Their JA company is Jacco, one of eight miniature firms in the local Junior Achievement program.

In 7th Year Here

Achievers Open Doors for Public

More than 150 local Junior Achievers — teen-agers from Plymouth and Livonia — will open the doors to their miniature business companies here for public inspection Monday evening, Feb. 1.

The Open House, held in conjunction with National Junior Achievement Week (Feb. 1-5), will offer the public an opportunity to view the activities of the eight JA companies housed in the new JA business center, 680 Dodge Street.

During the Open House, from 7 to 9 p.m., the eight JA companies will place on display their various products — and have them on sale.

The various products manufactured by the local JA firms will be offered for sale at discount prices, comparable to after-Christmas sales put on by wholesale and retail stores.

Capping the National Junior Achievement week in Southeastern Michigan will be the JA Sno-Ball dance Friday, Feb. 5 at the Masonic Temple in Detroit. Buddy Morrow's band will provide the music for the event which begins at 9 p.m. and will last until 1 a.m.

Plymouth's Junior Achievement program has taken great strides in recent years. Biggest individual moment recently was the move of the JA companies to their new headquarters in the Dodge Street building, formerly the Christian Science church.

Board To Enlarge Crowded Schools, Improve Old Ones

Transfer Of Training School To State Studied

Some of the problems that will accompany the transfer of the Wayne County Training School to the State of Michigan will be studied in future meetings involving the City of Plymouth's representative to the Board of Supervisors, George Witkowski.

Witkowski is chairman of the Board of Supervisors' Training School Committee.

The Training School is slated to be taken over by the State Mental Health Commission within the next two years. But although the Wayne County Board of Supervisors voted in 1953 to transfer the $10 million institution located north of Plymouth, there are now many officials who consider it an unwise move.

Among those having reservations about the transfer are those on the Training School's Administrative Board. Their feelings were expressed at a meeting held last Thursday among members of the Supervisors' Committee, Training School Administrative Board and the State Mental Health Commission.

William E. Davis, president of the Administrative Board, said that he would object to the transfer if it is done solely as an economic move. He felt that some supervisors believed that giving the school to the State for $1 is being done just to eliminate the operation cost to the County.

Davis declared that the board has recommended the transfer, but "we want to make sure that the quality of care and education is maintained."

Wayne County spends $800,000 yearly to operate the school for children. Charles F. Wagg, director of the State Department of Mental Health, answered that the State's program for care of mentally retarded is equal in quality to the County's. A target date of July 1, Continued on Page 8

Planners Reject Re-Zoning For Service Station

A request to re-zone a parcel of Plymouth Township property for service station use was denied by the Township Planning Commission last Wednesday night.

The property is located on the southwest corner of Sheldon and N. Territorial Rds. Because city residential property is located on the other three corners, there was much interest shown in the re-zoning request by neighbors. Many signed petitions to oppose the re-zoning from agriculture classification to commercial.

The Ohio Oil Co. had intended to purchase the property to build a station. In a letter sent to the Planning Commission last week, the oil firm noted that the argument that a service station would devalue the property was not valid since a court decision involving Sheldon Rd. property owners and the City of Plymouth already indicated that the four-lane street had devaluated the property.

But Township planners did not go along with the argument and a motion was approved to deny the request. The City Planning Commission also written the Township Commission that it opposed the re-zoning.

In other business, re-zoning of more property for trailer park use was approved. Land south of the Oak Haven Trailer Park along Ridge Rd. was re-zoned from agriculture to R-3. This property, with 610 feet of frontage on Ridge, is owned by Robert Willoughby.

The Planning Commission agreed to the change in hope of confining trailer park operation in the Township to that vicinity.

PLYMOUTH'S MARCH OF Dimes drive grew by $305.73 last Saturday due to the efforts of a group of 60 sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grade young people. The money was collected through the sale of peanuts to pedestrians. Pictured, from left, are Carol Kaunisto, 12; Mildred Fisher and Donald Dempsey, contributors; and Nancy Richard, 15. Carol and Nancy were two of the 60 volunteers. Mothers will march this Thursday for house-to-house contributions.

160 Area Mothers Go On 'March' Thursday

One hundred and sixty women will stage their annual March for funds Thursday in Plymouth to fight the three crippling of arthritis, birth defects, and polio.

Even though there is no set goal locally, the committee expects the $2,323 donated last year to be surpassed.

This Mothers' March is the climax of the annual March of Dimes Drive in Plymouth and across the nation. It will be held in the daytime in Plymouth Township while mothers in the City will go from house to house from 7 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. Charles Olson, chairman of the Mothers' March, announces that her volunteers expect to call at every home, whether City porchlights a re burning or not. For the convenience and safety of workers, however, it is urged that porchlights be turned on. The marching mothers will leave a "Count Down" questionnaire at each home. This small fact-finding folder is designed to enable each family to indicate if any of its members has a birth defect, arthritis or polio — and how many of them have had three or more Salk vaccine shots. It is urged that they be completed and mailed in.

Workers will be wearing arm bands and carrying their March of Dimes-Mason jars. Mrs. Olson also announced the following March captains: Mrs. Louis Dely, Mrs. David Garrison, Mrs. Leslie Hoeft, Mrs. Edward Kaunisto, Mrs. Gerald Olson, Mrs. Alexia Skoglund, Mrs. Terry Tallmadge, and Mrs. Arthur Walker.

Following the March, volunteers will return to Veterans' Memorial Home for refreshments served by Girl Scout Troop 238 whose leader is Mrs. Ralph Fluckey and co-leader is Mrs. Bernard Curtis.

Mothers of Plymouth are joining two million women across the nation in the March this Thursday.

The five questions that each householder is being asked to answer are these:

1. Does any person in this household have arthritis?
2. Was any person in this household born with a birth defect?

3. Has any person in this household had polio?
4. How many persons live in this household altogether?

5. How many persons in this household have had three or more Salk polio shots? The householder will then be asked to sign her or his name and address.

Sixty Plymouth children were on the sidewalks last Saturday selling peanuts for the New March of Dimes. They collected $305.72.

A "thanks" was extended to several places of business which allotted space to the young volunteers on the

Priority Given Starkweather, Smith, Sr. High

Plymouth Community School District's Board of Education took some preliminary steps Monday night to get a substantial capital improvement program underway this year that will result in both additions and improvements to several existing buildings.

Improvements at the Senior High and additions to Smith and Starkweather elementary schools were given a high priority by the Board.

Total cost of the many projects suggested is estimated at $355,000.

James Hardimon Dies Following Short Illness

James E. Hardimon, widely known for his work in church, educational and service activities, died after a short illness last Friday, Jan. 22 at the age of 55. He lived at 481 N. Evergreen.

Once a school superintendent in Newaygo and Hancock, Mich., Mr. Hardimon has been a representative for Ginn and Company, textbook publishing firm, for 22 years.

He had maintained a keen interest in the educational field. He was an early member of the Plymouth School Community Planning Group and was its chairman in the years 1953-54.

Mr. Hardimon was a graduate of Northern Michigan College and received his masters degree in education from the University of Michigan.

He coached athletics in Reed City before becoming a school superintendent and taught school at Davison and Keego Harbor.

Mr. Hardimon was a member of the Michigan Education Association, the U of M Club of Plymouth and the Michigan Association of Supervision and Curriculum Development.

Flu Turning To Pneumonia Claims Expectant Mother

Flu that developed into pneumonia took the life of a 21-year-old expectant mother last week. She was Mrs. Betty Jane Neely, wife of Andy Neely, 412 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

Ill 10 days, Mrs. Neely was taken to St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor where she died Jan. 20.

Attempts were made to save the baby she was expecting in another month. The infant, named Corinne Betty Sue, was stillborn.

The Neelys had lived in Plymouth since their marriage in May 1959.

The deaths added another tragic chapter to the life of the husband. Ten years ago he escaped from a fire which

Financing of the projects will come through the Building and Site Sinking Fund, not through a bond issue. The Board is still working out details of a bond issue that it hopes to present to voters sometime this spring. Such a bond issue, presumably much lower than the one defeated last November, would finance some major building needs.

An addition of four or five rooms to Smith Elementary School appears to be one of the major capital improvements that the Board will schedule this year. After deciding how many rooms are actually needed, the Board will direct the local architectural firm of Gould, Moss and Joseph to draw the preliminary plans.

It is hoped to have all the projects underway early enough this spring so that they will be ready when schools re-open in September.

Representatives of Gould, Moss and Joseph were at Monday night's meeting. After making a survey of the school, they presented three alternatives for making additions. One would be adding one room at the end of each of the three wings. This would result in three separate building projects and would cost more per square foot.

Another alternative is building a unit across the back of the school, linking all three wings together. The main objection to this would be the facing of the classrooms to the west and toward the playground. It would also eliminate some valuable playground space.

The Board appeared in accord with a plan to build an entirely new wing to the north of the building. It would contain four or five classrooms and badly-needed space for storage.

Smith School now has 60 over capacity. The enrollment is 479. This has resulted in use of the multi-purpose room and library for classrooms. (Continued on Page 8)

Plymouth Man Dies In Four-Story Fall

A 23-year-old Plymouth man died Monday from injuries suffered the same day in a four-story fall while working on a construction job on the Detroit Post Office.

Pronounced dead on arrival at Doctor's Hospital in Detroit was William Fegan, who lived at 6441 Ridge Rd., Plymouth. He was married and the father of two small girls.

Fegan, employed by the Smith Fireproofing Company, was working from scaffolding at the fourth story level of the Detroit Post Office. His death was termed accidental.

Rosary will be said this evening (Wednesday) at 8:30 p.m. at the Schrader Funeral Home. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church with the Rev. Father Francis Byrne officiating. Burial will be at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. Born Oct. 16, 1936, in Wayne, the late Mr. Fegan was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fegan of Plymouth. He was married to the form- (Continued on Page 8)

Seven Years for an Orchid

Gardener with Patience

By Jim Sponseller

While the snow piles up outside and most garden enthusiasts must be content to thumb through seed catalogs, there's one Plymouthite who is busy each day in his unusual garden growing one of nature's most luscious flowers—orchids.

A greenhouse that Kermit Smith erected last summer behind the garage at his 680 S. Harvey St. home gives him a chance to pursue his hobby the year around. There are several Plymouth area people fortunate enough to own private greenhouses, but Kermit is the first known to specialize in orchids.

While nearly everyone regards the orchid as a fascinating flower few attempt to grow them. And it's no wonder.

It takes seven years to get a plant growing after seed is planted. And one has to have just the right mixture of heat and humidity to keep the things alive. Then too, it can be a very costly hobby.

Kermit started out growing the orchids in a basement greenhouse. But last summer he fulfilled his ambition by building his own greenhouse that measures 10 by 17 feet. Built onto the rear of his garage, the greenhouse is an interesting attraction in the neighborhood, especially to the children who like to be invited inside to see the progress of the plants.

While snow is swirling around the yard, Kermit can be viewed inside the greenhouse working in his shirt-sleeves. The Michigan Orchid Society, of which there are 55 members, also have cited his greenhouse as a remarkable example of what a hobby can do with the hobby.

About seven years ago Kermit got interested in orchid growing when he went to a Flower Show in Detroit. "For $1.25 they gave me an orchid plant and told me it would turn out to be a beautiful plant. They didn't tell me it would take seven years to become a blooming sized plant."

The orchid died but it got Kermit interested enough to start reading about the plant. He found there are some 15,000 species recorded in their natural form. By cross-breeding, there are countless hybrid possibilities.

A bank of the greenhouses is needed to keep the greenhouses functioning just right. One (Continued on Page 8)

SUMMER IN January is possible in the greenhouse of Kermit Smith of S. Harvey St. who specializes in orchid growing.

Class for Plymouth Homemakers Tells How to Make Work Easier

Homemakers who are looking for better, easier ways of doing tasks about the house are invited to attend free classes in housework-simplification financed in Plymouth by the Michigan Heart Association.

The series of four "Heart of the Home" classes are conducted in cooperation with Wayne State University and will be held weekly at the same time and day beginning Wednesday, Feb. 3, 1 p.m. at the Dunning-Hough Library.

The course was developed originally for women with heart or blood vessel disease who must "take it easy." While medical reasons make it necessary to take the drudgery out of housework for women with a disability, eliminating drudgery is every woman's dream. Therefore the Michigan Heart Association opened the classes to all women several years ago.

The classes stress planning, according to work-simplification principles, which a homemaker can apply to all of her various tasks. The course was adapted from time-motion study principles used in industry by the Home Economics Department of Wayne State University.

Mrs. Hannah R. Pretzer from the staff of the Home Economics Department conducts the classes. "With proper tools and techniques up to fifty percent of the time and energy commonly spent cleaning, ironing, preparing meals and the like can be saved," Mrs. Pretzer said. She indicated that the classes are designed to benefit any economic level and that energy and time can be conserved without remodeling or buying expensive equipment.

Homemakers may register for the free classes by calling the Plymouth Adult Education Office at GL 3-3100, Ext. 4 or 23 or the Michigan Heart Association, Temple 1-8550. The classes will meet on Feb. 3, 10, 17, and 24, from 1 until 3 p.m.

No medical advice, diagnosis, treatment, or examination is given in the "Heart of the Home" classes.

The Wayne County Medical Society has endorsed the entire program and doctors of medicine will be urged to refer their patients to the classes.

Extension Club Plans for '60

"Program Planning" was the subject of the Jan. 18 meeting of the Parkside Extension Club, held at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Kincaid, 9243 Rocker.

Mrs. Stanley Travis of the Alen Club and Mrs. Sadie Ferguson of the Plymouth Club were special guests of the evening.

As members of more experienced clubs, they proved a great help in presenting the materials and conducting the program planning for the coming year.

Guests admired the china hostess dishes used for refreshments. The china was hand painted in a variety of pastel floral arrangements.

MAKING THE FINAL preparations for the 17th District Democratic Organization Third Annual Dinner are Mr. John Scott, Mrs. Charles Root, and Mrs. Anthony Frank. "Outlook for 1960" will be discussed by Lt. Gov. John B. Swainson for the program. The dinner will begin at 6 p.m., Saturday, February 6 at Capistrano Restaurant, 20600 Plymouth Rd., between Evergreen and Burt.

Mrs. Ione Reichel is Dinner Chairman. Tickets may be obtained by phoning any of the above women. Lee Ruland and Marilyn Dwyer of Plymouth are Co-Chairmen of Decorations.

Plymouth High Represented At Citizenship Conference

Plymouth High School Junior Mary Newingham, Karen Rank, James Tillotson and Sophomore Don Carson, accompanied by Mr. James Cook, business instructor, represented Plymouth at the Third Annual Michigan School Conference on Citizenship on January 6 and 7 at St. Mary's Lake Camp, Battle Creek.

The role playing presentation of the Plymouth group, which was the highlight of the conference.

In a dramatization of a small town board meeting, the problem teenagers of the rapidly growing community were discussed. The students took on the roles of local high school students visiting with the board (played by four adult delegates) to discuss this problem. Various ways in which these unruly teenagers might be directed towards better citizenship and thus attain a more desirable reputation in the eyes of the community were brought forward.

It was suggested that great potential along these lines is in the influence of the other students and their ability to interest these teenagers in social activities of a higher standard.

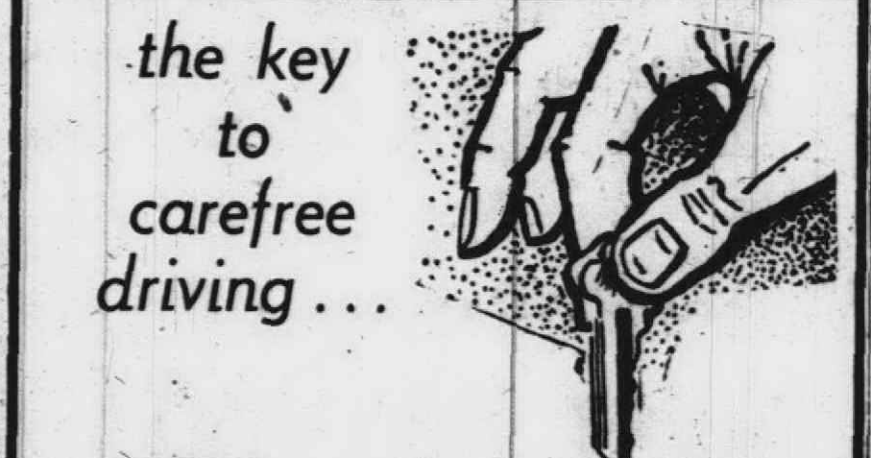

Various other problems confronting the average teenager were also considered. The audience was invited to join into the discussion and give any opinions.

Later a number of individual discussion groups were formed among the 170 delegates with the theme of "Improving Community Attitudes Toward the School Through Better Citizenship Activities" receiving further attention. Teenage smoking, drinking, and styles of dress were aired.

TIME OUT: The first semester ends this week for Plymouth High students, but before they enjoy their holiday Friday they must finish up their exams.

TAX REPORT: With Jan. 19 being the deadline for paying taxes, business at the treasurers' offices has fallen off. But there are still some who haven't paid. City Treasurer Kenneth Way says that 85 percent have paid up in the city. They can still be paid at local treasurers' offices until Feb. 29, then the books go to the County treasurer.

Obituaries

Maude S. Cooper Dies in California

The widow of a prominent Plymouth physician, Maude S. Cooper, died last week in California, it was learned here.

Mrs. Cooper moved to California five years ago after living her entire life in Plymouth. She had moved there with her son, Winston, but he passed away three years ago.

Mrs. Cooper's late husband, Dr. R.E. Cooper, was a leading Plymouth physician. He was fatally injured in an auto accident in Plymouth, Mrs. Cooper was an active member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Rotary Club, Plymouth Historical Society, Woman's Club and First United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Cooper died Thursday, Jan. 21 at 825 Ocean Ave., in Santa Monica. In her 80's, she died suddenly after being taken ill the previous day.

She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C.C. Sherwood. Preceding her in death besides her husband and son were a brother and a sister. Funeral services were held Sunday, Jan. 24 in Santa Monica. The body was cremated and the ashes will be sent here for interment.

Mrs. Olive Hood
A former resident of Plymouth, Mrs. Olive M. Hood, died Wednesday afternoon last week at her home, 2012 Weldon Blvd., in Ann Arbor.

Born April 8, 1885 in Webster Township, she was the daughter of John and Harriet Williams Stanton. On Dec. 18, 1920, she married Arthur A. Hood of Plymouth. He preceded her in death in 1936.

Mrs. Hood lived in Ann Arbor for the past 30 years. She was a member of the First Methodist Church and the Matilda L. Perrine Auxiliary of the United Spanish-War Veterans.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. William (Virginia) Kuehn, with whom she made her home; a granddaughter, Karol Kuehn, at home; a sister, Mrs. Alma Brown of Detroit; a step-daughter, Mrs. Bert Rutenbar of Plymouth and a step-grandson.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Muehlig Chapel in Ann Arbor. The Rev. L. Burlin Main officiated. Burial was in Riverside Cemetery, Plymouth.

Alta May Bartlett

Mrs. Alta May Bartlett, 80, of 170 Blunk Street, died Jan. 21 at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, Ann Arbor, following a brief illness. She had lived in this area all her life.

Funeral services were held at the Hamilton Funeral Home in Detroit Jan. 21 and interment was in White Chapel Cemetery.

Born Dec. 12, 1879, in Livonia, the late Mrs. Bartlett was the daughter of Peter and Jenny (Lewis) Gill. On June 10, 1903, she was married to the late Wymann J. Bartlett, who died in 1955.

Surviving are: a son, Kenneth G. Bartlett of Syracuse, New York; a sister, Mrs. Grace Bennett of La Jolla, Calif.; two grandchildren and one great grandchild.

She was a member of the First Methodist Church in Plymouth and was also a member of the local chapter of the O.E.S.

Christine Van Poppelen
Following a lengthy illness, Mrs. Christine Van Poppelen died Jan. 20 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Louise Brisbois, 8830 Rocker, Plymouth. She was 89.

She was a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church here.

A Rosary service was held Friday, Jan. 22, at the Schrader Funeral Home. The funeral service was conducted Jan. 23 at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church with the Rev. Father Francis Byrne officiating. Interment was at St. Patrick's Cemetery, Bay City.

Born Sept. 20, 1870, in Bay City, the late Mrs. Van Poppelen was the daughter of Henry and Elizabeth (Flood) Dolaghan. She was married to Frank Van Poppelen, who passed away in 1906.

Survivors include: a daughter, Mrs. Louise Brisbois of Plymouth; three sons, Francis J. Van Poppelen of Fort Lauderdale, Florida; William J. Van Poppelen of Capaca, Mich.; and Charles Van Poppelen of Miami, Florida; and eight grandchildren and 17 great grandchildren.

Mrs. Van Poppelen moved to this community from Highland Park, Mich., in 1926.

New Classes Start For Jr. Riflemen

A new group of prospective junior riflemen began six weeks of study and training in the Basic Rifle Marksmanship Course at the Bronson Building on Monday, Jan. 25 under the instruction of John Olen-dorf. The course covers gun handling, safety with firearms and earning Junior Qualification awards.

During the past six weeks eight youngsters received their certificates and brassards proving they are now eligible to shoot for their own enjoyment safely or to go on and earn more advanced recognition in the very popular sport of rifle marksmanship.

Instructor Olen-dorf announced that Tim Graves, Don Aughenbaugh, Lynn Harris, Dennis Newton, Tom Boyne, Jerry Haug, Ronald Spaniol and Tom Vaughn are the recipients of the N.R.A. Certificates and that a number of these youngsters have already advanced, with extra practice, toward becoming Expert and Distinguished Riflemen which are the two highest awards a Junior may earn, in their qualifications.

Family Visits

Ex-Plymouthites On Western Trip

Many former Plymouth residents were visited by Mr. and Mrs. Andy Keller and two of their three children as they toured the West earlier this month. The Kellers live at 1330 Hartough. The children making the trip were Michael and Michelle.

Their first stop was Las Vegas where they spent 10 days with Mr. Keller's sister, Mrs. Audree Wilson. They visited many nightclubs, saw the fabulous shows and met some of the famous personalities. They celebrated their ninth wedding anniversary (Christmas Day) and also brought in the New Year in Las Vegas.

From there they went to Grand Canyon, Hoover Dam and Death Valley. In the San Fernando Valley they were guests for five days of the Warren Vick family, former neighbors. They also visited the Bill Normans, also past neighbors, and the Edward Snodders and the Douglas McIntyres, past Plymouth residents.

Two days were spent at Disneyland and visiting Knott's Berry Farm, Ghost Town and Marineland. In the mountains at Corriganville they saw where many western movies are made.

They stayed five days in Long Beach, waded in the Pacific and went beachcombing. At Hormosa Beach they saw Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson, formerly of Plymouth.

A half day was spent shopping and sight-seeing at Tijuana, Mexico. In Los Angeles they toured Chinatown. Enroute home they played in the sand dunes of White Sands, N.M. They arrived home Jan. 14.

HOPEFUL SIGN: While the winter seems to be getting more and more wintry, Mrs. Doris Wick, 745 Karamada, has reported a sign of spring. She picked a bouquet of pussywillows that were blooming in her back yard. Last week we reported the first sighting of a robin.

THE HONOR of selling the 50,000 Piper airplane went to Alan Finney of Plymouth recently. He is owner of Finney Aviation Co., located at Mettetal Airport. Finney, a Piper dealer, sold the plane to Merrill Ericson, president of the Firwood Manufacturing Co. The ceremony took place at the Piper plant in Lock Haven, Pa.

From left are W. Kilgore, sales manager for Firwood; J. W. Miller, Piper general sales manager; Ericson, and Finney. The twin engine Piper Apache will be used for business transportation by the Dearborn firm. Piper has sold more civilian aircraft than any other manufacturer in the world.

BY GEORGE SPELVIN

Last week's Plymouth Theater Guild meeting provided plenty of excitement for all members that attended. Joe French, who holds a Ph.D. from Cambridge, England, gave a demonstration on the proper application of stage make-up. Bob Lucchetti served as French's model. Ken interest was displayed throughout the demonstration and valuable information for all members was obtained. French's comments on stage lighting during the early part of the talk made sense. It was his claim that there is little or no need for footlights on our stages today. Footlights are a hold-over from the days of yore. Too many school stages being constructed today still insist on out-moded footlights and banks of border lights. Both of these ancient means of illumination are anachronistic and should be eliminated. Glad to hear French make this point. Let's hope that, if and when our Plymouth Auditorium becomes a reality, we will not suffer the indignity of fossilized footlights.

Speaking of auditoriums reminds old George that the Livonia Public schools have broken ground for their auditorium addition to the Bentley High School. The 600-seat auditorium, music rooms (four in number) and a suite of administrative offices cost approximately $300,000. Come next fall the folks over Livonia-way will be enjoying plays, concerts and other school activities in the comfort of a modern auditorium.

While we are talking about Livonia, I'd like to put in a "plug" for an Adult Education course that Director John Anderson has cooked up. John calls this unusual course "Armchair Traveling." By means of some top travel motion pictures in color you can tour the Far West, Alaska, Africa, Europe and even Russia. Cost for a series of six programs is a mere one dollar bill. That's getting real mileage for your money. You can sign up for the course by giving Mr. Anderson a call at his office (GA 2-1200). This vicarious travel course begins the second week in February. If you like to travel, plan now to drift off via colorid wings every Thursday night at the Livonia Bentley High School.

Looking at the theatrical calendar for the coming week it's obvious that the big event of the season will occur at the Cass Theater. Ken Swartz, managing director of the Cass, has persuaded the New York producer, Cheryl Crawford, to stop off in Detroit with the New York production of Tennessee Williams' "Sweet Bird of Youth." The play has just finished a run of some 383 performances.

"Sweet Bird of Youth" will open on Tuesday, Feb. 2 and will play for two weeks at the Cass Theater. The entire New York cast is coming here for the Detroit engagement. It's not often that we get the original cast. Here is your opportunity to see a Broadway play that gained only the highest praise from all of the N. Y. critics.

"The Furber Carnival" has moved on to Cleveland, but I still have happy memories of the show. As I predicted earlier, this show will achieve a long run on Broadway. In fact, in 1962 we will probably be seeing it again in a return engagement.

"West Side Story" is in the process of returning to New York for another long run. When they took the show on the road after a two year run, the box office was still taking in $60,000 per week.

The producers figure the show can run for at least another year.

Watch for "Ben Hur" to open at the United Artists early in February. "Ben Hur" has already shown in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles. In the past three months, "Ben-Hur" has made three million dollars already. Of course, the picture cost $16 million to make.

"The Ten Commandments" is pushing close to the all-time champion "Gone With the Wind" for top spot in the money-making category. "Ten Commandments" has grossed $30 million so far. They expect Cecil B. DeMille's masterpiece to pass "Gone With the Wind" by next year.

The sudden rash of Biblical films finds many companies turning out "duds." Even though the pictures are genuine bombs, people still flock to them because of their religious titles and the liturgical atmosphere. By way of warning, here are two pictures that will keep people away from the theater in droves if they continue to make them so poorly: "Solomon and Sheba" and "Goliath and the Barbarians." But be sure to put "Ben-Hur" on your preferred list.

Rebekah News

The 1960 officers of the local Rebekahs were installed at a ceremony last Friday evening. They were: Mable Hunter, NG; Ethel Bulson, VG; Louise Granger, R. Sec.; Hazel Norgrove, F. Sec.; Minnie Ray, Treas.; Edna Gray, Cond.; Evelyn Stanible, Warden; Mae Prieskorn, I.G.; Caryl Westfall, O.G.;

Irene Broegman, chaplain; Mildred Collins, musician; Roma Krumm, RSN; Betty McCoy, LSN; Thelma Zander, RSVP; Marj Westfall, LSVG; and Eileen Krumm, PNG.

This coming Friday evening the Rebekahs will conduct a family potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Those who attend are asked to bring their own table service and a dish to pass. Coffee will be served.

Sister Ray's husband, Irving, is on the sick list and we all wish for him a speedy recovery.

Two to Speak At Junior High PTSA Meeting

The Plymouth Junior High PTSA will meet Monday, Feb. 1, at 7:45 p.m. in the multi-purpose room to hear Sanford Burr, Southfield High Director of Guidance, speak about the role of high schools in preparing youngsters for college or careers.

Burr is also college advisor at Southfield High.

A second speaker during the evening's program will be Robert Smith, assistant principal in charge of guidance and counseling at Plymouth High. He, too, will discuss the role of schools in preparing students for later life.

Special invitations have been extended to all parents of eighth and ninth grade students. The discussion is aimed at these adults, who are presently helping their children plan for a high school program of study.

Smith will explain how high school counseling staffs aid parents and students alike in planning the youngsters' high school curriculum. Burr will speak on what colleges expect of high school students and how guidance and counseling helps attain this goal.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

MOM'S NEWS

The past presidents of Zone Two of the Moms of America met at the Veterans' Community Center on Wednesday, Jan. 20, for a potluck luncheon and business meeting. Guests came from Dearborn, Allen Park, Wayne, Ann Arbor and Plymouth.

Plymouth unit 18 met at noon, Jan. 25 and made cancer pads.

Mrs. Cushman and her committee will go to the Veterans' Administration Hospital in Ann Arbor Feb. 4 to hold a games party for the veterans. The next business meeting will be Monday, Feb. 8 at 8 p.m.

The Mail Attitude

By PAUL CHANDLER

There is a story going around that the Editor of this newspaper has insufficient respect for Supervisor Roy Lindsay of Plymouth Township and that the two individuals are behaving like cats and dogs.

That story just is not true. The Editor of this newspaper has great respect for Roy Lindsay. As a shrewd politician using the small-town approach to put over big plans, I've never known an equal.

And further, he gets things done. With darn little to work with, he's made progress in Plymouth Township in a host of directions and there aren't many who could have done more.

The Supervisor of Plymouth Township and the Editor of this newspaper have one lone, single quarrel. He, for reasons that have much to do with personal spite and vanity, wants to create his own political empire; when, at the very moment, every fact and every gram of common sense says the entire Plymouth community — City and Township — should be welded as one solid entity, forming up together to build a better place for its people to live.

Among other things, that approach over the long run would cost the people less in taxes. Lindsay doesn't buy the idea.

But today we aren't set out to quarrel, but to shed more light on Supervisor Lindsay's political skill.

His influence on downtown politics (and by that we mean the big, sharp Detroit world where a small town guy hardly should show up) has been reflected during the past fortnight as rarely before.

Possibly readers will remember words written here long ago urging that the City of Detroit, which sells water to many suburban communities, should have suburban representation on its Water Board. Until a week ago, the Board was composed solely of Detroiters, and the out-county customer had a scant chance to get his views across.

Detroit recently accepted this idea, and there came before Wayne County politicians the duty of electing an "out-county man" to sit with the City of Detroit Water Board as an "informal member" who would represent the interests of those outside Detroit.

And here, good citizens, is a little sample of Roy Lindsay.

The original cry for "representation on the Detroit Water Board" came from communities (Redford Township was one) where the officials believed water rate increases had been too large, unreasonable, etc. They wanted a chance to sit in on the deliberations which affected their own water bills.

And who was one of the leading candidates for the new post? Roy Lindsay of Plymouth Township, who hasn't yet bought a drop of water from the City of Detroit system, and possibly won't get any for another five years, and has no grievances whatever—yet.

Lindsay didn't quite win the election, but the maneuver renewed our respect again for his political wits.

There's a more current point. Some readers will recall words written here a few weeks ago relative to Supervisor Lindsay's determination to obtain City of Detroit water next summer, via Livonia, tapping in at Schoolcraft and Eckles Road.

He desperately wants this water from the east, though all-the-while other water is a few feet away, in the City of Plymouth. The latter water Lindsay spurns, preferring instead to spend money on his own lines and do it his own way.

Because Lindsay had things greased on the County level, and with the City of Detroit, it was at one time accepted as a foregone conclusion that this water automatically would be granted him by the City of Livonia.

One other background note, and then dialogue. Livonia has its politics, too, and feels a sense of gratitude to the City of Detroit because the latter is rushing in a huge new source of water supply to Livonia this summer, about four years ahead of old timetables.

Mayor William Brashear feels compelled to show his gratitude for this new water. Detroit wants Lindsay to get water. So the Livonia Mayor is doing his best to knock through the proposal, too.

But there's been a snag. The Livonia Council, maverick in many ways, isn't responding to either logic or threats from their Mayor's office. It has come up stubborn. Those mules just won't say "yes" to giving water to Lindsay.

In fact, it has been told that the legal contracts make it mandatory that they shoot water on to Plymouth Township. Still they say "No."

Lindsay didn't figure on this. As one chief executive to another (Lindsay to Brashear) the assumption was that such details could be "handled." Maybe they will — probably, in fact — but for the moment, there's irritating delay.

It's gone so far, believe it or not, that the awesome name of Mayor Miriani of Detroit entered a Livonia meeting Wednesday night, virtually threatening Livonia's council with extermination and Livonia people with drought if they didn't meet Lindsay's request.

Miriani's name was brought to the floor by Austin Grant, a councilman who carries Mayor Brashear's messages to the Council.

You'll be fascinated by the actual play-by-play in the Livonia Council, as it considered the power-packed request from Lindsay that Plymouth Township be given water from Livonia ... or else.

Councilman Grant (Mayor Brashear's spokesman, and hence, Lindsay's advocate): "We have been ordered by Wayne County to extend that water to Plymouth Township. According to contract that leaves us in position to do no nought else."

(Councilman Grant, Lindsay's advocate, was fighting almost a lone battle. Every other Livonia councilman in the room who spoke was against him Wednesday night.)

Councilman Salvadore: "You say the County made a request? I say ignore these letters completely. We voted against this before. We had certain objections when we denied it before. They didn't even have the courtesy to ask us what our objections were. Now they're TELLING us it's in 'our best interests'."

Grant: "I consider Detroit remiss in not letting us know, but consider, gentlemen, this if you will — they have stepped up their entire water program for Livonia by five years ... and I talked ... I just happened to bump into him ... I talked to Mayor Miriani of Detroit and Miriani is unhappy with our position regarding Roy ... er, Roy Lindsay ... all things have to knit together when we're in a situation like this."

Salvadore: "Now we hear this. All the time a year ago when we made the contracts for the new service, down Farmington Rd., to give us water this summer, never a mention was made of any obligations to Plymouth Township. Now, all of a sudden ..."

Grant: "Factually, that may be true. I didn't feel that in Mayor Miriani's comments. His hair bristled. He said, 'I pulled a pretty big favor for you boys out there.'"

Grant: "This thing happened at an off moment and it wasn't an official comment. But I gathered Miriani's back hairs went up."

Sasser: "We've been told so many things by Detroit, about when and where water was to arrive, I don't know what to believe."

Salvadore: "Let their hairs go up a little bit, Austin (Grant). Just for once let's take a stand for the people of THIS community — Livonia, where last summer we had dry taps and water shortage."

Grant: "That stand would be to not rile the Detroit Water Board. That's the source from which our supply comes."

Councilman McCann: "Yes, but every time we have an argument, we never seem able to get a commitment from Detroit as to what will take place, what has taken place."

Grant: "I presume they're as capable of side-stepping some issues as we are."

McCann: "Yes, but this time, we're putting Livonia out on a limb. If we're going to have next summer a water catastrophe such as we had this summer, than we have no excuse to give Livonia citizens."

Councilman Sasser: "If you will recall, the night Mr. Lindsay was here, he was very evasive about what the water supply was to be used for. First of all, it was to be used for auxiliary service; secondly, he would use it all the time and turn on his own pumps if the water got low. I don't know yet what he wants the water for."

Grant: "I agree with your observation. Mr. Lindsay would not let himself get on a spot. He can't politically. He was evasive. What agreements he has with Miriani, I don't know. All I know is Miriani wants that water line extended as far as it will go."

It went on longer, but the result is about what you would suspect. The Livonia Council said, "No, and go ahead and sue us, as you will."

But when they say the Editor of this paper doesn't have respect for Supervisor Roy Lindsay, the rural supervisor from Plymouth Township who now "and then drops into the downtown jungles ... well, they just don't know how much we respect certain things.

Plymouth Swimmers Stretch Unbeaten String

Cagers Lose 3rd, 66-53

Belleville's Tigers pounced on Plymouth with a 21 point first quarter and a 19 point third quarter last Friday and rocked Plymouth with its third cage loss of the season, 66-53.

Plymouth matched Belleville point for point in the high scoring first period. In fact Plymouth led by one point at the end of the first session 22-21 with Randy Egloff, Jim Ralston and Jim Thompson leveling in with a barrage of accurate salvos.

Plymouth cooled off in the second period, scoring only six points. Belleville collected eleven points and left the floor at half-time with a 32-28 lead.

In the third period Belleville's Jerry Linderman zeroed in again as the Tigers totaled 19 points. Plymouth could get only seven, and at the beginning of the fourth quarter, it was Belleville 51, Plymouth 35.

Linderman, a lanky six-foot-four lad, was high for the evening with 32 points on 13 field goals and six free throws. It was the second time this season he scored 32 points.

Plymouth warmed up again in the final period and outscored Belleville 18-15. Randy Egloff was the scoring leader for Plymouth with 17 points on five field goals and seven free throws.

Plymouth's season total is now four wins and three losses overall and two wins and three losses in Suburban Six competition.

Friday the second round of league competition begins with Bentley High School at Plymouth. Bentley is undefeated.

Scoring Summary
Plymouth (53)
Egloff 5 7 17
Thompson 6 0 12

Badminton Tourney Here Jan. 30, 31

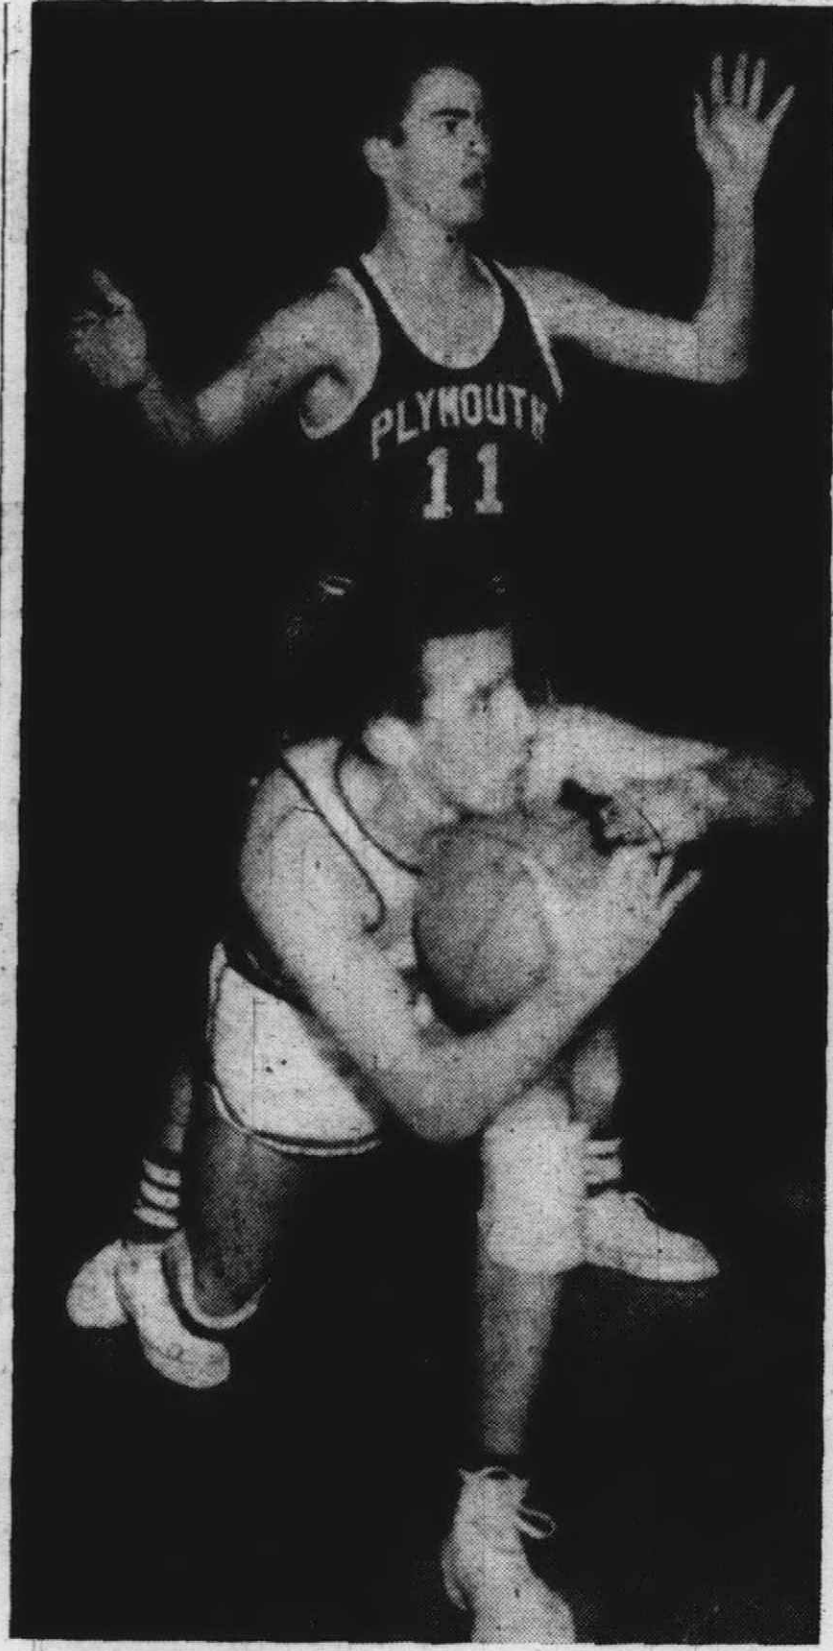

The Michigan State closed badminton tournament, sponsored by the Plymouth Recreation Department and the Plymouth Badminton Club, will be held at the Plymouth Junior High Gymnasium Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 30 and 31.

A state-wide entry list will include leading players such as National Veteran Ladies Doubles champions Mary Connor and Mildred Surwattus, plus many other high-ranking Mid-West players.

Play will begin at 9:30 Saturday morning and will continue until 9:30 p.m. Semifinals will start at noon Sunday and the finals will get underway at 2 p.m.

Admission is free. Entries must be filed by Thursday, Jan. 28. For further information telephone Bill Saxton at GL 3-6250 or GL 3-3849.

Badminton, rated by many enthusiasts as a faster game than tennis, requires exceptionally speedy court movement and a varied offense.

TIGER TIMEOUT is called late in the Belleville game as Plymouth's Dave Palmer (11) has Belleville player trapped at his own end of the court.

Tigers, Dearborn 7th, 8th To Fall

Like clockwork, Plymouth's 1960 swimming team ticked off two victories last week, stopping Belleville 69-27 and Dearborn 65-31.

When the week's activity was over, Plymouth's victory hand was on eight and the defeat hand still on zero. The Rocks will travel to Bentley tomorrow for the first meet of the second round of Suburban Six competition.

A pool record set last Thursday against Belleville by a Rock 200 yard Medley Relay team of Al Davies, Don Williams, Dick Gretzinger and Jim Carney lasted only until the Dearborn meet Saturday night. That record of 1:51.5 was dropped to 1:51.0 by Davies, Williams, Beau Toll and Ron Daley.

In the Dearborn meet, Gretzinger set another pool record in the 200 yard individual medley, swimming the event in 2:22.3.

Plymouth took every first but two in the Dearborn meet but missed only one in the Belleville encounter.

In the Belleville meet firsts were won by: Beau Toll, 100 yard butterfly; Bob Daley, 200 yard freestyle; Andy Whitening, 100 yard breaststroke; Art Helm, 100 yard freestyle; Nick Herrick, diving; Ron Daley, 200 yard individual medley; the 200 yard medley relay team mentioned above and the 200 yard freestyle team composed of Warren Smith, Wynn Schrader, Dave Hubbs and Bill Rossow.

In the Dearborn battle Saturday firsts were recorded by: Dick Gretzinger, 100 yard butterfly; Ron Daley, 200 yard freestyle; Dick Michaels, 100 yard backstroke; Jim Carney, 100 yard freestyle; Mark Schultheiss, diving; Dick Gretzinger, 200 yard individual medley, the record setting 200 yard medley relay team again and the 200 yard freestyle team of Herrick, Balfour, Smith and Helm.

In the Dearborn meet seconds were collected by Warren Smith, Beau Toll and Bob Daley, while thirds were won by Jim Carney, Andy Whitening and Art Helm.

Jim Carney, Balfour, Earl Wright, Scott Soth and Barry Corwin grabbed seconds in the Belleville meet, while Jim Izett, Wynn Schraeder, Val Losse and Mark Schultheiss placed third.

Of the remaining meets Trenton looks tough and John McFall, Plymouth coach, will not say anything at this point about an unbeaten dual meet season, saying only, "We've a long way to go."

Time will tell us something; maybe that the 1960 Rock swimming team is the best yet.

LINDERMAN LEAP — Jerry Linderman (70), Belleville's six foot four star, goes up to block shot by Plymouth's Don Argo (13). Linderman didn't have to do much blocking as he scored 32 points himself.

Heides and Optimists Unbeaten, Yellow Jackets In First Place

The Yellow Jackets moved into first place alone last week by handing the Indians their first defeat of the season 30-12. In the 15-and-Under Recreation competition, the Yellow Jackets were paced to their third win without defeat by Denny Hunt who scored 15 points.

Thirteen-year-old Dick Egloff was second high with eleven points.

The Wolverines won their first game with a 24-21 victory over the Blackhaws. Dave Agnew of the Blackhaws led both teams with 12 points.

In 18-and-Under activity the stage was set for a showdown battle between the Plymouth Optimists and Heide's Thursday. Both teams are unbeaten in three games.

Heide's beat VFW 35-15 last week as Alan DePorter was held to 10 points. John Taylor and Bill Rushe supported him with 10 and 9 points respectively. Dennis Robertson had six points for the losers.

The Optimists won their third game 52-21 against Plymouth Raiders. Bill Hall had 10 points for the winners and was aided by Dave Green (12), Ron Sawyer (10) and Jay Selle (10). Ray Liimakka paced the Raiders with 12 points.

The Redbirds won their second game against one loss with a 39-30 victory over the Speed Demons. Wynn led the winners with 17 points, while Dean Griffith had nine for the losers. Larry Grady of the Demons had eight.

Bantam Hockey Team Wins One

The Plymouth Rockets, VFW-sponsored bantam hockey league team, split in two outings last weekend as the Wayne Bears dumped the Rockets, 4-2, Saturday, and then the locals bombed Nankin FFW, 11-2, Sunday.

Against Wayne, the Rockets' scoring was handled by Jim McKindles and Skip Otwell, each with one goal. Randy Sharland exploded with a five-goal burst to lead the Rockets to their decision over Nankin the next day. McKindles and Otwell each contributed two more and Don Stamper and Bob Beck scored one apiece.

The Rockets' season record to date is one win, one tie and two defeats. Next on the agenda is the Wayne entry, Saturday, Feb. 6. The game will be played at the Nankin Township hockey rink.

Plymouth Students Being Featured In PHS Band's First Talent Show

The first annual Plymouth High School Band Talent Show designed to give local youngsters an opportunity to display their talent will be staged Tuesday night, Feb. 9 in the High School gymnasium.

Purpose of the talent show is two-fold:

1. To establish an annual event that will offer boys and girls of the community an opportunity to display their various talents to a local audience.
2. Money derived from the event will help underwrite outside activities of the Senior High band. Their project this year is to send the entire band to the National Music Camp for one week this coming summer for an interlochen sponsored "post-camp band."

Curtain time for the talent show is 8 p.m. Tickets may be purchased in advance from any senior band member, or at the door for 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students (grades 1 through 12). Any boy or girl now enrolled in a Plymouth school is eligible to enter. Tryouts will be in the form of two talent shows which will be held in conjunction with the Band Parents' Association Carnival on Saturday, Jan. 30.

The first five winners in each of the two shows will be the 10 finalists in the Feb. 9 show. All interested boys and girls should contact either Fred Nelson or James Griffith on or before Wednesday, Jan. 27 for additional details. Also highlighting the evening will be performances by the Senior High band and the newly-formed dance band.

Outstanding Newburg Scouts Go On Winter Sports Campout

By Mrs. Emil LaPointe GL 3-3797

The folks of the St. Michael's Catholic Church can be very proud of the fine Boy Scout Troop 271 which represents their parish, for in their every undertaking they live up to the code of ethics set forth in the Scout law and oath.

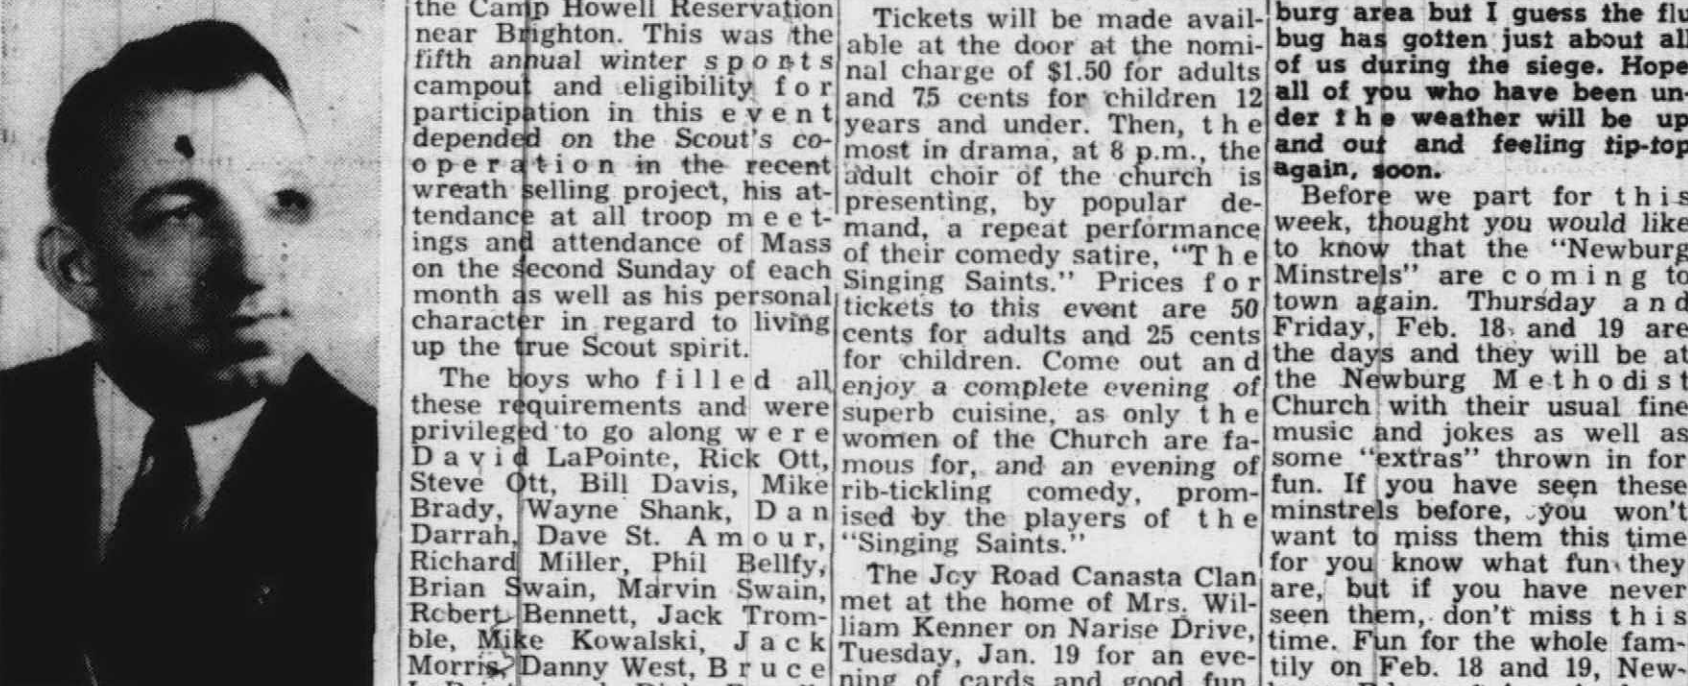

On the weekend of Jan. 15, eight adults and nineteen boys spent the three days camping at Spruce Lodge at the Camp Howell Reservation near Brighton. This was the fifth annual winter sports campout and eligibility for participation in this event depended on the Scout's cooperation in the recent wreath selling project, his attendance at all troop meetings and attendance of Mass on the second Sunday of each month as well as his personal character in regard to living up to the Scout spirit.

The boys who filled all these requirements and were privileged to go along were: David LaPointe, Rick Ott, Steve Ott, Bill Davis, Mike Brady, Wayne Shank, Dan Darrah, Dave St. Amour, Richard Miller, Phil Bellfy, Brian Swain, Marvin Swain, Robert Bennett, Jack Tromble, Mike Kowalski, Jack Morris, Danny West, Bruce LaPointe and Dick Powell. Leaders who went along for the K.B. duties, as this was a fun campout for the boys, and also to keep order, were Messrs Swain, Davis, Rea, Powell, St. Amour, Darrah, LaPointe and Ott.

This same troop is planning their court of honor for Wednesday, Feb. 24, at which time many boys will be receiving advancements of many kinds, with their parents present for the ceremony. Also beginning in February, this troop will change their meeting night from Monday to Wednesday night in cooperation with a conflicting meeting which is now going on at the school base of Banking.

Don't forget this Saturday.

Plymouth Chapter Order of Eastern Star will hold its next regular meeting Tuesday, Feb. 2, at 7:30 p.m.

A social card party will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Failing, who reside at 644 Sheldon Road, Saturday, Feb. 13.

On our sick list for this week is Florence Parrott, who is at her home, Florida Rathburn has been released from St. Joseph Hospital and is now at the home of her daughter in Birmingham.

Those who attended the East-West night potluck dinner, in which Mrs. Donna Travis was chairman, report of it being very delicious, and the evening that followed an enjoyable one.

All members are invited to attend this regular meeting and to remain for the social hour and refreshments which follow.

United States production of paper went up 70 per cent between 1945 and 1955.

Transfer of Training School

1961 has been set by the State Commission to make the transfer. The State is preparing to open its own Administration and Hospital Building located at Sheldon and Five Mile Rds. It cost $1,750,000 and is next door to the Training School.

Probate Judge Nathan J. Kaufman, a member of the Training School Administrative Board, opposed the transfer. "The situation is no different than it was in 1922 when the State wasn't taking care of all mentally retarded children and the County was forced to build its own facility," he said.

He added that there is no waiting list for admittance to the Training School now. State facilities have lengthy waiting lists, he added. "I'm afraid if we transfer control the state will fill the school with children from other counties and Wayne County children will be put on a waiting list."

Witkowski said this week that he intends to set up a committee to study phases of procedures for joining of the State and County facilities.

Mr. Hardiman came to Plymouth in 1951 from Sparta. Memorial services were held Sunday afternoon at St. John's Episcopal Church with the Rev. David T. Davies officiating. Funeral services were Monday at 1 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral Home.

Grower with Patience

keeps the humidity at 60 per cent. When it falls below that, fine sprays of water (fogging sprays) are automatically turned on near the floor.

Another thermostat keeps the heat in the 60's and there are two hot water heating units in the basement of the home just in case one of them breaks down.

There is also a thermostat that rings an alarm in the house should the temperature drop below 55. Just one exposure to cold would mean disaster.

Kermit now has 200 plants growing in his greenhouse. They range from the full-blooming size down to plants that have just two tiny leaves showing—but which are over a year old.

Once an orchid blooms at the end of seven years, it will keep blooming every seven months or so. Sometimes, though, a plant will never bloom. This can be quite a disappointment after waiting seven years.

Orchids don't grow in soil. Instead, they are planted in the bark of Douglas fir. Growers must be careful not to overwater. Once a week is usually enough.

Because it is so difficult to get a plant to cross-breed, most growers buy their plants from commercial sources. The seeds, so fine that they are like dust, come in flasks. One flask, costing an average of $25, can start 100 plants.

Since one grower doesn't care about having just one variety, they trade plants just like stamp collectors trade their stamps. The sale price of a blooming orchid could easily be $60 or $75.

Another plant, Verne Hitt, 46855 Phoenix Rd., is now getting into the hobby. What does a grower do with his orchids after they bloom? "I just sit back and enjoy them," Kermit declared. But he actually does a little more than that. He gives many of the flowers away to friends. He also participates in Michigan Orchid Society displays such as the one going on at the City Bank in Detroit. Entire plants are displayed under special care.

What about Mrs. Smith? Lots of husbands pay out considerable sums for orchid corsages. One would imagine that Mrs. Smith would be wearing them for all occasions.

But she doesn't. "She doesn't care much about wearing them," Kermit observed. But then, one might assume that the diamond mine owner doesn't like to wear diamonds all the time either.

Board to Enlarge Crowded Schools

There was also some discussion of building an additional classroom at Allen or Bird Schools. Truesdell School, located on Haggerty Rd. in Canton Township, is overcrowded and is now sending its first graders to Allen.

Through a reshuffling of district boundaries, the addition at Smith could possibly eliminate overcrowding in other schools.

Cost of the Smith addition would run as high as $125,000, according to preliminary estimates.

An addition at Starkweather School was also given high priority. Starkweather, the system's oldest full-sized elementary building, has been lacking an adequate multipurpose room, a facility enjoyed by the other newer schools.

The Board wants to construct a new multipurpose room on the south side of the school and turn the present small multipurpose room into a kindergarten. Several other room improvements are the move last November. JA has been in Plymouth seven years.

In addition to the 150 teenagers active in the local program, there are 24 adult advisors, from the various sponsoring businesses and industries, who volunteer their time.

Chief coordinator for the Plymouth JA center is Warren D. Freshwater, of Chrysler Corporation's missile division. Freshwater, who lives in Redford, was enthusiastic about the coming Open House here.

"This not only gives our Junior Achievers a chance to display their activities," he said, "but it also is a great sales promotion, too."

Among the local Junior Achievers who enjoy present prominence is Ardith Baertrill, an eleventh-grader at Bentley High. Ardith, in her first year of JA, was named Miss JA of the Plymouth Business Center recently and will compete with 15 other Miss JA's shortly for the title of Miss JA of Southeastern Michigan.

The winner will be crowned at the Sno-Ball dance. The eight local JA firms, their teen-age presidents and the sponsoring industry or business are:

- Jacco, Ed Barnes, Chevrolet Spring and Bumper; Jacco, Dick Wilson, Associated Spring Corp.; J. A. Unlimited, Dick Wirth, Chrysler Corp.; Ben-Ply, Mary Ellen Dart, Michigan Bell; Jacconco, Sandy Palmer, Evans Products; Crepenco, Al Paas, Consumers Power; Burrell Corp., Dee Wernette, Burrell Corp.; Domainco, Bonnie Horn, Western Electric.

POINSETTIA'S FUTURE

Dear "Miss Louisa:" What do you do with a potted Christmas poinsettia after it stops blooming? Will it bloom again next year? — Mrs. H. S. T., Bryan, Texas.

Dear Mrs. H. S. T.: To carry your poinsettia plant over so that it will bloom again, let it dry up in January, keeping it in a cool place. In April repot it and cut it back leaving only six inches on each branch. Start it growing again by applying water to the soil. These directions came with a plant that I received but I have not tried them. If you are successful, please let me hear from you.

DECORATING A NEW HOME

Dear "Miss Louisa:" We have bought a new home and the decorating presents a problem. The dining room is 11 by 12 feet painted a soft gray blue. In this small room there is a picture window and a window on each side of it. A white Venetian blind covers this area. The doors and window frames are varnished wood finish. There is a long draw drapery rod over the windows but we cannot afford draperies for these windows. Please help me.—Mrs. H. K. T., Homestead, Fla.

Dear Mrs. H. K. T.: Paint the doors and window frames to match the walls. Take down the draw drapery rod and store carefully for future use. Install curtain rods at each of the side windows. Then get a pair of draperies the color of the walls to cover each of these windows. Have them long enough to reach the floor and this will make your room look larger. Be sure that the draperies for these windows are full and pleated. The picture window will not be covered but the Venetian blind will afford privacy.

ANOTHER USE

Dear "Miss Louisa:" What do you do with old Christmas cards? They are so pretty that I hate to destroy them. — Mrs. C. S. Y., Lexington, Ky.

Dear Miss C. S. Y.: There are many things to do with old Christmas cards. I save mine to use as Christmas tags on next year's packages. I cut out parts of the card, punch a hole and tie them on as labels. I also cover my Christmas gift boxes with gold or silver paper and paste the prettiest cards on top. Some people cut them into bright colored pieces, paste them to tin wastebaskets and match boxes and then shellac this gay patchwork of color. They are attractive. But, if you do not want to use them yourself, send the cards to hospitals or mental clinics where the patients use them. You might clear this through your local Red Cross or through some church.

RAINY DAY AMUSEMENTS

Dear "Miss Louisa:" What did you do with children in bad rainy winter weather? I think this is the time of the year when mothers reach "wit's end corner." — Mrs. L. T. G., Fort Atkinson, Wisc.

Dear Mrs. L. T. G.: Your pioneer ancestors, shut up in small cabins miles from neighbors had a nervous disorder called "Cabin Fever." I think winter with a house full of active children underfoot gives the modern mother the same complaint. It is well to keep them busy — puzzles to work, games to play, and chores to do are good for idle hands. Children can polish silver and brass, they can be taught to cook, they can be taught to sew and knit (boys as well as girls can knit). Winter is a fine time to read aloud to children.

It is so much more important to do things with children rather than for them. These are the times they look back on and remember. As a reward for helping you finish your work, let them make fudge, or have a game of cards with them, and most of all, thank your stars for the magic of TV. How the pioneer mother would envy you this!

CAKES THAT STICK

Dear "Miss Louisa:" What is wrong when cakes suddenly start sticking to the pan and coming out in hunks? How should the pans be prepared? The texture of the cakes is very good, but they refuse to come out in one piece. Does the use of eggs have anything to do with it? I sometimes put only yolks in the batter and save the whites for the icing. — L. M., Charlottesville, Va.

Dear L. M.: I always butter my pans with real butter, then dust them with flour. More important still, when I take the cake out of the oven, I place the pan on a cake rack and let it cool for ten or fifteen minutes (longer for a large loaf cake) before I turn it out. This waiting to remove a cake from the pan helps it to come out whole but too much butter could make it crumble.

JUNIOR READER

Dear "Miss Louisa:" My mother says that when she was a little girl that she was told that to eat snow would give you a sore throat. Is this true? — Janice, age 10.

Dear Janice: I think that the sore throat came then, as it does now, from playing too long in the snow and getting wet and cold. I would not eat dirty snow, but as soon as it stops snowing if you will bring in a bowl of clean, white snow and pour some milk, which has been sweetened with sugar and has a little vanilla in it to season it, it will make a delicious snow ice cream. I don't think it will give you a sore throat, but too much may give you a stomach ache.

Engagements

Joyce Gotts

Diane Bondie

THE ENGAGEMENT of Joyce Irene Gotts to David K. Gyde was revealed last week. Miss Gotts is the daughter of Mrs. Gladys Gotts, 1105 N. Ridge Rd., Plymouth, and the late Mr. Percy C. Gotts. David is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Gyde, 48404 Joy Rd. Both are Plymouth High School graduates. No wedding date has been set.

ANNOUNCEMENT is made of the engagement of Miss Diane Bondie, daughter of Mrs. Eileen Bondie, 566 Maple Ave., and of Roy Bondie, of Plymouth, to William Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Brown, 15811 Maxwell Dr. Both young people will graduate from Plymouth High School this June. No date has been set for the wedding.

Linda Lee Strobe

MR. AND MRS. VERN Strobe of Plymouth recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Linda Lee Strobe, to C. Ray Richardson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Richardson of Wayne. A June wedding is being planned.

Judith Anderson

Mr. and Mrs. Walton Richwine, of Elmhurst, Ill., and formerly of Plymouth, announced the engagement of their daughter, Judith, to Christopher C. Young, son of Mrs. Leroy Stierle of Saline, Mich. Miss Richwine is a recent graduate of the Mercy School of Nursing in Ann Arbor. A Feb. 27 wedding is planned.

Red Cross Looking For Local Volunteers

"Good Things Happen When You Serve" is the theme for recruitment of volunteers for the American Red Cross that will take place between Feb. 1 and 15 in the metropolitan area. Co-chairmen for recruitment in Plymouth are Mrs. Mowry Arnold, 963 Roosevelt, and Mrs. H.R. Penhale, 985 Roosevelt. Mrs. Arnold can be phoned at GL 3-6518 and Mrs. Penhale at GL 3-3359. Appointments for prospective volunteers to talk with a volunteer service chairman can also be made by calling the Red Cross Northwest Region office at GA 4-0222. This office is at GA 4-0220. This Plymouth Rd., Livonia. Stressing the dependence on volunteers actually helps render the services and there-stretches financial contributions to Red Cross through the United Foundation and gifts directly to local chapters. A committee of representatives from these chapters has planned the first joint project. Mrs. John F. Hering, and Mrs. Richard H. Hall, Jr., chairman and vice chairman of volunteers, represent the Detroit chapter, which serves all of Wayne County. "Red Cross services are tailored to fit special circumstances in local communities, but all of them carry out the obligations the organization was assigned in a Congressional Charter issued in 1905: to carry out the stipulations of the Geneva Convention (assuring humane care of prisoners of war); to serve the men on military duty, veterans and their dependents; to provide care and relief for victims of disaster," Mrs. Hering said. "In Wayne County each town (with the exception of the Grosse Pointes), has a chairman of Red Cross and chairman of various service committees. Our activities reach across town geographical lines just as they do chapter and county lines to provide the best service to those who need it. Last year 8,755 Wayne County Red Cross volunteers gave more than 255,883 hours service. "Those statistics are staggering... so we like better to think of the individual person whom we have helped... like the six-year-old boy for whom his neighbors gave 15 pints of blood through their Red Cross community blood group account. It took more than 420 volunteers giving more than 67,000 hours to make the blood program 'click' in our chapter last year... each of them at least indirectly important to this youngster's recovery. "Red Cross volunteers see good things happen as they serve, good things for the person needing the service and for themselves as they reap the satisfaction of having rendered the service. "We need volunteers in each community to carry on chapter services every day... and to be available in case of widespread emergency. People with special skills will be placed where their experience is especially helpful, and other volunteers will be given whatever training is necessary for them to perform the duties of the Service they choose."

Plymouth Historical Society Pays Tribute to Late Teacher

By Mrs. Jennie Mills
Many former pupils of the late Anna Smith, now members of the Plymouth Historical Society, were present at the regular meeting on Jan. 14 to pay tribute to the well-loved Plymouth teacher and friend.

Miss Lovernie Sly, herself a former student of Miss Smith, was program chairman. Many and varied were the recollections of Miss Smith and her unique methods of instruction and punishment.

Miss Smith's teaching career in Plymouth began in 1875 and continued for approximately sixty years. The last five were in the capacity of children's librarian.

Several members recalled that three generations of their families had been taught by Miss Smith, whose love for and interest in children went far beyond normal teaching duties. She was a great lover of nature and many of her former pupils recalled trips made with her to identify the first spring flowers. She also taught them to recognize the different species of birds. All of the speakers stressed Miss Smith's deep Christian faith illustrated by the hymn sung each morning in her classroom.

From California came a tribute by Mrs. Maude Cooper, a former resident of Plymouth, who wrote that no one ever saw Miss Smith go to school alone, for by the time the door was reached, she was surrounded by a happy group of her pupils. If the sidewalks were slippery, they clung to her skirts for support. She was sure-footed since she wore steel ice-creepers strapped to her heels.

Mrs. Cooper recalled a party given for Miss Smith in honor of her birthday by the Ladies Literary Society (now the Woman's Club). A large bouquet of red roses (one for each year) was presented to her a long with words of praise telling of the high regard her pupils held for her. According to Mrs. Cooper, the secret of Anna Smith's success in teaching was that she loved children so much they felt it and returned that love. When Mrs. Cooper's son came under Miss Smith's guidance, he complained one day that the room was "too crowded." When asked how in a very class-members would be nice he replied "Oh, just Miss Smith and me!"

Ernest Henry, president of the society, recalled Miss Smith's black walnut ruler and stated that when she struck her desk with it every pupil snapped to attention.

Many an eye was moist when the tributes finally ended and we were reminded of a statement which we once read: "That a good teacher's influence will continue forever."

Anna Smith passed away in 1932 but her memory will be held for many years to come by her former pupils.

A social hour followed the society's program with refreshments served by Mr. and Mrs. George Burr, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Wood, Mrs. Bertha Tiffin, Mrs. Jessie Truesdell and Miss Helen Farrand.

Birthday Party Honors Irene Wick

Miss Irene Wick, a senior at Michigan Lutheran Seminary in Saginaw, was guest of honor at a dinner birthday party Sunday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Doris Wick, 745 Karmada.

It was Irene's 18th birthday.

Guests included: Lyster Wick of Grand Rapids, Miss Patty Schock of Northville, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Behler of Wayne, Mr. and Mrs. Art Stiers and family and Walter Stiers of Romulus, Ernest Gleason of Saline, Mrs. Walter Bates, Miss Phyllis Bates of Wayne, Mrs. G. Perry and children, Mr. and Mrs. B. Gibcomb and family and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wick and family, all of Plymouth.

Irene, who returned to school Tuesday, had Miss Bates as her houseguest during the semester vacation.

Mrs. George Kerciu

Leet - Kerciu Wedding Vows Spoken Here January 23

Sara Lynn Leet and George Raymond Kerciu, both of Plymouth, were married Jan. 23 at the First Methodist Church here in a ceremony performed by Rev. Melbourne Johnson.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Leet of Sheridan Ave. and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Kerciu, Beck Rd.

Given by her father in marriage, the bride chose an Empire-styled gown of candlelight ivory silk faced satin, made with a sabbina neckline and a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of French silk illusion was caught with a coil of matching silk faced satin.

She carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, red sweetheart roses and ivy.

Linda Sue Leet, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Harold Jesse of Dearborn and Mrs. Albert Lagrou of Framingham, Mass., sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Donald Beaudry of Flint.

They were identically gowned in red paisley jersey and chiffon, with matching headpieces and shoes. They carried bouquets of red and white carnations, red roses and ivy.

Pat Paron of Ann Arbor was best man. Larry Leet, brother of the bride, Howard Keith and Walter Carter seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Leet wore a lilac pea, de sole dress with matching jacket and flowered hat. Mrs. Kerciu chose a Dior blue silk shantung with matching hat. Both mothers wore corsages of red roses.

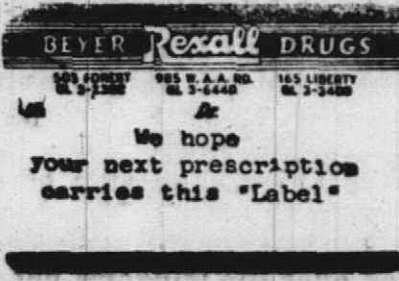

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church's Fellowship Hall. About 200 guests attended.

After a short wedding trip to Northern Michigan, the couple will make their home in Birmingham, Mich.

Grange Gleanings

The regular meeting on the 21st was well attended considering sickness and vacations in the church.

The chairman of education, Sister Esther Blood, was in charge of the program and introduced Mr. Urey Arnold, who is the coordinator from our public school system.

He gave a very interesting and informative talk and showed colored pictures which proved to everyone the value of this course to the young people as they are leaving high school and are facing world problems. A very fine program.

Our worthy Master and wife and Brothers Spicer and Fillmore, attended a district meeting at Brandon Grange in Ortonville last Friday evening when various Grange services were explained.

Mark on your calendars the activities for February:

The 4-H Club meets at the Hall Feb. 2.

Regular meeting with potluck supper and obligation on the third and fourth degrees on Feb. 4.

Grange day at Farmers' Week - East Lansing, Feb. 5.

Special meeting on the 11th with conferring of the first and second degrees.

An open meeting on the 18th with a very special program (to be released later), so invite your friends in advance to join us. Plan to attend these meetings.

Do not forget the second and fourth Tuesdays are the days we sew on cancer pads. The new password will be given at the Feb. 4 meeting, if members' dues are paid for 1960, so please be prompt. If you cannot attend, mail them in or notify the secretary of your intentions.

Rummage sale at the Hall on Feb. 27. Isabelle Taylor is chairman.

Sister Olive Finton is home from the hospital and Sister Alice O'Mera is expected home soon. Both are gaining slowly.

With as many shut-ins and members with the flu, etc., it is impossible to mention each one, but the Grange wishes everyone a speedy recovery. We miss you at the meetings. Remember them with cards and calls.

HAPPY DAY!

NEW YORK (UPI) — Let's hope this prediction for the new decade is right! A builder says houses will be constructed and equipped to require a maximum of one hour's housework per day.

If by 1970, your chores are longer, argue with Arthur A. Dessler, president of the nation's largest community developers (Leftcourt Realty).

Auto Mechanics Get Invitation

Plymouth area auto mechanics have been invited to attend a free film clinic Monday, Feb. 1, at 2 p.m. at the Novi Community Building, 26350 Novi Rd.

The event will feature films covering maintenance and repair of electrical and ignition systems in late model autos. The affair, sponsored by a local parts concern and a manufacturing company, will include refreshments.

Local Dems Club To Hear of Elections

The Plymouth Democratic Club will hold its first meeting of the year tomorrow evening, Thursday, Jan. 28, at 8 p.m. at the Odd Fellows' Hall on Elizabeth St.

Professor John P. Whyte of the Political Science Department of the University of Michigan will speak on "Election Trends of the Last 50 Years."

The public is welcome to attend.

Student's Father Returns Three Years After War

By URSULA KELL

(EDITOR'S NOTE: This is another chapter in a series of articles written by Ursula Kell, a native of Germany, enrolled this year at Plymouth High. Last week she related how her family fled several times in advance of Russian invasion at the conclusion of World War II. Now they have arrived at the home of a farmer in West Germany. Her father, who was fighting in the war, has not been heard from.)

The new house into which we moved was also a farmer's. We had two rooms to live in. Although they were small, we were happy about it.

One room was for my grandparents, just large enough to have two beds, a closet and a chair in it. The other room was for living, sleeping, cooking and eating. I did not realize then how poor we lived. We had no cups to drink out of, instead we used little cans. We had no money to buy material for a dress, so my mother made clothes out of a sack which was used before for potatoes.

When the children found a thread so we were able to pick it up and brought it to their mother to use it for sewing. Sometimes a dress was made out of six different kinds of material and all colors of thread. Everything we would throw away today was saved carefully and used.

Nothing was wasted. Although this time was hard, it stimulated the imagination of the people. Today we just go into the shop and buy what we want to. But in those years people had to make the most out of the least possible things. Many a mother became an inventor in order to make life more tolerable.

The dresses of that time were very short, not because it was just an idea of a fashion king, it came out of the necessity to save material. Straight hair became the fashion, because there was no money or time to curl it.

New kinds of meals were made with the cheapest ingredients in it. So a popular main dish in my family became the so-called "Brumova." It was made out of cooked potatoes, buttermilk (because it was cheap), salt and onions. If my mother would serve it today, nobody would touch it.

In comparison to many other families, we had a good life. Since my mother worked for the farmer, we got milk and potatoes, the most necessary things.

I don't remember ever going to bed without a meal. Sometimes I would have liked to have eaten more, but I

THE GOOD OLD DAYS ... FROM THE PAGES OF THE MAIL

Mr. and Mrs. James Ross were hosts to a group of friends at a canasta party at their home on Pacific avenue Friday evening. Guests invited to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Darold Cline, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Balfour, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Theobald, and Mr. and Mrs. Basil Cline.

Marjorie Fay Tait, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Tait of Plymouth, has pledged Sigma Kappa sorority at Michigan State college in East Lansing where she is a freshman.

Mrs. Susan Lennox will celebrate her 100th birthday Sunday. Her son and daughter in law, Mr. and Mrs. John Lennox of 258 Joy street, with whom she resides, will hold an open house for family friends and neighbors in her honor.

25 Years Ago

Mrs. Merle Rorabacher and children Velda and Gerald Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Reber, and Dale Rorabacher were Saturday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ford Becker in Pittsburg.

Mrs. Earl Markham visited her father at Holly a few days last week.

Mrs. Sydney Strong, vice regent of the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter, D.A.R., will attend Saturday the forty-second birthday luncheon of the Louisa St. Clair Chapter at the Book Cadillac. She represents the local chapter in the place of Mrs. Carl Bryan, the Regent, who is ill at her home in Northville.

Mrs. Mattie McLaren of Penniman avenue and Mrs. Robert Lee of West Ann Arbor street are leaving Monday by motor, for Tucson, Arizona.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pettigill and Mrs. S. E. Cranson were dinner guests Thursday evening of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Campbell in Redford.

A lovely tea was given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. W. S. Bake at her home on Burroughs avenue, Maplecroft, to a few friends honoring Mrs. Edson O. Huston, who leaves next week with Mr. Huston for a few months' stay at Miami, Florida.

School News: Miss Fry Miss Waldorf, and Miss Ford gave a surprise supper last Wednesday night at 8:00 at 335 Blunk avenue for Mrs. Nott. The guests included Mrs. Perkins, Miss Hearn, Miss Wisely, Miss Lickly, Miss Fiegel, Mrs. G. Smith, Mrs. Gilder, Miss Lundin, Mrs. Harold Throop, Miss Maria Johnson, Miss Cary, and Miss Allen. After a delicious supper, bridge was played and movies of Mrs. Nott's wedding trip were shown.

From the way people are talking, at least twelve to fifteen automobiles will be purchased by Plymouthites this season. Several farmers also have the automobile fever. William Thompson left Wednesday morning to resume his studies at Cleary's Business College after a week's absence on account of the grippe.

During October a total of $17,970.72 was collected for binder tissue sold from the Jackson prison. This tissue was shipped to several states.

Mrs. F. W. Voorhies and Mrs. Rose Bodmer entertained a number of ladies at a tea party Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Ruggles of Bay City was an out-of-town guest.

Friends of Fred Durfee of Novi were pleased this week in receiving cards announcing the wedding of himself and Miss Irma Perry, which occurred in Novi January 12.

Early last fall the little six-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anson Hearn was sent by her mother with an empty bottle to get some lemon extract. On the way to the store the child fell and the bottle broke in her hand cutting a deep gash. The wound healed up and no trouble was experienced until two or three weeks ago when the hand began to swell. Poultices were applied and an open sore resulted. Last Sunday Dr. Patterson decided to perform an operation and removed a broken piece of glass from the hand that had been the cause of the trouble.

Miss Inez Cole of Ann Arbor spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Rauch.

W. B. Roe is clerking for Gittins Brothers.

Twenty-two little friends gathered at the home of Lonetta Lyon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Lyon, Thursday the 13th, in honor of her seventh birthday. She received many beautiful presents.

50 Years Ago

When my mother heard the words of the farmer's wife, she jumped up, took us by our hands and we never ran so fast in our life. My father was really home. The first time in his life he saw my younger sister who was then 4 years old.

He told us his exciting story. After having been in Russia he got into a French War Prison Camp. He tried to escape twice. The first time he was caught fast, the second time he was already in Switzerland when he got caught.

He was together with another fellow and they stayed in an inn one night. In the same inn was an officer sent by the French government. He was disguised as a commoner of Switzerland and he looked for escaped prisoners. My father and the other man got to talk to him; they did not suspect anything, so they did not talk carefully enough and fell into the trap. They were captured and brought back to France.

In 1948 my father got free and accidentally he found the address of my mother.

So our family was joined three years after the war. This was one of the happiest days in our life. Although two brothers of my father died, one brother of my mother was starved in a Russian prison camp, another brother was shot and her sister was taken to Siberia, at least my father survived, and that was most important to us.

My father wanted to go back to teaching, but since he had lost his papers, he had to go again through some examinations.

When he was back in his profession, the hardest time was over for us. We threw our drinking cans away and bought ourselves cups. Life became better in many aspects.

My parents saved money to buy a little house. My sister and I dreamed of having a room to ourselves, my mother of a small kitchen and my father of a quiet room where he could work without being interrupted by the noise of the family.

Now we have got all these acquisitions and even a little bit more. These years seem to be forgotten sometimes and the ex-refugees have gotten refrigerators and television.

But in many families the war is not over yet; the Red Cross is still working to find thousands of people who disappeared in the war. Nobody knows where they are.

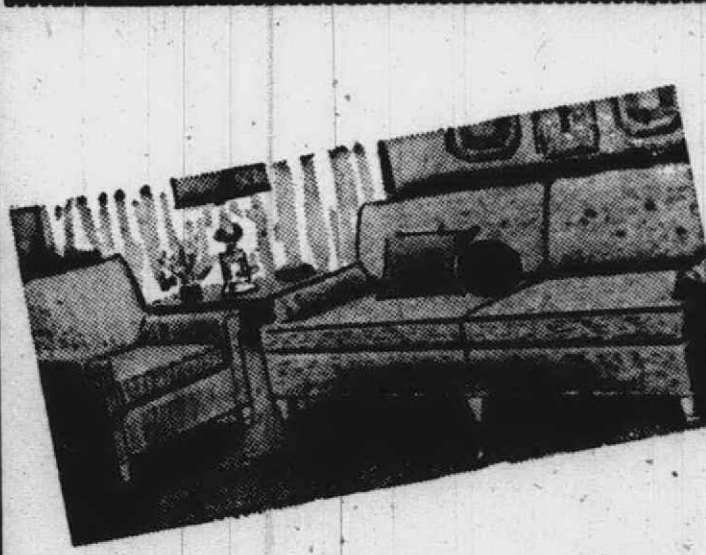

Ernest Moran Gets Wayne State Degree

Degrees will be conferred on 1,551 candidates during Wayne State University's mid-year commencement exercises Thursday night, Feb. 4, in the Masonic Temple auditorium.

Ernest M. Moran, 42639 Five Mile Rd., will be the only Plymouth student among the graduates. He will receive a bachelor of arts degree. Dr. Clarence Hilberry, University president, will confer five honorary degrees and the academic degrees. February graduation includes students who completed degree requirements last August in addition to those who qualified this semester.

Canton Dieters Finally Named; Help Needed on Mothers March

By ESTHER SPRENGEL
GL 3-0194

All out of breath, but much relieved after a quick trip to St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor, where much to our relief we found that our daughter didn't have a broken nose after her fall from the divan. Now that all has settled down we shall try to get to the news.

Congratulations are in order to Miss Joyce Gotts and Mr. Dave Gyde. The couple became engaged Thursday, Jan. 14. Joyce is the daughter of Mrs. Gladys Gotts of Ridge Rd. The engagement was announced following Joyce's twentieth birthday on Jan. 13.

We have a name for the new diet club, a very optimistic one, we may add: "The Future Slim Jims." The second meeting of the group will be held on Sunday, Jan. 23. Don't forget, gals, you are all invited to take part in the slimming program.

The regular meeting of the Township's Bunco Club was held last Friday at the home of Mrs. Joseph Thomas of Ford Rd. Once a month the ladies get together for a game, prizes and refreshments. The 12 members came up with a unique idea, which they call "secret sister." The girls all put their name in a container, then each draws a name and the name they draw is their secret sister. The duties of the secret sister are to give a gift at the birthday and anniversary of the person whose name they drew. All must be kept secret so no one will know from whom the gift comes. Next month the meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Albert White of Plymouth, with Mrs. Delbert Larrick as hostess.

Raymond Walbridge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Walbridge of Brookline had a weekend houseguest, Wayne Upton, a school chum, from Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Bordine of Salt Rd. had Sunday afternoon guests, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Parrish, Mrs. Vera Rice and Mrs. Josephine Reinelt of Ypsilanti. The group enjoyed a very pleasant visit.

The Cherry Hill Methodist Church will hold an old-fashioned hymn sing on Jan. 31 at 7:30 p.m. Guests are most welcome.

On Jan. 28 at 7:30 p.m., the group will have the privilege of hearing a talk given by Mrs. Dewey, a returned missionary from China.

The Ladies Aid of the Cherry Hill Methodist Church, Unit No. 2, held its meeting at the home of Mrs. Lesley Freedle. Following their meeting the ladies enjoyed refreshments served by their hostess, Mrs. Freedle. The group, I am told, has been active for 24 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Bordine of Salt Rd. had houseguests, Mrs. Bordine's sister and husband, the Rev. and Mrs. B.J. Holcomb of Grand Blanc. Rev. and Mrs. Holcomb were here to attend a ministers' conference in Ann Arbor.

The Men's Club of the Cherry Hill Methodist Church enjoyed movies shown them by Dick Crawford, an Air Reservist, on the war. Saturday, Jan. 23, the Cherry Hill Methodist Church will hold a meeting of the District Children Workers. The discussion will be followed by a luncheon. Mrs. Thelma Conklin is chairman of the program.

We are very happy to report that William Keeler of Salt Rd. returned home from the hospital on Jan. 20 following a cornea transplant. Mrs. Keeler reports the operation successful thus far. We hope Mr. Keeler continues on his road of health.

The Kenyon Extension Group met at the home of Mrs. Ira Hauk of Warren Rd. The ladies were served a dessert at their afternoon discussion period. Mrs. Milan H. Frank served as co-hostess. The meeting was called to order by the chairman, Mrs. Robert DeLaney, with the reading of the Women's Extension Creed. The subject for the discussion was "Easy Ways of Housekeeping." One point of interest was brought out: "A wise homemaker knows when to dust the living room or pull the shades."

The next meeting of the group will be at the home of Mrs. Russell Magraw of Warren Rd. Neighbors are welcome to join the group by simply calling Mrs. Delaney beforehand.

Staff Sergeant and Mrs. Richard Shrumm and their three children enjoyed a Christmas holiday with Mr. Shrumm's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Shrumm of Gyde Rd. The family is now residing in Clovis, N. M., where Richard is stationed.

Help! That is the call extended to you Township moms. The Mothers' March of Dimes needs your help on Jan. 28 to make their drive a success. If you can spare a little of your time, please call Mrs. Nick Mucker (Opal, of Salt Rd.), or Mrs. Rumberger, HUster 2-2431. This organization still has a lot of work to do and your donations are badly needed.

Our Canton Township Fire Department has been fortunate indeed, with no calls the last two weeks. The Busy Bakers of the 4-H group have changed their name to the Plymouth Clovers. The girls held the meeting at the home of Mrs. Ira Hauk, their leader. The young ladies made sandwiches and Mary Ferguson and Susan Hank made some brownies.

Mrs. Sam Grady (Opal) entered Ridgewood Hospital, Jan. 21 for surgery. Also entering the hospital this past week was Mrs. Lovette Gee, wife of our Township dog warden and building inspector. We hope both ladies will soon be on the road to recovery.

I know I sound like a broken record, but a Canton Township column is possible only if we have news items, and they must come from you. Until next week then—

Bell to Lay New Cable Along Mill St.

Work will begin next month on a $39,375 project to provide additional telephone facilities for three subdivisions in the Plymouth exchange, it was announced today by William Dunn, local manager of Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

The expenditure is part of the $811,000 the company will spend in Plymouth this year to improve and expand service, Dunn said.

The project calls for nearly two miles of aerial and underground cable, which will be placed along Mill Street between Plymouth Road and Ann Arbor Road.

"This project will enable the company to fill new orders for residential service, especially for three subdivisions north of Schoolcraft Road, adjacent to Hagerly Road, and orders for better grades of service," the manager said.

Scheduled for completion in April, the project will use a cable containing 1,515 telephone wires.

TIPS for TEENS

ELINOR WILLIAMS

Q.—"Dear Miss Williams: I have gone to a small private school for seven years. Next year, my senior year, my parents want me to go to a large public high school. They say it will be an experience in learning to handle social situations before going to college. Although it might be an advantage, it is hard to leave my 'alma mater.' But my school doesn't have social activities and it is a girls' school—no boys. Would you please advise me?"

Ans.—It sounds like a good idea for you to have the experience of going to a large school before going to college—then you'll have one less adjustment to make in college where there are many changes. After all, you'd miss only one year at your small school and it would help you very much in college... not only in adjusting to larger classes, etc., but also in social life, making friends, having dates, getting acquainted and knowing all kinds of different personalities from different backgrounds. If you do it, think of it as an adventure; it will be!

Q.—"Dear Elinor: We are two girls with a different problem. Instead of wanting boyfriends, we need to know how to get rid of two. We have given them every hint, without hurting their feelings. The worse we treat them, the more they seem to like us. Please give us advice that won't hurt them."

Ans.—There's nothing like lack of attention to kill interest. Be too busy to talk when they telephone and, without being rude, explain that you have to say "Goodbye" and hang up. Refuse dates with them... be busy. Be polite but brief and they'll soon stop calling you. Don't linger when you see them. But avoid saying unpleasant things to or about them, so you'll part friends.

The CITY MANAGER'S CORNER

By Al Glassford

The accounting department of our city administration is established for the purpose of assuring the manager that proper and efficient use is being made of municipal funds. Its major role is to examine, in detail, each item of business each day, regardless of how large or how small the transaction may be.

It would be virtually impossible to discuss in detail each type of work the accounting department performs, for its operations span everything each employee of the city does. Instead, we will follow through an ordinary transaction, for in that way, we can show what the accounting department does.

Suppose, for example, the garage mechanic discovers his stock of spark plugs is getting low. He will have to build up the supply. To do this, he will write out a request for spark plugs and send it to the accounting department. A check will be made to be certain there are sufficient funds in the relation equipment account to pay for the requested items, keeping in mind the financial needs of that account until the new budget is adopted and approved.

If everything is found to be in order, the request is sent to the city manager for approval, and a purchase order for the spark plugs is prepared and sent to the supplier selected. This, however, is only the beginning of the accounting department's work.

When the spark plugs are delivered, receipt is acknowledged by the Department of Public Works and the shipping slip is sent to the accounting department for processing. First, the bill is checked against the purchase order to be certain the items received and the amount of the bill corresponds to the items ordered, as recorded on the purchase order. Also, an appropriate entry is made on the inventory card for spark plugs, showing how many are currently on hand.

When this is done, the bill is attached to the corresponding purchase order with a voucher, which is a statement that the accounting department recognizes the bill as a claim against the city. The entire pack of vouchers and supporting documents is added to the other bills for the month. All the bills so prepared are examined by an Auditing Committee of two city Commissioners, and the audited bills are then presented to the entire city commission for its approval.

When the bills are approved, the accounting department writes the checks for payment and sends them to the proper person or firm. Each check so written is recorded on a check register, along with the name of the person paid, the amount of payment and the account will be charged.

At the same time, the appropriate account is charged by making an entry on a ledger card and a similar entry on a similar entry is made on an expense sheet. This results in a cross reference to assure that the money spent is the same as the expense charged for each item.

A similar set of reports, ledgers and reference sheets are prepared for money received in payment of bills the city sends out for services rendered, taxes and so on. When this is multiplied by the hundreds of transactions that take place each week, plus preparing payrolls every two weeks and preparing monthly, quarterly and annual financial reports, making balance sheet, bank reconciliations, cash statements and maintaining other records, one gets some idea of the volume of work accomplished by the people working in the accounting department.

Edison Executive Speaks in Wayne

A balance sheet of factors affecting the economy of Michigan will be a feature of a talk to be given in Wayne by E.O. George, vice president of Detroit Edison Company.

He will speak at a luncheon meeting sponsored by the Wayne Chamber of Commerce to be held Tuesday, Feb. 9, in the Wayne Recreation Building, 3355 S. Wayne Rd.

Service clubs of Wayne, Plymouth, Wyandotte, Trenton and Northville have been invited to send as many representatives as wish to attend.

George is active as a member, committee chairman and officer of numerous industrial and civic organizations. He served as Public Relations Chairman of the Steering Committee for the newly organized Michigan State Chamber of Commerce.

A Fascinating Hobby for a Suburbanite Weather Forecaster

By George Adams

The largest hailstone on record fell at Potter, Neb., on July 6, 1928; the greatest seasonal snowfall, 884 inches, occurred at Tamarack, Calif., during the winter of 1906-7; the heaviest 24-hour rainfall, 23.22 inches, fell at New Smyrna, Fla., Oct. 10-11, 1924, according to the New York Times.

These are extremes of weather. But storms, whether a heavy fall of rain, snow or hail, are general any season of the year. A strictly American weather phenomenon is the tornado; most common in the Great Plains area or its fringes. Scientists know comparatively little about tornadoes. However, the science of weather forecasting, from day to day and long range, improves every year.

Not everyone can be a weather forecaster but anyone can learn to read weather maps. It won't take long to recognize from which directions bad weather, or storms, come to your area to spoil skiing weekends or summer picnics.

Some amateur weather forecasters practice scientific methods. A few become observers in their locality for the U. S. Weather Bureau. Others put their faith in folklore.

"I knew the trains would be late today," sagely comments a commuter to a coastal metropolis, "because yesterday I noticed that the gulls were flying inland." (This reputedly is the sign of a storm. His suburbanite wife believes that, if the first Sunday of any month is rainy, the other three or four also will be rainy.)

Still another suburbanite is equally firm in believing that, if the last three days of January or any month are rainy, then the next month will be too rainy for much outdoor work or play.

Such sayings as "white and ragged clouds appearing like horses' manes and tails foretell great winds" are stand-bys that have some basis in fact. Forecasting, however, calls for judgment in interpreting various observations that are noted daily. This gathering of notes is one of the first steps in becoming an amateur weather forecaster of any standing.

Clouds, both their forms and their movements, are one important thing to note. Wind is tied in closely with storm movements. Other essential observations are temperature and barometer readings.

The would-be forecaster needs to invest in a notebook and pencil and to have access to a barometer, thermometer and wind vane. His notes and records should be supplemented by reading and studying the daily weather maps in the local newspapers. To help understand his records, a book such as "Weather, A Guide to Phenomena and Forecasts" (Golden Nature Guide, $1), is helpful. Many pamphlets on weather are available from government bureaus and elsewhere.

After a few months of recording weather data, would you care to predict whether or not it will be a long, hard winter or will spring come early? Well, if you hear thunder late in winter, spring will be early (that's what the Delaware Indians believed). And if you spot a school of herring in January, this also warrants predicting an early spring.

WEATHER FORECASTING can be anyone's hobby. Some record wind, temperature, barometer readings and similar data. Others rely on country folklore.

Suburban Living

Pony Club Something New For Nation's Young Fry

If Santa Claus subscribed to Nielsen ratings and Gallup polls, he would learn that one of the most repeated requests from his correspondents in recent years has been for a horse or a pony. A girl six or seven years old may add a postscript asking for a doll, but her yearning for a horse is printed in the first sentence. Her enthusiasm equals that of any boy from five to ten years of age.

A horse or pony of "my very own" is a wish that Santa Claus fulfilled for comparatively few youngsters. Adults in at least 74 communities have made it possible for several thousand youngsters to become better acquainted with their favorite animal and also learn horsemanship. They've accomplished this by means of a Pony Club.

The United States Pony Clubs, Inc. was chartered in 1954 and patterned after a similar organization in England. Local pony clubs have been organized from Maine to Alabama, Pennsylvania to Colorado and westward. Many of them are not in hunt club areas, and the young members' riding costumes are more likely to be blue jeans than pink coats.

The primary purpose of a Pony Club is to teach youngsters horsemanship; that is, the riding and care of horses or ponies. Some pony clubs have members only four years old (there is no minimum age). If a young person maintains membership until he is seventeen, he is certain to be proficient with horses. Membership must terminate at the age of 21 but adults can become sustaining members.

Probably few, if any organizations have as modest dues as a Pony Club. The initiation fee is $1 per member. This plus annual dues of fifty cents a year go to the National organization. The local Pony Club sets fees at their discretion, but the total annual fees usually are approximately five dollars.

Owning a horse or pony is not a requirement for membership. In many cases, one pony is shared by two, three or more club members. If the youngster owns his own animal, then his family must consider the costs of food and shelter. Again it is not uncommon, and frequently is less expensive as well as more convenient, to "board" a horse or to rent one on a monthly or annual basis for club activities. In any case, club rules make care of the pony or horse the responsibility of the youngster.

Riding lessons are free to Pony Club members. They are graded as A, B, C, and D riders with D indicating beginners and very few of the several thousand current members rated in the A class. Other activities include local meets with competitions, perhaps a mock hunt or hunting trials, regional rallies and an annual national rally. This annual rally was held in July last year in Nashville, Tenn.

An application to form a local Pony Club may be obtained by writing to The Secretary, United States Pony Clubs, Inc., 92 High Street, Brookline, Mass. A man or a woman who is a good citizen of a community is a better choice than a professional horseman.

Shrubs Need Some Winter Care, Too

Snow and ice of winter can pick off shrubs in your yard and garden.

Joe Cox, extension specialist in landscape architecture at Michigan State University, says damage often comes from the weight of the snow and ice. Branches are forced to droop, deforming them or causing them to split or break.

Cox suggests you tend to your shrubs immediately after a snow storm if you haven't given them advance protection. Gently shake the snow from the branches with a broom.

Low spreading evergreen shrubs can be protected by giving the branches some support - ahead of the storm. Lay boughs under the branches to buoy them up. Cox suggests that snow can be used for this purpose also. As you shovel the walk, pile some of the snow under spreading branches to prevent them from bending to the ground.

Another method often seen in northern Michigan is the use of light, supporting crates, built from lath or other light-weight boards. These structures can be painted dark green to blend with the shrubs, and they can be used year after year.

Upright type plants can be protected by tying the spreading branches to the main stem with a soft cloth. It may help to add the support of a stake in the center of such plants before tying the branches.

HORSE OR PONY plus boy or girl spells happiness. Learning to ride and care for your animal is the function of a Pony Club which can be organized in any community.

Be Prepared If You're Planning Trip South

Planning for a trip South during winter is quite different from planning a summer vacation. For most Plymouth people, the "South" means Florida, but it could also mean the Gulf Coast, Arizona or even Southern California.

Whether it's for a short vacation or a three-month stay, it's quite a drive to "go south." Often a family plans that trip for months ahead. Literature about accommodations can be sent for, road maps picked up and routes studied.

The automobile clubs as well as gasoline companies will mark routes to any destination. This has an advantage in that they keep up-to-date on road conditions. The service also includes marking points of interest along the way. Part of the fun in taking a trip by car, especially going to a place for the first time, is the opportunity to see other parts of the country.

The car, of course, must be put in top running condition. Tires should be excellent with good tread and ready to withstand hours of high speed driving. A motor tune-up with new spark plugs and points will put more pep in the engine and assure easier starting.

Good windshield wipers and headlights are important to the traveler. An anti-freeze that won't boil away when warmer temperatures are reached will still be in the radiator when it's time to head the car north again.

Even though you leave home in sunny weather and on clear roads, take along a pair of tire chains, a small pail of sand and a windshield ice scraper. There could be plenty of snow and ice to drive through on the way down.

Except in cases of emergency, plan to drive no more than 300 miles a day, especially if one person does all the driving. This allows time to stop off and see any interesting places along the way. Stop early enough in the afternoon to find comfortable accommodations for the night. Days are so short that it gets dark early anyway and most families would rather drive in daylight.

For those persons who don't enjoy a long trip and don't want the use of a car after they arrive at their vacation spot, there are auto rental agencies. By making a reservation before leaving home, a car can be picked up at an airport or railroad station, kept for the duration of the stay and turned in again before heading north.

Rates at this time of year for renting a car in the South will be approximately $12 per day plus 12 cents a mile.

If the family takes their own car, remember that it should be gone over again before heading home: oil change, lubrication, inspection of tires, headlights, battery, fan belt and so on. No one wants to spoil a good vacation by having trouble with the car on the way home.

Odds and Ends For Homemakers

When there's heat in the home there's more likelihood of a costly fire. More home fires occur during December, January and February than at any other time of the year. Persons responsible for home heating equipment should see that it is kept in good operating condition, is not misused, and is isolated from any danger of contact with flammable materials.

Home fires increased steadily during the 1950's. Homes are now being destroyed or damaged at a rate of nearly 600,000 per year. Property damage amounts to about $370,000,000 annually, while close to 5,700 lives are being lost. Defective or unsafe heating equipment, and thoughtless family activities account for the greatest number of "fire statistics."

Families with children under 14, or persons 65, or older, should make special plans to evacuate these members in case of a home fire. Nearly sixty-five per cent of persons killed in home fires each year fall in the above age groups.

Portable heaters cause many of our more tragic home fires. If you must use a portable heater, observe these rules: (1) Be sure that your heater bears the approval of the National Board of Fire Underwriters. (2) Be sure to follow manufacturers' directions for use. (3) Be sure the room being heated always has fresh air supply. (4) Be sure to place the heater where it will not be bumped into or tripped over. Never move heaters while lighted. (5) Place heaters a level, well away from flammable materials. (6) Always shut off heater before retiring or leaving the premises.

Quick-Thaw For Frostbite Now Recommended

CHICAGO (UPI)—Police and other first-aid groups which deal with winter emergencies have been urged to adopt the so-called quick-thaw method of treating frostbite.

Writing in the Journal of the International College of Surgeons, Dr. John T. Phelan said current methods are inadequate and that "a quick-thaw at approximately 110 degrees Fahrenheit is the best first-aid treatment because it shortens the time the frost-bitten tissue is exposed to cold."

Dr. Phelan, a professor at the University of Wisconsin Medical School, warned that time is crucial in frostbite cases.

"Depending on the person and which part of the body is affected," he said, "there is a point at which part of the body is affectable, irrespective of the treatment afforded."

Dr. Phelan said that too often both the patient and the physician fail to take frostbite seriously until gangrene sets in. Bed rest should be prescribed immediately, he said, particularly when the feet are involved.

Once the frostbitten limb is thawed, he added, don't warm it any further, but maintain blood circulation and prevent further injury with bandages and antibiotics.

VISION REPORT CARD

NEW YORK (UPI)—About 85 per cent of everything we know is learned through our eyes. Yet studies show that a larger percentage of the nation's 27-million school children have faulty vision. One survey placed the figure at one out of four children.

Published in THE PLYMOUTH MAIL once each week for three weeks successively, within thirty days from the date hereof. (Jan. 12, 20, 27, 1960)

To the Supervisor and Highway Commissioner of the Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan.

Sirs: You are hereby notified that the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, did, at a meeting of said Board held on December 23, 1959, decide and determine that certain streets described in the minutes of said Board should be County roads under the jurisdiction of the Board of County Road Commissioners. The minutes of said meeting fully describing said streets are hereby made a part of this notice, and are as follows:

"Minutes of the regular meeting of the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, held at the Board's offices on the 7th Floor, City-County Building, Detroit 26, Michigan, at 9:00 A.M., Eastern Standard Time, Wednesday, December 23, 1959. Present: Commissioners Wilson and Kreger. Absent: Commissioner O'Brien.

Commissioner Kreger moved the adoption of the following resolution: BE IT RESOLVED by the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, that the following described roads be and they are hereby taken over as County roads and made a part of the county road system of the County of Wayne:

All of Cherry and Greenbriar Lanes, Farmbrook and Huntington Drives and all of Greenbriar Court as dedicated for public use in Lake Pointe Village Sub. No. 4 of part of the N. E. 1/4 of Section 23 and part of the N. W. 1/4 of Section 24, T. 1 S., R. 8 E., Plymouth Twp., Wayne County, Michigan, as recorded in liber 84 of plats on page 36 of Wayne County Records, constituting a total of 0.533 mile of County roads.

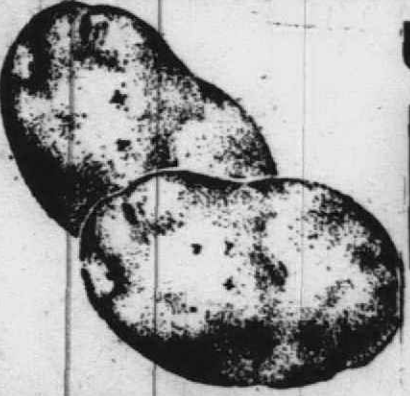

The motion was supported by Commissioner Wilson and carried by the following vote: Ayes: Commissioners Wilson and Kreger. Nays: None. Absent: Commissioner O'Brien.

THIS NOTICE IS GIVEN UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF ACT NO. 283 OF THE PUBLIC ACTS OF 1909, AS AMENDED.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand at Detroit, Michigan, this 30th day of December, A.D. 1959.

Salem Reporter Covers School Board Meeting

- Mrs. Herbert Famuliner There will be no school next Friday, the 25th as it is the close of the semester. The High School children will be taking their finals all next week.

At the recent School Board Meeting Sup't. Frank Bartlett read to the board a letter from the State Dept. of Public Instruction, regarding the reopening of schools that have been closed for some time. He pointed out that if the need to open Salem's and possibly other schools arises, the State Department requires inspection by the State Fire Marshal, arranged through the district itself, and sanitary inspection by the County Health Dept. arranged by the State.

Bartlett added that the arrangements for these inspections were being made. On the recommendation of Junior High Principal James Hood, the board consented to allow

Rev. Marion Sherrill to conduct recreation classes for the eighth grade boys, except those taking band. The boys will get five days of recreation and physical education instead of the present two. All the girls except those in band, are now receiving five days of physical education a week.

A discussion of transportation problems connected with getting physically handicapped children to the nearest special training classrooms in Farmington revealed that the Lyon district has no readily available answer at the present time. The matter was tabled for further study.

The board approved the plan proposed by the South Lyon Jaycees to present a talent show Feb. 6 with the proceeds to go toward band equipment.

Social Notes

The Salem Hobby Club did not meet this past week but will have its January meeting at the home of Mrs. John Riorden, for a lesson in making stem-d flowers.

Bill Stillwell has returned home and returned to school this week after being in the hospital with an infected hand.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Trapp of Six Mile Rd. enjoyed a trip to Illinois where they visited one of their daughters. They returned on New Year's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ellis of Livonia spent Sunday afternoon at the Earl Roberts home.

Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Hardesty, Ken and Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. Howard spent Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. C. Miller, and Hicksville, Ohio, where they visited friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cook of Walled Lake spent Sunday evening at the Charles Raymond home.

Donald Tiffin received word of the sudden death of his uncle, I. J. Shoebridge, of Northville, who was vacationing in California and died of heart attack.

Mrs. Ward Griswold is home from St. Joseph Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Head and family were Sunday visitors at the Lawrence Ingall home on Joy Road.

Fernan Rohraff and Dick McKinley spent Saturday and Sunday ice fishing at Houghton Lake.

Navin Compton of Brookville Road was home for the week-end from Great Lakes where he is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Foerster Jr. of Whitmore Lake (she's the former Lois Hardesty) announce the birth of their second child. A son, six pounds seven ounces, born Sunday morning at St. Joseph Hospital, Ann Arbor. The baby's name is James Frederick. The Foersters' daughter Diane, was one year old on Jan. 20.

The Lapham School P.T.A. is sponsoring "Luncheon is Served" at the Salem Town Hall on Wednesday, Feb. 3, at 1:00 p.m. Donation of $1.00. No charge for young children. Everyone welcome. Ham will be served, so plan on attending.

Mr. Heck Francis of Curry Road celebrated his birthday last week.

The address of Charles Hawes who recently left for service is RCT Charles Hawes, U. S. 55 689 347 (2PLT), Company B, 1st Med. Tank BN 66th, 2 D. Armored Div., Fort Hood, Texas.

Salem Federated Church News

The Pilgrim Pioneer Girls have been working on their Courtesy Code. Each girl is requested to bring a card signed by her mother stating ways that she has improved in being courteous at home. The girls along with the help of their guides put on skits at their last meeting depicting courtesy at school, home, and church. They also made courtesy posters.

The Ladies Aid sponsored a baby shower for Berra Graham Tuesday evening, January 12. A stroller as well as other clothing items were presented to the guest of honor. Following a game time, refreshments of sandwiches, relishes, jello, cookies and coffee were served.

The Senior Youth Fellowship Group is planning a trip to the Forest Avenue Baptist Church Saturday, January 23. A special feature of the service will be the Moody Bible Institute Glee Club and Hand-Bell Chorus.

PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL

By Gloria Bowles

The scene: Plymouth High School ... at its highest pressure points.

The characters: 1250 Plymouth High students, all looking very pale and very tired, and 50 some teachers, their hands stained by purple mimeograph ink, and wielding ugly red marking pencils.

The props: typewritten tests, durability and a little knowledge among students, and lastly, semester report cards.

It's examination time at Plymouth High School. Plymouth High students faced three examinations this morning, Wednesday, Jan. 27, or as many tests as they have morning classes. They will be dismissed from school this afternoon, so that teachers will have time to correct tests (and it will also give us a chance to do some last-minute cramming.)

Three more examinations are ahead for students tomorrow, Thursday morning, which will cover the semester's work of the afternoon classes.

Worries will be ended (or perhaps just begun) at the sound of the 11:30 bell on Thursday at the end of third hour, signalling the beginning of a short rest for PHSers, including Thursday afternoon and Friday.

Report cards will be distributed in home rooms on Monday morning (OY!)

The Student Council, for the second consecutive year, is providing a cram room for students who want to study during the noon hour.

On the lighter side: The band will present its annual carnival this Saturday evening. It will begin at 6:30 and is planned by the Band

Parents to raise money so that, this year, the entire band may spend one week in August at Interlochen National Music Camp.

Activities will include a cake-walk, pie-walk, auction and fish pond, two talent shows, a dance from 9 to 11, and the raffling of a transistor radio. There will be a free baby-sitting room.

Attention: students ... juniors and seniors ... who took Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude tests last fall: your scores are available in the Guidance office. The tests served as a preview for the College Boards.

Barbara Steencken, as the highest Plymouth scorer, is considered a test finalist. She ranked with other top scorers throughout the nation.

Everybody and his brother last week was talking about the swim team's triumph over Ann Arbor.

There were red spots all over the high school last week (and all over the front page of its high school paper.) But the symptoms of Write - A - Letter - To - The - Editor - Disease (WALTTED) seem to be slowly disappearing, as students begin to pen notes to the "Pilgrim Prints" staff.

The pep club seems to be working some minor miracles. Their "Go, Plymouth, Go" posters are sparking interest in the athletic teams. Such appeals dot the school every Friday. Their constitution is presently being looked over by the Student Council's Constitution Committee, with Chairman Mary Hulsing, a sophomore, heading the proceedings.

One of the constitution clauses: to turn the presentation of pep assemblies over to the club, therefore taking them out of the hands of the cheerleaders, who then would only participate.

County Health Guild To Meet On February 4

The Feb. 4 meeting of the Wayne County Health Guild will be held at the Hawthorne Center, 18471 Haggerty, Northville, and will begin at 12:30 p.m.

Members and guests have been asked to bring sandwiches for themselves. Coffee and dessert will be provided by the Center.

Included on the afternoon's agenda will be a tour of the Center and a talk by Dr. R. Rabinovitch, a psychiatrist. His topic will deal with "Symptoms of Mental Illness in Children."

Reservations for the affair may be made through Mrs. Ward McCain, GR 4-9134, or Mrs. J. Blaharski, GL 3-3263. Reservations must be made before Feb. 1.

Will Treasury Agents Check Your Tax Return?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — What are the chances that a Treasury agent will check your tax return?

As far as arithmetic goes, every return is checked. It goes to go over your addition and subtraction an extra time before mailing your return.

You can't tell whether a Treasury agent will dig into your return to see if you have omitted income, taken excessive deduction or made some other mistake, accidental or otherwise. Returns get a full audit on a random basis. The chance goes up with income. Returns which are flagrantly fishy are more likely to get a going over.

In 1958, the Revenue Service examined about 1 in 50 of the short-form returns and about 1 in 21 of the long-form returns.

The service says it will check about as many this year, but that agents also will be looking closely for reporting of dividends and interest.

There was an annual average of 182,000 forest fires in the United States during the 1940's.

Heads of Men Getting Bigger

NEW YORK (UPI) — The National Cap and Cloth Hat Institute reports that the heads of American men are getting bigger.

Twenty years ago the average man's head size was 6 7/8 inches, according to the institute. Nowadays, most of the head-wear purchased is 7 1/8 and larger.

Medical authorities attribute the trend toward bigger heads to the general physical growth of Americans as they take advantage of health and nutrition developments.

Six from Plymouth were among the nearly 400 people receiving graduate and undergraduate degrees and state provisional certificates during Eastern Michigan University's mid-year commencement exercises held Sunday in Pease Auditorium.

President Eugene B. Elliott presided at the ceremonies with Ralph A. Sawyer, dean of the Horace H. Rackham School of Graduate Studies, University of Michigan, being the guest speaker. He spoke concerning "Some Problems of Education in the Space Age."

Those from here receiving degrees and certificates were:

Loretta Murray Denny, bachelor of science degree (previously certified).

Marvin John Federighe, elementary provisional certificate.

Garth G. McAllister, master of arts in education and secondary provisional certificate.

George W. Moore, bachelor of science degree and secondary provisional certificate.

Ada Watson, elementary provisional certificate.

Douglas Edmund Wiseman, master of arts in education.

Area Reformed Church Begins First Services

Services of organization for The Good Shepherd Reformed Church at Tonquish Village, Wayne, were held Sunday, Jan. 17. Rev. Louis P. Kraay presided with the Reverends Arthur O. Van Eck, Roger Hendricks, Carl Van Farowe, and Maurice Tysen participating.

Rev. James Schut, regional missionary for the Synod of Michigan, gave the message for the afternoon. Nathan Vander Werf, a student at Western Theological Seminary in Holland, presented special music. Mr. Vander Werf and his wife were with the church during the summer.

Rev. John Hiemstra, serving as missionary pastor and moderator of the newly-organized church, introduced the 25 families (76 individuals) comprising the membership.

A luncheon was served to 195 guests from churches at Hudsonville, Zeeland, and the area.

At present the church is holding services in the Tonquish School at Warren and Farmington Roads, but preliminary plans for the church have been approved. The construction of the parsonage was to have been started last week but was delayed by the weather.

Town Hall Group To Meet Jan. 28

Plymouth Community Town Hall Committee will hold an open membership meeting the evening of Thursday, Jan. 28, in the Junior High School Library. The event will begin at 8 p.m.

The committee, an impartial voluntary organization, provides public forums for the discussion of problems of importance to Plymouth area residents.

Sam Hudson, chairman of the committee, has extended an invitation to all.

MSU Enrollment Catching U-M's

Winter quarter enrollment at Michigan State University is six per cent higher than it was last year, according to Registrar Kermit Smith.

It sets a winter quarter record with 20,213 students enrolled. The comparable Winter quarter enrollment in 1959 was 18,570.

By full-time enrollment, M.S.U. has moved from tenth to eighth place among the nation's largest universities. The University of Michigan is America's fifth largest school.

Pilgrim Drawn Steel Assistant Appointed

John F. Bramham, 32342 Maryland, Livonia, has been appointed assistant to the general manager of Pilgrim Drawn Steel Division in Plymouth.

Bramham will continue his duties as manager of sales, a position he has held since 1955.

Pilgrim Drawn Steel is a division of Automotive Materials Corp. with offices in the Fisher Building, Detroit. Robert N. Green is president.

There's nothing like a new car—and no new car like a Chevrolet. This is the Impala Sport Coupe!

GO '60 GO CHEVY!
NOW-THE CAR THAT STARTS THE SIXTIES WITH SO MUCH THAT'S NEW, SO MUCH THAT'S DIFFERENT...AND SETS THE PACE WITH LOWER PRICES!
Chevrolet speaks of the Sixties like no other car—with a broad accent on spaciousness, stirring new concepts in styling and strong emphasis on spirit and thrift.
Step inside this superlative '60 and look at the worlds of room around you: head room, hip room, shoulder-squaring room. Note how Chevrolet's engineers have further flattened and narrowed the transmission tunnel to give the middle man more foot room. Chevrolet's greater roominess is inside where you want it—not outside in useless body overhang.
Under the hood you'll find economy teamed with performance in a new standard V8, engineered to deliver up to 10% more miles for every gallon, or the strapping Hi-Thrift 6, a remarkable gas saver.
Still, as savings-minded as this new Chevrolet is, it's hard to find a car that does you prouder at any price.
And riding comfort in the new one is a never-ending treat, thanks to Full Coil spring suspension. There are also thicker newly designed body mounts that filter noise and vibration to the vanishing point, more rigid frame and many other engineering advances.
But you'll have to drive the Sixty sizzler yourself—that's the clincher. Why not see your Chevrolet dealer now—for a drive and the happy details on Chevy's lower prices.

Townships Fighting For Their Existence

By ELMER WHITE

LANSING—Community Colleges appear to have an increasingly brighter future in Michigan. Bartlett sees a 10 per cent increase in enrollment next fall. Currently, there are 17,000 students enrolled in the state's 16 community colleges.

Although they had slices of state aid, community colleges have grown primarily through community effort. They have had little, if any, direction from Lansing. Bartlett says it now is about time for Michigan to have a Community College Development Commission to serve in an advisory capacity.

Bartlett says Michigan also should be giving serious consideration to the extension of free public education beyond the 12th grade. This would be a bold and controversial step.

The decade ahead offers major challenges in education.

But urgency of school problems is sometimes hard to market among those who don't have school age children—or have forgotten when they did.

The Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers and the Michigan Association of School Boards are trying to stimulate interest in school issues at a series of 13 regional conferences.

All taxpayers will find them worthwhile.

A stab in the back. That's what township officials are trying to avoid these days.

They were told by their executive director, Joseph Parisi, to beware of "do-gooders and reformers" who want to streamline government "under the guise of efficiency, economy and so forth . . ."

The Michigan Townships Association

tion adopted a series of resolutions aimed at preserving the status quo in the structure of local government.

An underdog complex has developed among township officials in the inter-government struggles.

Parisi called for help from the Governor and Legislature "to assist us in gaining first class citizenship for the residents of our townships."

"We in the townships are ready to discuss or negotiate with other units of government, any time they are ready to treat us as co-equal citizens," Parisi said.

The townships appear ready for their struggle for survival in one of the nation's fastest growing states.

RED TAPE would be slashed by a legislative proposal designed, among other things, to reduce the cost of going to court.

A committee of lawyers, judges, educators and court officers had the legislation drafted after more than three years of study.

The bill, authored by Rep. Thomas Whinery (R-Grand Rapids), was one of the first introduced in the 1960 Legislature. It was hardly noticed in the opening-day flurry at the Capitol, yet could develop into one of the major issues before lawmakers this year.

Courts, like hospitals, are expensive places to be.

The Whinery bill would help cut the cost by providing for a single form of civil action. This would help eliminate the need for several different court suits arising from the same cause.

Unnecessary paperwork would be eliminated, procedures for starting court action would be simplified, and the need for actual court appearances would be reduced.

It appears the scales of justice need oiling.

Handwriting Is Clue About You

Dear Miss Williams: After reading your interesting column and being thoroughly fascinated by it, I would be very interested to know what you can tell about me from my handwriting. I will be looking forward to your answer.

Dear Scottie: You like variation in what you do and are not completely satisfied with daily routine. You are practical minded and try to be self-reliant. You are easily irritated, but have very little sensitivity. There is some suppressed thinking with a little jealousy. You are cautious, not the talkative type. You have an emphatic decision, sometimes blunt. Once you make up your mind it is not easily changed.

Dear Miss Williams: I read your column in the Goodfellow edition and would like very much for you to analyze my handwriting. I will be looking forward to your reply.

Dear Annie S: You have a will and purpose in mind that grows stronger as it goes along with good determination to see it through. Learning new things comes rather easily for you and you retain what you learn because your memory is very good. You are emotional and a little self-conscious with some sensitivity. Your pride can be hurt and your nature is to be expressive. There is some efficiency and you're proud of your work.

Dear Miss Williams: I read your column the other day in the Goodfellow edition and would like you to analyze my handwriting. I will be looking forward to your reply.

Dear Jean: You are an emotional type person with deep feeling. You absorb experiences and also show your feelings in an expressive way. You are strong minded with a will and purpose. Being future minded you are determined to carry out your plans, you have good organization ability and at times are very diplomatic. How's Business?

Wholesale Prices Soon to Rise

By ROGER W. BABSON During the past two years, the Bureau of Labor's Wholesale Price Index has been in a sidewise trend. Considering that this brief span of time has included the critical low point of a recession, a business recovery, and a prolonged major labor tie-up, the stability of this barometer is truly remarkable.

The placid surface scene, however, belies the turbulent crosscurrents experienced by the component commodities. In some cases, price changes have been substantial.

Reflecting differences in supply-demand conditions between industry groups, a variety of price patterns emerged. Prices of farm products and foods have been in a distinct downward trend since early 1958, due to the depressive force of successive record annual outturns of crops and livestock.

Oversupply has also been

What's In a Name? If Your Name Is 'Jerry'

By Ann Reynolds "Jerry" is the familiar form for "Gerald", "Gerard" and "Jeremiah", all men's names. If you happen to be a girl called "Jerry", the complete form of your name is "Geraldine". "Gerald" and "Gerard" are often confused with each other. They are both from the Old German, and the word that is the first part of these names, is "gairu", an Old German word meaning "a spear". To this was added in order to form "Gerald", the Old German word "vald", signifying "rule", while in "Gerard" the addition consisted of "hardu", which means "hard".

"Jeremiah" is of an altogether different origin. It is a Hebrew name from the Old Testament. Prophet Jeremiah lived in the 6th century B.C.; he had his name commemorated in the word "jeremiad", "a lamenting and denunciatory complaint", because he warned his fellow citizens that resistance against the Babylonians was futile and would lead only to the destruction of Zion. Resistance was attempted, and his dismal prediction fulfilled. The city was reduced "to a pasture for the beasts in the field". As he returned to comfort the stricken population he had a vision of a woman mourning for her children on whom the house had collapsed (and that is supposed to be the reason that badly built houses are said to be "jerry-built"). "Jeremiah" means "Jahwe, or God, is exalted".

Girls named "Jerry" and "Geraldine" may have been named for Geraldine Farrar, the celebrated American dramatic soprano who was a member of the Metropolitan Opera Company for fifteen years beginning 1906. One Geraldine I know was so named for the singer; her parents were great opera lovers. "Geraldine" is the creation of the English poet Henry Howard, earl of

Theft, Damage And Destruction Of Property

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Michigan Society of Certified Public Accountants, in cooperation with the Internal Revenue Service.)

YOU can get some relief from casualty and theft losses by taking advantage of the legitimate tax deductions you are allowed. To help you prepare a correct return and take advantage of legitimate tax savings, this newspaper is printing a series of four articles prepared with the help of the state and national organizations of certified public accountants. Today's article considers the problems you may have in claiming deductions for theft or casualty losses. Later articles will offer advice on other tax problems of particular interest to homeowners.

Time and Destruction There are a great many ways in which your property can be damaged or destroyed, as for example, by fire, storm, flood, or explosion. Generally, a casualty which will give rise to a deductible loss must occur with some suddenness. However, there are situations where the casualty occurs over a period of time and still results in a deductible casualty loss. For example, consider the damage caused by termites. Say that you purchased your house in June 1957 and at that time a check by experts showed that there were no termites present. Then, in February 1958, you discover that termites have been eating your house from under you. Can you claim a casualty loss deduction for the termite damage? Yes, you can, even though the damage took place over a nine month period. The casualty here, is the invasion of your house by the termites. However, it is probable that a casualty deduction will not be allowed where the termite damage did not occur over a relatively short period of time.

The Property Must Be Yours You must have ownership of the damaged property to claim a loss deduction. It is quite conceivable that severe damage to the property around your house may cause the value of your property to decline. Although the damage occurred suddenly, you cannot claim a deduction for the

1959 Fire Damage Exceeds $1 Billion

Fire damaged or destroyed more than $1 billion worth of property in the United States last year, the national board of fire underwriters has reported. The damage, an estimate, is approximately a one per cent decrease over 1958. Estimated losses for December alone, totaled nearly $10 million, an increase of 23 per cent from November, 1959, and a decrease of four per cent for December, 1958.

Attends MEA Confab

Ervin Nichols, 45747 W. Ann Arbor Trail, attended a three-day leadership conference at the Michigan Education Association Camp, St. Mary's Lake near Battle Creek, Jan. 22-24.

The annual mid-year leadership workshop was designed to strengthen professional organizations and to brief officers of local units on specific phases of education.

This year's conference highlighted federal support of schools, procedures for developing salary schedules and how the local education unit can be made more effective.

Lt. Gov. John Swainson of Plymouth kicked off the meeting on Jan. 22 with a presentation on Michigan's need for federal support of education.

Remedy for Cold House

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn. — (UPI) — If your house feels cold, check the furniture arrangements. A chair or sofa may be blocking a heating outlet, say heating experts. Lamps, television sets, and other heat-producing devices also can disrupt the heating system if placed too close to the thermostat.

The side of the meat you don't see is even better than the side you see . . . because Kroger packages all meat.

"SUNNYSIDE DOWN"

Every steak, chop and roast is packaged "SUNNYSIDE DOWN" at Kroger. It's purposely packed so the bottom side—the side you don't see—is leaner and better looking than the side you do see!

LET KROGER PROVE IT TO YOU!

When making your selection—your Kroger meat man invites you to select any package from the meat display you would like to inspect—Ring the service button. He will be happy to unwrap the package for your inspection. If the bottom side isn't as lean, and every bit as red and juicy as the top side the store manager will give you the package of meat ABSOLUTELY FREE!
