

Community session urges action on police, incinerator

An area police study and a joint effort with Livonia on an incinerator were called for in the second in a series of historic meetings between Plymouth Community governmental leaders held Wednesday.

An outgrowth of the now famous Hillsdale conference in March, this second meeting drew representatives from Northville, Canton Township, Plymouth Township, the City of Plymouth and the Plymouth Community School District. The March meeting and this one was sponsored by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, and was chaired by Dr. Howard McClusky from the University of Michigan.

Meeting at Thunderbird Inn on Northville Road for dinner, the blue ribbon group of community leaders discussed two main items: rubbish disposal combined with the possibility of joining in an authority with Livonia for a multi-million dollar incinerator; and an area wide police study.

CITY COMMISSIONER Arch Vallier started the ball rolling at the meeting, a conference where no official action could be taken.

"I think a good problem to start with is rubbish disposal. We are tangled in a lawsuit right now over the only dump we have. Livonia, Plymouth, Northville are going to be in dire need, and there's not too much time to wait. What we've really got to watch is that Livonia doesn't form an authority and go ahead without us."

City manager Richard Blodgett reported that he had held initial negotiations with Livonia on the incinerator.

Vallier noted that although the City of Plymouth had expressed an interest, none of the remaining communities had.

"I think the other communities should get in and push," Vallier urged.

Whoopee! no City tax hike

Residents in the City of Plymouth apparently will be getting more for their money next year as more City personnel are added at no increase in taxes.

The City Commissioners held an un-attended public hearing on the 1966-67 fiscal budget Monday night. Among the items and proposals in the new budget, from Richard Blodgett, City Manager are:

* A $1.5 million increase in assessed valuation will help hold the tax millage line for the sixth year in a row if Blodgett has his way. The boost in valuation will bring in $22,000 over last year.

* An expected total general fund budget of about $868,500.

* A $10,500 increase in administrative costs, for attorney's fees and elections.

* An increase of two men in the police department, one man in the fire department (to comply with new laws regarding firemen's hours) and a second man in the building safety department.

* A decrease in the Department of Public Works budget, basically because fewer streets will be paved this summer. It is expected, however, some will be paved, with the widening of Harvey St. downtown receiving top priority.

* About $40,000 is budgeted for a new DPW garage, and $22,000

Wins lawnmower at Saxton opening

A 19-inch Toro Flymo, power lawnmower was awarded to Stanford Besse of 449 Auburn St. at Saxton's Garden Supply grand opening held last Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Besse was one of several persons who won prizes at the opening celebration. Saxton's, located on Ann Arbor Trail, east of Main St., was marking the opening of their recently constructed addition.

The official ground breaking ceremonies for the Plymouth Township Ford plant were held last Wednesday morning at the site.

Nearly 100 Ford officials and local governmental leaders crammed into a tent erected on the proposed site north of the C & O tracks along Sheldon Rd. as bitter cold winds and driving rains dampened spirits.

Remarks by Township supervisor John D. McEwen and City officials was the Plymouth plant's general manager Robert Winder.

Robert Winder, new general manager of the Ford plant, has reported he will be unable to speak at the May meeting of the Chamber of Commerce's Businessmen's Forum.

According to Fran Booth, a representative from Ford will be sent in his place, but as the Mail went to press, who it would be was still undetermined.

The Forum meets the first Thursday of each month. This month's luncheon meeting begins at noon at the Mayflower Meeting House.

NEW DOWNTOWN TRAFFIC FLOW: Jay Eldridge, professional planner, envisions one-way loop for downtown Plymouth. His plans were unveiled at a Chamber of Commerce-sponsored luncheon last Thursday.

Envision mall, one-way loop for downtown

A mall for two blocks of Penniman Avenue has been proposed to bolster the downtown business district by the City of Plymouth's professional planners, Velican and Leman.

The plans were unveiled before nearly 150 Plymouth governmental leaders and businessmen at a meeting at the Mayflower Meeting House held Thursday at noon.

Jay Eldridge, planner from Velican and Leman, outlined the plans for a mall to cover Penniman Ave from Harvey to Main St. and from Main to the intersection of Union and Ann Arbor Trail in front of the Penn Theatre. Included in the Mall proposal would be space for a large department store. On the mall plan, Main St. would remain open; just the two Penniman blocks would be closed.

Also proposed was a one-way counterclockwise four lane loop for downtown Plymouth, to run along Harvey, Church, Union, Wing and Deer, circling the central business district.

THE NEW proposal, possible under the Federally assisted 701 master plan superseeds a first CBD plan submitted in 1958. Eldridge outlined his proposals after a careful review of documented figures showing that al-

PHS senior, Mary Fink, wins rare Merit scholarship

A Plymouth High School senior has been awarded one of 500 National Merit Scholarships.

Mary Ann Fink, daughter of Pearl and Joseph Fink of 44735 Cherry Hill Rd., won her scholarship in competition with 795,000 other students across the country.

Swim Club

The Colony Swim Club will hold an open house at its new facilities on Beck Rd. on the next three Sundays—May 8, 15 and 22.

Formed over a period of the last two years, the private club now has 200 members, but is seeking at least one hundred more.

A full-time summer manager, Bird school teacher Derald McKinley, has been hired, as well as an assistant manager, and life guards.

The pool, located well back from Beck Rd. just south of Joy Rd. (near Gyde), is completed, as well as much of the landscaping of the deck and picnic area. The formal opening is set for May 28, Memorial Day weekend. Swim Club officials invite anyone interested in joining, or in just seeing the pool to come to one of the open houses.

The highly coveted scholarship is made on the basis of a National Merit Scholarship test given to students in their junior year of high school. Only 500 are awarded in the whole United States, ranging from $100 to $1500. The awards are renewable for four years, each year appropriate grades are maintained.

Mary Fink has enrolled in Michigan State University at East Lansing, and plans to major in veterinary medicine.

Four seniors were given a chance to qualify in the finals of the competition. Miss Fink, Susan Hulce, Charles Catlett and Daniel Collick.

City plans appointment of charter study group

The City's charter may be up for revision soon.

That was the decision Monday as the City Commissioners met in regular session and agreed to each bring back candidates for an appointed committee to study such a revision.

City attorney Thomas Healy was asked to report on how the charter revision process would take place.

It was agreed that the matter would be passed to a group outside of the commission.

OTHER ITEMS on the short agenda included a request from RCA for more land in the industrial park for a 40,000 sq. ft. expansion.

Also, the Commission agreed to press action on further landscaping and cleanup of the Mill St. urban renewal area, upon the urging of a citizens' group from the area.

A fence for the Hamilton playground was also approved, after a complaint about youth activity in the area was heard.

And, $1,000 was voted to study the possible relocation of the City's Sheldon Rd. water main, which may have to be moved for the widening of Sheldon.

The City fathers voted 3-2 in favor of the study after 35 minutes of discussion, with James McKeon and George Lawton voting no on the request, which came from City Manager Richard Boldgett.

Both Lawton and McKeon expressed concern over the relocation, and Lawton urged that the attorney should be on hand for any study of a move. The appropriation was for an engineering study.

Propose mall, loop

though there had been an increase in the total consumer dollars spent in businesses in Plymouth $24.4 million, 1958, to $28.6 million in 1963) the total dollars spent on comparison shopping was declining.

Shoe shops and clothing stores were among those listed as comparison shops.

"Plymouth is holding its own in local dollars spent here. But comparison purchase are going elsewhere," Eldridge noted the impact.

Eldridge noted the impact of the shopping centers had definitely been felt in Plymouth.

"We estimate there has been a triple increase in floor area for comparison shopping, including Westland, Livonia Mall and Wonderland in the immediate area," he said.

"We must be cognizant of the shopping centers. You are only going to be able to draw to the CBD if you have something to offer," Eldridge added.

"WE MUST also overcome strip commercial development, with its lack of attention to parking. We hope to bring some of the amenities of a shopping center to Plymouth," Eldridge said.

Eldridge issued a challenge to the Plymouth merchants to study and comment on the plan, and chided them for failing to fully complete forms for a survey taken earlier.

"Out of about 100 sent out, we got 70 back. I was a little disappointed in the returns. We also provided a space for comment, but I found no effort put in these," he said.

Eldridge added the mall plan was an effort to bring Penniman Ave. back into use. He also outlined a need for a large department store, noting it could go on the mall in the neighborhood of the Union St.-Penniman Ave. corner, and that it would be good for business.

Closely tied with the mall plans is the one-way loop. Eldridge asked for further comment on that, and a questionnaire was passed out.

"We feel the traffic system is a strong item, and that we must resolve it first," Eldridge said.

HE FURTHER indicated the entire plan was also dependent on the downtown urban renewal plan for the Wing-Deer-Maple-Kellogg Street area. The City is currently studying that area for urban renewal.

"There is currently some sub-standard uses that could stand in the way of logical further commercial development," Eldridge said.

Eldridge said the loop was one-half the battle.

Chaired by Carl Pursell, president of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, the meeting was introduced by Sidney Strong, chairman of the City of Plymouth planning commission.

Eldridge concluded his presentation, urging the return of the questionnaires on the one-way loop, and the mall.

for new or replaced equipment.

These and other items continue under study by the City fathers. Blodgett's report devotes considerable attention to expanding the building inspection department with the addition of a second man. He cited increased industrial, commercial and residential construction, the 701 master plan and new zoning ordinance, and implementation of a systematic housing code as key reasons for the additional manpower.

Blodgett noted the building department had come under fire for its handling of several problems, and he attributed them to lack of personnel.

The new man may be used to regularly inspect rental homes and buildings in the city, and assist in inspections for other permits.

Only one item - the parking fund - was discussed at the hearing, with Ralph Lorenz, head of the new parking committee, being told by Blodgett no money was available for creation of parking this year.

Strike affects new school

The building and trade workers strike which swept across the country Monday as predicted, has affected the construction of the new school in Lake Pointe on Five Mile.

Superintendent of schools Russell Isbister said Monday no work was going on, after he personally toured the site.

COMING APART AT THE SEAMS: Plymouth's second defunct water tower, located on Byron and Dewey St., comes down. Workmen must cut through the metal with a cutting torch, and the pieces are lowered with a huge crane. The Mail's telephoto lens catches a top section on its way down. It is expected the City will sell or give away the lot after the tower is off, perhaps to a neighborhood group seeking a playground area.

Ever Popular Roses Demand No Pampering

For the majority of people, roses are the most satisfactory garden plants of all. Every poll ever taken places the popularity of roses in a class by itself.

In a garden, along a fence, beside walks and drives, individually in the foundation planting - almost everywhere - roses can be used to enliven and brighten the home grounds. They'll flower fully twice or more times each year and the blooming period lasts a long time. There are almost always some blooms to cut, even when out of the regular flowering season.

For Everyone

Anyone can grow roses. If you're seeking prize blooms, you'll turn over any well-drained soil to a depth of eight to twelve inches, mix in a liberal supply of manure or fertilizer, plus peat-moss or organic material and then plant. Spray the plants every ten days or so with complete insect control especially made for roses.

Dig A Hole

If you're not especially eager to have prize flowers, but just want plenty of nice blooms, you can. In reasonably good soil, just dig a hole a few inches wider than the spread of the plant's roots, mix a couple handfuls of fertilizer with the soil, water the plants well but do not keep them too wet. Spray the foliage occasionally and sit back and wait for results.

Like Sun

Roses like sun and well-drained soil.

One of the best ways to select the color of blooms you want is to look at the color illustrations of roses at your local nursery or in mail order nursery catalogs. New, improved roses are being introduced each year.

All-America Rose Selections are safe bets as they have been tested in all parts of the country and are selected by experts.

Growth Simple

The average homeowner cannot go wrong with roses, according to the American Association of Nurserymen, if he tries the top-rated varieties from his regular nurseryman and uses reasonable care in planting, watering and insect control.

it clear, right now, that we want in on this thing."

At the close of the discussion on the matter it was agreed the five communities of the City of Northville, Plymouth, Northville and Canton Townships, and the City of Plymouth would make a joint overture to Livonia, if each individual government decided they were interested, Plymouth City officials agreed to take the lead in co-ordinating the project.

On the police study matter, it was agreed each individual government would make a decision on the study. Plymouth Township trustee Dick Lauterbach was assigned the task of seeking an answer from each group.

Should each group say yes, a study committee then might be formed.

Trustee Ralph Garber of Plymouth Township posed a question of court jurisdiction if an area police force was formed, and added that a new court may soon cover the entire area.

The legal question of an authority to cover a joint police force was discussed, with no one noting any reasons why it could not take place.

"I know of no reason," McEwen said.

VALLIER, the most outspoken leader at the meeting said: "The rest of the county is not going to sit back and pay for the Road Patrol to protect the townships. It's time we brought an end to all these little empires; that's what we've got - a lot of people fighting for their little bit of an empire."

City Commissioner George Lawton urged that any area police protection must be uniform.

"It's a problem of who gets what. Whatever is worked out, we must be sure protection is reasonably uniform."

Township trustee Gene Overholt noted he did not see why any group would not take part in the study.

A study committee is currently at work in Northville Township it was noted, and a committee in Plymouth Township reported over a year ago on its findings. Among the Plymouth Township recommendations, coming from a committee headed by Lauterbach, was a joint study.

Each group is expected to take up the item of a joint police study at their next regular meeting. (The City of Plymouth met Monday night, and agreed to the study) Among the representatives at the Thunderbird was Mike Allen, Mayor of Northville, and Forest Truesdale, Richard Palmer and Henry Holleyoak from Canton Township.

Alexander Hamilton move should be friendly

Recently, it was announced that Plymouth will lose the home office of Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company.

It was a loss that had been expected for several months, and was no secret to many. Among the rumors that have flown since Hamilton announced plans to build their home office on a site near the I-696 Interchange and Farmington Rd. was one that purported Hamilton made no effort to locate its proposed expansion in Plymouth.

The Mail discussed the matter with a Plymouth industrialist who was extremely close to Hamilton's desire to move, and a man whose knowledge of the facts is above reproach.

He assured the Mail that every effort had been made by the Company to locate here, and sites had been considered, including one along Plymouth Rd. He also explained professional planners from the company of Vilcan and Leman had recommended the other site.

He further explained the company's officials wrestled with the matter at some length, totaled up all the facts at hand and came out with a decision to move. The decision to move to the I-696 site was based on the state-wide and national exposure expected from the site; and, because it was near the location of a newly developed college, and the important communities of Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills.

The Plymouth Community and its governmental officials did not miff the proposed expansion, nor did they 'spoil an attempt to keep it in Plymouth.

Hamilton leadership emphasized this week, in an interview with this newspaper, that community leaders had done their utmost to retain the company headquarters.

"We've never had more co-operation," President Charles H. Bruce said. "All of the leaders have been cooperative. We couldn't have had better treatment."

The company's young leadership merely decided to go elsewhere, for purely practical business reasons. No one can quarrel with the logic or the rightness of that.

Many Plymouth people have pointed with pride at Hamilton, noting it is the fastest growing life insurance company anywhere. It seems to us that no attempt now should be made to discredit the name of Alexander Hamilton.

There is no use in crying over spilt milk; there is no use in petty name calling, or ill founded rumors.

Plymouth, we hope, has grown beyond that stage.

Hamilton will always have a large Plymouth office, and may someday decide to return here with a larger building. Hamilton has made contributions to community projects. In 1964, Bruce was the campaign director for the Plymouth Community Fund.

And many of the Hamilton people are expected to stay here.

While it is a shame the owners and leadership of the company could not decide to stay here, we do not choose to speculate about their leaving. Once before this community got worked up over the loss of a major economic factor—Daisy Air Rifle—we'd hate to see it happen again.

And while, because of our concern for community growth, we cannot be entirely in agreement with the move of Hamilton to the Quaker Town Village site, we do not quarrel with their right to leave this community as amiably as possible.

LETTERS:

Thanks Mail for joining in fight for traffic light

(EDITOR'S NOTE: Last week, Mrs. Olson pleaded with Governor Romney for a traffic light on Haggerty Rd. and Ann Arbor Rd. to ease what may be a potential child-killing problem. The details of her fight against the shrugged shoulders of bureaucracy appeared on Page One in last week's Plymouth Mail.)

Dear editor: May I say many thanks for the very fine picture (it certainly showed the children in rapid flight), and the story which you gave my letter. I had not expected top billing like that and was most appreciative. If your gratefully accepted publicity doesn't help to cause some fireworks and get us action I don't know what will do the trick. I did take your suggestion of writing to Rep. James Tierney, and enclosed verifaxed copies of Romney's letter, my previous letter in your April 6 edition, and also Mr. Harrison's reply to my letter last fall.

I sincerely believe that the cause for which we're fighting concerns all of Michigan - not just our area. It should be a part of traffic uniformity in regulations throughout the state and for that matter, the United States.

I hope it's not a futile battle - and again - many thanks for joining our ranks. Sincerely, Mrs. H. G. Olson

Dear editor: I was surprised and pleased with your article about the college proposal and merger-poll. From a D.O. (wife) it was refreshing. Surprising too, is that the College proposal and merger-poll could cause such a stir. I guess the patients are very aware our husbands are busier than ever - doctoring sick people! ### Thanks for ad placement

Dear Editor: I am deeply grateful to the "Plymouth Mail" for placement of my advertisement. It meant immediate results. I received several responses. My only regret is that I did not remember past experiences; that one can always count on the good people that live in Plymouth. Sincerely, Dily E. Wisley

The good life

Colonializing Ford

Doug Johnson

The title of this column suggests that my job is fun. Last Wednesday, it weren't true.

Hardhitting general manager Dave Wiley and I sloshed through the mud to Ford Motor Company's groundbreaking Wednesday morning, and stood shivering in the cold under a green stripped tent, and listened to Plymouth welcome Ford, and to Ford say hello to Plymouth.

Most Plymouthites can hardly contain their excitement about the prospect of a giant of the automobile industry locating here. A few, of course, mutter something about a small town and liking to keep it that way.

Dignitaries abounded and crammed the tent to its walls; nearly everyone was introduced except the girls serving coffee.

There were jokes about the weather, and comments about big brother government wanting to take over control of several of the prerogatives of the giant auto makers.

There were even some germane remarks by a Ford executive about what Ford planned to build, and how they planned to be a good corporate citizen.

A man from Ford's news department was on hand and passed out a packet with two news releases and a photo of the architect's rendering of the new plant.

There were no signs of white colonial columns or grey paint, or 'Ford Motor Company' in old English letters on the picture, which I thought was a nice touch.

Among the speeches was a remark that this was the first Ford plant in Plymouth, but longtime Plymouth Mail bookkeeper, unofficial Mail historian and general mother to us all, Liz Hartwick, says Ford had three plants in the area many moons ago.

Now all three are occupied by the Wayne County Rd. Commission: one is located near Phoenix Lake, the other on Hines Drive and Wilcox Rd., and the other on Newburgh Rd. near Hines Drive.

So the best we can say is: "Welcome back, Ford."

Aside from the rain and the cold and the mud, the groundbreaking was uneventful.

The advent of a Ford plant will quite obviously mean a lot for the growth of Plymouth. The taxes for the school system alone will make a large impact.

Plymouth owes a debt of thanks to a handful of men who worked hard to get the plant for Plymouth. Credit for the move has been handed out to many, including Ford itself, naturally enough.

It's nice to have them here, as well as the Spartan Stores warehouse, and other new industries on their way into the community.

Friday I had a chance to visit one of Plymouth's newest commercial buildings - and certainly the prettiest.

Heide's flowerhouse, designed by Plymouth architect Tivadar Balogh, is located on the corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Harvey St. A subtle mixture of brick and glass, the building is paneled, full of wrought iron, and colorful splashes of cut flowers and new carpeting.

The brick in the building seems inconsequential. You get the impression the building is entirely open and made of glass. The windows run from the ground to the roof; a copper facing along the top accentuates the modern lines of the building, created by glass windows jutting out and joined at right angles.

It's easily the prettiest thing to come to downtown Plymouth in a long time.

I suppose I'm open for some cracks about the colonial architectural theme, and it's importance in creating the atmosphere of Plymouth.

I must be honest. I cannot delude myself into thinking gray paint, white shutters and colonial columns make a town different. It's a nice touch, that's all.

Our problems, and the answers to them, remain the same.

How well we can react as a community to those problems determines how different we are. I like the colonial theme of the community; it matches the name 'Plymouth.'

But I still cannot deny that the new Heide's flowershop is a beautiful building.

In this week's mail was a hastily scrawled letter signed 'PHS students'. It thanked the police for letting the teenagers have their yearly egg fight in Hines Park; in it they agreed to stay away from the cemetery.

The fight is held annually sometime in the spring on Haggerty Field in Hines Park. Last year the fight spread until eggs were thrown at nearby homes.

This year that apparently didn't happen. My wife and I drove through the area several times the night of the fight. One Wayne County Sheriff's car was patrolling the area. Off towards the bluff beneath the City's cemetery we could hear the sounds of an epic battle. It was only a brief encounter, and this year no damage was done.

It is reported some particularly inventive students let the eggs sit out and get rotten before they have the fight.

The whole thing seems so much better than picketing downtown or in front of the schoolhouse.

I'm just sorry we didn't get out of the car and join in.

Tours of Northville State can be arranged anytime

"Tours by interested groups can be planned at any time during the year," commented recently E. Gordon Yudashkin, M.D., newly appointed medical superintendent at Northville State Hospital. This plan means that there will be no open house during National Mental Health Week, May 1-7. A group of 12 or more - high school age or adult - can call ahead and complete arrangements with the community relations department for a scheduled tour at any time. In addition, individuals may contact the hospital to be combined with a scheduled group.

All scheduled tours leave promptly from the hospital lobby at the appointed time. Following the tour, usually an hour and a half in length, the director of community relations or another staff member serves as a discussion leader for a half hour. Often a group can plan to have a noon meal served at the hospital either at the beginning or at the end of a tour.

"Such tours can truly be opportunities to learn more about the modern care of the psychiatrically ill," added Dr. Yudashkin. "No longer are our state mental hospitals apart from our community, for they are becoming a major nearby resource for both in-patient and out-patient care."

Mrs. Harold McKelvey, captain, Mrs. William Bevier, boatswain, and Mrs. Henry Ferrari, purser, make plans for the spring dinner dance of the Newcomers' Club to be held at Idyl Wyde Golf and Country Club May 21. The theme for the dance is a "River Boat Cruise." Cocktail hour will be at 7:30 p.m. followed by a buffet dinner. Dancing will be to the music of Frank Sidney.

Newcomers plan spring dance with "Riverboat Cruise" theme

An evening aboard the "Riverboat Newcomer" will set the theme for the spring dinner dance to be sponsored by the Newcomer Club May 21.

The "boat" will be docked at the Idyl Wyde Golf and Country Club, pier 15380 Golfview, on Five Mile Rd., just east of Levan Rd.

The captain's cocktail hour is from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. and will be followed by a buffet dinner.

Dancing will be to the music of Frank Sidney and his orchestra, who also performs for the Detroit Yacht Club.

The ship's captain, Isabella McKelvey, has a friendly, courteous crew. Purser, Mildred Ferrari, and her reservation clerks will sell tickets. They are: Beverly Johnstone, 9002 Morrison (Joy Rd.), 453-4665; Lee Schollenberger, 14956 Maplewood (Lake Pointe), 453-2194; Gertrude George, 14915 Robinwood (Lake Pointe), 453-5014; Mildred Wells, 325 Arthur (Midtown), 453-7543; Nedra Wagar, 12102 Hines Ct. (Riverside and Salem Square), 453-3078; Judith Fridley, 1768 Nantucket (S. West), 453-4475; Joyce Lee, 6000 Napier (West), 453-6363; Berdine Harmon, 45051 Beechcrest (Woodlone), 453-5469.

Lutherans host spring luncheon

Spring flowers, ribbons, and beads decorated the colorful box lunches. Each was different. Some were centered with a corsage, some had faces with beads for eyes, others were decorated with one huge flower. The boxes were covered with brightly colored wrapping paper in various motifs.

It was the annual spring luncheon for the Ladies Aid Society of St. Peter's Lutheran Church. Speaker for the occasion was Mrs. Edwin Schrader, who demonstrated ideas for table coverings and centerpieces.

Using inexpensive cotton fabric in pastels and floral patterns, she makes a tablecloth by cutting the edges with pink shears. She then covers the cloth with nylon net in a matching or contrasting color. Edges of the net are bound in rickrack. The effect of the covering is dramatic.

One centerpiece that Mrs. Schrader suggests for a child's party is a carousel. A small hat box is used as a base with the cover at the top. Soda straws are pinned and glued between at varying heights. Animal crackers are fastened to these. Bright ribbons are used as streamers and flow from an ice cream cone fastened to the center of the top.

For a table covering for a child's birthday party, she suggests using a white percale sheet. Start with the child's first party and let him draw his own birthday cake on the cloth with indelible ink using the correct number of candles. When his guests arrive, each signs his name on the sheet. It is then placed on the table and covered with red organdy. Each succeeding child in the family is allowed to do the same on his birthday through the years until the entire cloth is filled. It makes an interesting keepsake and the children enjoy being creative, Mrs. Schrader says.

A suggested centerpiece for a boy's party is a treasure chest. A large shirt box is the base. It is covered in black oil cloth and trimmed with gold metallic tape using brads for the nails. Gold wallpaper covers the inside. Inside the treasure box are the prizes which are wrapped in comic book paper.

To carry out the treasure theme, Mrs. Schrader suggests placing a red bandana on a stick beside each plate. The boys are each given a note with a clue to find part of their lunch. When they find this, there will be another clue wrapped inside the sandwich telling them where to find something else on the menu. When the entire lunch is found, the boy wraps it in the bandana and hurries back to the tables. The first one back takes a prize from the treasure chest.

For an impromptu dinner party when fresh flowers are not available, she suggests filling a chafing dish with a potted philodendron by draping the leaves around the dish. She then inserts artificial flowers and candles in the leaves. This makes an elegant centerpiece, she said.

Mrs. Schrader told her audience that she never throws anything away. Bits of ribbon, artificial flowers, wrapping paper and other notions can always be used to decorate something, she said.

Heading the committee for the luncheon was Mrs. Leo Schultz with co-chairman, Mrs. Robert Schultz. Dining room chairman was Mrs. George Britcher and Mrs. Richard Garchow was in charge of entertainment.

Mrs. James Winterhalter and her son, Bob, look over the diploma she received in February from Eastern Michigan University. Bob Winterhalter will graduate from Michigan State University in June and wedding bells will ring for him shortly after that.

Mother and son will graduate this year

The year 1966 is an important one for Mrs. James Winterhalter of Ross St. and her son, Bob. Both will receive diplomas just a few months apart. After 5 1/2 years of study and hard work, Mrs. Winterhalter has attained her goal, a diploma from Eastern Michigan University. Her son will graduate in June from Michigan State University. Another big event is planned for June when Bob will be married. A former model for Powers in New York, Mrs. Winterhalter had one semester of college when she was married. "I waited until my youngest son, Greg, was in grade school and then began slowly by taking only two courses," she said. "Gregory is now 16 years old so I have had more time to study."

Mrs. Winterhalter admits that it has been a struggle to go to school while maintaining her home and family, but feels it was worth it. She has a BA degree in history but would like to get into library science eventually, which will probably mean more school for her. She has lived in Plymouth most of her life, but she met her husband in New York when he was stationed there as a midshipman during the war. Mr. Winterhalter is now employed by Mobil Oil Co. in the customer relations department.

The Scribbler Two mothers with Joyce Holmes

More than seventy winters have tried their best to mar her face and stoop her back but still her eyes are clear and soft and she walks tall and proud. She may complain of being a little more tired than usual but still she maintains a pace that a woman half her years would have difficulty following. Five days a week she is a housekeeper for other people as well as maintaining her own two-story house, her garden and her house plants. Her house is a veritable botanical garden. She grows all her vegetables and some fruit. Come winter her freezer is filled to overflowing making supermarkets necessary for just a few staples. When she sets a table for a "gathering of the clan" it fairly groans with good, plain, stick-to-the-ribs food. She wouldn't win awards for exotic or imaginative cookery but most men would love the fare she puts out. She admires and practices the good Yankee virtues of frugality and hard work and is not awed by rank or social position; a plain simple woman who speaks with a plain simple philosophy. Yet her life has truly been a vale of sorrows, but a steadfast, unshakable faith in God convinces her that life is good. Before she was twelve she was an orphan and her teenage years were spent in foster homes where she was little more than a servant girl. After she was married she was suddenly left a widow with nine growing children and a dairy farm that was in debt. Her strong shoulders withstood the burden and her religion sustained her through the subsequent losses of two sons, a grandson and a sister all under sudden tragic circumstances. One of those sons was my father. This pillar of courage that she represents I think helped my own mother through those dark days following my father's death last year. My mother, too, is a remarkable, self-sufficient woman. She is always willing to try something new and whatever she does, she does well. She rarely accepts impossible for an answer. Faced with a need for transportation that she never had before, she had the spunk to get her driver's license this spring even though she had never held a steering wheel before. She is approaching the two score and ten mark, but still can waterski circles around most of the young people where she spends her summers. Her first thoughts have always been for her children and for making our home a beautiful place to live. These two women, my grandmother and my mother, personify for me the meaning of this coming Mother's Day. They will never be famous or immortalized in poetry or song but they set for me the examples of love of life, devotion to family and the ability to cry out "excelsior" in the face of heartbreak and disillusionment.

Mrs. Ronald Nyhus of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church displays a poster made by her committee to advertise the benefit bake sale to be held May 13 and 14 at A & P, Stop and Shop, Krogers and Food Fair. Several of the Plymouth churches have joined in the united drive to help the Sheltered Workshop.

Churches plan bake sale; aid Sheltered Workshop

Plans are well underway for a benefit bake sale to be held May 13 and 14 simultaneously at Food Fair, Stop and Shop, Krogers, and A & P. The May 13 sale will be from 11 a.m. till 5 p.m. and the May 14 sale will be from 9 a.m. till 3 p.m. Several churches in Plymouth have joined hands in a spirit of cooperation to promote the sale with all proceeds slated for the "Sheltered Workshop". Churches involved in the benefit include the First Methodist, The First Presbyterian, St. John's Episcopal, Our Lady of Good Counsel, Riverside Church of God, First Baptist, Epiphany Lutheran, The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, and The Plymouth Assembly of God. Committees have been set up from each of the churches to carry out plans for advertising, bringing in baked goods and the sale itself. The Board of Health has requested that all baked goods be wrapped in the kitchen in which it is prepared. Committee members are asking contributors to wrap cookies, cup cakes, brownies, etc. in one dozen lots. The Board of Health has also requested that no cream filled products be included in the sale. Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. David Schlick and Mrs. Richard Doherty.

Republican Women plan for club

A Republican Women's Club is being formed in Plymouth. At the meeting April 27 at the home of Mrs. Richard Fritz, 20 interested women began formulating plans for organization of the club. Co-hostess for the meeting was Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing. Mrs. Sharleen Bishop, of the Republican Women's Club of Ann Arbor, addressed the group to inform them of the ground rules necessary to the formation of the club. She also told them that women will play an even bigger role in politics in years to come because most men are so involved in industry that they simply don't have the time to devote to political issues. Another meeting will be held May 25 from 2 until 4 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Sarah Haas, 8870 Rocker St. Further information may be had by calling Mrs. Haas at 453-0147.

Honor Norman Fischer at Interlochen

Norman Fischer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Fischer, 505 McKinley, was among 59 students - a record total - who attained the honor roll at the Interlochen Arts Academy for work done during the first semester. It was announced this week. Fischer is a junior. Those who "made" the roll earned a 3.5 (B plus) average or better at the academy. The school offers college preparatory academic instruction plus intensive study of the arts - music, art, drama and dance.

Children At Parties

There's nothing quite so awkward as having a small child at an adult party. Everyone's uncomfortable. Little Michael is squirming and anxious; the guests are wary because of the flow of adult conversation is stifled by the presence of the "little pitcher with big ears." And a child at the dinner table is even worse. The parents are distracted, "Oh, look Michael isn't eating his vegetables" and the guests are just plain bored. The answer is: serve children earlier. Let children have a little dinner party of their own but don't make it a miniature of the adult's repast since most youngsters are unfriendly to exotic dishes. I always serve several types of wine to my guests, and I find that serving children Pepsi-Cola in a glass with a striped swizzle stick and a wedge of lemon on the rim gives youngsters the feeling their beverage is "grown-up." Teenagers are another problem entirely. Never relegate a teen to the children's table. Heavens No! You can either seat them at one end section of your table, or have a separate set-up but serve them simultaneously with your adult guests. Naturally at holidays, you always place children at your table since that's part of the traditional fun of a family meal. I have fond memories and recollections of the bustle of youngsters at holiday dinners - the only time when children should be both seen and heard.

The Supervisor gave a summary of the list of bills amounting to a grand total of $10,660.13. Mr. Garber asked what the trip to Lansing for license plates amounting to $15. was for. Gene Overholt questioned the amount of $531.75 for Plumbing Inspection. He asked if we had receipts for each completed inspection to warrant the payment of said sum. ### ITEM NO. II - DISPOSITION OF TABLED AND ADJOURNED BUSINESS.

Liquor Control Commission (12-3-65)

Mr. Lonnie H. Brashear of 32900 Five Mile Road, Livonia, representing the Western Wayne County Conservation Association, spoke in their behalf, requesting the boards approval of the liquor license. Mr. C. B. Stanbury of 6805 Napier Road again stated his objections to the liquor license, as he had done before at the last meeting of March 8, 1966; still maintaining that he feels guns and liquor do not mix. He stated when the gun club was located on Joy Road, they were not allowed to shoot high powered rifles.

Georgia Rowland of 13909 Gottschalk Road again stated her objections to these parties basing their objections on the grounds of a nuisance element. He said this is not the issue here. The issue is the transfer of the liquor license. Mr. Ronald Meloche, the President of the Western Wayne County Conservation Association corrected Mr. Stanbury's statement concerning the use of high powered rifles when the club was located on Joy Road. He stated they were used and fired and that the firing range was set up and was supervised. He said the gate to the property is kept locked and also the gate to the rifle range is kept locked at all times. Mrs. Rowland refuted this statement made by Mr. Meloche, saying that she, personally, witnessed on occasions, men coming out of the gates, putting their guns in the car and driving off.

Mr. Clyde Smith of 49404 Oak Street, Plymouth, Michigan (owner of the Oak Haven Trailer Court on Ridge Road about a mile from location of Conservation Club) stated his objections to the transfer of the liquor license. He asked what a liquor license has to do with conservation. Mr. Brashear answered that most of the Conservation clubs do have a liquor license. The discussion ensued and Elizabeth Holmes requested the clerk read the action from the minutes of the previous meeting on March 8, 1966, concerning this item. Mr. Sparks read the section from the minutes relative to this item. The Supervisor expressed his feelings that some action should be taken on this issue at this meeting rather than keep those people coming back. Louis Norman expressed the idea that possibly more control of liquor would be exercised with a liquor license than without one. Mr. R. Meloche supported this statement saying that with a liquor license, other liquor could not be brought into the club and the liquor would be more closely supervised.

Mr. Lauterbach disagreed with Mr. Norman on this matter, questioning if police protection was adequate. A motion was made by Gene Overholt, supported by Ralph Garber that we pass the resolution to approve the transfer of the liquor license. A roll call vote was taken:

YEAS: Gene Overholt, Ralph Garber, C. V. Sparks

NAYS: Elizabeth Holmes, Dick Lauterbach, Louis Norman

The Supervisor voted yes. Motion carried.

Robert H. Wedler (2-28-66)

Excerpts from the report of Attorney, Ralph Cole, were read by Supervisor, McEwen, and after considerable discussion, this item was tabled until the May 10, 1966 meeting, on the motion of Ralph Garber, supported by Dick Lauterbach. Carried unanimously.

He explained the different procedures which could be followed to finance the project. He explained the best way was Chapter 20 of the drain code and explained this procedure in detail. He also suggested the possibility of requesting Federal Aid to minimize the cost. Herald Hamill, the engineer, stated the current problem is to provide the necessary drainage for the commercial areas on Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads which is inadequate at the present time. It was moved by Elizabeth Holmes, supported by Louis Norman, that the Board petition the Wayne County Drain Commission for a petition to provide storm drains in the Sheldon - Ann Arbor Road areas. Carried unanimously.

The matter was discussed and Elizabeth Holmes stated that storm sewers were not available at the present time. A motion was made by Ralph Garber and supported by Louis Norman that we pass the zoning as recommended by the Planning Commission at their February 16, 1966 meeting.

Fred E. Greenspan Bldg. Co (3-10-66)

Herald Hamill, Engineer (3-11-66)

Mr. Hamill stated there were a couple of oaks, some elms and a few other trees. Mr. Hamill estimated the damage to be $100. Mr. Hamill said that he had asked Mr. Gaffield which he would prefer; the replacement of the trees or the money in the amount of $100. Mr. Gaffield replied that he would prefer the latter. Gene Overholt made a motion to pay the $100. damage as suggested by Mr. Hamill, which would be paid out of the "Water Operating Fund." The motion was supported by Dick Lauterbach. Carried unanimously.

Herald F. Hamill (3-23-66)

The motion was made by Louis Norman and supported by Elizabeth Holmes, that the Engineer's recommendation be approved for sanitary sewer and water lines for Plymouth Estates Subdivision, and that a $90,000. bond be established in accordance with the estimated cost submitted by the consulting engineer. Carried unanimously.

John D. McEwen (4-5-66)

Woodbrook Subdivision #1 (4-6-66) - Stuart Oldford & Sons

Dick Lauterbach moved, supported by Ralph Garber, that the recommendations of Herald Hamill, the Engineer, for approval of underground as constructed and inspected; and approval of Hard-Back Plat in Woodbrook Subdivision #1 be accepted. Carried unanimously.

Captain C. L. Maas, Fire Department (3-31-66)

This item requests permission to send Fire Fighter, James E. Gignac, to the Advance Firemanship Training Class to be held at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, the week of May 2 through May 6, 1966 and that the fee of $40. be appropriated for this purpose. Mr. Overholt asked Capt. Maas if the $40. was the exact cost or an advance. Captain Maas replied that it was the total cost. Capt. Maas was also asked if the other firemen had attended this Training Class and Captain Maas answered yes. It was moved by Dick Lauterbach, supported by C. V. Sparks, that the fee of $40. be appropriated for this purpose. Carried unanimously.

John D. McEwen (3-6-66)

A motion was made by C. V. Sparks and supported by Ralph Garber that the Plymouth Township offices be closed on Saturdays; commencing April 30, 1966 and that new office hours be 8:30 to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. The Fire Department will take care of the dump tags on Saturdays after this day, to provide this service to anyone in the Township. It was moved by Ralph Garber, supported by Gene Overholt to publish a notice of the new hours in both The Observer and the Plymouth Mail. Carried unanimously.

Gerald M. Proskle (4-5-66)

A motion was made by Louis Norman to deny the request made by Mr. Proskle to connect to the water main on the south east corner of Beck Road and Ann Arbor Road because the mains are not available at this time. The motion was supported by C. V. Sparks. Carried unanimously.

It was moved by Dick Lauterbach and supported by Gene Overholt for the approval to transfer $758.81 from the Sewer Receiving Fund to #81-G account to make final payment of $13,080.60 on Federal Project #81-G. Carried unanimously.

John D. McEwen

This is requesting approval of recommendation of Engineer, Herald Hamill, for construction of supplemental water mains and to present a resolution to the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners for their approval. The mains are as follows:

- 1-16" in Five Mile Road from Sheldon east approximately 1600'
- 1-12" in Ann Arbor Road from Rocker Ave. to Lilley Road.

Mr. Hamill explained the water main in Five Mile Road from Sheldon should be done before the state widens the road. The cost estimate for this main is $30,552, and would service St. Johns Seminary. It was moved by Ralph Garber, supported by Gene Overholt to approve the Engineer's recommendation for this main and include the following resolution:

WHEREAS: The Township Engineer Herald Hamill has recommended the construction of certain water mains in the Township of Plymouth; said mains being supplemental to those contained in the original plans of the Master Water Program as approved by the Township of Plymouth and the Wayne County Road Commission, and

WHEREAS: The areas in which the proposed supplemental mains are to be constructed are sufficiently populated to warrant such installation for the general welfare of these areas, and

WHEREAS: The Plymouth Township Board of Trustees concurs with the Township Engineer in his recommendation of the construction of said supplemental mains,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED: That the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees approve, and does hereby approve the construction of the following water mains, supplemental to the original Master Water Plan installations as approved by the Plymouth Township Board and the Wayne County Board of Road Commissioners;

- 1 - 16" in Five Mile Road from Sheldon, east approximately 1600'.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED: That the Plymouth Township Board request the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners to approve the herein listed supplemental water mains in order that said installations may be expedited, and that contract be let and funds be allocated from the surplus remaining from the original sale of Plymouth Township Section, W-214, Wayne County Michigan, Metropolitan Water Supply System bonds dated April 27, 1965.

The 12" in Ann Arbor Road from Rocker Ave. to Lilley Road would help to tie together the whole system, but would not include any new customers. The estimated cost for this main is $29,750. It was moved by Elizabeth Holmes to approve the engineer's recommendation for this main. The motion failed for lack of support.

Northville Township Water and Sewer Commission

A communication from the Township of Northville, signed by R. D. Merriman, Supervisor, relative to sewage facilities for Plymouth Community School District Elementary School No. 7, located on the north side of Five Mile Road, west of Haggerty Road, was read.

On the motion of Louis Norman, supported by Ralph Garber and unanimously carried, it was resolved that since Northville Township does not have sanitary sewer outlets in the vicinity of Elementary School No. 7 and by the above letter relinquishes jurisdiction over sewage disposal from said school. Plymouth Township, hereby, grants permission to the Plymouth Community School District to make a connection to the Plymouth Township system at Inbrook and Five Mile Road; that the school district construct and pay all costs of the connection between the said point and Elementary School No. 7; that the School District shall provide all right-of-ways for construction and maintenance of the sewer and upon completion, dedicate the sewer to the Township of Plymouth; that the School District pay to the Township of Plymouth all charges set forth in the operating Ordinance of the Plymouth Township Sewer System and that the plan and profile of said connection, submitted by Herald Hamill, Township Engineer, is hereby approved.

ITEM NO. IV - RESOLUTIONS

It was moved by Gene Overholt, supported by Dick Lauterbach and carried unanimously, that we join with the City of Plymouth and the Plymouth Community School District in adopting the following resolution:

WHEREAS, The volume of traffic on Sheldon Road between Five Mile Road and Joy Road has shown an increase over the past five years and

WHEREAS, the volume of traffic on this section of Sheldon Road will continue to increase at a more rapid rate because of the development of the new Ford Motor Company plant, which is anticipated to employ 2,000 persons; because of a new shopping center at Sheldon and Ann Arbor Roads; and because of the potential industrial growth of property adjacent to the Ford Motor Company plant, and

WHEREAS, three school, two elementary and one junior high school, abut Sheldon Road at present and generate a considerable amount of traffic, pedestrian and vehicular, and

WHEREAS, this educational land use and increased vehicular traffic combine to cause a potential hazard to pedestrian school children as well as motor vehicle operators, and

WHEREAS, the City of Plymouth and the Township of Plymouth desire to construct sidewalks to accommodate pedestrian traffic, and

WHEREAS, the Wayne County Road Commission is contemplating the reconstruction of Sheldon Road to a 4-lane, Class A road from Five Mile Road to the existing Class A, 4-lane Sheldon Road at the northerly city limits of Plymouth, and

WHEREAS, the City of Plymouth and the Wayne County Road Commission has constructed Sheldon Road as a 4-lane, Class A highway from the northerly city limits to Ann Arbor Trail, NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commission of the City of Plymouth, the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees and the Plymouth Community School District Board of Education, by joint action, do hereby urgently request the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners to immediately prepare plans and specifications for a Class A, 4-lane road, and acquire the necessary right-of-way, and construction said road from Ann Arbor Trail to Joy Road.

This completed the agenda for the evening and the Supervisor asked if there was anything further to be discussed. Mrs. Fred E. Davids of 39627 Plymouth Road, Plymouth, Michigan stated her objections to the soot coming from the Burroughs Corporation on Plymouth Road and wanted to know why they had not converted to gas as yet to eliminate this problem. The Supervisor stated that he would contact Mr. O'Brien of the Burroughs Corporation and look into the matter.

There being no further business to come before the Board, a motion was made by Ralph Garber, supported by Gene Overholt that the meeting be adjourned. Carried unanimously.

Supervisor, McEwen, adjourned the meeting at 11:18 p.m. Approved, John D. McEwen, Supervisor

Care of Potted Bulbs Indoors

Pots of Spring bulb flowers — hyacinths, tulips and daffodils — will add much to the decor of any room. In addition to sparkling color, the touch of fragrance they give off is a sure reminder that Winter is on the wane and Spring will soon be here.

You can have potted Spring flowers lasting many days in the home with a minimum of care. One thing should always be remembered: potted bulbs are living plants and need moisture at their roots.

Never let the soil dry out completely. On the other hand, don't drown the bulbs. Water when the soil feels dry which should be every day or so.

Keep potted bulb flowers in a cool place away from radiators or other heat sources. Also keep them out of direct, baking sunlight. If the foliage becomes dusty, you can wipe it with a damp cloth.

When purchasing potted bulb flowers for your home — or a gift for friend or relative — make sure the flowers are in tight bud. You can then enjoy their full glory as they open in splendid array in your home.

After the flowers have finished blooming, nip off the faded flowers and continue to water. Now the bulb foliage can be given as much sunlight as is available in the home. Remember, however, the more light they get the quicker they will dry out. When the outdoor soil has warmed, the potted bulbs can be transplanted out into the garden.

PLYMOUTH FORD PLANT: The architect's rendering of Plymouth Township's new Ford heater-air conditioner plant, planned for a Sheldon Rd. site.

Ford holds groundbreaking

Ford also released an artist rendering of the new plant, expected to cover 642,000 square feet and employ 1,000 people. The plant's operation will be devoted to heaters and air conditioners for Ford products.

H. A. MATTHAIS also spoke, on behalf of Ford. Matthais is the general manager of the General Parts Division of Ford Motor Company; here is a portion of his remarks:

"In February of this year, Mr. Henry Ford II announced the Ford Motor Company decision to build a 642,000 square foot plant on this site devoted exclusively to the manufacture of heaters and air conditioners for Ford and Lincoln-Mercury Division cars and trucks. The occasion of our meeting this morning is to break ground for this new plant, thus signalling the beginning of construction.

"As you can see, site preparation has been under way for some time. According to our present schedule, grading will be completed by June 1 and steel erection will begin immediately thereafter. Initial occupancy is scheduled for February 1, 1967. From that date forward, operations will be transferred from Ypsilanti on a programmed basis until we will be building complete 1967 model heater and air conditioner assemblies at this location in June, 1967.

"1968 model production will begin in July, 1967, and will provide new job opportunities over and above the transferred workforce. Approximately 1,000 men and women will be employed when the plant becomes fully operational in the fall of 1967. This will mean an annual payroll in excess of $8 million.

"THIS EMPLOYMENT level and the associated payroll can be expected to rise as the installation rates of air conditioners in our vehicles increase. Present indications are that the installation rates for this popular option will be approximately doubled by 1975. This 168 acre site will provide the opportunity for future plant expansion at this location to keep pace with increasing production requirements.

"We hope you will agree that the decision of the Ford Motor Company to build a manufacturing plant in your community and provide employment at the levels indicated will represent a significant benefit to the economy of the area through payroll, tax dollars, and local purchases. These are tangible benefits.

"We are happy with the decision to build a manufacturing plant in this area. It will be modern in every respect and I think that it will be a plant that you will regard as an asset to the community. Our decision to locate here was influenced by a number of factors. Certainly people and their attitudes are important considerations. To be sure — there are others, such as an adequate and stable workforce, good action, availability of land, and a favorable business climate.

"Another important consideration was the proximity of this new plant to our Ypsilanti Plant where we are currently building heaters and air conditioners. We hope that the majority of the men and women now building these units at Ypsilanti will accept our offer to transfer to this location. Many of them live in this area, and the reasonable proximity of this community to Ypsilanti will minimize the inconvenience of relocation.

"APART from the tangible economic benefits to the area's economy, we intend to demonstrate a genuine interest in the activities of the community. We will establish a Community Relations Committee to represent Ford Motor Company in this area, and will actively participate in community projects. We shall work hard to be a good corporate citizen of this community.

"In conclusion, Ford Motor Company is appreciative of your cooperation and of the official welcome that you have expressed and demonstrated, and for your expression of good wishes. We are looking forward to a long and mutually beneficial association with the City and Township of Plymouth and all of its people.

The Guild plans to use a 70-member cast in the adapted version of the play, which has been expanded to two hours and twenty minutes. ## Still many who haven't signed for Medicare

Those with parents, grandparents of other relatives over the age of 65 were urged today to make a final check on the medicare status of these individuals. According to Sam F. Test, social security district manager of the Detroit Northwest office, many older people in the area have not yet applied for coverage under the new hospital and medical insurance programs. And the deadline - May 31 - is approaching.

TEST POINTED out that individuals 65 and older may be covered under medicare even if they are not eligible for monthly social security benefits. He added, however, that the coverage is not automatic and requires the filing of a simple application before the deadline. Test also cautioned younger family members to make certain that social security beneficiaries have returned the medical insurance enrollment card mailed to everyone over 65 on the social security and railroad retirement rolls. "Failure to file an application on time, or to return the enrollment card, may be costly," Test noted.

The social security office will be open to 9 p.m. on Wednesday evenings through May for the convenience of the public. The Detroit-Northwest office is located at 18500 Grand River. The telephone number is 272-0080.

New Books

"Papa Hemingway"

—At Dunning Hough

"The Iron Country", a first novel by Mary Patterson, is a love story set in a small Minnesota town during World War II. "Greenstone", a new novel by Sylvia Ashton-Warner, describes an unusual English family in New Zealand, including a granddaughter whose other grandfather is a Maori lord.

"Papa Hemingway" portrays the life of Ernest Hemingway through the eyes of a close friend and traveling companion, A. E. Hotchner. Emphasis is on the last fourteen years of Hemingway's life with insights into his childhood and early years as a writer.

"The Fatal Impact" by Alan Moorehead, author of The Blue Nile and The White Nile, depicts the results of Captain Cook's three South Pacific voyages of discovery on the original inhabitants of Tahiti, Australia, and Antarctica.

"The Landlord", a novel by Kristin Hunter, presents a wealthy young man who buys an apartment house in a rundown area and is delighted with the problems of his various tenants.

"The Fine Art of Political Wit", by Leon Harris, provides examples of the wit and invective of British and American politicians from Richard Sheridan to John Kennedy and Adlai Stevenson, wit which often illuminated and was based on serious issues of the day.

American Legion Auxiliary news

Just a reminder of the 17th District meeting Friday, May 6 at 8 p.m. at Rosedale Park. All Post and Auxiliary members are asked to attend.

Saturday, May 14 is the testimonial dinner for Department Commander George Fredericks. Any member wishing to attend, contact Unit President Mae Hoelscher or Post Commander Robert Hewer.

Wednesday, May 18, 1966 will be the next Passage-Gayde unit #391 meeting at 8 p.m. in the Legion hall. All officers are asked to be there.

May 19-21 are Poppy Days. Volunteers will be needed for this, so please keep this in mind. Saturday, May 21 is the next "Why Are We" banquet at 6:30 p.m. Our guests are Knights of Columbus and Rosary Society. Plan to be there.

Monday, May 30 - Memorial Day and the parade. Chicken and shrimp dinners will be served at the Legion hall. Details at later date.

Poppy day will be observed here on Thursday, May 19, 1966. This day represents the climax of thousands of hours of volunteer service by members of the American Legion Auxiliary in all parts of the country. Some 150,- 000 Auxiliary members throughout the nation, including the members of Passage-Gayde Unit and Post #391.

The continuing conflict in Viet Nam gives added emphasis to this traditional day of remembrance as patriotic citizens of Plymouth and millions of others throughout the nation pay tribute to those who have lost their lives in defense of our cherished freedoms. Through the simple act of wearing one of the scarlet flowers on Poppy Day, all of us in the Plymouth area may acknowledge our great debt to those courageous Americans who have made the supreme sacrifice.

The people of Plymouth have always shown a warm response to the Poppy Day program conducted by the Auxiliary and we urge that the same generous support of the efforts of our fighting men be expressed again May 19, on this solemn day of remembrance.

Flowers offered by the American Legion Auxiliary on Poppy Day are handcrafted by disabled veterans and all contributions made by the public are used to aid veterans and widows and children of our war dead through the Auxiliary's Rehabilitation and Child Welfare programs.

You bought a house to keep your child off the street. Why keep him off the lawn?

After all, a lawn is to enjoy. This is why you should know about Agrico Grass Food. Most people think a fertilizer just greens grass. Fact is, many fertilizers do little more. But Agrico Grass Food is different. Agrico contains a special combination of ingredients that not only greens your grass, but more important, enriches your soil. Only nutrient-rich soil can adequately feed a grass plant and its root system.

2 out of 3 professional grass growers use Agrico

Agrico Grass Food produces thick, hardy lawns that can resist wear and tear by kids and cookouts. Agrico is used almost exclusively by professional grass growers—golf course superintendents, landscape gardeners, nurserymen and sod growers. They rely on Agrico because it builds thick, vigorous turf that withstands rough treatment. A $4.95 bag of Agrico Grass Food enriches 5300 sq. ft. of grass and soil. This season, apply Agrico Grass Food. And throw away your "Keep-off-the-grass" signs. The Mother's Leading Fertilizer.

Library will host PHS art exhibit

Plymouth High School Art department will hold its annual art exhibit of students' work in the Dunning-Hough Library this year. Drawings, paintings, sculpture, mosaics, ceramics, jewelry, hooked rugs, weaving and block prints are among the items which will be displayed upstairs and down in the library. The commercial design class will be in charge of arranging the showcases in the entranceway and of hanging the exhibit in the interior of the library.

Parents and the general public are invited to attend the open-house on Thursday, May 12 when Mrs. Carolyn Sam and Mrs. Jessie Hudson with their students will be on hand from 7-9 in the evening to greet visitors and to discuss the art work with interested guests.

Some of the work on exhibit will be the award winning rugs, prints, drawings and weaving which were accepted for display at the Crowley-Detroit News-Scholastic Magazine area-wide art competition in Detroit.

This marks the first time the Library has been used for the exhibit. In years past the High School held the exhibit. However, the works of art were up only a short time.

Vocational help is available at new Middlebelt office

Basil Antenucci, District Supervisor, announced the opening of a new office of the Division of Vocational Rehabilitation, a branch of the State Department of Education, at 16771 Middlebelt Road, Livonia.

The national vocational rehabilitation program is a public operation that is designed to remove its clients from public dependency and help them become self supporting citizens. It does this by training disabled citizens so they are equipped with the necessary skills for employment.

The program is financed on a federal-state matching basis on a ratio of 75 federal dollars for every 25 state dollars.

Any individual of employable age having either a physical disability, an emotional problem, or is mentally retarded may be an applicant for rehabilitation services.

Such services as considered necessary to prepare or return the individual to employment may be provided, e.g.:

1. Medical examination and other diagnostic services;
2. Treatment, including medical and surgical procedures;
3. Appliances such as artificial limbs, braces and hearing aids.

4. Hospitalization for correction of defects;
5. Training, including trade business, college or on-the-job;
6. Placement.

use of this service. For the individual, rehabilitation offers an opportunity for independence through satisfactory employment; for the State, it offers the strength and stability provided by successful citizens.

The new Livonia District Office was established to make more accessible rehabilitation services to the communities of Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Redford and Garden City. Other units of the District Office are located at Wayne County General Hospital, Northville State Hospital, and Wayne County Training School.

Dr. Jerome Carroll, Internist here in Livonia, is the new medical consultant. Dr. Carroll assists the counselors in the interpretation of medical information as well as clarification and explanation of physician's reports and diagnoses in order to better understand disability as it relates to an individual's capacity.

It is hoped that our community will be able to make increasing

Trouble-free with a capital "T"!

STANDARD CLIPPINGS BAG. TORO pioneered grass and leaf bagging attachments for rotary mowers in the first place, and this year they're even better. This standard equipment bag clamps on with one hand, and it has a heavy-duty bottom. No zippers to clog, either.

SAFETY SPIN START. You wind up the "impulse" starter, step behind the mower handle, for safety, and push the lever to "start" position. Chokes automatically.

THREE OR 3 1/2 HP. FOUR-CYCLE ENGINE. Starts easily, runs smoother than cheap 2-cycle engines. No mixing of gas and oil.

MAGNESIUM HOUSING. The lighter-than-aluminum stuff they use in airplanes.

AUTO-OILER. A visual oil filler. Push the button and you're sure the crankcase is full. No plug, no funnels, no oily fingers.

CLEAN-OUT PORT. When you're through mowing, let the engine idle and run a little water into the clean-out port. The blade splashes it all around under the housing and washes it out like new.

TRIMMIT. You know that grass along the sidewalk that won't stand up? This little device props it up so the blade can clip it off crisply.

WIND-TUNNEL HOUSING. TORO's "S" shaped cutting blade actually creates a powerful suction under the housing. It pulls grass up for a more even cut, "vacuums" leaves, too.

Pursell opposes pay hike for State legislators

Opposition to the proposed legislative pay-raise was expressed today by Carl D. Pursell, Republican Candidate for the 14th Senatorial District Seat.

Pursell, who announced his candidacy at a press conference last week, said "In light of the current legislative structure, I do not feel legislators, working as representatives of the citizens for a maximum of six months out of a year, are entitled to pay increase." They are already the highest paid state legislators in the land, receiving a total salary of $12,500, Pursell added.

Considered the "party favorite," Pursell added that there could be some merit in increasing the allowances of majority and minority leaders and committee chairmen, but that further study of this should be made before a final decision could be reached.

Pursell further stated that he did not feel the legislature should meet on a year-long basis, explaining that a good representative should spend a great deal of time in each of the areas he represents.

Congratulations to Miss Dianne Johnroe and the cast of "You Can't Take It With You" for two fine performances Friday and Saturday nights! The play was a delight to all!

Campaign Week has begun and the halls of PHS are decorated with colorful and interesting campaign posters! The anxious candidates for all-school offices will be given a chance to give a speech over the public address on Monday, before the elections Tuesday.

The Junior High has already held its elections for next year's officers. Congratulations are extended to Bruce Bowman, class president; Bruce Edwards, vice-president; Becky McGuire secretary; George Jackson, treasurer; and Janet Eddy, Pete Sparling, Beth Catten, Jack Shepard, Connie Gray, Gary Lord, and Marty Stiglich, Student Council members.

Last minute preparations are now being made for this year's Water Show "News Adrift" or "What in the Water's Going On?" to be performed this Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. Waves and Ripples are busy as they work to make the show the most news worthy ever! Headlining the show will be soloist Kay Zoet.

If you saw students running around PHS in bermudas today instead of the usual garb, it wasn't because the school's air-conditioning system (what air-conditioning system?) broke. Today was Bermuda Day, a project of the Student Council to raise money for the foreign exchange students fund. Each student wearing bermudas had to purchase a badge to do so for 10¢.

Only ten more days until the big day — the day when all seniors and their dates will indeed have "An Affair to Remember." Tickets are now on sale for the magic prom and will cost $5. The couples will dance from 9 until 12 to the music of Don Pablo and his band and will be entertained during intermission by comedian Paul Lennon. And for the first time — the prom will be held in the beautiful Mayflower Meeting House! The prom of '66 will indeed be a distinctive one — "An Affair to Remember".

3 Cities Art Club

A new approach to the History of Art will be presented by the Three-Cities Art Club featured speaker at the Dunning-Hough Library on Tuesday, May 10 at 8 o'clock.

The speaker, Mrs. Anne Haggerty Warren, formerly of the Detroit Art Institute staff, will examine different brush techniques and media used throughout history by the master painters.

With colored slides showing the famous paintings and detail shots showing their techniques Mrs. Warren will illustrate the different attitudes towards painting from the Roman frescoes through the Renaissance up to present day painting.

This lecture, open to the public without charge, is one in the series offered annually by the Three-Cities Club as part of its educational program. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Kamen heads VFW

William Kamen was elected the new Veterans of Foreign Wars commander in Plymouth last week at the VFW's annual election.

Other new officers include Gene Leader as quartermaster, Everett Salow as chaplain, and Bill Cadaret as trustee.

Installation will be held on Saturday, May 14, at the post home. Gerry Olson is the grand marshal for the Memorial Day parade, which will be held May 30. Details are incomplete now, but Robert Fitzgerald Veterans administration regional manager will speak and George Lawton will be master of ceremonies.

Flags will be placed on veteran's graves on May 21. Families of veterans who passed away during the past year may contact Gerry Olson, 453-1339 as it is hoped no soldier is left without an honor.

Membership chairman Smith reports that the Post now has 225 members. Smith said the drive had been most successful, and commended all those who helped. Letters have been sent to servicemen from this area now in Viet Nam, offering membership on the post, and several have replied.

Buddy Poppy Day will be held May 19. With the increasing needs of disabled veterans and their families, it is hoped that the drive this year will be very successful. Those willing to help on the fund drive may contact Jim McKindles, 453-7036.

E. Salow has been hospitalized with a broken leg. He is in room 221A at Garden City Hospital.

The next regular meeting will be May 10 and 24.

PITCHER FACES PITCHER: Rock pitcher Jack Robertson at bat against Trenton Friday afternoon, from a spectator-behind-the-screen view.

Rocks give away eight runs in mishap with Trenton

Plymouth's error-prone baseball squad slipped deeper into the loss column last week, dropping two Suburban Six games.

Trenton polished off the Rocks with a fifth inning, five run splurge, to win 8-5, after the Rocks had led 3-0.

Jack Robertson was, unfortunately, given the loss, but it wasn't his fault.

Randy Williams pitched one inning for Plymouth, Robertson the rest.

Fielding gave Trenton all eight of their runs. In the chaotic fifth, Trenton rapped out two small hits, and got four big errors from Plymouth.

The tying runs were on the bases when the Rock's last runner was thrown out at home.

Against Belleville, the Rocks were shutout, 6-0. Again, the Rocks opponents scored five runs in one inning - the sixth, to win.

The Plymouth squad totaled up six errors. Plymouth lead until the fifth; four walks in the opening frame put Plymouth ahead.

Later, John Underwood, the Rocks best hitter to date, netted two hits; John Bida got one, and Dave Prochazka another; Prochazka tripped for one RBI.

Trenton nudges netmen 4-3

Trenton trimmed Plymouth's tennis sails last week, 4-3, taking the first and second singles match, and the last two doubles matches. Robin Wideman lost to Fisher, 6-4, 6-3. Tom Chandler lost to Ridolfi, 6-3, 6-1.

Steve Mogle whipped Sullivan, 6-3, 9-7. Bob Stover topped Vance 6-1, 6-4. Rick Jones and Steve Hulce beat Iles and Hornback 6-3, 6-2.

Bill Wolfe and Dave Sibbold edged Herbert and Short, 6-3, 6-3. Rick Wagar and SWasalaski lost to Costetter and Freeman, 6-1, 6-2.

The JV baseball squad routed Belleville last week, 6-1, behind the four-hit pitching of Jeff Gillespie. The young hurler struck out 15; Belleville's only run was unearned. Mike Cederberg had two hits, and was commended by coach Paul Cummings for his work as catcher. Russ Carlson, center fielder, also had two hits, as did Rick Filmore.

Schoolcraft netmen win over Delta

Schoolcraft College's fledgling tennis squad edged Delta College last week, 4-3, but lost two other matches.

The squad is coached by chemistry instructor Ralph Atchley.

The College's tennis team was shutout by Concordia Lutheran College, 7-0.

Golfers nipped

The winners in the Delta victory were: Larrow Sivick, 6-4, 6-1; Doug Mouch, 6-4, 3-6, 6-3; and Paul Hartge, 6-1, 6-3 in the first three singles. A doubles team of Sivick and Mouch won 6-1, 6-3 for the other set.

Two less strokes would have won a golf match for Plymouth last week as the Rocks lost 175-174 to Ypsilanti at Huron Hills. In that match, Gary Robinson shot a 41, Neil Goodman a 43, Tom Janicki a 45, and Dick Wolfram a 46.

In another match with Alpena, Schoolcraft lost 5-2. Winners were Sivick, 7-5, 8-6, and Hartge 6-0, 6-2.

In the other match last week, Trenton slipped by Plymouth with seven strokes, 179-172. All Plymouth scores were in the forties: Janicki, 42, Robinson, 44, Dave Dunlap, 47, and Bob McCall, 46.

CONFORMITY

If there is anything the nonconformist hates worse than a conformist, it's another nonconformist who doesn't conform to the prevailing standard of nonconformity.

TRIPPSVILLE, USA

Bus takes Tripps in grand style

Most parents would faint at the prospect of taking six children on a trip in a school bus converted into a mobile home.

Not John and Jackie Tripp of 195 Burroughs.

Faced with the prospect of a high costly vacation, they decided to combine family fun and enterprise with a trip south in a converted school bus.

John Tripp got the idea from a client; he sells State Farm Insurance, and a policy holder had done something similar.

Tripp bought the old school bus, vintage 1958, from the Plymouth schools for $300. It came complete with good tires, automatic transmission and power steering. The family pitched in, made curtains and screens for the windows. In the rear of the bus, seats were removed and turned around, plywood laid on top of the seat back, and on the seat itself, making bunk beds.

Unfinished cabinets were installed over the tire wells, and two tables hung from the side, to be dropped when needed.

The kitchen portion was fashioned out of an old sink and cupboards, and a portable Coleman gas stove installed.

The children helped as lineoleum was laid on the floor, and fiber glass used to fill in rusted siding.

The Tripp children also lettered the outside of the bus, painting on the words "Trippsville, USA" and "Wampus Wagon".

They left for Fort Myers, Fla for two weeks at the beginning of April.

"They wrestled, and did everything on the trip. Mrs. Tripp explains. "They had a good time. I think most children enjoy roughing it."

The children also had a radio, installed by John Jr., who also helped his parents with the driving.

Originally a sixty-passenger bus, the new Tripp mobile vacation home was inexpensive, and fun. They began work on it shortly after Christmas.

Air mattresses insured a good rest wherever they stopped; they made use of camping facilities that supply water and electricity when you stop for the night.

The Tripps think it's a great idea for anyone with a large family faced with the expense of restaurants and motels.

But best of all, it was a family project that produces something you cannot buy - spontaneous fun.

Karl Hoenecke earns promotion

The Miehle Company has recently promoted Karl Hoenecke to the newly created post of general sales manager.

Karl Hoenecke - a 1954 graduate from the University of Michigan with an MBA - has acquired a broad background in the graphic arts industry since joining the Miehle Company nine years ago. He began by representing the Miehle line of printing presses in Chicago, Boston and New York territories. In 1962, he was transferred to the firm's San Francisco office. Later, he held the responsibilities as territory manager for Miehle's Los Angeles office. Hoenecke was transferred to the Chicago headquarters in 1965 and served in the capacity of new product manager. Just prior to his recent promotion, he functioned as Miehle's marketing manager.

Karl Hoenecke was born in Plymouth, Michigan in 1930. He is the son of the Rev. Edgar Hoenecke. He and his wife, Gretchen, live in Hinsdale, Ill., with their three children; Meta, 11; Sarah, 9; and Gretchen, 8.

Glass and brick bring outdoors indoors at Heide's new flower shop

Heide's new flower shop has opened on Ann Arbor Trail. Tastefully designed by architect Tivadar Balogh, the modern glass and brick building was built by Stewart Oldford and Sons, Inc.

Balogh, a Plymouth architect and Chester Hill, a Plymouth art and antique dealer, will have offices on the second floor of the new building.

The building appears fully open inside and out with glass running from the top of the building to the floor. The glass is set at right angles, and juts out giving an interesting pattern of reflections.

A copper facade runs around the top of the structure.

Inside, carpeting and wrought iron add to the distinctive nature of the new building. A circular staircase leads to the offices upstairs, and a balcony overlooks a portion of the front of the shop.

Norman Ruehr, who operates the flower shop, said shoppers are welcome to come and just look at the new building.

Heide's also will continue to operate their shop on Mill St. at Liberty and there will sell a complete line of garden supplies, bedding stock and seeds.

STRIKING INTERIOR. Heide's carpeted interior, wrought iron and circular staircase with bright patches of color please the eye.

School Pranks

San Francisco police have had a fence constructed in hopes of quelling the latest teen-age fad. Officers said teen-agers recently have stolen cars, set them afire and shoved them over cliffs "just for the thrill of watching them explode." Auto theft inspector Rudy Nieto said, "It's become quite a fad among the high school kids."

Hot Issue

Mrs. Robert Harvey, of Pueblo, Colo., went from the fire to the frying pan, but her kitchen went to the flames.

While she watched rural firemen put out a nearby haystack fire, Mrs. Harvey noticed smoke pouring from her house. She had forgotten a pan of grease on the stove, which boiled over and set her kitchen afire.

The guest who keeps saying he really must be going doesn't mean it any more than you do when you ask, "What's your hurry?"

JC's hold contest for international trophy

The students in Mrs. Jessie Hudson's art class at Plymouth High School assisted the Plymouth JayCees in their sponsorship of an international trophy recently. The students were given a tenet of the JayCee creed to work with as a theme for a trophy: "That brotherhood of man transcends the sovereignty of nation."

Their work was judged by Mrs. Cecelia Kelly and N. Patel of Schoolcraft College's art department.

The winner, Robert Kreitsch, was given a $50 bond by John Murawski, international JayCee senator. Kreitsch's art work, a lead cast sculpture, will be awarded as a trophy at the State JayCee convention May 7 to the JayCee chapter having the best international program.

Other participants in the contest were Jim Scharmen, and Torbett Guenther.

Questions & Answers
What is the difference between potato chips and potato crisps?
In the United States they are the same: both chips. In Britain chips are what we know as French fried potatoes. To be sure of getting potato chips in England, order crisps.
