Daisy Company Reported Sold

Rumors were prevalent in Plymouth this week that the Daisy Manufacturing Company is about to be sold to another, larger company.

Daisy has been located in Rogers, Ark. for the past year, but was founded in Plymouth and was a big part of the local economy for almost three generations.

A Daisy spokesman refused to confirm, deny or comment in any way upon the latest report.

Rumors that such a sale would be necessary eventually because of estate requirements started as long ago as 1956 with the death of Charles Bennett. They received fresh impetus this year when Edward C. Hough passed away. Both had heavy stock interests in Daisy.

Cass Hough, now president, moved the main manufacturing facility into a new building in Rogers in 1956, having disclosed the intention first in December, 1955. There Daisy was offered a building erected by Arkansas financing, the cost to be repaid over a long period of time.

The old facilities in Plymouth are vacant, but still among Daisy's assets. Potential purchasers, most of them interested in warehousing operations, have inspected the premises here from time to time.

The sale reportedly would affect the status of some members of the executive staff who moved from Plymouth to Rogers with Daisy Manufacturing last year.

Plant To Open In '60

Wheel Trueing Tool Co. of Detroit has "bought" the land and is rushing ahead with plans to raise in Plymouth a 40,000 square foot building employing 200 persons, with a target date for opening of August, 1960.

The site is 12 acres of city-owned property on Plymouth Rd. south of Riverside Cemetery.

Wheel Trueing submitted a bid of $41,125 for the land (about $3,500 an acre) to the City Commission Monday night and the bid was accepted.

The purchase is contingent on approval of the deal by legal counsel. Re-zoning of the parcel to permit manufacturing still must come before the Planning Commission and the City Commission, and provision must be made to extend sewer and water to the site.

But none of these are regarded as difficult details, unless something unanticipated should appear.

The cost of building the factory is estimated at $400,000 to $500,000.

"Our company will construct an office and factory building of approximately 40,000 square feet," said the Wheel Trueing bid, "for use as a light industrial manufacturing concern, fabricating and selling diamond tipped drilling and dressing tools and similar products."

"The building to be constructed on or before January 1, 1961, otherwise the property to revert to the City of Plymouth upon refund by the city to the said company of such part of the purchase price as shall have been paid, less the reasonable expense of the city incurred in effecting the sale.

Easements for utilities, service roads and future highway widening were provided for in the sales agreement.

Purchase and payment is to take place within 30 days after rezoning of the property has been accomplished.

The following also was stated:

"It is understood that the City of Plymouth will not dispose of the balance of 24 acres of the 36 acres being offered for sale to buyers for speculative purposes and that the city will require plans for construction of plants and offices, together with letters of intent as to date of occupancy, within a two-year period after sale."

"Also, no heavier use than M-1 (light industrial) will be permitted on the remaining land."

Wheel Trueing currently occupies three crowded, smaller plants in Detroit. The new plan is to combine the three into one new factory and office-space.

Harold E. Robison is company president and Harvey B. Wallace is chairman of the board. Main offices are at 3200 W. Davison, Detroit.

PILLOWS IN HAND and the plane ready, Miss Leah Higgins is set to start the Powder Puff Derby trail on the 4th of July. Miss Higgins, a Detroit teacher, will use Bob Mettetal's Cessna 175 in the race. Miss Higgins needs the pillows to place behind her back to make it easier to reach the rudder pedals. She is only 4' 11", but long on flying experience.

"ATOMS FOR PEACE", a free Mobile exhibit presented by the United States Atomic Energy Commission, is shown above. The exhibit, a walk-through type, deals with the peaceful uses of atomic energy. It will appear in Livonia at Sheldon Center on June 22. The Livonia Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the exhibit here as a public service. Charles Vomastek, chairman of the "Atoms for Peace" committee of the Livonia Jaycees, announced the exhibit will be at Sheldon Center at 10 a.m.

Michigan's Best Golfers Battle Here on June 23

Most of Michigan's top-name professional golfers, plus many of the best amateurs in the game, will appear at the Fox Hills-Rotary Pro-Am Golf Tournament being held in Plymouth for the benefit of the Rotary Club Crippled Children's Committee.

The golfing event is being staged Monday, June 23 at Fox Hills Country Club, six miles west of Plymouth. It is expected to draw professionals from all points of Michigan and a gallery from all over the metropolitan area.

According to A. Gerald Pease, chairman of the tournament and president of Fox Hills, "every professional of championship caliber belonging to the Michigan Section of P.G.A. will be here."

The tourney will also have an international flavor by drawing some professionals from neighboring Canadian courses.

Thirty or forty foursomes are expected to take part in the tournament with starting time set at 9:30 a.m. The foursomes will be teeing off regularly and a gallery can follow any they desire.

In connection with the event will be a roast beef and chicken Bar-B-Q that will start at 4:30. With the final foursomes teeing off until about 6 p.m., there will be plenty of time for those who work to still watch the pros in action and enjoy the dinner. Pease pointed out this week.

The idea of the tournament started when the Crippled Children's Committee of the Plymouth Rotary Club reported that Plymouth's Easter Seal drive fell far short of its goal this year. Help of crippled children and adults is one of the functions of the service club.

Professional-amateur golf tournaments are held frequently at courses around the state. The pros close their shops on Mondays to take a "busman's holiday" by playing each other. The ordinary pro-am tournament offers prize money from entry fees paid by each player.

But the Fox Hills-Rotary Pro-Am tourney has been made especially attractive to the pros by the addition of $500 in prize money by the Rotary Club.

Each professional will bring with him an amateur from his own golf course plus one from a Rotary Club within his community. Fox Hills will furnish the fourth member of the foursome.

While a complete list has not yet been compiled it appears that all of the state's championship pros will be on hand to compete for the added prize money.

The tournament is of such proportions that radio and television sportscasters have expressed their interest, along with out-of-town dailies.

The event will be open to the women as well as men, the chairman stated.

Tickets, costing $5, will be worn by the purchaser and will entitle him or her to come and go during the day. It also includes the Bar-B-Q dinner to be served under a large tent on the country club grounds.

The tickets are available from any Rotary Club member and at Fox Hills now on the day of the tournament.

GRADUATES OF THE CLASS OF '59, Mary Ellen Taylor (left) from Plymouth High School and her mother, Irene Taylor from University of Michigan. Mrs. Taylor completed her course of study in five years and majored in European History and minored in Fine Arts and English. Mary Ellen will be a student at the University in September, however, hasn't definitely decided her program. Her father, Elvin, is also a U of M graduate. Friends honored Mrs. Taylor at a dinner party after her graduation last week and the Taylors plan an Open House at their home on Park Place for Mary Ellen after her "big day" next week. They also have one son, a freshman, in Plymouth High.

Atoms Exhibit Here Tuesday

How the atom is being put to work for peaceful purposes will be told in a traveling exhibit that will stop in downtown Plymouth next Tuesday under the sponsorship of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The walk-through mobile exhibit, parked downtown throughout the day, will present a comprehensive picture of the many ways in which the peaceful atom is playing a more and more important role in everyday life.

In charge of the exhibit is the Museum Division of the Oak Ridge Institute of Nuclear Studies. The Institute (Continued on Page 2)

First Plymouth Colony Concert To Be June 28, Free of Charge

A festival of music in commemoration of George Frederick Handel will be presented this summer by the Plymouth Colony Concerts under the auspices of the Plymouth Symphony Society.

The peaceful Plymouth Colony Farms, located about two miles west of Plymouth on Joy Road, will be the setting for the long-anticipated event, considered one of the most ambitious projects of the Society.

The outdoor Sunday concerts are scheduled for June 28 and July 12 and will start at 6 p.m. on each occasion. The orchestra shell has been erected beside the willow-lined lake on the farm and concertgoers will have the opportunity to hear the lyric and dramatic music of Handel against a background of scenic country beauty.

There will be no admission charge at either concert.

Although Handel Music Festivals are being conducted throughout the world this year, in commemoration of the famous 18th century composer, this Festival will be unique in that it will be the only one given in the Detroit area.

The purpose of the Handel commemoration is to acquaint persons with the many facets of the composer's genius as well as to supply good entertainment, and the programs selected by Conductor Dunlap cover a wide range of Handel's compositions.

Because of the enthusiasm surrounding the event, the Plymouth Symphony Society has been fortunate in securing orchestra participants from the Detroit Symphony, the Ann Arbor Symphony, and the Detroit Women's Symphony as well as the Plymouth Symphony musicians.

A special feature of the festival will be a lecture concerning the life and work of Handel which will be given at 8:15 p.m. Tuesday, June 23 by Dr. William Weichlein. The lecture will be held in the Dunning-Hough Library in Plymouth.

Plymouth High Seniors Say Farewells Tonight

Two hundred and twenty-six members of Plymouth High School's class of 1959 — second largest to be graduated — will receive their diplomas tonight (Thursday) at 8:00 in the school gymnasium. Rev. Robert Richards, minister of the Methodist Church of Saline, will give the commencement address.

Richards, well known in the Plymouth area, was born in a North Wales village, worked for many years in the coal mines and was formally educated only as far as the sixth grade.

In 1926 he came to America and the Detroit Institute of Technology to complete his secondary education. Four years of theological training at Albion followed, then appointments in East Detroit and Newburg. After a total of 14 years there at Newburg, he came to Saline.

During this month, Richards will be principal speaker at the Michigan and Iowa Boys State Conventions, as he has been for 15 years. In September he travels to Kansas City as speaker at the National Convention of County Agricultural Agents, adding this engagement to his total of over 100 speeches in Michigan and other states.

Graduation Exercises will be opened with an organ prelude played by Fred Nelson and the invocation given by Rev. Trevor Norton. Norton's son, Glyn, a graduating senior, will sing a baritone solo, "My Soul is Free."

Principal Carvel Bentley, class sponsor, Bill Brown, and President of the Board of Education, Austin Stecker, will present the seniors with their diplomas.

The entire class will sing their original class song, marking the end of the ceremonies.

Baccalaureate services were held Sunday in the gymnasium with Father William Child presenting the sermon.

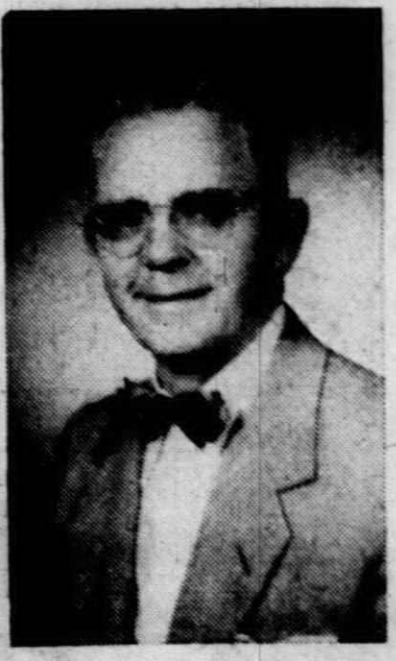

Drawing an analogy between the graduating class and the trees of a forest, he pointed out that the roots must grow in good "soil," home and community, and quoted effectively from Joyce Kilmer's poem "Trees." He noted that trees, withstanding the storms of life, may become the materials of communication, useless driftwood or the doors of opportunity.

Resident Dies From Auto Crash

Richard T. Hoffman, 44, 43271 Ford Road, lived several hours after sustaining injuries from an auto accident June 9 on Michigan Ave. near Southfield. Cause of the accident is unknown. There was no other car involved. The car he was driving went over an embankment.

Funeral services were held from Schrader Funeral Home Saturday, June 13, with Rev. Lynn B. Stout officiating. Interment was Riverside Cemetery.

Mr. Hoffman was born in Detroit in 1915 and came to this community in 1944 from Dearborn. He was owner and operator of a Sport Shop in Canton Township. He was also publisher of a rural shopper when he first came to this community.

SPEAKER at tonight's Plymouth High School commencement is Rev. Robert Richards, pastor of First Methodist Church of Saline. He was formerly at Newburg Methodist Church and is widely known in this vicinity. The pastor was selected by seniors as their commencement speaker.

Our Gift for Grads

The Plymouth Mail has a gift for all graduating high school seniors in this area. It's an opportunity to find a job, either permanent or part-time.

The Mail will give grads a free classified ad for work. All these ads will appear in a special section of the paper next week, giving employers an easy opportunity to read them.

Here is how to place your free ad. Write your name and address on a card; mark it "Graduate Classified"; then write the ad exactly as it will appear in the Mail, not exceeding 15 words. Either mail the card to our office, 271 S. Main, or bring it in. Ads must be received by our office no later than Saturday 10 a.m., June 20.

On Friday, June 5, the Auxiliary had their 12th anniversary celebration. Geraldine Olsen and Marian Skoglund were chairmen. There was plenty of good food for all, served potluck. Following the dinner 10 and five year membership pins were awarded 22 Auxiliary members.

Those receiving 10 year pins were Virginia Bartel, Corrine Clark, Georgina Elmer, Eleanor Epps, Marian Jackson, Betty Krumm, Betty Neale, Helen Shepard, Ann Smith, Grace Smith, William Voss and Dorothy Wilhelm. Five year pins went to Dorothy Archer, Hazel Basset, Iona Basset, Margaret Cline, Mildred Daly, Marie French, Esther Miller, Adele Packer, Adele Stevens and Joan Wadervein. Congratulations, girls!

Americanism Chairman, Geraldine Olsen, states that a large number of small American flags were distributed at the Memorial Day ceremonies also all Browns in and Cub Scouts parading were given an American flag.

Many favorable comments were expressed by the high school class of 1934 for which the Auxiliary served a buffet luncheon. Those girls who served did a fine catering job.

This is a final reminder for the chicken barbecue to be held at the Post Home on Sunday, June 21. Serving starts at 12 and will continue to 5 p.m. Tickets are $1.50 and available for any post member or at the door.

Michigan has a major tourist lure in its 3,500,000 acres of state forests, 2,400,000 acres of national forests, and 92,000 acres in state game areas.

Michigan ranks fourth among vacation states with a 5.7 per cent share of the domestic travel business. Some 9,750,000 tourists vacation annually in Michigan.

THE EXECUTIVE OFFICERS of the Graduating Class of the class of '34 from Plymouth High School taken with their class sponsor, Miss Gertrude Figel. They are: Harold Stevens, Secretary; Fred Hetsler, Vice-President; Oscar Luttermoser, President; Robert Champe, Student Council Representative. Seated, l-r Amalia Zielasko, Treasurer; Evalyn Rorbacher and Coraline Rathburn, Student Council Representatives. "Tweedles" was the Senior Play of 1934, the class song was to the tune of "Sweetheart of My Student Days."

TOGETHER AGAIN at the 25 year anniversary of their graduation, the same officers assume the same pose. Upper left, Harold Stevens still resides in Plymouth, is married and has children; Fred Hetsler lives in Detroit, and is also married with children; Oscar Luttermoser, a Plymouth resident is married and has children; Bob Champe, Rosedale Gardens is married with children. Seated (l-r) Amalia Zielasko Murphy is a Plymouth resident and has children; Evalyn Rorbacher Cash, Plymouth resident, married with children; Coraline Rathburn Stringer resides in Birmingham. Their class sponsor, standing, Miss Gertrude Figel is still a teacher at Plymouth High and remembers well her class of '34.

Class of '34 Spans 25 Years

"You haven't changed a bit, I'd recognize you anywhere," could be heard all over the VFW Hall last Saturday night when the Plymouth High graduating class of 1934 held their 25th reunion. Class officers formed the committee that planned the buffet supper and program for the evening. Bob Champe, said in the Plymouth, the yearbook, to be the "Class Nightingale Boy" was Master of Ceremonies. Approximately 90 people attended to have fun and reminisce together. Dancing to an orchestra completed the evening. Class President Oscar Luttermoser and his committee worked diligently to reach each "student" on the roster, with letters going out to many cities and states. Frederick (Arthur) Kepka, a judge in the Superior Court of Los Angeles County, traveled the greatest distance to be with his old classmates. The Plymouthan prophesied Arthur Kepka as "Likely to Become Famous." When he wrote his letter of reply, he did not think he would be able to attend, but later found he could. An excerpt of his letter reads, "At this time it appears that I will be unable to attend the 25th reunion of the Class of 1934—and my heart bleeds. There is nothing I would rather do than to attend this fine gathering and see how Father Time has treated each of you. Of course, since I will probably not be there myself, I'll first assure you that I have lost none of my good looks, fine figure and charming personality nor my inclination to prevaricate a bit when the situation calls for it. Let us hope that the combination of years has not dealt too harshly with any of you, and that you are able to join into the festivities unfettered with canes, leaky valves or damaged livers." Three teachers forgave the class of 1934 any of their misdeeds and attended the party. Miss Figel, Kenneth Mathison and Jim Latture, who is retired from teaching and still lives in Plymouth. The true test of the success of the evening may be measured by the fact that plans were immediately made to have another one in 1964, on the 30th anniversary of the class of 1934. The new auditorium of the Pretoria University of South Africa, unveiled in 1958, seats 1,071 persons.

Through The Portals Of Higher Education

The excitement of graduation is in the air! Plymouth has many students writing this to their college careers this spring. Richard R. Adler, 311 N. Holbrook receives his Master of Science from University of Michigan. Others receiving degrees from the University this term are Donald H. Dilworth, 267 Blanche, Bachelor of Science in Engineering; Mary L. Fishbeck, 4060 Berry Rd., Bachelor of Arts in Education; Armin F. Haerer, 159 S. Harvey St., Doctor of Medicine; Alvin H. Atoms Here

(Continued from Page 1) operates under the direction of the U.S. Atomic Energy Commission. There is no admission charge. The exhibits, some of them operated by the spectator himself, explain research and development in the atomic energy field, ranging from the mining and refining of radioactive ores to the construction of nuclear reactors designed to provide electric power. Also included in the vehicle are panels and models explaining the principles and uses of atomic energy. Applications of the new science are illustrated in pacetime fields of medicine, power production, industry, agriculture and research. Called the "Atoms at Work" mobile exhibit, it will be brought to Plymouth as a public service by the Jaycees.

News Beat

Early Fourth of July activity on Simpson between South Main and Harvey Streets was evident at 1 a.m. Monday morning when police received a report of fire crackers popping in the area. They were unable to locate the celebrants.

At 5:25 a.m. police received a report that the railroad gates at Sheldon Road near the Western Electric Plant had been down since 5 a.m. Cause of the trouble was three trains in succession. A City ordinance requires that gates can only be down for five minutes at a time, and then the train must be separated. Then the train must be stopped and ticketed. It is a very cumbersome procedure, however, as everyone on the train must be ticketed.

Ellis Restaurant's grill overheated Saturday evening causing grease to catch fire. Firemen were called to the scene at 8:16 and extinguished the flames in half a minute with a dry powder spray. Ellis personnel had held down the fire with wet cloths until firemen arrived. Guests in an adjacent room continued dining undisturbed. Ellis is situated at 270 S. Main Street.

More than half of the pedestrians killed annually in auto accidents reportedly jaywalked or acted in an otherwise unsafe manner.

Boys In Government

On Thursday, June 18, nine "Boys' State" is a major Americanism program sponsored by the Michigan Department of The American Legion and its 75,000 members. The program is designed to help the youths: 1) develop leadership qualities of good citizenship, and 2) learn the advantages of good citizenship, and 3) cultivate a spirit of good sportsmanship. Climax of the eight day program comes on Sunday (June 21) when the delegates elect the Boys' State Governor and other top officials. During the balance of the week the State Senators, Representatives, County Supervisors, and City Councilmen learn to draft bills, enact them into laws, and then administer and enforce the laws after they are passed. The youths will also publish their own daily newspaper, and attend lectures on subjects ranging from conservation to foreign relations and juvenile delinquency. Included in the schedule of activities will be talks by Governor G. Mennen Williams; John M. Carey, Commander, Michigan Department of The American Legion, and Tom Hamilton, Vice President of Michigan State University.

July 4th Celebration

By KARLA HERBOLD
Plans for Plymouth's Fourth of July celebration are in full swing under the direction of Jaycee's General Chairman, Jack Young. The events of the afternoon will begin with the Main Street parade at 2 p.m.

In the parade will be the newly crowned Miss Plymouth, her court, various local service units and city officials. At the close of the parade, a carnival, circus acts and animals, animal rides, a Chamber of Commerce talent show between 7:30 and 9:30 and fireworks at 10:30 — all free — will entertain townpeople.

The Teen Dance of July will be the scene of the crowning of Miss Plymouth of 1959-60. Gail Stanbury and Bob Young have chaired this event. John Tripp is chairman of the carnival and the Kiwanis Club of Plymouth guided by Gordon Bunn and Bill Lyons, have arranged the parade. Tom Hirzel and the Fire Department are in charge of the fireworks and chairman Jack Young has arranged for the circus.

At 11 in the morning, the animals of the circus will be on display behind the school. These same animals will be in the afternoon's parade, along with Buster Brown and his dog. The carnival, which is a professional touring group, has several local exhibits, including concessions by the Town's service groups and a Home Show Tent. This latter display consists of household goods and a yard donated by various businessmen and realtors.

Six acts make up the afternoon circus performance. Eddie Frisco, a South American slack-wire walker, a wonder elephant, Jennie the Smallest Performing Elephant and two clown acts — from the Barnum and Bailey and the Ed Sullivan shows, will be presented to townspeople in the open air.

Alternating with the circus acts will be free elephant rides for children under 10 accompanied by their parents. Both the rides and the shows will begin at 6 and end at 9. At 9, as part of the circus, will be elephants and 20 cages of wild animals which will become part of the earlier parade.

SCHOOL BOOKS IN HAND these four leave P.H.S. for the last time this year before they start for Europe to spend the summer. All the girls are exchange students and they are from left to right Sharon Neal, Gloria Bowles, Sally Sawyer and Linda Leet. Sharon is off to Austria, Gloria and Linda are headed for Germany while Sally will travel all over Europe.

Four Plymouth High Girls Packing for Europe Trip

Europe!
That's where four Plymouth High school girls, all good friends, will spend the summer as foreign exchange students traveling with the Youth for Understanding Teen-age Exchange Program.

Living in a European home for July and August will be Sharon Neal, 16 year old daughter of Mrs. Florence Neal, 1157 Penniman, who will stay with a family in Austria.

Germany bound are Linda Leet, 17, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Leet of 1497 Sheridan; and Gloria Bowles, 16, daughter of Judge and Mrs. George E. Bowles, 11749 Turkey Run.

Sally Sawyer will be traveling with the Michigan Chorale. Her parents are the Charles Sawyers, 1435 Penniman.

Sharon and Linda will be the first to leave — they climb aboard a Flying Tiger at Metropolitan airport next Monday, June 22. The two will arrive in Amsterdam after 18 hours in the air, and, following some sightseeing in Amsterdam, will catch trains for the towns where they will spend the summer.

Leonding, in northern Austria, is Sharon's destination. Her "family," Dr. and Mrs. W. Reich-Rohrig, Peter, 16, Manfred, 14, Thomas, 11 and Johannes, 4 will meet Sharon at a station in Linz. Sharon will have traveled a night and a day across Germany. Leonding's a suburb of Linz, a town of 200,000 on the Danube River, 100 miles from Vienna.

Sharon won't meet her Austrian "sister," Cristal, 18, who was an exchange student in Sturgis, Mich. in 1957, until she returns from a senior trip in Switzerland. Shortly after Cristal's arrival, the family will leave to spend three or four days sightseeing in Vienna, then head for several weeks at the clan's country farm, where their home will be . . . a small castle. Cristal wrote that the family has rented a flat for the month of August — it's on a lake in the Alps.

Linda Leet will be spending the summer in Stolberg, Germany, an industrial town of 35,000 near Bonn and Cologne. It is on the northern border of Germany, only a stone's throw from Belgium and Luxembourg. Lin's German sister, like Sharon's new Austrian relative, has had an experience as an exchange student . . . in fact, 17-year old Madga Beiss is now attending an American high school in Hartford City, Ind.

Madga won't be home until late July. Greeting Linda, however, will be her twin sister, Augie, Paul, 14, Karl, 9, Wilfred, 3 and Mr. and Mrs. Beiss. He is section manager in a brass and copper factory in Stolberg.

Several letters have been exchanged between Linda and her new sister. Madga told the PHS junior she mustn't have any diet plans, for the family doesn't want her to go home "undernourished." She also instructed Lin to ask for a beverage during the meal if she is accustomed to one, although the Germans don't drink with every meal. "We don't want you to dry out!" she declared. Madga mentioned that school in Germany begins August 10, so Linda may get a first hand view of that country's educational system. Both Linda and Sharon will arrive home August 26.

Betzweiler in southern Germany will be the hometown of Gloria Bowles, who will leave June 29. At press time, Glo had written to her "family," but received no return correspondence. Unable to find the apparently tiny town in the area of the Alps and the Black Forest, she hopes to spend a week in Italy for a holiday with some German friends, and has an invitation to visit a French pen pal in brothers and sisters before Paris.

Her ideas for outside trips will have to be discussed with her German parents, ventures with "Mail" read-plans are finalized. Gloria will share her European adventures, as she writes back a column from the continent. She will be home August 30.

In a recent letter, Linda's German sister, Madga, reported that a member of the Michigan Chorale will be staying at their home for five days . . . Linda hopes the visitor will be Plymouthite Sally Sawyer, who with the Michigan Chorale, a group of 100 voices trying to promote international understanding through music, will make one of their stops at Stolberg.

Blond Sal will leave a week from today, June 25. She and the Chorale will first sing in Bangor, Ireland. Other stops will be Keswick and Royal Tunbridge Wells in England, the latter town being the home of Plymouthite exchange student Jonie Izett, when she visited in England last summer. The Chorale will be in London from July 4-10 (Sally noted the irony of the British visit on our Independence day . . . she vows she'll have an American flag!), then travel to Stolberg, Paris, Berlin, for ten days, Hamburg, Copenhagen and Helsinki. In some towns the teen singers will stay in the homes of families in the community; other stops will find them holding out in hotels. The Chorale will arrive back in Detroit on August 31.

The group has been practicing since October, when tryouts for the Chorale were held. Before leaving they made four appearances, one of them in Plymouth, collected their uniforms of blue blazers, white shirts or blouses and gray skirts or slacks, and went through some 35 pieces of music, written in English, Latin and Spanish.

All four girls are traveling through the auspices of the Michigan and Ann Arbor Council of Churches whose headquarters are in Ann Arbor.

Three of the exchange students will be living exclusively in German-speaking countries. None of them speak German. They've all had French, though . . . Linda one year, Gloria and Sharon, three.

Of the four, Sally has the Differences Now Exist, They Agree

Pressed hard by questioners, a Wayne County expert said Monday night he thought it would be a "good idea" if all the government units in the Plymouth school district got together and agreed to assess property "in the same way" for tax purposes.

It was agreed by those present—and they were there from Plymouth Township, the City of Plymouth, Canton Township and the School Board—that there are differences in method among neighbors today.

Al Champney, head of the County Bureau of Taxation, was the featured speaker at the special meeting which had been called by the school board "to see what can be done to assure ourselves that assessing is being done in an equitable way throughout the school district."

The meeting had its spicy moments as the officials from various areas traded a few barbs. One generally agreed upon summary of the situation, however, as contributed by Treasurer Elizabeth H. Jones of Plymouth Township and it was:

1. In the City of Plymouth, personal property assessments are lower than the rest of the school district.
2. In Plymouth Township, personal property is up to County standard, but land assessments are lower than in the rest of the district.
3. In Canton, there is the smallest discrepancy of all, but building assessments are somewhat lower than in the rest of the school district.

Harold Fischer of the school board asked Champney why it wouldn't be desirable to show the actual levied school millage on tax bills.

"The real figure never shows, only the adjustment," Fischer said. "Thus people in the Township see one figure for school millage on their

Lake Pointe Villagers Involved in Parties

By Marcy Barison
GL. 3-6729

On Friday, June 6, fun was really plentiful for several residents on Shadywood Drive. On the afternoon of that day Chip Ennis was really surprised by the baby shower given in her honor. Doris Ryder and Rosalie Bales arranged the pretty lawn party which was held in Doris' backyard. Lovely lawn furniture and umbrellas, tables set with colorful fresh flower centerpieces, and cool drinks for all began the affair. Chip was delighted with the many useful and darling baby things she received. The guest list included Ilene Harriman, Joyce Close, Dorothy Szymski, Bonnie Coons, Norma Richards, Helen Laffey, Peggy Pertola, and Marcy Barison. June Hudson sent over her gift, but was unable to come because she was busy preparing for a bridal shower which was to be held at her home that evening. Eighteen guests attended the shower which was in honor of June's sister-in-law to be, Elaine Ellis. Ralph Bakewell and Elaine will wed in the near future.

On the same evening John Close held a stag party at his home with a guest list of 20 teachers, all from Plymouth High School. The men had a great time, first inspecting John's new home and then playing cards, eating, and refreshing themselves with a few cool drinks. John was host to Roger Smithling, John Sandmann, Bob Southgate, Gus Gorguze, Bob Smith, Herb Woolweaver, Keith Baughman, Bill Brown, Bill Campbell, Jim Doyle, Bill Green, Loren Grieves, Dick Griffith, Don Helmer, John Hoben, Ray Homer, John Ingram, Jim Marshall, John Griffith, and Bart Rogers.

Moss and Estelle O'Bryant attended the commencement ceremonies of their daughter Reba Jean O'Bryant who was graduated from Central Michigan University on Sunday, June 7, with a bachelor of arts degree. She graduated Cum Laude, was also selected to represent Central Michigan in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges. She is also a member of Pi Kappa Sigma Sorority, Sigma Tau Delta Honorary English Fraternity, Alpha Psi Omega Dramatic Fraternity, and Kappa Delta Pi Honorary Educational Fraternity. She has been given a scholarship grant to Michigan State University to study for her master's degree, beginning in September. Moss and Estelle can well be proud of such a talented daughter.

Visiting "O'Bie" (Moss' nickname) the past few weeks was his mother, Mrs. Ethel O'Bryant of Oakton, Kentucky. Mrs. Rema Rash, O'Bie's sister, also of Oakton flew up for Reba's commencement and returned to Oakton on Monday. Estelle's mother, Mrs. Della Field of Los Angeles who was also visiting with her family, but unfortunately was called back to her home in California before Reba's graduation.

On Saturday evening Estelle and O'Bie had a graduation party for Jean. Many of her school friends and other friends and relatives attended the wonderful party. The backyard and garage were well lighted and music was supplied by O'Bie's new HiFi. Young feet tapped out a gay tune until the wee hours of the morning. The food was set out in buffet style.

The brown spots that so many Villagers have found in their lawns has been discovered to be a form of fungus caused by the hot, humid weather we have been having.

The application of "Scuti" has been found to stop the spread of this disease. There should be little amount of watering for a few days thereafter. The cold spell we have just had is also excellent in stopping the further spread of this fungus. If "Scuti" doesn't work there is another chemical you might use which is put out by Upjohn.

Be sure to phone in your latest news. Didn't have a column last week due to the fact that no one reported any new events in our Village. Haven't you done or seen anything of interest in your end of the Village? Call GL. 3-6729!

(Covering the area along Sheldon to Ann Arbor Trail, Harvey, and Sutherland, including Plymouth Colony, Hough Subdivision, Plymouth Hills and Ridgewood.)

The Plymouth Hills Association held their annual picnic Sunday, June 14. It was a semi-potluck affair with each family bringing their own main course plus two dishes to share. After all that lovely food, the activities included sack races, three-legged races, a relay race and another race which I am at a loss to name. It involved the wives carrying eggs in spoons over the prescribed distance to the line of waiting husbands with paper cups on their heads. The women then tried to place the eggs in the cups without dropping the egg or cup. It was good for a lot of laughs and I didn't see anyone with egg on their face. There were peanut scrambles for the children and besides full hands and pockets, there were a number of shirts and hats full with at least two shoes full. A number of children and a few adults managed to carry off prizes.

Bird School sixth graders had their graduation ceremony at the school Monday evening, June 15. The sixth graders and their parents were guests at a tea with the mothers of fifth graders as hostesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willoughby of Ann Arbor Trail celebrated their 30th wedding anniversary June 11. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Goddard and Mr. and Mrs. Rolf Smith joined the Willoughbys for dinner at Lofy's Arbor-Lill. Visiting the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beck of Amherst Court, June 8 and 9 was Mrs. Vivian Moore of Hillsdale, Mich. Mrs. Beck's mother, daughter Betsy is home now, having completed her freshman year at Hillsdale.

At a meeting of Cub Pack 76 at Gallimore School, James Johnson was made a Tenderfoot Scout. He had been in Webelos and was the only boy who completed all the requirements. The entertainment was a skit, a costume square dance.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Roberts of Beck Road have just returned from a 10 day 2,500 mile trip, which covered New England and the St. Lawrence Seaway. Mr. Roberts got in two days fishing on the St. Lawrence River and caught the limit.

Bird School PTA officers for 1959-60 are Mr. Milton Fetner, president; Mrs. Richard Newton, first vice-president; Mrs. Gordon Robinson, second vice-president; Mr. John Coxford, third vice-president; Mr. Eugene Niles, treasurer and Mrs. David Mather, secretary.

Jody Edgar, 14 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Edgar of Ridge Road, is leaving June 30 for the National Senior Roundup of the Girl Scouts. Jody is one of 40 scouts chosen to represent the Huron Valley Council, and one of the six from the Plymouth area. This is quite an honor and Jody is thrilled with the prospect. The camp is located near Colorado Springs, Colorado. She will return July 14.

On June 23, Gallimore School held their annual picnic on the school grounds. The school has a pleasant wooded area with picnic tables. Mr. Earl Gibson, principal, was busy with a lawn mower. The weather was a little cool but a baseball game and other activities warmed things up a bit.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Peterson of Amherst Court are busy with preparations for the wedding of their son Roger to Miss Joyce Smith. Miss Smith is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Smith of South Main. The couple have just finished finals at Michigan State in East Lansing. The wedding is to be June 21 at the Methodist Church.

The Petersons are also expecting their daughter, Mrs. Arden Deutsche, and their grandson Mark on June 17. Mr. Deutsche will arrive June 19.

Gallimore School PTA officers for the 1959-60 year are Mr. Robert Swanson, president; Mrs. Esther Sprengel, first vice-president; Mrs. Doris White, second vice-president; Mrs. Helen McDonough, secretary; and Miss Ann Dunsmore, treasurer.

Weekending in Canada June 13 and 14 were the Ernest Williams family of Amherst Court. Mr. and Mrs. Williams and three daughters thoroughly enjoyed the beach and the lovely weather. Daughter Betsy will go on Girl Scout Camp at Cedar Lake June 21 for 9 days of

Promoted To Sales Manager

Robert Byrne of Evans Products Company, Plymouth, has been promoted to Sales Manager of the Company's Railroad Loading Equipment Division. Ben Colman, Company Vice President in charge of the division, announced today.

Mr. Byrne, who is Vice President of the Detroit Chapter of the National Defense Transportation Association, has been with the Evans Company since 1947, with a background in automotive and packaging industries, he joined Evans as a Traffic Manager, moved up to Production Manager for the Railroad Equipment Division, and in 1953 was made assistant Sales Manager, Railroad Division.

Evans damage-prevention equipment for use in freight cars include the DF Loader, the Quick Loader, and Hydra-Cushion Underframe shock-absorbing draft gear.

It is expected that 970,000 single family houses will be built in the United States in 1959.

Grange Gleanings

Our Grange is invited to attend church next Sunday, June 21 at the Methodist Church. Let's have a good crowd at the 11 o'clock service.

We are happy to announce that Charlie Rianas is home from the hospital and is improving in health. Seems to feel pretty good.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Lunn celebrated Mr. Lunn's birthday Sunday by going to dinner at the Washtenaw County Farm Council Activities building south of Ann Arbor. Several other of our Grange members were also there: Mr. and Mrs. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. Tritten, and Mr. and Mrs. Amrhein.

Don't forget the ice-cream social tomorrow night beginning at 5 p.m. Ice cream and cake with strawberries will be served in the hall.

Conservation Notes

LANSING, June 3 — Liberalized regulations are in the making for shooting preserve operators this fall.

After studying the program's rather unrewarding debut in Michigan last year, Conservation Department officials have drafted a list of recommendations directed at improving operator and hunter success.

The Conservation Commission will act on the recommendations during its June 11-12 meeting at the Higgins Lake training school.

Headlining the Department's proposals are a longer open season on pheasants and ducks and an increase in allowable take of pheasants.

Earlier shooting, as the Department proposes by advancing the opening date from October 20 to September 15, would help maintain shooting fees at a reasonable rate.

This proposal hinges upon legislative passage during the current session of an amendment which would permit preserve shooters to take weapons afield 15 days prior to the regular season.

Michigan's present opening date is distinctively conservative as compared with other states. Of 22 other states, all open at least three weeks before the regular season. All but four open six or more weeks prior to the season.

An earlier season would benefit the regular hunter too, with more birds escaping preserves to become game targets on the outside.

Department officials believe that more liberalized quotas on pheasants would allow higher kill totals and, thus, lower shooting fees.

Present graduated quotas permit 50, 60 and 70 percent takes on pheasant releases of 500-1,000 and over 1,000, respectively. The Department recommends a 10 percent increase for each bracket. Even with a higher quota, the number of released birds not allowed to be shot on large preserves may run from several hundred to 1,000 or more.

A change is sought which would permit hunters to shoot preserve ducks within 40 yards of lakes, streams and ponds. It would be unlawful to shoot toward these waters within an 80-yard limit.

The present 80-yard zone, designed to eliminate the shooting of any wild birds, has made it difficult for some operators to find a suitable area for establishing blinds.

Tips for Teens
By ELINOR WILLIAMS

If you're going job hunting this summer, you'll be more successful if you follow these tips:

Conform to adult customs in clothes instead of wearing rock 'n' roll garb. If you're a girl, wear a suitable dress or suit, stockings and shoes with heels (unless you always wear "flats"). In a large city, a hat and gloves will help you make a good appearance if you're applying for an office job. Avoid low-cut sun-dresses, play shoes, too many petticoats, heavy makeup and bare legs.

If you're a boy, wear a suit, tie and conservative shirt, if you're applying for an office job. For other kinds of job-hunting (industry, recreation center, etc.), a sports shirt will do if it's clean; avoid a sloppy sports shirt, T-shirt, sweater or jacket. Boy or girl, be sure you're clean and neat, including details such as hands, nails, ears and hair.

Try to get the kind of work that interests you... and it will give you helpful, valuable experience for your career or job later. When you apply for the job, show an interest in the work, not just in the "federal lettuce" and the days off.

Remember that, although there's "always room at the top," you can't start there, especially in a temporary or part-time summer job. So when you get a job, make like a freshman, not a senior; try to learn the job well and fit into the organization... and not expect the job to conform to YOUR convenience. Remember you're a beginner, not a vice-president.

Do your best on the job, because you might want another summer job there and your present work might lead to a full-time job. You'll also want a good recommendation from this employer, next time you look for a job.

For free printed tips on "How To Overcome Shyness," send a stamped, self-addressed envelope to Elinor Williams at this paper.

Allen Extension Group Students at Craft School

The Allen Home Economics Extension Group will meet June 24 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Leo Heiler, 46877 W. Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth.

The lesson subject will be making cancer pads and the showing of summer crafts that were made June 1 and 10 at the June Craft School.

There was a large attendance at all six sessions. The lessons taught were leather and copper tooling; mosaic tile; basketry; copper jewelry; stick dishes; dried arrangements and Mom and Pop plates. Mrs. Stanley Travis had charge of the teaching in making plates. Other members that attended the sessions were Mrs. John Amrhein, Mrs. Lloyd Busha, Mrs. Carl Caplin, Mrs. Harold Barnes, Mrs. Edwin Goltz and Mrs. Harvey Vetal.

Visit Home

Mr. and Mrs. George H. Brown, Jr. and son George III visited their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Brown, Sr. at their residence, 609 Adams over the weekend. The younger Browns are presently living in Illinois where George Jr. is stationed with the armed forces at Ft. Sheridan.

ALL THE PLANTS that surround Mr. Esco Asher, he grew on his two and a half acres at 47148 Ford Road. He and his wife have gardened their acreage surrounding their home for the 14 years they have lived there. They both enjoy working with the soil and with flowers and have an early spring vegetable garden toward the front and a later vegetable garden toward the back of their acreage. The flower garden area, right near the house, is almost completely in the care of Mrs. Asher. Mr. Asher was laid off from work last year and so decided to go into the gardening business. This is his second year and he has a wide variety of vegetables, flowering and foliage plants. He sells only what he raises. Mrs. Asher assists him on the transplanting and occasionally his step-daughter and husband from Garden City come over and give him a hand. Their well-kept home and landscaped yard are a good background for Mr. Asher's new "business."

45 Year Old Wife, Homemaker Is Wayne University Graduate

An unusual house party took place in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Karl Starkweather, 711 Starkweather Ave. last Saturday afternoon. The occasion was in honor of the Starkweathers' 45 year-old daughter, Evelyn, who had just been graduated from Wayne State University the week before.

Evelyn, oldest of the four Starkweather daughters, was graduated from Plymouth High School in the Class of 1930. She then enrolled at Michigan State Normal College in Ypsilanti, continuing only through her freshman year. Came the heart of the Depression. Funds were scarce and jobs few, but Evelyn found work as a sales clerk in a Detroit hardware store. She remained there for several years, leaving to become the wife of Edwin J. Ryan, now one of the chief engineers in the Detroit waterworks system.

Three years ago, Mrs. Ryan decided it was time for her to continue her studies, so she enrolled at Wayne State. Looking after her home, husband, nine and 11 year old daughters, her hobby of sewing and her grade average at the University, she found to be a struggle. But the girl who once taught piano lessons in Plymouth, came through on top. Last Thursday, in cap and gown at the Detroit State Fair Coliseum, she became one of the University's 1,567 graduates, receiving the degree of Bachelor of Arts in Education. On Saturday, 40 of her friends and relatives gathered at the Starkweather home for the house party celebration.

Do You Really Understand Our Chamber of Commerce?

By DONALD MILLIKIN

What is the Chamber doing? How does it really operate? Many of us have some impressions, but suppose we consider how it really ticks?

First, the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce is an organization—not just a bunch of individuals. It is composed of a membership which elects directors who serve staggered three year terms.

At present they cannot succeed themselves, so there is no possibility of perpetuating leadership. Directors elect officers who fill one year terms. This same Board of Directors holds the responsibility for hiring a manager. Officers, which consist of the President, two Vice Presidents, and Treasurer, as well as an elected Secretary, are the ones who select the projects, and committee chairmen to lead committees. Chairmen select other members to help in organization activity.

The manager handles the staff, co-ordinates the activity, and executes the decisions of the membership conveyed via the Board of Directors.

Activities often initiate from within the membership, such as Burroughs Week, Midnight Madness and the automobile dealer group. Other projects stem from Board action, as in the cases of the Industrial dinner, July Fourth programs and more recently the leasing of the Central Parking Lot.

Groups within the Chamber of Commerce often bind themselves together for reasons based on common interest such as retailing, industrial enterprise, or automobile sales.

We have considered how the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce is organized, now let's take a brief look at some of its services. Generally these services, as well as its other activities, are accomplished through the Chamber of Commerce because no single individual or smaller group could provide them for themselves.

The Better Business Bureau with which our own Chamber is affiliated registers complaints by consumers concerning business practice. The Community Protection Committee registers all other complaints within the business community. A Solicitations Committee controls solicitations to businessmen in Plymouth.

The staff of the Chamber of Commerce produces an organization list which is revised annually and includes the names of key officers, phone numbers and meeting dates of Plymouth's 70 or more organizations.

Research material and information is maintained by the Chamber of Commerce office on such subjects as regional planning, parking and traffic material, projects, business statistics, economic factors, plant and business literature, travel folders and directories.

The Chamber of Commerce Office is a beehive for phone calls and personal visits of many people seeking information about Plymouth, its people, groups, business and its economy.

The subject of Plymouth Chamber of Commerce policies many times enters the minds of businessmen and residents alike. We have space here to merely touch on them today. The Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce is a paid member of the United States Chamber of Commerce. It receives literature and materials from the national body. Its policies are entirely independent of the United States Chamber.

The policies, plans and programs for the Plymouth Chamber are adopted by its Board of Directors on the basis of suggestions by the membership and the needs of the Plymouth area. Those who effectively communicate their ideas are definitely heard.

Like any organization, the Chamber of Commerce in Plymouth requires some financial planning and support. This support is derived almost entirely from its membership. No one firm or person controls or underwrites the Chamber of Commerce.

There is only one type of membership at present. It is a full paid membership based on a set dues schedule payable for a full year or (in the case of new members) the portion of the remaining fiscal year.

The office is maintained, staff retained and funds budgeted on the basis of the amount of memberships supporting the Chamber of Commerce.

The Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce, like many Chambers around it, obtains its strength and effectiveness from those who support it and make it effective. Only those businessmen who have the courage, strength and intelligence to work for the betterment of the community through the Chamber of Commerce can hope to enjoy its benefits.

Whitetails Perish
LANSING, June 3 — An estimated 69,000 whitetails perished in Michigan's woods between mid-November and early April, according to the Conservation Department's recently completed deer survey.
The survey was conducted in approximately 550 randomly-selected plots encompassing the deer range in both peninsulas.
In 1956, when the last major spring survey was made, the total dead deer figure was an estimated 115,650.
Deep snow, severe temperatures and a shortage of food had set the stage for mid-February for unprecedented losses to the deer herd.
In late March, daytime thaws and nighttime freezes permitted deer to leave their pads on crusted snow to reach more food. A mild spring breakup also aided many deer that were on the brink of starvation.
Department officials cite the effect of special seasons as another important factor in avoiding heavy losses. Last season's harvest of 25,000 extra deer eased the pressure on the herd's food supply.

Northville Downs to Open 16th Season On Monday

Northville Downs' 16th season will begin Monday, (June 22) immediately following the meet at Hazel Park which closes Saturday (June 20).
The 36-night meeting will go through August 1. Northville will get off to a sizzling start with the $10,000 added HTA Pace to be held on June 27, the first Saturday.
It is one of seven early closing events at the suburban track — Michigan's pioneer harness racing parimutuel plant.
Seldom does a track open the campaign with such a rich stake, but that is the story at Northville Downs and to add a bit of icing to the cake, it will have the same horses back a week later on Friday, July 3 for the $5,000 Invitational HTA Pace.
Executive Manager John J. Carlo is looking forward to a season that will be equal to or better than that of a year ago when Northville showed a 7.3 percent hike in attendance, with an average of 5,079, although there was a slight 3.2 percent dip in the handle with an average of $242,107.
The attendance increase at Northville in 1958 was surprising since the State was in the throes of a recession during most of the 1958 racing season.
The stakes program is the most elaborate offered at the track in several years and includes five events in addition to the rich HTA and its companion, Invitational.
The remainder of the stakes program follows on consecutive Wednesdays, starting on July 8 with the $3,500 Northville Trot. Then follows: the $3,500 Northville Pace on July 15; the $4,000 Wolverine Pace on July 22; the $4,000 Wayne County Trot on July 29; and the $5,000 Tri-Meat Pace which features closing week on Friday, July 31.
Archie Miles Jr., driver and trainer for the powerful Drumbeat Stable and winner of the 1958 driving championships, will be back to defend his laurels.
He figures to have plenty of trouble because youthful George Sholty, the Nation's leading driver with 108 victories, plans to make a strong bid for the title that was denied him a year ago. Sholty had the most victories at Northville in 1958 but Archie compiled the best winning percentage which decides the championship.

ED SOLEAU of 543 Adams is an early morning carp shooter with an impressive record of kills. Ed is one of a group of people that are turning to bow and arrows for their carp shooting fun. Last season was the first that he tried using the bow and arrow and managed to log 40 kills for the entire season. This year, however, Ed has chalked up 136 kills and is still going strong. Many times he heads for the water before school starts, sometimes bagging as many as six carp. Here Ed is seen on one of his early morning outings (this picture was taken at 5:30) as he is about to bag a large carp. Most of his hunting is confined to the water along Hines Drive. Most any night that is clear, there are two to three bow and arrow hunters wading in the water with bow in hand. Bill Keefe of Davis and Lent's sporting goods dept. confirms the fact that there are a great number of people involved in this fast growing sport.

Stockwell Breaks Leg In 3rd Inning

The Plymouth Merchants suffered the loss of one of their best players, with a broken leg, in Sunday afternoon's competition with the Redford Merchants.
Jerry Stockwell, first baseman for the local merchants, broke his leg in a freak accident in the third inning of play, as Redford defeated Plymouth 11-10.
Stockwell suffered a compound fracture of the leg as his foot caught on the first base bag as he and the second baseman were attempting to force out a Redford runner in the third inning. The runner dove back to the safety of the bag catching Stockwell's leg, when he was unable to move.
Plymouth led Redford at the end of the fourth going into the fifth. It was in the fifth that the Redford squad was able to score. Then they proceeded to collect 11 runs on nine hits. Plymouth was able to score their 10 runs from 14 hits.
The local merchants could have pulled the game out of the loss column if they hadn't committed the small errors that could and did kill the team. Little things like running under fly balls was common or miffing the ones they did get near.
Two pitchers were used by each team. But much shifting was the order for the Plymouth team as they tried to find some players that were not tense and could handle the assignments.
Lack of experience seems to be the only answer for the errors that were committed. Because both the hitting and the pitching showed improvement. More so than in the game previous.
This Sunday the Merchants will host South Lyons as Plymouth looks for that long overdue win. Two new pitchers are reported to show up for practice this Friday night.

Registration Set For 22nd

Attention all 8-13 year olds, get out your glove and report to the bleachers Monday afternoon for registration in this season's little league baseball activities.
Monday afternoon, 3:30-5:30, has been slated as the opening day for registration in this summer's baseball program for the eight to thirteen year old players.
These are the last diamond men to report and start the season's activities.
In past years, there has always been a large turn-out for the program. Again this year Mike Hoben and Gorge will be the supervisors. Plans now include the use of between four and six high school ball players as assistants in handling the future stars. Supervisor Hoben informs the Mail that at the present time none have been named.
The league has two flexible divisions, 8-11 and 12-13, and last year supported four teams in each of these headings.

Frank Hoard Supervisor Retires
LANSING, June 3 — The Conservation Department will lose another veteran employee when Frank A. Hoard, field administration supervisor of Traverse City district, retires June 5.
Hoard began his 31-year career with the Department in 1928 as conservation officer in Grand Traverse county. He was named assistant district supervisor in 1932. In 1933, he was promoted to district supervisor, a position he has held for 26 years.
Department employees held a retirement party for Hoard May 28 at the Higgins Lake training school.

Woolweaver Heads Planning Committee

Months of planning will come to an end on July 30 when The Detroit Metropolitan Cities' Youth Fitness Program is held on the Plymouth high school athletic field.
Herbert Woolweaver, Plymouth Director of Adult Education and Recreation is chairman of the ten-man planning group.
Starting as far back as last fall, the group has been thinking ahead for the youth fitness day. Planning started in earnest when the first meetings were held last February.
So far thirty-one of the thirty-five cities asked have replied with a yes answer. Of the rest, there are still some more to be heard from.
A survey team from Detroit has been at the athletic field and scale drawings of the field are being made so that each city will have a working knowledge of the ground before the 30th of July.
An estimated 2000 young athletes from the 31 cities will be on hand to run through the various drills that form the bulk of Fitness Day. Awards will be given for the first, second and third place winners.
A local service group is donating a large portion of the money needed to buy the trophies. The rest of the money is to come from the other cities that are taking part in the program.

SPORTSEEN

By LEE SECHLER
I am going to ride a camel this Sunday night. Yes, right here in the state of Michigan. Down at the Flat Rock Speedway they are inviting all the sports writers from the surrounding area to ride the animals in a race. My boss got me into this one. But you know I think that I might like it. After all it might beat pounding a typewriter for a living. And if there is a steady job involved, I could always buy a sheet and make like an Arab.
Forgot to ask, though, if the camels have one hump or two. Then again a fall from the back of a camel could be my undoing.
So therefore this could be my last column to you my followers. At the last survey there was a grand total of almost nine readers. Or was it ten.
I should complain. Nine readers, that's a lot of people. But then the material that you see here has been checked by the advertising department to make sure that it is not taking up any space that could be put to an ad.
Picked up two new readers last week but I don't think it would be wise to explain how it is done. It might give the wrong impression to any young minds that can read.
Harry, the Detroit fan at Lofy's today imparted this bit of information, "Harrison is going to start a hitting streak."

Flat Rock To Host Writers Sunday P.M.

Flat Rock Speedway will feature camel and ostrich racing this Sunday night at 8:30 p.m.
Sportswriters from the area's papers have been invited to take part in the evening's races. Along with the animal races there will be the usual stock car events.
The evening's festivities should provide both spectators and riders with laughs and a few bumps. Flat Rock Speedway is located at Telegraph and Newburg Roads in Flat Rock, Mich.
Writers from the local papers are to be the drivers and riders in the events featuring animals. Most of the typewriter jockeys will, without a doubt, return to their offices Monday morning slightly black and blue from the night's activities.
So far no writers have been killed, which is more than the people responsible for the 500 mile race can claim.
Sixteen events and forty-six animals are all for the viewing of all who attend Sunday night.
The animals and the circus are the property of Gene Holter's. Many will remember the name from past events.
It is billed as "the only circus of its kind in the world."

Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter

Plan Theatre Party June 20

Mrs. Robert Willoughby presided as the new Regent of the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter of the D.A.R. last Monday afternoon. Mrs. Earl Mastick of Milford was the hostess for a picnic luncheon preceding the meeting.

Other new officers assuming their responsibilities are Vice Regent, Mrs. C. Gracey, Northville; Second Vice Regent, Mrs. Ernest Shane; Chaplain, Mrs. Harry Deyo, Recording Secretary, Mrs. Thomas Lanery; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Charles Garlett; Treasurer, Mrs. Sherwin Hill; Registrar, Mrs. Claude Cruse; Historian, Mrs. Halber Blomberg; Librarian, Mrs. Maxwell Austin; Directors, Mrs. Walter C. Gemperline, Mrs. John C. Burkman, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Mrs. A.W. Hahn. A theater party is planned by the daughters for the "Loud Red Patrick" starring Pat O'Brien at Northland Playhouse, Saturday, June 20 at the 7 p.m. performance. Proceeds raised from the theater party will be put in the Chapter's fund for scholarship and contributions toward approved schools. Tickets may be purchased through the Regent, Mrs. Willoughby, GL 3-7432.

Sad Journey

Mrs. Della Bingham of Lvononia and Mrs. Fannie Miller of Allen Park flew to Leesburg, Florida last week to attend the funeral of their sister, Armanda Wellman.

THESE FIVE met to make plans for the primary department sessions of the First Methodist church Vacation Church school that starts June 22. The planners from left to right are Mrs. Elden Brieschke, Mrs. Stanley Denzinger, Miss Margaret Burr, Mrs. Ralph Diedrick and Mrs. Wesley Dunn. In the foreground is some of the other material that the children will use.

Whitman & Barnes Honors E. S. Anderson

M. J. KEARINS, Chairman of the Board gives a hearty handshake and best wishes to E. S. (Andy) Anderson at the Whitman & Barnes retirement dinner honoring him last Friday. E. W. Zipse, Vice President and General Manager, also offers his congratulations to the 43 year employee.

Announce Dates For Jazcee Teen Dances

The first of the Teen Dances for the 1959 season will be held Wednesday, June 24 in the high school gymnasium. Chairman Edwin Good, member of the sponsoring Junior Chamber of Commerce, has set the price of the kick-off dance at a special 30 cents. All dances will begin at 8:00 p.m.; all will be held in the gym and all admissions, except the first dance, will be 75 cents. At the July 1st dance, Miss Plymouth of 1959 will be crowned. For this dance, the gym will be opened to all interested, whether children, teens or adults. Jack Young, general chairman of the Fourth of July celebration, announced that the contest judges would be three professionals not from this area. WHRV, Ann Arbor radio station, is scheduled to broadcast the dances and has arranged to supply talent. Music will be recorded as well as live. Ollie's Caravan will attend several nights. Chaperones for each Wednesday night will be members of Plymouth's Jaycee group. Dress for the teens is to be casual—no girls admitted in shorts, no boys admitted in blue jeans.

The Whitman & Barnes Division of the United-Greenfield Corporation honored Mr. E. S. Anderson at a retirement dinner Friday evening, June 12, at the Hillside Inn.

"Andy," as he is affectionately known, began his association with the company 43 years ago on April 12, 1916. His initial employment was in the Accounting Department, however, he later transferred to Sales and has since held top positions in both sales and administrative work. He has served as assistant sales manager at the Whitman & Barnes Division in Plymouth in addition to being Assistant Secretary of the United-Greenfield Corporation. Mr. and Mrs. Anderson, long time residents of Plymouth, make their home at 590 Sheldon Road.

Plans Completed For Methodist Vacation School

The First Methodist Vacation Church School commences on Monday, June 22 and continues through July 2. The class hours are from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. Pre-registrations are now being taken by the Director of Christian Education, Miss Mary Plumb, GL 3-1324 during the morning. She is available after each church service in Fellowship Hall for registering youngsters. The cost is 50 cents per child. Children are to be enrolled in the grade just completed.

Mrs. Joseph Stuky and Mrs. Raymond Ellerholz will help with registrants on Monday morning, June 22.

The Vacation Church School is provided for three age groups. The Four and Five Year Old Kindergarten is studying "God and His World." It will provide opportunities for kindergartners to feel and express thanks to God through song, prayer and sharing with others, and lead them to ways in which they can work with God in His world. The teachers are: Mrs. Howard Schryer, Mrs. Linwood Dethloff, Mrs. Donald Holt, Mrs. John Duke, Mrs. John Miner and Misses Kathy Holt, Irene Markham, Pam Perkins, and Margaret Ellison as helping students. Kindergarten enrollment is limited to 50.

The Primary Department (Grades 1, 2 and 3) course is entitled "The Earth Is Full of His Riches." Experiences are provided with riches of the earth such as soil, light and water. Man's use of these riches and his gratitude to God for them are points of emphasis. The course helps children grow in awareness of God and appreciation of the wonders of the world. The teachers are: Miss Margaret Burr, Mrs. Wesley Dunn, Mrs. Ernest Elzerman, Mrs. Ralph Diedrick, Mrs. Elden Brieschke, and Misses Carol Czerba, Elaine Hunter and Betty Taylor as helping students. The enrollment is limited to 50.

The Junior Department is guided in a study of "Finding God Through Work and Worship." They become familiar with some of the people who have followed God's way or who illustrate God working through man in art and music. The teachers are Mrs. Francis Karker, Mrs. Jack Bishop, Mrs. William Minard and Mrs. Sanford Burr. Enrollment is limited to 30.

Permelia C. Kohler

Miss Permelia C. Kohler, 42865 East Seven Mile Road, Northville, passed away June 14 at the East Lawn Resthaven after a long illness. She was born Sept. 29, 1890 in Northville where she resided all of her life.

She is survived by her two sisters, Miss Lena Kohler and Mrs. Mary E. Terrill of Northville; one brother, Fred of Plymouth; a niece, two nephews.

She was a member of the Altar Society of Our Lady of Victory Church in Northville. Rosary services were held Monday evening at 9 p.m. from the Ebert Funeral Home in Northville. Funeral services were 10 a.m. Tuesday at Our Lady of Victory Church. Rev. Father John Wittstock officiated. Interment was in Rural Hills Cemetery, Northville.

Anna Hlavaty Steinmann Mrs. Steinmann passed away June 9 at the University Hospital, at the age of 80. Funeral services were held June 12 from the Martinson Funeral Home, Detroit. Interment was the Woodmere Cemetery. Surviving is her daughter Emma Miller, Plymouth; son Robert Hlavaty, Dearborn; four grandchildren, Charles J. Miller, Robert Lee Miller, Lynn D. Miller, Robert Hlavaty, Jr.; and one great-granddaughter, Terry Lee Miller.

Grace E. Voorhies Mrs. Grace E. Voorhies died at the age of 74 on June 15. She had lived in Detroit since her marriage to Don W. Voorhies, however, spent her earlier years in Plymouth as the town's first telephone operator. Services were held from Schrader Funeral Home at 1 p.m. Thursday with burial at Riverside Cemetery. She was a member of the North Congregational Church in Detroit. She is survived by her son, Don Voorhies of Detroit.

Obituaries

daughter, Mrs. Richard Alwood of Detroit; and a sister, Mrs. Myrtle Newell of Plymouth.

THE PLYMOUTH School of Dance under the directorship of Mrs. Enid Stammitz, will present their annual Dance Recital June 25th, at 7:30 p.m., in the Plymouth High School Auditorium. Students participating in the third act of Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite are seated, Kathy Sibbold, Nan LaPointe, Gail Barnes. Standing, L to R, Janet Heidenrick, Barbara Jones, Noel Appleberry, Jean Plymale. Hawaiian Fantasy and a varied program of dissertations also will be presented. The public is cordially invited to attend.

See You There

The Children's Day Program will be held Sunday, June 21 at the Presbyterian Church at 4 p.m. in the sanctuary. All the youth's choirs will participate. Choir awards will be presented.

St. Margaret's Guild of St. John's Episcopal Church, Harvey & Maple will hold annual Strawberry ice cream social on the Church lawn on Friday evening, June 19 from 6:30 to 9 p.m. Donations, adults 40 cents, children under six, 25 cents. Ice cream, strawberries, cake, coffee will be served.

AN IMPRESSIVE Flag Day ceremony was held Sunday at The Brotherhood of Fraternal Elks, Lodge 1780. The Elks are the only Fraternal Organization to have written in their charter that Flag Day ceremonies will be held. Guest speaker was Paul M. Chandler, publisher of The Plymouth Mail, who gave a talk on the history of the American Flag from its inception to the modern day addition of the 49th and 50th star. The Veterans of Foreign Wars of Plymouth were the honor color guard.

Powder Puff Derby

On July 4th, a Plymouth plane will start its flight in the Powder Puff Derby with a Detroit teacher at the controls.

The Cessna 175, owned by Bob Mettetal of Mettetal Airport will be one of the many planes that take part in this annual ladies race. The race is to start in Lawrence, Mass. and will end in Spokane, Wash. In the past years planes and pilots have come from all over the United States, Canada and Australia.

Miss Leah Higgins of Detroit will be at the controls of the Mettetal plane as it starts the long trip across the country. For the past few months Miss Higgins has made trips to Plymouth to become familiar with the ship.

Accompanying Miss Higgins on the flight will be her co-pilot, Margaret Crane of Fenton, Mich. Miss Crane holds a commercial rating as does Miss Higgins.

Flying since 1942, Miss Higgins has compiled a great deal of ability that will prove important on the Powder Puff Derby flight.

It was five years ago that Miss Higgins first thought that she would like to fly in the race. "It takes time to find a sponsor," commented Miss Higgins, "that could help with the expenses of the cross-country race."

Miss Olivia Bell, teacher at Smith school, suggested asking Bob Mettetal about the possibilities of securing the Cessna 175 for the race.

The Cessna is handy in more than one respect but one of them is that the seat is adjustable. Miss Higgins is short, 4'11", and must have the seat slide all the way forward in order to reach the rudder pedals. Even with the seat all the way up, she requires three pillows to place her on the edge of the seat.

The race is on a handicap basis with the winner not being determined until all the planes are across the finish line. The Cessna Miss Higgins is flying has a handicap of 133.5 miles per hour, another factor considered in choosing this plane for the race.

On the Saturday before the race, Miss Higgins will return to Mettetal airport to make some flights before the plane is flown to Lawrence, Mass. and the start of the race on Monday.

Same Tax Assessment Urged

assessments (land and building) up to "standards" and it was suggested that this wasn't true in Plymouth Township.

City commissioner Marvin Terry asked Supervisor Roy Lindsay: "Are you going to have the County assess your land like we did?"

Lindsay: "I don't know." Terry: "Afraid of it?" Lindsay: "I didn't say I was afraid. I said I don't know."

Elizabeth Holmes: "You're the only one that's unhappy, why bring us in?" Terry: "We're only unhappy because we're the one that's hurt."

Holmes: "Well, go back where you were before." Terry: "At least, we're where you say we should be."

Champney was asked if he would recommend that all property in the school district be assessed on a common, County basis.

"Of course we recommend it. But it's a matter for local decision. When it's done it helps keep harmony and unanimity among neighboring peoples... but we don't force it upon anyone."

Lindsay: "I don't see why people pick on Plymouth Township. We're not going out and assess vacant land at a certain figure just because a certain group wants me to. If the people of Plymouth Township come and say 'do it,' that's a different matter."

Lindsay also said during the night: "As far as Plymouth Township is concerned, 9 million dollars is all we've been equalized. That's coming pretty darn close and we're going to get closer."

The total state equalized valuation of the City of Plymouth this year was announced at $30,537,237; for Plymouth Township $52,795, and for Canton Township $8,072,871.

Compared to a year ago the City is up 15 per cent Plymouth Township 4 per cent and Canton .3 per cent.

Plymouth Colony Concert June 28

Dr. Weichlein, University of Michigan faculty member and program annotator for the symphony, will discuss some of the music to be performed at the concert. The programs for the concert are as follows:

June 28
Festival Music from "Alcina."
Concerto in F major, Op. 4 No. 5, for Organ and Strings - Gordon Wilson, soloist.
Concerto Grosso in G major, Op. 6 No. 1, for Strings and Harpsichord - Emily Mutter Adams and Nathalie Dale, violins; Douglas Marsh, cello.

July 12
Suite from "Xerxes."
Concerto in F major, "The Cuckoo and the Nightingale"

for Harpsichord and Strings - Joyce Beglarian, soloist.
Concerto Grosso in E minor, Op. 6 No. 3, for Strings and Harpsichord - Emily Mutter Adams, Nathalie Dale, violins; Douglas Marsh, cello.
Look Down Harmonious Saint (Praise of Harmony), Vocal Cantata for Tenor and Strings, Richard Miller, tenor.
Concerto Grosso in D major, Op. 6 No. 5 for Strings and Harpsichord - Emily Mutter Adams, Nathalie Dale, violins; Douglas Marsh, cello.

Symphony Society members are hopeful that the early starting hour of the Sunday concert and the fact there is no admission charge will encourage more persons to make the concert a family affair.

There is ample picnic area at the farm for those who care to use it and the area will be sprayed against insects.

The concert site is owned by Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Fink who open the woodland each summer without charge for the musical performances.

"Your Family Shoe Store in Plymouth"

290 S. Main - Plymouth GL 3-1390

Today, Thursday — a breather between yesterday's exams and tomorrow's distribution of report cards — finds Plymouth High juniors, sophomores and freshmen relaxing.

As for the seniors, they'll be donning caps and gowns for tonight's graduation ceremonies in the high school gym at 8.

Two P.H.S. organizations have planned outings — one in the future, the other in the past tense. The Thespians picnicked at Teephele Lake yesterday (don't ask me where that is — the Thespians I questioned didn't even know) ... a busload of Choir members is going to Silver Lake tomorrow ... so are about a hundred other PHS'ers.

Others have some interesting plans for the summer ... "Pilgrim Prints" will send its cute Feature Page editor Sandy Bailey to the University of Michigan for a ten-day journalism workshop ... Frannie Smith, 59-60 Editor of the Plythean, will go to Michigan State for a short course in editing yearbooks ... incidentally we get annuals tomorrow ... Alice Olenford is also going to Michigan State, but for dramatics — she's an active member of the Thespians.

Girls' State, at the University of Michigan from June

16-25 this year will have Plymouth delegates Barb Booth, whose sponsor is the Women's Club and April Corey — the Elks are sending her. Jack attending will be Jackie Butner, sponsored by the Business and Professional Women and Nancy Alford, who is being sent by the American Legion Auxiliary.

On June 18, nine PHS boys will head for East Lansing and Boys' State. They are Tim Graves, Mike Knapp, Allen Davies and Mike Porter ... this quartet owes its trip to the Kiwanis club. Jay Selle and Don Williams are being sent by the Rotary Club, Randy Egloff is sponsored by the Elks, Art Helm by the Optimists and Dick Hubert, the American Legion.

The boys will return home the same day as the girls — the 25th.

Both Boys' State and Girls' State are aimed at giving high school students experience in handling a small scale government. From the hundreds in attendance, several cities are organized, with high schoolers pulling for votes for offices ranging from Governor to county drain commissioner.

Many lasting friendships are made at the camps and correspondence exchanged for years after the conference. Many meet with fellow "staters" when they go away to school.

The girls who went last year report the time of departure was just ... a big crying session!

Many who play in the high school band, others interested in music, are going to Inverloch this summer. They are David Sutherland, Clara Wilson, Jeff Huntington, Elaine Moran, Shirley Puckett, Mary Travis, Marianne Shirk and Mary and Susan Hulsing.

Four are anticipating a trip to Europe this summer as exchange students. See Page 1, Section 1 for related article.

Water Waves executive board members — for next year — have had a meeting already. President Marilyn Holst, Vice Susan Hulsing, Secretary Treasurer Fran Smith, plus senior rep Jackie Potter, junior rep Judy Paslaski and sophomore Greta Jensen decided that any member with a less than "C" average would have to turn in their tank suits ... the eight also appropriated funds to purchase club pins for all the members. Seniors will give their pins to incoming freshmen and new members when they graduate.

The new Student Council has had several meetings these last few weeks of school. A joint meeting of the incoming and outgoing Councils was held recently. 58-59 Mayor Mary Jane West gave the new Council members suggestions for carrying on the work of this year's "Do-Deal" Council. Members who had committee chairmanships this year went over their annual reports, gave some tips for success to the new committee heads.

The Senior Executive Board met this Friday noon to set a meeting date for the fall in the days prior to the opening of school, when the Board will meet with Principal Garvel Bentley to go over the budget. Also present will be several representatives of greeting card firms, who will supply the Christmas cards and wrapping paper for the class's biggest money making project.

Executive Board members are President Jay Selle, vice-president John Salant, secretary Nancy Alford and treasurer Janet Frieswyk. Council representatives are Brenda Richardson, Sam Hartloff, Lee Feldkamp and Gloria Bowles.

Mr. Pat Butler, school librarian, is on the war path. As of last Friday, there were some 60 plus books missing from the school library. An appeal on the library bulletin board asks "Please ... bring the books back."

Work at PHS has been made more difficult, not only because of the warm weather, but also due to the tearing down of the passageway between the junior high and the high school, so that the school building may conform to state fire marshal requirements. It is a very noisy process. Mr. Pat Butler entered his English class fifteen minutes early one day last week to find a note on the blackboard instructing his class to meet on the football field. He changed the note to read "Miss Olmstead's class ... go to the football field," and then took his class to another room to get away from the noise. He completely forgot about the ultimatum on the board.

Half of Miss Olmstead's sixth hour English class went gleefully to the football field. Miss Olmstead was very unhappy.

This is it for this school year ... see you next year

1. Just load up the trunk, herd the family into the car and away we go—but hold on a second. It's not quite that simple.
 2. Lots of things to be done before you start. Such as:
 1. Stop milk and newspaper deliveries. Ask a neighbor to keep advertising circulars off your porch.
 2. Don't lower window shades—this is a tipoff for burglars. And make sure someone mows your lawn while you're gone—several inches of grass is a sure sign you're away from home, too.
 3. Arrange delivery of your mail to a neighbor.
 4. Lock windows and doors. Don't forget basement windows and the coal chute.
 5. Tell the police how long you'll be gone and where you can be reached in an emergency.
 6. Shut off gas and water at main valves. Electricity can be shut off at the master switch, unless the freezer or refrigerator is to be left on.
- And from the National Safety Council come these tips on what to do before you leave on vacation:
1. Have your car serviced thoroughly. Give special attention to lights, brakes,

- tires, steering and windshield wipers.
 2. Take a flashlight along for use in emergencies. Equally handy: a "trouble light" that can be plugged into the cigarette lighter receptacle.
 3. Make sure you take along necessary equipment for repairing a flat—spare tire (is it inflated?), jack and tools.
 4. Put a first-aid kit in your glove compartment — and be sure the contents are not stale or missing.
- "Start early on your vacation, and don't plan to drive too far in a day. Make this a vacation you'll really enjoy."

Newcomers Hold Last Meeting Until Fall

The Plymouth Newcomers Club met at Thunderbird Inn Thursday, June 11 for the installation of new officers.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Leander Rae, Mrs. William Coons presided at the meeting.

After a brief business meeting each, outgoing officers installed and presented the new officers with a congratulatory message.

The new officers for next year are President, Mrs. Robert Fisher; Vice President, Mrs. Cameron Lamb; Treasurer, Mrs. Kenneth Reas; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Dudley Bowers; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Ivan Scott; Social Chairman, Mrs. Richard Vollick; Membership, Mrs. A.H. Miller.

There are no activities planned for the summer. The next regular meeting will be in September. On behalf of Mrs. Rae, Mrs. Coons thanked the outgoing officers for their cooperation throughout the past year.

ARE YOU A LUCKY WINNER?

each week, in a different ad in this newspaper, there appears the name and address of a person taken from the subscription list of the Plymouth Mail. This lucky person will receive "dinner for two" for himself and one other as guest of Marquis Toll House Restaurant, 335 N. Main. Free parking across the street. telephone lines

From BILL DUNN, Manager

This month we would like you to meet Mrs. Esther Hahn who was selected as the outstanding Service Representative in our office for the month of June.

Mrs. Hahn lives at 420 Griswold, Northville, with her husband, Larry, and two boys, Ross and Curtis.

Mrs. Hahn has been with us 3 years and I am sure many of you remember her when calling about your service requirements because of her helpful and interesting way in assisting you.

NECKTIES AND TOBACCO ARE PROBABLY the most popular things that will be given to Dad on Father's Day. But if he's far away and can't be with you on Sunday, you can be sure that a Long Distance phone call would be at the top of a list of things he'd like to have. The usual low Sunday rates are in effect to help you enjoy a leisurely telephone visit. It's a fine way to please Dad, and it'll make you feel pretty good, too!

BESIDES BEING FATHER'S DAY, June 21st is also the first day of Summer-time to begin thinking about vacations. But thinking alone won't make a vacation good. Only planning and preparation will do that. That's where the Yellow Pages comes in so handy. It'll tell you where to buy the diving goggles, camera film, sports clothes, sun glasses, luggage and guide books you'll need. More than that, the Yellow Pages lists hotels, motels, restaurants, theatres and other amusements, so it's the quickest way of getting to know your way around a new town. Start with the Yellow Pages and end up with a truly great vacation.

Green Meadows 'Ladies' Night Out at Inn

BY KATHLEEN DODDS
GL. 3-3085

With the weather so sunny and warm last week — a little too good for the lawns and gardens — our neighbors in the Green Meadows area were really "going places" and doing "things."

A group of the young women in the neighborhood had a lovely "ladies' night out" on Wednesday, June 17, with a delicious dinner at beautiful old Botsford Inn up at Grand River and Eight Mile. Enjoying the cuisine and nostalgic setting of the Inn were Mrs. Joan Busch, Mrs. Esther Foreman, Mrs. Elaine Frederick, Mrs. Ruth Eskra, and Mrs. Marge Boatwright, all of Marlowe. Mrs. Helen Leader and Mrs. Jean Maas of Elmhurst, Mrs. Wanda Farmer of Sheldon, and Mrs. Joyce Meek of Beech.

Guests for luncheon and the afternoon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Richard Holladay on Brookline were Mrs. Veronica, Mrs. Jessie Borrow and Miss Mattie Hayes of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Acore and daughters of Detroit enjoyed a picnic dinner in the backyard last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Macer of Marlowe.

This weekend was a busy one for Mr. and Mrs. Howard Moyer and son Danny, age 10, spent the weekend at Boy Scout Camp near Chelsea. At the same time, Mrs. Moyer and son Larry, age 5, drove into Detroit for a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Wasylshyn. And if we can be permitted to pass along a witticism of Mrs. Moyer's: she said her boys are the "Dime Store boys — 6 & 10," which we think is quite clever!

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brantover, honeymooning following their marriage in Florida, enjoyed a picnic dinner last weekend at the home of his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young and sons, on Ball. Afterwards, they all enjoyed an evening at Walled Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Macer of Marlowe spent the Memorial Day weekend visiting his mother, Mrs. Nola Macer, in Mt. Carmel, Ill., and nearby brothers and sisters.

Dr. Robert Meek, formerly of Elmhurst, was called to Arlington, Ky., over the Memorial Day weekend by the death of his uncle Earl Mitchell. Accompanying Dr. Meek was his son Jeffrey, age 5. During their stay with the doctor's aunt, Mrs. Gladys Mitchell, Jeffrey was taken fishing — a big thrill for him.

We're a little tardy in reporting that the Meeks have moved from their home on Elmhurst. Early last month they became the happy residents of 1329 Beech Street, a lovely new home that provides them with the extra space needed for two growing children. The Greenlee family, formerly on Main Street, now occupy the former Meek residence.

Her husband tells us that Mrs. Alvin Moss of Marlowe is "back in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor with a back ailment. Mrs. Moss was in the hospital last month for 12 days, and following a week at home was forced to return about two weeks ago. We hope to hear of her recovery and return home soon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nipp of Marlowe entertained his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Nipp with dinner in the park last Sunday to celebrate the elder Mr. Nipp's birthday. Joining in the festivities were Judy and Kerry Nipp, children of the William Nipp, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Nipp, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Nipp and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Edelman, all of Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. Otie Nipp of Northville.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer of S. Main spent last weekend in Coshocton, Ohio, at a family reunion. Three of the cousins in the family, including the Palmers, returned to the family "home-stead," the home of Mrs. Palmer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mortine, for a visit which was the occasion for the reunion. Attending the picnic-style get-together were about 50 people representing three generations of the family.

Edwin Rossow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rossow of S. Main, returned home June 4 for his summer vacation from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in Cambridge, Mass. Edwin has completed two years of study at MIT in the field of Civil Engineering and upon his return in the fall will begin work toward his Master's Degree. Before beginning his summer vacation — he'll spend it working, like most summering collegians — Edwin and his mother attended the graduation exercises at Carleton College in Northfield, Minn., where he studied for three years prior to MIT.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schifle and son Bobby have sold their home on Northern and are moving the 20th of this month to Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. For a while they will stay with a sister who lives there, while they are looking for a home. Mr. Schifle, a carpenter, plans to find work there in his trade. Somewhat reluctant to leave Michigan's scenic wonderland, Mrs. Schifle says the family hopes to return for vacations.

Mr. and Mrs. William Nipp and young son Kerry enjoyed a family picnic with the first graders from Smith School last Wednesday afternoon and evening on Breakfast Drive down in the park. Mrs. Nipp said they had an excellent turnout with 12 picnic tables filled. As usual the children had a grand time on the play equipment and pudding in the river!

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Palmer of S. Main entertained guests from Toronto, Ontario, last Thursday. Miss Helen Marjans and Mr. John Morris, of Toronto, were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hall of Wallaceburg and the four some drove in to the Palmers for dinner and the evening, returning to Wallaceburg that night.

Twelve-year-old Tom Schwartz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwartz of Brookline, spent this week-end at Boy Scout Camp at Bishop Lake with Troop 293 of Canton Township.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schwartz and children of Brookline drove to Cheboygan over last weekend to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Norman.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Scruggs and son of Sheldon enjoyed a picnic lunch on Memorial Day at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Scruggs in Dexter. Joining in the fun were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Scruggs and their two daughters.

That's all for this week. See you here next week!

Wanted: Parents For A Year

"Would you like to have a German foreign exchange student in your home next year?"

That is the query of the Plymouth High School Student Council, which has made arrangements with the Ann Arbor Washtenaw Council of Churches to bring a German boy or girl to Plymouth, providing a home for the student can be found.

The Council's Projects Committee reports that a boy or girl from Germany will arrive in Ann Arbor on August 8 and be met by their host families who will have the students for about a year. The family will be responsible for making the student feel welcome in the community and to make him feel an integral part of the family. The sponsoring family would have to assume the bulk of the financial burden, which would include room and board, some clothing and the like. Travel expenses are paid by the student and the Council of Churches. The Student Council has appropriated $125 to help the sponsoring family.

It is preferable, the committee adds, that there be a junior or senior in the family, for the student will be 17 or 18 years of age. If the junior or senior were a boy, a foreign boy would be placed in the home, accordingly with a girl. It would be best if there were an extra room in the home, so the student might have one of his own.

Available are the names and addresses of the prospective students, their photos and information sheets. Families desiring further information or those who are seriously interested in the program should contact the Projects Committee Chairman Gloria Bowles at GL 3-2340 by this Saturday, June 20, as final plans for the exchange must be made soon.

Company Merger

Edward S. Evans, Jr., President of Evans Products Company of Plymouth, and E. E. Bach, president of E. E. Bach Millwork Co., Minneapolis, have jointly announced the sale of the Bach Company to Northern Plywood and Door Company of Minneapolis, a subsidiary of Fiddes-Moore & Company which is owned by Evans Products.

E. E. Bach Millwork Co., one of this area's largest mill-working firms, is a major distributor in this region for Andersen Windows. Its specialized operations include wholesale sales of windows, doors, moldings and other millwork items to the lumber dealer and contractor trades. The firm's yearly gross sales are nearly $3,000,000.

Purchase price was not disclosed.

Bach, founder of the firm and nationally known throughout the trade, will retire from active participation in the company, but will be available on a consulting basis.

Present plans call for the continued employment of Bach personnel. The company will continue to operate under the name of E. E. Bach Millwork Co., as subsidiary of Northern Plywood at its present address under the direct management of George M. Posselt, president and general manager, and will continue to distribute millwork and Andersen Windows to the contractor trade. Northern's wholesale millwork division will assume distribution of millwork and Andersen Windows.

Local Man Will Go To NEA Meeting

John Canon of Plymouth will attend the annual convention of the National Education Association in St. Louis, Missouri, June 28-July 3.

Canon, representing the Plymouth Education Association, will be among 200 Michigan educators and representatives from all 50 states attending the national convention expected to attract from 15-20,000 at the spacious Kiel Auditorium.

Open general sessions, workshops and departmentalized discussion groups will highlight the NEA's "work" schedule. Such key topics as lay relations, educational television, salaries and working conditions for teachers, answering the critics of education and many others will confront the delegates.

Dr. Charles Malik, president of the United Nations General Assembly, will address the entire delegation July 3. His speech will climax the NEA's first observance of "International Night."

Michigan delegates will be headed by Dr. E. Dale Kennedy, MEA executive secretary; John Strandberg, MEA president; and Lillian Connor, Michigan's NEA director.

Minutes of the Plymouth Board of Education

QUICK CHANGE ARTIST

NEW YORK (UPI) — Two months after he completed editing the sixth edition of a 2,270-page mechanical engineering handbook, Columbia University Prof. Theodore Baumeister found that scientific developments had dated so much of his information he had to start rewriting.

The world's first full-scale fast breeder atomic reactor is under construction near a Monroe — an indication of Michigan's leadership in the Atomic Age.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held Monday evening, May 18, 1959, in the faculty room of the Plymouth Community Junior High School at eight o'clock.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mrs. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet; Administrative Assistants: Blunk and Superintendent Isbister.

Also present: Interested citizens from Adams Street, Mr. and Mrs. Butler, Mrs. Lockwood, Mrs. Egloff, Mr. Stein, Mr. Frokopp, Mr. Hughes, Mr. Beckney, Mr. Gustafson and Mr. Morgan. Others present, Mrs. Zylstra, Dr. Alfors, Mr. Becker and Mr. Spornell; representatives from Taylor and Gaskin, J. L. Peters Company and Acorn Iron Works, Inc.

President Stecker called the meeting to order at 8:00 p.m. It was moved by Mr. Soth and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to approve the minutes of the last regular and the intervening special meetings.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet.

Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Fischer and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to approve the following bills for payment:

A communication from Mr. Becker, setting forth his recommendations that the contracts for the Architectural, Mechanical and Electrical Trades on the alterations to the high school, be awarded to the low bidder, was read.

It was moved by Mr. Fischer and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing that the recommendations set forth by Mr. Becker, be approved and that, in accordance with the conditions stipulated in the bidding procedures, the contracts (three) be combined into one for the amount of $177,155.20 and be awarded to Daniel S. Mills and Sons who in turn will subcontract to United Heat Engineering Company for the amount of $32,000 for the mechanical work and to Shaw Electric Company in the amount of $13,480 for the electrical work. Furthermore, that Daniel S. Mills and Sons will assume supervisory responsibility in seeing that all work is done for the three trades in accordance with the plans and specifications as prescribed by the architect.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth, Mr. Stecker and Mr. Zoet.

Nays: None.

Meeting adjourned at 8:10 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,
Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

Quotations for fleet insurance on district-owned motor vehicles were read as follows:

Wingard Agency $1,240.70
Merritt Agency 1,074.05
Dyran Agency 816.80
Wood Agency 1,258.25
Finlan Agency 1,203.52

Mr. Blunk was directed to seek consultant service in a further analysis of the quotations for the fleet insurance.

Mr. Mitchell, Chairman of the School Site Committee, reviewed for the Board the discussion and action taken by the Committee in a meeting held on Wednesday, May 27, 1959. He noted that the Committee, after a careful analysis of the need for additional secondary school facilities, recommended to the Board that it make an effort to purchase the 40 acres located on the north side of Ann Arbor Road west of Sheldon Road and east of Canton Center Road, and commonly known as the Pauline Peck-Bennett Estate Property. By common consent President Stecker directed the Chairman of the Site Committee and the Administrative Assistant to contact Miss Peck and find out the property is for sale, under what terms and, if possible, procure an offer of sale which would be reviewed by the Board.

Also authorized was the necessary soil tests to determine the nature of the sub-soil conditions.

It was moved by Mr. Fischer and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing that the high school principal be paid an annual salary of $11,750 for the next fiscal school year.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Kaiser, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Soth and Mr. Stecker.

UNEXPECTED DIVIDEND

BUFFALO, N. Y. (UPI) — Detectives went to an apartment rented by two men they were looking for, discovered the place had been broken into and arrested John J. Lupo, 40, when they found him inside. On taking Lupo to jail, the officers learned that the men they were seeking were already behind bars in vagrancy charges.

Glamour

is a lot of little things...

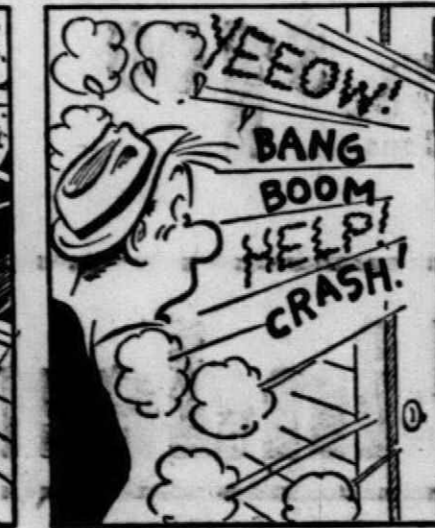

It's magic . . . it's a spell of charm . . . it's interest in or association with an object or person. Glamour may be a southern cruise . . . candlelight dinner for two . . . an evening on the town. Glamour means different things to different people - it's a lot of little things.

Keeping fully informed about what's going on helps add glamour to living. Whether your interest is food or fashion . . . science or society . . . finance or sports - you'll be well informed if you read this paper regularly.

Why not read it next week? Home delivery available.
Call our Circulation Department, today.

There's glamour too, in the little things that make up the action packed, result getting classified ads in this newspaper. From baby carriages to cars . . . furs to "for rent" - looking, selling, wanting or buying . . . read and use the Want Ads. So, put them to work for you . . . the cost is low, results b-i-g! Call GA 2-3160 or GL 3-5500, an experienced ad taker will help you with your classified ad.

American Legion News

Important Date! Thursday, June 25, 8 p.m., Veterans Community Center — The Auxiliary will hold nominations and election of Officers. Please attend and elect the officers of your choice for the ensuing year. Annual reports of all committees will be read at this meeting. Please, all chairmen, have them ready.

JOINT INSTALLATION — Wednesday, July 1, 8 p.m., Veterans Community Center. The Post and Auxiliary will hold joint installation with the 17th District Ritual Team installing the Post and the Past Presidents of the Unit installing the Auxiliary. The public is cordially invited to attend the ceremonies. Refreshments will be served after program.

The U.P. Convention is underway for June 26-28 being held in Ishpeming, with a two hour march planned June 27th. The 50-piece Fifth Army marching Band will head the colorful parade. Fourteen bands, drum teams and drum corps plan to participate in the parade, several high school bands also plan to attend. Prizes will be awarded for the best floats, marching units, drum corps and drill teams. State Commander John M. Carey, and Lisle Alexander of Plymouth, the Department Adjutant, are expected to appear before the convention, also attending will be Department President, Frances Crakes and Department Secretary Catherine Wassall.

Tigers Boast Legion Grads — The opening of the 1959 baseball season found 20 graduates of American Legion junior baseball on the playing roster of the Detroit Tigers. They are: Hank Aguirre, Gerald Davie, Bill Hoeft, Frank Lary, Tom Morgan, Ray Narleski, Herman Wehmeier, Charlie Lau, "Red" Wilson, "Rocky" Bridges, Frank Bolling, Larry Osborne, Neil Christley, Johnny Groth, Al Kline, Harvey Kuenn, Ken Walters, and Gus Zernial. Some of the diamonds greats who first wore an American Legion uniform include Carl Erskine, Red Schoendienst, Curt Simmons, Bob Friend, Stan Musial, Ted Williams, Sherm Lollar, Herb Score, Don Larson, Yogi Berra, Gil McDougall and Hank Bauer.

Welcome Mat is extended to Kenneth Voss by the Passage-Gayde Post 391 as a new member and hope to see him out to all the meetings, also by transfer Ernest Koi from Price Brothers Post 521.

Memo to fun-loving Michigan Legionnaires: Be sure to circle the dates June 28 to July 4th. Reason: "Freedom Festival Week," in the Detroit-Windsor area. You will be treated to all assortments of eye-popping events that range from top-notch racing and aquatic shows to delightful exhibits, dance programs, diplomatic and military balls, tours of industrial plants and military establishments, colorful parades, and the world's greatest fireworks display. The night of July 3 will see over $15,000 in fireworks set off from barges in the Detroit River. Highlight of the "Festival" will be a two-hour visit by Queen Elizabeth to Windsor July 3. Musical and drill teams from Detroit Districts will march in the colorful Fourth of July parade. William Clarahan, former State Commander, represents the American Legion on a committee that will coordinate veterans activities in the "Festival." The spectacle opens June 28 paying a salute to "Freedom of Religion," others to follow, "Culture Day," "Sports and Nationality Day," "Dominion Day," "Industry, Commerce Seaway and Labor Day," "Armed Forces Day" and "Independence Day."

The Flag Day Ceremony held on Sunday, June 14th at the Elks Temple was very impressive. Mr. Paul Chandler, editor of Plymouth Mail gave a very important resume of all of our Flags. Commander Don Kinghorn, Adjutant Harry Burleson and Ernest Koi participated in this event. We wish more people would attend these ceremonies and be informed regarding our flag's history. Too many flags were not seen Flag Day. Where are all the flags hidden? Come on and get them out; let's see a lot more on July 4th.

During the Revolutionary War the pay of a United States Marine was a little over seven dollars a month. Today a Marine Private's pay starts at $78 a month.

To Women It May Concern

How about your vacation dreams? Did your roommate veto a trip to Europe? Can't board Kurt Thrun's magic carpet this summer? Not even going to the lake for two, four, or six weeks?

Well, cheer up Fair Lady, some chicks of summer guests that "visit" the lake often become obstreperous, and really you live in the best weekend vacation area in the U.S.

There are many summer activities to enjoy on a day to day basis, besides getting a good book, glass of ice tea, and a hammock (this appeals to me); if you would like to develop patience far and above the call of duty necessary to answer the "why" of a seven year old boy and the daily tragic moments lived by a 14 year old girl - then try keeping your eye on the little white ball. If the bug bites you the summer will fly. Ladies golf day is Thursday at Fox Hills and Wednesday at Hill Top.

For a change of pace there is a new class club plan that Bob Mettetal has out at Mettetal Field. Olivia Bell, our Smith School, second grade, flying teacher says we haven't lived if we haven't flown - (ourselves, yet) - the stratacruiser doesn't count - she told me it's like riding in a bus. Olivia is like the pied-piper of Hamlet - after talking to her for about 15 minutes I decided, of course, everyone should learn to fly. This could make it a red-letter summer for true.

Something a little more prosaic (but still interesting) would be to enroll in the Will-O-Way Apprentice Theatre at West Long Lake Road, Bloomfield Hills. They are offering a six week dramatic program for adults beginning July 6 to August 16. This isn't necessarily to make you a Sarah Bernhardt, but to appeal to the Auntie Mame in you. They also have a supervised recreation dramatic program for children beginning at six years, plus several teen-age programs. MI. 4-4418 will give you more information on the subject.

If you are civic minded, and a true woman of the soil (not with just a flower-box, but a real garden) join the Plymouth Branch of Woman's National Farm and Garden Association and throw yourself into the plans for the Flower Show to be held August 28.

Having a flower show isn't just a matter of one fine day two pleasant ladies decide they ought to have a flower show. Oh no, this is something that takes many committees and a tremendous amount of planning. The show itself is not just for the members to display what they have grown either for each other to view. It is for the entire community to bring their flowers and to view those of others. It is really a marvelous place to learn about flowers and plants. The women that promote it spend practically all summer on the many details involved to make it run smoothly and they are the horticulturists of your community.

I attended the first meeting at the luncheon at the General Chairman's home, Mrs. Paul Wiedman, last week, to take notes on the schedule and was amazed at the many details - for instance each judge must have a clerk - there is a committee to place entries, one to mark them; one to stage the show; and this is only the beginning depending on how large the Flower Show will be. The one in Plymouth is going to have a Market with many clever gardening items; and will serve refreshments, which is done at very few shows. Working with this group will provide a real enlightening and fun-filled summer, I would think.

A PERFECT FORM and one of the top golfers at Fox Hills is Vice President and Golf Chairman of the Woman's Association at the club, Betty Edwards. She was one of the low scorers at the Ladies Guest Day recently. Luncheon and an afternoon of cards followed the morning golfing.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy D. Arnold
Arnold, Bradfute United In Presbyterian Church

The wedding of Miss Kay Bradfute and Jimmy D. Arnold took place on June 13, at 7:30 in the First United Presbyterian Church of Plymouth, with Dr. Henry Walch officiating.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bradfute of 11431 Auburndale in Livonia, wore a full-length gown of imported white Italian silk with a scalloped neck and hem. She wore a cap of chantilly lace and seed pearls with a waist line veil. White roses and stephanotis sunburst comprised her bouquet. Mrs. Barbara Bobier, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor in white nylon eyelet over orchid. Her bouquet was of white and pink sweetheart roses.

Rhonda Taylor, Glenda Lackey, Betty Lamphier and Jayna Eckler were the bridesmaids. Their dresses were of white eyelet over orchid and lilac and their bouquets were of sweetheart roses. The mother of the bride wore sky-blue lace. Mrs. Ellen Arnold, mother of Andrea Eckler was the flower girl.

Assisting the groom were Jim Wick as best man and Jim Parly, Jerry Trost, Steve Jewell and Bob Bateman, all of Plymouth, as ushers. The church was decorated with candelabras, palms, white gladiolas and pink and white carnations.

Approximately 200 guests from Plymouth, Livonia, Detroit, Northville, Garden City and Columbus, Ohio attended. The bride is a 1956 graduate of Livonia's Bentley High School, while the groom was graduated from Plymouth High in 1955. Future home of the couple is 39863 Ann Arbor Rd. in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Combs

Newlyweds to Settle In Salem, Michigan

Rev. Ronald Cook of Novi Baptist Church performed the wedding ceremony for Pauline Towas and Willard Combs Saturday, June 7 at the Salem Congregational Christian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Towas, South Lyon and the groom, the son of Mr. Luther Combs and the late Beatrice A. Combs.

Pauline chose a ballerina length embossed silk organza with a scalloped neckline. Her fingertip veil was outlined in a flower border similar to the flowers in her gown. Her bridal bouquet was of white carnations.

Gerri Gibson was maid of honor gowned in a blue ballerina length gown and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

James Oaks assisted the groom as best man.

Guests from Detroit, South Lyon, Salem, Plymouth honored the newlyweds at a reception at Salem Town Hall.

Willard is a graduate of Jackson, Ky. and Pauline attended South Lyon High School.

When the young couple return from their wedding trip they will make their home on W. Six Mile in Salem, Michigan.

Miss Martha Buchs Weds

Ed. note: The Plymouth Mail would like to re-run an article in view of the name being misspelled.

In the St. Bernard Catholic Church, corner of Mack Ave. and Lillibridge, Detroit, the marriage of Miss Martha Buchs of Detroit and Homer Howe, son of Mrs. Frank Howe of this city took place on Thursday morning, June 28 at nine o'clock in the presence of about 50 relatives and friends. The service was read by Rev. Fr. C. C. LeFevre of Plymouth.

The bride wore a wedding gown of white satin and carried an arm bouquet of white roses. Her sister, Mrs. Robert Yates of Louisville, Kentucky was matron of honor and wore a gown of pink organdie and carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

Robert Yates, a brother-in-law of the bride acted as best man.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride on Lycaste Avenue, Detroit, which had been beautifully decorated with garden flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Howe will reside in Plymouth. Their many friends wish them all (Continued on Page 2)

Nuptial Vows Join Couple From Livonia and Ohio

In front of a flower covered altar, Rev. John L. Drummond heard the marriage vows of Joyce V. Thompson and Thomas M. Carroll, Jr. of Livonia, David Drummond and Michael Hughes of Detroit.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Thompson, 14251 Richfield, Livonia, wore a floor-length gown of embroidered batiste, her French illusion finger-tip veil was fastened to a pearl and rhinestone tiara, her flowers were a large white orchid with stephanotis and streamers.

The groom is Thomas M. Carroll, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Carroll, 520 Stetler Avenue, Akron, Ohio. Harvey Thompson, father of the bride, rendered two numbers during the double ring ceremony accompanied by the organ by Dr. Elmer Nelson of Detroit. He sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "God-Give Me You."

The maid of honor Connie Rogers of Livonia, close friend of the bride, wore a waltz-length gown of blue organza and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Six-year old Mitzi Carroll, sister of the groom, was a flower girl dressed in a floor length gown of pink organza. The ring bearer, Mark Beard of Akron, Ohio, dressed in tux carried the rings to the altar.

The brother of the bride,

Engaged

Barbara Lee Erdelyi

SEPTEMBER 5 is the wedding date announced by Barbara Lee Erdelyi to wed Leon Charles Case. The parents of the bride-to-be is Mrs. William B. Erdelyi and the late William B. Erdelyi of Forest Avenue, Plymouth. Mr. Case is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Case of Laurel Avenue, in Livonia, Mich.

Hosts

Recently, at the home of Mrs. Lewis Litzenberg of John Alden in Plymouth, 26 graduating seniors of the Phi Mu sorority of the University of Michigan met at the Litzenberg home for lunch. Ten alumni of the group were also present for this second annual get-together. Mrs. Litzenberg, herself, is a member of the Phi Mu sorority and has chosen this way to keep in contact with her sorority sisters.

Another event at the Litzenberg residence, on Saturday, June 6 in the afternoon, was the presentation of sharing time by the piano students of Mrs. Litzenberg at her home. Parents and friends were invited to this event and participants were Melissa Purkey, Rata Lane, Andy DeMott, Gale Boyce, Karen Kritsch, Mary Ann Schlie, Mary Schmidt, Kathi Crawford, Ilene Schultz, Craig Stadtmiller, Doris Williams, Judy Eley, Cynthia Eley, Marilyn Norman, David Norman, Steve Bowl, Robert Roberts, John Larson, Luan Tenney, Sue Larson, Grace Wigley and David Schmidt. Refreshments were served to those in attendance.

Four grandmothers and one grandfather proudly attended the wedding. The reception following the ceremony served the traditional wedding cake, finger sandwiches, punch, tea and coffee, cake and mints.

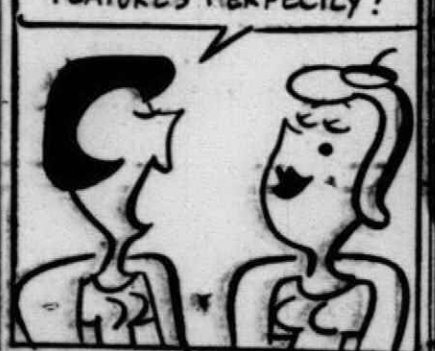

The rehearsal dinner was for 27 guests on Friday, June 5, in the church parlor. Hostesses were Mrs. Triplet, Mrs. McIntyre, Mrs. Jerome, Mrs. Russell, Mrs. Campbell. Aiding the bride's parents as hostesses at the reception were Mrs. Perry, Mrs. R. Oakley, Mrs. E. Burns, Mrs. Lapp, Mrs. Kimbrough and assisted by Susan Hughes, Carol Masser, Carolyn Drummond and Mary Campbell.

After a wedding trip to northern Michigan, the couple will be at home in Livonia. The bride and groom both attended Grace College, Winona Lake, Indiana.

More Common Questions On Steps to Social Security

Harry Baltuck, manager of the Detroit-Northwest social security district office, lists below some important questions and answers concerning the proofs required for social security benefits.

Q. When I am ready to retire should I bring my social security account number card with me?

A. Yes, by presenting your account number card you will assist in the speedy completion of your claim for benefits. If you have lost your account number card, you should apply immediately for a duplicate.

Q. What proof of age is needed when I file my claim for benefits?

A. If you have a birth certificate, bring that along. If you do not have this certificate, here are a few other documents that may be acceptable - the family Bible if names of members have been recorded for some years; an insurance policy that was taken out many years ago; if you were in the service, your service discharge; your oldest registration certificate available. These are but a few of the many documents that may be acceptable.

Q. What is acceptable proof of marriage?

A. Any of the following are acceptable: the original certificate of marriage; a certified copy of, or statement as to church record of marriage; a certified copy of the public record of your marriage.

Q. Where will I get the public record of my marriage?

A. It may be obtained from the clerk of the court in the city or county where the marriage license was obtained, or the Bureau of Vital Statistics of the State in which you were married. A charge of one dollar is usual for such records.

Q. Suppose I cannot get a birth certificate, our family Bible has been destroyed in a fire, and I do not have an insurance policy. Are there other records I could use?

A. Yes, numerous ones; however, older documents are preferred to recently established documents. Here are some of the records you may use as proof. A baptismal certificate or a statement as to date of birth shown by a church record, (this must be certified by the custodian of such record), certified hospital record, foreign church or government record; or a signed statement by the physician or midwife who was in attendance at birth, as to date of birth shown on their records.

Q. I do not have a birth certificate as I was born in a foreign country. What can I use as proof of my age?

A. Your naturalization record if you have been naturalized, or immigration records showing date of birth, when you entered this country; also, it is possible you may have your passport, or some record from your native country.

Q. I cannot get any record

Graduates From Newburg Area

Mrs. Emil LaPointe
GA. 1-2029

On Friday, June 19, the teen club of the Newburg area which meets at the Myron Beals Legion hall on Newburg road will meet for the last time until school resumes again in the fall. Music for the evening will be provided by the Rhythm Notes teen age band. This has been this group's first year in functioning and all parents and chaperones feel that it has been most successful and are looking forward to September and bigger things. A vote of thanks should be given to those who have been willing to sacrifice every Friday night in order that this club be the success it was.

Over the Memorial day weekend eight folks spent this holiday camping on Mullet Lake in northern Michigan. Fishing and generally having a good time was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Hocking, Mr. and Mrs. Herb Trapp, Sr. and Mrs. Fred Heidenrich and Herb Trapp, Jr.

The Livonia Willing Workers met on Wednesday, June 10 in the park for a pot luck picnic and 13 members were present for this festive outing. Those present were Edna Masaric, Bell Hunter, Hazel Grimm, Pat Graney, Fay Grimm, Hattie Taylor, Clara Smith, Nancy Sutton, Clara Smith's daughter, Dorothy, Bess Hammill, Grace Dyer, Margaret Frost and Ella Bird.

Congratulations to the graduates in the Newburg area. Graduating from the eighth grade at St. Michael's Catholic school were David LaPointe, one of our pride and joy, and also George LaBelle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred LaBelle of Joy road. Graduating from Bentley, despite the deluge of rain in the late afternoon and evening, were Gary Kleinow, Carol LaBelle, Suzan Overmyer, Karen Peterson, Carole Brey, Sandra Simion, Jean Kay and Donna Howden. Good luck to all!

On behalf of Newburg friends and neighbors we wish to welcome a new resident to the area. Taking up pastoral duties at the Newburg Methodist church will be the Rev. Roger Merrill, formerly serving the Marysville Methodist church. He brings with him his wife, Josie and five children, Daniel, Barbara, Paul, Mary and Kirby. Welcome to Newburg.

The Executive board of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church met at the home of its president, Mrs. Emil LaPointe on Wednesday, June 10. A fine group of ladies were present to plan the many activities of the society beginning in the fall of the year. Present were Mrs. Leonard Ritzler, Mrs. Elsie Waddington, Mrs. Tom Waltz, Mrs. Glenn McGhee, Mrs. Edward Ayers, Mrs. Lester Larrabee, Mrs. Warren Fittery, Mrs. Schuyler Adams, Mrs. Norman Kerr, Mrs. Michael Lorraine, Mrs. Raymond Grimm, Mrs. Henry Grimm, Mrs. Delmer

Two circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church will meet this coming week. The Sarah circle will meet on Monday, June 22 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Paul Nixon on Wadsworth avenue, Livonia. The Rhoda circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Sam Epley on Tuesday, June 23 at 8 p.m. Mrs. Epley's home is on Beatrice, in Garden City. This will mark the finish of circle meetings until September.

On Thursday, June 25 at the Plymouth High school auditorium, Mrs. Enid Starnitz, a Newburg area gal, will present her dance students in their annual June recital. The program begins at 7:30 p.m. and an evening of fine entertainment is promised with the theme being set around the various seasons and holidays of the year. Many young ladies of the Newburg area will be participating in this event.

Beginning Sunday, July 5, the Newburg Methodist church will change their schedule for church services. The first worship service, in the old church sanctuary will be held at 9:30 a.m. and Sunday School will also be at that time, 9:30 a.m. The second worship service will begin at 11 a.m. and be held in the hall auditorium, immediately adjacent to the church. Please bear this change in mind.

This season for Vacation Bible schools and the Newburg Methodist church is no exception to this rule. Beginning on Monday, July 22 and continuing on through Friday, July 3, vacation Bible school will be in full swing for all children of the church and their friends. Mrs. Edward Reid and Mrs. Warren Fittery are co-chairmen for this event and a fine staff of teachers and helpers are working with these two ladies to make the program a complete success. The school will begin at 9 a.m. every day and be concluded at 11:30 a.m.

It has been nice being with you again this week. Give that old dial a whirl and advise this reporter of your various activities. With vacation time on us so soon, you should have many things to tell your friends. See you next week?

St. Mary Hospital Guild Seeks 1,000 New Members

With the completion of St. Mary Hospital just a few short months off, a membership drive starts this week to enlarge the total membership of the St. Mary Hospital Guild to 2,000 women. The membership to date includes 1,000 members from the five communities surrounding the hospital, including Livonia, Farmington, Plymouth, Northville, and Redford.

The Felician Sisters, who first established themselves in Livonia 20 years ago, were approached by a committee of influential men representing Livonia, Plymouth, and surrounding areas to undertake the building of a hospital in 1952. Construction was actually begun on April 30, 1958, and tentative completion of the hospital is scheduled for November of this year. The new five story hospital has been designed along contemporary lines and includes Administration, Nursing, Emergency, Adjuvant Diagnostic and Treatment, Service Departments. To date, over 200 physicians have submitted their application for staff appointment.

The purpose of the St. Mary Hospital Guild is to promote the interest of the Hospital and cooperate in such good works in general as shall come within the scope of activities with the knowledge and direction of the Administrator that can accomplish much for the welfare of the hospital and its patients. The Guild offers four types of membership. Sustaining members ($5) participate in guild sponsored activities. You may wish to be a Life Member ($100) or a Patron ($25.00 per annum). Active members ($2) offer service on one or two committees. No matter what your talents or special interests, you will find a committee to coincide with them. These include Membership, Publicity, Program, Visiting, Decorations, Sewing, Spiritual, Library, Ways and Means, Public Relations and Hospitality.

The Guild offers its members a wonderful way in which they can serve their community and can feel proud of the service they are rendering. For further information or request for an application, please call Harriette Gavigan (GL. 3-0515) or Betty Packard (GL. 3-3238).

AT A MEMBERSHIP Garden Party at the home of Mrs. Fred Antil in Livonia, on June 10 the St. Mary Hospital Guild signed up their thousandth member to the Guild. Standing behind the beautifully decorated tea table are l-r hostess, Mrs. Fred Antil;

Mrs. Dorothy Arnold, President of Guild accepting the application of Mrs. Betty Falzetti, the thousandth member; Mrs. Shirley Barnes, Chairman of Membership; Mrs. Marion Johnson, Co-Chairman of Membership.

PLYMOUTH WOMEN that attended the Garden Party on June 10 and signed up as Guild Members were l-r Mrs. Ray Barber, Mrs. Robert Wideman, Mrs. Robert Rowland and Mrs. Lee Coolman.

Blood Bank June 22 in Salem Area

Mrs. Herbert Famuliner
FI. 9-0924

The Blood Bank set for this area will be June 22 from 2 to 8 p.m. and will be held at the South Lyon Elementary School. The Blood Bank program is sponsored by the American Red Cross. Persons between the ages of 21 and 56 may make donations. Persons 18 to 21 must have consent of their parents. Blood donated at this bank will provide a backlog for area residents who may need blood in the future, and will allow them to draw on the bank on a no return requirement basis. The Bank will be closed from 5:30 to 6:30.

The Go Getters 4-H Club picked new officers for their summer club. Pamela Sibary is president; Mary Lou Straub, vice-president; Martha Lutchka, secretary; Cathy Von Bonn, treasurer; Carolyn Bloom, health chairman; Ivan Moore, song leader; Gilbert Straub and Rebekah Stevenson are game leaders; Mrs. H. J. Sibary will help Mrs. J. Lutchka as leader. Jr. Leaders will be David Lutchka and Mary Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dolan of Chubb Road, announce the engagement of their daughter, Wanda Catherine to EM-SM Ronald Eugene Minnie, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Stoddley of South Lyon. The bride-elect graduated with the class of '59, of South Lyon High. Mr. Minnie is now home on a 15 day leave and will be stationed at Little Creek, Va. No wedding date has been set.

The Salem Hobby Club held its last meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Earl Roberts of Chubb Rd., last Monday evening with 12 attending. The group worked on their copper pictures. Mrs. Roberts served cheese-cake, coffee and tea.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Graham have moved into Salem and are living at 9660 Six Mile Rd.

Mrs. Martin Schomberger Jr. of Weed Road was a hostess Tuesday evening for a Stanley Party at her home.

Mike and Mark Hardesty are spending some time visiting at Flushing, Mich.

The June meeting of the Suburban Farm Bureau was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Sellers of Seven Mile Rd., last Thursday evening with 23 attending. Songs were sung led by Charles Steele. Meeting was opened by the chairman, Herbert Conant. The pledge to the flag was said and the Farm Bureau Creed. Mrs. Charles Steele read the minutes of the last meeting. Mr. Harlow Ingall reported for the minute man, and led a discussion on School Consolidation; also seasonal farm labor. Roy LeMaster led discussion and voted on subjects for the coming year. The hostess served chicken salad, potato chips, tea and coffee. The next meeting will be the annual picnic at the LeMaster Home on Napier Rd. on July 19. Friends and neighbors are invited.

Among the Salem folks were seen Sunday enjoying the wonderful meal served at the Chicken Barbecue held in Ann Arbor were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Geiger and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Ingall, Suzie Cort and Richard, the Le Masters, the Charles Steeles, Mr. and Mrs. Mills Tourtelotte, the Famuliner family and others. The band from Chelsea played. Chelsea is having their 125 birthday celebration in July so many of their folks were dressed as early settlers.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Hardesty and the Carleton Hardestys attended a pancake supper Saturday night in Hamburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hoffman are visiting relations in West Virginia and will be home this week.

Earl Roberts celebrated his birthday Tuesday, the 9th. Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Hicks of Seven Mile Road held an Open House in honor of their son Stanley, who graduated Thursday from Northville High. Approximately 40 friends attended. Mrs. Hicks served sandwiches, relishes, potato chips, punch and coffee.

The Gilbert Alter family attended the confirmation of their nieces Gayle and Karen Alter of Flat Rock Sunday and attended a family gathering later in the day.

Mr. and Mrs. John Nagay and children were Sunday evening guests at the Famuliner home.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Proctor Jr. and children from Pinckney were Sunday evening guests at the Bennett home.

The June Christian Fellowship Class social was attended by 25 young adults. The social was held at the large fireplace in the Island Park in Ann Arbor. Hot dogs and a potluck supper was enjoyed by the group followed by a ball game. The evening was concluded by the singing of hymns around the fireplace.

The Pastor brought a message entitled, "For We Preach Christ" Sunday morning, June 14, emphasizing the importance of knowing what the Bible says concerning the doctrine of Jesus Christ.

The Pioneer Girls met at 4:30 Monday afternoon for a hike through the woods to identify birds and wild flowers. They enjoyed a lunch after hiking followed by a devotional time. The girls are working on their nature badge and must be able to identify and collect five wild flowers as well as making three different leaf prints and be able to recognize three common birds.

They have also planted vegetable and flower gardens and will be caring for them during the summer.

"The Passing—Of the Parking lot Meters."
Well they are gone and really for what reason? The merchants have said that about being ticketed for overtime parking.

We did have two hour parking for a nickel, all day for a quarter, and shorter time for a penny. Most people know how long their business will take them. If they are so Scotch to begrudge a nickel, they would be the same way in a store.

For some time I have observed car owners. They will drive by several empty space units until they find a meter with some time left on it, and not put in a penny. I watched one person that did this. They overstayed their time and were ticketed and saw the officer walk away, went over to him and abused him terribly, tried to tell him the meter wasn't working right.

I have always been very grateful that there is a charge parking area and glad to pay the small amount for the privilege. With no charge parking area, you will find that a great number of people will hog the spaces and not allow legitimate traders to park. Who will check this?

To provide an area large enough to take care of all cars, it would run into a lot of money to buy up the available property.

One solution, which has been turned down by the powers to be, is to double deck the lot behind the stores where the meters have been taken out. At two different times, there has been used steel girders and cross members, all fabricated and cut to size. The City could have bought at scrap prices. All the City would have to do was put in the footings for foundations and erect it and build a ramp, but it was turned down for some reason.

The old Bronson building could be torn down or used as it is to park 30 cars. Why isn't it used? The area in back of the Bronson building would park 15 cars by opening wider passages between the Bronson building and the other small building west of it, or this building could be torn down. The islands where the meters were could be narrowed to two feet. This would give a total car space of approximately 60 cars.

No rest for this Chevy... round the clock the engine never stops!

At Washington's bustling National Airport, Allied Aviation Fueling Service on its radio-equipped trucks get crews and tanks to the right planes at the right time. Aside from its usual time out for the usual service, its Thrift-master engine has been running 24 hours a day for the past 100 days!

Once you get that kind of endurance, you don't worry about lost job time. Breakdowns go out of style the day you get into action.

The Chevrolet trucks are designed with the word "endurance" right out of the engineering language. And they just mean precision engineering and top-quality materials have nothing to say about it. Chevrolet trucks are put together to stay together—incorporating the most advanced chassis development and most efficient 6-cylinder engine designs. They're built to last, built to keep Chevrolet's hard-earned reputation for reliability flying high.

Going to the real heart of Chevrolet's advantages is where your dollars come in. He'll show you, in time after feature, that you can buy more truck dependability in any weight class—at any price.

No jobs too tough for a Chevrolet truck!

by George Spelvin
Thumbing through an old copy of the Mail the other day, I stubbed my forefinger on a news item vintage of 1949. Seems the local high school thespians were putting on "George Washington Slept Here" as their winter production. As I read the cast names, my brain cells clicked curiously and I wondered how many of those aspiring actors of that wonderful year — 1949 might still be in the Plymouth area.

A few of the names are as follows: Don Helm, Clifford McClumpha, Dick Zielasko, Nancy Stevens, Diane Arcsott, Paul Harding, Pat Pine, Dot Zander, and Fred Rafferty.

Don Helm is teaching chemistry and physics at the High School. The Plymouth Theater Guild stores their flats and props at the Zielasko farm. Outside of that old George is at a loss to explain why these students of the theater arts haven't made a recent stage appearance. If anyone knows "where they are now" please drop us a line.

Another item in that 1949 paper indicated that Mrs. Marvin Terry was directing quite an extravaganza for the Plymouth's Women's Club entitled "A Visit to Old Ireland." From the picture in the paper it seemed that they had a photographically talented group. Would be interesting for the Women's Club to revive the production after ten years. I'm sure that the songs haven't lost any of their freshness and lilt.

Might be a good idea for next season to have a musical revue added to the Theater Guild agenda. Of course, with three plays to do (see end of column) the agenda is already filled to overflowing. Nothing like giving a busy organization one more task.

Over Garden City way, the Footlighter's dramatic group showed great improvement with their third production, "Blithe Spirit." Taking into consideration that only 14 months ago this group was organized, a play with all the nuances that only Noel Coward can weave into dialogue was a definite challenge.

I'm happy to report that Dr. Hill, their able director, and a hard-working cast stood up to the challenge and provided an enjoyable evening for old George. The technical work in this show would test even the more mature organization.

Another example of a new dramatic group — Wayne Community Players — starting out in deep, professional water was on exhibit over the weekend when they did the "Glass Menagerie." Year ago in Chicago I was privileged to see Miss Laurette Taylor do this show prior to its two year run on Broadway. Eddie Dowling was in the cast also. The play and the actors worked together beautifully. It was an evening to remember in the theater.

The Wayne Players revisited those memories for me with their production. Naturally no one will ever match Miss Taylor's performance. By the way, the Wayne drama group got a thumbs up from the new high school auditorium. If you'd like to see a community auditorium similar to the one that we are dreaming about for Plymouth, drop over and see what we should have in Plymouth. Livonia is in the process of constructing an auditorium addition to the Bentley High School building on Gayde Rd. were pleasantly surprised by the visit of their son, Staff Sgt. Richard Shrumm and his wife and three children Bonnie, Joyce and Michael. The Sgt. and family are stationed in Victoria, Texas. This also was a get-acquainted time for the Roy Schrumms with their new grandson, Michael.

Another of the Township High School graduates is Eddie Bretzfall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bretzfall of Canton Center Rd. Upon his graduation Eddie is considering courses at a technical school in Chicago in electronics. Good luck.

The ladies of the Canton Diet Club are well on their way for plans to stream-line the old meeting and elected officers. President, Mrs. Ellen Stewart; Vice President, Delores Truitt; Secretary, Mrs. Edna Harrison; Treasurer and Weight Recorder, Mrs. Kay Fairchild of Garden City. The group held a meeting June 15, at 8:00 p.m. at the Township Hall on Canton Center Rd. There will be a weekly meeting each Monday, hereafter at 8:00 p.m. at the Hall. The group wants to extend an invitation to any others that would care to join. Just be there next Monday evening.

I don't know how we overlooked the fact that there is a little league baseball team in the Township called the Yellow Jackets. But a few last week we had a ball with them. The Yellow Jackets won a game over the Willis Little League Team, score 17-8. The team was aided by a home run put in by Larry Ashman. Congratulations fellows and let us hear from you more often.

The other day I received a note. The contents expressed the pride of a Township grandmother. In fact the envelope fairly burst open with pride. The note was from Mrs. Rudolf Koppen of Gorman Rd. She wrote "For my birthday my 12-year-old granddaughter presented me with a birthday cake she herself baked and decorated just beautifully."

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Truitt and their six children dropped in to help the celebrate, also my brother from Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Bruno Wolff and daughter Betty were present. The name of the baker of that very prized birthday cake was Carol Ann Koppen. I'll bet Grandma never ate such a delicious cake before. And a happy birthday from us Mrs. Koppen.

We wish to express our deepest sympathies to the Richard Hoffman family of Ford Rd. Mr. Hoffman owned and operated Dick's Sporting Goods Shop on Ford Rd. Mr. Hoffman suffered from a heart attack while driving his automobile, causing the auto to crash and Mr. Hoffman's death. Mr. Hoffman leaves his wife and daughter.

Well it is just about a year ago today that I started to write the chatter you have had to put up with each week. I hope, however, some of you out there got some enjoyment from the column, at least a portion of the enjoyment I got from writing it. I have met many new people in the past year, learned a lot about our Township, and I hope made some friends. I want to thank all of you that helped make the column newsy (I think that is the word), and if all goes well, and with your help, maybe the column will get better by next year's anniversary.

The Canton Stork made a visit to two of our Canton residents, and delivered some cousins. Let us explain. Mr. and Mrs. Martin Mitchell of Maben Rd. now proudly boast of a new daughter, born June 4, at St. Joseph Hospital. The young lady, Lynn Marie, weighed 8 lbs. Marty and Jan are ever so proud, but their pride can't outshine that of Lynn's little brother. Now if this wasn't enough good fortune for one family, the stork delivered the same day, a little boy cousin for Lynn Marie. The proud parents of this little fellow are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell of Beck Rd. Timothy Gerard weighed in at 9 lb., 4 oz. June 4, at St. Joseph Hospital. Both mothers and their new members to the family are now home.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shrumm of Gayde Rd. were pleasantly surprised by the visit of their son, Staff Sgt. Richard Shrumm and his wife and three children Bonnie, Joyce and Michael. The Sgt. and family are stationed in Victoria, Texas. This also was a get-acquainted time for the Roy Schrumms with their new grandson, Michael.

The ladies of the Canton Diet Club are well on their way for plans to stream-line the old meeting and elected officers. President, Mrs. Ellen Stewart; Vice President, Delores Truitt; Secretary, Mrs. Edna Harrison; Treasurer and Weight Recorder, Mrs. Kay Fairchild of Garden City. The group held a meeting June 15, at 8:00 p.m. at the Township Hall on Canton Center Rd. There will be a weekly meeting each Monday, hereafter at 8:00 p.m. at the Hall. The group wants to extend an invitation to any others that would care to join. Just be there next Monday evening.

Cherry Hill Methodist Church honored the ladies of Unit I (the oldest ladies group of the church) and the ladies of Unit II were also present as Faith Circle guests. Your reporter was told of the beautiful decorations the ladies had to make the occasion even more special. The tables were in "U" shape and in the center there stood a bird bath. In the bird bath there were lovely yellow floating tulips. The base of the bird bath was surrounded by beautiful roses. At one end of the hall there was a trellis with real roses climbing up it and at the foot of the trellis there was a flower bed of lilacs. The ladies called the occasion the "Golden Luncheon."

The beauty of the flowers symbolized the beauty and love put into the work of these ladies for their church. The Faith Circle ladies brought back memories to the group by remembering the many pairs of water the ladies had to carry for their church supper before the church was equipped with its own water supply. They recalled the suppers when the ladies stood and picked chicken and peeled bushels of potatoes. They recalled the little oil stove they carried to furnish heat, and the meals they prepared, then cooked over the West store, to be carried to the church to be served. There weren't refrigerators to help keep things cool, so the ladies set their food outside the church door until it was needed. It was with a smile the ladies remembered the old days, and the Faith circle ladies probably uttered a prayer for modern conveniences. The luncheon was highlighted by the presentation of a yellow rose corsage to each lady of Unit I, along with a complimentary speech, given by a member of the Faith Circle to each lady in turn. These ladies have spent many devoted hours to their church, and the works are known by the members. Mrs. Claire Dorey, Mrs. Hattie Burrell, Mrs. Lil Wilkie, Mrs. Blanche McKim, Mrs. Annie Dunstan, Mrs. Ava Bordine, Mrs. Grace Gill (unable to attend), Mrs. Edith Longwish, Mrs. Lucille Hauk, Mrs. Edith Coroon, Mrs. Amanda Beltz, Mrs. Blanchon, Mrs. McNulty. The ladies of Unit I felt that over the years their church service had brought them many enjoyable hours and the companionship of a real friend. The luncheon was brought to close with a lovely quotation. The ladies of Unit

I were ever so pleased and grateful for the tribute paid them.

Visiting relatives and friends are Mrs. Sheldon Baker and daughter Christine, formerly of the Plymouth area, now from Fayetteville, Arkansas. Welcome back.

Mrs. Nick Mucker of Saltz Rd. has been confined to bed for a few days. Opal had been a frequent visitor to our column and I hadn't heard of her in some time. Get well soon and back to our work.

We want to wish Mrs. Owen Schrader of Canton Center a speedy recovery from her recent surgery. Mrs. Schrader is in St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor.

This will be the last chance I will have to remind you to get those tickets for the Canton Community Club Strawberry Festival. All the proceeds will go to the Boy Scouts of Troop 298 for their summer week camp-out, so come on and get your tickets, 35 cents each or 3 for a dollar. Besides all that delicious shortcake you will have to eat, you will have a chance for three door prizes, and you don't even have to be there to win. Just get your tickets and if you are lucky, they'll call you if you're a winner. That date again is June 25, 7:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. Tickets available from any scout.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hix of Warren Rd. returned late Monday evening from a trip to the Upper Peninsula with their nephew and the Nelson Horns of Spilant.

Sunday, June 14, Mr. and Mrs. Hix are attending a Golden Wedding Anniversary celebration of their cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner of Kalamazoo. The Warners are formerly of the Plymouth area.

Well, that does it for this

Girl Scout Western Trips Helped by Service Clubs

The Plymouth Roundup girls are receiving money from three local groups, Kiwanis, Rotary, and Lions to help finance their trip in July.

The Lions are donating the meal tickets for the train, which amounts to approximately $70. The Kiwanis and Rotary each gave the delegates $50 to split up for extra spending money on the train and at the campsite.

They will be attending the International Senior Girl Scout encampment called the Roundup. It will be held in Colorado Springs on two private ranches July 3 to 12 with three days before and after for travel time.

The six girls will be leaving June 30 from the Ann Arbor train station on a special train to Chicago. In Chicago they will board a special Girl Scout train which will stop right at the campsite in Colorado.

About 7,500 senior scouts will be attending the Roundup and 1,500 adults will be there. Air Force men will keep order and deliver food since the camp is adjacent to the new academy.

At the Roundup the whole encampment of about 10,000 people will be in tents. The delegates will be given a 11 possible chances to meet not only with girls from all over the U.S. but also with the many girls from other countries.

Forty delegates and 16 alternates were chosen to go from this area. The delegates are divided into five patrols with eight girls in a patrol. The patrol leaders are April Corey, Plymouth, Buzzy Kykeman, Ypsilanti, Patty Krebs, Ypsilanti, Mary Southern, Ypsilanti and Susie Wheeler, Ann Arbor.

Ever since the delegates were selected last December the training has been intensive. In December there was a meeting of all the girls to discuss the trip and in January a whole day was spent at the Plymouth Girl Scout cabin. In February a day was spent at Ann Arbor's Hilltop cabin for the monthly meeting.

The April meeting was a weekend at Flatrock in tents. In May the meeting was also a campout held this time in Metropolitan Park near Romulus. At this meeting the girls met another patrol from Detroit who were going to the Roundup. The days at this campout were nice but the nights were cold.

All the 16 alternates were required to go on a six day campout in Plymouth June 22-27 called the Senior Sojourn. The sojourn is a camp only tents. It is open to all senior scouts on application.

At the end of the summer, August 3-15, the alternates will be attending the "Little Roundup" which is to be held in Canada with some Canadian seniors.

Three Plymouth senior Girl Scouts, Joyce Allen, Barbara Kelley and Dawn Miller will be attending the Mountain Caravan which is a camping trip through the Blue Ridge and Great Smoky Mountains, July 20 through August 1.

The trip will cover Ohio, West Virginia, Tennessee, North Carolina and Kentucky. It will include a 13 mile hike up Grandfather Mountain and an Indian Pageant.

Sightseeing to such places as a West Virginia coal mine, Linville Falls, Calumet Horse Farm, and the Atomic Energy Museum in Oakridge, Tenn. will be on the agenda.

Richard Lea Speaks At TB Meeting

Richard L. Lea, 102 North Holbrook, Plymouth, executive director of the Tuberculosis and Health Society of Wayne County, will be the principal speaker at the annual meeting of the Kent County (Ontario) Tuberculosis Association. It will be held June 22, in Chatham, Ontario.

Lea, a former Illinois newspaperman, has been a Plymouth resident for eight years. He entered the tuberculosis control movement in 1945 and came to Detroit in 1945 to organize the TB and Health Society. He has served on the executive board of the National Conference of Tuberculosis Workers. His topic at the Kent County annual meeting: "TB - Unfinished Business."

SMALL-TIME NEW YORK (UPI)—What is probably the smallest brewery in the world is run by a scientist. His name is Irwin Stone and he is "brewmaster" of a research laboratory that turns out about 1,000 gallons of beer a year—compared with the 30 million gallons of a regular brewery.

Stone works for the Wallerstein Co. of Staten Island, N.Y., which produces the beer for the express purpose of testing it for such qualities as chillproofing, stability, taste, shelf life, and so on.

There will be a prize of $5.00 for the best decorated car. Also music all day long by our own Plymouth Band.

Who's New in Plymouth

ONE OF THE NICEST families the Plymouth Mail has had the pleasure of meeting is the Joe Bida family of Hamilton Avenue. They moved to Plymouth last September from Garden City when Joe became Superintendent of the DPW for Plymouth. Early in the fall we had a picture date with them and their son accidentally stepped on a needle and was rushed off to the hospital. Therefore, a bit belatedly we welcome Irene Wendy 7, Irene Bida, Tom R, Joe, and John 10, to our community. Although Irene cried when she first saw her home, she and the children love it now because it has turned out the way Joe pictured it when he bought the older home that was moved to this location from Detroit. It was badly run down and ill-kept but Joe had imagination and the know-how to remodel. Today it is a comfortable and charming home. Fans of stereo, the Bidas enjoy doing things together, and are all baseball fans (particularly now). The boys love to play the game too, and since they are the last home on a dead-end street, have ample opportunity to do so in the vacant field nearby. Irene has newly taken up golf and this is an interest shared by Joe who is in a golf league, on the team sponsored by Davis & Lent.

Evans Speaks Before Plywood Makers

Edward S. Evans, Jr., president of Evans Products Company of Plymouth, Mich., will be the featured speaker on opening day of the 17th Annual Convention of the National Plywood Distributors Association in Atlantic City, June 15-17.

"Integrity in Competition" is the subject of Mr. Evans' 10 a.m. address. The convention is being held in the Traymore Hotel.

Several hundred plywood distributors from over 12 nations are expected to attend. Mr. Evans heads a company which is among the top 10 in operational size among 122 in the plywood industry. The 44-year-old Evans Products Company has several mills in the Pacific Northwest engaged in production of plywood, hardboard, special decorative wall panels, battery separators and various other wood products. These products are marketed through independent jobbers and through Evans' wholly owned subsidiary, Fiddes-Moore and Company, which also distributes other building materials.

In other divisions, the company also manufactures other freight car damage prevention equipment, bicycles and tricycles, truck and bus heating and ventilating equipment, and laminated plastic curbside building panels and boat panels.

To The Editor

To The Editor:
I would like to take this means of conveying my sincere thanks to the many people who made my election to the Board of Education possible. There were so many who contributed to my success at the polls that it is very difficult to thank them all personally and to convey the gratitude they so richly deserve. They are the ones in reality who won the seat on the School Board.
It now becomes my duty to serve in a manner to bring credit to their sense of giving and fair play. To the voters, I owe the obligation of using my particular talents to further their interests in the field of education and specifically serve as a good School Board member.
May God bless all of you!

Tips On Care of Your Garden's Beautiful Flower-The Rose

Roses are such special flowers that no one begrudges the care that they need. Since modern varieties continue to bloom during summer, the chores seem worthwhile on the hottest day.

Right after the first big burst of bloom is about finished, the last of June, two chores should be done as soon as possible. One is to cut off all the faded flowers, except on a few varieties of climbers or shrubs which develop handsome red fruits or "hips" for fall color.

If you don't cut any roses for bouquets during June, it may take some little time to cut off all the dead flowers. But it needs to be done not only for a neat appearance, but also to prevent formation of seed which is a deterrent to continued bloom. As soon as possible, all roses should be given their last feeding of the year. One of the special rose foods or just ordinary 5-10-5 balanced commercial fertilizer may be applied now. A small trowelful or a generous handful of fertilizer is sprinkled over the soil in a circle around the plant and then watered or hoed into the soil.

Like fertilizer, water stimulates growth and flower production. Whether or not you will have to water this summer depends on where you live and the weather. It's important to know that roses can survive a season of real drought without being watered and bloom the following year. If possible, water them once a week when it doesn't rain, then growth and bloom will be steady this summer. Fall bloom will be finer too.

When and if you water, see that it goes into the soil where roots can absorb it and not on the bushes. Overhead sprinkling or watering at night when moisture may cling to foliage are causes of disease. Let the hose run slowly so that water trickles into the ground until only a small area is thoroughly soaked. Then move the hose to the next area.

To break the flow of the water, prop the nozzle thick over the soil under, around and between rosebushes. This is a mulch. Spraying or dusting roses is necessary wherever you live. In the East, Midwest and South, black spot disease which may defoliate plants is the summer bugaboo. In the West, thrips and white flies are damaging. Everywhere mildew, aphids and some other pests and diseases are likely to occur.

East or West many climbing, floribunda, grandiflora and shrub roses are fairly resistant to the prevalent insects and diseases. In a bad year, they may not be exempt and hybrid tea roses never are.

There are two successful short cuts to keeping roses healthy. One is the multi-purpose spray or dust which with one application takes care of both insects and diseases. The second is modern packaging of these formulas so that they are quick and easy to apply.

Never spray or dust roses during midday, to avoid burning foliage. Never apply a liquid spray in the evening. And if it rains within 24 hours after spraying or dusting, repeat to be on the safe side. In an average summer, spraying will be needed every ten days to two weeks.

ROSES, preferably climbers or floribundas, will last on the porch or terrace if the arrangement is kept out of sun or wind.

Local Flower Show Is For Everyone

Thousands of flower shows are held across the country between June and October. These shows are for amateur gardeners in contrast to the big spring shows in the cities which are staged by professional growers.

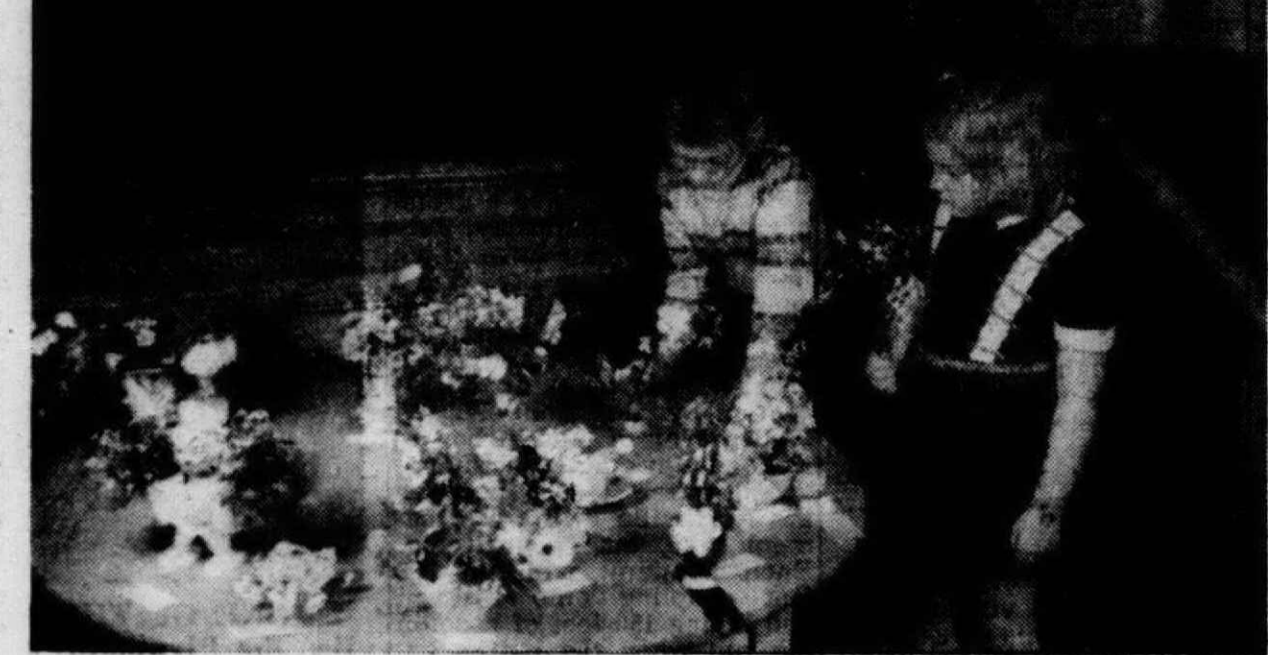

Everyone likes to brag about growing the biggest tomato in town, or having the largest spike of gladiolus, or the finest red rose ever, whether it's one of the old Crimson Glory or the new Torch Song. Entering the finest products of your garden in a local flower show helps the flower show along and may bring you a blue ribbon.

A local flower show during the summer is staged by a garden club, civic organization or business firm. In the latter case the show usually is for employees only. Garden clubs or similar organizations seldom restrict entries to their members, but usually have at least one section of classes which are "open to all."

Plans for an exhibit, even of one specimen flower or a plate of tomatoes or beans, starts some time before the show day. Anyone who anticipates having something to exhibit should obtain a schedule from a committee member as soon as possible after the show has been announced.

The schedule will list classes both for horticultural specimens and for flower arrangements. Requirements for entering each class will be staged as well as rules under which the show will be conducted and judged. Study the schedule to decide which classes you may be able to enter and then let the committee know that you plan to do so.

However fine the flower, vegetable, house plant or arrangement, an exhibit is sometimes disqualified himself for a prize ribbon. Check the schedule again a day or two before the show. A bowl of a dozen marigolds won't win a prize, no matter how splendid the flowers, if the schedule calls for only six marigolds.

Wilted marigolds, roses in tight bud or rubbery beans won't win any prizes either. All entries must be picked at least the evening before the show and conditioned so that they will stay at their best while they are on exhibition.

This means cutting the flowers when the sun isn't high and taking care not to cut those that are open too far or are still in such tight bud that they won't open to be on display. Then strip excess foliage from as much of the stem as will be under water and put the flowers in a pail or wide-mouth container of water overnight.

Vegetables should be picked in advance, cleaned off and stored in a cool place until it's time to take them to the show.

Plan to reach the show in ample time to place your entry where the clerks tell you to. Leave the show before the deadline hour. Time is short for the judges to do their work before the show opens to the public.

Roses in June, gladiolus in August and dahlias in September are the flowers that dominate local shows. Schedules, however, make room for others. There's usually a class that everyone in the family can enter. A section of children's exhibits now is general, whether it's for little gardens of moss and twigs made in pie pans or wild flowers in a bouquet.

Foot - Facts

Our Neolithic ancestors were smarter than 20th Century man, according to a well known chiropractor. At least he knew enough to pick out soft places to walk and thus save jarring his spine.

You can save your feet, says Dr. William J. Stickle, nationally prominent chiropractor, by walking on wood. He warned that headaches, backaches, tired muscles and dislocated discs often occur when people walk all day on concrete or hard-surfaced flooring.

Wood is the prized floor surface, Dr. Stickle pointed out, because of its resilience. The extra bounce in wood, he says, helps to cushion the shock transmitted to the skeletal system by walking.

Dr. Stickle even offered advice on how to walk. He said your toes should point straight ahead, but it's all right to walk slightly pigeon-toed if that feels more comfortable.

Sparkling Recipes for Your July 4 Celebration

Cherry tarts sparkle with taste appeal as a July 4 dessert, but don't reserve them for one day in the year, alone. They're good whenever you want a special treat for the family.

BY DOROTHY MADDOX

For the Fourth of July, or for any occasion when bright, tempting red tarts are in order, try this recipe. You'll enjoy it.

Cherry Tarts
(Eight 4 1/2-inch tarts)

Four-and-one-half cups red, sour, pitted cherries in heavy syrup (two 1-pound 4-ounce cans), 1/4 teaspoon almond extract, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, eight 4 1/2-inch baked tart shells, 2 1/2 cups whipped cherry instant nonfat dry milk crystals.

Drain cherries; reserve syrup. Chill 1/2 cup syrup to make whipped cherry instant crystals. Combine remaining syrup, almond extract and cornstarch; blend. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thickened and clear. Combine thickened syrup and cherries; mix well. Fill tart shells with cherry mixture. Chill. Serve with whipped cherry topping.

To whip cherry instant nonfat dry milk crystals, about 2 1/2 cups:
1. Mix 1/2 cup instant nonfat dry milk crystals with 1/2 cup well-chilled cherry syrup in bowl.
2. Whip until soft peaks form, about 3 to 4 minutes. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice.
3. Continue beating until stiff peaks form, 3-to-4 minutes longer.

Here's a refreshing fruit punch for a lawn or porch party:

Florida Party Punch

This recipe makes enough punch to fill 44 punch cups half full.

Two-and-one-half cups sugar, 2 1/2 cups water, 1 1/2 quarts fresh or frozen orange juice, chilled; 1 1/2 cups lime juice, 1 1/2 quarts ginger ale, chilled; 1 tablespoon cucumber juice.

Combine sugar and water in saucepan; place over heat and stir until sugar is dissolved. Bring to a boil; let boil 5 minutes without stirring. Cool.

Add grapefruit juice, orange juice, lime juice and cucumber juice.

Just before serving, add ginger ale and pour over "Party Ice Molds" in punch bowl.

Party Ice Molds

Pour water into fluted tart pans to within 1/2-inch from the top. Freeze until firm. Remove from freezer.

Top molds in decorative pattern with strawberry slices, lime slices and kumquats.

Slowly add water to cover. Freeze until firm. To unmold, quickly run under water to release ice from sides of pans.

Set Up Office In Your Home

It's modern. It's a money saver. It's efficient. And it's a cinch.

We refer to the increasingly popular practice of setting aside a room—or a corner of a room—to serve as a family office.

The benefits are many, the cost relatively modest. At the very least, there's an end to searching for misplaced bills, receipts, correspondence, important papers. The spouse who clutters the kitchen table with his paperwork can be enticed out from underfoot.

And a man who regularly conducts part of his business at home—even if his main place of business is elsewhere—can claim a tax deduction on a home office.

So long as the deduction is reasonable he can claim (1) depreciation allowances on the furniture and equipment used in the home office (2) depreciation or expenses involved in decorating the home office with pictures, rugs and draperies, wallpaper or paint, and accessories (3) cost of office supplies used in the home office for which the occupant himself pays (4) a proportionate share of the household expenses—heat, light, even maid service—that go toward keeping the home office in order. This category also includes a share of general maintenance, realty taxes, insurance, and even depreciation of the house.

Convenient from the work go, a home office can be set up almost anywhere on the premises. According to experts at Underwood Corporation, you should pick a spot with good ceiling or wall fixture illumination. Underwood also offers these further hints: some women find the kitchen an ideal place for tackling family business and bookkeeping. A desk placed so that it extends out from the corner can serve as additional space for preparing meals when you put paperwork aside. Men with evening "office hours" will probably prefer a place where family traffic isn't likely to be heavy; for this reason, many homeowners

AN ORGANIZED "PLACE OF BUSINESS" in your home will assist you in keeping an organized mind through the pressure of the many activities that pass through the hands of the lady of the house.

Hints for The Home

Use scissors to cut celery, parsley, green pepper and baby's meat. Wet the scissors to cut dates, figs and marshmallows.

Rug pile crushed by furniture can be revived by gentle application of a warm, not hot, iron over a damp cloth.

Iron smaller items over larger ones to do two jobs at once, such as handkerchiefs over the back of shirts.

Use a cut walnut meat to darken a scratch on dark wood.

Apply transparent plastic tape to bottom of cleanser cans to avoid rust rings.

Cover head of a hammer with a bandage when driving decorative or fragile nail-heads.

Empty plastic pill bottles make handy containers for dressings, catsup and mustard in school lunch boxes. Wash well before converting bottles to food containers.

Use a potato peeler to shave chocolate. It makes long curled shavings for decorating tops of cakes, pies, puddings.

To keep spools of thread from unwinding, slip rubber bands over them.

WATER SOFTENERS

Safe Boating Requires Use of Common Sense

Distressed by the boating tragedy which took the lives of five youngsters in Lake St. Clair, officials of the Detroit Red Cross chapter's water safety program reiterated the cautions it teaches in the organization's small craft safety classes.

"Red Cross concentrates on warning small craft operators not to overload their boats and to carry life preservers for each occupant," Frederick K. Cody, co-chairman of the Detroit chapter's safety services program, said. "If the youngsters involved in the tragedy had observed these rules I am sure the consequences of their mishap would have been much less severe."

Cody offered the following "common sense afloat" maximums for boaters:

1. Stay with your boat if it capsizes, metal boats with good air tanks and wood boats don't sink.
2. Provide each person with an approved life jacket or cushion.
3. Don't overload your boat—a wise rule is one person to a seat.
4. Don't smoke when refueling an outboard motor—always be careful with matches.
5. Don't stand up in a boat—keep weight low.
6. Avoid sharp turns—stay away from swimming beaches.
7. Always have a pair of oars in an outboard motor boat and a bailing can in all boats.
8. Head for shore if storm threatens—keep weight centered and low in rough waves.
9. Learn to swim to the best of your ability.

Smaller Grocery Bills
 ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI) — Your grocery bill for 1959 might be smaller than it was last year.
 Mrs. Eleanor Loomis, University of Minnesota marketing expert, said foods expected to be cheaper this year because of good supply are: pork, chicken, lard and possibly lamb. Beef, eggs, turkey and dairy products are expected to remain at about the same price levels as a year ago.

MIA MIAMI, Fla. (UPI) — Beachcomber, who set two world records in dog racing, is generally regarded as the outstanding greyhound of all time.

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From C. G. Lyons, Santa Monica, Calif.: I remember back in the distant days of yesterday when we lived on a little mountain farm, way back in the hills, twelve miles from the railroad and nearest town. It was indeed a special red letter day when the occasion arose when a trip to town had to be made. News of the trip was circulated about the neighborhood so that errands for them could be made, and purchases done for them.

The trip to town and county seat was an all-day affair, as the trip was made by farm wagon, over unpaved roads full of rocks and deep wheel ruts. Considerable preparation and forethought had to be made. The mules had to be shod with serviceable shoes, the wagon greased, and new rubber blocks installed on the brakes. The black snake whip had to be equipped with a new cracker, to send old Jack and Joe up the red clay hills, and not allow them to forget their duty at the single tree.

A sack had to be filled with straw, or old corn shucks to use on the wagon seat, to absorb some of the shocks and jolts. Then, at the crowing of the first rooster, we would roll out of bed, hurry to the barn to feed the mules while breakfast was being cooked. We ate by the light of the old kerosene lamp and were off.

As we neared town, we noticed fences and trees becoming more thickly plastered with advertisements of new and familiar wares. R.J.R. and Snapps tobacco seemed to be the most numerous. Bull Durham tobacco and Arms & Hammer brand soda came next in popularity.

Then over the crest of Chestnut Hill we could see the Court House dome and the church steeples reaching above the tops of the trees, and we straightened up, because we were almost to town.

The Indians Found In "Young Plymouth" Were Beggars

By Mrs. Nettie Dibble

(Third in a series written by Mrs. Nettie Dibble in 1930-31. This is probably the only attempt to write a complete history of Plymouth. It has now been published in pamphlet form for the Dunning-Hough Library. Mrs. Dibble died in 1944.)

In 1838 the village had a Presbyterian Church, five stores, a wildcat bank, known as the Wayne County Bank, three taverns and a drug store.

In 1839, the official "Gazetteer" described Plymouth: "Here is a post office, a Presbyterian Church, five stores, three taverns, a drug store, a lawyer, and three physicians. Population estimated 300."

At this time the village boasted two hotels, the Union Hall kept by Peter Fralick was considered first class and was extensively patronized, being the stage headquarters.

The stage route was known as the Detroit, Ann Arbor road, and there were a great many travelers; as many as eight four-horse stages passed through the village daily and a crowd of teamsters spent the nights at the hotels.

There is an old building now standing on the John Tibbitts property of 1825 on North Territorial Road (the Judy Stuart farm) that was used as a hotel in the early days.

There were but few Indians in the neighborhood and they were the shieving, vagabond variety; great beggars, but never dreaming of making a scalp. They cared for nothing so much as enough to eat and plenty of fire water on which to get tipsy.

By far the most dangerous foes were the bears and wolves which were very abundant. The wolves would finish a flock of sheep in one night.

In 1827 a small store was opened about one-half mile south of where the village now stands, near the corner of S. Main Street and Golden Road.

The Tonquish Creek which runs through Plymouth was named after an Indian Chief of the Pottawatmie tribe. About the only industry for several years was the grist and saw mills; at one time there were seven grist mills and six saw mills in the township of Plymouth and all doing a thriving business.

The Plymouth Flour Mill was built in 1845 by Henry Holbrook. It changed hands several times. In 1860 Samuel Hardonburg was the proprietor; he lived where the Wilcox house now stands in North Village.

In 1879 the mill was purchased by David B. Wilcox and after his death in 1902 his sons John and George operated it until it was sold to Henry Ford in 1920. It was torn down in 1921 and a building put upon the same site by Henry Ford in 1922.

In 1859 there was a saw mill and rake factory owned by May and Hendricks located on Main Street near where William Hoy's residence now stands. On February 16, 1859, the boiler in this factory blew up and Abraham Moreland and Henry Chilson were killed. Peter Micol was severely injured. The explosion occurred in the middle of the day while most of the men were in the woods cutting logs.

The first Post Office was known for some years as Plymouth Corners, and Gideon Benton was the first Postmaster. In 1828, he carried the mail in his hat or tied up in his handkerchief. Gideon Benton died in 1835 and his estate was the first estate probated in Michigan.

The first Bank of Plymouth was a wildcat bank known as the Wayne County Bank of 1837. It issued notes for the value of $45,000.00 with not one dollar paid in. J. D. Davis was President and B. F. Hall the cashier. A two dollar bill of this bank dated December 3, 1837, is preserved at Lansing.

To give a little idea as to what a "wildcat" bank was, I copy the following: "The earliest money in circulation in New France was known as "card money." This was first issued in 1685 to pay the soldiers. It consisted of ordinary playing cards cut in four pieces, each being stamped with a fleur-de-lis and a crown and signed by the Governor, Intendant and Clerk of the Treasury. This money was in use in Detroit in 1717, and was worth fifty cents on the dollar in silver. Specimens of it are preserved in Quebec.

"Skins of animals were also used as currency. In 1779 these were supplanted by bills issued by merchants under authority of the Governor. Each merchant was allowed to issue paper or due bills to the value of property he had on hand and on a given day, the merchant's exchange with each other the bills they had received. This was the beginning of the Clearing House System. After these bills had been redeemed, they were destroyed."

The financial conditions at different times became very bad, and in order to relieve the distress and establish a value for the lands, an act was passed by the Legislature on March 15, 1837, and amended on December 30, 1837, which provided for an unlimited number of so-called banks. They were known as "Wild Cats." The idea in the first place was perhaps all right, as part of the money had to be paid in and the stockholders were to give mortgages on real estate as security on the notes to be issued, but this plan suffered many changes. At first twelve and afterwards a number of persons, upon signing an agreement to that effect, became a banking corporation and almost anyone might be a director.

This banking system was welcomed by those who were hopelessly bankrupt and by those who saw a chance for unlimited knavery, and in a few months one of these banks was established at nearly every crossroad.

Many of the so-called banks had neither books nor office; and stock was represented as owned by persons who didn't even know

Leica Camera Course Taken by Resident

NEW YORK, N.Y.—Les Wilson, owner of Photographic Center in Plymouth and a veteran of 23 years in the photographic field, has recently completed a technical course on the varied capabilities of Leica cameras and accessories.

Sponsored by E. Leitz, Inc., American distributor of German-made Leica cameras and photographic equipment, the course is designed to help photo dealers better serve their customers. In addition to general photography, such specialized fields as microphotography, journalism and lighting techniques are covered in detail. Photographic field trips in the New York City area, with each dealer-student armed with a Leica M-3, are another feature of the course. Returning to the Center, each does his own enlarging and printing in a modern, fully-equipped darkroom.

they were claimed as stockholders. There were other decisions about these banks. During 1843-44 the "Wild Cats" were entirely eradicated.

On May 5, 1856, a fire started in Root's hotel on the northwest corner of Main and Ann Arbor Streets and nearly all of the buildings on the west side of Main Street were burned, a loss of $60,000.00. Among the buildings destroyed were J.W. Root's hotel, Kellogg's Drug Store, John Kynock's Drug Store, the Post Office, J. Scaltergood's Dry Goods Store, G. Lauffer's Shoe Store, Fralick's & Crosby's Dry Goods Store, and H. Week's Tailor Shop. Two brick buildings owned by T.P. May were saved.

In 1893 another fire destroyed the buildings from the corner of Penninian Avenue to within three stores of the corner of Main and Ann Arbor Streets.

On a map of 1860 this business block opposite Kellogg Park was called Phoenix block and before the fire in 1865 there were no trees in the park. There was a fence around the park and circuses were held here. One who lived on the south side of the park, Mrs. Ellen Roe Nichols tells of having been to the circus the night the block burned. A number of the circus people were staying at the hotel that night. There was great excitement getting the animals away from the park and nearly everything from the stores was carried into the park.

Mrs. Nichols tells that once when Barnum's Circus was in Plymouth, three men,

Mr. Henry Bennett, C.B. Crosby and Mr. Aldrich bargained to buy the circus out for the day. They took charge of everything and the day was a big success.

In 1858 trees were planted in the park. The first general store in Plymouth was opened by Timothy Lyon in 1828 in the block opposite the park.

Frisbee Chubb and Levi Bishop were early storekeepers, the latter from 1825 to 1830. Wesley MacKray was engaged in the manufacture of shoes in 1831.

GARDEN NOTES

During the past week there has been an unusually high amount of lawn disease. This was no doubt stimulated by the early heat wave that forced most people to water for longer periods than usual. The grass was still relatively lush (in contrast to near dormancy in July and August) and the high humidity caused by the heat and watering made ideal conditions for fungus growth. The most common fungus is "Curvularia" attacking both Bluegrasses and Bent causing browning and thinning of large areas or entire lawns. Best control apparently is application of an anti-biotic turf fungicide, watering only during the day (preferably in morning) and feeding with inorganic fertilizers while turf is still affected.
