

Falsies, tight pants to exit Jr. Highs with new system

You needn't be haunted by the incongruous specter of seventh grade girls wearing lipstick and falsies and nagging for sexy clothes, if new school facilities are built fast enough to adopt a plan endorsed by the Plymouth School District Board of Education Monday evening.

Board members placed their stamp of approval on a 5-3-4 school organization in The Plymouth Community, a move that was recommended by the Citizens Facility Study Committee.

In the first phase of its report, released in April of this year, the study committee recommended that the school district move toward such a plan.

Under it, elementary schools would house grades kindergarten through five, junior highs would include grades six, seven and eight, and senior high would go from ninth grade through 12.

The board formally adopted the plan at their regular monthly meeting so they could advise school architects to draw future blueprints for school buildings accordingly.

The move responds not only to citizens committee recommendations. It also reflects criticism from within and without the school system about the pressures that Plymouth's Junior High School East has placed upon younger students in recent years.

With seventh, eighth and ninth grade students housed in the same building, many persons argued that early maturity was forced upon young students, largely unprepared for it.

Critics pointed to ludicrous caricatures of little girl and boyhood, wearing tight sweaters and tight pants, submerged beneath goeey accumulations of makeup and hair stickum — and trying as hard as they could to imitate the older, more advanced ninth graders.

Some have even noted instances of apparent sexual experimentation between Junior High School East students.

The problem has not been confined to Plymouth and discussion of it has gone on at national educational levels. Chairman of the school board's curriculum planning subcommittee, R. Bruce Scott, alluded to this in a prepared statement released at the meeting. The statement commented:

"The junior high school, now a well established institution in hundreds of school districts across the country, has come under much criticism in recent years, particularly for its tendency to imitate the senior high school program, thereby complicating rather than ameliorating the problems of adolescents making the change from elementary to high school.

"As might be expected with a subject as complex as school organization, the opinions of competent educators cover a wide spectrum. Many school districts are deeply committed to the 7-8-9 junior high, and do not feel that a change to the 6-7-8 intermediate school with 9-12 high school is either feasible or desirable.

"Nevertheless, there is a discernible trend in the direction of the intermediate school. New York and Pittsburgh are two among many school systems now making the change.

"Aside from the natural reaction to past excesses in junior high school programs, there are good, if not compelling, reasons for the change to intermediate school:

"(1) The earlier maturity of children gives the ninth grader closer physiological and emotional identity with high school students. In the other direction there is so much difference between ninth and seventh graders that some educators question the wisdom of housing them in the same school.

"(2) Ninth grade curriculum is more closely allied to that of high school than to that of the seventh and eighth grades. This being true, ninth grade courses for high school credit can be taught more efficiently in high school by high school teachers. An incidental saving can be realized in the avoidance of certain duplicated facilities, such as laboratory equipment.

"(3) Sixth graders, having spent six years in a neighborhood elementary school, are ready for the change to a larger school where they begin to enlarge their horizons and start the process of transition to the departmentalized curriculum of high school.

"(4) Sixth and ninth graders alike, far from being pushed prematurely into inimical surroundings, will find themselves challenged by a new and stimulating environment among children with similar interests and capabilities."

Construction of a proposed second high school in the Plymouth School District must be completed before the new school organization plan can be completely put into effect, according to Scott's statement.

Need legislation for joint police authority - Davids

If they follow the advice of State Police Commissioner Frederick Davids, five communities in this area may seek legislation to permit a joint police authority.

Davids told a gathering of Who's going to eat all the pancakes?

Saturday, September 10 is Kiwanis Club Fall Festival Pancake Day. The Kiwanians will be serving their delicious sausages and pancakes from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, located at the corner of Penniman and Union Streets. This has been an annual event since the inception of the Fall Festival.

The Kiwanians anticipate feeding 3,000 persons. That means baking 15,000 pancakes. Here is their grocery list for the day.

- 1,000 lbs. sausage
- 100 lbs. butter
- 100 lbs. coffee
- 650 lbs. flour
- 90 gallons. syrup
- 400 cartons milk

Assistance at this event will be furnished by the Kiwanis sponsored Plymouth High School Key-Club and the Schoolcraft College Circle-K Club. Accompanying the watering event will be the opportunity of gaining two sets of two box seat tickets to the University of Michigan - Purdue football game. The lucky winners will be selected in a drawing by Mayor of Plymouth, James Houk. Winners do not have to be present to win. The tickets will be mailed to them.

officials from the cities of Northville and Plymouth, and the townships of Plymouth, Canton and Northville, that the law is unclear in the area of authorities between cities and townships, and legislation should be sought.

The occasion was a third in a series of joint governmental meetings which began last spring with the Hillsdale conference.

"I've done some research on this matter, and wherever you turn there is the knotty problem of jurisdiction. I feel it would require an amendment to existing legislation to achieve a joint police authority," Davids said. The meeting was held at the Mayflower Hotel Friday night.

Expanded police service was one of the items high on a priority list established at the Hillsdale meeting.

Davids pointed to police arrangements in Nashville, Tenn.; Dade County, Fla. and in the metropolitan area of Los Angeles.

"Is there a way to start the wheels turning without additional backing? The road is not clear. Townships can join together, but the law does not cover cities," Davids said.

He further noted that in the area of communications and police training it was possible to join together. The City of Plymouth and the City of Northville are currently involved in a joint dispatch and communication system.

Captain John Brown, aide to Davids, was also present at the meeting and explained the law this way:

"Act 181,1951, provides for a township police department, even jointly with other town-

REUNITED after five years through the efforts of some Plymouth people were Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Dorado and their three sons, Frank, Jesse and Leon. The three were sent from Cuba by the Dorados when they learned Castro was sending young boys to Russia. The boys were sheltered at the St. Francis Home for Boys in Detroit. Sister Honora, S.S.J., director of social services at St. Francis, talks with the Dorados

Expelled from Cuba, pair reunited with 3 sons here

After having all but the clothes on their back seized by Castro's police, a Cuban couple last week were reunited with their three sons, partially through the efforts of some Plymouth people.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Dorado, will make their home here.

Their three sons have been staying at the St. Francis Home for Boys on Fenkell Ave. in Detroit for the past five years.

Sometime in 1961, they were sent here by the Dorados when they learned Castro was sending young boys to Russia.

Recently, police came to the Dorado home, seized all their valuables, took the key and kicked them out.

The details of their flight to America are still sketchy because their sons speak only English, having forgotten Spanish, and they speak only Spanish.

Helping them settle are Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelley of 898 Ross St., and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Degenhardt, of Li-von. The Kelleys had hosted Dorados son Francisco, or Frank on several occasions. Both families are members of the Our Lady of Good Counsel Church.

Among the details available, it was learned that the Dorados made it to Mexico City sometime last Christmas. The Kelleys worked through a U.S. Senator from N. Dakota that they knew, and were able to get the Dorados to Miami. Apparently, diplomatic relations allow flights to Mexico from Cuba.

They arrived here recently, and saw their three sons for the first time at the home in Detroit. The sons, Frank, 13, Jesse, 10 (Jesus) and Leon, 14 (Leonardo), were sponsored here by the Catholic charities. It was through them that the Kelleys met young Frank.

The Degenhardts found room for the Dorados until last week when they were able to rent a home in Plymouth.

Mr. Dorado was offered a job at Stahl Manufacturing Co. and was to begin Monday. Apparently, he had difficulty working in Cuba because he was not a Communist. His wife is trained as a nurse.

"We learned of this when Frank would come out here," Mrs. Kelley explained. "Leon also came on several occasions." Paula Koepke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russ Koepke, has acted as an interpreter part of the time. She is a student at the U of M, and speaks Spanish.

However, the language barrier has not been unsurmountable. Mrs. Kelley reported that shopping with Mrs. Dorado only those items that do not show the contents in pictures on the

VIVIAN HELPS

Marine bucks red tape to bring bride of 3 years home

After three years of bucking American red tape, career Army Sergeant Earl B. Miller of 41033 Greenbriar Ln. has been united with his Korean bride of 1963.

The Vietnam-bound soldier married Ik-Sun in 1963, but was unable to bring her home until two weeks ago when he and his father contacted U. S. Congressman Weston E. Vivian's Ann Arbor office.

Through Vivian's efforts, Ik-Sun Miller joined her husband here in Plymouth at the home of Earl Miller, Sgt. Miller's father.

Miller met his bride in a small Korean village - Tabogdung - in 1962. After they were married in 1963, Sgt. Miller began working through the American Embassy in Korea. For unexplainable reasons, the Embassy bogged down on his request.

On July 14 this year Miller after arriving home on leave, talked with Vivian's office. Vivian serves this area in the U.S. House of Representatives.

"They took down the information," Miller explained. "Then we got a call from his office in Washington on July 20."

The next thing the Army sergeant heard was on July 22. His wife was aboard an American Airlines jet and was to arrive at Metropolitan Field at 10:30, Sunday, July 23.

She wasn't on the flight, which arrived three hours late.

When they returned home to Plymouth early Monday morning, American Airlines had the phone ringing. They had located her, and she would arrive Monday.

This time she was on the flight, and there was a joyous reunion.

Sgt. Miller was on leave from Fort Carson, Colorado. He had left Korea last December, and has now been assigned to Vietnam.

Miller has been in the Army ten years, and will make a career of the service. He will be assigned to the First Infantry as a replacement. In past duty he has worked on communications and ammunition.

Miller expects his wife, who will stay with his parents here in Plymouth, will want to become a naturalized citizen.

During his last visit to Korea, Miller noted many improvements in the country.

including the use of cement instead of mud for housing, and new drainage systems. Miller's leave was for 24 days, and was up last weekend. Today he is probably somewhere in Vietnam.

His wife, a petite and pretty young woman, after spending two short weeks with her Army husband, must now settle down in a new country and wait for Miller to return. His next leave is a year away.

"I know I'll be back," he said.

UNITED after a three year wait are Sgt. Earl B. Miller, II, of Plymouth, and his Korean bride, Ik-Sun.

Hefty hikes in pay get board O.K.

Hefty pay increases for virtually all Plymouth School District employees were approved Monday evening at the regular monthly meeting of the Plymouth Community School District Board of Education.

The board ratified salary agreements with the Plymouth Education Association for teachers, the maintenance employees' union and with other employee groups.

Approval of pay increases for administrative positions was also granted.

The three key administrators, the superintendent of schools and two assistant superintendents, received increased ranging from $2,400 annually to $2,450.

Salary for the superintendent will now be $21,500 per year, an increase from $19,000. The assistant superintendent for business will receive $16,000, up from $13,650; and the assistant superintendent for secondary education will get $16,000, a raise from $13,550.

OTHER administrative salaries in the district were computed by a new system involving index factors time the maximum salary for an M.A. degree teacher.

The index factor for a given administrator is recommended to the board by the superintendent of schools. They range from .90 per cent of the teacher's salary for a beginning administrator to 1.50 for the senior high principal with a specialist to doctorate degree.

Positions covered under the new administrative salary schedule include all principals and assistant principals, director of library and the director of adult education and recreation.

Using the factors recommended by Superintendent Isbister, salaries reflecting from nine to more than 17 per cent increases over last year were approved.

They range from a low of $9,595 for an assistant Junior High School principal to a top of $14,645 for the Senior High School principal.

UNDER THE approved schedule, the director of libraries will receive $12,625; the director of adult education will get $12,827; assistant high school principals will receive $13,130; six elementary principals will earn $10,807. The two junior High School principals will earn $12,827 and $13,332 and the other Junior High assistant principal will earn $11,615.

Principals and assistant superintendents are on year-to-year contracts. The Superintendent of schools is presently on a three-year contract with one year to go. His salary is reviewed each year.

Following board approval of the salary schedules, President Gerald J. Fischer issued a written statement on the conclusion of employee negotiations. He wrote:

"THE BOARD of Education is very pleased to announce that very sound agreements have been reached with each of the employee groups in our School District. Substantial

It's Tanger Elementary

A name for Elementary School No. 7, now under construction in the northeast corner of the Plymouth School District, was chosen Monday evening by school board members.

The school will be the Nancy Tanger Elementary School. Mrs. Tanger served the school district for 39 years as a teacher and, later, as principal of Bird School.

She first joined the school system in 1927. Now retired, Mrs. Tanger lives at 444 Irvin St.

Oakland vote beats Pursell

Nearly 37 per cent of Plymouth and Plymouth Township's voters turned out at the polls last week. Voters gave local candidates Earl Demel and Carl Pursell - both running for the State Senate on opposite tickets - wide margins locally.

And both Demel and Pursell carried the Wayne County portion of the 14th State Senate District.

It was in Oakland County, where both were unknown, that they lost the election. Unofficial totals show Pursell, a Republican, polled 2964 in Wayne County, and 2405 in Oakland for a 5369 total.

The winner of the election, conservative ex-mayor of Berkley, George Kuhn, lost in Wayne County to Pursell, polling only 2228 votes. But he rolled up a wide margin in Oakland County where he is well known for his battle with Detroit mayor Jerome Cavanagh over Detroit's income tax.

Kuhn netted 4197 votes in Oakland, for a 6425 total.

A third GOP hopeful, moderate John MacLellan pulled 1575 votes in Wayne County where he was unknown, but managed to get more than Pursell in Oakland, with 2569 Republican primary voters giving him the nod in that county. MacLellan total was 4144.

Post election analysis shows the Pursell lost to a conservative because two moderates - he and MacLellan - split a lot of Republican votes. To illustrate, Pursell polled 535 in his home community of Plymouth Township, but MacLellan polled

Demel, Pursell lost in Oakland

 123 - many votes Pursell might have had.
 Republican cross-overs to vote on the Democratic ticket for Jerome P. Cavanagh also hurt Pursell.
 Generally, the same thing happened to Earl Demel, veteran attorney. Demel won in Wayne County, polling 3321 to Paul Livingston's 3072. A third candidate, Louis Odette, polled 1036 in Wayne County.
 Livingston, who won the election, rolled over Demel in Oakland, where Livingston is a well known Democrat. Demel polled only 1226 votes, and Livingston 3463. Final unofficial totals show Livingston garnered 6535 votes, Demel 4547 and Odette 2644. Odette's showing was a surprise to most, as he was unable to mount a very active campaign.

 In November, Kuhn will face Livingston in what could prove to be a tight race. The District, traditionally Republican, might upset Kuhn. Kuhn works for Ford Motor Co., and Livingston heads up an insurance company. Their district covers Livonia, Plymouth, Northville, Farmington, Keego Harbor, South Lyon, Walled Lake, Wixom and several sparsely populated Townships in western Oakland County.
 Another State race affecting Plymouth - the 36 State Representative District seat - was uncontested in both primaries. James Tierney, Garden City Democrat polled 4616 votes, and John Tripp, Plymouth Insurance agent, netted 2126 on the GOP ticket.

 In the one U.S. race affecting the Plymouth Community, Marvin Esch, a Doctor's Degree holder from Ann Arbor and a relative unknown, edged out George Meader, 14,270 to 12,765.
 Marvin Esch was the party's choice from the beginning, and that gave him the need impetus to win. He carried Washtenaw County by over 2000 votes. Meader, well known after seven terms in Congress, edged out Esch in rural areas of Monroe and Lenawee County.
 Locally, Esch made only an average showing carrying all precincts in the City of Plymouth, but losing in four of Plymouth Township's seven precincts.
 Esch did surprisingly poor in the new area of Lake Pointe, Precinct One. There, Meader polled 78 votes, Esch 43.

 Esch will face another PhD incumbent Democrat Weston E. Vivian, who in 1964 squeaked past Meader by a 77,806-76,280 margin. In 1964, Meader edged out a moderate Stan Thayer, after Thayer took the City of Ann Arbor. Meader ran strong in the rural areas.
 Vivian and Esch are expected to wage an active campaign for the seat, which could go either way. Vivian's victory was attributed largely to the Johnson landslide. Just how many votes he has picked up after two years in office will help determine the outcome in November.

Win $250 in bingo cards are free

The prize for this week's game of Newspaper Bingo in the Plymouth Mail will be $250 cash. You could win it. The game is free, all adults can play and each week $50 in cash will be given away.

Since there was no winner during the past four weeks, the prize money accumulates and this week it will be $250. The deadline for phoning in winning cards is Monday between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m.

Each week, new Bingo cards will be given away at participating merchants. Bingo numbers appear in their ads in this section of the Plymouth Mail. Numbers are also posted in the office of the Plymouth Mail.

All you have to do is pick up your Bingo cards at participating stores. No purchase is necessary. Each week the color of the cards changes. This week the cards are white. You may play one card from each store—as many as you wish up to a maximum of 16 cards each week. Winners will be announced in The Plymouth Mail.

The purpose of Newspaper Bingo is to bring people to Plymouth to shop. The Plymouth Mail hopes you have fun and win some cash in the process.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Bingo numbers will be printed in the Salute to Value ads in The Plymouth Mail every Wednesday—and posted at The Plymouth Mail office, 271 S. Main St., Plymouth. There will be one game each week.
2. The game is cover-all which means that all 24 numbers on the bingo card MUST be matched by the numbers in The Plymouth Mail. Purchase of the newspaper is not required to play or claim a prize in the Newspaper Bingo. Numbers will be posted weekly in the office of The Plymouth Mail. Only numbers posted or published in a given week may be used in that week's game. Do not use numbers from past issues.

3. If you cover all the numbers on the bingo card you must phone 453-5500 or bring your winning card to The Plymouth Mail between 9 a.m. and 3 p.m. Monday. Only at this time will winners be verified.

4. If there is more than one winner each week the prize money will be divided equally.

5. In the event that the game does not produce a winner in any one week the prize money will accumulate for the following week's game.

6. No purchase from a participating merchant is necessary to obtain a bingo card. It is not necessary to pass through a check-out lane after obtaining or in order to obtain a card. Newspaper Bingo is FREE.

7. Adults only are eligible to play Newspaper Bingo.

8. The color of the bingo card changes each week — be sure the correct color is being played for that week. Weekly color changes will be announced in The Plymouth Mail. You may play as many cards as you wish each week. This week's color is white.

9. Employees of The Plymouth Mail and their families are not eligible to play Newspaper Bingo. The decision of the judges will be final.

REGULAR MEETING
 PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP BOARD OF TRUSTEES
 JULY 12, 1966

The meeting was called to order by the Supervisor at 8:02 p.m. All members were present.

The minutes of the regular meeting of June 14, 1966 were read by the Clerk. A lengthy discussion ensued concerning ITEM II - No. 5 regarding Glenview Homeowners Association. Mrs. Holmes asked for clarification of the two motions concerning this matter. She felt they were inaccurately recorded. The discussion became quite involved and due to the fact that the opening of bids was next on the agenda and people in the audience were waiting, it was decided to table this correction of the minutes until after the bids were opened. It was moved by L. Norman, supported by D. Lauterbach that this matter be set aside for the moment. Carried unanimously.

It was moved by D. Lauterbach, supported by L. Norman that the acceptance of bids be closed at 8:35 p.m. Carried unanimously.

The Supervisor requested Engineer, Herald Hamill, to come forward to open and determine the amount of the bids submitted. The following quotations were then read publicly.

Contractor	%	Total Amt. of Bid Combined	No. of Days to complete
1. Nick Merrucci & Sons Inc. 19037 Curtis Ave. Detroit, Mich. yes		$196,229.83	120 days
2. R. Carlesimo & Sons Inc. 16761 Avon Detroit, Mich. yes		159,938.15	140 days
3. Don Gargaro Co. Inc. 21631 Meyers Rd. Oak Park, Mich. yes		113,399.00	90 days
4. Zeph Le Duc Inc. 19346 Westminster Ct. Dearborn, Mich. yes		128,894.00	120 days
5. D & L Construction Co. 25131 Kean St. Dearborn, Mich. yes		120,051.75	120 days
6. Weissman Excavating Co. 15496 Telegraph Detroit 29, Mich. yes		139,912.50	90 days
7. Louis L. Dettore Const. 29200 Lathrup Southfield, Mich. yes		127,985.00	90 days

It was moved by E. Holmes, supported by D. Lauterbach that the Engineer, Mr. Hamill tabulate the bids and make a recommendation. Carried unanimously.

The next item was the opening of bids for the one ton panel truck for the Fire Department. Only one bid was received. This being the case; the bid was returned to the bidder and a motion was made by D. Lauterbach, supported by R. Garber that this bid not be accepted at this time and that we readvertise and that the Service Director, Mr. Burr, be requested to notify the immediate agencies in the vicinity. Carried unanimously.

At this time, the Board reverted back to the correcting and approval of previous minutes. The discussion was resumed concerning the aforesaid matter. Mr. Garber moved that the minutes be approved as read except that the records show that Mrs. Holmes did not vote "yes" on the first motion in ITEM II - No. 5 of the June 14, 1966 minutes. The motion was supported by Helen Richardson and carried unanimously.

The Supervisor gave a summary of the list of bills amounting to a grand total of $6,910.32. It was moved by L. Norman, supported by D. Lauterbach that the bills be paid as submitted. Carried unanimously.

Communications 1 and 2 were received and filed. Communication No. 3 requested some action by Mr. Greenspan or the Township to repair a noise on rowansnp property in front of Deloy Kelly's home on 41218 Russett Lane. Mr. and Mrs. Kelly were in the audience and added some light to the matter. Mrs. Kelly stated that she had referred the matter to Mr. Greenspan. He told her that he would not repair the hole as he would be setting a precedent by doing so and would therefore become a maintenance man for the entire subdivision. The consensus of the Board was that it was up to Mr. Greenspan to repair the hole and that it was the financial responsibility of the bonding company. It was also decided that if no immediate action was taken on the matter, the Township would take care of the matter and bill the bonding company. A motion was made by D. Lauterbach, supported by E. Holmes to notify the Bonding Company that the Greenspan Building Company is being notified and is aware of this existing problem, but has done nothing and that this should be covered by the maintenance bond. Also a copy of the letter should be sent to Greenspan. Carried unanimously. Communication No. 4 was a letter of resignation from Mr. Welsher which was read by the clerk. It was moved by Helen Richardson, supported by Ralph Garber that we accept John Welsher's resignation with regrets and a letter be sent to him thanking him for his past services. Carried unanimously.

TABLED AND ADJOURNED BUSINESS
 Draugelis and Ashton

This item is a request for rezoning of the Mangogna property, 47660 Ann Arbor Road from R-1-E to Commercial. Mr. Draugelis, attorney representing the Mangos gave a history of the property which he had done some research on. He could find no evidence of the property ever being zoned Commercial. Mr. Draugelis again made a plea in behalf of the Mangos. Mrs. Mango was present and explained the outdated conditions they were working under and also explained what they wanted to do and gave a brief description of such. Mr. Draugelis added, for clarification, that this would be a totally new structure; the old one would be completely torn down. Mr. J. Rusling Cutler of 193 N. Main St., Plymouth, Mich. was present as an interested property owner in the area. Mr. Cutler added some light to the history of the property. He stated that when Mr. Perry Richwine's father owned this property, there were two structures; one was built on the property and the other was a structure which was moved to this location from Adams St. in Plymouth. Mr. Richwine was a harness maker and operated a harness shop. The zoning at the time was Agricultural, but Mr. Richwine was operating his harness shop as a Home Industry, which was permissible at that time and still is. When he sold the property, it was sold to a restauranter prior to the Mango's purchase of the property and he stated he believed a permit was not obligatory at that time. Mr. McLellan, the Building Inspector stated there were no records of building permits in the Township prior to 1956. Mr. Cutler further added that he felt the neighbors in the area would like to see the Mango's restaurant improved and look better but they were against the change in zoning; a point which Mr. Lauterbach brought up prior to Mr. Cutler's comments. Mr. Lauterbach wondered if the Board, by it's own action could grant the right to enlarge and improve the property without a change in zoning. A motion was made by D. Lauterbach, supported by L. Norman to refer the matter to the attorney, Mr. Cole, to determine if the Township Board has the right to grant a building permit for a new building with no change of zoning. Carried unanimously.

NEW BUSINESS AND PERTINENT COMMUNICATIONS

Garling Subdivision
 Mrs. Helen Florken and Mrs. D. R. Presley were present to represent the families from Garling Subdivision. They explained the problem, which was poor drainage that resulted in badly flooded back yards and that previous attempts to alleviate the condition by means of fill have proved to be unsatisfactory. Mr. Hamill felt the solution to the problem would be the installation of a 12" drain in the rear of the lots. It was moved by Ralph Garber, supported by Gene Overholt that the Supervisor contact Mr. Garling and ask him to correct the situation that exists. Carried unanimously.

Elizabeth Holmes
 This concerned authorization for transfer of funds to the sewer and water construction fund if sewer lines on Haggerty, Schoolcraft and Five Mile are approved after the bids are opened. The Engineer recommended the bids be awarded to Don Gargaro Co. Inc. E. Holmes moved, supported by Ralph Garber that we accept Engineer, Hamill's recommendation to accept the bids of Don Gargaro Co. Inc. in the amount of $113,399.00. Carried unanimously.

It was moved by Louis Norman, supported by Helen Richardson that Mrs. Holmes be given the authority to cash certificates as needed and transfer to the Construction Fund to make progress payments as submitted by the Engineer for the sewer lines on Haggerty, Schoolcraft and Five Mile Road projects as follows: Sewer and Water Construction Fund Certificates - $46,104.29 - Sewer Receiving fund - $40,000.00 - Sewer Receiving Fund Certificates - $35,000.00 - Construction Fund Account $3,604.81 making a total of $124,709.10. Carried unanimously.

Lake Pointe Village Subdivision No. 9
 Dick Lauterbach, supported by Louis Norman moved approval of the hard backs for Lake Pointe Village Subdivision No. 9. Carried unanimously.

Waring and Johnson
 This regards an amendment to the Building Code recommended by Mr. McLellan, the Building Inspector. Mrs. Holmes explained that this was an addition to Ordinance #6. It was moved by Gene Overholt, supported by Dick Lauterbach, that we accept the recommendation of Mr. McLellan, the Building Inspector, to revise our Building Code by an addition to Code No. 6, with the stipulation that Mr. Burr, our Public Service Director, look it over to see that there are no conflicts with the Fire Code and a publication would be placed in our local paper. Carried unanimously.

It was moved by E. Holmes, supported by L. Norman that the Attorney, Mr. Cole, be authorized to establish a policy and to draw up the papers and ask the Engineer to furnish the description to procure the "Dedication to the Township of Plymouth" all sanitary sewer and water mains in the Township of Plymouth constructed by others; the policy to be retroactive. Carried unanimously. A discussion followed pertaining to the dedication of private easements. Two factories on Plymouth Road were mentioned, Barnes Gibson and Raymond and Whitman and Barnes. A motion was made by E. Holmes, supported by H. Richardson to have Attorney, R. Cole, try for a dedication of private easements so that we can make connections to these. Carried unanimously.

William Burr
 Adoption of Fire Prevention Code - Mr. Burr, Public Service Director, spoke in behalf of the Fire Prevention Code explaining it's importance and added that it was a tremendous step forward for the Township and the sooner it was adopted, the better it would be for the Township. It was moved by Helen Richardson, supported by Dick Lauterbach that we accept the Fire Prevention Code for study by the Board members and refer to the Attorney for his recommendation and any action would be taken at the next regular meeting on August 9, 1966. Carried unanimously.

John McEwen
 It was moved by E. Holmes and supported by H. Richardson to authorize Herald Hamill to advertise for bids on the Tramp Hollow Sewer Projects at the next regular meeting on August 9, 1966. Carried unanimously.

John McEwen
 Re: Authorization to transfer the issuance of licenses and permits relative to plumbing, electrical and heating to the Department of Buildings and D.P.W. Department commencing August 1, 1966. Some discussion was held on this matter. The budget allows for another person to be hired who could take over this duty along with other designated duties, but to date the party has not been hired. Mr. McLellan felt that the permits could easily be taken care of with the extra person. It was moved by D. Lauterbach and supported by Ralph Garber that the authorization to transfer the issuance of licenses and permits relative to plumbing, electrical and heating to the Department of Buildings and D.P.W. Department commencing August 1, 1966 be allowed. Carried unanimously.

Appointment of Planning Commission Members

The communication from the Supervisor stating his recommendations of the appointments to the Planning Commission was read by the Clerk. The Supervisor's recommendations included two re-appointments, Austin Stecker and Maurice Breen and two new appointments, C. Veach Sparks and Martin Fleming. Gene Overholt stated that he had approached three different parties as potential Planning Commission Members and felt that these people should be considered before accepting the Supervisor's recommendations. It was moved by D. Lauterbach and supported by E. Holmes that Austin Stecker, 45445 N. Territorial Road, and Maurice Breen, 41121 Greenbrook be re-appointed to the Planning Commission and that the other two (2) appointments be tabled until the August 9, 1966 regular meeting. Carried unanimously.

Request of the representatives of the Plymouth Township Area Planning Commission asking direction relative to the continuation of Plymouth Township participation.

It was moved by D. Lauterbach, supported by G. Overholt that we continue to financially support the Area Planning Commission for one additional year, in the amount of $5,000.00. Carried unanimously.

The Clerk stated she had received a letter from Morris Webster concerning the Township Hall addition. The letter was read by the Clerk from Morris Webster, Architect, suggesting that since only one bid had been received that we engage Mr. Robert Hochstein as a contractor at a five percent supervisory fee, based upon the actual cost of the building. A motion was made by D. Lauterbach, supported by E. Holmes that we reject all bids on the construction of the addition to the Township Hall as advertised. Carried unanimously. Another motion was made by L. Norman to refer the matter to the Attorney, Mr. Cole, as to whether the Township has the right to negotiate a contract in accordance with the architects plans and recommendations, since they advertised for bids and did not receive competitive bids. The motion was supported by D. Lauterbach and carried unanimously.

A motion was made by G. Overholt, supported by R. Garber that the meeting be adjourned. Carried unanimously.

Supervisor McEwen adjourned the meeting at 12:43 a.m.

The perfect newspaper

EDITOR'S NOTE: Co-publishers David Rood and James Tagg of the Manistique Pioneer Tribune came up with an idea for another special week for all of us to celebrate. We thought it merited reproduction.

The newspaper is an institution developed by modern civilization to present the news of the day, to foster commerce and industry, to inform and lead public opinion and to furnish that check upon government which no constitution has ever been able to provide.

We don't have enough special weeks in the year as it is now, so let's add another one and promote an appropriate observance.

We have Anti-Noise Week and Anti-Litter Week, so now let's all get together and have Anti-Newspaper Week. From all indications it should be a tremendous success.

It will be an appropriate time to join together to blame the newspaper for what's wrong with the community and with the people in it. Everybody can get it all off their chests and then sit at home in the evening and drink beer and watch television, secure in the knowledge that they have done their part.

A committee can be organized to work out all the details, but certainly special attention should be given to news reporting. Hundreds of people are convinced weekly that the news reporting idea is all wrong, and they would be glad to serve to help correct it. Perhaps they can emphasize that the newspaper should only print good news, and glad tidings, and nice things about nice people. They can campaign to do away with bad news, and prohibit newspapers from reporting that people do get drunk, get involved in auto accidents, receive traffic tickets, make fools of themselves, go into bankruptcy, shoot their wives, assault their neighbors, set fire to the church, embezzle money and spend tax dollars foolishly.

Perhaps a special award can be given for the newspaper that doesn't offend anybody.

Of course this paper couldn't run wedding stories, on the off chance that the bride may be pregnant or the groom a fortune hunter or both seeking matrimony on the rebound from unhappy love affairs.

This perfect newspaper could never print the church notices, for there are those who don't believe in churches, and who oppose organized religion, and the newspaper should not offend these people.

This perfect newspaper would carry no advertising, because advertising is competitive, and it isn't fair for one store to buy an ad in the paper because it might help the store sell some merchandise at the expense of some other competitor who didn't buy an ad. That's not fair, and besides, everyone knows that newspapers have all the money they need anyway. Why give them advertising?

Our perfect newspaper will carry pictures, because there is a very good chance that someone might be offended. The camera doesn't lie, they say, but maybe the newspaper does. The picture may be too close to the truth for many people to stomach, and it's easier to blame the newspaper for printing the picture than it is to blame whoever or whatever is represented in the picture. If a news photographer takes a picture of a bank robber fleeing with the cash, his paper would be better off not to print it, for they'll be blamed for the bank robbery and the thief will complain because the photo didn't capture the real him and was of his worst profile.

It goes without saying that the perfect paper will never carry news reports of city council sessions or school board meetings or court trials or public hearings. We can't have the newspaper offending politicians and elected officials and bureaucrats who as everyone knows are the only ones who know how to run the government. There will be no embarrassing quotes, no reports of what they did or how they acted. Government will reach a new high in efficiency.

This newspaper can't carry social items, for fear someone will be hurt because they weren't invited to Mrs. Whosit's social; there will be no obituaries because there is the possibility that one might be longer than that of some other person, or might omit a pallbearer; no weather reports, because everyone knows it's 15 degrees cooler (or warmer) at the lake than in town; no legal notices, because they cost money and the judges and the lawyers want to keep the estate costs as low as possible; no minutes of public meetings, because they are too expensive and nobody reads them except taxpayers.

There will be no news stories of happenings or new stores or new people because someone may get a little free publicity and that's not fair to anyone else who doesn't have his name in the paper that week. If a Democrat comes to town it will be ignored, for fear of offending the Republicans. If a Republican comes to town, same thing.

There will be no sports stories, for in every game there is a winner and a loser, and we can't mention losers in the perfect paper. There is also the chance that the paper would forget to mention that Junior Glutz scored three points, and Mr. and Mrs. Glutz would never forgive the editor for such an omission.

Most important, there will be no editorials or columns; no attempt to explain or to comment or to lead the community. This is the best way possible to offend people, so let's cut it out right now. Who cares if we have a better community? Who cares if someone attempts to speak for the people? Who cares, if the newspaper doesn't care?

So there we have it — the perfect newspaper. No news, no pictures, no editorials, no ads. Take an imperfect newspaper and color it black and blue from the lumps it takes while doing its job. Take the perfect newspaper and color it nothing — leave it blank and drab and colorless, for that's exactly what it is.

Not only is it a perfect newspaper, but you'll still be able to wrap your garbage and line the birdcage with it. What more do you want?

ships. But if the prohibition isn't clear in the charters of the home rule cities involve, you could run into trouble, even if the charter ignores the entire matter.

David and Brown pledged they would give the group all the technical help they could.

Ralph Garber, Plymouth Township Trustee, suggested the jurisdiction problem might be surmounted by deputizing police officers to operate throughout the area, much as the sheriff does.

David further commented he felt one large agency would have a greater economy than several small ones. And, the Commissioner repeated again his promise that more calls to the State Police would bring better coverage to the area.

"Protection is based on the number of calls," he explained. The group, which made little in the way of comment, agreed to await further word from Captain Brown, who is meeting in Chicago in a large conference on the problems of regionalizing police protection. It is expected Brown will meet with the group again in the near future.

In other action, the joint meeting heard a report on an incinerator, from Plymouth City Manager Richard Blodgett. The report suggested further talks with Livonia, a neighboring city which plans to build an incinerator.

Livonia has been divided between the wishes of the council and Mayor Harvey Moelke.

A FALLEN electric power line shorted out Sunday and permitted high voltage to flow into the Irvin J. Stalker residence at 635 McKinley. The line was snapped when two amateur woodmen felled a tree in the Stalker back yard about 2:45 p.m. When Plymouth Firemen arrived, service wires were lying on the ground burning, arrow. Insulation in the furnace was fused together. The two tree cutters, Larry Blakely and Richard Wehner, both of Newberry in the upper peninsula, knocked on the Stalker's door Sunday morning seeking work. They were not insured and they checked out of a motel in which they were staying and left town, according to Fire Chief George Schoenneman. Chief Schoenneman urged residents to have tree cutting done by a reputable firm. Most local tree trimmers carry insurance to cover accidents.

The good life

Aw, he forgot

Doug Johnson

Monday I did a bad thing. August 8 is my wife's birthday, and come Monday morning at the breakfast table it was clear to her that I had forgotten it. I hadn't wished her happy birthday, nor had I come forth with presents and cards.

As I left for work she reminded me in no uncertain terms, and all those warnings I had before we got married came rushing back.

Don't forget . . . I offered to wine and dine her, but then ruefully noted I couldn't really afford to even beer and pretzel her.

I have an excuse, though. This was the week we bought a new car. What with the sinking feeling you get in your stomach when you sign the financing papers and haggling with the dealers, I feel it was easy to forget.

I offered the car as a present but she knew I had forgotten. Nothing, not even the Taj Mahal would have covered that slip up.

Our anniversary is January 8, and that is burned in my brain, and written in my notebook. Don't forget.

Speaking of forgetting, about 60 per cent of Plymouth's voters forgot to vote, and thus perpetuated the strangest of all U.S. institutions — the voluntary disfranchisement millions of Americans seem willing to undergo every election year.

In 1964, an estimated 43 million people of voting age failed to make the trip to the polls.

It's not really forgetting. You would have to have been locked in a cabin in upper Michigan from last September to not know about the election. If nothing else Soapy and Jerry made enough noise to awaken every voter from here to Silver City (that's in the Upper Peninsula).

Why people fail to vote is a complex thing, and I'm not fully convinced it is because they plain just don't give a damn. Perhaps because of the picture they get of government in action, they see little hope of ever influencing it. For instance, the top story out of the Michigan State Legislature was the pay hike. While Michigan's daily and weekly papers bled themselves white in indignation and printed reams upon reams of copy on the pay raise, hundreds of other important bills were passed over.

Frankly, I wasn't proud of the fatuous commentary in Michigan's papers about the pay raise. Possibly the only suggestion that holds any merit is taking the matter out of the legislators' hands and giving it to a special commission.

The net affect of the headlines was to convince the average voter that the state's lawmakers were a bunch of high binding connivers, that they never did anything, and that they deserve nothing, let alone $12,500.

Then, why in the heck vote for somebody running to join the overpaid funsters?

So the mass media has done its part to keep the voter from the polls, by painting a lurid picture of our lawmakers.

Elected officials seem to do their part. Take the circuit court judges' huffy attitude about Judge Edward Piggins going to Governor Romney. I mean, they actually publicly suggested Piggins should have checked with them first before asking for an extension of the grand jury investigation.

Al Stark, who writes a column called The Real Detroit for the Detroit News, put it this way:

"What is the circuit court? A private club? . . . The judges don't want him (Piggins) to tell anyone anything until he reports to the club. And since he said something publicly without reporting first to the club, the club is upset . . . we're members (of the club) on Election day and pay day. But don't ask questions in between."

And so it goes. In Russia, things are simple. Sunday, June 12, 99.94 per cent of the electorate turned out and elected 1,517 candidates. There were no alternate choices.

Last Wednesday a rig occupied by Rev. C. Strasen and two children collided with an auto mobile driven by Frank Wilson of Livonia. In the past few weeks, the reading and listening public has been treated to rambling accounts of two mass murders, revolting crimes perpetrated on unsuspecting victims by obviously shaken individuals incapable of coping with life.

Detailed dissections and emotional analyses of the dead killer, in one case, and the accused assassin in the other have been presented on television and in the pages of newspapers.

Honestly, I grow sadly weary of it all. Oh, I suppose there is some basis for laying a killer's emotions bare, charting them, looking at them, making an effort to discover what motivated him to commission of the crime.

But is it really in the public interest to do this in tiresome and tawdry detail for all to read, some to retch over and the less mature to gloat upon? Shall we do this and ignore the source of the mayhem?

It has been pointed out time and time again since that grey day in November, nearly three years ago, that America's heritage is one of violence, struggle and death.

Veterans' groups and the National Rifle Association, sensible people and wild-eyed nuts, gentle huntsmen and political fascists — all have risen up in consternation at attempts to legislate greater control over the sale and resale of weapons.

They have resurrected the three tattered spectres of the Spirit of '76, the Minutemen and Bunker Hill to strengthen and substantiate their cause. They have pointed to the constitutional right to bear arms. They have injected emotion and patriotism, God and country into a question that, help us all, must be looked upon with an unemotional eye and resolved in an atmosphere of calm and reason.

And those of us with the mass media, how much have we contributed to a thoughtful and sane approach to the problem of mail order weaponry and hock shop armament?

We haven't. When a killing is discovered, the average newspaper, radio or television station dispatches John Heartsob, or Tessie Tearjerk to cover "the story," which — more of ten than not — turns out to be a maudlin bundle of sentimentalization that never comes within nodding distance of reality.

We write stories about the model life of the victim or victims. We tell of Sunday School classes they taught, of little old ladies they helped across the street, how they oozed the milk of human kindness.

Accounts not dissimilar are composed about the killer or chief suspect. He was a perfect child. His mother loved him. He was idolized by his dog, Rover. And we quote the aged next door neighbor who notes:

"I allus knew by the twitch in his left eye that he weren't no good, though."

All of which is packaged up, set in type and given three times the space of straight news coverage about the crime itself and the source of the weapon.

Maybe it's time we took a good, close look at our so-called heritage of violence and the constitutional right we have to run out and buy a .357 magnum whether we're mature enough to own it or not.

Perhaps we should find out if a prospective gun buyer is emotionally capable of handling the power he can now possess for a few dollars.

Think about it. Think about the hordes of people that stormed Los Angeles area gun shops and hardware stores the height of the Watts rioting last year. Think about firearms that were there for the taking when looters decimated stores in the riot area.

Think about whether your Uncle Charlie is stable enough to refrain from perforating Aunt Bertha with his .45 after she's nagged at him all day and he's taken refuge behind a six-pack of two.

I think about it. In fact, when I see some of the people we are actually teaching to use firearms, I get a bit uneasy.

It bothers me that Lee Harvey Oswald and Charles Whitman were both former Marines. For it was the United States Marine Corps that taught me how to drill a guy dead center at 500 yards with an M-1 rifle and I know the training is effective — and permanent.

And, thinking back, I wonder if a few of the men I saw in the service should have that kind of knowledge.

But they do. The question now is whether they should have equipment available to them for the use of that deadly skill. I wonder.

The Dunlap house as it is today.

This harpsichord reflects the Dunlap's interest in music. Mr. Dunlap is the well known conductor of the Plymouth Symphony.

INTERESTING OLD HOUSES

Dunlaps work to restore house's charm

A long low row of fence stands in front of a beautiful house built before the Civil War and now owned by the Wayne Dunlaps. The house which now stands at 760 Burroughs, was moved there in the twenties from approximately the spot where the Bentley Clinic is on Main St.

In the 1920's the house was an empty farmhouse owned by Charles Roberts. William Bake bought it and the surrounding land. He divided the land into lots and sold them. Other houses were built and it became Maplecroft subdivision.

Mr. Bake kept the farmhouse, moved it to Burroughs St., and lived in it with his family for over 20 years.

However the house dates back much further than the time it was bought by Bake. The original deed, or patent as it was called then, for the land dates back to 1825 when it was granted to Walter McFarlan by President Adams.

Later the land was owned by Bethuel Noyes who was the first president of the village of Plymouth in 1867.

The house was probably built by Noyes or a son of his around 1850.

The house has seen many changes. It went from being a cheerful farmhouse for the Noyes to an empty building when the Bakes bought it. When the Dunlaps bought it it had been converted into a duplex.

The Dunlaps who have lived there for six years have worked hard to restore its original charm.

Outside the house still sits on an acre and a half of land. The Dunlaps haven't attempted to restore the formal garden the Bakes had, but there are still remnants of it. The silo-pool is now used as a swimming pool for the Dunlap children.

When the old Hough house on Main St. was torn down for the Kroger store Mr. Dunlap purchased the old summer house in the backyard and put it in his own yard.

Inside they have torn out the walls which divided the house and laid a parquetry floor. Many of the features of the original house are still here. There are still the old hand made paneled doors throughout the house.

While remodeling Mrs. Dunlap got down to the original wallpaper used on one of the walls. It is an interesting stylized tulip pattern. She has carefully saved it in as large pieces as possible.

The Dunlaps' furniture seems to fit perfectly into the old house. Mrs. Dunlap has a collection of ironstone dishes in the old tea leaf pattern used extensively in this country around the end of the 19th century. She also has a few pieces of Quimper ware a charming provincial French pottery.

One of the results of the house having been a duplex, which dren David, Betsy and Bruce, enjoy is a second kitchen that they use as a hobby room. Their original plans were to make the two kitchens into one large one but they found this arrangement more convenient.

"Besides I couldn't face any more plaster dust right now," added Mrs. Dunlap.

Italian guest in Plymouth

A visitor from Italy, Mrs. Eva Malpiero, was a guest at the Hugh Jarvis' last week. Although they had never met the attractive Mrs. Malpiero before the Jarvisses soon felt as if they were lifelong friends. Mrs. Malpiero, a teacher from Trieste, is touring the United States. Because both she and Mrs. Jarvis belong to the Soroptomist Club she spent a week at the Jarvisses.

Mrs. Malpiero wanted to come to this country to learn about the American way of living. The women's service organization arranged the home visit as the best way to really learn what Americans are like.

Now that she has left the Jarvisses Mrs. Malpiero will continue to tour the country for the rest of the month.

"American women seem very efficient." This was one of the myriad of kaleidoscopic impressions she gained during her week here.

She compared the University of Michigan to her college, the University of Padua, built in 1122.

Although both schools have about the same number of students she felt that the buildings and other facilities at the University of Michigan were far superior.

"The problems of the aged, especially where they can live are very great in Italy," she pointed out. A trip to a senior citizens home in Ypsilanti was especially interesting to her.

Living in Italy where so many high style designers are making an impression on fashions Mrs. Malpiero wore stunning clothes.

Miss Robinson weds James Ayers

Miss Susan Marie Robinson and James Edward Ayers were married in the first Presbyterian Church July 30, with the Reverend Henry Walch officiating.

The bride is the daughter of the Gordon F. Robinsons of Plymouth and the bridegroom is the son of the Edward B. Ayers of Ann Arbor Trail.

Mrs. James E. Ayers

The maid of honor was Miss Barbara Ort of Ann Arbor a fellow nursing student of the bride. The best man was the bridegroom's brother, Harry Ayers, of Livonia.

Bridesmaids were the Misses Janet Blunk, Nancy Burley, and Mrs. Dennis Courter, all of Plymouth, and Miss Pamela Perkins of Flint.

Groomsmen were Robert Steele, Wayne Cummins, Thomas Abraham, all of Plymouth and Hugh Sarah of Ypsilanti.

A reception following the ceremony was held in the VFW Hall Following a honeymoon in the west, the new Mr. and Mrs. Ayers will make their home in Chicago.

Mr. Ayers will be attending the Illinois College of Podiatry, and Mrs. Ayers will continue her studies as a student nurse at the University of Illinois in Chicago.

Plymouth helps its children

A first grader stares dreamily out the window. His classmates are following what the teacher says, but he sucks on his pencil and can't seem to concentrate.

A pattern is begun, and it continues. Later he finds he has missed too much. He becomes puzzled and confused. He distracts the other children. He learns to hate school. If only something could have been done while he was still young . . .

Here in Plymouth something is being done. There are several different programs to help children which are brand new this year.

The first of these new programs is a day camp for forty children from first to third grade held at Gallimore School. The program is supported by federal funds available to Plymouth under the National Defense Education Act.

This is the fourth project in Plymouth to benefit children of public and parochial schools because of this act.

The children were selected for the camp by a diagnostic team who went around to the different schools in an earlier project.

The director, Carrol Nichols, and the four teachers explain that this is definitely a camp, rather than a class. The teachers are trying to motivate and inspire the children rather than teach classroom skills.

There are field trips scheduled to such places as city hall, the airport, and the zoo.

The teachers are working to coordinate their ideas. As one of them explained:

"While we are divided into subjects, we work together to stimulate interest in school."

To start they have taken the theme of animals and are developing it in all sorts of ways.

"We will be studying animals from insects to mammals, making folders and collections," explains Mrs. Sparkman, one of the teachers.

They will mount butterflies, take trips into the woods, and have stories read to them about animals.

"I do that not to improve their reading, but to improve their interest," says Mrs. Hufnagel the reading teacher, again stressing the point of the program.

For children from fourth to eighth grades there is another program. It is an away from home camp in Oxford, Mich. to run for four weeks.

Mr. Rey Borzi is the director. His assistants are Miss Karen Cushman, Dallas Goss, James Wright, Ray Sypniewski, Howard Yost and David Chumbley.

Again the actual learning is a secondary purpose.

The main purpose is for the child to get over the low esteem he has for himself after several years of doing poorly in school.

There is a ratio of seven students for every teacher, instead of the usual classroom size.

Sometimes the teacher and the students will be working on a one to one basis. Other times, say for sports, the group may be 40 children to a single teacher.

Of course, with all the facilities of a camp the children will get a chance to learn about nature first hand, and have lots of recreational activities, which hopefully will help his social adjustment.

These projects are designed to last for three years. All this depends on the available federal funds.

Engagement Openings at nursery school

Mrs. John E. Wiss of Columbus, Ohio announces the engagement of her daughter Margaret Catherine to Mac John Donnelly, Jr. the son of Mr. and Mrs. Mac Donnelly of Sunset Ave. Miss Wiss' father is the late John E. Wiss of Columbus.

Miss Wiss

Miss Wiss is a graduate of Ohio State University and is presently employed by the E. S. Preston Co. of Columbus.

Mr. Donnelly is a seaman in the Coast Guard and is stationed at Munising, Michigan.

The wedding will be at Our Lady of Victory Church in Columbus on September 24.

Plymouth Children's Nursery, Inc. has openings for four year old youngsters for its fall term starting September 26.

The nursery, located in Hough School, Warren and Haggerty Road, is a cooperative nursery school for three to five year old children. There is presently a waiting list for three year olds.

There are four class sessions of two hours each. Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings or afternoons, as well as Tuesday and Thursday afternoons are for the four year olds. Three year olds are in Tuesday and Thursday morning class. The teachers are assisted by the mothers in the program of free play, handicrafts, group experience in songs, games and music, and outdoor play on the large playground.

Registration blanks and further information may be obtained from Mrs. James Sonnega, 453-6069 or Mrs. Lawrence Vanaska, 453-6440.

Mrs. Spaniel shares some of her foreign recipes

Mrs. George Spaniel of McKinley St. has traveled to many different countries. During her travels she has made it a hobby to collect recipes which are typical of the country.

Before she was married Mrs. Spaniel spent some time at the University of Florence. During that time she got to know several Italian families, and was served the following fruit desserts.

FRUITA MACEDONIA
cup fresh orange sections apple sliced cup pineapple chunks (fresh pineapple works best, but canned may be used.)

cup green grapes
cup fresh blueberries (frozen is all right)
Any additional kind of fruit you wish to add is fine, except for cantaloupe. Marinate these fruits all day in a sweet white wine.

Just recently the Spaniels were in Hawaii, and while there discovered an excellent way to cook marinated steak.

With most recipes you have to marinate the meat for a long time, which causes it to lose its original flavor, explains Mrs. Spaniel. "In this recipe the meat is only marinated for a short time, and so keeps its original flavor."

Hawaiian Marinated Meat
1 quart soy sauce
fresh ginger root
1 whole ginger root grated
pinch of salt
2 cloves garlic grated
1 cup of sugar
1 teaspoon of accent

The ginger root is the key to the recipe. It can be purchased at the Boardway Market at Broadway and Grand River or Wah Lee's on Cass near Temple in Detroit. Mix the first five ingredients. Then stir in enough sugar to make the mixture a syrupy consistency. You may need a little more or less sugar. Add the accent. This sauce will keep indefinitely in the refrigerator.

A rib steak is the recommended kind to use with this sauce. Just before cooking soak the steak on both sides in the sauce. Put it on the grill and cook 1 1/2 minutes on both sides. Take it off and dip it into the sauce again. Again cook it 1 1/2 minutes on both sides. Again dip it quickly in the sauce. Then return it to the grill and cook until done.

After the meat is cooked the sauce can be brought to a boil and served over the meat.

The steak can also be cut into little strips and served as an hors d'oeuvre on a habachi with the guests cooking it themselves.

Mrs. George Spaniel prepares Fruita Macedonia in her cheerful yellow kitchen.

Harvi's comes to Plymouth

Hurrah! There's a new store in Plymouth. Women who have been bemoaning the departure of two women's stores from town have been looking through the windows for Harvi's or weeks. Finally it's open. Fred Goldberg the owner is still in his twenties, but gives the appearance of a man who knows how to get things done. He has modernized the interior but left the old staircase, although he has lightened it to make it stand out more.

"The staircase doesn't really lend itself to the way the store is decorated now, but it's so beautiful I wouldn't take it out," he says.

Mr. Goldberg plans to follow the suggestions made by the Chamber of Commerce following its study and stay open until 9 p.m. on Thursday and Friday.

The store is filled with clothes in vibrant fall colors. There is lots of plum and moss green with pale blue used as an accent over and over again.

There are tailored clothes and all kinds of mix and match casual outfits.

Fashion experts have decreed that the coat and dress, or costume will be very big this year. Mr. Goldberg is carrying lots of them, including one particularly stunning navy coat trimmed in pumpkin, with a matching pumpkin shift.

"Knits are more important than ever," he says.

He carries the shorter skirts, but women will be happy to know that there are Mrs. dresses which come to mid-knee.

"This is a year for different leathers," says Mr. Goldberg. Imported purses from Spain and Italy actually come in such unusual material as ostrich leather.

Mrs. Robert Malecek

Former Plymouth girl married in First Methodist Church

Miss Josephine Mecklenburg the daughter of the George Mecklenburgs of Brighton, former Plymouth residents, was married to Robert M. Malecek the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Malecek of Grosse Pointe Farms on August 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the First Methodist Church in Plymouth.

Reverend Peter Schweitzer was the minister at the double ring ceremony.

The bride's gown was a modified A line linen dress with Venice lace sleeves. Her headpiece was a linen pillbox with a five tiered veil. She carried a colonial nosegay of baby rosebuds, daisies and mums.

Miss Kathryn Mecklenburg the bride's sister was the maid of honor. Mrs. Dennis Davies the bridegroom's sister, Miss Evelyn Heidt, and Miss Kathleen Moore served as bridesmaids.

They all wore pistacio green linen floor length A line dresses, with circlets of daisies in their hair. They carried nosegays of yellow daisies.

The three little nieces of the bride, Miss Marlynn Marx, Elaine Mecklenburg and Lori Mecklenburg served as flower girls. They wore yellow floor length dresses and carried baskets of daisies. Randy Walworth acted as ring bearer. Mrs. Mecklenburg wore a gold linen dress and with a flowered chiffon coat.

The new Mrs. Malecek is a graduate of Plymouth High School and Mercy School of Nursing. The bridegroom graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and is attending the University of Michigan where he is affiliated with Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

The Maleceks will be making their home in Ann Arbor.

Mr. and Mrs. John J. Contario

Miss Bosman wed at noon ceremony

As her sister Debby played the organ, Carol Lynn Bosman walked down the aisle of the Cherry Hill Methodist Church on the arm of her father to be married to John Joseph Contario at noon on July 23.

For her wedding the bride wore an A line gown of chiffon over satin with lace motifs and seed pearls. She wore a finger tip veil and carried two dozen white roses with looped and knotted satin ribbons.

The bride was preceded down the aisle by her sister Dee who was maid of honor, and her cousin Miss Margaret Lampinen, a college roommate Miss Dian Hamer, and Janice Nagy who were bridesmaids.

The bride wore a rainbow color scheme, with the maid of honor wearing a yellow whipped cream material with lace applique. The bridesmaids dresses were the same style, but in aqua, pink and green. All the attendants carried carnations.

The bridegroom, whose parents are the John B. Contarios chose Dan West as his best man. Ushers were Phil West, Jon Henkel and Bill Toth.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Bosman wore a silver blue lace dress with beige accessories. Mrs. Contario wore a muted green lace and linen dress with yellow accessories.

A reception and buffet dinner for 200 guest was held at Roma Hall after the wedding.

After a wedding trip to Chicago and Lake Superior the new Mr. and Mrs. Contario will be living in Ames, Iowa. Mr. Contario, a graduate of Eastern Michigan University will be working on his doctorate in chemistry at Iowa State University of Science and Technology. Mrs. Contario will also continue her education.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ferguson

Hoeprich-Ferguson wedding held at Greenfield Village

The Martha and Mary Chapel at Greenfield Village with its colonial styling was the scene of the wedding of Miss Susan Hoeprich to Charles Ferguson at 8 p.m. on July 23.

Reverend Orin Van Loon from the Berkley Community Church officiated at the candle light ceremony.

The former Miss Hoeprich is the daughter of the Frederick M. Hoepriches of Plymouth. The bridegroom's parents are the Maurice Fergusons of Powell Rd.

Instead of the traditional organ music the processional was Purcell's Trumpet Voluntary and the recessional was Trumpeter's Tune also by Purcell. Both were played by David Wolter of Saline.

The bride's floor length gown was silk organza over taffeta with chantilly lace and seed pearl appliques. A headpiece of crystal and pearls outlined the face holding a shoulder length veil.

Miss Christine Hoeprich the bride's sister was maid of honor. She wore a floor length pink nylon shear over taffeta with multicolored flower trim. Her bouquet was made of white daisies and pink sweetheart roses.

The bridesmaids were the bride's cousin Miss Nancy Sue Cole and Miss Mary Ellen Ferguson the bridegroom's sister.

Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor's except for color. Miss Cole's was yellow and Miss Ferguson's green.

The best man was Richard Aisboro. Ushers were Tom Heath and the bride's brother Michael Hoeprich.

Mrs. Hoeprich wore a pink floor length gown. Mrs. Ferguson wore a gown of green crepe with a beige lace bodice.

A reception for 125 guests was held at the Clinton Inn near the chapel. Afterwards the young couple left for a tour of the eastern states.

They will make their home in Ann Arbor where the bride is a senior at the University of Michigan. The bridegroom is with Sutherland-Robson accounting firm in Wayne.

Baby talk

Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Couch of Beech St. announce the birth of a seven lb., nine oz. son, David Harrison, July 24 at St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor. David has two older brothers Tommy, who is eight, and Phillip, who is six.

Mrs. Richard C. Rogers

Miss McGhee weds New York man

Miss Carol Diane McGhee, the daughter of the Eldon McGhees of Francis St., became the bride of Richard Congdon Rogers, the son of the Edward Rogers of New York City, on August 7.

Reverend Charles E. McGhee, the bride's brother was the minister at the afternoon wedding at Plymouth Church of Christ.

The bride wore a floor length gown with an embossed apron Her finger tip veil was attached to a crown. She carried a bouquet of white roses and carnations.

Her sister, Mrs. Marvin Heskett, was matron of honor and wore a blue floor length taffeta gown.

Mrs. Michael Vermillion was a bridesmaid and wore an identical dress in pink taffeta.

Theresa McGhee, a niece, was a flower girl and wore a pink floor length dress.

The best man was Robert Harris. Ushers were Charles Cook, and Michael Alexander.

The bride's mother wore a blue sheath with a lace bodice. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue printed silk sheath.

After the wedding a garden reception was held at the Lord Fox Restaurant near Ann Arbor for 40 guests.

The new Mrs. Rogers is a graduate of Plymouth High School and attended the University of Michigan for one year.

The bridegroom graduated from Princeton University and attended the University of Michigan for one year.

Mrs. Alfred Briere

Williams-Briere vows spoken

Miss Susan Grace Williams was escorted down the aisle by her brother John and given away by her father Dr. A. C. Williams at her marriage to Alfred Briere of Trenton on June 25 at the First Presbyterian Church.

Doctor Henry Walch officiated at the 1 p.m. wedding.

A wedding gown of silk organza over taffeta with a chapel train was worn by the bride. The gown and train were trimmed with lace applique and seed pearls. Organdy roses secured her shoulder length veil. Her bouquet was of butterfly orchids and ivy.

Mrs. John Williams the bride's sister-in-law was matron of honor. She wore an empire style pink linen gown with a green velvet sash. She also wore a matching green velvet bow in her hair. Miniature white carnations and pink sweetheart roses were made into a colonial bouquet for her to carry.

The bridesmaids were the Misses Joyce Briere, sister of the bridegroom, Patricia George and Kathy Walker a cousin of the bride. They were dressed in gowns identical to that of the matron of honor.

The bridegroom, whose parents are the Alfred Brieres, had John Zline as his best man. The ushers were William Daniel, Mark Shoup and Donald Williams another brother of the bride.

Mrs. Williams wore a mint green silk linen ensemble, while Mrs. Briere chose a mint green chiffon ensemble. The young couple left on a honeymoon to northern Michigan after a reception at the Mayflower Meeting House.

The new Mrs. Briere attended the University of Michigan and Cleary College. Mr. Briere is a graduate of the University of Michigan School of Engineering.

They are making their home in Northville.

Livonia mother, daughter hurt in Harvey St. crash

A Livonia mother and her two-year-old daughter were taken to St. Mary's Hospital in Livonia Thursday for treatment of injuries received in a two-car accident in Plymouth.

Mrs. Martha V. Keehn, 25, of 34119 Orangelawn, Livonia and her daughter, Deborah, were hurt when the car in which they were riding was struck broadside at the intersection of Farmer and N. Harvey St.

The little girl later underwent surgery for head injuries at the hospital.

Plymouth Police said Mrs. Keehn's car, headed north on Harvey St., failed to halt for the stop sign at the intersection at about 12 noon.

A westbound vehicle being driven on Farmer St. by Barry L. Egeler, 19, of 478 Leicester, Plymouth, struck the Keehn car broadside.

Officers said Mrs. Keehn lost control of the vehicle which shot across the intersection and hit a tree in front of the second house on the west side of Harvey St., north of Farmer.

The woman and her daughter were taken to the hospital by the Casterline Ambulance Service of Northville.

Woman hurt in Township crash

A 42-year-old Detroit woman was taken to Wayne County General Hospital Saturday night after she was injured when her car missed a curve, hit two trees and rolled over on Five Mile Road.

The accident occurred at 11 p.m., just north of Edward Hines Drive on Five Mile.

Wayne County Sheriff's officers said Mrs. Willie Mae Brown of Detroit was headed north on Five Mile at 35 miles per hour, the posted speed limit.

As she drove up the steep hill that rises from the Hines Parkway, her car missed the curve. No driving violation was indicated, officers said.

Mrs. Sober displays the type of crafts she has adapted for nursing home patients.

Artist puts crafts - not time - on their hands

The ideas of an artist who has little interest in other human beings and lives only for art's sake is quickly dispelled after meeting Marion Sober.

Mrs. Sober, who has lived in the area for about 20 years, became well known for her Joy Road Studio where painting, chair canning and other arts were taught.

About a year ago Mrs. Sober, whose degree is in occupational therapy, turned her talents toward that area. The classes are no longer held at the studio, only a few workshops are offered for her former pupils.

But the studio is not deserted. Instead Mrs. Sober is there working on booklets for nursing homes for elderly people. The books explain simple yet artistic crafts these people can make.

"I was interested in more of a fine arts approach to occupational therapy," she explains. Skills which were necessary for survival in the old days have become lost art in these days," she continues.

"Yet I think everyone gains a satisfaction from working on worthwhile basic art forms which are not difficult."

The reason they aren't difficult is due to Mrs. Sober's ingenuity. First she buys pieces from all over the world. A trip to the Caribbean found her scouring the islands for native crafts.

Then she spends days and even weeks figuring out how they were made, making one herself, and finally writing the directions in her book "Therapy Crafts."

Mrs. Sober has designed her crafts so they cost very little to make and need almost no specialized equipment.

Realizing that time hangs heavy on the hands of nursing home patients the crafts are designed so they will take some time to complete.

She is planning to take some time off from her writing this fall and work in the homes herself, teaching her crafts.

"I thought I could use the knowledge I have of art and design and crafts and contribute something in this way," she says summing up her work.

Carrier of the week

Ray Allen, 9223 Brookline, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Allen, is this week's carrier of the week.

He is the son of Plymouth Mail printing superintendent, Herb Allen, and wants to be a printer, just like his father. His hobby is photography.

A seventh grader at Jr. High West, Ray is 11. He delivers 115 papers on Brookline and Sheldon Rd.

In sports, he enjoys baseball and swimming. And his baseball that draws his nod as his favorite pastime.

"Ray has been with the Mail as a paper boy since we began delivering papers by carrier over a year ago. He has learned a sense of responsibility and how to run his route as a small business. He makes a good carrier," said Fred Wright, Mail circulation manager, who made the announcement of the carrier honor.

Canton, Superior upset incumbents

Elections in two Townships adjacent to Plymouth saw newcomers defeat incumbents.

Defeated in Superior Township by a 467 to 371 margin was Democratic supervisor Emory Mulholland, thus ending 31 years at the helm of Superior's government. He is 68.

William Papineau, children's nursery operator, will become supervisor as there was no one running on the Republican ticket.

Incumbent clerk Mrs. Ruth Eckert topped challenger Mrs. Mildred Craig, and present treasurer Barbara Lark defeated Robert Meyer's bid for the nomination.

In the trustee battle, Percy

Carter, an incumbent, and Robert Allen, a challenger, were elected.

In Canton, a newcomer James H. Meyers defeated Henry Holleyok, trustee, 74-53, in the GOP primary.

Incumbents in all other offices won renomination. Supervisor Phil Dingeldey unopposed, led the Democrats with 316 votes. Clerk John Flodin and treasurer Forest Trussell, both Democrats, polled 282 and 279 respectively.

Ruth Simmons won nomination as Republican candidate for treasurer. And GOP trustee Elmer Schultz was renominated.

Expect high produce prices

Plymouth housewives had better not expect produce prices to come down this summer warns a local produce buyer for one of the larger chains stores.

While qualifying his remarks with the statement that a lot of rain could make prices lower he doesn't expect this to happen.

The extreme heat and lack of rain earlier in the summer has made crops scarcer and the quality poorer.

Lettuce heads, for instance, are often soft and puffy. This is due to the heat.

Last year canners bought sour cherries for 4 1/2¢ a pound. Recently they had to pay 14 1/2¢ a pound.

'Bell ringers' to be backbone of PCF drive

Plymouth's Community Fund united-giving campaign October 10-November 4 will make a determined and systematic effort to give all community residents a chance to give in support of the 13 agencies, for whom a 1967 budget of $66,548 has been adopted.

THE PLYMOUTH campaign organization is now firm with Edward W. Schening, Burroughs Corporation plant manager, as general chairman. Assisting him are two Burroughs executives - Bernard V. Hart and Eber J. Reseman - white-william P. Scott of DSI Corporation is director of promotion.

Hart will organize the training of the hundreds of volunteer workers and "bell ringers". Seven group chairmen are recruiting their sides and perfecting their solicitation plans.

They include: Harold Fischer (Industrial) with a quota of $56,700; Earl West (Business) with a $22,800 quota; Mrs. Kenneth L. Hulse (Residential) and a $9,000 quota; Roland Bonamici (Ad-

Mrs. Hulse's "bell ringer" force of 225 workers is organized for residential solicitation under the direction of 40 area captains. The Plymouth city captains will include Mrs. Richard Neale, Mrs. Harry J. Luce, Mrs. William Leonard, Mrs. Herbert Norgrove, Mrs. Terry Tallmadge, Mrs. Leo Singleton, Mrs. John Roese, Mrs. LaVern Sly, Mrs. Eugene Connor, W. K. Lewis, Mrs. Robert J. Conley, Mrs. Roger Vaughn and Mrs. Russell C. Koepke.

And, to reach the homebound - the housewives and retirees - a task force of 225 women volunteer "bell ringers" literally will ring doorbells to put the Fund story across.

Employed people will be encouraged to pledge on a payroll deduction plan at their places of work.

School children will have opportunity to learn of the services of the fund agencies - and make their individual contributions.

SMILES replace frustration and fear when a youngster hears again after receiving aid from a United Foundation agency. Plymouth residents are eligible for numerous such services because of the Plymouth Community Fund. The annual Fund campaign will be conducted October 10 - November 4

Outside services brought here

Through its relationship with United Community Services of Metropolitan Detroit, the Plymouth Community Fund is able to offer certain services not based in the community itself.

For that purpose, the Fund has budgeted $11,223 of its $66,543 resources so that the myriad U.C.S. services may be available in 1967. The united-giving campaign to raise the $66,543 is scheduled for the October 10 - November 4 period. Dr. William Covington, a Plymouth dentist, is president of the Fund.

To illustrate the wide range of patient care provided last year through United Community Services, some 20 agencies were called upon to help Plymouth community people in need.

Services extended in the last year included social hygiene, cancer laboratory, Leader Dogs, Better Hearing, Mentally Retarded Children, Epilepsy Center, Heart Association, Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, multiple sclerosis, Sister Kenny and Children's Aid. Other Plymouth referrals and resulting service involved the Welfare League, League for Nursing, Society for Mental Health, Recreation Association, cerebral palsy, United Seamen's League, United Service Organization and the Polio Foundation.

VFW Auxiliary #6695

Representing Auxiliary #6695 as delegates, Mrs. Robert (Ann) Smith, President; Mrs. Hal (Annette) Young, Mrs. Jack (Dolores) Olasaver, Mrs. Duane (Lucy) Johnson, and Mrs. William (Norma) Fletcher will attend the 53rd National Convention of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, to be held in New York City, August 19-26, 1966.

The Auxiliary was organized in 1914 with service to the veteran and his family as a primary goal. There are approximately 400,000 members in the National Auxiliary.

The annual Post and Auxiliary family picnic will be held at the post home on Lilley Road on Sunday August 14. Each family should bring a dish to pass and enough prepared meat or hot dogs and buns for his own family. The plans would indicate that this promises to be a good time for all - young and old. For further information, call Mrs. Robert (Ann) Smith 453-1529.

While most ministers touch — fairly regularly — on the subject of heaven, few of them get as close to their subject as the Reverend C. C. Satterfield of 47675 N. Territorial Rd., perched at the top of the church steeple pictured above and in the inset, upper right. Rev. Satterfield, pastor of the Faith Tabernacle Pentecostal Church of God, located at the foot of Spring St., across from Starkweather School, together with his nephew, Noel Satterfield (about half-way up) put aluminum siding on the steeple last week. The building was originally the old Lutheran Church in Plymouth. Its congregation now numbers between 75 and 80. The church holds morning and evening services on Sunday and a Saturday evening young people's service.

Are there really any sound reasons for buying a Chevrolet in August?

During August, it's as easy to own a Bel Air 4-Door Sedan as getting in the car.

Wait till you see how sporty you look sitting in your Impala Super Sport.

In a word: Six

1. Have you ever known the instant delight of selecting a new Impala Super Sport in the color you want, slipping into its Strato-bucket seats, and driving it home from the showroom the same day? Now's your chance. Your Chevrolet dealer has a big choice of models on hand with small August price tags.
2. More than likely, your present car will never be worth as much in trade as it is right now. Money—another good reason to buy a Chevrolet this month.
3. Read those articles about when to buy a new car and they'll tell you that August is one of the best months. And your Chevrolet dealer is ready to show you why... with buys that are better than ever.
4. If you think winter's tough on an old car, believe us, so is summer. There's added strain on the engine because of vacation driving. Greater tire wear. The cooling system has to work extra hard. A new Chevrolet can save you a lot of trouble.
5. You do a lot of driving for pleasure so why not ride on Chevrolet's Full Coil suspension. Let your feet feel that deep-twist Chevrolet carpeting. August is to enjoy.
6. Make your summer driving safer driving by taking advantage of the eight standard safety features built into every new Chevrolet. If your present car doesn't have seat belts, back-up lights, outside rearview mirror, padded instrument panel, look into a new Chevrolet.

GROUNDBREAKING ceremonies for the new Vico Products plant in Plymouth Township were held last week. Township supervisor Jack McEwen, Vico Products owner, Leo Schultz, his wife, Mrs. Bertie Schultz, and his son Robert Schultz turn over the dirt. The site is located across from the Elks Club on Ann Arbor Road. Schultz, a long time Kiwanian, plans a 56,000 sq. foot building to manufacture the 140 automotive parts his company makes. The new building more than doubles the space in the old one.

Evans 16th in US in net income

Evans Products Company is ranked 16th in terms of net income as a percentage of invested capital by Fortune Magazine in its recent annual listing of the nation's top 500 corporations for 1965. The magazine also rated Evans as the 275th largest corporation based upon its 1965 sales of $246,941,000. This compares with its rank of 313 in 1964, and 339 in 1963. For 1966, first half sales represented a 25 percent increase over the same period in 1965. Projected total sales for 1966 have been forecast at $300 million by Evans' management. Evans' Transportation Equipment Group, which in 1965 accounted for more than 21 percent of Evans' total sales, is headquartered in Plymouth. In 1966, this percentage should be even higher, according to a spokesman for the local operation. The Plymouth plant, employing 1600 persons, now is in the final stages of a $6 million expansion program in connection with the company's freight car building operation. In addition to its Transportation Equipment Group, Evans has four divisions in the building materials and home construction fields.

Heat is on for Bill Kamen

Cold weather may be a long way off at the moment, but William J. Kamen of McLaren-Silkworth Oil Co., Plymouth, and 27 other oil fuel technicians have been getting a head start on the heating season by going back to school. The technicians have been learning new servicing techniques at Ferris State College during a two-week workshop on oil fuel heaters. The self-supporting seminar is jointly sponsored by the Michigan Petroleum Association and Ferris' School of Technical and Applied Arts with instructors supplied by the National Oil Fuel Institute.

Senior Citizens to see Tigers

Senior Citizens Club meetings will resume at the Masonic Temple as the remodeling and redecorating are completed. On August 11, there will be a regular meeting with a birthday meeting on August 18 and a pot luck on August 26. The Club expects to attend the Baltimore-Tiger baseball game in Detroit on August 20. The bus will leave the Masonic Temple at 11:30 a.m. The fare for the bus is $1 and the admission to the ball park is fifty cents for retirees; make immediate reservations. On August 29, Senior Citizens plan to attend the Michigan State Fair. The bus will leave the Masonic Temple at 8 a.m. with the bus fare at $1. There will be free admission to the Fair for Senior Citizens. Only early reservations will be honored.

Two graduate from Evangel

Shirley Puckett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Puckett, 14605 Haggerty and Joseph Wallace Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wallace Sr., 47919 Joy Rd. are two of 20 seniors who graduated from Evangel College at summer commencement August 5. Miss Puckett received the degree of Bachelor of Science with a major in elementary education. As a student at Evangel, she has been resident assistant in her dormitory, a member of the Student National Education Association, and of the college band. She is a graduate of Plymouth High School. Wallace received the degree of Bachelor of Science, with a major in art education. As a student at Evangel, he has been president of the art club and on the yearbook staff. He is a graduate of Plymouth High School.

We can keep you in hot water.

In fact, we guarantee it!

An electric water heater is for the people who don't like to run out of hot water. We're so sure you'll like one, we guarantee your satisfaction—for a whole year! What do we mean by satisfaction? Simply this: If you don't get all the hot water you want, when you want it, you get all your money back, including any you may have spent on installation. And it doesn't matter where you bought your electric water heater. The Edison guarantee still applies. No strings attached. Fair enough?

EDISON

P.S. Average-size families with electric water heaters pay as little as $3.88 a month—a standard rate—for hot water. How much are you paying?

NEW TOUCH-TONE PHONES

Now available to all Plymouth and Livonia customers

Just touch and talk!

The new TOUCH-TONE phone is a modern electronic telephone with push buttons to press in making your calls instead of the regular dial. Most people find they can "tap out" a number in half the time it takes to turn a dial.

TOUCH-TONE telephone service brings greater calling convenience to desk sets, wall phones and the Princess® phone—makes calling easier and faster than ever.

TOUCH-TONE phones come in a variety of colors and styles. And this optional new service costs only slightly more than conventional dial service. For more information, just call our Business Office—or ask your Telephone Man.

*TOUCH-TONE service for "421" and "422" customers will require a number change.

MODIFIED SCHOOLCRAFT

College to open two new buildings

This area's community college - Schoolcraft - added two more buildings to its ever enlarging campus on Haggerty Rd. this summer.

"I call it modified Schoolcraft," said Dr. Bradner, the College's president, when asked to classify the unique modernistic architecture of the campus buildings.

"When I look at that, I think there is an Aztec influence," Bradner said, indicating the new Lois L. Waterman Campus Center. The center was named for Emeritus Dean of Students, Lois Waterman.

"Then I look at this building, and I think it's Japanese," he added, indicating the administration building.

Whatever the style, Schoolcraft's modern campus has two new buildings which are expected to be opened when the fall semester begins at the end of August.

One, the Campus Center, houses a book store, student lounge, student health center and student offices, in the basement. Also, a roughed-in television studio occupies a corner of the basement, and will be completed for close circuit TV when the funds are available.

Upstairs a huge kitchen will serve food, and become a realistic classroom for the College's new culinary arts program. A large dining area, and smaller areas which can be divided off with flexible walls will serve students and faculty alike. A special faculty dining room has been added to the Center.

In the second new building, the Technical Center, work progresses at a hectic pace,

Much equipment and furniture remains to be set up, and electricians are still hanging fixtures in some rooms. The building will headquarter the drafting classes, the data processing program, nursing, the manufacturing processes program, the auto maintenance classes, metallurgy, electronics, welding, hydraulics, as well as faculty offices and administrative space.

Other buildings are in the various stages of planning, according to Board of Trustees president Harold Fischer of Plymouth. The money voted in the millage election recently will be used in the construction of a class room building, and a physical education building.

Other buildings are also planned. Schoolcraft serves the school districts of Plymouth, Northville, Livonia, Garden City and Clarenceville.

SCHOOLCRAFT'S newest building will open soon and will be named Lois L. Waterman Campus Center. College president Eric Bradner and Board of Trustees president Harold Fischer view the center.

A SECOND building, the Technical Building, which includes this nearly completed electronics lab. Fischer and Bradner discuss completion dates and the ever-nearing fall session.

BOOKS FOR SALE: Mrs. Shirley Kincade will manage a fully equipped book store for Schoolcraft, that will be located in the basement of the Campus Center.

Grant expands College microfilm library

Schoolcraft College has received a $5,000 grant under the Higher Education Act of 1965, for the acquisition of library materials, President Eric J. Bradner has announced.

The grant has made possible the addition of microfilmed back issues of one newspaper and four periodicals to the library's reference section.

They include The New York Times, daily and Sunday issues of 1956 through 1961 with indexes; Time, from 1923 through 1957; Saturday Review (of Literature) from 1924 through 1950; New Republic, from 1914 through 1956; and Partisan Review, volumes 1 through 22.

Acquisition of the four periodicals completes the library's collection of each publication from its first to its current issue, according to Librarian Patrick Butler.

The Schoolcraft library, Butler said, now receives regularly issues of 368 different publications. These include 302 magazines and periodicals, 13 daily and weekly newspapers, 16 indexes and 37 U.S. government periodicals. In addition, the library has 580 bound volumes of many of the general circulation periodicals.

Designated as an official U.S. government document depository, the library has nearly 2,900 documents on file. This collection, Butler explained, is the only one of its kind in the college district.

"Heels quickly wear out a welcome mat."

The library's book collection totaled 22,163 titles at the close of the college academic year on June 30, Butler said. This is an increase of more than 5,000 over the previous year.

Resources of the Schoolcraft library, Butler pointed out, are available to all residents of the college district for reference use in the library. Library hours are 7:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Area housing on upswing despite tight money market

Authorization for new dwelling units in the four County Detroit region (Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw, and Wayne Counties) during the first six-months of 1966 showed a 7 percent increase over the same period in 1965. According to the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission, a total of 16,695 residential units were permitted for construction during the first half of 1966 as compared to 15,672 units for the corresponding 1965 period. Continuing a trend began in 1962, the recorded increases are again attributable to multiple permits (apartments). Multiples recorded an increase of 22 percent, rising from 5,728 in the first half of 1965 to 7,016 in 1966. Each of the counties registered increases over the 1965 activity except for Macomb County. The Macomb County decrease is largely due to the sewer ban imposed on the county by the Michigan Department of Health. In general, the housing activity in the region, as in the nation, has been dampened by tightening of the mortgage market. Other areas across the nation have already felt the effects of this tighter mortgage market, by experiencing a decrease in housing activity. It would be reasonable to assume that as the money market in the Detroit Area becomes more stringent, it's very likely Detroit will also experience a slow down in housing activity.

Plymouth Township reported 233 new homes in the first six months, and the City of Plymouth 89. The City also recorded 127 new apartment units.

Livonia schools hire four Plymouthites

Four Plymouth residents have signed contracts to teach in the Livonia Public School system this fall. They are: Charles B. Horn of 46682 Danbridge, who holds a B.S. degree from the University of Tampa and will teach 6th grade at Wilcox Elementary School; Mrs. Jill C. Mannisto of 5400 Curtis Road, who holds a B.A. degree from the University of Florida and a M.A. from the University of Michigan and will teach speech correction; Mrs. Kathryn Stevenson of 1199 S. Sheldon, who holds B.S. and M.M. degrees from the University of Michigan and will teach vocal music in one of the elementary schools; and Miss Sharon Taylor of 1047 York, who holds a B.A. degree from Michigan State University and will teach English at Bentley High School. The rapidly growing 39 square mile school district currently employs some 1,500 educators to teach and counsel its 35,000 students.

Parents, son join in college orientation

Mr. and Mrs. F. Jerry Brown, Plymouth recently "enrolled" in college for one day to become oriented to college life. The local couple and some 220 other parents of new students at Monmouth College attended a unique parent orientation program on the Monmouth campus. The program, now in its fourth year, brings parents of new students to the campus for a day. The local couple's son, Pat, will be entering Monmouth this fall as a freshman.

Daniel M. Jones

Army Reserve Private First Class Daniel M. Jones, 24, is at Fort Clayton, Canal Zone, for two weeks of annual summer training with his Ann Arbor (Mich.) Reserve unit. During the training, scheduled to end Aug. 5, Pvt. Jones and other members of the 260th Command Information Detachment are assigned to the Southern Command Network radio and television station at Fort Clayton. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam M. Jones, 1260 Linden, Plymouth, Mich., is a clerk typist with the 206th, which will return to Ann Arbor on completion of training.

UNTIL SEPT. 1

Art display will remain at Library

A special exhibit of wall hangings by Plymouth High School art students and their teacher, Mrs. Jessie Hudson, will be on display at the library until Labor Day. The library is open 10 to 9 Monday through Thursday; 10 to 5:30 Friday, and closed all day Saturday.

Using old fashioned techniques for new and modern designs, the students combine felt, burlap, cord and rug yarn.

Janice Appleton used applique and embroidery to make a geometric design on black cloth.

Carole Decker ingeniously combined colored burlap shapes with embroidery using pulled burlap threads.

Sue Young used a hot pink background with burlap and upholstery shapes with yarn and burlap stitching.

Sharon Robinson's red burlap hanging has an oriental motif with a stylized cat.

Diane Wheeler chose geometric patches of muted gold, orange and black on a white burlap background.

Sandy Bauman's bold orange felt design seems symbolic of this wheel driven world.

Mary Holmes' woven hanging uniquely combines large shapes of cloth woven into the warp.

Karen Smith hooked a prize winning rug in blues and greens, then embroidered an interesting tapestry from the remaining pieces of yarn.

Besides the work of the students there are six tapestries by Mrs. Hudson.

New Books

Tired adults At Dunning Hough

"The Crusades" by Zoe Oldenbourg is a history which presents the thesis that the crusades were not "Christian Wars", but the final expression of a "pagan death wish".

"The Tired Adult's Guide To Backyard Fun with Kids" by Vergie Edwards presents hundreds of stunts, games, and activities for the 7 to 12 age bracket.

"Maximilian's Gold" by Jane Barry is a suspenseful novel about a quest for gold in Mexico in 1867 by five former Confederate soldiers and a mountain man.

"Surgeon U.S.A.", a new Frank Slaughter novel, recounts the experiences of Dr. Bruce Graham in the army during World War II.

"A Door Fell Shut", a novel of intrigue by Martha Albrand, is set in divided Germany and concerns a Communist official who disappears somewhere in East Berlin.

"The Age of Baroque" by Michael Kitson features a brief history of the period plus 200 illustrations of the art work, many in color - architecture, sculpture, portraits, landscapes, interior decoration.

"The Running Foxes" by Joyce Stranger is an animal story which should appeal to all ages. Set in England, the central characters are a wily vixen, her two cubs, and the men who hunt them.

"Complete Guide to Family Camping" by William A. Riviere describes and evaluates the new camping equipment and gives numerous tips on techniques of building campfires, safety rules, woodcraft, etc.

W. E. man retires

Traveling, farming and a continued interest in his home at 20155 Whipple Drive, Northville, will occupy the leisure time of William W. McKeel who retired from Western Electric Company recently.

He was a department chief in charge of production and inspection at the Michigan Distribution Center at 909 N. Sheldon Road.

McKeel joined the Western Electric Company at Hawthorne Works, Cicero, Illinois, in 1923 as an assembler and inspector.

He returned to college in 1926 but was back at Hawthorne for the summer of 1928 and returned to Western at the Detroit Distributing House in June of 1929 for good. During his more than 38 years of service he held assignments of service chief, methods investigator and production supervisor prior to his present assignment.

City of Plymouth Minutes

Monday, July 18, 1966

A regular meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Monday, July 18, 1966 at 7:30 p.m.

PRESENT: Comms. Hudson, Jabara, Lawton, McKeon, Smith, Vallier and Mayor Houk.

ABSENT: None.

Moved by Comm. Jabara and supported by Comm. McKeon that the minutes of the regular meeting of July 5, 1966 be approved as written. Carried unanimously.

The Clerk presented the following bills, in the amount of $83,754.05:

Moved by Comm. McKeon and supported by Comm. Jabara that the bills, in the amount of $83,754.05, be allowed and warrants drawn, subject to completion of the audit by the auditing committee. Carried unanimously.

The Clerk presented the following reports for the month of June: Assessor, Building Safety, D.P.W., Fire, Health, Municipal Court, Survey and Treasurer.

Moved by Comm. McKeon and supported by Comm. Vallier that the above reports be accepted and placed on file. Carried unanimously.

Comm. Jabara requested that a study be made of interest rates that can be charged by the city.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Michigan Municipal League advising that the annual conference will be held in Detroit on September 6-9, 1966.

Moved by Comm. Jabara and supported by Comm. Hudson that the City Manager be authorized to reserve one room for the period of the conference. Carried unanimously.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Suburban Checker Cab Company requesting an increase in taxi meter rates from 40¢ for the first 1/3 mile and 10¢ for each additional 1/3 mile, to 50¢ for the first 1/4 mile and 10¢ for each additional 1/4 mile, and waiting time from $3.00 per hour to $4.00 per hour. The Clerk also presented a communication from the Chamber of Commerce recommending that the Commission re-consider the rate increase.

Mr. Larges of Checker Cab Co. stated that increased insurance rates, taxes, etc., are the basis for requesting the increase, however, Mr. Florence of the Mayflower Cab Co stated that he was not in need of an increase. Comm. Vallier requested the Checker Cab Co. to submit justification for a rate increase to the City Commission in writing.

Moved by Comm. Hudson and supported by Comm. Jabara that the matter of an increase in the taxi meter rates be tabled pending an investigation of other communities as to the service being rendered and a report be made at the next regular meeting.

YES: Comms. Hudson, Jabara, Smith and Mayor Houk. NO: Comms. Lawton, McKeon and Vallier. Motion carried.

The Clerk presented a communication from the Plymouth Community Fund requesting permission to erect a barometric sign in Kellogg Park during its campaign from October 11 to November 4, 1966, said sign to be erected at the city's expense as a plus contribution to the cause.

Moved by Comm. Jabara and supported by Comm. McKeon that the Community Fund be allowed to have a sign erected in Kellogg Park, as outlined above. Carried unanimously.

The Clerk presented a communication from N. Timothy Baxter presenting a claim for injuries incurred while utilizing the Dunning-Hough Library. The communication was ordered received and the matter referred to the city's insurance carrier.

The Clerk presented a communication from Dr. Charles J. Westover requesting that the existing eleven foot building setback on S. Harvey Street at Ann Arbor Trail, as established by the Master Thoroughfare Plan, be removed.

Moved by Comm. Lawton and supported by Comm. Jabara that the City Manager be instructed to meet with Dr. Westover to determine whether or not during the course of the sale of his property the city could acquire by purchase a 2-foot strip of land along Harvey Street and report back to the commission at the next regular meeting.

YES: Comms. Hudson, Jabara, Lawton, McKeon and Vallier. NO: Comm. Smith and Mayor Houk. Motion carried.

The City Manager presented a report with regard to the Wayne County Health Department food establishment inspections. The report was ordered received and filed.

The City Manager presented a report with regard to the status of the refuse collection problem, advising that arrangements are being worked out with merchants and recommending a change in the contract with J. & H. Trucking Company for collections from apartment buildings. The report was ordered received and filed.

The City Manager presented a report from Police Chief Fisher with regard to parking in the alley adjacent to and the street in front of 344 Amelia Street, advising that tickets have been issued to persons blocking the alley, and that he has requested the D.P.W. to further designate the alley by additional painting of lines and designations. The report was ordered received and filed.

Comm. Vallier requested that reports be made at the next meeting of the progress on the D.P.W. garage building and a list of who still have parking permits for parking on the streets between 2 a.m. and 6 a.m. and the reasons for having the permits.

The following resolution was offered by Comm. Hudson and supported by Comm. Jabara:

WHEREAS, Fr. Alfred Renaud has contributed immeasurably to the community in the areas of its spiritual life, its youth and its community services, and

WHEREAS, most recently he has done an outstanding job as Chairman of the Plymouth Area Human Relations Commission, and

WHEREAS, Fr. Renaud's transfer to a new parish is a loss to the community, but the fruits of his labors will continue to be felt in years to come.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the City Commission of the City of Plymouth accept the resignation of Fr. Alfred Renaud from the Plymouth Area Human Relations Commission, with regrets, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the City Commission, on behalf of the citizens of the City of Plymouth, extend its sincere thanks and appreciation to Fr. Renaud for the outstanding contributions he has made to the community, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that a Certificate of Appreciation be awarded to Fr. Renaud in recognition of his services to the City of Plymouth. Carried unanimously.

Moved by Comm. Hudson and supported by Comm. Smith that Certificates of Appreciation be issued to Byron Becker as a member of the Building Board of Appeals, and to Richard Erdelyi as a member of the Board of Heating Examiners. Carried unanimously.

The following resolution was offered by Comm. Hudson and supported by Comm. McKeon:

Carried unanimously.
The Mayor appointed Kenneth Fisher and William Ray as Refrigeration Department members, for an indefinite term, Cameron Lodge, Sr. and Jules Eder as Refrigeration Contractor members, terms to expire June 30, 1967 and June 30, 1969, respectively, and Joseph West as the Refrigeration Equipment User member, term to expire June 30, 1968, to the Refrigeration Board of Examiners.

Moved by Comm. Smith and supported by Comm. Jabara that the appointments by the Mayor to the Refrigeration Board of Examiners be approved. Carried unanimously.

The Mayor re-appointed Kenneth Fisher, Ernest Henry, Roland Lutz, George Lawton, John Olendorf, Clifford Smith and Marvin Terry to the Plymouth Police Youth Club Committee, term to expire June 30, 1967.

Moved by Comm. Smith and supported by Comm. Hudson that the re-appointments by the Mayor to the Plymouth Police Youth Club Committee be approved. Carried unanimously.

It was decided that a Committee-of-the-Whole meeting will be held on August 8, 1966 at 7:30 p.m. to discuss the Insurance Coverage Report.

Comm. Lawton suggested that the Area Recreation Committee consider the Beck Road Well Field property for a possible park and recreation area and also the cleaning up of the various lakes in the area for recreational and swimming purposes. It was also suggested that the Steering Committee of the Hillside Conference Group also investigate the matter of cleaning the Upper Middle Rouge River.

The matter of speeding on N. Evergreen Street from Penniman Ave. to Farmer Street was discussed. Mr. Dale Boye and Mr. Arnold A. Pliitcha were present and suggested that a Stop Sign be placed at Blanche Street. The consensus of the Commission was to erect a Stop Sign on Evergreen Street at Blanche Street on a trial basis.

Moved by Comm. Smith and supported by Comm. Hudson that the meeting be adjourned. Carried unanimously.

Time of adjournment was 10:45 p.m.

YOUR PRESCRIPTION
THE BIGGEST BARGAIN IN HISTORY

"Cool as a Cucumber"
An Ancient Greek Remedy

CAN YOU AFFORD TO GET SICK?

You often hear someone say: "Only the very rich or the very poor can afford to get sick these days. The rich can afford the finest medical treatment, and the poor get it for nothing." This may be true so far as hospital and doctor bills are concerned. But it definitely doesn't apply to prescriptions. At an average price of $3.35 per Rx ... at a total annual cost to the average family of only $46.25 for all its prescription needs ... it's obvious that ...

TODAY'S PRESCRIPTION IS THE BIGGEST BARGAIN IN HISTORY

Litho goes into playoffs

University Litho, this year's Class 'F' title winners, was led by three boys who each had a better than .500 batting average, for the fourteen game season.

Phil Cruce was the leading hitter at .522, with Charles Wolfbe at .512, and Charles Prochazka at .511. Cruce hit five home runs.

The pitching staff hurled five no-hitters. These were shared by Scott Taylor, Prochazka, Jon Cederberg and Dan Williams. Only once during the season was a pitcher called upon for more than four innings. Games were usually pitched by two boys, according to coach Vern Schilawske.

Today, Wednesday, August 10, the team will start the District and Regional playoffs for the State Championship at Ford Field, Livonia, at 5:30 p.m. They play the winner of a Livonia-Inkster game.

Because of vacations and injuries, the team will be somewhat at disadvantage. In a practice session last week, Brad Truax, regular center-fielder, suffered a broken jaw when hit by a thrown ball.

LEARNING how to make ice cream are over 40 members of the YMCA, headed by Tony Monte. They toured the Cloverdale Dairy building on Forest Ave. last Friday and learned that the company processes 1500 gallons of milk a day, and makes an average of 1800 gallons a day of various flavors of ice cream. Joe Rudd, partially blocked by the pipe from which ice cream flows, is the Cloverdale ice cream expert. The YMCA members saw the pasteurization process, and the cooling and bottling processes for milk, as well as the mixing and hardening processes for ice cream.

Optimists boom along; unbeaten in playoffs

The Optimists appear to be headed for a repeat of last year's thrilling season-end play.

If they win one of the next two games, they will go to the state finals in Jackson, on August 15.

In the finals, they have: Beaten Adray Appliance 5-4. Beaten Earl Morrall 4-3. Beaten Dearborn Heights 5-3.

After finishing in a third place tie with the Giants in the regular season, have gone on to win three straight games in playoffs.

In the last game Ron Boyne

Softball

Four games were decided by one point in softball play last week.

Evans edged Paragon 8-7, DeHoCo surprised Lutherah 6-5 in the seventh inning, Waltons nudged Eckles 10-9, and Evans slipped past Vico 9-8.

In other scores, Arbor View beat Vico 10-3, and Bathey shutout RCA 7-0. Perfection trounced RCA 9-2.

The season ends next week.

The standings:

Tafts	12	1
Perfection	9	2
Arbor View	10	3
Waltons	8	4
Eckles	8	5
Bathey	6	7
DeHoCo	6	8
Evans	5	7
Lutheran	5	8
Vico	5	9
Paragon	1	11
RCA	1	12

Pam Kloote best in freestyle

At the Outdoors State Championship Swimming Meet held in Grand Rapids on Saturday, Pamela Kloote, thirteen-year-old student at Junior High East, won first place in the 100 yard freestyle for girls in the time of 1:03.

Representing Garden City Parks and Recreation, Pam captured her second first place award swimming the anchor leg of the 200 yd. freestyle relay and will be pitted against the winners of the Livonia-Dearborn Heights game.

They remain the only undefeated team in the playoffs. Should they lose both of the next two games, they still are assured a berth in the Inter City finals.

event which Garden City won in the time of 1:58.9.

In her only other event Pam swam the backstroke leg of the 200 yd. medley relay and her team took second place honors in a close race with a powerful Flint team.

In the same meet, Bill Kloote placed sixth in the 200 yard freestyle for boys and eighth in the 50 yard freestyle event. Ann Arbor won the meet.

Fishers has nine who bat over .300

Class 'E' Champs, Fisher Shoes, will go into the playoffs tonight, Wednesday, at Ford Field in Livonia at 5:30 p.m. meeting the winner of a Livonia-Inkster game.

Fishers finished the season with some surprising statistics: 12 wins, and one tie, and a team batting average of .425.

The pitching staff roster shows Adams won two games, Mike Gooch one, Kellman three, Carl Lee two, Van Lee one, and Larry Wasalaski, three.

The tie came last week in a game with University Litho, which ended in a 10-10 deadlock.

Kiwanians earn trophy for Circle K program

Schoolcraft College is the first custodian of the Clayton H. Nichols Memorial Award, presented by Michigan Kiwanis Clubs for the best job of Circle K club sponsorship. The award, a handsome trophy, was earned in its inaugural year by four area Kiwanis clubs which co-sponsored the Circle K club at Schoolcraft. The club was chartered on Oct. 20, 1964.

The four sponsoring clubs are Livonia Kiwanis, Livonia Central Kiwanis, and Kiwanis clubs in Garden City and Plymouth. The trophy was presented to the sponsors at the state Circle K convention April 29-May 1, at Oakland Community College.

On Tuesday night (Aug. 2), at a ceremony at the Plymouth Kiwanis club meeting, the trophy was presented to Dr. Eric J. Bradner, Schoolcraft president and a member of the Plymouth club.

Kiwanians who played leading roles in organizing the Schoolcraft Circle K included Joe West, Plymouth; Dr. Gerald Fitch, Plymouth, Dist. 6 representative; and Walter Green, Livonia. The Schoolcraft Circle K

Serving our Country

John S. Grieger Army Cadet John S. Grieger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Grieger, 16080 Northville Rd., Plymouth, is participating in weapons training with the M-14 rifle (caption 1), and M-60 machinegun (caption 2), at Fort Riley, Kan. He is undergoing six weeks Reserve Officer Training Corps summer training. He is receiving instruction in military skills which will qualify him for acceptance as a commissioned officer in the Army Reserves upon graduation from school.

His training includes weapons handling, leadership, small unit fare. Instruction in logistics, exercise of command and Army administrative procedures are also part of the program. The summer encampment is scheduled to end Aug. 5. Cadet Grieger is a student at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Tips from the STOP & SHOP CHEF Questions & Answers

Is there any rule for using garnitures? When, for example, should one use parsley and when watercress?

There are no hard and fast rules for garnitures. Keep in mind only that a garniture is meant to enhance the appearance of a preparation, not to overwhelm it. In short, keep it simple. In restaurants, watercress is generally used as a garnish for grilled meats, parsley as a decoration for fish and meats that have been sauteed or poached. But there is no reason why they may not be used interchangeably.
