

GOP Dominates Township Ballot; 3 File for Heights Jobs

Only One Democrat In Race

Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay and Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes can virtually sit back and coast through this year's "grass roots" elections.

Two other incumbents, however, Clerk Fred L. Miller and Trustee Louis Norman, will be facing some opposition.

There were no nominating petitions filed last week for the supervisor's or treasurer's jobs, with the exception of the present office-holders, both Republicans.

Challenging Trustee Louis Norman in the primary election will be Harvey L. Ziel, 11139 Southworth, Ziel is a Republican.

Whoever wins in the Feb. 2 Primary which may be held as the Republican trustee nominee for the April 3 General Election.

They must also decide a Republican contest that has developed for the four offices of constable.

The lone Democrat filing a petition was Hoyt Hessler, 2265 Haggerty Rd., who is seeking the office of Township clerk. Hessler, a Democrat, filed a petition, but any candidate in the Township had to file by the next day.

Names of all nominees will appear on the Feb. 2 Primary ballot and as usual there will be a number of write-in candidates. It is possible that the Democrats will write in enough to enter a candidate's name in the General Election in April.

This is the lineup of Republican candidates:

- Supervisor Roy Lindsay
- Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes
- Clerk Fred L. Miller
- Trustee Louis Norman
- Harvey L. Ziel
- Justice of the Peace Martin Schomberger
- Board of Review, Loyd Sharland
- Highway Commissioner Frank Millington
- Committee on Election Laws Thomas Dorssett, Gene Leader, Donald Kay, Robert Burns, Richard Powell
- Schomberger, Sharland and Millington are all incumbents. So are Dorssett, King and Burns, candidates for constable. Powell and Leader are new candidates, and in the Feb. 2 election electors must name a field of five to four.

This will be the fourth attempt for office by both Supervisor Lindsay and Treasurer Holmes. Both were appointed in 1953 to fill vacancies. They were subsequently elected in 1957.

City to Pick Up Yule Trees Friday

Department of Public Works trucks will pick up Christmas trees this Friday. Trees should be placed along the street or alley Thursday night or early Friday morning so that the pickup job can be completed in one day. They will not be collected during the regular weekly rubbish pickup.

Witkowski Not Running Again

George Witkowski, the City representative to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, said this week that he will not seek reelection.

At this time, he said, it is imperative to regretfully decline to run again for this office during the next election. Due to furthering my education, time will be limited, necessitating temporary curtailment of any political ambitions.

Witkowski, owner of Plymouth Dental Laboratory, plans to continue his education along with his business. He expressed his thanks this week to citizens who voted for him as their representative on the Board of Supervisors.

City Ready to Take First Small Step

Business District Plan Still Alive

Whatever happens to the plan to purchase the parking lot, the city is ready to take the first small step toward the plan to purchase the parking lot. The plan calls for removal of the Bronson Building and Richwine Building, both now being purchased by land contract by the City. These buildings are in the northwest corner of the parking lot. It is also hoped to purchase all three homes located between the parking lot's exit and entrance facing Harvey.

Business District Plan Still Alive

Two other homes facing Harvey and property owners on the lot have already expressed their approval of the plan, and some of the city's parking committee members advanced the idea.

Two File for Each Commission Vacancy

A four-way contest for the Wayne County Board of Supervisors post from the City of Plymouth has developed but there will be no contest for City Commission jobs in the Feb. 20 Biennial Primary election.

With the deadline for nominating petitions being 4 p.m. Monday, City Clerk Joseph Near listed eight persons who are seeking the four City Commission vacancies while four citizens will be vying for the single job on the Board of Supervisors.

Course to Train Medical Aides for Disaster Units

A course for training of medical aides for use after a natural disaster or atomic attack will be started in Plymouth on Wednesday, Jan. 11 at the V.F.W. Hall on Mill St.

Open to men and women, the course is being offered under the direction of Dr. Lee E. Feidkamp, City health officer.

Medical aides will be of importance after a disaster of atomic attack to assist physicians and nurses in the operation of casualty care stations.

With the scarcity of professional medical help, trained medical aides can help save many lives and prevent many injured people from becoming permanently disabled. Dr. Feidkamp declared, "The effectiveness of a casualty care station is dependent upon the amount of training given to medical aides in the organization and a working knowledge of the operation of the station before the crisis occurs," he added.

Town Hall Turns To Heights Topic Tomorrow

Doors will open at 8 p.m. this Thursday (Jan. 5) on another meeting of Plymouth's Town Hall — and this session is being tailored to attract everyone interested in the proposal to form a new City of Plymouth Heights.

The Plymouth Community Town Hall Committee, composed of representative citizens who are interested in exposing voters with issues of the day, will hold the meeting in the Junior High gym.

"What Shall It Be — City or Township?" is the subject of the meeting. Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay has been invited to first explain how the incorporation issue came about.

William Carter of the Citizens Research Council of Michigan will then explain what a study made by his organization has found. The three men who are candidates for the Plymouth Heights jobs have also been invited to speak and answer questions and Russell Ash of the Charter Commission will explain the charter.

As usual, the audience will be invited to submit questions.

New City Would Look Like This

WHAT WOULD Plymouth Heights look like on a map? Many people are still unfamiliar with the boundaries of the proposed city that would surround the City of Plymouth. The portion with diagonal lines would be the new Plymouth Heights. The open area west of McClumpha Rd. would remain as Plymouth Township. There is not enough population in this half to incorporate it in the new city, but it could be annexed later. Plymouth Heights would have 8.3 square miles. Next week, The Mail will present a summary of the issue and election details.

No Takers For Other 13 Posts

The lack of interest in forming a new City of Plymouth Heights became apparent last Wednesday when only three nominating petitions were filed for the 16 offices that will be created should voters approve the proposed city's charter on Jan. 17.

The three petitions filed were for:

- Mayor, John McEwen, 4475 Governor Bradford
- City Council: Donald King, 41151 Nicol; and Pete Tonkovich, 11429 Southworth.

No petitions were received for the jobs of treasurer, clerk, justice of the peace and two constables.

It will be possible, however, to write in names on the Jan. 17 ballot.

The proposed City of Plymouth Heights would be a portion of Plymouth Township east of McClumpha Rd. Only electors living in this area will be able to vote.

Electors living west of McClumpha in Plymouth Township cannot vote on the issue of incorporation.

Voters will first vote "yes" or "no" on the charter. Should this latter issue be approved, the new city would become a reality. At the same time, electors will vote on candidates who will take over the new city — should the charter be approved.

Should the charter be approved, the candidates elected would have no offices to fill.

As the Jan. 17 weekday day nears there is some what more discussion of the incorporation issue, but most of it appears to be from those opposed to it. Even present office holders, including Supervisor Roy Lindsay, are not seeking "Heights" offices. They are busy running for the present Township offices.

Supervisor Lindsay declared last week that there is no objection to this time in forming a new city.

Most of the effort will be directed during the next three weeks toward getting out the vote. Opponents to incorporation fear that lack of interest could mean that only a handful of voters will turn out and that a minority bloc of proponents could form a new city.

Two years ago, on Feb. 16, 1959, the original proposition on whether to form the City of Plymouth Heights was placed before voters. It was approved 55 to 45, a margin of 675 votes.

Form Adult Band Here Next Week

First meeting of a group being called the Plymouth City Band will be held 8 p.m. next Wednesday, Jan. 11 in the High School gymnasium.

Designed to give children a chance to play music with a band, the band hopes to offer concerts and take part in future community affairs.

William Eckert, a spokesman for the group, said that those interested should be at the next week's meeting with their instruments. But if they don't have any instruments or if they should come anyway.

Most people, after leaving their high school education, no longer can find an outlet for their talents. It was pointed out that the new City Band hopes to offer concerts in Kellogg Park and play for such occasions as the July 4th parade.

On the planning committee are James Garber, William Upton, Hylton DeMeritt, Keith Burton, Sylvester Cooper and Edgar James Griffith. High School Band director, will direct the new organization. Unless a new school musician has permission from the director, he will not be able to join the adult group.

Plan $500,000 Fund Drive For Ladywood HS Expansion

The Parents Club and the Faculty of Ladywood High School, Livonia, have formulated plans for a $500,000 fund drive to finance expansion of Ladywood High. The expansion calls for an additional eight classrooms and a multi-purpose gymnasium. Enrollment will be increased from the present 390 students to 700. An immediate goal of $250,000 is necessary before building commitments can be made. The total sum of $500,000 must be pledged by June, 1961. Ground breaking will take place in September, 1961 and it is expected the new addition will be completed and ready for occupancy by September, 1962. Ladywood High School is a section of the Felician Sisters' 320-acre property known as Villa St. Felix. The high school faces Newburg Rd. and stands midway between Schoolcraft and Five Mile Rds. It is staffed and conducted by the Felician Sisters who also operate and administer on the same premise a college and General Acute Hospital.

'Petticoat Finance' Topic At Plymouth Woman's Club

"Petticoat Finance" will be the subject to be discussed by Mrs. Paul Lutz, trust officer of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company at the Plymouth Woman's Club Friday, January 6 at 1 p. m. Since women control a large portion of the nation's wealth and also since this is the month of taxes, this should prove a very timely topic. Program Chairman for the day is Mrs. Morin J. Herie and the place of meeting is the Masonic Temple. Food, liquor and tobacco take one-third of the average U.S. family income.

Fred Wagenschutzs Feted on 60th Anniversary

Tonquish Lodge 32 and the Plymouth Rebekah Lodge 182 honored Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wagenschutz on the occasion of their 60th wedding anniversary, Friday, Dec. 30, with a dinner. The tables were decorated with pink and green tapers and pink gladioli and white mums. A handsome three-tier wedding cake graced the head table. Mrs. Earl Gray was dinner room chairman. Mrs. Louise Granger supervised the kitchen and Mrs. Mildred Collins had charge of the program. Mrs. Irene Brogan offered the prayer. Several solos were sung by Ray VanValkenburg accompanied by Mrs. VanValkenburg. Cheryl and Sharon McKenna danced for the gathering. Sister Roma Krumm presented the guests of honor with a gift from all the members. Visitors attended from Novi, Northville and Allen Park. Mr. and Mrs. Wagenschutz are long time Plymouth residents, having lived here all their married lives. They have three children, Harry and Harold of Northville and Mrs. Harry Hunter of Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Wagenschutz are 60 years old.

Jean's Jottings

By JEAN CAMPAU

The voice coming over the phone was pleasant and friendly and belonged to Alice Swainson and we were having a telephone interview.

In response to our query about furnishing their Capitol home, she said she has not as yet selected any new furnishings for the 11 room house, which with the press of Christmas, New Years and the Inauguration. Then too, the house offers a variety of built-ins and they plan to take some of their furniture from here, so not too many new purchases are in the offing.

Since the architecture of the home is colonial, the interior will follow the same theme along with some traditional pieces.

The present tenants will vacate the year-old house Jan. 15 and the First Family of Michigan expects to occupy it sometime near the end of the month after a few minor alterations have been completed. The Governor's wife is having several partitions and doors added and some of the closets rearranged to provide greater storage space.

Mrs. Swainson plans to continue doing her own cooking for the present and will unless her agenda becomes too crowded.

When we asked what the Governor's favorite dishes were, she replied, "The Governor is very easy to cook for, and while he has no special food favorite, he is very fond of meat pies."

Original plans called for Mrs. Swainson to commute to and from Lansing in order to remain with the children until school closes in June. However, son Steve, despite his reluctance to leave his school friends here, is anxious to join his father, so the family will leave the community earlier than previously expected.

Asked if she is nervous about the tremendously vast job ahead, she said in her calm manner, "No, I try to take each day and each project as it comes." The First Lady further pointed out that their six years in political life had been a gradual preparation for what lies ahead and taking a positive approach does not anticipate any difficulties.

With barely time to catch her breath from the Inauguration her first role of hostess to the Governor will be Jan. 11 when a dinner for 300 or so will be given for members of the Legislature and their wives and representatives of the press. Michigan's First Family will not be in their new home at the time, so the year's first social event will be held in Lansing's Civic Auditorium or one of the hotels.

We received the impression from our interview that with the charm and aplomb inherent in Alice Swainson, she will be a delightful asset to Michigan.

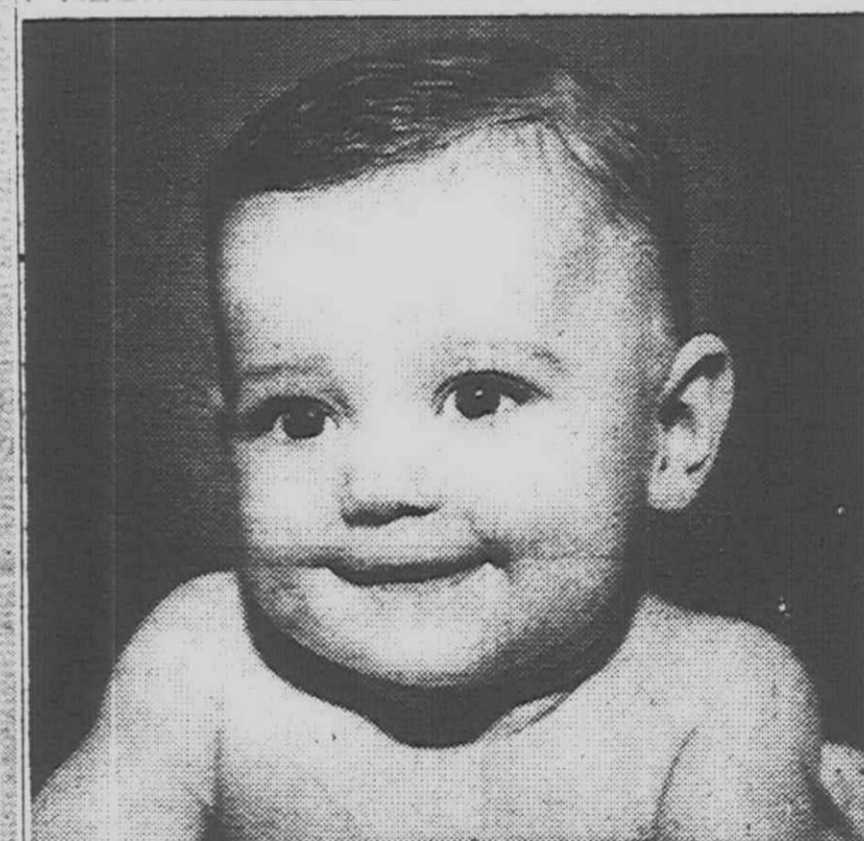

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Frank of Parkview Dr., and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ruland, formerly of Plymouth, were part of the 3,000 spectators to observe Chief Justice John R. DeWitt administering the oath of office to Michigan's 42nd governor, John B. Swainson, Inauguration Day, Jan. 2.

Senior Citizens To Meet Jan. 5

The Senior Citizens had a busy month in December. There were programs by the Junior High Jazz Band and the High School Triple Trio. They worked on trays mats and favors for convalescent homes for the holidays.

A cooperative dinner on Dec. 22 and Christmas singing had a large turnout. Each one was presented with a box of cookies and candy by the Hostess. On Wednesday evening, Dec. 23, a bus trip was made to see the Christmas decorations in Dearborn and Northland business districts and the resident hall North West section of Detroit, after which sandwiches, cookies, tea and coffee was served by Mrs. Dely and Mrs. Williams of the V.F.W. Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Roberts Steele, Soroptimist Club president.

On Dec. 29, Miss F. E. J. Goretch, Executive Director of Citizens Center, Inc. at 587 E. Grand Boulevard, Detroit, gave a very interesting talk about the organizing of their group and the trials and errors they encountered. Ice cream, delicious home made cake, tea and coffee was prepared and served by the Senior Citizens group at this meeting.

The Soroptimist Club extend their thanks and appreciation to Mrs. Mildred Dely and all members of the V.F.W. Auxiliary for acting as Hostess and assisting in so many ways in December.

To Install Officers
The public is being invited to attend a joint installation of officers of the South Lyon Rebekah Lodge, No. 485 and the I.O.O.F. No. 25 at their hall on Saturday, Jan. 7, at 8 p.m.

Members of the Plymouth Lodge will do the installing.

THE ANNUAL Holly Hop and Candlelight Buffet held for members of the Mayflower Dance Club took place last Thursday night.

Here, ninth graders are competing in a dance competition. The dancing classes were started five years ago.

Engaged

Miss Connie Coyle
Mr. and Mrs. John D. Coyle of Battle Creek, announced the engagement of their daughter, Connie, at a small informal party in their home Christmas Day evening to William John Wright, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Wright of Pennington Ave.

The bride-elect is a 1959 graduate of Battle Creek Central High and attended Kellogg Community College for a semester, then transferred to Ferris Institute where she will graduate in August from the Stenographic Division.

Her fiancé graduated from Mt. Pleasant High in 1959. After serving with the U.S. Army he entered Ferris Institute where he will graduate in August from the Trade and Industry Division.

No date has been set for the wedding.

Miss Jean Haughn
The engagement of their daughter, Jean, to Bruce R. Curtis is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Haughn of Lipsic, Ohio.

Mr. Curtis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard J. Curtis of Plymouth.

Miss Haughn, a graduate of Ohio State University, is teaching home economics at St. Louis, Mich. Her fiancé is attending Central Michigan University.

Holly Hop Ends Dance Course for Youngsters

The Holly Hop and Candlelight Buffet at the Mayflower Hotel, Dec. 29 was the crowning touch that put the stamp of completion on a 10-week dancing class for 125 young dancers, seventh, eighth and ninth graders.

During the evening a dance contest was held to demonstrate various steps of cha-cha, swing, fox trot and waltz. The dancers had learned. Seventh and eighth graders placing first, second and third place were: John Herter and Janice Mattison, Dick Lorenz and Sue Hulce, Jack Wiley and Sue Niemi for Cha-Cha. Swing steppers were: John Herter and Sandy Bonlander, Pam Anderson and David Eisonlord, Jim Le n t and Sue Hulce. Fox trotters were: Tim Steiner and Kathy Kooiman, Gary Kubik and Ellen Heid, Steve Stribley and Mary Lynne Parsons.

Ninth graders in the same categories were: Eric Morgan and Liz Dobis, Bob Weber and Luan Penny, Ron Becker and Ray Dennison, Craig Bobby and Betty Storer, Lauren Campbell and Bob Knapp, Betsy Haas and John Bowman, Ron Becker and Sandy Papp, Harry Fountain and Liz Dobis, Betsy Haas and David Agnew.

The dancing classes were started five years ago by Mrs. Mabel Lorenz as an effort to offer young people the opportunity to learn ballroom dancing and at the same time a few of the social more that accompany dancing.

New classes are now being formed by Mrs. Lorenz and the instructor Ray Dine and his assistant, Miss Jeris, for the winter session, including some former students who wish to go on to advanced classes.

Despite the many hours involved in planning and organizing Mrs. Lorenz says, "It is a real pleasure to work with these youngsters."

Quintet Away; Tankers Entertain

Plymouth High School's 1961 varsity athletic program gets going today and tomorrow with conflicting desires. The swimming team will be hoping for a continuation of 1960's performance, while the basketball squad is searching for a change of luck.

Coach John McFall's powerful swimming aggregation will entertain Trenton at 4 p.m. today in the Plymouth High School pool. It is the first varsity meet of the New Year and Plymouth should have no trouble adding another victim to its present string of 23 straight scalps. The only real question is the margin.

In addition, sharp eyes will be watching to see if the holiday lull has had any effect on individual performances, which will be all important in the state meets later on.

While McFall is busy with such envious "problems", Coach Jim Doyle will also hope for a continuation of the kind of performance that his cage team turned in against Bentley. But, he will be casting a hopeful eye for a change of luck in the New Year.

The first opportunity to investigate in 1961 will be at Trenton at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow when Plymouth meets Trenton. Likely Doyle will continue with the same aggressive quintet that performed so well against Bentley.

That lineup included Captain Jim Ralston and Dave Palmer at guard; Dan Stremick at center; John Spigarelli and Art Nelson at forwards.

The cagers will be looking for their second win. They have lost three ... but the Bentley game proved that they still have a change in the league. At least, they should be troublesome henceforth.

Elementary School Activities to Open

Basketball, cheerleading and baton twirling programs are beginning this week at Plymouth's elementary schools.

The basketball program for fifth and sixth graders has started under the supervision of professionally trained people. All boys interested in playing are still invited to join.

The Recreation Department will conduct a cheerleading and baton program for all boys and girls, starting this Saturday, Jan. 7. The classes will be at the High School. Pupils in grades 3 and up are invited.

These are the times for the classes:
Allen, 9 to 9:30 a.m.; Bird, 9:30 to 10 a.m.; Farrand, 10 to 10:30 a.m.; Lutheran and Our Lady of Good Counsel, 10:30 to 11 a.m.; Smith, Galimore, Starkweather and St. Anthony, 11 to 11:30 a.m.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

First regular Tuesday night meeting will be held Jan. 10 at 8 p.m. Our membership drawing will be held at this meeting. Come on out — you may be the lucky member.

May we extend our deepest sympathy to Comrade Richard Neale and his family in their recent bereavement.

The New Year's Eve Party, held at the Post Home was a huge success and was very well attended. Thanks to Chairman O. Luttermoster and all those on his committee.

New Year Greetings to all and may 1961 be the best one yet.

Auxiliary News

Happy New Year to all our auxiliary members. May this new year bring much happiness and joy to each and every one of you.

As you watched the Annual Tournament of Roses Parade on TV on New Year's Day did you notice the float entered by the City of Santa Fe Springs, Calif.? We understand that it was designed by Marie Norman, one of our auxiliary members who now lives in that city. Congratulations, Marie, for a wonderful presentation.

Senior Citizen Chairman Mildred Dely reports that our program for the month of December was very successful. Each Thursday afternoon entertainment was planned and refreshments were served to a fine group of men and women. We of the auxiliary are pleased to be of service to this group. Thanks to all the girls who helped.

Class in Work-Simplification Opens In February for Local Homemakers

"Heart of the Home" classes in work-simplification and body mechanics will be offered in Plymouth for the benefit of homemakers with limitations of time, energy or physical capacity. Classes will be held on Feb. 14 and 21, from 1 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. at the Dunning-Hough Library.

In announcing the free classes, H. E. Woolweaver, director of Adult Education and Recreation, Plymouth Community Schools, stated that "While all persons can benefit from this kind of instruction, it has special meaning to people with heart or circulatory ailments. Experience has shown that the classes have great value for many physically handicapped individuals as well as for those who must conserve their energy."

The classes are presented by Mrs. Ruth Kettunen, consultant in Homemaker Rehabilitation, Michigan State University, working in cooperation with the Michigan Heart Assn. In the first class, Mrs. Kettunen follows the theme of "Take it easy by the way you use your body," which includes discussion and demonstrations of sit-down work work levels, and the selection and use of household equipment.

The second meeting is devoted to kitchen layout, work centers, storage arrangements, and the application of work-simplification principles to specific jobs.

Woolweaver has emphasized that the instruction is concerned with useful techniques for life and work, and that no medical advice is given in the class meetings.

Although the classes are designed with the impaired person in mind, anyone may enroll. Registration may be made and further information may be obtained by writing or calling H. E. Woolweaver, director of Adult Education and Recreation, at GL 3-3100, Extension 4.

The "Heart of the Home" program is made possible by the Michigan Heart Assn. through funds contributed by the Plymouth Community Fund to the Michigan United Fund.

Geese Eat Up

MADERA, Calif. (UPI)—California farmers used 175,000 to 200,000 geese last year to clean grassy annual and perennial weeds from their fields, Madera farm advisor Clarence Johnson said.

He said geese are saving growers as much as $50 per acre compared to hand labor and chemicals. All geese are good weeders, he said, but the White Chinese breed is most efficient. The majority are used in cotton fields.

By GEORGE SPELVIN

Tomorrow's Man Needs Tightening

"Enable me, O Lord, to use all enjoyments with due temperance, preserve me from unseasonable and immoderate sleep."—Samuel Johnson

Sam Johnson's resolution for the year 1767 still carries more than a modicum of merit. Man's predilection for the "sack" or those precious hours in bed wrapped serenely in the arms of Morpheus, the Greek God of Sleep, have kept civilization from progressing too rapidly. Let's face it, we all enjoy a good night's sleep. Of course, for the coming year it might be nice to try and do a little less sleeping and more reading in those wee hours.

Check these books if you decide to adopt this 18th century resolution: "Hawaii" by James Michener, finally finished this 900-page tome and old George heartily recommends every page; "To Kill a Mocking Bird" by Harper Lee — number three on the best-seller lists; "A Garden of Cucumbers" — a funny novel that can be read in less than two hours; deals with a brace of butlers trying to outsmart the Macy Department stores in New York City. All these books plus plenty more are available at your Wayne County Library. Ask Mrs. Pauline for these books or others that might suit your fancy.

"How To Make A Man" opened last week and the audience agreed that Tom Noonan as the besotted, beleaguered, and bewildered 1991 man of tomorrow did a stellar job of acting. His characterization of a confused owner that has put together a robot that thinks as the play rolled along to a merry conclusion.

Tom squeezed laughs out of lines and situations that were quite barren. He even made the second act seem shorter even though it was 15 minutes too long. In brief, "How To Make A Man" needs some tightening up of its main "nuts and bolts." Before it opens on Broadway in a month or so, I'm quite sure Mr. Welch, the author, world of robots. One Southern senator is pictured filibustering in Congress on the deplorable state of affairs. He asks, "Why, friends, would you want one of these robots to marry one of your daughters?"

My remedy, then, for this new comedy is to start re-writing the second act so that reason is turned on its head. Let's drop the weighty lines about the fate of the world. Eliminate the third act courtroom scene and keep the whole play based in Gordon Knight's futuristic home. The courtroom battle could be relayed by their gigantic TV in a capsule form in the same manner that the drinks were being served — colored pills for instant booze.

Down the street at the Shubert you have a few weeks yet to see Miss Dody Goodman and Buster Keaton in the lovable musical "Once Upon A Mattress." Miss Goodman's singing voice is most unusual. You either chuckle as she attempts a song or groan depending on how serious a musical comedy fan you happen to be.

Fritzi Burr as the Queen deserves special mention since her contribution to the evening's hilarity is huge. In fact, the entire cast digs into this show with vim and vigor that you're convinced they have a real bouncy show. I enjoyed the musical. It's not the big brass type of musical comedy. It's pleasant and diverting evening in the theater.

End of the year finds most critics looking at the year's supply of films from Hollywood and the studios around the world to ascertain which cinematic efforts were best. High on the list were the following films: "The Apartment," "Elmer Gantry," "Psycho," "Exodus," "Sunrise at Campobello," "Inherit the Wind," "I'm All Right, Jack," and "The Angry Silence." "Inherit the Wind" is presently playing at the Trans Lux Krim on Woodward Ave. out in the Highland Park area. The Plymouth Theater Guild is getting

TIPS FOR TEENS

By ELINOR WILLIAMS
Q.—"Dear Miss Williams: I am a girl of 15 and I have a sister 17 years old. When I want to go to a movie, to a friend's house, to a dance or a party, my parents say I can't because my older sister doesn't do it, so why should I? I can't have friends or social life. Do you think this is fair?"

Ans.—Different children in a family usually have different personalities, interests and activities. So one girl shouldn't be expected to do the same things her sister does or be exactly like her. Since you can't talk this over with your parents, perhaps an adult in your family—somebody they respect and will listen to—can convince them that both you and your sister need separate friends and activities. But if your parents mean that you, at 15, shouldn't do some things that they don't believe even your sister should do at 17... they have a point.

Q.—"Dear Elinor: I am 14 and would like to invite a boy to a dance. He was going steady with another girl, but now he's just dating her and he is free to go with others, if he likes. Would it be all right to ask him? What should I say to him?"

Ans.—It's all right to invite him if he isn't going steady. Tell him the dance is next Friday night and you were wondering if he could go as your guest. If he accepts, give him the rest of the details... "Fine! It will be fun. The dance begins at eight, so I'll expect you at my house at 7:45." It's also a good idea to call him about two days before the dance to "remind" him.

Chess is one of the oldest games known to man.

Watch Out For Overexertion In Icy Blasts

When icy blasts and sub-freezing temperatures may put an extra strain on your heart, use discretion about overexertion, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, City-County Health Commissioner, advises. In cold weather your heart pumps harder to circulate the blood and keep you warm. Snow drifts, icy winds and slippery streets call for self-restraint in outdoor exercise, which includes walking. This is particularly true of persons middle aged and older and those who do not ordinarily exercise much. Activity you carry on outdoors in cold weather requires faster heart action and takes more effort. Clothing is bulkier and harder to carry around and galoshes and rubbers add to the weight you carry with each step. Cold weather makes it harder to catch your breath when you walk. Holding yourself tense against slipping on the ice adds extra strain and all of these make your heart beat faster.

If you are breathless, it indicates that you have done more than you should, so don't wait until you are out of breath. If you are shoveling snow or doing other work out of doors, stop and rest before you are overtired or breathless. After sufficient rest, go back and finish the job.

Dr. Molner says if you have the slightest suspicion that you have heart trouble, see your doctor and be sure that you reap the benefits of the great advances in recent medical knowledge. No physician would advise a patient who has heart trouble to do whatever he wishes, but many a person who would have been ordered to bed under treatment prescribed some years ago is now a steady worker regularly employed. He plans wisely with his physician so that the energy he has stored can be used to serve him best.

He says many of the persons who have heart disease can expect to live a long useful life and find genuine satisfaction in it. The key to this is for him to keep his activity in line with what he is able to do. Many of the sudden deaths from coronary heart disease which were thought to have occurred without warning actually have not. Often early warning signals were disregarded. A life might have been saved if he had consulted a physician and followed the physician's advice.

Warning signals which should lead a person to see his doctor at once are a shortness of breath followed by a pain in the chest under the breast bone. If this pain comes after overexertion, he should see a physician by all means. Sometimes this symptom is mistaken for an indication of indigestion. If everyone understood the importance of consulting a doctor when a pain occurs under the breast bone, many lives might be saved. One way to give your heart a chance is to give your doctor a chance to examine it, if for any reason you are even slightly concerned about having heart disease.

Hamburger-Shake Lunch OK, Says Home Economist

Parents can rest easy about that hamburger and milk shake diet teenagers are so fond of. This reassurance comes from Harry Wiley, operator of the Burger Chef Drive-In, 1365 S. Main. Wiley quotes a Southern Illinois University home economist who in a newspaper article says, "very few other combinations of food can so adequately supply one third or more of the essential nutrients yet keep the calorie count to one third of the day's need."

That's what Dr. Jan Harper, associate professor in the SIU food and nutrition department, says in "Practical Food Service Manager," publication of the Illinois State Restaurant Assn. Not only the teenager but tourists, shoppers and workers out for a quick lunch call for "a hamburger and a milk shake," and Dr. Harper assures them they are ordering a lunch which is "unusually good from the nutritionist's standpoint."

"While supplying one third of the calorie needs for most persons," she writes, "a plain hamburger and strawberry milk shake provide well over half the protein, calcium, riboflavin and ascorbic acid (vitamin C) required by most adults, and well over a third of the iron, thiamin and niacin."

Proclaims January As New March of Dimes Month

Mayor Harold E. Guenther has proclaimed the month of January as New March of Dimes Month. This is the text of his proclamation:

WHEREAS the prevention of crippling diseases will materially strengthen the health and well-being of our community and nation, and

WHEREAS The National Foundation has taken active steps to prevent birth defects and arthritis with its programs of research and clinical study, and

WHEREAS aid is needed by those stricken with paralytic polio and protection afforded by the Salk vaccine must be urged upon millions of our citizens, and

WHEREAS the New March of Dimes is the sole financial support of The National Foundation, which is the world's largest voluntary health organization fighting to prevent crippling diseases, THEREFORE, I, Harold E. Guenther, Mayor of Plymouth, do hereby proclaim the month of January, 1961, as New March of Dimes Month and urge all the citizens of this community to volunteer their fullest financial and spiritual support to this worthwhile of causes.

Charles J. Ash

Charles J. Ash died Dec. 29, 1960 at the age of 82 after a lengthy illness. He was born Dec. 17, 1878 in Livonia and came from there to Plymouth in 1926. Mr. Ash retired from farming in 1926 and later worked as a carpenter in Plymouth. He was affiliated with St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Livonia.

His wife, Bertha Wolff Ash, preceded him in death in 1929. Surviving him are five sons, Carl H., of Detroit, Walter E., Edwin W., Arnold L., Russell A., all of Plymouth, and three daughters, Mrs. Esther

Plymouth Youth Involved In Fatal Accident
A Plymouth High School student, William Drennan, 16, of 665 Simpson, was involved in a fatal collision last weekend that took the life of a Detroit woman.

William, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard L. Drennan, had been attending a high school dance Saturday night and was taking his companion, Barbara Dorenkamp, 15, to her Redford Township home, at 17408 Fielding.

Livonia police said that William's car, going north on Middlebelt Rd., skidded into the southbound lane and hit the car driven by Mrs. Alice Soof, 46, of 18114 Ryan.

Mrs. Soof died at 2 a.m. Sunday and her husband, a passenger, was in fair condition at St. Mary Hospital. William was also treated and Miss Dorenkamp received extensive facial injuries.

Mr. Soof, who was thrown through the windshield, required 100 stitches in his face, police said.

Merryfield and Mrs. Evelyn LeFever of Plymouth and Mrs. Ruth Urton of Ypsilanti, one brother, William Ash, Plymouth, two sisters, Mrs. Ida Freiheit of Plymouth and Mrs. Bertha Manzo of Ann Arbor, 15 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mr. Ash was in state at the Schrader Funeral Home and funeral services were from St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church, Dec. 31, 1960. Rev. Winfred Koelpin officiating. Interment was in Riverside Cemetery.

Frank Mott

Funeral services were held at Schrader Funeral Home Dec. 31 for Frank Mott who died suddenly Dec. 28, 1960, at Ridgewood Hospital at the age of 80.

Mr. Mott was born Aug. 27, 1880 in Canton Township and lived his entire life in this area. He was a retired farmer.

In other business before the Commission Monday night, Commissioners decided to take part in the Exchange of Mayors program during Michigan week, but only the exchange can be arranged with a city of similar size. Commissioners agreed that nothing is gained when Plymouth's mayor visits tiny villages, such as Fort Sanilac where last year's visit was made. The exchange is done by lot. This is the first year that communities were given an option to choose a city of its own size.

Action on re-zoning a parcel and lot on Joy St. from one family residential to two family was tabled. Don Lightfoot made the request and it has been approved by the Planning Commission. But several neighbors appeared Monday night to object to the change, claiming that the present business operated by Lightfoot on the property is already a violation of zoning.

The manager was instructed to investigate the matter further.

Clark Aerial Survey Corp., located in the City-owned building next to City Hall, has asked to cancel its lease. Owner Frank Lodge is cutting down his business and is being employed by another firm.

Mayor Pro tem Robert Sincok presided at Monday night's meeting in the absence of Mayor Harold Guenther.

Crump, Charles Ruckhaber, Max Nelson, Jack Moran and Glenn Nipp were pallbearers.

Clarence Hartman

The father of two Plymouth residents, Clarence Hartman, died at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor early Wednesday morning at the age of 76. He was a resident of Shickshinny, Pa.

Mr. Hartman, born Jan. 6, 1884 in Muhlenburg, Pa., was preceded in death by his wife, Mae. Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Doris Lietz of Plymouth and Mrs. Elsie McKinley of Shickshinny; son, Leroy Hartman of Plymouth; a brother, Ralph Hartman of Buffalo; six grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral arrangements were made by the Schrader Funeral Home. Services will be Jan. 7 at Zofcin Funeral Home in Shickshinny. Interment is in Marvins Cemetery, Muhlenburg.

Roy Maten

Funeral services will be held Thursday, Jan. 5 for Roy Maten, 36825 E. Ann Arbor Trail, Livonia, who died at his home Jan. 1 at the age of 78.

Born in Detroit on May 13, 1882, Mr. Maten was a farmer and had been a resident of Livonia for 25 years. He is survived by three cousins.

Services will be at 2 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral Home with the Rev. Roger W. Merrell officiating. Interment is in Newburg Cemetery, Livonia.

Four Race

The fourth top-vote puller wins a two-year term. The three Commissioners whose terms do not expire for another two years are Marvin Terry, Robert Sincok and Carl Shear.

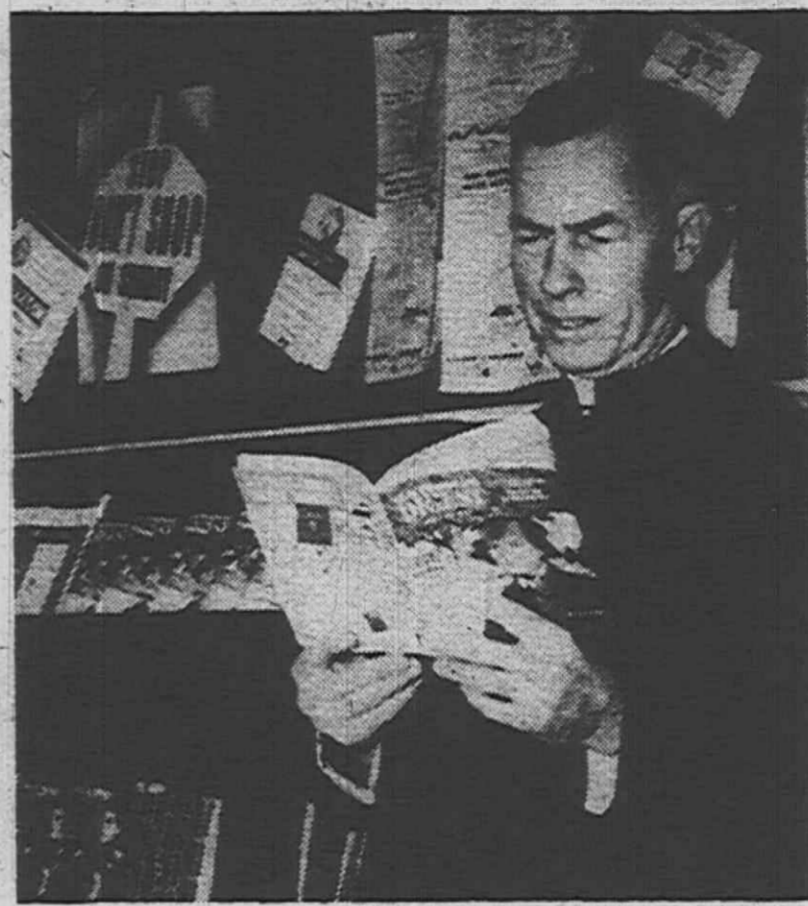

After Commissioners are elected in April, they hold an organizational meeting at which they elect a mayor from their own ranks.

Mrs. Catherine Henderson has filed nominating petitions for both the Board of Supervisors and City Commission. This is a legal procedure. In fact, if she were to gain both seats, it would accomplish what City Commissioners have been trying to do for two years — have someone in an official capacity in City Hall also serve on the Board of Supervisors.

Under the present system, the local supervisor has no hand in City operations. Plymouth is the only place in Wayne County that elects its supervisor.

No Takers

At that same time, nine charter commissioners were elected. This commission started to work immediately writing a charter — the one that will appear on the ballot in two weeks. The commission had two years in which to present the charter to voters. The two years will be up within a month after the Jan. 17 vote.

OUR LADY of Good Counsel Catholic Church made national news in the recent issue of Catholic Digest. Rev. Fr. Francis Byrne is scanning the article in the magazine concerning a small notice posted near the rectory's door bell.

Rectory's Notice At Door Gains Prominence

A sure-fire way to keep callers busy while you answer the door—if you are home—has been tried for a number of years by pastors of Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic Church here.

In fact, the method is so effective that it is the subject of a short feature in this month's issue of "Catholic Digest," a monthly publication read by over nine million Americans.

The typewritten notice is posted at the rear door of the church rectory, beside the door bell. It reads as follows:

"If you have rung the bell, it will not be necessary to ring it again until you read this. We are not deaf. However, we are not as young as we used to be. It takes time to come from the basement or the 2nd floor. If you have left your motor running you should turn it off. A running engine wastes gas, and besides, someone might steal your car.

"You do not have to rap on the door. The bell rings if you push it—unless, of course, it is out of order, in which case there will be a sign on the door to that effect.

"If you have read this far, then read what you have read again. You might have missed something important the first time. If still no answer, push the button again. You need not do your shopping now. Wait another minute to see what happens. We are not watching you from inside to see when you will go away. If you appear to be sober and in your right senses, the door will be opened as soon as we arrive.

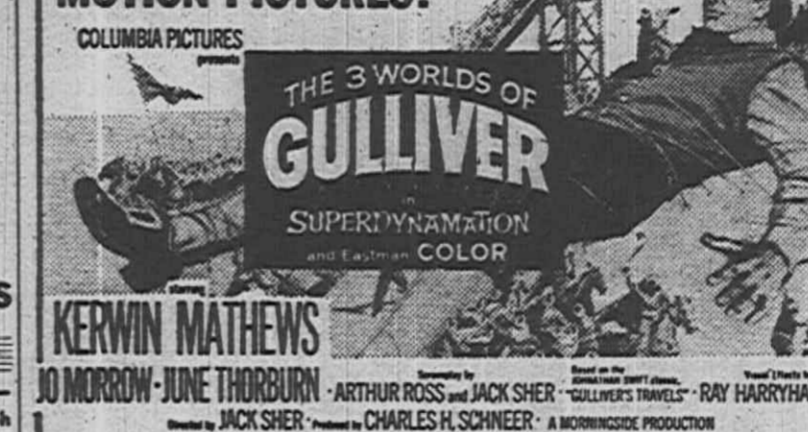

"If after a reasonable time there is still no answer, then leave your card if you have one. If not, call again some other day or give us a call on the phone. Please don't go away angry or say that we are never home. Maybe someone else is calling at your home this very minute."

Only One Democrat
1955, 1957 and 1959.
The clerk, Fred Miller, was elected to office two years ago while Trustee Louis Norman joined the board four years ago. The other trustee, C. V. Sparks, has two more years to serve out his term. The offices of trustee, board of review and justice of the peace are for four years; the others are for two.

While this year's Township election will be rather dull, it won't be as easy as in 1957 when there were no Democrats seeking office and not more than one Republican filing of each office.

Two years ago, however, Democrats offered almost a complete slate and a major political battle was fought by both sides.

Plymouth Township, however, is traditionally Republican and Democrats have yet been unable to invade Township Hall.

The newly-elected Township treasurer will undoubtedly receive a considerable cut in pay when the new terms start in April. The Township Board has voted to put the treasurer on a salary instead of the present fee system. The present method allows one percent of the taxes collected. This figures to around $15,000 annually. The Board must yet set the new salary.

Township voters will have one question on the Feb. 20 Primary ballot, in addition to the candidates. The question of providing a civil service system for Township firemen will be submitted.

First Federal earnings payments are made each June 30th and December 31st. The payment of last June was $4,700,000, while the December payment, First Federal's 54th consecutive payment, amounted to $4,900,000.

Your Christmas Poinsettia Can Be Made To Bloom Again

Poinsettias which brighten the homes this Christmas can be made to bloom again if the plants receive proper light and temperature requirements.

Once the poinsettia plant has bloomed, the red leaves will begin to fall after a week or two and the plant enters a "rest" period. It should then be stored in a cool place, in a basement or a garage, where it won't freeze, and watered a little about once every two or three weeks to keep it alive.

In the spring, the plant should be pruned so that a few main limbs are left to start new growth, planted in well drained garden soil, and left there for the summer.

Shortened days of fall and winter then signal the plant to prepare itself for bloom. The plant can be brought indoors in the fall and left to continue growth at normal periods of day and night. It is also important to keep the poinsettia out of drafts and at temperatures of 65-70 degrees.

Poinsettias develop "bloom" when the days are short and the nights are long. Short periods of night caused by periods of exposure to artificial lights, however, interfere with blooming. Night lights lengthen the day, and the plant continues to act as though it is summer.

Maintenance of normal days and nights according to the seasons help time the plant mechanism to bloom during the holiday season.

Blooming period of plants already in bloom can also be lengthened by keeping the plant away from artificial light at night.

TOURIST TRADE DROPS

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia (UPI) — The recent facial disturbances in Southern Rhodesia have cost the colony millions of pounds, in the tourist trade, according to J. W. Brinsley, director of the Salisbury and District Publicity Association.

Brinsley said that in August of 1959 nearly 3,000 tourists visited his bureau. Following the July rioting last year the August figure was only 1,600. In September of 1959 we had 2,627 visitors, but in 1960 the September figure was only 1,400.

DAVID KEENER of Plymouth was presented a string of beads from Charles Chuku Orji which makes David an honorary chief in Nigeria. Charles and David are students at Kalamazoo College and the Nigerian student is here under the auspices of the Foreign Student Leadership Project.

Nigerian Visitor Hopes For Election to His Legislature

A 20-year-old citizen of the newly-independent nation of Nigeria who someday hopes to be elected to the legislature was a Christmas visitor in Plymouth as guest of David Keener, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Keener, 695 Simpson.

He was Charles Chuku Orji, who is attending Kalamazoo College along with David.

Christmas is somewhat different in Nigeria than in America, Charles noted. There are no Christmas trees in Nigeria, but gifts are exchanged. Charles, who attended missionary school in his native land, is a Roman Catholic.

With Charles spending his first winter here, he has found the weather much too cold for his liking. And he has found big city buildings, especially those in New York, quite awesome.

But there are many things that Nigeria has that are found in America. Nigeria's cities, for instance, have many of the up-to-date buildings and other features found in other parts of the world. And Charles believes that music and sense of humor of the African people resemble that of the Americans.

Charles is attending Kalamazoo under the auspices of the Foreign Student Leadership Project of the National Student Association. This project allows 15 foreign students to attend American colleges.

Charles was selected on the basis of academic achievement and his leadership. His father, a cocoa farmer, owns a farm two miles square in Eastern Nigeria, largest of the three states. In Nigeria the states are more powerful than the national government and some day Charles hopes to be elected to the legislature of Eastern Nigeria with its capital of 80,000 people in Enugu.

While attending the Nigerian College of Arts, Science and Technology in Lagos, Charles helped organize the Zikist National Vanguard, a campus political organization which promoted the man who won the nation's gubernatorial office.

Taking economics at Kalamazoo, Charles will enter Cambridge University in England next fall to obtain his law degree. After this he expects to open his own law practice and at the same time take over his father's cocoa plantation. "I have obtained many ideas about running the plantation," Charles explained.

Because of his interest in economics, he is trying to find out more about America's unions, and Michigan is a good place to find out. During the Christmas vacation, he and David went to Solidarity House, headquarters of the AFL-CIO and on Dec. 23 spent an evening at the home of William Beckham, administrative vice-president of the AFL-CIO.

On the day after Christmas, Charles went to Minneapolis where the 15 foreign students held their mid-winter evaluation conference.

Nigeria is not having the trouble taking on its independence that its neighbor of Congo has had. Charles explained that the British had long-prepared Nigerians to take over in an orderly fashion.

Nigerians, Charles said, are very much interested in their government. Student organizations are especially powerful.

Jerry Seibert Says...

PANTALON PREDICTION

Fashion prediction for 1961, and on and on: more and more women will be "wearing the pants."

Like it or not, and even though many people find an all too obvious connection between current styles and the fact that pants take their name from a 16th century Italian comedy character named "Pantaloon," pants are here to stay.

Culottes (also called butterfly pants, stride-skirt, and divided-skirt) have made the greatest fashion comeback since the boomerang. "Come-back" because pants are really an old story in women's fashions.

Back in the eighteenth century ruffled pantaloons peeped from beneath the oh-so-feminine hoopskirt. Try nineteenth century belle knew how to lift her hoops to display the most provocative amount of lace-framed ankle.

Women, pioneering westward, tossed aside prudery for practicality. The divided-skirt (grandmother of today's culotte) galloped in to replace the elegant but clumsy side-saddle skirt. The uproar over that rumbled for half a century.

Amelia Bloomer had a good idea but, alas, no style sense. Had she designed a garment with eye-appeal, anything might have happened.

Still, heavy and unwieldy as bloomers were (ask any woman who wore them for gym), they were a breakthrough from Victorian prudery and a great advance in women's "sports" costumes.

There, the matter pretty much rested until Marlene Dietrich appeared in slacks. Women, yearning to look like her, rushed into slacks. The fact that most figures didn't resemble hers didn't stop the stampede. Pants have been "in" ever since.

The new culottes can't be blamed on French designers. They were born in the USA. Since they are here to stay, here are a few hints for pants-wearers which might help make the subject less painful, particularly for the onlookers.

Never buy any variety of pants without trying them on and studying them from all angles. Nothing is less flattering than a pair of pants that sag, bulge, or fit too snugly.

When wearing pants, the best way to look like a lady is to act like one. Pants do not permit a lady to sit with her feet on the desk or to cross her legs like a man.

Many culottes are now designed as elegant evening fashions for both hostess and guest. These should be worn with soignée make-up, and carefully arranged hair, to maintain their sophisticated high-fashion role.

ULTRA-DRAMATIC: long, silk satin culotte for (A 1961 party) hostess or guest. Designed by Richard Cole (a firm believer in "butterfly skirts"), there is an accompanying back-buttoned pop-over velvet-trousers are bias cut.

Michigan Bell Office Here Changes Managers

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. has announced that William F. Dunn, manager here for the past 2½ years, has been transferred to its Marketing Department in Detroit as a staff supervisor.

Dunn will be succeeded here by Thomas J. Glavin, former commercial manager at the Kenwood office in Detroit.

In his new position, Dunn will be responsible for coordinating new training techniques and procedures with Marketing Department personnel throughout the state.

Dunn joined Michigan Bell's sales force in 1948 at Detroit. He later served in the Webster and Kenwood offices, and in 1954 was made sales supervisor of the Webster office.

A year later he became the Webster manager, and in 1958 was transferred to the Fort Division headquarters as a commercial staff supervisor. He was appointed Kenwood commercial manager this past June.

Glavin and his wife, Mary Ann, have four children: Diane, 7; Patrick, 5; Timothy, 4; and Michael, 8 months. The family resides at 715 North Selfridge. Clawson.

"But Why The Candles, Holy Water And Beads?"
"It looks like hokus-pokus to me," Dave Smith said to Father Crane. Dave was expressing a quite common view held by many non-Catholics... that the Catholic use of such articles as beads, crucifixes, medals and holy water is unnecessary in religion and even smacks of pagan superstition.
Instead, he first made a salve of clay and anointed the man's eyes. In blessing little children. He did not have to lay His Hands on them - but he did. Many people, Father Crane added, think the Catholic practice of kneeling to pray is unnecessary... yet Jesus, in the Garden of Gethsemane, "kneeling down... began to pray" (Luke 22:41).
Many Catholic practices which seem strange to you now, would make a deep and convincing impression upon your mind and heart if you understood them. And this is your invitation to investigate.
We will gladly send you without cost or obligation, in a plain wrapper, a highly interesting pamphlet explaining such things as the Catholic use of crucifixes, medals, incense, holy water, candles, and special Catholic prayers and practices such as the Rosary, Devotion to the Sacred Heart, and Lent. It costs you nothing to learn the truth, and the truth will be most interesting. Nobody will call on you. Write today for Pamphlet PKMC-38

Widely - Known Landscape Architect Retires at 70

Hubert A. Lamley, one of landscape work. Presented Michigan's best-known landscape architects who did landscape design work for St. John's Provincial Seminary. Plymouth, has retired Jan. 1 after over 43 years of working with city planners, private planning firms and park agencies.

The 70-year-old Lamley has been chief landscape architect for over 17 years at the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, a five-county park and parkway agency serving Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne Counties.

Before joining the authority in 1943, Lamley helped plan and develop several Michigan parks, golf courses, country clubs, housing developments, city areas and cemeteries.

During his career, Lamley often served as consultant for landscape and planning projects. He did the landscape design work for the Seminary at Sheldon and Phoenix Roads, including the nine-hole golf course completed in 1952 at the 96-acre site. The seminary was one of the major projects of the late Edward Cardinal Mooney who died in 1958. Because of this assignment, Lamley became a friend of the Cardinal.

Kenneth L. Halleubeck, authority director, pointed out that Lamley has been responsible for much of the actual site planning of its parks, including such recreational areas as Kensington Metropolitan Park near Milford, Metropolitan Beach on Lake St. Clair near Mt. Clemens, Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville and Hudson Mills Metropolitan Park northwest of Ann Arbor.

Perhaps his achievement is best explained by an award given to the authority for its development of Kensington Southfield (northwest of Dearborn) and several golf courses for his skill in planning and design.

Yule Festivities At Robert Morans

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Moran and their daughters Cindy and Sandy of Northern St., were hosts to Mr. Moran's family on Christmas Day. Other guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. James Rorbacher and their daughter, Doreen Lynn, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Moran, Miss Elaine Moran and fiance Jerry Bartel.

I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, and am now no more worthy to be called thy son. - Luke (15:18-19)

Thus spoke the prodigal son, and when he returned home his father welcomed him with rejoicing and forgiveness. Jesus promised in this parable that the Heavenly Father will give the same glad reception to all who, having strayed into sin, turn with contrite hearts and ask His forgiveness.

YEARS AGO

Taken from The Mail

10 Years Ago

Another familiar Plymouth landmark will soon disappear as the city gradually assumes a new complexion. Monday demolition crews will begin razing the Main Street buildings now occupied by the Plymouth Hardware, Krogers, Dunning, and Woodworth's. The McKinzie Construction Co., of Detroit will erect a new $211,000 S. S. Kresge store on the site immediately.

According to figures released recently, Dunning Library surpasses all Wayne County public libraries in total annual circulation. The yearly report states that Plymouth readers used 95,317 books from Dec. 1949 to Nov. 1950.

All boys in sixth, seventh and eighth grades interested in playing the F league report to the Plymouth High School sports Saturday morning, Jan. 6 at 9 a.m. Mr. Foster will be in charge. All games will be played on Saturday mornings from 9 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

Plymouth Township's Board of Education President Robert O. Wesley expressed complete satisfaction recently with the building progress on all three units of the school expansion program.

25 Years Ago

Chief of Police Vaughn Smith has received a large number of fingerprint forms to be used in finger printing. Anyone desirous of having their prints made a part of a permanent public record may do so. The work can be done down at the city hall without cost to the individual, states Chief Smith.

Spencer Heehey numbers five madames in his music class. As these are all beginners, it is another proof of the new spirit that is animating our housewives, who are escaping the drudgery of other days.

In an opinion recently rendered, Attorney General Kuhn holds that a township board cannot accept the name of a woman for registration previous to a meeting of the board, as he claims the board really does not exist until it meets together. He says that a woman desiring to be registered as a voter must appear personally before the board and present her name.

Readers of The Mail will remember the effort made last spring by President Hillmer and other gentlemen to finance the construction of a new type of gasoline engine at Flint with the ultimate view of building the machine in Plymouth. The plans failed, but the patentee of the engine at Flint did not get discouraged. Still other gentlemen from Plymouth had some faith in the engine and a new one was constructed, remedying the defects found by Ann Arbor professors in the old one. It is now claimed the engine is perfect and we understand it has been shipped to Plymouth and may be seen by anyone interested at the shop of H. J. Fisher. Dan McIntosh appears as most directly interested.

The people of Plymouth are to have the privilege of seeing one of the world's greatest magicians at the opera house next Thursday evening, the 19th, when Durno and his company will appear in their wonderful and laugh-producing entertainments. Durno does some of the old tricks and many new ones of the magician's art, including ventriloquism, the metamorphose and his famous optical illusion guess.

Men In Service

James Hargrove, son of Mr. and Mrs. Grady Hargrove of 6196 Canton Center Rd., Plymouth, graduated from recruit training Dec. 16 at the Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp," included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

In nine weeks of instruction, the "raw recruit" is developed into a Navy Bluejacket, ready for duty with the fleet.

A recent survey by the United States Department of Agriculture found that rural residents used more pickles than city dwellers.

Better Equipment Making Movie-Taking Much Easier

By BOB KNIGHT

One of the nicest things about shooting and showing home movies has been that so many people seemed to think you must be a photographic whiz to do it—although you knew, even though you hadn't rolled off a log in years, that movies are just that easy.

But today not as many people "Oh" and "Ah" movie makers as used to. Not that movies aren't as good as they were, for they're better than ever. But rather because there are millions more people now making movies.

Too, other millions have gotten the word and are merely waiting for that special day to bring home their own camera and start personal movie diaries.

The many members of the latter group may find this column of particular interest, as its topic is: Which is the best movie camera? And which we can't answer without immediately asking our own question—best for what?

For that lecturer who showed his travel movies at the club last month, the "best" movie camera is probably one that costs about as much as one of the compact cars and shoots in slow-motion and single-frame through a gatling-gun front sporting a series of awe-inspiring lenses.

But, price regardless, that wouldn't necessarily make it "best" for you as there's no real point in considering 16mm film equipment unless you're going to show your movies on screens up to 12 feet or more in width and before audiences numbering well into the hundreds.

Which, of course, is probably not your idea at all.

For most people, then, 8mm film, producing pictures up to five feet in width, is the answer. Which works out very well all around because 8mm camera and projectors have become the true darlings of equipment manufacturers.

"Everything costs so much these days." How often have you heard that? But it sure doesn't go for 8mm movie making, where film is snap-shot-inexpensive, and the very latest and very able little movie camera—tagged at less than $25—is every bit as good and a darn sight easier to use than those which cost twice as much not so many years ago.

Priced just about where most "low-priced" cameras were a short time ago are today's fantastically simple electric-eye movie cameras that do everything for you, photographically, but put out the cat and change the baby. One type simply tells you where to set the lens for light conditions—leaving to you the task of adjusting a fingertype dial to the reading.

The other type just ups and automatically sets the lens for you—even throughout the span of a panorama during which you swing from sunlight toward shade!

You also have a d-d-d choice of "extra lens" cameras—turret or zoom. The former usually comes with but one real lens, its standard lens. Its two other lenses are converter lenses which, when the turret is swung around, seats one of them before the regular lens and changes its viewpoint to that of modified telephoto or wide-angle. The zoom camera, however, achieve exactly the same objectives with but one lens which can be racked in or out to expand or narrow its viewpoint.

The big difference, of course, is that with a zoom lens you can keep right on shooting while you're lens-racking, thereby zooming in and out on subjects and scenes.

Also don't forget the projector! For this is the device that lets you see your movies—which, of course, is what all the shooting's about. In fact, the projector frequently has more to do with the quality of your movies than the camera.

For any good movie camera—and almost all of them are good—will put good movie images onto good movie film. For this, no small part of the credit is due to the film itself. More versatile movie cameras simply increase the range, but not necessarily the quality, of your movies.

How well, how crisply, how brilliantly, how large you can see your movies is pretty much determined by your projector's ability to deliver the camera and film story to your screen.

What a change there's been in 8mm projectors in the past few months! They're smaller, they're brighter, they're simpler than ever. And now there are even 8mm sound projectors with which you can see a d-d-d "make and then show your own sound movies. And very good sound it is, too.

Legal Notices

To the Mayor, City Manager, City Clerk and Superintendent of Public Works of the City of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan:

Sirs:

You're hereby notified that the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, did at a meeting of said Board held on December 8, 1960, decide and determine that the certain section of street described in the minutes of said Board should be a county road under the jurisdiction of the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, held at the Board's offices on the 7th Floor, City-County Building, Detroit 26, Michigan, at 5:00 A.M., Eastern Standard Time, Thursday, December 8, 1960.

Present: Commissioners Wilson, O'Brien and Kreger.

Commissioner Kreger moved the adoption of the following resolution:

BE IT RESOLVED that, effective January 1, 1961, the Board of County Road Commissioners of the County of Wayne, Michigan, does hereby take over as a county road and made a part of the county road system of the County of Wayne all the portion of county road described as follows:

Mill Street in Sections 23 and 26, T. 1 S., R. 8 E., City of Plymouth, Wayne County, Michigan, described as beginning at the south line of Plymouth Road, thence northerly along the center line of Mill Street, and adjacent to the N. E. S. 1/4 lines of said sections, 0.434 mile to an angle point, thence N. 43 degrees 47' 30" W., as shown on Assessor's Plymouth Pl. No. 17, (L. 66 P. 79), 0.11 mile to an intersection with Northville Road, constituting 0.544 mile of county road.

The motion was supported by Commissioner O'Brien and carried by the following vote: Ayes: Commissioners Wilson, O'Brien and Kreger. Nays: None.

THIS NOTICE IS GIVEN UNDER AND BY VIRTUE OF ACT NO. 283 OF THE PUBLIC ACTS OF 1909, AS AMENDED.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto set my hand at Detroit, Michigan, this 14th day of December, A.D. 1960.

All About BABIES

By Hope F. Lewis
Chairman, Diaper Service Information Bureau

Diaper rash is the painful irritation or inflammation of a baby's sensitive skin. The two most common causes are the breakdown of the urine in a wet diaper into caustic ammonia and the soap or detergent residue that is retained in an improperly rinsed diaper.

The nation's diaper service industry, aware of its responsibility to the health and welfare of the baby, has, with the help of research scientists, developed processing formulas for the prevention of these and other types of rash.

After years of laboratory research the industry has found a scientific way of impregnating the finished diaper with special antiseptics that dry into the fibers of the diaper cloth. Here, the antiseptics remain dormant as long as the diaper is dry. Once baby wets or soils the diaper, the antiseptics become activated.

A typical process in the industry includes four separate pre-rinses, four separate soft-water suds baths, six afters, plus controlled bleaching, special rinses for neutralizing water alkalinity and a special cotton softening agent that makes the diaper cloth extra soft.

The entire process takes more than an hour and requires 1400 gallons of soft, pure water. To provide germ-free diapers, water temperatures exceed the required 180 degrees. Quality standards are maintained by continual and compulsory laboratory tests to check sample diapers.

While it is possible to properly do diapers at home, it is difficult to duplicate the scientific process of a modern diaper service. Home laundry equipment does not easily lend itself to the continuous one-hour multi-washing, multi-rinsing and special drying process of the modern diaper service. The required germ-free diapers.

Many families today recognize diaper service as something more than a convenience in our modern way of life. Experience has taught them that the clean, germ-free, antiseptic-treated diapers they receive from their modern diaper service provide medically approved protection against diaper rash.

Most Fatal Crash Drivers in Michigan Escape Penalties, Says MSU Report

Only one out of every 25 surviving drivers in Michigan traffic accidents is sentenced to jail and most of them don't even face a judge, according to a Michigan State University survey released today.

Even when drivers are convicted of major crime in connection with the death crashes, and face penalties as severe as 15 years in prison, their actual sentences are as little as probation or restricted driving.

Public apathy towards traffic prosecutions together with official hesitancy and failures are blamed for this breakdown in enforcement.

The survey was produced as a doctoral thesis for the university's College of Education, in conjunction with MSU's Highway Traffic Safety Center.

It is believed to be the most exhaustive of its kind ever produced in any state. The survey covers 1,940 fatal accidents in 1957-58, in 61 Michigan counties.

The cases of 1,730 drivers who survived these crashes are traced to final disposition. Another 1,055 drivers in the total accidents were killed.

The study then sought from prosecutors of the 61 counties and from 102 selected police officers and sheriffs' deputies the reasons why so many drivers escaped penalty.

Author of the thesis was James Edwin Carnahan, 37-year-old trooper with the Colorado State Patrol, who did research for the Highway Traffic Safety Center while on 18 months leave from his police duties to earn a doctor of philosophy degree from MSU.

Carnahan found certain broad generalities in state-ments from enforcement of-icers, such as: "A traffic violation is not considered by the public to be a crime and people are reluctant to convict a driver of a serious charge for this violation."

He found conditions that "hurt the morale of the police and hinder an effective enforcement program."

Carnahan then raised the question as to whether "the public is aware of the need for training officers in accident investigation and if it is willing to furnish the money necessary for this training."

Specifically, the tabulations showed that police investigators found no evidence of violations on the part of over half — 56 per cent — of the 1,730 surviving drivers.

Then the county prosecutors refused to start court action against 60 per cent of the remaining death-crash drivers the police did believe to be at fault.

By the time all the other legal processes had been satisfied, in terms of weeks or months or years, only 183 of the original 1,730 drivers actually stood trial on major charges in circuit court on the evidence gathered by police and presented by the prosecutors.

Of these, 148 were convicted of manslaughter, negligent homicide, felonious driving or leaving the scene of a fatal accident. Thirty-five were acquitted. In lower courts, to which 47 of the fatal accident cases were shunted, another 42 were convicted of misdemeanors, including minor violations.

Police frankly accepted a share of responsibility for the fact so few death drivers were ever brought to trial. They admitted a lack of trained investigators, inefficient procedures, and a common complaint of inadequate police budget to set up proper administration of traffic cases.

Preponderance of opinion of police officers, however, directly blamed the prosecutors for refusal or failure to press fatal accident cases investigated by and presented by police. Their statements ranged from ones reflecting understanding of the prosecutors' problems to more bitter comments: that prosecutors don't "wish to bother with traffic cases" and think in terms of maintaining a good conviction record.

Police had fewer criticisms of the courts, other than to express some protests against "abuse" of both police and civilian witnesses, and some dissatisfaction with the light sentences that are meted out.

On their own behalf, prosecutors stressed "insufficient evidence" as their main reason for inability or refusal to bring action in these traffic cases. In this category they included lack of eye witnesses and the inability of investigators to provide evidence of criminal negligence needed for a felony prosecution. Secondly, they stressed "contributory negligence" on the part of a pedestrian, a cyclist or the other driver for refusal to bring court action against the offender accused by police.

In still other cases the prosecutors frankly admitted they thought the defendant had suffered enough, especially when he had lost wife, child or other near relative in the fatal accident.

The Carnahan study sought no expression from the judges on the light sentences to convicted violators.

While 19 convicted of manslaughter, the most serious offense possible in a traffic case, were sent to jail or prison, only six of these sentences were for the maximum of 2½ to 15 years. Other sentences included jail terms for as little as 10 days, fines or costs from $100 up, and isolated court orders of restitution. Four escaped restricted driving.

A third of those convicted of negligent homicide, a lesser charge, were imprisoned for terms ranging from 30 days to two years. But another 20 so convicted were sentenced only to probation or driving restrictions. The largest number of those convicted paid their penalty in money, in amounts from $50 up, plus probationary sentences of varying severity.

Now! 4 Onion Dressings
no one can buy

The very first onion dressings
...make them with this new GOOD SEASONS MIX!

Good Seasons Onion Dressing. So different, so delicious. A light, fresh dressing with an herb-spice base, flecks of sweet, red peppers, and a provocative touch of onion. Flavorful, but never sharp! Takes just seconds to mix. Easy directions are on the Good Seasons envelope. You combine your favorite oil, vinegar and a little water with the Mix. The water, or a substitute liquid, makes the blend smoother. (A continental chef's secret!) You can use many substitutes, vary the dressing to your own special taste. See the recipes below for delicious suggestions.

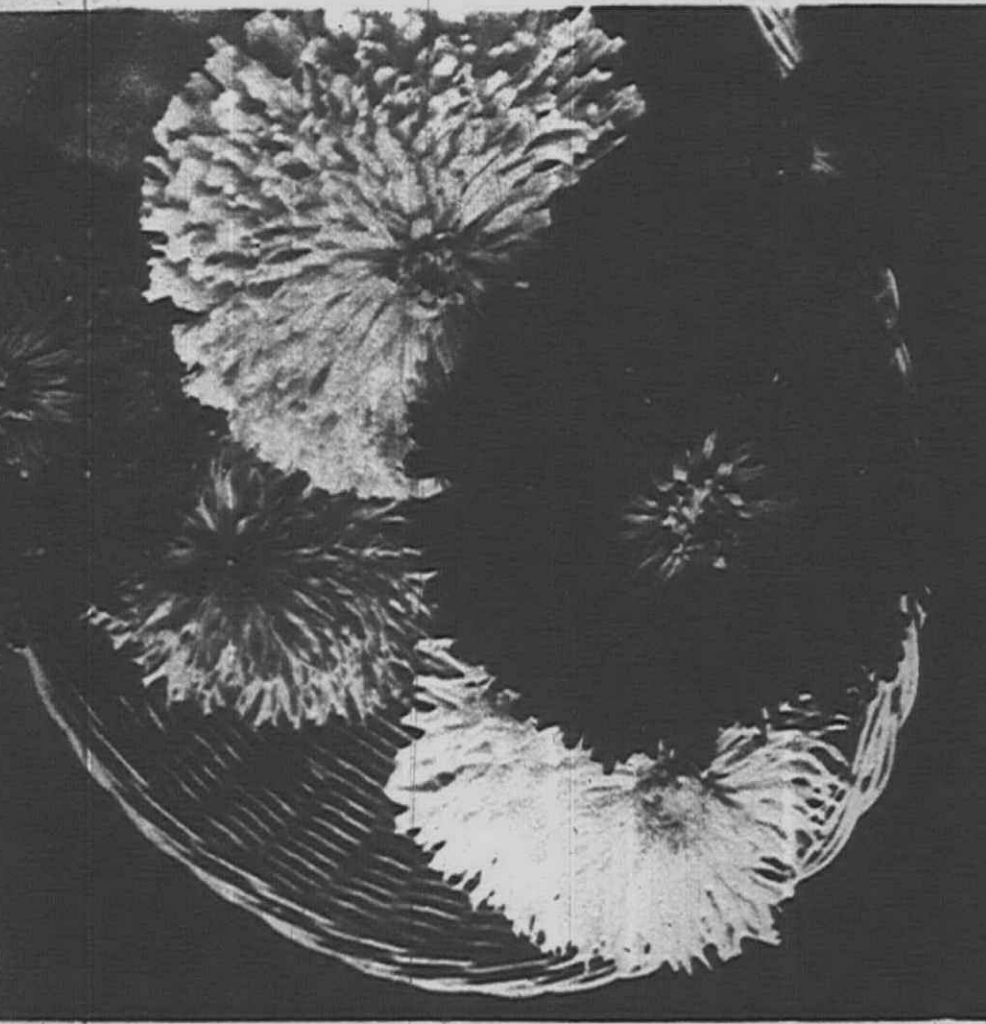

Creamy Onion Dressing for Cole Slaw. Prepare the Good Seasons Dressing but substitute either sour cream or mayonnaise for the water. This dressing, stirred into shredded cabbage salads, ends all that leary business of chopping onions. And the flavor is evenly distributed, subtle. hooy!

Onion-Orange Dressing. In making the dressing, use orange juice instead of water. New and very good on all fruit salads. Or, on a green salad that has either orange sections or canned mandarin oranges (so easy), and a sprinkle of blue cheese chunks.

Tomato-Onion Dressing with Sweet Pickle. Substitute chili sauce or catsup for the water. Final touch: add 1 tablespoon chopped sweet pickle. A smooth and zesty dressing, to brighten green salads, sea food, cottage cheese.

Get the new Good Seasons cruet, with measurements marked, where you buy the 7 Mixes: Italian, Classic, Garlic, Cheese-Garlic, Onion, Bleu Cheese, Exotic Herbs.

Good Pickings

*Now is the time to plan for a small
"cutting garden" to supply the house and fill in your garden beds, too*

BY JOHN BRIMER

HOW CAN YOU get enough flowers for the house without stripping the garden? And how do you achieve variety in a limited space without having a handful of partly used seed packets leftover?

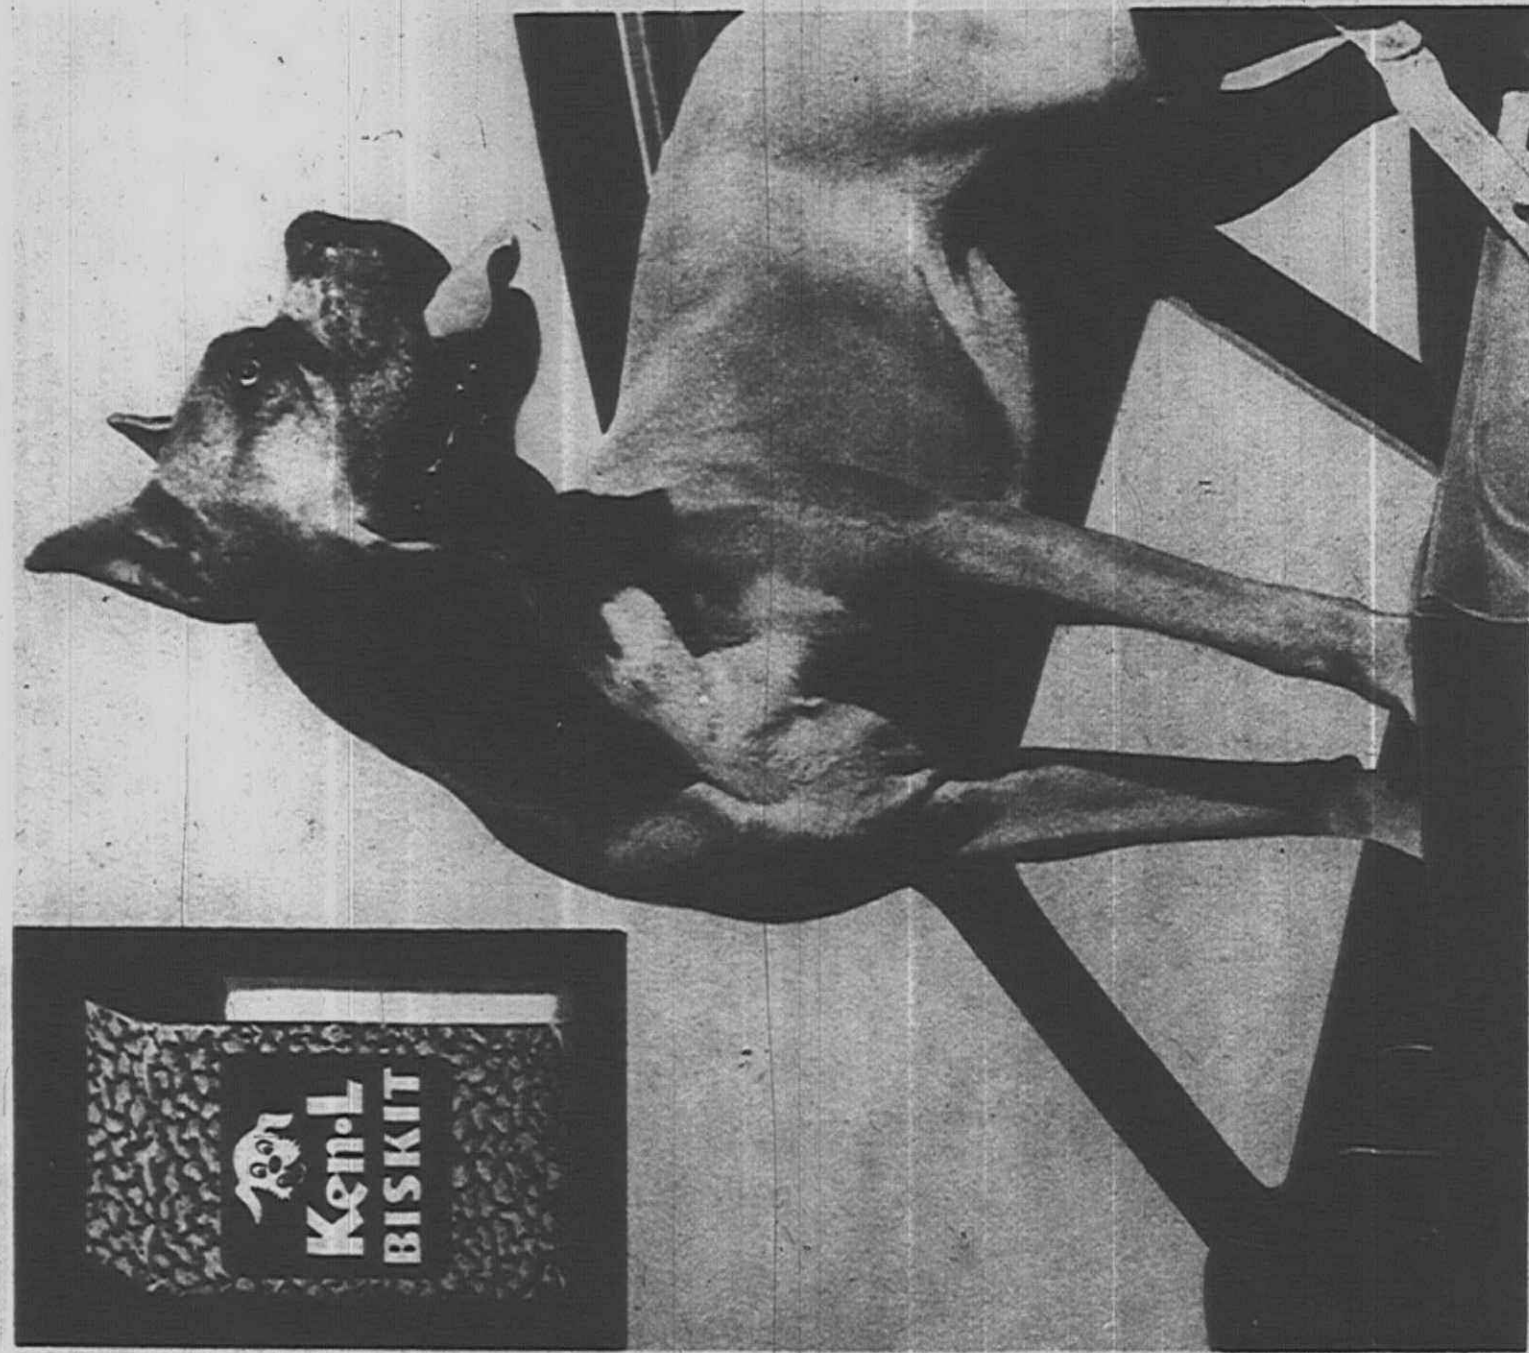

You begin by making a New Year's resolution. Give Up impulse buying—picking up a packet of seeds here and several there, as you encounter them on seed racks, and probably ending up with flowers that are not good for cutting. In any case, they are likely to be so unrelated that if you use all the varieties you've bought, your garden will be a messy hodgepodge, and if you don't use them all your money will be wasted. No more of this. Instead, write immediately for the catalog of your favorite seed house so that you can thoughtfully and deliberately choose exactly what you want, and order in plenty of time to be ready for the first perfect planting day in early spring.

Sit down with the catalog for an evening or two of dreaming and eye-feasting as you get rid of all those impulses (without spending a dime!) by preparing a First List. Note down all the detectable offerings you'd like to grow; then, with your Second List—or, you may even need to make a third—you'll winnow down your purchases to just what you can grow. All the way you'll have fun because we know of no escape literature which compares with a good seed catalog and no better way to become a knowledgeable cut-flower gardener.

Diet of Champions

Prize winner or not, Ken-L-Biskit brings out the best in your dog

Concentrated Ken-L-Biskit provides twice the power of lean beefsteak!

Today's Ken-L-Biskit is king-sized nourishment in concentrated form. Every bite of every bite works to create the peak condition, the wonderful spirit and energy of a champion.

*Ken-L-Biskit is a concentrated kibble. Ounce for ounce, it provides twice the calories (energy-power) of the most flavorful lean beefsteak you can serve your family. And bowl for bowl, it gives high quality protein, vitamins and minerals in carefully balanced amounts.

Since Ken-L-Biskit does so much more, you can feed less of it. Hence a most happy economy. The concentration of goodness also results in a smaller, more easily handled package. Slow oven baking enriches the great flavor of Ken-L-Biskit. And makes for best digestibility.

No wonder Ken-L-Biskit—Diet of Champions—is first in sales to professional breeders! Doesn't your dog deserve some soon? Available in 30-oz., 4-lb. and 20-lb. packages.

GETTING AROUND

Every year, about this time, La Jolla, Pacific Beach, and Mission Beach, California, begin to look forward to seeing their largest, most conspicuous, and most famous winter visitor—the gray whale. The migration of the herd, 5,000 strong, from the Bering Sea to Baja California, is known as "The Annual Event" and is unique in the world. The whole trip of 6,000 miles takes 80 to 90 days—the whales manage to swim 20 hours a day, covering about 80 nautical miles in that time. While they're passing through Mission and San Diego Bays, they are a major tourist attraction, luring just about everybody out in excursion boats to watch their trek. Federal law prohibits the molestation of gray whales, but that seems an academic consideration to us, in view of their size (sometimes 50 feet) and weight (up to 40 tons).

An Andover, Massachusetts, family was faced with the problem of selling their house on short notice in the middle of winter. The house was clean, efficient, in a good neighborhood, and was priced for a quick sale, but after trying for weeks the owner could not find a taker. His wife, believing that winter's drab gray-browns were making her house look depressing and uninviting, took matters into her own hands. Suddenly one morning neighbors saw the window boxes explode in a riot of bloom. Tulips and daffodils bravely bucked the harsh winds. The house?—sold in four days. The flowers?—all plastic—costing a total of $5.19.

The hobby of Miss Penny Nichols of Money, Mississippi, is collecting dimes.

VERNON TREAT

Bettendorff's castle has pentagon-shaped walls measuring 170' by 80' by 80' by 180' by 60'.

Do-it-Yourself Castle

One man built his own in Fox River Grove, Ill.

WE LIKE TO THINK there's no dream that can't come true. Witness Theodore Bettendorff, 71, whose home is literally his castle. He is not an industrial giant but a genial master craftsman besieged by a lifelong dream: to own a castle.

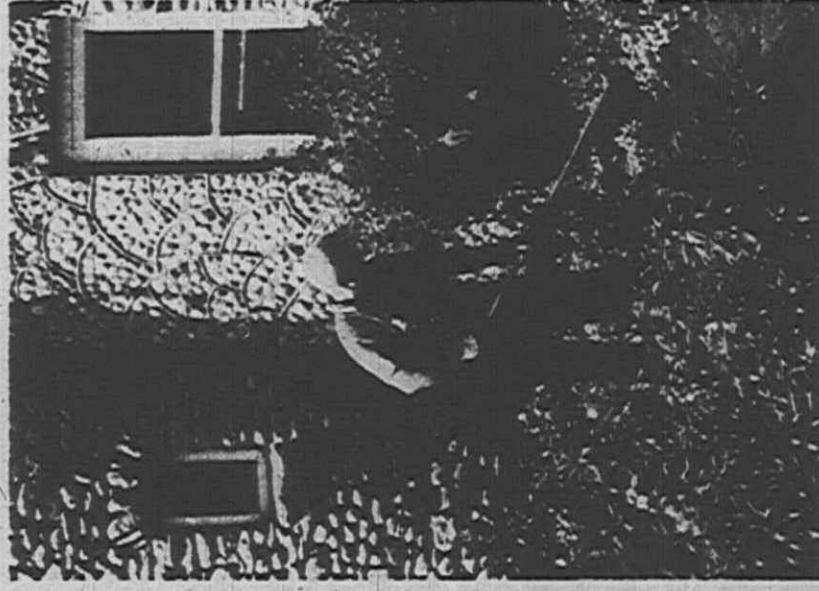

Twenty-nine years ago, working after hours and over weekends, he laid the foundations for the castle which now stands atop a bluff overlooking the town (as a castle should), complete with drawbridge, a moss-covered moat, and turrets.

When Bettendorff began to build his dream house, he had only childhood memories of castles he had visited in Luxembourg, where he was born. With no plans to go by, he simply combined muscle power with a long roster of skills. He dug into a nearby rock quarry, cut and hauled stones, made his own concrete molds to trim the turrets, cut oak logs to make beams, and forged iron for ornamental work.

"If I had had blueprints," he says, "the project would have overwhelmed me." Bettendorff built a dungeon, 22 feet deep, and towers to tickle low-flying clouds. "By going at it a little at a time," he explains, "it didn't seem too hard."

Last summer, when he cranked down the massive drawbridge and unlocked the great oak doors with a proper Gulliver-size key, a giggling neighbor asked why he didn't charge admission and make it a museum. "Then it wouldn't be a home," he replied.

Now retired, Mr. Bettendorff cultivates his garden and shows castle off to friends.

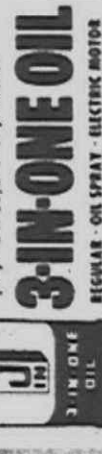

Drawbridge over a moss-lined moat—with guardrail to keep children from falling in.

SPECIAL NOODLE CASSEROLE

This pasta mixture is a flavorful accompaniment to Glazed Roast Ham or Pork Chops.

TO PREPARE: 20 MIN. TO HEAT: ABOUT 15 MIN.

- 4 oz. fine noodles, cooked and drained
- 1 cup large-curd cottage cheese, drained
- 1 cup thick sour cream
- 1/2 cup finely chopped onion
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- 4 drops Tabasco
- 1 to 2 tablespoons flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 cup buttered fine dry bread crumbs

- While noodles are cooking, mix the next six ingredients together; sprinkle with a mixture of the flour, salt, and pepper.
- Blend cottage-cheese mixture with the cooked noodles; turn into a buttered 1 1/2-qt. casserole. Sprinkle bread crumbs over top.
- Heat in a 350°F oven about 15 min., or until crumbs are lightly browned.

About 8 servings

STUFFED CALF'S LIVER DE LUXE

TO PREPARE: 30 MIN. TO COOK: 1 1/2-2 HRS.

- 1 calf's liver (2 to 3 lbs.)
- Bread Stuffing
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 3 strips (about 8 oz.) salt pork
- 1/2 cup water

- Rinse the liver in cold salted water. Drain thoroughly and wipe dry. Outside membrane should be removed.
- Make a horizontal incision in the thickest side and lightly fill with Bread Stuffing. Fasten with skewers.
- Cook liver with a mixture of the flour, salt, and pepper. Place in a roasting pan on a rack and arrange strips of salt pork on top. Pour water into the pan.
- Set in a 350°F oven for 1 1/2 to 2 hrs. Remove to heated serving platter and serve with Mushrooms Magnifique and buttered cooked Brussels sprouts or radish roses.

About 12 servings

BREAD STUFFING—Soak 4 slices white bread in cold water and squeeze out all excess moisture. Using a fork fluff bread and drizzle 2 tablespoons melted butter over bread. Blend into 1 slightly beaten egg a mixture of 1 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon black pepper, and 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning, then 1 teaspoon chopped parsley and 1 teaspoon grated onion. Add egg mixture to bread mixture and toss lightly until thoroughly mixed together.

MUSHROOMS MAGNIFIQUE

TO PREPARE: 20 MIN. TO COOK: 20 MIN.

- 12 large mushrooms
- 2 tablespoons softened butter
- 1/4 cup finely chopped pecans
- 1 1/2 tablespoons chopped parsley
- 1/2 clove garlic, minced
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon thyme
- 1/2 cup whipping cream

- Clean mushrooms; remove stems from caps and finely chop enough of the stems to make 1/4 cup; sprinkle caps lightly with salt.
- Mix the chopped mushroom stems, pecans, parsley, garlic, 1/4 teaspoon salt, and thyme with butter until blended. Heap mixture into mushroom caps and place caps in a shallow baking pan. Pour whipping cream over stuffed mushrooms.
- Set in a 350°F oven for 20 min., or until mushrooms are tender, basting once or twice with the cream.

SHRIMP FROMAGE

TO PREPARE: 40 MIN. TO HEAT: 30 MIN.

- 2 1/4 cups cooked fresh shrimp pieces*
- 1 10-oz. pkg. elbow macaroni
- 1/4 cup butter
- 1 clove garlic, minced
- 1/4 cup chopped fresh mushrooms
- 3 tablespoons chopped onion
- 1/4 cup flour
- 1/4 cup black pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1/4 teaspoon black pepper
- 1/4 teaspoon monosodium glutamate
- 2 cups milk
- 4 oz. process Cheddar cheese, shredded
- 4 oz. sharp Cheddar cheese, shredded
- 2 oz. Mozzarella cheese, shredded
- 2 tablespoons shredded Parmesan cheese
- 1/4 cup cream-style cottage cheese
- 1/4 cup thick sour cream
- 1/4 cup soft bread crumbs or cracker crumbs, buttered

- Prepare shrimp and set aside. Cook macaroni according to package directions and set aside.
- Heat 1/4 cup butter in a skillet. Add garlic, mushrooms, and onion and cook until onion is soft. Set aside.
- Heat 1/4 cup butter in a saucepan over low heat. Blend in a mixture of the flour, salt, pepper, and monosodium glutamate. Heat until mixture bubbles, stirring constantly. Remove from heat. Add milk gradually, stirring constantly. Return to heat and cook until sauce thickens, stirring constantly. Cook 1 to 2 min. longer.
- Stir in the Cheddar cheeses, Mozzarella, and Parmesan until melted. Remove from heat. Blend in the cottage cheese and sour cream.
- Mix together the cheese sauce, onion mixture, shrimp, and macaroni. Turn into a 2 1/2-qt. casserole. Top with buttered crumbs.
- Heat in a 350°F oven about 30 min., or until crumbs are golden brown and mixture is bubbly.

"Which do you prefer, Delbert, the red or the green handle?"

Members of the Willamantic, Connecticut, Rotary Club had to ask a carpenter in the next room to stop hammering because they could not hear their speaker over the din. The carpenter agreed, and Conrad J. Hemond, an engineering professor at the University of Hartford, continued with his talk on "Noises We Live With."

Since it is against the religious beliefs of the Amish to drive automobiles, Elam Beller, a young Amishman of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania, gets around in a horse-drawn carriage.

The carriage, however, has high and low headlamp beams, turn signals in the rear, a dome light that goes on when the door is opened, and a cigar lighter.

The Olympia State Bank, of Chicago Heights, Illinois, has a unique way of making friends, says Adele Sandberg. One day she pulled up to the Drive-In window with her three children and was greeted to find that the teller had put three packages of candy next to her receipt on the pull-out drawer. A week later, when she had her poodle along, too, there on the tray were the receipt, the three pieces of candy—and a bone-shaped biscuit for the dog.

A sign at an Arlington, Virginia, barber shop reads, "We Need Your Head To Run Our Business."

In order to help solve the shortage of well-qualified personnel, North Shore Hospital in Manhasset, New York, has built a group of attractively furnished garden apartments in which to house nurses and resident physicians. Far different from the clinical, institutional living quarters usually associated with hospitals, these apartments provide a homely atmosphere, privacy of study, and a cheerful surrounding for nurses and budding doctors. In fact, officials at the young (six-year-old), suburban hospital say that the apartments are a chief reason they soon hope to be able to attract and keep a full staff of top people from all over the world.

Here's good news for any churchgoer with a car in Dade and Broward Counties, Florida. Three drive-in theatres are now open on Sunday mornings for regular church services which you can attend without getting out of your car—a boon to the handicapped, the elderly, and to families with wriggly small children.

Hearken to a leading travel writer: "You'll find that the South Pacific is one of the rather rare parts of the world where Americans are greeted with something surprisingly close to affection." Why? Partly it's the Polynesian custom of unrestricted hospitality. Partly, the frontier heritage shared by the U.S. and the continent's "Down Under." A good way to visit this domain of friendliness is aboard the SS MARIPOSA or SS MONTEREY. * First is Tahiti. In Papeete, the biggest town, smiles, nods, spontaneous greetings meet you everywhere. * Stay in a bungalow—and the counters patchwork motels—bliss—and likely you'll be offered a ride. Visit Queen's Hut at night. Sure enough, people will sit down, chat, ask you to dance. They're not being forward. That's the way things are done in French Oceania. When you leave, take all your change. Nobody expects tips in Tahiti. In fact, tipping is taboo, or moderate, almost everywhere in the South Pacific. * Then, Matson's newest call, Rarotonga, so isolated that events of 1000 years ago are still lively topics of discussion. As your ship heaves to off the reef, the island sails out to greet you. Rarotonga lads and lassies swarm aboard to entertain with stirring songs and dances, the traditional salutation to seafarers since HMS BOUNTY called in 1789. * New Zealand is next. Circa 1900, a gregarious porpoise, one "Polonus Jack," would cavort in the bow waves as ships made port. Today's welcome is less spectacular, but more substantial. The people actually enjoy making Americans feel at home. New Zealand's scenic grandeur is equally amazing. All the world's wonders are duplicated here: Scandinavia's fjords, Switzerland's Alps, Yellowstone's thermal regions, Canada's lakes and forests, England's green, rolling countryside. * Australia is another outpost of good will. You'll dock in Sydney, a sophisticated metropolis of two million people. Post shops offer excellent buys in woolsens. The serpentine lanes of King's Cross sprout coffee houses and jazz cellars. The city boasts 647 parks and one zoo... where you can contemplate Australia's prehistoric fauna, including the platypus and koala. * In earlier times, visitors to Fiji were eagerly awaited... so they could be in the traditional ceremony, you quaff the garnished with malawathi leaves and served for dinner. The last foreign visitor was served up in 1867—a certain Mr. Brown. He was the last, perhaps, because these bushy-haired epicureans tried to eat his boots, too. Today's Fijian sports an appetite for good humor; he'll greet you with melange of streamers, leis and cheering dockside throngs. Perhaps you'll visit the Outer Islands. The sights include Halekaloa, an extinct crater massive enough to swallow Manhattan Island. And Kaula's Barkling Sands Beach. Gas bubbles clinging to each grain cause the sands to emit poodle-like yaps when stepped on. * Granted the South Pacific is a cornucopia of friendliness; how's the hospitality aboard ship? In a word, it's completely attuned to American taste. A former passenger wrote: "The service was perfect; the entire staff went out of their way to make it an enjoyable cruise for everyone... the ship has more friendliness and personality than any I have ever been on." (Copy of letter on request). * Here's what your day at sea might include: 9:30 a.m. Open House: That Soles Hawaiian Party last night! But you missed breakfast, no worry. Here's your room steward with a breakfast you can devour in bed. (You haven't asked, he must be clairvoyant). * 11:00 a.m.—Up to the bathroom to tip the light fantastic. Toured by dance instructors using the Cheney method, you're gaining quite a repertoire of steps. And it's gratis. * 12:15—Luncheon. Perhaps you'll try cream of mango soup, a Matson original. * 2:30—At the traditional Crossing-the-Line ceremony, polynongs (those who have never crossed the equator) volunteer to be welcomed by a jovial king Neptune. * 5:30—You are host of a cocktail party in your stateroom. Matson provides complimentary service, set-ups and hot hors d'oeuvres. * 7:00—You survey the menu—and resist the temptation to order all 70-odd items. Late in the evening you're alerted by a chorus of "Happy Birthday to You." It's a cake and candles, compliments of the Captain. * 9:00—Dancing, tonight's film, bridge or the Cruise Director's entertainment program? Even here, grave decisions must be made. * The cost? This Spring only, Matson is offering special fares reduced 25% on four cruises of the SS MARIPOSA and SS MONTEREY: March 19, April 5, May 3 and 21. Nothing else is changed. You'll bask in unmitigated luxury for as little as $22 a day—less than most resorts. The ships? Ultra-modern. All first-class, air-conditioned, gyrofins-stabilized. Private bath in every room. Each cruise is six weeks long and sails from San Francisco, following day from Los Angeles. Double room fares range from $1155 to $1875. Special sea/air itineraries can be arranged to meet any time requirement. To learn how you can roam the paradise seas for as little as 7¢ a mile, mail this coupon.

WHO LIKES AMERICANS?

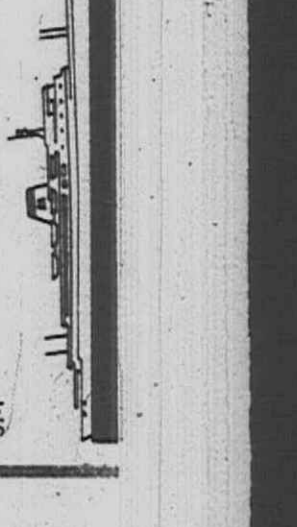

a resounding "Hallelujah!" meaning, "What a shining thing you are!" You'll enjoy the shopping in this British Crown Colony. Bazaar overflows with handicrafts from the East and imports from Europe, all at a bargain cost. * Then, Pago Pago, Samoa, sheltered by the lush, green walls of a sunken volcano. The Samoan custom of hospitality has little changed. That's why rates thousands are still built without walls. Visitors are often invited to an area catered to. * In earlier times, visitors to Fiji were eagerly awaited... so they could be in the traditional ceremony, you quaff the garnished with malawathi leaves and served for dinner. The last foreign visitor was served up in 1867—a certain Mr. Brown. He was the last, perhaps, because these bushy-haired epicureans tried to eat his boots, too. No co-pilot for the Skeeter, but plenty of company. When the lakes freeze over, thousands of ice yachtsmen get out for the thrills and chills. The Scooter (below) goes over water and ice. Cost, $2,100—or you can build your own.

CHARLES F. MEYER

TO ANYBODY who likes to hibernate in winter, ice-boating looks like a spine-chilling sport. Tiny wooden frames with billowing sails on top and thin metal runners underneath reach speeds up to 146 miles an hour (the record). And they have no brakes. Ice yachtsmen must dodge skaters, eel fishermen, and other iceboats. An invisible crevice in the ice can send a boat "pitch poling" end over end. You can always run into thin ice or even open water. Bulletins will discreetly suggest that "backboard and splints are in the boathouse."

If the vision of freezing water and broken bones doesn't daunt you, the weather might. You must brave 20-below temperatures, chilly blasts of wind, and flying ice particles which, reportedly, "can make facial razor cuts look mild." You must wear a costume resembling that of an Eskimo or an astronaut: thermal underwear, field boots, goggles, woolen or plastic face mask.

Confirmed iceboatmen—from New Jersey's Shrewsbury River to Lake Geneva, Wisconsin, and White Bear, Minnesota—will defend the sport with their lives and insist that it is not necessarily dangerous. Iceboats can indeed go more than 100 miles an hour, but these speeds are reserved for the racing classes. Normal speed is 20 to 60 miles an hour. There has been only one fatality in recent years, and broken bones are rare. Iceboats have no brakes, but they can be stopped dead by heading into the wind. And you can steer them precisely.

Still, ice-boating is not a sport for the reckless amateur thrill seeker. The experts have words of warning: Let a seasoned skipper teach you the rules and the ropes. Never boat alone. Choose your weather well—a steady wind at a maximum of 20 miles an hour is perfect. A boat may go 3-4 times as fast as the wind pushing it. And survey the ice carefully before boating. It should be free of snow, glassy-smooth, thick, and hard.

If you are a sensible sportsman and have a taste for speed, you are a good candidate for ice-boating. The fast-growing fraternity of ice yachtsmen will welcome you aboard. "There is nothing on earth," says one enthusiast, "like the thrill of running before the wind on good, green ice."

New! Country Pie... beef makes the crust ...you make the savory filling double-quick—with Hunt's Tomato Sauce and Minute Rice

Here's a new one! A rice pie with an unexpected sizzling brown beef crust.

And the filling—AH-h-h. Tender, light Minute Rice, rosy and spicy with Hunt's Tomato Sauce—hearty with sunny melted cheese.

Vitamins, too! You don't wash or boil Minute Rice—so the added nourishment is right there when you eat it. And Hunt's is the most tomatoful sauce of all—thick and smooth—fresh, ripe tomato through and through.

NEW! COUNTRY PIE

The crust... ½ 8-oz. can (½ cup) Hunt's Tomato Sauce
½ cup bread crumbs • 1 pound ground beef
¼ cup chopped onion • ¼ cup chopped green pepper • 1½ teaspoons salt • ¼ teaspoon pepper
¼ teaspoon oregano

Combine all of the above ingredients in a bowl and mix well with a fork. Then pat the meat mixture gently into the bottom and sides of a greased 9-inch pie plate.

The filling... 1½ cups Minute Rice • 1½ 8-oz. cans (1½ cups) Hunt's Tomato Sauce • ½ teaspoon salt
1 cup water • 1 cup grated Cheddar cheese

Combine Minute Rice, Hunt's Tomato Sauce, salt, water and ½ cup cheese. Spoon rice mixture into meat shell. Cover with aluminum foil. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 25 minutes. Uncover, top with remaining cheese. Bake uncovered 10 to 15 minutes. Makes 5 or 6 servings.

Hunt's Tomato Sauce is a product of Hunt Foods, Inc. Minute is a registered trademark of General Foods Corporation.

AMBER RAISIN SAUCE

TO PREPARE AND COOK: ABOUT 15 MIN.

- 3 tablespoons brown sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon seasoned salt
- 1/2 teaspoon ground cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1 cup apple juice
- 4 lemon slices
- 1/2 cup sautéed raisins
- 1/2 cup dark seedless raisins

1. Blend sugar, seasoned salt, spices, and cornstarch together in a saucepan. Stir in the apple juice; add lemon slices.
2. Stirring constantly, bring mixture to boiling and boil for 1 min. Lower heat, stir in sautéed, and simmer until slightly thickened, about 5 min.
3. Blend in butter and raisins. Heat for a few minutes longer. Serve with Glazed Roast Ham.

About 1 1/4 cups sauce

GLAZED ROAST HAM

Place a 10-lb. whole smoked ham on a rack in a shallow roasting pan. Roast in a 300°F oven about 2 hrs.; remove from oven. Cut off rind (if any) and score fat in a diagonal pattern. (See photo.) Insert a whole clove in the center of each diamond. Spread with Glaze and continue roasting about 1 hr., or until internal temperature reaches 160°F.

GLAZE—Mix together in a small bowl 1 cup firmly packed brown sugar, 1 tablespoon flour, and 1 teaspoon dry mustard. Blend in 2 tablespoons elder vinegar to form a smooth paste.

PORK CHOPS GOURMET

These unusual and delicious pork chops were originated by an amateur chef for his gourmet dinner club.

TO PREPARE: 25 MIN.

- 8 pork chops, cut 1/2 in. thick
- Fat for browning
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon black pepper
- Prepared mustard
- Dill pickles, thinly sliced
- 2 tablespoons dill pickle liquid
- 1/4 cup dry vermouth

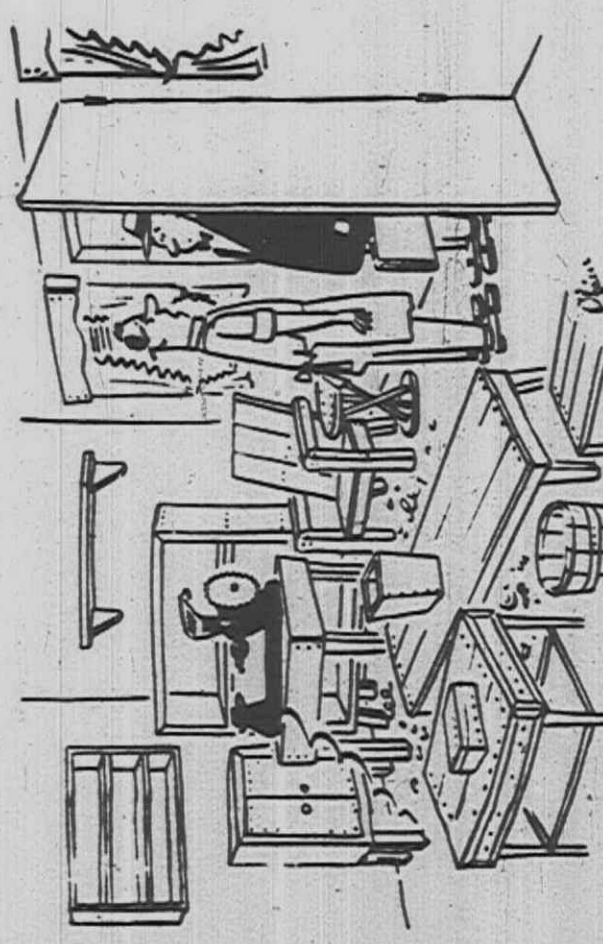

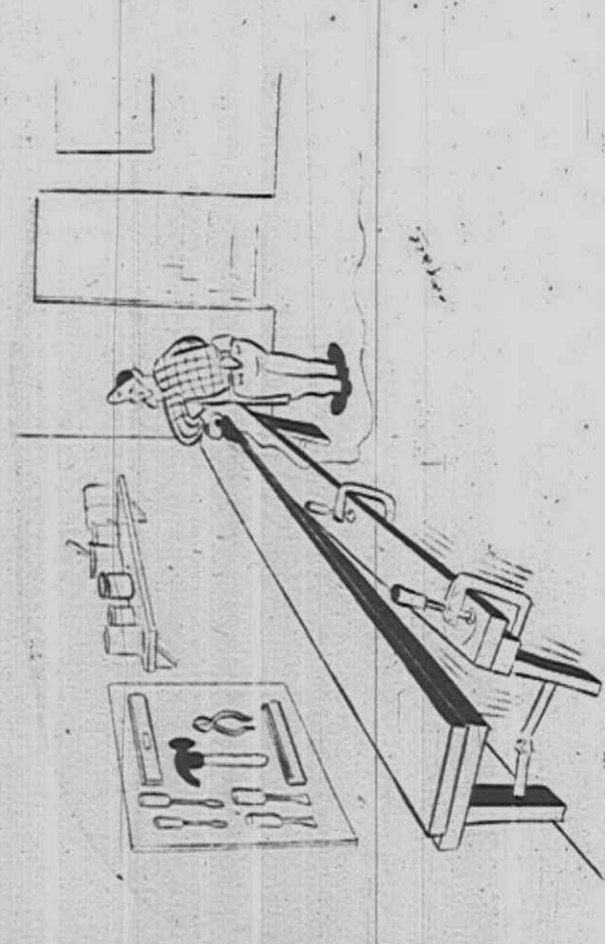

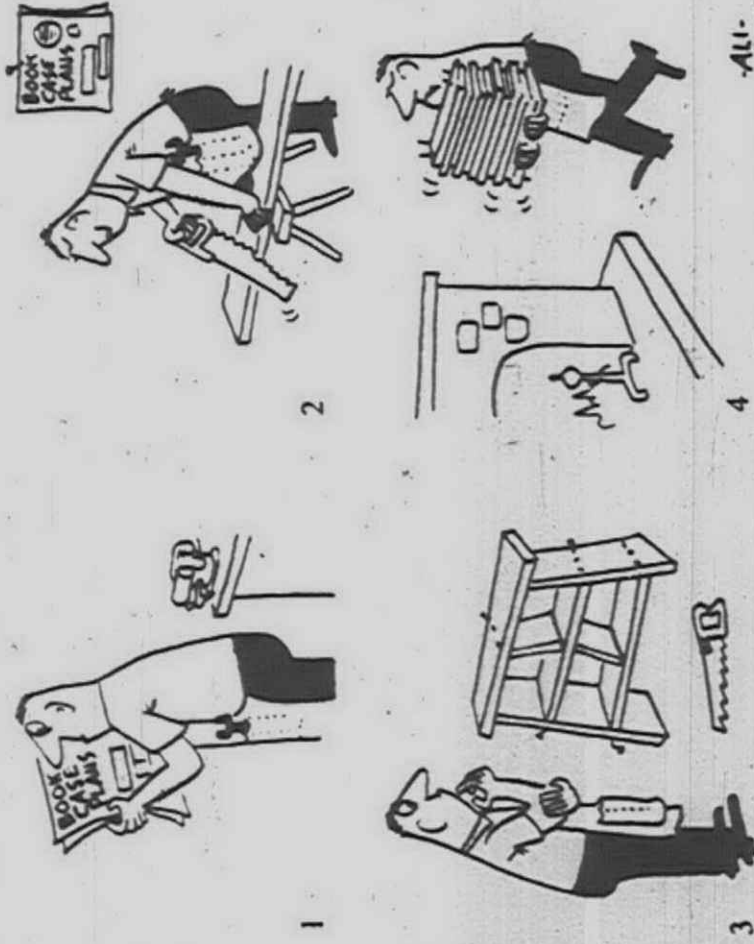

TO COOK: 1 HR.

1. Heat the fat, add chops, and brown well on both sides. Sprinkle with a mixture of salt and pepper.
2. Spread each chop generously with prepared mustard. Arrange one layer of pork chops in a sauce pot; cover with dill pickle slices. Repeat layering with chops and pickles. Add pickle liquid; cover and cook over low heat for 1 hr.; add vermouth 20 min. before end of cooking time.
3. Remove from heat and place chops on heated serving platter. If desired, drizzle additional vermouth over pickles and chops.

"Where To Find It"

What I Learned From

A best-selling author covers his own fire for the benefit of

LAST CHRISTMAS Eve just before suppertime I lit a fire in the living-room fireplace of our frame house in New Canaan, Conn., in order to take a chill off the room. As Virginia, my wife, served us supper buffet-style, her mother Ann sat wrapped in a blanket. Ann was recovering from a bout of pneumonia.

The bundles of dry brush I had used as kindling plus some discarded outer gift wrappings and small logs made an intense blaze. In fact, there was soon such a roar that I commented uneasily that I had never heard such a sound before. I wondered if it was related to the fact that a few days earlier we had had the chimney vacuumed for the first time in nearly a decade. Perhaps this had widened the opening and greatly increased the draft. With a poker I spread the wood to try to reduce the intensity of the flame.

About 15 minutes later our son Vance, then 17, went out the back door to go to a Christmas Eve party. He came running back in, shouting that the roof of our house was on fire. I dashed out to see. Great flames were lashing upward at least 8 feet high near the chimney.

To this day we do not know if this fire started on top of the wood-shingle roof or below it in the attic. Later investigation, however, established that the chimney itself was not defective.

Consternation gripped us all. I raced to the phone. Someone had mislaid the phone book, so I dialed the operator and said, "This is an emergency. Ring the fire department." It seemed a full minute before the connection was made.

Meanwhile, our son Vance had seized the red, 18-inch-tall fire extinguisher by our kitchen and had lugged it up to the second-floor doorway to the attic stairway. He opened the door. Flames poured out. The stairway—and most of the attic—were a mass of flames. The stairway fire was aggravated by the fact that we had temporarily hung several hangers of suits and other clothing inside the door.

By the time I arrived with a big kitchen kettle, Vance had the stairway flames under some control. I began hauling water in my kettle from the bathroom and threw it up the stairway to try to douse the remaining flames and dampen down the general area with water.

My throat was terribly dry. I assumed it was from panic, but it apparently also was due to the fact that fire sucks oxygen from the air, and such a deoxygenized atmosphere can fell you if you are not careful.

EXPERTS on fire control suggest that we may have aggravated the fire in the attic by opening the atticway door. This action had let fresh air in to feed the flames. That may be, but I believe the fire would have got down into the main part of the house if Vance had not stopped it at that attic doorway. Flames already were licking through the panels of the door. (And the panels later crumpled under our touch.)

Virginia, meanwhile, joined me in throwing water up the stairway. As fire trucks began arriving, Vance again had more presence of mind than the rest of us. He ran down and told the first driver where the nearest fire hydrant was, along the road at the lower side of our property.

Many dozens of cars filled with people who had heard the fire siren or seen the sky light up began jamming this roadway and abandoning their cars. As a result, a good many minutes passed—in fact it seemed like hours—before a really solid stream of water was hitting the flames.

Now we Packards had begun wondering what we could save in case everything was lost. What do you try to save first in case of a fire? When the fire first was shouted to our attention, our 11-year-old daughter Cindy raced for our parakeet and dog. A few moments later Virginia remembered to call a neighbor to come take Mother to a safe, warm spot.

After the firemen arrived I thought of the documentation and other working papers for the book, "The Waste Makers," which I was then writing. Where to put them? There was a 3-inch layer of snow outside. I grabbed a blanket and an armful of my folders of research material and ran out into the woods. Then in quick succession I made three more trips, carrying out armfuls of folders and dumping them onto the blanket.

It took four hours to get the fire fully under control; and more than 40 volunteer firemen were kept from their families on the one night above all that families like to be together. Two of these gallant firemen were temporarily overcome by fumes while trying to work their way up into the attic.

The miracle is that the fire never got below the attic level (but one fireman fell through a weak-ened section of the attic floor and landed in our master bedroom on our second floor.) Firemen and dozens of wonderful neighbors and well-wishers carried all our movable belongings not already water-soaked out of the house to safety.

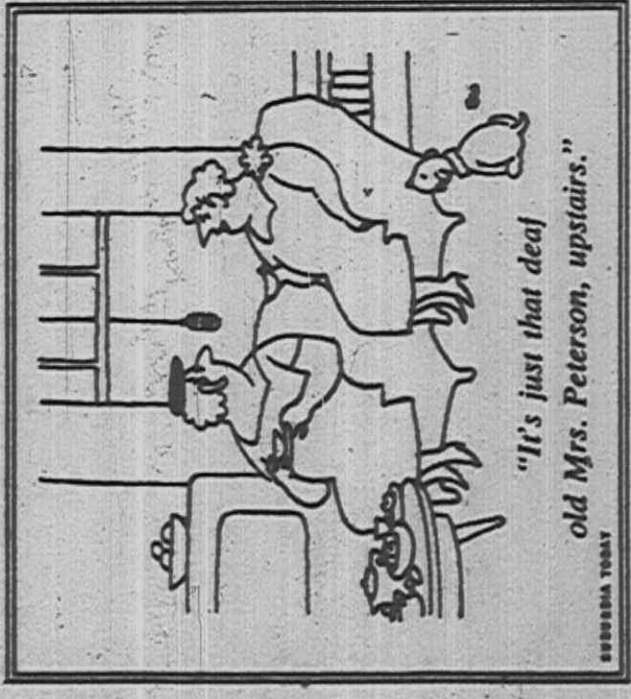

What we had in the attic was destroyed, but otherwise, although many strangers came into our house that night and moved our possessions about, the only thing we found missing after the fire was a pair of my shoes, which we assume may have been appropriated by some neighbor whose own shoes had become water-soaked on that freezing night. Most of us had soaked shoes before we were through.

Friends took our children for the night. At 2:30 A.M. Virginia and I finally retired in a bed over our detached garage. A sympathetic doctor whom we knew only casually came by around midnight and handed us some sleeping pills—a wonderfully thoughtful gesture. At 3 A.M.—despite the sleeping pill I had taken—I remembered the pile of manuscript material I had left in the woods and went out and retrieved all the folders.

It was four months before we were able to move back into our renovated home. Fortunately, we had not only fire-insurance protection but also the homeowner's policy which covered our living expenses during the four months we had to live outside our house.

FRANKLY, I didn't even know we had this coverage of emergency living costs. It had been agreed upon between Virginia and our insurance broker, John Bathrick, whom we depend upon to watch over our best interests without overloading us with insurance. He came by, after I called, while the fire was still smoldering, to offer us emergency counsel on steps we should take. One step, which hadn't occurred to us, was that we should get some kind of temporary covering over the roof in the morning—even though it was Christmas—to prevent further damage by rain and snow.

From the ordeal of the fire and its aftermath

Table Scraps Can Short-Change Your Dog

Do right by the dog
you love... balance
each meal with
GRO-PUP Ribbon

When you feed
your dog table scraps, you can never be sure he's getting all the nutrients he needs.
And yet, to stay fit and strong, he should have a well-balanced diet every day.

That's why thoughtful families are adding Gro-Pup Ribbon to every scrap meal they feed. Gro-Pup is an unusual kind of dog food. It contains an extra bonus of vital protein, important vitamins and minerals—far in excess of the minimum levels set by the National Research Council.
Even when fed with large amounts of "unbalanced" leftovers, the high nutrient level of Gro-Pup can safeguard against improper diet. When you feed Gro-Pup every day, you can enjoy the confidence that your dog is getting an abundance of the essentials he needs for a long and healthy life.

equipment in the room. Ways were suggested for adapting the wide variety of available TV equipment to particular school situations. Finally, the report envisioned that within a few years our schools will be able to buy, for the first time, an economical video-tape recorder to record particular lessons. This will let them build up a "bank" of telecasts to be used at will.

TV TEACHING will help strengthen weak spots in a curriculum. In a rural school where perhaps only four seniors want to take physics, those four students can watch physics on television and see expert scientists demonstrate the lessons, using models and apparatus their own school couldn't possibly provide.

Even in a well-equipped and fully staffed school, you can broaden and enrich the curriculum by ETV. Music, art, conversational French, Spanish, and other "extras" can be added with little expense.

Another benefit is to give in-service training for the teachers. Classroom teachers benefit from the studio-teacher's research, and class planning and technique improves.

Will Your Child Be Shortchanged By Classroom TV?

Or will he have a greater opportunity to learn than ever before?

THIS MONTH, Educational Television takes to the skies to test the most ambitious plan in its brief seven-year history. Beginning about the time you read this article, a fully equipped TV station will be sent aloft in a DC-6 and from the cruising plane lectures in 24 subjects will be transmitted to a potential audience of five million students in 13,000 schools.

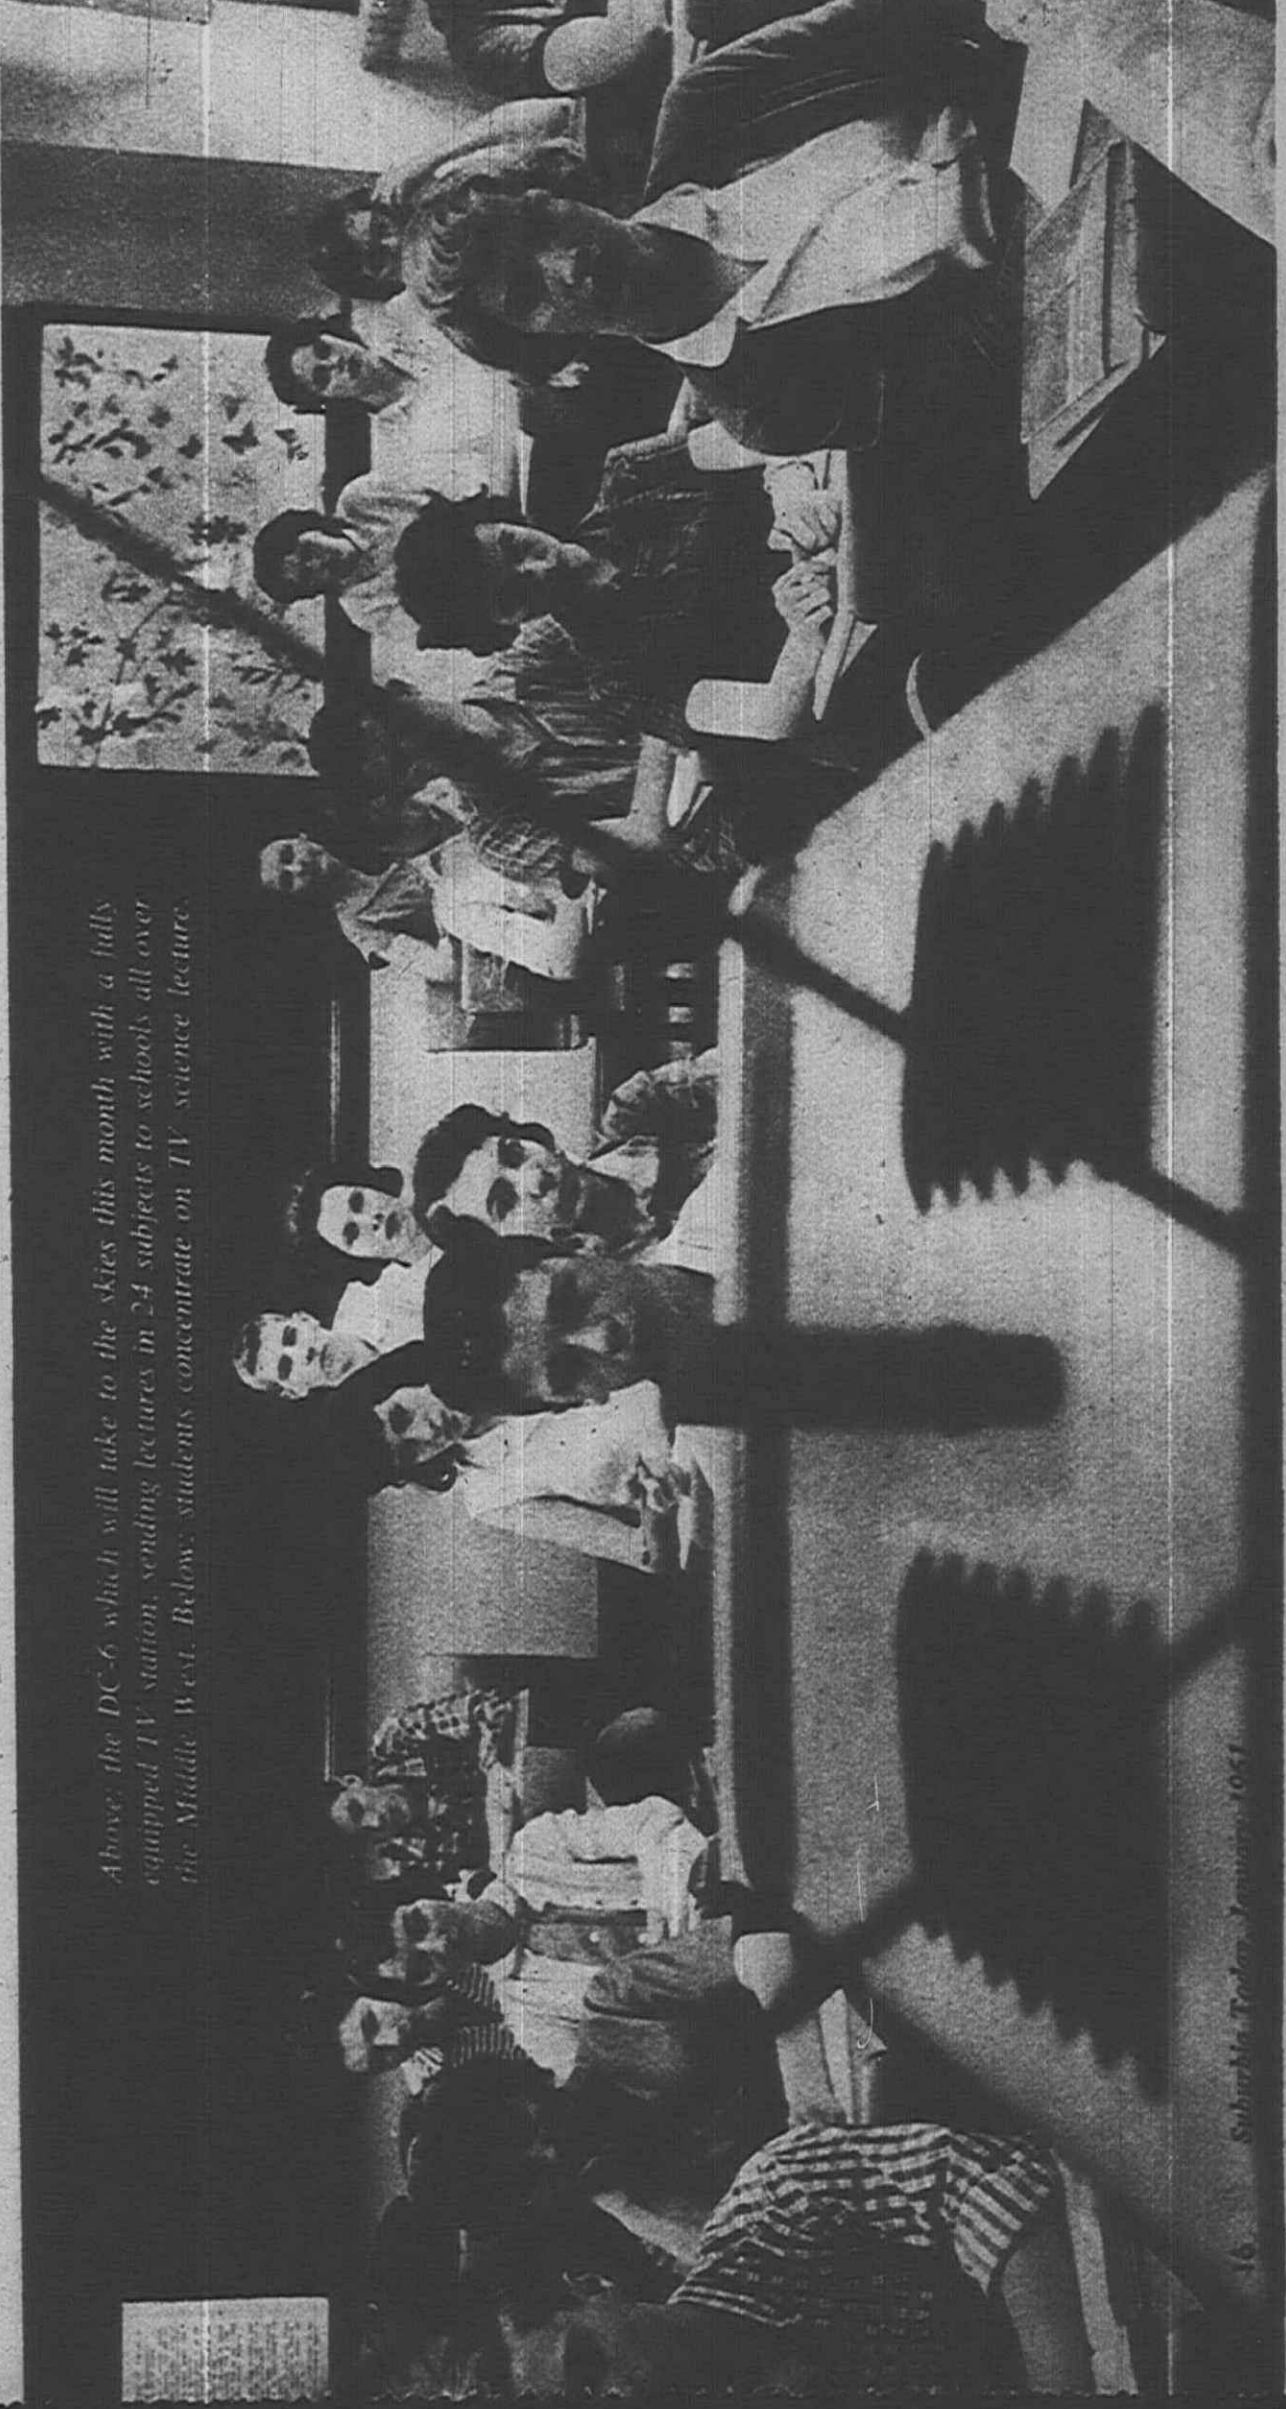

Spectacular, everyone agrees—but do we want teaching "processed" on this scale? According to one educator: "Classroom television is a terrible evil which is stealing insidiously into our schools; it goes against our most cherished educational concepts. Conformity, uniformity, and sheeplike behaviour will be the order of the day for our children."

Many parents are troubled because they feel that their children are watching too much TV as it is. Some school boards fear Educational Television (ETV) will cost too much to install. Meantime, in the face of their doubts, the experiments continue all over the country. Why? Because, say U.S. educators, only a fundamental break-through in education as sweeping as past break-throughs in science, industry, and agriculture, can give the boost in educational quality that's absolutely essential in our schools. And where ETV has been tried, many educators, and students, too, are already in favor of the new aid.

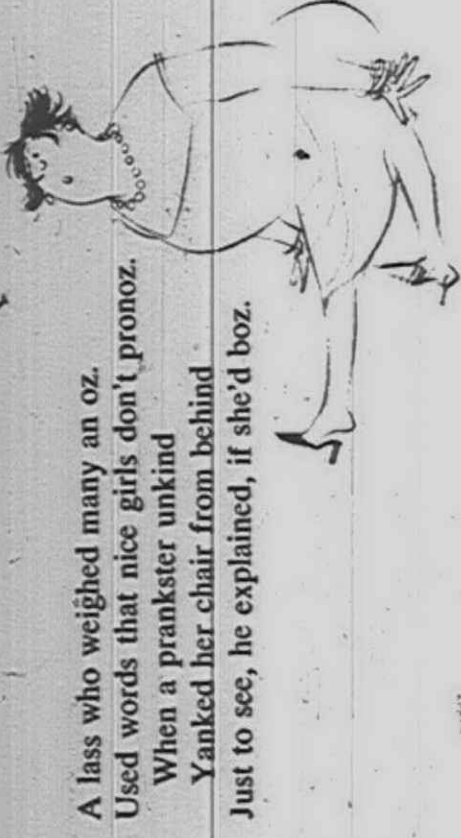

If your child's school is wired for ETV his Social Studies class might be conducted something like this: during the class period he and about one hundred other students will meet in the school auditorium, cafeteria, or large classroom for the telecast, a lesson delivered from the screen by the studio teacher. Since she is an especially good teacher, she will make her children feel she is actually on the spot. When she says, "What's the biggest city in the U.S.?" the children shout out, "New York City!" When she says, "Good-by for today," a chorus waves good-by.

A classroom teacher is with the large group of children all during the telecast. Later in the day this teacher meets with the class for a second full period, in groups of 25 to 30, for practice, drill, class
