NO CONTRACT, NO TEACH: Three areas unresolved in teacher negotiations

If Plymouth teachers do not have a master contract when school starts, they will not teach. The three major areas of salary, fringe benefits and class size remain unsettled.

That was the word from the Plymouth Education Association, sole bargaining agent for all of Plymouth's teachers, as school ended Friday and no agreement on a contract was reached.

In a vote taken before the end of school, the teachers agreed:

- * No teaching in September until a master contract is negotiated and ratified.
- * No acceptance of individual contracts until the master contract has been negotiated and approved.

The PEA teachers also voted to submit the matter to binding arbitration. In an overwhelming vote of approval, they gave their negotiating team the go-ahead to offer to the School Board binding arbitration. The offer holds until July 31, they say.

Contacted Monday, Russell Isbister, superintendent of schools and chief negotiator for the Board of Education, said he did not favor binding arbitration. He explained his viewpoint, noting this was his opinion and that he had not had a chance to sound out the School Board:

"I will oppose arbitration with all the force I can. What the Board will do I cannot say. I favor the due process of law, that is, mediation. If either party wants the assistance of the State Labor Mediation Board they may ask for it."

"I will follow the law as it is written. There is no provision for binding arbitration. While the Board may agree to it, I don't think we can enter into it legally," Isbister said.

In general terms, arbitration is an agreement in which both disputing parties agree that the Labor Board decision is final and binding on both parties. Mediation, a different process, involves a decision from the Board that each party may or may not accept.

Mediation often involves a fact finding hearing.

James Doyle, PEA president, and Ray Homer and Bill Kloote, all Plymouth teachers, explained their position to the Mail Saturday.

"We don't want to use not going back to school as a hammer," Kloote said. "We will bargain every Wednesday night throughout the summer, and hope for a reasonable solution. The teachers are willing to go through the summer without a master contract. We made every effort to reach an agreement, working night and day around the clock."

Kloote went on to explain the teachers had agreed to arbitration, with the state Labor Mediation Board conducting the hearings.

The entire negotiating process is highlighted by recent strikes of teachers in nearby suburbs.

One suburban school board, Ecorse, is testing the entire matter of teacher strikes in court. That board fired all its teachers before school was out, charging the strike violated the Hutchinson Act and teacher-board contracts.

Isbister is also opposed to writing class size into a master contract.

"Our position is that we will sit with the PEA after school starts and take a look at enrollments in separate buildings and between buildings and work out a program that equitably distributes teachers and the class load," Isbister said.

Isbister further explained that negotiations have been carried on at a "very high level."

The superintendent also said his basic salary offer was a 5 per cent increase based on each individual salary next year, as incremented in the current schedule. Which means a school year teacher's increase would be 5 five percent of his current third year salary.

"Beyond that I think we must negotiate in terms of additional work days. They ought to have more dollars, then we ought to have more work days," Isbister commented.

Isbister said he would meet with the Board before the end of June and seek direction on the issues raised by the PEA.

PEA officials and the Board agreed last week, after three months of silence about negotiations, to present both sides to the community. The PEA negotiators supplied a chronological list of events, from the time negotiations open on March 17, until the vote was taken on arbitration June 16.

On the 16th teachers also overwhelmingly rejected two alternatives from the Board: (1) A five per cent hike, based on 188 days work and current salary and a boost from 50 per cent to 100 percent payment of medical and health insurance; (2) or, a proposal with pay for five additional days of service, and a five per cent salary hike, and a jump from 50 to 70 per cent payment on insurance benefits.

On salaries, PEA spokesman Bill Kloote Saturday said they felt they and the Board were about $200,000 apart on the total package. Starting salary for a normal school year would be $5700, for a teacher with a B.A. under the PEA proposal. PEA officials feel the Board's proposal would fall somewhat short of that because of the adjusted school year with extra days.

Going up the scale on that basis, the PEA and the Board are from $300 to $600 apart at various levels.

Isbister's beginning salary proposal, based on five extra days, is $5704.13. Top, after ten years, would be $8,825.25 for a B.A., or $9,228 for an M.A.

DENY PUBLISHED REPORTS:

School field trips raise protests and comments

A series of educational field trips, which brought together students from Plymouth's Starkweather and Farrand Schools, Livonia's Stark School and Detroit the city, the suburb and a small town.

Miss Mildred Field, Starkweather principal said Friday that in no way was the project an attempt to get Negroes to move into the suburbs.

"Here, we had about 113 involved. All were asked to get permission from their parents. About ten children were not allowed to go on the trips when some parents said no," Miss Field said. She is a veteran of 13 years as principal of Starkweather.

She denied reports published in the Livonia News, which lists the name of Jack Edwards McGriff on its masthead as director, that it was a "step-by-step scheme" to push suburban integration.

Close on Saturdays

The Plymouth Mail offices will be closed Saturdays during July and August.

Throughout the year we are open 9 to 12 Saturday morning. Regular Monday through Friday hours — 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m.—remain in effect.

Those seeking space for publicity are urged to turn in news by the Friday before publication.

The Livonia News article, dated May 26, said: "The youngsters in all-white schools will begin 'pen-pals' in the colored school, without being told that they are negroes" (sic). Miss Field said Friday that parents and children both were told exactly to whom they were sending letters.

The Livonia News also wrote: "The teachers said they didn't particularly want newspaper reporters present and that the project should be operated in semi-secrecy to cut down the objections of parents."

Miss Field, as one of the educators involved also said that this was not true, repeating again the fact that parents and students alike were informed.

"The articles that appeared in the Detroit News and the Free Press were accurate," Miss Field said.

The matter was also discussed with a Plymouth Mail staff member in early April, with no attempt made to keep it secret.

Miss Field said the opening statement of the Livonia News story — "How the suburbs neighboring Detroit are going to be integrated by teaching primary school children with 'shared learning' experiences with Detroit area negro (sic) youngsters was explained at a meeting Monday." — was a complete misstatement of the facts.

"Pattengill youngsters came here. We walked downtown and had a Mexican lunch one of our mothers had prepared at the Presbyterian Church, then we visited the City Hall and talked to the police chief and other City officials," Miss Field said in explaining the school children's visit to Plymouth.

She noted that in return, fourth grade students spent one hour at Pattengill School in the lunch room. A fifth grade group met Pattengill students at the Detroit International Institute. The Farrand group met Detroit fourth graders at the Detroit Historical Museum, and another time at the Nankin Nature Center.

"We knew this was a sensitive area, but we thought it would be educational," Miss Field said. "The program let them know that Negro children are the same

Oldford bids to expand shopping center area

Stewart Oldford and Sons, developers and builders, will learn in July if their plans to expand a proposed shopping center meet with the approval of residents of the area of Ann Arbor and Sheldon Roads or not.

The builders received permission for a public hearing, on a request for rezoning an additional section west of their original site, from the Plymouth Township Planning Commission.

But they also learned that it is better to accept half a loaf than none since the Commission denied a request for rezoning additional land east and north of the proposed shopping center for multiple and duplex dwellings.

Even though the matter came before the board as a request for rezoning, a group of homeowners in the Park Lane subdivision were on hand to protest any action.

Matter of fact, Chairman Maurice Breen had to caution spokesmen for the group several times against making statements.

"The Planning Commission is studying a request for rezoning, which if granted, requires a public hearing next month," said Breen. "This is not a public hearing and we can consider only the items in front of us. If we decide to allow the public hearing then your group will have plenty of time to make comments then — but not now."

Stewart Oldford, Jr., representing the builders, told the Commission he already had commitments from the Wrigley and Cunningham stores to locate in the shopping center.

"These will be our major tenants," he said, "We hope to have a large number of specialty shops and decided we needed additional space from the original four acres to six acres to provide parking facilities. If the Commission grants our request, then we will have space for 418 cars."

Oldford indicated work has already started on the site and then his company hopes to start construction within a short time after final approval, if granted.

The matter comes up for public hearing in July when the planners may or may not decide to grant the request.

If an affirmative action is taken then it will be another month before the rezoning goes before the Township Board of Trustees for final approval, or denial.

After a lengthy discussion, the planners approved a request from the Gould Industrial Development Company to rezone a portion of land directly opposite the Township Hall, on Ann Arbor Road, from single dwelling to light manufacture.

Gould had made the request a month earlier and a public hearing was set but notices didn't reach the homeowners surrounding the site and a second public hearing was called last week.

The site is to be used by Metropolitan Imprinters Co., of Detroit, for the construction of a

Holy July 4th! big plans afoot

The birth of this nation 190 years ago will be celebrated Monday, July 4, with the traditional parade and airshow, with thousands expected to view the festivities.

The entire day's events is conducted and sponsored by the Plymouth JayCees.

July Fourth plans were complete this week, with nearly fifty entries scheduled for the parade, which runs from the Kroger parking lot down Main St. to Hartsough, along Hartsough, where it disbands at Junior High East.

After the parade, a full afternoon of fun is planned at the air show at Mettetal Airport, located at the corner of Joy and Lilley Roads in Canton Township.

Bill Barber, veteran stunt pilot and U.S. Aerobacetic champion, headlines the show, which promises to be more complete than last year's.

Also planned for the afternoon at the airport:

- * A Bavarian beer garden, with ice cold draft beer.
- * The Larry Livingston Combo to provide popular and all-time favorite music.
- * Displays from merchants and industry.
- * Antique airplanes and cars.
- * A peanut drop, with prizes for all the kids.
- * Pony rides and three carnival rides.
- * Many concession stands, several more than last year.
- * JayCee Honda raffle drawing, with several prizes. The evening will be capped with a $1000 fireworks show, beginning about 9 p.m.

Among the units expected in the parade are the famous Ambassadors in Blue from Selfridge Air Force Base.

The Amherstburg Community Band from Ontario will play, along with the Plymouth Community Band, sponsored by the Plymouth Community Federal Credit Union.

Also expected are several political office seekers both local and state-wide.

Senator Robert Griffin, Republican senatorial candidate, has indicated he will be here for sure; and, U.S. Congressman, Weston E. Vivian will also be in the parade.

Wendell Smith, state JayCee president, will act as grand marshal for the parade.

And, from Chrysler Corporation, the famed Chrysler Highlanders will march in the parade; they thrill thousands of listeners annually with the sound of their authentic bagpipes.

Complete details of the entire July 4th weekend will appear in next week's Plymouth Mail.

Tickets up but crime is down, Police say

Tickets issued by the City of Plymouth police department are up drastically over last year — and crimes are down, according to the monthly report from the Department.

The report, along with others from all City departments, are reviewed once a month by the City of Plymouth City Commission. At Monday night's regular meeting, Commissioner James McKeon pointed out that last year at this point only 597 tickets had been issued; this year 2,615 have been issued.

For the first five months in 1966, 157 speeding tickets were issued as compared with 100 at the same time last year.

Overtime parking tickets also took a giant leap from 90 in the first five months in 1965 to 1879 in 1966, (January through May). Police attribute the upswing in increased manpower.

Crime rates dropped during the same period. Larcenies were down slightly, auto thefts were about one half, and prowler calls had dropped. Breaking and entering complaints remained the same.

Schools

The second half of the report from the Plymouth School Citizens' Facilities Committee will be presented June 27 at Junior High West in the Library.

Beginning at 8 p.m. the presentation will cover the financial picture for Plymouth Schools. Chaired by William Fronk, the committee presented its first report in April—a 40-page analysis of facility needs, in which they said a new high school, a third junior high and several grade schools would be needed soon.

The public is invited to the meeting Monday.

Pastor is new breed, preaches involvement

Rev. David Strang, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of the Epiphany, and currently a candidate for Plymouth Township trustee, is a new breed of clergyman.

In Plymouth no more than a year and a half, Rev. Strang has practiced what he preaches about the church, and its role in the community.

"The church has to be involved in the life of the world and in the community in which it finds itself. We believe it's God's world. Either we become involved with it or deny everything we preach," Rev. Strang explained in a recent interview.

That, in general terms, tells why Rev. Strang is running for the Township Board, why he is a member of the JayCee, why he is a member of the Plymouth Township volunteer fire department, why he has insisted and worked towards the Ministerial Association taking an active role in the community, and why he attends public meetings and listens to Chamber of Commerce speakers.

David M. Strang

"There is a further problem of the church. In general, it has got to be a part of the world. I can oil our four walls and collect the money at the church, but that would be wasting their (the congregation's) time and my time," Rev. Strang said.

Rev. Strang, who is married and has two children, lives in Lake Pointe. His church is located at 41390 Five Mile Rd.

However, Rev. Strang makes it clear he will not run with the label 'clergyman'; he has, for instance, insisted campaign pictures show him without his clerical collar.

I cannot, nor I will not forget that I am a clergyman; but I will not use it to get votes."

Even so, he feels quite strongly about his church connections.

There was a meeting I attended in which a problem area—youth—was being discussed. All groups were being mentioned as

WEDLER BACK

Mangognas make new plea to Board for rezoning grant

Two old headaches and several routine matters occupied the agenda of the Plymouth Township Board's regular monthly meeting last Tuesday.

The two old issues were Frank and Julia Mangogna's request for proper rezoning for a new restaurant to be built on their Ann Arbor Rd. property, and a request from Robert Wedler for a re-vote on an earlier Board rejection of a rezoning bid for a shopping center.

On the first issue, attorney Edward Draugelis, representing the Mangogna, presented a three page summary of the background on the issue, and requested a proper commercial rezoning be given to the restaurant and tavern at 47660 Ann Arbor Rd.

"BOTH FROM a legal and an equitable point of view, it seems that the Mangognas (sic) are entitled to favorable consideration of their request. What they propose to do would not change anything that already exists on the present site. There can be no question but what it would, in fact, be a great improvement," Draugelis wrote in his petition to the Board.

The Board agreed to accept the petition from Draugelis; no discussion was held on the matter. In previous statements, Township supervisors John McEwen has indicated he and the Board feel the matter must now go to the courts.

"I think we'd welcome a suit on this," McEwen said recently. Township treasurer Mrs. Elizabeth Holmes echoed that in comments made last week.

"We've had this before us for seven years," Mrs. Holmes said. "I think we've made it clear where we stand. But, then both Dick Lauterbach and Gene Overholt (Board trustees) are fairly new, and they urged we accept this petition for study. So we did."

THE BACKGROUND on the case as presented by Draugelis: (1) The Mangognas bought the property in 1955; it was then zoned commercial. In 1957, the Township master plan placed the land in residential use. Mangos continued to operate the restaurant on a non-conforming basis. Before any remodeling can be done, or a new structure built, a rezoning must be granted. That rezoning was denied in September, 1965.

(2) The site is near the intersection of Ann Arbor Trail and Ann Arbor Rd. The surrounding area is residential; however Draugelis notes, most homes were built after the Mangognas bought the site.

(3) The Mangognas have made several efforts to relocate, as per a promise they made when they received a liquor license about two years ago. Draugelis explains the Mangognas have been unable to sell the land for commercial uses because it could not be used without rezoning, and its location makes it undesirable for residential uses.

In summary, the Mangognas feel they cannot economically relocate somewhere else; their livelihood depends on operation of a profitable business. DRAUGELIS concluded that the rezoning in 1957 had created a severe hardship on the Mangognas.

On another matter, Robert Wedler, who is seeking proper commercial rezoning for an Ann Arbor-Haggerty Road corner, was before the Board once more, asking for a reconsideration.

"So what," asked trustee Ralph Garber, after Wedler spoke. "We've spent a lot of time with you. You know how we feel. What's the problem."

Wedler said he felt the Board's last action, a denial of any reconsideration, was wrong. "I was turned down on a matter that was not before the Board. The vote taken was not based on the motion before you."

Wedler was referring to an opinion from attorney Ralph Cole that said a single piece of property may not be subjected to rezoning attempts until after a years lapse of time between each try. Cole, however, had said the Planning commission, could on its own motion, rezone the property, which was the course it took.

However, the Board who can give the final approval, denied the rezoning. This Cole said it could do, and said any rehearing on the matter should be on the merits of the request, not technicalities.

Jack McEwen cut short the exchange between Garber and Wedler. "I would say the only recourse you have is go to the courts. If you have the land, and have a proper application, you can start all over next month. We can't prohibit that; this isn't a gestapo," McEwen said. A year has lapsed since Wedler first sought rezoning.

ON OTHER matters, the Board: * Approved bids for the Tramp Hollow storm sewer ($43,000 to Rocco Ferrara, Inc.), and for 1600' of water line on Five Mile for the St. John's Seminary ($28,370 to Farino Construction Co). The Tramp Hollow sewer will serve the new Sheldon Rd. Ford complex.

* Agreed to seek bids for a sewer on Haggerty Rd. to serve Spartan Stores warehouse ($62,000); for a sewer on Schoolcraft Rd. ($15,000) and on Five Mile ($10,000) to complete the Lake Pointe loop. Total for the bids let and those sought, about $165,000, with engineering fees.

* Agreed to increase planning commission fees from $25 to $50 for each application for a rezoning, and for a public hearing. * Declared a water contract let to Masconi Construction in default. The contract was for water lines along Canton Center Rd. and out Territorial Rd. to Beck, among others.

* Tabled the signing of the contract with Ford Motor Co. awaiting the final acquisition of an easement. Apparently one property owner in the area does not want to relinquish an easement for sewer lines to serve the Sheldon Rd. Ford plant.

Oldford bids

* Continued from page 1 plant to be used for printing numerous publications.

Metro Imprinter is the first of several plants that have shown an interest in locating in the Gould Industrial Park.

W. C. Johnson, Township planning consultant, made a recommendation that the request be denied on the grounds that the area on the projected land use plan is indicated for high density residential which would act as a buffer between the industrial to the east and the single family to the west.

Commissioner Ralph Garber made a motion that the request be approved and received support from Commissioner Clayton Koch.

Commissioner Irving Rozlan disagreed on the theory that the planner had made a recommendation and that he personally felt the plant could be located on another part of the Industrial Park.

Garber pointed out that this wasn't a matter for the Commission to decide and asked for the vote which was unanimously in favor of the rezoning.

The planning consultant pointed out that there was a discrepancy in the present zoning ordinance in the R-3 and R-2A classifications and recommended a reduction of the height restriction from 35 feet to 25 feet.

Asked for reasons for his recommendation, Johnson explained that a 35-foot height would require an elevator. After a short discussion, the Commission ordered a public hearing on the recommendation in July. In other actions, the Commission:

* Tabled a request from Dr. Leo Speer for rezoning of approximately 24.72 acres near Napier Road for establishing a mobile home trailer court.

* Tabled a request from the Willoughby Trailer Park for rezoning of 31.82 acres for the extension of the present trailer park on the west side of Ridge Rd.

* Tabled a request from Richard Kirchoff for an apartment complex on Northville Road, north of Clemons Drive, pending a study of plans by the consultant.

* Tabled a request from Robert Garner for approval of plans to construct Terrace Apartments on Wilcox Road pending receipt of an architect's conception of the project.

* Approved building plans of Spartan Stores for construction of a warehouse and office building on the west side of Haggerty Road between Ann Arbor and Joy Roads.

* Approved a public hearing on a request of Loren Gould for rezoning of a portion of his Professional Office site on Ann Arbor Road between Haggerty and Terry from PO to C-2 for the construction of a branch of the Commonwealth Bank. Donald Cox appeared in behalf of the bank and indicated his company was interested in establishing a branch.

* Approved hardbacks for subdivision No. 9 in Lake Pointe.

sources of answers. Nobody mentioned the church, nor did they even consider it a logical possibility. This means that we who believe the church has something to say have to find a means of communication, beyond using Sunday mornings and the language of the church," he said.

"It's more important to have one Christian—a real one—the school board, than to have 45 churchgoers sitting around on a committee."

Born in Elkhart, Indiana, Rev. Strang was ordained as a Lutheran minister after graduating from the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago. Rev. Strang explains why he became a minister this way:

"I guess it was a very slow, even painful process. I suppose I can think of several times when I just about junked the whole thing. But there came a gradual understanding that this is what I ought to be doing. It certainly was no life long ambition. I guess in high school is when I first began to think about it. The final moment I suppose was when I was ordained."

Rev. Strang says he started as a Methodist, attending Illinois Wesleyan University.

"I was not a church goer. There was a period between the seventh grade and high school that I hardly darkened the door of a church," Rev. Strang explained.

Changing from the Methodist Church to the Lutheran Church was a process that took several years, he added. "It was a matter of deciding where I could do the best job."

"There was a time in my life when I was very pious, with some over exaggerated form of piety — which meant that the first time my college roommate said 'damn' I just about went out the window. I thought everybody at a religious school should have halos."

"I guess I have learned what Christian faith is all about. Whether one smoked, or swore, or drank didn't determine whether or not one was Christian," Strang said.

"The church has got to speak to the world on its own terms. There are people outside of the church for whom 'Christianity' is a dirty word. How do we help these people? The church has got to listen to the world, instead of doing all the talking."

Berry has new partner at Pontiac dealership

Bruce Craig, a veteran of 18 years with Pontiac sales departments, has purchased Jim Edelbrock's share of Berry Pontiac, Inc.

The dealership, located at 874 Ann Arbor Rd., is now owned by Craig, who will act as secretary-treasurer of the company, and Ross L. Berry, the company's founder and president.

Craig, who currently lives in Birmingham but has announced plans to move to the Plymouth area, came here from a position as business manager for the Pontiac zone (Pontiac, Michigan area).

Previously, he had been a district manager of sales for the Detroit area.

The sale was completed this week; Edelbrock had no announcement of his plans.

of Rev. Strang's life; he took part in the historic trek.

"Either one's faith takes in all the derisions of life, or it does not. There is no such thing as a luke-warm Christian. Certainly the rare issue is the challenge of the church in our time—the issue of my time," Rev. Strang said.

Other modern problems confront the church, he feels.

"Automation is forcing people to ask, what does my life mean? Either the church helps find answers to these questions, or we might as well close our doors," Rev. Strang commented.

Pastor Strang said Friday in announcing his reasons for running for the Board:

"Plymouth Township deserves leadership whose concern is people. The Township must have elected officials who will seek to learn what people think about their community and its needs."

"Plymouth Township deserves leadership able to move into the future quickly. The Township is expected to double its population by 1976. We will have to act now if we are to maintain the vigorous growth of our community in the future."

"Plymouth Township deserves leadership which will accept the responsibility to explore more completely potential areas of community cooperation as a means of serving people."

"Plymouth Township deserves leadership willing to bring into the open issues about its life which have not yet been fully discussed. I intend to raise these issues, provide a forum for their investigation, and propose solutions."

"This is the kind of leadership needed in Plymouth Township, leadership which I believe I can help provide," Strang concluded.

Rev. Strang is a member of the Democratic State Central Committee of Michigan, and is state Jay-Cee Chaplain.

This year he was elected to the Plymouth YMCA Board of Directors, and is a member of the Human Relations Commission. He also acts as an advisor on a Plymouth youth council.

Rev. Strang was a participant in the historic Hillsdale Conference, is chairman of press, radio and TV for the Michigan Synod, Lutheran Church in America, and is a youth advisor for the same Synod. He has also worked on TV for the Detroit Council of Churches.

as white children, and everyone else. Generally, to them children are children."

Miss Field emphasized that this was only a one-year program and that it was finished.

She further emphasized that it was not related to moves on the part of any human relations groups to get Negroes to move to all-white suburbs.

She stated the program involved the exchange of visits and letters, and that no plan, for instance, to bus children to Detroit, and Detroit children to Plymouth for day-to-day schooling was in existence.

In a report on the project to school boards involved, Mrs. Clare A. Broadhead, project director said:

"Children in segregated schools have very little opportunity for meaningful association with children who are racially or culturally different from themselves. Unless or until, housing patterns change, and teachers and parents cherish rather than disparage racial and cultural diversity in their communities, children will continue to be denied equal educational opportunities."

Mrs. Broadhead went on to report that the climate of distrust and the denial of equal opportunities which prevails in much of American life will persist. "It is true today that in most of the schools in our country and in Wayne County, the curriculum either ignores or distorts the multiracial nature of our society. We believe that children must learn about the larger community of which they are a part. This community is southeastern Michigan. It is not the area bounded by their particular school district," Mrs. Broadhead wrote.

The report also notes that Miss Field worked on the advisory committee that developed the shared learning experience program.

Basic to the project, Miss Field feels, is that children learn better from actual experiences than from a text book.

Teachers report that when the pen-pals met they raced to join each other, and that no problems were encountered.

A Wednesday meeting of the Livonia School Board exploded into a fight last week when two Livonia men fought, with one being cut after the fists stopped flying. The blow was thrown by George Kindred, who headed a drive in opposition to the Livonia Human Relations Commission, and ran unsuccessfully for the Livonia City Council.

He and about 100 others were present to protest the program of the pen-pal letters and exchange visits.

Hate must be taught

Normally, it is not the policy of this newspaper to dignify sloppy and opinionated newspapering from other quarters by calling attention to it.

The best procedure is to overlook such efforts and consign them to the inevitable erasure of time.

But recently a story was printed in publications that circulate on the periphery of the Plymouth area that should be clarified.

At least two editions published by Detroit Suburban Newspapers, directed by Jack Edwards McGriff, carried a story on May 26 headlined "Outline Pen-Pal Plan for Pushing Integration. Link Program With 1-Detroit, 1-Livonia & 2-Plymouth Schools."

Local people should know that the basis for this sort of non-reporting is laid on the presupposition that all of us are afflicted with a sense of personal inadequacy that dictates that we have a convenient scapegoat upon which to vent our own shortcomings.

Many aspects of the May 26 story are disturbing to anyone who spends time in reflection upon them.

The calculated insult of the lower case "N" in "negro" is bad enough.

The deliberate distortion of a program designed to foster understanding in youngsters of differing ethnic backgrounds is equally distasteful.

But the supreme blow is the implicit assumption that our world is the sort of place that will tolerate continued campaigns against a people because their skin or religion or political outlook deviates from what we, in our supreme conceit, consider to be the norm.

Miss Mildred Field, principal of Plymouth's Starkweather School, comments at some length in a Page One story. We feel that what she told us is a true and objective picture of the program.

Further, it seems to us that Plymouth School officials, Plymouth parents and Plymouth children deserve some sort of credit for their sane and sensible approach to a program calculated to provide insight into one of the most crucial issues of our time.

Indeed, the reaction of young children to similar projects emphasizes that tolerance and acceptance is a natural thing.

As a song in the Broadway classic, "South Pacific," pointed out:

"You have to be taught to hate and fear,

"You have to be taught from year to year,

"It has to be drummed into each little ear,

"You have to be carefully taught."

Thank God the emphasis on teaching in Plymouth schools is in other directions.

The good life

Right, Tiger?

Doug Johnson

There will be no Miss Plymouth beauty contest this year.

While not heralded as the saddest news of the year, it was a disappointment to some.

One cute young thing was in our office asking about it and I had to say it had been "informally" cancelled. She said that was too bad.

The Jaycees, who sponsor the contest, have offered no reasons save that there was too little time and that their manpower would be spread too thin, due to the July Fourth festivities.

Apparently, the energy expended to elect Wendell Smith state Jaycee president was too much.

While individual Jaycees have a habit of rapping me on the back and saying "Hi, tiger," and while they also modestly admit they are "the most dynamic club in Michigan," I suspect they sometimes bite off a bit more than they can chew.

A couple of Jaycees were miffed because the Chamber of Commerce was sponsoring a candidates night for the School Board election. I mean, they were really mad because the Chamber had thought of it first.

"We were going to have one," they said.

Forgot to tell anybody when, that's all.

For a followup to the candidates night, the Jaycees adopted a resolution supporting Dr. Gary Hall, a Jaycee, and a School Board candidate. According to reports, the resolution passed something like nine to seven with only 16 of 92 members voting. It was somewhat doubtful that all those voting knew all the candidates, and also, that 16 or so, spoke for 92.

Now all this will get me accused of "badmouthing" the Jaycees and rightfully so. While I think what they, and other service clubs do for the community is great, I would like to see more attacks and efforts on the real problems of the community.

Certainly apathy, both within a club and without, is the challenge of any organized group seeking to better the world.

The primary goal, as I see it, is not to win state and national awards. If these be the incentives and goals for a service club, I say let them be hanged.

Gone are the days when cans of soup and baskets at Christmas time are answers to a community's needs. I'd sort of like Plymouth's service clubs to take a look at some of the real problems: race relations; voter disinterest at the polls and at the public meeting place; financing public service needs, including education and recreation; protection of the American way of life, involving all those areas of freedom now so fully established for all.

Don't get me wrong. This isn't a personal attack on the Plymouth Jaycees in particular or of service clubs in general. I just think they might reshape their role, or someday they will perish.

That is as true of my job and profession as it is of service clubs or any organization.

I mean lets think new thoughts, run them up a flagpole to see who salutes. Let's tackle those problems - the real ones - with all the effort we tackle the imaginary ones.

Right, tiger?

New Fad Diet

Law student Howard Nowland, of Oxford, England, won $2.80 on a bet that arose from a peculiar habit of his.

Nowland, who nibbles on paper, bet a friend he could eat the 556 page Oxford University examination statutes. It took him six days to do it. He finished the last page in the school dining room.

Government tornado book available

U. S. Representative Wes Vivian announces that a new, 16-page brochure entitled "Tornadoes," is available from the Superintendent of Documents in Washington, at $2.00 each. "Tornadoes" was published by the Environmental Science Services Administration of the U. S. Department of Commerce. It contains detailed information on how to protect yourself from the dreaded twisters. It was prepared as part of ESSA's continuing effort to protect the public from all kinds of natural disasters.

The 16-page brochure explains what tornadoes are, when and where they occur, how they produce their destructive effects, what they look like, and what to do when tornadoes threaten. Its numerous illustrations show various forms of tornadoes, as well as certain harmless phenomena which look like tornadoes.

Commenting on the new publication, Representative Vivian said, "Some people think that tornadoes happen only to other people, in other places. Actually, these violent storms can occur anywhere in the United States. In 1965, 898 tornadoes struck 42 states, killing 299 Americans."

Hessler-Anderson vows exchanged

The brochure describes the work of the ESSA-Weather Bureau's National Severe Storms Forecast Center at Kansas City and defines the terms used in alerting the public to the possible development or actual existence of tornadoes.

Also included are suggestions for establishing a community warning network; directions for constructing a tornado shelter; and the Weather Bureau's official Tornado Safety Rules.

"Tornadoes" is available for 20 cents from the Superintendent of Documents, U. S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.

Attending the couple were Karen Carver and Craig Grainger also of Plymouth. The bride is living at the home of her parents while the groom is serving with the Air National Guard, Amarillo, Tex.

Offer science enrichment class for child with special interests

Students in grades fourth through seventh have an opportunity to take part in an unique science enrichment program offered by the Plymouth Schools.

For students with a special interest in science area, the three two-week sessions cover soils, animals and plants.

Each will be taught by Mrs. Wayne DeForest, a Plymouth Junior High West teacher, in conjunction with summer school.

Experiments in the science area will be conducted. Each class will involve dissection, microscope activities and field trips.

"The classes will generally provide an opportunity for individual interests," Mrs. DeForest said. "Students may enroll for any or all of the classes."

According to Gustav Gorguze, summer school principal, each two-week session costs $6. Total for the entire course is $18. The time has been set as yet, with many more enrollments needed before the class can start June 27.

Those interested may call the High School at 453-3100, or sign-up at the recreation office.

The program is a part of a general elementary enrichment program for children who seek special work in several areas. Much of the class work is on an individual basis, and will help equip a youngster to tackle complicated studied in scientific fields.

The Plymouth Pilgrim

By DAVE WILEY

If you have been following the comments that have issued from this corner during the past couple of years, you are aware that I get awfully tired of people who mutter and groan about the increasing size and scope of State and Federal government.

They bug me because, in large measure, they seem to think there exists a magic formula for restoring things to an 18th century level, without any assumption of responsibility by local governmental units and the electorate that nominally controls them.

And I get more irritated with the Spirit of 76'ers for the reason that - even if such a formula existed - this, in plain and forthright terms, simply ain't the 1700's any more.

What I'm leading up to, gang, is a comment or two on what passes for government in this area and the indifference of the two local party organizations.

For months, now, I have been listening to criticism from both ends of the partisan continuum about local government - particularly Plymouth Township government.

Members of the Republican and Democratic groups have been critical of the status quo in the Township - ranging from the actions of individual trustees to the attitude of the supervisor himself.

My purpose here is not to discuss the validity of these criticisms or their factual foundation. Nor is it germane to detail them for you.

Suffice it to say they exist.

And, given discontent among members of the respective parties, doesn't it follow that some effort would be made to offer alternatives in both the primary and general elections?

Sure, you say, that's a normal, rational conclusion. Yeah it is.

But not here in Plymouth.

Last Tuesday, at filing deadline, it was made quite apparent that both the Grand Old Party and their Democratic counterparts were preoccupied with bigger things than the machinations of Township government.

The Democrats are out to retain incumbent Congressman Weston E. Vivian in Washington. And the Republicans are so completely enmeshed in getting their chairman nominated for the Michigan State Senate that they might as well not exist as far as Plymouth is concerned.

The humorous thing about it all is that both groups were so outwardly interested just a few months ago. It was then, when the frost was still on the pumpkin, that they were eagerly seeking opinion.

The Democrats engaged a smoke-filled room at Lofy's Restaurant one wintry evening and it was there that I listened to repeated queries about "what they could do to win local elections?"

And, one way or another, I either invited myself or got invited to a Republican meeting in the basement of the Plymouth Community (you will pardon the expression) Federal Credit Union.

On these occasions, it runs through my mind, I made a few passing comments about the responsibility to provide a slate of young, energetic, qualified candidates for local offices.

In short, both party organizations have been told (by persons other than myself, incidentally) that they had a duty and obligation to field a slate worth voting for.

And look what it got us.

Lonesome David Strang, a relative newcomer to the area, is running for Township trustee as the one isolated Democratic candidate for anything at the local level. And his candidacy cannot be attributed to party foresight.

The Republicans courageously met the challenge of the years ahead in Plymouth Township by seeing to it that all the incumbents filed unopposed.

When asked for an explanation, the Democratic leadership, after some feeble jokes about having tried to get Leo Speer's dog to run for office, just sort of hangs its head.

And the Republicans allow that, gee whiz, if they had run anyone new to the political battlefield - he might have bumped off Trustee Gene Overholt who is the one man in office that they'd really like to keep there.

And so they go, off into the political twilight. The Democrats to send Wes Vivian back to Washington.

The Republicans to send Carl Pursell to Lansing. And whatever is left over to send Plymouth Township wherever it's going.

Oh yes, back to our friends who are unhappy about bigger State and Federal bureaucracies.

If you will carefully re-read the material above, Aunt Betsy, you will see that the political parties are concentrating on the bigger things in life.

Last week was proof enough that they don't give much of a hang for local politics.

Maybe they realize that this is the 20th century. Maybe they feel that local government has abdicated most of its responsibility to higher levels and isn't apt to reassume it.

Maybe they want to be where the action is. And maybe I've been flogging the wrong dead horses.

Because why should the parties care when you obviously do not?

The John Moehle home was featured in Better Homes and Gardens magazine in 1939 when it was remodeled and moved back on the lot by architect, Thomas Moss, for his family.

INTERESTING OLD HOUSES

The John Moehle home

135 years of living have left this proud home more beautiful with the passage of time. The house at 1279 Ann Arbor Trail is now owned by Mr. and Mrs. John Moehle who have lived in it with their children, Bill, 11 and Mary Elizabeth, 9, for the past seven years.

that it was built about 1830 and changed hands innumerable times through the years. In 1939, the house was featured by Better Homes & Gardens Magazine when it was remodeled and moved back on the lot by architect, Thomas Moss, for his family.

of its front porch and bathroom lean-to, and had its face beautified with brick veneer and wide clapboards. Windows were re-spaced and spindly chimneys knocked off when a sturdy new one rose at the end of the wing.

Rearranging of inside partitions was extensive and much of the old wood of the beams was used in the remodeling of the house. When the fireplace was added to the paneled living room, original beams were used for the facing along with the old brick to create an attractive traditional fireplace.

Mellowed wood from the old house was also used for the rustic central staircase. The dining room was left untouched with its horsehair plastered walls and ceiling.

Furnishings in the home are in keeping with the age of the house. Mrs. Moehle has a beautiful collection of antiques, many of them family heirlooms.

However, she prefers Victorian pieces and has a wide variety of styles, some early Victorian with simple straight lines and others of mid-Victorian vintage with ornate carved structure. An old world charm prevails in this stately home that echoes of past generations that have lived in its rooms.

Speaking of Women

Ink on my apron The working mother

with Yvonne Schmitz

Should a wife and mother work outside the home? Volumes have been written on the subject. The question has been debated on television; and many a husband and wife have argued hotly over the issue.

In her best seller, "The Feminine Mystique," Betty Friedan berates women for clinging to the hearth as a sole profession. She feels that women who are not employed are cheating themselves.

Phyllis McGinley, in her Pulitzer prize winning book, "Sixpence in Her Shoe" has another approach to the question. For the woman who is happy and satisfied with homemaking as a career, the field of endeavor is unlimited. There are so many facets of the profession of creating a happy home that one can easily spend a lifetime doing just that and keep busy most of the time.

On the other hand, she feels that the woman who seeks a career in addition to that of homemaking can combine both successfully, provided that she can do it without stinting her family.

Phyllis McGinley's sentiments on the subject also happen to be mine. (Incidentally, this is a book that I heartily recommend. It is amusing as well as chock full of tips on successful housewifery.)

From my own experience, a job can do wonders for the doldrums of approaching middle age (let's face it — it's here). The past few months have been some of the happiest I've known because writing has created a perfect balance in my life.

Our children were in school all day, so they hardly missed me while I was at the office, since their hours coincided with mine.

The people I've met in the office of the Plymouth Mail are some of the nicest I've ever known. The staff is a congenial group and it is a joy to work with them.

The interviews have been fascinating. My recipe file is fairly bulging with the delicious concoctions that women have donated to our column, "Specialty of the house," and we've tried most of them. (Mrs. Coon's recipe for meatballs was especially good.)

The old houses in Plymouth have been so intriguing that I wish I could cover more of them.

But back on the homefront, there are seven active children — four of them teen-agers — who need a mother during the summer; so back to number one job I must go.

The women's pages of the Plymouth Mail will be in the capable hands of Mrs. Margaret Murawski next week.

For the time being, I hereby wash the ink out of my apron — but oh how I'll miss it!

City of Plymouth Minutes

Monday, June 13, 1966

A special meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Monday, June 13, 1966 at 7:30 p.m. to consider the following:

- 1. Hearing of Proposed Urban Renewal Projects.
2. Central Business District Plan.
3. Authorization to appropriate $217.55 for Capital Grant for Mill Street Project Mich. R-30
4. Authorization to loan $500 to Urban Renewal Relocation Account.

Authorization to engage Johnson & Anderson as engineers for Sheldon Road water main project.

Authorization to enter into agreement with City of Northville for police and fire communications services.

7. Hendry water.

PRESENT: Comms. Hudson, Jabara, Lawton, McKeon, Smith, Vallier and Mayor Houk.

ABSENT: None.

The Mayor opened the hearing with regard to the S. E. quadrant urban renewal project.

Jay Eldridge of Vilcan-Leman & Associates, Planning Consultants, outlined the procedure and approach toward proceeding with the improvement of the proposed urban renewal project in the Central Business District area, indicating the various steps to be followed and the time expected to be involved in proceeding with the project.

Carl Pursell and Harold Fischer, speaking in behalf of the Chamber of Commerce, presented the following recommendations:

- 1. That the City Commission adopt the general concept of the CBD as bounded within the peripheral drive within the next 30 days.
2. That a means be explored to have all non-conforming properties within the CBD area put to its best C-2 use.
3. That the proposed S.E. Quadrant Urban Renewal Project be rejected and that a land marketability study of the CBD be undertaken.
4. That a step by step method of capital improvements in the CBD be carried out so that capital improvements be ahead of actual need, including establishing a priority list and time-table for completion.
5. That a Plymouth Parking Authority be created.
6. That a one-way traffic pattern around the CBD be established on an experimental basis and that a traffic expert be consulted.
7. That a non-profit Downtown Business Corporation be formed after a complete study by a special task force.
8. That uniform store hours, in competition with other nearby communities and shopping centers be established.

Mr. Harry N. Deyo, 808 Church Street, representing the property owners in the proposed urban renewal area, presented 43 petitions with 824 signatures opposing the project as follows:

To: City Commission

City of Plymouth, Michigan

Gentlemen:

Undersigned property owners, residents, taxpayers and/or voters, as the case may be, in the City of Plymouth, Michigan, hereby object to Urban Renewal Project in S.E. quadrant, Main Street and Ann Arbor Trail, involving area East of Main Street and South of Ann Arbor Trail, on both sides of Deer Street, Wing Street and Maple Street, eastern most line being South of Elizabeth Street and ask relief from all planning costs and threatened seizure of private property in said area of Plymouth, Michigan for the following reasons:

- 1. Project will destroy 36 homes, 2 buildings part residential, 3 apartments or multi-family and 10 commercial structures with no chance of replacing same in said city.
2. Said project will displace and take homes of residents of many years, people no longer young who cannot replace their property, land or buildings for 4, 5 or more times the price they may receive for same.
3. Said property, if seized by City and razed, will be off the tax-rolls with tax loss to entire city.
4. Said $1,000,000.00 project equals Federal funds, $412,000.00; City funds, $137,000.00. Difference is cost and sale price goes to private purchasers. Citizens pay part of Federal costs in taxes and City taxpayers pay all of said $137,000.00. Planning and administrative costs are estimated at $100,000.00. All this per press reports.
5. Taking of private property for a "Senior Citizens" apartment using taxpayers' money, is no solution, because dispossessed home owners cannot pay exorbitant rents charged and based upon excessive costs of construction and bureaucratic red-tape.
6. Exiling property owners will decrease customers for local merchants and establishing new business, if any, will decrease market for present merchants.
7. Present plans may imperil Kellogg Park and City's use thereof.
8. Said proposed project violates the Constitution of the United States and Michigan, statutes of Michigan and the Charter of the City of Plymouth.

Wherefore petitioners pray that your Honorable Body, Commission of City of Plymouth, Michigan, adopt a resolution rejecting said renewal project and terminating all planning contracts related thereto.

The petitioners were ordered received and filed.

The Mayor advised that the Commission was desirous of knowing who had employed the Court Reporter, and was informed by Mr. Deyo that the parties opposing the project were responsible, naming as two parties, Mr. A. K. Brocklehurst and Mr. Edward Van Loo.

Mr. Cal Strom, President of the Jr. Chamber of Commerce, stated that he was of the opinion that the proposed Urban Renewal Central Business District study of the S.E. quadrant was to include the proposed mall, one-way traffic pattern and a peripheral drive. Comm. Vallier inquired of Mr. Ralph Lorenz as to whether or not he agreed with the Chamber of Commerce recommendations. Mr. Lorenz stated that the recommendations did not affect his project, and had no bearing on his proposed use.

Edward Van Loo spoke opposing the proposed project and stated that the people in the area do not want to move, that they do not want charity and that they do not want urban renewal.

Mr. Cal Strom presented the following statement and resolution from the Jr. Chamber of Commerce:

"We resolve that the Plymouth City Commission act on the proposed urban renewal study at the earliest possible date, that they accept the overall CBD Plan as proposed and set up a timetable for development of the Plymouth Community CBD. We feel that any further delay will only retard the growth and development of Plymouth. The Plymouth Jaycees"

Mr. Huston Prall, 560 Kellogg, inquired as to what plans are being made for condemning business properties within the CBD, and was advised that this is a function to be undertaken by code enforcement. He also inquired as to the procedure for vacating a street and was referred to the City Clerk for the information.

Mr. Vallier inquired as to what the term "blighted" meant and Jay Eldridge stated that in an urban renewal project the word is not used in the strictest sense but is used in conjunction with environmental conditions.

Mrs. Marilyn Gulick, 741 Beech Court, advised that the homes in the area are for the greatest part in better condition now than any time in recent years.

Howard Marburger, 586 Harding, commented on the blighted business district on Penniman Avenue.

Mr. A. K. Brocklehurst, 657 Wing Street, advised that the people in the proposed urban renewal project had formed an organization called "SPUR", the Society for the Prevention of Urban Renewal, and stated that the Commission should never underestimate the voice of the people, as witnessed by the number of signatures on the petitions presented.

Comm. Vallier requested that a show of hands be taken of those who are in favor of the proposed urban renewal project, and that the minutes show that not one hand was shown.

The Mayor then requested a show of hands of all of the home owners in the area.

Mrs. Margaret Carley, 561 Deer Street inquired as to why the property owners were allowed to improve their homes, if the city was considering urban renewal. City Manager Blodgett advised that inasmuch as it had not been determined to proceed with the project, the city had no authority to refuse granting permits. Mrs. Carley also inquired as to when a vote on proceeding with the project will be taken and Comm. Vallier advised that he would attempt to get a vote at this meeting.

Mr. Tom Berry, 619 Maple Street, inquired as to who determined that an urban renewal project was necessary and Jay Eldridge answered by stating that the Planning Commission and City Commission requested his firm to make a study, and based upon the study, both Commissions had determined to proceed with the Survey and Planning Application.

Mrs. Evelyn Brocklehurst, 657 Wing Street, stated that she thought that just the businessmen would benefit from downtown improvements. Comm. Lawton advised that such improvements benefit the entire community by providing a better tax base and help to keep taxes down.

Mr. Van Loo inquired as to why a railroad underpass is not given first consideration rather than urban renewal. Comm. Vallier advised that an underpass has been considered, but money is the problem, inasmuch as the railroad is not compelled to share in the project to any great extent and that the city would have to bear the cost of any such major undertaking.

Others who spoke against the project and requesting a decision be made were Mrs. Maxine King, Mr. Ray Carley, Mr. Harold Prieststaff, Mrs. Betty Venard, Mrs. Van Loo, Mr. Clifford Tait, Mr. Roy Jacobsen and Mr. Jerry Yohey, who inquired relative to the government's participation in the project and stated that he understood the $100,000 was for planning.

Mr. Harland Hickerson suggested that others contact Congressman Vivian urging help with regard to a railroad underpass.

After all interested parties had been given an opportunity to be heard, the Mayor declared the hearing closed at 9:45 p.m.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Smith that the City Commission no longer consider the S. E. quadrant Urban Renewal Plan and that it proceed with further studies of the Central Business District Plan. Carried unanimously.

Comm. Lawton stated that although he was in favor of no longer considering the proposed urban renewal plan being discussed, in the United States it is no longer easy to proceed without federal funds, and because the city is rejecting the urban renewal project in the S.E. quadrant does not mean that the problem is not still there, the problem of protecting the downtown business district, and requested that his statement be recorded in the minutes.

Comm. Hudson was excused at 9:58 p.m. and the Mayor recessed the meeting at that time, reconvening it at 10:05 p.m.

The Mayor commended the Planning Commission, the Planning Consultant and the Chamber of Commerce for their efforts.

The City Manager advised that in order to close out the Mill Street Urban Renewal Project, an appropriation of $217.55 for the city's share for the Capital Grant is needed.

Moved by Comm. McKeon and supported by Comm. Jabara that the City Manager be authorized to transfer $217.55 from Unappropriated Reserve to the Urban Renewal Capital Grant account as the city's share. Carried unanimously.

The City Manager advised that a family in the Mill Street Urban Renewal Project is eligible for a Relocation Adjustment Payment, in the amount of $500,000, and in order to facilitate the closeout of the project, the city is requested to advance the money to the project, which will be reimbursed at the closeout of the project.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Smith that the City Manager be authorized to transfer $500,000, as a loan, from the Budget Contingency Fund to the Urban Renewal Relocation account. Carried unanimously.

Moved by Comm. Jabara and supported by Comm. Lawton that the Mayor and Clerk be authorized to enter into a contract with Johnson & Anderson, Inc. for engineering services in connection with relocating the Sheldon Road water main. Carried unanimously.

The City Manager presented a proposed agreement with the City of Northville for joint dispatching services on a trial basis during weekdays from 11 p.m. to 7 a.m. and weekends from 3 p.m. on Fridays to 7 a.m. on Monday, for a payment of $200 per month, installation costs of needed facilities to be borne by the city of Northville.

Moved by Comm. Lawton and supported by Comm. Jabara that the Mayor and Clerk be authorized to enter into a contract with the city of Northville, as outlined above, subject to approval by the City Attorney. Carried unanimously.

City Manager Blodgett advised that Mr. Hendry has agreed to install the necessary size main to the satisfaction of his engineer and the State Fire Marshall, and recommended that the City Commission consider the possibility of looping the water main up Haggerty Highway to Plymouth Road.

Moved by Comm. Smith and supported by Comm. Vallier that the meeting be adjourned. Carried unanimously.

Time of adjournment was 10:45 p.m.

James C. Houk - Mayor Eugene Slider - Clerk 6/22/66

The matter of a proposed Reciprocal Refrigeration Ordinance was discussed. Mr. Cameron Lodge, Mr. Donald Keith and Mr. Buck Rutenbar spoke in favor of adoption of the proposed ordinance.

The Mayor declared the meeting recessed at 9:15 p.m. and reconvened the meeting at 9:18 p.m.

The Clerk presented the proposed Reciprocal Refrigeration Ordinance and read it by title only.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Jabara that the proposed Refrigeration Ordinance be passed its first reading, by title only. Carried unanimously.

The City Manager orally reported that the building permit for the proposed Hendry nursing home had been held up because of the question of the availability of an adequate water supply for fire protection, and stated that an 8" main should be installed to service the property, and possibly install an 8" main loop from Industrial Drive to Haggerty Road to Plymouth Road. He stated that the recommendation of the Main Inspection Bureau was that no less than an 8" main be installed.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Jabara that the State Fire Marshal be requested to investigate the matter and report to the City and Mr. Hendry the minimum requirements necessary from the city main to the property, and that Mr. Hendry be allowed to proceed with his building, based upon the Fire Marshal's opinion as to the size of the main.

Comm. Vallier requested that his motion be withdrawn, and since there were no objections, the Mayor declared the motion withdrawn.

Moved by Comm. Lawton and supported by Comm. Hudson that Comm. Jabara, City Manager Blodgett, Fire Chief Schoenneman and Building Inspector Thompson meet with Mr. Hendry to work out mutually satisfactory arrangements for supplying water to the nursing home, with a report to be made at the meeting of June 13, 1966, and that a conditional building permit be issued to Mr. Hendry.

YES: Comms. Hudson, Jabara, Lawton, McKeon, Vallier and Mayor Houk.

NO: Comm. Smith. Motion carried.

The City Manager advised that more study was needed as to the necessity of a Youth Advisory Commission, and the matter was postponed to a later date.

Mr. Milton Redick of Johnson & Anderson presented a preliminary plan with regard to the proposed relocation of the Sheldon Road 16" water main. Comm. Vallier volunteered to contact the Wayne County Road Commission with regard to the possibility of revising its plans to accommodate the City's water main.

The City Manager orally reported on the status of the 1966 street improvement program and the status of the 6-year capital improvement program.

The City Manager orally reported the problems being encountered with regard to rubbish and garbage pickup in the city.

Acting Urban Renewal Director Fisher advised that upon completion of the final audit, it has been determined that the Mill Street Urban Renewal Project Mich. R-30, is in need of additional funds to complete the project, and a Revised Application for Loan and Grant has been prepared, for an increase of $806.00.

City of Plymouth Minutes

17 and 18, 1966. The City Manager advised that he had given permission to sell tickets on June 4, 1966.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Lawton that the Girl Guards of the Salvation Army be allowed to sell tickets on June 17 and 18, 1966. Carried unanimously.

The City Manager presented a communication from Boy Scout Troop 1553 requesting permission to sell First Aid Kits on June 11 and 18, 1966.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Jabara that Troop 1553 be allowed to sell First Aid Kits on the streets on June 11 and 18, 1966. Carried unanimously.

The Clerk presented a communication from Robert A. Reid and Carl A. Peterson advising they would be agreeable to enter into a lease, similar to those now in existence, for temporary use of Lots 172 and 173, Plat No. 7 for public parking, effective July 1, 1966.

Moved by Comm. Lawton and supported by Comm. Vallier that the communication be received and the matter be referred to the Parking Committee to work with the City Manager and City Attorney to draft an agreement for use of the above described property for public parking. Carried unanimously.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Wayne County Department of Health advising that a modification to Article II, Section 2.3, of the Air Pollution Control Regulation is proposed to be modified by expanding the Appeals Board from seven to nine members. The communication was ordered accepted and filed.

Mr. Earl Demel appeared, along with Mr. John Florence, owner of Mayflower Cab Company, to be heard relative to charges made at the meeting of May 16, 1966. Mr. Demel stated that according to Mr. Florence, the Checker cab drivers do not meet the qualifications set up in the ordinance, that Checker Cab is only equipped to operate in the day time, while Mr. Florence is on a 24 hour basis, that a Mr. Young was turned down for a period of 2-3 weeks, pending a check on fingerprints, that Checker Cab meters are set for Livonia rates and not Plymouth rates and that Checker cabs, which do not qualify under the ordinance, are operating in the city.

Mr. Vallier requested that answers be given concerning the charges made by Mr. Demel on May 17, 1966 that the Mayflower Cab drivers were being coerced by the police department and that the police department made forced entries into homes to retrieve taxi cab drivers licenses from the drivers. Upon questioning Mr. Florence, he stated that his drivers were not being coerced by the police department and that upon gaining entrance into the homes of the drivers by invitation of the drivers, the licenses were surrendered.

It was the consensus of the commission that the charges were non-existent and that the complaints made be referred to the City Manager for a report back to the City Commission.

The City Manager presented the records of inspections made of the taxi cabs operating in the City. The records were ordered received and filed.

The City Manager presented a proposed Personnel Ordinance draft. The proposed ordinance was accepted for study.

The City Manager reported that Wheel Truening Tool Company would prefer not to locate in Plymouth and would like to negotiate an amendment to its agreement with the city whereby its land could be sold and a cash payment made to the city for public improvements and loss of taxes, however, no decision has been reached.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Hudson that the City Manager, City Attorney and Harold Fischer and the full commission meet to determine the policy for negotiating with Wheel Truening.

Comm. Vallier requested that his motion be withdrawn, and since there were no objections, the Mayor declared the motion withdrawn.

Moved by Comm. Vallier and supported by Comm. Hudson that the City Attorney advise the Commission where it legally stands with regard to the Agreement with Wheel Truening before negotiating any further agreement. Carried unanimously.

Mr. Harold Fischer informed the Commission that releases had been obtained from Campbell Construction Company, representing R.C.A., the Parker-Hennfin Co. and Wheel Truening Tool Company for changing the set back line on Plymouth Road to the Industrial Park to 45 feet.

Moved by Comm. Lawton and supported by Comm. McKeon that the Mayor and Clerk be authorized to enter into an agreement with the above companies changing the set back to 45 feet on Plymouth Road, contingent on the City Attorney's opinion that said set back will not weaken the city's position with regard to the negotiations on the Wheel Truening Tool Company property.

YES: Comms. Hudson, Jabara, Lawton, McKeon, Vallier and Mayor Houk.
NO: Comm. Smith. Motion carried.

Time of adjournment was 11:38 p.m.

URGES CHANGE IN SPACE EFFORT

Vivian's poll shows voters confused on Viet Nam

Only 60 per cent of the voters in the U.S. Second Congressional District approve of the current Viet Nam Policy - but most of them are confused as to what it is.

This was the conclusion of a district wide study conducted recently by U.S. Congressman Weston E. Vivian, who represents Livingston, Washtenaw, Lenawee, Monroe counties and Plymouth, and Plymouth Township, and Northville Township.

Vivian, an Ann Arbor Democrat, unseated a seven term Republican George Meader - in the 1964 elections.

The survey was conducted by mail with printed forms not compiled at governmental expense. New postal privilege's for Congressmen make this possible.

The results showed 60 per cent answered yes to the question "Do you generally approve of the policy of the United States has followed up until now in Viet Nam?"

In detailed questions on the war (Part B), 41 per cent agreed the United States should continue its present level of military activity while searching for an acceptable military solution. Nine per cent called for an end to the North Viet Nam bombing. EXACTLY 35 per cent felt a total military victory should be sought, and that the level of attack to the North should be increased.

Only 15 felt a military withdrawal was the answer.

In the area of Viet Nam peace solutions, 69 per cent felt free election in South Viet Nam should be held and supervised internationally.

A scant six percent suggested allowing the Communist Party a minority role in the government. And 19 percent favored excluding the Viet Cong from any future south Viet Nam government. Vivian's comments on the results: "The complexity of the situation in Viet Nam is clearly related in these results, I believe. Some 60 per cent of the respondents say that they generally approve of the present U.S. policy in Viet Nam, while only 40 per cent checked this course in part B. Thus I must assume that there was a good deal of confusion as to what the current policy was," Vivian noted.

Weston E. Vivian

"With regard to the question of free elections, you may be interested to know that I made a speech in the House of Representatives on April 15, in which I stressed the urgency of holding free national elections in South Viet Nam at the earliest possible date, and restated the importance of having our government make clear that we will abide by the results of any fair election," Vivian said.

"I personally prefer that elections be held under international supervision - under the auspices of the United Nations," Vivian said in his report on the opinion poll.

In the district, 71 per cent said they favored 'right-to-work' laws. However, only 54 per cent agreed that if a company and a union negotiate a contract in which they voluntarily agree that all employees represented by the union in the plant should become members of the union, state laws should be allowed to prohibit this agreement.

Vivian notes that had all understood his question, the same number would have answered yes to both questions.

"I have long sensed that a great many voters who support or object to many a proposed law do so in part because a catchy label has become attached to that law. The label 'right-to-work' is a classic example.

VIVIAN notes that he opposes the laws, which "have nothing to do with anyone's right to work". On the War on Poverty and economic opportunity, Vivian reported 54 per cent felt the levels should remain the same or more. A few, 17 per cent, suggested abolishing the program.

"In addition, many persons noted on their questionnaire that they were concerned about the day to day administration of their program. I share their concern, and have urged that a good deal more attention needs to be paid to the screening of proposed projects, and to tighten supervision of their operation," Vivian said.

"Fortunately, the youth job training and school programs appear to have proceeded quite well; these ought to be continued without delay. But stronger local community interest and involvement is required before the more complex programs can succeed. The Congress will, I anticipate, cut back on funds until the quality of these programs can increase significantly, as more experience is gained in them," Vivian concluded.

Over three-fourths of those answering favored an end to the current farm program either now, or soon.

"From personal observation, Vivian said, "I can say that immediate cancellation of the crop supports would lead to economic disaster in many farm areas; some scheduled reduction of Federal participation is needed. Unfortunately, few, if any, respossible courses of action have been developed," Vivian commented.

A HUGE number, 88 per cent, agreed with the Food-For-Peace program.

Vivian noted that a world wide program to bring the population explosion under control was desparately needed, in conjunction with the United States, involvement in world food problems.

On space programs, Vivian noted that about half his District favors a cut back in space programs (40 per cent).

"The fact that almost half of those responding favor decreasing the amounts spent on space exploration is most significant. As a Member of the House Science and Astronautics Committee, which supervises the work of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, I have emphasized, again and again, that there must be more meaning and content to our space efforts than simply a race for prestige," Vivian said.

"In my opinion, the potential benefits of the expensive, highly-publicized manned space programs have been vastly overemphasized, when compared to the benefits which we can expect from the less popular, less expensive, and more objective scientific program."

"I have also emphasized, in meetings of the Science and Astronautics Committee, the need for this nation to take more aggressive steps to encourage joint funding of major international space exploration efforts," Vivian said.

"In this decade, the United States and the Soviet Union will each spend $30 billion, to place men on the moon. Presumably, if we had found means to cooperate with the Russians in this effort, (such as through the United Nations,) we would jointly have had tens of billions of dollars left over to speed research on the killer diseases of the world; support the United Nations peacekeeping efforts; or support any of a number of other worthwhile projects," he added.

"WHILE BOTH nations can afford to continue this kind of duplicate expenditure, we do so only at great cost to other, often more important, human needs," Vivian said.

When asked to rank issues in order of importance, District voters listed them in this order:

- Domestic: (1) Education, (2) inflation, (3) water pollution control, (4) balancing the budget, (5) civil rights (6) poverty.

- International issues: (1) Strengthening the U.N., (2) communist subversion, (3) assisting developing nations, (4) arms control and disarmament, (5) balance of payments deficit, (6) increase U. S. military strength.

FORD DIVISION of Ford Motor Company, celebrating May sales leadership nationally, took time to congratulate Detroit District dealers who helped in the success. Leo Calhoun of Leo Calhoun Ford, Inc., in Plymouth, right, received the Division's Distinguished Achievement and Gold Car and Truck Awards for helping the District achieve top positions for 1965 among all sales districts. W. P. Benton (left) manager of one pacesetter district, presented the awards. The Ford Division, which has been edging closer to a national lead in sales, achieved No. 1 rank during May for the first time in several years.

Bill Saxton heads local Independent Business group

Announcement for the appointment of William E. Saxton of Saxton's Garden Center, 587 W. Ann Arbor Trail as chairman of the National Federation of Independent Business was made today by Henry Lipson, District Manager of the Federation in this area.

Each business and professional member of this organization maintains a voting membership, and is polled by ballots regularly throughout the year, on bills and issues which affect independent business at national and state levels.

To maintain the American way of life and our competitive enterprise system, the businessmen express their opinions on the ballots each month, and give them to William E. Saxton, who tabulates the votes. He receives no pay for the job.

These tabulations are sent, with the signed ballots, directly to U.S. Congressman Weston E. Vivian at Washington, D.C., and State Senator Farrell Roberts. These ballots are one method by which independent business and professional people can keep in organized, direct personal contact with their national and state legislators.

The National Federation of Independent Business is a non-profit organization, with the largest individual membership of any business organization in the United States, in which independent business and professional people participate with voting memberships, regardless of other civic or trade affiliations.

Hams plan field day at Eatons

Amateur Radio operators all over the United States and Canada will be out with their field stations next week preparing to show what they can do if forced to operate under emergency conditions.

This is known as Field Day 1966, and it will be held Saturday, June 25th and Sunday the 26th for a 24 hour period.

Locally the Stu Rockafellow Amateur Radio Society composed of Radio Amateurs in Plymouth, Livonia and surrounding communities will be at the Eaton Farm, one mile west of Plymouth on Territorial Road.

Activities setting up antennas and stations will start early Saturday to be ready for operation at 4 o'clock. The stations will be on the air around the clock to 4 o'clock Sunday night. Awards for the club that contacts the most stations are at stake.

People interested in this are invited to drop in and watch the operators as it is expected that contacts will be made to all parts of the world, according to Robert Baxter.

gressional District, Zolton Ferency; Democratic candidate for Governor of Michigan.

The two Michigan political leaders debated for almost an hour on the subject of "Which political party has done the most for the people of the state of Michigan."

The debate between Rep. Esch and Ferency was part of the annual Wolverine Girls State Program, designed to stimulate an interest in and a concern for good government in the state. It was sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary.

During his debate period, Rep. Esch, R-Ann Arbor, hit Ferency with what he called the "failures of the Democratic administrations in the state of Michigan."

It was brought out during the debate that Gov. G. Mennen Williams has repeatedly blamed his failures on Republican legislatures.

"Such an argument is absurd," Rep. Esch countered. "for progress is a function of wise and capable leadership."

He said that it was one thing to be able to "call a square dance," and quite another to administer a rich and powerful state.

"It took the skill of a brilliant Republican governor working with a number of energetic Republican legislators to bring Michigan back from the brink of bankruptcy to which it had been driven previous to his administration," Rep. Esch said.

Rep. Esch said that Gov. Romney succeeded in his rehabilitation of the state working with both Republican and Democratic legislatures, proving that leadership, not the mere composition of a legislature, can ultimately yield progress.

"One need only look at the years 1963 and 1964 to see that the greatest advance in Michigan's history came under a Republican administration and a republican legislature," Rep. Esch said.

Will the strike at Edison affect your electric service?

Local 223, Utility Workers Union of America, AFL-CIO, representing about 3000 of Detroit Edison's 9500 employees, called a strike at midnight, June 15.

Local 223 is chiefly composed of operators of power plants and substations, underground linemen, and construction and maintenance personnel.

As in the case of Local 17, International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, AFL-CIO, which is already on strike, the issue is money.

The present average pay of Local 223 members is $3.46 an hour. Benefits are additional. Edison has offered the union a two-year contract—21.4 cents an hour more in cash and benefits in 1966 and 17.2 cents more in cash and benefits in 1967. The offer amounts to a 10.9 per cent raise in cash and benefits by June 1967. According to Edison's understanding, the union leaders want a 12.5 per cent increase.

Edison has always treated employees fairly. Pay and benefits are higher than those provided by most other major employers in the area. The company is widely known as a good place to work.

On any basis of comparison, the present offer is a good one.

Although about one third of our employees are on strike, Edison intends to maintain near-normal customer service with the help of supervisors and other employees. Unless a severe storm causes an emergency, it is unlikely that the two walkouts will affect users of electricity.

Wendell Smith takes part in JayCee grid classic plans

Wendell Smith, State JayCee president from Plymouth, looked on last week as Governor George Romney proclaimed August 11 as "JayCee Football Classic Day" in the state of Michigan.

Speaking at the ceremony in Lansing, Governor Romney stated that "the Michigan JayCees are one of the strongest forces in Michigan's army of voluntary civic organizations. Their efforts have contributed significantly toward our total Michigan growth and progress. And with the establishment of the Michigan JayCee Foundation, Governor Romney continued, JayCees have again demonstrated their genuine concern for the further strengthening of a vibrant and prosperous state through building healthy, wholesome and progressive communities."

Receiving the ceremonial "kick-off" from the governor was Detroit Lions star Tom Watkins, the

The Plymouth Community YMCA wishes to thank all those who participated in the Senior Class graduation party at the Ann Arbor YMCA immediately following the commencement exercises. The efforts of the parents who donated time and money to make the party a huge success is greatly appreciated and many phone calls have been received at the Y office expressing the fun and good time enjoyed by all.

The party started at 11 p.m. and lasted until 3 a.m. The building was decorated in a gay commencement theme with balloons and graduate silhouettes adding to the decor. A clever idea was carried out in the lounge where a projector showed a series of changing slides that had been taken of the seniors at different events recently. The seniors were surprised to find themselves in the baccalaureate procession, senior prom poses, band camp, and many other candid shots.

Gary W. Matycich, Pvt. Gary W. Matycich, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanly Matycich, 383 Irvin St., completed advanced artillery training at the Army Artillery and Missile School, Fort Sill, Okla., June 16. He was trained as a cannoneer in field artillery.

Daniel Olson, Seaman Recruit Daniel B. Olson, 19, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Firnie B. Olson of 545 Harvey St., has completed seven weeks of Navy basic training at the Naval Training Center here.

In the first weeks of his naval service he studied military subjects and lived and worked under conditions similar to those he will encounter on his first ship or at his first shore station. In making the transition from civilian to sailor, he was taught and supervised by experienced Navy petty officers. He learned the basic skills of seamanship, as well as survival techniques, military drill and other basic subjects.

Upon completion of his recruit training, he was assigned to a school, shore station or ship, according to the results of his Navy classification tests, his own desires, and the needs of the Navy.

PCF nurse made 682 calls in '65

One of the many activities supported by the Plymouth Community Fund is the visiting Nurse Association of Metropolitan Detroit. Founded in 1901, this Association serves Wayne County as well as sections of Oakland and Macomb.

In 1965, the Visiting Nurse Association made 682 visits to Plymouth residents at a cost of $5,885.66. Where possible, those visited pay all or a portion of the charge for each visit. The balance is made up by the Plymouth Community Fund. In 1965, this contribution by the Community Fund amounted to $5000.

Visiting nurses provide many services for those who, for one reason or another, are unable to obtain such services elsewhere. Nursing, physical therapy, occupational therapy, nutritional guidance and diet therapy are some of the services provided by this organization.

Many people in the Plymouth area would be unable to obtain these services were it not for the Visiting Nurse Association.

And, the activities of the Association would have to be curtailed were it not for the support given it by the Plymouth Community Fund, according to PCF officials.

Tennis tourney opens Thursday; expect 150 entrants from State

TENNIS TOURNEY: Going over plans for the tennis tournament, sponsored by the Plymouth JayCees, are Howard Oldford, left and Jim Stevens, who will act as tourney director.

Plymouth will be the battle ground for the Michigan State JayCee tennis Tournament June 23-26 as champions from matches held in every city throughout the state vie for the State title.

Sanctioned by the United States Lawn Tennis Association, the JayCee Tournament will host 150 players, including the state's top seeded performers.

Contestants will compete in age divisions of 18 and under, and 16 and under.

Plymouth JayCee Howard Oldford, state JC tennis director, and local tennis coach Jim Stevens, also a JC, will direct the tournament.

Registration will start at 9 a.m. Thursday, June 23. Finals will be held Saturday, June 25.

All eight participants in the finals will be flown to Tampa, Florida, to participate in the Florida National Tournament. The expense-paid trip is made possible by the Plymouth JayCees.

This is the second year Plymouth is the host city for the tournament. The JayCees secured the state finals last year. The program for Thursday includes registration, orientation from Stevens, first and second round matches, a free-swim at the PHS pool, and a banquet hosted by the Elks Club. A program of Davis Cup movies and door prizes is planned at the Banquet.

Later Thursday night, all participants will have a chance to attend a teen dance at Plymouth High School, with W.K.N.R. disc jockey Ted Clark as M.C. and live bands present.

Friday, June 24, third and fourth round matches will be held, with a free movie at the Penn Theatre being offered.

Saturday, semi finals will be played. Sunday is set aside for final matches, if necessary.

Seven boys from Plymouth are entered as of Monday: Robin Wideman, Steve Hulce, Steve Mogle, Robie Clum, George Jackson, Jim Wibby, Larry Wasalaski.

Jon Hainline of Detroit Austin, Rick Weir of Ann Arbor, Mark Conti of Detroit, Jim Pritula, of Detroit, are seeded in the tournament.

Matches will be played at the PHS courts, with the Riverside Park courts in Hines Park, as well as the Cass Benton Courts also being set aside for the tournament.

Stevens, who will direct the tournament, has several years of tennis experience, both as a player and coach. He has kept Plymouth High School teams in the running year after year, mostly through the efforts of a junior tennis program, which he works on virtually year-round.

As tennis pro for the Ann Arbor Tennis Club he began a tournament which then had over 100 entries, and in the past three years has directed several tournaments in the Plymouth area.

Jr. football has summer plans

Plymouth Junior Football for 100 boys in the nine to 12 year old category will become a reality this fall.

The first registration on June 4 drew 66 boys, with letters of intention received from a number of others.

There will be much activity soon on behalf of the new League. A group of junior footballers and a handful of cheerleaders will march in the July 4 parade. A board meeting has been set for July 6 at the Credit Union building. Saturday, July 9 has been tentatively set for additional registration.

Bud Young, president of the League, and George Hunter, football unit director, urged those who are interested to register at that time.

There will be three teams, established on the basis of weight (65-100 lbs) and age - freshman (nine to ten years old), junior varsity (mostly ten to 11 year olds) and varsity (mostly 11-12 year olds). Boys must be nine on or before September 1, but not more than 12 on Sept. 1.

August 20 is the tentative date for final registration, where each youngster, who must be accompanied by an adult, will pay his fee, and obtain uniforms.

In conjunction with the registration, a family night will be held to discuss and outline the entire junior football program. The three teams will compete on Sunday afternoons throughout the fall with other units from Livonia, Farmington and Garden City.

Additional information or registration forms can be obtained by calling Hunter at 453-2395, or Young at 453-6687.

Only two games in 'E' and 'F' league play

Only two games were played last week in Class 'F' recreation baseball. Games in 'E' league were rained out.

DiPonio Builders lost to University Litho, 14-3 and Bill's Market trimmed the JayCees, 11-0.

Hear It Now

The San Francisco attorney eloquently pleaded with the Board of Permit Appeals to restore the liquor license of a billiard parlor operated by two elderly brothers, whom he said were deaf.

The board, apparently swayed by the persuasive plea of the lawyer, unanimously granted the request of the brothers, who had stood mute during the hearing.

"But," added chairman James Harvey, "if you ever come back here, you're out of luck. Understand?" "Yes, sir," the "deaf" brothers replied. The board members chuckled and granted the request anyway.

BEFORE ROTARY

Gilmer says Lions will go with Plum

Coach Harry Gilmer told members of the Plymouth Rotary Club that his plans for the 1966 season call for Milt Plum to be starting quarterback despite the criticism directed at the star passer last year by the grand stand critics. "It may surprise you that my plans call to use Plum," said Gilmer, "But as of right now he's the No. 1 quarterback and passer and he'll remain that until someone comes along that is better."

Gilmer said the coaching staff plans on taking a good look at Carl Swetana, who was farmed out to the Pontiac Chiefs in the semi-pro league last year and now appears ready for the National Football League, and Tom Myers, the passing sensation of Northwestern University for three years.

"Swetana is a big, tall youngster who weighs well over 200," said Gilmer, "Myers is under 6 foot and only weighs around 185 pounds. Each is an excellent thrower but the year with the semi-pro appears to have given Swetana the seasoning he needed. You can be assured that we'll take a long hard look at both when training opens in three weeks."

Getting back to the Plum situation, Gilmer pointed out that quite a bit of the criticism for last year's failure of the offense should have been directed at the receivers rather than the passers.

"Just to back up this statement, I'd like to point out that we lost three games in a row," he stated, "During which time our receivers dropped 13 passes. How can the blame go to the thrower when the ball is right there and the receivers can't hold on to it." Gilmer said he has added Sammy Baugh, his roommate and teacher while both were members of the Washington Redskins and when Baugh was rated the greatest passer in pro football, to his staff, principally to work with the quarterbacks.

"This year when criticism is directed at the passer, it will be a question of not knocking one but two," he smiled. "Baugh has been told to practically become a part of Plum and thus you can't rap Plum without rapping Sam." Gilmer said he was satisfied with the Lion's defense which he rates as the best in the league.

"One of the biggest problems we face," he said, "is that of pulling the team together. We can't have an offensive team and a defensive team going separate ways, we have to have a Detroit Lions team and that's what I'm aiming to accomplish."

"We can't have a team that is divided, it must be a team with all individuals working together for a common cause. We already have a city divided, fans divided and the press divided, we can solve all of those problems with a team that is the Detroit Lions, not a defensive team or an offensive team - we're going to do it."

Taxes of self-employed

—Weston E. Vivian

The 89th Congress will probably be remembered in the history books as the "Education Congress". This Congress has worked to assure that our unique system of universal education continues to equip our young people to meet the challenges of the decades ahead.

The 89th Congress also enacted Medicare and new laws in a number of other areas, to meet pressing needs. The Economic Development Act and the Water Quality Act come immediately to mind.

Last week I was pleased that the House of Representatives passed a bill which will be of substantial help to the self-employed - the small businessmen, the farmers, insurance men, accountants, doctors and lawyers. H. R. 10 will enable the self-employed to better plan and prepare for their retirement years.

THE SELF-EMPLOYED have long been denied much of the favorable tax treatment accorded employees, corporate officers, and managers. H. R. 10, when signed into law, will do a great deal to rectify some of the inequities in our Federal Income Tax treatment of the self-employed.

In 1962 Congress passed the Self-Employed Individuals Tax Retirement Act. This law attempted to give self-employed persons near-parity of tax treatment on retirement programs. For many years, employers had been allowed a full income tax deduction on contributions made to employees' retirement funds; but the self-employed individual was not allowed a tax deduction for contributions to his own retirement fund.

When Congress passed the Self-Employed Individuals Tax Retirement Act, it was hoped the Act would stimulate the creation of retirement funds by the self-employed. But this has not proved to be the case. In 1964, for example, only about one-half of one percent of the self-employed took advantage of the provisions of the Act.

Under the Act of 1962, each employer can create a retirement plan for his employees and himself. However, while the contributions he makes to his employees' retirement benefits are 100% deductible, his contributions toward his own retirement are only 50% deductible. H. R. 10 will remove this limitation, making the contribution of the self-employed fully deductible, up to 10% of the income he earns, or a maximum of $2,500.

In plain terms, this means that, for example, a self-employed individual who earns $9,000 this year will be able to put $900 aside for his retirement; and he will be allowed a $900 deduction from his gross income, rather than a $450 deduction as in years past.

H. R. 10 will also eliminate a glaring discrimination against the self-employed farmer and small businessman. Under the present law, self-employed persons whose income derives from both capital and labor are at a great disadvantage: They may count only 30% of their total income under the retirement law.

For example, family farmers earn their income both from their hard work and as a return on their investment in land, equipment, seed, fertilizer, and livestock.

Presently, if a self-employed family farmer earns $9,000, he may consider only $2,700 of his income in figuring his deduction for retirement contributions. This means that on a cash income of $9,000, under present law the farmer is allowed a maximum deduction of $150, although he may be putting aside much more toward his retirement. Under the provisions of H. R. 10, the same farmer, or small businessman, will be eligible for a full 10% deduction of his earned income; a $900 deduction in this case.

As a businessman who worked to build a company and, at the same time, to save for the education of my four children and to put aside some money for my retirement, I know how difficult it can be to achieve these goals. I firmly believe that it should be the policy of the Federal government to encourage small employers and professional people to set aside retirement funds for themselves as well as their employees. The 1962 Act has not succeeded. I believe H. R. 10 will remove the limitations that prevented its success.

Safest POWER MOWER MADE!

BOLENS ORBIT-AIR

Blade is fully enclosed; no danger of objects being picked up and hurled. Protective hood rides close to the ground and overlaps blade by 4 inches front and rear. No grass catcher needed. Exclusive aerodynamic cutting reduces grass to tiny particles; blows them to the grass roots forming a moisture-retaining mulch. Ends leaf raking. Two models: Power-propelled and push type.

BOLENS - First in powered equipment since 1918

Tips from the STOP & SHOP CHEF Questions & Answers

How can one determine whether an egg is extra large, large, medium, or small? When just "eggs" are designated in a recipe, which size should be used?

To determine the size of an egg, weigh it. Large eggs are considered to weigh two ounces each, or, as is most frequently indicated (especially in areas where eggs are sold by weight) one and a half pounds per dozen. A dozen extra-large eggs weighs just under one and three-quarters pounds—to be exact, one pound eleven ounces. Medium-sized eggs weigh in at one pound five ounces to the dozen, and small eggs one pound two ounces. Unless otherwise indicated in a recipe, use the large or two-ounce eggs.
