

SURVEYING THE WORK of Thursday's storm is Dr. Elmore Carney. The storm deposited this particular tree on the Carney residence at 42895 Wilcox Rd. Thursday's winds and rain took out of service over 2,500 telephones in the area and interrupted electrical service for some five hours.

In Plymouth, switchboards at City Hall were jammed with complaints from homeowners with flooded basements and downed trees. Lightning also hit the pumping station fuses which control the flow of water into the City's tanks.

Telephones Down and Out As Winds, Rains Blow

Severe winds and rain, reported, particularly in Thursday evening, took their toll of electric and telephone services in the Plymouth area. Lightning damaged the control circuits at the city's pumping station, holding off the flow of water into the towers for five to eight hours. The Department of Public Works reported that switchboards at City Hall were jammed with calls from homeowners in the city who had flooded basements or fallen trees. DPW workers were authorized to remove only trees which were city property. Flooded basements, in most cases, were the responsibility of the homeowner. Some overloading of the sanitary sewer system was reported, particularly in areas where homes were illegally tied into the system. Leaves dumped in the street by residents after yard work caused overloaded catch basins. Fallen trees on overhanging wires stopped telephone service in the Plymouth area. In some sections of town, trees caused damage to private homes and blocked streets. Circuits were cut out in the Daisy Plant. The DPW said that the rusty water reported in some homes on Friday was not caused by the storm. Michigan Bell Telephone Co. worked most of the night, restoring service to essential phone lines knocked out by high winds or falling trees. The Livonia-Plymouth area listed over 2,500 phones out of service at one time or another. High humidity, which caused condensation inside the terminals, brought about 90 percent of the short circuit trouble. Severity of the problem was kept down by the gas inside cables. The entire southern half of Michigan's Thumb area was affected by the storm. Detroit Edison reported electrical trouble which interrupted the system for five hours. An especially severe storm at 8:30 p.m. cut off power to some 15,000 homes.

City May Borrow $300,000 In Tax Anticipation Notes

City of Plymouth intends to apply for permission to borrow about $300,000 this summer in anticipation of the next tax revenues. City commissioners authorized the City to hire bond counsel to prepare the application forms in correct legal form. The interest rate will be about 2 3/4 percent and the term of the loan about three months, said City Manager Al Glassford. Approval must come from the Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing before the loan can be made. One reason for the "tide over" money is that tax bills may be delayed somewhat because of a contemplated appeal to Lansing over "equalization" procedures here this year. Tax anticipation loans have become not uncommon among municipalities and school districts in recent years, particularly where the fiscal year and tax year fall at different times and there is no substantial surplus in the treasury.

Springdale Sub Asks Help

Corrective action is needed to handle overflow of storm drainage in the relatively new Springdale Subdivision.

SDD Applicant

Back to the table, where it will rest until the applicant states his store location, went a request for an additional SDD (beer and wine retail) license in the City of Plymouth. Matt Patanelli, former University of Michigan athlete and coach, inquired a week ago to see if such a license might be available for a "party store" he hopes to open. He was given tentative assurance that there would be no difficulty if the location was proper and other requirements met. It came to the floor again Monday night but the commissioners wanted to know the location, and no answer was available yet. Patanelli is understood to be looking for a south side site.

everyone agreed at the City Commission meeting, but the exact plan of action isn't ready yet. Residents of the subdivision which lies west of Sheldon Rd. between Ann Arbor Trail and the Western Electric warehouse, appeared Monday night to describe rushes of water which course in from open land to the west and cover lawns, flood some basements, and leave clay and debris on streets. The grade of subdivision streets and catch basins seems to be lower than that of the adjacent open land. City Manager Al Glassford supported the complaints and referred to a letter written in January when the subdivision developers sought a final inspection and release of bond. At that time engineer Herald F. Hamill advised: "Due to the fact that the ground to the west of the subdivision is approximately four feet higher than the finish grade of the streets and rear lot lines of the subdivision, and due to the fact that the ground to west is re-

Detroit Water Contract Has Township Signature

Construction Seen in '61

Construction could begin early next year on the installation of a 16-inch water line from Livonia which when finally completed will at last bring Detroit City water to Plymouth Township. This became apparent last Friday when Township officials here signed their portion of a contract submitted by the Detroit Water Commission. Detroit officials will sign the contract into being shortly, it is indicated.

The actual tap-in to the Detroit-furnished water will take place at an existing source located at Schoolcraft and Eckles Rds. in Livonia. (Livonia's City Council has opposed Plymouth Township tapping into Livonia lines. It might create a legal case ultimately.) Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay was unsure exactly when construction will begin on the water line coming this way. He explained that final engineering plans are now in the making. He estimated that installation of the water line will begin early in 1961.

When the 16-inch trunk line finally reaches Plymouth Township it will enable many residents to cease using their wells. The line will extend down Schoolcraft to the Lake Pointe Village storage tank. Lindsay said the line will then extend to Ball Street and Ann Arbor Rd. near the southern extremity of the Township.

Estimated cost of the installation should range close to $1,000,000, Lindsay said. He added that the final engineering plans are incomplete. The signing of the contract with the Detroit Water Commissioners is part of Plymouth Township's six-year struggle over obtaining new water facilities.

Starting out in 1954 with plans for building a new well-water system, Plymouth Township officials off-and-on spoke of the benefits of tapping into Detroit water lines. Only recently had this become a serious possibility. And to by-standers it appeared that a stubborn Livonia City Council would block this eventually since the tap-in source is located within the confines of the City of Livonia.

Even as late as May 23, the Livonia City Council—for the fifth time in four months—refused to authorize the Plymouth Township hook-in to the water source line at Schoolcraft and Eckles Rd. Both Wayne County officials and those from the City of Detroit applied pressure to the Livonia Council. (Cont. on Page 6)

Furthermore, he warned that all dogs must receive a rabies vaccination before a license will be issued. Independence Day Celebration Plans Get Final Polish Monday

A final planning session for the JayCee-sponsored 4th of July celebration will be held Monday night, June 27. All plans will be consolidated at this 8:30 meeting, at 838 Penman, State Farm Insurance office. Persons or groups interested in signing a contract with the JayCeess are requested to contact John Tripp or Tom Hirzel at GL 3-3640. Also included are groups interested in setting up stands or concessions during the celebration. Any groups who have not contacted the JayCeess must attend the Monday night meeting. The four-day celebration is tentatively planned to begin on Friday, July 1 at 12 noon. Preliminary judging for the Miss Plymouth Contest will be that evening. On Saturday, the grounds will open at 12 noon. The Governor's dinner will be held at 5 p.m. at the Mayflower Hotel. The Minstrel Show, sponsored by the Theatre Guild is scheduled for 7 p.m. on Saturday. Final judging for Miss Plymouth will be held later that night, in conjunction with the teenage dance. Sunday's celebration will center around the fairgrounds which open at noon. The parade will begin at 1 p.m. on Monday, the 4th. 2 p.m. is set for the horse show, after which the VFW Hall will serve chicken dinners. The fireworks are scheduled for 10 p.m. The fairgrounds are located east of Lilley Rd., 1/4 mile north of Ann Arbor Rd. They will begin operations on Thursday, June 30. John Tripp and Tom Hirzel, local State Farm agents, are in charge of the celebration. The State Farm Office is the permanent headquarters for the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Checks Stolen From Company

Plymouth merchants were warned today to watch for a bad check scheme which may locate in the area. The Plymouth Police Department reported that 98 blank checks were stolen from the National Finance Company in Lincoln Park. The checks, yellow in color, were numbered from 2103 to 2200. In the upper left hand corner, was written "National Finance Company, 1790 Dix Road, Lincoln Park." Plymouth police reported the robbery to the Chamber of Commerce in order to help prevent passage of bad checks.

Vending Company To Build in City

Key details were cleared to permit construction of a new "Plymouth Vending Company" building Monday night with City Commission approval of the rezoning of two lots.

They are located between Liberty Street and the C & O railroad tracks and were changed from M-1 (light industrial) to C-2 (commercial). A total of 80 feet frontage is involved. The applicant said he sought the change because M-1 zoning would have required such a great setback from the side lot lines that he would have been able to use only about half the 80 foot width. The building still will set 25 feet from the street. The building will be used for storage and warehousing for machines and supplies. Plymouth Vending is associated with Hopkins-Vending, 11169 Grand River. The two lots are 10 and 11, Amelia Starkweather Addition.

Rev. Rieder Moving to Chicago

The Rev. David L. Rieder, pastor of the Plymouth First Baptist Church, resigned last Sunday to become the Pastor of the First Baptist Church of Mokenca, Illinois, in the Chicago area. Pastor and Mrs. Rieder are natives of Chicago where Mr. Rieder's father was district superintendent of schools for some 30 years. During the pastor's ministry he has led in a building and remodeling program of the church building. The parsonage at 331 Arthur Street has been purchased and extensive gains to the membership have been achieved. National recognition in the Baptist denomination has been received in the field of finance by the local church under his leadership.

Rev. David L. Rieder

The Rieder's will be on vacation in July, after which they will move to the new field to lead in the direction of the 750 member congregation beginning the 2nd Sunday in August. The pastor has been active in the Ministerial Association here and has held many offices and responsibilities in the Michigan Baptist Convention and the American Baptist Convention. Mrs. Rieder is chairman of the division of "family life" for the Baptist area of Michigan. Rieder has held 5 pastorates in addition to serving as assistant pastor for the Wood-

'Moonlighting' Rule Adopted

Personnel regulations for City of Plymouth employees hereafter will contain a new clause aimed to reduce off hours employment, sometimes called "moonlighting." City commissioners heard a report Monday night which indicated that limited regulation is legal, if properly drafted. The City's version will forbid outside jobs which are "incompatible" with city employment or which prevent the employe from doing his regular duties in a "satisfactory and efficient" manner. There is a clause, however, permitting moonlighting under certain conditions. The new regulation will read: "Every regular full time employe of the City of Plymouth, except seasonal, part-time and emergency employes, is prohibited from engaging in regular employment or in a gainful occupation outside his City position which is incompatible with his City employment or which is of such a nature as to prevent him from discharging his regular duties in a satisfactory and efficient manner. "If, however, an employe deems it absolutely necessary to obtain work in addition to his regular City position, he shall first secure the approval of his Department Head and the City Manager.

Telephone Poles Going Down Yet

Telephone poles and cable expansion in this area through city efforts to develop a commercial center. Since this increased growth did not develop, we found it necessary to delay the project in favor of other needs. "We have again reviewed our plans... considering the probability of area growth, as well as other factors, we have scheduled the relocating of our overhead facilities into the existing underground conduit beginning in November, 1960. Construction requires 60-90 days."

Couple Wed in Evening Rites

A double ring ceremony united Jean Shirley Smith and Karl Don Erbacher. The ceremonies were held June 11 at 7:30 p.m. in the Novi Methodist Church with the Rev. George Niven officiating.

Soloist William Williams sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith of Novi and the groom is the son of Mrs. Roy Smitherman and Mr. Walter Erbacher of Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta with a lace-trimmed square neckline. Lace roses were appliqued on the skirt. The sleeves of the gown were accented with gauntlets. The bride wore a silver cross, gift of the groom. She carried a bouquet of white gladioli sprinkled with white sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Matron of honor, Mrs. Donna Engel, sister of the bride, wore a mint green and white dress. Her tiny veil fell from a mint green headpiece and her bouquet was of pink gladioli.

Nancy Roberts, cousin of the bride and Carol Wendland served as bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of pink chiffon with lace tops, accented with front bows and pink nylon chiffon over taffeta underskirts. Their pink cap headpieces were covered with tiny veils and they carried bouquets of mint green gladioli.

The groom chose Robert Ramp of Plymouth for his best man and Robert Smith, brother of the bride, served as head usher. He was assisted by Robert Engel, brother-in-law of the bride, and Norman Thompson, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Jack Smith, mother of the bride, was gowned in a light blue silk print dress with white accessories. Mrs. Smitherman chose a pale blue dress of sheer cotton with puffed sleeves and white accessories. Both mothers wore pink gladioli corsages.

A reception for 150 guests was held in the I.O.O.F. Hall in Novi. Guests were from Novi, Plymouth, Northville, Davisburg, Commerce, Wixom, Detroit and Union Lake.

STANDING PROUDLY at attention are the 15 members of the Women's Drill Team of VFW Mayflower Post 6695. The team, led by Drill Instructor Dolly Bouterse at far right, brought home the second first-place trophy since their formation two years ago. In competition held at Saginaw, the Plymouth group took all honors as well as a $50 prize. A parade and the "Pageant of Drums" also featured the Plymouth ladies, cited as the top women's drill team. Competition centered around morning inspection by the Fourth District.

MWDA Treasurer has been director of the Tri-County group, was elected by the Michigan Well Drillers Association at the 32nd annual convention in Saginaw. The convention ran for two days.

Jerry Seibert Says...

ANY QUESTIONS?

Dear Jerry: My husband and I are taking a lake cruise in July. My big problem is a dress that will be smart for dinner aboard ship, and also fit into our casual life at home. I already have a black silk sheath. I'd like something "pale but practical."

Mrs. L. P. W.

Nothing could be paler, more practical, or more elegant than the white, knitted sheath of Orlon Cantreec, by Kimberly, pictured. It can be dressed up or down with a minimum of accessories and will give beautiful life.

Dear Jerry: I have very thin legs and long, narrow feet. Is there any way to make my legs look plumper and my feet shorter? Are flats or high heels most flattering?

Kay R.

Wear seamless stockings in the palest tones available. (For the same reason that plump girls look better in dark shades: light colors increase size and vice versa.) High heels will be most flattering, as they are to all legs, but shaped, low heels will also be becoming. Low-cut vamps with a rounded throat line will make your feet seem shorter.

Dear Jerry: Is it in good taste for wedding guests to wear black?

Mrs. R. Y. L.

Black is perfectly correct for any social occasion if the style and accessories are suitable. A wedding is a happy occasion. Choose accessories accordingly.

Dear Jerry: I am not fat, but I am so short that it is hard to find clothes that do not make me look "dumpy." I am going to a convention in September and want to plan my wardrobe early. What styles, colors and accessories do you suggest?

No plaids, checks or stripes, particularly stripes. Up and down stripes may give an effect of height in "optical illusion" charts, but they do dreadful things to plump figures. (Possibly because the figure doesn't go straight up and down, but curves.) No prints except geometrics that blend together. Dark colors as basic colors, with bright colors in accessories only. Skirts should be "easy." Not a tight sheath, or a full skirt that billows out from the waistline. (It won't make you look smaller by "hiding" you.) A matching dress and jacket is usually more becoming than a suit. But never a print dress with solid color jacket. Even though the colors match it will cut your height. Wing-shaped earrings with upward lines. The new princess length necklace should be most becoming.

Ann Arbor Scene Of Baker Wedding

A wedding ceremony at St. Thomas Church in Ann Arbor united Christine Baker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Baker of Fayetteville, Ark., and Mr. Sam Tramontin. The services took place at 11 a.m. on Saturday, June 11.

Christine, a former Plymouth resident with her parents, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white silk organza with a full length chapel train. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis surrounding a white orchid.

The groom's sister served as matron of honor. Mrs. Arthur Rogers wore yellow silk organza and carried a bouquet of colonial yellow chrysanthemums. Serving as bridesmaids were Sydnee Van Aken of Plymouth, Judy Walsh of Plymouth and Carolyn Hill of Fayetteville. Their dresses were yellow and green silk organza and they carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Renee Rodriguez was the flower girl. Ring bearer was Mike Tramontin.

Joe Tramontin, brother of the groom, assisted as best man. Ushers were Dennis Baker, Arthur Rogers, Paul and John Tramontin.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of blue silk with matching accessories. Mrs. Tramontin wore a dress of beige shantung. Both mothers carried corsages of baby pink rosebuds.

A reception, held in the Ann Arbor VFW Hall, was attended by over 200 guests from Ann Arbor, Plymouth, Saline, Detroit, Livonia, Dearborn, Dallas, Tex., Arkansas and Kentucky.

The couple honeymooned in Northern Michigan.

A graduate of St. Thomas High School in Ann Arbor, the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tramontin of Ann Arbor. The bride attended Plymouth High and Fayetteville High Schools, graduating from the latter. She also attended Michigan State University.

The couple will make their home at 306 Spring in Ann Arbor.

DRESS REHEARSALS are under way for the dance recital to be presented by the Plymouth School of Dance. The recital, "Alice in Wonderland," will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Plymouth High School Auditorium on Thurs-

BGR Names Howard Toll As Personnel Manager

Howard J. Toll has been appointed personnel manager of the B-G-R Division of Associated Spring Corp., according to an announcement by Charles J. Stofko, Division general manager.

For the past three years, Toll was director of industrial relations of the Peninsular Metal Products Corp., Detroit. In this capacity he was responsible for the direction of all personnel, labor relations, wage and salary administration, pensions, insurance, safety, medical and security functions.

Prior to this he was a staff representative in the industrial relations department of American Motors Corp.; assistant director of labor relations at Rco Motors, Inc.; assistant personnel director of Federal-Mogul Corp.; director of personnel and labor relations at Michigan Broach Co.; and employment manager at two Chrysler Corp. plants.

Toll is a native of Michigan, and attended Capital Academy and Capital University in Columbus, O. He was graduated from Wayne State University, holds a bachelor of laws degree from Wayne State University Law School in Detroit, and was admitted to the Michigan bar in 1935. Extension courses in personnel and industrial relations helped strengthen his knowledge in the field of industrial relations.

Toll has been a resident of Grosse Pointe, Mich., for 20 years and is planning to relocate in the Plymouth area with his wife and daughter. Associated Spring Corp. is the world's leading manufacturer of precision mechanical springs.

Newlyweds To Live In Plymouth

Patricia R. Krump, niece of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Lewis of Plymouth, became the bride of Donald L. McRannolds, son of the J. C. McRannolds of Warren Rd. in Plymouth. Ceremonies were held May 27 at 7:30 in Hope Chapel Church. The Rev. James A. Lange officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, wore a waltz-length dress in the princess style. The dress was of dotted Dacron with white taffeta and a fingertip veil of white, held in place by a cap of seed pearls. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Maid of honor was Betty Swick. She wore a waltz-length afternoon dress of orchid Dacron batiste. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink carnations and roses.

Assisting the groom as best man was Bud Swick. Ushers were Gerald Lewis and Roy Becker.

Mrs. Lewis chose a sheath of beige cotton eyelet with matching accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations and rose buds. The mother of the groom wore a blue dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of carnations and roses. A reception for 50 guests was given at the Lewis home.

Guests were from Plymouth, Northville, Detroit, Dearborn, Pontiac, Wayne and Garden City.

The couple, both graduates of Plymouth High, spent their honeymoon in Northern Michigan. They will live at 38751 Warren Rd. in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald L. McRannolds

Beverly Harrison Weds

The First Baptist Church of Wayne was the scene of the June 4 wedding of Beverly Jean Harrison and Carl Dean Amann. Beverly is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison of Lotz Rd. and Carl is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Amann of Chester St. Garden City. Banked palms and vases of white gladioli and chrysanthemums added to a beautiful nuptial ceremony. Officiating at the double ring rite was Rev. Irving Rose of the First Baptist Church, Garden City.

Wedding selections were played by June McGillivray of Waukegan, Ill., a close friend of the bride, who served as accompanist for the service. Selections including a Swedish hymn "Day by Day" and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by the bridegroom's fellow members of the male chorus of Bethel College during the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose chantly lace for her formal bridal gown, the scalloped edge of the neckline of the form-fitting bodice trimmed with a scattering of seed pearls and sequins. The graceful folds of the skirts were draped over a hoop and tapered to a chapel train. Seed pearls and sequins trimmed the crown holding the fingertip veil. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and lilies of the valley, centered with a white orchid and accented by tiny coral pinocchio roses.

Following the exchange of wedding rings, the bride saluted her husband with the strains of "I Love Thee" sung in a lovely soprano voice.

Lauren Leafblad of Waukegan, Ill., served as her friend's maid of honor, wearing a gown of net and taffeta with a chiffon overskirt, all in a clear coral shade. Completing her ensemble was a matching coral picture hat and a single strand of pearls, gift of the bride. Her flowers were in a colonial bouquet of coral roses centered with white feathered carnations.

Bridesmaids were Connie Beller of Plymouth, Barbara Broit of Garden City, and Sandra Kaufman of Port Huron, cousin of the bride. The bridesmaids wore identical outfits in coral, reversing the colors in their bouquets. Preceding the bride was flower girl Cheryl Amann, niece of the groom. She was a miniature copy of the senior attendant and carried a basket of rose petals.

Accompanying the flower girl was Harry Harrison, brother of the bride, bearing the rings on a lace edged white satin pillow.

Drum wheat and rye are being crossed experimentally in an attempt to produce a new cereal crop.

Bruce Leafblad of Waukegan served as best man for the groom and groomsmen were Rich Massey of Oakland, Calif., Loren Perry of Lake Orion, cousin of the bride and Al Larson of Chicago. Ushers were Jerry Harrison, brother of the bride; Neil Amann, brother of the groom, Keith Nuncley, Jerry Robertson and Barry Osborne.

Mrs. Harrison selected a lace gown in a rose shade for her daughter's wedding, worn with clear plastic shoes and bag. A matching hat and a lavender orchid completed her ensemble.

Mrs. Amann chose a blue floral print for her gown, worn with white accessories, complimented by a pink rose and carnation corsage.

The couple left for a week-long honeymoon in Northern Michigan, following a reception for 250 held at the Wayne VFW Hall, immediately following the wedding. The new Mrs. Amann wore a smartly styled white linen suit with black patent accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Amann graduated from Plymouth and attended Bethel College. Until the time of her marriage, she was employed at Ridgewood Hospital, Ypsilanti. Mr. and Mrs. Amann will reside in St. Paul, Minn., and both will be employed at St. John's Hospital in St. Paul.

PLAYING DOCTOR is for CHILDREN ONLY

It is foolhardy to "play doctor" and attempt to diagnose persistent symptoms and to prescribe your own treatment for them. For symptoms that may seem trivial to you may indicate something seriously wrong to a physician. On the other hand, symptoms that seem frightening to you, may be trivial.

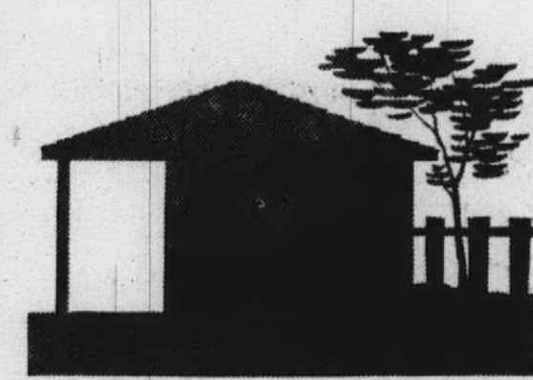

Be sure! Be safe! When you have cause to be concerned about your health, get the professional advice of your doctor without delay. He alone is qualified to say what is wrong and how it should be treated.

THE MAIL ATTITUDE

BY PAUL CHANDLER

A good reader just telephoned to wonder why this newspaper had neglected so far to comment upon the proposed State constitutional convention, a deep matter which is swirling around politics on all levels.

Facts and Opinions yearns for the conventions, on almost any kind of terms, thoroughly, desperately and hopefully. We have faith in the American public and, more than that, we believe in the value of sober citizen consideration of heavy problems, well-publicized, with plenty of platform for debate.

From such precious hours, all too few in our modern political world, comes thinking and action. It is democracy.

We simply do not comprehend when public officials (Governor-candidate John Swainson is one, at the moment) say that a convention should not be held because the delegates who arrive there "would not truly represent the people."

If such a charge should be valid, how does Swainson or anyone else hope to correct the error? By filibustering long enough so that only "good guys" arrive as delegates 20 or 30 years from now?

A permanent way to achieve the cure is to get public attention riveted on the wrongs and the wrong-doers, if they exist. One convention might conceivably be "captured" by conservatives or radicals, or vegetarians, but one would be all, if it wasn't the public's general desire.

Once detected, the culprits would soon be tossed upon their tin ears, sooner or later, and roughly. From our particular lighthouse, a state convention looms important to those in the suburbs for two large reasons:

1. Our hopeless inflating property tax system must be straightened out before every home and every unit of government goes completely broke ... and mad.

2. The people of our suburbs do not have adequate representation in government because of the old "district" system. We send our tax dollars to the distances but we don't get them back in ratio; our cries fill the air from a million throats locally, but in Lansing they are heard only from a lonely single senator.

Among many things we never realized, one is that Evans Products has three other plants in Michigan, aside from its valued facility in Plymouth.

A Haskelite Manufacturing division in Grand Rapids produces laminated building panels, doors, insulated truck bodies, metal-faced plywood, and insulated shipping containers.

In West Branch, up in the middle of the state, a factory turns out tricycles and children's vehicles. And a plant activated in Gagetown, Mich. in 1959 manufactures various types of metal bracing devices for in-plant use. Evans is ranked among the 500 largest U.S. Industrial Corporations. It has a big division on the west coast.

This information is offered today in the interest of better public appreciation of our industrial neighbors. None of us know enough about these big and important taxpayers who live right next door.

For Plymouth old-timers who remember Livonia as sort of a wide meadowland on the outskirts of Plymouth, it will come as a shock to realize that the City of Livonia this week is celebrating its 10th Anniversary as a full-blown independent city.

The calendar flies by unnoticed sometimes. There are 70,000 people—17,500 homes—inside that sleepy old Township today.

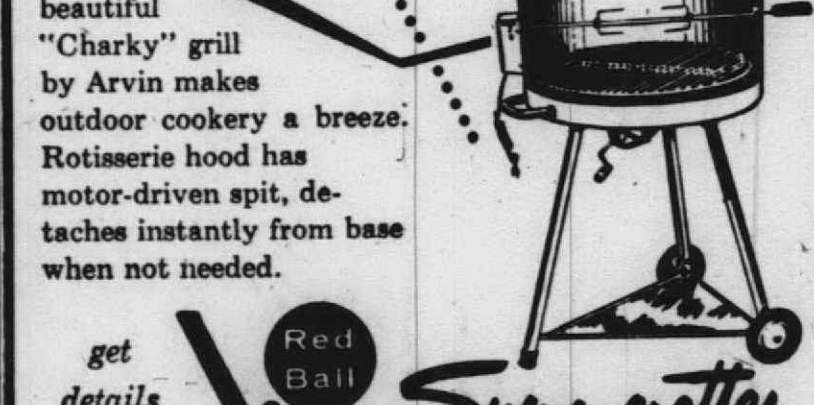

Livonia residents have been indulging in much ceremony and special events to celebrate the birthday.

The Mail has gathered some historical pictures and narrative of the former days which it will print in future issues to bring back images of old Livonia.

Speaking of memories—remember when Plymouth was full of apprehensive people who wondered—and cared—what would happen to the abandoned Daisy Manufacturing Co. buildings and grounds? And all the plans and suggestions that were made then?

It's been two years now; 24 months of accruing rust and depreciation.

cil urging approval of the flow of Detroit City water into Plymouth Township via the Livonia lines.

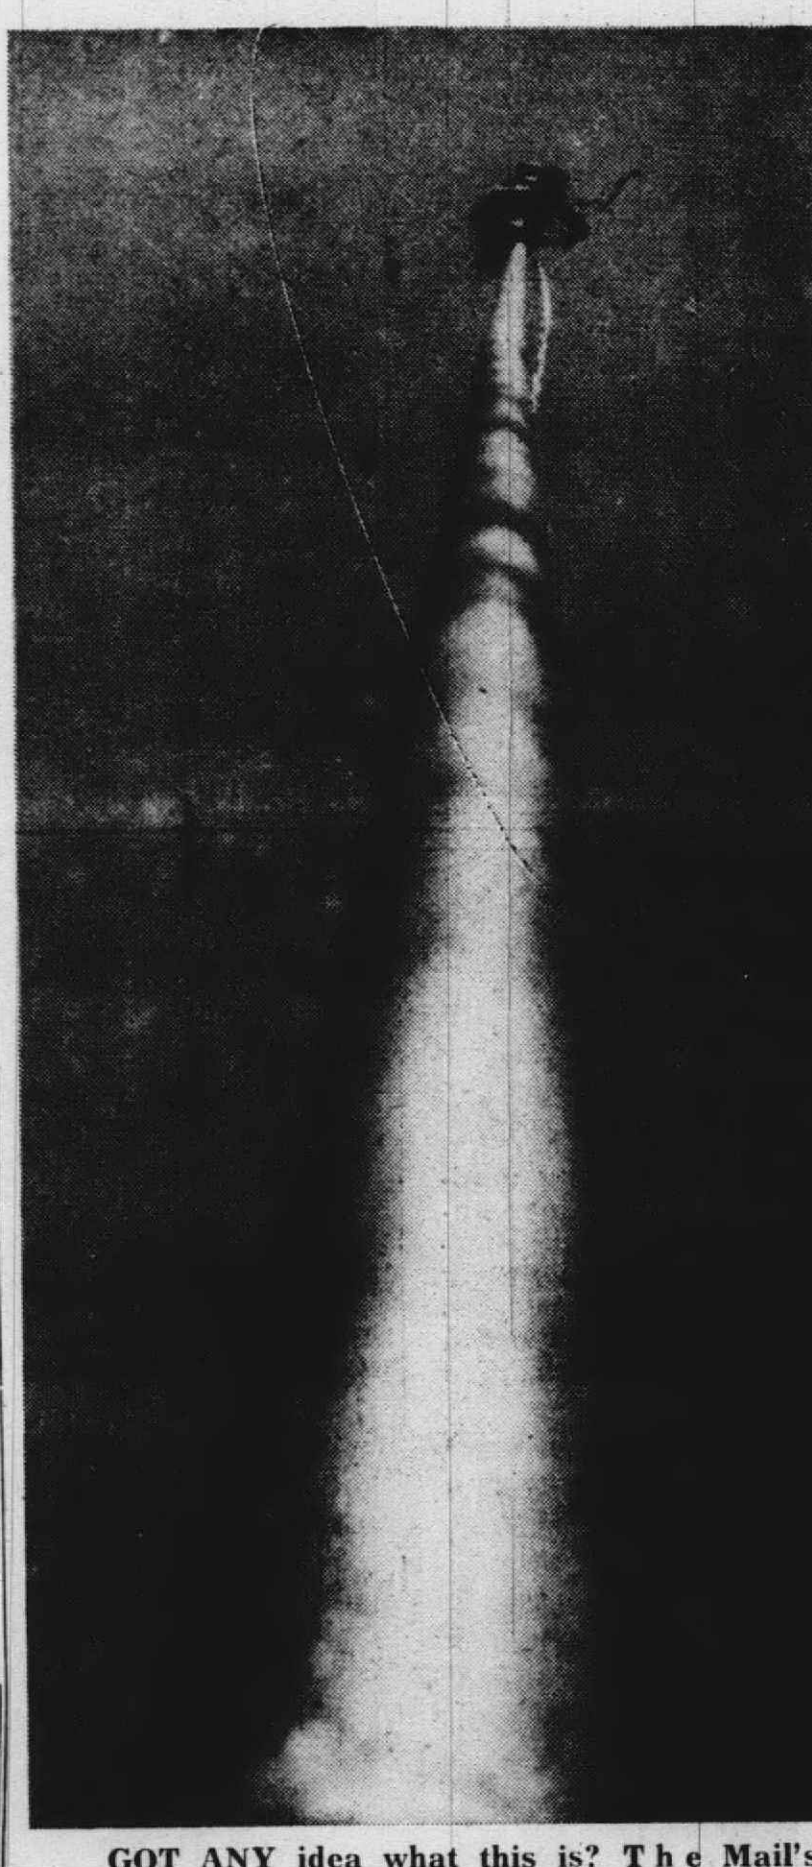

However, it is possible that the Livonia Councilmen did not have real authority to prevent the Plymouth Township tap-in. The refusals had been made only to point out the concern at Livonia City Hall over that city's water situation.

Livonia officials were not convinced that the new water lines down Schoolcraft and down Eight Mile would alleviate past summer shortages there.

Earlier this month, Livonia City Council was notified by letter from the Detroit Water Commissioners that the contract was about to be entered into with Plymouth Township.

SURROUNDED BY EAGER Little Leaguers, 'Lefty' Wilson and Jerry Smith award prizes to winners in the drawings held during the Little League outing, Saturday, June 18. The picnic-and-prize-session was held at the Elks Club for about 250 Little Leaguers and families. Wilson is the trainer for the Detroit Red Wings and Smith is captain of the University of Michigan football team.

GOT ANY idea what this is? The Mail's photographer was wandering through Kellogg Park last Friday and noticed everyone looking up in the air. The cameraman looked up, too, and found a painter at the very top of the park's 45-foot flagpole. The job provided an hour's worth of free entertainment for numerous passers-by.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Editor: On the front page of the Free Press (June 6) was an article by Billy Graham which expresses precisely the way I feel about this LITTLE matter of swimming in the nude which has been uncovered and denounced before our school board.

Our national leaders are much concerned about the "moral decay" of our nation. I would like to quote just part of his article: "Regardless of the outward appearance of prosperity within the corporate life of America today, there is a moral and spiritual cancer which can ultimately lead to our destruction unless the disease is treated. Of the prophets of Israel he said: They had the courage to stand for moral right—alone if necessary—we need men who will live up to their idealism and who refuse to be MORAL COPYCATS... We have become reluctant to follow a course that isn't popular, even if deep inside we KNOW IT IS RIGHT. I won't buck the tide of popular opinion, for I would rather be liked than to be right... We must recapture our moral strength and our Faith in God... morals have become irrelevant, or relative. We excuse our immorality by saying, 'Everybody is doing it.' America can rise no higher than the individuals who walk her streets, conduct her business, teach her young people, make her homes and attend her churches. (underline)"

This moral decay has a beginning, and the beginning is always small—it takes many forms. It's just about time our Christian moms and dads found courage enough to oppose some of these things our youth are being taught, and as Mr. Graham says, stand alone if we must. If we teach it is wrong in the home, on the street, everywhere else, then it's wrong in the pool also. It is dishonoring our bodies, and certainly cannot be done to honor and glorify God. Why do we send missionaries to the foreign field to tell the heathen of God's love for him, and to put clothing upon his naked body if we don't even practice what we preach.

It doesn't seem to matter any more if a thing is right or wrong—we do things because they are the accepted thing to do. We're moral

Elected To State Post

Two Plymouth residents have been elected to offices at the 23rd Annual Wolverine Boy's State session in East Lansing. Charles D. Bowers of 437 Blunk has been elected city treasurer of Harrison City, and Larry Heidt of Curtis Rd. is city councilman of Polk City.

The American Legion, Department of Michigan, and its 70,000 members sponsor the patriotic program, which is intended to help teenagers develop leadership qualities, learn the responsibilities necessary for good citizenship, and gain a greater understanding and respect for the Democratic form of government.

Over 1,000 boys—considered the cream of Michigan's high schoolers—are participating in this eight-day (June 16-23) "learn by doing" course in city, county and state government.

Under the guidance of skilled political science instructors, the boys elect city, county and state officers; learn how to draft bills, enact them into laws, then enforce and administer the laws after they are passed.

In addition, the youths attend lectures on subjects covering such widely scattered fields as criminal and civil law, conservation, traffic safety, juvenile delinquency and law enforcement.

The strictly timed schedule also calls for a full program of athletics and cultural opportunities.

running down from the next door neighbor's yard. Glassford also suggested that improvement was needed in the center "island" which flanks the east side of the subdivision. Trees there are dying and the manager suggested the mall should be grass seeded or planted with ivy.

A letter was sent by the City to the builder last month stating that he subdivision bond would not be released until action was taken upon several matters in Hamill's January report. "Since the communication was sent out, we have received no answer from you, nor have we noted any efforts to correct the deficiencies indicated," said the city letter.

There are many ways for American industry to foster the ideals of the free enterprise economic system, and Junior Achievement is one.

Domainco Co., manufacturer of costume jewelry and a new product of R & L, a desk lamp using the 200 Type Hand Telephone Set as its base) operates in the Plymouth Business Center. Eighteen teenagers from Plymouth and Livonia high schools run and manage Domainco Co. It is sponsored by Michigan Distributing House, Western Electric.

In February Domainco showed its wares to parents and visitors at an Open House held in conjunction with J.A. Week. This was the first time people in this area witnessed the activities and products of the miniature corporations.

Domainco recently received special recognition by Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan for its quality products. In the April "Company of the Month" Contest it won first prize in the Plymouth Business Center. Domainco was also awarded honorable mention in the jewelry category of the Industry Award Contest.

To allow the future tycoons of industry to see American Industry at first glance the Michigan House played host to the members of Domainco Co. A tour of the shop warehouse and general office followed by a meeting with the Manager and his staff were highlights of the visit.

One more day of rain during June and we'll swear that the "Noah" bit has taken over the world stage. Damp weather has its place on a sporadic basis, but for a steady diet ye old inebriated weather gets to be a bit of a "sticky wicket."

Rain or shine the Northland Playhouse opened last week with the vivacious, pert, dancing-singing star Gretchen Wyler prancing delightfully through "Red-head." The songs in "Red-head" will never make the hit parade. And the book or story of the play will never send you out of the theater cheering. However, the dancing was something to rave about for a paragraph or two.

Merely thinking about the high-kicking, twisting, active production numbers in "Red-head" could make a person exhausted. Gwen Verdon who originated the role on Broadway and who is currently doing the part on the West Coast rose to musical comedy stardom via the dancing ranks. It was rumored that Herbert and Dorothy Fields fashioned this musical especially for Gwen. Gretchen did all right by the part though. Her performance was flawless in all departments. Her radiant red hair gave off figurative sparks that matched the glowing performance she gave.

Speaking of the Fields, Herbert and Dorothy, their earlier show, "Annie Get Your Gun" was a more perfect blend of comic lines, whistle-able tunes, and show-stopping dances. "Annie" will be on view next week over at the Lydia Mendelsohn Theater in Ann Arbor. Might still be time for you to pick up some tickets for this production and the following four summer productions.

Old George usually finds the quality quite high since the graduate students are back for the summer to do advanced work. In fact, I always marvel at the professional competency of the University of Michigan drama productions during the warmish days of June and July. "Annie" starts aiming her gun at the audiences in Ann Arbor on Wednesday night and continues through Saturday.

Vivian Vance opened last evening at the Northland Playhouse in "There Goes The Bride." Her TV fame as Ethel Mertz in "I Love Lucy" has pushed her to the top in the popularity polls. I recall seeing Vivian in the original cast of "Voice of the Turtle" right after World War II. Fooled you... I'll bet you thought I was going to say World War I.

"There Goes The Bride" is the first comedy of the season out at Northland Playhouse. As I indicated in an earlier column, this play was originally produced on Broadway under the title of "Here Today." Can't quite understand the reason for the change in title. Wonder if Ken Swartz, Northland's host, felt some TV fans might feel the "Bride" title has more the flavor of an "I Love Lucy" episode. Well, check for yourselves and let me know your conclusions.

Nankin Mills, the fastest growing southwestern part of Livonia, is doing one of my favorite plays, "The Fifth Season." The Nankin Mills Players do their plays in the multi-purpose room of the Nankin Mills Elementary School... just off Ann Arbor Trail, a couple of blocks past Farmington Rd. Drop over and see them this Friday and Saturday. "Room At The Top" plans a three day stay this weekend at the Penn Theatre. Here is an adult picture. The dialogue pulls no punches, a spade is called an earthly spade, believe me. None of the realistic situations have received the usual Hollywood watering-down process. Keep the kiddies home in front of the "gawk box," provide them with some goodies, and tell them you're going out for the evening. You'll enjoy the show if you're a realist and believe that life has many facets to it—not all of life's sides shine with goodness and cloying sweetness. Many times the other side of the coin or the skeleton in the closet has a shoddiness to it that we'd like to avoid but we can't. In brief, "Room At The Top" treats the subject of man's desire for material gains in bold, broad strokes. You can't miss or mistake the message after you've seen this provocative British film.

By the way, Broadway is back in business again. The ten day strike cost the producers along the Main Stem a cool million and a half in theater grosses. And the actors missed those paychecks that added up to $200,000. The actors were the victors when their pay demands being met and a pension fund finally being established. Another strike or two and they'll have their wages up to where it might be profitable to be an actor. The average actor still makes only about $4,000 a year. First of all, you have about 9,000 members of the Actors' Union with only a couple of thousand actually working. It's the rare exception when a show runs over thirty weeks. Figure it out with a good, sharp pencil and you'll see that all the exciting glamour hardly covers those long weeks of waiting for a part and no doubt, ending up in a play that runs for a month. The world of theater has a festive air about it, but it's a cruel, demanding life underneath the tawdry surface of its scented make-up.

Let's not forget about the outstanding Cinerama attraction at the Music Hall in Detroit—"Windjammer." Summer season is a wonderful time to go on a cruise. If you're a bit light in the pocket-book, you'll realize that a movie ticket is the best and most economical way to take a summer cruise. And what a trip it is on that fabulous four-masted schooner. The slosh of the water, the lure of the Islands, and the soothing musical score make the trip a memorable one. Hope you can get down to the Music Hall for your special "Windjammer" ride. Cinerama puts you into the center of action and suddenly you're in the fourth dimension of the film world.

For your summer reading... let me recommend: "Jim Fisk" by W. A. Swanberg and "May This House Be Safe From Tigers" by Alex King. Next week I'd like to give you my reactions to both of these books. So... now that it's intermission time I'll expect you to move on by the orangeade stand and head for the outer lobby to catch up on your assigned reading for the week.

Removing Stains From Fabric

BY ROSELLA M. BANNISTER
Wayne County Extension Agent, Home Economics

Ink spots, grease spots, scorch spots and rust—these are a few of the common household stains that puzzle and vex homemakers. Here are some tips for the homemaker — chemist who wants to tackle stain removal at home.

(1) Act quickly. Many stains that can be removed easily when fresh are almost impossible to remove later, especially if they've been set by heat.

(2) Identify the stain when possible. Then select a stain removal method which will not harm the fabric. Test the remover first on a hidden part of the fabric — the seam, the hem, or inside a pocket.

(3) Do not use chlorine bleaches on fabrics that contain silk or wool, or on a fabric with a special finish unless the fabric manufacturer states on the label that chlorine bleach is safe. These fabrics may retain the chlorine and turn bright yellow. If this yellowing has already occurred, it can be removed by using a commercial color remover such as that used before dyeing fabrics.

To remove ink stains: Let stain soak in cool water for 30 minutes or longer. Then rub a liquid detergent, full strength, into the stain, and rinse. If stain remains, use a chlorine or sodium perborate bleach or hydrogen peroxide. Old ink stains are difficult to remove.

To remove grease spots: Regular washing removes some grease stains. Some are removed by liquid detergent. Often you'll need to use a grease solvent such as carbon tetrachloride and petroleum naphthas, available at most drug stores.

To remove scorch spots: Severe scorch cannot be removed because it damages the fabric. To remove light scorch soak stain in cold water, treat with detergent, then use a bleach. Use fine sandpaper on heavy fabrics to remove damaged fibers.

By PRESTON MCGRAW

"Good music" is an expression you hear a great deal of these days and particularly in the connection of "good music radio station." It almost has come to mean anything except rock 'n' roll. But putting your bought time to put "good music" on "good music radio stations," what would you single out as good music.

Clifford P. Shearer, marketing director of the Rek-O-Kut Co., Corona, N.Y., had to answer the question. Rek-O-Kut's "good music" programs have been more than ordinarily successful. "Interlude in Stereo," a one-hour, five-night-a-week show on KFAB FM and AM, Los Angeles, received the Los Angeles Times' Radio Beat award as the best classical music program of 1959. Classical music, however, doesn't necessarily become a synonym for good music in Shearer's dictionary.

"Good music, in our opinion and for our purposes, is any music that demands high standards of performance and reproduction for fullest appreciation, and it doesn't trade on just a snappy beat, coy lyrics or a current fad or gimmick," he said.

I don't mind saying that classical music is our mainstay and that our listeners heartily approve. Rock 'n' roll is out with us and so is the lesser sweet stuff and commercial p.p. But we don't by any means bypass jazz.

"Dixieland, progressive and blues make regular appearances on our programs; so do show tunes and folk songs. Our main emphasis, however, is on the classics."

Insofar as the programming is concerned, Rek-O-Kut follows a hands-off policy. It assumes that the program director and his staff will select the appropriate music, that the music sources are of the highest quality and that equipment standards are strictly enforced.

In this connection, the company does not insist that the radio stations it buys time on use the turntables or pickup arms it makes.

The company's prime target is the good music enthusiast, who, while at home, prefers the higher fidelity that FM affords. It picked FM and AM in Los Angeles because listeners there spend so much time in automobiles and AM is necessary to get to the motorists.

Rek-O-Kut's "Starlight Concert" over KPEN, San Francisco, is all FM. KPEN broadcasts the program 8 to 9:30 p.m., Monday through Friday.

The American Broadcasting Company's WABC-FM New York, broadcasts a program from 9 to 10 p.m. Monday, Wednesday and Friday, covering a radius of 75 miles around Manhattan.

The company is considering sponsoring "good music" programs in the Boston and Miami areas.

"Tips for Teens"

Q.—"Dear Elinor: When a woman sitting down is introduced to another woman who is standing, is it proper for the woman sitting down to stand up? When is it proper for a woman to stand up when introduced?"

Ans.—It is proper for the woman who is sitting down to stand up when introduced if the other woman (already standing) is older or if they are going to chat awhile because it's easier to talk with both standing. But she doesn't have to stand up if the woman (already standing) is her own age or younger or if she is merely passing by with a friend and doesn't stop to talk. It is not proper for a woman to stand when introduced to a man or boy unless the man is much older or a distinguished personage and she stands up to show respect.

Q.—"Dear Miss Williams: I am 16 and go steady with a boy of the same age. He has asked me what I want for my birthday present. I don't know what to say. Is it proper to tell him what I want?"

Ans.—There's no harm in helping him with a hint or two when he has asked for it (it's not always easy to know what gift will make a hit with a girl or boyfriend). Be sure that you give him more than one suggestion, so he'll have a choice, and that they are moderately priced for his allowance. Clothes are not proper as boy-girl gifts. But you could suggest things like this: a record, a book, inexpensive costume jewelry (necklace or bracelet), perfume (not too expensive), cologne, note-paper, etc.

A study of some dogs raised in the smog area of Los Angeles County revealed that one of them suffered the expected respiratory tract illnesses.

Plymouth Youths At Boys' State

Arthur W. Nelson, 481 N. Sheldon, Plymouth, today is a Circuit Court Commissioner of Bagley County in a mythical "51st State," formed at the 23rd annual Wolverine Boys' State, a government education program now underway on the Michigan State University campus at East Lansing.

And John M. Spigarelli, 1300 Beck, Plymouth, is City Councilman of Hayes City in the "51st State."

The American Legion, Department of Michigan, and its 70,000 members sponsor the patriotic program, which is intended to help teenagers develop leadership qualities, learn the responsibilities necessary for good citizenship, and gain a greater understanding and respect for the Democratic form of government.

Over 1,000 boys — considered the cream of Michigan's high schoolers — are participating in this eight-day "learn by doing" course in city, county and state government.

Under the guidance of skilled political science instructors, the boys elect city, county and state officers; learn how to draft bills, enact them into laws, then enforce and administer the laws after they are passed.

In addition, the youths attend lectures on subjects covering such widely scattered fields as criminal and civil law, conservation, traffic safety, juvenile delinquency and law enforcement.

The strictly timed schedule also calls for a full program of athletics and cultural opportunities.

ST. MARY Hospital was the recipient of books for their new library donated by the Friends of the Livonia Public Library, which had conducted a drive for the Livonia Library. After placing 1,500 books on the Livonia Library shelves and conducting three used book sales, the remaining books were turned over to the hospital. Shown, from left, are Helen Erdody and June Randall of the Friends of the Library; Sister M. Current Events Prize Goes to Robert Wall

NEW YORK — Robert Wall, a student in Miss Gertrude K. Fiegel's class at Plymouth High School has been named a winner in Time Magazine's 24th annual Current Affairs Contest.

Time's Current Affairs test, given this year to more than 150,000 college and high school students in the U.S. and Canada, consists of 100 questions on national and foreign affairs. Included are such categories as business, sports, entertainment, science, religion, literature, journalism, education and a special review section of the past decade.

Top scorers in each of the more than 2,000 classes taking the Time test receive a certificate from The Weekly Newsmagazine and have a choice of either a world globe or a book from a specially selected list.

On Tuesday, June 14 at the home of Mrs. Grace Roberts, a group of women gathered to say (in their words) goodbye to a swell all-around gal. The guest of honor was Mrs. Irene Thorpe. The Thorpe family have been our Township neighbors on Cherry Hill Rd. for a long time and are now moving to Sheldon Rd. in Plymouth. Both Mr. and Mrs. John Thorpe have been active members of our community and have both spent much time in Scout work.

On hand to wish them luck in their new home were Mrs. Grace Roberts, Mrs. Pearl Fink, Mrs. Marion Russell, Mrs. Hazel Frye, Mrs. Alice Lefler, Mrs. Alice Armstrong, Mrs. Norine Ferrari, Mrs. Ruth Wiles, Mrs. Katherine Towshack, Mrs. Jean Campbell, Mrs. Dolores Voss, Mrs. Marion Williams, Mrs. Lonita Avery, Mrs. Betty Lea, Mrs. Reva Lewis, Mrs. Mary Glover.

Instead of a gift from each lady, the girls got together and gave her money, which was presented to Irene in a card so she could choose her own gift for her new home. We would like to add our wishes for much happiness in their new home. A lunch was served of cake, Jello, and coffee. Mrs. Thorpe hates to leave Canton, but then she won't be too far away, so she will probably visit often.

Beverly Jean Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Harrison of Lotz Rd. became the bride of Carl D. Amann, June 4. Mrs. Harry

Collegians Work At Odd Jobs

When Williams College students scatter for the summer they go in a variety of directions including up . . . and down.

Assistant Dean Henry N. Flynt Jr. got interested in the peculiarities of the summer employment of the students and found that their jobs range from flying to grave digging, bottling to geology, walking to diving, mining to skindiving, and some 300 in-between chores.

Flynt determined that last year nearly 900 of the 1,100 Williams students held summer jobs. Their total earnings hit $471,224 and they are expected, for the first time, to crack the half-million dollar mark this summer.

As different as the jobs are the summer sites.

One student is working this summer for a brewery in Germany as a translator. Another is expected to teach farm techniques in Israel. One is teaching the Navajos. Another is a skindiver in the West Indies.

Missing from last year's widely traveled workers are the speed boat test driver in Sweden, the miner who worked in Chile, the student who worked in a motion picture studio in California, and another employed in a similar post at Paris.

But among those scheduled resuming summer jobs are a mathematician at the Redstone Arsenal, a drawbridge attendant, bridge (cards) instructor, racetrack guard, piano teacher, ambulance driver, lifeguard, broker's aid, bartender, boathand, hatchery attendant, sailing instructor, cowhand and locksmith.

Most important, to the students at least, is who cleans up the most on the summer-time job. Is it the skindiver in the West Indies, the flyer, the German brewery translator?

Not quite right. A taxi driver took top honors last year with a vacation collection of $2,280.

Honor Newburg Scouts

By Mrs. Emil LaPointe
GL 3-3797

Well, it was Court of Honor time again, a quarterly event for Boy Scout Troop 271 of St. Michael's Catholic Church and, as per usual; it was an event noteworthy of attention by parents and interested adults. Before a fair number of assembled parents, the Court was opened with the presentation of the colors, the pledge to the flag and the reciting of the Scout Law, led by Eagle Scout Bruce LaPointe, Ford C. Rea, scoutmaster, then duly invested the following tenderfoot Scouts: James McHugh, Michael Mortens, Christopher Wendrick, Ronald Christian, Robert Lark, Theodore Gozdzialski, Clayton Farrell and Christopher Dahill, who, in turn, were singularly congratulated and welcomed into the troop by the members of the troop committee.

Mr. A. Adams of the Sunset District, was present and awarded the troop their charter for the coming year as well as an award for having 40 percent of the boys first class rank or above and also a certificate of merit for 100 percent subscription to Boys' Life, the Scout magazine. The official welcome to the assembly was given by troop committee chairman, William Davis, Sr. and the Court of Honor was officially open. Robert Bennett awarded Daniel West, Michael McNece, Richard Miller, Theodore Gozdzialski, Warren Williamson and James McHugh their second class advancement and each of the boy's mothers were given a similar pin in miniature as a tribute to their efforts.

Jack Trombley, Brian Swain, Stephen Ott, Kevin Dahill and George Bachelor were given their first class advancement by Emil LaPointe with mothers being honored with small pins symbolic of second class rank. Jack Schickel gave the following boys their merit badges: Kevin Dahill, receiving five; Bruce LaPointe, receiving four; William Davis, Jr., receiving two; Edward Nowacki, receiving two; Robert McHugh, receiving one; Richard Ott, receiving five; David LaPointe, receiving one and Stephen Ott receiving one. The Star Scout rank, next advancement along the trail of the Eagle was given to Brent Eggleston and Richard Ott by John Krygier, Sr. Service awards and perfect attendance awards were given by William Davis, Sr., to these boys: George Bachelor, Patrick White, Richard Miller and Daniel Szauba for one year service; Peter Lynch for two years of service and Daniel Darrab, Brent Eggleston and Edward Nowacki for three years of service. One year perfect attendance awards were given to William McNece, Leonard Koziol and William Coese; two year perfect attendance to William Davis, Jr. and Robert McHugh and three year perfect attendance to David LaPointe and Richard Powell.

In keeping with tradition of this troop, Scoutmaster Rea spoke briefly concerning the selection of the outstanding Junior leader award and the outstanding patrol leader award. The boys receiving these honors were David LaPointe, Richard Powell and Edward Nowacki. Powell and LaPointe were awarded Bronze medals and a week free at Boy Scout summer camp. Nowacki was given a gold medal and awarded two weeks free at summer camp.

The outstanding patrol leader was Brent Eggleston who was given a gold medal and a patrol cook kit for this achievement. Bill Powell, assistant scoutmaster, presented troop warrants to David LaPointe for Senior Patrol Leader and quartermaster; to William Davis, Jr. for assistant senior patrol leader; to Marvin Swain for librarian and to Michael Rea for junior examiner. To Brent Eggleston and Richard Ott for patrol leaders.

The Gold Palm, which symbolizes the addition of ten more merit badges above the rank of Eagle and while not as significant as the awarding of Eagle, none the less, involves a great deal of work and concentrated effort, was awarded to Scout Bruce LaPointe by James McHugh, Sr. The LaPointe boy now has 53 merit badges to his credit.

The highlight of the evening was the awarding of the coveted Eagle to two boys, Jack Krygier and Bill Davis, Jr. This was done by Dr. Samuel Prisk, dentist by profession, but in Scouting, a former District officer and holder of the Silver Beaver award. He spoke highly of the scouting activities and the high standards by which boys, along the Scouting trail, were expected to follow. The mothers of the boys receiving the Eagles, Mrs. Davis and Mrs. Krygier, were presented with sterling silver eagle medallions as well as an orchid corsage.

The Scoutmaster then spoke concerning the future activities of the troop which included their annual Father and Son picnic on Wednesday, June 22, at which time all fathers and sons would join together for an evening of fellowship and fun. Summer camp, the next topic, is to begin July 24 and continue through that week at Camp Metamora, south of Lapeer. Mr. Rea went on to tell of the troop's many trials throughout the year and how each one in its own time, righted itself. He then thanked his men on the committee for their fine support and expressed his sincere pride in the boys of the troop and all their activities.

The court was closed with the Scoutmaster's benediction and the Lord's Prayer, led by Eagle Scout David LaPointe.

On Thursday evening, June 23 at 7:30 in the Plymouth High School Auditorium Mrs. Enid Starnitz of Ann Arbor Trail will present her Plymouth School of Dance students in their annual dance recital. Believe this reporter when she says that this is not just any dance recital but one which rivals any Broadway production. This year the theme is from "Alice in Wonderland," with all the students participating in ballet tap and Hawaiian numbers. The public is cordially invited to attend.

What's that oft quoted phrase, "Rain, rain, go away?" Well, that's the theme song of the Newburg baseball team. Two rained-out games this past week so no scores to report this time. We'll be looking for you at the game on Tuesday, June 28 when Newburg meets Alpha Baptist at St. Paul's Lutheran Church's field on Farmington at Five Mile Rd.

Vacation Bible School time again and Newburg Methodist Church is getting ready for theirs on Monday, June 27 through Friday, July 8 from 9 to 11:30 a.m. each weekday except Monday, July 4. There is still need for help and also for transportation. Mrs. Jesse Bennett, Mrs. Robert Chico and Mrs. Edward Reid are in charge. The age groups for these morning sessions are four years through the sixth grade. The Junior High age, seventh, eighth and ninth grade, will meet in the evenings, that same two-week period, with the pastor, Rev. Roger Merrell and youth counselors, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Waltz.

In my item last week I omitted two Newburg Church high school graduates. These were Bill Paff of Newburg Rd. and Darlene Schlegel of Bakewell. Bill graduated from Bentley and Darlene from Wayne High. Congratulations to both these young folks and I apologize for the omission.

Say, have you folks gone away and left me? Haven't had a call in quite a few weeks. I want to make this column as interesting as possible and without your cooperation it's almost impossible. All my news so far has just been grapevine. How about confirming it by giving that old dial a little twirl and tell us all about you and yours. See you next week?

Cooling Best When Home Plays Peek-A-Boo with Sun

Orientation of a new home on its site is one of the most important factors for comfortable, economic air conditioning.

This means placing the house so that in summer the mid-afternoon sun cannot shine directly on windows, and the late afternoon sun strikes areas without windows.

Careful orientation, used in conjunction with recommended amounts of mineral wool insulation, proper roof design, and adequate shade can substantially reduce not only the cost of air conditioning equipment, but its operation as well.

It's rarely possible to orient a house perfectly because of lot shapes and contours, but here are some general recommendations:

1. Broad sides of the house should face north and south.
2. Garage, porch, or utility room should be on the west end of the house to take the brunt of the late afternoon sun.
3. The roof should have wide overhangs on its south side to shade walls and windows, and should be constructed to permit adequate air circulation in and out of the attic. White or light-color asphalt shingles on the roof reflect much of the sun's heat, yet provide a soft rugged texture without harsh glare.
4. The south wall is the best place for large windows. The summer sun is high in midday, and the roof overhang keeps sun off south windows.
5. Shade trees are most effective on the east and west sides to block low sun in morning and late afternoon.

Classes Underway At UM in Dearborn

Classes started this week in the Summer Semester at The University of Michigan's Dearborn Center. Enrollment has climbed to 70 full-time students in the work-study program in business administration and engineering. Director W. E. Stirton reported. Under these programs, the students spend alternate semesters on campus and on carefully selected work assignments in business and industry.

This summer's enrollment is made up of 29 students in business administration, 14 in industrial engineering and 27 in mechanical engineering. The Summer Semester, which will end on September 30, is a key part in the year-around schedule of the Dearborn Center. The semester also will bring to an end the year of operation under a pilot program during which budget limitations restricted the academic offerings.

When classes open on October 3 for the Fall Semester an expanded curriculum will be offered. Electrical engineering will be added to the work-study programs. Offered without the "co-op" feature will be a program in liberal arts and teacher certification courses at the secondary and elementary levels.

All Dearborn Center courses start at the junior year and admission requirements are the same as for the campus at Ann Arbor. Fees for a full-time program on campus have been increased to $140 a semester for Michigan residents and $375 for non-residents. The fees for the work-experience semester are $65 for Michigan residents and $170 for non-residents.

Full information on Dearborn Center programs is available from the Office of Student Affairs, The University of Michigan Dearborn Center, 4901 Evergreen Rd., Dearborn. The telephone number is Tiffany 6-0670.

Director Stirton reports that the Dearborn Center's budget has been increased by $182,000 for the 1960-61 year. The increase will be used to enlarge the staff to take care of the expanded program. He said the full-time enrollment is expected to jump to at least 200 students in the fall. In addition there will be 700 to 1,000 taking credit courses through the U-M Extension Service.

A Professor Speaks

This is the greatest period of social change in world history, declares Alvin D. Loving (Ed.D.) associate professor of education, Flint College of the University of Michigan.

"Time-honored misconceptions and stereotypes in the realm of race relations are fading away," says Loving. "By 1980, probably 70 per cent of the things you will be using will be things which have not been invented at this time.

"Within 20 years atomic power will have become universal and there will be no such thing as backward nations or underprivileged citizens," he says. "In our different world of tomorrow there will be at least 20 new nations in the United Nations, mainly from Africa and Asia."

Loving says he is concerned not about the geography of the world but about misconceptions concerning people.

"We still think of Hollanders as wearing wooden shoes and many books tell us that Africans are Zulus or Hottentots. So in our minds we see quaint little people and bush heathens. People everywhere are concerned about the tenets of democracy, but here in Flint where 87 per cent of the employment is by one corporation, the number of skilled Negro workers can be counted on the fingers of two hands and Negro secretarial staff members can be counted on one finger of one hand.

"We appear to attach little significance to the fact that our non-white population is increasing 50 per cent faster than the white, and that two-thirds of the world is non-white and non-Christian," Loving says.

"There seems to be a wide opinion that the peoples of Africa will not be successful in achieving self-rule. The fact is that within a very few years all of Africa will be free.

"Many seem to assume that the task of achieving the ideals of our democracy is not important. Americans who grew to maturity in the first 40 years of our present century will not be the ones who decide whether we are to survive," Loving declares.

"Older Americans find it difficult to recognize the social change that has taken place since 1945, particularly on the American scene. Our young adults and youth through mass media are made fully aware of the present and future worlds, and they will be the ones who will make the difference between national suicide and survival."

A Graduation Message

This being the season, and he hinted that he would try to emulate the terse mobilization order of Ethiopia's Haile Selassie in 1934.

"The country is now mobilized," announced the Lion of Judah. "All men and boys able to carry a spear will report for active duty immediately. Married men will bring their wives to do the cooking. Men who are not married will bring any woman they can find. The very young, the very old, and women with young children need not report for active duty. Anybody else found at home after issuance of this order will be hanged."

As another example of getting it said economically, Mr. Beatty quoted these immortal words of Edward Everett Hale

(that are, incidentally, rather in the spirit of his Great Uncle Nathan):

"I am only one man but I am one man; I can't do everything but I can do something; what I can do, I ought to do; and what I ought to do, by the Grace of God I will do."

"Each of us," said Mr. Beatty speaking on his own, "can help to raise the standards of our time through our own personal behavior. But we must do more than set a good example... WE MUST BE WILLING TO STAND UP AND BE COUNTED ON ISSUES THAT TRANSCEND MATERIAL CONSIDERATIONS."

"Starting tomorrow, this graduating class will be too old for the irresponsibilities of care-free youth, and too young for the excuses of old age. It will be for this class, and all other classes now graduating, to be militant in championing that which is right, to toughen the moral fiber of our times, and to hold for themselves and their posterity that which is truly worthwhile in our way of life."

PAYMENT WAS HEAVY
HYANNIS, Mass. (UPI) — Grandpa played a heavy role in the birth of his first grandson, David Allen Ryder.

David Allen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Ryder of Barnstable, paid the last $60 of the maternity bill with nickles and dimes they said Grandpa saved up for the occasion.

Some viruses attack bacteria. A virus, which looks something like a tadpole when magnified tens of thousands of times, uses its tail to penetrate a bacterium's outer coating. Acting as a living hypodermic needle, the virus sends materia into the bacterial cell. About twenty minutes later, the cell bursts, yielding perhaps a hundred duplicates or near duplicates of the original virus.

Handwriting Is Clue About You

Dear Miss Williams:

After reading your analysis on handwriting, I find myself very interested.

May I request for an analysis of my handwriting? I think that it's very thoughtful and kind of you to offer your services to the public without charge, and I am sure many people feel the same as I do.

Thank you and please use the following initials.

M.M.U.

Dear K.W.F.:

Your friend is quite emotional and expressive with a tendency toward enthusiasm. She has a sharp, keen mind and learning something new comes easily. Her will and purpose in life are definite and she shows persistence in keeping at her goal.

There is pride and some sensitiveness. This girl is outgoing, likes to get out and do things, likes a lot of variation and is aggressive to go ahead, push forward and doesn't particularly care if there's a crowd or practicality no one.

She wants to add to, own, possess and gain and thinks materially — right now.

Thank you for the compliment and for writing again.

Dear Lucille:

Just can't resist any longer, must find out the facts.

Sincerely
E.M.O.

Dear Mrs. M.M.U.:

Your letter was kind and interesting and bears out the fact that you have ability for "expression on paper."

You are very determined, like responsibility, can carry a load so to speak and enjoy getting results. There is a diplomatic quality in handling others and your purpose is definite.

Dignified pride is one of your assets, and you do not like your conduct or actions criticized. You are careful to see that things are done right. This puts you a little on the defensive, being "cagey" about people taking advantage of you.

You like variation in activities, love to be active and show good organization. You have a careful memory, are persistent in all efforts and believe in the material concrete things going on now rather than visionary out in the future.

Dear Miss Williams:

You did such a fine job of analysis on my own handwriting a few months ago, that I'd like you to please take on the penmanship of a friend of mine — sample enclosed — she thought that

How's Business? Wage Rates Going Higher

By ROGER W. BABSON

Results of labor-management negotiations thus far in 1960 continue to signal an upward trend in wage rates.

Despite the disappointing business performance and the avowed intention of businessmen to hold the line on labor costs, unions have emerged from bargaining sessions with a degree of success about equal to that of a year ago when business was in a decided upswing—with wage hikes averaging around 8 cents an hour. During the recession-throttled months of early 1958, pay boosts averaged 9 cents an hour; and in early 1957, the average was 10 cents.

The trend of recent years toward deferred automatic pay hikes is gaining in popularity. Nearly half of the new wage contracts negotiated in early 1960 were of the multi-year variety, — that is, an immediate pay hike supplemented by the promise of further raises at later dates. Last year only one-third of the contracts agreed upon were of this type, and in 1958 only one-fourth of the pacts included provisions for deferred raises. This is a sign that both labor and management are seeking to avoid annual bargaining snarls.

It is evident, therefore, that the upward trend in wage rates may be expected to persist. In fact, labor's demands in coming months may be even stiffer, judging from recently negotiated pacts in major fields.

For example, pipeline workers have settled for a 15 cent pay hike in 1960 plus an additional 15 cent boost to take effect next year. Steel workers will receive wage increases ranging from 7 cents to 13 cents an hour in December, with another raise scheduled for October 1961.

The upward trend of wage rates foreshadows a tighter squeeze on profits. This will add to the woes of management, since the deterioration in business conditions has brought razor-sharp competition in many lines. On the other hand, advances in wage rates will lift personal incomes and increase consumers' propensity to spend; this, in turn, will tend to bolster currently sagging business.

Even Apes Can Be Maladjusted

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — A maladjusted ape is not just up to monkey business, he probably didn't get enough affection from his mother.

This was the report of Dr. Harry F. Harlow of the University of Wisconsin to the Florida Psychological Assn. here.

Harlow said young apes demonstrate a definite need for caresses. He said in the absence of their mother they will develop affection for inanimate objects such as a doll, or even a stick.

The monkey deprived of a mother or a substitute later finds great difficulty in adjusting to the society of fellow apes. Physical contact with the mother may be more important than any other factor in the ape's adjustment to society, Harlow said.

If Your Name Is Doris

By ANN REYNOLDS

Would you say that "Doris" is an unusual name? Today it is not; a century ago it was. It is an ancient Greek appellation, and had almost not been used the last two thousand years or so. A Roman poet addressed his lady love as "Doris".

In the stories that make up the sum of classical mythology Doris is a sea nymph, a minor water deity. She is the daughter of Ocean and Tethys, married to Nereus who also is a sea god. They have quite a family; fifty daughters called the Nereids. The name "Doris", so many scholars hold, is related to the Greek word for "gift", and can be rendered as "bountiful"; others say that its significance cannot be explained.

As it often happens, a novelist launched "Doris" as a first name. Mrs. Margaret Wilson Oliphant, an English writer of the last century, gave it to a character in her novel "Effie Ogilvie", published 1886. Apparently Mrs. Oliphant chose this name because she felt it has the same distinction as "Phyllis" (which also is Greek, and means "a leaf"). The character in the book is made to say that she replaced her real, "more humble name" with "Doris", determined that her sister Phyllis "should not have all the luck". She also claims that "people are always like their names"; a rather disputable statement. To me it seems that personalities leave their mark rather on names.

"Effie Ogilvie" is not the story of Doris but of Effie, a typical "girl next door" in a Scottish village. "Effie", by the way, is the familiar form for "Euphemia", a Greek name meaning "good repute", and it is used mainly in Scotland. Seen through the admiring eyes of Effie, Doris and her sister Phyllis, are "glamorous", we'd say; Effie calls them "like out of a Milo Corwin has established daily automobile service between Plymouth and Walled Lake, making three round trips a day. Fourteen passengers can be carried. He charges 40 cents each way.

Mrs. A. Patterson spent Sunday in Ruthven, Ontario. The Plymouth market: wheat, 95 cents; hay, $9.00; oats, 35 cents; rye, 70 cents; potatoes, 12 cents per bushel; butter, 26 cents; eggs, 18 cents.

The home of George Walker on Wednesday evening was the scene of a very pretty wedding ceremony when his daughter, Miss Ida Walker, was given in marriage to Maurice See of Pontiac. The home had been decorated delightfully in green and white and the bridal couple stood beneath an arch of green. The bride was gowned in pale blue silk and carried white bridal roses. Miss Walker is a charming young woman and a graduate of the Plymouth high school.

Former Plymouthite

David M. Dayton, son of the Albert Daytons of Ravenna, Ohio, was among the 259 seniors who received degrees from Grove City College in Pennsylvania. Dave, a former resident of Plymouth with his parents, received a B.S. degree in mathematics. While at Grove City, he was active in the Engineers' Club, and Kappa Alpha Phi fraternity. As a member of the Duke University Cooperative Program in Teacher Education, he will teach at Northern High in Durham.

The Imperial Dam, which stretches 3,475 feet across the Colorado River and raises its level by 23 feet, makes possible the existence of the All American Canal in California and the Gila Main Canal in Arizona.

A FAMILY THAT has one son or daughter graduating from high school has plenty to celebrate, but the Jack Massarello home at 276 Union St. had a triple celebration Thursday night when three girls received diplomas at Plymouth High. From left are Jane, who will work at the National Bank of Detroit; Esther, who plans to enter the Sisters of St. Joseph Convent at Nazareth, Mich.; and Sally, who will work at Kresge's. Jane is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Massarello while Esther and Sally are nieces, who have had the Massarellos as legal guardians for the past six years. A graduation party that included relatives was planned.

Local Church Represented In Saginaw

Good Counsel Graduates 49

Diplomas were presented Sunday to forty-nine eighth grade students of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic School. Father Francis Byrne, pastor of the parish, offered the 8 o'clock Mass for the graduating class, emphasizing in his address to the students their need of further religious training, even though the elementary school training has been completed.

During the course of the Mass, the class chanted the hymns "Adore Devote" and "Ava Maria". Miss Karen Kaunisto accompanied them on the organ.

The evening services consisted in the graduates receiving their diplomas, and a sermon by Father Thomas Villerot of Sacred Heart Seminary. Sister M. Annice, SSJ, principal of the school, led her class in a prayer dedicating the pupils to the Sacred Heart. Benediction concluded the ceremony, and all the young people were then treated to a party by the Knights of Columbus at their hall.

The graduating class gave as their gift to the school a memorial donation to the St. Joseph Guild in honor of Sister M. Victorine, late principal who was killed in a automobile accident in December. The class also contributed generously to memorial Masses to be offered for their recently departed classmate, Joseph Janicki, who died a few days ago.

The Gas Light Returns

Plymouth's Colonialization program has taken another step forward with installation of antique gas street lights at the Hillside Inn restaurant parking area.

Twelve of the authentic gas light poles, located after a year-long search of the nation's salvage yards, have already been installed in the main parking lots of the Plymouth Rd. lounge and cafe. Ultimately, according to Bob and Margaret Stremich, owners of the Hillside, the entire parking area will be ringed with 30 of the gas burning lights.

Lighted 24 hours a day, the mantled lights blend naturally with the Hillside's Colonial architecture, standing as a symbol of a by-gone era and a nostalgic memory for many. At night the soft lights illuminate rows of modern automobiles in a striking contrast of the past with the present.

The lamp posts are the real thing. Little is known of their history, however, except that they were cast in St. Louis about a century ago at foundries long since out of business.

The Stremichs found them in Baltimore where a salvage company had reclaimed them from several New England towns some 30 to 50 years ago. The Baltimore firm has promised to deliver at least 18 more poles to complete the project.

Although the ancient street lights required complete renovation, the Stremichs say that the cost of installation and operation compares favorably with standard electrical fixtures.

ONCE AGAIN at work are gas light fixtures manufactured about a century ago in St. Louis. Robert Stremich, left, co-owner of the Hillside Inn, and Charles Stofko, president of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce, examine one of the dozen poles in the parking lots. The idea ties in with the program of colonialization that the Chamber has been promoting in Plymouth for many years.

Hillsdale College Awards Edward Evans Degree

Edward S. Evans, Jr., president of the Evans Products Company, Plymouth, Mich., has received an honorary Doctor of Humanities degree from Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich.

The college conferred the degree in recognition of Mr. Evans' "well-known business integrity and for his services to the industrial life of this nation."

The 54-year-old business executive also was cited for his deep understanding of the human problems of industry, and for his enlightened policies in the field of human relations.

Mr. Evans has been president of the highly diversified Evans Company — one of the 500 largest in the nation — since 1945. Under his leadership, the company has added many new product lines, absorbed other companies, and increased sales from $10 million a year to more than $80 million.

He has been particularly active in the transportation field, since his company is the pioneer manufacturer of permanently installed devices for the protection of freight in transit. He has been cited by the Detroit chapter of the National Defense Transportation Association for his outstanding service to defense emergency planning through more efficient transportation methods, and has received a special Wayne State University citation for outstanding service to the University's Materials Management Center.

He is a director of the National Defense Transportation Association, of the Michigan Manufacturers' Association and of the Greater Detroit Board of Commerce. He is a graduate of the Virginia Episcopal School, the University of Michigan, and attended the University of Lausanne, Switzerland.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans, the former Florence Allington, live in Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich. They have three children.

In addition to railroad lading protective devices which are installed in freight cars owned by 62 carriers, the Evans Company manufactures bicycles and velocipedes; plywood, hardboard and wood paneling and specialties; truck and bus heaters; curtain wall paneling; refrigerated truck bodies, refrigerated containers, and laminated products.

Redwood Goes Over Wire Fence

Porta-Fence, a novel new portable decorator fence designed to act as a natural backyard "screen," has been developed by Grissom Garage Builders, pioneer of low-cost residential garages for Detroiters.

There is a display at 25111 W. Seven Mile.

Porta-Fence is made of sturdy redwood planking arranged in the popular horizontal louvered style. It is designed to be hung on any steel fence such as the type used on most residential lots.

When installed, it completely covers the fence underneath. (Because of its extreme light weight, Porta-Fence can be easily moved by the woman of the house. This allows using it at any location desired and moving it when desired.)

Uses for the Porta-Fence are varied. It provides a low-cost screen for the backyard barbecue areas; is perfect as a temporary screen for sunbathers; can be used to sunbathing or backyard activities, and a generally more handsome yard appearance. Grissom Garage Builders, 25111 West Seven Mile Rd. is the local outlet.

gain privacy for swimming pools or corner lots. It also comes in handy for screening off street views of unsightly areas, such as garbage or trash cans, and boxes, etc.

Porta-Fence is adjustable in height for added convenience and utility. It can be raised to a maximum of five feet, or used at a lower level of four and one-half feet. Length of the one-piece fence is ten feet.

Porta-fence attaches to existing fence by means of two simple brackets, one at either end. It can be removed quickly and easily.

Porta-Fence provides the same privacy and modern good looks of similar stationary fences, but at only half the cost. With a Porta-Fence any backyard can gain new privacy, convenience and utility.

The new Porta-Fence can be seen at Grissom Garage Builders, 25111 W. Seven Mile, or call KE 3-7072.

Plant In Switzerland Opened By Burroughs

Formation of a new company in Switzerland is spearheading a major expansion of operations in Western Europe for Burroughs Corporation, one of the world's largest business machines companies.

Details of the expansion were announced by Burroughs President Ray R. Epper, who said the new company, named Burroughs International S. A., will have headquarters in Fribourg, Switzerland. E. G. Wallace, who has been general sales manager for the firm's International Division since 1954, has been named president and managing director.

"We are establishing this new company to assure increased support and guidance to existing and future Burroughs overseas manufacturing and marketing organizations serving the Western European areas, the Middle East, Africa and India," Epper said.

He cited Burroughs growth in this important area as one reason for the expansion. Since 1950, the size of the Burroughs organizations serving Western European areas have quadrupled. By 1970, Epper said that it is expected Burroughs business in Western Europe alone will be greater than all of Burroughs current international business.

The new company will be responsible for the development of both new and existing markets. It will be comprised of a complete management team of experts and specialists from manufacturing, engineering, sales and service, controllership, personnel and other special support functions.

The staff has been made available by assigning veteran manufacturing and marketing teams from the International Division, the Burroughs corporate staff and from various Western European operations.

Burroughs manufactures and markets a broad line of calculating, adding, accounting and electronic computing equipment for data handling, management reporting and control. Direct sales and service are furnished by subsidiary companies or exclusive dealer organizations with sales and service offices located in principal cities.

On the Continent, Burroughs has manufacturing plants in Pantin and Villers-Écalles, France. There are other international factories located in the United Kingdom and Brazil. In addition to serving home markets in the countries where they are located, these Burroughs factories export large volumes of equipment to world markets.

Grange Cleanings

The health chairman informed the group at the last meeting that the ladies had made and sewed 2140 cancer pads in the last six months.

Thanks to everyone who helped, also those working at the center each week. Sewing will be resumed in September unless an emergency arises. In that case, members will be notified.

Regardless of the cold weather, a large group enjoyed strawberry shortcake, ice cream and strawberries, cake and coffee last Friday night.

Sunday, the Grange members attended the Presbyterian Church at the 11 a.m. service.

Thirty-one members from the Plymouth Grange are scheduled to leave Sunday morning on a trip to Washington for the dedication of the new National Grange building. Two buses will arrive in Plymouth at 9:30 to pick up the passengers. At that time, we are serving coffee and fried cakes.

Safe journey and an enjoyable time to everyone.

BOYS SNEAK PREVIEW
HARTFORD, Conn. (UPI)—Two youths who attended a criminal trial as interested observers landed in the same courtroom the following day as defendants. They were accused of driving to court in a stolen car.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Editor:
Will you please print the following in regard to train whistling.

In the June 8 issue of the Plymouth Mail, there was an article, subject "Petitioners Ask Halt of Train Whistles."

Years ago the people of the city, then just a cross road, welcomed the extension of two railroads. Plymouth was the junction of trains running between Grand Rapids and Toledo. Three hotels sprang up. Traveling men or drummers made this their headquarters. The city grew. The Markham and Daisy Air Rifle companies located on a siding, later manufacturers located along the railroads. Today there are millions of dollars invested, due to the railroad. Cities and towns all along these lines have grown to several hundred percent. Today freight trains up to a mile long travel over the rails daily.

First a small group of selfish people put pressure on and stopped the ringing of the bells. Now they want to stop the whistling. These people that located here, knew of the railroad and the noise they created.

The majority of the people don't mind the bell ringing and whistle blowing.

The same people that object to the necessary railroad noise, objected to the city sharing grade separations. For the business these railroads bring to this city, the people should be glad to stand the full cost. But they wouldn't have to as the railroads would do their share.

The whistle and bells have saved a good many lives, so why should they be made to stop?

About 25 years ago the church bells were heard on Sunday morning, but because of one person's objections, this was stopped.

And within the last year, an oil drilling rig was set up, working 24 hours a day. Some selfish person got up a petition to limit their operation to daylight hours, halting expensive equipment.

There are certain groups trying to halt truck traffic on certain streets, transferring the traffic to other streets. There are other people who have the same right. If they protested, the necessary business would be compelled to move out of town. In the downtown area heavy trucks operate night and day and there is a shooting gallery in the main parking area using heavy rifle and pistols, up to midnight. There are hundreds of people living in this area and they haven't protested. They have the same right.

Let the whistles blow and the bells ring, if it saves lives and brings prosperity to Plymouth.

SNAKES LOSE OUT

SAN SABA, Tex. (UPI)—C. E. Tisdale, a man who really has to watch his step.

In a 10-day period recently he and two employees killed 31 rattlesnakes they came across at his Barnett Springs Ranch east of San Saba. He said one of the ranch hands, Roy Hale, came on 14 rattlesnakes sunning themselves on a narrow rock ledge and killed them all.

From where I sit... by Joe Marshall

Ever Have That "Sinking" Feeling?

You probably know that "Chip" Wallace was just appointed swimming instructor at the Boys Club.

Seems in his first group, he had three youngsters who were hesitant even about the shallow end of the pool. They said "we'd sink." Of course, Chip didn't try to force them—he demonstrated. He jumped in, popped right up, explained that body buoyancy had pushed him back to the surface.

However, one of the youngsters shook his head in disbelief. "Gee," he said, "I sure hope Mr. Buoyancy is still down there when I jump in."

From where I sit, whoever said "experience is the best teacher" was right. For instance, I think all of us know—through experience—how important "tolerance" is between neighbors. In little things too, like my respecting your right to choose a favorite beverage—and your respecting my choice of an occasional glass of beer. That way we'll swim not sink—as friends!

why there's no kitchen like an ELECTRIC KITCHEN

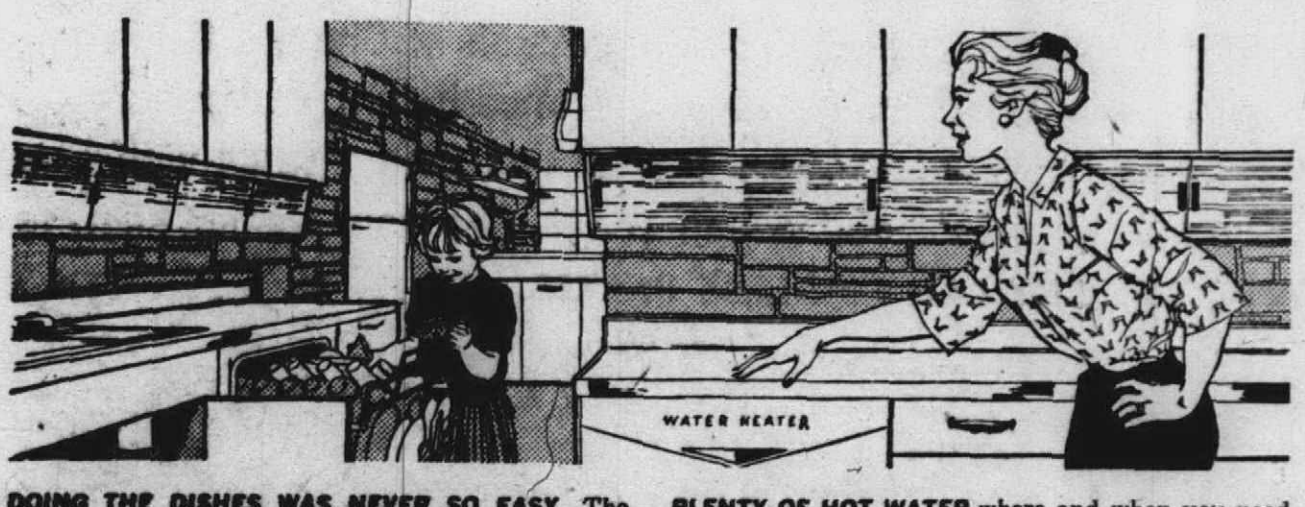

ELECTRIC COOKING IS CLEAN, COOL, QUICK. All the heat goes into the food from direct contact electric elements, none escapes into the air. Super speed units bring liquids to a boil in seconds. You never see blackened pans in an electric kitchen for electric cooking is white-glove clean. Choose from built-in counter top units and ovens or from many styles of free-standing electric ranges.

ELECTRIC REFRIGERATOR-FREEZERS HAVE BIG CAPACITY. Two wonderful appliances in one! Refrigerator and freezer. The freezer compartment is big enough to hold worthwhile quantities of food. Buy foods at seasonally low prices and safely store them. Save time by preparing foods ahead—make three pies and freeze two. New frost free refrigerator-freezers eliminate defrosting entirely.

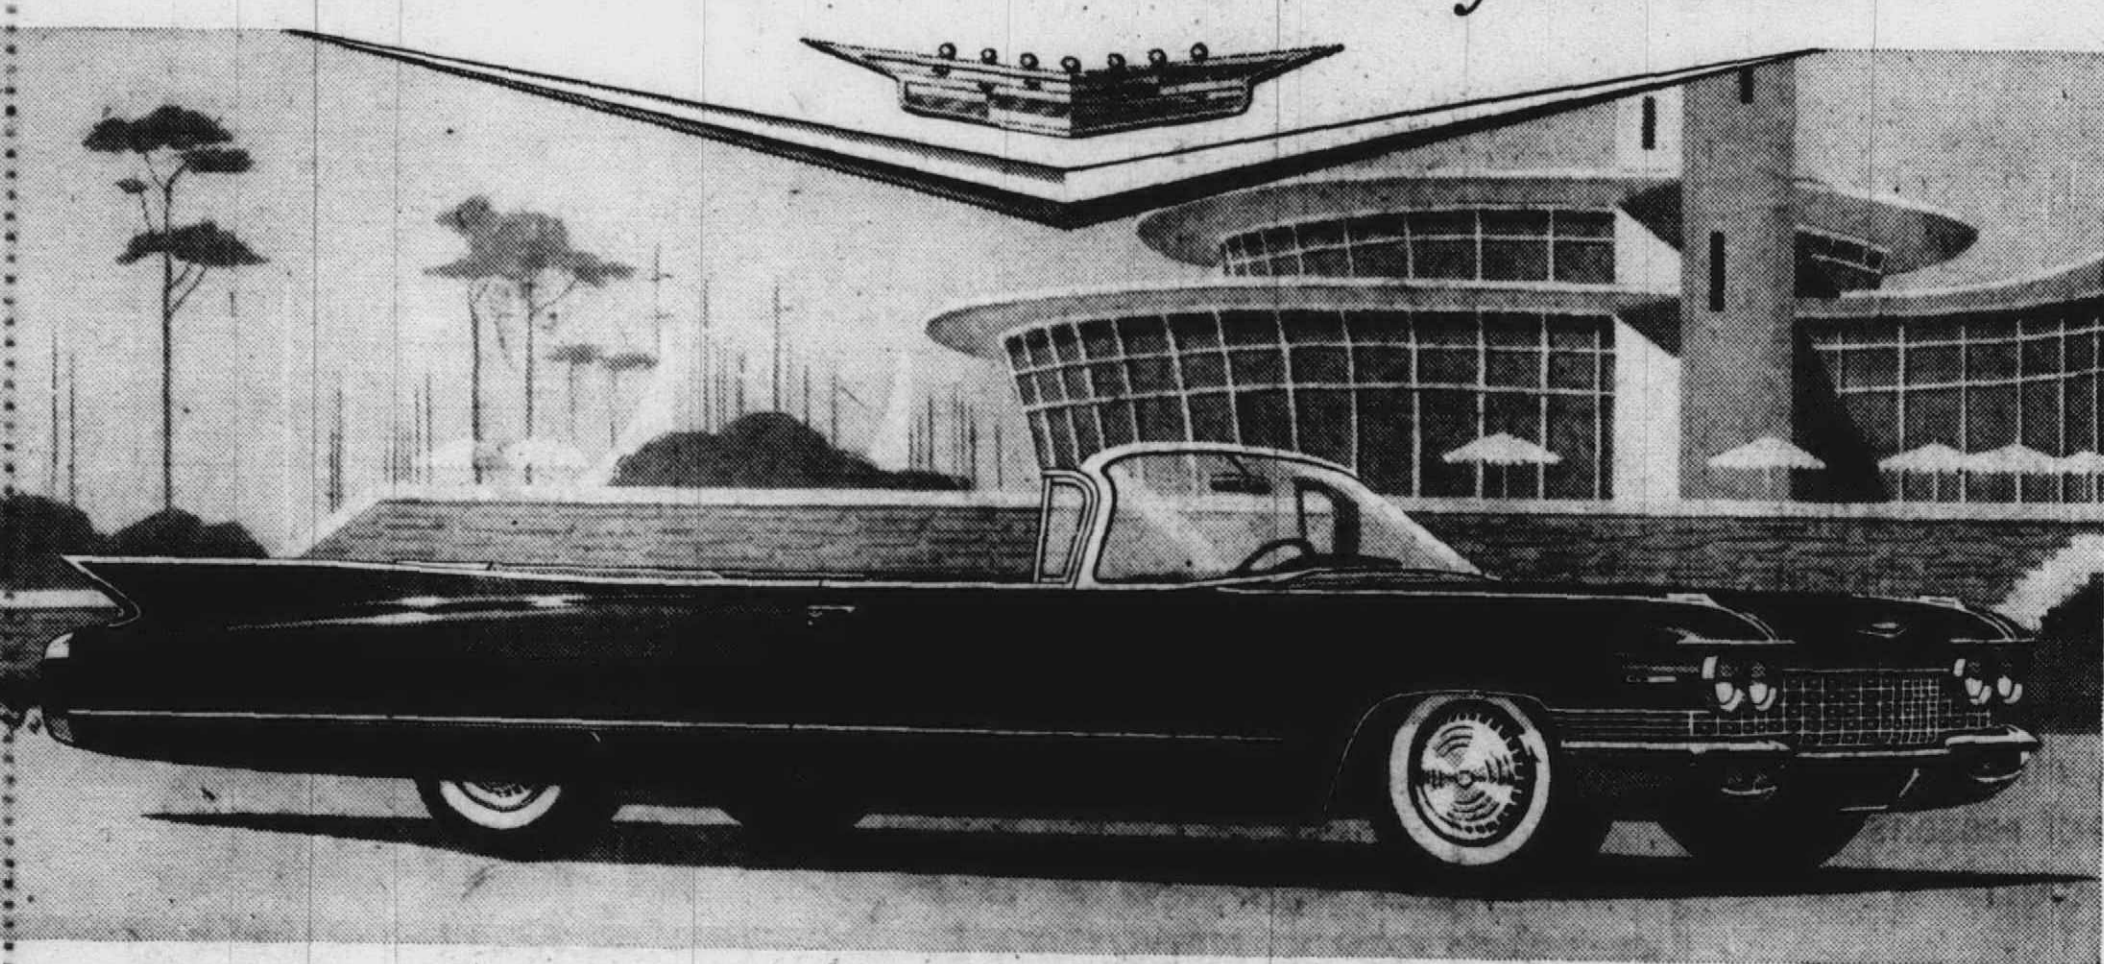

COUNTER TOPS DO DOUBLE DUTY with an electric appliance center. Pullout extension cords and extra outlets, all on one central panel, give you Housepower at your fingertips. Simultaneous operation of many counter top appliances—waffle iron, fry pan and coffee maker, for example—is possible without blowing fuses. Automatic timing is another feature. All together, it's just like having extra range capacity.

DOING THE DISHES WAS NEVER SO EASY. The process is simple—toss food scraps into the disposer. They just grind up and wash away, never have to be handled or wrapped. Then slip dishes, glasses, flatware, pots and pans into the dishwasher. Everything comes out sparkling, and much cleaner than you can wash them because most dishwashers use hotter water than your hands can stand.

PLENTY OF HOT WATER where and when you need it. What better place for a water heater than in the kitchen where you use lots of hot water? A tabletop model fits flush with counter top, or it can be placed in a hard-to-use corner of the kitchen cabinets. This is the water heater without flame or fume, so you put it where it's most convenient. The 50-gallon size supplies normal hot water needs of 4 out of 5 families.

Ten miles at the wheel are all you need...

to discover the wonders of Cadillac performance!

The sensation of driving a 1960 Cadillac for the first time is so delightful that a ten-mile trip, even at moderate speed, will seem to end almost before it begins. But it will suffice! When the trip is over, you'll know that Cadillac is as magnificent in performance as in appearance.

The gently soft ride, the amazing handling ease and the instant response to your slightest wish all combine to prove that this is indeed a car without an equal. And it's waiting for you at your authorized Cadillac dealer's showroom. Drive it at your first opportunity.

ALMOST everything has CHANGED

... but a free press is still the indispensable safeguard of all our freedoms!

Shown here: front page of one of the leading revolutionary newspapers, reporting the signing of the Declaration of Independence. Despite its austere appearance, it had aggressive politics.

No headlines — no pictures, yet this newspaper packed a wallop as it relentlessly urged our forefathers to fight for liberty.

We've come a long way since then. Now the miracle of electronic communication brings us the news as it happens; photography, modern typography and art reproduction graphically illustrate and punctuate ideas.

But no matter how the world changes, our American heritage can only be upheld through a free press.

Through the printed page the citizens can examine the issues in their community, go over them point by point among themselves and make their wishes known at the polls.
