Delay in Wilcox condos outlined

By Doug Funke staff writer

The Wilcox House condominiums in downtown Plymouth have been delayed in part by the developer's painstaking attention to detail and in part by a low number of pre-construction sales.

That's the word from attorney Angelo Plakas, a member and spokesman for Wilcox Development Associates.

"We're trying to be very cautious in the way we're proceeding, and we're trying to put the best deal together we can for the people involved. What we're trying to do is arrange our optimal situation on financing and that relates to pre-sales."

Eleven of the 46 units have been pre-sold but only four since June, said Jerome Delaney, manager of Weir, Manuel, Snyder and Ranke Inc. in Plymouth, who's marketing the project.

"I would guess, and I'm speculating, if we had 20 units reserved, perhaps 18, perhaps 21, I expect the project could be started very quickly."

Plakas declined to reveal the "magic" number.

THE SIX-STORY development is planned for a 3 1/2-acre site owned by Jack Wilcox overlooking Kellogg Park. The units are priced between $160,900 and $249,900.

The developers, William H. Ray, H. James Boyes, Jack Moorhead, Wilcox and Plakas, received the go-ahead from the City Commission last January. Hoped-for groundbreaking dates in March and August passed with no action.

Plakas attributed the delays in July to voluminous paperwork.

The master deed, a legal document that spells out common areas and restrictions on the property, is the last major paper obstacle to be overcome, he said last week.

"We're just being cautious, and we've got a frame of mind we're going slowly so we don't make a mistake," Plakas said.

The developers still have the option to buy his property, Wilcox said.

"My motivation is not entirely money. If it were, I would have gone down another path and exited much more quickly with perhaps a more handsome profit. My concern is my community. I've lived here almost 70 years," Wilcox said.

THE DEVELOPMENT generated some controversy when going through the city's approval process. Objections were raised about its

No tax hike sought in township budget

By Doug Funke staff writer

Most Plymouth Township property owners would pay slightly more for essentially the same municipal services next year if the Township Board approves a budget recommended by Supervisor Maurice Breen.

Revenue figures in Breen's spending plan assume a tax rate for general operations of $4 per $1,000 of state equalized valuation (half of market value) — the same as this year.

However, residential property assessments rose about 5 percent for the great majority of homeowners last spring. Tax rates are applied to assessments to determine tax due.

Breen's general fund budget projects revenues and expenses of $4.1 million.

Major anticipated revenue sources are:

- Local property taxes — $1.5 million.
- State revenue sharing — $1.2 million.
- Building permits and inspection fees — $295,000.
- District court reimbursements — $250,000.
- Trash collection fees — $240,000.
- Golf course lease — $150,000.
- Interest income — $100,000.

- SALARIES and equipment for police and fire services account for 39 percent of all anticipated expenditures. Those expenses, excluding fringe benefits, are estimated at $798,000 for each department.
- Projected cost to run all other municipal departments except planning/building is $1.6 million. That figure, however, includes $534,000 for fringe benefits for all 60 township employees.
- Other major expenditures include $315,000 for trash collection and $244,000 for the planning/building department.
- Only two new positions are included in the budget — one clerk each in the planning/building and police departments.
- A public hearing on the tax rate and the budget is scheduled for tomorrow's (Tuesday) township board meeting. The session gets under way at 7:30 p.m. Both could be adopted immediately after the hearing.

The budget year begins Jan. 1. A copy of the proposed budget is available for public inspection 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the clerk's office at township hall, 42350 Ann Arbor Road.

"WE THINK that the services are very good," Breen said. "What I look for in services from my government, number one, is when I want a police officer, he'll get there in a short time. The same thing with emergency medical."

"We'll get the trash hauled for them with a stabilized cost at least for '87 again."

"We'll continue to maintain ambience of the township. We'll continue to enforce ordinances and staff building and zoning . . . to maintain property values and aesthetics we've come to expect in the area," Breen said.

The township's tax levy to retire debt for construction of the local water and sewer system — now $1.37 per $1,000 of SEV — will drop to $1.20 per $1,000 due to declining interest rates.

The driver of this truck, a Livonia man, wasn't injured when the vehicle flipped on Five Mile.

Teens hurt in collision

Three young people were injured last Thursday night when the car in which they were passengers was struck in the intersection of Five Mile and Sheldon in Plymouth Township.

Heather Hobart, 15, of Canton and Warren Bruen, 15, of Northville were in stable condition Friday at St. Mary Hospital, Livonia, a hospital spokeswoman said.

Jennifer LeAnnais, 15, of Northville was treated and released the night of the collision.

The driver, James Carney, 22, of Northville wasn't seriously injured.

Carney failed to yield to oncoming traffic while making a left turn from southbound Sheldon to eastbound Five Mile, police said.

The driver of the vehicle that collided broadside with Carney's car, a 31-year-old South Lyon man, wasn't seriously injured.

Everyone involved in the crash was wearing a seat belt.

A Livonia man escaped injury in an unrelated incident last Thursday when he lost control of his pickup truck and rolled over while westbound on Five Mile near Ridge, police reported.

The man said a large truck eastbound on Five Mile created a draft when passing him after which he overcompensated, lost control, then flipped, police reported. The Livonia man was ticketed for careless driving.

Motor mall to serve area car buyers

By Diane Gale staff writer

A new concept in car buying is coming to Canton.

Four different import and domestic car makes at one site — Canton Motor Mall — will be owned and operated by a single dealer on a 14.5-acre site on the north side of Ford Road east of Lilley.

"It puts the car-buying decision in one location for the consumer, like a shopping mall," said Canton Motor Mall developer Tom Bohlander, a Plymouth Township resident and principal owner of Suncare Dealer Groups.

The project will cost $10-$12 million for the land and building, Bohlander said. The completed project is expected to be worth $15 million, and will create between 200 and 250 jobs.

The motor mall — a popular car-selling approach on the west coast — is the first of its type in the area. At Troy Motor Mall the dealerships are individually owned.

In 1981 Bohlander opened his first dealership, Sunshine Honda, at the site of the former AMC agency in Plymouth. He also has two dealerships in Battle Creek, one in Middleburg Heights, Ohio, and another planned for Farmington Hills.

BOHLANDER, 40, declined to comment on whether he would close his Plymouth site when the motor mall is built.

Canton was the obvious choice for the idea Bohlander has worked on for more than three years because the township has more than 60,000 residents and does not have a new car dealership.

"But there's going to be one now," he said. "There's a tremendous opportunity in Canton, and I'm glad to be working on it. It will attract a lot of people to Canton, to Ford Road and to shopping in the area."

Bohlander said he couldn't identify the dealerships that would be at the mall because he hasn't received written commitments. Two dealerships will be built in 1987 and another two in 1988, he said. Construction is expected to begin in spring 1987.

THESE WILL be a common administration building, body shop, leasing and preparation center for new car delivery. But each franchise will have separate sales, parts and service divisions.

Efficiency in operation is achieved, Bohlander said, with combined management, advertising and marketing.

"Mega dealers are very popular in the market. The cost of getting into a business and operations is very tough today. It takes a lot of resources to get in. Mega dealers can do things that individuals can't."

Placing one newspaper ad for Canton Motor Mall is cheaper than placing individual ads for each dealership, Bohlander noted.

Signing Language of deaf

WHEN IT comes to learning about sign language, Frank Vendetti's students do more than just go through the motions. Vendetti teaches two eight-week classes in sign language, offered through the Redford Union Schools and South Redford Schools adult and community education program. The classes meet for three hours one night a week.

"My parents were deaf," said Vendetti, a Plymouth resident. "(Sign language) was my first language. So I'm bilingual."

Vendetti's courses started last month. The Monday night sessions, which are beginning classes, emphasize conversational signing, and show American Sign Language idioms.

"(Letter) spelling is just part of it," Vendetti said. The Thursday night sessions continue what was learned previously, stressing increased vocabulary and skills.

"There are various reasons" why people take a sign language class, Vendetti said. Among these is a desire to learn about the deaf culture.

"Some maybe have a relative who is deaf, or work with deaf people," Vendetti said.

Vendetti works with 20 deaf people in his job as interpreter with the deaf unit at a psychiatric hospital.

Frank Vendetti's class is quiet but active. Some take the class because they are deaf, others want to communicate with a deaf person.

height, the appropriateness of such a project so near the town square, and offering prices of the units.

Delaney maintained that the units aren't overpriced and that not a single inquirer has objected to pre-construction prices.

"The most difficult product to sell is condos (before they're built) because you have no physical product to show customers," he said. "It's a very special buyer."

Six to 10 people will ask specifically about the development in a given week, Delaney said.

"It's a matter of time. We feel it can happen and will happen. Of course, I'd like it to all happen at once. I think the momentum has been increasing."

FINANCIAL institutions generally won't offer their best lending deal for midrise condominium developments and shopping centers until a certain amount of space is pre-sold or pre-leased, Delaney said.

The Wilcox Development Associates are pioneers in the sense that no other midrise condominium building has been constructed in the area, he added. "The next one will be easier."

Plakas believes that the condos eventually will rise. "I don't want to be in the business of making projections. We have a system set up... as we've been creeping toward our goal. We're directing a lot of time to it, and I'm not in the business of wasting time."

Magistrate Kavanagh seeks higher court office

By Teri Banas
staff writer

This is the fourth in a series of profiles on the candidates for Wayne County Circuit Court. County residents will select three candidates out of a six-person field in the Nov. 4 general election.

Livonia's 28-year-old magistrate Sean Kavanagh takes the offensive when he's asked about his candidacy for the Wayne County Circuit bench.

"I would like people to know the whole story," he said from his basement office of the 16th District Court. "I didn't just get out of law school. I've had a hell of a lot of experience. A lot of lawyers can practice law for 40 years and still don't know anything about criminal law."

Kavanagh, who works as an attorney in addition to his part-time court job, has become a savvy campaigner in the last few months. He said he can take the knocks and questions about age and qualifications and makes no apologies for it.

And curiously, he said, "the old-timers haven't given me any trouble at all about my age, it's people my own age who are very suspect."

"Just because I'm running for office and have a politically popular name doesn't mean I'm not qualified."

AGE, AFTERALL, is relative and Kavanagh points to Richard Kaufman, presiding judge of Wayne County Circuit Court, as an example of a "great judge" who was in his late 20s when he was first elected to the bench.

Qualifications and age have become issues in the Wayne County Circuit races where "politically popular names" often do prevail amidst voter apathy.

Kavanagh is related to former state Supreme Court Justice Thomas Kavanagh but the elder Kavanagh is now out of politics and has made no contacts on behalf of his second cousin in this race.

Kavanagh passed the bar Nov. 14, 1983. Three days later he went to work for the Livonia court.

One of 10 children, he attended the Detroit College of Law and previously worked as a court officer in Livonia and as a construction worker. He a judge in Detroit's 34th District Court, David Szymanski, a Harper Woods attorney, and James Rashid, a Dearborn lawyer.

Also on the November ballot are Gregory Stempien and Kathleen Macdonald.

Kavanagh is endorsed by the Livonia Police Officers Association, the Livonia Lieutenants, Corporals and Sergeants Association and the Women Lawyers Association of Michigan.

The Detroit Bar Association rated him not qualified, however, Civic Searchlight ranked him as qualified.

While working part-time in the local Livonia court, Kavanagh has an active caseload of some 40 cases in the Wayne County Circuit Court. He has never taken one to trial, though, having settled all before a trial date. Much of his Wayne County caseload involves divorces. He also handles real estate, probate work and corporate matters. He says he practices some criminal law, mostly DUI (Driving Under the Influence of Liquor) at the district court level.

IN HIS THREE years as an attorney, he has handled five cases in the state Court of Appeals.

Kavanagh said he decided to seek a judgeship this year because of the opportunity (three spots opened this year) and chance to build on his experiences as a magistrate.

On the operation of the circuit court, Kavanagh finds fault with the merger between Detroit's Recorders Court and the circuit court. When plans are completed, Detroit residents will elect judges to Recorder's Court though the same judges will hear out-county cases, too. He said

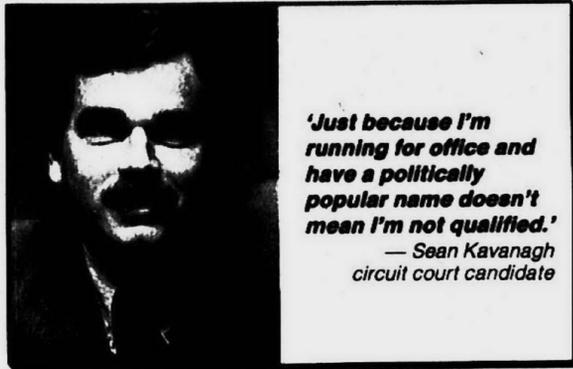

"this is not indicative of our representative system of justice."

He said the court's operations would be smoothed out if "tighter controls" were put on the volume of cases filed. He said the system is clogged up when questionable cases are allowed to be heard here. "The reasons they file here are because of the generous juries," he said.

Kavanagh also supports a separate court for divorce cases to help speed up the process. He said judges "proficient" in such matters would help.

He dislikes extending the appointment of judges to courts like the circuit courts, saying "partisan" politics could harm a judge's impartiality.

However, he would support appointment through a panel, possibly made up of representatives from the Michigan Bar Association and citizens.

Health care costs are aired

Solutions to funding public medical care for indigent persons will be discussed at a 10 a.m. hearing Thursday, Oct. 16, in the City-County Building.

The forum is sponsored by a planning committee of the Wayne County Citizens Task Force on Health Care Delivery. The task force has analyzed medical needs for two years and is attempting to change public funding of this medical service through new state legislation.

A second forum will take place at 10 a.m. Thursday, Oct. 23, at the Westland Medical Center.

The issue of indigent health care has been described as a "crisis."

Recently, the president of the Wayne County Medical Society, Dr. Richard Horsch of Livonia, said, "We are in the midst of an indigent health care crisis that is an absolute disgrace to the world's richest nation."

Speaking at another public forum in Detroit, Horsch said Detroit's mortality rate is five times that of Livonia. In some sections of the city, there is just one doctor for 500 residents.

He said the difference in mortality rates is because the poor lack access to health care delivery systems.

"THEIR TRADITIONAL entry into the system is the hospital emergency room, after a treatable case of high blood pressure has progressed to a stroke or a small breast lump into cancer," Horsch said.

The cost to Wayne County for providing health care for the indigent runs about $38 million a year, said Vernice Davis-Anthony, the county's director of health and community services. Up to 90 percent of the patients treated in the county-sponsored system are treated in emergency rooms. Eighty percent receive no out-patient care, she added.

The nine-member task force is chaired by Dr. Robert C. Orr., a clinical instructor at Wayne State University's Medical School.

Plymouth recalled in Root's autobiography

"Mother rented a light-housekeeping room in the Wilcox mansion that fronted on Penniman Avenue and Kellogg Park. I played with the older Wilcox girls and their little brother, Jack. We played Red Light in Kellogg Park with neighboring kids. While playing this game in the Park one July evening there was a happening which aroused the whole town.

"A car screeched to a stop at the point of the Park where Penniman Avenue and Ann Arbor Street converged. Dark figures of men jumped out and worked fast at setting up something. There was a flare of a torch and the whole area was lit up by a towering flame of a burning cross. The car full of men roared away. I did not realize that I was living in the days when the Ku Klux Klan was part of the Roaring Twenties."

THAT INCIDENT is from "The past and present

Sam Hudson

House on Ann Street," written by a former Plymouth resident, Charles A. Root Jr.

About the time Root was watching the KKK do their act in Kellogg Park, I was having a similar experience high on a hill in Oneonta, N.Y. With other kids, I hid behind a stone wall and watched goggle-eyed as white-hooded men erected a huge wooden cross, lashed old automobile tires to it, drenched it with kerosene and set it aflame. The burning cross could be seen for miles in all directions.

At peak strength in the early 1920s, the KKK was reported to have 5 million members, but after a series of exposes the organization dwindled to a few thousand by 1930. But this is not about the KKK, it is about Root's book, an autobiography he published earlier this year.

Those who knew Root, or lived in Plymouth during the period he covers — 1911 through the 1960s — will find it of interest, as will others interested in people and how they have lived their lives.

One of four generations of Roots who attended Geer School, Root later went to school in Plymouth. Among his teachers and administrators, he mentions Nellie Bird, Edna Allen, Minnie Traut, Claude Dykhouse, Helen Wells and John Emens. He recreates his boyhood days, coasting down Beal's Hill in the winter, skinny-dipping in Scout's Hole in the Rouge River in the summer, and air-rifle fighting with other kids that must have made parents quiver, and cause Daisy to rev up its "boy training" programs.

ONE OF ROOT'S schoolmates was Ralph "Gobby" Lorenz who arrived in Plymouth from Austria when he was about 10.

Says Root: "The first year he was in our school, Ralph advanced from first grade to fifth in about three months." The book also has references to some of the Root's friends including George and Katherine Bowles, the Hartleys, the Hursleys, the Fehligs, the Bloxoms, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stevens and their son, Clarence, the Alwoods, and Helen Beavers.

Root earned a bachelor's degree at the University of Michigan in 1934. Among his early jobs, he worked for Roy Pursell whom he describes as "a good natured man and always willing to help young people to get a start toward economic independence. He was a rugged individual who hated any government interference . . . he was much in sympathy with Ford Motor Co. when the news came out about the Battle of the Overpass."

Pursell was opposed to the Social Security Act and organized meetings at the high school auditorium to protest against the program. He refused to pay the Social Security tax for his eight employees. Government agents descended on his place on Main Street and shut him down. Pursell tried to mobilize the Detroit media in his behalf but without much success. One day when Roy was away, his wife paid the $12 and Pursell was back in business.

Just what is a CEP?

Plymouth-Canton Community Schools has the only educational park in the state of Michigan.

The Centennial Educational Park (CEP) is a 305-acre site which is the home of two four-year comprehensive high schools — Plymouth Salem and Plymouth Canton high schools.

The buildings, which were completed in 1973, house more than 200 teachers, counselors and learning specialists with a student population of about 3,500 in grades 10-12.

Courses available to students, who can participate interchangeably at either of the two schools, range from auto mechanics through foreign languages to calculus, and cover all areas in between.

Athletic facilities at the CEP include swimming pools, gymnasiums and an 8,000-seat football stadium used jointly by both schools.

Regional group plans incinerator study

Poole, says soon room will run out for trash

By Teri Banas
staff writer

The Conference of Western Wayne County — an organization of government officials from 17 suburban Detroit communities — has agreed to study the possibility of building a multi-town trash-burner.

Chairman Maurice Breen, supervisor of Plymouth Township, said he would elicit staff support and member representation after an urgent presentation by Canton Township Supervisor James Poole last Friday.

"I'll put a committee together and move on it," Breen said.

Poole told a gathering of leaders meeting in Livonia City Hall that Canton Township, home to two regionally-used landfills, has grown tired, and angry, with becoming Wayne County's "dumping ground."

But critically important, he said, is the approaching dilemma caused by recent hikes in landfill dumping charges, suggesting the time is near to develop other alternatives to burying the area's garbage.

"IT IS AN emerging crisis," said Poole, urging efforts to begin now. "When you look at the lead time it takes (to set-up an incinerator authority) and getting the money, that's a tremendous obstacle."

Poole, a member of the Wayne County Solid Waste Site Implementation Committee, an approving body for refuse disposal programs, said that residents are largely unaware that area landfills are quickly filling up. Within five years, according to county estimates, landfill space will be exhausted in the area.

He said the costs for removing garbage are also expected to soar as remaining landfill operators take up a bigger share of the market.

"People don't like landfills but they like less garbage piling up in their garages," he said.

Citing an example of rising landfill charges that are passed back to communities, he said the monthly cost to a Canton household rose from $2.47 to $3.59 in just the last two months.

'People don't like landfills, but they like less garbage piling up in their garages.'
— James Poole
Canton supervisor

A REPRESENTATIVE from the incinerator industry, Nancy M. Fagge, told the group that burying trash in a landfill is still cheaper than incineration, though that may someday change, as Poole noted. Citing Macomb County estimates, she said the cost of using a landfill to dispose of trash is $22 a ton to $32.50 a ton for incineration.

Yet, she said incineration is a more permanent solution to trash disposal.

Fagge said she favors incineration because up to 80 percent of residential trash can be burned whereas landfill burial "is disposing of nothing. All you're doing is burying it."

"The key to the future, our society now knows, is that we have to destroy the garbage."

Fagge, who attended Friday's meeting at Poole's invitation, owns Recovered Waste Industries, Inc.,

which is building a 660-ton-a-day energy-generating incinerator in Macomb County. The trash burner, when on-line in 1988, will be privately-operated and able to service about one-third of the county, she said.

AS A FIRST step in the study, committee member Vincent Fordell, mayor of Garden City, invited members to tour the five-community incinerator located in Dearborn Heights. The Central Wayne County Sanitation Authority is the oldest in Wayne County, and was established in the 1960s by Dearborn Heights, Garden City, Westland, the city of Wayne and Inkster.

It is currently shut down until new EPA-required pollution controls are fitted. The improvements were made possible by a millage issue approved by voters districtwide last spring.

Livonia Mayor Edward McNamara suggested that member communities outside of that pact meet to discuss a different district. He said that Livonia, itself, had commissioned a similar study into incineration 15 years ago with an eye toward incorporating the city's local dump into a possible incinerator site.

To a question posed by Breen, McNamara, now the Democratic nominee for the job of Wayne County executive, said the county clearly "has an obligation" to also become involved in the planning. He did not suggest how at this point.

IN A RELATED issue, one of the major landfill operators in Canton Township, Wayne Disposal, is petitioning Canton for an expansion of its site there.

Wayne Disposal has an Oct. 20 date with the township's planning commission to go over the expansion plans, which are expected to be met with opposition from local leaders.

Poole said he opposes the expansion.

For Wayne County, there is a concentration of landfills in the southwest end of the county. Besides Canton, communities with landfills include Sumpter and Van Buren townships. The city of Riverview operates a municipal landfill for downriver communities. Just over the western Wayne County border is a major landfill in Washtenaw County, owned by Browning-Ferris Industries. This landfill is used by a number of Wayne County communities, principally Redford, Livonia and Northville.

The BFI site, located in Salem Township, has been approved for an expansion because the current 170-acre site has less than 15 months of capacity left.

College finalists named SC board vacancies will be filled by Oct. 22

By Teri Banas
staff writer

The 29 applicants seeking temporary appointments to the Schoolcraft College Board of Trustees has been narrowed down to five candidates.

Five people were selected last Wednesday night for consideration to the posts being vacated by trustees Paul Kadish and Sharron Sarris.

Replacements to those two seats will be named Wednesday, Oct. 22, said school officials.

THE FINALISTS include Nancy Kitzman of Garden City, Wendell Smith of Plymouth and three Northville residents.

Kitzman, a former public schoolteacher, works as a corporate training and education manager for Detroit-Macomb Hospital Corp. She is active in numerous Garden City civic groups. Her candidacy has received widespread support from local community leaders interested in representation on the multi-community college board.

Smith, who lives in Plymouth's Beacon Hills area, is the president of Michigan's Chatham Supermarkets and a minority stockholder in the company. He has extensive involvement in industry grocer groups, including service on the board of directors to the Manufacturers Grocers Association. Smith was active in the national and local Jaycee movement, serving as national president one year. He also served as a judge in the national Miss America pageant.

Jeanne Stempien, a Northville resident, works as an attorney in a Livonia-based law practice she shares with her husband, Gregory. She is a former schoolteacher. Before receiving a law degree from the Detroit College of Law, she attended Henry Ford Community College, the University of Michigan and Eastern Michigan University. In addition to the law degree, she has a masters' degree in education and anthropology.

Thomas Watkins Jr., also from Northville, is employed as the chief deputy director of the Michigan Department of Mental Health, overseeing six bureaus. A Blanchard Administration appointee, he served as the governor's deputy chief of staff at one time and as Blanchard's deputy campaign manager four years ago.

IN WAYNE COUNTY, he served as an elected commissioner to the Wayne County Charter Commission. Watkins has a master's degree in social work administration, and has worked as a child care worker and counselor.

Robert McMahon, a Northville resident, is manager of Community and Economic Development for SEMCOG (Southeast Michigan Council of Government). He has lectured to groups at Wayne State University and Madonna College on urban affairs, residential development and senior citizen housing. McMahon has served on the advisory council to Madonna's Gerontology Department and the Area Agency on Aging. Other affiliations include the Governor's Small Cities State Advisory Council, the Greater Detroit Chamber of Commerce and the Michigan Community Development Directors Association.

College trustees have scheduled public interviews of the five candidates for Tuesday, Oct. 21.

STRESS PRESENTING AS ARTHRITIS

You may have experienced bone pain which involved all your joints, even your jaws. The pain was constant and not relieved by rest, change of position, or heat. The pain was sharp, then aching, shifting from joint to joint, and would present itself in the muscles of the arms and legs, and at times between your shoulder blades.

Examination by a physician uncovered no joint swelling, loss of motion, or muscle weakness. Blood tests and x-rays results showed that: "nothing was wrong."

At this point you do not need to find a specialist who can make a diagnosis that another physician missed, or who will prescribe a medicine that his or her colleagues overlooked.

These bone, joint and muscle pains are the result of tension. Rather than trying to find medical opinions as to cause and cure, you are best advised to look into your own affairs. Is there a stress at work or in the home that could be the source of undue strain?

No combination of medicine, heat, or rest is likely to provide satisfactory relief from pain caused by tension. Rather, relief will result from your efforts to deal with the source of your concern.

Organ transplants could save more lives if ...

By Teri Benas
staff writer

Last year, 150 Michiganders died after making provisions that parts of their bodies would be used to help others live on.

They made possible 266 kidney transplant operations, 31 heart transplants, 26 liver transplants and 19 pancreas operations.

All helped extend the lives of people who, as recently as five years ago, could have faced early deaths.

THEIR "GIFTS of life" took courage and forethought, said Richard Pietroski, one of five Michigan coordinators for the state's Organ Procurement Agency.

Pietroski, this region's representative, said medical technology in surgical techniques and new anti-rejection drugs are increasing the success of organ transplant operations and stimulating a greater demand.

Nationally, he said, Michigan was the second most active state in organ donations, yet the demand is still great and growing, and exceeds availability.

"No, we didn't fill the need. We started in January 1985 with 440 patients and accomplished 266 transplants throughout the year.

"But by the end of the year, we had 560 patients waiting," said the Ann Arbor-based representative.

"Even though we have steadily progressed year to year in donations, the number of patients seeking transplants is increasing. It's a one-step-forward, two-steps-backward scenario."

BECAUSE OF advanced medical technology, physicians themselves are becoming more confident in referring their patients for transplant operations, he said.

"So, the need is there. Some patients are dying, waiting for an organ."

Technology aside, there are other practical concerns that cause patients to seek transplant operations

— they are becoming more affordable or "cost effective."

"For someone who needs to go on kidney hemodialysis, for example, the cost can run $35,000-$35,000 a year. A kidney transplant operation, meanwhile, runs between $35,000-$45,000," Pietroski said.

"It's the same for heart and liver. In this day and age, (treating a fatal illness) means it's very expensive to die, unfortunately."

MEDICAL THIRD-PARTY insurers are beginning to pay for transplant operations previously considered too costly and non-fundable.

Medicare, for instance, now covers the cost of a heart transplant. The large Blue Cross-Blue Shield insurance carrier, in the past six months, decided to fund such operations.

In Michigan, as in other states, you can make a planned decision to donate your body or organs through the Michigan Secretary of State's office. A sticker listing your personal choices can be obtained while renewing a driver's license.

The sticker is then placed on the back of your license, thereby assuring quick and easy notification of your intent in case of death.

Many, however, may not realize there are limitations.

STATE REQUIREMENTS limit donors to those who are up to 55 years of age and generally in good health. Excluded are those who have had disease in the particular organ they wish to donate.

Automatically excluded are those who have had cancer, any kind of communicable disease, a long history of high blood pressure, and diabetes that made them insulin-dependent.

Besides donating an organ or tissue, you can donate your entire body to science with the choice of the Michigan State University, University of Michigan or Wayne State University.

ON OCT. 10, a new federal law took effect, which proponents hope will increase the supply of medical donations while ensuring that one's choice is honored after death.

The National Organ Transplant Act, signed into law by President Reagan in 1984, resulted in a national review board recommendation to each state that medical officials be allowed to ask surviving family members if a surgical donation can be performed.

Essentially, the law gives medical personnel the ability to question relatives on the intent of a dead relative's wishes, besides serving as a "gentle reminder" of that.

Often, the issue of whether a person wanted to make a donation is overlooked when a family is distraught and grieving their loss, he said.

Special olympics games highlight school celebration

Special olympic games will highlight the 25th anniversary of the Wayne County Intermediate School District on Oct. 17 at Wayne Memorial High School, 3001 Fourth.

Wheelchair races, segmental rolling and frisbee throwing will be among the events planned for 350 students from Special Education Centers operated by the school system.

Opening ceremonies starting a 9 a.m. will include an olympic-style assignment of team colors, a marching band and a 500-balloon launch. There will be prizes for participants.

All events will take place at the high school track and field. In case of bad weather, events will be moved inside to the school gym. The public is invited.

Focus on Jobs

Michigan's First Lady Paula Blanchard and Joe Forbes, director of the Governor's Office for Job Training, listen as John May, an employee of the Gel Corp. in Livonia, describes a part that is used to build gear shifts. Blanchard and Forbes paid a visit to the Livonia business recently to address a class of Gel employees who are training on high technology machinery. The training was made possible by a grant from the Governor's Office for Job Training. Gel is a manufacturer of steering column components for the automotive industry. The firm has won distinguished achievement awards from GM and Ford.

Teen crashes more deadly

Teenage drivers are three times more likely to be involved in a traffic accident, compared to motorists aged 45-54. Young drivers' crashes tend to be more deadly.

Terry Buckles, president of the Michigan Association of Insurance Companies, said 15- to 24-year-old drivers also have greater involvement in fatal accidents than do all other age groups.

"This is the reason younger motorists pay higher premiums for car insurance," Buckles said. "They have more accidents and more costly accidents. The higher price is a reflection of higher insurance pay out."

A YOUNGER person who is the principal driver of a motor vehicle typically pays 40 to 200 percent more for coverage than older drivers, according to the MAIC report.

This surcharge is reduced as the driver grows older and is generally discontinued by insurance companies at or before age 25.

According to a report from MAIC, nearly 20 percent of drivers aged 15 to 19 are involved in a traffic accident each year. By comparison, only 7 percent of 45-54 group are involved in a roadway crash.

Drivers aged 20 to 24 have a lower accident rate than do teenagers — 15 percent annually — but are still more crash-prone than older motorists. The rate of accident involvement declines gradually with age.

Premium surcharges are generally much lower for young drivers who use the family car only on an occasional basis. These typically range from 20 percent for 24-year-olds to 90 percent for 16-year-olds, but vary from one insurance company to another.

THE INSURANCE spokesman offered the following suggestions for reducing or at least controlling the cost of auto insurance:

- Drive less — rates are determined by the amount and type of driving you do.

- Select your car carefully — rates are based on its cost, reparability, and performance characteristics.

- Coordinate personal injury protection coverage if you have other accident and health insurance.

- Choose higher deductibles on collision and comprehensive coverage.

- Consider a more economical type of collision insurance, but make sure you understand when you're covered and when you're not.

- If you have an older car, consider dropping both collision and comprehensive coverage.

- Most traffic tickets and at-fault accidents will automatically increase your rates. Drive carefully.

- Use safety belts. Insurers are, or soon will be, offering rate discounts for drivers who buckle up.

MAIC is a non-profit public affairs organization which sponsors a number of consumer information and education programs, including driver safety presentations at Michigan high schools.

U-D to dedicate its campus mall

The University of Detroit will dedicate its new pedestrian mall during ceremonies on McNichols campus Wednesday and Thursday, Oct. 15-16.

U-D President Robert A. Mitchell reaffirmed the university's position that "this renovation signifies our commitment to the city and to excellence."

Wednesday's ceremonies, scheduled to begin at 5 p.m., will be attended by hundreds of civic, community and corporate leaders.

Earlier, at noon, faculty, students and staff will stage their own celebration with a ribbon-tying ceremony, symbolizing the joining of the two sides of the campus. A luncheon features giant submarine sandwiches.

THURSDAY evening, alumni and university donors will gather on the mall to see it blessed by the Most Rev. Moses B. Anderson, auxiliary bishop of the Detroit Archdiocese.

The renovation on the McNichols campus represents a first sign of the city's planned revitalization of Livernois Avenue announced in July 1985. It is expected to become a catalyst for reviving portions of the neighboring business sector.

Formerly a block of Florence Avenue, the 8.5-acre pedestrian mall is a park-like area. It unites the north and south sections of campus.

An expansive walkway winds through grass-covered mounds and a corridor of trees provides a relaxing atmosphere for students.

THE PEDESTRIAN mall is a portion of an $8.5 million campus renovation that also includes modernization of campus buildings, a state-of-the-art energy management system, a new lighting and security system, cosmetic and other structural repairs as well as the design and construction of the mall itself.

"We wanted to sustain and improve enrollment," said Mitchell. "Although campus modernization was an apparent need, we also wanted to strengthen community ties with a show of support from our alumni and the businesses which have benefitted from our graduates."

In addition to the McNichols campus improvements, approximately 1 percent of the $8.5 million renovation funds will be used to make needed improvements at the School of Dentistry, on the east side, and the university's downtown Renaissance campus, which houses the law school and evening business program.

The renovation program has been funded through the Partners in Progress Capital Campaign.

Business index dips, bank says

In August, the Michigan Business Activity Index slipped to 128, down 2 points from July's level of 130, Manufacturers Bank reported.

The reasons for the 2-point drop in August are lower car sales and bank transactions. But steel output exhibited a large gain.

An inadvertent failure to account for portions of the energy sector of the index led to a five-point upward restatement of June's index (from 123 to 128) and a six-point upward restatement of July's index (from 124 to 130).

The MBI is compiled monthly from 10 different measures of Michigan economic activity by the Economics Department of Manufacturers Bank, and is seasonally adjusted and corrected for inflation, and expressed on an index basis with a 1982 base of 100.

Thomas Hearns has some fun with Adel Abdo, general manager of the Plymouth Hilton, during a workout at the Hilton. Hearns is training in Plymouth for his upcoming fight with Doug DeWitt.

Hearns brings act to Plymouth Hilton

By Bill Parker
staff writer

Adel Abdo isn't a fighting man. In fact, the last time he remembers getting into a scuffle, he was just a boy on the streets of his home town in Jordan.

And now — approaching middle age with a respectable job and a bright future — Abdo, the general manager of the Plymouth Hilton, was being taunted by one of the hardest hitting, most respected champions in boxing.

"I want you," said the champ. "I've never wanted a man as bad as I want you."

Abdo entered the ring and the battle erupted.

Leather flew with a fury as both fighters banged and bobbed and brawled about the ring until suddenly, out of nowhere, Hearns took a shot to the head and went down.

That's Hearns as in Thomas Hearns.

Hearns as in "Hit Man." Hearns as in World Boxing Council super welterweight champ and North American Boxing Federation middleweight champ.

THERE HE WAS lying on the canvas as Abdo jumped hysterically in the neutral corner.

Hearns was up at the count of six and the fight continued. Luckily for Abdo, it was all in fun. Hearns took a fall to excite the crowd and Abdo was just playing the part with his jumping around.

The Detroit Kronk boxing club opened a training camp at the Plymouth Hilton to give Hearns and stablemate Duane Thomas a semi-secluded site to prepare for an upcoming professional boxing card on Thursday at Cobo Arena.

This late afternoon sparring session, in which Hearns and Thomas traded blows for five rounds prior to the Hearns/Abdo bout, was nothing more than a promotional affair. A chance for Abdo to step into the ring with a boxing great.

"It was a privilege and an honor to me for them to let me go a few rounds with him. You don't get to do something like this every day," said Abdo, gasping for breath at the end of the three-round exhibition. "I've never been so tired in all my life."

ACTUALLY this is the second time the Kronk entourage has opened a training camp at the Plymouth Hilton. Plymouth is close enough so that the fighters may return to the Kronk gym in Detroit if they need to, but they still have the peace and quiet they need to prepare for the upcoming bouts.

"We set up a camp here in '82," said Kronk head trainer Emanuel Steward. "We're very familiar with the area and it serves a good purpose. It's close to home, but it still allows us to have enough solitude and peacefulness so that we're away from the distractions we'd have in the city. The people here have been extremely friendly. They're very, very nice."

"We like an area that's a little bit out of the way, and there isn't too much activity like shopping malls and fast-food franchises," said Steward. "The general atmosphere here is conducive to relaxation and concentration."

HEARNS IS also happy with the Plymouth camp and offered these thoughts. "It's been great for me here in Plymouth. The people have been very, very nice. I've really enjoyed being here and would have no problem coming to Plymouth and training for another fight."

The Thursday card features Hearns against Doug DeWitt, from Yonkers, N.Y., in the main event while Thomas squares off against Bobby McConvey from Dallas, Texas.

Thomas' bout is a tuneup for a Dec. 5 fight at Caesars Palace with John Mugabi. Mugabi took Hagler into the eighth round on March 10, before being knocked out by the undisputed middleweight champ.

"I'll probably go in as a huge underdog but that doesn't bother me," Hearns said. "It seems like I'm always the underdog but I'm confident with my ability."

"Mugabi relies on one big punch. I feel confident that I can knock him out, but I also feel confident that I can beat him in a decision. I can fight an intelligent fight. I'm a boxer/puncher and that's how I'll fight him."

THE HEARNS-DeWitt fight could stack up to be a slugfest with DeWitt coming in as a notorious brawler.

"I'm expecting a tough fight," said Hearns. "He's a brutal type fighter. He'll be brawling and trying to fight his way in. But we plan to have something for him when he starts those Joe Frazier moves. We plan to make him fight the left jab. Once we get him to start thinking about the left hand, then we'll have no problem."

As far as the Hagler/Leonard bout that promoters are still trying to come to terms on, Hearns doesn't have much to say.

"I haven't been paying any attention to it. Marvin Hagler ducked me. He signed a contract and reneged on it. Then he went out and wanted to sign a contract to fight Ray Leonard. I really don't have too much to say about it because I'm upset about it."

Hearns plans to move up to the light heavyweight division after the DeWitt fight and a little rest. If things go as planned he would like to make a name among the light heavies, then challenge Marvin Johnson for the WBC title. Hearns feels his ability to box and punch makes him well suited for the light heavyweight division.

"I think my style would be good for anyone in the light heavyweight division," said Hearns. "I can move well, I can box and I can also punch when I have to. When it comes down to it, I can do any of the three. When I see fit to get on my bike and move, I'll do it. But when I see an opportunity to get my opponent out early, then I'll do what I have to do to take him out. I think my style was made for light heavyweights."

With the favorable feelings the Kronk people have toward Plymouth, maybe they'll set up camp there for a Hearns/Johnson light heavyweight championship of the world fight.

Hawks zip Canton, 7-0

By Larry O'Connor
staff writer

Anyone searching for real estate in a quiet place could've tried the end zones Friday at Plymouth Canton.

The 10-yard areas on each end of the field were as desolate as the tundra in Alaska during Farmington Harrison's 7-0 win over Plymouth Canton in Western Lakes football action.

Even the Hawks' Mark Schmidt, a pioneer of sorts, wasn't disruptive as he tip-toed across the goal line in the third quarter for the game's only touchdown. The TD came on a 36-yard pass from quarterback Mark Murray.

Other than that, the respective offenses were orderly. There were a few missed field goal attempts and a few fine pass plays, but that was the extent of it.

The defenses had the game in control.

"Canton played super defense," said Harrison coach John Herrington.

"They're just a good defensive team," said Canton coach Bob Khoenle.

BOTH TEAMS were as adept at trading the ball back and forth as they were at trading compliments.

Except on one occasion, the Chiefs had to wait as the Hawks scored what proved to be the winning touchdown. The scoring drive covered 79 yards and took eight plays.

Rick Witte's 11-yard run and 17-yard jaunt by Rocky Varacalli put Harrison in good field position before the pass play from Murray to Schmidt.

"(Witte) ran a reverse. We caught them with an upback play. . . . And we hit a lucky pass," said Herrington on the scoring drive.

Harrison's offense looked sluggish until then. Murray was 1-of-11 passing and the Hawks rushing attack was stymied by Canton's defense.

The Chiefs (2-4) managed to steal the ball away from the Hawks on a twice early in Saturday's game, but it wasn't enough as North won 22-14.

Raider passes are Rocks' ruin

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

Everyone knew what to expect. Plymouth Salem's wishbone football team — grind it out inside with Leonard Bove and Jerry Sumner, pitch it outside with Garrett Bowie and Brian Neuhard.

North Farmington's another running team — work it inside with Scott Selzer, work it outside with Scott Selzer, and most importantly, get the ball to Scott Selzer.

Those were the expectations going into Saturday's game at North, anyway. But what you expect and what you get are often far apart. Instead of a Selzer runaway, guys like Scott Simon and Chad Henry emerged as key figures in a 22-14 Raider win.

Simon, the junior quarterback with experience totaling four games as a starter, tossed two long touchdowns and set up a third with another bomb to rescue North from a 14-3 second-quarter deficit.

"I know we threw the ball more than we have in the last three or four weeks," said North coach Jim O'Leary, whose Raiders improved to 5-1, 4-1 in the Western Lakes Activities Association's Lakes Division. "But it was what (Salem) was doing. We took what they gave us."

How often have you heard that? Any offense will happily take whatever a defense gives if it results in points. The problem is discovering where the defense is weak, then exploiting it.

North did. A 10-play, 53-yard Salem drive — capped by quarterback Steve Holt's 1-yard plunge — put the Rocks up 14-3 with 6:39 left in the first half.

THE RAIDERS bounced right back on North's ensuing possession. Simon fired a 45-yard strike to Ryan Meador for a touchdown. A two-point conversion try failed, leaving it 14-9.

Salem followed with three runs and a punt, and with 2:50 left North had the ball again at its own 31. After two penalties and a Selzer run, Simon whipped a short down-and-out pass to Chad Henry, who busted a tackle, turned upfield and raced 61 yards for the touchdown and a 15-14 North lead.

"We have excellent receivers," said O'Leary. "They have great hands. We just haven't had to throw it much. (Henry) doesn't have great speed, but the (Salem defender) came up and missed him."

SALEM HUNG tough. The Rocks, now 1-5, trailed 15-14 entering the third quarter, but they were driving. Five runs gained 31 yards and put the ball at the North 31. Then . . .

"It was a bad call," said Moshimer. "I made it. I take full responsibility for it. I thought they were playing us shaky on that side. But it was stupid anyway. I shouldn't have called it. I cost us a TD."

What Moshimer called was a pass, hoping to sneak one past a run-conscious defense. But Meador reacted sharply and picked off the pass at the North 5, ending the threat. Any momentum Salem had was gone.

North mounted a 10-play drive. Big plays were a third-down-and-11 draw by Selzer that gained 20, and a 49-yard bomb from Simon to Henry that gave the Raiders a first-and-goal at the Rock 8. Three Selzer runs later, North had a 22-14 lead.

BOTH TEAMS had more chances, but neither capitalized. Salem lost the ball twice more on fumbles — the Rocks lost three in the game — and Selzer dropped the snap on a punt in the final minute, giving Salem the ball at the Raider 23. But a penalty and a sack by Joe Sturtz, Scott Sinelli and Brian Schierloh on a halfback option pass ended the final Rock threat.

The Raiders scored first after a fumble gave them possession at the Salem 20. A personal foul penalty forced them to settle for Henry's 24-yard field goal.

Salem scored on its next two possessions. Bowie raced 68 yards with an option pitch for a TD and Holt followed with his scoring plunge.

Salem escapes Rockets' flurry

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Anybody who thought Plymouth Salem was going to breeze through its Western Lakes Conference girls basketball schedule was caught off-guard Thursday.

The state-ranked Rockets, ranked as high as No. 2 in statewide Class A polls, looked almost invincible for one quarter but ended up hanging on for dear life against visiting Westland John Glenn, scoring a narrow 47-45 victory.

For almost the first 10 minutes of play it appeared Glenn didn't belong in the same league, let alone the same gym. A rebound basket by Salem junior forward Dena Head, who led all scorers with 25 points, gave the Rockets their biggest lead of the night with 6:27 left in the half, 25-9.

But Glenn gradually chipped away, cutting the deficit to 11 after three quarters.

In the final period, the Rockets threw out a half-court press and it seemed to put the Rockets out of sync, who went scoreless until the 1:16 mark when Head converted a free throw to make it 43-41.

TWO FREE THROWS by Glenn center Stacy Graham with 1:27 left had narrowed the gap to one, but the Rockets couldn't score the equalizer as Head and Jessica Handley combined for four straight foul shots in the final 33 seconds to secure the victory.

"Glenn doesn't come in with a 9-1 record because it's a fluke," said Salem coach Fred Thomann, whose team is 11-1 overall. "They have all the ingredients to be successful. They have size, speed and they handled the ball pretty well."

"I think what happened during our first stretch is that we completed the stretch and made the shots, but our passing and shots were a little off in the second stretch. And we didn't rebound like we did during the first stretch."

With the 6-foot-3 Graham in the middle, and 6-foot Jenny Okon and 5-foot-10 Melissa Smiley as forwards, the Rockets posed numerous problems inside.

But Head, the all-purpose performer, drove Glenn crazy with her tenacity on the boards, particularly in the first quarter.

SHE GRABBED 18 rebounds, including four important boards down the stretch.

But despite the initial shock, Glenn clawed back into the game and almost pulled it out.

"We've had a tendency to get carried away early, and turnovers have been one of our faults," said Glenn coach Pat Bennett. "But we showed great stamina to make the comeback. What we did was get to the line and do what we do best."

"To make a run like this... I just told my girls they have nothing to be ashamed of."

Guard Theresa Ternes, who helped spark the second-half surge, paced Glenn with 14 points. Graham added 10, while Erica Diette-Spiff contributed eight off the bench.

Handley was the only other Salem player to score in double figures with 11.

"What we wanted to do was keep them from getting the offensive rebounds because that's one of their strengths," Thomann said of Glenn. "And we had to do that ourselves to beat them. We did a super job early."

WITH GLENN two games off the pace in the Western Lakes Division, it may take a miracle now to overhaul Salem. But the Rockets proved they belong on the same floor with the powerful Rocks, at least for one night.

"This should do nothing but good," said Bennett. "It should get us pumped up the next time we play them."

The two teams meet again Thursday, Nov. 6, at Glenn.

"We're looking forward to game No. 19," Thomann said. "Isn't this a lot more exciting than winning 105 to 15 (when Salem beat Farmington Harrison)?"

N'ville free throws spoil Canton's bid

Northville's girls basketball team took over the Western Lakes Western Division lead Thursday with an ugly 37-32 victory over visiting Plymouth Canton.

One statistic tells the tale: Northville made 19 of 32 free throw attempts; Canton made four of nine.

Was Canton a victim of some Mustang home cooking? Despite getting slapped with two technical fouls during the game, Canton coach Rob Neu said not exactly.

"Defensively, we were caught out of position all night," he said. "When you are playing behind your man, you're going to pick up a lot of fouls. We were never able to put the lineup on the floor that we wanted (because of foul trouble)."

Karen Boluch, the team's catalyst and leading scorer, fouled out of the game.

The Chiefs fell behind 21-15 at half and never really threatened to overtake Northville. The final margin of five points was as close as Canton got.

Tricia Ducker and Ann Griffith led Northville with nine and eight points respectively. Tory Barger (eight) and Penny Piggott (six) paced the Chiefs.

Northville leads the Western Division with a 6-2 mark. Canton falls to 5-3, 6-5 overall.

Canton kickers perk up; Salem soars

It may be too late in terms of Western Lakes play, but the Plymouth Canton soccer team has finally hit its stride.

With an impressive 3-1 victory against Livonia Franklin Wednesday, the Chiefs improved their record to 5-7-3 and their unbeaten streak to three games.

"The team is coming along," said Canton coach Mike Morgan. "They are progressing very well."

Franklin's Leon Solowjow scored the lone goal of the first half. But Canton stormed back with three in the second half. Jerry Staszal scored off an assist from Rick Menary. Steve Rudelic, on a nifty backflip kick, scored what proved to be the game winner. He was set up by Pat Frederick's throw-in pass. And Scott Morgan iced it on a free kick.

Canton out shot Franklin 16-7. The win streak was halted Friday by the state's No. 1 team Livonia Churchill, 3-1. Still, the Chiefs continued their strong play.

Churchill scored all three of its goals in the first half — two by soccer

Khaled Zeidan and the other booted in by a Canton defenseman. Canton controlled the second half. The Chiefs outshot Churchill 10-6 and scored the half's lone goal. Steve Rudelic scored it off an assist from Todd Nichols.

Canton has a 5-6-3 record in Western Lakes play, 5-8-3 overall.

SALEM 12, W.L. WESTERN 0: Ted Hanosh led this Western Lakes massacre Wednesday scoring three goals.

Goalsies Don Koontz and Dave O'Malley combined for the shutout.

Plymouth Salem had a tougher time on Tuesday at Farmington, but survived 2-0.

Dennis Reynolds, from Andy Sharma, and Dennis Dameron, from Randy Balconi, scored the Salem goals.

Salem (11-3-1 overall, 9-3-1 in the league) has given up just one goal in its last five games.

Salem retains tennis title

Maybe Stephen King wrote the script. Who knows?

In any case, there was a whole bunch of surprise and intrigue — to say nothing of excellent tennis — at the Western Lakes girls tennis championships Tuesday and Wednesday in Walled Lake.

Plymouth Salem and Livonia Churchill (surprise No. 1) placed in a tie for first place, each with 15 points. Plymouth Canton was third, with 14 points. Northville (13) and North Farmington (10) were also in the chase.

By sharing the conference meet title, and rolling through the dual meet season without a loss, Salem wins the Western Lakes championship outright for the second consecutive year. The Rocks still have to play a make-up dual match with Northville, but that won't affect the overall conference standings.

The Rocks survived the biggest surprise of the meet. Anita Toth, favored to win the No. 1 singles title, was stunned by Walled Lake Central's Karen Brown in the Lakes Division finals Tuesday.

That paved the way for Churchill's Lisane Monforton, who knocked off Brown in the conference finals Wednesday, 6-4, 6-2.

STILL, THE Rocks dominated singles play. Lisa Belsky (No. 2) and Janet Turner (No. 4) were conference champs, while Missy Smith (No. 3) made it to the conference finals. She was beaten by Northville's Leslie Oliver.

Plymouth Canton scored the bulk of its points in doubles. Sandy Bajer and Michelle Khurana won the title at No. 1, while Sherry Bajer and Alissa Huth prevailed at No. 2.

Also for Canton, Pam Penland was runner-up to Turner at No. 4 singles.

Livonia Stevenson, which placed in a tie for sixth place overall with Central, had a champion at No. 3 doubles. Renea Bonser and Jill Cote survived a three-setter with Northville's Laura Namee and Julie Millgard, 4-6, 6-4, 6-4.

Of the seven final matches, three were decided in three sets.

Rocks end pool skid

Plymouth Salem's girls swim team snapped a three-meet losing streak Thursday with a 116-55 Western Lakes win against Livonia Franklin.

The Rocks surrendered just one event to Franklin.

Individual event winners for Salem were: Sarah Andrews in the 200-yard freestyle (2:23.0), Heather Bunch in the 200 individual medley (2:35.9), Dawn Shiek in the 50 free (28.1), Tina Aquino in diving (176.45), Katie Vesnaugh in the 100 freestyle (1:04.6), Erin Olson in the 500 free (6:16.7), Stacia Bannon in the 100 backstroke (1:15.8) and Cindy Elliott in the 100 breaststroke (1:18.2).

Tracy Meszaros, Olson, Shannon Murphy and Elliott won the 200 medley relay in 2:05.4. Meszaros, Bunch, Vesnaugh and Debbi Kelley won the 400 freestyle relay in 4:11.3.

Salem is 2-3 on the season. PLYMOUTH CANTON remained unbeaten Thursday with a 101-70 dumping of Farmington.

Cassie Cummins and Julie Cox won a pair of events each to pace the Chiefs. Cummins won the 200 free (2:05.5) and the 500 free (5:27.9). Cox took both the 200 IM (2:17.7) and 100 breaststroke (1:10.05).

Kellie Daily won diving with 221.25 points. Michelle Stackpole, Cox, Amy Schmitz and Danielle Dickinson teamed to win the 200 medley relay (2:03.9).

Canton is 5-0. For Farmington (2-2), Katie Hohl won both the 50 free (27.89) and 100 free (1:01.45). Lauren Weary won the 100 butterfly (1:03.05) and 100 backstroke (1:07.45).

couple of occasions in the first half. Tony Boucher intercepted a Murray pass early in the first quarter, which put Canton on the Harrison 31. The Hawks defense stood tough, making the Chiefs go for a 41-yard field goal which Mike Gray missed.

Canton worked to get inside the Harrison 15 late in second quarter, thanks to a fake field goal that quarterback Steve Genyk raced six yards for the first down. But the Hawks' stopped that drive with an interception by Chad Burgess.

HARRISON, 5-1 overall, 4-1 WLLA, took a kick at three points with a 45-yard field goal attempt in the third quarter. Mark Calvaruso's kick went to the left.

On the Hawks' next possession, they scored.

Canton switched quarterbacks in the second half as Neil Hubert replaced Genyk. Hubert, who completed two passes for 54 yards and ran 24, showed considerable poise.

"By switching quarterbacks, we were hoping to get something going," Khoenle said. "Unfortunately it didn't work."

Wicker Workers offers Bavarian buffet, band

By Ethel Simmons
staff writer

Oktoberfest lasts all month at the Wicker Works in the Troy Hilton, where a Bavarian Buffet is offered from 6-10 p.m. each Tuesday during October.

Chef John Rabenowitz, who has worked in 17 countries and 15 states, knows his way around food around the world. In fact, he is planning to do a series of regional buffets, including a Hawaiian luau, Cajun and Midwestern dinners, and meals emphasizing countries.

The Wicker Works regularly has a lavish salad bar which a spinach salad with bacon dressing and cold cuts of bloodwurst and liverwurst as German specialties during the Oktoberfest.

Bratwurst and roast pork loin are featured hot dishes, with a selection of such accompaniments as spaetzle, German potato salad and braised red cabbage with apples.

FOR DESSERT, there's German chocolate brownies, Black Forest cake, apple strudel and German chocolate cake.

One recent evening, many of the German dishes were sampled, along with Piesporter and Liebfraumilch wines. Adding to the pleasure of the well-prepared meal was the live entertainment, provided by a German band in lederhosen, the Happy Wanderers.

The trio of musicians, on trumpet, accordion and bass, were more than willing to play requests. They enthusiastically performed German songs and other favorites, as they visited diners' tables.

The Oktoberfest Bavarian Buffet is priced at $10.95 for adults, $9.95 for seniors, and $7.95 for children 4-12.

Many participants have been involved with the gala for each of its 10 years, including Curly's in Rochester, the Double Eagle in Troy, Bongiorno Bakery in Rochester, Charley's Crab in Troy, the Kingsley Inn in Bloomfield Hills and Neale's on the Hill in Rochester.

Benefactors tickets are $100 each, patron tickets $75. Regular Twenty-five items have been introduced on two menus, for regular dining and for brunch, at Bennigan's casual restaurants including one in Bloomfield Township.

Chicken will be featured in several of the new entrees on the regular menu, including a Sicilian sandwich, a taco salad and a burrito. New in the seafood category are three shrimp appetizers and one shrimp entree and snow scrod.

On the brunch menu, there are 12 new offerings. Waffles, both Belgian and Cajun, and crepes, Florentine and apple, have been added. Bennigan's quesadillas and potato skins are being prepared in versions especially for brunch.

The restaurant upstairs in the Boydel Building at the edge of Greektown is Kefallinos' most elaborate. It has a large bar and the menu offers fine dining specializing in Greek dishes.

Some Americanized dishes available are stuffed mushrooms, marinated tenderloin tips and Niki's gourmet pizzas.

Dennis Kefallinos' mother is head chef, preparing some of her private family recipes.

He's a hero to admire

Australian superstar Paul Hogan broke into show business by volunteering to appear as a tap-dancing knife-thrower and wound up satirizing the entire show.

That doesn't sound like much, but when you've got Paul Hogan's talent and charm, the only surprise is that we haven't seen him sooner.

From his inauspicious start, Hogan has become Australia's leading film and television star, with "Crocodile Dundee" (PG-13) now atop the ratings as the all-time, No. 1 box-office attraction Down Under.

Although the film is quite predictable, with a relatively simple story, it's so well-done and Hogan is so much fun to watch that "Crocodile Dundee" should soon top the U.S. charts as well.

SUE CHARLTON (Linda Kozlowski) is a New York reporter fascinated by the story of "Crocodile Dundee" (Hogan), an Australian safari guide whose leg was almost torn off by a crocodile. Somehow this super-hero drags himself back to the small outback station, Walkabout Creek, where he and his partner, Wally Reilly (John Meillon), are headquartered.

Naturally, Sue manages to convince her editor, Richard Mason (Mark Blum), to send her to the Australian outback to interview Dundee even though Richard would prefer she come home so they can be married. Her father, Sam Charlton (Michael Lombard), the millionaire who owns the newspaper, also wants her to come home and marry Richard.

Of course, Sue gets her way and travels to Walkabout Creek to interview Dundee. Once there she goes off on safari with him and has some interesting adventures. I bet you think she's falling in love with him and brings him back to New York to see how he can fare in a vastly different environment.

Right you are and back they come — the reporter, daughter of a millionaire newspaper magnate, and the man of the outback who kills poisonous snakes with his bare hands and stares down wild beasts.

Well, that's not such an inventive scenario, but Hogan's great appeal and relaxed style, plus his unassuming personality and low-key delivery, add up to a film that works very well. This is one of the more entertaining movies to come along in quite some time.

HOGAN WROTE the story and co-authored the screenplay with Ken Shadie and John Cornell. Clearly the stamp of his personality is on this production, and it's a very neat one at that.

Dundee can charm the anger out of killer watchdogs — and he does. Along the way, he makes friends with just about everyone in New York. In the Australian outback, people are few and far between. To see someone else is a great treat. Naturally, you're going to be friendly. That attitude brings some pretty hilarious complications to Dundee's trip to the Big Apple.

Paul Hogan plays "Crocodile Dundee" with broad appeal. Everyone likes a nice guy with good timing, great delivery and a terrific sense of humor.

But even more important, Hogan — and Dundee — project a very fine appreciation of other human beings. Watch the charts as Dundee climbs.

BLAKE EDWARDS' latest, "That's Life" (PG-13), is a more thoughtful comedy starring Jack Lemmon and Mrs. Edwards, Julie Andrews. That's just the start of what turns out to be a family affair with Lemmon's son, Chris, playing Lemmon's on-screen son, while Edwards' daughter, Jennifer, and Andrews' daughter, Emma Walton, play Chris' siblings. Felicia Farr, the real-life Mrs. Lemmon, also appears.

After a while it gets difficult to figure out what's real and what's autobiographically with Edwards'

Paul Hogan plays the rugged, offbeat "Crocodile" Dundee. Australian star Hogan wrote the story and co-authored the screenplay for the film that has become No. 1 at the box office Down Under. "Crocodile Dundee" looks like a winner for moviegoers in the United States, too.

the movies

own late-midlife crisis. He wrote the script with his analyst, Milton Wexler.

Our on-screen hero, Lemmon, is a successful but unfulfilled architect who wants to build great, artistic monuments instead of supermarkets that support him in the style any one of us would like to try.

"That's Life" opens as the clan gathers for Dad's 60th birthday party, and Lemmon is pretty effective with his by-now-familiar acerbic and slightly twitchy style. But his midlife crisis is not the only problem in the family.

All three children have emotional difficulties and his wife, Andrews, spends the weekend with bemused nervousness awaiting her biopsy report. "They think they've got trouble," she seems to say with her smile and her solicitude for their problems.

THE POTENTIAL for maudlin melodrama is never out of sight, but the film's high-style images, good pacing and Sally Kellerman's constant, comic intrusions as a kooky neighbor save the day.

If you're young and working hard, you may wonder why these very successful, well-off people have so much grief. If you're somewhere in the mid-years, you'll know why and appreciate what "That's Life" has to say about the downside of things. It says it very well.

OLD-FASHIONED

Classics with a New Twist

Apple pie, gingerbread, sugar cookies... are just a few of America's time-honored dessert classics. The age of high-tech may be upon us, but when it comes to desserts, old-fashioned classics have never gone out of style. In fact, they're more popular than ever.

Today's cook is taking a fresh look through grandmother's recipes and rediscovering the joys of traditional American classics. After all, who could ever resist the tantalizing aroma of a freshly baked apple pie cooling on a windowsill?

More than a few classics, it turns out, revolve around the apple. The apple says "all-American" and its crisp, fresh taste gives that pleasant tartness and piquancy to many favorite desserts.

Now that the invigorating crispness of autumn is back in the air, it's an especially good time to try whipping up some homey, old-fashioned apple classics. And you can maximize their flavor appeal by giving them a uniquely 80's update: with Apple Barrel Schnapps.

Blended from the juices of nine varieties of apples, Apple Barrel Schnapps adds new zest to apple cookery.

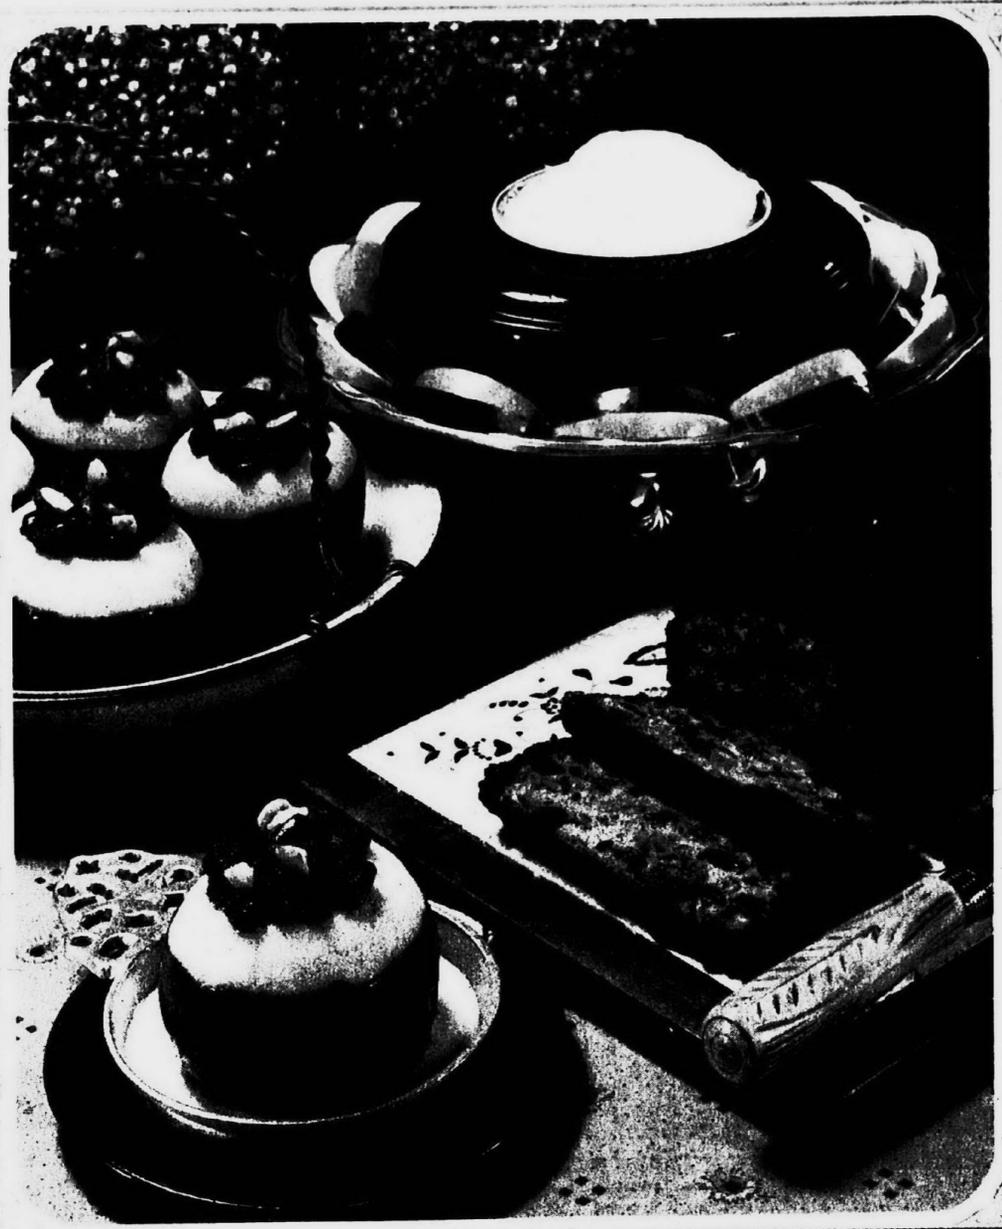

Americans have been enjoying the traditional baked apple since colonial times. Baked Apples with Tippy Custard Sauce brings a whole new dimension to this timeless classic.

Apple Barrel Fruitcake is a new version of the holiday favorite. Instead of rum or brandy, the fruitcake is laced with the apple schnapps.

Spirited Apple Jelly is a delicious and eye-appealing gelatin dessert with a spicy cinnamon-apple taste, topped off by a dollop of schnapps-laced whipped cream.

And when the nippy air sends your guests flocking hearthside, a steaming bowl or pitcher containing Farmer's Bishop will be a much appreciated treat. Hot apple cider, brandy, Apple Barrel Schnapps and a medley of spices will chase away the chills in a flash.

Old-fashioned classics with an intriguing new twist, these recipes are certain to find their own niche in America's roster of favorite desserts.

In large bowl, combine first 8 ingredients.

Cover and refrigerate at least 2 hours to blend flavors, stirring occasionally.

Toss with spinach. Makes 5 cups.

Keeping it safe in cans

Improper storage of commercially canned foods may result in loss of quality in the food as well as food spoilage.

Shelf life of canned foods is reduced when storage temperatures are high, so canned foods should be stored in a cool, dry place. Avoid storage near hot pipes, radiators and stoves. Temperatures above 70 degrees can cause undesirable changes in the flavor, texture, color and nutritive value of canned foods.

Also, harmless bacteria that survive the canning process will grow when storage temperatures are high.

As gas forms, cans swell and the contents may leak. This is a hazard to food safety because harmful bacteria can enter the can through the leak.

Cans should be inspected before use. Discard any that are bulging or leaking. Cans that are badly dented along the seam may be more prone to leak. A regular turnover of stored cans is recommended. For best quality, use canned foods within a year. Marking the purchase date on each can makes it easier to use older products first.

YOU CAN NOT ESCAPE THE EFFECT OF V.S.

V.S. stands for Vertebral Subluxation and V.S. kills more people than anything else in the world. Almost every disease starts with a V.S. which, if untreated, ends in death.

THIS IS WHAT V.S. IS;

The human spine has 24 movable bones called vertebrae. They are stacked on top of one another and collectively are called the spinal column. A vertebral subluxation is one or more of those vertebrae out of their normal position. Bumps, falls, lifting, pushing, slipping and auto accidents are just a few of the ways they get out of their normal positions.

THIS IS WHAT V.S. DOES;

Through the center of each vertebra runs the spinal cord. It is made of literally millions of nerve fibers running from the brain down to the spine and then exiting between the vertebrae. From there the nerves disperse into all tissues, organs and cells of the body. When a vertebra is subluxated, it distorts the opening where the nerves leave the cord. That distortion causes pressure on the nerves. This blocks and alters brain impulses into the tissue, organs and cells.

THIS IS WHAT V.S. CAUSES;

When tissues, organs or cells are deprived of brain impulses, they slowly begin to function abnormally. This leads to disfunction and disfunction is always the forerunner of disease, sickness, weakness and hundreds of symptoms. Symptoms such as: Allergies, Bronchitis, Gall Bladder Disorders, High Blood Pressure, Kidney Disorders, Liver Disorders, Menstrual Disorders, Sinusitis, Stomach Disorders.

THIS IS WHAT CAN BE DONE ABOUT V.S.;

Actually there are three choices, one - do nothing, letting the condition get worse until you succumb; two - take drugs which alleviate the pain, stimulate or depress the symptoms, but bring no real healing, or three - remove the original cause in this process of disease and sickness, that being the vertebral subluxation. They are removed in many ways, sometimes by bed rest, sometimes by changing work habits but mostly by chiropractic spinal adjustment. If you're still sick and full of symptoms, you need a spinal examination to see if you're subluxated and if you are, maybe you should have it corrected. Spinal adjustments aren't traumatic. We give them to children. There are many ways to adjust spines. See the pictures below.

THERE IS NO ESCAPING THE EFFECT OF A VERTEBRAL SUBLUXATION. THERE IS HOWEVER, THE OPPORTUNITY TO HAVE THE SUBLUXATION REMOVED. THE OPPORTUNITY IS NOW YOURS. YOU MAY WANT TO CALL 459-0200.

This year, for the second year in a row, the cards are being printed in full color.

Pictured here, however, are only a handful of the assortment available.

The rest will be placed in scrapbooks that will be in the five Observer & Eccentric offices, beginning Monday. The scrapbooks will be available for viewing by the public during business hours of 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday.

The offices with scrapbooks will be: Livonia, 36251 Schoolcraft; Birmingham, 1225 Bowers; Rochester, 410 Main; Farmington, 33202 Grand River; and Plymouth, 489 S. Main.

SOME OF THE MOST IMPORTANT COMPANIES IN THE WORLD HELP SUPPORT THE UNITED FOUNDATION.

ALTHOUGH THEY MAY NOT BE THE BIGGEST.

Some of the most important companies in the world are headquartered in metropolitan Detroit.

Ciaramitaro Brothers, for example. Their employees have helped support the United Foundation Torch Drive for many years.

Of course, we receive generous support from some of the world's bigger companies, too. Like Ford, General Motors, Chrysler and others. But the simple fact is, we could never provide the money to fund 143 agencies without the support of small businesses throughout the tri-county area.

To the thousands who need Torch Drive services, companies like Ciaramitaro Brothers are truly the most important in the world.
