get a 49-key four-octave instrument called the Harmonophone that can be toted like a suitcase and plugs into any electric outlet. It also got dials for volume control. (St. Louis Music Supply Co., St. Louis, Mo.).

A few centuries ago the kind of bread a baker sold his customers indicated the buyer's standing. The degree of freshness was of great importance, too. Freshly baked was for royalty, one-day old for nobility, two-day old for the gentry, three-day old for the scholars and friars, and four day old for the peasants.

The first bank opened 700 years ago in Venice. Its sole purposes were to safeguard and loan money — a far cry from the multiple services of modern banks.

Men Take To Coordinating Accessories

For dressier suits and coats, coordination and matching influences are notable in this season's glove selections. Capeskins, hand-somely grained and rugged pigskins, fine gray suedes and mochas all show the influence. Among novelties are new washable leather gloves and nylon knits — both practical and good looking.

The shirt story is largely a tale of collars this fall, with English style tabs . . . round pin collars and pointed pin types joining the popular button-down and medium spread kinds.

Supplementing the even favored white broadcloths and oxfords, are solid tones of blue, gray, tan and bamboo. Fine stripes in shirt patterns are among the front rankers too.

A livelier trend is noted in tie patterns and colors this fall with many signs that the toned down muted effects are letting some competition. Both woven and print designs are more colorful and definitely bolder.

Caps, now in the midst of their comeback popularity, appear in greater variety than ever this fall. Suburbanites may shop for them in many kinds of cloth fabrics, leather, felt and suede — in the popular one-piece "Ivy" style or models fashioned after the ski types.

HE AND HIS "SHADOW"! — Shadow plaid, in his ever-so-smart sports coat, of course! It's an unusual, subtle pattern that comes out in all its beauty in wool. Because of the casual styling and metal buttons, it is being called a "blazer." The handsome tie is in all-wool honey-tone.

HERE'S HOW...

A platform stage for the children's playroom, or for the classroom or Sunday School will find many uses for instruction and entertainment. The basic frame is of 2 by 4-inch lumber, cut to the sizes shown and securely fastened with 20-penny common and set the heads. Add strips of 1-inch nosing along the front and sides of the stage floor. Floor boards and front panels are of 1 by 12-inch and 1 by 10-inch stock. For the front panels, however, two boards in each panel section will have to be narrowed to fit. It is suggested that the narrowing be done on the outer edges of the boards that require beveling; in this way the narrowing and beveling can be done in one operation. Fasten the panels in place with 6-penny finishing nails, and set the heads. Add strips of 1-inch nosing along the front and sides of the stage floor. Sand the project smooth, and round the sharp edges of the hand rails. Finish the stage with a clear varnish to display the wood grain.

Tightening Loose Knobs
Loose knobs and drawer pulls can be tightened by removing the screw and placing a metal washer under the head to keep it from pulling through the wood. Some furniture makers use wood screws to hold wooden knobs and then a different treatment is necessary. The knob is removed first, then the screw hole is filled with plastic wood. Replace the knob before the filler hardens.

Right in Place
Floor-length draperies sometimes need weights in the hems to stay in place. If the drapery material is lightweight and you would like it to look heavy, use the same kind of covered weights in the hem every 6 to 10 inches. The metal weights, that can be purchased at notion counters, are placed in the hem. To do so, cut squares of the drapery fabric about three times as wide as the weight. Fold the square in half and then fold the corners over as though it were to be a dunce's cap. After slipping in the weight, stitch across the edge to hold it.

The first newspaper ever printed on a train was issued by Thomas A. Edison when he was between twelve and thirteen years old. As a newsboy on a Grand Trunk local between Port Huron and Detroit, he set up a second-hand printing press in the baggage car to print his "Weekly Herald."

Plant Bulbs Now to Have Narcissus for Thanksgiving

Suburban Living

HYACINTHS will give a preview of spring indoors if planted this month. Grape hyacinths (left) require 3 to 4 months to bloom, large Dutch hyacinths a little longer.

Enjoy Blooms from Outdoors Bulbs Inside this Winter

A preview of the bulbs that will bloom outdoors in spring can be enjoyed indoors during the winter months. That is, if a few bulbs of the kinds that force most readily are planted in pots instead of out in the garden.

It's possible to have paperwhite narcissus flowering for Thanksgiving and French Roman hyacinths for Christmas if bulbs are planted this week. Three weeks hence, more bulbs of paperwhite narcissus or its golden counterpart Soleil d'Or may be planted for Christmas bloom. Repeated plantings will provide a succession of bloom from Thanksgiving until the first crocus open outdoors in February or March.

Both the paperwhite and Soleil d'Or narcissus and the French Roman hyacinth will flower for the holidays if the bulbs are planted in pebbles or bulb fiber and water. This means that an appropriate pottery container can be used instead of the usual clay flower pot or the more shallow clay bulb pan.

One to a half dozen of the narcissus bulbs may be planted in a container, depending on its size. The bulbs can be so close that they touch each other. Depth is most important, for they will grow long roots before they flower and the container must have more room for them.

Fill the container to within an inch of its rim with small pebbles, stones or marble chips, or bulb fiber which is purchased in small bags. Then place the bulbs so that they are resting on top of the forcing material and fill the container with water just to the base of the bulbs. If water does any more than touch the base of the bulb, it will start to decay.

All bulbs to be forced need a period in a cool, dark or dim place so their roots can grow. A corner of the cellar or garage may be right, or perhaps a sun porch or terrace if a carton can be placed over the bulb containers to shut out light. Temperature should never go below freezing and, if possible, never above 45 degrees. A temperature range of 35 to 40 degrees in a dark place will bring bulbs into bloom on schedule.

Paperwhite and Soleil d'Or narcissus need to stay dark and cool for three weeks, French Roman hyacinths eight weeks. Then the containers are brought out into a light, even sunny, and warm part of the house and water-

Household Hints

When buying eggs, look for a carton that has small slits on the bottom. The slits allow a broken egg to run out and prevent the consumer from "getting stuck" with hidden breakage.

Try peach puree as a topping for cakes and sundaes.

To remove grease spots from fine material, dust cornstarch or white talcum powder on the spots, let it stand until the grease is absorbed, then brush off. Or place the grease spot between clean pieces of blotting paper and press lightly with a warm iron.

Trees-Trips Rewarding Right Now

Thousands of families are taking "trees-trips" this autumn.

A "trees-trip" is just what the name implies — a journey to see the fall trees standing with peacock-like pride in the northwoods of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota and in the Great Smokey Mountains of North Carolina and in the Rockies of the western states.

The breath-taking beauty of the autumn colors are often more spectacular than the most brilliant sunsets of summer. "If an artist reproduced these landscapes in true color, you would say he was faking!" is an expression often made by those who view the vivid hues.

As a matter of fact, many Europeans have scoffed at paintings of our autumn landscapes because, except for a few sections in the Swiss Alps and the wooded banks of the Rhine and the Danube, there are no comparable fall scenes in Europe. People who have never seen, can't believe that the great splashes of reds, yellows, oranges and greens are true to nature. South Americans also do not have the colorful landscapes that are so common in the United States.

According to researchers, the colors of our autumn trees are as mysterious as they are beautiful. Why the trees turn color is a matter of conjecture. It is known that frost has nothing to do with coloring leaves although imaginative artists have pictured Jack Frost at work on the job. But the truth is that frost can destroy the autumn coloring. So can damp and cloudy weather.

The pigments that furnish the leaves with their brilliant hues are thought to be present all the time — even when the green predominates. As the green, or chlorophyll, pigment disappears, the hidden colors become evident.

Brilliant coloring is best brought on by sunny and cool weather. Sugar in trees adds greatly to red coloring. For this reason the sugar maples are riotous in color when fall comes.

Dry, cool days are wonderful for your trees-trip. Where do you go on your trees-trip? The Colorado Rockies have burst into brilliant gold. The Great Smokies are ablaze with color. There are more varieties of trees in these mountains than in all Europe.

The Shenandoah Valley of Virginia looks up to the red oaks and gold maples along the Skyline drive. Also the sudden stabs of brilliant yellow birches and the vermilion berries of the mountain ash lend to the beauty. Masses of red huckleberry bushes are painted into the scene.

The brilliant yellow of the birches can also be seen along the Arizona highways. In Pennsylvania the yellow of the maple and the scarlet of the red maple make the highways scenes of beauty.

In the South panorama of color is brought to the eye by the dogwoods, oaks, sourwoods, sassafras, maples, sweet gum and sumachs.

The northwoods of the Middle West set the countryside aflame with red and gold of the maples, oaks, sumachs and birches.

Molasses Treats For Halloween

Even ghosts like to eat on Halloween. So for party masqueraders, have lots of good, crisp and inexpensive molasses cookies on hand. A favorite gingerbread boy dough can be made in the shape of pumpkins, witches and cats. The only trick is cutting the dough in rounds and using a bit of frosting to bring out the face features. Along with the rolled cookies, make a pan of molasses fruit squares and spread them with orange-tinted frosting. Served together, the crisp and bar-type sweets, will make fine go-alongs for a hot drink.

Molasses Fruit Squares
 1/2 cup shortening
 1/4 cup sugar
 1/4 teaspoon baking soda
 1 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 cup unsulphured molasses
 1 egg
 1 1/4 cups sifted flour
 1 cup finely-cut dates
 1/2 cup chopped walnut or pecan meats

Cream together the shortening, sugar, soda, salt and cinnamon. Beat in molasses, then egg. Stir in flour, dates and nuts. Spread in a greased and lightly-floured 9 x 9 x 2-inch baking pan. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 25 minutes. Cool. Turn out on cutting board or plate. Make confectioners' sugar frosting adding 1 tablespoon grated orange rind and tint orange with a few drops of food coloring. Frost. To cut into squares, make 5 cuts one way and cross with 5 cuts. Makes 36 squares.

Here's Tips On How To Enjoy Own Party:

WESTFIELD, Mass. (UPI) — Enjoying your own party is as much an art as seeing that guests have fun, says Miss Catherine L. O'Brien.

As president of a firm which relies on parties for sales, she has found these tips helpful:

So you won't be upset by unexpected guests — or those who failed to R.S.V.P. — allow about 10 per cent leeway in food. Tell in your invitation when you expect guests to arrive and leave. They can plan on baby sitters, and you can plan ample refreshments.

Arrange the party scheduled beforehand so you know exactly what to do, then relax.

Don't clean house the day of the party. Frantic last-minute cleaning only leaves you tired and grouchy.

Don't introduce every newcomer after the first few persons have arrived. Leave that to the guests. Invite a congenial group, but don't omit someone because a few guests don't get along with him. A comedian once said there should be someone at a party that everybody hates, just to keep things interesting.

Women Around the World have Own Special Beauty Secrets

PARIS (UPI) — Women in France rouge their knees a bit. Ladies in Turkey have a "harem way" with perfume. The women of India make their complexions glow with pearls. Japanese women have the secret of dieting. South Americans know all about "siestas."

Those are some of the beauty facts picked up by Princess Gourielli, better known as beauty expert Helena Rubinstein, who spends six months a year traveling around the world.

She has found that women all over the world want to be beautiful. Here are some of the tricks she has learned they use.

...the latest in France," Madame Rubinstein said, "is to rouge your knees. Actually this beauty trick is very old, goes back to antique Rome.

But with the short skirts, girls in France use it again to give a rosy shimmer and "dimples" to showing knees-caps.

"The height of sophistication is to put a touch of rouge on the upper heels when going barefoot on the beach or wearing evening sandals."

In England, she says, women have become more conscious of fashions, "royal" beauty and hair-styles.

"Women all over the world can take the fair, lovely complexions of English females as an example," Madame Rubinstein said. "For them it is a 'natural,' due to the damp climate. But today hydrating beauty products, supplying moisture to the skin, bring the famed English complexion within reach of women all over the world."

This beauty expert found that Italian women know best how to look beautiful in the bright Southern sunshine. They have devised the "pale look" — a natural, pale complexion and light lipstick to contrast with their dark eyes and hair.

"Turkish women hold the beauty secret with perfume," Madame Rubinstein continued. "They massage the skin with it after a Turkish bath while the pores are still open. For hours after, the epidermis exhales the scent."

"Another narem secret is to apply perfume to the feet, the palms of the hands, the back of the knees and the nape of the neck. You don't have to ladle it on. Good perfume rises and surrounds you from the toes up."

"Women look their youngest, most beautiful and feminine when they're in love."

Buy Washer That Meets Your Needs

You need a new washing machine, but what shall you get — automatic or non-automatic?

In spite of convenience features of an automatic washer you may feel a non-automatic is a better choice for you, point out home management specialists at Michigan State University.

An automatic washer saves your time and energy. Although total washing time may be longer, you can do other activities while the machine does the work of washing. However, you'll probably have to make some changes in your work habits in order to make best use of an automatic washer. Instead of a special wash day you may find "a batch a day" more convenient with the automatic machine.

You do not need wash tubs with an automatic, unless you choose one that saves space for a second washing load. If your laundry space is limited, this may be an important consideration as well as the fact that less work space is needed around an automatic than around a non-automatic.

Don't forget to consider the comparative purchase price, installation requirements, probable need for more service calls with the automatic and the necessity of an ample supply of hot, soft water for satisfactory operation. How much does the convenience of an automatic washer mean to you and does the cost fit into your family spending plan?

ELECTION NOTICE

To the Qualified Electors of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan:

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT AT A GENERAL ELECTION TO BE HELD IN SAID COUNTY OF WAYNE, STATE OF MICHIGAN, IN THE REGULAR VOTING PLACE IN EACH ELECTION PRECINCT IN EACH CITY AND TOWNSHIP IN THE COUNTY OF WAYNE, STATE OF MICHIGAN, ON TUESDAY, THE 4TH DAY OF NOVEMBER, 1958, BETWEEN THE HOURS OF 7:00 O'CLOCK A. M. AND 8:00 O'CLOCK P. M., EASTERN STANDARD TIME, THE FOLLOWING PROPOSITIONS WILL BE SUBMITTED TO THE ELECTORS OF SAID COUNTY:

I TAX-RATE LIMITATION INCREASE PROPOSITION

Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be levied against all property in the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, for all purposes except taxes levied for payment of obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased, as provided by Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution, by three-tenths (3/10) of one (1) mill on each dollar of assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in the County of Wayne for a period of five (5) years from 1959 to 1963, both inclusive, for the sole purpose of providing funds to retire debt obligations incurred by the County of Wayne in financing hospitalization and other social welfare functions which are the statutory responsibility of the County?

II PORT OF DETROIT BONDING PROPOSITION

Shall the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law, co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed Seven Million One Hundred Thousand ($7,100,000.00) Dollars, and issue its general obligation bonds therefor for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district; provided, that none of said bonds or any portion or series thereof, shall be issued unless approved by the Board of Supervisors of Wayne County?

III TAX-RATE LIMITATION INCREASE PROPOSITION

Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be levied against all property in the County of Wayne, Michigan, for all purposes except taxes levied for payment of obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased, as provided by Section 21, Article X, of the Michigan Constitution, by eleven one-hundredths (11/100) of one (1) mill on each dollar of assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in the County of Wayne for a period of five (5) years from 1959 to 1963, both inclusive, for the sole purpose of providing funds to pay principal and interest on bonds to be issued by the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, in the aggregate principal sum of not to exceed Seven Million One Hundred Thousand ($7,100,000.00) Dollars if authorized by the qualified electors, for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

Only properly registered electors who have property assessed for taxes within the County of Wayne, or the lawful husband or wife of such persons are entitled to vote on the bonding proposition. All properly registered electors may vote on the tax-rate limitation increase proposition. These propositions are being submitted in accordance with the following resolutions adopted by the Board of Supervisors of said County on the 4th and 15th of September, 1958, by the requisite three-fifths (3/5) vote:

RESOLUTIONS OF BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF WAYNE

WHEREAS, the County of Wayne has diligently sought to bring the County budget into balance within the available allocated millage allowed by the Wayne County Tax Allocation Board by pursuing every possible economy and yet provide sufficient funds to meet the ever rising costs resultant from providing statutory services to a rapidly expanding population in a period characterized by increased cost of commodities and personal services; and

WHEREAS, this available millage under the 15 mill constitutional tax limitation has remained constant for the past 6 years and has not been sufficient when applied to the equalized property valuation of the County to adequately maintain the mandatory functions of County government at a level necessary to provide minimum health and welfare standards for the citizens of the county; and

WHEREAS, the County will be faced with a deficit as of November 30, 1958, of approximately $12,500,000 consisting primarily of unpaid bills due the City of Detroit and State of Michigan for hospitalization and other social welfare functions; and

WHEREAS, the Wayne County Board of County Auditors has advised that there is no foreseeable means of obtaining the necessary funds to pay these existing obligations except by seeking authorization from the electorate of the County for the levy of additional millage for the sole purpose of retiring said obligations;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne, this 4th day of September, 1958:

1. That there be submitted to the qualified electorate of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, at the General Election to be held in said County on Tuesday, November 4, 1958, the following proposition:

I TAX-RATE LIMITATION INCREASE PROPOSITION

Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be levied against all property in the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, for all purposes except taxes levied for payment of obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased, as provided by Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution, by three-tenths (3/10) of one (1) mill on each dollar of assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in the County of Wayne for a period of five (5) years from 1959 to 1963, both inclusive, for the sole purpose of providing funds to retire debt obligations incurred by the County of Wayne in financing hospitalization and other social welfare functions which are the statutory responsibility of the County?

2. Said proposition shall be prepared and distributed by the County in the manner provided by law, which statement on the voting machines and ballots shall state the proposition in the form set forth in the preceding paragraph.

3. All public officials of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, and all municipal units thereof, within such time as shall be required by law, be and they hereby are directed to do and perform all acts and things which shall be necessary to be done or performed in order to submit the foregoing proposition to the electorate of said County at such General Election to be held on Tuesday, November 4, 1958.

WHEREAS, the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, established pursuant to the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, has, pursuant to the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, approved a comprehensive port development plan on September 3, 1957, after the requisite public hearing thereon, and by resolution adopted on July 24, 1958, provided for the borrowing of the sum of not exceeding Seven Million One Hundred Thousand ($7,100,000.00) Dollars for the purpose of acquiring the land and properties and constructing the various port facilities encompassed within said plan, subject, however, to the approval of the Board of Supervisors of Wayne County and a three-fifths (3/5) majority of the qualified electors of the County of Wayne voting thereon at a general election or special election called for such purpose, as required by the provisions of said law;

AND WHEREAS, pursuant to the provisions of the above law, said resolution has been duly certified to this Board for its approval thereof and for the necessary procedures to submit the bonding proposition to vote of the qualified electors of the County of Wayne, being the municipal corporation comprising the Port District;

AND WHEREAS, extensive meetings and discussions relative to said comprehensive port development plan have been held with the Port Commission and the Port Committee and Ways and Means Committee of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne, as a result of which it is the determination of the Board of Supervisors that said plan should be approved, but that only that portion of the lands and properties embraced in said plan within the following description should presently be acquired, developed and financed by the issuance of bonds, to-wit:

LAND ACQUISITION

All that area in the City of Detroit bounded on the westerly side by the easterly line of Private Claim 563, which line is 150 feet, more or less, west of the westerly line of Scotten Avenue extended southerly to the U. S. Harbor Line; bounded on the north by the southerly line of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway-Wabash Railroad Right-of-way on the east by the westerly line of the Evening News Association property and the northwesterly line of present West Jefferson Avenue and the westerly line of West Grand Boulevard at its intersection with said railroad right-of-way; and bounded on the south by the U. S. Harbor Line.

PORT FACILITIES

1. A wharf 1105 lineal feet long, sufficient for berthing two large or four small vessels.
2. Two transit sheds totaling 114,000 square feet of covered storage.
3. An open storage area of 386,000 square feet for lift-on-lift-off operation and general cargo.
4. Adequate space for maneuverability of trucks, trains, cranes and other material handling and transporting equipment.
5. Adequate facilities for storage and maintenance of equipment.
6. Office space of 10,000 square feet, for Port and Terminal Administration.
7. Heavy-lift equipment for handling unit cargoes up to 50 tons.
8. Adequate rail facilities connecting to the nearest railway.
9. Security fencing, A. D. T. and lighting installations.

These facilities would be adequate to handle 330,000 tons of cargo annually; the balance of the land, properties, and port facilities specified in said plan to be left for future determination as to acquisition, development and financing thereof;

AND WHEREAS, the estimate of cost of the acquisition of the lands and properties within the above designated area, and the acquisition of the port facilities specified for said area has been estimated by Harley, Ellington and Day, Inc., architects and engineers, of Detroit, Michigan, to be Seven Million One Hundred Thousand ($7,100,000.00) Dollars;

AND WHEREAS, the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit has concurred in the program herein set forth, which is a revision of its original immediate acquisition program as outlined in its resolution adopted September 3, 1957, and duly certified to the Board of Supervisors; and

AND WHEREAS, the Port Commission has submitted to the Common Council of the City of Detroit, the legislative body thereof, said comprehensive port development plan, all of the area and territory embodied in said plan being located within the corporate limits of the City of Detroit, and said Common Council, by resolution, has approved said plan, all in accordance with the provisions of Section 30 of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended;

AND WHEREAS, because of uncertainties under the law as to whether the Port District is an agency of the county and thus is limited in its taxing ability for the payment of bonds by the limitations expressed in Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution, or is an independent municipal corporation having a charter tax rate limitation, and thus is not subject to the limitations of said constitutional amendment under the decisions of the Michigan Supreme Court, this Board feels that it is necessary in order to provide for all eventualities to submit to the qualified electors on a separate ballot, or as a separate proposition on voting machines, a proposition providing for an increase in the constitutional tax rate limitation as authorized by said Section 21, Article X of the Michigan Constitution in an amount sufficient to provide for the payment of the principal and interest on said bonds over a maximum seventeen (17) year period;

AND WHEREAS, this Board determines that the procedures for said general election should be as provided in the so-called "County Public Improvement Act," being Act 118, Public Acts of 1923, as amended, there being no procedure specified in detail in Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, which procedures will also comply with the provisions of the general election law of the State and will provide complete notice and opportunity for the qualified electors of the County to register and vote on the propositions to be submitted;

AND WHEREAS, it is the intent and purpose of this Board and the Port of Detroit Commission, if the bonding proposition is approved by the requisite majority of qualified electors of the County of Wayne, to devote the net revenues from the operation of the port facilities to the retirement of the bonded indebtedness, thus reducing the amount of taxes necessary to be levied for the payment of said indebtedness to that extent:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS OF THE COUNTY OF WAYNE THAT:

1. The comprehensive port development plan as proposed by the Port of Detroit Commission and approved by it by resolution is hereby approved.

2. The issuance of general obligation bonds in the amount of Seven Million One Hundred Thousand ($7,100,000.00) Dollars for the acquisition of the lands, properties and facilities outlined in the preamble to this resolution, as a part of said comprehensive port plan, be approved.

3. There be submitted to the qualified electors of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, at a general election to be held in said County, being the municipality whose boundaries are co-terminus with the Port of Detroit, a port district existing under the provisions of Act 234, Public Acts of 1925, as amended, on Tuesday, November 4, 1958, the following separate propositions:

II PORT OF DETROIT BONDING PROPOSITION

Shall the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit, a port district established pursuant to law, co-terminus with the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, borrow the sum of not to exceed Seven Million One Hundred Thousand ($7,100,000.00) Dollars, and issue its general obligation bonds therefor for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district; provided, that none of said bonds or any portion or series thereof, shall be issued unless approved by the Board of Supervisors of Wayne County?

III TAX-RATE LIMITATION INCREASE PROPOSITION

Shall the limitation on the total amount of taxes which may be levied against all property in the County of Wayne, Michigan, for all purposes except taxes levied for payment of obligations incurred prior to December 8, 1932, be increased, as provided by Section 21, Article X, of the Michigan Constitution, by eleven one-hundredths (11/100) of one (1) mill on each dollar of assessed valuation, as equalized, of all property in the County of Wayne for a period of five (5) years from 1959 to 1963, both inclusive, for the sole purpose of providing funds to pay principal and interest on bonds to be issued by the Port Commission of the Port of Detroit a port district established pursuant to law co-terminus with the County of Wayne, in the aggregate principal sum of not to exceed Seven Million One Hundred Thousand ($7,100,000.00) Dollars if authorized by the qualified electors, for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements in said district?

4. Said propositions shall be stated as separate propositions on the voting machines or on separate ballots to be prepared and distributed by the County in the manner provided by law, which statement on the voting machines and ballot shall state the propositions in the form set forth in the preceding paragraph.

5. All public officials of the County of Wayne, State of Michigan, and all municipal units thereof, within such time as shall be required by law, be and they hereby are directed to do and perform all acts and things which shall be necessary to be done or performed in order to submit the foregoing propositions to the electors of said County at such general election to be held on Tuesday, November 4, 1958.

A three-fifths (3/5) majority of the members-elect of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Wayne, Michigan, having voted in favor of the adoption of the foregoing resolution, the Chairman thereupon declared that said resolution was duly adopted.

Newburg Methodist Church Planning Bazaar November 8

(Covering the Newburg Area, bounded by Wayne Rd., Ann Arbor Rd., Lalonde and Joy Rd., including the Washington School Area.)

MRS. EMIL LAPOINTE
GA. 1-2029

Don Page, son of Mrs. Gene Page of Ann Arbor Trail, celebrated his sixth birthday recently at his grandparents' home, Mr. and Mrs. C. Donald Ryder of Ann Arbor Trail, with two celebrations.

On Saturday, October 14, he entertained his young friends at a theatre party. Attending the Penn theatre in Plymouth were, Lenny Robinson, Carl Hopper, Robbie Brey, George Hensley, James Shier, Steve Crafton, Philip Reid, Chris Larson, Chris Black, Theresa Ryder and Donnie's sister, Connie. Donnie's uncle, Charles Ryder provided the transportation to the theatre for the afternoon.

On Tuesday, Oct. 7, Rev. Robert Richards of Saline, who shares the same birthday date as Donnie, was a dinner guest in the Ryder home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hermans of Angeline Circle, are pleased to announce the promotion in rank of their son Wally. The Herman's son is now a corporal in the Marines, stationed in San Francisco.

On Saturday, November 8, beginning at 11 a.m., the Newburg Methodist church will have their annual fall bazaar, sponsored by the Woman's Society of Christian Service.

In the past our custom has been to have a dinner and a bazaar, combined. This year we are changing the procedure and having had our Smorgasbord, November 7, devoted exclusively to the bazaar. In an effort to encourage folks to come we will have a snack bar, open at 12:30 p.m., serving hot dogs, hamburgs, home made pie and cake, coffee, tea, milk and pop. Beginning at 4:30 p.m. and serving until 7 p.m., a spaghetti plate for 75c will be featured, which will include rolls, coffee and pickles. The bazaar booths will feature the usual fine needlework, aprons, dolls, pillowcases, novelty plates, handkerchiefs, baked goods, candy, church plates and many other items of interest for all. A carnival of games will be provided for the children with prizes for all. Mrs. Carrie Beall, one of the senior members of our congregation will have a booth devoted entirely to her lovely dolls and beautifully made doll clothes of every kind and description, that she has been working on throughout the entire year. Complete costumes of every description to fit all the dolls, right down to the shoes. So, this is the date, Saturday, Nov. 8. Come one, come all and do your Christmas shopping early.

Sorry to relate that Mrs. Clifford Hocking of Narise Drive is in Sessions hospital, Northville, having had some surgery, she is now recuperating nicely from the ordeal. David Thompson of Newburg road is also in Grace Hospital in Detroit and caros of good cheer to both these friends.

My Neighbors
"I know that taxes are outrageous, but can't we PLEASE eat something besides potatoes?"

Rev. and Mrs. R. E. Niemann of Newburg road entertained their family for dinner on Sunday, Oct. 12. Guests for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Halsey and children John, Kathy, William and Peggy; Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niemann and children Nancy and Peter of Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Niemann and children David, Rutha, Rebecca Lou and Mary Beth; Mrs. Helen Hopper and her sons Richard, Carl and Tommy and Miss Sally Fedus. The occasion for the family get-together was to bid fond adieu to one son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niemann who are leaving Ann Arbor for Madison, O., to take up a position in the Lake county Y.M.C.A., Madison branch. Much good luck was the wish of the assembled group for their brother and son.

would be most welcome at this time.
My husband and I, along with my parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Weiss, Sr., of Detroit, were privileged to see the Lions-Rams football game we all returned to our home on Jay road for late supper.

Mrs. Dorothy Pringle of Knolsen avenue, spent the past week-end visiting with relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Allabaugh and William R. Jones in Dallas, Pa.

Say, talk about fun, that's just what the Fidelis class of the Newburg Methodist church had when they spent the weekend of Oct. 4 at the hunting lodge of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith of Newburg road. The lodge is located in Ossineke near Alpena. These are the folks who enjoyed the hospitality and fellowship the weekend provided: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mackinder, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Waack, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. John Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Grosjean, Mr. and Mrs. William Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lockart, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Norris, Mr. and Mrs. David Thompson, Mrs. Arthur Trost, Mrs. Dorothy Pringle, Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Alfien, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Lee and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Curby. Mr. and Mrs. Lee, owners of a neighboring cabin, shared their facilities with the Smith's and the women were accommodated in the Smith lodge and the men in the Lee lodge. Highlight of the week-end was the square dance party held on Saturday night.

On Tuesday, Oct. 28, Rhoda circle of Women's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church will meet at the home of Mrs. James Greenwood, 8927 Newburg road, at 8 p.m. The girls are busy selling candy and Christmas cards. Give me a call if we can help you with either of these items.

Another birthday celebration that took on the form of two events was that of Mrs. Fred Pringle, Jr., of Knolsen, on Sunday, Oct. 12, along with her husband, and Mrs. Dorothy Pringle, Mr. and Mrs. John Chaney of Coldwater and Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Chaney of Quincy, a tour of the Detroit Zoological Park and a visit to the cider mills in Franklin village, was enjoyed by all. Guests in the Pringle home on Tuesday, Oct. 14, were Mr. and Mrs. J. Perlongo of Wayne and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Damon and family of Belleville.

Randy Foreman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Foreman of Horton avenue, is recuperating nicely at his home after having had his tonsils removed. Glad to hear that everything went along so well.

Mrs. Paul English of Angeline Circle was out doing her good turn on behalf of the Torch Drive, last week and sprained her ankle. Hope she will be up and around real soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niemann and children Nancy and Peter of Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Philip Niemann and children David, Rutha, Rebecca Lou and Mary Beth; Mrs. Helen Hopper and her sons Richard, Carl and Tommy and Miss Sally Fedus. The occasion for the family get-together was to bid fond adieu to one son and his family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Niemann who are leaving Ann Arbor for Madison, O., to take up a position in the Lake county Y.M.C.A., Madison branch. Much good luck was the wish of the assembled group for their brother and son.

This would be a fine opportunity to thank all the ladies of the Newburg Methodist church who helped so generously with their time and talents at our recent smorgasbord a la Newburg. It was a complete success, financially and the fellowship of the entire evening was marvelous. We hope that those who came, enjoyed themselves and will spread the word that Saturday, April 11, 1959, is the date for the next one.

Visiting at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grimm of Wayne road, and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith of Newburg road and Mr. and Mrs. Don Ryder of Ann Arbor Trail, during the past week, were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ryder of LaGrange, Ill. Mr. Ryder is the brother of Mrs. Grimm, Mrs. Smith and Don Ryder.

Twenty two from this area attended the meeting of the Livonia Historical Society at the Riley Junior High school, Thursday, Oct. 9. Mr. Warren, president of the society, conducted a brief business meeting after which Mr. Paris, program chairman, introduced E. J. Cutler of Plymouth who showed slides of Henry Ford's Greenfield Village. Mr. Cutler was instrumental in acquiring the old buildings for the village and in charge of their dismantling and reassembling, exactly as they were 100 years ago or more. At the close of the meeting a fine fellowship was enjoyed by all with the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. Cutler. The November meeting of this society will be held at the Emerson school and will feature a color movie put out by U.S. Steel depicting the building of the Mackinac bridge from start to finish. The public is cordially invited to attend any or all of these meetings.

Well, it sure has been nice being with you again this week. Sorry that there weren't any news from Newburg in the paper last week, but this writer was just too busy with seeing to the turning of the smorgasbord. Thank you all for calling in your nice news and keep up the good work. See you next week?

She had sent round-trip expense money, traveling a nd personal, so that her 62-year-old sister, Mrs. Katherine Wiess, could be granted a visa to come to this country and convalesce from major surgery performed in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, four months ago.

Mrs. Wiess speaks no English but is fluent in German, Hungarian, Polish, Rumanian, Russian, and Serbian.

When she arrived in New York aboard the "Queen Elizabeth," a Traveler's Aid assisted her in reaching the right train to bring her to Detroit.

The sisters would not have "known each other" if they hadn't been looking for one another at the depot.

Mrs. Wiess was thrilled that her sister had such a

GETTING REACQUAINTED are sisters Plymouthite Mrs. Mike (Mary) Armbruster, of Bruce St., in Arbor Village, left, and Mrs. Katherine Wiess of Belgrade, Yugoslavia, who arrived last week, and Mr. Armbruster. The sisters had not seen each other since 1921 in Belgrade when Mrs. Armbruster, then single, left to come to the States.

Armbruster's Welcome Sister from Yugoslavia

"Come on home, Katherine... this is going to be your home now for a while!"

The weary lady traveler, stepping off a train last Tuesday, Oct. 7, on the last lap of a journey across the sea from her home in Belgrade, Yugoslavia, wept as she heard these words from the Plymouthite sister she had not seen since 1921.

Speaking the warm greeting in German was Mrs. Mike (Mary) Armbruster, of Bruce St., in Arbor Village, who met the train with her husband.

Mrs. Armbruster, employed by Burroughs for the past 16 years, has been saving every spare nickel, dime and quarter for the past two years to make this reunion a joyful reality.

She almost couldn't believe it. She was especially delighted to have a guest room to herself. Her "home" is one room shared by five persons — herself, son, daughter-in-law, and two grandchildren.

She has a niece living in Rumania and a nephew in Germany.

Now Mrs. Armbruster is awaiting still another great family development. A brother, John Wiess, will be coming to visit the sisters from his home in Sydney, Australia. He hasn't seen Katherine in 17 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Armbruster, who have two children, were married 35 years ago this November in Ohio and then came to Plymouth the following January. Both were born in Belgrade.

telephone lines

TODAY'S CHILDREN LEARN about the value of the telephone almost before they can walk. Here's a story of a six-year-old daughter who knew exactly what to do when she heard a man trying to break into the house. She ran to the phone and got the police. The fact that the intruder turned out to be her father (he had lost his keys) takes nothing away from her prompt action in a crisis.

THE TELEPHONE COMPANY has a special way of recognizing noteworthy deeds by telephone employees in time of crisis. Telephone folks have a long tradition of service to the public; but each year the company makes a practice of giving medals, cash and citations to employees for some particularly outstanding deed beyond the call of duty. This year, for instance, awards were given to a Pontiac telephone man credited with saving the life of an auto accident victim, and to an Ann Arbor repairman who rescued a man from fire.

A SMALL BOY called the Information Operator to ask for a local number. After she had supplied it, the operator suggested to the small boy that he would find it in the telephone directory. "I know," he agreed, "but I can't do that 'cause I'm standing on the directory to reach the telephone."

DO YOU HAVE TROUBLE reaching your phone? Do you sometimes find yourself upstairs when it rings downstairs? Did you know that you can save yourself and family any amount of rushing about? And very inexpensively, too. All you need is a bedroom extension phone. More and more people are discovering the wonderful convenience and extra fun of having extension phones. How about calling our Business Office about it today?

Vote 'Yes' 3 Times, But 'No' on New County Tax

All voters will be asked to vote Nov. 4, in addition to candidates, on four separate proposals. One is a state amendment, three are Wayne County proposals.

Today we propose to review them briefly and offer our recommendations.

The State matter is that of a constitutional convention: "Shall a convention be held to consider revision or amendment of the Michigan constitution for subsequent elections of this state for their approval?"

The Michigan Constitution, in effect since 1909, requires that the question of a new convention be placed on the ballot every 16 years. The waiting period ends this year, and the Constitution badly needs revision. If this should pass, voters will elect three delegates from each senatorial district in April, and the delegates would review and revise the constitution in September, 1959. The proposed new constitution then would be submitted to the voters for their approval.

There has been a split on this proposal between Republicans and Democrats. Both parties agree as to the need for a convention, but the Democrats contend that it is unfair to pick delegates on the basis of senatorial districts, because that would "pack" the convention with out-state Republicans and leave thousands of persons in the bigger population areas without adequate representation.

The Democrat objection is valid, but our opinion is that some Constitutional Convention is better than none. The rules can't be changed at this point. We urged a "Yes" vote in November. Then let's see what we can do about putting pressure on the Convention itself to correct the unfair representation which now exists.

tenths of a mill in new taxation for a period of five years "for the sole purpose of providing funds to retire debt obligations incurred by the County of Wayne in financing hospitalization and other social welfare obligations."

This newspaper is dead opposed to the growing cost and size of County government. They are taxing us in the suburbs to carry loads which originate elsewhere. This is true of police protection, airports, water, highways — and it is even more pronounced in the case of welfare.

A huge share of the total welfare load — maybe as much as 80 to 90 percent — occurs within the city limits of Detroit. There is something wrong in principle when those of us outside the Detroit limits are asked to pay more County taxes, 60 percent of which simply will be turned over to Detroit for welfare relief.

It is true that the County has the legal responsibility, and a big debt today, but the answer isn't simply to keep pyramiding County taxes. We urge a "No" vote on this proposal.

Two other County proposals involve bonding and taxing for the Port of Detroit — i.e., "for the purpose of acquiring sites and constructing necessary port improvements." Authority is sought to borrow 7 million dollars and to levy eleven one hundredth of a mill.

The sums are really trifling, and the long-range goals big. The money would be used to put Detroit on the map as future port in the St. Lawrence Seaway system. The total effect of an active port on our area in terms of new industry, employment, tax base, and many other things, can hardly be over-stated.

We urge a solid "Yes" vote on both County Proposition 2 and 3.

WE URGE 'YES' VOTE ON PORT OF DETROIT PROPOSITION

Older People Thrive in Tahiti

Sociologists contend that older people in many ways fare better in primitive cultures than in our own. This contention is confirmed by Mr. and Mrs. Igor Allan of Chicago, Ill., who now live in Tahiti — one of a thousand small islands constituting French Polynesia in the Pacific Ocean.

There's plenty to keep you occupied. When you're no longer able to work in the coconut or coffee fields you settle down to handicrafts and spend your time weaving palm wreaths and leaves into thatch or roofing, mats for floors, and hats, bags, and baskets.

It was 16 years ago that the Allans took a slow boat to Tahiti and turned their backs on the din and dazzle of modern living. They were so taken with the tranquil, satisfying life in Tahiti that they turned their camera hobby into a paying proposition and took up permanent residence as commercial photographers.

"Tourists who stop off in Tahiti for a few days sometimes go away unimpressed," admitted Mrs. Allan, "but this is because their minds are geared to modern values. In the Tahitian scheme of things there is no striving for fame and fortune. You don't try to keep up with the Joneses. Instead, you find your contentment in the beauties of Nature and in the warmth of peaceful human relationships."

Cleary College Breaks Ground For New Campus

Cleary College celebrated its 75th birthday Saturday with ground breaking ceremonies for a modern new campus highlighting a full day of activities attended by several hundred townspeople and alumni.

"They've never heard of pensions or social security," continued Mrs. Allan, who is spending a few weeks in the States, "but they get by in fine shape thanks to the mild climate, the plenty of simple food and housing, and the fact that the young consider it a privilege to care for their elders."

"Another nice thing about growing old in Tahiti is that of their own, were presented with a ten-year-old girl, Raminie, by a native family with whom they had become friendly.

If Your Name Is 'GRACE'

By ANN REYNOLDS, Ph.D.

During the last few years the woman's name "Grace" has been in the news several times, owing to today's most famous Grace, the Princess of Monaco. Most likely there are quite a few of her namesakes among the toddlers now.

revived more than one hundred years ago because of Grace Darling, daughter of a lighthouse-keeper on the Farne Islands off the North East Coast of Northumberland, England. This Grace helped in a daring rescue operation when the steamboat Forfarshire was wrecked on the Farne Islands, and a few survivors found refuge on a rock there. Grace and her father brought them to safety, disregarding the danger to themselves.

is that the name "Grace" derives from the Latin "gratia," there is a remote chance that it is the latinization of the Old German "grisa," which means "grey." Incidentally, with the Irish "Grace" has been a great favorite because they look upon it as the translation of the original Irish name Grainne. (Want to know about your or other names? Write to Dr. Reynolds, care of this paper. If you prefer a personal reply please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

About 50 girls, wearing old clothes and aiming for membership in the Girls' Athletic Association, got the full treatment at initiations last week. The hopefuls were blindfolded for all the trunks.

The first test: girls got on all fours, rolled a peanut, with their nose from one end and the gym to the other. Meanwhile, initiators put ping-pong paddles to use. . . This was followed by a short rest and the doffing of shoes and socks when girls fed each other cold, cooked oatmeal, with their hands. They then stepped upon wet marshmallows laid in the hall and cooked noodles in a foot bath, climaxed by the surprise appearance of a wet sheet, thrown over them ghost-style.

The victims took off their blindfolds only long enough to be shown a button in a cup; then the unsuspecting, now blindfolded girls were told to blow at the button — they got a faceful of flour for their efforts!!! The future GAA'ers were also subjected to shredded wheat down the back.

Finally a free for all broke out, in which several initiators aged quickly as they sported white hair (flour). The reward for all this??? Membership in GAA, which spells fun in athletics for all participating.

Initiators (who enjoyed seeing others suffer as they did in joining GAA) were members of the club executive board including President Joy Kalmbach, Vice-President Edie Dibble, Secretary Sandra Bailey, Treasurer Peggy Davidson and class representatives Karen West, junior; Barb Gooch, sophomore; and Allison Scott, senior.

Other plotters were those on the Initiation Committee: Joan Bohl, Rosemary Kubie and Sydnee Van Aken. Club adviser is Miss Shirley Kaczorowski.

The marking period ends Friday; payday is Wednesday, October 22, when students will receive report cards.

President of the Student Council Mary Jane West, in the high school newspaper, "Pilgrim Prints," pleaded "If you have an idea that's really cool, tell it to the Council — improve your school!" Earlier she'd urged, "If you have a problem that needs beating — take it to a Council meeting!"

Candidate Miel Wants Pay Cut

Shoppers in Livonia and Plymouth last weekend witnessed one of the little miracles of modern politics. In stores and on the streets of the Sheldon Shopping Center and in downtown Plymouth, a smiling six-footer dressed in luxurious casual grey only the well-to-do can afford, pounded the pavement seeking a pay cut for himself. He was Lucas (Luke) S. Miel, 49-year-old lawyer-industrialist seeking election as congressman from the 17th district. The $22,500 annual salary Miel would receive if he wins the seat now held by his opponent, Martha W. Griffiths (D) is substantially less than his salary as president and general manager of the Commercial Steel Treating Corp., 6100 Tireman, Detroit. The Republican nominee explained he had not intended to run for any public office, but had worked to convince other outstanding Republicans in the district to enter the race. Miel explained: "When these efforts failed at the last minute, the others pointed at me and said I was

Hostile Teens Making Bad Driving Record

"Teen-agers want to be considered adults and the use of the family automobile is an important symbol of 'growing up' and acquiring independence," writes Dr. William A. Mann, associate professor of teacher education at Michigan State University and a member of the University's Highway Traffic Safety Center, in the current issue of the Center's monthly newsletter.

"Teen-agers like the feel of power, speed and the freedom of the automobile and they enjoy the prestige of driving the family car," Dr. Mann points out. "Most teenagers control their natural impulses to speed and drive recklessly. Their home training and concern for the possible loss of driving privileges influence them to control their driving."

"However, a relatively small group of teen-age drivers presents special problems," says Dr. Mann. "Their unstable personalities, desire for recognition, hostility toward authority, and refusal to accept responsibility combine to make them problem human beings as well as problem drivers."

It is this group that has the most traffic accidents, gets the most violation tickets, and gives teen-age drivers in general a bad reputation, Dr. Mann points out.

"Dealing with this problem group is one of the responsibilities of the driver education teachers in Michigan's high schools. Driver education teachers must not only be skilled in teaching good driving technique, and developing physical skills necessary to good driving but also must be skilled in the dynamics of human behavior if they are to teach the importance of good attitudes," Dr. Mann explains.

In researching these problem teen-age drivers, 100 Michigan driver education teachers under Dr. Mann's direction, selected their worst student driver in each of their respective schools for study.

The study revealed some interesting data:

- 24 came from broken homes
- 44 came from homes with serious interpersonal problems
- 41 had both parents working and/or had little supervision
- 14 came from over-authoritarian homes
- 22 appeared to have many material things and not enough personal attention
- 13 had fathers who also were unsafe drivers with bad attitudes toward law enforcement and safe driving practices
- 52 were described as "show-offs"
- 16 showed evidence of frequent hostilities
- 43 had had at least one traffic ticket
- 15 had had their licenses suspended
- 41 were reported as being seen driving recklessly
- 56 regularly exceeded safe speeds

(Only two of these drivers were girls.)

Dr. Mann reported there were other indications that these teen-age problem drivers were not fitting into their life situations effectively. Many were school discipline problems, a majority were working below the level of their ability, and most were not getting along with their teachers.

A driver education teacher feels a special responsibility because of the importance of attitudes to safe driving, and because of his more personal relations with the student. The English teacher for example, may feel concerned about the student who "hates" English but his failure to win the student's approval does not return to haunt him in an obituary or casualty item in the local newspaper. The driver education teacher who reads of a former student being killed in an auto accident cannot help but wonder what might have been done better when he had the chance.

Of course the driver education teacher cannot take on the whole job of instilling proper attitudes by himself. He must have the help of school administrators, counselors and the rest of the teaching staff.

"Parents, naturally, have a prime responsibility in helping these youngsters adjust to the proper attitudes," Dr. Mann said, "but, unfortunately, the teen-agers who need the most help apparently do not get much from home."

Through effective teaching, special instruction, individual conferences and cooperative efforts between school and parents, youngsters can be taught the importance of proper attitudes in attaining maturity, which will make them not only better drivers but better citizens, Dr. Mann concluded.

Tips for Teens

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q.—"Dear Elinor: I am 13 and my boy friend is 14. We would like to have dates, but whenever I bring this up, my mother gets furious and screams that I'm too young and wouldn't know what to do in certain situations for my own safety. But I feel responsible enough and my emotions are older than my age. What can I do?"

Ans.—You don't jump into deep water before you've learned to swim in shallow water first, do you? Of course not. You begin a little at a time. Do the same with dating; a gradual approach to dating helps both teens and parents get used to it. Try to invite this boy with another couple or two to your home on Friday night and have some fun-doings (something besides dancing or watching TV) planned in advance. . . . and some ice cream and cake or cookies with cold drinks or hot chocolate. Try to plan a double date for a school event with a parent driving the car; perhaps your mother won't object to your going in a group with a parent at the wheel. Later, it will seem natural for this boy to come to your home sometimes for "a lot of" house dates and eventually take you to a school dance or game alone. But don't rush; doing it gradually is better than not dating at all! And keep your emotions at your own age level; having "older emotions" isn't going to give your mother confidence in your date-sense.

Q.—"Dear Elinor: I've always had to refuse dates because I wasn't old enough. Now that I'm allowed to have dates, nobody asks me a y more. What shall I do?"

Ans.—Get into the date-whirl by letting people know you're now dateable. . . . give some parties or plan some double or triple dates with girlfriends. Invite a boy to a dance, picnic or party whenever you have a chance. It won't take long for the news to get around!

Girl Scout Report

Intermediate Troop No. 259 took advantage of the beautiful day and the fact there was no school on Tuesday, Oct. 14, to take a "bike hike" through the park. The girls rode their bikes to a high spot overlooking Phoenix Lake and ate their lunch; then on their way to the home of Mrs. Helen Spence, one of their leaders. As a surprise for Mrs. Spence the girls held a "baby shower" for her, complete with gift, baby-book (made by the troop) and a lovely cake decorated by Mrs. Stephenson. The troop rode home, they made a collection of colorful fall leaves to use as decoration for their meeting place. The leaders of this troop along with Mrs. Spence are Mrs. Virginia Zoet and Mrs. Jane Raaflaub.

Girl Scout Troop No. 267 is planning a formal flag ceremony and they have appointed committees for a Juliette Lowe Birthday party.

Cheryl Becker reported that her troop, Intermediate 251, took a hike with their leader, Mrs. Larsen and looked over the fall leaves and weeds. The girls voted the cardinal as the bird to be represented on their troop crest.

SLICK CHICKS

STORRS, Conn. (UPI)—Get slick, chick, or it's the sack. That's the word around the barnyard these days.

Poultry Scientist Edwin P. Singens of the University of Connecticut, has laid out a controlled-feeding schedule for hens to hold down their weight and make them more productive. Those who get too hefty get the axe.

Singens explained that the heavy meat-type White Plymouth Rocks used as layers to produce broiler-type chicks live longer and produce more eggs under this new feeding schedule.

Fat hens do almost as well so far as egg-laying is concerned, but on an unrestricted diet they have "lower efficiency" and their eggs are not as healthy as those from lean hens.
