Family Of 6 Routed By Fire

It was around 2:28 a.m. last Wednesday morning when something aroused Mrs. Gerald Gondek. She smelled smoke and she woke her husband.

Mr. Gondek rushed through the smoke-choked upstairs hallway at the 1158 S. Main St. home and opened the attic door. The attic was filled with flames and he wisely slammed the door.

Arousing their four children, the couple fled the house as Mr. Gondek called the Fire Department.

Outside, they were greeted by the bitter winter cold. Local thermometers registered 11 degrees below zero!

Fire broke through the roof soon after firemen arrived. Ventilating the upstairs by opening windows, firemen fought the fire from the inside and in 30 minutes had it under control.

Deputy Fire Chief Charles Groth said that the fire damage was confined to the attic and the upper part of the second floor, but steam and smoke damage was found throughout the structure. He made no estimate on the loss.

While fire departments often expect some of their worst fires to occur in the coldest weather because of overtaxed furnaces, Deputy Chief Groth said that this fire was apparently caused by a defective light fixture in the attic. "It was probably just a coincidence that the fire took place on the coldest night," he pointed out.

In their night clothes, the Gondeks drove to the home of Mrs. Perry Richwine, on Wilcox Dr. "It took us two hours to get the baby warm," Mr. Richwine later declared.

At the fire, the water turned on the blaze turned to ice within a few minutes. "Once a line was charged with water, we had to keep it open at least at a trickle so that it wouldn't freeze," Groth said. Firemen were covered with ice. Even nozzles on the trucks that weren't used froze up and had to be thawed when firemen returned to the station.

Mr. Gondek, who was once head teller at the National Bank of Detroit office here, is now at the Grand River Branch. Bank employees from three branches brought in children's clothing the next day to hastily outfit the children.

Police Warn Of Impostors Entering Home

A warning was issued this week by Public Safety Director Kenneth Fisher after two men who apparently were impersonating plainclothes policemen asked to be admitted to a home.

Police received the complaint Friday afternoon. The two men knocked at the door of the City home and announced that they were plainclothes "Plymouth policemen" and that they were seeking a man named John Zimmer.

The housewife said that there was no one there by that name, but one pushed his way inside and looked around the livingroom. She said that the other one remained on the front porch. Both were bareheaded, around 40 years of age and were dressed shabbily, she said.

After they left, the housewife called her husband at work, who in turn phoned police.

Fisher said that Plymouth has no plainclothes policemen and that even those in uniform carry identification cards. "No one should allow persons inside just because they claim they are policemen. Other law enforcement agencies may have plainclothes detectives, but they should be able to produce identification, Fisher pointed out.

A TRIPLE proclamation signing ceremony took place when representatives of Canton and Plymouth Townships and the City of Plymouth appealed for support of the first YMCA membership drive in the community. From left, seated, are Canton Treasurer Philip Dingley, Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay and Mayor Robert Sincok. Standing are Arthur Haeske, a YMCA board member, and Board President James Garber.

New YMCA Group Begins First Membership Drive

"Everybody is Talking About It in Plymouth" will be the slogan for Plymouth's first YMCA membership enrollment campaign to be launched this Sunday (Jan. 21), coinciding with the beginning of National YMCA Week.

An attractive brochure has been developed by the program and membership committees, with art work contributed by John Roman, 14461 Oxford Ct. Directors of the association will distribute the brochure through business establishments, organizations, and to friends, with the invitation to join the association.

Name Assistant Principal For Junior High - East

Creation of a new position, that of assistant principal of the Plymouth Community Junior High - East, was approved by the Board of Education Monday night when they named Carl V. Taylor to fill the new position.

He was one of a number of staff members who made application for the position. A teacher in the system for four years, Taylor teaches science and mathematics in the Junior High.

The present Junior High principal, William Harding, will become principal of both the Junior Highs—East and West, when the new school opens next fall at Sheldon Rd. and Ann Arbor Trail. Another assistant principal will be named later this year for Junior High—West.

The administrative set-up for the two Junior High schools will be a temporary one. Only the first phase of the Junior High—West will open in the fall. Until the second phase is completed in 1964, only seventh graders will be housed at Junior High—West and all eighth and ninth graders, at Junior High—East.

When the second phase is completed in 1964, both schools will have seventh, eighth and ninth grades with comparable programs and both schools will have a principal and an assistant principal.

Salary Request
Principals of the elementary schools were at Monday night's special meeting to discuss recommendations concerning elementary music, physical education and art programs. The board also heard a recommendation from the principals for an increase in salary. There were no salary adjustments last year.

No Circus For Fourth Graders

For the first time in eight years members of Plymouth's fourth grades will not be guests of the Suburban Shrine Club at the Shrine Circus in Detroit.

The program, started nine years ago by Walter Beglinger, has been dropped this year because the cost of using school buses makes the total overall costs of tickets and refreshments prohibitive.

"Unless we can find some other method to transport some 400 kiddies to and from the circus, we'll have to bring our program to an end," said Beglinger Tuesday.

Principals are now paid what they received as teachers, plus a sliding scale amount based on how many years they have been a principal. The maximum is now $10,250. The principals recommended that they be paid on a ratio differential above their teacher salaries of 1.35. This would raise the maximum to around $10,867.

Townships Assn. Led By Lindsay

R. Roy Lindsay, who has been Plymouth Township's supervisor since June 1953, was elected president of the Michigan Townships Assn. at its meeting last Friday in Lansing while Canton Township Supervisor Louis-Stein was elected second vice-president.

The association, which claims membership from 1,009 Michigan Townships in all 83 counties, held its week-long Ninth Annual Convention at the Jack Tar Hotel in Lansing. There were 500 delegates attending.

Supervisor Lindsay was a charter member of the association when it was formed in 1953. He was elected to the executive board and later served as treasurer, 3rd, 2nd and 1st vice-president.

The Michigan Townships Assn. has four general meetings a year, plus special meetings and congressional district meetings. Joseph A. Parisi, Jr., is the full-time executive director of the group and serves as its lobbyist in the State Legislature.

The association is currently interested in work of the Constitutional Convention and specifically in obtaining greater taxing powers for townships and avoiding easy annexation provisions. Supervisor Lindsay was appointed Plymouth Township supervisor in 1953 after the death of Charles Rathbun. He has subsequently been elected in 1955, 1957, 1959 and 1961.

The brochure explains how the YMCA, the world's oldest youth serving agency, is autonomous in each community, and how the program undertakes, without duplicating work of other organizations, an all around program of growth for youth, young adults and families.

The YMCA is distinctive in that its membership, through committees, determines the program which best meets the needs of each community through Christian centered activities for all ages. Emphasis, however, is generally in terms of serving youth and families.

Two programs have already been initiated in Plymouth. A Hi-Y Club for High School boys was recently chartered. Fred Meier of the High School faculty is the adviser. During December, five members participated in the annual youth legislature at the Capitol in Lansing, one of several statewide programs sponsored by the State YMCA of Michigan.

It is expected that a Tri-Hi-Y Club for girls will be organized soon. Kenneth Leader, 41079 East Ann Arbor Trail, is chief of the newly organized Y Indian Guide tribe for fathers and sons, the second program to be started.

Other program suggestions included within the brochure are a club for young adults or post high school men and women of the 17 to 25 age group; an industrial management club for supervisors and foremen for the exchange of ideas and experiences within the area of human relations; and to hear out a standing speakers on concerns affecting today's industry; family camping, and the possibility of a health education series for parents and children; as well as a service club for men.

Most people when thinking of the YMCA visualize a building complete with physical facilities. The directors are quick to say, "Although YMCA's have long been associated with attractive buildings, programs are in no sense wholly dependent upon them. Hundreds of YMCA's do not have buildings, with programs being conducted within existing facilities of the community."

The local directors have been assured that the use of community facilities has always been the policy of the YMCA until such time as the local "Y" membership determines that such a building is needed. The membership enrollment campaign will be under the direction of Rudolph Norquist, 11822 Turkey Run; Charles Childs, 42351 Hammill Lane; Robert Baxter, 718 Burroughs and Don Chapman, 14433 Oxford Drive.

Mill Street Renewal Project Sails Along

Residents Offer No Protests at Hearing

Work on leveling 21 buildings that house 17 families and two businesses in the City's Mill St. Urban Renewal project will be started in late spring, residents and homeowners in the area learned during a public hearing held by the City Commissioners Monday night.

The hearing, which will be the only one concerning the project, resulted in no objections but only in inquiries about when the project will begin.

There were 24 people attending the hearing, but only two asked questions. According to the City's Urban Renewal consultant, Edward Husel, the timetable will be something like this:

1. In four to six weeks, the City's final application will be filed and should be approved by the federal government.
2. By mid-March or April 1, owners of buildings should be contacted about purchase.
3. After the purchase agreement has been made, the occupants will be relocated. By June, some of the first buildings should be coming down.
4. Acquisitions should be completed by July or August and the remainder of the buildings leveled.

The Urban Renewal project calls for removal of the homes and buildings, relieving the parcels to make them larger and selling them for small industrial plants.

The cost of the entire project is estimated at $283,000, of which the federal government will pay 75 percent and the City 25 percent ($71,000). The government will even loan the City its share of families remaining in the homes and apartments in the project.

The area covered is on the west side of Mill St., from the Bathy Manufacturing Co. plant to Ann Arbor Trail. The land backs up to the C & O Railroad. Several small plants are already in this area and will be excluded, including a large parking lot owned by Bathey.

Scheduled to be razed with the homes is an old building at Ann Arbor Trail and Mill occupied by the Twin Pines and Ossie's Welding. One of those attending the meeting Monday noted that this property was willed to an aunt by Edward Draugelis said that similar income property would have to be found by the city.

The City must hire an Urban Renewal director, whose duty it will be to relocate the families. The federal government requires that adequate housing be found for the residents. At least one family has moved already and some of the rental units are no longer filled.

Stolen Blank Checks Cashed In for $1,500

Michigan State Police are seeking two Plymouth youths who are believed to have headed for California with some $1,500 that one of them allegedly secured by writing his own payroll checks.

Some 30 blank checks were stolen over a period of time from Finney Aviation Co. at Mettetal Airport. State Police Detective Gerald Corey said that the eldest of the youths filled out many of the checks and cashed them at stores from Ann Arbor to Livonia. They average around $90 each.

The bad checks are still being cleared through banks, Corey said, but the total is somewhere around $1,500. The incident came to light last Thursday. The 17-year-old youth and a 16-year-old companion, who may not have had anything to do with the actual check deal, have fled. Detective Corey said that right now there is just a missing persons bulletin on the pair and that no warrant has been secured.

According to a schedule adopted by the City Monday night, families will be allowed up to $25 a room and not more than $200 total for moving expenses. These expenses are paid entirely by the federal government.

Three resolutions were approved by the City Commission to set this new phase of the Urban Renewal underway. The resolutions declare the necessity of the project and express approval of the development plan.

Pigeon Problem On Perch; City To Buy House

A motion to pigeon-hole a communication about pigeons, a resolution to purchase a home and problems of a freezing furnace were some of the agenda items at the City Commission meeting Monday night.

John Wiltse of Plymouth Community Pharmacy, wrote a letter to the Commission asking if something could be done about the pigeons that perch on the face of Main St. buildings. They used to roost on top of the National Bank building, but the bank had an exterminator apply a substance to their roof which irritated the feet of the pigeons. They fled their roof-top home and now roost on other nearby buildings.

Commissioner William Hartmann said that he believes some measures are now being taken and that the Commission should wait until its next meeting to find out if the Commission should act.

To Purchase Home
A large home on the northeast corner of Harvey and Penniman owned by Mrs. Maude Cooper will be purchased by the City. The City has been trying to buy just a piece of the corner in order to widen the intersection for turning traffic. But eventually the entire corner may be needed for a proposed thoroughfare and parking lot, so the purchase for $27,500 was approved.

Furnace Freezes
Meanwhile, an old home beside the City Hall which the City has owned for many years is causing some headaches. The building was loaned to the Historical Society for use as a historical museum, but during last week's sub-zero weather, the furnace apparently became overworked and a fuse blew out. Pipes, radiators, and furnace burst. The entire heating system was removed before the ice melted. None of the Historical Society items were damaged, but the City now must decide if it wants to install a new system in the old house.

Postpone Peanut Sale to Saturday

Because it was feared that last Saturday's weather would be bitter cold, the annual March of Dimes peanut sale will be postponed until Saturday.

The decision to postpone the sale had to be made Friday while the youngsters could still be reached in school. As it turned out, Saturday was a sunny day and would have been ideal but it was too late to communicate with the 70 teens who have volunteered to participate.

PATROLMAN Calvin Brown is shown obtaining fingerprints from a gun case after a report from Davis & Lent last Friday morning that four revolvers and pistols had been taken from their sporting goods department. The four Colt sidearms had a total value of $243.38. Department Manager Bill Keefer is shown watching the operation. The thieves came in through a skylight, police said.

Supports Request in 53-Page Report

P.E.A. Asks $300 Pay Hike

A warning that 75 teachers in the Plymouth Community School System may seek employment elsewhere unless there is an economic improvement next fall was sounded in a 53-page report presented to the Board of Education last week by the Plymouth Education Assn. (P. E. A.)

The report lists a base salary increase of $300 as one of its main objectives. John Dunigan, president of the P.E.A., and Arthur Mulligan, chairman of the salary committee, read the report and discussed it fully during a two-hour presentation.

The P.E.A. made a poll of its 206 teacher members to determine their feeling on the present pay. Dunigan said that 75 indicated that an improvement had to be made or they would find it necessary to procure employment in other more lucrative occupations or in better paying school systems. Most of these 75 are the 70 male teachers who are supporting a family, Dunigan added.

Last year, there were no salary increases given because of a cut in revenue. Since revenue may not expect to be much greater this year, a salary increase for school employees is possible only through an increase in millage. A millage issue is in early April is anticipated.

Exactly how many dollars or mills the P.E.A.'s recommended increase would cost has not yet been figured out, Board President Harold Niemi said yesterday. "The Board feels that the P.E.A. made a presentation of high caliber, although there will be some areas of questioning."

The Board must move fast in its financial planning for the coming year because a millage issue on the ballot in April is anticipated. "We will first come up with a preliminary budget by the end of this month," Niemi said. "We then want to refer it to a citizens' committee. The budget must consider increased salaries, added services, the cost of opening the new Junior High—West, transportation, custodial staff and more teachers for the new school."

workers in the area's industry. It was found, for instance, that a beginning janitor in seven representative industries receives more than a beginning teacher.

Another section of the report compares salary schedules of Plymouth with 29 others in southeastern Michigan and Plymouth's ranks eighth from the bottom.

In general, these are the demands of the P.E.A. for raising their standards:

1. An increase of base salary of $300. This will raise the starting salary of a beginning teacher with a B.A. degree from $4,700 to $5,000 and an M.A. degree beginner from $5,000 to $5,300. Maximums, after 11 years, would be $7,500 and $8,050.
  2. Some sharing of hospitalization plan costs by the Board of Education.
  3. Contracts for the new school year should be made available no later than April 1. (They are often not ready until June now.)
  4. An optional pay plan giving teachers an opportunity to be paid either during the 21 pay periods during the school year, or 26 periods throughout the year.
  5. Teachers who are requested to teach an extra class should be paid equal to their position on the salary schedule.
  6. Teachers employed for any period not covered by the school year contract (such as summer school) should be paid at their established salary schedule, not on a special schedule.
  7. There should be a clarification of the school calendar in respect to the number of membership and attendance days required for the school year.
  8. There should be a combined monthly communication from the Board and superintendent's office.
- This Saturday morning, the Board is calling a special meeting to discuss the requests further.

Give Postman A Hand By Clearing Off Sidewalks

An appeal to householders to clear ice and snow from their sidewalks and porches was made this week by Postmaster George Timpona following the injury of three postmen in falls.

One carrier broke a wrist, another is believed to have a broken leg and another received lesser injuries as they delivered mail after the recent ice storm.

"Detroit had dozens of carriers injured, some who may be crippled for life," Postmaster Timpona asserted. "And it is all because many householders neglect to clear off their sidewalks — and especially their porches." Most porch steps are slippery whether it be snow or ice.

Junior Rocks Extend League Winning Streak

With a 57-28 conquest of Trenton's Jay Vees, Plymouth's junior varsity basketball squad continued its winning ways last Friday evening — at least as far as Suburban Six opponents are concerned. The Junior Rocks have compiled a sparkling 4-0 record against league opposition this winter but boast of only a 50-30 overall mark of 53.

JayVee coach Dick Bearup was pleased with the performance of his ball club, although Plymouth suffered a number of mental lapses during the contest. "We were aggressive and took advantage of the breaks Trenton gave us," he commented later. The Rocks utilized a full press defensive pattern and upset Trenton's attack considerably.

It was a team victory as 10 of the 12 players that saw action shared in the scoring. Plymouth jumped out to an 18-6 first quarter lead and coasted from there. It was 33-16 at the half and 48-21 at the fourth period got underway.

Substitutes played the third and fourth quarters for the Rocks. Jerry Kisabeth dumped in 13 points to pace the Plymouth attack as Tom McGill contributed 10, and Doug Suderland and Dick Egloff had eight and six respectively.

It was Egloff's first appearance in three weeks. He had been out with ailing feet. Redford Union's junior varsity is next on the list in a game scheduled for Friday night. The Jay Vee contest will begin at 6:30 p.m. The game is at Redford Union.

Cagers Trounce Trenton, Emerge from Cellar

Plymouth's varsity cagers will invade the "lion's den" Friday evening when they journey to Redford Union to take on a ball-club that shares first place in the Suburban Six league. As it appears now, the Redford Union game will materialize as one pitting the "wealthy" against the "poor."

But the Rocks, fresh from a 54-42 victory over Trenton last weekend, may be ready for Redford Union. The decision a gainst Trenton enabled Plymouth to climb out of the conference cellar, a position the Rocks had held since the start of league play five weeks ago.

As it appears now, the Redford Union game will materialize as one pitting the "wealthy" against the "poor." Redford Union, beaten only twice this winter and just once in league play, boasts of a tall team that displays scoring balance and considerable finesse on the floor.

It is a club Plymouth coach Charlie Ketterer has described as being well-equipped "to get the job done." The Rocks, on the other hand, are hampered by a lack of height under the basket and are prone to exhibit serious weakness in their offensive and defensive play.

The Panthers have never been out of the league lead since the season got underway, either resting alone at the top of the standings or begrudgingly sharing the leader's spot with one or more teams.

Plymouth had not seen daylight within the league until Trenton came to town last Friday. Prior to that, Trenton and Plymouth had been cellar-mates.

But the Rocks left Trenton behind Friday night. Plymouth moved into fifth place in the circuit on the strength of relatively steady offensive and defensive efforts. The Rocks scored 25 points in the first half against Trenton and added 29 more in the second half.

It raised Plymouth's season record to 3-5 including a 1-3 conference standing. Although a balanced scoring attack meant much to Plymouth in its victory, two players were singled out for particularly good jobs. . . and both on a basis of their defensive work.

Mike Kisabeth shone on defense, limiting Trenton's high-scoring Dick Helming to only 12 points. Kisabeth collared Helming in the second half, allowing him only four points during that span.

The other standout was team captain Eloy Menchaca, whose poise and floor generalship lent stability to Plymouth during occasional moments of haphazardness. Menchaca, who scored 13 points, bore down on defense, too.

Plymouth moved ahead 10-9 late in the first period and was never in serious trouble after that. The Rocks led 12-9 at the end of the first frame and held a 25-18 margin at intermission.

Menchaca and Dick Schryer led the Rocks, each with 13 points, while Dan Sremick had 11. Helming's 12 points paced Trenton.

Plymouth's free throw percentage once again was acceptable. The Rocks cashed 14 of 23 charity tosses and added 20 field goals. Trenton had 10 of 16 free throws.

The Redford Union game Friday night will begin at 8 p.m. But it's not the start that worries Charlie Ketterer. It's the finish.

Belleville is the other share-holder in the conference lead by virtue of a last-minute victory over Bentley, 53-50. As a result, Redford Union, Allen Park and Belleville hold equal claim to the top spot with 3-1 records.

Elsewhere Plymouth climbed out of the league cellar with a 54-42 victory over Trenton. Allen Park, previously beaten by Redford Union, turned the tables on the Panthers on the strength of a fourth-period rally. Roger Roman, one of Allen Park's sparkling guards, led his team-mate with 18 points but Redford Union's Len LePia took game-scoring honors with 19.

Belleville kept pace with Allen Park and Redford Union by beating Bentley, a team that earlier had upset Allen Park. Belleville's victory was achieved in the final minute.

Plymouth had little trouble with Trenton, which had come to town tied with the Rocks for the bottom position on the league ladder of standings. The current Suburban Six league basketball picture:

SPORTSEEN

By Jerome O'Neil

Dick Michaels, a lithe 17-year-old Plymouth High senior, was a young man in a hurry one Saturday recently.

Foregoing a teen-ager's usual obsession for Saturday morning sleep, Dick arose at a reasonable hour, ate a quick breakfast and spent an hour at the swimming pool at the high school.

Then he drove into Detroit for a doctor's appointment, hastened in mid-afternoon to Ann Arbor to witness AAU swimming meet, returned to Plymouth in time to observe the Rocks as they surprised visiting Farmington.

He managed to find a moment early in the day to outline some mathematical possibilities whereby Plymouth's swimming team in March could — with luck — repeat as titlist in the Class A state swimming meet.

Which is a round-about way of introducing a young man whom swimming coach John McFall describes as the "best back-stroker Plymouth has ever had."

McFall's assessment of Michaels is supported by several impressive facts, all of which lend credibility to the comment.

Not the least of McFall's reasons would be the 64 points that Michaels has scored in Plymouth's 4-3 dual-meet record thus far this winter.

There are others, of course. At the conclusion of last year's swimming season, Dick was accorded double All-America prep swimming honors on the basis of his sharing the 10th best time in the nation in his specialty — the backstroke — and for his membership on Plymouth's 200-yard medley relay team which produced the 13th best time in the country in that event.

Just 13 days ago against Bentley, Dick turned in a backstroke time of 57.8 seconds which ranks as the second best high school time in Michigan in that event this year.

Only Thurston's brilliant Ken Wiebeck with a :57.4 has been able to top it. Of incidental value is the fact that Michaels is unbeaten in the backstroke in 21 dual meets dating back to the start of his junior year. He claimed 16 of those victories last winter and has added five more this season.

Although Dick's allegiance is to the backstroke, his value to Plymouth's swimming team is in his versatility. "Back-strokers make good all-around swimmers usually," observed McFall recently, "and Dick is no exception."

Michaels' success is as wide as his versatility. And his times are all respectable, regardless of the event. In his only attempt at the 400-yard freestyle, he won in 4:36.9. Twice he has claimed the 200-yard individual medley where his best time is 2:17. He was entered once in the 200-yard freestyle, winning handily in 1:59.4.

Pleasantly enough, success rests lightly on Michael's shoulders. And it all began at Round Lake 12 years ago. Dick's father Mel (Plymouth '36) taught his boy the rudiments of swimming and the two of them cavorted every summer at Round Lake where the family cottage is. Dick's mother doesn't swim a stroke.

"I used to look out the cottage window for them and wouldn't see them anyplace," she explained. "Then a head would pop up . . . and then another . . . they always seemed to swim underwater."

It rapidly became more than just "swimming" for Dick. Although as a freshman he was promoted to the varsity late in the season and held the position during his sophomore year, he was swimming behind tested veterans and scored few points.

Trio Tied for Cage Lead

Allen Park caught Redford Union flat-footed last Friday night to throw the Suburban Six league basketball race into a three-way tie. The Panthers upended Redford Union, 54-48.

Belleville is the other share-holder in the conference lead by virtue of a last-minute victory over Bentley, 53-50. As a result, Redford Union, Allen Park and Belleville hold equal claim to the top spot with 3-1 records.

Elsewhere Plymouth climbed out of the league cellar with a 54-42 victory over Trenton. Allen Park, previously beaten by Redford Union, turned the tables on the Panthers on the strength of a fourth-period rally. Roger Roman, one of Allen Park's sparkling guards, led his team-mate with 18 points but Redford Union's Len LePia took game-scoring honors with 19.

Belleville kept pace with Allen Park and Redford Union by beating Bentley, a team that earlier had upset Allen Park. Belleville's victory was achieved in the final minute.

Plymouth had little trouble with Trenton, which had come to town tied with the Rocks for the bottom position on the league ladder of standings. The current Suburban Six league basketball picture:

Prior to the state meet March 9 and 10, Plymouth will encounter its share of equally tough opponents. Dearborn Fordson is here Jan. 27. Royal Oak Kimball will entertain the Rocks on Feb. 6 and Trenton will come to town for a re-match Feb. 15.

Next immediate objective of the Rocks however, will be Redford Union here on Jan. 14 (tomorrow).

Ann Arbor's junior varsity swimmers swamped Plymouth's Jay Vee team last Saturday evening, 77-23, as the Rocks were unable to cope with their opponents' superior all-around depth.

The Rocks were beaten virtually during the opening six events. They gained only a second in the 100-yard backstroke and third place finishes in the other events during that span.

Plymouth's diving duo of John Herter, a ninth grader, and Burt Quinn broke the ice with a first-second in the diving competition, but the Rocks were too far behind by that time for it to have any effect on the eventual outcome.

Scoring for Plymouth was accomplished by: Doug Breed with a third in the 400-yard freestyle; Dick Berry third in the 50-yard freestyle; George Collins, third, in the 100-yard butterfly; Mark Keith, second, and Dan Olson, third, in the 100-yard backstroke; Clyde Blunk, third, in the 100-yard breast-stroke; Jim Mattison, third, in the 100-yard freestyle. After Herter and Quinn captured first and second respectively in diving, Collins added a third in the 200-yard individual medley and Tom Blunk scored a third in the 200-yard relay team was disqualified. And Bob Meyers, Jim Mattison, Dan Cook and Berry finished second in the 200-yard freestyle relay in 1:48.7. The Junior varsity swimmers are now 4-2 for the season.

Frosh '5' Romp With 72 Points

Plymouth's freshmen basketball team extended its unbeaten streak to three Friday afternoon with a massive 72-27 victory over Northville. The Rocks had earlier beaten Northville 50-32. It was the largest point total in one game for the Frosh in the memory of any Plymouth coach. Coach Bryan Boring utilized reserves almost the entire second half after his first team built a 30-10 advantage during the first two periods. Plymouth scored 24 field goals and 24 free throws in the runaway. Dave Tidwell scored 15 points, Jim Lake 14, Roy Chappel 10, Gary Grady eight and Don Stamper seven. The Rocks enjoyed a 58-15 margin at the end of three quarters.

Tax Exemption Forms Available At Chamber

A form that retailers may use for sales that should be non-taxable is now available from the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce office.

Titled "Certificate for Non-Taxable Sales," the form is used by retailers to indicate to tax inspectors what purchasers bought on a non-tax basis.

Five check-off spaces are provided to show the use of the purchase. They are:

1. In connection with the production of horticultural or agricultural products as a business enterprise and agrees to reimburse the seller the sales tax if used or consumed otherwise.
2. As part of a product in manufacturing or processing.
3. By the U.S. government, the State of Michigan and/or their agencies, departments, institutions and political subdivisions to be paid for by government funds.
4. By a resident of another state, and that delivery has been made and ownership transferred at a point outside the state of Michigan.
5. By a religious, charitable, or educational institution not organized for profit.

The form then provides space for a listing of the items and their cost. The name and address of the purchaser then must appear. The forms are available at the Chamber without cost.

'Riverside Drive' Name Official

Official notice was issued this week that Park Entrance Drive in Plymouth Township is now Riverside Drive. The road is a service entrance drive for the Middle Rouge Parkway and runs from Ann Arbor Trail to Edward Hines Dr., just east of the City limits.

Most people who have lived for years along the road have used the name of Riverside Drive. But the Wayne County Road Commission had the name officially recorded as Park Entrance Drive.

Several months ago, the Road Commission placed new road direction signs along Ann Arbor Trail which designated the street as Park Entrance Drive. Residents registered their objection with the Plymouth Township Board, which in turn passed a resolution asking that the County change the name.

The Wayne County Road Commission Board approved a resolution Jan. 4 declaring that the street shall now be known as Riverside Drive "to conform to a general plan and avoid confusion."

More homes are now being built along the street by Garling Construction Co.

By-Laws Adopted By College Trustee Bd.

Michigan's newest Community College, which will serve the school districts of Clarenceville, Garden City, Livonia and Plymouth, has been in existence only two months, yet the elected Board of Trustees can point to the completion of significant organizational plans.

In this short time, the Board of Trustees has evaluated and studied extensively the by-laws governing community colleges in the states of Michigan, California and Illinois. This was done to insure the establishment of by-laws for the local Community College Board of Trustees that would be specific in their directives yet remain flexible enough to meet changing conditions.

The by-laws, approved unanimously by the local Board of Trustees, comply with the State law for community colleges defining the election and the authority of a Board of Trustees, and include, as well, these duties: The selection of a president for the college; action on the recommendations of the president with reference to the appointment or dismissal of personnel as well as salary grades for this personnel; the establishment of an annual budget, capital expenditures for new facilities and/or repair and replacement of old facilities. The Board of Trustees also has the responsibility to review and act on all curricular matters.

The by-laws of the Northwest Wayne County Community College also state that the members of the Board have authority only when acting as a Board of Trustees legally in session. No member or employee of the Board of Trustees shall have the power to act in the name of the Board unless authorized to do so by the Board of Trustees. Regular meetings

Slate Canton Township Dog Clinic on Feb. 2, 3

Mr. and Mrs. Charles White of Sheldon Rd., proudly announced the birth of a new son, born Jan. 8 at the Beyers Hospital. The young man weighed in at 7 lbs. 3 oz. but as yet had not been assigned a name. Eagerly waiting at home for their mother and new brother are a brother and sister.

Roxanne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McTurner celebrated her 7th birthday surrounded by many of her friends. On hand to enjoy the games and help win the prizes were Audrey and Gary Newport, Mona Jean, Bonnie and Dickie Larrick, Mary Margaret Lee, Marsha, Phyllis, Sharalynn and Nancy White, Debbie Morton, Tommie and Jimmy King and on the side lines watching the festivities were Roxanne's aunts and uncles. Following the games of Drop the Clothes Pin, Pin the Tail on the Donkey, the guests enjoyed refreshments and looked on while Roxanne cut her birthday cake. The young lady proudly boasts of some very lovely gifts.

Another township young lady to celebrate her birthday was Audrey Newport, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Newport. Audrey celebrated her 9th birthday surrounded by her friends, Debbie and Kathy McDonald, Mary Lou Albertson, Bobbie Louise, Darlene Burress, Kenney and Danny Rae, Billy, Roxanne, Judy and Jackie McTurner, Linda, Bonnie and Mona Larrick, Charlotte and Debbie Cornett. The group enjoyed games and prizes and finally but not least the refreshments and the birthday cake baked by Audrey's mom. The young guests presented Audrey with many gifts.

The executive board of the Gallimore School will hold a P.T.A. meeting on Jan. 23 at 7:45 p.m. At the beginning of the school year, the board asked the members of the group to express a desire about the activities they would take part in during the year. One of the activities which drew interest was the planning of a carnival. It is at this time that the board asks all persons interested in planning this activity or helping with the plans, or anyone with some clever ideas to come out on the 23rd to the Carnival workshop program. The board wishes to extend an invitation to all parents of Gallimore to come out and join in what can be a fun activity. They need the help of everyone to make their Carnival a success. Early preparations help make such an under-taking a success.

In case you are wondering when the clinic for dog vaccinating and licensing will be held, here is the information I received from Lovett Gee, our dog warden. The clinic is usually held in January, but just so everyone can get over those Christmas bills, January taxes and etc., the clinic will be held on Feb. 2 and 3. On the 2nd, which is a Friday, the clinic will be open in the morning into the evening and on Saturday during the day. On those dates the veterinarian, Dr. Nichols, will be at the Canton Center Township Hall to vaccinate your dog. The charge will be $2. The license, as usual will be $1 for males and $2 for females. See you and man's best friends on one of those dates.

When to pay the township taxes? Treasurer Phillip Dingeldey will be at the hall on Canton Center with a pleasant smile to accept your tax payments on Monday, Wednesday and Friday. On Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday (until 1 p.m.), you can catch him and his smile at the Township Water Board Building on Geddes Rd.

A little news about that one busy township group - the Planning Commission. The Planning Commission and the Township Board recently passed a subdivision ordinance which will regulate subdivisions. Another ordinance was passed to regulate top soil removal. A C-2 zoning was applied to an 80 acre parcel at Canton Center and Michigan and a C-2 zoning to the Southeast corner of Canton Center Rds and Ford Rd. C-2 zoning for shopping districts also carries with it some regulations from the Planning Commission. Chairman of this Board is Wilburn Leaky and secretary is Mrs. Pearl Doyle.

We have received word that the Township is about to be graced with a fine restaurant on or about May 1. Just as soon as we can, we plan to interview the owner and give you the location and some first-hand information about the project. We have it that it will be comparable to Plymouth's Hillside. How about that?

The Cherry Hill Methodist Church ladies will hold a United Nations pot-luck supper on Jan. 23. The dishes to be passed will be of different countries. A speaker has been invited to speak to the group and their guests from Puerto Rico. For further information about the supper you may contact Mrs. Madeline Bastian, chairman of the event, at Hunter 2-2817. An invitation is extended to anyone interested in attending.

Don't forget to have your contribution ready for the Mother's March. The ladies will be grateful for your contribution no matter what its size and will especially enjoy your greeting them.

Home from the hospital recently is Mrs. Elmer Krause (Esther) of Maben Rd. We spoke with Mrs. Krause and she assures us that she is doing just fine.

Pioneers to Hear Consumer Talk

On Tuesday, Jan. 30, members of "Plymouth Pioneers", local Wayne County Cooperative Extension Service Group, are looking forward to attending the third in a series of talks on Consumer Education at Smith Junior High in Dearborn.

Subject of the lecture will be "What Is My Responsibility As A Consumer?" This activity takes the place of the regular January meeting. The Club met in November at the home of Mrs. Otto Reamer, 1380 Junction with Mrs. Emma Schaufele as co-hostess. Everyone made two clever Christmas decorations, under the direction of Mrs. Forest Olson and Mrs. Sadie Ferguson.

The December meeting was a delightful Christmas Party. Mrs. Ferguson, 641 Wing St., was hostess. In lieu of a gift exchange the group voted to send CARE packages. Following a lovely luncheon served by the hostess and assisted by Mrs. Ida Jackson and Mrs. Forest Olson.

The Educated Public

The first thing that impresses European car marketing authorities about North American car buyers is how expert they are at price buying.

Well, the public can't take all the credit. They must thank the car dealers themselves, who really taught them. They taught them so well that for the last four years a bankrupting of auto dealers has exceeded all other businesses and the average profit on sales is less than one percent.

One thing has never changed, however, in all the years of car selling: the dealer must make a profit to stay in business. How he makes it is the only thing that has changed.

Until a few years ago it was common practice among dealers fighting to survive cutthroat price competition to balance over-allowance offers on used cars by "padding" the price on the new one.

When padding ceased to be fashionable due to legal and other reasons, new gimmicks flourished among so-called volume dealers. They all added up to this: keep prices down to attract price buyers but deliver less to keep profits up.

Ethical dealers met the competition by reducing overhead and concentrating on service. They still are. Volume operators substituted heavy advertising, ruthless selling and cheaper substitutions in radios, heaters and tires. Pre-and-after delivery service was virtually eliminated. In this way, up to $800 can be shaved off the dealer's cost of a car.

The educated public are NOT experts on value. If you wish to make the best deal you can, THEN COMPARE THE FEATURES OF THE CAR ITSELF, THE ACTUAL SERVICE RENDERED AND THE DEALER'S REPUTATION FOR KEEPING HIS PROMISES. That's the only way to buy at the lowest possible net price!

Ice Stays Long Time On Salem Twp. Roads

By C. W. Clair
GL 3-2610

All of Salem Township as well as most of the state of Michigan was hit on Saturday, Jan. 6 by a severe frozen rain and sleet storm. All roads in the Township were made impassable by this storm. As I was writing this, there wasn't too much done to relieve the unsafe condition of the roads. They were still, with very few exceptions, a glare of ice. I talked to the man in power about them, and asked him if we couldn't have a bit of gravel sprinkled along the way to make it possible to get out in case of an emergency. I have personally learned by experience and I was told at that time, they would have to open up the main arteries first. That seemed logical enough. I thought that surely by Tuesday they would get around to some of the dirt roads. On Tuesday, there was still no gravel on the ice. So, on Wednesday I again called and talked to the man in charge. He was, of course, very courteous and most willing to do everything in his power to relieve the hazardous situation we had in the Township, BUT, they had so many miles of roads that it was taking a lot of money, and he didn't know when they would get around to our "secondary" roads but he would do the best he could for us. And they sure did. The truck went by at quite a high rate of speed spreading a bit here and there along the icy road. Now, we, out here are just praying for an early January thaw that we usually get. I have been out here for the past 20 years and have seen a lot of storms, but of all that time, this is the first time that I can remember that it took so many days to get a bit of relief. It was late on Thursday afternoon that we really got relief. One of the gravel trucks went through and this time they did a good job, but that was on Thursday and the storm hit on Saturday.

Ralph Wilson has been confined to the house the past week. My little scout tells me that he has a strained back. Take it easy, Ralph. It won't be too long now before the spring work will be starting and you won't want to miss it, after all these years.

H. C. Shaffmaster, who was taken to Harper Hospital Dec. 15 with a heart condition was taken out of the oxygen tent a week ago. He has continued to show some improvement, and is beginning to ask about the football scores. Now he is asking when he will be able to go home. That is surely a good sign, and we are all hoping that it won't be too long now.

Kenneth Lewis, who was taken to the St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor a week ago with bronchial pneumonia, has recovered and was returned to his home last Saturday.

The regular meeting of the Sunshine Club of South Salem scheduled to meet at Mrs. Cora Blunk's, 5830 Godfredson Rd., last Wednesday, Jan. 11, was postponed until Wednesday, Jan. 18 because of the roads being impassable.

The Salem Sunshine Club lost its oldest member this past week by the death of Mrs. Mira Smith. Mrs. Smith was one of the first members of the club, and was a regular attendant at the meetings until a short time ago. The whole Township will mourn her passing.

The regular meeting of the Worden Farm Bureau was at the home of Frank Geiger last Thursday evening. A discussion of state income tax was held. They were all in favor of the tax, if it would reduce property taxes. Refreshments were served after the meeting.

The two youngest Lewis boys were taken to the University Hospital this past week, suffering from T.B. Their father has been in the Veterans Hospital for several weeks. The last report that I have received is that he is showing a good improvement. He does enjoy hearing from his friends.

Supervisor Harlow Ingall attended the supervisors meeting at Ann Arbor last Tuesday, Jan. 9. He was appointed to the Supervisors Road Committee at this meeting.

The Rev. Elwood Chipchase has been staying indoors the past few days because of a sore throat and a cold. We all hope that he will be out around again soon.

The Township is mourning two of its fine outstanding citizens who passed away this past month. Charles Waid, who lived on Godfredson Rd. for many years, was one. Services were conducted at the Schrader Funeral Home in Plymouth. Interment was in the Lapham Cemetery on Brookville Rd., Salem Township. John Waldecker passed away after a long illness Thursday, Jan. 4. Services were held at the Phillips Funeral Home in South Lyons. Interment was in Glen Eden Cemetery in Livonia.

Grade Level Program Topic At Farrand PTA
Tuesday, Jan. 23 at 4 p.m. the Farrand School P.T.A. will present the grade-level program for the first grade. This program will be conducted by Mrs. Sue Miller, Mrs. Chloe West and Miss Susan Hundley.

The grade-level program initiated this year at Farrand School has been received with much enthusiasm and has been very successful. It has offered many opportunities for a better home-school relationship. Mothers and fathers together have attended these meetings thus enabling both parents and educators to better understand and motivate the child.

Red Brain Washing Subject Of Allen PTA
The January meeting of Allen School PTA will present an interesting tape discussion on Brain Washing techniques and procedures used by the Chinese Communists during the Korean War.

The meeting will be held Tuesday, Jan. 23 in the gymnasium of the school at 8 p.m. Refreshments will be served following the discussion.

It's Sign-Up Time For Adult Education Classes

This is the week that Plymouth is signing up for classes — Adult Education classes, that is. And one of the new classes that is being urged for all retail clerks to strengthen Plymouth's business position is one called You and Selling.

Director Herbert Woolweaver said that the course is being jointly sponsored by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce and Small Business Administration. The first three sessions will be a refresher course on retail sales. Then will follow sessions on relationships between the buyer, customer needs, sales demonstrations, measuring results, and community relations.

Held on Tuesday nights from 7:30 to 9:30, the course fee is $8. Retail store owners are being urged to send the clerks, Woolweaver said.

PLYMOUTH

By HUGH C. BRONAUGH, Manager
SOME OF THE THINGS you don't see when you look at your telephone are the facilities behind it which make your service the finest there is. Ten years ago, for example, Michigan Bell's investment in buildings, poles, cables and so on to link your phone with others amounted to $247 per telephone. Now it's more than $330. Last year alone we spent more than $85 million to install new telephones, replace worn-out equipment and improve service. This money was spent in every city, town and village where we do business—to make your telephone serve you better.

PROPRIETORS OF SMALL BUSINESSES, including farms, are discovering the value and convenience of Michigan Bell's new complete interphone system. With it, telephones used for regular calls can also be used for intercommunication between house or office and yard and outbuildings. It also provides for calls between locations within a building. A special speaker-microphone is available which lets a person who is called answer "hands free" without touching a telephone. For more information on how new interphone service can help you, just call us here at the business office.

HERE'S A GOOD example of how an apparently small change in your Telephone Company's way of doing things results in better service. Overhead phone cables used to be supported by a strong wire strung above them. Not any more. Now, in many cases a cable-wrapping machine winds the wire around the phone cable. It saves time, and cables last longer. Just one of the many ways Michigan Bell is furnishing better telephone service—and keeping down costs.

Favorite Recipes from Plymouth Kitchens

A variety of interesting foods emanate from the bright and pleasant kitchen of Mrs. James Gothard, who lives at 14355 Eckles Road. The one she selected to share with Mail readers this week is Fresh Apple Cake. To the sampler it is a moist and delicious confection chock full of apple chunks, and according to the recipe which follows, it is simple to make.

Mrs. James Gothard

FRESH APPLE CAKE
Cream together:
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup brown sugar
Add 2 eggs beaten and 1 cup milk
Fold in—2 1/2 cups flour
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. baking powder
1/2 tsp. cinnamon
2 cups diced apples, fold in with above ingredients.
When batter is in the pan sprinkle top with 1/2 cup brown sugar and 1/2 cup white. Bake one hour in 350 degree oven.
After baking and while cake is still warm, frost with butter icing.
Butter Icing
2 tbl. butter
2 tbl. milk
1 tsp. vanilla
2 cups powdered sugar

"icing while warm helps keep the cake moist," says Mrs. Gothard, "and this adds to its goodness." Besides caring for her husband and house and looking after her seven children, Mrs. Gothard finds time to belong to the Child Study Club, the Ladies Mission Society and Ladies Aid of St. Peter's Lutheran Church and several social clubs.

Edison Retitles Service Advisor

In a move to better describe her work, Edison's Home Service Advisor in Wayne County, Mrs. Edna Herig, will hereafter be called "Electric Living Advisor." Mrs. Herig lives at 805 Parkview Dr., Plymouth.

Frank J. Quinnan, Edison District sales manager, said the company decided on the change because "Home Service" was too limited a term for these days of electronic appliances and the growing popularity of electric heat.

"Electric Living, on the other hand, suggests the impact that electricity is making on our way of life and more appropriately defines the work of Mrs. Herig who does stage and school presentations, in-store demonstrations, and uses many other means outside the home to reach and interest the homemakers of Wayne County," he added.

The car is maximum transportation at minimum cost..." And throughout the editors' reports on the engineering and road testing you'll find accolades like "easy maintenance"... "long wearing ruggedness"... "simple elegance"... "reasonable size"... "delightful car to drive." Get the full story in the February issue of Car Life. Better yet, see your Chevrolet dealer. # Who's Who in the Plymouth Community Schools

John N. Donegan

John N. Donegan has been a sixth grade teacher at the Smith School for the past four years. He graduated from the Chicopee (Mass.) High School where his father was a teacher and principal for 33 years, and spent 22 months from January 1945 to March 1947 in the U.S. Navy.

He held the rank of S-1-C, received the Victory medal, and was a qualified P and M Boat Coxswain. This tour of duty took him to Europe and to South America.

During his youth he spent 15 summers off the coast of Maine helping a family friend tend his lobster traps. This involved baiting the traps, setting them out, and plugging the lobsters. One summer he tended the business alone.

Now this background plus the hobby of cooking and baking resulted in a party for the staff of the Smith School last year when he invited 40 persons to a dinner including fresh Maine lobsters and clams cooked entirely by himself. He enjoyed this so much that he hopes to repeat the event.

It was when Mr. Donegan was a student at Syracuse University that he learned to cook while also earning his school expenses - in a restaurant. But after three years of pre-law, he decided to look for summer work in Alaska. However when traveling through Flint, his brother persuaded him to look for work there and he found employment at the Atlas Drop Forge Co. He also found a very attractive girl named Catherine which gave him a reason for transferring to Michigan State University when the fall term began.

The following spring marriage sent him into full time work for the next three and a half years.

Finally, he decided that teaching was a profession that appealed to him and so he enrolled in the University of Michigan while working for the American Broach and Machine Co. to support his family. When he became a casualty of the seniority system during slack times, he applied for and received Rackham Grants that supported him and his family during the three years that he needed to complete work for a degree in education.

He then moved to Plymouth teaching full time, occasionally working part time at the A & P and also continuing to study in the graduate school at Eastern Michigan University.

For extra curricular activities he was a member of the Syracuse University Vets Club serving as president and as activities chairman. At the University of Michigan his leisure time was spent enjoying the companionship of his wife, Catherine, and their two small sons, Matthew, who now is a very serious first grader at Our Lady of Good Counsel, and Steven, a sweet carefree 5 year old.

While in Plymouth he has been active in the Plymouth Education Assn. and is president for the current year. He also has an added interest in his home at 674 Arthur Street - the lovable year-old Christopher.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hix of Warren Rd. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Essel Bailey in Garden City on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aldenderfer of Rocker St. were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Page of S. Main St. on Sunday of last week. The Pages showed slides of their trip to Scotland.

The world's largest ore feeder, handling 550 tons an hour, has been delivered to a copper mine in the Belgian Congo. It receives ore from hoppers and feeds it to conveying and crushing facilities.

St. Peter's Lutheran

At the January Voters' Assembly of St. Peter's Lutheran Church the Evangelism Committee through its chairman, Mr. Ronald Wendland, announced a Lenten Program entitled "Call to Calvary." Mr. Wendland explained that special personal invitations to attend the traditional Mid-week Lenten Services will be extended by lay visitors of the church to members and especially to those who have no church affiliation in the community.

St. Peter's Church will be joined in this "Call to Calvary" by other Wisconsin Evangelical Lutheran Synod churches of the Michigan District. An area Evangelism Workshop at Peace Lutheran Church, Livonia, will be at the home of Mrs. Melvin Krumm of Oxford was co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lea of 102 N. Holbrook returned last Tuesday from Belvedere and Elgin, Ill. where they visited relatives over the weekend. Mrs. Lea stated that Belvedere had a 14-inch snowfall on the ground and the temperature was 20 degrees below zero the day they left.

Charlie Truax, Don Gray and Don Zander spent Sunday afternoon ice fishing at Kent Lake. They report a fine catch of blue gills.

Mrs. James Gothard of Eckles Rd. was hostess at luncheon last Thursday to Mrs. Calvin Campau, Mrs. Carl Finney, Mrs. Carl Hartwick and Mrs. James Nairn.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bassett of Beck Rd., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith of Five Mile Rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pellerito of Livonia attended the annual Ann Arbor Credit Union dinner held at the Michigan Union in Ann Arbor Saturday evening. Bud Guest and the Jimmy Clark orchestra from radio station WJR entertained.

In a letter received from California from Mrs. Fannie Spicer Pitts, sister of Sam Spicer of this city, the following item was included: Following church on Sunday, Jan. 7, Mrs. Fannie Spicer Pitts, formerly of Plymouth and now living in Hollywood, Cal., entertained at lunch Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Woods of Plymouth, now spending the winter with their daughter and family, Mrs. Martha McLaren formerly of Plymouth, now living in Beverly Hills. An unusual feature, even for California, was the 86 degree temperature which necessitated all the windows being opened; Mr. Woods was much more comfortable after his hostess' suggestion that he remove his coat. It was the hottest January 7th since 1902. P. S. The Woods have a new great grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Hix of Warren Rd. were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Essel Bailey in Garden City on Friday of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Aldenderfer of Rocker St. were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Page of S. Main St. on Sunday of last week. The Pages showed slides of their trip to Scotland.

Chips from the ROCK

Conversations with many of our local businessmen in the past week have revealed many interesting suggestions on finding an approach to the problems confronting our business sections. In brief we'll relate a few without revealing publicly the actual source of the statements.

One member of one of Plymouth's oldest business firms had this to say . . . "If any progress is to be made improving the downtown area, greed and selfishness must be forgotten . . . The city should tax out-of-town property owners, who bleed their property holdings, so high that they would make immediate improvements or sell to get out from under the load . . . this would bring about property modernization and The Mail's tax concession idea for actual improvements is a good one to spur action."

Another had this to say . . . "I am appalled by the lack of interest in city problems by the old-timers of Plymouth . . . people who have roots here for years and years and have big investments in real estate and rental properties . . . I would think they would be the first to come forward to help find a solution to our drift downward . . . after all, as their property values decline so will their income and also the value of their buildings."

Still another . . . "No question but what Daisys' move from the city was a real blow because it took many, many people out of here who were sincerely interested in community problems . . . Our newcomers can't be expected to have a deep interest in those things nor can we expect them to be concerned about our business area problems . . . it's up to the merchants and the property owners."

And another . . . "A hard look by our city and school officials at the impact their expenses are having on our residents, industries, and businesses. It seems to me they should find ways to cut expenses and hold the present tax rate in an effort to cooperate more fully, especially with our local industry, in making Plymouth a more desirable place to operate . . . In fact, the industry we lost just a few weeks ago stated no effort was made to keep them in Plymouth."

And still another . . . "I recently had a long talk with C. & O. railroad officials about Plymouth's future and they were greatly concerned . . . They bluntly stated that industry they had talked to about locating in the area was reluctant to consider Plymouth because of the differences between the City and the Township . . . further, township zoning west of Plymouth practically eliminated factory locations there because there was no access to a main road from the railroad tracks."

Etc., etc., etc. . . all timeworn and commonly known complaints in areas that are wrong . . . Last week Mayor Robert Sincock presented to local Kiwanians the following talk which was taped and broadcast over Radio station WWJ. We present it here because of its local interest to all concerned:

"Plymouth's opportunities and problems

NOT SO PRETTY KITTY

are everyone's concern. A sense of urgency has quickened the efforts of the citizens of Plymouth. Plans for improvement and expansion are no longer the interest of a few. A purposeful goal has taken the place of routine living.

"We are in a fast changing world and Plymouth eagerly welcomes all positive, constructive aid from anyone interested in the common good of all men. The people are the connecting link between problems and decisions. As civic leaders we must be on the alert for little things that lead us to opportunities for our city.

"Here in Plymouth we are blessed with so many assets. All individuals should express themselves, raise questions, make suggestions, and give of themselves thru their own group. It is thru these church societies, fraternal organizations, veterans groups, service clubs, and cultural associations, that our Plymouthites can transmit ideas. In this way the will of the people becomes the basis for further planning and togetherness such as this will maintain our identity.

"Plymouth is proud of the high attendance in all of its churches and we feel this provides a solid foundation for our youth. The high interest in our schools and recreation programs is necessary and Plymouth realizes these are the vital areas which will continue to keep our city at a high standard.

"Our aim is high and our future is hopeful. We are so fortunate that our local newspaper serves the best interest of its readers. It offers a public service to our citizens keeping them right-fully informed.

"There is plenty of room here for our expanding population for Business and Industry. Our Chamber of Commerce is actively engaged in trying to keep this balance. No solutions are found by negative thinking.

"We are only 'scratching the surface' but the Big exciting challenge is still ahead."

We think the mayor made a fine presentation in the few minutes allotted to him and we commend him on his attitude. His thinking is progressive and the intentions are right . . . the only thing we're wondering about is whether or not it has been too cold to stir him into some action on the idea we came forward with two weeks ago. Let's face that "big challenge" now. It may not be the answer, and I am sure there is, no doubt, a better one, but as titular head of this community he is vested with the power and the right to at least get some interested people together to start talking about a sincere evaluation of our multiple problems, and the ways and means to arrive at a solution. It's action we need and we need it now . . . Call a meeting, Mayor, we'll be glad to attend and so will all the people I quoted in the beginning of this column. Names available if you ask me.

Ole Brad's Journal

COLE'S TAVERN was once the proud home of William Brewster, one of the original signers of the Mayflower Compact. On election days and muster days, Capt. Standish would call the militia together for review, drill, and inspection. A man is likely to get a wee bit thirsty doing this dry, dusty work. The tavern packed 'em in. Yes, in those early days the Tavern in the town with the community center and served often as a courtroom.

Early colonial laws tolerated only an occasional over-indulgence with the cider jug or the quaffing of a bit much ale. Teetotaling descendants need not feel any embarrassment over this beer-stained page in the journal since moderation in the Pilgrim's drinking habits made beer and wine an accepted, respected item in their homes.

Liquid repasts in yolden golden colonial days often took a more convivial form than we might want to admit. Call it "strong" water, wine, ale, or what you will the beverage was far from coffee, tea, or hot chocolate.

BACK IN 1620 when the Mayflower set sail, a goodly store of beer, wine, ale and stronger spirits took up precious space. Hard biscuits and salted beef were washed down with beer more often than fresh water.

According to Uncle Bradford's records, the good ship Arabella arrived in Plymouth Harbor in the '30's with 10,000 gallons of wine, 42 tons of beer, and, oh yes . . . 14 tons of fresh water. Cole's Tavern in Plymouth, no 'doubt, became the temporary stopping-off place for the wine and beer.

Plymouth, 5 Other Towns Add Fluoride

Michigan showed a slight increase in the number of persons served by fluoridated water last year when Plymouth and five other communities with a combined population of some 77,000 began fluoridation operations.

Adding fluoride to their water with the City of Plymouth were Howell, Big Rapids, Wyoming, Manistique and Marine City. In addition, four other communities took favorable action and fluoridation should begin there this year.

In Bridgman, Decatur, Easton Rapids, Miles and Ontonagon, fluoridation questions were voted down at the polls during 1961, and in Grand Ledge, the city council reversed itself on an earlier decision and decided against fluoridation.

At present, 1,187,528 Michigan residents — about 20 percent of the population — are being served by fluoridated water.

"This slow progress is about what we expect," said Dr. Fred Wertheimer, Director of the Michigan Department of Health's dentistry Division.

He said that the trace of doubt and suspicion cast by unfounded charges of small opposition groups is frequently enough to offset all of the accurate, painstakingly-gathered scientific information presented in support of fluoridation.

"All too often the issue of adding enough fluoride to bring the concentration to one part of fluoride per million parts of water to reduce the incidence of tooth decay is clouded by abstractions such as 'communism,' 'freedom,' 'religion,' or 'socialized medicine,'" he said.

But perhaps the biggest obstacle to fluoridation is indifference and apathy on the part of the majority of the voters, he suggested.

"Fluoridation questions are usually characterized by low voter turn-out, with the majority of people interested enough to exercise their right to vote frequently being opposed to the question. Consequently a small minority has been able to impose its will on the majority in roughly two out of every three fluoridation elections held to date throughout the country."

"The effectiveness of fluoridation has been proven conclusively. Careful study of such areas as Grand Rapids, which was the first city in the nation to add fluoride to its water in 1945, and communities where optimum amounts of fluoride occur naturally in that water, such as Aurora, Illinois, have revealed a substantial difference in the amount of tooth decay — as much as 65 percent — compared to communities without fluoridation."

The Dentistry Division of the Michigan Department of Health is actively promoting fluoridation in Michigan, furnishing information, material and advice to groups throughout the state interested in fluoridation and answering the questions that are frequently asked.

Representatives of the division are often asked to speak at club and civic organization meetings to discuss the merits of fluoridation, and by this process leaders in various communities are gradually being informed about fluoridation.

State's Phones Almost Match Russia's Total

With nearly 3 1/2 million telephones in the state, Michigan alone has almost as many telephones as all of Russia. The latest issue of "The World's Telephones," published by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, shows there are slightly more than four million telephones in the USSR, or about two for every 100 persons. In the whole world, the report says, there are 141,700,000 phones, with more than half — 74,342,000 — in the United States. Eighteen Michigan cities with populations of 50,000 or more, accounted for 2,158,967 of these, Detroit leading with a tally of 1,128,528. Detroit ranked third in telephone density among U.S. cities, as New York and Chicago were first and second respectively. This country's telephone development was the highest in the world with about 40 for every 100 persons. Great Britain was next with a 16 for every 100-person tabulation, and West Germany took third place with 11 telephones per 100 persons. Canada, which ranked fourth in the total number of telephones with 5,728,167, retained its distinction of being the most locuquacious nation. Canadians averaged more than 538 telephone conversations per person in 1960. In the U.S., the average was 520. AT&T said it takes about 12 months to collect and compile the data, therefore telephone statistics reported in the booklet stand as of Jan. 1, 1961. Although not a part of the

AT&T world report, slightly more than three million of Michigan's telephones are served by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company. Its three-millionth phone was installed on the I-94 freeway last September. A grandnephew of Napoleon Charles J. Bonaparte, served as United States Secretary of War was chartered in 1899, he Navy and as Attorney General.

Eastern Colleges Have Information Day Jan. 20

The Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges will sponsor its annual College Information Day on Saturday, Jan. 20, at 2 p.m. in the 12th floor auditorium, J. L. Hudson Co., Detroit.

The Committee is composed of alumnae of Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mt. Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley. The College Day program will feature Mrs. Thomas R. Broughton, Bryn Mawr Director of Admissions. Mrs. Broughton has just returned from a meeting with admission directors of all the seven colleges, and will discuss "Admissions and Scholarship Policy with Emphasis on New and Future Developments." A brief slide tour of the colleges, conducted by Smith alumna Mrs. George Hilfinger, will close the formal part of the meeting.

While tea is being served, guests will have an opportunity to question alumnae at individual tables about entrance requirements, expenses, scholarship opportunities, curricula and transportation.

Mrs. W. P. Harris, chairman of the day, and a Bryn Mawr graduate, has issued invitations to high school and preparatory school principals and counselors. All interested girls and their parents living in the greater Detroit area are welcome.

Members of the committee for the day will include club presidents and alumnae representatives from each of the seven colleges.

It's Same Old Problem - - Money!

By Elmer E. White
Money to operate state government, where and whom it will come from, still looms as the largest problem facing Michigan lawmakers.

The problem reached its peak during the year-long 1959 session of the legislature when state employees faced one payless payday and were threatened with others.

A $71.5 MILLION deficit was on the books at the end of the fiscal year in July and there is no sure sign that the financial picture has improved since then.

Legislators this year will be hard pressed to find new sources of revenue to meet the demands for governmental services.

IN THE 1961 budget-writing process, the Democratic administration and the Republican legislature were far apart on estimates of how much was needed and the amount which would be available for operations.

It is still a matter of conjecture as to which was right, but the two sides now appear to be closer together on at least one point: that more money is needed than is available.

Recent meetings of both parties brought forth general agreement that Michigan's citizens want services not now available under the present revenue pattern.

IF NEW MONEY is to be forthcoming, the only unanswered question remaining is to find the most equitable means to tax Michigan citizens to provide it.

Some Republicans feel minimal opposition to the nuisance taxes which were allowed to expire last July indicated these might be desirable areas to impose new, permanent levies.

The beer and liquor, telephone and telegraph, and cigarette and tobacco interests, of course, contend their products and services are already taxed beyond reasonable limits. And there is some justification for their stand.

PESSIMISTS predicted last year that if the four percent sales tax were approved, it would soon be boosted again and again and again. There were no indications from any quarters that this was being considered.

The business community now complains loudly and with agreement in both parties that its taxes are already too high.

Many Republican lawmakers have been heard in recent weeks to say an income tax might be the lesser of several undesirables.

Gov. John B. Swainson, who proposed this method to the 1961 legislature as part of his fiscal reform program, said he welcomed this stand by some members of the opposition party.

"We haven't seen their votes on the board yet, however," he said. "Speeches sometimes are not backed up when the voting buttons are pushed."

his position that he will not approve an income tax alone, however.

"This would not be the answer," he said. "The total picture of our tax structure must be taken into account."

Recognition by both parties could mean they are ready to sit down and seriously discuss how to put Michigan back on the black side of the ledger.

Any solution, however, must be designed to cover more than a single fiscal year. It must be a program which will keep Michigan's income growing along with its population and demand for services.

STATE PERSONNEL director Franklin K. DeWald would like to dispel the common belief that civil service provisions prevent the discharge of incapable employees.

In a recent 12-month period, 220 state civil service workers were fired, DeWald said.

"This record showed state agencies can and do fire undesirable employees," he said. "And this number of dismissals is only a small percentage of the number allowed to resign when faced with removal proceedings."

There are many who believe, however, that the civil service set up leaves administrators without proper authority to operate as efficiently as otherwise and that when a supervisor lodges a complaint about a subordinate, it is he rather than the employee who goes "on trial."

The study showed that a total of 6,735 state employees have been fired since Michigan's civil service system was established by constitutional amendment in 1941.

"State employees are subject to annual service ratings by their supervisors or an interim service rating may be given at any time," said DeWald. "Commission rules provide an employee who receives a conditional rating for one period and fails to achieve a satisfactory rating for a subsequent period, or an employee who receives an unsatisfactory rating may be dismissed."

THE STATE'S civil service work force of about 32,000 undergoes a turnover of about 10 percent annually, a civil service commission research

New City Directory Delivered

R. L. Polk & Co. has just finished delivering to subscribers the 1961 Plymouth-Northville City Directory, which includes one entirely new feature. It is a handy volume bound in gray and maroon, listing, according to the publishers' records, 3,943 personal and business names.

For the first time, the telephone numbers are shown after the names of householders in the street (green) section.

A city directory may strike the average citizen as a dull, matter-of-fact compendium. Really humor, tragedy and romance flit across the pages of this book, in the files of which the development of the community can be traced, and where one can read, not only of workday lives, but of the rise and fall of men and families in the struggle for wealth, fame and social position.

Eighteen was continued as the minimum listing age in the directory, and the aforementioned count considers the combined names of man and wife as only one name, the publishers stated.

Special regular features of the directory include the designations of owner-occupied and rented homes, marital status, wives' names and heads of households; and descriptive sketches of the two cities.

The directory people counted them up and stated that Plymouth and Northville now have 280 distinct categories of enterprise, which they catalog alphabetically from "Accountants" to "Yarns" in the classified pages.

The new directory is not a stay-at-home, the publishers explain. It is readily accessible to the public in directory libraries located in numerous cities in this area and in some of the largest cities from coast to coast. Thus it is a direct advertisement for the cities which it covers, giving pertinent information about the community far and wide. The service is maintained by the Assn. of North American Directory Publishers, of which R. L. Polk & Co. is a member. A branch of this out-of-town directory service is located at the Polk national headquarters offices in Detroit, available to the public for reference during business hours.

"Book-ending" all the other names on the new Plymouth roster are Roger L. Aaron and Victor C. Zywicki. In Northville they are George M. Abbott and Mrs. Elsie B. Zongker. As it takes all kinds of people to make a world, so it takes all kinds of names to make a people. The directory shows that this community has its quota of unusual surnames, like Pint, Purse, Sink, Pride, Drudge, Gun and Hoot.

JA Fund Chairman Named; Trade Fair Is Planned

The appointment of Edward M. Sawusch as chairman of Plymouth's 1962 Junior Achievement Fund Campaign was announced by Ben D. Mills, campaign general chairman.

Sawusch is manager of Anchor Coupling Company, Inc. in Plymouth.

The goal of the local campaign which runs from Jan.

28 - Feb. 21 is $5,000. Sawusch said. The money will be used for local JA operations for 1962-1963.

Currently 180 local teenagers ranging in age from 15 - 19 are managing the affairs of 10 miniature JA business concerns, often called the world's smallest corporations.

Mills said that the '62 campaign goal for southeastern Michigan - the largest JA area in the nation - is $250,000. He said that some 8,000 teenagers and 343 junior size business firms are currently active in the JA program throughout southeastern Michigan's six county area.

Plymouth has 10 JA companies with 180 active Achievers on their payrolls. Each firm has three adult advisors from the sponsoring companies. The Plymouth business center is at 680 Dodge St., beside City Hall.

Junior Achievement Week is Jan. 26 through Feb. 3. Highlight of the week will be the Junior Industrial Trade Fair on Monday, Jan. 29 and Tuesday, Jan. 30. The public will be invited to attend the Trade Fair at the business center from 5 to 9 p.m. both nights. Prizes and souvenirs will be offered.

The Professor Sez . . . By Ed Brown

Last time I mentioned the use of leisure time, and how important it likely will become for society to better prepare future generations in the wise use of leisure time. As a result of automation and things being done in an easier and more practical way, many people will have much more time to do other things. Just yesterday I read where U.S. Steel employees were going to try for a 30 or 32 hour week with the same take-home pay.

A good hobby is one of the best time-consuming interests for some people, but what may be interesting for one person may be dull for another, because we are all different. But, if one can find a particular hobby he likes, and one that counterbalances the more serious thoughts of the daily job, or life in general, it can be so rewarding. It helps so much if we can find something so interesting that time spent on it seems to go so fast, and we leave it reluctantly but completely refreshed.

I think it takes many of us a long time to find a hobby we really enjoy. Some never find a hobby in which they can relax and have fun — they just work themselves to near exhaustion so they won't have any spare time to worry about.

Others may spend their spare time in a bad environment, which only breeds delinquents, self-pity, disillusionment and sometimes criminals.

Life will never get tiresome when one finds happiness in doing many things, but it probably will get dreadfully dull if we think only of our job, or monetary values, or if we always have to depend on someone else for our entertainment.

Parents can do much in developing an interest in a worthwhile hobby for their children. There are so many ways guidance can be given — stamp collections, coin collections, match booklets, rock collections, etc. Books, photography with a development room, love of nature, flowers and reading. These are only a few of the hundreds of hobbies available. Each of these could fill an article, and I certainly intend to come back to some of them again.

Many of these interests that begin as a hobby later on turn into the main source of income. Some people have hidden talents they never dreamed they had, particularly in the fields of painting, art and writing.

And then there are others who get a decided "kick" out of getting into a vegetable, or a flower garden, with an "outlandish" hat on their "unconscious" hours just hoeing and putting around. This business of watching things grow is fascinating if one just stops and thinks about the whole thing — all the

All these are using leisure time to a good advantage, but what of the many who have nothing to do.

What really worries me, and is a pathetic part of our society, is the parents who either do not care to help their children adjust to life, or do not know how to do it. And then there are the children from broken homes, and quite a few fall into this last category.

If no one helps them provide wise use of leisure time, should they be made to pay the penalty? Or is it a responsibility of society to step in and try to help wherever possible? This is where the community should enter into the picture either through the community, the churches, or the schools — probably some combination of all would be more effective.

A Youth Center would be ideal — one that is organized and has a full-time supervisor, who is skilled in the art of planning activities for the youth of the community. It could be in the form of a Community Building with a certain section set aside for youth activities.

I definitely believe that an investment in our youth problems is an investment that pays dividends in the future good community.

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO . . . The quiet, business-like athlete who graduated from PHS in 1953, and then went on to receive a B.S. degree from MSU? He played varsity football, basketball and baseball while in high school with equal success at all three. He served as captain of the basketball team in his senior year.

At present he teaches biology and science at Pierce Junior High School at Waterford, Mich. He lives at 3300 Elizabeth Lake Rd. in Pontiac with his wife, who was the former Gail Blanchard of Pontiac, and their three lovely children — Leslie Joan, 3; Edwin Brooks IV, 2; and Dawn Marie who just arrived six weeks ago.

Mr. X is still interested in sports — participating in recreational basketball, and he referees a few high school games a round the Pontiac section.

His name — Casey Cavell. Casey is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Ted Cavell, former residents of Plymouth, who now reside in Tawas City where the good doctor is still practicing veterinary. They own a Dairy Isle on US 23 across from their home, which Mrs. Cavell manages.
