Plymouth Greets RCA

Senator Hart Breaks Ground

Plymouth opened its arms to a new industrial neighbor Tuesday afternoon when ground was broken on a five acre Plymouth Rd. site for a 40,000 square foot building that next October will house the RCA Industrial and Automation Products Department.

U. S. Senator Philip Hart, Plant Manager Norman Amberg and Mayor Robert Sincock turned over the first ground yesterday for the structure. The combined factory and office building will be erected by H. F. Campbell Co., Detroit builders, for lease to RCA.

C. H. Cooledge, division vice-president and general manager, RCA Broadcast and Communications Products Division, which includes the present Detroit facility, said the move to the new and larger quarters was prompted by the increasing demand for the RCA-built electronic systems. The department now occupies a building at 13451 Auburn Ave., Detroit, which will be sold. Seventy-five are employed at this facility, but employment is expected to increase at the larger plant.

RCA expects to expand its manufacture of machines which are used in the inspection and gaging systems.

Cooledge added that the expansion program was dictated by a higher level of RCA participation in the inspection and gaging systems market and by the future sales potential for such equipment, particularly in the automotive and metal-working industries.

Sixty people, representing Plymouth City and Township, the school system, the Chamber of Commerce and the Plymouth Industrial Development Corp. attended a luncheon at Hillside Inn prior to the ground breaking.

At the site, located at Plymouth Rd. and Haggerty, across from the Burroughs Corp., an audience of some 200 people gathered. Many of them were High School social studies students, a group of students from Our Lady of Good Counsel and the High School Band.

Harold Guenther, vice-president of the Industrial Development Corp., which was instrumental in bringing RCA to Plymouth, told the audience, and especially the students, how vital industry is to a community. Guenther had earlier been presented a plaque from the Chamber of Commerce for his efforts leading to the decision of RCA to locate here.

Norman Amberg, the RCA plant manager, commended the community for its welcome.

"In all of my industrial career I've never seen the equal," he noted that his plant's division of RCA is not the glamour of the TV and radio divisions, "but it is the type that will be useful in our everyday livelihood."

Senator Hart, who flew in from Washington an hour before the ceremony, said that at one time people living in this part of Michigan believed the assembly line was the cornerstone of our economy, but that the picture is now changing to one where plants require highly-skilled men to operate the complicated electronics machinery. School children of today, he added, must have much greater preparation for the future than their parents did.

The event was one of several this week which has gained statewide publicity. A 2 1/2-minute spot on WJBK-TV Tuesday night told about Plymouth's economic "bounce back" since the departure of Daisy Manufacturing.

The luncheon program began with an invocation by the Rev. John W. Miller, pastor of Lutheran Church of the Epiphany. Master of ceremonies was Edward Draughlis, general chairman of this year's highly-successful Michigan Week observance in Plymouth.

AN ARCHITECT'S sketch shows the future home of the RCA's Industrial & Automation Division started this week at Plymouth and Haggerty Roads. Containing 40,000 square feet, the building is being built by the H. F. Campbell Co. and will be leased to RCA. The division plant is now located on Auburn Ave. in Detroit.

Will Honor War Dead

Plymouth's traditional salute to those who fought and died in America's battles will take place next Wednesday morning with a parade starting at 10 a.m., followed by a Memorial Day service in Kellogg Park.

This Sunday will be Memorial Church services, held this year at the Church of the Nazarene, 41550 E. Ann Arbor Trail. This service will start at 10:45 a.m. with veteran organizations participating. They will meet at the church at 10:15 a.m.

This Saturday, veterans will place American flags on the graves of deceased veterans at area cemeteries. This will start at 10 a.m.

Memorial Day's activities will start at 9:30 a.m. with the salute to the Navy and Marine dead by the Navy Mothers. They will gather in the Hillside Inn parking lot at 9 a.m. and the program will take place on the Plymouth Rd. bridge over the Middle Rouge River.

The main assembly will gather in the Kroger parking lot at 9:30 a.m. The parade will begin at 10 a.m., moving on Main St. to Kellogg Park. Leading the parade will be the color guard of Flight A, 9632nd Air Reserve Squadron commanded by Maj. Larry Ransom.

Master of ceremonies for the Kellogg Park program will be Allan Killen of the Packing Corporation of America. There will be a recitation, of "In Flanders Fields" by John Augustine Post, American Legion.

Two Spanish-American War veterans, Tom Gray and C. H. Goyer, are expected to participate in the parade.

Guest speaker for the program will be announced later. Gerald Olson of the Mayflower Post, VFW, is parade marshal. His aide is Harold Wilson of the Passage-Gayde Post, American Legion.

School's Nearly Over, But Summer Program Will Follow

Over four dozen courses — of both academic and recreational nature — will be offered this summer at Plymouth High School in a variety of subjects that will appeal to those from the kindergarten-age child to the adult.

Classes will begin Monday, June 25, a few days after the last day of school. Most classes will be held in the morning and they will last either six or seven weeks, according to Assistant Princiapl Gustav Gorguze and Director of Adult Education and Recreation Herbert Woolweaver.

Registration and enrollment will begin Monday, June 18 and will run through Friday, June 22 at the High School office. Registration for swimming, tennis, baton twirling and cheerleading is now being taken in the Recreation Office.

Fees for the credit courses (7 weeks, 2 hours a day) are $8 per course. Non-credit courses (6 weeks, 1 hour a day) cost $4 per course. Fees for other courses are swimming, $4; tennis, $3; baton twirling, $2; and cheerleading $1. The fee for special education (5 weeks, 3 hours a day) will be announced later.

Fees for non-resident students and those over 18 years of age are twice the regular fee. A number of adults enroll in the summer courses. There is no charge for driver education, but this is for resident student under 18 years of age.

These are the courses offered: (Continued on Page 8)

To Sell Poppies Here Tomorrow

Members of Plymouth's two veteran organizations, the Passage-Gayde Post of the American Legion and the Mayflower Post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be on the sidewalks this Thursday selling poppies. Poppy Day proceeds are used to help veterans in need.

Fatal Stabbing Probe Continued By Detectives

Sheriff's detectives said yesterday that so far they are up a blind alley in solving the fatal stabbing of a Plymouth man in a Telegraph Rd. bar last week.

Curtis McCowan, 22, of 483 Ann St., died of a stab wound in the heart early Tuesday morning last week. His twin brother, Kirkland, and another companion, Dale Burrell, 970 Hartsough were rushing the injured man to a hospital when their car had an accident. The victim was dead upon arrival at Wayne County General Hospital.

Detectives said their investigation so far has indicated that there were around 20 people in Marv's Bar, 4101 S. Telegraph Rd., Dearborn Township. An argument erupted with seven people involved. As bottles, stools and pool cues began to fly, patrons dove over the counter and under tables, it was learned.

McCowan is believed to have been stabbed while standing just inside the bar's front entranceway, detectives said. So far, detectives add, no one is saying who the other people in the fight were.

Governor Helps Town Dedicate New Industry

"These things just don't happen by themselves," Governor John B. Swainson told an audience Friday night at the formal ribbon-cutting ceremony at Distribution Service, Inc., as he paid tribute to the Plymouth Industrial Development Corp.

"It wasn't that Mr. Scott and his board or his stockholders decided that Plymouth was the place they always wanted to be. It took an awful lot of effort on the part of a lot of people."

The governor was the main speaker at the dedication ceremony held in front of the industrial plant that once housed Daisy Manufacturing.

The program had started with the introduction of guests by master of ceremonies Frank Henderson. Mayor Robert Sincock presented the governor with a framed resolution proclaiming the day as "Governor Swainson Day" in Plymouth. Harold Guenther, vice-president of the Industrial Development Corp., then presented a share of stock to the governor. William Scott, president of DSI, spoke briefly to commend the "fine community and people who had open arms for us" when the firm arrived here last year. "No wonder," he added, "Plymouth has done such an amazing job of attracting new industry" growth in school population alone. "Five hundred children a day are born in Michigan. I've never heard the retail shoe store manager complain about our growth, but there are those who must be concerned... Russell Isbister (superintendent of schools) can tell you how many more children started school last fall than they will let out in June." (Continued on page 8)

THE TOOL ROOM of the Plymouth Historical Museum is lined with several hundred tools from out of the past, most of which the present generation would find difficult identifying. Samuel Spicer, right, one of the society's hard-working members, is pictured showing an item to visitor Bruce Mackie, 350 McKinley Ave.

Opens to Public Friday

Museum Offers Something For All

By Jean Campau

From the moment you start up the petunia-lined walk toward the moss-bottom hanging flower baskets around the porch, you begin to feel the tedium of the 20th century trickling away.

Once inside the doorway of 157 Main St., the visitor finds he has stepped backward a century or more in time. This is the aura that members of the Plymouth Historical Society have effected with the Michigan Week opening of the Historical Museum.

The museum will be open to the public for the first time this Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. Starting June 2, it will be open two days a week — on Saturdays from 1 to 4 p.m. and Sundays from noon until 3 p.m.

Gazing into the old parlor with its horsehair furniture and circular tables, complete with stereopticon, one gets the feeling that the family has just left the room moments before.

Young girls of today will see how great-great grandmother ruled supreme in her kitchen of long ago. The butter churn, the wire rug beater, the mush pot and paddle are just a few of the utensils that point up the contrast of keeping house then and now.

Down the hall a few steps, dozens of farm and barn implements are arranged for inspection. Worthy of mention are a tortuous-looking tongue depressor for horses, a tool for putting rings in pigs' noses and a king-sized grater for cutting sauerkraut.

In the map room, known among Society members as the Sidney Strong Room, owing to the fact that he once roomed at the Polley house, one can study the old maps and pictures for a pictorial history of Plymouth through the years.

Mail to Publish One Day Early

Because Memorial Day falls on Wednesday next week, the usual day of publication for The Plymouth Mail, the newspaper will be published one day early. This will require an earlier deadline.

Readers are being urged to submit classified advertising by noon Monday. The same deadline will be held for news items and display advertising.

Subscribers will receive next week's issue in the mail on Thursday.

Little Leaguer Parade to End Michigan Week

A parade down Main St. this Saturday at 11 a.m. by the Plymouth Little Leaguers will bring to a close Plymouth's Michigan Week activities. Here is the schedule for the remainder of this week:

WEDNESDAY — Industrial Day. Business and industrial leaders will lunch at noon at the Mayflower Hotel. William Scott, president of DSI, will be the speaker.

THURSDAY — Education Day. Schools will emphasize Michigan history. Seniors will tour DSI at 3 p.m.

FRIDAY — Our Heritage Day. Historical Museum formally opens to public from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. A tea at Dunning-Hough Library sponsored by women's groups is from 1 to 5 p.m.

SATURDAY — Our Youth Day. Junior Baseball League will parade to ball park on Plymouth Rd. at 11 a.m.

Standing behind them are Laura Raafaub, a waitress; and Chris Ellinger, a waiter.

Proud of Old Hometown Pop Concert Makes One

Without warning, the 100-piece symphony began playing the opening number, march from the "Love of Three Oranges" without benefit of Conductor Wayne Dunlap. The conductor rushed into view and was held up by greetings from "friends" at the tables. At the podium, the conductor fumbled in his briefcase for the music, finally found his baton and raised it just in time for the closing downbeat.

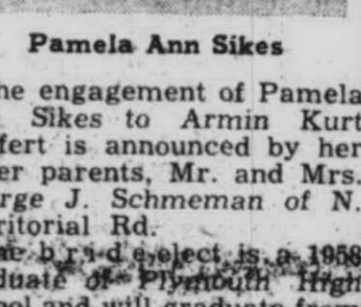

Proceeds from the 2 1/2-hour program (which cost a mere $1.50 per ticket) will go toward financing the symphony's next season. The concert was sponsored by the Plymouth Symphony Women's League.

The concert was also the close of the 11th season for Wayne Dunlap as conductor of the Plymouth Symphony. Only a week before, Dunlap was guest conductor of the Detroit Symphony in Ford Auditorium and his efforts won the praise of newspaper music critics.

A standing ovation was given the symphony and its soloists at the conclusion of Saturday's concert — a gesture indicating that Plymouth appreciates the music it is getting.

Tichy Named Vice-President of United Greenfield Corporation

and General Manager of the Whitman & Barnes division. He started in the Plymouth plant in 1953 as a machine designer and was promoted successively to chief engineer, factory manager and general manager of the division.

In his new job, Tichy will direct the research and the production techniques of all nine manufacturing divisions and subsidiaries of the company. His office will be at the Chicago headquarters of United-Greenfield.

Replacing Tichy as general manager of Whitman & Barnes will be Edward R. Burkardt, who is presently Assistant General Manager of J. H. Williams & Co., Buffalo, N.Y., a division which manufactures forged hand service tools and commercial forgings.

The promotions become effective immediately, but Tichy will remain in Plymouth sufficiently long to get Burkardt established at W&B. Tichy's predecessor as general manager of Whitman & Barnes was Edwin W. Zipse, who is now president of the parent company.

John Ribar to Graduate From Seminary May 30

John Ribar

John W. Ribar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis J. Ribar, 398 Pacific, a member of the 1962 graduating class of Concordia Theological Seminary, Springfield, Ill. will receive his diploma and official call into the Lutheran ministry at the graduation service, Wednesday, May 30 in the seminary quadrangle. Speaker will be Dr. Arthur Ahlschwede, St. Louis, Mo., executive secretary of the Board of Higher Education of the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod.

Mr. Ribar has been assigned as instructor at Concordia Senior College, Ft. Wayne, Ind.

Concordia Theological Seminary of Springfield is maintained by the Lutheran Church-Missouri Synod. Its program is designed to serve students who are the products of the American system of colleges and universities. The school has an enrollment of over 500. The graduating class this year numbers 121, the largest in the history of the seminary since it was organized in 1846.

Mr. Ribar is a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Plymouth. Prior to enrolling at the seminary, he attended Michigan Lutheran Seminary, and received the degree of master of arts from the University of Wisconsin.

Fraternity Pledges

Two Plymouthites were among the 432 men that have pledged membership to 41 fraternities at the University of Michigan.

Paul Malboeuf, 555 Sheldon Dr., has pledged Chi Phi and John L. Stephenson, 11737 Amherst Ct., has pledged Acacia.

How I Earned My First Dollar

Carl Caplin

Between $1.50 to $2 a week was earned by Carl Caplin when he began his first real job. Now owner of Carl Caplin Clothes, it was perhaps no accident then that he earned his first dollar in a clothing store.

A native of Ypsilanti, young Carl was around 12 years old when he began work in his grandfather's clothing store by brushing out overcoats that had been in storage all summer. They had no clearance sales then to avoid storage," he asserted.

Later, Carl went to work for a competitor and worked for four different clothing stores before he graduated from high school.

A phase of his life that few people know about is a period of 1926 to 1931 when he played saxophone and clarinet in one of Gene Goldkette's famous bands. Most of the work was in theaters.

In 1934 he joined Wild & Co., as a partner. This Plymouth clothing store later became Davis & Lent.

It was in 1949 that Mr. Caplin opened Carl Caplin Clothes in a very small room in the Mayflower Hotel, across the entrance way from his present location. It was advertised as "Michigan's Smallest Clothing Store."

Mr. and Mrs. Caplin, who live on Joy Rd., have two married sons. Mr. Caplin served a term on the Board of Education and was its president.

Families Interested in Camping Invited to YMCA Camp-o-Rama

The Plymouth Community YMCA, through its family program committee, is interested in promoting family camping.

A meeting, held on May 14 at the Plymouth Community Credit Union was attended by a number of interested families. Urey B. Arnold, committee chairman, introduced Roger Blood, YMCA Secretary, who spoke briefly on the importance of families doing things together. Blood, as a member of the National

Y M C A Family Committee, also mentioned some of the many social changes which characterize today's society demanding greater emphasis by families in maintaining moral values.

Those attending shared experiences through colored slides showing some of the camping spots in Canada and across the United States. Equipment for camping was also discussed. Each family attending received a copy of the YMCA booklet "The Family on Vacation" giving ideas of games to play while traveling, camp projects, stunts and skits around a campfire, crafts, and camp recipes.

Plans were made for a Camp-o-Rama, to be held on the grounds of Allen School on Saturday afternoon, June 2, starting at 4 o'clock. The purpose of the event will be for displaying camping equipment, having families become acquainted, and enjoying a camp meal together. Several individuals will display their camping trailers, while others have volunteered to show "chuck wagon cupboards", and other smaller items of equipment.

Although sponsored by YMCA members, all persons, novice or experienced, who are interested in family camping are urged to attend and to set up their equipment or bring camping items for others to see. Each family is asked to bring a camp supper, which may be a picnic lunch, or the ingredients to prepare an evening meal on their own camp stove.

An outgrowth of the event may be final formulation of plans for a Plymouth YMCA Family Camping Club for weekend caravan tent and trailer camping during the coming summer.

Further information may be secured by calling committee members: Mr. and Mrs. Urey Arnold, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Dusbiber, Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Ross, Dale Carmine, or Mr. and Mrs. Roger Blood.

Grange Gleanings

The Plymouth Grange held their regular meeting Thursday, May 17. The meeting was called to order by our Master Jesse Tritten, and was promptly taken care of.

Please remember Sunday, June 3, is when we meet in a body at Newburg Church at 10:45 a.m. So lets all be there. This is the new church on Ann Arbor Trail.

Best wishes to all of our sick members. Hope you will soon be with us again.

It was good to have Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Wood, with us after spending the winter in California, also our master's mother, Mrs. Ellen Tritten, from Brethern, Mich.

After the meeting we all retired to the dining room to help Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunk celebrate their belated 50th wedding anniversary. The dining room looked beautiful with a handsome wedding cake baked and decorated by Hilda Lunn, and all the other cookies and cakes that were served with coffee and tea. It was a real social affair.

Our very best wishes to Art and Angie.

We'll see you at Grange.

State Aid Makes It Possible To Start College With One Mill Levy

Last October the residents of Clarenceville, Garden City, Livonia and Plymouth voted by a large majority to establish Northwest Wayne County Community College. At the same time they elected a board of trustees to govern the College. At that time they were told that a vote of one mill would be necessary to build and operate the College.

When voters go to the polls on Monday, June 11, they will decide whether to tax themselves one mill to open the College in September, 1964. Although there are two questions on the ballot, the second does not ask for added money.

The meaning of this vote is significant to the taxpayer who must decide two things: (1) What will the College cost him? (2) What will he get for his money?

"Because of State Aid for community colleges, Northwest Wayne County Community College can be built and operated for only one mill. This means approximately $5 to $6 annually to the average homeowner. The actual tax will vary from $1.15 to $1.37 per thousand dollars of assessed valuation, depending upon location. That is, if a home is assessed at $5,000, the tax will vary from $5.75 to $6.80 annually. Were it not for State Aid, this low millage would not build and operate a college.

This one mill will make a college campus possible with provision for technical and academic training for youth and adults of this area.

Marianne Watson Exhibits Art Work

Marianne Watson, of 1170 W. Maple, a part time student at Madonna College, will be one of the participants in the 1962 student art exhibit.

Official opening of the 10th annual Madonna College student art exhibit will be held Sunday, May 27 from 7-9 p.m. The exhibit will be open daily May 28-June 3 from 4-8 p.m. The event is sponsored under the direction of Sister M. Angelina, art instructor.

Thirty-three art students will display work completed during the school year. Special emphasis has been placed on creativity, originality and experimentation in the various media of interest.

Laval University, founded at Quebec in 1852, grew from the seminary established by Bishop Laval there in 1663.

Wave Dawn Carol Berry

WAVE Berry Home on Leave

Dawn Carol Berry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Courtney R. Berry of 15200 Bradner Road, completed 10 weeks of basic training at Recruit Training - Women, United States Training Center, Bainbridge, Md., and was graduated during a military review held May 11.

The local WAVE, a former student at Plymouth High School, will spend 14 days leave with her family before reporting to U.S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. for Hospital Corps School.

During her basic training WAVE Berry received instruction in Naval Orientation, Naval History, Citizenship and Current Events, Naval Ships, Aircraft and Armament, Self Improvement, First Aid, Physical Training, and military bearing and drill during her indoctrination period.

Miss Berry enlisted at the U. S. Navy Recruiting Branch Station, Veterans Memorial Hall in Northville for a period of three years and was sworn in at the U. S. Navy Recruiting Station, Federal Building, Detroit.

Houk to Lead Retailers Assn. Shoe Division

James Houk, owner of Fisher Shoe Store, Plymouth, was elected as a Trade Division director of the Michigan Retailers Assn. at the group's 22nd annual meeting held last week in Lansing.

He will head the Shoe Trade Division for a three-year term.

Paul Wagner, of Wagner and Company, Ann Arbor, was re-elected president of the association.

Richard O. Cook, executive vice-president of the MRA, in his annual report commended retailers for their positive, united efforts to advance the retail industry during the past year. Cook said "1961-62 should be remembered as the year when the organizational efforts of the MRA grew into maturity — from legislative representation, to trade division activities, to educational programs, to complete and adequate facilities."

Obituaries

Mary Jane Phillips
Rev. J. R. Owens officiated at funeral services May 18 held from the Schrader Funeral Home for Mary Jane Phillips, 91, who passed away May 16 in Wayne County General Hospital.

She came to this area 26 years ago from Wales, where she was born Aug. 6, 1870 in Carnarvon to Laura (Perry) and Thomas Hughes. Her husband, John, preceded her in death in 1936.

One son, Thomas Phillips, one granddaughter and two great granddaughters survive her.

Pallbearers were Lew Hughes, Frank Hughes, Carl eton Hughes, Emyr Williams, Dave Roberts and Walter Perrott.

Interment was in South Lyon Cemetery.

Emma Wendt
Emma Wendt passed away suddenly May 17 in Arcadia, Calif. She was 76 years old.

Born June 14, 1885 to Alvina (Schave) and August Timreck, she came to this community in 1927 from Detroit, making her home at 8404 Wayne Rd. Her husband, Albert, preceded her in death Dec. 15, 1957.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Ethel Jones, of Arcadia and Mrs. Beatrice Fritz of Plymouth; two brothers, Paul Timreck and Otto Timreck, both of Port Hope, Mich.; two sisters, Mrs. Hannah Adkins and Mrs. Augusta Kitchen of Grosse Pointe; and seven grandchildren.

Rev. Glenn Wegmeyer officiated at services held May 22 at the Schrader Funeral Home.

Interment was in Riverside Cemetery.

CHANGES MEETING DATE
Because its regular Wednesday night meeting date will fall on Memorial Day, the Board of Trustees of Northwest Wayne County Community College will meet for its regular meeting on Monday, May 28 at 8 p.m. The meeting will be held at the college offices, 9901 Newburgh Rd., Livonia.

Perfect Shot Wins Trophy

Breaking his own record Gun Club on Schoolcraft, and winning a trophy in the independent class, Jerry Van Tassel shot 100 skeets out of 100 Sunday, May 13, at the Bay City Delta Gun Club. There were 44 others participating in the event.

Michigan motorists logged more than 33 billion miles during 1961. Travel on Michigan highways is expected to nearly double during the next 20 years.

At the Maple Grove Gun Club in Mt. Clemens May 20, he was high man again, duplicating his 100 out of 100 score. A member of the Livonia

FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW ABOUT THE....

HEALTH CARE FOR THE AGED ISSUE

THE ISSUE IS NOT "HEALTH CARE VERSUS NO HEALTH CARE" ... AS SOME WOULD HAVE YOU BELIEVE. THE ISSUE IS HOW HEALTH CARE FOR OUR ELDERLY CAN BEST BE PROVIDED ... WHETHER THE PROGRAM SHOULD BE VOLUNTARY OR COMPULSORY.

WE FAVOR VOLUNTARY PROGRAMS:

We believe that all our elderly should receive all the health care they need when they need it. We favor programs sensibly designed to help those who need help. Such programs are available now and taxpayers already are paying for them. These programs include private health insurance, and Blue Cross - Blue Shield, for those able to purchase these policies, and the Kerr-Mills Law (Michigan Aid for the Aged) and other local and state programs for helping those who need help in paying for medical care. More than 9,000,000, or 53%, of the aged already have health insurance.

WE OPPOSE COMPULSORY PLANS:

- The King-Anderson Bill, now before Congress, would provide certain health care benefits for those over 65 who are eligible for social security. However, you are entitled to know what appears in the "fine print" of the bill.
- It would force every worker to pay 17% more payroll taxes to provide benefits for millions of the wealthy and self-reliant who can well afford to take care of themselves.
- It would not provide any benefits to the 3,500,000 not covered by social security — the group most in need.
- It would cover less than 25% of the health care costs of those eligible for the benefits.
- It would not provide for physicians services outside of hospitals.
- It would lower the quality of medical care with Federal Government controlling standards of practice and limiting free choice of Hospital and physician.
- It would not provide nursing home care unless the patient first was admitted to a hospital.
- It is not an "insurance" program. It is a tax and welfare plan.
- Even those eligible for benefits would have to pay $10 a day for the first nine days of each hospitalization, and $20 for each complete diagnostic study.
- It would permit doctors to prescribe only 20% of the drugs ordinarily used by physicians in their practice.

WHAT YOU CAN DO

If you agree with us that a system of compulsory government medicine for a segment of our population would be bad medicine for the nation, write Representative Martha Griffiths today. Urge her to oppose the King-Anderson Bill. Mrs. Griffiths' address is House Office Bldg., Washington, D.C.

Plymouth High School

By Janet Graham

So many people have noticed the strange way sophomores have been waving their hands around this past week. The reason: They're flashing their new class rings! Last fall a special ring committee headed by Susy Robinson chose the very striking gold rings with a grey stone and the school crest which sophomores are proudly sporting now. Of course, there are again the not-so-rare cases of the boys who ordered a size 8 last fall and now, six months later, need at least a size 9 1/2.

With elections for school and class officers now complete, balloting for new club officers is underway. Results for Water Waves and GAA voting should be available next week.

Livonia Schools Honor Plymouth's Iva Minehart

A Japanese theme will be featured in the town party to be held at Stark Elementary School, Livonia, Saturday evening, May 26, at 7:30, to honor retiring principal Iva Minehart, 42551 Clemons Rd., Plymouth. Hundreds of friends from the Stark community, former pupils, and fellow teachers and administrators are expected to join in the festivities.

Erwin S. Brown, president of the Livonia Board of Education, will present a citation from the Board, and Stark PTA President John Zimmerly will give Mrs. Minehart the Parent-Teacher Association award.

The guest of honor has spent 39 years in the teaching profession and school administration and has the longest length of service of any Livonia principal.

The Bentley High School Concert Choir will sing for the occasion and will present Mrs. Minehart with one of its records. Gifts of flowers and luggage will be given by the staff and parents.

The welcoming committee will be dressed in Japanese costume, as guests enter the Torii Gate, beside a gilded Buddha. Japanese lanterns will be strung from the trees and light poles, which will be covered with apple blossoms. Tables are to be decorated with Japanese parasol favors and floral centerpieces, and guests will receive souvenir programs.

In addition to the lawn party Mrs. Minehart will be entertained by the Stark staff at the Detroit Yacht Club June 9. She was the dinner guest of women members of the Livonia schools administrative staff, with Dr. Bernice Roberts and Mrs. Barbara Ort, Friday, May 11.

Mrs. Minehart has served the Livonia school system 32 years, longer than any other person. The last 18 have been as principal of Stark School. Before that she had been principal of Newburg School

Miss Steiner On Dean's List

Among the students recently named on the Dean's list at Hillsdale College, for which a B-or-better semester average is required, is Christina Steiner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Steiner, 7675 Ridge Rd.

A graduate of Plymouth High School, Miss Steiner is now a sophomore at Hillsdale, where she is a past member of the Freshman Honor Society, and is now associated with the Athenian Society.

On Honor List

Lawrence Gavigan, 565 Simpson, and Thomas Turrentine, 15615 Plymouth Rd., Plymouth, are among the 456 Ferris Institute students who were named to the Dean's Honor List for academic excellence during the past quarter. Dr. Ardwin J. Dolio, Vice President for Academic Affairs, has announced.

To be named to the Dean's Honor List a student must maintain at least a B average while carrying a full academic load.

Lawrence is a refrigeration and air-conditioning student in the Trade and Industrial Division, while Thomas is an optical technology student in the Collegiate Technical Division.

Cheerleaders are discussing next year's uniforms. Varsity cheerleaders Kathy Holt '63, Vickie McCuaig '63, Beth Wideman '63, Sally Gilles '63, Susie Cooper '64 and Nancy Reed '64 are considering a change from the all-white uniforms of this year's varsity squad. The chic white sweaters with the big blue "P" belong to the club, but each of this year's cheerers made her own white pleated skirt. A switch back to blue skirts or even culottes is one of the plans being considered. New JV cheerleaders Pam Perkins '64, Kathy McIntyre '65, Carol Otwell '65, Kathy Smith '65, Rosie Battle '65 and Kathy Mills '65 will probably sport the same — or very similar — per blue vests and short blue pleated skirts worn by this year's JV-ers.

Seniors, as of Wednesday, May 23, have seven and a half days of school, counting exam days. And, until 11 a.m. on Tuesday June 5, it'll be sheer torture! A couple of hours on Tuesday May 25 have been set aside to honor all those seniors who have been outstanding achievers in each department and to celebrate and reminisce about the glories of the tradition

Senior Michelle Bender headed the high school committee for publicity about Michigan: posters, special bulletin boards, display cases and announcements deal with books, vacations and outstanding features of our state. Five Council-men from Northville High School visited classes last Thursday as part of a Council neighbor-exchange program. A note from Bentley High School's paper, the Bentley Echo: Have you ever noticed it used to be it you got all A's on your report card you were called a grind. Nowadays you're called a well-motivated achiever in the college-level percentiles. Community College Would Offer Both Day and Night Programs

To meet the emergency created by rapid technological changes, Northwest Wayne County Community College will offer both day and evening programs. Short and long-term courses will be prepared for vocational and semi-professional training and retraining. These will be organized in terms of the particular needs of this area. The trustees and administration anticipate a large enrollment of students wishing upgrading on the job or preparation for new vocations.

Among the many areas available in the evening will be secretarial studies, accounting, electronics, engineering and business. Academic courses will be so arranged that it will be possible, in the day and evening, to follow regular programs in teaching, business, administration, engineering and many other curricula.

Courses will be offered such as geology, mathematics, chemistry, physics, psychology, philosophy, art, history, speech, English and foreign languages to permit the evening student to be ready for his junior year in college.

As is the case in the day courses, the evening course offerings will depend upon community request.

Jaycees Wash Cars Saturday

Every car needs a wash these days and when it comes to getting one for only $1 — well, you just can't find many of them nowadays, according to the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The Jaycees are sponsoring a car wash this Saturday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. behind West Bros. Mercury on Forest Ave. Profit from the $1 charge will be used to finance the service organization's many projects.

The Corn Crib

They're Doing Our Work! If Big Brother Meany and Big Brother Walt don't get together, it's hardly their fault.

When solving their problems, they start at the roots. That always entangle construction disputes. Steel men work on steel, and carpenters on wood. It's as simple as that, so far so good.

Now the head of the hammer is made out of steel. And so are the nails, so the grievance is real. But the handle they hold is made out of wood. And the steel men can't touch it that's understood. Why not let the steel man bang on to the nail. Till the carpenter hits it and let peace prevail?

Goodwill Trucks Here on Monday

The next visit of Goodwill Industries pick-up trucks to Plymouth is scheduled for Monday, May 28. Goodwill trucks collect household discards of clothing, shoes, hats, toys, most types of furniture and other household discards. To arrange for a Goodwill Industries truck pick-up, call the local Goodwill representative, ask the operator for toll-free Enterprise 7002.

Agrico WEED CONTROL with FERTILIZER

Broadleaf weeds compete with and crowd out desirable lawn grasses. Kill them in early growth with Agrico Weed Control with Fertilizer. The herbicide content destroys Plantain, Dandelion, Buckhorn, Shepherds Purse and other broadleaf weeds. The fertilizer, formulated with slow-acting nitrogen, encourages grass to fill-in bare spots left by dying weeds—gives the entire lawn a lift. Be sure Agrico Weed Control is in your lawn maintenance program.

"A COMMUNITY DOES NOT ENDURE BY THE WORK OF HIRELINGS. A COMMUNITY ENDURES WHEN ITS LEAST AND ITS GREATEST CITIZEN LOVE IT ALIKE AND WILL LIVE AND WORK AND DIE THAT IT MAY BE GLORIOUS."

Plymouth has an excellent school system. It has this system because the residents of this area wanted it and, at one time or another, voted in favor of appropriating the money to build it in the excellent manner in which it now is. Back as far as when I was president of the Board of Education, and that was many years ago, people wanted bus transportation for their children. At first I opposed it because I felt the costs would be an extra burden on our taxpayers, at that time, but I finally succumbed to pressure and decided if the people wanted it they should have it.

This pressure has built new grade schools, added a band room to our high school, and also a swimming pool. It further has remodeled our high school, and brought us two new junior high schools — all by the simple medium of the voters going to the polls and voting yes on these many improvements and additions.

New residents are enticed into our town by the fine reputation of our school system. One of the first selling points our local realtors use in pointing out our assets is the quality of our school system. Our cultural standard demands better-than-average schools, and today we have them.

On the other hand is the problem of maintaining this system. The board's request for seven and one-half mills was higher than necessary and the voters emphatically turned it down. Now they have, in desperation, come forward with a request for five and one-half mills. Three and one-half mills are only a renewal of what we have given them before and two new mills are being asked for mainly salary adjustments and operation of the new Ann Arbor Trail junior high school.

The problem at hand today is giving the Board the money they need now to get the school system back on an operating basis, and we can do this by approving their request for five and one-half mills on June 11th when we go to the polls to elect board members and get the Community College underway.

At the same time we are asked to approve the five and one-half mills for the schools we will be asked to approve a one mill grant for the College. One half mill will be used for their operating budget on which all registered voters may vote, and the other one half mill for bonding, which will build buildings, and can only be voted on by property owners.

What does all of this mean to you and to me. It's just as simple as this. When you vote YES we continue paying the same school tax we are paying today . . . and . . . we agree to pay two dollars a thousand more for the local schools, and one dollar a thousand for the college. It actually figures six and one-half dollars a thousand, but only three of those six represent an actual increase to us. In millage, it's six and one-half mills — a three mills increase and three and one-half mills we are paying now.

When you get in the voting booth you'll probably stop and remember that you voted to have all these things, and you'll know a junior college will help continue our youngsters education at greatly reduced costs, so, if you wanted these things it's up to you to support them. How do you do it? . . . Very simple . . . just vote YES on June 11th.

I might add a word of warning to our educators at this point, however. We hope you get the millage you are asking for now, and we hope the college is approved . . . BUT . . . right now is the time to start thinking about the future, and the probable impossibility, in this economy, of wringing any more dollars out of your already hard-pressed taxpayers. I'll vote YES this time because I know we need a college, and I voted to build a pool, junior high, etc., so I've got to help maintain them. . . . BUT, I also know I can't possibly pay much more in taxes and support my own family, too.

We're sorry to read about the cut-back ailing health brought about in the activities of Circuit Judge Chester P. O'Hara. "Chet," as he has been affectionately known among his friends for many years, has devoted a lifetime of service to this great State and we hope he can make a speedy recovery and resume his normal activities. Local service clubs will remember Judge O'Hara for his many appearances here on various programs which he provided for the enlightenment of their members. We send our best to him and his wonderful wife.

There are still many honest people. Just before going into surgery at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor recently Mrs. Kenneth Burcaw of Ridgewood road handed her husband her diamond wedding and engagement rings. Kind husband put them in his billfold and before the day was over had lost the wedding band. After checking the many local stores he had visited that day he remembered he had eaten his dinner that night at Howard Johnson's in Ypsilanti. Picking up the phone he called and was told by the manager that the ring was in his cash register, having been picked up and turned in by another guest in the restaurant. Mrs. Burcaw is home feeling fine and wearing both of her rings, thanks to some honest person.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:
The following is a letter we have presented to Mr. Harold Niemi, president of the Board of Education:
Dear Mr. Niemi:

Certain information which appeared in the May 16 issue of the Plymouth Mail regarding the school election on June 11, 1962, is in need of clarification and correction. The article relating to a citizens committee headed by Mr. Kenneth Bisbee, listed as members the undersigned individuals. It also stated that a report or list of suggestions was submitted to the Board signed by the twelve members of the committee.

We feel it necessary to point out that we are not members of a citizens committee headed by Mr. Bisbee, nor did we see or sign a report or list of suggestions submitted by Mr. Bisbee. While many of the items listed are worthy of consideration, we do not feel they are significant enough to warrant withdrawal of support by any group. We feel the new millage request is warranted and justified and deserves the support of the citizens. Any other differences that exist should be settled at a more appropriate time by those involved.

Mr. Bisbee was not authorized or justified in using our names in connection with his committee. We further state our support of the millage issue and shall continue to strive for better education of our Plymouth children.

To the Editor:
I would like to comment on the article "Citizen Group Takes Exception to Parts of School Proposal" which appeared in last week's Plymouth Mail, section 1, page 8. The letter to the Board of Education to which the article refers was signed only by Mr. Bisbee and not by any of the others whose names appeared with his as members of a citizens group. The people at this meeting did approve a renewal of the expiring 3 1/2 mills, plus an additional 2 mills.

I want to go on record as supporting the School Board's present proposal of a total of 5 1/2 mills, and am confident they will put it to the best possible use for all concerned — the students — the teachers — and the citizens of Plymouth.

Extension Clubs Popular With Plymouth Homemakers

by Jean Campau
Since 1914, the Cooperative Extension Service of Michigan State University, Wayne County Branch, has been offering a wealth of information to women throughout the state within the framework of extension clubs.

Here in the Plymouth area, there are six such groups composed of over 100 women. They are known as The Allen Unit, Plymouth Pioneers, Kenyon and Sheldon Clubs. Many of the members have been active for over a quarter of a century. Recently three of these women were awarded their 25-year pins. Mrs. Donald Beyer, Sheldon Rd.; Mrs. Sadie Ferguson, Wing Rd.; and Mrs. Milton Rowe, Ford Rd.

Betty Barber, County Extension agent, speaks energetically about her diversified role working with homemakers.

"We get all kinds of queries, from how to pickle eggs to what kind of fabrics are allergy-free. If we haven't the information, or its outside our province, we try and refer the caller to the proper place."

Working around a simple trilogy of principal, time, energy and money, the extension service offers guidance in matters of cooking, gardening, clothing, nutrition, purchasing, home furnishing, child relations, safety and community problems.

"To start a group," explains Mrs. Barber, "we suggest a minimum membership of 10. From this body, usually two are selected by their unit to take leadership training at the extension office in Wayne."

Afterwards the club works through advisory councils, community organizations, and the County Board of Supervisors, who guide extension programs with programming, policy, and financial support. The cooperative extension service is sponsored jointly by county, state and the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture.

"The programs we offer," continued Mrs. Barber, "are informative and interesting and offer the homemaker an opportunity to expand her education at the same time she is raising her family."

Mrs. Barber, a Michigan State graduate, is the mother of a young daughter and a former home economics teacher. Looking for a community to call home, following her husband's discharge from the Navy, they selected Plymouth's Lake Pointe Village.

For further information on the extension clubs you may contact Mrs. Barber at her office in Wayne at PA 1-6550.

Senior Citizens Lunch in Lansing

The trip to Lansing on Wednesday, May 16, was well attended by some 50 Senior Citizens from Plymouth who chartered a Greyhound bus for the occasion.

Community singing and a lovely luncheon was served after arriving at the Lansing Civic Center.

Presentations of awards and prizes were given by Caddie Gerrie, chairman of the Highland Park Unit. President Mildred Higgins accepted the award for the Plymouth Unit. Prizes were given to the oldest lady and man and the oldest married couple in the gathering.

A special program by the "Seniors" was presented by Chairman Mary Pratt of Ann Arbor. Those from Plymouth who took part included Molly Tracy, who played the harmonica, and Esther Jacobs at the piano.

Dancing and cards completed the afternoon's entertainment before the Senior Citizens returned home.

On May 17 the Plymouth Senior Citizens held their regular meeting in the Masonic Temple. President Mildred Higgins opened the meeting with a report from the sick committee. Cards and light refreshments were part of the day's activities.

Host and hostesses were Mrs. Edith Soekow and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Wilhelm.

Legion News

There is a change in the Auxiliary meeting. It will be Wednesday, May 23 at 8 p.m. at the Post Home, 888 N. Sheldon Rd. Our Poppy Winners will be there to receive their awards. All winners for Poppy Day please come and pick up your canister and poppies.

Poppy Day in Plymouth is Thursday, May 24. This will be our 41st Poppy Day. We hope that we will have fair skies and dedicated volunteers and warm-hearted people in our community to make this our greatest Poppy Day.

We will have our "Fish Fry" Friday, May 25 at the Post Home, 888 N. Sheldon Rd., serving from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. This is every Friday. Adults, $1, and Children, 50 cents. Really a good tasty dinner, come out and try it.

Memorial Services will be held Sunday, May 27 at the Nazarene Church on Ann Arbor Trail. Meet at the church at 10:15 a.m. Wear your hats and uniforms. Commander Vern Miller and President Marion Kot urge all members to turn out.

Saturday, May 26, flags will again be put on all veterans graves in the local community cemeteries.

The Post and Auxiliary will march in the Memorial Parade on May 30. Let's have a good turnout this year. Services again at the Bridge by the Navy Mothers and ceremonies at Kellogg Park. Remember our Chicken Dinner to be held after the parade at the Post Home. Adults $1.25 and children 75 cents. Call Lillian Kinghorn for reservations.

The Post is having a Rummage Sale on Saturday, June 2, at the Post Home. For pickups call GL 3-3995 or GL 3-4173, all articles and helps will be appreciated. Let's make this Rummage Sale a huge success.

VFW News

Memorial services were held at our May 25 meeting for our departed sisters.

This is a reminder to meet at the Church of the Nazarene Sunday, May 27, at 10:15 a.m. for the Memorial services. Please wear your uniforms and hats if possible. Also wear them for the Memorial Day parade.

We meet for the bridge service at 9 a.m. in the parking lot at Hillside Inn for the parade to Kellogg Park, meet in the Kroger parking lot at 9:30 and even if you are not an officer, come out and march. We do this not for ourselves but to honor our veterans who didn't come home. The Post will be open after the ceremonies.

June 9 is to be a very busy day - first we need money making projects to carry on our work and Civil Defense Chairman Winnifred Cadaret announced a bake sale at Krogers on that date. Call her at GL 3-7580 and donate baked goods and perhaps offer to work for an hour or so.

On the evening of June 9 we will be having our 15th Anniversary Banquet. Everyone should have received a call on reservations. If you have not been called, get in touch with President Neale by June 2. Tickets are $2 per person.

Take a few minutes and think of the sisters unable to attend our meetings and get-togethers because of their health. Send a card so they know you are thinking of them. At this time they are Marion Groth, Gladys McBride and Helen Smith.

The Spring rummage sale was a big success and a nice job was done by the Chairman, Mary Schwartz. She would like to thank all those who donated and a special thanks for those who worked.

Hope to see all of you out selling poppies sometime between 6 a.m. and 3 p.m. on Thursday May 24.

Red carpets were being unfurled all over Michigan yesterday by hundreds of cities as mayors played a game of musical chairs. Plymouth's Mayor Robert Sinecock was in Troy for the day while Troy's mayor Robert Huber was here for the annual Exchange of Mayors Day.

Mayor Huber and his wife Polly, were given complete tours of the community during the day. Here he found a City considerably smaller than his, but much older. Troy was incorporated in 1955 and has a population of 20,000. It is the fourth largest city in area in Michigan.

The visiting mayor toured City Hall, the City's well field and its residential neighborhoods. At noon there was a luncheon at the Mayflower Hotel where he was presented with a key to the City. Thirty-six people were there to welcome the mayor, who is president of the Michigan Chrome & Chemical Co.

In a short address, Mayor Huber admitted that his new city has many problems. He expects to be a candidate for state senator in the August primary.

Also visiting here was Thomas Towler, mayor of the Troy High School student body. Plymouth High's mayor, Jim Kropf, went to Troy for the day.

Visiting Troy with Mayor and Mrs. Sinecock were Mayor pro tem Marvin Terry and Commissioner and Mrs. James Houk.

In Troy, the visitors were surprised to find the City is largely open countryside, much more so than Livonia. After a tour of the City Hall there, they dined with representatives from Troy and five other neighboring communities. Afterwards, they went to the GM Technical Center.

An estimated 500,000 children in 843 Michigan school districts travel to and from school in school buses. The number of school buses in Michigan has increased from 1,800 in 1946 to about 6,000 today and they travel an estimated 53.5 million miles each year.

Consumers Power Shows off Division Center This Week

Consumers Power Company's one-year-old West Wayne Division Service Center at Farmington and Plymouth Roads in Livonia will be open to the public May 24 and 25 from 1 p.m. to 9 p.m. J. P. Thomas, division manager announced.

Thomas expects several thousand residents of the Division to visit the Service Center and partake in the special Anniversary Open House festivities. The West Wayne Division includes Livonia, Farmington, Plymouth, Wayne, South Lyon, Northville and many other communities West of Inkster Rd. and North of Wayne. The Service Center is the headquarters for the company's gas service to 40,000 customers in a 250 square mile area. It is an area in which the Company had only 10,000 meters just 11 years ago.

The building is loaded with the most modern, efficient business and industrial aids obtainable. Offices hum with the machines helping accountants and bookkeepers. Files spring open at a touch to reveal a customer's entire service history at a glance. Radio-telephone communication from the radio room to servicemen in the field results in virtually constant contact between the office, where customer requests are received and the servicemen, who meet the customers' needs. Such fast growth as the Division has experienced is responsible for the incorporation of all these new skills and techniques at the Service Center.

A beautiful customer room, featuring gas appliances, model kitchens, even a model utility room is the big feature just inside of the building entrance. Just beyond this is an auditorium with a fully-equipped kitchen on the stage, and an equally well-equipped kitchen just off the stage, where the home service girls assigned to the Division give their talks and programs to school groups, women's clubs and builders and contractors with the same charm and enthusiasm that such talks have been given by Consumers home economists for 30 years. Personalized home service is a utility company feature that apparently never goes out of popularity in new locations or old.

Favors for visitors, refreshments, special exhibits displays and a tour of the buildings and grounds are features which Consumers is arranging for the two-day period. There will be a drawing each night for numerous prizes, the main prize each night being a Calorifier smokeless and odorless gas Incinerator. Mr. Thomas is hopeful the crowd will be even larger than anticipated and is sure that the whole family will have an enjoyable time.

Other door prizes include ashtrays, glass sets, and numerous books of both hardcover and paper-back styles. Assisting Owner McAtee in the managing of the two new departments at Plymouth Office Supply is Jim Dyer.

Hours for the grand opening are from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Thursday, May 24, 8 a.m. to 9 p.m. Friday, May 25, and from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday, May 26.

In the gift shop, McAtee pointed out, there is a wide selection of fine gift merchandise, ranging from aluminum serving pieces, aluminum ware, stationery, cards, glassware and a variety of other gift items.

A number of free gifts will be given away during the event and several free prizes are also being offered. A coupon is necessary to become eligible for the free prizes, first prize of which is a 2-quart aluminum chafing dish.

He said that the book store is comprised of more than 1,000 new editions in both hardcover and paperback form. A large number of books are those from recent recommended reading lists and best-seller rosters. Children's books are also featured.

The Sixty Plus Club met Monday, May 14 at the First Methodist Church for a potluck luncheon. Afterwards there was cancer pad sewing, bandage rolling and work on other current projects. There were 36 members and five guests present.

A business meeting was held following luncheon and a complete list of names of new officers elected at the last meeting was read. They are: President, Mrs. Thelma Johnson, Secretary, Mrs. Elsie Bayless, Treasurer, Mrs. Mary Fillmore, program chairman, Mrs. Sarah Yeoman, project chairman, Mrs. Tina Salmonson and sunshine chairman, Mrs. Mildred Collins.

Articles made by the group were displayed and well sent to the following places: Church World Service, sewing, cancer pads to the Cancer Center and other articles to Maybury Sanatorium, Children's Village, Lapeer State Home and Chelsea Home.

Mr. Wilfred Robinson showed color slides taken in Europe four years ago. These were most interesting and greatly enjoyed by all.

Plans were made for members and others interested to visit the Plymouth State Home and Training School May 22.

Wednesday, May 16, the new officers met with Mrs. Johnson and planned programs for the coming year. The first meeting will be June 11. It is hoped that many will come and give them their wholehearted support.

No meetings are scheduled for the months of July and August.

Mrs. Sarah Yeoman is spending some time in Toledo visiting her daughter.

Books-Gifts Featured at Store's Grand Opening

Plymouth Office Supply, 849 Pennington Ave., opposite the post office, this week will celebrate the grand opening of its two new departments, a gift shop and book store.

Owner Wesley McAtee has extended an invitation to all residents to visit the two all-new departments in his store and enjoy a free cup of coffee. The grand opening celebration will be held this Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 24, 25 and 26.

He said that the book store is comprised of more than 1,000 new editions in both hardcover and paperback form. A large number of books are those from recent recommended reading lists and best-seller rosters. Children's books are also featured.

In the gift shop, McAtee pointed out, there is a wide selection of fine gift merchandise, ranging from aluminum serving pieces, aluminum ware, stationery, cards, glassware and a variety of other gift items.

A number of free gifts will be given away during the event and several free prizes are also being offered. A coupon is necessary to become eligible for the free prizes, first prize of which is a 2-quart aluminum chafing dish.

Other door prizes include ashtrays, glass sets, and numerous books of both hardcover and paper-back styles. Assisting Owner McAtee in the managing of the two new departments at Plymouth Office Supply is Jim Dyer.

City Homeowner Now to Pay Bill for Repair of Entire Sewer

A resolution by the City Commission Monday night has brought about increased responsibility to the homeowner for keeping sanitary sewers open between the street and the home.

Until now, the City would pay for the work if the sewer obstruction occurred between the sidewalk and the street. If an obstruction took place between the sidewalk and home, it was the homeowner's responsibility.

A private plumbing firm was hired to do the City's work and the bills have been running higher every month. Recently City Manager Albert Glassford conducted a survey to find out how other cities handle the situation and most of them required the homeowner to be responsible for the entire lateral sewer.

DPW Superintendent Joseph Bida said that there is often dispute to determine whether the obstruction occurred on City property or on private property.

Commissioner Robert Reyer, declaring that he felt the City should not be taking over jobs that rightfully belong to a private plumber hired by the homeowner, made the motion to make homeowners responsible for their own sewers.

New Apartment Building Started

A new 18-unit apartment building has been started on N. Territorial Rd., near Sheldon.

The new building will be the second phase of the Francis Apartments. The first 20-apartment unit was constructed last year. They are owned by John Hancock Properties.

City Building Safety Inspector Charles Thompson said that the new unit has a declared value of $135,000. It will be of the same design and plan as the previous building, he said, except that it is two apartments smaller.

Greets RCA

(Continued from page 1) was given by Frank Arlen, president of the Plymouth Industrial Development Corp. who expressed the gratitude of the community of Plymouth to RCA for their decision to locate here. He then presented RCA an honorary membership in the Chamber of Commerce.

Supt. of Schools Russell Isbister then paid tribute to Harold Guenther for his active leadership and citizenship. "The Plymouth community is better because you live here," Supt. Isbister declared. "Wherever you work and serve, you exhibit those gifts of patience, understanding and scholarly and perceptive thoughts which cause worthy programs to move forward." A plaque from the Chamber was presented to the former mayor.

George Lawton, president of the Chamber, paid tribute to the H. F. Campbell Construction Co. and presented a share of stock in the Industrial Development Corp. to H. F. Campbell, president of the firm.

In discussing the function of RCA here further, Norman Amberg, manager of the Detroit facility, said that industry today is placing increased emphasis on product reliability, which in turn, requires them to work closer tolerances than ever before.

As this trend becomes more pronounced, he added, the metal-working industries can be expected to turn increasingly to electronic inspection of all critical components to insure a level of accuracy impossible to achieve with random sampling.

Among its major projects, the RCA department has built for an automobile manufacturer an electronic system of this kind which automatically inspects, classifies and matches engine pistons and wrist pins for optimum fit.

Amberg said the enlarged Detroit facility also would produce other automatic inspection equipment such as the RCA Ve-Det, and electronic vehicle detector system which operates from loops embedded in the pavement and is used to control traffic signals or count passing vehicles.

It also will manufacture the RCA electronic metal detector which automatically inspects food, plastic, cloth and other materials for metal particles as well as paper flaw detection equipment which inspects paper for defects. The Detroit plant also produces custom built inspection and assembly machines used by other industries.

Complains Of Flower Removal At Cemetery

A Plymouth area resident, the Rev. Zula Gaddis, 41174 E. Ann Arbor Trail, attempted to see the Wayne County prosecutor this week about her right to place flowers on a Riverside Cemetery grave.

Mrs. Gaddis, a retired Church of God minister, has been having a running squabble with City Manager Albert Glassford over the cemetery ruling which forbids planting shrubs or flowers no further than six inches from a grave-stone.

The minister said that she has been placing artificial flowers wreaths and plants on the grave regularly only to find them gone the next day. She arrived at City Hall this week to confer with an assistant prosecutor during his regular weekly visit here, but she missed him.

Glassford said that Mrs. Gaddis has been violating rules set down by the Cemetery Commission. These rules, he said, are needed to make it possible to do a decent job of maintenance. "Since caretakers must trim around headstones anyway, they can trim around plants six inches from the headstone. But to trim around plantings and other things all over the grave would make the job impossible."

Members of the Cemetery Board of Trustees are Harry Mumby, chairman; John Bickenstaff and Clarence Moore.

Complains About Low Flying Planes

City Commissioner Marvin Terry asked Monday night for an investigation into "low flying airplanes" which he asserts are constantly flying over the south side of the City.

A resident of Maplecroft Subdivision, Terry said that he has received many complaints from his neighbors about the planes.

He recalled that one car traveling along Joy Rd. a few years ago was struck at night by a landing plane and he predicted that some day one would fall into a residential section "unless something is done."

City Safety Director Kenneth Fisher said he would make a report on the matter.

Community Band Calls for Help - Players & Money

The Plymouth Community Band, formed three years ago especially for adults who no longer had an opportunity to play with a band, may have to give up this year unless several hundred dollars is raised.

Concerts in Kellogg Park every Friday night during the summer are again scheduled for this summer. But the band may lose its director to another job this summer unless a nominal salary is paid, it was learned.

Any individuals, businesses or industries wishing to make a donation can make the check out to the Plymouth Community Band in care of the Adult Education and Recreation office at the High School.

Meanwhile, the band is continuing with plans for the summer and is inviting all musicians in the area to join them. The band meets every Wednesday night. Information can be secured by calling director James Griffin at Plymouth High.

A year is actually 365.2422 days in length. The extra time is taken up by a leap year which adds one day to make the total 366.

You will discover children's toys, jewelry, Civil War memorabilia, glassware, books and a fine old collection of 50 birds native to the area.

The Museum visitor of any age is bound to find something here to stir the imagination.

Browsing through the intriguing, well-ordered eight room Museum, few visitors will be aware of the long and tedious hours contributed by Society members during the past year cataloguing and arranging the artifacts.

"That they have recaptured the tenor of yesterday for the people of today and tomorrow, is tribute enough for their dedication."

Museum Dedicates

(Continued from page 1) He recited a few of Michigan's assets and used an anecdote stressing the theme, "there's no such thing as a free lunch" to explain that good things are not accomplished without some effort.

Then, moving to the entrance of the building, the governor pushed a button on an IBM machine and in an instant the ribbon was cut "electronically". A tour of DSL followed.

Earlier in the evening, around 40 persons gathered at the Round Table Club for a dinner with the governor. The Junior High School Band was on hand to welcome the group to DSL. The crowd of some 50 to 75 people was disappointed to planners of the affair, but thousands more people in southeastern Michigan viewed some of the ceremony when films were used on a TV newscast that night.

Auto Dealers Hail Spring Time as

How Often Do You Buy?

If the auto industry had its way, most Americans would buy a new car every two years. But if motorists listened to the conservative "little old lady", they would buy a new car only once in every ten years.

Strangely enough, both points of view are right — depending on the owner. This makes for lively debate every time the subject of "When should you trade in your car?" comes up.

There is a small proportion of the car-buying public that could or should buy a new car every year. This includes those who want to have the newest and can afford it and those who put on very heavy mileage — in the 25,000-30,000 mile range.

The economics of car buying and operation are such, however, that a new-car-every-year program is the most expensive way of doing things. Modern cars are sturdy and built to last, and, barring disaster, should run reasonably well for 100,000 miles, about ten years at the rate most Americans use them.

During the first year there are no repair costs to speak of, just routine maintenance. But in the second year, according to several studies, repair costs begin a steady climb that can reach as much as one-third the original cost of the car in six years.

Who's New in Plymouth

HERE ONLY since March, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Nickloff, 360 Burroughs, have nothing but praise for the community they have selected to call home. Mr. Nickloff is branch manager of the General Finance Co., in Ann Arbor. The couple have two sons, Chris, 3 and Tommy, 8 months old.

World is Big Storeroom For New Car Industry

The entire world is the storehouse from which the automobile industry draws to produce the cars Americans drive. Even the Loyalty Islands off the east coast of Australia supply chrome, the ore used in platings and alloys; Philippine sugar cane provides cellulose for safety glass; crude rubber comes from Ceylon and Malaya; Africa produces industrial diamonds and asbestos; Bolivian tin and domestic steel, glass, copper and some 18,000 other items, either in raw form or finished parts, come from all over the world to the factories of the midwest for inclusion in the auto-making process.

The size of the industry can be judged by its annual shopping list. It used nearly 17 million tons of steel last year — and that's about a fifth of all steel produced here. In some categories, sheet steel, for instance, the auto industry accounts for an even greater proportion of annual production.

Giant Appetite

It also takes 70.4 per cent of the malleable iron; 46.9 per cent of the lead; 67.6 per cent of the rubber; 61.8 per cent of the leather upholstery, and about 70 per cent of the plate glass.

When Alfred Politz Research asked consumers to name the products they associated most closely with steel, automobiles were named many more times than any other product. This is hardly surprising since upwards of a ton of steel is used in the popular priced cars, accounting for about two-thirds of the total weight of a car.

Even in the new compacts, steel is the most important component, accounting for about 65 per cent of the car's weight.

But in addition to steel and other visible parts such as glass, tires and fabric, auto makers buy such exotic items as baby bottle nipples (for covering certain parts as they go through paint spraying booths), crushed walnut shells (for some metal-polishing operations), ground corn cocks (for a polishing compound), cactus fibers (used in air cleaners) and castor oil (one of the components of brake fluid).

Good Old Days?

Since the time in 1908 — when fewer than 200,000 autos were on the mud paths that passed for roads — when the country's leading banking house deemed that the "Saturation point" in car ownership had been reached, the industry has continued to mushroom.

Currently there are nearly 76 million motor vehicles registered in the United States, including 63 million passenger cars and 13 million trucks. Three of every four families own automobiles.

In its growth, the auto industry has revolutionized the nation's economy, pioneered major advances in industrial production and assembly, made city dwellers suburbanites and made rural isolation a thing of the past.

Family outings, and even family camping trips, are now familiar customs. The vast majority of vacationing Americans travel by car, and there is virtually no part of the country that is inaccessible.

The automobile has become so much a part of every American's life that the industry that produces it has become unique among the nation's producers of economic wealth; to the average man it has become a part of his personal life.

People are certainly aware of the steel industry, but few of them buy a ton of steel bars. When a man installs wood paneling in the playroom, he might think fleetingly of the lumber industry.

Family Affair

But his car is in the driveway every day, and more likely than not he uses it several times a day. Whether or not the car is driven to work, it's likely the whole family rides in it on trips to school, shopping and all sorts of social and recreational activities.

And, breathes there a man with curiosity so stilled that he has never opened the hood to tinker even a little with the engine underneath? All of this makes the industry that produces his car seem real and familiar to him.

Today's auto industry is not only real and familiar to the wide-flung suppliers of raw materials, but to the millions of workers in the basic industry and its suppliers and the post-manufacture industries it generates.

1 Family in 6 Owns 2 Cars

In millions of American homes, when dad is asked for the car keys, he is very likely to ask "Which car?" For a nation devoted to and dependent on the automobile, it is not surprising that there are so many of them and that their number is increasing rapidly.

At last count, one car-owning family in six had two autos, and an additional 750,000 had three cars at their command. The number of two-car families has almost doubled in the past decade, and the trend shows every sign of continuing.

Probably the biggest factor in increasing the number of two-car families to more than 6,650,000 is the post-war trend to suburban living. With favorite stores, family friends and community activities widely scattered, an automobile is essential. But if dad takes the car to work, or to the railroad station, everyone else is homebound or foot-bound until he returns.

Second Car Bought New

The answer for many families is a second car. Once it was standard practice to keep the old car for mother to use when dad bought a new car. But with the array of sizes and types of automobiles available now, it is increasingly likely that a car meeting the specific purpose will be bought new.

Two developments have contributed greatly in increasing the number of two-car families: the station wagon and the compact car.

For if dad just drives a short distance to the station or to work, he probably will be looking kindly on the easy-to-park and economical-to-operate compact field for his work-car. And the same car will be handy when he and mother go out for an evening.

The station wagon with its sleek all-steel body is as handsome and glamorous as a hardtop. Mother is likely to keep it at home, since it provides plenty of room to store purchases from the weekly shopping trip or to take the children and their friends to meetings and outings. Dad finds the wagon handy, too, when he wants to bring home lumber for a do-it-yourself project or buys gardening supplies and tools that would not fit conveniently in a sedan.

Another factor that has made it easier for many families to buy and maintain a second car is insurance premium reductions available on the second and subsequent cars, and also on compact models. Most companies give a 25 per cent discount on the insurance for a second car, and the general industry practice is to charge compact car owners 10 per cent less than the premium on large models.

On Student Board

New officers have been elected by campus groups at the College of Wooster and appointees have been named to junior and senior resident positions.

Among those named was Gerald Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fischer, 505 McKinley. He is a member of the Student Senate Academic Board. Gerry is a freshman at Wooster.

Motorists Save Six Ways

Here are six ways motorists can save money on car insurance in most states, according to the Insurance Information Institute:

- Safe driver discount, for which about 70 per cent of motorists qualify.
- Package policy combining coverages at savings of 10 to 20 per cent.
- Compact car discount of 10 per cent.
- Two or more cars discount. Driver education discount of 10 per cent, if every young man under age 25 in the household has successfully completed a recognized course.
- Farmer discount of 30 per cent.

Check with your insurance broker or agent to find out if you qualify for these premium savings.

Front Row Center

By George Spelvin

The Ann Arbor Drama season folks have placed "Boys in the Attic" into the back part of their theatrical attic. George Montgomery certainly charmed the ladies that went to see this generous, genial hunk of man. His engaging smile and nimble footwork, however, was not enough to completely satisfy old George in what could have been a veritable display of theatrical fireworks. His early training had been cowboy movies and I'm afraid such background is hardly adequate for a Lillian Hellman drama with all its neat nuances. Rest of the cast supported George in fine fashion and last week's audience felt that the show moved along at an interesting clip. "No Time For Sergeants." Drama Season presently playing at the Lydia Mendelsohn, is of different ilk. A farce creates its own hilarity, especially the one scene with the saluting bathroom hardware. "No Time For Sergeants" has always remained a favorite with audiences the world over. To some it won't seem the best play in the world, but then let me remind you that this week is the 40th anniversary of that perennial laugh-getter, "Abie's Irish Rose."

As you recall, "Abie's Irish Rose" defied the critics who said it was the world's worst show and went on to run for the next five years only to be exceeded in later years by "Tobacco Road," "Life With Father," and "My Fair Lady." By the way, "My Fair Lady" follows Belafonte at the Fisher on June 4. You'd best make arrangements right now for tickets.

Gloria Swanson comes to Ann Arbor on May 28. All of us oldsters remember Gloria best for those hundreds of silent films that she ably emoted in. And her comeback talkie, "Sunset Boulevard" was an Academy Award winner. She will be appearing for a week in "The Inkwell," a new play prior to a Broadway run. Any guesses on Gloria's chronological capers?

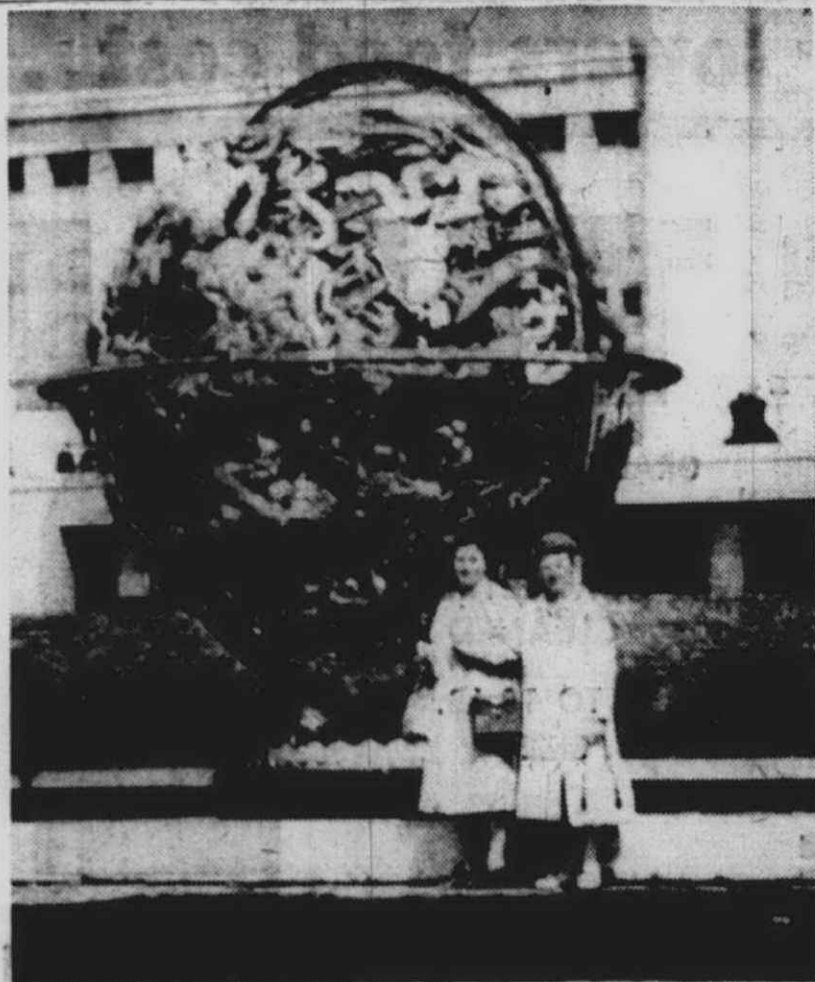

Some words of praise are in order for the Eastern Michigan University players that recently concluded a versatile, vigorous season with the ever-popular play, "Gigi." Dr. Bill Hulsopple and George Bird should be toasted in rare vintage champagne for their bubbly version of "Gigi." Karen Eastly gave her role all the necessary bounce, subtle changes, and "joy of living" so important to this frothy play of Parisian life and love. Only criticism might be a query: why the French accent for all these actors? A amateur actors struggling to retain an accent can only produce one effect: loss of lines which irritates audiences. Nevertheless, I thought the play rolled along at a nice clip, the scenery excellent, and costuming quite adequate. And the curtain call, a clever use of the doors on stage plus keeping the characters in character ended the show on the high bright notes of the Lerner-Lowe music that provided the right catalyst as incidental music.

The P and A Theater continues its present policy of offering only the finest in foreign films. Their next attraction "The Truth" with Brigitte Bardot is an amusing French comedy. Julie Harris currently plays the stage version on Broadway under the title of "A Shot in the Dark." B.B. does some acting in this movie for a change. "Ballad of a Soldier," a Russian movie, arrives soon after B.B.'s invasion. Old George saw this movie about a year ago and let me assure you that here is a cinematic treat.

Keep a date reserved for "Ballad of a Soldier." It's a sympathetic story of a teen-ager that goes to War, visits his home, and has to go back. Sounds simple? Might be, but it carries a message filled with emotional dynamite.

A reminder: four weeks remain until the opening of the Stratford Shakespearean Festival. Old George is going over for the opening on June 18, 19 to see "Macbeth" and "The Taming of the Shrew." I'll catch "The Tempest" and "Cyrano de Bergerac" after this summer.

Pop concert was tops as usual. Nat Sibbold and Joanne Hulce performed in their polished professional manner with the delightful songs from "Sound of Music." Jim Spenseller, our editor-in-chief, might be making the trip down to Detroit's Earle Hotel and the Stables Coffeehouse Theater club... his college friend, Jim Limmbacker's one act comedy, "The Rocking Chair" is having its world premiere on this weekend. New bill at the Stables also includes Jean Genet's "Deathwatch." I'd say that Mr. Limmbacker is in pretty respectable company. Try the Stables at 22 Charlotte St. anytime during the next four weekends. You'll find it's a most exciting adventure.

THEIR VISIT to the United Nations Building in New York, prior to departure, and to the League of Nations in Geneva, prompted more comparisons than contrasts. Here Margaret Dunning and Irene Walldorf pause to look at the grounds before entering the world building of conferences.

"A Wonderful Trip" Say Classic Car Club Members

Being members of the Classic Car Club of America, Margaret Dunning and Irene Walldorf joined 112 other members recently and toured 11 European cities in observance of the Club's 10th anniversary celebration.

Jetting from Idlewild to Amsterdam, they visited the Holland home of Anneke Thasing, a former exchange student at Plymouth High School, who lived with the Joseph West's of Church St. here. Fascinating side trips to Marken and picturesque Volendam compensated for the cold wind, responsible for delaying the tulip blossoms two weeks.

In Stuttgart they were the guests of the Mercedes-Benz Company, touring the stamping, parts and assembly plants at Singelfingen. In West Stuttgart, they saw the museum, where vintage passenger and sports cars dating from 1890 were on display. The Mercedes Company hosted a bountiful luncheon and gave each guest a monogrammed gift.

Their sight-seeing bus tour to Lucerne and Geneva, where they visited the League of Nations, unfolded the natural scenic beauty of impeccable, charming and rich Switzerland.

"It was a virtual fairyland of snow-capped mountains whose slopes were dotted with colorful chalets. From the air, the mighty and majestic Alps resembled huge chunks of gingerbread, casually placed and generously frosted by Heaven's own Baker," said Miss Walldorf.

Standing in St. Peter's Square at Easter-time, the pair were among the thousands that witnessed the Pope's blessing of all the nations. While in historic Rome they saw the Forum, Palatine Hill, the Coliseum, Parthenon, the Appian Way and the Catacombs.

In Paris they looked at Napoleon's tomb, and Greek temples and arches built by his order, the Tuileries Gardens, Cathedral of Sacre-Coeur and the Louvre. During their travels here they met the King of Jazz, Louis Armstrong, and his wife. Their stay in Paris was made more enjoyable as they were met by the Robert Lemings, formerly of Plymouth and now stationed at Chateaux. Besides enjoying the sights of this spectacular city from the rear seat of the Leming's new Citroen, they were their guests on a Bateau Nouché, a glassed-in dining room that floats on the Seine.

The occasion offered some good opportunities for unusual camera shots, one being the French replica of their gift to the United States, the Statue of Liberty, against the famed Eiffel Tower. Glimpses of Paris night-life included seeing the extravagant Folies-Bergere and a French bistro, Crazy Horse, located off the tourist beat.

In London, on the last leg of their journey, they viewed Buckingham Palace, Windsor Castle, the Bloody Tower with its crown jewel display, Hampton Court, Mme. Tinsand's Wax Museum, Eton College, Stoke Poges and Westminster Abbey.

Before coming home, as guests of J. Compton, Ltd. (Rolls-Royce and Bentley Specialists), the pair traveled into the countryside to see an unusual collection of English Classic Cars. Much to their dismay, one prized beauty had been sold just the day before for an astonishingly low price. So, content with their treasures of lesser size and uniqueness, the Plymouthites boarded the Club's chartered KLM and headed homeward.

They are graphically reminded of their three-week journey, as they sift through the untold footage of movies and slides they shot.

"It was truly a never-to-be-forgotten experience — fascinating, enriching — wonderful," said Miss Walldorf, speaking for herself and Margaret Dunning.

The Professor Sez . . .

by Ed Brown

This is Michigan Week — a few days set aside to acknowledge the many wondrous things for which our state is noted. Having traveled the length and breadth of the two sections of Michigan, and having been in all 48 of the continental states, I still think that we live in one of the best areas of the country.

Yes, even if it gets hot and humid once in awhile, and the state legislature has its financial woes, I'll still take Michigan!

Oh, it would be just lovely to live in a different paradise with the coming of each season of the year, but our work usually prohibits such a thing.

I REMEMBER returning to Michigan after having been away for over four years during World War II. I remember the grand feeling I experienced as the train from Chicago to Detroit streaked across the Indiana-Michigan border. I could see the large highway sign nearby, which stated that you were now entering Michigan.

Some of you who have been away for any length of time, may have had the same sensation. However, I think it takes on added meaning to a returning serviceman who had several times wondered if he ever would see home again.

Really we should be proud of our great state. For instance, did you know that the Upper Peninsula is as big as Connecticut, Massachusetts, Rhode Island and Delaware combined? How many would think that Detroit is farther from Houghton, in the Upper Peninsula, than it is from Washington, D.C. Did you know that no point in Michigan is more than 85 miles from a Great Lake?

THE OLDEST city in the Midwest is Sault Ste. Marie — it was founded 100 years before the Revolutionary War.

In manufacturing, we produce 85 per cent of all the cars, trucks and other automotive vehicles made in the United States.

Here's one that may be an eye-opener to a few — Michigan is the nation's leading builder of ships and pleasure boats.

Most of you know the largest cement plant is located in Alpena, the largest book paper mill at Kalamazoo, and the largest chemical plant is in Midland.

HERE IS an old joke about the man who lived over a salt mine and said he ate over 100 tons of salt each day. Well, that is true in Michigan, for we have the largest salt deposits in the world under us.

The Detroit river carries more tonnage than any other one shipping lane in the world.

Michigan ranks first in pie cherry production, and more than one-half the entire United States cherry crop is grown here.

The state is also first in field beans, cucumbers, blueberries and potato chips.

IN THE recreation line, our state was the first in the nation to develop roadside parks and roadside tables.

Last, but not least, Michigan established the first state university, and also the first agricultural college in the world.

There is much more statistical information concerning this great state — hats off to Michigan Week — let's all say one kind thing about the state today.

WHAT EVER HAPPENED TO . . . The lad who graduated from PHS in 1951 and was a shifty halfback and quarterback in football, a guard in basketball, and cavorted about the infield in baseball. Our mystery guest went on to higher education at the nearby University of Michigan. Seven years later he received his law degree from that institution and passed the Michigan Bar examination. While at the university he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity.

The young lawyer now is with Hariger & Willard, a Mortgage Investment Company in Grand Rapids. He married the former Cherry Harris of Birmingham. Her father is Dr. Glen Harris, pastor of the Presbyterian church there.

The young couple have two adorable children — Karla, aged three, and Karen who is one. They reside in Grand Rapids where our young man is a deacon in the Presbyterian church.

A YOUNGER brother of the letters in cross-country and track in college — and says that the former takes a little more physical endurance in college since it is run over a four-mile course. He is affiliated with Sigma Chi also, and is on a pre-medical course at Albion. This year he was in charge of "Derby Day" — the big social event of the season on the college campus. Yes, he is still single girls. Who are these brothers? Phil and Ken Jacobus.

MRS. JANET WEST takes justifiable pride in her third grade pupil, Lisabeth Lawson, and her shell collection. For it was this entry that won first prize in the natural history classification at the recent Greenfield Village Country Fair. Lisabeth's interest in shells was sparked when her class studied the sea and its wonders during the term. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lawson of 47818 Powell Rd.

Kiwanians Hear Story of Millage

Ed Wingard, Cliff Speck, Bob Werner and Ken Kirchoff of Plymouth were guests of the Kiwanis Club at their weekly meeting on May 15. Program chairman for the evening Roland Lutz introduced guest speaker Gerald Fischer. Fischer is a member of the Plymouth Community School District Board of Education. He explained in detail the new proposal which will be submitted to the electors on June 11 of this year.

The proposal includes a renewal of 3.5 mills and an additional 2 mills. The 2 mills is composed of 1/2 mill to operate the new Junior High School, 1/2 mill for maintenance improvement, replacement of buses and automobiles and additional instructional supplies, and 1 mill for salary increments and cost of living increases for the personnel.

Large Crowd Attends Salem Church's 75th Anniversary

C. W. Clair
GL 3-2610
Miss Mary Murray of the Mayflower Hotel of Plymouth was a dinner guest of Mrs. Charles Marshall of Salem Rd. Sunday, Mothers Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson of West Seven Mile Rd. spent Mothers Day with their son, Wilford, also of Seven Mile Rd.

The Lapham Cemetery Assn. will meet Saturday, May 26, at the Lapham School. All are invited to attend the meeting at 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Simpson and family were callers at the Acres Saturday evening. Mr. Simpson resides at 15826 Norwich in Livonia. He and his mother operate the Simpson Granite Work in Northwest Detroit.

A correction: The Hilton's, as announced in an earlier edition of the Plymouth Mail, have moved to Greenville, Mich. It should have read Cedarville, Mich.

Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Ingall were in East Lansing Friday to attend the Patriarch Dinner at the Michigan State University. Mr. Ingall was a graduate of the 1909 class. They stayed for the evening to watch the Water Carnival and went to Mr. Ingall's cousins, Fred Pfeifer, where they stayed for the night. They came home Saturday, very tired but still smiling.

There were 50 of the home folks gathered at the Salem Town Hall Saturday evening to help Mrs. Doris Raymond celebrate her birthday. It was a complete surprise to Mrs. Raymond, having been planned in its entirety by her husband, Howard. Then at 9:30, the Four Tune Tellers came in from Manchester and sang several songs. Then a huge birthday cake was cut and served the guests. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond live at 7839 Salem Rd.

The Salem Federated Church was overflowing Sunday, May 20. It was their 75th anniversary and homecoming. There were over 300 of the home folks at the morning service and many of them stayed for dinner after this service. Many stayed throughout the day to visit with old friends that they hadn't seen for years. One of the old timers that many of the folks were looking for was absent because of illness. That was Rev. Mrs. Pennell. She was the pastor of the church from September 1931 until September 1952, 20 years of real loyal service to her church and the people of Salem. The folks all wish her well.

Miss Barbara Lewis, "The Song Bird of Salem," was the guest of honor of the South Lyons Chamber of Commerce at their talent show Friday, May 18. Miss Lewis' record has skyrocketed to second place in Cleveland and Buffalo.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ingall were in East Lansing Friday to attend the Patriarch Dinner at the Michigan State University. Mr. Ingall was a graduate of the 1909 class. They stayed for the evening to watch the Water Carnival and went to Mr. Ingall's cousins, Fred Pfeifer, where they stayed for the night. They came home Saturday, very tired but still smiling.

AS LOW AS $100. DOWN

Yes, you owe it to yourself and your family to get ALL the facts from your Albee Man today. Ask him to show you how your family can own your choice of 144 architect-designed Albee Homes for as low as $100 down and payments less than $66 per month. Don't be satisfied with just any stock model development, or assembly line pre-fab house. Take advantage of Albee's exclusive, "Customizing" plan and use the Free Services of Albee architects to make any changes you desire in floor plan or exterior design of your Albee home. This Free Albee "Customizing" service is so personalized and flexible that Albee will actually design and pre-cut a home to your family's needs and taste.

AFTER YOU CHOOSE THE HOME YOU THOUGHT YOU COULDN'T AFFORD HERE'S HOW ALBEE MAKES IT POSSIBLE FOR YOU TO OWN IT!

1. Albee arranges local "On-the-spot" financing to start you toward owning your new Albee home. Yes, within 24 hours you and your family are on your way to moving day and with Albee there are no closing costs or "Penalty Points" often found with development-type houses.
2. At no cost to you, Albee experts stake out your lot and position your new home, then Albee arranges for the excavation of your basement—the erection of your foundation — and for outside labor to do all, or any portion of the work necessary to complete your new Albee home.
3. Albee delivers your complete "Customizing" pre-cut home package, including all accessories, to your lot. Your Albee materials warranty is your guarantee that every piece of seasoned No. 1 grade lumber is precision pre-cut to exacting dimensions, insuring strong, over-all construction.
4. Whether you prefer to do all, part, or none of the labor yourself — whether you're an experienced or amateur "Do-It-Yourselfer" — Albee takes the worry and guesswork out of building your new home by providing the free services of an Albee construction expert who is "ON CALL" to assist you every step of the way.
5. Then at no extra cost, Albee arranges the best local re-financing available for you — so your complete loan is taken over by a local bank based on a 10, 15, 20, 25 or 30 year mortgage. Even before you move in, your Albee home is worth thousands of dollars more than you invest in it.
6. Moving Day — and you and your family will be living in the home you thought you couldn't afford. Yes, the 30 minutes spent with your Albee man today can make all this possible in a matter of weeks.

Mrs. James Barber

Mrs. James Barber of Lake Pointe Village made time in her active schedule as local home economist for the Michigan State University Extension Service to be the Plymouth Mail's guest cook of the week.

Having a store of recipes and ideas to draw from, she selected to share with column readers her recipe for Mock Wild Rice. A popular Cajun dish, she learned to make it while living in Louisiana.

Mock Wild Rice

- 1/2 C. butter or margarine
- 1/2 C. chopped onions
- 1/2 C. chopped celery leaves
- 1 1/2 C. diced celery
- 1/2 C. chopped green pepper
- 1 Box. can mushroom pieces
- 2 2/3 C. rice (long-grain)
- 2 t. Salt
- pinch of sage
- dash of pepper
- 1/2 t. marjoram (optional)
- 3 C. water
- 1/2 C. chopped pecans
- 1/2 C. chopped olives, ripe or stuffed (optional)

Melt butter in saucepan. Add onion, let brown. Add celery, celery leaves, green pepper, cook until golden brown and slightly tender. Stir occasionally. Add mushrooms, then rice.

Cook until rice is browned slightly. Add seasonings and water. Mix just enough to moisten all rice. Bring to a boil quickly over high heat. Reduce to a simmer two minutes, fluffing rice gently with a fork. Cook until rice is tender and all water is evaporated. Remove from heat. Add pecans and olives, mixing lightly with fork. Makes about eight cups.

"This mock wild rice is excellent as a stuffing for turkey, duck or chicken," says Mrs. Barber. "When used as a stuffing, place into bird immediately, but don't pack tightly. Roast at once. This recipe makes enough to stuff a 9-11 pound turkey."

"Mock wild rice is also good served in place of potatoes. But if you do, place the cooked ingredients in the top of a double boiler over gently boiling water and finish cooking time. About 30 minutes," explained Mrs. Barber.

The Barbars, originally from Michigan, lived in Virginia, Georgia and Louisiana during Jim's four year tour of duty with the U.S. Navy. They have lived in Plymouth for over the past year and a half, and belong to the First Methodist Church.

Mrs. Barber, a former teacher, is a member of the Michigan Home Economic Ass'n., Home Extension Agents Ass'n., and the American Home Economic Ass'n. When time permits, she enjoys sewing and dabbling in garden work.

The couple have a four-year old daughter, Diana.

Men In Service

David Dyer
David A. Dyer, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil D. Dyer of 9025 Marlowe, is serving aboard the anti-submarine warfare support aircraft carrier USS Intrepid, a unit taking part in the first Atlantic Fleet Amphibious Force exercise of the year, to be climaxed with an assault landing on the island of Vieques, Puerto Rico.

Terrill Haws
Terrill K. Haws, son of Dr. and Mrs. Virgil E. Haws of 13872 Ridgewood Dr., completed recruit training on April 6, at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

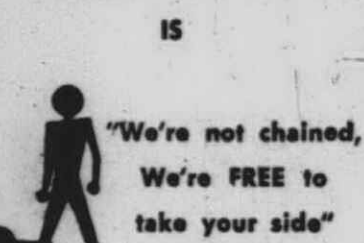

The nine-week basic training course transforms the "raw" recruit into a Blue-jacket prepared for duty with the fleet anywhere in the world or for further specialized schooling.

Donald Santhony
Donald H. Santhony, son of Mr. and Mrs. Devere H. Santhony of 15539 Robinwood, completed recruit training at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The nine-week training includes classroom instruction in such naval subjects as seamanship, ordnance and gunnery, damage control and military customs and courtesies.

A full-dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries marked the end of the training period.

Letters TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:
As a volunteer for the Michigan Cancer Foundation's Western Wayne County Unit,

I would like to express our appreciation for the fine cooperation given us by the Plymouth Mail in publicizing our theater showings.

We were very pleased with the attendance at the Penn Theater in Plymouth May 2, when no less than 250 women saw our two life-saving films, "Out of the Shadows" and "A Breath of Fresh Air".

Besides the wonderful publicity given us by you, this program and the many others shown in these communities, were made possible only through the spirit of cooperation shown by the women in the community — telling everyone they knew about the film showings and urging them to come. As a United Foundation agency, we were happy not to have to ask for money, and would like everyone in the community to know that films, literature (and materials and services for patients too) can be obtained all year round from the Michigan Cancer Foundation office at 1112 N. Telegraph Road, Dearborn. There never is any charge made for anything.

I'd like to express our thanks publicly to the management of the Penn Theater for use of the building, and to its employees who gave so generously of their time.

Thanks to everyone for a very successful Crusade.

Sincerely,
Eleanor Gust
Crusade Chairman

Boy Struck By Tree Recovering

Home again and moving about the house once again is Raymond Travis, the 4-year-old boy who three weeks ago was struck on the head by a falling tree in Middle Rouge Park.

Raymond, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Travis, Nankin Township, was on a slide in a park playground area near Haggerty Rd. on April 29 when two 60-foot trees toppled. Raymond suffered a depressed skull fracture and concussion. He was in the hospital five days and must report back periodically.

Walter Sandnes, 11705 Francis, received a fractured collarbone and broken ribs as he attempted to rescue Raymond from the slide.

Golfers Finish Fifth In Regional Tourney

Plymouth's golfers, far off from finishing fifth in the Class A regional golf meet last Friday at Farmington Country Club.

Farmington High edged Dearborn for top laurels, 323-332.

Two Suburban Six conference schools squeezed into third and fourth place above Plymouth. Bentley High finished third with a 343 total and Redford Union was fourth with 344.

Carl Zornow paced Plymouth's attack with an 83 over the par 72 lay-out. Phil Bender carded an 89, Bill Otwell 90 and Jerry Scott 94. The Rocks totaled 356, one stroke better than sixth-place Thurston.

Golf Coach John Sandmann was dissatisfied with Plymouth's showing.

"We were off form," he said later. "We've shot far better golf than that and should have been higher in the standings. We just didn't have it."

The top three finishers in the regional clash now advance to the state finals at Saginaw Country Club this weekend.

Meanwhile, Plymouth, which held a 4-3 record in dual-match competition starting this week, was faced with a busy schedule this week and next.

On Monday, Plymouth was slated to take on Ypsilanti there. Today (Wednesday), the Rocks host Northville at Brae-Burn and on Monday, May 28, Plymouth will participate in the Suburban Six league meet.

Site for the league meet is still to be determined. Only four teams will compete in the league battle since neither Belleville nor Allen Park have varsity golf squads.

Thinclads Post 4th Dual-Meet Victory; Gain 2nd in Reg'ls.

Plymouth's rampaging track team picked up its fourth straight dual-meet victory early last week and then captured a choice second place ribbon in the class A regional thinclad tournament at Bentley on Saturday.

The Rocks' fourth dual-meet win was an easy 80-29 affair over visiting Redford Union in what was Plymouth's only home track and field event this spring.

His success to date in the 1962 track campaign prompted Plymouth coach Keith Baughman to define the Rocks current thinclad edition as "measurably stronger than a year ago, but surprisingly lacking in depth."

Baughman's observation was borne out in the Redford Union clash where Plymouth relied on first place finishes in 12 of the 13 individual events to compile three-quarters of its 80-point total.

Bob Steele and Dan Stremick headed the Rocks' attack on Redford Union, each picking up 11 1/4 points on the strength of a pair of first place finishes apiece along with contributing legs on the winning relay teams.

In the regional test at Bentley High Saturday, it was a horse of a different color, however. Plymouth eked out only two first place finishes, but added five second place ribbons.

The Rocks emerged a solid runner-up with 37 points all told.

Pontiac Central dominated the regionals with a run-away total of 75 points, while Edsel Ford finished third well back of second-place Plymouth.

Tony Hunt set a new regional record at Bentley in the 880-yard (half-mile) run. Hunt's time of 1:37.6 also established a new school record for Plymouth eclipsing by nearly a second the previous mark that Hunt himself had set two weeks ago.

Stremick, in the high jump, also bettered a regional record with a leap of 6-feet even. However, it did not break the Plymouth school record of 6-feet, two and three-eighths inches.

Hugh Sarah finished second in the shot put and broke his own two-week-old school record. His toss of 51' 3" cracked his previous standard by six inches.

Other scoring by Plymouth in the regional meet was accomplished by:

Steele with a fourth place finish in the high hurdles; Dave VanOrnum, Jeff Fraser, Dave Fey and Steele with a fourth in the 80-yard relay; Fey with a third place ribbon in the 100-yard dash;

Steele with a second in the low hurdles; Fey with a second in the 220; Byron Latter, VanOrnum, Stremick and Hunt with a second in the mile relay; and Stremick with a second in the broad jump.

In the latter event, Stremick's effort of 19' 8" was his best thus far this season. No school threatened Pontiac Central in the regional competition. The Pontiac thinclads racked up nine first place ribbons and won going away.

Plymouth's victory over Redford Union took place on Tuesday, May 15, behind the

Allen Park Avenges Earlier Tennis Loss

With a share of the Suburban Six league tennis title within its grasp, Plymouth suffered a 4-2 defeat to Allen Park last week and dropped to third place in the final standings.

Going into the meet, the Rocks stood in second place. A victory, such as the 4-3 win Plymouth tagged Allen Park with a week earlier, would have earned the Rocks a co-champion label.

The defeat gave the story a different ending, however. Allen Park finished first, ahead of Trenton. The Rocks nosed out Bentley High for third place.

Only Dave Tidwell was able to win in the singles competition against Allen Park. Tom Lock and Dale Livingston teamed up once again in doubles and captured their ninth straight doubles match against no losses this season.

But elsewhere, Plymouth couldn't find the tange and Allen Park took the meet with ease. The final doubles match was cancelled when its outcome would have no bearing on the match decision.

On Thursday of last week, Plymouth pummeled Thurston High, 5-2. Al Larson and Tim Wernette were victors in the singles matches and three Plymouth doubles teams were winners. They were com-

O.L.G.C. Blanks St. Henry, 3-0

Our Lady of Good Counsel blanked St. Henry of Lincoln Park, 3-0, last week to run its win streak to three straight.

Once again pitcher Jim Ennis turned in a sparkling effort on the mound as he fashioned a three-hitter, struck out six and walked only one.

O.L.G.C. got only four hits, but made them count. Mike Klinkhammer doubled in one run in the fifth and Mike Lockwood followed with another double scoring two more runs.

Lou Plaza was the losing pitcher for St. Henry.

O.L.G.C. was scheduled to meet St. Mel's of Dearborn here last Sunday.

In addition to their 12 individual winners' ribbons, the Rocks added three outright second place finishes, a share for another second by virtue of a tie (in the pole vault) and six thirds.

It was Plymouth's most convincing decision in track this year. However, the Rocks established no new school records, despite their mountainous margin of victory.

In the field events, Stremick aimed the high jump (at 5' 10") and the broad jump (with a leap of 19' 3/4"). Mark Fischer won the pole vault (9' 6") and finished second behind Stremick in the broad jump where Steele took a third.

Hugh Sarah won the shot put with a toss of 49' 4" as Jim Ayres finished second. Herb Park tied for second in the pole vault behind Fischer.

In the track events, Plymouth was practically untouchable.

Steele won the high hurdles in :15.6, Chris Gaffield picking up a third place ribbon. The Rocks took the 880-yard relay as Ken Fischer, Jeff Fraser, Steele and Fey combined for a 1:34.5 time.

Byron Latter won the mile in 4:43.0, Ward Griffith finishing third. Fey won the 100 in :10.6, Ken Fischer third. Hunt won the 880-yard run with Dick Pankow third.

Redford Union's only individual victory came in the 440-yard dash (quarter mile), but Fraser was second for Plymouth and Doug Eder was third.

Steele won the low hurdles in :20.6. Fey won the 220 in :23.6, Ken Fischer finishing third. Plymouth captured the mile relay in 3:38.4 on the combined efforts of Latter, VanOrnum, Stremick and Hunt.

Plymouth's track squad was to have traveled to Allen Park for a dual meet Tuesday afternoon (May 22) and tomorrow afternoon (May 24) will visit Northville High.

The Suburban Six league track meet will be held May 31 at Trenton and the Bentley Relays will follow on June 2.

Currently, Plymouth leads the Suburban Six conference on a basis of dual-meet wins and losses. But the final standings are figured only on the results of the league meet. A year ago Plymouth finished second in the league.

Recreation Softball Underway

Myron Hopper's two-run homer in the ninth inning, enabling Pursell's to beat Men's Lutheran, 4-2, was one of several highlights as the Class B recreation softball league opened here last week.

Hopper's round-tripper, coming with John Sandmann on base, was the deciding blow. The two teams had been tied at 2-2 at the end of the regulation seven innings.

Sandmann earlier had slammed a homerun to give Pursell's a 2-1 lead in the sixth. But Men's Lutheran rallied with one run in the top of the seventh to send the game into extra innings.

In other action last week, Toll House Inn defeated IBM, 6-2, Tait's Cleaner's bombed Box Bar, 22-9, and McAllister Bros. & Plymouth Schools beat DeHoCo, 10-6, and Plymouth Plating cumped Carlings, 17-12.

Vico Products, the 11th team in the league, drew a bye in the first round of play.

The standings: W L

Plymouth Plating	1	0
McA'ster & Ply. Sch.	1	0
Toll House	1	0
IBM	0	1
Box Bar	0	1
DeHoCo	0	1
Men's Lutheran	0	1
Carlings	0	1

More games are scheduled for this Thursday evening and next Tuesday. Thursday night the games begin at 7 p.m. behind the high school. The same schedule holds for Tuesday, May 29. No further games are slated to be played at DeHoCo until Tuesday, June 5.

JayVee Baseball Team Remains at .500 Level

Brian Boring's junior varsity baseball team remained at .500 last week with a 4-4 victory over Livonia Franklin High on Thursday and a 13-2 defeat at the hands of Belleville three days earlier.

The scores matched the Junior Rocks' efforts of the week previous (not reported in the May 16 edition of The Mail) when the JayVees lost 13-2 to Ann Arbor and tied Bentley 5-4.

Against Franklin High last week, Plymouth rallied for three runs in the top of the seventh to gain the decision. The Rocks started the inning trailing 3-2. Jim Lake singled in two runs, after Plymouth had tied the score, to give the Rocks a 5-3 margin. Franklin flurried in the bottom half, but the effort was halted after Franklin had scored once.

John Daniels was the winning hurler and now has a 2-1 record.

Earlier, against Belleville, Plymouth was badly embarrassed. Coach Boring paraded three pitchers to the mound in an effort to cope with Belleville's free-hitting tactics. Belleville got four runs in the second and added identical three-run clusters in the third and fifth.

Loser was Plymouth's Caleb Luibrand, who started.

The Junior Rocks were scheduled to meet Allen Park here last Monday and will visit Ann Arbor Thursday afternoon.

SPORTS

By Jerome O'Neil

If summer pleasures were limited only to youngsters and golfers, the Plymouth Junior Golf Association would be right at home.

And even though the leisure-time spotlight is shared with fishing, swimming, vacationing, etc., the PJGA is in fine fettle. Even more so this year than in summers past.

As its name implies, the Plymouth Junior Golf Assn. is a golf league for youngsters of junior ages... boys and girls from fourth grade on through high school.

This season, it is scheduled to renew its local activities on June 18, the Monday after school lets out.

Started five years ago through the combined efforts and ingenuity of Mrs. Wilson Augustine and Mrs. John Izett, plus assistance from the recreation department and Hilltop Golf Club, the PJGA is another outlet — and a successful one — for youthful summertime enthusiasm.

Essentially, the program consists of approximately two months of organized golf coupled with professional golf instruction. Hilltop hosts the league, which plays every Monday morning, when the program is underway.

Statistics always lend some weight to the stated success of any undertaking.

In 1957, the year of PJGA's inception — there were fewer than 60 youngsters enrolled in the program. By 1960 this had nearly doubled. Last year there were 140 boys and girls signed up.

Mrs. Augustine, who remains as the most loyal booster of the Plymouth Junior Golf Assn., indicates that this summer considerably more than 150 will enroll.

A nominal fee of $1. is charged for each Monday morning participation. This fee also covers the cost of a professional lesson, conducted by Hilltop pro and manager, Chris Burghardt. Art Griffiths, an 89-year-old golf addict, is also occasionally on hand to help with the instruction.

The program is divided into two groups — advanced and beginning golfers. The two divisions are not based on age, but only on ability.

The season culminates in a two-day tournament, which this year will be held on July 30 and 31. And again, as in the past, the Plymouth JayVees, from their Youth Fund, will provide the money for tournament awards.

The PJGA has been termed "as successful as any other part of Plymouth summer recreation program." One of the reasons might be found in the fact that the PJGA is almost entirely self-supporting. The individual $1. Monday morning fees sustain the majority of the program.

Adding further credence to this success story is the knowledge that Plymouth High School's varsity golf team — for the past three years — has been almost entirely comprised of boys who learned their golf lessons well during their days in the PJGA.

Mrs. Augustine is justly proud of this turn of events. And she is equally proud that another product of the PJGA — Del McAllister, who paced Plymouth's varsity golf team last year — has quite publicly illustrated the instructional worth of the program.

McAllister, who happens to come from a family of fine golfers, was the Michigan Junior Amateur Golf champion in 1960 and that same year competed in the U.S. Junior Amateur Golf Tournament in Kansas City. As a high school golfer he took down many additional laurels.

With these credentials, it is understandable why Mrs. Augustine these days is tooting a horn for the Plymouth Junior Golf Assn.

In fact, she is about to announce the initial enrollment date for this summer's fun. Interested boys and girls — or parents, too, for that matter — may contact her for further information at GL 3-6038.

Belleville, Trenton Bow to Plymouth

Dick Schryer, as stingy a pitcher as the Suburban Six league has seen in sometime, came down with a sore arm last week.

Prior to that, Schryer had been making do with meager batting support from his teammates and had helped Plymouth's varsity to a 3-2 record.

The Rocks had supported Schryer with only 20 hits, had shaped a measly team batting average of .169 and had only narrowly managed to claim their three victories in five attempts.

In his pitching efforts, Schryer had fashioned a stunning earned run average of only 1.42.

Then came Schryer's sore arm. It was followed with a bit of down right irony.

Mike Kisabeth took over the majority of the pitching duties.

Plymouth suddenly awakened and posted two high-scoring victories. If Schryer was mystified, it was understandable.

Last week on Monday, the Rocks overwhelmed Belleville, 11-6, for Victory No. 4. Hampered by his sore arm, Schryer went only one-third of an inning, giving up two runs. Kisabeth came in and collared Belleville effectively the rest of the way.

A seven-run outburst by Plymouth in the fourth inning was the difference. The Rocks managed only three hits, but made them count. It gave Plymouth a 7-3 margin.

Key blows in the Plymouth uprisings were two-run singles by both Mickey Herter and Kisabeth. The Rocks added one more run in the fifth, two in the sixth and another single run in the seventh.

Belleville rallied for two runs in the bottom of the seventh before Kisabeth finally put out the fire.

On Thursday, the Rocks racked up Victory No. 5 by virtue of a 7-6 win over Trenton High.

It was a "come-from-behind" decision.

Plymouth trailed 6-0 in the sixth inning, but cut the lead to 6-4 with a hitting spree headed by Brian Gilles' triple and a series of run-producing singles.

In the seventh, the Rocks really poured on the dramatics.

Eloy Menchaca walked and Gilles singled. Gilles was forced at second. Then Jared Stevens boomed a game-winning homerun over the centerfielder's head to finish the matter.

It was Stevens' second homer of the year.

Kisabeth was the winner again. Schryer, pestered by his sore arm, was relieved in the third.

The Rocks are now 5-2 for the season and stand in a three-way tie for first place in the league with a 5-1 record.

Allen Park hosted Plymouth Monday, Redford Union will be here tomorrow afternoon (Thursday, May 24) and Ypsilanti visits here on Monday.

day, May 28. Bentley hosts Plymouth May 31 in the final league game of the season for the Rocks.

Leading batter for Plymouth at the close of action last week was Dick Egloff (.375), while Herter is second (.353) and Stevens third (.343). Stevens leads in homers with two and RBI's with eight.

Schryer is 3-2, while Kisabeth spree last week, the Rocks raised their team batting average to .197. In pitching, Schryer is 3-2, while Kisabeth is 2-0. Plymouth has committed 22 errors in seven games.

Michaels Named M.V.P. On Rocks Swim Team

Freestyler Gary Gould and diver Mark Schultheiss were elected as co-captains of next year's varsity swimming team at a team banquet earlier this month.

At the same time, Dick Michaels, Plymouth's record-breaking breast stroker and team scoring leader, was named as most valuable player for the 1961-62 swimming season.

Coach John McFall announced letter winners and issued varsity manager awards during the affair, held at the junior high school auditorium May 9.

Attended by more than 200 parents and team members, the banquet featured University of Michigan swimming coach Gus Stager as guest speaker. He was also the 1960 U.S. Olympic swimming team coach.

During the course of the evening, JayVee swimming awards were made by junior varsity coach Tom Workman. Basketball coach Charlie Ketterer served as toastmaster for the event.

The banquet arrangements were made by a parents' committee, headed by Loren Gould.

Varsity manager letters went to Doug Burden, Bill Drennan, Dick West and John Park.

Fisher Agency 1st In Bowling League

Fisher Insurance Agency, of Plymouth, took first place in the Bowlerettes League at Cloverlanes Bowl in Livonia recently. There were 16 teams entered.

The local team won 101 games and lost only 39. Beverly Johnson led the team this season with a 151 average. The five-member squad will compete in the Champion of Champions tournament held in Detroit and sponsored by the Women's International Bowling Congress.

Junior League Program Will Open This Saturday

Plymouth's Junior League baseball program gets underway this Saturday, May 26, following a parade through town by members of both major leagues and minor leagues.

The Junior Leaguers will meet at 10 a.m. Saturday at the Hamilton St. playing field where they will assemble for the parade.

Plymouth City's mayor, Robert Sincovec, will throw out the first ball when game-time arrives at the Junior League baseball diamond opposite Burroughs Corp. on Plymouth Road.

Carl Cederberg, newscaster for a Detroit radio station and a Plymouth resident, will make a few remarks at the time of opening ceremonies.

Refreshments will be sold at the stand and under the tent which has been donated by Boy Scout Troop No. 781 of Our Lady of Good Counsel.

All fathers available are asked to drive team members from the end of the parade on Dodge Street to the Junior League diamonds for the opening ceremonies and initial games.

Minor league team members are asked to return their information sheets immediately so that they may be issued uniforms and so that they may march in the parade.

In the next five years about 1,000 engineering graduates from India will receive training in iron and steel technology in United States steel plants and foundries.

How to pay for a Cadillac—and not get one!

There are several ways that a man can pay the price of a new Cadillac car—and find himself in possession of an automobile of far less stature.

Because there are many motorists currently considering the purchase of their next car, we would like to enumerate these ways of going astray.

1. Assume that the purchase price of a new Cadillac car is higher than it actually is. (There are eleven models of other makes that this year cost more than the lowest-priced Cadillac model.)
2. Fail to appreciate that the basic price of a new Cadillac includes many important things that are extra on other cars. (Including automatic transmission, power steering and power braking.)
3. Neglect to find out from a Cadillac dealer what your present car is worth in trade. (He is especially anxious this spring to welcome new owners.)

And if you take one of these detours, think of all the unique pleasures you could be missing.

There is Cadillac's styling—so majestic that it attracts attention wherever it goes.

There is Cadillac's comfort—so wonderful that every journey becomes a brief vacation.

And there is Cadillac's performance—so great that it is without rival on the world's highways.

So we suggest that you play it safe—and get all the facts from your dealer soon.

You might be closer to a Cadillac than you think.

Newburg Methodists Consecrate New Church

INTERIOR of the church that this Sunday will be consecrated.

THIS IS Newburg Methodist Church today. It is on Ann Arbor Trail near Newburgh Rd.

BUILT over 100 years ago, this is the old Newburg Methodist Church that will soon become the Livonia Museum.

Marshall R. Reed, Michigan Area Bishop, will consecrate the Newburg Methodist church edifices this Sunday, assisted by Dr. Edwin W. Stricker, Ann Arbor District superintendent and pastor, Roger W. Merrell.

Duplicate services will be held at 9 and 1:15 a.m. followed by an open house and tea until 4 p.m. At 7 p.m. a Vesper Service will be conducted by the youth fellowships, to which the public is invited.

One hundred and twenty eight years ago the congregation was established across from Newburg School on Newburgh Rd. In 1888 they merged with the Congregational church under the Methodist conference, in their building, across from the Newburg Cemetery on Ann Arbor Trail.

It was not until 1915 that this oldest place of worship in the area came to rest at its corner location. Now they have moved again, not from the community, but to a quarter-million dollar edifice which includes sanctuary, education-fellowship hall unit and parsonage set on a four acre site located one half mile east of the old church, 36500 Ann Arbor Trail at Levan. James Morrison was the architect.

The Historical Society and Historical Commission of Livonia is formulating plans for the moving, restoring and preserving of the historic building on Quaker Acres, the museum site recently established by the city.

First services of worship were held in the new sanctuary on Palm Sunday, April 15.

Regular services which Sunday are at 9 and 11 a.m. with church school for nursery through sixth at 9 a.m.; seventh grade through adults at 10 a.m. with enrichment activities provided for the nursery through sixth grade.

10 YEARS AGO
The annual Spring Book Festival will be held Wednesday, May 23 in the high school library. A program of music, readings and dancing will be included.
The city commission passed a resolution to post all new or amended ordinances on the three official bulletin boards and in the office of the city clerk.

Among those from Plymouth attending the Spring Festival at St. James Methodist Church in Detroit last Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Culver, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Purcell, Mrs. Albert Groh and daughter, Molly, Mrs. George Fischer, Mrs. Carl Hartwick, Miss Helen Farland, Mrs. Coverdill, Mrs. Bernice Thomas, Mrs. Harold

Charles Rathburn, popular Plymouth township member of the Wayne county board of supervisors, was honored a few days ago by appointment to the all-powerful ways and means committee of the board.
Students of Plymouth high school had the privilege of hearing the coronation speech of King George VI. Each class met in its home group and listened to radios furnished by students.
Mrs. Ray Johns was re-elected as president of the Plymouth League of Women Voters at a meeting at the home of Mrs. C. E. Elliott on Ann Street last Friday.
Chicken thieves during the past week have stolen over 60 full-blooded Plymouth Rocks from the farm of Melburn Partridge, who resides on west of the city on Penniman Rd.
Miss Alice Safford plans to spend from Saturday to Monday with her nephew, Lawrence H. Harrison, in Detroit.
William Streng visited his brother-in-law, William Micol

50 YEARS AGO
It looks as if times were prosperous from the way barns are going up around here. Lou Krumm has a fine new addition on his barn. Lou certainly has the most up-to-date building in this part of the country.
Mrs. Gould found a man in her chicken coop last week. Some others have had chickens stolen. The thieves had better stop it, for the farmers are on the watch and they might get a dose of shot.
Grace Innis, Alice Kellogg, Clarence Becker, pupils of Miss Carrie Merritt in district No. 7, took the eighth grade examination in Northville last Thursday and Friday.
E. A. Roe sold his Buick automobile to A. N. Kinyon and purchased a new one, a larger car. W. T. Conner also has a new Maxwell.
At a special meeting of the village council last Friday evening, a 90-barrel tank car of oil was ordered and the same will be used in sprinkling the streets of the village wherever it may be desired.

The property owners will pay two-thirds of the cost and the village one-third.
Hobos seem to be on the move as the warm weather approaches. Twenty-eight were rounded up by Marshal Springer one day this week in the railroad yards and told to jump the town as soon as possible.
The Woman's Literary Club will hold their annual meeting and club picnic this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Dan Murray, west of Plymouth.
Mrs. W. O. Allen is making some fine improvements on her ground on Penniman Ave.
Monday evening, May 27, in the High School room, Mr. Isbell will give a large number of colored stereoscopic slides on the Panama canal. He will also give a lecture fully explaining the views. Admission of 10 cents for school children and 15 cents for adults will be charged. Proceeds will go toward the purchase of the lantern.

TOPS Club Wins Dinner From Northville (Dietary, of Course)

Would you like to lose a few pounds before you don that bathing suit this summer? There is a local club that can help you do it—all that is necessary is a desire to lose, and join the weekly meetings of the TOPS (Take Off Pounds Sensibly) Club.
This group is living up to its name of "Pare-Weighters" for the total weight shows a big loss each month.
In a recent monthly contest with the Northville group the local "heavies" won by losing a total of 110 pounds. The winners were feted to a dietary banquet by the losers at Northville.
The biggest loser since the club's inaugural meeting in February has lost a total of 36 pounds.
The group has grown from an original dozen members to 18. Anyone who wishes to lose a lot of weight, or a little, is welcome to attend a Wednesday night meeting in room 105 at the high school. The meetings begin at 7:30 with the weighing-in ceremony and adjourn around 9 p.m.
Group therapy contributes greatly to reducing, and added incentives are the many club and individual contests. At present two teams are competing for a free bowling game—the losers paying for the winners. As soon as this is over some other incentive contest will be held.
Anyone desiring to learn more about this weight-reducing group can do so by calling GL 3-1645 or GL 3-3899. The club is open to
