Police union extends contract for 1 year

Annual starting wage dropped by $6,000

By Gary M. Cates
staff writer

A collective bargaining agreement has been reached with the Plymouth Police Officers Association (PPOA).

Wage reopener discussions this month between the city and PPOA have actually resulted in a new contract, according to Gerald Radovic, PPOA bargaining agent.

The major change in the agreement is a reduced starting wage, down from $21,050 a year to $15,000 a year, Radovic said.

The two sides recently entered negotiations for a wage reopener clause. The contract was scheduled to expire at the end of next June, but the discussions resulted in a one-year extension of the existing contract — taking the agreement through the end of June 1986.

There now is a wage reopener clause for June 1985, according to City Manager Henry Graper.

THE LOWER starting wage comes as no surprise.

The department currently is three men short and those vacancies are scheduled to be filled in the near future.

The new starting wage is structured so that after one year, a new officer's wages are increased to $16,000, followed by two equal raises in the next two years to the top wage of $28,500 a year, Graper said.

Next June's wage reopener will not affect the scale set up for starting officers.

The union also agreed to talk with the city if the administration wants to put a health insurance proposal on the table, he said.

"We are always willing to discuss anything with the employer if it's something that is going to benefit the employer and the employees," Radovic said.

IN OTHER police business, Graper said the search for a police chief is continuing.

The city already has received 30 applications for the position and still is accepting applications.

Graper currently is screening the applications, narrowing them down, and getting prepared for interviews.

The city manager earlier said he is looking for a chief who "is not a traditional policeman" and can live with the concept of a public safety department — even though the plan for combining the police and fire departments is on the shelf until a police study is completed.

Mayor David Pugh announced recently that the city was commissioning a study of the police department. The study will determine the proficiency of the officers as well as whether city residents are getting what they pay for.

The city study comes at the same time Plymouth Township is conducting a similar study. The city sells police service to the township as part of a $460,000 a year contract.

The township study is being done to determine if the intergovernment contract is the best method of providing service.

Graper plans to meet today with representatives of the Arthur Young accounting firm to discuss the city study.

"They have a consulting group with some experts in police," he said.

The township study is being conducted by a volunteer committee, working in conjunction with a police consultant, Robert Parsons.

The fate of the $460,000 a year contract likely will be decided shortly after both municipalities complete their studies.

Bowling Hall of Fame will honor 2 residents

By W.W. Edgar
staff writer

When the doors to the Detroit Bowlers Hall of Fame open in December two prominent Plymouth area bowlers, who were among the elite at the peak of their careers, will be honored.

In special and impressive services they will be inducted and then presented with plaques that will contain their pictures and similar plaques will be placed in special cases in the Detroit Historical Museum.

The two honorees are Lois Hoffman McAllister of McAllister Market on Northville Road at 5 Mile and Bob Hitt of Ann Street, Plymouth, who has been a friend of the hundreds along his milk route for years.

The honorees were selected by a joint committee of bowling officials. Also entering the Bowlers Hall of Fame will be Cass Sicilia, executive secretary of the Bowling Proprietors Association, and Pete Carter in the deceased category.

McALLISTER WAS a member of the "Gears by Enterprise" team which captured the first Women's International Bowling Congress tournament for the city of Detroit (and the State of Michigan in 1949.)

As a member of this team, captained by Agnes Ekstrom, now the president of the Detroit Women's Bowling Association, they won three state and four Detroit championships along with excelling in the minor events.

Along the way McAllister had a high game of 289 and a high series of 701 with a 193 average.

She is the daughter of the late Clarence Hoffman, who owned the Livonia Lanes on Plymouth Road. It was there that she learned the game and was marked a champion prospect from the beginning.

These high prospects for her were dealt a blow when she was stricken with rheumatic fever and had to quit the game. But she didn't leave bowling, as she helped organize many successful senior citizen and junior leagues.

HITT, A NATIVE of Bryan, Ohio, came to Detroit and later to Plymouth as a young man and was an extraordinary bowler from the start during the late '50s and '60s.

Tax relief allows plastics firm to revamp facility

Property tax relief has been granted to Key International Manufacturing, which recently consolidated operations at the former Associated Spring plant on Plymouth Road.

Following public hearings on the company's requests Tuesday night, Plymouth Township trustees voted unanimously to award two Industrial Facilities Exemption Certificates one for plant rehabilitation and one for new facilities.

Key International's A-Line Plastics

Division moved into the plant earlier this year, consolidating its Farmington Hills and Walled Lake operations.

A-Line Plastics is an injection molder of plastic parts for the automotive industry. The Plymouth Township facility will be used for the molding, painting and assembly of plastic car parts.

Under the provisions of the plant rehabilitation certificate, the state equalized valuation (SEV) of the plant will remain at the current level ($550,000) for 12 years. This will allow the company to make improvements to the structure without increasing its property taxes for 12 years.

Associated Spring, a member of the Barnes Group, closed the Plymouth Township plant last year in an attempt to cut North American losses. They subsequently sold the facility to A-Line Plastics.

ACCORDING TO A-Line's tax relief application, the facility needs an estimated $800,000 worth of work.

The company plans to "improve the floor surface, install improved and adequate fire protection systems, rework and reinstall crane way, add extensive electrical conduit, air lines and production temperature control systems for support of production equipment, repair and resurface a portion of the floor, relocate air makeup systems, install material supply systems, and repair the parking lot, building facade and roof."

Under the provisions of the new facility certificate, the company will receive 12 years of 50-percent property tax abatement on all new equipment moved into the plant.

A-Line plans to buy $3-million worth of equipment between now and Dec. 31, 1987. Each piece of equipment bought during that time will receive 12 years of abatement starting from the day it is acquired.

The exemption was sought for a production expansion program in four areas: injection molding capability, mold and tool making capability, and part painting and decorating capability.

According to Jim Rose, vice president of the plastics group, the relocation has brought 200 jobs into the area. The company is working 24 hours a day, seven days a week, he said.

"The reason for a lot of the jobs is that people from Walled Lake decided not to move with the plant," Rose said.

"We're glad to be in the township; our experience has been very good," he said.

So long to the foot-long business

After spending 28 years behind the counter at the A&W stand on Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth Charles "Chuck" Moore said goodbye last weekend and moved into retirement.

Prior to leaving he sold the building and lot to Dick Scott, the Buick dealer who is planning a major enlargement of his dealership.

As he looked around the A&W stand that has been his main interest for close to three decades Moore said that he has no plans for retirement but will take things as they come from day to day.

A&W drivein sells out

"I've seen a lot of changes in my time here," he said, "and they have all helped to keep the street active. But I couldn't tell which was the most important."

"I do know that I have seen children grow to manhood. I can recall them coming here with their parents. And now many of them are back with their own children."

WHILE HE has spent 28 years in Plymouth, he really got his start back home in Iowa where he grew up in the soft drink business.

"My parents had a place and they started me when I was just 12 years old. I have known nothing else in a business way since then."

When the family left Iowa it came to Ann Arbor with an A&W franchise.

Moore handled that for a time and then came to Plymouth where he has been active not only in his business but also in charity work.

A member of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club, he is always among the bell ringers for the Salvation Army at Christmas time and engages in other charitable activities throughout the year.

"I don't know what I am going to do now," he said when talking of his retirement. "I have no future plans, but I hope to keep busy at something, but I sure will miss the A&W stand and the customers I have come to know over the years."

State tests to be given

State-mandated tests in math and reading will be administered soon to all 10th graders in the school district.

The exams are the Michigan Educational Assessment Program (MEAP) mandated by the Michigan Department of Education.

This year Plymouth Canton High sophomores have been selected to be tested in health education. Selected students also will be tested in physical education. Both the health ed and phys ed tests are part of a pilot project.

Test results will be available from counselors.

Parents are asked to make sure their 10th grade students attend school on the days of testing. Testing may require one full day during school hours. Classes missed will be considered excused (absences excluded).

The test schedule for Canton High is:

Tuesday, Sept. 25, A-Da; Wednesday, Sept. 26, Db-Jo; Thursday, Sept. 27, Jp-Mz; Tuesday, Oct. 2, N-Sh; Wednesday, Oct. 3, Si-Z; Thursday, Oct. 4, make-up day. The test schedule for Salem High is: Tuesday, Sept. 25, A-C; Wednesday, Sept. 26, D-H; Thursday, Sept. 27, I-Mc; Tuesday, Oct. 2, Md-Sa; Wednesday, Oct. 3, Sb-Z; Thursday, Oct. 4, make-up day.

A test orientation will be held on Thursday.

The orientation schedule for Plymouth Canton High School is: Thursday, Sept. 20, first hour, students last name A-Da, second hour Db-Jo, third hour Jp-Mz, fifth hour N-Sh, sixth hour Si-Z.

The orientation schedule for Plymouth Salem High School is: Thursday, Sept. 20, first hour A-C, second hour D-H, third hour I-Mc, fifth hour Md-Sa, and sixth hour Sb-Z.

Former school board member Flossie Tonda works in the clothing bank she set up in 1978. From the mobile classroom behind Central Middle School, she operates a special service for those who need clothing. The clothing bank draws on the support of the schools and residents.

The kids still are No. 1 with Flossie

By Diane Frea
staff writer

To Flossie Tonda, there is nothing more depressing than sending a child to a school where he or she may not learn anything.

Preventing that has motivated her during eight years of work on the Plymouth-Canton Board of Education. Tonda's second term expired in June and she did not seek re-election.

Tonda's husband Tony retired a year ago from General Motors and Tonda said she "decided not to run again and just enjoy retirement." Tonda said she was thankful for the extra time during her husband's bout with colon cancer and recent hospital stays.

The school clothing bank that Tonda organized in 1976 and still operates in a mobile classroom behind Central Middle School also will occupy some of her free time.

Tonda said lately she has been keeping very busy with summertime gardening and canning, baby-sitting for her two grandchildren and a renewed interest in golf. Travel plans to Florida also are up for consideration.

TONDA HAS witnessed a lot of change since first appointed to the board in 1976.

"Parents in this community were more concerned 10 years ago. Maybe they don't think they need that involvement. But kids take more pride in their schools if parents are involved," Tonda said.

Through the years, the issues of random selection, school boundaries, modular scheduling and open classrooms have confronted the board.

For the most part, the students adjust more easily to the changes than the parents do, Tonda said.

On the recommendation of the board's boundaries committee, computerized random selection to determine where a student would go to high school was instituted in the 1970s. Tonda said a lot of parents prefer the traditional boundary system.

Tonda said the eight years of modular scheduling at the high school in which the school day is divided into 20-minute modules were good for the self-motivated students, but handicapped others.

"I WAS IN favor of it when it first went into effect. The teachers were all serviced."

The detriments of modular scheduling, Tonda said, were having to hire teachers who were unfa-

*Editor's note: Residents of the Plymouth-Canton community are invited to attend a "Flossie Fest," slated for 7 p.m. tomorrow at the Roman Forum Restaurant, on Ford Road just west of I-275. Following a "social hour" will be a New York strip steak/seafood platter dinner, and a program. For tickets ($14), call 453-5659 or 397-1000, ext. 225. miliar with the system and the lack of money for inservice programs.

"The administration spent a lot of time controlling students and putting out fires," Tonda said. Finally they did away with it, she said.

The open classroom concept, which still is practiced at Eriksson, Field and Hulsing elementary schools, "frightened a lot of parents in the beginning," Tonda said.

"People are always a little bit leery about trying something new."

Despite its detractors, the open classroom hasn't proved harmful to students, Tonda said. "They can't prove through test scores that children are suffering academically. There's no proof that it's unsound."

CURRENT DISCUSSION about remodeling the schools to close the classrooms concerns Tonda.

"The teachers have adjusted; the kids have adjusted. Why ask taxpayers to spend the money to redo them?" She said some estimates place the cost of remodeling equal to building.

Tonda said that the school board's first goal is "to see that each child has an equal education."

Some issues hindering that goal in the future could be boundary changes, declining enrollments in the middle schools, changing graduation requirements, and the need for technical or computer education.

"The public is going to ask the board for more math, science and English requirements," Tonda said. "Many parents are shocked by the current requirements, not realizing that many students lack more."

THE COMPUTER SKILLS area has parents and administrators alike concerned, Tonda said.

"Computers take money for software, repair and in-service training," Tonda said. "The board is very concerned. They're on top of the need and want to fill the need."

Local PTOs have conducted fund-raisers to buy computer equipment for their schools, but the board of education still must decide on an equitable way of distributing the schools' computer money and equipment.

"I'd prefer parents working with the board to share and help all the kids. It would be such a great thing if all parents cared and had time, but that's not being realistic," Tonda said.

"Some schools don't have the parent participation," she said, cautioning against punishing the children for the kind of parents they have.

Tonda said parents can build a good relationship between themselves and their child's teachers by having monthly conferences and asking what the goals and expectations of their child will be.

"Parents can help their children attain their goals and help the teacher," she said.

INSPIRE OF her retirement from the school board, Tonda said she will always retain an active interest in its activities.

She's reluctant to go to the meetings, however, "because I don't want the board to think I'm checking on them," she said.

Staff photos by Bill Bresler

After many years of service, Tonda has left the school board to enjoy retirement with her husband, Tony. The diligent worker says the school board's first goal is 'to see that each child has an equal education.' Her work with the clothing bank insures that each child has warm clothes to wear.

Knut Molaug and Bev Hoisington discuss the automated catfish-feeding system being tried out as a pilot project in Mississippi and possibly soon to be introduced in New Brunswick, Canada. Above is a diagram of how the system operates.

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Resident pilots automatic catfish feeding system

Catfish farmers once again are tickled to the gills to hear from Plymouth resident Beverly Hoisington.

Hoisington was instrumental in bringing the catfish fry to the Mayflower Hotel Hot Air Balloon Festival in 1983. Now she is working on a way to grow bigger and better catfish — at a lower cost.

Hoisington is a partner in Akva America, a company working toward adapting a Norwegian fish-feeding system to catfish farming.

"The Akvamarina Dinner Bell automated catfish-feeding system is an adaptation of the basic Akvamarina feeding system used for salmon and trout in Norway," Hoisington said.

The system was invented by Hoisington's partner, Ole Molaug, and is considered a scientific approach to fish feeding.

Molaug is no stranger when it comes to inventions. He is a noted authority on industrial spray-finishing robots and has accrued more than 20 years experience in the research and development of robots.

In 1979, he was awarded the Joseph F. Engelberger Award from the Robot Institute of America. The award noted Molaug's contributions to the "advancement of the science of robotics in the service of mankind."

SEVERAL YEARS ago, Molaug turned his attention to an automated system of feeding the fish grown in Norwegian fjords.

The typical Norwegian fish farmer uses a boat to get to his floating cages and then feeds the fish by hand.

Because of the time and amount of work involved, the fish normally are fed only once a day.

Molaug invented a system which pumps the food to the floating cages. The amount of food, and timing of the delivery, is handled by computer.

The computer constantly measures the temperature of the water, as well as receiving input on the size and weight of the fish in the cages. The food is pumped out at certain water temperatures and varying amounts according to the average fish size.

Research has shown that fish eat when the water is at certain temperatures. Based on that, Molaug designed a system which provided smaller amounts of food when the water temperature is best, several times a day.

BRINGING THAT concept to the American catfish farms isn't a simple task. Unlike the fjords in Norway, catfish farms require other types of work.

One of the major concerns is the oxygen level in the pond, Hoisington said. So in addition to providing food, the feeding system also injects oxygen as needed.

Because excess food in a pond causes pollution, the automated feeding system reduces pond pollution because almost all of the food is eaten.

The catfish application of the system is being tested in Mississippi, Hoisington said.

"In Mississippi when it's muddy, they can never get out to the ponds to feed the fish," she said. "They can never make up the growth they lose by not feeding even one day.

"With this system, the fish can be fed regardless of the mud."

The advantage of the system, she said, is that it will feed up to eight or 12 ponds from one central location. And each pond will be assessed individually because the computer senses temperature and oxygen, and all records are kept on cassette or computer printout.

Molaug's son, Knut, said with the automated system fish can be fed up to 15 times a day rather than once — cutting food waste. With his father's system, Knut said the waste can be reduced by 15 percent.

"The average fish farmer spends 75 percent of his costs on food. You can imagine how much that adds up to if you save 15 percent," Hoisington said.

Traditionally the Mississippi catfish farmers feed the fish by blowing the food off a truck into the pond, or by flying over the ponds and blowing the food out of the plane.

The system can reduce manhours and increase profits, Knut said.

"This system can be used with any farmed fish."

The test program in Mississippi is going well, Hoisington said.

"The the catfish farmers are very excited; they have been very positive about what we're doing," she said.

Block grant funds OK'd

The city of Plymouth recently received notice that its Community Development Block Grant program has been approved for funding.

The City Commission tonight (Monday) is expected to approve purchase of a 1985 crew cab pickup truck to be used by the Senior Citizen Chore Service Program offered by the city's recreation department.

This purchase represents part of a total $73,816 grant program awarded the city. Other funds from the grant will be used for a tree and lighting program in Old Village, $5,000 for a neighborhood facility improvement, $30,016 for street improvements, $31,500 for public services, and $7,300 for administration. Since December of 1983 the city has collected nearly $110,000 from the Block Grant program and from the Wayne County Energy Conservation program.

"These funds have paid for things like the new school crossing lights on Main Street, equipment for the fire department, sidewalks and trees in Old Village, and has funded the senior citizen van transportation program along with a new van," said Paul Sincock, assistant to the city manager.

In addition at least four residents have received energy grants through a conservation grant program offered through the city.

Bowling honorees

For more than 26 years, this veteran of the U.S. Marine Corps carried a 200 average.

During his career in the all-star leagues he bowled with some of the best teams, including such legendary teams as Pfeiffer's, E&B, and Helin Tackle.

Hitt began his career in 1940 at the Parkview Lanes on Detroit's east side. As he grew older his bowling career began to stretch across the country and the Pfeiffer's team was almost unbeatable. He was named to the Detroit all-city teams in 1958 and 1959.

In the short lived pro league that made its debut in 1960, Hitt captained the St. Louis Skippers.

A graduate of Plymouth High School, Hitt has been an employee of the Twin Pines Dairy, and long has been popularly known as the Bowling Milk Man. His record includes a trio of 300 games and a mean average of 215.

The induction ceremonies will be held on Dec. 16 following the annual dinner at a location in the area that has yet to be named.

● ADULT ED CENTER OPENS

Monday, Sept. 17 — The new Adult Education Center of Plymouth-Canton Community Schools is opening this month in the building of the former Starkweather Elementary School at 550 N. Holbrook east of Mill in Old Village. Beginning the week of Sept. 17, the center will be offering job skills training, business classes, computer and word processing training, health occupations, GED classes and testing, adult basic education, child care instruction, and a job placement service. For information, call 451-6660 or 451-6555.

● AEROBIC FITNESS

Monday, Sept. 17 — Aerobic Fitness classes will be held for six-week sessions starting the week of Sept. 17 in St. John Episcopal Church on Sheldon north of Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth. Dance and exercise will be offered for beginner, intermediate and coed levels. Morning and evening classes are available Monday-Saturday. Morning child care available. For schedules and additional information, call 459-9229.

● ALCOHOL SERIES

Monday, Sept. 17 — Plymouth Family Service is offering a six-part series on alcohol and alcoholism 6:30-8:30 p.m. at 880 Wing Street, Plymouth. The series uses diagrams, films, discussions and lectures. Anyone who is, or has been, concerned or uncomfortable with their own drinking or that of a family member would benefit from the series, said David Breeden, executive director of the agency. The series also may be helpful to anyone who grew up in a home where alcohol use was a problem, he adds.

Topics will include attitudes, physiological effects of alcohol, the symptoms and phases of alcoholism and what happens to family members caught up in an alcoholic family system and how to get help. Anyone interested in attending or wanting more information may call Family Service at 453-0890. Enrollment is limited.

● YMCA FALL PROGRAMS

Monday, Sept. 17 — The Plymouth Family YMCA will hold program registration through Sept. 17 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday-Friday at 248 Union St., Plymouth. Activities include aquatic classes, health enhancement, human enrichment, wreath making, aerobics, youth football, soccer, golf and drawing, preschool ballet, tap, tumbling and Kreatives. For more information, call the YMCA at 453-2904.

● SOLAR CLASS

Tuesday, Sept. 18 — Schoolcraft College is offering a four-week course entitled "Going Solar — A Practical Approach" to help solar buyers choose a suitable system. Solar tours and talks by solar doers will be featured. Instructor is Penny Wright of Plymouth. The course meets 8-10 p.m. Tuesdays beginning Sept. 18 in Northville High School, 775 N. Center. Charge is $28. To register call 591-6400, Ext. 409.

● DYNAMIC AEROBICS

Tuesday, Sept. 18 — A Dynamic Aerobics exercise class will be 9:30-10:30 a.m. and 10:30-11:30 a.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays beginning Sept. 18 for seven weeks in the lower level of the Canton Township Administration Building, 1150 S. Canton Center Road, under the sponsorship of Canton Parks and Recreation and Wayne-Westland YMCA. Instructor is Jackie Rundell. For details, call 397-1000.

● HOSPICE MEETING

Tuesday, Sept. 18 — Anyone interested in learning more about the Hospice of Washtenaw is invited to attend an informational meeting at 7:30 p.m. at 2530 S. Main in Ann Arbor. The Hospice of Washtenaw is a non-profit health care agency which trains and utilizes volunteers in the care of the terminally ill and their families. For more information, call 995-1995.

● EAST COFFEE WITH PRINCIPAL

Wednesday, Sept. 19 — East Middle School PTSO will sponsor a Coffee With the Principal 9-10:30 a.m. in the library of the school. All East parents are welcome to attend.

● YMCA FALL RUN

Sunday, Sept. 23 — The Plymouth Community Family YMCA will hold its fifth annual Fall Run starting in Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth. Check-in and late registration will be at 7 a.m. The One Mile run begins at 8 a.m. while the 5K and 10K runs will begin at 8:15 a.m. Fee is $4 for the one mile run and $6 for the longer runs. To register or for information, call the YMCA at 453-2904.

● GIRL SCOUTS & BROWNIES

Monday, Sept. 24 — Girl Scout and Brownie troops at Smith Elementary School will hold registration now through Sept. 24. The first meeting will be Oct. 1. Troops meet each Monday after school from 3:20 to 5 p.m. All interested girls, who have not been contacted by a leader, may ask for further information at Smith School.

Open house set for CEP

Parents are invited "to walk a mile in their children's shoes" by Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

The district is staging an open house at 7:15 p.m. Monday, Oct. 1, at Centennial Educational Park (CEP).

Moms and dads will be able to spend about 1½ hours making — in fast motion — the same trips their kids do from classroom to classroom. During the "mini-classes," they'll be able to meet instructors, review learning materials and hear a little about what the teaching staff is attempting to accomplish, says Scott Beaman, a CEP English teacher who's coordinating the open house.

Parents, who will receive invitations to the open house by mail, will be asked to have their children fill out schedules indicating teachers' names, room locations and class sequence.

Beaman and Richard Egli, district director for community relations, say the open house is not intended to replace the fall conferences.

DIABETES AND ARTHRITIS

The health problems to which diabetics are prone include a number of arthritic conditions. For example, an attack of gout is more likely to occur to a diabetic than to someone who doesn't have diabetes. The reason is not completely clear, but it is related to the deleterious effects of diabetes on the kidneys. A damaged kidney is not able to rid the body of uric acid, which in high concentration, causes gout.

Diabetics who require insulin have a tendency to acquire adhesive capsulitis. In this condition, the shoulder joint capsule shrinks creating a persistent state of shoulder pain and immobility.

Because of changes in the diabetic's ability to ward off infection, transient encounters with bacteria can lead to long term illness. One expression of this lowered resistance is the risk of an infected joint.

Diabetics are prone to fractures of the bones of their feet and ankles because of damage to the nerve endings in these areas. The diabetic may have a decreased sense of touch and pain, and not receive the message to stop the activity before damage to a joint occurs.

Thus, it is necessary for diabetics to monitor their bone and joint status with the same vigilance they give to their blood sugar levels.

Schoolcraft to expand Garden City center

Schoolcraft College will have a new, larger building in Garden City beginning with the winter semester in January.

The board of trustees last week approved a lease-purchase agreement with the Garden City school board to take over the former Radcliff Junior High, 1751 Radcliff. Schoolcraft appropriated $137,400 for renovation and moving costs, a college spokesman said.

Schoolcraft will vacate the present Harrison Center at the end of this semester. The Garden City board is negotiating disposal of the Harrison building to Garden City Osteopathic Hospital.

The Harrison building has 44,000 square feet on the east side of the city. The Radcliff building has 88,000 on 10 acres of land on the west side and is expected to be more convenient for students from other parts of the Schoolcraft College District.

The college will not expand its Garden City program immediately because Garden City will continue to use about 15 Radcliff classrooms for a special education project. But a program expansion is contemplated in fall of 1985 when Schoolcraft takes over the entire building.

Madonna's 9th fund drive is launched

Madonna College will launch its ninth annual fund campaign Tuesday with the help of 76 local business executives.

Frank D. Stella, area businessman and major national fundraiser, will speak at a kick-off dinner for a campaign whose goal is $100,000 in unrestricted operating money.

John P. Landis, second vice president of Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit, is chairman of the campaign.

Madonna receives all its $10 million operating budget from student tuition, gifts and grants — none from taxes. It serves 3,900 students in its undergraduate and graduate programs, according to Sr. Mary Francilene VandeVyver, president.

Later in fall, she said, Madonna, located at Schoolcraft and Levan in Livonia, will extend its annual fund campaign to alumni, parents and friends of the college through a phone campaign.

Jobless rate at 4-year low

Summer jobseekers dropping out of the state's labor force helped lower Michigan's August unemployment rate to 10.3 percent.

That was its lowest level in more than 4 1/2 years, according to A.R. Jazowski, acting director of the Michigan Employment Security Commission (MESCC).

Jazowski said the decline was seasonal and due largely to students leaving the labor force after giving up their summer job searches.

The statewide jobless total fell by 50,000 in August to 456,000. In July, 506,000 — or 11.3 percent of the state's work force — were unemployed. A year ago, in August of 1983, Michigan's jobless rate was 13.4 percent, with 588,000 out of work.

The drop in unemployment caused the state's jobless rate to reach its lowest level since January 1980, when the rate was also 10.3 percent.

SC registering for continuing ed

Late registration for fall continuing education and community services classes at Schoolcraft College will be conducted 3-7 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 19, in the registration center of the Student Affairs Building on the Livonia campus.

Among new courses this semester are: Introduction to Mime and Clowning, Beginning Theatre, Photograph Style, Fashion and Glamour Photography, Lifedesign — a Right Brain Creation, Recovery from Rescuing, Insights for Developing Personal Power, and a clinic on Assault Prevention and Self-Defense.

A four-week course called Going Solar — a Practical Approach will meet 8-10 p.m. on Tuesdays beginning Sept. 18 in Northville High School. Instructor will be Penny Wright, environmental columnist for Observer & Eccentric Newspapers.

Registration information about any of Schoolcraft's continuing education and community services courses is available from the college at 591-6400 ext. 409 and 410.

DON'T DIE OF EMBARRASSMENT.

It starts quite innocently: you convince yourself the symptoms aren't serious. So if you sought medical help you'd just look foolish. And later it's too late.

Each year 350,000 Americans die from heart attacks before reaching the hospital. Often after a deadly, unnecessary delay. In fact, the average victim waits over three hours before consulting a doctor. Because he doesn't realize what his symptoms mean. And he doesn't want to seem silly.

Please, learn the warning signals of a heart attack. And, if you experience any of them, get help. Call a paramedic at once. Or, if you can get to an emergency room faster another way, do so. Without a second thought.

After all, saving face means nothing compared to saving your life.

WARNING SIGNALS OF A HEART ATTACK

1. An uncomfortable pressure, fullness, squeezing or pain in the center of your chest behind the breastbone.
2. The sensation may spread to your shoulders, neck or arms. If it lasts for two minutes or more, you could be having a heart attack.
3. Severe pain, dizziness, fainting, sweating, nausea or shortness of breath may also occur, but are not always present.

Presbyterians remodelled church in 1904

(Part 16)

At a general meeting on Jan. 14, 1903, the Plymouth Presbyterian Society decided to remodel for the second time the brick church built in 1848.

The minister at the time was the Rev. Thomas B. Leith. A native of Canada, Leith was a graduate of Coburg Seminary. He had served Presbyterian churches in Saline and Brighton before arriving in Plymouth. He was pastor here from 1900 to 1906. In later years he was pastor at the Milan Church.

In December 1903, prior to the remodeling, John S. Kellogg and Joel R. Kellogg conveyed to the trustees of the church a small piece of property adjacent to the public park west of Main and south of Church Streets. The Kelloggs were two of several heirs of pioneer John Kellogg.

WORK ON THE church did not begin until the spring of 1904. By that time almost $2,300 had been pledged toward the cost.

The largest contributors were C.H. Bennett and the Ladies Aid Society. Each subscribed $300. The $100 contributors included W.T. Conner, Mrs. E.W. Chaffee, Coello Hamilton, David Allen, and E.C. Leach.

Other contributors included J.D. McLaren, John H. Kellogg, Dr. A.E. Patterson, Frank J. Whitbeck, Fred F. Bennett, Charles A. Fisher, Frank B.

Park, W.H. Hoyt, Lafayette Dean, F.W. Samsen, Mary E. Conner, E.O. Huston and Nelson Schrader. Among non-members who subscribed were Peter Gayde and W.M. Sutherland. The former was a Lutheran, the latter a Methodist.

The initial subscription list totaled $2,297.

When the remodelled church was rededicated on Nov. 6, 1904, a copper box was placed in the cornerstone. When opened after the fire of 1936, the box was found to contain the sealed bottle of 1848 plus a copy of the 1904 subscription list and a paper written by E.K. Bennett.

Bennett, a director and cashier at the Plymouth United Savings Bank, wrote: "Remodelling of the church commenced June 2, 1904. Mason work by Kinner and (undecipherable) of Detroit. Carpenter work by John Lundy, Plymouth. Pastor Thomas B. Leith. Trustees, A.D. Stevens, O.H. Loomis, W.T. Conner, Burt Bennett, Harry Shattuck, C.G. Draper, A.E. Patterson, W.J. Burrows, and C.H. Bennett. Mrs. Ella Chaffee, secretary. Mrs. E.C. Leach, treasurer."

"Elders: A.D. Stevens, O.H. Loomis, J.H. Hanford, Asa Joy, D.D. McIntosh. John H. Kellogg was the only person living at this time who subscribed when the church was built in 1848. Building committee: W.J. Burrows, W.T. Conner, James Pattison, Asa Joy, E.C. Leach, peritise, patience and guidance.

Thanks to McDonald's Restaurant of Plymouth for your generous donation of coffee cream and to McCully Egg Co. for refrigeration facilities.

The city of Plymouth and the Fall Festival Board were most helpful and we are appreciative.

Most of all, a big thank you to the approximately 1,000 Festivalgoers who joined us for a nice meal. Based upon the year's sellout to Plymouth spaghetti lovers, the Jaycees say farewell to ribs, and will be back with "lotsa pasta" next year.

JC spaghetti was a success

To the editor:
The Plymouth Jaycees wish to express their appreciation to those who helped make our first spaghetti dinner at the recent Plymouth Fall Festival a sellout event. We also extend our apologies to those Jaycee supporters who came out for a meal only to discover that we had indeed sold out.

C.H. Bennett, John Betty, Frank B. Park, W.J. Burrows, secretary of building committee. E.K. Bennett, treasurer."

THE COPPER BOX also contained a booklet about Plymouth public schools of the period.

From it we learn that the board of education in 1903-4 included P.B. Whitbeck, V.E. Hill, E.C. Hough, J.B. Joliffe, and Paul W. Voorhies. Whitbeck, Hough and Joliffe were members of the church.

Voorhies, a local lawyer, went on to become attorney general of the State of Michigan in 1931-33, during the administration of Gov. Wilbur M. Brucker.

Enrollment in the high school totaled 74. There were 124 in grammar school and 236 in the primary grades. The superintendent of schools was J.E. Mealey.

Among the ten teachers was longtime church member Della Entrican. She and another church member, Mrs. Ella Chaffee was the first principal in Plymouth High, holding the position from 1881 to 1895.

Donated for installation in the remodelled church were two impressive stained-glass windows. One was from Mr. and Mrs. W.O. Allen in memory of Kate Allen's father, E.J. Penniman. The other was donated by Mr. and Mrs. W.T. McGraw of Detroit. Mrs. McGraw was the daughter of John and Louise Fuller and the granddaughter of John Kellogg who settled in Plymouth in 1832.

The renovations were completed in November 1904, at a cost of about $3,500. Alterations included changing the arrangement of the pews and adding a large room and kitchen.

The Rev. T.B. Leith was succeeded in 1906 by the Rev. Hugh N. Ronald, a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary. Ronald was a native of Marquette, Mich. This was his first church.

One of the best-known members of the church, widely known throughout the area, died at the age of 81 on Feb. 17, 1907, during the same month in which he was born. He was George Anson Starkweather, the first white child born in what later became the village of Plymouth.

A pewholder in the church as early as 1850, Starkweather served the village and the township in a number of public offices during a political career that spanned half a century. When he was 28 in 1854 he served, as a member of the newly formed Republican Party, in the Michigan State Legislature.

(To be resumed at a later date).

Sometimes the rain must fall

There is an old saying that has been handed down through the years that into each life some rain must fall.

This always has been a sort of advice to those in trouble and it is offered as a means of soothing downhearted persons in times of stress.

It is just a bit too bad that we can't control the time and place that the drops from the skies make things uncomfortable.

If we could gain this control you can bet that it never would rain in Plymouth on the day of the annual chicken barbecue sponsored by the Rotary Club.

When the skies weep on that day, Kellogg Park and the environs offer a pitiful sight. But with it all it provides an opportunity to see charity workers at their best.

Take last Sunday, for instance, when the rain dampened the entire affair and caused the Rotarians to shut off their fires when less than half the supply of chickens had been put over the charcoal fires.

It was a rather unusual sight to see

the stroller

W.W. Edgar

the empty tables all over the park. They were all in place. But not a soul was sitting on the rain-soaked chairs. Visitors, those who braved the elements, just stood there shaking their heads in pity and wondering why it would have to rain on such an occasion.

But the rain had a good side, too.

INSIDE THE Gathering where the chickens were being prepared was a group of men, the likes of which you seldom see working together. Like the old rhyme, there was the butcher, the baker and candlestick maker — except on this day there were the doctors, lawyers, bankers, real estate developers, city officials, business people — all banded together.

And in the group was the local jeweler, Fred Beitner, sitting in his wheelchair greeting the customers and friends with an air of enthusiasm that couldn't be beaten even if the sun was shining.

Fighting the smoke was Dr. John "Mike" Hoben, the superintendent of schools, unloading the chickens as they came to the end of the pit.

This was charity at its peak and it was the one day when your ranking in the city made little difference — you were just another member of a group that was battling Mother Nature with the hope that sufficient funds could be raised to take care of the needy and others on the charity roles for the coming year.

On other days and other weeks these men may be rivals in business. They may fight tooth and nail to gain their point. But on this day they are charity workers banding with one purpose in mind.

There are other times during the year when many of these men stand on the corners in bitter cold weather ringing the bells for the Salvation Army. But even that is not as demanding as trying to barbecue chicken with the rain and other elements, including smoke, fighting them.

But it is a sight to see. And while the Rotarians had to miss their goal of selling 12,000 chickens, they helped to prove that the residents of Plymouth have a heart — even in the rain and snow.

It was a sight worth seeing, even if you had to get soaked a bit while waiting for the family dinner to take home. It was charity at its best.

Tony Richardson just heard from an old friend.

Four-year-old Tony's friend is Sidney Millard, a speech and language pathologist at the Detroit Hearing and Speech Center.

As an infant, Tony came down with an infection that impaired his hearing, and ultimately interfered with his speech. But because his mother was able to turn to the Detroit Hearing and Speech Center and Sidney, Tony can expect to enter school this fall with every chance of success.

And your gift to the United Foundation helped make it possible. Because like 129 other Torch Drive supported agencies, the Detroit Hearing and Speech Center depends on your support.

So this year, remember Tony and thousands of others — the blind, the homeless, the disabled, the elderly. And then make your Torch Drive contribution this year a generous one. Because the more you give, the more good it can do.

ENTERTAINING AMERICAN-STYLE ...ELEGANT AND EASY!

American cooking draws on the rich culinary traditions of many cultures, adding a special accent all its own. What better way to celebrate this delicious diversity, and make the most of those golden late summer/early fall days, than gathering a congenial group to dine — al fresco or indoors — on a feast prepared essentially in the open air.

This tempting and rather unusual menu combines several examples of the best and freshest ingredients America offers. Even when it's too chilly to eat outdoors, fresh air cooking gives that special seasoning... food is pretty and sophisticated enough to do justice to your fine china, linens and crystal. Each dish is distinguished by great taste, good looks and the grand simplicity that characterizes our finest cuisine.

Inspired by fabled Cajun chefs, Louisiana Grilled Salmon is dressed with a zesty marinade that combines the delicate flavor of fragrant Italian olive oil and the unique, aromatic qualities of Southern Comfort. Clear, golden Bertolli Olive Oil is the favorite of savvy cooks world-over. Southern Comfort, a highly versatile native American spirit, was born in New Orleans and is, to this day, distilled according to a closely guarded family recipe. Steaks — salmon or any thick-cut fish — are cooked alongside savory Yankee Squash on a spacious Weber covered barbecue kettle, preferably over a wood-smoke fire (see below). Just a few minutes before the main course is ready to serve, add skewers of Mediterranean Herbed Bread — a variation on the famed Italian bruschetta.

Sprightly and colorful Chop Chop Salad has a West African heritage and provides a delightful counterpoint: pure olive oil — which, contrary to the myth, contains absolutely no cholesterol — complements the crisp vegetables and blends beautifully with the tart lemon juice.

To accompany the meal, a Pitcher of Cool Comfort marries the popular flavors of orange juice and Southern Comfort with the sparkle of club soda to create a refreshing spritzer. To cap it, Orange Cream Cake Deluxe pays homage to the scrumptious yet feathery light desserts of France and is crowned with two especially prized American fruits.

LOUISIANA GRILLED SALMON

6-8 salmon steaks, cut about 1-inch thick	2 teaspoons salt
1/2 cup cut-up onion	1 teaspoon dry mustard
1/4 cup Worcestershire sauce	1 teaspoon paprika
1 large clove garlic, cut into thirds	1 teaspoon Tabasco
1 tablespoon cracked black pepper	1/2 cup Bertolli Olive Oil
	3/4 cup Southern Comfort

Place fish in a single layer in a glass, pottery or stainless steel container. Place onion, garlic, Worcestershire sauce and seasonings in blender or food processor, blend or process until onion is pulverized. Add olive oil and blend or process a few seconds. Remove from container and add Southern Comfort. Pour over fish, turning steaks to coat. Cover with plastic wrap and refrigerate 3 or 4 hours, turning fish steaks once. Remove from marinade, brushing off excess. Grill over gray-ashed coals, using cover for 6-8 minutes. Carefully turn, baste with sauce. Cook another 6-10 minutes, or until fish flakes. Carefully remove from grill. Heat sauce and serve with fish. Serves 6-8. The amount of these ingredients may be reduced by half, for a less spicy flavor.

SAUCY RICE

1-1 2 cups converted rice	1 2-2 3 cup fish marinade
3 cups water	1 3 cup currants
1 2 teaspoon salt

Combine rice, water and salt in a 3-quart saucepan. Bring to a boil, stir. Cover and simmer 20 minutes. Blend in marinade and currants. Serve with fish. Serves 6-8.

MEDITERRANEAN HERBED BREAD

1 lb. loaf crusty Italian-style bread	1 teaspoon chopped fresh or dry basil
1/2 cup Bertolli Olive Oil	1 8 teaspoon minced fresh garlic or dash of garlic powder
1-2 teaspoons anchovy paste
1 teaspoon chopped fresh or dry oregano

Cut bread into thick slices or large cubes. Beat together olive oil, anchovy paste, herbs and garlic. Brush cut bread surfaces with herbed oil mixture. Thread on long skewers. Toast over gray-ashed coals until crisp and brown. Serves 6-8.

TO PREPARE COVERED KETTLE GRILL

- Open all vents and leave open during cooking.
- Spread charcoal one layer deep on grill.
- Heap charcoal in center of grill.
- Saturate briquets with lighter fluid and wait a minute or two.
- Light briquets in several places to start (leave cover off kettle while charcoal is starting).
- When briquets have a light coating of gray ash (about 30 minutes) spread them in a single layer again.
- Put cooking grill in place.

NOTE: For a special flavor to the salmon, add mesquite barbecue chunks to the charcoal several minutes before salmon is placed on grill. Soak chunks three to four hours before adding to hot coals. Four to six pre-soaked mesquite chunks will be enough to add a distinctive, smoky taste.

YANKEE SQUASH

3 medium acorn or butternut squash	1/3 cup parsley sprigs
1/3 cup Bertolli Olive Oil	1/3 cup Southern Comfort
1 tart apple, pared, cored and cut-up	1 tablespoon packed brown sugar
4 green onions (scallions) or 1/4 of a small onion	1/4 teaspoon salt
	1/4 teaspoon grated nutmeg

Cut acorn squash in half and remove seeds or cut each butternut squash in half lengthwise. Brush cut surfaces of squash with olive oil. Wrap pieces of squash in aluminum foil. Cook over gray-ashed coals for 30 minutes. Put apple, onion and parsley in blender or food processor. Blend until finely chopped. Cook and stir over medium heat the apple mixture in remaining olive oil until tender, about 5 minutes. Add remaining ingredients, cooking until flavors blend and mixture thickens, about 3 minutes. (This mixture may be made ahead of time and reheated on the grill.) Open squash packets to check doneness. If squash is not yet tender, continue cooking. Spoon apple mixture into squash cavities. Cook for additional 10 minutes. Serves 6-8.

CHOP CHOP SALAD

2 tart apples, chopped	1/2 cup chopped onion
2 firm ripe tomatoes, seeded and chopped	1/2 cup Bertolli Olive Oil
1 large green pepper, chopped	2 tablespoons fresh lemon juice
2 small cucumbers, chopped	1/2 teaspoon salt
	1 tablespoon chopped fresh mint

Combine apples, tomatoes, green pepper, cucumber and onion in a large bowl, lined with fresh greens. Combine olive oil, lemon juice, salt and mint. Pour dressing over vegetables, refrigerate. Toss before serving — garnish with carrot curls, if desired. Serves 6-8.

PITCHER OF COOL COMFORT

Ice Cubes	1 cup Southern Comfort
1 6-ounce can frozen orange juice concentrate	1 28-ounce bottle club soda

Fill a pitcher half full of ice cubes. Add frozen orange juice concentrate and Southern Comfort, stir to blend. Fill pitcher with club soda. Serves 6-8.

KISS O'MINT — Crush 6-8 sprigs of mint with 1 teaspoon sugar — add to drink.

ORANGE CREAM CAKE DELUXE

6 eggs, separated	1 tablespoon shredded orange peel
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar	1 recipe Comfort Syrup
1 cup sugar	1 recipe Cream Topping
1 cup all-purpose flour	2 oranges, cut in segments
1 teaspoon baking powder	1 pint raspberries (or strawberries)
1/2 teaspoon salt
3/4 cup orange juice

With electric mixer, beat egg whites and cream of tartar until fluffy. Add 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating until stiff peaks form. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored; add 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating until pale yellow. Reduce speed. Combine flour, baking powder and salt; alternately add flour and orange juice to egg yolks, beating to mix. Remove from mixer and fold in egg whites and orange peel. Pour into an ungreased 9- or 10-inch tube pan. Bake in a 325° oven for 35-40 minutes. Cool. Remove from pan. Cut cake in half crosswise to make 2 layers. Spoon and brush Comfort Syrup over all cake surfaces. Place one layer on serving plate with cut surface up. Spread Cream Topping over surface; arrange half the orange segments and berries over cream. Place remaining cake layer, cut side down, over berries and cream. Spread remaining cream on top of cake, arranging remaining orange segments and berries attractively. Refrigerate until serving time. Serves 8-10.

COMFORT SYRUP

2 tablespoons sugar	1/2 cup Southern Comfort
1/4 cup orange juice

Combine sugar and orange juice in a small saucepan. Bring to a boil and cook until sugar dissolves and mixture thickens slightly. Add Southern Comfort.

CREAM TOPPING

1-1/2 cups whipping cream	2 teaspoons Southern Comfort
2 tablespoons powdered sugar	1 tablespoon shredded orange peel

Beat cream and sugar until soft peaks form. Beat in Southern Comfort, stir in orange peel.

Treat yourself this winter; make some jam now

What happens when you spread homemade Peach and Plum Jam on warm, golden brown muffins? Automatically they move into an extra-special category for round-the-clock enjoyment. It's difficult to resist making this tasty jam as these succulent fruits arrive in local markets. It's all so easy, and you're assured of a good "set" because the recipe uses a handy package of powdered fruit pectin.

If you're new to jam and jelly making you may wonder why commercial fruit pectin is used. Natural pectin, which makes the fruit "jell," decreases as fruit ripens. Consequently, it is often necessary to supplement it with commercial pectin to attain a good "set." This particular jam recipe was developed specifically for powdered fruit pectin, not liquid fruit pectin, which is another commercial variety. Both are excellent and give successful results, but they are not interchangeable in recipes.

Your jam-making efforts warrant the best fruits you can find. Select firm plums, except for a slightly soft end that indicates ripeness. Refrigerate plums immediately; they will keep well from 3 to 5 days. Choose ripe peaches with a cream or yellowish background and refrigerate. Before starting the jam, prepare glasses, using directions given in the recipe leaflet tucked inside the package of powdered fruit pectin.

Prepare the fruit as directed, following directions accurately. Keep in mind that the three essential ingredients — sugar, acid and pectin — must be present in correct proportions so that the fruit will jell. Cooking time is reduced to mere minutes by adding a controlled amount of commercial fruit pectin. The short-boil method helps retain more of the fresh fruit flavor and color that might possibly boil away during a longer cooking time.

While the combination of these fruits provides a great taste experience, you may have purist leanings. In that case, file recipe for cooked Peach Jam and Plum Jam, the latter with a spiced variation. Keep a few extra packages of powdered fruit pectin on hand if you're inspired to prepare the jams.

PEACH AND PLUM JAM

5 cups prepared fruit (about 2 lbs. fully ripe peaches and 1 1/4 lb. fully ripe plums)
6 cups (2 lb. 10 oz.) sugar
1 box (1 1/4 oz.) powdered fruit pectin

First prepare the fruit. Peel, pit and finely chop or grind 2 pounds peaches. Halve, pit and chop about 1 1/4 lbs. plums; do not peel. Combine fruits and measure 5 cups into 6- or 8-quart saucepot.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Mix fruit pectin into fruit in saucepot. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a full boil. Immediately add all sugar and stir. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Ladle quickly into hot jars, filling to within 1/4 inch of top. Cover and process in boiling water bath for 5 minutes. Makes about 8 1/2 cups or about 10 (8 fl. oz.) jars.

PEACH JAM

4 cups prepared fruit (about 3 lb. fully ripe peaches)
2 tbs. lemon juice
5 1/4 cups (2 lb. 6 oz.) sugar
1 box (1 1/4 oz.) powdered fruit pectin

First prepare the fruit. Peel and pit about 3 pounds peaches. Grind or chop very fine. Measure 4 cups into 6- or 8-quart saucepot. Add lemon juice.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Mix fruit pectin into fruit in saucepot. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a full boil. Immediately add all sugar and stir. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Ladle quickly into hot jars, filling to within 1/4 inch of top. Cover and process in boiling water bath for 5 minutes. Makes about 6 1/2 cups or about 7 (8 fl. oz.) jars.

PLUM JAM

6 cups prepared fruit (about 4 lb. fully ripe plums and 1/2 cup water)

8 cups (3 1/4 lb.) sugar
1 box (1 1/4 oz.) powdered fruit pectin

First prepare the fruit. Pit about 4 pounds plums; do not peel. Cut in small pieces and chop. Place in saucepan and add 1/2 cup water. Bring to a boil; cover and simmer 5 minutes. Measure 6 cups into 6- or 8-quart saucepot.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Mix fruit pectin into fruit in saucepot. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Ladle quickly into hot jars, filling to within 1/4 inch of top. Cover and process in boiling water bath for 5 minutes. Makes about 9 1/2 cups or about 11 (8 fl. oz.) jars.

Spiced Plum Jam. Prepare Plum Jam as directed, adding 1/4 to 1/2 teaspoon each ground cloves, cinnamon and allspice to the prepared fruit.

GINGER PEACH JAM

4 1/2 cups prepared fruit (about 3 1/4 lb.

fully ripe peaches)
1/4 cup finely silvered crystallized ginger*
6 cups (2 lb. 10 oz.) sugar*
1 box powdered fruit pectin

*For stronger ginger flavor, increase ginger to 1/2 cup and reduce sugar to 5 1/2 cups (2 lb. 6 oz.)

First prepare the fruit. Peel and pit about 3 1/4 pounds peaches; finely chop or grind. Measure 4 1/2 cups into 6- or 8-quart saucepot; add ginger.

Then make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Mix fruit pectin into fruit in saucepot. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a full rolling boil and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Ladle quickly into hot jars, filling to within 1/4 inch of top. Cover and process in boiling water bath for 5 minutes. Makes about 8 cups or about 9 (8 fl. oz.) jars.

Thirst quenchers: TRY

Quench that thirst. Quench that THIRST! Party. FUN! Drinks. CHEERS! Ice. IMPORTANT!

Ten-pound bag crushed ice: cools drinks for 20 about hour. When filling ice trays, add grated lemon or lime peel before freezing. Freeze cranberry juice for zesty, colorful cubes.

Drinks. Servings! Light alcoholic or liquorless: three to four 1/2 cup drinks per person per hour.

Drinks. IDEAS!

Mock champagne: one part apple juice, one part ginger ale; pour over party cubes or fruit.

Drinks. NON-ALCOHOLIC!

Pour iced sparkling water or club soda over ice cubes in large, footed cocktail glass; squeeze juice from large wedge of lemon or lime in glass; add aromatic bitters to color; stir well and serve at once.

Pour three parts chilled apple juice and one part ginger ale or lemon-lime soda in tall glass; garnish with strawberries.

Thirst. Quenched!

LIQUORLESS FRUIT PUNCH
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 quart each strong hot tea and orange juice
1 cup lemon juice

1 quart ginger ale
Dissolve sugar in tea, mix together with citrus juices and pour over block of ice. Just before serving, add ginger ale. Can garnish with fresh mint leaves. Yields 3 1/2 quarts.

CRANBERRY PUNCH
1 1/2 quarts chilled cranberry juice cocktail
1 can (46 oz.) pineapple juice, chilled
1 quart ginger ale, chilled
1 cup grenadine
Fill 2 ice trays with about 3 cups cranberry juice and freeze overnight. Mix remaining ingredients and drop in cranberry cubes just before serving. Yields 4 quarts.

LEMONADE FOR 100
4 cups hot water
8 cups sugar
7 cups each lemon juice and crushed pineapple
9 oranges, sliced and seeded
4 gallons cold water
Boil hot water and sugar 10 minutes, add lemon juice and stir in pineapple. Add oranges and cold water, chill and serve over ice.

Spices are a bargain

Although the cost of spices is no longer 29 cents a tin (or even very close to it), they are still relatively inexpensive. They cost more today (what doesn't?) than they did a few years ago, but they're still one of the best bargains in the store when they are evaluated realistically.

According to The American Spice Trade Association, there are more than 1,000 pinches in a one-ounce tin of ground black pepper. And the same ounce of pepper is enough to season your breakfast eggs every morning for two years.

A single ounce of oregano will make 432 slices of pizza famous.

And a 1 1/2-ounce container of ground cinnamon is enough for 456 slices of apple pie.

The bottom line is that even when three or four spices are used in a recipe, the seasoning cost per portion of a dish is not apt to turn more than a few pennies and frequently much less than that. In terms of total food cost, the seasoning is a small fraction, but it can often make the difference between an ordinary dish and something really special.

Pretty up food with paprika

From a sprinkling to a spoonful, paprika is the spice that makes food look pretty. When a dish tastes great but looks a bit blah, give it a few shakes from the paprika container and it's bathed in a rosy glow. The two dishes below will look all dressed for a party, yet are very simple to prepare.

Hungarian seasonings flavor the Chicken and Vegetable Pasta Salad, a satisfying, hearty dish. If possible, make it the day before so the seasonings in the dressing are fully absorbed by the chicken chunks and the rotelle (a pasta which looks festive and holds the dressing nicely). The starring dressing is rich with paprika, caraway seed, onion powder and ground black pepper. Serve along with thick chunks of tomato and cucumber, and French bread with lots of crust.

Paprika Sour Cream Party Dip makes a fine welcome. The mixture is deliciously savory, and if there's any left (you're lucky) add some tuna or hard-cooked eggs for a sandwich filling. It takes off from a sour cream and mayonnaise base with a lift from instant minced onion, ground black pepper, lemon juice, diced green pepper and good bit of bright red paprika.

CHICKEN AND VEGETABLE PASTA SALAD
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1 tsp. vegetable oil
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. paprika
1/2 tsp. caraway seed
1/2 tsp. onion powder
1/16 tsp. ground black pepper
4 cups cooked pasta (such as rotelle, elbow, shells)*
2 cups finely diced sweet red or green peppers
2 cups diced cooked chicken
1/2 cup diced celery
1/2 cup shredded carrot
In a medium bowl combine sour cream, mayonnaise, oil, salt, paprika, caraway, onion powder and black pepper. Add pasta, red peppers, chicken, celery and carrot. Mix well. Cover and refrigerate at least 2 hours or overnight.

*3 cups uncooked

PAPRIKA SOUR CREAM PARTY DIP
1/2 cup dairy sour cream
1/2 cup mayonnaise
1/2 cup diced green pepper
2 tbs. instant minced onion
1/2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. paprika
1/2 tsp. lemon juice
Pinch ground black pepper
In a medium bowl combine sour cream, mayonnaise, green pepper, onion, salt, paprika, lemon juice and black pepper. Cover and refrigerate at least 1 hour before serving. Spoon into a serving bowl. Sprinkle with parsley flakes and additional paprika, if desired. Serve with vegetable sticks. Can also be used as a dressing for tuna or egg salads.
Yield: about 1 1/4 cups

MAXINE WILLOUGHBY of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, reminds us this is Constitution Week. The President, the Governor and the Plymouth City Commission have issued proclamations to the effect. Mrs. Willoughby, on behalf of the chapter, will accept the city proclamation at tonight's commission meeting.

The Constitution of the United States of America was drafted Sept. 17, 1787, ratified June 21, 1788, in effect March 4, 1789.

The big celebration will come in 1987 when the country will celebrate the 200th anniversary of the drafting of the Constitution.

CONGRATULATIONS to Vern and Virginia Overmeyer of Adams Street who recently celebrated their 40th wedding anniversary. They repeated their marriage vows at a gathering at the home of their daughter, Sue Merchant, and son-in-law, George.

Sue and her sister, Judy Shellhaas, planned and catered the party with the assistance of their husbands. Among the guests were Vern's sisters and their husbands from Iowa, the couple's older son Jim and his family from Cincinnati, Ohio, and close friends in the community. Son Steve and his family in Colorado Springs were unable to attend.

Virginia said it was a beautiful party.

JENNIFER WALKER has been nominated to the All-American Band by James Griffith, director of bands at the Centennial Educational Park. She is among 5,000 high school musicians in the running for a place in the 1984 McDonald's All-American Band. The 105 teenagers selected for the band will be notified in October.

Jennifer is a senior at Plymouth Canton High School. She plays clarinet in the CEP Symphony Band. She started clarinet when she was a sixth grader at West Middle School. Her parents are Les and Kay Walker of Jenner Street, Plymouth.

ORAL MAJORITY

Toastmasters Club of Plymouth had a couple of contests last Tuesday evening.

The annual humorous speech competition was won by H.V. Naley. Anne Sullivan came in second and Ted Deckard was third.

Erin Johnson was winner of the extemporaneous speaking contest. Ted Deckard came in second and Gloria Proctor, third. The first- and second-place winners will represent their club in area contests at 10 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 29 in the Auto Club Building in Dearborn. They will compete with winners from Plymouth, Ecorse and Redford.

Area winners will go on to division-level competition Saturday evening, Oct. 6 in the Mayflower Hotel.

ARTISTS JESSIE Hudson and Johnnie Crosbie have works in the Ann Arbor Women Painters show. Jessie's batik, "Winter Trees," was selected for the exhibit and Johnnie's watercolor, "Precipice," received the Grumbacher Plaque award.

The 33rd annual Ann Arbor Women Painters exhibit will be at the Rackham Galleries 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday and 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Saturdays until Oct. 5.

AN ANNOUNCEMENT from the Michigan Cancer Foundation, a Plymouth Community Fund agency, notes: "Summer is past, now take time for yourself."

The foundation is offering pap tests at Tonquish Creek Manor, 1160 Sheridan, 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Wednesday, Sept. 26.

Appointments can be made by calling the Plymouth office, 483-3010, 1-3 p.m. weekdays. A nominal fee of $8 is charged but no one will be refused because of inability to pay. Specially trained nurses will perform the examination which should be a part of every woman's annual check for cancer.

What's a circus without elephants?

The No Elephant Circus is coming to town Sunday, Oct. 7 with a show guaranteed to tickle the funny bones of big kids and little kids. Founded in 1977, the No Elephant Circus is a delight for ladies and gentlemen and children of all ages.

The six-member troupe will offer an exciting adventure into the magical world of circus arts. At the same time, audiences will be treated to the wonders of fine classical music, presented by Conductor Johan van der Merwe and the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra.

Audiences always are an integral part of the fast-paced performances. There are high-wire acts, juggling, fire-eating, unicycles, puppets, pantomime and just plain clowning, all in the best traditions of slapstick comedy. Through audience participation and interaction with circus professionals, children look behind the scenes at the special world of the circus.

LAST YEAR, the troupe gave 200 performances before 70,000 people. This year, the Plymouth Symphony League is bringing the troupe to Plymouth Salem High School for two performances. The No Elephant Circus is this season's children's concert.

Circus flyers will be delivered to the schools today. Tickets at $2.50 per person will be available at the Plymouth-Canton schools before noon Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week. They also may be purchased at Beitner Jewelry in Plymouth, Book Break in Canton Township, and Orin Jeweler in Northville.

Preference for the 2 p.m. or 4 p.m. performance should be stated when buying tickets.

Members of the audience will be encouraged to participate in such feats as juggling, fire-eating, pantomime, puppetry, unicycle riding, and just plain clowning.

ROBERT DARAIO, artistic director, has traveled with circuses as a performer and manager, taught circus arts, alternative physical education and lectured. He has been special events coordinator and technical assistant for Sesame Street, among other productions.

Michael Christensen, author and director, had worked as a comedy juggler and clown with "Nouveau Cirque de Paris," Sesame Street, and is director of clown work with the Big Apple Circus.

Baayork Lee, director/choreographer, has directed Australian productions of "Barnum" and numerous productions of "Chorus Line." She has appeared in more than a dozen Broadway shows and has worked as choreographer for many plays, shows and films.

• Tony Duncan, co-founder of the D.C. Jugglers, has been with the No Elephant Circus for three years. He has performed on P.M. Magazine, One Life to Live, and recently appeared in a Pepsi commercial in Spain.

JOHN GRIMALDI, actor, juggler and clown, has performed in the United States, Canada and Europe. He has written and directed Off-Off-Broadway while working as juggler instructor and teaching circus arts.

Lenny Wright has been with the No Elephant Circus since 1977. His acting credits include many soap opera television performances. He co-authored "Klowns" and is a contributing writer and collaborator for other No Elephant Circus productions.

William Shaw has performed his juggling act on PM Magazine, Entertainment Tonight and at the New York Renaissance Festival. He has been an instructor of juggling with the Learning Annex of New York for the past two years. David Tabetsky has performed professionally as an actor and novelty soloist since 1977. He has appeared in more than 20 roles in repertory theater and performed his solo comedy show all over the United States.

BARBARA Nadai is an accomplished actress, clown and comedienne. She was one of the first women hired by Ringling Brothers' Circus as a clown and has clowned through the United States and Central America. She appears in many television commercials.

There will be no elephants on stage. The troupe says it costs $150 a day to feed one elephant and much less for a human performer. But everyone in the audience will receive one of the elephant masks designed by Judy Lora and handmade by Symphony League members.

The league has waited for years for an opportunity to book the No Elephant Circus. Now, the women are hoping they can afford it. They have had some financial assistance. The Plymouth Rotary Foundation is taking care of the auditorium rental fee. Robert Bake Realtor is paying for tickets and posters.

They are hoping for a full house for both performances because of the appeal to all ages.

Anyone wishing more information about the circus may call 455-5837.

FAMOUS LAST WORDS FROM FRIENDS TO FRIENDS. I'm perfectly fine. I can drive with my eyes closed. There's nothing wrong with me. Are you joking—I feel great. What am I—a wimp? I'm in great shape to drive. You're not serious are you? What's a couple of beers? Nobody drives my car but me. I've never felt better. I can drink with the best of them. But I only had a few. So I had a couple. I can drive rings around anybody. I can drive my own car, thank you. I'm not drunk. I drive better when I'm like this. Who says I can't drink and drive? I can hold my booze. I know what I'm doing. I always drive like this. I can drink with anybody. Trust me. What's a few more beers? I'm fine. I can drive with my eyes closed. I can drink with me. I can drink

What's red, white and blue all over?

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

It's got to be a curse. How else can you explain Plymouth Canton's luck — or lack of it — against Plymouth Salem Friday night?

The Rocks slipped by — literally — the Chiefs 14-7 before a large and boisterous crowd at the Centennial Educational Park. A chilly rain began to fall at the outset of the second half. The rain seemed to have a more dampening effect on the Chiefs.

The Chiefs, down by seven, began mounting a drive with 7:22 to play. A nifty screen pass from quarterback David Knapp to Rod Boyd gave the Chiefs a first down at midfield.

Suddenly, the black clouds above the CEP got darker. The curse was lurking about.

TWO PLAYS later Knapp hit Matt Flower on what would have been a 20-yard completion inside the Rocks' 30. A yellow flag back at the line of scrimmage, however, foretold that the play was coming back: Canton was detected for holding. The ball was set back to the Chiefs' 35.

On fourth down, the Chiefs punted. Salem's Craig Morton totally misplayed the punt. As the ball rolled toward the Chiefs' end zone, two Canton players had shots at recovering it. Miraculously — or tragically, depending on your point of view — neither got it. Salem's Dom DeBello came up with it at the Rocks' 18.

That was all she wrote for Canton. Two years in a row, the Chiefs have outplayed the Rocks; two years in a row the Chiefs have lost.

"It's just real tough. You look for ways to get them, but you just can't find the way," said Canton senior Dwayne Bennett.

The game, for all its intensity and drama, was a shoddily-played affair. Canton committed four turnovers, Salem one. Canton outgained Salem in total yards, 150-129. All of Salem's yardage came on the ground. The Rocks didn't complete a pass — they only attempted three. Canton completed one of six with two interceptions.

"The rain didn't have anything to do with anything," said Canton head coach Rich Barr. "We did what we planned to do. You just can't give a good football team that many chances to score. If you do, they will."

SALEM SCORED first on a 1-yard plunge by Kevin Riley. The run capped a 38-yard scoring drive set up by the first of two pass interceptions by junior Brian Tiller.

On Canton's next possession, Knapp's pass again fell into Tiller's hands. And the Rocks were again knocking on the door.

This timethe Chief defense, led by the spirited play of Steve Boyd and Bob Forreider, stopped the Rocks.

However — and it was this kind of night for the Chiefs — Knapp misplayed the ensuing punt and an alert Paul Makara fell on it at the Chiefs' 35-yard line.

One play later, Riley fumbled and the Chiefs' Jeff Rummel recovered.

Two bullets dodged by the Chiefs.

The Chiefs, who went the entire first quarter without a first down, finally started moving the ball. Cleverly using traps and counter plays, the Chief backs, namely sophomore Mike Johnson and Flower, started gaining big chunks of yardage.

Johnson climaxed the 59-yard-in-10-play drive with a 1-yard TD. Dave Luzzo added the kick to tie things at 7.

THE RAIN ushered in the second half and it didn't take a football scholar to note that the game would be a conservative affair for the next 24 minutes. Each team stuck steadfastly to running the ball.

Early in the third quarter, Knapp returned a punt to the Rocks' 27-yard line. The big run was nullified, however, by a clipping penalty. Canton missed another scoring opportunity on the same drive. Canton end Sean Budlong was wide open behind the Rock secondary. Knapp's pass was late arriving, and wide of the target, and Budlong dropped it out of bounds at the Rocks' 15.

Remember, the curse.

Then came Salem's biggest break. Flower mishandled a bad handoff from Knapp and Riley was there to pounce on it for Salem at the Canton 25.

The Rocks moved it to the 2. The Chiefs dug in and stopped them cold on third-and-1 and again on fourth-and-1. Dan Olszewski and Scott Campbell made the big hits for Canton.

But, the Canton offense couldn't move the ball out of its own zone and had to punt the ball back to Salem.

The Rocks got it back on the Canton 31 and marched it right into the end zone — Randy Blaylock scoring on a 2-yard dive. Mark Dixon added the extra point.

"OUR OFFENSIVE line did a good job," said Salem coach Tom Moshmer, who was paraded around the field on his player's shoulders. "They aren't quick, but they came out and really did a job."

One of the reasons Salem was able to grind it out on the ground in the final quarter was a 6-foot, 155-pound wide receiver named Craig Morton.

Because Morton is such a big-play threat — he gained 253 yards in a losing effort last week against North Farmington — Canton had to double team him. Salem sent Morton deep, he'd take two defenders with him, and the Rocks would run right into the vacated zone.

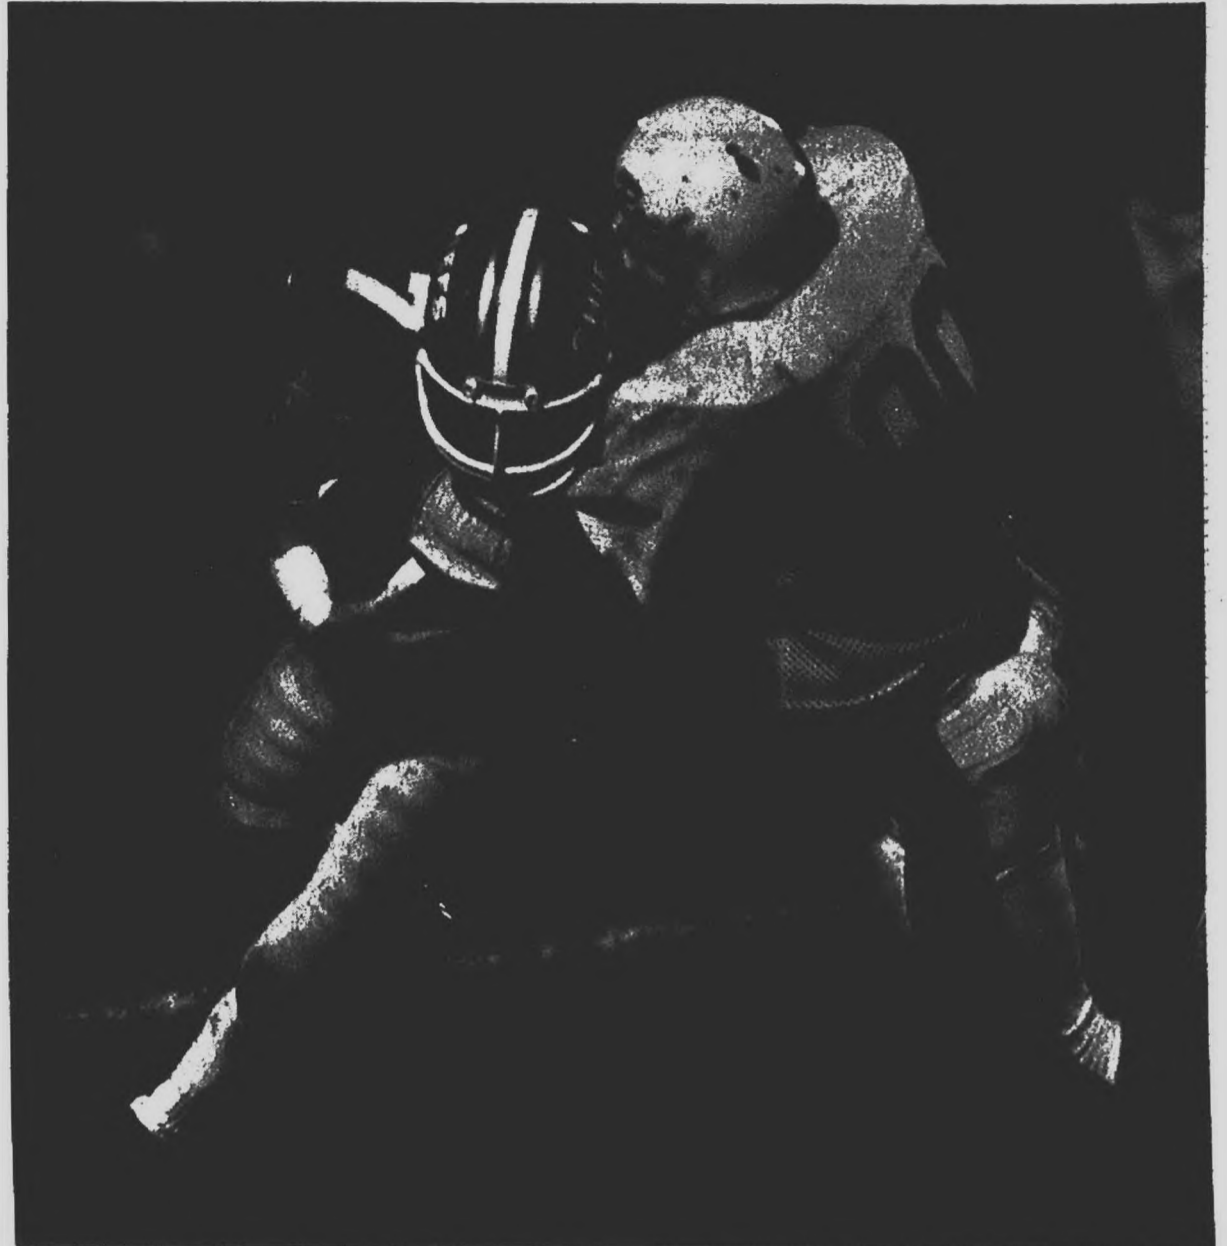

Blaylock gained 54 yards to lead Salem. Johnson rushed for 63 for the Chiefs.

But, after it was over, Moshmer managed to put the game into a proper perspective:

"You know with this game, as big and emotional as it was with all the rivalry and buildup, is just a game. It don't mean anything now that it's over. The season is still young. Next week we start the league season. That's when things start to matter. We'll celebrate tonight. Tomorrow, we start thinking about Livonia Bentley."

"We've got to forget about this game."

That won't be an easy thing for the accursed Chiefs to do.

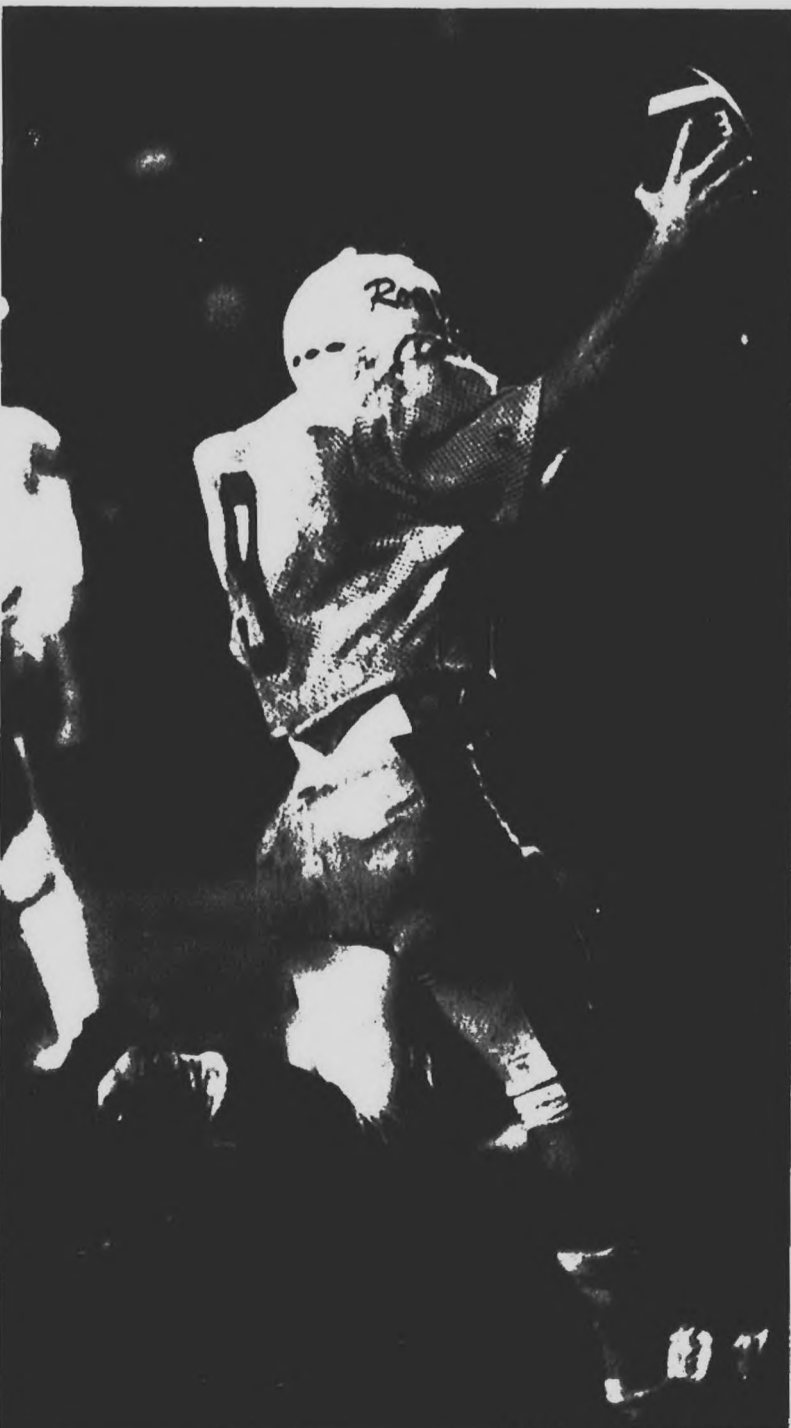

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Salem's Steve Potoczak gets a lock on Canton ball carrier Matt Flower in Salem's 14-7 Friday. Despite the intensity and the pre-game build-up, the game was a sloppy affair with neither team able to mount much of an offensive attack.

The post-game gridiron's a stage where players' emotions perform

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Randy Blaylock lets his feelings be known after scoring the winning touchdown for the Rocks.

Author Irving Stone wrote "The Agony and the Ecstasy" about the life of Michelangelo. Yet, the same title aptly describes the scene following the annual Plymouth Salem-Plymouth Canton football clashes.

Seldom are the two emotions — the agony and the ecstasy — on display in such close proximity as they are on the CEP gridiron. And seldom are the emotions displayed with such raw purity.

• The Ecstasy: The Plymouth Salem team chants "Salem, Salem, Salem" as they hoist their head coach triumphantly upon their shoulders after their 14-7 conquest.

• The Agony: The Plymouth Canton players, sobbing, angry-bitter tears of frustration rolling down their cheeks, huddled with their coach at midfield. "Hold your head up high," he tells them with a cracking voice. "You played hard. You've got to pick yourselves up and get ready for next week." Hollow words.

THE TWO teams shake hands. Some players hug — they are friends off the field, most of them. They are classmates. Such is the bizarre nature of this rivalry. They held their pep rally together.

At the end of the handshake line, a Salem coach approaches a Canton player.

"You played a great game," the coach says to the player.

"Don't talk to me," the Canton player shouts back.

"Hey, you played a great game." "Get away from me!" the player shouts louder. The coaches don't quite know what to feel.

The winning coach feels a tremendous sense of joy, relief, he beat his biggest rival. Yet, there is a sadness, for his rival is a close friend, a former assistant coach.

"They are a real nice football team." It's Tom Moshmer speaking. He's the winning coach from Salem. He's talking about Canton. "I hope they don't go down from here. That's been their problem in the past. This has been their season, right here, this game. They've got to fight back. Hell, we were down. We lost last week. You've got to forget about it."

FOR THE losing coach, well, it's an agonizing experience. He wants to appear brave in the face of his team, yet deep inside he yearns to cry along with them. The loss is that devastating.

"It's frustrating. But, it's the breaks of the game," said Canton's coach Rich Barr. "There are times when the breaks go your way and time when they don't. You see it every week. Not just in this game."

Brave talk. Later he said, in a quieter tone: "I really thought this was going to be our year. I really did."

Rock harriers running wild

Tom Truesdale, Plymouth Salem's first-year cross-country coach, wasn't at all sure how well his boys team would fare this season. His girls, he was fairly sure, would be strong — but his boys, well, only time would tell.

Three decisions into the season and it's so far so good for the Rock boys.

They traveled to Ypsilanti last Tuesday along with Plymouth Canton and won the three-way meet. Thursday, the Rocks made it 3-0 by dusting Livonia Churchill 19-40 at Cass Benton.

"I wouldn't say I was surprised," Truesdale said. "Let's just say that they're doing better than I thought they might."

At Ypsi, the Rocks got a second place from Scott Steiner (17:13), a sixth from Rick Routson (17:53), a seventh from

cross country

Tony Atwell (18:03), an eighth from Eric Pederson (18:09) and a 10th from Bill Morely (18:21). That enabled Salem to defeat Canton 23-35 and Ypsi 25-33.

CANTON AND Ypsi tied, 28-28. Bob Teller took third place overall (17:49). Dave Barger took fifth (17:52), Paul Trout 12th (18:28), Doug Rich 13th (18:34), and Ron Ziemba 17th (18:43).

Thursday, the Rocks had to deal with Churchill and a sloppy-wet Cass Benton course. They defeated both.

Steiner won the race with an 18:01 clocking, besting Churchill's Pete Mills by 29 seconds. Pederson (18:32), Kevin Jones, a junior varsity runner (18:33), Bill Atwell (18:41), Routson (18:46) and Tony Atwell (18:51) finished 3-7 for Salem.

Canton, coached by Jim Hayes, was also a winner Thursday at Cass Benton. The Chiefs made their record 1-1 with a 23-43 romp over Belleville. Teller (18:41) and Barger (18:52) led the way finishing second and third. Trout (19:02), Rich (19:26) and Chris Hayosh (19:44) went 5-6-7.

THE GIRLS TEAM at Plymouth Salem seems to be slowly finding its stride. The Rocks lost a toughie to Ypsi Tuesday 27-28, then edged Churchill Thursday 26-29.

Denise Durrer, an All-Area performer who transferred to Salem from Redford Union, has been the Rocks front-runner. She took second at Ypsi with a 21:15, and first against Churchill with a 21:52.

Trish Donnelly hasn't been far behind, taking fourth at Ypsi (21:35) and second against the Chargers (22:09).

At Ypsi, the Rocks got a fifth from Amy Miyazaki (22:16), an eighth from Cris Trapani (23:31) and a ninth from Lisa Mickey (23:49). Against Churchill, Miyazaki took fifth (23:00). Salem won the meet by taking places 8-10.

college sports

Chris Mack almost won the game himself — and he's a defensive tackle.

Mack, a Garden City native playing for the Kalamazoo College football Hornets, busted through the Ferris State line to block two punts, one of which resulted in a safety. Despite the 5-foot-9, 195-pound sophomore's stellar line play (which included six solo tackles and seven assists), Ferris prevailed by a narrow 6-5 margin.

Mack's effort did not go unrewarded, however. He was selected Defensive Player of the Week in the Michigan Intercollegiate Athletic Association (MIAA).

OTHER PERFORMANCES worth noting...

Rich Popp, a Livonia Franklin grad making only his second start as Wayne State's quarterback, completed 23 of 41 passes for 314 yards and three touchdowns in a 29-28 loss to Albion. It was quite a rebound for the sophomore, who threw four interceptions in the Tartars' 42-6 season-opening loss to Indiana State.

Hillsdale won its opener 20-6 against Wisconsin-Whitewater, getting fine efforts from quarterback Mike Gatt, a junior from Livonia and a Redford Catholic Central grad, and safety Jeff Hubert, a junior from Plymouth Salem.

Gatt completed 11 of 19 passes for 113 yards and a touchdown. Hubert had a busy day with nine tackles and six assists.

Bob Smedley pulled in six passes for 52 yards and caught a two-point conversion in Adrian's 30-23 loss to Kenyon College. A 6-3, 232-pound junior tight end who played at Redford Bishop Borgess, Smedley played a key role as Adrian battled back from a 30-0 deficit with three second-half TDs.

But let's not limit this to football. University of Detroit's women's cross country team made its varsity debut a successful one by edging Walsh College 28-29 at Eastern Michigan University Sept. 8.

Technical fouls slow Chief rally

You might say the Plymouth Canton girls basketball team lost on a technicality, a pair of technicalities as a matter of fact, Tuesday at Walled Lake Western.

basketball

Western, minus injured all-stater Val Hall, beat the Chiefs 41-33 in a wild Western Lakes season opener.

The Chiefs fell behind by 13 before making a furious run at the Warriors in the fourth quarter. The lead was cut to eight with 5:30 left. Diana Knickerbocker took a pass on a fast-break but was whistled down for stepping out of bounds some three steps prior to taking the pass.

In frustration, she slammed the ball to the ground and was given a technical foul. Soon after, Canton assistant coach John Mulroy was slapped with another. Western was the beneficiary of four quick points and the Chief uprising was quelled.

"Knickerbocker was reacting out of frustration," said Mulroy, who is assisting head coach Phyllis Mulroy who is eight months pregnant. "It was a real tough call. You can't expect the girl to be able to understand the call, let alone not react to it. It was a natural reaction on her part. She didn't do anything to try and show anyone up. I deserved the technical, she didn't."

THE DISPUTE was over a rule interpretation. The rule states that a player cannot gain an advantage by going out of bounds without the ball. Mulroy doesn't think Knickerbocker did. The official disagreed.

"We were really on a roll at that point. Western had begun substituting in the third quarter, which was far too early to concede. We had them on the run," Mulroy said.

Knickerbocker led the Chiefs (0-2) with 14 points. Canton displayed a stingy defense, allowing the taller Warriors just 41 points. Lori Schauder grabbed eight rebounds for the Chiefs.

SALEM 68, W.L. CENTRAL 33: Walled Lake Central was missing a pair of senior starters, so the Vikings, with four sophomores in the lineup, tried to pressure Plymouth Salem with a man-to-man defense.

That proved to be a costly mistake. The Rocks bolted to a 19-3 lead after one quarter and zoomed to a 68-33 basketball triumph in both team's Western Lakes Activities Association opener Thursday at Salem.

Salem, now 3-1, dominated completely in all but the third quarter, largely due to its ability to break the Viking pressure.

"We got a tremendous amount of open court baskets," said coach Fred Thomann. "We scored fairly easy on the transition."

Salem also had a lot of balance, with all nine players scoring and each playing "about two quarters," Thomann said. Mary Beth Weast's 16 points was high for the Rocks, with Fran Whittaker adding 12 and Dena Head 10.

Jenny Kreuzer topped Central with 12.

The Rocks not only converted a bundle of easy baskets at their end of the floor, they kept Central bottled up with their defense. The Vikings were limited to less than 10 points in every quarter but the last.

"Defensively, we're pretty good," Thomann said. "We have a lot of quickness on this team, more than a lot of teams we've had here. We took this (Central) team out 19-3 in the first quarter. We just didn't give them many scoring opportunities."

Or much of a chance to win.

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Salem point guard Reggie Rojeski helped her team to an easy win over Walled Lake Central Thursday.

Chiefs turn it on to top Mustangs

The Plymouth Canton soccer team passed its stiffest test of the young season Thursday, edging No. 10-ranked (statewide) Northville 4-3.

soccer

"I think we have turned the corner," said Canton coach Mike Morgan. "The team really came through. We were having trouble putting the ball in the net, but I think the intensity of the game helped bring out our team unity. Soccer is a funny game. You need your individual players, but you've also got to play as a team."

Brian Whiteley and Brad Neville led the way for the Chiefs, netting a goal and two assists each. Steve Morall scored two goals for the Chiefs.

"We played a very strong defensive game," Morgan said. "We completely dominated the second half."

Morgan praised the efforts of Rob Opatry, Tony Shiner, Scott Morgan and Jim Caster for helping Canton control the second half.

Goalie Brian Gavigan was again brilliant in the nets for the Chiefs. Both Northville goals, according to Morgan, came as a result of the Chiefs' mental blunders.

The Chiefs are now 3-0.

MANOOGIAN 6, PLY. CHRISTIAN 2: Southfield Manooagian got five goals from Romig Boghian and kept Plymouth Christian winless through four games this season Thursday at Manooagian.

Freshman Bob Files got both Christian goals.

Ocelot kickers tie MSU

Schoolcraft College earned a little more respect statewide in women's college soccer Wednesday after gaining a 2-2 tie with visiting Michigan State.

The Lady Ocelots fell behind 2-0 at the half, both goals scored by Bloomfield Hills Lahser's Julie Gnaou. They rallied, however, in the second half as Amy McCauley scored the first goal on cross from ex-Farmington Harrison standout Sue Ferguson. Kris Petit then tallied the equalizer on another set-up from Ferguson.

"We lost 3-0 to them last year," said Schoolcraft coach Ed Dudek. "And I think we're the first team in the state to tie them."

The Schoolcraft defense played tentatively in the first half, but got going in the second half.

"The first goal we gave them," Dudek said. "Maybe because it was our first game. We were afraid to make mistakes."

BUT AFTER scoring their first goal, the Lady Ocelots opened things up as defenders Sue Bartram, Heather Brda, Paige Ericson, Mary Jo Taylor and Martina Millen (before leaving with an injury) were outstanding. Goalkeeper Jenny Gans also stood out.

"After we scored, we took them out of their game plan," said the Schoolcraft coach.

The Lady Ocelots return to action at 5 p.m. Wednesday, at home, against Oakland University.

Salem enjoys romp in season-opener

After starting off last season with five straight losses, you better believe Plymouth Salem girls swim coach Chuck Olson was happy to win the season opener Thursday and who cares if Ypsilanti didn't offer much competition?

The Rocks, behind a pair of firsts from Laura Shaffer and Tracy Meszaros, whipped Ypsi 126-34.

"The girls swam pretty good for a first meet," said Olson. "There wasn't a lot of competition from Ypsi so it's difficult to judge, but the times were good under the circumstances — we swam against ourselves."

swimming

Shaffer won the 200-yard freestyle (2:09.2) and the 500 free (5:49.7).

Meszaros, a freshman, won the 200 individual medley (2:27.9) and the 100 free (1:00.2).

SALEM CAPTURED both the 200-medley relay and the 400-free relay. Lindsay Olson, Sue Bonnett, Shannon Murphy and Kristal Taylor combined on a 2:05.9 in the medley, and Erin Boughton, Theresa Shaffer, Karen Dalpe and Laura Shaffer went 4:11.8 in the free relay.

Taylor won the 50 free in 27.0. Murphy won the 100 butterfly in 1:10.1 and Olson took the 100-backstroke in 1:16.1. Cindy Elliott captured the 100 breaststroke in 1:18.7.

Diver Cory Silver settled for second place with 160.95. Salem's next meet will be Thursday at Plymouth Canton.

Lily Tomlin turns in an accomplished performance and Steve Martin is admirably restrained instead of being a "Wild-and-Crazy Guy" in the sparkling comedy, "All of Me."

what's at the movies

ALL OF ME (PG). Carl Reiner's latest, greatest comedy, with Steve Martin and Lily Tomlin.

AND THE SHIP SALES ON (PG). Rich tapestry of characters aboard an Italian luxury liner in 1914. Fellini's latest, at the Main Royal Oak only.

ANOTHER COUNTRY (Unrated). Adapted from British stage hit about politics and homosexuality in an English boys school.

BOLERO (Unrated). Adults only. What else would you expect from Bo Derek in the all together?

CAREFUL, HE MIGHT HEAR YOU (PG). Australian film exploring the bitter struggle between two sisters to gain possession of young boy whose mother died in childbirth.

C.H.U.D. (R). That's an acronym for Canablastic Humanoid Underground Dwellers. Need we say more?

DREAMSCAPE (PG-13). Top secret project targeting the President with a nightmare for a weapon, starring Max Von Sydow, Christopher Plummer, Eddie Albert and Kate Capshaw.

EXTERMINATOR 2 (R). Sounds like a terrible film of revenge with a cast of unknowns.

GHOST BUSTERS (PG). Billy Murray, Dan Aykroyd and Harold Ramis as parapsychology research students trying to rid New York of menacing ghosts.

GREMLINS (PG). Technically well-done story of exotic pet whose offspring turn mean. Hoyt Axton, Zach Galligan and Phoebe Cates in a Spielberg film too gross for the under-12 set.

INDIANA JONES AND THE TEMPLE OF DOOM (PG). Harrison Ford is back in another Spielberg epic adventure echoing "Raiders." Probably violent enough for an R rating.

THE NATURAL (PG). A big disappointment as Robert Redford, Robert Duvall, Glenn Close and other greats meander through a confusing, cliché-ridden baseball story.

PURPLE RAIN (R). Another rock music film with family problems mixed in. Features Prince and Apollonia Kotero.

RED DAWN (PG-13). Eight high school students resist armed invasion of the United States.

REVENGE OF THE NERDS (R). Tasteless, colorless college comedy.

Tomlin, Martin are hilarious together

DON'T FRET, FRIENDS. Lily Tomlin is alive and well — and living in Steve Martin's body. How she got there, and elsewhere, is the laugh-filled storyline of Carl Reiner's latest, "All of Me." On her deathbed, the wealthy but life-long invalid, Edwina Cutwater (Lily Tomlin), arranges for an Eastern mystic, Praha Lasa (Richard Libertini) to transfer her soul to the lovely, healthy body of her stableman's daughter, Terry Hoskins (Victoria Tennant), thus giving Edwina the opportunity to enjoy her life and her wealth.

who starred for many years in Ann Arbor's Arts Theater Club, and they may remember Tomlin's appearances with the Henry K. Martin comedy troupe. Local audiences will not be disappointed in the performances by Elcar and Tomlin or by the rest of the cast. With proper buffoonery, Elcar plays the senior partner of a successful law firm. He really believes he is comforting lonely women. In her divorce suit, his wife terms it adultery.

TERRY AGREES to give up her body and allow her soul to join the cosmic universe out of deference to her father's employer and out of respect for the Praha Lasa. Edwina wills everything (and it's a lot) to Terry to insure her lifestyle in her new body. The lawyer summoned to Edwina's deathbed to draw up the requisite papers is Roger Cobb (Steve Martin). Despite his age (38) and his close association with the boss's daughter, Peggy Schuyler (Madolyn Smith), Cobb remains a very junior attorney in the firm of Schuyler (Dana Elcar) and Mifflin (Michael Ensign).

ELCAR'S SUPPORTING role is one of many that make "All of Me" so attractive. Jason Bernard hits just the right key as Cobb's blind musician friend, Tyrone Wattell. Selma Diamond is Cobb's raspy-voiced secretary, just a bit out-of-phase with Schuyler & Mifflin's slick office but in phase with her out-of-phase boss. Michael Ensign's incredulity at his partner and his employees provides the needed straightman and reference point for comic routines. He's the only sane one around. Madolyn Smith is the quintessential boss's daughter — attractive, demanding, accustomed to self-gratification and mean as hell when spurned.

Richard Libertini's Eastern mystic humorously blends Peter Seller's Indian routines with basic mistaken identity situations, while Victoria Tennant is properly demure as she accepts her oneness with the universe, at least until she gets the money. BUT THE principal success of "All of Me" lies in Reiner's direction of Martin and Tomlin. True, there are still some overtones of Martin's goofiness and unrestrained slapstick. But for the most part, Martin reins in (or Reiner does it for him), and the situation is played for its humor.

COBB'S LATE-NIGHT affair with a jazz band, and bringing his dog to work may be part of the reason. But do not despair, Cobb's secretary, Margo (Selma Diamond), likes him. Sounds like everything is lined up for a humorous time and a happy ending. Well, it is, but there are quite a few surprises along the way. The Praha Lasa drops his magic brass bowl, a kind of spiritual spittoon, and Lily joins Steve — in Steve's twist — giving a new, schizoparenic body to the androgyny popularized by "Tootsie," "Liquid Sky," "Victor/Victoria" and other recent films. Phil Alden Robinson's ("Rhinestone") screenplay and Carl Reiner's direction of a very talented cast make "All of Me" a pleasant, 90-minute entertainment that should be one of the season's big hits. It's rated PG, although PG-13 might be more appropriate, considering the sly sexual references Robinson has written.

Martin's restraint, avoiding the "Wild-and-Crazy-Guy" routines that made him so popular on "Saturday Night Live," is a plus for us all. Tomlin, of course, is an accomplished actress whose portrayal of a rich invalid strikes just the right, reserved note. Her Edwina Cutwater is eminently credible so that the highly improbable situation is readily accepted as a natural background for many comic routines such a condition provides. All of you will enjoy "All of Me."
