

Wendell Smith named State JayCee prexy

After weeks of barnstorming on the part of the Plymouth JayCeers, Wendell Smith was elected state JayCee president Saturday at the Club's state convention in Lansing. Smith was one of four candidates; he was elected on the second ballot.

He replaces Jack Skriden as president, and was installed Saturday night in ceremonies at the Lansing Civic Center near the Capitol building.

The victory caps a quick rise in the organization for Smith who began as a treasurer of the local chapter in 1961, became a district vice-president in 1964, and a national director in 1965.

This year he was named one of Michigan's five outstanding young men, after winning the local award here in Plymouth.

Sheltered Workshop for the trainable mentally retarded. He spearheaded the program, directed its incorporation, and was elected as its first president.

A graduate of both Michigan State University and Cornell University, Smith holds both a B.A. degree and a M.S. Degree.

In affairs outside of the Club, he has been on the Fall Festival Board, and was a member of the Auditorium Study Committee. In 1964 he headed a committee that documented the need for an increase in school millage for operations.

MARRIED, Smith has three children: Mike, nine, Sharron, seven, and Wendy, two. His wife Margaret has three children.

The Plymouth Community Fund has remained independent of the United Fund effort, to maintain better control of where each dollar goes.

Schening, next year's chairman, came to Burroughs last summer in June; he has been with Burroughs 30 years.

Before his appointment here he spent 10 years directing the planning, management and production of Burroughs large scale electronic communications and data processing system developed for the United States Government at the Burroughs Tireman Division in Detroit.

Annual census underway in school district

The annual census of the Plymouth Community School District started Monday for a "head count" of all children born on or after June 1, 1946. Nine Plymouth women will conduct the census during the last 20 days of May.

Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister stated this is required by state law.

Each census enumerator has been assigned a specific area in the school district and will call at each of the homes in that sector.

The propose of the school census is to secure certain statistical data regarding pre-school children and children of school age up to and including 19 years of age. Census data assists in planning the physical, instructional and financial needs of the School District.

WANTS ACTION:

Vallier calls for renewal hearing

City Commissioner Arch Vallier called for a public hearing on the downtown urban renewal Monday night, "before we go any further."

The City fathers agreed and it was set for June 13 at 7:30 p.m. Speaking at a special session of the Commission called to approve the budget, Vallier urged a public hearing be held on the proposed $1 million urban renewal that would cover the southeast quadrant of the Central Business District along Main, Maple, Wing, Deer and Kellogg Streets.

Last month the City's planners Velican and Leman called for a new phase in the project - a phase which would cost $100,000 (Federal funds). Vallier took issue with the phase and asked why the City should proceed without first determining whether or not they wanted the project. His comment when he heard the cost of the new phase was "Wow."

THEN MONDAY Vallier called for a public hearing, and the Commissioners agreed to it.

"I don't like this thing of hanging it over the heads of those people down there," Vallier said. "I would like a public hearing on the matter, with everyone involved being notified."

Mayor James Houk suggested a special meeting, and Vallier noted he didn't care when they met, as long as the people were heard. "I want to take action on this. I want to vote. And you should vote in front of the people," Vallier said.

Commissioner George Lawton questioned whether or not the Commission could vote on the item that night.

"You can vote or not. If I want to make a motion I can. If you don't want to vote that's your business," Vallier retorted. Commissioner George Hudson expressed strong support for Vallier's position. Lawton pressed for a more detailed, wider, and more cautious study: "It seems to me this is one of the possible alternatives to solve a series of problems that the parking committee felt faced downtown Plymouth. I would like to have the opportunity to sit with Velican and Leman and discuss this whole area, where this

City gives 2.5% pay increase

City employees will get an across-the-board pay hike of two and one-half per cent this year as the City of Plymouth's financial picture remains strong - with no tax increase.

The budget - totaling $1,363,584 - with $873,774 in the general fund - was approved by the City Commission meeting in special session Monday night.

For the sixth year in a row there will be no tax increase in City millage as the City's tax base went up a whopping $1.5 million.

CITY manager Richard Blodgett had recommended no increase and the City fathers went along with it. Blodgett reports the City is extremely healthy financially - a rare position today for small municipalities.

The pay raise for all employees will be added to after the adoption of an ordinance now being drafted by Blodgett on the administration of merit pay raises. Blodgett expects that will amount to another two and one-half per cent in increases, with the money already budgeted. In addition, the policemen got an extra two and one-half per cent pay increase, over and above the base increase.

Commission also improved its health and hospitalization benefits by doubling the City's share in that program at an added cost of about $500 per year.

As documented last week in the Mail, several new items including a new DPW storage garage, added personnel in the building safety department, and in the 4 file for School Board vacancies

Four candidates have filed so far for the three June vacancies on the School Board.

R. B. Scott and Ernest Henry, two incumbents, and Richard Arlen and Robert Tripp, two newcomers to the Board race have filed thus far, according to Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister's office. The deadline for the June 13 election is this Saturday, May 14.

Scott, who lives at 8950 Ann Arbor Rd. in Superior Township, was appointed to fill the unexpired term of Robert Jenkins, who moved from the community.

SCOTT, a research chemist at Parke, Davis and Company, was president of the Geer School district Board of Education, and saw the district through its annexation to the Plymouth School's last summer.

His term, if elected, would be for three years.

Henry has chosen to run again. Robert Soth, on the Board for eight years, will not run, with the two vacancies both being for four years.

Tripp, active in the Optimist Club, is on the current School Facilities Study Committee, which recently unveiled phase one of a study for a new high school and other schools. Tripp acted as a chairman of the facility sub-committee of that study group.

Tripp, an administrator-industrial relations, for Burroughs Corporation, is married and has two daughters. They live at 42531 Lakeland Cr.

Tripp holds a B. A. Degree from the University of Detroit in industrial relations and a Masters degree from Wayne State University in management.

RICHARD ARLEN, the fourth candidate, is an employee of Massey-Ferguson, Inc., and works as a cost and value analyst. He is married, and has two young sons.

No stranger to Plymouth, his parents (Mr. and Mrs. Frank Arlen) moved here in 1946. He graduated from Plymouth High School in 1948, and later from Eastern Michigan University as an accountant.

Henry is a longtime Plymouthite and works at the post office. He has been active in the Kiwanis Club.

Scott, married with three children, works in a physical chemistry lab for Park, Davis, and has a B. S. and a M. S. degree.

Ford pledges to be active in community

Ford Motor Company not only desires to locate at plant in the Plymouth area, but also to become a part of the community, according to E. O. "Bud" Weber, who spoke at the monthly meeting of the Businessmen's Forum in Plymouth.

Weber, a resident of Northville and a member of the school board in that community, spoke on behalf of Robert Winder, general manager of the new Plymouth Township Ford plant. Winder had to cancel his talk at the last moment due to an emergency in the family.

Weber is a personnel director in the general parts division, and works out of the Rawsonville plant, near Ypsilanti. He spoke before about 50 gathered in the Mayflower Meeting House to the Chamber of Commerce - sponsored group, Thursday noon.

Hearing

Earl Demel's suit against the City of Plymouth will be heard May 20 as a result of a motion for dismissal hearing being postponed last week.

Demel is suing the City over vacation of Maple St. for Ralph Lorenz's new motel, and over the sale of the City's lot next to Snyder's Furniture Store.

Discussing Ford's reasons for locating here in particular, and ways to attract industry in general, Weber said the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad and its officials was one strong factor in the picking of the Sheldon Rd. site.

THE SITE is located just north of the C & O tracks and covers 168 acres. Ford plans to build a heater and air-conditioner plant there that will be fully operational by fall of 1967, according to Weber.

Other factors cited by Weber were other transportation facilities, traffic routes for the labor force, terrain and amount of personnel available.

"Labor is a key factor. We are confident that we will be able to supply our immediate needs. Other things we considered are labor force absenteeism rates,

HEARS TRADE OFFER:

School board approves elementary site purchase

Purchase of a nine and a half acre site for the next elementary school was approved Monday evening at the monthly meeting of the Plymouth Community School District Board of Education.

Board members approved a report that the site, located on the north side of Joy Road, just east of the proposed I-275 expressway, could be purchased for $4,500 an acre.

The property is located directly across from Holiday Park Subdivision, located in Canton Township.

Board member J. D. McLaren told the board that the property includes all of a plot of land owned by Richard Wisniewski - with the exception of his home site and a small apartment located there.

Sale of the land, which would be used for construction of Elementary School No. 8, is contingent upon the board agreeing to erect a fence between the school and Wisniewski's home and availability of sewer and water from Canton Township.

Board members expressed approval of the price, considering the site's location in increasingly densely populated eastern Plymouth Township.

In a nutshell

"A Rain in the Sun," starring Sidney Patton, will be shown at Plymouth High School May 12 as part of a special Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity fund raising event. Two shows - one at 7:30 p.m. and another at 7:30 p.m. have been planned, according to the chairman of the event, William Smith. Proceeds will go for the scholarship to Schoolcraft College for a Negro student; admission is 50 cents at the matinee, and 75 cents for students, and $1 for adults in the evening.

Plymouth Township officials have urged that dogs be brought to the annual dog clinic at the Community Center 9 p.m. until 3 p.m. All dogs must be vaccinated and licensed by June 1.

A great deal of rust was stirred up in the community last week when the Continental Free Press Co., who are taking down the water tower on 4th Ave., broke a 12 inch main on Byron, according to City DPW head, Ken Vogras. He thanked the customers for their patience while the main was replaced.

A fire broke out in the basement of the Plymouth Art Theatre at 851 Penman Ave. on May 10. The fire was extinguished by the fire department.

THE CHURCH AND THE COMMUNITY
by Rev. Henry Waich
The Church has sometimes thought of itself as "The Beloved Community." It has felt a sense of warmth, of belonging, of oneness, of fellowship within its own group. And this sense of belonging is a good thing, and we cherish it. The monastic movement, so strong in the Church of the Middle Ages, was essentially a movement of withdrawal from the life of the world surrounding the monastery or convent. "The saints withdraw, and leave the busy sinners to run the world!" A sense of secular and sacred - a split in the life of man developed, and the unity of the world of man was split down the middle.
Slowly, but at an increasing tempo, the Church is once more involving itself in the life of man - in the life of the community in which the Church exists. This is characteristic of the whole Church, Protestant or Catholic, in today's world. The Church is once more reaffirming its right to enter into and to influence the life of the community. Many members of the Church will call this, "politics," or "economics," or "sociology." But the Church in today's world sees its mission as not just an individual saving of souls - however necessary and good that is - but also as a force to influence the whole community in the direction of compassion and love for all men in accord with the teachings of Christ, and the will of God.

So at all levels of life - in the home, the school, in politics, in business, in society, in the whole culture, the Church is awaking to the demands of the will of God for all of life, and is trying - with great difficulty - to implement that demand in the society in which it finds itself.

Ford pledges tax and weight levels, civic reputation, availability of colleges and universities," Weber said.

"The PLYMOUTH Community looked very good; it appeared to be progressive. We've learned to look for signs of business decay - closed stores, bankruptcies, car re-possession, unreal hopes," Weber added.
Weber said nearly 1,000 would be employed at the new plant, with the labor force being partially transferred from the Ypsilanti plant, where heaters and air-conditioners are now built.
It is expected, he said, that the rest of the labor force will be new and come from the Plymouth, Northville and Livonia areas.

The Ford representative went on to discuss ways in which communities can attract industry:
* "The location of any industry depends on local governmental attitude. Industry cannot wait while a community haggles over a bond issue," Weber commented.
* Regional assets should be promoted, not just those of an individual governmental unit. It is better to have a new industry in the country than in another state. "New industries send out economic ripples, like a stone dropped in water," Weber explained.
* Realism in assessing a community's assets is needed.

* Patience and imagination are also needed by community leaders seeking new industry, Weber said.
* Be ready for change. "New industry will bring a broader economic base. But it will also bring new ideas not always wanted," Weber cautioned.
Weber concluded his talk with a promise that Ford would be a good corporate citizen.
"We will have a community relations committee whose job it will be to build the Ford reputation in this community. Management always forms this committee, so you can bet Mr. Winder, the general manager will be active. Respect and loyalty is something that must be earned. We intend to earn that loyalty. Good relations is just good business," Weber said.

Weber went on to discuss the role of business, saying its first duty was to be profitable.
"Business should be publicly proud when its profitable," he noted.
Weber concluded his discussion with a description of what the plant would build, predicting about 20,000 units per day would come through the factory when it is in full swing.
Initial occupancy of the new plant is expected next March. Ford officials say the new plant was spurred by a phenomenal increase in demands for special heaters and air-conditioners.

WORKSHOP DIRECTOR: Ernest Moran, director of the Community Sheltered Workshop, discusses the May 25th benefit dinner with its principal speaker, Mrs. Lenore Romney.

Set for May 25 at Roma Hall, the dinner will aid the Sheltered Workshop for the mentally retarded, now located in an old school on Newburgh Rd.
Also expected at the affair is ex-governor G. Mennen Williams and Robert Griffin, both candidates for Michigan's U.S. senate seat, vacated by Pat McNamara.

project is one possible solution.
VALLIER said it had already been discussed, and pushed for action on his motion for a hearing.
Mayor Houk interjected that he had talked with urban renewal officials who had indicated although an entire area was involved, individual houses could be removed or excluded from the project.
Commissioner McKeon said it might take more than one hearing.
Vallier and City manager Richard Blodgett exchanged comments at the close of the discussion, after Lawton had asked to have the CBD plan presented with the urban renewal proposal.
"This is a premature plan in my opinion," Vallier said. "The planners should have the dollars and cents in mind."
Blodgett explained that the planners were seeking opinions on various proposed ideas and projects, and that any capital outlay study would come later.
Local cost of the project, first announced in mid-August last year, would be about $140,000. A report from the Urban Renewal Administration had labeled about 60 per cent of the homes in the proposed area as "sub-standard".

Detroit Mutual celebrates its 25th anniversary

Detroit Mutual Insurance Company celebrates its 25th Anniversary this year.
Ray E. Larimer, President told policyholders at the Annual Meeting that this Silver Anniversary represents a benchmark that many insurance companies never attain through their own individual efforts.
In 1941 the company ended the year with assets of only $6,420 and it took 11 years of hard and diligent work to reach the first one million in assets.
Now in 1965 alone, the assets increased by more than $1,000,000. In 1942, the company's first full year of operation, it collected only $16,795 in premiums. Today that important item has reached over 4 1/2 million dollars. Using the same comparison, insurance in force has skyrocketed from $917,000 to nearly $119,000,000. The policyholders now have close to $1,000,000 of assigned and unassigned surplus held for their protection as opposed to less than $12,000 in 1942.

Increases in 1965 over 1964 were: Assets, 14.42%, Surplus 22.92%, Life Reserves, 13.45% Net Investment Income, 21.98% and Insurance in Force, 28.09%.

FIX-IT TIP

A dent in the surface of a prime piece of lumber, if it is not too deep, can be corrected by applying a few drops of water. Pick the surface with a scratch awl to permit moisture to enter. When fibers have dried, after swelling, sand the area.
Glue and sawdust when mixed to a salvelike consistency is good for filling in cracks or dents or nail holes in wood, too.

The sixteen year old Brandell merited the award by virtue of 2:02 clocking in the 200-yard freestyle race during the recently ended tank season.

May 9, 1941 Plymouth property owners are not interested in taxes as witnessed by the fact that not one single property owner appeared at the public hearing Monday night to either approve or disapprove the $101,338 budget appropriations, according to City Manager C. H. Elliott.

Dr. E. B. Cavell, Jr. purchased the property on the corner of South Harvey street and Ann Arbor road and will make his home and office there.

At a meeting of the Township Board Tuesday afternoon, W. T. Rattenbury was appointed supervisor to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Charles W. Bradner.

The "wet" and "dry" election which was held yesterday ended a strenuous fight for both sides with the "drys" coming out on top. The forms of the Mail were held open so that we could bring you the following results. Total number of votes cast with the drys adding up 340 votes, the wets 204, spoiled ballots 3, drys a majority of 136.

We went to Hell over the weekend. Hell, Michigan, that is.

Hell is almost due west of Plymouth deep in the Pickney State Recreation Area.

I'm not sure what I expected Hell to be like, but whatever my great expectations were, what we saw was a surprise. Hell, contrary to Dante, Milton and the Bible, is not a fiery furnace for the guilty and the condemned. Hell is a gas station and an antique store, and a great yellow building housing a restaurant, namely "Hell's Kitchen".

No smoke. No red devils with forks and long tails. No steamy bottomless caverns. That's all there is to Hell, Michigan. A few houses, the gas station, the restaurant and the antique shop.

The antique shop is called the "Den of Antiquity" . . . a play on den of iniquity, don't you see. You don't?

There are no signs welcoming you to hell. Just a small sign with appropriate red letters over the gas station and general store:

Hell, Michigan

The restaurant is a gaudy, boxy affair, ugly as heck when seen from the highway. It's painted a bright lemon drop yellow, and "Hell's Kitchen" is lettered in huge, darkly black letters over the top.

From the road it looks as if you would enter not to eat, but to get lost forever.

The area is just west of Pickney, which is south of Brighton. It's a fairly unsettled area because of the state parks. The day we were there the natives were restless. The State Conservation men closed off Silver Lake Park because a bunch of high school kids were having a hi-fi beer blast.

"We're cleaning it up now," they told us. "It'll be a while." Heavens, that sounded even better than Hell. We didn't get to see what unspeakable situation was being 'cleaned up'. The Conservation men spoke in very grim terms, as if the teens had fallen from grace for good.

This area is also near the Great UFO Scare, and my wife and I mentioned that in passing. Down by Dexter we scanned the heavens, but didn't even see an airplane.

Frankly, I've long wanted a chance to quietly but firmly urge my readers to go to Hell.

You take I-23 to the Pinckney exit, take M-36 to Pinckney, take Toma Rd. South to Patterson Lake Rd., and Patterson Lake Rd. west until you get to Hell.

Enjoy yourself. Go to Hell, Michigan and see, see, see the sights.

The entire area can be toured on horse back; horses are available at Hell Creek Ranch on Cedar Lake Road.

There are over 1,000 acres of state land to ride on, and Hell is right in the middle of it.

I talked my wife out of the horse back ride, and saved my composure from slipping any. But I suspect the next time we go there, we'll have to ride the horses.

From the vast acres of raw land we traveled along back roads to Lansing, and Saturday night stopped into the Lansing Civic center long enough to see Wendell Smith installed as the next State JayCee President. Wendell's crew of local JC's campaigned all over the state in true barnstorming, Plymouth JayCee manner.

They won the election on the second ballot, after clubs and districts cast their vote for a favorite son.

People like to use the word dynamic when speaking about Wendell, and I suspect young Smith is indeed dynamic, with the ambition to go along with it.

It would seem to me that he will go to greater heights soon.

It will be Plymouth's fortune — and his — if he does.

Just as there are many unqualified parents around, there seems to be twice as many unqualified dog owners.

We live in a new neighborhood where everyone is nurturing new lawns and coaxing little bushes and trees to grow big and tall. Methods of watering and types of fertilizer are very carefully chosen. What isn't appreciated is a neighbor's dog's willingness to do these things for you.

Yet every day maverick dogs run the neighborhood, stopping here, digging holes there and making general nuisances of themselves. I've even seen dogs that have nice fenced in backyards to play in who run loose. Nobody likes to be the neighbor that complains and calls the police, so we grin and bear it, hoping someone will speak up.

Now dogs can be raised happily and healthfully in the city. In fact, veterinarians will attest to the fact, contrary to popular opinion, that city dogs live two to three years longer than country dogs and are generally in better health. The reason being that to be a city dog owner one must truly love dogs and be willing to care for them to accept the responsibility of a dog in the city.

The first and foremost responsibility is keeping the dog under control at all times. The law requires it and the safe-keeping of the dog requires it. This means a fenced in area or a chain when he is outside.

A dog's reason for being is to be a companion to man. The domestication process for man and dogs has been going on for thousands of years and today a dog can thrive under any condition that man can. His need to roam is as archaic as our need to hunt for our food.

If the owner really feels his dog needs to broaden his horizons or isn't getting enough exercise, then he should go along with the dog on the leash and both will derive a great benefit. Doctors are always telling Americans to get out and walk. In fact, next to the ego-building pleasure of having a being that worships the ground you walk on, the opportunity to get out and walk is one of the things we enjoy most about dog ownership.

In any event, the fear of losing him is enough incentive to keep him under surveillance and it is way beyond me why other dog owners don't feel the same way.

Mrs. Ralph Heid commentates while Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown sing "Whispering" to depict the era of the '20's in "A Stroll Down Memory Lane." The occasion was the annual membership tea for the Rosary Society at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church May 2. About 250 women attended the event.

Rosary Society presents

"A Stroll Down Memory Lane"

A variety of spring flowers arranged on trellises decorated the hall with pink geraniums and matching candles on the tables. It was the annual Rosary Membership Tea held May 2 at 8 p.m. at Our Lady of Good Counsel Church.

Theme for the program was "A Stroll Down Memory Lane" with commentator, Mrs. Ralph Heid depicting different eras of the church since its beginning in Plymouth in 1920.

Dressed in elegant costumes of the '20's, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Brown set the scene for that era by singing "Whispering". Mrs. Heid told of the small parish at that time with only 20 families. "One could hardly find a catholic person in Plymouth then," she said. "Now a person has trouble finding a parking place or a seat in church."

Members of the first communion class of 1921, Mrs. Mildred Foeigie and Mrs. Leuella Barrett, were introduced to reminisce about that first class. Also relating fond memories of the first confirmation class of 1922 was Mrs. Jack Gillis.

Mrs. Marcus McGraw described the personality of Fr. F.C. Lafevre who was the first pastor of the church. The church on Union St. back in 1927 was described by Mrs. Nora Donovan.

Dressed in army uniforms, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Davies sang "Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition" in slapstick fashion to depict the 1941 era.

Mrs. Heid told about Fr. Victor Renaud who was pastor from 1938 until 1942.

Miss Elizabeth McDonald told of the personality of Fr. William Mooney who was pastor from 1942 until 1953. Former assistant pastor, Fr. William Child, was described by Mrs. William Covington. Fr. Child now has his own weekly radio program.

The personality of present assistant pastor, Fr. Alfred Renaud, was described by Mrs. Joseph LeBlanc with amusing stories about his dog which is cared for by the LeBlanc family.

A hilarious scene depicted a harried housewife, Mrs. John Dohel, being visited unexpectedly by the pastor, played by Mrs. Mary Grotz. Dressed in an old bathrobe, curlers, and tennis shoes, Mrs. Dohel was smoking a cigarette, reading, and drinking coffee when the pastor arrived. Each time he turned his back, Mrs. Dohel would scurry to hide some of the debris that was strewn about the room.

The final scene brought the audience up to date with four teenagers dancing the twist and the jerk. They were Quita Jacobs, Nancy Covington, Bill Covington and Jerry Campbell.

The program was closed with the "Singing Sisters of St. Joseph" doing their rendition of "My Favorite Things" set to their own words.

The meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be May 16 at the home of Mrs. Claude Crusoe, 41239 Llewellyn Rd., Northville.

Guest speaker, Mrs. Walter Hammond, Mrs. Ralph Garber, Mrs. Donald Hiller, and Mrs. Earl Mastick.

Former Plymouthite, Mrs. John Moorhead opened her home in Northville for an all-day workshop, last Thursday. Mrs. Moorhead is decorations Chairman of Plymouth's fourth annual antique mart for the fall festival.

Hundreds of strips of gaily colored calico were cut and tied. These will festoon the antique mart area on Union Street during fall festival days Sept. 9, 10 and 11.

Members of the Plymouth Symphony League (sponsor of the show) who assisted were Mrs. Richard Blodgett, Mrs. Wendall Lent, Mrs. Frederick Foust, Mrs. James Jabara, Mrs. Robert Gotshall, Mrs. Lawrence Becker, Mrs. Harger Green, Mrs. George Hudson, Mrs. Joseph Voss, Mrs. Thomas Powell and Mrs. William Hines.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hopkins of Northville announce the birth of their second child, Michele Marie, at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia April 30.

The Baby weighed 8 lb. 6 oz. Mr. Hopkins is a teacher at Plymouth High School.

Speaking of Women

Ink on my apron

"The world does not owe us a living"

with Yvonne Schmitz

When I first met her eight years ago, I felt as though I had known her all my life. She makes friends easily and is one of the most interesting conversationalists I know. She would probably be just as at ease with the Queen of England as with the woman next door.

She is the mother of eight healthy, well-adjusted children ranging in age from 19 down to four; yet she finds time to be actively interested in community affairs of a wide variety.

She was named "Woman of the Year" by the Jay-C-Ettes of Plymouth in January.

Last week, May 4, she was presented with another award for her outstanding service to the community by the Ford Motor Company. (See front page picture and story.)

Her name is Mrs. Ruth Koepke and she lives at 1310 Sheridan St. Her husband, Russell Koepke, is a supervisor in the engineering department of Ford Motor Co. The children are Paula, 19, Peter, 17, Tommy, 15, Bill, 14, Jane, 11, Kathy, 9, Elizabeth, 8, and Christopher, 4.

Some of her community activities include being vice president of the Christian Family Movement of the Archdiocese of Detroit a member of the Plymouth Assembly for Equal Opportunity, a Girl Scout troop leader, a Democratic Party worker, and a member of the University of Detroit Mother's Club.

With all of this, she still maintains a well run, happy household for her family of ten. It is a hospitable home that welcomes visitors. Foreign students have often broken bread with the Koepke family. They have come from Brazil, Uruguay, Mexico and Nigeria. Ruth Koepke says that when a student is living with them, he is treated just like another member of the family, sharing the work as well as the good times with the other children.

"I feel that our children have benefited a great deal from our foreign students because it is the best way in the world to teach them of other faiths, values, and standards," she said. "However, I feel that anyone who invites a foreign student to live with them should try to accept him as he is and not expect him to conform completely to our way of living."

When asked how she is able to accomplish all of the things she does, Mrs. Koepke said, "There must be total understanding between a husband and wife. If I have had any success at all, it is because Russ and I have worked together."

The couple met during the war when both were with the Army Medical Corp. at Mayo General Hospital in Galesburg, Illinois. Ruth was a physical therapist and Russ was a medical administrative officer.

Large families are not new to Ruth Koepke. Born in a small town in Minnesota, she was one of five children. She lost her mother at an early age and was raised by her immigrant father. "A native of Germany, he always taught us that 'the world does not owe us a living; but we owe something to the world'. Those are thoughts I try to live by," Mrs. Koepke says.

MADONNA STUDENT WINS SPEECH AWARD

Christine Fox, freshman at Madonna College, Livonia, has been awarded first place in the twenty-fifth Metropolitan Interscholastic Traffic Safety Oratorical Contest sponsored by Chrysler Corporation on Tuesday, May 3, at the Pick-Fort Shelby Hotel, Detroit.

Christine, a blue-eyed, red-haired major in art and minor in speech, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Fox of 15435 Levan. In March, 1966, Christine had been runner-up in the Livonia Irish Queen contest.

In the fall of the 1965 semester, she had been guest actress, portraying the role of Rosalie in the University of Detroit's presentation of Dad, Poor Dad.

As a senior at Ladywood High School, Christine was the president of the drama club. In a Genesee Festival in 1965 she had been awarded the gold medal as first prize for the best character portrayal in a stage play.

Children's Nursery holds open house

The Plymouth Children's Nursery drew a capacity crowd of members and prospective members to its spring open house May 2 at 8 p.m.

Guests observed the newly painted interior of the Nursery, located in the former Hough School at the corner of Warren and Haggerty Rd.

A red, white and blue toy soldier sets the theme for the interior of the nursery. Of special interest was a "fun house" constructed by the fathers, which channels the children's imagination and energy in countless ways. There are two slides, a house partitioned into separate cubby holes, climbing bars and a steering wheel.

New officers for the year 1966-67 were introduced. They are: president, Mrs. Lawrence Venaska; first vice president, Mrs. James Sonnega; second vice president, Mrs. Harold Lawrence; treasurer, Mrs. Hugh Harsha; recording secretary, Mrs. Gorham Cowl; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Don Fagarty; Huron Valley council delegate, Mrs. Glenn Arendsen.

The cooperative nursery is now taking registrations for the fall term. A fourth session has been added on Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 12:45 p.m. to 2:45 p.m. There are openings for four year olds in this session, as well as the Tuesday-Thursday afternoon session. There is a waiting list in anticipation of future openings in the morning classes for three and four year olds.

Mrs. Lionel Guregian, who has taught for five years at the school, will be teaching the Monday-Wednesday-Friday sessions for four year olds. Beginning her fourth year with the nursery will be Mrs. John Hopkins, who will teach the three year olds on Tuesday and Thursday mornings. Mrs. William Kiechler, a former Romper Room teacher in Dayton, Ohio, will be teaching the Tuesday and Thursday afternoon session for four year olds.

Further information may be had by calling Mrs. Allan Woodworth, 453-8232.

Town Hall seeks award applications

The proceeds of the Northville Town Hall series will again be contributed to charities in the Plymouth, Livonia, Northville and Farmington areas through the board of awards, an advisory group consisting of representatives of each community.

Applications for cash awards to be presented are now being received, Mrs. H. F. Wagenschutz, awards committee chairman, announced this week.

Groups interested are asked to make requests in writing, giving the need, amount, and use to which it will be put. Area charitable and educational organizations are eligible with application to be made by May 30. They should be sent to Mrs. William Milne, P.O. Box 93, Northville.

About $900 will be divided among applying groups. Organizations in Plymouth, Farmington, Livonia and Northville shared in the awards last year.

Mrs. Roy Pederson and Mrs. Robert Sharrar of the National Farm and Garden Club, Lake Pointe Branch, plant a permanent Christmas tree for the children of their "Adopted Ward" at the Plymouth State Training Home.

Garden Club 'adopts' ward of 55 children

The National Farm and Garden Club, Lakepointe Branch, has "adopted" a ward of 55 children at the Plymouth State Training Home.

Smiles and often squeals of delight greet the women as they visit the State Home twice a month to supervise play activity.

The children of the "adopted ward" are some of the most severely handicapped at the home, so projects for them are kept simple. They learn to color and paste or play with a ball out of doors. In the summer, the women help the children plant annuals and show them how to water them.

Once a year a benefit event is planned by the club with proceeds slated for wheel chairs, braces, play materials and other needed equipment for the State Home.

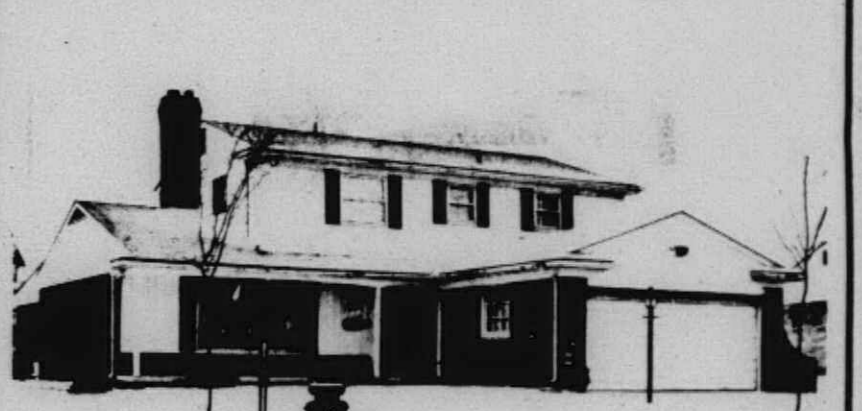

Most recent project for the Garden Club was the planting of some shrubs and evergreens at the Home on April 16.

Three women of the horticultural committee were assisted by their husbands in the planting. They are Mr. and Mrs. Roy Pedersen, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sharrar, and Mr. and Mrs. John Howe. The idea for the planting of the evergreens grew from the club's Christmas project. Each year, the women provide a large Christmas tree for the children. Since the tree must be outdoors, it is decorated with weather proof ornaments and lights.

After the Christmas season, when the ornaments are removed, the tree is strung with popcorn and cranberries to attract the birds.

The children at the home seemed to take such an interest in the tree this year that it wasn't taken down until April. This was when the women of the Garden Club decided that some "Christmas trees" should be permanently planted.

Chicken Veronique is elegant to serve for a company dinner

Mrs. Daniel McCollough says that Chicken Veronique is an elegant dish to serve for a company dinner. "I like a recipe that can be prepared at least partially in advance and this gourmet dish can be started in the morning and served in the evening," she said.

Mrs. McCollough enjoys entertaining in the evening when her four children are tucked in for the night. The children are Carri, 11, Mark, 9, Amy, 7 1/2 and Jennie, 3.

The family moved into their home on Beech Ct. one and a half years ago from Grand Rapids. Daniel McCollough is a salesman for the Packaging Corporation of America with his office located in the Fischer Building.

Interests for Sharon McCollough include sewing, bridge, golf and painting. A former art teacher, she says that her first love is art and she is looking forward to having more time for oil painting when her children are older.

The McCollough home provides an attractive setting for entertaining with its French provincial furnishings and formal dining room. Equally attractive is the kitchen and dinette with its white wainscoting and deep blue-green striped and patterned wallpaper. The white cafe curtains are bordered in a matching pattern. The white wrought iron glass topped table and blue-green upholstered chairs in the dinette follow the French provincial theme.

"Most of the furnishings in our home are family heirlooms," Mrs. McCollough said.

Still in the French tradition, the recipe for Chicken Veronique is as follows:

- CHICKEN VERONIQUE
- 3 1/2 lb. roasting chicken, split in half
 - 3 tablespoon flour
 - 1 teaspoon salt
 - 1/8 teaspoon pepper
 - 1/4 teaspoon poultry seasoning
 - 1/4 teaspoon dried rosemary leaves
 - 1/4 teaspoon dried thyme leaves
 - 1/4 cup salad oil
 - 1 clove garlic, crushed
 - 1 bay leaf, crushed
 - about 1/4 cup dry white wine
- SAUCE
- 3 to 4 tablespoons dry white wine
 - 1/4 cup light cream
 - 1 1/2 cups halved seedless green grapes
 - 2 small bunches seedless green grapes
- Watercress sprigs
1. Preheat oven to 350F.
 2. Rinse chicken in cold water; dry well on paper towels.
 3. Combine flour, salt, pepper poultry seasoning, rosemary, and thyme; mix well. Rub flour mixture liberally over surface of chicken.
 4. In hot oil in Dutch oven, saute chicken halves, skin side down. Add garlic and bay leaf. Turn chicken to brown on all sides - takes about 20 minutes.
 5. Add 1/4 cup wine. Bake, covered, 1 hour, basting several times and turning chicken once. (Add 1 or 2 tablespoons more wine during baking if chicken seems dry.)
 6. Make Sauce: When chicken is tender, pour off liquid into measuring cup. Add enough wine to measure 1 cup.
 7. Bring liquid to boiling in small saucepan; remove from heat. Stir in cream; add grapes; heat slowly to boiling.
 8. To serve: Place chicken halves on platter; pour sauce over. Garnish with grape clusters and watercress sprigs.
- Makes 4 servings.

ship. They had been concerned that a site be obtained east of the proposed interstate highway.

ANOTHER SCHOOL site came up for discussion when a presentation for exchange or sale of school-owned land was made by Attorney Theodore S. Brown, representing developer Louis J. Dettore.

Dettore, who either owns or has under option most of the land surrounding a 10-acre school site on Ridge Road, north of N. Territorial, offered to exchange 10 acres of land for the school property.

School board members were shown a sketch of a plan to expand trailer park facilities in the area, construct a nine-acre golf course and build garden type apartments at the northwest intersection of Ridge and N. Territorial.

The plan will be submitted to the Plymouth Township Planning Commission for their consideration later this month.

Dettore told the school board he feels the 10 acres he wants to exchange for the present school site is a more desirable piece of property for school construction.

In the event the school board decides it doesn't want its present site or the one offered by Dettore in exchange, he offered to pay them $3,000 per acre for the land.

The board agreed to study the proposal.

NEGOTIATIONS with school district employees are proceeding but no agreement has been reached, according to employee relations subcommittee chairman Carl Schultheiss.

The group is presently negotiating contracts with teachers, cafeteria workers, maintenance personnel and secretarial staff.

Approval of two five-week summer camps for culturally and economically deprived students was approved by the board.

Curriculum planning subcommittee chairman Mrs. Esther Hulsing told the board that $17,000 in Federal Funds was available for the program under the Elementary and Secondary Education Act.

Children in grades One through Three would attend camp sessions at Gallimore Elementary School and youngsters in grades Four through Eight would go to a camp near Oxford, Mich., leased by the school district for the purpose.

WORK IS still at a standstill on Elementary School No. Seven, currently under construction north of Lake Pointe Subdivision in northeastern Plymouth Township.

Progress was halted last week by the building trades strike presently underway in the Detroit metropolitan area.

Mrs. Hulsing raised the question of alternatives in the event the building is not ready for occupancy next fall.

Superintendent Russell Isbister noted that failure to complete the school by September might result in having to use one facility for two schools - with one student body attending classes from 8 a.m. to 1 p.m. and the other from 1 to 5 p.m.

OTHER ACTION at the meeting included approval of a resolution setting up a payroll deduction plan for sheltered annuity purchases by school personnel and the following items:

- (1) Award of the sanitary sewer contract for Elementary School No. 7 to the Weissman Contracting Corp. for its bid of $8,770. Other bids ranged from more than $14,000 to over $20,000.
- (2) Approval of a resolution establishing the annual school election for Monday, June 13.
- (3) Appointment of Charles R. Washburn as a Republican member of the School Board of Canvassers to replace Harry Reeves, term to expire Dec. 31, 1969.
- (4) Approval of a policy of granting regular high school diplomas to special education students who have successfully completed their course of study.
- (5) Appointment of Board members Ernest Henry and Mrs. Hulsing to pass out diplomas at graduation exercises.
- (6) Acceptance of the resignations of Bird Elementary Teacher Marjorie Mackie, Plymouth High School Instructor Carl Scheffler and Junior High East Teacher Janice Bridges.
- (7) Approval of the appointment of 24 staff members for the 1966-76 school year.
- (8) Approval of 34 teachers, presently in the school system for tenure status.

Finance subcommittee chairman J. D. McLaren revealed that the school district may finish the fiscal year about $50,000 under budget because of a smaller enrollment than originally expected.

School Board President Gerald Fischer was not present at the meeting.

Symphony seeks 400 family memberships

The Plymouth Symphony's annual membership drive is in its second week, with a $15,000 budget goal set.

Last year 280 families were on the membership rolls; this year it is hoped 400 will join.

In addition, the Symphony is seeking to expand memberships among the business and industrial community.

A report on the drive will be made at the annual meeting of the Symphony Society which will be held Monday, May 23 at 6 p.m. at Junior High West.

A pot luck dinner is planned, and anyone interested may attend.

The Junior Symphony Orchestra under Michael Endres will play, and Interlochen Scholarships will be presented.

This year's Board of Directors includes:

James Thomas, president; Robert Sincock, vice president; Mrs. Donald Graham, secretary; Robert Beyer, treasurer; John Herb, Mrs. Arthur Larson, Mrs. Roger Zerby, Mrs. Marvin Sackett, John Moehle, business manager; William Birge, chairman of membership drive; Mrs. Herbert Woolweaver, Dr. Robert Petersen, Mrs. Walter Beglinger, Mrs. Joseph Lee.

City gives pay hike fire and police departments have been added to the budget, without an increase in taxes.

MONEY for parking has been set aside, or budgeted, totaling $28,000, with half coming on a matching basis and half from the City. Blodgett expects the City's share to come from the sale of City-owned land, with the money going to budget contingency, then being transferred out for parking.

A parking committee is currently at work on the matter of more downtown parking.

A pay raise for the City manager, was also approved, from $11,000 to $12,000 per year.

The general fund budget breakdown:

Administration	$127,876
Buildings and Structures	$53,130
Public safety	$231,010
Sanitation and Waste	$47,903
Parks and Recreation	$51,716
Debt Retirement	$39,928
Public Works	$195,231
Miscellaneous and other	$126,980

OTHER Revenues from the cemetery fund, parking fund, equipment fund, water fund and sewage disposal fund bring the total dollars budgeted up to $1,363,584.

The total budget is somewhat lower than this because of overlapping transfers.

General fund revenue is estimated at $873,774. Property tax revenue is expected to be up from $472,000 to $494,000.

Fees, permits, licenses, fines, interest, rentals, tax monies from other agencies, sale of services and prior surplus account for most of the revenue balance in the general fund.

Farmington plans Founders Day Festival for July 28, 29 and 30

General Chairmen for the 1966 Farmington Founders Festival, John K. Cotton and Harley Walters, announced this week the dates have been set for the three-day observance on July 28, 29 and 30. The theme for this year's Festival will be "Farmington Honors Its Own."

In making the announcement of this year's Festival dates and theme, Cotton and Walters stated the major contributions of Farmington citizens in the field of government and politics, entertainment, the communications media, sports and others will be highlighted with a community-wide salute to these individuals.

"There are many Farmington people who have earned a place of prominence in their field," Cotton said, "such as Warren 'Rex' Cawley (Olympic Gold Medal Winner and World Record Holder in the 400 Meter Hurdles) who will be featured as 'Farmington Honors Its Own' in this year's Founders' Festival."

WALTERS, a life-time resident of Farmington and a member of the Farmington Historical Society, also added much to the heritage of the community through long and active service which has helped to shape Farmington into the community it is today will be honored during the Festival.

One of the first activities set in motion for this year's Founders' Festival is the

Hamilton granted Wyoming license

Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America has secured a license to do business in the state of Wyoming. Chairman of the Board, E. Keith Owens, announced last week.

The charter, issued April 7 by Wyoming State Insurance Commissioner, Mark Duncan, is the eighth out-of-state license granted to the company since November, 1965. The other licenses have been issued in Indiana, Maine, Alabama, Minnesota, Louisiana, Rhode Island, and Illinois.

As part of the 23-month-old company's scheduled expansion program, Mr. Owens said, applications are pending in 21 additional states.

Hamilton currently ranks in the top 25% of the country's 1600 life insurance companies and, operating from 15 Regional Offices throughout Michigan and five Indiana Offices, is the state's third largest ordinary life firm.

Beard Growing Contest being co-sponsored by the Farmington Enterprise, The Plymouth Mail's sister paper, and the Farmington Elks, Lodge No. 1986 B.P.O.E. Registration for the Beard Growing Contest opened April 2 and to date more than 50 men have started on what should provide considerable interest in this year's Founders' Festival.

Last year, the Founders' Festival included many activities which proved highly successful and will again be planned into the schedule for this July's events. To mention just a few of these attractions, a Miss Founders' Festival Pageant, Giant Parade, a "Battle of the Bands" and Teen Dance A Go-Go, an Ox-Roast and Chicken Bar-B-Q are in the Festival plans for 1966.

The Festival promises to be every bit as big as last year's and again is expected to draw record numbers of people out to join in the gala activities.

Vivian takes LBJ to see atom- smasher site

President Lyndon B. Johnson and U.S. Senator John O. Pastore, Vice Chairman of the Joint Committee on Atomic Energy, last week had a brief aerial look at Michigan's proposed site for the Atomic Energy Commission's proposed atomic particle accelerator laboratory, U.S. Representative Weston E. Vivian said.

As Air Force One, the Presidential plane, lifted off from Detroit Metropolitan Airport, Congressman Vivian pointed out to the President and the Senator the location of the Northville Township site, praised the site's scientific qualifications, and restressed Michigan's interest in having the accelerator locate here.

Vivian and other members of the Michigan Congressional delegation accompanied the President on the special flight from Washington to attend funeral services for the late Senator Patrick V. McNamara.

Poppy Day is veterans only fund drive

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion Post #391 will hold the annual Buddy Poppy Day on Thursday, May 19.

Jim McKindles is the VFW chairman of this year's event. "Buddy Poppy" is a remembrance of those who made the supreme sacrifice. It also has an added significance that of "Helping The Living, By Remembering The Dead."

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and the American Legion as organizations receive not one penny of the money realized from the sale of Buddy Poppies. Every cent is earmarked for a particular type of welfare work; and this welfare work is not confined to its own members.

Any worthy veteran, or his dependents, whether he be from World War I or from the current South Vietnam action, will be helped when in need.

This is the only solicitation conducted by the veterans in Plymouth. Those who give may have a small part in helping all veterans including those in Vietnam.

FIVE PLYMOUTHITES HONORED

Mrs. Ruth Koepke is one of eight Ford "Citizens of the Year"

Ford Motor Company honored four Detroit area employees and the wives of four others May 4 for outstanding service to their communities during 1965. Among them was Mrs. Ruth Koepke, 1310 Sheridan.

Belmont, Allen Park; Kenneth D. Naysmith, 29372 Fort, Rockwood; Robert W. Page, 2468 Manchester, Birmingham, and Arthur W. Saltzman, 30630 Woodside, Franklin.

The eight men and women were presented "Ford Citizen of the Year" awards at the company's seventh annual metropolitan Detroit Community Service Awards program.

Arjay Miller, company president, presented each winner with a symbolic Town Crier Bell, the company's highest honor for community service, following a dinner at the Ford Central Office Building in Dearborn.

The eight winners are Mrs. Jane R. Cameron, 710 Sufield, Birmingham; Mrs. Carolyn R. Dunlap, 730 S. Denwood, Dearborn; Mrs. Bernice M. Griggs, 18410 Norwood, Detroit; Mrs. Koepke; Lloyd F. McDonough, 15278

THE PROGRAM also honored 131 other employees, wives and husbands for their off-the-job work in community affairs. Each received a "Good Citizen Award," a mounted silver scroll with the engraved commendation of Henry Ford II, chairman of the board. The 139 award winners represented 39 Michigan communities.

Senator George Murphy of California was principal speaker at the dinner. Allen W. Merrell, Ford vice president-Civic and Governmental Affairs, was toastmaster.

A panel of six prominent persons selected the winners from among 700 employees nominated at Ford plants and offices throughout the Detroit area.

Judging was based on public service in elective or appointive positions and on participation in politics, citizens' groups, youth and recreation programs, community fund campaigns, charitable activities, and special projects of clubs, societies or church groups.

Mrs. Ruth Koepke is the wife of Russell C. Koepke, supervisor of program planning and financial analysis in the product engineering office of Transmission and Chassis Division.

The mother of eight children, she has been active for 10 years in the Youth for Understanding program, bringing foreign students into her home and arranging placement for others. She also is vice president of the Christian Family Movement of the Archdiocese of Detroit, a Girl Scout troop leader, a Democratic Party worker, a member of the University of Detroit Mother's Club and an active participant in the Plymouth Symphony Society.

Mrs. Koepke recently was honored as "Woman of the Year" by the Plymouth Community Jay-Cettes.

In presenting the awards, Miller noted that many changes and improvements have been made "since our adventure in democracy began 190 years ago. But there is one thing we have not improved upon, nor has the need for it diminished: individual commitment to the well-being of others."

"The best safeguard of our free enterprise system, I feel," he continued, "is the personal involvement of individuals in the life of their communities. Ford Motor Company aims to be a good industrial citizen and we openly encourage Ford people to be good citizens as well as good employees."

THE NINE FORD locations which participate in the Detroit-area Community Service Awards Program are Dearborn, Highland Park, Livonia, Allen Park, Lincoln Park, Wayne, Redford Township, Northville and Wixom. Similar programs are conducted by other Ford locations in Michigan and at about 40 other cities throughout the United States.

Detroit area Community Service Award recipients from Plymouth are:

Ronald L. Coosaia, 1362 Carol Street, Transmission and Chassis department, for service programs.

Gerald J. Fischer, 505 McKinley, Ford Motor Credit Company; major activities, education.

Rodger A. Ketchman, 8355 Ridge Road, Metal Stamping, for youth programs.

Robert V. Messerly, 862 Ross, Autolite, for youth programs.

June M. Nicol (Max), 9223 Morrison, Styling, for service and youth programs.

MOVIE FOR TEENS: A scene from a special movie being shown Sunday, May 15, at 7 p.m. at the Calvary Baptist Church, "Without Onion" shows how modern teens can rise above today's new morality.

Calvary Baptist church to screen film on teenagers and morality

The determination of a football player and his high school students to rise above today's new morality trends highlights the film story for "Without Onion," feature length color motion picture to be shown Sunday, May 15, 7 p.m. at the Calvary Baptist Church.

Pete and Sonya, typical American high school students, had been following the crowd in their patterns of conduct until a businessman in their community showed them how relative Christian faith can be in the life of a modern teenager.

Intrigued by their new discovery, Pete and Sonya determined to relate their faith to others on campus. As a part of their effort, Pete turned in his best year in football and the two of them made significant contributions to the Honor Club Seminar, their high school's top prestige group.

John Washbrook, known to millions as the child star of the "My Friend Flicka" television series, plays the lead in the film.

The series produced over ten years ago, still appears on many TV stations. Washbrook is supported by professional actors Bernal Washburn, Tony Mockus and David Mink.

A special invitation is extended to the youth of the Plymouth Community to attend.

Wes Vivian raps aid to schools on Federal lands

Following are remarks prepared for delivery in the U.S. House of Representatives on Thursday, May 5, by Hon. Wes Vivian, M.C. (D Ann Arbor), outlining his reservations with regard to H. R. 14745, the appropriations bill for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1966:

"Mr. Chairman, I shall vote for H.R. 14745, but with serious reservations. All of us in the Congress agree that cuts must be made now in requested Federal expenditures if we are to have any real hope of completing the year without either an accelerating inflation or a tax increase. An item of nearly a half-billion dollars is contained in this bill, for aid to so-called 'Federally impacted school districts'. This amount is a quarter of a billion dollars MORE than the amount requested by President Johnson.

"MR. CHAIRMAN, I have no objection to the established policy that local school districts should be compensated for the extra costs which they incur to provide education to students whose parents live or work on Federal installations. The Federal government should pay these excess costs, because the Federal government traditionally does not permit itself to be assessed for local property and other school taxes, as are local employers or residents. But the program has gotten out of hand!

"Within the last year an intensive study of this subject was completed by the Stanford Research Institute, for the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

"The institute was asked just what costs justifiably should be reimbursed. I have been told that the President's budget recommendation was based on this study. The study clearly and carefully shows that, in many, many school districts, Federal impacted area payments far exceed the actual excess costs attributable to the Federal impact. The report states:

"We can conclude that the present method of payment results in wide discrepancies among districts, with many districts receiving large windfalls, and a smaller number receiving payments less than necessary to meet the local burden.

"For years, the Bureau of the Budget has been trying to cut this program back to eliminate the windfalls. President Eisenhower first attempted to do so in 1958. President Johnson has continued the endeavor.

"In the face of this year's rising expenditures, I believe it would be wise indeed to respond now to his request. I ask that we cut the appropriation by the $232,000,000 the President suggested."

Legion Auxiliary plans to take part in Poppy Day May 19

Next week Thursday, is Poppy Day in Plymouth and the bright scarlet flowers will be worn by citizens of the area as a tribute to our nation's defenders who have fallen in battle. Sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary, the annual observance provides all America with a direct and sincere method of expressing their gratitude to our war dead.

Directing the Poppy Day activities in the Plymouth area will be Mrs. Mae Hoelscher, acting chairman for the Auxiliary and Mr. Robert Richter, Post Poppy chairman, Passage-Gayde Unit and Post #391.

Poppies will be distributed throughout Thursday, May 19, by women and men of Passage-Gayde Unit #391 and Post #391 of the American Legion.

The memorial flowers to be offered to the public are hand made by disabled veterans who are paid for their work by the Auxiliary. All other work done in connection with Poppy Day is on a volunteer basis. Funds collected on Poppy Day are used to carry out the American Legion Auxiliary's broad programs of Rehabilitation and Child Welfare only. By supporting the Poppy Day program, residents of Plymouth rekindle the flame of remembrance for those courageous men - and women - who have died in America's defense and at the same time provide aid for those still disabled by their war service and for the widows and children of our war dead.

This Saturday, May 14, is department Commander George Fredericks Testimonial Dinner, if members still do not have reservations, contact President Mae Hoelscher or Post Commander Robert Hewer immediately.

Wednesday, May 18, Passage-Gayde Unit #391 will hold their next business meeting at 8 p.m. in the Post home. Members are asked to attend.

Saturday, May 21, is the "Why Are We?" banquet. Dinner begins at 6:30 p.m. Members are urged to attend and get their donation to Lillian Kinghorn.

Sandra Prochazka on dean's list

Results of winter term examinations at Detroit's Marygrove College brought cheer to the hearts of the 153 students who made the coveted Dean's list. The list is published twice annually at Marygrove, a Catholic women's college with a year-round enrollment of 1500 students.

ALEXANDER HAMILTON OFFICIALS Charles H. Bruce, president, Harold Guenther, member of the board of directors of the young company, and James W. Milby, vice president, break ground on the Farmington site last Wednesday. The company now makes its home in Plymouth.

Alexander Hamilton breaks ground for home office

This week marked two special occasions for the Alexander Hamilton Life Insurance Company of America. Ground was broken for a new home office of the Michigan company, on its second anniversary, according to E. Keith Owens, chairman of the board. The new building will stand on a 13 acre tract in the Quaker-town Office and Research Center facing the I-696 Expressway at 12 Mile and Farmington Road. The size of the site assures that there will be ample room for parking and future expansion, according to E. Keith Owens. The building will be of formal Georgian design, its concrete masonry walls faced with Williamsburg antique brick. The main core, two story in height, will feature six Ionic columns on a portico, flanked by one-story wings. The building's 50,000 square feet of floor space will be divided into more than 70 rooms and office areas. Target date for the project's completion is Jan. 1, 1967, according to Richard M. Kimbrough, builder. Space shortage has been a continuing problem, E. Keith Owens, chairman of the board, pointed out, although the company now occupies five buildings in Plymouth. Accelerated growth has necessitated plans for a central home office structure far ahead of original expectations, Owens said. The new building will place all home office facilities under one roof, while leaving the company's state and regional sales office, with their more than 50 employees, in Plymouth. The immediate need for expanded office facilities is indicative of the growth the company has experienced in its first two years. In 1965, the company wrote and placed in force more permanent ordinary life insurance than any other Michigan-based life firm. Licensed in Michigan May 5, 1964, it passed 1,100 other insurance companies by total permanent business in force, according to Owens. When the company began to issue permanent life insurance, a goal of $50 million a year was set as its objective, Owens said. The company reached this total in its first six months of operation. Now at the end of two years, it has written more than $200 million, with $152,000,000 in force as of the first quarter of 1966. Last month the company began sales operations in the state of Indiana, and is licensed in eight other states, with applications pending in 21 additional states. WINNING ARTIST: Mrs. Eugene Crosby, 15335 Lakeside was honored recently at a artists exhibit of the Michigan Water Color Society held at the Detroit Artists' Market on Randolph St. Her work was one of 28 selected to make a tour around the United States at the show by the one man jury; about 60 had been picked to be in the juried show from over 300 entries. Michigan is noted for its water color artists, according to Mrs. Crosby, who runs the YMCA Youth Employment Office.

Questions, answers on new tax withholding hike

(Editor's note: This special column of questions and answers concerning the new tax withholding system, which is effective May 1, 1966, is provided by the Detroit District Office of the U. S. Internal Revenue Service.)

Q - How many different withholding rates are there under the new law?

A - There are now six rates ranging from 14 per cent to 30 per cent. They are included in two tables - one for single persons and one for married persons.

Q - I am married and my wife works. Can we each take advantage of the rates for married couples on our withholding?

A - Yes. However, you may not claim your wife's exemption if she is taking it herself on her job.

Q - I always itemize deductions because I have high interest, real estate tax, and contributions. I'm always overwithheld and under the new system I will be more overwithheld than before. Isn't there anything that can be done to minimize this?

A - The new law authorizes you to claim additional allowances for situations such as you describe starting next January. Instructions on this will be issued later in the year.

Q - Where can I get a withholding certificate?

A - Ask your employer for a Form W-4. It is also included in IRS Document 5642, a fact sheet for employees. The IRS mailed a supply of these forms to all employers in March along with information on the new system.

Q - My wife and I are separated. Do I list myself as single or married on my withholding form?

A - If you are "legally" separated then you are considered single for tax purposes. Otherwise, you would be considered married.

Q - I'm self-employed. Will the new withholding rates have any effect on me?

A - No. The rates will effect only those who receive wages subject to withholding. You will be required, however, to include self-employment taxes in your Declaration of Estimated Tax, beginning January 1, 1967.

Q - Even with the higher rates not enough will be withheld from my salary. Can I still have additional amounts taken out?

A - Yes. You can claim fewer exemptions for withholding purposes than you are entitled to claim or ask to have additional amounts withheld. Arrangements for this may be made with your employer, as they have been in the past.

Q - The new withholding will be sufficient to take care of what I owe. Can I stop filing estimated tax declarations?

A - The requirements for filing declarations of estimated tax are unchanged. The declaration of estimated tax and payments may not be necessary, however, if the graduated withholding approximates your total tax liability. Generally, estimates are required to be filed only when the estimated tax liability for the year exceeds tax withheld by $40 or more.

Q - Should I file a new W-4?

A - If you are married and want to be withheld at the rates for married persons it is essential that you file a new withholding certificate. Unless you do, your employer is required by law to consider you single for tax withholding purposes. Ask your employer for a copy of Document 5642, which explains the new withholding system and contains a Form W-4. It will enable you to figure out how much will be withheld under the new system and how close this will be to your total tax liability.

Q - When will the new withholding rates be showing up in paychecks?

A - The law says they take effect for the first payment made by employers to their employees after April 30. Graduated withholding will thus be reflected in paychecks received on and after May 1.

Q - Have only the withholding rates changed or have tax rates gone up too?

A - The Tax Adjustment Act of 1966 makes no change in corporate or individual income tax rates. The law does have provisions that increase the excise tax rates on automobiles and telephone service.

Q - What will the new income tax rates do to my take home pay?

A - Generally speaking, the new system will increase take home pay for those who have been overwithheld and reduce take home pay for those who have been underwithheld. To find out what the effect will be on your paycheck, ask your employer or the local IRS office for a copy of IRS Document 5642. Tables in this one-page fact sheet will enable you to compare the amounts withheld under both the new and the old system.

Q - Who has to file a new withholding exemption certificate?

A - All married people must file a new Form W-4 if they want tax withheld at the rates from the table for married persons instead of table for single persons. The law says that unless an employee files a new W-4 withholding form with his employer indicating he is married, he will be considered single for tax withholding purposes. Some widows and widowers also will be concerned with filing a new Form W-4, and should see IRS Document 5642 for details. Actually, all employees should review their withholding situation to see whether another W-4 should be filed.

When do the new withholding rates start?

A - The rates become effective May 1 and apply to amounts paid on or after that date.

Q - Can I still claim fewer exemptions than I am entitled to under the new tax withholding system?

A - Yes, you can still claim fewer exemptions than you are entitled to, but the graduated withholding rates are designed to bring withholding closer to actual tax liability and it may not be necessary for you to drop any of your exemptions.

Q - If the new withholding system is going to give the government more revenue isn't that a tax increase?

A - No. The graduated withholding rates will only speed up collections, they will not change total yearly tax liabilities. In other words, the government will only be getting the amount of taxes it is entitled to at present rates but it will be getting it sooner.

Q - How will the new rates on withholding effect estimated tax payments for employees?

A - Generally, estimated tax declarations are required when the tax for the year exceeds tax withheld by $40 or more. For middle and upper income taxpayers, it should also reduce the amount required for estimated payments. Thus, under the new withholding rates, some employees may no longer need to file an estimate. If you have to file declarations of estimated tax, check to see whether the increased withholding under graduated rates will meet your total tax liability.

Q - How can the new system reduce withholding for some people when the lowest rate is still 14 per cent?

A - The new system has been designed to take the minimum standard deduction into account. This was not done under the old system. Also, the new system makes a distinction between separate and joint returns so withholding is lower for married taxpayers than it is for single taxpayers.

Q - Can widows and widowers be considered married for withholding purposes?

A - For payroll purposes a widow or widower is considered married for the year of the spouse's death and for the two following years if he qualifies as a surviving spouse. Widowers or widows should claim their exemptions on line 2 of Form W-4. This is the line for married persons.

Q - What's the highest rate of withholding under the new system?

A - The top rate is 30 per cent.

Mail sponsors 'Bring 'em Back Alive' safety poster contest

Plymouth youths will have an opportunity to promote traffic safety in Michigan this summer and at the same time compete for $225 in money prizes through a poster contest sponsored by this newspaper as a public service.

This contest is open to all students 6 through 19 years old in the circulation area of the Plymouth Mail.

The Mail is sponsoring this contest in cooperation with the Michigan Press Association to emphasize the need for placing increased attention on traffic safety throughout the local area.

ALL ENTRIES will be judged in state-wide competition, and the top poster is slated for reproduction and distribution throughout Michigan this summer.

Persons submitting posters - which must depict the theme of summer travel in Michigan along with traffic safety - must have the words "Bring 'Em Back Alive!" printed on the poster.

Rules for competing in this contest can be found below.

In addition to competing for cash prizes on the state level, students from the Plymouth area which are judged to have top posters locally will receive a certificate from the Plymouth Mail.

All entries submitted to this newspaper will be forwarded to Detroit for judging by a panel of safety experts supervised by the Michigan Press Association.

The student who produces the poster judged best in the state will be awarded a $100 United States Savings Bond. First and second place runners-up will receive $75 and $50 Savings Bonds.

All entries must be submitted to Plymouth Mail, 271 Main St. no later than June 15. Local winners will be notified by this newspaper as soon as judging is completed.

Historical Society discovers old document

An old and yellowed document was discovered by Plymouth Historical Society member, Harry Brown, and brought to the attention of the club at the April 14 meeting.

The document was found by Mr. Brown's sister among their mother's papers. It was handwritten by an unknown writer and concerns the first township meeting held in Plymouth in 1827. It reads as follows:

"The Township of Plymouth was settled in 1825.

The following persons were some of the first that located in the Township of Plymouth: William Starkweather, John S. Tibbits, Roswell Root, John Van Sickle, A. B. Markham, John Miller, Peter and Henry Fralick, Silas Sly, Rufus Thayer, and many others.

The first township meeting was held at the home of John Tibbits May 4th, 1827.

William Bartow was elected Supervisor at the first township meeting. $154.40 (one hundred and fifty four dollars and forty cents) was levied on the 140 tax payers, as over one half of the land was owned by non-residents, there was but $66.40 to be collected.

The low-priced high-price car.

Low-priced because it's a Catalina with a sticker that's within reach of a lot of low-priced car buyers. High-priced because it has the Pontiac name and everything that goes with it. Like a full 121 inches of road-leveling wheelbase. And 50 more standard horsepower than those low-priced cars offer. And steady Wide-Track ride and handling. With luxurious interiors you practically sink up to your knees in. (And, of course, standard safety items like a padded dashboard.) All backed up by Pontiac's legendary resale value that makes such exciting reading in the record books year after year. Makes you wonder why anybody would buy a low-priced car when you can get a Pontiac Catalina for the same money.

Rocks struggle for first win on the diamond

The door to any baseball victories at all for the Rock baseball team appears to be shut tighter each day as last week Allen Park and Redford Union blanketed Plymouth 7-0 and 9-0. Allen Park made every hit count, scoring seven runs on seven scattered hits.

Plymouth let men die on second and third for the first three innings of the contest. Dan Camp pitched the first three innings, Jack Robertson the next two, and Randy Williams the last two.

Rocks only winners are on the courts this week

Plymouth's tennis team continued to be the winningest Rock team this year as they edged Northville, 4-3, and ran Bentley off the courts, 7-0.

ville, and 7-5, 6-0 against his Bentley opponent.

REDFORD UNION had a little easier time as the Rocks committed six errors, and fell into three double plays. Redford Union had little success at the plate netting only five hits. Plymouth, with no runs, got two hits. One off the bat of Robertson, who pitched for a triple, and another from a pinch hitter, Jerry Norquist, who rapped out a single in his one and only trip to bat this season.
The Rocks will have a crack at each of the teams again as the second half of the season approaches.

Jr. High team takes openers on diamond

Redford Union took apart Plymouth's JV baseball team 16-1 last week.

Bob Stover won the number 3 singles against Northville, 7-5, 6-3. Mogle in the number 2 singles lost in three sets, 6-2, 4-6, 4-6.

JV baseballers split; top Allen Park

The Junior High baseball team took two victories recently—a 10-4 whipping of Lola Valley, and a 4-2 decision over Pearson Jr. High.

Robin Wideman won in both matches, 6-2, 6-3 with North-

Chris Bellmore lost 3-6, 4-6 in the Northville match. Steve Hulce and Rick Jones powered their way in both matches, 6-1, 6-2 and 6-1, 6-1.

Coach Karl Cotton said Nick Valenti was the winning pitcher in each game, going the distance, with Dale Rumberger doing the catching.

In another game, Plymouth edged Allen Park 3-2 as Nuffer pitched a five-hitter. Bob Watts knocked in two runs with two doubles, and Nick Dormogray netted two hits.

Tom Chandler and Bill Wolfe won over their Northville opponents 6-4, 6-3. Dave Sibbold and Randy Kenyon lost 3-6, 1-6.

Walter Lee had a home run against Pearson, and a double and a single.
Cotton said each game showed solid team effort.

Softball games begin this week

A sure sign summer is here is the return of the softball squads and their games. This year 12 teams instead of ten are competing. Here's this week's schedule:
May 9: Taits vs. Lutheran, Perfection vs. RCA.

Heide's Garden Center has one-half acre under glass

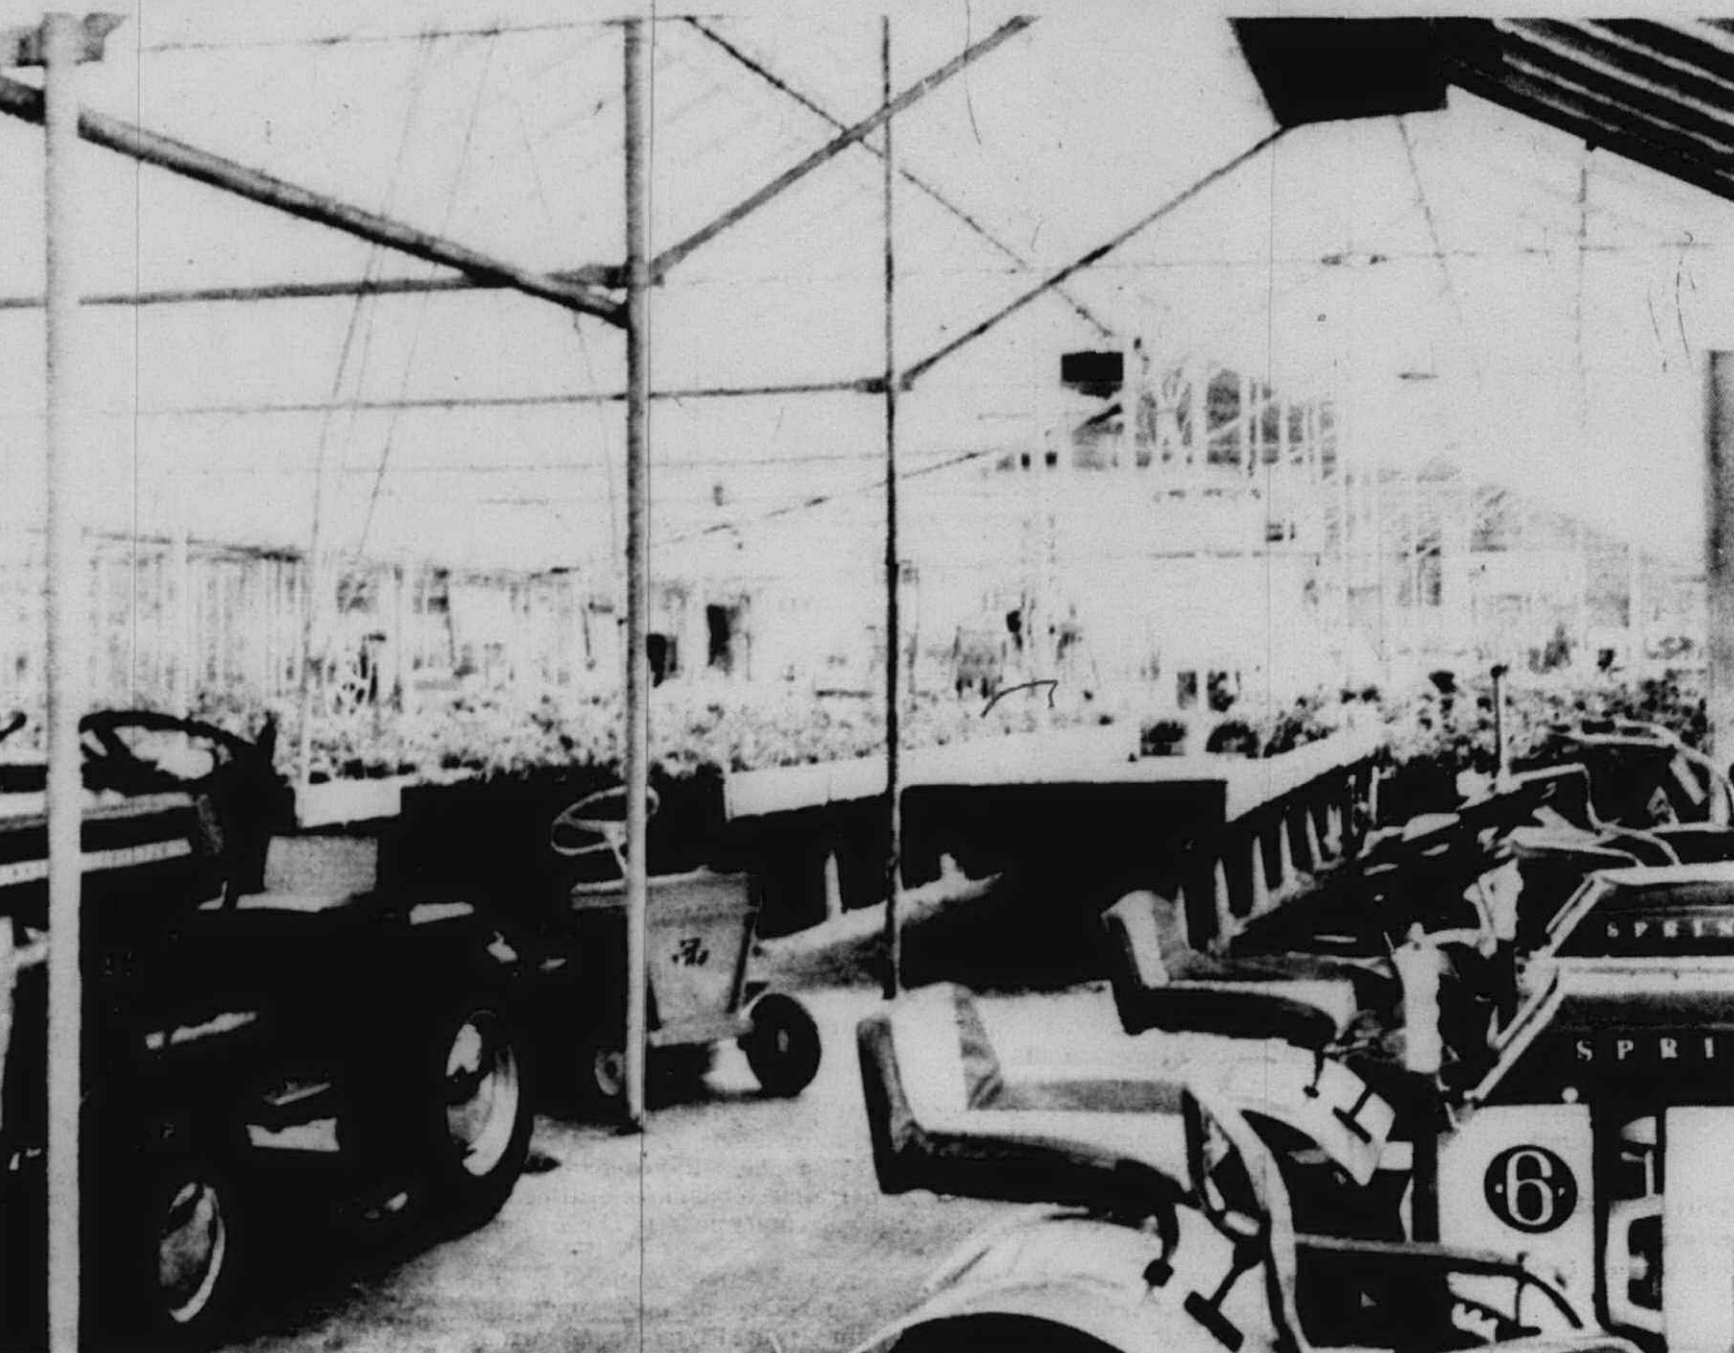

Heide's now operates in two locations. One, a new modern flower shop, opened recently in a building on the corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Harvey St. The old greenhouse has been expanded and converted to a garden center, carrying power equipment, garden tools, seeds, insecticides, fertilizers and a complete line of bedding stock. Located at Mill and Liberty Streets, Heide's Greenhouse and Garden Center also has power equipment for rent. Nearly one-half acre is now under glass, with geraniums and several other flower stocks now in bloom. Rose bushes, vegetable plants and spraying equipment are also for sale.

Big Red' can get you on the golf course 1 hour earlier every Saturday!

Let's say you're now mowing 1/2 acre to an acre with a standard 21" rotary mower. It probably takes you 2 to 4 hours.
The 34" Big Red can cut your mowing time by at least an hour. And an extra hour a week for 4 months (the national average mowing season) is about 13 extra hours a season on the course. You'll feel a lot stronger on the back nine, too.

Questions & Answers

Bread crumbs used in a meat loaf occasionally make the loaf dry, even when it is basted frequently during the cooking. Is there a remedy?

Use soft bread crumbs and moisten them slightly with small quantities of white wine and milk. Or, omit the bread crumbs entirely and use in their place finely grated raw potato. Use one-half cup of grated potato for each one and one-half pounds of meat. No basting is necessary when grated raw potato is used; the loaf is light and retains its moistness even when cold.
