Part-time township cop sought to handle traffic, special needs

staff writer

Plymouth Township trustees will be asked to approve a part-time police position tomorrow night.

If approved, the person hired will become the township's first police officer with the exception of Police Chief/ administrator Carl Berry.

Currently all law enforcement is handled by the Wayne County Sheriff's Department and the Plymouth Police Department.

The Sheriff's department provides traffic patrol and enforcement on Ann Arbor Road, while the Plymouth department is contracted to handle all emergency responses.

'The primary purpose of this officer would be special assignment to different police projects in Plymouth Township," Berry said.

This could include, but not be limited to, special traffic enforcement in the neighborhoods, parking enforcement at various locations, special event assistance, and other similar projects," he said.

Whoever is hired would have to be a fully certified police officer.

THE REQUEST comes at the same time a study is being conducted to determine if the township should continue with the $460,000-a-year police contract with Plymouth or start its own department.

"This is no indication that a department is starting," said Supervisor Mau-is "just coincidental," he said.

'Part-time officers are not allowed by the police union contract with the city," Breen said.

Plymouth settles on firm to conduct police study

The Plymouth City Commission has approved a contract for Bartel & Bartel consultants to conduct a study of the city police department.

The main purpose of the study will be to analyze contracted services provided to Plymouth Township and to consider whether the charge assessed is sufficient.

Earlier the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees hired a firm to conduct a study of police services. It is believed both studies are being requested for upcoming negotiations between city and township administrators on whether to continue the agreement.

THE STUDY commissioned by the city will cost $9,915 and will be completed within 30 days.

When you have a contract involving $500,000 payments," said City Manager Henry Graper, "we should look at what we are doing and ask whether the contract should be continued."

Graper said the city lost money during the first year of the contract with the township but fared better the next two years. The consultant will take a

"The decision to continue the contract will be made by the city commission, not the city manager," Graper said Monday night, and the study will help the confinission reach a decision.

'We might have been better off if we had the study done before we considered selling police services to the township," said Graper, who reminded commissioners in the pre-meeting that he was given the charge to seek contracted services with the township when he was hired as city manager.

The study is divided up into three parts: A look at the structure of the police department and its ability to provide services; an analysis of services provided to city residents and to the township, including the cost; and an attitude survey of city residents.

Graper stressed the study would be a major benefit to the commission in making a decision on whether to continue the contract with the township.

Before contracting with the city, Plymouth Township had a contract for police services with the Wayne County them into problem traffic areas."

At the time the shared service contract was approved, City Manager Henry Graper told township officials they could receive extra services - such as special traffic patrol - for specified add-on costs.

Asked if the request signals that township officials believe the service can be provided more cheaply, Breen said "the recommendation appears to be in our best interests.

If hired, according to Breen, the part-time officer would "supplement" the shared services contract rather than "circumvent" it.

A LETTER of understanding regarding the officer has been hammered out with city Police Chief Ralph White.

"They (part-time officers) will not be under our supervision - they will not be part of the Plymouth police," he said. "They will receive any of the same courtesy as any other departments" - as far as back-up in the event of an emergency.

"We will be extending to them a courtesy for radio dispatch and lock up facilities on a review basis. I don't foresee any problems at this point," White

Berry is asking authorization for the position as well as some $7,800 for salary and related costs.

If approved, the officer will use the police car currently used for the township ordinance officer, Breen said.

Tuesday night's trustee meeting starts at 7:30 in the auditorium at Township Hall, the corner of Ann Arbor Road and Mill Street.

Senior class photo composites in the have come under fire.

A recent Michigan Attorney General's opinion states the practice whereby only photos from a contracted studio are placed in the class composite violates Michigan's Trusts, Monopolies and Combinations Act.

"It's unfair and it might be against the law, which is a great way to bring up our kids," said John Gaffield, a Plymouth photographer whose photos are excluded from the Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton composites.

"The only thing to do is take the schools into court, but his too short to get into something like at," Gaf-

Only photos taken by the contracted photographer, H.A. Powell Studios, are placed in the senior composite given to the schools.

Maurice Gies, president of Powell, points his finger at the schools.

"It's whatever is set up with the schools," Gies said. "We don't set up the policy . . . if the schools don't want to accept the other pictures, we abide

"That's not so at all," said Superintendent Dr. John Hoben. "My understanding of it is that the composite is a gift to the school by Powell. We have very little control over it."

A SIMILAR situation existed last year in Livonia, where Powell is the contracted photographer for two of the high schools.

The issue ended up being decided by the attorney general.

The controversy centers on the interpretation of a recent amendment to the state school code which states:

'The board of a school district may enter into a contract with a photographer for the taking of pupil yearbook pictures.

"The hiring of a photographer pursuant to this section shall not prohibit a pupil from engaging a photographer of his or her choice nor prevent a picture taken by that photographer from appearing in the yearbook if the picture meets the specifications of the yearbook staff.'

Attorney General Frank Kelley notified Powell to cease and desist the exclusion practice in Livonia last fall. It was Kelley's opinion that the practice was the result of "combining, conspiring and agreeing with one another to restrain the trade and commerce of high school senior graduation photographs and composite pictures.

Livonia Schools and Powell now accept other photographs for the compos-

HOBEN SAID Plymouth-Canton Schools are aware of the Livonia ac-"The opinion is just that - opinion, and not the law," Hoben said. Consequently, seniors wanting their picture taken by a studio other than Powell can't be in the class composite. "There's no way for the kid to get his picture in the composite or let alone buy one," Gaffield said. "They did this last year and this year.'

Gaffield asked that the practice be stopped before school started this year. The problem we have is that all our literature is out and I believe the decision was to go ahead with it the way it is and make the adjustment next year,' Hoben said. Yet the decision is hurting business now, according to Gaffield.

In the past Gaffield's studio has photographed as many as 170 seniors when their photo could go in the composite. This year he has photographed

"It's unfair to the local photographers who help fund the schools by paying property taxes."

The local photographer has been denied access to computer listings of seniors - which he received in the past and Powell got this year - and he objects to the schools providing space for the contracted studio to photograph.

"They are furnished space in the school to take pictures when they could just as well rent space in an open store in town," he said.

"I don't want to be the contracted photographer. I just want to be able to photograph the kids who want to come here and get equal treatment," he said.

Senior intern turns in senior's ideas

State officials wanted to hear ideas from Isabell Maurer, so they brought her to Lansing last month.

John Gaffield has been photographing fewer seniors this fall.

The 72-year-old Plymouth Township resident was one of 22 residents taking part in the 1984 Michigan Senior Citizens Legislative Intern Program held Sept. 17-21.

They certainly did treat us like VIPs, and well, we are," Maurer said last week while sitting in her apartment living room. Surrounding her were walls and tables filled with pictures and certificates of appreciation and recognition - collections of a lifetime. 'We've had a lot of experience in our 72 years; a lot of knowledge about what this old life is about," she said.

Maurer is a mother of two. She has a son practicing law in Detroit and a daughter, Carol Strom, who is on the Livonia Board of Education. She also boasts of four grandchil-"They're all in college right stayed busy in volunteer programs

INVOLVEMENT IS a key word for Maurer.

She is a member of the Plymouth Community Council on Aging's board of directors, as well as being the editor of that group's monthly newsletter - the Senior Sentinel.

She also takes an active part in the 150-member Plymouth Senior Citizens Club.

volvement, state Sen. Robert Geake, R-Northville whose district includes Livonia and Plymouth, asked Maurer to take part in the five-day legislative intern program. "We selected her because she has a good background knowledge of politics at the local level and is very active in senior affairs," Geake said. "We thought it would be a good learning experience for her.' And that it was.

"I really truly got an awful lot out of it," she said 'I sat in on committee meetings and made suggestions on things that can help seniors in this area. Most of the staffers up there are younger and they wanted input from seniors on ways to distribute money for senior programs.

'They really need people who work with seniors to tell them what the needs of seniors are.' What is the biggest problem facing senior citizens in Michigan? 'Housing for those who can't take

Area hospitals run through disaster drills

By Maurie Walker staff writer

Local hospitals, police and fire departments brushed up their skills in a mock training drill Wednesday.

Directed by the Western Wayne County Emergency Disaster Planning and Coordinating Committee, with the cooperation of the C & O Railroad, the drill involved more than 400 employees of hospitals, police and fire departments

Among the 11 hospitals taking part were Garden City Osteopathic, Metropolitan West in Westland, Redford Community, St Mary in Livonia, Westland Medical Center (formerly Wayne County General).

Police and fire departments from Garden City, Livonia, Westland, Plymouth and Plymouth Township, and Redford Township were involved in the annual drill to test the sharpness of emergency procedures.

Unlike most of the drills held in the past, there were no "victims" at the accident site. Instead, only a few people, drill planners and officials from the Westland area and representatives of the Chessie system, were at the "disaster site."

They activated the plan's mechanism by transmitting a radio telephone alert that a train wreck had occurred.

This radio-telephone system, called HEMS (Health Emergency Medical Services), links all fire and police agencies comprising the Mutual Aide Pact in southwestern Wayne County as well as 11 area hospitals which comprise the Western Wayne County Disaster Planning Committee care of themselves in their own homes or apartment but don't need to go to a nursing home," she said.

An example of the type of housing needed is the Trinity Park West center in Livonia, she said. There seniors receive 24-hour supervision but are free to come and go and take care of themselves to some degree.

"The center provides three meals a day and all the medications are dispensed by a nurse.

The legislators are looking for ways to cut hospital and nursing care costs and this is one way they hadn't even heard of until I brought it up to them," she said.

"A lot of these people in nursing homes, which Medicare is paying $45 to $60 a day to keep them in, don't even need to be there. It demoralizes them."

SUCH WAS the input Maurer gave the state officials during her visit to the capital.
"It was the most informative pro-had, thought. I was very much im-pressed with how hard these government people work," she said. "You get the idea that all government people do is sit around and do nothing but that's not how it is."

What was the most impressive part of her stay in Lansing?

"The highlight was on the floor of the Senate, seeing how bills are introduced and watching the discussion back and forth," Maurer said.

It was during her stint on the Senate floor that Maurer met Lt. Governor Martha Griffiths. "She came down and introduced herself. She is a very gracious lady." Maurer said this was the second year for the senior intern program, and that the idea came from a similar federal program which started in 1970.

Maurer has her own ideas on why there is an increasing awareness of senior citizen concerns.

'Because there are more and more seniors. We are becoming a larger part of society," she said.

British firm gets 200-day DRC racing license

State Racing Commissioner William S. Ballenger this week granted the Ladbroke Group PLC of London, England, a 1985 thoroughbred race meeting li-cense for 200 dates at Detroit Race Course in Livonia.

The dates are from March 22 through Nov. 9. Under the plan, Ballenger said, DRC alone would have thoroughbred running races, and Hazel Park race track would have only har-

"Ladbroke certainly has the resources, experience and documented concern for horse racing that are required . . . to rejuvenate Michigan's flagging thoroughbred racing program," the racing commissioner said.

NEGOTIATIONS, however, which had started "around-the-clock" between the track owners and the British firm have since been called off, according to Ladbroke's American consultant. Paul Silvergleid. He said track owners Herbert Tyner and Bernard Hartman postponed the negotiations until the state racing commissioner announces harness racing running dates, targeted

They refused to complete the negotiations until they were awarded 168 harness days at Hazel Park," he said.

At this point, he explained, Ladbroke is asking for the option of dual meets (thoroughbred and harness racing) at DRC after a "reasonable length" of time. He estimated that at two years. The track owners, meanwhile, view harness racing as more profitable and would prefer that sport at Hazel Park exclusively, he said.

'You've got to understand we're literally investing lots of money to loose lots of money," Silvergleid said. "We're taking a substantial risk. The profitability (at DRC) is highly suspect now."

DAILY WAGERING at the current DRC thoroughbred meeting was the lowest since 1963. Its daily average attendance was the lowest ever recorded since the Livonia track was built in Ballenger said that granting Lad-broke's request for 200 thoroughbred dates at DRC marked an increase of 12 dates from this year's allocation - the first increase in thoroughbred dates in four years.

It also will be the first time all thoroughbred dates are scheduled at one track since 1948, when 85 racing days were run at the State Fairgrounds.

"LADBROKE'S PROVEN racing record and intent to finalize the purchase of the Detroit Race Course before Dec. 18, 1984 - in conjunction with a written request from Herbert Tyner to amend his Hazel Park Harness Raceway application to allow only harness racing at that facility in 1985 — has impelled me to grant the British corporation the entire 1985 allotment of thoroughbred racing dates," Ballenger said.

"This signifies a promising new di-rection for Michigan thoroughbred racing and represents months of careful negotiations and enduring efforts by many to avoid the catastrophic possibility of my being prohibited by the Racing Law of 1980 from granting any thoroughbred dates for 1985." thoroughbred dates for 1985."

Another group, Michigan Horse-man's Alliance (MHA), had sought to lease the Livonia track provided Ballenger would authorize 180 days of thoroughbred racing next year. It also sought controls over such concessions as parking.

The MHA, according to its attorney,
Phillip B. Maxwell, offered $11.6 million for the lease. DRA principals Bernard and Herbert Tyner reportedly asked $11.85 million and a guarantee that Ballenger would grant 180 days of thoroughbred racing to DRC and 168 days of harness racing to Hazel Park

The MHA incorporated last summe with the intent of making a bid on DRC and ultimately helping to improve the thoroughbred racing industry in Michigan, said MHA member Dr. Lyle Hartrick, who also serves as president of the Michigan United Thoroughbred Breeders and Owners Association.

Hartrick said the group was "naturally disappointed" in its failure to win the lease-hold agreement but nonetheless is hopeful that the British firm will make the changes that are needed.

Industry members - breeders, trainers and horse owners - have lodged repeated complaints over the demise of horse racing in Michigan, estimated to be a $1.5-billion business in Michigan that employees 12,000. Critics say poor track quality as well as the complicated system of dual sports at each of the two tracks has been responsible for forcing quality runners out of the state and with them public

At DRC, for instance, barns for lodg-ing horses have been called "substand-ard," by industry insiders.

Hartrick said DRC and its milelong track is best suited for thoroughbreds while Hazel Park's 51/4th-mile track should be restricted to harness racing.

The spokesman said the group did consider it an achievement to have the two sports — thoroughbred and harness racing — separated out between DRC and Hazel Park Raceway.

Shriners slate mini-clinic here

Children who are crippled or are burn victims may be eligible for help from the Shriners Hospital for Crippled

To screen for eligibility, the Shriners have scheduled a mini clinic in Plymouth in the Masonic Lodge on Penniman Avenue near the Penn Theater.

The clinic will be open from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m., Saturday, Oct. 27, in the Plymouth Masonic Temple, 730 Penniman Ave. Crippled children or burn victims may come to the clinic to be examined by a medical doctor, and be screened to see if the family is eligible for help from the Shriners.

The mini clinic is being sponsored by Plymouth Rock No. 47, Livonia Shrine Club, William Perrett Lodge No. 524, and Tyrian 500.

The clinic is being held for any child age 1 month to 18 years who needs help with burns, bone or muscular problems such as: cerebral palsy, scoliosis, spina bifida, osteogenesis imperfecta (brittle bone disease), residuals of polio, juvenile arthritis, club feet, dwarfism, congenital anomalies, missing limbs, reconstructive burn work. The Shriners Hospitals are open to any child, regardless of race or religion, under 18 years of age. There is no charge to the patient, parent or any third party for anything received at a Shriners Hospital as expenses are paid for by the Shriners of North America.

Don't disrupt Tanger pupils

To the editor:

We, the staff of Tanger School, regret that many of our students (who only last year were moved from Starkweather to Tanger) must suffer yet another displace-

As conscientious and caring people, we are concerned about our students as individuals. We have established caring relationships with each of them. Now, we are being told that many of them will be uprooted from their present classrooms and moved to other classrooms within the building.

This is necessary to make the class size count come out "right." (Farrand School has very high numbers of students in grades four, five and six. So Tanger must eliminate be accommodated. It is educationally unone classroom. Then an additional classroom will be added at Farrand. The children from the one eliminated classroom at Tanger would be added domino-fashion to seven or eight different classrooms and grade levels within our building.)

If hiring a teacher for Farrand is not under consideration, we would like to suggest an alternative to transferring one teacher out of Tanger and subsequently shuffling around nearly every classroom in our build-

It would be possible to place those 25 to 30 overflow students from Farrand back at Tanger. (Most of them have spent their primary years at Tanger, and it would be a familiar environment for them).

Our students have begun the year successfully and happily in their present classrooms. We oppose the reshuffling of grades two through six so that 25 to 30 children can sound because a different alternative is available

Wouldn't it be more sensible to accommodate that group of 25 to 30 children here at Tanger by adding them in to our present population? By absorbing them in with each class, the shifting of as many as 65 to 70 actual children and the disruption of seven entire classrooms within our building would not be necessary.

We have the space, and Farrand would then have space for new enrollments also. Our goal is to disrupt as few children at both Farrand and Tanger as is possible. We urge our board, administration and our parents to consider this alternative.

Let us at Tanger continue to provide a steady predictable learning environment and still meet the constraints of class size which the budget demands.

Plymouth Community Fund enters its 41st year

Twenty-seven years ago, in November 1957, I gave a talk to the Plymouth Rotary Club about the drive then in progress to raise money for the Plymouth Community Fund.

I showed charts and graphs and told something about each of the local agencies that depended on money raised by the organization. When I announced the goal for 1957 - $31,500 - many eyebrows where raised.

The goal for the previous year had been $17,000, and in years before that the sums had been progressively lower. This year, 1984, the goal is $365,000, eleven times the 1957 figure. As the cigarette ad says, we've come a long way in the past three decades.

TO BRUSH UP on the Plymouth

Community Fund, which observes its 40th anniversary this year, I recently looked into old files and talked to Clarence DuCharme who has served as executive director of the Fund, on a volunteer basis, since 1981.

The articles of incorporation of the Plymouth Cummunity Fund were drawn up Nov. 8, 1944. On that date, Clarence H. Elliott, Francis C. Walsh, Catherine J. Henderson, Charles W. Rathburn, Robert O. Wesley, Maude M. Bennett, Clara L. Alexander, LeRoy Jewell and Samuel Spicer appeared before notary public Geraldine E. Jacobs and signed an application to form a non-profit corporation to be financed by "gifts, devices and bequests."

The application was received at the Detroit office of the Michigan Corporation and Securities Commission on the

At the first meeting of the organization, held at Plymouth City Hall on the evening of Nov. 15, Elliott was elected the Fund's first president, Walsh became vicepresident, Henderson secretary, and Alexander treasurer.

In 1945, the first full year of operation, Walsh succeeded Elliott as president, Edward H. Schlly became vice president, Margaret R. Hough secretary, and Clara Gayde Alexander treas-

Clara was the fund's treasurer from 1944 through 1946. Asked how she happened to serve on the board she says "I was assistant cashier at the Plymouth United Savings Bank at the time. When you worked in a bank people were always after you to become treasurer of one organization or the other."

In the articles of incorporation, the founders of the Community Fund wrote that its purpose was to "solicit, collect and receive any and all gifts, devices and bequests of funds and charitable contributions or other property and use and spend same for oharitable purposes, community services, and the general welfare of the people of the City of Plymouth and Township of Plymouth, Wayne County, Mich."

THE INCORPORATORS may have intended that funds collected be used for more than just charitable purposes.

The eligibility requirements they drew up apply to agencies benefiting from the funds contained in this paragraph: "The agency must maintain a program which falls wholly or in part in one of the following community categories: social work, education, recreation, health, social research or planning. Such a program may be the sole activity of the agency or may represent a sector of its work."

Early board members interpreted that to include support for more than charitable causes, and for a number of years money was provided for such non-charitable purposes as the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra.

Later boards have tended to interpret the Fund's purpose as the support of charitable and welfare organizations and the Symphony is no longer a bene-

As indicated, the Plymouth Cummu-nity Fund was established in 1944 but it may not have been the first such organization in Plymouth if I read correctly an entry I found in the minutes of the Women's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian Church. Dated Dec. 21, 1921, it is indicated that church member Mrs. Edward Alexander (no relation to Clara) told the group of a new community fund being started in the village. She asked the ladies if the auxiliary would like to make a donation. They said they had to get out of debt first.

If not the first, however, the Plymouth Community fund is the one that took hold and has been successful in responding to the area's charitable and welfare needs over the past four decades. It is a perfect example of what public-spirited citizens in a democracy can do on a voluntary basis to uphold the quality of life in the community in which they live.

CLARA ANDERSON doesn't recall who sparked the formation of the Community Fund here but it occurs to me that local govermental officials and industrial leaders may have been instrumental in getting the organization established.

The late Carl Shear, who served on the Plymouth City Commission from 1942 to 1944 when Stanley T. Corbett was mayor, told me that Corbett often complained about the multiplicity of fund-raising drives in Plymouth.

C.H Elliott, who beame the Fund's first president, was city manager at the time; Charles Rathburn was township supervisor, and Samuel Spicer was township treasurer.

Local industry was represented among the founders in the person of Robert Wesley, an executive at the Daisy Manufacturing Co.

Advice on the eve of the Playoffs

There was a very familiar ring to the last words Sparky Anderson gave to the Tigers as they departed for Kansas City and the championship playoffs.

According to those who were on the scene, he gathered the players around him in the locker room of Yankee Stadium and said: "Fellows, go out there and have some fun. Don't get tied up in nerves. Let's enjoy ourselves for we don't know if we will be back again."

AS THE STROLLER read these words in the daily prints he had to turn back the pages a half-century to the dressing room at the old University of Detroit football stadium, and recall the words Coach Gus Dorais gave the players between the halves of thier toughest game of the season.

It was in 4928 when the Titans were undefeated and played against a very strong Georgetown team from Washington, D.C., and were trailing 13-7 at

Not only trailing, the players were the victims of a physical beating and hung their heads as they sat They all had the appearance of a team that expected a bawling out. They sat there with their Finally Dorias walked into the room with some friends and paid no attention to the players. It was a strange sight. Then came the call "Two Minutes," meaning that the teams were due on the field in those two min-

With that warning Dorais turned to the players those spent on the Notre Dame footbasll team. They were days I'll never forget.

But you fellows aren't enjoying yourself. You are not having any fun. So let's see you smile and go out there with the feeling that you can have some fun that you will remember all of your life.

"Remember that Six Mile Road will cross Livernois tomorrow and every day after that, regardless of what happens out there on the field."

WITH A MOTION to the players to rise he closed with a pat on the back to each of them and said: "Let's see your smile. Go on out and have some fun. You'll never regret it and you'll have some fond memories.'

The players responded with a smile. They didn't get the bawling out they expected and we fellows from the papers had to smile, too, as it was the strangest dressing-room scene we ever had seen.

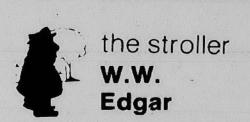

And it had its effect. Down 13-7, they took the play away from Georgetown, then one of the strongest teams in the East and finally won, 33 to 13. And it meant an undefeated season — the only one they ever had.

That was a long time ago. But somehow the memory of it lives on. And it may be the same for the Tigers.

Sparky had a method in his choice of words. He figured the team was tightening up as the series approached. He wanted them to relax — play the game as a regular season game, and they'd enjoy it. "Let's have some fun, 'cause you never know, you may not be back again.

It would be great if his words had the same effect on the Tigers that Dorais' words had on the Univer-

Treatment, Recovery and Aging Joints

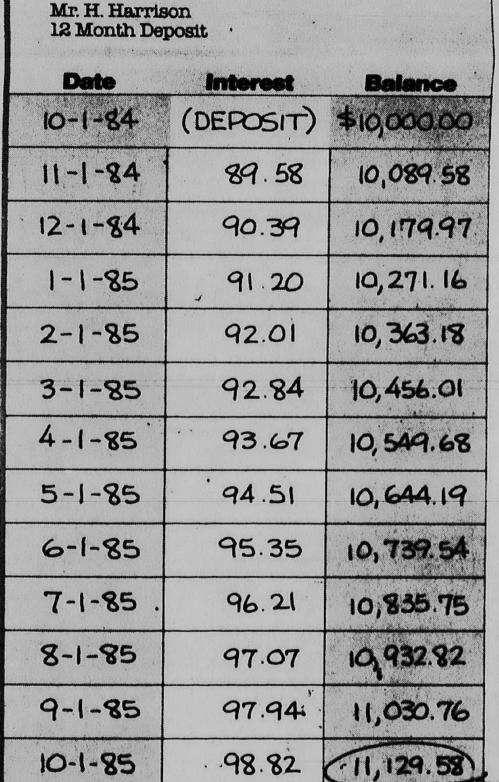

Physicians face a problem when treating older individuals with joint pain and decreased ability to walk. Often older people grow impatient with their infirmities and want to recover faster than nature will allow.

Even when one is otherwise in the best of health, it is difficult to speed up the healing of joints with medicine or injection. In many instances the role of treatment is to make the healing process less painful, rather than to scoelerate repair.

You may ask: "Why not add or change medicines?" However the elderly often are sensitive to the side effects of medication with the result that such a change can be more hazardous then the condition being treated. Therefore it is not always considered good practice to add more medicine when the one currently being used isn't working as quickly as you would like.

At times, the patient interprets this reluctance to change therapy as meaning the doctor "wants me to live with my pain." What the physician is doing is imaking a delberate pause. The healing forces set in motion by treatment still need time to act.

DASH-OFF DINNERS Not for Working Women Only!

Most of us, at one time or another, are pressed to get a nutritious dinner on the table quickly. And, we generally strive to make sure the meal is also tasty, eye-appealing and inexpensive. Too big an order? No, not when you break out the eggs!

Nutritious, economical and versatile eggs are nature's own convenience food. Perhaps that's why they're popular the world over. Start with eggs, then borrow from the cuisines and cooking methods of numerous nations to form menus just right for today.

EGGS AND PASTA VÉRDE

Vérde, Italian for green, refers to the noodles which serve as a dramatic contrast to pristine poached eggs. The egg yolks, when broken, make a marvelously rich sauce. Crusty Italian or French bread and a tossed salad would be good go-alongs. Set them out while you're bringing the water for the eggs and noodles to a boil.

- 1/2 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 1 teaspoon Italian seasoning, crushed 2 medium tomatoes,* coarsely chopped

- 1 package (8 oz.) spinach noodles, cooked and well drained
- 2 tablespoons cooking oil
- Paprika, optional

In 10- to 12-inch omelet pan or skillet or 3-quart saucepan, heat 2 to 3 inches of water to boiling. Reduce heat to keep water simmering. Break eggs into medium bowl. Then slip eggs into water, holding bowl close to water's surface. Cook 3 to 5 minutes, Meanwhile, gently toss hot noodles with cheese, oil and seasonings until noodles are evenly coated. Add tomatoes. Toss again. Divide evenly among 4 warmed dinner plates.

With slotted spoon, lift 2 eggs onto each serving of noodles. Sprinkle with paprika, if desired. Serve while hot.

DELI DELIGHT SCRAMBLE

Though there are French, German, Hungarian and kosher varieties, salami originated in Italy. And, scrambled eggsnature's original skillet supper—are universally popular. Put them together and you have a dish that appeals to both modern tastes and timetables.

l tablespoon butter cup (8 oz.) sliced fresh mushrooms

1/4 cup chopped onion 8 eggs

1/2 to 1 teaspoon dry mustard Parsley sprigs, optional

In large omelet pan or skillet over medium heat, cook mushrooms, salami and onion in butter until vegetables are tender but not brown, about 5 minutes. Mix eggs, milk and mustard until blended. Pour over vegetable-salami mixture. As mixture begins to set, gently draw an inverted pancake turner completely across the bottom and sides of pan, forming large soft curds. Continue until eggs are thickened but still moist* Do not stir constantly. Garnish with parsley, if desired.

Alt is better to remove scrambled eggs from pan when they are slightly underdone. Heat retained in eggs completes the cooking

2-PAN MACARONI MEDLEY

While the macaroni cooks in a pan, all the vegetable and protein foods you need to round out a meal cook in a skillet. Though only the bacon is actually fried, the method of cooking ingredients step by step, one or a few at a time, is borrowed from the Oriental stir-fry technique. And, the result is a delightfully different combination of Italian and all-American foods.

- 3 slices bacon, diced
- 1 package (10 oz.) frozen chopped
- broccoli 1/4 cup water 6 eggs
- 1/2 cup dairy sour cream
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese
- 2 tablespoons instant minced onion 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder 1 can (4 oz.) sliced mushrooms,

 - 2 cups (6 oz.) macaroni shells, cooked

In 10- to 12-inch omelet pan or skillet over medium heat, cook bacon until crisp. Remove from pan, drain and set aside. Pour off drippings and set aside 2 tablespoons of the drippings. In same pan, cook broccoli with water, covered, over medium heat until completely thawed and broken apart 7 to 8 minutes Drain.

Beat together eggs, sour cream, cheese and seasonings. Pour reserved drippings into pan. Add drained broccoli, reserved bacon, mushrooms and drained macaroni. Pour in egg mixture. Cook over medium heat until egg mixture begins to set on bottom. With pancake turner or large spoon, gently lift and turn mixture until eggs are set but still moist.

OMELETS CREOLE

4 servings

In Latin, Creole means "creative person" and creative is an apt description of Creole cuisine. French and Spanish settlers brought with them the best of their old world cooking and added the foods they found plentiful along the Mississippi River and Gulf Coast. If you like, for complete authenticity, add a pinch of file for texture and a few drops of hot pepper sauce for more nip. Round out the menu with okra, cooked separately or in the sauce, and rice.

- 6 tablespoons butter, divided
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- /2 cup chopped green pepper
- 1/2 cup finely chopped celery
- 1 can (16 ez.) tomatoes
- 1 bay leaf 3/4 teaspoon garlic salt
- 8 eggs
- 1/2 cup water
- 1 package (4 oz.) tiny frozen cooked

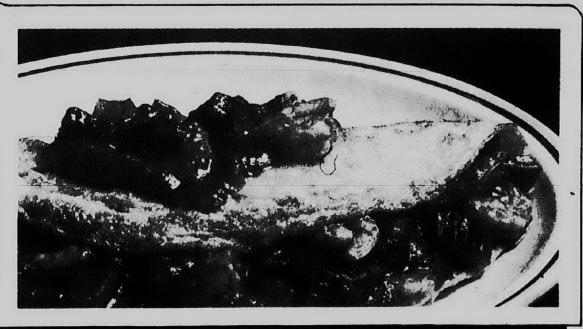

1/4 teaspoon ground thyme In medium saucepan over medium heat, cook onion, pepper and celery in 2 tablespoons of the butter, stirring occasionally, until tender but not brown, about 5 minutes. Stir in tomatoes, breaking apart with spoon, if necessary. Stir in seasonings, Increase heat to high. Cook stirring occasionally, until tomato mixture thickens, about 8 to 10 minutes.

Meanwhile, mix eggs and water until blended. Set aside. Stir shrimp into tomato mixture. Reduce heat to low and simmer just until heated through, about 2 to 3 minutes. Keep warm while preparing omelets. Remove bay leaf before filling omelets.

For each omelet, in 7- to 10-inch omelet pan or skillet over medium-high heat, heat 1 tablespoon of the remaining butter until just hot enough to sizzle a drop of water. Pour in 1/2 cup of the egg mixture. (Mixture should set immediately at edges.) With an inverted pancake turner, carefully push cooked portions at edges toward center so uncooked portions can reach hot pan surface, tilting pan and moving

While top is still moist and creamy-looking,* fill with 1/2 cup of the shrimp mixture. With pancake turner, fold omelet in half or roll, and invertionto plate with a quick flip of the wrist or slide from pan onto plate. Top with an additional 2 tablespoons of the shrimp mixture.

Repeat with remaining omelets. *It is better to fill omelet when it is slightly underdone. Heat retained in eggs completes the cooking.

FRENCH-TOASTED HAM 'N' EGG STACKS

These savory sandwiches are a hearty version of the French Croque-Monsieur or Monte Cristo. Easy to assemble and quick to cook, they're a snap to make if you keep hard-cooked eggs on hand.

- 3 tablespoons mayonnaise
- 1 tablespoon sweet pickle relish, well-drained
- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard 8 slices bread
- 4 slices (1 oz. each) Swiss cheese
- 4 hard-cooked eggs, sliced 4 thin slices tomato
- 4 thin slices (1 oz. each) ham
- 2 tablespoons in 2 to 3 tablespoons butter

In small bowl, blend together mayonnaise, relish and mustard. On each of 4 of the bread slices, place 1 slice of the cheese, 1 of the sliced eggs and 1 each of the tomato and ham slices. Spread with 1 tablespoon of the mayonnaise mixture. Cover with remaining bread slices. Secure each sandwich with 4 wooden picks, if necessary, and trim crusts, if desired.

In shallow pan or dish, beat together 4 eggs and milk until blended. Dip sandwiches in egg-milk mixture, turning to coat evenly. In large omelet pan or skillet over medium heat, cook sandwiches in butter until golden brown on both sides, turning once. Remove picks, if necessary. To serve, cut in half or into quarters.

To hard-cook, put eggs in single layer in saucepan. Add enough tap water to come at least 1 inch above eggs. Cover and quickly bring just to boiling. Turn off heat. If necessary, remove pan from burner to prevent further boiling. Let eggs stand, covered, in the hot water 15 to 17 minutes for large eggs. (Adjust time up or down by 3 minutes for each size larger or smaller.) Immediately run cold water over eggs or put them in ice water until completely cooled. To remove shell, crackle it by tapping gently all over. Roll egg between hands to loosen shell, then peel, starting at large end. Hold egg under running cold water or dip in bowl of water to help ease off shell.

For a square meal

Return with us now to those thrilling days of yesteryear

By Hugh Gallagher staff writer

"Square Meals," by Jane and Michael Stern, Alfred A. Knopf, $17.95. In these days of fast foods eaten on the run, low-cal salads and the exotic new cuisine, we often long for the satisfying heft of a square meal. Think of it pot roast with sweet carrots and onions, roast pork with mounds of mashed potatoes, macaroni and cheese just like they used to serve at school and all topped off with a rich devil's food cake or a deep dish apple pie.

Jane and Michael Stern have gone back to find out what Americans have really been eating the last 50 years. 'Square Meals" is a funny but affectionate look at American eating habits, covering everything from those solid square meals to the sinful varieties of Jell-O cuisine. The text is tongue-incheek but never disrespectful. The title is double-edged suggesting that the food is not only solid but also unsophis-

"Square Meals" is full of interesting recipes, but its main focus is on the why behind what we eat. The Sterns company promotions, the backs of old boxes and women's club recipe collections to find out what Americans have been eating, not what Julia Child and James Beard have been telling them to eat. They have explored the sociology of food right down to the class structure of hot chocolate - rich kids drank Ovaltine, poor kids got Bosco.

Anyone who grew up in the 1950s or before will appreciate the fun the Sterns had and will have their memories as well as their appetites stimulat-

THE BOOK is divided in keeping with the main focus, by social themes rather than kinds of food. The Sterns remind us of how much we've changed and how much we've stayed the same in our social and eating habits. They include a bit of history, a setting of time and place for each recipe.

The first section, "Ladies' Lunch," recalls the polite tearooms, the romantic candlelight dinners and afternoon hen sessions that were a part of another era. The food - light, delicate and fruity - is still with us but the setting has changed a bit. Men, even real men,

The Sterns believe that Jell-O must be the most important of all American foods. Wherever they went in search of recipes, they found something new they could do with Jell-O.

as dated as the leather-chair, smokefilled men's clubs. Here you'll find recipes for cinnamon buns, ambrosia cake, tomato aspic and cheese and crab delight.

Liver and onions is diner food. Diners, drug store lunch counters and ice cream parlors survive, but they aren't the essence of fast food they used to be. In the '30s, '40s and '50s, customers could get not only the classic American hamburger with fries but the above named liver and crater potatoes (thick, lumpy mashed potatoes with dark brown gravy erupting from the center). "Lunch Counter Cooking" recalls those great foods and advises that as accurate as the recipes are, you won't be able to recreate the true diner taste behave scoured popular cook books, food eat quiche now and tearooms are about cause your clean frying pan or grill is lacking in character. Here, also, you'll find recipes for school macaroni and cheese, Cincinnati five-way chili and numerous soda fountain favorites.

THE HEART of the book recalls that fine old ritual, the Sunday dinner. Here are the square meals of yesterday, the high calorie meals that were followed by a Sunday afternoon snooze. The recipes include "Mom's Best Pot Roast," country pan-fried chicken (eat your heart out Col. Sanders), roast pork with a rich bourbon-laden stuffing. Those were the days!

The Sterns save their wittiest writing and deepest thinking for a section on "Nursery Food." This is the soft, warm, comforting food of our childhood that we still yearn for in our middle-age and dear friend, cozy is the word. Every effort must be made to induce snuggli-

It is food that reminds us of mother and shuts out the bad old world. The Sterns give detailed instructions on how to butter toast and how to top it with cinnamon or sink it in milk. Banana puddings, oatmeal with brown sugar and after-school gingerbread are here, also, a number of variations on hot chocolate.

The American cook learned to innovate during World War II when many basics were rationed. The Sterns paytribute to this special '40s food and those hearty cooks in "Victory Dinner." In addition to the patriotic, staple-saving rookie cookies and military meatballs, the section also contains a recipe for every soldier's favorite breakfast — creamed beef on toast.

It was the 1950s that saw the emergence of modern America. The population shifted from central cities to the suburbs and a new "Cuisine of Suburbia" was born. This cuisine was promoted by Betty Crocker, Kraft cheese, Jell-O and other companies through

The Sterns write, "Alone or with a gimmicks, cookbooks and television spots. It was a cuisine of TV snacks casseroles and endless varieties of Jell-O salads.

> The Sterns believe that Jell-O must be the most important of all American foods. Wherever they went in search of recipes, they found something new they could do with Jell-O. In tribute to this fact, the Sterns end with a section on the wiggly treat. A highlight here is "Undescended Twinkies," the Hostess cupcake concoction nestled in Jell-O. They also cover patio parties, pizza burgers and cooking with corn flakes. They write that they found "a trove of forgotten flavors and a rumpus room full of fun" in suburbia.

> The book is amusingly packaged to mock the Betty Crocker and Better Homes and Garden cookbooks. The illustrations are brilliantly selected old ads, cartoons, cookbook and magazine illustrations. The effect perfectly matches the tone of the book - funny, a bit sarcastic but also warm and respectful.

> This book is a treat for readers as well as cooks.

Popcorn's been around awhile — for a reason

What is more American than apple pie, is a super snack for dieters and nowadays comes in a wide variety of flavors?

Popcorn! And this natural and nutritious food will be in the national spotlight all during October. It's Popcorn Poppin' Month, according to the Pop-corn Institute, the Chicago-based association of United States popcorn processors.

For 31 days, popcorn fans across the country can feast on their favorite snack, try out new recipes and flavors, hold popcorn fests and festivals and generally have a joyous time saluting the food that's good to the last crunch.

Although the October celebration will generate lots of popcorn nibbling, there's plenty consumed the other eleven months, too. Last year Americans ate almost 10-billion quarts of popped popcorn. That's 42 quarts per man, woman and child!

Popcorn poppin' and munchin' have been an ongoing event in the U.S. for thousands of years. Long before the Institute established a special popcorn month and even before Columbus set sail to the New World, American Indians were popping corn in hot sand, on hot stones, in shallow clay pots or right on the cob over an open fire. The original Americans knew a good thing when they tasted it.

Popcorn snackin' was not limited to North American tribes in those long ago days. There's proof that South American and Mexican Indians also considered popcorn a tasty treat. A primitive popcorn cob about 4,445 years old was found in LaPerra Cave in the mountains of northeastern Mexico. In tombs on the east coast of Peru researchers discovered grains of popcorn believed to be over 1,000 years old that were so well preserved they still

POPCORN HAS many pluses. The longtime all-American favorite snack has a lot going for it. Besides being great tasting and fun to eat, popcorn is:

 Versatile — from breakfast to midnight snack. Since the nation's beginning when colonial wives served popcorn with sugar and cream for breakfast - the first puffed breakfast cereal - the use of popcorn has expanded greatly. Today popcorn is served as a before-dinner appetizer and a party hibble. Kids love it as a substitute for croutons or crackers in soup and as an after-school treat. Popcorn is a college student's late-night study snack. Creative cooks turn it into delicious desserts - Fantasy Popcorn Cake and Chocolate Popcorn Pie delight guests. And, of course, moviegoers favorite munch is popcorn.

• It's nutritious - downright good for you. The experts agree, popcorn is a wholesome snack food. The American Dental Association recommends popcorn as a sugar-free snack. Furthermore, chewing popcorn creates a mild cleansing and massaging action that is beneficial to both teeth and gums.

The Illinois Divison of the American Cancer Society lists high-fiber food as one of the 11 things that don't cause cancer. Popcorn is a high-fiber food. Weight Watchers International Inc. in its weightreduction program. Many diet plans recommend popcorn as a between-meal snack.

Making soup from scratch

Randomly switching television channels one afternoon I came across one of the TV chefs making soup from

He started with a large pot of hot water and three bay leaves. Talking as he worked, the chef cut up an onion and popped it in the pot on a heated burner.

Next came the vegetables: two cutup potatoes, a large sliced carrot, some celery, cauliflower, squash, green pepper and tomato. He topped it off with fresh dill and parsley.

My wife doesn't toss the whole garden into her soup, but it comes out nifty to the taste buds just the same.

Anita likes to use a handy package of frozen vegetables especially for soup when he doesn't feel up to starting from scratch and slicing up fresh ones.

But she never fails to add freshly cutup potatoes and sliced celery.

She likes to drop in a cut-up chicken to give her soup added flavor. She also adds egg noodles because, frankly, she loves noodles.

Anita removes the chicken breast before it falls apart, always thinking ahead to what she's going to serve us later in the week.

She doesn't always start from scratch, but I'll take her soup anytime.

CHICKEN-VEGETABLE SOUP 3-lb. broiler-fryer, cut up 1 can (14 % oz.) clear chicken broth 1 or 2 chicken bouillon cubes Salt, black pepper and celery salt to 3 celery ribs, sliced

1 pkg. (1 lb.) frozen vegetables for soup Some medium egg noodles

Place chicken in large pot, cover with water, add bouillon cubes, seasonings, celery and potatoes, put on heavy lid and cook on medium heat 11/2 hours. Remove split chicken breast for future meal. Add frozen vegetables and desired amount of noodles. Cover and cook 30 minutes. Serves a crowd.

MUSHROOMED CHICKEN BREAST 1 cooked chicken breast, split 1 can (10 % oz.) condensed cream of mushroom soup

Place chicken in small saucepan, cover with soup and heat through.

Raisins and carrots combine in dessert-special cheesecake

A homemade cheesecake is a special dessert. And, every cheesecake can be about as special and diverse as the company you make them for.

Among the many variations on the classic cheesecake recipe, is this one that features the healthy combination of raisins and carrots in this suggestion for Carrot 'N' Raisin Cheesecake.

With cream cheese in the recipe, you can be assured of a creamy, rich con-

Let your friends know they're special by serving them the best of your cheesecake collection.

CARROT 'N' RAISIN CHEESECAKE 1 cup graham cracker crumbs

3 tbsp. sugar 1/2 tsp. cinnamon

3 tbsp. margarine, melted

3 8-oz. pkgs. cream cheese

1/2 cup sugar 1/2 cup flour

4 eggs 1/4 cup orange juice 1 cup finely shredded carrot 4 cup raisins 1/2 tsp. ground nutmeg

21/2 cups sifted powdered sugar

1/4 tsp. ground ginger 2 tbsp. orange juice Dash of salt

Combine crumbs, sugar, cinnamon and margarine; press onto bottom of 9inch spring-form pan. Bake at 325 degrees, 10 minutes. Combine 21/2 packages softened cream cheese, sugar and 4 cup flour, mixing at medium speed on electric mixer until well blended. Add eggs, one at a time, mixing well after each addition. Blend in orange juice and combined carrot, raisins, remaining flour and spices. Pour over crust. Bake at 450 degrees, 10 minutes. Reduce oven temperature to 250 degrees; continue baking 55 minutes. Loosen cake from rim of pan. Cool before removing rim of pan.

Combine remaining cream cheese, juice and salt, mixing until well blended. Gradually add sugar, mixing well after each addition. Pour over cheesecake. Top with raisins.

When bees swarmed and set up a new home under an eave, they began making layers of wax with cells for eggs and honey.

Bees on their bonnets

He talked to Roger Sutherland, who teaches a beekeeping class at Schoolcraft College. Sutherland said the bees would not survive the winter because of cold and lack of enough food. Beekeeper David Nairn of Plymouth and two students from the beekeeping class moved the hive and all three received several stings in the process.

They sliced up the honeycomb and placed the sections in a box, working late in the day when the bees were quiet. They left the box on the roof overnight, so as many bees as possible would get into the box. Before daylight, they came back and took the hive to the Schoolcraft College orchard, where it would be added to a weak hive in need of more bees. The honey was left in the comb for winter

Pat Peruski prepares to light her smoker before putting on her gloves and hat. David Nairn hands her a bottle of sugar water while Mike Bee prepares strings. With smoker going, she sprays sugar water on bees to keep their attention on honey-making instead of her.

Bees gather on the slices of honeycomb which were tied to frames before they are put in the supers or boxes.

She scrapes wax and honey from the side of the house as the bees crawl on her and the house.

Doctor links poetry, medicine

John Stone, physician-poet, will appear in the Waterman Campus Center at Schoolcraft College at 2 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 14. He will talk about "The Physician as Poet" and read his poetry.

Stone, 48, taught a course in medicine and literature at Oxford University this summer. At home in Atlanta, Ga., he is professor of medicine and community health, director of the division of emergency medicine, associate dean and director of admissions at Emory University School of Medicine.

He has published two volumes of poetry, "The Smell of Matches" in 1972 and "In All This Rain" in 1980. A third will be published this fall.

With a work schedule that leaves him red-eyed from lack of sleep, he has become a jotter. Interesting thoughts and phrases are recorded on the 3-by-5 index cards he carries always in a breast pocket. Sometimes these jottings make their way into a poem - not always.

STONE BELIEVES poetry is the only means of nourishing the qualities of empathy and understanding in medical students.

In a recent interview in MD Magazine, he said, "Medicine is a losing game, but inherent in poetry is magic and affirmation of life. Some scientists call the arts 'soft data,' but in reality they are the hard data by which we live our lives."

In another medical journal, "Outlook," published by Washington University School of Medicine, Stone is quot-ed: "Medicine is the best profession I could imagine. You can look at X-rays, you can see patients, you can be in research or in pure academics. But it comes down to liking people. That's the link of poetry and medicine. Medicine demands that you are concerned with human problems. That's where poetry comes in. Literature can remind us of the patient's humanity and our humani-

JOANNE STEIN of the Schoolcraft Liberal Arts Department is responsible for booking Stone's Sunday afternoon appearance at the community college.

Stein became interested in his poetry more than a year ago. She wrote to him and they have maintained a correspondence which has resulted in his coming here.

He will be staying at the Mayflower

Hotel in Plymouth.
Miller Williams, a former chemistry professor turned poet, critic and tran-slater, is an old friend of Stone's. The medical student and the professor were closet poets at Millsap University.

Williams has been criticizing Stone's poetry for years. He has said that Stone is a firm believer in the dictum of poet John Nims, who says, "When a poem stops, the reader ought to go through the windshield."

Stone's "Autopsy in the Form of an Elegy" is an example of this: "In the chest in the heart was the vessel was the pulse was the art was the love was the clot small and slow and the scar that could not know the rest of you was very nearly perfect

Tom Hulce is Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart in "Amadeus," story of the struggle between the musical genius and a jealous, rival composer.

the movies

Greenberg

'Amadeus' brings world of Mozart luminously to life

There are many good reasons for seeing "Amadeus." Music, song, dance, photography, costuming, set decoration, acting, directing and production - put them all together, they spell

And, indeed, Director Milos Forman and Producer Saul Zaentz (the team whose "Cuckoo's Nest" won all the major 1976 Oscars) have combined the arts of filmmaking with those of ballet, opera and the concert stage to create a memorable film.

Much credit, of course, is due to many others (the credits run eight pages) as "Amadeus" represents superb coordination of all the visual arts and crafts with a number of aural ones.

"Amadeus" is the life story of 18th-century composer-musician Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart told from a particular viewpoint, that of Antonio Salieri. A contemporary of Mozart, Salieri is at one and the same time overwhelmed by Mozart's genius, appalled at Mozart's immaturity and decadence and terribly jealous of Mozart's immensely beautiful compositions.

MOST IMPORTANT of all, Salieri is consumed with hatred and rage that Mozart's genius serves (in Salieri's mind) to stress his own mediocrity. This is at the heart of the film's dynamic tension.

Even the title, "Amadeus" - Mozart's middle name, which may be translated from the Latin as "beloved by God" - serves to highlight Salieri's jealousy because of his inability to serve God with his music

Noted British conductor Neville Marriner and his Academy of St. Martin in the Fields orchestra provide the essential ingredient, superb rendition of Mozart's music as a counterpoint to the dynamic acting — most particularly that of former Plymouth resident Tom Hulce as Mozart and F. Murray Abraham as Antonio

Hulce has a remarkable range as his character ages and matures. There's more of the former than the latter, going from a silly young prodigy to a dying adult overwhelmed by his own creative energies

One of the film's many fine techniques blends Hulce's acting ability with Marriner's conducting. During several sequences, Mozart's composing is rendered as completed work on the sound track. We hear what Mozart imagines as he writes. This interplay between creation and performance is particularly effective.

IN SOME RESPECTS the movie is less about Mozart than about his impact on Salieri and what we can learn about human motivation, greed, jealousy and behavior.

F. Murray Abraham's characterization of Salieri is superb and the real essence of "Amadeus." That is not to diminish Hulce's contribution. Mozart lived a brief but intense 35 years while Salieri died at 75, providing Abraham with a much greater acting challenge, one he meets extremely well.

The film is historically authentic, although "Amadeus" may have taken some small liberties for the sake of this particular interpretation of events. Highly convincing 18th-century images are presented Filming was done in large part on location in Prague, the city now considered to most closely resemble 18th-century Vienna. "Amadeus" persuades and satisfies us visually with its accuracy and its photography by noted Czech cinematographer Miroslav Ondricek. Use of low-color temperatures, characteristic of the candle-lit era, softens the images and provides the proper historical

AS A MATTER of fact, 27,000 candles were used in filming "Amadeus," 6,000 of which were placed in Prague's Tyl Theater. An authentic locale, the theater is one of the few surviving 18thcentury wooden structures. It is the theater in which Mozart conducted the world premiere of "Don Giovanni" on Oct. 29, 1787.

The candlelit theater is just one fine example of Forman and Zaentz's authentic images. Their half-million dollar budget for 1,500 wigs is another. The film's images are beautiful for their own sake. They provide the proper background for this story of Mozart's struggle to create beauty amidst artistic intrigues for royal patronage, the key to economic survival.

F. Murray Abraham is Antonio Salieri, who devotes his life and music to God but loses his religious faith when he sees how Mozart has been creatively blessed.

Canton's Troy McCall makes a big hit on Walled Lake Western quarterback Chris Haney in the Chiefs' homecoming win Friday.

Ground attack lifts Canton by Western

So many people have wondered just what would happen if the Plymouth Canton football team ever played up to its capabilities.

Walled Lake Western found out Fri-

The Chiefs treated their homecoming day fans to a 34-6 triumph against the Plymouth Canton head coach Rich Barr joked before the game that his team should spot Western 14 points and go from there. Canton the previous two weeks had blown 14-point leads.

As it turned out, the Chiefs spotted Western just 6 points. Quarterback John Doria hit Quent Scannell with a 5yard touchdown pass 5 minutes into the Canton captain Jeff Rummel, though, blocked the extra point try and the Chiefs took to the warpath.

DENNIS HARVEY brought the ensuing kickoff back 50 yards to put the Chiefs in scoring range. Quarterback Dave Knapp eventually took it in from the 1 and Dave Liuzzo kicked the extra Knapp set up the second score four minutes later with a nifty 30-yard scamper off the option play. Mike Johnson got the score - a 3-yard plunge. Liuzzo again kicked the PAT.

The Chiefs added 13 more points in the second quarter.

Rod Boyd, who had an outstanding game rushing for 102 yards, set up the third Canton score with a 40-yard run.

football

Boyd took it in from the 5. Liuzzo missed the kick.

Late in the third quarter, Knapp got roughed up and left the game temporarily. Tony Aiken, the Chiefs wide receiver, took over at quarterback and promptly scored on a 14-yard run.

Aiken also had a key interception, snuffing out a Western scoring drive in the first half. Dan Olszewski and Jim Wallace also had pass interceptions for

The Chiefs, not letting down at all, capped the scoring in thrilling fashion. Harvey, who carried the ball just four times all night, broke off a 75-yard scoring run in the final quarter.

Harvey wound up with 83 yards total. Knapp rambled for 83. In fact, Canton had 314 yards in total offense, all gained via the run. The Chiefs did not attempt a forward pass.

WESTERN MOVED the ball against the Chiefs, gaining 189 yards rushing and 98 yards passing. But, the Canton defense made the big plays to keep the Warriors out of the end zone - something the Chiefs had been unable to do previously

The win improves Canton's record to 2-3, 1-2 in the Western Lakes. Western is now 0-3 in the league and 1-4 overall.

Salem blanks stubborn North

Plymouth Canton soccer coach Mike Morgan made all the right moves Thursday night in his team's 3-0 victory against Livonia Franklin.

The Chiefs had run into a brief dry spell in the goal production department. To rectify the problem, Morgan decided to beef up his midfield line.

"I did some lineup juggling tonight," Morgan said. "We've been having a problem getting the ball in the net. We've been relying too much on our defense to carry us through."

So. Morgan sent forwards Brad Neville and Steve Morell back to midfield.

The move worked like a charm. The Chiefs dominated the midfield play and the game against Franklin. In fact, Franklin got just one shot at Canton goalie Brian Gavigan in the second

"We really controlled the midfield and this is the first game I can honestly say that," said Morgan.

It was an important victory for the Chiefs. It keeps them atop the Western Lakes Western Division, a game ahead of both Northville and Livonia Churchill. Canton is 3-0 in the division, 6-1 in the conference and 8-2 overall.

Morell got the Chiefs on the board first, scoring from Brian Yergin at the three-minute mark of the game

Salem head coach Tom Moshimer hasn't had to deal with this kind of start too many times since he adopted the wishbone offense in 1973.

But, to Moshimer, the worst thing about Salem's poor start this season was its inability to score points consistently. Ah, but the wishbone returned to Rock attack Friday night just in time to lead Salem to a thrilling 34-28 vic-

RECEIVING GEM

Bob Smedley continues to shine for the Adrian College Bulldogs. The junior tight end, a graduate of Redford Bishop Borgess, latched onto two passes for 40 yards in a 31-27 win over Mount Union Sept. 29.

Smedley had 14 catches for 197 yards and two touchdowns going into last Saturday's game against Alma, second best on the team.

Against Ohio Northern Sept: 22, Smedley earned Bulldog Offensive Lineman of the Week honors after hauling in four catches for 84 yards and a touchdown. The 6-foot-3, 232-pounder also successfully completed 92 percent of his blocking assignments.

ON THE RUN Talk about busy days.

Mike Burton, a Livonia native now attending Albion College, was up at dawn last Saturday (Sept. 29) for an 8 a.m. Law Scholastic Aptitude Test. After completing the six-hour exam, Burton raced over to Blackstock Stadium for the Briton's football game against the DePauw Tigers.

After a quick warm-up, Burton entered the game, which was already in the first quarter. It didn't take the senior cornerback long to get into the flow of things - he intercepted a pass early in the second quarter and was credited with eight tackles on the day. Despite his efforts, DePauw prevailed 21-6.

Western rally stumps Bentley

By Brad Emons staff writer

It was a rematch of last year's Western Lakes Conference girls basketball championship.

But the results were slightly different this time around as Walled Lake Western reasserted itself in the league race Thursday night, handing defending champion Livonia Bentley its first loss of the season, 55-49. (The game was played at Walled Lake Central. Western's home court was unavailable because the floor is being refurbished).

This was a different Western team than the one that lost two weeks ago to Plymouth Salem, 48-29, a defeat which dropped the Warriors out of the Class A state rankings.

And this certainly wasn't the same Bentley team that had beaten six consecutive foes.

'We're disappointed," said Bentley coach Tom Lang. "But it was the same thing a year ago at this time. We're tied Bentley and Salem, members of the Lakes Division, each have one loss. Western, the Western Division leader, also has one defeat.

"TUESDAY'S game is a must," said Lang, looking ahead to the battle at Sa-"Hopefully we'll be a different

After leading by a point at the half, Bentley went sour in the third quarter against Western. The Bulldogs coughed up the ball frequently and were guilty of poor shot selection.

That gave Western enough impetus to build a 13-point lead, only to have the Bulldogs fight back with a 10-2 spurt during first four minutes of the fourth period.

Leading the charge was senior forward Sheri Wolfe, who scored a basket to give the Bulldogs a brief 45-43 lead with 5:05 remaining.

But Wolfe, who scored team-high 16 points, fouled out on a hairline charging call with 3:38 to go and game tied.

Western immediately took advantage of her absence, reeling off six straight points.

Val Hall, Western's 6-foot-3 center, turned inside for a short jumper to give the Warriors the lead for keeps with 1:40 to play, 51-49.

TWIN TOWER Carol Croll, a 6-1 senior, also blocked a shot to set up a Sheri Davis basket that sealed Bent-

"There were two turning points," Lang said. "At the beginning of the third quarter, we made a bunch of turnovers - all uncaused - and we allowed them to get up.

"Then, we made the drive (by Wolfe) and get called on the charge. That basket would have counted, but it's a fourpoint turnaround."

The Bulldogs may have been feeling the effects of a gruelling 61-60 triple overtime win two days earlier over Livonia Stevenson.

"In the third quarter we looked real tired," said the Bentley coach. "Hopefull we were just tire. We've got to work on our defense."

The highly recruited Hall, who entertained coaches from Purdue, Penn State and Houston, led Western with 16 points, 11 rebounds and two blocked shots. Davis and Croll added 12 and 11 points, respectively.

Welfe, meanwhile, got help from teammates Kelly Kowalski (10 points) and Lonnie Payne (eight points and eight assists).

Chief rally falls shy, Rocks blast N'ville

When do you start substituting basketball game?

It's a question that has long given coaches headaches trying to figure out. Livonia Stevenson coach Wayne Henry may have learned a lesson or two Thursday night.

His Spartans beat Plymouth Canton 44-39, but early on it didn't look like it would ever be that close.

Stevenson, playing without its starting forward Lisa Bokovoy, built up a 10-0 lead after a quarter. It was 28-12

It was then that Henry began substituting.

Before long, the pesky Chiefs were back in the ballgame.

"We had our reserves in and Canton began pressing us. They caused a lot of turnovers and got back into the game. We had to put our starters back in," Henry said.

Unfortunately for Henry, his starters were in foul trouble. Joan Frysinger, who played an outstanding game with 17 points and 20 rebounds, fouled out in fourth quarter. Amy Rozman fouled out soon after. Then guard Ann Marie Dalimonte went down with an

With five minutes left, Canton got within four points. The Spartans, how-ever, didn't allow the Chiefs to get any

"With four of our five regulars not in the game, you've got to give our people off the bench credit," Henry said. "They really held their own in there."

Lisa Russell had the hot hand for the Chiefs. She finished with 16 points, 11 in the third quarter.

It was a big win for Stevenson. The Spartans had endured two tough losses back-to-back to Plymouth Salem and Bentley. The win puts Stevenson at 6-3, 3-3 in the Western Lakes.

Canton, also 3-3 in the conference, is

The Rock defense was as stingy as could be in the first half. Northville scored just three points in the first half.

"Northville didn't really have a lot of shot opportunities against us, but they had a lot of free throw opportunities They had the opportunity to hang with us early, but they just didn't make them," Thomann said.

Northville hit just one of 13 from the line in the first half. Salem got 10 points from guard Reg-
