

4 Names Appear On City Ballot

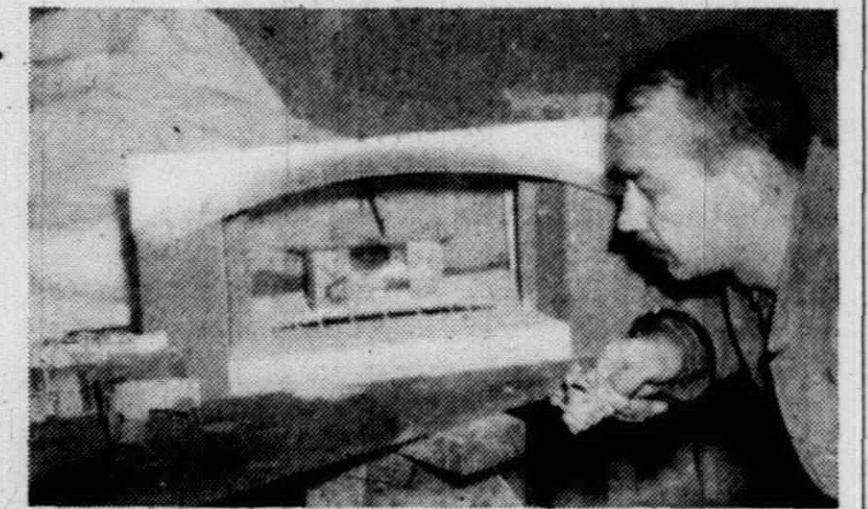

At the general election last November there was a complaint about the crowded ballot which made it hard to find some propositions.

But city voters shouldn't have any trouble finding their way around next Monday's voting machine. The entire board is a great, wide and white mass of nothing except for four names appearing in the upper left hand corner.

The four names are those running for Wayne County auditor. Two are Democrats and two are Republicans — meaning that those going to the polls will cast only one vote to nominate the auditor candidate from his respective party.

There are no other races on the city primary ballot, and no proposals or propositions. While most citizens are aware of their privilege and responsibility in participating in elections, election workers in the city are not planning on being rushed.

Guild Opens 3-Day 'Teahouse' Thursday

Geisha girls, cricket cages, and sweet potato brandy mixed altogether and poured into the confines of a three act play assures Plymouth residents of a solid, fun-filled evening's entertainment. On Thursday, Feb. 19 the Plymouth Theater Guild will serve this delightful dish, "Teahouse of the August Moon," to an audience hungry for laughs.

"Teahouse of the August Moon," a Broadway hit that ran for three years, will play three nights (Feb. 19, 20, 21) at the Plymouth High School Auditorium, starting at 8:15 p.m. each evening.

The Broadway script has been used by Director Hal Young and he says, "We've got a hit on our hands. I hope everyone gets their tickets early to avoid buying standing room only. Teahouse has been one of our biggest shows — cast, costume, and staging-wise. We know everyone's going to like it."

Producer Loretta Young indicated that over 55 Plymouth Theater Guild members had been involved in putting "Teahouse" together. Featured members of the cast will be Dr. Ford Sutherland as Sakini, Gwen Willis as Lotus Blossom, Sam Davis as Captain Fisher, Bob Luchetti as Captain Mc-

Lean, Bill Kamen as Sergeant Gregovich, Doug Havershaw as Colonel Furdy. Many other Plymouth friends and neighbors will be slanting their eyes and chanting a sing-song Oriental dialect as Okinawan villagers or village officials are the following Guild members: Maude Laury, Betty England, Dick Tait, Cameron Lambert, Kathy Greenlee, Rosemary Kooiman, Saxie Heft, Mildred Lambe, Laurina Kalitta, Mary and Chuck Ploughman, Jim Blackman, John Glanz, Jerry French and Bill Moore. Even members of the Children's Theater Workshop have been called upon to provide some actors for this production. John England and Susan Lacy are making their debut on the big stage as two Oriental children.

Downtown Plan Wins Audience Support

Plymouth's Central Business District Plan passed its first public test Monday night when 165 businessmen, industrialists and other interested citizens met at the Junior High to hear planners and Mayor Harold Guenther explain the modernization idea and answer questions.

Although criticism was invited, no one in the audience expressed unfavorable reaction during the evening. And concluding the two and one-half hour discussion was a round of applause for the city commission program of downtown rejuvenation. The first half of the evening was devoted to explanations on various phases of the program with members of the planning firm of Vilcan-Leman & Associates reporting on their findings and showing a series of charts and perspective drawings of what the future could bring. While the meeting generated much enthusiasm, it left unanswered some of the vital questions of how and when such a plan can be inaugurated and where the money will come from.

In fact, Mayor Harold Guenther, chairman of the meeting, explained at the outset that these are questions that have no answers at present. The meeting, he pointed

Freshmen Class Boundary Drawn

Boundaries to divide next year's freshmen class between the Senior High school and Junior High were established by the board of education at its regular meeting Monday night. The board also listened to an appeal from a group of Green Meadows residents to have all grade school children bussed to school.

Division of the freshmen class will take place next fall when around 150 members will remain at the Junior High. There will be another 247 placed in the Senior High. There are two reasons why the board has decided to split the class. Overcrowding of the senior high will develop if all the freshmen class is sent there. There are now 1,250 students in the senior high, which is considered overcrowded. Without the 150 freshmen going to the Junior High, the Senior High will again have 1,250. The board also decided several years ago to eventually go into the 6-3-3 method of schooling — meaning 1 through 1 grades kindergarten through 1

Donald D. Millikin

Chamber Names New Manager

The board of directors of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce hired a new manager at their meeting, Monday, according to Sy Cooper, Chamber president. He is Donald D. Millikin of Dearborn Township, who will assume duties as manager at the offices of the Chamber of Commerce Monday. He was formerly secretary — administrator of the West Dearborn Mainline Association engaged in central business district redevelopment. Millikin has been active in civic affairs and public relations activities in Detroit and Western Wayne County for the past seven years.

He is immediate past vice-president of the Michigan Chamber of Commerce, was charter president of the Dearborn Township Jaycees, served as chairman of the Site Sub-Committee of the Secondary Education Committee, School District 3, Dearborn Township, chairman of the Citizens' Library Committee of the North Township, member of the Township Goodfellows, Hawthorne Hills Improvement Association and church lay reader.

Astronomer Featured In Science Program Tonight

Through the "telescope" of an astronomer's words and pictures, many far looks into our universe will be taken tonight in Plymouth.

Viewing worlds beyond our world and learning what they may mean to us, will be the audience of the "Edge of Knowledge" program. The 90-minute program begins at 7:30 tonight in the Plymouth High School auditorium.

Dr. Geoffrey Keller, young astronomer and astrophysicist with the National Science Foundation, will speak specifically for junior high and senior high school students and adults of this area. His topic will be "The Newest Outposts in Astronomy."

The program is the second in a series of annual "Edge of Knowledge" programs which serve as a memorial to 10-year-old Kim Worland of Plymouth, who died of cancer in September 1957. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Worland, 290 Sunset, sponsor the event. Last year's program dealt with peacetime uses of atomic energy.

Carvel Bentley, principal of Plymouth High School, will introduce Dr. Keller tonight and will conduct the half hour question and answer period which will conclude the lecture.

The program is open to the public and without charge. Dr. Keller is on leave from his position as director of Ohio State University's Perkins Astronomical Observatory to serve as program director of the National Science Foundation.

Party Races, Charter Commissioners Also On Township Ballot

Primary contests for a number of Plymouth Township offices and the controversial proposal to incorporate part of the township into the City of Plymouth Heights are expected to draw large crowds to the polls next Monday at the Township Hall.

Democrats will have two contests to decide on their side of the ballot (supervisor and clerk) while the Republicans will have but one (clerk). But without doubt the greatest amount of interest will lie elsewhere on the voting machine panel — the long incorporation proposal.

Only electors within the 8.3 square miles of the proposed incorporated city are eligible to vote on the question. Township Clerk Rosalind Broome states that all voters in Precinct 1 and 2 will be able to decide the question but only part of those in Precinct 3 lie within the area.

Those not eligible to vote on the incorporation will be directed to a voting machine not containing the proposition. Some 1,300 words will be

Township To Put Levy On April Ballot

Architect Morris Webster was hired by the Plymouth Township Board last week to build an addition to the Town Hall, plus a new fire station in the Lake Pointe area, by the water tower on Schoolcraft Avenue. For services rendered he will receive $1,000. He had sketches and plans for the two buildings at the February 4 meeting of the Plymouth Township Board.

To equip and maintain the new fire station, which will be approximately 49 feet long and wide enough to house two fire trucks, the board voted unanimously to ask for a half mill it year increase, or at the present evaluation, $25,000 a year. This will be on the April ballot.

The construction cost of the fire station will be included in the $45,000 the board has had earmarked to build the addition to Town Hall consisting of a bedroom for the firemen and an assembly room addition.

Approval was granted by electors last Nov. to build the addition to Town Hall, with the cost not to exceed $45,000. Expenditures up to $45,000 may be voted on as a board without referendum. However, the administration put it on the ballot at that time to secure a vote of confidence for their action.

Construction bids must be in the office of Mr. Webster, 18353 W. McNichols by 2 p.m. on Wednesday, Feb. 25. Bids will be opened at 7:30 p.m. at Town Hall the same date. The contract will allow four months to complete construction with a $100 a day penalty for over due-date with no premium for early completion.

BE INCORPORATED AS THE CITY OF PLYMOUTH HEIGHTS?

FOR CITY INCORPORATION YES

FOR CITY INCORPORATION NO

THIS IS WHAT electors voting on the Plymouth Heights proposition will find on the voting machines. Some 1,300 words long, the question contains, in small print, the legal description of the proposed new city.

Plymouth to Fete Burroughs Corp.

Plymouth is planning a big program to show a major industry that the community appreciates its presence here. The industry is Burroughs Corporation, booming along today at an all-time peak of employment in its Plymouth Division, pouring great economic strength into the community.

The "we appreciate Burroughs" tribute will be paid sometime during March. Every merchant in the market for office equipment will be urged to "switch to Burroughs." This is to make the campaign felt in dollars and cents.

Automobiles will bear stickers bearing the message that "Plymouth Appreciates Burroughs." Store windows will contain posters.

The Plymouth Mail will publish a special edition dedicated to the theme, and describing the important operations at the Burroughs plant here. Top executives in the Corporation — including President Ray Eppert — will be invited to a "Colonial Luncheon" at which time they will be heralded by City, Township and School officials. The Mayor and the Supervisor will extend the invitation to the company officials, suggesting they pick a convenient date.

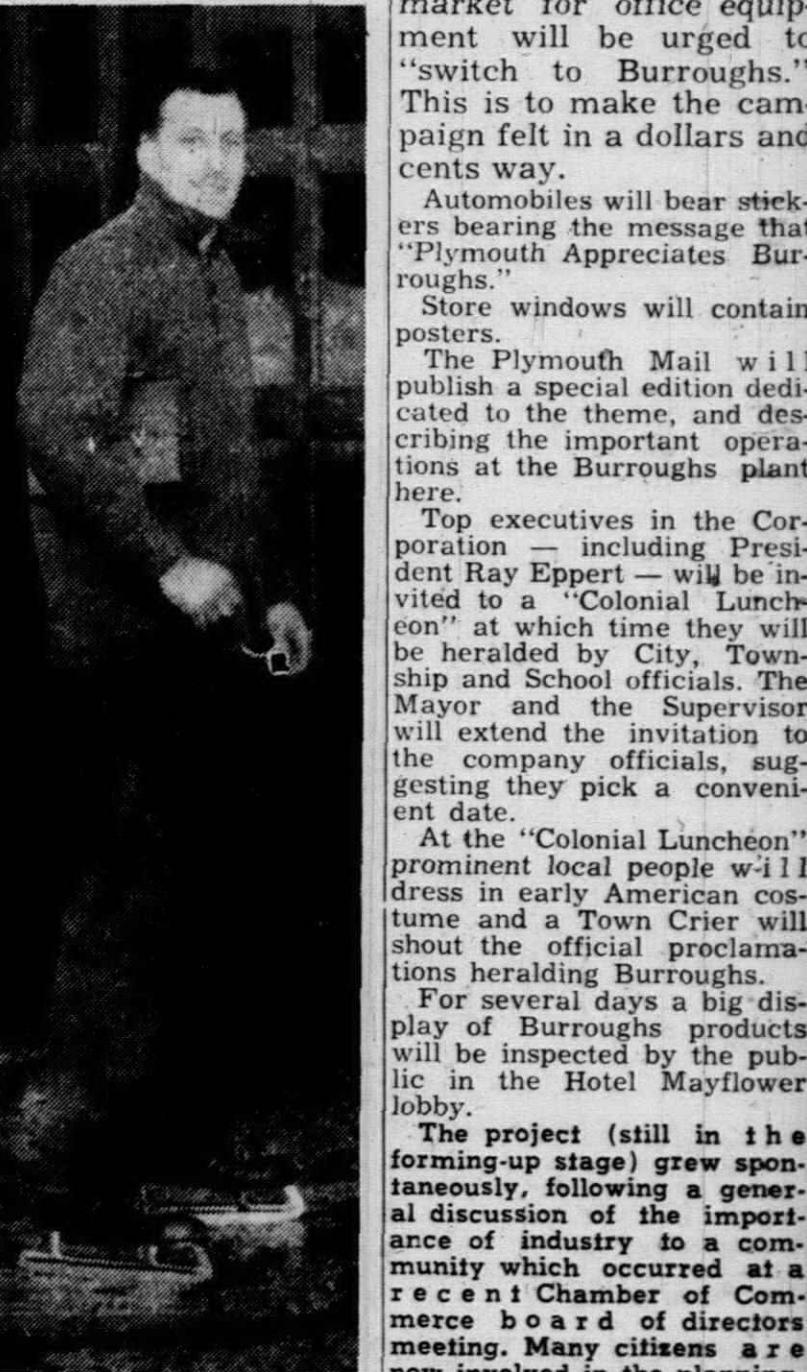

At the "Colonial Luncheon" prominent local people will dress in early American costume and a Town Crier will shout the official proclamations heralding Burroughs.

For several days a big display of Burroughs products will be inspected by the public in the Hotel Mayflower lobby.

The project (still in the forming-up stage) grew spontaneously following a general discussion of the importance of industry to a community which occurred at a recent Chamber of Commerce board of directors meeting. Many citizens are now involved in the planning, with the Chamber of Commerce as the guiding body.

Many benefits are hoped for. It will be a spontaneous, sincere display by the community showing its appreciation of the industry and employer; it will cement a friendly feeling between community and business so that the latter will enjoy being here.

Grange Sponsors Red Cross Classes

Mrs. Lloyd Fillmore, 197 South Union Street Plymouth, chairman of the Health Committee of the Plymouth Grange, has invited women in the area to join with Grange members in registering for a Red Cross class in "Care of the Sick and Injured." The Grange Hall, South Union Street, will be the site of these classes for six Wednesdays, starting February 18, with classes starting at 9:30 a.m.; 1 p.m.; 7:30 p.m.; and continuing for two hours at each session. Twenty women can be accommodated in each class, Mrs. Fillmore said.

Equipment necessary for the demonstrations and practice and nurse-instructors are provided by the Detroit Red Cross chapter. Mrs. Joseph Dunnabeck 21900 Beech Road, Northville volunteer, will teach the evening class and a Red Cross staff nurse will conduct the daytime classes. Women who successfully complete the course receive Red Cross home nursing certificates.

"The important thing is that homemakers are better able to meet emergencies which nearly every household encounters when there is illness," Mrs. Fillmore said. "Then, of course, we sometimes have community epidemics or wide-spread emergencies requiring large numbers of women able to assist in nursing duties.

"The course is very practical. In it we learn how to take pulse, respiration, temperature; keep simple medical records; report accurately to the physician and follow his instructions for treatment; make a bed and give a bath with a minimum of moving and discomfort to the patient; prevent spread of the malarial by observing rules of hygiene; plan meals for the patient and family without having to prepare two complete menus; make comfort items for the patient from materials usually at hand; care for simple accidents and determine when symptoms indicate need for professional assistance.

"Techniques taught in the course are especially helpful where there are small children or elderly people requiring special care."

Mrs. Fillmore, who is taking registrations for the course can be reached at GL 3-2493. Textbooks may be purchased for a nominal sum. There is no charge for the course.

Vows Exchanged at Candlelight Service

Pattie Ruth Cravens and Robert Gene Hager were united in marriage January 31 at the Plymouth Church of Christ with Rev. John Williams of Walled Lake officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Haynes Cravens, 328 South Harvey Street, Plymouth, and Robert's parents are the late Mr. and Mrs. William Max Hager of Union City, Tennessee.

Pattie exchanged vows during a candlelight service wearing a white lace sheath, trimmed in white satin with matching satin shoes. Her illusion veil was shoulder length, caught by a tiara of seed pearls. Her bridal bouquet was white rose buds centered with a white orchid.

Miss Patricia Ann Baggett gownned in a pale blue ballerina chiffon carried a bouquet of red roses as the maid of honor.

Tawunya Kent Townshend, the groom's niece was dainty in a white nylon frock trimmed in blue and carried a basket of rose petals and baby carnations in her role as flower girl.

The Best Man for the Groom was Billy Joe Kindred and Dwayne Park and Gene Callis of Plymouth and Ray Ledbetter of Detroit were ushers.

Plymouth friends Barbara Callis, Mary Louise Jones, Jim Jones and Larry Cole sang "Tell Me Why," "I Love You Truly," the traditional wedding song, "Faithful and True" and "Lord Bless and Keep You."

A reception followed immediately for 250 relatives and friends of the young couple from Plymouth, Walled Lake, Muskegon, Flint, Detroit and Chicago.

The young couple have taken up residence at 732 North Harvey Street in Plymouth. Robert is employed by the Ford Motor Company of Livonia Michigan.

PHS Musicians Participate In Music Festival

Plymouth High School will be among 27 southeastern Michigan high schools participating in a music festival Saturday, Feb. 14, at Wayne State University.

Nearly 400 young singers and pianists will perform both solo and in ensembles. The festival, hosted by the University's music staff, will be held from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. in the Music Building, 5451 Cass.

Awards will be presented to the best performers in various classes by the sponsor, District 4 of the Michigan School Vocal Association.

Judges are Loren Cady, choral music director, Central High School, Bay City; Dr. Eugene Grove, professor of music, Central Michigan College; Robert Luscombe, choral music director, Ford High School, Detroit; and Dr. Wilbur J. Peterson, associate professor of music education at Wayne State.

Festival Chairman is Richard Meyer, choral music director for Waterford High School. This is one of several competitions held during the year in various parts of the State.

Dr. Weir to Speak At Annual White Breakfast

Dr. Samuel C. Weir, minister of the Littlefield Blvd. United Presbyterian Church, will be the principal speaker at the Women's Association of the First United Presbyterian Church 10th Annual White Breakfast.

This year the Breakfast will take place March 26. This is an event that is held each year during Holy Week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hager

SOCIAL NOTES

Foster Calahan of Plymouth and Joyce Terry of Detroit took top score honors in the American Bridge League's monthly Winners' Tournament held last Sunday evening at the Detroit Leland Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wernette and son Timmie are spending a few weeks in Florida.

13 Junior High Bandsmen Win District Awards

All 13 of the Plymouth Junior High Band members who participated in the Southeastern Michigan Solo and Ensemble Festival held at Thurston High School in South Redford won first division (1) superior ratings from judges in the Junior High Classification.

The event was held last Friday.

Students participating were Arthur Gulick, French horn solo; Cheryl Wright, trombone solo; Dale Livingston, baritone solo; David Millross and Mickey Britcher, cornet duet; Kevin Huntington, Gil Coffey, Leonard Cole and Larry Oldford, saxophone quartet; Mary Lou Smith, Karen Dickerson, Barbara Niemi and Josephine Mecklenburg, clarinet quartet.

Accompanying the soloists were David Van Ornum, Dorothy Stremick and Virginia Fetner. Lawrence Livingston is instructor of the Junior High instrumental music department.

All 13 participants will receive a bronze medal with the blue ribbon.

The band will next appear at Willow Run for the Southeastern Michigan district band festival on Feb. 21.

Ice Finally Sidelines School Buses

For the first time in many years, Plymouth's school buses were unable to run Tuesday because of slick ice that covered every side road and some main highways too.

Administrative Assistant Melvin Blunk ordered the buses to stay in the yard Tuesday morning after conferring with Transportation Director Robert Houghton. Superintendent Russell Isbister had left for Washington, D.C. the day before.

By 7 a.m. when the buses start to move, there were no drivers on hand because of their own troubles in getting to work. Later they all showed up but Blunk and Houghton considered driving much too risky.

By using the facilities of WJR radio, Plymouth was listed among the many districts not having bus service.

Four schools in the district were also closed. They were the so-called outlying schools of Cherry Hill, Canton Center, Truesdell and Hough. Attendance at the other schools dipped because of the lack of bus service.

At the high school, Principle Carvel Bentley reported that around 800 students, or two-thirds of the enrollment, were there. Parents drove some to school later in the day.

It has been at least over seven years since buses failed to run.

MRS. CORNELL A. GREAVU, of 373 Maple, Plymouth, addressed the luncheon meeting of the Dorcas Society of the Seventh-day Adventist Church held at the home of Mrs. M. Nick, 32116 Merritt Drive, Garden City, on Wednesday, Feb. 4.

A resident of the Plymouth and Northville area for many years, Mrs. Greavu had not seen her relatives in Rumania for 44 years. Finding it difficult to obtain the necessary documents for entrance into the country alone, she went to Switzerland to visit a sister, and from there was successful in gaining admittance. She felt her success was providential because only large groups on conducted tours could enter Rumania.

Because of the revolution in Hungary, her train was routed through Yugoslavia. She spent the 28 days allowed for travel in Rumania visiting her relatives in small villages, walking, or travelling by ox-cart.

Although treated courteously by all officials behind the Iron Curtain, she stated she was very happy to set foot on American soil again.

Canton Twp. Candidates Stage Active Campaign

It may be just another primary election in some places, but Canton Township politicians are giving this election the full treatment.

Campaigning with signs, leaflets and some talks are part of the Canton Township scene. With Canton divided almost equally between Democrats and Republicans, candidates know that should they survive the primary they stand a good chance of being elected if their party turns out a few more voters than the opposition.

The job of treasurer appears to be the most popular with four Democrats seeking the post. Two Democrats, Carl Southerland and Robert Waldecker, a former supervisor, are competing for the Supervisor's nomination of their party.

These are the candidates:

Supervisor
Republican, Louis Stein, 4482 Sheldon Rd.; Democrats, Carl Southerland, 45080 Gaddes Rd.; Robert Waldecker, 48685 Warren Rd.
Clerk
Republican, Wray D. Smith, 49555 Geddes; Democrat, John W. Flodin, 41755 Michigan Ave., incumbent.

Treasurer
Republican, Hagbard J. Berg, 48630 Michigan Ave.; Democrats, Ashley R. Coburn, 125 Canton Center, George Bradley, 6438 Canton Center, Mary Hefferty, 215 Willard St., and Philip Dingeldey, 819 Haggerty, incumbent.

Trustee

ORVILLE TUNGATE, CANDIDATE FOR SUPERVISOR PROMISES

Cooperation . . . Not Conflict With Our Neighbors

ORVILLE TUNGATE
Candidate for Supervisor, Democrat

A Declaration By Orville Tungate

Dear Plymouth Township Neighbors:

My name is Orville Tungate. I'm a candidate for Supervisor of Plymouth Township and respectfully solicit your vote.

The purpose of this letter is to tell you why I am running for the office, and what I stand for.

Possibly you remember an ad I ran in the Plymouth Mail last fall. In it I said I had been asked to run by some people who thought "we needed a change" in the Township, and I agreed to proceed if enough people called or wrote me to indicate there was a genuine desire for the change.

My phone rang almost without pause for two days and I received many encouraging letters. So I proceeded and am now hoping to win the Democratic nomination in the primary next Monday.

Our program is:

COOPERATION WITH OUR NEIGHBOR COMMUNITIES. The Plymouth Township Administration has been quarreling over the smallest of issues with the City of Plymouth, and the effect is detrimental to all of us.

JOINT PLANNING TO BRING INDUSTRIAL TAX BASE TO PLYMOUTH. Because of the lack of cooperation between Township and City, there isn't even a sound plan for an Industrial Park, with sewer, water and roads, that can be offered new industries which want to locate here. We need this tax base desperately to build our schools.

PROFESSIONAL TOWNSHIP ADMINISTRATION. Today we are run by a part-time Supervisor who also maintains his own real estate business. I propose to hire a college-trained, Township "manager" as the Supervisor's administrative assistant. He would be on duty full-time. The Supervisor would yield his salary to the assistant and the Supervisor would become primarily a policy executive.

REALISTIC SALARIES. We need trained, competent people in key positions in our growing Township. But we do not need to pay our Treasurer $15,000 a year, while other things suffer.

KEEPING THE CITIZENS INFORMED. If elected, I will immediately discontinue the kind of government where Township affairs are carried on in semi-secrecy in a sort of "private family circle" with the public being allowed to know only what the officials want them to know.

I hope you share my desires in these matters.

Sincerely,
ORVILLE TUNGATE

Plymouth To

To other business seeking a new location, it could create a good impression of this being an attractive place to locate.

In its own, local way it could counteract much of the "bad business climate" label which has been hung on Michigan.

Through press and TV publicity in Detroit and across the country, it could bring attention of outsiders upon our unique community in a favorable way. It could publicize the "colonial theme" of Plymouth which many are trying to promote today.

More information will come later. Anyone sharing the enthusiasm, and wishing to contribute ideas or energy, is urged to volunteer at the Chamber of Commerce.

Plymouth Heights Proposition

The city of Plymouth could not be considered. The Community Improvement Association of Plymouth Township has also taken up sides in the "yes" camp. (Advertisements appear in this issue presenting specific arguments of both sides.)

Two groups are known opponents of the incorporation. The newly-formed Lake Pointe Homeowners Association has taken a stand against it and has circulated a notice among its members. A group of businessmen living in the township also are backing the move, claiming that such action would split the community.

The business group also believes that a new city would result in duplication of services and unnecessary taxes; would paralyze area planning and would scare away industry.

It was an annexation petition being circulated last June that actually launched the incorporation proceedings.

The Garling Realty Co. of Dearborn, owner of 20 acres of land on the eastern boundary of the city, began circulation of an annexation petition. Without annexation to the city, water was not available.

Before Garling's petition was filed with the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, a petition asking for incorporation of the City of Plymouth Heights and signed by 281 people was placed on file.

Last November the Board of Supervisors set the incorporation election date and voted that the Garling petition must wait until the future of Plymouth Heights is decided.

Because population of proposed cities must have a density of at least 500 people per square mile, western Plymouth Township could not be included. The dividing line is McClumpha Rd. and the line running north of its northern terminus.

Should incorporation become a reality, supporters claim that the remaining township could petition to be annexed.

Looking at the partisan politics side of the ballot, two Democrats are seeking their party's nomination for supervisor. William J. Shekell and Orville L. Tungate are engaged in the elimination contest and one will face incumbent Republican Roy R. Lindsay in April.

The other two races are for township clerk. The present clerk, Mrs. Rosalind Broome, is not seeking re-election. Republicans have two men in competition, Fred L. Miller and Vernard Sturm, while Democrats have two women, Mrs. Vina M. Galloway and Mrs. Beatrice J. Hessler.

While it will be possible to write in candidates for a ny office, there are several jobs open completely through write-ins. There are no candidates from either party for a justice of the peace post and there are three to be elected from each party for party committeemen.

The party committeeman is something new started two years ago. Each party elects three people who must appoint a candidate should any of their party's candidates die between the primary and general biennial election.

Each party can elect one each of supervisor, clerk, treasurer, trustee, justice of peace, board of review and commissioner of highways; four constables; and three party committeemen.

To vote in the primary, one must pull down the "party lever" located at the right side of the voting machine panel. The elector can vote for candidates of only one party, either Democratic or Republican.

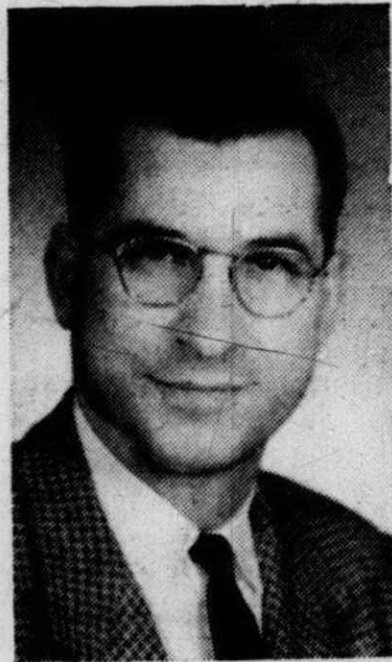

In addition to the township candidates, there will be two candidates from each party in county auditor races. This appears at the top of the partisan ballot.

two years in the government schools of Iran. In 1940-41 he worked as an interpreter of English for a contracting firm in Iran, and later as a lumber contractor, supplying lumber to the United States Army. During this time he was called to full time Christian service, and entered the theological seminary at Hamadan, Iran, where he completed the three year course for the Christian ministry. Upon request, he became the principal of the church-sponsored Elementary school in Tehran for one year.

In 1940 he met Miss Grace Wilder who was serving as missionary at Resht, and four years later they were married. They have two children, Paul and Mehrene, aged 11 and 10.

The Larudees came to the United States in 1947, where he attended Princeton Theological Seminary, completing training as a special student. In 1949 they returned to Iran, where he served as assistant pastor of the church where he was baptized. After his ordination to the ministry, he became the pastor of this church.

In 1951, when it was discovered that Mehrene had a very serious illness which could not be properly treated in Iran, they again returned to the U.S., and settled in Easton, Pa., where Mr. Larudee served as pastor of the S. Presbyterian church, and also attended Lafayette College. In 1953, having completed his work at Lafayette college for a B.A. degree, he again entered Princeton, and in June 1954 received a Master of Religious Education degree.

Meanwhile Mehrene responded to medical treatment, and was entirely cured.

After two years as pastor of the Pittsgrove Presbyterian Church in Daretown, N. J., in September '56 he was called as Associate Pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Davenport, Iowa.

Since September, 1958, he has served as pastor of the Presbyterian church in S. Lyons.

This is one of the outfits Mrs. Hoffman will wear for the Business and Professional Women's Fashion Show, Wednesday, March 4 at the High School. Mrs. Agnes Pauline will do the commenting on Minerva's fashions.

Monday night the B. & P.W. will meet at 6:30 for dinner at Hillside Inn for their annual Bosses Night. Roberta Steele is in charge of the program. The guest speaker will be Paul Cooper, Assistant Manager of Dealers Advertising for Burroughs Corporation and also an instructor for Dale Carnegie Courses. His talk will be "Secret Ambitions."

IMPORTANT CHANGE IN PRICE POLICY

(A PERSONAL MESSAGE FROM DAVE GALIN.)

Dear Friends:

Starting today, I am embarking on a radical new policy of pricing of fine furniture and quality appliances.

I am tired and disgusted with phony "discounts," constant "clearance sales," and transparent "wholesale" prices. I am tired of hearing about prices that have been "marked down" because I know that the same prices were marked way up to enable them to be "marked down."

And I believe my customers are sick of all of these shenanigans, too! The public is not stupid and it recognizes the falseness of "bait" advertising.

So yesterday I closed the doors of Dave Galin and Son for 24 hours, and my staff went over every piece of merchandise in our store and re-priced it. We adjusted every tag downward to the LOWEST POSSIBLE LEVEL we could, while still enabling us to make a fair profit and to continue to render the friendly and reliable service that we have given this community for over 31 years.

THIS IS THE LAST TIME WE WILL HAVE ANY MARKDOWN OF PRICE. From now on, we will have ONE PRICE, and it will be the very best we can offer. This new, low "Volume Price" will prevail every day of the year.

Our overhead is low and we believe we can beat or meet any competitive price offered for the same quality of merchandise.

The prices in today's advertisement are cited to indicate just how drastic this new policy will be. Please study them carefully, because this is the last time I am going to publish general comparative prices.

FROM NOW ON, EVERY PRICE, ON EVERY ITEM, EVERY DAY WILL BE THE ABSOLUTE LOWEST PRICE WE CAN OFFER.

Yours sincerely
Dave Galin

OFFICIAL PROCEEDINGS TOWNSHIP OF PLYMOUTH BOARD

February 4, 1959
 A regular meeting of the Township Board was held at the Township Hall Wednesday February 4, 1959 at 8:00 p.m.
 Present: Supervisor Lindsay; Board Members Holmes, Broome, Norman, Sparks.
 The minutes of the regular meeting held January 7, 1959 were read by the Clerk, Mr. Lindsay suggested that the date for making a sewer survey not be limited to April 1, 1959 due to weather conditions.
 Moved by Mrs. Holmes and supported by Mr. Norman that the minutes be approved and accepted as corrected. Carried unanimously.
 Moved by Mrs. Holmes that the following resolution be adopted:

WHEREAS, at the Annual Meeting held April 5, 1958 a motion was proposed and carried unanimously to engage an architect to draw plans for a proposed fire station near the water tower on Schoolcraft Road, and

WHEREAS, plans have been drawn by a registered architect, Mr. Morris Webster, of 18353 W. McNichols, Detroit, WHEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that a proposition be placed on the ballot at the Biennial Spring Election to raise 1 mill for one year—½ mill for the purchase of a truck and ½ mill for operation of the proposed station—plus ½ mill for operation each year thereafter.

 Supported by Mr. Sparks and carried unanimously.
 Moved by Mr. Norman and seconded by Mrs. Broome that the Treasurer be authorized to pay the bills as presented by the Supervisor. Carried unanimously.
 Mr. Morris Webster, 18353 W. McNichols, was present in regard to the plans for the proposed addition to the Township Hall. Moved by Mrs. Holmes that the following resolution be adopted:

WHEREAS, at the Annual Meeting held April 5, 1958 a motion was offered and carried unanimously to have plans drawn for an addition to the Township Hall, and

WHEREAS, Mr. Morris Webster, 18353 W. McNichols, who is a registered architect, has drawn plans for said proposed addition to the Township Hall,

WHEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Township Board accept Mr. Webster's plans and authorize him to supervise the construction of the addition subject to a written agreement satisfactory to the Board, for a total fee of $1,000, $500 being for plans and specifications and $500 being for supervision of the construction.

Supported by Mrs. Broome and carried unanimously.
 The Board set Wednesday, February 25, 1959 at 7:30 p.m. as the date to open the bids.
 Moved by Mr. Sparks and supported by Mrs. Holmes that the meeting be adjourned. Carried unanimously. Time of adjournment was 8:30 p.m.

BOTH REPUBLICANS and Democrats now have active organizations in Canton Township, making politics there more interesting than ever. Last week the newly-formed Democratic Club had a rally that included 6 from left: Circuit Judges Thomas Murphy and George Bowles; judge candidate James Lincoln; club chairman Sid Easton; judge candidate Edward Piggins and two Plymouth guests, former chief assistant prosecutor Ralph Garber and his son.

Community Fund Grants $2,000 To Symphony

The Plymouth Community Fund board of directors voted Tuesday night to make a special grant of $2,000 to the Plymouth Symphony Society in order to continue its program for the remainder of the year.

In addition to the grant, the directors included in the motion that hereafter if the Symphony Society should seek further money from the Fund it should become one of the Fund agencies.
 The request for $2,000 was made in a letter to the Community Fund last November, just as the 1958 fund drive was ending. Fund directors were agreed that the Symphony is worthy of obtaining Community Fund money but that hereafter it should be listed among the other agencies receiving funds.

There was some discussion of whether a cultural group such as the Symphony would be eligible for support of the fund drive. However, a check with the incorporation's purposes shows that the Chest is not only for charitable purposes, but also for the promotion of community services.

The Symphony Board, which noted that it is well into the red at this point, listed many areas of service besides its concerts. The Symphony maintains a Junior Symphony without charge to young musicians, supports a Community Chorus; sponsors art competitions and shows; makes it possible for 160 young people to attend the Children's Concerts of the Detroit Symphony; and sends two young people to Interlochen each summer.

Conductor Wayne Dunlap, who appeared at the meeting with Symphony Board President Kenneth Halsing and Treasurer Carl Caplan, said that while it would be possible for the Symphony to charge admission to its concerts, it does not because a charge would turn away many who would like to attend but could not afford it, especially young people. Donations are accepted at the door but receipts are nominal.

Support of symphonies with Red Feather money is not without precedent. Dunlap explained. Flint's Symphony is supported entirely by the Red Feather and Muskegon's is partially supported.

MRS. AGNES PAULINE, Librarian of the Dunning-Hough Library held the children's rapt attention during "the story hour" last Saturday morning in the library. All children, particularly those from pre-school to the third grade, are invited to these delightful story hours at 11:00 a.m. every Saturday. Films will be shown from time to time.

Friendly Lake Pointe Village Welcomes Many New Families

By MARCY BARTSON
 GL. 3-6729

Lake Pointe is growing so fast these days it's hard to keep up with the many new faces. Brentwood Drive is the scene of many activities with an almost daily appearance of a moving van or two.

Ivo and May Schmitt of 42044 Brentwood moved here from Detroit. Ivo is retired having worked at the J. L. Hudson Co. for many years. He was with the jewelry repair department in the watch repair section. May says she really loves it here. Their son Bob makes his home with his parents and finds it so convenient to his work at the Western Electric Plant in Plymouth. He has been with Western Electric for 10 years and is presently working in the Teletype department.

Farther down Brentwood we find the Kraseman family. Ervin and Janet arrived here after a one year stay in Redford Township. They originate from Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Their little girl Gail Ann is just 15 months old. Janet loves to do art work and sewing. Ervin prefers to read and relax. Janet's parents came down from Milwaukee for a visit and to see the Kraseman's new home. As luck would have it Ervin and Janet were still in their other home in Redford Township. A week later they were finally able to move into their shiny new home, but their guests had made the trip back to Milwaukee.

Still other newcomers to our village are the Knaggs. John is originally from Royal Oak, and Eleanor is from Newburgh, N. Y. However, their more recent address has been Germany. John is a Captain in the United States Air Force and thus the Knaggs have really seen our U.S.A. plus much of Europe. While they were stationed in Germany for three years their visits to other countries included Paris, France, Rome, Luxembourg, Holland, Belgium, and Switzerland. They have two children—Mary Patricia, four years old, and Michael, one year old. Michael was born in Germany.

John is taking a two year course at the University of Michigan where he is studying aeronautics. Eleanor tells me they are so happy and pleased with their new home and our wonderful community. We are happy to welcome such nice and interesting people, too.

Just four days after Christmas the Diekmans settled themselves in their brand new home for a long winter spree of unpacking and getting organized. Jane and Bob are both originally from Detroit. Jane, however, spent most of her life in Plymouth and Bob lived in Walled Lake previous to his stay in Plymouth. Their two daughters, Barbara 13, and Debra six, attend the Junior High School and Farrand School.

Bob is an accountant at Micromatic Hone, who's precision products are manufactured. He is an avid Hi-Fi fan and has made all of his own equipment. This is quite a feat, too, after seeing how intricate and involved Hi-Fi can get! At the moment Jane claims sewing as her hobby. She is busily making drapes for the entire house. She was the one I referred to in my column last week that worked on the March of Dimes—only we called her Jane Dryden.

Tooey Bolduc called to tell me about the Girl Scout troop and their latest project. The troop no. 274 is going to present a play, "The Golden Touch", at the Farrand school next Monday evening.

They will entertain the Dearborn troop along with two lady guests from India. This play is one of the Girl Scout achievement requirements and it sounds like quite an evening full of fun for everyone. Mimi Bales, Tooey Bolduc, Dale Evans, and Dianne Canko are the girls from our village who are members of this troop.

Bill Bolduc, Jr., informs me that he is now the Plymouth Mail news carrier in the Lakepointe area. He will deliver the paper weekly and take and renew subscriptions as they reach expiration date. Anyone who wishes to renew their present subscription or to make a new one, just call Bill at GL. 3-7523.

The ladies of Our Lady of Good Counsel Parish who belong to the Rosary Society had quite a marvelous time last Wednesday evening. They had their annual membership meeting and the entertainment that evening consisted of a hat fashion show. The hats were the latest in spring fashion and had everyone yearning for spring. The hats were modeled by the club members and the hats were graciously supplied by Fogarty's Hat Shop of Ann Arbor. Accessories were also modeled along with the chic chapeaux. Father Byrne came in wearing a fireman's hat. He said that since it was a hat show he felt like modeling something too. The girls enjoyed this little added feature immensely!

The Social and Membership Committee of our Lake Pointe Homeowners Association held their first meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Dudley Maher. Present were Marie Bellemore, June Hudson, Nora Jaskierny, Natalie Koch, Barb Bolduc, Arlene Motkus, Les Bartson, and chairman Dudley Maher. The committee drew up their plans for canvassing the subdivision for the membership drive. They will canvass Sub. 1 and Sub. 2 to distribute the Association By-laws and to enroll new residents. They are also distributing a letter from the Association advising our homeowners to vote NO on the forthcoming issue to incorporate the Township as the city of Plymouth Heights.

The Board of Directors have made this recommendation to vote NO on the incorporation issue after much intense study and many meetings to discuss the matter. Don't forget to get down to the Township hall on February 16 to cast your important vote! See you there.

LONELY HEART
COLUMBIA, Mo. (UPI)—J. W. Atkins, 99, says he can cook, but he's getting tired of it and would like to find a wife, about 65 to 70, in good health, who would do the cooking for him.
 Atkins also said his future wife should be stout and even-tempered.
 "I enjoy living and want to live longer," he said, "but it sure gets lonesome when you have no one around to think about you or talk to you."

PLANTING SOYBEAN
MADISON, Wis. (UPI)—A group of University of Wisconsin researchers report that soybeans can be planted by the "wheel track" method as successfully as corn.
 With the new method, soybean seed is planted in rough plowed ground—in the wheel tracks of the tractor. The researchers say that soybean yields can be increased by as much as 15 per cent simply by placing the rows closer.

DEAR FELLOW TAXPAYER:

My name is CARL W. SOUTHERLAND and I am a candidate for the office of Supervisor of Canton Township on the Democratic ticket in the primary to be held on February 16, 1959.

I live at 45080 Geddes Road, married, father of four children, a veteran of World War II, have been a taxpayer in the Township for the past 12 years and am presently employed by the Plymouth Board of Education.

I am a candidate for the office of Supervisor because I believe—

- That taxes are too high considering the services rendered to the taxpayers by the Township;
- That aggressive steps should be taken immediately and planning be done to secure for the Township the advantages of water and sewage facilities;
- That regular rubbish pickup should be established as a service to the taxpayer;
- That the costs of operating the Township be cut to the absolute minimum.

If you as a Taxpayer agree that the Township should have an efficient and economical administration consider me a candidate at the Primary Election to be held on February 16th, 1959, and vote for CARL W. SOUTHERLAND for SUPERVISOR.

Sincerely yours,
CARL W. SOUTHERLAND

The MAIL Attitude

By PAUL CHANDLER

It is our fervent hope that Plymouth Township voters get out to the polls in large enough numbers Monday so that a truly representative decision can be made.

We hope for this because we solemnly believe that this community has arrived at a terrifying crossroads. A decision of major, permanent importance is to be made Monday, and if only a minority of citizens make it, another of the shortcomings of democratic process will have been exposed.

The decision, revolving around the "incorporation issue", is:

Is this area to grow and be planned by City and Township as a single, united "community", or

Is the nature of the area such that it requires two or more separate swirls of political power, operating independently and virtually as opponents?

If Township voters approve the proposal for "incorporation", the die will have been cast for two unfriendly, separate local governments, now and into the future.

If they say "No" it will preserve the status quo and provide orders for the elected officials to "stop quarreling" and to go together with their neighbors in building a real community, utilizing the pride, the history, the assets which all shared in common until this modern feuding began.

The Mail urgently recommends that the answer be "No."

One difficulty in analyzing the issue has been the coyness of the supporters of "incorporation" and the lack of open argument as to what it is supposed to accomplish.

Its backers have chosen to remain as anonymous as possible. Nobody seems to want to be too closely identified with the matter.

And as to possible virtues of "incorporation", nobody has much to say, either—in public. It seems to be sort of a matter of what incorporation would prevent somebody else from doing, rather than what it might do in its own right.

Somehow, it harkens a thought back to when Hitler justified his legions smashing into Poland on the grounds that Germany had to be saved from attack by the Poles.

An incorporation plan which could do irreparable permanent harm to the community is being rationalized as a necessary "defensive" measure.

We have done enough checking of the supporters of incorporation to know that substantially more than "Township defense" is involved. The organizers of the plan and its backers are small in number. And they are heavily influenced by men with large land holdings and/or strong real estate interests.

Township residents undoubtedly detected something along those lines when they read a paragraph of a letter mailed over the week-end to every home.

Paragraph 6 of that "pro-incorporation letter" stated quite candidly:

"Ordinarily the loss of 20 acres (meaning the Garling home project next to Parkview Circle) by the Township would not be too serious. However, these piecemeal annexations on the fringe of the City would jeopardize the completion of a number of projects now underway in the Township, INCLUDING THE SEWER AND WATER PROGRAM, THE DEVELOPMENT OF OUR PROPERTIES FOR THE MAXIMUM BENEFIT TO TOWNSHIP RESIDENTS, etc."

Stark, unanswered questions which occur to any wary citizen from that paragraph are:

Which Township citizens will the "sewer and water projects" benefit—exactly? And what "water project"—exactly, is underway?

For present residents living in the Township, what today is the cheapest, most obvious way to provide sewer and water? Is it to run big, new, expensive lines through—open acreage?

What is meant, other than bringing sewer to existing homes, by the phrase "the development of our properties for the maximum benefit to Township residents, etc.?" What is covered by "etc.?"

I believe an average Township voter understands that considerably more is contemplated than running a water or sewer line into now-existing subdivisions.

Nobody has bothered either, to tell the voters that no one is going to annex Burroughs Corporation today for two good reasons: (1) Burroughs has residents on the property still able to forestall any such attempt, even as they thwarted it long before the "incorporation" gimmick was unveiled; (2) City of Plymouth's officials have pledged they won't try to annex Burroughs.

Nor has it been stated that Burroughs officials themselves have no sympathy with this "incorporation" maneuver. Nor does the other Township industry.

Much, too, is made of the fact that "incorporation" would offer a two-year "breathing period."

Breathing period for what? What will be correct two years from now which is not correct today? Sound principles and cooperative planning are needed as much today as they will be at any future point on the calendar.

Good citizens on both sides of the boundary are interested in exactly the same thing—a harmonious, friendly community pulling together to build schools and public facilities for the total area for the future.

No one part of the total has any monopoly on this objective. The "two-part" thinking is the creation of individuals on both sides of the boundary, and it is artificial, unreal, unwise and destructive. If it doesn't stop, everyone will get hurt.

More than 85 percent of the tax bills today come from schools and county and are identical in City and Township.

Our residents mingle socially, economically and politically.

Historically this is "one" community. The way to build for the future is to use the total resources in a coordinated planned effort. Duplicated city government can only be expensive government.

The "incorporation" plan would ignore all of those facts and substitute antagonism among neighbors. It should be buried by the "No" votes of concerned citizens.

Plymouth School Children Schedule Clothing Bundle Program Next Week

A week-long Bundle Day Program will open next Monday in the Plymouth Community School District during which clothing will be collected for the needy both in the United States and abroad.

This will be the 17th annual clothing collection in schools throughout the nation. It is one of the many programs conducted under the auspices of Save the Children Federation, a non-profit, non-sectarian organization dedicated to the service of children in underprivileged areas at home and overseas.

Contributed clothing is especially needed in depressed areas of the Southern Appalachian Mountains of the United States, where last year many children walked barefoot or coatless to school in the dead of winter.

Some of it is given free to children through county welfare or school authorities. More clothing is made available at very low cost through Federation Clothing Centers where mountain families, too proud to accept free clothing, may purchase the clothing needed by the family at prices they can afford to pay.

A portion of the donated clothing is stockpiled for use in emergencies such as floods and earthquakes in this country and abroad. Good, used clothing is a family no longer wears is what is needed—with the exception of high heels.

Anyone can donate clothing by sending it to school with a child. It can be summer and winter clothing and shoes for children, babies and

NEW BOOKS

At The Wayne County

LENDING LIBRARY

The new books in the Dunning-Hough Library this week are too numerous to mention. Among the ones that caught the eye were Child of Our Time by young Michel del Castillo—true experience of a young boy that picks up just about where Anne Frank's diary was interrupted by the ominous knock on the door that tens of thousands of theatre goers in two continents have now heard.

Learn to Reward Yourself by Mildred Jordan who has returned to the Pennsylvania setting of her memorable "One Red Rose Forever". In this new novel she has recorded the enthralling history of a great German-American family—a saga of an extraordinary clan.

Learn to Reweave Yourself, trade secrets of invisible mending by Virginia Saunders. Instructions on how to repair damaged clothing, knits, goods, blankets, draperies, hosiery, liners, tapestry, upholstery.

The Seven Men at Membrs Springs by Will Henry—a story of a young woman spy and seven valiant men who planned a heroic plot to save California and its gold for the union at the outset of the Civil War.

I Married the Veep by Jane R. Barkley. A delightfully interesting book about the one and only veep whom all America loved. How he met a gay widow from St. Louis, wooed her with such true Kentuckian ardor and persistence that his suit could have but one outcome.

Moonlight at Midday by Sally Carrghar is about Alaska. The authoress went there for two years and stayed for 10. The story tells about the animals, ghosts, people, Eskimos and white settlers, its wildlife and village and cities as few outsiders ever see it. Sally Carrghar was appreciated by the inhabitants because she did not come to teach, preach, or sell, but to learn and become acquainted.

The Lost World of the Kalahari, an account of Colonel vanderPost's journey into African desert and of his search, physical and spiritual for the lost remaining Bushmen. This is a non-fiction book.

The Week of the Wives by Sara Elizabeth Rodger is an absorbing novel on a week that changed the lives of eight high-powered executives and their wives. It is about Mr. and Mrs. Executive at play at Harvard when they are celebrating graduation week of the Advanced Management Program.

House and Garden, new complete guide to interior decoration with authoritative encyclopedia of ideas and decorating rooms of all sizes, types, and periods by the Editors of House and Garden.

To The Editor

Editor:

Thank you for printing the letter signed Virginia Yezbeck in which she brings to light some very good points.

A very revealing article about public schools, written by a well-known and well-informed writer namely, Dorothy Thompson, appears on page 11 in the January 1959 issue of the "Ladies Home Journal".

It is a good article for all taxpayers to read—and think over. The letters in The Mail about bus service were quite enlightening. A more fair way of bus service to children would be to remove the school bus service from the jurisdiction of the School Board.

Let the City own and run the bus service, let all ride and pay—half fare for children. This is the way a community nearby is doing. Their schools are too poor (I am told) to provide free bus service to only a part of the school population. So the City owns the busses, and all pupils ride and pay fare, together with anyone else who needs transportation. This seems a more fair and just use of the taxpayers' money, and might be given some consideration by the taxpaying citizens of our community.

City Property Owners Receive New Assessment Figures Soon

Some 3,600 city property owners will receive notices next week from City Clerk-Assessor Kenneth E. Way informing them of their property's revised assessed valuations for 1959.
 The notices will undoubtedly be scrutinized thoroughly by property owners who are taking more interest than ever in watching their taxes. From the notices they will be able to figure out their approximate tax bill for this year.
 Way states that the notice will tell the property owner his lot number, subdivision and the assessed valuation. The valuation is about 40 percent of the market value. Last year the assessed valuation of all property in the city was $12,300,000. The re-evaluation has raised this figure to $20,700,000 — an increase of 68 percent.
 During the past year, city property owners paid city, county and school taxes amounting to 60.71 mills ($60.71 per $1,000 valuation) according to the assessor.

This millage rate is the "multiplier method" used by assessors in determining tax bills and figures in the state equalized valuation factors.
 Way believes that the millage rate this year will be around 46 mills ($46 per $1,000 valuation). Because the city will be raising valuations to a point where the County Bureau of Taxation believes they should be, equalization is expected to be much lower.
 Thus — in trying to boil down this complicated business — most property owners will find the assessed valuations of their properties have gone up, but the equalized tax rate will be going down.
 It was in 1957 that the city commission invited the County Bureau of Taxation to make a complete reassessment. A house-to-house and building-to-building reassessment was made that summer and in January 1958 the figures were turned over to the city commission.

 After examining the assessments for several months, the commission decided that there were too many inequities and they postponed adoption of the valuations for a year.
 Since that time, a Land Value Committee was appointed that included commissioners and real estate people. The committee visited the properties in question and determined what they called a more "realistic" sale value.
 The assessor and county assessors then reviewed the recommendations this year.

NEWS BEAT

DOG TROUBLE: A Plymouth policeman tracked down an unlicensed female dog leading a pack of four dogs in the Sutherland St. area Tuesday morning and had to shoot the animal because it couldn't be caught. At 4 p.m. there were three calls from area residents complaining about a policeman shooting at dogs. Chief Fisher states that there was no patrolman assigned to the area at that time and that it must have been a citizen doing the shooting. He warned that only police have authority to shoot in such cases and added that ordinance requires dogs to be on leash or confined in winter as well as summer.

WEATHER BEAT: Everyone's got their own tales of their bouts with the weather, especially Tuesday's ice. Accidents were surprisingly few because motorists were cautious. In the first 10 days of this month the City DPW has used 161 tons of salt, 200 tons of said... Salt is almost impossible to get with some towns being unable to buy any... Morton Salt Co. sent Plymouth a load of table salt last week... City residents can obtain a bushel of sand free Monday through Fridays at the city garage, Arthur and Goldsmith Sts., for their sidewalks.

Downtown Plan

 gradually closed for through traffic as the four-lane road, channeled for turning into parking areas, would be developed.
 These are highlights of the question and answer period that followed:
 Q. What happens to zoning and the homes just outside the central business district?
 A. We want a balance to remain between business and residences. There is no reason why homes remaining within a short distance cannot remain.
 Q. What if the project is half completed and a large private shopping center goes up outside the city?
 A. Before anyone invests much money in a new shopping center they will make a careful study of the market. If the central business district is good enough, little money will be risked on large competing projects.
 Q. If the downtown area is allowed to degenerate, will the same happen to the area outside?
 A. Yes. There is a definite pattern to this degeneration of property. Your shopping center is like a machine. It can produce for years until it wears out. Then it can be repaired. But if some competitor comes along with a new and more efficient machine (such as modern shopping center), how long do you think you can compete?
 Q. What is necessary to accept or reject this plan?
 A. Meetings such as this are a start. It requires finding the right people with money and obtaining a commitment from those involved. Three separate groups must be sold — the merchants and downtown land owners, those with private capital, and the ordinary homeowner.
 Q. Would these parking areas have meters?
 A. There appeared to be no study made in this direction so far but there was considerable discussion about how much meters have hurt business today.

 Q. What will you do with the old buildings?
 A. Some type of architectural uniformity would need to be decided and merchants would need to be shown how their particular building would fit the plan. It is probable that a number of buildings would be torn down.

Grange Gleanings

Much to my surprise there was a fine crowd at the Grange last Thursday night. Sixty-seven persons attended despite the state of the roads. An unusually good supper served in the good old-fashioned way and was enjoyed by all present. A little extra touch was the two beautiful cakes which were made in honor of the 25 anniversary of George and Mabel Loomis and Mr. and Mrs. Carlson. A most pleasant occasion. Five new members were obligated in the third and fourth degrees and several more applications were read.

There will be a rummage sale at the hall on February 28, so bring your contributions in early or the night before.

Claude and Helen Eckles showed pictures of their trip last summer; they were beautiful and were much enjoyed.

The officers of the Grange and their wives and husbands are to be the guests of the Historical Society at their meeting tonight. Bessie Sawlow, our lecturer, will give a talk on the history of the Grange from its beginning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Tritten were in Lansing last week to attend the Grange Day of Farmers' week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Riens are enjoying a month's holiday in Florida.

Mrs. Louise Hutton has been visiting her grandson and his wife (John Wagner) at Kalamazoo. Mrs. Wagner was the former Molly Groth of Plymouth.

There is to be a Stanley party at the hall sometime this month, the date to be announced later.

Family Travels To Arkansas for Funeral

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Newberry and family, Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Cannady and family, Mrs. Ray Gardner all returned home to Plymouth from Paragould, Ark., where they were called for the death of their mother, Mrs. John Cannady.

Mrs. Cannady passed away Tuesday, January 20.

Chile has authorized in Santiago, two new domestic airlines to operate unscheduled services.

MRS. L. DEAN SCHMIEDEKE shown with guest exhibitor at the Dunning-Hough Library, Cecil North. Both are art instructors at the Ann Arbor High School. Mrs.

Schmiedeke, a Plymouth resident, is a member of the Three Cities Art Club and in charge of hanging the current exhibition.

Encaustic Paintings Now On Display in Library

Cecil North, 648 Hampstead Lane, Ann Arbor, is the guest exhibitor at the Library this period.

He has hanging three scenes: Dance Music, Cathedral Windows, City by the Sea. These are not paintings in oil, but are Encaustic painting which is a method of painting using hot wax as the medium.

The name encaustic is from the Greek word meaning burnt in. As a vehicle for painting it was commonly used by the Romans and Egyptians. Some of the oldest known paintings are encaustic. Wax is one of the most durable painting materials known to man.

The process consists of a mixture of bees wax, other waxes and a hardening catalysis used to raise the melting point of the wax. Pure pigments are added to the wax while hot. This hot colored wax is applied with a brush to the painting. A blow torch is then applied to the painting to fuse the wax. It is then polished.

The reason why the artist uses encaustic is not because the painting will last indefinitely, but because of the richness of texture and the great depth of color which can not be obtained from any other medium.

The artist was born in Columbus, Ohio and received all of his education at the University at Ohio State. Dr. Laura Zirbas, national figure in Elementary Education played an important part in guiding and directing Mr. North into the field of Art Education. Being one of The Ohio State University School's Guinea Pig Graduates seems significant and gives one an insight into Mr. North's philosophy of Education and Life. Creativeness and freedom of thought combined with a stern hand of guidance and discipline all take their places in his teaching and living.

In 1942, a recent graduate of Ohio State University's School of Fine Arts Education, Mr. North spent a three year tour of duty in the Pacific Ocean aboard an ocean going tug as executive officer and navigator.

With the war over and a Master's Degree in Fine Arts Education secured at Ohio State University, Mr. North taught one year as Fine Arts Supervisor in the Chillicothe, Ohio Public Schools, one year as Art Instructor at Florida

Southern College, Lakeland, Florida and in 1943 came to Ann Arbor, Michigan as Art Instructor at Ann Arbor High School. Cranbrook Academy of Art was nearby, extending facilities for study during seven summers in the craft fields as well as Mr. North's best loved field, painting. It was at Cranbrook Mr. North studied and learned the techniques of Encaustic Painting.

Michigan has been good to Mr. North, his wife, and family of three children. During his 11 years here he has had

AT A FAMILY DINNER, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Plant of Plymouth announced the engagement of their daughter, Shirley Ann to Robert Sherwood Southgate, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Southgate of Ypsilanti.

Shirley is a graduate of Michigan State University, and Bob is an Eastern Michigan College graduate.

A June wedding is planned.

To Women It May Concern

By Myra Cox, Social Editor

Frosty, frozen, February. When my ship comes in (a senseless pre-income tax cliché) this is the month I choose to travel South. Regardless of the state of the check-book, if the same weather prevails on the reading of this as the writing, I shall abscond with the family egg money, or stretch a point or two, and answer the ad in the News this week—Wanted; for southern stay, a gentle-hearted young lady for company for an evil-tempered old lady. Nice weather promised.

There are signs of Spring, however, so gather round all you who have floundered on the ice and have the bruises to prove it. Mrs. Rose Havershaw of 204 N. Harvey called me Wednesday to say she saw a robin in her yard—hopping about—not too happy for his aggressiveness. He was no doubt happier than the one Bud Guest told about that had so much ice on his tail feathers he was flat on his back with his little frozen feet up in the air.

Anyway, the first robin is enough encouragement to think about vacations. The average American family, it is quoted, makes 130 decisions on where to spend his vacation, before the final plans are made—so it is not a bit too soon to plan.

One Plymouth family, John and Marjorie Bel of Dewey Avenue and their seven-year-old daughter, did something last summer I might be a little dubious about. They recommend it and enjoyed tremendously the week they spent "down on the farm" in New Hampshire.

For complete relaxation I've always leaned toward N.Y. City. One resort I went to once, it was expected of the cooperative guest, to do calisthenics before breakfast—but in N.Y. you can be so blessedly on your own.

However, the Bels say the farm vacation is a delightful change of pace. They chose New Hampshire because of the mountains and struck on a lovely old-fashioned New England farm house with a big fireplace. There were about 25 other guests and they were amazed at the "happy family" atmosphere that prevailed although they were all perfect strangers.

Their daughter, John Bel said, would go off on her own with the other children, observing the milking process, feeding the chickens and small animals, gather eggs, and go horseback riding. The 400 acre farm provided room to roam and ride and the whole family enjoyed the riding facilities. A planned hay ride and evening sings by the fireplace were highlights.

The meals were served family style and were like the house, comfortable and adequate.

Wins Trophy In Speech Contest

Mrs. Mae Beltner, Deputy District Governor of District No. one of the Dale Carnegie Alumni Association won a trophy for best speech in the Northland Chapter of which she is a member.

Mae will repeat her winning speech when she competes with the winners from the 25 other chapters of Division Six at the Division Convention April 4, at the Fort Shelby Hotel in Detroit.

This speech contest is an annual activity of the member chapters of the Dale Carnegie Alumni Association.

Rocks Play Two, Lose One, Win One

Plymouth lost to the league's best team, Redford Union 64-38, but turned in an outstanding performance by defeating Northville 53-44.

Friday night was a sad evening for the Rocks as they were unable to cope with the most powerful team in the Suburban Six League, Redford Union. R.U. controlled the backboards allowing the shorter Plymouth five very few rebounds the entire evening. The Rocks came back strong Saturday night and played their best game of the season to defeat Northville. This makes up for the trouncing the Mustangs subjected the Rocks to earlier this year.

Tomorrow Plymouth will host Allen Park, the only other team the Rocks have beaten in the '58-'59 season.

Redford Union started the game at a fast pace, running up four points before Plymouth could score. Compared to other games the Rocks didn't play a bad game, it was just that the Indians outclassed them in every department. Plymouth did, however, improve on its foul shooting, over last week.

The Rocks tied the score at four all, about a third of the way through the first quarter. From then on it was Redford's game. The first stanza ended 17-9, Redford. It was during the second quarter that Plymouth matched Redford, as both scored 14 points.

Redford ran away with the game in the third stanza as they outscored the Rocks 18-5. Those five came from three charity throws and a lone field goal.

Plymouth drew a little closer in the final eight minutes as they tallied 11 to Redford's 15.

Randy Egloff was the Rock's top scorer with three field goals and five free throws for 11.

H. Munger was the Redford top gun with 22 points coming from eight buckets and six charity tallies.

Plymouth showed a spark and polish that hadn't been present in the other games played this season when they defeated Northville Saturday night. True, they have looked good at different times but this game even more so.

Northville outscored the Rocks in the first quarter 13-11 and in the fourth 19-11. In the second and third quarters Plymouth couldn't be touched as they overpowered the Mustangs 31-12.

The score was tied four times in the first eight minutes, three times by Northville and once by Plymouth.

Wells tied the game at 13 all, early in the second stanza and the Rocks proceeded to add three more to it before being tied again. This time Wade Schulteiss broke them loose, as Plymouth went on to score 12 more while holding Northville at two.

In the third quarter, as in the second, Plymouth held the upper hand allowing Northville only seven points.

The Mustangs rallied in the final eight minutes to tally 19 points, but the scoring flurry was in vain. The Rocks had totalled too big a lead and were playing to smart a game to lose this one to any arch rival.

Wade Schulteiss collected six field goals and four foul shots for 16, followed by Randy Egloff with 14 on three field goals and eight charity shots.

Reserves Win Two in Row

Mentor Mike Hoben and Javees added two more wins to their list as they dumped both Redford Union, 50-45 and Northville 50-34.

At Redford Union, Friday night, the local five trailed 12-32 at the half but came back strong in the third and fourth quarters. They matched Redford point for point in the third and fourth quarters. They matched Redford point for point in the third and fourth quarters.

In the fourth the Rocks took control and were ahead when the final buzzer sounded 50-45.

Saturday evening's game with Northville was easier to win. For three quarters Plymouth outscored Northville. In the final minutes the Mustangs rallied to out total the Rocks 13-9.

Tomorrow night the reserve team will try to take advantage of their second meeting with Allen Park to right the defeat they suffered when the two met last meeting. This time the Rocks will be on their own floor.

Freshman Squad Dumps Redford U.

The Rock freshmen squad downed the only other team to beat them, Redford Union, 50-19 Friday afternoon.

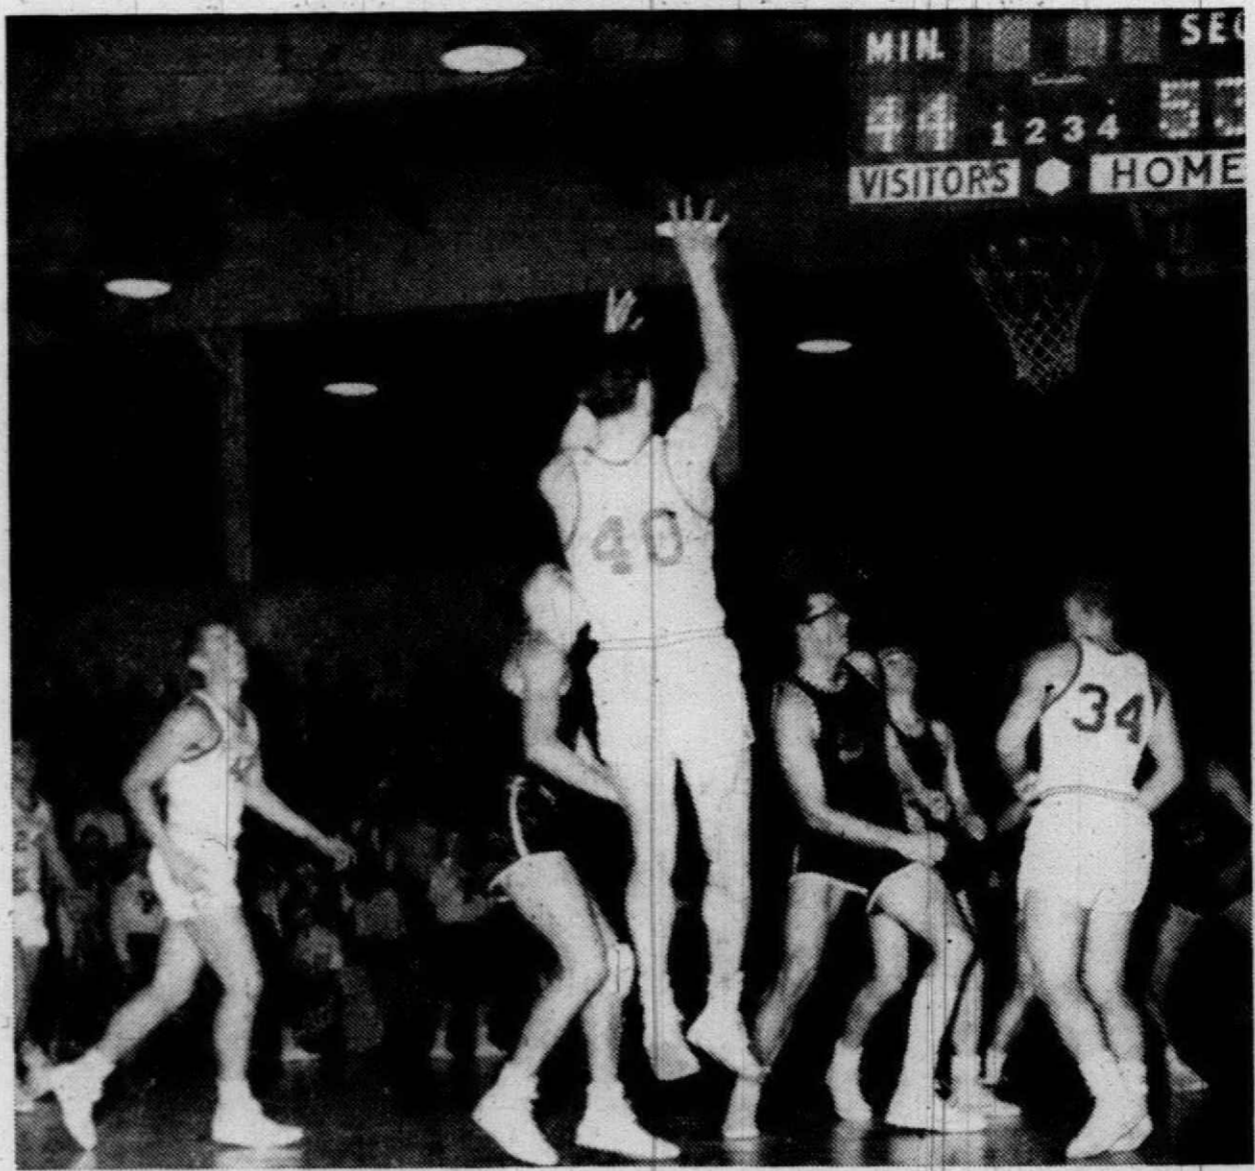

Plymouth ran away with the game after allowing Redford Union enjoy a two point first quarter lead. The local hardwood five outscored Redford 11-2 in the second stanza, 14-6 in the third and a very one sided 17-1 in the fourth.

Stremich and Dart were the Rock big guns with 12 and 10 points respectively.

WELLS DROPS in two more as the Rocks dumped Northville 53-44. This in a way made up for the sacking Northville gave Plymouth at the start of the season. The Mustangs were not as sharp, or didn't appear as polished, as they did that first night. The Rocks turned in sparkling performance after being the victims of Redford Union, the night before.

Tankers Win Again Taking Redford U.

Mentor McFall's watermen made short work of Redford Union last Thursday night, as they ran up a 68-28 score in 10 events.

Redford Union, sacked with the flu, had only a dozen swimmers well and in action against powerful Plymouth.

The meet could be compared to the next night's basketball contest, only in reverse order. The Rocks, a more powerful team and the holder of more experience, took the upper hand and held it through the evening.

Tonight Plymouth will travel to Allen Park. It is reasoned that this match might be closer than the Redford Union one... but then again.

The only first place defeat the local tankers suffered was in the 200 yd. medley relay.

At the end of the third event, 200 yd. freestyle, Plymouth held a 24-3 margin. Six events later Redford scored their first big points of the night, as they captured

Chevy panel steps lively in Florida...runs day and night, delivers 19.3 miles per gallon!

This '59 Chevy panel is on the go, morning, noon and night; it covers as much as 587 miles a day... runs so constantly that its engine never cools off completely. Yet Mr. Clark Farber, the Tampa Tribune's circulation manager, reports that the truck is delivering 19.3 miles per gallon!

This year, the light, medium- and heavy-duty trucks of the 1959 Chevrolet Task-Force fleet are out to whip anything that comes their way—and they've got what it takes to do it!

Take the panel pictured above, for example. Powered by the '59 Thriftmaster 6 with new economy-contoured camshaft, it's building a sensational economy record, despite the sizzling pace of its work. That's typical of the way Chevies of all sizes are turning-to on the most challenging jobs in America. The way they're made, with tough-built truck components, they make the hardest hauls look easy!

If you have a job that puts a truck on its mettle, see your Chevrolet dealer!

No job's too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

In Memoriam
 In loving memory of our dear husband and father, Stephen P. Pearson, who passed away February 12, 1959.
 The month of February now is here, to us the saddest of the year. For we lost a loved one good and true. Beside your grave we often stand and try in vain to understand. In tears, we pray.
 If you continue in My Word, then you will know the Truth, and the Truth shall make you free. John 8:31 & 32

THE READER Speaks Up

Editor:

Last Friday I experienced another reason to be thankful for living in this wonderful community of Plymouth. I am a room mother to a fourth grade at Smith School and on Friday the Plymouth Shriners took all the fourth graders from Plymouth to the Shrine Circus in Detroit. Not only did they look after us going and coming on the bus, but they kept a watchful eye on the children while there, escorting them to the inevitable trips to the rest rooms and really topped the day off beautifully with popcorn, ice cream, hot dogs and pop, all of which didn't cost the children anything. I just couldn't let this occasion pass without telling someone about it and expressing my thanks to these wonderful men.

Sincerely,
 Happy Mother

HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) Connecticut authorizes life insurance companies to let women policy holders exercise a traditional right: to lie about their age. The insurance companies aren't being gallant, however. Women live three years longer than men on the average and therefore are allowed a three-year leeway with the truth.

MILLIS Mass. (UPI) — After fire swept the Herman Shoe Co. plant, President Peter Solomon announced that the 300 employees would be paid, as usual, during the three weeks needed for repairs.

Your Choice-Sukiyaki-Shoo Fly Pie

Harry Tsit Sui, who is currently assisting the Theater Guild with their Okinawan dialects, advises all women who are thinking of preparing a meal "out-of-the-ordinary" to consider Sukiyaki. Jane Manzi backs him up on this. She hopes homemaker will arrange a theatre party of their friends (close ones) and serve the exotic menu recommended by Harry and then proceed on to Plymouth Theater Guild play the weekend of February 21, with their guests in the proper atmosphere for "Tea House of the August Moon". Incidentally, Jane says if you do not like the beef version you may stop in at Kresge's store all this week and next, and try the ice cream version, a "Sukiyaki" sundae.

Favorite Recipes from Plymouth's Kitchens

Sukiyaki is a Japanese delicacy that corresponds roughly to our all American stew. The base of the recipe is tender, choice pieces of roast beef. Of course, from this point on the recipe goes Oriental with its addition of soy bean curd and other Japanese delicacies.

Sukiyaki is the main course in a Japanese meal that begins with raw fish filets as appetizers. Yes, I said "raw". We argued with Harry that people don't eat raw fish, but he was quite insistent that in Japan this is a rare and noble gastronomical treat.

You may leave out the appetizers if your guests are a bit squeamish. Or it may be better to have just had a peanut butter sandwich for lunch and the two items just might clash.

Start instead with a clear consommé soup. For the stock dig around in your local market for some imported kelp. Be sure it has been dried out. Harry points out that there are two or three shops in Detroit that specialize in kelp. Or better yet use some dried minnow fingerlings for your stock. Add sufficient amounts of water to boil for five minutes, and strain off the clear consommé.

After soup has been served, you are ready to place your Sukiyaki before the guests. Sukiyaki is usually served with rice instead of chow mein noodles.

Ingredients for Sukiyaki are as follows:

- 2 lb. tender, boneless beef
- 1 bunch green onions
- 2 cans of button mushrooms
- 1 pint of Soy Bean curd
- Soy sauce
- 2 tablespoons sugar

Method

Slice the beef into thin slices—the thinner the better. Brown the beef prior to mixing the rest of the ingredi-

MRS. JOSEPH MANZI, 254 Ann Street, above with her two daughters Donna 13, and Jackie 9, is a study in contrasts. She also has a son Tony 6. As domestic as Betty Crocker, she is also an artist and actress, having been a leading player with the Farmington Guild before she moved to Plymouth a year ago. She has joined the Plymouth Players Guild. Surrounded in her home with authentic antiques and early American furniture in the Amish trend, typical of area she comes from in Pennsylvania, she is as modern as tomorrow. And, although her favorite recipe is the Dutch Shoo-Fly Pie she is happy to experiment with "Sukiyaki," a Japanese dish to make her family and neighbors on Ann Street familiar with Teahouse of the August Moon, one of the biggest hits of all time to come from the Plymouth Theater Guild, opening Thursday, Feb. 19 to run for three nights.

ents. Slowly stir in the green onions, mushrooms, soy bean curd and sugar. You may add more sugar or soy sauce depending on how sweet you like your main meat dishes. Rice should be cooked in your regulation manner before you work on the Sukiyaki.

Harry informs us that the perfect ending to this Oriental feast is merely a cup of good, strong green tea. Of course, if you have any fortune cookies left over from your last chop suey chow mein feast, haul them out and serve them with the green tea.

Or, you too can be a study in contrasts and serve for dessert Jane's Shoo Fly Pie that comes from Pennsylvania too. Joe and the Manzi children call this their favorite. Joe incidentally is a physics and chemistry instructor in the Farmington School system. This would also be a dandy dish to serve at an after-glow party following the "Teahouse of the August Moon" performance.

Ingredients

- Shoo Fly Pie
- 1/4 cups flour
 - 1 cup granulated sugar
 - 1/2 cup butter
 - 1/2 tsp. nutmeg
 - 1 egg (slightly beaten)
 - 3 T. lemon juice
 - Grated rind 1/2 lemon
 - 1/2 cup molasses
 - 1/2 tsp. soda
 - 1/2 cup hot water

Method
Combine flour, sugar, butter and nutmeg. Blend with fork to crumb consistency. Combine egg, lemon juice, a look-alike car but do want a low price tag

1959 EDSSEL

made to be the most distinctive car on the road—yet it's priced with Ford, Chevrolet and Plymouth. And Edsel gives you many "eye-opening" extras that the low-priced field either forgets or charges extra for.

Look at this "Eye-Opening" Economy!
• Extra Economy when you buy — you get more for your money—more size, room, comfort.
• Extra Economy when you drive — you choose from four engines, including two V8's that give you spirited performance on regular gas, and a thrifty Six as well.
Look at these "Eye-Opening" Extras!
• Extras built into every Edsel — self-adjusting brakes, Diamond-Lustre finish that never needs waxing, wall-to-wall carpeting, electric clock, aluminum mufflers that last twice as long as ordinary ones, foam-rubber seat cushioning, and many others.

'The Reader Speaks Up'

I believe that most of the residents of Plymouth Township would prefer to remain Township if such were possible. We like it as it is, including our Township officials, who have been sincere in trying to provide the kind of government that is best suited for our needs. We admire their resistance to efforts of those from without, who would encroach upon the area that we have chosen for our homes and our way of life. We admire their respect for our expressed desire to retain the right to plan and administer the orderly development of our area. We consider ourselves fortunate to have lived in Plymouth Township and under its present form of government. Perhaps we have been too lucky. The old saying that "All good things must come to an end" may prove to be true. In this day of reamined thinking which often disregards principal, townships are considered merely a reserve upon which expansion-minded urban communities may draw whenever their treasury reaches the point where it cannot meet the mortgage. Then the most desirable and already developed areas become targets for annexation without regard for the wishes of the citizens. There have been five attempts within four years to annex all or part of our township. Two of these attempts have succeeded, two have failed and one is now on file awaiting the outcome of the election on February 16th. This may seem incredible but nevertheless it is a fact. We are standing with our back to the wall, with just one way to go if we wish to protect our boundaries. Here again the saying of "If you can't lick them, join them" holds true. That does not mean that we must become as one, but rather that we must attain a like stature in order to compel equal recognition. Editorials of our local paper calls this a "gimmick" and says it is wrong in principle and dangerous, says it is destructive and without economic, political or social grounds, says we have no heart or historical tradition. By inference, suggests that the industrial tax base, along with the Township of Plymouth be annexed by the City of Plymouth, even suggests the possibility of secession by the City of Plymouth from our school district. Well, you probably read the "Mail", so by now you have had time to evaluate these editorial sallies.

Editorials can be interesting and often supply a pleasant change in amusement, however when it comes to making decisions of importance, it is best to seek out a good reliable source for the facts and then arrive at your decision by the simple process of asking yourself some questions. Among these questions you might include the following: 1. Do we just stand idly by and submit to piecemeal assimilation or do we have the fortitude to measure up to our potential of becoming an equal entity in the orderly development of our community. 2. Are we capable of constructive planning for our area or do we delegate that function to others by default? 3. Do we wish to become a satellite of any adjacent government or do we here and now declare our determination to retain complete jurisdiction over our planned way of life? 4. Are we going to be deterred from our course by the cries of stagnation, lack of cooperation, single unit of government, confusion in area development, barrier against future industrial development and so on, all of which are generalities, propounded without supportable facts? 5. How was it possible for our township to have remained so financially sound when most other communities are bending their backs to support the overwhelming tax burden? 6. Are we so naive as to believe that we will be able to continue indefinitely without increase in taxes? 7. If there must be increases in taxes, do we not want to decide the time and amount by ourselves? 8. Is it not likely that opposition to our plan to remain free from such burdens may be sponsored by interests from without our area? 9. Is it not possible that the loudest and most vociferous opponents in our area are merely parroting the plaints of an organized opposition that would at all cost, retain the present vulnerable climate of our area, so that our financial strength would remain a blood bank available to supply transtusions for their anemic treasury? 10. Why is it that the opposition is placing so much emphasis on their own appraisal of the disadvantages of incorporation at this time when we all know that there can be no incorporation until the voters give their final approval within two years and that until then, there will be no change whatsoever from our present status, except that the threat of annexation will be firmly chained to some parking meter on Main Street? 11. What can I lose by voting "YES" on February 16th? 12. What can I gain by voting "NO" on February 16th? The answers to these questions, when added to those you have already asked yourself, will leave no doubt in your mind regarding your vote on that date. Roy Rogers 48321 N. Territorial Rd. (Editor's Note: This Reader solicits answers to his questions, and because this is the last newspaper before the election, we will take the liberty of answering them here. If you refer to the questions, by number in the foregoing, here are logical answers: (1. Nobody — but nobody — has suggested "piecemeal assimilation." This is an invention of those urging "incorporation." A separate "city" located around the present business district would be the worst possible start for a project for "orderly development" of our community. (2. Every citizen in both areas should join in "constructive planning for our area." That is the plea of thinking citizens — let's not break up into separate, hostile parts. If "incorporation" loses, as it must, the Township remains, which is the way almost everyone wants it. (3. Nobody is proposing "satellite" status for Plymouth Township. Good citizens want it to become a solid friendly member of the total Plymouth family. (4. There HAS BEEN a lack of cooperation, confusion in area planning and development, a barrier against industrial development, and so on — and they aren't "generalities propounded without supportable facts." They are stark, everyday reality. (5. It has been possible for the Township to remain so financially sound because it contained a heavy percentage of industrial tax base; has had to render a minimum of government services; has had few schools to build, plus the City tax base to help in all school projects; and only recently has embarked on the financing of sewer and water projects. The past is over; it is the future which must be met with vision and common sense. (6. No. The problem is to find the best method to keep taxes low for the community. (7. SIXTY or SEVENTY percent of all taxes are for schools, another 12 percent is for County government. Neither a new incorporated city nor the old Township has any exclusive ability to determine the amount of those taxes. And for the remaining portion a Township form of government is able to determine its taxes equally as fairly as could an incorporated "City of Plymouth Heights." The Township form of government has done very well thus far. (8. I haven't heard one word on the subject from "interests beyond our area." (9. If the Plymouth Mail is regarded as "the loudest and most vociferous opponent" in the area, I pledge that it has no desire to use one part of the community against the other. Incidentally, we sell almost exactly the same number of newspapers in the City as in the Township — and our responsibilities and our own future is equally divided on both sides of the boundary. So is that of every local citizen. (10. Attention is being given this subject at this time because a dangerous, harmful principle is involved. It divides the community in spirit, and it creates an "incorporation" instrument which could be used for many selfish purposes in future years. Now let me ask one question — If this is a playful, harmless toy, why was it put on the ballot at all?)

Electrical Week Marks Birthday Of Tom Edison

How does one measure the contribution of the electrical industry to the health, welfare and future of America — in dollars, security, comfort, progress, entertainment and just plain good living?

During this week, February 8 thru 14, the electrical industry will point to the contributions it makes to the standard of living of all Americans, as it celebrates National Electrical Week.

Chairman for Electrical Week in Southeastern Michigan is John O'Rourke, District Manager of Westinghouse Electric Supply Company.

The theme for the week is "Electricity Builds Jobs", and O'Rourke estimates that the entire American electrical industry — including all segments from utilities to one man contracting firms — in 1959 will spend approximately 40 billion dollars — 14 for wages and salaries to its millions of employees and 26 for goods and services purchased from other people.

Americans live better electrically because with a flip of a switch they can be cool in summer, warm in winter — they can also turn night into day, cook their food, wash their dishes and their clothes, toast bread, clean their homes, see a Hollywood show on television, hear music on the radio or hi-fi.

Electrical Week is celebrated during the week of the birth of Thomas A. Edison, his 112th anniversary, because it was his inventive genius that opened the way to the development of America's vast and vital electrical industry.

"With all his vision and creative ability", O'Rourke says, "even Edison could not have been wholly conscious of the fact that his invention of the incandescent bulb would bring about such radical changes in our daily lives."

There are more than 65 electrical appliances at the beck and call of today's homemaker. They are, in every sense, servants — and inexpensive servants at that. Few housewives know that it takes only half a cent to vacuum the living room, or less than 3 cents to do the family wash for a week. For less than a nickel, the family also can enjoy a full evening of entertainment.

Salvation Army Thanks Those Helping Victims

The Salvation Army's call for warm clothing for flood victims in Ohio and Pennsylvania has met with prompt and generous response by people of this area. Several truckloads have already been sent from the Detroit area, and more will follow as the need arises.

Numberous messages of thanks have already been received from the distressed people. Major Cecil Briggs of The Salvation Army wishes to express thanks to the many who gave of their store to help these people.

The clothing and bedding sent has somewhat depleted the stock available for local use. More clothing, especially, is needed as this cold weather makes heavy demands for garments to keep out the cold. Furniture and other household items are also needed as these provide work for more than 65 men at the Army's rehabilitation center. This sheltered workshop provides a unique program, salvaging material, and at the same time salvaging men.

Your gift of that un-needed garment, piece of furniture, or bundle of newspapers will help a man back to health and good citizenry. A call to Woodward 5-7760, The Salvation Army, will bring a Red Shield truck to your door for pick-up.

American Legion News

Tonight — Thursday, Feb. 12, 8 p.m. — Veterans' Community Center, P. A. S. Gayde Auxiliary will hold initiation of new members and awarding of five and 10 year pins. All post members are invited to attend, refreshments will be served after program. The past presidents will officiate at this initiation. Let's have a big attendance and give the new members a wonderful welcome into our Unit.

The 17th District meeting is Friday, Feb. 13, 8:30 p.m. — Redford — Detroit Community Center, Grand River and Burt Rds. Redford-Detroit Post & Unit is hosting. The Auxiliary Department, President, Francis Crakes will attend this meeting, let's have the record attendance from our Unit at this meeting.

IMPORTANT DATE — Saturday, Feb. 21, 8 p.m. — Veterans Community Center, Card Party (Flag Fund). Come on and have lots of fun, prizes and door prize, refreshments after card party, the public is cordially invited. The Card Party held in January was a wonderful success, let's make this one a big one as it is our last one for the Flag Fund.

The Post's next meeting will be a social, Wednesday, Feb. 19, 8 p.m. The Auxiliary's next business meeting is Thursday, Feb. 26, 8 p.m. Mrs. Virginia Fann will be hostess at this meeting in her home. Please meet at the Veterans Community Center first.

Her address is: 9290 Louisiana, Livonia; please call Fern Burleson, GL. 3-3571 for more information if necessary.

February, the American Legion takes its keynote from the birthdays of the two great Americans which fall within this month making it Americanism month. Americanism, of course, is not only for the Legion and Auxiliary members, but for everyone. According to Mrs. Dorothy Knapp, Americanism chairman of Passage-Gayde Unit, active opposition to a bill to eliminate the House Un-American Activities Committee will come from the American Legion Auxiliary. The bill was introduced in the House soon after the present session of Congress convened. "At this time when Communism is making such great efforts to weaken the United States through internal subversion, it is difficult to understand why discontinuance of the House Un-American Activities Committee should be considered," said Mrs. Knapp. "This committee has a great record of effective work against subversive arm of Congress and we of the American Legion Auxiliary believe it should be continued as long as Communism seeks to invade the United States."

Surprise visitors at the Past Presidents Parley meeting February 2nd, hosted by Mrs. Dorothy Knapp at her home on Pacific Avenue were: Department Past Presidents Parley Chairman, Mrs. Fern McCauley of Wyandotte and Mrs. Ellen Reed of Redford Township. Others attending: Unit chairman, Gertrude Simonetti, Cecily Evans, Mildred Hewer, Emily Mosher, Adah Langmaid, Maxine Kunz and Fern Burleson.

Members and their friends are again reminded of the Valentine Dance on Saturday, Feb. 14 at 9 p.m. at the Post Home. This will be a "round and square" dance with a well-known caller. Admission is $1.50 per couple. Fun for all is promised. Tickets available at the door.

Plymouth High School

By GLORIA BOWLES

It seemed like old times last week when '58 graduates of PHS came back to look over the situation here. Among those bringing back memories of old times were Annie Denny, Ken Knipschild, Dave Walasky, Martha Shoemaker, Bill Hubert, Karl Williams and Don Alsboro. They were enjoying a vacation after exams at their respective colleges.

For the second time this year the play's the thing... it's "Arsenic and Old Lace" that's causing the furor. Last week Thespian Club president Jeanette Ridley announced tryouts for the second all-school play of the year, which is to be presented March 19 and 20. Results were too late for presstime, but we'll let you in on the cast next week.

For those whose talents don't lean toward on-stage performance, there are plenty of behind-the-scenes jobs—production, tickets, props, art work, make up, to mention a few. Mr. Robert Southgate is directing the play.

Principal Carvel Bentley filled in for geometry instructor Mike Hoben last week...

It was last December when administrative offices moved from the high school to the junior high... it was last week that changes were made here... Guidance counselors have taken over the former office of the superintendent (adjoining Principal Carvel Bentley's office.)

Assistant Principal Gustave Gorguze has more space now in the former guidance-counselor rooms. His office will continue to house the public address system, also act as a storeroom.

School spirit should be up this week for our fifth place basketball team is going to play the only team in the league which has a big goose-egg in the win column.

The Rocks will meet Allen Park Friday night... Plymouth's league leading swimmers will also face a squad from Allen Park... that's tonight.

The first issue of "Pilgrim Prints" for the new semester will be out this Tuesday. "Specials" for this issue are the Pat Boone interview mentioned last week and an article to be written by Judy Herrick and Shelia Lorenz on why Plymouth should NOT have a new high school.

The two staff members, after reading several "Prints" articles supporting the building of a new school, asked for space to express the opposite view.

For their work in 4-H during the previous year, two senior girls, Janet West and Susan Campbell were presented with 4-H Key Awards. The presentation was made by the City Service Oil Company on January 19, 1959, at a banquet in the first Methodist Church of Wayne.

The two book stores in PHS have been doing a thriving business... Junior Dick Hubert, who supervises sales at the "New" bookstore says purchases are surpassing any previous year. English books are the most frequently purchased books... course that's cause it's required.

Kathy White, who runs the Used Book Store says that "We've done more business than we ever thought we would."

"Anti-Freeze" Your Legs

OUR CARS get winter care, so why shouldn't we? When "the cold wind doth blow" special attention should be given to care of legs, as well as hands and feet. With the fashionable shorter skirts and sheerer hose, legs are more wind- and weather-exposed; leg care more important. To help prevent unsightly redness and painful chapping, lotioning at least twice a day is recommended. Lotion - smoothed legs mean fewer stocking snags, too, so apply it generously morning and night. Begin at the ankle and work upward with long sweeping strokes. Cream dry callused heels, also and smooth excess lotion over hands.

Soldiers Paused To Mark Birthday Of Washington

ANN ARBOR — Washington's Birthday was celebrated with pomp and glory by the First Michigan Cavalry during Civil War days, according to the report of a Union lad, John Faxon, from Romulus (Mich.) whose letters are in The University of Michigan Historical Collections.

He wrote his wife, Mary, from Frederick, Md., on Feb. 8, 1862:

"I will tell you how we celebrated Washington's birthday. We all went to the city upon horseback in good order, heard Washington's Farewell Address read. There other regiments of infantry present, amounting to some 6,000. They presented a fine appearance.

"The address was by one of the Cabinet, I should judge by his manner of reading. His whole soul was in the Union Cause. After reading, the Star Spangled Banner was sung. The flags, waving in the breeze while the bells rang, presented a very pretty appearance. We then marched through the city and were inspected by Gen. Banks. Did not do very well. Guess the General will send us home!

"I suppose you have heard Colonel Bredhead is under arrest for reporting the regiment full and well drilled, which was false. Do not wonder if it stripped him of his feathers."

Not much of a prophet, Faxon continued, "Think I will be with you in two or three months. The news is very encouraging. Heard yesterday that Clarksville was in possession of our forces. Also that Columbus was being evacuated.

"The Rebels offered to evacuate Nashville if we would agree to let private property alone. This indicates a coming to terms. When that point is gained, rebellion in the west is nearly at an end."

Men In Service

David E. Bell, hospital apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. David F. Bell of 9011 Oakview, reported January 9, to the Naval Hospital at Corpus Christi for duty on the staff, following his graduation from Hospital Corps School, Great Lakes, Illinois. Prior to entering the Navy in June 1958, Bell was graduated from Plymouth High School.

SAFETY HINTS

Reaching over a whirling circular saw blade to remove small pieces of stock after making a cut is a serious mistake of which the experienced handyman as well as the novice may be guilty. Always turn off the circular saw before placing hands on the circular saw table.

Incidentally, when this tool is idle, lower the blade beneath the table so there will be no chance of bumping a hand against the blade teeth. A hand saw, another favorite power tool, is relatively simple to operate safely. Remember, though, that a cracked blade will eventually snap. Before this can happen, the handyman receives ample warning from the slight clicking noise caused by the crack in the blade. Replace it at once—after turning off the band saw.

Dressing safely is almost as important as observing safety habits. The smart handyman, or handywoman, never operates a power tool in a long-sleeved, loosely fitted shirt. Instead, sleeves always are rolled up so cuff or material has no chance to become entangled in a whirling blade or bit. He also never wears a tie in his workshop.

ICE-BREAKERS... Usually performing on frozen water, ice skaters Jinx and Alfredo Menozza seem equally at home on water skis at Cypress Gardens, Florida.

Lucky Complaint
 BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — School guard William Chamberlain, 62, was glad that an irate housewife complained he was loafing on the job. Police investigating the complaint found Chamberlain overcome by carbon monoxide in his car and rushed him to the hospital just in time. 1614.

2 Million Books
 ITHACA, N.Y. (UPI) — A 17th century volume has become the two-millionth book on the shelves of the Cornell University library. The work, "Animadversorium in Athenaei Dipnosophistas," is by Isaac Casaubon, a French scholar who died in 1614.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS... FROM THE PAGES OF THE MAIL

The chain letter racket has reared its head in Plymouth again and the police chief warns all to watch out.

A proposed reciprocal fire protection agreement will be submitted to the Plymouth township board by city officials.

Emily, the daughter of Municipal Judge and Mrs. J. Rusling Cutler, has returned to her home on South Main street following an appendectomy last week at the Plymouth hospital.

After a trip to Washington, where they attended the presidential inauguration, Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Lewis left Tuesday from Cheraw, South Carolina, for Florida where they will enjoy a winter vacation.

Irene Truesdell, Sandra Tibbatts, Susan Wesley, Antoinette Zakul and Julie Simmons composed a group chaperoned by Robert Simmons who viewed the Shrine Circus in Detroit on Sunday.

Among other Plymouth residents enjoying the Florida sun are Mr. and Mrs. Maxwell Moon and Mr. and Mrs. J.D. McLaren who left Saturday for a visit in Palm Beach and Ft. Lauderdale. They plan to be gone until sometime in March.

Margaret and Gladys Clemens of Levon Rd. are enjoying the winter in Florida as the guests of their uncle, George Mathison, in St. Petersburg.

Betty Lynn Snyder of Cherry Hill Rd., Wayne, was the weekend guest of Sally Lee Sowle.

Mr. and Mrs. William Duguid of Detroit were hosts Saturday evening at a birthday celebration in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Duguid, Sr. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Duguid, Ben Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reddeman, Mrs. Anna Heintz and daughter, Virginia and Harvey Shaw.

Mrs. William Ryan was honored at a stork shower given by Mrs. Wayne Gardner of Wayne on Friday evening. Attending from Plymouth were Mrs. Robert Schenkele, Mrs. Raphael Mettel and Mrs. Darryl Cline.

City requests widening of Plymouth road, subway for East Ann Arbor and a sidewalk to cemetery, of Wayne County. Walks to Phoenix also asked.

It is our sincere hope that in the years to come when our children are taught of our "great" Governor Comstock in this year of 1933, they will not be reminded of the valiant and yeoman service of this man as he allowed his statements and his countenance to be used as public advertisements in the sale and consumption of alcohol.

Parchment, a small village just north of Kalamazoo, who finds itself much the same as Plymouth, surrounded by industry and with increasing growing pains, has written to Plymouth requesting a copy of this city's laws in a hope that it will help them in their problem of adjustment to sudden growth.

Daisy Manufacturing Company's representative Chauncey Rauch, returns from a trip in the Middle West with the good news that business is indeed getting better.

Boy Scouts of this area will converge on the high school at noon Saturday where they will listen to the radio address given by President Roosevelt when he tells the "good turn" is that he wants them to do during 1934. He has given no indication of what he has in mind but it will be revealed in his address at that time.

The suggestion made some weeks ago by Glenn Smith that a sidewalk be built on East Main street to the Plymouth-Riverside Park, has in the past few days grown into a real CWA project. A real effort is being put forth and it is hoped to receive favorable consent from the Wayne County powers since most of this project would be outside the city limits.

Good morning Judge. It is Judge Perry Richwine from now on if you please. Without an assenting vote the city commission Monday night appointed Richwine to fill vacancy created by resignation of Hamill.

Recommendation has been made to city officials that before expiration of the CWA, in the area, that water mains be placed in Riverside cemetery so that the graves and flowers may be cared for during the summer months.

Chief Fred Wagenschutz of the Plymouth fire department, Louis Westfall of the department, Harry Hunter of the Detroit House of Correction staff and a Plymouth fireman and Hiram Long of the prison department, along with several inmates, are recovering from near suffocation they faced while battling a stubborn blaze at the prison farm last Wednesday afternoon. The blaze started when lumber used in the manufacture of chairs was piled against a steam pipe. Damage is estimated to run to several thousand dollars.

A meeting will be held at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth on Monday evening, February 12, for the purpose of combining the Democratic voters of Plymouth, Northville, Livonia and Canton Townships into a permanent organization to represent the Northwest section of Wayne County. E. H. Scully of Plymouth heads group planning meeting. Present, from the Wayne County Democratic committee, will be Messrs. Roscoe Huston, Andrew Baird and Rual Rice.

If you think you are having cold weather, listen to what M. L. Kinyon, native born Plymouth resident told us the other day. He stated that 61 years ago on January 29 the thermometer was at 33 degrees below zero in Plymouth—a record to this day and that it never did get above 18 below although the sun shined all day. Kinyon says he well remembers that day as his sister, Edith and William West were married on that day.

We extend to you a hearty invitation to accompany ex-president Theodore Roosevelt of the United States of America upon the occasion of his first hunting trip into the wilds of the East African Jungle. And here's how: seat yourself before the fire in your sitting room, spread before you a copy of the next issue of this paper and turn to the page which contains the story entitled, "What a Roosevelt Will See." This paper is most fortunate in securing this exclusive account of our ex-president's entourage.

The village council has under consideration a proposition from the Pere Marquette railroad company to furnish it with current for 75 16-candle power lamps at $25.00 per month, the village to pay half the cost of wiring and setting the poles. At first glance the proposition looks good but on further study we wonder. One 16-candle power lamp will burn 56 watts per hour. 75 of these lights which the railroad would keep burning on an average of 12 hours per day at the rate the village is charging of 8 cents per kilowatt it would cost the village approximately $120.00 per month for which the railroad is offering to pay $25.00. We understand that some of the village council are favoring the proposition but we wonder if they have considered the cost to the village.

The annual stockholders meeting of the Plymouth Creamery Company was held Monday afternoon. The annual statement was read by Sec. Voorhies which showed the institution to be in a very stable and satisfactory financial condition. The old board of directors and officers were re-elected without opposition.

An orchestra has been organized at the Presbyterian church and in a short time it is expected they will be able to assist with the Sabbath services.

Dr. King, the examining committee from the University of Michigan, visited the high school last Wednesday and was very pleased with the conditions he found here.

The W.C.T.U. last year offered prizes for the students in the Physiology classes of the H.S. and 8th grade, for the best essay on narcotics. The awards were made recently and Claude Robinson from the H.S. and Fletcher Campbell from the 8th grade received the first prizes. Hazel Smithman from the H.S. and Hazel Sly from the 8th grade won second place.

There will be 53 Sundays in this year, an occurrence that will not happen again for 110 years. We would suggest that this extra Sunday could be well used in the work of your church which ever it may be.

Mrs. J. H. Patterson entertained a group of ladies last Tuesday at a Thimble Party after which she served a delicious six o'clock dinner.

The Foersters of America will have a dance at Penniman hall Thursday evening. Music will be the Bates orchestra from Ann Arbor.

70 Years Ago

Friday, February 15, 1889

"Plymouth's lively colored boys" will give a couple of their popular entertainments next Friday and Saturday night, at Amity hall. They are the very essence of fun and if you wish to spend an evening or two of laughter, just girth yourself well and go and see them.

The annual meeting of the Plymouth Fair Association was held on Tuesday evening with a large crowd attending. O. R. Pettengell was elected chairman and H. B. Bennett, secretary. The report of president Sherwood as well as of the treasurer L. C. Hough were called for and read. These reports show a very gratifying increase over previous years and leave the association in fine financial condition. The election of seven directors resulted as follows: T. C. Sherwood, L. G. Bennett, R. L. Root, H. B. Bennett, W. O. Allen, R. J. Root and Joel Bradner. W. C. Allen and H. R. Bennett were chosen to confer with representatives from Ypsilanti, Pontiac and other associations looking toward a uniform premium list.

Archie Bradner is sick. Boylans have a fresh shipment of "Double Cousins" cigars. Try them.

Nearly $1,200 worth of suits was delivered to the George Starkweather and Company store last week.

The suit of August Blunk against the Township of Livonia for injuries received by breaking through a bridge last winter is in progress this week.

J. R. Rauch has purchased the stock of goods of H. L. Bennett and took possession Monday. Mr. Rauch moved his family into the M. E. Parsonage today.

Ladies "waukenphast shoes" are on sale at Starkweathers. Also you may get one of the Metropolitan fashion sheets for March free. It contains many pretty fashions.

T. G. Richardson of this place bought the Corson stock of Northville at auction the other day for sixty cents on the dollar.

W. J. Burrows has been attending the meeting of the grand lodge of Oddfellows at Grand Rapids this week as a delegate from this lodge.

The effects of leap year is making itself manifest, four weddings this week. Too late for this paper, details next week.

Asa Joy and wife and George Starkweather and wife were married 24 years ago by the same preacher on the same day and started off together on their wedding trip and both couples will attend the Hillmer-Starkweather wedding next week.

All members of the P.L.C.-B. and the old dramatic clubs are requested to meet at the residence of M. Conner Tuesday evening at 7:00 o'clock to arrange for a consolidation February 19. Highway commissioners attending will receive their expenses and onerary.

PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP PLANNING COMMISSION
 ROSALIND BROOME, Secretary

Use the Classifieds — They Bring Results

CITIZENS OF PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP INCORPORATION?

MANY OF YOU MAY HAVE CONCLUDED THAT YOUR VOTE ON FEBRUARY 16 WILL DETERMINE IF THERE WILL BE A CITY OF "PLYMOUTH HEIGHTS." WELL, SUCH IS NOT THE FACT. IN ORDER TO MEET LEGAL REQUIREMENTS, THE LANGUAGE OF PROPOSITIONS ON THE BALLOT IS OFTEN DIFFICULT TO UNDERSTAND AND THE REAL MEANING CAN READILY ESCAPE THE VOTER. YOUR VOTE ON FEBRUARY 16 IS MERELY AN ADVISORY VOTE.

YOU WILL IN EFFECT BE ASKED FOR YOUR OPINION REGARDING THE ESTABLISHMENT OF A CHARTER COMMISSION THAT WILL SERVE WITHOUT PAY, TO STUDY THE NEEDS OF OUR COMMUNITY AND TO DRAW UP A CHARTER TO BE SUBMITTED FOR YOUR APPROVAL WITHIN TWO YEARS, BEFORE INCORPORATION CAN RESULT. THEREFORE A MAJORITY "YES" VOTE ON FEBRUARY 16 MUST AGAIN BE SUPPORTED BY A MAJORITY "YES" VOTE WITHIN TWO YEARS IN ORDER FOR INCORPORATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE. THUS YOU CAN VOTE "YES" ON FEBRUARY 16 AND "NO" AT SOME LATER DATE WITHOUT IN ANY WAY ALTERING THE PRESENT STATUS OF OUR TOWNSHIP. A MAJORITY "NO" VOTE ON FEBRUARY 16 WILL KILL THE PROPOSITION.

A MAJORITY "YES" VOTE MEANS

- THAT A THOROUGH AND UNINTERRUPTED STUDY OF THE NEEDS OF OUR AREA MAY BE MADE BY A CHARTER COMMISSION AND A SOLUTION PROVIDED FOR ITS PROBLEMS.
- THAT THE HAND OF OUR OFFICIALS WILL BE STRENGTHENED IN ANY DISCUSSIONS TOWARD COMBINING WITH ADJACENT COMMUNITIES AND THAT IN PLACE OF ANNEXATION, THERE MAY BE A NEGOTIATED CONSOLIDATION OR MERGER OF OUR JOINT COMMUNITIES, AT A TIME AND IN A MANNER OF MUTUAL AGREEMENT.
- That our area will be free from any further attempts at annexation until after the vote on the adoption of the charter.
- That our present tax base will be secured for at least two years.
- THAT DEVELOPMENT OF OUR AREA WILL PROCEED IN AN ORDERLY MANNER AS PROVIDED BY OUR EXCELLENT ZONING ORDINANCE AND FOR THE OVERALL BENEFIT OF OUR ENTIRE COMMUNITY.
- That prospective new industry might delay or forego locating in our area during the period of development of our water and sewer system unless such services were granted on a short temporary basis by the City of Plymouth as a neighborly act, and for the mutual benefit of our joint communities.

A MAJORITY "NO" VOTE MEANS

- That a petition now on file for annexation of twenty acres adjacent to the eastern boundary of the City will be brought up for immediate consideration by the County Board of Supervisors, with its success virtually assured.
- That our sewer and water program cannot proceed without threat of loss of revenue producing areas.
- That there would be further attempts to annex our major industries and industrial sites, with the resultant loss to our Township of 80% of its tax base. Such attempts would be greatly encouraged and strengthened by the passage in Lansing of such legislation as the recently tabled "Virginia Plan," which would require only the approval of a Circuit Judge, without regard for the wishes of the citizens.

THESE FACTS ARE PRESENTED AS A PUBLIC SERVICE SO THAT YOU MAY UNDERSTAND THE TRUE MEANING OF THE ELECTION ON FEBRUARY 16 AND THAT YOUR VOTE MAY BE THE EXPRESSION OF YOUR OWN OPINION, RATHER THAN THE RESULT OF PRESSURE PUBLICITY.

End of an Industry

NEW BEDFORD, Mass. (UPI) — In this town, 1871 is remembered as the year "the roof fell in." That was when this old whaling port lost 34 whaleships in the Alaskan ice fields. The financial loss came to $2,000,000, but, miraculously, every member of the fleet—1,219 persons, including the wives and children of whaling captains—survived. No whalers sail from New Bedford today. But the Eskimos of Point Barrow still whale in New Bedford boats with abandoned harpoons and gear left from what was once a great industry.

by George Spavin

Ole mister Groundhog poked his head out of a chuck-hole on one of our ravaged side streets the other day and saw his most honorable shadow. As legend would have it, six more weeks of winter is to be our lucky fate. Let the snow and ice come. It will make the arrival of spring some six or seven weeks away a little bit more delightful. All I know is that Mr. Sun is a bit more in evidence every day—now that's something to be really thankful for.

And another reason for being happy and carefree right in the dead of winter comes everyone's way next Thursday night on February 19. That's the night the Plymouth Theater Guild opens with "Teahouse of the August Moon" for a three night run at the High School Auditorium. Everybody—and everyone's friends and youngsters should see "Teahouse." It's your chance to see living theater at its best with professional costumes, scenery and acting.

All the wonderful delights of the original Broadway production have been captured by over 55 Theater Guild members that have been working diligently for the past five weeks to make this the dramatic triumph of the season. If you enjoy the Plymouth Symphony concerts, the movies at the Penn, or the Westerns on TV, you'll have a blast watching and laughing at the real, live production of "Teahouse." Old George will personally refund your money if you don't have a good time.

Speaking of the Plymouth Symphony reminds me that I attended the fourth concert, a couple of weeks ago. Wayne Dunlap, Plymouth's own Paul Paray, and the one perfect members of the orchestra furnished the audience with a two hour program for the family that was a rich diet of music and fun. The opening piece with the bassoons doing the tick-tock bit sent my ears a-tinkling. And the number entitled "In a Clock Shop" was enjoyed by the adults equally as well as the children in attendance.

At this concert Mr. Dunlap did a little more explaining before each number and pointed out certain instruments to listen for. Wish he would do that more at subsequent concerts. I don't know a lot of us, but old George has the feeling that he is still in elementary school when it comes to music appreciation. We could all understand symphonic programs a bit more if these verbal interludes were lengthened. Mr. Dunlap does them so well that I'm sure the audience never feels as though he is laboring the obvious.

"The Magic Doll Shop" number was with Mrs. Hulce narrating and Stan Hench providing Vista Vision size cartoon drawings to illustrate this French musical tone poem. First of all, let's admit right off that Stan did a tremendous job of sketching ten drawings in the time allotted. The speed at which he worked deserves description. You had to see it to believe. In the "Can-Can" sequence when Stan was drawing the dancers, he all but did a ballet so fast and furious was the sweep of his arms and the up and down gyrations of his body. He fairly leapt from the top of his easel to the bottom. How could he help it? The Symphony during this sequence was providing some mighty toe-tapping melodies.

One final memory of this wonderful Sunday concert: Stan was finishing up his first drawing, the music was quite spritely, when suddenly a child in the audience began to see the face develop in the drawing. "Oh," escaped her lips as she expressed her appreciation of Stan's art work. Wish you could have heard that small child's "Oh." To me it wrapped up the afternoon. As adults, we sedately applauded a creative work of art in the field of music or drama, but a young child puts so much more into that unconscious sincere little "Oh." A beautiful sound and Mr. Dunlap and his competent musicians are to be complimented for having a hand in evoking the tender response.

I'd like to spend more time talking about the Plymouth Symphony and maybe I will one of these days again in the near future. Time to get over to our video-box and see what's happening on the TV tube these days. A late flash from CBS indicates that "Keep Talking", a summer replacement show that made the big time this fall, has acquired a sponsor and the talking will continue. As you recall "Keep Talking" was brought in as a hasty sub for "The $64,000 Question" on Sunday nights over Channel 4. Starting Feb. 11 it will move to Wednesday nights at 8 p.m. over Channel 4. So if you've enjoyed watching TV comics playing an old parlour game on Sunday nights, twist that big weekly dial over to Wednesday night Morey Amsterdam, one of the regulars on the program, always has a ready store of ad libs that keep you chuckling as they try to keep talking.

Hope some of you saw Art Carney's performance in "The Velvet Alley" on Playhouse 90 a couple of weeks ago. He did an outstanding job with this script. The age old theme of what excessive money does to a man's character by this TV show in general was made night (Tuesday) at 9:30 "The Naked City" had an episode about a Bowery Bum who had the bad habit of stealing horses in the city of New York. All the scenes are shot on location to give the TV show a feeling of reality.

James Barton, a Broadway actor who played Jester in "Tobacco Road" longer than any other actor, had the lead in this TV film. As Matty, the Bowery sot, who had a yearning to go home and start all over, Barton did such a convincing job that he stayed my hand from turning off the TV set. After watching the show through to the end.

Next week we should spend a little time talking about this gigantic industry of the TV film. The half-hour TV film saved the day for many of the small movie companies such as Republic and Monogram. Their studies are now exclusively used for the producing of films for TV. More about this next week. Meanwhile, don't forget to plan that theater party to see "Teahouse" with your friends. Or better yet, have a "Sukiyaki" sundae at the dime store and try to win a ticket to the show. Live and generously, you might win!

Search for Mother of the Year

The search for the 1959 "Mother of the Year" was launched today by the Michigan Mothers Committee. Candidates for the national honor as America's most outstanding mother are being sought in 49 states, District of Columbia, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico.

The Michigan Mothers Committee, seeking this State's representative, is sending out nominating blanks to clubs, churches, school districts, and business organizations. The Michigan project is headed by Mrs. Charles Kuhn, State Chairman, of Pontiac.

The following persons are members of the Michigan Mothers Committee for this year: Mrs. David Zuhle, Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. C. P. Lundy, Past President of the Detroit Archdiocese; Mrs. Irving Small, Past President of the League of Jewish Women; Mrs. Frederick Stryker, Board Member of St. Paul's Cathedral; Mrs. Frank Crile, Board Member of Society for Epileptic Children; Mrs. D. D. Keywell, Past President of Temple Israel Sisterhood; Mrs. Charles Eberhardt, Women's Division of United Foundation; Mrs. Andrew Tondee, Women's Division of Detroit Round Table; and Mrs. Stanley Kresge, Director of American Mothers Committee.

Nomination blanks are available by writing to the Michigan Mothers Committee, P.O. Box 203, Pontiac, Michigan. Completed nomination blanks - filled out exactly as required - must be submitted, to the above address, not later than March 1, in order to be eligible for consideration in the judging.

Salem Board Hears Reports; Mothers Seek Rail Signals

Mrs. Herbert Famuliner

The Salem Township Board met last Monday evening at the Salem Town Hall. Francis Hugg, the Building Inspector, reported he issued one permit for a new home on Dixboro Road for Mr. and Mrs. Mattock, value $30,000. Township Treasurer Harlow Ingall reported on his 1958 tax collection. Mr. Ingall will be at the Town Hall each Saturday from 11 a.m. till 4 p.m. until February 28. All 1958 taxes become delinquent on March 1, 1959.

Fire Chief Charles Raymor made his yearly annual report. This is the 1958 State Fire Loss Report to the Fire Marshal. Careless use of matches, careless burning of rubbish, three; auto fires, two; Dwellings, six; house trailer, one; grass fires, 16; others six; total losses on buildings, $50,000; the house trailer $2,000; Loss of Contents, $100,000; other losses, $600.

A group of mothers attended the meeting to ask for help in getting some kind of warning signals for the railway crossings in the Township. This action was taken due to the fact that one of the school buses was nearly hit by a train a week ago Friday on Currie Rd. The Board drafted a letter to the Wisconsin Road Commission, asking for their help. William Edmunds the Township Deputy, made his report.

PTA Meets

The New Hudson P.T.A. met on Thursday evening. A band concert was given under the direction of Frank Kochalko the band teacher. He presented the fifth, sixth, seventh, and eighth grades, showing the different developments. A gift was presented to Ben Rice, from the P.T.A., and the S. L. School Board presented a basket. A group of Mothers made a "Little Red School House Cake." Mr. Rice has been the custodian for many years at the New Hudson school. He retired December 1, 1958. Room Mothers served ice cream, cake, milk and coffee.

Band Concert Planned

The high school band of South Lyon will present a band concert on Saturday evening, February 14, at the High School, under the direction of Frank Kochalko. Firemen will sponsor a Valentine Dance this Saturday, Feb. 14 at the Town Hall. Dancing from 9 to 11 with door prizes and refreshments. All the Township Farm Bureaus will meet at the Town Hall this Thursday for a potluck dinner and joint meeting.

The Forward Look Extension Club will meet this month at the home of Mrs. Harlow Ingall of Joy Road. Tuesday, Feb. 17th at 1 p.m. The Worden Extension Group met January 27 at the home of Mrs. Albert Shear on Brookville Rd. After a potluck dinner an enjoyable time was had reviewing previous lessons. A short talk by project leader Mrs. Albert Shear was given on "Know Your County."

The Salem Republican Club had a party at the Salem Town Hall on Friday evening. Cards and dancing with William Pohart as the caller was enjoyed. Candidates seeking office are: William Scheel, Supervisor; Bruce Kidston and Betty Shear for Clerk; Harlow Ingall for Treasurer; Edwin Hamilton, Ferman Rohraff, and John Waldecker for Trustees; Ralph Cole for Justice of the Peace; Coda Savery Board of Review; William Edmunds, Carleton Hardesty, Raymond Doolin, James Lee Johnston, and Donald Tiffin are all running for Constables. Refreshments were served by the women of the club.

The Walker Women's Club met at the home of Mrs. John Riorden of W. Six Mile Rd., Friday evening with 16 attending.

Mrs. Charles Raymor Jr. was the hostess at her home Friday evening for a Stanley Party.

Mrs. Leonard Hoyer of Godfredson will entertain the Mothers Club of Geer School on Tuesday evening.

Accidents

Salem Township Sheriff made an emergency run to St. Joseph Hospital at 5:45 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 5th, when they were called to the home of Kenneth Eicholtz of 7020 Pontiac Trail. He had cut his left foot, severing an artery, with an axe while chopping wood. Last report Ken is home with a cast on his foot and is feeling much better.

A car found in the ditch at Seven Mile and Pontiac Trail, was the result of an accident earlier in the day. The abandoned car belonged to Harold T. Sheldon of 11702 Todd Lane, Whitmore Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Foerster of Whitmore Lake spent Friday evening at the Hardesty home. Mrs. George Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Procter of Chelsea went into Highland Park on Thursday after receiving word Mrs. Bennett's brother-in-law, Clifford Maltby, had passed away.

A wedding reception was held Saturday evening at the Salem Town Hall in honor of Dorothy Hansen and Therman Wlady evening at the Hardesty home.

Mrs. Jerry Gardner of Rushton Rd., was admitted to St. Joseph Hospital on Thursday and underwent surgery on Friday. She is doing very well.

The Salem Tops Club known as the Shadows met January 28th at the home of Mrs. C. F. Grimes to mark the anniversary of the group. Lunch was served and the feast came to exactly 320 calories per person. Mr. and Mrs. Ferman Rohraff spent Saturday evening at the William Kelly home. An evening of cards was enjoyed Sunday at the home of Dick and Barbara McKinney with the William Kellys and the Charles Raymors.

Salem Federated Church News

The largest Sunday School attendance thus far in 1959 was 176 on Sunday, Feb. 7. New babies who have been in church by the young age of two weeks are Ronald Jay Carrell, John Mark Field, Diane Marie Foerster, and Alan Bradley Lanning.

The Christian Service Boys Brigade has been reorganized and their first meeting was held Monday, Feb. 2. Jerry Monroe, recently discharged from the army, is their captain. Interesting activities are being planned for the future.

The third issue of "The Messenger," our church newspaper, was distributed Sunday, Feb. 2, and contains many interesting articles. The co-editors of the paper are Mrs. Richard Burgess and Mrs. Evelyn Wilson.

Mrs. C. F. Grimes is temporarily sponsoring the Junior Youth Group, "Parables of Nature" film strips will be shown for the next several weeks.

A Christian Training Class for all those interested in studying Bible Doctrine will begin Sunday, Feb. 15 at 6:30 p.m. The class will be taught by Pastor Burgess.

A course in Personal Evangelism offered by the Moody Bible Institute is being taught by Mrs. Evelyn Wilson on Thursday afternoons at 1:00 p.m. Ladies Visitation follows at 2:00 p.m.

Planning Ahead EAST HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI) — Police said William J. Locke bought a $139 radio with a rubber check and had it sent to the state prison so it would be waiting for him when he was jailed for the crime.

Hughes and Hatcher Plan New Store at Wonderland

Another step in their expansion program was announced today by Bernard Pincus, president of Hughes & Hatcher, Detroit, with the signing of a lease for a new store in the Wonderland Shopping Center at Middlebelt and Plymouth Roads in Livonia.

This new $15,000,000 project will be the second or third largest shopping center in the Greater Detroit area.

The new Hughes & Hatcher branch will carry wide selections of apparel for men, women and boys, and will be the largest store of its kind in this new development. Plans call for the new store to carry the same famous name brands offered at the other Hughes & Hatcher branches.

It will be a large store with 16,000 square feet of floor space, and will be contemporary in architecture.

Hughes & Hatcher, with 5 stores in Downtown Detroit, Northland and Eastland Centers, and Lincoln Park Shopping Center, is one of the country's largest apparel stores for men, women and boys. It was founded in 1914 by Fred A. Hughes and Leslie Hatcher.

Shuttleless Loom

HOPEDALE, Mass. (UPI) — A new loom has been perfected by the Draper Corp., which it says has stepped up production speeds in weaving by eliminating shuttles and bobbins.

Fabrics such as printed cloths, sheetings, drill twills, satens, denims and corduroys already have been produced by the new loom.

No Matter What Queen Does, Someone's Sure to Complain

LONDON (UPI)—Madam, you have my sympathy. When you left your home this (and every) morning, your neighbors gave you the most critical going over. They discussed your makeup, clothes, shoes and companions. They buzzed about your children and how you were educating them. Some of them thought you looked pretty good, and said so. Some of them thought you looked pretty awful, and said so. Some of them thought you were raising your children well. Some of them opined they were spoiled and pampered little brats. Your husband got the same unblinking treatment. So did your sister. For that matter so did your mother. And what did you do about it, ma'am? Nothing. Absolutely nothing. That's why, although you are Elizabeth, Queen of Britain, head of the Commonwealth, you have my sympathy. In exchange for your exalted position and secure place in history, you have given away one of the precious rights most cherished by even your humblest subjects.

The right to reply to criticism. The right to defend yourself. If an ordinary housewife ever found herself subjected to the gauntlet—often friendly but occasionally insolent—that faces the queen every time she leaves her palace, pulled hair would be falling like autumn leaves. If an ordinary man ever had his family criticized the way some Britons fancy they can criticize the royal family, there would be a run on horsewhips. But Prince Philip has to do what tradition over the decades has decreed for those of the British blood royal—Turn the other cheek. In a kingdom of 50,000,000 and a commonwealth of several times that, it is impossible to please all of the people all the time. No one knows this better than the sovereign who, for example, is flayed by animal lovers if she permits her son, Prince Charles, to attend a fox hunt—and denounced by hunters for raising a sissy if she doesn't. The phrase "you can't win" might have been coined for the job. The many millions who regard Queen Elizabeth as a credit to throne and dynasty are hopeful a new era is opening. The recent court action in which an employe of Windsor Castle was stopped from publishing his experiences in the royal household is the first legal counter-punch the royal family has thrown in over a century. Even so, it took a full two weeks for the Queen to decide to take action. And she moved swiftly only when—or was it just coincidence?—the employe promised in print to tell a few things about the late romance of Princess Margaret and Group Captain Peter Townsend. Consider only this incomplete record of fairly recent attacks on the royal family: Critic, Lord Altrincham—The Queen is being given the personality of a "priggish schoolgirl" and her manner of speaking is "a pain in the neck." Critic, Malcolm Muggeridge, former editor of Punch—The Queen is regarded by many as "frumpish, dowdy and banal." Critic, Lord Londonderry—The monarchy is "ludicrous and nauseatingly incongruous in a modern democracy." He deplored the royal family's "toothpaste smiles." Critic, the League against Cruel Sports—The Queen is "an enemy of animals" because she owns race horses and Prince Charles is being taught to shoot deer. Critic, the Free Church of Scotland—The Queen should not have contributed to the rebuilding of a Roman Catholic church. Critic, Roman Catholics—The Queen should have sent a representative to the funeral of Cardinal Griffin, not a letter of condolence. Critic, the Lords Day Observance Society—Prince Philip breaks the sabbath by playing polo and Prince Charles, under the influence of his father, is "thoroughly accustomed" to this.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

The girls from Brownie Troop 267 report that their mothers enjoyed wearing the Christmas aprons the girls made for them, and their fathers appreciated the leather luggage tags. The officers for the month are: Anne Swansell, President; Linda Steenken, Treasurer; Barbara Green, Sunshine Girl; Barbara Jones, Publicity.

So far this month the girls have enjoyed an ice skating party and now are working at their Tenderfoot requirements. Girl Scout Troop number 256 has completed a very busy semester of activities. Officers of the troop are: Chairman, Betty Ann Erdelyi; Vice Chair, Judy Olds; Treas., Earleen Phibbs; Secretary, Lesley Waeker; Publicity, Linda Baughman; Sunshine, Ruth Steele. The girls made felt shoes, pens, toys, candles and baked goods during October for the Smith School County Fair. After making candles at Mrs. Widmaier's home they enjoyed a cook-out in her yard. A train ride to Lansing began one morning at 9:15 from Plymouth. The girls arrived in Lansing at 10:15 and toured the State Capitol, the Historical Museum, and the State Journal, arriving home at 6:00 p.m. During November, December and January they worked on the dabbler and hospitality badges by giving three parties and a Second class badge ceremony, to which mothers were invited. Each scout in the troop proudly wears her Second Class badge. Neighborhood No. 1 will meet at the Veterans Memorial Building on Tuesday, Feb. 17 at 8:00 p.m. Reports by the delegates to the January Council will be made and plans for observing Girl Scout Week, the Annual Cookie Sale and the Juliette Lowe Fund will be discussed. The Girl Scout Swimming Program met with such enthusiastic response that the hours have been enlarged. The girls may now swim starting at 12 noon for one hour periods until 3 p.m.

State Hospital Patients Will Honor Volunteers

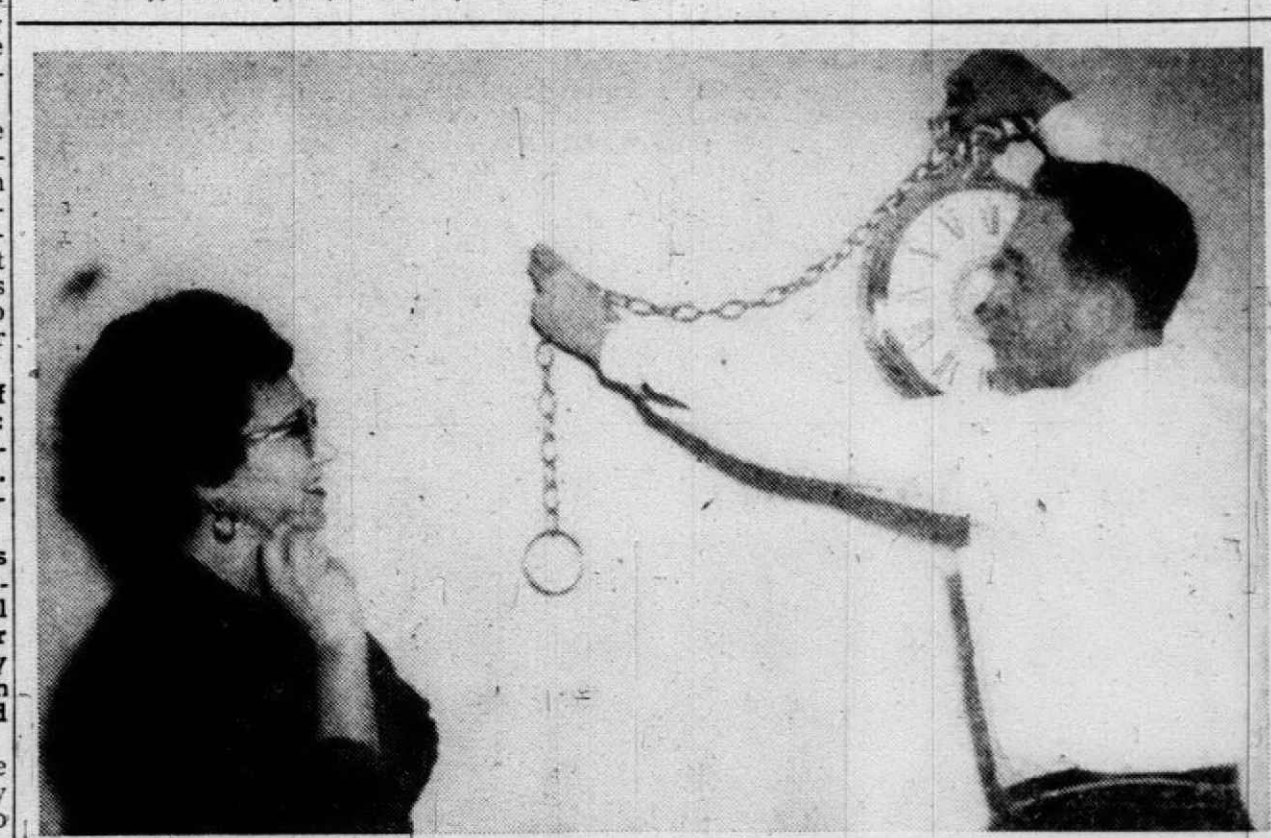

Thursday, Feb. 12, from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m., the Northville State Hospital Patients' Council is honoring its volunteers at a Valentine Tea in the hospital cafeteria. According to the patient who is the Council President, "We appreciate how much the volunteers do for us and want to take this way of saying 'thank you for everything.'"

Evans Co. Appoints New Sales Manager

Malcolm McCloud has joined Evans Products Company of Plymouth, Mich., as Sales Manager for battery separators, it was announced today by W.J. Ritchie, Vice-President. In his new post, Mr. McCloud will have charge of marketing the company's Evanite battery separators to the storage battery industry. Mr. McCloud comes to Evans Products Company from U.S. Rubber Company, where he has served since 1952 as assistant sales manager, battery separators. Previously, he had been a sales engineer in the Mechanical Goods Division of the company. From 1947 to 1949 he was sales engineer in the materials handling field with Yale & Towne Mfg. Co. He is a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers and the Electrochemical Society.

AN AVID GOLFER, Vaughn Eberlee has other work cut out for him for awhile as anyone can plainly see. Vaughn and Sophie moved into their new home on Shadywood Drive just before Thanksgiving and are enjoying "getting settled." Sophie is originally from Poland and arrived in Chatham, Ontario when she was just a little girl. It was here that she and Vaughn met and married. Vaughn is regional man for the Perk Foods Packing Company. Sophie works for the Michigan Consolidated Gas Company in the Payroll Department. This summer too, Vaughn plans to trade the golf stick for garden tools and work on the outside of their home, more than likely as a team, although we didn't hear Sophie make any promises.

Which Industry Now Better the Living of 3 Out of 4 Michigan Families?

...Here Are Some Surprising Facts About The Trading Stamp Industry

So far, whenever our nation's economy has needed expansion, a new industry has sprung up to help the country go ahead. The automobile industry, employing millions, was followed closely by the development of radio and radio broadcasting to make more millions of jobs. Then came the airplane industry, air conditioning, plastics, television, frozen foods, to change our lives more. The trading stamp industry, while not new, belongs to this expansion group and has been one of the fastest growing of all. Today it better the living of more than 3 out of 4 Michigan families who save trading stamps. Obviously, an industry affecting such a large proportion of Michigan's population must bring far-reaching benefits for Michigan's economy. And it does. In 1957 the trading stamp industry bought $9,816,000 worth of products from Michigan's manufacturers. In one way or another, it provided employment for 1,016 Michigan people in many different industries. The people in the trading stamp industry, its merchandise and redemption stores, its warehouses and transportation and all the activity that goes on within it are integrated economically everywhere within our state. Thus it seems plain that the trading stamp industry along with the 1,690,000 Michigan women it serves has become, like other expansion industries, a living, vital segment of Michigan's economy. This message is published as public information by THE SPERRY AND HUTCHINSON COMPANY, originator 63 years ago of S&H Green Stamps.

Battle of the Basement, Some Points In It's Favor

The battle of the basements—or, should modern homes have a basement?—may reach feuding intensity in the building industry.

One leading home magazine claims a survey shows basements cost almost as much to build per square foot as comparable floor space in the main part of the home.

But, says Arthur W. Priaulx, western lumber official and home design authority, the basementless house is like a car without a luggage compartment.

Basements are a part of American living tradition, says Priaulx, who points out that the basementless home can't offer a family full living. "Where," he asks, "can Dad have his workbench and shop? Where can you store garden furniture, baby's crib during unused periods, outdated furniture against the time that just-married daughter claims it for her home?"

Basements, traditionally, have been a place for extra activities, Priaulx points out, which the family doesn't care to have in the living portion of the home. The laundry, for instance, belongs in the basement, as many a housewife will aver who has lint and laundry smells mixed in with her cooking in some of the "compact" homes where laundry and kitchen blend into one.

"It may be old-fashioned," Priaulx says, "but it always seems to me that the furnace belongs in the basement. You get a warmer house. Experts claim you get better walking with a wood floor set on sturdy wood joists which has some spring and resilience, and you certainly can have a wood floor if you have a home with a basement."

Call it nostalgia or what you will, Priaulx continued, but a man without his own private lair where he can work on a motor, conjure up a stray piece of furniture, repair the endless things that seem to get broken around a family, is a lonesome man. Give him a basement with a corner for a workbench and he's happy as a clam at high tide.

There is no economy in leaving out a basement, Priaulx stated flatly. You either provide the equivalent space at more cost on the ground level, or you build a basement.

Homes with basements usually have better resale value, Priaulx cautioned, because too many of the slab floor homes have not proven satisfactory. Seepage, broken water lines, and electric cables cast into the concrete, sinking and cracking are all common occurrences in slab floors. Buyers can see what they are getting when their prospective home has a basement. You can see the quality of good lumber used for floor joists, subflooring and flooring, and that is what impresses a buyer most.

The leading lumber companies in town have booklets available for the asking on many decorating ideas for a basement.

Mother-Daughter Fashion Notes For '59 Spring

Did you know the Empire waist will be good again all Spring and Summer—but this season it is pronounced Empire (with the accent on the or)—the really smart colors will be white, black and beige? (haven't they always been?)

Milinery designers have added new touches to classical hat styles for spring. Cloches come with wedges cut away at sides or front. Cartwheels have brims trimmed with ostrich feathers. Pillboxes are covered with flowers. Coolie hats have higher crowns and oversize brims and often are piled high with flowers or fruit. The swaggy hat, a favorite of 1920 movie queens, also comes with a higher crown and deeper brim.

A peek at spring fashions for the young is a sign that Easter bonnets and daffodils are on the way.

Children's styles feature lightweight fabrics in bright colors, with the accent on fruit tones.

Avocado-colored organza sparks a pre-teen costume cut along the Empire line. A velvet sash accents the bouffant skirt and tucked bodice.

Another pre-teen eye-stopper is a pearlized white leather suit with fur-like trimming at the collar.

The ever-popular combination of duster and dress comes into the pre-teen line in a black and white ensemble. A petit-point duster has black velvet trim, providing contrast to a white dress with high front pocket detail and narrow bow pleats.

Fussy finery and lacy trims filter into offerings for toddlers and pre-schoolers. Even children's socks sport a touch of lace at the cuff this year.

Toddler styles feature a light, airy look. Bouffant skirts hide lace-trimmed petticoats. Most manufacturers take into account mothers' cleaning problems and present lines in the wash 'n' wear fabrics.

Forget Ice, Slush Go To Flower Show

For those of you (like us) who are not packing their bags for Mexico or Florida we have the next best thing—the Garden Gab Column by Bill Saxton. It's interesting and will inspire you through this last tough month—February—before we are sure to see signs of Spring. We always do—so don't give up, read the Garden Gab instead.

You know a lot of people go to flower shows too, getting away from ice, snow and cold that are staged all around the county for the next six weeks. These shows display real flowers, many of them forced to bloom out of season, in gardens, flower arrangements, table settings and just as flowers or plants.

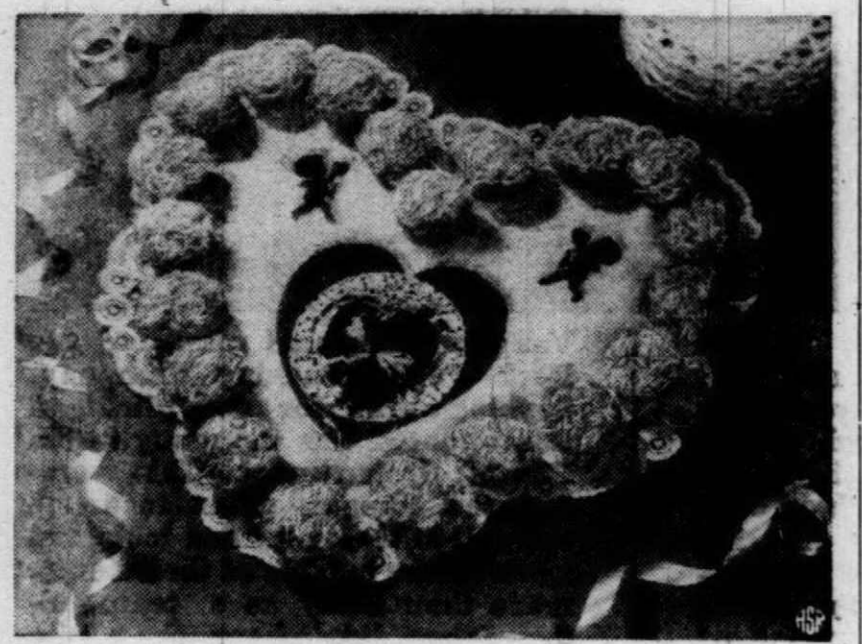

Gardeners, of course, attend to find out what's new for their backyard estate. But there are a good many ideas to be gleaned to make the house more attractive, too.

Every large spring flower show has classes for flower arrangements. Most of them also have a class or group of table settings, which are changed at intervals during the show. Reading advance stories about the show in newspapers and purchasing a directory at the entrance will help visitors locate exhibits in which they are most interested.

Table settings are bound to interest any homemaker. The theme for these settings varies and usually has some application to daily living. Because these table settings are on display, the women who make them bend every effort to make them original and different.

This originality doesn't usually mean that a ton of expensive cut flowers must be purchased. One of the most striking buffet table settings I have ever seen was displayed at the Dallas Flower Show in 1955, yet it made use of only three clusters of wisteria flowers, two white blossoms and three leaves of cyclamen (see photo). The ceramic monkey near the flowers, heavy ceramic candlesticks and polished wood table against a bamboo screen made a simple, yet

One Way To A Man's Heart!

As a "love potion" for a Valentine's Day party try these delicious little coconut cupcakes delicately decorated in pink. For a lovely looking centerpiece use these to outline a heart-shaped arrangement of frilly paper doilies. In the middle of the doily heart, place a real Valentine, gay with ribbons... or a heart-shaped box filled with tiny Valentine favors. At dessert time serve the cupcakes with strawberry ice cream to carry out the color scheme.

COCONUT CUPCAKES

1½ cups sifted cake flour 1-3 cup milk
1½ teaspoons double acting ½ teaspoon vanilla baking powder 1 1/3 cups Angel Flake Coconut
1-3 teaspoon salt 1 recipe butter frosting
½ cup butter or other shortening 1 1-3 cups flaked coconut tinted pink, if desired
1 cup sugar Insert in Coconut Cupcakes Recipe
2 eggs, well beaten

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat well. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla and coconut and blend. Turn into paper liners set in muffin pans, filling about half full. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 15-18 minutes, or until done. Makes about 20 cupcakes. When cooled, spread butter frosting over top and sides and at once dip or roll in flaked coconut which has been tinted pink, if desired.

Suburban Living

What Every Woman Should Know About Good Complexion Care

(Following is the second of four dispatches on skin care.)

If skin could talk, it would say "how dry I am" as it gets older.

Around the third decade of life, and sometimes sooner, chemical factories in the skin curtail their output of natural oil and moisture. It's part of the aging process. It starts to happen the instant you stop growing.

The condition is aggravated by steam-heated rooms. Hot, dry air "steals" moisture from the skin. Cosmetics, used indiscriminately, may contribute to the drying.

To combat erosion caused by such dryness, dermatologists normally recommend cleansing routines that help the body make the most of its declining natural oil output.

Lanolin creams or soaps containing large doses of lanolin are helpful. Moisturizer creams may be applied under powder or foundation bases to overcome dryness.

Oily skin is primarily a problem affecting adolescents. Many adults, however, have a somewhat oily complexion throughout life. Such a skin has one advantage: It does not wrinkle quickly.

Oiliness—besides contributing to an eternally shining nose—encourages major and minor blemishes. To combat oiliness, wash three or four times daily with a mild toilet soap.

This may be followed by an astringent to close facial pores. It also is helpful to remove and redo make-up at least twice a day.

It's natural for most "older" skins to have oversized pores. An astringent that shocks the pores into puckering is of temporary help. A "permanent" cure? None exists.

An epsom salts solution also may be of temporary help. Stir the salts into boiling water until crystals form. Cool the solution, then pat it on the face with sterile cotton. As it dries, a white film will form.

Wash this away after a few minutes, or leave it on overnight—if your skin is the oily type.

Simple pimples are, of course, a warning signal. In large numbers they may be the precursors of acne, or storm warnings about other serious skin disorders. In such cases, see a doctor for correction.

The occasional pimple may be only a sign of incomplete skin cleansing or too much rich food.

Leading dermatologists agree that squeezing of pimples is not the thing to do. Such a "remedy" may lead to serious infection or an enlarged pore. Nature ordinarily dries up simple pimples.

Like pimples in quantity, blackheads by the dozen may be a sign of acne. The best therapy: cleanliness. Most dermatologists advise against squeezing.

Summing up on cosmetic skin problems: Super-cleanliness. Match creams, lotions and astringents to your general skin condition.

(Next: Skin Problems Needing Medical Attention.)

High Styled Easy-to-Do

THIS CHARMER, so easy to make yourself, with its smooth fitted midriff is a subtle bid for dancing and romancing. There's good news in Talon's Magic-Zip used at back which features a sewing guide line woven into the tape on both sides of the chain for faster, neater application. The entire zipper is truly colorful, too. Instructions in each package assures success for even a beginner seamstress. It's Advance pattern No. 8935—lovely in polished cotton, lace, floating chiffon or any fabric your heart desires.

Hemstitch For Individuality

Needlework is not a lost art. Many women find needlepoint, hemstitching, monogramming or crewelwork a relaxation between P. T. A., library and other civic and household duties. Needlework has no limitations, for the person who knows she couldn't possibly make a dress or a blouse may find she thoroughly enjoys some form of fine sewing.

Hemstitching, for example, is a nice accomplishment and has many uses. It's as easy to do as cross stitch, which is considered the simplest of all embroidery stitches. No special tools are required; a fine sewing needle and fine thread are the only equipment.

The limitation to hemstitching is that it is best done on linen. That's because the crosswise threads must be drawn out of the material in order to make this delicate edging or trimming. All weights of linen from the gossamer handkerchief to dress and towel weights and the heavy, coarsely woven kind used for table linen can be hemstitched handsomely.

A hemstitched edge paralleling the hem is good practice work. Measure and fold the hem and then baste it in place. Then draw threads, removing the cross threads for as wide a space as is desired for hemstitching.

A hemstitched edge for a handkerchief may be no more than 1-8 or 3-16 inches. On a tablecloth or table mats, the hemstitching may be a half inch wide. The width depends somewhat on the coarseness of the linen and on the width of the hem.

A needle or a pin can be used to pick up the first thread. Gentle pulling often draws out the entire thread without its breaking.

Hemstitching may be done with white or colored thread as preferred. I prefer not to use mercerized thread but a good quality of fine cotton thread such as is used for dressmaking.

After inserting the needle so that the knot end of the thread is concealed under the hem and bringing the thread to the right side of the material just under the drawn threads, lift 3 of the lengthwise threads (4 or 5 if preferred) with the needle. Pull out the needle, bring thread over the picked-up threads and stitch vertically through the hem.

That's all there is to the basic hemstitch. But once picking up the threads and bringing thread around them has been mastered, variations are endless. Often, both sides of the drawn threads are hemstitched. This can be done by picking up exactly the same 3, 4 or 5 stitches as on the opposite side or by splitting the threads between two groups.

A simple blouse and skirt

Hemstitching is a simple matter of picking up threads after crosswise ones have been drawn out.

GARDEN GAB—BY BILL SAXTON

We have certainly had a long, tough winter. While snow and ice still cover the ground it is a good time to dig out garden tools from the basement or garage and get them sharpened, cleaned, and oiled. This isn't going to last forever (I hope) and everyone is too busy during the gardening season to take proper care of their tools. If you need help with them bring them down and we will help you. This will also give you a chance to see our new service facilities.

Chain saw owners will be interested to know we have just taken delivery on a new type of automatic chain sharpener. This machine will enable us to do a high precision job of sharpening in a shorter time at a lower cost.

Pruned or dormant trees and shrubs may be done as soon as the weather is warm enough to be comfortable outside. Check your pruning equipment over and if the saws are dull take them to one of the local saw shops. Sharp tools are 100% easier to use.

Pole pruners are gaining in popularity each year. If you have trees that require a ladder, pole pruners eliminate climbing for you.

Dormant sprays are next on the gardening agenda. They can be applied anytime when you have a temperature over 40 degrees for at least eight hours after application. Dormant sprays for the non-commercial home gardener are good. Particularly on scale insects. If you are interested in identifying scales we will have on display during March a number of common varieties. We will be glad to explain the various types so you may readily identify them yourself.

One of the lines that we get enthusiastic about are indoor plants. We keep adding to the line and have a good display at this time.

Let us know your gardening problem. If we don't have the answer we will find out and pass the information along. Ask or write Bill Saxton at

Reading Improvement Program

Most people agree that reading is rightfully the first of the three R's. Whether, as adults, our reading is bookish and scholarly or merely the daily paper and the annual fine print of Form 1040, reading with a reasonable degree of speed and comprehension is a necessity. Surely, this basic skill is one that all youngsters expect to acquire from their public school education.

What, then, can be done for the student who arrives in high school with a reading ability several grade levels behind his classmates?

For the last ten or twelve years Plymouth High met this problem, in large part, with a reading improvement program, a daily one-hour class which can be taken as needed, for a semester or for several years. The course has been kept non-credit so that it will attract only those seriously concerned with bettering themselves. Many students, though, feel they have earned credits indirectly; their improved reading has enabled them to pass courses they might otherwise have failed.

That some students reach high school still reading at fifth or sixth grade level is not too surprising. With some the cause is physical—faulty vision—and can be corrected. With others the retardation stems from lack of continuity in grade school; a child who has been in and out of a dozen schools in eight years has not been learning under the best of conditions.

Some are behind because of extended illness during previous vital years of learning. But by far the largest number (perhaps 80 percent) are slow readers because of emotional conflicts at home. Whatever the cause the school must take the student where he is; it must deal with symptoms; the causes can seldom be reached.

Helping poor readers is only half of the purpose of the reading improvement program. The other, equally important, is to make good readers better. Thus, any hour of the day, you will find two groups in Room 24: those who lag behind, generally underclassmen; and those who read well, generally college-bound upperclassmen, who want to sharpen their comprehension and speed.

For the past eight years the course has been in the hands of Barton Rogers, a veteran of 30 years public school teaching and administrative work. Some youngsters feel the need for help and apply to Mr. Rogers themselves; others are directed by the guidance staff when the battery of tests given each child signifies lack of accomplishment in reading; still others are advised to enter by classroom teachers who feel that the students work is suffering from poor reading.

Mr. Rogers attempts first to determine the strength and weaknesses of each incoming student through a series of tests designed to show achievement in vocabulary, word recognition, comprehension and speed. (Speed, incidentally, is not of primary importance, except for college prep students. In fact, says Rogers, the speed at which we read is largely dictated by the material being read. We skim the newspaper rapidly; we read a novel at an intermediate rate; and we slow down for serious study.) Rogers finds that some youngsters are retarded because they lip read; they see each word in isolation. The job here is to get them to read in meaningful phrases. Probably the most common trouble with poor readers is a lack of comprehension; "I read the whole chapter but I can't remember a thing" is a lament familiar to all teachers.

In these cases the child must begin the long, hard process of learning to read with understanding. He must go back to the fundamental units of writing, the sentence and the paragraph, learning to analyze as he reads, picking out the central thought and supporting details in each paragraph.

What slow readers have to fight first is lack of confidence, the feeling that reading competently is beyond them. "The big thing," says Rogers, "is to get them started reading something they like, something that interests them. Over the years we have collected a rich store of material and we have variety enough to meet the needs and interests of any student."

One period a week is given over to free reading, usually short stories. Frequent visits to the public and school libraries keep the kids supplied with good books. No book reports, though; just a lot of steady reading and a good deal of gradual improvement.

The reading improvement program is, of course, only one part of the entire reading picture. From time to time we will talk of reading from the kindergarten through senior English; in the Plymouth system, every teacher is a reading teacher.

ON THE HOUSE

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI)—Buffalo police are looking for an accommodating two-gun bandit.

While he waited for a tavern waitress to fill a green satchel with more than $2,000 in cash, the bandit calmly told several customers to "keep right on drinking."

Motorists Won't Walk Far, Says U-M Traffic Man

ANN ARBOR — How far is the average motorist willing to walk after parking his car in the city?

That depends, according to Prof. John C. Kohl, head of the Transportation Institute at The University of Michigan, on whether the driver is a man going to work or a woman going shopping.

If the motorist is headed for work, he'll walk quite a distance, but the housewife bound for the store doesn't like to step more than 300 to 500 feet.

In any event, the maximum the average driver will walk is 1,300 feet or about one-quarter mile, although big city dwellers will walk a further distance than those who live in smaller towns.

With the lack of adequate parking an increasing headache everywhere, Professor Kohl states the mere provision of a parking facility will not always solve the problem. The facility must be appealing to the driver in location, convenience and cost.

NOTHING TO SNEEZ AT

SAN BRUNO, Calif. (UPI)—Herbert D. Shaffer, 47, sneezed and as a result: his big dirt-hauling truck smashed into a fire hydrant, flooding an intersection; smashed the front of an office building; knocked down two street signs and struck seven cars.

Police said that when Shaffer sneezed, his head snapped forward, striking the steering wheel and knocked him temporarily unconscious. No one was hurt.

Welcome to New Babies In Canton Township Area

BY ESTHER SPRENGEL GL. 3-0194

Well it seems everyone is hibernating until spring. So many I called are just staying at home near the fire, with nothing eventful to report. But with a great deal of scratching, I finally did come up with some interesting happenings to some of our residents.

Our Canton Township stork isn't hibernating. Mrs. Harold Denison of Gude Rd., called to announce the arrival of their new son, Duane Paul. Duane was born January 21 at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor, weighing 5 lbs., 11 oz. Counting their new arrival, the Denisons have three children.

David Palmer was the guest at a surprise birthday party given in his honor for his 16th birthday. The party was held January 24 at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Theron Palmer of Beck Rd. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Palmer and Mrs. Russell Palmer and Mrs. Russell Palmer, Ronald Markham and Carol Heath. Many more happy birthdays to you both.

Mrs. Russell Palmer called to tell me that great grandfather Wisely had passed away. Allen Wisely was a former resident of the township, but had been residing with a daughter in Livonia. Mrs. Palmer felt that many of Mr. Wisely's former neighbors should know of his death.

One family group that hasn't gone into hibernation is the Nick Mucker's of Saltz Rd. Mr. and Mrs. Mucker had Sunday guests, Mrs. Mucker's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Oville Wells, and their three children, Daryl, Debora and Dee. On the following Monday, the Muckers entertained Mrs. Mucker's parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Wells and daughter Judy. While speaking with Mrs. Mucker, her daughter Cheryl, excitedly reported to Mom that there was a rabbit at the back door; Mom investigated and sure enough they had another guest (for a minute at least).

Mrs. John Dozier of Beck Rd., called to see if the Sprengel's were still on Beck Rd. Mrs. Dozier has been ill with a cold most of the winter, but felt the good news could cure all. We are still here and we'll have to get reacquainted with our neighbors, just as soon as we thaw out.

On January 24, a wedding shower was given for Dale and Brenda Wilkins. The couple were married January 3 at a ceremony with the immediate family present. Dale's bride, Brenda was the former Brenda Jewell. The shower was given by Dale's mother, Mrs. Beatrice Wilkins and Mrs. Ioma Bassett. The guest list included the immediate families. The young couple now reside on Beck Rd. in the Township.

You have heard of grandparents spoiling their grandchildren. Well that is just what Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rafferty of 215 Willard Rd., are anxiously waiting to do. Mr. Rafferty called to inform us that they have a new grandson Barry Edward, born January 23, weighing seven pounds, 11 oz. Their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Rafferty, notified the Rafferty's of the event from Fort Wayne, Ind. Mr. Rafferty stated that they plan to go to Indiana just as soon as possible.

Mrs. Walter Rea informed me that Mother's March on Polio went quite well, considering the unemployment and shortage of help on the drive. Mrs. Rea stated that they had some very nice items for their rummage sale and that everyone cooperated with them. The workers on the drive wanted to especially add their thanks to the merchants in Plymouth that gave them items for their sale. So a special thanks to Minerva's, Dunning's, Kades, Fisher Shoe Store and Plymouth Men's Wear.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hoffield proudly announce the birth of a new granddaughter. The Hoffield's daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Thieke now of Kokomo, Ind. announced the arrival of Linda Jerleen, Jan. 27, weighing seven lbs. and 12 oz. Mrs. Thieke was the former Jerleen Hoffield and a graduate of Plymouth High. The new arrival brought the count to five grandchildren for the Hoffields.

The Cherry Hill Methodist Church will hold their annual Father and Son banquet on Feb. 12. The tickets are $1.50 for Dads and 75c for boys under 12 years of age. Everyone is welcome, so bring your sons to an evening of fun.

February 19, Cub Scout Pack No. 298 will hold their Blue and Gold Banquet. The boys of den one and two along with their families, will enjoy an evening planned by the boys. The theme this year will be Mardi Gras, the boys are planning a parade with floats and masks made by them, the affair will be made gala with the presence of balloons. In a more solemn mood, the boys will receive their well earned awards.

February 16, the Cherry Hill Plymouth Community School, has invited the boys of the Cub Scout pack No. 298 to attend their monthly meeting and show how their meetings are carried out and display some of the articles they have made. The program should be of interest to all parents.

Mr. Hagbard Berg called to tell me the results of the Republican Club meeting the other evening. One of the most important planks is "A demand for a master plan in Canton Township." He went on to say, "Some progress has been made in recent years as far as the development of our township, however in view of the rapid expansion of surrounding areas, it is now a must that such action of planning be taken, so we can develop in an orderly fashion. The Republican candidates are in accord that adequate recreation and Church areas be provided. The Republican candidates urge these things can be expedited more rapid-than the best models of the leading low-priced cars...

This is in no way a "stripped" car you're looking at. Come in and study the manufacturer's suggested retail price of a Buick LeSabre like this, equipped with Twin Turbine automatic transmission, radio, heater, white sidewall tires, and anything else you want in your next car. Then do the same to the top models of the leading low-priced three, and you'll find the statement above stands up.

What a difference for only $200!

Now think how much more you'd enjoy a Buick. A comfortable, substantially built automobile. A car with the finest ride in all Buick history. A car with Buick's exclusive fin-cooled brakes, and the smoothest type of transmission money can buy. A wonderfully quiet and greatly respected car!

Owners report QUALITY outstanding

Your money in a Buick today puts you in on the ground floor of what promises to be a long new time of leadership for Buick cars. "My sixth Buick and the best I ever owned!" "Best-operating car I've driven in thirty years!" "Much the best Buick yet!" Reports like these mean extra pleasure in your Buick ownership... and they mean hard dollar value when the time comes to trade. It all adds up to the best proof in 50 years that: "WHEN BETTER AUTOMOBILES ARE BUILT, BUICK PEOPLE WILL BUILD THEM!"

New in gas economy, too!

In planning the '59 Buick, the new Wildcat engines, transmissions, and axles were all engineered to work together for greater gas mileage. Across the country owners tell us they are getting 15 to 20 miles per gallon in the '59 Buicks. And in a recent thorough test of Buick LeSabre against another car of comparable size and a good reputation for economy... the Buick won in every case under all kinds of driving conditions.

So we think we've got a new kind of value in this Buick LeSabre. And we suggest you go to your Quality Buick Dealer's and see whether you agree before you buy a new car.

What Shall It Profit?

The following isn't new, but we hadn't encountered it in some time before it appeared recently in our church bulletin. Somehow, it seems worthwhile to reprint today—

In 1923 a very important meeting was held at the Edgewater Beach Hotel in Chicago. Attending this meeting were nine of the world's most successful financiers. Those present were:

- 1. The president of the world's largest independent steel company.
2. The president of the world's largest utility company.
3. The president of the world's largest gas company.
4. The world's greatest wheat speculator.
5. The president of the N.Y. Stock Exchange.
6. A member of the cabinet of the President of the U.S.
7. The greatest "bear" of Wall Street.
8. The head of the world's greatest monopoly.
9. The president of the Bank of International Settlements.

Here were gathered a group of the world's financial leaders, each with a personal fortune of tremendous proportions. Each had completely mastered the art of making money.

Thirty-one years later, 1954, these nine men appear as follows:

- 1. The president of the world's largest independent steel co., Charles Schwab, died bankrupt after living on borrowed money for five years.

2. The president of the world's greatest utility company, Samuel Insull, died a penniless criminal in a foreign land.

3. The president of the world's largest gas company, Howard Hopson, is now insane.

4. The world's greatest wheat speculator, Arthur Cutten, died abroad, insolvent.

5. The president of the N.Y. Stock Exchange, Richard Whitney, was released a few years ago from Sing Sing Prison.

6. The member of the President's cabinet, Albert Fall, was pardoned from prison so he could die at home.

7. The greatest "bear" of Wall Street, Jesse Livermore, died a suicide.

8. The head of the world's greatest monopoly, I von Krueger, dove from a liner on the high seas—a suicide.

9. The president of the Bank of International Settlements, Leon Fraser, died a suicide.

All these men learned well the art of making money, but not one of them learned how to live. "What is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world and lose his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?"

Same Historical Background If Your Name Is Leonard

By ANN REYNOLDS, Ph.D. Leonard, pronounced without sounding the "o", is a name that looks as if made to order for a warrior. It is composed of two elements, and both of them hint at the notion of boldness. The two words are "leo", and the equivalent of the English word "hardy." Way back when names were coined, this must have been a good omen for the future of a newborn baby boy. It's a name from the Old Germanic, originally "Leovonhardu."

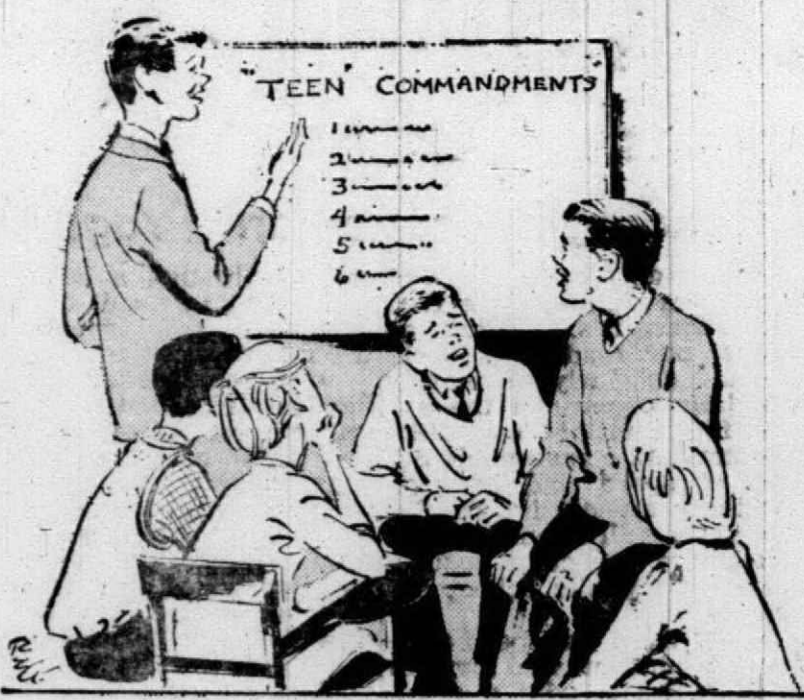

The famous Leonards of world history, however, excelled in things other than wars. The most illustrious was Leonardo da Vinci, the all-around Florentine genius. Most widely known as a painter, above all as the creator of the Mona Lisa portrait with the enigmatic smile, his inquisitive mind found and solved problems in many other spheres of human striving. Incidentally, the Mona Lisa portrait, depicting the third wife of Francesco de Giocondo, was stolen in 1911 from the Louvre by a painter who worked on and off in the Louvre, and in those seemingly peaceful years this made news all over the world. The picture was returned more than two years later to the museum when the thief offered it to an art-dealer and the dealer called the police.

Our scientifically inclined age admires Leonardo also for the manifold inventions anticipating achievements of later centuries that intrigued him; for many he devised solutions. Water turbines, jacks, aerial screws, military machines are just a few of these. Engineering, medicine, zoology and botany, painting and music and stage designing were within the circle of his interest. His notebooks, written in his neat looking mirror writing—he found it convenient to write from right to left, for he was left handed—give testimony to his diverse experiments. He even had a plan to overcome traffic problems although the automobile had not been invented yet, and traffic must have been only a fraction of what it is today. He had the idea that streets should be built on two levels, one for heavy traffic, one for pedestrians.

Leonardo da Vinci was convinced that "every difficulty can be overcome" if you have a clear image in your mind of what is to be achieved. It seems a sound principle, valid whether your aim is a painting, a palace or merely an apple pie.

Tips for Teens

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q.—"Dear Elinor: Would you please reprint the 'Teen Agers' Ten Commandments? I think it would have a great effect on us kids as there is a rock 'n' roll song called 'The Teen Commandments' which contains these commandments. Thank you."

- 1. Stop and think before you speak or act? Are you talking truthfully, kindly, with consideration for others? Are you doing the right thing—right, honest, fair?
2. Don't let your parents down; they've brought you up.
3. Be humble and obey the laws, your parents, your teachers. You'll have a happier, more satisfying, successful life if you do.
4. Turn away from unclean thinking, talking, behavior—at the beginning.
5. Go to church faithfully.
6. Don't show off while you're driving a car.
7. Choose a date who would make a good mate.
8. Choose your companions carefully; you are what your friends are.
9. Avoid following the crowd. Do what you and your parents believe is right, not what others do. What others do is not necessarily right.
10. Obey God's original Ten Commandments.

Q.—"Dear Elinor: I have a neighbor who is 16 (I am 13) and I don't like him at all, but he won't leave me alone. What can I do?"

Ans.—You didn't say how he bothers you, but he'll leave you alone—completely—if you pay no attention to him at all. Ignore him. Don't talk to him, except "Hello" (as a neighbor), then act as if he's not there. Boys like attention, so the less you give him, the sooner he'll leave you alone.

Q.—"Dear Miss Williams: I am a boy in high school and never planned to go steady, but I have met a girl and have become very fond of her and would like to ask her to go steady with me. She has said that she will never go steady, but that was when we first met. What do you think I should do?"

Ans. Ask her. You've epounds of sirlin. changed your mind about going steady, so perhaps she has, too. There's no harm in asking, and even if she's not yet ready for "steady" dating, she'll be pleased and flattered that you like her enough to ask her.

Q.—"Dear Elinor: My problem is two boys (I am 14); I like them both. But one of them meets me in the movie instead of coming to my house. My parents would like me to wait for him at home when we have a date."

Ans.—All your dates should come to your house for you at date-time, not meet you elsewhere. This is improper and gives a bad impression. Boys have more respect for nice girls who wait for them at home instead of meeting them outside. He'll come to your home if he really likes you, so suggest it.

(For free printed tips on "Date Manners for Girls," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Elinor Williams at this paper.)

HANDWRITING

Tells About Yourself

By LUCILLE WILLIAMS

Dear Lucille: Would you please analyze my handwriting for me? Would I be able to work out and also keep my housework done.

D.L.M.

Dear D.L.M.: This is an odd question but fortunately your handwriting shows several reasons why the answer would definitely be yes.

In the first place you learn easily and remember what you've learned. You have a determined mind with a set purpose and the will to carry through.

You are the type to organize your work to the best advantage not letting many details escape you. There's pride too, this is an asset, for anyone who is proud of what they do will always try to do their best.

You can take criticism and profit by it. You wouldn't be hurt even though for certain you are of an emotional nature. You express your emotions and don't hide them.

There's a desire for some activity and your choice of friends carefully selected.

Dear Miss Williams: Have been reading your column with much interest. Will you please analyze my handwriting and tell me what kind of a person you think I am?

Thank you, M.O.M.

Dear M.O.M.: You're a person of good judgement, level headed and despite your sensitiveness I doubt if you'd let much upset you.

You like to be active and like to stand out and be recognized, but like music and appreciate listening to it.

You're very cautious where generosity is concerned. You have ability to concentrate and you think quickly and learn quickly. You're persistent in your efforts and think nothing of doing a anything over again to make it right.

A little independent I'd say, you do as you feel is right. You like responsibility and have a philosophical trend of thought.

Your memory is very good and you're loyal. —You're sure of yourself.

"Life Begins at Forty"

By ROBERT PETERSON

THE OTHER EVENING I went to an ice show—one of those fast, brilliantly-paced productions which has evolved as an art form indigenous to this continent. As I watched the glittering kaleidoscope of color, comedy, music and grace, I recalled Walter Pitkin's famed comment, "Why sit around like a toad on a stone when you might as well be out getting an eyeful somewhere."

An ice show is an eyeful, all right. It's a sort of super-market of entertainment which combines the thrills of the circus with the spectacle of the theater and the grace of ballet. I came away with my senses quivering from the impact of so much color, action, and sound, and I felt a sense of gratification that I lived in an era which could create such a smorgasbord of sparkling entertainment for the price of a couple of

I also came away disappointed at the paucity of gray heads in the audience. Nearly one in ten of the population today is past 65 years of age. Yet my unofficial count disclosed a much lower proportion of older people in the audience. Where were the senior citizens?

The next day I ran into a couple of elderly acquaintances who never seem to be having very much fun. "Had they been to the ice show?" "No," said one, "I never seem to go anywhere anymore." And the other said wearily that he got all his entertainment via video.

It's sad to contemplate the many older people who have lost their sense of curiosity and have fallen victim to the comfortable but dulling pattern of life in which a contour chair and a television set meet their basic wants. They've let their minds close to the call of new adventures and wearily conclude that life has lost its savor.

We make a great mistake at any age if we fail to reach out and taste the candies on the tree of life. There's really not much point in survival if we never do anything more exciting than gaze at quiz shows and listen for the whistle of the four o'clock train.

IT'S QUITE POSSIBLE, of course, to live a rich life without ever seeing an ice show. But let's vow we'll never be guilty of sitting around like a toad on a stone when we might as well be out getting an eyeful somewhere.

If you would like a free booklet on "How Young People Can Plan Retirement Finances" write to this column c/o this paper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

One of the most challenging of the new stereophonic records is an assortment of percussion pieces by Dick Schory's ensemble called "Music for Bang, Baroom and Harp" (RCA Victor LSP-1866). The dimension of the sound is triple in every respect and even though notes seem to be coming from all directions, no gimmicks are employed. Schory's selections range from the National Emblem March to "April in Paris."

Stereophonic sound has given new dimension to most types of music groups, particularly small combos and vocal units.

in home after home after home...

there's always plenty of hot water

the new electric water heater way

In home after home there's a new electric water heater. And the families in these homes enjoy all the hot water they want.

You can be confident that an electric water heater, plus Edison's new Super Supply Plan, will provide round-the-clock hot water for all your family's needs, too. Then you can plan your day more efficiently—do the laundry, wash dishes, schedule showers when you want to.

Here's the convenient, modern way to GET IT HOT... GET A LOT for an operating cost as low as $3.88 per month.

Only electric water heaters give you all these important advantages!

- Efficient—the heat goes into the water
Fast—new, more efficient heating units
Install anywhere—need not be near a chimney
Long life—meet Edison's rigid standards
Automatic—all the time
Fast—new, more efficient heating units
Outer shell—cool to the touch all over
Edison maintains electrical parts without charge
Safe—clean—quiet—modern

NO deductible to pay...

when Allstate-insured cars collide! Another good reason why it pays to insure your car with Allstate.

Here's a feature of Allstate's broad protection that could save you 50 to 100 dollars someday:

When you carry Allstate Collision insurance, and hit another car insured by Allstate, you are not required to pay the deductible amount. Allstate pays your repair bills in full.

This feature is especially important when you consider that over 4,000,000 of your fellow motorists are insured with Allstate.

This is just one of the many features you get with Allstate auto insurance. For all the facts about Allstate's broad protection features... money-saving low rates... and "on the spot" claim service, talk to your Allstate Agent today.

TAKE YOUR TURN AT THE WHEEL...GET
"That New Olds Feeling"
 Move over, sir, and let her take a turn at the wheel of a '59 Oldsmobile! Yes, women love the wonderful feeling of control, comfort and elegance in this car as much as men do! While men appreciate the new power of the Rocket Engine, women like its new fuel-saving features. Men like its snap and dash. Women like the ride, the luxurious interiors. Put them all together and you've a quality combination that adds up to That New Olds Feeling! Let your Olds dealer demonstrate . . . bring the whole family along!

Ask Your Neighbor Who Uses One
A GAS CLOTHES DRYER IS THE SOLUTION TO WASHDAY DRUGGERY
 "Keeping a home in order is no easy job. I'd heard that a help. I can dry my wash but be and now I can see why. I can dry my wash in hardly no time at all and be free to do other things. Clothes are dried so nice that ironing is made easy, too."
 Old-fashioned ways of doing things are not for smart new homemakers like Mrs. Hawley. When it takes five seconds to put clothes in a Gas Dryer, why spend hours doing lifting, hauling, hanging and taking down? The convenience of a modern Gas Clothes Dryer makes good sense . . . especially the way it fits so nicely into the budget.

Newburg Resident Visits Family in Puerto Rico

By MRS. EMIL LAPOINTE
GA. 1-2029

The Newburg Community Farm Bureau met on Wednesday, Jan. 21 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Wagners with a good representation of membership present. Leonard Ritzler led the group in a song fest and some games. The business meeting followed with the primary topic being discussed, "Property Taxation in Michigan". This group will meet again on Thursday, Feb. 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritzler on Plymouth road at 8 p.m. This meeting will be a potluck late evening luncheon.

The Rhoda Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church met at the new home of Mrs. Donald Hoff, 19 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritzler on Plymouth road, Tuesday, Jan. 27. Mrs. Florence Black led the group in devotions and Mrs. Ruth Waltz directed our thinking to the foreign mission field. Mrs. Jean Greenwood read an article about Rhoda of the Bible, after whom our circle is named. Following a short business meeting in which the group decided to hold a bake sale on Saturday, April 18, refreshments were served by the hostess. Members present for the evening were Mrs. George Black, Mrs. Robert Suda, Mrs. Sam Spley, Mrs. James Greenwood, Mrs. Thomas Waltz, Mrs. Otto Erey, Mrs. Emil LaPointe, Mrs. Glenn McGhee and Mrs. Harold Knapp.

If you have ever had the pleasure of eating in a strictly Oriental restaurant you will then appreciate the thrill that was had by some of the ladies of the Newburg area when, on Thursday, Jan. 29

they all had luncheon at Chung's on Third street in the heart of downtown Detroit. Those attending were Mrs. Paul Nixon, Mrs. Thomas Waltz, Mrs. Dorothy Waltz, Mrs. Earl Waack, Mrs. Dorothy Pringle, Mrs. Emil LaPointe and Mrs. William Dorr. The purpose behind this get-together was to further this group with the gourmet of the Orient, as they comprised some of the members of the committee responsible for the success of the forthcoming Oriental dinner to be held at the Newburg Methodist church, Ann Arbor Trail and Newburg road, on Saturday, Feb. 21 from 5 to 7 p.m. When you think of Oriental food you mind automatically dwells on chop suey which is strictly American so let it be said here and now that other wonderful foods, besides chop suey will be on the menu for the night of February 21. All proceeds from this event will go to meet the church's responsibility to the Wesley Foundation which establishes Christian groups throughout the various Michigan colleges and universities.

Say, how could anyone bear to come back to Michigan with its wintry blasts of ice and snow after spending three weeks in Puerto Rico and one week in Hollywood, Florida. Well, Mrs. Arthur Hatch of Ravine drive did. The three weeks spent in Puerto Rico were used to good advantage in souvenir buying, deep sea fishing and more particularly visiting with Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Manuel Smith and their children Raymond and Susana at Ramey Air Force Base where they are stationed. Mrs. Hatch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hatch of Ravine drive. Mrs. Hatch returned with fond memories, a beautiful sun tan, and prospects of another visit sometime in the fall with Mr. Hatch going along this time.

The Sarah Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Wesley Pribe on Angeline Circle, Monday, Jan. 26 with the following members present: Dorothy Fittery, Mildred Temy, Betty Lampton, Rose Reid, Marie Carlson, Mary Forman, Mae Blanton, Laura McLeod, Mrs. Elizabeth and two guests, Shirley Jenkins and Loretta McGhee. After devotions led by Mrs. Reid Mrs. Foreman spoke to the group about Methodism in Alaska and all present were privileged to view color slides on our recently acquired 49 state. This group of ladies, along with their husbands if they care to go and anyone else interested, are taking a guided tour through the Harris Funeral home on Tuesday, Feb. 24 at 7:30 p.m. All adults over 16 are invited and the group will be given $1.00 for each person attending. Call Mrs. Leonard Ritzler for details of the trip, if you should care to go on this interesting trip.

Despite the inclement weather the boys of boy scout troop 271 and their adult leaders from St. Michael's Catholic church spent the past week on a winter fun camp out at Camp Metamora, near LaPeer. Our son, Bruce was one of the privileged group and reports that in spite of pushing cars, falling off sleds, and drinking cocoa until it came out of their ears, a good time was had by all.

Donna Bennett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bennett of Stark road is home from college between semesters. Donna attends Central Michigan in Mt. Pleasant, Michigan where she is in her sophomore year.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Howden and their family, Charles and Donna of Joy Rd., along with Sandra Simon and Corky Buckston spent the past weekend visiting with friends and relatives in Traverse City, Michigan.

In celebration of our son Bruce's 16 birthday on Sunday, Feb. 1, we had as our dinner guests, Bruce's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E.C. Weiss, Sr., of Graham road, Redford.

At a recent card party held at St. Michael's school hall and sponsored by the Moms of Ladywood High school, the following Newburg ladies attended: Mrs. Clifford Hocking, Mrs. Stuart Flaherty, Mrs. Raymond Peterson, Mrs. Irene Overmeyer, Mrs. Edith Gennis, Mrs. Georgiana Pregitzer, Mrs. Carol LaPointe, Mrs. Margaret Desmond and Mrs. Harold Mackinder.

The sympathies of the Newburg area neighbors and friends are extended to Mrs. Robert Shier of Angeline Circle on the recent death of her father, Adolph Bohl.

An inspirational investiture service in which 12 intermediate age Girl Scouts were invested into a newly organized troop was held at the Newburg Methodist church hall on Friday evening, Jan. 30 with 40 guests in attendance. The leaders of this troop are Mrs. Betty Westlund and Mrs. Brownie Flaherty. This group of girls meets every Thursday from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Westlund home in Greenwich Pointe and as a valentine gesture the girls are making up heart candy boxes filled with candy of their own making and on Thursday, Feb. 12 will be presenting them to the senior citizens at the Sumpter Rest Home. This troop will have a number soon, but as yet their designation has not come through from headquarters so until that time, any news concerning their activities will bear the "handle", newly organized. Congratulations to the girls and their leaders for their fine work.

The Lydia Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Julia Ruehle on Hix road on Tuesday morning, Feb. 2 with the following members present to make approximately 100 cancer pads; Mrs. Hazel Grimm, Mrs. Fay Grimm, Mrs. Hazel Adams, Mrs. Laura Larabee, Mrs. Elsie Hammond, Mrs. Laura Busenbark, Mrs. Angeline Norris, Mrs. Elsie Waddington, Mrs. Vera Guthrie, Mrs. Florence Mahl, Mrs. Bertha Ayres, Mrs. Sue Heisle, Mrs. Margaret Ayers, Mrs. Olive Nieman, Mrs. Gladys Arnold and a guest, Mrs. Emily Backlund. This particular group of ladies are busy preparing a "Luncheon is Served" program to be presented at the church on Thursday March 12 at 12:30 p.m. This is a program by which local advertisers come in and prepare the luncheon and all the sponsoring organization has to do is to be sure that 100 guests are in attendance to eat this deliciously different lunch. All products advertised are then given away at the close of the program as door prizes. This writer has tickets available and would be glad to oblige with reserving yours—just give me a buzz.

Tonight, February 12, 10 members of the Newburg Methodist church adult choir and their director, Mrs. Paul Nixon are to sing at the 55 annual Lincoln banquet at Presb. Methodist church on 23rd Street in Detroit. Representing the choir will be Leonard Ritzler, Paul and David Nixon, Bob Lorraine, Tom Waltz, Evelyn Shier, Laurel Dorr Jean Greenwood, Ruth Waltz and Helen Hopper.

Newburg area folks should be especially interested in the following item. Beginning Sunday Feb. 15 there will be a change in the hours of worship at the Newburg Methodist church and be noted carefully. The original 9 a.m. worship will be moved up to the 9:45 hour and will be held at the same time as Sunday school and the service will be in the hall church. The 11 a.m. worship service will remain at the same time but will move over to the old sanctuary. This move has been made hoping that more people will be encouraged to attend church with Sunday school provided at the same time to accommodate their children. Be sure to mark the date well, Sunday, Feb. 15.

The Executive board of the Newburg Woman's Society of Christian Service met at the home of the president, Mrs. Harold Mackinder with seven members present. These were Mrs. Olive Lorraine, Mrs. Vera Trost, Mrs. Dorthy Waack, Mrs. Laura Larabee, Mrs. Dorothy Pringle, Mrs. Carol LaPointe and Mrs. Loretta McGhee.

On Saturday, Feb. 14, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Ritzler of Plymouth road have invited all youth of the Methodist Youth Fellowship group of the Newburg Methodist church and the counselors to a valentine party at their home. The party will begin at 7 p.m. and last through until 11 p.m. The age of youth to which this invitation is open is 12 to 18 years of age. Let's have a good turn-out.

Well, we sure have had a nice long chat this week. Hope you missed not being together last week and will remember that GA. 1-2029 will get your news in the paper. There seemed to be so little to write about, so I hope you'll forgive me. Call on Thursday
