Twp. Eyes Stiffer Bonding

Township Board members Tuesday evening struggled once again with the problem of tightening up protection limits of performance bonds which "hold free" the Township from financial liability resulting from damage to lot line markers and sidewalks in new residential developments.

The performance bonds are taken out by subdividing firms as insurance against damage to above-ground items such as lot line markers, side walks, curbing and similar devices in new subdivisions.

The Township wants wider protection, since the bonds — as they stand now — often expire at inopportune times and the Township itself is occasionally held responsible for damage allegedly caused by the subdivider.

Among other things, the township authorities are seeking bonding protection against damage to below-ground water and sewer mains.

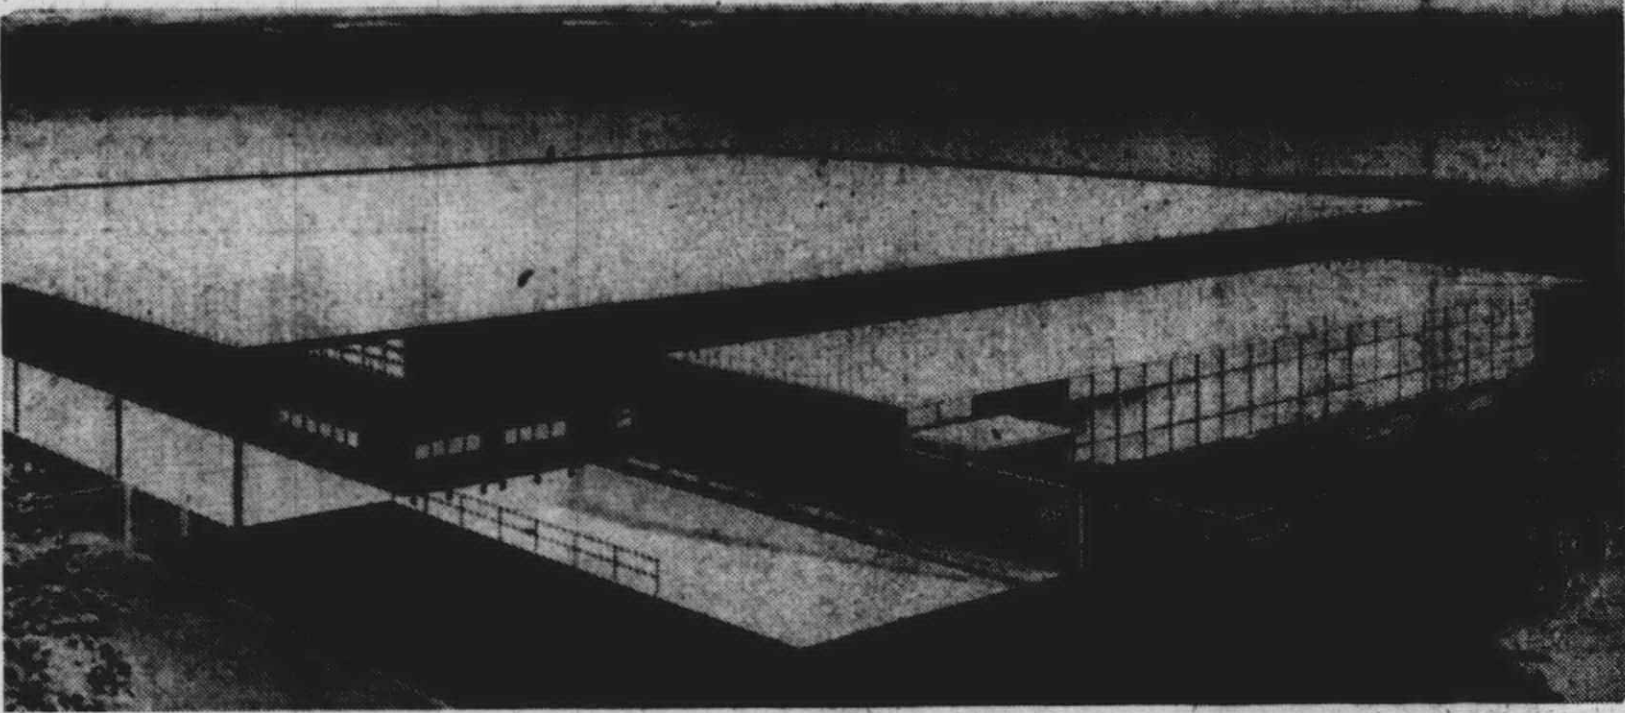

The matter came up last month at the Board meeting when an insurance agent representing the Garling Development Co. said that the Township's request for greater bonding protection is "too restrictive."

Two subdivisions that the Board members hope can be protected with wider provisions through new bonds are Park Lane Estates and Garling development No. 3, Lake Pointe development No. 6 is also being eyed for wider bonding protection.

Supervisor Roy Lindsay reported that he had been contacted by an insurance agent who said his company would accept damage bonds with the suggested stipulations written into them.

The offer was made on the basis of a maximum protection not to exceed a total amount figured at a rate of $100 per subdivision lot. (Thus, a development with 50 lots would be bonded up to $5,000 in damages.)

However, Lindsay said (Continued on page 8)

SCHEDULED FOR occupancy by Jan. 1, this modern office and warehouse building is fast nearing completion in the City's industrial belt along Plymouth Rd. When completed, it will serve as Willys Sales Corporation's central region sales headquarters. Situated on a two-acre plot, the single-story structure will provide more than 20,000-square-feet of space for office and parts warehousing facilities. There will be an additional covered area for vehicle storage. Headed by regional manager O. H. Vandeputte, the Willys Central Sales Region serves 'Jeep' dealers throughout a major portion of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Kentucky, Virginia and West Virginia. Additional warehouse distribution facilities are maintained by the company in Cincinnati. The building is being constructed by the H. F. Campbell Co. Although most of the employees for the new building will be transferred from the company's present headquarters in Detroit, there is a possibility that new jobs will be created here eventually.

Lindsay Tells Of City-Twp. Sewer Accord

Plymouth Township is one of the cleanest and nicest areas left in the whole metropolitan area, Supervisor Roy Lindsay told members of Plymouth's Rotary club last Friday.

Appearing before the club along with Township trustee Louis Norman, Engineer Herald Hamill and Clerk John McEwen, the Supervisor and the other officials were presented to the club by Community Affairs' Chairman Sam Hudson.

"Our Township has many problems much as all growing metropolitan areas," the Supervisor said, "but we are giving first consideration to our sewer and water problem and are making excellent progress in this respect."

"Presently we have 27 miles of sewer and water operating within the township and are now working closely with the city in the exchange of flowage rights so that both municipalities may develop wider sewer service without the necessity of further pumping stations," he said.

He told Rotarians he had been criticized from all sides for his continuing efforts to hold taxes down in the township, but that he would continue to do so, and expansion of services would be planned with cost to the taxpayers as the first consideration.

Trustee Louis Norman traced the development of Township fire facilities from the department's inception 14 years ago to its present status of 22 men.

Engineer Herald Hamill discussed the Township's expanding sewer plan and presented a chart showing proposed development in the western section of the Township where sewers will follow the natural drainage fall to outlets on the east and south along present stream beds.

City Draws Battle Lines In Struggle with Winter

BY JEROME O'NEIL

Old Man Winter took its first awesome bite out of the City's $8,000 snow and ice removal budget last week and came away with the knowledge that the annual battle lines have been drawn.

Within less than two hours after being notified Thursday morning that a three to six inch snowfall was destined to slap here, DPW director Joe Bida had seen to the City's first street-salting efforts this winter.

A year ago, DPW snow-removal crews distributed approximately 1,150 tons of salt in order to keep traffic moving within the realm of safety at virtually all times, despite the antics of winter weather.

Bida was notified at 6:45 a.m. last Thursday of the anticipated snowfall here. Within minutes he had his crews at work salting major City streets. Once this phase was finished, rail crossings were salted, and finally salt coverings were applied at hills and intersections.

He estimated the work took no more than 90 minutes. It followed the same pattern that he will use during all snow storms here. Later in the day, a second salt-spreading was undertaken, and more was put down Friday.

Almost immediately, Bida placed an order for another 100 tons of salt to be delivered to the City's stockpile at the DPW yard on Goldsmith Street at Arthur.

Before the snowfall Thursday, the stockpile amounted to 250 tons. It diminished rapidly, during the course of the day's work.

While many would wonder why the City refuses to use calcium chloride, since it is considered more efficient in this matter, Bida has a simple explanation:

"Price," he said. Calcium chloride would cost the taxpayers $3.25 for just 100 pounds of the stuff," he explained. "Plain salt, on the other hand, is far less expensive."

He said that salt is delivered to the DPW yard at a cost of $7.90 a ton, or only a fraction of the price of calcium chloride.

The city splits its salt order between International (Continued on page 8)

The heavy, clinging snow, driven harshly by a cold wind, placed the first dent in Bida's estimate that City of Plymouth will spread some 1,100 tons of salt on key pavements, intersections, hills and railroad crossings here between now and next April.

Authorize Addition to Farrand School

Answer to Overcrowding Sought in "Package Bid"

Threatened with overcrowded classrooms at Farrand elementary school during 1963-64, Board of Education has authorized a two-room addition to the school and has arranged a "package bidding" plan in hopes of fulfilling two other major construction projects.

The Farrand addition will be paid for out of the five-million-dollar and site sinking fund established by voter approval in 1960.

Although the present balance of this same fund had been intended primarily for use in financing Phase II of Junior High West along with a continued rehabilitation of the Senior High building, Board members are hopeful that the added cost of the Farrand expansion also can be squeezed out of it.

Preliminary estimates of the Farrand school addition put the price of the two new rooms and a necessary corridor extension at between $65,000 and $70,000.

Through a simultaneous call for bids not only on the Farrand addition but on Phase II of Junior High West and four aspects of the Senior High improvement program as well, the Board is confident it will gain a favorable advantage in the overall costs of the projects.

The advantage expected through this "package bidding" is hoped to be sufficient whereby the Farrand addition can be accomplished without upsetting plans for the other two major projects.

The Board is prepared, however, to defer one or two of the four individual improvements to the Senior High building in order to assure that the Farrand addition becomes a reality.

All of this developed following a special facilities and finance report by Board President Gerald Fischer at the regular Monday night session.

Fischer cited a projection of elementary school enrollment here during the academic year of 1963-64. Of the six elementary schools, only Farrand is threatened with serious overcrowding.

Reason for this, Fischer pointed out, is that the Farrand area (primarily Lake Pointe Village) will conceivably expand far more rapidly than the five other elementary school areas with regard to the number of children attending kindergarten through sixth grade.

With its present 14 rooms, Farrand in 1963-64 would wind up with an average of greater than 37 children per room. The School Board strives to keep classroom average to about 30 pupils.

This is considered to be a "maximum student load."

Current enrollment at Farrand is 413 with no sixth grade pupils. They have been shifted to one of the Junior High buildings in order to provide adequate space for the remaining youngsters at Farrand.

It is estimated that Farrand enrollment will spiral to 526 (again with sixth graders being re-assigned to a Junior High building) by the start of the 1963-64 school year.

"Clearly," said Fischer, "we will need two more rooms there, unless we're willing to do a great deal of special transporting and perhaps some re-districting."

Board members agreed to the proposal for a two-room addition, since future Farrand area growth will demand this, and still greater, expansion eventually.

In fact, Fischer pointed out, the Lake Pointe Village subdivision has approximately 500 homesites remaining to be developed. This will ultimately far outstrip the Farrand facilities, even with a two-room addition.

Four Hats Now in Ring In Commissioner Race

Two more men declared their interest in seeking City commission posts last week, thus bringing the present number of candidates to four.

The two most recent men to file petitions of candidacy with the City Clerk's office are:

GEORGE LAWTON, 36, of 1317 Sheridan;

JAMIEL 'JIM' JABARA, 33, of 231 Irvin.

Deadline for submitting petitions is 4 p.m. Dec. 31.

Neither Jabara nor Lawton has sought public office here previously.

Lawton is the general manager of the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union and is secretary of the Industrial Development Corp. here. He is a past president of the Chamber of Commerce.

Jabara is co-owner of the Plymouth Tank & Fabricating Co. here. He is a member of Kiwanis and has lived here three and one-half years.

The two join George Hudson, 44, of 706 Burroughs, and Harry Hunter, 68, of 234 Maple, in the race for four City Commission seats that will be decided at the biennial Spring Election next April. They have already filed petitions.

Russell Hoffman, of 1600 N. Territorial, is also expected to file a petition for candidacy shortly.

None of the four Commissioners whose terms are expiring will be among the list of final candidates. Reason for this is that each has served two consecutive terms on the City's governing body and thus all are prevented from running again by City Charter.

The four outgoing Commissioners are Mayor Robert Sincoc, Marvin Terry, William Hartmann and Carl Shear.

A primary run-off election will be held in February if more candidates than twice the number of vacancies file, said City Clerk Joseph Near.

Meanwhile, in the Township no petitions have yet been filed for the elective offices there that also will be decided at the April election.

Township officials report, however, that a number of petitions are in circulation, including six for persons seeking seats on the Township's Board of Trustees.

There are three vacancies coming up on the Board. One is caused by the expiration of the term to which one trustee was elected two year ago.

The other two are newly-created seats on the Board. It has numbered five (Continued on page 8)

City Hall Request Nears Top of List

Still no word has been received by City authorities on a request for a federal grant-in-aid to assist in the construction of a new colonial-styled City Hall here.

However, it was learned this week that project No. 77 has been processed by the Housing and Home Finance Agency. City of Plymouth's request had previously been assigned project No. 83.

Meanwhile, a request submitted by Plymouth Township for federal funds to aid in the construction of a sewer extension carries project No. 81. Both may be acted upon within 10 days, it was believed.

ANNUAL Christmas sale by Rotary Anns took place last week and featured an array of merchandise, ranging from rugs, stuffed toys and ceramics to countless baby things. Articles on sale were made by handicapped children and adults. Proceeds from the sale will be returned to the individuals who made the items. It was the 12th year the Rotary Anns have held their sale. Above, Mrs. Vaughan Smith and Mrs. Albert Glassford, chairmen, look over a display of merchandise.

City Studies Detroit Water Proposal

City of Plymouth's "production costs" for water from Detroit would spiral 83 per cent, Commissioners agreed last week.

And residential water bills here would undergo a "substantial" increase, too, it was understood.

Exactly how much the boost would be to average house-holders will not be known until further study is made by Commissioners of the City's present "sliding-scale" rate system in comparison to Detroit's "flat-rate" price quotation.

Under the City's current billing system, a consumer gains a more favorable rate as volume of usage increases.

Thus, heavy consumers — such as industry — pay a lower rate per 1,000 gallons than do average residential users. As Detroit's offer of water stands now, all users would pay the same rate, regardless of volume of consumption.

proposal has not yet been put to a true "bargaining" test by City authorities.

All of this — and more — came to light in a special meeting of City Commissioners last Thursday evening.

Among related matters, the Commission gave further ammunition to Arch Vallier, the City's appointed representative to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

Vallier, who will meet Thursday afternoon with the county's Ways & Means Committee to discuss the issue further, is serving as the City's liaison on all matters pertaining to the Detroit water proposal.

Acting on a previous recommendation from its consulting engineer firm of Johnson & Anderson Inc., the Commission passed a resolution, requested especially by Vallier. The resolution plainly states the City's intent with regard to a proposed 3-million-gallon water reservoir here that has been on planning tables for half a year.

The action stemmed from a report given during the special meeting last week by Frank Lodge, a member of the consulting engineer firm.

He strongly urged the Commissioners to proceed with their plans on the proposed water reservoir along Beck Rd. He submitted the following letter of recommendation:

"City of Plymouth: In June 1961 we prepared a report for the City of Plymouth on water storage facilities. That report clearly indicated the need for additional storage.

"The data presented in the report are still applicable. Mention was made in the report that (additional) storage would be required even if an outside source was obtained. The fact that the City of Detroit has offered water in the near future, if Plymouth (City) wants it, does not alter the fact that (new) storage facilities are necessary.

"We therefore recommend that the City proceed with plans for the construction of the storage tank.

"City of Plymouth adopts the recommendations of Johnson & Anderson, and intends to proceed with plans to construct a new water reservoir here, whether or not the City ultimately obtains water from Detroit."

Said Vallier: "I want it clearly explained in writing that the City is going ahead with its reservoir, regardless."

"Very Truly Yours, Felix A. Anderson, Johnson & Anderson Inc."

A former consulting engineer firm for the City had recommended virtually the same action. As far back as (Continued on page 8)

Later there were ice cream and cookies for everyone. The two clowns are shown here with several children.

Two Canton Twp. Bond Issues To Speed New Water Mains

Canton Township officials authorized the sale of nearly $500,000 in bonds Monday night to finance the construction of approximately eight miles of new water mains. The sale was divided into two parts, one amounting to a $288,000 special assessment bond issue and the other a $200,000 general obligation issue.

The bonds were sold at an average interest rate of 3.688 for a 30-year period. Major purchaser of the bonds was First of Michigan Investment Co., of Detroit.

The money will be used to finance the construction of six miles of water main along Canton Center, Ford and Lillie Rds., and approximately two more miles of mains on the south side of the Township near Michigan Ave.

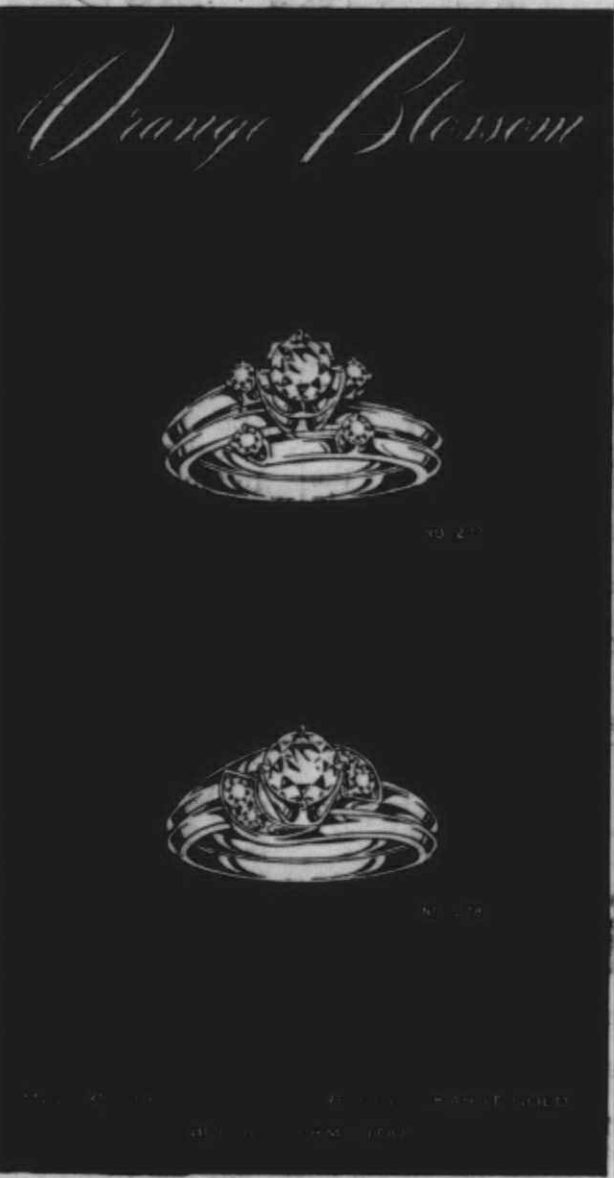

additional-sewer mains. The request has been issued a "project number" by officials of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, which handles applications for funds under the terms of the Public Works Acceleration Act.

In regular matters Tuesday night, the Canton Board of Trustees authorized the purchase of a Ford pick-up truck for the Township DPW department. The vehicle will be obtained from John Mach Ford sales in Northville, the low bidder on the project.

Canton to Vote On 4 Trustees In Spring Race

Four Canton Twp. Board of Trustees posts will be decided in the Biennial Spring Election next April, along with the offices of Supervisor, Clerk and Treasurer.

Other elective offices that Canton voters will decide upon next Spring include those of one Justice of the Peace, four Twp. constables and a highway commissioner.

Even now, according to Canton Twp. Treasurer Philip Dingledev, a number of petitions are in circulation for the four Trustees seats and some already have been filed with Twp. Clerk John Flodin.

Deadline for filing petitions of candidacy is Dec. 31 at 4 p.m. Petitions are still available at Flodin's office.

The Canton Twp. Board, which presently numbers five members, including two designated Trustees, will be expanded to seven persons next April. Two additional Trustees will be voted into office at that time.

The two present Trustees are Harvey Vetal and Elmer Schultz, both of whom are expected to run for re-election.

Supervisor Louis Stein and the Canton Twp. Clerk and Treasurer serve as regular Board members with voting privileges, but only Vetal and Schultz are identified specifically as Trustees.

Board Arrives at Decision Regarding Two Empty Schools

School Board members met Monday night to make a decision regarding two empty school buildings within the district during regular session Monday night.

The two schools are the Canton Center school at Canton Center and Proctor Rds. and the Cherry Hill school at Cherry Hill and Ridge Rds.

Acting on a recommendation by Schools Supt. Russell Isbister, the Board agreed to lease the Cherry Hill building to Canton Twp. for a period of five years at a rental fee of $1 per year.

Canton Twp. officials are interested in using the building as a community and recreation center. The lease will start Jan. 1.

Meanwhile, the School Board agreed to offer to lease the Canton Center school to Career Games, Inc., a new business, for a $1,000 a year under a one-year lease with an option to renew for four years at the end of the first year.

Since the property there is now zoned agricultural, it would have to be re-zoned to commercial use. The Board's offer to Career Games was a revision of the company's own original proposal. There was no indication whether Career Games would accept the revised proposal.

In other action, the Board accepted the resignation of Charlotte Richards, a home economics teacher at both junior high buildings, who will quit at the end of this semester.

Approved the hiring of two new staff members, Miss Elizabeth Carless, a full-time grade teacher at Gallimore School, and Mrs. Edna Kelly, who now is teaching in Muskegon Heights and will become a second grade teacher at Farrand School; both to start with the beginning of the second semester, late in January.

Agreed to provide the City of Plymouth with a utility easement for a sanitary sewer along the southwest corner of Smith School property which, in turn, will serve the properties located west and south of the school.

Issued approval for the elementary school principals to attend two fourth-coming conventions.

Learned that the Plymouth Education Assn. was to sponsor a flu shot campaign this afternoon (Wednesday) from 3 to 5 p.m. for all school employees and staff members.

2 Families Left In U.R. Area

All but two families in the City's Urban Renewal development area have been relocated, said Urban Renewal director Joseph Near this week.

He had just completed arrangements for the relocation of two other families, each of which had eight members. One family moved to Wayne, the other to Detroit, Near said.

Meanwhile, he is continuing negotiations to conclude the purchase of six remaining pieces of property along the Mill St. redevelopment area. Nine parcels of land have already been obtained by the City.

City DPW crews have already demolished 10 of the buildings within the project, leaving 11 major structures still to be torn down.

MORE THAN 50 boys from St. Francis Home in Detroit were guests of the Knights of Columbus and the local recreation department last Saturday in a day of fun and festivities. The youngsters, all orphans, started the day's events with a long swim in the high school pool. After that, they were treated to a noon-time meal at the new K of C hall here and later they played basketball in the high school gym. Shown above are three boys and two of the Plymouth men who supervised and helped arrange the day. From left: Leonard Budnick, of the Knights of Columbus, hungry youngsters John Harvey, Jim Robinson and Tony Kloka, and Jerry Vettese, who was chairman of the day-long program.

NEWS BRIEFS

On Friday Mrs. David Wood of Warren Rd. will be hostess at a luncheon and Christmas party when her guests will be members of her contract bridge group including Mrs. David Mather, Mrs. Kenneth L. Hulsing, Mrs. Frank Allison, Mrs. George T. Bauer, Mr. William V. Clarke, Mrs. Ralph Taylor of this city and Mrs. T. Fraser Carmichael of Drayton Plains.

Lloyd Clark of Birmingham, son of Mrs. Roy Clark of Mrs. Roy Clark of this city, underwent surgery Friday in the Beaumont hospital in Royal Oak, where he is slowly improving. He has been given twelve pints of blood intervensively.

Members of the Soroptimist Club met Wednesday evening Dec. 12, at Lofy's for their regular December dinner meeting, after which they had a silent Christmas auction of gifts and the money received will be put into the treasury for charitable use in the community of Plymouth. Table decorations were in white and gold poinsettias with green trim of which Mrs. Carl Caplin was in charge.

Mrs. Maud Anderson and daughter, Mrs. Patrick Pegan and two sons and daughter, were luncheon guests Thursday of Mrs. James Deeg of Dearborn.

School Board

Supt. of Schools Russell Isbister injected a mention that Farrand should not be permitted to expand beyond 21 rooms ultimately. But even this total (optimum facilities for 630 pupils) would fall short of the eventual need for elementary classrooms in the Lake Pointe Village area.

The five other elementary schools — in 1963-64 — will not face such a severe problem as the Farrand facilities do. All of them, it is planned, will house an approximate average of 30 pupils per classroom, but a gain in shuffling of sixth graders will be essential.

As is the case today, sixth graders next year will be attending classes in both of the Junior High Buildings. At present, there are 86 sixth graders attending the two Junior Highs. A year from now, as many as 200 may be in Junior High classrooms.

In his report Monday evening, Fischer pointed out that the two-room addition at Farrand would have to be financed out of the 1960 building and site sinking fund.

This fund, which was approved by voters to be used "to construct and improve buildings and purchase new school sites," is in no way related to the optional levy which caused so much controversy before being authorized by voters this past summer.

Fischer turned to the $250,000 budget for the Senior High rehabilitation program. By withdrawing $65,000 from this Senior High rehabilitation budget, it would leave $185,000. Of this, $131,000 is already committed to previous modernization plans at the Senior High, including installation of a gas meter house, conversion of burners to gas, and heating and ventilating improvements.

The four remaining aspects of the rehabilitation program are comprised of new lighting and ceilings on the first and second floors and improvements to administrative offices.

Cost of the remaining four projects is estimated at $61,000.

Cost of Phase II of Junior High West is going to amount to about $600,000.

Fischer pointed out that by combining the three overall projects (Farrand addition, Senior High rehabilitation, Phase II of Junior High West) for a purpose of bids, the School District may receive a favorable total cost.

He added that by identifying the four subordinate projects within the Senior High rehabilitation program as "alternate individual projects," any one of the four could be deferred, if necessary, in order to assure the Farrand addition immediately.

His proposal was accepted. The firm of Wheeler-Becker & Associates, architect for the Senior High improvements, was continued as the architect for the Farrand addition. The firm had previously handled the original Farrand school plans a few years ago.

Horses, 7 Kids Have Fun at Willoway Farm

DR. P. J. CUNNINGHAM, his wife, and Donna Frizell, run Willoway Farm.

By Sue Hasselberg
A long awaited move to the country has propelled Dr. and Mrs. P. J. Cunningham into an exciting sideline — boarding racing horses.

For three years, Dr. Cunningham, an osteopathic surgeon tried to talk his wife, Shirley, into moving their family of seven children into the country where they could have more room.

And then while they were out driving one day they spotted the 40-acre farm of R. J. Hoffman, fell in love with it, and a scant one week later bought it. On Sept. 10, the family left Dearborn and moved in to their new home at 8925 N. Territorial.

The children — Paula Jean, 11, Patrick John, 10, Pamela Jo, 9, Peggy Jean, 7, Phyllis Joy, 6, Peter James, 5, and Patrice Jeanette, 2 — were a little apprehensive about country life. They were especially wary of "those flies."

But now they all agree that they wouldn't move back, they're so happy in their new home. Some of their contentment could be due to "Ginny," a shetland pony their parents bought for them.

At present there are 15 horses boarded at Willoway Farms, as the Cunninghams call their sprawling, 40-acre rural home. A new barn is being built which will house an additional 40 horses.

The track, around which the horses are raced each day, is to be increased to a half mile size.

Local race horses are sent to Willoway Farms between racing seasons where Donna Frizell, the manager, cares for them.

Twenty-three year old Donna says that a good trainer must be with the horses all the time. She brushes and cleans them in the morning and feeds them twice a day. In the morning she hitches up a sulky to the racers and puts them through their paces around the track.

Donna has been riding since she was four, and had worked with the Hoffmans when they owned the farm.

She stayed on with the Cunninghams and is looked upon by the seven children as a big sister. They follow her around the farm and love to help her brush the horse.

During the summer, Donna worked as a groom at Hazel Park, and as parade marshal at the Northville and Wolverine Race Tracks.

"Emboden Sundown," a show horse owned by the Hoffmans, has been in Donna's care since he was a pony. Last summer he was picked to represent the tri-state area of Michigan, Indiana, Ohio in Missouri in a performance equivalent to the world's series of horses there.

On "Sundown," she rode in Hudson's Thanksgiving parade in Detroit. Donna dressed in full Indian regalia for the occasion and was accompanied by 10 full-blooded Indian chiefs in the annual event.

Her own horse "Lucy Wow" is also kept at Willoway Farms. Donna says there are many girls working with riding horses but very few with racers.

"Horses have personalities," she said, "just like humans do. When I go into the stables, Sundown and Lucy watch to see who I'll go to first. They've become attached to me and get jealous if they think I'm playing favorites."

The Cunningham children, 5 of whom attend OLCG, are learning to ride Ginny under Donna's watchful eye.

Including Ginny, the Cunninghams own five horses of their own. Two of them are in foal by Arnold Hanover, a champion trotter. All of his colts are showing well, especially Desi Arnold, who recently won six straight races.

The two horses Dr. Cunningham and his wife are most proud of are Queen's Trust and Queen's Springtime, both sired by Queen's Adios. Queen's Adios is the son of Adios, known in racing circles as the "Rich Daddy." Children of Adios hold 13 world harness-racing records and have the highest earning power in any sport.

In the past 10 years, they have won over $10 million in racing purses. Adios seems to pass on to his colts a heritage of championship. He has sired 488 sons and daughters, some 250 of whom were auctioned off at an average of $14,500 each.

The Cunningham's hold high hopes for their two horses which Donna will begin training next fall.

These colts are favorites of the kids but the baby, Patty, likes Arnold Hanover best. One night she slipped out in her pajamas to say goodnight to him. Arnold Hanover, who is 18, has another friend, a tiny kitten, who he plays with, often carrying it around his stall by the nape of its neck.

The eldest daughter, Paula, out of school with tonsillitis, described her new life on the farm as "Terrific." The rest of the family all agrees and say that now they'll never move back to the city.

FRIENDLY kitten finds favorite perch between Arnold Hanover's ears.

CUNNINGHAM youngsters like to ride "Ginny," a Shetland pony.

He issued another reminder that, starting Jan. 1, the minimum size of envelopes will be three inches by four and one-quarter and that smaller-sized envelopes will not be allowed to pass through the U.S. Mails.

City Battles Winter

Salt Co. in Detroit and Morton Salt Co. in Canada.

"Price," Bida continued, "is also the reason we don't ordinarily salt residential streets."

With some 30 miles of streets throughout the City, it would be prohibitive to salt them all. "Only when severe ice storms on residential streets does the City salt there," he added.

Bida's primary mission — as far as ice and snow removal is concerned — is "to maintain a free flow of traffic along the City's main thoroughfares and to help in assuring public safety by keeping streets cleared."

It is not uncommon for the City to spread as much as 150 tons of salt during a particularly heavy snow storm. The unusually heavy snowfall last Thursday, however, required nearly 170 tons, Bida indicated.

Interestingly, salt is good only within a certain temperature range, Bida said.

"We can use it as long as the temperature doesn't fall much below 15 degrees," he explained. "Below that, the salt doesn't melt the snow and we have to scrape up the snow, put it into trucks and haul it away."

The City maintains two "underbody scrapers" and a grader for its annual war with winter. The pair of scrapers are both equipped with salt-spreaders, so they do double-duty during heavy snowfalls.

Bida said that somewhere between seven and 10 miles of streets are normally salted during an average snowfall here.

At any rate, the battle lines have been drawn and Bida is once again prepared for practically any tactic Ole Man Winter throws at the City of Plymouth.

Beyond the City's ordinary mechanical means for battling heavy snowfalls, Bida could take heart from one other ally of his. It gives him a considerable advantage in the annual struggle.

In fact, it will ultimately select him as the victor.

Namely:

The arrival of Spring.

Hoffman-Rapp Marriage is Announced

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Terry John Hoffman, son of Mrs. Virginia Hoffman, of 42509 Parkhurst, Plymouth, to Barbara Anne Rapp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence G. Rapp, of Livonia.

They were married in Aldersgate Methodist Church, Bedford Township, on Nov. 10.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Chantilly lace and taffeta gown, styled with a sabrina neckline and a full long skirt, adorned with seed pearls and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white rose buds and mums.

Attending her were Christine Thorden, as maid of honor, who wore a royal blue brocade gown, and Carol Rapp, Merry Diskin and Barbara Sarri, as bridesmaids, who wore gold brocade gowns.

Serving as best man was Gerald Simmons, and Jim Hoffman, brother of the bridegroom. Jerry Tacia and Rick McHale, from Chicago, seated the guests.

A buffet supper for 175 guests was held in the Church Fellowship Hall immediately following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Bentley High School and the bridegroom is a graduate of Plymouth High School.

Miss Zelma Weisfeld, Associate Professor of Speech at the University of Michigan, will be the principal feature of this month's Plymouth Theatre Guild meeting.

The public is invited to join PTG members and their guests Monday, Dec. 17, at 8 p.m. in the High School Annex.

Miss Weisfeld, who holds a Master of Fine Arts degree in costume design, is a graduate of Yale University and specializes in the fields of costume design and makeup at the U of M.

Her topic will be "The Art of Character Mask-Making."

that he was unaware of any other bonding company that would accept the Township's insurances. He said that most bonding companies issue only a standard bonding form, which he termed "insufficient to provide the protection we want."

He also said that the Township had no assurance that the new company that approached him would actually be able to accept the bond.

The Board directed Lindsay to contact the agency (the Cornish-Moors Agency) and determine if it would write the bond as the Township desires.

In other action, the Board appointed Lindsay as the Township's agent to file a request for federal funds to aid in conducting a Township-wide Urban Planning study.

The federal government has offered to pay up to 75 per cent of the costs of such a study. Total cost of the Township's Study would be approximately $20,000. Slightly less than $5,000 will be paid by the Township.

An application will be submitted shortly.

The Board also debated over the matter of fluoridation in Detroit water. Detroit Common Council has approved the move but many suburbaners are appealing for a voice in the issue.

There has arisen considerable controversy over the move.

The Board placed on file correspondence from the City of Royal Oak pertaining to the fluoridation matter and will refer to it later.

Detroit Water Proposal

1954, according to one source, the firm of McNamee, Porter & Seelye, of Ann Arbor, made this identical recommendation.

Vallier will take with him the resolution by the Commission when he attends the Ways & Means committee session tomorrow. There, he will argue further City of Plymouth's case.

Part of his argument will center around City of Plymouth's desires to obtain two acres of land on Wayne County Training School grounds along Beck Rd. for a site for the reservoir.

Although he is not a member of the powerful Ways & Means Committee, Gerald Remus, general manager of the Detroit Water Board, is expected to be on hand for the meeting, too.

It is Remus who has stated he will "block all efforts by the City of Plymouth to construct a new reservoir," according to Vallier and a few of the City Commissioners.

The City's request for training school land as a site for its proposed water reservoir must pass the Ways & Means committee and then the Wayne County Board of Supervisors.

Remus, as a department head for the City of Detroit, is a member of the Board of Supervisors. Insiders suspect that while the City's request may pass the Ways & Means committee, it is very possible that it would be killed by the Board of Supervisors through Remus' strength there.

As an interesting sidelight to City of Plymouth's request for training school acreage, Plymouth Township Supervisor R. Roy Lindsay voted in favor of the matter, thus helping it gain approval of the special sewer and water committee, of which he is a member.

Commissioners Thursday evening made an effort to spike rumors that City of Plymouth is battling so urgently over the matter simply to scuttle Detroit's plans for a wide-sweeping water supply system into northwestern Wayne County and southwestern Oakland county (City and Township of Northville).

Said one Commissioner: "We're only interested in up-dating our own water supply system and assuring constant pressure and an adequate amount of water to all of our users."

Another aspect of the Detroit offer that is particularly troublesome in the eyes of Commissioners is one of the specific terms of the proposed contract between the two municipalities.

(No contract has yet been signed, nor is such a turn of events immediately foreseeable.)

The one particular contract term that bothers Commissioners is a stipulation that, should the City agree to take its water from Detroit, City of Plymouth would be unable to go to any other source for additional water as long as the contract were in force.

It could conceivably render a dangerous situation here, in the event of a breakdown at any point in Detroit's transmission lines before water reached the City.

Industrial users here consume more than one-half of the total water used. It is this fact that assures residential users a "favorable" water rate when compared to prices of residentially-consumed water elsewhere.

Consequently, City Commissioners plan to set up a joint meeting between representatives of local industry here to discuss the Detroit proposal. Among the industrial representatives will be men from Burroughs, Evans Products and even the Mayflower Hotel, which is also considered a "major user."

In all, there are 29 major users of City water, most of them industrial consumers.

Present City water rates are based on approximately 750 million gallons total pumpage during the 12-month period starting with June 1961. Of this amount, Burroughs Corp. consumed approximately half.

Later, after the special meeting had been adjourned, Mayor Robert Sincock issued a statement:

"Our main concern," he said, "is having a water supply system that guarantees adequate pressure at all times with prices that are in line with today's rates.

"We simply have too much money invested in our present water system to turn it over to somebody else without taking a cold, hard look at the circumstances.

"We're not fighting anybody on this matter, and particularly not Detroit," he said. "Instead, we have only the best interests of the community in mind."

College Name Contest Ends December 15

Nearly 50 names have been submitted thus far in the NW Wayne County Community College "Name-the-College" contest, which ends at midnight Dec. 15.

There is still time to enter the contest, a college spokesman pointed out. First prize is a free two-year tuition grant, the equivalent of at least $400, the spokesman said.

The names thus far submitted have come from 12 different areas within the metropolitan area including entries from Plymouth, Clarenceville, Garden City, Livonia, Berkley, Royal Oak, Wayne, Farmington, Oak Park, Union Lake, Southfield and the City of Detroit.

Rules for the contest are these:

Name submitted for the college should be designated as Item I on a regular sheet of stationery. Item II should state in 50 words or less the reason for suggesting this name.

Item III must include the name, address and telephone number of the contestant.

All entries must be mailed to: Name Contest, 9901 Newburgh Rd., Livonia, Mich.

In case the name selected as winner is proposed by more than one contestant, the entry with the earliest postmark will be declared the winner. Decision of the judges is final.

In all probability, declare college authorities, the winning name will ultimately become the name of the college although the Board of Trustees reserves the right to make the final decision.

All six candidates for Trustees posts are Republicans.

In a partisan election of this sort, a primary race will be held (in February) if there is only one candidate more than the number of vacancies. Thus, if all six file petitions, the Township will hold a primary election at the same time the City does. The exact primary election date will be announced later.

Other elective offices that will be decided once more in the spring election include: Township Supervisor, Clerk, Treasurer, four posts of constable, justice of the peace, highway commissioner and a seat on the Township's board of review.

Sparks is the incumbent Trustee, while Millington is the Township's highway commissioner. This latter post, too, will be decided in the Spring.

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District, Wayne and Washtenaw Counties, Michigan, was held Monday evening, December 3, 1962, in the Board Room of the Administration Building, 1024 South Mill Street, at 8:00 o'clock p.m.

President Fischer stated that the Board had no intention of excluding local bidders on this project nor on any contractual service in connection with the operation and maintenance of the schools. On the contrary, he stated it is the Board's policy to encourage local contractors to bid on these services.

Upon the recommendation of the Superintendent it was moved by Member Hulsing and seconded by Member Utter that the bids opened on November 19, 1962, for the installation of the two gas-fired burners be rejected and that the timing for the new bidding be set at the regular meeting on December 10, 1962.

Upon the recommendation of the Superintendent it was moved by Member Henry and seconded by Member Hulsing that the budget allocation for the second phase of Junior High School-West be increased by $6,754 to accommodate an added 614 square feet of floor space in the industrial arts and fine arts wing.

The Post welcomes to its ranks Carlos "Barney" Maas, who was voted in at the last meeting and will be initiated at a regular meeting soon. Fifteen dollars was sent by the post to the Veterans of Foreign Wars National home in Eaton Rapids toward the children's Christmas party.

The auxiliary also sent a donation of five dollars for the Christmas party and five dollars for the New Years Eve party. On Sunday Dec. 16 the Post and Auxiliary will hold their annual Christmas party for the children of all members.

Have you paid your dues yet? They should be paid by Dec. 31, '62 if you are to be eligible to attend the membership party Jan. 19. From all reports it should be a good party! We have a long way to go to get over our 200 goal membership.

The Auxiliary dues also are coming in, but we have quite a way to go to be 100 per cent paid up. We all should do our very best to help the membership grow. Loretta Young reports she has candy and cookies yet, so if you haven't bought yours yet give her a call.

Pres. Neale was very pleased to have 19 attend the Fourth District Rally Dec. 2. Our drill team put on a skit "The Basic Steps" and then had an exhibition, which was enjoyed by all those attending. Our Dept. Pres. Gladys Turner made her official visit at this meeting.

In a special article you will read what went on at our Dec. 4 meeting. Pres. Neale is indeed fortunate to have had such a visitor.

Belated get well wishes go to Donnie Totten who had his tonsils out and is back in school, also to Gary Kubik who has returned home from the hospital, after undergoing surgery. We were very sorry to hear of Robert VanMeter's accident last week. He is the son of Bob and Alba. Last report he was doing fine.

As a reminder send your birthday card to sister Marion Groth before Dec. 16.

Our auxiliary Christmas party will be at our Dec. 18 meeting. Gift exchange will again be $1.25 also bring a toy or game as Eileen Williams will be taking groceries and gifts to a family for Christmas.

SALEM NEWS

By VERA CLAIR — GL 3-2610

Mr. and Mrs. Myrlan Lyke and son, Murray, of Six Mile Rd. spent the weekend at the National Music Camp at Interlochen.

My brother and I would like to express our thanks to Ben Brant and all the others, especially the lady who helped us out of the snow drifts on Five Mile Rd. last Thursday night.

Mrs. Clyde Hodgson of Seven Mile entertained the Craft and Hobby Club at a Christmas party and dinner on Monday, Dec. 10.

The Famuliner Family of Six Mile Rd. attended the Chinese Auction sponsored by the Rainbow Girls of Northville and held at the home of Shona Davies in Livonia last week. Miss Davies is the Grand Representative to South Carolina from the Northville Rainbow Girls.

Mrs. Herbert Famuliner and daughter, Laura, attended the Rainbow Girl Visitation in Lake Orion on Saturday, Dec. 8.

Mrs. Edward Lynn of Grand Rapids was house guest of the Herbert Famuliners for several days last week.

Northville Blue Lodge No. 186, F and A.M., will hold its installation of officers at the Northville Masonic Temple on Saturday, Dec. 15, at 8 p.m. with refreshments following.

Those installed as officers in Union Chapter No. 55 of Royal Arch Masons of Northville on Saturday, Dec. 8, were Herbert Famuliner of Six Mile Road as Captain of the Host and Donald Tiffin as Principal Sojourner.

Mrs. Orlando Cogar of Chubb Rd. gave a stork shower on Saturday, Dec. 8, honoring Mary Cutlip, the former Mary Dix.

A Stanley party was held in the home of Mrs. C. F. Grimes of Five Mile Rd. on Monday evening, Dec. 10.

Bookmobile Notice: The time is 3:30 to 4:30 each Saturday afternoon for the Bookmobile at N. Territorial Rd. at Pontiac Tr.

Beth Buers of Salem will entertain the Colonist Group of the Salem Federated Church at a Christmas party on Monday, Dec. 17. The time: 4:30 to 6:30 p.m.

To whom it may concern: We the people of Salem Rd. between Brookville Rd. and Five Mile; Weed Rd. between Brookville and N. Territorial; and Five Mile from Napier to Pontiac Tr. would appreciate having our roads plowed out.

Thursday night Five Mile was impassable. Friday night we were stuck on Salem Rd. and at 10 p.m. we had to be pulled out again, thanks to a kind neighbor. Last winter we in the area were given very little consideration. Now it is starting all over again. Many of us have to get out every day and I am sure I speak for all of us. We need these roads taken care of so we can at least get to the main highways. I can hear comments "just another woman driver", but when the men can't get

Library Lists Holiday Story Hour Dec. 15

Jolly Saint Nick's official appearance, according to all local calendars, would seem to be a couple of weeks off as yet.

However, the Dunning-Hough library's story hour will feature Mr. Claus, his wife, and a lively group of his worker-elves in a special illustrated story hour.

Bob Wall and his daughter, Linda, have combined forces to prepare a most unusual presentation. Mr. Wall will unravel a brand-new Christmas story entitled "The Troublesome Elf". Ten scenes from this original story have been put on canvass by Linda to highlight the telling of the tale.

The Dunning-Hough story hour is held every Saturday at 11 a.m. on the second floor of the library. Children of all ages are welcome to attend.

Besides story-telling sessions the programs include children's films. The programs start promptly at 11 a.m. and finish by noon on Saturdays.

The special Christmas program on Dec. 15 will be the final story hour in 1962. The story hours will resume the first Saturday morning in 1963. Mrs. Walker, the children's favorite story lady, reports that she has many exciting stories for children of all ages in the coming weeks of 1963.

The papers of Owen J. Cleary, late Republican leader and former Michigan Secretary of State, have been presented to the University of Michigan Historical Collections.

The Go-Getters' 4-H Club met at the home of Sharon Tomaka on Spencer Rd. on Tuesday, Dec. 4, for their regular business meeting.

President Karen O'Neil announced that the clocks had been delivered to the township board for the Salem Town Hall and to the Farm Council for the World Activities' Center.

Both groups expressed their thanks to the members for their thoughtfulness.

Terry Mullins gave a demonstration on making a trouble light which he learned to do in his electrical project.

Karen Morred gave a talk on her knitting project and Sharon Tomka a demonstration on making and cutting sandwiches. They were then served with punch as refreshment.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard Wilson, Elaine Ann, and Debbie Lee were in Chelsea on Sunday visiting Mrs. Lola La Rue at the Methodist Home. The newly formed Hobby Club will meet at Mrs. Blaine Hicks on W. Seven Mile Rd. for their Christmas party on Tuesday, Dec. 18 at 8 p.m. Each member is to bring a dollar gift for bingo prizes.

First Action For Swim Club Slated Sunday

The first full-fledged team action in AAU-sanctioned competition by the Plymouth Swim Club will take place on Sunday when they meet head-on with teams from all over the state.

In operation for one month, the team will enter 10 of its 47 members in events for youngsters of all ages at the Detroit Jewish Community Center, 18100 Meyers at Curtis (between Six and Seven Mile Roads) beginning at 12 noon.

With all youngsters now in possession of their AAU swim cards, all events are open to them according to age groups. Slated to swim 50 yards in free style, backstroke and butterfly events for the 12 and under age group, are Pamela Kloote, Betty Niemi, Stephen Denison, Terry Gould and Robert Club.

In the 13 and over age group, swimming the backstroke, freestyle and butterfly of 100 yards will be Laraine Daley, Sue Ward, Mary Jane Gretzinger, Mary Beth Ott and Rae Denison.

Interested to take the entire day, the meet calls for heats for as many youngsters are on hand in the 26 scheduled events.

Meanwhile, the Club reported its first annual Christmas Tree Sale as doing "just fine."

"We are pleased at the turnout of parents and youngsters who want to help support this club and, at the same time, buy themselves a first quality Christmas tree," reported Jim Gretzinger, Swim Committee Chairman.

"The use of the lot at Ann Arbor Road and Sheldon Road, the lights, the heated shelter and the excellent turnout of volunteer labor in getting set-up has been most gratifying," he stated.

The club plans to help outfit the team with sweatshirts, emblems and other team equipment with the proceeds from the Christmas tree sale. Parents interested in having their children join the club are urged to contact Gretzinger at GL 3-5575.

Junior High East Holiday Program Set for Dec. 17

The Plymouth Junior High East will present its Christmas program at 7:45 p.m. at the school on Dec. 17, it was announced this week.

After a brief business meeting of the P.T.S.A. at which president Richard Stribley will preside, the music will be conducted by William Grivener and Larry Livingston.

Some 250 students will participate in the event, comprising the Rocket Band, the Junior High East orchestra, the choir and the Girls Glee Club.

"Parade of the Wooden Soldiers" will highlight the band's performance, while other band selections include: "Skip to my flute," "Whirligig" which will feature the trombone section, "Carriage," featuring the percussion section, "The Bells of St. Mary's," "Tenn Bases," and "A Carol Festival." The orchestra will perform: "Sleigh Ride," "Bells Across the Meadows," "South American Overture," "Overture from Kismet," and a selection from "Three Dances" from Henry and Eighth. The Girls Glee Club will sing "My Lord, What a Morning," "Dona Nolie Pacem," and "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones."

The choir will sing "Beautiful Savior," "O Lord, We Worship Thee," "E'mittle Spiritum," "Teum," "In the Still of the Night," "Winter," "The Christmas Song," and "Merry Christmas."

The band, orchestra and choir will combine for a finale comprised of the "Halleluiah Chorus" from "The Messiah," from Handel.

Other motorists respect and cooperate with you when they know your intentions. According to the Institute for Safer Living of the American Mutual Liability Insurance Company, directional signals speak a common language and can be used to communicate nearly any traffic maneuver that you wish to make. Remember to use your signals when making turns, changing lanes, passing, and pulling off the road. Also remember the shortcomings of mechanical signaling devices — make sure the other fellows see your signal!

Symphony Is Featured In D.A.C. News

The Plymouth Symphony — mid-way through its 17th season — is the subject of an enlightening article in the D.A.C. News, the official publication of the Detroit Athletic Club.

Filling better than two full pages in the magazine, the article is written by Robert M. Hodesh, a writer of local reknown who is also a staffer for Ford Times magazine.

Hodesh writes: "Any discussion of relative competence between orchestras — whether the top professional organizations of Boston or New York or the amateur groups in rural and suburban areas — is bound to lead to legitimate differences of opinion.

"There is no point, certainly, in selecting one Michigan community orchestra over another for the title of 'best,' but it is an indisputable fact that none surpasses the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra in the enthusiasm of its players, the loyalty and size of its audiences, the unstinting praise of critics, and the high level of its programs."

The article reveals some of the background of the Symphony and concludes with a mention of its opening concert this fall when a novel "After-Glow" capped a particularly successful evening.

SUE McINTYRE and Arthur Gulick, both 17-year-old seniors at Plymouth High, were recently voted the outstanding girl and boy citizens in the senior class. They are shown here being congratulated by William Brown, chairman of the senior class advisors.

Faculty Members Name 'Outstanding' Students

Voted the outstanding boy and girl citizens in Plymouth High's senior class recently were Arthur Gulick, son of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Gulick, 741 Beech Court, and Sue McIntyre, daughter of Mrs. Ruth McIntyre, of 15512 Lakeside Dr.

Both are 17-year-olds. The two were named from a candidate list of 10 boys and 10 girls.

Members of the High School faculty, headed by William Brown, chairman of the senior class advisors, selected Sue and Arthur in special balloting last week.

The voting was based on dependability, service, leadership and patriotism, explained Brown. The two will receive honor keys at the senior students' honors assembly next spring. The keys will symbolize their selection as "outstanding citizens."

In addition, Sue, who recently won a special English literary award, will also become eligible to compete in the state-wide D.A.R. "Best Girl Citizen" judging soon. She will be entered through the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter here.

Postmaster Urges Early Gift Mailing

If you are hoping to make this Christmas really merry, Postmaster George Timpona may be your Santa Claus.

The local postal head—formally kicking off his 1962 Shop and Mail Early campaign—noted that mailing is, for most people, one of the heaviest chores at Christmas. By making this job as simple as possible, a happier holiday is likely to result, he observed.

Virtually all Christmas mailing can be disposed of now by observing the following five suggestions:

1. Do your shopping for Christmas parcels now.
2. Check and revise mailing lists.
3. Mail Christmas parcels promptly. Don't worry about being too early—just mail them marked, "Do Not Open Until Christmas."
4. Buy Christmas cards and address them soon, separating cards into out-of-town and local bundles. Hold them for mailing early.
5. Buy plenty of stamps now while post office windows are uncrowded.

For Christmas cards, the Post Office Department recommends its attractive new first-time 4-cent Christmas stamps. Their use insures first-class mail treatment—meaning the card may contain personal messages, may be sealed, and may be forwarded or returned. They are now on sale at the local post office, as well as its stations and branches.

Byron Latter, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Latter of 9609 Southworth, placed second in the recent Intramural Turkey Trot at Michigan State University.

The Turkey Trot is a cross-country type run approximately one mile long.

Byron is an 18-year-old freshman and is enrolled in MSU's University College.

OF INTEREST TO FARMERS-AT-HEART

BY MELVIN L. WOELL, MGR. INFORMATION DIVISION MICHIGAN FARM BUREAU

Mention the word "tax" and most people see red. And if the term is "tax reform," it helps little. People have a feeling that "reform" programs usually cost more money these days.

Some news reports have it that the Michigan farmers recently came out in favor of a state income tax. Without qualifying that statement very strictly, it cannot stand as true.

Delegates to the recent big 43rd annual meeting of the Michigan Farm Bureau left a big IF in the picture.

Farmers and other property owners are floundering in a quicksand bog of taxation on property. After a long and vigorous debate, the Farm Bureau delegates finally approved a flat rate state income tax—on condition.

They said it must bring relief to the property tax picture. They said that taxes on personal property and business activities must be repealed, if the income tax is adopted.

They pointed out that property is now paying 47 per cent of all taxes in the state in spite of the sales tax yield of 23 per cent. The rate of rise in property taxes is enough to set off the alarm bell. School taxes are up nearly five times the level of 1948 and township taxes up nearly six times.

Farmers are hardest hit. Property taxes take from two to three times more of their income than is the case for other groups. Some farmers are having to "divvy up" as much as 17 per cent of their income to pay the property tax bills.

An important point: the delegate action gives the Michigan Farm Bureau a definite stand in case a proposal for an income tax is thrown on the floor of the Legislature in the future.

When you come right down to it, Michigan farmers do not favor any form of state income tax, as such.

Rather, there is a cautious acceptance of such a tax only if it can be used to ease the increasingly desperate situation facing property.

To Install Jaycee Signs This Month

There will be five signs installed.

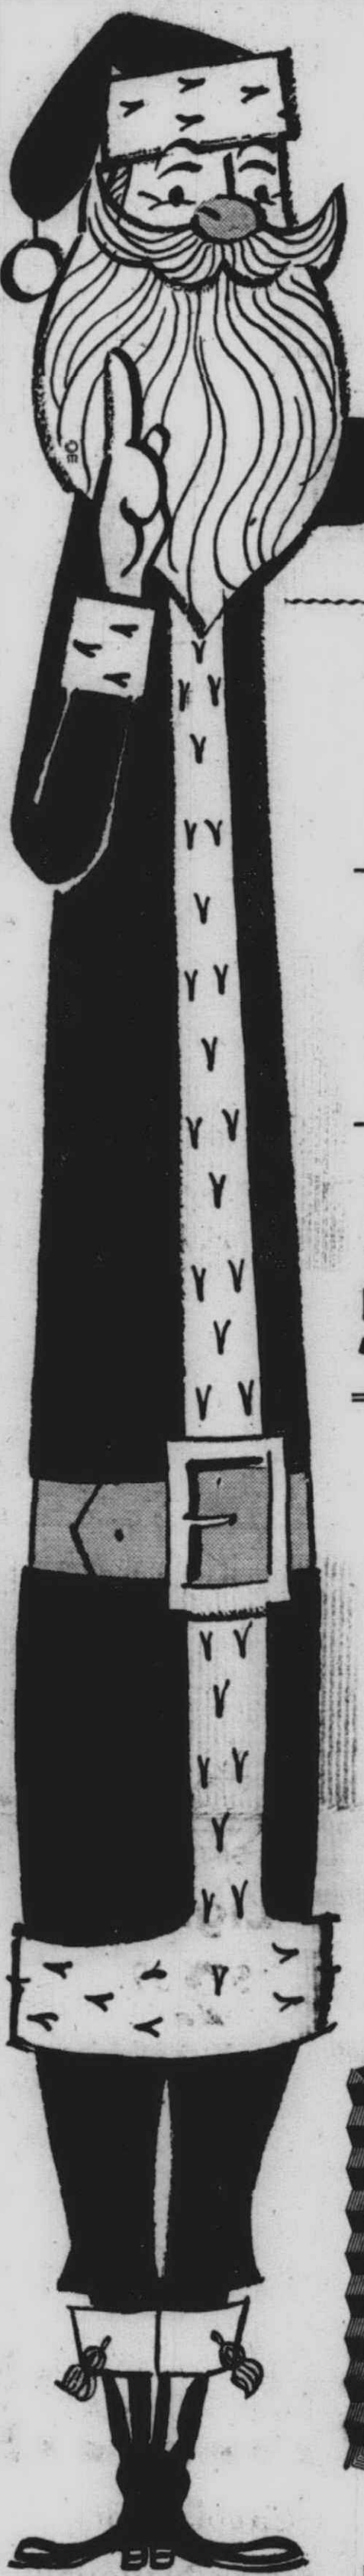

Locations of the signs will be at: Ann Arbor Tr. and Ann Arbor Rd.; North Territorial east of the Ralph Garber farm; Mill St. and Northville Rd.; on Schoolcraft east of Haggerty Rd.; and on Plymouth Rd. west of Eckles.

MD Drive Nets $1.175

Plymouth contributions to the Muscular Dystrophy drive last week amounted to $1,175.07, according to an area captain.

Some 200 local housewives conducted the drive here.

The proceeds will be turned over to the main headquarters of the Muscular Dystrophy campaign, to be placed into a state-wide MD program.

MRS. HELEN FARWELL

When Mrs. Helen Farwell started working at Fisher's Shoes, she planned on working a "few months", however, last month she celebrated her 11th anniversary as bookkeeper and cashier for the store.

Born in Peck, Mich., located in the Thumb, Mrs. Farwell moved to Plymouth from Peck, 37 years ago. Last Oct. 1, she moved from her home on Adams St., in which she had resided for 25 years, to the new apartments at 1600 N. Territorial. "Although moving from a house to an apartment is a big change," she said she is very happy in her new home. While living on Adams St., she boarded many school teachers.

A member of the Plymouth branch of Business and Professional Women Assn., Mrs. Farwell says she is very partial to all shades of green, even though she wears a great deal of blue.

For relaxation she likes to read novels and listen to most any kind of "good" music.

Mrs. Farwell has two sons, Richard, of 14428 Robinwood, and Bill of Livonia, and a three and one-half-month-old granddaughter, Susan Marie.

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

Mrs. Katherine Todd

A familiar aroma coming from the home of Mrs. Katherine Todd, on 42425 Clemons Rd., each year, a week or so before Christmas, is the baking of "Schnitzbrodt." The German bread, made with apricots, raisins, and prunes, has become almost as much of a part of Christmas to many of her friends and neighbors as a decorated tree, ed tree. In addition to the many loaves she sends through the mail, visitors to her home during the holiday season, are served the bread with a hot cup of coffee. The recipe has been in her family for at least 50 years, she said.

A former third grade teacher in Farmington, Mrs. Todd keeps busy with fulfilling her duties as curator of the Plymouth Historical Society. Now that she is no longer teaching, Mrs. Todd said she is anxious to get back to one of her favorite hobbies — weaving. She has two looms and in the past has woven rugs, etc., but lack of time in recent years, has prohibited her from spending as much time as she wished at the looms.

She has three sons, Harold C. of Seattle; Robert L., of Valley Head, Ala., and Charles, of Olympia, and four grandchildren.

SCHNITZBRODT
 1 lb. raisins
 1 lb. prunes
 1 lb. apricots (dried)
 Cook and let stand in liquid over night.
 3 pkgs. dry yeast
 1/2 C. lukewarm water
 Dissolve yeast in warm water and set aside. Cut-up apricots and seed and cut-up prunes in medium pieces. Save liquid from all cooked fruit.
 1 C. brown sugar
 2 Tbl. lard or shortening
 2 Tbl. salt
 3 pints fruit liquid
 1/2 lb. finely cut citron
 1 C. walnut meats
 1 pkg. candied fruit (if desired)

In a large bowl mix above ingredients and add the apricots, prunes, and raisins. If juice from cooked fruit does not make three pints add enough warm water to fulfill required amount. Then combine fruit mixture with yeast mixture. To this add about 8-10 cups of flour or enough to make dough as stiff as bread dough. Let bread rise until double in bulk and knead down. Divide into loaves and place in pans. Let them rise and then bake at 350 degrees for about an hour. Length of time depends on size and shape of loaf. Recipe makes about five loaves.

Art Around Us:

by Mrs. Jessie Hudson

Hardly anyone needs to be introduced to the magnificent art of Greece. Most of us have been exposed to it in museums, through countless reproductions in magazines, or from illustrations in textbooks. Not everyone may realize, however, that there were three distinct stages in the development of Greek art: Archaic, Hellenic, and Hellenistic.

The archaic phase, around the seventh century B.C., was marked by great simplicity, crudity of execution, and primitive charm. Architecture, sculpture and pottery, as all that remains, paintings can only be surmised from the frescoes mentioned in literature of the period have not survived. Architecture was based on post and lintel construction and employed columns with Doric and Ionic capitals. These columns were sometimes sculptured figures of goddesses supporting a decorated frieze. Sculpture, for the first time, freestanding, could be seen from all sides, but retained the columnar effect of the Doric and Ionic pillars. The figures were usually of religious significance and followed one characteristic pattern, hands close to sides, feet only slightly astride, muscles only hinted at, but each single curl of the head and beard set in distinct, decorative pattern. Pottery, mostly funerary urns, showed intricate geometric designs in red, depicting heroic battles and tales.

After the Persian wars of 480 BC in which many of the buildings of Athens were destroyed, the victorious Hel-

Your Christmas candles will be more secure in their holders if you dip bottoms of candles in warm water, before placing in holders. Also, for longer burning and less dripping, place candles in the deep freeze one day prior to burning.

Snowballs, a la Holly

For a colorful and seasonal dessert, mold peppermint stick ice cream into ball, sprinkle with coconut, and before serving decorate top with a sprig of holly and a red candle. For variation fill center of ice cream ball with a mixture of chocolate syrup and nuts.

Post Office Has Holiday Season "Extra" Services

The Plymouth Post Office has many additional responsibilities as well as numerous extra services to offer the public during the 1962 Christmas season. Postmaster George Timpona said yesterday in issuing an especially urgent appeal to the public to mail early.

For use during the Christmas rush, the Post Office Department is offering this year a new 4-cent Christmas stamp for sale, and is preparing for new postage rates starting January 7.

"And so we really need public cooperation at this time," Postmaster Timpona said.

Commenting on the rates, he observed that in a period of high-cost living when one exercises care in expenditures for goods and services, the U. S. Mail service still remains the No. 1 communication bargain.

Reminding area citizens of the forthcoming new postal rate structure effective January 7, the Postmaster listed these highlights of the rate legislation enacted recently by Congress.

In the increase over which the "man in the street" is most concerned is the one-cent hike in letter rates.

First class mail: surface — letters, five cents an ounce; postal and post cards, four cents. Air: letters, eight cents; post cards, six cents. Included in the "first class" category is the so-called "drop letter." The rate will go from three cents to four cents an ounce. Postal regulations designate this type of mail as letters "dropped" at a post office by the sender and picked up by the addressee at the same post office.

It is used mostly by patrons in rural areas where mail delivery service is not available and mail is picked up at the post office.

Often thought of by the user as "first class" but actually in "third class" category are "greeting cards." Used mostly at Christmas time, this type of mail will cost four cents when the new rates become effective January 7.

The current rate of three cents will apply for the upcoming 1962 Yuletide messages.

To insure speedier service this year, Postmaster Timpona suggested the new Christmas stamp for greeting cards.

This permits the card to be forwarded, if necessary, he said, and returned to the sender if undeliverable provided, of course, that the return address is on the envelope.

Swimmers No Match For Maples, 74-31.

Mighty Birmingham Seaborn, defending state Class A champion, crushed Plymouth's swimmers Thursday afternoon, 74-31, thus handing the Rocks their first loss of the infant 1962-63 season. (The Maples moved quickly into a formidable lead, claiming first place honors in seven straight events and wound up with 10 of 11 first place ribbons.)

Only Plymouth's Dan Olson, with a win in the 100-yard backstroke, prevented a total sweep of the meet by the Seaborn swimmers. George Gardner took a third in the same event, the only instance all afternoon when Plymouth posted more points in one event than did Birmingham.

The meet followed much along the lines that insiders had expected, and still the less did nothing to tarnish Plymouth's own hopes of posting a solid winning season this winter.

Birmingham is definitely the leading contender for the state Class A title next March," admitted Plymouth coach John McFall later. He was far from disheartened over Plymouth's loss to the Maples, and it was understandable.

Birmingham opened the 1962-63 season with a 66-35 decision over Grosse Pointe, the only team that defeated the Maples a year ago, and the same squad that tied them in the Class A state meet last March.

The next step for Birmingham was the Kambal Relays where the Maples racked up an easy victory by the largest margin in the history of the event. They won with 102 points.

Closest competitor was Ann Arbor, with 82. And most recently, Plymouth was far outclassed again at the Birmingham swimmers.

Among the many factors that make the Maples an annual power in swimming circles is a highly effective "farm" system that provides ample talent for the varsity squad each winter. The Birmingham public school system includes two junior high schools with regular swimming pools and youthful underclassmen get considerable practice there before ascending to the varsity candidate ranks. Plymouth performed respectably in spite of almost overwhelming odds. In fact, 10 of the Rocks turned in times that McFall later termed "marked improvement" over previous clockings.

The 10 included: Dave Beglinger, Doug Jask, George Gardner, Olson, Dan Broad, Dave Agnew, Pete Gustafson, Tom Blunk, Don Bowsman and Dan Cook. Plymouth's scoring went like this: Gardner, Agnew, George Collins and Gustafson combined for a second place finish in the 200-yard medley relay. Dave Beglinger placed third in the 200-yard freestyle.

Jim Beglinger gained a third in the 200-yard individual medley and Mark Schulthess was second in the day. Gould was second in the 100-yard butterfly with Dave Beglinger posting a third in the same event. Dick Berry was third in the 100-yard free. Olson and Gardner combined to take first and third in the backstroke, and Jim Beglinger picked up a third in the 400-yard free. Dave Agnew was second in the 100-yard breaststroke and Plymouth's 200-yard freestyle relay team of Schulthess, Jim Mattison, Tom Blunk and Gustafson had to settle for a second in that event.

Interestingly, McFall's lineup for the Birmingham test listed only four seniors. The rest were juniors and sophomores. The Rocks have a double dip in order for this weekend as varsity swimming is concerned. Redford Union is here Thursday and Ann Arbor High School visits on Saturday. Plymouth will journey to Allen Park on Dec. 20 to close out the pre-holiday swim schedule. The Rocks resume Jan. 3 at Dearborn.

The Professor Sez:

Prof, Pal Select Rocks All-Star Gridders of '30s

By ED BROWN

Last week I dropped in on an old friend and former coaching colleague, Jim Latture, who is presently engaged in supplying housing for those in need of it.

We sat in his pleasant office on South Main street reminiscing about the "good ole days" when a thought struck us — why not try to pick a Plymouth High School all-star football team of the '30s?

Everyone knows that Jim formerly coached many good debate teams while employed at the local educational institution. He taught them how to argue both sides of a given topic, and I presume this subject of an all-star team will provide many with an opportunity to disagree again.

According to all those in the know, the athletic teams of the thirties must have been really good. Plymouth played in the tough Twin Valley league and competed against such powers as Dearborn, Ypsilanti, Wayne, E. C. O. R. S. River Rouge, Northville and Fordson.

They lost some games then, since they played some of the best teams in this section of Michigan, but the Rocks really gave a good account of themselves according to the men interviewed.

These people implied that the game was a little more rugged in those days as the conflict was a "kick and sock em" type of football with not near the protective equipment these present teams enjoy.

This was also before the "carrier-pigeon, robot-type" of football where a player runs on and off the field with a given play from the coach. The quarterback ran the team then, and did a fairly decent job of calling the right type of play for a given situation.

Mr. Latture relates that many of these athletes had no money, no decent clothes, no car, but most had a "burning" desire to play football, or any other competitive sport. He knew of football players who practiced hard for a couple of hours, and then walked four miles home to do farm chores.

Jim should know as he was the assistant football coach at that time, working with that venerable head coach "Beef" Matheson. The latter must have been quite a man for I have yet to hear anything but praise for their former coach.

The all-star aggregation of the "depression" thirties is as follows: Ends, Harold Wagonschutz and Clarence Levandowski; tackles, Warren Bassett and his brother Lester Bassett; guards, David Gates and Jack Blackmore; center, Ray Trimble; quarterback, Jack Kinsey; halfbacks, Jim Williams and Ray Martin; fullback, Steve Dudek.

Too valuable for any one player is Howard "Hoody" Hasky, an excellent player for any position on any athletic team — a tribute to a truly great all-around competitor.

Billiard Champ Willie Mosconi

Special guest attraction Friday, Dec. 14, at the Pool-O-Drome, plush family billiard hall on West Ann Arbor, will be Willie Mosconi, famed as the world's pocket billiard champion and "The King of the Billiard Table."

Mosconi, a native of Italy, has won 16 world titles in the billiard world, and from 1935 to 1945 he has held the world title in competition with some of the finest players of the game.

For the special event, Ray said, everyone is welcome. Mosconi's appearance is a free attraction of the modernized Pool-O-Drome, which features 20 billiard tables, including 10 especially for pocket billiards.

Ordinarily, Ray explained, only those who visit the Pool-O-Drome to shoot billiards must be at least 18 years of age or accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Ray said that several sets of bleachers will be installed to provide approximately 300 seats for guests during Mosconi's visit. In addition, he said, there will be additional space for more than 100 persons to stand.

There will be no admission fee, and Mosconi is considered one of the all-time greats in pocket billiard history. In 1915 at the first 18 years, he has held the world title in competition with some of the finest players of the game.

Among his many records, Mosconi holds the high scoring run of 526 and broke the previous record of 365 enroute. He has held the previous record, 100.

In addition to his demonstration of billiard fundaments and an array of trick shots, Mosconi will give personal pointers to many of the guests, Ray said.

He will be at the Pool-O-Drome, according to Ray, from 2 to 4 in the afternoon for the benefit of younger billiard enthusiasts and from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. that evening for adult billiard fanciers.

Pool-O-Drome, owned and operated by Detroit's Sidney Ray, who has many acquaintances in Plymouth, partially through his membership in Fox Hills Country Club, opened its doors six weeks ago.

Mosconi, one of the most popular and certainly the best known of the stars in the billiard world, will devote his show to a demonstration of billiard fundamentals, and a tournament in which he is an undefeated master.

One of his most favorite trick shots is that of shooting a cue ball or object ball into his own suit pocket without touching the ball with either hand.

Jay Vee Swim Team Romps To 1st Win

The Rocks' junior varsity swimming team racked up an impressive 70-0 victory over the Layton Franklin last week in the opener for both teams.

It was the inaugural for the Plymouth JayVees, coached by Tom Workman, on their first season as a member of the Junior Rocks, despite the JayVee performance as "good" for the first meet of the 1962-63 campaign.

Half of the swimmers showed up for the meet, and the JayVees, who were coached by Tom Workman, on their first season as a member of the Junior Rocks, despite the JayVee performance as "good" for the first meet of the 1962-63 campaign.

The Rocks earned their victory in the 100-yard freestyle. Don Norman, Ryan Wayne, and John Olson took first in the 200-yard medley relay and John Krupp was second in the 200-yard free with Russ Craddock picking third.

Rick Ott won the 50-yard free. Jim Norman was second. Dreanna followed with her win in the 200-yard individual medley and John Herter was first in the day. Dreanna won the 100-yard butterfly with Tim Wernette placing second.

John Burke led the 100-yard free for Plymouth and Rick Ott picked up a second place ribbon. Richard Irvine and Paul Hart placed two-three in the 100-yard backstroke and Knapp was second in the 400-yard free with Chuck Olson third.

Mike Bentley and Don Norman earned first and second respectively in the 100-yard breaststroke. Wendell Sikes, Russ Craddock, Va. Filton and Jim Harbauer combined to win the 200-yard freestyle medley relay.

Redford Union will host the Junior Rocks this afternoon (Wednesday) in Plymouth's second Jay Vee meet.

Redford Union's "Towering Trio" Friday, Plymouth today can reflect momentarily on its first basketball victory of the young season.

The Rocks mastered visiting Walled Lake, 50-33, last Friday evening before beating 65-55 to Northville a night later.

It put Plymouth's varsity cagers at 333 thus far on the strength of one win and a pair of defeats.

Junior Rocks Deal Pair of Cage Losses

Walled Lake and Northville dealt Plymouth's junior varsity cagers a pair of losses last weekend to leave the JayVee squad with a 1-2 mark so far.

Friday evening, Walled Lake handed the Junior Rocks a 44-35 defeat despite identical 9-point scoring efforts by Plymouth's Don Cranford and Bruce Vernon.

Only 24 hours later, Northville tagged the JayVees with a 38-35 setback. Jim Lambert paced the Rocks with 11 points. Plymouth's junior varsity had posted a victory in its opener a week earlier against Ypsilanti.

Field goal shooting was not particularly outstanding," Ketterer said later, "but it did the job."

The difference came, said Ketterer, "in our alert and aggressive defense." It prompted Walled Lake to make some 30 playing mistakes that gave the ball to Plymouth.

Northville was a different story. The Mustangs caught Plymouth flat-footed in the second half and broke away from a 25-27 half-time tie with a 10-0 run.

Rocks Clip Walled Lake, But Bow to Northville

Ready to go up against Redford Union's "Towering Trio" Friday, Plymouth today can reflect momentarily on its first basketball victory of the young season.

The Rocks mastered visiting Walled Lake, 50-33, last Friday evening before beating 65-55 to Northville a night later.

It put Plymouth's varsity cagers at 333 thus far on the strength of one win and a pair of defeats.

Redford Union's trio of tall men is comprised of 6-foot-7 Len Lepa at center, and forwards John Crosse (6-foot-4) and Tom Dowitt (6-foot-4).

Match this formidable combination against Plymouth's own team average of about 6-foot-1, and the Rocks chances grow somewhat slender this Friday evening.

But, then, Walled Lake and Northville boasted taller teams than Plymouth this past weekend, and the Rocks easily outclassed Walled Lake and could have beaten Northville, given some better breaks.

In its win over Walled Lake, Plymouth relied on an aggressive man-to-man defense and overall alert play.

The Rocks moved swiftly to the 15-5 first quarter edge and upped it to 34-15 at the intermission. From there on it was easy for Plymouth in its first victory of 1962-63.

Team captain Dick Schryer paved the way with 17 points, while junior forward Dave Egloff cashed 16 points. It was Plymouth's superior rebounding that really told the difference, however.

Egloff had 12 rebounds, Schryer 11, Carl Lubrand eight and Jim Lake gathered in six.

Six of the nine men that Coach Charlie Ketterer sent into the game shared in Plymouth's scoring.

Plymouth scored 18 of 30 free throws and hit on 28 per cent of its field goal tries (16 of 57). Walled Lake harvested only 24 per cent of its field goal shots (10 of 41) and added 19 of 33 free throws.

"Field goal shooting was not particularly outstanding," Ketterer said later, "but it did the job."

The difference came, said Ketterer, "in our alert and aggressive defense." It prompted Walled Lake to make some 30 playing mistakes that gave the ball to Plymouth.

Northville was a different story. The Mustangs caught Plymouth flat-footed in the second half and broke away from a 25-27 half-time tie with a 10-0 run.

22 points in the third period as the Rocks were able to muster only 13.

It was a telling blow as far as the outcome of the game was concerned for Plymouth.

Instead of strength in the rebounding department against Northville, Plymouth came up with a decided weakness. Leaders in the rebounding category for the Rocks included Jim Lake and Gary Grady, who had a scant 14 rebounds between them.

Plymouth had only 24 rebounds all evening against the Mustangs.

The Redford Union game is away.

Egloff, a leader in rebounds a night earlier, missed the Northville contest with a bruised leg muscle.

Schryer paced Plymouth's scoring attack with 18 points, while junior guard Tom McGill added 13. Craig Bell had 20 for game honors for Northville.

Plymouth hit on 22 of 50 field goals and 39 per cent, and cashed 11 of 19 free throws.

Northville was practically phenomenal in the shooting department, however. The Mustangs cashed 26 of 44 field goals for 54 per cent and added 13 of 20 free throws.

Tells Kiwanians of Work At Plymouth State Home

Kiwanis club guest speaker last week was George Andrews, director of the neurological division of the Plymouth State Home and Training School here.

Andrews described the work and responsibilities of his division within the overall program at the Plymouth State Home. He told, too, of the youthful patients themselves.

The school presently has some 25 adult patients and another 650 child patients, he said. Average age however is between eight and 10 years. The intelligence quotient, he said, is less than 50.

The school places emphasis on the physical and mental well-being of each patient, he told the Kiwanis Club.

The school is only about 25 per cent completed and will not be finished altogether for another seven years, under the present construction timetable.

At present, there is an 800-person waiting list and it takes approximately five years to gain admission to the school. Two-thirds of the patients are multiple-handicapped.

New Car Wash To Open Jan. 1

An automatic car wash is under construction on Ann Arbor Rd. next to the Michigan Bell Telephone Co. offices here.

Scheduled to go into operation by Jan. 1, the Plymouth Auto Wash — as it will be called — is being built by Thomas A. Alexsy, 8039 Ridge Rd.

A residential builder in Dearborn and Plymouth, Alexsy will operate the car wash as a sideline to his regular occupation.

The Plymouth Auto Wash is being designed to accommodate cars at three-minute intervals.

Alexsy and his wife moved to Plymouth a year ago. They have three children, Steven, 9, Karen, 7, and Pete, 2.

Meanwhile, a previously established car wash on Wing St. here was reported to have closed its doors.

SPOTLIGHT ON PLYMOUTH TEACHERS

Earl Thomas Gibson, Jr.

Earl Thomas Gibson, Jr., of the Sunday School and principal of Gilmore School since it opened six years ago, is an energetic young man who is vitally interested in the various organizations to which he belongs.

In the Plymouth Education Assn. he has been treasurer and president. In the Michigan Department of Elementary School Principals, Region II, he has been secretary and, at the present time, is having a very enriching experience serving as the president.

In the Michigan Education Assn., the National Education Supervision and Curriculum Development, he was a convention delegate. He has worked with the Elementary School Improvement Committee of the Metropolitan Detroit Bureau of School Studies.

While living in Northville, Gibson served in his church as a deacon, superintendent of the Sunday School and member of the choir. Now living in Plymouth, he sings in the Presbyterian Church Choir. As a member of the Lake Pointe Homeowners Assn., he has worked on many civic problems and held offices of responsibility as vice-president and as publicist.

Born in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania, Gibson was reared in Toledo, where he received his public school education. He worked a year as a machine operator at the American Shipbuilding Company before being called into the U.S. Army where he served three years as an orthopedic surgical technician.

During this time, Gibson visited many southern states as well as England, Scotland and Wales. Following his discharge (with several ribbons and a presidential unit citation), his travels took him many times to the eastern states and this past summer he and his family toured several western states.

Gibson resumed his formal education at the University of Toledo. He pledged Chi Beta Chi, and earned his bachelor of education degree and a secondary teaching certificate.

Then, while teaching at the Plymouth Junior High School, he gained an elementary teaching certificate at Eastern Michigan University, where he received a special dispensation from practice teaching courses.

After this he continued his studies for a Master of Arts degree and several additional hours at Michigan State University. During these years he became a member of the graduate and honorary fraternity, Phi Delta Kappa.

Gibson reads for relaxation, cares for his lawn at 14436 Oxford Drive, and enjoys a lively correspondence with six brothers and sisters scattered across the nation.

One brother is certified to teach, a sister-in-law is a junior high English teacher, and a brother-in-law is a graduate accounting professor as well as comptroller at Western Michigan University. But — to Gibson — the most important teacher in his family is his wife, Elizabeth Ann, who retired about 11 years ago to devote her time to four children — Kerry Ann, 10, Thomas Mantz, 3, William Robert, 6, and Mary Jane, who is one.

Public Safety Head Warns Residents of Snow Hazards

Blizzard headed this way! That's a warning we can expect at any time between now and spring, and when it comes there are some things that director of public safety Ken Fisher hopes Plymouthites will remember.

"Winter storms come, they have their way, and then they move along," he said. "We've been through them before. They are part of our way of life. Yet we know that heavy storms can bring trouble — even death — if we forget their power and fail to show them proper respect."

Fisher listed the following things to do before, during, and after a heavy snow storm:

- 1) Before the storm, prepare. Pay attention to weather forecasts. Know what to expect, and plan accordingly. If possible, change your schedule if it calls for extensive driving. If you must drive, make sure your car is ready for the test — with heater and defrosters working, windshield wipers ready to provide vital visibility, tires sound, tire chains in the trunk, exhaust system tight, snow brush - scraper handy.
- 2) During the storm, drive with care. Park off the street wherever possible, and observe no-parking regulations strictly. Put on tire chains before you get stuck, not after — to prevent causing a traffic jam. Turn on headlights, using low beam, if snowfall is heavy enough to affect visibility; but don't forget to turn them off when you park. Make special efforts to keep windows clear. Drive at reduced speed even if it means arriving a little late; people will understand and will blame the storm, not you. If you need something to "warm you up," make it coffee, or tea.

3) After the storm, maintain caution. Be alert for youngsters on sleds. On streets narrowed by snowdrifts exercise special care, meeting or passing. Remove tire chains as soon as the roads are clear and well-sanded, but not while hard-packed snow remains. Don't wear them out on bare pavement — you may need them again soon. Take care of snow shovelling chores as soon as possible, making sure not to pile the snow high at intersections or driveway entrances where it may obscure driver vision. Don't risk a heart attack by overexertion. Be sure to clear all accumulated snow from car windows before driving. Watch for snow removal schedules and cooperate by observing parking restrictions.

If you haven't already ordered your copy of the 1962 edition of the CONSERVATION DIRECTORY, do so now, suggests the National Wildlife Federation. Clubs and individuals can use the 86-page book to locate government personnel who can answer their fish, game, forest and soil management questions and oftentimes provide programs. All state sportsmen's clubs are listed. Send your request with one dollar to the Federation at 1412 Sixteenth St., N.W., Washington 6, D.C.

According to the National Wildlife Federation, the Texas State Parks Board has welcomed hunters at several state parks, not to hunt in the parks, but to use the cottages, shelters, camping areas and trailer connections. They can use the park housing accommodations but must leave the parks before pursuing waterfowl, deer, or other game.

SOME 35 old newsboys last Saturday braved chill winds and cold temperature to sell more than 5,000 special Goodfellow Editions of The Plymouth Mail to shoppers in Plymouth. Proceeds from the sale will aid the local Goodfellows in their annual charity projects, chief among which is helping needy families enjoy a true Christmas despite personal financial setbacks. Theme of the Goodfellow newspaper sale, as in past years, was: "No Kiddie Without a Christmas." Here, Donald R. Ward buys a Goodfellow paper from Ken Bisbee, who was selling the Goodfellow Edition for the 10th year. The sale resulted in approximately $1,600 in contributions, according to Goodfellows president Paul Sanders. He said it was 20 per cent below total donations of a year ago. He also extended his thanks to all persons who contributed and to his Goodfellows as well for their efforts during the sale.

BY GEORGE SPELVIN

Santa has arrived in Kellogg Park. Our stores in downtown Plymouth bristle with the quickened pace of bustling shoppers. Occasionally, a distant church bell is heard chiming traditionally with ye olde Christmas carols.

In short, the Yuletide season of good cheer moves slowly toward center stage with the help of a beautiful blanket of snow.

Downtown Detroit's theatrical scene is all decked out with attractive tinsel-like items. The Vanguard rolls merrily along with "The Egg". William Shust and the Vanguard resident company nightly panics capacity audiences with this risqué French farce.

The Fisher Theater has a third London import coming in "The School For Scandal". John Gielgud, Ralph Richardson, and Gwion Ffrangcon Davies are flying in from London to do the show at the Fisher prior to going to Broadway for a limited engagement. Scenery, costumes, actors and all flew over to Idlewild Airport in two planes. It's one of the few times in theatrical history that such a rapid method of transportation has been used.

If such means of locomotion persists, some of the shows will be able to keep way ahead of their notices. In the case of "School for Scandal" no such worries need trouble the cast or audience — all advance reviews have been on the static quality.

Look for the School for Scandal at the Fisher starting on Monday, Dec. 17 for three weeks, during the holidays.

The Shubert Theater lights up momentarily with "A Far Country." Viveca Lindfors and Jacob Ben-Ami opened in this explosive drama about the early days of Dr. Sigmund Freud.

If you enjoyed "The Miracle Worker", you will appreciate a touching and moving drama like "A Far Country." You last saw Viveca Lindfors in the Biblical spectacle, "King of Kings".

Chips from the ROCK

In glancing through our last January files I noticed the announcement made by the Rotary club concerning the redesigning of Kellogg Park. Since a well known local resident wrote us a letter last week in regard to what was planned for the park I thought I might quote a few of the plans as projected at that time.

From the following statements I see no concern for disfigurement of this present asset. First the plan calls for a slight lowering of the center of the park and the building of a dike at the east end for public functions. Main street would be converted into a mall facing the park and parking would be eliminated from this area. Some of the present trees would be transplanted and many more flowering trees would be added. The entire plan calls for more beautification and the addition of some areas for practical usage of our youth and adults. I hope the plan can proceed this spring.

One of the unknown beauties of living in the country unfolded before our eyes last week when Michigan's winter blew in from the west. The broad view across our snow swept fields was a delight and city dwellers seldom are treated to such a sight.

However, our new route, to and from our office over snow swept roads, alerted us to a new traffic hazard within our community to which we should alert all of our local drivers.

The area on Penniman avenue from the corners of Arthur and Church, in front of the Catholic Church and school property, present a traffic hazard, where unless some control is forthcoming we will record some serious traffic accidents.

We have already had one child's tragic traffic death this year and fortunately avoided another last week on the corner of Sheldon and Territorial roads. With the advent of slippery streets and early darkness it behooves all of us to exercise extreme care and caution on streets near and in the vicinity of all of our schools.

Particularly dangerous, from the child's standpoint, is the parent who drives the child to school and stops in any convenient spot to let the child out of the car. Drivers approaching west on Church street to Penniman Avenue are already faced with a difficult stop and go situation because of the angle of the corner. But here, many times I have noted parents will approach the corner, stop, then proceed some twenty feet to the drive entering the Church property and stop again to unload their children for the school. This amounts to almost a stop in the middle of the corner so that traffic following that parent must then sweep out in the middle of Penniman avenue to avoid colliding with the car which is discharging passengers.

Should some driver, not truly alert, run into this situation it is readily conceivable that after making their legal stop at the corner they could again start up and without knowing it slam into the car ahead which has stopped again to discharge its children.

Probably on school days all parking should be eliminated on Penniman in that area and perhaps a drive-in could be provided at the corner so parents with children could circle from the corner into and out of the grounds thereby discharging their passengers entirely off from the street.

It is worth a little study by Catholic school authorities and police particularly if it would help avoid an accident on a slippery road during the winter months which would injure one of our precious youngsters.

That Michigan winter also played several miserable tricks on our business community. Naturally shoppers were reluctant to battle the snow and ice and some stores suffered because of it. Our firemen were also disappointed with the crowd which was able to brave the storm to witness their fund raising basketball exhibition. They shouldn't feel too badly, however, because that same night the Detroit Red Wings attracted their smallest crowd in eleven years, and Plymouth's usually well attended Rotary club also had one of its smallest crowds on Friday, having only seven visitors when normally it hosts some fifteen or twenty. Stores featuring winter footwear and winter clothing accessories did a brisk business, however, preparing our residents for the busy Christmas shopping days remaining.

We might again point out that it isn't necessary to battle slippery roads and hazardous traffic conditions to do your Christmas shopping because Plymouth stores have every conceivable kind of gift in tremendous variety of size, selection and price. You'll have a safer Christmas shopping expedition if you do it here, it will take you less time, you'll save money and we'll bet you'll be more pleasantly served if you shop right here at home.

We were sorry Monday night to miss the retirement party held at Dearborn Inn for Harold Shierk. About the only reason I would have missed such an occasion is because I still don't feel up to any evening activity. Many Plymouthites and most Plymouth merchants are well acquainted with Mr. and Mrs. Shierk who have resided in Rosedale Gardens for many years but have done practically all of their shopping on the main streets of Plymouth.

Mr. Shierk has been a representative of the Miehle Printing Press Company of Chicago and first became a friend of ours when he sold us our first automatic press at Northville some 35 years ago for The Northville Record plant, which we owned at that time.

Since then he has furnished us most of the automatic printing equipment in our Plymouth plant, over the years, and has been a dependable counselor and friend throughout this time. We are sorry to know that he will no longer represent his company in this field but he certainly has earned a well deserved rest and we are glad that he and his charming wife will continue to make their home in this area during the days of their retirement.

"WHERE THE BOYS ARE"

"A Far Country" will only be at the Shubert for the balance of this week so don't waste time making up your mind about seeing this absorbing play.

Opening tonight (Dec. 12) at the Stables Coffeehouse Theater is the warm, happy-go-lucky play "Everybody Loves Opal". Pierre LaMarre, the genial director of the Stables theater couldn't have picked a happier choice for the holiday season. Linn Finn, late of New York, plays the lead role of Opal that Eileen Heckhart had on Broadway.

John Patrick, author of "Teahouse of The August Moon", has written another gay, carefree hit in "Everybody Loves Opal". The Stables Coffeehouse Theater makes theater-going a real adventure. You sit at card tables, sip espresso coffee, and smoke if you so desire. The atmosphere is that of a cabaret-theater. The actors are a hand-shake away from your table. The Stables Coffeehouse Theater is open on Thursdays, Friday and Saturday evenings with the evening performance starting at 8:30 p.m. Call TO 6-8148 for tickets.

Santa has been most kind in advance to Dr. Leonard Leone, Director of the Wayne State University Theater. The bewiskered, old gentleman has pulled a gift marked "Classic theater" out of his tattered bag for Dr. Leone and all the lucky students attending Wayne State in the near future.

Construction is beginning this month and will be completed by the fall of 1963. The classic theater calls for an intimate theater of 550 seats with a flexible open stage.

Based on the Greek and Elizabethan concept of a platform jutting forward into the audience, the design will also incorporate such innovations as a stage that completely surrounds the audience. The Stratford, Ontario, Festival Theater employs the open stage and has found that classic plays are well adapted to such a flexible arrangement.

We'll keep you posted on how this latest addition to the Wayne University Drama Department is developing. The University of Michigan had best look to their laurels with Wayne moving ahead with such a new theater.

Bob Wall tells me that a form of this open staging will be used when the JAYCEE show hits town in March. Bob won't say too much about the show except that it will be classic laugh riot. Committee meetings are now being held so that this third JAYCEE production under Bob's aegis will be organized and ready to go early in 1963.

Remembering "It's a Blast" and "Do You Remember" we await news releases on the forthcoming JAYCEE show with "bated" type-writer ribbons.
