

PLEDGE PARKING LOT AND STREET CLOSING TO HELP PROMOTE PROPOSED DOWNTOWN SHOPPING CENTER

Reveal Plans For New Lake Site

Plans were revealed Wednesday night for a subdivision including 396 half-acre lots and a 120-acre artificial lake to be located in most of Plymouth Township's section 31. The plan involves rezoning from an agricultural classification. Subdivision plans were presented by Paul Boatman, representing the Ten Mile Lakes Building Company.

Township To Hold Hearings On Sheldon Road Rezoning

At a Wednesday meeting jammed with homeowners from Parklane Subdivision, township planners tabled a request for rezoning property at Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads, until public hearings have been held on an additional request to rezone the remainder of the property. The two requests, submitted by Plymouth builders and developers Stewart Oldford and Sons, would rezone the area at the northwest corner of Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads from an R-1-S classification to R-3, multiple family residential. The tabling action followed recommendations from W. C. Johnson of Waring and Johnson Planning Consultants and engineer Herald F. Hamill. Johnson suggested, in a letter to the planning commission, that a marketability survey of the project be completed in the light of multiple dwelling construction in the area. Hamill, in a letter to township supervisor Roy Lindsay, said an easement through the property should be acquired for extension of the 30" Byron Trunk Sanitary Sewer.

Plymouth City Commissioners took a major step forward at a committee of the whole meeting last Monday night in making way for a projected shopping center proposed in the center of the downtown business district. A group of local businessmen, Harold Guenther, City Commissioners James Houk and George Lawton together with Wendell Smith and Sterling Eaton have been working for several weeks with major shopping center developers in projecting plans for a downtown development. Either the area bounded by Harvey, Penniman and Main street back of the post office to the Presbyterian Church or the area across Main street bounded by Main, Penniman and Union streets have been selected as possible sites. The latter area encompassing the City's north central parking lot has found the most favor with the group and with the abandonment of Union street and inclusion of the lot into the plan about nine acres could be available for the center. Of particular interest to the City is the fact that the parking lot, under the proposed plan, would again be placed back on the tax rolls as a revenue producer and maintenance cost would be eliminated from City expenditures. At the request of City Commissioner George Lawton members of the City Commission at the Monday meeting went on record as favoring the development and pledged their co-operation in making available the lot for parking purposes and the closing of a portion of Union street if the plan can be developed. Developers are projecting a shopping center about the size of the Cherry Hill shopping development providing a site for a major department store, food outlet and some 25 other retail outlets. Proposed cost of the development would approximate $1,750,000. Local planners are convinced the future expansion of Plymouth's business community depends on some such development to widen the scope of the downtown section and alleviate the threat of a border development on the outskirts such as are springing up in other communities. The Main, Penniman and Union street area seems most likely as the suitable spot for the development because of the existing parking lot which would provide a broad base of area already under development for the eventual purpose it would be needed for in a shopping center. Other local areas were surveyed by developers but in each instance they returned to this particular area as their first choice. The fact that the City would be able to route south bound Main street traffic on the new access around the new City hall to provide better traffic flow and exposure for the development was another factor favoring this particular site. Further exposure could be obtained for the center by removal of the three houses between the Library and the Plymouth Mail and possible removal of the Masonic Temple would also open the south end of the center to the downtown section. Proposals for the development are now being formulated by shopping center developers and concrete plans may be forthcoming within the next few weeks. The first major hurdle for such an undertaking was the gaining of co-operation of the City Commission in making the north central parking lot available, the re-routing of a north access road and the possible closing of Union street to make that entire area available for the development. According to Commissioner Lawton, who made the proposal to the Commission, the first and major obstacle to be encountered has been overcome and the City fathers have promised complete co-operation in bringing the shopping area into a reality. Though the plans are far from complete the center would most appropriately follow Plymouth's Colonial theme in design and support covered, heated and air-conditioned malls with the most modern facilities being included to interest shoppers in the downtown areas, the developers say.

Will Area Building Boom Stop Pay As You Go School Financing Policy?

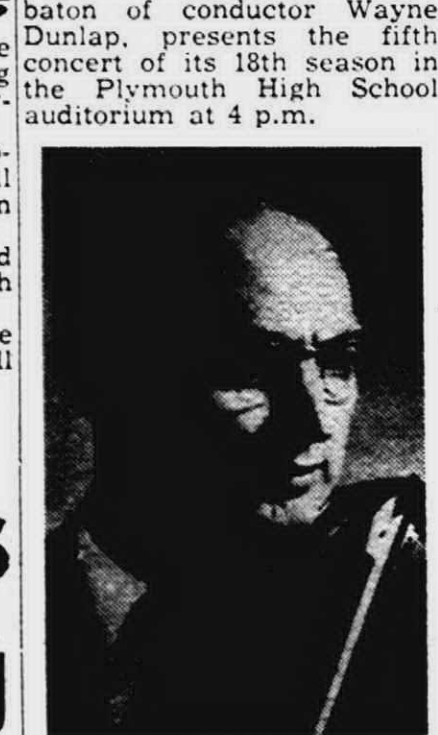

"You will not want to miss the section on the building and site sinking fund. It is one good way to permit us to save as we build by paying as the buildings go up. Over the years it saves you hundreds of thousands of dollars in interest costs and gives flexibility to our building program." The Plymouth Community Schools Report December 1963

A building boom has hit the Plymouth Community. Quietly and with little fanfare, plans have been made, applications submitted and approved and, in some cases, construction has been started and nears completion. Involved are more than 1,000 dwelling units in the immediate Plymouth

Community and others, though outside, still within the limits of the 45 square-mile Plymouth School District. Many of these may be completed and occupied before the end of 1964. Included are apartment units and single family dwellings reported in last week's Plymouth Mail and now under construction and other developments currently before the governmental bodies of the City of Plymouth and Plymouth and Canton Townships. Has the mushrooming expansion caught the Plymouth School District off guard? This is the question raised by some of the members of the school board's vocational education committee. Projected enrollment figures for the school district, as of Jan. 2, 1964, indicate an expected student population of 5990 for the year 1964-65 an increase of 340 over this year. School officials emphasize that the figures are fluid, and subject to upward revision. Last week, in a meeting of the school board's vocational education committee, members of that committee argued the concept of "pay as you go" mill-

Eminent Concertmaster To Solo Here Sunday

An eminent violinist and concertmaster will solo with the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra Sunday when the 100-piece orchestra, under the baton of conductor Wayne Dunlap, presents the fifth concert of its 18th season in the Plymouth High School auditorium at 4 p.m.

Prof. Millard Taylor

AT THE age of 25, he was chosen by Hans Kindler to be Concertmaster of the National Symphony in Washington. During a six-year association with the National Symphony, Taylor participated in performances under many conductors and with most of the famous vocal and instrumental soloists of the present day. He also appeared successfully as soloist with the orchestra under conductors Kindler, Antal Dorati, Rudolph Ganz, Reginald Steward and others. In 1944, he left Washington to become Concertmaster of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra and the Eastman Rochester Orchestra for recordings under the baton of Dr. Howard Hanson, and to join the artist faculty of the Eastman School of Music. As Professor of violin, he has students in important teaching and playing positions. (Continued on Page 8)

Two Attend Governor's Hearing

Two City of Plymouth representatives attended Governor Romney's hearing on municipal government and its needs, held last Friday in Lansing. City Manager Albert Glassford and Commissioner George Lawton both attended the conference which covered the State's position on consolidation and annexation by municipalities, county home rule, the relationship of the State and city governments regarding tax valuations and equality and the Detroit income tax. Lawton said Romney expressed concern for an effort to work out what he termed "youth problems" in the State. More than 100 persons attended from cities throughout Michigan. Taylor graduated with honors from the Eastman school

Start Action On Fall Festival Proposals

The Plymouth Rotary Club swung into action last week to implement the recommendations of the Chamber of Commerce Fall Festival Steering Committee by naming a nominating group to choose 15 or 20 candidates for a nine-member executive committee to hold sway over the annual Plymouth Fall Festival. The Rotary Board will pick the nine-member committee from candidates named by the nominating group, according to Rotary President Robert Beyer. The Fall Festival Steering Committee was named by the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce at the request of Margaret Wilson and James Thornton, co-chairmen of last year's festival. Its membership included City Manager Albert Glassford, Township Clerk John D. McEwen, attorney Edward F. Draugelis, George Lawton, John Herb, Harold Guenther, Hal Young, Wendell Smith, Mrs. Ray Hulce, Miss Margaret Wilson and James Thornton. INCLUDED in the steering committee's recommendations were festival objectives which are to spread the story of the good will and friendly atmosphere of the Plymouth Community and to make all have a feeling that this is their hometown, to promote the civic, cultural and business climate of the community and to make all feel welcome. To achieve these objectives, the committee recommended maintenance and expansion of the festival's "Turn of the Century" theme. In addition to the nine-member executive committee to be appointed by Plymouth Rotary, the steering committee called for an advisory committee comprised of the chairman of each event in the Fall Festival. The advisory committee would allocate space, time and event requirements with the executive committee and would advise and assist the executive committee. The steering committee urged the following action be taken after acceptance of its plan by Rotary and the Chamber of Commerce: (1) The entire format be submitted to each participating organization together with a resolution supporting the newly organized format and directive organization for official acceptance and support. (2) That the governing bodies of the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township adopt resolutions accepting the Fall Festival executive committee and pre-

Better Pay Those Taxes

Taxpayers in the Plymouth Community who haven't paid up better do so before next Saturday. That's the word from city treasurer Kenneth Way and Plymouth Township treasurer Elizabeth Holmes. Beginning March 1, all taxes must be paid to the Wayne Co. treasurer, Louis Funk, at 208 City-County Building, Detroit. City taxpayers, who have been paying the four per cent late payment penalty, will be charged an additional one half per cent per month after Mar. 1, for a total of four and a half per cent. Township residents have been paying no penalty thus far. But, they, too, will be assessed four and a half per cent after the first of March. Tax collections in both the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township had reached the 97 per cent mark last week.

Kiwanians Hear Speaker Mark Brotherhood Week Observance

Program Chairman for the evening Jim McKeon introduced guest speaker Ed Jones, Vice-President of the Michigan Bank. Jones spoke on the subject of "Brotherhood." Brotherhood Week officially started in 1929 and ever since has been honored during the week of Washington's Birthday.

Jones said there are two kinds of people — those we know well enough to love and those we do not know. The emphasis of all people should be on confidence, not conquest, a kinship with each other. Family ties are very important. He said: "Many of us look upon nature, the world around us, as evidence of God; however, I believe that Man is God's greatest miracle. Man is a duality, an animal with intelligence, the ability to think and reason. Man cannot artificially create life. Man and animals have a common beginning in a single cell, yet each produces its own kind by cell division. Our blood stream is the greatest transportation system in the world. It delivers food where needed and removes waste from the various organs. Our nervous system is a dual system. The motor system makes it possible to move our arms or any other motion. The sensory system makes it possible to feel when we get near a hot stove or cold water. Our organs are the greatest chemical factory in the world, creating the proper chemical compound, such as bile, adrenalin, thyroid, to name only a few.

"A creator of the heavens, yes, but the human body more so. We are not an it or thing. We should respect love and honor one another. The sad part of our world is man's inhumanity to man.

Speaker Deals With Prejudice At Assembly

After disclaiming his ability to talk on "The Nature of Prejudice" because he was not a sociologist, Dr. Leonard W. Moss dealt neatly and decisively with prejudice in his lecture here last week by examining man in strictly anthropological detail.

Dr. Moss is Chairman of the Sociology and Anthropology Department at Wayne State University. His lecture was one of a series being presented by the Plymouth Community Human Relations Assembly.

Speaking from an anthropologist's view, Dr. Moss said the so-called "racial characteristics" are the soft tissue of the species, those parts which it is impossible to reconstruct from observation of the skeletal structure. So that it would be impossible to tell from a jawbone, a skull cap or other bony parts — whether the man's skin had been black or white.

The word "race" is used anthropologically to define certain genetic characteristics, or what Dr. Moss termed "a commonality of genes in a given population."

He also pointed out that when interbreeding is restricted, either physically or socially, certain of these genetic characteristics are perpetuated.

The anthropologist can measure about 270 different genetic characteristics of which color of skin is but one.

Dr. Moss emphasized the fact that the darkest skin color has been found in the Australoids who are Caucasoid, not Negroid, and that the Hindi of India, who are also Caucasoid, have darker skin than the North American Negro.

In discussing the fact that the concept of race is no basis for predicting behavior of capabilities, Dr. Moss illustrated the point with this information: The crime rate of the Negro is a socio-economic factor. If the lower-class Negro is factored out of the crime rate, one finds the middle-class Negro has a lower crime rate than his white counterpart; he also values education more than his white counterpart. So that one might say the middle-class Negro is more middle-class than the middle-class white.

Dr. Moss summed up his remarks by stating that there is nothing available to the anthropologist which suggests that one race of human species is superior to another. Any obvious differences are sociologically or environmentally induced.

An important meeting of the Plymouth Community Human Relations Assembly will be held this Sunday, March 1, at 8:00 o'clock in the evening. Members of the Assembly will meet in the auditorium of the First Methodist Church to discuss guidelines for the future of the Assembly.

DON'S IS MOVING

FOR THE FIRST TIME in 53 years Harry Mumby, of Sheridan Ave., heard the voices of three of his sisters who live in Nottingham, England, when they phoned him recently, just to say hello. Mumby, shown here with his wife, moved to Plymouth 53 years ago from Nottingham, and his only contact with his family since that time has been letter-writing. In addition to the three sisters who called him — Mrs. Jack Mann, Mrs. Harry Smith, and Mrs. Ethel Pickel — he has a sister who lives in Leeds and two brothers in Nottingham. The call lasted a very short four minutes. Mumby said.

Appoint Man To Food For Peace Council

The appointment of Arnold Kehrl, 1045 Sutherland Ave., to the Michigan Food for Peace Council's Advisory board was made by Mayor Richard H. Wernette, at the city commission meeting, Feb. 17.

Kehrl, according to Wernette, will act as contact person within the community to carry advice and counsel to the council from interested individuals and groups and also to carry information from the council to local groups and public information media.

The purposes of the Michigan Food for Peace organization include providing advice and counsel to government agencies charged with carrying out the work and keeping the people of Michigan informed about the vital role United States agriculture, particularly Michigan farmers, are playing in feeding the world's starving people.

Gov. George Romney, honorary chairman of the Michigan Food for Peace Council, Inc., requested Mayor Wernette, as well as all Michigan mayors, to make the appointment. Sanford A. Brown, Michigan Treasurer, is president of the council, associated with the American Food for Peace Council.

The Michigan council is made up of leading Michigan business, farms, labor, religious, educational and social organizations.

BEHIND THE FINE PRINT

EARL MERRIMAN

One reader recently wrote and asked "What is this term — Major Medical — and how does it work? In very simple terms, this coverage is a catastrophic policy.

The need for major medical insurance is startling. Like most other commodities, the present cost of hospital and medical services and supplies are substantial and steadily rising.

Basic hospitalization coverage, now carried in some form by better than half of the persons in the United States, helps to offset a portion of these expenses created by a minor or average accident or illness. It is excellent coverage for which it was designed, but the indisputable fact remains that it does not, and cannot, afford maximum protection when the really serious accident or illness steps in to deal a crushing blow to a family's financial well-being.

There is a job to be done in the area of these high cost disabilities. Major Medical insurance will do this job, as coverage may be purchased in $5,000 to $20,000 limits. This is an involved subject, so call us if there are questions concerning this coverage.

Another reader asks, "I just recently retired and would like to buy a hospitalization policy since the group coverage does not apply anymore. Is there a policy available?" Yes, The Senior Adult Hospital Expense policy is designed to cover in this situation. For example, the minimum policy for Hospital & Surgical costs $26.17 quarterly for husband and wife between ages 65-69. Call GL 3-6000 for more detailed information.

LOOKING FOR spare parts for your space vehicle? You might check Plymouth Iron and Metal. They just got this old Redstone Missile last week. The 46-foot long, 3,500 pound missile section was lifted off a railroad car at the scrap yard located at 40251 Schoolcraft Thursday. Above, 21-year-old Sanford Seskin, son of owner Jack Seskin, checks out the missile shortly after its arrival. Purchased from the government, the rocket will be dismantled for its rare and exotic metals. Composed of 22 various metals and alloys, the huge, multi-million-dollar missile was built at Chrysler Corporation's 16 Mile Rd. and Van Dyke plant. Extraordinary procedures will be used to dismantle the hulk, Seskin said. A regular cutting torch won't develop enough heat to eat through the high heat resistant alloys in the rocket. An arc welder will be used to disintegrate it. Seskin said some of the rarer metals in the missile will probably find their way back into the government's space program. Others will probably be used in the auto industry.

Woman Hurt In Trash Can Explosion

A Plymouth woman was injured Saturday afternoon after a trash container in which she was burning rubbish exploded, spreading debris over a wide area.

Plymouth firemen said Mrs. Helen Schoof of 402 N. Harvey suffered a broken arm, apparently after she was hit by an object thrown by the explosion.

The impact ripped apart a 15-gallon garbage can and catapulted debris across the alley and over a garage into the back yard of a house on Adams Street.

Deputy Fire Chief Charles Groth said the explosion could have been caused by a number of items, including a sealed tin can, a bottle with a screw type top or a discarded aerosol can.

He issued warning against throwing any type of closed container into a barrel for burning.

He noted that had Mrs. Schoof been struck in the face or head by the object, she may have suffered more serious injury.

Investigation into the matter continues.

SEARCHING for the article which caused the explosion that broke a Plymouth woman's arm Saturday afternoon is Fire Department Lieutenant Paul Sanders. The explosion in a burning trash barrel injured Mrs. Helen Schoof of 402 N. Harvey. The force ripped apart a 15-gallon garbage can (left center) and scattered debris over a wide area.

Here Comes The Rust

Plymouth housewives may look forward to an unusual amount of rust in city water from midnight Wednesday to sometime Friday morning, according to Superintendent of Public Works Joseph Bida.

Bida said more than four million gallons of water are expected to be pumped during the 24-hour period. He said the pumping operations are expected to agitate water in the system, resulting in rust from household taps.

Mayor, Others to Attend Municipal League Meet

Discussions of problems of the aged and home rule government for counties are program topics for the Annual Regional Meeting of Region III of the Michigan Municipal League at Allen Park on Feb. 27, 1964. Expected to attend from Plymouth are Mayor Richard Wernette, City Manager Albert Glassford, commissioners James Houk, James Jabara, Arch Vallier and some department heads.

Program for Region-III will open with a session on "Municipal Services for the Aged," in which a panel will describe the ways in which communities are meeting the challenge of providing such special services as housing and recreation facilities and programs for the growing group of aged persons and retirees.

The second part of the afternoon program will be devoted to a consideration of the implications and potential effects on cities and villages of "County Home Rule" as provided by the new Michigan Constitution.

At the dinner meeting, Robert E. Fryer, Director of Michigan Municipal League, will report on the League's 1964 legislative program; and the meeting will conclude with the annual election of Regional Officers for 1964-65.

Present Region III officers are Richard H. Wernette, Mayor, Plymouth; Jay J. Herkimer, Mayor, Belleville; and Ralph C. Cunningham, City Councilman, Allen Park. Regional Officers serve as liaison between League headquarters and its Regional member municipalities and play a great part in helping member officials realize and make use of League services.

Representing 426 member cities and villages in Michigan, the Michigan Municipal League serves to unite members in collectively striving for home rule and to promote high standards of municipal government.

JayCee President Smith Will Spearhead Development Group

Legal steps are underway to formulate a Retail Economic Development Corporation under the direction of the local Junior Chamber of Commerce, spearheaded by Jaycee President Wendell Smith the organization is being formed with the help of the present Industrial Development Corporation officers and members.

Purpose of the new corporation will be to provide a fund which can be used for developing new retail businesses in the community. Patterned after the Industrial Corporation it will be founded on a much wider base with participation being solicited throughout the community rather than having only a few basic contributors to provide the financial support it will need.

In discussing the needs of such a corporation, City Commissioner, George Lawton, one of the founding fathers,

Officials Hear Dulles, Rusk Speak

Three officials of the Plymouth Community School district and their wives attended the 100th anniversary meeting of the American Association of School Administrators in Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 15-19. There were 25,000 persons attending the convention.

Russell Isbister, superintendent of schools, and his wife were in Atlantic City for the entire convention and Gerald Fischer, president of the school board, and his wife and Robert Utter, vice president of the board, and his wife attended part of the meeting.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, in his speech to the convention, called for education on elements of good citizenship and government and world affairs. He stressed teaching the "enduring values of the American system."

There is a great opportunity to exploit the differences between the democratic and Communist systems through education, Allen Dulles, former CIA director, author and lawyer, told the association.

Dulles said that education can be used as a means of defense against Communism and suggested a stepped-up program teaching about Communism and comparison of the two systems in the schools.

A DISPLAY on basic mineral characteristics has been set up in the Dunning-Hough Library in Plymouth by William J. Micol of 15410 Marilyn. Micol, a 26-year-old Evans Products employee, has had minerals on display at the library before. He and his wife, Dorothy, are "rock hounds," spending their spare time in quarries, mines, beaches and on construction sites where they are apt to find rock specimens. Micol has been interested in the hobby for about four years. He erected the display, he said, to keep interest alive in earth sciences and nature among school children. While his past displays at the library have been more advanced, this one is basic. It gives the physical aspects of minerals and their means of identification. Above, Micol indicates "streaking," one of the identification methods used.

at 47660 Ann Arbor Road from R-1-E to C-2 was denied. Commissioners denied the request on three main points.

It would create a traffic hazard, it would constitute spot zoning and because the owner has failed to live up to past promises to the commission.

An application for rezoning the Herman-Birkelaw property on Plymouth Road from C-2, commercial to R-3, multiple family residential was accepted and set for hearing Mar. 18.

THE AMENDED ordinance establishing R-2A Garden Apartment Residential Districts, provisions and requirements was accepted for public hearing on Mar. 18.

A request from Stewart Oldford and Sons for permission to build on property located at 47100 Betty Hill Road was denied by the commission unanimously.

The Oldford firm was granted a building permit for construction in the southwest one quarter of section 36, property adjoining Salem Square Subdivision.

A petition from the J.A.R. Corporation of Detroit to rezone 43.24 acres on the east side of Beck Road between Joy Road and Woodlore Subdivision from R-1-E, country estates district, to R-1-S, suburban residential district, was accepted for further study.

An application to rezone 8.91 acres in the southwest quarter of section 34 from R-1 to C-2 for the purpose of building a shopping center was accepted for study and processing.

George M. Rubin of Detroit told commissioners he intended to develop stores, including a drug store, supermarket and gas station at the site at the southwest corner of Ann Arbor and Sheldon Roads.

Though not on the agenda, Paul Boatman, representing the Ten Mile Lakes Building Company, presented a proposal for a subdivision including 396 one half acre lots with a 120 acre artificial lake to be located in most of section 31 of Plymouth Township.

Boatman presented a layout of the property involved and an application for rezoning. The property is presently zoned agricultural.

Chairman Irving Rozia announced a special meeting of the planning commission to be held Wednesday, Feb. 26 at the township hall at 7:30 p.m. The meeting will be held to clear the agenda of pending items.

A rise in taxes seems inevitable, he said, especially for schools. Lindsay predicted that schools will double in size in the next few years, something the school district does not see by 1970, according to its projected figures.

"You're going to see a tremendous difference in the next five years," Lindsay concluded.

That difference seems to include 1,000 new homes, and more than 1,000 new students within the year.

FIRST order of business for the executive committee after its appointment will be to secure financing for the event and to select a goal toward which full festival profits will be directed.

The goal will be a major community project. The committee, as appointed by Rotary, will include three members to serve three years, three members to serve two years and three members to serve one year.

Thereafter, each set of new members will serve a full three-year term.

Each year, three new members of the executive committee will be elected in the month following the annual fall festival by a committee composed of the Mayor of the City of Plymouth, the Township Supervisor and the President of each participating organization in the Fall Festival.

The election committee will be supplied a slate of candidates not less than six in number to fill the three vacancies. The candidates will be named by the executive committee and presented for election within 60 days after the Fall Festival at which time the executive committee will report the results of the previous Fall Festival.

Can Transfer Credits From Schoolcraft

Plymouthites entering Schoolcraft College in August 1964 can do so in complete confidence that their credits will be transferable to four-year colleges and universities. While it is not possible for a college to be accredited until it is in operation, letters received by Dr. Eric J. Bradner, President, give definite assurance to students who are wondering about transferability of credits. From the Ann Arbor Campus of the University of Michigan comes the following letter:

"We want to assure you that qualified students from Schoolcraft College will be granted admission to the University of Michigan with full credit for the appropriate courses they have taken with you. Students who enroll with you can do so in the expectation that their credits earned at Schoolcraft will transfer to similar curriculums at the University of Michigan."

The Director of the Dearborn Campus of the University of Michigan wrote:

"I look forward to the opportunity to accept qualified students from Schoolcraft College on the Dearborn Campus of The University of Michigan."

Similar assurance comes from Michigan State University:

"We shall anticipate the transfer of qualified students from Schoolcraft College to Michigan State University. Students admitted from Schoolcraft Community College will be granted full credit for appropriate courses satisfactorily completed."

"Your intensive efforts to establish similar curriculums to those offered at Michigan State University will be of great service to students and will enable them to transfer in a most efficient manner."

Students who hope to transfer to Wayne State University will be interested in the statement from the Admissions Office of that University:

"I wish to take this opportunity to assure you that Wayne State University will accept transfer credit from Schoolcraft Community College providing that grades of 'C' or above are received in the courses to be transferred and providing further, the courses are appropriate to the student's program."

Eastern Michigan University also has expressed its willingness to accept Schoolcraft College students: "Eastern Michigan University will admit all qualified Schoolcraft College transfers and award full credit for all college level work completed."

GERALEE JEAN REHBEIN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rehbein, of Fullerton, Calif., formerly of Plymouth, married George Howard McMillen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. McMillen, of Long Beach, Calif., on Feb. 14 in Fullerton, Calif.

Geralee J. Rehbein, George N. McMillen Marry in California

Geralee Jean Rehbein became the bride of George Howard McMillen in a candlelight service at the Lutheran Church of Our Saviour, Fullerton, Calif., on Feb. 14.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a satin gown with a boat neckline and applied with alencon lace down the center of the sheath. Her full detachable chapel-length train fell gracefully from the back-dropped waistline. Her satin pillbox headpiece was trimmed in tiny seed pearls and caught in an imported illusion French net veil which fell elbow length. Her bouquet was a white orchid centered with feathery carnations and white daisies with yellow centers.

Kathy Rehbein attended her sister as maid-of-honor. She wore a floor-length yellow tulle-over-taffeta gown with a bell skirt and boat neckline. Her flowers were a nosegay of white daisies with yellow centers.

The groom's niece, Linda McMillen was flower girl. She wore a short yellow dress with daisies and yellow streamers for her headpiece.

She carried a white basket with daisies. Alan McMillen, of Anaheim, Calif., was best man for his brother.

Ushers were Richard Montgomery, of Long Beach, Calif., and Donald Montgomery, of Long Beach, Calif.

The bride's mother wore a pink lace two-piece dress and pink feathered pill box hat. The groom's mother wore a blue lace dress with bone accessories.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Rehbein of Fullerton, Calif.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl M. McMillen, of Long Beach, Calif.

A reception followed at Los Lomas Verdes Club, Fullerton.

For her going-away costume the bride chose a "string" colored two piece suit, trimmed in blonde mink with matching accessories and the orchid from her bouquet.

Following a honeymoon in Hawaii, the couple will live in Garden Grove, Calif.

The bride is a 1960 graduate of Plymouth High School and attended Western Michigan University and Fullerton Junior College.

Hauser Replaces Burke As Town Hall Faces Another Schedule Change

Plagued with last minute cancellations, Northville Town Hall Series once again felt the impact of frustration and confusion when the word was received last Wednesday morning that Dr. Albert Burke was ill with laryngitis and would be unable to fulfill his speaking commitment at Town Hall last Thursday.

Substituting for Dr. Burke was Dr. Gaylord Hauser, author on health and beauty, who when not recounting his many personal attributes and promoting his books, offered some helpful hints on physical fitness and personal appearance.

He emphasized the importance of protein in the diet and the harm eating greasy, fatty, and starchy foods and urged women to combine tender loving care with tender lean cooking.

Personal beauty tips suggested by Hauser included using a vinegar or lemon juice rinse, as it is most beneficial for the scalp; getting plenty of rest and relaxation; and giving your face a "steam facial" frequently.

For the steam facial he suggested putting a 1/2 tea-

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

MRS. ROBERT PROCTOR, 43735 Shearer Dr., mixes up her special "Sour Cream Red Devil's Food Cake." Her two children, Greg (left) and Cathy (center), are showing intense interest in the proceedings, probably hoping to get to "lick the beaters" after their mother finishes.

"No one can fail," with this recipe for a chocolate sour cream cake, Mrs. Robert Proctor, 43735 Shearer Dr., exclaimed. She has been making the cake since she was a young girl. Men especially enjoy the cake because it is so rich and full of chocolate, she said.

The recipe shows Mrs. Proctor's ingenuity — it is a combination of a recipe her aunt gave her and innovations she has made herself. She explained she replaced chocolate squares with cocoa and milk with sour cream. The recipe can be altered further by adding nuts or coconut.

A lovely large tree branch painted white with artificial flowers on it gives Mrs. Proctor's house a feeling of "spring in the air" and indicates her creativity.

Besides taking an active part in Business and Professional Women's activities, Mrs. Proctor figures out forms for them and is an avid reader and book collector. She also drew the floor plans for her house and she enjoys flower arranging.

Taking care of her two small children, three year old Cathy and four year old Greg, also adds to her busy schedule.

SOUR CREAM RED DEVIL'S FOOD CAKE
Mix in order as follows:
1/2 cup Wesson oil
2 cups sugar
2 eggs
4 Tbl. Hershey's cocoa
Cream together well; and then add
1/2 cup sour cream
2 1/2 cups flour (unsifted)
dash salt
1 tsp. vanilla
Stir well; then dissolve
2 tsp. baking soda in
1 cup boiling water
Add to cake batter and stir until all ingredients are mixed well. Pour into greased and floured cake pans. Bake in 350 degree oven 35-40 minutes or until done. Frost with favorite chocolate frosting.

Salem Singer Bids for Fame; To Tour With Big Name Band

It was less than three short years ago when Barbara Lewis, of Salem, then 18, sent a tape recording of several songs written by her to former disc jockey Ollie McLaughlin who had just become a music publisher, just for "the heck of it."

Little did she realize, or even dream, that this would be the beginning of a singing and music writing career.

McLaughlin, now her manager, liked her songs, and liked her voice. The same day she was to take an entrance examination for registered nurse schooling in Ann Arbor, she found herself auditioning.

This was the entrance into a new life for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lewis of 7500 W. Six Mile Rd., and cousin of Sheldon Brooks, writer of "Some of These Days," and "Dark Town Strutters Ball," whom she has never met, and hopes to one day.

Less than a year after graduation from South Lyon High School in 1961, she recorded her first record, "My Heart Went Do Dat Da," a single under the Atlantic Label.

This song, and 11 other tunes written by her, were recorded in album form, "Hello Stranger," by Atlantic in 1963.

Writing songs since the age of nine, Barbara's greatest hit to date is the title song of the album, "Hello Stranger," which reached second place nationally and has been made a standard. The song has been recorded in Italian by her, and is to be released as an instrumental soon by Riley Hampton.

Other tunes on the album include "Puppy Love," which like "Hello Stranger," is available in sheet music form; "Love is Like a Castle," which she sang in a talent show at South Lyon High School high school and placed second; and "Longest Night of the Year," which she wrote at the age of 13.

Her newest releases out are a single, "Straighten Up Your Heart," written by a 14-year-old Detroit girl, which has been selected as a "Pick Hit," by all the music publishing trade magazines, and the album "Snap Your Fingers."

"Barbara Lewis Sings the Great Soul Tunes," which includes such favorites as "Snap Your Fingers," "What'd I Say," "Twist and Shout," "Baby, Work Out," "Shame, Shame," and "Please, Please."

Although a relative newcomer to the business, the Salem singer is seemingly fast on her way to reaching her ultimate goal of obtaining the level of success held by Ella Fitzgerald and Billy Holiday, two of her favorite female singers.

Following another recording date in Chicago on March 27, she will fly to northern Michigan for a one night stand and then on to Atlanta, Ga., for a week's club date, prior to a three week personal appearance tour in the southern states.

Although the southern tour will be her second, she is first as a member of the Dick Clark tour during the past three years she has had many night club engagements, including the Apollo Club in New York, and a series of one-night stands in Florida, Pennsylvania, New York, Illinois, Kentucky, the Carolinas, and others.

And her plans for the future? Well, hard work, more recordings, more personal appearances and more tours, including one with Count Basie, Dizzy Gillespie and Stan Getz, and an eight-week tour of the Caribbean, scheduled for the near future.

Plymouth Grange held Open House Thursday evening, Feb. 20. Members, their friends and invited guests, were entertained by Lawrence Livingston and a group of about 25 young people from the Plymouth Schools Music Department. It was an hour of delightful entertainment presented in the "Lawrence Week" style, and we are most grateful to Mr. Livingston and his fine group of young people for the time spent in preparation and presentation of this fine program which was so greatly enjoyed by about 100 members and their friends. Following the program the Home Economics Committee served a lunch of scalatin salad, crackers, tea or coffee.

Time is drawing near for the Grange Rummage Sale to be held at our hall at 273 S. Union Street on Friday and Saturday, March 6 and 7. This is a two day sale and will need many usable items to make this sale a success. What can you contribute? Please bring your usable discarded to the next Grange meeting, Thursday evening, March 5, or call Rummage Sale chairman, Louise Gillis at GL 3-3113 for pick-up.

Dr. Ralph Pine will have charge of the program for the March 5 meeting. Dr. Pine is Health Chairman for Plymouth Grange and his program will be a timely one. Those having March Birthdays will want to be present at the Birthday Table at our Pot-luck supper on March 5, at 6:30 p.m.

Remember our Bazaar coming up for next Fall. Now is the time to collect ideas and to make aprons, fancy work and novelties. Let's put away some of those items before we become interested in Spring cleaning.

Sam Spicer is still in St. Joseph hospital in Ann Arbor, where his condition remains about the same.

Chips from the ROCK

Our friendly little neighbor on the north, the City of Northville, has been beset of late with man-sized headaches. Its very capable mayor, A. M. Allen, is in the middle of a sizable mess of his own, much less having to worry about the training of a complete new fire department, (which incidentally Plymouth has done), because the former firemen all resigned in a body. This came about when City fathers attempted to replace their fire chief with a director of public safety.

This same discontent is now finding its way into the police department with the latest episode resulting in the resignation of a well respected 12 year police veteran. Who's next seems to be the question?

The mayor's personal trouble came about when he purchased a brand spanking new home only to find it was just across city limits and in order to occupy it he had to resign. Co-operation from Northville township officials in letting that small area be annexed to the City wasn't forthcoming so he, up to this minute, can't move.

The latest major catastrophe is the fact that Northville's famous old spring is running dry and this famous watering place faces extermination.

Needless to say any and all of the above topics would have provided sufficient material for the former national comic strip, "THE NEBB'S OF NORTHVILLE", for many months to come, if it still existed.

I mention this comic trip because of Northville's appeal for help in determining the source of the water for their spring. Certainly Northville oldtimers or Northville Record files will reveal which Detroit paper carried the Nebb comic strip which at many times contained factual information about the then Village of Northville. In fact, Northville's postmaster at that time, Frank S. Neal, was included in the strip as frequently as was Northville's famous spring.

If memory serves me correctly, between 30 and 40 years ago, there were many articles written about the spring in the Record and, without doubt, it might be entirely possible to trace the actual water source from some of these articles, particularly in view of the fact that the first real public notice of this natural asset was brought into focus by this comic strip.

Mr. Sliger, (Northville Record publisher), you might have the answer to this latest headache right inside your own back door.

And, while thinking of Northville, a 108 page edition of Pompano Beach, Florida's Sun-Sentinel, brought us news of a Northville resident who spent most of his youth in Plymouth and operated several business ventures here some 20 years ago.

The special edition of the paper is dedicated to the opening of Florida's first harness race track, Pompano Park, at Pompano Beach, a long time dream of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Van Lennep, masters at Castleton Farm at Lexington, Kentucky, and nearby Wolverine Raceway in Livonia.

For eight years the Van Lenneps have worked to legalize harness racing in Florida and as long as six years ago I was their guest at an exhibition of harness racing at an improvised track on their present site. The eight story club house and the grounds represent a $5,500,000 investment today and provides employment for some 1,500 people during the 45 day racing season.

As is the Wolverine Raceway in Livonia, Pompano Park, too, will be under the sole direction of Plymouth's Orlov Owen who now resides on a farm between here and Northville.

In his early Plymouth days, Mr. Owen was associated with Paul Hayward in Hayward's Mens Store in the P and A theater building. During this time he and his wife, Tecla, operated the Tecla Shop, a ladies lingerie emporium in the Mayflower Hotel.

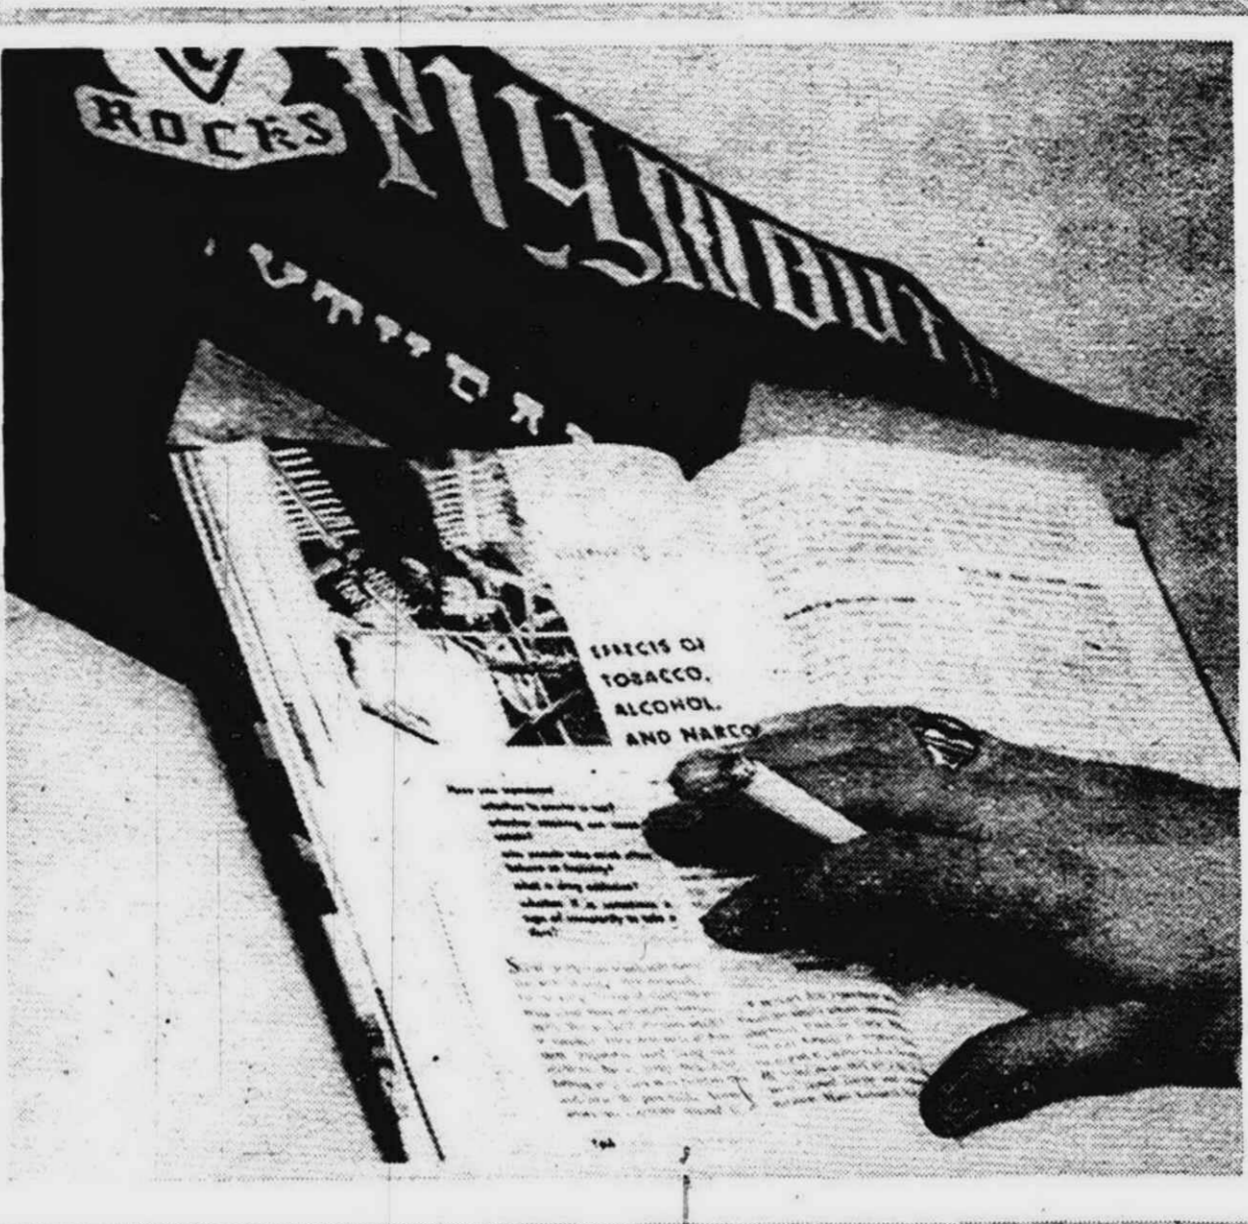

In the late twenties he opened the Ken and Ork hamburger stand which remained in operation, though he had sold his interest, until it was removed along with other buildings on Penniman avenue to make way for the new First Federal building just a couple of years ago.

After disposing of his interest in Ken and Orks he joined the newly opened Northville Downs as an announcer and from there his racing interests grew and he made great strides in the racing fields with experience at Maywood Park, near Chicago, and Marion, near Cleveland.

A genial sort of a guy who smiles, acts and handles a cigar better than his double, George Burns, Mr. Owen now has moved into one of the most important, year around positions in the racing field, and we are proud to salute this former Plymouthite on his accomplishment.

This proud father of a quartet of children and a triple grandfather, is a devout follower of songstress Roberta Sherwood, and one of Michigan's most influential forces with members of Michigan's Legislature in addition to his racing avocation, yet, if you visit Pompano Park this year, he'll have all the time you need to make you feel right at home in his newest enterprise. Give him a ring, you won't be sorry.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

To the Editor:
 This is the first letter that I have written to the newspaper, and I will say that it is a letter of appreciation for the community of Plymouth and the Plymouth area. I think that this place and its citizens are tops. My family and I have lived here for about nine years now, and we find that for a town of our size, the opportunities and organizations are really remarkable.

First of all, I'm impressed because the schools and school system are outstanding. The service clubs, and community spirit and press are good. The culture and recreational opportunities, such as the library, the Symphony, the Theatre Guild, are really great. There always seems to be something interesting going on.

The latest development that especially pleases me about our town is the lecture series by the Plymouth Community Human Relations Assembly, specifically the lecture by Dr. Moss on the subject of prejudice and race relations that I found so stimulating.

The fact that we live in a town where people band together to form a club like this that is interested in social issues and the best ways to solve human relations problems; and that our local government is alert enough to the moral and social issues of the day to organize an official commission to work on these problems — these are some of the things that make me feel kind of warm and good about our town, and prompt me to write this fan letter to Plymouth.

Yours truly,
 S. S. Blackman
EDITOR'S NOTE: By way of clarification, the Plymouth Human Relations Commission is an official group set up by the City of Plymouth to study the subject of human relations in this area. The Human Relations Assembly has no official status and includes citizens interested in learning about and discussing human relations and the civil rights movement on both a nationwide and local basis.

Dear Mr. Eaton:
 At our Vestry Meeting in January we were discussing all the help your publication gives us and other churches and organizations in the community in the way of announcements and publicity concerning our activities and projects.

We realized that we have never really extended proper thanks for all this help. Consequently we decided it was time we remedied our past failures in this regard.

I'm sure all concerned sincerely appreciate your fine service. We recognize the value of these services to our church, and would like to extend our thanks to you for all your cheerful help.

Thank you very much.
 Sincerely,
 The Vestry of St. John's Episcopal Church

To The Editor:
 The only benefit which this taxpayer has ever knowingly received from the long-unused Byron Street water tower was during student pilot training recently, when we used to glance down at it occasionally and use it as a turn point of reference while practicing those landings and take-offs from nearby Mettetal Airport.

So the thought occurs that maybe we (the city) should be thinking in terms of giving away the tank to whomever will remove it, rather than continuing efforts toward a sale, which have been unsuccessful. Annual maintenance cost is considerable. And certainly no one in that area of beautiful homes would object to the change of view.

Does this make sense to anyone else?

Dear Editor,
 As General Chairman of the recent Junior Achievement Week, I wish to take this opportunity of thanking you for your backing and support of this enterprising organization.

Junior Achievement deeply appreciates, as do I, your invaluable news and public service support of a refreshing business program for teenagers.

It is because of your continued support that Junior Achievement has been able to maintain an effective relationship with the community at large.

Thank you again for helping to make Junior Achievement Week a most successful affair.

Sincerely,
 Russell B. Robins
 Chairman JA Week

Dear Editor:
 I saw in the Feb. 11 Plymouth Mail the write up about saving old Grist Mills in Mich. At Parshalville, northwest of Ann Arbor, Mich., there is one and also one at Atlas, Mich., a watermill. The best way from Plymouth is to take the Dixie Highway to Grand Blanc and watch for Atlas Rd. and follow it. It is about 8 miles from Flint. There are some in the thumb area around Caro.

The Juvenile Decency Department

With the daily press devoting countless inches of news space to juvenile delinquency and teen-age thuggery, it's refreshing to hear an accolade directed at the much-maligned younger generation.

During Plymouth High School's International Relations Class trip to New York City, one of the group's chaperones — John Haas of Plymouth — was talking to the sales manager of Manhattan's Lexington Hotel.

The hotel executive, Walt Harrell, said the hotel has had its problems with teen-agers. Among other things, kids have destroyed and stolen hotel equipment and furnishings.

However, the sales manager continued, The Lexington has never had any trouble with students from Plymouth.

As a result, the young Plymouthites, are one of only two high school groups in the nation permitted to stay at the midtown hotel.

Plymouth Mail staffer, Mrs. Carl Hartwick, who also accompanied the class on its trip, reported a similar bouquet from the management of Mamma Leone's, a well-known Gotham restaurant. Plymouth students have been eating at Mamma Leone's for the past five years and are always welcome, she was told.

The Plymouth Mail takes this opportunity to stick its editorial thumbs in its lapels and smile with pride at the local high schoolers.

We think the international relations class, its instructor Miss Gertrude Fiegel and, most important, the parents of the students, deserve a pat on the back.

We nominate them charter members of Plymouth's J.D. group: Juvenile Decency, that is.

Varsity Tankers Drop Belleville, Lose to State Swimming Power

The Rock Varsity swimming team met with defeat for the second time of the season out to one of the top two swimming powers in the state.

Saturday Plymouth journeyed to Royal Oak Kimbell High School after defeating Belleville on Thursday evening, 75-30, only to be sunk by Kimbell by an almost identical score, 73-32.

Coach John McFall said that Kimbell had some very fast times and that his swimmers, in spite of the fact they were up against a strong team, turned in some good times but couldn't match Royal Oak's team strength.

Dan Olson was the Rocks only winner as he took the back stroke.

DICK BERRY was the top point getter as he finished second in both the 100 and 50 yard free style dashes.

Other point getters were Jim Norman, Jeff Hoffman, Burt Quinn, John Herter, Jim Beglinger, George Collins, Dan Decker and Dave Agnew.

Plymouth's medley and free style relay teams both finished second.

It was a different story Thursday night when the Rocks overpowered the Tigers from Belleville. Plymouth only allowed Belleville two first places and two second places as they raced past the hapless Belleville squad.

CO-CAPTAIN Jim Beglinger provided the Rocks with a scoring punch by winning both the individual medley and the butterfly.

Other winners were co-captain Tom Blunk in the 200 yard free style, Dick Berry in the 50 yard free style, Burt Quinn in the diving, Jim Norman in the 100 yard free style, Dan Olson in the back stroke, Doug Breed in the 400 yard free style and the medley relay team of Olson, Rick Malbeouf, Dave Agnew and Mike Drennan.

This week the tankers finish up the regular season by meeting Bentley, Thursday night, and Thurston, Saturday night.

Plymouth Dumps Tigers, 59-47, Will Meet League Leaders Friday

A last quarter spurt by the Rock varsity cagers proved to be the deciding factor in last Friday's game at Belleville as Plymouth dumped in 23 points to come from behind and win 59-47.

Belleville seemed to be heading for its second victory of the year all through the first three periods because of the 15-9 lead the Tigers took in the first quarter and their 26-23 lead at half time, coupled with the 2 point advantage they had going into the last period. But then the roof fell

Auto-Crat Heads Men's Cage League

Dave Racer and Dan Strick of Auto-Crat Mfgs. combined to score 43 points, which was more than the total points scored by their opponents, Cloverdale. This high scoring effort plus the fact that Cloverdale was way off their usual game gave Auto-Crat its seventh win against no defeats to stay on top of the Men's Recreation League.

Most of Cloverdale's scoring came from Ken Knipschild who scored 15. The final score of the game was 61-41 with Auto-Crat getting 34 of its points in the first half as opposed to Cloverdale's 16.

Sharrard - Jarvis had little trouble with the Jay-Cee team after they ran up a 31-13 lead in the first half of their game last Wednesday. There was little doubt who would win after that and Sharrard-Jarvis went on to victory 58-30.

Dick Pearup and Ray O'Toole led the victors with 16 and 12 points, respectively.

The Jay-Cees were led by Steve Jewell with 9 points and Dan Rowland with 6.

in as the Rocks began to bomb away.

CAPTAIN Cal Luibrand led the fourth quarter attack with 7 points followed by Dick Egloff with 6, Gary Grady with 5, John Hannula with 3 and John Daniel with 2.

While the Rocks piled up the 23 points, Belleville was only able to come up with 11 which spelled sure defeat for the Tigers.

An interesting side light was brought out by coach Charlie Ketterer about the appearance of John Hannula, who has been the main stay for the JayVees all season. It started two weeks ago when senior guard Doug Sathendland sprained his ankle and has been unable to play the last two games. Last week Jerry Kisabeth, senior guard, was laid up in bed with strep throat and Friday, junior guard Roy Chappell was lost when he moved to a different school. This left Ketterer with only three experienced guards, so, on the way to Belleville, Hannula was promoted to the varsity squad and did very well during his appearances on the court.

Plymouth was very effective from the foul line against the Tigers as they hit on 17 of 26 free throw attempts. This is a considerable improvement over their previous foul shooting averages and helped the Rocks to their fourth league victory.

The Rocks weren't potent from the floor but did manage to dump in 21 field goals to Belleville's 20 to win the edge in this department.

Another contributing factor to Plymouth's win was that the Rocks were able to out-rebound Belleville 40-22 with Luibrand the out-standing rebounder as he pulled down 12.

THE TIGERS gave Plymouth a bit of trouble in the first quarter when they employed a zone press which has hampered the Rocks in the past. The press enabled Belleville to take a 15 to 9 lead in the first period but the Rocks settled down and overcame the press which caused Belleville to drop it during the second half.

Dick Egloff was scoring leader by piling up 16 points. He was helped out by Dave Hollingsworth who had 11 and Gary Grady with 10.

This week the Rocks will get their biggest test of the season when they square off with league-leading Bentley who again have the services of big 6' 7" Bill Bohn. The game will be played at Plymouth and will be the last game of the regular season.

JayVee Swimmers Dunk Franklin

The Reserve Tankers had little difficulty with the Franklin swimmers last Wednesday afternoon as they swamped them 68-33.

Plymouth started off on the wrong foot with a disqualification in the medley relay but rebounded quickly to win every race after that.

Jeff Gustafson and Chuck Olson were both double winners with Gustafson turning in his best time of the year in the individual medley. His time was 2:43.7.

Other best times were turned in by Gary Bohl in the 50 yard free style, Tom Bordine in the 200 yard free style, Bob Wolfram in the butterfly, and Dick Wolfram in the back stroke.

The 200 yard free style relay team also posted their fastest time with a mark of 1:50.6. The team is made up of Bob Shirey, Bob Wolfram, Pat Brady, and Russ Crosby. This victory gave Plymouth an 8 won and 1 loss record for the year.

This Wednesday the JayVee swimmers will host Bentley in what should be one of the best meets of the year as Bentley has improved considerably since the Junior Rocks defeated them 62-43.

Junior High Cagers Defeat Nankin Mills

The freshmen and eight grade teams scored wins over Nankin Mills last Friday afternoon in two high scoring contests. The frosh won with ease while the eighth graders had to come from behind to win in an overtime.

The ninth graders went into a 7 point lead in the first quarter and were never threatened after. At the half the freshmen had built up a 25-13 lead and began substituting in the early part of the second half.

The substitutes played well enough to stretch out the Rockets lead to 42-17. The last quarter the frosh slowed down but played well enough to win 52-32.

The eighth graders came from behind to win their game in overtime, 42-38. Plymouth trailed all the way through the game until the last minute of play when they tied the game at 34-34.

Plymouth's main trouble was Nankin Mill's tall center who was three inches taller than the tallest eighth grader Plymouth had. He scored 16 points in the first half to keep the game under control for Nankin Mills but only scored 2 points in the rest of the game as Plymouth went into a zone defense to keep the big center away from the basket.

In the overtime, crucial points were scored by Ken Olds, Steve Johnson and Russ Carlson to give the Junior Rockets their well deserved victory.

Balanced scoring was Plymouth's key to success as five players contributed to the main scoring. Russ Carlson was high with 10 points followed by Jeff Adams, Larry Olson and Ken Olds with 7 points. Steve Johnson was close behind with 6.

The Junior High teams play their last game of the season with Cherry Hill at Cherry Hill.

Hawks Win, Face Heilman

The Plymouth Juvenile Blackhawks won their first league playoff victory by defeating Livonia in a sudden death overtime, 3-2.

Skip Otwell scored the winning goal just as he did last year when the Hawks were in an identical situation with the same team during the same play-offs.

Otwell also was top scorer with two goals while Terry Cosgrove scored one.

Dennis Tonkovich and Dave Troutman were the goalies for the Hawks.

Monday night the Blackhawks played Detroit Heilman in the State Play-offs and will meet a team on Wednesday in Garden City to determine if they will go into the league finals.

Junior Varsity Cagers Whip Belleville, 55-35

The Rock JayVee cagers overcame a full court press out by Belleville then with a second period burst went ahead to stay and brought home their eleventh victory by a score of 55-35.

Plymouth sprang to an early 8-0 lead only to have the Tiger JayVees come back and tie the ball game up a minute later. But from that point on it was Plymouth all the way. The Junior Rocks went into a 14-10 lead at the end of the first quarter and were never behind from then on. At half time the score was 20-14 and Plymouth continued to lead 10-26 at the start of the last period.

Accuracy from the free throw line helped the winning cause as the JayVees hit on 25 for 37 foul shots while Belleville only made 9 for 20. To show how important this is, coach Dick Bearup pointed out that Plymouth only scored two more field goals than Belleville.

The Rocks played very well even though their spark plug and play maker John Hannula was promoted to the Varsity.

Jim Bruff and Don Stammer were the scoring leaders for the victorious JayVees with 15 and 12 points, respectively. To balance out Plymouth's scoring were six other players who scored from 4-6 points.

The well earned victory brought the Junior Varsity record up to 11 wins and 3 losses.

The Rocks will host the Bentley team who has not lost a game since Plymouth's double overtime victory, Jan. 24. The game will start at 6:30 Friday evening.

Bentley Wins, Owns Top Spot

Bentley won the showdown at Allen Park by defeating the Jaguars, 74-63, and is now on top in the Suburban Six cage race.

Allen Park's only hope is for Plymouth to knock off Bentley which would drop them into a tie for first place.

Redford Union moved into third place by smothering Trenton 95-76.

Plymouth's 59-47 win over Belleville brought them into a fourth place tie with Trenton and pushed Belleville leeper into last place.

Egloff All-American

Further honors have been bestowed upon Plymouth's All-State end, Dick Egloff.

Last week, word was received from the Coaches and Athletes Magazine in Georgia that Egloff had been awarded an honorable mention on their All-American team.

The magazine chooses two teams from the best high school players in the country and sponsors a game between the two. Although boys chosen for honorable mention do not play in the game it still counts out the fact that Egloff's All-State honor was well deserved.

As a side light Randy Egloff, Dick's older brother, was also selected on this All-American team.

The Egloff brothers are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Arlan Egloff of 336 Adams St., Plymouth.

Walker Cisler, with Miss Marilyn Ayler of his staff, reviews some of the many letters received in response to the series of messages of which this is the concluding one.

To the Families Whose Homes are Served by EDISON

I've been writing periodically over the past several months to tell you something about Detroit Edison—to outline some of its principles and policies; to remind you of the services offered you; to reiterate our earnest desire to act in the best interest of you and our other customers throughout Southeastern Michigan.

To those of you who have written in response to one or another of my letters, I am especially appreciative. Your comments have been most helpful. If you have a question in the future about the company or any of our programs, always feel free to contact my office directly, or any of the 78 Edison customer offices in the area we serve.

We have great faith in our state's future and pledge that we will do our share to assure that future. We're happy to be a part of the busy Michigan scene.

It has been pleasant for me to have had this opportunity to communicate with you and to tell you how the Detroit Edison system serves you.

Annual Dinner For Salvation Army Planned

Plans are complete for the annual dinner meeting of the Salvation Army advisory board, to be held at Lofy's Arbor Lill on Monday, Mar. 9 at 7 p.m., according to announcement made this week by Brigadier Ernest V. Hammer, Salvation Army commander.

Speaker for the evening will be Commissioner Samuel Hepburn, territorial commander for The Salvation Army in 11 central states, with headquarters in Chicago.

A climax to the Salvation Army year in the community, the meeting will include reports of the past year's activities.

Commissioner Hepburn is among the most outstanding of the Army's leaders and speakers.

To furnish music for entertainment of guests of The Salvation Army Advisory Board will be an Ensemble from the Flint Citadel Band, one of the most highly acclaimed Salvation Army Bands in the country.

Tickets for this Dinner are now on sale by all members of the Salvation Army Advisory Board, at Willoughby's Shoe Store and at The Salvation Army Office, 290 Fairground St. Your ticket may be reserved by calling GL 3-5464.

He is a graduate of Moody Bible Institute in Chicago and Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti. His own family expect to return to Congo following a year's furlough in the United States.

Also scheduled to speak at the conference is Dr. Dwight Slater, who has served as a medical missionary in two different African countries.

Dr. Slater will speak on Monday, March 2 at 7:30 p.m. Congo was the first country in which Dr. Slater used his surgical skill to help meet Africans' physical needs. However, in 1961, political chaos forced the doctor to leave the Kivu province of the Congo.

From there he went to the Ivory Coast to reopen a hospital that had been closed because of lack of personnel.

'64 CHEVROLET-The great highway performer

Foreground: Chevrolet Impala Sport Coupe Background: Chevrolet Impala Station Wagon with roof luggage carrier*

Feels like somebody put a runway where the road should be!

With engines up to a 425-hp V8* and its luxurious Jet-smooth ride, you may not notice where air travel leaves off and a Chevrolet Impala begins. Take-offs are smooth and effortless. Hills seem flat as prairies. A big coil spring at each wheel and over 700 sound deadeners throughout the body and chassis make you feel you're hardly on the ground at all. You'll find all kinds of jet-age luxury inside an Impala's big, roomy Body by Fisher, too. Wide deep-cushioned seats, tailored with rich-looking fabrics and vinyls. Thick wall-to-wall carpeting. Soft background music from an AM-FM radio*, if you like. You can even get an automatic pilot (we call it a "speed and cruise control") that lets you log mile after turnpike mile without touching the accelerator. And all in all, it's sky-high living at down-to-earth prices. And who but your Chevrolet dealer can offer a way to go quite like that? *Optional at extra cost.
