$82,500 Grant For Township Gains Approval

Spurred by a federal grant for $82,500, Plymouth Township will construct a half-mile sanitary sewer extension along Joy Rd. this summer.

Start 104-Home Development In Township

Gould Homes, Inc. of Plymouth, began work this week on a 104-home residential development at the northeast corner of Haggerty Rd. and Ann Arbor Rd. in Plymouth Township.

Builder Loren Gould said he expects to have initial occupants in the housing development sometime this fall.

Price range on the homes, which will be offered in several different front elevations, will be from $17,000 to $20,000, Gould said.

Lot sizes range from 60-foot fronts to 80-foot fronts and will be 120 feet deep. Detroit water will be furnished. Engineer Herald Hamill worked out the plat plan with Gould.

LIONS CLUB's White Cane drive last Friday and Saturday is expected to raise greater than $2,500, by the time mailed contributions are added to the preliminary tally. Here, Jeannine Dahlager, of the Auto Club, makes a donation to club member Dr. Ralph Snocke. Near-perfect weather aided in making the appeal a success.

Schrader Heads State Morticians

Edwin A. Schrader of the Schrader Funeral Home has been named president-elect of the Michigan Funeral Directors Association.

He was elected last week during the closing session of the 84th annual convention of the organization in Detroit.

Mr. Schrader, who has been active in MFDA affairs for many years at the district and the state level, previously served as vice president.

Other officers elected were James Sullivan of Royal Oak, president; D. Howard Gorsline of Williamston, vice president; and Clyde B. Schimmel of Battle Creek, treasurer.

NEW DRAUGELIS building on Penniman Ave. resulted when these two attorneys agreed that the future of the street was sound. Perry Richwine (at left) first acquired the building that once housed Terry's Bakery. He began the remodeling of the building, but turned the task over to Edward Draugelis (right) when the latter purchased it more recently. The building, completely rejuvenated inside and out, contains suites for four offices, three of which are filled.

New Draugelis Building Breathes Added Life into Penniman Ave.

Attorney Edward Draugelis could qualify as a true "wanderer" if he chose, simply on the strength of the circuitous, 17-year route he has followed to get where he is today.

But the chances are good that his wanderings over the next 17-year span will be far less than those of the past.

With an eye toward Plymouth's future and the strength of his convictions that Penniman Ave. once again will become a street of significant meaning here, Draugelis is settling down these days in his new office building.

It's at 824 Penniman Ave., and once was the home of Terry's Bakery. The building no longer has its previous appearance, however. Instead of being a derelict of the past, it stands today as a keystone to the future.

Vastly remodeled — both outside and in — the Draugelis Building bears little resemblance to its former self. On the outside, it boasts a bright white facade, replacing the previous drab appearance of the structure.

A gentle blend of colonializing matches it perfectly with the dominant theme of much of the rest of the Plymouth community.

Inside are four modern and spacious office suites, one of which awaits only a tenant and the finishing touches of remodeling.

Draugelis, who is the City's legal counsel, said that the building was reduced to practically a shell before the extensive remodeling was begun.

And today it's a bright, appealing addition to a street that has all but been forsaken as Plymouth marches steadfastly into the future.

"Penniman Avenue is going to grow and prosper, just as the rest of the community is doing," the tall lawyer said recently. "Exactly when and exactly how is all that remains — but the street's future is bright and I'm confident of it."

Actually, it was another attorney that led Draugelis to his new office building.

Perry Richwine was Ed's land-lord at 861 Penniman Ave. when he was in charge of the Union Branch manager here, knew that Draugelis wanted greater office space. Perry earlier had acquired the building that formerly housed Terry's Bakery.

The end-result was that the two men conferred on the matter, and Draugelis agreed to buy the building. While neither would probably be overjoyed to announce the expense involved, it emphasizes the confidence being expressed in Penniman Ave.

Draugelis bought the building from Richwine, accepted certain remodeling changes that had already begun, made several alterations of his own and wound up with a $32,000 purchase price, including remodeling.

Seated behind a smallish, but ultra-modern, desk in his paneled office, Draugelis is a long way from 1946 when he graduated from Catholic Central High in Grand Rapids.

Not just in years, but in miles as well, for his wanderings took him to Notre Dame University in South Bend, to Detroit College of Law and the U-D Law School, to Heidelberg, Germany, and finally to Plymouth in 1960.

While the route he followed has been a winding one, it has always led forward — to many goals, chief among which was his law degree.

Born in Grand Rapids 35 years ago, Draugelis — after high school — attended Aquinas College there for two years while he earned his way as a bread salesman.

A bit of journalism is in his blood, too, for during that same period he briefly was a sports reporter for the Grand Rapids Herald.

In 1952 he came to Detroit to attend Detroit College of Law and held a job at the same time as youth director for a branch of the Detroit YMCA. Funds to continue his college education became a problem and in 1953 he joined the Dearborn police department as a patrolman.

Door Frame Firm Hopes to Move Here This Month

With a requirement to raise $30,000 locally in order to assure the move of Superior Sliding Door Frame Co. into the long-vacant Continental Can Co. plant here, the Industrial Development Corp. has reached the $24,000 mark this week.

"Negotiations to seal the project are nearing conclusion," said IDC president Frank Arlen Tuesday. He said that Superior is hopeful of moving into the Continental Can Co. plant later this month.

The IDC has already made a down payment on the plant as the first step in purchasing the building, located on Junction St. Remodeling must still take place before Superior will be able to move here from its present plant in Wayne.

Hey Kids!

Six lucky salesmen in The Plymouth Mail's recent subscription contest have won brand new bicycles. Names were drawn from a hat Monday by Safety Director Kenneth Fisher.

We ask the following six winning kids to come to The Plymouth Mail office Thursday, May 9, to claim their bikes:

Judy Bennett, 448 Stark-weather St.; Edward Landau, 930 Hartough St.; Mike McQuade, 660 Burroughs St.; Margaret Smith, 1158 S. Main St.; Michael Stanley, 14287 Shadywood Ct.; and Becky Widmayer, 13210 Drury Lane.

Michigan Bell 'Survey' Draws Commission Fire

Telephone rates, and the possibility of a change in them here, stole the spotlight during Monday evening's regular City Commission Meeting.

Lengthy discussion centered around an "opinion poll" that Michigan Bell Telephone Co. is undertaking in Plymouth and elsewhere in western Wayne County this month.

The poll asks subscribers to "vote" on their preference of several alternate new calling provisions, each of which expands the present calling area here.

It also asks if residents (or business users) would prefer to retain their present service.

Plymouth subscribers were scheduled to receive mail this week. Other the voting ballots in the communities have already received them.

Although there are actually four alternate new systems involved in the voting, the "super extended area service" drew the heaviest fire from Commissioners Monday night.

Under super extended area service, residents with a "GL" or "45" prefix would be able to call toll-free, as many times as they wish, to the "GR" exchange and Downtown Detroit.

A Michigan Bell brochure, included in the ballot literature, says the super extended service "would expand greatly your toll-free calling area" and "would replace the present flat-rate residence service."

The present one-party flat rate telephone bill is $4.95 per month plus 14 per cent tax, covering federal and state levies.

Under the super extended service, the one-party flat-rate would be $8.55 per month, plus 14 per cent taxes. A two-party line would cost a minimum of $6.45 per month and a rural line $6.00 per month.

The three other alternate services enlarge on this additional calling area, but also feature higher rates.

Commissioner Vallier challenged the Michigan Bell voting literature as "being vague" and not fully explaining the rate increases involved.

While Commissioner Lawton did not defend the voting literature, he said he did not believe it was fitting for the Commissioners to go on record either for or against the new services.

The longest discussion by Commissioners was devoted to the phrasing of a resolution which, in effect, urged Plymouth telephone users to pay careful attention to the proposed new calling services when they vote.

In describing the vote literature as "vague," Commissioner Vallier said "It does not clearly point out that residents will be unable to retain their present one-party service."

He referred to the fact that, if the super extended area calling service were put into use for residential subscribers, the present one-party flat-rate of $4.95 per month would no longer be available.

Instead, the minimum monthly charge would be $8.55, plus tax.

The actual voting ballot being mailed to Plymouth homes this week is a small gray card, measuring about three inches by five inches. Residence customers are asked to decide from among four alternatives or vote in favor of retaining their present service.

Business customers are asked to vote, also, on super extended area service, or retain the present business telephone service.

The voting cards are imprinted with return addresses, and thus may be mailed back to Michigan Bell at no cost to local residents. The voting card and accompanying literature has been sent out separately from the regular monthly telephone billings.

The poll, hinting that a rate increase request is in the offing, stems at least in part from action taken by the City's previous Commission.

Three months ago, the Commission voiced its disapproval over "inequities" in the toll charge rates for Plymouth users to call Downtown Detroit in comparison to the rates levied on Livonia users making similar Detroit calls.

The Commission directed Michigan Bell to "re-evaluate" its rate structure with an eye toward providing more liberal calling service and more "equitable" rates for Plymouth subscribers.

At Monday night's meeting, Michigan Bell's local branch manager Hazen Wilson said that the study involving the proposed super extended area service as well as the other alternate services had been started before the Commission.

Child Bumps Auto, But Escapes Injury

A six-year-old Plymouth boy, Donald Egan, of 242 Blunk St., ran into the side of a car last Thursday afternoon in front of a neighbor's home, but sustained no apparent injuries, police report.

The youth ran into the street and into the side of a car being driven by Shirley Swadlow, 43, of 41943 Ann Arbor Tr. She was not at fault, police say.

The incident happened in front of 287 Blunk St.

Monroe Official to Visit Here in Mayor's Switch

Plymouth's Richard Wernette and Monroe's Lawrence A. Frost may not see each other personally during Mayor Exchange Day on Monday, May 20, but they'll end the day with a common bond.

Each will have an appreciation of the other's duties and responsibilities.

The two will exchange places as part of the annual Michigan Week observance.

Wernette, as he makes the journey to Monroe, may reflect on better than six years of service on the City Commission here and about seven weeks in the mayor's chair.

He will be visiting a community of approximately 22,000, administered by a form of municipal government very similar to the City of Plymouth's. An exception is found in the fact that the Monroe mayor is elected by popular vote; Plymouth's is chosen by fellow commissioners.

Monroe has a "city director" with duties similar to those of City Manager Albert Glassford here.

The exchange visits by the two men will officially begin at 10 a.m. on May 20. In Monroe, Wernette will be presented with a key to the city and his tour presumably will take him to many corners of the community.

Here in Plymouth, Frost's visit will include special presentations to him on the non-profit Industrial Development Corp., the local Urban Renewal project, and the Plymouth Historical Society.

Director of Public Safety Kenneth Fisher has completed only tentative plans at this time. However, among them is a formal banquet that evening at the Hotel Mayflower.

Frost, a 56-year-old foot surgeon, is in his second term as mayor of Monroe. He is a native of Ann Arbor, but was raised in Toledo. He has practiced foot surgery since 1930 and is past president of the American College of Foot Surgeons.

Six College Trustees To Seek Re-Election

Six of the seven incumbent trustees of Schoolcraft College will seek re-election June 10, and three new candidates will be involved in the race, too.

Deadline for filing nominating petitions is Friday at mid-night. College President Eric Bradner explained. The petitions must be placed in the hands of the secretary of the candidate's home School District.

Only incumbent who will not seek re-election is James O'Neil, who last month won election to the state board of education. He is from Livonia.

The six trustees seeking second terms are: Board chairman Harold Fischer, a Plymouth resident and a candidate from the Plymouth School District; Jane Moehle, also a resident of Plymouth but a candidate at-large; Carl Oldenburg, a candidate from the Garden City district; Paul Mutnick, also from Garden City; Edwin Brown, from the Livonia school district; and Charles Kirkpatrick, a Livonia resident, but a candidate at-large.

The three newcomers who have taken out nominating petitions are Gerald Cox, of Garden City, and Irvin King and Clarence Partin, both Livonia residents but both candidates at-large.

RICHARD WERNETTE (right), mayor of the City of Plymouth, was among a number of Michigan city and county officials who were in Washington last week attending a special conference with Senator Philip Hart (left). The day-long meeting on May 3 emphasized "community-federal partnership" to provide jobs and develop youth opportunities. Wernette went down a day early so as to have a chance to speak with Congressman-at-large Neil Staebler and Congresswoman Martha Griffiths.

THE MEN who read gas meters for Consumers Power Co. will be wearing their own distinctive uniforms from now on. Here, Consumers employee Dale Kaiser, of 8889 Corrine, models one of the uniforms. The outfit consists of dark blue jacket and matching trousers with light blue shirt and black tie. In the summer, the men will be in shirtsleeves with no tie. An emblem on the jacket symbolizes Consumers Power Co. Previously, Consumers' meter readers wore ordinary work clothes of their own choosing.

Township Dog Clinic Ends Saturday

Plymouth Township dog owners will have only one more chance to obtain rabies shots and licenses for their pets through the annual Township dog clinic.

Conducted last Saturday, the clinic will be repeated this coming Saturday, May 11, Township Clerk John McEwen has announced.

Two-year rabies immunization shots will be administered at a cost of $3, he explained, and dog licenses will cost $2 for males and $4 for females. A $2 penalty will be added to the license fee after May 31.

The Township dog clinic will be open from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m., McEwen said.

WINNERS of a recent poster contest designed to promote the Senior High "Springtasia" concert May 17 are shown here with the first place winning poster. From left: Cynthia Van Heest (third place); Stephanie Sanocki (second); and Lana Scott (first). Lana was awarded $5 for her achievement. All are Junior High West students. Another promotion for "Springtasia" will be a Band Booster Tag Day this Saturday. Tags, supporting the Senior High concert band, will be sold door to door and in the downtown area. Proceeds from both the tag-day sale and from the concert will be used to send the band to Interlochen this summer. Persons who buy tags will be admitted to the concert at no charge.

Believed to have been built about 125 years ago, a vacant, two-story farm house in Canton Township was destroyed by fire late Monday night. Located at 7984 Beck Rd. at the corner of Gyde Rd., the wooden landmark was leveled to its masonry foundation as flames raced through it, reducing the structure to blazing ruins in a matter of moments.

Michigan State Police and Canton Township fire department officials are investigating the possibility of arson. There is a suspicion that vandals started the fire, said Canton Fire Chief Fred Korte, Jr.

The Canton fire department, alerted about 11:45 p.m. Monday, arrived on the scene within moments to find two-thirds of the old building destroyed already, Korte said.

The fire, according to a neighbor, appeared to start in an upstairs room and quickly engulfed the entire structure. "We made an effort to save the building," Korte explained later, "but the fire was so far out of control that we had to let it burn itself out."

The building was purchased last year by Wang J. Livingston, of 1496 Penniman. He had made plans to remodel it. Livingston said that although he has some insurance on the home he is not sure of the extent of coverage. The building was a total loss.

The rambling, old structure was previously owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Robertson, of 46655 Michigan Ave., Belleville. Mrs. Robertson said that it was 133 years old, having been built in 1830.

A number of previous acts of vandalism to the house had been reported by Livingston.

SPRAWLING old wooden farm house in Canton Township looked like this before flames destroyed it Monday night. Located at the corner of Beck and Gyde Rds., the house was believed to have been built in 1830. It was vacant at the time of the fire.

New Draugelis Building Breathes Added Life into Penniman Avenue

Upon graduation and his admittance to the state bar, Draugelis became a trial lawyer representing insurance companies for the law firm of Eggenberger, Eggenberger and Ashton in Detroit.

Intent upon having his own law practice, Draugelis came to Plymouth three years ago and within six months was appointed the City attorney here. He chose the Richwine-owned building at 861 Penniman Ave. for his offices, but gradually came to realize that second-floor walk-ups were not the best for a lawyer's headquarters.

Richwine had purchased the former Terry's Bakery building with plans to remodel it and personally speed the rejuvenation of Penniman Ave. At the same time, Richwine undertook the remodeling of the Singer Sewing Co. store across the street.

"We went to the bare rafters before starting the remodeling," Draugelis said. "Three offices are already finished and occupied; the fourth awaits a tenant."

The two other occupants are Tom Hirzel and John Tripp who operate the Plymouth branch of the State Farm Ins. Co., and attorney Clifford Manwaring.

The building was opened in mid-April.

In the midst of the hustle and bustle involved in occupying his new building, Draugelis has kept a watchful eye on his wife, Leila, who expects the couple's third child any moment.

Married in 1958, Ed and his wife have two daughters, Anne, 3, and Chrys, 2. They live at 1377 Carol.

2 CARD OF THANKS

We wish to extend our sincere and heartfelt thanks to the many friends and neighbors who during our recent loss found numerous ways to express their sympathy and offer their assistance. Special thanks to Rev. and Mrs. Chippchase, Clyde Hilstand, and Fred and Emily Casterline. Your kindness will always be remembered.

The family of Burt Stambro

I wish to thank all my friends and relatives who sent all the lovely cards and flowers and were so kind to me during my recent stay in the hospital especially the Vivians and Elks of No. 1780 Plymouth, Mrs. Potter, staff and Maintenance Dept. of Plymouth High School, and Daughters of America.

NEWS BRIEFS

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Frost of Williamston were entertained at dinner Sunday in the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hines on Beck Rd.

Mrs. Lawrence Becker was hostess Tuesday of last week at a luncheon in her home on Hartsough honoring Mrs. Eugene Gulbransen, who was chairman of the Symphony League last year and who with her family plan to move to Bloomington, Ind. after school is out. Guests were members of her group. Each one present gave the honoree a dainty handkerchief in remembrance.

On Tuesday afternoon, May 14, Mrs. Louise Granger of Jener St. will be a luncheon hostess to members of her pinchle club. Guests will include Mr. Henry Ehrensberger, Mrs. Leona Reber, Mrs. Eva Waid, Mrs. Gertrude Sumption, Mrs. Ethel Grammel, Mrs. Edith Rorabacher and Mrs. Estelle Heidt.

Phone Rates

sion first voiced itself on the matter last February.

Wilson said the results of the poll would be reported to the Commission at the earliest opportunity. Among the interesting statistics listed during the discussion was the fact that 60 per cent of all residential phones in the Plymouth area are of the one-party type.

City Attorney Edward Draugelis reported that any proposed rate change must first be taken up by Michigan Bell and interested parties before the Michigan Public Service Commission in Lansing.

ALL SET for the Junior High East PTSA Spring Concert May 13 are these three members of the school's choir, which will participate in the program along with the Junior High East band. At the piano is Rhea Fluckey, while Sue Hulce and Steve Stribley are standing beside her. The concert, which is free, begins at 7:45 p.m. in the Junior High East gymnasium. Laurence Livingston will conduct the band and William Grimmer will direct the chorus.

College Has More Woes; Bids Greater Than Budget

Troubled by a recent lawsuit that delayed them from opening general contracting bids, Schoolcraft College trustees finally got the bids open last week only to find the totals far greater than their budget limitations.

The seven-member board of trustees has since been meeting with the architectural firm in charge of the project as well as members of the college's administration to seek ways to bring the bid price within the budget limits.

The trustees are expected to take specific action on the cost-cutting tonight (Wednesday) in special session. At least two alternative measures were devised, one of which involves deferring a portion of the present building program.

The lowest base bid on the architectural work was $1,442,000, submitted by the Schurrer Construction Co., of Detroit. Low base bid on the electrical trades was for $611,665 turned in by Standish Electrical Engineering Co., of Detroit. Lowest base bid on mechanical work was for $173,990 by Gilles Plumbing & Heating, Inc., of Livonia. Sum of the three base bids is $2,227,655.

City Dog Clinics Are May 18, 25

City of Plymouth's dog "clinic" will be held Saturday, May 18, and Saturday, May 25, reminded Director of Public Safety Kenneth Fisher this week.

He said the purpose of the two clinics is to furnish all City dogs with rabies shots as well as provide an opportunity for dog owners to purchase dog licenses.

City Health Officer Dr. Lee Feldkamp, who will supervise the two clinics, pointed out that it is a violation of a City ordinance for dogs to run loose here. They must be confined or on a leash at all times, he cautioned.

Hours for the City's dog clinics on both dates will be from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1-4 p.m. The rabies shot is $3 and the license is $2.

DON'T TURN YOUR BACK ON THE BARE FACTS!

And What Are The Bare Facts? WHO CAN YOU BELIEVE?

We claim to have the lowest prices in town — and so does just about everyone else. It's not necessarily the store that shouts the loudest about a few specials... stamps... premiums... coupons... or gimmicks... That gives the consumer the greatest VALUES... although it might appear that way. The facts are... well, don't take our word, why don't you check a few items (any items you choose)... check a few prices and see for yourself... you'll find it's true...

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

Newcomers
Spring Dance
Set May 25

The Plymouth Newcomers annual Spring Dance will be held at the Warren Valley Country Club, May 25, according to the club's social chairman, Mrs. Jeanne Knowles. The affair will begin at seven with cocktails and a hot buffet dinner served at 8 p.m.

There will be dancing till tired, and plenty of opportunity to renew and make new acquaintances for the coming summer season. All newcomers and guests of the Plymouth area are cordially welcomed to attend this gala affair.

Reservations must be made before Tuesday May 21. In town, Norma Bell GL 3-3805 will handle your request. New Lake Pointe Barbara Spagnola GL 3-7456 is your girl. Old Lake Pointe Barbara Schendel GL 3-3905. Tickets are priced at $7.50 per couple.

May Breakfast
Slated May 10

The United Church Women of Plymouth have completed their plans for a festive May Fellowship Breakfast at the First Methodist Church on Friday, May 10th at 9:30 a.m.

The speaker at the breakfast will be Mrs. Paul Dotson wife of the director of the Protestant Foundation for International Students at Ann Arbor. Mrs. Dotson has worked for many years with foreign students as she and her husband were missionaries overseas for the Presbyterian Church in the Philippines and Lebanon from 1946 to 1961. They worked basically with student and faculty groups. She is the mother of two teen age daughters and two younger sons.

Mrs. Dotson indicated that their experience overseas has helped them to better understand the 1400 foreign students attending the University of Michigan and to be of greater service to them at the International Center.

Tickets for the breakfast are available through the Women's Society of the participating churches. Nursery service will be provided.

Rosary Society
Dessert Bridge
Slated May 14

The Rosary Society of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church will sponsor a dessert-bridge party on Tuesday, May 14, from 12:30 until 3 p.m., in the O.L.G.C. hall. Lovely door and table prizes will be given. Program highlight will be a hat show, featuring original creations by "The Christ Child Society."

Chairman of the event is Mrs. David Schlick, with Mrs. Thomas Devereaux acting as co-chairman. Committee chairman are: Mrs. Anthony Frank, in charge of publicity, Mrs. Bernard Schmitz and Mrs. Russell Koepke, handling ticket arrangements, Mrs. Mary Jane Minaham, managing prizes, while Mrs. Thomas Devereaux and Mrs. Rosemary Shilcuske are in charge of refreshments and decorations respectively.

For additional information contact general chairman, Mrs. Schlick, GL 3-6297 or for ticket reservations call GL 3-3761 or GL 3-1916.

MRS. ROBERT GOTSHAM

A recipe for a cool summer dessert is suggested this week by Mrs. Robert Gotsham, 1116 Harding. Handed down on her side of the family, the recipe is for a Frozen Salad Dessert. It is a favorite for company dinners and bridge desserts.

Her children, Katherine, 12, a student at Junior High West, Robert Jr., 11, a student at Smith, and Thomas, 9, also at Smith all enjoy the dessert.

Mrs. Gotsham is a member of the Women's Society of the Methodist Church and the Service Team for the Girl Scouts. As hobbies she enjoys bridge, knitting, gardening and reading.

Combine cream cheese with mayonnaise and beat with mixer until smooth. Add pineapple, walnuts and cherries and stir until well mixed. Then beat cream until stiff enough to hold its shape and gently fold into cream cheese mixture and combine thoroughly. Then turn mixture into 1 1/2 quart mold that has been rinsed in cold water. Freeze until firm, about three hours. To serve, loosen edges of mold with sharp knife and unmold on lettuce leaves. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Albert, Not Wesley Waltons Honored

It was the Albert Waltons, of 42015 Micol St., who celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at a surprise party, given April 20 in the home of their son, Wesley, at 42024 Micol St. Last week The Plymouth Mail erroneously stated in a headline that the Wesley Waltons celebrated their golden anniversary.

Gulbransen Places 2nd
In Reporting Contest

Plymouth High senior Jeri Gulbransen, 17-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gulbransen of 11905 Beck Rd., last Friday was named second-place winner in a speech reporting contest at the University of Michigan.

Jeri, editor of the Plymouth High's newspaper, The Pilgrim Prints, was among 25 high school journalists competing in the Donal H. Haines reporting contest.

After hearing a speech by Paul S. Swenson, executive director of the Wall Street Journal, the teen-agers were allotted two hours in which to write a news story of Swenson's remarks.

Swenson discussed "The Face of a Newsmen." Miss Gulbransen received two books on journalism as second-place winner. She is a member of Quill & Scroll and plans to study journalism at Lindenwood College in St. Charles, Missouri, after graduating from High School in June.

She became the seventh student from Plymouth High in 12 years to place among the top three finishers in the contest. No other school in the state has had more than three students finish among the top three.

Plymouth Pioneers Learn About Meat

Plymouth Pioneers, home economics extension service club, met at the home of Mrs. Claude Eckles, at 41066 Schoolcraft, on Monday evening, April 29.

The program, presented by Mrs. Forest Olson and Mrs. Alan Maltby, dealt with "Meat: How to Buy, Store and Cook it."

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Kenneth Lunn and Mrs. Alan Maltby.

The May meeting will be held the last Monday of the month at the home of Mrs. William Elliott, at 1450 Penniman. Lesson for the evening will deal with "Family Vacations." Also, at that meeting election of officers will be held.

Anyone interested in joining the group should call Mrs. Oran Nichols at GL 3-2663.

Local Collegians Make News

Plymouth collegians are totaling up an impressive list of honors and achievements at their schools. Prominent among these are:

Mary Park, daughter of Mrs. John Park, 130 N. Holbrook, who was among 41 Michigan State University freshmen tapped for membership in Tower Guard, local sophomore women's honorary society. Selection is made on the basis of scholarship, leadership and service to the university. Members and their parents were guests at a special breakfast given by President and Mrs. John A. Hannah and the Spartan Women's League following the induction program.

At the 25th annual Commencement Exercises of the London College of Bible and Missions, Miss Karen Kay Kehoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Kehoe, 5959 Lotz, received a bachelor's degree in Religious Education completing the three-year Christian Education course.

Pledging Delta Alpha chapter of Sigma Kappa at Eastern Michigan University recently was Miss Ann McCallum, daughter of Mrs. Grace McCallum, 935 Hartsough. Ann is currently a sophomore majoring in special education for the physically handicapped.

Freshman Kenneth Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fischer, 505 McKinley, has been chosen by the Student Government Association of the College of Wooster to serve as the co-director of Freshmen Orientation for next year.

Lawrence R. Sexton appeared last week in the Michigan State University Theatre production of Oliver Goldsmith's 18th century comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer." The son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Sexton, 1943 Penniman, Sexton is a graduate speech major and has appeared in numerous productions at Central Michigan and Eastern Michigan universities, and Cherry County Playhouse. Earlier this year at MSU he played in "Kanjincho," a Japanese drama.

Planning to study in Madrid next year is Miss Kathleen Keener, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Keener, 695 Simpson. She is taking part in Kalamazoo College's foreign study plan along with 128 other juniors.

Junior Lon Dickerson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lon E. Dickerson, of 620 Simpson St., has been elected to the Publications Council at Albion College.

Senior Kenneth Jacobus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Jacobus, of Elm St., has been awarded a graduate assistantship for work in psychology at Ohio State University, amounting to $1,300.

Omega Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity members at Albion College who will participate in installation ceremonies for a new chapter at Hillsdale College, to be known as Iota Nu, will include two Plymouthites, David Green, president, and Lon Dickerson, historian. Green is the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. Harger Green, of 595 Simpson.

THE AAUW'S 1963-64 Listening Post lecture series, featuring three eminent guest speakers, has been announced and will begin with the first lecture Oct. 23. Members of the AAUW who took part in the selection of speakers are shown here with Dr. Seymour Ricklin, associate director of the Detroit Adventure Series, who helped obtain the guest speakers for the local series. Seated at left is Mrs. John Moeble. From left, standing, are: Mrs. John Hass, chairman of the committee; Mrs. Elmer Smith; and Mrs. Sidney Cady. Malcolm Boyd will open the Listening Post series Oct. 23 with a talk entitled "Art and Morality in the Modern Theater." Other speakers will be Arthur W. Burks, of the University of Michigan, and Margaret H. Sterne, of Wayne State University.

Art Around Us

by Mrs. Jessie Hudson

Was able to visit two quite different art shows this past week. One was the Contemporary European Paintings exhibit at the University of Michigan Art Museum in Ann Arbor, the other was the work of students of Mrs. Marion Sober and Mrs. Johnnie Crosby at the Joy Road Studios in Plymouth.

The Ann Arbor show by professional avant-garde artists was, of course, very abstract — non-representational — modern-art — away out. It featured color, texture, movement and mood done by painters from various countries in Europe but who have all studied or lived in Paris, the Artist's Mecca, at one time. The paintings, as I mentioned above, are far-out, some in primary colors with busy confusion symbolizing and appropriate to our own busy, noisy civilization... and some in sombre mud, also symbolizing our civilization and the disastrous developments of which it is capable.

Two paintings seem to sum up the whole of man's experience. They are by Luis Feito, born and now living in Madrid. One large panel 63 x 71 inches is done in smooth black glossy paint with dull black textured areas over subtle tans and greys with a smooth white area relieved by white textured spots, the whole seeming to be the essence of reverence and hope.

The second painting, numbered simply No. 203, 1960, is smaller only 32 x 39 1/4 inches, is mostly black with black textures over beautiful reds both smooth and rough. This seems to present the other choice left to man... hellfire and brimstone. The whole exhibit takes one into the vanguard of art... art which may be accepted and admired fifty years from now.

Mrs. Sober runs what she calls "an old-fashioned school" and most of the paintings are done in a manner which was contemporary as long as 400 years ago. A few students employ an impressionistic or pointillist style which is as recent as one hundred years ago.

Acting in the difficult role of judge, I chose a still-life painting which impressed me with its color values and compositional elements, painted by Mrs. Erna Losee. Two portraits were equally attractive to me, one a soulful, haunting study by Virginia Stout, the other by Mary Engstrom showed the same model as a more youthful and somehow courageous individual.

Many of the paintings hold promise of adventures to come and all, I know, would be accepted and admired by most people today.

TV News Editor to Be Guest Speaker

The Antique Corner

By Mrs. John Gibbons

Silver has always been a favored precious metal for ornamental, ceremonial, and personal articles. Although gold is as beautiful in appearance and workability it is twice as heavy and therefore much less practical than silver. In the past the men who worked with these precious metals were known as goldsmiths even though they worked in both gold and silver. It is said that England has produced more silver than any other country in the world and that her designs and culture has greatly dominated the entire field of silver making. Silver, like furniture and architecture, followed the influx of the period and can be traced to the period of its popularity by its general appearance. At the time of smithing the first pieces of silver in England the church was in complete reign of the land and a great number of pieces were made for religious purposes. The great cost involved in the raw material prohibited greatly the creation of silver ware. It was not uncommon for the smith who worked on these items to spend several months in fashioning one piece, therefore, creating a revered item of grace, beauty, and distinction. As time passed and commerce with foreign countries began to increase larger quantities of raw silver were shipped into England. This increase brought down the cost somewhat and the society leaders began to demand these luxury silver pieces for their own personal use. This demand caused the silversmiths to form the first guilds and fraternities in silversmiths. Laws were passed to protect the buyer from silver of inferior quality or workmanship. These laws were so severe that in some cases the penalty for marking a piece of silver not up to standard with a sterling hallmark was punishable by death. The government then took the time to destroy all of that smith's works which has made the possibility of locating antique forged silver quite rare. However, frauds in silver do exist in the sense that subtraction or addition of a piece would produce a piece not originally intended for that purpose. For example, a silver urn minus one of its handles can become a silver cup. A footed metal platter without its feet makes a more desirable tray. With the addition of a spout to a tankard the article becomes a much more desirable and higher priced coffee urn.

In colonial America silver was a rare and much prized possession. It is interesting to note that the American silver makers did not have to hallmark their early pieces because the colonies had no such organizations as the guilds that existed in England and the government held no reign over their work.

Wine, woolen goods, cattle, ceramics and building stone are exported by San Marino, a small independent republic near Italy's Adriatic coast. The population is about 14,000.

Your BEAUTY CARE

By MIDGE DU VALL

Remember the "Ssh Ssh" subject I mentioned a few weeks ago? Let's bring it out in the open.

Fanciful, romantic words some times can create an emotional effect. By innuendo, some words can establish something as a fact that simply is not a fact. Let me put it this way —

There are some products we refuse to use or display in our Salon. We refuse the potential money profit because we are realistically concerned about your loveliness, your lasting beauty. In plain words, your safety and protection and here is why —

At an American Medical Association meeting not too long ago, pleas were heard for more effective Federal legislation to safeguard the consumer against those who vouch for the reliability of unreliable claims. The "Ssh Ssh" means this. There are products being tested on women in so called test markets. MIDGE'S BEAUTY SALON is NOT and NEVER will be a testing station for any product or procedure with humans used as Guinea Pigs. This is a good reason why you can always rely on us for professional help, guidance and perfection. To see what reliability and perfection really means, come in or phone in. Why not make it today? Mrs. Harold Behler was the dinner guest Sunday of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Behler and family in Wayne.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth L. Hulsing will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Harry Christensen and Mr. and Mrs. George T. Bauer Saturday evening for pinocle following dinner in their home on Church St.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Fisher and son, Robert, returned Sunday from a three weeks vacation spent in Tucson and in Phoenix, Arizona, to their home on Southworth.

"BIG TOP HOP," a P.T.S.A. sponsored dance at the Junior High East last Friday night, turned out to be a big success as an estimated 120 Junior High East students danced to recorded music and enjoyed a performance by the school's "Rocket" Band. Chaperoned by parents, the dance was the first such undertaking by the school's P.T.S.A. Above, shown during a soft-drink break midway through the evening, are five youngsters and a parent. Mrs. John Ing is serving, and the teen-agers (from left) are Tom Chandler, Lynn Niles, Armita Smith, Chuck Catlett and Larry Barlow. Co-chairmen of the affair were Mrs. George Burke and Mrs. Kenneth VanAntwerp.

Commission Copes with Busy Agenda

City Commissioners waded through a busy regular meeting agenda Monday night. They delayed taking action on a matter involving the possible expense of $12,000 for a new auxiliary power generator for the new City Hall, pending further study of the situation.

Manager Albert Glassford reported that Wayne County is expected to install a traffic signal at Harvey and Ann Arbor Tr. shortly after May 17.

The Commission took no immediate action on a suggestion from the Housing & Home Finance Agency that the southeast quadrant of the Central Business District here be reduced somewhat in size in an effort to qualify it for federal urban renewal assistance.

The 1963-64 budget was adopted with no changes being made since the public hearing 10 days ago. Glassford was authorized to take steps to prepare a report on the status of a work program involving the resurfacing of W. Ann Arbor Tr. from Main St. east to the City limits.

He explained earlier that the entire project will cost approximately $100,000, and that a portion of this is expected to be met by Wayne County. Work will not begin until sometime this fall, at the earliest.

First payment of about $13,500 on the Sheldon Rd. water main was authorized as was full payment of $7,368 for the recently-completed Harvey St. culvert.

Glassford reported on the status of preliminary plans involving the City's interior water system improvements, on which the City has made request for federal assistance for financing it.

The Commission delayed taking any action to install a $17,000 sanitary sewer line from the rear property line of Michigan Bell Telephone Co. on Ann Arbor Rd. west to Sheldon Rd.

It is already planned, but speed had been urged by local builder Loren Gould who intends to develop the northeast corner of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Rd. and will need the sanitary sewer to get his project underway.

Permission was given the local VFW post to conduct its annual Memorial Day parade and, in another matter, the Commission acknowledged the communication pertaining to the hoped-for establishment of a county-wide assessor's office.

Minor changes in the new City Hall building were made, in line with recommendations from the state's jail inspector.

Plymouth City Minutes

Monday, April 15, 1963
A regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Monday, April 15, 1963 at 7:30 p.m. and called to order by City Manager Glassford, who acted as temporary chairman.

PRESENT: Comms. Beyer, Houk, Smith, Vallier and Wernette
ABSENT: Comms. Jabara and Lawton.

Comm. Beyer nominated Comm. Wernette as Mayor.

Moved by Comm. Houk and supported by Comm. Vallier that the nominations be cast for Comm. Wernette as Mayor.

Carried unanimously.

Mayor Wernette then took the chair.

Comm. Vallier nominated Comm. Houk as Mayor Pro-Tem.

Moved by Comm. Smith and supported by Comm. Beyer that the nominations be cast for Comm. Houk as Mayor Pro-Tem.

Carried unanimously.

Moved by Comm. Beyer and supported by Comm. Houk that the minutes of the meeting of April 2 and the Special Meeting of April 10, 1963 be approved as written.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Smith that the bills, in the amount of $71,599.83, as audited by the auditing committee, be allowed and warrants drawn.

Carried unanimously.

The Clerk presented the following reports for the month of March: Building Safety, D.P.W., Fire, Municipal Court, Police Survey and Treasurer.

Moved by Comm. Houk and supported by Comm. Beyer that the above reports be accepted and filed.

Carried unanimously.

Mr. Don Graham, representing the Plymouth Junior Baseball League, presented a request to the commission for an extension of time of the lease of city owned property being utilized as a Junior League baseball grounds, adjacent to Riverside Cemetery, in order to protect the investment in chain link fences proposed to be erected between the diamonds. The matter was referred to the City Manager for study, with a report to be made at the special meeting on April 29, 1963.

The Clerk presented a resolution adopted by the City of Livonia requesting legislation be adopted by the Supreme Court from decisions made by the State Tax Commission. The communication was ordered accepted and filed.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Michigan Municipal League which included a "Michigan Highway Fiscal Study", prepared by the Good Roads Federation. The City Manager explained that, according to the study, the City of Plymouth's share of gasoline and weight taxes as compared to need, was deficient by $55,000 or 48.3 per cent. The communication was ordered accepted and filed.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Municipal Building Authority requesting approval of use of the front portion of the City Hall Annex as an on-site office by the contractors erecting the proposed City Hall, and that said designation be included in the bids.

Carried unanimously.

The Clerk presented a communication from the VFW requesting permission to conduct its annual Buddy Poppy sale on Thursday, May 23, or Friday, May 24, 1963, in case of rain.

Moved by Comm. Smith and supported by Comm. Houk that permission be granted to the Lions Club to hold its white cane sale, as outlined above. Carried unanimously.

The City Manager presented a communication from the Distribution Service, Inc., requesting the city to install 2 gate valves on the water mains from N. Main Street to Union and Union to Penniman Avenue.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Beyer that the City Manager be authorized to install 2 gate valves, as outlined above, said funds to be used from the Water Improvement Fund in an approximate amount of $1200.

Carried unanimously.

Moved by Comm. Houk and supported by Comm. Vallier that the City Manager be authorized to advertise for bids for the sale of the Byron Street water tower.

Carried unanimously.

A discussion was held relative to demolishing the present city hall, after completion of the new city hall has been accomplished.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Beyer that the City Manager be authorized to contact by the Building Authority the architect to prepare preliminary plans for the new city hall, and to determine whether or not deferring razing of the present city hall would have any effect on the new city hall contract, and that an open meeting be held on Monday, April 29, 1963 at 9 a.m. to hear the opinions of the citizens relative to razing the present city hall.

Carried unanimously.

The City Manager advised that the office of the D.P.W. Superintendent is planned to be located in an addition to be located in a result, his offices in the new city hall can be eliminated and used as a city commission conference room.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Beyer that the Building Authority that the architect remove the D.P.W. offices and provide a conference room in its place.

Carried unanimously.

The City Manager presented a report of bids for the Northville Road water main relocation advising that the low bid was Allard Contracting Company, New Hudson, Michigan, at $24,460, and the high bid was Ben P. Fyke & Sons, Berkley, Michigan, at $39,835.

Because of the variance in the bids, the awarding of the contract was deferred until Johnson & Anderson's consulting engineers, 444 W. Ann Arbor Trail, prepared a report and recommendation at the meeting of April 29, 1963.

FORMER PLYMOUTHITE Orlyn C. Lewis (far right), the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carlton R. Lewis, is an Eagle Scout and scoutmaster of Troop No. 126 at Aldersgate Methodist Church on Beech Rd. Here, he watches as three of his scouts receive the "God and Country" award at the church recently. From left: Lee Harris, David White, Orlyn's son Scott, Reverend Russell Nachtrieb, and Reverend Robert Davis. Interestingly, in a recent "25 Years Ago" column in The Mail, an account appeared of the participation of Troop P-1 scouts in a merit badge show at Convention Hall under the leadership of J. Rusling Cutler, who was scoutmaster at that time. Orlyn Lewis was a participant at that time and had received his own "Eagle" designation while Sidney Strong was scoutmaster.

Junior High East Spring Concert Monday

Approximately 250 Junior High East students will take part in the school's spring concert Monday evening, May 13, in the Junior High East gym. The program will follow an installation of new P.T.S.A. officers, which begins at 7:45 p.m.

Participating in the evening of music will be the Rocket Band, Eastern Airs Orchestra, the Mixed Chorus and the Girls' Glee Club, under the direction of Laurence Livingston and William Grimmer.

The concert will be keyed to a musical theme portraying the various aspects of spring.

Among the Girls' Glee Club selections is "All in the April Evening" and "Black is the Color of My True Love's Hair." The Mixed Chorus will present "Come to the Fair" and "Jasmine Love" among others.

"The Colonel Bogey March" will highlight the Rocket Band's share of the program, and the Eastern Airs Orchestra will play "Gypsy Overture" and "Serenade from the Student Prince" among others.

WINNER of a trip to Bermuda recently was Leo Calhoun (right), owner of Leo Calhoun Ford agency here. The prize was awarded the Plymouth auto dealer on the strength of the agency's record rate of new-car sales during a recent period. The Calhoun Ford agency features a remodeled display room, new office space and a remodeled service garage, among other changes recently made. Volume of business at the dealership has more than tripled in comparison to the sales rate of a year ago. The firm is retailing approximately 100 autos per month, a spokesman said.

TREFOIL DOINGS

by Shirley Scout

The highlight of Easter vacation for two troops, 286 and 245 was their trip to Lansing. They journeyed by train to the Capitol on Thursday, April 18. They are currently working on their travelers badges.

Accompanying the girls were Mrs. Helen Lodge, Sydney Van Aken, Mrs. Victor Wenzell, Mrs. Harold Jacobs and Miss Helen Gotchalk. They toured the Capitol building and each girl shook hands with Governor George Romney.

Also on their agenda was their luncheon in the new cafeteria, and visits to the Lansing City Hall and Police Dept. Girls from Troop 286 who made the trip were Johanna Jacobs, Janice McMullen, Paulette Stenzel, Debbie Waldecker and Frances Wilmeth.

Troop 245 was represented by Sandy Curtis, Mary Jean Daniel, Linda Dyer, Barbie Johnson, Shirley Kosis, Cathy Richardson, Janet Wenzell, Marcia White, Frannie Zoet and a few guests.

Day Camp registration for the session to be held June 17-21 will be closed on June 1. Registration for the second Plymouth session No. 12 in the book which will be held August 5-9 will be closed on July 1. Mrs. Ann Fowler and Mrs. Helen Lodge will be the directors of the first session.

Have you found any Girl Scout uniforms, any condition, when you are going your spring housecleaning? Don't forget the uniform depot which is sponsored by the Plymouth neighborhood. Please give these uniforms to your daughter's troop leader. Many girls need them.

Intermediate Scout Troops No. 286 and 245 went on a weekend trip to Hilltop Lodge on April 26 and 27.

Mrs. Cameron Lodge Sr., Mrs. Lester Robinson, Mrs. Harold Jacobs and Miss Sydney Van Aken were on hand to aid the Scouts in their hiking, bird-watching and nature study weekend.

Leaders wishing to order Girl Scout badges or insignia are asked to give Mrs. Lodge two weeks advance notice of need.

Over 100 girls in the third through sixth grades from the Plymouth neighborhood enjoyed an afternoon of fun at the Riverside Arena. Many leaders put skates on for the first time in many moons to join in the roller skating.

YOUTHFUL VISITORS at The Plymouth Mail's publishing plant one afternoon last week were intrigued by the operation of The Mail's printing press. The youngsters — 26 in all — were from Plymouth Girl Scout Troop No. 501, sponsored by the local VFW post. They toured The Mail's headquarters at 271 South Main. Leaders of the troop are Mrs. Dan Fowler, 562 Herald, and Mrs. John Brady, 1485 Penniman.

News Briefs

Historical Society Dinner to Mark 3 Anniversaries

Last week the story of the annual dinner meeting of the Plymouth Historical Society told about two anniversaries to be observed.

Since then a third has been added. Our speaker, Mr. George W. Southworth, Curator of Manuscripts in the Burton Historical Collection, tells us that his subject will be the "Pontiac Uprising." And it will be just two hundred years on May ninth since Pontiac failed in his plot to overcome the garrison of the English fort at Detroit. So, the speaker, his subject and the meeting will be very timely.

Mr. Southworth has been with the Burton Collection since 1958. Before that he was for a long time with the University of Rochester in Rochester, New York.

Since this is the meeting at which officers for the next year will be elected, it is planned to save time by voting on paper ballots during dinner. This business is necessary, but time will be saved as much as possible for our speaker.

Mrs. John Paul Morrow of Cheboygan attended the Detroit Pan Hellenic luncheon Wednesday held in the home of Mrs. F. R. Hoheisel on Evergreen, and Thursday evening met with the Junior bridge club in the home of Mrs. Sanford Shattuck on Blunk St. of which she has been a member for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hagen and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fillmore were entertained at dinner Friday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Melcher in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy N. Leemon spent the week-end at their Ranch Poverty Point near Marion.

Mrs. Karl Starkweather, Mrs. Ada Murray and Mrs. William J. Livingston plan to attend the state convention of the Button Clubs on Saturday, May 18 which will be held all-day in the Roosevelt Hotel in Lansing.

Mrs. Walter Hagen spent part of last week with her daughter, Mrs. E. J. Capretto in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fillmore visited his brother, Frank Fillmore of Detroit Sunday, who was operated upon Monday in the Dearborn hospital. They also called on Mr. and Mrs. Roy Amrhein in Wayne who have returned from the Annapolis, Wayne, and St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor, both being ill.

Members of the Tuesday afternoon contract bridge club composed of Mrs. C. H. Goyer, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. Austin Whipple, Mrs. George Burr, Mrs. Elmore Carney, Mrs. Harry Reeves, Mrs. Russell Isbister and Mrs. William Kaiser, were entertained at a luncheon Tuesday in the home of Mrs. Perry Richwine on Wilcox Rd.

Mrs. Joseph Tracy of Church street is recovering wonderfully from her hip operation which she underwent several weeks ago which will please her many, many friends in Plymouth and elsewhere.

Mrs. Isabelle Taylor was a luncheon hostess Monday afternoon in her home on Starkweather Ave. when members of her 500 club were guests.

Members of the RLDS Church Zions League met at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Fitch following church on Sunday for a light lunch, after which everyone went to Mettetal airport for a ride in Dr. Fitch's tri-pacer four-seater plane. About 15 teen-

Delta Gammas To Hear Watson

Delta Gamma Alumnae Farmington Association will meet May 13, at the home of Mrs. George Coulton, 27875 Peppermill Road, Farmington. An especially interesting program has been planned as Mr. Hugh Watson, Superintendent of the Department of Special Education, of the Farmington School System, will speak on retarded and partially blind children and what is being done for them in the Farmington area.

All Delta Gammas of the Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Novi, and Farmington areas are urged to attend this meeting of special interest.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Schrader, of 1859 Canton Center Rd., were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reynolds, of Detroit, last Wednesday evening for dinner at the new restaurant "Top of the Flame."

A recent letter from Larry Smith to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith, of 977 Dewey St., informed them that he had completed his 31 day vacation during which he traveled 14,600 miles through Europe by train, riding at night and sightseeing during the day. Smith is a student at G.I. State University in Scotland and will return to his home here at the end of the semester.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman Larczere of Kalamazoo were house guests Tuesday and Wednesday of this week of Dr. and Mrs. A. E. Van Ornum on Maple west. While here they all attended the 106th annual dental convention held Wednesday at the Statler Hotel in Detroit.

Mrs. Ella Gould will be hostess to members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Executive Men's Club at a potluck dinner on Friday, May 17 in her home on Ann Arbor Trl.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mumby, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ehrenberger, Mrs. Andrew Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Metcalf of Plymouth plan to attend the annual luncheon given for the Michigan Bell Pioneers at the Hawthorne Valley Country Club on May 16.

City Acquires Three Urban Renewal Lots

Condemnation proceedings and the City must begin actual construction within 120 days.

Under the latest time-table, ground must be broken on the construction of the building by August 27.

Only one parcel remains to be acquired now. A condemnation hearing will be held shortly.

Meanwhile, June 5 has been set as the date for another Circuit Court hearing, this one involving the condemnation of property comprising a portion of the site for the new City Hall. Circuit Judge Joseph Mynahan will preside, according to attorney Edward Draugelis, who will represent the City.

Elsewhere, the contract authorizing the $255,500 Federal grant for construction of the new City Hall will be signed this week by the municipal building authority

Joins Auto Club Sales Team Here

Mike Conrad, formerly of Plymouth, has joined the sales force of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark L. Conrad, 251 Auburn, and is married to the former Diane Draper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hod Draper, of Evergreen.

They have two children and reside in Livonia.

Conrad was formerly with Newhampton General Store, a mail order firm in Newhampton, New Hampshire, owned by Mrs. Draper's brother.

Conrad's territory for the Auto Club here will include Plymouth, Northville and Novi. He is a 1955 graduate of Plymouth High and attended Michigan State.

Local Girl Fourth In News Spell-down

A Plymouth girl, 13-year-old Ruth Whitmore, finished fourth in last week's metropolitan area spelling bee, sponsored by the Detroit News.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whitmore, 499 North Sheldon, Ruth is an eighth grader at St. Peter's Lutheran school here. She was unable to spell the word "jeopardy."

Earlier, Ruth had won a district spell-down in order to qualify for the metropolitan spelling contest.

Historical Group Cites Farm Here

A farm owned by Fred M. Fishbeck, of 7994 Plymouth Rd., has been designated as a centennial farm by the Michigan Historical Commission.

The farm, located in Superior Township in Washtenaw County, has been in the possession of Fishbecks family since 1836.

It was originally purchased at that time by James Murray, great-grandfather of the present owner.

SPOTLIGHT ON PLYMOUTH TEACHERS

Mrs. James Wilderom

A third-grade teacher at Smith Elementary School, Mrs. James Wilderom was born in Detroit, but raised in Harbor Springs, where she graduated from high school.

She attended Eastern Michigan University in Ypsilanti for two years and then transferred to Ursinus College, in Collegeville, Pa., where she received her bachelor of arts degree.

Her first teaching position was in a sixth grade class in the Kimberton, Pa., public schools system. During the same time, Ann — as Mrs. Wilderom is best known among her fellow teachers and friends — did graduate study at Temple University.

Ann's interests seem to center on travel and the great outdoors. Among her experiences as a traveler, Ann counts a tour of the British Isles via the bicycle and hostel route as among her favorite recollections.

She also once spent a month touring Scandinavia with her husband.

Ann is an ardent participant in sports and numerous outdoor activities such as skiing, camping, swimming canoeing, sailing and sailboat racing. Recently, she and her husband made a 50-mile canoe trip up the Pine River.

In addition to her teaching duties at the Smith School here, Mrs. Wilderom also teaches swimming to adults at the Ann Arbor Y M C A, where her husband is director of physical education.

Junior High East To Host District 4 Music Festival

Plymouth's Junior High East will host the 1963 District No. 4 junior high music festival this month, it has been announced.

With the program divided into two sections, Section I will meet Thursday, May 9, from 10-11:30 a.m., and Section II will be held Thursday, May 16, from 9:30 to 11:50 a.m.

William Grimmer, choral director at Junior High East, is chairman for the festival.

He said there will be 31 vocal groups from 13 schools participating.

Criticisms and ratings will be made. Maynard Klein of the music department of the University of Michigan will be the judge for Section I and Mrs. Iris Alexander, from Jackson, Mich., will be the judge for Section II.

The schools participating are: Plymouth Junior West; Vogel Junior High, Garden City; East Junior High, Ypsilanti; J. D. Pierce Junior High, Redford; Edmonson Junior High, Willow Run; Marshall Junior High, South Redford; Pearson Junior High, Redford Union; Marshall Junior High, Wayne; Plymouth Junior East; Charles E. Brake Junior High, Taylor Center; Riley Junior High, Detroit; and Lola Val-Je Junior High, Detroit.

Chips from the ROCK

Our story last week about old time band leader Anthony Whitmire brought back many memories to Plymouth Plating's Frank Henderson. Says Mr. Henderson, "I can remember vividly 50 years ago when Penniman Hall was located over Walter Schultz' Dodge Drug Store on Main street and all of Plymouth's society used to gather there on Saturday nights to dance to the music of his band."

The April 29th issue of Sports Illustrated magazine carried quite an article on Cass S. Hough and the Daisy Manufacturing Company. Author Joe Brown traced the company's history from its inception here in Plymouth, and many familiar names of former Plymouth residents appear throughout the pages.

It tells further of the company's fantastic growth and its widely expanded activities which now include manufacturing operations in both Germany and Japan, and has under its wing a new Japanese toy division, a boot manufacturing concern in Texas and a nationally known fishing equipment manufacturer.

Details of Col. Hough's war exploits and accomplishments in the field of aviation are also included. In fact the story is an excellent review of his personal ability and the company's accomplishment under his direction except for one minor omission. That happens to be, that there is no mention of me during those days being his airport hamburger runner, navigator, and baggage smasher while he was covering the country by air in his blue and yellow Waco aircraft, selling and formulating all the promotions mentioned in the article. I probably should also mention that if he holds the number one pilot's license in Michigan, as the article says, I should be credited with being his eyes for the hundreds of hours I scanned the skies while he was practicing blind flying during the day, and at night I suffered through hundreds of hours, wherever we were, listening to him practice on his accordion which he always carried in his plane. Did I say suffer? ... Not really.

Lovely Norma Cassidy joins our list of 30 year old merchants this month and we wish to congratulate her on the creditable addition she and her store have been to our business community.

It was my good fortune to be an advertising salesman for The Mail when Mr. and Mrs. Cassidy opened their first store here, as I remember, in the building now occupied by Red's Barber Shop on Penniman avenue. Because of their reception by the residents of our community they soon had to move next door. In the Stark Realty present location, to expand and make room for increased merchandise.

This they soon outgrew and were considering moving to their present corner location. I can remember encouraging them to make the move believing myself that they would double their business the first year if they did ... and, believe it or not, they did and have been growing and growing ever since.

Incidentally, that early location over on Penniman avenue has been good for another local enterprise because that's where I became the first local businessman to get acquainted with Jerry Pease when he was making repairs to the front door step prior to opening his flourishing paint and wall paper business in the same building.

We congratulate Mrs. Cassidy on her 30th year in business in Plymouth and wish for her a continuation of her success in the years ahead.

I've got news for Township attorney Earl Demel and Kenneth Burcaw out on Ridgewood. Workmen moving some trees from the back of Mr. Demel's farm behind our house flushed up a frisky young doe who apparently had taken shelter in the Demel evergreens.

My wife and I witnessed the flight of the young deer away from the trees and down our creek bed over to our lake and stand of evergreens beside it last Thursday morning. Why does this interest Mr. Burcaw? Only because the deer spent the rest of the day feasting in Mr. Burcaw's private asparagus patch down next to our trees.

Civic minded Harold Guenther alerted me to an article which appeared in the Detroit News recently concerning a warning given small-town merchants by economist Ross J. Wilhelm, of the University of Michigan.

The warning, which I felt was so important to this community, and other small town areas such as ours, that I am reprinting the entire News article as written by William Lutz in hopes every member of our business community will take time to read it in its entirety. No one will find the few minutes spared to read it wasted.

"Small-town merchants were advised yesterday to change their 'image' to meet the competition of distant discount houses and shopping centers, made easily available by freeways.

"By using the new freeways to shop elsewhere, rural residents are killing off the small agricultural towns where their families had shopped for generations.

"The small-town merchant to stay alive, must change the lack-luster picture he presents to his customers.

"Wilhelm told rural merchants they had to remember "it isn't where a customer buys that is important, but what he carries away.

"The heart of the problem can be found in the goods offered, the prices charged, the services rendered and, most of all, in how the customer feels about the shopkeeper" he said.

"People, in the main, are bargain hunters. The argument that small merchants cannot compete pricewise with discount houses and shopping centers is a weak one.

"It can be done with the proper wholesale associations.

"Rural people have always felt that, while the prices in their town were a little higher than they were in the cities, it wasn't worth the difference to travel to the city to buy.

"Expressways have changed this. The small-town merchant no longer has captive customers. He must meet the competition, which, for some, is a new and trying experience."

"Paint-up and clean-up campaigns, plus more parking spaces won't reverse the trend, Wilhelm emphasized.

"The problem is one of an image of a community being essentially noncompetitive, with inadequate offerings, and a dull place to visit," he said.

"Simple remedies won't affect a cure, he stated.

"They will be as futile as were the efforts of the buggy makers to make their buggies lighter, more comfortable and more durable as an answer to the automobile," he said.

"Retailers were told the responsibility to change is not a community one, but rests with each merchant.

"Small towns have the alternative of becoming shopping centers in the modern sense or of serving as complements of neighboring shopping centers.

"Becoming a shopping center, he declared, did not mean great expenditures had to be made on fancy store fronts or in creating malls, although each have their merits.

"THE IMAGE IS INSIDE THE STORE," HE WARNED.

"And often this is the last place the retailer may look to spot trouble."

Letters To The Editor

Mr. Sterling Eaton
 The Plymouth Mail
 Plymouth, Michigan

Dear Ster:
 Thank you for reminding me that my subscription to your fine weekly, The Plymouth Mail was about to lapse. No need to tell you, I'm sure, how I've enjoyed keeping in touch these past long months since I took up residence in my home state of Indiana. The Mail is still the finest weekly in America!

I've noted with special interest that "Progress" seems to be the word of the day in Plymouth, and the efforts of Harold Guenther, Frank Arlen, George Lawton, and others involved in the massive task of developing Plymouth industrially are to be enthusiastically lauded—even from Indiana!

Would you please relay my congratulations to the newly-elected Commissioners, and Dick Wernet, the new Mayor? They are all strong men of principle, and will do a strong job for Plymouth. Again, Ster, my thanks to you for YOUR efforts, and those of your staff, for making The Plymouth Mail such fine reading!

Sincerely Yours,
 R. R. "Dick" Papes

To the Editor
 The Plymouth Mail
 It is a safe assumption that the writer of a recent Detroit newspaper feature entitled:

"Plymouth, The City That Refused to Die" does not live in Plymouth, nor north nor east of it, either. If he did, he would know that Plymouth's reaction to the departure of its oldest industry was less a refusal to die than an insistence on its own choice of methods. Slow strangulation by the C. & O. is apparently OK.

The railroad's two main lines, blocking ingress from north and east, during a steadily-increasing proportion of each 24-hour period, are already preventing full realization of the city's potential, and making a mockery of its concern with such things as modernization and adequate parking, by sending residents of peripheral areas to Livonia and other shopping centers which can be reached without waiting for switching trains.

With the possible exception of Durand, which is a railroad town a y h o w, and largely lacking in Plymouth's attractive features, Plymouth is perhaps the most hopelessly railroad-ridden community in Michigan. "Hopelessly," because there appears to be so little prospect of relief.

Great praise is due the committee whose work has brought so many going concerns to town. But it is an ironic fact, nevertheless, that the more successful its efforts, — the greater the railborne volume of incoming raw materials and outgoing finished products — the worse the railroad nuisance will become. If the preliminaries looking to grade separation were started today, it would be at least two years and probably considerably longer before we could hope for relief. By that time, at the rate at which new industries are adopting Plymouth, crossings may be blocked the greater part of every day.

One obvious reason for the city's hesitation is no doubt the fact that it must bear most if not all of the cost of separating grades. Whether this is a situation which legislation could change, I do not know. If it is, and if the city has hung back out of consideration for the railroad, because of its passenger service, I suggest that the need for such qualms is past. It should be fairly obvious by now that passenger service is on the way out, to free up trackage for more profitable freight.

The remedy for Plymouth's most serious drawback is neither simple nor inexpensive. But grade separation at one or two points must eventually come, unless Plymouth is resigned to traffic jams even longer and more frequent than today's, and it won't be either less complex or less costly with the passage of time.

Meanwhile, I find myself wondering how Plymouth will feel about having shut its eyes to this hazard, the first time a really serious emergency occurs on the wrong side of the tracks at the wrong time.

NEWS & VIEWS from Lake Pointe Village

BY MARILYN O'NEIL

GL 3-0057

A P.T.A. project at Farrand School last Saturday morning found about 10 Lake Pointe fathers pitching in to dig holes for cement forms in the school's play ground. Eventually concrete slabs will be poured to provide a hopscotch area, jump-rope space and a basketball practice court. The men involved included P.T.A. president Chuck Childs, of Hammill Lane, along with Floyd Peterson (Greenbrook), Larry Barnes (Greenbriar), Don Dugger (Russel Lane), Donald McKinley (Hammill Lane) and school principal Gerald Elston (Clemmons Drive).

Still on the subject of Farrand School, 101 boys and girls have been enrolled in next fall's kindergarten class already, and it is expected that somewhere between 110 and 120 will be kindergartners when classes begin after summer vacation. Present kindergarten enrollment is 108.

Determined not to become "golf widows" this year are five Lake Pointe wives, who are among about two dozen Plymouth women learning the game at Hilltop Golf Club. Bright and early every Wednesday morning, you'll find Marge Lewko (Lakewood), Ruby Marshman (Lakewood), Barb Zart (Robinwood), Betty Moeen (Lakewood) and Ginny Feld (Shadywood) practicing the backswing, keeping their heads down, paying attention to "follow through" and probably searching for their golf balls in water hazards, rough and other fairways. Chris Burghardt (Shadywood Court) is Hilltop's pro and manager and will also strive to be a patient instructor for the girls.

Disappointed at having missed the recent Lake Pointe spring dance was Carol Chapman, of Oxford. It was rather understandable, though, why she didn't make it. She was in St. Mary Hospital undergoing minor surgery. Carol is home now and glad of it.

Bob and Judy Shuman, of Greenbrook, played bridge Saturday night with Roger and Marilyn Smith, of Livonia, but there's more to it than that. Roger was Bob's pledge marshal eight years ago at Ohio University's Theta Chi fraternity. They hadn't seen each other in several years until one day they happened to bump into each other in a store and were surprised that they now lived so close to each other. Needless to say, the old cliché, "It's a small world."

Lake Pointer Earl Gibson, of Oxford, will become principal of Bird School July 1. He has been the principal of Gallimore School since it opened in February, 1957. A graduate of the University of Toledo, Earl got his master's at MSU and has since completed further study at Eastern Michigan. Both he and his wife, Betty, are natives of Toledo. They have four children.

Two former Lake Pointers have come back to the fold. George and Barbara Hips have moved back into their Brentwood home from St. Joseph, Mich., where they lived while he was a pilot for RCA Whirlpool. George now is with Hawaiian Airlines. They have two youngsters, Ralph, 5, and Freda, 3. The couple's hobbies are intriguing. George, the pilot, likes guns and hunting. Barb, mother and housewife, loves to fly.

Karen McGeehen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert McGeehen, of Shadywood, has completed her first eight months of nurse's training at Harper Hospital in Detroit and last Monday night was one of 86 participating in capping exercises at the hospital. Karen is a 1962 graduate of Plymouth High.

The Lake Pointe youth group is planning a bowling party for a Friday evening later this month. Teen-agers from 14 to 18 who are interested in attending are asked to call Jeff Thomas (GL 3-5698) or Rick Baon (GL 3-9807) by May 13 so that a date may be established.

New Farrand School P.T.A. officers were elected recently and will assume their duties with the start of the 1963-64 school year. Jim Kratzer, of Shadywood, will succeed Charles Childs as president. Jean Dugger, of Russel Lane, is the new vice-president. Doris Gould, of Greenbriar, will be the new secretary. Dudley Maher, of Shadywood, will become treasurer. I'll try to introduce each of the new officers more fully in coming weeks.

It was a full house last weekend at the home of Harold and June Stevens, of Greenbriar. Visiting them from Buffalo were June's brother, Melvin Lobsinger, and his wife, Dolores, and their five children. The occasion was the first communion for Harold and June's son, Mark. The Lake Pointe couple has two other children.

Sam and Diane Stephens, of Farmbrook, returned home recently from Nashville, Tenn., where they visited Sam's mother, Mrs. Samuel Stephens Sr. Sam is a former advertising manager of The Plymouth Mail and is now employed by the D.P. Brother advertising agency in Detroit.

WITH PROCEEDS to help finance a number of school projects, the Farrand Elementary School P.T.A. will hold its "Flower and Fun Festival" Saturday, May 18, from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the school. Among the many items offered for sale will be a wide selection of flowers, plants and vegetables. The three co-chairmen of the affair are shown here. From left: Mrs. James McAllister, Mrs. Donald Dugger and Mrs. Fred Sigmon. In addition to the flowers, plants and vegetables, Farrand Cub Scouts will also sell fertilizer and various lawn products. The "festival" phase will feature pony rides (from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. only), a fish pond, a dig-for-gold game along with other games.

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

Who needs muscles?

Do you know how easy it is to take a corner with a Corvair or park one? Turn this newspaper sideways and it will give you a pretty good idea. The wheel handles just about that easily.

The Corvair's engine is in the rear, you see, for not only greater traction but more balanced weight distribution. And that's what makes the steering so completely effortless.

The engine is air cooled, too. No radiator. No water or antifreeze. No boiling over or freezing up to worry about. It takes the weather and the terrain as it comes.

Tennis Team Boasts 7-1 Mark

Bouyed by strong contributions from veteran players and the surprising surge of novice members, Plymouth's varsity tennis team marched to two victories in as many days last week.

The Rocks also absorbed their first defeat of the 1963 campaign. Calling on veterans and newcomers alike, coach Jim Doyle watched with pleasure as Plymouth submerged Walled Lake, 7-1, and Northville, 5-2, last Thursday and Friday. Earlier, Ypsilanti Roosevelt dealt the Rocks a 4-3 defeat.

John Stormont is one of the surprise packages on Doyle's varsity tennis roster. A team manager a year ago, Stormont has graduated into the player ranks this season and last week scored two points.

Veterans Jim Jensen, Linc Smith and Dave Tidwell did yeoman work as the Rocks completed a 4-1 record at the close of last week's action.

Stormont picked up one of his individual points in the Walled Lake clash as he scored a 7-5, 6-1 victory in singles play. Clark Raven, Doug Sutherland and Tim Wernette were the other victors for the Rocks in singles.

In doubles play, Jensen and Smith fashioned a solid 6-0, 6-0 win, and Jim Bruff and Bob Waters assembled a 6-1, 6-1 decision. Clint Blood and Tom Todd did almost as well as they won 6-1, 6-2.

By agreement of the two schools, the match was based on eight points, one more than the ordinary seven-point scoring system.

Northville was a more stubborn opponent. Dale Livingston dropped a singles match, but Tidwell and Raven scored handy victories. Sutherland bowed by a 7-9, 1-6 margin.

In doubles against Northville, the Rocks swept home. Jensen and Smith won handily, posting their 26th straight victory of the year. The doubles teams of Bob Waters and Jim Bruff and Robin Huxley and Stormont won easily, too. It was Stormont's second point.

Ypsilanti upset the Rocks by one point. Plymouth scored with Sutherland in one of the singles, and the brother combination of Phil and Robin Huxley won a doubles test as did the team of Jensen and Smith. Beyond that, however, it was all Ypsi.

The Rocks had three matches slated for this week. Allen Park was to visit Plymouth Tuesday, the Rocks were scheduled to journey to Trenton this afternoon (Wednesday) and Franklin is here tomorrow afternoon.

Sports IN AND AROUND PLYMOUTH

TENNIS COACH Jim Doyle appears dwarfed beside Bob Waters as the latter stretches high for a serve. Waters teamed with Jim Bruff last week to gain Plymouth two doubles victories; one against Walled Lake and the other against Northville. Rocks emerged victors in both meets.

DOUBLE PARTNERS on Plymouth's varsity tennis team are Linc Smith (left) and Jim Jensen, who thus far this season are unbeaten in 26 doubles matches. Smith lives at 700 Pacific and Jensen at 1482 Penniman. They were significant contributors in two tennis victories for the Rocks last week.

HAL KUISEL contributed a triple in Plymouth's 3-0 victory over Trenton here last week. He's shown here racing into third base.

'B' Softball League Underway Monday

Further modification of the rules governing a pitcher's motion and delivery will be about the only significant change when the class B men's recreation softball league opens its 1963 season here next Monday.

Eight teams have entered the league, according to supervisor Earl Gray, and the possibility exists that a ninth entry will be aboard when the opening day arrives.

"Opening day" is somewhat a misnomer, however, since the games actually will be played in the evenings behind the senior High, Gray explained.

A 12-week schedule whereby each team plays 14 games has been drawn up. Games will be played only on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday nights at 7 p.m. and 8:30 p.m., Gray said. There are no Friday night games this year, he added.

The modification of the pitching rules could wind up in a smaller version of the National League's many problems stemming from the controversial "balk" rule in that circuit.

The recreation league's rule book, in essence, describes the new pitching motion in this fashion: "Rules of regular softball will apply to the pitcher and his delivery and motion, except that no windmill or slingshot pitches will be permitted. Illegal pitches are described as those wherein the pitcher snaps the ball at the hip or leg. If a pitcher commits two illegal pitches in any one game, he will not be permitted to continue on the mound."

Gray said that the pitcher does not necessarily have to be removed from the game, but instead may be transferred to the outfield or infield, at the team manager's discretion.

Game umpires are expected to be referring to the modified rule with regularity during the first games of the new season.

The schedule of regular games ends Aug. 1, Gray said. It was expected that word on the possible ninth team would be received this week. Players on the ninth team had been unable to line up a sponsor as of last Sunday, the league supervisor explained.

The eight teams entered in the conference to date are: Bathey Local No. 102, Plymouth Plating, Vico Products, Tait's Cleaners, McAllister's Market, Men's Lutheran, Paragon of Novi and Evans Products.

Monday night's games will feature Bathey and Plymouth

Plymouth '9' Shares First Place

The Rocks came on strong last week to claim a pair of varsity baseball victories and retain their share of first place in the Suburban Six league.

Aided by a 3-0 win over Trenton, Plymouth started off this week with a 2-1 league mark, equalled by Belleville and Bentley.

Plymouth's other victory last week was a 10-7 affair that stretched 11 innings before Franklin High bowed. Tied 7-7 in the top of the 11th, the Rocks broke it wide open when Bob Gotro singled in two runs. It was his third hit of the day.

Hitting was Plymouth's strong point against Franklin. In addition to Gotro's contribution, the Rocks got support from Dick Schryer (two hits), Dick Egloff (a single and triple), and Cal Lubbrand (another triple).

Jim Edwards started on the mound for the Rocks and went four innings, giving way to John Daniel who, in turn, was relieved by John Smith in the sixth. Schryer came on in the 7th and Tom VanGlahm, a senior, took over in the eighth. VanGlahm emerged the winner.

The Rocks used 17 players in the Franklin clash. Against Trenton Thursday afternoon, Plymouth struck swiftly. Tom Lockwood opened the first inning with a single, advanced on Tom McGill's sacrifice and scored on Schryer's single.

In the fifth, McGill slammed a base-empty homer, his first of the year, to give Plymouth a 2-0 lead. It was also Plymouth's first home run of 1963.

The Rocks added one more run in the sixth when Pete Gustafson gained first base on an error and moved to second when McGill walked.

Again Schryer came through with a run-producing single. It ended the scoring. Schryer started as the pitcher for Plymouth but was troubled by a sore arm. He moved to the outfield and Edwards took over the mound duties in the third inning. He was awarded the victory.

Schryer gave up one hit and Edwards matched that allowance over the five-inning span that he worked. Trenton threatened in the fourth. With one out, a Trenton player smacked a long triple, but died on third base as Edwards retired the next two batters routinely.

Plymouth is now 3-1 for the season. Redford Union is here Thursday afternoon. The Rocks beat RU in the opener, 1-0.

Plymouth coach Mike Hoben is unsure as to how serious Schryer's sore pitching arm is. "A lot of our possibilities between now and the end of the season rest on how swiftly Schryer's arm responds to treatment," Hoben said.

Golfers Include 3 More Victims As List Grows

Riding the crest of one of their most successful seasons in several years, Plymouth's varsity golfers boosted their record to 7-1 last week and had three matches on tap for this week.

Victories over Wayne, Taylor Center and Brighton, coupled with a narrow loss to Dearborn, were the Rocks' most recent accomplishments prior to Monday's clash with Trenton there.

Other meets for Plymouth's golfers this week included a visit by Northville today (Wednesday) and another by Franklin tomorrow.

Two decisions last week came in the form of a triangular match between the Rocks, Dearborn and Brighton at the Burroughs Farms' course. Dearborn was low with 318, Plymouth came in second with 332 and Brighton trailed with 360.

Under the provisions of a three-way battle of this sort, Plymouth was credited with a dual-meet victory over Brighton and suffered a defeat at the hands of Dearborn.

It was an 18-hole match. Carl Zornow and Dave Wall led the Rocks as each posted 82 cards. Gerry Scott and Skip Ottwell tallied identical 84's. A fifth Plymouth player, Jim Mattison, had 91, but only the low four scores were counted and his total didn't figure in the standings.

Dearborn's Ted Kondrako had a 76 and was low for the match. Brighton's John Klages fired an 83.

Earlier in the week, Plymouth nipped Wayne at Braeburn. The score was 213-228. It was a five-man-per-school match.

Scott and Mattison had 41's, Ottwell posted a 42, Wall had 43 and Zornow a 46. Low man for the losers was Bill Atkins with 40. He was medalist for the match.

Taylor Center offered the Rocks little opposition as Plymouth scored a handy 165-194 victory. Scott fired a 39, Jeff Hoffman 41, Mattison 42, Wall 43, Joe Light 44 and Bob Beck posted a 53.

Only the low four scores for each school were figured for the final tally. Medalist for the losers was Joe Newell with a 44.

The Dearborn Invitationals on April 29 were rained out after the various schools entered had finished about half of the match. Plymouth was among the entries. No results were final and there is some question as to whether the meet will be completed at a later date or whether it is considered cancelled.

and added ample insurance by winning the mile relay and the 880-yard relay, concluding the event of the meet.

The Rocks wound up on the short end of a 60½ to 48½ decision.

Plymouth was scheduled to visit Northville Tuesday afternoon and Friday will host Belleville High as the 1963 track season fast draws to a close.

school record in the shot put with a toss of 53-feet-10, cracking his own former mark of 53-feet-6½ set earlier this spring.

Mark Fischer, a senior recently accepted to the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, set a personal high for himself in the pole vault as he cleared 11-feet for the first time.

Highfield won the 120-yard hurdles and finished second in the 180-yard lows, when Herb Park tied for third. Fischer and Steele finished two-three in the broad jump.

Gaffield won the 120-yard highs in 16.4 seconds and Bob Powell was second. Steele won the 100-yard dash in :10.4.

Redford Union swept the mile and both relays to emerge the victor.

Warn Plymouth Bowl On Liquor Violation

The Michigan Liquor Control Commission has issued a letter of warning to Plymouth Bowl, Inc., a bowling establishment on Plymouth Rd. here.

Owners of Plymouth Bowl were charged by the LCC for permitting a minor to consume an alcoholic beverage on the premises. A hearing was held in Lincoln Park last month.

Evangelist Series Slated For May 12-19

Plymouth Church of Christ has announced the dates of its first annual spring evangelistic effort to be held in the new church edifice at 9301 Sheldon Rd.

Charles A. Lucas, of Augusta, Ga., will be the visiting evangelist during the May 12-19 services. The Sunday meetings are at 10:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m., the church has announced, the weekday evangelist services will be at 7:30 p.m. each night.

Lucas is a native of Mobile, Ala., and attended Freed-Hardeman College and the University of Georgia. His evangelistic work has taken him into eight states and this will be his second visit to the Plymouth area.

He was guest evangelist here in 1960 in his previous visit.

Navy Seeking Recruits Here
The local U.S. Navy recruiter has announced that a need exists for qualified volunteers for the Navy. Interested young men and women, he said, may begin their basic recruit training this month and early in June.

The recruiter is located at Northville's Veterans' Memorial Hall, 100 W. Dunlap St., Northville. His hours are 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Applicants should be high school graduates. They must be in good physical condition.

The American farmer gets 38 cents of every $1 spent for food at the grocery, according to "Life" magazine.

Federal Grant To State Home

The Michigan Department of Mental Health, in cooperation with Plymouth State Home and Training School here, received a federal grant of $155,000 for a two-year project to try and determine factors which cause parents to seek commitment for their children.

It grew out of a study by the staff of the State Home & Training School who realized that large numbers of infants were being committed in spite of present day knowledge which bespeaks against this type of programming for the mentally retarded.

Declares Dividend

Packaging Corp. of America, which has a plant here on Sheldon Rd., has declared a quarterly dividend of 20 cents per common share. It is payable June 6 to stockholders of record May 15.

OBLIGING fellow Hi-Twelve club members were quick to agree with member Ken Harrison's directive recently when he asked that all prizes for last week's Ladies Night banquet be delivered to his house.

Harrison was the chairman of prizes for the event and he wanted to have all of them on hand.

JIM FRENCH and Walt Rensel, both club members, were all in favor of Harrison's request, particularly since their prize — so they said — was a load of black top soil.

At any rate, scant hours before the banquet was to take place, French (at right) and Rensel lured Harrison away from his home on Penniman and sneaked in with a truck of top soil, dumping the dirt in Harrison's back yard.

WHEN HARRISON, a local realtor returned home, he found (at left) the load of dirt in his yard with a sign sticking out of it. The sign read: "Hi-Twelve Ladies Nite 5th Prize."

He thought that dumping the dirt in his back yard was taking his request a bit too literally. He didn't object too strenuously, however. Instead, he made swift use of the top soil, spreading it carefully around his back yard to the benefit of his lawn. Meanwhile, French and Rensel had a good laugh, and then set out to get a substitute fifth prize for Ladies Night.

News from Jr. High East

The recently elected Sophomore class officers will be officially installed on May 13 at the Inauguration Assembly at the Senior High.

Mrs. Chris Witwer was pleased to have three of her cheerleaders make Junior Varsity at the recent Senior High try outs. They are Pam McAllister, Ruth Anne Fetter and Donna Cook.

The music department will be presenting its annual Spring Concert May 13 in the evening. Also two choral festivals will be held in the near future, one on May 9, and the other May 17.

Three girls received recognition for their essays in the Detroit News Essay Contest. They were Rowena Innes, Sherada Erdeli and Sue Davis, students of Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Geddes.

A special note of thanks to P.T.S.A. Parents for making the "Big Top Hop" a great success. The students really appreciated the originality and the efforts of the parents. Thank you.

Twelve Bowling Teams under the direction of Mr. William Grimmer are meeting Saturday mornings these days to plan their banquet for May 20.

'Mousetrap' Attracts 850

An estimated 850 persons attended the Plymouth Theater Guild's production of "Mousetrap," a murder mystery, presented last Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights at the senior high auditorium.

The play, an adaptation of a novel by Agatha Christie, was said to keep its audience spell-bound up to the final curtain. "Mousetrap," directed by Robert Wall, closed out the Theater Guild's 16th season.

PARENTS OF pupils at Bird Elementary School turned out in large numbers one night last week for the Bird School Hobby Display, comprised of numerous projects undertaken by the youngsters in past weeks. Among the boys on hand were the four shown here. From left: Kent Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Anderson, 11914 Amherst Ct.; Jim Bachelord, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bachelord, 1466 Penniman; Tom Jewell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Jewell, 287 Sunset; and Bruce Gould, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gould, 13925 Ridgewood. The first three had exhibits of their recent efforts. The Gould youth is a junior high student attending the display. An estimated 300 parents visited the hobby display during the course of the evening.

American Legion News

The local American Legion post will have a meeting Wednesday, May 15, to firm up final plans for Poppy Day which is Thursday, May 23. More volunteers for Poppy Day committees are needed. Contact Dr. Leo Speer if you wish to help. The post will be the site of a joint meeting Sunday, May 19, at 3 p.m.

Of course, the American Legion post home will be open to all after the Memorial Day parade, May 30.

A 17th District meeting is scheduled for Friday, May 10, at 8 p.m. at the Redford-Detroit Post, Grand River and Burt Rds.

The auxiliary will hold its regular business meeting May 22. It is a date change. Poppies will be passed out at the meeting.

Attending the past presidents' meeting April 29 at Gertrude Simonetti's home were: Phyllis Hewer, Maxine Kunz, Melva Gardner, Mildred Hewer, Emily Mosher and Fern Burleson. Guests included Armetta Nevins and Ellen Reed from the Redford-Detroit unit. Refreshments were served. The past presidents will hold a pot-luck June 3 at Phyllis Hewer's home.
