

Expansion Announced at Evans

What They Said Officials Praise Evans Move

Gratification was expressed today by officials of both Plymouth Township and the City of Plymouth at the announcement of the $1.5 million expansion project by Evans Products Company. Lavish in their praise of the firm's decision to expand here, this is what the officials said:

"I want to see them get started right away quick." — Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay.

"I think it's wonderful. I think it's going to be a stimulant to the area." — Township Treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes.

"I think it's only the beginning of terrific growth in the Plymouth Township area. With the large amount of industrial land along the railroad and the installation of sewer and water, we expect a tremendous increase." — Township Clerk John D. McEwen.

"I'm 100 per cent for it for two reasons. First, it will increase the school tax base and, second, it will provide additional jobs for the area. I feel, even though Evans Products is located in the township, the expansion will indirectly benefit the city." — Plymouth Mayor Richard H. Wernette.

"Based on the caliber of the men that represent Evans, it's rewarding to know that they have enough faith in the future of the community to choose it for an expansion program which means so much to the well-being of the area." — City Commissioner George Lawton.

POINTING OUT the location of the 60,000 square-foot addition to the Plymouth transportation equipment division plant of Evans Products Co. is Vice President and General Manager James J. Conway, left. Looking on is Vice President of Manufacturing Operations George M. Scheuder of Northville, Conway, a resident of Grosse Pointe, is planning a move to the Plymouth Community. The addition to the plant will be built behind the existing building, between Evans and the Whitman-Barnes property.

$1.5 Million Program May Mean 200 New Employees

A gigantic $1.5 million expansion program that may provide as many as 200 new jobs for the Plymouth Community was announced this week by Evans Products Company for its main transportation equipment manufacturing plant located here.

The new program, scheduled for completion this fall, will add 60,000 square feet of new plant space to the 500,000 already in operation on the firm's 115-acre Plymouth tract.

It will also include rearrangement of existing facilities to handle greater volume of present product lines and newly developed a m a g e prevention devices.

The announcement coincided with a board of directors declaration of a quarterly cash dividend of 10 cents per share payable

May 25 to stockholders of record May 14.

NEW production capacity will accommodate manufacture of Evans' DF-C coil car and other specialty railway cars utilizing Evans devices, according to James J. Conway, vice president and general manager of the firm's transportation equipment manufacturing division.

In addition, car repairs and car renovation and conversion work will be programmed at the new facility. Although it is the leading designer and manufacturer of specialized railroad damage prevention equipment, the company has not previously manufactured complete specialty cars employing its own equipment, Conway noted.

Concurrently, it was announced here that 200 of the new DF-C cars have

Nelson Raps LBJ Report, But Starkweather Writes

Commenting on reports that he thinks he has better than an even chance to arrange a visit of President Lyndon B. Johnson to Plymouth during Michigan Week, local Michigan Week Chairman William J. Nelson this week discounted the tale.

It would be presumptuous for anyone to think he had a 50-50 chance of getting the President's consent for a visit, Nelson said. He repeated what he told a Plymouth Mail reporter two weeks ago when he received a letter of refusal from the White House.

Appoint Smith Michigan Week Vice-Chairman

The appointment of Wendell Smith, Plymouth Jaycee president, as vice chairman of Michigan Week in Plymouth, was announced this week by chairman William J. Nelson.

Previous engagements, the letter said, preclude the possibility of the President visiting Plymouth during Michigan Week. However, Nelson noted, the letter arrived before the President's visit to the University of Michigan for commencement exercises was announced.

Johnson is scheduled to be in Ann Arbor on Friday, May 22 at 10 a.m.

AT ANY rate, another resident, life-long Plymouthite Karl Starkweather, took matters into his own hands and drafted a personal letter to the President. Starkweather wrote:

"... Nearing completion, is the new, colonial design, half-million dollar City Hall. Dedication ceremonies are to take place there sometime Friday afternoon, May 22.

"Holy Old Mackinaw! That's the same day when you are scheduled to be in Ann Arbor..."

"BUT THAT will be in the morning. We'll not be having our fun until several hours later. With a police escort, you could get here in from 15 to 20 minutes. And it would be a darned shame if you couldn't be here to highlight the dedication ceremonies..."

"So come on, Mr. President. (Continued on Page 8)

AT MUSIC FESTIVAL:

Junior High Band, Orchestra Rated I

The City of Plymouth assumed a gay, almost carnival atmosphere Saturday as swarms of brightly clad, junior high school musicians came to town for the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association's State Festival.

IN THE sight reading competition, the students were given music completely unfamiliar to them and required to play it for judges.

The Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association (M.S.B.O.A.) had its inception in the experimental organization of a district in the state in 1933-34. The organization of the district was brought on by the closing of the office of State Supervisor of Music Education.

Experimental organization of the district was so successful that preliminary organization of M.S.B.O.A. was undertaken during 1934-35. Formal organization and adoption of the state constitution took place during the school year 1935-36.

THE PRIMARY objectives of the Association are the development of and furthering of high standards in instrumental music in the public schools of the state. Other schools and their ratings in Saturday's competition were: Class C: Dundee, II; Mt. Clemens Seminole, I; Monroe Lincoln, III; North Branch, I; and Vassar, II.

Plymouth led all others in the Class AA junior high competition. Others included East Detroit Grant, II; East Detroit Oakwood, II; and Midland Northeast, II.

Midland Central and South Redford Marshall were rated I among class A junior high bands. Others were Jackson East, II; Bridgeport, III; Clawson, II; St. Clair Shores Ottawa, II; Warren Fuhrmann, II; and South Redford John D. Pierce, II.

In Class AA junior high orchestra competition, Plymouth and Midland Northeast were both rated I. Warren Fuhrmann was rated II. The Saturday competition marked the first time Plymouth Junior High Orchestra has been awarded a I rating.

Smith's comments prompted a series of questions from commissioner James Houk.

He claimed the water quality would not improve, the city would be unable to serve a larger area and the new reservoir and distribution improvements would be of little value in securing Detroit water.

SMITH attacked the proposed programs, saying he would hesitate to ask his constituents to spend money on improvements to the present water system.

Directed at Hampton, Hampton told the commission the new system, while not increasing the city's capacity to pump water into town would give stand-by facilities and increase storage. The amount of water available to the city in a day's time would be increased from about 4.5 million gallons to between six and seven million gallons.

Hampton's declaration came at what was scheduled to be a routine meeting, called to authorize bid advertisements for the city's proposed water projects.

It came in the wake of an abrupt about face by city commissioner Robert Smith who voted no on the motion to advertise for bids.

would turn out water of better quality than Detroit's.

Included, he said, would be facilities to maintain the water at a constant pressure.

Purchase of Detroit water, Hampton pointed out, would cost the city at least $70,000 more per year than the cost of operating the present water system.

Operating costs on the processing plant, including personnel and chemical supplies, would amount to about $25,000 per year. The engineering firm's figures, he said, are presently being refined.

UNDER a 20-year bond issue program, Hampton said, cost of the processing plant could be set at approximately $30,000 to $35,000 per year.

Mrs. Hulsing Won't Try for Re-Election

In a surprise move Monday, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, three-term member of the Plymouth Community School District Board of Education, told The Plymouth Mail she has decided not to run for re-election in the June school election.

Asked if her decision was final, Mrs. Hulsing said she was reasonably certain she would not run. She said she felt there was no scarcity in the community of persons qualified to serve on the board.

"I regret giving it up," Mrs. Hulsing commented. "It's been tremendously interesting and challenging." Chairman of the board's curriculum review subcommittee, Mrs. Hulsing was one of two members whose term expires this year.

THE OTHER is school board president Gerald Fischer, who has not indicated whether he will try for another term or not. Out of town, Fischer was unavailable for comment when The Mail tried to contact him.

Superintendent of Schools Russell Ishler said no petitions for the two positions on the board have been filed. The deadline is Saturday, May 9.

Petitions must bear a minimum of 50 names of qualified electors of the school district.

Explain College Election Request

More than 300 persons, including applicants and relatives, turned out last week for the first five evening meetings at Plymouth High School where Schoolcraft College officials explained the college program.

The request which will be made of voters at an election on June 9 was outlined by Schoolcraft President Dr. Eric J. Bradner as he detailed the developing needs of the school.

Lois L. Waterman presented an over-all picture of the college curriculum and answered questions about courses, tuition, grading, transportation, scholarships and employment.

Other faculty members taking part in the program included Edward McNally, assistant dean of student affairs; Mrs. Harriet Sattig, director of nursing education; and James Dotseth, director of technical education.

Dr. Horton Southworth and Dr. Duane Triplett of Michigan State University explained the education intern program in which Schoolcraft College and M.S.U. are participating.

College catalogs were handed out after the meeting and discussion groups covered questions on curricula and courses.

Expect Crowds For 'Explosion'

Crowds are expected to throng Forest Ave. Friday evening when a street-long retailing celebration, "Forest Avenue Explodes," is held to mark the opening of Plymouth's first complete discount department store.

From 6 to 10 p.m. Friday, the street will become a mall as trees and shrubs line the sidewalks, strolling musicians provide musical background and all of Plymouth's franchised auto dealers place their newest models on display in a city-wide auto show.

All Forest Ave. stores will stay open an extra hour to mark the event. Shoppers will be able to stop in at Forest Avenue retail outlets, fill out a coupon and leave it at the store for drawing Saturday. Prizes will be given away to persons named in the drawings. All stores will be featuring many prizes.

THE EVENT will mark the grand opening celebration of the Consumers Discount Center in the completely redecorated air-conditioned, 12,000-square-foot former Kroger building.

The Plymouth store will be the fifth retail outlet in the State of Michigan for Consumers Center, Inc. of Pontiac. The firm has stores in Detroit, Adrian, Battle Creek and Pontiac.

Consumers Center carries a complete line of first quality merchandise, all discount priced, according to manager Edward Eddy of Royal Oak. Included are wide selections of men's, women's and children's wear, shoes, housewares, paints, auto supplies and beauty and health aids.

Try to Speed Festival Plan

An immediate meeting between the Fall Festival steering committee and the Plymouth Rotary Board was urged Tuesday, April 14 when the Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors held their regular meeting in the chamber office.

In view of a delay in negotiations with the Rotary Club, members suggested that the chamber select a Fall Festival operating committee so plans for the event could move ahead immediately.

Board members were told by Arnold Johanson the delay revolved around certain policies set down by the Fall Festival Committee.

A motion was approved that the steering committee for the Fall Festival meet with the Rotary Board at a special meeting so mechanics of the Festival could be started.

Back On The Track

Plymouth got back on the track last week as the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company resumed commuter service to Detroit.

Service was reinstated at 12:01 a.m., April 26, according to a C&O spokesman. Trains leave daily from the Plymouth depot at 6:55 a.m., 9:49 a.m. and 11:23 a.m.

Commuter trains bound for Plymouth leave Detroit at 5:20 p.m. and 5:30 p.m.

ASSISTANT manager Mrs. Lois Getzem, left, of Plymouth's new Consumers Discount Center fills in two new employees, both from Plymouth, on the new operation. They are Mrs. Dorothy Wilson of 678 Herald St., and Miss Dianne Barber of 1226 S. Main St., right. The new store opens tomorrow and will be featured in a huge "Forest Avenue Explodes" promotion Friday evening.

Plymouth's Junior High Band and Orchestra, under the baton of director Laurence Livingstone, received rave notices from all the judges and went on to receive class I ratings in competition with 2,000 students from schools as far away as Midland.

Of the three judges in each category, all gave the Plymouth band and orchestra I ratings, both units went on to achieve I ratings in sight reading and both were given over-all ratings of I.

Routes to Drive to World's Fair and Side-Trips Around City

Getting to the New York World's Fair is easy. Just select your mode of transportation. The automobile will be the choice of most. Others will prefer public transportation—plane, train or bus. Your decision may hinge partly upon how much time you have, says Jerry E. Fisher, Automobile Club of Michigan touring manager. Special excursions to the Fair also are offered.

You can just about write your own ticket on the length of time it will take to get to New York, according to Fisher. Jets leaving Detroit Metropolitan or Willow Run Airports are airborne about an hour, landing at LaGuardia or John F. Kennedy Airport (formerly Idlewild), just a short distance from the Fair Grounds. Trains leave Detroit morning and night, taking about 13 hours to reach mid-Manhattan, about 10 miles from the Fair's gates. Greyhound buses leave Detroit for New York 12 times a day, with express coaches taking 12 to 13 hours to get there.

If you go by automobile, plan on a day and a half of driving and an overnight stop. Fisher recommends driving time from Detroit to New York is 673 miles by the Ohio, Pennsylvania and New Jersey turnpikes, and by the Windsor - Buffalo - Albany route, 740 miles. It's some 13 hours by the first route, at least 15 by the Canadian. You'll have to stop for food, to quench your car's thirst for gasoline and to have the oil and water checked. Doing it all in one day is not recommended, even if you have friends and drive in shifts.

To make a more interesting trip, Fisher suggests going one route and returning another. Side trips from either route, if you have time, will prove interesting and relaxing, Fisher adds.

Driving to the Fair has some drawbacks as well as good features. With your own car you can come and go as you please, stop when you want to and leave the beaten path at will. However, there are other costs to consider besides gasoline.

For example, take the southern route to the Fair. It will cost $2.55 on the Ohio Turnpike, $3.90 on the Pennsylvania Turnpike, $1.45 on the New Jersey Turnpike, 50 cents to go through the Lincoln Tunnel, 21 cents to use the Queens Midtown Tunnel. That comes to $8.63 one way.

If you select the Windsor-Buffalo-Albany route, the tolls will come to $3-60 cents at the Detroit-Windsor border (10 cents additional for each passenger) 25 cents on the Peace Bridge at Buffalo, $6.40 on the New York Thruway, 50 cents on the George Washington Bridge and 25 cents on the Triboro Bridge. Fisher also reminds that the Fair is on Long Island, and every time you want to leave Long Island you must pay a bridge or tunnel toll. Another factor to consider is New York traffic which is bothersome to many drivers. But the rush hours when congestion is heaviest can be avoided.

ARRIVING at the World's Fair is just half-way for the tourist who plans a side trip along the scenic and historic routes surrounding New York City and outlined on map.

MAP SHOWING the two main routes, suggested by the Automobile Club of Michigan, for motorists driving from Plymouth to the New York World's Fair.

entirely. To the north of the area, a new four-lane bridge is being built to parallel the present Whitestone Parkway Bridge over the East River. Several connecting links and interchanges are being built to complete widening to six to eight lanes. A completely new freeway, the six-lane Van Wyck Expressway Extension, is being built around and over the Fair Grounds.

Fisher reminds that drivers under age 18 can't drive anywhere in New York State if they are from another state. One way to solve the transportation problem is to drive to New York City and then take public transportation to the Fair Grounds. Both the daily for all points on the Continent. Since more Fair visitors are expected to travel by car than air or rail, automobile touring is expected to be heavy this summer, according to AAA.

"And the motorist has a distinct advantage over other methods of transportation because he can travel at his own pace and be more selective in the sights he sees," states Fisher. One of the first stops the Michigan motorist should plan if traveling the Pennsylvania Turnpike is Gettysburg, and then Lancaster, the hub of Amish, Mennonite and Brethren activities in the Pennsylvania Dutch Country.

"After New York and the Fair are seen, the Revolutionary and Civil War enthusiasts would do well to head south," says Fisher, "with the first stop at Philadelphia a storehouse of history." Just outside of Philadelphia is Valley Forge State Park, and if time allows, follow the Delaware River south and discover the famous Henry Francis du Pont Winterthur Museum just six miles north of Wilmington, Del.

Washington is the next major stop, and it abounds with memories of the Civil War. History unfolds further at Fredericksburg, Va., where four key battles took place. Their sites are contained at Spotsylvania National Military Park. The route goes on to Richmond for a step back to pre-Revolutionary days and sites of great Civil War battles. "Directly east of Richmond is Williamsburg, well worth a visit for those interested in the Colonial Period, for this city is restored as nearly as possible to its 18th Century appearance," states Fisher. The Colonial theme continues west of Richmond, where just three miles southeast of Charlottesville is Monticello, the home designed and occupied by Thomas Jefferson and now a national shrine. "Scenery unlimited becomes the theme for those heading home through the Blue Ridge Mountains and back to the Pennsylvania Turnpike," says Fisher.

Two of the many noteworthy stopoffs on this highway are Corning and Montour Falls. A highway traveling north (Interstate 87) leads to the Catskill Mountains, only one-half day's drive from New York. Here all forms of recreation are available.

If time is not pressing at this point, US-20, below the westbound New York Thruway is worth the venture. Along it are colorful Cherry Valley and Cooperstown, the home of baseball's Hall of Fame. After Cooperstown, one can go on to Buffalo, the gateway to either Niagara Falls and Canada or Cleveland around Lake Erie.

If time is of no concern, a trip north from Albany through the Adirondak Mountains and along Lake Champlain leads to Montreal. The traveler can tour Montreal and follow the St. Lawrence Seaway to Lake Ontario, which in turn can be followed to the shoreline of Lake Erie. "Opportunities are unlimited for travel before or after the tourist leaves the World's Fair," says Fisher. "All he needs is the foresight to use his time and money to best advantage."

AAA estimates that the budget for tourists who drive 300 miles daily will be $31 per couple. This budget includes $10.50 for meals and snacks, $11 for lodging (higher in New York and surrounding areas), $7 for gas and oil, and $2.50 for tips and miscellaneous.

Europe will be closer to making these trips reality than ever before," says Fisher, if they visit the World's Fair this summer or next. Two Plymouth Masons Earn Highest Degree

Two Plymouth men, George W. Matthews and Gerald Tedder, were among the class of 285 Blue Lodge Masons from southeastern Michigan to receive the 32nd Degree in Scottish Rite of Freemasonry at the 255th spring reunion. The reunion was held at the main Masonic Temple in Detroit, April 25.

The spring reunion class was named in honor of the late Orville H. Foster, Jr., a 33rd degree Mason and Detroit attorney.

At the 32nd degree banquet, George W. Newbury, banker and civic leader from Buffalo, N.Y., gave the keynote address. George E. Bushnell, former Michigan Supreme Court Justice, presently Sovereign Grand Commander of the Northern Jurisdiction of Scottish Rite Masons, also spoke in the banquet. He estimated that the Scottish Rite, this year, has contributed $150,000 for schizophrenia research. Bushnell added that a total of more than $2,000,000 has been channeled into this research in the past 30 years.

E. Burke Montgomery, commander-in-chief of the Detroit Consistory, was banquet toastmaster.

AN OPEN BOOK

When the medical profession approves a new remedy, it is made public so that everybody may benefit from it. Poliomyelitis vaccine is a good example. Should you read or hear about a "secret remedy" for the cure of some serious disease, be on guard. Shun it by all means, because its use could be disastrous. Consult your physician. Ask his views on "mystery remedies." He will give you a candid evaluation. There is nothing hush-hush about medical research and its discoveries. Medicine is an open book — for all the world to see.

Optimists Plan Sixth Annual Bicycle Rodeo

In observance of National Bicycle Safety Week sponsored by all Optimist Service Clubs, the Plymouth Optimists will hold their sixth annual Bike Rodeo behind the local high school on Saturday, May 2 at 9:30 a.m.

At part of the week long safety program held in cooperation with the elementary schools in the area and the Plymouth Police Department, a concerted drive to impress school age youngsters with the proper rules of safe bicycling and maintenance of equipment is being conducted.

Posters circulated among merchants in town stress the responsibility automobile drivers have in being alert while driving as an added precaution to reduce road accidents.

Following a thorough mechanical check of each entrant's bicycle by Optimist members and the Police Department, various contests to test each youngster's cycling skills will be held. Winners will be eligible for the Grand Prize of a new 1964 boys or girls bicycle to be awarded at the conclusion of the program.

All entrants competing in the program will be eligible for many other prizes including an 8 mm movie camera loaned by the Photographic Center.

The contest is open to all youngsters below the high school age level and is limited to two-wheel bikes. A traveling trophy will be awarded to the school with the greatest number of entrants.

A unique market, one that few Plymouthites may be aware of, is the gigantic telephone supermarket operated by Western Electric Company, Inc. at 909 N. Sheldon Rd.

In the sprawling 10-acre building, more than 9,400 different items ranging from the latest Touch-Tone push-button telephones to paper clips are stockpiled.

Within a few minutes after being phoned in, an order for a reel of telephone cable designed for Ironwood, Michigan's most westerly point, can be cut to the desired length and sent on its way.

LAST YEAR more than 700,000 telephones left the Western Electric Company's Michigan Distributing House for homes and offices.

The Michigan Distributing House, as the telephone supermarket is formally named, is one of 35 telephone supermarkets situated throughout the nation that serves the Michigan Bell Telephone Company.

The job of tending Michigan Bell's telephone supermarket is so complicated that electronic data processing equipment to handle incoming orders to assure one-day service. A conveyor system throughout the vast warehouse speeds the loading of telephone equipment.

In addition, Western Electric recommends large numbers of service-worn telephones—more than 40,000 annually for Michigan Bell.

IN A YEAR, Michigan Bell spends around $4,500,000 to repair equipment from screw-drivers to complex carrier equipment, which enables two pairs of wires to carry a dozen or more conversations simultaneously.

Service-worn telephones are stripped down, new or rebuilt parts are inserted, and then the rebuilt phones are sterilized, sprayed, and polished so that it takes a trained inspector to tell one from new stock. About 15,000 telephones a month, many of them manual phones without dials, are stripped and junked.

W. F. Ames, general supplies superintendent for Michigan Bell, pointed out that the primary job of the 641-man crew of Bell and Western Electric employees at Plymouth is to send out hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of new telephone equipment each year.

Phone booths are refinished and sent out again to join the 3,800 outdoor booths provided by Michigan Bell. The tools are repaired for use again.

Also stockpiled in the Plymouth Distributing House is equipment that would be needed to provide emergency communications in the wake of tornadoes, floods, and other disasters.

By the time Michigan Bell repair crews would be enroute to cope with such disasters, huge vans of emergency gear would be rushing to the scene.

While the task of restoring damaged telephone equipment isn't the principal task of these telephone people, the memory of the disastrous tornadoes that struck Michigan in the 1950s keeps them ever ready.

A NEW telephone booth, destined for a roadside or sidewalk location somewhere in Michigan, is loaded aboard a truck by a lift truck operator at the Michigan Distributing House, the largest telephone supermarket in the state. It will be one of the 3,000 outdoor telephone booths provided throughout Michigan by Michigan Bell.

TELEPHONES of all shapes, sizes, and colors are readied for use at Michigan's telephone supermarket in Plymouth. Here crates of phones move along a conveyor belt system after being inspected, phones are rebuilt, sterilized, sprayed, and polished. Last year, more than 700,000 telephones left the Michigan Distributing House for homes and offices throughout the state.

AS MIGHT be expected, the orders are telephoned to Plymouth. An order received at 8 a.m. will be headed for its destination by nightfall, Ames said.

Huge tractor-drawn vans, after being loaded meticulously, pull out of Plymouth at night and within minutes are on a freeway bound for Grand Rapids or Kalamazoo, or the "milk train" run to major Bell garages in metropolitan Detroit.

The trucks and tractors, equipped with radiotelephones, can pinpoint their location during breakdowns or can offer assistance at the scene of an accident.

Coming back, the vans carry loads of phone equipment, including scrap wires, damaged phone booths, and worn tools.

THE SCRAP wire and metal is destined for Western Electric's Nassau Smelting and Refining Company at Staten Island, N. Y., where it is melted and refined for use in the manufacture of new telephone wire and parts.

A TRUCKLOAD of equipment bound for Michigan's largest telephone supermarket in Plymouth leaves Michigan Bell Telephone Company garages. This huge 10-acre structure contains more than 9,400 different items, ranging from the latest Touch-Tone push-button telephones to paper clips. The telephone that is installed in your home or office is ordered from this storehouse.

IN THE sight reading room, orchestra director Laurence Livingston lifted his baton in preparation for the final step in competition that led the junior high orchestra to its first I classification in AAA junior high competition. Judges all accorded rave notices to the youthful Plymouth music makers.

A JUDGE loomed in the foreground in the Plymouth High School gymnasium Saturday as the Plymouth Junior High orchestra began its progress toward class I ratings in all categories at the Michigan School Band and Orchestra Association State Festival held here in Plymouth.

FOLLOWING their performance in the gymnasium, the orchestra made its way to the high school's small auditorium where they participated in sight reading competition — playing music they had never seen before. Waiting in the hallway before the sight reading exercise were, left, James Warren of 520 Pacific Ave., and Robert Leach of 9072 S. Main St.

Former City Manager Heads People-to-People

When you get right down to it, it's really a pretty small world. At least that's what former city commissioner William C. Hartman and Mayor pro-tem James Houk of Plymouth would probably tell you.

It all began about six years ago, when Hartman stopped in Kansas City to visit Perry W. Cookingham, former city manager of Plymouth, Saginaw and Kansas City.

Cookingham, now retired, has become executive director of People-to-People, Inc., an organization designed to further international understanding and founded by General Dwight D. Eisenhower.

DURING Hartman's visit, Cookingham asked him to carry his regards back to his friends in Plymouth and Hartman did just that.

Among those friends was Houk. Last week, Houk was designated to represent the City of Plymouth at the Michigan Governor's Conference. People-to-People, in Saginaw. The main speaker turned out to be Cookingham. Houk returned to Plymouth impressed with the People-to-People program. It provides a means, he said, for the average American to communicate with the average person in a foreign country.

QUITE often, Houk explained, industrialists and wealthy persons travel in foreign lands, often giving an incomplete picture of America and Americans. People-to-People, he said, is designed to correct that.

The People-to-People includes five primary phases, all set up to increase understanding and communication on various levels. The five phases include:

- (1) Letter exchange. A penpal program, the letter exchange consists of letter writing between persons with similar interests.
- (2) University program. This facet of the People-to-People plan includes entertaining foreign students in homes. The university program extends to both American students in foreign countries and foreign students visiting here.
- (3) School and classroom program. This involves local school classes communicating with classes in foreign lands.
- (4) Committee chapter program. Committees are organized to promote organized activities.
- (5) Travel. Special People-to-People tours are organized to promote personal diplomacy on a face-to-face basis.

Whatever their approach, Houk said, People-to-People have a singular objective, best expressed by the organization's founder and current board chairman, General Eisenhower. He said:

"The activities of People-to-People have a basic denominator — a breaching of the age-old barriers of geography, language, race, history and customs. Given a chance, people will make friends across, around, over and under all the natural and man-made barriers which separate them."

GENERAL Eisenhower has described People-to-People as the least exclusive club in the world. Members are made up of persons of all ages and from all walks of life. "People-to-People gives every American the opportunity to participate and to help build a better world, free of tension and strengthened by mutual understanding and confidence," ac-ording to executive director and ex-Plymouthite Cookingham.

Cookingham gives these guidelines for what individual Americans can do: If you are a student, encourage organization of a People-to-People classroom affiliation for your class or a People-to-People chapter at your university or college.

IF YOU are an adult, work to establish a People-to-People chapter in your community.

If you are interested in direct communication with a friend in another country, request the name of a correspondent from the People-to-People letter exchange, or participate in an approved People-to-People tour.

Interested persons can write People-to-People, Kansas City, Mo., 64141.

Evans Expansion

been ordered by the C & O - B & O railroad for delivery in the fourth quarter of this year.

CONWAY said additional sales volume of $10,000,000 or more annually could result during the initial stages from the expansion. (Evans sales in 1963 totalled $146,136,000 compared to $117,392,000 in the preceding year.) He said additional employment at the Plymouth plant could run as high as 200 persons. Present employment at the plant is 875.

Under the project, recognition is also given — from a space standpoint — to possible new lines of endeavor within the railroad equipment field.

Evans DF-C coil steel car, one of the special device cars which will be manufactured in the new facility, was first introduced by the division at the American Railway

The expansion project will enable Evans' transportation equipment division to keep pace with current industry growth, to maintain its present position of leadership in the specialized railroad damage-prevention field, and to capitalize on trends and demands for special cars and upgrading of existing equipment.

Progress Exposition in Chicago last October. A PROTOTYPE of the car, the first ever built from the rails up expressly for safe shipment of coiled steel, has been carrying test loads in actual service between steel producers and large users of coiled steel. Reaction from railroads and shippers has been excellent, Conway said.

Differing from other cars now being used for steel shipment, the DF-C car is not a converted gondola or flat car. It is equipped with a Hydra-Cushion shock-absorbing sliding sill underframe which protects both the car and the coiled steel from damaging impact in transit.

Because it is equipped with Hydra-Cushion, it requires no deck cushioning and no sliding cradle, which means that the shipper can use the full length of the car's interior. The DF-C is a 100-ton car, capable of carrying at least 50 per cent more than any other car now used to ship coiled steel. It handles coil sizes ranging from 30 inches to 84 inches in diameter. It is available with a permanent attached "clamshell" type hood, or with a removable hood, whichever is desired by railroads and their shippers. In addition to being the leading designer and manufacturer of railroad and truck damage-prevention equipment, Evans owns and operates plywood, veneer, hardboard and battery separator plants and has extensive timber resources in Oregon, Washington, and British Columbia.

dent, and we'll let you sit beside (Congresswoman Martha Griffiths) . . . Let somebody know — and soon. We'll be lookin' for ya." Concerning his epistle to the President, Starkweather confided to The Plymouth Mail: "I'll admit that it's unlikely that he'll ever see it."

When the combat divisions of the National Guard get the signal from the Pentagon to conform to the new ROAD organization (for Reorganization Of Army Divisions) it will be the fourth major shake up of the division structure since W.W. I. From the old "square" division came into being for WW II, followed by the "pentomic" division after Korea. The new ROAD division provides for an extreme combat force. The 84th Armored Division of Georgia is expected to be the first Army Guard major combat force to get on the ROAD.

Eight Hurt In Sunday Accidents

Eight persons were rushed to Wayne County General Hospital Sunday afternoon after they were injured in two accidents that occurred in a 15-minute period shortly before 4:30 p.m. in Plymouth.

Three were injured in a car-motorcycle crash at the intersection of South Main St. and Penniman Ave. at 4:35 p.m. and the other five were hurt when the two cars in which they were riding collided at the intersection of Lilley and Ann Arbor Roads at 4:20 p.m.

A Livonia man and his 20-year-old female companion were injured when the motorcycle on which they were riding hit a car driven by Miss Annette M. Thumme, 19, of Elkton, Mich.

PLYMOUTH police said witnesses told them Miss Thumme, headed south on S. Main St., made a left hand turn in front of the north-bound motorcycle driven by John G. Norwood, 26, of Livonia.

Norwood's companion, Jody Darcey, 20, of Northville, was thrown over Miss Thumme's car onto the lawn of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association building.

Police said Norwood suffered a slight concussion and a broken leg and Miss Darcey received a crushed collarbone in the crash. Miss Thumme, they said, refused treatment at the hospital.

MINUTES earlier, five persons were injured when a car driven by a Detroit woman pulled out in front of another vehicle at the intersection of Lilley and Ann Arbor Roads.

Police said a south bound car driven by Mrs. Ann Lucas, 56, of Detroit pulled out in front of a vehicle operated by Harvey Misure, 40, of Ypsilanti. Misure was headed west on Ann Arbor Road.

Mrs. Lucas, Misure, his wife, 40, and two other passengers in the Misure car, Mr. and Mrs. John Sinkston of Ypsilanti, were all injured in the crash and taken to Wayne County General.

Police said Mrs. Lucas was ticketed for failure to yield the right of way.

City Water Could be Better

Commissioner George Lawton noted that the entire system could still be paid for in about 15 years, even with processing equipment.

In other action at the Monday night meeting, commissioners rescheduled the hearing on the proposed city budget for Monday, May 11 at 7:30 p.m. at the city hall.

They discussed the advisability of revamping pumping equipment at the city's Mill St. well. In years past, complaints of bad taste and odor in the water have arisen when the Mill St. well was used.

HAMPTON pointed out that the city's Beck Rd. well field is insufficient at times and, at best, unreliable. He urged refurbishment of the Mill St. well for standby service and gradual abandonment of the Beck Rd. field.

He said his firm theorized that the bad taste and odor of Mill St. water came from a faulty lubrication system in present pumping equipment.

Commissioners ordered Public Works Superintendent Joseph Bida to pump the Mill St. well for an extended period of time so water quality could be analyzed before money is spent on revamping equipment at the site.

The governing body authorized advertisement for bids on the water projects, with Smith voting no and authorized payment of back taxes on a trust deed property in the city.

Arbor-Croft News

By Betty Radcliffe — GL 3-6340

Several Arbor-Croft women were busy workers for the Harold's Club Party given by Newcomers Club at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Varoni of Plymouth. Mrs. Gus Bublitz was general chairman. Mrs. Robert Brandt was in charge of refreshments, and Mrs. Hugh Jarvis was prize chairman. Seen winning and losing thousands of dollars at the party were: the Norbert Battermanns, the John Egans, the William Kennedys, the George Johnsons, the Don Mathranis, the R. J. Emersons, and the Charles McKinleys. The April 18 party had a millionaire motif which gave everyone an opportunity to amass a "fortune" playing the many different games of chance.

Counsel Church. They are: Lynn Dolengowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dolengowski; John Penrice, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Penrice; Joseph Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brown; and David Goldbach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goldbach.

Mrs. Robert Brandt, 1321 Palmer Avenue, was hostess on Tuesday evening to her bridge club.

Saturday evening, April 18, a large group of friends surprised Mr. and Mrs. Albert Grissom with a housewarming party at their new home, 1401 Ross Avenue. The Plymouth couples who participated were: the Gilbert Pearsons, James Stevens, Malcolm Pierees, John Schmidts, Jay Windischs, Robert Messerlys, Harlan Seelofis, Robert Thompsons, and the William Drudges. From Northville came Mr. and Mrs. James Anderson and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Grover. Other guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Hickerson of Garden City and Mr. and Mrs. Heinz Dittmar of Orchard Lake.

A Bundle Party was the unique name of the party Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Kelly gave at their home on Ross Avenue last Saturday. Twenty-six friends from Wayne were present, each attired in a "bundle" of old clothes or costume provided by another guest. Everyone was there in borrowed finery—even an unlikely Cassius Clay with a book of poetry.

Sporting Goods Store to Open Next Weekend

As one who has taken an active part in sports throughout his high school and college career, Huber said he is interested in furthering the growth of products and services available locally.

He said Sportsman Northwest has been designed to supply the needs of sports-minded men and women of the Plymouth Community. The store will carry brand-name equipment and sports clothing.

SLATE FILM

Plymouth Community Human Relations Commission will present a film, "To Find a Home," at its next regular meeting at Dunning-Hough library on May 20, at 8:30 p.m. The film depicts rebuffs encountered by two middle class Negro families who seek to rent an apartment in a northern city.

If you tried making Mrs. Marshall North's recipe for "Grandma's Sour Cream Cookies", which appeared in last week's Plymouth Mail, and they didn't turn out, don't blame Mrs. North. Whether it was Spring Fever or the writer's dreaming about how the cookies tasted or a "printer's devil" getting into the act is unknown, but somehow the measurements were printed incorrectly. So, please, adjust your recipe to read 1 teaspoon of baking soda and 1 teaspoon baking powder, not one tablespoon of each as erroneously reported.

Legion Hosts Elks, Vivians at "Why are We?" Series Meeting

Principal speakers at the Saturday evening dinner program of the "Why are We?"

John M. Carey

series sponsored by the American Legion Post and Auxiliary of Plymouth were Ray Creith of Plymouth Lodge, 1780, B.P.O.E., and John M. Carey of Grand Blanc, currently alternate executive committeeman for the State of Michigan to the American Legion organization.

Members of the Plymouth Elks Lodge and the Vivians were guests at the meeting, held at the Legion Home on Sheldon Road. In keeping with the concept of the four-year program the two men discussed the aims and purposes of their organizations.

Carey, who outlined some of the many and varied programs of the Legion, also generalized on its purposes—not only in service to veterans, but to all citizens.

CREITH'S discussion covered the Elk organization both on the local and national levels. A charter member of Plymouth Lodge 1780, Creith has served as an officer since organization of the lodge in 1949. He was elected exalted ruler in 1953 and re-elected in 1954. In 1956, he was elected to a five-year term on the board of trustees.

Ray Creith

In 1961, the Grand Lodge, B.P.O.E., appointed Creith district deputy grand exalted ruler for the southeast district of Michigan. He currently serves as lodge treasurer and as a member of the board of trustees of the Michigan Elks Association.

Carey, a veteran of World War II, began his Legion career by serving the Grand Blanc post as adjutant and commander.

In 1958, he was elected to the highest State office in the Legion as State Commander. He has been active in the 40/8 and has served as vice commander of Voiture No. 1116, Flint.

The next organization to be featured in the "Why are We?" series will be the Girl Scouts. The scouts will highlight a program on Saturday, May 16 at the Legion Home.

TWO BIKINI-clad beauties and Elvis in the middle! That's the happy situation of Presley's new song dance and girl-filled Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer comedy, "Kissin' Cousins." Yvonne Craig (left) and Pam Austin are two of the lovelies in this routin'-tootin' entertainment in which Presley plays a dual role as a hillbilly mountain man and an Air Force officer. Co-starred are Arthur O'Connell, Glenda Farrell, Jack Albertson and Cynthia Pepper, and it's in Panavision and Metrocolor. Feature opens Wednesday at the Penn Theater.

New York's famous 42nd (Rainbow) Infantry Division got its colorful nickname from General Douglas MacArthur who served as a member of the division in World War I. The 42nd was composed of National Guard units from many States. Two of its WW I regiments, the 165th Infantry (New York), and the 167th Infantry (Alabama) had last seen each other's colors from opposite sides of the battle lines in eleven different actions in the Civil War from Bull Run to Appomattox.

LEARNING how to operate the City of Plymouth's new Burroughs accounting machine last Friday afternoon were personnel of the city's accounting department. Left to right, they are, Mrs. Marion Warner, seated at the machine; Mrs. Grace McCallum; Burroughs representative Donald W. Kuhn and Miss Karen West. The city commission approved the purchase of the machine at a cost of more than $8,500 in January. The electronic device is expected to save time, forestall the time when new employees must be added to the accounting department payroll and will provide more information, sooner for the city manager. Securing reports from the accounting department within a reasonable period of time has been a persistent problem in the past.

Summer Jobs:

Two Placement Offices Take Student Applications

Are you a high school or college student wondering how and where you are going to find that summer job this year?

Both the Y.M.C.A. job placement service, located in the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union building, and the Plymouth Branch of the Michigan Employment and Security Commission (M.E.S.C.- 987 S. Mill St.) are taking applications for summer employment.

The Y.M.C.A. placement service has positions listed for such jobs as carpenter's apprentice, landscaping, farming, car hops and babysitting, according to director Mike Hoben. The placement service also has received calls for positions for students with such backgrounds as chemistry and engineering.

M.E.S.C. plans to place most of its applicants in local industries, according to Plymouth branch manager, Gordon Packard. The branch is also co-operating with the state office in Detroit in placing students in positions in summer camps and other jobs both in Detroit and out-state Michigan.

If you are interested in finding a job for summer, now is the time to register with either placement service.

To register you fill out an application, asking for such information as background, experience and a list of jobs you would be interested in.

M.E.S.C. also administers pre-employment tests to applicants to pick out qualified persons for the various positions, according to Packard.

AS JOBS become available, Hoben says, he matches the qualifications of the applicants against those required for the job and sets up interviews between the prospective employer and applicants.

Last year, the Y.M.C.A. job placement service in Plymouth placed approximately 300 students in summer jobs. Hoben said about 100 college students had already contacted him about jobs for this year and he expects 200-300 high school students to apply.

"I'd like to work, he can't have it," Hoben remarked. One of the problems involved is that the jobs available do not always pay as much as the students would like to earn.

SOME OF the jobs that students are placed in for the summer are terminal such as car hopping, and lawn care. Some turn into after school and Saturday jobs in the fall and still others are worked into the cooperative program at Plymouth High School.

The Y.M.C.A. job placement service is open Monday through Friday, 9 a.m. until 5 p.m., and Saturday, 9 a.m. until noon. There is no charge made for the placement service.

The M.E.S.C. is open Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. until noon and 1 p.m. until 4:30 p.m.

TAKING A call from a prospective employer is Miss Amicia Manwaring, Y.M.C.A. placement director John M. Hoben's secretary. In front of Miss Manwaring on the desk is a sheaf of applications from employers seeking workers. Students seeking summer employment are apt to find it at the Y.M.C.A. office, located in the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union building, or at the branch office of the Michigan Employment Security Commission at 987 S. Mill St.

Chips from the ROCK

Warning to local parents... if you find any polystyrene plastic cement among Junior's assortment of possessions and... if he actually isn't making a model airplane... chances are he's snuffing it out of a paper bag to get himself all hopped up like taking dope.

This new addiction has become so popular with youngsters that most stores now stock their supplies in the safe and sell it only to youngsters accompanied to the stores by a parent.

Dale Dauderman, at S. and W. Hardware, says the demand became so great that they began limiting the sale and then found it was being stolen almost right under their eyes. "Parents should be alerted to this new dangerous habit-forming trick and make sure their children aren't forming it themselves," he says.

In issuing the warning to local parents he suggests that any suspicious parent contact the Plymouth police department who can furnish more and complete details on this particular activity which has become so popular among some of our misguided youth.

Michigan offered its residents a whole smorgasbord of exciting things to do last weekend. Not only did the wonders of our great State unfold some of their many charms but the weatherman also cooperated to make it a wonderful time to participate in the activity of your choice.

Of course, hundreds of our residents took advantage of the weekend to start their summer yard and garden work and those rusty lawn tools were really given a workout visual to any who chanced to drive throughout our beautiful residential areas.

Silvery smelt descended on our creeks and rivers by the millions along our Great Lake's shores and many local smelt fishermen brought home sizeable catches both Friday and Saturday nights.

Then, of course, the Saturday opening of the trout season lured some 75 local fishermen to their favorite haunts. Spearheading the local contingents was the Dr. B. E. Champe party which made its annual trip to the Champe lodge near Mio, Michigan. Included in this august sportsmen's party were William Morgan, Casey Partridge and Steve Paslaski.

According to two local trout stamp suppliers, S. and W. Hardware and Davis & Lent's sporting goods department, most local fishermen were doing their trout fishing this year in lakes which have been planted by the Conservation Department. Both reported more fishermen were going to lakes rather than their usual streams because the fishing in State-stocked lakes was a much easier task.

And, on the subject of trout, our local Detroit Edison manager, Harry Wagenschutz, joined a party of Northville trout fishermen up to the annual trout festival at Kalkaska where some 75,000 descended on that town over the weekend.

Warm weather also sent scores of our boating enthusiasts to their moorings where the annual painting and cleaning job on their boats got underway as a prelude to summer.

For those who didn't care to fish or visit nearby waters, Vermontville, over near Lansing, was bidding for attention with its annual Maple Syrup festival.

Among the Plymouth visitors to the maple syrup celebration were the Harry Browns and their daughter, Betty and our daughter, Cynthia. Also found in the crowds were the C. V. Sparks and the William Taylors who were enjoying the days activities.

Great throngs arrived at the little town and visitors were hard put to get service at the many places featuring pancakes, sausage and, of course, maple syrup.

A copy of the Vermontville Echo produced especially for the 24th annual festival says that we learned to make maple syrup from the Indians who would gather sap and place it in huge hollowed out logs. When the log was filled they would throw hot stones in the sap to cause evaporation of the water which, when completed, would leave a thickened syrup which they used for sweetening.

According to the many producers in that area production is about double this year over last due to the excellent weather conditions which delayed the budding of the trees and also, because of the lack of heavy snow, the gathering of the sap was much simpler this year.

Michigan ranks sixth in the production of maple syrup and the quality of Michigan syrup ranks favorably with that made anywhere else. Farmers in the Vermontville area average about 300 gallons each year per family and the syrup sells in Vermontville at $5.00 per gallon. Pure maple syrup, as defined by our food and drug department, must weigh not less than eleven pounds per gallon.

We didn't go trout or smelt fishing and we don't have a boat which needed our attention but we did celebrate with french toast and newly made maple syrup for our Sunday morning breakfast and enjoyed crisp smelt on Monday. So, in addition to planting a few of George Merryweather's fine shrubs up on our clay hill, we also enjoyed some of those special treats that this great State provides for us in so many ways throughout the year.

PHOTORIAL A PICTURE IS WORTH A THOUSAND WORDS

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Plymouth Mail
271 South Main Street
Plymouth, Michigan

Dear Editor:

It has been my desire and intent for quite some time now to put into words my feelings regarding a subject about which I am very familiar and very much aware of as it exists in the City and Township of Plymouth. However, my literary abilities being limited as they are, putting this into the proper and inoffensive words was not an easy thing to do.

With this in mind it was to my delight and gave me, personally, much delight to read the article which appears in the current (April issue) "American Home" magazine found on page 3 and signed simply "The Editor".

Although this article appears to have been written expressly for me, I found it gratifying to learn that this is a feeling shared by others and not entirely a local existing situation.

It is certainly not my intent to imply that people shirk their duties as civic-minded individuals and be content to live on a piece of property with no concern as to what's going on around them, with a too passive-type attitude. However, the ability to know what is one's business and what is not is important and the ability to discern between the two is even more important.

The people whose job this is should and must determine what is best for the community as a whole for the sake of progress of future development in this area.

Thank you for your kind attention.

Sincerely,
Bud Gould

EDITOR'S NOTE: The article Mr. Gould refers to follows:

"Why is it that ownership of land disagrees with so many of us? Even the most rational and considerate individual may start acting in a most peculiar fashion the minute he owns a plot of ground. As soon as he has the deed in his hands he begins to think that even though he didn't actually create that land, it was at least created especially for his exclusive use. He begins to feel that the most important object in life is to protect the value of his property. This in turn entitles him to decide who will own the land around him, what sort of houses they may build, how they should conduct themselves, and what sort of garden they can grow."

"The ownership of land has been disagreeing with mankind since heaven only knows when. Man has fought many a war over land and today we keep our lawyers and judges busy with suits and countersuits concerning rights to the use of land. We suppose that things will always go on in this fashion but it does seem rather foolish. After all, it's not really our land in spite of what is written on the deed. The land was there long before we came on the scene and hopefully it will be there long after all of us have gone. We are not landlords. We are caretakers and while we have a right to enjoy the piece of land on which we live, we have not the right to deny others the enjoyment of living on land which happens to adjoin ours.

"We have in this country something called a 'population explosion' and we have only a limited amount of land suitable for housing. Unless we can make some basic changes in our feelings about the possession of land, unless we can be less concerned with property values and more concerned with human values, this nation can be in for a good deal of unhappiness."

Reprinted from American Home, April, 1964 issue.

Dear Editor:

For the past five years, it has been my custom to spend my vacation time traveling with the Mills Bros. Circus and their appearance in Plymouth Saturday, May 9th under the auspices of The Plymouth Community Junior Baseball League, gives the people of this community an opportunity to witness an outstanding circus performance and at the same time give loyal support to the Little League Players.

How a circus and its personnel can move from day to day and keep an accurate schedule, is bewildering, but it's done.

The evening meal is served in late afternoon, then down comes the cookhouse tent and away it goes to set up in the next town. The cookhouse will arrive in Plymouth Friday night so the performers will find breakfast ready upon their arrival Saturday morning.

With the aid of "Burma" and "Jenny", largest of the elephant herd, the big top will go up in record time and the remainder of the circus will be built around it.

The performers are congenial and personable, prima donnas have no place with a circus. They may be starring in one of the big top's three rings, one minute, and the next minute be carrying out duties as prop assistant or electrician. Everything has to move and the circus travels with their own power and light plant and a staff of mechanics and electricians. If a piece of equipment breaks down, mechanics go to work at once to place it in order.

Dear Plymouth Citizens:

I would like to bring to the attention of the local citizens of Plymouth what an effective police force they maintain. As a visitor from nearby Ann Arbor I was "assaulted and battered" by some local youths. I tried to get the license number but failed to do so and when I filed my complaint all I could give the police was the type of vehicle and the color of the car. The police department says they would do the best they could to find the offenders. In less than two hours I was contacted and informed that the violators had been detained.

I am indeed thankful and happy to know that Plymouth has such an active and capable police department. Often they do their jobs and no one seems to give them any credit. I think that everyone in Plymouth should realize how important these men are to our safety and the risks that they must take to provide us with that safety and to give them our whole-hearted support and a justly deserved "pat on the back" for a job well done.

I am very thankful for the very courteous and effective consideration I was given in my recent situation.

An Ann Arbor Friend
EDITOR'S NOTE: Police said the Ann Arbor man was the victim of egg throwing by a trio of Livonia youths a week ago Friday evening behind Plymouth High School. The youths made restitution in the amount of $3.50 to cover the cost of cleaning the man's suit.

Dear Editor:

I feel impelled to write to you and express sincere appreciation for the printing of the Christian Science Lecture by Mr. Wallace in your newspaper a week ago. Although I was privileged to attend the lecture, I found the printed copy helpful in reviewing ideas which had been presented which I wanted to retain.

My husband and I are subscribers to your newspaper and enjoy its weekly appearance in our home. I also enjoy your thought-provoking and action-impelling editorials. Therefore, it is my double opportunity to thank you for printing the lecture and for a newspaper whose editor and writers, I feel, are meeting the needs of our community in their alert and responsible reporting of news.

Sincerely Yours,

BUILDING INCREASE

In figures released by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission this week, Plymouth was listed as one of nine communities having authorized the construction of more than 50 multiple family dwelling units during the first quarter of 1964. Plymouth has authorized 72 units. Figures for Wayne County indicate a net increase in single and multiple family dwellings of 1,944 units.

We Shed No Editorial Tears

While it may have caused a few to wince nostalgically, perhaps it was fitting that The Plymouth Mail last week wrote the obituary for the passing of the Daisy name from the skyline of the Plymouth Community; for the story made an appropriate prelude for this week's announcement of the $1.5 million expansion project at Evans Products Company's Plymouth plant.

When the old tank, the name "Daisy" emblazoned on its side, was lowered from its tower to earth and an eventual date with the scrap heap, its demise was the symbol of a new beginning, a community-wide rebirth.

Since the air rifle manufacturing firm's departure from the local scene, the Plymouth Community has seen a fantastic amount of growth—growth that gives every promise of continuing at an escalating rate. . . .

Distribution Services, Inc., who took over the former Daisy plant, has been embarked on an ambitious program of remodeling and refurbishing, turning the old factory building into a complex of clean, pleasant offices and working areas.

Since the beginning of this year, the Plymouth Community has seen the addition of at least four new industries. Included are Specialty Coatings, Inc., producer of a space-age duplicating material; Anchor Reinforced Plastics, builders of sailboats; Therman Corporation, engineer of production facilities for other industries; and E. & E. Stamping, producer of stampings for the auto and garage door manufacturing industries.

And now Evans has announced an expansion program that may mean as many as 200 new jobs for the community.

So The Plymouth Mail sheds no editorial tears over the removal of the Daisy name from sight here in the community. Rather, we interpret it as manifestation of increased confidence in Plymouth and an indication of good things to come.

We proclaim a new, more vibrant, more unified Plymouth than ever before. We expect to see it go places—and, at the same time to maintain the individuality that sets it apart from other areas.

We see D.S.I. and Evans and other industrial names as evidence of progress to come and we're proud that they've seen fit to express their faith in Plymouth so concretely.

Individual Plymouthites should be heartened by the growth in their community. It speaks well for the future.

Reserve Track Team Loses 70-39 Tuesday

Plymouth's reserve trackmen went down to a 70-39 defeat at the hands of Trenton last Tuesday, winning only three of the events in the meet played away from home.

The Rock reserves took the shot put, pole vault and 440 run. A throw of 34' 9" by Bill Cummins won the shot put event for the Rock reserves with Trenton taking second place and Tom Price of Plymouth placing third.

A trio of Rock vaulters tied for pole vault honors with jumps of seven feet. They were Rick Lorenz, Jeff Gustafson and Greg Greer.

IN THE 440, Plymouth's John Adams won with a time of 58.7 seconds, Trenton placed second and Bill Ray took third. Finishing second in the broad jump behind Trenton was Rock Jack Kopsinski, followed by two of his teammates, Jerry Warnumunde and Hank Brennehan tied for third.

Trenton won the 880 relay, the mile relay and took the one and two positions in the mile. Bruce Sprattling placed third for Plymouth in the mile run.

The high hurdles saw Trenton take first and third places as Plymouth's Don Henshaw came away with second. Dick Beukema took third place in the 880 for Plymouth, running behind two Trentonites.

Plymouth's Hank Brennehan and Jack Kopsinski placed second and third in the 100-yard dash behind Trenton.

Larry Warnumunde placed for the Rocks in two events, taking second in the 180 yard hurdles and third in the 220'. On Wednesday the reserves will take on the Redford Union team in a match to be held at Plymouth.

Rock Trackmen Defeat Trenton

Looking better, with times decreasing and distances increasing, Plymouth's varsity trackmen shot to a 72 and 2/3 to 36 and 1/3 win at Trenton Friday, winning all but three events.

Jumper Ron Becker leaped 5'1" to take the high jump competition as Trenton took second place and Jim Scharmen, Dan Johnson and another Trenton jumper tied for third.

In shot put competition, Plymouth's Hal Smith garnered the honors with a throw of 43' 3". Trenton placed second and the Rocks' Pat Brady took third.

HERB Park was the only Plymouthite to place in the pole vault as he won the event with a jump of 10' 6". The host team took second and third. Finishing second and third in the broad jump behind Trenton were Jim Lake and Ron Becker.

A quartet including Bill Kane, Dave Agnew, Dave Jordan and Dennis Tonkovich took the 880 relay laurels for Plymouth, finishing in 1:40.1. The mile run was won by Trenton with Plymouth's Frank Dorset finishing second.

Sweeping the high hurdles, a trio of Rock runners were led by Dan Johnson's first place time of 16.5 seconds. Jim Scharmen finished second and Jim White placed third.

PLYMOUTH'S John Bates finished second in the 880 behind a Trenton runner. Teammate Steve Ward grabbed third place for the Rocks.

In the 440, John Bowsman ran to a 54.8 second victory, followed by a Trentonite. The Rocks' Dave Dielam placed third.

Running away with the 100-yard dash was Dennis Tonkovich with a time of 10.7 seconds. Bill Kane finished third behind a Trenton sprinter.

A 22.5 second time was enough to give Plymouth's Dan Johnson first place in the 180 low hurdles. Johnson was followed by Bob Kreitch, Trenton placed third.

TONKOVITCH took the 220' with a time of 23.6 seconds, a runner from the host team finished second and Bill Kane took the number three slot.

The Rocks polished things off with a 3:47.1 victory in the mile relay. Running for Plymouth were John Bates, Steve Ward, Jim Eder and John Bowsman.

On Friday, the varsity trackmen will travel to Allen Park for a meet.

THESE ARE some of the girls whose performances will highlight the Water-Waves' and Ripples' "Liquid Legends" water show to be held Thursday through Saturday at the Plymouth High School pool. They are, beginning top center and going clockwise, Susan Mettetal, Sandy Ritzenhouse, Sue Niemi, Sue Hudson, Lynn Niles, Carol Otwell, Judy Kisabeth, Pat Turrentine, Marilyn Gibson, and Beth Miller.

WATER FORMATIONS like this one will be featured when Plymouth High School's swimming Misses portray traditional children's stories and fairy tales at their annual Water

Show. Nightly evening performances will be given Thursday through Saturday, for the first time this year, a 1 p.m. matinee Saturday.

Tennis Team Wins Over N. Farmington, Northville

Plymouth's varsity netmen ran their string of wins to five matches last week as they defeated North Farmington 5-2 Monday with two exhibition wins and downed Northville 7-0 Friday.

Tuesday's match with Trenton was rained out and will be played at a later date. In Monday's match with North Farmington, Dave Tidwell won over Sizeng 6-2 and 6-3.

Both Bob Waters and Doug Sutherland lost as Waters went down 6-3, 5-7 and 5-7 and Sutherland lost 8-6 and 7-5.

GARY Fuelling beat Farmington's Phair 6-3 and 6-1, and Jim Bruff and Clark Raven won over Hodge and Pederson 6-3 and 6-2. Rick Jones and Robin Wideman combined to beat Boyer and Hayford 6-2 and 6-2, and Charles Masten and Clinton Blood took Steinman and Czubiak 6-1 and 6-0.

In additional matches with North Farmington, Tom Chandler and Rick Wagar beat Slucher and Stevens 8-0 and Tim Saeger and Jay Reynolds won over Phair and Phair 8-5.

Playing at Northville Friday, the Rock netmen took virtually everything, dropping only one set. Tidwell took a 6-4, 6-1 decision over Bill French. Waters beat Larry Thibos 6-0 and 6-1, Sutherland won 7-1 and 6-2 over Bob Langtree and Fuelling took Jim Long 7-5 and 6-0.

DOUBLES competition saw Bruff and Raven win over

Golfers Win Three Out of 4 Matches

Virtually the same squad that won the league championship last year, Plymouth High School golfers are off to a good start, winning three out of their first four matches of the season.

On Monday, April 13, Plymouth took a 164-177 decision over Redford Union on the Rocks' home course at Braeburn Golf Club. Co-medalists in the match were Dave Wall and Skip Otwell, both with 40.

In a six-man, 18-hole match against Ann Arbor on April 14, the Plymouth linksmen went down to a 477-499 defeat. Low man for Ann Arbor was Dick Graf with a 73. Dave Wall was Plymouth's medalist, shooting a 75.

PLAYING on Livonia-Franklin's home course, Warren Valley, the Rocks downed the Livonians 159-173, with Wall low man again with 39.

Plymouth hosted Bentley on Monday, April 20 and beat them by 11 strokes, 167-178. Gerry Scott was medalist for the Rocks, firing 38.

The Rocks lack only one man from last year's championship team, Trenton, with all of last year's varsity back is the team for them to beat in a race that looks as though it will be a close one.

While coach John Sandmann said it's still early to tell what his squad will do, he noted they only missed qualifying for the State finals last year by four strokes in the regional meet.

This year's regionals come up about the middle of May.

Water Waves Set "Liquid Legends" Carnival Theme

A theme of "Liquid Legends" will run through their annual water show at the P.H.S. pool. Nightly performances, beginning Thursday, April 30 at 8 p.m. and continuing through Saturday, May 2.

will be under the direction of Mrs. Price J. Watts, advisor-coach. A Saturday matinee will be offered for the first time this year on May 2 at 1 p.m.

Still playing in pre-season competition, Plymouth's varsity nine dropped a 5-3 game to Livonia-Franklin in eight innings last Tuesday and edged out Northville Wednesday 4-3.

In Tuesday's tangle with Franklin, pitcher Curt Irish was charged with the loss. He shared the hurling chores with Fred Higgs who served for three innings and Dave Troutman who went out in the seventh.

At Northville Wednesday, starter John Daniel went six innings, gave up three runs, fanned 11 and walked one.

HE WAS relieved in the seventh when Curt Irish came on with no outs and two men on. The Rocks have been hampered by a lack of hitting, getting only three hits in each of their past three games.

They opened the league season Monday when they traveled to Allen Park for a game. Thursday, they will host Redford Union for a game.

Tennis Clinic

If you're a beginner and don't know the fundamentals of tennis, or if you'd just like to brush up on the finer points of the game, you'll have a chance on Saturday, May 9.

That's when P.H.S. tennis coach Jim Stevens will conduct a tennis clinic in co-operation with the school recreation department, directed by Herbert Woolweaver.

Stevens, with the assistance of varsity tennis players, will hold the clinic from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The program will include two groups - one starting at 10 and the other at 11:30 a.m.

The clinics are being conducted in conjunction with National Play Tennis Week, May 3-9, sponsored by the U.S. Lawn Tennis Association. CORVAIR by Chevrolet
Mountain-conqueror, turnpike-shrinker, curve-straightener
(and you couldn't pick a better time to buy one)

This year we gave Corvaire more power. Nearly 19% more in the standard engine—to go with the maneuverable size, light steering and rear-engine traction.

And it's been busy winning new friends and making enthusiasts even more enthusiastic. Take the 1964 International Canadian Winter Rally, for instance—1,300 miles of snowy roads, roller-coaster hills and tricky curves that tested the rally-equipped cars and expert drivers to their limit.

Out of 141 entries Corvaire was first overall winner, taking top honors for the second year in a row. And two other Corvaire finished in the top ten spots.

Nice car to have when you're out to do some mountain conquering, turnpike shrinking or curve straightening of your own.

Nice car to have, too, if most of your driving's in the city. Because the same things that make Corvaire such a great little performer in the hinterlands stand it in good stead on city streets.

You just couldn't ask for a more agile, more sure-footed, more peppery car in traffic. Or a sportier looking number to do the town in. Or, as we mentioned under the big black type, a better time than right now to buy one.

The Plymouth Symphony membership drive will be starting on May 10 and already women from Lake Pointe have been making plans to work on the project.

Members of Boy Scout Troop 863 recently went on a week-end camp out at the D-Bar-A Scout Ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Varroni were host to a very successful newcomers "gambling" party a week ago Saturday.

Some of the Lake Pointe couples who were seen there were the Richard Baileys, the James Garbers, the Dick Lauterbachs, and the Lawrence Schendels.

Past, Present and Future in Oil Industry Outlined For Kiwanians

The oil industry, yesterday, today and tomorrow was the subject at Plymouth Kiwanian James Winterhalter spoke to fellow club members at their meeting held at Lofy's Tuesday.

Some of us, Winterhalter said, might remember when we had to take a five-gallon can to the corner store to have it filled with coal oil to use in lamps which lit our homes.

While this area had 67 changes in the wholesale price of gasoline during 1963, Winterhalter pointed out that metropolitan Detroit is the fourth largest marketing area in the world for petroleum products.

AMONG the things the petrochemical industry is experimenting with, is a new product that will hold the dust down on large desert areas, such as the Sahara, so that crops will grow.

But man's greatest resource is still the human mind, according to Winterhalter. It would take a building the size of Whitman and Barnes to hold the machinery necessary to duplicate the human mind and the water that flows over Niagara Falls to cool this machinery so it would function properly.

SAXTONS GARDEN CENTER

Presents THE PEST OF THE WEEK

Pre-emergent Crabgrass Control: Much promotional effort has gone into giving the homeowner products that will work if applied NOW! in the metropolitan Detroit area crabgrass begins germinating about April 20-25. Applications of a pre-emergent chemical should be made prior to this time for best results, in view of the colder than usual April this year.

You should also recommend that grass be cut high all through the year (1-1/2 inch minimum) and regularly; fertilize with a high nitrogen fertilizer periodically. This will give a thicker, more lush lawn to shade out crabgrass seed and prevent germination.

It will be more necessary to use a pre-emergent crabgrass chemical where a lawn has been renovated with a vertical mowing operation than where it has just been raked.

KILLS MORE BROADLEAF WEEDS

AT THE SAME TIME YOU FERTILIZE YOUR LAWN

Use Greenfield Broadleaf Weed Killer and Measured-Release Lawn Food

It's a broadleaf weed killer that kills more weeds than ordinary weed-and-feed products. Makes short work of dandelions, thistles, plantain and many others.

It's a Measured-Release Lawn Food. A complete, full-formula fertilizer with Greenfield's exclusive green timed-nitrogen prills. Keeps grass green longer, and gives your grass a quick greening, too.
