Check Arson In Two Fires

Two fires of mysterious origin—one in Canton Township and the other in Livonia just across the Plymouth Township border—kept three fire departments busy Sunday night.

In the Livonia fire, two Plymouth men were credited with entering the home and waking up the occupants.

The Canton fire involved only a barn but the Livonia fire struck both a barn and house. In Canton, explosions were heard preceding discovery of the fire.

Canton firemen received their alarm at 10:30 p.m. from Hiram Godwin who lives near the barn at Warren and Lilley Roads. There is no house on the property and the barn was being used by a group of boys for working on hot rod cars, according to Fire Chief Fred Korte, Jr.

Korte could see the fire from his home and he immediately summoned Plymouth Township firemen. Because there was no hay or little combustible material in the barn, firemen were able to save the structure although the roof was burning on both the inside and outside.

Neighbors within two miles said they heard several explosions. The barn is owned

Seven More Streets Have Water Service

Water mains on seven more Plymouth Township streets have been approved by the Board of Health for connection, Township Treasurer Elizabeth Holmes announced this week.

Property owners along the streets approved by health authorities are eligible to apply for a water tap. The new additions amounted to nearly four miles.

Streets given the nod for tap-ins were:

- Joy Rd., from Lilley Rd. to Main St., 2,600 feet.
 - Main St., from Ann Arbor Rd. to Joy, 2,700 feet.
 - Morrison, from Joy to Marlin, 2,280 feet.
 - Rocker, Joy to Ann Arbor Rd., 2,600 feet.
 - Marlin, from Rocker to Morrison, 450 feet.
 - Ann Arbor Rd., from Rocker to a point 2,600 feet west of Sheldon Rd., 6,000 feet.
 - Corinne Ave., from Joy to Ann Arbor Rd., 2,600 feet.
- Most of the Township streets where water mains have been laid are now approved for tap-ins. It is expected that sometime later this month Detroit water will be turned into the system in place of the Township well water.

Town Hall In Session

A chance for voters to get acquainted with the proposed Northwest Wayne County Community College issue and with the people who are candidates for the board of trustees will be given next Monday night when the Town Hall is again in session.

The meeting will begin at 8 p.m. in the Junior High School. Electors will go to the polls on Tuesday, Oct. 24 to decide the community college question for the second time. The first time, last June, voters in four districts approved the establishment while those in two other school districts, Redford Union and South Redford, rejected it.

Voting on the question and candidates Oct. 24 will be electors in the Plymouth, Clarecville, Livonia and Garden City school districts.

Those attending the Town Hall meeting will hear the community college proposal explained and then the 10 candidates invited to the meeting will each speak briefly on their qualifications. As usual, the audience will be allowed to ask questions.

All electors will have four people to vote for—one to represent his own school district and three to represent the community college district at large.

Baton Lifts Sunday On 16th Season for Plymouth Symphony

Paul Olefsky, one of the greatest cellists playing today, or to be recalled out of past decades, will be the guest soloist on Sunday, Oct. 15 when the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra presents its first concert of its 16th season.

Open to the public without charge, the concert starts at 4 p.m. at the High School.

Praises of Olefsky's talent have been heard throughout Europe as well as the United States. In Munich the critics said

"anything he plays becomes captivating", in Amsterdam he was claimed a "faultless interpreter of the intentions of the composer", the London Daily Mail heralded him "a thoroughly accomplished published artist" ... on the American scene these praises have been echoed by all of the major music critics.

In order to devote time to concertizing, Olefsky is currently artist and conductor-in-residence of the State University of Iowa. His career has covered such a multitude of activities and success it is hard to imagine how such a young man has had time to accomplish so much in such a short span of years.

A native of Chicago, Paul Olefsky's list of accomplishments includes principal cellist positions with The Philadelphia, Robin Hood Dell, Chautauqua and Detroit symphony orchestras. He has won both the Naumburg (1948) and the Michaels (1953) awards. A graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music in 1947 Olefsky studied with Piatigorsky, Primrose, and later with Pablo Casals. In 1948, at 22, when he became principal cellist of the Philadelphia Orchestra, he acquired his "David" Montagnana cello, made in Venice in 1733. In 1950 he appeared as soloist at Carnegie Hall with the Philadelphia Orchestra under Eugene Ormandy.

During World War II, Olefsky gave 187 concerts for servicemen in the Pacific Islands, for which he was decorated by the War Department with the Civilian Service Award. When the Korean War began Olefsky enlisted in the navy and served as a solo cellist in the U. S. Navy Band Symphony Orchestra.

Among the many solo appearances with orchestras are: Philadelphia Orchestra with Eugene Ormandy conducted.

Goal of $44,347 Set; Senior Citizens Becomes New Agency

Over 250 Plymouth men and women are preparing this week for the opening Monday of the 1961 Plymouth Community Fund campaign with their sights set this year on a goal of $44,347.

A torch-lighting ceremony will take place at 7 p.m. this Friday in Kellogg Park with the public invited.

This year's goal is $936 less than what was contributed during last year's record-breaking campaign. This year's drive is also saluting the addition of another agency—the Plymouth Senior Citizens—to the list of fund recipients.

General chairman of the campaign for the second year in a row is Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister. He and the division chairmen have been meeting throughout the summer preparing for the three-week effort this month.

The Special Events division, headed by Floyd Kehl, has already begun its function of soliciting donations from some of the major givers. The Industrial Division, led by Donald Ward, assistant to the president at Evans Products, has also reached his team captains for the in-plant drives which are coordinated with the United Foundation.

The house-to-house drive of the Residential Division will take place next Thursday, Oct. 19. Most of the household contracts will be made from 7 to 8 p.m. that night, according to Mrs. George Bauer, chairman of the division. Some women, however, may be visiting earlier, she added.

There are around 200 women volunteers working on the residential campaign. Assisting Mrs. Bauer are Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes and Mrs. Marshall North.

Leading the Business Division effort again this year is Frank Palmer, general manager of Paul J. Wiedeman, Inc. The Professional Division push is headed by Co-chairmen, Dr. John Salan and Dr. John Robison.

This is how the $44,347 will be allocated:

- Police Youth Club, $2,700.
- Plymouth Dental Fund, $1,500.
- Visiting Nurse Assn., $2,500
- Salvation Army, $8,500
- Girl Scouts, $4,500
- Boy Scouts, $6,000
- Senior Citizens, $780
- American Red Cross, $4,200
- Plymouth Cancer Society, $3,687
- Veterans Memorial Center, $2,200
- Plymouth Symphony, $2,000
- United Health and Welfare agencies administered through the United Foundation, $5,784.

A leaflet giving details of the agencies' activities and some questions and answers about the Community Fund will be distributed this weekend to householders by Boy Scouts.

The Plymouth Community Fund, in its 16th year, is not a part of the United Foundation which covers most of metropolitan Detroit. It is one of the few communities still maintaining an independent drive.

The Community Fund, using the slogan, "Give Where you Live," urges that residents of Plymouth Township and City, working where a United Foundation drive is held, to divert their donation to the Plymouth drive. This can be done by making a notation on the face or back of the U-F pledge card asking that the GO TEAM GO! is the word for next week as volunteers in industry and other divisions begin the annual Torch Drive. Next Wednesday will be Pledge Day at Burroughs Corp. here when more than 300 volunteers will serve as pledge leaders from the nearly 5,000 employees. With the theme of "Give Where You Live," employees will be donating to either the United Foundation or Plymouth Community Fund. Shown is General Manager D. E. Stromback "passing the ball" for this year's drive to "quarterback" Frank Huettman, Division Unit chairman. Looking on are two special "cheerleaders," Ozella Pyle, left, and Betty Sue Perryman. The two Burroughs girls are serving as hostesses in the campaign.

Can't Charge for School Bus Service, Says State

An opinion from the State Department of Public Instruction has stated that the School District cannot charge for the use of school buses, such as allowing parents to pay for sending the High School Band to out-of-town football games.

The opinion was read at Monday night's Board of Education meeting by Supt. Russell Isbister who had been instructed by the Board to obtain it from the state.

The request was made after the Band Parents Assn. had appeared before the Board last month offering to pay for use of school buses to transport the band to "away" games. The Board earlier had decided that all school organizations should be limited to one out-of-town bus trip this year.

This decision came about as the Board attempted to pare down the budget which was cut over $40,000 by a drop of assessed valuation of some $4 million. It was estimated that the limitations on field trips would result in a savings of $5,000.

When the band made its first "away" trip to Northville, 10 businessmen donated $5 each to charter two private buses. The Band Parents Assn. in the meantime asked the Board if they couldn't pay for use of the school's buses. The Board answered last month that the legality of such a thing would first need checking.

The State Department of Public Instruction says that a state law forbids that students in the school district be charged for use of a bus.

School Board member Peter Zystra, however, asserted that the superintendent should have asked the state if donations could be made for use of the bus, instead of asking them if a charge can be made. He noted that some other districts even sell tickets to students to ride school buses to out-of-town games.

There are many districts, he said, that skirt around the laws.

But Board Vice-President Wesley Kaiser said that use of the words "donation" and "charge" are splitting hairs, and that if the Board is going to set a price for use of

Mayor's Mother Fatally Injured

The mother of Mayor Robert Sincoc was fatally injured last Wednesday when she was struck by a car as she crossed the street in front of her home in Calumet, Mich.

Mrs. Sincoc, a widow for over 30 years, lived alone. She was 86.

Funeral services were held Saturday in Calumet with Mayor Sincoc and his family attending. Surviving are two other children, a son in Calumet and a daughter in Chicago.

Mrs. Sincoc became acquainted with some Plymouth residents when she spent several winters here.

Drive Down Plymouth Rd. Finds 4 Plants On Strike

Motorists driving down a stretch of Plymouth Rd. in Plymouth Township and Livonia can pass four strike-bound plants nowadays—Whitman & Barnes, Hydromotion Corp. and two Ford Motor Co. plants.

Hourly workers walked off the job at Whitman & Barnes in Plymouth Township on Monday, Oct. 2 after the three-year contract expired.

Negotiations have been carried on intermittently. Monday afternoon, while a negotiation meeting was going on, pickets were called off. Office workers have been on the job.

Woodrow Tichey, general manager of Whitman & Barnes, said that around 270 workers are on strike. Outside of a one-week work stoppage six years ago, this is the first strike in the 111-year history of the Whitman &

Barnes organization, he said. He added that he had "no comment" on progress of settling on a new three-year contract.

Down the road another half mile just across the Livonia border, workers at the Hydromotion plant, a rather newcomer to the area, are also on strike. This plant is located next door to the Chev-

OFFICE WORKERS WERE STOPPED FOR A while, then later were admitted, by picket lines in front of Ford Motor plants on Plymouth Rd. At various times, six different plants on Plymouth Rd. in Livonia and Plymouth had pickets marching outside last week. But the end to "Strike Season" seems to be close at hand.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles Eugene Kramer

Couple Wed in Ceremony At Grandmother's Home

Amid the scenic splendor of the Aitkin, Minn., farm home originally built by his great grandfather, Charles Eugene Kramer took Marilyn Lee Goodhand as his bride in an afternoon wedding ceremony conducted by Rev. Richard Walvatny, Sept. 3.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Brenton Goodhand, 9080 Morrison, wore a white nylon organza waltz-length gown with a short off-white brocade jacket. Her shoulder-length veil of silk tulle was secured with a white brocade headpiece. The bridal bouquet was composed of white roses with white velvet streamers to which were attached sprays of stephanotis. The only jewelry she wore was a gold cross on a chain, a gift from the groom.

Flower girl was Debbie Johnson, a cousin of the groom. Robert Goodhand, brother of the bride was ring bearer and carried the rings on an open Bible. The groom's ring was presented to him following the ceremony. Another cousin of the groom, Alvin Loeschner, seated the guests. For her daughter's wedding the mother of the bride chose a wine colored dress with matching accessories and wore a corsage of white roses. The groom's mother, Mrs. Charlotte M. Kramer, wore an aqua and orchid print dress with matching accessories and her corsage was of pink and white roses.

The reception immediately following was also held at Mrs. Johnson's home, grandmother of the groom. The 60 guests attending came from Plymouth, Ypsilanti, Trenton, Sawyer, Livonia, Aitkin, Duluth, Minneapolis, Grand Forks, N. D., and Superior, Wisc.

The new Mrs. Kramer attended Eastern Michigan University and her husband attended Henderson College in Arkansas and Eastern.

They are currently attending Brainerd College in Minnesota. For the present they will make their home in Aitkin.

Rocks Add Belleville To Win Pile, 6-0

JVs Beat A. Park After First Loss

Plymouth's junior varsity posted its second win of the season last week, 6-0, over Allen Park, after losing a week earlier to North Farmington, 31-0.

"We were just outplayed," Coach Brian Boring said of the Farmington game.

At Allen Park the Rocks scored a touchdown at the beginning of the last period, when halfback Dave Agnew went ten yards over tackle to score.

Allen Park penetrated as far as the Plymouth five-yard line with a first down and goal to go, but Plymouth recovered a fumble on the next play to stop the Packers' big threat.

Halfback Terry Clark walked off with the JV's longest gain, a 35-yard run off tackle that helped move the ball into scoring position late in the third quarter.

The Rocks gained 11 first downs to Allen Park's eight. The key statistic was fumbles, however. The Rocks lost one fumble, while Allen Park lost four of theirs.

Early Touchdown Enough For PHS

Plymouth today looks forward to a key game with Bentley High School this Friday after making six points standup for a 6-0 win over Belleville last Friday.

The game at 8 p.m. Friday at Bentley will find the Rocks on the "road" for the first time in four weeks. In addition, Bentley will have the additional incentive of playing before its Homecoming Game crowd.

Against Belleville, the Rock's got an early break and went in to score the game's only touchdown early in the first period. With Belleville's Cabana back to kick on fourth down from his own 44, a low, wobbly pass from center went awry and when the play ended, Plymouth had a first down on the Belleville 34 yard line.

Plymouth mixed six running plays among halfbacks Hugh Sarah, Brian Gilles and fullback Mike Kisabeth to move the ball to the Tiger three yard line. Co-Captain Jim Dart then leaped over right tackle to score. Tackle Jim Gavigan's strong kick was wide and Plymouth led 6-0.

Penalties hurt Plymouth in the second period and nullified some good runs. Halfback Jim Dart looked especially good offensively during this period.

With 3:58 left in the half, Plymouth mounted an offensive of 14 plays that carried down to the Belleville four yard line as the clock ran out. It was a well sustained drive and featured a 23 yard run by Dart, one for 18 yards by Sarah and a fourth down pass from quarterback Dick Schryer to Dart that was good for the first down.

Mike Kisabeth stepped 14 yards with a swing pass that moved the ball to the Belleville 14 yard line.

In the third period neither team was able to get going as each side was forced to punt three times. When the final period started, Plymouth had just suffered a 15 yard penalty and had a first down and 25 on their own 15. Halfback Jim Dart got five yards over right tackle to move the ball to the 20. A play later Dart fumbled on the 21 and it was covered by Belleville.

The Tigers pounced on the situation two plays later when quarterback Cabana ran through three tacklers to the Plymouth 5 yard line and a first down. He gained 18 yards.

At this point the Plymouth defense stiffened. Cabana gained two yards up the middle to the Rock three. He tried it again and got another yard to the two yard line, making it 3rd down and two. On the next play Cabana tried to move over left tackle and a whole wall of Plymouth tacklers met his charge. He was hit by tackle Jim Gavigan, Dale Houk and guard Jim Ayers. He fumbled and tackle Rick Sweet, slicing in from the other side recovered for Plymouth.

For Belleville, it was the end of the game.

Plymouth moved out to its own 48 in 10 plays, mostly on snakes by quarterback Schryer and a couple of nine yard runs by Sarah.

Belleville got another chance, but could only move as far as its own 44. When the game was over, Plymouth was still tied for first in the Suburban Six league.

Friday they face Bentley, an early season favorite to win the title. The Bulldogs have finally won a game, nipping Allen Park 21-20 last Friday. And chances are good that the Bulldogs will be fired up for their Homecoming game with Plymouth this Friday.

Time to get that television tube back into working order. Surprisingly enough, the new TV season shows some pictorial promise of having a few bright spots. The horses' hooves are drumming a fainter tattoo, the six-guns only crackle and pop rather than roar, and the Indians with their war whoops have gone the way of all TV flesh—back to the reservation. Or have I only been dreaming all this?

Channel 2—WJBK—still retains some top CBS news shows, Garry Moore's Tuesday night variety show, Jack Benny's comic quips, an occasional Victor Borge Special and let's not forget good old "Gunsmoke" on Saturday nights. Channel 4—WWJ—has Danah Shore telling us on Friday night to drink a milk that we've purchased with green stamps (Sponsors: National Dairy Council and S & H Stamps) ... 10 years of selling GM cars will have all of her viewers expecting her to say "See the U.S.A. in your Jersey o-moblie (instead of the kiss she threatens to "MOO.") NBC retains the old favorite "Wagon Train" on Wednesdays; Perry Como ... the world's best paid cheese salesman on Wednesday slicing it in the same old way; and "The Bell Telephone Hour" returns with its safe and sure formula of something musical for everyone (Fridays at 9:30).

Channel 7—WKYC—starts another 39 weeks of the Play of the Week on this coming Saturday evening at 11:15 p.m. For real adult entertainment be sure to stay up for these shows. Better yet, invite some folks over for a late viewing party. Latter Sets Record; Runners Push Streak

Byron Latter set a new course record for the two-mile Plymouth Riverside cross country trek, and Coach John Sandmann's runners raced to two more victories last week.

The Rock runners shut out Northville, 15-47, Thursday and then beat Belleville 17-43 on Friday to lift their season mark to a perfect 4-0.

Latter recorded a new best of 10:50 for the Plymouth Riverside Course a gain at Northville on Thursday. The previous mark was 10:58, set by Tony Monte in 1957. "Call it a long two miles," Coach Sandmann said of the record, "because the course is actually over two miles long." Two miles is the official distance for cross country courses.

Following Latter to the wire against Northville were: second, Tony Hunt, (11:08); third, Jim Griffith, (11:36); fourth, Bob Winterhalter, (11:49); fifth, Ward Griffith, (11:55); seventh, Park, (12:37) and ninth, Dick Michaels, (12:50).

At Belleville, Latter was again first, this time with an 11:40, while Jim Griffith was second at 11:44. Tony Hunt was third, only a second back of Griffith with 11:45. Ward Griffith was fifth in 12:04, Dennis Knapp was sixth at 12:10, Bob Winterhalter seventh in 12:16 and Park 11th with a 12:47.

Only the first five finishers are totaled in the team scoring. A big meet looms this Friday for the Rocks, when they entertain Bentley at 4 p.m. at Plymouth Riverside. Bentley is the defending Suburban Six League champion.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor, I have been very much interested in the recent letters printed in our neighboring newspapers concerning the expenditure of money contributed to the various fund raising agencies. I can speak in a very personal way for an agency that is well known in all communities, and which gives its help to any who are in need — The March of Dimes.

In 1952, when the polio incidence was so great in this area, we were faced with the frightening experience of having a child stricken with both bulbar and spinal polio! Not only did the National Foundation offer us financial aid, but they also gave us sympathetic understanding and encouragement!

Their research program has resulted in the Salk vaccine and improved hospital care for patients of many diseases; their new research program is concerned with virus diseases and birth defects, and promises wonderful benefits for the future!

Several young people in Plymouth and Livonia have known first hand how the National Foundation actually pays the bills; approximately $20,000 has been spent in this area on current cases — those for whom they are still paying. This is in addition to the thousands of dollars already spent in both of these communities on cases no longer needing care.

I, too, like to "know where my money goes" — and I can tell you from personal experience, where some of your money has gone in this community!

SPORTSEEN

By Bill Nelson

This 1961 Plymouth football team is beginning to tug at the fan's heart a little bit. Beaten in the opener 19-0 at Northville, they have rebounded to win three in a row at home.

While Farmington was no great test, Plymouth won that one 26-7 and then went on to beat a tough Allen Park team 12-6 in the Plymouth Homecoming game.

Last Friday the Rocks scored six points in the first period and made them stand up, while they shut out Belleville 6-0.

"Satisfied," Coach Mike Hoben said of himself after last Friday's game. "I guess you can't count them, if you don't score them, but it seemed to me penalties stopped us a couple of times and on another occasion we were on the four yard line when the half ended."

"The kids had to have the game, and they got it," he added.

This Friday there is another game Plymouth must have. Bentley probably is a much tougher team than its 1-3 record indicates.

They were beaten by only one point in their opening game, and two weeks ago lost 19-0 to a potent offense, namely Redford Union — the perennial league dormat, but 1961's surprise team.

Last week, Bentley edged Allen Park 21-20. Allen Park is one of the strongest teams in the league, having given Plymouth a good battle only a week before.

The Bulldogs have a veteran line, anchored by center Boris Dimitroff, probably the best line-backer in the league. Their offense has been slow to get going, but with the incentive of Homecoming, they could be provoked enough to give Plymouth a rugged time.

But Plymouth could look at two performances in a row, which the coach called "team effort" and take some satisfaction from them.

In addition, Co-captain Jim Dart and end Dan Stremick played excellent games defensively for the Rocks again last week.

The line put on a nifty 4th period goal line stand that you don't see in every high school game. They ultimately held on the two yard line, recovering a Belleville fumble to get going again.

"We seem to be rolling along a little now," Hoben said, "but we'll still take them one at a time. In this league anyone can beat anyone else this year." At Bentley High School on Five Mile Road between Farmington and Middlebelt Roads Friday evening, there'll be another one.

Coach John Sandmann's runners, who last season placed second to Bentley in the Suburban Six League with a 4-1 record, are off to quick start this season.

To date the runners have won four and lost none. They meet defending champions Bentley this Friday at 4 p.m. at Plymouth Riverside.

Byron Latter, the Rock's pacesetter, will be out to break his own record of 10:50, set only last week. Latter's mark is a little better than one might think, because the Plymouth course is a long two mile course, measuring enough over two miles to make a difference in the time.

Jean's Jottings

JEAN CAMPAU, WOMEN'S EDITOR

The universe puts on a new face when a young lady turns 12. Suddenly this age of a dozen years becomes the pathway where the 'tween-ager begins to fully comprehend the adult world around her.

For the parents of the emerging child-woman, the advent of the 12th birthday becomes an experience fraught with misting eyes, lump in the throat, suppressed humor and heartfelt tenderness.

Pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey and drop-the-clothespins-in-the-bottle parties become a thing of the past. Soft curls, pert and frilly organdy dresses with stiff picture-perfect bows in back give way to the new look of the frothy bubble hair-do, sleek straight skirts and sweater and nylons.

To celebrate this grand occasion, our charmer requested dinner out for the family and her special friend. When father ordered shrimp cocktails, the meal took on a note of elegance. And watching the girls tackle the entree, pausing to examine and admire the dainty cocktail fork, question the use of the lemon wedge and realistically noting that the large container didn't hold many shrimp, dredged up long-forgotten memories for spouse and me of our 'firsts.'

One could wax philosophic over these embryonic adults if time stood still, but it doesn't and they don't either.

The span of changes that occur in a single week leaves me with head spinning.

Dolls, doll clothes, dishes and such have been set aside or given away and in their stead comes a pre-occupation with the world and its wonders. And though there is a galaxy of moods (which mother can never anticipate) ranging from fury to sweetness, apathy to interest and inertia to activity, our somewhat tarnished world takes on new lustre when seen through the innocent and inquiring eyes of the changling that is the 12-year-old.

It was a thrill by osmosis for Mrs. Dorothy Smith when she took her teen-age daughter, Janellen, and her chums, Cynthia McLaren, Sally Wilson and Susan Hayskar to see Nancy Ann Fleming, the 1961 Miss America, Friday evening in Ann Arbor.

Nancy Ann, appearing at the Magic Needles Style Show, encouraged all girls to sew, to be individuals, and to wear what is becoming to them rather than reflect the latest fad, Lemming fashion.

The lovely Miss Fleming, now enrolled at Michigan State, stressed the rewards and satisfactions inherent in a career in home economics and stated that the home economist today is the third highest paid profession in the United States, exceeded only by women doctors and lawyers.

For the four Plymouth Misses, the highlight of the evening came when the 1961 American Beauty, within touching distance, gave them her autograph.

All the way from 'tweens to teens' the flowering female is a delight to behold.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

Regina Teevin, President of District 4, visited our last meeting as inspecting officer and commended our Auxiliary on the fine work they are doing.

Community Service chairman, Rosemary Kooiman has scheduled a Shoppers Show to be held after our next meeting. This will be a good way to get a head start on your Christmas shopping. Guests are welcome.

Senior Citizens chairman, Jennie Tallmadge and several other members visited the West Trail Nursing Home Oct. 4, and served refreshments. She also gave them a lovely bouquet of flowers. Get well wishes are extended to Maria Terry.

Membership chairman, Lucille Johnson announced that the proceeds of the jewelry auction will go toward the drawing to be held the first meeting in January. All those with paid up dues Dec. 30 are eligible. October has been designated as Membership Month. At the National Convention it was announced that the new membership total is 328,846 which is an increase over the previous year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Taylor

Fall Nuptials Spoken At Double Ring Ceremony

Marjorie Lee Reddeman and William J. Taylor exchanged wedding vows at an 11 a.m. ceremony on September 9 in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church. Father Francis C. Byrne presided at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a white lace over satin street length sheath gown. A back panel of silk organza flared from the waistline. A lace jacket with long pointed sleeves covered the short sleeves and rounded neckline of the dress. A small headdress of organza roses held her shoulder length illusion veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses, mums and Stephanotis.

Maid of honor, Miss Judy Lembke of Cadillac, wore a sheath gown of dark green lace over satin, fashioned after the dress of the bride. A dark green organza bow accented the back waistline. The headpiece consisted of dark green organza roses and a small veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze fugi mums. The bridesmaid, Miss Lois Packard of Plymouth, wore a gown identical to that of the maid of honor.

The best man was Gordon Kisabeth of Plymouth, and ushers were Dennis Bonnette, Dale Houghton, and Ernest Reddeman, brother of the bride, all of Plymouth. Mrs. Reddeman chose a dark brown lace sheath dress with brown and beige accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Taylor, the groom's mother, chose an aqua chiffon dress with white and navy accessories. Both had corsages of bronze mums.

A luncheon reception, served by Mr. and Mrs. Luke McGeorge, was held at Wildwood Hall following the ceremony. The couple had a brief honeymoon in Michigan's Upper Peninsula and are now residing in Plymouth.

The new Mrs. Taylor is a 1958 graduate of Plymouth High School and attended Michigan State University. Mr. Taylor is a 1956 graduate of Plymouth High and a 1961 graduate of the University of Detroit.

American Hospital Sales Conference Held Here
 American Hospital-Medical Benefit and American Community Mutual Insurance Co. of 409 Plymouth Roads held a successful annual sales conference here last week (Oct. 3) at the Mayflower Hotel for 50 representatives from all parts of Michigan.
 Charles A. Engstrom of 1381 Elm Street, American vice-president, was in charge of the sessions.

William Harding to Head Both Junior Highs on Interim Basis

Junior High Principal William Harding will become principal of the West Junior High School until the new school at Sheldon and N. Territorial Roads is completed in 1964.
 The decision came at a Board of Education meeting Monday night following the recommendation of Supt. Russell Isbister that Harding head the schools, with the help of two assistants until the West Junior High is ready next fall but will be occupied only by seventh grade students. Only half of the ultimate building will be completed by next fall and work will start immediately on the second unit. When the second unit is finished in 1964, both junior highs will share the seventh, eighth and ninth grade classes.
 (All ninth graders will be at the Junior High next fall. During the past three years, ninth graders have been split between the High School and Junior High because there was not space in either school to handle the full class.)
 The superintendent's recommendation declared that in effect, the West Junior High will become an "annex" to the present junior high until it is finished in 1964. Having one person responsible for both buildings "will effect an orderly transition of personnel, equipment and instructional materials back and forth between these two buildings during this interim period," the superintendent said.
 It was recommended that an assistant principalship be created for each school. When the transition period is completed in 1964, each school will have a principal and an assistant principal.

Plymouth High School

By Janet Graham

A student telephone directory is one of the major projects under consideration by Mayor Jim Kropf's Student Council. Final plans will be presented at the next Council meeting (that's third hour, Oct. 17), and, if approved, the Projects Committee will start the job of compiling all the names, addresses, and phone numbers of 1,266 students.

Suggestion boxes will soon be set up in both the main cafeteria and annex lunchroom for the convenience of those students who have ideas for the Council but have slight contact with their representatives.

And now under construction is a sign to be placed by the stone walls facing Main St.: "This is Plymouth High School, home of the 1961 Class A State swimming champs!"

While the seniors have been selling Christmas cards (as of press time Rick Alford's team had sold the most cards), the Class of '63 hasn't been loafing. Junior Treasurer Eileen Ash collected class dues all last week at the middle table in the main auditorium from 7:30 to 8:55 in the morning.

Circle Dec. 16 on your calendar—that's the date for the J-Hop. Bruce Hudson and Kathi Holt are co-chairmen for the event. A "theme box" was in the library for over a week, and last Thursday the executive board decided to use a "Times Square" theme for all the decorations.

Assembly chairman Mary Hulsing ('62) has said that her committee (Clint Blood ('64), Sue Illy ('65), Sue Cooper ('64), John Harder ('65), Art G ulick ('63), Doug James ('63) and Rick Alford ('62)) has big plans for a junior-senior assembly—but won't give any details.

Seniors who hope to enter an engineering school next year may be eligible to apply for a Hertz Engineering Scholarship. See Mr. Robert Smith for an application. And the Engineering Society of Detroit is sponsoring a vocational guidance conference on Wednesday, Nov. 8 for these same interested seniors.

Any student interested in pharmacy as a career should plan to attend Pharmacy Day at the University of Michigan on Saturday, Oct. 28.

Seniors planning to attend Michigan State University and interested in art, music, writing or dramatics, may be eligible to compete for a creative arts scholarship, and should have had the application in the Guidance Office by last Monday.

Tryouts for "You Can't Take It With You" took place last Friday and Mr. Robert Southgate announced the cast on Monday.

Congratulations to Mary Hulsing and Mary Park —by scoring in the top 1 percent of all students who took the NMSQT (National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test) last spring, they are now semi-finalists.

Several members of the Pilgrim Prints staff are planning to go to a Detroit News Press Conference on Oct. 27 to interview Abigail Van Buren of "Dear Abby" fame.

Odds and Ends: Next week is National Newspaper Week—Miss Gertrude Fiegel's International Relations class is planning ways to observe UN Week—among the plans is a dinner on UN Day, Oct. 24 (more about this next week). Eric Morgeson is collecting sophomore class dues—freshmen pay their dues to Randy Pentecost—the Teen Store is preparing for its Grand Opening and the game this week is away at Bentley.

Two Attend Convention

Two residents of Plymouth were among the representatives of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company scheduled to attend the annual business meeting and luncheon of the company's Veterans Assn. at the Hillcrest Country Club, Mount Clemens, Michigan, on Thursday, Oct. 5. They are: Tage R. Gulbrandsen, of 324 Irvin Street, from the Livonia office, and Harold E. Paulger, of 15119 Northville Road, inactive, from the Motor City office, Detroit.

Membership in the association is made up of persons employed by the company for at least 20 years. Altogether, over 250 members from district offices in Greater Detroit were expected to be present.

Many Gold Star Ranges feature the new, automatic meat thermometers—a tremendous boon for cooking roasts to a mouth-watering treat. They not only let you set the dial to cook the meat to the exact degree of doneness you prefer (rare, medium, well-done or in-between) but automatically shut the oven off when the exact degree is reached.

The Gold Star on a Gas range means the range has met at least 30 high-quality standards governing performance, construction and design.

Shockless Gas heating seals in wonderful flame-kissed flavors for mouth-watering treat.

Clock controls allow you to set oven to turn on and off automatically.

Built-in, motorized, removable Rotisserie turns roasts for other baking or broiling.

Low-temperature oven control keeps food ready-to-serve without continued cooking.

In solo recital he has appeared twice in New York's Town Hall and many times in important musical centers such as Chicago, Philadelphia, Washington, D. C., and Detroit.

Wayne Dunlap and the Plymouth Symphony orchestra will accompany Mr. Olefsky in the presentation of Tchaikovsky's "Variations on a Rocooco Theme" — delicate, 18th century music in the style of Mozart — well chosen to show Olefsky's great talent. The theme first appears by the solo cello after a sixteen bar orchestral preface. Seven variations of this theme follow separated by orchestral interludes.

In addition, the conductor has selected the balance of the program to cover a wide range of musical interest. By the same token, those living outside of Plymouth who work here are expected to give their donation to the United Foundation. Last year a goal of $37,053 was set, but the community responded with pledges and donations of $45,283. During the past year, the Community Fund Board of Directors has allocated the "surplus" amount to some of the agencies whose requests were pared last year because of economic conditions.

THRILL OF A LIFETIME came to Plymouth five-year-old "Chris" Salvador, son of Mr. and Mrs. Silvano Salvador, 46207 Five Mile, when he had a "sneak preview" of a giant 707 jet airliner at nearby Metropolitan Airport. The huge jet is one of the score of aircraft that will be on display and open to the public next Saturday. The massive open house will take place during the American Air Defense Command's "Operation Sky Shield" when between the hours of noon and midnight no aircraft of any type will be in the air except the military. Pictured above giving young Chris a firsthand "check-out" on the workings of a 707 is American Airlines jet pilot, First Officer Ted Leeder.

THE MAIL ATTITUDE

By Paul Chandler

It's a balmy Indian Summer day, just right for letting the thoughts wander to simple things.

To football, for instance — As is well known, there are many readers who count on advice from this column before they will do any wagering. Once we have made out prediction, they will go out and bet — the opposite way. Records maintained over the years show that percentages strongly favor such a course of action.

The Detroit Lions are not a good football team this year. They will win few more games and they are not in title contention.

This was clear, to those of discerning eye, even when they were defeating the Green Bay Packers and the Baltimore Colts in the first two games. The Lions won, but they did it with mirrors and enough good breaks to last a season.

Several things basic to the game are wrong with the Lions. First and foremost, they have a routine, wooden, unimaginative offense. It is not a resourceful or opportunistic team. This traces back to the coaching, and it is our opinion there will be a new coach leading this team next season, if not before. They lack speed in their offensive backfield. They also suffer from a shortage of halfbacks who are willing to block for their fellow man. When a football team's halfbacks possess neither fleetness of foot nor blocking zeal, it is in said shape.

We haven't the time to thumb the record books, but I'm sure a casual study would show that the touchdown production of the Detroit Lions over the past two years averages out to about the lowest per-game-average in the league. In four games this year, the net yield from scrimmage is four touchdowns, one a game.

The offense is so bad, in fact, that the team brings back to this mind the old "Punt, Pass and Pray" elevens of hallowed U. of M. days under Fielding Yost. Stout defense was the talent of those dear old Wolverines, as it is of the Lions.

Michigan used to punt on third down then. It might be good strategy for the Lions now. They have the best punter in football in Yale Lary.

Our money has gone where our mouth is, incidentally. After Detroit had squeaked past Green Bay and Baltimore, there was a great flush of enthusiasm among many of the patriots. In time this became annoying and we offered two bets that the Lions would lose their next four games — straight — at home. We didn't even ask odds. The offers were snapped up, of course.

Actually, we expected the Lions only to lose three of the four, but even that would have been sufficient to show a profit. Now, with two in the bag and two to go, we're hopeful of sweeping the whole four. This week's opponent, Los Angeles, isn't much either, however, and Detroit probably ranks as the favorite. Still, you can't win without touchdowns.

On the college scene, this year's Michigan team is a "sleeper", possibly one of the toughest collegiate teams in the land.

The secret there is a magnificent line, both offensively and defensively. It is almost big enough to resemble a pro line, and has unbelievable quickness along with it.

We expect Michigan to drub Michigan State Saturday, decisively.

Claims School Pay Inequities

Tricks produced by the calendar have led to a protest by Plymouth school maintenance workers who claimed Monday night that they have been underpaid during the past 10 years when they have been paid on a bi-weekly basis.

Robert Ross, representative of the Boiler Operators and Maintenance Union, appeared before the Board to make the claim.

Ross countered that if an employee misses work for some reason, he is docked by the day, or week and that his pay would not go on even though the Board claims it pays on an annual basis.

Concerning the number of days, Niemi pointed out that equities have occurred.

It was first noted that maintenance men get paid every other week and there are 26 weeks in a year. When one multiplies 14 by 26, he comes up with 364 days. There are 365 days in the year, and during Leap Year there is one more. This leads to one and two days a year of inequity, Ross declared.

Maintenance men were also troubled by a charge made during the 1960-61 fiscal year which ended June 30. The school payroll department normally divides the annual pay by 26 but during the past fiscal year, the annual pay was divided by 27. Why?

School Board President Harold Niemi answered that "the school board pays its personnel on an annual basis, not monthly, weekly or otherwise." He added, "If you examine the records, they will indicate that those who were Outcome of the discussion was a decision to allow the union to hire a certified public accountant to go over payroll records and see if any in normally there are 26 pay periods a year if the men are to be paid every other week. But every nine years the calendar causes 27 pay periods. This happened during the past fiscal year and so the school auditor recommended that the total annual pay be divided into 27 parts instead of 26. In the final pay period of the fiscal year, Niemi said, adjustments are made so that the annual salary is met to the penny.

here the full year always received their annual rate of pay. If a classification called for $5,500, he got $5,500." The Board admitted, however, that because of last year's 27 pay periods, there may have been some personnel hired during the year who may have not been paid his annual pro-rated annual salary. There were three believed in this category.

SHORT HISTORY OF THE CAR BUSINESS

It is generally accepted by the public that the profit on retail food sales is low—and it is. I recently read on a chain store claim intended to impress the public with this fact state that their average was 2 percent of sales.

Well, the national averages for automobile dealers' profits for 1960 were recently released and dealer pre-tax profit in all departments for the year was 0.5 percent of sales. Obviously, the average car dealers' percentage of profit on sales is only 25 percent of the food chain figures! This comes out to $22 per new car and is the second lowest since 1949 when national records were first compiled.

Here are the records over the last ten years:

1951	4.9 percent
1952	3.6 percent
1953	2.2 percent
1954	0.6 percent
1955	1.7 percent
1956	0.8 percent
1957	0.7 percent
1958	0.2 percent
1959	1.4 percent
1960	0.5 percent

Of the total, 21.9 percent of dealers operated at a loss with no profit whatsoever last year and bankruptcies were up 43 percent. These simple facts are reported here only to dispel the idea that dealers may be making unwarranted profits at the expense of the public.

There is, we believe, a further meaning for the car buying public in these figures. It is that dealers caught in this price squeeze are naturally looking for ways to cut expenses. Some may try reducing the extent (and hence the expense) with which they are prepared to stand behind their product.

While no business can long survive without a profit, it is also abundantly clear that a business cannot survive by shortchanging the public on its obligations in order to reduce operating expenses. Wiedman's will continue to sell cars to the public at the lowest possible price consistent with fair and reputable dealing and dependable service.

Population in Canton Twp. Increased by Two Arrivals

By Esther Sprengel
 GL 3-0194

With everything back to normal with the advent of fall, our clubs and group organizations are again getting into the swing. Such a group is the "Spoon and Spoon" group of the 4-H. The young ladies, under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Bosman and Mrs. Howard Moyer, will hold their first meeting of the season on Saturday, Oct. 7. Once again the girls will work on food and clothing projects.

It seems that our township is going to the dogs (just kidding, Mr. Gee, don't worry about it). The other evening, Mrs. Asher of Ford Rd. called to see if we knew the owner of a brown shepherd-type dog, who not only moved in on their property, but two weeks ago made it the home for her seven puppies. Mrs. Asher described the mother as a very nice dog, not too friendly at this time, and felt perhaps the dog was familiar with the south portion of Beck Rd., as she seemed to go in that direction whenever leaving her puppies. The Ashers have been most considerate hosts to the mother and babies, but would either like to find the owner or a home for the family.

It might be called a month of celebrations for Mr. and Mrs. Russell Palmer of Beck Rd. (Jo and Russ). On Sept. 25, Mr. Palmer celebrated his birthday, and on Sept. 27 Russ and Jo celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary (though it's a little late, we would like to add our congratulations and a wish of many more such celebrations).

Not to be left out, Mr. and Mrs. William Sprengel (Bill and Esther) celebrated their 14th wedding anniversary quietly at home with their four children on Oct. 4.

A call to Township Fire Chief Fred Korte Jr. finds all well and comparatively quiet as far as the department is concerned.

Chief Korte said that the Department is averaging about three fires per month, which is considered a good record for this time of the year.

We are reminded, however, that the Department will take an active part in Fire Prevention Week, starting Oct. 9, at which time visits will be made to our surrounding schools, briefing the children on fire prevention measures.

On Oct. 25, Chief Korte will be the guest of the Sheldon School PTA. He will present the film entitled "Our Obligation." The film will show actual pictures taken at the school fire that has been so publicized in Chicago. It will be informative in explaining the spreading of fire, heat and gases causing same.

While all is quite quiet in the department as a whole, two families of the voluntary firemen have had anything but quiet. Mr. and Mrs. John Collins of Canton Center are proud to announce the birth of a baby daughter, to be called Judith Eileen. Judith was born on Sept. 30, weighing 7 lbs., 1/2 oz. at Ridgewood Hospital. Mother and daughter are both home and Judith is thriving on the attention being paid her by her two sisters, Janet and Jayne. As a side note, you might notice that the Collins family all boast the first initial of "J," father John, Mother, Janet, Jayne and Judith.

The Homer Benoit family has just returned from a last-of-the-season weekend vacation. The family group, including Mom, Dad, Robert and Ginny, enjoyed a long weekend (Thursday evening until Sunday night) fishing at Cedarville. Mrs. Benoit said it was the time for the "Perch Run," and although they brought home some of the trophies, she felt that they, as a whole, must have run somewhere else.

The Benois, by the way, have become the foster home for one of our mentioned column puppies and the orphan now bears the name of Terry.

The room mothers of the Gallimore School met on Thursday, Oct. 5, to line up their duties for the year and to plan the one party to be given exclusively by the room mothers, the Halloween party. The menu will be donuts and punch.

Room Mother Chairman Mrs. Frederick Steiner was pleased at the good turnout, and told the mothers present that although all the mothers had room mother and were unable to attend the different functions, they had stated that they would be glad to help if called upon. Mrs. Steiner urged the group to not take on the task alone, but to contact the other mothers and give them the chance to serve.

All parents of Gallimore have by now been given a schedule of the school's planned activities for the year.

Volunteer workers for the United Foundation of Canton Township's area No. 1, which includes the west side of Canton Center Rd., the north side of Cherry Hill Rd., the east side of Napier Rd., the south side of Joy Rd. and all area within these boundaries are as follows: Mrs. Roger Bordine of Saltz Rd., Mrs. Richard Higgs of Beck Rd., Mrs. Wesley Kaiser of Saltz Rd., Mrs. Dave Miller of Saltz Rd., Mrs. Howard Moyer of Hanford Rd., Mrs. Richard Palmer of Warren Rd., Mrs. Arthur Rocco of Napier Rd., Mrs. James Spigarelli of Beck Rd., Mrs. Lawrence Longwish of Canton Center Rd. and Mrs. J. D. Sullivan of Canton Center Rd.

These ladies will be out to visit you on Oct. 17. If they do not find you home, they will try to make call-backs or contact you by phone.

Another of the volunteer firemen's families boasting a new addition to their family is Mr. and Mrs. Vern Rorabacher of Lilley Rd. Mrs. Rorabacher gave birth to a 7 lb., 2 oz. son on Oct. 5 at the University Hospital. The young man, as yet has not been formally named. His arrival home is being looked forward to by brother Mike, and sister June. Dad reports Mom and new brother are doing fine.

The other evening we received a phone call from Mr. Roger Bordine of Saltz Rd. The conversation started off with, "Now that you said you are for a Community College, will you put my opinion in?" Being a very democratic person (and having no other way out) I said, "Sure." Mr. Bordine (Roger) said, "I'm not for a Community College," and he gave a good argument for his side of the question. Being a farmer and owning property in the Township, he states that although the said tax will be one mill, the farmers, who are the minority, at this time cannot stand the increased tax on their vacant land. He further felt that there had not been enough evidence presented to prove a definite need for such an institution in this area, due to the fact "We are surrounded with good colleges." The answer I gave was a sympathetic one to the farmer who definitely does have an argument, but as for the need, the increase of college students to soon graduate from our high schools will more than fill the vacant seats at our nearby institutions, and if it is college we want for our young people, we will now have to come up with an answer to the forthcoming need.

Just in case anyone out there is interested, for the next four weeks I shall have to be contacted before noon, or at 3:30 p.m. We always welcome news items and questions about our column.

Residents Lead Music For Opera

Two Plymouth men will play vital roles in the Michigan Opera Company of Detroit's production of "Il Trovatore" that opens Oct. 19 at the Art Institute Auditorium.

The opera will be under the musical direction of Dr. Henry Kolbe, a resident of Plymouth, who is instructor in the Detroit Institute of Musical Art. He will be assisted by William J. Grimmer, Junior High School choral music director.

The second performance will be Oct. 21 in the same auditorium. The opera, sung in Italian, will be narrated in English with brief explanation of its sequences before the opening of each act by Henry Maday.

Kai Rasmussen, president of the Michigan Opera Company, has announced alternate leads in certain of the principal roles as follows:

Leonora, Arelie Serkaian; Terterian and Jane Kretsch; Azucena, Barbara Friedericks and Nora Conklin Skitch; Count di Luna, Fernando Reyes Manrico, William LeBlanc; Ferrando, Aureliano Ugolini; and Ruiz, John LeFevre.

Tickets are available from Grinnell Brothers in Detroit and range in price from $4.50 to $2.50.

Men In Service

R. G. Aldrich
LACKLAND AFB, Tex. — Airman R. G. Aldrich, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Aldrich, 14657 Robinwood, Plymouth, has completed his initial course of Air Force Basic military training here. He has been selected to attend the technical training course for Radio and Radar Maintenance Specialist, Keesler AFB, Miss.

Airman Aldrich is a graduate of Plymouth High School. Basic airmen at Lackland are selected for specialized training at technical schools on the basis of their interests and aptitudes. They are re-assigned to the school after five weeks of basic training. At the technical schools they are given additional military training along with the technical instructions.

Upon completion of special technical training at an Air Force Technical Training Center, airmen are assigned to operational units of the USAF Aerospace Force.

NATO troops from Great Britain, France, Germany and Belgium were involved in the exercise, which was designed to test joint combat operation procedures.

Betty Johnston

Dance Pro Goes to School Herself to Keep in Step

By Jean Campau

Whether it's one-two, cha, cha, cha, or the grace of the tute jete that appeals to your rhythmic feet, proper instruction can be found at the Betty Johnston Dance Studio of Farmington.

Mrs. Johnston has been teaching youngsters and adults 'la danse' in Farmington and Redford over the past 11 years and has recently opened a new studio here in the Smith Music Store at 504 S. Main.

Some of her students have gone on to dancing careers on stage and television.

One Southfield pupil is now with the Frank Parker Review and has danced her way from coast to coast. Another alumna appears at Bing Crosby's Ranch Inn at Elko, Nev.

A professional dancer herself, Mrs. Johnston asserts that dancing is constantly changing and in order to keep abreast she goes to New York and Chicago annually to learn the latest.

"In the last few years," says Mrs. Johnston, illustrating her point, "tap dancing alone has undergone a tremendous change. It is no longer 'beating the boards,' but has now become a highly stylized art."

The sharp increase of interest and study across the country substantiates her statement.

A member of the National Association of Dance and Affiliated Artists, the nimble-footed lady is a teacher's teacher as well.

In the Plymouth studio she is assisted by Sue Ghent, a professional dancer emanating from New York.

Between them they teach the intricacies of tap, ballet, toe and modern jazz as well as teenage and adult ballroom dancing.

The "proof of the pudding" can be seen in the recitals Mrs. Johnston holds annually.

The last windmill of French steel craftsmen at Tsubame, Niigata-Ken, have turned from the making of flatware to golf clubs now that the exporters have imposed a "voluntary" ceiling on the tableware that can be processed in the northern Japanese community. This is the result of American import restrictions on Japanese silverware.

Plymouth Roll Grows at Albion

Among the annual exodus of Plymouth youths to colleges and universities are Nancy Lee Houseman of 11369 Gold Arbor and Grace Caroline Kuhns, 47530 Ann Arbor Rd.

Both young ladies are enrolled as freshmen at Albion College this semester.

On the male side, three young men from Plymouth have recently been initiated into Albion fraternities. They are: David D. Rank, 396 Pacific, to Delta Tau Delta; Lon Richard Dickerson, 620 Simpson, Tau Kappa Epsilon; and David William Green, 595 Simpson, Tau Kappa Epsilon.

Moss growing, an industry 100 years old, has become an annual $480,000 business for central Wisconsin farmers. They raised 300,000 bales last year. The growers raise Spagnum moss, used principally in holding water to roots of plants, trees and shrubs in shipment.

Madonna College Building Fund Drive Progresses

Steady progress is being made in the Madonna College Building Fund Campaign which was proclaimed in the early part of September by Mayor William W. Brashear, of Livonia.

With the kick-off meeting, Saturday, Sept. 16, Madonna's students, parents of girls, Advisory Board members, alumnae, and friends have gone to canvass the local areas for donations. Areas covered are Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Garden City and Farmington.

Solicitors set out in teams to designated areas and approach residents and businessmen for personal gifts to the building fund.

Thomas Bosco, of Royal Oak, is general chairman and coordinator of the drive.

The African Gold Coast first became known through Portuguese navigators in the 14th century.

Cadillac

The word for it is... "Masterful!"

"Superb" . . . "luxurious" . . . "beautiful" . . . "brilliant"—there are many words that might be used to describe the new 1962 Cadillac car.

But if we were to select from the Cadillac vocabulary the one word that most completely captures the essence of this latest "car of cars"—we would choose "masterful".

For here is a motor car that has already established its mastery in everything that makes an automobile good and fine and desirable.

In appearance, it is clearly a Cadillac masterpiece—graceful, clean-lined and elegant.

In performance, it is a revelation. Its power plant is a reservoir of silken power—and the car rides and handles with an instinctive ease and sureness.

In safety, it is in a class of its own—with a host of exclusive features, including remarkable new side cornering lights.

In craftsmanship, it is simply without rival. Every 1962 Cadillac will undergo more than 1400 inspections to assure its quality and goodness.

On and on the list could go. But however lengthy, that list could never replace the experience of inspecting the car and driving it.

Your dealer will happily let you do both.

Once you have, you'll understand why the word has gone out so quickly that this is the finest motor car ever to bear the Cadillac name.

Too Late to Classify

By George Spelvin

last Thursday night as the American Association of University Women presented the first program in its "Listening Post" series.

By George Spelvin Walter Midener's delightful, informative and instructive lecture kept an audience of 270 "first-nighters" enthralled

The speaker, a widely known sculptor, is director of the Society of Arts and Crafts in Detroit. He has been represented in every Michigan Artists Show since 1946 and has displayed his work in other sections of the country.

Midener, surrounded by his many provocative works of art, greeted me most effusively. In a matter of minutes we were chatting in the comfortable manner of two old cronies.

"What do you think of our community with all its cultural opportunities?" I inquired.

"I like being honest," Midener said with a sparkle that kept his entire face quite animated, "and so I'll have to say that my trips out this way have been infrequent."

"Your work with the Art School of the Society of Arts and Crafts no doubt keeps you quite busy," I quickly added.

"Yes, and I am presently, in addition to being head of the sculpture department, acting director of the entire Art School. As soon as I get a little time to relax, I'm going to come out to your fine city and see what it looks like. I've heard so much about it. Coming out under the cover of darkness didn't give me much of a chance to see the beauty that people have told me exists in your community."

"One of these people that's been telling you about our town couldn't be Shirley Dennison, one of our local sculptors, could it?" I asked.

"Yes, it is," the widely known sculptor replied. "Mrs. Dennison is one of my pupils. Her work has great vitality and shows tremendous promise."

"What about abstract or non-objective sculpting, Mr. Midener?"

"Shaking his head, Midener expressed his disgust for such art even before he found words to frame his reply. "I believe working with the human form is the best way that I find to express myself."

"Ever tried other art forms, such as painting?"

"No. I leave the painting to my wife, Peggy," Midener explained. "She teaches at the school. Her specialty is working with watercolors and with the children's classes."

At the mention of children's classes, I seemed to sense that Mr. Midener would like to tell me about a special child that he had in mind. His own daughter, Wendy Paula, aged 7½, already has started to show signs of continuing the Midener tradition in the field of art.

"What about the future of the fine arts in the years to come? Do we face a danger of our scientific age emphasizing the mechanical, automated approach to the eventual elimination of the fine arts?"

"Never," Mr. Midener's German accent took on a sterner sound as he searched for the exact words to explain his determined stand. "I think that as a nation it has been fine for us to develop our scientific and technological resources, but we must remember that our cultural activities provide man with a fuller, more satisfying life. Art, music, any of the humanities where you can let your imagination soar, give man a genuine reason for existence. None of these are silly activities; rather they are a positive action of a mature nation."

From where I sit, a man who undervalues himself is bound to lose out in a lot of ways. But even worse is the man who undervalues other people. Chances are he's the kind of man who thinks only his own ideas are worth something—the kind of man who respects no opinion but his own. If he prefers tea, he's likely to object to your choice of coffee—or my choice of a glass of beer. Intolerance like this is no way to "reap" the rewards of good friendship.

THE BODY IN THE DRUGSTORE

"The detective story is a tale. The pleasure it affords is that of any narrative in which the ancient riddle of who is who unravels itself to an accompaniment of worldly wisdom. In the detective tale proper there is a double satisfaction answering a double curiosity — what can the solution be and how was the solution arrived at?"

So says scholar Jacques Barzun in his introduction to a fine new collection of detective stories called The Delights of Detection.

With millions of other people, from prime ministers to pickpockets, we have enjoyed mystery stories for years, without knowing, until Prof. Barzun cleared up the matter for us, just why we liked them.

We knew that paperback mysteries run heavily to the hard-boiled type, a type we have always regarded as inferior to the older style. At its best, we grant, the tough tale can be both entertaining and intelligent — Dashiell Hammett proved this 30 years ago when he invented the tough private eye in such novels as The Glass Key, The Maltese Falcon and The Thin Man (all Permapooks, 35 cents). But at its worst, which means usually, the hard-boiled mystery is simply a series of sex-and-fury incidents, signifying nothing.

We prefer the classic pattern, with the emphasis on the puzzle. Give us a whodunit set in a peaceful village where the solid citizens live tranquil lives interrupted now and then by the thud of another corpse and we are as contented as we were the day we discovered the Hardy boys.

Women, for some reason we wouldn't even attempt to discover, are better at this kind of skull-duggery than men.

Queen of the Mayhem is Agatha Christie. Her first novel, The Mysterious Affair at Styles, introduced Hercule Poirot using his little grey cells way back in 1921. Although the book must creak a little by now, it has just been reissued in paperback (Bantam, 35 cents), making no fewer than 27 Christies on sale at drugstore prices. Miss Christie's later efforts Cat Among the Pigeons, Hickory, Dickory Death, Murder with Mirrors (all Pocket Books, 35 cents) — show that she has lost none of her skill in misleading (fairly) the reader or in springing last chapter surprises. Nor have her durable sleuths, the vain little Belgian Poirot or the gentle spinster, Miss Marple, lost any of their powers; after cleansing the English countryside of a staggering number of clever killers over the past 40 years they are still going strong.

Josephine Tey, another Englishwoman, wrote only a half-dozen mystery novels in all but they are considered by connoisseurs as top-notch. Intriguing points of departure were her specialty: in The Daughter of Time Inspector Grant, laid up and unable to work, becomes fascinated with the question: was Richard the Third really the villain history makes him out or was he innocent? The result is a unique blend of scholarly research and detection. Among Miss Tey's books are: Miss Pym Disposes, A Shilling for Candles and Brat Farrar (Berkley Books, 35 cents each), all highly original puzzles.

Next time you look through the bloodstained paperbacks at your corner druggist's, keep your eye out for some of these mysteries in the classic mold. Remember, almost any night is a nice night for a murder.

Northville Staff Bone-Up on Food Made Available

On Monday, Oct. 2, Mr. Bailus Walker, Jr., Sanitarian, of the Division of Engineering and Sanitation, Wayne Co. Dept. of Health, conducted a three hour short course on food sanitation at the Northville State Hospital, 41001 Seven Mile Road, Northville. The entire Food Service Department of 115 plus representatives from several other hospital areas, were present. Basic bacteriology, food service preparation and storage, and personal hygiene were three topics covered in the presentation. Visual aids through film and charts added to the instruction. This is another effort on the part of Mr. A. A. Brewer, Director of Food Service at the Northville State Hospital, to provide his employees with the latest methods and developments in the field of environmental sanitation within a community arrangement.

When a caller rings your doorbell . . .

. . . you can talk to him by picking up the nearest phone

You can also answer room-to-room calls "hands free"

HOME INTERPHONE

For convenience: room to room communication
 For security: answer the door from any phone

Now you can use your telephones for talking inside your house as well as for calling outside! Home Interphone gives you new telephone convenience and security—and it's so simple a child can use it.

Here's what you can do with the new Home Interphone:

1. You can talk by phone from room to room. Just reach for the nearest extension phone, turn a button—and talk. Little speakers mounted near each phone carry your voice softly through the house. The person you call can answer "hands free" without lifting the receiver.

2. You can answer the door from any phone. A compact microphone-speaker by the door lets a visitor hear you and lets you hear him when you pick up your phone. You can even answer the door while telephoning.

3. You can transfer incoming calls to another telephone in the house. A special feature lets you "hold" incoming calls while you use the telephone to page another person inside or outside the house.

As many as five home phones can be connected in a Home Interphone system arranged to your individual needs. Your phones—wall, table, or the new popular Princess phone with the dial that glows softly at night—can be in a choice of attractive colors with matching speakers.

New, versatile Home Interphone makes your telephone service more useful to you than ever before. Let us show you what Home Interphone can do for your family and how little more this new service will cost.
