

Museum To Be Reality

Something new in the cultural life of Plymouth is ahead thanks to the effort of the Plymouth Historical Society and the Plymouth City Commission.

One year's free lease was offered the Historical Society Monday night for use of a city-owned building for a historical museum.

The Historical Society will take over the old home located on the north side of the City Hall that has been rented to the Clark Aerial Survey Co. for the past several years.

Frank Henderson, president of the society, and Ernest Henry, chairman of the Society's museum committee, both appeared before the Commission.

In a motion approved by the Commission, the Historical Society was offered one year rent-free in the building and a second year at $50 a month.

They pointed out that they hope to use the building just as a start in what they hope will some day result in finding a permanent location owned by the Society.

With each passing year, the Society has noted more and more of the articles related to Plymouth's early years slip into oblivion.

The Society, which has a membership of around 100, already has hundreds of artifacts in its possession.

There are many more promised to the Society if it could find a place to display them.

A WATER EXPANSION program that has finally reached the Township Hall itself is now over 50 per cent completed in Plymouth Township.

Taps are not yet allowed, but tests are now underway. Present Township well water will be used until the pumping station near the Livonia tie-in location is completed.

Petitioners Protest Fly Ash from Industry Stacks

A petition signed by 186 Plymouth Township householders protesting the spreading of soot and fly ash by industries was delivered to the Plymouth Township Board last week.

A delegation headed by Fred Davids, a Plymouth Rd. resident, presented the petition at the May 9 meeting. Davids is a State Police captain, heading the Redford Post, but appeared at the meeting as a private citizen.

Signers of the petition lived mainly in Robinson Subdivision, located off Ann Arbor Trail. There were also signers from Lake Pointe Village and from those living in the Plymouth Rd. area.

The petition asks that the Township Board "take necessary and positive action to bring about the abatement of a serious nuisance existing in the Township."

This would include the four large factories - Barnes-Gibson-Raymond Division, Whitman & Barnes, Evans Products and Burroughs Corp. (The complaint would seem to concern the latter two since the other two do not have smoke stacks.)

Under the direction of James Griffith, the band will perform many of the finest compositions in the band repertoire. "Amparito Roca," an exciting Spanish march, will open the program.

Harry Deyo Named Judge

Harry N. Deyo, who for the past 12 years has been Plymouth City attorney, was appointed municipal judge by Mayor Robert Sincock Monday night and immediately confirmed by the City Commission.

He will fill the vacancy created last week when Nandino Perlongo, who had served as municipal judge 12 years, died suddenly of a heart attack.

Judge Deyo, who lives at 808 Church St., has been a resident of Plymouth since late 1941. He moved here from Detroit where he still maintains his private law practice in the Penobscot Building.

He received his law degree from the University of Michigan and at the outbreak of World War I served with the U of M group that fought in France with the French infantry.

Following discharge in April 1919, he was admitted to the bar in Washington, D.C. and in January 1920 was admitted to the Michigan Bar.

He served as an attorney with the Bureau of Internal Revenue. From 1925 to 1932 he served in the Michigan attorney general's office, working under three governors.

Judge Deyo then was in a law firm two years and in 1934 began his own practice. He moved to Plymouth just before the outbreak of World War II and in Feb. 2, 1942 was on extended active duty.

He spent the next four years in the Army as a judge advocate, being involved in the invasions at Leyte and Okinawa. He held the rank of colonel and still retains the reserve commission.

Following the recall election in Plymouth, he was appointed in June 1949 as City attorney.

Prior to his appointment Monday night, Deyo submitted his resignation as City attorney, which the Commission

A full day of activities has been planned for the visitors here, ending with a dinner at the Mayflower Hotel in the evening. The guests will visit City facilities and will tour the community.

Michigan Week begins Sunday with Spiritual Foundations Day when churches are invited to review their church history. Monday is Our Government Day and also Mayors Exchange Day, while Tuesday is Michigan Hospitality Day.

Wednesday will be Our Livelihood Day when heed is paid to how people of the community make a living. Schools will observe Thursday as Education Day.

On Friday, the public is invited to Dunning-Hough Library for a historical display. It is Our Heritage Day. Saturday is Our Youth Day.

Jerry Fischer, president of the Plymouth Student Council, will exchange jobs Monday with his counterpart in Big Rapids.

School Board Race Attracts 3 Candidates

Four men have filed for a single Plymouth Board of Education vacancy that will be filled when electors go to the polls Monday, June 12.

The four candidates are: George W. Conover, 279 Blunk; Lawrence A. Schendel, 42257 Hammill Lane; Richard B. Stribley, 1042 Carol; Robert Utter, 11827 Amhurst Court.

Last Saturday at 4 p.m. was the deadline for filing the nominating petitions. The seat they will seek is the one now occupied by Harold Fischer, who will not run for re-election. Instead, he is running for trustee for the Wayne County Community College. Fischer was on the board for two terms.

The School Board post is for a four year term. For three years in a row, two candidates are elected. Then, on the fourth year, there is but one each of the seven members have terms expiring every four years.

Fischer Has No Opponent

There will be 30 citizens competing for nine jobs when electors in six school districts go to the polls June 12 to decide upon the proposed Northwest Wayne County Community College issue.

Each of the six districts - Plymouth, Livonia, Redford Union, South Redford, Garden City and Clarenceville - will elect one trustee from their district. There will then be three other trustees - at-large elected from all six districts.

Fifteen men and women filed for trustee positions in their respective school districts while 15 others are seeking the at-large jobs.

Voters will not only vote on trustees at the June 12 election, but will also decide whether they want to form a community college. If the community college issue fails, of course, the trustees will have no job. All of the six districts must vote favorably on the formation in order for it to pass.

Harold Fischer, who is not seeking re-election as a Plymouth Board of Education member, was the only candidate filing for the Plymouth District trustee position.

Mrs. Jane Moehle, 1279 W. Ann Arbor Trail, is seeking one of the at-large positions. Mrs. Moehle's husband, John, is a financial analyst for Ford Motor Co.

Nominating petitions had to be filed by last Saturday afternoon. The complete list is as follows:

At Large (To elect 3) Plymouth: Mrs. Jane Moehle. Clarenceville: None. Garden City: Fred H. Morris.

Redford Union: Helen Hunter, Isabel Billings. South Redford: Harold Weber, Edward Tell, Philip Hoffz, James Garraff. Livonia: James O'Neil, Charles Kirkpatrick, Rosina Raymond, Donald Getts, William J. Horie, Norman G. St. Aubin, Alan W. Pershing.

District Candidates (To elect from each of the six districts) Plymouth: Harold Fischer. Clarenceville: Paul Mutnick. Garden City: Martin Blied, L. Clarke Idenburg.

Redford Union: Gordon Brocklehurst, Adolph Kalish, John McGrath. South Redford: Virginia Kissell, Richard Haight, Joseph Kolano. Livonia: Ward McCain, Arthur L. Solke, Max Pleasant, Jerome Friedman, Hurle Hatfield.

Citizens committees are now at work in each of the districts to acquaint voters with the proposed community college. The June 12 election will not decide upon millage, but a millage proposal (probably one mill) will be placed before voters later in the year should they approve formation of the district.

Trustee members would serve without pay.

Reminds Owners Of Dog Clinics

A reminder to City dog owners that there will be Dog Clinics this Saturday and Sunday, May 27 was given this week. Hours will be from 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 5 p.m. at the City Hall.

Dogs that received two-year rabies shots last year will not need another shot this year, but proof of the two-year shot is needed to obtain the 1961 tags. All dogs must have the new license tags by June 1.

Health has imposed on Wayne County for nearly three years. It appears that several communities, however, are not in accord with the proposal and it may be delayed further.

Approval was also given to a "cathodic protection" system for the water tower in Lake Pointe. The system, costing $490, will eliminate the formation of rust through a cathodic system.

Inquiries concerning maintenance of Dunn Court were presented to the Board. It was pointed out that the street is a private one, not under County jurisdiction, but that the Township has paid $50 a year to the County for its maintenance.

Although Independence Day is a month and a half away, plans have been moving ahead for Plymouth's biggest annual festive observance, the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce announced.

This year's fun festival will run from Friday, June 30 to Tuesday, July 4 with many events scheduled for each day.

Two of the celebration's highlights will be the parade and the 1961 Miss Plymouth Contest. Denny Hanks, chairman, declared that plans are well underway for this year's parade.

He urges that any civic group, service club, merchant or citizen that would like to enter a float or march in the parade should phone him at GL 3-1215.

Mrs. M. Conzists, chairman of the Miss Plymouth Contest, states that some entries have already been received for this year's competition. Girls whose 17th birthday comes before June 1 are encouraged to enter.

Colleges are only as good as their instructors, administration, boards of trustees.

Community colleges are particularly fortunate for before new ones open, the State Department of Public Instruction must approve both the courses and the curricula.

This approval makes the newly formed community colleges a member of the public higher education system of the State. All public institutions will recognize the credits from this new institution.

The Department of Public Instruction requires faculty members to hold Masters Degrees in the courses they teach. All instructors are also required to hold Community College Certificates. It is current practice in all Michigan community colleges for the administration to insist that all teaching faculty have a minimum of two years teaching experience. It is because of these qualified teachers that Michigan community colleges are so successful in transferring their students to other schools.

All Credits Transfer, Faculty Criteria High

EDITOR'S NOTE: This is the second in a series of articles informing voters about the Proposed Northwest Wayne County Community College. They will vote June 12 on whether to form the college.

FIRST DONATION to the annual poppy sale of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars was made by Mayor Robert Sincock. Poppy Day will be Thursday, May 25 in Plymouth. From left are Louis Dely, senior vice-commander and poppy chairman of the VFW Post; Mrs. Lucille Johnson, VFW Auxiliary pop-

NEWS BEAT

There are several interesting community projects being given some preliminary study that may make bigger news one of these days. Service clubs, led by a Rotary Club committee, may launch a program to revitalize Kellogg Park. ... And a Chamber of Commerce committee may organize an "Industrial Development Corporation" for which private money would be used to buy and lease Plymouth's unoccupied factory buildings to incoming industries.

FIRE RUNS: A hole burned through the roof of the Ray Layman home, 11802 Riverside, last Thursday night. It was caused by a spark from a hot water heater. Township firemen reported ... City fire trucks pulled up to the newly opened Kroger store Friday afternoon. It wasn't the store, but a car in the lot.

PATROL DAY: Plymouth Safety Patrol youngsters saw the Tigers whip Washington last Wednesday afternoon as the children were rewarded for their year of service. Ralph Lorenz of the Mayflower Hotel, hosted them at a lunch. They were transported by school buses. Around 260 students and adult supervisors made the trip. The Police Department arranges the annual affair.

MONEY ORDER: When businesses build or expand, they must provide certain number of parking spaces, or contribute to the parking fund. But when the Post Office last year doubled its floor space, no parking was provided for customers or employees. The City Commission has asked the City Manager to determine if a claim could be presented Uncle Sam for this oversight. The Post Office, of course, is tax-exempt.

UNWANTED: City householders were asked this week not to toss leaves, limbs and lawn trimmings into the streets - it's against City ordinance. Public Safety Director Kenneth Fisher said that only things that are put in standard containers will be picked up on regular collection days.

SERVICE: An old safe has been converted into an all-night dropbox in the lobby of City Hall. Citizens can now pay their water bills or taxes after hours by placing the bills and money into an envelope and dropping it into the box.

PREVIEW: The June 5 City Commission meeting is expected to be an interesting one. A hearing on the special assessment for expanding the Central Parking lot will be held at 8 p.m. Several property owners claim they will fight it. ... At last Monday night's meeting, the Plymouth Dental Society sent a resolution asking for fluoridation of the water. Commissioner Marvin Terry asked that the subject be put on the agenda June 5.

United Church Women Have Annual Breakfast

The ladies of St. John's Episcopal Church on Sheldon Rd. were hostesses for the May Fellowship Breakfast, Friday, May 12. This is one of the yearly activities of the Plymouth Council of United Church Women.

Mrs. John Cunard, wife of the pastor of the Salvation Army Church, gave the invocation and the benediction. A lovely breakfast of fresh fruit cup, sweet rolls and coffee was enjoyed by 132 women from the participating churches.

Group singing of favorite hymns was led by Mrs. Momi Knight of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and Mrs. Searfoss of the Baptist Church was her accompanist. Mrs. Harry Christensen of St. John's Church welcomed the guests, while Mrs. Albe Salmenson of the Methodist Church gave the devotions.

The soloist of the day was Mrs. James Warren of the Presbyterian Church. She was accompanied by Mrs. Inez Locke of the Methodist Church.

Mrs. Adele Holladay of Franklin Village, presently Diocesan Chairman of Christian Social Relations, was guest speaker. Her topic was "The Church — Free and Responsible."

Co-chairmen for the affair were Mrs. Sidney Strong, Mrs. Gustave Phillips and Miss Ruth Rounsville.

Jean's Jottings

By Jean Campau, Woman's Editor

Poor mother only gets one day a year for tribute and that has to be sandwiched in between National Pickle Week and Be Kind to Dumb Animals Week. But maybe it's just as well, for most likely Mom couldn't take a whole week of adulation in the form of Dad cooking the dinners (but alas, the myriad pots and pans, unwashed) and the kidlets scurrying around to "help."

While we're a little late for the official observance of Mother's Day, we think Mom is a timely subject anytime.

From the more than 300 letters submitted to the American Mother's Committee from all over Michigan, 29 nominations were selected, one of which would have the distinction of being Mrs. Michigan State Mother. The other 28 were presented with Merit Awards. Two of these "Award" mothers came from Plymouth; Mrs. Juanita P. Puckett (whom we couldn't locate to speak with) and Mrs. Mary B. Wilkse, of 986 Roosevelt St.

It was the letter her Austrian daughter-in-law, Erna, submitted to the Committee telling of the wholesome home that saw three fine sons reared, her thoughtfulness of others and her church and service affiliations that won for Mrs. Wilkse the Merit Award.

"Even though she keeps busy with outside activities and bowling and golfing, she always finds time to 'sit' with her grandchildren," said Erna.

From the typewriter of Judy Liddle on the campus of Eastern Michigan, comes a "hat-doff" for another Plymouth mother. We offer it just as it was written.

"Mrs. Joseph Manzi of 254 Ann St. in Plymouth was given recognition for her superior scholastic average at Eastern Michigan University's annual Honors Convocation held Wednesday, May 3. Mrs. Manzi has a 3.75 average out of a possible 4.0 (straight A).

"Even with her duties as a housewife and mother, the vivacious Mrs. Manzi has managed to maintain her distinctively high grades because she is compelled by a strong intellectual curiosity and a desire to teach. An English major and drama and German minor, she is a contradiction to most educators' theory that rigid study routines should be adhered to in order for a student to be successful academically. She says that with a family she can study only when she gets a chance, studying her most difficult subjects first.

Despite the time required by her family and studies, Ruth Manzi has found time for other interests. She is an avid reader of all types of literature.

"Presently she is working on the next production of the Plymouth Theatre Guild. Since she has been attending classes at Eastern she has had to limit herself to production work, whereas, in the past she has been an enthusiastic actress.

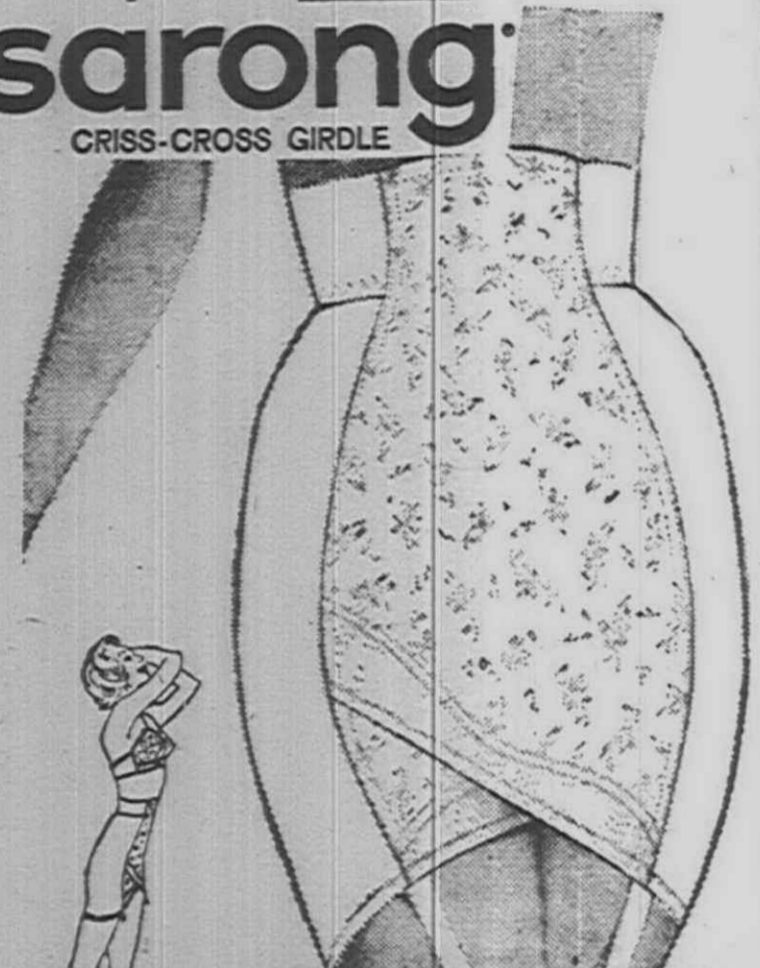

"Plymouth should be proud of Mrs. Manzi, an honor student and an asset to the community."

Noted Sculptor Appears First On AAUW's 'Listening Post'

The distinguished Detroit sculptor, Walter Midener, will open the "Plymouth Listening Post" series next fall with a lecture entitled "The Creative Artist in American Life."

For the talk scheduled for October 5 in the Plymouth High School auditorium, Midener will bring several pieces of his work and will lecture from the sculptures which are displayed on the stage.

The Listening Post, which is sponsored by the Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women, has obtained Walter Midener as its first lecturer through the assistance of Dr.

William Birenbaum, director of Detroit Adventure. The sculptor is director of the Art School of the Society of Arts and Crafts of Detroit.

A retrospective exhibition of his work was shown this winter at the Huntington Woods Cultural Center under the sponsorship of Detroit Adventure. His work is included in numerous public and private collections throughout the country.

Working chiefly in forms suggested by the human body, Midener is quoted as saying, "Through them I try to express my reactions to the emotions that motivate man — his hopes and fears, his joy and tenderness."

Switching from art to science, the Listening Post has planned a Jan. 31, 1962, lecture by Professor and Mrs. Fred Dohrs, of Wayne State University. Title of the talk will be "An American Scientist in the Soviet Union: Observations of the Soviets' Use of Their Land."

Professor Dohrs is a geographer of note who traveled extensively in the Soviet Union a year ago under the Soviet-U.S. Exchange Treaty, and he will return there this summer.

As he speaks about the challenge of Soviet science and what he saw, Mr. Dohrs, who is an accomplished artist, will show glimpses of various aspects of Soviet life which she sketched while they traveled. The sketches will be flashed on screen and she will comment on them in relation to her husband's talk.

The third lecture, scheduled for March 6, is being developed to bring experts on international relations, probably specializing in Africa and Cuba, to Plymouth area audiences.

The A.A.U.W. is beginning the series as a contribution to the intellectual and cultural life of the community. Mrs. John W. Moehle, chairman, and Mrs. B. W. Secord, president, have commented that there is no profit-making motivation for the enterprise and any earnings received will be applied to maintaining the high quality of the lectures.

Series tickets for the three lectures will be placed on sale through A.A.U.W. members following the May 18 general meeting. Mrs. C. C. Wiltz is chairman of the ticket committee.

Evening Ceremony Unites Nancy and James Fisher

At an evening ceremony, May 6, Nancy Ruth Vincent and James L. Fisher were united in marriage before Rev. Melbourne I. Johnson at the First Methodist Church of Plymouth.

White gladioli and snapdragons in altar baskets and candelabra with white candles graced the altar as the bride came down the aisle on the arm of her father, Mr. Paul Vincent, who gave his daughter in marriage.

The bride wore white embroidered nylon net over white taffeta. The lace bodice had a sabrina neckline and short sleeves. Her crown of seed pearls held her fingertip illusion veil and she carried a bouquet of white calla lilies.

Lou Tidwell, maid of honor was dressed in yellow silk organza over taffeta with embroidered waistline. A wreath of flowers formed the headpiece and she wore white shoes and gloves.

Sisters of the bride, Becky and Gail Vincent were bridesmaids as well as Judy Florina, a cousin, and sister-in-law, Corinne Vincent. They were gowned in dresses identical to that of the maid of honor and all carried wicker baskets of white daisies.

Jacquelyn Hull was the flower girl and Gale Monroe, daughter of the groom, was the ring bearer.

Best man was Ronald Edler. David, John and Craig Vincent, brothers of the bride, and Henry Fisher, brother of the groom, were ushers.

Mrs. Vincent, the bride's mother, wore a navy blue crepe sheath with light blue accessories and a corsage of yellow roses.

The groom's mother, Mrs. B. Fisher, wore a dusty rose lace dress with white accessories and a corsage of dark red roses.

A reception was held at the V.F.W. Hall in Plymouth for 250 guests who came from Millington, Flint, Lansing, St. Johns, Harrison, Detroit and Plymouth.

For her going away trip the new Mrs. Fisher chose an orchid sheath with accessories in beige and a corsage of white carnations and pink tea roses.

Following their return from Maryland, the couple will make their home at 47381 Five Mile Rd., Plymouth.

The bride graduated from Plymouth High School and attended Eastern Michigan. The groom graduated from Millington High School in Millington, Mich.

Silver Year Marked By Garden Club

The election of officers, the annual meeting and special birthday awards to past presidents and charter members filled the agenda at the May 8, 25th anniversary celebration of the Plymouth Branch of the Michigan Division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Assn.

Mrs. Jesse Tritten gave a short talk on the club's origin and then turned the presentation or orchids over to Mrs. Paul Weideman who made the award to the past presidents and charter members.

The club is happily looking forward to its annual Husband's Night Garden Party to be held at Mrs. Ralph G. Lorenz's on June 19.

Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz, tea chairman for the day, served a dainty tea. Pink was the central color theme and a beautiful anniversary cake was the center of attraction.

Mrs. Carl Shear and Mrs. Paul Weideman gave a short report on the State meeting held at St. Claire Inn. Mrs. Demel, in whose home the silver anniversary was observed, was thanked for the use of her home, and the gavel was then turned over to Mrs. VanOrnum.

Senior Citizens Have Election

The Senior Citizens of Plymouth opened their regular meeting May 11 with 68 members present.

Ella Gould was elected chairman of the Sick Committee. Louise Granger was elected to the office of secretary and Dorothy Wilhelm was elected to be in charge of the name badges.

Mrs. Roberta Steele, president of the Sorority Club, sponsor of the Senior Citizens, introduced Herbert W. Wolkover, director of the Recreation Department of the Plymouth Community Schools and Dr. Eric J. Bradner who gave a talk on the community college project.

Cards and the sewing of cancer pads was also part of the day's activities.

Refreshments were served by the Business and Professional Women's Club. And Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hines were host and hostess for the gathering.

Anyone 60 years or older wishing to become a member of the Senior Citizens may register at the Thursday meeting at the Oddfellow Hall on Elizabeth St.

Northville Lecture Series Activities Committee

Three thousand Plymouth, Livonia, Farmington, Novi, South Lyon and Northville women will receive notices of the Northville Town Hall Series for the 1961-62 season this week. The fall and winter lecture series featuring John Mason Brown, Madame Ginette Spanier, Ian Ross MacFarlane, Anthony Wedgewood Benn and Bennett Cerf has attracted widespread interest in the area.

Mrs. George Kohs, ticket chairman, said, "Because of the many pre-application requests for tickets, we will number the season application blanks as received and issue them in order. Since the Northville P & A Theatre holds only 800 we are limiting the number of season tickets per member to three."

Mrs. John W. Swain, Jr., publicity chairman, noted that one of the speakers, Anthony Wedgewood Benn, has received a great deal of comment in the Detroit News, Detroit Free Press, New York Times and other newspapers and national news magazines in the last few weeks. Mr. Benn has been fighting to retain his seat as a member of the British House of Commons. Since he recently refused his title and the automatic election to the House of Lords.

Mr. Benn, who is a Labor M. P., has specialized in foreign affairs and is well known for his knowledge of Afro-Asian problems. He is herited his father's title as Viscount of Stangate for his seat.

Mr. Benn, or Viscount Stangate, has asked a special electoral court to decide the issue since he wants to well known in this country as he has made several official visits and is married to the former Caroline Middleton DeCamp of Cincinnati. Mr. Benn will speak at the Jan. 18, 1962 meeting.

Mrs. Frank W. Angle, co-chairman, said, "We are extremely pleased to have an outstanding group of speakers for this Series. We think that our opening meeting of Oct. 19, 1961 with John Mason Brown is particularly interesting."

Mr. Brown is well known as an editor of the Saturday Review, author, drama critic and television panelist.

Gleaming New Kroger Store Opens

Shoppers Find Latest Innovations Inside as Officials Cut Ribbon

NEWLY OPENED last week was the new Kroger's located on N. Main St. The new facility replaces the store on Forest Ave. Kroger has been in Plymouth since 1925, making it one of the older business establishments in the community.

A gleaming new Kroger store, designed with every detail of modern food shopping, has opened its doors in Plymouth and is being visited daily by thousands of customers.

Located at 240-250 N. Main St., it is on the site of the former Daisy Manufacturing parking lot.

Mayor pro tem Marvin Terry cut the ribbon in a ceremony held May 9. Despite the rainy morning, a large crowd was on hand to become the first customers of the new facility.

Also present were City Commissioners James Houk and Robert Beyer, City Manager Albert Glassford and George Lawton, president of the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce. Joining the ceremony from Kroger's were Chester Le Grande, zone manager, Rollie Widmayer, store manager, and Robert Reese, co-manager.

As customers first enter the store, they are struck by the spacious, colorful interior and the wide aisles. There are 112 feet of freezer cases providing frozen foods, prepared foods, ice cream, sea foods and poultry. Air-type refrigeration in the dairy department keeps a constant stream of cool air flowing over those products.

An oven in one corner turns out hot, fresh-baked pies. And at one end of the long meat counter is a case containing many tasty foods found in delicatessen stores. Over the frozen food cases, shoppers find a magazine display.

There are six conveyor checkout stands of which one is an express lane.

Department heads are Lucille Allen, head cashier; Jerry Reader, head produce clerk; Wallace Sorenson, meat department head; Charles Brockwell, head night stock clerk; and Rose Chernitz, head dairy clerk.

Kroger has been in Plymouth since 1925. Manager Roland Widmayer this year observed his 30th year with Kroger. He started in 1931 as a manager trainee and later that year became manager of a store at Humboldt and Ash in Detroit. From 1932 to 1944 he managed the Northville store and came here in 1944.

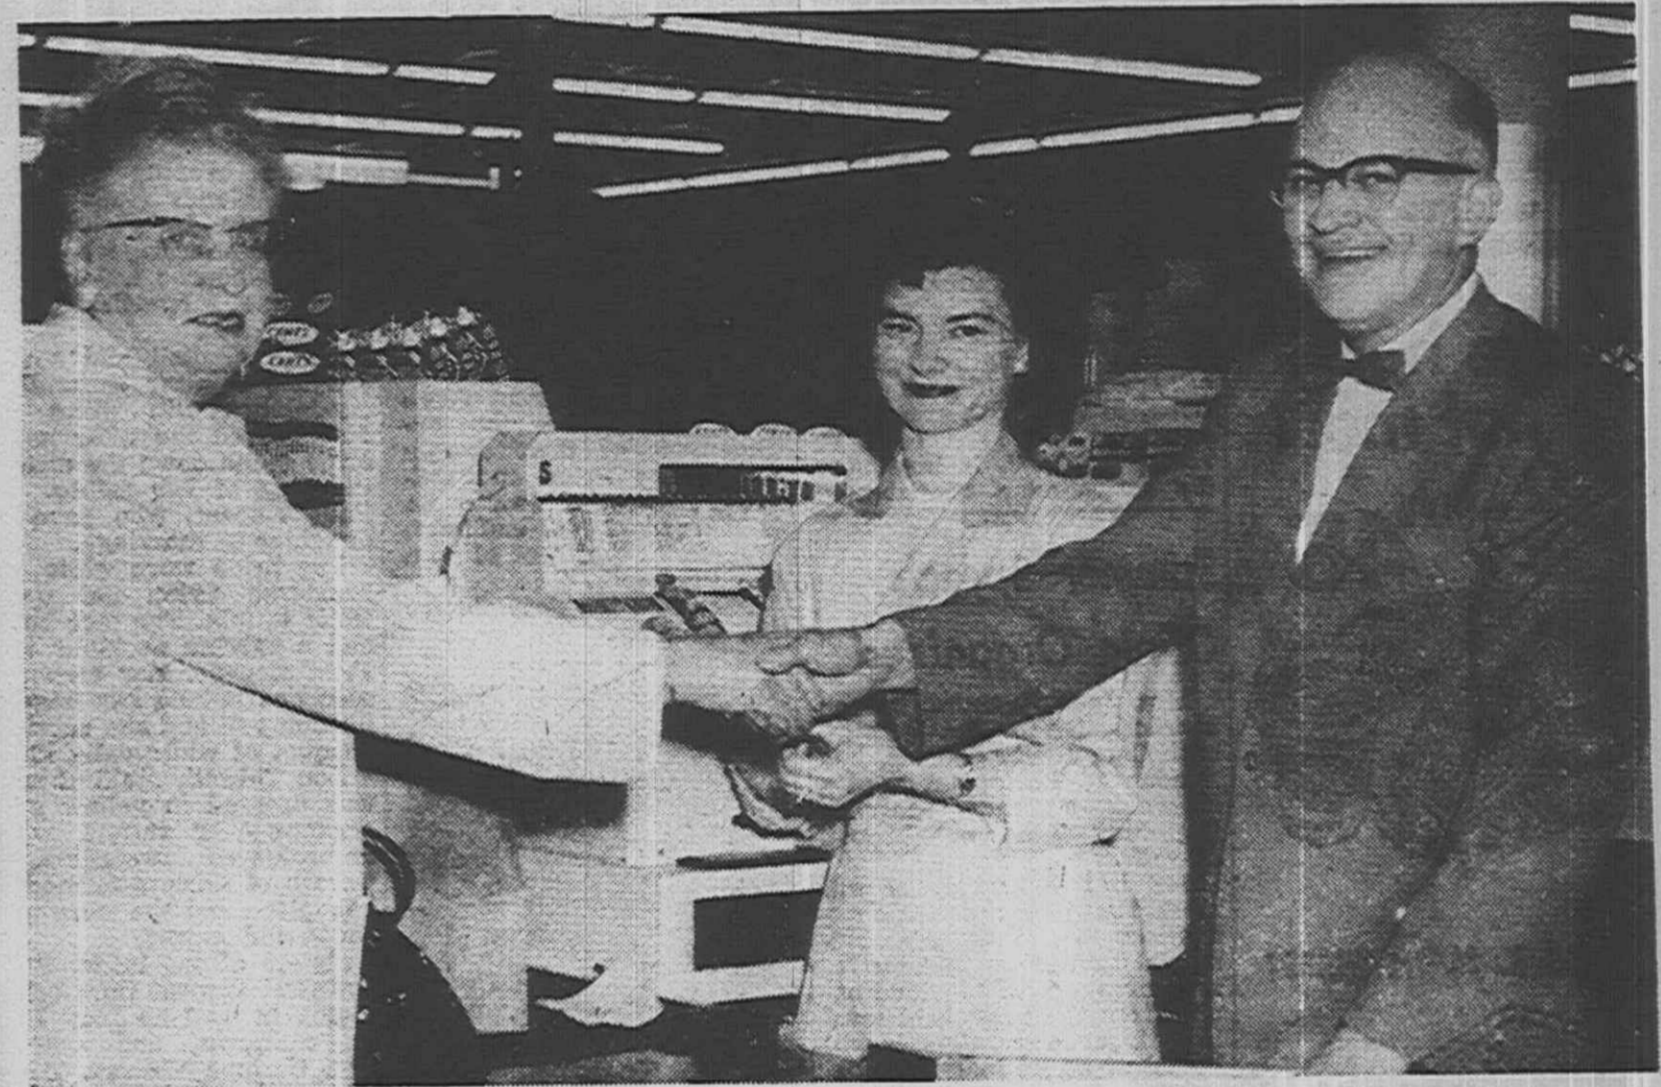

The Kroger store was on the site now occupied by Kresge's when Widmayer started in Plymouth. At that time, he had 15 clerks standing behind counters waiting on people. Now he has 28 people who keep the store open days and evenings except Sunday and clerks have been eliminated.

Mr. and Mrs. Widmayer live at 660 Ross. Kroger's zone manager, Chester LeGrande, is also a Plymouth resident, living at 721 S. Evergreen.

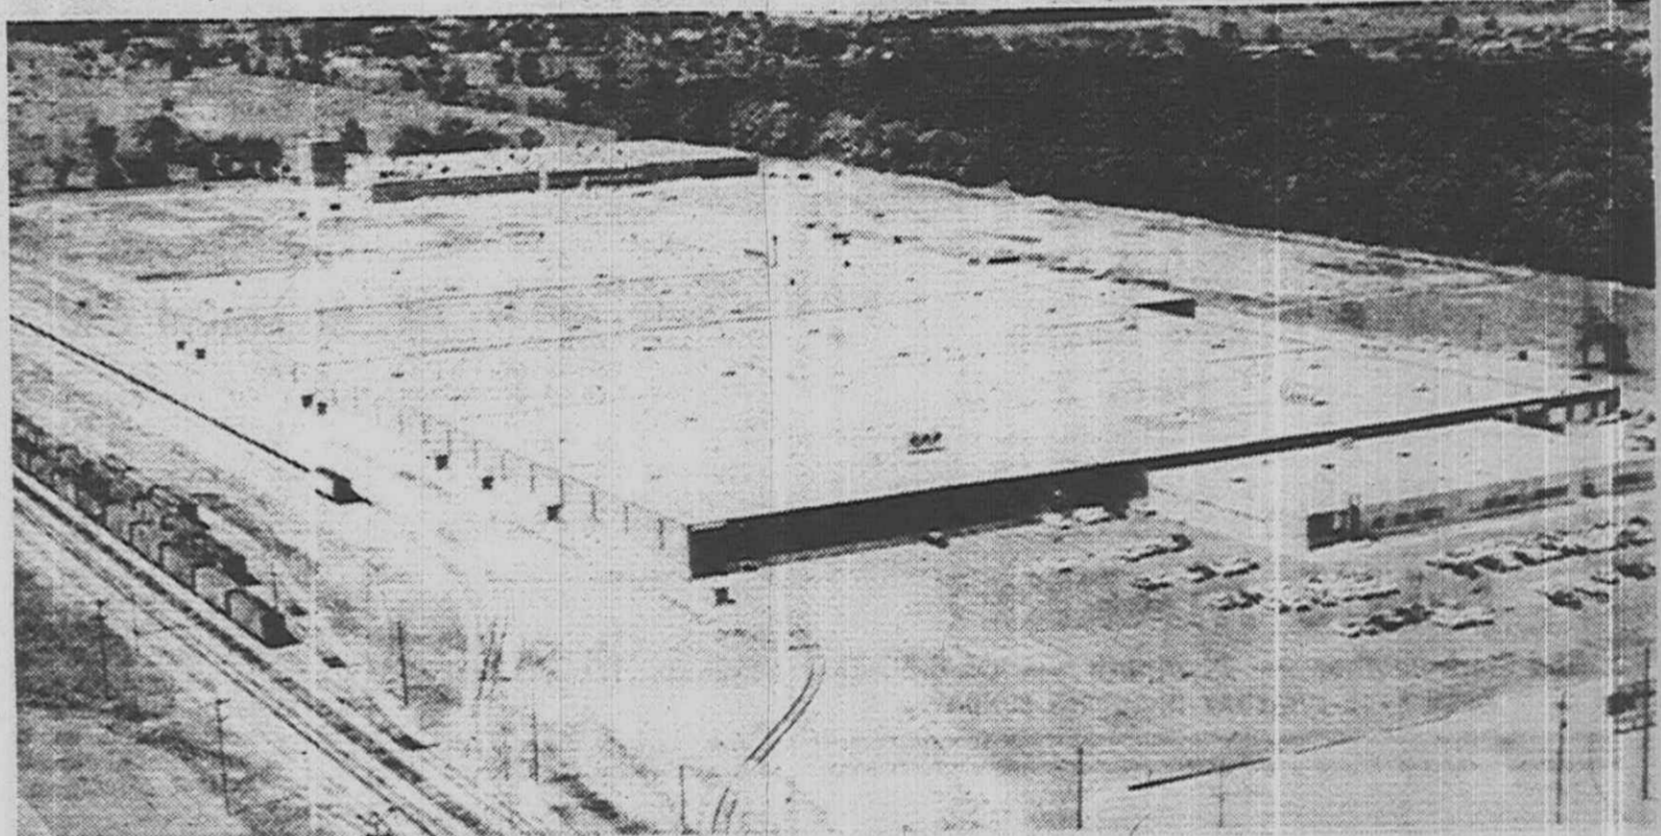

SNAP, GOES THE ribbon that officially opened the new Kroger store in Plymouth. The four men in front, center, are Robert Reese, co-manager; Manager Rollie Widmayer, Mayor pro tem Marvin Terry and Zone Manager Chester LeGrande.

FIRST CUSTOMER to check out at the new Kroger store on N. Main St. was Vesta Brewer, 357 Ann St. She is shown being congratulated by Manager Rollie Widmayer. The store opened Tuesday last week at 9 a.m. Despite the rain, there was a large crowd waiting to get in.

IT TOOK 10 truck loads, or 300,000 pounds of merchandise to prepare the Plymouth store for opening day. This included meat, bread, groceries, frozen food, dairy products, baked goods and many other non-grocery items. It was estimated that an additional 120,000 pounds of merchandise was needed to replenish stocks after the first day. Transportation of merchandise is speedily accomplished because of the short distance between Kroger's new large Distribution Center located on Middlebelt Rd. in Livonia. This is an aerial view looking northwest.

A FREE BAG of groceries for every household in the Plymouth area caught many residents by surprise. Mrs. Evelyn Fisher, 730 Forest Ave., is shown receiving a bag from Carl Nadorff. Attempting to "bring back the good old days of friendly food shopping," Kroger delivered the groceries via a fleet of 1906 replica Oldsmobiles.

Kroger Has Been On Local Business Scene for 26 Years

When one looks at C. L. Finlan & Son, Heister's Greenhouse, Schrad-Kroger facility on N. Main St., they immediately think of the sudden growth of supermarkets that have sprung up since World War II.

It is difficult to realize that Kroger is one of the older members of the Plymouth business community.

Kroger opened its first store in Plymouth early in 1925 at 287 S. Main St. It was next door to the old inter-urban depot, now the site of the Plymouth Mail office.

Later the store moved to 360 S. Main, in the vicinity of the present Kresge building, and later to the Forest Ave. building where the supermarket concept was carried out for the first time.

There are only a handful of Plymouth stores remaining that were in business when Kroger opened in 1926. Among these are Dodge Drugs, Beyer Drugs, Penniman-Allyn Theatre, Blunk's, William Wood Insurance and a few others which have changed names since that time.

One may think that food prices were much lower in 1925, but this wasn't necessarily the truth in all cases. The first Kroger advertisement appearing in The Plymouth Mail on Jan. 16, 1925 listed eggs at 56 cents a dozen, about the same as today's prices.

Some other prices were bananas, 3 pounds for 25 cents; Wisconsin cheese, 30 cents a pound; butter, 44 cents a pound; sugar, 7 cents a pound; bread, 10 cents a loaf; oranges, 43 cents a dozen and grapefruit, 3 for 25 cents.

Automobiles, on the other hand, were selling for considerably less than today. A new Chevrolet in 1925 could be purchased at $525.

How About This For Meat Cut?

The Kroger Company has completed a huge cutout billboard featuring the largest meat illustration ever seen in the United States — a giant standing rib roast 23 feet high and 40½ feet wide. The new billboard went up on the Northeast corner of Gratiot Avenue and the Edsel Ford Expressway.

The illustration is part of an advertisement for Kroger's extra-tender Tenderay beef, and covers more than 300 square feet.

One of the unique features of the illustration is that it shows a slice of meat which has been cut away from the roast. The result is that billboard, roast and slice of meat appear on three different planes, giving Kroger an unusual three-dimensional billboard.

The illustration was created by Lyman Simpson, a nationally famous commercial artist who specializes in realistic food "portraits." It was produced by the Townsend Sign Co., 1340 Oakman Blvd.

According to Kroger's advertising plans, the illustration will remain at its first location for about two months. It will then be rotated to other Kroger Tenderay beef billboards throughout the city, staying at each location approximately two months.

HUNDREDS OF Plymouth householders beautified their lawns during the past week with rose bushes and shrubs sold at reduced prices from a truck parked in front of the store. Cal Jones, head produce merchandiser for Kroger, special effort was made to obtain enough of the freshly-dug shrubs and roses for the Plymouth store opening.

Bleacher Seats Still Available For Symphony's Pops Concert

While all tables have now been reserved for Saturday night's Pops Concert, there will be plenty of bleacher space available where spectators will hear songs of the Civil War.

The annual Pops Concert of the Plymouth Symphony is expected to be unusually interesting this year due to the historical aspect in commemorating the Civil War. During one of the numbers, Civil War Fantasy, arranged by Jerry Bilik, a member of the Symphony, actual Civil War weapons will be fired.

A change in folk singers employed in the "Fantasy" has been announced by Conductor Wayne Dunlap. Henry Austin, faculty member at the University of Michigan, will sing several folk tunes and accompany himself on the guitar. Austin has served programs here and was on tour with "Oklahoma" as Poor Jud.

One of the recent additions to the program will be the playing of "Rondo Capriccio" by Saint-Saens by Emily Adams, violinist, who is one of the best-known women musicians in the Detroit area. She is concertmaster of the Plymouth Symphony and is a member of the Detroit Symphony.

During the first portion of the program, selections from Broadway musicals will be featured. There will also be a section called "What's the name of that tune?" during which the audience will be tested on their knowledge of music.

Another section will feature the "blues" with Gershwin's famous "Rhapsody in Blue" and Leroy Anderson's "Blue Tango" being heard.

Concluding the Civil War section, there will be a Sing-Along program with the audience joining in.

76 Receive Civil Defense Medical Aid Certificates

On Wednesday evening, May 10, Dr. Lee D. Feldkamp awarded certificates to 76 persons as Medical Aides. The course began last January, and the participants met every two weeks until they had completed the course of instruction.

The course was under the sponsorship of the Women's Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and the meetings of the group were held in the Veterans of Foreign Wars building on Mill St.

The award ceremony was attended by Robert Sincock, mayor of the City of Plymouth, together with Commissioners William Hartmann, Robert Beyer and James Houk. The Township was represented by Supervisor Roy Lindsay.

Both civil defense directors from Plymouth and Plymouth Township, Albert Glassford and John McEwen, respectively, were there. Dr. Anderson, assistant to Dr. Joseph Molnar, the health officer of Detroit, and Dr. Eady, in charge of civil defense activities for the Wayne County Department of Health, spoke outlining the importance of the course recently completed. Most of the Medical Aide graduates indicated that they would participate in the advanced course, which will be held next fall at St. Mary Hospital.

FOR HAVING the highest percentage of participation in the annual Optimist Club Bike Rodeo, Our Lady of Good Counsel was presented a trophy Monday. They had become permanent possessors of the trophy last year after winning it three times. From left in foreground are Matt Fortney, an Optimist and secretary of the Plymouth Association of Insurance Agents, purchasers of the trophy; Public Safety Director Kenneth Fisher; Mother Superior Christine, principal of the school; and William Baumgartner, Optimist president. Some of the OLCG cyclists are looking on.

Harvey Cooper Addresses Group

Efficient use of special railroad cars fitted with damage prevention equipment was discussed by Harvey E. Cooper of Plymouth, sales engineer, railroad loading division, Evans Products Co., at the third annual Industrial Packaging Institute at the University of Pittsburgh on Thursday, May 11.

The session is one of 10 being conducted by the Department of Industrial Engineering of the University in May and June, in cooperation with the Steel City Chapter of Packaging and Handling Engineers.

Cooper explained Evans' work in pioneering the scientific approach to safe transportation of commodities, which is estimated to have saved railroads and American industries more than a billion dollars.

DETROIT RACE COURSE
SCHOOLCRAFT AND MIDDLEBELT ROAD

Plymouth High School
By Lester Bartson

A pile of brown cardboard boxes was delivered to the high school last week. And like Pandora's Box they released a flurry of excitement when opened, although of a highly more pleasant nature. The "Plytheans," the high school annuals, had arrived one month ahead of schedule. And after the first preliminary search through the pages of the thick blue volumes to see how their own pictures had turned out, students turned autograph hunters, and every spare moment for the rest of the week was spent signing annuals and inscribing them with reflections on past experiences and best wishes for the future. A lot of memories were stored up last week!

Congratulations to the Plythean staff on a very fine book indeed, even if this reporter's name was misspelled three times.

More scholarships have been awarded to Plymouth High seniors... Dawney Miller has received the Regents' Alumni Scholarship to Michigan State University, as has Celeste Arjay. Celeste was recently announced as the winner of the Regents Scholarship at the University of Michigan, which was also received by Ann West, Jim Davis, and Larry Heidt.

"Sounds of Spring," Plymouth High's annual spring band concert, is scheduled for tonight at 8 in the gym. This will be the last formal appearance as high school bandmen for all seniors in the group, and as such is especially worthy of note.

Sharon Sprague will perform a flute solo of Chemnade's "Concertine," while Shirley Puckett, Jim Yost and Dave Milross will play Leroy Anderson's "Bugler's Holiday." Marcie Woolweaver will be featured at the piano for "Harvest Celebration" by Don Gillis.

Talent from other schools will also participate in the affair... Raymond Young, a former baritone soloist in the U of M bands, now band director at Trenton High School, will do a solo. Brass choirs from Bentley and Northville High Schools will be featured in the "Finale to the First Symphony in G Minor" by Kalinnikov.

Proceeds from the admission charge of 50 cents for students and 75 cents for adults will be used to help send the band to Interlochen this summer. Sounds like an enjoyable evening of musical entertainment not to be missed.

Starting a new lawn this spring?

1. Don't worry about poor soil. You don't need to go to the trouble and expense of bringing in topsoil. Any soil—even subsoil—can give a satisfying lawn with regular feedings of Scotts protein-building TURF BUILDER®.
2. Don't be taken in by seed "bargains." You want a good lawn, not a hayfield. Cheap mixtures contain wild grasses that will plague you for the life of your lawn. Scotts seed is all good grass, perennial and weed-free.
3. Don't plant the wrong kind of lawn. Be realistic. If you need a lawn that stands up to the punishment of children and weather, choose Scotts PLAY seed. If appearance is paramount, Scotts FAMILY® or CLASSIC®.

SPORTSEEN

By Bill Nelson

Several weeks ago we wrote about Major Yuri Gagarin and sports. Commander Allen B. Shepard is entitled to equal space.

His Naval Academy record includes his participation in football, varsity crew and Boat Club among others.

Everyone west of East Berlin knows, recently, Commander Shepard just "naturally likes sailing." As everyone west of East Berlin knows, last Friday Commander Shepard sailed from Florida to the USS Lake Champlain in 15 minutes.

As an ex-Navy man, we took particular delight in some of the facts that came to light in connection with Shepard's spectacular lonely ride to retrieve U.S. prestige.

All the astronauts, it seems, were pretty nearly equal in high intelligence ratings, physical fitness and courage. Shepard's lightning quick reactions are said to have been the deciding factor in who was to go first.

If you've ever seen Gordie Howe, Doak Walker or, for that matter, Randy Egloff, you've seen what quick reactions can do. It's an ability under surprise pressure to do the right thing quickly—only like it was natural.

And the part that couldn't have been rehearsed was the most moving of all. There are a couple of rules in the Navy that require an officer to be properly dressed at all times and when on deck at sea to be "covered," i.e. wear a hat.

Shepard, when greeted on the deck of the aircraft carrier Lake Champlain, walked a few strides, said "Just a minute" and returned to the space capsule to get his hat.

If you've stood in the catwalks or hung around the bird watchers' nest of an aircraft carrier, you know why those sailors cheered so loud you could hear it over a lousy radio connection.

That one act made Shepard clearly a Navy officer, or more than that a human again—because he was concerned about doing the right thing at the moment—as if his flight had happened ages ago.

It was Shepard reacting to an unanticipated situation.

Another unanticipated event occurred last Saturday when Plymouth parents and friends turned out at 6:30 p.m. Saturday in the Junior High School to honor the 1961 State Champion Rocks.

Some of them reacted pretty well in the state meet, especially Phil Bender and Jim Izzet who swam faster than they ever had previously.

Neither the state champs or the space man got there overnight. Maybe there's a connection of some sort.

Another unanticipated event occurred last Saturday when Plymouth parents and friends turned out at the Junior High School to honor the 1961 State Champion Rock Swimming Team.

Some of them reacted pretty well in the state meet, especially Phil Bender and Jim Izzet who swam faster than they ever had previously. Bender and Dick Michaels were elected co-captains of next season's team, succeeding Dick Gretzinger and Ron Daley.

The speaker's table at the banquet featured speakers and their wives, including the school's principal, Mr. Carvel Bentley and Mrs. Bentley.

But it was McFall and his team, particularly Dick Gretzinger, who stole the show. Gretzinger is the greatest swimmer on this great team and for the last year McFall has been afraid that Gretzinger might have suspected as much and let down a bit.

So, as a coach, McFall did his duty and tried never to let Gretzinger get a notion that he was too good. Probably, we suspect, Gretzinger knew what was going on all the time. His presentation and platform ability suggested that maybe he did.

The season was over last Saturday, however, and here were these two looking each other in their respective wet eyes. There was nothing but complete admiration—mutual type. McFall called Gretzinger, "one of the most sought after young swimmers in the country."

Mrs. Gretzinger said her son had worried for a year about his appearance at this moment. This feeling of Plymouth swimmers and their coach runs deep.

Gretzinger's case is only illustrative. In each case, McFall had tailored his talents to the individual. Where he had to kick, he kicked. Where he had to cajole, he cajoled, etc.

Coaches Ralph Deetz of Redford Union and Hobbie Billingsly of Indiana, the feature speaker, formerly of Allen Park almost seemed to enjoy getting beat by McFall.

Billingsly's best remark was an inverse comment that he had never seen any parents at Allen Park. He was amazed at the interest and support of Plymouth fathers and mothers.

But they knew McFall too. It seemed anyone would want to help this McFall, who just keeps winning championships and being modest.

When he asked that Gretzinger's name be kept low in the newspaper to help the swimmer (in the coach's judgment), we complied. Why? It's against news training.

It's McFall. You can't help but be with him. Without being political, we think he's earned merit pay.

Nine Beats Belleville 8-2; Leads Loop

Stevens Belts In 4 RBI's

A couple of unbeaten teams in league play—Plymouth and Belleville—got together last Thursday to settle the Suburban Six League battle for first place, and when it was all over the Rocks were still piled up on the top of the heap.

Plymouth pounded out seven hits and collected eight runs to hand Belleville its first league defeat, 8-2. The Rocks are now 5-0 in league play and Belleville is 4-1.

Reversing its earlier formula of late victory, Plymouth jumped off to a two run lead in the first inning against Belleville. With two out, catcher Bob Monteith, starting pitcher Pete Lomonaco and third baseman Dick Schryer all walked to fill the bases.

Left fielder Jared Stevens, who drove in four runs, promptly belted a single to score Schryer and Monteith. Second sacker Art Nelson grounded out to end the inning.

Plymouth scored four more runs in the third to go ahead 6-0. With Schryer on second, after doubling, and two out, Stevens drove in his third run with a single. Nelson walked and centerfielder Jim Lockwood singled to score Stevens. Darrol Miller, Rock first baseman, scored Nelson and Lockwood with another single, before the rally was snuffed out.

Belleville got one run back in its half of the third, when Zimmer walked and Nunley doubled him home. Plymouth added a couple of insurance runs in sixth inning.

A Belleville flurry in the last inning provided another run before Pete Lomonaco was relieved by Schryer, who promptly put out the fire. The Rocks were scheduled at Trenton yesterday and will meet Allen Park tomorrow. Everyone in the league is casing them now.

A STANDING ovation was given John McFall, PHS swimming coach, whose team was honored at a banquet Saturday night. The Rock swim team won the title meet when he took State championship and McFall was perhaps more at ease during are Principal and Mrs. Carvel Bentley, Mrs. McFall, Coach McFall and Charles Ketterer, Junior High athletic coach.

Honor Champs At Banquet

Parents, relatives and friends got together last Saturday evening at the Junior High School to honor Plymouth's 1961 swimming team—a collection of local youngsters who are also known as the 1961 State Champions.

It seemed the same kind of community effort that sparked packed crowds of Plymouthites to follow the team from its first victory to its last, the thrilling finish to the state meet at Lansing.

Sisters of the swimmers helped serve the bountiful meal that was prepared by parents. And between trips to automobiles to stash away dishes that they had brought, parents beamed mightily as a series of speakers lauded their sons.

Charles Ketterer was chairman of the festivities and the featured speaker was Hobbie Billingsly, diving coach at the University of Indiana.

Tom Workman passed out junior varsity awards to 34 youngsters.

Ralph Deetz, representing the Plymouth Lions Club, presented the class to the state champions. He is also Redford Union swimming coach.

But it was Coach John McFall who first brought up the house, when he was introduced and given a standing ovation.

The same tribute was provided to Dick Gretzinger, one of the Rock co-captains who was also elected the second time as the most valuable member of the team.

McFall handed out varsity letters, tie clasps, certificates and a couple of photos to each member of the team. He said, "I feel like I got as much stuff to hand out as one of those old television quiz shows."

With Gretzinger as spokesman, his team presented McFall with a white clock, that was a beauty, and with a tartar's gun. "We're not sure you'll be able to get your chubby finger through the starter's gun. We're not sure commented on handing McFall the gun.

It was a funny line, but it didn't quite come off as humor. Gretzinger and McFall joined a large group of others with damp noses and wet eyes.

This team had tried hard—two swimmers actually reached their peak in the finals—and had come home with the State's top swimming prize.

A lot of people who had never been to a swimming banquet before got a big kick out of it.

You shoulda been there.

Rocks Qualify For Golf Meet

Plymouth golfers qualified for the state finals last week and picked up two more dual wins to boost their season total to seven wins and two losses.

The Rocks placed fourth (the four top teams qualify for the finals) in the Regional meet at Birmingham. Del McAllister tied for second with 75 strokes over the 18 hole meet. Ann Arbor's Chuck Menefee won it with a 75 total.

Steve Hayskar was second for Plymouth with a 77 and Carl Zornow was next with 85. John Augustine was fourth with 85. The Regional meet was won by Bloomfield Hills on a 314 team score. Ann Arbor was next with 315 and Dearborn, with 321, was third. Plymouth scored 326 for fourth.

Other teams in the meet finished this way: fifth, Pontiac Central, 329; Walled Lake, 333; seventh, Birmingham, 334; eighth, Pontiac Normal, 346; ninth, Ypsilanti, 350; 10th, Monroe, 352; 11th, Pontiac Waterford, 356; 12th, Berkley, 360; 13th, Garden City, 375; 14th, Wayne, 400; 15th, Trenton, 402; and 16th, Taylor Center, 410.

Coach John Sandmann said that Plymouth's score was "good enough to win most regionals." To win the finals, he added, "you generally have to score 320 or below."

The finals will be held Saturday at Blythefield Country Club in Grand Rapids.

In beating Southfield (171-180) and Bentley (158-183) last week, Plymouth settled scores for its only two defeats in golf this year. The victory over Southfield was particularly satisfying, because Plymouth had tied with Southfield earlier in the season and then lost that match on a playoff hole.

McAllister shot a 40 against Southfield and another 40 against Bentley. Hayskar was 42 against Southfield, but shot 34 against Bentley, which is one under par. Dick Gretzinger with 44 and 42 was third in both meets. John Augustine had a 45 in the Southfield meet and a 43 against Bentley.

Both dual meets were at Braeburn.

The Rocks finished the meet by winning the 880 yard relay in 1:37.2. Steele, John Spigarelli, Aisbro and Fey performed for Plymouth in this event.

The Junior Varsity also beat Belleville, winning 64 1/2-44 1/2 in a meet run simultaneously with the varsity. Next on the track horizon is a dual meet with Northville on the 22nd and the league meet at Redford Union on the 25th.

Split Two In Tennis

The Rock tennis team split two matches last week and maintained its .500 record for the season with five wins and five losses.

Allen Park beat the Rocks Tuesday, 4-3, but Plymouth edged Ypsilanti by the same score, 4-3, on Thursday.

Against Allen Park, Plymouth piled up a 3-0 lead in the first three matches played. John Tichy and Tom Lock each won in singles and when Larry Hall and Otis Dobas won the first match off to a big lead. Allen Park won the last two singles and two doubles events in a row.

In the Ypsi match Lock, Don Donovan and Ed Fisher netted three of the four single events for Plymouth and Dale Livingston and Dennis Smith combined for a key doubles win that provided the victory margin.

Outlook Dark, But It Always Has Been
Suddenly this winter we began to hear once more about some recent history many of us lived through but had oddly forgotten: the era of Adolph Hitler, Nazism and the Axis Powers.

The Eichmann trial and the Swedish film "Mein Kampf" have stirred the public. Before these, though, came the biggest contribution to this revival of interest: William L. Shirer's monumental Rise and Fall of the Third Reich. Turned down by several publishers as "not commercial," this $10 book has sold like Peyton Place since last November.

Now the paperbacks are coming out on the subject.

An earlier Shirer book, Berlin Diary (Popular Library, 75 cents), first published in 1941, is a day-by-day picture of events in Europe during the dark days of 1934-40 and a most readable introduction to the period. Top-ranking journalist Shirer was in those days a foreign correspondent based largely in Berlin. His daily dispatches were familiar to all American radio listeners and newspaper readers; thus Berlin Diary gives us a first-hand account of Hitler's fateful rise to power. When Shirer was booted from Berlin in 1940 Hitler had achieved what looked like an unbeatable position of strength.

We think books like these can help us. Those too young to have known or old enough to have forgotten the ugly facts of Nazism will learn (or remember) that the Nazi barbarians were an evil as unmitigated and a threat as total 20 years ago as the Communists are now. The young among us will learn that theirs is not the only generation to step into a shaky and uncertain world. It is good to know we have been here before. It may save us from panic or self-pity.

Dr. Dooley's Legacy
The late Dr. Tom Dooley was universally admired. Signet Books has now made all three of his books — Deliver Us from Evil, The Night They Burned the Mountain and The Edge of Tomorrow — available at 50 cents each. There is no better buy in town.

Supt. Isbister Elected President Of Michigan Schoolmaster's Club

Superintendent Russell Isbister was elected president of the Michigan Schoolmasters' Club at the 74th annual meeting held last Friday at the University of Michigan.

He succeeds Everett Phelps of Wayne State University. There were no classes held last Friday so that secondary teachers could attend the annual meeting.

Others elected at the meeting were: vice-president, Mrs. Valdeen Roth, dean of girls, Bay City Central High School; and executive committee member, Ruth Winter, Denby High, Detroit.

During an address, the audience heard that teaching machines won't replace teachers until they develop a human heart.

Prof. Eugene P. Smith, Wayne State University mathematician, told fellow educators that the teaching device is "a master of being cold, impersonal and aloof from the many problems that beset our students."

The only teachers who should be replaced by machines are those with the same qualities, Professor Smith charged.

The true teacher, he said, attempts to create vital interest in students for the subject being taught, to encourage interesting applications of a subject to items of local significance. He will encourage related study and will try to teach concepts and a void

Others elected at the meeting were: vice-president, Mrs. Valdeen Roth, dean of girls, Bay City Central High School; and executive committee member, Ruth Winter, Denby High, Detroit.

Committee Named To Plan YMCA Activities

A committee of 21 persons to plan and arrange for YMCA activities in Plymouth was elected at a dinner meeting, attended by nearly 100 persons, held at the Methodist Church on Tuesday evening, May 9.

George E. Cullen, Jr., director of industrial relations, American Motors Corp., and a member of the National Board of the YMCAs of United States and Canada, was the speaker for the occasion.

"The YMCA is a positive, constructive force in a world where negativism seems to be receiving undue emphasis," he said. "The triangle, recognized worldwide as the symbol of the YMCA, has the respect and support of all free nations because of its ability to work with people of all races and creeds in programs through which responsible Christian and democratic leaders are developed."

Robert Rick, associate executive of camping for the YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit and director of Camp Ohivesa, narrated the "YMCA on Parade" which presented several "Y" programs. Participating in the parade were: Robert Fugh and son, Danny, for the fall er and son Y-Indian Guides; Nancy North and Jim Ralston for high school youth; Bruce Ingham for camping; and the Russell R. Kreitsch family for family activities.

C. Gerald Wood, General Secretary of the YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit; and Roger Blood, State YMCA of Michigan, both spoke briefly.

Members of the committee who were elected were: Urey Arnold, Russell Ash, Robert K. Barbour, George T. Bauer, Robert Baxter, Paul M. Chandler, Donald Chapman, Charles Childs, Gerald Elston, James N. Garber, Loren Gould, A. B. Johnson, Donald Koch, Russell Kreitsch, George Lawton, Kenneth Leader, Rudolph Norquist, Marshall North, Phil Toromohlen, Ralph Garber and Dr. Henry J. Welch.

James N. Garber, 42269 Hammill Lane, presided at the affair. The invocation was given by Dr. Melbourne I. Johnson, pastor of the Methodist Church, with the benediction by Dr. Henry J. Welch, pastor, United Presbyterian Church. Serving on the dinner committee were: Urey Arnold, Kenneth Bisbee, Donald Chapman, Donald Koch, Kenneth Leader, James Garber and Charles Childs.

Special guests who were present were: Keith Millie, chairman of the board of management, Wayne YMCA; Robert Eklund, executive secretary, Wayne YMCA; and John L. Stone, assistant general secretary of the YMCA of Metropolitan Detroit in charge of extension.

MEMBERS OF the Chamber of Commerce went to school for a morning last week during "Education - Industry - Business Day." Both the Senior and Junior High were opened Thursday morning to businessmen and industrialists. Shown, from left, are Dan Olsen of Evans Products, Junior High art instructor Heinz Ditmar and Sam Hudson, also of Evans, who are watching students in an art project. A panel composed of school administrators and a teacher answered questions in a seminar following lunch at the Junior High.

From the Ballet Suite, "Mademoiselle Angot" by the French composer, Lecoco, the band will perform the fifth and sixth movements entitled, simply, "Valse" and "Can Can." Ralph Vaughn Williams, the noted English composer of the early 20th century, will be represented by his professional march, "Sine Nomine" which will be conducted by the band's student director, senior Dale McIvor.

Selections from the very successful Broadway musical, "My Fair Lady," will also be performed by the band. Sharon Sprague, senior, and first chair flutist, will perform the difficult "Concertino" by Chamade. Guest soloist for this Friday's concert will be the renowned euphonium artist, Raymond Young. Young was formerly a soloist with the University of Michigan Band and has performed in Symphony Hall in Boston and New York City's Carnegie Hall. He has also recorded with the American Symphonic Band of the Air under the Decca label.

Currently the band director at Trenton High School, Young will assume new duties next fall as Associate Director of Bands and Assistant Professor of Brass at Southern Mississippi College. Accompanied on the piano by his wife, Young will perform the "Introduction and Dance" by Barat and Bossini's "Largo al Factotum."

The band will conclude their program with the "Finale" from the Symphony No. 1 in G Minor by Kalinnikov. This tremendous work has been scored for two antiphonal choirs which will be played by brass players from the Northville and Bentley High School Bands.

Tickets for this musically exciting evening are 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students and may be purchased from any band member or at the door. All proceeds will be used to help send the entire band to Interlochen for one week next August.

Says Vandalism Caused Comfort Station Closing

A recent letter to the editor of The Mail concerning the closing of the downtown comfort station on a Friday night has brought a reply from City Manager Albert Glassford.

Ordinarily, the comfort station is open during all shopping hours, including Friday nights, the manager said, but during the past few months it has been closed periodically due to a wave of vandalism. "Recent vandalism at night has caused it to be closed several times," the manager noted. Recently, no sooner was the comfort station put in good order by plumbers, who must re-pipe the water supply to the wash basins and rehang them, special stands installed to reinforce the basins were kicked loose the next day.

The following day, the wash basins on the women's side were torn loose from the walls and the comfort station had to be closed down. Under such conditions of vandalism, the comfort station cannot be opened until the plumber has made the necessary repairs, since the water would be turned off.

Glassford said that increased surveillance has been provided, and vandals will be prosecuted. The letter writer said parents would not continue to shop here if rest room facilities are not provided.

New School Officials Inaugurated

By Lester Barton

New class and all-school officers as well as Student Council representatives were installed at Plymouth High School's Inaugural Assembly last Thursday morning.

The climax to campaign and election activities, the affair saw this year's officers withdraw to the tune of "Auld Lang Syne" as the newly elected officials took their places.

Jim Kropf was sworn in as all-school mayor — a position as head of the Student Council, and of the student body in general.

In his inaugural address Jim promised quick action on the much debated question of a revision of the school constitution, through which the student government is operated. Since the revision presented on this year's ballot failed, he stated that he had already taken steps to have another revision before the student voters by June 1.

Jim further stated that by voting for him the students had chosen "democratic ideals." He pledged a constitution in complete harmony with these ideals.

Other new school officers are Carolyn Scott, vice-mayor, Mary Lou Argo, secretary, and Buzz Smith, treasurer.

After speeches of congratulations and best wishes on the part of the outgoing all-school officers and of acceptance by their successors, the various new class officers were introduced. Principal Carvel Bentley then came forth to inaugurate the entire group.

Sworn in as next year's senior class officers were Rich Alford, president; Harold Fischer, vice-president; Karen Clyde, secretary, and Sue Neal, treasurer. Student Council representatives are Janet Graham, Keith Evans, Greta Jensen, and Michelle Bender.

Taking over for the junior class are Jim Jensen, president, with Anna Zoet and Nancy North as vice-president and secretary respectively. Eileen Ash will assume the duties of treasurer. The class of '63's Council representatives are Barb Utter, Janet Van Antwerp, Ginny Freshman officers are: William Ray, president; James Lake, vice-president; Marilyn Wall, secretary; and Randall Pentecost, treasurer. Council representatives for this year will be Carol Otwell, Dave Wall, Georgeann Kippola, and Clark Raven. Liaison officer for the coordination of activities between the two freshmen groups — one at the Junior High building, the other at the Senior High — is Betty Erdel, while Patti Page is the alternate.

A number of parents were present at the inaugural assembly, as were a group of businessmen visiting the high school in observance of Education - Business - Industry Day, sponsored jointly by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and Board of Education.

Telephone lines

By HUGH C. BRONAUGH, Manager

"MICHIGAN MARCHING FORWARD" is the theme of Michigan Week this year, and all of us at Michigan Bell are proud to be right in step with it. For example, during the past 10 years Michigan's population has increased by 23 per cent and the number of telephones we serve has grown 62 per cent. This year we're planning to spend nearly $87 million on new construction to improve and expand service. And Michigan Bell employees (we're Michigan's fourth largest employer) will earn—and spend mostly right in this State—about $140 million this year. Our aim: to keep marching forward with Michigan.

IF YOU HAVE two-party or four-party phone service, why not change to a one-party line? A private telephone line is exclusively yours. It lets you talk whenever you wish for as long as you wish, without interruption. Unlike a party line, it's always ready to make or receive calls. And in an emergency, you can use your telephone at once. You can enjoy the benefits of private line service for only pennies more a day. Just call us here at our business office.

MOST OF US hate to throw anything away that "might come in handy" some day. Your telephone company is like that, too. But Michigan Bell does more than keep worn-out things around. Such as broken shovels. Or damaged screwdrivers. Tools like these, where practical, are repaired and made useful again. That's just one of the many ways we economize—so we can keep giving you good telephone service at the lowest possible cost.

The Reader Speaks Up

Tribute for Hospital Day
In memory for my dear sister, DeLana, R.N., and to the doctors, nurses and ambulance drivers of Plymouth, that have worked and cooperated side by side in this small wayside hospital, formerly known as Plymouth Hospital, located at 218 South Main St.

Nowhere is more profound joy and sadness squeezed into each 24 hours, than in the hospital, around the clock, day after day.

The balance wheel continues on its interminable path, children are born, men and women die, suffering is eased, pain is ended. While the city sleeps, or bustles unconcernedly about its business, drama unfolds in the wards, in the operating room, in the waiting room and in the ambulance. Even as this is being read, surgeons and M.D.'s somewhere are putting to use years of study in an effort to save a life. Nearby friends and relatives are suffering the anguish of doubt.

A participant of the drama of the hospital and at the same time a spectator to the emotional scene, is the nurse, an apostle of Florence Nightingale, the Lady With the Lamp.

To many patients, the nurse is the tormentor who awakens them while even the sun still sleeps. The nurse that uses the patient as a human pin cushion, or so it seems, with hypodermic needles.

She also scolds them for not eating, she chides them for trying to avoid their medicines. She admonishes them for getting out of bed against orders. But the nurse also comforts the patients in their suffering. The nurse feeds them, if they cannot feed themselves, and ministers to their needs day and night. Here is a task that requires deep understanding, astute diplomacy, and the ability to absorb the barbs of daily associations, with pain and death.

Years, many years, have passed since Miss Nightingale organized a band of volunteer nurses to go to the Crimea where they worked in hospitals during the war there. This remarkable Nurse Nightingale brought comfort, relief, hope and recovery to many untold generations of suffering men and women because of her relentless battle for sound principles of hygiene and sanitation and because of the revolutionary bedside nursing techniques she developed during the war.

The white cap of the registered nurse is not easily obtained. Long days of hard disagreeable work with few liberties, comprise the early months of training. And a rigid routine continues for the following years of study. Those who do not find the way too difficult learn to assist at operations and master practical nursing, massage, dietetics, bacteriology, physiology and anatomy. The graduates take devious paths, some into private nursing, some into positions as airline stewardesses and others into school or industrial nursing.

But among the more heroic under existing conditions, are those who take up the burden of hospital work.

Coping with the many and varied problems that arise in the hospital puts the nurse through an emotional wringer daily. It is not unusual in the hospitals for only one Registered Nurse to be on duty throughout the night. There is medical assistance on hand, of course, but certain tasks are to be performed by the nurse alone. She finds herself rushing hither and yon, to meet the various emergencies that arise and she must indeed be dedicated to her calling to carry on such pressure.

The compensation of the job transcends monetary considerations. While it may be true that some young women turn to nursing because of the glamour of the immaculate white uniform, the greatest majority of nurses in the profession with a sincere desire to help suffering humanity. So profound is the feeling that many forego the opportunities of marriage and others continue on the job even when taking on the responsibilities of family life.

The accomplishments of nurses in modern warfare also have provided a brilliant page in medical history. The Lady With the Lamp must be very proud of them all.

God bless the doctors, nurses and ambulance drivers in their professions and the great work that has to be done and carried on by each and every one of them.

My sister, DeLana, and myself loved them all.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

Church services for Memorial Sunday will be held this year at the First Baptist Church on Mill Street, the corner of Spring St.

Services will start at 11 a.m., so be there by quarter to eleven.

After the next meeting on May 23, we will have a representative out from the Community College Committee to give us some facts on the needs, costs, etc., so that we might better know how we should vote in June. The public is invited to come out and hear this speaker at 9:30 p.m. on May 23.

The Memorial Day Parade will form at the parking lots of Hillside Inn at 9 a.m. on May 30. All Veterans are requested to turn out for this, whether you are a member of the post or not, and in uniform if possible. A large turnout for this would show that we have not forgotten The Dead of Flanders Field.

Last Notice — Lou Dely, poppy chairman, is still signing up Buddy Poppy salesmen. He can find a spot for everyone and everyone is really needed. Lou's number is GL 3-0151 which is also the number for the future of our Relief Fund and Hospital work.

Wednesday evening, May 10, 20 members of the Post and our Auxiliary made a trip to the Maybury Sanatorium Hospital and gave out over 560 potted plants and candy bars. It is very gratifying to see the pleasure these people get from being remembered even by a small gift.

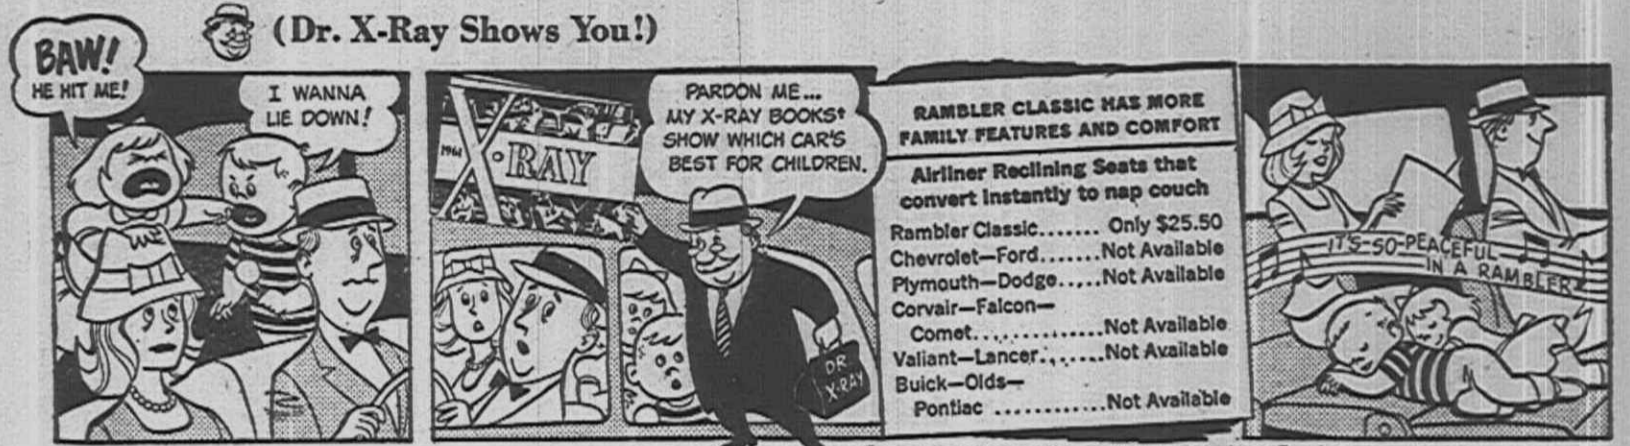

Sunday, May 7, 10 members of the Auxiliary attended the Fourth District meeting at Lincoln Park. The annual election of officers was held with the following elected to office: President, Regina Teavin; Sr. Vice, President, Josephine Modzelewski; Jr. Vice, President, Barbara Bishop; Treasurer, Virginia Bartel. The membership of the District has increased by only eight for the year which is not too good a percentage. We were commended by President Sally Degraeye for our Senior Citizens program, our drill team and our fine notebooks. Keep up the good work, girls, it makes us very proud to have our work complimented at the District meetings and it also gives us a feeling of satisfaction in knowing that we are doing our work well.

Nine Auxiliary members volunteered their services and made the hospital trip to Maybury Sanatorium May 8 with the Post. Hospital chairman Marion Skoglund would like to personally thank Winifred Cadaret, Geraldine Olson, Mildred Dely, Lucinda Archer, Norene Zimmer, Helen Luttermoser, Virginia Bartel and Lucille Johnson for having made the trip. The ladies made 522 contacts and distributed gifts. It was a very successful trip and the Post and Auxiliary members are to be congratulated for the fine work.

At the final meeting of the Community sponsored Civil Defense class, 79 persons, 16 of whom were Auxiliary members, received certificates for having completed a basic course in casualty care. The evening was highlighted by the attendance of city and township officials. Our civil defense chairman, Marion Skoglund, deserves a word of praise for her splendid cooperation and efforts throughout this program. At the conclusion of the meeting, her committee served refreshments to the class and guests.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Editor: Attached hereto, please find a poem which I would like to dedicate to Judge Perlongo's memory.

I have written many poems, and the Judge was a lawyer kind enough to listen to them, and give me welcome criticism. He helped me in many ways.

THE MAIL ATTITUDE

BY PAUL CHANDLER

In this business of news reporting in a local community, one of the discouraging repeated discoveries is the number of people on the public payroll who aren't really public servants.

On the other hand, there are others who provide a thrill just to hear and watch them in action, because of their dedication to a public task.

Ultimately, there is the suffering of seeing the good ones move on, or out. "I'm getting so I hate hello's," somebody wrote recently, "because for every hello there is a painful goodbye."

In the City of Plymouth last week, a public servant passed on. Well known in professional circles in Livonia, too, Municipal Judge Nardino Perlongo served his community without the aid of eyesight.

He was strong, maybe in spite of his lack of eyesight, or possibly because of it. He will be difficult to replace and his work will be missed.

Perlongo was born in Italy, became an American citizen by naturalization, fought his way to a useful and satisfying life over obstacle after obstacle.

Let all who aren't blind please realize it is the leadership example this country, so desperately needs in quantity today, as compared to whining, fearful, self-pitying individuals who somehow insist society owes them a debt.

One of the most cheering recent developments in our area has been the rallying of strong and prominent people behind the project for a Community College.

From each of the six school districts involved has come "Gallup Poll" information this week that all signs indicate the people in every district want and will approve the idea on the ballot in the second week in June.

This ballot proposal, incidentally, contains no mention or request of money. It is an election to set up a college district and to name a board of trustees.

If and when local millage is required, that issue would appear at a separate and distinct election and would be a matter to be considered on its own merits in detail.

A luncheon last week brought out a host of top community leaders from Plymouth, Redford Union, South Redford, Livonia, Clarenceville and Garden City.

There were plant managers, elected officials, professional men. They back the plan, to a man.

To thumbnail the arguments for the college again:

1. Schooling today can't stop at an arbitrary 12 grades. There is virtually no market for unskilled labor; youth must have a skill to find employment.

2. Our major universities have been forced to close their doors to all except a few freshmen and sophomores. Those few must carry a B plus or A minus average today to even be considered at schools such as the University of Michigan.

3. Many, many homes can't afford higher education when it also must include room and board, plus tuition. Yet it is imperative that youngsters receive more than 12 grades of schooling if they are to swim upward in our present society.

4. Local control of the funds and local election of those spending the funds is a safer and more economical way to provide education than to send the money to Lansing and hope the dollars all return.

5. Adults today are demanding education and cultural activities in their local communities to fill a void created by increased "leisure time."

6. Our high school production of graduates has been increasing 10 percent per year and will continue to do so for many years.

7. A campus in this area would increase the value of all homes it serves, lift the community spirit, provide a cultural and social center. It would be "creating."

Letters TO THE EDITOR

Editor:

With the calculated risk of alienating the friendship of our many friends who are presently engaged in doing business in "downtown" Plymouth, we are impelled to state our view, and perhaps that of some others, regarding the proposed financing of additional parking facilities in that area.

Our question is, why should the taxpayers of Plymouth be required to subsidize such expense, when there remains a question of whether there is actually a public preference for this particular area of the city, from a shopper's standpoint?

In our opinion, the cost of such developments should be borne entirely by those to whom benefit accrues most directly — downtown Plymouth property owners, rather than by taxpayers at large.

Here Are Community School Board Minutes

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held Monday evening, April 10, 1961, in the Board Room of the Administration Building, 1024 South Mill Street, at 8:00 p.m.

Present: Members G. Fischer, H. Fischer, Hulsing, Kaiser, Niemi, Soth and Zylstra; Adm. Asst. Blunk, Sup't Kelly, Supt. Isabister and Mr. Arnold.

Also present: Mr. Perlongo, Mr. Spensley, Mrs. George O. Jackson, Mrs. Arnold Plichta, Mrs. Elmer Boer, Alna Bortius, Mr. Robert E. Pickard, Marie Turri, Mrs. G. McGrew and Mr. James Marshall.

President Niemi called the meeting to order at 8:00 p.m.

Several parents of elementary school children inquired about proposed changes for next year in the elementary school starting and closing times. Superintendent Isabister explained that under the present elementary school schedule a significant number of children were deprived of from fifteen to thirty minutes of school time daily in order to maximize the use of the transportation system for both the elementary and secondary school children. He noted further that this situation could not be corrected without some change in the existing schedule.

Parents felt that the later closing time as proposed for the elementary schools next year would interfere with post school activities planned by the churches and other organizations outside the school. They also expressed concern about longer school hours overtaxing the children, particularly the young ones.

Superintendent Isabister indicated that the proposed one hour differential in the elementary and secondary school schedules might be achieved by fifteen minutes. He agreed to report further on this matter at the Board meeting on Monday, April 17, 1961.

Mr. Perlongo, Attorney, reported that the contract with the City of Plymouth for purchase of the property had been finalized in accordance with the conditions set forth in the contract assigned to the Board of Education at its meeting on Monday, January 9, 1961.

He suggested, also, some changes in the contract. The Board of Education and the general contractor assigned to construct the new junior high school. These changes would make the conditions of work and responsibility more clearly defined. He interpreted the legal aspects of performance bonds and contract conditions set forth therein.

It was moved by Member Soth and seconded by Member Kaiser that the minutes of the meetings held on March 13, 20 and 21, 1961, be approved. Carried unanimously.

Ayes: Members G. Fischer, H. Fischer, Hulsing, Kaiser, Niemi, Soth and Zylstra.

Nays: None.

The motion was carried.
