Slate Two Polio Shot Clinics Here

Two more polio clinics will be held in Plymouth this spring to help prevent the polio epidemic that struck hundreds of Wayne County children and adults last year.

The dates of Tuesday, April 28 and Tuesday, May 12 have been set aside for the clinics.

They again will be held at the Junior High School and will be from 10 to 3:30 p.m. The hope of ending polio will be realized only when everyone gets three properly spaced shots of Salk Vaccine, according to the Wayne County Chapter of the March of Dimes.

Confronted with an epidemic last year, citizens of Plymouth were given opportunities of having two injections of vaccine to start their protection. The third round of vaccine injections will begin in Wayne County starting April 20.

The charge per injection, as it was last fall, will be $1. While the clinics are being set up primarily to give the third inoculation, anyone may get his first or second shot at any of the clinics and then follow up a month later by going to his doctor's office for the second.

Last year's polio epidemic proved that two injections of Salk vaccine offer fairly good immunity against paralytic polio but it has also been proved that the third dose of the vaccine raises the immunity many times beyond that obtained by the first two.

Three cases of polio have been reported in Wayne County so far this year. Two 18-year-old victims have paralytic polio while the third, 26 years old, has the non-paralytic type.

Julius Saner Killed By Falling Tree

Julius Saner, Sr. died instantly after being crushed by a fallen tree in a freak accident Saturday at the new home he was building on Norway Road near Lake Michigan. Although he had hired men to cut the tree he was watching them. Witnesses say he became frozen to the spot when warned the tree was falling in his direction.

Funeral services were held from the Casterline Funeral Home, Northville, April 14 with Rev. Edgar Hoenecke of St. Peter Lutheran Church of Plymouth officiating. Mr. Saner was born in Switzerland January 5, 1893 and came to this country in 1915. (Continued on Page 8)

'Thrill of Lifetime'

Bonnie Reigns Over Auto Show

Petite Bonnie Millington, 16-year-old Plymouth High junior, will wave a scepter and wear a Queen's crown as she has the biggest weekend of her young life in her role of Miss International Auto Show when she reigns over the activities of the first Detroit International Auto Show at the Michigan State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

The show opens a three-day run on Friday (April 17) and concludes on Sunday (April 19) and Queen Bonnie will have complete charge all the way.

The Auto Show, sponsored by the Oakland County Sportsman's Road Racing Club, will have the largest collection of foreign, sports and vintage cars ever assembled in one spot in the Detroit area.

The exhibits will include more than 150 cars from the United States and five European countries — Italy, France, Britain, West Germany and Sweden — with models from 51 different manufacturers.

Blond, blue-eyed Bonnie was the choice of the show sponsors for queen due to her great love and enthusiasm for sports cars. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Millington, 14900 Beck Rd.

She is quite active in school activities and has been a majorette with the high school band for the past three years and will be captain of the majorettes next fall.

Bonnie definitely has a choice of her favorite sports car and strange enough it isn't one of the sports, foreign-made models but the Corvette.

"I'd sure like to own one," she smiled, "it would be one of the biggest moments of my life if I could sit behind the wheel of a Corvette and would be second only to my selection of Queen of the International Auto Show."

The doors will open daily at noon and close at midnight on each of the three days.

Many of the cars will be shown in the midwest for the first time, coming here directly from the mammoth New York City show which ended Sunday night.

QUEEN BONNIE Millington will reign over the Detroit International Auto Show that opens this Friday. Bonnie, a Plymouth High School junior, is shown trying out the newest Fiat "Beach" car.

LEARNING ALL they can about Plymouth's municipal operation this week are three Indonesians, being shown the city by Joseph Near, the city accountant. From left are Atmadibrata, a former regent in Java; Soenjoto, an elections bureau secretary; and Bambang, a city attorney.

Government-Sponsored Trip

Indonesians Find Out What Makes City Tick

By Jim Sponseller

Every morning this week, three men carrying briefcases step off the 9:04 train from Detroit. They climb into an awaiting car and are whisked off to Plymouth's city hall.

The three men are Messrs. Soenjoto, Atmadibrata and Bambang and their mission here is not as mysterious as one might suspect. They are merely trying to learn all they can about how the city of Plymouth operates and they want to take the knowledge back to their homeland on the other side of the world.

Their homeland is the Republic of Indonesia, one of the world's newest independent nations.

Soenjoto, Atmadibrata and Bambang are in a party of 15 Indonesians who have just completed a six-month course at Wayne State University in public administration. During the next three months they will travel from coast to coast in an attempt to learn all they can about state and local governments and how they operate.

Plymouth is one of several cities recommended for the study by Wayne State's Indonesian project director, James Jarvis. It was selected because of its "good organization."

On Monday the trio was given a tour of the city's well field, cemetery, garbage disposal site and city garage by DPW Superintendent Joseph Bida. Police Chief Kenneth Fisher also showed them the police department operation.

Assessor - Clerk Kenneth Way took over Tuesday to show them his functions as assessor. They also toured the local Burroughs plant and marveled at the big machines that they realize could make their jobs as public administrators more simple.

Wednesday was spent again with the Department of Public Works and with engineering supervisor Stan Besse. Today will be devoted to the fire department while Friday will be spent in the accounting department and administrative offices of city hall.

For those not familiar with the new Republic of Indonesia, they must first realize that it is not a small place. It has 85,000,000 people (half population of the U.S.) spread over 3,000 islands. The largest, Java, is the world's most populated area with 1,000 people per square mile. The capitol, Jakarta, has 3,500,000 people, almost the population of Chicago.

So it is easy to understand that there are municipal problems, especially in the field of transportation.

Atmadibrata, who was once regent of Madjalengka province of West Java (equal to our county government), declared that he was particularly impressed with the index system of local governments. "You have much efficiency," he added.

Soenjoto, who was secretary to the chief of the election bureau, was impressed by the voting machines. "They would never work for us though," he noted, "because we have too many political parties." In other words, they would be too

Optimists Sponsor Bicycle Competition

Bike Safety Week, designed to acquaint young cyclists with the fact that "bikes are traffic too," is again being sponsored by the Plymouth Optimist Club with a Safety Rodeo slated for Saturday, April 25.

The annual Bike Safety Rodeo will take place at 1:30 p.m. behind the High School on the recreation field. Prizes will be given to winners.

To help determine the riding ability of the youngsters, the Optimists have devised a series of skill riding tests such as balancing at slow speed, steering, circle riding, maneuvering, braking and riding over a plank.

Prizes go to those demonstrating the most skill. The top prize will be a standard make bicycle.

The school whose youngsters score the highest will be awarded a rotating trophy. Last year the trophy went to Our Lady of Good Counsel School.

Pops Concert Again Attracting Crowds

A program of familiar opera and selections from Broadway musical hits will be heard when the Plymouth Symphony presents its third annual Pops Concert Saturday, April 25.

Reserved tables are rapidly disappearing as brisk ticket sales continued, chairman Mr. and Mrs. George Hudson reported. The program, held in the high school gymnasium, provides table space for some 600 people. Starting time of the concert is 8:15 p.m.

As in the traditional Pops Concert manner, light refreshments are served during the evening to help make the rather informal affair a delightful one.

Conductor Wayne Dunlap this week announced the program that will feature in the orchestra in both operatic and Broadway musical numbers. Also appearing with the symphony will be Joanne Hulce, soprano, and Nat Sibbold, baritone. Both vocalists appeared at the first Pops Concert two years ago and won resounding approval.

Both are from Plymouth and have professional singing backgrounds—Mrs. Hulce being formerly with Phil Spitalny's All-Girl Orchestra and Sibbold as soloist with a skating show traveling both in the U.S. and Europe.

On the first half of the program will be the following: "Poet and Peasant Overture" by Suppe; "Love Music from Bambi" by Moussorgsky; Prelude from "La Praviata" by Verdi; Largo at Factotem from "Barber of Seville" with a trumpet solo by William Beitner; Anvil Chorus from "Travatore" by Verdi; Torreador's Song

2 School Board Posts Available

With two vacancies occurring on the board of education, nominating petitions are now available to prospective candidates, it was announced this week by Superintendent Russell Isbister.

The terms of Board President Austin Stecker and Vice-President James Mitchell will expire June 30. Both indicated this week that they have not decided whether to seek re-election.

The annual board of education election takes place on Monday, June 8.

To become a candidate, nominating petitions must be filed before 4 p.m. on Saturday, May 9. Nominating petitions are available at the superintendent's office. Petitions must be signed by at least 50 registered school electors. No one can sign more petitions than there are vacancies.

To seek election, one must be a registered school elector. He (or she) must own property in his own right within the school district, or it can be held jointly by man and wife.

Plymouth's school board elections have increased in popularity during recent years as apparently more people take an active interest in school affairs. In 1957 there were 946 people voting on the candidates. Last year there were 1,134. Nine candidates competed for three offices last June.

As of last year, all new terms on the board are for four years. In June 1957, electors voted to change the status of the school district from fourth class to third class.

This meant that the board would have seven members instead of five and that terms would run four years instead of three.

To get the succession of office in a proper cycle, two of last year's candidates, Robert Soth and Wesley Kaiser, were elected for four years. Another, Harold Fischer, was elected to a three year term. Next year the terms of Mrs. Esther Hulsing and Charles Zoet will expire and in 1961 Fischer's term will again expire.

Each term hereafter will be for four year's duration.

Anyone running for the school board shouldn't expect to be adequately compensated for his time. The sum of $2,000 is appropriated for salaries. With seven members now dividing the amount, each receives about $286 annually. The board holds regular meetings once a month but has special meetings nearly every week.

Where the Plymouth Community School District's administrators will hang their hats next fall is a problem now facing the board of education.

There will apparently be enough space for all students when schools re-open in September, but at the moment there are no four walls the administration can call its own next fall.

Last December the offices were moved from the Senior High in order to make more badly-needed space there. Since there were a few spare classrooms in the Junior High, two were taken over. That is where the superintendent, the administrative assistant, their secretaries and the accounting department is now located.

But in September there will be 150 freshmen overflowing from the Senior High into the Junior High. This will mean that the administrative offices must again be abandoned.

The problem was placed on Tuesday night's agenda with two alternatives noted. Since there will be absolutely no room in any existing building, it means that a new building must be constructed.

One suggestion is to build an addition to the school bus garage located adjacent to the Junior High. Later, it was felt, this addition could be turned into a warehouse and a permanent structure built.

Or, a permanent structure could be built now — that is, if money enough could be found. The board decided to approach the architects who are working on tentative plans for the new high school, Bennett and Straight, to get their advice on approximate costs.

Superintendent Russell Isbister reported that a survey of the needs during the next five years indicates that around 2,200 square feet of floor space is required. This would include a room for board of education meetings and a curriculum director.

In other business before the board, the superintendent presented a tentative budget for the 1959-60 school year that must be presented next Monday to the County Tax Allocation Board. This board meets each year to decide how to divide 15 mills among

Bids Asked For Enlargement Of Post Office

Bids are now being solicited for the enlargement and modernization of the Plymouth Post Office, John William Chapman, Jr., regional commissioner of the General Services Administration announced today.

Sealed bids must be mailed or delivered to the General Services Administration in Chicago where they will be publicly opened and read on May 12.

Contractors interested in bidding may call or write the Business Service Center, General Services Administration, 575 U.S. Courthouse, Chicago 4.

Plymouth's Post office, built in 1936, will be extended to double the working space to provide room for more efficient operation. Other improvements include the extension of the driveway, a new flag pole, new fluorescent lighting and interior and exterior painting.

A MAJOR CUT into the earth is being made to lay the Plymouth Township sanitary sewer. The manhole shown will go down to the sewer 22 feet below the surface. Starting at the western shore of Newburg Lake, the sewer laying crew is now near Robinson Subdivision. The lowest point will be 26 feet. The sanitary sewer, first to be constructed by the township, is expected to be completed by fall.

Accepts Gershwin Award

A memorable week in New York City was ended this Monday by Mr. and Mrs. Grant Beglarian of Plymouth who were in the big city to accept the annual Gershwin Award for the best orchestral composition by a young American composer.

Praise from the audience, musicians and critics was given Beglarian's work, "Diversion for Orchestra" which won the coveted award.

The piece was played Sunday afternoon by the New York Philharmonic directed by Leonard Bernstein. During intermission, the conductor presented Beglarian with the $1,000 first prize check and backstage.

Following the playing of the number, Beglarian was called on stage by Bernstein and there received an enthusiastic applause of the audience.

The Beglarians, who live at 563 Maple, went to New York on April 6 and that night the composer was given a dinner at the Friars Club by the Gershwin Foundation members.

During the week the Beglarians met with publishers and musicians. The winning composition will be added to the rental library of Chappel and Company, publishers.

New York Hails Local Composer

Probably the best testimony concerning the number's success came from members of the Symphony.

"We know several members of the Philharmonic," Mrs. Beglarian said "They told us not to expect too much from orchestra members because they seldom meet new numbers with enthusiasm. For one thing it means an extra rehearsal on Saturday morning."

But the musicians did like the piece and enthusiastically crowded around Beglarian to offer congratulations.

On Monday, the New York Times and Herald-Tribune

both devoted almost a full column in review and gave it good notices.

The 32-year-old musician, who transcribes music for publishing houses, had the number premiered by the Plymouth Symphony two months ago. He is a viola player in the local Symphony and assistant conductor.

The Sunday concert will not be heard on local radio as first expected. The Philharmonics Saturday concert are now being broadcast instead of Sunday concerts.

Lutherans Break Ground for New Northville Building

Ten a.m., Sunday, April 19, is the hour set for the groundbreaking ceremony which will precede the erection of a new Christian education building by St. Paul's Ev. Lutheran Church, High and Elm Streets, Northville. The Rev. B.J. Pankow is pastor. The public is invited.

The new structure will be located south of the church's parking lot. It will be a two-level building which will follow the slope of the land. Adjoining the scenic site is a wooded playground area traversed by a small stream. The building will include 2 classrooms, a principal's office, a library, and a large all-purpose room. Both levels will have ground exits.

Helen Farrand read an article used for the dedication of the Helen Farrand School.

Bargains In Books

Some real bargains in used books will be offered at the American Association of University Women's book sale which opens today (Thursday, April 16).

The sale is being held at Krogers and will continue through Saturday, April 18. Sale hours will be the same as the stores. Paper backs, novels, classics, children's books, and encyclopedias are among the wide selection for sale, according to Mrs. R. L. Nulty and Mrs. W. V. Clarke, book sale co-chairmen. The selection of children's books is unusually good this year they report. Prices will start at 5c.

This is the club's fourth annual sale. Proceeds of the sales go to their national and international fellowship fund. Each year fellowships are awarded to women for study and research at the doctoral level. Three AAUW fellowship recipients are now studying at the University of Michigan. They are: Mrs. Bert Aas, Oslo, Norway; Mrs. Helen Tanner, Kalamazoo, and Dr. Elizabeth Wolcott, a native of New Jersey.

Church Women To Hear "How Much Is Enough"

The annual May Fellowship Breakfast of the United Church Women of Plymouth will be held on Friday, May 8, beginning at 9:30 a.m. at St. John's Episcopal Church.

Guest speaker will be Deaconess Olive Robinson, who works with the Episcopal parishfield community at Brighton as Secretary and Treasurer and Missionary in charge of St. Steven's Church, Hamburg, Mich.

Deaconess Robinson has been in the diocese for 30 years and worked in many Missions and Parishes. Her subject will be "How Much is Enough."

Adventists Set Day of Fasting

Saturday, April 18, has been designated as a day of fasting and prayer in all Seventh-day Adventist churches, according to word received by Clarence Long, local pastor.

Special prayers will be offered for Christian work in Communist China. Though Adventist mission work has been forbidden there for many years, native pastors have been active. In recent months, however, according to reports reaching the international offices of the church in Washington, D.C., severe curtailment of religious activities has taken place.

The official proclamation called for prayers for "continued peace in a turbulent world." The Berlin crisis, uprisings in central Africa, and unrest in the Middle East, were also mentioned as foretokens of troublesome and trying days ahead.

As far as possible, all Adventists will abstain from food between sunset Friday night and sunset Saturday night, in accordance with the suggestion.

Teen Club Discuss Future Activities

Our Lady of Good Counsel Teen Club held their meeting in the basement of the Church Monday evening, April 13.

In the business meeting it was discussed that Tom Hinkley, Chairman of the Dance Committee, will Chairman a dance for newcomers for next year as well as Teen Club members and their guests.

Ideas for the Fourth of July Floats were discussed by the group. After the meeting the assembly enjoyed Bingo.

Blues Chaser

"A Monday Morning Blues Chaser" that's what the Episcopal Church Women of St. John's are planning for next Monday, April 20.

They will get together at the Church Hall to play cards and enjoy the home-made donuts and coffee.

There will be door prizes and table prizes, all for a donation of 75 cents.

They invite would-be fugitives from the laundry tub to come and join in the fun.

GARDEN GAB—
BY BILL SAXTON
Be sure and remove heavy protective mulches from roses and perennials now. Leave a light mulch until the weather really warms up. We like leaving a thin layer of mulch material on flower and shrub beds all the time. Materials like ground corn cobs, peat moss or vermiculite are effective in keeping weeds from germinating. They hold moisture and prevent surface evaporation.
The eventual breakdown of corn cobs and peat moss results in a gradual accumulation of humus in the soil and enriches it. Use plenty of high nitrogen fertilizer — 10-6-4 will do — or straight nitrogen like ammonium sulfate or soda. Use higher amounts with materials like cobs, marsh hay or sawdust that are high in cellulose and hard to decompose. If you don't feed them enough the plants will be starved for nitrogen.
If you lean to the all organic idea manures will do if applied heavily enough. Marsh hay is not as good appearance wise where it will show much.
If you are planting shrubs, trees, roses or evergreens prepare the soil with peat moss surrounding the whole root system so it will hold moisture and give them a good start. Mix some bone meal with the soil and then feed with a foliar plant food like Rap-id-gro. If you need plant materials we are receiving a large selection this week and will be glad to show you what we have.
Here are some new flower seeds we are featuring:
Welcome Alaska Larkspur (a mixture of red, white and blue flowers to welcome our 49th state into the Union); a 1959 Mandeville First Pink Heather Alyssum, a 1959 All-America Winner Cupid Marigol, an outstanding dwarf strain Pastel Pixie Lupine, a 1959 Mandeville First Panorama Snap-dragon, a special F2 mixture Drum Major Petunia, a 1959 Mandeville First Merry-Go-Round Zinnia, the newest Zinnia grown.

Michigan Lutheran Seminary Choir Sings Here Next Week

The Michigan Lutheran Seminary Choir will present a second concert at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Penniman at Garfield, on Thursday, April 23. Starting time of the concert is 8 p.m.

This group of 38 voices represents the Michigan Lutheran Seminary of Saginaw, Michigan, and is chosen from its mass chorus of over 200 voices. These young singers have a fine understanding of church music in general and of sacred hymnology in particular.

The organization is an eight-day tour of southwestern and southeastern Michigan. Professor Meilahn Zahn, head of the music department of Michigan Lutheran Seminary, directs the choir.

The concert, which will be presented in three sections, features music from the 12th century on through the modern era. The first and second sections present songs based on the Church Year. The concert is concluded with a variety of general selections.

The Brahms' motet for five voices "Salvation Unto Us Has Come," "Psalm 96" by the contemporary composer McRae, the beautiful "Christmas Carol from Lapland," and the German spiritual song "Lasst mich gehn" are among the numbers to be presented.

There is no charge for the concert, but a free-will offering will be taken. The general public is invited.

Saturday night, April 18, approximately 120 people enjoyed a memorable evening at the 13 Anniversary and Mortgage burning ceremony at the V.F.W. Mayflower Post Home.

Chairman Ed Kopenski was the able master of ceremonies; Bernice Kopenski was in charge of the delicious buffet supper. Both committees are to be commended for their work. A president was introduced they came forward and burned a piece of the mortgage. This ceremony was dramatic evidence of their parts in the attainment of this goal.

Lee Coolman's report covered the various phases of progress since Mayflower Post 6695 was instituted on April 11, 1946. After using several temporary quarters, ground was broken for the present building on Oct. 17, 1952 and the building was finished and dedicated on Feb. 20, 1955.

It was the realization of the tremendous progress made in this two and a half year period that made the entire audience proud to be present. Several past commanders emphasized the membership must now look forward to new projects if the Post is to continue to grow.

Another significant comment was made emphasizing the hope that the audience would now resolve to take an active part in the regular meetings of both the Post and Auxiliary.

Ray Danol was singularly honored for his work as Entertainment Chairman. All past commanders and presidents except Bill and Marie

The card party proceeds will be sent to the Cancer Society. A check has been sent to the Society in addition to this.

Spring housecleaning time is here and Mary Schwartz asks everyone to save their discards for the rummage sale to be held on Thursday and Friday, May 14 and 15. Please call her for pick-up.

Dorothy O'Reilly, Legislative Chairman of the Auxiliary, invited Ruth Gallagher, Department Legislative Chairman and Conductress to the last meeting to aid in clarifying the proposed use of the Veterans' Trust Fund. Dorothy would like all members to write their representatives and get the answers to her by May 1.

Lou Archer has planned another Teen-age dance on Saturday, April 18. Bob Danol will again be the disc jockey.

Madam President

Mrs. Garnet Trower

The Soroptomist Club of Plymouth celebrated their seventh year at a birthday dinner on March 18 at the Metropolitan Airport.

They maintain a loan closet, consisting of wheel chairs, canes, crutches, hospital beds, etc. Any of these items may be obtained by calling GL 3-3025 or HU 3-0584.

Although an International organization, their charitable work is done locally, and they can see their results right in the community where they live. For instance, this year, they furnished approximately $200 worth of shoes and clothing for needy children in the Plymouth Schools. This enables many children to go to school when they otherwise would not have been able to.

They have no administrative costs and have been helping handicapped folks and needy families for several years.

One way this group earns money for their charitable work is through rummage sales. They are planning one now and are in need of clothing and other articles to sell. If you have any items you would like to dispose of you may take them to Hubbs and Gilles, 1190 Ann Arbor Road, or phone Lorena Hubbs at GL 3-6420 and they will be picked up.

As President for her second term Mrs. Trower, 3977 Ervin St. leads a busy life. She is a charter member of this organization and has lived in Plymouth 11 years. She is a guardian to two sub-teen girls and owns and manages the Nu-Town Beauty Salon. Calm and cheerful Mrs. Trower, like her organization, is ready to lend a sympathetic ear or a helping hand.

JOHN DOE PASSED ON (HAPPY)

John was fifty. Being a thrifty man he had saved $2,000.00 in his Credit Union and had been receiving his 3 1/2% dividend regularly. He also owed the Credit Union $300.00 on the new stove he had purchased as a Christmas gift for Mrs. Doe.

Not being familiar with the insurance on their account you can imagine Mrs. Doe's surprise when she received their Credit Union notes marked "paid in full!"

Still greater was her surprise when she found that the $2,000.00 savings had been matched by the Credit Union and that she now had $4,000.00 and they hadn't paid one cent in premiums!

This helps to explain why so many Plymouth folks are doing their saving in the Credit Union. If you call GL 3-1200 the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union will be happy to furnish more information.

Entertained Mrs. Vivian Griffin of North Harvey entertained the following group of ladies at her home, all former neighbors: Mrs. John Langley, Mrs. W. Hoopopuro, Mrs. Arthur Martin, Mrs. Joseph Jarezynski, Mrs. Lavon Fattal, and Mrs. Louis Leksche, Jr.

Forward Look Extension Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Harlow Ingall on Joy Road Tuesday, April 21 at 1 o'clock.

Worden Extension Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Jewell Coon of Brookville Road on April 28.
The Wide Awake 4-H Club will hold its first meeting of the year at the Frank Geiger home on Five Mile Rd. at 8 p.m. on April 20.

Gail O'Brien of Six Mile Road celebrated her birthday on Tuesday.
The N.E.W. Farm Bureau was held April 9 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Van Bonn with 14 attending. The May meeting will be held at the Henry Beck home on Tower Road. Mrs. Van Bonn served a wonderful lunch.

The following is an annual report covering the Salem Township police patrol car, also known as Washtenaw County Sheriff's car No. 39 for the period April 1, 1958 through March 31.

The deputies answered 16 personal injury automobile accidents in which 25 persons were injured and 32 property damage automobile accidents in which the damage amounted to $100 or more.
The deputies answered 105 complaints that were called in by citizens of the Township, of which 34 were written complaints and 71 were of such nature that only a report was necessary; 17 arrests were made for the following: five for driving under the influence of liquor, six drunk and disorderly, 1 for carrying a concealed weapon, one for contributing liquor to minors, two for theft of corn, two for disorderly fighting; two complaints on littering the highway of which one received a ticket; assisted in 24 fires as traffic officer; investigated four attempted breaking and entering complaints and assisted by County Detectives on six similar complaints. Investigated one larceny from a raid, assisted in six A.I.R. raids and served 12 summons; investigated reports on four stolen automobiles, one scooter and one tractor, helped to recover eight stolen automobiles; patrolled for the Rodeo at Saddle Ridge, for beef inspection tour at the Huff Farm; directed and patrolled traffic for football games; assisted County Officers in five Personal Injury and 2 property damage car accidents; investigated nine complaints on stray dogs, assisted the County Dog Warden 4 times and helped to confiscate 25 dogs on one complaint; investigated four dog bites; had reports on three sick persons transported one to hospital in patrol car, called an ambulance to transport the other two to the hospital; eight other persons were transported to the emergency ward at St. Joseph by Patrol car, as waiting for an ambulance may have been too late.

Assisted County Agent from Probate Court for Juveniles, investigated a bicycle being hit by a car, answered 37 complaints on hunters, a complaint of reckless use of fire arms, investigated one suspicious person and 12 suspicious car complaints; assisted County Officers on a possible murder charge, spikes in highway; made 12 monthly liquor inspections, had six charge of address of drivers license; one report of possible rape charge.

In Japanese, that's Cherry Blossom Time... in "seniorese" it's the Prom!
The class of '59 has only 13 days to finish the pretty pink cherry blossoms, their cardboard, life-size figures of Chinese ladies and Chinamen plus the boat, teahouse and bridge which they are constructing to completely transform Plymouth's gym for the May 2, 8 to midnight formal.
Since the beginning of March, seniors have been working on the most important dance of their high school careers... it was that early that the Senior Executive Board appointed Betsy Edgar general chairman for the important event. Pat Nickerson and Mary La Fleur decorations.
Others assuming responsibility were Janet West, refreshments; Jeanette Ridley, tickets and programs; were selected to surprise decorations; Edie Dibble and Jo Ann Nagy, publicity; Jim Cutler, lighting; Dave Graves, furniture; Gail O'Donnell, chaperones and Betsy Mueller, check room. Thirty others are working on these committees.

Those on the executive board who made the Prom appointments are President Dick Small, Vice-President Glyn North, Secretary Carole North, Treasurer Ken Jacobus, and Student Council members Jonie Izett, Linda Heric, Lois Austin and Hale Huber.

At the District Forensic Contest last Wednesday, senior Glyn Norton added another prize to his growing list of "honors received." Glyn took the top award for interpretive reading at the district and will go to the Regional contest at Melvindale in the near future.

At the regionals, each contestant, talented Glyn among them, draws four topics and chooses one of the four... he is then given an hour to prepare a reading.
Initiation for Quill and Scroll, the honorary journalism society, were last night with Carole North, Nora Sarah and Miss Elizabeth McDonald doing the honors. Dick Hubert was the only male in the group, others initiated were Sharon Neal, Sandra Bailey, Judy Herick and Gloria Bowles.

Responding to the ultimatum by the state fire marshal that Plymouth High needed some fire safety changes, two men, tape measures and architectural plans in tow, were seen on the third floor of the high school last week.

From The TEACHER'S DESK

(Prepared by a committee of teachers representing a joint committee of the Board of Education and the Plymouth Education Association.)

An enlightening Evening

On the evening of this writing the writer was offered a most enlightening experience. The writer accompanied high school teacher of methodology, Mr. Bill Browne, to church youth fellowship to discuss some of the many problems confronting students of today.

It really didn't matter that this was a church group, or for that fact which church it was. What is important is that we met with a group of young people who voluntarily had assembled on a Sunday evening, during the hours of Maverick and Steve Allen, to find out more about themselves and other people.

As is always the case, the teachers also learned a great deal during the interchange of conversation. We were a great reminder by the nature of the questions asked of us that these young minds were probing for answers to real problems that present a serious challenge to our young people.

It is doubtful that this is the first time these questions have been asked. At certain times during the educational process the student finds that he has reached a point where some real introspection is in order if he is to proceed successfully.

A deluge of questions that would most certainly surprise nearly every element of classroom experience came forth. Here was perhaps an ideal situation whereby some of the broader concepts of education could be discussed with real meaning in an informal atmosphere. Mr. Brown and the writer felt that it was unfortunate that this group could not have been much larger, and that the parents of these students could not be present.

We could itemize the topics discussed in this meeting: the dangers of over-indulging in extracurricular activities; why do people go into the teaching profession; etc., but the main idea is that parents as well as students might have asked these questions.

It is perhaps more important to examine the results of informal teacher-pupil discussions, rather than the nature of the topics discussed. We would remind our readers that the process of maintaining a sound educational system is dependent upon the amount of contact the public has with that system.

Some organized efforts toward the development of the discussions described above might contribute greatly to a better understanding of the overall Plymouth educational picture. It might also provide insight into one of the many ways a teacher is valuable to his community.

Contractor Leo Arnold Dies at 46
Funeral services were held Monday afternoon for Leo W. Arnold, widely known local contractor, who died April 7 at the age of 46. He took his own life.

The Rev. Robert Richards conducted services at the Schrader Funeral Home at 3 p.m., followed by interment in Oakland Hills Memorial Gardens. Masonic services were conducted by the Plymouth Rock Lodge 47, F & AM.

Mr. Arnold, who lived at 47820 West Ann Arbor Trail, had come to the community in 1938 from Oklahoma. He was born in Sparks, Okla. on Nov. 7, 1912 to Charles Henry and Cora Mae (Allenbaugh) Arnold. He was married to the former Beatrice Cunningham who survives with the following relatives:

His mother, Mrs. Cora Mae Arnold of Muskogee, Okla.; a son, James Arnold of Plymouth; two daughters, Mrs. Jana Eckler of Garden City and Mrs. Betty Lanphar of Garden City; two stepsons, Patrick Herbert and Michael Herbert of Plymouth; two sisters, Mrs. Vernal Little of Muskogee, Okla. and Miss Irene Arnold of Jackson, Miss.; three brothers, Frank of Harlan, Iowa, Alvin of Sparks, Okla. and Jack of Plymouth; and two grandchildren.

He was a member of the Plymouth Rock Lodge, F & AM.

THE MAIL ATTITUDE
BY PAUL CHANDLER

Not everything which would help Plymouth in combating the increasing competition of big shopping centers need be frightfully expensive. Among lesser items, but proven vitally important by actual practice, is that of brighter street lighting.

Many new methods of illumination are on the market, all aimed at making the business areas "bright as day" for nocturnal shoppers. The impact of such lighting upon visitors is psychological — it provides a clean, modern, hustling atmosphere throughout the place where they are buying.

The neighboring city of Belleville recently brought in Detroit Edison and had that firm install the most modern kind of fluorescent light in three business blocks.

Merchants are so pleased there that an extension of the program to six more blocks has been launched.

In this connection, The Mail offers a couple of ideas: (1) Street lighting could be financed on a special assessment basis in the areas involved, or possibly by a slight shift in personal property taxation on the properties benefitting.

(2) The general problem of street lighting throughout Plymouth, including residential, will continue to be a growing one. We'd like to see the Mayor appoint a new "Street Lighting Commission" composed of residents and merchants to conduct studies, prepare plans, handle requests and complaints, and generally set up our city lighting on an orderly, planned basis.

Two items from Livonia have interesting slants for Plymouthites. Last week the Livonia school board handed down a new curriculum policy to its superintendent based on a "tougher" high school program. Livonia parents and educators have been discouraged by the small percentage of Bentley High graduates who continue on to higher education.

Livonia now is calling for: (1) at least 3 years of high school English, compared to the present compulsory two; (2) Adding another year of "social studies," bringing the total from 1 1/2 to 2 1/2; (3) One year of mathematics after junior high will be required for graduation and also one year of science in the same period; (4) Greater emphasis on health education; (5) The school day should be lengthened from 6 1/2 hours to 7 hours (a 15 percent increase); (6) A systematic course of study involving at least six semester hours should be required of each graduate in a field of specialization.

"We are aware of the fact that many of our students now use their elective options to select largely unrelated courses," noted the Livonia board.

A hot little chestnut was delivered by the postman to the Livonia City Hall a few days ago. It's a letter and tells its own story: Mr. William W. Brashear Mayor, Livonia township Livonia, Michigan Dear Sir:

It is hopeful that this letter will be the beginning of a solution to a problem that has long been obvious to many of us. Despite many changes and much progress in recent years, we recognize the problems concerning race relations, is yet to be solved.

We, as the Union Leadership, with the Labor Movement feel that with the political leaders of Livonia, where we have over 1500 Union Members working at the Chevrolet, Spring and Bumper Plant, might establish a foundation for future progress along these matters, if we could arrange a meeting, at your earliest convenience, to sit down together and in our meager way, with the basic principles of good unionism in mind, and with the influential leadership of your community, take a good look at the problem in question, namely, Federal Housing, which needs to be everybody's problem inasmuch as, when only certain members of our membership and also members who work in the Livonia area, but must live many miles from their work, are not allowed to purchase property for obvious reasons.

May I point out, as President of this Local Union my specific concern is to promote a better understanding, as to fair race relation practices and to make an honest endeavor to eliminate discrimination affecting the welfare of members in the Union, as a whole.

Trusting you will comply with this request at your earliest convenience.

Very sincerely yours,
George W. Hulitt, President No. 262,

Achievement Day at Junior Hi

The Northwest District Association will hold their annual Achievement Day at the new Junior High School this year on Saturday, April 18 from 4 to 6 p.m.

The exhibits will be on display for the public and will consist of Clothing, Conservation, Photography, Foods, Personal Improvement, Child Care, Home Improvement, Knitting and Family Life.

Newcomers Club Plans May Dance

The Newcomers Club of Plymouth held their April meeting at Fox Hills Country Club. Since this was a business meeting there was no guest speaker for the afternoon.

Future calendar dates were discussed. One to circle for sure is the Spring Dance to be held this year at the Elks Club in Plymouth Township on May 2. A midnight supper will be served and the evening sounds like something special.

Money from club projects, this year, will be channeled to Plymouth Friends of Northville State Hospital, a new organization that is sponsoring a ward at the hospital.

The Newcomers also sponsor Girl Scout Troop 274, of the Helen Farrand School with Mrs. William Feight as Scout Leader.

Election of officers will be on the agenda for the May 7 meeting. More details later on the Spring Dance for May 2.

A.A.U. Swimming In Pool Saturday

The Plymouth high pool will be a busy place Saturday as the Dolphin Swimming Club, Plymouth Recreation Dept. and the Michigan Amateur Aquatics Inc. join forces to hold the Age Group Swimming for Boys and Girls.
John McFall, meet manager, will be in charge of the event as the swimmers come from all over to take part in the meet. So far Chicago holds the record for being the most distant. The meet is open to applicants from both the United States and Canada.
All the swimmers are registered with the A.A.U. This is one of the requirements set forth in the entry blank.

The swimmers will be competing in their own age bracket except possibly in the case of relays.
Divided into four age groups, 10 and under, 11 and 12 Yr. olds, 13 and 14 plus a 15 and over age group, the meet is to start at 2 p.m.
Time is the determining factor in this contest as there will be no qualifying races before the actual meet starts.
The afternoon's program calls for 17 events to be held with the winners given awards for the first three places, ribbons for the next three and trophy for the high point boys and girls team.

By LEE SECHLER
Mike Hoben missed the first baseball game of the season. Not because he didn't want to see or take part in it, but because he is in traction at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor. Mike has been there going on two weeks, with back trouble. The doctors are waiting to see if the traction will help. If not an operation is the order.

Mike is now faced with the problem of having nothing to do all day but rest. This is tough. For Mike always put in a lot of hours over and above the normal teaching load. It seems that there was always some student that needed extra help. There is one bright side to all of this though, John Sandmann took Mike all of last season's football movies and the projector. I pity the poor nurse that tries to interrupt long enough to try and take his temp. Or at least I was told they were football movies.

Why not drop him a card or stop over and see him? His room number is 373.

The Plymouth thinclads will host the Bentley crowd tomorrow afternoon on the local athletic field.

Last season the Rocks captured second place in the suburban league.

Of the 65 that started practice, thirty some are scheduled to take part in the afternoon's varsity competition.

Twelve golfers were picked after the final qualifying trials were held last Thursday.

John Sandmann, golf coach announced the names of the twelve, of which four are returning lettermen from the '58 season.

Returning lettermen were, Taylor, Atchinson, Hayskar and McAllister supported by Rank, Izette, Selle, Huffman, Gretzinger, Rew, Fletcher and Smith.

Mentor Sandmann will lose three of the above through graduation this June. The opening match for the Rocks is set for April 20 at Bentley.

Everyone was interested in the Tiger's opener last Friday. In fact everyone was there, including old man cold weather. It was so cold that I kept waiting for the Lions to put in an appearance. For a while it developed into a three ring circus. What to watch? The ball game or the fights in the bleachers? So I watched both. At one point in the game a colored fan became so excited that he threw away his hat. But no matter what happened it was the opening game of the season. And with it went all the fan fare of a first night opera production.

The governor was there catching instead of throwing as he usually does.

Sunday afternoon's sun brought the tennis players out into the open at Cass Benton park. Every court was filled by people of most all age groups enjoying a chance to get out.

Noticed quite a few people getting out their scrapers and paint to put the old boat into shape for the coming water months ahead. Even saw a girl carrying her water skiing equipment down the street Monday. Should think that was rushing the idea just a little.

Girls have invaded the sand lot ball game across the street from where my clothes are hung. Funny thing the boys don't seem to mind it a bit.

Tennis coach Jim Doyle has started the ladder system for his racket men. Under this competitive program every player plays against the other members of the squad for a right to play in the next meet. In this way the boys always have to look sharp and take an interest in the game or out they go by their own doing. Not only does this improve the sport but it means that the players are out because they have the desire to play the game and not to fluff off.

This coupled with the fact that the boys are getting some instruction could add up to a much, much better squad than last season produced or allowed to survive.

May ninth has been set for the annual Swimmers-Parents get together to be held this year in the Jr. High cafeteria at 6:30.

Swimming coach John McFall has invited a guest speaker from the University of Michigan and the meal is to be a pot-luck style affair.

Held every year, it gives parents, student swimmers, alumni swimmers and coach a get together and enjoy it themselves. A football banquet of the water crowd, so to speak.

Fox Hills and Rotary Plan Charity Event

(This is the last in a series of articles concerning the area's golf courses.)

It takes work, cooperation, ideas, money, time and more WORK to transform a public golf course into a smooth running country club. But that's what has been done at Fox Hills and in less than two seasons.

This time next year will, if plans go as they have to this point, find a new swimming pool at the end of the locker room. The locker room, 49x87 ft., is slated for completion on or about May 15th. The building was designed with the addition of the pool, so that the two could and will serve each other.

Although some activity is scheduled for every week, the Fox Hills Club has highlighted the season by holding a special Tournament to raise money for crippled children. The Plymouth Rotary and the members a nd officers of the club have joined together to make this event, set in the middle of June, a large money making charity project for the crippled children.

Besides the big special event, the club has four major tournaments of its own. The first of these is the Directors' Trophy in May, the President's cup in June, the Club Champion, both male and female, on the Labor Day weekend and the annual Bombay tournament to finish the golfing season.

There are two types of memberships at Fox Hills. One is a full or class "A" and the other is a social. The class "A" carries a $240 upon joining fee and a $25 a month. This entitles the holder and his family to all the rights and privileges of the club. The social membership is attained by paying an $80 fee upon joining and dues of $5 per month. This allows the member the use of the club house and the right to attend all social functions.

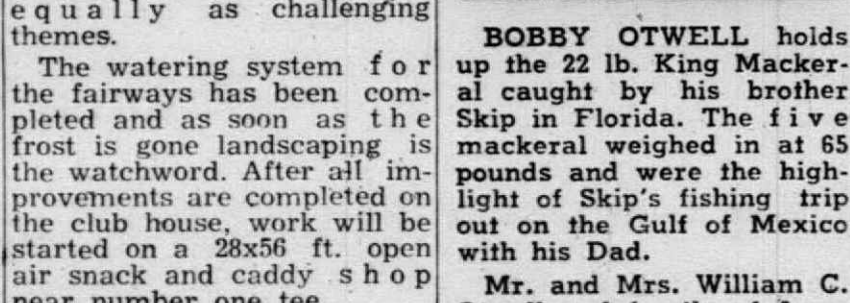

At the present time the social calendar is booked solid for the coming year. Club president Gerald Pease says the club is planning to add shuffle board and badminton courts for the social members. Every other week there are dances on Saturday night. Each dance is different in that they each have a theme. For example, the dance coming up is a Hat Dance, with others to come equally as challenging themes.

The watering system for the fairways has been completed and as soon as the frost is gone landscaping is the watchword. After all improvements are completed on the club house, work will be started on a 28x56 ft. open air snack and caddy shop near number one tee.

Doug Jetter is the new club pro. During the winter months Doug was an instructor in golf at the adult education classes. He will be available during the summer to help with any and all golfing problems.

President Gerald Pease stated that had it not been for the interest that the members have taken in Fox Hills the many improvements couldn't have been accomplished. At the present time the class "A" membership stands at 247 with the social at 127. At the end of the current year the social membership is expected to reach the 200 mark.

If anyone is interested in finding out more about Fox Hills Country Club, they are invited to call Gerald Pease. President Pease says he would be more than happy to answer any questions Plymouth residents might have.

Hubert Wins Basketball Award

Bill Hubert, freshman at Central Michigan College, was awarded his varsity basketball letter for the '58-'59 season. The announcement of this honor was made by the athletic director, Dan P. Rose.

Last year Bill was the Rock's leading scorer, as he dumped in 161 points to end his high school career. The coaches of the suburban league named him to the Suburban Six League first team and his teammates elected him most valuable player.

During the '58-'59 competition, Bill was a top freshman contender for the guard positions and at times making the more experienced college cagers work to hang on to their starting berth.

Baseball Season Opens As Rocks Drop Thurston

Plymouth opened the baseball season as they dumped Thurston 3-0 Tuesday afternoon at Thurston.

Tuesday's game gave coach Bill Brown a chance to check on what changes must be made in the line-up and the practice sessions, to keep the team on the championship trail that it has followed for the past two seasons.

Left hander Randy Egloff went the entire distance, throwing 92 pitches while allowing three hits and one walk.

The Rock scoring came in the first and third innings. Woodard collected the first inning run and Wells and Mynatt accounted for the other two.

The Rocks were limited to four hits for the afternoon's work and had to go hard for them. It wasn't that they couldn't connect, more that the balls were going where they shouldn't have, namely into Thurston's gloves.

Thompson turned in the best batting performance for the first game, as he was two for three and is credited for one RBI.

Morrill covered the mound for Thurston, throwing the ball 99 times to allow Plymouth four hits and two base on balls.

Conservation Notes

LANSING, Apr. — Private land owners planning to order young trees for the spring planting season are urged to do so now by the Conservation Department.

Ordinarily stock is shipped from the Department's three state nurseries during the April 20-May 30 period. However, winter's prolonged stay is expected to delay the shipping season by 8-10 days this year which, in turn, will shorten the planting season.

Shipments are made on a "first come, first serve" basis; approximately 9,000,000 young stock have already been ordered from more than 15,000,000 placed on sale in late January.

A good supply of red pine seedlings and transplants and jack pine seedlings remain. White spruce transplants are no longer available for sale.

All applications must be submitted to the Department's forestry division, Lansing 26, on the regular stock order form. Other blanks may be obtained from the forestry division.

among the sightless. On the committee to plan the week's events are: from left, standing, Walt Skingley, chairman; Bill West, co-chairman; Bill Febleg, kneeling; John Kerchiu and Bob Egedelyi.

North Plymouth and Farrand School News

By IRENE CANNING
GL. 3-1244

Hi Neighbors! It's just about the time of year when the woman of the house decides she wants to paint things, move furniture around the home, buy new curtains and etc. The man can be seen with a far-away look in their eyes, while they are pouring over the latest seed catalogues and checking their fishing equipment. Have you been watching the kites flying around lately? If you look closely you may see some kites hung on the tops of telephone poles.

Ideals are as different as viewpoints, but real success is not wealth or fame, but helpfulness. Do something worthy of your powers. Shoemakers and stokers are as necessary as scientists or statesmen, and any helpful work is honorable, but to be a thinker is to be unsuccessful. He who molds iron when he could shape destinies, or directs a ship when he could guide an empire, fails. Success consists in never being discouraged, but in ever moving forward, cheering, helping, being your very best, and leaving the world better for your life.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grimes and daughter Paula of Schoolcraft Road spent an enjoyable vacation in Berne, Missouri. They visited Mrs. Grimes' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J.F. Hill of Berne, Missouri. The Grimes family flew from the Metropolitan Airport to Berne and back. They left Plymouth March 29 and returned April 5.

Farrand School News:
The PTA will hold their executive meeting on April 21. The regular meeting will be held on the 28 of the month. Everyone is invited.

A Science Fair will be held in the school on April 23. Each room in the school will have an entry. Mr. Warren Eschber is in charge of the program.

The fathers will have recreation night Thursday at 7:30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cane the hosts at a surprise birthday party which was given in honor of Mrs. Cane's daughter, who was 78 years young on April 13. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ray Gardner, Vicki Gardner, Julie Gardner, Evelyn Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hatfield and son Larry, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Cannady and son Gary and daughter Shannon, Mr. and Mrs. William Benton and Mrs. Freda Levenseller. Mrs. Benton received many lovely useful gifts including two beautiful birthday cakes. We wish this kind, gracious Grandma many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wheaton of Lakeland and their two children Rene two and-a-half, and Derek, who is eight-months old, left March 31 for Gallien, Mich. They visited the A.H. Mollbergs of Gallien, then journeyed to Galesburg, Mich. where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wheaton. Mr. Wheaton spent some time carp shooting with his father in the Kalamazoo River. They captured about 100 pounds of carp with their bow and arrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Butler of Finch Street had a family get-together on April 12. The occasion was the baptism of their seven-month-old son Brett Wayne. He was baptized at the Presbyterian church in Northville.

The Misses Barbara Mary and Parris Road and Sharon Canning of Schoolcraft Road attended a hayride on April 9. The Junior Sunday School class of the Nazareth Church in Plymouth sponsored the hayride. Hot dogs and marmalades were served in the parsonage basement. The winning team received banana splits as a reward, or bringing in the largest number of boys and girls to Sunday School. Games and recreation were enjoyed by 39 Juniors.

The hayride was in charge of Mr. Dean Hamlin and Mr. Dale Welton.

The sudden passing of Mrs. Jean Micol of Schoolcraft Road leaves an empty place in our neighborhood group that cannot be filled. We offer our deepest sympathy to Mr. Ronald Micol, his children Peter, five, Eric, three, Ronda, Jean, one and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Klopfenstein of Park Road, parents of Mrs. Micol. The Micol family have only lived in our neighborhood since last October, but we who have known them have grown to love and appreciate this family and Mrs. Jean Micol was an active member of the Riverside Park Church of God of Ligoniam, where she was in charge of Junior Church and Bible School. She was a member of the Pulpit Committee, Flower Committee and the Ladies Missionary Society. We have no doubt but that her Christian influence will be felt in the neighborhood.

Miss Elaine Canning of Schoolcraft Road was a member of the motorcycle club that drove to Kankakee, Illinois on Thursday, April 9. The occasion was open house at Olivet College in Kankakee, Illinois. The following young people from the Plymouth area took part: Mr. and Mrs. Ray Williams and daughter Shelly, Sandy Olsen, Beulah Yaeger, Carol Rouse, David Swain, Barbara Klump, Beverly Raycroft, Karen Lucas, Barbara Lucas. The young people spent Thursday night and Friday night at Olivet College. A Banquet was held at the college on Friday evening in honor of the young people from the state of Michigan. They returned home Saturday afternoon.

Please phone your items of interest in the neighborhood to GLENVIEW 3-1244. See you in the North Plymouth area news next week.

Kiwanis International Moves Into New Central Office in Chicago

The General Office of Kiwanis International moved into new quarters—the just-completed Kiwanis International Building at 101 E. Erie Street in Chicago—on Friday, March 20, it was announced by William Sempliner president of the Kiwanis Club of Plymouth. All 115 of the international service organization's general office employees will be housed in the new million dollar structure. From this building 4600 U.S. and Canadian Kiwanis Clubs will be serviced.

The new building is constructed of masonry, marble, structural metal and glass. It was designed to express the spirit of Kiwanis and to provide the best possible facilities for service to Kiwanis clubs and their members. It represents the fourth home office which Kiwanis has occupied in Chicago.

The building consists of three levels. It fronts on Erie Street, a half block west of Chicago's famed "Magnificent Mile." A ground-level landscaped court and a parking area share the rear portion of the property. The new structure stands on a site formerly occupied by the home of the late Anita McCormick Blaine, granddaughter of the inventor of the reaper. The Kiwanis International Building is air-conditioned throughout, fitted modern lighting equipment, sound-deadening ceilings, and light, movable metal partitioning. In the reception foyer stands a 35 foot curved mosaic mural depicting Kiwanis' community service work. This is executed in Venetian tile. In front of the mosaic is a halo-lighted oval map of the North American continent (Kiwanis' current field of operations) with numerical lights indicating the scope of Kiwanis' outreach.

The Reader Speaks Up

(Ed. Note: Columnist for Canton Township, Esther Sprengle has been doing a history on Canton Township with the aid of many of the long time residents.)

To: Miss Esther Sprengle I have been reading your News of Canton Past News and I find you have left out one of the Saffords, my grandfather James A. Safford, who came here from the East and settled on the farm where the Air Port is. Rufus Safford was a brother of my grandfather. His wife was Aunt Eletha. I have been in her home.

My grandfather was married to Helen Adams. My grandfather's family was Joseph, who both went (Albert) to California in an early day; Jason is a Christian Science practitioner in Detroit.

Henry, who always lived in Plymouth, had Mrs. Phila Harrison Underwood, Alice Safford and Don Safford in his family.

Kenneth Harrison, son of Mrs. Underwood is a descendant of Saffords. I am not a very good reporter, but wanted to get the family all in.

Youth Receives Honorable Mention

Taddy Johnstone, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark Johnstone, 16595 Homer Road, Plymouth, received an Honorable Mention in the Clothing Construction class for the 13-14 year old at the 12 Annual Central Michigan Youth Talent Exhibit and Science Fair. The event, held in Lansing April 5-12, was sponsored by the State Journal, Oldsmobile, and the Lansing Recreation Dept.

Every entry is the work of the individual and judged in their group and classification. Working at the Michigan School for the Blind, in spare time, Taddy completed her entry for this year's show.

There is no water on the moon, only (presumably) rocky surface. Its days are about two weeks long, as are its nights.

Organizations Urged to Plan Michigan Week Observances

City Manager Albert Glassford, chairman of Michigan Week for Plymouth, urged all people in this area to start getting ready for Michigan Week May 17-23. It will soon be here, he said, and plans for the observance should be completed soon and everyone should join in the celebration.

Director Giving 'Wake Up Darling' Musical Treatment

Ever wonder about a Broadway musical comedy and how the show acquires the final aura of magic? What magic does the director possess to turn a near-hit into a roaring success? The spring production of the Plymouth Theater "Wake Up, Darling" is going to take its audiences backstage and show them these delightful mysteries.

"Wake Up, Darling" like the previous Plymouth Theater Guild hits, will present new and fascinating techniques in theater production. Director Bob Wall produces an exciting and hilarious evening of wonderful nonsense interspersed with liberal quantities of music.

A little known, but highly important fact concerning "Wake Up, Darling" is that the author Alex Gottlieb had a definite Broadway musical in mind when he wrote his play. Director Bob Wall has pepped up the proceedings by introducing some of the actual numbers from that 1946-47 New York hit musical.

Director Bill Grimmer, three vocal numbers will become a part of the show. Bill has a room in the choral group for a few more voices. Call Marie Bowers at GL. 3-3311 and submit your name if you'd like to yodel a few catchy Broadway tunes for "Wake Up, Darling." The Our Lady of Good Counsel choir will provide the basis for the choral group, but everyone is welcome to help out.

David Graves and Larry Livingston, two Plymouth High School students of musical note, have been signed to appear with the coming production. Dave will be spotlighted early in the show with a rousing solo number, "Wake Up, Darling," a lively, rollicking show, plans to give its audiences an evening of music and laughter that Plymouth will long remember. The first week in May promises to open new vistas for the Plymouth Theater Guild in the field of spicy comedy and ear-pleasing music.

To Charge Tuition For Most Summer Courses

Summer courses offered by the Plymouth Community School District will go on a self-sustaining basis this year, according to a decision made at a board of education meeting Monday night.

Tuition will be charged for the courses that are offered elementary, junior and senior high pupils as well as adults. This tuition will place part of the program on a self-supporting basis and save the school district some $9,900, based on last year's enrollment.

The summer playground program is also being cut to provide a saving of around $4,500 by having just one supervisor at each playground instead of two.

Plymouth's full-fledged summer program that has included regular courses has been offered for two years. There has been some public criticism of the program because of the cost which last year was around $21,000. Some citizens and board members too, felt that since only certain students needed the extra courses, they should pay for them.

Some students took the courses because they were "slow" learners, others took them just for something to do in the summer. Some high school students took courses that they couldn't ordinarily fit into their schedules.

Approved Monday night was a program that will charge tuition of $8 per class for six weeks of one hour daily instruction (non-credit).

Also offered for the first time will be Senior High courses for credit. These will cost $20 and classes will meet two hours daily for a period of eight weeks.

Courses offered for elementary and junior high pupils are arithmetic, reading, instrumental music, art, industrial arts, home economics and typing (7th and 8th graders).

Senior high credit courses will be English, world history, American history, U.S. government, typing, business machines, bookkeeping, chemistry I and II, and physics I and II.

All courses will need at least 15 students.

The only course still not charging tuition is driver education. Driving is a required course now in Michigan and is partly paid by the state. Since it is cheaper to offer the course in the summer and driving course facilities are already overburdened during the school year, the board decided to continue driver education at no cost.

In years past, the summer program was closed to non-residents because it was free. Now that tuition is paid, non-residents may participate.

Registration will take place during the week of June 1. Most of the Senior High courses will be offered in the Junior High building because of alterations taking place this summer at the Senior High.

Playgrounds will be opened June 23 at the same 12 locations as last year. But instead of there being one leader and one assistant at each playground, there will be but one leader. Hours will also be shortened.

Last year the playground program cost around $10,000. The cost this year, including tennis and arts and crafts specialists, will be $5,493.

New Art Group Forming In Lake Pointe Village

By MARCY BARTSON
GL. 3-6729

Here is a grand opportunity for all would-be artists to get into the swing of it. Beth Perkins of Hammill Lane really has a marvelous idea, one that has been working out great over in Wayne. She has been attending weekly meetings there in a friend's recreation room. Here everyone gathers together to do any type of art work that interests each individual. Beth would like to start a similar program here in our Village. The alternating meetings could take place in the recreation or basement areas of each person's home. All you need is whatever your medium in art calls for. Some might like to do oil painting, water colors, charcoal, sketching, pastels and so forth. Anyone interested in joining this group may call Beth at her home, GL. 3-0958. Sounds like so much fun that I think I'll drag my supplies over to the very first meeting!

Jack and Beth Perkins have been in the Village since February and are really enjoying it here, as is their five-year-old daughter, Patrice. Jack claims golfing and bowling as his favorite pastimes. He is with the Abner Wolf Distributing Company. As you may have guessed by now, Beth is very interested in art and all its various forms. She has taken ceramic lessons, and even a cake decorating class was in order. She also likes to bowl and plays a few rounds of golf too. Don't forget to call and let her know if you are interested in the art meeting group.

Well, the time is here again for digging, planting, sowing, and raking. Have seen many beautiful shrubs added to the landscaping, and the grass is getting greener and greener all the time. Speaking of planting, I hope this doesn't happen at Lake Pointe this spring: Heard of a suburban couple, who, late in the fall, received a hundred tulip bulbs from a friend in Holland. The wife kept asking her husband to plant them, until in desperation she did the job herself. Naturally, he was delighted—until the flowers came up in the spring and he saw that they proclaimed in glowing colors: "John is Lazy." Beware men, lest this happens to you. Now that the idea is out, it could, you know!

Cherie Welsenburg says that while Don was out in the woods, cleaning up the area near the rear of their lot, he found two toy guns. They are in nice condition, and probably some little men are feeling pretty sad about their loss.

CD Test Reminder

Another reminder was given this week to residents about Friday's Civil Defense test. Sometime during the day the city sirens will sound for one long continuous blast. When the test is over, the all-clear signal will be three one-minute siren blasts with two minute intervals. Many people, unaware of the test, are expected to flood city hall with inquiries.

Indonesians Find Out

small to handle the large balloons.

The other visitor, Bambang, has the job equivalent to a city attorney in Sarabaya.

The men are particularly interested in finding out more about interdepartmental and intergovernmental coordination, personnel administration and keeping records.

In Indonesia, the police department and courts are under the federal government, not local government. It is this type of delegation of authority in the U.S. that interests the men.

When they return, they expect to make many recommendations based upon their observations. They will return home in July.

Each of the men speak English quite well.

Indonesia was formerly known as Netherland East Indies. Following the Japanese occupation that ended in 1945, a Nationalist move led by Dr. Achmed Sukarno and Dr. Hatta proclaimed a republic. There was four years in intermittent warfare with the Netherlands, ending in an agreement in 1949 transferring the islands, except Netherlands, New Guinea, to Indonesia.

Like most new nations, civil war later broke out which was quenched by the government.

But despite problems, Indonesia's future looks bright if their leaders are as determined as Messrs. Soenjoto, Atmadibrata and Bambang. If the new nation does profit from the experiences that these three men have in America, Plymouth may be able to lay some small claim to this contribution.

the county, school boards and townships. Fifteen mills is the limit that can be taxed the three units without a vote of the electorate. The amounts have remained the same for school boards during the last six years.

The tentative budget is for $2,048,995, or an increase of $159,747.88 over this year. The largest increase, $155,100, will be due to teacher salary increases and the addition of 10 teachers. The actual budget will not be submitted to the board until the state sets its equalization.

Twenty workers in the system's eight cafeterias will receive a 10 cent per hour increase immediately. The board approved the increase following a request from the employees. The cafeterias as a whole operate in the black, but three individual cafeterias are now in the red.

Two contracts were approved with architects. Bennett & Straight's contract for the proposed high school was approved. Their services will be terminated if a bond issue for the high school is voted down.

Wheeler & Becker, Architects, will draw plans for revising the area between the Senior High main building and the annex which the State Fire Marshal's office states must have an enclosed stair tower.

Who's New in Plymouth

YOUNG AND full of enthusiasm, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Barris are pleased with Plymouth and their comfortable, spacious apartment on 193 S. Union Street. Although renting, they hope one day to build a permanent home in this vicinity. Mr. Barris is a Social Studies and English teacher in Garden City in the junior high level. Mrs. Barris (Jerry), who will turn her direct attention to being a mama in June, has a great fondness for newspapers and newspaper work. She was advertising manager of the Frankemuth News before coming to Plymouth and loved this phase of the business, although she is familiar with various other phases of newspaper work, advertising is her favorite ("it gets in your blood"). Originally from Saginaw, they are both graduates of Central Michigan College in Mt. Pleasant.

Nat Sibbold To Sing In Detroit Music Production

Nat Sibbold, popular Plymouth baritone, will have one of the lead parts in the fairy tale opera "Hansel and Gretel" at the Detroit Institute of Arts this Friday at 8:15 p.m.

Sibbold will sing the part of the Father in the Humperdinck opera. Other Detroit singing stars are Rosemarie Murch, singing Hansel; Charlotte McCray, as Gretel; Leona LeBlanc as the Witch; Dean Taylor as Mother; Eileen McGuigan as the Sandman; Virginia Lounsbury as Dew Fairy; and Carolyn Salo as Voice of the Cuckoo. Miss Murch has just had the honor of winning the Great Lakes District award for voice in the Young Artist contest of the National Federation of Music Clubs.

Fourteen young dancers from the Smith Ballet group will also take part. The opera is under the auspices of the Ways and Means Committee and will benefit charitable and philanthropic musical organizations.

Sibbold, who lives at 1149 Ross St., sang professionally with a skating show for several years and was manager of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce. He is now with WWJ-TV.

Christian Scientist Lecturer Scheduled

The practical power of prayer, based on spiritual understanding of God, will be the topic of a free public lecture on Christian Science to be given in Ann Arbor on April 21 at 8 o'clock by Elbert R. Slaughter of Dallas, Texas.

On nationwide tour as a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Mr. Slaughter will speak in Tappan Junior High School auditorium, 2251 E. Stadium Blvd under the auspices of First Church of Christ, Scientist. His subject will be "Christian Science: Its Explanation of the Business of Living."

It Never Rains ...

GENEVA, N.Y. (UPI) — When Mrs. Artie Grady gave birth to twins March 3 she became a mother for the fourth time in a year. On March 23, 1958, she had twin daughters.

ARE YOU A LUCKY WINNER?

each week, in a different ad in this newspaper, there appears the name and address of a person taken from the subscription list of the Plymouth Mail. This lucky person will receive "dinner for two" for himself and one other as guest of Marquis Toll House Restaurant, 335 N. Main. Free Parking across the street. All the winner has to do is identify himself. Last week's winner was: J. W. QUINLAN 210 Garling St.

A Prize Winning Editorial by An Extremely Young Editor

Editor's Note: Winner of the American Legion Essay Contest is David L. Jensen, 1372 Sheridan who is 13 and an eighth grader at Plymouth Junior High. He will be presented with $10 at the American Legion Meeting, April 23. The Legion is justly proud of the clear, straight-thinking and show of patriotism shown by this young man and the Mail too, feels the essay worthy of sharing with residents of Plymouth, young and old:

Faith in America, God and Country

I was born with a faith in America, inherited from parents and grandparents, who had reservoirs of faith in this great land of ours. At an early age I was taught that God had placed me here. I had no part or choice in my coming, but God had been pleased to bring it to pass. The fact that I was strong and healthy carried with it certain responsibilities. Let me share with you some of the experiences that have developed my faith in God and my country.

How proud I was to learn that my country was not settled by a people seeking gold, but by those seeking freedom to worship God, something gold could never buy. They found that freedom. As free individuals we can drink from running brooks, and not from stagnant pools of superstition and ritual.

When I see the flag, "OLD GLORY" and stand, placing my hand over my heart, reciting the pledge with my classmates, my faith is strengthened. Together we pledge our loyalty to God, the country and the homes of America. This helped me to know how privileged I am to be an American citizen.

Another pledge has influenced my life. I joined the Cub Scouts and later the Boy Scouts of America. My vision was broadened as I stood one of many, forming the words with my lips, and a deeper faith in my heart as together we said, "On my honor, I will do my best to do my duty to God and country." What that duty will be is in God's hands, but with Him helping me I will do my best.

In order for us to be effective citizens in the land we love, we must look to the future in faith. If we truly love our land we must be willing to make sacrifices to preserve that in which we believe.

This is most essential as our nation takes its place in the world. Ability must be recognized in every individual regardless of race, color or creed. A free nation must be willing to give each a chance to show his worth. The pages of history are not all glory or victory. But I see behind them an effort of humble people to keep our country a place where advancement can be made by honest ambitious people, regardless of the color of their skin or the land of their birth.

Yes, young people still have serious thoughts. It is true that we are foolish at times, but we are also aware of conditions in the world that are causing deep concern. It is not continually on our hearts that we are living in a day when a great faith is needed. Some seem to be worried about this generation, but good seed has been sown. It will bring a harvest of honest citizens, ready to exercise their faith in America, God and Country.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS... FROM THE PAGES OF THE MAIL

10 Years Ago

April 14, 1949

The location of Our Lady of Good Counsel church was officially changed to the corner of Arthur and William Streets on Palm Sunday, April 10 when services were held for the first time in a portion of the recently completed new Catholic school building.

With the bowling season almost over, the five Ash brothers decided Saturday would be a good day for their annual bowling match with the five Prieskorn brothers of Brighton.

Connie Pascoe's team, "the Swivel Hip Susies" is now in first place in the basketball tournament, after defeating Carolyn Smith's team by five points.

Marilyn Van Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schon and son Robert, were entertained Sunday at dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Vivian G. Keeth on South Harvey St. Mr. and Mrs. Keeth's son, Michael Jay, was christened Sunday at the Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Garchow and Mrs. Carl Pelsch were entertained at dinner on Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Garchow in observance of their son, Richard's confirmation examination at the Lutheran church.

Donald Fisher of Plymouth was among those students recently passing the Michigan State board of pharmacy examination with high marks. Announcement is made in this issue of the Plymouth Mail that William Morgan and Robert Burley are now the owners of the Sinclair Service station located on the corner of South Main and Wing streets.

Senior biographies: Next month will be celebrated the birthday of Coraline Rathburn, our class valedictorian, a Plymouth product born 18 years ago. "Rathy" not only ranks high in scholarly ability but is also prominent in class activities. Last year she was general chairman of the J-Hop which proved to be a great success. She is a member of the Leaders club, Girl Reserves, and Glebe club, also partook of Stunt Night and our Musical. She intends to go to college but as yet has not decided where. Bill Ray entertained several of his school friends at his home last Wednesday evening. Shuffle board was enjoyed during the evening followed by a delicious chop suey supper.

Mrs. Elmore Carney was a guest of honor at a complete surprise shower last Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Healey in Detroit. Mrs. Carney is the former Winifred Draper and was accompanied to the shower by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C.G. Draper, her brother, Dr. Merrill Draper and her husband, Elmore Carney.

The Senior class of Plymouth high school enjoyed a buffet supper and dancing party at the Idyl Wyld Country club Wednesday evening. Miss Catherine Dunn and William Thams were the hosts.

Mrs. Sherwin Hill and Mrs. Carl Bryant of the Sarah Ann Chochrane chapter of the D.A.R. are leaving by motor Sunday for Washington, D.C. where they will attend the National Congress of that society being held there.

The children of Mrs. Fred Anderson honored her with a birthday dinner last Sunday at her home on Caster avenue.

The Happy Helpers of the Lutheran church were entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Elsie Melow on Farmer street.

Miss Helen Wells, a teacher in the Plymouth schools has returned after spending her spring vacation with her father in Buchanan, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cramer are sending snowberry shrubs, garlandias and other fine flowers to the Flower market on May 12; Mrs. C. J. Dykhouse is bringing a variety of flower seeds; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hough are bringing some of their choice iris roots and many in a variety of other Plymouth garden enthusiasts will also contribute.

William Pettingill is advertising a special this week: "Monarch" chop suey mixed vegetables and chow mein noodles also bean sprouts all for 39 cents; 3 rolls of Tiffany tissue, 1 can saniflush and 1 closet brush all for 50 cents; 2 boxes Wheaties and one chromium bon bon dish, all for 25 cents, adv.

Death Notices this week: Mrs. Francis Wilcox; Mrs. Margaret Evansich; Marvin Criger; Mrs. Mary Quartel; Carl Habicut; Ernest N. Passage; George Rue.

50 Years Ago

Friday, April 16, 1909

Ira Wilson has been out to Midland all this week buying a carload of milch cows. Mrs. Grace Smith is now comfortably settled in her new house across from the church in Livonia Center. She drove her horse most of the way from Newcastle, Pa., last week. Surveyors began yesterday on the work of macadamizing the road to Northville and also one mile east of the village. Some $4,000 will be expended by the county for the improvement this year which we hope is only the beginning.

The school had an unexpected vacation last week because of a case of diphtheria but everyone seemed to enjoy it.

Visitors at school this week were Maxwell Moon, Marguerite Hough, Clyde Bentley, Gertrude Hunter, Mrs. Ronald and Helen Peck. F. L. Becker of West Town Line visited the school the other day. He came to tell of the corn contest and succeeded in arousing considerable interest in the school.

Miss Mae Johnson won the popular lady prize, George Johnson, the baby prize, Mr. Johnson the prize for the handsomest man and Mrs. Edith Meldrum the prize for being the homeliest woman last Thursday at the Steele show held in the Perrinsville hall.

The baseball season was opened in Plymouth Monday afternoon when some of the boys from PHS and some boys from Ann Arbor played Plymouth's best. Wood, pride of Plymouth, pitched the game, Tousey, the pride of PHS also pitched. Spencer and Lauffer also helped bring the score to 9 to 8 for Plymouth.

Gayde Brothers have a clever mechanical device in their window this week. Not satisfied with their outstanding display of last week, the brothers have put in another original window - this time mainly on carriage paint and its many uses. A mechanical device, every part in constant motion, shows a happy Irishman "Mahoney" on a pleasure jaunt with his whole family, gets a laugh from everyone who stops to watch. Mahoney appears to be sitting in his "mud Cart" as he owned the town, his steed going at racer speed and his kids hanging over the sides from every direction as though they would fall on their heads any minute.

The regular meeting of the new village council met Monday evening with all members present and President Markham in the chair. A large number of claims and accounts were allowed. President Markham announced that strict economy should be observed in the expenditure of monies during the next year. He took pride in the Main street improvements and to further enhance the beauty and appearance of the street suggested that the sidewalk on the east side of Mr. Leach's to the railroad be lowered to conform with the contour of the road. He stated that the property owners had been interviewed by him and none had offered any objections.

E. L. Riggs is in Milford, Brighton and South Lyon having coat sales this week.

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist church will hold a bake sale at Mr. Lombard's office on Friday afternoon.

Lulu Williams and William Schille took the prizes at the masquerade party last Monday night for being the best waltzers.

Quite a few of our local business men had "business" in Detroit on Tuesday, funny how many of them just happened to be seen at the opening Tiger ball game.

70 Years Ago

Easter cards for sale at the Mail office. The Methodist church opens next Sunday for their regular services.

Henry Robinson is putting a new upright to his house 30x16 feet. They had a sheep shearing festival over Saline way last Wednesday and took 800 pounds of wool from 39 sheep.

Ben Lee, having been laid up from the kick of a horse, is out and about again.

The Plymouth Air Rifle company has broken ground for the erection of the addition to their factory. The new part will be 26x66 feet and will add much to their capacity.

The person who doesn't take the home newspaper "because it don't amount to much" is the first one to read it. He lays in wait for the first one off the press or borrows it from his neighbor and seldom if ever returns it.

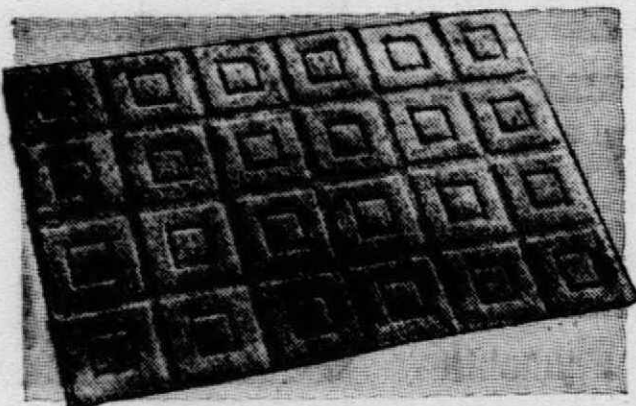

"Shingle" parties are in the vogue around here. The editor has not as yet learned just what a "shingle" party is but he hopes it is something different than he has experienced with a shingle in the past and that the results are more enjoyable than those he remembers.

Lafayette Dean who has manufactured for many years around here for many years has sold his equipment and we understand it is being moved about 10 or 15 miles from here. Some enterprising young man would do well to start in here as a great deal of cane is grown in these parts.

Nicest wagon that ever joined your family!
Chevy's station wagons should really be called family wagons. They're roomiest where you need the room. And you can choose from five models, including the Kingswood, with its rear-facing rear seat that gives passengers a whole new outlook!
Here's a brisk and breezy wagon that'll take on any chore you name, from a trip to the beach to a journey home from the lumberyard. There's room, you see, for a whole half-ton of cargo. And plenty of flat, unobstructed space it is—ten feet long, with the rear seat and tailgate down. These wagons are easy to load, too—you just roll the rear window into the tailgate and flip it down flat. There's no lugging to wrestle with.
Of course, the nicest thing about a Chevy wagon is the way it takes care of its tasks. Chevrolet's got a crisp, smooth brand of roadability so easy to handle it's a natural for the lady of the house. Chevy's even got bigger tires—they come as standard equipment on every one of our wagons. Big, safer brakes, too. But why not fall in love with a Chevy wagon firsthand—at your Chevrolet dealer's!
The car that's wanted for all its worth!

For a "Spring Sales Spectacular" deal see your local authorized Chevrolet dealer!

GOODWILL PICKUP
The next visit of Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks to Plymouth is scheduled for Monday, April 20. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards. To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pick-up, call the local Goodwill representative, Men's Club, Maybury Sanatorium, telephone number Fieldbrook 9-2662.

Speaks in Birmingham
Frederick J. Keller, assistant sales manager for Whitman & Barnes, one of the world's largest producers of drills, reamers and other cutting tools, will speak before the Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce, Thursday evening, April 16, at the Glen Oaks Country Club. Keller's topic will be "Today's Need For Salesmanship."

Geo. Spelvin
Look for a rash of return showings for the nine-Oscar picture "Gigi." Many a local drive-in will be showing this delightful movie. "Gigi" was a winner all the way the other evening at the annual Academy Awards. Maurice Chevalier even picked up an honorary award for his years of work in the film world. His singing of "Little Girls" in Gigi will always remain with me as one of the high points of the film.

The Academy Awards TV show cost the firm industry a cool $200,000 to stage. For years the Academy sold the TV rights to a sponsor. They woke up a couple of years ago when they realized that this production was wonderful publicity for the film industry. Why ruin it with commercials that seemed to go on and on to the point of creating animosity. Academy Award publicity can add a fat million dollars or more to the pictures selected. Even pictures with nominees in them can count on doing more business. Time and again this has been proven. This year will be no exception. Americans love to check on what others have selected as the best.

I've heard a few disgruntled comments that "Auntie Mame" deserved more consideration from the judges. I'm afraid I'll have to stick by my statements of last week and agree with the Academy Award people that "Auntie Mame" just didn't have the extra something to put it over the top. Agreed that the picture was better than the "run-of-the-mill" productions. Some 2,100 people get ballots as voting members of the Academy and their choice happened to be "Gigi."

Susan Hayward for her work in "I Want to Live" snagged the best actress award. Ironically, Susan was on a late, late movie the night before the Award deal. She appeared in "Smash-Up," an alcoholic night club singer. Needless to say her performance was far from Academy Award caliber. Her consumption of liquor in this old film was tremendous—at least, a couple of cases during the six reel showing time. Wonder how much liquor was consumed at the Award doings? Bet it could have kept a man on Skid Row for a lifetime.

The mention of the bums from Skid Row stirs my advance TV brain compartment and makes me think about the characters of the beat generation. Members of the beat generation hate to work, love, to practice Zen Buddhism, and generally complain about matters traditional. This coming Sunday, the 19th of April, switch your Channel button to four and listen to Mr. Daisetz Suzuki discuss Zen Buddhism. It will be on at 1 p.m. on WWJ-TV. If you like what you hear, you might consider joining the beat generation. Sunday TV fare continues to be quite good. Ed Murrow had Nehru, Huxley, and Tom Dewey on his "Small World" on Channel 2 at 6 p.m. Earlier, Charlie Van Doren hosted the actors and producers of "Sunrise at Campobello." They told the story of how the play came into existence, production problems, and finally some key scenes from the play.

Later in the evening, one of the better movies from yesterday showed up on Channel 9, "Treasure of Sierra Madre." This movie took some awards years ago. Humphrey Bogart and Walter Houston were excellent. Believe that old George enjoyed it more the second time.

Read a couple of interesting books last week: "Main Street, U.S.A." and "The Long Dream." First book is written by Irving R. Levine, NBC radio and TV correspondent. He recently took a 10,000 mile tour in Russia. This book tells of his tour and many of his inside observations. I found the book quite thought-provoking. Price of going to the movies is only 25 to 50 cents during the day or 30 to 60 cents during the evening. You always buy your ticket ahead of time. All seats are reserved and you can't see the show over since there are no continuous showings. Movie stars are well paid ($400 a month); almost as well as teachers ($200 a month). A successful playwright can actually make as much as $100,000 on a play. No doubt all plays have to be read and approved by Khushchev. Mr. Levine didn't elaborate on this point Mrs. Pauline over at the library has a copy of this book. Turn the TV off and curl up with this informative book. And if you're looking for a disturbing book, check out Richard Wright's "The Long Dream." This powerful tale traces the trials and troubles of a young Negro lad down South. You meet Fishbelly when he is six years old and leave him when he is 18 years old. Mr. Wright packs plenty in the exciting pages that dramatize this lad's colorful adolescence. I say it's a disturbing book since it presents the Negro problem so vividly that you feel ashamed that we allow such minority intimidation to continue in the United States.

Looking towards Broadway and brighter, gayer matters, let's take a quick look at what's happening out New York way. Well, really not too much. "Destry Rides Again" is a new musical comedy that has ridden into Manhattan and taken the village by storm. Andy Griffin of "No Time For Sargeants" stars in this attraction. You'll be hearing the songs on TV and radio right soon. It's the first musical western since "Oklahoma" to reach hit status.

Ray Dennison's publicity committee held an idea session the other evening on ways to promote "Wake Up, Darling," the Fun For All show, coming in May. The Plymouth Theater Guild promises a million laughs in this next production. Bill Moore, Harold Truex, Ken Cook, and Jim Brown as members of the publicity committee are looking forward to one of the weirdest, wildest promotional campaigns of their off-beat careers. Be on the lookout for their "flack" artistry. See you out at the ball game—but bring your own overcoat and snow shovel.

Western Union Appointment
Appointment of J. F. Slattery as district sales manager for Southeastern Michigan was announced today by G. P. Little, general manager of Western Union's Lake Division, Chicago. Slattery will assist Plymouth area firms with their communication problems, working closely with Robert Provost, local Western Union manager. Slattery has been the manager for Western Union at Pontiac for several years.

Legion and Auxiliary plans for Poppy Day Preparations for the annual observances of Poppy Day on Friday, May 22 this year are being made by Units and Posts of the American Legion Auxiliary throughout the nation. Reports received by Mrs. Dorothy Koi, Poppy Chairman of the Auxiliary and Mrs. Harry Taylor, Poppy Chairman of the Post, show more than 20 million memorial poppies to be worn in honor of the nation's war dead on that day have been made by disabled war veterans working in hospitals and convalescent work rooms. The little red crepe paper flowers will be distributed by approximately 150,000 volunteers from our Unit and Post and cooperating organizations.

To Women It May Concern

By Myra Cox

I made a reservation last Saturday afternoon. Now, I'm looking for three bridge cronies to do likewise.

Don't start packing, we're not leaving tomorrow, but this is a long range plan for the future—say in about 35 or 40 years—and the reservations are not at the New Yorker, but at the Hanlon Convalescent Home on Warren and Ridge Road.

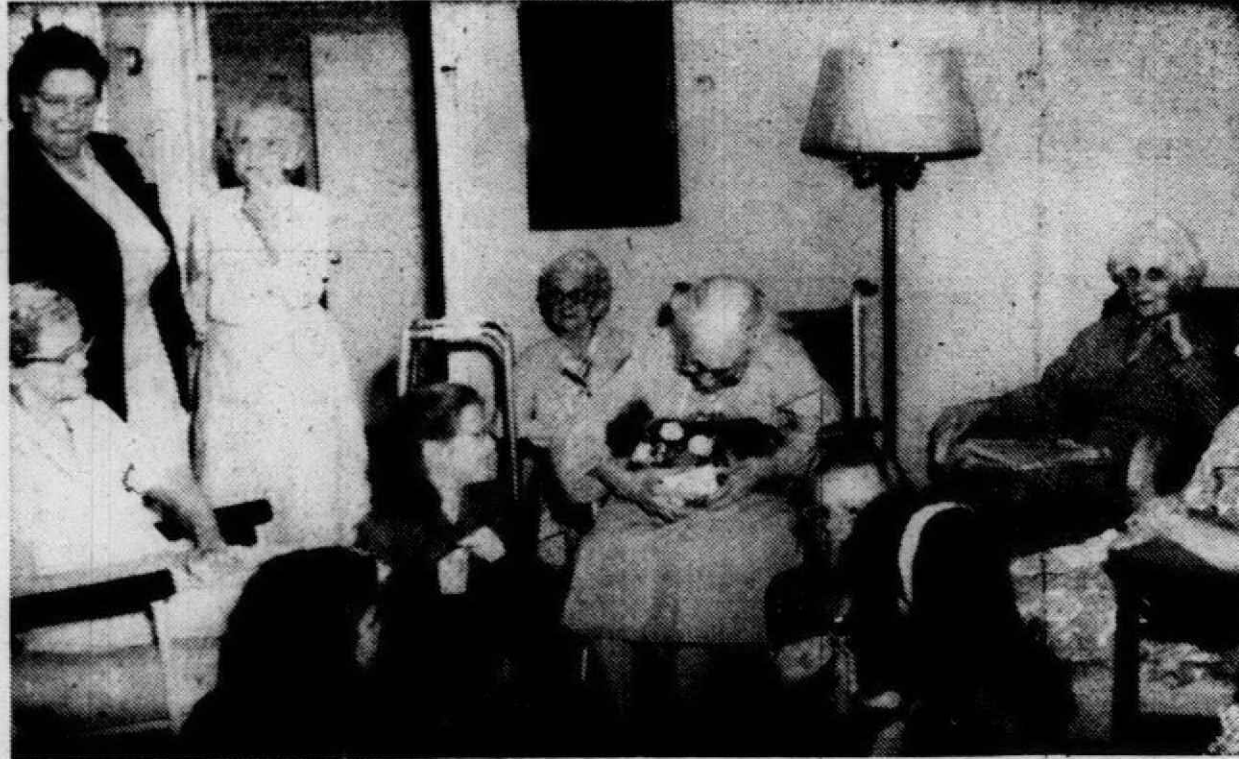

Don't let the name fool you. It's not an "old-ladies" home. It is a bright and cheerful home for aged (mostly ladies), with music, good food and SERVICE. Miss Gertrude Hanlon has about 47 women and four men that make this their home. This is her capacity. A few are there temporarily while they recover from a broken limb, but for the most part they are women who prefer the peaceful atmosphere of their contemporaries to the bustle of living with relatives. Their meals are dinned to their age. A big breakfast, luncheon, dinner and snack before retiring. Their recreation is confined to getting out-doors in good weather for a breath of fresh air, watching T.V., reading and doing lovely hand-work. Primarily they are content to "visit" with each other. They have many private jokes and do quite a bit of reminiscing.

All are well-groomed and cared for and often go off with their loved ones. However, they are content to return to their "home" for the routine that they are used to, and is restful for them. The youngest resident is in her 60's and the oldest is bright-eyed Molly Bronson, who will be 103 this June. She is cared for ever so carefully by Miss Hanlon and her staff.

Started 11 years ago when a Plymouth resident, Mrs. Lombard asked Miss Hanlon to care for her husband, the home has grown from a cornfield to a beautiful 10 acres that form a lovely changing scene from the picture windows for the residents to view. Each wing has its own bath, sitting room, and bedrooms with four beds. There are two private bedrooms, however, Miss Hanlon says the residents are much happier "sharing."

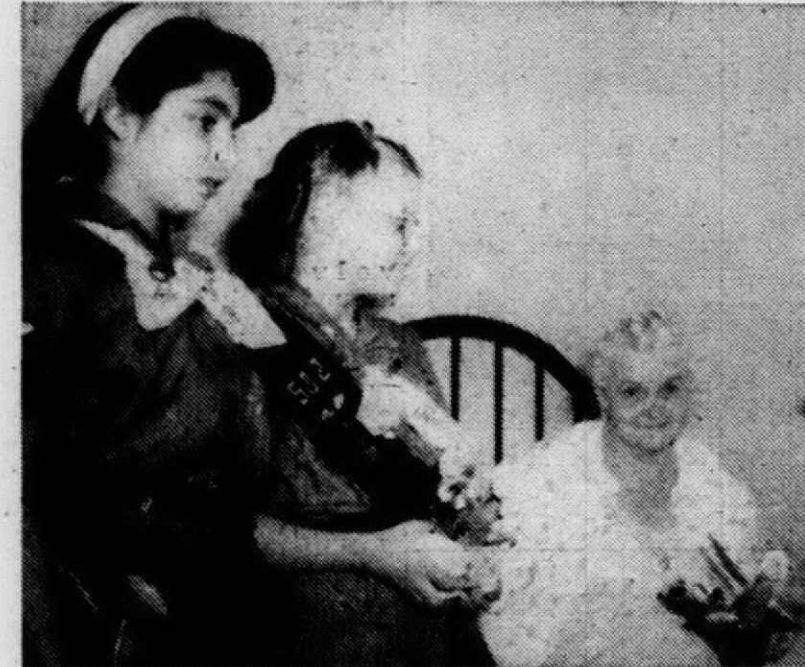

Anyway, when you've decided you've had it and you are ready to go—let me know—we'll pack light—Miss Hanlon has the cards and the table.

Congratulations to the 743 Township and 774 City women that voted in the last election—almost 100 percent with the men in both places—that is what I'm for—more women taking an interest in politics—not just because I'm prejudiced—really I'm unbiased—it's just that women would not tolerate standing still on issues forever. Can you imagine women sitting on this tax issue in Lansing as long as our men legislators have without having made up their minds two or three times by now—I'm sure action would be the key-note if more women were in key positions in local, state, and national government. Anybody interested in running for the senate?

A NATIVE of Northville, Alice Hazen has been at the Hanlon home for several years. She is a former school teacher and enjoyed visiting with the Girl Scouts of Troop 502 that came to visit and who brought bright hand-made flowers to the residents of the Hanlon Home. The women seemed to enjoy the fresh faces of the little girls and their tokens of thoughtfulness. Alice Hazen is 97 years old and was extremely gracious in her thank-you to the Scout Troop. The girls are, Mary Lynne Parson, Ann Van Ornum, Ruth Sheldon and Ilene Welsher.

RESIDENT OF THE Hanlon Home with the most seniority, Ella Boley, has been with Miss Hanlon for nine years and in her words "is a darling." Each day she carefully puts on her frilly bed-jacket and earrings and a perky satin bow in her carefully coiffured hair. She has been bed-ridden since a serious auto accident 25 years ago, but is always friendly and cheerful. She particularly enjoys receiving one of the copper-potted plants made by Ann Van Ornum and Mary Lynn Parsons, Troop 502. Mrs. John Welsher is the Leader of Troop 502 that visited the Hanlon Home and Mrs. Thomas Terry, the Co-leader.

Something For Every Woman In A Home Economics Extension Club

Mrs. Isabella F. McClellan, the new Extension Agent in Home Economics for Wayne County is pleased with the recent growth in Extension Club work. There are now 72 Home Economics clubs in Wayne County. Twenty-nine or 30 new clubs have been organized since Sept. 15 in Wayne County. In Plymouth, so far there are nine. They are the Plymouth Group with Mrs. Forrest Olson as Chairman; Allen with Mrs. Stanley Travis; Parkside with Mrs. W.J. Kincaid; Gracious Gourmets with Mrs. Richard Wheaton; Hugh, with Mrs. Roy Schultz; Kenyon with Mrs. Fredrick Steiner; Northville, One (Plymouth members), Mrs. (John) Ling; Robinson, Mrs. Norman Frib; Sheldon with Mrs. Charles Osborne as chairman. Many more are welcome. Mrs. McClellan is like the lady in the shoe there is always room for one more.

U.S. Department of Agriculture, the State Land Grant colleges, County governments, and here in Wayne County, the Michigan State University. Through it, families learn to apply the latest results of Home Economics research.

The "Quality of Family Living" is the major point of emphasis in today's home demonstration program. Special stress is placed upon the common concerns of the family—relationships, food, clothing, shelter, and financial security. Also important are educational, social, cultural and recreational opportunities which must be used to best advantage. Generally, most women participating in the Home Economics club program are trying to learn to live and work congenially with others in the family and in the community; to better manage personal resources of time, money, and energy to reach family goals; to choose from the market food, clothing, home furnishings, household equipment, and other things essential to attaining a more satisfying way of life; to keep the household running smoothly and provide a comfortable, convenient and attractive home, to understand the relation of nutritious and adequate housing to the health and well-being of each family member.

The way home economics work is carried on varies with the needs and interests of the club members, and also the area where they live. Intensive education is carried on with about one and one-third million homemakers through more than 65,500 organized clubs in all 50 states and Puerto Rico.

These homemakers select their own volunteer local leaders who are trained and assisted by the home demonstration agents who are in continual touch with those of the latest research information, and who provide professional guidance to the entire program.

The leaders serve in several different ways, for example as project leaders, or as organization leaders who contribute greatly to the development of better homes and communities.

Home Demonstration agents in addition to their work with women in organized groups assist more than five and one-half million other homemakers through special workshops, demonstrations, home visits, bulletins, and other ways.

If you are interested in joining a Home Economics club or have eight or 10 friends in any one community who are interested in forming a club, please contact your Wayne County Home Economics Extension Agent, Mrs. Isabella F. McClellan, Cooperative Extension office, 3930 Newberry St., Wayne, or phone her at PA. 1-6550 or PA. 1-6551.

New Committees For Beta Sigma Phi

Mrs. Richard Ney, 1014 Dewey Street was hostess to Beta Sigma Phi on Tuesday evening April 7.

Mrs. Robert Brown, President, presided over the meeting. The following committees were announced. These committees will serve during 1959-1960, and are as follows:

Program Chairman, Mrs. William Grippner and Mrs. Robert Mayes; Membership Chairman, Mrs. Craig Stover and Mrs. William Bailey; Social Chairman, Mrs. Lee Rehbein, Mrs. Richard Ney and Mrs. Bruce Milroy; Publicity Chairman, Mrs. Melvin Fuelling; Ways and Means Chairman, Mrs. Gerald Fuelling, Mrs. Forest Byrd and Mrs. Don Holt; Service Chairman, Mrs. Arthur Walker; Sunshine Chairman, Mrs. Bruce Milroy presented the program "Painting and Sculpture."

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Ney, at the close of the meeting.

Mrs. McClellan

There are 40,000 Homemakers who belong to the state organization and nearly seven million homemakers take part annually in the program of a National Home Economics club work is confined strictly to the rural homemaker; most of these members today are from rural non-farm homes; the new suburban areas and cities.

Some of the members are young, some old, some newly married while others have children or even grandchildren. But all are eager to become better citizens which is the long range goal of the Home Economics club program today.

The Home Economics or the Home Demonstration work as it was previously called is an educational program in better homemaking planned by and for homemakers, and conducted cooperatively by the Extension Service of the

Prospective Papas Learn To Bath Baby

The Detroit Red Cross Nursing Services announces scheduling of a class for prospective parents to be conducted at its Northwest Regional Office, 32134 Plymouth Road, Livonia, starting Monday, April 27. The class will continue for six consecutive weeks, two hours each session, from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Mrs. Gerald Warren, chairman of the chapter's Home Nursing program, says: We are happy to have as the teacher for this class Mrs. Stanley C. Piltner, clinical instructor in obstetrics in the St. Joseph Mercy School of Nursing, who, as a Red Cross volunteer, teaches our Mother and Baby Care course. Usually it is the anticipation of a first child which alerts young couples to their need for information and counsel, and it marks the beginning of a family... which includes both parents and the new baby, so our course is designed for both prospective parents.

The course includes information on the physiology of pregnancy; psychological and emotional changes and hurdles both prospective parents face; the new baby and its physical care as well as mental and emotional development. We have a life size "angel skin" doll with which our parents-to-be are especially happy to practice bathing and dressing. Our annual reunion of parents and their babies are joyful events when the fathers, especially, are prone to brag about how well they learned lessons taught in the Red Cross course.

Mrs. Harold Rolan, 9615 Melrose, chairman of the Livonia branch of the Detroit Red Cross chapter, GA. 1-6665, and the volunteer on duty in the Red Cross Regional office, GA. 4-0220, are accepting registrations for the free course.

Be Ready For Boating - American's New Past-time

So great has been the increase in pleasure boating that new regulations went into effect March 10. These regulations have been drawn up by the Coast Guard under the authority of the Federal Boating Act of 1958, also known as the Bonner Bill. The only change in the Federal laws that will affect boat owners immediately is the requirement that all accidents involving death, bodily injury or property damage exceeding $100 must be reported promptly.

The other new regulations set a pattern for state and local laws covering pleasure boating. These additional Federal regulations will not be effective until a state boating law is adopted or until April 1, 1960, whichever is first. In either case, since April 1, 1960, boat owners have to pay a fee for the registration numbers they must point on the bow of their boats. This fee will be $5 for the first three years and $3 for every three years thereafter.

For landlubbers who want to learn seamanship and for mariners who want to brush up, courses are given each year under the auspices of the United States Power Squadrons. The 250 units of this organization are located along the Great Lakes, the inland waterways and the coasts of this country.

In the beginner's course, usually called "Seamanship and Piloting" a would-be sailor learns elementary navigation and a little on care of a boat. An advanced course in navigation also is offered.

Courses for youngsters may be conducted by various groups. Yacht clubs or the local Y.M.C.A. are likely summer sponsors. A youngster will not only learn something about seamanship and handling a boat, but also about safety aboard a boat. No sailor is ever too experienced to learn something in any course he may take. A boatman needs to be a trained pilot, so that he can be equal to any emergency, from a shift in the weather to a repair that needs to be made on his boat while en route.

Education is the leading answer to safety while boating. It is seconded only by common sense and observance of local regulations, particularly in the harbor. Guidebooks issued every year by the oil companies are indispensable reading. Until the 1959 editions become available, brushing up on last year's will help to wipe away the time until the boat goes into the water. The start of pleasure boating each year depends on the weather and the amount of work the owner and his crew must do to get the boat ready for the water. Boatmen who take advantage of balmy early spring days can manage usually to be on the water again by late April, even in the Northeast.

Knowing important facts on boating will make your coming days on the water leisurely and pleasant. More than 37,000,000 Americans have found this an ideal way to spend leisure time.

Suburban Living

Slumber Party Crew Enjoys Sausage Whirls

Parents of any teenage daughters have undoubtedly enjoyed the fun of having their home used for a slumber party.

Late evening snacks and breakfast are all part of such a function. Probably the teenage girls will care for their own evening snack needs but it is undoubtedly appreciated if all concerned for Mom to have breakfast... ready and waiting.

Reba Stagg, an expert in the home economics field, makes this breakfast suggestion to aid mothers helping with teenage parties.

Sausage Whirls simply involve pancakes wrapped around pork sausage links and topped with an Honey-Orange Sauce. The Sausage Whirls can be made in advance and kept warm in the oven... then just let the teenagers help themselves.

Sausage Whirls
1 pound pork sausage links
2 tablespoons water
Pancakes (approx. 3/4 inches diameter)

Place pork sausage links and water in cold frying-pan. Cover tightly and cook 5 minutes. Uncover and cook sausage links until browned.

Honey-Orange Sauce
2 tablespoons butter
1/4 cup frozen orange juice concentrate
1/2 cup honey

Melt butter and add orange juice concentrate and honey. Heat thoroughly and serve over Sausage Whirls.

Commuting Student
CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) Joseph Di Corpo, 28, of Erie, Pa., figures to be the most traveled student in his class when he receives his master of arts degree from John Carroll University here in June.

DiCorpo, a Korean war veteran who teaches part-time at Gannon College in Erie and also works as a billing clerk for the Pennsylvania Railroad there, commutes to classes at Carroll twice a week. The 210-mile round trip will add up to more than 25,000 miles, or a trip around the world, by graduation time.

Verona, Italy, is an important railroad center.

Storing Draperies
Dear "Miss Louisa": I am getting ready to take down and store some pleated draperies. Have you any suggestions for putting them away so that they will not have to be pressed before they are hung again?—Mrs. S.H., Ashland, Tenn.

Child's Garden
Dear "Miss Louisa": What seeds would you suggest for a child's first garden?—Mrs. K.L.B., Cincinnati, Ohio.

Monograms
Dear Mrs. L.Y.B.: Several things I have learned that help me to embroider a monogram I am glad to pass on to you. Pattern departments have transfers for various styles and sizes of letters. These must be applied to the material with a warm iron. From 6-strand embroidery cotton, thread a needle with two of the six threads for a letter 2 inches tall. First sew a fine running stitch all around the letter to cover the blue transfer lines. Now fill the space between the lines with small chain stitches. This is called padding and makes the initial stand up above the material.

Monograms are worked in a satin stitch. This means bringing the needle up on one side of the part of the letter to be covered and then down on the other side. Do this over and over until all the padding is covered. Practice with a simple letter on a towel or pillow case and make several letters before you tackle a dress or shirt.

Instructions are on the transfer sheet of letters. If the store where you purchase them has an instructor, ask her help too.

No-Bake Cheese Pie For Drama

The internationally-famous cheese cake is given new styling as a pie. This excellent dessert can be made the no-bake way by blending the goodness of its cottage cheese, whipped cream, milk and lemon juice ingredients together with unflavored gelatin. The refrigerator does the "cooking" job.

The smooth cheese filling can be chilled until firm in a baked pastry shell or in a graham cracker crumb crust.

- Strawberry Cottage Cheese Pie
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
  - 1/4 cup sugar
  - 1 cup milk
  - 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
  - 2 cups (16 ounces) creamed cottage cheese
  - 1/4 teaspoon salt
  - 1 tablespoon lemon juice
  - 2-3 cup heavy cream, whipped
  - 1 9-inch baked pie shell
  - Fresh strawberries

Mix together gelatin and sugar in top of double boiler. Stir in milk. Place over boiling water, stirring occasionally, until gelatin is dissolved, about 8 minutes. Remove from heat; add lemon rind; cool. Sieve cottage cheese into large mixing bowl, or beat with electric mixer until smooth. Stir in cooled gelatin mixture, salt and lemon juice. Chill, stirring occasionally, until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from a spoon. Fold in whipped cream. Turn into prepared shell. Chill until firm. Garnish with additional whipped cream and fresh, or frozen strawberries, or serve with strawberry sauce.

Yield: 1 9-inch pie.

Mothproofing Ideas That Smell Nice

The dried leaves of white clover, the dried and fragrant blossoms of sea lavender or rosemary, or spicy cloves were sprinkled in clothes closets and blanket chests by our grandmothers to keep moths away. Today most housewives stock up on chemical repellents in the form of liquid sprays, mothballs or crystals.

Other acknowledged repellents are tarpaper, tobacco and camphor. However, the real enemies of moths are sun, air and cleanliness. Exposure to these three is essential before repellents can do their work.

The silvery gray clothes moth that is certain to fly into the house during the next six months does not itself make jagged little holes in wools, leather, fur or feathers. But the female moth will lay eggs on any of these materials and the larvae, which hatch in about a week, may feast for as long as a year on the material.

The female moth always picks a stained or soiled spot as the place to lay her eggs.

News From Newburg Neighborhood

By Mrs. Emil LaPointe
G.A. 1-2023

Well, my three young relatives, Robert, Gail and Jane Nida are back home again with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Nida of N. York, Dearborn, after spending a very delightful four days at the LaPointe residence. At least it was delightful for the LaPointe family. We surely enjoyed having them. Mr. and Mrs. Nida picked them up on Sunday, April 5.

The Sarah circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church sponsored a Dutch Mail clothing demonstration which was given at the home of Mrs. Arthur Remon on Newburg road, Friday, April 10. Mrs. Dorothy Hale was the demonstrator and the following guests were present: Mrs. Jerry Baldwin, Mrs. Leonard Ritzler, Mrs. Dale Bowerman, Mrs. Henry Mende, Sr., Mrs. Winford Blanton, Miss Dorothy Blanton, Mrs. Vern Keith, Miss Nancy Ritzler and Miss Julia Baldwin, and Mrs. Warren Fittery.

Mrs. Wesley Moley of Newburg road has been confined to the Ridgewood hospital in Ypsilanti and will be there for a little while. It would be nice if friends and neighbors of the Newburg area would remember her with cards of good cheer.

A neighbor in the Newburg area, Dick Larson of Angeline Circle, is newly associated with Watling Lerchen and Company, a member of the New York Stock Exchange where he is employed as a broker with offices in the downtown area. Good luck on your new venture, Mr. Larson.

At a PTA sponsored card party held at the Star K School on Friday, April 10 four girls in the Newburg area attended and had a wonderful time. Those who enjoyed the evening were Mrs. Arthur Gennis, Mrs. Clifford Hocking, Mrs. Robert Pregitzer, and Mrs. Harold Mackinder. Mrs. Gennis won the table prize which was a lovely homemade apron and Mrs. Mackinder won a door prize of a bun warmer.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Desmond of Joy road have returned home after spending almost three weeks visiting with relatives in the vicinity of Tampa, Florida.

You had better start marking May 8 on your calendar as a date to reserve for attending the annual Mother and Daughter banquet at the Newburg Methodist church, Ann Arbor Trail and Newburg Road. There are only a limited number of tickets being sold so get yours as soon as possible. The dinner is set for 6:30 p.m. and a fine program for the evening is being planned.

The Riverside Book club met at the home of Mrs. Delmer Ruehle on Hix road on Thursday, April 9. Members present to show their antiques and hobbies were Mrs. Schuyler Adams, Mrs. Raymond Grimm, Mrs. Henry Grimm, Mrs. Clyde Smith, Mrs. Edward Ayers, Mrs. Guy Taylor, Mrs. R.E. Niemann, Mrs. Dorothy Liscum, Mrs. Lester Larrabee, Mrs. Melvin C. Guthrie, Sr.

Another Newburg area family just recently returned from the sunny clime of Florida is Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Achor and son James of Ravine Drive. The Achors visited in the area of Lake Okeechobee with Mr. Achors father and other relatives. They were vacationing for two weeks.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Melvin C. Guthrie of Newburg road fell last week and sprained her arm. Hope she will soon have that arm feeling good as new again.

Last weekend, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bennett of Stark road went to Mt. Pleasant, Michigan to be at the Central Michigan College when their daughter, Donna was received into the membership of Kappa Phi Club as a charter member of that college and as treasurer. This girls' club is connected with the Methodist church and each applicant for membership is eligible if she belongs to a Methodist church. A lovely installation banquet was held at the First Methodist church in Mt. Pleasant on Saturday and on Sunday all the newly installed girls, national officers, and parents of the girls attended this same church at the morning worship service. Congratulations to the Bennetts on their daughter's fine achievement and to Donna, too.

The Lydia Circle of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. Norman Kerr on West Chicago on Tuesday, April 7 for cancer pad sewing in the morning, lunch at noon and business meeting in the afternoon. As this date was the birthday of the circle's chairman, Mrs. Delmer Ruehle, the group surprised her with a lovely cake and a card shower. The ladies completed 150 cancer pads which is a fine accomplishment and those who attended were Mrs. Laura Busenbark, Mrs. Florence Mahl, Mrs. Eloise Mackinder, Mrs. Elsa Hammond, Mrs. Ruth Gantz, Mrs. Hazel Adams, Mrs. Bertha Ayres, Mrs. Laura Larrabee, Mrs. Dorothy Waack, Mrs. Elsie Waddington, Mrs. Beulah Smith, Mrs. Mildred Leith, Mrs. Ruth Bradsell, Mrs. Edith Nyman, Mrs. Pearl Barker, Mrs. Gladys Arnold, Mrs. Angeline Norris, Mrs. Nancy Sutton and Mrs. Olive Niemann.

I see Mr. and Mrs. Edward Howden of Joy road have added the new look to the front of their house this past week by installing a new picture window. Sure looks nice and I bet they'll enjoy all the light it affords.

Not too much news this week. Did I hear from you? It is so nice being with you each week. Won't you remember to call me anytime before Thursday so I can put you in the news. See you next week?

DOUBLE DUTY
BOSTON UPI — A young minister works in Boston as a mailing room clerk in order to help support the little New Hampshire church where he preaches every Sunday.

The Rev. Gerry Bradley crams a 40-hour week into three days in the mail room of the New England Council here, then hurries to Raymond, N.H., where he conducts Thursday prayer meetings and Sunday services.

BLACK ON WHITE—Bold strawberry print in rib-textured cotton is perfect for this high-waisted slim dress. An ideal start for a spring wardrobe plan, the dress is styled by Vogue Pattern 9664 and is nice whether you own the coordinated doggie or not.

Story and Photos
By Lee Sechler

MANY STUDENTS enter the co-op program via the counselling office. Mike Hoben has before him both the student and her record. She has informed him that she would like to be a co-op trainee. The next step is for Hoben to contact Coordinator Urey Arnold and the two of them will discuss the individual's record.

A community is only as good as its schools. In order for these schools to serve the community they must offer a diversified program.

Plymouth can claim among its many accomplishments this broad concept. Take for example the co-op educational program—the program that gives students an opportunity to include work in business and industry along with their education.

The co-op program fills two needs. First it is made to order for the students who feel they don't want to continue on the educational lines of college, but yet need specific training; and second, for the students who find they must work for a while, yet feel that at some later date college may be in keeping. For both these groups the co-op program is the course to follow.

The co-op program is not new, either in concept or in practice here in Plymouth. Started here in 1936, it has helped to make a firm bond between industry and business and the residents of the Plymouth area.

The program is not used only here, but in 48 of the 30 states. As is expected, the course is subject to and follows economic trends. And it is limited to the number of students an advisor can handle—that is, if the jobs are available.

Interested employers and wise counselling are the two big keys to making the program work. This is not to slight the instructor, but his main job is to supervise and not to run the students. For the co-op idea is to teach the student that he must think for himself and not to run to someone for answers.

Looking at the program, it is found to be divided into three parts: office, retailing and trade and industrial occupations. The largest enrollment centers on the first two, rather than the latter.

A student usually enters the program after talking with the counsellor. After that it is necessary to find an employer who will cooperate and help train the student, as he learns the business. Then comes the job of arranging the classes so that the student is able to work half a day and go to school the other half.

Urey Arnold has charge of the Plymouth program and is handling about 35 students. The biggest problem faced by the students and school, after finding an employer, is being able to get sufficient material to cover the part of work they might be doing. This situation is becoming better as more and more schools in the state are working together and with the larger colleges.

Assume that a student has received the proper counselling and a job has been found. Mr. Arnold must now supply the employer with some of the material used in the course, so the "stand-in teacher" will understand what is being done for him, and his new help.

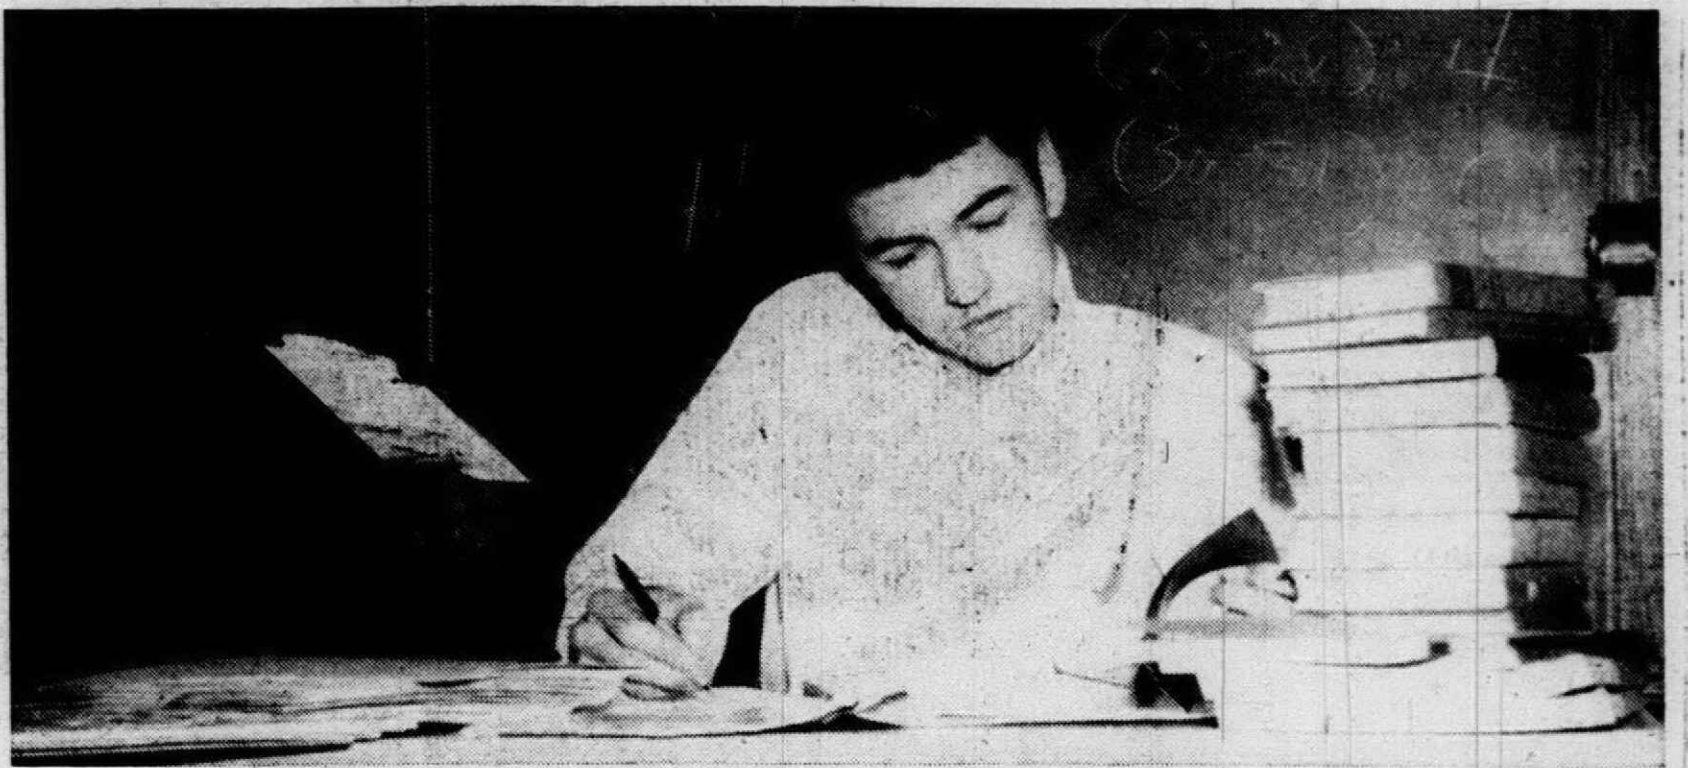

Now comes the task of working out the schedule of classes so that there is adequate time for both study and work. Sometimes a student is "farmed out." This is done when the required subjects, needed for graduation, prevent the student from being in the co-op class. In cases like this Mr. Arnold still keeps close tabs on the individual, but does not have as much direct contact as under the usual arrangement.

For grading, the employer fills out a student rating sheet. This sheet contains nine headings to evaluate the young worker. Under these nine headings are four categories that can be used to describe him or her.

This evaluation by the employer is then figured together with a grade from the class sessions and a grade is then given.

Mr. Arnold spends much time in checking with the stations (working places), finding out what things should be changed and what others should be added. He is always on the look-out for new jobs and job opportunities that will help to make the program broader.

So long as there are interested employers and willing school officials and teachers the co-op programs will continue to be a part of the Plymouth community. A part to keep the community working together as it forms a bridge between high school and reality for today's generation.

IT TAKES a pile of books and material for a co-op student to keep up with his regular school work and also keep abreast of the latest happenings and corrective procedures in his field. High School student Louis McLean, a worker in the stock department at A & P, is one of the local students who are receiving "on-the-job" training in local business and industry. With more schools joining the co-op program, it is easier to get more information on the student jobs than if just one or two scattered schools had the plan.

DAIRY FARMING, from the routine tasks up, is taught to Edward Sprague by Donald Koete. In this day and age it is necessary that the young aspirant farmer know how to keep his milk storage tank clean along with the other tasks that make up dairy work. This is one job where you must work both ends of the day to stay ahead.

EMPLOYERS MUST be kept informed of the classroom developments that make for a more informed help. Here, Urey Arnold, coordinator of the co-op program, is shown checking some points in a training manual with John Wiltse at Community Pharmacy. By checking with employers, a close tab is kept on the progress of students.

A CHECK SORTING machine needs a human element to make it perform the necessary duties. Learning this task through the co-operative work program at the National Bank of Detroit is Linda Williams.

HERE A FORMER co-op student helps another find his way around the job. Stanley Rakoczy (left) and Robert Darga are both employed by West Brothers in the service dept. Stanley was in last year's program. West Bros. think highly of the program as this makes their third student in two years.

You're steadier... more secure...

...in a road-hugging Wide-Track Pontiac!

Take all its beauty, balance it gracefully on a wider, steadier wheel design and you have a car the likes of which you've never owned. The wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens the stance, but not the car. You're secure at the controls, more comfortable from head to toe. There's a noticeable lack of lean and sway. Narrow track cars fall far short by comparison. Wouldn't this be a good day for you to drive this sweet automobile? The keys are waiting.

THE ONLY CAR WITH WIDE-TRACK WHEELS
Dotted lines show conventional wheel positions. Pontiac's wheels are five inches farther apart. This widens only the stance, not the car itself. Pontiac takes a better grip on the road, hugs tighter on curves and corners. Sway and lean are considerably reduced, ride is smoother, balanced, steadier.

Spiraling Steel Prices

President Eisenhower has spoken out on the chance of a strike in the steel industry, and also the chance of prices being hiked on steel. The present three-year contract between the steel companies and the United Steel expires at midnight June 30th.

The steel industry, on the other hand, denies that it has passed on all of labor contract costs in the form of higher prices. Whatever the full answer, President Eisenhower is seriously concerned with the approaching crisis, and is determined to act to prevent a hike in steel prices.

More Federal Deficit

Senator Harry F. Byrd, Virginia Democrat who is famed for his knowledge of economics and government finance, has predicted a deficit for the coming fiscal year of between 1.2 billion dollars and 4.2 billion dollars.

Senator Byrd says the need for President Eisenhower to veto every bill involving excessive expenditures is crystal clear and vital to this country's future. The reader probably knows that the United States taxpayer is now burdened with an interest bill each year totalling approximately $7,000,000,000.

They Retired to Run Resort

PALM SPRINGS, CAL.—This sunny desert town rimmed by jagged, blue-gray mountains has become one of the continent's important resorts. Catering to the visitors are some 300 resorts—nearly half of which are run by senior citizens who retired here from other occupations.

tanned gentleman with white hair. "The resort business appealed to us so we considered the returns we were getting from stocks and bonds as compared to putting our money into a resort. After a lot of careful figuring we concluded we could do better in the latter."

"I don't want to paint too rosy a picture of the resort business," said Colgan, "but it's worked out fine for us. We love keeping busy and meeting new people. And there's as much or as little work as we want to do. We tend the office and hire help to do the rest. Anytime we feel like working we pitch in. But with my heart condition I'm careful not to over-do. Running a resort cuts your living costs considerably since you don't pay any rent and most of your expenses are deductible. We find we get a better return on our money than we would have gotten from securities, and our total investment has doubled in value since we came here.

Tips for Teens

By ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q.—"Dear Miss Williams: I go with a very popular crowd. All of my girlfriends have boyfriends, but not me. I feel very left-out, because at parties all the boys are with their girlfriends and few ever dance with another partner. Some of the girls have asked the boys what is wrong with me. The boys said they like me as a good friend, but couldn't get 'serious' with me. I'm pretty downcast because no boy ever asks me to dance. I'm not more unattractive than the others and if I had a bad personality, I wouldn't be in this crowd."

manners and consideration for you, one of the crowd? It's bad manners—rude and crude—for the boys to dance only with their dates and leave you always without a dance-partner. And your girl-friends would be better friends if they suggested that their dates dance with you at least once at parties... and find a friend to be your date, double and in the group. Since they haven't the good manners and thoughtfulness to try to help you meet and date boys (friends of their boyfriends), why not suggest it to them? Always invite a boy to dances, parties, school and church activities yourself whenever possible... you'll find a boyfriend among them. If you don't have a dance-partner and party-date after a while, you might have more fun and self-confidence, date-wise in another group where you'll have more chance to meet boys without already having a "wallflower" feeling to overcome. Look for new friends, if necessary, in school, a club or sorority and your church's youth group.

And I Quote

President Dwight D. Eisenhower: "The challenge that confronts us is broad and deep—and will remain so for some time."

Dr. Grayson Kirk, president of Columbia University: "The purpose of college is education, and not to provide a four-year period of social adjustment."

J. Edgar Hoover, Director, F.B.I.: "Our present society... has substituted indulgence for discipline, pleasure for duty, and money for morals."

Harold Macmillan, British Prime Minister, speaking of the Berlin crisis: "I have no doubt that so long as we stand firmly by our principles—as we shall do—the free world has everything to gain from being ready to negotiate."

Edith Head, famous Hollywood designer: "American women are really smart about almost everything except themselves."

Lyndon Johnson, Democratic Senator from Texas: "The West must be more than Mr. Khrushchev's punching bag..."

Vice-Adm. Charles R. Brown: "We are locked in a life and death struggle with the communists, and are not doing too well."

Senator Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.): "The question is not can we afford a modest mutual security program. Rather the question is: Can we afford not to afford it?"

Days Get Longer At Rapid Speed From Now to May

ANN ARBOR—Harried housewives who complain that their day is too short can take heart this month.

Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate of astronomy, says there's a rapid increase in the length of the day during April.

Just after the equinox (Saturday, March 21) the sun is climbing north at the most rapid rate so that it rises and sets farther and farther north of the east and west points, until by the end of the month it will rise and set fully 20 degrees north," she notes.

"Consequently daylight will have increased from the 12 hours on the day of the equinox to approximately 14 hours by April 30."

Venus will be a brilliant attraction in the western twilight, setting about three hours after the sun, Professor Losh continues.

"It is visible long before any star or other planet can be seen, so there is no question of the identity."

"With the exception of the sun and moon, it is by far the brightest object in the whole sky, being approximately six times brighter than Sirius, Orion's Dog Star, and more than 60 times as bright as a typical first magnitude star."

If Your Name Is "Barbara"

By ANN REYNOLDS

What does this name mean? A stranger, a foreigner. It is from the Greek, and in ancient Greece everyone was considered a "barbarian" who could not speak Greek. No detrimental meaning was attached to the word "barbarian" at first; it was only that the foreigner's language sounded to Greek ears as if it was a repetition of the syllables "barbar". It was simply a word that imitated sound.

We still use the words "barbarian, barbarous and barbaric" to indicate varying degrees of rude, uncivilized and harsh behaviour. But, the name "Barbara" never makes us think about something barbaric. "Barbara" is one of the many names when the original meaning does not interfere with its popularity.

The first Barbara we know of was a virgin martyr and saint, and it is for her that the name survived. St. Barbara lived in the third century, and is said to have been the daughter of a rich man in Heliopolis, an ancient city not far from Cairo. That place was the center of the worship of the Egyptian sun-god Ra; Heliopolis literally means, translated from the Greek, "City of the Sun".

Barbara's father was a pagan, but she herself had taken up the Christian faith. It roused the wrath of her father, and he denounced her himself to the heathen authorities, and asked the special privilege to carry out the sentence on Barbara, which was beheading.

Sudden retribution followed his crime; on his way home he was struck by lightning and his body consumed by fire. And ever since St. Barbara has been venerated as the patroness of engineers, architects and miners; and evoked for protection against lightning and fire.

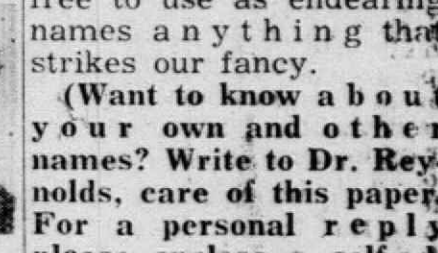

A historical play, said to be the best Polish tragedy, has a heroine named Barbara. It is based on a historical event of the 16th century. Sigmund Auguste, son of Sigmund I, of Poland, in secret married the beautiful daughter Barbara of General Rdziail of Lithuania. When Sigmund Auguste followed his father on the throne, the nobles saw an insult in their sovereign having married one of his subjects, and opposed her being crowned as their queen. The tragedy, written in 1825, was acclaimed far beyond the borders of Poland.

and although this pet-name sounds modern, it has been in use for about three hundred years. One Barbara I knew always called herself "Betty"; and few of her friends ever learned that her real name was Barbara and not Elizabeth. But, we are free to use as endearing names anything that strikes our fancy.

HANDWRITING Tells About Yourself by LUCILLE WILLIAMS

Dear Lucille: Please analyze my handwriting and also see if you can tell what type of work I'd be best in. Thank you. N.W.

You dislike being interrupted and once you have had your organized work and thoughts disrupted you could show some temper and resentment. You are thrifty and practical.

Dear N.W.: You're an independent thinker - you think for yourself regardless of what society, customs and regulations are. You act according to what you think is right. Approval from others is fine but you won't strive for it or depend upon it.

Please analyze the enclosed handwriting for me. Thank you. Mrs. B.S.D.

You are able to make your own decisions and stick by them. They're emphatic and you're not influenced by others. You're a good talker and conservative in all you do.

You feel very deeply, and at times express your emotions outwardly. You are proud and like to do things well. However, you're not the least bit sensitive.

You have power of concentration to center your thoughts on any one thing and do your best.

There's a lot of determination here and your willpower and purpose in life is strong. You thrust forward and go at things with an attitude of accomplishing what you go after. You're aggressive and know what you want.

You could teach, do sales work, or inspection work.

You have a humor streak in you and can see a bright side when things get dull. You don't like to be taken advantage of.

Dear Lucille: Your column is very interesting, enjoy reading it. Would you please analyze my handwriting. Never was a very good writer as you can see. Thanking you for your time. Mrs. A. H.

You're quite a generous person in many ways until you feel you're being imposed upon - then you resent and feel people are taking advantage of you. You like to help others and like to be sympathetic and be kind but hate imposition.

Dear Mrs. A. H.: You're quite a generous person in many ways until you feel you're being imposed upon - then you resent and feel people are taking advantage of you. You like to help others and like to be sympathetic and be kind but hate imposition.

You have determination, very little sensitivity and go at anything with a force as long as it's necessary. Then it dies down and whatever you have started with a good imagination seldom carries through. Many ideas started are not finished.

You have a close friend or two, carefully selected and you'll confide in them but not to the others.

The People's Choice!

The trucks you see operating over the streets and highways of Michigan are there because the people want the swift, dependable transportation service they provide. People who operate factories, run farms, own retail businesses—they rely on trucks to stock their enterprises and to ship their finished products. And the people who buy these products—their needs, too, are served for the most part by trucks. It's a service they've grown used to, a service which has become a vital part of the American way of life... Yes, motor transport is the people's choice, a service and convenience that serves them night and day!

Canton Township 4-H Club In Local Achievement Day

By ESTHER SPRENGEL
GL. 3-0194

Now that our township election is over, and the majority has chosen the men to serve our community for the next two years, the important thing is to show an interest in the Township and attend meetings pertaining to its welfare, and improvements.

Speaking of elections, last Monday one of the Township's most faithful voters appeared at the polls to vote for his candidate, as he always has since 1891. The voter stated he had only missed voting once in those 68 years. He is Mr. Allen Bordine of Saltz Rd., better known to many as Grandpa Bordine. I called upon Mr. Bordine on Wednesday, March 11, and found that it was the date of his 90th birthday. He stated that it had always been his wish to live longer than any other of the Bordines and that he now had lived one year longer than the oldest member of his family. I was amazed at Mr. Bordine's ability to remember dates. Many young people find this an impossible chore. I had a pleasant visit with Mr. Bordine relating some of his memories. As I type this interview, I am a little worried about making date errors because I know Grandpa will notice it immediately. In fact, he told me I had made a few errors in dates in previous articles. Mr. Bordine remembers the first time he voted in the Township. It was the election where Mr. Pattengell (whose biography we wrote about in a previous article) lost the election for supervisor. Mr. Bordine also stated that this was the last election in the Township where they used the individual ticket for each party. After this election the Australian ballot was adopted—this is where all the party names appear on one ballot.

Mr. Bordine also remembered being employed by Ben Huston, son of Robert Huston, and being asked to take over some of the work for Ben Huston the day his father passed away. Mr. Bordine stated that his parents worked for a Matt Francisco, who owned a great deal of land in the Saltz Rd. area. It was here that his parents, Charlie Bordine and Elisa Mott met and later married. He also recalled having voted for Benjamin Harrison in 1892, who was defeated by Cleveland as president of the United States. Mr. Bordine married Hattie Weis and they had two sons, Lloyd and John. The property that Mr. Bordine and his wife, Ava Bordine, now reside on had been granted to the previous owner by deed, signed in 1836 by Andrew Jackson. Mr. Bordine married his present wife Ava after the death of his wife Hattie. Both Mr. and Mrs. Bordine remembered pleasant days, when the three of them were friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bordine have now been married 15 years, and still lead a very active life. Mrs. Bordine made no secret of her 84 years and joined in the conversation with her husband on memories of long ago.

Mr. Bordine also related that he has always won the $1.00 prize for being the oldest father present at the Cherry Hill Methodist Church father and son banquet, except in 1853, when he was in Florida, at which time the award went to Mr. George Gill, who Mr. Bordine said was younger than he. Mr. Bordine also stated that somewhere in the years 1892 and 1893 a saw mill was situated on the property where our family now resides on Beck Rd. We looked at pictures and I commented that since starting these articles, I have viewed some of the old pictures and noted that so many of them had fur rugs in them, but we could find no explanation for this other than perhaps this was the style. Mr. Bordine still chops his own wood, and before I left presented me with some turnips which he had dug out himself.

The home which the Allen Bordines live in is 105 years old, and we all agreed that we didn't think some of the newer homes would make the 100 mark. Mr. Bordine said he has never drunk or smoked. Mrs. Bordine recalls being a saleswoman for Avon Products at one time for 11 years. The Bordines are very active in the Cherry Hill Methodist church affairs and that very evening (Mr. Bordine kindly said due to my article) they were attending the Boy Scout Pancake Dinner in celebration of his birthday, along with his son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. John Bordine of Detroit. Mr. Bordine also said he is a member of the Odd Fellows' Diamond organization since 1893. Before leaving, I had the pleasure of meeting Mrs. John Bordine and Elizabeth Kakarian who were to accompany Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bordine to the supper. There are four generations of the Bordines still living on Saltz Rd., Mr. Bordine's son Lloyd, his grandsons Duane and Roger and his great-grandson Kerry. Mr. Bordine's 89 years do not prevent him from giving his grandson Roger a helping hand in buzzing wood. The couple are very socially active and related plans to have Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell of Plymouth. We would like to add our belated birthday wishes for many many more happy and active birthdays. And I hope I got everything correct, because I know Grandpa Bordine will know if I didn't.

A very active organization the "4-H" are having their Local Achievement Day, April 18, 8:00 p.m. at the Junior High School. This program will include all groups in the N.W. Area District. The public is cordially invited to attend the activities. Before we go on to numerate the activities, I asked Mrs. Bosman, the publicity chairman, about a fact that had always been vague in my mind and perhaps in the minds of many others. Is 4-H for farm boys and girls only? Mrs. Bosman said this was an incorrect opinion of many people. "4-H" group work is for any interested boys and girls. At the Junior High on April 18, the public will get a chance to view the achievements of the 4-H young people. The displays will include handicraft, furniture making, child care, knitting clubs, conservation (wild life), clothing, personal improvement, food, photography. The displays will be judged between 12:30 and 3:45, at which time there will be no public audience. The displays will then be awarded ribbons, a blue ribbon signifying top honors, red ribbon "B" award, and white ribbon "C" awards. There will also be an electrical demonstration. The exhibit Hall will be open to the public from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. and the visitors may attend the evening program from 8 to 10 p.m. There will be a dress review, the theme being a dress shop, a "Share the Fun Contest" which will present dancing, music, pantomime, drama, etc. There will be award announcements made at this time. Participants from the Township in the Fun Festival, will include, Marilyn Moyer of Hanford Rd., and Judy Taylor, both will present piano selections. Chairmen of the different committees include Mrs. Helen Natelli, General Chairman, of Belleville; Fun Festival Chairman, Mrs. Schemmell; Dress Review Committee, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Outman; Publicity - Mrs. Edward Bowman; Exhibits, Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Baker; Program chairman, Jim Hartford; Honor Award Committee, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Hauk; of the Township. The mistress of ceremony will be Janet Willoughby. There also will be plants on sale for the public. Mrs. Bosman further stated that township groups to be represented are the; Snip and Snap Group, Denton Club, Sewing Dreamers, Spoon and Spool, Sheldon Community "4-H." There are 21 local Canton Township leaders and 115 children from township as active members in these groups.

I contacted Mrs. George Longwish, of Cherry Hill Rd. and Mrs. Longwish informed me that their grandson, Larry Longwish, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Longwish of Wayne, is recuperating from an emergency appendix operation at the Annapolis Hospital in Wayne. She also stated their daughter-in-law, Mrs. Richard Longwish is entering the University Hospital for surgery. After some visiting with Mrs. Longwish, she told me that she was told the north end of their home, which is the kitchen, is 100 years old. I asked Mrs. Longwish if they had been aware that their home had been the homestead of the Huston family, she said they hadn't, until they read our column.

Mr. George Simmons of Denton Rd., is in the University Hospital for injuries suffered in a recent fall. We want to wish him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Bosman said the group, Spoon and Spool, headed by she and Mrs. Moyer of Hanford rd., are busy planning their summer project of rocks and minerals. In the fall, they will return to their food and clothing projects. The members of this group include Marilyn Moyer, Judy Taylor, Kathy Dunham, Janice Nagy, Dee Ann Bosman, Carol Bosman and Carol Clark. The evening of April 18 should be an enjoyable and interesting one, viewing the results of the effort and work by these young people and their leaders.

We have the results of the

3rd STRAIGHT YEAR! PLYMOUTH V-8 WINS ITS CLASS IN MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN!

OTHERS TALK ECONOMY—PLYMOUTH DELIVERS IT!

Other cars have talked economy this year. But a Plymouth V-8 has just proved it can give better gas mileage than Ford or Chevrolet V-8s. Plymouth did it by winning its class for the 3rd straight year in America's recognized competitive test for economy. Plymouth's score: 21.15 miles per gallon.

HERE ARE MOBILGAS ECONOMY RUN FACTS:

- A Plymouth V-8 has just won its class in the Mobilgas Economy Run for the third year in a row. Ford and Chevrolet both finished behind Plymouth.
- Plymouth scored 21.15 miles per gallon.
- Winning Plymouth was a Belvedere 2-door hardtop, equipped with standard Fury V-800 engine and automatic transmission.
- Run was sanctioned by United States Auto Club.

Plymouth's low prices, low upkeep, high resale value and proven gas economy make it the year's best economy buy in its class. And Plymouth delivers the Big Difference in style, ride, performance, features and comfort, too! A "Two-Mile Try-Out" will prove it, so take yours today!

Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister is one of 15 Michigan educators selected to study the contemplated transfer of high school accreditation from the University of Michigan to the State Department of Public Instruction.

Selection of the study committee was announced jointly by U-M Vice President James A. Lewis and Supt. of Public Instruction Lynn M. Bartlett.

Supt. Isbister, who is also president of the Michigan Association of School Administrators, will meet with the committee on May 6. Other members include the state's leading educators and heads of educational organizations.

The committee was appointed, according to Lewis, "to insure to the school people that accreditation is as well done in the future as it has been in the past." Present accreditation is handled by the U-M Bureau of School Services.

The CITY MANAGER'S CORNER

By Al Glassford

Last week we began a discussion of how we decide what goes into the municipal budget. At that time, we discussed wages and salaries, and how we determined what would be recommended as the city's fiscal policy for the coming year. We ended that discussion talking of the preliminary budget documents which are developed by each of the department heads.

As soon as the department heads have filled out their budget forms, the city manager, in concert with the accountant, Joe Near, goes over the past year's performance and what is proposed in the new budget document. Each department head is called in individually and his program for the coming year is determined. Mainly, this conference is aimed to eliminate any serious errors in judgment or in omission of major items of expense, which should be included in the budget.

It is during these conferences with individual department heads that the city manager performs his audit of operations and efficiency. Here he may challenge the amount of rent which is paid from the general fund for trucks and equipment used from the equipment fund.

It is here that he determines whether or not sufficient street lighting is provided for the city and how much should be provided. It is here that he discusses with his department head whether the streets need cleaning more often than has been done, or whether, perhaps, too much emphasis has been placed on park care and not enough on tree trimming. After the proposed expense budget is completed, we look to the 5 year program to see what portion of the projected capital improvement may be included.

After completion of the preliminary budget documents, the limiting factor of income must be dealt with. We begin to search out the city assessor, Ken Way, to determine what figures he has assembled as to the assessed valuation of the city.

His figures tell us whether our proposed program can be met, or whether we must cut back. Cut backs are painful, and, if we must do it, priorities again must be evaluated.

After the figures are assembled, the budget balanced and the budget message prepared, the document is submitted to the City Commission at its first regular meeting in April. The City Commission then sets a hearing on the budget sometime before its first meeting in May, but in the meantime, the Commission goes over the budget with the city manager and the department heads to determine what changes the commissioners think should be made in the budget.

Of course, the city commissioners already have given us instructions to include this or that in the budget for the next coming year, and such items are included, if at all possible. If not, an explanation is made as to why the items were not included.

Commission changes are made in a separate column on the budget document. After the hearing, if any citizen thinks an item should be incorporated, deleted or changed, the City Commission again may change the budget document to incorporate the idea of the citizen.

Finally, the budget is passed by a resolution of the city commission at its first meeting in May. The operation of the budget begins on July 1 following the resolution. The manager, then, operates within the limits of the budget. He may make minor departmental changes as are necessary. However, interdepartmental changes, over-expenditures or under-expenditures and transfers between functions cannot be made without City Commission approval.

For example, if the police department needs $2,000 for new street signs and the department of public works does not require as much money as is shown in its budget for sewer cleaning, the city manager may not make such a transfer in budgetary accounts. He must first receive approval from the City Commission.

The city manager, too, is limited to a total expenditure of $500 for purchasing any item without formal bidding. Every good purchasing system, however, operates on a quotation basis and a record is made on quotations received for the major items purchased under $500. Those items over $500 are advertised and sealed bids received in accordance with City Commission rules and regulations.
