Long bus rides rankle parents

By Kevin Brown
staff writer

children were older. But they question the way their children — in the kindergarten program because they're considered either too young or too immature to handle regular kindergarten — are expected to handle tedious bus trips.

"We're saying this isn't a real good deal for a lot of these little people," said another mother, Marty Cohen of Keystone in Canton.

Dale Goby, director of transportation and safety for the district, said that some elementary students wait 30 minutes for buses, adding that several factors contribute to long bus trips for some students.

"THIS YEAR, we're less able to offer the service we've been able to offer before," he said. Contributing factors include more buses needed to transport ninth graders to the Centennial Educational Park, and expansion of classes for gifted and talented students from one school to several.

"Livonia doesn't transport those students, we come to expect that service here," Goby offered.

He added that his staff spends much time refining bus schedules, even working weekends.

Should it rain or snow while students wait outside to change buses, Goby said they can find shelter at an overhang near the Miller entrance, or they can go inside the school.

McFall said that through her discussions with school staff and administrators, "You just get the feeling they don't take you seriously or to heart . . . The way we're being sluffed off is like, 'Oh, you're just a bunch of hysterical housewives.'"

"We're not out to make trouble. We're just saying, 'Couldn't somebody please look at this?'"

There are 237 students enrolled in kindergarten classes scheduled at six district schools.

DINING BENEFIT: The ultimate in fine foods, wine and music will be available Sunday, Sept. 28, when Cafe Bon Homme in Plymouth presents "The Winemaker, The Flautist and The Chef in Three Part Harmony" as a benefit for Children's Hospital of Michigan.

Only 50 connoisseurs will enjoy this feast, a six-course dinner featuring fruits d' mer en coquille, game consomee en croute, chilled duckling with raspberry salad, poisson en fillo, tenderloin aux chanterelle and white chocolate mousse aux framboises. Winemaker "The Count" from Schloss Vollrade in Germany will offer samples of his vineyard's best vintages. Classical music will be provided by members of the Michigan Opera Theater and the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

The festivities will begin at 6 p.m. in the cafe (formerly Emma's) at 844 Penningman Avenue. Tickets at $200 are limited to the first 50 reservations. If you want to call to sign up do so before Sept. 26.

BACKS NIECE: Karen and Jeffrey Garver of Trailwood subdivision, Plymouth Township, returned home from Atlantic City recently after spending a weekend cheering for and encouraging Jeffrey's niece, Kelly Lynn Garver.

Kelly traveled to Atlantic City as Miss Michigan to participate in the Miss USA beauty pageant. Uncle Jeff traveled a shorter distance a few weeks earlier to attend a send-off party in Farmington Hills for Kelly on Aug. 21. Jeff and Karen left last Wednesday, watched niece Kelly in the talent competition, and were there for the finals Saturday night. Miss Michigan finished as third runner-up.

Crash kills Canton man

A 45-year-old Canton man was killed Monday morning when his car ran into a semi-trailer which was backing out of the Spartan warehouse on Haggerty Road in Plymouth Township.

Frank Baldwin, who sustained head injuries, was dead at the scene, said Chip Snider, deputy police chief in Plymouth Township. Baldwin was going to work in Detroit when the collision occurred at 5:30 a.m., Snider said. The trucker, 48 from Evansville, Ind., was ticketed for improper backing, Snider said.

"Visibility was very poor. It was still dark, hazy, and it was raining," Snider said.

Annex sought at Westchester

A West Bloomfield couple who purchased Westchester Square in Plymouth last December now plans to add an annex to the shopping mall on Forest.

The extension will consist of about 5,000 square feet of retail space at ground level plus storage upstairs.

The annex will run lengthwise in an east-west direction starting at the Baker's Rack store on the south end of the existing mall. Its outside dimensions, according to site plans, are 118 by 49 feet.

Construction costs are estimated at $300,000.

Work on the annex should begin this week, said Deborah Pennington, owner, with husband Dennis, of Westchester Square. They're hoping for a December completion date.

"I've had lots of inquiries," Deborah Pennington said of prospective tenants. "A lot of people are interested. I would like to see a designer shoe outfit. I would like to see a ladies larger half-size dress shop, maybe a record/video store."

The annex, she said, should help existing tenants at Westchester

Community Fund goal of $400,000 set

A fundraising goal for 1986 of $400,000 for the Plymouth Community Fund was announced last week at the annual Kick-off Banquet.

The kick-off dinner, emceed by Fred Hill of John Smith, was held in the Mayflower Meeting House and attended by people involved in the annual fund-raising campaign of Plymouth Community Fund/United Way, and by people representing agencies that receive allocations from the Fund.

Duke Morrow, campaign chairman, said the fund raising got an early start this year when the Plymouth Newcomers in May contributed $2,100 from a fund-raiser held in April.

At Thursday night's kickoff a contribution of $5,500 was made by the Ford-Sheldon Plant.

After the Ford presentation, Morrow introduced this year's campaign team: Marcia Buhl, vice chair; Frank Maturko, industrial division chair; Chuck Lang, business; Russell Hoisington, professional; Carl Rundio and Judy Stone, education; Kris Raudio, government; Greg Ferman, clubs and foundations; and Esther Powell, residential.

The Plymouth Community Fund allocates money annually to some 14 local agencies, including: Growth Works, Plymouth Community Family YMCA, Plymouth Family Service, Plymouth Community Council on Aging, Plymouth Salvation Army Corps, First Step, Visiting Nurses, Plymouth Dental Fund, American Red Cross, Big Brothers/Big Sisters, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Senior Citizens Club of Plymouth and the Michigan Cancer Foundation.

In addition, by its affiliation with United Way of Michigan, the Plymouth Community Fund makes contributions to some 23 state and national agencies, which makes Plymouth residents eligible for services from those agencies.

The president of the fund's board is Harvey Ziel. Executive director is Clarence DuCharme.

Model airplane enthusiasts to take to skies

You won't have to go to Metro Airport to see jets take off this weekend. Try Canton.

That's where a normally tranquil field becomes a runway for ascending aircraft — the scaled down, radio-controlled variety.

For the third consecutive year, area hobbyists will show what their planes can do over the skies of southeast Canton — specifically at the northwest corner of Van Born and Lilley roads.

Don Kehoe of Canton, president of the Flying Pilgrims, a local model airplane club, is organizing the Fall Fly for Fun Phase-Out, scheduled for 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.

He said spectators can expect to see at least 40 aircraft, including jet-powered planes, reaching speeds of 125 mph.

Kehoe expects about 25 pilots for the event, drawn from model airplane clubs in southeast Michigan and Ohio. "There's no competition. It's strictly a fun-fly."

ADDED TO this year's event will be a radio-controlled helicopter, with 4-5 foot rotors and a 3-foot fuselage. Spectators also can expect the flying replicas of jets, biplanes and other aircraft.

Kehoe said model planes usually cost a minimum of $600 and can run "well over $1,000." While the planes can fly as high as 800-900 feet, operators, or pilots, usually allow the planes to reach maximum ceilings of 300 feet. Kehoe said this is so pilots can maintain visual contact "so they don't get disoriented."

While most planes will take off from a 20-by-140-foot concrete runway at the site, some take off from grass. Some of the aircraft — they can weigh up to 55 pounds — have retractable landing gear.

"We'll shut the flight line down for a half-hour so people can come over and talk to the pilots," said Kehoe. "That went over real well last year."

There is no admission charge.

Pop and hot dogs will be available at the site, and sometimes planes are offered for sale, Kehoe said.

Mini mall to get annex

Square and other businesses on Forest by luring more customers.

Demographics suggest that Plymouth is a "hot spot" for retail selling, Pennington said.

"It seems to have a high standard of building code and ethics in the city," she said. "It seems to be an excellent spot for investment. It's a very friendly, warm community."

"I've been in real estate and construction since 1982. Therefore, I've always got my eyes open."

Westchester Square has an assessed valuation (half of market value) of $456,840, according to records in the city treasurer's office. The property generated $29,885 in property tax revenue last year.

An additional $10,200 in tax money will result if the annex is assessed at $300,000.

All of that was made possible in great part by the work of the Plymouth Police Auxiliary Unit. Seven members — Gary Script, Dan Taylor, Ron Wood, Sarah Delmore, Judi Batzloff, Shirley Miller and Mike Richardson — volunteered a total of 73 service hours during the four-day run of the festival.

"Our auxiliary officers have become more than helpers to our unit. They have in fact become an integral part of our department," reported Officer Robert Scoggins, auxiliary coordinator.

MOVING DAY: Labor

Day was move-in day for six young adults, including one from Plymouth, with Prader-Willi Syndrome. Their new home in Mount Pleasant is the fourth group home being operated by Central Michigan Non-Profit Housing.

Prader-Willi Syndrome was first identified in 1956 and was rarely diagnosed until the 1970s. It is an uncommon birth defect that results in initial hypotonia, hypogonadism, central nervous system performance dysfunction, accompanied by various learning disabilities. Its victims are limp at birth, fail to respond to any stimuli and most never cry until they are more than a year old.

Inquiries about Prader-Willi Syndrome, or a request to be put on a waiting list for possible group home placement, should be referred to the Prader-Willi Syndrome Association of Michigan, P.O. Box 135, Plymouth MI 48170.

Sisters of Mercy
Serving our community
Since 1911

This is St. Joe's

Our nurses have been at the heart of the spirit of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital for seventy-five years. It is more true today than ever before.

As professionals, our nurses have more responsibility than ever in providing care to our patients. Their education, experience, and skill are essential in maintaining the consistently high level of healthcare service that this community has come to expect from St. Joe's since 1911.

As people, these nurses play many roles in assuring that excellent care also means compassionate care. Nurses are educators and advocates for patients. They provide comfort and reassurance. They take a special pride in carrying out the hospital's philosophy of caring for the needs of the whole person.

Not surprisingly, although there are more than a thousand nurses at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital, they still think of themselves as family. Together with the medical staff and the rest of the Health Center's employees, our nurses represent the values that have made St. Joe's the hospital of choice here for so many years.

At St. Joseph Mercy Hospital our family is here to help yours.

Lucas spending questioned

By Teri Banas
staff writer

Wayne County commissioners, complaining that the county is running out of money, have asked county executive William Lucas to explain his use of county-funded office staff and sheriff's deputies while campaigning for governor.

Complaints surfaced last week during budget hearings before the Ways and Means Committee when commissioners were informed that six sheriff's employees have been traveling the state with Lucas, now the GOP nominee for governor.

"We really don't think it's an adequate use of county funds and its not how the voters intended for county funds to be spent, especially since (county) treasurer Ray Wojtowicz informed us that as of Thursday, there's only $1.8 million left in the general fund" said committee chairman Clarence Young.

YOUNG SAID he's sent a letter to Lucas asking that his campaign reimburse the county for the deputies' salaries as well as any other county employee whose time was spent in the same manner.

"We realize that if he's using them inside the county, that's a legitimate expense, but when he's in Gaylord or Sault Ste. Marie, they're not performing a county function," Young said.

Committee member Kay Beard, D-Inkster, called for a complete breakdown in expenses from the point that Lucas became a gubernatorial candidate. She said that dates back to May 1985 when Lucas switched parties and became a Republican.

"I think it's only fair," said the county commissioner. "It's not legal or moral to use county funds to campaign for another office."

Administration loyalists say the issue is politically motivated to by the predominately Democratic commission to embarrass Lucas in his GOP bid to become governor.

And it could be settled soon. A Lucas aide said Friday that some resolution would be forthcoming. Spokesman Mike Conway said county fiscal director Fred Todd has drafted a formula for reimbursing county coffers. Todd was unavailable for comment late last week.

Lucas' chief spokesman, Bill Johnson, another target of commissioner complaints because of his constant travels with GOP nominee Lucas, was traveling with Lucas and unavailable for comment on Friday.

COUNTY FISCAL director, Irvin Morehead, however, was sympathetic to Lucas' need for security protection, particularly because of previous death threats against him. He said there is a "fine line" in deciding at which point in time a security officer is protecting a gubernatorial candidate or a county executive.

"I don't know how they (commissioners) would deal with it from a conscience point of view (if he was injured)," said Morehead.

According to commissioners, the issue surfaced after a testimony from treasurer Wojtowicz that the general fund budget was down to $1.8 million with 2 1/2 months to go in the fiscal year.

"EVERYONE has been led to believe that there is such a drastic cut in the county deficit and that the fiscal machinery is going smoothly. But that's all of a sudden not the case," said Young.

According to Wojtowicz, that amount is "insufficient" to cover county payrolls until Nov. 30, the end of the fiscal year. With 11 more payroll periods coming up, one requires roughly $2 million, he testified.

Morehead said "it's possible" for the county to run short on meeting upcoming payrolls, but said other measures were being worked up to make up the difference.

The county started the fiscal year with some $201 million. An attempt by Wayne County to sell 850 acres of county-owned land in Northville Township would if realized provide $22.2 million in new revenue.

The land, six parcels located near Sheldon north of Five Mile, includes the site of the former state-run Child Development Center.

"If the land can't be sold than we'll do some short-term borrowing," said Morehead before employees were met with payless paydays.

According to Morehead, today's fiscal problem developed because of years of county overspending and putting off payments to vendors.

"The cash can't be manipulated to be stretch out any longer," he said.

He said he has recommended that the money from any sale be used to meet current expenses and make payment on the county's long-term debt.

County purchasing officer Doug Gniwewek says the county has advertised for development bids on the property and are due on Oct. 15. Also required then are site plans and proof of developer's financial strength.

"We're not going to sell the land on speculation," he said.

He said requests for proposals offered developers the option of bidding for the entire 805 acres of mixed zoning or a portion of that amount. Local township officers have been working with is office on the sale, and desire the tax base that could be developed from a project there, Gniwewek said.

However, one snag could delay any sale.

According to Gniwewek, the state is attempting to wrestle $3 million made in building improvements to the site from Wayne County before any sale is made.

But Gniwewek said those buildings, once used as dormitories, have "negative value. Anyone who buys the property would have to tear them down," he said.

Trial run Saturday

The Wayne County Park System is sponsoring a 20-mile marathon training run in the Middle Rouge Parkway along Edward Hines Drive starting at 8:30 a.m. Saturday at the Warrendale Picnic area.

Runners can find the starting place near Warren and Telegraph roads. The event will continue west along Hines Drive to Haggerty and then return back to the Warrendale area.

Two intersections will be closed during the run — Ann Arbor Trail and Hines Drive and Newburgh and Hines Drive.

Last year Michigan Runner Magazine selected the event as one of the top five new runs in the state. It attracted almost 1,000 participants. This is the second year for the run.

There is no entrance fee. No prizes will be awarded. Aid stations will be located every two miles.

Other sponsors include the Redford Roadrunners, Motor City Striders and the Detroit Free Press International Marathon.

ARTHRITIS DRUGS IN THE ELDERLY

What drugs used to treat arthritis are safe for the elderly? The answer is: very few.

With aging, you lose your ability to eliminate drugs from your body, with the kidney and liver being particularly susceptible to harmful levels. The chance of drug toxicity is compounded if you take a number of medications. Interference between drugs may lead to dangerous concentrations of the medication by raising the blood level of the drug or impairing its excretion.

Most anti-arthritis drugs now on the market have not been in use long enough to allow one to say with certainty that the drugs are safe for the elderly. The one exception is aspirin.

The public has been using this drug for over 100 years. To date, aspirin has remained safe when used by persons of all ages and by individuals taking a number of other medications. The physician's choice of aspirin therapy is not an indication of indifference to the current choice of anti-inflammatory drugs, but reflects an understanding of what is best and safest for the elderly patient.

DAN'S FANCY

How Plymouth lost the Ford Motor Company

(Part 3)

Had you been standing near Kellogg Park at the corner of Main and Penniman 120 years ago, you would have seen the Plymouth Band loading instruments into a wagon and climbing in after them.

Pulled by four horses with bright tassels on their heads, the wagon was to take the band to Toledo to participate in a Fourth of July, 1866, celebration. Someone took a photo of the bandwagon just before it moved out.

That photo has been reprinted many times over the past century. It is shown on Page 4 of my pictorial history of Plymouth. It appears in mural form on a wall in the Plymouth Historical Museum. An enlargement of it hung for many years in a farm-office hideout of Henry Ford in Dearborn.

Ford said the photo reminded him of the Dearborn bandwagon in which his uncle, also named Henry, had played. Ford couldn't find a picture of the Dearborn band, so he used the one of the Plymouth group.

THAT WAS JUST one of many things Henry Ford found interesting about Plymouth.

As indicated in an earlier column, Plymouth could have been the birthplace of the Ford Motor Co. if a few Daisy shareholders had not rejected a proposal Henry Ford made to them. It happened this way:

In 1903, after two of the automobile companies he started had failed, Ford was looking for new backers. That was when he made a proposition to Charles H. Bennett, the president, and Edward C. Hough, the vice president and treasurer, of the Daisy Manufacturing Co., producers of the Daisy Air Rifle and Plymouth's largest employer.

Bennett had become acquainted with Ford through a chance encounter with a relative of Alex Malcolmsen, the coal dealer, one of Ford's original investors. Bennett's dream was to be the first person in Plymouth to own a car. He was on his way to Detroit to buy an Oldsmobile. One day, he stopped at his tailors for a fitting.

Bennett told the tailor of his plan to buy an Olds. A cousin of Malcolmsen's, in the next fitting room, overheard the conversation, introduced himself and told Charley he should see Henry Ford's new car first. Bennett agreed and the man phoned Ford, who came out to let Bennett drive the car. Bennett liked it and offered to buy one.

past and present

Sam Hudson

"It's the only one I've got," admitted Ford. "We're not in production yet."

Later Ford came to Plymouth to see Bennett. He offered to sell him half of his new company for $50,000 and to make him general manager. Bennett said he didn't have $50,000 to invest, buy would try to interest the Daisy Manufacturing Co. in putting up the money.

Bennett talked to Ed Hough about Ford's offer. Hough, a more cautious man than Bennett, sent two engineers to examine Ford's car. They gave a good report. Hough decided to go along with Bennett. (In his book "It's a Daisy," Cass Hough says Henry Ford offered to make his father treasurer of the new company.)

But Charley and Ed ran into a snag. Daisy's lawyers told them they would have to get the consent of the firm's stockholders before they could commit the company. The stockholders were canvassed. Some agreed, but not enough. The deal fell through.

THAT'S HOW PLYMOUTH lost the opportunity to become the home of the Ford Motor Co.

If Daisy had put up the $50,000 and Charley Bennett and Ed Hough had become the firm's general manager and treasurer, the odds are that they would have convinced Ford to build the plant in Plymouth near their other holdings.

When Henry Ford did manage to organize the Ford Motor Co., Plymouth's Charley Bennett became the firm's general manager and treasurer, the odds are that they would have convinced Ford to build the plant in Plymouth near their other holdings.

When Henry Ford did manage to organize the Ford Motor Co., Plymouth's Charley Bennett became one of the original shareholders.

Among others were: John and Horace Dodge, who took stock in exchange for tooling their machine shop to build motors; Albert Strelow, who accepted stock payment for his carpenter shop which Ford wanted as an assembly plant; Alex Malcolmsen, the coal dealer, who invested $7,000; and James Couzens, one of Malcolmsen's employees.

Bennett invested $5,000 in the company. But he sold out too soon.

He got $35,000, plus dividends, for his stock. That's more than a seven-fold return, but had he waited, as Couzens and others did, Charley would have made more than $12 million on his investment, not counting dividends. He always told reporters he had no regrets — but one worders.

Ford died in 1947 but if, like the ghost of Hamlet's father, spirits do wander about, Old Henry may have been in Plymouth again in April 1966. That was the year groundbreaking took place for the Ford plant on Sheldon Road.

Most of the Ford plants in the United States are named after the towns in which they are located. In this case, however, company officials decided to call the facility the "Sheldon Road Plant." For some strange reason, they couldn't bring themselves to name it the "Ford-Plymouth" plant.

Man escapes from freak blaze

A man unloading drywall from a truck in Plymouth sustained minor injuries Friday when he leaped from the vehicle onto a pile of dirt after the cab caught fire.

William Lanier of Detroit was treated at the scene by medical technicians but refused transport to a hospital. He seemed to have a leg injury, said Fire Chief Al Matthews.

The incident occurred at 10:30 a.m. outside of the Plymouth Mills

Apartments under construction on Mill Street.

Fluid from a broken hydraulic line on the truck apparently ignited after spilling onto the muffler or tailpipe, Matthews said.

The truck's cab, engulfed in flames, was damaged to the tune of about $8,000, Matthews estimated. The apartments weren't damaged.

Firefighters remained on the scene a half hour to 45 minutes. None was injured.

A free lecture series on chemical dependency and adolescents will be presented in the Community Room of the Arbor Health Building in downtown Plymouth from 7 to 8 p.m. on consecutive Thursdays from Sept. 25 through Oct. 9. No pre-registration is required.

Sept. 25 What is chemical dependency? This session defines chemical dependency as a disease and discusses the unique differences between chemical dependency in adolescents and adults. A distinction is made between "normal" adolescents and the chemically dependent adolescent. Signs and symptoms of adolescent chemical dependency are discussed.

Oct. 2 Doctor, can you help me with my teenager? This session describes addiction and physical dependency with an overview of some genetic aspects. Also discussed are physical symptoms as they relate to various drugs, particularly alcohol, marijuana and cocaine.

Oct. 9 How does substance abuse affect the adolescent and the family? This session explores many of the questions concerning adolescent alcohol and drug use. The disease concept is reviewed and an explanation of the family's involvement in chemical dependency is offered from an illness perspective. The medical aspect of chemical dependency is also discussed.

How can I get some help? Chemical dependency assessment, referral, treatment and follow-up: What can I expect? A discussion of the continuum of care and an introduction to self-help groups is given. Direction is given on how to get the appropriate help for the chemically dependent teenager.

Presenters include Neil Carolan, director of the Catherine McAuley Health Center Chemical Dependency Program; Charles Gehrke, MD, medical director of the Chemical Dependency Program; Kathleen Bishop, family counselor for the Huron Oaks adolescent unit. High court proposes time limits for trials

The Michigan Supreme Court took a major step in its campaign to reduce delay in the state's 241 trial courts.

The state's highest court directed that a proposed administrative order establishing time guidelines, case-flow management procedures and a court delay reduction program be published in the Michigan Bar Journal for comment by judges and attorneys.

"The Michigan Supreme Court will act on the proposed administrative order either later this year or early next year, and I am confident time guidelines will be implemented in all Michigan courts by next spring," said Chief Justice G. Mennen Williams.

Williams praised the blueprint aimed at speeding the wheels of justice in the state's 55 circuit courts, 100 district courts, 79 probate courts, six municipal courts and one recorder's court.

Following are the highlights of time guidelines recommended by the committee for timely disposition of all cases:

CIRCUIT COURT

- 90 percent of all civil cases should be settled, tried or otherwise concluded within 12 months from the date of filing, 98 percent within 18 months and 100 percent within 24 months.

- 90 percent of all divorce cases should be settled, tried or otherwise concluded within seven months from the date of filing, 98 percent within 10 months and 100 percent within 12 months. The committee recommended the distinction between divorce with children and without children be abolished.

- 90 percent of all paternity cases should be settled, tried or otherwise concluded within seven months, 98 percent within 12 months and 100 percent within 18 months.

- 100 percent of all child custody issues should be concluded within 91 days.

- 90 percent of all felony cases should be concluded within 91 days after defendant is bound over, 98 percent within 154 days and 100 percent within 180 days. Individuals jailed before trial should be given priority for trial.

The proposed Circuit Court time guidelines also apply to Detroit's Recorder's Court, which handles only criminal cases.

DISTRICT COURT

- 90 percent of all civil cases should be settled, tried or otherwise concluded within six months, 98 percent within 91 days and 100 percent within 126 days.

- 90 percent of all misdemeanors, civil infractions and other non-felony cases should be concluded within 63 days, 98 percent within 91 days and 100 percent within 126 days.

- 100 percent of preliminary examinations in felony cases to be concluded within 14 days of arraignment unless good cause is shown.

PROBATE COURT

- 75 percent of all contested probate matters should be resolved within six months, 90 percent within nine months and 100 percent within 12 months.

- 75 percent of all petitions or complaints in delinquency or neglect proceedings should be adjudicated or disposed of within 63 days when a minor is in custody, 90 percent within 77 days and 100 percent within 91 days.

- Where a minor is not being detained in delinquency and neglect proceedings, 75 percent of all petitions or complaints should be adjudicated or disposed of within 119 days, 90 percent within six months and 100 percent within seven months.

long the rural edge of Beck Road an olive green sign that says "Survival Game" stands in the tall grass before an empty parcel of land.

Only on weekends, when cars tend to spill over onto the shoulder of the road, do passersby take notice. In time, their curiosity takes over and many call the phone number on the sign.

"Are you guys training people for war?" the caller asked Ed Frazier, one of four proprietors of the National Survival Game franchise just north of I-96 in Wixom.

"I hope not," said Frazier, 33, a Wayne resident who has no military training. "Very few players have any military experience," he added.

The Survival Game is actually a team sport where two groups of up to 15 players can square off against each other. Dressed in camouflage fatigues, participants crawl through mud and brush shooting orange paint pellets from CO2 powered pistols while trying to capture the other teams' flag.

Frazier and three childhood friends from Garden City started the business in June of 1984 after playing the game just a few times.

"We played in Saline a few years ago," Frazier said. "It seemed to be more fun, more organized and a whole lot safer than the BB-gun fights we used to have."

Safety is definitely the first priority out on the battlefield where players must wear protective glasses at all times.

Frazier and his partners, Bert Caporosso of Canton, Jim Caporosso of Westland and Tom Hudson of Dearborn Heights have had their hands full trying to accommodate the throngs of people wanting to play. Saturdays and Sundays are booked for the next six weeks, but Frazier said the field is available anytime if he is given enough notice.

"Anyone over 18 can play this game," Frazier said. "We even had a group of secretaries out here one day challenging their bosses."

Those interested in participating can call Frazier at 722-5126.

We're Talking About Mental Health

At Catherine McAuley Health Center we are moving to a position of leadership in the treatment of mental and emotional problems. Our vision of mental health is becoming a reality with the opening of the new Mercywood Health Building.

Come share this new vision with us by attending a free public lecture at the new Mercywood:

"What is Depression?"

Depression can be defined as a symptom, as a part of another psychiatric disorder, and as a disorder in itself. How do we distinguish between depression that requires professional help from everyday ups and downs?

This session discusses depression as a biological disorder caused by a chemical imbalance and as a psychological disorder.

Speaker: Thomas Zelnik, M.D.

Date: Wednesday, September 24

Time: Lecture, 7:00 PM — Tour and Refreshments, 8:00 PM

Location: Cafeteria, Mercywood Health Building on Catherine McAuley Health Center's Huron River Drive Campus

Would a prestigious optical store like NuVision resort to gimmicks like coupons during their Fall Sale?

(Couldn't hurt.)

There are those who consider it a bit undignified to offer quality eyewear at a discount price.

In most cases, the people who feel this way are the people who sell eyeglasses or contact lenses. Not the people who buy them.

After all, most people in the market for designer frames welcome the opportunity to save as much as $40 on their next pair of glasses. They don't mind taking scissors in hand in order to pay $20 less for a pair of daily wear soft or extended wear contact lenses.

But, if the prospect of clipping coupons out of a newspaper strikes you as a bit unseemly, feel free to continue paying too much for the latest innovations in eye care. The rest of us will be holding these coupons in our hot little hands and heading to NuVision before the big Fall Sale ends, Nov. 22.

Jewelry taken from car trunk

Jewelry valued at more than $230,000 was reportedly stolen from a car trunk in the parking lot of a Canton bar last week.

The theft was reported by an Ohio jewelry salesman and a Canadian jewelry firm executive. The car was parked at BJ's Bowery on Ford Road near I-275 between 6 and 7 p.m. Tuesday, when the jewelry was taken.

The Canadian executive was introducing the Ohio salesman to local contacts, a Canton police officer said.

The trunk held about $206,000 worth of jewelry from one manufacturer and $20,000 worth of jewelry from another manufacturer. The larger amount was insured but the smaller was not.

After having drinks at BJ's the men ate dinner at the Roman Forum in Canton and returned to a motel room in Monroe where they noticed the trunk lock had been tampered with.

They reported the missing jewelry at 11 that night.

The Bible is ample authority

To the editor:

The following letter is directed to columnist Tim Richard.

You assert in the last paragraph of your column "Views on Witch Hunters" that "... I'll censor my stuff, you censor your stuff and the other guy can censor his stuff."

This position is fine, except some place we all must finally censor from a common authority. Diane Daskalakis "censors" from the Bible.

No other publication, claiming anywhere near this age, can meet as many literary tests, come through as many translations and remain as true and uncorrupted and historically accurate as our great holy Bible.

You indicate or wish to deflect that Mrs. Daskalakis' position is weak.

I challenge you to compare the Bible's accuracy and reliability with any publication you use for your philosophies and digressions, and to see if their comparative merits measure up to all the Bible states. Will they stand up for another 3,000 years, or 2,000 or even 500? Can your "authorities" offer as much hope as the Bible?

You should test the Bible in depth for its wisdom. Mrs. Daskalakis and all born-again Christians do not live by any law except that written in the Ten Commandments, on which the framers of the U.S. Constitution based their work.

Have you tried it? Join one of our Bible discussions — no obligations. We welcome you.

MUCC claims victory for petition drive

By Tim Richard
staff writer

Declaring victory, the Michigan United Conservation Clubs suspended its drive for 300,000 petition signatures to put a bill requiring deposits on wine coolers on the ballot.

"The bill does basically what we set out to do," said MUCC spokesman Don Stypula after the state Senate passed a 10-cent deposit law. "Our concern was to require a dime deposit on each single-serving drink container."

"Had it not been for those petitions, there's no way the Senate and House would have dealt with those bills. People can make a difference," said Stypula, a one-time Schoolcraft College student and news broadcaster who is now chief publicist for MUCC chief Thomas L. Washington.

When, as expected, Gov. James J. Blanchard signs two tie-barred bills, deposits will become state law June 1, 1989. All seven area senators supported both bills.

MUCC IN 1976 won passage of an initiative petition for a deposit law for pop and beer, and this summer it collected 218,000 signers to expand deposits to wine coolers and the new mixed drinks such as the 12-ounce Jim Beam & Coke.

Thursday's Senate vote ended months of debate before the Liquor Control Commission (passed), Legislative Joint Administrative Rules Committee (declared LCC's action null and void) and both houses of the Legislature.

Without legislative action, MUCC would have filed its petitions by Nov. 4, seeking a 1988 ballot spot for its proposal.

The Legislature actually passed two tie-barred bills: the deposit law and a measure allowing wine cooler wholesalers exclusive territories. MUCC grudgingly accepted the second bill in a spirit of political compromise.

UNHAPPY WITH the bills are grocers in the Michigan Food Dealers Association.

Grocers wanted a two-cents handling charge for each can and bottle. MFDA contends such large markets as Farmer Jack's and Meijers's spend millions on equipment and wages to redeem containers which people purchased at gas stations and party stores.

They and MUCC say the two cents could come from the "float" — the $48 million in cans and bottles that are never redeemed.

"In almost every other state with a bottle deposit law, grocers are paid a handling fee," said Paul K. Fershee Jr., president of the trade group. "After the election, the association will seek a handling fee, a tax credit or some type of recognition for the costs retailers bare."

They can count on support from at least one suburbanite on the House Liquor Control Committee — Rep. Mat Dunaskiss, R-Lake Orion.

THE TWIN bills were passed on the final day of a special two-week session.

But the lopsided margins — 32-3 for the deposit bill and 34-0 for the territorial bill — belied the intense debate and floor maneuvering which preceded it.

Three outstate senators voted against the deposit bill, declaring it also should apply to liquor bottles. An amendment to add liquor bottles to the bill lost 21-7. Among local senators, only R. Robert Geake, R-Northville, supported it.

MUCC sought deposit laws only for single-drink containers. Washington argued in committee that package liquor is generally consumed at home and doesn't generate the same litter as beer, pop, wine coolers and canned highballs.

Senate Majority Leader John Engler, R-Mt. Pleasant, said, "I know of no reason why liquor bottles shouldn't be included. I would be willing to come back in November and deal with it" in a separate bill.

SOME SENATORS sought to move up the effective date from 1989 to one year from the date of adoption. But sponsors backed off, fearing that if the Senate passed a version different from the House's, the bill would be thrown into a conference committee.

"Half a loaf is better than none," said Sen. Mitch Irwin, D-Sault Ste. Marie. "Rather than allow a conference committee to get this, our best interest is to put this bill through now."

House and Senate versions of a bill must be identical before it can become law.

And she's right. In 1986, it takes more than a 1970s-era household designer name to sell clothes.

"I think of myself when I design, what I need in terms of total lifestyle," she said. "Today, most women work. Their lives are hectic. Their needs are different than they used to be. Women need clothes that are interesting without being oversized and impractical. Ultimately, it's the customer who gives you your direction."

That direction, according to Jovine, is a sophisticated look at an affordable price. "Women are dedicating a lot of time to making their bodies look good, and they want clothes that show it."

Stoddard defense: Feds violated their 'deal'

By Tim Richard
staff writer

A key question in banker Stanford C. Stoddard's trial is whether federal regulators violated a "deal" — his resignation as board chairman of Michigan National Corp. — in return for an end to their potentially embarrassing investigation.

"At no time was any deal ever made," said P. Stacey Powers, an attorney for the Comptroller of the Currency, the federal agency that regulates nationally chartered banks.

Stoddard's defense attorneys, however, insist there was a deal and spent several hours last week in a federal courtroom in Ann Arbor trying to prove it.

Why such an effort?
"So it doesn't show he admitted wrongdoing by resigning," answered

Richard M. Roberts, the Washington lawyer handling Stoddard's case. At one point Roberts, in an interview, said the deal may be "not legally binding."

"But we don't concede it's not legally binding," added his associate, Sandy Comenetz. "It's not clear whether it's legally binding."

IN TESTIMONY Friday, Stoddard's son and daughter-in-law told of a tense meeting in the elder Stoddard's Yarmouth Avenue home in Birmingham the evening after a July 18, 1984, meeting of the bank holding company's board of directors.

"The board was very scared," said Stanford D. Stoddard, the son who is now a student in the University of Virginia's graduate school of business administration.

"It was the unanimous viewpoint of the board that to satisfy the regulatory agencies, he should resign. . . . The resignation would be temporary. He would not lose any salary and benefits."

He said seven directors who attended the meeting were concerned about being hit by heavy fines themselves and "adverse publicity for them, adverse publicity for the bank, adverse publicity for the Mormon Church, adverse publicity for the corporation."

THE MEETING occurred after Karen Wilson, a deputy regional director of the Comptroller's Chicago office, met with the board and reportedly said the investigation would be dropped if Stoddard would step out of the bank chairmanship.

Government attorney Powers said in an interview that "our office never entered into deals that I'm aware of" and that Wilson might have lacked authority to make such a deal.

The government seeks to fine Stoddard $500,000 and bar him from banking for life for misallocating $150,000 in bank funds on his own homes, family weddings and Mormon church projects.

Stoddard, 55, whose father pieced together the third largest banking company in Michigan after the Great Depression, had been chairman of Michigan National from 1972 until the 1984 resignation. His bold defense — in an unprecedented public hearing he requested — is aimed at showing the government is out to get him with trivia.

TINA STODDARD, the banker's daughter-in-law, told much the same story: Directors told Stoddard "he had to resign, at least temporarily.

If he didn't there would be further investigation."

"He, the bank and the Mormon church would be put in the paper," Mrs. Stoddard said. "The board members were very scared. (They said) later he could be brought back into the bank."

She quoted two directors as saying "two weeks and he would be back."

Much of her testimony also involved a San Francisco dinner the evening before her Dec. 3, 1981, marriage to Stanford D. Stoddard.

The defense says it was business-related. On the witness stand, the young Stoddards pored over guest lists and said many were "business associates" of the bank chairman.

THE GOVERNMENT contends Michigan National Corp. records show it was a business dinner for the board of a subsidiary called Western Leasing and Capital Corp. Government attorney Powers contended:

• Only three Western Leasing directors attended, but the guest list numbered 51.

• Stoddard paid only $412 of the nearly $1,400 bill, charging off $962 as a business expense to the bank.

• Stoddard wrote letters of invitation on his personal stationery billing the gathering as a "small family dinner party."

Other questions involved a Dec. 16, 1981, reception in Bloomfield Hills Country Club attended by some 200 people.

"Many were business associates of my father," the younger Stoddard said.

The trial has been going on for more than a month before Thomas Jones, an administrative law judge from Grand Rapids.

Author to speak on Irish changes

Fans of Ireland will hear Irish author Peter Somerville-Large speak on the changes in country life at 8 p.m. Thursday, Sept. 25.

The occasion is a meeting of the Irish American Cultural Institute in Birmingham Unitarian Church, 651 N. Woodward at Lone Pine Road, Bloomfield Hills.

Somerville-Large will discuss changes which 60 years of increasing technology have brought to country life. He uses the recorded voices of elderly farmers and fishermen who talk about the changes they have witnessed. Their conversation is laden with nostalgia for the past and its values.

The Irish American Cultural Institute is a tri-country group with headquarters at 4193 Biddle, Wayne. Information on the non-profit group is available at 535-7425 after 5 p.m.

The group sponsors lectures, concerts, social teas and films.

Child advocates honored

Madonna College will host the annual gathering of the Detroit/Wayne County Child Care Coordinating Council Thursday in Kresge Hall when new officers will be installed.

Among other announcements, a volunteer from Livonia, Debra Winkler, will be named one of three special award recipients. A parent support group volunteer coordinator, Winkler represents the Livonia Public Schools' Department of Community Education.

Others receiving awards include Ellen J. Rumman, a family counselor-therapist from the Arab Community Center for Economic and Social Services in Dearborn; Lila Cabibil for her work with families with special needs; and IBM Corp. for progress in meeting employee child-care needs.

ENTERTAINING IN THE EIGHTIES— CASUAL, YET ELEGANT

Entertaining seems especially appropriate during the winter months when many occasions bring family and friends together. But with so much to do and so little time to do it, entertainers of the eighties need to find ways to plan, prepare and host a party using as little time as possible. The key is to choose foods that can be prepared in advance, will hold up without a lot of fuss and will satisfy the varied tastes of the guests. Buffets are the perfect answer—they're easy on hosts and give guests a nice choice—whether nibbling or enjoying a full meal.

Since time has a way of slipping by (especially during the busy holiday season), look for shortcuts when choosing a buffet menu. Have a local caterer, restaurant or supermarket deli prepare the buffet entrée. It can be as simple and delicious as a honey-baked ham or roast, sliced thin and served au naturel. Then you'll have more time to plan and prepare side dishes that will turn your buffet into an extraordinary dining experience.

Party foods are only as good as their ingredients, so look for special items that will delight your guests' tastes—crunchy golden pecans and creamy smooth California avocados, both readily available for fine winter dining.

Pecans have long been a welcome addition to traditional dishes. But today there's hardly a style of cooking or recipe (from pies to vegetable salads) where pecans aren't an asset. When stored properly, this nut will hold its freshness for up to two years! This means you can purchase pecans when the price is best and savor them in your favorite recipes all year long.

California avocados add a striking golden green color to an array of buffet dishes along with a delightful rich taste.

As an ingredient, avocados span the culinary globe from a spicy guacamole to a rich frozen dessert to a hearty loaf of bread. And of course, large crops and many varieties make California avocados an affordable luxury all year round.

When planning a buffet menu, look to the refrigerator first. Turn leftover turkey into a delicious Turkey Treasure Salad by teaming it up with such colorful gems as pecans, avocado cubes, oranges and raisins, all spiced with a curried yogurt dressing.

During a party, a good host should tend to the guests, not the food. Brandied Pecan Pinwheels can be prepared one or two days ahead and put out on the buffet table just before the guests arrive. A zippy cream cheese mixture with crunchy pecans, bacon bits and fresh parsley is spread onto pumpernickel bread slices, rolled and chilled, then sliced into pinwheels and served.

Brandied Pecan Spread, with its rich pungent flavor, will hold its molded shape beautifully for guests to enjoy—even into the wee hours.

For true aesthetics, emerald green Dilly Avocado Dip served in hollowed out cherry tomato shells and topped with pecan halves will add stunning color and a cool, fresh flavor to any buffet table.

Holidays are the perfect time for good home cooking and nothing signifies that more than the aroma and flavor of a freshly baked loaf of bread. Preparing Avocado Pecan Bread is quick as any quick bread and will pleasantly surprise your guests with its rich, moist, nutty flavor. Served with butter, cream cheese or alone, it's bound to be a hit!

Spend this winter's festivities in the casual style of the eighties... with good friends and family, delicious food and plenty of time to enjoy it all.

TURKEY TREASURE SALAD

- 2 California avocados, seeded, peeled and cubed
- 2 cups diced cooked turkey or chicken
- 2 oranges, peeled, sectioned and cut into bite-size pieces
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans
- 1/2 cup raisins
- Curry Dressing, recipe follows

Combine avocado, turkey, orange pieces, pecans and raisins in large bowl. Stir in curry dressing, toss until well coated. Serve in a salad bowl lined with leaf lettuce or line individual salad plates with leaf lettuce or fresh spinach and spoon salad over. Makes about 16 appetizer servings.

Curry Dressing

- 1/2 cup sour cream
- 1/4 cup plain low-fat yogurt
- 2 tablespoons orange juice concentrate
- 1-1/4 teaspoons curry powder

Thoroughly blend all ingredients together.

FESTIVE PECAN PINWHEELS

- 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese
- 2 cups minced fresh parsley
- 1/2 cup ground pecans
- 5 strips bacon, fried crisp and crumbled
- 1 tablespoon mayonnaise
- 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika
- 1/8 teaspoon garlic powder
- 3 dashes hot pepper sauce
- 1 loaf (1 pound) pumpernickel or other dark bread, sliced lengthwise

Mix together all ingredients except bread; set aside. Remove and discard crusts from long slices; flatten each by rolling it with a rolling pin. Spread flattened slices with cream cheese filling. Roll slices jelly roll fashion and wrap each in plastic wrap, twisting ends to secure. Refrigerate or freeze rolls for several hours or until firm enough to slice. Slice each into 8 rounds and serve. Makes about 56 appetizers.

BRANDIED PECAN SPREAD

- 1 cup chopped dried fruit (apricots, apples, peaches, pears and raisins)
- 1/3 cup brandy
- 1 envelope unflavored gelatin
- 1/4 cup cold water
- 1 8-ounce package plus 1 3-ounce package cream cheese, softened
- 8 tablespoons (1 stick) butter or margarine, softened
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup sour cream
- Grated rind of 2 lemons
- 1 cup chopped pecans
- Assorted small cookies

Pour brandy over dried fruit in small bowl; cover and refrigerate several hours or overnight. Dissolve gelatin in cold water set over a pan of hot water. Place dissolved gelatin, cream cheese, butter, sugar, sour cream and lemon rind in blender jar; whirl until smooth. Add marinated fruit to cheese mixture along with pecans. Mix well. Pour mixture into an oiled 1-quart mold; chill several hours until firm. Unmold and serve with small cookies. Makes about 30 appetizer servings.

DILLY AVOCADO-STUFFED TOMATOES

- 40 cherry tomatoes
- 2 soft California avocados, seeded and peeled
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- 1/3 cup plain low-fat yogurt
- 2 green onions and tops, minced
- 1 teaspoon dill weed
- 40 pecan halves

Cut tops off cherry tomatoes; remove pulp inside and discard. Slice small section off bottom to keep tomatoes from rolling. Chill shells. Meanwhile, mash avocado with lemon juice; add remaining ingredients except pecan halves. Gently spoon mixture into chilled cherry tomato shells. Top each with a pecan half and serve. Makes 40 appetizers.

NOTE: Avocado mixture may be served as a dip with a wreath of fresh vegetables. To make wreath, place whole romaine or butter lettuce leaves on large round serving tray in a circular design. Create color splashes of red, white and green by arranging clusters of fresh vegetables such as cauliflowerets, broccoli flowers, cherry tomatoes, mushrooms, green pepper strips or rings, radishes, cucumber slices, julienned jicama and celery chunks over lettuce. Place avocado dip in center of wreath and serve.

FROZEN AVOCADO PECAN MOLD

- 1 package (8 ounces) cream cheese, softened
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1/2 cup sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 California avocado, seeded, peeled and cubed
- 1 grapefruit, peeled, sectioned and cut into bite-size pieces
- 1 orange, peeled, sectioned and cut into bite-size pieces
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans

Blend together cream cheese, sour cream, sugar and salt in large bowl. Add avocado, grapefruit, orange and pecans; stir gently to mix. Pour cream cheese mixture into 9x5x3-inch loaf pan; freeze just until firm. Let stand at room temperature a few minutes to soften slightly, if necessary. Cut into slices just before serving. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

AVOCADO PECAN BREAD

- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 3/4 cup sugar
- 2 teaspoons grated orange rind
- 1 teaspoon baking soda
- 1/2 teaspoon baking powder
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- 1 large California avocado, seeded, peeled and mashed (or enough to equal 1 cup)
- 1 egg, slightly beaten
- 1/2 cup buttermilk
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- 1/2 cup coarsely chopped pecans

Mix together flour, sugar, orange rind, baking soda, baking powder, cinnamon and salt in a large mixing bowl. Add avocado, egg, buttermilk and lemon juice; stir until thoroughly mixed. Stir in pecans. Pour into well-greased 9x5x3-inch loaf pan. Bake in 350°F oven 50 to 60 minutes or until a wooden pick inserted near the center of the bread comes out clean. Allow bread to cool 10 minutes before removing from pan. Makes 1 loaf.

Apple's way

With the changing season comes fall's abundance of apples. Crisp and crunchy, red, green or yellow, this seasonal bounty is a boon for dessert makers.

Busy cooks have long known that great-tasting homemade apple desserts can be a breeze to prepare. With the help of the marshmallow creme to streamline preparation, lightly sweeten and insure smooth texture of creamy fillings, all kinds of autumn apple treats can be ready in no time.

The familiar homey aroma of apples and cinnamon will fill the air temptingly as Apple Upside-Down Cake bakes. Super-moist and rich, it boasts a cinnamon flavored apple-nut filling topped lightly sweetened with marshmallow creme. Serve this versatile cake as a harvest dinner finale or a special weekend breakfast treat.

A "spirited" dessert with sophisticated flavor, Brandied Apple Bars showcase the season's apple crop. The crispy, golden oatmeal crust holds a rich and creamy cheesecake filling made with cream cheese, marshmallow creme, apples and a splash of brandy. Serve the bars warm from the oven or chilled, for make-ahead convenience.

APPLE UPSIDE-DOWN CAKE

- 1/2 cup margarine
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 1 tsp. vanilla
- 2 cups flour
- 2 cups flour
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. baking soda
- 1 cup sour cream
- 1 7-oz. jar marshmallow creme
- 1 tsp. lemon juice
- 1 1/2 tsp. cinnamon
- 2 cups peeled apple slices
- 1 cup chopped nuts

Beat margarine and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs, one at a time, mixing well after each addition. Blend in vanilla. Add combined flour, baking powder and baking soda alternately with sour cream, mixing well after each addition. Combine marshmallow creme, juice and cinnamon, mixing with electric mixer until well blended. Layer half of apples, nuts, marshmallow creme mixture and batter in well-greased 10-inch tube pan; repeat. Bake at 350 degrees, 1 hour. Immediately loosen cake from rim of pan, invert onto serving plate. 10 to 12 servings.

Variation Substitute greased 13 x 9-inch pan for tube pan. Spread half of batter on bottom of pan. Top with apples, nuts, marshmallow creme mixture and remaining batter. Bake at 350 degrees, 45 minutes. Cool, cut into squares.

BRANDIED APPLE BARS

- 1 1/2 cups flour
- 1 cup old fashioned or quick oats, uncooked
- 1/2 cup packed brown sugar
- 3/4 cup margarine
- 1/2 cup chopped nuts
- 1 8-oz. pkg. cream cheese, softened
- 1 7-oz. jar marshmallow creme
- 2 tbsps. brandy
- 3 cups apple slices

Combine flour, oats and sugar; cut in margarine until mixture resembles coarse crumbs. Stir in nuts. Reserve 1 cup crumb mixture; press remaining mixture onto bottom of greased 13 x 9-inch baking pan. Bake at 350 degrees, 15 minutes.

Combine cream cheese, marshmallow creme and brandy, mixing at medium speed on electric mixer until well blended. Stir in apples. Spoon over crust; sprinkle with reserved crumb mixture. Bake at 350 degrees, 25 minutes. Cut into bars. Serve warm or chilled. 1 1/2 dozen.

A family tradition

Meatloaf is still an American classic

Ah...meatloaf. If you're searching for classic American foods you need look no further than the all-time family meatloaf. This main dish is the staple of many growing families because of its versatility, economy and ease of preparation. A basic meatloaf may be served either hot or cold, covered with or without a sauce, shaped in the standard loaf or a ring and given a regional or ethnic flavor by changing the seasonings.

Start with a basic recipe such as Classic Meatloaf. This version, which serves six, uses one and a half pounds of ground beef. It also contains a liquid — tomato sauce and a "stretcher" — soft bread crumbs. Other stretcher ingredients that can be substituted include dry bread crumbs, cooked rice, ready-to-eat cereals, uncooked rolled oats or cracker crumbs. With drier ingredients the liquid may need to be increased by one-fourth cup. Any seasoning may be added to a meatloaf, but in this classic version we suggest onion, Worcestershire sauce, thyme, garlic salt and pepper. Then shape into a loaf and cover with a sauce of tomato sauce, brown sugar and mustard.

If you wish to give your meatloaf a southwestern of Latin flavor try two unique meatloaf variations — Four-Pepper Meatloaf and Picadillo-Style Meatloaf. For the four-pepper version simply add chopped green pepper and ground red and white pepper to the black pepper and other seasonings.

CLASSIC MEATLOAF
Preparation time: 15 minutes

- Cooking time: 1 hour
- 1 1/2 lbs. ground beef
 - 1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce, divided
 - 1 cup soft bread crumbs
 - 1 egg, slightly beaten
 - 1 small onion, finely chopped
 - 2 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
 - 1 tsp. dried thyme leaves
 - 1/2 tsp. garlic salt
 - 1/4 tsp. pepper
 - 1 tsp. brown sugar
 - 1 tsp. dry mustard

Reserve 1/4 cup tomato sauce. Combine ground beef, remaining tomato sauce, bread crumbs, egg, onion, Worcestershire sauce, thyme, garlic salt and pepper, mixing thoroughly. Shape beef mixture into an 8 x 4 1/4-inch loaf; place on rack on an open roasting pan. Combine brown sugar and mustard and blend with reserved tomato sauce. Spread over top of loaf. Bake in 350 degrees (moderate) oven 1 hour. 6 servings.

Variation for Four-Pepper Meatloaf: Add 1/2 cup finely chopped green pepper and 1/4 tsp. each ground red and white pepper to ground beef mixture. Prepare as above.

Variation for Picadillo-Style Meatloaf: Omit dried thyme leaves. Add 1/2 cup finely chopped green pepper, 1/4 cup raisins, 1 tsp. ground cumin and 1/2 tsp. dried oregano leaves to ground beef mixture. Prepare as above.

Hashing it out

Potato pancakes make any breakfast seem special. And here's a very special variation of potato pancakes. Tender potato strips are dressed up with sliced green onions, imitation bacon and Swiss cheese. The pancakes are easy to make because they start with hash brown potatoes so the real russet potatoes are already shredded and peeled for you. They're delicious in the morning and also a perfect accompaniment for evening meals.

DELUXE POTATO PANCAKES

- 1 pkg. (6 oz.) hash brown potatoes
- 4 cups hot water
- 1 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 cup shredded Swiss cheese (about 4 oz.)

- 1/4 cup sliced green onions (with tops)
- 1 tbsp. plus 1 tsp. imitation bacon
- 2 eggs, beaten
- 1 to 3 tbsps. vegetable oil

Cover potatoes with hot water in 2 1/2-quart bowl; stir in salt. Let stand uncovered 15 minutes; drain thoroughly. Mix potatoes, cheese, green onions, imitation bacon and eggs. Heat oil in 10-inch skillet. For each pancake, spoon about 1/2 cup potato mixture into skillet; press into patty, about 3 inches in diameter, with back of spoon. Cook over medium-high until brown, about 2 minutes; turn and cook other side until brown, about 2 minutes. 5 servings (10 pancakes).

Where's the lean?

Leanness has become as important to today's consumers as taste and price when they're buying beef. Consumers are willing to pay slightly higher prices per pound for more closely trimmed cuts.

fat, and cooking losses are now taken into account to provide a more precise consumption figure. Until recently the only available data for meat consumption were 'carcass disappearance' figures from the U.S. Department of Agriculture.

How much red meat do Americans really eat? The actual amount of red meat that Americans eat is less than previously thought. Bone, trimmable according to USDA per capita consumption of beef, based on carcass disappearance, was 106 pounds in 1984.

Making each day the best of times

By Julie Brown
staff writer

Patricia Materka has learned to put her time to good use. She wasn't always so adept at time management, however.

"I wanted to be mother of the year, wife of the year, the whole bit," Materka said of her younger days. "I now accept the fact that my kids really like Kraft macaroni and cheese. Why fight it?"

Materka is with the University of Michigan's Fitness Research Center. She's also the author of "Time In, Time Out, Time Enough, A Time Management Guide for Women" (Prentice-Hall Inc., 1982).

Time management was Materka's topic of discussion during a Thursday night meeting of the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women, held at the Plymouth Cultural Center. The approximately 50 women at the program learned about time management — and also shared a few laughs.

Materka decided to write the book to help her get organized. Her house wasn't at all ready for the photographer from "House Beautiful," nor were her children always well-scrubbed and well-behaved, she told those at the AAUW meeting.

Her mother was well-organized, but Materka didn't follow in her footsteps.

"I think these things skip generations."

IN LEARNING to manage time, it's important to consider what you want more time for, Materka said. It's also important to pinpoint what exactly wastes your time.

Some time wasters — phone calls, meetings or paperwork — come from outside sources. Others, however, are brought on by such internal sources as procrastination, personal disorganization or perfectionism.

"Do people here ever procrastinate?" Materka's question drew a quick "yes" response from her audience.

Values, such as personal growth, close relationships, health and fitness, or financial security, need to be examined periodically, she said.

"It's really useful to review these things now and then." Doing so will help people avoid the "gerbil in the wheel" syndrome of going and going but getting nowhere.

Setting goals — such as finishing a degree, seeing the pyramids, finishing a marathon or adopting triplets — is essential in learning to manage time wisely, Materka said.

"Put them in writing, give them deadlines, use verbs."

It's also useful to assign a priority value to different items, Materka said.

DIVIDING THE day's or week's activities into three categories of A (must be done today), B (nice to do), or C (can be put off) will help.

"A's usually sort themselves out pretty well," Materka said. It's also important to do some work on the B items and not to put off the C items forever.

"Good time management is realizing you can't do it all, at least not simultaneously."

An additional category of "can be delegated" can also help busy people, she said. Delegation is helpful both on the job and at home; even young children can learn to help out around the house.

"I think children are our most wasted resource. This is my new idea about having children — little servants," she said with a laugh.

Interruptions can turn the well-planned day into a time management disaster. There are, however, ways to cope.

In dealing with telephone callers, it's important to be businesslike and action-oriented, Materka said. Such an approach will tend to bring a caller to the point more quickly.

Returning telephone calls at one time, rather than scattering them throughout the day, is another good idea, she said. At home, a longer telephone cord can give people the opportunity to do dishes or other work around the house during phone calls.

THOSE WHO receive telephone calls at a bad time shouldn't hesitate to say so, Materka told those at the AAUW meeting.

Drop-in visitors can also be a source of aggravation. Body language, such as standing up when the drop-in visitor appears, can help make such interruptions short ones.

Once again, people shouldn't hesitate to tell a drop-in visitor if the visit is an inconvenient one, Materka said.

"What I really should be telling you is don't be a wimp. Be assertive."

Time management also depends on making the best possible use of individual energy levels throughout the day. Some hours are better and more productive ones than others.

"Those are your golden hours," Materka said. Those hours should be used for the most challenging tasks; telephone callers and drop-in visitors should be discouraged as much as is possible.

Less demanding tasks can be done

The race against the clock can seem overwhelming at times. It's possible, however, to learn to manage time wisely. Setting goals is an important part of time management, according to Patricia Materka of the University of Michigan's Fitness Research Center.

Ryan Slavin plays Harry Shorr, known as Bingo to his television audience, in the Plymouth Park Players production of "Harry and Sylvia."

Bingo's nose draws plenty of attention as Ryan Slavin (front) and the others take a break. Others involved in the "Harry and Sylvia" production are: (standing, left) Scott Kimmins, Karen

A feast for theater-goers

COMEDY WILL be combined with confectionery during the Friday performance of the Plymouth Park Players. The students will present the bittersweet comedy, "Harry and Sylvia," written by Michigan playwright Richard Strand. A variety of tasty desserts, prepared by Centennial Educational Park culinary arts students, will also be served that evening.

The production has allowed the young actors to learn about others at the school and what they're up to, according to Gloria Logan, theater arts director.

"And it gives the community the chance for something a little bit different."

The performance will be the first of the season for the Plymouth Park Players. "Harry and Sylvia" has four cast members.

"It's a lot easier to work with four people," Logan said. The students have been hard at work on the production in recent weeks.

"They simply worked very, very hard," she said.

THE PLAY tells the story of the off-stage life of TV clown Harry Shorr, known as Bingo to his television audience. Harry is having a rough day, including young hecklers, lost contact lenses and the alienation of his patient agent, Doris Goldberg.

Harry's ex-wife, Sylvia, is having trouble dealing with his clown mentality. The television studio's prop kid, however, stands by Harry, always finding joy in his antics.

The playwright, Richard Strand, plans to attend Friday's performance.

"He's an old friend of mine," Logan said. Although the play is not well-known, it is a wonderful one for actors and audiences alike, she said.

"It has a little of everything."

Tickets are available from any company member. They may be reserved by telephone (451-6600 Ext. 243 between 7 a.m. and 5 p.m. Monday-Friday). Price is $5 for dessert and the show; those tickets must be reserved by Thursday.

Tickets for the show only are $3. They will be available at the box office at Plymouth Salem High School after 6 p.m. Friday.

Dessert will be served 6:30-7:50 p.m. Showtime will be 8 p.m. in the auditorium of Plymouth Salem High School, 46181 Joy, Canton Township. Logan hopes that those at the performance are entertained.

"And touched, because the piece really should do both of those things. We had a good time doing it and we hope they have a good time watching it."

CAST MEMBERS also plan to perform "Harry and Sylvia" across Michigan at festivals and at the International Thespian Theatre Festival in Muncie, Ind.

The students won't get much of a chance to rest. Following the performance, auditions for the next show will be held Monday and Tuesday, Sept. 29-30. That show will be "The Night Is My Enemy," a Victorian murder mystery.

Putting time to good use during low-energy time periods. "You do not have to be in peak form to guide the vacuum cleaner across the rug," Materka said.

The speaker described the five great time management hang-ups: worry, guilt, indecision, perfectionism and procrastination.

BEING DECISIVE involves setting time limits, seeking advice for major decisions and also taking risks. Decisions should be viewed as experiments; mistakes can be learning experiences, Materka said.

In examining worry and guilt, it's helpful to look at what is causing the guilt.

"Having been brought up both a female and a Catholic, I really know about guilt," Materka said.

Creating action plans and considering what would be the worst that could possibly happen will help in dealing with guilt and worry.

Perfectionism is another time management bugaboo. It's not necessary to clean behind the refrigerator when having dinner guests — unless you plan on seating the guests there, Materka said.

The "salami technique" of dividing tasks into their smaller parts is a good one for procrastinators, she said.

"It's hard by the yard, but it's a cinch by the inch," Materka said of getting tasks done.

It's also important to give yourself rewards for jobs well done. "Give yourself some credit at the end of the day. I believe in chocolate chip cookies, anything like that."

Rocks run wild, 42-6

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

football

Tom Moshimer, like any football coach, is not too patient when it comes to winning. That's how team's are measured, after all — by victories. And the Plymouth Salem coach has no tolerance for losses.

Moshimer had to grit his teeth and wait this season. He had to endure a lopsided loss at Trenton, followed a week later by a heart-breaking one-point defeat against Livonia Churchill.

Fortunately — for both Moshimer and the Salem team — the wait went no further. Actually, it lasted barely longer than two games, because it took the Rocks just a few minutes to get on track in their third game.

They jumped all over visiting Walled Lake Central Friday, scoring three touchdowns in the opening seven minutes. The final on the scoreboard read 42-6, Salem; it could have been much worse.

"We've been getting better," said Moshimer. "We looked like the Salem team of old out there."

THAT MAY be overstating the case slightly. Those weren't exactly the ghosts of Rich Hewlett, Tim Dillon and Scott Jurek out there. But they sure looked good.

Nine Rocks lugged the ball a total of 49 times, gaining 300 yards rushing out of Moshimer's passion, the wishbone offense. That made passing a formality — which is fortunate, since Salem completed zero-of-six.

Central, which was blanked 27-0 by Canton a week earlier, was deflated after the first snap from center. Bowling-ball fullback Leonard Bowe — 5-foot-5 and 205 pounds — rolled 34 yards on the game's initial play.

From Central's 25, Jerry Sumner carried twice for 13 yards, and six plays later quarterback Steve Holt sneaked the final yard for the touchdown. Brian Storm hooked the extra-point placement — his only miss of the night — so Salem led only 6-0.

That changed in just over one minute. The Vikings fumbled the kickoff, Greg Martin recovered at Central's 35, and in three plays Salem was in the end zone again. Brian Neuhardt, who rushed for 67 yards on six carries, gained all 35 in two attempts, traveling the last 24 for the score.

Bowe bucked over for the two-point conversion and a 14-0 lead.

JOE JOUPPI got the Rocks' next TD on another Central turnover. Their three offensive plays netted the Vikings two yards, and on fourth down Tony Van Sicklen dropped back to punt. The snap from center eluded him, and when the ball stopped rolling Jouppi pounced on it — in the end zone.

So, 21-0. And still five minutes left in the first quarter.

Salem scored twice more before halftime. Bowe, playing middle guard on defense, grabbed a batted pass and rambled 23 yards for a score, and Garrett Bowie swept right end with an option pitch on a 22-yard TD run.

"They gave us a lot of different looks," said Moshimer of Central. "We're pretty simple. As the season goes on, we'll get better. Ours is an execution offense."

The Rocks certainly looked like executioners Friday. Offensive linemen Randy Handyside, Jay Blaylock, Kurt Urban, Jim Lamb and Lee Erickson carved up the Vikings. And Bowe, who led all rushers with 98 yards on nine carries, made them pay for every tackle — when they could bring him down.

THE ROCKS looked a little sloppy in the second half. Which might be expected; after all, they were up 35-0 at the intermission. They started the fourth quarter with a 4-yard touchdown burst by Doug Prater, which capped a 13-play, 56-yard drive.

But they were also victimized on a 25-yard touchdown pass from Viking quarterback John Chwallbog to Lang Levstek. That, however, was the only bright spot in a long, long evening for Central.

Chwallbog hit eight of 23 passes for 91 yards. He was intercepted four times — by Bowe, Sumner and twice by Jeff Armstrong. Five Viking runners combined to gain 40 yards on 14 carries.

Salem had three individuals with more than that: Bowe, Neuhardt and Bowe (eight carries, 65 yards).

But most important to Moshimer, it was a win. And it came in Salem's Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) Lakes Division opener.

"I'd liked to have won those other two games," the Rocks' coach said. "But this was the important game to us. We went into it 0-0. Our goal is to win the league championship, and I think we have a good chance."

Bold talk, coming from a coach of a 1-2 team. Then again, the way Salem played Friday...

BILL BRESLER/staff photographer

Tory Barger scored 18 points to lead Canton past Churchill Thursday night.

Mike Hall, Western speed past Canton

Final score: Mike Hall 14, Plymouth Canton 7.

That's no exaggeration. Walled Lake Western's explosive junior halfback-quarterback ran all over the Chiefs' normally stingy defense Friday night in a key Western Lakes Western Division football battle at Western.

Hall, playing both halfback and quarterback throughout the game, gained 132 of Western's 192 total yards and scored all 14 of the points.

He opened the scoring in the third quarter, rambling 45 yards for a TD. The point-after kick was blocked.

He later scored the game-winner on a 4-yard run. For good measure, he caught a pass for the two-point conversion.

CANTON'S LONE score came on a 6-yard run by Joel Goebel. Mike Gray kicked the extra point.

The Chiefs had difficulty moving the football against an aggressive Western defense. Five Canton running backs accumulated 110 yards rushing. Quarterback Steve Genyk threw for 59 more yards. But the Chiefs threatened the goal line just once.

Canton's defense did force two turnovers. Tony Boucher picked off a Western pass at the Canton 5-yard line to stop a potential score. The Chiefs also recovered a fumble in the first half.

The loss is Canton's first this season. Western is 1-3.

EDSEL FORD 25, REDFORD UNION 14: It's rare when a single player can make the difference between winning and losing a football game. Dearborn Edsel Ford's Jim May was that type of player Friday afternoon for the T-Birds.

May, the senior quarterback, completed seven passes for 136 yards, including two fourth-quarter TD passes that spelled doom for the visiting Panthers.

The first TD strike came on a fourth-and-5 play. May connected with Rick Sohm for a 19-yard touchdown.

Later, he hit Chris Bierman for a 33-yard score.

RU (1-2) had taken a 14-13 lead into the final quarter.

Number quarterback Dave Marshall and tailback Joe Bennett each scored on 4-yard runs. Scott Gilbert kicked both extra points.

But RU could muster little offense; just 61 yards rushing and 84 passing. Ford, meanwhile, gained 223 yards in total offense.

Edsel Ford is 2-1 on the season.

CHURCHILL 20, NORTHVILLE 0: If he could, Livonia Churchill coach Herb Osterland would bottle this victory, store it and bring it back out every week.

His team played a near-flawless football game at home Friday night.

The offense moved the ball well (261 total yards) and put up a season-high 20 points. And the defense was virtually impenetrable allowing 58 total yards.

"We struck a real nice balance tonight," Osterland said. "We shut them out so you have to praise the defense. But we drove the football tonight and we took it in. We drove it against Plymouth Salem (last week), too, but we left it. Tonight we drove it and took it in — and that had been our problem on offense."

Jim Nafiz was the big wheel on both ends of the ball for Churchill. He rushed 16 times for 128 yards and scored on runs of 1 and 6 yards. He ran 64 yards on his first carry. On defense he was in on 12 tackles, including eight first hits.

Dave Jensen and Doug Stark also played well on defense for the Chargers.

After a scoreless first quarter (Churchill missed a field goal try), the Chargers struck on a 15-yard pass play from John Tracy to Dave Lapsham. Nafiz missed the extra point kick.

Jim Jackson came on to kick the extra points following Nafiz's two scores.

"I feel better about this win than any of the others this season," Osterland said. His team is 2-0.

Resilient Chiefs rebound after Tuesday debacle

Rob Neu took full blame for his Plymouth Canton girls basketball team's 56-40 loss to Walled Lake Central Tuesday night. "I just didn't do a real good job getting us ready to play," he said that night.

If that was true, then give him full credit for his team's surprising 63-19 win against Livonia Churchill Thursday night; because the Chiefs were as good Thursday as they were bad on Tuesday.

"The intensity was real good, on both ends of the floor," said Neu. "We played a real patient game. I'm just really proud of this team's ability to come back. They just will not quit. Even against Central they came back. They were down by 21 points and got to within 12."

Also boosting Canton is the return of Heather Miller. The junior missed much of the first five games with an ankle injury. She and Vicky Ferko combined to control the inside against Churchill. Ferko scored 12 points and grabbed 11 rebounds. Miller scored 11 points and grabbed 12 rebounds.

"We were good on the glass," Neu said. "We rebounded well and we passed well. We were getting good shots and also we were getting a lot of second shots. I told the girls, 'If we can get good shots, and get second shots, that ought to do it. We should win some games.'"

TORY BARGER has emerged as an explosive offensive player for the Chiefs. She scored 18 points and triggered a 14-2 first-quarter outburst.

"Tory is starting to play her game. She's doing an outstanding job for us," said Neu.

Completing the picture, Karen Boluch succeeded in taking away Churchill's top scorer. Her aggressive defensive play limited Tracy Greenwald to three points.

"Yes, Karen Boluch did a great job. But, any time you check a player like Tracy Greenwald on three points you have to be getting excellent team defense. And we did tonight."

Canton led 24-7 at the half, then 45-11 after three quarters.

Gretchen Loyd led Churchill (2-3, 1-2 in the Western Lakes) with six points.

"I feel real good about this game," Neu said. "Coming back like this shows the type of character we have. Hopefully, we can take this win and build off of it."

The Chiefs are 3-3, 2-1 in the league.

SALEM 60, STEVENSON 21: Amazing. That's the only way to describe Plymouth Salem's defensive performance Thursday.

After taking a close 14-10 first-quarter lead at Livonia Stevenson, the Rocks shutout the Spartans in the second and third quarters; in girls basketball

that span Salem ran off 40 unanswered points.

"Salem was shooting the lights out and our girls just quit moving," said Stevenson coach Chuck Hebestreit. "We got fatigued."

Said Salem coach Fred Thomann: "We made a commitment to with these kids to go after them. But we played it straight up, no trapping. They just couldn't get any shots."

Dana Head led Salem with 23 points. Jessica Handley added 14. Keri Molliside tossed in eight.

Sue Zatorski paced Stevenson (1-4) with eight points.

Salem is now 2-1 overall, 2-0 on the season.

W.L. WESTERN 62, FRANKLIN 40: On Thursday, Walled Lake Western (1-4) earned its first win of the season at the expense of visiting Livonia Franklin (2-2).

The Warriors dominated the inside play as the Hall sisters, Diane and Michelle, combined for 31 points.

Marie Vancilovic, a senior guard, notched 14 for the Patriots. Senior forward Gayle Chesedie added nine.

JOHN GLENN 67, N. FARMINGTON 33: The unbeaten Rockets (5-0) continued to orbit in Western Lakes play Thursday, shooting down the host Raiders.

Five Westland John Glenn players scored in double figures — Melissa Smiley (14), Beth Wilson (12), Theresa Ternas (11), Stacy Graham (11) and Jenny Olson (10).

Freshman Jenny Sanford tallied 10 for North, which slipped to 1-4 overall.

LADYWOOD 43, EISENHOWER 34: Defenses played a key role in Livonia Ladywood's non-league win Thursday at Ulen Eisenhower.

The defending state Class B champions held the host Eagles to four points in the final quarter, while scoring 11 themselves.

Ladywood junior center Katin McNulty scored 17 to lead all scorers. Teammate Mandy Chandler added 10.

Lisa Bude tallied 10 for Eisenhower, which slipped to 1-3 overall.

ST. ALPHONSUS 48, ST. AGATHA 32: The Aggies, who trailed 29-18 at the half, were doomed early in the third quarter Thursday as top scorer Maryann Kiek fouled out with 14 points.

That made things easy for visiting Dearborn St. Alphonsus, which received a game-high 18 points from Annie Greenko.

The loss drops Agatha to 0-3.

Hawks best Canton, 4-1 Rocks blast Falcons

It's been a turnaround soccer season for both Farmington Harrison and Plymouth Canton this season. That is good news for the Hawks, bad news for Canton.

The Hawks, long-time doormats of the powerful Western Lakes conference, dusted the Chiefs 4-1 Wednesday.

The Chiefs, generally a competitive force in the league, are off to a 1-4-2 start this season.

Canton's Pat Frederick scored the first goal Wednesday and Harrison took over from there.

"We more or less dominated the game," said Harrison's first-year coach Glen Breuhan. "Our passing was very good and our midfielders played exceptionally well. Mike Happpold and Eric Wise were outstanding. We were beating them to the ball.

Wise tied the game with a goal in the first half. Ed Dzyngel scored to give Harrison a 2-1 lead at the half. Happpold and Craig Bailey added goals in the second half to secure the win.

The win ups Harrison's record to 3-2-2.

SALEM 4, FARMINGTON 1: Plymouth Salem had everything working Wednesday.

Ted Hanosh scored a pair of goals and added an assist. Mike Zaretti scored a goal and notched two assists. Randy Balconi contributed a goal and Dennis Dameron an assist.

Salem outshot Farmington 20-10. Darin Magera scored the lone goal for Farmington which is suffering through a 1-5-1 season. The victory improves Salem's mark to 4-2-1.

STEVENSON 1, N. FARMINGTON 0: It's funny how opposing coaches' view things. Take this Western Lakes match Wednesday. After the game, Stevenson coach Pete Scerri said: "We dominated the game, we just couldn't score."

And this from North coach Cathy Cole: "Oh, we should have won the game. We had so many chances to score. Give credit to their goalie. He made some outstanding saves."

Cole's statistics show that North outshot Stevenson 19-16.

But the difference in the game was Ray Barnas' breakaway goal with 15 minutes left in the match. Barnas got free when a North sweeper slipped and fell.

North's Monty Najjar, Zach Biem and Tim McMinn each had outstanding scoring chances thwarted by Spartan goalie Jeff Bencik.

The loss was North's first of the season. The team is 5-1-1. Stevenson is 6-0-2.

Pat Frederick (striped shirt) scored the lone goal for Canton Wednesday against Harrison.

Granger buoys Salem

Mike Granger has been on fire. The Plymouth Salem senior led his team to a pair of Western Lakes golf match victories last week. He fired a 39 at Brae Burn Wednesday to help the Rocks defeat Farmington 214-216. He followed that with a 38 at Fellows Creek Friday as Salem knocked off Westland John Glenn 212-221.

Against Farmington, Dan Hutko shot 44, Chris Braidwood and Mike Pillely 43 and Doug Soho 45. Against John Glenn, Braidwood shot 42, Soho 43, Matt Braun 44 and Pillely 45. The victories improve Salem's record to 6-1. They currently share the Western Lakes Division lead with North Farmington. North (6-1) lost a tough match to Farmington on Friday, 198-210. Farmington is 6-2.

Schoolcraft lady kickers put boot to Kalamazoo

When the season started, Schoolcraft College womens soccer coach Ed Dudek was concerned over the Lady Ocelots' early-season schedule, combined with their shortage of players.

That crisis is now over. Doreen Dudek, who had to sit out four games by NJCAA decree (Dudek played four games last year before getting hurt and missing the rest of the season), and Lisa Griffin, who just returned from Ireland, are back with the team.

So how did SC perform in their absence?

"This is the best start we've ever had," said the Lady Ocelot coach after his team blanked Kalamazoo College 2-0 Thursday at SC, keeping its record perfect at 4-0.

"What's really helped us is having nine players back (from last year's team). The defense is pretty much the same. I give them a lot of credit."

HE SHOULD. The Lady Ocelot defense allowed the Hornets just "four real scoring chances the entire game." Doreen Beagle was in goal for the shutout, and she got plenty of help from defenders Sheri Wolfe, Shannon Bowler, Elayna Alabakoff and Colleen McQueen.

The offense is hardly suffering either, as long as Denise Piwko is on target, and she has been all season. Piwko scored both SC goals, one in each half, raising her season-total to eight. Her first came on a breakaway, triggered by a Jane Moylan pass; her second followed Elizabeth Peters' centering pass.

Piwko's scoring will be important, particularly with Amy Weber's status uncertain, at best. Weber, the Livonia Churchill graduate whose two goals ignited SC's 3-2 win over Siena Heights, will remain a part-time player at best. Weber is working full-time, making her availability questionable.

Rioux makes comeback

By C.J. Riak

college sports

It's been a long time between headlines for Jennifer Rioux.

And that's unusual, because the Livonia Ladywood graduate was the best distance runner in the state during her prep career and was the national junior 1,500-meter champion.

Jennifer Rioux, former All-Area star, is regaining her winning form at Wake Forest.

Rioux took those credentials to University of Michigan where, as a freshman, she earned All-America status in track. When her coach, Francie Goodridge, decided to move to Wake Forest, Rioux transferred with her.

The move seemed to be a good one, at least initially. Rioux could not complete her first year at Wake Forest because of NCAA restrictions regarding transfers, but she ran as an independent.

As one might expect, Rioux was more than prepared for 1985. That's when disaster struck.

Or perhaps just near disaster. Only the future can decide which.

Rioux suffered a stress fracture in her left leg during the 1985 track season. Her ability had just begun to resurface; she had clocked a 9:14 in the 3,000 meters at the TAC senior meet, placing 10th.

BUT THE INJURY set in motion a series of setbacks. By last fall, tendons in both of Rioux's heels were inflamed from overuse.

"The problem was coming off the previous injury too fast," she said. "You could say it was very tough on me mentally. I didn't like being injured and out of shape."

Rioux continued to run last fall in spite of the pain, but her performance was lackluster. She placed a poor (for her) 10th in the Atlantic Coast Conference championships, which earned her all-conference honors but very little satisfaction.

Rioux finally stopped training after the NCAA District III meet in early November. She didn't run for nearly three months, waiting for her injuries to heal.

Last weekend, Rioux made her return to cross country, and it was a success. She placed first in the nine-team Wake Forest Invitational, finishing the 5,000-meter course in 18:07.3, as the Deacons swept the top four spots and won easily.

"It really was (satisfying) because I did exactly what the coach wanted," she said. "She dictated what she wanted me to do. The plan was for me to lead all the way, to slow up if I had to or speed up. I feel very confident, I had a lot left."

BUILDING RIOUX'S confidence was a major goal in the race. Despite her previous accomplishments and proven ability, she was coming off an injury-plagued, poor 1985 campaign.

"Right now, I'm trying to regain my self-esteem. It really took a no-sedative. The reason it hit me so hard was because I had such a good (track) year (in 1985)."

Last weekend's performance was uplifting, but Rioux admits she isn't all the way back. One heel has healed, but the other still causes her problems, limiting her workouts. Instead of alternating heavy (three miles in the morning, 10 in the afternoon) with light (three miles in the morning, five in the afternoon, or swimming) workouts, she runs one heavy workout followed by two days of lighter ones.

"I think, for me, I can get ready with two heavy workouts a week," she estimated. "I think by November I can be ready and be competitive with anyone in the district."

If that sounds cocky, it's exactly what Rioux wants. She has just one more year of eligibility after this, and she plans on making the most of it.

"I have to be cocky and sure of myself. That's when I'm at my best. That's how I was in high school."

"I really want to go to nationals this year. I plan on going to nationals. And I want to be in the top five in the TACs."

Don't misunderstand. Rioux has team goals, first and foremost. But, along with Karen Dunn, an All-American last year for Wake Forest, Rioux is the Deacons' top runner. Her personal triumphs will weigh heavily on the team's success.

Skin's on view in 'Hardbodies 2'

Only three other people were in the theater the night I saw "Hardbodies 2" (R) — and for good reason, it's a pretty dumb skin flick and not very entertaining either.

When the definitive work is written about making movies, "Hardbodies 2" will not be featured prominently, or at all, for every element of the film — plot, characterization, acting, directing and the making of the film-within-the film — are equally weak and simple-minded.

Mark Griffiths and Curtis Scott Wilmot — the same team who wrote the box-office success, "Hardbodies 1" — deliver another adolescent fantasy that is boring, slow-moving and has all the continuity of home movies. Griffiths also directed both "Hardbodies," and Wilmot plays a supporting lead in Number 2.

Unlike the low-budget "She's Got-a-Have It" reviewed last week, "Hardbodies 2" obviously cost quite a few bucks and reflects a poor understanding of how to attract and keep an audience's attention.

THE STORY IS reminiscent of childish dreams of glory, the fantasy of success for children in the adult world. Whether as children or adults, we've all day-dreamed ourselves to the pinnacle of success or imagined ourselves achieving great heroics.

That has the potential for an entertaining and humorous movie, but in the case of "Hardbodies 2," the immaturity results in a boring skin flick — even, I am sure, for those who like skin.

Scott (Brad Zutaut) is flying to Greece with his friend and co-star, Rags (Sam Temeles), to make a movie about a gorgeous and wealthy Greek girl, Cleo (Fabiana Udenio). Cleo's father keeps her a virtual prisoner, I presume to avoid fortune hunters, although that is never clear.

Naturally, Scott falls in love with the Greek waitress, Cleo, who plays Cleo in the movie-within-the-movie. Her father (George Tzifos) keeps her isolated from the boys. As an additional complication, Scott's fiancée, Morgan (Brenda Bakke), a compulsive shopper, is along for the ride.

The potential for satiric comments on human foibles, the crazy mishaps of filmmaking and the all-around general foolishness of people finding their way in the world, are lost because Griffiths and Wilmot fail to deliver a comic punchline or cut to continuity with any semblance of intelligence.

Perhaps their greatest shortcoming is the murky distinctions they make between their film and the film-within-the-film. Both stories are so similar, the transitions so unclear and the acting so weak that there is no impact and what could have been good punchlines get lost in the cutting.

THE GRIFFITHS-Wilmot filmmaking technique may be summarized thusly: "When in doubt, cut to a crowd of barebreasted young ladies."

Most movies have something good to be said for them. In the case of "Hardbodies 2," all one can say is it has a lot of naked ladies, to the point of boredom.

Nonetheless, "Hardbodies 2" is playing around town and probably will until the end of the month, along with most of the others reviewed here recently. A host of new films open the beginning of October. In particular, watch for "Children of a Lesser God" with William Hurt. It's a magnificent film and will be reviewed next week.

the movies
Dan Greenberg

Something interesting to be said about one of last week's films, "Good to Go," is the fact that, no matter how corny and cliched, its viewpoint is that of the black community and its resolution carries a moral victory for black, inner-city folks. That's unusual in contemporary films.

THE DETROIT Film Theatre at the Detroit Institute of Arts features three films this coming weekend. The recent (1985) Brazilian film, "Quilombo," a colorful, historical spectacle about a utopian republic founded by slaves in 17th-century Brazil, will be shown at 7 and 9:30 p.m. Friday. Otto Preminger's 1959 "Anatomy of a Murder," filmed in the Upper Peninsula with James Stewart and an all-star cast, will be screened at 7 p.m. Saturday.

Of special interest, however, is the screening of Kurosawa's "Rashomon," 1950 Oscar winner as Best Foreign Film, at 7 p.m. Sunday. "Rashomon" is notable as the film that first focused Western eyes on Japanese filmmaking. This brilliant story of a samurai, his wife and a bandit is a psychological masterpiece investigating the nature of truth and human behavior.

While I would never say any one film is "the greatest," "Rashomon" certainly should be on everybody's Top 40 — well worth a trip to the DIA.
