Baby sitter found guilty in infant's death

Wayne County Circuit Court Judge John Kirwan has found Michelle Mackey, 24, guilty of second degree murder Thursday in the July 1985 death of a 14-month-old Canton Township baby.

Sentencing for Mackey, who did not take the stand during her two-day, non-jury trial before Kirwan, is set for March 17. The Butwell Street resident, who was babysitting for Lyndia Hubbard at the time of her death, faces up to life in prison.

Defense attorney Robert Slameka presented no witnesses for the defense during the trial; the prosecution presented 14. The baby's mother, Sandra Hubbard, 23, who lives in Canton's Sherwood Mobile Home Park, was the first prosecution witness to testify.

According to trial testimony, Mackey sunbathed in her backyard, smoked marijuana and drank whiskey the afternoon of the baby's death. Michigan State Police officers testified they found an empty whiskey bottle under a couch in Mackey's small framed home and a film canister containing nine marijuana cigarette butts in a drawer.

In a statement made to Livonia police hours after the baby's death, Mackey admitted she had smoked marijuana during the day and had drunk a mixed drink with whiskey in it.

PROSECUTORS' Repeat Offender Bureau (PROBE) prosecuting attorney Douglas Baker said "the combination of smoking and drinking" lowered Mackey's inhibitions to the point where she couldn't cope with a crying child.

"It's my opinion that the baby was out of sorts that day," Baker said. "She generally was a good-natured child and there was no need to discipline her. With her smoking and drinking, her inhibitions were down. She was not experienced with kids when they don't behave. The baby cried and she shook her. It escalated. She shook her again and the baby kept crying. She finally dashed her head into a floor or wall. It did the job. It shut the baby up."

In her statement, Mackey admitted spanking and shaking the baby because she was crying and because she kept getting out of bed. She said she was "mad" about baby's crying. But she attributed the baby's injuries to either a fall from the water bed or a footstool.

Defense attorney Slameka said there was a "reasonable doubt" as to what happened the afternoon of July 24, 1985, because no one saw how the baby's injuries occurred.

DR. IAN HOOD of the Wayne County Medical Examiner's Office testified an autopsy showed the baby died from injuries caused by her head hitting a broad flat surface. The doctor testified the baby suffered both external and internal injuries to the front and back of her head.

These included two skull fractures to the back of her head and at least 12 bruises to her face and head, the doctor said.

Hood testified the injuries were inconsistent with a fall from a water bed two feet off the floor. He estimated the baby would have had to fall at least five feet to suffer the injuries she did. The doctor said the baby had a carpet imprint on her chin.

Hood testified that a tab of skin in the baby's mouth which attaches the upper lip to the gum had been broken. He testified that the tab never tears by accident or a fall -- only through friction. He said the skin tab could have broken if the baby's head had been ground into the floor or if someone's hands had been ground into the baby's face.

RITA WILAMOWSKI, a neighbor, testified she saw Mackey sunbathing in her backyard while the baby cried constantly from 1:30 p.m. She testified Mackey went into her house about 3 p.m. When she came out, Wilamowski testified she heard Mackey say, "If you don't shut up, I'm going to beat your butt."

Michigan State Police officers said were able to determine where the baby was when she started bleeding by measuring blood spatterings on the wall. Police said the baby was four feet off the floor when she began bleeding.

"The baby was picked up, shaken and at some point her head hit either the floor or wall," Baker said.

Sandra Hubbard, the baby's mother, testified her daughter had no injuries when she took her to Mackey's house at 10 a.m. Wilamowski said the baby "appeared normal" when she talked to Mackey around noon. Mackey took the baby to a store and was carrying her home when the conversation took place, Wilamowski testified.

Turner emphasizes 'human needs'

Wayne County Commission veteran Samuel A. Turner entered the race for county executive last week, declaring that "the bureaucracy must be streamlined" and "employee morale must be restored."

Turner, a Detroit Democrat, said those concerns and other "taxpayer needs" would be his priorities in his bid to succeed William Lucas.

After 14 years, Turner, a lawyer, decided against seeking re-election to the commission.

"I'M GOING going to emphasize human needs in terms of our funding process in government," he said.

"It's my thinking that at the present time the national administration is withdrawing these essential resources that working and poor people need just to survive."

He said there is a "bottleneck" in county operations causing lags in payments to vendors.

In addition, employee morale needs to be boosted to increase efficiency, he said.

TURNER, 59, said he planned to distinguish himself from the other Democratic candidates by noting his legislative and administrative experience.

He had served as chairman from 1980-82. He also pointed to his work on county reform, helping to engineer passage of Michigan's first home-rule county charter in 1982.

Turner said he has been instrumental in promoting legislative changes in the court system at the levels of Circuit Court, Recordors' Court and Common Pleas Court.

Turner said he made his decision to seek the office because of encouragement from others that he could continue to make a contribution and not because of "an ego trip, a want for power."

"I made my decision once I eliminated that," he said.

ON THE CAMPAIGN, he said he needs to build strength particularly in the western end of the county. He said he planned to step up personal contacts in this area and would not rely on "reputation alone." He said he planned to release a list of prominent supporters in the next few days.

Head of his own law firm since 1958, Turner also operated an insurance agency for 15 years until 1970. He is a certified arbitrator and was among the first referees appointed by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission. He also worked as an investigator and supervisor with the old Detroit Welfare Department.

Heintz files for Dumas seat

Northville Township Supervisor Susan Heintz has entered the race for the county commission seat in the 10th District, which includes Plymouth and Livonia.

Heintz, a Republican, said last week in her announcement, "I believe that the constituents of this area need a strong voice on the Wayne County Board of Commissioners. My demonstrated leadership and ability to work effectively and have the respect of many diverse groups will give this district effective representation."

If elected, Heintz said she will step down from her $19,000-a-year supervisor's post because keeping both jobs would "definitely be a conflict," she said.

The seat currently is filled by Livonian Mary Dumas, a long-time commissioner and the board's sole Republican. Livonia treasurer Elaine Tuttle, another Republican, is the only other declared candidate in the race. In contrast, Tuttle said she would maintain her city job if elected to the county board.

Heintz' involvement with township politics began in 1980 when she ran unopposed for clerk. She was elected township supervisor in 1984 after another uncontested campaign.

Besides local politics, she takes part in regional matters including memberships on the executive committee of the Southeast Michigan Council of Governments, the SEMTA board of directors, chairperson of the Rouge River Watershed Committee. She formerly served as executive director of the Conference of Western Wayne.

Heintz said she is seeking the position because it's a "step up," noting that Wayne County is the nation's third most populated county. In the months ahead leading up to the August primary she plans to run a visible campaign, particularly in the heavily populated portion of the district in Livonia, where she is less known than in the Plymouth-Northville area.

Hertel announces

John Hertel in the race

County Commission Chairman John Hertel, D-Harper Woods, was expected to announce his candidacy for Wayne County executive Sunday. Hertel has scheduled a day-long bus and car caravan starting in Hamtramck, running over to the county's west-side and ending in Detroit.

Hertel's announcement follows declarations of candidacy by Livonia Mayor Edward McNamara, county sheriff Robert Ficano, county commissioner Samuel Turner of Detroit and Sumpter Township Treasurer Thomas Gondek. All are Democrats.

The Democratic primary election will be held Aug. 4. In county elections, the candidate winning the Democratic primary for office almost invariably wins in the November general election.

Hertel, of Harper Woods, has been a commissioner since 1983 and was elected board chairman last year. Previously, he served in the state Senate for eight years and did an earlier stint on the Wayne County Commission.

He is also a political science professor at Lawrence Institute of Technology in Southfield.

competitions will be teams from Plymouth Christian Academy in Canton, Central Middle and Pioneer Middle schools in Plymouth. The Science

Olympiad is an attempt to improve the quality of science education, increase student interest in science, and elevate science to a level of enthusiasm usually witnessed only for varsity sports.

TEACHER HONORED: Judith Brosnan, teacher of the speech and language impaired for Plymouth-Canton Community Schools, will be honored for her outstanding achievement in the profession by the Michigan Speech-Language-Hearing Association (MSHA) at its banquet March 14 in Battle Creek. Brosnan, honored for service to children, developed the speech program for high schools students in Plymouth-Canton. The program is unusual because it is considered part of the high school curriculum.

Students certified as speech and language impaired may enroll in speech and language classes and earn high school credit. Under the program, students are not penalized by having to miss academic or vocational classwork and the inconvenience of having to leave class early or arrive late to receive speech and language therapy is avoided.

Daily attendance in speech and language therapy for a full 55-minute class session promotes considerable success in a short period of time, according to Zana Tauriainen, speech pathologist for Plymouth-Canton Community Schools.

TOP VOICES: Plymouth Centennial Educational Park (CEP) students in vocal music recently participated in District 12 of the Michigan School Vocal Association Solo and Ensemble competition at Eastern Michigan University. A Division III rating was given for vocal solos by Tonya Peterson. Jennifer Kincer received judge's comments. A Division I rating qualifies singers to participate in state level competition, which will be held Saturday, April 12, at the University of Michigan-Flint. Edward Bellaire and Michael Kavalhuna will both participate in the state competition. Bellaire was accompanied by CEP student Lisa Tilley. This is the first time that CEP vocal music students have participated in the solo competition. Laura Wiener is their director.

Erickson, who also plays piano, performs in Plymouth Salem High's swing ensemble. A junior, she's also vice president of the school's Students Against Drunk Driving chapter. "I hope to go into performing when I get older," she says.

The students practice with the full group every Sunday in Saline. Rehearsals began in December. "When we get closer to the tour, there'll be a week of intensive study before we depart for Japan," says Schmidt. Concert material includes sacred material "if it's appropriate," McCoy says, and medleys of American music including spirituals and folk songs.

Some preview concerts are scheduled prior to the tour, including one at the First United Methodist Church of Plymouth, tentatively set for June. The group, which last toured Japan in 1969, also has toured iron curtain countries four times.

McCoy urges those who'd like to sponsor students that donations are tax deductible.

GOP reps hail Engler candidacy as 'exciting'

By Tim Richard
staff writer

No one's endorsing her, but Republican state representatives from suburbia all say it's "exciting" that Colleen Engler is running for governor.

"She's everyone's second choice," said Rep. Mat Dunaskiss of Lake Orion, a Dan Murphy supporter.

The 33-year-old, fourth-term state representative from Mount Pleasant surprised party leaders when she announced she would be the fifth candidate — the only woman and the only legislator — to seek the GOP nod Aug. 5 for a chance to take on Gov. James J. Blanchard.

The wife of Senate Majority Leader John Engler, Rep. Engler rarely speaks on the floor or in committees, according to those who know her. But when she does, it's articulate and authoritative, they agree.

A MORE cynical view in the Capitol press corps is that Engler faces a tough challenge for her college-town House seat and is using the gubernatorial race for media attention.

"We're really excited," said first-term Rep. Lyn Bankes of Livonia. She learned of Engler's decision at a monthly meeting of women legislators.

"She will surface issues that are being buried. She asked us to identify bills that we cared about. Child care is my bag," said Bankes, a Bill Lucas supporter.

Pointing to President Reagan's emphasis on the family as the focal point of governmental programs, Bankes said it's the kind of issue a Republican like Engler can run on while other candidates hash over traditional issues.

"EXCITING," SAID Sen. Doug Cruce, R-Troy, who even sent out a press release on the topic. He called her "qualified for the job" but issued no endorsement.

"I'm very enthusiastic," said Rep. Judith

State Rep. Colleen Engler wants governor's job

Miller of Birmingham. "It will be an interesting campaign . . . I'm not endorsing anyone."

"I'm excited," said Rep. Shirley Johnson of Royal Oak, adding that "I never endorse in primaries."

"We're the Rainbow Coalition," chuckled Rep. David Honigman of West Bloomfield, pointing to the Engler and Lucas candidates. "All they (Democrats) have is WASPs." Honigman is a Murphy supporter.

"It's a new twist, a good idea," said Rep. Gordon Sparks of Troy. "I'm not committed."

"SHE'S GETTING in late," said Rep.

Gerald Law of Plymouth Township. "Most people are committed to other candidates," said Law, a Lucas supporter. "But she's very bright and articulate. It's good to see a woman running for higher office."

Dunaskiss, a three-term lawmaker and former Oakland County commissioner, touched on another reason why legislators are excited about Engler.

"She's one of ours," said Dunaskiss, an apparent reference to the fact that neither incumbent Democrat Blanchard nor challenger Lucas, Murphy, Richard Chrysler nor John Lauve has ever served in Michigan's Legislature.

"She's been on statewide campaigns. She has a network. She's one of the best-versed candidates in the state," Dunaskiss said.

Engler's own announcement stressed her experience in the Legislature and her out-state origins. She said Blanchard, a former congressman, is "uncomfortable working with Lansing legislators and has chosen to be a ceremonial governor." She made no mention of being a woman or trading on the women's vote.

YET ENGLER has never been known as a legislative leader in Lansing.

"I think she feels that people will look at her and say, 'Is that she or John speaking?'" said Dunaskiss. "She has been under a cloud."

Democrat Maxine Berman of Southfield agreed Engler talks little as a rule, "but then a lot of legislators don't."

Berman chairs the House Elections Committee of which Engler is Republican vice chair and said in that position Engler speaks oftener and more authoritatively.

But Sparks, who also serves on the Elections Committee, admits "I don't know her well."

Rep. Engler was 22 and freshly graduated from Michigan State with a political science degree when she won a special election for the House in her home town of Bay City in 1973. She got a lot of attention because it was in a normally Democratic district.

She won re-election in 1974 but lost in 1976. In 1978 she married fellow Republican John Engler and they moved to Mount Pleasant. She worked for the state chamber of commerce and was 1980 state campaign director for Vice President George Bush.

After reapportionment, she won the 98th District House seat in Isabella and Mason counties in 1983 and '84.

"She's everyone's second choice."

Let Good Timers roll

By W.W. Edgar
staff writer

These old timers are good timers, and each week, you will find them at Plymouth Bowl, having a great time of it trying to knock down the pins.

There are 160 of them — some coming from miles around — who spend the afternoon bowling. Because of their activity and the fun they are enjoying, these octogenarians now are rated as one of the finest senior citizen bowling leagues in the state.

Each time they meet to fire at the pins, there are 160 of them. They have been organized as a league for 10 years and meet not only to compete, but to have fun. And they really enjoy taking their turn with a heavy bowling ball in their hands.

The league was formed 10 years ago by Herman Rassaw who likes to tell how he once guided cows down Grand River.

AT AGE 89, Rassaw is the oldest member in the loop, one of a half dozen who have their eyes on reaching 90. With Rassaw in the four-score group are: R.J. Hochthanner, 89; Arnie Heath, 85; Jerry Dyke and Fred O'Connor, both 85.

They all agree that while they have been bowling since their younger days, they never have had as much fun as they do each Thursday on the lanes.

And while they are enjoying themselves, they never cease trying to make difficult spares.

"We have been bowling for years," said Harold Smith, league president, "but I never have enjoyed it as much as I do here each week. Ours is a grand group, we know each other well and we couldn't have more fun than we have on the bowling afternoons."

One of the things of which he, as president, is proud is that the league is evenly divided with men and women.

"USUALLY YOU will find a few women but we have just about as many women as men. And from the fun they are having they are enjoying the game more than anything else they could do."

In the friendly contests to earn an average Francis Wall is now showing the way with an average of 175 and Evelyn Miller is showing the way with an average of 164.

"The best thing about this league," added president Smith, "is that we have very few absentees. We have been here at Plymouth Bowl for 10 years and on Thursdays we are like one big family. That's why we adopted the name of Good Timers instead of Old Timers. We live up to our league name each week."

Choral concert coming

The Centennial Educational Park Vocal Music Department will present a concert at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, March 13, in the auditorium of Plymouth Salem High School.

The CEP Concert Choir and Treble Chorus will each perform the two selections that they will sing for Michigan School Vocal Association District Choral Festival Competition the next day at Cherry Hill High School.

These performances will be followed by solo selections by Concert Choir members Edward Belaire and Michael Kavalhuna who recently received a highest I rating at the association's District Solo & Ensemble Festival and will be competing at the state level in April.

The second half of the concert will feature the 18-member CEP Swing Ensemble, a group of junior and senior singers from Plymouth Canton and Salem high schools who rehearse daily in class. They perform choreographed songs in a wide range of musical styles, and are in continuous demand by community and civic organizations throughout the year.

Audiences this year for the Swing Ensemble have included the Canton Chamber of Commerce, the Plymouth Colonial Kiwanis, Plymouth Rotary, Plymouth BPW and St. John Neumann Women's Club. The ensemble also performed at invitational festivals at Novi and Wayne high schools.

The new feature of this concert is the "scholarship." A $1 donation will be asked at the door before the concert. All donations will be awarded as scholarships to CEP vocal music students who will attend summer music camps and workshops to further their study of vocal/choral music. The names of these students will be announced during the "Sing-Station '86" pops concert on May 22-23 at Canton High School.

The CEP Vocal Music Department is directed by Laura Wiener, and accompanied by Garlene Davis. Swing Ensemble choreography is by senior members Maria Bortell, Michelle Mielke and Elyse Mirto, and junior Wendy Kulczyk.

Student of month

Kim Murley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Murley of Canton Center Road, Plymouth, has been named student of the month for March by Plymouth Elks Lodge 1680. A junior at Plymouth Salem High, Kim earned a 4.05 grade point average through her junior year. Her teachers have said she consistently is the best prepared student with mature insights.

New Rouge council chief has scientific savvy

By Teri Senes
staff writer

Bruce Monson, who isn't in the habit of checking his daily horoscope, did so one day two weeks ago to learn he was in "for a sudden career change."

Coincidentally, that was the day he landed the job as executive director of the Rouge River Watershed Council. The council, based in Livonia, is charged with overseeing the water management and environmental concerns of the 125-mile river which runs through Wayne, Oakland and Wash-téna counties.

Arriving from Minnesota, where he worked as an environmental researcher, Monson soon realized it would be no lightweight assignment.

The Rouge River, according to the state and U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, is the dirtiest river in Michigan and an international pollution threat.

MONSON replaces Karen Gottlieb, who has joined the newly-created Michigan Office of the Great Lakes.

"Bruce is arriving at a good time, particularly because this is when the state Water Resources Commission is drafting its Remedial Action Plan for the Rouge," said Gottlieb of the cleanup that's shaping up. "It's important that we have someone who can critique that scientific effort."

With a master's degree in aquatic biology, Monson, 30, is attending the University of Michigan for a second master's in water resource management. He brings to the part-time Rouge post impressive credentials.

BEFORE LEAVING Minnesota, a state known for its abundance of lakes, he worked for a nationally known private foundation, the Gray Freshwater Biology Institute.

As a lakes research specialist, he studied chemical stresses on lake water, particularly the toxic levels of copper-sulfate and its effects on plankton growth in Lake Minnetonka.

Earlier, he worked for a consulting firm, the Environmental Research Group, at its St. Paul, Minn. base, taking ground water and air samplings of asbestos in local schools.

As a result, he stressed: "I'm not intimidated by a lot of technical detail, especially water quality."

In addition to his employment credentials, Gottlieb said she is impressed with Monson's work as an environmental advocate.

In the early 1970s, Monson worked as

—Bruce Monson
executive director,
Rouge Council

'The toxic load of the Rouge River impacts on the Great Lakes. And this concern extends internationally, between the United States and Canada.'

—Karen Gottlieb
outgoing director,

Monson said he will attempt to "raise some eyebrows" as well as much needed information about the river's pollution levels by asking some boat owners along the Rouge to collect daily samples of the river water. Because of jurisdictional arguments over the years, no one government agency has routinely collected this information.

He calls the work ahead a tremendous challenge because of the newly focused attention on the Rouge system. Gottlieb will remain close to Rouge work as the newest staff member in the four-person Office of the Great Lakes.

It was Gottlieb, a resources specialist, who stressed the need before the state's Water Resources Commission to involve local participation in the Remedial Action Plan. This plan eventually will be used for other water systems across Michigan once it's enacted on the Rouge.

"The toxic load of the Rouge River impacts on the Great Lakes. And this concern extends internationally, between the United States and Canada," she said.

a door-to-door canvasser on the Clean Water Action Project, a national push to adopt the federal Clean Water Act.

Monson planned to earn a zoology degree and open a dairy farm. But his work in a limnology (the study of lakes) laboratory as an undergraduate changed that.

"I was doing biology research, but began realizing that was not going to have a big impact on society. I'm getting more and more concerned about this as I get older," Monson said. "I started gravitating more to applied aspects. This job is perfect for me in that regard."

IN HIS ROUGE council role, Monson will seek funding from outside sources for the clean-up effort.

He also will act as a coordinator for the newly formed Friends of the Rouge citizens advocacy group and help organize the Rouge River Day, a recreational event planned this June to bring attention to the Rouge.

His biggest job will be coordinating local efforts in the river clean-up plan, which is being led by the state's Water Resources Commission along with the Michigan Department of Natural Resources.

To follow up on an idea from Gottlieb, who served as director for 18 months, Monson will organize an "Adopt a Mile of the Rouge River" program to gain support of civic and social groups.

"I'M A REAL believer in grass roots work," said Monson, who also directed

AUTO ACCIDENTS

Auto accidents are a frequent cause of spinal injuries. Even those collisions in which, apparently, no one is hurt, may have claimed innocent victims whose injuries were not immediately evident. In the absence of blood or broken bones, the victim may assume that he or she has escaped unharmed, when actually strained or damaged ligaments and muscles may allow vertebrae to slip and cause nerve interference that will show up later with pain and loss of function.

Plymouth Kiwanis Foundation established in 1967

(Part five)

The Kiwanis Club of Plymouth has counted among its members a number of figures prominent in city, township, state or national government.

Joe West, who joined the club in 1961, was treasurer of Plymouth Township until his retirement about a year ago. Ken Way, who joined the same year, is the city's treasurer-assessor. William Hartmann, who became a Kiwanian in 1963, served on the city commission on two different occasions and was mayor in the late 1940s.

Dunbar Davis, who joined Kiwanis in 1969, recently retired as a judge of the 35th District Court. Gerald Law, a member since 1972, is the current state Representative from this district. And Carl Pursell, who represents the 2nd District in the U.S. House of Representatives, is an honorary member of the club.

THE EVENING CLUB'S roster as of January 1985 showed 65 members.

Of these, the oldest in tenure is Kenneth Corey, who became a Plymouth Kiwanian in September 1928, the year the first all-talking movie made its appearance. The second longest member is Bud Schrader, who joined in October 1931, the year football lost Knute Rockne to a plane crash in Kansas.

Other long-time members of the club include: Dean Saxton, who joined in 1943; Wendell Lent, 1944; Harold Fischer, 1946; and Dr. Frederick Foust, who joined in 1949. Carroll Porter became a member in 1950; John Wallace in 1951; Austin Whipple in 1952; and Melvin Blunk and Roland Lutz in 1953. Twenty-seven of the club's 65 members have joined within the past 10 years.

Money raised by Kiwanis-sponsored past and present

fund-raisers has been used to meet a variety of community needs. As indicated earlier, the club helped to establish the Plymouth High School band in the 1920s. In the 1940s it sponsored a Boy Scout Troop. In the 1950s it built the Girl Scout Cabin.

THE CLUB HELPED to form the Little League in the 1960s.

During the same period it provided scholarships to Schoolcraft College, assisted the Plymouth Historical Society in its building program, and helped to beautify Kellogg Park.

In the 1970s, the Kiwanians improved Central Park and bought a truck for the Plymouth Fire and Drum Corps. In the 1980s it established the Plymouth Hall of Fame.

The principal fund-raisers used by local Kiwanians to raise money to finance community projects have varied over the years. In 1928, the club sponsored an indoor circus. For a number of years it staged a minstrel show. It also has conducted an annual rummage sale, a rifle shoot, an auction sale, an ice cream social and street dance, and sale of potted plants on Mother's Day.

Kiwanians have rolled up their sleeves and operated a bowling alley, worked at a gasoline station, sponsored Plymouth Theatre Guild plays, conducted peanut sales, sold fruit cakes, and served pancakes during the Plymouth Fall Festival. In 1985, the club sponsored a boat and recreation vehicle show in the Central Parking Lot.

For nine years, the Kiwanis Foundation, supported by both the evening and noon clubs, has sponsored a travelogue series. Proceeds have been used to complete Pointe Park on the west end of Plymouth Township at an approximate cost of $10,000, and to build a picnic shelter at Plymouth Township Park at a cost of approximately $30,000.

The Plymouth Kiwanis Foundation, founded in February 1967 by both of the clubs, is a non-profit organization set up to receive funds from Kiwanis club fund-raisers, from private donations and from bequests from estates.

Funds deposited in the foundation are used to provide community benefits in the areas of education, recreation, beautification, safety and institutional assistance. Contributions and bequests to the foundation are deductible for federal income tax and estate tax purposes.

A FRIENDLY rivalry has existed over the past 60 years between Kiwanis and the Plymouth Rotary Club. (Rotary was chartered here about 18 months before Kiwanis came into existence.)

In recent years the rivalry has manifested itself during the Christmas season when members of the evening and noon Kiwanis Clubs, and of the Rotary Club, don warm clothing and stand in the cold, ringing bells beside Salvation Army kettles. The purpose is to raise money for use by the Army in providing Christmas assistance to needy families.

Kiwanians and Rotarians try to outdo each other in seeing which club can attract the most dollars into the kettles. Kiwanis came out on top in 1984 but Rotary won the honors in 1985.

President of the Kiwanis Club of Plymouth for 1985-86 is Joe Pekarek, who joined the organization in 1977.

Father teaches Stroller top-notch lesson

SITTING IN the large classroom in one of our modern schools the other afternoon The Stroller was a bit surprised that there were no class benches up close to the teacher's desk.

It was on those benches where we young students had the best time of the school year. It was there, one day each month, that we got the results of our work and we were seated according to our averages.

In those days the students were given a report card with their average in each subject. There was a grand average at the bottom of the list and your standing in the class.

This report card had to be signed by your parents and when classes resumed we had what we called a trapping. This trapping was always exciting and there were some close races until we were seated according to our showing for the month.

FOR SEVERAL years, before he had to leave school because of the death of his father, The Stroller had the good fortune to head the class and take seat No. 1.

His rival for the top seat was a girl whose mother was a teacher in another building. We always felt that she had the breaks because she was helped at home. So, it was more of an honor to beat her for seat No. 1.

Then came the day he never will forget.

the stroller

W.W. Edgar

When the report cards were passed out he took one look and noticed that he was rated No. 2. All of a sudden there was a big lump in his throat. He wondered what his father would say when he saw that. For a moment there was a feeling that he should not be shown the report card.

At the noon recess the big moment arrived. It was time to show the report card. The Stroller's father took one look and then asked, "What was the matter here?" He had noticed the number 2.

THE LUMP seemed to get bigger. But he had to face the problem. "Don't forget," The Stroller answered, "I was absent for more than a week and couldn't study because I was sick."

The Stroller then waited for a calling down. He expected to be scolded. The father put his hand on The Stroller's shoulder and said, "When you trap this afternoon tell that girl that you only loaned the

No. 1 seat to her. Tell her you will take it back next month."

The Stroller's father was that way. He didn't believe in fighting and arguing. He was very serious.

He patted me on the shoulder and said, "So, now you have a job to do this month. Be sure you just loaned that girl the No. 1 seat."

INSTEAD OF getting scolded The Stroller became more determined that he had a big job to do. And he did it.

It was only a few months later that his father passed away. But he taught The Stroller a lesson that he never could have learned in school.

From that experience The Stroller learned never to injure an enemy or rival; treat them properly and then try to outdo them.

It was by using this lesson his father taught him that The Stroller regained the No. 1 position in his class until it became necessary for him to leave school to help support the family.

Opinions are to be shared

Opinions and ideas are most fertile when shared with others.

That's why the Plymouth Observer encourages its readers to share their views with others by making use of the From Our Readers column.

While the Observer expresses its opinions on the editorial page, we always leave space open for our readers to express their ideas.

Submitting a letter to the editor for publication is rather easy. We ask that letters be typewritten or printed legibly, 300 words or less, signed, and include the address of the sender.

Anne Frank exhibit displayed at UM-D

The international exhibition of "Anne Frank in the World: 1929-1945" will open at the University of Michigan-Dearborn Friday, March 14, on the second stop of its metropolitan tour.

At UM-D, a weeklong series of activities — films, lectures and panel discussions — will accompany the display of the photographs in the Recreation and Organizations Center (ROC).

The exhibit is free. Hours are 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. daily, and noon to 6 p.m. Saturday and Sunday. Free parking will be available in the UM-D parking structure across from the ROC Building.

THE EXHIBIT'S more than 800 previously unpublished photographs from Dutch and German archives, and private collections, provide a personal account of the life of Anne Frank.

Manuscripts, audiovisual presentations, and pages from the teenager's famous diary also give a historical account of events that led to the Nazis' rise to power, and of life in Germany and occupied Holland.

"Had Ann Frank, a typical child, lived next door, could she have counted on us for help during the Nazi regime?" is the question that the exhibit poses to viewers.

After opening in New York, Amsterdam and Frankfurt, the exhibit began a two-year tour of 16 major U.S. cities.

Honorary exhibit committee co-chairman, U.S. Rep. Sander Levin, D-Southfield, is expected to attend an evening opening ceremony on Thursday, March 13. Levin will be joined by Paul van den Muysenburgh, consul of the Netherlands, and Baucó vander Wal, from the Anne Frank Center.

Friday's formal opening of the exhibit will take place in the ROC, and the film, "The Diary of Anne Frank," will be shown at 7:30 p.m. in 138 Classroom Administration Building (CAB).

SUNDAY, MARCH 16 will be designated "Dutch Day," and will include a 2:30 p.m. lecture by Frederic van Holthoorn, visiting professor of history at UM-Ann Arbor. The film, "In Search of Jewish Amsterdam," will follow van Holthoorn's lecture, at 3:15 p.m. in 138 CAB.

On Monday, March 17, a panel discussion will include Dutch survivors and rescuers will take place at 8 p.m. in 144 CAB. Lawrence Langer of Simmons College will lecture on "The Problem of Ethical Decisions in the Death Camps," at 10:30 a.m. in the Gabriel Richard Center, at UM-D's north entrance off Evergreen Road.

Racism, circumstance and public attitudes prior to genocide will be the topic of a roundtable discussion at 8 p.m. Wednesday, March 19, at the Richard Center. UM-D faculty members Dennis Papzian, Ron Stockton, Sidney Bolkosky, and Abdeen Jabara of the Anti-Arab Discrimination Committee will participate. The film, "Trumpet of the Will," will be shown at 7:30 p.m. Friday, March 21, in 183 CAB.

In a related activity, the newly formed Department of Humanities Alumni group will sponsor a showing of the "Courage to Care," a documentary film produced and directed by Sister Carol Rittner. The 28-minute film, which deals with the Holocaust and which has been nominated for an Academy award, will be shown in room 138 CAB at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 19.

It's A Great Day For The IRISH

On March 17th, everyone is Irish. The tribute to St. Patrick makes Hibernians of us all. This year, why not celebrate the day by inviting a few friends to join in a special feast?

Put a few Irish airs on the record player and sing along as you create some dishes that St. Patrick himself would relish. The main course could be a lovely, shamrock-shaped meat loaf in honor of the Emerald Isle — a delicious concoction of corned beef enlivened with horseradish and the piquance of orange juice. This is a man's dish that warms the heart. It will also please the cook, for it can be prepared early in the day, refrigerated and then baked before serving. Rosie's Slaw with Raisins makes a fine accompaniment.

Sauerkraut Bites with Orange-Mustard Dip are irresistible. Sauerkraut and cream cheese are rolled into balls and fried a golden color. The creamy mixture, wrapped in a crisp-crunchy casing, is dipped into a delightful, pungent Orange-Mustard Dip. Put them out for starters, watch them disappear and expect compliments that would bring a blush to a colleen's cheeks.

Oranges O'Brien are a triumph of natural goodness. In a celebration of the fruit, O'Brien bakes them, sauces them in a delightful orange syrup flavored with Irish whiskey, and then flambés them. This ends a meal with a flourish of trumpets — a worthy finale for this grand occasion. Erin Go Bragh!

CORNED BEEF SHAMROCK

- 2 pounds cooked corned beef (do not trim off fat)
- 2 large eggs, lightly beaten
- 2 1/2 cups orange juice, divided
- 1 cup packaged dry bread crumbs
- 1 medium onion, finely chopped (1/2 cup)
- 1/4 cup finely chopped parsley, divided
- 2 to 3 tablespoons bottled horseradish
- 4 teaspoons cornstarch
- Watercress for garnish
- Orange slices

In food processor, food grinder, or electric blender process corned beef, using small amounts at a time, until finely ground. In a large mixing bowl combine eggs, 1 cup orange juice, bread crumbs, onion and 2 tablespoons parsley. Mix in ground corned beef with hands (2 to 3 minutes) until very well-blended. Shape mixture on a flat baking sheet to resemble a shamrock; refrigerate at least 30 minutes. Meanwhile, in small saucepan whisk remaining 1 1/2 cups orange juice with cornstarch until blended; stir in horseradish. Bring to a boil over medium-high heat, stirring constantly. Boil 1 minute, until clear and slightly thickened. Brush top and sides of loaf generously with sauce. Bake in a preheated 350°F. oven 40 minutes, until lightly browned. Remove loaf carefully with wide metal spatulas, to serving platter. Garnish with watercress and orange slices. Heat remaining orange sauce and serve with loaf.

Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

ROSIE'S SLAW WITH RAISINS

- 8 cups finely shredded cabbage (about 1 3/4 pounds cabbage)
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1/4 cup cider vinegar
- 2 tablespoons milk
- 1 teaspoon dried dill weed
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 1/8 teaspoon pepper
- 1/3 cup golden raisins

Shred cabbage on coarse grater, or coarse shredding blade of food processor, or with very sharp knife into fine shreds. In large bowl, combine mayonnaise, vinegar, milk, dill, salt, and pepper. Add shredded cabbage and raisins. Cover. Chill several hours before serving.

Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

SAUERKRAUT BITES WITH ORANGE-MUSTARD DIP

- 1 bag (14 ounces) sauerkraut or 1 can (16 ounces) sauerkraut, drained, coarsely chopped
- 1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons packaged dry bread crumbs
- 1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, softened at room temperature
- 1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/4 teaspoon pepper
- 1/4 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 egg beaten with 2 tablespoons milk

Squeeze chopped sauerkraut very dry between paper toweling. In a medium-size bowl combine sauerkraut, 2 tablespoons bread crumbs, cream cheese, garlic powder and pepper; blend well with wooden spoon. Using palms of hands, roll mixture into 3/4-inch balls. Cover; chill at least 30 minutes. Set out flour, egg mixture and remaining 1/2 cup bread crumbs in three shallow dishes. Roll balls in flour, then in egg mixture, then in bread crumbs. In a small skillet, fry 6 balls at a time in 1/2-inch hot oil (370°F.), 2 to 3 minutes, until golden brown, turning once. Remove with slotted spoon; drain on paper towel. Serve hot with Orange-Mustard Dip.

Yield: About 18 hors d'oeuvres.

*ORANGE-MUSTARD DIP

- 1/2 cup sweet orange marmalade, coarsely chopped
- 1/4 cup frozen concentrated orange juice, thawed, undiluted
- 2 tablespoons Dijon-style mustard

In small bowl combine all ingredients; stir until blended. Serve at room temperature.

Yield: 2/3 cup.

ORANGES O'BRIEN

- 6 large oranges, peeled
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/3 cup plus 6 teaspoons granulated sugar
- 1 1/2 cups Florida orange juice, divided
- 1/2 cup Irish whiskey, divided
- Fresh mint leaves for garnish (optional)

Arrange oranges in a shallow baking dish, such as a 10-inch glass or ceramic pie plate. Place 1 teaspoon butter on top of each orange; sprinkle each with 1 teaspoon sugar. Pour in 1/2 cup orange juice. Bake in a preheated 400°F. oven 10 minutes, or until oranges begin to brown on top. Meanwhile, in small saucepan combine remaining 1 cup orange juice, remaining 1/3 cup sugar, and 1/4 cup Irish whiskey; simmer over low heat until slightly syrupy, about 3 minutes. Remove oranges from oven and arrange on a serving dish. Pour orange-whiskey mixture into baking dish, scraping and stirring any browned bits on the bottom; pour over oranges. Heat remaining 1/4 cup Irish whiskey in a metal ladle; ignite with a match; pour over oranges. Serve warm. Garnish with fresh mint leaves, if desired.

Yield: 6 servings.

Irish Freckle Loaf — traditional St. Pat's fare

The American Irish comprise the third-largest ethnic population group in America. Is it any wonder then, that St. Patrick's Day is celebrated with the fervor of a major holiday?

Aside from corned beef and cabbage, a gusty loaf of Irish Freckle Bread is traditional fare on this day.

Yet this recipe is untraditional in the short time it takes to bake it. With rapid-rise yeast, the dough rises 50 percent faster than conventional yeast doughs.

Serve it at home or give a loaf to your favorite leprechaun.

IRISH FRECKLE BREAD (Makes 1 loaf)

- 5 1/4 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 cup dark seedless raisins
- 1/2 cup mashed boiled potato, at room temperature
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. salt
- 2 pkgs. yeast
- 1 cup hot water (125 to 130 degrees)
- 1/2 cup margarine, softened
- 2 eggs, at room temperature
- Confectioner's sugar glaze

Set aside 1 cup flour. In large bowl, mix remaining flour, raisins, potato, sugar, salt and yeast. Stir hot water and margarine into dry ingredients. Mix in eggs and only enough reserved flour to make a soft dough. On lightly floured surface, knead until smooth and elastic, about 8-10 minutes. Cover; let rest 10 minutes.

Divide dough into 4 equal pieces. Shape 3 pieces into smooth round balls. Place in circle on greased baking sheet; flatten and shape to form leaves of 3-leaf clover. Shape remaining dough into 8-inch rope; place between leaves to form stem. Cover; let rise in warm draft-free place until doubled in size, about 50 minutes.

Bake at 350 degrees for 35 minutes or until done. Remove from pan; cool on wire rack. Frost with confectioner's sugar glaze if desired.

Chocolate pie sure to please

Chocolate Fluff Brownie Pie, with a rich whipped cream and cream cheese filling, will tempt even the most stalwart. Anyone's indulgence will be satisfied with Chocolate-Glazed Orange Brownies, glazed treats with a hint of refreshing orange.

Chocolate Fluff Brownie Pie

- 1 pkg. brownie mix (with can of chocolate flavor syrup)
- 2 tsp. water
- 2 pkgs. (8 oz. each) cream cheese, softened
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 cups chilled whipping cream
- 1 bar (1.05 oz.) milk chocolate candy, finely chopped

Heat oven to 375 degrees. Grease and flour pie plate, 10 x 1 1/2 inches. Mix brownie mix (dry) and water. Cut in 1/2 of one of the packages of cream cheese until particles are size of small peas. Pat on bottom and up side of pie plate with greased fingers. Bake until center is set, 20 to 25 minutes; cool.

Mix chocolate flavor syrup, the remaining cream cheese, sugar and vanilla. Beat whipping cream in chilled bowl until stiff. Fold whipped cream into cream cheese mixture; spread over crust. Sprinkle with chocolate candy. Refrigerate until set, at least 8 hours. Refrigerate any remaining pie.

CHOCOLATE-GLAZED ORANGE BROWNIE

- 1 pkg. frosted brownie mix

- 1 tsp. orange-flavored liqueur
- 1 cup powdered sugar
- 1/4 cup plus 2 Tbsp. margarine or butter, softened
- 1 1/2 tsp. grated orange peel
- 2 to 3 tsp. orange juice
- 2 Tbsp. boiling water

Heat oven to 350 degrees. Bake brownie mix as directed on package except mix in liqueur with the water; cool.

Mix remaining ingredients except water until smooth. Spread over brownies. Squeeze packet of frosting into bowl. Mix in boiling water until smooth. Gently spread over brownies. Refrigerate until glaze is set, about 1 hour. Refrigerate any remaining brownies. 48 brownies.

Produce: primary fiber source

The importance of fiber in the diet continues to make headline news, as well as good nutrition sense.

The National Cancer Institute, the National Academy of Sciences and the American Cancer Society all recommend that high-fiber foods be included in the diet by increasing the consumption of fruits and vegetables, as well as whole-grain cereals.

Since only foods from plants contain dietary fiber, the produce section of the market should continue to be one of the growing focal points for consumer attention.

There are two types of dietary fiber — soluble and insoluble. Soluble fiber is found in beans, some fruits and vegetables, as well as oats and barley.

It dissolves in water and may play a role in lowering blood cholesterol levels, as well as regulating the body's use of sugar.

Insoluble fiber, the type most often thought of when we hear the term fiber, does not dissolve in water. In fact, the vegetables and whole grains containing the insoluble fiber absorb water, thus increasing bulk. The American Cancer Society suggests that a high-fiber, low-fat diet may help protect against colon and rectal cancer.

Eating more vegetables may be the first and easiest way for consumers to begin to change eating patterns and food habits. Salad consumption in the United States is on the increase; however, the quality of these salads can be enhanced with the addition of nutrient and fiber-rich vegetables.

Iceberg lettuce is the base for the majority of salads across the country. A few wise produce additions and a low-fat dressing can make a major contribution to a healthful daily diet.

Simplicity

Sealed-in sauce is the secret

Oriental-Style Fish and Vegetables is typical of the simple yet exotic foods of China. This elegant meal is fit for a mandarin, but takes only 20 minutes to prepare.

While the fish is sealed with a sauce in foil, then baked, the vegetables are stir-fried in a wok or skillet using the remaining sauce.

ORIENTAL-STYLE FISH AND VEGETABLES

- 1 lb. sole filets
- 1/4 cup margarine, melted
- 1 Tbsp. soy sauce
- 1 Tbsp. lemon juice
- Dash of ground ginger
- 1 cup 2-inch julienne-cut carrots
- 1 cup mushroom slices
- 1/2 cup green pepper chunks
- 3 green onions, cut into 1-inch pieces

Place fish in single layer in center of large piece of heavy-duty foil. Combine margarine, soy sauce, juice and ginger; mix well. Drizzle 2 tablespoons margarine mixture over fish. Bring edges of foil together; press edges together to seal. Place on cookie sheet. Bake at 400 degrees, 15 minutes or until fish flakes easily with fork. Stir-fry vegetables in remaining margarine mixture 3 minutes or until crisp-tender.

Julie Brown editor/459-2700

Monday, March 10, 1986 O&E

French visitors bid a hearty bonjour

By Julie Brown
staff writer

For 11-year-old Karen Wallet, the homes, the cars and the landscaping in the area were the things she found she liked upon arriving in the U.S.

Karen and her classmates will have plenty of opportunities to learn about life in the U.S. during the next few weeks. The group of students from Montmorency, France, arrived here last Monday.

The 25 students are scheduled to visit through Monday, March 24. They will stay with area families and will attend their host child's school each Wednesday.

The students will also meet other days at Smith Elementary School in Plymouth, in addition to participating in other activities designed to help them learn about life in the U.S.

Last Tuesday, the students at Smith and the French children took the time to get acquainted.

"I've never been through such a hectic time, but it's an exciting time, too," said Principal George Dodson, pausing for a much-needed break. "It's brought excitement and a degree of happiness to our school."

EVIDENCE of the preparation for the children's arrival can be seen throughout the halls of Smith. Small signs have been posted, to help the French youngsters find their way to such places as the "salle de bains," or bathroom.

The 25 students had been corresponding with their host families since October. Their visit was arranged through the French-American Back-to-Back Program of Campus International Ltd., headquartered in suburban Chicago.

Parents have borne the costs of the program, with the help of donations from businesses and individuals. This is the first such program in the Plymouth-Canton community.

"It's a pilot type thing," Dodson said. "We are pioneers in this effort. It's not uncommon to this country, though."

As a part of the program, 21 local fifth and sixth graders will travel to France next month. Dodson will accompany the students, as will Anria Del Pizzo, a teacher from the New Morning School in Plymouth Township.

"She's the interpreter while I'm in France," Dodson said. "We go over there April 8 and return the 29th."

Concerns about the youngsters' safety while traveling in Europe did arise.

"I called Paris and voiced that concern to the parent organization there," Dodson said. He received assurances that the necessary security precautions will be taken. The local youngsters will not, for example, have to walk through the airport terminal when they arrive in France.

"We'll be directly loaded off the airplane to waiting buses," Dodson said.

THE LOCAL YOUNGSTERS will stay with the same children that stayed with them in the U.S.

The French youngsters, who are 10 to 12 years old, also had some familiar faces around when they arrived last week. They arrived together as a class; their teacher, Catherine Harrang, traveled with them, as did Violette Meslier, who serves as interpreter and counselor.

Harrang was enjoying her visit last Tuesday, but was still getting used to being in the U.S.

"It's too early, because I am not really with you in your country," she said. "I am happy and surprised by the welcome. Everybody is very glad and kind, nice." She has found people in this country have helped her with her English.

Montmorency is approximately 10 miles north of Paris, Meslier said, and is very different from the Detroit area. "There is no comparison. It's an old city."

French students Andre Schill, Thierry Marsoo, Kristina Fretiere and Karen Wallet (left to right) are among those visiting this area. The youngsters will participate in a variety of activities, designed to help them learn about life in the U.S.

French youngsters will participate in a variety of activities. Visits to Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum are planned, as is a tour of a Ford assembly plant.

The children will also go on a walking tour of Plymouth. They will participate with local youngsters in a musical program at 7 p.m. Tuesday, March 18, at the Plymouth Canton High School Little Theater. There is no admission charge.

An evening of Halloween trick-or-treating, complete with costumes, has also been planned for the French school children.

"We're going to re-enact this for them, because they don't have this holiday in their country," Dodson said.

Dodson hadn't seen too much evidence of homesickness last Tuesday, but was prepared to deal with such problems if they did surface.

"Homesickness is contagious, you know. You have to get right on it." Involving students in a variety of activities helps fight homesickness, he said. Calls to home, however, seem to do more harm than good.

"You just work with them and it goes away."

The playground at Smith Elementary School in Plymouth provided a place for the French youngsters to meet local youngsters.

Student scholarships offered

Several scholarships for students in Plymouth-Canton are now available, according to the Plymouth Community Arts Council.

The J.W.H. Scholarship is awarded in honor of Joanne Winkleman Hulce to fulfill one of the Arts Council's goals, which is "to encourage and help individuals in pursuing a career in the arts."

A total of $750 in awards is available to seniors who show promise in an artistic field and wish to further their education in that field. A committee of judges with various artistic backgrounds will consider applicants from a variety of categories.

Those categories include painting, ceramics, dance, design, graphics, drama, photography, sculpture, textiles, instrumental and vocal music, and literary arts.

Seniors who believe they may qualify and who live in the Plymouth-Canton community are asked to write a letter. The letter should include name, address and telephone number, and should give the applicant's background in his/her artistic field, plans for continuing education, and a personal profile explaining his/her qualifications for the award.

Two letters of recommendation from a teacher and another person closely associated with the applicant's artistic ability, and two representative pieces of work are also required. Performing artists should be prepared to perform for the judges.

APPLICATIONS MAY be mailed to the Plymouth Community Arts Council, J.W.H. Award, 332 S. Main St., Plymouth 48170. The deadline for applications is Friday, April 11. Finalists will be interviewed or auditioned on Saturday, April 19.

For additional information, students should contact the counseling office of their high school or the PCAC office at 455-5260 between 9 a.m. and noon Monday through Friday.

The Margaret E. Wilson Scholarship for the Performing Arts is also available. This award of $500 or more is available for an individual who wishes to pursue a career in the performing arts.

The scholarship competition is open to any graduating senior living in the Plymouth-Canton Community School District who has already been accepted into an appropriate professional program.

It is also open to any graduate of the Plymouth-Canton Community Schools regardless of his/her year of graduation, or to any resident of the Plymouth-Canton district interested in pursuing a performing arts career. (This can include acceptance into a course of private study with an accredited teacher/coach.)

Applicants must provide a written paragraph describing goals, aspirations and career plans, and a letter of acceptance from an accredited program or teacher/coach. They must also provide two letters of recommendation from individuals closely associated with the applicants' talent, and a tape not to exceed 10 minutes to include more than one selection.

Live auditions in drama and dance are acceptable.

Finalists will be required to interview and to perform. Applications should be returned to the Plymouth Community Arts Council, 332 S. Main St., Plymouth 48170 by March 31.

The PCAC office is open from 9 a.m. to noon Monday through Friday.

THE THIRD scholarship available is the Jeanet M. Allison Memorial Scholarship Fund for the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp. The PCAC has $1,000 available for the use of students in grades seven through 12 who will attend the Blue Lake Fine Arts Camp in 1988.

These scholarships will be offered in art, dance, music and theater. Applicants will be judged on the basis of talent, neatness and interest by a panel of qualified judges.

The deadline for submitting applications is Friday, April 11. Where applicable, three samples of the student's best work should be submitted.

Application materials should be brought to the PCAC office at 332 S. Main St., Plymouth. Materials may be brought in between 9 a.m. and noon beginning Monday, March 24, and continuing through Friday, April 11. Materials may also be brought in between 3 and 5 p.m. Friday, April 11.

For additional information, students should contact the PCAC office at 455-5260 or the appropriate teacher at the school.

Tippi Hedren featured

Actress Tippi Hedren, who appeared in Alfred Hitchcock's "The Birds" and "Marnie," will be the next speaker at the Livonia Town Hall.

Hedren will speak Wednesday, March 19, on "The Cats of Shambala." Shambala is her California desert ranch that is home to 56 lions and 40 other big cats, including tigers, panthers, cougars, cheetahs and tiglons.

The lecture will begin at 10:30 a.m. at the Mai Kai Theatre, Plymouth and Farmington roads in Livonia. Tickets will be available at the door for $10. For best seating, those attending should plan to arrive no later than 10:15 a.m.; a Town Hall spokeswoman said.

Hedren also will appear at the Town Hall luncheon, which will immediately follow the lecture at the Mayflower Meeting House in downtown Plymouth. The luncheon cost is $8.50. Reservations must be made by this Wednesday. Call 261-1618.

For more information, call Town Hall president Jean Morrison at 427-4543 or Gerry Dahler, lecture tickets chairwoman, at 425-4554.

HEDREN WAS spotted by Hitchcock while she was doing a commercial on the "Today" show. He decided to star her in "The Birds" with Rod Taylor in 1963. She then played the title role, opposite Sean Connery, in "Marnie" in 1964. Her other screen roles included working for director Charlie Chaplin in "Countess from Hong Kong," which also starred Marlon Brando and Sophia Loren.

She began her long love affair with wild animals in 1969 while doing the film "Satan's Harvest" in Africa.

Her big cats freely roam the 180-acre Shambala refuge. Besides the cats, Shambala also is home to two big African elephants.

Hedren recently wrote about her experiences in "The Cats of Shambala." She also stars in and has co-produced the soon-to-be-released movie "Roar."

Resurgent Rocks romp to district title

Kearis' hot hand lifts Salem; Mills up next

By Chris McCosky
staff writer

Early in Friday night's Class A district championship game at Plymouth Canton, Paul Makara and Bryan Kearis heaved their bodies across the floor in pursuit of a loose basketball.

Plymouth Salem coach Bob Brodie stood and applauded.

Later, Tony Moore dived like Greg Louganis after a ball heading out of bounds.

Again, Brodie stood and applauded.

An intensity shortage, a major nemesis of the Rocks this season, was not going to be a problem on this night.

Neither was Northville.

SALEM DESTROYED the Mustangs 75-57 before a packed house at Canton and will take on Terry Mills and Romulus in the first round of the Class A regional tournament at Eastern Michigan University. Game time is 8 p.m. Wednesday.

"The kids just made up their minds at halftime that, hey, they want to play hard, they want to win and they want to continue in this tournament," Brodie said.

The Rocks played their best half of basketball this season in the second half Friday. They controlled virtually every phase of the game — especially in the third quarter.

The Rocks outscored Northville 21-10 in those eight minutes to break open a one-point game and demoralize the Mustangs.

Brodie sent his troops out in a zone defense in the second half and dared Northville to beat them with jump shots. Aside from senior Don Norton, the Mustangs were frigid. They hit just four of 20 shots in the quarter.

And Salem limited them to just one offensive rebound.

"I think that our zone messed them up a little," said Brodie, understating it completely.

THE ZONE took away a vital component of Northville's game — 6-6 senior center Matt Hinds and his ability to score inside. Hinds, who scored 17 points on Feb. 28 when Northville beat Salem 72-63, didn't score a field goal. His total offensive output was a pair of free throws with 2:39 left to play. He fouled out of the game four seconds later.

Credit Mike Hale, Dave Collins and Tony Moore with the suffocation of Northville's inside game. Credit the hustle of Kearis, Makara and Ted Hanosh with pestering Northville's perimeter shooters into a 27 percent shooting night (20 of 73, nine of 44 in the second half).

Only one Mustang was on his game — Norton. He was unstoppable in the first three quarters, scoring 28 of his game-high 32 points. He scored all 10 of Northville's points in that fatal third quarter.

"WHAT I didn't like in that first half was that they were controlling the tempo of the game," Brodie said. "At halftime we talked about just going out and playing like the players we are. The tempo was ours in the second half."

Salem outrebounded Northville 36-20 on the night — a statistic that helps explain how Salem was able to control the tempo. Hale grabbed 14 rebounds to lead everyone.

Salem, with Makara, Hale, Moore and Kearis, deftly solved Northville's press — Northville's press ruined Salem in the teams' two previous matches this season.

"In the second half, we told the kids to take it to them after we broke the press. We were getting three-on-one and two-on-one breaks," Brodie said. "We had them in the first half, too, but we didn't take advantage of them."

Kearis scored 22 points to lead Salem — he hit eight of 12 shots from the floor, six of six from the line.

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Paul Makara, fending off a swat from Northville's Matt Hinds, held the steady hand Friday guiding Salem to the district championship.

Moore scored 17, his best effort of the season, and Hale scored 10. Makara scored nine points and dished out six pretty assists.

NORTHVILLE, WHOSE season ends with a 16-6 mark, got 10 points from Mike Hillfinger.

Salem, 12-10, now faces a monumental task.

"It's an honor and a great challenge to play against one of the best players in the state," Brodie said, speaking, of course, of Terry Mills. "We're really looking forward to it."

Salem is no stranger to great players in regional competition. Two years ago, the Rocks met up with Clarence (Bill)

Jones, now with Iowa, and Southwestern. Before that, it was Antoine Joubert (U-M) and Southwestern.

"It'll be a challenge," reiterated Brodie.

Indeed.

Inter-City tops Eagles

The bottom line is the same: Allen Park Inter-City Baptist, as it did last year, ended Plymouth Christian's basketball season.

But that is where the similarities end.

Last year, Inter-City beat the Eagles by 50 points. Thursday, in the Class D semifinals at Taylor Baptist Park, Inter-City hung on for a 64-55 win.

"We played one bad quarter," said Eagles coach Jeff Cook. "In the second quarter, we made one of 11 shots from the floor. They made eight of 13."

Inter-City's 19-7 second quarter edge was indeed the difference in the game. Plymouth Christian led 13-10 after one quarter. The second half was played dead-even.

"WE WERE there," Cook said. "We were down six with 12 seconds left and had the ball. But I'm very pleased with the way we played. We were successful in a lot of different categories, we just came up short on the scoreboard."

The brothers McCarthy, as they have all season, led the Eagles. Jim McCarthy scored 19 and Pat 18.

Brad Soucie scored 24 for Inter-City, Rod Chilian added 17.

The loss ends the winningest season in Plymouth Christian's history. The team finishes with a 17-4 record.

"We made a lot of in-roads this season," Cook said. "Now we have to keep it going."

CC advances

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Redford Catholic Central got right to the point Friday night.

Switching from off-guard to the point slot midway through the second quarter, junior guard Lance Vaccarelli went on a tear and led the Shamrocks to a convincing 69-53 district basketball victory over Livonia Stevenson in the Class A championship game at Livonia Churchill.

It was CC's 11th district crown under veteran coach Bernie Holowicki, who made the change after Stevenson had pulled within three, 18-15, on a Chip Finneran basket with 5:53 left in the half.

Vaccarelli, who flip-flopped positions with teammate Sean McClorey, scored a game-high 29 points. McClorey, bombing away from his new wing spot, added 13 and Brian Dugas, on the opposite wing on CC's new offensive alignment, contributed 12.

"I didn't like the way we were looking — their zone gave us problems early," said Holowicki. "We had fooled around in practice with Lance at the point so I just decided to try something different."

All-American Terry Mills leaps high for a rebound in Romulus' thrilling 83-82 double-overtime win against Wayne Memorial Thursday night.

Romulus-Wayne: Mills scores 37 in heartstopper

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Wayne High's basketball team turned in a David-like performance Thursday night, but couldn't quite slay Goliath. Wayne finally succumbed in the second overtime to 6-foot-10 Terry Mills and Romulus, 93-92.

Despite the loss, it may have been the Wayne's finest two hours of basketball in the school's history.

Conceding an average of five inches per man, the Zebras battled the state-ranked and giant Eagles tooth and nail for 38 minutes.

"I know Wayne's not that big, but I swear they look bigger when they're on the court," said a haggard Romulus coach Al Wilkerson. "Wayne is one hell of a team. Give them credit. They won 18 games this season."

"They play bigger than they are and they're very disciplined and well coached."

The nearly 2,000 fans who crammed into every nook and cranny in Wayne's new Alumni Arena almost witnessed of the upset of the season.

BUT IN the end it was Mills, one of the nation's premier big men, who made the difference.

He scored a game-high 37 points, including all of the Eagles' 11 points in the second overtime. He also added 14 rebounds and six blocks.

"We were just going to play our normal game with a few new wrinkles," said Wayne coach Chuck Henry. "We were going to him Mills, his slam dunks and blocked shots."

"We had our chances and our kids played well."

A goaltending call on Romulus' Keith Samuels with only five seconds left in regulation time sent the game into overtime at 72-all. (Alvin Allen got credit for the basket.)

In first overtime, Romulus jumped out to a quick four-point lead, but Wayne kept answering behind the play of 5-9 point-guard Spence Williams, who drove the Eagles crazy with his drives through the lane.

basketball

A MISSED Romulus free throw with only 28 seconds remaining in the first OT set up a last second attempt by Wayne's Fred Horne, who missed from the corner at the buzzer.

"We had the shot and I thought it was going to be a storybook ending," Henry said. "We were going for the win or loss on a last-second shot. Our strategy was to run the clock down."

In the second OT, Mills reasserted himself by posting low, taking advantage of Wayne's pint-sized lineup after Mark Robinson (27 points), Mark Clalborne and Gary Hankerson had been banished to the bench because of fouls.

WITH 26 seconds to go, Mills made one of two free throws to put Romulus ahead, 91-90, but the Zebras turned the ball over just 10 seconds later and Mills canned a pair from the line with 11 seconds to go, upping the lead to three.

But as they had all night long, the Zebras came back with Boyce Jackson scoring with only five seconds to play.

Wilkerson, for some strange reason, stopped the clock by calling a timeout with only three ticks left. The Eagles, however, got the inbounds pass in safety to Mills, who cradled the ball into his chest as the clock ran out.

"We made some critical mistakes, but anyone that plays basketball knows mistakes are part of the game," Henry said. "I thought we kept our mistakes to a minimum."

Wilkerson said his team's strategy was simple in the second overtime — get the ball to Mills.

"WE HAD to go to the money," said the Romulus coach. "We knew they had Robinson, Clalborne and Hankerson."

CC's Vaccarelli hits 29, Spartans ousted

"I think it just broke the game open and we scored about nine or 10 straight points."

VACCARELLI, a 6-2 junior, poured in nine points during the final five minutes of the first half to lift CC to a 36-25 halftime lead.

In the third quarter, Vaccarelli hit four straight jumpers as CC increased its advantage to 19. The Shamrocks then coasted during the final period of play.

"That one spurt Lance really looked tough," said Holowicki. "When he got to the point position he started opening things up for Sean, Brian and even Paul (Tavana) inside. We were able to penetrate more (against Stevenson's defense) with Lance."

Stevenson coach Jim McIntyre was impressed by CC's outside marksmanship.

"In the third quarter Vaccarelli started slipping through the seams of our zone," he said. "And they started shooting well from the outside. They really didn't hurt us inside, but they made their outside shots count."

The win puts CC (16-6) against Detroit Mackenzie in Tuesday's regional at West Bloomfield.

"Mackenzie is one of the premier teams in the state," Holowicki said. "They're very talented. We're going to have to be up and play a good game."

ASKED IF VACCARELLI would be running CC's offense to start Tuesday's game, Holowicki said: "We'll probably practice on it more. The kids liked it."

CC's vaunted zone press also gave the Spartans problems, particularly in the latter stages of the second quarter and most of the third period. McIntyre said his team got out of its game plan, which was to slow down the fast-paced Shamrocks.

"At one point (against the press) we went away from what we had practiced," said the Stevenson coach. "We tried to go ahead instead of going away from their pressure."

Finneran, a senior guard, and Eric Johnson, a junior center, each scored 14 points in the losing cause. Two seniors, Dan Palmisano and Jim Kimble, finished their careers with 11 and nine, respectively.

"This team showed good character all year round and they were good kids to practice with," McIntyre said. "We had a fun year together, but they're frustrated like I am as far as wins and losses are concerned."

Stevenson bowed out with a 6-16 record.

Mills leads Romulus by Wayne

(fouled) out. They had no big people left. I think the difference is that we still had our star (Mills) and they didn't."

"Terry didn't shoot well, but he did shoot well when we needed it."

Mills, who picked up three first-half fouls trying to guard Wayne's Robinson, made 16 of 29 from the floor.

Steve Glenn, the Eagles' point guard, added 19 points, and Bill Johnson added 13.

Robinson, despite fouling out at the end of regulation play, finished with 27. Williams and Rod Sommons contributed 18 and 14, respectively.

"We have to be quick and we have to be good shooters because we have no big man," said Henry. "We tried our hardest on defense and we boxed them off the boards as well as we could."

"I have no regrets."

The only regret Henry and his players may have not getting an opportunity to advance in the state tournament and play Taylor Truman for the Class A district title.

OTHER MEDICAL CONDITIONS THAT AFFECT ARTHRITIS - DIABETES

There can be other reasons, besides severity of the arthritis, that causes your neighbor to have more difficulty with osteoarthritis of the knee than you. Your neighbor may have another medical problem that causes additional stress on the knee beyond that which comes with osteoarthritis.

For example: someone else, in addition to osteoarthritis, may have diabetes. Even those diabetics who do not require insulin may have a number of joint and muscle problems that are a side effect of diabetes. Such problems include a thickening of the skin in the palm of the hand called Dupreton's contracture. Other problems of diabetics are a tendency toward gout, and an increased likelihood of tendonitis. Furthermore, diabetics may lose feeling in their feet and hit the ground with a pounding gait. In turn this abnormal walk leads to additional stress on ankles, knees and hips.

Thus, it is difficult to compare your arthritis with that of another individual. It may not be evident what other medical problems the individual has that may worsen their joint condition.

Eye injuries on rise in sports

By Larry O'Connor staff writer

Popular myth has it that sports-related eye injuries only happen to other people.

Well, those who believe that are not seeing things too clearly, according to some optometrists and ophthalmologists. They should know. They see numerous eye injuries due to errant balls, pucks, sticks, rackets and even fingers.

And they're not pretty. Retinal detachments, ruptures, scarring and hemorrhaging are just some of the results.

Eye protection, like goggles, shields or glasses, is the easiest way to prevent such mishaps.

BUT A MAJORITY of the athletically active don't protect their eyes and don't even give it a second thought. And some, like hockey superstar Mike Bossy, don't believe protective eye wear should be made mandatory in professional hockey despite the recent rash of eye injuries.

"I'm a dummy for not protecting my eyes," said Bossy, in a recent Hockey News interview. "I'm a person who believes in letting the individual decide for himself."

"He's been fortunate," Redford optometrist Dr. Don Sheer said. "It hasn't happened to him. When it does, he'll be the first to wear one (protective shield)."

"Then it will be too late." Hockey is just one sport where there's a high risk of doing permanent damage to the eyes. Racket sports are also near the top, especially among adults.

In a 1982 study, the number of reported eye injuries were high in baseball, basketball, bicycling and football. Racket sports placed fifth on the list with close to 4,000 reported annually.

"BASEBALL IS the most common," said Dr. Dave Carey, an ophthalmologist at Detroit's Henry Ford Hospital. "I'm not talking about adults, I'm talking about children. In adults, the common one we see is racket sports."

"In racket sports, especially, they should wear some type of protective eye goggles," said Livonia ophthalmologist Dr. Patrick Murray. "In hockey, they should wear some type of protective shield."

"In basketball, they're more liable to get poked in the eye with a finger. The same in football," added Murray. "I see relatively few, but it still can happen."

The reasons for not taking precautions are many. "They say it bothers their game," said Dr. Raymond Margherio, a retinal specialist. "We hear a lot of excuses until after the fact."

"NOW MORE people are comprehensive and wear protective goggles," added Margherio. "But we still see some injuries because they didn't."

"A lot of people think it's not going to me. It's going to happen to the other guy," said Sheer, a racketball player.

But what can happen results in a number of different injuries. Corneal abrasions, orbital fractures, hyphema (swelling of the eye) and retinal problems (including detachments, which killed boxer Sugar Ray Leonard and Hilter Kenty) can result from a blow to the eye.

"They should have their eyes checked, especially if they see spots, flicks of light or have pain," Sheer said.

Even when there looks like no damage is done after someone has been struck in the eye, it's wise to have it checked out. Cataracts can develop later in which central vision is lost.

"A KID GETS hit with a ball and the eye gets black. Then four days later, acute glaucoma or a cataract develops," Sheer said.

While using protective measures is important, so is choosing the right type of goggles or shields.

Some goggles for racketball have no lens covering the eye. Sheer said those are unsafe because a ball can still penetrate the orbital area.

Protective lenses should be made of a non-breakable material such as polycarbonate, which is three millimeters thick.

"You can take a hammer to it and it won't break," Sheer said. "Glass and plastic can still break, so you have to be careful."

For hockey, wire cages and plastic shields to protect the entire face are mandatory at most amateur levels.

Glasses, goggles and shields can be used for racketball, squash or tennis. Goggles or glasses would suffice in sports like football and basketball. They're available at sporting goods and from eye doctors and range in price $15-$40.

SWIM QUALIFIERS

Oakland University's women's swim team tied Notre Dame for third place in the 14-team Midwest Independent Championships last weekend at the University of Illinois-Chicago.

More importantly, Lady Pioneers broke two team records and qualified for the NCAA Division II championships in five individual events and four relays.

Sophomore Nancy Schermer, who had already qualified in the 200-yard, 500-yard and 1,650-yard freestyle, shattered the OU record in qualifying in the 100 free. She was timed at 53.10, busting her own mark of 53.56 set last season.

Other individual qualifiers included freshman Dana Goerke, who made it in both the 100 (1:08.05) and 200 (2:26.64) breaststroke; senior Linda Scott in the 200 free (1:56.27); and Kim Pogue (from Farmington Hills) in the 1,650 free (17:39.99).

Kristi Spicer, Goerke, Ginnie Johnson (from Plymouth Canton) and Schermer combined to qualify in both the 200 medley relay (1:51.23) and the 400 medley relay with a school-record 4:01.32, breaking the 1984 record of 4:02.21.

Allison Klump, Pogue, Scott and Schermer qualified in the 200 free relay (1:39.02) and Schermer, Scott, Johnson and Pogue made it in the 800 free relay (7:51.44).

The NCAA Division II championship meet is March 12-15 at Rollins College in Orlando, Fla.

OU MATMEN 18TH

Oakland University's wrestlers grappled to an 18th-place team finish at the NCAA Division II tournament last weekend, the best-ever placing by an OU squad.

John Solomonson (167-pounds) won two of four matches to finish fifth in his class and earn all-America status. Craig Brooks (heavyweight) was equally impressive, winning three of five matches to place fifth and also gain all-America accolades. All three of Brooks' wins were on pins.

Other OU matmen to compete were Dave Vitvay (150) and Pat Stano (177). Both lost their first two matches.

Ginnie Johnson, Canton grad, qualified for the NCAA Division II swim finals with Oakland University.

Goldie Hawn stars as Molly McGrath, who takes over as a high school football coach and leads her team to victory, in "Wildcats."

Everything is easy for Goldie Hawn in 'cartoon' comedy

Even though they're fun, and fulfill our fantasy needs, I am suspicious of movies whose hero or heroine overcomes impossible odds with a determined set of the lips.

Goldie Hawn's latest, "Wildcats" (R), is one such pleasant cartoon about the daughter of a famous Chicago high-school football coach. Molly McGrath (Goldie) and her sister Verna (Swoosie Kurtz) were raised on football, and Molly wants more than anything to be a coach like her dad.

Molly is divorced from Frank (James Keach) but has custody of their two daughters, 13-year-old Alice (Robin Lively) and 4-year-old Marian (Brandy Gold). Molly teaches at Prescott High and coaches girl's track.

When the Junior Varsity coaching position opens, Molly applies but is rejected by Athletic Director Dan Darwell (Bruce McGill) whose sexist views are inordinately exaggerated. Darwell does set Molly up as coach of the inner-city Central High football team, a position that no one will accept. Central High's principal, Ben Edwards (Nipsey Russell), is desperate enough to accept a woman as coach.

ALL OF A SUDDEN, the world is against Molly. The inner-city high school players will have nothing to do with a lady coach. Ex-hubby Frank and his snooty new lady-friend, Stephanie (Jan Hooks), are against the idea and Darwell has a pool she won't last until Wednesday.

That's all it takes and Goldie sets her lips, furrows her eyebrows and wins the City Championship with the biggest bunch of losers since the fall of Troy.

It is just that, the ease with which she accomplishes so much that disturbs me about the film. While fantasy is fun and fulfills certain needs, there has to be some semblance of struggle and accomplishment or the film turns silly and stupid.

"Wildcats" isn't all bad for there certainly are some funny situations and some swift repartee. The cartoon stereotyping does get a bit much at times. Athletic director Darwell's sexist attitudes and childish behavior are so overdone that they pander to feminist interests.

Stephanie and the administrators of the elitist girls' school from which she graduated are another bunch of stereotypes so overdrawn that they do feminism ill service.

IN THE SAME VEIN, the ghetto stereotypes bothered me. It is somewhat puzzling since the film is just a light bit of fluff and it shouldn't matter. That may be the very point: "Wildcats" bespeaks a suburban acceptance of inner-city problems and thinks it's funny. While humor is a means of survival for people in tight spots, that doesn't justify those looking in laughing at others discomfort.

In my book Nipsey Russell is one of those performers worth 20 bucks when they read the phone book. In "Wildcats" his toothsome smile and deadpan delivery of a sardonic, "Right!" gets tiresome although the film's best moment is a variation. Accidentally, in anger, Frank slugs Principal Edwards and then apologizes, "I thought you were one of them," referring to the black football players. "I am," Nipsey replies.

"Wildcats" is a fairly successful attempt to meld rock music, aerobics, football, feminism and everybody's need to believe in the underdog. Its raunchy language will probably be justified as realistic. I've been in enough barracks and locker rooms to realize that's true but sometimes art needs to imitate life with a little restraint.

THIS COLUMN IS going to shift focus a bit: Rather than one film review, we're going to try and cover two or three films each week. Write and let us know what you think of the idea.

THIS WEEK AND NEXT very few new films premiere but in the coming weeks, starting Friday, March 21, the spring-summer schedule of new releases begins. Scheduled for Friday, March 21, are "Sleeping Beauty," "Off-Beat," "Wise-Guys," "Gung-Ho," "Police Academy III," "Something in Common" and "Absolute Beginner." That should keep everyone occupied all weekend.

Throughout the spring and summer, we can look forward to "April Fool's Day," "Rat Boy," "Lucas," "Money Pit," "Rad," "A Room with a View," "Band of the Hand," "8 Million Ways to Die," "Manhattan Project," "Short Circuit," "Cobra," "Big Trouble in Little China," "Space Camp," "Labyrinth" and "Under The Cherry Moon." Between the word and the deed, of course, production and distribution problems intervene and all those films may not make it to your local theater.

Mixed in this bag is a little bit of everything, although nothing as enticing as the past season's offering of "Prizzi's Honor," "Kiss of the Spider Woman," "Color Purple" and "Out of Africa," to name some of the top films in contention for Oscars.

Coming up are all the usual teen-oriented films and the summer silly season stuff: "Police Academy III" probably will entice those who are tired of Academy I and II and want a slight change. "Rad" is about BMX bicycle racing and freestyling but has Talla Shire and Ray Walston in its cast.

There's a considerable range of offerings, however, including Maggie Smith in "A Room with a View," opening Friday, March 28, a social comedy about a young English couple whose passionate times in Italy contrast with their Victorian background. Opening March 21 is another kind of love. Mary Tyler Moore and Sam Waterstone star in "Just Between Friends," a story about discovering that one's recently deceased spouse and one's best friend had been having an affair.

There's much more coming, so stay tuned. Next week (Monday, March 17) will be my annual column predicting the Oscar winners.

Exotic game

Chef Hussain is featuring wild game for dinner, with a different presentation each day of the month, at the Crystal Swan restaurant at the Novi Hilton. Included are such fare as wild boar, wild turkey, buffalo, lion, partridge, mallard, pheasant, antelope, venison and elk. Four chef's specials of wild game will be on the menu Tuesday, March 11. Hussain, a native of India, is a Westland resident. He was Executive Sous Chef at the Capital Hilton in Washington, D.C., before joining the Novi Hilton on its opening last August.

Map dedicated

An 1857 map of Oakland County, the oldest known document available, was recently dedicated by John W. Anhut, president of the Botsford Inn in Farmington Hills, and Oakland County Executive Daniel Murphy. Discovered three years ago in the attic of the Botsford Inn, the map has been restored at the Detroit Institute of Arts, mounted and placed

Fresh sheet

Windows Restaurant at the Ann Arbor Inn has introduced a new "fresh sheet" menu. Supplementing the regular menu, the fresh sheet lists appetizers, fresh fish, chef's special and desserts. Salads, more appetizers, entrees and desserts are on the regular menu. One recent evening, four fresh fish entrees included black-tipped shark, monkfish, Rocky Mountain rainbow trout and Lake Superior trout, all at $12.95.

Shares heritage

Michael Moylan, new head chef at the Hotel St. Regis in Detroit, shares some of his heritage, with an Irish menu planned for lunch and dinner on St. Patrick's Day. Limerick Green Pea Soup will be followed by bibb, ruby red and endive lettuces with artichoke heart, scallion flower and radish rose. Then it's on to Irish stew, Gaelic steak, jardiniere

Health and FITNESS

Vitamin C, tennis shoes, green, leafy veggies with enzymes intact—what's all this about keeping physically fit?

It's the smart thing to do these days; primarily because you feel like doing other, more exciting things when you feel well. We'll take a closer look at HEALTH & FITNESS on Monday, April 7, in an interesting and informative supplement.

PEOPLE-TO-PEOPLE information CLASSIFIED

Say advertising and most people think of glamorous people in big cities trying to convince us to buy something we don't really want. But classified advertising is something else entirely.

Classified is the widow with a room to rent. The young wife who wants a job. The shopkeeper who needs a cashier. The student who needs an apartment. The secretary who wants a car. The handyman who wants a shop table.

You get the picture. Classified is people just like you filling needs the most efficient, least expensive way possible: with a little ad in the back of the paper. Classified is people-to-people information. Try classified; it will work for you, too.
