The First Gift Of Christmas

By Rev. Patrick Clifford
Calvary Baptist Church

"For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten son, that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life." John 3:16.

This gift given by God, the giver of every good and perfect gift, was a planned, purposeful and personal gift. A loving heavenly Father looked down through the ages and saw us in our need and planned to meet this need through the gift of His Son Jesus Christ, whose birthday we commemorate at the Christmas season.

THE PROPHETS OF OLD revealed His plan, Isaiah tells us of the manner of this birth, that a son was to be born of a virgin. "Therefore the Lord himself shall give you a sign: Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call His name Immanuel." Isa. 7:14.

Not only was the manner of this birth planned, but also the place of His birth was predicted. The Prophet Micah, seven hundred years before the coming of the Son of God, predicted the birth would take place in Bethlehem of Judea. "But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall He come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have been from of old, from everlasting." Micah 5:2. Such planning for the presenting of this gift would indicate that the gift was purposeful. The great purpose is stated in John 3:16, that through this gift we can have everlasting life. In the gift of everlasting life we find there are many necessary gifts for our great need.

ONE OF THESE IS the gift of spiritual light so necessary for our spiritual life. As the sunlight is necessary for our physical well being, so this light is necessary for our spiritual life. "Jesus said, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life." John 8:12.

If you would walk graciously and joyously through this life, you must have this light and walk in it. "For if we walk in the light, as He is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanseth us from all sin." 1 John 1:7. Truly, walking in this light will remove all the barriers of class, creed and color, and we become one in the fellowship of God's Son, God's gift to this world.

ANOTHER OF THE gifts included in God's great gift is Peace. We are in desperate need of peace, not only internationally but individually. Our mental hospitals are pressed beyond measure to care for the emotionally disturbed of our land. Job's answer to the emotional disturbance of the soul is, "Acquaint now thyself with Him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee." Job 22:21. Job lost his family, his friends, and his health, but he found that by becoming acquainted with God he could have peace of heart and mind in the midst of great trouble and distress.

The Apostle Paul states clearly in Ephesians 2:14, "He is our peace. . . ." The apostle is showing to us that in God's gift of His Son, peace of heart has been provided for all who will receive His Gift. Through the gift of God's love we have peace with God. "Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Romans 5:1. We note from this verse that peace comes by faith, so there is a personal element that enters into the matter of receiving and experiencing the gifts that God has for us through the great gift of His Son.

GOD'S GIFT IS a personal gift. We must personally receive the gift if we are to enjoy the blessings God has for us in His gift. For many years in my own life I accepted the fact that God's love gift of His Son was a historical fact. But there came a time when I saw that God's gift of love was a gift that I must receive personally. I saw that God so loved me that He gave His Son. It was then, that eternal life, the light of the Lord and the peace of God became a reality to me, and all spiritual blessings were available to me because I had received the great gift that included all of God's gifts.

Could it be that there are people in our Gospel-enlightened land who still have no room for God's Gift of Love? Could it be that like the inn keeper, we have no room for the Greatest of all gifts, God's Son, the gift of Love, the first Christmas Gift?

Have you any room for Jesus,
He Who bore your load of sin
As He seeks and asks admission
Sinner, will you let Him in?
Room for Jesus, King of Glory,
Hasten now His Word obey.
Swing the heart's door widely open
Bid Him enter while you may.

To Move Three of City's Five Precinct Locations

A change in location for three of the City's five voting precincts was approved by the City Commission Monday night. Precinct 1, located in City Hall, and Precincts 4 and 5, located in the Bronson Building, will all be moved to the newly-acquired Community Center Building on Union St. (former Knights of Columbus Hall). The recommendation came from the Election Commission, composed of City Clerk Joseph Near, chairman; Mayor Robert Sinecock and City Attorney Edward Draugelis. Near explained that the City Hall location had to be changed (Continued on Page 8)

'Twas the Night Before Christmas...

WHAT CHILD wouldn't like to have a puppy for Christmas? And what a day it would be to receive two arms-full of toy Poodles! Seven-year-old Kevin Perlongo isn't going to get all of these Poodles under his Christmas tree Monday morning, but he had great fun with these playful canines when he visited the Poodle Farm on North Territorial Rd. Kevin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Perlongo, 9310 Corrine. (For more about the Poodle Farm, see story inside this issue.)

100-Unit Apartment Project Planned Here

Designed for Semi-Luxury Living

A 100-unit semi-luxurious apartment project, the largest development of its kind ever started here, will go up next spring in the City of Plymouth's southwest section, it was announced this week by an investment group. Called "Driftwood Manor," the 100-unit project consisting of a dozen buildings will be constructed along Sheldon Rd., 500 feet north of Ann Arbor Rd. The 8.08 acres upon which the apartment buildings will be constructed has been purchased from the Gould Development Co.

New Corporation Brings Old Auto Factory to Life

A new industry, Transport Containers, Inc., began operation Monday in a building that was constructed 47 years ago on Farmer St. for the production of automobiles.

Transport Containers, Inc. (TCI) will manufacture material handling and equipment racks fabricated from steel. Such racks have wide use for transporting equipment and materials on the railroad and by truck.

James A. VanGieson, 41150 Bruce, is president of the new corporation. Other officers are Frank X. Norton, vice-president and secretary; R. H. Kirchoff, treasurer; and G. A. Cook, sales manager.

Renovation of the old frame building has been going on as production gets underway, a spokesman said. Built in 1914, the structure was first used by the Altar Motor Car Co. and 1,000 cars were built there before the firm folded two years later.

In recent years, the building was owned by Service Steel Corp. which moved its warehouse operation from there four years ago.

Many panes of glass are being replaced and much concrete poured to get the facilities back in shape. It is also hoped to use the railroad siding which goes to the plant. The firm estimates that 35 men will eventually be employed. The building's address is 498 Farmer.

Nine Bids Received For Sewer

A low bid of $106,830.40 was received by the Plymouth Township Board last week for the installation of sanitary sewers in Plymouth Colony two streets in Arbor Village.

The Board also opened bids on a new fire truck and turned down a request to rezone a five-acre parcel for a future shopping center.

Detore, Inc., was low bidder on the sanitary sewer with a completion date of 240 days set. The next highest bid was $4,000 higher but had a completion deadline of only 120 days. There were nine bids received that ranged up to $161,278.

The Township Board wants to get the sanitary sewer laid as soon as possible, especially in Plymouth Colony, where many homes are having great difficulty with septic fields. Work on the sewer laying will start this winter. The two streets in Arbor Village included on the list are Marlin and Marilyn Streets.

Community Fund Ends At $47,519

A final report on the 1961 Plymouth Community Fund campaign last week has shown that the drive hit a total of $47,519.87 in cash and pledges.

The amount is $3,172.87 over the goal of $44,347.

Community Fund Board of Directors heard the final report at their regular monthly meeting last Thursday morning from the treasurer, Mrs. Carl Caplin. Of the total amount, $18,481.91 has been paid in cash while $29,037.96 is in pledges.

Experience in the past has shown that not all of the pledges are actually received. (Continued on Page 8)

State Protects Consumer With New Sale Law

Stores going out of business now come under strict state statutes for the protection of the consumer, City Clerk Joseph Near pointed out.

Here are the high points of the new law on removal, closing out, fire, liquidation and other types of sales, which went into effect in September:

—Under new Public Act 39, Laws 1961, the advertising of such sales is illegal unless a license has been obtained from the city, village or township clerk.

—Application for a license shall be made in writing, under oath, and accompanied by $100 fee.

—An itemized and identifiable inventory of goods to be sold is required.

—Any goods purchased within 60 days shall be listed and any unusual purchases and additions to stock within 60 days prior to filing of application shall be presumptive evidence that they were made in contemplation of the sale.

—No goods shall be added and no sale goods shall be on consignment.

—The applicant shall have held title to the goods not less than 6 months.

—The city, village or township clerk shall preserve complete records of application and license data.

—The license shall discontinue business at indicated premises at conclusion of licensed period for going out of business or removal sales.

—Advertising shall conspicuously show the number of license and date of its expiration.

—No goods not inventoried in original application shall be sold in the sale - each transaction constituting a separate offense.

—Advertising or conducting such sale prior to obtaining of license is a misdemeanor, subject to $100 to $500 fine or imprisonment from 10 days to 6 months.

—False statements in the application constitute perjury, with the penalty imprisonment for not more than 5 years.

Jean's Jottings

By Jean Campau, Women's Editor

Most of us can recall a childhood memory of some past Christmas morning when a wave of disappointment touched our hearts. Discovered only when some yearned-for object was not among the gifts beneath the tree. To be sure, our 'let-down' was only of fleeting duration when balanced against those gifts we did desire and receive.

Though the object requested may long ago have been forgotten, the memory of the disappointment itself lingers with us.

How depressing then it must be for those in old folks' homes and private and public institutions when they are completely wiped from the consciousness of their family and acquaintances once the doors have shut upon them. Especially so at Christmastime.

According to Louis J. Schuldt there are many such men, women and children confined at Northville State Hospital.

"Some of these patients," he says, "fully expect to be home on Christmas Day or suppose that their relatives will surely bring them a gift. When neither happens, as is quite often the case, the patients may have received no remembrance at all on Christmas Day."

"Some individuals as well as groups have expressed an interest in remembering our patients at Northville State Hospital during the holiday season, who otherwise would be forgotten," continues Mr. Schuldt.

A call to the Community Relations Dept., at FI 9-1800 can provide the prospective donor with general directions and a specific patient's request for Christmas. This is usually three choices in the $1.50 to $2.00 range and any one of the three may be selected by the giver.

Others, if so inclined, may contribute to the Hospital's Christmas Fund from which general gifts may be purchased by volunteers and staff members for last minute distribution. The presents in this group would include cigarettes, stretch socks, handkerchiefs and candy.

While it doesn't seem like much to us on the outside, it is a reassuring gesture of love and kindness to those patients.

It means that the world around them has not forgotten them completely.

Couple Wed at Candlelight Rites

In a candlelight service at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Farmington Rev. Walter Rutkowski officiated at rites that united Barbara A. Broman and Kenneth J. Frank Nov. 4.

The bride, given in marriage, wore a colonial style gown of nylon tulle over taffeta that featured a scalloped nylon lace apron on each side of the skirt. The bodice made of nylon lace was trimmed with sequins and pearls. Her crown of crystal and pearls held her finger-tip veil. The bride carried a cascade bouquet of two orchids surrounded by white baby mums.

"The Lord's Prayer" was sung by Larvene Garchow. Maid of honor was Karen Glatfelter and Dawn Harnett was bridesmaid. Both girls were gowned in peacock blue dresses which they had made and they carried cascade bouquets of bronze and gold mums.

Walter Clinansmith was best man. James Broman, brother of the bride, and Russ Williams seated the guests.

Barbara is a graduate of Clarenceville High School and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Broman, 19386 Brentwood, Livonia. The groom, a graduate of Plymouth High School, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Milan Frank of Plymouth.

Hospital Ward's Christmas Brightened by Local Ladies

By Jean Campau

Christmas is many things to many people. To the Plymouth Birthday Ladies it is only the star on the top of their accumulated yearly efforts.

The Birthday Club, which began nine years ago, has a membership of 27. Giving is the sole purpose of their organization.

Women patients in one of the wards at Northville State Hospital are the prime target of their endeavors.

The last Tuesday of each month they take ice cream and a decorated birthday cake, as well as gifts, to those inmates who have current birthdays. The patients thoroughly enjoy these monthly parties. So do the Birthday Ladies.

Tuesday, the group held their annual Christmas Party for the 90 women in N Building. They range in age from the 20's to the 60's.

There was a lovely tree, festive decorations and group and solo singing of carols as well as an exciting gift exchange. Then fruit punch and homemade Christmas cookies were served, (the Birthday Ladies each contributed a batch), along with coffee and tea.

Superintendent of Northville State Hospital, Dr. Brown, was among the many guests present.

According to Mrs. Lynette Griffiths, the need for outside help is acute and for the recipients it is loving therapy.

The roster of Birthday Ladies include: Lynette Griffiths, Ruth Burton, Ann Penhale, Vivian Champion, Marion McLaren, Jessie Bake, Mable Luther, Marian Amick, chairman of the group, Audrey Borregard, Zada Burrows, Hildegard Bruder, June Farrant, Bertha Knutt, Eva McAllister, Minnie Powell, Agnes Rollins, Isabelle Schroeter, Mae Schuler, Helen Teasel, Bert Thiele, Mary Wilson, Helen Garber, Cora Shear, Bernice Wiedman, June Wells, Nellie Judd and Mary Wiltse.

The Christmas party and potluck held last Saturday, Dec. 16, by Pilgrim Shrine 55 no doubt set a precedent for similar future gatherings, according to the good time the group had.

One of the highlights of the evening was provided when young students from Flowery's Dance Studio of Dearborn Township entertained the gathering with specialized dances.

Help Firemen Have A Merry Christmas

Let's help our Township and City fire chiefs and their men have a Merry Christmas this year by using care with fire around the house, the National Board of Fire Underwriters urges.

The firemen, like everyone else, would prefer to have a nice, quiet Christmas dinner with their families.

You can make the chiefs and their men happy by being careful to avoid fire this holiday season. In addition, you can have a Merry Christmas yourself without the prospect of a rebuilding bill in January.

Guests at the Riviera Hotel in Havana can now play roulette in their rooms by following the play on television and placing their bets by telephone.

Making the presentation were Rev. Edward W. Castner of the First Presbyterian Church and Rev. David T. Davies, of St. John's Episcopal Church. The globe, located in the library lounge, is for public use as well as staff research use.

Penniman Ave. Improvement Encounters No Objections During Public Hearing

Improvement of the Penniman Ave. block from Main St. to Harvey St. appeared assured for next spring when no substantial objections were raised during a public hearing at Monday night's City Commission meeting.

The proposed improvement calls for installing new sidewalks, curb, raising the street and widening it at the west end by three feet. Brighter street lighting will also be considered, but would be an additional assessment.

Three businessmen along the block were present at the hearing. The project will cost an estimated $28,940.89. Of this amount, $10,037. would be assessed property owners and $18,903.89 would be paid by the City.

This uplifting of the block is expected to help bring back businesses which have moved out. The City Parking Committee is also considering additional off-street parking along Fraick Ave., behind the stores on the east side of Penniman. City Manager Albert Glassford said that the project would be started around May 1 after the ground thaws.

Other Improvements
A public hearing will be held at 7:30 p.m. on Monday, Jan. 29 on eight improvement projects that will involve scores of property-owners on the City's south end.

Each of them call for installation of curb and gutter at an assessment of $3.60 per front foot, plus a $50 charge for a concrete driveway approach, where constructed.

The streets involved are these:
Dewey St., from Hartsough to Ross, cost, $2,452.
Harding, from Hartsough to Ross, cost, $1,630.
Hartsough, Evergreen to McKinley, cost, $8,040.
S. Harvey, from Wing to Ann Arbor Rd., cost, $32,084.
Maple, from S. Harvey to McKinley, cost, $9,097.
Roosevelt, from Hartsough to Ross, cost, $1,589.
Ross, from Evergreen to McKinley, cost, $7,700.
Ross, from S. Main to S. Harvey, cost, $5,554.

A post card survey had been made earlier this year to determine if property owners wanted the projects, but the survey was inconclusive. The Maple St.

project was desired, but on the other streets, more people said they didn't want them than wanted, but a large percentage never replied.

Buys Radios
A radio base station and six mobile receivers-transmitters will be purchased by the City for use by Civil Defense communications system. The Stu Rockefeller Radio Club is the nucleus of the CD communications system and has been using its own equipment so far. The new equipment, costing around $1,200 will be the property of the City. The base radio station will be at City Hall.

Sells Truck
Denski Bros., holders of the City's refuse collection contract, will purchase a City refuse truck for a price of $3,300. The City used to operate its own collection system, but two years ago gave it to a private contractor. Finding the private contractor satisfactory, City Manager Glassford recommended that the last refuse truck be sold. It was purchased in 1955 for $8,600.

TWENTY BOYS and girls from the Wayne County Training School were given a shopping tour of Plymouth last Saturday afternoon by the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce. Each of the pupils was given $10 to buy what he pleased. While the younger ones bought gifts primarily for themselves, the older ones bought gifts for their brothers or sisters and cottage mothers, the Jaycees observed. Some of the Jaycees and their wives are shown in the back row. The day ended with a potluck dinner at the Terry West home.

Fisher, Wingard Insurance Agencies Announce Merger

Roy A. Fisher of the Roy A. Fisher Agency and Edwin O. Wingard of the Wingard Insurance Agency have announced this week that on Jan. 2, 1962, they will merge the two agencies and do business as the "Fisher-Wingard-Fortney Agency." The merged business will be located at 905 W. Ann Arbor Trail, location of the present Roy Fisher Agency.

Matthew G. Fortney, a native of Fort Wayne, Ind., has been associated with the Fisher Agency since 1950. He was previously employed in the Regional Accounting Department of the Burroughs Corp.

In addition to the partners, the office staff will include Mrs. Jene Shott and Mrs. Jeanette Schryer. C. Donald Ryder is also associated with the agency as a licensed solicitor.

Roy A. Fisher, who has been active in the general insurance business since 1936, started his agency at 293 S. Main and later moved to the present location on Ann Arbor Trail.

Fires Keep Departments On The Go

Fires in Plymouth Township and the City and a practice run in Canton Township has kept firemen on their toes here during the past week.

Disastrous fires seem to frequently occur around Christmas time and local firemen are hoping this year that such fires skip Plymouth.

A double garage was destroyed by flames at the Harold Paulger home, 15119 Northville Rd., Dec. 14. Plymouth Township firemen reported. Trash burning in a nearby container blew against the garage, setting the blaze.

City firemen were called to the Anderine Hotel on Mill St. at 4 p.m. last Saturday. A mattress in the room of Robert David was burning, apparently caused by a cigarette, firemen said. Firemen were also called to First Presbyterian Church Sunday night where a candle was tipped over and ignited a cloth backdrop. Extinguishers in the building were used to put out the fire, but firemen were summoned to make sure there was no fire remaining.

Canton Township burned down a house and barn for fire practice last weekend at Michigan and Canton Center Rd. Taking part in the practice with Canton were firemen from Plymouth Township, Ypsilanti and Superior Townships.

Canton Volunteer Firemen Kept Busy Over Weekend

by Esther Sprengel
GL 3-0194

Don't call the well digger folks, there will be plenty of water flowing through those pipes for you folks in the new water line district we mentioned in last week's column. About the only explanation I can offer for the error in the size of the water lines is that the pixies were at work again on the column.

Here is the proper measurements for those water mains. A 24 inch main will run down Cherry Hill Rd. to Lilley Road and a 16 inch main will run down Lilley Rd. to Ford (not a 1 inch main as stated in last week's column). So you see there will be enough water for that Saturday night bath after all.

The morning and afternoon kindergarten classes, under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Smith, held their classroom demonstration last Tuesday evening. The parents I have spoken with said the evening was both a success and that the children did a wonderful job of entertaining them.

The boys and girls sang songs they had learned thus far this term covering the calendar from September to December. Following their musical presentation, the children proudly showed their parents displays of their work. The evening also included their Christmas program, and the summarization was that there was plenty of action and it was "real cute".

The exact number attending the morning class's program was not obtained, but a number of approximately 100 persons attended the afternoon program.

We like very much to boast about our young people in the township.

Two young men who made us proud this past week are David White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norris White of Sheldon Rd. and Evan Bassett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bassett of Beck Rd. These two young men, both members of Boy Scout Troop 862 were awarded the Star Rank last Monday evening at their Court of Honor. The boys are members of the Wolf Patrol and this award involved a year of work and five merit badges in unrelated subjects.

They were counseled by five different counsellors for each merit badge. The star award is not easily come by and these boys are to be congratulated.

Last Friday, Dec. 15, was anything but a quiet day in the Township. The day started off with a house fire on Herbey St.

Cause of the blaze was attributed to a faulty oil furnace. The second call, near the noon hour, proved to be a house on Canton Center. Cause of that fire was a faulty coal furnace. The third call, late in the afternoon, was a garage fire and the exact cause of that blaze is as yet unknown. The owner of the building received second degree burns. The location of the garage was on Haggerty Rd.

Also late on Friday afternoon, a three car collision occurred on Canton Center and Ford Rd. It was described as a chain reaction, two cars waiting to turn left with the third car hitting one of the cars. One driver was taken to the hospital, but as far as we have been able to find out; none of the drivers were residents of Canton Township.

As though our firemen didn't have a big enough workout on Friday, they attended a fire demonstration on Saturday on Belleville Rd. Other Department members present for the burning demonstration were Plymouth Twp., Superior Twp., Van Buren, Ypsilanti Twp., Garden City and Ann Arbor and, of course, our Canton Dept.

This was a 'first' for our fellows in the department "learning by burning." The buildings burned were to be removed for progress. Bruce Parrott, assistant director of Firemanship Training Center and two of his staff members were present to supervise the burning and to introduce techniques in attacking the fire.

Other training values received included relay pumping (different distances) Fire Insp. Brodie (of Canton) secured one barrel of magnesium shavings from his place of employment and the men experimented with different streams on the burning magnesium.

A fog stream pattern increased the burning and when a straight stream was used, it blew it up, causing explosion. This demonstration was to stimulate thought in case of fire in a factory involving the use of a substance (which was only in a small amount) The men went on to work with masks in the actual burning house.

Old furniture was secured and placed in the building to be burned. A chair was set afire and the men then went in to find the chair and remove it from the building so as to prevent further damage by water, as if this had been an actual house fire.

A fire was then set in the basement using an old tire, to produce a great amount of smoke (we are quick to add that the men were not in danger during these demonstrations.) A rope was fastened to the front door and lead to the back door and the men followed the rope on their hands and knees. A surprise was brought to the men by the John Dean Fire Equipment and Apparatus Co. who, on their way back from a demonstration in Detroit, stopped at the scene of the fire demonstration and demonstrated their 75 foot aerial ladder. After all the demonstrations were over, the boys had a thousand feet of fire hose to scrub up. Fire Chief Korte couldn't say enough in his appreciation to the men of our department for the fine turnout and enthusiasm over the demonstration. The men were at the scene of the demonstration at 11:45 a.m. until sometime after 6:00 p.m. This was done on their own time (without pay) and was purely a volunteer session.

Perhaps too often we take our volunteer department too much for granted and don't really realize their importance to our community. However anyone ever having to avail themselves of the service knows the importance of our Volunteer Department. Perhaps, in the opinion of your correspondent, a pat on the back once in a while would show the fellows we appreciate their service and effort.

And now may I close our column with a Merry Christmas wish to all our township residents from the Sprengels. A very special wish goes to all our fellows in the service who won't be home for Christmas. To those who will be with us over the holidays, give me a call and let me know of your presence.

Rita Petrowsky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Petrowsky of Lotz Rd. arrived home on Wednesday for the Christmas holidays. She is a student at Dr. Martin Luther College in New Ulm, Minn. where she is completing her final year of study.

Decent Literature Committee Lauds Plymouth Druggists

A letter of "thanks" has been sent out to Plymouth's druggists lauding them for their cooperation with the Plymouth Citizens for Decent Literature Committee.

Dr. Donald Davies, chairman of the committee, said in the Christmas greeting, "We have been very pleased with your cooperation these past months in stamping out indecent literature. You and other druggists of Plymouth deserve the community's thanks. Our public group continues to meet every first Saturday at 6:30 p.m. at Our Lady of Good Counsel School if you would ever care to join in a meeting."

The druggists all signed pledges not to display magazines that were considered indecent by the committee. While the magazines are still for sale, they are not on public display where they can be read by youngsters.

Six Hepatitis Cases Reported Here; Health Dept. Begins Out-County Study

Four cases of hepatitis in the City of Plymouth and two in Plymouth Township so far this year were counted as the Wayne County Health Department began making an epidemiological study of the outbreaks in the County outside of Detroit.

Dr. Lee Feldkamp, the City Health officer, reported to the City Commission Monday night that three cases of hepatitis were found during November alone, bringing the total for the year up to four.

The Wayne County Health Department yesterday reported that there have been two cases in Plymouth Township so far this year.

cases in Out-County reported to the Health Department during the week ending Dec. 18. This brings the total number of cases in Out-County to 332 for the year, compared with only 139 cases reported during all of 1960.

Many cases of hepatitis go unreported, Dr. Molner said, and the incidence may actually be higher than believed.

The incidence of hepatitis in Out-County has been rising steadily since 1957 when only 16 cases were reported. Hepatitis did not become a reportable disease in the United States until 1952, and since then health officials have become concerned about its seriousness as a public health problem.

Health Department reported that 4,316 cases had been reported in Michigan last year, compared with only 1,964 cases for a similar period in 1960 and 1,055 cases during 1959.

Hepatitis is a disease that affects the liver, and is usually associated with unsanitary living habits. Epidemiologists from the State Health Department feel the record number of cases reported in Michigan last year could have been due to the excessive moisture which causes the overflow of septic tanks in various parts of Michigan, with the consequent pollution of well water.

All through all the cases of hepatitis reported in Out-County cannot be blamed on poor environmental conditions, Dr. Molner pointed out, improvement of sewage disposal conditions in certain parts of the County would be an important preventive measure.

Since the disease is easily spread by person to person contact, good personal hygiene would also do very much to bring the disease under control, the Health Commissioner added. This is particularly important for those engaging in food handling or other services to the public.

Because of the possible relation between insanitary food service and hepatitis outbreaks, Dr. Molner reminded managers of mass feeding establishments that training in sanitary food service practices for their supervisory personnel is available from the Health Department on request.

Dr. Molner also stated that maintenance of good health is one of the best defenses against becoming seriously ill with hepatitis. Normally healthy adults usually have little trouble with a hepatitis infection, while those in poor physical condition suffer more serious disabilities.

Hepatitis, though disabling, is rarely fatal. There have been only four deaths from the disease reported in the County so far this year. Dr. Molner recommended, however, that all persons who have a sudden onset of fever, upset stomach or vomiting, general malaise, or discolored urine see their family physicians right away.

Many green stones, such as emeralds and serpentine, owe their color to the presence of chromium.

Canada has signed treaties of extradition for return of suspected criminals with 37 non-Commonwealth nations.

Survey of Elder Citizens Finds Most Just Able to Make Ends Meet

Almost one in three of a sample of Plymouth's elderly people over 62 indicated that they would like to find a job and most said they had enough money to get by.

The block survey was taken last summer by Carl Glassford, U of M student and son of the city manager and a group of volunteers from various organizations and churches. The random sampling was taken in 22 City blocks in a wide variety of dwelling unit types.

These are some of the findings:

How many reported ailments? 41 percent, no ailments; 59 percent, one or more ailments.

How many were gainfully employed at the time of the survey? 12.6 percent working full-time; 11.3 percent working part-time; 76.1 percent not working.

How many wanted jobs? 29.8 percent wanted to work; 54.4 percent did not want work; 15.8 percent, no information.

How many were retired? 74.4 percent retired; 25.6 percent were not retired.

What were the major problems following retirement? 20.4 percent financial; 8.2 percent, finding something to do; 4.1 percent, health; 8.2 percent, family adjustments; 16.2 percent, other problems; 28.6 percent, no problems; 14.2 percent, no information.

What was the cash income? 21.2 percent, less than $1,000 annually; 8.4 percent, from $1,000 to $1,500; 14.1 percent, from $1,500 to $2,000; 21 percent, from $2,000 to $3,000; 7 percent, $3,000 to $4,000; 2.8 percent, from $4,000 to $5,000; 7 percent, over $5,000. 18.3 percent, no information.

Forty percent of the people reported Old Age and Survivor's insurance as the principal source of income.

To what extent were they able to make ends meet? 15.5 percent said they could not make ends meet; 64.8 percent had just enough to get along on; 14.1 percent had more than was needed; 3.6 percent, no information.

Twice as many women as men were having difficulty making ends meet. More women are widowed and have a tendency to maintain large homes, the report found.

This is the summary of the report:

1. The majority of older people reported some difficulties with their health, although the condition did not hinder the mobility of a great number.

2. The survey population represented all types of occupations, however, more men were in the semi-skilled category and women were most often housewives. Almost one in three showed a desire to find a job.

3. Fully retired persons constituted three-fourths of the study population. A major retirement problem was lack of adequate income to meet expenses.

4. Income of the elderly was generally in the three thousand dollars and under bracket, with the principal source being Old Age and Survivor's Insurance.

5. The study found that the average older person is a homeowner and wished to remain so. It found, also, that large homes posed maintenance and health problems for the older individuals.

6. The amount of time the older people spent with their friends was dependent on their age, health and financial resources. A great many expressed a desire to make new friends.

7. All the subjects interviewed were satisfied with their living arrangements. There were about fifty percent, however, that responded to the amount of rent they thought they could pay if they were to change living quarters. The rent the greatest number suggested they could pay was in the fifty to sixty dollar category.

8. Age has a definite influence on church attendance. Participation in church activities declined for varied reasons. The predominant ones were ill health and lack of transportation to the church.

9. It was found that the older people were long term residents of Plymouth. In considering both the good and bad points about Plymouth, the senior citizens find that Plymouth is a satisfying place in which to live.

resented all types of occupations, however, more men were in the semi-skilled category and women were most often housewives. Almost one in three showed a desire to find a job.

THE ANNUAL Living Nativity will be presented on the lawn of the Riverside Park Church of God, Plymouth and Newburgh Roads, on Dec. 21, 22 and 23 with performances at 7:30, 8 and 8:30 p.m. The story of the first Christmas will come to life in the outdoor setting as it is told and sung and acted by a colorful cast, along with several animals. The public is invited to see the annual pageant.

Epiphany Lutherans Break Ground

After five years of meeting in temporary assembly halls and other churches, the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Epiphany broke ground last Sunday noon for a church home of their own along Five Mile Rd.

A six acre wooded plot on Five Mile Rd., between Bradner and Haggerty Roads, will be the site for a new church. Sixty persons gathered in the rain Sunday noon for the groundbreaking service with the Rev. John W. Miller, pastor, taking the first shovelfuls of earth.

Nowell Construction Co. of Detroit will soon begin the building. It is hoped to have it ready by June. The architect is James Morrison of Detroit.

The chapel wing will seat 130 persons. There will also be a church school wing that will provide space for church school activities, nursery room, a passageway and kitchenette. Ultimately, the chapel wing will become a part of the church school and a new and larger sanctuary built.

One of the unusual aspects of the design will be a 40-foot-high free standing cross, with shorter crosses on both sides.

The congregation, which now has 70 communicate members, was started in 1956 when the first service was held on Christmas morning in the chapel of the First United Presbyterian Church. Earlier in that year, the Board of American Missions of the United Lutheran Church had called the Rev. Charles F. Holland to canvass the area and look toward organization of a congregation. Twenty-six persons attended the first service.

The Veterans of Foreign Wars hall was rented for services during the next three months and later services were held in the Seventh Day Adventist chapel on Ann Arbor Trail. The formal service of organization was held Nov. 10, 1957 with 63 names on the charter membership list.

In April 1959 the site for a new building was purchased. Pastor Holland resigned July 1, 1959 to accept a call to institutional chaplaincy. Rev. Miller began his pastoral duties on Feb. 1, 1961. At present, the Sunday services are held at 1150 West Ann Arbor Trail.

Coral blocks cut from hillsides are a favorite building material in Bermuda. The soft coral rock consists of sand, mollusk shells, and coral skeletons that long ago were ground fine by wave action, deposited on the beach and eventually cemented together.

100-Unit

(Continued from Page 1) pancy by June 1. Not all of the units will be started at the same time, he pointed out.

There will be 33,000 square feet of wooded and landscaped recreation area surrounding the apartments, including a swimming pool, playground equipment and a game house.

The apartments will rent from $125 to $150 a month.

Nine Bids On Sewer

Fire Truck Bids
Five bids were received on a new fire engine. The bids were as follows:
Mack Trucks, $28,906.30; Seagrave Corp., $27,750; American LaFrance, $27,732; Peter Pirsch & Sons, $28,000; Young Equipment Co. (FWD), $28,956.

Fire Chief Howard Holmes said that all of the bids except Mack Trucks met the specifications. The others, he said, are so close that the committee will have to "go down to the fine points" to make a decision.

On the committee with Chief Holmes are Supervisor Roy Lindsay and Trustee Louis Norman.

The Board approved a motion to turn the matter over to the committee. A special meeting of the Board is expected to be called within the next few weeks to make a decision on both the sewer and fire engine bids. Because the fire engine is custom equipment, delivery will take up to six months.

Meanwhile, a rescue vehicle has been delivered to the Township Fire Department. Ordered several months ago, the station wagon will be outfitted with a resuscitator and rescue tools. This equipment is now carried on one of the pumps.

Rejects Rezoning
A request to rezone five acres of land on the southeast corner of Five Mile and Haggerty Roads from R-1 (one family residential) to a C-1 (neighborhood shopping) classification was turned down by the Board.

Filed last April by Michael Tartaglia of Detroit, the request was approved by the Planning Commission. It then came before the Township Board at its Nov. 14 meeting and no action was taken, although the Board was split in its opinion.

Placed on the agenda again for last week's meeting, a motion was made by Trustee C. V. Sparks to reject the petition and the motion was approved. The Board feels that rezoning this area would constitute "spot zoning," and that no shopping center should be allowed where there is no sanitary sewer or public water supply. It was proposed to start with a small grocery.

The world's largest trade union is the British Transport and General Workers Union with more than 1,300,000 members.

Churches Celebrate Birth

(Continued from Page 1) Rev. Bertram T. White will be celebrant at the service, assisted by the rector, Rev. David Davies. At 10 a.m. Christmas Day, there will be an observance of the Holy Communion to accommodate those unable to attend Christmas Eve services.

Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ, Latter Day Saints
The Church School Christmas program will be at 7:30 p.m., Friday, Dec. 22.

Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ
The Sunday morning service will be at 10:45 a.m. That evening there will be a carol service and Children's Christmas program at 7 p.m., with a sermonette, "The First Santa Claus." The Christmas Day festival service will be at 10 a.m. with the sermon theme, "Our Response of Wonder."

St. Peter's Lutheran
The traditional Children's Christmas Eve service will be at 7 p.m. Saturday. A Christmas Morning Carol Service will begin at 10 a.m.

First Methodist
In addition to the regular Sunday services at 9:30 and 11 a.m., the church will have a special Christmas program of music on Christmas Eve at 8 p.m. (See complete story on Church Page.) There will also be Holy Communion at this service.

Newburg Methodist
A family Candlelight service will take place at 7 p.m. on Christmas Eve.

First United Presbyterian
The annual Christmas Family Night and Choral Program will begin at 7:30 p.m. tonight (Wednesday) with four youth choirs participating. The regular Sunday services will begin at 9:30 and 11 a.m. On Christmas Eve, there will be an 11 p.m. Communion service.

Salvation Army
Starting at 7 p.m. on Christmas Eve will be the annual Christmas Tableau.

To Move

(Continued from Page 1) because of State voting inspector's ruling that the present City Hall location is inadequate. Law states that there should be at least three feet of free space around the machines. At City Hall, machines are against the walls.

Because the Bronson Building has now been razed to provide for more parking, Precincts 4 and 5 had to be moved. The boundary lines of these two precincts will also be revised. The City clerk said the Precinct 4 now has 1,151 registered voters and Precinct 5 but 500. A shift in the boundary line will balance this to 1,044 for Precinct 4 and 982 for Precinct 5.

Some City Commissioners expressed concern that there might be overcrowding in the Community Center Building with three precincts. They agreed, however, that should there be confusion in the first election, different arrangements should be made.

MERRY MERRY CHRISTMAS

The rush is almost over... it's time to sit back and enjoy Christmas to the fullest. It was a busy shopping season for you, and a busy one for us... but we loved every minute of it.

If proof were needed that Christmas fulfills a deep human need, then observe that this holiday and the thought and spirit associated with it has prevailed for almost two thousand years.

The streets and highways are filled this week with the cars of shoppers and party goers, some of whom have been celebrating. The accident tragedies that happen at Christmas are always the most tragic of the year. Don't let one happen to you.

Thank you, one and all... have a Merry Christmas

Sheriff's detectives are continuing their investigation of a burglary of a Plymouth Township home that netted thieves $3,000 in cash, plus other valuable items.

Loren Goodale, owner of the Goodale Delicatessen, said that the thieves broke through the front door of his home at 14266 Shadywood, Lake Pointe Village, sometime between 1 and 7 p.m. on Nov. 27. He said that insurance policies, checks and stocks were taken from a hiding place. He said that he had intended to deposit the money in a bank.

A candy and a nut vending machine were stolen from the Perfection Laundry between Dec. 8 and 11. City Police were told. The estimated loss was $100.

Salem Sunshine Club Inspect Member's Painted China

By C. W. Clair
CL 3-2610
Mrs. Joseph Bagnasbo had a baby shower at her home in Plymouth for Mrs. Kenneth Rich, Jr., of Salem, last Thursday evening.

The Salem Sew and Sew Club met at the home of Mrs. Herman Bakhaus on North Territorial Rd. last Wednesday evening. This club has been getting together now for well over 30 years.

Kenneth Rich, Sr. was reported this week to be on the improved list and is getting around the house again.

"It is not who is right, but what is right, that is of importance."
Thomas Huxley.

There were 14 members of the South Salem Sunshine Club present for the annual Christmas party and meeting at the home of Mrs. F. W. Carr on Brookville Rd. last Wednesday. They had a planned potluck turkey dinner. Some of the members were not present either because of sickness or being out of town. Mrs. Carr's mother was there from Detroit and she is a young 92 years old. "Chakie", a native of S. E. Asia and Ceylon, was also present, of course. I'm speaking now of Mrs. Carr's myna bird. He whistles and mimics the human voice. During the dinner period he kept calling "Hey Mable", or whistled. They also have at their place a German shepherd that was sent over to them about five years ago. At that time he could understand no commands except in German. After reviewing Mrs. Carr's fine collection of hand painted china, about 500 pieces, her own work that she has done for a hobby and pastime, the ladies all sat down together to have a chat on local affairs.

The many friends of Mrs. Glen Whittaker will be quite happy to know that she is home from the Beyer Hospital.

William Lewis is still in the Veterans Hospital, and is a very sick man.

"Bill" Duguid of Northville was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Friday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid of the Federated Church of Salem had their regular meeting Thursday in the church parlor.

The Salem Suburban and the North East Washtenaw Farm Bureau combined their efforts, and had their annual Christmas party and potluck planned turkey dinner Thursday evening at the Salem Town Hall. There were about 50 at the party. Mrs. Jane Henning from Ohio was a guest. Mrs. Henning was formerly from the Township, before moving to Ohio.

The Salem Hobby Club had their annual Christmas dinner and party at the home of Mrs. Fred Verrin on Six Mile Rd. Monday evening.

Mr. H. C. Shaffmaster of Curtis Rd. was taken to Harper Hospital Friday morning, suffering a heart ailment.

The Worden Extension Club had their annual Christmas party last Wednesday at the Mayflower Hotel in Plymouth. There were 19 present for dinner in the Miles Standish room. After dinner they played games and had an old-fashioned sing-song of Christmas Carols. They are all talking about the fine dinner that was served to them.

The annual meeting of the Salem Federated Church was held in the basement of the church last Thursday evening, Dec. 12, after a potluck dinner and a short prayer meeting. The following officers were elected; they will take office the first of January:

Don Lansing, chairman and deacon of ushering and visitation; Bob Whittaker, deacon of missions; Wallace Westerfield, deacon of properties; Bob Lemon, deacon of youth; Charles T. Buers, deacon of fellowship and worship; Frank

Handel's Messiah Broadcast Friday

Christmas music in the form of Georg Friedrich Handel's famous oratorio "Messiah" will be featured Friday, Dec. 22, at 9:30 p.m. when radio station WJR broadcasts this beautiful music to its listening audience.

For the 23rd consecutive year, this immortal classic will be presented nationwide on radio by the Independence, Missouri Messiah Choir. It is traditionally presented as a Christmas gift to the nation by the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The Independence Messiah Choir has given 65 performances of the famous Handel oratorio since 1916. Former members of this nationally known choral group now live in all parts of the world. There are still active charter members of the group who will perform with the 260-voice choir this year.

The orchestra which accompanies the choir will include selected members from the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra. Conductor of the choir and orchestra is Franklin S. Weddie, music and radio director for the RLDS Church. Soloists will be Maud Nosler, soprano (Chicago); Frances Crawford, contralto (Akron, Ohio); Henry Anderson, tenor (Lamoni, Iowa); and Donald Henrickson, bass (Richmond, Ky.).

More than 1000 radio stations throughout the United States, Canada and Australia are carrying the Messiah this year.

The local congregation of the RLDS church is located at 42375 Schoolcraft. The pastor is Robert C. Burger.

New Salem Church Pastor

A new pastor, Jack Barlow, has begun his pastoral duties at Salem Congregational Christian Church. Mr. Barlow is a resident of Livonia and is now a student at the Detroit Bible College. He began his duties at the church in Salem village two weeks ago. Mr. Barlow will be married in January and will move into the parsonage next door to the church at that time.

Methodists Hear Cantata Sunday

Ringwald's "Song of Christmas" will be presented by the Chancel Choir of First Methodist Church at the Annual Christmas Worship service this Sunday.

Written for soloists, narrators and mixed voices, the dramatic cantata tells the story of the Nativity in Christmas songs, carols and Biblical verses. Mrs. Lloyd E. Flower from Aberdeen, Wash., will be the guest organist. She is the mother of the church's regular organist, Dr. John Flower, assistant dean of the School of Music at the University of Michigan.

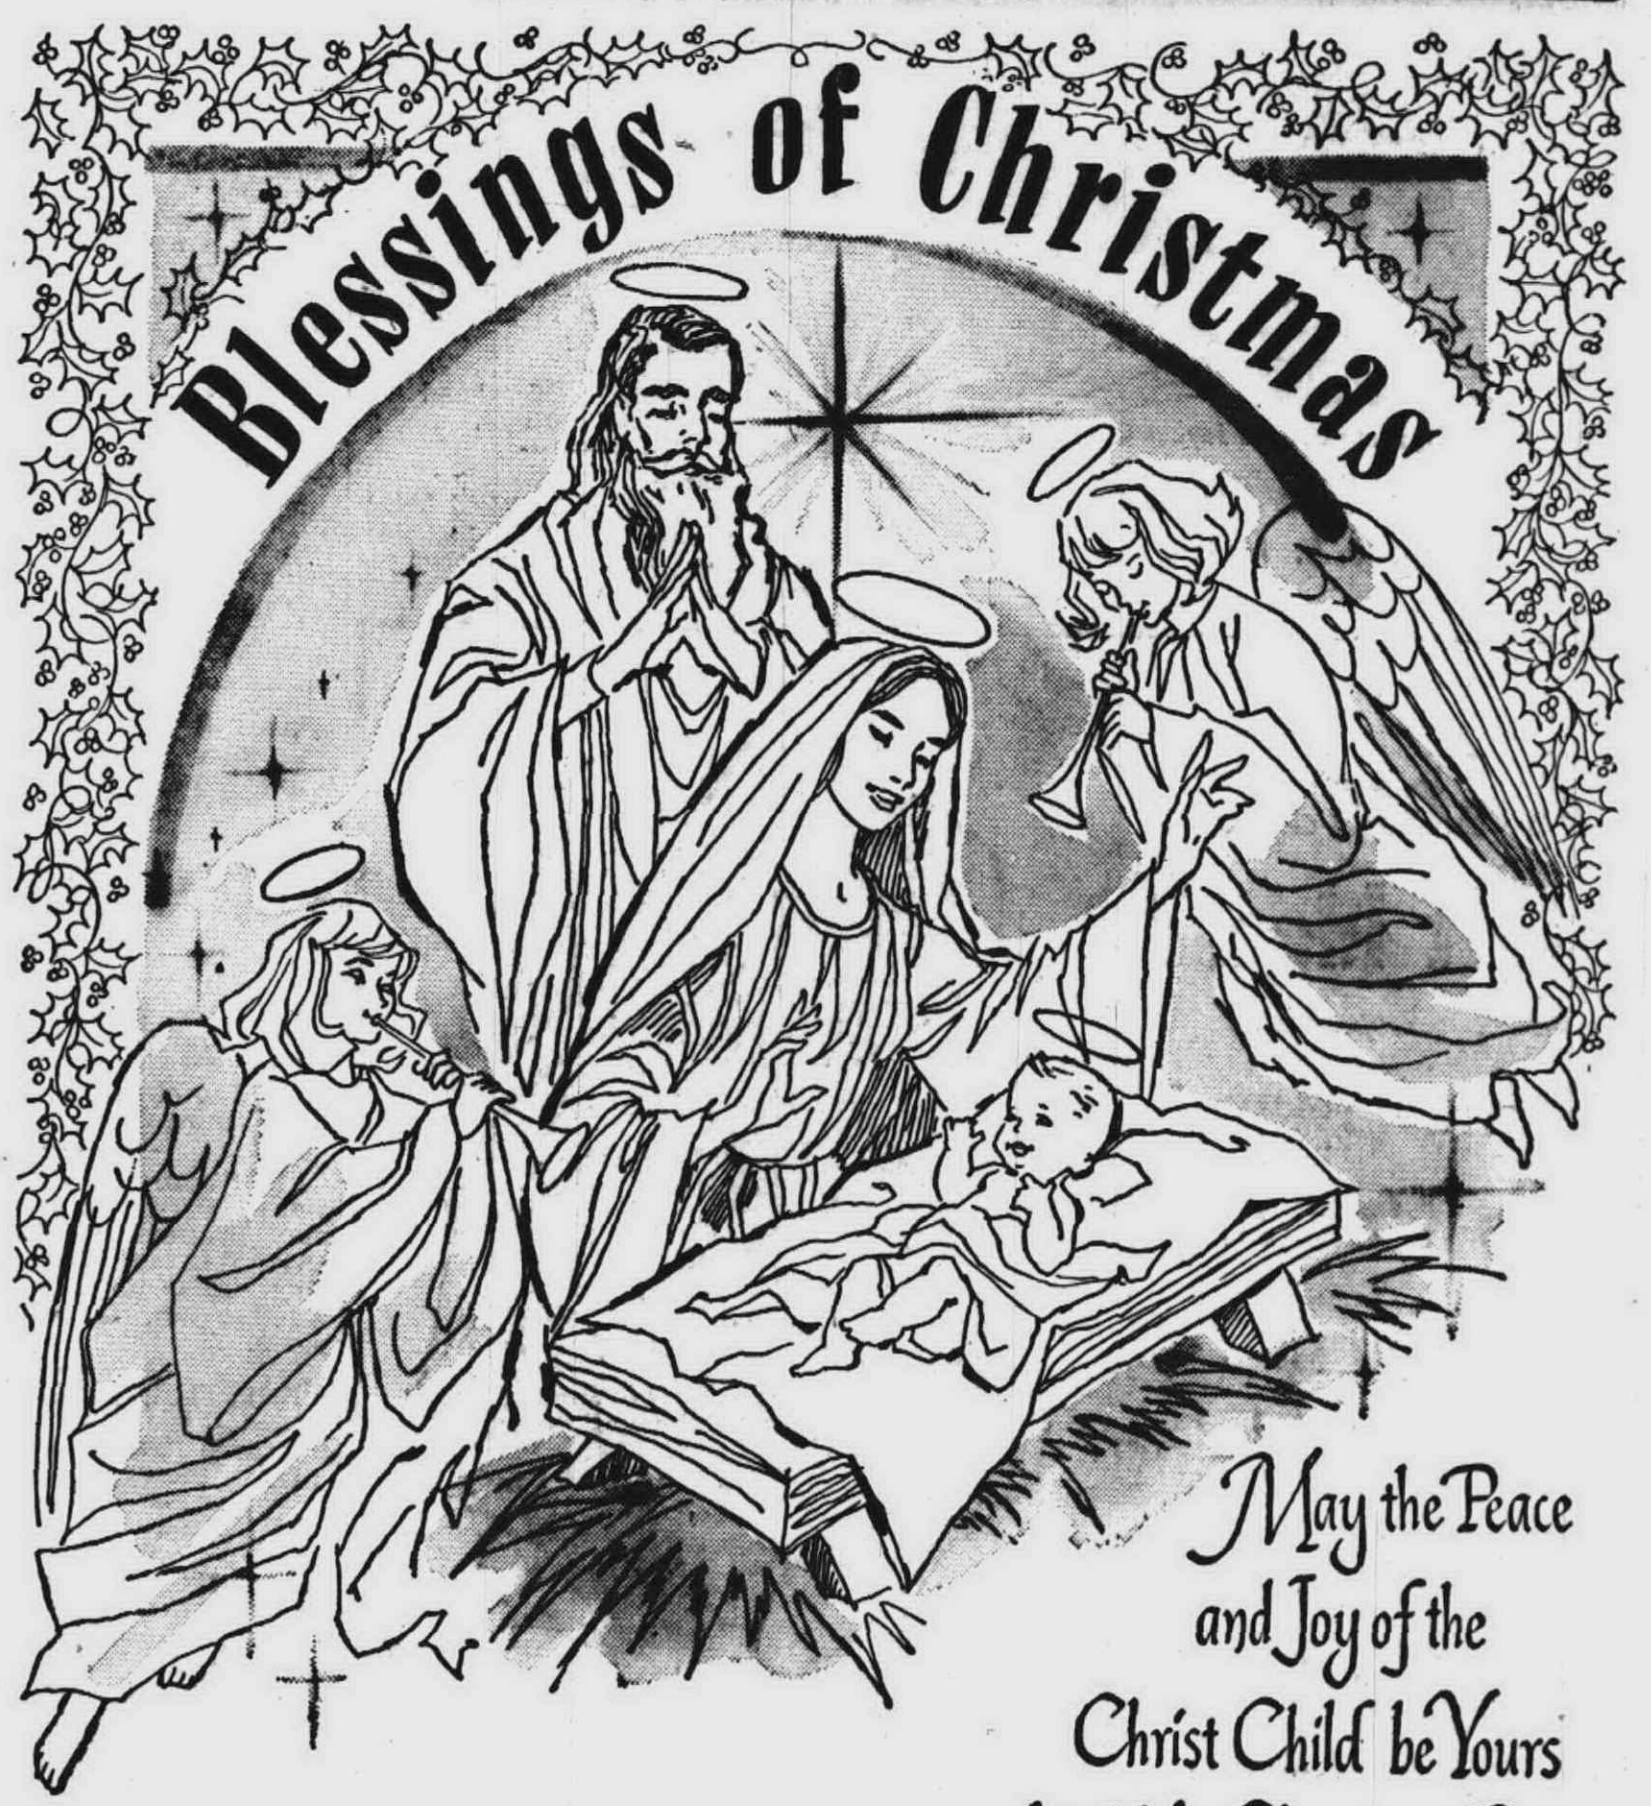

Giving thanks always for all things.—(Eph. 4:20)
The giving of thanks is so rewarding that we all want to take an active part in thanksgiving. If we have an experience that makes us happy, let us tell God that we are thankful.

About 120 million Americans play cards in the United States. They use up approximately 60,000 decks a year.

"WELL, NOW I'll tell you Santa . . ." Susan Combs, 6, of 8834 Sheldon Rd., was one of the hundreds of kiddies who has been visiting Santa Claus in Kellogg Park after his arrival in town. He will again be here Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

TEN YEARS of service was recognized, Dec. 11, when Edward T. Miller, Jr. of 772 Burroughs one of the founders of Boy Scout Troop 6, was awarded a plaque by the Plymouth Lions Club commemorating 10 years of loyal service to Lionism and to Scouting. The award was presented by M. F. North, president of the Lions Club, at the Troop's 10th annual banquet held at Smith Elementary School. Miller has been scoutmaster of the troop since its founding 10 years ago.

A NEW FORD was turned over to Jerome O'Neil of Lake Pointe Village last Friday morning by Paul J. Wiedman, local Ford dealer. O'Neil was one of the Detroit area winners in a contest sponsored by the Detroit area Ford dealers during the new car introductions.

Christmas vacation starts at 2:38 this Friday and students will have, according to an advanced math student, 15,442 minutes of vacation until classes resume at 8 a.m., Tuesday, Jan. 2.

Featuring Christmas carols, the annual Christmas assembly will be presented in the gymnasium tomorrow, Dec. 21. The choir will sing four numbers, including "Oh Come, Oh Come Emmanuel" and "Mary's Boy Child," which was so popular at the vocal groups' Yuletide Carols festival last week. The Triple Trios will sing four selections with a solo by Faith Raycroft '63, and the Boy's Quartet will also participate.

Co-chairman of "Music Through the Ages," the annual water show, are Juniors Chris Strasen and Ann Zoet. Seniors Carolyn Scott and Mary Hulsing will handle the publicity and Bonnie Bowsman '63 is in charge of costuming.

Choreography and script harmonization is the job of Gay Shirey '62; Sound and lighting will be supervised by Linda Wall '63. Helen Otwell '62 will design the props and Susie Neal '62 will supervise the program printing. Barb Utter '63 is in charge of sound and music.

FINAL RESULTS of Christmas Card Sales showed Judy Yount's team at the top of the list with sales totaling $750; Dick Michaels' team was next with $650 and Michelle Bender's team captured third with $607. Dave "Beetle" Bailey was top salesman with $181.55. After vacation, the winning team, top salesman and Christmas Card Committee will be treated to dinner. Chairman Georgina Daubresse announced that the class sales totalled over $6,400.

FUTURE NURSES and their adviser, Mrs. Mary Carless, will make a goodwill trip to Eloise Hospital tomorrow. The girls will sing carols for the older patients and bring cookies for the older women.

AGNEW JEWELERS will again accept orders for the sophomore class Tahitian pearl rings starting Jan. 2. A ten dollar deposit must be made when the rings are ordered and the balance will be paid when the rings are delivered next May 15.

MR. JOHN Hopkins' second year French class is discussing the possibility of spending Spring Vacation in Quebec. Such a trip would give "les etudiants" an opportunity to hear and speak their "second language" in a true French atmosphere and would be an invaluable aid to their conversation skill. And Mr. Hopkins' students now have French pen pals. The correspondence started by sending Christmas cards and all letters are supposed to be written in French.

LATEST HINDRANCE in getting the swimming sign out is the weather. The ground is so hard that it's impossible to put stakes in! However, Pucil members report that even if they have to pour boiling water all over in order to thaw out the ground, that sign is going up before Christmas!

ART STUDENT Bruce Becker has designed the Christmas motif which decorates the new stair tower and is particularly noticeable when the tower's lights are all on.

STUDENTS WERE again disappointed with the Detroit newspaper that seems to have a habit of ignoring Plymouth's athletic accomplishments. As if it wasn't bad enough to completely omit Plymouth from an early football season story on the Suburban Six, the same newspaper recently left out the outstanding records held by this year's swimmers. According to the times listed there, the team is a much stronger contender than most people realize. The meet this week is at Belleville. The basketball team, edged out last week by Allen Park and a gym-full of AP supporters, opens the home season with Belleville.

MISS GERTRUDE Fiegel's International Relations Class will again be sponsoring a New Year's Eve dance — but since New Year's Eve is on a Sunday, the holiday celebration will be Saturday night. In a meeting last week, the class decided to drop plans for a trip to New York since all the work to carry out such plans would take away too much time from regular school interests. The profits from the dance will help defray expenses for the trip to Hillsdale's Model United Nations Assembly in the spring. The class will be representing India.

The beagle is the most popular purebred dog in the United States today. The pint-size hound may be the oldest breed native to Britain.

"READ THE BIBLE Through in 1962" is the theme of a Bible reading program started in Calvary Baptist Church. To gain interest in the program, Pastor Patrick Clifford asked members to bring old Bibles. Sixty Bibles were brought, one dating back to 1811. Some were huge volumes, some miniatures. One Bible, brought by Deforest Thompson, was printed in 1857. It was taken from the ruins of the Worden Methodist Church in Salem Township after a tornado in 1917. It was then rescued from a fire that destroyed the rebuilt church in 1936. Rev. Clifford is shown looking through one of the old books.

On Dec. 14, Mrs. Harold Cecotis entertained her home at the annual gift exchange.

Mrs. John Boeve gave the program "Adventures Through Christmas Tree Lane." Mrs. C. S. Sederlin was a guest. Mrs. Fred Faust and Mrs. Robert Johnston had charge of refreshments.

Mrs. Austin Whipple was hostess to the Chapter Nov. 27 with Mrs. Will Kaiser and Mrs. George Smith as co-hostesses. Mrs. Robert Johnston and Mrs. Harold Stevens had a display of handmade Christmas decorations for the home.

The next meeting will be Dec. 28 at the home of Mrs. Halvor Blomberg with Mrs. Eric Anderson and Mrs. Douglas Hamman as co-hostess. Mrs. William Ehrlich will have the program "Adventures in the Classroom."

"Art Comes to Life" is the provocative title of AAUW's Christmas program to be held at the Plymouth Junior High School, Dec. 21, at 7:45 p.m.

Six famous portraits of women will be represented in this unusual program. Members of the Association will act as models for these "living portraits" while a profile of the artist and picture is read. Paintings include these popular and well-known masterpieces: daVinci's "Mona Lisa," Whistler's "Mother," VanGogh's "Woman of Arles," Rubens' "LeChapeau de Paille," Picasso's "Girl in a Mirror," and a 15th century painting called "Angel of the Annunciation." Participating models are AAUW members Mrs. Sidney Cady, Mrs. John Haas, Mrs. John Barnes, Mrs. A. R. Basel, Mrs. T. F. Devereaux and Mrs. C. C. Wiltse. Providing script narration will be Mrs. J. R. Witwer, Mrs. Richard Fritz, Miss Helen Gilbert and Mrs. W. Secord.

Co-chairmen for this tableau of famous masterpieces are Miss Helen Gilbert and Mrs. Donald Sober. Miss Gilbert began her work in September researching each painting, as well as the artist. She has put her special journalistic talent to work and has written a novel and interesting script to be read as each portrait is shown. The script is written in first person form and the narration gives the illusion as though each woman in the picture were "thinking aloud."

Mrs. Sober, a talented artist and teacher, has directed the models in their effort to create a true-to-color portrait of the original picture. She also is responsible for creating the fine backgrounds which are almost identical to those of the paintings.

will preside over the slide projector while Mr. John Haas will operate the audio. Mrs. Robert Dinsmore and John Britcher will lend their able assistance behind the scenes.

Preceding the program all members and their guests will enjoy a social hour which will include an evening tea. Mrs.

R. E. Huston, chairman, and her committee will create a lovely holiday theme for this meeting. She is ably assisted by Mrs. A. R. Basel, Mrs. James MacKimm, Mrs. F. R. Beals, and Mrs. W. S. Miller.

Seasons Greetings is extended to all from members of the AAUW.

Local Poodle Farm Helps Fill Santa Orders

A FAMILIAR FACE? Some may recognize this as Gypsy Rose Lee, who was a visitor at the Poodle Farm on North Territorial Rd. last summer to buy a Chinese Crested species, named appropriately, Chu Chin Chow. She is pictured with a Chinese Crested she previously owned, Fu Man Chu. Miss Lee also bought a Toy Poodle for her sister, June Havoc.

"... and dear Santa, most of all I would like a puppy dog for Christmas."

These are the sentiments of thousands of letters this time of the year to old St. Nick and one of the Plymouth area businesses that helps Santa fulfill his orders each year is the Poodle Farm, a nationally-known kennel that specializes in Toy Poodles, Maltese and the Chinese Crested species.

Located at 8811 N. Territorial Rd., the Poodle Farm is also known as Lallan Kennels. Few Plymouth folks are aware that this small business has bred poodles that have sold to movie personalities and that have captured a roomful of prizes in national dog shows.

Lallan Kennels was started in 1940 near Birmingham by Miss Barbara Fleury and Miss Beulah Finch. The dog fanciers started their business with Scotties ("Lallan" means "lowland" in Scottish) but eventually the pair became interested in other breeds. They moved to their present location on Territorial Rd. five years ago and now are the largest Toy Poodle breeders in the state and they have gained a national reputation.

Some of the poodle lovers in show business have learned of the Lallan Kennels' fame and one of the latest buyers was Gypsy Rose Lee, who never travels with fewer than five dogs.

"She and her sister, June Havoc, were playing in Detroit last summer," Miss Fleury recalled, "when Miss Lee drove out here to get her sister a poodle and herself a Chinese Crested. She pulled up here in her Rolls Royce with a trailer behind it. It drives Rolls Royce salesmen mad when Gypsy orders a new car with a trailer hitch."

The kennel owners had been corresponding with Miss Lee and Miss Havoc for some time, so they knew they wanted a good dog.

Lallan Kennels now has 65 dogs on hand with Christmas time, of course, being the busy season. The population business reaches 100.

Most people do not realize it, but the real profit in this type of business does not come from selling a lot of dogs, but selecting and training dogs that will be suitable for shows and selling them off at good prices.

"A flier (name given to a good show dog) will bring up to $500," Miss Fleury said.

The Poodle Farm has had several "fliers" that have exhibited in most of the national shows. The Madison Square Garden Show in New York, has been entered many times by the Poodle Farm entries and the owners have come home with either the best or second best in their classification frequently during recent years. The 1962 tour of dog shows opens in the Garden next Feb. 12.

In the farm house which serves as the Lallan Kennels' office, there are several shelves of trophies that were captured at the national shows. In the kitchen is a large board covered with red and blue ribbons.

"We literally eat off our trophies," Misses Finch and Fleury pointed out. Some of the trophies are actually serving pieces and are quite suitable for household use. Some shows have awarded trophies fashioned out of foreign silver pieces.

"Funny things happen in this business," Miss Fleury noted. "Sometimes we don't sell a thing for months, and then we sell several dogs a week." Records this week showed that an average of one dog a week was sold during 1961.

The kennel also boards up to 15 dogs at a time. There is also some money to be made at breeding other dogs with stud fees running around $100.

Both Miss Fleury and Miss Finch are graduates of the University of Michigan. Both went into teaching in the Detroit school system, with Miss Finch teaching mathematics and Miss Fleury a librarian. Both taught in the same school for a while. Miss Finch is now retired but Miss Fleury still drives daily to teach in an east side elementary school.

GAINING NATIONAL recognition as dog breeders and trainers are Misses Barbara Fleury, left, and Beulah Finch. Miss Fleury is a Detroit school teacher and has authored several adult and children's books. Miss Finch is a retired teacher and department head. They are shown with one of their poodles and some of the scores of awards their dogs have won.

Community College Reaches Milestone

The Board of Trustees has been meeting officially since Nov. 11, sometimes once a week and often twice a week.

This group of elected people were, for the most part, strangers to one another. As a result, the early meetings have been spent in exploring the thinking of the members and in their becoming better acquainted with each other.

During this general orientation period the Board has met socially and with resource people in the fields of business and education.

As soon as the officers of the Board were elected, on Nov. 11, it was agreed that before moving into a working schedule the Board should be well organized. Several actions have been taken which indicate that this goal has been reached.

The "Purpose of the College" was adopted on Dec. 11. After several meetings, a great deal of research in the ways other community college boards were organized, a set of By-Laws was approved at the end of a four hour adjourned meeting on Saturday, Dec. 16. The Board now has a concise set of rules from which it may operate. These By-Laws will be published soon and will be available to those who desire them.

On Dec. 2 the Board, with Dr. Eric Bradner, was invited by Dr. Fred Eshleman, dean, to visit the new campus of Henry Ford Community College. The visit was enjoyable and valuable. Visits to other college campuses are planned.

Some time ago, standing committees of the Board were chosen. Now that the By-Laws have been approved these committees will begin their work to help expedite the work of the Board. Citizens' Committees will be appointed later to assist with special projects.

What's Cooking in Plymouth?

If you have ever wondered what to do with carrots besides roasting, boiling or creaming them, Mrs. Eugene Crosby, 15335 Lakeside Dr., has a sure-fire method for dressing up what is ordinarily a rather 'blah' vegetable.

Her recipe for Orange Glazed Carrots transforms the common carrot into savory company fare.

Orange Glazed Carrots
Clean and cut in half lengthwise one bunch of carrots. Cook in salted water until tender (or cook in pressure cooker). Pour off liquid and add:

1 Tbsp. white sugar
1 Tbsp. light brown sugar
pinch of salt
2 Tbsp. butter

One quarter cup orange juice (frozen concentrate) undiluted. Stir and cook two minutes. Sprinkle with dill weed and serve pouring juice over carrots. Serves four.

Maintaining her lovely home poised on the bluff overlooking Phoenix Lake requires only part of Mrs. Crosby's time. The balance she divides among her several interests.

She is a member of the Presbyterian Church, the Woman's Club and the Wednesday Morning Study Club. She also enjoys painting.

The family, which includes her husband, Eugene, and their two sons, Robert, 19, and Russell, 15, share a mutual interest and enthusiasm during the winter for skiing.

Mrs. Eugene Crosby

Christmas Tree Buying Tips

The Christmas trees are now on the lots ready for sale to you. There will be a good supply this year. For best selection you may wish to purchase your tree early then store it out of doors in a pail of water.

There are several varieties of trees on the market, some kinds are noted for longer keeping quality and greater beauty.

The most popular and readily available Christmas tree is the Scotch Pine. You can identify this tree by its needles which are 1-3 inches long and grow two in a cluster. The needles are sharp and branches grow in definite whorls.

These are grown on plantations in northern Michigan and most of them have been pruned and shaped for several years. The needles will not drop off the tree and the color will stay bright green if it receives water while in the house. Select a tree with a straight trunk and with branches starting high enough so you can insert it in a tree stand without removing lots of branches. Limbs become brittle in cold weather, avoid broken limbs. Trees flattened from hauling usually recover their shapes.

Scotch pines often yellow if not harvested at the right time. They should be cut in late October or early November. Other common varieties are the Balsam Fir and the Spruces.

The Balsam Fir tree has a good color, pleasant odor, and good needle-holding ability. These grow wild in northern Michigan. They may be cut from the tops of large forest and swamp trees. The boughs of this variety is excellent for decorations. To identify a Balsam Fir examine the needles — they will be 1 1/2 inches long, one-in-a-cluster. The twigs and branches often appear flat. When crushed the needles have a distinctive Christmas tree odor.

The Spruces are the old traditional Christmas trees. Spruces have a short 1 1/2 inch long needle, one-in-a-cluster. The crushed needles give off an unpleasant odor. The tree branches or twigs are covered with needles. THE SPRUCES DROP NEEDLES READILY. SO THEY MUST BE CUT FRESH.

If you desire a Scotch Pine or Balsam Fir Christmas tree it may be purchased now, stored in water out-of-doors before Christmas.

For safety always keep your tree in water while it is in the house.

Swimmers Rebound With 78-27 Victory

The strange fates that control such things bring about a curious coincidence tomorrow evening when Plymouth High swimming coach John McFall escorts his team to Belleville where the Rocks will take on a squad coached by a former Plymouth swimming great. Belleville mentor Bill Brandell, twice an All-American prep swimmer, is a 1957 graduate of Plymouth and one of the most outstanding youngsters ever to swim under the eye of McFall, who has had his share. A specialist in the 200- and 400-yard freestyle events, Brandell helped Plymouth to a long string of victories before his graduation. But tomorrow night it will be a different story as Brandell will seek to put a halt to Plymouth's one-meet winning streak. Two weeks ago the Rocks were handed a narrow 53-48 defeat by visiting Birmingham Seaholm and a 39-meet victory skein was ended. However, the Plymouth swimmers resumed their winning ways last Thursday evening with an easy 78-27 decision over Allen Park. It may not be so easy in 24 hours at Belleville, where Brandell, a 1961 graduate of the University of Michigan will haunt his former high school coach. However, Plymouth was impressive against Allen Park. The Rocks limited the Parkers to a meager 27 points and permitted not one first place finish by an Allen Park swimmer. Highlight of the meet was Dick Michaels' victory in the 100-yard backstroke. With a time of :57.9, Michaels broke not only his own Plymouth pool record but also bettered the State Meet standard, which is :58.5. Although the time will go up on the big board at one end of the Plymouth pool as a local record, it will not be recognized as a state record since this must be accomplished in the State Meet itself. Elsewhere during the Allen Park encounter, Plymouth looked similarly impressive. Dick Taylor showed encouraging improvement as he finished second behind teammate Barry Corwin in the 100-yard butterfly. And Win Schrader performed well as he won the 200-yard freestyle. Dave Beglinger, third man on the four-member 200-yard medley relay team, also served notice that he's on an upswing. Scoring for Plymouth: Dick Alford, first, and George Collins, third, in the 400-yard freestyle. Gary Gould, first, and Ron Peck, third, in the 50-yard freestyle. Corwin, first, and Taylor, second, in the 100-yard butterfly. Michaels, first, in the 100-yard backstroke. Phil Bender, first, in the 100-yard breaststroke. Gould, first, and Schrader, second in the 100-yard freestyle. Mark Schultheiss, first, and DeWayne Stephenson, second, in the diving competition. Corwin, first, and Bender, second, in the 200-yard individual medley. Schrader, first, and Alford, second, in the 200-yard freestyle. In the 200-yard medley relay, Plymouth's team of Michaels, Dennis Knapp, Beglinger, and Ken Fischer was first in a time of 1:54.2. The foursome of Jim Mattison, Rich Malboeuf, Tom Blunk and Al Larson were first in the 200-yard freestyle relay in a time of 1:44.8. As a double winner, Gould paced the Plymouth attack with 10 points. Plymouth, which currently boasts a 2-1 record, will pause in its schedule after the Belleville meet tomorrow until Jan. 4 when Livonia-Bentley visits the Rocks' pool.

Junior Varsity Swimmers Dump Allen Park, 60-29

Plymouth's junior varsity swimming team scored a 60-29 victory over Allen Park's Jay-Vee squad last Thursday evening to balance its record at 1-1 thus far in the season. Earlier the junior Rocks had lost to Lincoln Park in the opener. Against Allen Park Doug Breed and Jim Beglinger, each with double victories and 10 points a piece, shared individual honors for Plymouth. Scoring for Plymouth was accomplished by:

Breed with a first in the 400-yard freestyle; Beglinger, first, and Dan Cook, second, in the 50-yard freestyle; Mike Britcher, first, in the 100-yard butterfly; Mark Keith, first, in the 100-yard backstroke; Dave Scott, third, in the 100-yard breaststroke; Dan Cook, second and Chuck Berry, third, in the 100-yard freestyle; Jim Norman first, and Chuck Ruge, second, in the diving competition; Beglinger, first and Jeff Hoffman, third, in the 200-yard individual medley; Breed, first, and John Bowsman, second, in the 200-yard freestyle. Both 200-yard medley relay teams were disqualified and no points were awarded in that event, but Plymouth's foursome of Bob Myers, Bob Murdock, Rick Ott and Don Norman won the 200-yard freestyle relay.

Frosh Cagers Post Decisive 50-32 Victory

Giving evidence that the next crop of basketball players may be what Plymouth partisans have been seeking, the Rocks' freshman team opened its season last Friday with a convincing 50-32 victory over visiting Northville. The local cagers were in command all the way as they fashioned a 15-4 first quarter margin, stretched it to 25-12 at the half and opened the fourth period with a 39-21 edge. Scoring honors for Plymouth went to Gary Grady with 22 points. Jim Lake had 10, Don Cranford scored six, Jim Bruff five, Dave Tidwell four, and Jeff Thomas three. The Plymouth Frosh next play on Jan. 5 when Livonia Junior High is the opponent.

Junior Rocks Look Sharp In 1st Game

After a so-so display for three quarters, Plymouth's junior varsity basketball squad caught fire in the final period last Friday night, pumped in a sudden 20 points, and flattened the Allen Park Jay-Vees, 50-45. It evened the junior Rocks' season record at two wins against two defeats. Led by Dick Egloff and Caleb Luibrand, the Rocks overcame a 35-30 deficit in the closing eight minutes. Egloff, who played the last quarter with four personal fouls charged to him, dumped in eight points over that span, while Luibrand scored five points in the last few moments to make things that much easier. The game started on a dreary note from a spectator standpoint as the two teams combined for only nine points in the first quarter. Plymouth fashioned a meager 5-4 lead during the first period. At halftime, the score stood at 19-19, but in the third frame Allen Park surged ahead 35-30. Plymouth's recovery in the last minutes permitted the Rocks to forge their winning margin. Jerry Kisabeth paced Plymouth with 14 points but relinquished individual scoring honors to Allen Park's Ralph Sinker, who had 20. Egloff wound up with 10 and Luibrand emerged with seven points. Frank Gulbrandson contributed six to Plymouth's winning effort. Two weeks ago, the junior Rocks suffered a 38-37 loss to Walled Lake in a game not previously reported. Friday the Jay-Vee's host Belleville at 6:30 p.m. and then will pause in their schedule until after the holidays.

Hockey Midgets Come From Behind, Win 5-4

Plymouth's Midgets, a VFW-hockey team, evened their record last Saturday with a comeback from behind 5-4 win over River Rouge. Trailing 3-2 at the start of the third period, Plymouth scored three goals to gain the victory. Earlier in the season Plymouth had suffered a 6-2 defeat at the hands of Maul Mfg. Co., of Detroit. In the River Rouge contest, Tom Lockwood paced Plymouth with two goals while Skip Otwell, Randy Sharland and Larry Oldford each posted single tallies. Tomorrow evening at 9:30 on the Garden City ice, Plymouth's senior hockey team will take on Garden City in other hockey competition. RED CROSS SERVES 25 The American Red Cross, a Community Fund agency, provided service to 25 families from Plymouth in 1960. This constitutes services around a variety of problems such as health and finances for servicemen and veterans.

SPORTSEEN

By Jerome O'Neil

Few — if any — of the evenings throughout the year can compare in wondrous excitement to that of Christmas Eve. And this Sunday night will be no exception. By and large, thoughts and actions will be devoted:

- ... To last-minute gift shopping.
- ... To gift-wrapping as children sleep.
- ... To Christmas Tree decorating.
- ... And to other Christmas seasons of years past.

And while the excitement of Christmas Eve will invade the children the most, it will have its own special effect upon parents and adults. And they may find themselves recalling memories similar to these, based upon:

The Sled —
Whose bright red runners and varnished wood made a centerpiece for youthful eyes beneath a Christmas tree long ago. And which later seemed to fairly fly down a snow-covered hill at Cass Benton. And which, on a final instance, could not withstand the combined weight of father and son once, and a runner collapsed, and afterwards the boy cried and was angry, too, and the father was contrite.

The Bicycle —
Which perhaps was a companion-piece to the Sled that same December and which later seemed to be the best bike in the neighborhood. And which had pedal blocks because the legs of its owner were not quite long enough yet. And which once figured in a precarious race down Boy Scout Hill, hit a ditch, and the boy was hurled over the handlebars. And the fork was bent and the bike had to be pushed home by the boy, who was unhurt. But the bike was never quite the same.

The Friend —
Who poured a neat toast one holiday season in Birmingham in honor of another young man who had admitted that marriage was about to claim him. And later, it was fortunate, the girl accepted and The Friend was best man and it marked the beginning of further happiness.

A Girl —
Who lay uncomfortably one Christmas Eve in a Boston hospital bed and who had earlier lost most of her hands and part of her face and her legs in the flames of an airplane crash. And who was clumsy as she tried to open insignificant presents. And it was hard for her to smile through the bandages and she was on the verge of tears, and her parents were, too. And the young man and his wife visited with The Girl and lighted and held her cigarette and helped her eat a piece of Christmas cake. And driving home later as muted Christmas Carols filled Boston Common, the young man and his wife shared a deep sense of humility and compassion and love for others. And the spirit of Christmas somehow seemed more meaningful.

And these are remembrances and Sunday is another Christmas Eve. And there will be other sleds and bikes, and other friends. And badly-burned girls in other hospital beds. And these, too, will someday be memories.

Two Seem Favored In Cage Race

While Allen Park emerged a 63-57 winner over Plymouth last Friday in Suburban Six league opening action, the four other member schools in the circuit were also unveiling their shares of league responsibility. And if one night is any measure at all, the key to the Suburban Six crown should rest somewhere between the Allen Park quintet on one hand and powerful Redford Union on the other. For Redford Union made it look much too easy in defeating Livonia-Bentley, 53-33. Redford Union and Bentley last year shared the league basketball crown, but this winter Redford Union is prepared to do a solo act while Bentley may be fortunate to finish in the first division at all. Elsewhere last Friday night Belleville fashioned its initial victory of the season at the expense of hapless Trenton, 51-6. Trenton, once a strong perennial contender for league laurels, this year finds its basketball pendulum swinging far to the other way. It has yet to win a game. After the six schools engage in Friday night's session of games, all will take a rest from their league schedule until early in January when classes resume.

The current standings:

Allen Park	1	0
Redford Union	1	0
Bentley	1	0
PLYMOUTH	0	1
Trenton	0	1

Allen Park Adds Plymouth To Growing List of Victims

Sparked by a pair of guards who may be the best yet to appear on the Suburban Six basketball scene, Allen Park last Friday night, added Plymouth High to its growing list of 1961-62 victims. In so doing, the Parkers also served ample notice as to their intentions regarding this winter's race for the conference crown. With an offense centered around a hard-driving and high-scoring back-court combination comprised of Roger Roman and Les Mihalyfy, Allen Park displayed the necessary ingredients to legitimately claim the tag of "team-to-beat" in the current Suburban Six cage scramble. Despite the loss — by a 63-57 margin — Plymouth showed further improvement and even kept pace with Allen Park during three periods. In fact, as the fourth quarter got underway the score was deadlocked at 53-53 and things were still in doubt. But suddenly Plymouth turned stone cold and could muster only four more points, far from sufficient to overcome long-starved Allen Park in its quest for victory.

Understandably disappointed at losing, Plymouth cage coach Charlie Ketterer was none-the-less pleased with the Rocks' encouraging efforts. "But it's tough to be a loser, regardless," he remarked later. He could take heart from the fact that a loss to Allen Park may not be the most bitter pill other league coaches will be forced to swallow this winter. With the addition of this defeat, Plymouth's season record fell to 1-3. As in all of its games thus far this winter, Plymouth fashioned an early lead and then failed to hold on to it. The Rocks shaped a 19-14 first quarter margin, but trailed at intermission, 30-37. It was the first time this winter that Plymouth had not left the floor at half-time with a lead of one sort or another. The two teams were even in the third period but the closing minutes of the game were decisively Allen Park's. Costly errors again contributed considerably to Plymouth's defeat. The Rocks lost the ball 17 times on violations or bad passes. "Each mistake of that type in this league costs half a point," Ketterer explained after the game. It represented the difference between winning and losing, as it turned out. Plymouth outscored Allen Park from the free throw line but lost ground in field goals. The Rocks cashed 19 of 29 free tosses, while the Parkers scored 17 of 26 attempts. From the floor, Allen Park hit on four more field goal attempts, 23-19. Allen Park's stunning guard combination, which a week earlier had scored 49 points against Lincoln Park, was slowed somewhat by Plymouth's defensive tactics. Mihalyfy got 18, for individual honors, and Roman contributed 12. Eloy Menchaca, Plymouth's floor captain, did a good job in guarding Roman, who got only two points in the entire second half. But Mihalyfy more than made up for Roman's ineffectiveness.

Allen Park forward Al Chumita chipped in with 16 to make things easier for the winners. Dan Stremick, who scored nine points from the pivot position for Plymouth, also was a stand-out on defense. But Dave Gotthard claimed scoring honors for the Rocks with 12. Other scoring was accounted for by: Jim Dart with 11; Menchaca with nine; Tom Lock with eight; Mike Kisabeth with six; and Dave Jensen with two. Plymouth closes out the 1961 portion of its season Friday night with a match against Belleville here. The game will start at 8 p.m., following the junior varsity encounter. In January, as action resumes after the holidays, Plymouth will play four out of six games at home, which will lend some advantage. Bentley hosts the Rocks on Jan. 5 and Farmington visits on Jan. 6. Redford Union, the other prime contender for league laurels, hosts Plymouth on Jan. 19 in the only other away game for the Rocks next month.

On Wednesday 25 ladies attended the meeting of the Mission Society of the Lutheran Church held at the home of Mrs. Walter Ebert. Following the business meeting Mrs. Ebert was assisted by Mrs. William Last, Mrs. Jack Waldecker, Mrs. William Esch, Mrs. Fred Bartz, Mrs. Gus Meyers and Mrs. Bertha Manzel in serving refreshments and in the exchange of gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Giles were hosts to their "500" Club Monday evening at the Blunk Ave. home. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Hood, Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfrom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wolfrom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bredin, Mrs. Violet Quackenbush and Charles Bentley.

VFW Auxiliary

We welcomed two new members into the Auxiliary at the last meeting. They are Ann Totten and Joanne Barber, wives of post members. We are happy to have these new girls with us.

The membership drive is lagging a little at this point. It was reported at the last meeting that only an approximate 50 percent had paid dues for the next year. Cancer insurance will lapse on any member who has not paid her dues by December 31, 1961.

Hospital chairman, Marion Skoglund, reported that cigarettes would be passed out at Maybury Saturday, December 16. Keep track of the hours you work in any State and County Hospital, any rest home or convalescent home and turn the hours in to Marion. Awards are being given this year for accumulated hours of hospital work. If you contact Marion, she will advise whether or not you have enough hours to be eligible.

Our Girl Scout troop is going to help provide food for the basket for the needy family again this year. The Christmas basket is going to be given to family with 10 children that is badly in need of assistance. Clothing has been collected for the family taken care of at Thanksgiving time and will be given to them this week, too.

If you have a boy 13 or under who is interested in learning how to play hockey, contact Jim McKindles. There are still openings for new players, and this is a fine way to have your boy start playing hockey under proper supervision.

We regret that Rosemary Kooman is leaving us and moving to Muskegon. We have enjoyed having her as an Auxiliary member and hope she will come back and visit often. Betty England is going to finish the year as Community Service chairman.

Commander Luttermoser and President Olson placed a wreath on Plymouth Rock commemorating Pearl Harbor Day. This wreath was donated for the occasion by Heide's Greenhouse. We would like to express our thanks to Mr. Ruehr for the wreath. Mr. Ruehr has been giving the wreath to the Auxiliary for several years to help us honor those who gave so much 20 years ago.

Happy holidays to each of you — see you at the first meeting in '62.

Mrs. Paul J. Wiedman

The Christmas Corner

By Jean Campau

Mrs. Paul Wiedman, shown here in the spacious garden room of her 47650 N. Territorial Rd., home had a galaxy of Christmas creations and ideas to pass along to Mail readers this week.

Her pretty Rose Tree is composed of a painted flower pot or round container filled with plaster of Paris. In this she sinks a part of a foil covered broom handle (or a dowel could be substituted). A large round foil-covered styrofoam ball, is centered on the stick. For a gay and bright effect, tinsel bows and separated sprigs of artificial roses and leaves add the finishing touch to what becomes an eye-pleasing holiday decoration. Total cost is approximately one dollar.

A third of a circle of foil-covered cardboard, draped in pink net becomes the body of an angel. Tinsel hair, wire shaped into a crown and dotted with silver beads adorns the ping pong ball head of this celestial creature. Glitter trim may be added by first dampening the fabric with hair spray and putting the glitter on while still damp.

For a clever table piece start with a milk glass compote into which plaster of Paris has been poured. Imbed in this artificial fruit and clusters of grapes. When the arrangement is pleasing, spray entire piece with white spray paint. When dry, lightly spray again with gold paint, for a dappled look. With a sprig or two of fir boughs this fruit compote is quite arresting.

Using cake cardboards purchased from the bakery, Mrs. Wiedman cuts out the center and has the perfect foundation for macaroni wreaths. Combining a variety of shapes, these are fun to do and can be used as hanging wreaths or centerpieces.

To make a frothy Christmas tree, use a conical piece of styrofoam for the base, (the one pictured has been halved), one yard of net and artificial flowers or Christmas ornaments. Cut the material five inches wide by the width of the cloth and pinch together, accordion fashion. Attach in rows, beginning at the base, and secure with bobbie pins. When styrofoam is entirely covered decorate to taste with trim. Finally, sink dowel in base of tree and other end in a foil-covered pot or painted container.

A Chianti wine bottle is transformed into a pastel pretty by swishing poster paint around inside, adding a twisted candle, high-lighted with gold, a bow and a matching cluster of ornaments.

But of all the lovely ideas she had, the piece de resistance, in our opinion, was Mrs. Wiedman's perfectly gorgeous red net Christmas tablecloth. That it makes a breath-taking table setting, there is no doubt.

The cloth requires two and a half yards of 54 inch red cotton net, one third of a yard of white felt, a little less than eight yards of white metallic braid and several packages of gold sequins.

Six petals, three inches long form the poinsettias with circles the size of a quarter making up the center. Each petal and center is edged with sequins. The final step is to sew on the braid along the outer edges.

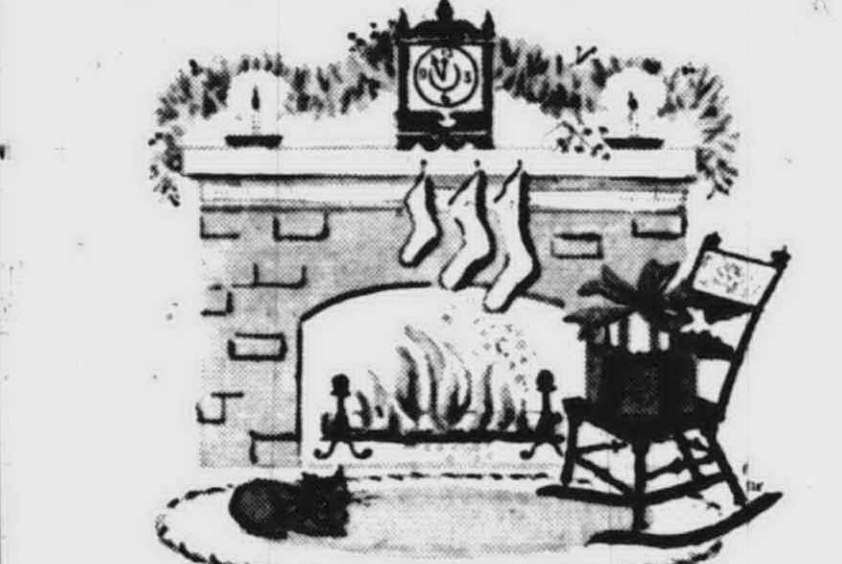

On her table, under the net, the merry Mrs. Wiedman, places a cloth, the same size, of red satin. Though, she says, a sheet dyed red, serves the same purpose.

Whichever one you decide upon, the effect is utterly elegant.

Her special interests are toward gardening and making things grow when the season is right and creating things with her hands the rest of the time. She has also been instrumental in organizing six Farm and Garden Clubs throughout the neighboring area.

The first man-made snow storm in the United States was made by air, dropping dry ice on clouds over Mount Greylock, Mass., in 1946.

The Professor Sez...

by Ed Brown

If one has certain beliefs as to the real meaning of Christmas it can be such a wonderful holiday season. Christians everywhere, who understand its true significance seem more forgiving, more charitable, and more understanding at this time of the year. Wouldn't it be real nice if everyone could feel this way throughout the year?

THE GAY lights, tree trimming, Santa Claus — all are a definite part of Christmas, but each should have its place, and we should not forget that Christmas should also mean love, friendship, understanding and brotherhood. The fellowship of sharing and helping where we can, and of doing unselfish things for the good of mankind, should mean so much more than the other things involving Christmas.

Many children think of Christmas as meaning Santa Claus, presents, nuts and candy, and a big meal in a holiday setting. We cannot blame the children for this kind of thinking if we stress the above things, and not the real meaning of Christmas. Some parents spend much more time telling their offspring about Santa Claus, than they do about the birth of Jesus. There are also some families, who, because of religious convictions, do not believe in Christmas at all.

MANY YEARS ago, as a lad in the country, I remember what a joyous time we had at Christmas. I cannot remember one without a lot of snow. Usually only the immediate family was present, and, in the afternoon we would get out the old cutter, or maybe the bob-sleigh, and go calling on nearby relatives and neighbors to bid them a cheery "Merry Christmas." How many of you have ever ridden behind a bob-sled and heard the bells, which were fastened to the harness of the horses, "a-tingling" in the still air, and the crunching of the snow under the sleigh runners and the horses' hooves? What a wonderful sound — and memory!

We used to have a little program in the old brick schoolhouse — what a big night this was for the farmer children and their parents — and the pieces we had to recite from the plank platform that had been constructed for the occasion. We spent the week before Christmas practicing for the program, making popcorn balls, making paper chains, and decorating the tree that the bigger boys had cut from the nearby woods.

The present-day fire regulations enforcers would have been "flabbergasted" at all the decorations on the tree, and with real lighted candles on the branches. Also the people crowded together in the back of the one-room school. However, a couple pails of water were always placed near the tree in case of fire.

WHERE DID all this tree-trimming and card sending start anyway? I have read where the first Christmas card was printed and mailed at Albany, N.Y., in 1853. It was used as an advertisement for the printed goods of R.J. Pease, a businessman of that day.

It wasn't until about 1875 that cards began being used extensively. It has been estimated that the business has grown until now around 300 million cards are sold annually.

THE FIRST record of a trimmed Christmas tree in the United States occurred during the American Revolution. Hessian soldiers from Germany, fighting on the side of the British, used them at Christmas time.

Americans did not take to the idea until around 1850, when the custom was adopted in Cleveland, Ohio.

According to the latest statistics 45 million trees will be cut this year in this country.

EVERY YEAR the question is raised, "Is Christmas becoming too commercialized?" And there are those who say, and maybe rightly so, "Let's put Christ back into Christmas."

Since the beginning of history certain factions have used various means of promoting a project, a sale, or an idea. Sometimes for individual gain, and sometimes for the betterment of civilization.

At times I think this gets out-of-hand, especially when too much emphasis is placed upon the commercial aspect, and not enough on the real meaning of Christmas. In other words, it gets a little out-of-balance.

I WAS IN downtown Detroit on Saturday, Nov. 18 — the weekend before Thanksgiving. At that time I saw many stores with most of the Christmas merchandise already on display in the showcases. I imagine that with competition being what it is, some stores like to get the "jump" on the others and thereby realize a little more profit.

All this makes one kind of wonder — has our society progressed to such a point that competition has to be met by any possible means? Even if we have to exploit religious holidays to do it? Is all this necessary for economic security or survival? I'm sure I do not know the answers, but we can all have our own personal thoughts on that matter.

I do believe along with promoting the commercial aspects, we should give more thought to the real meaning of the season. I think the world needs this today more than anything else.

WHAT EVER happened to... The all-around athlete who voted the most valuable football player at PHS in 1951? He played in the backfield, could really get a quick start, and he could plunge for four or five yards "at a crack" whenever it was necessary.

This "gent" also starred in baseball and basketball, and still plays recreation basketball in the winter, and softball during the summer months.

Last year he graduated from Lawrence Tech, and is now employed by the Ford Motor Company.

He married the former Donna Hunt, and they reside at 570 Blank Street in Plymouth. They have been blessed with three charming daughters, Debbie, 8; Duree, 7; and Dawn, who is one year old.

This "pappy" is now president of the Starkweather PTA. His name — David Travis.

"No matter how grim the world looks, we find fresh encouragement each year — about the time the kids start writing confidential letters to Santa Claus." — Preston S. Foster, Elmer (N.J.) Times.

"Remember the old days — when they said legalizing and taxing liquor would provide enough revenues to run the government?" — Curtis Whaley, Powell (WYO.) Tribune.

"Time was when the price of a Christmas tree was five cents a tree — and the buyer figured on paying for one out of six." — Leon W. Berry, Bingen (Wash.) Mt. Adams Sun.

"Winter must be close at hand. Last week we noted two hoboes riding a Santa Fe gondola." — Ward Lowe, Lometa (Tex.) Reporter.

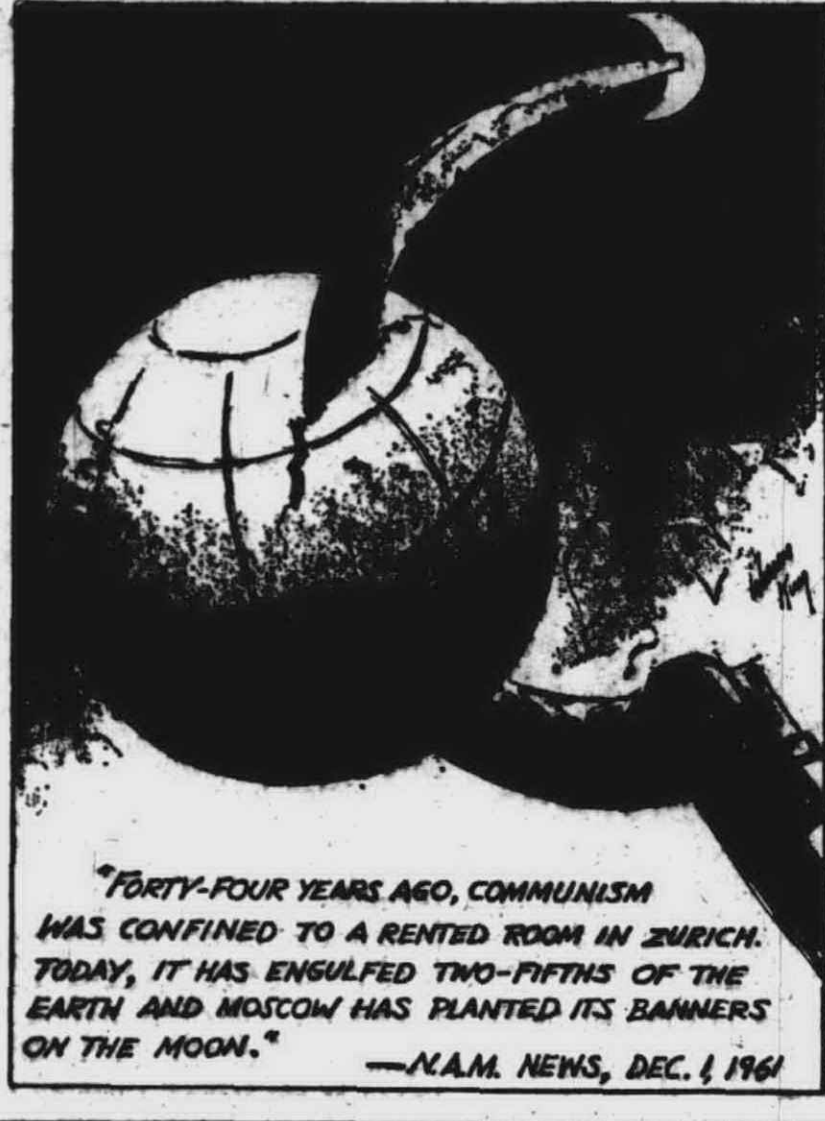

"That south wind whipping across the playing field at Bethany Friday night was colder'n a Klondike well-digger's toes." — Hershel Smith, Lindsay (Okla.) News.

"The United States has a new therapy for world problems: Spending. As a neo-philosopher recently said, the idea prevails in Washington, if you throw money at your problems, they disappear." — H. Sedoff, Portage (Pa.) Dispatch.

One More Reminder

Christmas shopping done, greeting cards mailed out, and only hours away from the most joyous holiday season of the year!

For the most of us, that it. Not so for too many others — the sick, the homeless, the lonely.

Any of these situations — alone, without a home, ill — are bad enough singly.

But there are some who come under all three categories.

Many of these persons are tuberculosis patients — many confined to Herman Kiefer Hospital in Detroit or Maybury Sanatorium in Northville.

The TB & Health Society, Wayne County's Christmas Seal organization, is doing everything it possibly can to bring Christmas cheer not only to the sick, the homeless and the lonely but to those who are on the mend, anxiously awaiting the day when they can return to their home and to their own family circle.

Many persons responded to an appeal for Christmas gifts for the patients — a combined total of 1500 in the two hospitals, nearly 200 of them children.

This is good, and typical of persons who reside in the Metropolitan Detroit.

But it isn't enough. A less dramatic but a more important Christmas gift, not only to the present patients but to those still to come is a contribution for Christmas Seals.

Funds raised by the sale of Christmas Seals are helping to eradicate TB, a feat which could be accomplished in 10 years if enough money is available.

Nearly 700,000 Christmas Seal Letters were sent out in mid-November. Many of them contained a picture of Shirley, a one-year-old girl patient at Maybury Sanatorium. Her message was:

"Is there room for me on your Christmas List?" With Christmas upon us, let us not forget to answer those Christmas Seal Letters.

So that in 10 years, perhaps, little girls like Shirley won't be affected by this most dangerous of all communicable diseases.

How's Business?

New Orders On Upswing

By Roger W. Babson's Staff

One of the most reliable barometers of changes in business conditions is the volume of Manufacturers' New Orders. The inflow of new orders received by manufacturers normally turns downward before the economy shows signs of faltering. Conversely, when the economy is in the throes of a recession, the rate of orders tends to turn upward in advance of any improvement in general business.

Compencing in February of this year, the seasonally adjusted volume of new orders has shown a steady increase each month. It is remarkable, and indeed significant, that the rise has been persistent and vigorous. In January 1961, the rate of new orders received by manufacturers was $28.5 billion. In October, the latest figure available at this writing, the rate of receipts had risen to $32.7 billion. This represents an increase of nearly 15 percent.

Taking this barometer by itself, it would be difficult to infer anything but an optimistic outlook for business. Considering the strength and steadiness of its uptrend, it is possible that public sentiment may be underestimating the underlying vitality present in our economy. This is particularly true since a major share of the increase in new orders has been in the durable goods sector. It is the intensity of demand for durable goods which is likely to turn a period of rising business into a boom. Another telling feature of the new orders picture is that the uninterrupted rise in demand has been accomplished during a period when purchases of most commodities were being done on a hand-to-mouth basis.

On the basis of the uptrend in manufacturers' orders, the outlook favors higher levels of industrial production and manufacturers' sales in the months ahead. This should also be reflected in firmer price structures and a further improvement in business profits.

Voice of the Mail

Late Letter to Old St. Nick

Dear Santa: Hope we aren't too late getting in our little request for this Christmas. We here at The Plymouth Mail don't want anything special ourselves, except a happy and satisfied group of readers who feel that they are getting their dime's worth out of our newspaper each week.

But looking around our community, we see some other folks who could use a little help and who may have forgotten to write you. When you are loading up your sack this year, Santa, would you please throw in a nice new community center and auditorium. Our City Fathers would also appreciate a new City Hall.

Also in the City, motorists would appreciate an underpass or overpass at the Main St. railroad crossing, and perhaps a few other places, if you have some of those things to spare. We know of a lot of folks who would also like having their streets paved.

Our merchants would also appreciate it very much if you could arrange to keep their stores filled with customers, fill the empty store buildings with bright new shops and replace some of our older store buildings with new ones. And somehow Santa, could you gather up the pigeons that perch on our buildings, factories and water towers and deliver them to some park desperately in need of these nice little birds?

Our Plymouth Township officials may have been too busy to write you, but we are sure that they would have no objections if you installed more water and sewer mains throughout the Township and paid the bill for that shiny new fire truck that they ordered last week. There are lots of folks in Canton Township, too; that would appreciate a few water mains at their front doors.

We don't want to forget our Board of Education, Santa. They will soon be needing more money to open a new school and to raise teachers' salaries. If this can be done without raising taxes next year, lots of folks will surely think you're a kindly fellow, Santa.

Our Chamber of Commerce wouldn't object at all if you could persuade an industry or two to open their doors here.

While you're over Lansing-way, Santa, would you please leave our Legislators a little handbook on how to balance the budget and give the Con-Con delegates a lot of wisdom for the important decisions facing them?

But, in case you can't pack all of these requests into your sack next Sunday night along with all of the toys that you must carry for the boys and girls, we would gladly settle for one item, Santa — "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

Christmas Day, for the Pilgrims in Plymouth back in those early days, was just another day. Johnnie Robinson, our spiritual leader in 1620, told us Christmas was a "human invention," a holdover from the pagan Roman days. Nowhere in the Scriptures did it indicate that such a day should be celebrated.

AS A RESULT, Saint Nick skinned right by Plymouth and the colonial kids. They had to get up and do their chores on Christmas. Why you could even be fined if you were caught observing any of the traditional "goings-on" that might have been witnessed while they were living in England.

Of course, some of the sailors, not belonging to the Plymouth Colony tried to invite us out to the Mayflower on that first Christmas evening for a mug or two of beer. Since many of them belonged to the Church of England, their thoughts were a bit more of a traditional nature and given to feasting on Christmas Day. Made the saintly Pilgrims on shore all the more miserable as they, no doubt, imagined the sailors swilling down those spirits while they huddled in their huts trying to keep out the rain and bitter wind.

NOWADAYS if ye get to deploring the crass Christmas conditions, think twice before ye advocate going back to those bleak, colonial Christmas-less conditions.

Fight Over Billboard Looms

By Elmer E. White

An uphill battle looms ahead for the State Highway Department in its attempt to prevent Michigan's roadways from becoming part of a billboard jungle. Highway Commissioner John C. Mackie recently reminded businessmen and organizations throughout the state that state law and federal highway regulations prohibited signs on highway right-of-way.

Legislation to restrict the size, number and type of signs which could be placed along Interstate routes was proposed in the 1961 session. It failed passage in the regular legislature and a special session.

AN UPSHOT OF the proposal was an interim committee to study whether such legislation was necessary or desired. Representatives of garden clubs, chambers of commerce and individual commercial interests testified before the committee.

General agreement was voiced that some control should be imposed to keep the quality of signs high, the size somewhat uniform and the quantity limited. The business interests disagreed, however, with highway officials and beauty lovers on what size was adequate, and what spacing regulations would be fair.

All agreed, however, that the state law prohibiting signs on the right-of-way should be rigidly enforced. Spot checks of heavily-traveled routes throughout the state showed large numbers of hand-lettered and old rusted signs near the edges of roads.

THE HAND-LETTERED signs generally publicized roadside vegetable or fruit stands in front of a farmer's home. The old, unkempt signs appeared as remnants of advertising campaigns of years gone by.

Mackie estimated between 15,000 and 20,000 signs located "on the right-of-way" would be affected by the crackdown. The letters requested the owners to remove the signs, but the law provides for court action against those who do not comply.

"The response so far has been mostly favorable and there is every indication that the vast majority of sign owners will comply," Mackie said.

ANOTHER legislative committee, however, indicated the department might have some trouble enforcing the cleanup. A committee studying the problems of the tourist industry said several businessmen had complained about the crackdown within hours or days after they received the department letter.

There were also signs that those against the orders would organize their resistance efforts, but it remains to be seen if this will develop into anything effective. If the law is clear, Mackie is on sound ground, and there is little to do but comply either willingly or without enthusiasm.

Class of 1952 Seeks 5 Members

With plans calling for a 10th year reunion on June 9, the Plymouth High School graduation class of 1952 is still searching for five of its 143 members.

Not yet located are: Dick Packard, Neal Boyer, Rosemary Martin, Mary Lou Johnston and Steven Tallian.

This was revealed by Mrs. Derald (Carolyn Smith) McKinley, of 14657 Bradner, earlier this week. She heads a committee charged with locating class members.

She asked that any persons knowing the whereabouts of the five missing '52 graduates contact her.

The June 9 reunion date was established at a recent meeting of committee heads who are already making plans for the reunion program itself.

Mrs. McKinley said that the reunion will be held at the Wayne Community Center.

In the meantime, another planning committee meeting will be held Jan. 13 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert (Joyce Houghton) Grieve, 42454 Schoolcraft.

Class members who would care to attend that meeting are asked to notify either Mrs. McKinley or Mrs. Grieve.

Schedule Urban Renewal Hearing

A public hearing will be held Monday, Jan. 15 on the proposed Mill St. Urban Renewal project which is now nearing its final stages of preparation.

The hearing was set at Monday night's special meeting of the City Commission. If, after the hearing, the Commission decides to move ahead with the project, appraisals of the property to be purchased will be submitted to the government. The government's final approval will be asked.

The Federal Housing Administration has already given its tentative approval to the project. The program calls for purchasing most of the property along the west side of Mill St., from Ann Arbor Trail up to the Bathley Manufacturing property.

After the land would be acquired, buildings would be removed or demolished and the land prepared for industrial sites. The properties abut the C & O Railroad on the west.

Removal of the homes and apartments in the area would also be part of the program. Provisions must be made for relocating residents and this point will be open for discussion at the hearing.

Maps and plats of the project are available at the City Hall for interested parties.

Attention for all those interested in a New Year's Dance. The Post dance will be held at the Hall on New Year's Eve starting at 10 p.m. Eight dollars per couple includes refreshments, lunch, favors and dancing to juke box music. See or call Lou Dely for tickets at GL 3-0151. All members and friends are invited.

Another new member, George Alver, was voted in at the last meeting. Congratulations to him and a most hearty welcome.

Our Post-sponsored hockey team played an exhibition game at the University of Michigan Rink Saturday, Dec. 9 and was beaten by six to two by a good team from Detroit. If the weather stays cold we should be able to see the boys practice on the rink on Farmer St.

The Post membership that was paid-up as of our Dec. 12 meeting was 112, leaving many dues still to be collected by Dec. 31. Get your dues in so that you will not become a delinquent member. If they are not paid before Jan. 1, your family would not be eligible for the National Home, if the need should arise.

A post building committee is being appointed by the commander for formulation plans and means for an addition to the hall. This and many other important issues come up on the Post floor. All members have a voice in what takes place if they come out to the meeting. Our next meeting is Jan. 9. New faces often bring new ideas and suggestions for running and bettering our organization.

Other Post dances coming up will be Feb. 10, the Valentine Dance and March 17, the St. Patrick Dance.

Front Row Center

By George Spelvin

Small packages, long slender boxes, odd oblong containers, and an assorted number of wild, gayly-wrapped objects wait silently under our Front Row Center Christmas tree. Many objects haven't arrived since Santa has yet to make his yearly trip down that proverbial chimney. There are quite enough packages under the Yuletide bush for old George to peek into this week.

Yes, I'm going to defy tradition and open my packages ahead of the scheduled time. Criticize me if you will, but I'm dying to know what might be in those happy-looking containers of Christmas cheer.

A bright green box marked from the Plymouth Theater Guild pops open and reveals a large sign from Director Bob Lucchetti and Producer Barb Elio that says critically, "Merry Christmas from the 'Biggest Thief In Town'." Turn the card over, I find that information on the back tells me that casting for the next Plymouth Theater Guild production will be on the third Monday in January at their regular January meeting. Meetings are always held in the Annex Auditorium of the Plymouth High School. All interested citizens are urged to be present to read for all parts. The Theater Guild auditions are pleasant, painless, and can lead to a load of fun, frivolity, and some genuine moments of real joy. Be sure to be there come January.

An Auditorium?

Ripping the wrapping off a package reveals a small model of a civic auditorium. Who this comes from is a mystery. There is no card. No indication who might be trying to needle old George. As all of you know who have read this column for the past five years, it has been my fond dream that some philanthropic soul might wake up some morning and steal quietly down to the City Council with a big fat check for a Community Auditorium. What a Santa he would be!

A few weeks back your noble editor, Jim Sponseller, penned a polemic pleading the critical cause for a Plymouth auditorium. Let me add a reverential AMEN to his strident sentiments. I'm going to examine the small model with a fine tooth comb. There might be a check stuck to the bottom or inside.

A World Premiere

Clawing my way to the bottom of the pile under the tree, I finally ended up with a package that made sounds as I opened it. And well it might since it was a large carucaceous doll. The doll was dressed in one of the costumes that Gretchen Wyler wears so fetchingly in "Bye, Bye Birdie," currently wowing audiences at the new Fisher Theater.

A short, pertinent note from Jon Essex, flack artist, wished old George holiday greetings. Funny the way he spelled "Christmas." Could have sworn it read "For a happy time order your tickets now for 'No Strings' the Richard Rodgers musical that will be having its World Premiere at the Fisher in January." Okay, Jon, we'll warn all our readers to save out a few dollars for this Special attraction coming to the Fisher in January.

A Penn Package

A vibrating package caught my eye with its crazy convolutions. Gyrating every which way I was afraid to open it. I thought it might contain five free lessons on how to do the "Twist." My curiosity overcame my fear and all that appeared in the bottom of this box was a shrunken pelvic bone. Looking closer I could see that Marge Wilson had etched the following salutation in the middle where the marrow might have been: "Be sure to see Elvis do a Hawaiian rock 'n roll number in his latest at the Penn Theater." Yes, let's face it... Elvis is currently concluding an engagement of "Blue Hawaii" at the Penn.

Two Front Teeth

A small box, neatly-wrapped, occupied my attention. No large items within this jewel case.

features Charlton Heston and Sophia Loren. From all advance reports it sounds like an exciting picture about an era in history that not too much has been filmed. Bill, I believe, was the guy that told me the other day that "Drinking doesn't drown your sorrows, George... it only irrigates them."

Well, there are more packages under the tree, but I see it's time to drop the curtain for this week. I'll be back next week with news of theatrical happenings in the year 1962.

Local Girl Given Honor Art Award

Mary Louise Argo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Argo, 9203 Morrison, Plymouth, has been named an honorable award winner in art in the "Scholarships for the Creative" competition at Michigan State University.

More than 300 high school seniors competed in the new program, initiated to recognize the talents of highly creative boys and girls. Twenty students were recognized.

"In selecting the first winners, we paid less attention to standard test scores and more to the individual creativity the student has exhibited," explained Dr. Gordon A. Sabine, director of admissions and scholarships. Academic departments at the University conducted the scholarship competition.

Dr. Sabine explained that while there has been emphasis lately on scholarships for students interested in the sciences, mathematics, and engineering, the new program should give "more balance" to MSU's total scholarship program.

Winners will receive financial aid according to need. It is hoped the program can be expanded next year, and private funds will be sought for that purpose.
